16 For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. According to Alamoth. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. 2 Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth changes, though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas; 3 though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains tremble with their swelling. (Selah) 4 There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad, the holy place of the tents of the Most High. 5 God is within her. She shall not be moved. God will help her at dawn. 6 The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved. He lifted his voice and the earth melted. 7 Yahweh of Armies is with us. The God of Jacob is our refuge. (Selah) 8 Come, see Yahweh's works, what desolations he has made in the earth. 9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth. He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear. He burns the chariots in the fire. 10 "Be still, and know that I am God, I will be exalted among the nations. I will be exalted in the earth." 11 refuge. (Selah)

17 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah. Oh clap your hands, all you nations. Shout to God with the voice of triumph! 2 For Yahweh Most High is awesome. He is a great King over all the earth. 3 He subdues nations under us, and peoples under our feet. 4 He chooses our inheritance for us, the glory of Jacob whom he loved. (Selah) 5 God has gone up with a shout, Yahweh with the sound of a trumpet. 6 Sing praises to God! Sing praises! Sing praises to our King! Sing praises! 7 For God is the King of all the earth. Sing praises with understanding. 8 God reigns over the nations. God sits on his holy throne. 9 The princes of

of gladness above your fellows. 8 All your garments the peoples are gathered together, the people of the smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia. Out of ivory palaces God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God. He is greatly exalted!

> 48 A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah. Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised, in the city of our God, in his holy mountain. 2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, on the north sides, the city of the great King. 3 God has shown himself in her citadels as a refuge. 4 For, behold, the kings assembled themselves, they passed by together. 5 They saw it, then they were amazed. They were dismayed. They hurried away. 6 Trembling took hold of them there, pain, as of a woman in travail. 7 With the east wind, you break the ships of Tarshish. 8 As we have heard, so we have seen, in the city of Yahweh of Armies, in the city of our God. God will establish it forever. (Selah) 9 We have thought about your loving kindness, God, in the middle of your temple. 10 As is your name, God, so is your praise to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of righteousness. 11 Let Mount Zion be glad! Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of your judgments. 12 Walk about Zion, and go around her. Number its towers. 13 Notice her bulwarks. Consider her palaces, that you may tell it to the next generation. 14 For this God is our God forever and ever. He will be our guide even to death.

19 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah. Hear this, all you peoples. Listen, all you inhabitants of the world, 2 both low and high, rich and poor together. 3 My mouth will speak words of wisdom. My heart will utter understanding. 4 I will incline my ear to a proverb. I will solve my riddle on the harp. 5 Why should I fear in the days of evil, when iniquity at my heels surrounds me? 6 Those who trust in their wealth, and boast in the multitude of their riches— 7 none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give God a ransom for him. 8 For the redemption of their life Yahweh of Armies is with us. The God of Jacob is our is costly, no payment is ever enough, 9 that he should live on forever, that he should not see corruption. 10 For he sees that wise men die; likewise the fool and the senseless perish, and leave their wealth to others. 11 Their inward thought is that their houses will endure forever, and their dwelling places to all generations. They name their lands after themselves. 12 But man, despite his riches, doesn't endure. He is like the animals that perish. 13 This is the destiny of those who are foolish, and of those who approve their sayings. (Selah) 14 They are appointed as a flock for Sheol. Death shall be their shepherd. The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning. Their beauty shall decay in Sheol, far from their mansion. (Sheol h7585) 15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me. (Selah) (Sheol h7585) 16 Don't be afraid 3 For I know my transgressions. My sin is constantly when a man is made rich, when the glory of his house before me. 4 Against you, and you only, I have sinned, is increased; 17 for when he dies he will carry nothing and done that which is evil in your sight, so you may away. His glory won't descend after him. 18 Though be proved right when you speak, and justified when while he lived he blessed his soul— and men praise you you judge. 5 Behold, I was born in iniquity. My mother when you do well for yourself— 19 he shall go to the conceived me in sin. 6 Behold, you desire truth in the generation of his fathers. They shall never see the light. inward parts. You teach me wisdom in the inmost place. 20 A man who has riches without understanding, is like 7 Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean. Wash me, the animals that perish.

50 A Psalm by Asaph. The Mighty One, God, Yahweh. speaks, and calls the earth from sunrise to sunset. 2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines out. 3 Our God comes, and does not keep silent. A fire devours before him. It is very stormy around him. 4 He calls to the heavens above, to the earth, that he may judge his people: 5 "Gather my saints together to me, those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice." 6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge. (Selah) 7 "Hear, my people, and I will speak. Israel, I will testify against you. I am God, your God. 8 I don't rebuke you for your sacrifices. Your burnt offerings are continually before me. 9 I have no need for a bull from your stall, nor male goats from your pens. 10 For every animal of the forest is mine, and the livestock on a thousand hills. 11 I know all the birds of the mountains. The wild animals of the field are mine. 12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world is mine, and all that is in it. 13 Will I eat the meat of bulls, or drink the blood of goats? 14 Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving. Pay your vows to the Most High. 15 Call on me in the day of trouble. I will deliver you, and you will honor me." 16 But to the wicked God says, "What right do you have to declare my statutes, that you have taken my covenant on your lips, 17 since you hate instruction, and throw my words behind you? 18 When you saw a thief, you consented with him, and have participated with adulterers. 19 "You give your mouth to evil. Your tongue frames deceit. 20 You sit and speak against your brother. You slander your own mother's son. 21 You have done these things, and I kept silent. You thought that I was just like you. I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes. 22 "Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you into pieces, and there be no one to deliver. 23 Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies me, and prepares his way so that I will show God's salvation to him."

51 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba. Have mercy on me, God, according to your loving kindness. According to the multitude of your

and I will be whiter than snow. 8 Let me hear joy and gladness, that the bones which you have broken may rejoice. 9 Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all of my iniquities. 10 Create in me a clean heart, O God. Renew a right spirit within me. 11 Don't throw me from your presence, and don't take your Holy Spirit from me. 12 Restore to me the joy of your salvation. Uphold me with a willing spirit. 13 Then I will teach transgressors your ways. Sinners will be converted to you. 14 Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God, the God of my salvation. My tongue will sing aloud of your righteousness. 15 Lord, open my lips. My mouth will declare your praise. 16 For you don't delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it. You have no pleasure in burnt offering. 17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. O God, you will not despise a broken and contrite heart. 18 Do well in your good pleasure to Zion. Build the walls of Jerusalem. 19 Then you will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings. Then they will offer bulls on your altar.

52 For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, "David has come to Ahimelech's house." Why do you boast of mischief, mighty man? God's loving kindness endures continually. 2 Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully. 3 You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking the truth. (Selah) 4 You love all devouring words, you deceitful tongue. 5 God will likewise destroy you forever. He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent, and root you out of the land of the living. (Selah) 6 The righteous also will see it, and fear, and laugh at him, saying, 7 "Behold, this is the man who didn't make God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness." 8 But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's house. I trust in God's loving kindness forever and ever. 9 I will give you thanks forever, because you have done it. I will hope in your name, for it is good, in the presence of your saints.

53 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Mahalath." A contemplation by David. The fool has said in his tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. 2 Wash me heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, and have thoroughly from my iniquity. Cleanse me from my sin. done abominable iniquity. There is no one who does

They (Sheol h7585) 16 As for me, I will call on God. Yahweh will knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, my soul in peace from the battle that was against me, where no fear was, for God has scattered the bones of is enthroned forever, will hear and answer them. (Selah) shame, because God has rejected them. 6 Oh that the hands against his friends. He has violated his covenant. brings back his people from captivity, then Jacob shall war. His words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

54 For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Isn't David hiding himself among us?" Save me, God, by your name. Vindicate me in your might. 2 Hear my prayer, God. Listen to the words of my mouth. 3 For strangers have risen up against me. Violent men have sought after my soul. They haven't set God before them. (Selah) 4 Behold, God is my helper. The Lord is the one who sustains my soul. 5 He will repay the evil to my enemies. Destroy them in your truth. 6 With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you. I will give thanks to your name, Yahweh, for it is good. 7 For he has delivered me out of all trouble. My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

55 For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David. Listen to my prayer, God. Don't hide yourself from my supplication. 2 Attend to me, and answer me. I am restless in my complaint, and moan 3 because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked. For they bring suffering on me. In anger they hold a grudge against me. 4 My heart is severely pained within me. The terrors of death have fallen on me. 5 Fearfulness and trembling have come on me. Horror has overwhelmed me. 6 I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove! Then I would fly away, and be at rest. 7 Behold, then I would wander far off, I would lodge in the wilderness." (Selah) 8 "I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm." 9 Confuse them, Lord, and confound their language, for I have seen violence and strife in the city. 10 Day and night they prowl around on its walls. Malice and abuse are also within her. 11 Destructive forces are within her. Threats and lies don't depart from her streets. 12 For it was not an enemy who insulted me, then I could have endured it. Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me, then I would have hidden myself from him. 13 But it was you, a man like me, my companion, and my familiar friend. 14 We took sweet fellowship together. We walked in God's house with company. 15 Let death

There is no one who does save me. 17 Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out good, no, not one. 4 Have the workers of iniquity no in distress. He will hear my voice. 18 He has redeemed and don't call on God? 5 There they were in great fear. although there are many who oppose me. 19 God, who him who encamps against you. You have put them to They never change and don't fear God. 20 He raises his salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When God 21 His mouth was smooth as butter, but his heart was swords. 22 Cast your burden on Yahweh and he will sustain you. He will never allow the righteous to be moved. 23 But you, God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction. Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days, but I will trust in you.

> 56 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A poem by David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath. Be merciful to me, God, for man wants to swallow me up. All day long, he attacks and oppresses me. 2 My enemies want to swallow me up all day long, for they are many who fight proudly against me. 3 When I am afraid, I will put my trust in you. 4 In God, I praise his word. In God, I put my trust. I will not be afraid. What can flesh do to me? 5 All day long they twist my words. All their thoughts are against me for evil. 6 They conspire and lurk, watching my steps. They are eager to take my life. 7 Shall they escape by iniquity? In anger cast down the peoples, God. 8 You count my wanderings. You put my tears into your container. Aren't they in your book? 9 Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call. I know this: that God is for me. 10 In God, I will praise his word. In Yahweh, I will praise his word. 11 I have put my trust in God. I will not be afraid. What can man do to me? 12 Your vows are on me, God. I will give thank offerings to you. 13 For you have delivered my soul from death, and prevented my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

> 57 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave. Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for my soul takes refuge in you. Yes, in the shadow of your wings, I will take refuge, until disaster has passed. 2 I cry out to God Most High, to God who accomplishes my requests for me. 3 He will send from heaven, and save me, he rebukes the one who is pursuing me. (Selah) God will send out his loving kindness and his truth. 4 My soul is among lions. I lie among those who are set on fire, even the sons of men. whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword. 5 Be exalted. God, above the heavens! My God will go before me with his loving kindness. God Let your glory be above all the earth! 6 They have will let me look at my enemies in triumph. 11 Don't kill prepared a net for my steps. My soul is bowed down. them, or my people may forget. Scatter them by your They dig a pit before me. They fall into the middle of it power, and bring them down, Lord our shield. 12 For the themselves. (Selah) 7 My heart is steadfast, God. My sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, let them heart is steadfast. I will sing, yes, I will sing praises. 8 be caught in their pride, for the curses and lies which Wake up, my glory! Wake up, lute and harp! I will wake they utter. 13 Consume them in wrath. Consume them, up the dawn. 9 I will give thanks to you, Lord, among the and they will be no more. Let them know that God rules peoples. I will sing praises to you among the nations. 10 in Jacob, to the ends of the earth. (Selah) 14 At evening For your great loving kindness reaches to the heavens, let them return. Let them howl like a dog, and go around and your truth to the skies. 11 Be exalted, God, above the city. 15 They shall wander up and down for food, the heavens. Let your glory be over all the earth.

52 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David. Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent ones? Do you judge blamelessly, you sons of men? 2 No, in your heart you plot injustice. You measure out the violence of your hands in the earth. 3 The wicked go astray from the womb. They are wayward as soon as they are born, speaking lies. 4 Their poison is like the poison of a snake, like a deaf cobra that stops its ear, 5 which doesn't listen to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful the charmer may be. 6 Break their teeth, God, in their mouth. Break out the great teeth of the young lions, Yahweh. 7 Let them vanish like water that flows away. When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt. 8 Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away, like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun. 9 Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns, he will sweep away the green and the burning alike. 10 The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance. He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked, 11 so that men shall say, "Most certainly there is a reward for the righteous. Most certainly there is a God who judges the earth."

59 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him. Deliver me from my enemies, my God. Set me on high from those who rise up against me. 2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity. Save me from the bloodthirsty men. 3 For, behold, they lie in wait for my soul. The mighty gather themselves together against me, not for my disobedience, nor for my sin, Yahweh. 4 I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me. Rise up, behold, and help me! 5 You, Yahweh God of Armies, the God of Israel, rouse yourself to punish the nations. Show no mercy to the wicked traitors. (Selah) 6 They return at evening, howling like dogs, and prowl around the city. 7 Behold, they spew with their mouth. Swords are in their lips, "For", they say, "who hears us?" 8 But you, Yahweh, laugh at them. You scoff at all the nations. 9 Oh, my Strength, I watch for you, for God is my high tower. 10 and wait all night if they aren't satisfied. 16 But I will sing of your strength. Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness in the morning. For you have been my high tower, a refuge in the day of my distress. 17 To you, my strength, I will sing praises. For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

60 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lily of the Covenant." A teaching poem by David, when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt. God, you have rejected us. You have broken us down. You have been angry. Restore us, again. 2 You have made the land tremble. You have torn it. Mend its fractures, for it quakes. 3 You have shown your people hard things. You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger. 4 You have given a banner to those who fear you, that it may be displayed because of the truth. (Selah) 5 So that your beloved may be delivered, save with your right hand, and answer us. 6 God has spoken from his sanctuary: "I will triumph. I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth. 7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine. Ephraim also is the defense of my head. Judah is my scepter. 8 Moab is my wash basin. I will throw my sandal on Edom. I shout in triumph over Philistia." 9 Who will bring me into the strong city? Who has led me to Edom? 10 Haven't you, God, rejected us? You don't go out with our armies, God. 11 Give us help against the adversary, for the help of man is vain. 12 Through God we will do valiantly, for it is he who will tread down our adversaries.

61 For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument. By David. Hear my cry, God. Listen to my prayer. 2 From the end of the earth, I will call to you when my heart is overwhelmed. Lead me to the rock that is higher than I. 3 For you have been a refuge for me, a strong tower from the enemy. 4 I will dwell in your tent forever. I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings. (Selah) 5 For you, God, have heard my vows. You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name. 6 You will prolong the king's life. His years will be for generations. 7 He shall be enthroned in God's presence men from ambushes. They shoot at him suddenly and forever. Appoint your loving kindness and truth, that fearlessly. 5 They encourage themselves in evil plans. they may preserve him. 8 So I will sing praise to your They talk about laying snares secretly. They say, "Who name forever, that I may fulfill my vows daily.

62 For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm by David. My soul rests in God alone. My salvation is from him. 2 He alone is my rock, my salvation, and my fortress. I will never be greatly shaken. 3 How long will you assault a man? Would all of you throw him down, like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence? 4 They fully intend to throw him down from his lofty place. They delight in lies. They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. (Selah) 5 My soul, wait in silence for God alone, for my expectation is from him. 6 He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress. I will not be rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. 8 Trust in him. God is a refuge for us. (Selah) 9 Surely men of low every man according to his work.

63 A Psalm by David, when he was in the desert of Judah. God, you are my God. I will earnestly seek you. My soul thirsts for you. My flesh longs for you, in a dry and weary land, where there is no water. 2 So I have seen you in the sanctuary, watching your power and your glory. 3 Because your loving kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise you. 4 So I will bless you while I live. I will lift up my hands in your name. 5 My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food. My mouth shall praise you with joyful lips, 6 when I remember you on my bed, and think about you in the night watches. 7 For you have been my help. I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings. 8 My soul stays close to you. Your right hand holds me up. 9 But those who seek my soul to destroy it shall go into the lower parts of the earth. 10 They shall be given over to the power of the sword. They shall be jackal food. 11 But the king shall rejoice in God. Everyone who swears by him will praise him, for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.

64 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. Hear my voice, God, in my complaint. Preserve my life from fear of the enemy. 2 Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, from the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil; 3 who sharpen their tongue like a sword, and aim their arrows, deadly words, 4 to shoot innocent will see them?" 6 They plot injustice, saying, "We have made a perfect plan!" Surely man's mind and heart are cunning. 7 But God will shoot at them. They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow. 8 Their own tongues shall ruin them. All who see them will shake their heads. 9 All mankind shall be afraid. They shall declare the work of God, and shall wisely ponder what he has done. 10 The righteous shall be glad in Yahweh, and shall take refuge in him. All the upright in heart shall praise him!

65 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song. Praise waits for you, God, in Zion. Vows shaken. 7 My salvation and my honor is with God. The shall be performed to you. 2 You who hear prayer, all men will come to you. 3 Sins overwhelmed me, but you him at all times, you people. Pour out your heart before atoned for our transgressions. 4 Blessed is the one whom you choose and cause to come near, that he may degree are just a breath, and men of high degree are a live in your courts. We will be filled with the goodness of lie. In the balances they will go up. They are together your house, your holy temple. 5 By awesome deeds of lighter than a breath. 10 Don't trust in oppression. Don't righteousness, you answer us, God of our salvation. You become vain in robbery. If riches increase, don't set who are the hope of all the ends of the earth, of those vour heart on them. 11 God has spoken once; twice I who are far away on the sea. 6 By your power, you form have heard this, that power belongs to God. 12 Also the mountains, having armed yourself with strength. to you, Lord, belongs loving kindness, for you reward 7 You still the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations. 8 They also who dwell in faraway places are afraid at your wonders. You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy. 9 You visit the earth, and water it. You greatly enrich it. The river of God is full of water. You provide them grain, for so you have ordained it. 10 You drench its furrows. You level its ridges. You soften it with showers. You bless it with a crop. 11 You crown the year with your bounty. Your carts overflow with abundance. 12 The wilderness grasslands overflow. The hills are clothed with gladness. 13 The pastures are covered with flocks. The valleys also are clothed with grain. They shout for joy! They also sing.

> 66 For the Chief Musician. A song. A Psalm. Make a joyful shout to God, all the earth! 2 Sing to the glory of his name! Offer glory and praise! 3 Tell God, "How awesome are your deeds! Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit themselves to vou. 4 All the earth will worship you, and will sing to you; they will sing to your name." (Selah) 5 Come, and see God's deeds— awesome work on behalf of the children of men. 6 He turned the sea into dry land. They went through the river on foot. There, we rejoiced in him. 7 He rules by his might forever. His eyes watch the nations. Don't let the rebellious rise up against him. (Selah) 8 Praise our God, you peoples! Make the sound nor his loving kindness from me.

67 For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song. May God be merciful to us, bless us, and cause his face to shine on us. (Selah) 2 That your way may be known on earth, and your salvation among all nations, 3 let the peoples praise you, God. Let all the peoples praise you. 4 Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations on earth. (Selah) 5 Let the peoples praise you, God. Let all the peoples praise you. 6 The earth has yielded its increase. God, even our own God, will bless us. 7 God will bless us. All the ends of the earth shall fear him.

 $\mathbf{68}$ For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song. Let God arise! Let his enemies be scattered! Let them who hate him also flee before him. 2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away. As wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God. 3 But let the righteous be glad. Let them rejoice before God. Yes, let them rejoice with gladness. 4 Sing to God! Sing praises to his name! Extol him who rides on the clouds: to Yah, his name! Rejoice before him! 5 A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows, is God in his holy habitation. 6 God sets the lonely in families. To Yahweh, the Lord, belongs escape from death. 21 But God will strike through the head of his enemies, the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his quiltiness. 22 The Lord said, "I will bring you again from Bashan, I will bring you again from the depths of the sea, 23 that you may crush them, dipping your foot in blood, that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies." 24 They have seen your processions, God, even the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary. 25 The singers went before, the minstrels followed after, among the ladies playing with tambourines, 26 "Bless God in the congregations, even the Lord in the assembly of Israel!" 27 There is little Benjamin, their ruler, the princes of Judah, their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali. 28 Your God has commanded your strength. Strengthen, God, that which you have done for us. 29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem, kings shall bring presents to you. 30 Rebuke the wild animal of the reeds, the multitude of the bulls with the calves of the peoples. Trample under foot the bars of silver. Scatter the nations who delight in war. 31 Princes shall come out of Egypt. Ethiopia shall hurry to stretch out her hands to God. 32 Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth! Sing praises to the Lord— (Selah) 33 to him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old: behold, he utters his voice, a mighty voice. 34 Ascribe strength to God! His excellency is over Israel, his strength is in the skies. 35 You are awesome, God, in your sanctuaries. The God of Israel gives strength and power to his people. Praise be to God!

Don't let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me, God of Israel. 7 Because for your sake, I have borne reproach. Shame has covered my face. 8 I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my mother's children. 9 For the zeal of your house consumes me. The reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me. 10 When I wept and I fasted, that was to my reproach. 11 When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them. 12 Those who sit in the gate talk about me. I am the song of the drunkards. 13 But as for me, my prayer is to you, Yahweh, in an acceptable time. God, in the abundance of your loving kindness, answer me in the truth of your salvation. 14 Deliver me out of the mire, and don't let me sink. Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters. 15 Don't let the flood waters overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up. Don't let the pit shut its mouth on me. 16 Answer me, Yahweh, for your loving kindness is good. According to the multitude of your tender mercies, turn to me. 17 Don't hide your face from your servant, for I am in distress. Answer me speedily! 18 Draw near to my soul and redeem it. Ransom me because of my enemies. 19 You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor. My adversaries are all before you. 20 Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness. I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; for comforters, but I found none. 21 They also gave me poison for my food. In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink. 22 Let their table before them become a snare. May it become a retribution and a trap. 23 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see. Let their backs be continually bent. 24 Pour out your indignation on them. Let the fierceness of your anger overtake them. 25 Let their habitation be desolate. Let no one dwell in their tents. 26 For they persecute him whom you have wounded. They tell of the sorrow of those whom you have hurt. 27 Charge them with crime upon crime. Don't let them come into your righteousness. 28 Let them be blotted out of the book of life, and not be written with the righteous. 29 But I am in pain and distress. Let your salvation, God, protect me. 30 I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. 31 It will please Yahweh better than an ox, or a bull that has horns and hoofs. 32 The humble have

Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace. 3 Let them be turned because of their shame who say, "Aha! Aha!" 4 Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you. Let those who love your salvation continually say, "Let God be exalted!" 5 But I am poor and needy. Come to me guickly, God. You are my help and my deliverer. Yahweh, don't delay.

71 In you, Yahweh, I take refuge. Never let me be disappointed. 2 Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue me. Turn your ear to me, and save me. 3 Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go. Give the command to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress. 4 Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. 5 For you are my hope, Lord Yahweh, my confidence from my youth. 6 I have relied on you from the womb. You are he who took me out of my mother's womb. I will always praise you. 7 I am a marvel to many, but you are my strong refuge. 8 My mouth shall be filled with your praise, with your honor all day long. 9 Don't reject me in my old age. Don't forsake me when my strength fails. 10 For my enemies talk about me. Those who watch for my soul conspire together, 11 saying, "God has forsaken him. Pursue and take him, for no one will rescue him." 12 God, don't be far from me. My God, hurry to help me. 13 Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed. Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn who want to harm me. 14 But I will always hope. and will add to all of your praise. 15 My mouth will tell about your righteousness, and of your salvation all day, though I don't know its full measure. 16 I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord Yahweh. I will make mention of your righteousness, even of yours alone. 17 God, you have taught me from my youth. Until now, I have declared your wondrous works. 18 Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired, God, don't forsake me, until I have declared your strength to the next generation, your might to everyone who is to come. 19 God, your righteousness also reaches to the heavens. You have done great things. God, who is like you? 20 You, who

72 By Solomon. God, give the king your justice; your righteousness to the royal son. 2 He will judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice. 3 The mountains shall bring prosperity to the people. The hills bring the fruit of righteousness. He will judge the poor of the people. He will save the children of the needy, and will break the oppressor in pieces. 5 They shall fear you while the sun endures; and as long as the moon, throughout all generations. 6 He will come down like rain on the mown grass, as showers that water the earth. 7 In his days, the righteous shall flourish, and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more. 8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth. 9 Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him. His enemies shall lick the dust. 10 The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute. The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts. 11 Yes, all kings shall fall down before him. All nations shall serve him. 12 For he will deliver the needy when he cries; the poor, who has no helper. 13 He will have pity on the poor and needy. He will save the souls of the needy. 14 He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence. Their blood will be precious in his sight. 15 He will live; and Sheba's gold will be given to him. Men will pray for him continually. They will bless him all day long. 16 Abundance of grain shall be throughout the land. Its fruit sways like Lebanon. Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field. 17 His name endures forever. His name continues as long as the sun. Men shall be blessed by him. All nations will call him blessed. 18 Praise be to Yahweh God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvelous deeds. 19 Blessed be his glorious name forever! Let the whole earth be filled with his glory! Amen and amen. 20 This ends the prayers by David, the son of Jesse.

73 A Psalm by Asaph. Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart. 2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone. Is are disappointed, and they are confounded, who want there knowledge in the Most High?" 12 Behold, these are the wicked. Being always at ease, they increase in riches. 13 Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence, 14 For all day long I have been plagued, and punished every morning. 15 If I had said, "I will speak thus", behold, I would have betrayed the generation of your children. 16 When I tried to understand this, it was too painful for me- 17 until I entered God's sanctuary, and considered their latter end. 18 Surely you set them in slippery places. You throw them down to destruction. 19 How they are suddenly destroyed! They are completely swept away with terrors. 20 As a dream when one wakes up, so, Lord, when you awake, you will despise their fantasies. 21 For my soul was grieved. I was embittered in my heart. 22 I was so senseless and ignorant. I was a brute beast before you. 23 Nevertheless, I am continually with you. You have held my right hand. 24 You will guide me with your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. 25 Whom do I have in heaven? There is no one on earth whom I desire besides you. 26 My flesh and my heart fails, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. 27 For, behold, those who are far from you shall perish. You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to you. 28 But it is good for me to come close to God. I have made the Lord Yahweh my refuge, that I may tell of all your works.

> 71 A contemplation by Asaph. God, why have you rejected us forever? Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture? 2 Remember your congregation, which you purchased of old, which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your inheritance: Mount Zion, in which you have lived. 3 Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins, all the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary. 4 Your adversaries have roared in the middle of your assembly. They have set up their standards as signs. 5 They behaved like men wielding axes, cutting through a thicket of trees. 6 Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers. 7 They have burned your sanctuary to the ground. They have profaned the dwelling place of your Name. 8 They said in their heart, "We will crush them completely." They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped. 9 We see no miraculous signs. There is no longer any prophet.

70 A Psalm by Asaph. God, the nations have come into your inheritance. They have defiled your holy temple. They have laid Jerusalem in heaps. 2 They have given the dead bodies of your servants to be food for the birds of the sky, the flesh of your saints to the animals of the earth. 3 They have shed their blood like water around Jerusalem. There was no one to bury them. 4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and derision to those who are around us. 5 How long, Yahweh? Will you be angry forever? Will your jealousy burn like fire? 6 Pour out your wrath before you. According to the greatness of your power, back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom their reproach with which they have reproached you, Lord. 13 So we, your people and sheep of your pasture, will all generations.

80 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaph. Hear us, Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock, you who sit above the cherubim, shine out. 2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, stir up your might! Come to save us! 3 Turn us again, God. Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved. 4 Yahweh God of Armies, how long will you be angry against the prayer of your people? 5 You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in large measure. 6 You make us a source of contention to our neighbors. Our enemies laugh among themselves. 7 Turn us again, God of Armies. Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved. 8 You brought a vine out of Egypt. You drove out the nations, and planted it. 9 You cleared the ground

A Prayer by Moses, the man of God. Lord, you have been our dwelling place for all generations. 2 Before the mountains were born, before you had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, you are God. 3 You turn man to destruction, saying, "Return, you children of men." 4 For a thousand years in your sight are just like yesterday when it is past, like a watch in the night. 5 You sweep them away as they sleep. In the morning they sprout like new grass. 6 In the morning it sprouts and springs up. By evening, it is withered and dry. 7 For we are consumed in your anger. We are troubled in your wrath. 8 You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence. 9 For all our days have passed away in your wrath. We bring our years to an end as a sigh. 10 The days of our years are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty years; yet their pride is but labor and sorrow, for it passes quickly, and we fly away. 11 Who knows the power of your anger, your wrath according to the fear that is due to you? 12 So teach us to count our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. 13 Relent, 103 By David. Praise Yahweh, my soul! All that is within me, praise his holy name! 2 Praise Yahweh, my soul, and don't forget all his benefits, 3 who forgives all your sins, who heals all your diseases, 4 who redeems your life from destruction, who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies, 5 who satisfies your desire with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. 6 Yahweh executes righteous acts, and justice for all who are oppressed. 7 He made known his ways to Moses, his deeds to the children of Israel. 8 Yahweh is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness. 9 He will not always accuse; neither will he stay angry forever. 10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us for our iniquities. 11 For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his loving kindness toward those who fear him. 12 As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us. 13 Like a father has compassion on his children, so Yahweh has compassion on those who fear him. 14 For he knows how we are made. He remembers that we are dust. 15 As for man, his days are like grass. As a flower of the field, so he flourishes. 16 For the wind passes over it, and it is gone. Its place remembers it no more. 17 But Yahweh's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear him, his righteousness to children's children. 18 to those who keep his covenant, to those who remember to obey his precepts. 19 Yahweh has established his throne in the heavens. They sing among the branches. 13 He waters the mountains from his rooms. The earth is filled with the fruit of your works. 14 He causes the grass to grow for the livestock, and plants for man to cultivate, that he may produce food out of the earth: 15 wine that makes the heart of man glad, oil to make his face to shine, and bread that strengthens man's heart. 16 Yahweh's trees are well watered, the cedars of Lebanon, which he has planted, 17 where the birds make their nests. The stork makes its home in the cypress trees. 18 The high mountains are for the wild goats. The rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers. 19 He appointed the moon for seasons. The sun knows when to set. 20 You make darkness, and it is night, in which all the animals of the forest prowl. 21 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from God. 22 The sun rises, and they steal away, and lie down in their dens. 23 Man goes out to his work, to his labor until the evening. 24 Yahweh, how many are your works! In wisdom, you have made them all. The earth is full of your riches. 25 There is the sea, great and wide, in which are innumerable living things, both small and large animals. 26 There the ships go, and leviathan, whom you formed to play there. 27 These all wait for you, that you may give them their food in due season. 28 You give to them; they gather. You open your hand; they are satisfied with good. 29 You hide your face; they are troubled. You take away their breath: they die and return to the dust. 30 You send out your Spirit and they are created. You renew the face of the ground. 31 Let Yahweh's glory endure forever. Let Yahweh rejoice in his works. 32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles. He touches the mountains, and they smoke. 33 I will sing to Yahweh as long as I live. I will sing praise to my God while I have any being. 34 Let my meditation be sweet to him. I will rejoice in Yahweh. 35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth. Let the wicked be no more.

Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes, 15 "Don't touch my anointed ones! Do my prophets no harm!" 16 He called for a famine on the land. He destroyed the food supplies. 17 He sent a man before them. Joseph was sold for a slave. 18 They bruised his feet with shackles. His neck was locked in irons. 19 until the time that his word happened, and Yahweh's word proved him true. 20 The king sent and freed him, even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free. 21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all of his possessions, 22 to discipline his princes at his pleasure, and to teach his elders wisdom. 23 Israel also came into Egypt. Jacob lived in the land of Ham. 24 He increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their adversaries. 25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to conspire against his servants. 26 He sent Moses, his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen. 27 They performed miracles among them, and wonders in the land of Ham. 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark. They didn't rebel against his words. 29 He turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish. 30 Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the rooms of their kings. 31 He spoke, and swarms of flies came, and lice in all their borders. 32 He gave them hail for rain, with lightning in their land. 33 He struck their vines and also their fig trees, and shattered the trees of their country. 34 He spoke, and the locusts came with the grasshoppers, without number. 35 They ate up every plant in their land, and ate up the fruit of their ground. 36 He struck also all the firstborn in their land, the first fruits of all their manhood. 37 He brought them out with silver and gold. There was not one feeble person among his tribes. 38 Egypt was glad when they departed, for the fear of them had fallen on them. 39 He spread a cloud for a

Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever. 2 Who can utter the mighty acts of Yahweh, or fully declare all his praise? 3 Blessed are those who keep justice. Blessed is one who does what is right at all times. 4 Remember me, Yahweh, with the favor that you show to your people. Visit me with your salvation, 5 that I may see the prosperity of your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory with your inheritance. 6 We have sinned with our fathers. We have committed iniquity. We have done wickedly. 7 Our fathers didn't understand your wonders in Egypt. They didn't remember the multitude of your loving kindnesses, but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea. 8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power known. 9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up; so he led them through the depths, as through a desert. 10 He saved them from the hand of him who hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. 11 The waters covered their adversaries. There was not one of them left. 12 Then they believed his words. They sang his praise. 13 They soon forgot his works. They didn't wait for his counsel, 14 but gave in to craving in the desert, and tested God in the wasteland. 15 He gave them their request, but sent leanness into their soul. 16 They envied Moses also in the camp. and Aaron, Yahweh's saint. 17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram. 18 A fire was kindled in their company. The flame burned up the wicked. 19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped a molten image. 20 Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a bull that eats grass. 21 They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt, 22 wondrous works in the land of Ham, and awesome things by the Red Sea. 23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had Moses, his chosen, not stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them. 24 Yes, they despised the pleasant land. 22 A Song of Ascents. By David. I was glad when they said to me, "Let's go to Yahweh's house!" 2 Our feet are standing within your gates, Jerusalem! 3 Jerusalem is built as a city that is compact together, 4 where the tribes go up, even Yah's tribes, according to an ordinance for Israel, to give thanks to Yahweh's name. 5 For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of David's house. 6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem. Those who love you will prosper. 7 Peace

123 A Song of Ascents. I lift up my eyes to you, you who sit in the heavens. 2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to Yahweh, our God, until he has mercy on us. 3 Have mercy on us, Yahweh, have mercy on us, for we have endured much contempt. 4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease, with the contempt of the proud.

124 A Song of Ascents. By David. If it had not been Yahweh who was on our side, let Israel now say, 2 if it had not been Yahweh who was on our side, when men rose up against us, 3 then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled against us, 4 then the waters would have overwhelmed us, the stream would have gone over our soul. 5 Then the proud waters would have gone over our soul. 6 Blessed be Yahweh, who has not given us as a prey to their teeth. 7 Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare. The snare is broken, and we have escaped. 8 Our help is in Yahweh's name, who made heaven and earth.

125 A Song of Ascents. Those who trust in Yahweh are as Mount Zion, which can't be moved, but remains forever. 2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so Yahweh surrounds his people from this time forward and forever more. 3 For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the righteous, so that the righteous won't use their hands to do evil. 4 Do good, Yahweh, to those who are good, to those who are upright in their hearts. 5 But as for those who turn away to their crooked ways, Yahweh will lead them away with the workers of iniquity. Peace be on Israel.

126 A Song of Ascents. When Yahweh brought back those who returned to Zion, we were like those who dream. 2 Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing. Then they said among the nations, "Yahweh has done great things for them." 3 Yahweh has done great things for us, and we are glad. 4 Restore our fortunes again, Yahweh, like the streams in the Negev. 5 Those who sow in tears will reap in joy. 6 He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing, will certainly come again with joy, carrying his sheaves.

127 A Song of Ascents. By Solomon. Unless Yahweh builds the house, they who build it labor in vain.

Unless Yahweh watches over the city, the watchman guards it in vain. 2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to stay up late, eating the bread of toil, for he gives sleep to his loved ones. 3 Behold, children are a heritage of Yahweh. The fruit of the womb is his reward. 4 As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of youth. 5 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them. They won't be disappointed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

128 A Song of Ascents. Blessed is everyone who fears Yahweh, who walks in his ways. 2 For you will eat the labor of your hands. You will be happy, and it will be well with you. 3 Your wife will be as a fruitful vine in the innermost parts of your house, your children like olive shoots around your table. 4 Behold, this is how the man who fears Yahweh is blessed. 5 May Yahweh who was on our side, when men rose up against us, 3 then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled straight as the authors would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled straight as the author would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled straight as the author would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel.

129 A Song of Ascents. Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up. Let Israel now say: 2 many times they have afflicted me from my youth up, yet they have not prevailed against me. 3 The plowers plowed on my back. They made their furrows long. 4 Yahweh is righteous. He has cut apart the cords of the wicked. 5 Let them be disappointed and turned backward, all those who hate Zion. 6 Let them be as the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up, 7 with which the reaper doesn't fill his hand, nor he who binds sheaves, his bosom. 8 Neither do those who go by say, "The blessing of Yahweh be on you. We bless you in Yahweh's name."

130 A Song of Ascents. Out of the depths I have cried to you, Yahweh. 2 Lord, hear my voice. Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my petitions. 3 If you, Yah, kept a record of sins, Lord, who could stand? 4 But there is forgiveness with you, therefore you are feared. 5 I wait for Yahweh. My soul waits. I hope in his word. 6 My soul longs for the Lord more than watchmen long for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning. 7 Israel, hope in Yahweh, for there is loving kindness with Yahweh. Abundant redemption is with him. 8 He will redeem Israel from all their sins.

131 A Song of Ascents. By David. Yahweh, my heart isn't arrogant, nor my eyes lofty; nor do I concern myself with great matters, or things too wonderful for me. 2 Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me. 3 Israel, hope in Yahweh, from this time forward and forever more.

f 1 The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of $\, f 2$ My son, if you will receive my words, and store up Israel: 2 to know wisdom and instruction; to discern will you love simplicity? How long will mockers delight be rooted out of it. themselves in mockery, and fools hate knowledge? 23 Turn at my reproof. Behold, I will pour out my spirit on vou. I will make known my words to you. 24 Because I have called, and you have refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention; 25 but you have ignored all my counsel, and wanted none of my reproof; 26 I also will laugh at your disaster. I will mock when calamity overtakes you, 27 when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when your disaster comes on like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come on you. 28 Then they will call on me, but I will not answer. They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me, 29 because they hated knowledge, and didn't choose the fear of Yahweh. 30 They wanted none of my counsel. They despised all my reproof. 31 Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own schemes. 32 For the backsliding of the simple will kill them. The careless ease of fools will destroy them. 33

But whoever listens to me will dwell securely, and will be at ease, without fear of harm."

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom. Turn your ear to my understanding, 2 that you may maintain discretion, that your lips may preserve knowledge. 3 For the lips of an adulteress drip honey. Her mouth is smoother than oil, 4 but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, and as sharp as a two-edged sword. 5 Her feet go down to death. Her steps lead straight to Sheol. (Sheol h7585) 6 She gives no thought to the way of life. Her ways are crooked, and she doesn't know it. 7 Now therefore, my sons, listen to me. Don't depart from the words of my mouth. 8 Remove your way far from her. Don't come near the door of her house, 9 lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel one; 10 lest strangers feast on your wealth, and your labors enrich another man's house. 11 You will groan at your latter end, when your flesh and your body are consumed, 12 and say, "How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof. 13 I haven't obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor turned my ear to those who instructed me! 14 I have come to the brink of utter ruin, among the gathered assembly." 15 Drink water out of your own cistern, running water out of your own well. 16 Should your springs overflow in the streets, streams of water in the public squares? 17 Let them be for yourself alone, not for strangers with you. 18 Let your spring be blessed. Rejoice in the wife of your youth. 19 A loving doe and a graceful deerlet her breasts satisfy you at all times. Be captivated always with her love. 20 For why should you, my son, have taught you in the way of wisdom. I have led you be captivated with an adulteress? Why embrace the bosom of another? 21 For the ways of man are before give all the wealth of his house. 32 He who commits Yahweh's eyes. He examines all his paths. 22 The evil adultery with a woman is void of understanding. He who deeds of the wicked ensnare him. The cords of his sin does it destroys his own soul. 33 He will get wounds hold him firmly. 23 He will die for lack of instruction. In and dishonor. His reproach will not be wiped away. 34 the greatness of his folly, he will go astray.

6 My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor, if you have struck your hands in pledge for a stranger, 2 you are trapped by the words of your mouth; you are ensnared with the words of your mouth. 3 Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, since you have come into the hand of your neighbor. Go, humble yourself. Press your plea with your neighbor. 4 Give no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids. 5 Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler. 6 Go to the ant, you sluggard. Consider her ways, and be wise; 7 which having no chief, overseer, or ruler, 8 provides her bread in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest. 9 How long will you sleep, sluggard? When will you arise out of your sleep? 10 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep— 11 so your poverty will come as a robber, and your scarcity as an armed man. 12 A worthless person, a man of iniquity, is he who walks with a perverse mouth, 13 who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet, who motions with his fingers, 14 in whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually, who always sows discord. 15 Therefore his calamity will come suddenly. He will be broken suddenly, and that without remedy. 16 There are six things which Yahweh hates; yes, seven which are an abomination to him: 17 arrogant eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, 18 a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are swift in running to mischief, 19 a false witness who utters lies, and he who sows discord among brothers. 20 My son, keep your father's commandment, and don't forsake your mother's teaching. 21 Bind them continually on your heart. Tie them around your neck. 22 When you walk, it will lead you. When you sleep, it will watch over you. When you awake, it will talk with you. 23 For the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light. Reproofs of instruction are the way of life, 24 to keep you from the immoral woman, from the flattery of the wayward wife's tongue. 25 Don't lust after her beauty in your heart, neither let her captivate you with her eyelids. 26 For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread. The adulteress hunts for your precious life. 27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap, and his clothes not be burned? 28 Or can one walk on hot coals, and his feet not be scorched? 29 So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife. Whoever touches her will not be unpunished. 30 Men don't despise a thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry, 31 but

For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband. He won't spare in the day of vengeance. 35 He won't regard any ransom, neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

7 My son, keep my words. Lay up my commandments within you. 2 Keep my commandments and live! Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye. 3 Bind them on your fingers. Write them on the tablet of your heart. 4 Tell wisdom, "You are my sister." Call understanding your relative, 5 that they may keep you from the strange woman, from the foreigner who flatters with her words. 6 For at the window of my house, I looked out through my lattice. 7 I saw among the simple ones. I discerned among the youths a young man void of understanding, 8 passing through the street near her corner, he went the way to her house, 9 in the twilight, in the evening of the day, in the middle of the night and in the darkness. 10 Behold, there a woman met him with the attire of a prostitute, and with crafty intent. 11 She is loud and defiant. Her feet don't stay in her house. 12 Now she is in the streets, now in the squares, and lurking at every corner. 13 So she caught him, and kissed him. With an impudent face she said to him: 14 "Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me. Today I have paid my vows. 15 Therefore I came out to meet you, to diligently seek your face, and I have found you. 16 I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry, with striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt. 17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. 18 Come, let's take our fill of loving until the morning. Let's solace ourselves with loving. 19 For my husband isn't at home. He has gone on a long journey. 20 He has taken a bag of money with him. He will come home at the full moon." 21 With persuasive words, she led him astray. With the flattering of her lips, she seduced him. 22 He followed her immediately, as an ox goes to the slaughter, as a fool stepping into a noose. 23 Until an arrow strikes through his liver, as a bird hurries to the snare, and doesn't know that it will cost his life. 24 Now therefore, sons, listen to me. Pay attention to the words of my mouth. 25 Don't let your heart turn to her ways. Don't go astray in her paths, 26 for she has thrown down many wounded. Yes, all her slain are a mighty army. 27 Her house is the way to Sheol, going down to the rooms of death. (Sheol h7585)

23 When you sit to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before you; 2 put a knife to your throat if you are a man given to appetite. 3 Don't be desirous of his dainties, since they are deceitful food. 4 Don't weary yourself to be rich. In your wisdom, show restraint. 5 Why do you set your eyes on that which is not? For it certainly sprouts wings like an eagle and flies in the sky. 6 Don't eat the food of him who has a stingy eye, 22 A good name is more desirable than great riches, and don't crave his delicacies, 7 for as he thinks about and loving favor is better than silver and gold. 2 the cost, so he is. "Eat and drink!" he says to you, but his heart is not with you. 8 You will vomit up the morsel which you have eaten and waste your pleasant words. 9 Don't speak in the ears of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words. 10 Don't move the ancient boundary stone. Don't encroach on the fields of the fatherless. 11 for their Defender is strong. He will plead their case against you. 12 Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge. 13 Don't withhold correction from a child. If you punish him with the rod, he will not die. 14 Punish him with the rod, and save his soul from Sheol. (Sheol h7585) 15 My son, will be blessed, for he shares his food with the poor. 10 if your heart is wise, then my heart will be glad, even mine. 16 Yes, my heart will rejoice when your lips speak and insults will stop. 11 He who loves purity of heart what is right. 17 Don't let your heart envy sinners, but and speaks gracefully is the king's friend. 12 Yahweh's rather fear Yahweh all day long. 18 Indeed surely there is a future hope, and your hope will not be cut off. 19 of the unfaithful. 13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion Listen, my son, and be wise, and keep your heart on outside! I will be killed in the streets!" 14 The mouth of the right path! 20 Don't be among ones drinking too and drowsiness clothes them in rags. 22 Listen to your be envious of the wicked; 20 for there will be no reward wisdom, discipline, and understanding. 24 The father of those who are rebellious, 22 for their calamity will rise the righteous has great joy. Whoever fathers a wise child suddenly. Who knows what destruction may come from your heart; and let your eyes keep in my ways. 27 For a to the wicked, "You are righteous," peoples will curse sorrow? Who has strife? Who has complaints? Who has the lips. 27 Prepare your work outside, and get your mixed wine. 31 Don't look at the wine when it is red, deceive with your lips. 29 Don't say, "I will do to him when it sparkles in the cup, when it goes down smoothly. as he has done to me; I will repay the man according 32 In the end, it bites like a snake, and poisons like a to his work." 30 I went by the field of the sluggard, viper. 33 Your eyes will see strange things, and your by the vineyard of the man void of understanding. 31 mind will imagine confusing things. 34 Yes, you will be Behold, it was all grown over with thorns. Its surface as he who lies down in the middle of the sea, or as he was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken who lies on top of the rigging: 35 "They hit me, and I down. 32 Then I saw, and considered well. I saw, and will I wake up? I can do it again. I will look for more."

21 Don't be envious of evil men, neither desire to be with them; 2 for their hearts plot violence and their lips talk about mischief. 3 Through wisdom a house is built; by understanding it is established; 4 by knowledge the rooms are filled with all rare and beautiful treasure. 5 A wise man has great power. A knowledgeable man increases strength, 6 for by wise guidance you wage your war, and victory is in many advisors. 7 Wisdom is too high for a fool. He doesn't open his mouth in the gate. 8 One who plots to do evil will be called a schemer. 9 The schemes of folly are sin. The mocker is detested by men. 10 If you falter in the time of trouble. your strength is small. 11 Rescue those who are being led away to death! Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter! 12 If you say, "Behold, we didn't know this," doesn't he who weighs the hearts consider it? He who keeps your soul, doesn't he know it? Shall he not render to every man according to his work? 13 My son, eat honey, for it is good, the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste: 14 so you shall know wisdom to be to your soul. If you have found it, then there will be a reward: Your hope will not be cut off. 15 Don't lay in wait, wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous. Don't destroy his resting place; 16 for a righteous man falls seven times and rises up again, but the wicked are overthrown by calamity. 17 Don't rejoice when your enemy falls. Don't let your heart be glad when he is overthrown, 18 lest Yahweh see it, much wine, or those who gorge themselves on meat: and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from 21 for the drunkard and the glutton shall become poor; him. 19 Don't fret yourself because of evildoers, neither father who gave you life, and don't despise your mother to the evil man. The lamp of the wicked will be snuffed when she is old. 23 Buy the truth, and don't sell it. Get out. 21 My son, fear Yahweh and the king. Don't join delights in him. 25 Let your father and your mother be them both? 23 These also are sayings of the wise: To glad! Let her who bore you rejoice! 26 My son, give me show partiality in judgment is not good. 24 He who says prostitute is a deep pit; and a wayward wife is a narrow him, and nations will abhor him— 25 but it will go well well. 28 Yes, she lies in wait like a robber, and increases with those who convict the guilty, and a rich blessing will the unfaithful among men. 29 Who has woe? Who has come on them. 26 An honest answer is like a kiss on needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes? 30 Those fields ready. Afterwards, build your house. 28 Don't be who stay long at the wine: those who go to seek out a witness against your neighbor without cause. Don't was not hurt! They beat me, and I don't feel it! When received instruction: 33 a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep, 34 so your poverty will come as a robber and your want as an armed man.

25 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out. 2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter. 3 As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the hearts of kings are unsearchable. 4 Take away the dross from the silver, and material comes out for the refiner. 5 Take away the wicked from the king's presence, and his throne will be established in righteousness. 6 Don't exalt yourself in the presence of the king, or claim a place among great men; 7 for it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here," than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince, whom your eyes have seen. 8 Don't be hasty in bringing charges to court. What will you do in the end when your neighbor shames you? 9 Debate your case with your neighbor, and don't betray the confidence of another, 10 lest one who hears it put you to shame, and your bad reputation never depart. 11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver. 12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover to an obedient ear. 13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send him; for he refreshes the soul of his masters. 14 As clouds and wind without rain, so is he who boasts of gifts deceptively. 15 By patience a ruler is persuaded. A soft tongue breaks the bone. 16 Have you found honey? Eat as much as is sufficient for be seldom in your neighbor's house, lest he be weary of parts. 23 Like silver dross on an earthen vessel are the you, and hate you. 18 A man who gives false testimony lips of a fervent one with an evil heart. 24 A malicious against his neighbor is like a club, a sword, or a sharp man disguises himself with his lips, but he harbors evil arrow. 19 Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of in his heart. 25 When his speech is charming, don't trouble is like a bad tooth or a lame foot. 20 As one who believe him, for there are seven abominations in his takes away a garment in cold weather, or vinegar on heart. 26 His malice may be concealed by deception, soda, so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart. 21 but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly. If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat. If he is 27 Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it. Whoever rolls a thirsty, give him water to drink; 22 for you will heap coals stone, it will come back on him. 28 A lying tongue hates of fire on his head, and Yahweh will reward you. 23 The those it hurts; and a flattering mouth works ruin. north wind produces rain; so a backbiting tongue brings an angry face. 24 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop than to share a house with a contentious woman. 25 Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country. 26 Like a muddied spring and a polluted well, so is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked. 27 It is not good to eat much honey, nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor. 28 Like a city that is broken down and without walls is a man whose spirit is without restraint.

27 Don't boast about tomorrow; for you don't know what a day may bring. 2 Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips. 3 A stone is heavy, and sand is a burden; but a fool's provocation is heavier than both. 4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is overwhelming; but who is able to stand before jealousy? 5 Better is open rebuke than hidden love. 6 The wounds of a friend are faithful, although the kisses of an enemy are profuse. 7 A full soul loathes a honeycomb; but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is 26 Like snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so sweet. 8 As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is honor is not fitting for a fool. 2 Like a fluttering a man who wanders from his home. 9 Perfume and sparrow, like a darting swallow, so the undeserved curse incense bring joy to the heart; so does earnest counsel doesn't come to rest. 3 A whip is for the horse, a bridle from a man's friend. 10 Don't forsake your friend and for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools! 4 Don't your father's friend. Don't go to your brother's house answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like in the day of your disaster. A neighbor who is near is him. 5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be better than a distant brother. 11 Be wise, my son, and wise in his own eyes. 6 One who sends a message bring joy to my heart, then I can answer my tormentor. by the hand of a fool is cutting off feet and drinking 12 A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge; but the violence. 7 Like the legs of the lame that hang loose, so simple pass on, and suffer for it. 13 Take his garment is a parable in the mouth of fools. 8 As one who binds a when he puts up collateral for a stranger. Hold it for a stone in a sling, so is he who gives honor to a fool. 9 wayward woman! 14 He who blesses his neighbor with Like a thorn bush that goes into the hand of a drunkard, a loud voice early in the morning, it will be taken as a so is a parable in the mouth of fools. 10 As an archer curse by him. 15 A continual dropping on a rainy day who wounds all, so is he who hires a fool or he who and a contentious wife are alike: 16 restraining her is hires those who pass by. 11 As a dog that returns to his like restraining the wind, or like grasping oil in his right vomit, so is a fool who repeats his folly. 12 Do you see hand. 17 Iron sharpens iron; so a man sharpens his a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a friend's countenance. 18 Whoever tends the fig tree fool than for him. 13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion shall eat its fruit. He who looks after his master shall in the road! A fierce lion roams the streets!" 14 As the be honored. 19 Like water reflects a face, so a man's door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on his heart reflects the man. 20 Sheol and Abaddon are never bed. 15 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish. He is satisfied; and a man's eyes are never satisfied. (Sheol too lazy to bring it back to his mouth. 16 The sluggard is h7585) 21 The crucible is for silver, and the furnace for wiser in his own eyes than seven men who answer with gold; but man is refined by his praise. 22 Though you discretion. 17 Like one who grabs a dog's ears is one grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own. yet his foolishness will not be removed from him. 23 18 Like a madman who shoots torches, arrows, and Know well the state of your flocks, and pay attention to death, 19 is the man who deceives his neighbor and your herds, 24 for riches are not forever, nor does the savs. "Am I not joking?" 20 For lack of wood a fire goes crown endure to all generations. 25 The hay is removed, out. Without gossip, a quarrel dies down. 21 As coals and the new growth appears, the grasses of the hills are are to hot embers, and wood to fire, so is a contentious gathered in. 26 The lambs are for your clothing, and the man to kindling strife. 22 The words of a whisperer are goats are the price of a field. 27 There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food, for your family's food, and for the nourishment of your servant girls.

28 The wicked flee when no one pursues; but the righteous are as bold as a lion. 2 In rebellion, a land has many rulers, but order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge. 3 A needy man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no crops. 4 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked: but those who keep the law contend with them. 5 Evil men don't understand justice; but those who seek Yahweh understand it fully. 6 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich. 7 Whoever keeps the law is a wise son; but he who is a companion of gluttons shames his father. 8 He who increases his wealth by excessive interest gathers it for one who has pity on the poor. 9 He who turns away his ear from hearing the law. even his prayer is an abomination. 10 Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way, he will fall into his own trap: but the blameless will inherit good. 11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes; but the poor who has understanding sees through him. 12 When the righteous triumph, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves. 13 He who conceals his sins doesn't prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy. 14 Blessed is the man who always fears; but one who hardens his heart falls into trouble. 15 As a roaring lion or a charging bear, so is a wicked ruler over helpless people. 16 A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment. One who hates ill-gotten gain will have long days. 17 A man who is tormented by blood guilt will be a fugitive until death. No one will support him. 18 Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe; but one with perverse ways will fall suddenly. 19 One who works his land will have an abundance of food; but one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty. 20 A faithful man is rich with blessings; but one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished. 21 To show partiality is not good, yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread. 22 A stingy man hurries after riches, and doesn't know that poverty waits for him. 23 One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue. 24 Whoever robs his father or his mother and says, "It's not wrong," is a partner with a destroyer. 25 who gives to the poor has no lack; but one who closes righteous thrive.

20 He who is often rebuked and stiffens his neck will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy. 2 When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people groan, 3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father; but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth. 4 The king by justice makes the land stable, but he who takes bribes tears it down. 5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet. 6 An evil man is snared by his sin, but the righteous can sing and be glad. 7 The righteous care about justice for the poor. The wicked aren't concerned about knowledge. 8 Mockers stir up a city, but wise men turn away anger. 9 If a wise man goes to court with a foolish man, the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace. 10 The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity; and they seek the life of the upright. 11 A fool vents all of his anger, but a wise man brings himself under control. 12 If a ruler listens to lies, all of his officials are wicked. 13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common: Yahweh gives sight to the eyes of both. 14 The king who fairly judges the poor, his throne shall be established forever. 15 The rod of correction gives wisdom, but a child left to himself causes shame to his mother. 16 When the wicked increase, sin increases; but the righteous will see their downfall. 17 Correct your son, and he will give you peace; yes, he will bring delight to your soul. 18 Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint; but one who keeps the law is blessed. 19 A servant can't be corrected by words. Though he understands, yet he will not respond. 20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him. 21 He who pampers his servant from youth will have him become a son in the end. 22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a wrathful man abounds in sin. 23 A man's pride brings him low, but one of lowly spirit gains honor. 24 Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own soul. He takes an oath, but dares not testify. 25 The fear of man proves to be a snare, but whoever puts his trust in Yahweh is kept safe. 26 Many seek the ruler's favor, but a man's justice comes from Yahweh. 27 A dishonest man detests the righteous, and the upright in their ways detest the wicked.

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the revelation: says, "It's not wrong," is a partner with a destroyer. 25 One who is greedy stirs up strife; but one who trusts in Yahweh will prosper. 26 One who trusts in himself is a understanding. 3 I have not learned wisdom, neither fool; but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe. 27 One who gives to the poor has no lack; but one who closes his eyes will have many curses. 28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous thrive.

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the revelation: the most ignorant man, and don't have a man's understanding. 3 I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy One. 4 Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has bound the waters in his garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you know? 5 "Every word of God is flawless. He is a shield to those who take refuge in him. 6 Don't

Ecclesiastes

1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem: 2 "Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher; "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity." 3 What does man gain from all his labor in which he labors under the sun? 4 One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. 5 The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises. 6 The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses. 7 All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again, 8 All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. 9 That which has been is that which shall be, and that which has been done is that which shall be done; and there is no new thing under the sun. 10 Is there a thing of which it may be said. "Behold, this is new"? It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us. 11 There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after. 12 I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. 13 I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. 14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold. all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 15 That which is crooked can't be made straight; and that which is lacking can't be counted. 16 I said to myself, "Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge." 17 I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. 18 For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure;" and behold, this also was vanity. 2 I said of laughter, "It is foolishness;" where trees were grown. 7 I bought male servants and also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem. 8 I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men: musical instruments of all sorts. 9 So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. 10 Whatever my eves desired. I didn't keep from them. I didn't withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor. 11 Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun. 12 I turned myself to consider wisdom. madness, and folly; for what can the king's successor do? Just that which has been done long ago. 13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. 14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. 15 Then I said in my heart, "As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?" Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity. 16 For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory forever, since in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool! 17 So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 18 I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun. because I must leave it to the man who comes after me. 19 Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity. 20 Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun. 21 For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a 2 I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. 22 For what does a man have of all his labor and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?" 3 I searched in the sun? 23 For all his days are sorrows, and his travail my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. quiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly. This also is vanity. 24 There is nothing better for a man until I might see what it was good for the sons of men than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul that they should do under heaven all the days of their enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from lives. 41 made myself great works. I built myself houses. the hand of God. 25 For who can eat, or who can have I planted myself vineyards. 5 I made myself gardens enjoyment, more than I? 26 For to the man who pleases and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the fruit. 6 I made myself pools of water, to water the forest sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he female servants, and had servants born in my house. I

403 Fcclesiastes may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity but they had no comforter. 2 Therefore I praised the and a chasing after wind.

 $\mathbf{3}$ For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: 2 a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; 3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; 4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; 5 a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; 6 a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; 7 a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; 8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace. 9 What profit has he who works in that in which he labors? 10 I have seen the burden which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. 11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. 12 I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. 13 Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God. 14 I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him. 15 That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago. God seeks again that which is passed away. 16 Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. 17 I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for heart, "As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. 19 For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals, for all is vanity. 20 All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. 21 Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?" 22 Therefore I rejoice in his works, for that is his portion; for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

⚠ Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power;

dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. 3 Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. 4 Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind. 5 The fool folds his hands together and ruins himself. 6 Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labor and chasing after wind. 7 Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. 8 There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. "For whom then do I labor and deprive my soul of enjoyment?" This also is vanity. Yes, it is a miserable business. 9 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. 10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up. 11 Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? 12 If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken. 13 Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more. 14 For out of prison he came out to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. 15 I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him. 16 There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

5 Guard your steps when you go to God's house; for to draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice every purpose and for every work." 18 I said in my of fools, for they don't know that they do evil. 2 Don't be rash with your mouth, and don't let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few. 3 For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words. 4 When you vow a vow to God, don't defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. 5 It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. 6 Don't allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Don't protest before the messenger that this was a mistake. saw that there is nothing better than that a man should Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? 7 For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words; but you must fear God. 8 If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, don't marvel at the matter, for one official is eyed by a higher one, and there are officials over them. 9 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field. 10 He who loves silver shall not be of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who satisfied with silver, nor he who loves abundance, with can tell a man what will be after him under the sun? increase. This also is vanity. 11 When goods increase. those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes? 12 The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep. 13 There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. 14 Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand. 15 As he came out of his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand. 16 This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labors for the wind? 17 All his days he also eats in darkness, he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath. 18 Behold. that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion. 19 Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. 20 For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life, because God occupies him with the joy of his heart.

A There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: 2 a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but an alien eats it. This is vanity. and it is an evil disease. 3 If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial, I say that a stillborn child is better than he; 4 for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other. 6 Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good. don't all go to one place? 7 All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. 8 For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? 9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind. 10 Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is: neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. 11 For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? 12 For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days

7 A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. 2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. 3 Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. 4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. 5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than for a man to hear the song of fools. 6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. 7 Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. 8 Better is the end of a thing than its beginning. The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. 9 Don't be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. 10 Don't say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this. 11 Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun. 12 For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it. 13 Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight which he has made crooked? 14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him. 15 All this I have seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evildoing. 16 Don't be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? 17 Don't be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time? 18 It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also don't withdraw your hand from that; for he who fears God will come out of them all. 19 Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. 20 Surely there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and doesn't sin. 21 Also don't take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; 22 for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. 23 All this I have proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise;" but it was far from me. 24 That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? 25 I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness. 26 I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her: out, yet he won't find it. Yes even though a wise man but the sinner will be ensnared by her. 27 "Behold, I thinks he can comprehend it, he won't be able to find it. have found this," says the Preacher, "to one another, to find an explanation 28 which my soul still seeks, but I have not found. I have found one man among a thousand, but I have not found a woman among all those. 29 Behold, I have only found this: that God made mankind upright; but they search for many inventions."

8 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. 21 say, "Keep the king's command!" because of the oath to God. 3 Don't be hasty to go out of his presence. Don't persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him. 4 for the king's word is supreme. Who can say to him, "What are you doing?" 5 Whoever keeps the commandment shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and procedure. 6 For there is a time and procedure for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him. 7 For he doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? 8 There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it. 9 All this I have seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt. 10 So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holiness. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. 11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. 12 Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him. 13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow, because he doesn't fear God. 14 There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. 15 Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun than to eat, to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun. 16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (even though eyes see no sleep day or night). 17 then I saw all the work of God, that man can't find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it

9 For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn't know it; all is before them. 2 All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn't sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who takes an oath, as he who fears an oath. 3 This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all. Yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. 4 For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. 5 For the living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for their memory is forgotten. 6 Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither do they any longer have a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun. 7 Go your way—eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works. 8 Let your garments be always white, and don't let your head lack oil. 9 Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity, for that is your portion in life, and in your labor in which you labor under the sun. 10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor plan, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, where you are going. (Sheol h7585) 11 I returned and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. 12 For man also doesn't know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them. 13 I have also seen wisdom under the sun in this way, and it seemed great to me. 14 There was a little city, and few men within it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. 15 Now a poor wise man was found in it, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. 16 Then I said, "Wisdom is better than strength." Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. 17 The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. 18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

and honor. 2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand, him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be but a fool's heart at his left. 3 Yes also when the fool many. All that comes is vanity. 9 Rejoice, young man, in walks by the way, his understanding fails him, and he your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of says to everyone that he is a fool. 4 If the spirit of the your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in ruler rises up against you, don't leave your place; for the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these things gentleness lays great offenses to rest. 5 There is an evil God will bring you into judgment. 10 Therefore remove which I have seen under the sun, the sort of error which sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your proceeds from the ruler. 6 Folly is set in great dignity, flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity. and the rich sit in a low place. 7 I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking like servants on the earth. 8 He who digs a pit may fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake. 9 Whoever carves out stones may be injured by them. Whoever splits wood may be endangered by it. 10 If the ax is blunt, and one doesn't sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength; but skill brings success. 11 If the snake bites before it is charmed, then is there no profit for the charmer's tongue. 12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but a fool is swallowed by his own lips. 13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. 14 A fool also multiplies words. Man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? 15 The labor of fools wearies every one of them: for he doesn't know how to go to the city. 16 Woe to you, land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning! 17 Happy are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! 18 By slothfulness the roof sinks in; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks. 19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes the life glad; and money is the answer for all things. 20 Don't curse the king, no, not in your thoughts; and don't curse the rich in your bedroom, for a bird of the sky may carry your voice, and that which has wings may tell the matter.

11 Cast your bread on the waters; for you shall find it after many days. 2 Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; for you don't know what evil will be on the earth. 3 If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be. 4 He who observes the wind won't sow; and he who regards the clouds won't reap. 5 As you don't know what is the way of the wind, nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child; even so you don't know the work of God who does all. 6 In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening don't withhold your hand; for you don't know which will prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both will be equally good. 7 Truly the light is sweet, and it is a

1 Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to produce pleasant thing for the eyes to see the sun. 8 Yes, if a an evil odor; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let

> ? Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near, when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them;" 2 Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain; 3 in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows are darkened, 4 and the doors shall be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low; 5 yes, they shall be afraid of heights, and terrors will be on the way; and the almond tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goes to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets; 6 before the silver cord is severed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the spring, or the wheel broken at the cistern. 7 and the dust returns to the earth as it was. and the spirit returns to God who gave it. 8 "Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher. "All is vanity!" 9 Further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. 10 The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth. 11 The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. 12 Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh. 13 This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. 14 For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

Song of Solomon

1 The Song of songs, which is Solomon's. 2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth; for your love is better than wine. 3 Your oils have a pleasing fragrance. Your name is oil poured out, therefore the virgins love you. 4 Take me away with you. Let's hurry. The king has brought me into his rooms. Friends We will be glad and rejoice in you. We will praise your love more than wine! Beloved They are right to love you. 5 I am dark, but lovely, you daughters of Jerusalem, like Kedar's tents, like Solomon's curtains. 6 Don't stare at me because I am dark, because the sun has scorched me. My mother's sons were angry with me. They made me keeper of the vineyards. I haven't kept my own vineyard. 7 Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you graze your flock, where you rest them at noon; for why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions? 8 If you don't know, most beautiful among women, follow the tracks of the sheep. Graze your young goats beside the shepherds' tents. 9 I have compared you, my love, to a steed in Pharaoh's chariots. 10 Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels. 11 We will make you earrings of gold, with studs of silver. 12 While the king sat at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance. 13 My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh, that lies between my breasts. 14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi. 15 Behold, you are beautiful, my love. Behold, you are beautiful. Your eyes are like doves. 16 Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant; and our couch is verdant. 17 The beams of our house are cedars. Our rafters are firs.

2 I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys. 2 As a lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters. 3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, his fruit was sweet to my taste. 4 He brought me to the banquet hall. His banner over me is love. 5 Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples; for I am faint with love. 6 His left hand is under my head. His right hand embraces me. 7 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires. 8 The voice of my beloved! Behold, he comes, leaping on the mountains, skipping on the hills. 9 My beloved is like a roe or a young deer. Behold, he stands behind our wall! He looks in at the windows. He glances through the lattice. 10 My beloved spoke, and said to me, "Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away. 11 For behold, the winter is past. The rain is over and gone. 12 The flowers appear on the earth.

The time of the singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land. 13 The fig tree ripens her green figs. The vines are in blossom. They give out their fragrance. Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away." 14 My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places of the mountainside, let me see your face. Let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet and your face is lovely. 15 Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that plunder the vineyards; for our vineyards are in blossom. 16 My beloved is mine, and I am his. He browses among the lilies. 17 Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be like a roe or a young deer on the mountains of Bether.

3 By night on my bed, I sought him whom my soul loves. I sought him, but I didn't find him. 2 I will get up now, and go about the city; in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves. I sought him, but I didn't find him. 3 The watchmen who go about the city found me; "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?" 4 I had scarcely passed from them, when I found him whom my soul loves. I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the room of her who conceived me. 5 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up nor awaken love, until it so desires. 6 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all spices of the merchant? 7 Behold, it is Solomon's carriage! Sixty mighty men are around it, of the mighty men of Israel. 8 They all handle the sword, and are expert in war. Every man has his sword on his thigh, because of fear in the night. 9 King Solomon made himself a carriage of the wood of Lebanon. 10 He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its seat of purple, the middle of it being paved with love, from the daughters of Jerusalem. 11 Go out, you daughters of Zion, and see King Solomon, with the crown with which his mother has crowned him, in the day of his weddings, in the day of the gladness of

4 Behold, you are beautiful, my love. Behold, you are beautiful. Your eyes are like doves behind your veil. Your hair is as a flock of goats, that descend from Mount Gilead. 2 Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock, which have come up from the washing, where every one of them has twins. None is bereaved among them. 3 Your lips are like scarlet thread. Your mouth is lovely. Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil. 4 Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory, on which a thousand shields hang, all the shields of the mighty men. 5 Your two breasts are like two fawns that are twins of a roe, which feed among the lilies. 6 Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away. I will go to with milk, mounted like iewels. 13 His cheeks are like the mountain of myrrh, to the hill of frankincense. 7 You a bed of spices with towers of perfumes. His lips are are all beautiful, my love. There is no spot in you. 8 like lilies, dropping liquid myrrh. 14 His hands are like Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, with me from rings of gold set with beryl. His body is like ivory work Lebanon. Look from the top of Amana, from the top overlaid with sapphires. 15 His legs are like pillars of of Senir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the marble set on sockets of fine gold. His appearance is mountains of the leopards. 9 You have ravished my like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars. 16 His mouth heart, my sister, my bride. You have ravished my heart is sweetness; yes, he is altogether lovely. This is my with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck. 10 beloved, and this is my friend, daughters of Jerusalem. How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much better is your love than wine, the fragrance of your perfumes than all kinds of spices! 11 Your lips, my bride, drip like the honeycomb. Honey and milk are under your tongue. The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon. 12 My sister, my bride, is a locked up garden; a locked up spring, a sealed fountain. 13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits, henna with spikenard plants, 14 spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree; myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices, 15 a fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, flowing streams from Lebanon. 16 Awake, north wind, and come, you south! Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and taste his precious fruits.

5 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride. I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. Friends Eat, friends! Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved. 2 I was asleep, but my heart was awake. It is the voice of my beloved who knocks: "Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled; for my head is filled with dew, and my hair with the dampness of the night." 3 I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on? I have washed my feet. Indeed, must I soil them? 4 My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch opening. My heart pounded for him. 5 I rose up to open for my beloved. My hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, on the handles of the lock. 6 I opened to my beloved; but my beloved left, and had gone away. My heart went out when he spoke. I looked for him, but I didn't find him. I called him, but he didn't answer. 7 The watchmen who go about the city found me. They beat me. They bruised me. The keepers of the walls took my cloak away from me. 8 I adjure you. daughters of Jerusalem, If you find my beloved, that you tell him that I am faint with love. 9 How is your beloved better than another beloved, you fairest among women? How is your beloved better than another beloved, that you do so adjure us? 10 My beloved is white and ruddy. The best among ten thousand. 11 His head is like the purest gold. His hair is bushy, black as a raven. 12 His eyes are like doves beside the water brooks, washed

Where has your beloved gone, you fairest among women? Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you? 2 My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to pasture his flock in the gardens, and to gather lilies. 3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. He browses among the lilies. 4 You are beautiful, my love, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, awesome as an army with banners. 5 Turn away your eyes from me, for they have overcome me. Your hair is like a flock of goats, that lie along the side of Gilead. 6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, which have come up from the washing, of which every one has twins; not one is bereaved among them. 7 Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil. 8 There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and virgins without number. 9 My dove, my perfect one, is unique. She is her mother's only daughter. She is the favorite one of her who bore her. The daughters saw her. and called her blessed. The queens and the concubines saw her, and they praised her. 10 Who is she who looks out as the morning, beautiful as the moon, clear as the sun, and awesome as an army with banners? 11 I went down into the nut tree grove, to see the green plants of the valley, to see whether the vine budded, and the pomegranates were in flower. 12 Without realizing it, my desire set me with my royal people's chariots. 13 Return, return, Shulammite! Return, return, that we may gaze at you. Lover Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammite, as at the dance of Mahanaim?

How beautiful are your feet in sandals, prince's daughter! Your rounded thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a skillful workman. 2 Your body is like a round goblet, no mixed wine is wanting. Your waist is like a heap of wheat, set about with lilies. 3 Your two breasts are like two fawns, that are twins of a roe. 4 Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bathrabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus. 5 Your head on you is like Carmel. The hair of your head like purple. The king is held captive in its tresses. 6 How beautiful and how pleasant you are, love, for delights! 7 This, your stature, is like a palm tree, your breasts like its fruit. 8 I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree. I will take hold of its fruit." Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine, the smell of your breath like apples. 9 Your mouth is like the best wine, that goes down smoothly for my beloved, gliding through the lips of those who are asleep. 10 I am my beloved's. His desire is toward me. 11 Come, my beloved! Let's go out into the field. Let's lodge in the villages. 12 Let's go early up to the vineyards. Let's see whether the vine has budded, its blossom is open, and the pomegranates are in flower. There I will give you my love. 13 The mandrakes produce fragrance. At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits, new and old, which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

Q Oh that you were like my brother, who nursed from the breasts of my mother! If I found you outside, I would kiss you; yes, and no one would despise me. 2 I would lead you, bringing you into the house of my mother, who would instruct me. I would have you drink spiced wine, of the juice of my pomegranate. 3 His left hand would be under my head. His right hand would embrace me. 4 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires. 5 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved? Beloved Under the apple tree I awakened you. There your mother conceived you. There she was in labor and bore you. 6 Set me as a seal on your heart, as a seal on your arm; for love is strong as death. Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol. Its flashes are flashes of fire, a very flame of Yah. (Sheol h7585) 7 Many waters can't quench love, neither can floods drown it. If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love, he would be utterly scorned. 8 We have a little sister. She has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister in the day when she is to be spoken for? 9 If she is a wall, we will build on her a turret of silver. If she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar. 10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers, then I was in his eyes like one who found peace. 11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon. He leased out the vineyard to keepers. Each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit. 12 My own vineyard is before me. The thousand are for you, Solomon, two hundred for those who tend its fruit. 13 You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance, let me hear your voice! 14 Come away, my beloved! Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

Isaiah

1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. 2 Hear, heavens, and listen, earth; for Yahweh has spoken: "I have nourished and brought up children and they have rebelled against me. 3 The ox knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib: but Israel doesn't know. My people don't consider." 4 Ah sinful nation, a people loaded with iniquity, offspring of evildoers, children who deal corruptly! They have forsaken Yahweh. They have despised the Holy One of Israel. They are estranged and backward. 5 Why should you be beaten more, that you revolt more and more? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. 6 From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it, but wounds, welts, and open sores. They haven't been closed, bandaged. or soothed with oil. 7 Your country is desolate. Your cities are burned with fire. Strangers devour your land in your presence and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. 8 The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a field of melons, like a besieged city. 9 Unless Yahweh of Armies had left to us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom. We in her, but now there are murderers. 22 Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water. 23 Your princes are rebellious and companions of thieves. Everyone loves bribes and follows after rewards. They don't defend the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come to them. 24 Therefore the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, the Mighty One of Israel, says: "Ah, I will get relief from my adversaries, and avenge myself on my enemies. 25 I will turn my hand on you, thoroughly purge away your dross, and will take away all your tin. 26 I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning. Afterward you shall be called 'The city of righteousness, a faithful town.' 27 Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her converts with righteousness. 28 But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and those who forsake Yahweh shall be consumed. 29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired. and you shall be confounded for the gardens that you have chosen. 30 For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water. 31 The strong will be like tinder, and his work like a spark. They will both burn together, and no one will guench them."

2 This is what Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. 2 It shall happen in the latter would have been like Gomorrah. 10 Hear Yahweh's days, that the mountain of Yahweh's house shall be word, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the law of our God, established on the top of the mountains, and shall be you people of Gomorrah! 11 "What are the multitude raised above the hills; and all nations shall flow to it. 3 of your sacrifices to me?", says Yahweh. "I have had Many peoples shall go and say, "Come, let's go up to enough of the burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed the mountain of Yahweh, to the house of the God of animals. I don't delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will or of male goats. 12 When you come to appear before walk in his paths," For the law shall go out of Zion, me, who has required this at your hand, to trample and Yahweh's word from Jerusalem. 4 He will judge my courts? 13 Bring no more vain offerings. Incense between the nations, and will decide concerning many is an abomination to me. New moons, Sabbaths, and peoples. They shall beat their swords into plowshares, convocations— I can't stand evil assemblies. 14 My and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts. lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn They are a burden to me. I am weary of bearing them. war any more. 5 House of Jacob, come, and let's walk 15 When you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes in the light of Yahweh. 6 For you have forsaken your from you. Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled hear. Your hands are full of blood. 16 Wash yourselves. from the east, with those who practice divination like the Make yourself clean. Put away the evil of your doings Philistines, and they clasp hands with the children of from before my eyes. Cease to do evil. 17 Learn to foreigners. 7 Their land is full of silver and gold, neither do well. Seek justice. Relieve the oppressed. Defend is there any end of their treasures. Their land also is full the fatherless. Plead for the widow." 18 "Come now, of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots. 8 and let's reason together," says Yahweh: "Though your Their land also is full of idols. They worship the work sins are as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow, of their own hands, that which their own fingers have Though they are red like crimson, they shall be as made. 9 Man is brought low, and mankind is humbled; wool. 19 If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the therefore don't forgive them. 10 Enter into the rock, and good of the land; 20 but if you refuse and rebel, you hide in the dust, from before the terror of Yahweh, and will be devoured with the sword; for Yahweh's mouth from the glory of his majesty. 11 The lofty looks of man has spoken it." 21 How the faithful city has become a will be brought low, the arrogance of men will be bowed prostitute! She was full of justice. Righteousness lodged down, and Yahweh alone will be exalted in that day. 12 nostrils; for of what account is he?

? For, behold, the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah supply and support, the whole supply of bread, and the whole supply of water; 2 the mighty man, the man of war, the 1 Seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, judge, the prophet, the diviner, the elder, 3 the captain craftsman, and the clever enchanter. 4 I will give boys to be their princes, and children shall rule over them. 5 The people will be oppressed, everyone by another, and everyone by his neighbor. The child will behave himself proudly against the old man, and the wicked against the honorable. 6 Indeed a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying, "You have clothing, you be our ruler, and let this ruin be under your hand." 7 In that day he will cry out, saying, "I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing. You shall not make me ruler of the people." 8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against Yahweh, to provoke the eyes of his glory. 9 The look of their faces testify against them. They parade their sin like Sodom. They don't hide it. Woe to their soul! For they have brought disaster upon themselves. 10 Tell the righteous that it will be well with them, for they will eat the fruit of their deeds. 11 Woe to the wicked! Disaster is upon them, for the deeds of their hands will be paid back to them. 12 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. My people, those who lead you cause you to err, and destroy the way of your paths. 13 Yahweh stands up to contend, and stands to judge the peoples. 14 Yahweh

For there will be a day of Yahweh of Armies for all that will enter into judgment with the elders of his people and is proud and arrogant, and for all that is lifted up, and it their leaders: "It is you who have eaten up the vineyard. shall be brought low— 13 for all the cedars of Lebanon, The plunder of the poor is in your houses. 15 What that are high and lifted up, for all the oaks of Bashan, 14 do you mean that you crush my people, and grind the for all the high mountains, for all the hills that are lifted face of the poor?" says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies. up, 15 for every lofty tower, for every fortified wall, 16 for 16 Moreover Yahweh said, "Because the daughters of all the ships of Tarshish, and for all pleasant imagery. Zion are arrogant, and walk with outstretched necks 17 The loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the and flirting eyes, walking daintily as they go, jingling arrogance of men shall be brought low; and Yahweh ornaments on their feet; 17 therefore the Lord brings alone shall be exalted in that day. 18 The idols shall sores on the crown of the head of the women of Zion, utterly pass away. 19 Men shall go into the caves of and Yahweh will make their scalps bald." 18 In that day the rocks, and into the holes of the earth, from before the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, the the terror of Yahweh, and from the glory of his majesty, headbands, the crescent necklaces, 19 the earrings, when he arises to shake the earth mightily. 20 In that the bracelets, the veils, 20 the headdresses, the ankle day, men shall cast away their idols of silver and their chains, the sashes, the perfume containers, the charms, idols of gold, which have been made for themselves to 21 the signet rings, the nose rings, 22 the fine robes, the worship, to the moles and to the bats, 21 to go into the capes, the cloaks, the purses, 23 the hand mirrors, the caverns of the rocks, and into the clefts of the ragged fine linen garments, the tiaras, and the shawls. 24 lt rocks, from before the terror of Yahweh, and from the shall happen that instead of sweet spices, there shall be glory of his majesty, when he arises to shake the earth rottenness; instead of a belt, a rope; instead of well set mightily. 22 Stop trusting in man, whose breath is in his hair, baldness; instead of a robe, a wearing of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty. 25 Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war. 26 Her gates shall lament and mourn. She shall be desolate and sit on the ground.

saying, "We will eat our own bread, and wear our of fifty, the honorable man, the counselor, the skilled own clothing. Just let us be called by your name. Take away our reproach." 2 In that day, Yahweh's branch will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the beauty and glory of the survivors of Israel. 3 It will happen that he who is left in Zion and he who remains in Jerusalem shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem, 4 when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from within it, by the spirit of justice and by the spirit of burning. 5 Yahweh will create over the whole habitation of Mount Zion and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night, for over all the glory will be a canopy. 6 There will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

> 5 Let me sing for my well beloved a song of my beloved about his vineyard. My beloved had a vineyard on a very fruitful hill. 2 He dug it up, gathered out its stones, planted it with the choicest vine, built a tower in the middle of it, and also cut out a wine press in it. He looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes. 3 "Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard. 4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have

did it yield wild grapes? 5 Now I will tell you what I will tremble, and their dead bodies are as refuse in the do to my vineyard. I will take away its hedge, and it middle of the streets. For all this, his anger is not turned will be eaten up. I will break down its wall, and it will away, but his hand is still stretched out. 26 He will lift be trampled down. 6 I will lay it a wasteland. It won't up a banner to the nations from far away, and he will be pruned or hoed, but it will grow briers and thorns. whistle for them from the end of the earth. Behold, they I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain will come speedily and swiftly. 27 No one shall be weary on it." 7 For the vineyard of Yahweh of Armies is the nor stumble among them; no one shall slumber nor house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant sleep, neither shall the belt of their waist be untied, nor plant. He looked for justice, but behold, oppression, for the strap of their sandals be broken, 28 whose arrows righteousness, but behold, a cry of distress. 8 Woe to are sharp, and all their bows bent. Their horses' hoofs those who join house to house, who lay field to field, will be like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind. 29 until there is no room, and you are made to dwell alone Their roaring will be like a lioness. They will roar like in the middle of the land! 9 In my ears, Yahweh of young lions. Yes, they shall roar, and seize their prey Armies says: "Surely many houses will be desolate, and carry it off, and there will be no one to deliver. 30 even great and beautiful, unoccupied. 10 For ten acres. They will roar against them in that day like the roaring of of vineyard shall yield one bath, and a homer of seed the sea. If one looks to the land, behold, darkness and shall yield an ephah." 11 Woe to those who rise up early distress. The light is darkened in its clouds. in the morning, that they may follow strong drink, who stay late into the night, until wine inflames them! 12 The harp, lyre, tambourine, and flute, with wine, are at their feasts; but they don't respect the work of Yahweh, neither have they considered the operation of his hands. 13 Therefore my people go into captivity for lack of knowledge. Their honorable men are famished, and their multitudes are parched with thirst. 14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged its desire, and opened its mouth without measure: and their glory, their multitude, their pomp, and he who rejoices among them, descend into it. (Sheol h7585) 15 So man is brought low, mankind is humbled, and the eyes of the arrogant ones are humbled; 16 but Yahweh of Armies is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness. 17 Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, and strangers will eat the ruins of the rich. 18 Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, and wickedness as with cart rope, 19 who say, "Let him make haste, let him hasten his work, that we may see it; let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we may know it!" 20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil: who put darkness for light, and light for darkness: who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! 21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! 22 Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine, and champions at mixing strong drink; 23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe, but deny justice for the innocent! 24 Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust, because they have rejected the law of Yahweh of Armies, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel, 25 Therefore Yahweh's anger burns against his people, and he has stretched out his

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple. 2 Above him stood the seraphim. Each one had six wings. With two he covered his face. With two he covered his feet. With two he flew. 3 One called to another, and said, "Holy, holy, holy, is Yahweh of Armies! The whole earth is full of his glory!" 4 The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. 5 Then I said, "Woe is me! For I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips and I live among a people of unclean lips, for my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh of Armies!" 6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. 7 He touched my mouth with it, and said, "Behold, this has touched your lips: and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin forgiven." 8 I heard the Lord's voice, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here I am. Send me!" 9 He said, "Go, and tell this people, 'You hear indeed, but don't understand. You see indeed, but don't perceive.' 10 Make the heart of this people fat. Make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed." 11 Then I said, "Lord, how long?" He answered, "Until cities are waste without inhabitant, houses without man, the land becomes utterly waste, 12 and Yahweh has removed men far away, and the forsaken places are many within the land. 13 If there is a tenth left in it, that also will in turn be consumed, as a terebinth, and as an oak whose stump remains when they are cut down, so the holy seed is its stump."

Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up thousand vines worth a thousand silver shekels, will be to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail for briers and thorns. 24 People will go there with arrows against it. 2 David's house was told, "Syria is allied and with bow, because all the land will be briers and with Ephraim." His heart trembled, and the heart of his thorns. 25 All the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind. you shall not come there for fear of briers and thorns; 3 Then Yahweh said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet but it shall be for the sending out of oxen, and for sheep Ahaz, you, and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the to tread on." conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the fuller's field. 4 Tell him, 'Be careful, and keep calm. Don't be afraid, neither let your heart be faint because of these two tails of smoking torches, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. 5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have plotted evil against you, saying, 6 "Let's go up against Judah, and tear it apart, and let's divide it among ourselves, and set up a king within it, even the son of Tabeel." 7 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: "It shall not stand, neither shall it happen." 8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. Within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken in pieces, so that it shall not be a people. 9 The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established." 10 Yahweh spoke again to Ahaz, saying, 11 "Ask a sign of Yahweh your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above." (Sheol h7585) 12 But Ahaz said, "I won't ask. I won't tempt Yahweh." 13 He said, "Listen now, house of David. Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God also? 14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. 15 He shall eat butter and honey when he knows to refuse the evil and choose the good. 16 For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you abhor shall be forsaken. 17 Yahweh will bring on you, on your people, and on your father's house days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah, even the king of Assyria. 18 It will happen in that day that Yahweh will whistle for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. 19 They shall come, and shall all rest in the desolate valleys, in the clefts of the rocks, on all thorn hedges, and on all pastures. 20 In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard. 21 It shall happen in that day that a man shall keep alive a young cow, and two sheep. 22 It shall happen, that because of the abundance of milk which they shall give he shall eat butter, for everyone will eat

7 In the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of butter and honey that is left within the land. 23 It will Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria and happen in that day that every place where there were a

> 8 Yahweh said to me, "Take a large tablet, and write on it with a man's pen, 'For Maher Shalal Hash Baz'; 2 and I will take for myself faithful witnesses to testify: Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah." 3 I went to the prophetess, and she conceived, and bore a son. Then Yahweh said to me, "Call his name 'Maher Shalal Hash Baz.' 4 For before the child knows how to say, 'My father' and 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria." 5 Yahweh spoke to me yet again, saying, 6 "Because this people has refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; 7 now therefore, behold, the Lord brings upon them the mighty flood waters of the River: the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks. 8 It will sweep onward into Judah. It will overflow and pass through. It will reach even to the neck. The stretching out of its wings will fill the width of your land, O Immanuel. 9 Make an uproar, you peoples, and be broken in pieces! Listen, all you from far countries: dress for battle, and be shattered! Dress for battle, and be shattered! 10 Take counsel together, and it will be brought to nothing; speak the word, and it will not stand, for God is with us." 11 For Yahweh spoke this to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying, 12 "Don't call a conspiracy all that this people call a conspiracy. Don't fear their threats or be terrorized. 13 Yahweh of Armies is who you must respect as holy. He is the one you must fear. He is the one you must dread. 14 He will be a sanctuary, but for both houses of Israel, he will be a stumbling stone and a rock that makes them fall. For the people of Jerusalem, he will be a trap and a snare. 15 Many will stumble over it, fall, be broken, be snared, and be captured." 16 Wrap up the covenant. Seal the law among my disciples. 17 I will wait for Yahweh, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. 18 Behold, I and the children whom Yahweh has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yahweh of Armies, who dwells in Mount Zion. 19 When they tell you, "Consult with those who have familiar spirits and with the wizards, who chirp and who mutter," shouldn't a people consult with their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? 20 Turn to the law and to the covenant! If everyone is profane and an evildoer, and every mouth they don't speak according to this word, surely there is speaks folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, no morning for them. 21 They will pass through it, very but his hand is stretched out still. 18 For wickedness distressed and hungry. It will happen that when they are burns like a fire. It devours the briers and thorns; yes, it hungry, they will worry, and curse their king and their kindles in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward God. They will turn their faces upward, 22 then look to in a column of smoke. 19 Through Yahweh of Armies' the earth and see distress, darkness, and the gloom of wrath, the land is burned up; and the people are the anguish. They will be driven into thick darkness.

Q But there shall be no more gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time, he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time he has made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. 2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. The light has shined on those who lived in the land of the shadow of death. 3 You have multiplied the nation. You have increased their joy. They rejoice before you according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the plunder. 4 For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor. you have broken as in the day of Midian. 5 For all the armor of the armed man in the noisy battle, and the garments rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire. 6 For a child is born to us. A son is given to us; and the government will be on his shoulders. His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. 7 Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, on David's throne, and on his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from that time on, even forever. The zeal of Yahweh of Armies will perform this. 8 The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it falls on Israel. 9 All the people will know, including Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart. 10 "The bricks have fallen, but we will build with cut stone. The sycamore fig trees have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place." 11 Therefore Yahweh will set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, and will stir up his enemies, 12 The Syrians in front, and the Philistines behind: and they will devour Israel with open mouth. For all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. 13 Yet the people have not turned to him who struck them, neither have they sought Yahweh of Armies. 14 Therefore Yahweh will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day. 15 The elder and the honorable man is the head, and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail. 16 For those who lead this people lead them astray; and those who are led by them are destroyed. 17 Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, neither will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows; for fuel for the fire. No one spares his brother. 20 One will devour on the right hand, and be hungry; and he will eat on the left hand, and they will not be satisfied. Everyone will eat the flesh of his own arm: 21 Manasseh eating Ephraim and Ephraim eating Manasseh, and they together will be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

1 (1) Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees. and to the writers who write oppressive decrees 2 to deprive the needy of justice, and to rob the poor among my people of their rights, that widows may be their plunder, and that they may make the fatherless their prey! 3 What will you do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? Where will you leave your wealth? 4 They will only bow down under the prisoners, and will fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. 5 Alas Assyrian, the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation! 6 I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people who anger me I will give him a command to take the plunder and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. 7 However, he doesn't mean so, neither does his heart think so: but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations. 8 For he says, "Aren't all of my princes kings? 9 Isn't Calno like Carchemish? Isn't Hamath like Arpad? Isn't Samaria like Damascus?" 10 As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose engraved images exceeded those of Jerusalem and of Samaria, 11 shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols? 12 Therefore it will happen that when the Lord has performed his whole work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the willful proud heart of the king of Assyria, and the insolence of his arrogant looks. 13 For he has said, "By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom, for I have understanding. I have removed the boundaries of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures. Like a valiant man I have brought down their rulers. 14 My hand has found the riches of the peoples like a nest, and like one gathers eggs that are abandoned, I have gathered all the earth. There was no one who moved their wing, or that opened their mouth, or chirped." 15 Should an ax brag against him who chops with it? Should a saw exalt itself above him who

13 The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw. 2 Set up a banner on the bare mountain! Lift up your voice to them! Wave your hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. 3 I have commanded my consecrated ones; yes, I have called my mighty men for my anger, even my proudly exulting ones. 4 The noise of a multitude is in the mountains, as of a great people; the noise of an uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! Yahweh of Armies is mustering the army for the battle. 5 They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even Yahweh, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. 6 Wail, for Yahweh's day is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty. 7 Therefore all hands will be feeble, and everyone's heart will melt. 8 They will be dismayed. Pangs and sorrows will seize them. They will be in pain like a woman in labor. They will look in amazement one at another. Their faces will be faces of flame. 9 Behold, the day of Yahweh comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy its sinners out of it. 10 For the stars of the sky and its constellations will not give their light. The sun will be darkened in its going out, and the moon will not cause its light to shine. 11 I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity. I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will humble the arrogance of the terrible. 12 I will make people more rare than fine gold, even a person than the pure gold of Ophir. 13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place in Yahweh of Armies' wrath, and in the day of his fierce anger. 14 It will happen that like a hunted gazelle and like sheep that no one gathers, they will each turn to their own people, and will each flee to their own land. 15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through. Everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. 16 Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be ransacked, and their wives raped. 17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not value silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it. 18 Their bows will dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not spare children. 19 Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. 20 It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. The Arabian will not pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flocks lie down there. 21 But wild animals of the desert will lie there, and their houses will be full of jackals. Ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there.

pleasant palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

14 For Yahweh will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land. The foreigner will join himself with them, and they will unite with the house of Jacob. 2 The peoples will take them, and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them in Yahweh's land for servants and for handmaids. They will take as captives those whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. 3 It will happen in the day that Yahweh will give you rest from your sorrow, from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve, 4 that you will take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased! The golden city has ceased!" 5 Yahweh has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers, 6 who struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that no one restrained. 7 The whole earth is at rest, and is guiet. They break out in song. 8 Yes, the cypress trees rejoice with you, with the cedars of Lebanon, saying, "Since you are humbled, no lumberjack has come up against us." 9 Sheol from beneath has moved for you to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the departed spirits for you, even all the rulers of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. (Sheol h7585) 10 They all will answer and ask you, "Have you also become as weak as we are? Have you become like us?" 11 Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread out under you, and worms cover you. (Sheol h7585) 12 How you have fallen from heaven, shining one, son of the dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, who laid the nations low! 13 You said in your heart, "I will ascend into heaven! I will exalt my throne above the stars of God! I will sit on the mountain of assembly, in the far north! 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds! I will make myself like the Most High!" 15 Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the pit. (Sheol h7585) 16 Those who see you will stare at you. They will ponder you, saying, "Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms, 17 who made the world like a wilderness, and overthrew its cities, who didn't release his prisoners to their home?" 18 All the kings of the nations sleep in glory, everyone in his own house. 19 But you are cast away from your tomb like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain who are thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit; like a dead body trodden under foot. 20 You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed fathers, that they not rise up and possess the earth, and land. fill the surface of the world with cities. 22 "I will rise up against them," says Yahweh of Armies, "and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and son's son," says Yahweh. 23 "I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water. I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says Yahweh of Armies. 24 Yahweh of Armies has sworn, saying, "Surely, as I have thought, so shall it happen; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: 25 that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and tread him under foot on my mountains. Then his yoke will leave them, and his burden leave their shoulders. 26 This is the plan that is determined for the whole earth. This is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. 27 For Yahweh of Armies has planned, and who can stop it? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?" 28 This burden was in the year that King Ahaz died. 29 Don't rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod that struck you is broken; for out of the serpent's root an adder will emerge, and his fruit will be a fiery flying serpent. 30 The firstborn of the poor will eat, and the needy will lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant will be killed. 31 Howl, gate! Cry, city! You are melted away, Philistia, all of you; for smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks. 32 What will they answer the messengers of the nation? That Yahweh has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will take refuge.

night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing. high places, to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba. Baldness is on all of their heads. Every beard is cut off. 3 In their streets, they clothe themselves in sackcloth. In their streets and on their housetops, everyone wails, weeping abundantly. 4 Heshbon cries out with Elealeh. Their voice is heard even to Jahaz. Therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud. Their souls tremble within them. 5 My heart cries out for Moab! Her nobles flee to Zoar, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for they go up by the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for on the way to Horonaim, they raise up a cry of destruction. 6 For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass has withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing. 7 Therefore they will carry away the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have stored up, over the brook of the willows. 8 For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab, its wailing to Eglaim, and 16 Send the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion. 2 For it will be that as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so will the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon. 3 Give counsel! Execute justice! Make your shade like the night in the middle of the noonday! Hide the outcasts! Don't betray the fugitive! 4 Let my outcasts dwell with you! As for Moab, be a hiding place for him from the face of the destroyer. For the extortionist is brought to nothing. Destruction ceases. The oppressors are consumed out of the land. 5 A throne will be established in loving kindness. One will sit on it in truth, in the tent of David, judging, seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness. 6 We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; even of his arrogance, his pride, and his wrath. His boastings are nothing. 7 Therefore Moab will wail for Moab. Everyone will wail. You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth, utterly stricken. 8 For the fields of Heshbon languish with the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have broken down its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots were spread abroad. They passed over the sea. 9 Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the battle shout has fallen. 10 Gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful 15 The burden of Moab. > The burden of Damascus. "Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap. 2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken. They will be for flocks, which shall lie down, and no one shall make them afraid. 3 The fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria. They will be as the glory of the children of Israel," says Yahweh of Armies. 4 "It will ravenous birds will eat them in the summer, and all the happen in that day that the glory of Jacob will be made animals of the earth will eat them in the winter. 7 In that thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean. 5 It time, a present will be brought to Yahweh of Armies from will be like when the harvester gathers the wheat, and a people tall and smooth, even from a people awesome his arm reaps the grain. Yes, it will be like when one from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out gleans grain in the valley of Rephaim. 6 Yet gleanings and treads down, whose land the rivers divide, to the will be left there, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree," says Yahweh, the God of Israel. 7 In that day, people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel. 8 They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they respect that which their fingers have made, either the Asherah poles or the incense altars. 9 In that day, their strong cities will be like the forsaken places in the woods and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it will be a desolation. 10 For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock of your strength. Therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set out foreign seedlings. 11 In the day of your planting, you hedge it in. In the morning, you make your seed blossom, but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow. 12 Ah, the uproar of many peoples who roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations that rush like the rushing of mighty waters! 13 The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters, but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. 14 At evening, behold, terror! Before the morning, they are no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

18 Ah, the land of the rustling of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia; 2 that sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of papyrus on the waters, saying, "Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide!" 3 All you inhabitants of the world, and you dwellers on the earth, when a banner is lifted up on the mountains, look! When the trumpet is blown, listen! 4 For Yahweh said to me, "I will be still, and I will see in my dwelling place, like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest." 5 For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and he will cut down and take away the spreading branches. 6 They will be left together for the ravenous birds of the mountains, and for the animals of the earth. 9 The burden of Egypt. "Behold, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt within it. 2 I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. 3 The spirit of the Egyptians will fail within them. I will destroy their counsel. They will seek the idols, the charmers, those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards. 4 I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord. A fierce king will rule over them," says the Lord. Yahweh of Armies. 5 The waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry. 6 The rivers will become foul. The streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up. The reeds and flags will wither away. 7 The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. 8 The fishermen will lament, and all those who fish in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish. 9 Moreover those who work in combed flax, and those who weave white cloth, will be confounded. 10 The pillars will be broken in pieces. All those who work for hire will be grieved in soul. 11 The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish. The counsel of the wisest counselors of Pharaoh has become stupid. How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings"? 12 Where then are your wise men? Let them tell you now; and let them know what Yahweh of Armies has purposed concerning Egypt. 13 The princes of Zoan have become fools. The princes of Memphis are deceived. They have caused Egypt to go astray, those who are the cornerstone of her tribes. 14 Yahweh has mixed a spirit of perverseness in the middle of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all of its works, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit. 15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do. 16 In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the shaking of Yahweh of Armies's hand, which he shakes over them. 17 The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the plans of Yahweh of Armies, which he determines against it. 18 In that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that

20 In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; 2 at that time Yahweh spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loosen the sackcloth from off your waist, and take your sandals from off your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot. 3 Yahweh said, "As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia, 4 so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. 5 They will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. 6 The inhabitants of this coast land will say in that day, 'Behold, this is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And we, how will we escape?"

21 The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from an awesome land. 2 A grievous vision is declared to me. The treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, Elam; attack! I have stopped all of Media's sighing. 3 Therefore my thighs are filled with anguish. Pains have seized me, like the pains of a woman in labor. I am in so much pain that I can't hear. I am so dismayed that I can't see. 4 My heart flutters. Horror has frightened me. The twilight that I desired has been turned into

One calls to me out of Seir, there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian night?" 12 The watchman said, "The morning comes, into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire. Come back Assyrians. 24 In that day, Israel will be the third with again." 13 The burden on Arabia. You will lodge in the Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing within the earth; 25 thickets in Arabia, you caravans of Dedanites. 14 They because Yahweh of Armies has blessed them, saying, brought water to him who was thirsty. The inhabitants of "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria the work of my the land of Tema met the fugitives with their bread. 15 For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the heat of battle. 16 For the Lord said to me, "Within a year, as a worker bound by contract would count it, all the glory of Kedar will fail, 17 and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, will be few: for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has spoken it."

22 The burden of the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops? 2 You that are full of shouting, a tumultuous city, a joyous town, your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle. 3 All your rulers fled away together. They were bound by the archers. All who were found by you were bound together. They fled far away. 4 Therefore I said, "Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. Don't labor to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people. 5 For it is a day of confusion, and of treading down, and of perplexity from the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, in the valley of vision, a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains." 6 Elam carried his quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. 7 Your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate. 8 He took away the covering of Judah; and you looked in that day to the armor in the house of the forest. 9 You saw the breaches of David's city, that they were many; and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool. 10 You counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. 11 You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the trembling for me. 5 They prepare the table. It will be cut down and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for Yahweh has spoken it."

It will not be treasured nor laid up; for her no one will shut. He will shut, and no one will open. 23 I merchandise will be for those who dwell before Yahweh, 24 Behold, Yahweh makes the earth empty, makes it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants. 2 It will be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest. 23 The burden of Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish! 3 The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no for Yahweh has spoken this word. 4 The earth mourns entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to and fades away. The world languishes and fades away. them. 2 Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom The lofty people of the earth languish. 5 The earth also the merchants of Sidon that pass over the sea have is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have replenished. 3 On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue. She was the the everlasting covenant. 6 Therefore the curse has market of nations. 4 Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea devoured the earth, and those who dwell therein are has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, "I have found guilty. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are not travailed, nor given birth, neither have I nourished burned, and few men are left. 7 The new wine mourns. young men, nor brought up virgins." 5 When the report The vine languishes. The treacherous have dealt treacherously. and brought to the ground, even to the dust. Yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously. 17 Fear, the pit, and the snare are on you who inhabit the earth. 18 It will happen that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the middle of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. 19 The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart. The earth is shaken violently. 20 The earth will stagger like a drunken man, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again. 21 It will happen in that day that Yahweh will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth. 22 They will be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and will be shut up in the prison; and after many days they will be visited. 23 Then the moon will be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for Yahweh of Armies will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem; and glory will be before his elders.

 $26\,\mathrm{ln}$ that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah: "We have a strong city. God appoints salvation for walls and bulwarks. 2 Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter: the one which keeps faith. 3 You will keep whoever's mind is steadfast in perfect peace, because he trusts in you. 4 Trust in Yahweh forever; for in Yah, Yahweh, is an everlasting Rock. 5 For he has brought down those who dwell on high, the lofty city. He lays it low. He lays it low even to the ground. He brings it even to the dust. 6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor and the steps of the needy." 7 The way of the just is uprightness. You who are upright make the path of the righteous level. 8 Yes, in the way of your judgments, Yahweh, we have waited for you. Your name and your renown are the desire of our soul. 9 With my soul I have desired you in the night. Yes, with my spirit within me I will seek you earnestly; for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. 10 Let favor be shown to 25 Yahweh, you are my God. I will exalt you! I will the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness. In the praise your name, for you have done wonderful land of uprightness he will deal wrongfully, and will not things, things planned long ago, in complete faithfulness see Yahweh's majesty. 11 Yahweh, your hand is lifted and truth. 2 For you have made a city into a heap, a up, yet they don't see; but they will see your zeal for the fortified city into a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no people and be disappointed. Yes, fire will consume your city. It will never be built. 3 Therefore a strong people adversaries. 12 Yahweh, you will ordain peace for us, will glorify you. A city of awesome nations will fear for you have also done all our work for us. 13 Yahweh you. 4 For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a our God, other lords besides you have had dominion stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from over us, but we will only acknowledge your name. 14 the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of The dead shall not live. The departed spirits shall not the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall. 5 As rise. Therefore you have visited and destroyed them, the heat in a dry place you will bring down the noise and caused all memory of them to perish. 15 You have of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the increased the nation, O Yahweh. You have increased song of the dreaded ones will be brought low. 6 In this the nation! You are glorified! You have enlarged all mountain, Yahweh of Armies will make all peoples a the borders of the land. 16 Yahweh, in trouble they feast of choice meat, a feast of choice wines, of choice have visited you. They poured out a prayer when your meat full of marrow, of well refined choice wines. 7 He chastening was on them. 17 Just as a woman with child, will destroy in this mountain the surface of the covering who draws near the time of her delivery, is in pain and that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over cries out in her pangs, so we have been before you, all nations. 8 He has swallowed up death forever! The Yahweh. 18 We have been with child. We have been in not worked any deliverance in the earth; neither have who are overcome with wine! 2 Behold, the Lord has the inhabitants of the world fallen. 19 Your dead shall one who is mighty and strong. Like a storm of hail, a live. Their dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, you destroying storm, and like a storm of mighty waters who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the dew of overflowing, he will cast them down to the earth with his herbs, and the earth will cast out the departed spirits. hand. 3 The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim 20 Come, my people, enter into your rooms, and shut will be trodden under foot. 4 The fading flower of his your doors behind you. Hide yourself for a little moment, glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, until the indignation is past. 21 For, behold, Yahweh shall be like the first-ripe fig before the summer, which comes out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the someone picks and eats as soon as he sees it. 5 In that earth for their iniquity. The earth also will disclose her day, Yahweh of Armies will become a crown of glory and blood, and will no longer cover her slain.

77 In that day, Yahweh with his hard and great and strong sword will punish leviathan, the fleeing serpent, and leviathan, the twisted serpent; and he will kill the dragon that is in the sea. 2 In that day, sing to her, "A pleasant vineyard! 3 I, Yahweh, am its keeper. I will water it every moment. Lest anyone damage it, I will keep it night and day. 4 Wrath is not in me, but if I should find briers and thorns, I would do battle! I would march on them and I would burn them together. 5 Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me. Let him make peace with me." 6 In days to come, Jacob will take root. Israel will blossom and bud. They will fill the surface of the world with fruit. 7 Has he struck them as he struck those who struck them? Or are they killed like those who killed them were killed? 8 In measure, when you send them away, you contend with them. He has removed them with his rough blast in the day of the east wind. 9 Therefore by this the iniquity of Jacob will be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, so that the Asherah poles and the incense altars shall rise no more. 10 For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness. The calf will feed there, and there he will lie down, and consume its branches. 11 When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off. The women will come and set them on fire, for they are a people of no understanding. Therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them, and he who formed them will show them no favor. 12 It will happen in that day that Yahweh will thresh from the flowing stream of the Euphrates to the brook of Egypt; and you will be gathered one by one, children of Israel. 13 It will happen in that day that a great trumpet will be blown; and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come; and they will worship Yahweh in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

a diadem of beauty to the residue of his people, 6 and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate. 7 They also reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink. The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink. They are swallowed up by wine. They stagger with strong drink. They err in vision. They stumble in judgment. 8 For all tables are completely full of filthy vomit and filthiness. 9 Whom will he teach knowledge? To whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? 10 For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little. 11 But he will speak to this nation with stammering lips and in another language. 12 to whom he said, "This is the resting place. Give rest to the weary," and "This is the refreshing;" yet they would not hear. 13 Therefore Yahweh's word will be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, fall backward, be broken, be snared, and be taken. 14 Therefore hear Yahweh's word, you scoffers, that rule this people in Jerusalem: 15 "Because you have said, 'We have made a covenant with death, and we are in agreement with Sheol. When the overflowing scourge passes through, it won't come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood." (Sheol h7585) 16 Therefore the Lord Yahweh says, "Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone of a sure foundation. He who believes shall not act hastily. 17 I will make justice the measuring line, and righteousness the plumb line. The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding place. 18 Your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol shall not stand. When the overflowing scourge passes through, then you will be trampled down by it. (Sheol h7585) 19 As often as it passes through, it will seize you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be nothing but terror to understand the message." 20 For the bed is too short to 28 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of stretch out on, and the blanket is too narrow to wrap Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious oneself in. 21 For Yahweh will rise up as on Mount beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley of those Perazim. He will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his unusual work, and bring to can't, for it is sealed:" 12 and the book is delivered to is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

29 Woe to Ariel! Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the feasts come around; 2 then I will distress Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation. She shall be to me as an altar hearth. 3 I will encamp against you all around you, and will lay siege against you with posted troops. I will raise siege works against you. 4 You will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground. Your speech will mumble out of the dust. Your voice will be as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust. 5 But the multitude of your foes will be like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones like chaff that blows away. Yes, it will be in an instant, suddenly. 6 She will be visited by Yahweh of Armies with thunder, with earthquake, with great noise, with whirlwind and storm, and with the flame of a devouring fire. 7 The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her stronghold. and who distress her, will be like a dream, a vision of the night. 8 It will be like when a hungry man dreams, and behold, he eats; but he awakes, and his hunger isn't satisfied; or like when a thirsty man dreams, and behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and behold, he is faint, and he is still thirsty. The multitude of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion will be like that. 9 Pause and wonder! Blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. 10 For Yahweh has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the prophets; and he has covered your heads, the seers. 11 All vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and he says, "I pass his act, his extraordinary act. 22 Now therefore one who is not educated, saying, "Read this, please." don't be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for and he says, "I can't read." 13 The Lord said, "Because I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord, this people draws near with their mouth and honors me Yahweh of Armies, on the whole earth. 23 Give ear, and with their lips, but they have removed their heart far hear my voice! Listen, and hear my speech! 24 Does from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of he who plows to sow plow continually? Does he keep men which has been taught; 14 therefore, behold, I will turning the soil and breaking the clods? 25 When he proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, has leveled its surface, doesn't he plant the dill, and even a marvelous work and a wonder; and the wisdom scatter the cumin seed, and put in the wheat in rows, of their wise men will perish, and the understanding the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its of their prudent men will be hidden." 15 Woe to those place? 26 For his God instructs him in right judgment who deeply hide their counsel from Yahweh, and whose and teaches him. 27 For the dill isn't threshed with a deeds are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us?" sharp instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned over the and "Who knows us?" 16 You turn things upside down! cumin; but the dill is beaten out with a stick, and the Should the potter be thought to be like clay, that the cumin with a rod. 28 Bread flour must be ground; so he thing made should say about him who made it, "He will not always be threshing it. Although he drives the didn't make me;" or the thing formed say of him who wheel of his threshing cart over it, his horses don't grind formed it, "He has no understanding"? 17 Isn't it yet a it. 29 This also comes out from Yahweh of Armies, who very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be regarded as a forest? 18 In that day, the deaf will hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and out of darkness. 19 The humble also will increase their joy in Yahweh, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. 20 For the ruthless is brought to nothing, and the scoffer ceases, and all those who are alert to do evil are cut off— 21 who cause a person to be indicted by a word, and lay a snare for one who reproves in the gate, and who deprive the innocent of justice with false testimony. 22 Therefore Yahweh, who redeemed Abraham, says concerning the house of Jacob: "Jacob shall no longer be ashamed, neither shall his face grow pale. 23 But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the middle of him, they will sanctify my name. Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel. 24 They also who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will receive instruction."

> "Woe to the rebellious children", says Yahweh, "who take counsel, but not from me; and who make an alliance, but not with my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin; 2 who set out to go down into Egypt without asking for my advice, to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt! 3 Therefore the strength of Pharaoh will be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. 4 For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors have come to Hanes. 5 They shall all be ashamed because of a people that can't profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach." 6 The burden of the animals of the South. Through the land of trouble and anguish, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of lofty mountain and on every high hill in the day of the camels, to an unprofitable people. 7 For Egypt helps great slaughter, when the towers fall. 26 Moreover the in vain, and to no purpose; therefore I have called her light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and Rahab who sits still. 8 Now go, write it before them the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be light of seven days, in the day that Yahweh binds up for the time to come forever and ever. 9 For it is a the fracture of his people, and heals the wound they rebellious people, lying children, children who will not were struck with. 27 Behold, Yahweh's name comes hear Yahweh's law; 10 who tell the seers, "Don't see!" from far away, burning with his anger, and in thick rising and the prophets, "Don't prophesy to us right things. smoke. His lips are full of indignation. His tongue is as a Tell us pleasant things. Prophesy deceits. 11 Get out devouring fire. 28 His breath is as an overflowing stream of the way. Turn away from the path. Cause the Holy that reaches even to the neck, to sift the nations with One of Israel to cease from before us." 12 Therefore the sieve of destruction. A bridle that leads to ruin will the Holy One of Israel says, "Because you despise this be in the jaws of the peoples. 29 You will have a song, word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and as in the night when a holy feast is kept, and gladness rely on it. 13 therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come to breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose Yahweh's mountain, to Israel's Rock. 30 Yahweh will breaking comes suddenly in an instant. 14 He will break cause his glorious voice to be heard, and will show the it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces descent of his arm, with the indignation of his anger and without sparing, so that there won't be found among the the flame of a devouring fire, with a blast, storm, and broken pieces a piece good enough to take fire from the hailstones. 31 For through Yahweh's voice the Assyrian hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern." 15 For will be dismayed. He will strike him with his rod. 32 thus said the Lord Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, "You Every stroke of the rod of punishment, which Yahweh will be saved in returning and rest. Your strength will will lay on him, will be with the sound of tambourines be in quietness and in confidence." You refused, 16 and harps. He will fight with them in battles, brandishing but you said, "No, for we will flee on horses;" therefore weapons. 33 For his burning place has long been ready. you will flee; and, "We will ride on the swift;" therefore Yes, it is prepared for the king. He has made its pyre those who pursue you will be swift. 17 One thousand deep and large with fire and much wood. Yahweh's will flee at the threat of one. At the threat of five, you breath, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it, will flee until you are left like a beacon on the top of a mountain, and like a banner on a hill. 18 Therefore Yahweh will wait, that he may be gracious to you; and therefore he will be exalted, that he may have mercy on you, for Yahweh is a God of justice. Blessed are all those who wait for him. 19 For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem. You will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry. When he hears you, he will answer you. 20 Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers won't be hidden any more, but your eyes will see your teachers; 21 and when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left. your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way. Walk in it." 22 You shall defile the overlaying of your engraved images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away as an unclean thing. You shall tell it, "Go away!" 23 He will give the rain for your seed, with which you will sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the ground will be rich and plentiful. In that day, your livestock will feed in large pastures. 24 The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that till the ground will eat savory feed, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fork.

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses, and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they don't look to the Holy One of Israel, and they don't seek Yahweh! 2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring disaster, and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of those who work iniquity. 3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When Yahweh stretches out his hand, both he who helps shall stumble, and he who is helped shall fall, and they all shall be consumed together. 4 For Yahweh says to me, "As the lion and the young lion growling over his prey, if a multitude of shepherds is called together against him, will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for their noise, so Yahweh of Armies will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its heights. 5 As birds hovering, so Yahweh of Armies will protect Jerusalem. He will protect and deliver it. He will pass over and preserve it." 6 Return to him from whom you have deeply revolted, children of Israel. 7 For in that day everyone shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold-sin which your own hands have made for you. 8 "The Assyrian will fall by the sword, not of 2 Yahweh, be gracious to us. We have waited for you. become subject to forced labor. 9 His rock will pass away by reason of terror, and his princes will be afraid his furnace in Jerusalem.

Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in justice. 2 A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the storm, as streams of water in a dry place, as the shade of a large rock in a weary land. 3 The eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will listen. 4 The heart of the rash will understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly. 5 The fool will no longer be called noble, nor the scoundrel be highly respected. 6 For the fool will speak folly, and his heart will work iniquity, to practice profanity, and to utter error against Yahweh, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. 7 The ways of the scoundrel are evil. He devises wicked plans to destroy the humble with lying words, even when the needy speaks right. 8 But the noble devises noble things, and he will continue in noble things. 9 Rise up, you women who are at ease! Hear my voice! You careless daughters, give ear to my speech! 10 For days beyond a year you will be troubled, you careless women; for the vintage will fail. The harvest won't come. 11 Tremble, you women who are at ease! Be troubled, you careless ones! Strip yourselves, make yourselves naked, and put sackcloth on your waist. 12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine. 13 Thorns and briers will come up on my people's land; yes, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city. 14 For the palace will be forsaken. The populous city will be deserted. The hill and the watchtower will be for dens forever, a delight for wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks, 15 until the Spirit is poured on us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is considered a forest. 16 Then justice will dwell in the wilderness; and righteousness will remain in the fruitful field. 17 The work of righteousness will be peace, and the effect of righteousness, guietness and confidence forever. 18 My people will live in a peaceful habitation, in safe dwellings, and in quiet resting places, 19 though hail flattens the forest, and the city is leveled completely. 20 Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send out the feet of the ox and the donkey.

33 Woe to you who destroy, but you weren't destroyed, and who betray, but nobody betrayed you! When you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed; and when you have finished betrayal, you will be betrayed.

man; and the sword, not of mankind, shall devour him. Be our strength every morning, our salvation also in He will flee from the sword, and his young men will the time of trouble. 3 At the noise of the thunder, the peoples have fled. When you lift yourself up, the nations are scattered. 4 Your plunder will be gathered as the of the banner," says Yahweh, whose fire is in Zion, and caterpillar gathers. Men will leap on it as locusts leap. 5 Yahweh is exalted, for he dwells on high. He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness. 6 There will be stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge. The fear of Yahweh is your treasure. 7 Behold, their valiant ones cry outside; the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly. 8 The highways are desolate. The traveling man ceases. The covenant is broken. He has despised the cities. He doesn't respect man. 9 The land mourns and languishes. Lebanon is confounded and withers away. Sharon is like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel are stripped bare. 10 "Now I will arise," says Yahweh. "Now I will lift myself up. Now I will be exalted. 11 You will conceive chaff. You will give birth to stubble. Your breath is a fire that will devour you. 12 The peoples will be like the burning of lime, like thorns that are cut down and burned in the fire. 13 Hear, you who are far off, what I have done; and, you who are near, acknowledge my might." 14 The sinners in Zion are afraid. Trembling has seized the godless ones. Who among us can live with the devouring fire? Who among us can live with everlasting burning? 15 He who walks righteously and speaks blamelessly, he who despises the gain of oppressions, who gestures with his hands, refusing to take a bribe, who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed, and shuts his eyes from looking at evil-16 he will dwell on high. His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks. His bread will be supplied. His waters will be sure. 17 Your eyes will see the king in his beauty. They will see a distant land. 18 Your heart will meditate on the terror. Where is he who counted? Where is he who weighed? Where is he who counted the towers? 19 You will no longer see the fierce people, a people of a deep speech that you can't comprehend, with a strange language that you can't understand. 20 Look at Zion, the city of our appointed festivals. Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, a tent that won't be removed. Its stakes will never be plucked up, nor will any of its cords be broken. 21 But there Yahweh will be with us in majesty, a place of wide rivers and streams, in which no galley with oars will go, neither will any gallant ship pass by there. 22 For Yahweh is our judge. Yahweh is our lawgiver. Yahweh is our king. He will save us. 23 Your rigging is untied. They couldn't strengthen the foot of their mast. They couldn't spread the sail. 36 Now in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all of the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. 2 The king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a large army. He stood by the agueduct from the upper pool in the fuller's field highway. 3 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph the recorder came out to him. 4 Rabshakeh said to them, "Now tell Hezekiah, 'The great king, the king of Assyria, says, "What confidence is this in which you trust? 5 I say that your counsel and strength for the war are only vain words. Now in whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? 6 Behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt, which if a man leans on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. 7 But if you tell me, 'We trust in Yahweh our God,' isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar'?" 8 Now therefore, please make a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. 9 How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in 35 The wilderness and the dry land will be glad.  $\mathbf{37}$ When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into Yahweh's house. 2 He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. 3 They said to him, "Hezekiah says, 'Today is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to give birth. 4 It may be Yahweh your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left." 5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah. 6 Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'Yahweh says, "Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. 7 Behold, I will put a spirit in him and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. 23 Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. 24 By your servants, you have defied the Lord, and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice cypress trees. I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field. 25 I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt." 26 "Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it in ancient times? 63 Who is this who comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? Who is this who is glorious in his clothing, marching in the greatness of his strength? "It is I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save." 2 Why is your clothing red, and your garments like him who treads in the wine vat? 3 "I have trodden the wine press alone. Of the peoples, no one was with me. Yes, I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my wrath. Their lifeblood is sprinkled on my garments, and I have stained all my clothing. 4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed has come. 5 I looked, and there was no one to help; and I wondered that there was no one to uphold. Therefore my own arm brought salvation to me. My own wrath upheld me. 6 I trod down the peoples in my anger and made them drunk in my wrath. I poured their lifeblood out on the earth." 7 I will tell of the loving kindnesses of Yahweh and the praises of Yahweh, according to all that Yahweh has given to us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he has given to them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses. 8 For he said, "Surely, they are my people, children who will not deal falsely;" so he became their Savior. 9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them. In his love and in his pity he redeemed them. He bore them, and carried them all the days of old. 10 But they rebelled and grieved his Holy Spirit. Therefore he turned and became their enemy, and he himself fought against them. 11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, "Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is he who put his Holy Spirit among them?" 12 Who caused his glorious arm to be at Moses' right hand? Who divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name? 13 Who led them through the depths, like a horse in the wilderness, so that they didn't stumble? 14 As the livestock that go down into the valley, Yahweh's Spirit caused them to rest. So you led your people to make yourself a glorious name. 15 Look down from heaven, and see from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory. Where are your zeal and your mighty acts? The yearning of your heart and your compassion is restrained toward me. 16 For you are our Father, though Abraham doesn't know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us. You, Yahweh, are our Father. Our Redeemer from everlasting is your name. 17 O Yahweh, why do you make us wander from your ways, and harden our heart from your fear? Shall a land be born in one himself in the earth will bless himself in the God of truth; day? Shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as and he who swears in the earth will swear by the God of Zion travailed, she gave birth to her children. 9 Shall truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and I bring to the birth, and not cause to be delivered?" because they are hidden from my eyes. 17 "For, behold, says Yahweh. "Shall I who cause to give birth shut the I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former womb?" says your God. 10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem, things will not be remembered, nor come into mind. 18 and be glad for her, all you who love her. Rejoice for But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; joy with her, all you who mourn over her; 11 that you for, behold, I create Jerusalem to be a delight, and her may nurse and be satisfied at the comforting breasts; people a joy. 19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight that you may drink deeply, and be delighted with the in my people; and the voice of weeping and the voice of abundance of her glory." 12 For Yahweh says, "Behold, I crying will be heard in her no more. 20 "No more will will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the there be an infant who only lives a few days, nor an old nations like an overflowing stream, and you will nurse. man who has not filled his days; for the child will die one You will be carried on her side, and will be dandled on hundred years old, and the sinner being one hundred her knees. 13 As one whom his mother comforts, so I years old will be accursed. 21 They will build houses will comfort you. You will be comforted in Jerusalem." and inhabit them. They will plant vineyards and eat their 14 You will see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and fruit. 22 They will not build and another inhabit. They will your bones will flourish like the tender grass. Yahweh's not plant and another eat; for the days of my people will hand will be known among his servants; and he will be like the days of a tree, and my chosen will long enjoy have indignation against his enemies. 15 For, behold, the work of their hands. 23 They will not labor in vain Yahweh will come with fire, and his charjots will be nor give birth for calamity; for they are the offspring of like the whirlwind; to render his anger with fierceness, Yahweh's blessed and their descendants with them. 24 and his rebuke with flames of fire. 16 For Yahweh will It will happen that before they call, I will answer; and execute judgment by fire and by his sword on all flesh; while they are yet speaking, I will hear. 25 The wolf and and those slain by Yahweh will be many. 17 "Those the lamb will feed together. The lion will eat straw like who sanctify themselves and purify themselves to go to the ox. Dust will be the serpent's food. They will not hurt the gardens, following one in the middle, eating pig's nor destroy in all my holy mountain," says Yahweh.

I will gather all nations and languages, and they will come, and will see my glory. 19 "I will set a sign among them, and I will send those who escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to far-away islands, who have not heard my fame, nor have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. 20 They shall bring all your brothers out of all the nations for an offering to Yahweh, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, and on camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says Yahweh, as the children of Israel bring their offering in a clean vessel into Yahweh's house. 21 Of them I will also select priests and Levites," says Yahweh. 22 "For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me," says Yahweh, "so your offspring and your name shall remain. 23 It shall happen that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, all flesh will come to worship before me," says Yahweh. 24 "They will go out, and look at the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against me; for their worm will not die, nor will their fire be guenched, and they will be loathsome to all mankind."

Jeremiah

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, one of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. 2 Yahweh's word came to him in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. 3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. 4 Now Yahweh's word came to me, saving, 5 "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you. Before you were born, I sanctified you. I have appointed you a prophet to the nations." 6 Then I said. "Ah. Lord Yahweh! Behold. I don't know how to speak; for I am a child." 7 But Yahweh said to me, "Don't say, 'I am a child;' for you must go to whomever I send you, and you must say whatever I command you. 8 Don't be afraid because of them, for I am with you to rescue you," says Yahweh. 9 Then Yahweh stretched out his hand and touched my mouth. Then Yahweh said to me, "Behold, I have put my words in your mouth. 10 Behold, I have today set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to uproot and to tear down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant." 11 Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saving, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree." 12 Then Yahweh said to me, "You have seen well; for I watch over my word to perform it." 13 Yahweh's word came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?" I said, "I see a boiling cauldron; and it is tipping away from the north." 14 Then Yahweh said to me, "Out of the north, evil will break out on all the inhabitants of the land. 15 For behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north," says Yahweh. "They will come, and they will each set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls all around, and against all the cities of Judah. 16 I will utter my judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods. and worshiped the works of their own hands. 17 "You therefore put your belt on your waist, arise, and say to them all that I command you. Don't be dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them, 18 For behold, I have made you today a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land-against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land. 19 They will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you", says Yahweh, "to rescue you."

2 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Go and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, 'Yahweh

says, "I remember for you the kindness of your youth, your love as a bride, how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. 3 Israel was holiness to Yahweh, the first fruits of his increase. All who devour him will be held guilty. Evil will come on them," says Yahweh." 4 Hear Yahweh's word, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel! 5 Yahweh says, "What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they have gone far from me, and have walked after worthless vanity, and have become worthless? 6 They didn't say, 'Where is Yahweh who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that no one passed through, and where no man lived?' 7 I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruit and its goodness; but when you entered, you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. 8 The priests didn't say, 'Where is Yahweh?' and those who handle the law didn't know me. The rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal and followed things that do not profit. 9 "Therefore I will yet contend with you," savs Yahweh, "and I will contend with your children's children. 10 For pass over to the islands of Kittim, and see. Send to Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there has been such a thing. 11 Has a nation changed its gods, which really are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which doesn't profit. 12 "Be astonished, you heavens, at this and be horribly afraid. Be very desolate," says Yahweh. 13 "For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the spring of living waters, and cut out cisterns for themselves: broken cisterns that can't hold water. 14 Is Israel a slave? Is he born into slavery? Why has he become a captive? 15 The young lions have roared at him and raised their voices. They have made his land waste. His cities are burned up, without inhabitant. 16 The children also of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head. 17 "Haven't you brought this on yourself, in that you have forsaken Yahweh your God, when he led you by the way? 18 Now what do you gain by going to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor? Or why do you go on the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River? 19 "Your own wickedness will correct you, and your backsliding will rebuke you. Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing. that you have forsaken Yahweh your God, and that my fear is not in you," says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies. 20 "For long ago I broke off your yoke, and burst your bonds. You said, 'I will not serve;' for on every high hill and under every green tree you bowed yourself, playing the prostitute. 21 Yet I had planted you a noble vine, a you won't prosper with them.

? "They say, 'If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him, and becomes another man's, should he return to her again?' Wouldn't that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the prostitute with many lovers; yet return again to me," says Yahweh. 2 "Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been lain with? You have sat waiting for

pure and faithful seed. How then have you turned into them by the road, as an Arabian in the wilderness. You the degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me? 22 For have polluted the land with your prostitution and with though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, your wickedness. 3 Therefore the showers have been yet your iniquity is marked before me," says the Lord withheld and there has been no latter rain; yet you Yahweh. 23 "How can you say, 'I am not defiled. I have have had a prostitute's forehead and you refused to not gone after the Baals'? See your way in the valley. be ashamed. 4 Will you not from this time cry to me, Know what you have done. You are a swift dromedary 'My Father, you are the guide of my youth!'? 5 "'Will he traversing her ways, 24 a wild donkey used to the retain his anger forever? Will he keep it to the end?' wilderness, that sniffs the wind in her craving. When Behold, you have spoken and have done evil things, she is in heat, who can turn her away? All those who and have had your way." 6 Moreover, Yahweh said to seek her will not weary themselves. In her month, they me in the days of Josiah the king, "Have you seen that will find her. 25 "Keep your feet from being bare, and which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on your throat from thirst. But you said, 'It is in vain. No, for every high mountain and under every green tree, and I have loved strangers, and I will go after them.' 26 As has played the prostitute there. 7 I said after she had the thief is ashamed when he is found, so the house of done all these things, 'She will return to me;' but she Israel is ashamed—they, their kings, their princes, their didn't return, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. 8 priests, and their prophets, 27 who tell wood, 'You are I saw when, for this very cause, that backsliding Israel my father,' and a stone, 'You have given birth to me,' for had committed adultery, I had put her away and given they have turned their back to me, and not their face, but her a certificate of divorce, yet treacherous Judah, her in the time of their trouble they will say, 'Arise, and save sister, had no fear, but she also went and played the us!' 28 "But where are your gods that you have made prostitute. 9 Because she took her prostitution lightly, for yourselves? Let them arise, if they can save you in the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with the time of your trouble, for you have as many gods as stones and with wood. 10 Yet for all this her treacherous you have towns, O Judah. 29 "Why will you contend sister, Judah, has not returned to me with her whole with me? You all have transgressed against me," says heart, but only in pretense," says Yahweh. 11 Yahweh Yahweh. 30 "I have struck your children in vain. They said to me, "Backsliding Israel has shown herself more received no correction. Your own sword has devoured righteous than treacherous Judah. 12 Go, and proclaim your prophets, like a destroying lion. 31 Generation, these words toward the north, and say, 'Return, you consider Yahweh's word. Have I been a wilderness to backsliding Israel,' says Yahweh; 'I will not look in anger Israel? Or a land of thick darkness? Why do my people on you, for I am merciful,' says Yahweh. 'I will not say, 'We have broken loose. We will come to you no keep anger forever. 13 Only acknowledge your iniquity, more'? 32 "Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride that you have transgressed against Yahweh your God, her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me for days and have scattered your ways to the strangers under without number. 33 How well you prepare your way to every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice," seek love! Therefore you have even taught the wicked says Yahweh. 14 "Return, backsliding children," says women your ways. 34 Also the blood of the souls of the Yahweh, "for I am a husband to you. I will take one of innocent poor is found in your skirts. You didn't find them you from a city, and two from a family, and I will bring breaking in, but it is because of all these things. 35 "Yet you to Zion. 15 I will give you shepherds according you said, 'I am innocent. Surely his anger has turned to my heart, who will feed you with knowledge and away from me.' "Behold, I will judge you, because you understanding. 16 It will come to pass, when you are say, 'I have not sinned.' 36 Why do you go about so multiplied and increased in the land in those days," says much to change your ways? You will be ashamed of Yahweh, "they will no longer say, 'the ark of Yahweh's Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria. 37 You covenant!' It will not come to mind. They won't remember will also leave that place with your hands on your head; it. They won't miss it, nor will another be made. 17 At for Yahweh has rejected those in whom you trust, and that time they will call Jerusalem 'Yahweh's Throne,' and all the nations will be gathered to it, to Yahweh's name, to Jerusalem. They will no longer walk after the stubbornness of their evil heart. 18 In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your fathers. 19 "But I said, 'How I desire to put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the armies of the nations!' and I said. 'You shall call me I will also utter judgments against them." 13 Behold, he me.' 20 "Surely as a wife treacherously departs from whirlwind. His horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to house of Israel," says Yahweh. 21 A voice is heard from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long Return, you backsliding children, and I will heal your Jerusalem, 'Watchers come from a far country, and raise Yahweh our God. 23 Truly help from the hills, the tumult a field, they are against her all around, because she have not obeyed Yahweh our God's voice."

▲ "If you will return, Israel," says Yahweh, "if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then you will not be removed; 2 and you will swear, 'As Yahweh lives,' in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. The nations will bless themselves in him, and they will glory in him." 3 For Yahweh says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, "Break up your fallow ground, and don't sow among thorns. 4 Circumcise vourselves to Yahweh, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go out like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. 5 Declare in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, 'Blow the trumpet in the land!' Cry aloud and say, 'Assemble yourselves! Let's go into the fortified cities!' 6 Set up a standard toward Zion. Flee for safety! Don't wait; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction," 7 A lion has gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations. He is on his way. He has gone out from his place, to make your land desolate, that your cities be laid waste, without inhabitant. 8 For this, clothe yourself with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of Yahweh hasn't turned back from us. 9 "It will happen at that day," says Yahweh, "that the heart of the king will perish, along with the heart of the princes. The priests will be astonished. and the prophets will wonder." 10 Then I said, "Ah, Lord Yahweh! Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'You will have peace;' whereas the sword reaches to the heart." 11 At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem. "A hot wind blows from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to

"My Father", and shall not turn away from following will come up as clouds, and his chariots will be as the her husband, so you have dealt treacherously with me. us! For we are ruined. 14 Jerusalem, wash your heart on the bare heights, the weeping and the petitions of will your evil thoughts lodge within you? 15 For a voice the children of Israel; because they have perverted declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of their way, they have forgotten Yahweh their God. 22 Ephraim: 16 "Tell the nations, behold, publish against backsliding. "Behold, we have come to you; for you are their voice against the cities of Judah. 17 As keepers of on the mountains, is in vain. Truly the salvation of Israel has been rebellious against me," says Yahweh. 18 is in Yahweh our God. 24 But the shameful thing has "Your way and your doings have brought these things devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their to you. This is your wickedness, for it is bitter, for it flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. reaches to your heart." 19 My anguish, my anguish! I 25 Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion am pained at my very heart! My heart trembles within cover us; for we have sinned against Yahweh our God, me. I can't hold my peace, because you have heard, O we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. We my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war, 20 Destruction on destruction is decreed, for the whole land is laid waste. Suddenly my tents are destroyed, and my curtains gone in a moment. 21 How long will I see the standard and hear the sound of the trumpet? 22 "For my people are foolish. They don't know me. They are foolish children, and they have no understanding. They are skillful in doing evil, but they don't know how to do good." 23 I saw the earth and, behold, it was waste and void, and the heavens, and they had no light. 24 I saw the mountains, and behold, they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth. 25 I saw, and behold. there was no man, and all the birds of the sky had fled. 26 I saw, and behold, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of Yahweh, before his fierce anger. 27 For Yahweh says. "The whole land will be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. 28 For this the earth will mourn, and the heavens above be black, because I have spoken it. I have planned it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it." 29 Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and archers. They go into the thickets and climb up on the rocks. Every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells therein. 30 You, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with makeup, you make yourself beautiful in vain. Your lovers despise you. They seek your life. 31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her who gives birth to her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, who gasps for breath, who spreads her hands, saying, "Woe is me now! For my soul faints before the murderers."

5 "Run back and forth through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in its wide places, cleanse. 12 A full wind from these will come for me. Now if you can find a man, if there is anyone who does justly,

Evil won't come on us. We won't see sword or famine. 13 The prophets will become wind, and the word is not in them. Thus it will be done to them." 14 Therefore Yahweh, the God of Armies says, "Because you speak this word, behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it will devour them. 15 Behold, I will bring a nation on you from far away, house of Israel," says Yahweh. "It is a mighty nation. It is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you don't know and don't understand what they say. 16 Their quiver is an open tomb. They are all mighty men. 17 They will eat up your harvest and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat. They will eat up your flocks and your herds. They will eat up your vines and your fig trees. They will beat down your fortified cities in which you trust with the sword. 18 "But even in those days," says Yahweh, "I will not make a full end of you. 19 It will happen when you say, 'Why has Yahweh our God done all these things to us?' Then you shall say to them, 'Just as you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your land, so you will serve strangers in a land that is not yours.' 20 "Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, 21 'Hear this now, foolish

who seeks truth, then I will pardon her. 2 Though they people without understanding, who have eyes, and don't say, 'As Yahweh lives,' surely they swear falsely." 3 see, who have ears, and don't hear: 22 Don't you fear O Yahweh, don't your eyes look on truth? You have me?' says Yahweh; 'Won't you tremble at my presence, stricken them, but they were not grieved. They have made their faces harder than a toss themselves, yet they can't prevail. Though they rock. They have refused to return. 4 Then I said, "Surely roar, they still can't pass over it.' 23 "But this people has these are poor. They are foolish; for they don't know a revolting and a rebellious heart. They have revolted Yahweh's way, nor the law of their God. 5 I will go to the and gone. 24 They don't say in their heart, 'Let's now great men and will speak to them, for they know the fear Yahweh our God, who gives rain, both the former way of Yahweh, and the law of their God." But these and the latter, in its season, who preserves to us the with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the appointed weeks of the harvest.' 25 "Your iniquities have bonds. 6 Therefore a lion out of the forest will kill them. turned away these things, and your sins have withheld A wolf of the evenings will destroy them. A leopard good from you. 26 For wicked men are found among will watch against their cities. Everyone who goes out my people. They watch, as fowlers lie in wait. They set are many and their backsliding has increased. 7 "How so are their houses full of deceit. Therefore they have themselves in troops at the prostitutes' houses. 8 They that they may prosper; and they don't defend the rights were as fed horses roaming at large. Everyone neighed of the needy. 29 "Shouldn't I punish for these things?" after his neighbor's wife. 9 Shouldn't I punish them says Yahweh. "Shouldn't my soul be avenged on such a for these things?" says Yahweh. "Shouldn't my soul nation as this? 30 "An astonishing and horrible thing be avenged on such a nation as this? 10 "Go up on has happened in the land. 31 The prophets prophesy her walls, and destroy, but don't make a full end. > "Flee for safety, you children of Benjamin, out of the middle of Jerusalem! Blow the trumpet in Tekoa and raise up a signal on Beth Haccherem, for evil looks out from the north with a great destruction. 2 I will cut off the beautiful and delicate one, the daughter of Zion. 3 Shepherds with their flocks will come to her. They will pitch their tents against her all around. They will feed everyone in his place." 4 "Prepare war against her! Arise! Let's go up at noon. Woe to us! For the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. 5 Arise! Let's go up by night, and let's destroy her palaces." 6 For Yahweh of Armies said, "Cut down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem. This is the city to be visited. She is filled with oppression within herself. 7 As a well produces its waters, so she produces her wickedness. Violence and destruction is heard in her. Sickness and wounds are continually before me. 8 Be instructed, Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from you, lest I make you a desolation, an uninhabited land." 9 Yahweh of Armies says, "They will thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine. Turn again your hand as a grape gatherer into the baskets." 10 To whom should I speak and testify, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they can't listen. Behold, Yahweh's word has become a reproach full of Yahweh's wrath. I am weary with holding it in. "Pour it out on the children in the street, and on the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife will be taken, the aged with him who is full of days. 12 Their houses will be turned to others, their fields and their wives together; for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land, says Yahweh." 13 "For from their least even to their greatest, everyone is given to covetousness. From the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely. 14 They have healed also the hurt of my people superficially, saying, 'Peace, peace!' when there is no peace. 15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush. Therefore they will fall among those who fall. When I visit them. they will be cast down," says Yahweh. 16 Yahweh says, "Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths. 'Where is the good way?' and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. But they said, 'We will not walk in it.' 17 I set watchmen over you, saving, 'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!' But they said, 'We will not listen!' 18 Therefore hear, you nations, and know, congregation, what is among them. 19 Hear, earth! Behold, I will bring evil on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. 20 To what purpose does frankincense from Sheba come to me, and the sweet cane from a far country? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, and your sacrifices are not pleasing to me." 21 Therefore Yahweh says, "Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people. The fathers and the sons together will stumble against them. The neighbor and his friend will perish." 22 Yahweh says, "Behold, a people comes from the north country. A great nation will be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. 23 They take hold of bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Zion." 24 We have heard its report. Our hands become feeble. Anguish has taken hold of us, and pains as of a woman in labor, 25 Don't go out into the field or walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and terror are on every side. 26 Daughter of my people, clothe yourself with sackcloth, and wallow in ashes! Mourn, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation, for the destroyer will suddenly come on us. 27 "I have made you a tester of metals and a fortress among my people, that you may know and try their way. 28 They are all grievous rebels, going around to slander. They are bronze and iron. All of them deal corruptly. 29 The bellows blow fiercely. The lead is consumed in the fire. In vain they go on refining, for

to them. They have no delight in it. 11 Therefore I am the wicked are not plucked away. 30 Men will call them full of Yahweh's wrath. I am weary with holding it in. rejected silver, because Yahweh has rejected them."

7 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, 2 "Stand in the gate of Yahweh's house, and proclaim this word there, and say, 'Hear Yahweh's word, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship Yahweh." 3 Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, "Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. 4 Don't trust in lying words. saying, 'Yahweh's temple, Yahweh's temple, Yahweh's temple, are these.' 5 For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, if you thoroughly execute justice between a man and his neighbor; 6 if you don't oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, and don't shed innocent blood in this place, and don't walk after other gods to your own hurt, 7 then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even forever more. 8 Behold, you trust in lying words that can't profit. 9 Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you have not known, 10 then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, 'We are delivered,' that you may do all these abominations? 11 Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I myself have seen it," says Yahweh. 12 "But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. 13 Now. because you have done all these works," says Yahweh, "and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you didn't hear; and I called you, but you didn't answer; 14 therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. 15 I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, even the whole offspring of Ephraim. 16 "Therefore don't pray for this people. Don't lift up a cry or prayer for them or make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. 17 Don't you see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the gueen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. 19 Do they provoke me to anger?" says Yahweh. "Don't they provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?" 20 Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "Behold, my anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place, on man, on animal, on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it will burn and will not be guenched." 21 Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: "Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices

8 "At that time," says Yahweh, "they will bring the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of his princes, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves. 2 They will spread them before the sun, the moon, and all the army of the sky, which they have loved, which they have served, after which they have walked, which they have sought, and which they have worshiped. They will not be gathered or be buried. They will be like dung on the surface of the earth. 3 Death will be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places where I have driven them," says Yahweh of Armies. 4 "Moreover

The streets of Jerusalem the voice of mirth and the voice of whole land trembles at the sound of the neighing of his gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of strong ones; for they have come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it, the city and those who dwell therein." 17 "For, behold, I will send serpents, adders among you, which will not be charmed; and they will bite you," says Yahweh. 18 Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow! My heart is faint within me. 19 Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off: "Isn't Yahweh in Zion? Isn't her King in her?" "Why have they provoked me to anger with their engraved images, and with foreign idols?" 20 "The harvest is past. The summer has ended, and we are not saved." 21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people, I am hurt. I mourn. Dismay has taken hold of me. 22 Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician people recovered?

Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a spring of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! 2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men, that I might leave my people and go from them! For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. 3 "They bend their tongue, as their bow, for falsehood, They have grown strong in the land, but not for truth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they don't know me," says Yahweh. 4 "Everyone beware of his neighbor, and don't trust in any brother; for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbor will go around like a slanderer. 5 Friends deceive each other, and will not speak the truth. They have taught their tongue to speak lies. They weary themselves committing iniquity. 6 Your habitation is in the middle of deceit. Through deceit. they refuse to know me," says Yahweh. 7 Therefore Yahweh of Armies says, "Behold, I will melt them and test them; for how should I deal with the daughter of my people? 8 Their tongue is a deadly arrow. It speaks deceit. One speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart, he waits to ambush him. 9 Shouldn't I punish them for these things?" says Yahweh. "Shouldn't my soul be avenged on a nation such as this? 10 I will weep and wail for the mountains, and lament for the pastures of the wilderness, because they are burned up, so that no one passes through: Men can't hear the voice of the livestock. Both the birds of the sky and the animals have fled. They are gone. 11 "I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals. I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant." 12 Who is wise enough to understand this? Who is he to whom the mouth of Yahweh has spoken. that he may declare it? Why has the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that no one passes through? 13 Yahweh says, "Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice or walked in my ways, 14 but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them." 15 Therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, "Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood and give them poisoned water to drink. 16 I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them." 17 Yahweh of Armies says, "Consider, and call for the mourning women, that they may come. Send for the skillful women, that they may come. 18 Let them make haste and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears and our eyelids gush out with waters. 19 For a voice of there? Why then isn't the health of the daughter of my wailing is heard out of Zion. 'How we are ruined! We are greatly confounded because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings." 20 Yet hear Yahweh's word, you women. Let your ear receive the word of his mouth. Teach your daughters wailing. Everyone teach her neighbor a lamentation. 21 For death has come up into our windows. It has entered into our palaces to cut off the children from outside, and the young men from the streets. 22 Speak, "Yahweh says, "The dead bodies of men will fall as dung on the open field, and as the handful after the harvester. No one will gather them." 23 Yahweh says, "Don't let the wise man glory in his wisdom. Don't let the mighty man glory in his might. Don't let the rich man glory in his riches. 24 But let him who glories glory in this, that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am Yahweh who exercises loving kindness, justice, and righteousness in the earth, for I delight in these things," says Yahweh. 25 "Behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that I will punish all those who are circumcised only in their flesh: 26 Egypt, Judah, Edom, the children of Ammon, Moab, and all who have the corners of their hair cut off, who dwell in the wilderness, for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart."

> Near the word which Yahweh speaks to you. house of Israel! 2 Yahweh says, "Don't learn the way of the nations, and don't be dismayed at the signs of the sky; for the nations are dismayed at them. 3 For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the ax. 4 They deck it with silver and with gold. They fasten it with nails and with hammers, so that it can't move. 5 They are like a palm tree, of turned work, and don't speak. They must be carried, because they can't move. Don't be afraid of them; for they can't do evil, neither is it in them to do good." 6 There is no one like you, Yahweh. You are great, and your name is great in might. 7 Who shouldn't fear you, King of the nations? For it belongs to you. Because among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is no one like you. 8 But they are together brutish and foolish, instructed by idols! It is just wood. 9 There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the engraver and of the hands of the goldsmith. Their clothing is blue and purple. They are all the work of skillful men. 10 But Yahweh is the true God. He is the living God, and an everlasting King. At his wrath, the earth trembles. The nations aren't able to withstand his indignation. 11 "You shall say this to them: 'The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth. and from under the heavens." 12 God has made the 11 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, 2 "Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; 3 and say to them, Yahweh, the God of Israel says: 'Cursed is the man who doesn't hear the words of this covenant, 4 which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace,' saying, 'Obey my voice and do them, according to all which I command you; so you shall be my people, and I will be your God; 5 that I may establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey,' as it is today." Then I answered, and said, "Amen, Yahweh." 6 Yahweh said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, 'Hear the words of this covenant, and do them.

It is not in man who walks you do evil, then you rejoice." 16 Yahweh called your to direct his steps. 24 Yahweh, correct me, but gently; name, "A green olive tree, beautiful with goodly fruit." not in your anger, lest you reduce me to nothing. 25 With the noise of a great roar he has kindled fire on it, Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you, and its branches are broken. 17 For Yahweh of Armies, and on the families that don't call on your name; for who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, they have devoured Jacob. Yes, they have devoured because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done to themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal. 18 Yahweh gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it. Then you showed me their doings. 19 But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter. I didn't know that they had devised plans against me, saying, "Let's destroy the tree with its fruit, and let's cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered." 20 But, Yahweh of Armies, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind, I will see your vengeance on them; for to you I have revealed my cause. 21 "Therefore Yahweh says concerning the men of Anathoth, who seek your life, saying, 'You shall not prophesy in Yahweh's name, that you not die by our hand'— 22 therefore Yahweh of Armies says, 'Behold, I will punish them. The young men will die by the sword. Their sons and their daughters will die by famine. 23 the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation."

12 You are righteous, Yahweh, when I contend with you; yet I would like to plead a case with you. Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are they all at ease who deal very treacherously? 2 You have planted them. Yes, they have taken root. They grow. Yes, they produce fruit. You are near in their mouth, and far from their heart. 3 But you, Yahweh. know me. You see me, and test my heart toward you. Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. 4 How long will the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? Because of the wickedness of those who dwell therein, the animals and birds are consumed; because they said, "He won't see our latter end." 5 "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? Though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan? 6 For even your brothers, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you! Even they have cried aloud after you! Don't believe them, though they speak beautiful words to you. 7 "I have forsaken my house. I have cast off my heritage. I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. 8 My heritage has become to me as a lion in the forest. She has uttered her voice against me. Therefore I have hated her. 9 Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey? Are the birds of prey against her all around? Go, assemble all the animals of the field. Bring them to devour. 10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard. They have trodden my portion under foot. They have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. 11 They have made it a desolation. It mourns to me, being desolate. The whole land is made desolate, because no one cares. 12 Destroyers have come on all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of Yahweh devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land. No flesh has peace. 13 They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns. They have exhausted themselves, and profit nothing. You will be ashamed of your fruits, because of Yahweh's fierce anger." 14 Yahweh says, "Concerning all my evil neighbors, who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. 15 It will happen that after I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them. I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. 16 lt will happen, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, 'As Yahweh lives;' even as they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they

There will be no remnant to them, for I will bring evil on will be built up in the middle of my people. 17 But if they will not hear, then I will pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it," says Yahweh.

> 13 Yahweh said to me, "Go, and buy yourself a linen belt, and put it on your waist, and don't put it in water." 2 So I bought a belt according to Yahweh's word, and put it on my waist. 3 Yahweh's word came to me the second time, saying, 4 "Take the belt that you have bought, which is on your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock." 5 So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as Yahweh commanded me. 6 After many days, Yahweh said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the belt from there, which I commanded you to hide there." 7 Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the belt from the place where I had hidden it; and behold, the belt was ruined. It was profitable for nothing. 8 Then Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 9 "Yahweh says, 'In this way I will ruin the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. 10 This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and have gone after other gods to serve them and to worship them, will even be as this belt, which is profitable for nothing. 11 For as the belt clings to the waist of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to me,' says Yahweh; 'that they may be to me for a people, for a name, for praise, and for glory; but they would not hear.' 12 "Therefore you shall speak to them this word: 'Yahweh, the God of Israel says, "Every container should be filled with wine." They will tell you, 'Do we not certainly know that every container should be filled with wine?' 13 Then tell them, 'Yahweh says, "Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. 14 I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together," says Yahweh: "I will not pity, spare, or have compassion, that I should not destroy them."" 15 Hear, and give ear. Don't be proud, for Yahweh has spoken. 16 Give glory to Yahweh your God, before he causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and while you look for light, he turns it into the shadow of death, and makes it deep darkness. 17 But if you will not hear it, my soul will weep in secret for your pride. My eye will weep bitterly, and run down with tears, because Yahweh's flock has been taken captive. 18 Say to the king and to the gueen mother, "Humble yourselves. Sit down, for your crowns have come down, even the crown of your glory. 19 The cities of the South are shut up, and there is no one to open them. Judah is carried away captive: all of them.

1 ⚠ This is Yahweh's word that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought: 2 "Judah mourns, and its gates languish. They sit in black on the ground. The cry of Jerusalem goes up. 3 Their nobles send their little ones to the waters. They come to the cisterns, and find no water. They return with their vessels empty. They are disappointed and confounded, and cover their heads. 4 Because of the ground which is cracked, because no rain has been in the land, the plowmen are disappointed. They cover their heads. 5 Yes, the doe in the field also calves and forsakes her young, because there is no grass. 6 The wild donkeys stand on the bare heights. They pant for air like jackals. Their eyes fail, because there is no vegetation. 7 Though our iniquities testify against us, work for your name's sake, Yahweh; for our rebellions are many. We have sinned against you. 8 You hope of Israel, its Savior in the time of trouble, why should you be as a foreigner in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to stay for a night? 9 Why should you be like a scared man, as a mighty man who can't save? Yet you, Yahweh, are in the middle of us, and we are called by your name. Don't leave us. 10 Yahweh says to this people: "Even so they have loved to wander. They have not restrained their feet. Therefore Yahweh does not accept them. Now he will remember their iniquity, and punish them for their sins." 11 Yahweh said to me, "Don't pray for this people for their good. 12 When they fast, I will not into the field, then behold, the slain with the sword! If I enter into the city, then behold, those who are sick with famine! For both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and have no knowledge." 19 Have you utterly rejected Judah? Has your soul loathed Zion? Why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay! 20 We acknowledge, Yahweh, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against you. 21 Do not abhor us, for your name's sake. Do not disgrace the throne of your glory. Remember, and don't break your covenant with us. 22 Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain? Or can the sky give showers? Aren't you he, Yahweh our God? Therefore we will wait for you; for you have made all these things.

15 Then Yahweh said to me, "Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not turn toward this people. Cast them out of my sight, and let them go out! 2 It will happen when they ask you, 'Where shall we go out?' then you shall tell them, 'Yahweh says: "Such as are for death, to death; such as are for the sword, to the sword; such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity." 3 "I will appoint over them four kinds," says Yahweh: "the sword to kill, the dogs to tear, the birds of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and to destroy. 41 will cause them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, because hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume that which he did in Jerusalem. 5 For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? 24 Yahweh showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs were set before Yahweh's temple, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. 2 One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. 3 Then Yahweh asked me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I said, "Figs. The good figs are very good, and the bad are very bad, so bad that they can't be eaten." 4 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 5 "Yahweh, the God of Israel says: 'Like these good figs, so I will regard the captives of Judah. whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, as good. 6 For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land. I will build them, and not pull them down. I will plant them, and not pluck them up. 7 I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Yahweh. They will be my people, and I will be their God; for they will return to me with their whole heart. 8 "'As the bad figs, which can't be eaten, they are so bad,' surely Yahweh says, 'So I will give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt. 9 I will even give them up to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I will drive them. 10 I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them, until they are consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers."

For Yahweh has created a new thing in the earth: a woman will encompass a man." 23

Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Yet again they will use this speech in the land of Judah and in its Yahweh in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, they will use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I reverse their captivity: 'Yahweh bless you, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. habitation of righteousness, mountain of holiness.' 24 2 Now at that time the king of Babylon's army was Judah and all its cities will dwell therein together, the besieging Jerusalem. Jeremiah the prophet was shut farmers, and those who go about with flocks. 25 For I up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished Judah's house. 3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut every sorrowful soul." 26 On this I awakened, and saw; him up, saying, "Why do you prophesy, and say, 'Yahweh and my sleep was sweet to me. 27 "Behold, the days says, "Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the come," says Yahweh, "that I will sow the house of Israel king of Babylon, and he will take it; 4 and Zedekiah king and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with of Judah won't escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, the seed of animal. 28 It will happen that, like as I have but will surely be delivered into the hand of the king of watched over them to pluck up and to break down and Babylon, and will speak with him mouth to mouth, and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so I will watch his eyes will see his eyes; 5 and he will bring Zedekiah over them to build and to plant," says Yahweh. 29 "In to Babylon, and he will be there until I visit him," says those days they will say no more, "'The fathers have Yahweh, "though you fight with the Chaldeans, you eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on will not prosper"?" 6 Jeremiah said, "Yahweh's word edge.' 30 But everyone will die for his own iniquity. Every came to me, saying, 7 'Behold, Hanamel the son of man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth will be set on Shallum your uncle will come to you, saying, "Buy my edge. 31 "Behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, yours to buy it."" 8 "So Hanamel my uncle's son came and with the house of Judah, 32 not according to the to me in the court of the guard according to Yahweh's covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I word, and said to me, 'Please buy my field that is in took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right Egypt, which covenant of mine they broke, although I of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours. was a husband to them," says Yahweh. 33 "But this is Buy it for yourself.' "Then I knew that this was Yahweh's the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel word. 9 I bought the field that was in Anathoth of after those days," says Yahweh: "I will put my law in Hanamel my uncle's son, and weighed him the money, their inward parts, and I will write it in their heart. I will even seventeen shekels of silver. 10 I signed the deed, be their God, and they shall be my people. 34 They will sealed it, called witnesses, and weighed the money no longer each teach his neighbor, and every man teach in the balances to him. 11 So I took the deed of the his brother, saying, 'Know Yahweh;' for they will all know purchase, both that which was sealed, containing the me, from their least to their greatest," says Yahweh, "for terms and conditions, and that which was open; 12 I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the no more." 35 Yahweh, who gives the sun for a light by son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its witnesses who signed the deed of the purchase, before waves roar—Yahweh of Armies is his name, says: 36 "If all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard. 13 "I these ordinances depart from before me," says Yahweh, commanded Baruch before them, saying, 14 Yahweh of "then the offspring of Israel also will cease from being a Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Take these deeds, this nation before me forever." 37 Yahweh says: "If heaven deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed above can be measured, and the foundations of the which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that earth searched out beneath, then I will also cast off all they may last many days.' 15 For Yahweh of Armies, the the offspring of Israel for all that they have done," says God of Israel says: 'Houses and fields and vineyards Yahweh. 38 "Behold, the days come," says Yahweh, will yet again be bought in this land.' 16 Now after I "that the city will be built to Yahweh from the tower of had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the Hananel to the gate of the corner. 39 The measuring son of Neriah, I prayed to Yahweh, saying, 17 "Ah Lord line will go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, Yahweh! Behold, you have made the heavens and the and will turn toward Goah. 40 The whole valley of the earth by your great power and by your outstretched dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the arm. Is there anything too hard for me? 28 places around Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the Therefore Yahweh says: Behold, I will give this city cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of in the cities of the South; for I will cause their captivity to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will take it. 29 be reversed," says Yahweh. The Chaldeans, who fight against this city, will come and set this city on fire, and burn it with the houses on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger. 30 "For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says Yahweh. 31 For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day, so that I should remove it from before my face, 32 because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger—they, their kings, their princes, their priests, their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 33 They have turned their backs to me, and not their faces. Although I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. 34 But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. 35 They built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through fire to Molech, which I didn't command them. It didn't even come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause

33 Moreover Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still locked up in the court of the guard, saying, 2 "Yahweh who does it, Yahweh who forms it to establish it-Yahweh is his name, says: 3 'Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great and difficult things, which you don't know.' 4 For Yahweh, the God of Israel, says concerning the houses of this city and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the mounds and against the sword: 5 'While men come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have killed in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hidden my face from this city, 6 behold, I will bring it health and healing, and I will cure them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth. 7 I will restore the fortunes of Judah and Israel, and will build them as at the first. 8 I will cleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against me. I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned against me and by which they have transgressed against me. 9 This city will be to me for a name of joy, for praise, and for glory, before all the nations of the earth, which will hear all the good that I do to them. and will fear and tremble for all the good and for all the

For I will cause the captivity of the land to be reversed as at the first," says Yahweh. 12 Yahweh of Armies says: "Yet again there will be in this place, which is waste, without man and without animal, and in all its cities, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. 13 In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, in the cities of the South, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hands of him who counts them," says Yahweh. 14 "Behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. 15 "In those days and at that time, I will cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David. He will execute justice and righteousness in the land. 16 In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell safely. This is the name by which she will be called: Yahweh our righteousness." 17 For Yahweh says: "David will never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel. 18 The Levitical priests won't lack a man before me to offer burnt offerings, to burn meal offerings, and to do sacrifice continually." 19 Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, 20 "Yahweh says: 'If you can break my covenant of the day and my covenant of the night, so that there will not be day and night in their time, 21 then my covenant could also be broken with David my servant, that he won't have a son to reign on his throne; and with the Levitical priests, my ministers. 22 As the army of the sky can't be counted, and the sand of the sea can't be measured, so I will multiply the offspring of David my servant and the Levites who minister to me." 23 Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, 24 "Don't consider what this people has spoken, saying, 'Has Yahweh cast off the two families which he chose?' Thus they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them." 25 Yahweh says: "If my covenant of day and night fails, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth, 26 then I will also cast away the offspring of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his offspring to be rulers over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob;

34 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, with all his army, all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem and against all its cities, saying: 2 "Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, 'Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Yahweh says, "Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon and he will burn it with fire. 3 You won't escape out of his hand, but will surely be taken and delivered into his hand. Your eyes will see the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he will speak with you mouth to mouth. You will go to Babylon." 4 "Yet hear Yahweh's word, O Zedekiah king of Judah. Yahweh says concerning you, 'You won't die by the sword. 5 You will die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they will make a burning for you. They will lament you, saying, "Ah Lord!" for I have spoken the word,' says Yahweh." 6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, 7 when the king of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities. 8 The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them, 9 that every man should let his male servant, and every man his female servant, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free, that no one should make bondservants of them, of a Jew his brother. 10 All the princes and all the people obeyed who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let his male servant and everyone his female servant go free, that no one should make bondservants of them any more. They obeyed and let them go, 11 but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids whom they had let go free to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. 12 Therefore Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, 13 "Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying: 14 At the end of seven years, every man of you shall release his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years. You shall let him go free from you. But your fathers didn't listen to me, and didn't incline their ear. 15 You had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in every man proclaiming liberty to his neighbor. You had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by handmaid, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. you be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the earth. 18 I will give the men who have transgressed "Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words?" cut the calf in two and passed between its parts: 19 wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending princes into the hands of their enemies, into the hands land which I have given to you and to your fathers," desolation, without inhabitant."

35 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, 2 "Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into Yahweh's house, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink." 3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, with his brothers, all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; 4 and I brought them into Yahweh's house, into the room of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was by the room of the princes, which was above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. 5 I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, "Drink wine!" 6 But they said, "We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father. commanded us, saying, 'You shall drink no wine, neither you nor your children, forever. 7 You shall not build a house, sow seed, plant a vineyard, or have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents, that you may live many days in the land in which you live as nomads.' 8 We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or

They will fight against it, take commanded them, but this people has not listened to it, and burn it with fire, I will make the cities of Judah a me." 17 "Therefore Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them, because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered." 18 Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, "Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you,' 19 therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Jonadab the son of Rechab will not lack a man to stand before me forever."

36 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, 2 "Take a scroll of a book, and write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah even to this day. 3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I intend to do to them, that they may each return from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin." 4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all Yahweh's words, which he had spoken to him, on a scroll of a book. 5 Jeremiah commanded Baruch, our daughters; 9 and not to build houses for ourselves saying, "I am restricted. I can't go into Yahweh's house.

I will bring on them, on to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, read the book in the ears of the people. 14 Therefore all all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of didn't listen."" 32 Then Jeremiah took another scroll, Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the people, and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned took the scroll in his hand, and came to them. 15 They in the fire; and many similar words were added to them. said to him, "Sit down now, and read it in our hearing." So Baruch read it in their hearing. 16 Now when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words." 17 They asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words at his mouth?" 18 Then Baruch answered them, "He dictated all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book." 19 Then the princes said to Baruch. "You and Jeremiah go hide. Don't let anyone know where you are." 20 They went in to the king into the court, but they had laid up the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe. Then they told all the words in the hearing of the king. 21 So the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it out of the room of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi read it in the hearing of the king, and in the hearing of all the princes who stood beside the king. 22 Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month, and there was a fire in the brazier burning before him. 23 When Jehudi had read three or four columns, the king cut it

I am not defecting to prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon. He the Chaldeans." But he didn't listen to him: so Irijah is likely to die in the place where he is, because of seized Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. 15 the famine; for there is no more bread in the city." 10 The princes were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the saying, "Take from here thirty men with you, and take up scribe; for they had made that the prison. 16 When Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he Jeremiah had come into the dungeon house and into dies." 11 So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days, went into the house of the king under the treasury, and 17 then Zedekiah the king sent and had him brought out. took from there rags and worn-out garments, and let The king asked him secretly in his house, "Is there any them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah, 12 word from Yahweh?" Jeremiah said, "There is." He also Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Now put said, "You will be delivered into the hand of the king of these rags and worn-out garments under your armpits Babylon." 18 Moreover Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, under the cords." Jeremiah did so. 13 So they lifted "How have I sinned against you, against your servants, Jeremiah up with the cords, and took him up out of or against this people, that you have put me in prison? the dungeon; and Jeremiah remained in the court of 19 Now where are your prophets who prophesied to you, the guard. 14 Then Zedekiah the king sent and took saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you, Jeremiah the prophet to himself into the third entry that nor against this land'? 20 Now please hear, my lord the is in Yahweh's house. Then the king said to Jeremiah, "I king: please let my supplication be presented before will ask you something. Hide nothing from me." 15 Then you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there." 21 Then Zedekiah not surely put me to death? If I give you counsel, you the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into will not listen to me." 16 So Zedekiah the king swore the court of the guard. They gave him daily a loaf of secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As Yahweh lives, who bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the made our souls, I will not put you to death, neither will I city was gone. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of give you into the hand of these men who seek your life." the quard.

38 Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchiiah heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saving, 2 "Yahweh says, 'He who remains in this city will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, but he who goes out to the Chaldeans will live. He will escape with his life and he will live.' 3 Yahweh says, 'This city will surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will take it." 4 Then the princes said to the king, "Please let this man be put to death, because he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in 17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'If you will go out to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul will live. and this city will not be burned with fire. You will live, along with your house. 18 But if you will not go out to the king of Babylon's princes, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it with fire, and you won't escape out of their hand." 19 Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have defected to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me." 20 But Jeremiah said, "They won't deliver you. Obey, I beg you, Yahweh's voice, in that which I speak to you; so it will be well with you, and your soul will live. 21 But if you refuse to go out, this is the word that Yahweh who remained. 10 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the has shown me: 22 'Behold, all the women who are left guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the king of Judah's house will be brought out to the in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and king of Babylon's princes, and those women will say, fields at the same time. 11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king "Your familiar friends have turned on you, and have of Babylon commanded Nebuzaradan the captain of the prevailed over you. Your feet are sunk in the mire, they guard concerning Jeremiah, saying, 12 "Take him and have turned away from you." 23 They will bring out all take care of him. Do him no harm; but do to him even your wives and your children to the Chaldeans. You as he tells you." 13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the won't escape out of their hand, but will be taken by guard, Nebushazban, Rabsaris, and Nergal Sharezer, the hand of the king of Babylon. You will cause this Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon city to be burned with fire." 24 Then Zedekiah said to 14 sent and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, Jeremiah, "Let no man know of these words, and you and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the won't die. 25 But if the princes hear that I have talked son of Shaphan, that he should bring him home. So with you, and they come to you, and tell you, 'Declare to he lived among the people. 15 Now Yahweh's word us now what you have said to the king; don't hide it came to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of from us, and we will not put you to death; also tell us the guard, saying, 16 "Go, and speak to Ebedmelech what the king said to you;' 26 then you shall tell them, the Ethiopian, saying, 'Yahweh of Armies, the God of 'I presented my supplication before the king, that he Israel, says: "Behold, I will bring my words on this city would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to for evil, and not for good; and they will be accomplished die there." 27 Then all the princes came to Jeremiah, before you in that day. 17 But I will deliver you in that and asked him; and he told them according to all these day," says Yahweh; "and you will not be given into the words that the king had commanded. So they stopped hand of the men of whom you are afraid. 18 For I will speaking with him, for the matter was not perceived. 28 surely save you. You won't fall by the sword, but you will So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the escape with your life, because you have put your trust in me," says Yahweh."

 $oldsymbol{39}$ In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in $oldsymbol{40}$ The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being it. 2 In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made and Judah who were carried away captive to Babylon. 2 in the city. 3 All the princes of the king of Babylon The captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, came in, and sat in the middle gate: Nergal Sharezer, "Yahweh your God pronounced this evil on this place; Samgarnebo, Sarsechim the Rabsaris, Nergal Sharezer 3 and Yahweh has brought it, and done according as the Rabmag, with all the rest of the princes of the king he spoke. Because you have sinned against Yahweh, of Babylon. 4 When Zedekiah the king of Judah and all and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has the men of war saw them, then they fled and went out come on you. 4 Now, behold, I release you today from of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to through the gate between the two walls; and he went you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take out toward the Arabah. 5 But the army of the Chaldeans care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me pursued them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of into Babylon, don't. Behold, all the land is before you. Jericho. When they had taken him, they brought him Where it seems good and right to you to go, go there." up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in 5 Now while he had not yet gone back, "Go back then," the land of Hamath; and he pronounced judgment on he said, "to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of him. 6 Then the king of Babylon killed Zedekiah's sons Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor in Riblah before his eyes. The king of Babylon also over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the killed all the nobles of Judah. 7 Moreover he put out people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go." So Zedekiah's eyes and bound him in fetters, to carry him the captain of the guard gave him food and a present, to Babylon. 8 The Chaldeans burned the king's house and let him go. 6 Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the and the people's houses with fire and broke down the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with him among the walls of Jerusalem. 9 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of people who were left in the land. 7 Now when all the the guard carried away captive into Babylon the rest captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they of the people who remained in the city, the deserters and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made had committed to him men, women, children, and of frankincense in their hand, to bring them to Yahweh's the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried house. 6 Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from not do this thing, for you speak falsely of Ishmael."

1 Now in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal offspring and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah. 2 Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah arose, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. 3 Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldean men of war who were found there. 4 The second day after he had killed Gedaliah, and no man knew it, 5 men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with meal offerings and away captive to Babylon, 8 then Ishmael the son of Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went, and Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of as he met them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the the son of Ahikam." 7 It was so, when they came into sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the middle of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the Maacathite, they and their men came to Gedaliah killed them, and cast them into the middle of the pit, to Mizpah. 9 Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of he, and the men who were with him. 8 But ten men Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, "Don't were found among those who said to Ishmael, "Don't be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land, kill us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with and of barley, and of oil, and of honey." So he stopped, you. 10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to and didn't kill them among their brothers. 9 Now the pit stand before the Chaldeans who will come to us; but in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put whom he had killed, by the side of Gedaliah (this was them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you that which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha have taken." 11 Likewise when all the Jews who were in king of Israel). Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, those who were killed. 10 Then Ishmael carried away and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of captive all of the people who were left in Mizpah, even Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had the king's daughters, and all the people who remained set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard Shaphan, 12 then all the Jews returned out of all places had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. Ishmael where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered very much wine departed to go over to the children of Ammon. 11 But and summer fruits. 13 Moreover Johanan the son of when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 and said to that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 then him, "Do you know that Baalis the king of the children of they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters your life?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam didn't believe that are in Gibeon. 13 Now when all the people who them. 15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, "Please let me go, all the captains of the forces who were with him, then and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man they were glad. 14 So all the people who Ishmael had will know it. Why should he take your life, that all the carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. the remnant of Judah perish?" 16 But Gedaliah the son 15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon. 16 Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces who were with him took all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam—the men of war. with the women, the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon. 17 They departed and lived in Geruth Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt 18 because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

> 12 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, 2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet, and pray for us to Yahweh your God, even for all this Know certainly that I have testified to you today. 20 For remnant, for we are left but a few of many, as your you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for eyes see us, 3 that Yahweh your God may show us the you sent me to Yahweh your God, saying, 'Pray for us way in which we should walk, and the things that we to Yahweh our God; and according to all that Yahweh should do." 4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, our God says, so declare to us, and we will do it.' 21 I "I have heard you. Behold, I will pray to Yahweh your have declared it to you today; but you have not obeyed God according to your words; and it will happen that Yahweh your God's voice in anything for which he has whatever thing Yahweh answers you, I will declare it to sent me to you. 22 Now therefore know certainly that you. I will keep nothing back from you." 5 Then they you will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the said to Jeremiah, "May Yahweh be a true and faithful pestilence in the place where you desire to go to live." witness among us, if we don't do according to all the word with which Yahweh your God sends you to tell us. 6 Whether it is good, or whether it is bad, we will obey the voice of Yahweh our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of Yahweh our God." 7 After ten days, Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah. 8 Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, 9 and said to them, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him, says: 10 'If you will still live in this land, then I will build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you. 11 Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid. Don't be afraid of him,' says Yahweh, 'for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. 12 I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land. 13 "But if you say, "We will not dwell in this land," so that you don't obey Yahweh your God's voice, 14 saying, "No, but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we will see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there we will dwell;" 15 now therefore hear Yahweh's word, O remnant of Judah! Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, 'If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to live there, 16 then it will happen that the sword, which you fear, will overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, will follow close behind you there in Egypt; and you will die there. 17 So will it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there. They will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. None of them will remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them.' 18 For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'As my anger and my wrath has been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my wrath will be poured out on you, when you enter into Egypt; and you will be an object of horror, an astonishment, a curse, and a reproach; and you will see this place no more.' 19 "Yahweh has spoken

"Please let our supplication be presented before you, concerning you, remnant of Judah, 'Don't go into Egypt!"

43 When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all the words of Yahweh their God, with which Yahweh their God had sent him to them, even all these words, 2 then Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, "You speak falsely. Yahweh our God has not sent you to say, 'You shall not go into Egypt to live there;' 3 but Baruch the son of Neriah has turned you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death or carry us away captive to Babylon." 4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, didn't obey Yahweh's voice, to dwell in the land of Judah. 5 But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces took all the remnant of Judah, who had returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to live in the land of Judah— 6 the men, the women, the children, the king's daughters, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah. 7 They came into the land of Egypt, for they didn't obey Yahweh's voice; and they came to Tahpanhes. 8 Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, 9 "Take great stones in your hand and hide them in mortar in the brick work which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah. 10 Tell them, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden: and he will spread his royal pavilion over them. 11 He will come, and will strike the land of Egypt; such as are for death will be put to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword. 12 I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt. He will burn them, and carry them away captive. He will array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he will go out from there in peace. 13 He will also break the pillars of Beth Shemesh that is in the land of Egypt; and he will burn the houses of the gods of Egypt with fire."

11 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all will escape." 15 Then all the men who knew that their at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people the country of Pathros, saying, 2 "Yahweh of Armies, who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered the God of Israel, says: 'You have seen all the evil that Jeremiah, saying, 16 "As for the word that you have I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of spoken to us in Yahweh's name, we will not listen to Judah. Behold, today they are a desolation, and no man you. 17 But we will certainly perform every word that has dwells in them, 3 because of their wickedness which gone out of our mouth, to burn incense to the gueen of they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that the sky and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have they went to burn incense, to serve other gods that they done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in didn't know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. 4 the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; for However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, then we had plenty of food, and were well, and saw no rising up early and sending them, saying, "Oh, don't evil. 18 But since we stopped burning incense to the do this abominable thing that I hate." 5 But they didn't queen of the sky, and pouring out drink offerings to her, listen and didn't incline their ear. They didn't turn from we have lacked all things, and have been consumed their wickedness, to stop burning incense to other gods, by the sword and by the famine." 19 The women said. 6 Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured out, "When we burned incense to the queen of the sky and and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to today.' 7 "Therefore now Yahweh, the God of Armies, her, without our husbands?" 20 Then Jeremiah said to the God of Israel, says: 'Why do you commit great evil all the people—to the men and to the women, even to against your own souls, to cut off from yourselves man all the people who had given him an answer, saying, 21 and woman, infant and nursing child out of the middle "The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, of Judah, to leave yourselves no one remaining, 8 in and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, that you provoke me to anger with the works of your your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of didn't Yahweh remember them, and didn't it come into Egypt where you have gone to live, that you may be his mind? 22 Thus Yahweh could no longer bear it, cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach because of the evil of your doings and because of the among all the nations of the earth? 9 Have you forgotten abominations which you have committed. Therefore your the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the land has become a desolation, an astonishment, and a kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own curse, without inhabitant, as it is today. 23 Because you wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which have burned incense and because you have sinned they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets against Yahweh, and have not obeyed Yahweh's voice, of Jerusalem? 10 They are not humbled even to this nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before it is today." 24 Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, your fathers.' 11 "Therefore Yahweh of Armies, the including all the women, "Hear Yahweh's word, all Judah God of Israel, says: 'Behold, I will set my face against who are in the land of Egypt! 25 Yahweh of Armies, you for evil, even to cut off all Judah. 12 I will take the God of Israel, says, 'You and your wives have both the remnant of Judah that have set their faces to go spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have into the land of Egypt to live there, and they will all be fulfilled it, saying, "We will surely perform our vows that consumed. They will fall in the land of Egypt, They will we have vowed, to burn incense to the gueen of the be consumed by the sword and by the famine. They sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her." "Establish will die, from the least even to the greatest, by the then your vows, and perform your vows.' 26 "Therefore sword and by the famine. They will be an object of hear Yahweh's word, all Judah who dwell in the land of horror, an astonishment, a curse, and a reproach. 13 Egypt: 'Behold, I have sworn by my great name,' says For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, Yahweh, 'that my name will no more be named in the as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, famine, and by the pestilence; 14 so that none of the saying, "As the Lord Yahweh lives." 27 Behold, I watch remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of to live there, will escape or be left to return into the Judah who are in the land of Egypt will be consumed by land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return the sword and by the famine, until they are all gone. 28 to dwell there; for no one will return except those who Those who escape the sword will return out of the land

For at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. 6 Flee! Save your lives! Be like the iuniper bush in the wilderness. 7 For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also will be taken. Chemosh will go out into captivity, his priests and his princes together. 8 The destroyer will come on every city, and no city will escape; the valley also will perish, and the plain will be destroyed, as Yahweh has spoken. 9 Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get herself away: and her cities will become a desolation, without anyone to dwell in them. 10 "Cursed is he who does the work of Yahweh negligently; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood. 11 "Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his dregs, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity; therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed. 12 Therefore behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that I will send to him those who pour

The men will cry, and all war'? 15 Moab is laid waste, and they have gone up the inhabitants of the land will wail. 3 At the noise of into his cities, and his chosen young men have gone the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the down to the slaughter," says the King, whose name is rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, Yahweh of Armies. 16 "The calamity of Moab is near the fathers don't look back for their children because to come, and his affliction hurries fast. 17 All you who their hands are so feeble, 4 because of the day that are around him, bemoan him; and all you who know comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from his name, say, 'How the strong staff is broken, the Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains; for Yahweh beautiful rod!' 18 "You daughter who dwells in Dibon, will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the Caphtor. 5 Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is destroyer of Moab has come up against you. He has brought to nothing. You remnant of their valley, how destroyed your strongholds. 19 Inhabitant of Aroer, long will you cut yourself? 6 "'You sword of Yahweh, stand by the way and watch. Ask him who flees, and her how long will it be before you are quiet? Put yourself who escapes; say, 'What has been done?' 20 Moab is back into your scabbard; rest, and be still.' 7 "How can disappointed; for it is broken down. Wail and cry! Tell it you be quiet, since Yahweh has given you a command? by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste. 21 Judgment has Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore, there he come on the plain country—on Holon, on Jahzah, on Mephaath, 22 on Dibon, on Nebo, on Beth Diblathaim, 23 on Kiriathaim, on Beth Gamul, on Beth Meon, 24 on Kerioth, on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. 25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken," says Yahweh. 26 "Make him drunk, for he magnified himself against Yahweh, Moab will wallow in his vomit, and he also will be in derision. 27 For wasn't Israel a derision to you? Was he found among thieves? For as often as you speak of him, you shake your head. 28 You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock. Be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss. 29 "We have heard of the pride of Moab. He is very proud in his loftiness, his pride, his arrogance, and the arrogance of his heart. 30 I know his wrath," says Yahweh, "that it is nothing; his boastings have done nothing. 31 Therefore I will wail for Moab. Yes, I will cry out for all Moab. They will mourn for the men of Kir Heres. 32 With more than the weeping of Jazer I will weep for you, vine of Sibmah. Your branches passed over the sea. They reached even to the sea of Jazer. The destrover has fallen on your summer fruits and on your vintage. 33 Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab. I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses. No one will tread with shouting. The shouting will be no shouting. 34 From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz they have uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for the waters of Nimrim will also become desolate. 35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab," says Yahweh, "him who offers in the high place, and him who burns incense to his gods. 36 Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like flutes, and my heart sounds like flutes. Has their wisdom vanished? 8 Flee! Turn back! Dwell taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity. 47 "Yet I will reverse the captivity of Moab in the latter days," says Yahweh. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

▲Q Of the children of Ammon. Yahweh says: "Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then does Malcam possess Gad, and his people dwell in its cities? 2 Therefore behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and it will become a desolate heap, and her daughters will be burned with fire; then Israel will possess those who possessed him," says Yahweh. 3 "Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste! Cry, you daughters of Rabbah! Clothe yourself in sackcloth. Lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Malcam will go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. 4 Why do you boast in the valleys, your flowing valley, backsliding daughter? You trusted in her treasures, saying, 'Who will come to me?' 5 Behold, I will bring a terror on you," says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, "from all who are around you. All of you will be driven completely out, and there will be no one to gather together the fugitives. 6 "But afterward I will reverse the captivity of the children of Ammon," says Yahweh. 7 Of Edom, Yahweh of Armies says: "Is wisdom no more in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent?

for the men of Kir Heres. Therefore the abundance in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the that he has gotten has perished. 37 For every head calamity of Esau on him when I visit him. 9 If grape is bald, and every beard clipped. There are cuttings gatherers came to you, would they not leave some on all the hands, and sackcloth on the waist. 38 On gleaning grapes? If thieves came by night, wouldn't they all the housetops of Moab, and in its streets, there is steal until they had enough? 10 But I have made Esau lamentation everywhere; for I have broken Moab like a bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he will vessel in which no one delights," says Yahweh. 39 "How not be able to hide himself. His offspring is destroyed, it is broken down! How they wail! How Moab has turned with his brothers and his neighbors; and he is no more. the back with shame! So will Moab become a derision 11 Leave your fatherless children. I will preserve them and a terror to all who are around him." 40 For Yahweh alive. Let your widows trust in me." 12 For Yahweh says: says: "Behold, he will fly as an eagle, and will spread "Behold, they to whom it didn't pertain to drink of the cup out his wings against Moab. 41 Kerioth is taken, and the will certainly drink; and are you he who will altogether strongholds are seized. The heart of the mighty men go unpunished? You won't go unpunished, but you of Moab at that day will be as the heart of a woman will surely drink. 13 For I have sworn by myself," says in her pangs. 42 Moab will be destroyed from being Yahweh, "that Bozrah will become an astonishment, a people, because he has magnified himself against a reproach, a waste, and a curse. All its cities will be Yahweh. 43 Terror, the pit, and the snare are on you, perpetual wastes." 14 I have heard news from Yahweh, inhabitant of Moab," says Yahweh. 44 "He who flees and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, from the terror will fall into the pit; and he who gets up "Gather yourselves together! Come against her! Rise up out of the pit will be taken in the snare, for I will bring on to the battle!" 15 "For, behold, I have made you small him, even on Moab, the year of their visitation," says among the nations, and despised among men. 16 As for Yahweh. 45 "Those who fled stand without strength your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire has gone out of you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the Heshbon, and a flame from the middle of Sihon, and height of the hill, though you should make your nest as has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there," head of the tumultuous ones. 46 Woe to you, O Moab! says Yahweh. 17 "Edom will become an astonishment. The people of Chemosh are undone; for your sons are Everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and will hiss at all its plagues. 18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and its neighbor cities," says Yahweh, "no man will dwell there, neither will any son of man live therein. 19 "Behold, he will come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation; for I will suddenly make them run away from it, and whoever is chosen, I will appoint him over it. For who is like me? Who will appoint me a time? Who is the shepherd who will stand before me?" 20 Therefore hear the counsel of Yahweh, that he has taken against Edom, and his purposes that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they will drag them away, the little ones of the flock. Surely he will make their habitation desolate over them. 21 The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Red Sea. 22 Behold, he will come up and fly as the eagle. and spread out his wings against Bozrah. The heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. 23 Of Damascus: "Hamath and Arpad are confounded, for they have heard evil news. They have melted away. There is sorrow on the sea. It can't be quiet. 24 Damascus has grown feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized her. 50 The word that Yahweh spoke concerning Babylon. concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet. 2 "Declare among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and don't conceal; say, 'Babylon has been taken, Bel is disappointed, Merodach is dismayed! Her images are disappointed. Her idols are dismayed.' 3 For a nation comes up out of the north against her, which will make her land desolate, and no one will dwell in it. They have fled. They are gone, both man and animal. 4 "In those days, and in that time," says Yahweh, "the children of Israel will come, they and the children of Judah together: they will go on their way weeping, and will seek Yahweh their God. 5 They will lions have driven him away. First, the king of Assyria devoured him, and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones." 18 Therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. 19 I will bring Israel again to his pasture. and he will feed on Carmel and Bashan. His soul will be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead. 20 In those days, and in that time," says Yahweh, "the iniquity of Israel will be sought for, and there will be none, also the sins of Judah, and they won't be found; for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant. 21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod. All her men of war will be brought to silence in that day," says Yahweh. 31 "Behold, I am against you, you proud one," says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies; "for your day has come, the time that I will visit you. 32 The proud one will stumble and fall, and no one will raise him up. I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it will devour all who are around him." 33 Yahweh of Armies says: "The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together. All who took them captive hold them fast. They refuse to let them go. 34 Their Redeemer is strong. Yahweh of Armies is his name. He will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. 35 "A sword is on the Chaldeans," says Yahweh, "and on the inhabitants of Babylon, on her princes, and on her wise men. 36 A sword is on the boasters, and they will become fools. A sword is on her mighty men, and they will be dismayed. 37 A sword is on their horses, on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in the middle of her; and they will become as women. A sword is on her treasures, and they will be robbed. 38 A drought is on her waters, and they will be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they are mad over idols. 39 Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves will dwell there. 52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign. He reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 2 He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. 3 For through Yahweh's anger this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. 4 In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and

The peoples will labor for vanity, the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of and the nations for the fire; and they will be weary." Babylon, came into Jerusalem. 13 He burned Yahweh's 59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded house, and the king's house; and all the houses of Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when Jerusalem, even every great house, he burned with he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon fire. 14 All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of quartermaster. 60 Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil Jerusalem all around. 15 Then Nebuzaradan the captain that should come on Babylon, even all these words that of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of are written concerning Babylon. 61 Jeremiah said to the people, and the rest of the people who were left Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, then see that you in the city, and those who fell away, who defected to read all these words, 62 and say, 'Yahweh, you have the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. 16 spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that no one But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the will dwell in it, neither man nor animal, but that it will be poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers. desolate forever.' 63 It will be, when you have finished 17 The Chaldeans broke the pillars of bronze that were reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and in Yahweh's house and the bases and the bronze sea cast it into the middle of the Euphrates. 64 Then you that were in Yahweh's house in pieces, and carried all shall say, 'Thus will Babylon sink, and will not rise again of their bronze to Babylon. 18 They also took away the because of the evil that I will bring on her; and they will pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered. 19 The captain of the quard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the lamp stands, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, as gold, and that which was of silver, as silver. 20 They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which King Solomon had made for Yahweh's house. The bronze of all these vessels was without weight. 21 As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow. 22 A capital of bronze was on it;

and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze. The second pillar also had the same, with pomegranates. 23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around. 24 The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold, 25 and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the middle of the city. 26 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. 27 The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. 28 This is the number of the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand twenty-three Jews; 29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons; 30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five people. All the people numbered four thousand six hundred. 31 In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and released him from prison. 32 He spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, 33 and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life. 34 For his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Lamentations

1 How the city sits solitary, that was full of people! She has become as a widow, who was great among the nations! She who was a princess among the provinces has become a slave! 2 She weeps bitterly in the night. Her tears are on her cheeks. Among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her. All her friends have dealt treacherously with her. They have become her enemies. 3 Judah has gone into captivity because of affliction and because of great servitude. She dwells among the nations. She finds no rest. All her persecutors overtook her in her distress. 4 The roads to Zion mourn, because no one comes to the solemn assembly. All her gates are desolate. Her priests sigh. Her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness. 5 Her adversaries have become the head. Her enemies prosper; for Yahweh has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions. Her young children have gone into captivity before the adversary. 6 All majesty has departed from the daughter of Zion. Her princes have become like deer that find no pasture. They have gone without strength before the pursuer. 7 Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that were from the days of old; when her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and no one helped her. The adversaries saw her. They mocked at her desolations. 8 Jerusalem has grievously sinned. Therefore she has become unclean. All who honored her despise her. because they have seen her nakedness. Yes, she sighs and turns backward. 9 Her filthiness was in her skirts. She didn't remember her latter end. Therefore she has come down astoundingly. She has no comforter. "See, Yahweh, my affliction; for the enemy has magnified himself." 10 The adversary has spread out his hand on all her pleasant things; for she has seen that the nations have entered into her sanctuary, concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly. 11 All her people sigh. They seek bread. They have given their pleasant things for food to refresh their soul. "Look, Yahweh, and see, for I have become despised." 12 "Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me, with which Yahweh has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger. 13 "From on high has he sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them. He has spread a net for my feet. He has turned me back. He has made me desolate and I faint all day long. 14 "The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand. They are knit together. They have come up on my neck. He made my strength fail. The Lord has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am my mighty men within me. He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men. The Lord has trodden the virgin daughter of Judah as in a wine press. 16 "For these things I weep. My eye, my eye runs down with water, because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far from me. My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed." 17 Zion spreads out her hands. There is no one to comfort her. Yahweh has commanded concerning Jacob, that those who are around him should be his adversaries. Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing. 18 "Yahweh is righteous, for I have rebelled against his commandment. Please hear all you peoples, and see my sorrow. My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity. 19 "I called for my lovers, but they deceived me. My priests and my elders gave up the spirit in the city, while they sought food for themselves to refresh their souls. 20 "Look, Yahweh; for I am in distress. My heart is troubled. My heart turns over within me, for I have grievously rebelled. Abroad, the sword bereaves. At home, it is like death. 21 "They have heard that I sigh. There is no one to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my trouble. They are glad that you have done it. You will bring the day that you have proclaimed, and they will be like me. 22 "Let all their wickedness come before you. Do to them as you have done to me for all my transgressions. For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

2 How has the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger! He has cast the beauty of Israel down from heaven to the earth, and hasn't remembered his footstool in the day of his anger. 2 The Lord has swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob without pity. He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah. He has brought them down to the ground. He has profaned the kingdom and its princes. 3 He has cut off all the horn of Israel in fierce anger. He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy. He has burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours all around. 4 He has bent his bow like an enemy. He has stood with his right hand as an adversary. He has killed all that were pleasant to the eye. In the tent of the daughter of Zion, he has poured out his wrath like fire. 5 The Lord has become as an enemy. He has swallowed up Israel. He has swallowed up all her palaces. He has destroyed his strongholds. He has multiplied mourning and lamentation in the daughter of Judah. 6 He has violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were a garden. He has destroyed his place of assembly. Yahweh has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion. In the indignation of his anger, he has despised the king and the priest. 7 The Lord has cast off his altar. He has not able to stand. 15 "The Lord has set at nothing all abhorred his sanctuary. He has given the walls of her

noise in Yahweh's house, as in the day of a solemn them in the day of your anger. You have slaughtered, assembly. 8 Yahweh has purposed to destroy the wall and not pitied. 22 "You have called, as in the day of a of the daughter of Zion. He has stretched out the line. solemn assembly, my terrors on every side. There was He has not withdrawn his hand from destroying; He no one that escaped or remained in the day of Yahweh's has made the rampart and wall lament. They languish anger. My enemy has consumed those whom I have together. 9 Her gates have sunk into the ground. He cared for and brought up. has destroyed and broken her bars. Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not. Yes. her prophets find no vision from Yahweh. 10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground. They keep silence. They have cast up dust on their heads. They have clothed themselves with sackcloth. The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground. 11 My eyes fail with tears. My heart is troubled. My bile is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the young children and the infants swoon in the streets of the city. 12 They ask their mothers, "Where is grain and wine?" when they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom. 13 What shall I testify to you? What shall I liken to you, daughter of Jerusalem? What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Zion? For your breach is as big as the sea. Who can heal you? 14 Your prophets have seen false and foolish visions for you. They have not uncovered your iniquity, to reverse your captivity, but have seen for you false revelations and causes of banishment. 15 All that pass by clap their hands at you. They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, "Is this the city that men called 'The perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth'?" 16 All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you. They hiss and gnash their teeth. They say, "We have swallowed her up. Certainly this is the day that we looked for. We have found it. We have seen it." 17 Yahweh has done that which he planned. He has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old. He has thrown down, and has not pitied. He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you. He has exalted the horn of your adversaries. 18 Their heart cried to the Lord. O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night. Give yourself no relief. Don't let your eves rest. 19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches! Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord. Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, who faint for hunger at the head of every street. 20 "Look, Yahweh, and see to whom you have done thus! Should the women eat their offspring, the children that they held and bounced on their knees? Should the priest and the prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord? 21 "The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets. My virgins and my

 ${\bf 3}\,{\mbox{I}}$ am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath. 2 He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light. 3 Surely he turns his hand against me again and again all day long. 4 He has made my flesh and my skin old. He has broken my bones. 5 He has built against me, and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship. 6 He has made me dwell in dark places, as those who have been long dead. 7 He has walled me about, so that I can't go out. He has made my chain heavy. 8 Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer. 9 He has walled up my ways with cut stone. He has made my paths crooked. 10 He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in hiding. 11 He has turned away my path, and pulled me in pieces. He has made me desolate. 12 He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow. 13 He has caused the shafts of his guiver to enter into my kidneys. 14 l have become a derision to all my people, and their song all day long. 15 He has filled me with bitterness. He has stuffed me with wormwood. 16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel. He has covered me with ashes. 17 You have removed my soul far away from peace. I forgot prosperity. 18 I said, "My strength has perished, along with my expectation from Yahweh." 19 Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the bitterness. 20 My soul still remembers them, and is bowed down within me. 21 This I recall to my mind: therefore I have hope. 22 It is because of Yahweh's loving kindnesses that we are not consumed, because his mercies don't fail. 23 They are new every morning. Great is your faithfulness. 24 "Yahweh is my portion," says my soul. "Therefore I will hope in him." 25 Yahweh is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him. 26 It is good that a man should hope and guietly wait for the salvation of Yahweh. 27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth. 28 Let him sit alone and keep silence, because he has laid it on him. 29 Let him put his mouth in the dust, if it is so that there may be hope. 30 Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him. Let him be filled full of reproach. 31 For the Lord will not cast off forever. 32 For though he causes grief, yet he will have compassion according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses. 33 For he does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men. 34 To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth, 35 to turn away the right of a man before the face of the Most

> 5 Remember, Yahweh, what has come on us. Look, and see our reproach. 2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our houses to aliens. 3 We are orphans and fatherless. Our mothers are as widows. 4 We must pay for water to drink. Our wood is sold to us. 5 Our pursuers are on our necks. We are weary, and have no rest. 6 We have given our hands to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread. 7 Our fathers sinned, and are no more. We have borne their iniquities. 8 Servants rule over us. There is no one to deliver us out of their hand. 9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives, because of the sword in the wilderness. 10 Our skin is black like an oven, because of the burning heat of famine. 11 They ravished the women in Zion, the virgins in the cities of Judah. 12 Princes were hanged up by their hands. The faces of elders were not honored. 13 The young men carry millstones. The children stumbled under loads of wood. 14 The elders have ceased from the gate, and the young men from their music. 15 The joy of our heart has ceased. Our dance is turned into mourning. 16 The crown has fallen from our head. Woe to us, for we have sinned! 17 For this our heart is faint. For these things our eyes are dim: 18 for the mountain of Zion, which is desolate. The foxes walk on it. 19 You, Yahweh, remain forever. Your throne is from generation to generation. 20 Why do you forget us forever, and forsake us for so long a time? 21 Turn us to yourself, Yahweh, and we will be turned. Renew our days as of old. 22 But you have utterly rejected us. You are very angry against us.

Ezekiel

1 Now in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. 2 In the fifth of the month, which was the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, 3 Yahweh's word came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar: and Yahweh's hand was there on him. 4 I looked, and behold, a stormy wind came out of the north: a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness around it, and out of the middle of it as it were glowing metal, out of the middle of the fire. 5 Out of its center came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: They had the likeness of a man. 6 Everyone had four faces, and each one of them had four wings. 7 Their feet were straight feet. The sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished bronze. 8 They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides. The four of them had their faces and their wings like this: 9 Their wings were joined to one another. They didn't turn when they went. Each one went straight forward. 10 As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man. The four of them had the face of a lion on the right side. The four of them had the face of an ox on the left side. The four of them also had the face of an eagle. 11 Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies. 12 Each one went straight forward. Where the spirit was to go, they went. They didn't turn when they went. 13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches. The fire went up and down among the living creatures. The fire was bright, and lightning went out of the fire. 14 The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. 15 Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, there was one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it. 16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl. The four of them had one likeness. Their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel. 17 When they went, they went in their four directions. They didn't turn when they went. 18 As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around. 19 When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them. When the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. 20 Wherever the spirit was to go, they went. The spirit was to go there. The wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

21 When those went, these went. When those stood. these stood. When those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. 22 Over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of an expanse, like an awesome crystal to look at, stretched out over their heads above. 23 Under the expanse, their wings were straight, one toward the other. Each one had two which covered on this side, and each one had two which covered their bodies on that side. 24 When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army. When they stood, they let down their wings. 25 There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads. When they stood, they let down their wings. 26 Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone. On the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above. 27 I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his waist and upward; and from the appearance of his waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. 28 As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of Yahweh's glory. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of one that spoke.

The said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you." 2 The Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me. 3 He said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. 4 The children are impudent and stiff-hearted. I am sending you to them, and you shall tell them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says.' 5 They, whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse—for they are a rebellious house—yet they will know that there has been a prophet among them. 6 You, son of man, don't be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with you, and you dwell among scorpions. Don't be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. 7 You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear or whether they will refuse; for they are most rebellious. 8 But you, son of man, hear what I tell you. Don't be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth, and eat that which I give you." 9 When I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to and lamentations, mourning, and woe were written in it.

3 He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel." 2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll. 3 He said to me, "Son of man, eat this scroll that I give you and fill your belly and your bowels with it." Then I ate it. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth. 4 He said to me. "Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them. 5 For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel— 6 not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can't understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. 7 But the house of Israel will not listen to you, for they will not listen to me; for all the house of Israel are obstinate and hard-hearted. 8 Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. 9 I have made your forehead as a diamond, harder than flint. Don't be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house." 10 Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, receive in your heart and hear with your ears all my words that I speak to you. 11 Go to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says,' whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse." 12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saving, "Blessed be Yahweh's glory from his place." 13 I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. 14 So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and Yahweh's hand was strong on me. 15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel Aviv who lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days. 16 At the end of seven days, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore hear the word from my mouth, and warn them from me. 18 When I tell the wicked, 'You will surely die;' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life, that wicked man will die in his iniquity; but I will require his blood at your hand. 19 Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn't turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he will die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul." 20 "Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, me; and behold, a scroll of a book was in it. 10 He he will die, Because vou have not given him warning, he spread it before me. It was written within and without; will die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done will not be remembered; but I will require his blood at your hand. 21 Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he will surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul." 22 Yahweh's hand was there on me; and he said to me, "Arise, go out into the plain, and I will talk with you there." 23 Then I arose, and went out into the plain, and behold, Yahweh's glory stood there, like the glory which I saw by the river Chebar. Then I fell on my face. 24 Then the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet. He spoke with me, and said to me, "Go, shut yourself inside your house. 25 But you, son of man, behold, they will put ropes on you, and will bind you with them, and you will not go out among them. 26 I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be mute and will not be able to correct them, for they are a rebellious house. 27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house."

> ▲ "You also, son of man, take a tile, and lay it before yourself, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem. 2 Lay siege against it, build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it. Also set camps against it and plant battering rams against it all around. 3 Take for yourself an iron pan and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city. Then set your face toward it. It will be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel. 4 "Moreover lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it. According to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. 5 For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days. So you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. 6 "Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah. I have appointed forty days, each day for a year, to you. 7 You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. 8 Behold, I put ropes on you, and you shall not turn yourself from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege. 9 "Take for yourself also wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel. Make bread of it. According to the number of the days that you will lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it. 10 Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day. From time to time you shall eat it. 11 You shall drink water by and in dismay; 17 that they may lack bread and water, on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes—I, iniquity.

5 "You, son of man, take a sharp sword. You shall take it as a barber's razor to yourself, and shall cause it to pass over your head and over your beard. Then take balances to weigh and divide the hair. 2 A third part you shall burn in the fire in the middle of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled. You shall take a third part, and strike with the sword around it. A third measure, the sixth part of a hin. From time to time you and with all your abominations, therefore I will also shall drink. 12 You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you diminish you. My eye won't spare, and I will have no shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of pity. 12 A third part of you will die with the pestilence, man." 13 Yahweh said, "Even thus will the children of and they will be consumed with famine within you. A Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where third part will fall by the sword around you. A third part I I will drive them." 14 Then I said, "Ah Lord Yahweh! will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword Behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my after them. 13 "Thus my anger will be accomplished, youth up even until now I have not eaten of that which and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I dies of itself, or is torn of animals. No abominable meat will be comforted. They will know that I, Yahweh, have has come into my mouth!" 15 Then he said to me, spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath "Behold, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, on them. 14 "'Moreover I will make you a desolation and and you shall prepare your bread on it." 16 Moreover he a reproach among the nations that are around you, in said to me, "Son of man, behold, I will break the staff the sight of all that pass by. 15 So it will be a reproach of bread in Jerusalem. They will eat bread by weight, and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the and with fearfulness. They will drink water by measure, nations that are around you, when I execute judgments be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their Yahweh, have spoken it- 16 when I send on them the evil arrows of famine that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you. I will increase the famine on you and will break your staff of bread. 17 I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they will bereave you. Pestilence and blood will pass through you. I will bring the sword on you. I, Yahweh, have spoken it."

6 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out and prophesy to them, 3 and say, 'You mountains of a sword after them. 3 You shall take a small number Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh! The Lord of these and bind them in the folds of your robe. 4 Yahweh says to the mountains and to the hills, to the Of these again you shall take, and cast them into the watercourses and to the valleys: "Behold, I, even I, middle of the fire, and burn them in the fire. From it a will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high fire will come out into all the house of Israel. 5 "The places. 4 Your altars will become desolate, and your Lord Yahweh says: 'This is Jerusalem. I have set her incense altars will be broken. I will cast down your slain in the middle of the nations, and countries are around men before your idols. 5 I will lay the dead bodies of her. 6 She has rebelled against my ordinances in doing the children of Israel before their idols. I will scatter wickedness more than the nations, and against my your bones around your altars. 6 In all your dwelling statutes more than the countries that are around her; places, the cities will be laid waste and the high places for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my will be desolate, so that your altars may be laid waste statutes, they have not walked in them.' 7 "Therefore and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and the Lord Yahweh says: 'Because you are more turbulent cease, and your incense altars may be cut down, and than the nations that are around you, and have not your works may be abolished. 7 The slain will fall among walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, you, and you will know that I am Yahweh. 8 ""Yet I will neither have followed the ordinances of the nations that leave a remnant, in that you will have some that escape are around you; 8 therefore the Lord Yahweh says: the sword among the nations, when you are scattered 'Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute through the countries. 9 Those of you that escape will judgments among you in the sight of the nations. 91 remember me among the nations where they are carried will do in you that which I have not done, and which captive, how I have been broken with their lewd heart, I will not do anything like it any more, because of all which has departed from me, and with their eyes, which your abominations. 10 Therefore the fathers will eat the play the prostitute after their idols. Then they will loathe sons within you, and the sons will eat their fathers. I themselves in their own sight for the evils which they will execute judgments on you; and I will scatter the have committed in all their abominations. 10 They will whole remnant of you to all the winds. 11 Therefore as I know that I am Yahweh. I have not said in vain that live,' says the Lord Yahweh, 'surely, because you have I would do this evil to them." 11 "The Lord Yahweh defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, says: 'Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, "Alas!", because of all the evil abominations famine and pestilence. 16 But of those who escape, by the famine, and by the pestilence. 12 He who is far of the valleys, all of them moaning, everyone in his off will die of the pestilence. He who is near will fall iniquity. 17 All hands will be feeble, and all knees will be by the sword. He who remains and is besieged will weak as water. 18 They will also clothe themselves with die by the famine. Thus I will accomplish my wrath on sackcloth, and horror will cover them. Shame will be on them. 13 You will know that I am Yahweh when their all faces, and baldness on all their heads. 19 They will slain men are among their idols around their altars, on cast their silver in the streets, and their gold will be as an every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, under unclean thing. Their silver and their gold won't be able where they offered pleasant aroma to all their idols. 14 I satisfy their souls or fill their bellies; because it has been will stretch out my hand on them and make the land the stumbling block of their iniquity. 20 As for the beauty desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the throughout all their habitations. Then they will know that images of their abominations and their detestable things I am Yahweh."

7 Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "You, son of man, the Lord Yahweh says to the land of Israel, 'An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land. 3 Now the end is on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways. I will bring on you all your abominations. 4 My eve will not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations will be among you. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.' 5 "The Lord Yahweh says: 'A disaster! A unique disaster! Behold, it comes. 6 An end has come. The end has come! It awakes against you, Behold, it comes, 7 Your doom has come to you, inhabitant of the land! The time has come! The day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, on the mountains. 8 Now I will shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways. I will bring on you all your abominations. 9 My eve won't spare, neither will I have pity. I will punish you according to your ways. Your abominations will be among you. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, strike. 10 "Behold, the day! Behold, it comes! Your doom has gone out. The rod has blossomed. Pride has budded. 11 Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness. None of them will remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth. There will be nothing of value among them. 12 The time has come! The day draws near. Don't let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all its multitude. 13 For the seller won't return to that which is sold, although they are still alive; for the vision concerns the whole multitude of it. None will return. None will strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. 14 They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but no one goes to the battle, for my wrath is on all its multitude. 15 "The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within. He who is in the field will die by the sword. He who is in the city will be devoured by

of the house of Israel; for they will fall by the sword, they will escape and will be on the mountains like doves every green tree, and under every thick oak—the places to deliver them in the day of Yahweh's wrath. They won't therein. Therefore I have made it to them as an unclean thing. 21 I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a plunder; and they will profane it. 22 I will also turn my face from them. and they will profane my secret place. Robbers will enter into it, and profane it. 23 "Make chains, for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. 24 Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they will possess their houses. I will also make the pride of the strong to cease. Their holy places will be profaned. 25 Destruction comes! They will seek peace, and there will be none. 26 Mischief will come on mischief, and rumor will be on rumor. They will seek a vision of the prophet; but the law will perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. 27 The king will mourn, and the prince will be clothed with desolation. The hands of the people of the land will be troubled. I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments I will iudge them. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

8 In the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, the Lord Yahweh's hand fell on me there. 2 Then I saw, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire—from the appearance of his waist and downward, fire, and from his waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. 3 He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north, where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. 4 Behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain. 5 Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north." So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and saw, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. 6 He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they do? Even of Yahweh's house which was toward the north; and I done as you have commanded me." saw the women sit there weeping for Tammuz. 15 Then he said to me. "Have you seen this, son of man? You will again see yet greater abominations than these." 16 He brought me into the inner court of Yahweh's house; and I saw at the door of Yahweh's temple, between the porch and the altar, there were about twenty-five men with their backs toward Yahweh's temple and their faces toward the east. They were worshiping the sun toward the east. 17 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger. Behold, they put the branch to their nose. 18 Therefore I will also deal in wrath. My eye won't spare, neither will I have pity. Though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet I will not hear them."

Don't let your brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, eye spare, neither have pity. 6 Kill utterly the old man, behold, a hole in the wall. 8 Then he said to me, "Son the young man, the virgin, little children and women; of man, dig now in the wall." When I had dug in the but don't come near any man on whom is the mark. wall, I saw a door. 9 He said to me, "Go in, and see the Begin at my sanctuary." Then they began at the old wicked abominations that they do here." 10 So I went men who were before the house. 7 He said to them, in and looked, and saw every form of creeping things, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of out!" They went out, and struck in the city. 8 While they Israel, portrayed around on the wall. 11 Seventy men of were killing, and I was left, I fell on my face, and cried, the elders of the house of Israel stood before them. In and said, "Ah Lord Yahweh! Will you destroy all the the middle of them Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan stood, residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on every man with his censer in his hand; and the smell Jerusalem?" 9 Then he said to me, "The iniquity of the of the cloud of incense went up. 12 Then he said to house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the me. "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion; for house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his rooms of they say, 'Yahweh has forsaken the land, and Yahweh imagery? For they say, 'Yahweh doesn't see us. Yahweh doesn't see.' 10 As for me also, my eye won't spare, has forsaken the land." 13 He said also to me, "You neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their will again see more of the great abominations which head." 11 Behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the they do." 14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, "I have

1 Then I looked, and see, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. 2 He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, "Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." He went in as I watched. 3 Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. 4 Yahweh's glory mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of Yahweh's glory. 5 The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when he speaks. 6 It came to pass, when he commanded the Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from between "Cause those who are in charge of the city to draw the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim," that near, each man with his destroying weapon in his hand." he went in and stood beside a wheel. 7 The cherub 2 Behold, six men came from the way of the upper stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his the fire that was between the cherubim, and took some slaughter weapon in his hand. Then I fell down on my face, and of an eagle. 15 The cherubim mounted up. This is the cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah Lord Yahweh! living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. 16 When Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?" 14 the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 15 "Son of man, when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, are the them. 17 When they stood, these stood. When they ones to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, mounted up, these mounted up with them; for the spirit 'Go far away from Yahweh. Then they stood for a little while in the countries where they have come." at the door of the east gate of Yahweh's house; and 17 "Therefore say, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "I will gather the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. 20 you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the This is the living creature that I saw under the God of countries where you have been scattered, and I will give Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were you the land of Israel." 18 "They will come there, and cherubim. 21 Every one had four faces, and every one they will take away all its detestable things and all its four wings. The likeness of the hands of a man was abominations from there. 19 I will give them one heart, under their wings. 22 As for the likeness of their faces, and I will put a new spirit within them. I will take the they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart their appearances and themselves. They each went of flesh, 20 that they may walk in my statutes, and keep straight forward.

11 Moreover the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of Yahweh's house, which looks eastward. Behold, twenty-five men were at the door of the gate; and I saw among them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. 2 He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city; 3 who say, 'The time is not near to build houses. This is the cauldron, and we are the meat.' 4 Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man." 5 Yahweh's Spirit fell on me, and he said to me, "Speak, 'Yahweh says: "Thus you have said, house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind. 6 You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain." 7 "Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "Your slain whom you have laid in the middle of it, they are the meat, and this is the cauldron; but you will be brought out of the middle of it. 8 You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on my ordinances, and do them. They will be my people, and I will be their God. 21 But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads, says the Lord Yahweh." 22 Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them. The glory of the God of Israel was over them above. 23 Yahweh's glory went up from the middle of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. 24 The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to the captives. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. 25 Then I spoke to the captives all the things that Yahweh had shown me.

2 Yahweh's word also came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, you dwell in the middle of the rebellious house, who have eves to see, and don't see, who have ears to hear, and don't hear; for they are a rebellious house. 3 "Therefore, you son of man, prepare your baggage for moving, and move by day in their sight. you," says the Lord Yahweh. 9 "I will bring you out of the You shall move from your place to another place in their

You shall go within the house of Israel. 25 For I am Yahweh. I will out yourself at evening in their sight, as when men go speak, and the word that I speak will be performed. It out into exile. 5 Dig through the wall in their sight, and will be no more deferred; for in your days, rebellious carry your baggage out that way. 6 In their sight you house, I will speak the word and will perform it," says shall bear it on your shoulder, and carry it out in the Lord Yahweh." 26 Again Yahweh's word came to dark. You shall cover your face, so that you don't see me, saying, 27 "Son of man, behold, they of the house the land, for I have set you for a sign to the house of of Israel say, 'The vision that he sees is for many days Israel." 7 I did so as I was commanded. I brought out to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off.' 28 my baggage by day, as baggage for moving, and in the "Therefore tell them, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "None of evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought my words will be deferred any more, but the word which it out in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their I speak will be performed," says the Lord Yahweh." sight. 8 In the morning, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 9 "Son of man, hasn't the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?' 10 "Say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are." 11 "Say, 'I am your sign. As I have done, so will it be done to them. They will go into exile, into captivity. 12 "The prince who is among them will bear his baggage on his shoulder in the dark, and will go out. They will dig through the wall to carry things out that way. He will cover his face, because he will not see the land with his eyes. 13 I will also spread my net on him, and he will be taken in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans: yet he will not see it, though he will die there. 14 I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands. I will draw out the sword after them. 15 "They will know that I am Yahweh when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries. 16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come. Then they will know that I am Yahweh." 17 Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness. 19 Tell the people of the land, 'The Lord Yahweh says concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the land of Israel: "They will eat their bread with fearfulness and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein. 20 The cities that are inhabited will be laid waste, and the land will be a desolation. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.""" 21 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 22 "Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails'? 23 Tell them therefore, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "I will make this proverb to cease, and they will no more use it as a proverb in Israel;" but tell them, "The days are at sight. It may be they will consider, though they are a hand, and the fulfillment of every vision, 24 For there

3 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, 'Hear Yahweh's word: 3 The Lord Yahweh says, "Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! 4 Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. 5 You have not gone up into the gaps or built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in Yahweh's day. 6 They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, 'Yahweh says;' but Yahweh has not sent them. They have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. 7 Haven't you seen a false vision, and haven't you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, 'Yahweh says;' but I have not spoken?" 8 "'Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "Because you have spoken falsehood and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you," says the Lord Yahweh. 9 "My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and who utter lying divinations. They will not be in the council of my people, neither will they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither will they enter into the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh." 10 "Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, "Peace;" and there is no peace. When one builds up a wall, behold, they plaster it with whitewash. 11 Tell those who plaster it with whitewash that it will fall. There will be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, will fall. A stormy wind will tear it. 12 Behold, when the wall has fallen, won't it be said to you, "Where is the plaster with which you have plastered it?" 13 "Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath. There will be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. 14 So I will break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered. It will fall, and you will be consumed in the middle of it. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. 15 Thus I will accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash. I will tell you, 'The wall is no more, nor those him off from among my people. Then you will know that who plastered it— 16 to wit, the prophets of Israel who I am Yahweh. 9 ""If the prophet is deceived and speaks prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of a word, I, Yahweh, have deceived that prophet, and I peace for her, and there is no peace," says the Lord will stretch out my hand on him, and will destroy him Yahweh." 17 You, son of man, set your face against the from among my people Israel. 10 They will bear their daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own iniquity. The iniquity of the prophet will be even as the heart; and prophesy against them, 18 and say, "The iniquity of him who seeks him, 11 that the house of Lord Yahweh says: 'Woe to the women who sew magic Israel may no more go astray from me, neither defile bands on all elbows and make veils for the head of themselves any more with all their transgressions; but persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the that they may be my people, and I may be their God," souls of my people and save souls alive for yourselves? says the Lord Yahweh." 12 Yahweh's word came to me, 19 You have profaned me among my people for handfuls saying, 13 "Son of man, when a land sins against me by of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls who committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, should not die and to save the souls alive who should and break the staff of its bread and send famine on it, not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies.' 20 and cut off from it man and animal— 14 though these "Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: 'Behold, I am against three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would your magic bands, with which you hunt the souls to deliver only their own souls by their righteousness," make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms. I will says the Lord Yahweh. 15 "If I cause evil animals to let the souls fly free, even the souls whom you ensnare pass through the land, and they ravage it and it is made like birds. 21 I will also tear your veils and deliver my desolate, so that no man may pass through because of people out of your hand; and they will no longer be in the animals— 16 though these three men were in it, as I your hand to be ensnared. Then you will know that I am live," says the Lord Yahweh, "they would deliver neither Yahweh. 22 Because with lies you have grieved the sons nor daughters. They only would be delivered, but heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and the land would be desolate, 17 "Or if I bring a sword strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should on that land, and say, 'Sword, go through the land, not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive. so that I cut off from it man and animal'— 18 though 23 Therefore you shall no more see false visions nor these three men were in it, as I live," says the Lord practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your Yahweh, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, hand. Then you will know that I am Yahweh."

1 1 Then some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me. 2 Yahweh's word came to me, saving, 3 "Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face. Should I be inquired of at all by them? 4 Therefore speak to them and tell them, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "Every man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face then comes to the prophet, I Yahweh will answer him there according to the multitude of his idols, 5 that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols." 6 "Therefore tell the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "Return, and turn yourselves from your idols! Turn away your faces from all your abominations. 7 ""For everyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live in Israel, who separates himself from me and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of me, I Yahweh will answer him by myself. 8 I will set my face against that man and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut but they only would be delivered themselves. 19 "Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal-20 though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live," says the Lord Yahweh, "they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver only their own souls by their righteousness." 21 For the Lord Yahweh says: "How much more when I send my four severe judgments on Jerusalem—the sword, the famine, the evil animals, and the pestilence—to cut off from it man and animal! 22 Yet, behold, there will be left a remnant in it that will be carried out, both sons and daughters. Behold, they will come out to you, and you will see their way and their doings. Then you will be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought on it. 23 They will comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; then you will know that I have not done all that I have done in it without cause," says the Lord Yahweh.

15 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine branch which is among the trees of the forest? 3 Will wood be taken of it to make anything? Will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel on it? 4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both its ends, and the middle of it is burned. Is it profitable your prostitution on everyone who passed by. It was for any work? 5 Behold, when it was whole, it was his. 16 You took some of your garments, and made for suitable for no work. How much less, when the fire yourselves high places decked with various colors, and has devoured it, and it has been burned, will it yet be played the prostitute on them. This shouldn't happen, suitable for any work?" 6 Therefore the Lord Yahweh neither shall it be. 17 You also took your beautiful jewels says: "As the vine wood among the trees of the forest, of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 7 I will set my face against them. They will go out from the fire, but the fire will still garments, covered them, and set my oil and my incense devour them. Then you will know that I am Yahweh, before them. 19 My bread also which I gave you, fine when I set my face against them. 8 I will make the land flour, oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set desolate, because they have acted unfaithfully," says it before them for a pleasant aroma; and so it was," says the Lord Yahweh. 20 ""Moreover you have taken

16 Again Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations; 3 and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says to Jerusalem: "Your origin and your birth is of the land of the Canaanite. An Amorite was your father, and your mother was a Hittite. 4 As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut. You weren't washed in water to cleanse you. You weren't salted at all, nor wrapped in blankets at all. 5 No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, because you were abhorred in the day that you were born. 6 ""When I passed by you, and saw you wallowing in your blood, I said to you, 'Though you are in your blood, live!' Yes, I said to you, 'Though you are in your blood, live!' 7 I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and grew great, and you attained to excellent beauty. Your breasts were formed, and your hair grew; yet you were naked and bare. 8 ""Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread my garment over you and covered your nakedness. Yes, I pledged myself to you and entered into a covenant with you," says the Lord Yahweh, "and you became mine. 9 ""Then I washed you with water. Yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. 10 I clothed you also with embroidered work and put leather sandals on you. I dressed you with fine linen and covered you with silk. 11 I decked you with ornaments, put bracelets on your hands, and put a chain on your neck. 12 l put a ring on your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. 13 Thus you were decked with gold and silver. Your clothing was of fine linen, silk, and embroidered work. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You were exceedingly beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. 14 Your renown went out among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you," says the Lord Yahweh. 15 ""But you trusted in your beauty, and played the prostitute because of your renown, and poured out says the Lord Yahweh. 20 ""Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and you have sacrificed these to them to be devoured. Was your prostitution a small matter, 21 that you have slain my children and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? 22 In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were wallowing in your blood. 23 ""It has happened after all your wickedness-woe, woe to you!" says the Lord Yahweh— 24 "that you have built for yourselves a vaulted place, and have made yourselves a lofty place in every street. 25 You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution. 26 You have also committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger. 27 See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your portion, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. 28 You have played the prostitute also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. 29 You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Chaldea; and yet you weren't satisfied with this. 30 ""How weak is your heart," says the Lord Yahweh, "since you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute: 31 in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay. 32 ""Adulterous wife, who takes strangers instead of her husband! 33 People give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. 34 You are different from other women in your prostitution, in that no one follows you to play the prostitute; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is prostitute, hear Yahweh's word: 36 'The Lord Yahweh your abominations which you have done. 52 You also says, "Because your filthiness was poured out, and bear your own shame yourself, in that you have given your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your have committed more abominable than they, they are abominations, and for the blood of your children, that more righteous than you. Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, tell a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; 3 and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers which had various colors, came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar. 4 He cropped off the topmost of its young twigs, and carried it to a land of traffic. He planted it in a city of merchants. 5 ""He also took some of the seed of the land and planted it in fruitful soil. He placed it beside many waters. He set it as a willow tree. 6 It grew and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him. So it became a vine, produced branches, and shot out sprigs. 7 ""There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers. Behold, this vine bent its roots toward him.

Won't he pull up its roots and cut off its fruit, that it may wither, that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? It can't be raised from its roots by a strong arm or many people. 10 Yes, behold, being planted, will it prosper? Won't it utterly wither when the east wind touches it? It will wither in the ground where it grew."" 11 Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 12 "Say now to the rebellious house, 'Don't you know what these things mean?' Tell them, 'Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to him to Babylon. 13 He took one of the royal offspring, and made a covenant with him. He also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land, 14 that the kingdom might be brought low, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. 15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will he who does such things escape? Will he break the covenant, and still escape? 16 "As I live,' says the Lord Yahweh, 'surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the middle of Babylon he will die. 17 Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company won't help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts to cut off many persons. 18 For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things. He won't escape. 19 "Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: 'As I live, I will surely bring on his own head my oath that he has despised and my covenant that he has broken. 20 I will spread my net on him, and he will be taken in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. 21 All his fugitives in all his bands will fall by the sword, and those who remain will be scattered toward every wind. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken it.' 22 "The Lord Yahweh says: 'I will also take some of the lofty top of the cedar, and will plant it. I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. 23 I will plant it in the mountain of the height of Israel; and it will produce boughs, and bear fruit, and be a good cedar. Birds of every kind will dwell in the shade of its branches. 24 All the trees of the field will know that I, Yahweh, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have

and shot out its branches toward him, from the ground made the dry tree flourish. "I, Yahweh, have spoken

8 Yahweh's word came to me again, saying, 2 "What do you mean, that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge'? 3 "As I live," says the Lord Yahweh, "you shall not use this proverb any more in Israel. 4 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine. The soul who sins, he shall die. 5 "But if a man is just, and does that which is lawful and right, 6 and has not eaten on the mountains, hasn't lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hasn't defiled his neighbor's wife, hasn't come near a woman in her impurity, 7 and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; 8 he who hasn't lent to them with interest, hasn't taken any increase from them, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man, 9 has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live," says the Lord Yahweh. 10 "If he fathers a son who is a robber who sheds blood, and who does any one of these things, 11 or who does not do any of those things but has eaten at the mountain shrines and defiled his neighbor's wife, 12 has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, 13 has lent with interest, and has taken increase from the poor, shall he then live? He shall not live. He has done all these abominations. He shall surely die. His blood will be on him. 14 "Now, behold, if he fathers a son who sees all his father's sins which he has done, and fears, and doesn't do likewise, 15 who hasn't eaten on the mountains, hasn't lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hasn't defiled his neighbor's wife, 16 hasn't wronged any, hasn't taken anything to pledge, hasn't taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; 17 who has withdrawn his hand from the poor, who hasn't received interest or increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father. He shall surely live. 18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he will die in his iniquity. 19 "Yet you say, 'Why doesn't the son bear the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he will surely live. 20 The soul who sins, he shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of 20 In the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of Yahweh, and sat before me. 2 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live," says the Lord Yahweh, "I will not be inquired of by you." 4 "Will you judge them, son of man? Will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers. 5 Tell them, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the offspring of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, 'I am Yahweh your God;' 6 in that day I swore to them to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. 7 I said to them, 'Each of you throw away the abominations of his eyes. Don't defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. 21 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and preach toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel. 3 Tell the land of Israel, 'Yahweh says: "Behold, I am against you, and will draw my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. 4 Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore my sword will go out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north. 5 All flesh will know that I, Yahweh, have drawn my sword out of its sheath. It will not return any more." 6 "Therefore sigh, you son of man. You shall sigh before their eyes with a broken heart and with bitterness. 7 It shall be, when they ask you, 'Why do you sigh?' that you shall say, 'Because of the news, for it comes! Every heart will melt, all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint, and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord Yahweh." 8 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 9 "Son of man, prophesy, and say, 'Yahweh says: "A sword! A sword! It is sharpened, and also polished. 10 It is sharpened that it may make a slaughter. It is polished that it may be as lightning. Should we then make mirth? The rod of my son condemns every tree. 11 It is given to be polished, that it may be handled. The sword is sharpened. Yes, it is polished to give it into the hand of the killer." 12 Cry and wail, son of man; for it is on my people. It is on all the princes of Israel. They are delivered over to the sword with my people. Therefore beat your thigh. 13 "For there is a trial. What if even the rod that condemns will be no more?" says the Lord Yahweh. 14 "You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together. Let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the fatally wounded. It is the sword of the great one who is fatally wounded, which enters into their rooms. 15 I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied. Ah! It is made as lightning. It is pointed for slaughter. 16 Gather yourselves together. Go to the right. Set yourselves in array. Go to the left, wherever your face is set. 17 I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest. I, Yahweh, have spoken it." 18

He shook the arrows back and forth. He consulted the teraphim. He looked in the liver. 22 In his right hand was the lot for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, and to build forts. 23 It will be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken. 24 "Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: 'Because you have caused your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to memory, you will be taken with the hand. 25 "You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, 26 the Lord Yahweh says: "Remove the turban, and take off the crown. This will not be as it was. Exalt that which is low, and humble that which is high. 27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn it. This also will be no more, until he comes whose right it is; and I will give it." 28 "You, son of man, prophesy and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach: "A sword! A sword is drawn! It is polished for the slaughter, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; 29 while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end. 30 Cause it to return into its sheath. You will be remembered no more; for I, Yahweh, have spoken it.""

22 Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "You, son of man, will you judge? Will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her abominations. 3 You shall say, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "A city that sheds blood within herself, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her! 4 You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made! I will purge your filthiness out of you. 16 You will be profaned in yourself in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am Yahweh."" 17 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me. All of them are bronze, tin, iron, and lead in the middle of the furnace. They are the dross of silver. 19 Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: 'Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the middle of Jerusalem. 20 As they gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the middle of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it, so I will gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there and melt you. 21 Yes. Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, tell her, 'You are a land that is not cleansed nor rained on in the day of indignation.' 25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets within it, like a roaring lion ravening the prey. They have devoured souls. They take treasure and precious things. They have made many widows within it. 26 Her priests have done violence to my law and have come to the end of your years. Therefore I have made profaned my holy things. They have made no distinction

23 Yahweh's word came again to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother. 3 They played the prostitute in Egypt. They played the prostitute in their youth. Their breasts were fondled there, and their youthful nipples were caressed there. 4 Their names were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister. They became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah. 5 "Oholah played the prostitute when she was mine. She doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, 6 who were clothed with blue—governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. 7 She gave herself as a prostitute to them, all of them the choicest men of Assyria. She defiled herself with the idols of whomever she lusted after. 8 She hasn't left her prostitution since leaving Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her. They caressed her youthful nipples and they poured out their prostitution on her. 9 "Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians on whom she doted. 10 These uncovered her nakedness. They took her sons and her daughters, and they killed her with the sword. She became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her. 11 "Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was more corrupt in her lusting than she, and in her prostitution which was more depraved than the prostitution of her sister. 12 She lusted after the Assyrians, governors and rulers—her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. 13 I saw that she was defiled. They both went the same way. 14 "She increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portraved with red. 15 ridiculed and held in derision. It will happen, and I will do it. I won't go back. I won't spare. I won't repent. According to your ways and according to your doings, they will judge you," says the Lord Yahweh." 15 Also Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 16 "Son of man, behold, I will take away from you the desire of your eyes with one stroke; yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. 17 Sigh, but not aloud. Make no mourning for the dead. Bind your headdress on you, and put your sandals on your feet. Don't cover your lips, and don't eat mourner's bread." 18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died. So I did in the morning as I was commanded. 19 The people asked me. "Won't you tell us what these things mean to us. that you act like this?" 20 Then I said to them, "Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 21 'Speak to the house of Israel, "The Lord Yahweh says: 'Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind will fall by the sword. 22 You will do as I have done. Then they will know that I am Yahweh." 12 "The Lord Yahweh says: "Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and taken revenge on them," 13 therefore the Lord Yahweh says, "I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman. They will fall by the sword even to Dedan. 14 I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel. They will do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath. Then lay my vengeance on them.""

26 In the eleventh year, in the first of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, 'Aha! She is broken! She who was the gateway of the peoples has been returned to me. I will be replenished, now that she is laid waste;' 3 therefore the Lord Yahweh says, 'Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. 4 They will destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers. I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. 5 She will be a place for the spreading of nets in the middle of the sea; for I have spoken it,' says the Lord Yahweh. 'She will become plunder for the nations. 6 Her daughters who are in the field will be slain with the sword. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.' 7 "For the Lord Yahweh

31 In the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt and his multitude: 'Whom are you like in your greatness? 3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs. 4 The waters nourished it. The deep made it to grow. Its rivers ran all around its plantation. It sent out its channels to all the trees of the field. 5 Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied. Its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it spread them out. 6 All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs. Under its branches, all the animals of the field gave birth to their young. All great nations lived under its shadow. 7 Thus it was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters. 8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it. The cypress trees were not like its branches. The pine trees were not like its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty. 9 I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it.' 10 "Therefore thus said the Lord Yahweh: 'Because he is exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick branches, and his heart is lifted up in his height, 11 I will deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations. He will surely deal with him. I have driven him out for his wickedness. 12 Foreigners, the tyrants of the nations, have cut him off and have left him. His branches have fallen on the mountains and in all the valleys, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land. All the peoples of the earth have gone down from his shadow and have left him. 13 All the birds of the sky will dwell on his ruin, and all the animals of the field will be on his branches, 14 to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, and don't set their top among the thick boughs. Their mighty ones don't stand up on their height, even all who drink water; for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, among the children of men, with those who go down to the pit.' 15 "The Lord Yahweh says: 'In the day when he went down to Sheol, I caused a mourning. I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers. The great waters were stopped. I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. Their iniquities are on their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. (Sheol h7585) 28 "But you will be broken among the uncircumcised, and will lie with those who are slain by the sword. 29 "There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword. They will lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit. 30 "There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down with the slain. They are put to shame in the terror which they caused by their might. They lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. 31 "Pharaoh will see them and will be comforted over all his multitude, even the living. He will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude," says the Lord Yahweh.

33 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, 'When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman. 3 if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blows the trumpet and warns the people. 4 then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and doesn't heed the warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. 5 He heard the sound of the trumpet and didn't take warning. His blood will be on him: whereas if he had heeded the warning, he would have delivered his soul. 6 But if the watchman sees the sword come and doesn't blow the trumpet, and the people aren't warned, and the sword comes and takes any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.' 7 "So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warnings from me. 8 When I tell the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,' and you don't speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man will die in his iniquity, but I will require his blood at your hand. 9 Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he doesn't turn from his way; he will die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul. 10 "You, son of man, tell the house of Israel: 'You say this, "Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them. How then can we live?" 11 Tell them, "As I live," says the Lord Yahweh, "I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For why will you die, house of Israel?" 12 "You, son of man, tell the children of your people, 'The righteousness of the righteous will not deliver him in the day of his disobedience. And as for the wickedness of the wicked, he will not fall by it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither will he who is righteous be able to live by it in the day that he sins. 13 When I tell the righteous that he will surely live, if he trusts in his righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered; but he will die in his iniquity that he has committed. 14 Again. when I say to the wicked, "You will surely die," if he turns from his sin and does that which is lawful and right, 15 if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity, he will surely live. He will not die. 16 None of his sins that he has committed will be

He will surely live. 17 "'Yet the children of your people say, "The way of the Lord is not fair:" but as for them, their way is not fair. 18 When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he will even die therein. 19 When the wicked turns from his wickedness and does that which is lawful and right, he will live by it. 20 Yet you say, "The way of the Lord is not fair." House of Israel, I will judge every one of you after his ways." 21 In the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, "The city has been defeated!" 22 Now Yahweh's hand had been on me in the evening, before he who had escaped came; and he had opened my mouth until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no longer mute. 23 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, those who inhabit the waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, 'Abraham was one, and he inherited the land; but we are many. The land is given us for inheritance.' 25 Therefore tell them, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood. So should you possess the land? 26 You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor's wife. So should you possess the land?" 27 "You shall tell them, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "As I live, surely those who are in the waste places will fall by the sword. I will give whoever is in the open field to the animals to be devoured, and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves will die of the pestilence. 28 I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment. The pride of her power will cease. The mountains of Israel will be desolate, so that no one will pass through. 29 Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment because of all their abominations which they have committed." 30 "As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk about you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak to one another, everyone to his brother, saying, 'Please come and hear what the word is that comes out from Yahweh." 31 They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words. but don't do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. 32 Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they don't do them. 33 "When this comes to pass—behold, it comes—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14 I will feed them with good pasture, and their fold will be on the mountains of the height of Israel. There they will lie down in a good fold. They will feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. 15 I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down," says the Lord Yahweh. 16 "I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong. I will feed them in justice." 17 "As for you, O my flock, the Lord Yahweh says: 'Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats. 18 Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? And to have

35 Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it, 3 and tell it, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you. I will make you a desolation and an astonishment. 4 I will lay your cities waste, and you will be desolate. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. 5 ""Because you have had a perpetual hostility, and have given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end, 6 therefore, as I live," says the Lord Yahweh, "I will prepare you for blood, and blood will pursue you. Since you have not hated blood, therefore blood will pursue you. 7 Thus I will make Mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation. I will cut off from it him who passes through and him who returns.

8 I will fill its mountains with its slain. The slain with the hand to come. 9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will they will know that I am Yahweh."

36 You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, "You mountains of Israel, hear Yahweh's word. 2 The Lord Yahweh says: 'Because the enemy has said against you, "Aha!" and, "The ancient high places are ours in possession!" 3 therefore prophesy, and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people;" 4 therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh: The Lord Yahweh says to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which have become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around; 5 therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "Surely in the fire of my jealousy I have spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey." 6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and tell the mountains, the hills, the watercourses and the valleys, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations." 7 Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "I have sworn, 'Surely the nations that are around you will bear their shame.' 8 ""But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot out your branches and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at

Then you will know that I am will do according to your anger, and according to your Yahweh. 12 Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even envy which you have shown out of your hatred against my people Israel. They will possess you, and you will be them; and I will make myself known among them when their inheritance, and you will never again bereave them I judge you. 12 You will know that I, Yahweh, have of their children." 13 "The Lord Yahweh says: "Because heard all your insults which you have spoken against they say to you, 'You are a devourer of men, and have the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They have been laid been a bereaver of your nation;' 14 therefore you shall desolate. They have been given to us to devour.' 13 devour men no more, and not bereave your nation any You have magnified yourselves against me with your more," says the Lord Yahweh. 15 "I won't let you hear mouth, and have multiplied your words against me. I the shame of the nations any more. You won't bear have heard it." 14 The Lord Yahweh says: "When the the reproach of the peoples any more, and you won't whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. 15 As cause your nation to stumble any more," says the Lord you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel Yahweh." 16 Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You will be saying, 17 "Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it. Then their own land, they defiled it by their ways and by their deeds. Their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. 18 Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols. 19 I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries. I judged them according to their way and according to their deeds. 20 When they came to the nations where they went, they profaned my holy name, in that men said of them. 'These are Yahweh's people, and have left his land.' 21 But I had respect for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where they went. 22 "Therefore tell the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "I don't do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you went. 23 I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh," says the Lord Yahweh, "when I am proven holy in you before their eyes. 24 ""For I will take you from among the nations and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. 25 I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. I will cleanse you from all your filthiness and from all your idols. 26 I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. 27 I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes. You will keep my ordinances and do them. 28 You will dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers. You will be my people, and I will be your God. 29 I will save feet, an exceedingly great army. 11 Then he said to men. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

37 Yahweh's hand was on me, and he brought me out in Yahweh's Spirit, and set me down in the middle of the valley; and it was full of bones. 2 He caused me to pass by them all around; and behold, there were very many in the open valley, and behold, they were very dry. 3 He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I answered, "Lord Yahweh, you know." 4 Again he said to me, "Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, 'You dry bones, hear Yahweh's word. 5 The Lord Yahweh says to these bones: "Behold I will cause breath to enter into you, and you will live. 6 I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you. and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you will live. Then you will know that I am Yahweh."" 7 So I prophesied as I was commanded. As I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, there was an earthquake, Then the bones came together, bone to its bone. 8 I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them. 9 Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and tell the wind, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live."" 10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their

One king will be king to them all. They will no longer be two nations. They won't be divided into two kingdoms any more at all. 23 They won't defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. 38 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, 3 and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal. 4 I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; 5 Persia, Cush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; 6 Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes—even many peoples with you. 7 ""Be prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies who are assembled to you, and be a guard to them. 8 After many days you will be visited. I would bring you against them? 18 It will happen in that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel," says the Lord Yahweh, "that my wrath will come up into my nostrils. 19 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath I have spoken. Surely in that day there will be a great shaking in the land of Israel, 20 so that the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the animals of the field, all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth will shake at my presence. Then the mountains will be thrown down, the steep places will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground. 21 I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains," says the Lord Yahweh. "Every man's sword will be against his brother. 22 I will enter into judgment with him with pestilence and with blood. I will rain on him, on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, torrential rains with great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. 23 I will magnify myself and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations.  $oldsymbol{10}$ In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was struck, in the same day, Yahweh's hand was on me, and he brought me there. 2 In the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, on which was something like the frame of a city to the south. 3 He brought me there; and, behold, there was a man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a line of flax in his hand and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. 4 The man said to me, "Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I will show you; for you have been brought here so that I may show them to you. Declare all that you see to the house of Israel." 5 Behold, there was a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a hand width each. So he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. 6 Then he came to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps. He measured the threshold of the gate, one reed wide; and the other threshold, one reed wide. 7 Every lodge was one reed long and one reed wide. Between the lodges was five cubits. The threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed. 8 He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. 9 Then he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house. 10 The side rooms of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side. The three of them were of one measure. The posts had one measure on this side and on that side. 11 He measured the width of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; 12 and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the side rooms, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. 13 He measured the gate from the roof of the one side room to the roof of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits, door against door. 14 He also made posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, around the gate. 15 From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. 16 There were closed windows to the side rooms, and to their posts within the gate all around, and likewise to the arches. Windows were around inward. Palm trees were on each post. 17 Then he brought me into the outer court. Behold, there were rooms and a payement made for the court all around. Therefore the width of the house increased upward; and so one went up from the lowest level to the highest through the middle level. 8 I saw also that the house had a raised base all around. The foundations of the side rooms were a full reed of six great cubits. 9 The thickness of the outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits. That which was left was the place of the side rooms that belonged to the house. 10 Between the rooms was a width of twenty cubits around the house on every side. 11 The doors of the side rooms were toward an open area that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south. The width of the open area was five cubits all around. 12 The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide: and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits. 13 So he measured the temple, one hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with its walls, one hundred cubits long; 14 also the width of the face of the temple, and of the separate place toward the east, one hundred cubits. 15 He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits from the inner temple, and the porches of the court, 16 the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, opposite the threshold, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered). 17 to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside, by measure. 18 It was made with cherubim and palm trees. A palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces. 19 so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. It was made like this through all the house all around. 20 Cherubim and palm trees were made from the ground to above the door. The wall of the temple was like this. 21 The door posts of the nave were squared. As for the face of the nave, its appearance was as the appearance of the temple. 22 The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. Its corners, its base, and its walls were of wood. He said to me. "This is the table that is before Yahweh." 23 The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. 24 The doors had two leaves each, two turning leaves: two for the one door, and two leaves for the other. 25 There were made on them, on the doors of the nave, cherubim and palm trees, like those made on the walls. There was a threshold of wood on the face of $oldsymbol{12}$ Then he brought me out into the outer court, the way toward the north. Then he brought me into the room that was opposite the separate place, and which was opposite the building toward the north. 2 Facing the length of one hundred cubits was the north door, and the width was fifty cubits. 3 Opposite the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and opposite the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the three stories. 4 Before the rooms was a walk of ten cubits' width inward, a way of one cubit: and their doors were toward the north. 5 Now the upper rooms were shorter; for the galleries took away from these more than from the lower and the middle in the building. 6 For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts. Therefore the uppermost was set back more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. 7 The wall that was outside by the side of the rooms, toward the outer court before the rooms, was fifty cubits long. 8 For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits. Behold, those facing the temple were one hundred cubits. 9 From under these rooms was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court. 10 In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms. 11 The way before them was like the appearance of the rooms which were toward the north. Their length and width were the same. All their exits had the same arrangement and doors. 12 Like the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them. 13 Then he said to me. "The north rooms and the south rooms, which are opposite the separate place, are the holy rooms, where the priests who are near to Yahweh shall eat the most holy things. There they shall lay the most holy things, with the meal offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. 14 When the priests enter in, then they shall not go out of the holy place into the outer court until they lay their garments in which they minister there; for they are holy. Then they shall put on other garments, and shall approach that which is for the people." 15 Now when he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by the way of the gate which faces toward the east, and measured it all around. 16 He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around. 17 He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring that which was common.

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east. 2 Behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. His voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth was illuminated with his glory. 3 It was like the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. 4 Yahweh's glory came into the house by the way of the gate which faces toward the east. 5 The Spirit took me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, Yahweh's glory filled the house. 6 I heard one speaking to me out of the house, and a man stood by me. 7 He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell among the children of Israel forever. The house of Israel will no more defile my holy name, neither they nor their kings, by their prostitution and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places; 8 in their setting of their threshold by my threshold and their door post beside my door post. There was a wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed. Therefore I have consumed them in my anger. 9 Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings far from me. Then I will dwell among them forever. 10 "You, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. 11 If they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, its fashion, its exits, its entrances, its structure, all its ordinances, all its forms, and all its laws; and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them. 12 "This is the law of the house. On the top of the mountain the whole limit around it shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house. 13 "These are the measurements of the altar by cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a hand width): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the width a cubit,

It had a wall around it, the length five square in its four sides. 17 The ledge shall be fourteen hundred cubits, and the width five hundred cubits, to cubits long by fourteen wide in its four sides; and the make a separation between that which was holy and border about it shall be half a cubit; and its bottom shall be a cubit around; and its steps shall look toward the east." 18 He said to me, "Son of man, the Lord Yahweh says: 'These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they make it, to offer burnt offerings on it, and to sprinkle blood on it. 19 You shall give to the Levitical priests who are of the offspring of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me,' says the Lord Yahweh, 'a young bull for a sin offering. 20 You shall take of its blood and put it on its four horns, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around. You shall cleanse it and make atonement for it that way. 21 You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burned in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary. 22 "On the second day you shall offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. 23 When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without defect and a ram out of the flock without defect. 24 You shall bring them near to Yahweh, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to Yahweh. 25 "Seven days you shall prepare every day a goat for a sin offering. They shall also prepare a young bull and a ram out of the flock, without defect. 26 Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it. So shall they consecrate it. 27 When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day and onward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar and your peace offerings. Then I will accept you,' says the Lord Yahweh."

11 Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. 2 Yahweh said to me, "This gate shall be shut. It shall not be opened, no man shall enter in by it; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has entered in by it. Therefore it shall be shut. 3 As for the prince, he shall sit in it as prince to eat bread before Yahweh. He shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out the same way." 4 Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, Yahweh's glory filled Yahweh's house; so I fell and its border around its edge a span; and this shall on my face. 5 Yahweh said to me, "Son of man, mark be the base of the altar. 14 From the bottom on the well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of Yahweh's width one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater house and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary. 6 You shall

They shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood," says the Lord Yahweh. 16 "They shall enter into my sanctuary. and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my instruction. 17 ""It will be that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments. No wool shall come on them while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. 18 They shall have linen turbans on their heads, and shall have linen trousers on their waists. They shall not clothe themselves with anything that makes them sweat. 19 When they go out into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister and lay them in the holy rooms. They shall put on other garments, that they not sanctify the people with their garments. 20 ""They shall not shave their heads, or allow their locks to grow long. They shall only cut off the hair of their heads. 21 None of the priests shall drink wine when they enter into the inner court. 22 They shall

The length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the width shall be ten thousand. It shall be holy in all its border all around. 2 Of this there shall be a five hundred by five hundred square for the holy place, and fifty cubits for its pasture lands all around. 3 Of this measure you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a width of ten thousand. In it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. 4 It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to Yahweh. It shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. 5 Twentyfive thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width shall be for the Levites, the ministers of the house, as a possession for themselves, for twenty rooms. 6 ""You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the holy portion. My princes shall no more oppress my people, but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes." 9 "The Lord Yahweh says: "Enough you, princes of Israel! Remove violence and plunder, and execute justice and righteousness! Stop dispossessing my people!" says the Lord Yahweh. 10 "You shall have just balances, a just ephah, and a just bath. 11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain one tenth of a homer, and the ephah one tenth of a homer. Its measure shall be the same as the homer. 12 The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels shall be your mina. 13 ""This is the offering that you shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat, and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley, 14 and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, one tenth of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even a homer (for ten baths are a homer), 15 and one lamb of the flock out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel—for a meal offering, for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them," says the Lord Yahweh. 16 "All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Israel. 17 It shall be the prince's part to give the burnt offerings, the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the Sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He shall prepare the sin offering, the meal offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel." 18 "The Lord Yahweh says: "In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without defect, and you shall cleanse the sanctuary. 19 The priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. 20 So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple. 17 He brought me back to the door of the temple; and behold, waters flowed out from under the threshold of the temple eastward, for the front of the temple faced toward the east. The waters came down from underneath, from the right side of the temple, on the south of the altar. 2 Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me around by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east. Behold, waters ran out on the right side. 3 When the man went out eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. 4 Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through waters that were to the waist. 5 Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through, for the waters had risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be walked through. 6 He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me and caused me to return to the bank of the river. 7 Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river were very entrance of Hamath, Hazar Enan at the border of

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. 2 The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with some of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god. He brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god. 3 The king spoke to Ashpenaz, the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in some of the children of Israel, even of the royal offspring and of the nobles: 4 youths in whom was no defect, but well-favored, skillful in all wisdom, endowed with knowledge, understanding science, and who had the ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans. 5 The king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's delicacies and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years, that at its end they should stand before the king. 6 Now among these of the children of Judah were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 7 The prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego. 8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's delicacies, nor with the wine which he drank. Therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. 9 Now God made Daniel find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. 10 The prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink. For why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? Then you would endanger my head with the king." 11 Then Daniel said to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: 12 "Test your servants, I beg you, ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink. 13 Then let our faces be examined before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king's delicacies; and as you see, deal with your servants." 14 So he listened to them in this matter, and tested them for ten days. 15 At the end of ten days, their faces appeared fairer and they were fatter in flesh than all the youths who ate of the king's delicacies. 16 So the steward took away their delicacies and the wine that they were given to drink, and gave them vegetables. 17 Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom; and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. 18 At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. 19 The king talked with them; and among them all was found no one like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Therefore stood they before the king. 20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm. 21 Daniel continued even to the first year of King Cyrus.

1 In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. 2 Then the king commanded that the magicians, the enchanters, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans be called to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. 3 The king said to them. "I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream." 4 Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in the Syrian language, "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation." 5 The king answered the Chaldeans, "The thing has gone from me. If you don't make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you will be cut in pieces, and your houses will be made a dunghill. 6 But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts, rewards, and great honor. Therefore show me the dream and its interpretation." 7 They answered the second time and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation." 8 The king answered, "I know of a certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see the thing has gone from me. 9 But if you don't make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the situation changes. Therefore tell me the dream, and I will know that you can show me its interpretation." 10 The Chaldeans answered the king and said, "There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter. because no king, lord, or ruler has asked such a thing of any magician, enchanter, or Chaldean. 11 It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh." 12 Because of this, the king was angry and very furious, and commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be destroyed. 13 So the decree went out, and the wise men were to be slain. They sought Daniel and his companions to be slain. 14 Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon. 15 He answered Arioch the king's captain. "Why is the decree so urgent from the king?" Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. 16 Daniel went in, and desired of the king known to me the dream which I have seen, and its left to another people; but it will break in pieces and interpretation?" 27 Daniel answered before the king, consume all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever. gold, its chest and its arms of silver, its belly and its the king's gate. thighs of bronze, 33 its legs of iron, its feet part of iron and part of clay. 34 You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. 35 Then that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold the king the interpretation. 17 Then Daniel went to his were broken in pieces together, and became like the house and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, chaff of the summer threshing floors. The wind carried and Azariah, his companions: 18 that they would desire them away, so that no place was found for them. The mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret, stone that struck the image became a great mountain that Daniel and his companions would not perish with and filled the whole earth. 36 "This is the dream; and we the rest of the wise men of Babylon. 19 Then the secret will tell its interpretation before the king, 37 You, O king, was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given Daniel blessed the God of heaven. 20 Daniel answered, the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the glory. 38 "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for Wherever the children of men dwell, he has given the wisdom and might are his. 21 He changes the times animals of the field and the birds of the sky into your and the seasons. He removes kings and sets up kings. hand, and has made you rule over them all. You are He gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those the head of gold. 39 "After you, another kingdom will who have understanding. 22 He reveals the deep and arise that is inferior to you; and another third kingdom of secret things. He knows what is in the darkness, and bronze, which will rule over all the earth. 40 The fourth the light dwells with him. 23 I thank you and praise kingdom will be strong as iron, because iron breaks in you, O God of my fathers, who have given me wisdom pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes and might, and have now made known to me what we all these, it will break in pieces and crush. 41 Whereas desired of you; for you have made known to us the you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay and part king's matter." 24 Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; but there will be in it whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron of Babylon. He went and said this to him: "Don't destroy mixed with miry clay. 42 As the toes of the feet were part the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom will be partly and I will show to the king the interpretation." 25 Then strong and partly brittle. 43 Whereas you saw the iron Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and mixed with miry clay, they will mingle themselves with said this to him: "I have found a man of the children the seed of men; but they won't cling to one another, of the captivity of Judah who will make known to the even as iron does not mix with clay. 44 "In the days of king the interpretation." 26 The king answered Daniel, those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make which will never be destroyed, nor will its sovereignty be and said, "The secret which the king has demanded 45 Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the can't be shown to the king by wise men, enchanters, mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the magicians, or soothsayers; 28 but there is a God in iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known great God has made known to the king what will happen to King Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. hereafter. The dream is certain, and its interpretation Your dream and the visions of your head on your bed sure." 46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, are these: 29 "As for you, O king, your thoughts came worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he offer an offering and sweet odors to him. 47 The king who reveals secrets has made known to you what will answered to Daniel, and said, "Of a truth your God is the happen. 30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret." to the intent that the interpretation may be made known 48 Then the king made Daniel great and gave him many to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your great gifts, and made him rule over the whole province heart. 31 "You, O king, saw, and behold, a great image. of Babylon and to be chief governor over all the wise This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness men of Babylon. 49 Daniel requested of the king, and was excellent, stood before you; and its appearance he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over was terrifying. 32 As for this image, its head was of fine the affairs of the province of Babylon, but Daniel was in

O king, that we will not serve your governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, gods or worship the golden image which you have set the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come up." 19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar form of his appearance was changed against Shadrach, the king had set up. 3 Then the local governors, the Meshach, and Abednego. He spoke, and commanded deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, that they should heat the furnace seven times more the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the than it was usually heated. 20 He commanded certain provinces were gathered together to the dedication of mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar burning fiery furnace. 21 Then these men were bound in had set up. 4 Then the herald cried aloud, "To you it is their pants, their tunics, and their mantles, and their commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, 5 that other clothes, and were cast into the middle of the whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, burning fiery furnace. 22 Therefore because the king's lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down commandment was urgent and the furnace exceedingly and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up the king has set up. 6 Whoever doesn't fall down and Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. 23 These three worship shall be cast into the middle of a burning fiery men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down furnace the same hour." 7 Therefore at that time, when bound into the middle of the burning fiery furnace. 24 all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished and lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, rose up in haste. He spoke and said to his counselors, the nations, and the languages fell down and worshiped "Didn't we cast three men bound into the middle of the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set the fire?" They answered the king, "True, O king." 25 up. 8 Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came He answered, "Look, I see four men loose, walking near and brought accusation against the Jews. 9 They in the middle of the fire, and they are unharmed. The answered Nebuchadnezzar the king, "O king, live for appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods." 26 ever! 10 You, O king, have made a decree that every Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the man who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, burning fiery furnace. He spoke and said, "Shadrach, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music shall fall down and Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most worship the golden image; 11 and whoever doesn't fall High God, come out, and come here!" Then Shadrach, down and worship shall be cast into the middle of a Meshach, and Abednego came out of the middle of burning fiery furnace. 12 There are certain Jews whom the fire. 27 The local governors, the deputies, and the you have appointed over the affairs of the province of governors, and the king's counselors, being gathered Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. The smell of fire wasn't even on you have set up." 13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in rage them. 28 Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, "Blessed and fury commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, Abednego be brought. Then these men were brought who has sent his angel and delivered his servants who before the king. 14 Nebuchadnezzar answered them, trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor you don't serve my gods and you don't worship the worship any god except their own God. 29 Therefore I golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if you are make a decree that every people, nation, and language ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall Meshach, and Abednego shall be cut in pieces, and down and worship the image which I have made, good; their houses shall be made a dunghill, because there is but if you don't worship, you shall be cast the same no other god who is able to deliver like this." 30 Then hour into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. Who the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego is that god who will deliver you out of my hands?" 16 in the province of Babylon. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in 4 Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, this matter. 17 If it happens, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he

He was Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the driven from men and ate grass like oxen; and his body wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to was wet with the dew of the sky until his hair had grown me the interpretation; but you are able, for the spirit like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. 34 of the holy gods is in you." 19 Then Daniel, whose At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, me; and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream or the interpretation, honored him who lives forever, for his dominion is an trouble you." Belteshazzar answered, "My lord, may the everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. 35 All the inhabitants of the earth are showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts iustice; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

Selshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. 2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded that the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem be brought to him, that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them. 3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of God's house which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. 4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of bronze, of iron, of wood, and of stone. 5 In the same hour, the fingers of a man's hand came out and wrote near the lamp stand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace. The king saw the part of the hand that wrote. 6 Then the king's face was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him: and the joints of his thighs were loosened, and his knees struck one against another. 7 The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and shows me its interpretation shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom." 8 Then all the king's wise men came in; but they could not read the writing, and couldn't make known to the king the interpretation. 9 Then King Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his face was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed. 10 The gueen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house. The gueen spoke and said, "O king, live forever; don't let vour thoughts trouble vou, nor let vour face be changed. 11 There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him. The king, Nebuchadnezzar, your father—yes, the king, your father—made him master of the magicians, enchanters. Chaldeans, and soothsayers, 12 because an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting of dreams.

The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Are returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my you that Daniel of the children of the captivity of Judah, majesty and brightness returned to me. My counselors whom the king my father brought out of Judah? 14 l and my lords sought me; and I was established in my have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me. 37 and that light, understanding, and excellent wisdom are Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the found in you. 15 Now the wise men, the enchanters, King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. 16 But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations and dissolve doubts. Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom." 17 Then Daniel answered before the king, "Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. 18 "To you, king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty. 19 Because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. He killed whom he wanted to, and he kept alive whom he wanted to. He raised up whom he wanted to, and he put down whom he wanted to. 20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him. 21 He was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the animals', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he will. 22 "You, his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, 23 but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven: and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives. and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. You have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron. wood, and stone, which don't see, or hear, or know; and you have not glorified the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways. 24 Then the part of the hand was sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed. 25 "This is the writing that was inscribed: 'MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN,' 26 "This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE: God has counted your kingdom, and brought it to an end. 27 TEKEL: you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting.

Medes and Persians." 29 Then Belshazzar commanded, was very displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of deliver him; and he labored until the going down of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning the sun to rescue him. 15 Then these men assembled him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. 30 together to the king, and said to the king, "Know, O In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean King was slain. king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that 31 Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about no decree nor statute which the king establishes may sixty-two years old.

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty local governors, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; 2 and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one, that these local governors might give account to them, and that the king should suffer no loss. 3 Then this Daniel was distinguished above the presidents and the local governors, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. 4 Then the presidents and the local governors sought to find occasion against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find no occasion or fault, because he was faithful. There wasn't any error or fault found in him. 5 Then these men said, "We won't find any occasion against this Daniel, unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God." 6 Then these presidents and local governors assembled together to the king, and said this to him, "King Darius, live forever! 7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the local governors, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute and to make a strong decree, that whoever asks a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. 8 Now, O king, establish the decree and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter." 9 Therefore King Darius signed the writing and the decree. 10 When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his room toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. 11 Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. 12 Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree: "Haven't you signed a decree that every man who makes a petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered, "This thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter." 13 Then they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn't respect you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a

28 PERES: your kingdom is divided, and given to the day." 14 Then the king, when he heard these words, be changed." 16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you." 17 A stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. 18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting. No musical instruments were brought before him; and his sleep fled from him. 19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions. 20 When he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a troubled voice. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?" 21 Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live forever! 22 My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me, because innocence was found in me before him; and also before you, O king, I have done no harm." 23 Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God. 24 The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions—them, their children, and their wives; and the lions mauled them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they came to the bottom of the den. 25 Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages who dwell in all the earth: "Peace be multiplied to you. 26 "I make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel. "For he is the living God, and steadfast forever. His kingdom is that which will not be destroyed. His dominion will be even to the end. 27 He delivers and rescues. He works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions." 28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

> 7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head while on his bed. Then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters. 2 Daniel spoke and said, "I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the sky broke out on the great sea. 3 Four great animals came up from the sea, different from one another. 4 "The first was like iron, and its nails of bronze; which devoured, broke in a lion, and had eagle's wings. I watched until its wings pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; 20 and were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth and concerning the ten horns that were on its head and the made to stand on two feet as a man. A man's heart other horn which came up, and before which three fell, was given to it. 5 "Behold, there was another animal, a even that horn that had eyes and a mouth that spoke second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and arrogantly, whose look was more stout than its fellows. three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth. They 21 I saw, and the same horn made war with the saints, said this to it: 'Arise! Devour much flesh!' 6 "After this and prevailed against them, 22 until the Ancient of Days I saw, and behold, another, like a leopard, which had came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most on its back four wings of a bird. The animal also had High, and the time came that the saints possessed four heads; and dominion was given to it. 7 "After this I the kingdom. 23 "So he said, 'The fourth animal will saw in the night visions, and, behold, there was a fourth be a fourth kingdom on earth, which will be different animal, awesome, powerful, and exceedingly strong. It from all the kingdoms, and will devour the whole earth, had great iron teeth. It devoured and broke in pieces, and will tread it down and break it in pieces. 24 As for and stamped the residue with its feet. It was different the ten horns, ten kings will arise out of this kingdom. from all the animals that were before it. It had ten horns. Another will arise after them; and he will be different 8"I considered the horns, and behold, there came up from the former, and he will put down three kings. 25 He among them another horn, a little one, before which will speak words against the Most High, and will wear three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots; out the saints of the Most High. He will plan to change and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a the times and the law; and they will be given into his man, and a mouth speaking arrogantly. 9 "I watched hand until a time and times and half a time. 26 "But until thrones were placed, and one who was Ancient of the judgment will be set, and they will take away his Days sat. His clothing was white as snow, and the hair dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end. 27 of his head like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames. The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of and its wheels burning fire. 10 A fiery stream issued and the kingdoms under the whole sky, will be given to the came out from before him. Thousands of thousands people of the saints of the Most High. His kingdom is an ministered to him. Ten thousand times ten thousand everlasting kingdom, and all dominions will serve and stood before him. The judgment was set. The books obey him.' 28 "Here is the end of the matter. As for me, were opened. 11 "I watched at that time because of Daniel, my thoughts troubled me greatly, and my face the voice of the arrogant words which the horn spoke. I watched even until the animal was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire. 12 As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. 13 "I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man, and he came even to the Ancient of Days, and they brought him near before him. 14 Dominion was given him, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which will not pass away, and his kingdom one that will not be destroyed. 15 "As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. 16 I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. "So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. 17 'These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who will arise out of the earth. 18 But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.' 19 "Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth animal, which was different from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of

was changed in me; but I kept the matter in my heart."

8 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar, a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. 2 I saw the vision. Now it was so, that when I saw, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. 3 Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, a ram which had two horns stood before the river. The two horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward. No animals could stand before him. There wasn't any who could deliver out of his hand, but he did according to his will, and magnified himself. 5 As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and didn't touch the ground. The goat had a notable horn between his eyes. 6 He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran on him in the fury of his power. 7 I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground and trampled on him. There was

The male goat magnified himself exceedingly. When he true; but seal up the vision, for it belongs to many days was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead to come." 27 I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick for some of it there came up four notable horns toward the four days. Then I rose up and did the king's business. I winds of the sky. 9 Out of one of them came out a wondered at the vision, but no one understood it. little horn which grew exceedingly great—toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land. 10 It grew great, even to the army of the sky; and it cast down some of the army and of the stars to the ground and trampled on them. 11 Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the army; and it took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. 12 The army was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through disobedience. It cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered. 13 Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, "How long will the vision about the continual burnt offering, and the disobedience that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the army to be trodden under foot be?" 14 He said to me, "To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings. Then the sanctuary will be cleansed." 15 When I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it. Then behold, there stood before me someone with the appearance of a man. 16 I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision." 17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man, for the vision belongs to the time of the end." 18 Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me and set me upright. 19 He said, "Behold, I will make you know what will be in the latter time of the indignation, for it belongs to the appointed time of the end. 20 The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. 21 The rough male goat is the king of Greece. The great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. 22 As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms will stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. 23 "In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king of fierce face, and understanding riddles, will stand up. 24 His power will be mighty, but not by his own power. He will destroy awesomely, and will prosper in what he does. He will destroy the mighty ones and the holy people. 25 Through his policy he will cause deceit to prosper in his hand. He will magnify himself in his heart, and he will destroy many in their security. He will also stand up against the prince of princes, but he will be broken without human hands. 26 "The vision

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the offspring of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans- 2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years about which Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah the prophet for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years. 3 I set my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. 4 I prayed to Yahweh my God, and made confession, and said, "Oh, Lord, the great and dreadful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments, 5 we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled. even turning aside from your precepts and from your ordinances. 6 We haven't listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. 7 "Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us confusion of face, as it is today; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you. 8 Lord, to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. 9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him. 10 We haven't obeyed Yahweh our God's voice, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. 11 Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law, turning aside, that they should not obey your voice. "Therefore the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses the servant of God has been poured out on us, for we have sinned against him. 12 He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole sky, such has not been done as has been done to Jerusalem. 13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come on us. Yet we have not entreated the favor of Yahweh our God, that we should turn from our iniquities and have discernment in your truth. 14 Therefore Yahweh has watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for Yahweh our God is righteous in all his works which he does, and we have not obeyed his voice. 15 "Now, Lord our God, who has brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have gotten yourself renown, as it is today, we have sinned. We have done wickedly. 16 food. No meat or wine came into my mouth, I didn't end, wrath will be poured out on the desolate."

1 n the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the message was true, even a great warfare. He understood the message, and had understanding of the vision. 2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three whole weeks. 3 I ate no pleasant

Lord, according to all your righteousness, please let anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were your anger and your wrath be turned away from your fulfilled. 4 In the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel, 5 sins and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, there was a your people have become a reproach to all who are man clothed in linen, whose waist was adorned with around us. 17 "Now therefore, our God, listen to the pure gold of Uphaz. 6 His body also was like beryl, prayer of your servant and to his petitions, and cause and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, eyes as flaming torches. His arms and his feet were like for the Lord's sake. 18 My God, turn your ear and hear. burnished bronze. The voice of his words was like the Open your eyes and see our desolations, and the city voice of a multitude. 7 I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, which is called by your name; for we do not present for the men who were with me didn't see the vision, our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for but a great quaking fell on them, and they fled to hide your great mercies' sake. 19 Lord, hear. Lord, forgive. themselves. 8 So I was left alone and saw this great Lord, listen and do. Don't defer, for your own sake, my vision. No strength remained in me; for my face grew God, because your city and your people are called by deathly pale, and I retained no strength, 9 Yet I heard your name." 20 While I was speaking, praying, and the voice of his words. When I heard the voice of his confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and words, then I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my presenting my supplication before Yahweh my God for face toward the ground. 10 Behold, a hand touched the holy mountain of my God— 21 yes, while I was me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my speaking in prayer—the man Gabriel, whom I had seen hands. 11 He said to me, "Daniel, you greatly beloved in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, man, understand the words that I speak to you, and touched me about the time of the evening offering. 22 stand upright, for I have been sent to you, now." When He instructed me and talked with me, and said, "Daniel, I he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. 12 have now come to give you wisdom and understanding. Then he said to me, "Don't be afraid, Daniel; for from 23 At the beginning of your petitions the commandment the first day that you set your heart to understand, and went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly to humble yourself before your God, your words were beloved. Therefore consider the matter and understand heard. I have come for your words' sake. 13 But the the vision. 24 "Seventy weeks are decreed on your prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twentypeople and on your holy city, to finish disobedience, to one days; but, behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, make an end of sins, to make reconciliation for iniquity, came to help me because I remained there with the to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision kings of Persia. 14 Now I have come to make you and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy. 25 "Know understand what will happen to your people in the latter therefore and discern that from the going out of the days, for the vision is yet for many days." 15 When he commandment to restore and build Jerusalem to the had spoken these words to me, I set my face toward the Anointed One, the prince, will be seven weeks and sixty- ground and was mute. 16 Behold, one in the likeness of two weeks. It will be built again, with street and moat, the sons of men touched my lips. Then I opened my even in troubled times. 26 After the sixty-two weeks the mouth, and spoke and said to him who stood before Anointed One will be cut off, and will have nothing. The me, "My lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows have people of the prince who come will destroy the city and overtaken me, and I retain no strength. 17 For how can the sanctuary. Its end will be with a flood, and war will be the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? For even to the end. Desolations are determined. 27 He will as for me, immediately there remained no strength in make a firm covenant with many for one week. In the me. There was no breath left in me." 18 Then one like middle of the week he will cause the sacrifice and the the appearance of a man touched me again, and he offering to cease. On the wing of abominations will come strengthened me. 19 He said, "Greatly beloved man, one who makes desolate; and even to the decreed full don't be afraid. Peace be to you. Be strong. Yes, be strong." When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me." 20 Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. When I go out, behold, the prince of Greece will come. 21 But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth. There is no one who holds with me against to his own will, and no one will stand before him. He these but Michael your prince. will stand in the glorious land, and destruction will be

11 "As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him. 2 "Now I will show you the truth. Behold, three more kings will stand up in Persia. The fourth will be far richer than all of them. When he has grown strong through his riches, he will stir up all against the realm of Greece. 3 A mighty king will stand up, who will rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. 4 When he stands up, his kingdom will be broken and will be divided toward the four winds of the sky, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom will be plucked up, even for others besides these. 5 "The king of the south will be strong. One of his princes will become stronger than him, and have dominion. His dominion will be a great dominion. 6 At the end of years they will join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north to make an agreement, but she will not retain the strength of her arm. He will also not stand, nor will his arm; but she will be given up, with those who brought her, and he who became the father of her, and he who strengthened her in those times. 7 "But out of a shoot from her roots one will stand up in his place, who will come to the army and will enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and will deal against them and will prevail. 8 He will also carry their gods with their molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, captive into Egypt. He will refrain some years from the king of the north. 9 He will come into the realm of the king of the south, but he will return into his own land. 10 His sons will wage war, and will assemble a multitude of great forces which will come on, and overflow, and pass through. They will return and wage war, even to his fortress. 11 "The king of the south will be moved with anger and will come out and fight with him, even with the king of the north. He will send out a great multitude, and the multitude will be given into his hand. 12 The multitude will be carried off, and his heart will be exalted. He will cast down tens of thousands, but he won't prevail. 13 The king of the north will return, and will send out a multitude greater than the former. He will come on at the end of the times. even of years, with a great army and with abundant supplies. 14 "In those times many will stand up against the king of the south. Also the children of the violent among your people will lift themselves up to establish the vision, but they will fall. 15 So the king of the north will come and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city. The forces of the south won't stand, neither will his select troops, neither will there be any strength to stand. 16 But he who comes against him will do according will stand in the glorious land, and destruction will be in his hand. 17 He will set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him equitable conditions. He will perform them. He will give him the daughter of women, to destroy the kingdom, but she will not stand, and won't be for him. 18 After this he will turn his face to the islands, and will take many, but a prince will cause the reproach offered by him to cease. Yes, moreover, he will cause his reproach to turn on him. 19 Then he will turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he will stumble and fall, and won't be found. 20 "Then one who will cause a tax collector to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory will stand up in his place; but within few days he shall be destroyed, not in anger, and not in battle. 21 "In his place a contemptible person will stand up, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom; but he will come in time of security, and will obtain the kingdom by flatteries. 22 The overwhelming forces will be overwhelmed from before him, and will be broken. Yes, also the prince of the covenant. 23 After the treaty made with him he will work deceitfully; for he will come up and will become strong with few people. 24 In time of security he will come even on the fattest places of the province. He will do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers. He will scatter among them prey, plunder, and wealth. Yes, he will devise his plans against the strongholds, but only for a time. 25 "He will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south will wage war in battle with an exceedingly great and mighty army, but he won't stand; for they will devise plans against him. 26 Yes, those who eat of his delicacies will destroy him, and his army will be swept away. Many will fall down slain. 27 As for both these kings, their hearts will be to do evil, and they will speak lies at one table; but it won't prosper, for the end will still be at the appointed time. 28 Then he will return into his land with great wealth. His heart will be against the holy covenant. He will take action, and return to his own land. 29 "He will return at the appointed time and come into the south; but it won't be in the latter time as it was in the former. 30 For ships of Kittim will come against him. Therefore he will be grieved, and will return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and will take action. He will even return, and have regard to those who forsake the holy covenant. 31 "Forces from him will profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and will take away the continual burnt offering. Then they will set up the abomination that makes desolate. 32 He will corrupt those who do wickedly against the covenant by flatteries; but the people who know their God will be the people will instruct many; yet they will fall by the two others stood, one on the river bank on this side, sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder, many and the other on the river bank on that side. 6 One said days. 34 Now when they fall, they will be helped with a to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters little help; but many will join themselves to them with of the river, "How long will it be to the end of these flatteries. 35 Some of those who are wise will fall—to wonders?" 7 I heard the man clothed in linen, who was refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, above the waters of the river, when he held up his right even to the time of the end, because it is yet for the hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him time appointed. 36 "The king will do according to his who lives forever that it will be for a time, times, and a will. He will exalt himself and magnify himself above half; and when they have finished breaking in pieces every god, and will speak marvelous things against the power of the holy people, all these things will be the God of gods. He will prosper until the indignation finished. 8 I heard, but I didn't understand. Then I said, is accomplished, for that which is determined will be "My lord, what will be the outcome of these things?" 9 done. 37 He won't regard the gods of his fathers, or the He said, "Go your way, Daniel; for the words are shut desire of women, or regard any god; for he will magnify up and sealed until the time of the end. 10 Many will himself above all. 38 But in their place, he will honor purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be the god of fortresses. He will honor a god whom his refined, but the wicked will do wickedly; and none of fathers didn't know with gold, silver, and with precious the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will stones and pleasant things. 39 He will deal with the understand. 11 "From the time that the continual burnt strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god. He will offering is taken away and the abomination that makes increase with glory whoever acknowledges him. He will desolate set up, there will be one thousand two hundred cause them to rule over many, and will divide the land ninety days. 12 Blessed is he who waits, and comes for a price. 40 "At the time of the end the king of the to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days. 13 south will contend with him; and the king of the north "But go your way until the end; for you will rest, and will will come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, stand in your inheritance at the end of the days." with horsemen, and with many ships. He will enter into the countries, and will overflow and pass through. 41 He will enter also into the glorious land, and many countries will be overthrown; but these will be delivered out of his hand: Edom, Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. 42 He will also stretch out his hand on the countries. The land of Egypt won't escape. 43 But he will have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt. The Libyans and the Ethiopians will follow his steps. 44 But news out of the east and out of the north will trouble him; and he will go out with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many. 45 He will plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

12 "At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people; and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time. At that time your people will be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. 2 Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. 3 Those who are wise will shine as the brightness of the expanse. Those who turn many to righteousness will shine as the stars forever and ever. 4 But you, Daniel, shut up the words and seal the book, even to the time of the end. Many will run back and forth, and knowledge strong and take action. 33 "Those who are wise among will be increased." 5 Then I. Daniel, looked, and behold.

Hosea

1 Yahweh's word that came to Hosea the son of Beeri. in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. 2 When Yahweh spoke at first by Hosea, Yahweh said to Hosea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of prostitution and children of unfaithfulness; for the land commits great adultery, forsaking Yahweh." 3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bore him a son. 4 Yahweh said to him, "Call his name Jezreel, for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5 It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel." 6 She conceived again, and bore a daughter. Then he said to him, "Call her name Lo-Ruhamah, for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should in any way pardon them. 7 But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by Yahweh their God, and will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen." 8 Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son. 9 He said, "Call his name Lo-Ammi, for you are not my people, and I will not be yours. 10 Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can't be measured or counted; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.' 11 The children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel.

? "Say to your brothers, 'My people!' and to your sisters, 'My loved one!' 2 Contend with your mother! Contend, for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband; and let her put away her prostitution from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts: 3 lest I strip her naked, and make her bare as in the day that she was born, and make her like a wilderness. and set her like a dry land, and kill her with thirst. 4 Indeed, on her children I will have no mercy, for they are children of unfaithfulness. 5 For their mother has My God!" played the prostitute. She who conceived them has done shamefully; for she said, 'I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.' 6 Therefore behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns, and I will build a wall against her, that she can't find her way. 7 She will follow after her lovers, but she won't overtake them; and she will seek them, but won't find them. Then she will say, 'I will go and return to my first husband, for then it was better with me than now.' 8 For she didn't know that I gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and multiplied to her silver and gold, which they used for Baal. 9 Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my new wine in its season, and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness. 10 Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will deliver her out of my hand. 11 I will also cause all her celebrations to cease: her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies. 12 I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, about which she has said, 'These are my wages that my lovers have given me,' and I will make them a forest, and the animals of the field shall eat them. 13 I will visit on her the days of the Baals, to which she burned incense when she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and went after her lovers and forgot me," says Yahweh. 14 "Therefore behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her. 15 I will give her vineyards from there, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she will respond there as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. 16 It will be in that day," says Yahweh, "that you will call me 'my husband,' and no longer call me 'my master.' 17 For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth, and they will no longer be mentioned by name. 18 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the animals of the field, and with the birds of the sky, and with the creeping things of the ground. I will break the bow, the sword, and the battle out of the land, and will make them lie down safely. 19 I will betroth you to me forever. Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion. 20 I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness; and you shall know Yahweh. 21 It will happen in that day, that I will respond," says Yahweh. "I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth; 22 and the earth will respond to the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; and they will respond to Jezreel. 23 I will sow her to me in the earth; and I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy: and I will tell those who were not my people, 'You are my people;' and they will say, 'You are

3 Yahweh said to me, "Go again, love a woman loved by another, and an adulteress, even as Yahweh loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins." 2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a half of barley. 3 I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the prostitute, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you." 4 For the children of Israel shall live many days

the land: "Indeed there is no truth, nor goodness, nor knowledge of God in the land. 2 There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed. 3 Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone who dwells in it will waste away, with all living things in her, even the animals of the field and the birds of the sky; yes, charge, neither let any man accuse; for your people are like those who bring charges against a priest. 5 You will stumble in the day, and the prophet will also stumble with you in the night; and I will destroy your mother. 6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you may be no priest to me. Because you have forgotten your God's law, I will also forget your children. 7 As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me. I will change their glory into shame. 8 They feed on the sin of my people, and set their heart on their iniquity. 9 It will be like people, like priest; and I will punish them for their ways, and will repay them for their deeds. 10 They will eat, and not have enough. They will play the prostitute, and will not increase; because they have abandoned listening to Yahweh. 11 Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away understanding. 12 My people consult with their wooden idol, and answer to a stick of wood. Indeed the spirit of prostitution has led them astray, and they have been unfaithful to their God. 13 They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks, poplars, and terebinths, because its shade is good. Therefore your daughters play the prostitute, and your brides commit adultery. 14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute, nor your brides when they commit adultery; because the men consort with prostitutes, and they sacrifice with the shrine prostitutes; so the people without understanding will come to ruin. 15 "Though you, Israel, play the prostitute, yet don't let Judah offend; and don't come to Gilgal, neither go up to Beth Aven, nor swear, 'As Yahweh lives.' 16 For Israel has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer. Then how will Yahweh feed them like a lamb in a meadow? 17 Ephraim is joined to idols. Leave him alone! 18 Their drink has become sour. They play the prostitute continually. Her rulers dearly love their shameful way. 19 The wind without king, without prince, without sacrifice, without has wrapped her up in its wings; and they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices.

Israel is defiled. 4 Their deeds won't allow them to turn to their God, for the spirit of prostitution is within them, and they don't know Yahweh. 5 The pride of Israel testifies to his face. Therefore Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their iniquity. Judah also will stumble with them. 6 They will go with their flocks and the fish of the sea also die. 4 "Yet let no man bring a with their herds to seek Yahweh, but they won't find him. He has withdrawn himself from them. 7 They are unfaithful to Yahweh; for they have borne illegitimate children. Now the new moon will devour them with their fields. 8 "Blow the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah! Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven, behind you, Benjamin! 9 Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke. Among the tribes of Israel, I have made known that which will surely be. 10 The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark. I will pour out my wrath on them like water. 11 Ephraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment, because he is intent in his pursuit of idols. 12 Therefore I am to Ephraim like a moth, and to the house of Judah like rottenness. 13 "When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound. then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to King Jareb: but he is not able to heal you, neither will he cure you of your wound. 14 For I will be to Ephraim like a lion, and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I myself will tear in pieces and go away. I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver. 15 I will go and return to my place. until they acknowledge their offense, and seek my face. In their affliction they will seek me earnestly."

> "Come! Let's return to Yahweh; for he has torn us to pieces, and he will heal us; he has injured us, and he will bind up our wounds. 2 After two days he will revive us. On the third day he will raise us up, and we will live before him. 3 Let's acknowledge Yahweh. Let's press on to know Yahweh. As surely as the sun rises, Yahweh will appear. He will come to us like the rain, like the spring rain that waters the earth." 4 "Ephraim, what shall I do to you? Judah, what shall I do to you? For your love is like a morning cloud, and like the dew that disappears early. 5 Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets: I killed them with the words of my mouth. Your judgments are like a flash of lightning. 6 For I desire mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. 7 But they, like Adam,

I restore the fortunes of my people.

When I would heal Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered, also the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood, and the thief enters in, and the gang of robbers ravages outside. 2 They don't consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness. Now their own deeds have engulfed them. They are before my face. 3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies. 4 They are all adulterers. They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring, from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened. 5 On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine. He joined his hand with mockers. 6 For they have prepared their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait. Their anger smolders all night. In the morning it burns as a flaming fire. 7 They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges. All their kings have fallen. There is no one among them who calls to me. 8 Ephraim mixes himself among the nations. Ephraim is a pancake not turned over. 9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he doesn't realize it. Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him, and he doesn't realize it. 10 The pride of Israel testifies to his face; yet they haven't returned to Yahweh land of Egypt.

The stalk will yield no head. If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up. 8 Israel is swallowed up. Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing. 9 For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey wandering alone. Ephraim has hired lovers for himself. 10 But although they sold themselves among the nations, I will now gather them; and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the king of mighty ones. 11 Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning, they became for him altars for sinning. 12 I wrote for him the many things of my law, but they were regarded as a strange thing. 13 As for the sacrifices of my offerings, they sacrifice meat and eat it, but Yahweh doesn't accept them. Now he will remember their iniquity, and punish their sins. They will return to Egypt. 14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces; and Judah has multiplied fortified cities; but I will send a fire on his cities, and it will devour its fortresses."

Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts. 15 "All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds. I will drive them out of my house! I will love them no more. All their princes are rebels. 16 Ephraim is struck. Their root has dried up. They will bear no fruit. Even though they give birth, yet I will kill the beloved ones of their womb." 17 My God will cast them away, because they didn't listen to him: and they will be wanderers among the nations.

1 Israel is a luxuriant vine that produces his fruit. According to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars. As their land has prospered, they have adorned their sacred stones. 2 Their heart is divided. Now they will be found guilty. He will demolish their altars. He will destroy their sacred stones. 3 Surely now they will say, "We have no king; for we don't fear Yahweh; and the king, what can he do for us?" 4 They make promises, swearing falsely in making covenants. Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field. 5 The inhabitants of Samaria will be in terror for the calves of Beth Aven, for its people will mourn over it, along with its priests who rejoiced over it, for its glory, because it has departed from it. 6 It also will be carried to Assyria for a present to a great king. Ephraim will receive shame, and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel. 7 Samaria and her king float away like a twig on the water. 8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed. The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars. They will tell the mountains, "Cover us!" and the hills, "Fall on us!" 9 "Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah. There they remained. The battle against the children of iniquity doesn't overtake them in Gibeah. 10 When it is my desire, I will chastise them; and the nations will be gathered against them when they are bound to their two transgressions. 11 Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh, so I will put a yoke on her beautiful neck. You have eaten the fruit of thing, and became abominable like that which they lies, for you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your loved. 11 As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like mighty men. 14 Therefore a battle roar will arise among a bird. There will be no birth, no one with child, and your people, and all your fortresses will be destroyed, as no conception. 12 Though they bring up their children, Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battle. > "When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt. 2 They called to them, so they went from them. They sacrificed to the Baals, and burned incense to engraved images. 3 Yet I taught Ephraim to walk. I took them by their arms, but they didn't know that I healed them. 4 I drew them with cords of a man, with ties of love; and I was to them like those who lift up the yoke on their necks; and I bent down to him and I fed him. 5 "They won't return into the land of Egypt; but the Assyrian will be their king, because they refused to repent. 6 The sword will fall on their cities, and will destroy the bars of their gates, and will put an end to their plans. 7 My people are determined to turn from me. Though they call to the Most High, he certainly won't exalt them. 8 "How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I make you like Zeboiim? My heart is turned within me, my compassion is aroused. 9 I will not execute the fierceness of my anger. I will not return to destroy Ephraim, for I am God, and not man-the Holy One among you. I will not come in wrath. 10 They will walk after Yahweh, who will roar like a lion; for he will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west. 11 They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, and like a dove out of the land of Assyria; and I will settle them in their houses," says Yahweh. 12 Ephraim surrounds me with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit. Judah still strays from God, and is unfaithful to the Holy One.

> 12 Ephraim feeds on wind, and chases the east wind. He continually multiplies lies and desolation. They make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt. 2 Yahweh also has a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his deeds he will repay him. 3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel, and in his manhood he contended with God. 4 Indeed, he struggled with the angel, and prevailed; he wept, and made supplication to him. In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls. Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field. 12 Jacob fled into the country of Aram. Israel served to get a wife. For a wife he tended flocks and herds. 13 By a prophet Yahweh brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved. 14 Ephraim has bitterly provoked anger. Therefore his blood will be left on him, and his Lord will repay his contempt.

13 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling. He exalted himself in Israel, but when he became guilty through Baal, he died. 2 Now they sin more and more, and have made themselves molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of them the work of the craftsmen. They say of them, 'They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves.' Therefore they will be like the morning mist, like the dew that passes away early, like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor, and like the smoke out of the chimney. 4 "Yet I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt; and you shall acknowledge no god but me, and besides me there is no savior. 5 l knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought. 6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted. Therefore they have forgotten me. 7 Therefore I am like a lion to them. Like a leopard. I will lurk by the path. 8 I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her cubs, and will tear the covering of their heart. There I will devour them like a lioness. The wild animal will tear them. 9 You are destroyed, Israel, because you are against me, against your helper. 10 Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities? And your judges, of whom you said, 'Give me a king and princes'? 11 I have given you a king in my anger, and have taken him away in my wrath. 12 The guilt of Ephraim is stored up. His sin is stored up. 13 The sorrows of a travailing woman will come on him. He is an unwise son, for when it is time, he doesn't come to the opening of the womb. 14 I will ransom them from the power of Sheol. I will redeem them from death! Death, where are your plagues? For the ways of Yahweh are right, and the righteous walk in them, but the rebellious stumble in them.

Joel

1 Yahweh's word that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel. 2 Hear this, you elders, and listen, all you inhabitants of the land! Has this ever happened in your days, or in the days of your fathers? 3 Tell your children about it, and have your children tell their children, and their children, another generation. 4 What the swarming locust has left, the great locust has eaten. What the great locust has left, the grasshopper has eaten. What the grasshopper has left, the caterpillar has eaten. 5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine, for it is cut off from your mouth. 6 For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number. His teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the fangs of a lioness. 7 He has laid my vine waste, and stripped my fig tree. He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away. Its branches are made white. 8 Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth! 9 The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from Yahweh's house. The priests, Yahweh's ministers, mourn. 10 The field is laid waste. The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed. The new wine has dried up, and the oil languishes. 11 Be confounded, you farmers! Wail, you vineyard keepers, for the wheat and for the barley; for the harvest of the field has perished. 12 The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered— the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all of the trees of the field are withered; for joy has withered away from the sons of men. 13 Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests! Wail, you ministers of the altar. Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God, for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house. 14 Sanctify a fast. Call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of Yahweh, your God, and cry to Yahweh. 15 Alas for the day! For the day of Yahweh is at hand, and it will come as destruction from the Almighty. 16 Isn't the food cut off before our eyes, joy and gladness from the house of our God? 17 The seeds rot under their clods. The granaries are laid desolate. The barns are broken down, for the grain has withered. 18 How the animals groan! The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture. Yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate. 19 Yahweh, I cry to you, for the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field. 20 Yes, the animals of the field pant to you, for the water brooks have dried up, and the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

2 Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land

tremble, for the day of Yahweh comes, for it is close at hand: 2 A day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness. As the dawn spreading on the mountains, a great and strong people; there has never been the like, neither will there be any more after them, even to the years of many generations. 3 A fire devours before them, and behind them, a flame burns. The land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them, a desolate wilderness. Yes, and no one has escaped them. 4 Their appearance is as the appearance of horses, and they run as horsemen. 5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains. they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, like a strong people set in battle array. 6 At their presence the peoples are in anguish. All faces have grown pale. 7 They run like mighty men. They climb the wall like warriors. They each march in his line, and they don't swerve off course. 8 One doesn't jostle another. They each march in their own path. They burst through the defenses and don't break ranks. 9 They rush on the city. They run on the wall. They climb up into the houses. They enter in at the windows like thieves. 10 The earth guakes before them. The heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. 11 Yahweh thunders his voice before his army, for his forces are very great; for he is strong who obeys his command; for the day of Yahweh is great and very awesome, and who can endure it? 12 "Yet even now," says Yahweh, "turn to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning." 13 Tear your heart and not your garments, and turn to Yahweh, your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and relents from sending calamity. 14 Who knows? He may turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal offering and a drink offering to Yahweh, your God. 15 Blow the trumpet in Zion! Sanctify a fast. Call a solemn assembly. 16 Gather the people. Sanctify the assembly. Assemble the elders. Gather the children, and those who nurse from breasts. Let the bridegroom go out of his room, and the bride out of her chamber. 17 Let the priests, the ministers of Yahweh, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, "Spare your people, Yahweh, and don't give your heritage to reproach, that the nations should rule over them. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?'" 18 Then Yahweh was jealous for his land, and had pity on his people. 19 Yahweh answered his people, "Behold, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied with them; and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations. 20 But I will remove the northern army far away from you, and will drive it into a barren and desolate

Amos

1 The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. 2 He said: "Yahweh will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn, and the top of Carmel will wither." 3 Yahweh says: "For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron: 4 but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad. 5 I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven, and him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir." says Yahweh. 6 Yahweh says: "For three transgressions of Gaza, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because they carried away captive the whole community, to deliver them up to Edom; 7 but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it will devour its palaces. 8 I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines will perish," says the Lord Yahweh. 9 Yahweh says: "For three transgressions of Tyre, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they delivered up the whole community to Edom, and didn't remember the brotherly covenant; 10 but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, and it will devour its palaces." 11 Yahweh says: "For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because he pursued his brother with the sword and cast off all pity. and his anger raged continually, and he kept his wrath forever; 12 but I will send a fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah." 13 Yahweh says: "For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because they have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead, that they may enlarge their border. 14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it will devour its palaces, with shouting in the day of battle, with a storm in the day of the whirlwind: 15 and their king will go into captivity, he and his princes together," says Yahweh.

2 Yahweh says: "For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime; 2 but I will send a fire on Moab, and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth; and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet; 3 and I will cut off the judge from among them, and will kill all its princes with him." says Yahweh. 4 Yahweh says: "For three transgressions of Judah, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because they have rejected Yahweh's law, and have not kept his statutes. and their lies have led them astray, after which their fathers walked; 5 but I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem." 6 Yahweh says: "For three transgressions of Israel, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because they have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals; 7 They trample the heads of the poor into the dust of the earth and deny justice to the oppressed. A man and his father use the same maiden, to profane my holy name. 8 They lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken in pledge. In the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been fined. 9 Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. 10 Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. 11 I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and some of your young men for Nazirites. Isn't this true, you children of Israel?" says Yahweh. 12 "But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, 'Don't prophesy!' 13 Behold, I will crush you in your place, as a cart crushes that is full of grain. 14 Flight will perish from the swift. The strong won't strengthen his force. The mighty won't deliver himself. 15 He who handles the bow won't stand. He who is swift of foot won't escape. He who rides the horse won't deliver himself. 16 He who is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked on that day," says Yahweh.

3 Hear this word that Yahweh has spoken against you, children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saving: 2 "I have only chosen you of all the families of the earth. Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins." 3 Do two walk together, unless they have agreed? 4 Will a lion roar in the thicket, when he has no prey? Does a young lion cry out of his den, if he has caught nothing? 5 Can a bird fall in a trap on the earth, where no snare is set for him? Does a snare spring up from the ground, when there is nothing to catch? 6 Does the trumpet alarm sound in a city, without the people being afraid? Does evil happen to a city, and Yahweh hasn't done it? 7 Surely the Lord Yahweh will do nothing, unless he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets. 8 The lion has roared. Who will not fear? The Lord Yahweh has spoken. Who can but prophesy? 9 Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of

of Samaria, and see what unrest is in her, and what will do this to you, Israel; because I will do this to you, oppression is among them." 10 "Indeed they don't know prepare to meet your God, Israel. 13 For, behold, he to do right," says Yahweh, "Who hoard plunder and who forms the mountains, creates the wind, declares loot in their palaces." 11 Therefore the Lord Yahweh to man what is his thought, who makes the morning says: "An adversary will overrun the land; and he will darkness, and treads on the high places of the earth: pull down your strongholds, and your fortresses will be Yahweh, the God of Armies, is his name." plundered." 12 Yahweh says: "As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the children of Israel be rescued who sit in Samaria on the corner of a couch, and on the silken cushions of a bed." 13 "Listen, and testify against the house of Jacob," says the Lord Yahweh, the God of Armies. 14 "For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel on him, I will also visit the altars of Bethel; and the horns of the altar will be cut off, and fall to the ground. 15 I will strike the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory will perish, and the great houses will have an end," says Yahweh.

She is cast down on her land; there is no one to raise her up." 3 For the Lord Yahweh says: "The city that went out a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which went out one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel." 4 For Yahweh says to the house of Israel: "Seek me, and you will live; 5 but don't seek Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and don't pass to Beersheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Bethel shall come to nothing. 6 Seek Yahweh, and you will live, lest he break out like fire in ⚠ Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are the house of Joseph, and it devour, and there be no on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, one to quench it in Bethel. 7 You who turn justice to who crush the needy, who tell their husbands, "Bring us wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth! 8 drinks!" 2 The Lord Yahweh has sworn by his holiness. I will not listen to the music of your harps. 24 says Yahweh. 4 Thus the Lord Yahweh showed me: name is the God of Armies.

6 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure on the mountain of Samaria. the notable men of the chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come! 2 Go to Calneh, and see. From there go to Hamath the great. Then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are they better than these kingdoms? Is their border greater than your border? 3 Alas for you who put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near, 4 who lie on beds of ivory, and stretch themselves on their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the middle of the stall, 5 who strum on the strings of a harp, who invent for themselves instruments of music, like David; 6 who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the best oils, but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph. 7 Therefore they will now go captive with the first who go captive. The feasting and lounging will end. 8 "The Lord Yahweh has sworn by himself," says Yahweh, the God of Armies: "I abhor the pride of Jacob, and detest his fortresses. Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it. 9 It will happen that if ten men remain in one house, they will die. 10 "When a man's relative carries him, even he who burns him, to bring bodies out of the house, and asks him who is in the innermost parts of the house, 'Is there yet any with you?' And he says, 'No;' then he will say, 'Hush! Indeed we must not mention Yahweh's name.' 11 "For, behold, Yahweh commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces, and the little house into bits. 12 Do horses run on the rocky crags? Does one plow there with oxen? But you have turned justice into poison, and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness, 13 you who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who say, 'Haven't we taken for ourselves horns by our Hamath to the brook of the Arabah."

Thus the Lord Yahweh showed me: behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of it? 21 I hate, I despise your feasts, and I can't stand the latter growth; and behold, it was the latter growth your solemn assemblies. 22 Yes, though you offer me after the king's harvest. 2 When they finished eating the But let justice roll on like rivers, and righteousness like behold, the Lord Yahweh called for judgment by fire; and a mighty stream. 25 "Did you bring to me sacrifices it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of the land. 5 Then I said, "Lord Yahweh, stop, I beg you! "This also shall not be," says made for yourselves. 27 Therefore I will cause you to go the Lord Yahweh. 7 Thus he showed me: behold, the into captivity beyond Damascus," says Yahweh, whose Lord stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. 8 Yahweh said to me. "Amos. what do you see?" I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "Behold, I will set a plumb line in the middle of my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. 9 The high places of Isaac will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword." 10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saving, "Amos has conspired against you in the middle of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. 11 For Amos says, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land." 12 Amaziah also said to Amos, "You seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there, 13 but don't prophesy again any more at Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house!" 14 Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son, but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore figs; 15 and Yahweh took me from following the flock, and Yahweh said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' 16 Now therefore listen to Yahweh's word: 'You say, Don't prophesy against Israel, and don't preach against the house of Isaac.' 17 Therefore Yahweh says: 'Your wife shall be a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line: and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land."

8 Thus the Lord Yahweh showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit. 2 He said, "Amos, what do you see?" I said. "A basket of summer fruit." Then Yahweh said to me, "The end has come on my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. 3 The songs of own strength?' 14 For, behold, I will raise up against the temple will be wailing in that day," says the Lord vou a nation, house of Israel," says Yahweh, the God of Yahweh. • I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said. Strike the tops of the pillars, that the thresholds may shake. Break them in pieces on the head of all of them. I will kill the last of them with the sword. Not one of them will flee away. Not one of them will escape. 2 Though they dig into Sheol, there my hand will take them; and though they climb up to heaven, there I will bring them down. (Sheol h7585) 3 Though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out from there; and though they be hidden from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them. 4 Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. I will set my eyes on them for evil, and not for good. 5 For the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, is he who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Egypt. 6 It is he who builds his rooms in the heavens, and has founded his vault on the earth; he who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth—Yahweh is his name. 7 Are you not like the children of the Ethiopians to me, children of Israel?" says Yahweh. "Haven't I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

I will make it like the mourning will drip from the mountains, and flow from the hills. 14 for an only son, and its end like a bitter day. 11 Behold, I will bring my people Israel back from captivity, and the days come," says the Lord Yahweh, "that I will send they will rebuild the ruined cities, and inhabit them; and a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst they will plant vineyards, and drink wine from them. for water, but of hearing Yahweh's words. 12 They will They shall also make gardens, and eat their fruit. 15 I wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to will plant them on their land, and they will no more be the east; they will run back and forth to seek Yahweh's plucked up out of their land which I have given them,"

Obadiah

1 The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Lord Yahweh says about Edom. We have heard news from Yahweh, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Arise, and let's rise up against her in battle. 2 Behold, I have made you small among the nations. You are greatly despised. 3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, who says in his heart, 'Who will bring me down to the ground?' 4 Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there," says Yahweh. 5 "If thieves came to you, if robbers by night—oh, what disaster awaits you—wouldn't they only steal until they had enough? If grape pickers came to you, wouldn't they leave some gleaning grapes? 6 How Esau will be ransacked! How his hidden treasures are sought out! 7 All the men of your alliance have brought you on your way, even to the border. The men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you. Friends who eat your bread lay a snare under you. There is no understanding in him." 8 "Won't I in that day", says Yahweh, "destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esau? 9 Your mighty men, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter. 10 For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever. 11 In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance and foreigners entered into his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them. 12 But don't look down on your brother in the day of his disaster, and don't rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. Don't speak proudly in the day of distress. 13 Don't enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Don't look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity. 14 Don't stand in the crossroads to cut off those of his who escape. Don't deliver up those of his who remain in the day of distress. 15 For the day of Yahweh is near all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head. 16 For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so all the nations will drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been. 17 But in Mount Zion, there will be those who escape, and it will be holy. The house of Jacob will possess their possessions. 18 The house of Jacob will be a fire, the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble. They will burn among them and devour them. There will not be any remaining to the house of Esau." Indeed, Yahweh has spoken. 19 Those of the South will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the lowland, the Philistines. They will possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead. 20 The captives of this army of the children of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev. 21 Saviors will go up on Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be Yahweh's.

Jonah

1 Now Yahweh's word came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach against it, for their wickedness has come up before me." 3 But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of Yahweh. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of Yahweh. 4 But Yahweh sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and every man cried to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten the ship. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship and he was laying down, and was fast asleep. 6 So the ship master came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God! Maybe your God will notice us, so that we won't perish." 7 They all said to each other, "Come! Let's cast lots, that we may know who is responsible for this evil that is on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. 8 Then they asked him, "Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?" 9 He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear Yahweh, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land." 10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What have you done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of Yahweh, because he had told them. 11 Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?" For the sea grew more and more stormy. 12 He said to them, "Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you." 13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them. 14 Therefore they cried to Yahweh, and said, "We beg you, Yahweh, we beg you, don't let us die for this man's life, and don't lay on us innocent blood; for you, Yahweh, have done as it pleased you." 15 So they took up Jonah and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its 1 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was raging. 16 Then the men feared Yahweh exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to Yahweh and made vows. 17 Yahweh prepared a huge fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

7 Then Jonah prayed to Yahweh, his God, out of the fish's belly. 2 He said, "I called because of my affliction to Yahweh. He answered me. Out of the belly of Sheol I cried. You heard my voice. (Sheol h7585) 3 For you threw me into the depths, in the heart of the seas. The flood was all around me. All your waves and your billows passed over me. 4 I said, 'I have been banished from your sight; yet I will look again toward your holy temple.' 5 The waters surrounded me, even to the soul. The deep was around me. The weeds were wrapped around my head. 6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains. The earth barred me in forever; yet you have brought my life up from the pit, Yahweh my God. 7 "When my soul fainted within me, I remembered Yahweh. My prayer came in to you, into your holy temple. 8 Those who regard vain idols forsake their own mercy. 9 But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving. I will pay that which I have vowed. Salvation belongs to Yahweh." 10 Then Yahweh spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah on the dry land.

3 Yahweh's word came to Jonah the second time, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I give you." 3 So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to Yahweh's word. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey across. 4 Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried out, and said, "In forty days, Nineveh will be overthrown!" 5 The people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from their greatest even to their least. 6 The news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7 He made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, "Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; 8 but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and animal, and let them cry mightily to God. Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands. 9 Who knows whether God will not turn and relent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we might not perish?" 10 God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. God relented of the disaster which he said he would do to them, and he didn't do it.

angry. 2 He prayed to Yahweh, and said, "Please, Yahweh, wasn't this what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you relent of doing harm. 3 Therefore now, Yahweh, take, I beg you, my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live." 4 Yahweh said, "Is it right for you to be angry?" 5 Then Jonah went out of the city and

Jonah 546 sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city. 6 Yahweh God prepared a vine and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head to deliver him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. 7 But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine so that it withered. 8 When the sun arose, God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he was faint and requested for himself that he might die. He said, "It is better for me to die than to live." 9 God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?" He said, "I am right to be angry, even to death." 10 Yahweh said, "You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night and perished in a night. 11 Shouldn't I be concerned for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who can't discern between their right hand and their left hand, and also many animals?"

Micah

1 Yahweh's word that came to Micah of Morasheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem. 2 Hear, you peoples, all of you! Listen, O earth, and all that is therein. Let the Lord Yahweh be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple. 3 For behold, Yahweh comes out of his place, and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth. 4 The mountains melt under him, and the valleys split apart like wax before the fire, like waters that are poured down a steep place. 5 "All this is for the disobedience of Jacob, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the disobedience of Jacob? Isn't it Samaria? And what are the high places of Judah? Aren't they Jerusalem? 6 Therefore I will make Samaria like a rubble heap of the field, like places for planting vineyards; and I will pour down its stones into the valley, and I will uncover its foundations. 7 All her idols will be beaten to pieces, all her temple gifts will be burned with fire, and I will destroy all her images; for of the hire of a prostitute has she gathered them, and to the hire of a prostitute shall they return." 8 For this I will lament and wail. I will go stripped and naked. I will howl like the jackals and mourn like the ostriches. 9 For her wounds are incurable; for it has come even to Judah. It reaches to the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. 10 Don't tell it in Gath, Don't weep at all. At Beth Ophrah I have rolled myself in the dust. 11 Pass on, inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame. The inhabitant of Zaanan won't come out. The wailing of Beth Ezel will take from you his protection. 12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for good, because evil has come down from Yahweh to the gate of Jerusalem. 13 Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lachish. She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions of Israel were found in you. 14 Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath. The houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel. 15 I will yet bring a conqueror to you, inhabitants of Mareshah. The glory of Israel will come to Adullam. 16 Shave your heads, and cut off your hair for the children of your delight. Enlarge your baldness like the vulture, for they have gone into captivity from you!

2 Woe to those who devise iniquity and work evil on their beds! When the morning is light, they practice it, because it is in the power of their hand. 2 They covet fields and seize them, and houses, then take them away. They oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. 3 Therefore Yahweh says: "Behold, I am planning against these people a disaster, from which vou will not remove your necks, neither will you walk haughtily, for it is an evil time. 4 In that day they will take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, saying, 'We are utterly ruined! My people's possession is divided up. Indeed he takes it from me and assigns our fields to traitors!" 5 Therefore you will have no one who divides the land by lot in Yahweh's assembly. 6 "Don't prophesy!"—they prophesy— "Don't prophesy about these things. Disgrace won't overtake us." 7 Shall it be said, O house of Jacob, "Is Yahweh's Spirit angry? Are these his doings? Don't my words do good to him who walks blamelessly?" 8 But lately my people have risen up as an enemy. You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from battle. 9 You drive the women of my people out from their pleasant houses; from their young children you take away my blessing forever. 10 Arise, and depart! For this is not your resting place, because of uncleanness that destroys, even with a grievous destruction. 11 If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies, saying, "I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink," he would be the prophet of this people. 12 I will surely assemble all of you, Jacob. I will surely gather the remnant of Israel. I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as a flock in the middle of their pasture. They will swarm with people. 13 He who breaks open the way goes up before them. They break through the gate, and go out. Their king passes on before them, with Yahweh at their head.

3 I said, "Please listen, you heads of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel: Isn't it for you to know justice? 2 You who hate the good, and love the evil; who tear off their skin, and their flesh from off their bones; 3 who also eat the flesh of my people, and peel their skin from off them, and break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as meat within the cauldron. 4 Then they will cry to Yahweh, but he will not answer them. Yes, he will hide his face from them at that time, because they made their deeds evil." 5 Yahweh says concerning the prophets who lead my people astray-for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, "Peace!" and whoever doesn't provide for their mouths, they prepare war against him: 6 "Therefore night is over you, with no vision, and it is dark to you, that you may not divine; and the sun will go down on the prophets, and the day will be black over them. 7 The seers shall be disappointed, and the diviners confounded. Yes, they shall all cover their lips, for there is no answer from God." 8 But as for me, I am full of power by Yahweh's Spirit, and of judgment, and of might, to declare to Jacob his disobedience, and to Israel his sin. 9 Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel, who abhor justice, and pervert all equity, 10 who build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. 11 Her temple like the high places of a forest.

▲ But in the latter days, it will happen that the mountain of Yahweh's temple will be established on the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills; and peoples will stream to it. 2 Many nations will go and say, "Come! Let's go up to the mountain of Yahweh, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths." For the law will go out of Zion, and Yahweh's word from Jerusalem; 3 and he will judge between many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off. They will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war any more. 4 But every man will sit under his vine and under his fig tree. No one will make them afraid, for the mouth of Yahweh of Armies has spoken. 5 Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their gods, but we will walk in the name of Yahweh our God forever and ever. 6 "In that day." says Yahweh, "I will assemble that which is lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted; 7 and I will make that which was lame a remnant, and that which was cast far off a strong nation: and Yahweh will reign over them on Mount Zion from then on, even forever." 8 You, tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion, to you it will come. Yes, the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem. 9 Now why do you cry out aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, that pains have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail? 10 Be in pain, and labor to give birth, daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now you will go out of the city, and will dwell in the field, and will come even to Babylon. There you will be rescued. There Yahweh will redeem you from the hand of your enemies. 11 Now many nations have assembled against you, that say, "Let her be defiled, and let our eye gloat over Zion." 12 But they don't know the thoughts of Yahweh, neither do they understand his counsel; for he has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor. 13 Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs bronze. You will beat in pieces many peoples. I will devote their gain to Yahweh, and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth.

Now you shall gather yourself in troops, daughter of troops. He has laid siege against us. They will strike leaders judge for bribes, and her priests teach for a the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek. 2 But you, price, and her prophets of it tell fortunes for money; yet Bethlehem Ephrathah, being small among the clans of they lean on Yahweh, and say, "Isn't Yahweh among Judah, out of you one will come out to me who is to be us? No disaster will come on us." 12 Therefore Zion for ruler in Israel; whose goings out are from of old, from your sake will be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem ancient times. 3 Therefore he will abandon them until will become heaps of rubble, and the mountain of the the time that she who is in labor gives birth. Then the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Israel. 4 He shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of Yahweh, in the majesty of the name of Yahweh his God. They will live, for then he will be great to the ends of the earth. 5 He will be our peace when Assyria invades our land and when he marches through our fortresses, then we will raise against him seven shepherds, and eight leaders of men. 6 They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in its gates. He will deliver us from the Assyrian, when he invades our land, and when he marches within our border. 7 The remnant of Jacob will be among many peoples like dew from Yahweh, like showers on the grass, that don't wait for man nor wait for the sons of men. 8 The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, among many peoples, like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is no one to deliver. 9 Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries, and let all of your enemies be cut off. 10 "It will happen in that day", says Yahweh, "that I will cut off your horses from among you and will destroy your chariots. 11 I will cut off the cities of your land and will tear down all your strongholds. 12 I will destroy witchcraft from your hand. You shall have no soothsayers. 13 I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars from among you; and you shall no more worship the work of your hands. 14 I will uproot your Asherah poles from among you; and I will destroy your cities. 15 I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath on the nations that didn't listen."

> 6 Listen now to what Yahweh says: "Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear what you have to say. 2 Hear, you mountains, Yahweh's indictment, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for Yahweh has a case against his people, and he will contend with Israel. 3 My people, what have I done to you? How have I burdened you? Answer me! 4 For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage. I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. 5 My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of Yahweh." 6 How shall I come before Yahweh, and bow

549 Micah You will bear the reproach of my people."

7 Misery is mine! Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the vineyard. There is no cluster of grapes to eat. My soul desires to eat the early fig. 2 The godly man has perished out of the earth, and there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood; every man hunts his brother with a net. 3 Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently. The ruler and judge ask for a bribe. The powerful man dictates the evil desire of his soul. Thus they conspire together. 4 The best of them is like a brier. The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchmen, even your visitation, has come; now is the time of their confusion. 5 Don't trust in a neighbor. Don't put confidence in a friend. With the woman lying in your embrace, be careful of the words of your mouth! 6 For the son dishonors the father, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-inlaw against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. 7 But as for me, I will look to Yahweh. I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me. 8 Don't rejoice against me, my enemy. When I fall, I will arise. When I sit in darkness, Yahweh will be a light to me. 9 I will bear the indignation of Yahweh, because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my case and executes judgment for me. He will bring me out to the light. I will see his righteousness. 10 Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her

Nahum

1 A revelation about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. 2 Yahweh is a jealous God and avenges. Yahweh avenges and is full of wrath. Yahweh takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he maintains wrath against his enemies. 3 Yahweh is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. Yahweh has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. 4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan and Carmel languish. The flower of Lebanon languishes. 5 The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it. 6 Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him. 7 Yahweh is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him. 8 But with an overflowing flood, he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness. 9 What do you plot against Yahweh? He will make a full end. Affliction won't rise up the second time. 10 For entangled like thorns, and drunken as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble. 11 One has the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and counsels wickedness. 12 Yahweh says: "Though they flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of be cut down and pass away. Though I have afflicted of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies 4 because of you, I will afflict you no more. 13 Now I will break his the multitude of the prostitution of the alluring prostitute, voke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart." 14 the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of "Behold, I am against you," says Yahweh of Armies, your gods, I will cut off the engraved image and the "and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile." 15 Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings more pass through you. He is utterly cut off.

7 He who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Keep the fortress! Watch the way! Strengthen your waist! Fortify your power mightily! 2 For Yahweh restores the excellency of Jacob as the excellency of Israel, for the destroyers have destroyed them and ruined their vine branches. 3 The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished. 4 The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the wide ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings. 5 He summons his picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place. 6 The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. 7 It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her servants moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts. 8 But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. "Stop! Stop!" they cry, but no one looks back. 9 Take the plunder of silver. Take the plunder of gold, for there is no end of treasure, an abundance of every precious thing. 10 She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale. 11 Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked with the lion's cubs, and no one made them afraid? 12 The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled prey for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill and his dens with prev. 13 "Behold, I am against you," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

3 Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery—no end to the prey. 2 The noise of the whip, gone out of you who devises evil against Yahweh, who bounding chariots, 3 the horseman charging, and the are in full strength and likewise many, even so they will slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end Yahweh has commanded concerning you: "No more her prostitution, and families through her witchcraft. 5 nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. 6 I will throw abominable filth on you and make you good news, who publishes peace! Keep your feasts, vile, and will make you a spectacle. 7 It will happen Judah! Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste! Who will mourn for her?' Where will I seek comforters for you?" 8 Are you better than No-Amon, who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea? 9 Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength. Put and Libya were her helpers. 10 Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. 11 You also will be drunken. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy. 12 All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the firstripe figs. If they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. 13 Behold, your troops among you are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars. 14 Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong. 15 There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust. 16 You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips and flees away. 17 Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. 18 Your shepherds slumber, king of Assyria. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them. 19 There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you, for who hasn't felt your endless cruelty?

Habakkuk

1 The revelation which Habakkuk the prophet saw. 2 Yahweh, how long will I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you "Violence!" and will you not save? 3 Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perversity? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up. 4 Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never prevails; for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice comes out perverted. 5 "Look among the nations, watch, and wonder marvelously; for I am working a work in your days which you will not believe though it is told you. 6 For, behold, I am raising up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation who march through the width of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs. 7 They are feared and dreaded. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. 8 Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press proudly on. Yes. their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. 9 All of them come for violence. Their hordes face forward. They gather prisoners like sand. 10 Yes, they scoff at kings, and princes are a derision to them. They laugh at every stronghold, for they build up an earthen ramp and take it. 11 Then they sweep by like the wind and go on. They are indeed guilty, whose strength is their god." 12 Aren't you from everlasting. Yahweh my God, my Holy One? We will not die. Yahweh, you have appointed them for judgment. You, Rock, have established him to punish. 13 You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he, 14 and make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things that have no ruler over them? 15 He takes up all of them with the hook. He catches them in his net and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad. 16 Therefore he sacrifices to his net and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious and his food is good. 17 Will he therefore continually empty his net, and kill the nations without mercy?

2 I will stand at my watch and set myself on the ramparts, and will look out to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint. 2 Yahweh answered me, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who runs may read it. 3 For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won't prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it, because it will surely come. It won't delay. 4 Behold. his soul is puffed up. It is not upright in him.

but the righteous will live by his faith. 5 Yes, moreover. wine is treacherous: an arrogant man who doesn't stay at home, who enlarges his desire as Sheol; he is like death and can't be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations and heaps to himself all peoples. (Sheol h7585) 6 Won't all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, 'Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion! How long?' 7 Won't your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim? 8 Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it. 9 Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! 10 You have devised shame to your house by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul. 11 For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it. 12 Woe to him who builds a town with blood. and establishes a city by iniquity! 13 Behold, isn't it from Yahweh of Armies that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity? 14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of Yahweh's glory, as the waters cover the sea. 15 "Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring your inflaming wine until they are drunk, so that you may gaze at their naked bodies! 16 You are filled with shame, and not glory. You will also drink and be exposed! The cup of Yahweh's right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory. 17 For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the animals will terrify you, because of men's blood and for the violence done to the land, to every city and to those who dwell in them. 18 "What value does the engraved image have, that its maker has engraved it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he who fashions its form trusts in it, to make mute idols? 19 Woe to him who says to the wood, 'Awake!' or to the mute stone, 'Arise!' Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all within it. 20 But Yahweh is in his holy temple. Let all the earth be silent before him!"

3 A prayer of Habakkuk, the prophet, set to victorious music. 2 Yahweh, I have heard of your fame. I stand in awe of your deeds, Yahweh. Renew your work in the middle of the years. In the middle of the years make it known. In wrath, you remember mercy. 3 God came from Teman, the Holy One from Mount Paran. (Selah) His glory covered the heavens, and his praise filled the earth. 4 His splendor is like the sunrise. Rays shine from his hand, where his power is hidden. 5 Plague went before him, and pestilence followed his feet. 6 He stood, and shook the earth. He looked, and made the nations tremble. The ancient mountains were crumbled. The age-old hills collapsed. His ways are eternal. 71 saw the tents of Cushan in affliction. The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled. 8 Was Yahweh displeased with the rivers? Was your anger against the rivers, or your wrath against the sea, that you rode on your horses, on your chariots of salvation? 9 You uncovered your bow. You called for your sworn arrows. (Selah) You split the earth with rivers. 10 The mountains saw you, and were afraid. The storm of waters passed by. The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high. 11 The sun and moon stood still in the sky at the light of your arrows as they went, at the shining of your glittering spear. 12 You marched through the land in wrath. You threshed the nations in anger. 13 You went out for the salvation of your people, for the salvation of your anointed. You crushed the head of the land of wickedness. You stripped them head to foot. (Selah) 14 You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears. They came as a whirlwind to scatter me, gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret. 15 You trampled the sea with your horses, churning mighty waters. 16 l heard, and my body trembled. My lips guivered at the voice. Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble in my place because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble, for the coming up of the people who invade us. 17 For even though the fig tree doesn't flourish, nor fruit be in the vines, the labor of the olive fails, the fields yield no food, the flocks are cut off from the fold, and there is no herd in the stalls, 18 yet I will rejoice in Yahweh. I will be joyful in the God of my salvation! 19 Yahweh, the Lord, is my strength. He makes my feet like deer's feet, and enables me to go in high places. Zephaniah

1 Yahweh's word which came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah. 2 I will utterly sweep away everything from the surface of the earth, says Yahweh. 3 I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth, says Yahweh. 4 I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place—the name of the idolatrous and pagan priests. 5 those who worship the army of the sky on the housetops, those who worship and swear by Yahweh and also swear by Malcam, 6 those who have turned back from following Yahweh, and those who haven't sought Yahweh nor inquired after him. 7 Be silent at the presence of the Lord Yahweh, for the day of Yahweh is at hand. For Yahweh has prepared a sacrifice. He has consecrated his guests. 8 It will happen in the day of Yahweh's sacrifice that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing. 9 In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit. 10 In that day, says Yahweh, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second guarter, and a great crashing from the hills. 11 Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are undone! All those who were loaded with silver are cut off. 12 It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "Yahweh will not do good, neither will he do evil." 13 Their wealth will become a plunder, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine. 14 The great day of Yahweh is near. It is near and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of Yahweh. The mighty man cries there bitterly. 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness. 16 a day of the trumpet and alarm against the fortified cities and against the high battlements. 17 I will bring such distress on men that they will walk like blind men because they have sinned against Yahweh. Their blood will be poured out like dust and their flesh like dung. 18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Yahweh's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will make an end, yes, a terrible are arrogant and treacherous people. Her priests have end, of all those who dwell in the land.

Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame, 2 before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of Yahweh comes on you, before the day of Yahweh's anger comes on you. 3 Seek Yahweh, all you humble of the land, who have kept his ordinances. Seek righteousness. Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of Yahweh's anger. 4 For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be rooted up. 5 Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! Yahweh's word is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines. I will destroy you until there is no inhabitant. 6 The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks. 7 The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah. They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashkelon, they will lie down in the evening, for Yahweh, their God, will visit them and restore them. 8 I have heard the reproach of Moab and the insults of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people and magnified themselves against their border. 9 Therefore, as I live, says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them. 10 This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of Yahweh of Armies. 11 Yahweh will be awesome to them, for he will famish all the gods of the land. Men will worship him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations. 12 You Cushites also. you will be killed by my sword. 13 He will stretch out his hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness. 14 Herds will lie down in the middle of her, all kinds of animals. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for he has laid bare the cedar beams. 15 This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her will hiss and shake their fists.

3 Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted, the oppressing city! 2 She didn't obey the voice. She didn't receive correction. She didn't trust in Yahweh. She didn't draw near to her God. 3 Her princes within her are roaring lions. Her judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day. 4 Her prophets profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law. 5 Yahweh, within her, is righteous. He will do no wrong. Every morning he brings his justice to light. He doesn't fail, but the unjust know no shame. 6 I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant. 7 I said. "Just fear me. Receive correction," so that her dwelling won't be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her. But they rose early and corrupted all their doings. 8 "Therefore wait for me", says Yahweh, "until the day that I rise up to the prey, for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger, for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. 9 For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on Yahweh's name, to serve him shoulder to shoulder. 10 From beyond the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed people, will bring my offering. 11 In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out from among you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be arrogant in my holy mountain. 12 But I will leave among you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in Yahweh's name. 13 The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid." 14 Sing, daughter of Zion! Shout, Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem. 15 Yahweh has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Israel, Yahweh, is among you. You will not be afraid of evil any more. 16 In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, "Don't be afraid, Zion. Don't let your hands be weak." 17 Yahweh, your God, is among you, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will calm you in his love. He will rejoice over you with singing. 18 I will remove those who grieve about the appointed feasts from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you. 19 Behold, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you: and I will save those who are lame and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth. 20 At that time I will bring you in, and at that time I will gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says Yahweh.

Haggai

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, Yahweh's word came by Haggai the prophet, to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, 2 "This is what Yahweh of Armies says: These people say, 'The time hasn't vet come, the time for Yahweh's house to be built." 3 Then Yahweh's word came by Haggai the prophet, saving, 4"Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies waste? 5 Now therefore this is what Yahweh of Armies says: 'Consider your ways. 6 You have sown much, and bring in little. You eat, but you don't have enough. You drink. but you aren't filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes in it.' 7 "This is what Yahweh of Armies says: 'Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified," says Yahweh. 9 "You looked for much, and, behold, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says Yahweh of Armies, "Because of my house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with his own house. 10 Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. 11 I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on that which the ground produces, on men, on livestock, and on all the labor of the hands." 12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed Yahweh their God's voice, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as Yahweh their God had sent him: and the people feared Yahweh. 13 Then Haggai, Yahweh's messenger, spoke Yahweh's message to the people, saving, "I am with you," says Yahweh. 14 Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of Yahweh of Armies, their God. 15 in the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

says Yahweh, 'Be strong, Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,' says Yahweh, 'and work, for I am with you,' says Yahweh of Armies. 5 This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit lived among you. 'Don't be afraid.' 6 For this is what Yahweh of Armies says: 'Yet once more, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land: 7 and I will shake all nations. The treasure of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory, says Yahweh of Armies. 8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,' says Yahweh of Armies. 9 'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says Yahweh of Armies; 'and in this place I will give peace,' says Yahweh of Armies." 10 In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, Yahweh's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 "Yahweh of Armies says: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, 12 'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy?" The priests answered, "No." 13 Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touches any of these, will it be unclean?" The priests answered, "It will be unclean." 14 Then Haggai answered, "So is this people, and so is this nation before me,' says Yahweh: and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean. 15 Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in Yahweh's temple. 16 Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty. 17 I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you didn't turn to me,' says Yahweh. 18 'Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twentyfourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of Yahweh's temple was laid, consider it. 19 Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't produced. From today I will bless you." 20 Yahweh's word came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, 21 "Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saving, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth. 22 I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. Zechariah

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius. Yahweh's word came to the prophet Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, saying, 2 "Yahweh was very displeased with your fathers. 3 Therefore tell them, Yahweh of Armies says: 'Return to me,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'and I will return to you,' says Yahweh of Armies. 4 Don't you be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: Yahweh of Armies says, 'Return now from your evil ways and from your evil doings;' but they didn't hear nor listen to me, says Yahweh. 5 Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6 But my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, didn't they overtake your fathers? "Then they repented and said, 'Just as Yahweh of Armies determined to do to us, according to our ways and according to our practices, so he has dealt with us." 7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, Yahweh's word came to the prophet Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, saying, 8 "I had a vision in the night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses. 9 Then I asked, 'My lord, what are these?" The angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are." 10 The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "They are the ones Yahweh has sent to go back and forth through the earth." 11 They reported to Yahweh's angel who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked back and forth through the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and in peace." 12 Then Yahweh's angel replied, "O Yahweh of Armies, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?" 13 Yahweh answered the angel who talked with me with kind and comforting words. 14 So the angel who talked with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'Yahweh of Armies right hand to be his adversary. 2 Yahweh said to Satan, says: "I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. 15 I am very angry with the nations that chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn't this a burning stick are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, but they added to the calamity." 16 Therefore Yahweh says: "I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My house 4 He answered and spoke to those who stood before shall be built in it," says Yahweh of Armies, "and a line him, saying, "Take the filthy garments off him." To him shall be stretched out over Jerusalem." 17 "Proclaim he said, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass further, saying, 'Yahweh of Armies says: "My cities will from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing." 5 I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" solemnly assured Joshua, saying, 7 "Yahweh of Armies

He answered me. "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem." 20 Yahweh showed me four craftsmen. 21 Then I asked, "What are these coming to do?" He said, "These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations that lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

7 I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 Then I asked, "Where are you going?" He said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length." 3 Behold, the angel who talked with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him, 4 and said to him. "Run, speak to this young man, saving, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. 5 For I,' says Yahweh, 'will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the middle of her. 6 Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,' says Yahweh; 'for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,' says Yahweh. 7 'Come, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.' 8 For Yahweh of Armies says: 'For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye. 9 For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a plunder to those who served them; and you will know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me. 10 Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion! For behold, I come and I will dwell within you,' says Yahweh. 11 Many nations shall join themselves to Yahweh in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell among you, and you shall know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me to you. 12 Yahweh will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem. 13 Be silent, all flesh, before Yahweh; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation!"

3 He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before Yahweh's angel, and Satan standing at his "Yahweh rebuke you, Satan! Yes, Yahweh who has plucked out of the fire?" 3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. again overflow with prosperity, and Yahweh will again said, "Let them set a clean turban on his head." So they comfort Zion, and will again choose Jerusalem."" 18 I set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns. 19 | Yahweh's angel was standing by. 6 Yahweh's angel the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you, into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; one day. 10 In that day,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'you the ephah basket that is appearing." He said moreover, will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and "This is their appearance in all the land— 7 and behold, under the fig tree."

⚠ The angel who talked with me came again and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep. 2 He said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I have seen, and behold, a lamp stand all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps which are on the top of it: 3 and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it." 4 I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?" 5 Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." 6 Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is Yahweh's word to Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

Then again I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, a flying scroll. 2 He said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits." 3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land, for everyone who steals shall be cut says: 'If you will walk in my ways, and if you will follow off according to it on the one side: and everyone who my instructions, then you also shall judge my house, and swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of other side. 4 I will cause it to go out," says Yahweh of access among these who stand by. 8 Hear now, Joshua Armies, "and it will enter into the house of the thief, and for they are men who are a sign; for, behold, I will bring and it will remain in the middle of his house, and will out my servant, the Branch. 9 For, behold, the stone destroy it with its timber and its stones." 5 Then the that I have set before Joshua: on one stone are seven angel who talked with me came forward and said to eyes; behold, I will engrave its inscription,' says Yahweh me, "Lift up now your eyes and see what this is that of Armies, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in is appearing." 6 I said, "What is it?" He said, "This is a lead cover weighing one talent was lifted up-and there was a woman sitting in the middle of the ephah basket." 8 He said, "This is Wickedness;" and he threw her down into the middle of the ephah basket; and he threw the lead weight on its mouth. 9 Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, there were two women; and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah basket between earth and the sky. 10 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are these carrying the ephah basket?" 11 He said to me, "To build her a house in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place."

6 Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and my Spirit,' says Yahweh of Armies. 7 Who are you, great the mountains were mountains of bronze. 2 In the first mountain? Before Zerubbabel you are a plain; and he chariot were red horses. In the second chariot were will bring out the capstone with shouts of 'Grace, grace, black horses. 3 In the third chariot were white horses. to it!" 8 Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, In the fourth chariot were dappled horses, all of them 9 "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of powerful. 4 Then I asked the angel who talked with me, this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you will "What are these, my lord?" 5 The angel answered me, know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me to you. 10 "These are the four winds of the sky, which go out from Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these standing before the Lord of all the earth. 6 The one with seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the the black horses goes out toward the north country; and hand of Zerubbabel. These are Yahweh's eyes, which the white went out after them; and the dappled went run back and forth through the whole earth." 11 Then I out toward the south country." 7 The strong went out, asked him, "What are these two olive trees on the right and sought to go that they might walk back and forth side of the lamp stand and on the left side of it?" 12 I through the earth. He said, "Go around and through asked him the second time, "What are these two olive the earth!" So they walked back and forth through the branches, which are beside the two golden spouts that earth. 8 Then he called to me, and spoke to me, saying, pour the golden oil out of themselves?" 13 He answered "Behold, those who go toward the north country have me, "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my quieted my spirit in the north country." 9 Yahweh's word lord." 14 Then he said, "These are the two anointed came to me, saying, 10 "Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have come from Babylon. 11 Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest; 12 and speak to him, saying, 'Yahweh of Armies says, "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch! This will happen, if you will diligently obey Yahweh your God's voice.""

7 In the fourth year of King Darius, Yahweh's word came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev. 2 The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech and their men to entreat Yahweh's favor, 3 and to speak to the priests of the house of Yahweh of Armies and to the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?" 4 Then the word of Yahweh of Armies came to me, saying, 5 "Speak to all the people of the land and to the priests, saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you at all fast to me, really to me? 6 When you eat and when you drink, don't you eat for yourselves and drink for yourselves? 7 Aren't these the words which Yahweh proclaimed by the former prophets when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?" 8 Yahweh's word came to Zechariah, saying, 9 "Thus has Yahweh of Armies spoken, saying, 'Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother. 10 Don't oppress the widow, the fatherless, the foreigner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.' 11 But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. 12 Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law and the words which Yahweh of Armies had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from Yahweh of Armies. 13 It has come to pass that, as he called and they refused to listen, so they will call and I will not listen," said Yahweh of Armies; 14 "but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned; for they made the pleasant land desolate."

8 The word of Yahweh of Armies came to me. 2 Yahweh of Armies says: "I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath." 3 Yahweh says: "I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the middle of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called 'The City of Truth;' and the mountain of Yahweh from the east country and from the west country. 8 I will bring them, and they will dwell within Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness." 9 Yahweh of Armies says: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of Yahweh of Armies was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. 10 For before those days there was no wages for man nor any wages for an animal, neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor. 11 But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days," says Yahweh of Armies. 12 "For the seed of peace and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew. I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. 13 It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you shall be a blessing. Don't be afraid. Let your hands be strong." 14 For Yahweh of Armies says: "As I thought to do evil to you when your fathers provoked me to wrath," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I didn't repent, 15 so again I have thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Don't be afraid. 16 These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, 17 and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath; for all these are things that I hate," says Yahweh. 18 The word of Yahweh of Armies came to me. 19 Yahweh of Armies says: "The fasts of the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Judah joy, gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace." 20 Yahweh of Armies says: "Many peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come. 21 The inhabitants of one will go to another, saying, 'Let's go speedily to entreat the favor of Yahweh, and to seek Yahweh of Armies. I will go also.' 22 Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek Yahweh of Armies in Jerusalem and to entreat the favor of Yahweh." 23 Yahweh of Armies says: "In those days, ten men out of all the languages of the nations will take hold of the skirt of him who is a showers to everyone for the plants in the field, 2 For that God is with vou."

A revelation. Yahweh's word is against the land of Hadrach, and will rest upon Damascus- for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward Yahweh— 2 and Hamath, also, which borders on it, Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise. 3 Tyre built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like the dust, and fine gold like the mire of the streets. 4 Behold, the Lord will dispossess her, and he will strike her power in the sea; and she will be devoured with fire. 5 Ashkelon will see it, and fear; Gaza also, and will writhe in agony; as will Ekron, for her expectation will be disappointed; and the king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will not be inhabited. 6 Foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. 7 I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth; and he also will be a remnant for our God; and he will be as a chieftain in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite. 8 I will encamp around my house against the army, that no one pass through or return; and no oppressor will pass through them any more: for now I have seen with my eyes. 9 Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion! Shout, daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your King comes to you! He is righteous, and having salvation; lowly, and riding on a donkey, even on a colt, the foal of a donkey. 10 I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem. The battle bow will be cut off; and he will speak peace to the nations. His dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. 11 As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant, I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water. 12 Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope! Even today I declare that I will restore double to you. 13 For indeed I bend Judah as a bow for the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.

Jew, saying, 'We will go with you, for we have heard the teraphim have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie; and they have told false dreams. They comfort in vain. Therefore they go their way like sheep. They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd. 3 My anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the male goats, for Yahweh of Armies has visited his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as his majestic horse in the battle. 4 From him will come the cornerstone, from him the tent peg, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler together. 5 They will be as mighty men, treading down muddy streets in the battle. They will fight, because Yahweh is with them. The riders on horses will be confounded. 6 "I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph. I will bring them back, for I have mercy on them. They will be as though I had not cast them off, for I am Yahweh their God, and I will hear them. 7 Ephraim will be like a mighty man, and their heart will rejoice as through wine. Yes, their children will see it and rejoice. Their heart will be glad in Yahweh. 8 I will signal for them and gather them, for I have redeemed them. They will increase as they were before. 9 I will sow them among the peoples. They will remember me in far countries. They will live with their children and will return. 10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria. I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and there won't be room enough for them. 11 He will pass through the sea of affliction, and will strike the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the Nile will dry up; and the pride of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will depart. 12 I will strengthen them in Yahweh. They will walk up and down in his name," says Yahweh.

11 Open your doors, Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars. 2 Wail, cypress tree, for me. I have loaded the bow with Ephraim. I will stir up the cedar has fallen, because the stately ones are your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece, and will destroyed. Wail, you oaks of Bashan, for the strong make you like the sword of a mighty man. 14 Yahweh forest has come down. 3 A voice of the wailing of the will be seen over them. So they weighed The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of for my wages thirty pieces of silver. 13 Yahweh said to David's house apart, and their wives apart; the family of me, "Throw it to the potter—the handsome price that I the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; 13 the was valued at by them!" I took the thirty pieces of silver family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; and threw them to the potter in Yahweh's house. 14 the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; Then I cut apart my other staff, Union, that I might break 14 all the families who remain, every family apart, and

13 "In that day there will be a fountain opened to David's house and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. 2 It will come to pass in that day, says Yahweh of Armies, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. Yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Yahweh my God will come, and all the holy ones with you. 6 It will happen in that day that there will not be light, cold, or frost. 7 It will be a unique day which is known to Yahweh—not day, and not night; but it will come to pass that at evening time there will be light. 8 It will happen in that day that living waters will go out from Jerusalem, half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea. It will be so in summer and in winter. 9 Yahweh will be King over all the earth. In that day Yahweh will be one, and his name one. 10 All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and she will be lifted up and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses. 11 Men will dwell therein, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely. 12 This will be the plague with which Yahweh will strike all the peoples who have fought against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth. 13 It will happen in that day that a great panic from Yahweh will be among them; and they will each seize the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor. 14 Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, silver, and clothing, in great abundance. 15 A plague like this will fall on the horse, on the mule, on the camel, on the donkey, and on all the animals that will be in those camps. 16 It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, Yahweh of Armies, and to keep the feast of booths. 17 It will be that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Yahweh of Armies, on them there will be no rain. 18 If the family of Egypt doesn't go up and doesn't come, neither will it rain on them. This will be the plague with which Yahweh will strike the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of booths. 19 This will be the punishment of Egypt and the

Malachi

1 A revelation, Yahweh's word to Israel by Malachi. 2 "I have loved you," says Yahweh. Yet you say, "How have you loved us?" "Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" says Yahweh, "Yet I loved Jacob; 3 but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness." 4 Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places," Yahweh of Armies says, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom Yahweh shows wrath forever." 5 Your eyes will see, and vou will say, "Yahweh is great-even beyond the border of Israel!" 6 "A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me?" says Yahweh of Armies to you priests who despise my name. "You say, 'How have we despised your name?' 7 You offer polluted bread on my altar. You say, 'How have we polluted you?' In that you say, 'Yahweh's table is contemptible.' 8 When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn't that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn't that evil? Present it now to your governor! Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?" says Yahweh of Armies. 9 "Now, please entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. With this, will he accept any of you?" says Yahweh of Armies. 10 "Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says Yahweh of Armies, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand. 11 For from the rising of the sun even to its going down, my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering; for my name is great among the nations," says Yahweh of Armies. 12 "But you profane it when you say, 'Yahweh's table is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible.' 13 You say also, 'Behold, what a weariness it is!' And you have sniffed at it", says Yahweh of Armies; "and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" savs Yahweh. 14 "But the deceiver is cursed who has in his flock a male, and vows and sacrifices to the Lord a defective thing; for I am a great King," says Yahweh of Armies, "and my name is awesome among the nations."

2 "Now, you priests, this commandment is for you. 2 If you will not listen, and if you will not take it to heart, to give glory to my name," says Yahweh of Armies, "then I will send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not take it to heart. 3 Behold. I will rebuke your offspring, and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. 4 You will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levi," says Yahweh of Armies. 5 "My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might be reverent toward me; and he was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name. 6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. 7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Yahweh of Armies. 8 But you have turned away from the path. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says Yahweh of Armies. 9 "Therefore I have also made you contemptible and wicked before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have had respect for persons in the law. 10 Don't we all have one father? Hasn't one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? 11 Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of Yahweh which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. 12 Yahweh will cut off the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob and him who offers an offering to Yahweh of Armies. 13 "This again you do: you cover Yahweh's altar with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he doesn't regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand. 14 Yet you say, 'Why?' Because Yahweh has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion and the wife of your covenant. 15 Did he not make you one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? He sought godly offspring. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. 16 One who hates and divorces", says Yahweh, the God of Israel, "covers his garment with violence!" says Yahweh of Armies. "Therefore pay attention to your spirit, that you don't be unfaithful. 17 You have wearied Yahweh with your words. Yet you say, 'How have we wearied him?' In that you say, 'Everyone who does evil is good in Yahweh's sight, and he delights in them;' or 'Where is the God of justice?'

3 "Behold, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me! The Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple. Behold, the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, is coming!" says his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings. You he is like a refiner's fire, and like launderers' soap; 3 will go out and leap like calves of the stall. 3 You shall and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold soles of your feet in the day that I make," says Yahweh and silver; and they shall offer to Yahweh offerings of Armies. 4 "Remember the law of Moses my servant, in righteousness. 4 Then the offering of Judah and which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even Jerusalem will be pleasant to Yahweh as in the days of statutes and ordinances. 5 Behold, I will send you Elijah old and as in ancient years. 5 I will come near to you to the prophet before the great and terrible day of Yahweh judgment. I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, comes. 6 He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the against the adulterers, against the perjurers, and against children and the hearts of the children to their fathers, those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse." and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and don't fear me," says Yahweh of Armies. 6 "For I, Yahweh, don't change; therefore you, sons of Jacob, are not consumed. 7 From the days of your fathers you have turned away from my ordinances and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says Yahweh of Armies. "But you say, 'How shall we return?' 8 Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me! But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings. 9 You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation. 10 Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says Yahweh of Armies, "if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there will not be enough room for. 11 I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field," says Yahweh of Armies. 12 "All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land," says Yahweh of Armies. 13 "Your words have been harsh against me," says Yahweh. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against you?' 14 You have said, 'It is vain to serve God,' and 'What profit is it that we have followed his instructions and that we have walked mournfully before Yahweh of Armies? 15 Now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt God, and escape.' 16 Then those who feared Yahweh spoke one with another; and Yahweh listened and heard, and a book of memory was written before him for those who feared Yahweh and who honored his name. 17 They shall be mine," says Yahweh of Armies. "my own possession in the day that I make. I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. 18 Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who doesn't serve him.

▲ "For behold, the day comes, burning like a furnace, when all the proud and all who work wickedness will be stubble. The day that comes will burn them up," says Yahweh of Armies, "so that it will leave them neither root

Matthew

1 The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. 2 Abraham became the father of Isaac, Isaac became the father of Jacob. Jacob became the father of Judah and his brothers. 3 Judah became the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar. Perez became the father of Hezron. Hezron became the father of Ram. 4 Ram became the father of Amminadab. Amminadab became the father of Nahshon. Nahshon became the father of Salmon. 5 Salmon became the father of Boaz by Rahab. Boaz became the father of Obed by Ruth. Obed became the father of Jesse. 6 Jesse became the father of King David, David the king became the father of Solomon by her who had been Uriah's wife. 7 Solomon became the father of Rehoboam. Rehoboam became the father of Abijah. Abijah became the father of Asa. 8 Asa became the father of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat became the father of Joram, Joram became the father of Uzziah. 9 Uzziah became the father of Jotham. Jotham became the father of Ahaz. Ahaz became the father of Hezekiah. 10 Hezekiah became the father of Manasseh. Manasseh became the father of Amon. Amon became the father of Josiah. 11 Josiah became the father of Jechoniah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon. 12 After the exile to Babylon, Jechoniah became the father of Shealtiel. Shealtiel became the father of Zerubbabel. 13 Zerubbabel became the father of Abjud. Abjud became the father of Eliakim. Eliakim became the father of Azor. 14 Azor became the father of Zadok, Zadok became the father of Achim. Achim became the father of Eliud. 15 Eliud became the father of Eleazar. Eleazar became the father of Matthan. Matthan became the father of Jacob. 16 Jacob became the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, from whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ. 17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; from David to the exile to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon to the Christ, fourteen generations. 18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was like this: After his mother, Mary, was engaged to Joseph, before they came together, she was found pregnant by the Holy Spirit. 19 Joseph, her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, intended to put her away secretly. 20 But when he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, don't be afraid to take to yourself Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. 21 She shall give birth to a son. You shall name him Jesus, for Now all this has happened that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saving, 23 "Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall give birth to a son. They shall call his name Immanuel," which is, being interpreted, "God with us." 24 Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took his wife to himself; 25 and didn't know her sexually until she had given birth to her firstborn son. He named him Jesus.

7 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of King Herod, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, 2 "Where is he who is born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east, and have come to worship him." 3 When King Herod heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 Gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where the Christ would be born. 5 They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for this is written through the prophet, 6 'You Bethlehem, land of Judah, are in no way least among the princes of Judah; for out of you shall come a governor who shall shepherd my people, Israel." 7 Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared. 8 He sent them to Bethlehem, and said, "Go and search diligently for the young child. When you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him." 9 They, having heard the king, went their way; and behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them until it came and stood over where the young child was. 10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. 11 They came into the house and saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Opening their treasures, they offered to him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. 12 Being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they went back to their own country another way. 13 Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him." 14 He arose and took the young child and his mother by night and departed into Egypt, 15 and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called my son." 16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent out and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men. 17 Then that which was spoken by it is he who shall save his people from their sins." 22 Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, 18 "A voice

Being warned in a dream, he withdrew into the region of Galilee, 23 and came and lived in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets that he will be called a Nazarene.

? In those days, John the Baptizer came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, saying, 2 "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!" 3 For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, make the way of the Lord ready! Make his paths straight!" 4 Now John himself wore clothing made of camel's hair with a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. 5 Then people from Jerusalem, all of Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him. 6 They were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins. 7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism, he said to them, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance! 9 Don't think to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. 10 Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees. Therefore every tree that doesn't produce good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. 11 "I indeed baptize you in water for repentance, but he who comes after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit. 12 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire." 13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him. 14 But John would have hindered him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?" 15 But Jesus, answering, said to him, "Allow it now, for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. 16 Jesus, when he was baptized, went up directly from the water: and behold, the heavens were opened to him. He saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping and great him, 17 Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is 4 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2 When he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry afterward. 3 The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread." 4 But he answered, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of God's mouth." 5 Then the devil took him into the holy city. He set him on the pinnacle of the temple, 6 and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you,' and, 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you don't dash your foot against a stone." 7 Jesus said to him, "Again, it is written, 'You shall not test the Lord, your God." 8 Again, the devil took him to an exceedingly high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. 9 He said to him, "I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me." 10 Then Jesus said to him, "Get behind me, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only." 11 Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and served him. 12 Now when Jesus heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee. 13 Leaving Nazareth, he came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, 15 "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, 16 the people who sat in darkness saw a great light; to those who sat in the region and shadow of death, to them light has dawned." 17 From that time. Jesus began to preach, and to say, "Repent! For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." 18 Walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers: Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. 19 He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers for men." 20 They immediately left their nets and followed him. 21 Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them. 22 They immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him. 23 Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. 24 The report about him went out into all Syria. They brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them.

25 Great multitudes from Galilee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan followed him.

5 Seeing the multitudes, he went up onto the mountain. When he had sat down, his disciples came to him. 2 He opened his mouth and taught them, saving, 3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. 4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. 5 Blessed are the gentle, for they shall inherit the earth. 6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled. 7 Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. 8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. 9 Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. 10 Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. 11 "Blessed are you when people reproach you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake. 12 Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you. 13 "You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavor, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men. 14 You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill can't be hidden. 15 Neither do you light a lamp and put it under a measuring basket. but on a stand; and it shines to all who are in the house. 16 Even so, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven. 17 "Don't think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I didn't come to destroy, but to fulfill. 18 For most certainly, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not even one smallest letter or one tiny pen stroke shall in any way pass away from the law, until all things are accomplished. 19 Therefore. whoever shall break one of these least commandments and teach others to do so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. 20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, there is no way you will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. 21 "You have heard that it was said to the ancient ones. 'You shall not murder:' and 'Whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.' 22 But I tell you that everyone who is angry with his brother without a cause will be in danger of the judgment. Whoever says to his brother, 'Raca!' will be in danger of the council. Whoever says, 'You fool!' will be in danger of the fire of Gehenna. (Geenna g1067) 23 "If therefore you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you, 24 leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. 25 Agree with your adversary quickly while you are with him on the way; lest perhaps the prosecutor deliver you to the judge. and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison. 26 Most certainly I tell you, you shall by no means get out of there until you have paid the last penny. 27 "You have heard that it was said. 'You shall not commit adultery;' 28 but I tell you that everyone who gazes at a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart. 29 If your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should perish than for your whole body to be cast into Gehenna. (Geenna g1067) 30 If your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off, and throw it away from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should perish, than for your whole body to be cast into Gehenna. (Geenna g1067) 31 "It was also said, 'Whoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorce,' 32 but I tell you that whoever puts away his wife, except for the cause of sexual immorality, makes her an adulteress; and whoever marries her when she is put away commits adultery. 33 "Again you have heard that it was said to the ancient ones. 'You shall not make false vows, but shall perform to the Lord vour vows.' 34 but I tell vou. don't swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God: 35 nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. 36 Neither shall you swear by your head, for you can't make one hair white or black. 37 But let your 'Yes' be 'Yes' and your 'No' be 'No.' Whatever is more than these is of the evil one. 38 "You have heard that it was said. 'An eve for an eve. and a tooth for a tooth.' 39 But I tell you, don't resist him who is evil; but whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also. 40 If anyone sues you to take away your coat, let him have your cloak also. 41 Whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two. 42 Give to him who asks you, and don't turn away him who desires to borrow from you. 43 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate vour enemy.' 44 But I tell vou. love vour enemies. bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who mistreat you and persecute you. 45 that you may be children of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Don't even the tax collectors do the same? 47 If you only greet your friends, what more do you do than others? Don't even the tax collectors do the same? 48 Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Most certainly I tell you, they have received their reward. 17 But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, 18 so that you are not seen by men to be fasting, but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you. 19 "Don't lay up treasures for yourselves on the earth, where moth and rust consume. and where thieves break through and steal: 20 but lav up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consume, and where thieves don't break through and steal; 21 for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. 22 "The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. R When he came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. 2 Behold, a leper came to him and worshiped him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean." 3 Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately his leprosy was cleansed. 4 Jesus said to him, "See that you tell nobody; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." 5 When he came into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking him for help, 6 saying, "Lord, my servant lies in the house paralyzed, grievously tormented." 7 Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him." 8 The centurion answered, "Lord, I'm not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed. 9 For I am also a man under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and tell another, 'Come,' and he comes; and tell my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." 10 When Jesus heard it, he marveled and said to those who followed, "Most certainly I tell you, I haven't found so great a faith, not even in Israel. 11 I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge you. 18 Yes, and you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations. 19 But when they deliver you up, don't be anxious how or what you will say, for it will be given you in that hour what you will say. 20 For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you. 21 "Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death. 22 You will be hated by all men for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end will be saved. 23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next, for most certainly I tell you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel until the Son of Man has come. 24 "A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his lord. 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be like his teacher, and the servant like his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more those of his household! 26 Therefore don't be afraid of them, for there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. 27 What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered in the ear, proclaim on the housetops. 28 Don't be afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. Rather, fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. (Geenna g1067) 29 "Aren't two sparrows sold for an assarion coin? Not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father's will. 30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered 31 Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows. 32 Everyone therefore who confesses me before men, I will also confess him before my Father who is in heaven. 33 But whoever denies me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who is in heaven. 34 "Don't think that I came to send peace on the earth. I didn't come to send peace, but a sword. 35 For I came to set a man at odds against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-inlaw against her mother-in-law. 36 A man's foes will be those of his own household. 37 He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me isn't worthy of me. 38 He who doesn't take his cross and follow after me isn't worthy of me. 39 He who seeks his life will lose it: and he who loses his life for my sake will find it. 40 "He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me. 41 He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward. He who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. 42 Whoever gives one of these little ones just a cup

We are dying!" 26 He said the multitudes were astonished at his teaching, 29 for to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then he got up, rebuked the wind and the sea, and there was a great calm. 27 The men marveled, saying, "What kind of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?" 28 When he came to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, two people possessed by demons met him there, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that nobody could pass that way. 29 Behold, they cried out, saying, "What do we have to do with you, Jesus, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" 30 Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding far away from them. 31 The demons begged him, saying, "If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of pigs." 32 He said to them, "Go!" They came out and went into the herd of pigs: and behold, the whole herd of pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea and died in the water. 33 Those who fed them fled and went away into the city and told everything, including what happened to those who were possessed with demons. 34 Behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged that he would depart from their borders.

But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. 16 No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch would tear away from the garment, and a worse hole is made. 17 Neither do people put new wine into old wine skins, or else the skins would burst, and the wine be spilled, and the skins ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wine skins, and both are preserved." 18 While he told these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." 19 Jesus got up and followed him, as did his disciples. 20 Behold, a woman who had a discharge of blood for twelve years came behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment; 21 for she said within herself, "If I just touch his garment, I will be made well." 22 But Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, "Daughter, cheer up! Your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well from that hour. 23 When Jesus came into the ruler's house and saw the flute players and the crowd in noisy disorder, 24 he said to them, "Make room, because the girl isn't dead, but sleeping." Therefore be wise as serpents and harmless as doves.

1 When Jesus had finished directing his twelve disciples, he departed from there to teach and preach in their cities. 2 Now when John heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples 3 and said to him, "Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?" 4 Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John the things which you hear and see: 5 the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up. and the poor have good news preached to them. 6 Blessed is he who finds no occasion for stumbling in me." 7 As these went their way. Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 8 But what did you go out to see? A man in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. 9 But why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. 10 For this is he, of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.' 11 Most certainly I tell you, among those who are born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John the Baptizer; yet he who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he. 12 From the days of John the Baptizer until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. 13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14 If you are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, who is to come. 15 He who has ears to hear, let him hear. 16 "But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who call to their companions 17 and say, 'We played the flute for you, and you didn't dance. We mourned for you, and you didn't lament.' 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon,' 19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom is justified by her children." 20 Then he began to denounce the cities in which most of his mighty works had been done, because they didn't repent. 21 "Woe to you. Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22 But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. 23 You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, you will go down to Hades. For if the mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in you, it would have remained until today. (Hades g86) 24 But I tell you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom on the day of judgment, than for you." 25 At that time, justice to victory. 21 In his name, the nations will hope." light."

12 At that time, Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. 2 But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said to him, "Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath." 3 But he said to them, "Haven't you read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him: 4 how he entered into God's house and ate the show bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? 5 Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? 6 But I tell you that one greater than the temple is here. 7 But if you had known what this means, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' you wouldn't have condemned the guiltless. 8 For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath." 9 He departed from there and went into their synagogue. 10 And behold, there was a man with a withered hand. They asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?" so that they might accuse him. 11 He said to them, "What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, won't he grab on to it and lift it out? 12 Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath day." 13 Then he told the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out; and it was restored whole, just like the other. 14 But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him, how they might destroy him. 15 Jesus, perceiving that, withdrew from there. Great multitudes followed him; and he healed them all, 16 and commanded them that they should not make him known, 17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, 18 "Behold, my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit on him. He will proclaim justice to the nations. 19 He will not strive, nor shout, neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets. 20 He won't break a bruised reed. He won't quench a smoking flax, until he leads

Jesus answered, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven 22 Then one possessed by a demon, blind and mute, and earth, that you hid these things from the wise and was brought to him; and he healed him, so that the understanding, and revealed them to infants. 26 Yes, blind and mute man both spoke and saw. 23 All the Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight. 27 All multitudes were amazed, and said, "Can this be the son things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one of David?" 24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they knows the Son, except the Father; neither does anyone said, "This man does not cast out demons except by know the Father, except the Son and he to whom the Beelzebul, the prince of the demons." 25 Knowing their Son desires to reveal him. 28 "Come to me, all you who thoughts, Jesus said to them, "Every kingdom divided labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or 29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am house divided against itself will not stand. 26 If Satan gentle and humble in heart; and you will find rest for casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is then will his kingdom stand? 27 If I by Beelzebul cast out demons, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. 28 But if I by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then God's Kingdom has come upon you. 29 Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man and plunder his goods, unless he first bind the strong man? Then he will plunder his house. 30 "He who is not with me is against me, and he who doesn't gather with me, scatters. 31 Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men. 32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age, or in that which is to come. (aion g165) 33 "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree corrupt and its fruit corrupt; for the tree is known by its fruit. 34 You offspring of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks. 35 The good man out of his good treasure brings out good things, and the evil man out of his evil treasure brings out evil things. 36 I tell you that every idle word that men speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. 37 For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned." 38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered, 'Teacher, we want to see a sign from you." 39 But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet. 40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the huge fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, someone greater than Jonah is here. 42 The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, someone greater than Solomon is here. 43 "When an unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he passes through waterless places seeking rest, and hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them. 18 and mother."

On that day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the seaside. 2 Great multitudes gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. 3 He spoke to them many things in parables, saying, "Behold, a farmer went out to sow. 4 As he sowed, some seeds fell by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them. 5 Others fell on rocky ground, where they didn't have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth. 6 When the sun had risen, they were scorched. Because they had no root, they withered away. 7 Others fell among thorns. The thorns grew up and choked them. 8 Others fell on good soil and yielded fruit: some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty. 9 He who has ears to hear, let him hear." 10 The disciples came, and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" 11 He answered them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them. 12 For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance; but whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he has. 13 Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they don't see, and hearing, they don't hear, neither do they understand. 14 In them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says, 'By hearing you will hear, and will in no way understand; Seeing you will see, and will in no way perceive: 15 for this people's heart has grown callous, their ears are dull of hearing, and they have closed their eyes; or else perhaps they might perceive with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and would turn again, and I would heal them.' 16 "But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. 17 For most certainly I tell you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them; and to doesn't find it. 44 Then he says, 'I will return into my "Hear, then, the parable of the farmer. 19 When anyone house from which I came;' and when he has come back, hears the word of the Kingdom and doesn't understand he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. 45 Then he it, the evil one comes and snatches away that which goes and takes with himself seven other spirits more evil has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown by than he is, and they enter in and dwell there. The last the roadside. 20 What was sown on the rocky places, state of that man becomes worse than the first. Even this is he who hears the word and immediately with joy so will it be also to this evil generation." 46 While he receives it; 21 yet he has no root in himself, but endures was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother for a while. When oppression or persecution arises and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to because of the word, immediately he stumbles. 22 What him. 47 One said to him, "Behold, your mother and your was sown among the thorns, this is he who hears the brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you." 48 word, but the cares of this age and the deceitfulness of But he answered him who spoke to him, "Who is my riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. (aion mother? Who are my brothers?" 49 He stretched out his g165) 23 What was sown on the good ground, this is hand toward his disciples, and said, "Behold, my mother he who hears the word and understands it, who most and my brothers! 50 For whoever does the will of my certainly bears fruit and produces, some one hundred Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, times as much, some sixty, and some thirty." 24 He set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field, 25 but while people slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel weeds also among the wheat, and went away. 26 But when the blade sprang up and produced grain, then the darnel weeds appeared also. 27 The servants of the householder came and said to him. 'Sir. didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where did these darnel weeds come from?' 28 "He said to them. 'An enemy has done this." "The servants asked him, 'Do you want us to go and gather them up?' 29 "But he said, 'No, lest perhaps while you gather up the darnel weeds, you root up the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, "First, gather up the darnel weeds, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn."" 31 He set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took, and sowed in his field, 32 which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches." 33 He spoke another parable to them. "The Kingdom of Heaven is like yeast which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until it was all leavened." 34 Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the multitudes; and without a parable, he didn't speak to them, 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, "I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world." 36 Then Jesus sent the multitudes away, and went into the house. His disciples came to him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the darnel weeds of the field." 37 He answered them, "He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. 38 the field is the world, the good seeds are the children of the Kingdom, and the many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

1 At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus, 2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptizer. He is risen from the dead. That is why these powers work in him." 3 For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. 4 For John said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." 5 When he would have put him to death, he feared the darnel weeds are the children of the evil one. 39 The when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the danced among them and pleased Herod. 7 Therefore he end of the age, and the reapers are angels. (aion g165) promised with an oath to give her whatever she should 40 As therefore the darnel weeds are gathered up and ask. 8 She, being prompted by her mother, said, "Give burned with fire; so will it be at the end of this age. (aion me here on a platter the head of John the Baptizer." 9 g165) 41 The Son of Man will send out his angels, and The king was grieved, but for the sake of his oaths and they will gather out of his Kingdom all things that cause of those who sat at the table with him, he commanded it stumbling and those who do iniquity, 42 and will cast to be given, 10 and he sent and beheaded John in the them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and prison. 11 His head was brought on a platter and given gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine like to the young lady; and she brought it to her mother. 12 the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. He who has ears His disciples came, took the body, and buried it. Then to hear, let him hear. 44 "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven they went and told Jesus. 13 Now when Jesus heard is like treasure hidden in the field, which a man found this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted and hid. In his joy, he goes and sells all that he has and place apart. When the multitudes heard it, they followed buys that field. 45 "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like him on foot from the cities. 14 Jesus went out, and he a man who is a merchant seeking fine pearls, 46 who saw a great multitude. He had compassion on them having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold and healed their sick. 15 When evening had come, his all that he had and bought it. 47 "Again, the Kingdom of disciples came to him, saying, "This place is deserted, Heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea and and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, gathered some fish of every kind, 48 which, when it was that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves filled, fishermen drew up on the beach. They sat down food." 16 But Jesus said to them, "They don't need to and gathered the good into containers, but the bad they go away. You give them something to eat." 17 They told threw away. 49 So it will be in the end of the world. The him, "We only have here five loaves and two fish." 18 angels will come and separate the wicked from among He said, "Bring them here to me." 19 He commanded the righteous, (aion g165) 50 and will cast them into the the multitudes to sit down on the grass; and he took the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and gnashing of five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, teeth." 51 Jesus said to them, "Have you understood all he blessed, broke and gave the loaves to the disciples; these things?" They answered him, "Yes, Lord." 52 He and the disciples gave to the multitudes. 20 They all said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been ate and were filled. They took up twelve baskets full of made a disciple in the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man that which remained left over from the broken pieces. who is a householder, who brings out of his treasure 21 Those who ate were about five thousand men, in new and old things." 53 When Jesus had finished these addition to women and children. 22 Immediately Jesus parables, he departed from there. 54 Coming into his made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that him to the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. they were astonished and said, "Where did this man get 23 After he had sent the multitudes away, he went up this wisdom and these mighty works? 55 Isn't this the into the mountain by himself to pray. When evening carpenter's son? Isn't his mother called Mary, and his had come, he was there alone. 24 But the boat was brothers James, Joses, Simon, and Judas? 56 Aren't all now in the middle of the sea, distressed by the waves, of his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all of for the wind was contrary. 25 In the fourth watch of these things?" 57 They were offended by him. But Jesus the night, Jesus came to them, walking on the sea. 26 said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they his own country and in his own house." 58 He didn't do were troubled, saying, "It's a ghost!" and they cried out for fear. 27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saving, "Cheer up! It is I! Don't be afraid," 28 Peter answered him and said, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the waters." 29 He said, "Come!" Peter stepped down from the boat and walked on the waters to come to Jesus. 30 But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!" 31 Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" 32 multitude, because they counted him as a prophet. 6 But When they got up into the boat, the wind ceased. 33 touched it were made whole.

15 Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying, 2 "Why do your disciples disobev the tradition of the elders? For they don't wash their hands when they eat bread." 3 He answered them, "Why do you also disobey the commandment of God because of your tradition? 4 For God commanded, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death." 5 But you say, 'Whoever may tell his father or his mother, "Whatever help you might otherwise have gotten from me is a gift devoted to God," 6 he shall not honor his father or mother.' You have made the commandment of God void because of your tradition. 7 You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying, 8 'These people draw near to me with their mouth, and honor me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. 9 And they worship me in vain, teaching as doctrine rules made by men." 10 He summoned the multitude, and said to them, "Hear, and understand. 11 That which enters into the mouth doesn't defile the man; but that which proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man." 12 Then the disciples came and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?" 13 But he answered, "Every plant which my heavenly Father didn't plant will be uprooted. 14 Leave them alone. They are blind guides of the blind. If the blind quide the blind, both will fall into a pit." 15 Peter answered him, "Explain the parable to us." 16

Those who were in the boat came and worshiped him. he answered, "I wasn't sent to anyone but the lost sheep saying, "You are truly the Son of God!" 34 When they of the house of Israel." 25 But she came and worshiped had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret. him, saying, "Lord, help me." 26 But he answered, "It is 35 When the people of that place recognized him, they not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it sent into all that surrounding region and brought to him to the dogs." 27 But she said, "Yes, Lord, but even the all who were sick; 36 and they begged him that they dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table." might just touch the fringe of his garment. As many as 28 Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, great is your faith! Be it done to you even as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that hour. 29 Jesus departed from there and came near to the sea of Galilee; and he went up on the mountain and sat there. 30 Great multitudes came to him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and they put them down at his feet. He healed them, 31 so that the multitude wondered when they saw the mute speaking, the injured healed, the lame walking, and the blind seeing-and they glorified the God of Israel. 32 Jesus summoned his disciples and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have continued with me now three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away fasting, or they might faint on the way." 33 The disciples said to him, "Where could we get so many loaves in a deserted place as to satisfy so great a multitude?" 34 Jesus said to them. "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven, and a few small fish." 35 He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground: 36 and he took the seven loaves and the fish. He gave thanks and broke them, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. 37 They all ate and were filled. They took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over. 38 Those who ate were four thousand men, in addition to women and children. 39 Then he sent away the multitudes, got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala.

16 The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing him, asked him to show them a sign from heaven. So Jesus said, "Do you also still not understand? 17 2 But he answered them, "When it is evening, you say, Don't you understand that whatever goes into the mouth 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.' 3 In the passes into the belly and then out of the body? 18 morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red But the things which proceed out of the mouth come and threatening.' Hypocrites! You know how to discern out of the heart, and they defile the man. 19 For out the appearance of the sky, but you can't discern the of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, signs of the times! 4 An evil and adulterous generation sexual sins, thefts, false testimony, and blasphemies. seeks after a sign, and there will be no sign given to 20 These are the things which defile the man; but to it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah." He left them eat with unwashed hands doesn't defile the man." 21 and departed. 5 The disciples came to the other side Jesus went out from there and withdrew into the region and had forgotten to take bread. 6 Jesus said to them, of Tyre and Sidon. 22 Behold, a Canaanite woman "Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees came out from those borders and cried, saying, "Have and Sadducees." 7 They reasoned among themselves, mercy on me, Lord, you son of David! My daughter is saying, "We brought no bread." 8 Jesus, perceiving severely possessed by a demon!" 23 But he answered it, said, "Why do you reason among yourselves, you her not a word. His disciples came and begged him, of little faith, because you have brought no bread? 9 saying, "Send her away; for she cries after us." 24 But Don't you yet perceive or remember the five loaves up, 10 or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." how many baskets you took up? 11 How is it that you 5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud don't perceive that I didn't speak to you concerning overshadowed them. Behold, a voice came out of the bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the it, they fell on their faces, and were very afraid. 7 teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 13 Now Jesus came and touched them and said, "Get up, and when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, don't be afraid." 8 Lifting up their eyes, they saw no he asked his disciples, saying, "Who do men say that I, one, except Jesus alone. 9 As they were coming down the Son of Man, am?" 14 They said, "Some say John from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, the Baptizer, some, Elijah, and others, Jeremiah or one "Don't tell anyone what you saw, until the Son of Man of the prophets." 15 He said to them, "But who do you has risen from the dead." 10 His disciples asked him, say that I am?" 16 Simon Peter answered, "You are the saying, "Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must Christ, the Son of the living God." 17 Jesus answered come first?" 11 Jesus answered them, "Elijah indeed him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar Jonah, for flesh and comes first, and will restore all things; 12 but I tell you blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is that Elijah has come already, and they didn't recognize in heaven. 18 I also tell you that you are Peter, and him, but did to him whatever they wanted to. Even so give to you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and Baptizer. 14 When they came to the multitude, a man whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in came to him, kneeling down to him and saying, 15 "Lord, heaven; and whatever you release on earth will have have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic and suffers been released in heaven." 20 Then he commanded the grievously; for he often falls into the fire, and often into disciples that they should tell no one that he was Jesus the water. 16 So I brought him to your disciples, and the Christ. 21 From that time, Jesus began to show his they could not cure him." 17 Jesus answered, "Faithless disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many and perverse generation! How long will I be with you? things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me." 18 killed, and the third day be raised up. 22 Peter took him Jesus rebuked the demon, and it went out of him, and aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from the boy was cured from that hour. 19 Then the disciples you, Lord! This will never be done to you." 23 But he came to Jesus privately, and said, "Why weren't we able turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You to cast it out?" 20 He said to them, "Because of your are a stumbling block to me, for you are not setting your unbelief. For most certainly I tell you, if you have faith mind on the things of God, but on the things of men." 24 as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone desires to 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, will be impossible for you. 21 But this kind doesn't go and follow me. 25 For whoever desires to save his life out except by prayer and fasting." 22 While they were will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man find it. 26 For what will it profit a man if he gains the is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, 23 whole world and forfeits his life? Or what will a man and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised give in exchange for his life? 27 For the Son of Man will up." They were exceedingly sorry. 24 When they had come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then come to Capernaum, those who collected the didrachma he will render to everyone according to his deeds. 28 coins came to Peter, and said, "Doesn't your teacher Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here pay the didrachma?" 25 He said, "Yes." When he came who will in no way taste of death until they see the Son into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What of Man coming in his Kingdom."

17 After six days, Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves. 2 He was changed before them. His face shone like the sun, and his garments became as white as the light. 3 Behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them talking with him. 4 Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took for us to be here. If you want, let's make three tents Sadducees." 12 Then they understood that he didn't well pleased. Listen to him." 6 When the disciples heard on this rock I will build my assembly, and the gates of the Son of Man will also suffer by them." 13 Then the Hades will not prevail against it. (Hades 986) 19 I will disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their children, or from strangers?" 26 Peter said to him, "From strangers." Jesus said to him, "Therefore the children are exempt. 27 But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a stater coin. Take that, and give it to them for me and you."

2 Jesus called a little child to himself, and set him in to settle accounts with his servants, 24 When he had the middle of them 3 and said, "Most certainly I tell begun to settle, one was brought to him who owed him you, unless you turn and become as little children, you ten thousand talents. 25 But because he couldn't pay, will in no way enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. 4 his lord commanded him to be sold, with his wife, his Whoever therefore humbles himself as this little child children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. 5 Whoever 26 The servant therefore fell down and knelt before him, receives one such little child in my name receives me, 6 saying, 'Lord, have patience with me, and I will repay but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe you all!' 27 The lord of that servant, being moved with in me to stumble, it would be better for him if a huge compassion, released him and forgave him the debt. 28 millstone were hung around his neck and that he were "But that servant went out and found one of his fellow sunk in the depths of the sea. 7 "Woe to the world servants who owed him one hundred denarii, and he because of occasions of stumbling! If he listens to you, you have gained back your brother. 16 But if he doesn't listen, take one or two more with you, that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. 17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly. If he refuses to hear the assembly also, let him be to you as a Gentile or a tax collector. 18 Most certainly I tell you, whatever things you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever things you release on earth will have been released in heaven. 19 Again, assuredly I tell you, that if two of you will agree on earth concerning anything that they will ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in heaven. 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the middle of them." 21 Then Peter came and said to him, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? > 19 When Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee and came into the borders of Judea beyond the Jordan. 2 Great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there. 3 Pharisees came to him, testing him and saying, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?" 4 He answered, "Haven't you read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, 5 and said, 'For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh'? 6 So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, don't let man tear apart." 7 They asked him, "Why then did Moses command us to give her a certificate of divorce and divorce her?" 8 He said to them, "Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so. 9 I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and he who marries her when she is divorced commits adultery." 10 His disciples said to him, "If this is the case of the man with his wife, it is not expedient to marry." 11 But he said to them, "Not all men can receive this saying, but those

No one is good but one, that is, God. But if you received a denarius. 11 When they received it, they want to enter into life, keep the commandments." 18 He murmured against the master of the household, 12 said to him, "Which ones?" Jesus said, "'You shall not saying, 'These last have spent one hour, and you have murder.' 'You shall not commit adultery.' 'You shall not made them equal to us who have borne the burden of steal.' (aiōnios g166) 30 But many will be last baptized with; but to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give, but it is for whom it has been prepared by my Father." 24 When the ten heard it, they were indignant with the two brothers. 25 But Jesus summoned them, and said, "You know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. 26 It shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant. 27 Whoever desires to be first among you shall be your bondservant. 28 out of the city to Bethany, and camped there, 18 Now in and they followed him.

21 When they came near to Jerusalem and came to Bethsphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2 saying to them, "Go into the village that is opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. 3 If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord needs them,' and immediately he will send them." 4 All this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, 5 "Tell the daughter of Zion, behold, your King comes to you, humble, and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey." 6 The disciples went and did just as Jesus commanded them, 7 and brought the donkey and the colt and laid their clothes on them; and he sat on them. 8 A very great multitude spread their clothes on the road. Others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. 9 The multitudes who went in front of him, and those who followed, kept shouting, "Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!" 10 When he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred up, saying, "Who is this?" 11 The multitudes said, "This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee." 12 Jesus entered into the temple of God and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers' tables and the seats of those who sold the doves. 13 He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,' but you have made it a den of robbers!" 14 The lame and the blind came to him in the temple, and he healed them. 15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children who were crying in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the son of David!" they were indignant, 16 and said to him, "Do you hear what these are saying?" Jesus said to them, "Yes. Did you never read, 'Out of the mouth of children and nursing babies, you have perfected praise'?" 17 He left them and went even as the Son of Man came not to be served, but to the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry. serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." 29 As 19 Seeing a fig tree by the road, he came to it and found they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed nothing on it but leaves. He said to it, "Let there be no him. 30 Behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when fruit from you forever!" Immediately the fig tree withered they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, "Lord, away. (aion g165) 20 When the disciples saw it, they have mercy on us, you son of David!" 31 The multitude marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, wither away?" 21 Jesus answered them, "Most certainly but they cried out even more, "Lord, have mercy on us, I tell you, if you have faith and don't doubt, you will not you son of David!" 32 Jesus stood still and called them, only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you and asked, "What do you want me to do for you?" 33 told this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' They told him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened." 34 it would be done. 22 All things, whatever you ask in Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their prayer, believing, you will receive." 23 When he had eyes; and immediately their eyes received their sight, come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?" 24 Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from men?" They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 26 But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the multitude, for all hold John as a prophet." 27 They answered Jesus, and said, "We don't know." He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. 28 But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.' 29 He answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his mind, and went. 30 He came to the second, and said the same thing. He answered, 'I'm going, sir,' but he didn't go. 31 Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said to him, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Most certainly I tell you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering into God's Kingdom before you. 32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn't believe him; but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. When you saw it, you didn't even repent afterward, that you might believe him. 33 "Hear another parable. There was a man who was a master of a household who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a wine press in it, built a tower, leased it out to farmers, and went into another country. 34 When the season for the fruit came near, he sent his servants to the farmers to receive his fruit. 35 The farmers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another. 36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first; and they treated them the same way. 37 But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 38 But the farmers, when they saw the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him and seize his inheritance.' 39 So they took him

It is marvelous in our eyes'? 43 23 On that day Sadducees (those who say that there "Therefore I tell you, God's Kingdom will be taken away is no resurrection) came to him. They asked him, 24 from you and will be given to a nation producing its saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies, having no fruit. 44 He who falls on this stone will be broken to children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up pieces, but on whomever it will fall, it will scatter him offspring for his brother.' 25 Now there were with us as dust." 45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees seven brothers. The first married and died, and having heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke about no offspring left his wife to his brother. 26 In the same them. 46 When they sought to seize him, they feared way, the second also, and the third, to the seventh. 27 the multitudes, because they considered him to be a After them all, the woman died. 28 In the resurrection prophet.

77 Jesus answered and spoke to them again in parables, saying, 2 "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who made a wedding feast for his son, 3 and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast, but they would not come. 4 Again he sent out other servants, saving, 'Tell those who are invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My cattle and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding feast!" 5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise; 6 and the rest grabbed his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. 7 When the king heard that, he was angry, and sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. 8 "Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren't worthy. 9 Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the wedding feast.' 10 Those servants went out into the highways and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. The wedding was filled with quests. 11 "But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who didn't have on wedding clothing, 12 and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?' He was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and throw him into the outer darkness. That is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.' 14 For many are called, but few chosen." 15 Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk. 16 They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter whom you teach; for do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or

and threw him out of the vinevard, then killed him, 40 not?" 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had her." 29 But Jesus answered them, "You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like God's angels in heaven. 31 But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven't you read that which was spoken to you by God. saying, 32 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living." 33 When the multitudes heard it, they were astonished at his teaching. 34 But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, gathered themselves together. 35 One of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, testing him. 36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?" 37 Jesus said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 A second likewise is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." 41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, 42 saying, "What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "Of David." 43 He said to them. "How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 'The Lord said to my Lord, sit on my right hand, until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet'? 45 "If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son?" 46 No one was able to answer him a word, neither did any man dare ask him any more questions from that day forward.

23 Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to his disciples, 2 saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat. 3 All things therefore whatever they you aren't partial to anyone. 17 Tell us therefore, what tell you to observe, observe and do, but don't do their

See that you aren't troubled, for all this must happen, but the end is not yet. 7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines, plagues, and earthquakes in various places. 8 But all these things are the beginning of birth pains. 9 "Then they will deliver you up to oppression and will kill you. You will be hated by all of the nations for my name's sake. 10 Then many will stumble, and will deliver up one another, and will hate one another. 11 Many false prophets will arise and will lead many astray. 12 Because iniquity will be multiplied, the love of many will grow cold. 13 But he who endures to the end will be saved. 14 This Good News of the Kingdom will be preached in the

the end will come. 15 "When, therefore, you see the will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and one abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through will be left. 42 Watch therefore, for you don't know in Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the what hour your Lord comes. 43 But know this, that if the reader understand), 16 then let those who are in Judea master of the house had known in what watch of the flee to the mountains. 17 Let him who is on the housetop night the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not go down to take out the things that are in his house. would not have allowed his house to be broken into. 44 18 Let him who is in the field not return back to get his Therefore also be ready, for in an hour that you don't clothes. 19 But woe to those who are with child and to expect, the Son of Man will come. 45 "Who then is the nursing mothers in those days! 20 Pray that your flight faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has set over his will not be in the winter nor on a Sabbath, 21 for then household, to give them their food in due season? 46 there will be great suffering, such as has not been from Blessed is that servant whom his lord finds doing so the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever will when he comes. 47 Most certainly I tell you that he will be. 22 Unless those days had been shortened, no flesh set him over all that he has. 48 But if that evil servant would have been saved. But for the sake of the chosen should say in his heart, 'My lord is delaying his coming,' ones, those days will be shortened. 23 "Then if any man 49 and begins to beat his fellow servants, and eat and tells you, 'Behold, here is the Christ!' or, 'There!' don't drink with the drunkards, 50 the lord of that servant believe it. 24 For false christs and false prophets will will come in a day when he doesn't expect it and in an arise, and they will show great signs and wonders, so hour when he doesn't know it, 51 and will cut him in as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones. 25 pieces and appoint his portion with the hypocrites. That "Behold, I have told you beforehand. 26 "If therefore is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be. they tell you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' don't go out; or 'Behold, he is in the inner rooms,' don't believe it. 27 For as the lightning flashes from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will the coming of the Son of Man be. 28 For wherever the carcass is, that is where the vultures gather together. 29 "But immediately after the suffering of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken; 30 and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory. 31 He will send out his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other. 32 "Now from the fig tree learn this parable: When its branch has now become tender and produces its leaves, you know that the summer is near. 33 Even so you also, when you see all these things, know that he is near, even at the doors. 34 Most certainly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things are accomplished. 35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 36 "But no one knows of that day and hour, not even the angels of heaven, but my Father only. 37 As the days of Noah were, so will the coming of the Son of Man be. 38 For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ship, 39 and they didn't know until the flood came and took them all away, so will the coming of the Son of Man be. 40 Then two men will be in the field:

whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then one will be taken and one will be left. 41 Two women

75 "Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. 3 Those who were foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them, 4 but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. 5 Now while the bridegroom delayed, they all slumbered and slept. 6 But at midnight there was a cry, 'Behold! The bridegroom is coming! Come out to meet him!' 7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. 8 The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9 But the wise answered, saying, 'What if there isn't enough for us and you? You go rather to those who sell, and buy for vourselves,' 10 While they went away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast, and the door was shut. 11 Afterward the other virgins also came, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us.' 12 But he answered, 'Most certainly I tell you, I don't know you.' 13 Watch therefore, for you don't know the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming. 14 "For it is like a man going into another country, who called his own servants and entrusted his goods to them. 15 To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his own ability. Then he went on his journey. 16 Immediately he who received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. 17 In the same way, he also who got the two gained another two. 18 But he who received the one talent went away and dug in the earth and hid his lord's money. 19 "Now after a long time the lord of those servants came, and settled accounts with them. 20

another five talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me me no drink; 43 I was a stranger, and you didn't take five talents. Behold, I have gained another five talents in me in: naked, and you didn't clothe me: sick, and in addition to them.' 21 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, prison, and you didn't visit me.' 44 "Then they will also good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and into the joy of your lord.' 22 "He also who got the two didn't help you?' 45 "Then he will answer them, saying, talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two 'Most certainly I tell you, because you didn't do it to one talents. Behold. I have gained another two talents in of the least of these, you didn't do it to me.' 46 These addition to them.' 23 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things. I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.' 24 "He also who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you didn't sow, and gathering where you didn't scatter. 25 I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the earth. Behold, you have what is yours.' 26 "But his lord answered him. 'You wicked and slothful servant. You knew that I reap where I didn't sow, and gather where I didn't scatter. 27 You ought therefore to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back my own with interest. 28 Take away therefore the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. 29 For to everyone who has will be given, and he will have abundance, but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away. 30 Throw out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' 31 "But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. 32 Before him all the nations will be gathered, and he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33 He will set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left, 34 Then the King will tell those on his right hand, 'Come, blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; 35 for I was hungry and you gave me food to eat. I was thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you took me in. 36 I was naked and you clothed me. I was sick and vou visited me. I was in prison and vou came to me.' 37 "Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you a drink? 38 When did we see you as a stranger and take you in, or naked and clothe you? 39 When did we see you sick or in prison and come to vou?' 40 "The King will answer them. 'Most certainly I tell you, because you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.' 41 Then he will say also to those on the left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels; (aionios q166) 42 for I was hungry, and you

He who received the five talents came and brought didn't give me food to eat: I was thirsty, and you gave will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life." (aionios a166)

> 26 When Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples, 2 "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified." 3 Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas. 4 They took counsel together that they might take Jesus by deceit and kill him. 5 But they said, "Not during the feast, lest a riot occur among the people." 6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper. 7 a woman came to him having an alabaster iar of very expensive ointment, and she poured it on his head as he sat at the table. 8 But when his disciples saw this, they were indignant, saving, "Why this waste? 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much and given to the poor." 10 However, knowing this, Jesus said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? She has done a good work for me. 11 For you always have the poor with you, but you don't always have me. 12 For in pouring this ointment on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. 13 Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of as a memorial of her." 14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests 15 and said, "What are you willing to give me if I deliver him to you?" So they weighed out for him thirty pieces of silver. 16 From that time he sought opportunity to betray him. 17 Now on the first day of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?" 18 He said. "Go into the city to a certain person, and tell him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples."" 19 The disciples did as Jesus commanded them, and they prepared the Passover. 20 Now when evening had come, he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. 21 As they were eating. he said, "Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me." 22 They were exceedingly sorrowful, and each began to ask him, "It isn't me, is it, Lord?" 23 He answered. "He who dipped his hand with me in the dish will betray me. 24 The Son of Man goes even as it is written of him, but woe to that man through whom the Seize him." 49 Immediately he came to Jesus, and said.

Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed him. 50 Jesus said to if he had not been born." 25 Judas, who betrayed him, him, "Friend, why are you here?" Then they came and answered, "It isn't me, is it, Rabbi?" He said to him, laid hands on Jesus, and took him. 51 Behold, one "You said it." 26 As they were eating, Jesus took bread, of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand gave thanks for it, and broke it. He gave to the disciples and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." 27 He took the priest, and cut off his ear. 52 Then Jesus said to him, cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, "All of you "Put your sword back into its place, for all those who drink it, 28 for this is my blood of the new covenant, take the sword will die by the sword. 53 Or do you think which is poured out for many for the remission of sins. that I couldn't ask my Father, and he would even now 29 But I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine send me more than twelve legions of angels? 54 How from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must be so?" in my Father's Kingdom." 30 When they had sung a 55 In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. 31 Then come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the didn't arrest me. 56 But all this has happened that the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all 32 But after I am raised up, I will go before you into the disciples left him and fled. 57 Those who had taken Galilee." 33 But Peter answered him, "Even if all will be Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where made to stumble because of you, I will never be made the scribes and the elders were gathered together. 58 to stumble." 34 Jesus said to him, "Most certainly I tell But Peter followed him from a distance to the court of you that tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny the high priest, and entered in and sat with the officers, me three times." 35 Peter said to him, "Even if I must to see the end. 59 Now the chief priests, the elders, die with you. I will not deny you." All of the disciples and the whole council sought false testimony against also said likewise. 36 Then Jesus came with them to Jesus, that they might put him to death, 60 and they a place called Gethsemane, and said to his disciples, found none. Even though many false witnesses came "Sit here, while I go there and pray." 37 He took with forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began came forward 61 and said, "This man said, 'I am able to be sorrowful and severely troubled. 38 Then Jesus to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even days." 62 The high priest stood up and said to him, to death. Stay here and watch with me." 39 He went "Have you no answer? What is this that these testify forward a little, fell on his face, and prayed, saying, "My against you?" 63 But Jesus stayed silent. The high Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me; priest answered him, "I adjure you by the living God that nevertheless, not what I desire, but what you desire." you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God." 40 He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, 64 Jesus said to him, "You have said so. Nevertheless, I and said to Peter, "What, couldn't you watch with me tell you, after this you will see the Son of Man sitting for one hour? 41 Watch and pray, that you don't enter at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh of the sky." 65 Then the high priest tore his clothing, is weak." 42 Again, a second time he went away and saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cup can't pass away any more witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his from me unless I drink it, your desire be done." 43 He blasphemy. 66 What do you think?" They answered, came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes "He is worthy of death!" 67 Then they spat in his face were heavy. 44 He left them again, went away, and and beat him with their fists, and some slapped him, 68 prayed a third time, saying the same words. 45 Then he saying, "Prophesy to us, you Christ! Who hit you?" 69 came to his disciples and said to them, "Are you still Now Peter was sitting outside in the court, and a maid sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is at hand, and came to him, saying, "You were also with Jesus, the the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Galilean!" 70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I Arise, let's be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at don't know what you are talking about." 71 When he hand." 47 While he was still speaking, behold, Judas, had gone out onto the porch, someone else saw him one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude and said to those who were there, "This man also was with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders with Jesus of Nazareth." 72 Again he denied it with of the people. 48 Now he who betrayed him had given an oath, "I don't know the man." 73 After a little while them a sign, saying, "Whoever I kiss, he is the one. those who stood by came and said to Peter, "Surely you are also one of them, for your speech makes you has he done?" But they cried out exceedingly, saying, times." Then he went out and wept bitterly.

77 Now when morning had come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death. 2 They bound him, led him away, and delivered him up to Pontius Pilate, the governor. 3 Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he saw that Jesus was condemned, felt remorse, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4 saving, "I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? You see to it." 5 He threw down the pieces of silver in the sanctuary and departed. Then he went away and hanged himself. 6 The chief priests took the pieces of silver and said, "It's not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood." 7 They took counsel, and bought the potter's field with them to bury strangers in. 8 Therefore that field has been called "The Field of Blood" to this day. 9 Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, "They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him upon whom a price had been set, whom some of the children of Israel priced, 10 and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord commanded me." 11 Now Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus said to him, "So you say." 12 When he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. 13 Then Pilate said to him, "Don't you hear how many things they testify against you?" 14 He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marveled greatly. 15 Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the multitude one prisoner whom they desired. 16 They had then a notable prisoner called Barabbas. 17 When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" 18 For he knew that because of envy they had delivered him up. 19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of him." 20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes to ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. 21 But the governor answered them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said, "Barabbas!" 22 Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do to Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said to him, "Let him be crucified!" 23 But the governor said, "Why? What evil known." 74 Then he began to curse and to swear, "I "Let him be crucified!" 24 So when Pilate saw that don't know the man!" Immediately the rooster crowed. nothing was being gained, but rather that a disturbance 75 Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said to was starting, he took water and washed his hands him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous person. You see to it." 25 All the people answered, "May his blood be on us and on our children!" 26 Then he released Barabbas to them, but Jesus he flogged and delivered to be crucified. 27 Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole garrison together against him. 28 They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him. 29 They braided a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 30 They spat on him, and took the reed and struck him on the head. 31 When they had mocked him, they took the robe off him, and put his clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him. 32 As they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, and they compelled him to go with them, that he might carry his cross. 33 When they came to a place called "Golgotha", that is to say, "The place of a skull," 34 they gave him sour wine to drink mixed with gall. When he had tasted it, he would not drink. 35 When they had crucified him, they divided his clothing among them, casting lots. 36 and they sat and watched him there. 37 They set up over his head the accusation against him written, "THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS." 38 Then there were two robbers crucified with him, one on his right hand and one on the left. 39 Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads 40 and saving. "You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!" 41 Likewise the chief priests also mocking with the scribes, the Pharisees, and the elders, said, 42 "He saved others, but he can't save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. 43 He trusts in God. Let God deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said. 'I am the Son of God." 44 The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach. 45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. 46 About the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lima sabachthani?" That is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" 47 Some of them who stood there, when they heard it, said, "This man is calling Elijah." 48 Immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, filled it with vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave him a drink. 49 The rest said, "Let him be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to save him." 50 Jesus cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. 51 Behold, the Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees the age." Amen. (aion g165) were gathered together to Pilate, 63 saying, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive: 'After three days I will rise again.' 64 Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps his disciples come at night and steal him away, and tell the people, 'He is risen from the dead;' and the last deception will be worse than the first." 65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can." 66 So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone.

28 Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. 2 Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from the sky and came and rolled away the stone from the door and sat on it. 3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. 4 For fear of him, the guards shook, and became like dead men. 5 The angel answered the women, "Don't be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified. 6 He is not here, for he has risen, just like he said. Come, see the place where the Lord was lying. 7 Go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead, and behold, he goes before you into Galilee; there you will see him.' Behold, I have told you." 8 They departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. 9 As they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!"

1 The beginning of the Good News of Jesus Christ. the Son of God. 2 As it is written in the prophets, "Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you: 3 the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make ready the way of the Lord! Make his paths straight!" 4 John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching the baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins. 5 All the country of Judea and all those of Jerusalem went out to him. They were baptized by him in the Jordan river, confessing their sins. 6 John was clothed with camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist. He ate locusts and wild honey. 7 He preached, saying, "After me comes he who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen. 8 I baptized you in water, but he will baptize you in the Holy Spirit." 9 In those days. Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan. 10 Immediately coming up from the water, he saw the heavens parting and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. 11 A voice came out of the sky, "You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." 12 Immediately the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness. 13 He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals; and the angels were serving him. 14 Now after John was taken into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Good News of God's Kingdom. 15 and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and God's Kingdom is at hand! Repent, and believe in the Good News." 16 Passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. 17 Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you into fishers for men." 18 Immediately they left their nets, and followed him. 19 Going on a little further from there, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets. 20 Immediately he called them, and they left their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him. 21 They went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath themselves, saving, "What is this? A new teaching? For with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him!" 28 The report of him went out immediately everywhere into all the region of Galilee and its surrounding area. 29 Immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. 30 Now Simon's wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him about her. 31 He came and took her by the hand and raised her up. The fever left her immediately, and she served them. 32 At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick and those who were possessed by demons. 33 All the city was gathered together at the door. 34 He healed many who were sick with various diseases and cast out many demons. He didn't allow the demons to speak. because they knew him. 35 Early in the morning, while it was still dark, he rose up and went out, and departed into a deserted place, and prayed there. 36 Simon and those who were with him searched for him. 37 They found him and told him, "Everyone is looking for you." 38 He said to them, "Let's go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because I came out for this reason." 39 He went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out demons. 40 A leper came to him, begging him, kneeling down to him, and saving to him. "If you want to, you can make me clean." 41 Being moved with compassion, he stretched out his hand, and touched him, and said to him, "I want to, Be made clean." 42 When he had said this, immediately the leprosy departed from him and he was made clean. 43 He strictly warned him and immediately sent him out, 44 and said to him, "See that you say nothing to anybody, but go show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." 45 But he went out, and began to proclaim it much, and to spread about the matter, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into a city, but was outside in desert places. People came to him from everywhere.

with the hired servants, and went after him. 21 They went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath days, it was heard that he was at home. 2 Immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as more room, not even around the door; and he spoke the having authority, and not as the scribes. 23 Immediately to them. 3 Four people came, carrying a paralytic there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 24 saying, "Ha! What do we have to do with you, Jesus, you Nazarene? Have you they had broken it up, they let down the mat that the come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God!" 25 Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you." 6 Come out of him!" 26 The unclean spirit, convulsing But there were some of the scribes sitting there and him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. 27 reasoning in their hearts, 7 "Why does this man speak They were all amazed, so that they questioned among blasphemies like that? To save a life or to kill?" But they were silent. you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house." 12 5 When he had looked around at them with anger, being He arose, and immediately took up the mat and went grieved at the hardening of their hearts, he said to the out in front of them all, so that they were all amazed and man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!" his hand was restored as healthy as the other. 6 The 13 He went out again by the seaside. ▲ Again he began to teach by the seaside. A great multitude was gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat in the sea and sat down. All the multitude were on the land by the sea. 2 He taught them many things in parables, and told them in his teaching, 3 "Listen! Behold, the farmer went out to sow. 4 As he sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds came and devoured it. 5 Others fell on the rocky ground, where it had little soil, and immediately it sprang up. because it had no depth of soil. 6 When the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. 7 Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. 8 Others fell into the good ground and vielded fruit, growing up and increasing. Some produced thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times as much." 9 He said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear." 10 When he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parables. 11 He said to them, "To you is given the mystery of God's Kingdom, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables, 12 that 'seeing they may see and not perceive, and hearing they may hear and not understand, lest perhaps they should turn again, and their sins should be forgiven them." 13 He said to them, "Don't you understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables? 14 The farmer sows the word. 15 The ones by the road are the ones where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes and takes away the word which has been sown in them. 16 These in the same way are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy. 17 They have no root in themselves, but are short-lived. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word. immediately they stumble. 18 Others are those who are sown among the thorns. These are those who have heard the word, 19 and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. "He has hundred times." 21 He said to them, "Is a lamp brought and standing outside, they sent to him, calling him. 32 A a stand? 22 For there is nothing hidden except that it "Behold, your mother, your brothers, and your sisters secret but that it should come to light, 23 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear." 24 He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you; and more will be more will be given; and he who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him." 26 He said, "God's Kingdom is as if a man should cast seed on the earth, 27 and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, though he doesn't know how. 28 For the earth bears fruit by itself: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear, 29 But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come." 30 He said. "How will we liken God's Kingdom? Or with what parable will we illustrate it? 31 It's like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth. 32 vet when it is sown. grows up and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow." 33 With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it. 34 Without a parable he didn't speak to them: but privately to his own disciples he explained everything. 35 On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side." 36 Leaving the multitude, they took him with them, even as he was, in the boat. Other small boats were also with him. 37 A big wind storm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so much that the boat was already filled. 38 He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and asked him, "Teacher, don't you care that we are dying?" 39 He awoke and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was a great calm. 40 He said to them. "Why are vou so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?" 41 They were greatly afraid and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obev him?"

5 They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. 2 When he had come out of the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit met him out of the tombs. 3 He lived in the tombs. Nobody could bind him any more, not even with chains. 4 because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nobody had the strength to tame him. 5 Always, night and day, in the tombs and in

with stones. 6 When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran against you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'" 32 He and bowed down to him, 7 and crying out with a loud looked around to see her who had done this thing. 33 voice, he said, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, you But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, don't had been done to her, came and fell down before him, torment me." 8 For he said to him, "Come out of the and told him all the truth. 34 He said to her, "Daughter, man, you unclean spirit!" 9 He asked him, "What is your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be your name?" He said to him, "My name is Legion, for cured of your disease." 35 While he was still speaking, we are many." 10 He begged him much that he would people came from the synagogue ruler's house, saying, not send them away out of the country. 11 Now on the "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any mountainside there was a great herd of pigs feeding. 12 more?" 36 But Jesus, when he heard the message All the demons begged him, saying, "Send us into the spoken, immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue, pigs, that we may enter into them." 13 At once Jesus "Don't be afraid, only believe." 37 He allowed no one to gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and follow him except Peter, James, and John the brother of entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand James. 38 He came to the synagogue ruler's house, rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were and he saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing. 39 drowned in the sea. 14 Those who fed the pigs fled, and When he had entered in, he said to them, "Why do you told it in the city and in the country. The people came make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but to see what it was that had happened. 15 They came is asleep." 40 They ridiculed him. But he, having put to Jesus, and saw him who had been possessed by them all out, took the father of the child, her mother, demons sitting, clothed, and in his right mind, even him and those who were with him, and went in where the who had the legion; and they were afraid. 16 Those child was lying. 41 Taking the child by the hand, he said who saw it declared to them what happened to him to her, "Talitha cumi!" which means, being interpreted, who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs. "Girl, I tell you, get up!" 42 Immediately the girl rose up 17 They began to beg him to depart from their region. and walked, for she was twelve years old. They were 18 As he was entering into the boat, he who had been amazed with great amazement. 43 He strictly ordered possessed by demons begged him that he might be them that no one should know this, and commanded with him. 19 He didn't allow him, but said to him, "Go to that something should be given to her to eat. your house, to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you and how he had mercy on you." 20 He went his way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how Jesus had done great things for him, and everyone marveled. 21 When Jesus had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a great multitude was gathered to him; and he was by the sea. 22 Behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came; and seeing him, he fell at his feet 23 and begged him much, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made healthy, and live." 24 He went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides. 25 A certain woman who had a discharge of blood for twelve years, 26 and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse, 27 having heard the things concerning Jesus, came up behind him in the crowd and touched his clothes. 28 For she said, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well." 29 Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. 30 Immediately Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my clothes?" 31 His

He went out from there. He came into his own country, and his disciples followed him. 2 When the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands? 3 Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James, Joses, Judah, and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" So they were offended at him. 4 Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house." 5 He could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them. 6 He marveled because of their unbelief. He went around the villages teaching. 7 He called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8 He commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse, 9 but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics. 10 He said to them, "Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there. 11 Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against

Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for late in the day, his disciples came to him and said, "This that city!" 12 They went out and preached that people place is deserted, and it is late in the day. 36 Send them should repent. 13 They cast out many demons, and away, that they may go into the surrounding country anointed many with oil who were sick and healed them. and villages and buy themselves bread, for they have 14 King Herod heard this, for his name had become nothing to eat." 37 But he answered them, "You give known, and he said, "John the Baptizer has risen from them something to eat." They asked him, "Shall we go the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give him." 15 But others said, "He is Elijah." Others said, them something to eat?" 38 He said to them, "How many "He is a prophet, or like one of the prophets." 16 But loaves do you have? Go see." When they knew, they Herod, when he heard this, said, "This is John, whom I said, "Five, and two fish." 39 He commanded them that beheaded. He has risen from the dead." 17 For Herod everyone should sit down in groups on the green grass. himself had sent out and arrested John and bound him 40 They sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties. in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's 41 He took the five loaves and the two fish; and looking wife, for he had married her. 18 For John had said to up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves, and he Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's gave to his disciples to set before them, and he divided wife." 19 Herodias set herself against him and desired the two fish among them all. 42 They all ate and were to kill him, but she couldn't, 20 for Herod feared John, filled. 43 They took up twelve baskets full of broken knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and pieces and also of the fish. 44 Those who ate the loaves kept him safe. When he heard him, he did many things, were five thousand men. 45 Immediately he made his and he heard him gladly. 21 Then a convenient day disciples get into the boat and go ahead to the other came when Herod on his birthday made a supper for his side, to Bethsaida, while he himself sent the multitude nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee. away. 46 After he had taken leave of them, he went up 22 When the daughter of Herodias herself came in and the mountain to pray. 47 When evening had come, the danced, she pleased Herod and those sitting with him. boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on The king said to the young lady, "Ask me whatever you the land. 48 Seeing them distressed in rowing, for the want, and I will give it to you." 23 He swore to her, wind was contrary to them, about the fourth watch of "Whatever you ask of me, I will give you, up to half of the night he came to them, walking on the sea; and he my kingdom." 24 She went out and said to her mother, would have passed by them, 49 but they, when they "What shall I ask?" She said, "The head of John the saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a Baptizer." 25 She came in immediately with haste to the ghost, and cried out; 50 for they all saw him and were king and requested, "I want you to give me right now troubled. But he immediately spoke with them and said the head of John the Baptizer on a platter." 26 The king to them, "Cheer up! It is !! Don't be afraid." 51 He got was exceedingly sorry, but for the sake of his oaths and into the boat with them; and the wind ceased, and they of his dinner guests, he didn't wish to refuse her. 27 were very amazed among themselves, and marveled; Immediately the king sent out a soldier of his guard and 52 for they hadn't understood about the loaves, but commanded to bring John's head; and he went and their hearts were hardened. 53 When they had crossed beheaded him in the prison, 28 and brought his head on over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored to a platter, and gave it to the young lady; and the young the shore. 54 When they had come out of the boat, lady gave it to her mother. 29 When his disciples heard immediately the people recognized him, 55 and ran this, they came and took up his corpse and laid it in a around that whole region, and began to bring those who tomb. 30 The apostles gathered themselves together were sick on their mats to where they heard he was. 56 to Jesus, and they told him all things, whatever they Wherever he entered—into villages, or into cities, or into had done, and whatever they had taught. 31 He said the country—they laid the sick in the marketplaces and to them, "Come away into a deserted place, and rest begged him that they might just touch the fringe of his awhile." For there were many coming and going, and garment; and as many as touched him were made well. they had no leisure so much as to eat. 32 They went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. 33 They saw them going, and many recognized him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to him. 34 Jesus came out, saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and them. Assuredly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the began to teach them many things. 35 When it was Then the Pharisees and some of the scribes gathered together to him, having come from Jerusalem. 2 Now when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with defiled, that is unwashed, hands, they found fault. 3 (For the Pharisees and all the Jews don't eat unless they wash their hands and forearms, holding to the tradition of the elders. 4 They don't eat when they come from

You do many things like this." 14 He called all the multitude to himself and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. 15 There is nothing from outside of the man that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man. 16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!" 17 When he had entered into a house away from the multitude, his disciples asked him about the parable. 18 He said to them, "Are you also without understanding? Don't you perceive that whatever goes into the man from outside can't defile him, 19 because it doesn't go into his heart, but into his stomach, then into the latrine, making all foods clean?" 20 He said, "That which proceeds out of the man, that defiles the man. 21 For from within, out of the hearts of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual sins, murders, thefts, 22 covetings, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness. 23 All these evil things come from within and defile the man." 24 From there he arose and went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He entered into a house and didn't want anyone to know it, but he couldn't escape notice. 25 For a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. 26 Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophoenician by race. She begged him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter. 27 But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." 28 But she answered him, "Yes, Lord. Yet even the dogs under

8 In those days, when there was a very great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to himself and said to them, 2 "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with me now three days and have nothing to eat. 3 If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come a long way." 4 His disciples answered him, "From where could one satisfy these people with bread here in a deserted place?" 5 He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven." 6 He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves. Having given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to serve, and they served the multitude. 7 They also had a few small fish. Having blessed them, he said to serve these also. 8 They ate and were filled. They took up seven baskets of broken pieces that were left over. 9 Those who had eaten were about four thousand. Then he sent them away. 10 Immediately he entered into the boat with his disciples and came into the region of Dalmanutha. 11 The Pharisees came out and began to question him, seeking from him a sign from heaven and testing him. 12 He sighed deeply in his spirit and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Most certainly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation." 13 He left them, and again entering into the boat, departed to the other side. 14 They forgot to take bread; and they didn't have more than one loaf in the boat with them. 15 He warned them, saying, "Take heed: beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod." 16 They reasoned with one another, saying, "It's because we have no bread." 17 Jesus, perceiving it, said to them,

"Why do you reason that it's because you have no in front of them. 3 His clothing became glistening." his Father's glory with the holy angels."

• He said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death until they see God's Kingdom come with power." 2 After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form

Don't you remember? 19 to them, and they were talking with Jesus. 5 Peter When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, answered Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take Let's make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and up?" They told him, "Twelve." 20 "When the seven one for Elijah." 6 For he didn't know what to say, for loaves fed the four thousand, how many baskets full of they were very afraid. 7 A cloud came, overshadowing broken pieces did you take up?" They told him, "Seven." them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is 21 He asked them, "Don't you understand yet?" 22 He my beloved Son. Listen to him." 8 Suddenly looking came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him around, they saw no one with them any more, except and begged him to touch him. 23 He took hold of the Jesus only. 9 As they were coming down from the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the mountain, he commanded them that they should tell no village. When he had spat on his eyes, and laid his one what things they had seen, until after the Son of hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything. 24 He Man had risen from the dead. 10 They kept this saying looked up, and said, "I see men, but I see them like to themselves, questioning what the "rising from the walking trees." 25 Then again he laid his hands on his dead" meant. 11 They asked him, saying, "Why do the eyes. He looked intently, and was restored, and saw scribes say that Elijah must come first?" 12 He said everyone clearly. 26 He sent him away to his house, to them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and restores all saying, "Don't enter into the village, nor tell anyone in things. How is it written about the Son of Man, that he the village." 27 Jesus went out, with his disciples, into should suffer many things and be despised? 13 But I the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked tell you that Elijah has come, and they have also done his disciples, "Who do men say that I am?" 28 They to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written told him, "John the Baptizer, and others say Elijah, but about him." 14 Coming to the disciples, he saw a great others, one of the prophets." 29 He said to them, "But multitude around them, and scribes questioning them. who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "You are 15 Immediately all the multitude, when they saw him, the Christ." 30 He commanded them that they should tell were greatly amazed, and running to him, greeted him, no one about him. 31 He began to teach them that the 16 He asked the scribes, "What are you asking them?" Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected 17 One of the multitude answered, "Teacher, I brought to by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and you my son, who has a mute spirit; 18 and wherever it be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 He spoke seizes him, it throws him down; and he foams at the to them openly. Peter took him and began to rebuke mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes rigid. I asked your him. 33 But he, turning around and seeing his disciples, disciples to cast it out, and they weren't able." 19 He rebuked Peter, and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For answered him, "Unbelieving generation, how long shall I you have in mind not the things of God, but the things be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him of men." 34 He called the multitude to himself with his to me." 20 They brought him to him, and when he saw disciples and said to them, "Whoever wants to come him, immediately the spirit convulsed him and he fell on after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth. 21 He and follow me. 35 For whoever wants to save his life will asked his father, "How long has it been since this has lose it; and whoever will lose his life for my sake and been happening to him?" He said, "From childhood. the sake of the Good News will save it. 36 For what 22 Often it has cast him both into the fire and into the does it profit a man to gain the whole world and forfeit water to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have his life? 37 For what will a man give in exchange for his compassion on us and help us." 23 Jesus said to him, life? 38 For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son believes." 24 Immediately the father of the child cried of Man also will be ashamed of him when he comes in out with tears, "I believe. Help my unbelief!" 25 When Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!" 26 After crying out and convulsing him greatly, it came out of him. The boy became like one dead, so much that most of them said, "He is dead." 27 But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him up; and

he arose. 28 When he had come into the house, his 10 He arose from there and came into the borders disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we cast it out?" 29 He said to them, "This kind can come out by together to him again. As he usually did, he was again nothing but by prayer and fasting." 30 They went out teaching them. 2 Pharisees came to him testing him, from there and passed through Galilee. He didn't want and asked him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his anyone to know it, 31 for he was teaching his disciples, wife?" 3 He answered, "What did Moses command and said to them, "The Son of Man is being handed over you?" 4 They said, "Moses allowed a certificate of to the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when divorce to be written, and to divorce her." 5 But Jesus he is killed, on the third day he will rise again." 32 But said to them, "For your hardness of heart, he wrote you they didn't understand the saying, and were afraid to this commandment. 6 But from the beginning of the ask him. 33 He came to Capernaum, and when he was creation, God made them male and female. 7 For this in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will among yourselves on the way?" 34 But they were silent, join to his wife, 8 and the two will become one flesh, for they had disputed with one another on the way about so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 What who was the greatest. 35 He sat down and called the therefore God has joined together, let no man separate." twelve; and he said to them, "If any man wants to be 10 In the house, his disciples asked him again about the first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all." 36 He same matter. 11 He said to them, "Whoever divorces his took a little child and set him in the middle of them. wife and marries another commits adultery against her. Taking him in his arms, he said to them, 37 "Whoever 12 If a woman herself divorces her husband and marries receives one such little child in my name receives me; another, she commits adultery." 13 They were bringing and whoever receives me, doesn't receive me, but him to him little children, that he should touch them, but the who sent me." 38 John said to him, "Teacher, we saw disciples rebuked those who were bringing them. 14 someone who doesn't follow us casting out demons in But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation vour name; and we forbade him, because he doesn't and said to them, "Allow the little children to come to follow us." 39 But Jesus said, "Don't forbid him, for there me! Don't forbid them, for God's Kingdom belongs to is no one who will do a mighty work in my name and such as these. 15 Most certainly I tell you, whoever be able quickly to speak evil of me. 40 For whoever will not receive God's Kingdom like a little child, he will is not against us is on our side. 41 For whoever will in no way enter into it." 16 He took them in his arms give you a cup of water to drink in my name because and blessed them, laying his hands on them. 17 As he you are Christ's, most certainly I tell you, he will in no was going out into the way, one ran to him, knelt before way lose his reward. 42 "Whoever will cause one of him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would that I may inherit eternal life?" (aiōnios g166) 18 Jesus be better for him if he were thrown into the sea with a said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good millstone hung around his neck. 43 If your hand causes except one—God. 19 You know the commandments: you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter 'Do not murder,' 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not steal,' into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to 'Do not give false testimony,' 'Do not defraud,' 'Honor go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire, (Geenna your father and mother." 20 He said to him, "Teacher, g1067) 44 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is I have observed all these things from my youth." 21 not guenched.' 45 If your foot causes you to stumble, Jesus looking at him loved him, and said to him, "One cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame, rather thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have and give than having your two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and the fire that will never be guenched— (Geenna g1067) come, follow me, taking up the cross." 22 But his face 46 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful, for he quenched.' 47 If your eye causes you to stumble, throw was one who had great possessions. 23 Jesus looked it out. It is better for you to enter into God's Kingdom around and said to his disciples, "How difficult it is for with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast those who have riches to enter into God's Kingdom!" into the Gehenna of fire, (Geenna g1067) 48 'where their 24 The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' 49 For answered again, "Children, how hard it is for those who everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will trust in riches to enter into God's Kingdom! 25 It is be seasoned with salt. 50 Salt is good, but if the salt easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have for a rich man to enter into God's Kingdom." 26 They salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another." were exceedingly astonished, saying to him, "Then who

The blind man said to him, "Rabboni, who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or that I may see again." 52 Jesus said to him, "Go your mother, or wife, or children, or land, for my sake, and for way. Your faith has made you well." (aion g165, aionios g166) 31 But many who are first will be last, and the last first." 32 They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to him. 33 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles. 34 They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him. On the third day he will rise again." 35 James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came near to him, saying, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask." 36 He said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?" 37 They said to him, "Grant to us that we may sit, one at your right hand and one at your left hand, in your glory." 38 But Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" 39 They said to him, "We are able." Jesus said to them, "You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and you shall be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; 40 but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared." 41 When the ten heard it, they began to be indignant toward James and John. 42 Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that they who are recognized as rulers over the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. 43 But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you shall be your servant. 44 Whoever of you wants to become first among you shall be bondservant of all. 45 For the Son of Man also came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." 46 They came to Jericho. As he went out from Jericho with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road. 47 When he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!" 48 Many rebuked him, that he should be quiet, but he cried out much more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!" 49 Jesus stood still and said, "Call him." They called the blind

When they came near to Jerusalem, to Bethsphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples 2 and said to them, "Go your way into the village that is opposite you. Immediately as you enter into it, you will find a young donkey tied, on which no one has sat. Until him and bring him. 3 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs him;' and immediately he will send him back here." 4 They went away, and found a young donkey tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied him. 5 Some of those who stood there asked them, "What are you doing, untying the young donkey?" 6 They said to them just as Jesus had said, and they let them go. 7 They brought the young donkey to Jesus and threw their garments on it, and Jesus sat on it. 8 Many spread their garments on the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. 9 Those who went in front and those who followed cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! 10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!" 11 Jesus entered into the temple in Jerusalem. When he had looked around at everything, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve. 12 The next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry. 13 Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came to see if perhaps he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. 14 Jesus told it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" and his disciples heard it. (aion g165) 15 They came to Jerusalem, and Jesus entered into the temple and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers' tables and the seats of those who sold the doves. 16 He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple. 17 He taught, saying to them, "Isn't it written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have made it a den of robbers!" 18 The chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him. For they feared him, because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching. 19 When evening came, he went out of the city. 20 As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. 21 Peter, remembering, said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which you cursed has Pharisees and the Herodians to him, that they might trap by what authority I do these things."

 $oldsymbol{12}$ He began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the wine press, built a tower, rented it out to a farmer, and went into another country. 2 When it was time, he sent a servant to the farmer to get from the farmer his share of the fruit of the vineyard. 3 They took him, beat him, and sent him away empty. 4 Again, he sent another servant to them; and they threw stones at him, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated. 5 Again he sent another, and they killed him, and many others, beating some, and killing some. 6 Therefore still having one, his beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 7 But those farmers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8 They took him, killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. 9 What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others. 10 Haven't you even read this Scripture: 'The stone which the builders rejected was made the head of the corner. 11 This was from the Lord. It is marvelous in our eyes'?" 12 They tried to seize him, but they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spoke the parable against them. They left him and went away. 13 They sent some of the

Is it lawful to pay taxes to says is happening, he shall have whatever he says. Caesar, or not? 15 Shall we give, or shall we not give?" 24 Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do and ask for, believe that you have received them, and you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it." 16 you shall have them. 25 Whenever you stand praying, They brought it. He said to them, "Whose is this image forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that and inscription?" They said to him, "Caesar's." 17 Jesus your Father, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your answered them, "Render to Caesar the things that are transgressions. 26 But if you do not forgive, neither will Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." They your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions." 27 marveled greatly at him. 18 Some Sadducees, who They came again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking say that there is no resurrection, came to him. They in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the asked him, saying, 19 "Teacher, Moses wrote to us, elders came to him, 28 and they began saying to him, 'If a man's brother dies and leaves a wife behind him, "By what authority do you do these things? Or who and leaves no children, that his brother should take his gave you this authority to do these things?" 29 Jesus wife and raise up offspring for his brother.' 20 There said to them, "I will ask you one question. Answer me, were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. left no offspring. 21 The second took her, and died, 30 The baptism of John—was it from heaven, or from leaving no children behind him. The third likewise; 22 men? Answer me." 31 They reasoned with themselves, and the seven took her and left no children. Last of all saying, "If we should say, 'From heaven;' he will say, the woman also died. 23 In the resurrection, when they 'Why then did you not believe him?' 32 If we should say, rise, whose wife will she be of them? For the seven 'From men'"-they feared the people, for all held John had her as a wife." 24 Jesus answered them, "Isn't this to really be a prophet. 33 They answered Jesus, "We because you are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures don't know." Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you nor the power of God? 25 For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. 26 But about the dead, that they are raised, haven't you read in the book of Moses about the Bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? 27 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken." 28 One of the scribes came and heard them questioning together, and knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, "Which commandment is the greatest of all?" 29 Jesus answered, "The greatest is: 'Hear, Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one. 30 You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment, 31 The second is like this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." 32 The scribe said to him, "Truly, teacher, you have said well that he is one, and there is none other but he; 33 and to love him with all the heart, with all the understanding, all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." 34 When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from God's Kingdom." No one dared ask him any question after that. 35 Jesus responded, as he taught in the temple,

"How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the son where it ought not" (let the reader understand), "then let 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until him who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in. I make your enemies the footstool of your feet." 37 to take anything out of his house. 16 Let him who is in Therefore David himself calls him Lord, so how can he the field not return back to take his cloak. 17 But woe to be his son?" The common people heard him gladly. 38 those who are with child and to those who nurse babies In his teaching he said to them, "Beware of the scribes," in those days! 18 Pray that your flight won't be in the who like to walk in long robes, and to get greetings in winter. 19 For in those days there will be oppression, the marketplaces, 39 and to get the best seats in the such as there has not been the like from the beginning synagogues and the best places at feasts, 40 those of the creation which God created until now, and never who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make will be. 20 Unless the Lord had shortened the days, no long prayers. 13 As he went out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Teacher, see what kind of stones and what kind of buildings!" 2 Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone on another, which will not be thrown down." 3 As he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, 4 "Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are all about to be fulfilled?" 5 Jesus, answering, began to tell them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray. 6 For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he!' and will lead many astray. 7 "When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don't be troubled. For those must happen, but the end is not yet. 8 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines and troubles. These things are the beginning of birth pains. 9 "But watch yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils. You will be beaten in synagogues. You will stand before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them. 10 The Good News must first be preached to all the nations. 11 When they lead you away and deliver you up, don't be anxious beforehand or premeditate what you will say, but say whatever will be given you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. 12 "Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents and cause

Many who days. 21 Then if anyone tells you, 'Look, here is the not give its light, 25 the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken. 26 Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. 27 Then he will send out his angels, and will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky. 28 "Now from the fig tree, learn this parable. When the branch has now become tender and produces its leaves, you know that the summer is near: 29 even so you also, when you see these things coming to pass, know that it is near, at the doors. 30 Most certainly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. 31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 32 "But of that day or that hour no one knows-not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. 33 Watch, keep alert, and pray; for you don't know when the time is. 34 "It is like a man traveling to another country, having left his house and given authority to his servants, and to each one his work, and also commanded the doorkeeper to keep watch. 35 Watch therefore, for you don't know when the lord of the house is coming—whether at evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning; 36 lest, coming suddenly, he might find you sleeping. 37 What I tell you, I tell all: Watch!"

1 1 It was now two days before the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might seize him by deception and kill him. 2 For they said, "Not during the them to be put to death. 13 You will be hated by all men feast, because there might be a riot among the people." for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end will 3 While he was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the be saved. 14 "But when you see the abomination of leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came having an desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard—very costly. She broke the jar and poured it over his head. 4 But there be scattered.' 28 However, after I am raised up. I will were some who were indignant among themselves, go before you into Galilee." 29 But Peter said to him, saying, "Why has this ointment been wasted? 5 For "Although all will be offended, yet I will not." 30 Jesus this might have been sold for more than three hundred said to him, "Most certainly I tell you that you today, her. 6 But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why do you deny me three times." 31 But he spoke all the more, "If I trouble her? She has done a good work for me. 7 For must die with you, I will not deny you." They all said the you always have the poor with you, and whenever you same thing. 32 They came to a place which was named want to, you can do them good; but you will not always Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, "Sit here while have me. 8 She has done what she could. She has I pray." 33 He took with him Peter, James, and John, anointed my body beforehand for the burying. 9 Most and began to be greatly troubled and distressed. 34 He certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News may be said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even preached throughout the whole world, that which this to death. But they cried out 59 Even so, their testimony didn't agree. 60 The high exceedingly, "Crucify him!" 15 Pilate, wishing to please priest stood up in the middle, and asked Jesus, "Have the multitude, released Barabbas to them, and handed you no answer? What is it which these testify against over Jesus, when he had flogged him, to be crucified. you?" 61 But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. 16 The soldiers led him away within the court, which Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Christ, is the Praetorium; and they called together the whole the Son of the Blessed?" 62 Jesus said, "I am. You will cohort. 17 They clothed him with purple; and weaving a see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, crown of thorns, they put it on him. 18 They began to and coming with the clouds of the sky." 63 The high salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 19 They struck his priest tore his clothes and said, "What further need have head with a reed and spat on him, and bowing their we of witnesses? 64 You have heard the blasphemy! knees, did homage to him. 20 When they had mocked What do you think?" They all condemned him to be him, they took the purple cloak off him, and put his worthy of death. 65 Some began to spit on him, and to own garments on him. They led him out to crucify him. cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, 21 They compelled one passing by, coming from the "Prophesy!" The officers struck him with the palms of country, Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and their hands. 66 As Peter was in the courtyard below, Rufus, to go with them that he might bear his cross. 22 one of the maids of the high priest came, 67 and seeing. They brought him to the place called Golgotha, which Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, is, being interpreted, "The place of a skull." 23 They "You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus!" 68 But he offered him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but he didn't denied it, saving, "I neither know nor understand what take it, 24 Crucifying him, they parted his garments you are saying." He went out on the porch, and the among them, casting lots on them, what each should rooster crowed. 69 The maid saw him and began again take. 25 It was the third hour when they crucified him. to tell those who stood by, "This is one of them." 70 But 26 The superscription of his accusation was written over he again denied it. After a little while again those who him: "THE KING OF THE JEWS." 27 With him they stood by said to Peter, "You truly are one of them, for crucified two robbers, one on his right hand, and one you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it." 71 But on his left. 28 The Scripture was fulfilled which says, he began to curse and to swear, "I don't know this man "He was counted with transgressors." 29 Those who of whom you speak!" 72 The rooster crowed the second passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads and time. Peter remembered the words that Jesus said to saying, "Ha! You who destroy the temple and build it him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me in three days, 30 save yourself, and come down from three times." When he thought about that, he wept.

15 Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders, scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, bound Jesus, carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. 2 Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered, "So you say." 3 The chief priests accused him of many things. 4 Pilate again asked him. "Have you no answer? See how many things they testify against you!" 5 But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate marveled. 6 Now at the feast he used to release to them one prisoner, whomever they asked of him. 7 There was one called Barabbas, bound with his fellow insurgents, men who in the insurrection had committed murder. 8 The multitude, crying aloud, began to ask him to do as he always did for them. 9 Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you the cross!" 31 Likewise, also the chief priests mocking among themselves with the scribes said, "He saved others. He can't save himself. 32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe him." Those who were crucified with him also insulted him. 33 When the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. 34 At the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" 35 Some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, he is calling Elijah." 36 One ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Let him be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to take him down." 37 Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit. 38 The veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because 39 When the centurion, who stood by opposite him, saw they didn't believe those who had seen him after he that he cried out like this and breathed his last, he said, had risen. 15 He said to them, "Go into all the world "Truly this man was the Son of God!" 40 There were also and preach the Good News to the whole creation. 16 women watching from afar, among whom were both He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James the who disbelieves will be condemned. 17 These signs will less and of Joses, and Salome; 41 who, when he was in accompany those who believe: in my name they will Galilee, followed him and served him; and many other cast out demons; they will speak with new languages; women who came up with him to Jerusalem. 42 When 18 they will take up serpents; and if they drink any evening had now come, because it was the Preparation deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, 43 Joseph hands on the sick, and they will recover." 19 So then the of Arimathaea, a prominent council member who also Lord, after he had spoken to them, was received up into himself was looking for God's Kingdom, came. He boldly heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. 20 They went in to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body. 44 Pilate went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working was surprised to hear that he was already dead; and with them and confirming the word by the signs that summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he followed. Amen. had been dead long. 45 When he found out from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. 46 He bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock. He rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47 Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses, saw where he was laid.

16 When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene. and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. 2 Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. 3 They were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?" 4 for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back. 5 Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe; and they were amazed. 6 He said to them, "Don't be amazed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him! 7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see him, as he said to you." 8 They went out, and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come on them. They said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid. 9 (note: The most reliable and earliest manuscripts do not include Mark 16:9-20.) Now when he had risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. 10 She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept. 11 When they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they disbelieved. 12 After these things he was revealed in another form to two of them as they walked, on their way into the country. 13 They went away and told it to the rest. They didn't believe them, either, 14 Afterward he was revealed to the eleven themselves as they sat at the table; and he rebuked

1 Since many have undertaken to set in order a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us. 2 even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us, 3 it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus: 4 that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed. 5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the priestly division of Abijah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. 6 They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. 7 But they had no child. because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were well advanced in years. 8 Now while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his division 9 according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. 10 The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense. 11 An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zacharias, because your request has been heard. Your wife. Elizabeth, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. 14 You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth. 15 For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. 16 He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God. 17 He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to prepare a people prepared for the Lord," 18 Zacharias said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years." 19 The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. 20 Behold, you will be silent and not able to speak until the day that these things will happen, because you didn't believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time." 21 The people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marveled that he delayed in the temple. 22 When he came out, he could not speak to them. They perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute. 23 When the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house. 24 After these days Elizabeth his wife

conceived, and she hid herself five months, saving, 25 "Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my reproach among men," 26 Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth. 27 to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph, of David's house. The virgin's name was Mary. 28 Having come in, the angel said to her, "Rejoice, you highly favored one! The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women!" 29 But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saving, and considered what kind of salutation this might be. 30 The angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. 31 Behold, you will conceive in your womb and give birth to a son, and shall name him 'Jesus.' 32 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David. 33 and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will be no end to his Kingdom." (aion g165) 34 Mary said to the angel. "How can this be. seeing I am a virgin?" 35 The angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born from you will be called the Son of God. 36 Behold, Elizabeth your relative also has conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. 37 For nothing spoken by God is impossible." 38 Mary said, "Behold, the servant of the Lord: let it be done to me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her. 39 Mary grose in those days and went into the hill country with haste. into a city of Judah. 40 and entered into the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth. 41 When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. 42 She called out with a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! 43 Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44 For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy! 45 Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord!" 46 Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord. 47 My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior, 48 for he has looked at the humble state of his servant. For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed. 49 For he who is mighty has done great things for me. Holy is his name. 50 His mercy is for generations and generations on those who fear him. 51 He has shown strength with his arm. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. 52 He has put down princes from their thrones, and has exalted the lowly. 53 He has filled the hungry with good

They all marveled. 64 His Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the mouth was opened immediately and his tongue freed, heavenly army praising God and saying, 14 "Glory to and he spoke, blessing God. 65 Fear came on all who God in the highest, on earth peace, good will toward lived around them, and all these sayings were talked men." 15 When the angels went away from them into about throughout all the hill country of Judea. 66 All who the sky, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, "What Bethlehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, then will this child be?" This man was into the way of peace." 80 The child was growing and righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of becoming strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. 26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27 He came in the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the child, Jesus, that they might do concerning him according to the custom of the law, 28 then he received him into his arms and blessed God, and said, 29 "Now you are releasing your servant, Master, according to your word, in peace; 30 for my eyes have seen your salvation. 31 which you have prepared before the face came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness, 3 of all peoples; 32 a light for revelation to the nations. He came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching and the glory of your people Israel." 33 Joseph and the baptism of repentance for remission of sins. 4 As it his mother were marveling at the things which were is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, spoken concerning him. 34 Simeon blessed them, and "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make ready said to Mary, his mother, "Behold, this child is appointed the way of the Lord. He who has food, growing, and was becoming strong in spirit, being filled let him do likewise." 12 Tax collectors also came to be with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him. 41 baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what must we His parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast do?" 13 He said to them, "Collect no more than that of the Passover. 42 When he was twelve years old, which is appointed to you." 14 Soldiers also asked him, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of saying, "What about us? What must we do?" He said to the feast; 43 and when they had fulfilled the days, as them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages." 15 As Jerusalem. Joseph and his mother didn't know it, 44 but the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he was and acquaintances. 45 When they didn't find him, they you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the returned to Jerusalem, looking for him. 46 After three strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. Behold, your father news to the people, 19 but Herod the tetrarch, being and I were anxiously looking for you." 49 He said to reproved by him for Herodias, his brother's wife, and for them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know all the evil things which Herod had done, 20 added this that I must be in my Father's house?" 50 They didn't also to them all, that he shut up John in prison. 21 Now understand the saying which he spoke to them. 51 And when all the people were baptized, Jesus also had been he went down with them and came to Nazareth. He was baptized and was praying. The sky was opened. 22 subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form like a in her heart. 52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and dove on him; and a voice came out of the sky, saying stature, and in favor with God and men.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God journey; and they looked for him among their relatives the Christ, 16 John answered them all, "I indeed baptize "You are my beloved Son. In you I am well pleased." 23 Jesus himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years old, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, 24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, 25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, 26 the son of ▲ Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness 2 for forty days, being tempted by the devil. He ate nothing in those days. Afterward, when they were completed, he was hungry. 3 The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread." 4 Jesus answered him, saying, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God." 5 The devil, leading him up on a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. 6 The devil said to him, "I will give you all this authority and their glory, for it has been delivered to me, and I give it to whomever I want. 7 If you therefore will worship before me, it will all be yours." 8 Jesus answered him, "Get behind me, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only." 9 He led him to Jerusalem and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here, 10 for it is written, 'He will put his angels in charge of you, to guard you;' 11 and, 'On their hands they will bear you up, lest perhaps you dash your foot against a stone." 12 Jesus answering, said to him, "It has been said, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God." 13 When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him until another time. 14 Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and news about him spread through all the surrounding area. 15 He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all. 16 He came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. He of Er, 29 the son of Jose, the son of Eliezer, the son of has sent me to heal the broken hearted, to proclaim Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, 30 the son of release to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind, Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of to deliver those who are crushed, 19 and to proclaim Jonan, the son of Eliakim, 31 the son of Melea, the son the acceptable year of the Lord." 20 He closed the of Menan, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The son of David, 32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. 21 son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, 33 He began to tell them, "Today, this Scripture has been the son of Amminadab, the son of Aram, the son of fulfilled in your hearing." 22 All testified about him and Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, 34 the son wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son his mouth; and they said, "Isn't this Joseph's son?" 23 of Terah, the son of Nahor, 35 the son of Serug, the son He said to them, "Doubtless you will tell me this proverb, of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done Shelah, 36 the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the at Capernaum, do also here in your hometown." 24 He son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, 37 said, "Most certainly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of in his hometown. 25 But truly I tell you, there were many Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan, 38 the widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land. 26 Elijah was sent to none of them, except to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. 27 There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian." 28 They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue as they heard these things. 29 They rose up, threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff. 30 But he, passing through the middle of them, went his way. 31 He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. He was teaching them on the Sabbath day, 32 and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority. 33 In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 saying, "Ah! what have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God!" 35 Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down in the middle of them, he came out of him, having done him no harm. 36 Amazement came on all and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!" 37 News about him went out into every place of the surrounding region. 38 He rose up from the synagogue and entered into Simon's house. Simon's mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged him to help her. 39 He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. Immediately she rose up and served them. 40 When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various the Lord was with him to heal them, 18 Behold, men diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

5 Now while the multitude pressed on him and heard the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. 2 He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. 3 He entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat. 4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." 5 Simon answered him, "Master, we worked all night and caught nothing; but at your word I will let down the net." 6 When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking. 7 They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. 8 But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord." For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught; 10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid. From now on you will be catching people alive." 11 When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him. 12 While he was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and begged him, saving, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean." 13 He stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately the leprosy left him. 14 He commanded him to tell no one, "But go your way and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." 15 But the report concerning him spread much more, and great multitudes came together to hear and to be healed by him of their infirmities. 16 But he withdrew himself into the desert and prayed. 17 On one of those days, he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. Who can forgive wouldn't go away from them. 43 But he said to them, "I sins, but God alone?" 22 But Jesus, perceiving their must preach the good news of God's Kingdom to the thoughts, answered them, "Why are you reasoning so in other cities also. For this reason I have been sent." 44 your hearts? 23 Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise and walk'? 24 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," he said to the paralyzed man, "I tell you, arise, take up your cot, and go to your house." 25 Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God. 26 Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today." 27 After these things he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow me!" 28 He left everything, and rose up and followed him. 29 Levi made a great feast for him in his house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. 30 Their scribes and the Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?" 31 Jesus answered them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. 32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance." 33 They said to him, "Why do John's disciples often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?" 34 He said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? 35 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days." 36 He also told a parable to them. "No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old garment, or else he will tear the new, and also the piece from the new will not match the old. 37 No one puts new wine into old wine skins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled and the skins will be destroyed. 38 But new wine must be put into fresh wine skins, and both are preserved. 39 No man having drunk old wine immediately desires new, for he says, 'The old is better."

7 After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum. 2 A certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death. 3 When he heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and save his servant. 4 When they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to do this for him, 5 for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us." 6 Jesus went with them. When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof. 7 Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed. 8 For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another, 'Come!' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." 9 When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel." 10 Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well. 11 Soon afterwards, he went to a city called Nain. Many of his disciples, along with a great multitude, went with him. 12 Now when he came near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only born son of his mother, and she was a widow. Many people of the city were with her. 13 When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Don't cry." 14 He came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" 15 He who was dead sat up and began to speak. Then he gave him to his mother. 16 Fear took hold of all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and, "God has visited his people!" 17 This report went out concerning him in the whole of Judea and in all the surrounding region. 18 The disciples of John told him about all these things. 19 John, calling to himself two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another?" 20 When the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptizer has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?" 21 In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind he gave sight. 22 Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead

which the stream broke, and immediately it fell; and the to them. 23 Blessed is he who finds no occasion for stumbling in me." 24 When John's messengers had departed, he began to tell the multitudes about John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 25 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed and live delicately are in kings' courts. 26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. 27 This is he of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.' 28 "For I tell you, among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptizer; yet he who is least in God's Kingdom is greater than he." 29 When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they declared God to be just, having been baptized with John's baptism. 30 But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God, not being baptized by him themselves. 31 "To what then should I compare the people of this generation? What are they like? 32 They are like children who sit in the marketplace and call to one another, saying, 'We piped to you, and you didn't dance. We mourned, and you didn't weep.' 33 For John the Baptizer came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' 34 The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' 35 Wisdom is justified by all her children." 36 One of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered into the Pharisee's house and sat at the table. 37 Behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that he was reclining in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment. 38 Standing behind at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. 39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what kind of woman this is who touches him, that she is a sinner." 40 Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you." He said, "Teacher, say on." 41 "A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. 42 When they couldn't pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?" 43 Simon answered, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most." He said to him, "You have judged correctly." 44 Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head. 45

You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever faith has saved you. Go in peace."

R Soon afterwards, he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of God's Kingdom. With him were the twelve, 2 and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; 3 and Joanna, the wife of Chuzas, Herod's steward; Susanna; and many others who served them from their possessions. 4 When a great multitude came together and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable: 5 "The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it. 6 Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. 7 Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it and choked it. 8 Other fell into the good ground and grew and produced one hundred times as much fruit." As he said these things, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!" 9 Then his disciples asked him, "What does this parable mean?" 10 He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of God's Kingdom, but to the rest it is given in parables, that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.' 11 "Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. 12 Those along the road are those who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. 13 Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root. They believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation. 14 What fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life; and they bring no fruit to maturity. 15 Those in the good ground, these are those who with an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and produce fruit with perseverance. 16 "No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light. 17 For nothing is hidden that will not be revealed, nor anything secret that will not be known and come to light. 18 Be careful therefore how you hear.

But one to crowd. 20 Some people told him, "Your mother and your whom little is forgiven, loves little." 48 He said to her, brothers stand outside, desiring to see you." 21 But "Your sins are forgiven." 49 Those who sat at the table he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are with him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who these who hear the word of God and do it." 22 Now even forgives sins?" 50 He said to the woman, "Your on one of those days, he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out. 23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water. 24 They came to him and awoke him, saying, "Master, Master, we are dying!" He awoke and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water; then they ceased, and it was calm. 25 He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid, they marveled, saying to one another, "Who is this then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?" 26 Then they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee. 27 When Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city who had demons for a long time met him. He wore no clothes, and didn't live in a house, but in the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torment me!" 29 For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bonds apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert. 30 Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him. 31 They begged him that he would not command them to go into the abyss. (Abyssos g12) 32 Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. Then he allowed them. 33 The demons came out of the man and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned. 34 When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country. 35 People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. 36 Those who saw it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was healed. 37 All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. Then he entered into the boat and returned. 38 But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, everywhere. 7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that 39 "Return to your house, and declare what great things was done by him; and he was very perplexed, because God has done for you." He went his way, proclaiming it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had 8 and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others done for him. 40 When Jesus returned, the multitude that one of the old prophets had risen again. 9 Herod welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. 41 said, "I beheaded John, but who is this about whom Behold, a man named Jairus came. He was a ruler of I hear such things?" He sought to see him. 10 The the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus' feet and begged apostles, when they had returned, told him what things him to come into his house, 42 for he had an only born they had done. He took them and withdrew apart to daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. a desert region of a city called Bethsaida. 11 But the But as he went, the multitudes pressed against him. 43 multitudes, perceiving it, followed him. He welcomed A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who them, spoke to them of God's Kingdom, and he cured had spent all her living on physicians and could not be those who needed healing. 12 The day began to wear healed by any, 44 came behind him and touched the away; and the twelve came and said to him, "Send the fringe of his cloak. Immediately the flow of her blood multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding stopped. 45 Jesus said, "Who touched me?" When all villages and farms and lodge and get food, for we are denied it, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the here in a deserted place." 13 But he said to them, "You multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, "Who give them something to eat." They said, "We have no touched me?" 46 But Jesus said, "Someone did touch more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me." 47 go and buy food for all these people." 14 For they When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she were about five thousand men. He said to his disciples, came trembling; and falling down before him declared to "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each." him in the presence of all the people the reason why she 15 They did so, and made them all sit down. 16 He had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up 48 He said to her, "Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has to the sky, he blessed them, broke them, and gave made you well. Go in peace." 49 While he still spoke, them to the disciples to set before the multitude. 17 one from the ruler of the synagogue's house came, They ate and were all filled. They gathered up twelve saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Don't trouble baskets of broken pieces that were left over. 18 As he the Teacher." 50 But Jesus hearing it, answered him, was praying alone, the disciples were near him, and he "Don't be afraid. Only believe, and she will be healed." asked them, "Who do the multitudes say that I am?" 19 51 When he came to the house, he didn't allow anyone They answered, "'John the Baptizer,' but others say, to enter in, except Peter, John, James, the father of 'Elijah,' and others, that one of the old prophets has the child, and her mother. 52 All were weeping and risen again." 20 He said to them, "But who do you say mourning her, but he said, "Don't weep. She isn't dead, that I am?" Peter answered, "The Christ of God." 21 But but sleeping." 53 They were ridiculing him, knowing he warned them and commanded them to tell this to that she was dead. 54 But he put them all outside, and no one, 22 saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many taking her by the hand, he called, saying, "Child, arise!" things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and 55 Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. • He called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. 2 He sent them out to preach God's Kingdom and to heal the sick. 3 He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey—no staffs, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money. Don't have two tunics each. 4 Into whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there. 5 As many as don't receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a testimony against them." 6 They departed and went throughout the villages, preaching the Good News and healing

24 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake will save it. 25 For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self? 26 For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. 27 But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here who will in no way taste of death until they see God's Kingdom." 28 About eight days after these sayings, he took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up onto the mountain to pray. 29 As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling. 30 Behold, two men were set toward Jerusalem, 54 When his disciples, James talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, 31 who and John, saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to appeared in glory and spoke of his departure, which command fire to come down from the sky and destroy he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 Now them, just as Elijah did?" 55 But he turned and rebuked Peter and those who were with him were heavy with them, "You don't know of what kind of spirit you are. 56 sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his For the Son of Man didn't come to destroy men's lives, glory, and the two men who stood with him. 33 As they but to save them." They went to another village. 57 As were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is they went on the way, a certain man said to him, "I want good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for to follow you wherever you go, Lord." 58 Jesus said to you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing him, "The foxes have holes and the birds of the sky have what he said. 34 While he said these things, a cloud nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head." came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid 59 He said to another, "Follow me!" But he said, "Lord, as they entered into the cloud. 35 A voice came out of allow me first to go and bury my father." 60 But Jesus the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but him!" 36 When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. you go and announce God's Kingdom." 61 Another also They were silent, and told no one in those days any of said, "I want to follow you, Lord, but first allow me to say the things which they had seen. 37 On the next day, good-bye to those who are at my house." 62 But Jesus when they had come down from the mountain, a great said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow multitude met him. 38 Behold, a man from the crowd and looking back, is fit for God's Kingdom." called out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only born child. 39 Behold, a spirit takes him, he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams; and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely. 40 I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they couldn't." 41 Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." 42 While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. 43 They were all astonished at the majesty of God. But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, 44 "Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men." 45 But they didn't understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying. 46 An argument arose among them about which of them was the greatest. 47 Jesus, perceiving the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by his side, 48 and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great." 49 John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow with us." 50 Jesus said to him, "Don't forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us." 51 It came to pass, when the days were near that he should be taken up, he intently set his face to go to Jerusalem 52 and sent messengers before his face. They went and entered into a village of the Samaritans, so as to prepare for him. 53 They didn't receive him, because he was traveling with his face

 ${f 10}$ Now after these things, the Lord also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead of him into every city and place where he was about to come. 2 Then he said to them, "The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he may send out laborers into his harvest. 3 Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. 4 Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way. 5 Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' 6 If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. 7 Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Don't go from house to house. 8 Into whatever city you enter and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you. 9 Heal the sick who are there and tell them, 'God's Kingdom has come near to you.' 10 But into whatever city you enter and they don't receive you, go out into its streets and say, 11 'Even the dust from your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that God's Kingdom has come near to you.' 12 I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city. 13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you. 15 You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades. (Hades g86) 16 Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me." 17 The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in fallen like lightning from heaven. 19 Behold, I give you don't you care that my sister left me to serve alone? authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over Ask her therefore to help me." 41 Jesus answered her, all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about you. 20 Nevertheless, don't rejoice in this, that the spirits many things, 42 but one thing is needed. Mary has are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from written in heaven." 21 In that same hour. Jesus rejoiced her." in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight." 22 Turning to the disciples, he said, "All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whomever the Son desires to reveal him." 23 Turning to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see, 24 for I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them." 25 Behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested him, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" (aionios g166) 26 He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" 27 He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind: and your neighbor as yourself." 28 He said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live." 29 But he, desiring to justify himself, asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" 30 Jesus answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31 By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32 In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion, 34 came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' 36 Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?" 37 He said, "He who showed mercy on him." Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise." 38 As they went on their way, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. 39 She had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet and heard his word. 40 But Martha was distracted with vour name!" 18 He said to them, "I saw Satan having much serving, and she came up to him, and said, "Lord,

When he finished praying in a certain place, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples." 2 He said to them, "When you pray, say, 'Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy. May your Kingdom come. May your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. 3 Give us day by day our daily bread. 4 Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us. Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one." 5 He said to them, "Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight and tell him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread. 6 for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,' 7 and he from within will answer and say, 'Don't bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give it to you'? 8 I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, vet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs. 9 "I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. 10 For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened. 11 "Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he won't give him a snake instead of a fish, will he? 12 Or if he asks for an egg, he won't give him a scorpion. will he? 13 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" 14 He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke; and the multitudes marveled. 15 But some of them said. "He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons." 16 Others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven. 17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. A house divided against itself falls. 18 If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul. 19 But if I cast out demons by Beelzebul. by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. 20 But if I by God's finger cast out demons, then God's Kingdom has come to you. 21 "When the strong man, fully armed, guards his own dwelling, his goods are safe. 22 But when someone plunder. 23 "He who is not with me is against me. He them don't know it." 45 One of the lawyers answered spirit, when he has gone out of the man, passes through said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load men with will turn back to my house from which I came out.' 25 won't even lift one finger to help carry those burdens. When he returns, he finds it swept and put in order. 26 47 Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last consent to the works of your fathers. For they killed state of that man becomes worse than the first." 27 lt them, and you build their tombs. 49 Therefore also the came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and out of the multitude lifted up her voice and said to him, apostles; and some of them they will kill and persecute, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts 50 that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep this generation, 51 from the blood of Abel to the blood it." 29 When the multitudes were gathering together of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign generation. 52 Woe to you lawyers! For you took away of Jonah the prophet. 30 For even as Jonah became a the key of knowledge. You didn't enter in yourselves, sign to the Ninevites, so the Son of Man will also be to and those who were entering in, you hindered." 53 As he earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, one in something he might say, that they might accuse him. greater than Solomon is here. 32 The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, one greater than Jonah is here. 33 "No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, that those who come in may see the light. 34 The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body is also full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness. 35 Therefore see whether the light that is in you isn't darkness. 36 If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light." 37 Now as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him. He went in and sat at the table. 38 When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed himself before dinner. 39 The Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. 40 You foolish ones, didn't he who made the outside make the inside also? 41 But give for gifts to the needy those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you. 42 But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, but you bypass justice and God's love. You ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone. 43 Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces.

It sanctuary.' Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this this generation. 31 The Queen of the South will rise up said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees in the judgment with the men of this generation and began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out will condemn them, for she came from the ends of the of him, 54 lying in wait for him, and seeking to catch him

> 12 Meanwhile, when a multitude of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, he began to tell his disciples first of all, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 But there is nothing covered up that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be known. 3 Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops. 4 "I tell you, my friends, don't be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. 5 But I will warn you whom you should fear. Fear him who after he has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna. Yes, I tell you, fear him. (Geenna g1067) 6 "Aren't five sparrows sold for two assaria coins? Not one of them is forgotten by God. 7 But the very hairs of your head are all counted. Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows. 8 "I tell you, everyone who confesses me before men, the Son of Man will also confess before the angels of God: 9 but he who denies me in the presence of men will be denied in the presence of God's angels. 10 Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. 11 When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, don't be anxious how or what you will answer or what you will say; 12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that same hour what you must say." 13 One of the multitude said or third watch and finds them so. 39 But know this. to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance that if the master of the house had known in what hour with me." 14 But he said to him, "Man, who made me a the thief was coming, he would have watched and not judge or an arbitrator over you?" 15 He said to them, allowed his house to be broken into. 40 Therefore be "Beware! Keep yourselves from covetousness, for a ready also, for the Son of Man is coming in an hour man's life doesn't consist of the abundance of the things that you don't expect him." 41 Peter said to him, "Lord, which he possesses." 16 He spoke a parable to them, are you telling this parable to us, or to everybody?" saying, "The ground of a certain rich man produced 42 The Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise abundantly. 17 He reasoned within himself, saying, steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to 'What will I do, because I don't have room to store my give them their portion of food at the right times? 43 crops?' 18 He said, 'This is what I will do. I will pull down Blessed is that servant whom his lord will find doing so my barns, build bigger ones, and there I will store all my when he comes. 44 Truly I tell you that he will set him grain and my goods. 19 I will tell my soul, "Soul, you over all that he has. 45 But if that servant says in his have many goods laid up for many years. Take your heart, 'My lord delays his coming,' and begins to beat ease, eat, drink, and be merry." 20 "But God said to the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and him, 'You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of drink and to be drunken, 46 then the lord of that servant you. The things which you have prepared—whose will will come in a day when he isn't expecting him and in they be?' 21 So is he who lays up treasure for himself, an hour that he doesn't know, and will cut him in two, and is not rich toward God." 22 He said to his disciples, and place his portion with the unfaithful. 47 That servant "Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life, what who knew his lord's will, and didn't prepare nor do what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear. he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes, 48 but 23 Life is more than food, and the body is more than he who didn't know, and did things worthy of stripes, clothing. 24 Consider the ravens: they don't sow, they will be beaten with few stripes. To whomever much is don't reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God given, of him will much be required; and to whom much feeds them. Most certainly I tell you that he will dress himself, make them recline, and will come and serve them. 38 They will be blessed if he comes in the second

13 Now there were some present at the same time who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. 2 Jesus answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse

sinners than all the other Galileans, because they your presence, and you taught in our streets.' 27 He suffered such things? 3 I tell you, no, but unless you will say, 'I tell you, I don't know where you come from. repent, you will all perish in the same way. 4 Or those Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.' 28 There eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see them—do you think that they were worse offenders than Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in God's all the men who dwell in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, no, Kingdom, and yourselves being thrown outside. 29 They but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will way." 6 He spoke this parable. "A certain man had a fig sit down in God's Kingdom. 30 Behold, there are some tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit who are last who will be first, and there are some who on it and found none. 7 He said to the vine dresser, are first who will be last." 31 On that same day, some on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down! Why does go away, for Herod wants to kill you." 32 He said to this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. 9 If and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it day I complete my mission. 33 Nevertheless I must down." 10 He was teaching in one of the synagogues go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, on the Sabbath day. 11 Behold, there was a woman for it can't be that a prophet would perish outside of who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years. She was Jerusalem.' 34 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kills the bent over and could in no way straighten herself up. 12 prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How When Jesus saw her, he called her and said to her, often I wanted to gather your children together, like a "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity." 13 He laid hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and you his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight refused! 35 Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I and glorified God. 14 The ruler of the synagogue, being tell you, you will not see me until you say, 'Blessed is he indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, who comes in the name of the Lord!" said to the multitude, "There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!" 15 Therefore the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each one of you free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Sabbath and lead him away to water? 16 Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, be freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?" 17 As he said these things, all his adversaries were disappointed; and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him. 18 He said, "What is God's Kingdom like? To what shall I compare it? 19 It is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and put in his own garden. It grew and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky live in its branches." 20 Again he said, "To what shall I compare God's Kingdom? 21 It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened." 22 He went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem. 23 One said to him, "Lord, are they few who are saved?" He said to them, 24 "Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in and will not be able. 25 When once the master of the house has risen up and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' then he will answer and tell you, 'I don't know you or where you come from.' 26 Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in

> 1 \(\) When he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, they were watching him. 2 Behold, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of him. 3 Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" 4 But they were silent. He took him, and healed him, and let him go. 5 He answered them, "Which of you, if your son or an ox fell into a well, wouldn't immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?" 6 They couldn't answer him regarding these things. 7 He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them, 8 "When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, don't sit in the best seat, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by him, 9 and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, 'Make room for this person.' Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place. 10 But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. 11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." 12 He also said to the one who had invited him, "When you make a dinner or a supper, don't call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back. 13 But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, "Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep and or the blind; 14 and you will be blessed, because they lost one of them, wouldn't leave the ninety-nine in the don't have the resources to repay you. For you will be wilderness and go after the one that was lost, until he repaid in the resurrection of the righteous." 15 When found it? 5 When he has found it, he carries it on his one of those who sat at the table with him heard these shoulders, rejoicing. 6 When he comes home, he calls things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who will feast in together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, God's Kingdom!" 16 But he said to him, "A certain man 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was made a great supper, and he invited many people. 17 lost!' 7 I tell you that even so there will be more joy in He sent out his servant at supper time to tell those who heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninetywere invited, 'Come, for everything is ready now.' 18 nine righteous people who need no repentance. 8 "Or They all as one began to make excuses. "The first said what woman, if she had ten drachma coins, if she lost to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. one drachma coin, wouldn't light a lamp, sweep the Please have me excused.' 19 "Another said, 'I have house, and seek diligently until she found it? 9 When bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. she has found it, she calls together her friends and Please have me excused.' 20 "Another said, 'I have neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the married a wife, and therefore I can't come.' 21 "That drachma which I had lost!' 10 Even so, I tell you, there servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, sinner repenting." 11 He said, "A certain man had two 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and sons. 12 The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, bring in the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.' 22 "The give me my share of your property.' So he divided his servant said, 'Lord, it is done as you commanded, and livelihood between them. 13 Not many days after, the there is still room.' 23 "The lord said to the servant, 'Go younger son gathered all of this together and traveled out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to into a far country. There he wasted his property with come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I tell you riotous living. 14 When he had spent all of it, there arose that none of those men who were invited will taste of my a severe famine in that country, and he began to be supper. For many are called, but few are chosen." 25 in need. 15 He went and joined himself to one of the Now great multitudes were going with him. He turned citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to and said to them, 26 "If anyone comes to me, and feed pigs. 16 He wanted to fill his belly with the pods doesn't disregard his own father, mother, wife, children, that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any. 17 But when brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he can't he came to himself, he said, 'How many hired servants be my disciple. 27 Whoever doesn't bear his own cross of my father's have bread enough to spare, and I'm and come after me, can't be my disciple. 28 For which of dying with hunger! 18 I will get up and go to my father, you, desiring to build a tower, doesn't first sit down and and will tell him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it? and in your sight. 19 I am no more worthy to be called 29 Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation and isn't your son. Make me as one of your hired servants." 20 able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him, "He arose and came to his father. But while he was 30 saying, 'This man began to build and wasn't able to still far off, his father saw him and was moved with finish.' 31 Or what king, as he goes to encounter another compassion, and ran, fell on his neck, and kissed him. king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether 21 The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes heaven and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be against him with twenty thousand? 32 Or else, while the called your son.' 22 "But the father said to his servants, other is vet a great way off, he sends an envoy and 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on asks for conditions of peace. 33 So therefore, whoever his hand and sandals on his feet. 23 Bring the fattened of you who doesn't renounce all that he has, he can't be calf, kill it, and let's eat and celebrate; 24 for this, my my disciple. 34 "Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat son, was dead and is alive again. He was lost and is and tasteless, with what do you season it? 35 It is fit found.' Then they began to celebrate. 25 "Now his elder neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown son was in the field. As he came near to the house, out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

15 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming close to him to hear him. 2 The Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, "This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them." 3 He told them this parable: 4

he heard music and dancing. 26 He called one of the servants to him and asked what was going on. 27 He said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and healthy.' 28 But he was angry and would not go in. Therefore his father came out and begged him. 29 But he answered his father, 'Behold, these one tiny stroke of a pen in the law to fall. 18 "Everyone many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a who divorces his wife and marries another commits commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, adultery. He who marries one who is divorced from a that I might celebrate with my friends. 30 But when husband commits adultery. 19 "Now there was a certain this your son came, who has devoured your living with rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.' 31 "He living in luxury every day. 20 A certain beggar, named said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is alive again. He was lost, and is found."

All "Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery. He who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery. 19 "Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. 20 A certain beggar, named Lazarus, was taken to his gate, full of sores, 21 and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 The beggar died, and he was carried away

16 He also said to his disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a manager. An accusation was made to him that this man was wasting his possessions. 2 He called him, and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.' 3 "The manager said within himself, 'What will I do, seeing that my lord is taking away the management position from me? I don't have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg. 4 I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.' 5 Calling each one of his lord's debtors to him, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe to my lord?' 6 He said, 'A hundred batos of oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down guickly and write fifty.' 7 Then he said to another, 'How much do you owe?' He said, 'A hundred cors of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.' 8 "His lord commended the dishonest manager because he had done wisely, for the children of this world are, in their own generation, wiser than the children of the light. (aion g165) 9 I tell you, make for yourselves friends by means of unrighteous mammon, so that when you fail, they may receive you into the eternal tents. (aionios g166) 10 He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. He who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. 11 If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12 If you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? 13 No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will hold to one and despise the other. You aren't able to serve God and Mammon." 14 The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at him. 15 He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. 16 "The law and the prophets were until John. From that time the Good News of God's Kingdom is preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it. 17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for sores. 22 The beggar died, and he was carried away by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried. 23 In Hades, he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his bosom. (Hades g86) 24 He cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.' 25 "But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus, in the same way, bad things. But here he is now comforted and you are in anguish. 26 Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that no one may cross over from there to us.' 27 "He said, 'I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house- 28 for I have five brothers—that he may testify to them, so they won't also come into this place of torment.' 29 "But Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.' 30 "He said, 'No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' 31 "He said to him, 'If they don't listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead."

17 He said to the disciples, "It is impossible that no occasions of stumbling should come, but woe to him through whom they come! 2 It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3 Be careful. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him. If he repents. forgive him. 4 If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him." 5 The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." 6 The Lord said, "If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, 'Be uprooted and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. 7 But who is there among you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say when he comes in from the field, 'Come immediately and sit down at the table'? 8 Wouldn't he rather tell him, 'Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me while I eat and drink. Afterward you shall eat and drink'? 9 Does he thank that servant because he did the things

when you have done all the things that are commanded respect man. 3 A widow was in that city, and she often you, say, 'We are unworthy servants. We have done our came to him, saying, 'Defend me from my adversary!' 4 duty." 11 As he was on his way to Jerusalem, he was He wouldn't for a while; but afterward he said to himself, passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee. 12 'Though I neither fear God nor respect man, 5 yet As he entered into a certain village, ten men who were because this widow bothers me, I will defend her, or lepers met him, who stood at a distance. 13 They lifted else she will wear me out by her continual coming." 6 up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on The Lord said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge us!" 14 When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and says. 7 Won't God avenge his chosen ones who are show yourselves to the priests." As they went, they were crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises cleansed. 15 One of them, when he saw that he was patience with them? 8 I tell you that he will avenge them healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice. 16 quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, He fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks; and will he find faith on the earth?" 9 He also spoke this he was a Samaritan. 17 Jesus answered, "Weren't the parable to certain people who were convinced of their ten cleansed? But where are the nine? 18 Were there own righteousness, and who despised all others: 10 none found who returned to give glory to God, except "Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was this foreigner?" 19 Then he said to him, "Get up, and go a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector. 11 The your way. Your faith has healed you." 20 Being asked Pharisee stood and prayed by himself like this: 'God, I by the Pharisees when God's Kingdom would come, thank you that I am not like the rest of men: extortionists, he answered them, "God's Kingdom doesn't come with unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. observation; 21 neither will they say, 'Look, here!' or, 12 I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.' 13 'Look, there!' for behold, God's Kingdom is within you." But the tax collector, standing far away, wouldn't even 22 He said to the disciples, "The days will come when lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his chest, saying, you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' 14 I tell you, this and you will not see it. 23 They will tell you, 'Look, here!' man went down to his house justified rather than the or 'Look, there!' Don't go away or follow after them, 24 other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, for as the lightning, when it flashes out of one part under but he who humbles himself will be exalted." 15 They the sky, shines to another part under the sky, so will the were also bringing their babies to him, that he might Son of Man be in his day. 25 But first, he must suffer touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked many things and be rejected by this generation. 26 As it them. 16 Jesus summoned them, saying, "Allow the little was in the days of Noah, even so it will also be in the children to come to me, and don't hinder them, for God's days of the Son of Man. 27 They ate, they drank, they Kingdom belongs to such as these. 17 Most certainly, I married, and they were given in marriage until the day tell you, whoever doesn't receive God's Kingdom like a that Noah entered into the ship, and the flood came little child, he will in no way enter into it." 18 A certain and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise, even as it was ruler asked him, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, to inherit eternal life?" (aionios q166) 19 Jesus asked him, they sold, they planted, they built; 29 but in the day that "Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one: Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from God. 20 You know the commandments: 'Don't commit the sky and destroyed them all. 30 It will be the same adultery," 'Don't murder," 'Don't steal," 'Don't give false way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed. 31 In testimony," 'Honor your father and your mother." 21 He that day, he who will be on the housetop and his goods said, "I have observed all these things from my youth in the house, let him not go down to take them away. up." 22 When Jesus heard these things, he said to Let him who is in the field likewise not turn back. 32 him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have and Remember Lot's wife! 33 Whoever seeks to save his life distribute it to the poor. Then you will have treasure in loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it. 34 I tell heaven; then come, follow me." 23 But when he heard you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich. One will be taken and the other will be left. 35 There will 24 Jesus, seeing that he became very sad, said, "How be two grinding grain together. One will be taken and hard it is for those who have riches to enter into God's the other will be left." 37 They, answering, asked him, Kingdom! 25 For it is easier for a camel to enter in "Where, Lord?" He said to them, "Where the body is, through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into there the vultures will also be gathered together."

18 He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray and not give up, 2 saying, "There was that were commanded? I think not. 10 Even so you also. a judge in a certain city who didn't fear God and didn't God's Kingdom." 26 Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?" 27 But he said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God." 28

Peter said, "Look, we have left everything and followed and to return, 13 He called ten servants of his and gave you." 29 He said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, there them ten mina coins, and told them, 'Conduct business is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or until I come.' 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent parents, or children, for God's Kingdom's sake, 30 who an envoy after him, saying, 'We don't want this man will not receive many times more in this time, and in the to reign over us.' 15 "When he had come back again, world to come, eternal life." (aion g165, aionios g166) 31 having received the kingdom, he commanded these He took the twelve aside and said to them, "Behold, servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that to him, that he might know what they had gained by are written through the prophets concerning the Son of conducting business. 16 The first came before him, Man will be completed. 32 For he will be delivered up to saying, 'Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.' 17 the Gentiles, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and "He said to him, 'Well done, you good servant! Because spit on. 33 They will scourge and kill him. On the third you were found faithful with very little, you shall have day, he will rise again." 34 They understood none of authority over ten cities.' 18 "The second came, saving, these things. This saying was hidden from them, and 'Your mina, Lord, has made five minas.' 19 "So he said they didn't understand the things that were said. 35 to him, 'And you are to be over five cities.' 20 Another As he came near Jericho, a certain blind man sat by came, saying, 'Lord, behold, your mina, which I kept laid the road, begging. 36 Hearing a multitude going by, he away in a handkerchief, 21 for I feared you, because asked what this meant. 37 They told him that Jesus of you are an exacting man. You take up that which you Nazareth was passing by. 38 He cried out, "Jesus, you didn't lay down, and reap that which you didn't sow.' 22 son of David, have mercy on me!" 39 Those who led "He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth I will judge you, the way rebuked him, that he should be guiet; but he you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting cried out all the more, "You son of David, have mercy man, taking up that which I didn't lay down and reaping on me!" 40 Standing still, Jesus commanded him to be that which I didn't sow. 23 Then why didn't you deposit brought to him. When he had come near, he asked him, my money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have 41 "What do you want me to do?" He said, "Lord, that I earned interest on it?' 24 He said to those who stood may see again." 42 Jesus said to him, "Receive your by, 'Take the mina away from him and give it to him sight. Your faith has healed you." 43 Immediately he who has the ten minas.' 25 "They said to him, 'Lord, he received his sight and followed him, glorifying God. All has ten minas!' 26 'For I tell you that to everyone who the people, when they saw it, praised God.

1 Q He entered and was passing through Jericho. 2 There was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. 3 He was trying to see who Jesus was, and couldn't because of the crowd, because he was short. 4 He ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was going to pass that way. 5 When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house." 6 He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully. 7 When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner." 8 Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much." 9 Jesus said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost." 11 As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that God's Kingdom would be revealed immediately. 12 He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom has, will more be given; but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him. 27 But bring those enemies of mine who didn't want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me." 28 Having said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. 29 When he came near to Bethsphage and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, he sent two of his disciples, 30 saying, "Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, which no man has ever sat upon. Untie it and bring it. 31 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say to him: 'The Lord needs it.'" 32 Those who were sent went away and found things just as he had told them. 33 As they were untying the colt. its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" 34 They said, "The Lord needs it." 35 Then they brought it to Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt and sat Jesus on them. 36 As he went, they spread their cloaks on the road. 37 As he was now getting near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen, 38 saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!" 39 Some of the Pharisees from the multitude said to him,

"Teacher, rebuke your disciples!" 40 He answered them, 'The stone which the builders rejected was made the people hung on to every word that he said.

20 On one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the Good News, the priests and scribes came to him with the elders. 2 They asked him, "Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?" 3 He answered them, "I also will ask you one question. Tell me: 4 the baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?" 5 They reasoned with themselves, saving, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why didn't you believe him?' 6 But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet." 7 They answered that they didn't know where it was from. 8 Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things." 9 He began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard and rented it out to some farmers, and went into another country for a long time. 10 At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him and sent him away empty. 11 He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. 12 He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him and threw him out. 13 The lord of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that seeing him, they will respect him.' 14 "But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.' 15 Then they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come and destroy these farmers. and will give the vineyard to others." When they heard that, they said, "May that never be!" 17 But he looked at them and said, "Then what is this that is written,

"I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry chief cornerstone"? 18 Everyone who falls on that stone out." 41 When he came near, he saw the city and wept will be broken to pieces, but it will crush whomever it over it, 42 saying, "If you, even you, had known today falls on to dust." 19 The chief priests and the scribes the things which belong to your peace! But now, they sought to lay hands on him that very hour, but they are hidden from your eyes. 43 For the days will come feared the people—for they knew he had spoken this on you when your enemies will throw up a barricade parable against them. 20 They watched him and sent against you, surround you, hem you in on every side, out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they 44 and will dash you and your children within you to the might trap him in something he said, so as to deliver ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, him up to the power and authority of the governor. 21 because you didn't know the time of your visitation." They asked him, "Teacher, we know that you say and 45 He entered into the temple and began to drive out teach what is right, and aren't partial to anyone, but those who bought and sold in it, 46 saying to them, "It is truly teach the way of God. 22 Is it lawful for us to pay written, 'My house is a house of prayer,' but you have taxes to Caesar, or not?" 23 But he perceived their made it a 'den of robbers'!" 47 He was teaching daily in craftiness, and said to them, "Why do you test me? the temple, but the chief priests, the scribes, and the 24 Show me a denarius. They answered, "Caesar's." 25 He said to 48 They couldn't find what they might do, for all the them, "Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." 26 They weren't able to trap him in his words before the people. They marveled at his answer and were silent. 27 Some of the Sadducees came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection. 28 They asked him, "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies having a wife, and he is childless, his brother should take the wife and raise up children for his brother. 29 There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless. 30 The second took her as wife, and he died childless. 31 The third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died. 32 Afterward the woman also died. 33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them will she be? For the seven had her as a wife." 34 Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry and are given in marriage. (aion g165) 35 But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. (aion g165) 36 For they can't die any more, for they are like the angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord 'The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' 38 Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him." 39 Some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you speak well." 40 They didn't dare to ask him any more questions. 41 He said to them, "Why do they say that the Christ is David's son? 42 David himself says in the book of Psalms, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, 43 until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet." 44 "David therefore calls him Lord, so how is he his son?" 45 In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples, 46 "Beware of those scribes who like to walk in long robes. and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

71 He looked up and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury. 2 He saw a certain poor widow casting in two small brass coins. 3 He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them, 4 for all these put in gifts for God from their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had to live on." 5 As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, he said, 6 "As for these things which you see, the days will come in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down." 7 They asked him, "Teacher, so when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?" 8 He said, "Watch out that you don't get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and, 'The time is at hand.' Therefore don't follow them. 9 When you hear of wars and disturbances, don't be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won't come immediately." 10 Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. 11 There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven. 12 But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake. therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how

"See the fig tree and all the trees. 30 When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near. 31 Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that God's Kingdom is near. 32 Most certainly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished. 33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away. 34 "So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly. 35 For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth. 36 Therefore be watchful all the time, praying that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man." 37 Every day Jesus was teaching in the temple, and every night he would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet. 38 All the people came early in the morning to him in the temple to hear him.

22 Now the feast of unleavened bread, which is called the Passover, was approaching. 2 The chief 13 It will turn out as a testimony for you. 14 Settle it priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death, for they feared the people. 3 Satan entered into to answer, 15 for I will give you a mouth and wisdom Judas, who was also called Iscariot, who was counted which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand with the twelve. 4 He went away and talked with the or to contradict. 16 You will be handed over even by chief priests and captains about how he might deliver parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. Immediately, while he was know me three times." 35 He said to them, "When I still speaking, a rooster crowed. 61 The Lord turned sent you out without purse, bag, and sandals, did you and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the Lord's lack anything?" They said, "Nothing." 36 Then he said word, how he said to him, "Before the rooster crows you to them, "But now, whoever has a purse, let him take will deny me three times." 62 He went out, and wept it, and likewise a bag. Whoever has none, let him sell bitterly. 63 The men who held Jesus mocked him and his cloak, and buy a sword. 37 For I tell you that this beat him. 64 Having blindfolded him, they struck him on which is written must still be fulfilled in me: 'He was the face and asked him, "Prophesy! He said to them, "That is enough." 39 He assembly of the elders of the people were gathered came out and went, as his custom was, to the Mount of together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led Olives. His disciples also followed him. 40 When he was him away into their council, saying, 67 "If you are the at the place, he said to them, "Pray that you don't enter Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I tell you, you into temptation." 41 He was withdrawn from them about won't believe, 68 and if I ask, you will in no way answer a stone's throw, and he knelt down and prayed, 42 me or let me go. 69 From now on, the Son of Man will saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from be seated at the right hand of the power of God." 70

They all said, "Are you then the Son of God?" He said grabbed one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, heard from his own mouth!"

23 The whole company of them rose up and brought him before Pilate. 2 They began to accuse him, saving, "We found this man perverting the nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ, a king." 3 Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered him, "So you say." 4 Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, "I find no basis for a charge against this man." 5 But they insisted, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place." 6 But when Pilate heard Galilee mentioned, he asked if the man was a Galilean. 7 When he found out that he was in Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem during those days. 8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad, for he had wanted to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things about him. He hoped to see some miracle done by him. 9 He questioned him with many words, but he gave no answers. 10 The chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. 11 Herod with his soldiers humiliated him and mocked him. Dressing him in luxurious clothing, they sent him back to Pilate. 12 Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other. 13 Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, 14 and said to them, "You brought this man to me as one that perverts the people, and behold, having examined him before you, I found no basis for a charge against this man concerning those things of which you accuse him. 15 Neither has Herod, for I sent you to him, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him. 16 I will therefore chastise him and release him." 17 Now he had to release one prisoner to them at the feast. 18 But they all cried out together, saying, "Away with this man! Release to us Barabbas!"- 19 one who was thrown into prison for a certain revolt in the city, and for murder. 20 Then Pilate spoke to them again, wanting to release Jesus, 21 but they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify him!" 22 He said to them the third time, "Why? What evil has this man done? I have found no capital crime in him. I will therefore chastise him and release him." 23 But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief priests prevailed. 24 Pilate decreed that what they asked for should be done. 25 He released him who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but he delivered Jesus up to their will. 26 When they led him away, they

to them, "You say it, because I am." 71 They said, "Why and laid the cross on him to carry it after Jesus. 27 A do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have great multitude of the people followed him, including women who also mourned and lamented him. 28 But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, don't weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. 29 For behold, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.' 30 Then they will begin to tell the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and tell the hills, 'Cover us.' 31 For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?" 32 There were also others, two criminals, led with him to be put to death. 33 When they came to the place that is called "The Skull", they crucified him there with the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left. 34 Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they don't know what they are doing." Dividing his garments among them, they cast lots. 35 The people stood watching. The rulers with them also scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others. Let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen one!" 36 The soldiers also mocked him, coming to him and offering him vinegar, 37 and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" 38 An inscription was also written over him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS." 39 One of the criminals who was hanged insulted him, saying, "If you are the Christ, save yourself and us!" 40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Don't you even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." 42 He said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when you come into your Kingdom." 43 Jesus said to him, "Assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise." 44 It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. 45 The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two. 46 Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" Having said this, he breathed his last. 47 When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saving, "Certainly this was a righteous man." 48 All the multitudes that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned home beating their chests. 49 All his acquaintances and the women who followed with him from Galilee stood at a distance, watching these things. 50 Behold, there was a man named Joseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man 51 (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, who was also waiting for God's Kingdom. 52 This man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body. 53 He took it down and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut in that he was alive. 24 Some of us went to the tomb and the commandment.

21 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they and some others came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 They entered in, and didn't find the Lord Jesus' body. 4 While they were greatly perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing. 5 Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth. The men said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? 6 He isn't here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee, 7 saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men and be crucified, and the third day rise again?" 8 They remembered his words, 9 returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. 10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women with them told these things to the apostles. 11 These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn't believe them. 12 But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened. 13 Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia from Jerusalem. 14 They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened. 15 While they talked and questioned together, Jesus himself came near, and went with them. 16 But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. 17 He said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?" 18 One of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things which have happened there in these days?" 19 He said to them, "What things?" They said to him, "The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; 20 and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. 21 But we were hoping that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. 22 Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb: 23 and when they didn't find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said

stone, where no one had ever been laid. 54 It was the found it just like the women had said, but they didn't see day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing him." 25 He said to them, "Foolish people, and slow of near. 55 The women who had come with him out of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Galilee followed after, and saw the tomb and how his Didn't the Christ have to suffer these things and to enter body was laid. 56 They returned and prepared spices into his glory?" 27 Beginning from Moses and from all and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. 28 They came near to the village where they were going, and he acted like he would go further. 29 They urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over." He went in to stay with them. 30 When he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave it to them. 31 Their eyes were opened and they recognized him; then he vanished out of their sight. 32 They said to one another. "Weren't our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the Scriptures to us?" 33 They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, 34 saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" 35 They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread. 36 As they said these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you." 37 But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. 38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts? 39 See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn't have flesh and bones, as you see that I have." 40 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 While they still didn't believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" 42 They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb. 43 He took them, and ate in front of them. 44 He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms concerning me must be fulfilled." 45 Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures. 46 He said to them. "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day. 47 and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. 48 You are witnesses of these things. 49 Behold, I send out the promise of my Father on you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high." 50 He led them out as far as Bethany, and he lifted up his hands and blessed them. 51 While he blessed them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. 52 They worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, ${\bf 53}$ and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

John

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him. Without him, nothing was made that has been made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it. 6 There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 The same came as a witness, that he might testify about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light. 9 The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world didn't recognize him. 11 He came to his own, and those who were his own didn't receive him. 12 But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in his name: 13 who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 The Word became flesh and lived among us. We saw his glory, such glory as of the only born Son of the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 John testified about him. He cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me." 16 From his fullness we all received grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has seen God at any time. The only born Son, who is in the bosom of the Father. has declared him. 19 This is John's testimony, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" 20 He declared, and didn't deny, but he declared. "I am not the Christ." 21 They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not," "Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No," 22 They said therefore to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" 23 He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' as Isaiah the prophet said." 24 The ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees. 25 They asked him. "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?" 26 John answered them, "I baptize in water, but among you stands one whom you don't know. 27 He is the one who comes after me, who is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to loosen." 28 These things were

'After me comes a man who is preferred before me. for he was before me.' 31 I didn't know him, but for this reason I came baptizing in water, that he would be revealed to Israel." 32 John testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven. and it remained on him. 33 I didn't recognize him, but he who sent me to baptize in water said to me. 'On whomever you will see the Spirit descending and remaining on him is he who baptizes in the Holy Spirit. 34 I have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God." 35 Again, the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples. 36 and he looked at Jesus as he walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" 37 The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. 38 Jesus turned and saw them following, and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him. "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), "where are you staying?" 39 He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour. 40 One of the two who heard John and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41 He first found his own brother, Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is, being interpreted, Christ). 42 He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said. "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Cephas" (which is by interpretation, Peter). 43 On the next day, he was determined to go out into Galilee, and he found Philip. Jesus said to him, "Follow me." 44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip found Nathanael, and said to him, "We have found him of whom Moses in the law and also the prophets, wrote: Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." 46 Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said about him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!" 48 Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you." 49 Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Israel!" 50 Jesus answered him. 'Because I told you, 'I saw you underneath the fig tree,' do vou believe? You will see greater things than these!" 51 He said to him, "Most certainly, I tell you all, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

after me, who is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to loosen." 28 These things were Galilee. Jesus' mother was there. 2 Jesus also was done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was invited, with his disciples, to the wedding. 3 When the baptizing. 29 The next day, he saw Jesus coming to wine ran out, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes no wine." 4 Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does away the sin of the world! 30 This is he of whom I said, that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. 2 He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him." 3 Jesus answered him, "Most certainly I tell you, unless one is born anew, he can't see God's Kingdom." 4 Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?" 5

"Most certainly I tell you. unless one he says to you, do it." 6 Now there were six water is born of water and Spirit, he can't enter into God's pots of stone set there after the Jews' way of purifying, Kingdom. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That containing two or three metretes apiece. 7 Jesus said to which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Don't marvel that I them, "Fill the water pots with water." So they filled them said to you, 'You must be born anew.' 8 The wind blows up to the brim. 8 He said to them, "Now draw some where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but don't out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." So they took know where it comes from and where it is going. So it. 9 When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now is everyone who is born of the Spirit." 9 Nicodemus become wine, and didn't know where it came from (but answered him, "How can these things be?" 10 Jesus the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler answered him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and don't of the feast called the bridegroom 10 and said to him, understand these things? 11 Most certainly I tell you, we "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the speak that which we know and testify of that which we quests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. (aionios g166) 17 For God the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money and didn't send his Son into the world to judge the world, but overthrew their tables. 16 To those who sold the doves, that the world should be saved through him. 18 He who he said, "Take these things out of here! Don't make believes in him is not judged. He who doesn't believe my Father's house a marketplace!" 17 His disciples has been judged already, because he has not believed remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will in the name of the only born Son of God. 19 This is eat me up." 18 The Jews therefore answered him, "What the judgment, that the light has come into the world, sign do you show us, seeing that you do these things?" and men loved the darkness rather than the light, for 19 Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in their works were evil. 20 For everyone who does evil three days I will raise it up." 20 The Jews therefore said, hates the light and doesn't come to the light, lest his "It took forty-six years to build this temple! Will you raise works would be exposed. 21 But he who does the truth it up in three days?" 21 But he spoke of the temple of comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that his body. 22 When therefore he was raised from the they have been done in God." 22 After these things, dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and Jesus came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus stayed there with them and baptized. 23 John also was had said. 23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the baptizing in Enon near Salim, because there was much Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name, water there. They came and were baptized; 24 for John observing his signs which he did. 24 But Jesus didn't was not yet thrown into prison. 25 Therefore a dispute entrust himself to them, because he knew everyone, arose on the part of John's disciples with some Jews 25 and because he didn't need for anyone to testify about purification. 26 They came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, behold, he baptizes, and everyone is coming to him." 27 John answered, "A man can receive nothing unless it has been given him from heaven. 28 You yourselves testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent before him.' 29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. Therefore my joy is made full. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease. 31 "He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth belongs to the earth and speaks of know. We worship that which we know: for salvation is God remains on him." (aionios g166)

⚠ Therefore when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John 2 (although Jesus himself didn't baptize, but his disciples), 3 he left Judea and departed into Galilee. 4 He needed to pass through Samaria. 5 So he came to a city of Samaria called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. 6 Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from his journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour. 7 A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her. "Give me a drink." 8 For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food. 9 The Samaritan woman therefore said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) 10 Jesus answered her. "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." 11 The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. So where do you get that living water? 12 Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his children and his livestock?" 13 Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, 14 but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst again; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life." (aion g165, aionios g166) 15 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I don't get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw." 16 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here." 17 The woman answered, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You said well, 'I have no husband,' 18 for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly." 19 The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. 20 Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship." 21 Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither in this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. 22 You worship that which you don't

the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. 32 from the Jews. 23 But the hour comes, and now is, when What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and no one receives his witness. 33 He who has received truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshipers. 24 his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true. 34 God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; in spirit and truth." 25 The woman said to him, "I know for God gives the Spirit without measure. 35 The Father that Messiah is coming, he who is called Christ, When loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. 36 he has come, he will declare to us all things." 26 Jesus One who believes in the Son has eternal life, but one said to her, "I am he, the one who speaks to you." 27 who disobeys the Son won't see life, but the wrath of Just then, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you speak with her?" 28 So the woman left her water pot, went away into the city, and said to the people, 29 "Come, see a man who told me everything that I have done. Can this be the Christ?" 30 They went out of the city, and were coming to him. 31 In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." 32 But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you don't know about." 33 The disciples therefore said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?" 34 Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. 35 Don't you say, 'There are yet four months until the harvest'? Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already. 36 He who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit to eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. (aionios q166) 37 For in this the saying is true, 'One sows, and another reaps.' 38 I sent you to reap that for which you haven't labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor." 39 From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, "He told me everything that I have done." 40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. 41 Many more believed because of his word. 42 They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world." 43 After the two days he went out from there and went into Galilee. 44 For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. 45 So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast. 46 Jesus came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. 47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. 48 Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe."

49 The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies." 50 Jesus said to him, "Go your way. he himself does. He will show him greater works than Your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. 51 As he was going down, his servants met him and reported, saying "Your child lives!" 52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour, the fever left him." 53 All may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. Westerday at the seventh hour, the fever left him." 54 Who doesn't honor the Son doesn't honor the Father. Who sent him. 24 "Most certainly I tell you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, his whole house. 54 This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

After these things, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, "Bethesda", having five porches. 3 In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water; 4 for an angel went down at certain times into the pool and stirred up the water. Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was healed of whatever disease he had. 5 A certain man was there who had been sick for thirty-eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?" 7 The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, another steps down before me." 8 Jesus said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk." 9 Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked. Now that day was a Sabbath. 10 So the Jews said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat." 11 He answered them, "He who made me well said to me, 'Take up your mat and walk." 12 Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take up your mat and walk'?" 13 But he who was healed didn't know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place. 14 Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, "Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you." 15 The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well. 16 For this cause the Jews persecuted Jesus and sought to kill him, because he did these things on the Sabbath. 17 But Jesus answered them. "My Father is still working, so I am working, too." 18 For this cause therefore the Jews sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God. 19 Jesus therefore answered them, "Most certainly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise. 20 For the Father my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life. (aionios g166) 25 Most certainly I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Son of God's voice; and those who hear will live. 26 For as the Father has life in himself, even so he gave to the Son also to have life in himself. 27 He also gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man. 28 Don't marvel at this, for the hour comes in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice 29 and will come out; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment. 30 I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and my judgment is righteous, because I don't seek my own will, but the will of my Father who sent me. 31 "If I testify about myself, my witness is not valid. 32 It is another who testifies about me. I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true. 33 You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. 34 But the testimony which I receive is not from man. However, I say these things that you may be saved. 35 He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. 36 But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John; for the works which the Father gave me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the Father has sent me. 37 The Father himself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form. 38 You don't have his word living in you, because you don't believe him whom he sent. 39 "You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me. (aionios g166) 40 Yet you will not come to me, that you may have life. 41 I don't receive glory from men. 42 But I know you, that you don't have God's love in yourselves. 43 I have come in my Father's name, and you don't receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. 44 How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don't seek the glory that comes from the only God? 45 "Don't think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope. 46 For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote about me. 47 But if you don't believe to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. 25 When they found him his writings, how will you believe my words?" on the other side of the sea, they asked him, "Rabbi,

After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias. 2 A great multitude followed him, because they saw his signs which he did on those who were sick. 3 Jesus went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples. 4 Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand, 5 Jesus therefore, lifting up his eyes and seeing that a great multitude was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?" 6 He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he would do. 7 Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may receive a little." 8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, 9 "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?" 10 Jesus said. "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. 11 Jesus took the loaves, and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down, likewise also of the fish as much as they desired. 12 When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost." 13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten. 14 When therefore the people saw the sign which Jesus did, they said, "This is truly the prophet who comes into the world." 15 Jesus therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, withdrew again to the mountain by himself. 16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea. 17 They entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them. 18 The sea was tossed by a great wind blowing. 19 When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid. 20 But he said to them, "It is I. Don't be afraid." 21 They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going. 22 On the next day, the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one in which his disciples had embarked, and that Jesus hadn't entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples had gone away alone. 23 However, boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks. 24 When the multitude therefore saw that Jesus wasn't there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats and came on the other side of the sea, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" 26 Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled. 27 Don't work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has sealed him." (aionios g166) 28 They said therefore to him, "What must we do, that we may work the works of God?" 29 Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." 30 They said therefore to him, "What then do you do for a sign, that we may see and believe you? What work do you do? 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written. 'He gave them bread out of heaven to eat." 32 Jesus therefore said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, it wasn't Moses who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread out of heaven. 33 For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven and gives life to the world." 34 They said therefore to him, "Lord, always give us this bread." 35 Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will not be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. 36 But I told you that you have seen me, and yet you don't believe. 37 All those whom the Father gives me will come to me. He who comes to me I will in no way throw out. 38 For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. 39 This is the will of my Father who sent me, that of all he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise him up at the last day. 40 This is the will of the one who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day." (aionios g166) 41 The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven." 42 They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, 'I have come down out of heaven'?" 43 Therefore Jesus answered them, "Don't murmur among yourselves. 44 No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him; and I will raise him up in the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, 'They will all be taught by God.' Therefore everyone who hears from the Father and has learned, comes to me. 46 Not that anyone has seen the Father, except he who is from God. He has seen the Father. 47 Most certainly, I tell you, he who believes in me has eternal life. (aionios g166) 48 l am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness and they died. 50 This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread which came down

7 After these things, Jesus was walking in Galilee, for he wouldn't walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him. 2 Now the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Booths, was at hand. 3 His brothers therefore said to him, "Depart from here and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works which you do. 4 For no one does anything in secret while he seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world." 5 For even his brothers didn't believe in him. 6 Jesus therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. 7 The world can't

Yes, the bread which I will give for the life of the that its works are evil. 8 You go up to the feast. I am world is my flesh." (aion g165) 52 The Jews therefore not yet going up to this feast, because my time is not contended with one another, saying, "How can this man yet fulfilled." 9 Having said these things to them, he give us his flesh to eat?" 53 Jesus therefore said to stayed in Galilee. 10 But when his brothers had gone up them, "Most certainly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don't have it were in secret. 11 The Jews therefore sought him life in yourselves. 54 He who eats my flesh and drinks at the feast, and said, "Where is he?" 12 There was my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him. last day. (aionios g166) 55 For my flesh is food indeed, Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "Not so, and my blood is drink indeed. 56 He who eats my flesh but he leads the multitude astray." 13 Yet no one spoke and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in him. 57 As the openly of him for fear of the Jews. 14 But when it was living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, now the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the so he who feeds on me will also live because of me. 58 temple and taught. 15 The Jews therefore marveled, This is the bread which came down out of heaven—not saying, "How does this man know letters, having never as our fathers ate the manna and died. Who can listen to from myself. 18 He who speaks from himself seeks it?" 61 But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who murmured at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 stumble? 62 Then what if you would see the Son of Didn't Moses give you the law, and yet none of you Man ascending to where he was before? 63 It is the keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me?" 20 The spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words multitude answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks that I speak to you are spirit, and are life. 64 But there to kill you?" 21 Jesus answered them, "I did one work are some of you who don't believe." For Jesus knew and you all marvel because of it. 22 Moses has given from the beginning who they were who didn't believe, you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the and who it was who would betray him. 65 He said, "For fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy. 23 If this cause I have said to you that no one can come to a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the me, unless it is given to him by my Father." 66 At this, law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with many of his disciples went back and walked no more me because I made a man completely healthy on the with him. 67 Jesus said therefore to the twelve, "You Sabbath? 24 Don't judge according to appearance, but don't also want to go away, do you?" 68 Simon Peter judge righteous judgment." 25 Therefore some of them answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have of Jerusalem said, "Isn't this he whom they seek to kill? the words of eternal life. (aionios q166) 69 We have come 26 Behold, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to to believe and know that you are the Christ, the Son him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is of the living God." 70 Jesus answered them, "Didn't I truly the Christ? 27 However, we know where this man choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?" 71 comes from, but when the Christ comes, no one will Now he spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it know where he comes from." 28 Jesus therefore cried was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve. out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me, and know where I am from, I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you don't know. 29 I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me." 30 They sought therefore to take him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. 31 But of the multitude, many believed in him. They said, "When the Christ comes, he won't do more signs than those which this man has done, will he?" 32 The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him. 33 Then Jesus said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then I go to him who sent me. 34 You will seek me and won't find was, in the middle. 10 Jesus, standing up, saw her and me. You can't come where I am." 35 The Jews therefore said, "Woman, where are your accusers? Did no one said among themselves, "Where will this man go that condemn you?" 11 She said, "No one, Lord." Jesus we won't find him? Will he go to the Dispersion among said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From the Greeks and teach the Greeks? 36 What is this word now on, sin no more." 12 Again, therefore, Jesus spoke that he said, 'You will seek me, and won't find me;' and to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who "Where I am, you can't come'?" 37 Now on the last and follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, the light of life." 13 The Pharisees therefore said to him, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink! 38 "You testify about yourself. Your testimony is not valid." He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, from 14 Jesus answered them, "Even if I testify about myself, within him will flow rivers of living water." 39 But he my testimony is true, for I know where I came from, and said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him where I am going; but you don't know where I came were to receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet given, from, or where I am going. 15 You judge according to because Jesus wasn't yet glorified. 40 Many of the the flesh. I judge no one. 16 Even if I do judge, my multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the "This is truly the prophet." 41 Others said, "This is the Father who sent me. 17 It's also written in your law Christ." But some said, "What, does the Christ come out that the testimony of two people is valid. 18 I am one of Galilee? 42 Hasn't the Scripture said that the Christ who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent comes of the offspring of David, and from Bethlehem, me testifies about me." 19 They said therefore to him, the village where David was?" 43 So a division arose in "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know the multitude because of him. 44 Some of them would neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would have arrested him, but no one laid hands on him. 45 know my Father also." 20 Jesus spoke these words in The officers therefore came to the chief priests and the treasury, as he taught in the temple. Yet no one Pharisees; and they said to them, "Why didn't you bring arrested him, because his hour had not yet come. 21 him?" 46 The officers answered, "No man ever spoke Jesus said therefore again to them, "I am going away, like this man!" 47 The Pharisees therefore answered and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. them, "You aren't also led astray, are you? 48 Have any Where I go, you can't come." 22 The Jews therefore of the rulers or any of the Pharisees believed in him? 49 said, "Will he kill himself, because he says, Where I am But this multitude that doesn't know the law is cursed." going, you can't come'?" 23 He said to them, "You are 50 Nicodemus (he who came to him by night, being one from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I of them) said to them, 51 "Does our law judge a man am not of this world. 24 I said therefore to you that you unless it first hears from him personally and knows what will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am he does?" 52 They answered him, "Are you also from he, you will die in your sins." 25 They said therefore to Galilee? Search and see that no prophet has arisen out him, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "Just what I of Galilee." 53 Everyone went to his own house,

A but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. 2 Now very early in the morning, he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him. He sat down and taught them. 3 The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the middle, 4 they told him, "Teacher, we found this woman in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now in our law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. What then do you say about her?" 6 They said this testing him, that they might have something to accuse him of. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with his finger. 7 But when they continued asking him, he looked up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her." 8 Again he stooped down and wrote on the ground with his finger. 9 They, when they heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. Jesus was left alone with the woman where she have been saying to you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However, he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world." 27 They didn't understand that he spoke to them about the Father. 28 Jesus therefore said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing of myself, but as my Father taught me, I say these things. 29 He who sent me is with me. The Father hasn't left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him." 30 As he spoke these things, many believed in him. 31 Jesus therefore said to those Jews who had believed him, "If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples. 32 You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." 33 They answered him, "We are Abraham's offspring, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How do you say, 'You will be made free'?" 34 Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin. 35 A bondservant doesn't live in 9 As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. 2 His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free man or his parents, that he was born blind?" 3 Jesus indeed. 37 I know that you are Abraham's offspring, yet answered, "This man didn't sin, nor did his parents, but you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place that the works of God might be revealed in him. 41 must in you. 38 I say the things which I have seen with my work the works of him who sent me while it is day. The Father; and you also do the things which you have seen night is coming, when no one can work. 5 While I am in with your father." 39 They answered him, "Our father is the world, I am the light of the world." 6 When he had Abraham." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the children, you would do the works of Abraham. 40 But saliva, anointed the blind man's eyes with the mud, 7 now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which truth which I heard from God. Abraham didn't do this. means "Sent"). So he went away, washed, and came 41 You do the works of your father." They said to him, back seeing. 8 Therefore the neighbors and those who "We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one saw that he was blind before said, "Isn't this he who Father, God." 42 Therefore Jesus said to them, "If God sat and begged?" 9 Others were saying, "It is he." Still were your father, you would love me, for I came out and others were saying, "He looks like him." He said, "I am have come from God. For I haven't come of myself, but he." 10 They therefore were asking him, "How were your he sent me. 43 Why don't you understand my speech? eyes opened?" 11 He answered, "A man called Jesus Because you can't hear my word. 44 You are of your made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go father the devil, and you want to do the desires of your to the pool of Siloam and wash.' So I went away and father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and washed, and I received sight." 12 Then they asked him, doesn't stand in the truth, because there is no truth in "Where is he?" He said, "I don't know." 13 They brought him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks on his own; for him who had been blind to the Pharisees. 14 It was a he is a liar, and the father of lies. 45 But because I Sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened his tell the truth, you don't believe me. 46 Which of you eyes. 15 Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not how he received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud believe me? 47 He who is of God hears the words of on my eyes, I washed, and I see." 16 Some therefore of God. For this cause you don't hear, because you are the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because not of God." 48 Then the Jews answered him, "Don't we he doesn't keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?" a man who is a sinner do such signs?" So there was 49 Jesus answered, "I don't have a demon, but I honor division among them. 17 Therefore they asked the blind my Father and you dishonor me. 50 But I don't seek my man again, "What do you say about him, because he own glory. There is one who seeks and judges. 51 Most opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet." 18 The certainly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will Jews therefore didn't believe concerning him, that he never see death." (aion g165) 52 Then the Jews said to had been blind and had received his sight, until they him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham called the parents of him who had received his sight, died, as did the prophets; and you say, 'If a man keeps 19 and asked them, "Is this your son, whom you say my word, he will never taste of death.' (aion g165) 53 was born blind? How then does he now see?" 20 His Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? parents answered them, "We know that this is our son, The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to and that he was born blind; 21 but how he now sees, be?" 54 Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is we don't know; or who opened his eyes, we don't know. nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me. of whom you He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself." 22 say that he is our God. 55 You have not known him, but His parents said these things because they feared the I know him. If I said, 'I don't know him,' I would be like Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if any man you, a liar. But I know him and keep his word. 56 Your would confess him as Christ, he would be put out of the father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it and synagogue. 23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of was glad." 57 The Jews therefore said to him, "You are age. Ask him." 24 So they called the man who was blind not yet fifty years old! Have you seen Abraham?" 58 a second time, and said to him, "Give glory to God. Jesus said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, before We know that this man is a sinner." 25 He therefore Abraham came into existence, I AM." 59 Therefore they answered, "I don't know if he is a sinner. One thing I do took up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself know: that though I was blind, now I see." 26 They said and went out of the temple, having gone through the to him again, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" 27 He answered them, "I told you already, and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? shepherd, I know my own, and I'm known by my own; You don't also want to become his disciples, do you?" 15 even as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. now you say. 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains.

1 n "Most certainly, I tell you, one who doesn't enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, is a thief and a robber. 2 But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. 4 Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. 5 They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they don't know the voice of strangers." 6 Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they didn't understand what he was telling them. 7 Jesus therefore said to them again, "Most certainly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door. 8 All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them. 9 I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out and will find pasture. 10 The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. 11 "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. 12 He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who doesn't own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep and scatters them. 13 The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand and doesn't care for the sheep. 14 I am the good

28 They insulted him and said, "You are his disciple, but I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 I have other sheep we are disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God has which are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and spoken to Moses. But as for this man, we don't know they will hear my voice. They will become one flock where he comes from." 30 The man answered them, with one shepherd. 17 Therefore the Father loves me, "How amazing! You don't know where he comes from, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again. yet he opened my eyes. 31 We know that God doesn't 18 No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to and does his will, he listens to him. 32 Since the world take it again. I received this commandment from my began it has never been heard of that anyone opened Father." 19 Therefore a division arose again among the the eyes of someone born blind. (aion g165) 33 If this Jews because of these words. 20 Many of them said, man were not from God, he could do nothing." 34 They "He has a demon and is insane! Why do you listen to answered him, "You were altogether born in sins, and him?" 21 Others said, "These are not the sayings of one do you teach us?" Then they threw him out. 35 Jesus possessed by a demon. It isn't possible for a demon to heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, open the eyes of the blind, is it?" 22 It was the Feast of he said, "Do you believe in the Son of God?" 36 He the Dedication at Jerusalem. 23 It was winter, and Jesus answered, "Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?" was walking in the temple, in Solomon's porch. 24 The 37 Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him, and it is Jews therefore came around him and said to him, "How he who speaks with you." 38 He said, "Lord, I believe!" long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Christ, and he worshiped him. 39 Jesus said, "I came into this tell us plainly." 25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and world for judgment, that those who don't see may see; you don't believe. The works that I do in my Father's and that those who see may become blind." 40 Those name, these testify about me. 26 But you don't believe, of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you, 27 My and said to him, "Are we also blind?" 41 Jesus said to sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but me. 28 I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand, (aion g165, aionios q166) 29 My Father who has given them to me is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand. 30 I and the Father are one." 31 Therefore the Jews took up stones again to stone him. 32 Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of those works do you stone me?" 33 The Jews answered him, "We don't stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy, because you, being a man, make yourself God." 34 Jesus answered them, "Isn't it written in your law, 'I said, you are gods'? 35 If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture can't be broken), 36 do you say of him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'? 37 If I don't do the works of my Father. don't believe me. 38 But if I do them, though you don't believe me, believe the works, that you may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in the Father." 39 They sought again to seize him, and he went out of their hand. 40 He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was baptizing at first, and he stayed there. 41 Many came to him. They said, "John indeed did no sign, but everything that John said about this man is true." 42 Many believed in him there.

Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister, Martha. 2 It was that Mary who had anointed the Lord with ointment saving. "She is going to the tomb to weep there." 32 and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus Therefore when Mary came to where Jesus was and was sick. 3 The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, "Lord, behold, he for whom you have great affection is if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have sick." 4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This sickness died." 33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God's Son the Jews weeping who came with her, he groaned in may be glorified by it." 5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and the spirit and was troubled, 34 and said, "Where have her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When therefore he heard that you laid him?" They told him, "Lord, come and see." he was sick, he stayed two days in the place where he 35 Jesus wept. 36 The Jews therefore said, "See how was. 7 Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let's go much affection he had for him!" 37 Some of them said, into Judea again." 8 The disciples asked him, "Rabbi, "Couldn't this man, who opened the eyes of him who the Jews were just trying to stone you. Are you going was blind, have also kept this man from dying?" 38 there again?" 9 Jesus answered, "Aren't there twelve Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, came to the hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he doesn't tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. 39 stumble, because he sees the light of this world. 10 But Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the of him who was dead, said to him, "Lord, by this time light isn't in him." 11 He said these things, and after that, there is a stench, for he has been dead four days." 40 he said to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep." you would see God's glory?" 41 So they took away the 12 The disciples therefore said, "Lord, if he has fallen stone from the place where the dead man was lying. asleep, he will recover." 13 Now Jesus had spoken of Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest that you listened to me. 42 I know that you always listen in sleep. 14 So Jesus said to them plainly then, "Lazarus" to me, but because of the multitude standing around is dead. 15 I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, I said this, that they may believe that you sent me." so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let's go to him." 43 When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 16 Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said to his "Lazarus, come out!" 44 He who was dead came out, fellow disciples, "Let's also go, that we may die with bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was him." 17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had wrapped around with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Free been in the tomb four days already. 18 Now Bethany him, and let him go." 45 Therefore many of the Jews was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia away. 19 Many who came to Mary and saw what Jesus did believed in of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and him. 46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees Mary, to console them concerning their brother. 20 Then and told them the things which Jesus had done. 47 The when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a and met him, but Mary stayed in the house. 21 Therefore council, and said, "What are we doing? For this man Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you would have been does many signs. 48 If we leave him alone like this, here, my brother wouldn't have died. 22 Even now I everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." and take away both our place and our nation." 49 But a 23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." 24 certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, 50 nor do resurrection at the last day." 25 Jesus said to her, "I am you consider that it is advantageous for us that one man the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will should die for the people, and that the whole nation not still live, even if he dies. 26 Whoever lives and believes perish." 51 Now he didn't say this of himself, but being in me will never die. Do you believe this?" (aiōn q165) 27 high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that for the nation, 52 and not for the nation only, but that he you are the Christ, God's Son, he who comes into the might also gather together into one the children of God world." 28 When she had said this, she went away and who are scattered abroad. 53 So from that day forward called Mary, her sister, secretly, saying, "The Teacher is they took counsel that they might put him to death. here and is calling you." 29 When she heard this, she 54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the arose quickly and went to him. 30 Now Jesus had not Jews, but departed from there into the country near the yet come into the village, but was in the place where wilderness, to a city called Ephraim. He stayed there Martha met him. 31 Then the Jews who were with her in with his disciples. 55 Now the Passover of the Jews was the house and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, at hand. Many went up from the country to Jerusalem that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, before the Passover, to purify themselves. 56 Then they sought for Jesus and spoke with one another as they time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. 24 and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might seize him.

17 Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. 2 So they made him a supper there. Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him. 3 Therefore Mary took a pound of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed Jesus' feet and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. 4 Then Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, one of his disciples, who would betray him, said, 5 "Why wasn't this ointment sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" 6 Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it. 7 But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial. 8 For you always have the poor with you, but you don't always have me." 9 A large crowd therefore of the Jews learned that he was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests conspired to put Lazarus to death also, 11 because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus. 12 On the next day a great multitude had come to the feast. When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 they took the branches of the palm trees and went out to meet him, and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!" 14 Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written, 15 "Don't be afraid, daughter of Zion. Behold, your King comes, sitting on a donkey's colt." 16 His disciples didn't understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him. 17 The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead was testifying about it. 18 For this cause also the multitude went and met him, because they heard that he had done this sign. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after him." 20 Now there were certain Greeks among those who went up to worship at the feast. 21 Therefore, these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." 22 Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn, Andrew came with Philip, and they told Jesus. 23 Jesus answered them, "The stood in the temple, "What do you think—that he isn't Most certainly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls coming to the feast at all?" 57 Now the chief priests into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. 25 He who loves his life will lose it. He who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life. (aionios g166) 26 If anyone serves me, let him follow me. Where I am, there my servant will also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. 27 "Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say? 'Father, save me from this time'? But I came to this time for this cause. 28 Father, glorify your name!" Then a voice came out of the sky, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again." 29 Therefore the multitude who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him." 30 Jesus answered. "This voice hasn't come for my sake, but for your sakes. 31 Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out. 32 And I. if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." 33 But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die. 34 The multitude answered him, "We have heard out of the law that the Christ remains forever. How do you say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?" (aion g165) 35 Jesus therefore said to them, "Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness doesn't overtake vou. He who walks in the darkness doesn't know where he is going. 36 While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light." Jesus said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them. 37 But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they didn't believe in him, 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke: "Lord, who has believed our report? To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?" 39 For this cause they couldn't believe, for Isaiah said again: 40 "He has blinded their eyes and he hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, and would turn, and I would heal them." 41 Isaiah said these things when he saw his glory, and spoke of him. 42 Nevertheless, even many of the rulers believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they didn't confess it, so that they wouldn't be put out of the synagogue. 43 for they loved men's praise more than God's praise. 44 Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me. 45 He who sees me sees him who sent me. 46 I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness. 47 If anyone listens to my savings and doesn't believe. I don't judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 He who rejects me, and doesn't receive my sayings, has one who judges him. The word commandment, what I should say and what I should speak. 50 I know that his commandment is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Father has said to me, so I speak." (aionios g166)

13 Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that his time had come that he would depart from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. 2 During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, 3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came from God and was going to God, 4 arose from supper, and laid aside his outer garments. He took a towel and wrapped a towel around his waist. 5 Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him. 6 Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?" 7 Jesus answered him, "You don't know what I am doing now, but you will understand later." 8 Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with me." (aion g165) 9 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!" 10 Jesus said to him, "Someone who has bathed only needs to have his feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you." 11 For he knew him who would betray him; therefore he said, "You are not all clean." 12 So when he had washed their feet, put his outer garment back on, and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? 13 You call me, 'Teacher' and 'Lord.' You say so correctly, for so I am. 14 If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. 15 For I have given you an example, that you should also do as I have done to you. 16 Most certainly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord, whom he spoke. 23 One of his disciples, whom Jesus that I spoke will judge him in the last day. 49 For I spoke loved, was at the table, leaning against Jesus' chest. not from myself, but the Father who sent me gave me a 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, and said to him, "Tell us who it is of whom he speaks." 25 He, leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' chest, asked him, "Lord, who is it?" 26 Jesus therefore answered, "It is he to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it." So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. 27 After the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly." 28 Now nobody at the table knew why he said this to him. 29 For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus said to him, "Buy what things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor. 30 Therefore having received that morsel, he went out immediately. It was night. 31 When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. 32 If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately. 33 Little children, I will be with you a little while longer. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you can't come,' so now I tell you. 34 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also love one another. 35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." 36 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered, "Where I am going, you can't follow now, but you will follow afterwards." 37 Peter said to him, "Lord, why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you." 38 Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for me? Most certainly I tell you, the rooster won't crow until you have denied me three times.

1 4 "Don't let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many homes. If it weren't so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. 3 If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will receive you to neither is one who is sent greater than he who sent myself; that where I am, you may be there also. 4 You him. 17 If you know these things, blessed are you if know where I go, and you know the way." 5 Thomas you do them. 18 I don't speak concerning all of you. I said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going. know whom I have chosen; but that the Scripture may How can we know the way?" 6 Jesus said to him, "I am be fulfilled, 'He who eats bread with me has lifted up his the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the heel against me.' 19 From now on, I tell you before it Father, except through me. 7 If you had known me, you happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I would have known my Father also. From now on, you am he. 20 Most certainly I tell you, he who receives know him and have seen him." 8 Philip said to him, whomever I send, receives me; and he who receives "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for me, receives him who sent me." 21 When Jesus had us." 9 Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you such a said this, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, "Most long time, and do you not know me, Philip? He who certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me." 22 has seen me has seen the Father. How do you say, The disciples looked at one another, perplexed about 'Show us the Father'? 10 Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I tell vou, unless you remain in me. 5 I am the vine. You are believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and the fire, and they are burned. 7 If you remain in me, am going to my Father;' for the Father is greater than I. for their sin. 23 He who hates me, hates my Father also. me, even so I do. Arise, let's go from here.

15 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer. 2 Every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. 3 You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. 4 Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear

you, I speak not from myself; but the Father who lives the branches. He who remains in me and I in him bears in me does his works. 11 Believe me that I am in the much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. 6 If a Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me for the man doesn't remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch very works' sake. 12 Most certainly I tell you, he who and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into he will do greater works than these, because I am going and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you to my Father. 13 Whatever you will ask in my name, I desire, and it will be done for you. 8 "In this my Father will do it, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 is glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be If you will ask anything in my name, I will do it. 15 If you my disciples. 9 Even as the Father has loved me, I also love me, keep my commandments. 16 I will pray to the have loved you. Remain in my love. 10 If you keep my Father, and he will give you another Counselor, that he commandments, you will remain in my love, even as may be with you forever: (aion g165) 17 the Spirit of truth, I have kept my Father's commandments and remain whom the world can't receive, for it doesn't see him and in his love. 11 I have spoken these things to you, that doesn't know him. You know him, for he lives with you my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be and will be in you. 18 I will not leave you orphans. I will made full. 12 "This is my commandment, that you love come to you. 19 Yet a little while, and the world will see one another, even as I have loved you. 13 Greater love me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for will live also. 20 In that day you will know that I am in his friends. 14 You are my friends if you do whatever I my Father, and you in me, and I in you. 21 One who command you. 15 No longer do I call you servants, for has my commandments and keeps them, that person is the servant doesn't know what his lord does. But I have one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by called you friends, for everything that I heard from my my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to Father, I have made known to you. 16 You didn't choose him." 22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, what has me, but I chose you and appointed you, that you should happened that you are about to reveal yourself to us, go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that and not to the world?" 23 Jesus answered him, "If a man whatever you will ask of the Father in my name, he may loves me, he will keep my word. My Father will love him, give it to you. 17 "I command these things to you, that and we will come to him and make our home with him. you may love one another. 18 If the world hates you, 24 He who doesn't love me doesn't keep my words. The you know that it has hated me before it hated you. 19 If word which you hear isn't mine, but the Father's who you were of the world, the world would love its own. sent me. 25 "I have said these things to you while still But because you are not of the world, since I chose living with you. 26 But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. 20 whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you. 27 greater than his lord.' If they persecuted me, they will Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also the world gives, I give to you. Don't let your heart be keep yours. 21 But they will do all these things to you troubled, neither let it be fearful. 28 You heard how I told for my name's sake, because they don't know him who you, 'I am going away, and I will come back to you.' If sent me. 22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they you loved me, you would have rejoiced because I said 'I would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse 29 Now I have told you before it happens so that when 24 If I hadn't done among them the works which no one it happens, you may believe. 30 I will no more speak else did, they wouldn't have had sin. But now they have much with you, for the prince of the world comes, and seen and also hated both me and my Father. 25 But this he has nothing in me. 31 But that the world may know happened so that the word may be fulfilled which was that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded written in their law, 'They hated me without a cause.' 26 "When the Counselor has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will testify about me. 27 You will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

16 "I have said these things to you so that you wouldn't be caused to stumble. 2 They will put fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time is coming

God. 3 They will do these things because they have plainly about the Father. 26 In that day you will ask in my not known the Father nor me. 4 But I have told you name; and I don't say to you that I will pray to the Father these things so that when the time comes, you may for you, 27 for the Father himself loves you, because remember that I told you about them. I didn't tell you you have loved me, and have believed that I came these things from the beginning, because I was with from God. 28 I came from the Father and have come you. 5 But now I am going to him who sent me, and into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' 6 But Father." 29 His disciples said to him, "Behold, now you because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled are speaking plainly, and using no figures of speech. 30 your heart. 7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to Now we know that you know all things, and don't need your advantage that I go away; for if I don't go away, for anyone to question you. By this we believe that you the Counselor won't come to you. But if I go, I will came from God." 31 Jesus answered them, "Do you send him to you. 8 When he has come, he will convict now believe? 32 Behold, the time is coming, yes, and the world about sin, about righteousness, and about has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to judgment; 9 about sin, because they don't believe in his own place, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not me; 10 about righteousness, because I am going to alone, because the Father is with me. 33 I have told you my Father, and you won't see me any more; 11 about these things, that in me you may have peace. In the judgment, because the prince of this world has been world you have trouble; but cheer up! I have overcome judged. 12 "I still have many things to tell you, but you the world." can't bear them now. 13 However, when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak from himself; but whatever he hears, he will speak. He will declare to you things that are coming. 14 He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine and will declare it to you. 15 All things that the Father has are mine; therefore I said that he takes of mine and will declare it to you. 16 "A little while, and you will not see me. Again a little while, and you will see me." 17 Some of his disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this that he says to us, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me;' and, 'Because I go to the Father'?" 18 They said therefore, "What is this that he says, 'A little while'? We don't know what he is saying." 19 Therefore Jesus perceived that they wanted to ask him, and he said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me'? 20 Most certainly I tell you that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. 21 A woman, when she gives birth, has sorrow because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she doesn't remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a human being is born into the world. 22 Therefore you now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you. 23 "In that day you will ask me no questions. Most certainly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. 24 Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full. 25 "I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the time is coming when I will no

that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you

17 Jesus said these things, then lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you; 2 even as you gave him authority over all flesh, so he will give eternal life to all whom you have given him. (aionios g166) 3 This is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, Jesus Christ. (aionios g166) 4 I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do. 5 Now, Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed. 6 "I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word. 7 Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are from you, 8 for the words which you have given me I have given to them; and they received them, and knew for sure that I came from you. They have believed that you sent me. 9 I pray for them. I don't pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. 10 All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. 11 I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are. 12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. I have kept those whom you have given me. None of them is lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. 13 But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves. 14 I have given them your word. The world hated them because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 15 I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil people, 15 Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another one. 16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, the world. 17 Sanctify them in your truth. Your word is and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high truth. 18 As you sent me into the world, even so I have priest; 16 but Peter was standing at the door outside. sent them into the world. 19 For their sakes I sanctify So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and who will believe in me through their word, 21 that they said to Peter, "Are you also one of this man's disciples?" your name, and will make it known; that the love with that?" 23 Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. 2 Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. 3 Judas then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to him, went out and said to them, "Who are you looking for?" 5 They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am he." Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them. 6 When therefore he said to them, "I am he," they went backward and fell to the ground. 7 Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth." 8 Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way," 9 that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none." 10 Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. 11 Jesus therefore said to Peter, "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, shall I not surely drink it?" 12 So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jews seized Jesus and bound him. 13 and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. 14 Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man should perish for the truth. 20 "Not for these only do I pray, but for those also brought in Peter. 17 Then the maid who kept the door may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in He said, "I am not." 18 Now the servants and the officers you, that they also may be one in us; that the world were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it may believe that you sent me. 22 The glory which you was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was have given me, I have given to them, that they may be with them, standing and warming himself. 19 The high one, even as we are one, 23 l in them, and you in me, priest therefore asked Jesus about his disciples and that they may be perfected into one, that the world may about his teaching. 20 Jesus answered him, "I spoke know that you sent me and loved them, even as you openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues loved me. 24 Father, I desire that they also whom you and in the temple, where the Jews always meet, I said have given me be with me where I am, that they may nothing in secret. 21 Why do you ask me? Ask those see my glory which you have given me, for you loved who have heard me what I said to them. Behold, they me before the foundation of the world. 25 Righteous know the things which I said." 22 When he had said Father, the world hasn't known you, but I knew you; and this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with these knew that you sent me. 26 I made known to them his hand, saying, "Do you answer the high priest like testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?" 24 Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest, 25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "You aren't also one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it and said, "I am not," 26 One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?" 27 Peter therefore denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed. 28 They led Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves didn't enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. 29 Pilate therefore went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" 30 They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have delivered him up to you." 31 Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law." Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is illegal for us to put anyone to death." 32 that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled. which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die. 33 Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" 34 Jesus answered him, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?" 35 Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?" 36 Jesus answered, "My Kingdom is not of this world. If my Kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I wouldn't be delivered to the Jews. But now my Kingdom is not from here." 37 Pilate therefore said to him. "Are you a king then?" Jesus side one, and Jesus in the middle. 19 Pilate wrote a this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

1 Q So Pilate then took Jesus and flogged him. 2 The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple garment. 3 They kept saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and they kept slapping him. 4 Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him." 5 Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, "Behold, the man!" 6 When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!" Pilate said to them. "Take him vourselves and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him." 7 The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God." 8 When therefore Pilate heard this saving. he was more afraid. 9 He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. 10 Pilate therefore said to him, "Aren't you speaking to me? Don't you know that I have power to release you and have power to crucify you?" 11 Jesus answered, "You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin." 12 At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this man, you aren't Caesar's friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!" 13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called "The Pavement", but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha." 14 Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, at about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews. "Behold, your King!" 15 They cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!" 16 So then he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus and led him away. 17 He went out, bearing his cross, to the place called "The Place of a Skull", which is called in Hebrew, "Golgotha", 18 where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, have been born, and for this reason I have come into "JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS." the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone 20 Therefore many of the Jews read this title, for the who is of the truth listens to my voice." 38 Pilate said to place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and him, "What is truth?" When he had said this, he went it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. 21 The out again to the Jews, and said to them, "I find no basis chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, "Don't for a charge against him. 39 But you have a custom write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'he said, "I am King of that I should release someone to you at the Passover. the Jews."" 22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, Therefore, do you want me to release to you the King of I have written." 23 Then the soldiers, when they had the Jews?" 40 Then they all shouted again, saying, "Not crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top throughout. 24 Then they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, "They parted my garments among them. They cast lots for my clothing." Therefore the soldiers did these things. 25 But standing by Jesus' cross were his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 Therefore when Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" 27 Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" From that hour, the disciple took her to his own home. 28 After this, Jesus, seeing that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty!" 29 Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished!" Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit. 31 Therefore the Jews, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies wouldn't remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. 32 Therefore the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with him; 33 but when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they didn't break his legs. 34 However, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35 He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you may believe. 36 For these things happened that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of him will not be broken." 37 Again another Scripture says, "They will look on him whom they pierced." 38 After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus' body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body. 39 Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds. 40 So they took Jesus' body, and bound it in hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in me, even so I send you." 22 When he had said this, hand), they laid Jesus there.

20 Now on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. 2 Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have laid him!" 3 Therefore Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went toward the tomb. 4 They both ran together. The other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb first. 5 Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying there: vet he didn't enter in. 6 Then Simon Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying, 7 and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed. 9 For as yet they didn't know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. 10 So the disciples went away again to their own homes. 11 But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb, 12 and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 They asked her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they have laid him." 14 When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, and didn't know that it was Jesus. 15 Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." 16 Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him, "Rabboni!" which is to say, "Teacher!" 17 Jesus said to her, "Don't hold me, for I haven't yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brothers and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." 18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had said these things to her. 19 When therefore it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the middle and said to them, "Peace be to you." 20 When he had said this, he showed them his linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews when they saw the Lord. 21 Jesus therefore said to is to bury. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent which no man had ever yet been laid. 42 Then, because he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the of the Jews' Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at Holy Spirit! 23 If you forgive anyone's sins, they have been forgiven them. If you retain anyone's sins, they have been retained." 24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, wasn't with them when Jesus came. 25 The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." 26 After eight days, again his disciples were inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the middle, and said. "Peace be to you." 27 Then he said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be unbelieving, but believing." 28 Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" 29 Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." 30 Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; 31 but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

> 21 After these things, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way. 2 Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. 3 Simon Peter said to them, "I'm going fishing." They told him, "We are also coming with you." They immediately went out and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing. 4 But when day had already come, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples didn't know that it was Jesus. 5 Jesus therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." 6 He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." They cast it therefore, and now they weren't able to draw it in for the multitude of fish. 7 That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Peter. "It's the Lord!" So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around himself (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away), dragging the net full of fish. 9 So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, with fish and bread laid on it. 10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught." 11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of one hundred fifty-three great fish. Even though there were so many. the net wasn't torn. 12 Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast!" None of the disciples dared inquire of him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. 14 This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to his disciples after he had risen from the dead. 15 So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." 16 He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." 17 He said to him the third time. "Simon, son of Jonah, do you have affection for me?" Peter was grieved because he asked him the third time, "Do you have affection for me?" He said to him, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. 18 Most certainly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and carry you where you don't want to go." 19 Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me," 20 Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus' chest at the supper and asked, "Lord, who is going to betray you?" 21 Peter, seeing him, said to Jesus, "Lord, what about this man?" 22 Jesus said to him, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me." 23 This saying therefore went out among the brothers that this disciple wouldn't die. Yet Jesus didn't say to him that he wouldn't die, but, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?" 24 This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. 25 There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn't have room for the books that would be written.

Acts

1 The first book I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, 2 until the day in which he was received up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. 3 To these he also showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking about God's Kingdom. 4 Being assembled together with them, he commanded them, "Don't depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from me. 5 For John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now." 6 Therefore, when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you now

Let no one dwell in it:' and, 'Let another take his office.' 21 "Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us. 22 beginning from the baptism of John to the day that he was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection." 23 They put forward two: Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also called Justus, and Matthias. 24 They prayed and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two you have chosen 25 to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place." 26 They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was counted with the eleven apostles.

2 Now when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all with one accord in one place. 2 Suddenly restoring the kingdom to Israel?" 7 He said to them, "It there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a isn't for you to know times or seasons which the Father mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were has set within his own authority. 8 But you will receive sitting. 3 Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You to them, and one sat on each of them. 4 They were will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth." 9 other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to When he had said these things, as they were looking, speak. 5 Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their devout men, from every nation under the sky. 6 When sight. 10 While they were looking steadfastly into the this sound was heard, the multitude came together sky as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white and were bewildered, because everyone heard them clothing, 11 who also said, "You men of Galilee, why do speaking in his own language. 7 They were all amazed you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who was and marveled, saying to one another, "Behold, aren't received up from you into the sky, will come back in the all these who speak Galileans? 8 How do we hear, same way as you saw him going into the sky." 12 Then everyone in our own native language? 9 Parthians, they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Medes, Elamites, and people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, 10 Phrygia, Pamphylia, away. 13 When they had come in, they went up into Egypt, the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from the upper room where they were staying, that is Peter, Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans and John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Arabians—we hear them speaking in our languages the Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, mighty works of God!" 12 They were all amazed and and Judas the son of James. 14 All these with one were perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, mean?" 13 Others, mocking, said, "They are filled with along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, new wine." 14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, and with his brothers. 15 In these days, Peter stood up lifted up his voice and spoke out to them, "You men of in the middle of the disciples (and the number of names Judea and all you who dwell at Jerusalem, let this be was about one hundred twenty), and said, 16 "Brothers, known to you, and listen to my words. 15 For these it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, aren't drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is only the which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David third hour of the day. 16 But this is what has been concerning Judas, who was guide to those who took spoken through the prophet Joel: 17 'It will be in the last Jesus. 17 For he was counted with us, and received his days, says God, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh. portion in this ministry. 18 Now this man obtained a field Your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your young with the reward for his wickedness; and falling headlong, men will see visions. Your old men will dream dreams. his body burst open and all his intestines gushed out. 18 Yes, and on my servants and on my handmaidens 19 It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem in those days, I will pour out my Spirit, and they will that in their language that field was called 'Akeldama,' prophesy. 19 I will show wonders in the sky above, and that is, 'The field of blood,' 20 For it is written in the signs on the earth beneath: blood, and fire, and billows book of Psalms, 'Let his habitation be made desolate. of smoke. 20 The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and glorious day were done through the apostles. 44 All who believed of the Lord comes. 21 lt will be that whoever will call were together, and had all things in common. 45 They on the name of the Lord will be saved.' 22 "Men of sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them Israel, hear these words! Jesus of Nazareth, a man to all, according as anyone had need. 46 Day by day, approved by God to you by mighty works and wonders continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and signs which God did by him among you, even as and breaking bread at home, they took their food with you yourselves know, 23 him, being delivered up by the gladness and singleness of heart, 47 praising God and determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you having favor with all the people. The Lord added to the have taken by the hand of lawless men, crucified and assembly day by day those who were being saved. killed; 24 whom God raised up, having freed him from the agony of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it. 25 For David says concerning him, 'I saw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved. 26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced. Moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope, 27 because you will not leave my soul in Hades, neither will you allow your Holy One to see decay. (Hades g86) 28 You made known to me the ways of life. You will make me full of gladness with your presence.' 29 "Brothers, I may tell you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30 Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, he would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne, 31 he foreseeing this, spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that his soul wasn't left in Hades, and his flesh didn't see decay. (Hades q86) 32 This Jesus God raised up, to which we all are witnesses. 33 Being therefore exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this which you now see and hear. 34 For David didn't ascend into the heavens, but he says himself, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit by my right hand 35 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet." 36 "Let all the house of Israel therefore know certainly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified." 37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" 38 Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are far off, even as many as the Lord our God will call to himself." 40 With many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation!" 41 Then those who gladly received his word were baptized. There were added that day about three thousand souls. 42 They continued steadfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and prayer. 43 Fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs

2 Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. 2 A certain man who was lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask gifts for the needy of those who entered into the temple. 3 Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive gifts for the needy. 4 Peter, fastening his eyes on him, with John, said, "Look at us." 5 He listened to them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Peter said, "I have no silver or gold, but what I have, that I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!" 7 He took him by the right hand and raised him up. Immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength. 8 Leaping up, he stood and began to walk. He entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God. 9 All the people saw him walking and praising God. 10 They recognized him, that it was he who used to sit begging for gifts for the needy at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. 11 As the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. 12 When Peter saw it, he responded to the people, "You men of Israel, why do you marvel at this man? Why do vou fasten vour eves on us. as though by our own power or godliness we had made him walk? 13 The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus, whom you delivered up and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. 14 But you denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, 15 and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, to which we are witnesses. 16 By faith in his name, his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. 17 "Now, brothers, I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers. 18 But the things which God announced by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. 19 "Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. 20 and that shall we do to these men? Because indeed a notable wickedness."

⚠ As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came to them. 2 being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening. 4 But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand. 5 In the morning, their rulers, elders, and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem. 6 Annas the high priest was there, with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the high priest. 7 When they had stood Peter and John in the middle of them, they inquired, "By what power, or in what name, have you done this?" 8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "You rulers of the people and elders of Israel, 9 if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, 10 may it be known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, this man stands here before you whole in him. 11 He is 'the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner.' 12 There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven that is given among men. by which we must be saved!" 13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled. They recognized that they had been with Jesus. 14 Seeing the man who was healed standing with them. they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, "What he may send Christ Jesus, who was ordained for you miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly before. 21 whom heaven must receive until the times of seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we can't deny restoration of all things, which God spoke long ago by it. 17 But so that this spreads no further among the the mouth of his holy prophets. (aion g165) 22 For Moses people, let's threaten them, that from now on they don't indeed said to the fathers, 'The Lord God will raise up speak to anyone in this name." 18 They called them, a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in You shall listen to him in all things whatever he says the name of Jesus. 19 But Peter and John answered to you. 23 It will be that every soul that will not listen them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to to that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among you rather than to God, judge for yourselves, 20 for we the people.' 24 Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel can't help telling the things which we saw and heard." and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, 21 When they had further threatened them, they let also told of these days. 25 You are the children of the them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with people; for everyone glorified God for that which was our fathers, saving to Abraham, 'All the families of the done. 22 For the man on whom this miracle of healing earth will be blessed through your offspring.' 26 God. was performed was more than forty years old. 23 Being having raised up his servant Jesus, sent him to you first let go, they came to their own company and reported all to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. 24 When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord and said, "O Lord, you are God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; 25 who by the mouth of your servant David, said, 'Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot a vain thing? 26 The kings of the earth take a stand, and the rulers plot together, against the Lord, and against his Christ,' 27 "For truly, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed. 28 to do whatever your hand and your counsel foreordained to happen. 29 Now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness, 30 while you stretch out your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy Servant Jesus." 31 When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness. 32 The multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. 33 With great power, the apostles gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. Great grace was on them all. 34 For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold. 35 and laid them at the apostles' feet; and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need. 36 Joses, who by the apostles was also called Barnabas (which is, being interpreted. Son of Encouragement), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race, 37 having a field, sold it and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his and the chief priests heard these words, they were price, his wife also being aware of it, then brought a this. 25 One came and told them, "Behold, the men certain part and laid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie teaching the people." 26 Then the captain went with the to the Holy Spirit and to keep back part of the price officers, and brought them without violence, for they of the land? 4 While you kept it, didn't it remain your were afraid that the people might stone them. 27 When own? After it was sold, wasn't it in your power? How is it they had brought them, they set them before the council. that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You The high priest questioned them, 28 saying, "Didn't we haven't lied to men, but to God." 5 Ananias, hearing strictly command you not to teach in this name? Behold, these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend who heard these things. 6 The young men arose and to bring this man's blood on us." 29 But Peter and the wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than him. 7 About three hours later, his wife, not knowing men. 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom what had happened, came in. 8 Peter answered her, you killed, hanging him on a tree. 31 God exalted him "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." She with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give said, "Yes, for so much." 9 But Peter asked her, "How is repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. 32 We are it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of his witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him." 33 your husband are at the door, and they will carry you But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, out." 10 She fell down immediately at his feet and died. and were determined to kill them. 34 But one stood up The young men came in and found her dead, and they in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of carried her out and buried her by her husband. 11 Great the law, honored by all the people, and commanded to fear came on the whole assembly, and on all who heard put the apostles out for a little while. 35 He said to them, these things. 12 By the hands of the apostles many "You men of Israel, be careful concerning these men, signs and wonders were done among the people. They what you are about to do. 36 For before these days were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. 13 None Theudas rose up, making himself out to be somebody; of the rest dared to join them; however, the people to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined honored them. 14 More believers were added to the themselves. He was slain; and all, as many as obeyed Lord, multitudes of both men and women. 15 They even him, were dispersed and came to nothing. 37 After carried out the sick into the streets and laid them on this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the cots and mattresses, so that as Peter came by, at least enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He his shadow might overshadow some of them. 16 The also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were multitude also came together from the cities around scattered abroad. 38 Now I tell you, withdraw from these Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those who were men and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this tormented by unclean spirits; and they were all healed. work is of men, it will be overthrown. 39 But if it is of 17 But the high priest rose up, and all those who were God, you will not be able to overthrow it, and you would with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and be found even to be fighting against God!" 40 They they were filled with jealousy 18 and laid hands on the agreed with him. Summoning the apostles, they beat apostles, then put them in public custody. 19 But an them and commanded them not to speak in the name of angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night, and Jesus, and let them go. 41 They therefore departed brought them out and said. 20 "Go stand and speak from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they in the temple to the people all the words of this life." were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for Jesus' name. 21 When they heard this, they entered into the temple 42 Every day, in the temple and at home, they never about daybreak and taught. But the high priest and stopped teaching and preaching Jesus, the Christ. those who were with him came and called the council together, with all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. 22 But the officers who came didn't find them in the prison. They returned and reported, 23 "We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside!" 24 Now when the high priest, the captain of the temple, wife, sold a possession, 2 and kept back part of the very perplexed about them and what might become of

6 Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily service. 2 The twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables. 3 Therefore, select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4 Egypt. God was with him 10 and delivered him out of all like it was the face of an angel.

7 The high priest said, "Are these things so?" He said, "Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, 3 and said to him, 'Get out of your land and away from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.' 4 Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans and lived in Haran. From there, when his father was dead, God moved him into this land where you are now living. 5 He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on. He promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his offspring after him, when he still had no child. 6 God spoke in this way: that his offspring would live as aliens in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years. 7 'I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,' said God, 'and after that they will come out and serve me in this place.' 8 He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs. 9 "The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into

But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before ministry of the word." 5 These words pleased the whole Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He made him governor over multitude. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and Egypt and all his house. 11 Now a famine came over all of the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction. Our Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch, 6 fathers found no food. 12 But when Jacob heard that whom they set before the apostles. When they had there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first prayed, they laid their hands on them. 7 The word time. 13 On the second time Joseph was made known of God increased and the number of the disciples to his brothers, and Joseph's family was revealed to greatly multiplied in Jerusalem. A great company of the Pharaoh. 14 Joseph sent and summoned Jacob his priests were obedient to the faith. 8 Stephen, full of father and all his relatives, seventy-five souls. 15 Jacob faith and power, performed great wonders and signs went down into Egypt and he died, himself and our among the people. 9 But some of those who were of the fathers; 16 and they were brought back to Shechem and synagogue called "The Libertines", and of the Cyrenians, laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia from the children of Hamor of Shechem. 17 "But as the arose, disputing with Stephen. 10 They weren't able to time of the promise came close which God had sworn to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 11 Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have until there arose a different king who didn't know Joseph. heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses 19 The same took advantage of our race and mistreated and God." 12 They stirred up the people, the elders, our fathers, and forced them to abandon their babies, and the scribes, and came against him and seized him, so that they wouldn't stay alive. 20 At that time Moses then brought him in to the council, 13 and set up false was born, and was exceedingly handsome to God. He witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking was nourished three months in his father's house. 21 blasphemous words against this holy place and the When he was abandoned, Pharaoh's daughter took law. 14 For we have heard him say that this Jesus of him up and reared him as her own son. 22 Moses was Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. He was customs which Moses delivered to us." 15 All who sat in mighty in his words and works. 23 But when he was forty the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the children of Israel. 24 Seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him and avenged him who was oppressed, striking the Egyptian. 25 He supposed that his brothers understood that God, by his hand, was giving them deliverance; but they didn't understand. 26 "The day following, he appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace again, saying, 'Sirs, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?' 27 But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?' 29 Moses fled at this saying, and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons. 30 "When forty years were fulfilled, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight. As he came close to see, the voice of the Lord came to him, 32 'I am the God of your fathers: the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' Moses trembled and dared not look. 33 The Lord said to him, 'Take off your sandals, for the place where you stand is holy ground. 34 I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you into Egypt.' 35

you a ruler and a judge?'-God has sent him as both their ears, then rushed at him with one accord. 58 They a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who threw him out of the city and stoned him. The witnesses appeared to him in the bush. 36 This man led them out, having worked wonders and signs in Egypt, in the Red Saul. 59 They stoned Stephen as he called out, saying, Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years. 37 This is that Moses who said to the children of Israel. 'The Lord our God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me.' 38 This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living revelations to give to us, 39 to whom our fathers wouldn't be obedient, but rejected him and turned back in their hearts to Egypt, 40 saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods that will go before us, for as for this Moses who led us out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him.' 41 They made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. 42 But God turned away and gave them up to serve the army of the sky, as it is written in the book of the prophets, 'Did you offer to me slain animals and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? 43 You took up the tabernacle of Moloch, the star of your god Rephan, the figures which you made to worship, so I will carry you away beyond Babylon.' 44 "Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he who spoke to Moses commanded him to make it according to the pattern that he had seen: 45 which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered into the possession of the nations whom God drove out before the face of our fathers to the days of David, 46 who found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob. 47 But Solomon built him a house. 48 However, the Most High doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says, 49 'heaven is my throne, and the earth a footstool for my feet. What kind of house will you build me?' says the Lord. 'Or what is the place of my rest? 50 Didn't my hand make all these things?' 51 "You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit! As your fathers did, so you do, 52 Which of the prophets didn't your fathers persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers. 53 You received the law as it was ordained by angels, and didn't keep it!" 54 Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth. 55 But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 and said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

"This Moses whom they refused, saving, "Who made 57 But they cried out with a loud voice and stopped" placed their garments at the feet of a young man named "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" 60 He kneeled down and cried with a loud voice. "Lord, don't hold this sin against them!" When he had said this, he fell asleep.

> 8 Saul was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the assembly which was in Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles. 2 Devout men buried Stephen and lamented greatly over him. 3 But Saul ravaged the assembly, entering into every house and dragged both men and women off to prison. 4 Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around preaching the word. 5 Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed to them the Christ. 6 The multitudes listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip when they heard and saw the signs which he did. 7 For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. 8 There was great joy in that city. 9 But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city and amazed the people of Samaria, making himself out to be some great one, 10 to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is that great power of God." 11 They listened to him because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries. 12 But when they believed Philip preaching good news concerning God's Kingdom and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. 13 Simon himself also believed. Being baptized, he continued with Philip. Seeing signs and great miracles occurring, he was amazed. 14 Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, 15 who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit; 16 for as yet he had fallen on none of them. They had only been baptized in the name of Christ Jesus. 17 Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. 18 Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, 19 saying, "Give me also this power, that whomever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit." 20 But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! 21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart isn't

They led him by the hand and brought him of the things which you have spoken happen to me." 25 into Damascus. 9 He was without sight for three days, They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the and neither ate nor drank. 10 Now there was a certain word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to the Good News to many villages of the Samaritans. him in a vision, "Ananias!" He said, "Behold, it's me, 26 Then an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Lord." 11 The Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house down from Jerusalem to Gaza. This is a desert." 27 of Judah for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For He arose and went; and behold, there was a man of behold, he is praying, 12 and in a vision he has seen a Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, man named Ananias coming in and laying his hands on queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, him, that he might receive his sight." 13 But Ananias who had come to Jerusalem to worship. 28 He was answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the man, how much evil he did to your saints at Jerusalem. prophet Isaiah. 29 The Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, 14 Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all and join yourself to this chariot." 30 Philip ran to him, and who call on your name." 15 But the Lord said to him, "Go heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name understand what you are reading?" 31 He said, "How before the nations and kings, and the children of Israel. can I, unless someone explains it to me?" He begged 16 For I will show him how many things he must suffer for Philip to come up and sit with him. 32 Now the passage my name's sake." 17 Ananias departed and entered into of the Scripture which he was reading was this, "He was the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, "Brother led as a sheep to the slaughter. As a lamb before his Saul, the Lord, who appeared to you on the road by shearer is silent, so he doesn't open his mouth. 33 In which you came, has sent me that you may receive your his humiliation, his judgment was taken away. Who will sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18 Immediately declare His generation? For his life is taken from the something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received earth." 34 The eunuch answered Philip, "Who is the his sight. He arose and was baptized. 19 He took food prophet talking about? About himself, or about someone and was strengthened. Saul stayed several days with else?" 35 Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from the disciples who were at Damascus. 20 Immediately in this Scripture, preached to him about Jesus. 36 As they the synagogues he proclaimed the Christ, that he is the went on the way, they came to some water; and the Son of God. 21 All who heard him were amazed, and eunuch said, "Behold, here is water. What is keeping me said, "Isn't this he who in Jerusalem made havoc of from being baptized?" 38 He commanded the chariot to those who called on this name? And he had come here stand still, and they both went down into the water, both intending to bring them bound before the chief priests!" Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. 39 When 22 But Saul increased more in strength, and confounded they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is caught Philip away, and the eunuch didn't see him any the Christ. 23 When many days were fulfilled, the Jews more, for he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip conspired together to kill him, 24 but their plot became was found at Azotus. Passing through, he preached the known to Saul. They watched the gates both day and Good News to all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

 But Saul, still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest 2 and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 As he traveled, he got close to Damascus, and suddenly a light from the sky shone around him. 4 He fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" 5 He said, "Who are you, Lord?" The Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 6 But rise up and enter night that they might kill him. 25 but his disciples took him by night and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. 26 When Saul had come to Jerusalem. he tried to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 He was with them entering into Jerusalem, 29 preaching boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus. He spoke and disputed against the Hellenists, but they were seeking to kill him. 30 When the brothers knew it, they brought him were preparing, he fell into a trance. 11 He saw heaven with a tanner named Simon.

1 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, 2 a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God. 3 At about the ninth hour of the day, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him and saying to him, "Cornelius!" 4 He, fastening his eyes on him and being frightened, said, "What is it, Lord?" He said to him, "Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God. 5 Now send men to Joppa, and get Simon, who is also called Peter. 6 He is staying with a tanner named Simon, whose house is by the seaside. 7 When the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually. 8 Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa. 9 Now on the next day as they were on their journey and got close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. 10 He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they

down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus. 31 So the opened and a certain container descending to him, like assemblies throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria a great sheet let down by four corners on the earth, 12 in had peace and were built up. They were multiplied, which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky. 13 A voice Holy Spirit. 32 As Peter went throughout all those parts, came to him, "Rise, Peter, kill and eat!" 14 But Peter he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda. said, "Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that 33 There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who is common or unclean." 15 A voice came to him again had been bedridden for eight years because he was the second time, "What God has cleansed, you must paralyzed. 34 Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ not call unclean." 16 This was done three times, and heals you. Get up and make your bed!" Immediately he immediately the thing was received up into heaven. 17 arose. 35 All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, Now while Peter was very perplexed in himself what the and they turned to the Lord. 36 Now there was at Joppa vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men a certain disciple named Tabitha, which when translated who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for means Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and Simon's house, stood before the gate, 18 and called and acts of mercy which she did. 37 In those days, she asked whether Simon, who was also called Peter, was became sick and died. When they had washed her, they lodging there. 19 While Peter was pondering the vision, laid her in an upper room. 38 As Lydda was near Joppa, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men seek you. 20 the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to for I have sent them." 21 Peter went down to the men, them. 39 Peter got up and went with them. When he and said, "Behold, I am he whom you seek. Why have had come, they brought him into the upper room. All the you come?" 22 They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a widows stood by him weeping, and showing the tunics righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken and other garments which Dorcas had made while she of by all the nation of the Jews, was directed by a was with them. 40 Peter sent them all out, and knelt holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, what you say." 23 So he called them in and provided a get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, place to stay. On the next day Peter arose and went she sat up. 41 He gave her his hand and raised her up. out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. accompanied him. 24 On the next day they entered into 42 This became known throughout all Joppa, and many Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called believed in the Lord. 43 He stayed many days in Joppa together his relatives and his near friends. 25 When Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. 26 But Peter raised him up. saving. "Stand up! I myself am also a man." 27 As he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together. 28 He said to them, "You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I shouldn't call any man unholy or unclean. 29 Therefore I also came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?" 30 Cornelius said, "Four days ago, I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour, I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing 31 and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of God. 32 Send therefore to Joppa and summon Simon, who is also called Peter. He is staying in the house of a tanner named Simon, by the seaside. When he comes, he will speak to you.' 33 Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by God." 34 Peter opened

These six and works righteousness is acceptable to him. 36 The brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the word which he sent to the children of Israel, preaching man's house. 13 He told us how he had seen the angel good news of peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of standing in his house and saying to him, 'Send to Joppa all— 37 you yourselves know what happened, which and get Simon, who is called Peter, 14 who will speak to was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from you words by which you will be saved, you and all your Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; 38 how house.' 15 As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and them, even as on us at the beginning. 16 I remembered with power, who went about doing good and healing all the word of the Lord, how he said, 'John indeed baptized who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.' 17 39 We are witnesses of everything he did both in the If then God gave to them the same gift as us when country of the Jews and in Jerusalem; whom they also we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that killed, hanging him on a tree. 40 God raised him up the I could withstand God?" 18 When they heard these third day and gave him to be revealed, 41 not to all the things, they held their peace and glorified God, saying, people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by "Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance God, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose to life!" 19 They therefore who were scattered abroad from the dead. 42 He commanded us to preach to the by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled people and to testify that this is he who is appointed as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking by God as the Judge of the living and the dead. 43 All the word to no one except to Jews only. 20 But there the prophets testify about him, that through his name were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, everyone who believes in him will receive remission of when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, sins." 44 While Peter was still speaking these words, preaching the Lord Jesus. 21 The hand of the Lord was the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word. 45 with them, and a great number believed and turned to They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, the Lord. 22 The report concerning them came to the as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem. They Holy Spirit was also poured out on the Gentiles. 46 sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch. 23 who. For they heard them speaking in other languages and when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, magnifying God. Then Peter answered, 47 "Can anyone was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of forbid these people from being baptized with water? heart they should remain near to the Lord. 24 For he They have received the Holy Spirit just like us." 48 He was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus and many people were added to the Lord. 25 Barnabas Christ. Then they asked him to stay some days.

11 Now the apostles and the brothers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. 2 When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, 3 saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them!" 4 But Peter began, and explained to them in order, saving, 5 "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me. 6 When I had looked intently at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky. 7 I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Peter, kill and eat!' 8 But I said, 'Not his mouth and said, "Truly I perceive that God doesn't been sent from Caesarea to me. 12 The Spirit told went out to Tarsus to look for Saul. 26 When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they were gathered together with the assembly, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians in Antioch. 27 Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 One of them named Agabus stood up and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius. 29 As any of the disciples had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea; 30 which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

12 Now about that time, King Herod stretched out his hands to oppress some of the assembly. 2 He so, Lord, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered killed James, the brother of John, with the sword. 3 into my mouth,' 9 But a voice answered me the second When he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to time out of heaven, 'What God has cleansed, don't you seize Peter also. This was during the days of unleavened call unclean.' 10 This was done three times, and all were bread. 4 When he had arrested him, he put him in prison drawn up again into heaven. 11 Behold, immediately and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to three men stood before the house where I was, having guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after Guards in front of the door kept the prison. 7 And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly!" His chains fell off his hands. 8 The angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Put on your cloak and follow me." 9 And he went out and followed him. He didn't know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision. 10 When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him. 11 When Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent out his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting. 12 Thinking about that, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John who was called Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying. 13 When Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer. 14 When she recognized Peter's voice, she didn't open the gate for joy, but ran in and reported that Peter was standing in front of the gate. 15 They said to her, "You are crazy!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel." 16 But Peter continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him and were amazed. 17 But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to James and to the brothers." Then he departed and went to another place. 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. 19 When Herod had sought for him and didn't find him, he examined the guards, then commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judea to Caesarea, and staved there. 20 Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to him and, having made Blastus, the king's personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food. 21 On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them. 22 The people shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of a man!" 23 Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he didn't give God the glory. Then he was eaten by worms and died. 24 But the word of God grew and multiplied. 25 Barnabas and Saul returned to the Passover. 5 Peter therefore was kept in the prison, Jerusalem when they had fulfilled their service, also

3 Now in the assembly that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2 As they served the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate Barnabas and Saul for me, for the work to which I have called them." 3 Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. 4 So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. 5 When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed God's word in the Jewish synagogues. They also had John as their attendant. 6 When they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew whose name was Bar Jesus, 7 who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. 9 But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him 10 and said, "You son of the devil, full of all deceit and all cunning, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? 11 Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!" Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord. 13 Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. 14 But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down. 15 After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak." 16 Paul stood up, and gesturing with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen. 17 The God of this people chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as aliens in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, he led them out of it. 18 For a period of about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness. 19 When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance for about four hundred fifty years. 20 After these things, he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. 21 Afterward they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. 22 When he had

(aionios q166) 49 The Lord's word was spread stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, abroad throughout all the region. 50 But the Jews stirred the word of this salvation is sent out to you. 27 For those up the devout and prominent women and the chief men who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul didn't know him, nor the voices of the prophets which and Barnabas, and threw them out of their borders. 51 are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, him. 28 Though they found no cause for death, they and came to Iconium, 52 The disciples were filled with still asked Pilate to have him killed. 29 When they had joy and with the Holy Spirit. fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God raised him from the dead, 31 and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people. 32 We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers. 33 that God has fulfilled this to us, their children. in that he raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second psalm, 'You are my Son. Today I have become your father.' 34 "Concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he has spoken thus: 'I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.' 35 Therefore he says also in another psalm, 'You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.' 36 For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell asleep, was laid with his fathers. and saw decay. 37 But he whom God raised up saw no decay. 38 Be it known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man is proclaimed to you remission of sins; 39 and by him everyone who believes is justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the prophets: 41 'Behold, you scoffers! Wonder and perish, for I work a work in your days, a work which you will in no way believe, if one declares it to you." 42 So when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath. 43 Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God. 44 The next Sabbath, almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God. 45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with iealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and blasphemed. 46 Paul and Barnabas spoke

11 In Iconium, they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. 2 But the disbelieving Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers. 3 Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided. Part sided with the Jews and part with the apostles. 5 When some of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them, 6 they became aware of it and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region. 7 There they preached the Good News. 8 At Lystra a certain man sat, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. 9 He was listening to Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, 10 said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" He leaped up and walked. 11 When the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" 12 They called Barnabas "Jupiter", and Paul "Mercury", because he was the chief speaker. 13 The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the multitudes. 14 But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothes and sprang into the multitude, crying out, 15 "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of the same nature as you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; 16 who in the generations gone by allowed all the long time.

15 Some men came down from Judea and taught the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses, you can't be saved." 2 Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paul, Barnabas, and some others of them to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. 3 They, being sent on their way by the assembly, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. They caused great joy to all the brothers. 4 When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly and the apostles and the elders, and they reported everything that God had done with them. 5 But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses." 6 The apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. 7 When there had been much discussion, Peter rose up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among you that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the Good News and believe. 8 God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them nations to walk in their own ways. 17 Yet he didn't leave the Holy Spirit, just like he did to us. 9 He made no himself without witness, in that he did good and gave distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling our by faith. 10 Now therefore why do you tempt God, that hearts with food and gladness." 18 Even saying these you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples things, they hardly stopped the multitudes from making which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 a sacrifice to them. 19 But some Jews from Antioch But we believe that we are saved through the grace of and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the the Lord Jesus, just as they are." 12 All the multitude multitudes, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of kept silence, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul the city, supposing that he was dead. 20 But as the reporting what signs and wonders God had done among disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the nations through them. 13 After they were silent, the city. On the next day he went out with Barnabas to James answered, "Brothers, listen to me. 14 Simeon Derbe. 21 When they had preached the Good News to has reported how God first visited the nations to take that city and had made many disciples, they returned to out of them a people for his name. 15 This agrees with Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, 22 strengthening the souls the words of the prophets. As it is written, 16 'After of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, these things I will return. I will again build the tabernacle and that through many afflictions we must enter into of David, which has fallen. I will again build its ruins. I God's Kingdom. 23 When they had appointed elders for will set it up 17 that the rest of men may seek after the them in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, Lord: all the Gentiles who are called by my name, says they commended them to the Lord on whom they had the Lord, who does all these things.' 18 "All of God's believed. 24 They passed through Pisidia and came to works are known to him from eternity. Farewell." 30 So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch. Having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter. 31 When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. 32 Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged her heart to listen to the things which were spoken by Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the assemblies.

16 He came to Derbe and Lystra; and behold. a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess who believed, but his father was a Greek. 2 The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him. 3 Paul wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem. 5 So the assemblies were strengthened in the faith. and increased in number daily. 6 When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. 7 When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit didn't allow them. 8 Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. 9 A vision appeared to Paul in the night. There was a man of Macedonia standing, begging him and saving, "Come over into Macedonia and help us." 10 When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the Good News to them. 11 Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis: 12 and from there to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the foremost of the district, a Roman colony. We were staying some days in this city. 13 On the Sabbath day we went outside of the city by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. 14 A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us. The Lord opened the brothers with many words and strengthened them. Paul. 15 When she and her household were baptized, 33 After they had spent some time there, they were she begged us, saving, "If you have judged me to be dismissed in peace from the brothers to the apostles, faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay." So 35 But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching she persuaded us. 16 As we were going to prayer, a and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others certain girl having a spirit of divination met us, who also. 36 After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's brought her masters much gain by fortune telling, 17 return now and visit our brothers in every city in which Following Paul and us, she cried out, "These men are we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us are doing." 37 Barnabas planned to take John, who was a way of salvation!" 18 She was doing this for many called Mark, with them also. 38 But Paul didn't think that days. But Paul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and it was a good idea to take with them someone who had said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and didn't go with Christ to come out of her!" It came out that very hour. them to do the work. 39 Then the contention grew so 19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their sharp that they separated from each other. Barnabas gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus. 40 but them into the marketplace before the rulers, 20 When Paul chose Silas and went out, being commended by they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, the brothers to the grace of God. 41 He went through "These men, being Jews, are agitating our city 21 and advocate customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans." 22 The multitude rose up together against them and the magistrates tore their clothes from them, then commanded them to be beaten with rods. 23 When they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely. 24 Having received such a command, he threw them into the inner prison and secured their feet in the stocks. 25 But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. 26 Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were loosened. 27 The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, "Don't harm yourself, for we are all here!" 29 He called for lights, sprang in, fell down trembling before Paul and Silas, 30 brought them out, and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" 31 They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household," 32 They spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all who were in his house. 33 He took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes, and was immediately baptized, he and all his household. 34 He brought them up into his house and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly with all his household, having believed in God. 35 But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those men go." 36 The jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out and go in peace." 37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast most certainly, but let them come themselves and bring they were Romans, 39 and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city. 40 They went out of the prison and brothers, they encouraged them, then departed.

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. 2 Paul, as was his custom, went in to them; and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, 3 explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ." 4 Some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas: of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and not a few of the chief women. 5 But the unpersuaded Jews took along some wicked men from the marketplace and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them out to the people. 6 When they didn't find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the rulers of the city, crying, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here also. 7 whom Jason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus!" 8 The multitude and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things. 9 When they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go. 10 The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Beroea. When they arrived, they went into the Jewish synagogue. 11 Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so. 12 Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek women, and not a few men. 13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Beroea also, they came there likewise, agitating the multitudes. 14 Then the brothers immediately sent out Paul to go as far as to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there. 15 But those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him very quickly, they departed. 16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols. 17 So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him. 18 Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also were conversing with him. Some us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No, said, "What does this babbler want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign deities," because us out!" 38 The sergeants reported these words to the he preached Jesus and the resurrection. 19 They took magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that hold of him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is, which you are speaking about? 20 For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what entered into Lydia's house. When they had seen the these things mean." 21 Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing. 22 Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus and said, "You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things. 23 For as I passed along and observed the objects of your worship, I also found an altar with this inscription: 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What therefore you worship in ignorance, I announce to you. 24 The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, doesn't dwell in temples made with hands. 25 He isn't served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath and all things. 26 He made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons and the boundaries of their dwellings, 27 that they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. 28 'For in him we live, move, and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.' 29 Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of man. 30 The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent, 31 because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead." 32 Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We want to hear you again concerning this." 33 Thus Paul went out from among them. 34 But certain men joined with him and believed, including Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

> After these things Paul departed from Athens and came to Corinth. 2 He found a certain Jew named Aguila, a man of Pontus by race, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome. He came to them, 3 and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers. 4 He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath and persuaded Jews and Greeks. 5

Paul was compelled by the Spirit, testifying to the Jews had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers that Jesus was the Christ. 6 When they opposed him encouraged him; and wrote to the disciples to receive and blasphemed, he shook out his clothing and said to him. When he had come, he greatly helped those who them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. had believed through grace; 28 for he powerfully refuted From now on, I will go to the Gentiles!" 7 He departed the Jews, publicly showing by the Scriptures that Jesus there and went into the house of a certain man named was the Christ. Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. 8 Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house. Many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were baptized. 9 The Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, "Don't be afraid, but speak and don't be silent; 10 for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city." 11 He lived there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. 12 But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, 13 saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law." 14 But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you: 15 but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I don't want to be a judge of these matters." 16 So he drove them from the judgment seat. 17 Then all the Greeks seized Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. Gallio didn't care about any of these things. 18 Paul, having stayed after this many more days, took his leave of the brothers, and sailed from there for Syria, together with Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Cenchreae, for he had a vow. 19 He came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. 20 When they asked him to stay with them a longer time, he declined; 21 but taking his leave of them, he said, "I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem, but I will return again to you if God wills." Then he set sail from Ephesus. 22 When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the assembly, and went down to Antioch. 23 Having spent some time there, he departed and went through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples. 24 Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the Scriptures. 25 This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, although he knew only the baptism of John. 26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aguila heard him, they took him aside, and explained

 $\pmb{19} \text{ While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed}$ through the upper country, came to Ephesus and found certain disciples. 2 He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" They said to him, "No, we haven't even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." 3 He said, "Into what then were vou baptized?" They said. "Into John's baptism." 4 Paul said, "John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in Christ Jesus." 5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them and they spoke with other languages and prophesied. 7 They were about twelve men in all. 8 He entered into the synagogue and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning God's Kingdom. 9 But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10 This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. 11 God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul, 12 so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the diseases departed from them. and the evil spirits went out. 13 But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, "We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches." 14 There were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this. 15 The evil spirit answered, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?" 16 The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18 Many also of those who had believed came, confessing and declaring their deeds. 19 Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted their price, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 So the word of the Lord was growing and becoming mighty. 21 Now after these things had ended, Paul determined in the Spirit, account of this commotion." 41 When he had thus when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to spoken, he dismissed the assembly. go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome." 22 Having sent into Macedonia two of those who served him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while. 23 About that time there arose no small disturbance concerning the Way. 24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen, 25 whom he gathered together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth. 26 You see and hear that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods that are made with hands. 27 Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing and her majesty destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships." 28 When they heard this they were filled with anger, and cried out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" 29 The whole city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel. 30 When Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples didn't allow him. 31 Certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater. 32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them didn't know why they had come together. 33 They brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people. 34 But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice for a time of about two hours cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" 35 When the town clerk had quieted the multitude, he said, "You men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus? 36 Seeing then that these things can't be denied, you ought to be quiet and to do nothing rash. 37 For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess. 38 If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another. 39 But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly. 40 For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning today's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an

20 After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples, took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia. 2 When he had gone through those parts and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece. 3 When he had spent three months there, and a plot was made against him by Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. 4 These accompanied him as far as Asia: Sopater of Beroea, Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, Gaius of Derbe, Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. 5 But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas. 6 We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days. 7 On the first day of the week, when the disciples were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day; and continued his speech until midnight. 8 There were many lights in the upper room where we were gathered together. 9 A certain young man named Eutychus sat in the window, weighed down with deep sleep. As Paul spoke still longer, being weighed down by his sleep, he fell down from the third floor and was taken up dead. 10 Paul went down and fell upon him, and embracing him said, "Don't be troubled, for his life is in him." 11 When he had gone up, had broken bread and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed. 12 They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted. 13 But we, going ahead to the ship, set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there; for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land. 14 When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and came to Mitylene. 15 Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium, and the day after we came to Miletus. 16 For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost. 17 From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called to himself the elders of the assembly. 18 When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, 19 serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews; 20 how I didn't shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house, 21 testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus. 22 Now, behold, I go bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me

there: 23 except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every we who were Paul's companions departed and came wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock, 30 the Lord Jesus." 14 When he would not be persuaded. three years I didn't cease to admonish everyone night also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, 'It is more blessed there are among the Jews of those who have believed, Then they accompanied him to the ship.

21 When we had departed from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara, 2 Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail. 3 When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria and landed at Tyre, for the ship was there to unload her cargo. 4 Having found disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Paul through the Spirit that he should not go up to Jerusalem. 5 When those days were over, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed. 6 After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again. 7 When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers and staved with them one day. 8 On the next day.

We entered into the house of Philip the these things don't count; nor do I hold my life dear to evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the him. 9 Now this man had four virgin daughters who ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully prophesied. 10 As we stayed there some days, a certain testify to the Good News of the grace of God. 25 "Now, prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. 11 behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about Coming to us and taking Paul's belt, he bound his own preaching God's Kingdom, will see my face no more. 26 feet and hands, and said, "The Holy Spirit says: 'So the Therefore I testify to you today that I am clean from the Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt, blood of all men, 27 for I didn't shrink from declaring to and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles." 12 you the whole counsel of God. 28 Take heed, therefore, When we heard these things, both we and the people of to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. 13 has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping the Lord and God which he purchased with his own and breaking my heart? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come. 23 Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. 24 Take them and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the law. 25 But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written our decision that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality." 26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them. 27 When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him, 28 crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people. He said to me. 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you and the law, and this place. Moreover, he also brought persecute.' 9 "Those who were with me indeed saw Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place!" the light and were afraid, but they didn't understand 29 For they had seen Trophimus the Ephesian, with him the voice of him who spoke to me. 10 I said, 'What in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought shall I do, Lord?' He said, "Do you know Greek? imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who 38 Aren't you then the Egyptian who before these days believed in you. 20 When the blood of Stephen, your stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness witness, was shed, I also was standing by, consenting to the four thousand men of the Assassins?" 39 But Paul his death, and quarding the cloaks of those who killed said, "I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no him." 21 "He said to me, 'Depart, for I will send you out insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the far from here to the Gentiles." 22 They listened to him people." 40 When he had given him permission, Paul, until he said that; then they lifted up their voice and standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the said, "Rid the earth of this fellow, for he isn't fit to live!" people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to 23 As they cried out, threw off their cloaks, and threw them in the Hebrew language, saying,

22 "Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense which I now make to you." 2 When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. He said, 3 "I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict tradition of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are today. 4 I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women, 5 as also the high priest and all the council of the elders testify, from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and traveled to Damascus to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished. 6 "As I made my journey and came close to Damascus, about noon suddenly a great light shone around me from the sky. 7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' 8 I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?'

dust into the air, 24 the commanding officer commanded him to be brought into the barracks, ordering him to be examined by scourging, that he might know for what crime they shouted against him like that. 25 When they had tied him up with thongs, Paul asked the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and not found guilty?" 26 When the centurion heard it, he went to the commanding officer and told him. "Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman!" 27 The commanding officer came and asked him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" He said, "Yes." 28 The commanding officer answered, "I bought my citizenship for a great price." Paul said, "But I was born a Roman." 29 Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him. 30 But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him from the bonds and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come

23 Paul, looking steadfastly at the council, said. "Brothers, I have lived before God in all good conscience until today." 2 The high priest, Ananias, commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the law, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?" 4 Those who stood by said, "Do you malign God's high priest?" 5 Paul said, "I didn't know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'" 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council. "Men and brothers. I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!" 7 When he had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the crowd was divided. 8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these. 9 A great clamor arose, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees' part stood up, and contended, saying, "We find no evil in this man. But if a spirit or angel has spoken to him, let's not fight against God!" 10 When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them and bring him into the barracks. 11 The following night, the Lord stood by him and said, "Cheer up, Paul, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must testify also at Rome." 12 When it was day, some of the Jews banded together and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. 13 There were more than forty people who had made this conspiracy. 14 They came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great curse to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 Now therefore, you with the council inform the commanding officer that he should bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you were going to judge his case more exactly. We are ready to kill him before he comes near." 16 But Paul's sister's son heard they were lying in wait, and he came and entered into the barracks and told Paul. 17 Paul summoned one of the centurions and said, "Bring this young man to the commanding him and brought him to the commanding officer and together, and brought Paul down and set him before have to tell me?" 20 He said. "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him. 21 Therefore don't yield to them, for more than forty men lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse to neither eat nor drink until they have killed him. Now they are ready, looking for the promise from you." 22 So the commanding officer let the young man go, charging him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me." 23 He called to himself two of the centurions, and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen and two hundred men armed with spears, at the third hour of the night." 24 He asked them to provide mounts, that they might set Paul on one, and bring him safely to Felix the governor. 25 He wrote a letter like this: 26 "Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix: Greetings. 27 "This man was seized by the Jews. and was about to be killed by them when I came with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. 28 Desiring to know the cause why they accused him, I brought him down to their council. 29 I found him to be accused about questions of their law, but not to be charged with anything worthy of death or of imprisonment. 30 When I was told that the Jews lay in wait for the man, I sent him to you immediately, charging his accusers also to bring their accusations against him before you. Farewell." 31 So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 But on the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks. 33 When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. 34 When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he understood that he was from Cilicia. he said, 35 "I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive." He commanded that he be kept in Herod's palace.

21 After five days, the high priest, Ananias, came down with certain elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Paul. 2 When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that prosperity is coming to this nation by your foresight. 3 we accept it in all ways and in all places. most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 But that I don't delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear officer, for he has something to tell him." 18 So he took a few words. 5 For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews said, "Paul, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the to bring this young man to you. He has something to tell Nazarenes. 6 He even tried to profane the temple, and vou." 19 The commanding officer took him by the hand, we arrested him. 8 By examining him yourself you may and going aside, asked him privately, "What is it that you ascertain all these things of which we accuse him." 9

The Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these kept in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. 2 Then the high priest and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and they begged him, 3 asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem, plotting to kill him on the way. 4 However Festus answered that Paul should be things were so. 10 When the governor had beckoned to about to depart shortly. 5 "Let them therefore", he said, him to speak, Paul answered, "Because I know that "that are in power among you go down with me, and if you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I there is anything wrong in the man, let them accuse cheerfully make my defense, 11 seeing that you can him." 6 When he had stayed among them more than verify that it is not more than twelve days since I went up ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next to worship at Jerusalem. 12 In the temple they didn't find day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paul me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in to be brought. 7 When he had come, the Jews who had the synagogues or in the city. 13 Nor can they prove to come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing you the things of which they now accuse me. 14 But this against him many and grievous charges which they I confess to you, that according to the Way, which they could not prove, 8 while he said in his defense, "Neither call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, all things which are according to the law, and which are nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all." 9 But Festus, written in the prophets; 15 having hope toward God, desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul which these also themselves look for, that there will be a and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. 16 be judged by me there concerning these things?" 10 In this I also practice always having a conscience void But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment of offense toward God and men. 17 Now after some seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to years, I came to bring gifts for the needy to my nation, the Jews, as you also know very well. 11 For if I have and offerings; 18 amid which certain Jews from Asia done wrong and have committed anything worthy of found me purified in the temple, not with a mob, nor with death, I don't refuse to die; but if none of those things is turmoil. 19 They ought to have been here before you true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to and to make accusation if they had anything against me. them. I appeal to Caesar!" 12 Then Festus, when he 20 Or else let these men themselves say what injustice had conferred with the council, answered, "You have they found in me when I stood before the council, 21 appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you shall go." 13 Now unless it is for this one thing that I cried standing among when some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice them, 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am arrived at Caesarea and greeted Festus. 14 As he being judged before you today!" 22 But Felix, having stayed there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred the king, saying, "There is a certain man left a prisoner them, saying, "When Lysias, the commanding officer, by Felix; 15 about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, comes down, I will decide your case." 23 He ordered the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed the centurion that Paul should be kept in custody and me, asking for a sentence against him. 16 I answered should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of them that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up his friends to serve him or to visit him. 24 After some any man to destruction before the accused has met the days, Felix came with Drusilla his wife, who was a accusers face to face and has had opportunity to make Jewess, and sent for Paul and heard him concerning his defense concerning the matter laid against him. 17 the faith in Christ Jesus. 25 As he reasoned about When therefore they had come together here, I didn't righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat Felix was terrified, and answered, "Go your way for this and commanded the man to be brought. 18 When the time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon accusers stood up, they brought no charges against you." 26 Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would him of such things as I supposed; 19 but had certain be given to him by Paul, that he might release him, guestions against him about their own religion and about Therefore also he sent for him more often and talked one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be with him. 27 But when two years were fulfilled. Felix alive. 20 Being perplexed how to inquire concerning was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters. 21 But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar." 22 Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him." 23 So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and the principal servant and a witness both of the things which you have against him."

26 Agrippa said to Paul, "You may speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand, and made his defense. 2 "I think myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you today concerning all the things that I am accused by the Jews, 3 especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently. 4 "Indeed, all the Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem; 5 having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6 Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, 7 which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa! 8 Why is it judged incredible with you if God does raise the dead? 9 "I myself most certainly thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 I also did this in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. 11 Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was seen and of the things which I will reveal to you; 17 brought in. 24 Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all men delivering you from the people and from the Gentiles, who are here present with us, you see this man about to whom I send you, 18 to open their eyes, that they whom all the multitude of the Jews petitioned me, both may turn from darkness to light and from the power of at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins any longer. 25 But when I found that he had committed and an inheritance among those who are sanctified nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to by faith in me.' 19 "Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not the emperor, I determined to send him, 26 of whom I disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 but declared first have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I to them of Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout have brought him out before you, and especially before all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that you, King Agrippa, that, after examination I may have they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy something to write. 27 For it seems to me unreasonable, of repentance. 21 For this reason the Jews seized me in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges in the temple and tried to kill me. 22 Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would happen, 23 how the Christ must suffer, and how, by the resurrection of the dead, he would be first to proclaim light both to these people and to the Gentiles." 24 As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are crazv! Your great learning is driving you insane!" 25 But he said, "I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness. 26 For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe." 28 Agrippa said to Paul, "With a little persuasion are you trying to make me a Christian?" 29 Paul said, "I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me today, might become such as I am, except for these bonds." 30 The king rose up with the governor and Bernice, and those who sat with them. 31 When they had withdrawn, they spoke to one another, saying, "This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds." 32 Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

27 When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other 12 "Whereupon as I traveled to Damascus with the prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 at band. 2 Embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was noon, O king, I saw on the way a light from the sky, about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to brighter than the sun, shining around me and those sea, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica being who traveled with me. 14 When we had all fallen to with us. 3 The next day, we touched at Sidon. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, 14 where we found brothers, and were entreated to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome. 15 From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage. 16 When we entered into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him. 17 After three days Paul called together those who were the leaders of the Jews. When they had come together, he said to them, "I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, 18 who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me. 19 But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. 20 For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain." 21 They said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you. 22 But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against." 23 When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about God's Kingdom. and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning until evening. 24 Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. 25 When they didn't agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one message: "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah the prophet to our fathers, 26 saying, 'Go to this people and say, in hearing, you will hear, but will in no way understand. 1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the Good News of God, 2 which he promised before through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, 3 concerning his Son, who was born of the offspring of David according to the flesh, 4 who was declared to be the Son of God with power according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, 5 through whom we received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the nations for his name's sake; 6 among whom you are also called to belong to Jesus Christ; 7 to all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10 requesting, if by any means now at last I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you. 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be established; 12 that is, that I with you may be encouraged in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine. 13 Now I 2 Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever don't desire to have you unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you (and was hindered so far), that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles. 14 I am debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to the wise and to the foolish. 15 So as much as is in me, I am eager to preach the Good News to you also who are in Rome. 16 For I am not ashamed of the Good News of Christ, because it is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first, and also for the Greek. 17 For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith." 18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, 19 because that which is known of God is revealed in them, for God revealed it to them. 20 For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity, that they may be without excuse. (aïdios g126) 21 Because knowing God, they didn't glorify him as God, and didn't give thanks, but creeping things. 24 Therefore God also gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves; 25 who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. (aion g165) 26 For this reason, God gave them up to vile passions. For their women changed the natural function into that which is against nature. 27 Likewise also the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men doing what is inappropriate with men, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error. 28 Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting; 29 being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers, 30 backbiters, hateful to God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, unforgiving, unmerciful; 32 who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.

you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. 2 We know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. 3 Do you think this, O man who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? 4 Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? 5 But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by for yourself wrath in the day of wrath, revelation, and of the righteous judgment of God, 6 who "will pay back to everyone according to their works:" 7 to those who by perseverance in well-doing seek for glory, honor, and incorruptibility, eternal life; (aionios g166) 8 but to those who are self-seeking and don't obey the truth. but obey unrighteousness, will be wrath, indignation, 9 oppression, and anguish on every soul of man who does evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. 10 But glory, honor, and peace go to every man who does good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. 11 For became vain in their reasoning, and their senseless there is no partiality with God. 12 For as many as have heart was darkened. 22 Professing themselves to be sinned without the law will also perish without the law. wise, they became fools, 23 and traded the glory of As many as have sinned under the law will be judged the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of by the law. 13 For it isn't the hearers of the law who corruptible man, and of birds, four-footed animals, and are righteous before God, but the doers of the law

Romans 670 the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not sin. 10 As it is written, "There is no one righteous; no, their conscience testifying with them, and their thoughts away. They have together become unprofitable. There 16 in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, "Their throat is an open tomb. With their tongues they according to my Good News, by Jesus Christ. 17 Indeed have used deceit." "The poison of vipers is under their you bear the name of a Jew, rest on the law, glory in lips." 14 "Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness." excellent, being instructed out of the law, 19 and are and misery are in their ways. 17 The way of peace, they confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a haven't known." 18 "There is no fear of God before their You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? 23 You who apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been law? 24 For "the name of God is blasphemed among even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus his uncircumcision be accounted as circumcision? 27 blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness through the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision to demonstrate his righteousness at this present time, inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the by a law of faith. 28 We maintain therefore that a man but from God.

3 Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? 2 Much in every way! Because first of all, they were entrusted with the revelations of God. 3 For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God? 4 May it never be! Yes, let God be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written, "that you might be we better than they? No, in no way, For we previously are forgiven, whose sins are covered. 8 Blessed is will be justified 14 (for when Gentiles who don't have warned both Jews and Greeks that they are all under having the law, are a law to themselves, 15 in that not one. 11 There is no one who understands. There is they show the work of the law written in their hearts, no one who seeks after God. 12 They have all turned among themselves accusing or else excusing them) is no one who does good, no, not so much as one." 13 God, 18 know his will, and approve the things that are 15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood. 16 Destruction light to those who are in darkness, 20 a corrector of the eyes." 19 Now we know that whatever things the law foolish, a teacher of babies, having in the law the form of says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that knowledge and of the truth. 21 You therefore who teach every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be another, don't you teach yourself? You who preach that brought under the judgment of God. 20 Because by the a man shouldn't steal, do you steal? 22 You who say a works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight; for man shouldn't commit adultery, do you commit adultery? through the law comes the knowledge of sin. 21 But now glory in the law, do you dishonor God by disobeying the revealed, being testified by the law and the prophets; 22 the Gentiles because of you," just as it is written. 25 Christ to all and on all those who believe. For there is For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of no distinction, 23 for all have sinned, and fall short of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your the glory of God; 24 being justified freely by his grace circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26 If therefore through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, 25 whom the uncircumcised keep the ordinances of the law, won't God sent to be an atoning sacrifice through faith in his Won't those who are physically uncircumcised, but fulfill the passing over of prior sins, in God's forbearance; 26 are a transgressor of the law? 28 For he is not a Jew that he might himself be just and the justifier of him who who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which has faith in Jesus. 27 Where then is the boasting? It is outward in the flesh; 29 but he is a Jew who is one is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. 29 Or is God the God of Jews only? Isn't he the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, 30 since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. 31 Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! No, we establish the law.

⚠ What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather, has found according to the flesh? 2 For if Abraham justified in your words, and might prevail when you come was justified by works, he has something to boast about, into judgment." 5 But if our unrighteousness commends but not toward God. 3 For what does the Scripture the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God say? "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak like men do. 6 to him for righteousness." 4 Now to him who works, May it never be! For then how will God judge the world? the reward is not counted as grace, but as something 7 For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his owed. 5 But to him who doesn't work, but believes in glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8 Why not him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm for righteousness. 6 Even as David also pronounces that we say), "Let's do evil, that good may come?" Those blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness who say so are justly condemned. 9 What then? Are apart from works: 7 "Blessed are they whose iniquities written that it was accounted to him for his sake alone. 24 but for our sake also, to whom it will be accounted, who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

S Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; 2 through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces perseverance; 4 and the man whom the Lord will by no means charge hope; 5 and hope doesn't disappoint us, because God's with sin." 9 Is this blessing then pronounced only love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? Spirit who was given to us. 6 For while we were yet For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For righteousness. 10 How then was it counted? When one will hardly die for a righteous man. Yet perhaps he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in for a good person someone would even dare to die. circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11 He received the 8 But God commends his own love toward us, in that sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be he might be the father of all those who believe, though saved from God's wrath through him. 10 For if while they might be in uncircumcision, that righteousness we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through might also be accounted to them. 12 He is the father the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we of circumcision to those who not only are of the will be saved by his life. 11 Not only so, but we also circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. whom we have now received the reconciliation. 12 13 For the promise to Abraham and to his offspring Therefore, as sin entered into the world through one that he would be heir of the world wasn't through the man, and death through sin, so death passed to all law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if men because all sinned. 13 For until the law, sin was those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no and the promise is made of no effect. 15 For the law law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until produces wrath; for where there is no law, neither is Moses, even over those whose sins weren't like Adam's there disobedience. 16 For this cause it is of faith, that it disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was may be according to grace, to the end that the promise to come. 15 But the free gift isn't like the trespass. For if may be sure to all the offspring, not to that only which by the trespass of the one the many died, much more is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Abraham, who is the father of us all. 17 As it is written, man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many. 16 The gift is "I have made you a father of many nations." This is in not as through one who sinned; for the judgment came the presence of him whom he believed: God, who gives by one to condemnation, but the free gift followed many life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as trespasses to justification. 17 For if by the trespass of the though they were. 18 Against hope, Abraham in hope one, death reigned through the one; so much more will believed, to the end that he might become a father of those who receive the abundance of grace and of the many nations, according to that which had been spoken, gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus "So will your offspring be." 19 Without being weakened Christ. 18 So then as through one trespass, all men were in faith, he didn't consider his own body, already having condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, been worn out, (he being about a hundred years old), all men were justified to life. 19 For as through the one and the deadness of Sarah's womb. 20 Yet, looking to man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so the promise of God, he didn't waver through unbelief, through the obedience of the one, many will be made but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God, 21 righteous. 20 The law came in that the trespass might and being fully assured that what he had promised, abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded more he was also able to perform. 22 Therefore it also was exceedingly, 21 that as sin reigned in death, even so "credited to him for righteousness." 23 Now it was not grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord, (aionios g166)

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? 2 May it never be! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer? 3 Or don't you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4 We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. 5 For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of perseverance, proven character; and proven character, his resurrection; 6 knowing this, that our old man was

7 Or don't you know, brothers (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man for as long as he lives? 2 For the woman that has a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband. 3 So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done were through the law worked in our members to bring away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to out fruit to death. 6 But now we have been discharged sin. 7 For he who has died has been freed from sin. 8 from the law, having died to that in which we were But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and live with him, 9 knowing that Christ, being raised from not in oldness of the letter. 7 What shall we say then? the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion. Is the law sin? May it never be! However, I wouldn't over him! 10 For the death that he died, he died to sin have known sin except through the law. For I wouldn't one time; but the life that he lives, he lives to God. 11 have known coveting unless the law had said, "You Thus consider yourselves also to be dead to sin, but shall not covet." 8 But sin, finding occasion through the alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord. 12 Therefore don't commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey For apart from the law, sin is dead. 9 I was alive apart it in its lusts. 13 Also, do not present your members from the law once, but when the commandment came, to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present sin revived and I died. 10 The commandment which was yourselves to God as alive from the dead, and your for life, this I found to be for death; 11 for sin, finding members as instruments of righteousness to God. 14 occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and For sin will not have dominion over you, for you are not through it killed me. 12 Therefore the law indeed is under law, but under grace. 15 What then? Shall we sin holy, and the commandment holy, righteous, and good. because we are not under law but under grace? May it 13 Did then that which is good become death to me? never be! 16 Don't you know that when you present May it never be! But sin, that it might be shown to be yourselves as servants and obey someone, you are the sin, was producing death in me through that which is servants of whomever you obey, whether of sin to death, good; that through the commandment sin might become or of obedience to righteousness? 17 But thanks be to exceedingly sinful. 14 For we know that the law is God that, whereas you were bondservants of sin, you spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. 15 For I don't became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching understand what I am doing. For I don't practice what I to which you were delivered. 18 Being made free from desire to do; but what I hate, that I do. 16 But if what sin, you became bondservants of righteousness. 19 I I don't desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is speak in human terms because of the weakness of your good. 17 So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which flesh; for as you presented your members as servants dwells in me. 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with even so now present your members as servants to me, but I don't find it doing that which is good. 19 For righteousness for sanctification. 20 For when you were the good which I desire, I don't do; but the evil which I servants of sin, you were free from righteousness. 21 don't desire, that I practice. 20 But if what I don't desire, What fruit then did you have at that time in the things that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those in me. 21 I find then the law that, while I desire to do things is death. 22 But now, being made free from sin good, evil is present. 22 For I delight in God's law after and having become servants of God, you have your fruit the inward person, 23 but I see a different law in my of sanctification and the result of eternal life. (aionios members, warring against the law of my mind, and q166) 23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (aionios g166) my members. 24 What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? 25 I thank God through Jesus Christ, our Lord! So then with the mind, I myself serve God's law, but with the flesh, sin's law,

R There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For what the law couldn't do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did, sending another man. 4 Therefore, my brothers, you also were his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that condemned sin in the flesh, 4 that the ordinance of the you would be joined to another, to him who was raised law might be fulfilled in us who don't walk according to from the dead, that we might produce fruit to God. 5 For the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 5 For those who when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which live according to the flesh set their minds on the things the things of the Spirit. 6 For the mind of the flesh is those he also justified. Whom he justified, those he also death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace; 7 glorified. 31 What then shall we say about these things? because the mind of the flesh is hostile toward God, for If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who it is not subject to God's law, neither indeed can it be. didn't spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us 8 Those who are in the flesh can't please God. 9 But all, how would he not also with him freely give us all you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that things? 33 Who could bring a charge against God's the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if any man doesn't chosen ones? It is God who justifies. 34 Who is he have the Spirit of Christ, he is not his. 10 If Christ is in who condemns? It is Christ who died, yes rather, who you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of alive because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of God, who also makes intercession for us. 35 Who shall him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, separate us from the love of Christ? Could oppression, he who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who peril, or sword? 36 Even as it is written, "For your sake dwells in you. 12 So then, brothers, we are debtors, we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep not to the flesh, to live after the flesh, 13 For if you live for the slaughter." 37 No, in all these things we are more after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. 14 persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor children of God. 15 For you didn't receive the spirit of powers, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of thing will be able to separate us from God's love which adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" 16 The Spirit is in Christ Jesus our Lord. himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God: 17 and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him. 18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us. 19 For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. 20 For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope 21 that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. 23 Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body. 24 For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees? 25 But if we hope for that which we don't see, we wait for it with patience. 26 In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we don't know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which can't be uttered. 27 He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the saints according to God. 28 We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, for those who are called according to his purpose. 29 For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. 30 Whom he

9 I tell the truth in Christ. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit 2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. 3 For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers' sake, my relatives according to the flesh 4 who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises; 5 of whom are the fathers, and from whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen. (aion g165) 6 But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. For they are not all Israel that are of Israel. 7 Neither, because they are Abraham's offspring, are they all children. But, "your offspring will be accounted as from Isaac." 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as heirs. 9 For this is a word of promise: "At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son." 10 Not only so, but Rebekah also conceived by one, by our father Isaac. 11 For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls, 12 it was said to her, "The elder will serve the younger." 13 Even as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated." 14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it never be! 15 For he said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion." 16 So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy. 17 For after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the my hands to a disobedient and contrary people." righteousness which is of faith; 31 but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, didn't arrive at the law of righteousness. 32 Why? Because they didn't seek it by faith, but as it were by works of the law. They stumbled over the stumbling stone, 33 even as it is written, "Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and a rock of offense; and no one who believes in him will be disappointed."

is for Israel, that they may be saved. 2 For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3 For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they didn't subject themselves to the righteousness of God. 4 For Christ is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. 5 For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, "The one who does them will live by them." 6 But the righteousness which is of faith says this, "Don't say in the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I abyss?" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)" caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my (Abyssos g12) 8 But what does it say? "The word is power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the near you, in your mouth and in your heart," that is, the earth." 18 So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, word of faith which we preach: 9 that if you will confess and he hardens whom he desires. 19 You will say then with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your to me, "Why does he still find fault? For who withstands heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be his will?" 20 But indeed, O man, who are you to reply saved. 10 For with the heart one believes resulting against God? Will the thing formed ask him who formed in righteousness; and with the mouth confession is it, "Why did you make me like this?" 21 Or hasn't the made resulting in salvation. 11 For the Scripture says, potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make "Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed." 12 one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for 22 What if God, willing to show his wrath and to make the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich to all who call his power known, endured with much patience vessels on him. 13 For, "Whoever will call on the name of the of wrath prepared for destruction, 23 and that he might Lord will be saved." 14 How then will they call on him in make known the riches of his glory on vessels of mercy, whom they have not believed? How will they believe which he prepared beforehand for glory— 24 us, whom in him whom they have not heard? How will they hear he also called, not from the Jews only, but also from without a preacher? 15 And how will they preach unless the Gentiles? 25 As he says also in Hosea, "I will call they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the them 'my people,' which were not my people; and her feet of those who preach the Good News of peace, who 'beloved,' who was not beloved." 26 "It will be that in bring glad tidings of good things!" 16 But they didn't all the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my listen to the glad news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has people,' there they will be called 'children of the living believed our report?" 17 So faith comes by hearing, and God." 27 Isaiah cries concerning Israel, "If the number hearing by the word of God. 18 But I say, didn't they of the children of Israel are as the sand of the sea, it hear? Yes, most certainly, "Their sound went out into all is the remnant who will be saved; 28 for he will finish the earth, their words to the ends of the world." 19 But I the work and cut it short in righteousness, because ask, didn't Israel know? First Moses says, "I will provoke the Lord will make a short work upon the earth." 29 you to jealousy with that which is no nation. I will make As Isaiah has said before, "Unless the Lord of Armies you angry with a nation void of understanding." 20 Isaiah had left us a seed, we would have become like Sodom, is very bold and says, "I was found by those who didn't and would have been made like Gomorrah." 30 What seek me. I was revealed to those who didn't ask for me." shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who didn't follow 21 But about Israel he says, "All day long I stretched out 11 I ask then, did God reject his people? May it never be! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God didn't reject his people, whom he foreknew. Or don't you know what the Scripture says about Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel: 3 "Lord, they have killed your prophets. They have broken down your altars. I am left alone, and they seek my life." 4 But how does God answer him? 10 Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to God "I have reserved for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal." 5 Even so too at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. 6 And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work. 7 What then? That which Israel seeks for, that he didn't obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened. 8 According as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' (that is, to day." 9 David says, "Let their table be made a snare, bring Christ down); 7 or, 'Who will descend into the a trap, a stumbling block, and a retribution to them.

Always keep their backs bent." 11 I ask then, did they counselor?" 35 "Or who has first given to him, and it will stumble that they might fall? May it never be! But by be repaid to him again?" 36 For of him and through him their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke and to him are all things. To him be the glory for ever! them to jealousy. 12 Now if their fall is the riches of the Amen. (aion g165) world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fullness! 13 For I speak to you who are Gentiles. Since then as I am an apostle to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry, 14 if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. 15 For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead? 16 If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. If the root is holy, so are the branches. 17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them and became partaker with them of the root and of the richness of the olive tree, 18 don't boast over the branches. But if you boast, remember that it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you. 19 You will say then, "Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in." 20 True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Don't be conceited, but fear; 21 for if God didn't spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. 22 See then the goodness and severity of God. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off. 23 They also, if they don't continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? 25 For I don't desire you to be ignorant, brothers, of this mystery, so that you won't be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in, 26 and so all Israel will be saved. Even as it is written, "There will come out of Zion the Deliverer, and he will turn away ungodliness from Jacob. 27 This is my covenant with them, when I will take away their sins." 28 Concerning the Good News, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sake. 29 For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. 30 For as you in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, 31 even so these also have now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they may also obtain mercy. 32 For God has bound all to disobedience, that he might have mercy on all. (eleese q1653) 33 Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out! 34 "For who

2 Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service. 2 Don't be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good, well-pleasing, and perfect will of God. (aion g165) 3 For I say through the grace that was given me, to everyone who is among you, not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think; but to think reasonably, as God has apportioned to each person a measure of faith. 4 For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members don't have the same function, 5 so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. 6 having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us: if prophecy, let's prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; 7 or service, let's give ourselves to service; or he who teaches, to his teaching; 8 or he who exhorts, to his exhorting; he who gives, let him do it with generosity; he who rules, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness. 9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good. 10 In love of the brothers be tenderly affectionate to one another; in honor prefer one another, 11 not lagging in diligence, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord, 12 rejoicing in hope, enduring in troubles, continuing steadfastly in prayer, 13 contributing to the needs of the saints, and given to hospitality. 14 Bless those who persecute you; bless, and don't curse. 15 Rejoice with those who rejoice. Weep with those who weep. 16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Don't set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Don't be wise in your own conceits. 17 Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is honorable in the sight of all men. 18 If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all men. 19 Don't seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to God's wrath. For it is written. "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, says the Lord." 20 Therefore "If your enemy is hungry, feed him. If he is thirsty, give him a drink; for in doing so, you will heap coals of fire on his head." 21 Don't be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

13 Let every soul be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those who exist are ordained by God. 2 Therefore he who resists the authority withstands the ordinance of God; and those who withstand will receive

to themselves judgment. 3 For rulers are not a terror to do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you the good work, but to the evil. Do you desire to have no despise your brother? For we will all stand before the fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will judgment seat of Christ. 11 For it is written, "'As I live,' have praise from the authority, 4 for he is a servant of says the Lord, 'to me every knee will bow. Every tongue God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, will confess to God." 12 So then each one of us will be afraid, for he doesn't bear the sword in vain; for he give account of himself to God. 13 Therefore let's not is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to him who judge one another any more, but judge this rather, that does evil. 5 Therefore you need to be in subjection, no man put a stumbling block in his brother's way, or an not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' occasion for falling. 14 I know and am persuaded in the sake. 6 For this reason you also pay taxes, for they Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean of itself; except that are servants of God's service, continually doing this to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it very thing. 7 Therefore give everyone what you owe: if is unclean. 15 Yet if because of food your brother is you owe taxes, pay taxes; if customs, then customs; grieved, you walk no longer in love. Don't destroy with if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor. 8 Owe your food him for whom Christ died. 16 Then don't let no one anything, except to love one another; for he your good be slandered, 17 for God's Kingdom is not who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law. 9 For the eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You in the Holy Spirit. 18 For he who serves Christ in these shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not things is acceptable to God and approved by men. 19 covet," and whatever other commandments there are. So then, let's follow after things which make for peace, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall and things by which we may build one another up. 20 love your neighbor as yourself." 10 Love doesn't harm a Don't overthrow God's work for food's sake. 1 Corinthians

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, 2 to the assembly of God which is at Corinth—those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called saints, with all who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours: 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 41 always thank my God concerning you for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus, 5 that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge— 6 even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you— 7 so that you come behind in no gift, waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, 8 who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day God: 25 because the foolishness of God is wiser than But we have Christ's mind. men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble; 27 but God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world that he might put to shame the things that are strong. 28 God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that don't exist, that he might bring to nothing the things that exist, 29 that no flesh should boast before God. 30 Because of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption, 31 that, as it is written, "He who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."

2 When I came to you, brothers, I didn't come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, through whom you the testimony of God. 2 For I determined not to you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus know anything among you except Jesus Christ and him Christ our Lord. 10 Now I beg you, brothers, through the crucified. 3 I was with you in weakness, in fear, and name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, that you all speak the in much trembling. 4 My speech and my preaching same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in but that you be perfected together in the same mind and demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5 that your in the same judgment. 11 For it has been reported to faith wouldn't stand in the wisdom of men, but in the me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from power of God. 6 We speak wisdom, however, among Chloe's household, that there are contentions among those who are full grown, yet a wisdom not of this you. 12 Now I mean this, that each one of you says, world nor of the rulers of this world who are coming to "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," nothing, (aion g165) 7 But we speak God's wisdom in a and, "I follow Christ." 13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of foreordained before the worlds for our glory, (aion g165) Paul? 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you except 8 which none of the rulers of this world has known. For Crispus and Gaius, 15 so that no one should say that I had they known it, they wouldn't have crucified the Lord had baptized you into my own name. 16 (I also baptized of glory. (aion g165) 9 But as it is written, "Things which the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't know an eye didn't see, and an ear didn't hear, which didn't whether I baptized any other.) 17 For Christ sent me enter into the heart of man, these God has prepared for not to baptize, but to preach the Good News-not in those who love him." 10 But to us, God revealed them wisdom of words, so that the cross of Christ wouldn't be through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, made void. 18 For the word of the cross is foolishness yes, the deep things of God. 11 For who among men to those who are dying, but to us who are being saved it knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man is the power of God. 19 For it is written, "I will destroy which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of the wisdom of the wise. I will bring the discernment God except God's Spirit. 12 But we received not the of the discerning to nothing." 20 Where is the wise? spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? we might know the things that were freely given to us Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this world? (aion by God. 13 We also speak these things, not in words g165) 21 For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy Spirit through its wisdom didn't know God, it was God's good teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to 14 Now the natural man doesn't receive the things of save those who believe. 22 For Jews ask for signs, God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to him; and he Greeks seek after wisdom, 23 but we preach Christ can't know them, because they are spiritually discerned. crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to 15 But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he Greeks, 24 but to those who are called, both Jews and himself is to be judged by no one. 16 "For who has Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of known the mind of the Lord that he should instruct him?" their craftiness." 20 And again, "The Lord knows the a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness? reasoning of the wise, that it is worthless." 21 Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, 22 whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours, 23 and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

▲ So let a man think of us as Christ's servants and stewards of God's mysteries. 2 Here, moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by a human court. Yes, I don't even judge my own self. 4 For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord. 5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of

3 Brothers, I couldn't speak to you as to spiritual, darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then but as to fleshly, as to babies in Christ. 2 I fed each man will get his praise from God. 6 Now these you with milk, not with solid food, for you weren't yet things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself ready. Indeed, you aren't ready even now, 3 for you are and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy, strife, and not to think beyond the things which are written, that factions among you, aren't you fleshly, and don't you none of you be puffed up against one another. 7 For walk in the ways of men? 4 For when one says, "I follow who makes you different? Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that increase. 7 So then neither he who plants is anything, we also might reign with you! 9 For I think that God has nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. 8 displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like men sentenced Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, but each will receive his own reward according to his both to angels and men. 10 We are fools for Christ's own labor, 9 For we are God's fellow workers. You are sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you God's farming, God's building. 10 According to the grace are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor. 11 of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for how do you know, husband, whether you will save your the Lord, and the Lord for the body. 14 Now God raised wife? 17 Only, as the Lord has distributed to each man, up the Lord, and will also raise us up by his power. 15 as God has called each, so let him walk. So I command Don't you know that your bodies are members of Christ? in all the assemblies. 18 Was anyone called having Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them been circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. uncircumcision is nothing, but what matters is keeping God's commandments, 20 Let each man stay in that love builds up, 2 But if anyone thinks that he knows calling in which he was called. 21 Were you called being anything, he doesn't yet know as he ought to know. 3 a bondservant? Don't let that bother you, but if you get But anyone who loves God is known by him. 4 Therefore an opportunity to become free, use it. 22 For he who concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we was called in the Lord being a bondservant is the Lord's know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there free man. Likewise he who was called being free is is no other God but one. 5 For though there are things Christ's bondservant. 23 You were bought with a price. that are called "gods", whether in the heavens or on Don't become bondservants of men. 24 Brothers, let earth—as there are many "gods" and many "lords"—6 each man, in whatever condition he was called, stay in yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are that condition with God. 25 Now concerning virgins. I all things, and we for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my through whom are all things, and we live through him. 7 judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord However, that knowledge isn't in all men. But some, to be trustworthy. 26 Therefore I think that because of with consciousness of an idol until now, eat as of a thing the distress that is on us, it's good for a man to remain sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, as he is. 27 Are you bound to a wife? Don't seek to be is defiled. 8 But food will not commend us to God. For freed. Are you free from a wife? Don't seek a wife. 28 neither, if we don't eat are we the worse, nor if we eat But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, are we the better. 9 But be careful that by no means she has not sinned. Yet such will have oppression in does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the flesh, and I want to spare you. 29 But I say this, the weak. 10 For if a man sees you who have knowledge brothers: the time is short. From now on, both those sitting in an idol's temple, won't his conscience, if he who have wives may be as though they had none; 30 is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to and those who weep, as though they didn't weep; and idols? 11 And through your knowledge, he who is weak those who rejoice, as though they didn't rejoice; and those who buy, as though they didn't possess; 31 and Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away. 32 But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord: 33 but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife. 34 There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. 35 This I say for your own benefit, not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He doesn't sin. Let them marry. 37 But he who stands steadfast in his heart. having no urgency, but has power over his own will, and has determined in his own heart to keep his own virgin. does well. 38 So then both he who gives his own virgin in marriage does well, and he who doesn't give her in marriage does better. 39 A wife is bound by law for as long as her husband lives; but if the husband is dead. she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she stays as she is. in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.

9 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus Christ, our Lord? Aren't you my work in the Lord? 2 If to others I am not an apostle, vet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. 3 My defense to those who examine me is this: 4 Have we no right to eat and to drink? 5 Have we no right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? 6 Or have only Barnabas and I no right to not work? 7 What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and doesn't eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and doesn't drink from the flock's milk? 8 Do I speak these things according to the ways of men? Or doesn't the law also say the same thing? 9 For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." Is it for the oxen that God cares, 10 or does he say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should partake of his hope. 11 If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things? 12 If others partake of this right over you, don't we yet more? Nevertheless we didn't use this right. but others, I myself should be disqualified.

10 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers. that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; 2 and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; 3 and all ate the same spiritual food; 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. 5 However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. 6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted. 7 Don't be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." 8 Let's not commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to test Christ, as some of them tested, and perished by the Good News of Christ. 13 Don't you know that those the serpents. 10 Don't grumble, as some of them also who serve around sacred things eat from the things of grumbled, and perished by the destroyer. 11 Now all the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their these things happened to them by way of example, portion with the altar? 14 Even so the Lord ordained and they were written for our admonition, on whom the that those who proclaim the Good News should live ends of the ages have come. (aion g165) 12 Therefore let from the Good News. 15 But I have used none of these him who thinks he stands be careful that he doesn't things, and I don't write these things that it may be done fall. 13 No temptation has taken you except what is so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone common to man. God is faithful, who will not allow you should make my boasting void. 16 For if I preach the to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the Good News, I have nothing to boast about, for necessity temptation also make the way of escape, that you may is laid on me; but woe is to me if I don't preach the be able to endure it. 14 Therefore, my beloved, flee from Good News. 17 For if I do this of my own will, I have a idolatry. 15 I speak as to wise men. Judge what I say. reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship 16 The cup of blessing which we bless, isn't it a sharing entrusted to me. 18 What then is my reward? That when of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, isn't I preach the Good News, I may present the Good News it a sharing of the body of Christ? 17 Because there is of Christ without charge, so as not to abuse my authority one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for in the Good News. 19 For though I was free from all, I we all partake of the one loaf of bread. 18 Consider brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain Israel according to the flesh. Don't those who eat the the more. 20 To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I sacrifices participate in the altar? 19 What am I saying might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that under the law, that I might gain those who are under an idol is anything? 20 But I say that the things which the law; 21 to those who are without law, as without the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not law (not being without law toward God, but under law to God, and I don't desire that you would have fellowship toward Christ), that I might win those who are without with demons. 21 You can't both drink the cup of the law. 22 To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain Lord and the cup of demons. You can't both partake of the weak, I have become all things to all men, that I the table of the Lord and of the table of demons, 22 Or may by all means save some. 23 Now I do this for the do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger sake of the Good News, that I may be a joint partaker of than he? 23 "All things are lawful for me," but not all it. 24 Don't you know that those who run in a race all things are profitable. "All things are lawful for me," but run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, so that not all things build up. 24 Let no one seek his own, but you may win. 25 Every man who strives in the games each one his neighbor's good. 25 Whatever is sold in exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. 26 I of conscience, 26 for "the earth is the Lord's, and its therefore run like that, not aimlessly. I fight like that, not fullness." 27 But if one of those who don't believe invites beating the air, 27 but I beat my body and bring it into you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience. 28 But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," don't eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. For "the earth is the Lord's, with all its fullness." 29 Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30 If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for something I give thanks for? 31 Whether therefore you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. 32 Give no occasion for stumbling, whether to Jews, to Greeks, or to the assembly of God; 33 even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

11 Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ. 2 Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. 9 Let's not me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. 29 woman is man, and the head of Christ is God. 4 Every For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy way eats man praving or prophesying, having his head covered, and drinks judgment to himself if he doesn't discern dishonors his head. 5 But every woman praying or the Lord's body. 30 For this cause many among you prophesying with her head uncovered dishonors her are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. 31 For if we head. For it is one and the same thing as if she were discerned ourselves, we wouldn't be judged. 32 But shaved. 6 For if a woman is not covered, let her hair when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord, that also be cut off. But if it is shameful for a woman to have we may not be condemned with the world. 33 Therefore, her hair cut off or be shaved, let her be covered. 7 my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, one another. 34 But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at because he is the image and glory of God, but the home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The woman is the glory of the man. 8 For man is not from rest I will set in order whenever I come. woman, but woman from man: 9 for man wasn't created for the woman, but woman for the man. 10 For this cause the woman ought to have authority over her own head, because of the angels. 11 Nevertheless, neither is the woman independent of the man, nor the man independent of the woman, in the Lord. 12 For as woman came from man, so a man also comes through a woman; but all things are from God. 13 Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to God unveiled? 14 Doesn't even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her for a covering. 16 But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom. neither do God's assemblies. 17 But in giving you this command I don't praise you, because you come together not for the better but for the worse. 18 For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. 19 For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. 20 When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. 21 For in your eating each one takes his own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunken. 22 What, don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's assembly and put them to shame who don't have enough? What shall I tell you? Shall I praise you? In this I don't praise vou. 23 For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betraved took bread. 24 When he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this in memory of me." 25 In the same way he also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. 27 Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord's cup in a way unworthy of the Lord will be guilty of the body and delivered them to you. 3 But I would have you know that the blood of the Lord. 28 But let a man examine himself.

Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I don't want you to be ignorant. 2 You know that when you were heathen, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led. 3 Therefore I make known to you that no man speaking by God's Spirit says, "Jesus is accursed." No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," but by the Holy Spirit. 4 Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord. 6 There are various kinds of workings, but the same God who works all things in all. 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge according to the same Spirit, 9 to another faith by the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healings by the same Spirit, 10 and to another workings of miracles, and to another prophecy, and to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of languages, and to another the interpretation of languages. 11 But the one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires. 12 For as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. 13 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all given to drink into one Spirit. 14 For the body is not one member. but many. 15 If the foot would say, "Because I'm not the hand, I'm not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. 16 If the ear would say, "Because I'm not the eye, I'm not part of the body," it's not therefore not part of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eve, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? 18 But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired. 19 If they were all one member, where would the body be? 20 But now they are many members, but one body. 21 The eye can't tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you." 22 No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are speaks mysteries. 3 But he who prophesies speaks to you.

13 If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing. 3 If I give away all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing. 4 Love is patient and is kind. Love doesn't envy. Love doesn't brag, is not proud, 5 doesn't behave itself inappropriately, doesn't seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil; 6 doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things. 8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with. 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part; 10 but when that which is complete has come, then that which is partial will be done away with. 11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away childish things. 12 For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known. 13 But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love.

1 1 Follow after love and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. 2 For he who speaks in another language speaks not to men. but to God, for no one understands, but in the Spirit he or unlearned comes in, he is reproved by all, and he is necessary. 23 Those parts of the body which we think to men for their edification, exhortation, and consolation. 4 be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant he who prophesies edifies the assembly. 5 Now I desire modesty, 24 while our presentable parts have no such to have you all speak with other languages, but even need. But God composed the body together, giving more that you would prophesy. For he is greater who more abundant honor to the inferior part, 25 that there prophesies than he who speaks with other languages, should be no division in the body, but that the members unless he interprets, that the assembly may be built up. should have the same care for one another. 26 When 6 But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with other one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. languages, what would I profit you unless I speak to When one member is honored, all the members rejoice you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of with it. 27 Now you are the body of Christ, and members prophesying, or of teaching? 7 Even lifeless things that individually. 28 God has set some in the assembly: first make a sound, whether pipe or harp, if they didn't give a apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and piped or harped? 8 For if the trumpet gave an uncertain various kinds of languages. 29 Are all apostles? Are all sound, who would prepare himself for war? 9 So also prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? 30 you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For languages? Do all interpret? 31 But earnestly desire the you would be speaking into the air. 10 There are, it may best gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to be, so many kinds of languages in the world, and none of them is without meaning. 11 If then I don't know the meaning of the language, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks would be a foreigner to me. 12 So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the assembly. 13 Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15 What should I do? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. 16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he doesn't know what you say? 17 For you most certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. 18 I thank my God, I speak with other languages more than you all. 19 However, in the assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language. 20 Brothers, don't be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be mature. 21 In the law it is written, "By men of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. They won't even listen to me that way, says the Lord." 22 Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe. 23 If therefore the whole assembly is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy? 24 But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving

judged by all. 25 And thus the secrets of his heart are 12 Now if Christ is preached, that he has been raised revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship from the dead, how do some among you say that there God, declaring that God is among you indeed. 26 What is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, 14 If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is has another language, or has an interpretation. Let all in vain and your faith also is in vain. 15 Yes, we are things be done to build each other up. 27 If any man also found false witnesses of God, because we testified speaks in another language, let there be two, or at about God that he raised up Christ, whom he didn't raise the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret. 28 up if it is true that the dead are not raised. 16 For if the But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the dead aren't raised, neither has Christ been raised. 17 If assembly, and let him speak to himself and to God. Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are 29 Let two or three of the prophets speak, and let the still in your sins. 18 Then they also who are fallen asleep others discern. 30 But if a revelation is made to another in Christ have perished. 19 If we have only hoped in sitting by, let the first keep silent. 31 For you all can Christ in this life, we are of all men most pitiable. 20 But prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may now Christ has been raised from the dead. He became be exhorted. 32 The spirits of the prophets are subject the first fruit of those who are asleep. 21 For since death to the prophets, 33 for God is not a God of confusion came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came but of peace, as in all the assemblies of the saints. by man. 22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ 34 Let the wives be quiet in the assemblies, for it has all will be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: not been permitted for them to be talking except in Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's at his submission, as the law also says, 35 if they desire to coming. 24 Then the end comes, when he will deliver learn anything. "Let them ask their own husbands at up the Kingdom to God the Father, when he will have home, for it is shameful for a wife to be talking in the abolished all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he assembly." 36 What!? Was it from you that the word must reign until he has put all his enemies under his of God went out? Or did it come to you alone? 37 If feet. 26 The last enemy that will be abolished is death. any man thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let 27 For, "He put all things in subjection under his feet." him recognize the things which I write to you, that they But when he says, "All things are put in subjection", it is are the commandment of the Lord. 38 But if anyone is evident that he is excepted who subjected all things to ignorant, let him be ignorant. 39 Therefore, brothers, him. 28 When all things have been subjected to him, desire earnestly to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who with other languages. 40 Let all things be done decently subjected all things to him, that God may be all in all. and in order.

15 Now I declare to you, brothers, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand, 2 by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to vou—unless you believed in vain. 3 For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4 that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, 5 and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. 6 Then he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep. 7 Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, 8 and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also. 9 For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God. 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was given to me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Whether then it is I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

29 Or else what will they do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead aren't raised at all, why then are they baptized for the dead? 30 Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? 31 I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. 32 If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let's eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." 33 Don't be deceived! "Evil companionships corrupt good morals." 34 Wake up righteously and don't sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. 35 But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?" 36 You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. 37 That which you sow, you don't sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. 38 But God gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. 40 There are also celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without of the stars; for one star differs from another star in fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. 11 glory. 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The Therefore let no one despise him. 2 Corinthians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort. 4 who comforts therefore planned this, did I show fickleness? Or the sight of God, we speak in Christ. things that I plan, do I plan according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no?" 18 But as God is faithful, our word toward you was not "Yes and no." 19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us-by me, Silvanus, and Timothy—was not "Yes and no," but in him is "Yes." 20 For however many are the promises of God, in him is the "Yes." Therefore also through him is the "Amen", to the glory of God through us. 21 Now he who establishes us with you in Christ and anointed us is God, 22 who also sealed us and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts. 23 But I call God for a witness to my soul, that to spare you, I didn't come to Corinth. 24 We don't control your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

2 But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. 2 For if I make you us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort grieve, then who will make me glad but he who is made those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with to grieve by me? 3 And I wrote this very thing to you, so which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5 For as the that when I came, I wouldn't have sorrow from them sufferings of Christ abound to us, even so our comfort of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you also abounds through Christ. 6 But if we are afflicted, it all that my joy would be shared by all of you. 4 For is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient you with many tears, not that you should be made to enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. 7 grieve, but that you might know the love that I have so Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you abundantly for you. 5 But if any has caused sorrow, are partakers of the sufferings, so you are also of the he has caused sorrow not to me, but in part (that I not comfort. 8 For we don't desire to have you uninformed, press too heavily) to you all. 6 This punishment which brothers, concerning our affliction which happened to was inflicted by the many is sufficient for such a one; 7 us in Asia: that we were weighed down exceedingly, so that, on the contrary, you should rather forgive him beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should life. 9 Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow. 8 Therefore within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, I beg you to confirm your love toward him. 9 For to this but in God who raises the dead, 10 who delivered us out end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, of so great a death, and does deliver, on whom we have whether you are obedient in all things. 10 Now I also set our hope that he will also still deliver us, 11 you also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your for the gift given to us by means of many, thanks may sakes in the presence of Christ, 11 that no advantage be given by many persons on your behalf. 12 For our may be gained over us by Satan, for we are not ignorant boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience that of his schemes. 12 Now when I came to Troas for the in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom Good News of Christ, and when a door was opened to but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the me in the Lord, 13 I had no relief for my spirit, because I world, and more abundantly toward you. 13 For we didn't find Titus my brother, but taking my leave of them, write no other things to you than what you read or even I went out into Macedonia. 14 Now thanks be to God acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and reveals end— 14 as also you acknowledged us in part—that through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in place. 15 For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God in the day of our Lord Jesus. 15 In this confidence, I was those who are saved and in those who perish: 16 to determined to come first to you, that you might have a the one a stench from death to death, to the other a second benefit, 16 and by you to pass into Macedonia, sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be things? 17 For we are not as so many, peddling the sent forward by you on my journey to Judea. 17 When I word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the

> 2 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or from you? 2 You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men, 3 being revealed that you are a letter of Christ, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. 4 wouldn't look steadfastly on the end of that which was g166) passing away. 14 But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Christ it passes away. 15 But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. 16 But whenever someone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face seeing the glory of the Lord as in a mirror, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord, the Spirit.

Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in to themselves, but to him who for their sakes died and

Such confidence we have through Christ toward God. our body. 11 For we who live are always delivered to 5 not that we are sufficient of ourselves to account death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from revealed in our mortal flesh. 12 So then death works God, 6 who also made us sufficient as servants of a in us, but life in you. 13 But having the same spirit of new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. 7 But if the service of therefore I spoke." We also believe, and therefore we death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so also speak, 14 knowing that he who raised the Lord that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us the face of Moses for the glory of his face, which was with you. 15 For all things are for your sakes, that the passing away, 8 won't service of the Spirit be with much grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause more glory? 9 For if the service of condemnation has the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God. 16 glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more Therefore we don't faint, but though our outward person in glory. 10 For most certainly that which has been made is decaying, yet our inward person is renewed day by glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by day. 17 For our light affliction, which is for the moment, reason of the glory that surpasses. 11 For if that which works for us more and more exceedingly an eternal passes away was with glory, much more that which weight of glory, (aiōnios g166) 18 while we don't look at remains is in glory. 12 Having therefore such a hope, the things which are seen, but at the things which are we use great boldness of speech, 13 and not as Moses, not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, who put a veil on his face so that the children of Israel but the things which are not seen are eternal. (aionios

5 For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. (aionios g166) 2 For most certainly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, 3 if indeed being clothed, we will not be found naked. 4 For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened, not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. 5 Now he who made us for this very thing ⚠ Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, even as is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the we obtained mercy, we don't faint. 2 But we have Spirit. 6 Therefore we are always confident and know renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in that while we are at home in the body, we are absent craftiness nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but from the Lord; 7 for we walk by faith, not by sight. 8 by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves We are courageous, I say, and are willing rather to to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3 Even if be absent from the body and to be at home with the our Good News is veiled, it is veiled in those who are Lord. 9 Therefore also we make it our aim, whether dying, 4 in whom the god of this world has blinded the at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him. 10 For minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the Good News we must all be revealed before the judgment seat of of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should Christ that each one may receive the things in the body not dawn on them. (aion g165) 5 For we don't preach according to what he has done, whether good or bad. ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves 11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade as your servants for Jesus' sake, 6 seeing it is God men, but we are revealed to God, and I hope that we who said, "Light will shine out of darkness," who has are revealed also in your consciences. 12 For we are shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of not commending ourselves to you again, but speak as the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 7 But we giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding may have something to answer those who boast in greatness of the power may be of God and not from appearance and not in heart. 13 For if we are beside ourselves. 8 We are pressed on every side, yet not ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sober mind, it is crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair; 9 pursued, yet for you. 14 For the love of Christ compels us; because not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; 10 always we judge thus: that one died for all, therefore all died. 15 carrying in the body the putting to death of the Lord He died for all, that those who live should no longer live rose again. 16 Therefore we know no one according to the flesh from now on. Even though we have known might become the righteousness of God.

6 Working together, we entreat also that you do not receive the grace of God in vain. 2 For he says, "At an acceptable time I listened to you. In a day of salvation I helped you." Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. 3 We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed, 4 but in everything commending ourselves as servants of God: in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, 5 in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings, 6 in pureness, in knowledge, in perseverance, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love, 7 in the word of truth, in the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left. 8 by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report, as deceivers and vet true. 9 as unknown and vet well known, as dying and behold—we live, as punished and not killed, 10 as sorrowful yet always rejoicing as poor yet making many rich, as having nothing and yet possessing all things. 11 Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged. 12 You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. 13 Now in return—I speak as to my children-you also open your hearts. 14 Don't be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship do righteousness and iniquity have? Or what fellowship does light have with darkness? 15 What agreement does Christ have with Belial? Or what portion does a believer have with an unbeliever? 16 What agreement does a temple of God have with idols? For you are a temple of the living God. Even as God said, "I will dwell in them and walk in them. I will be their God and they will be my people." 17 Therefore "Come out from among them, and be separate,' says the Lord. 'Touch Lord Almiahtv."

7 Having therefore these promises, beloved, let's cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Open no more. 17 Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no creation. The old things have passed away. Behold, one. We took advantage of no one. 3 I say this not to all things have become new. 18 But all things are of condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, hearts to die together and live together. 4 Great is my and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 namely, boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having joy in all our affliction. 5 For even when we had come committed to us the word of reconciliation. 20 We are into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were therefore ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear God were entreating by us: we beg you on behalf of was inside. 6 Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, Christ, be reconciled to God. 21 For him who knew no God, comforted us by the coming of Titus, 7 and not by sin he made to be sin on our behalf, so that in him we his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you while he told us of your longing. your mourning, and your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced still more. 8 For though I grieved you with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you grieve, though just for a while. 9 I now rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to repentance. For you were grieved in a godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing. 10 For godly sorrow produces repentance leading to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death. 11 For behold, this same thing, that you were grieved in a godly way, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vindication! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God. 13 Therefore we have been comforted. In our comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. 14 For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. 15 His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him. 16 I rejoice that in everything I am confident concerning you.

Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia, 2 how in a severe ordeal of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity. 3 For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave no unclean thing. I will receive you. 18 I will be to you a of their own accord, 4 begging us with much entreaty to Father. You will be to me sons and daughters,' says the receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the saints. 5 This was not as we had expected, but first they is served by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and to unspeakable gift! show our readiness. 20 We are avoiding this, that any man should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us. 21 Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 22 We have sent with them our brother whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you. 23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the apostles of the assemblies, the glory of Christ. 24 Therefore show the proof of your love to them before the assemblies, and of our boasting on your behalf.

• It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the saints, 2 for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to those of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for the past year. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them. 3 But I have sent the brothers so that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, which gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through as I said, you may be prepared, 4 lest by any means, if the will of God. 6 So we urged Titus, that as he had anyone from Macedonia comes there with me and finds made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) would be you this grace. 7 But as you abound in everything—in disappointed in this confident boasting. 5 I thought it faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in your necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they love to us—see that you also abound in this grace. 8 would go before to you and arrange ahead of time the I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving generous gift that you promised before, that the same through the earnestness of others the sincerity also might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of of your love. 9 For you know the grace of our Lord greediness. 6 Remember this: he who sows sparingly Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will he became poor, that you through his poverty might also reap bountifully. 7 Let each man give according become rich. 10 I give advice in this: it is expedient for as he has determined in his heart, not grudgingly or you who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. 8 but also to be willing. 11 But now complete the doing And God is able to make all grace abound to you, also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, there may be the completion also out of your ability. 12 may abound to every good work. 9 As it is written, For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according "He has scattered abroad. He has given to the poor. to what you have, not according to what you don't have. His righteousness remains forever." (aion g165) 10 Now 13 For this is not that others may be eased and you may he who supplies seed to the sower and bread distressed, 14 but for equality. Your abundance at this for food, supply and multiply your seed for sowing, present time supplies their lack, that their abundance and increase the fruits of your righteousness, 11 you also may become a supply for your lack, that there being enriched in everything for all generosity, which may be equality. 15 As it is written, "He who gathered produces thanksgiving to God through us. 12 For this much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little service of giving that you perform not only makes up for had no lack." 16 But thanks be to God, who puts the lack among the saints, but abounds also through much same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. 17 For giving of thanks to God, 13 seeing that through the proof he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience very earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. of your confession to the Good News of Christ and 18 We have sent together with him the brother whose for the generosity of your contribution to them and to praise in the Good News is known throughout all the all, 14 while they themselves also, with supplication on assemblies. 19 Not only so, but he was also appointed your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding by the assemblies to travel with us in this grace, which grace of God in you. 15 Now thanks be to God for his

> Now I Paul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Christ, I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. 2 Yes, I beg you that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh. 3 For though we walk in the flesh, we don't wage war according to the flesh; 4 for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the throwing down of strongholds, 5 throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, 6 and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience when your obedience is made full. 7 Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that even as he is Christ's, so we also are Christ's. 8 For even if I boast

the Lord gave for building you up and not for casting who desire an opportunity, that in which they boast. you down, I will not be ashamed, 9 that I may not they may be recognized just like us. 13 For such men seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. 10 For, are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as "His letters", they say, "are weighty and strong, but his Christ's apostles. 14 And no wonder, for even Satan bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised." masquerades as an angel of light. 15 It is no great thing 11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants bold to number or compare ourselves with some of so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a themselves with themselves, are without understanding. boasting. 18 Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I 13 But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within will also boast. 19 For you bear with the foolish gladly, reach even to you. 14 For we don't stretch ourselves too you into bondage, if he devours you, if he takes you much, as though we didn't reach to you. For we came captive, if he exalts himself, or if he strikes you on the even as far as to you with the Good News of Christ, 15 face. 21 To my shame, I speak as though we had been not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, weak. Yet in whatever way anyone is bold (I speak in but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be foolishness), I am bold also. 22 Are they Hebrews? abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the 16 so as to preach the Good News even to the parts offspring of Abraham? So am I. 23 Are they servants of beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has Christ? (I speak as one beside himself.) I am more so: already done. 17 But "he who boasts, let him boast in in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

11 I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me. 2 For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I promised you in marriage to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ. 3 But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. 4 For if he who comes preaches another Jesus whom we didn't preach, or if you receive a different spirit which you didn't receive, or a different "good news" which you didn't accept, you put up with that well enough. 5 For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles. 6 But though I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not unskilled in knowledge. No, in every way we have been revealed to you in all things. 7 Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's Good News free of charge? 8 I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you. 9 When I was present with you and was in need, I wasn't a burden on anyone, for the brothers, in word by letters when we are absent, such are we of righteousness, whose end will be according to their also in deed when we are present. 12 For we are not works. 16 I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if those who commend themselves. But they themselves, little. 17 That which I speak, I don't speak according to measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which being wise. 20 For you bear with a man if he brings the Lord." 18 For it isn't he who commends himself who in stripes above measure, and in deaths often. 24 Five times I received forty stripes minus one from the Jews. 25 Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck, I have been a night and a day in the deep. 26 I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers; 27 in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness. 28 Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily: anxiety for all the assemblies. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I don't burn with indignation? 30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. 31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, he who is blessed forever more, knows that I don't lie. (aion g165) 32 In Damascus the governor under King Aretas guarded the Damascenes' city, desiring to arrest me. 33 I was let down in a basket through a window by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12 It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast, but I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure I know a man in Christ who was caught up into the third of my need. In everything I kept myself from being heaven fourteen years ago—whether in the body, I don't burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so. 10 As know, or whether out of the body, I don't know; God the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me from this knows. 3 I know such a man (whether in the body, or boasting in the regions of Achaia. 11 Why? Because I outside of the body, I don't know; God knows), 4 how don't love you? God knows. 12 But what I do, that I will he was caught up into Paradise and heard unspeakable continue to do, that I may cut off opportunity from those words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. 5 On will not boast, except in my weaknesses. 6 For if I would being absent, I write to those who have sinned before desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the now and to all the rest that if I come again, I will not truth. But I refrain, so that no man may think more of me spare, 3 seeing that you seek a proof of Christ who than that which he sees in me or hears from me. 7 By speaks in me who is not weak, but is powerful in you. 4 reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, For he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives that I should not be exalted excessively, a thorn in through the power of God. For we also are weak in the flesh was given to me: a messenger of Satan to him, but we will live with him through the power of God torment me, that I should not be exalted excessively. 8 toward you. 5 Examine your own selves, whether you Concerning this thing, I begged the Lord three times that are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or don't you it might depart from me. 9 He has said to me, "My grace know about your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified. 6 But I hope weakness." Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my that you will know that we aren't disgualified. 7 Now I weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me. pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear 10 Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, in necessities, in persecutions, and in distresses, for though we may seem to have failed. 8 For we can do Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong. 11 nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we I have become foolish in boasting. You compelled me, rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. We also for I ought to have been commended by you, for I am in pray for this: your becoming perfect. 10 For this cause no way inferior to the very best apostles, though I am I write these things while absent, that I may not deal nothing. 12 Truly the signs of an apostle were worked sharply when present, according to the authority which among you in all perseverance, in signs and wonders the Lord gave me for building up and not for tearing and mighty works. 13 For what is there in which you down. 11 Finally, brothers, rejoice! Be perfected. Be were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, unless comforted. Be of the same mind. Live in peace, and the it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me God of love and peace will be with you. 12 Greet one this wrong! 14 Behold, this is the third time I am ready another with a holy kiss. 13 All the saints greet you. 14 to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, God's love, and the seek not your possessions, but you. For the children fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen. ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? 16 Even so, I myself didn't burden you. But you might say that being crafty, I caught you with deception. 17 Did I take advantage of you by anyone of those whom I have sent to you? 18 I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Didn't we walk in the same spirit? Didn't we walk in the same steps? 19 Again, do you think that we are excusing ourselves to you? In the sight of God we speak in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying. 20 For I am afraid that perhaps when I come. I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you don't desire, that perhaps there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, or riots, 21 that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness, sexual immorality, and lustfulness which they committed.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. "At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established." 2 I have warned previously, and I warn behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I again, as when I was present the second time, so now,

Galatians

1 Paul, an apostle—not from men, nor through man. but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead— 2 and all the brothers who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia: 3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father— (aion g165) 5 to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. (aion g165) 6 l marvel that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ to a different "good news". 7 but there isn't another "good news." Only there are some who trouble you and want to pervert the Good News of Christ. 8 But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you any "good news" other than that which we preached to you, let him be cursed. 9 As we have said before, so I now say again: if any man preaches to you any "good news" other than that which you received, let him be cursed. 10 For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I wouldn't be a servant of Christ. 11 But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the Good News which was preached by me, that it is not according to man. 12 For I didn't receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For you have heard of my way of living in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God and rayaged it. 14 I advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called me through his grace. 16 to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles. I didn't immediately confer with flesh and blood, 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia. Then I returned to Damascus. 18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days. 19 But of the other apostles I saw no one except James, the Lord's brother. 20 Now about the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I'm not lying. 21 Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. 22 I was still unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea which were in Christ, 23 but they only heard, "He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy." 24 So they glorified God in me.

2 Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. 2 I went up by revelation, and I laid before them the Good News which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain, 3 But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. 4 This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage, 5 to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you. 6 But from those who were reputed to be important—whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God doesn't show partiality to man-they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me, 7 but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcised, even as Peter with the Good News for the circumcised— 8 for he who worked through Peter in the apostleship with the circumcised also worked through me with the Gentiles- 9 and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, those who were reputed to be pillars, gave to Barnabas and me the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision. 10 They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do. 11 But when Peter came to Antioch. I resisted him to his face, because he stood condemned. 12 For before some people came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself. fearing those who were of the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. 14 But when I saw that they didn't walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News. I said to Peter before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live as the Gentiles do, and not as the Jews do, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do? 15 "We, being Jews by nature and not Gentile sinners, 16 yet knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law. 17 But if while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? Certainly not! 18 For if I build up again those things which I destroyed. I prove myself a lawbreaker. 19 For I through the law died to the law, that I might live to God. 20 I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself up for me. 21 I don't reject the grace of God. For if righteousness is we were kept in custody under the law, confined for the through the law, then Christ died for nothing!"

 ${f 3}$ Foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you not to obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly portrayed among you as crucified? 2 I just want to learn this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? 3 Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh? 4 Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain? 5 He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you and does miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? 6 Even so, Abraham "believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness." 7 Know therefore that those who are of faith are children of Abraham. 8 The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the Good News beforehand given to those who believe. 23 But before faith came, Abraham had two sons, one by the servant, and one by faith which should afterwards be revealed. 24 So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor. 26 For you are all children of God, through faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 If you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring and heirs according to promise.

⚠ But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a bondservant, though he is lord of all, 2 but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father. 3 So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental to Abraham, saying, "In you all the nations will be principles of the world. 4 But when the fullness of the blessed." 9 So then, those who are of faith are blessed time came, God sent out his Son, born to a woman, with the faithful Abraham. 10 For as many as are of the born under the law, 5 that he might redeem those who works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, were under the law, that we might receive the adoption "Cursed is everyone who doesn't continue in all things as children. 6 And because you are children, God sent that are written in the book of the law, to do them." 11 out the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, "Abba, Now that no man is justified by the law before God is Father!" 7 So you are no longer a bondservant, but a evident, for, "The righteous will live by faith." 12 The law son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. is not of faith, but, "The man who does them will live by 8 However at that time, not knowing God, you were them." 13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, in bondage to those who by nature are not gods. 9 having become a curse for us. For it is written, "Cursed But now that you have come to know God, or rather is everyone who hangs on a tree," 14 that the blessing to be known by God, why do you turn back again to of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which Jesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit you desire to be in bondage all over again? 10 You through faith. 15 Brothers, speaking of human terms, observe days, months, seasons, and years. 11 I am though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for been confirmed, no one makes it void or adds to it. 16 you. 12 l beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his have become as you are. You did me no wrong, 13 offspring. He doesn't say, "To descendants", as of many, but you know that because of weakness in the flesh I but as of one, "To your offspring", which is Christ. 17 preached the Good News to you the first time. 14 That Now I say this: A covenant confirmed beforehand by which was a temptation to you in my flesh, you didn't God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred thirty despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise God, even as Christ Jesus. 15 What was the blessing of no effect. 18 For if the inheritance is of the law, it is you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham would have plucked out your eyes and given them to by promise. 19 Then why is there the law? It was added me. 16 So then, have I become your enemy by telling because of transgressions, until the offspring should you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good come to whom the promise has been made. It was way. No, they desire to alienate you, that you may seek ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. 20 them. 18 But it is always good to be zealous in a good Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one. 21 cause, and not only when I am present with you. 19 My Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ not! For if there had been a law given which could make is formed in you— 20 but I could wish to be present with alive, most certainly righteousness would have been of you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed the law. 22 But the Scripture imprisoned all things under about you. 21 Tell me, you that desire to be under the sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be law, don't you listen to the law? 22 For it is written that the free woman, 23 However, the son by the servant flesh are obvious, which are: adultery, sexual immorality, woman was born through promise. 24 These things strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, children of promise. 29 But as then, he who was born another. according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. 30 However. what does the Scripture say? "Throw out the servant and her son, for the son of the servant will not inherit with the son of the free woman." 31 So then, brothers, we are not children of a servant, but of the free woman.

5 Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and don't be entangled again with a voke of bondage. 2 Behold, I. Paul, tell vou that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision that he is a debtor to do the whole law. 4 You are alienated from Christ, you who desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace. 5 For we through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision amounts to anything, but faith working through love. 7 You were running well! Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion is not from him who calls you. 9 A little yeast grows through the whole lump. 10 I have confidence toward you in the Lord that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is. 11 But I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. 12 I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off. 13 For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only don't use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love be servants to one another. 14 For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." 15 But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you don't consume one another. 16 But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you won't fulfill the lust of the flesh. 17 For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, that you may not do the things that you desire. 18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. 19 Now the deeds of the

was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free uncleanness, lustfulness, 20 idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is heresies, 21 envy, murders, drunkenness, orgies, and from Mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also is Hagar. 25 For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, forewarned you, that those who practice such things will and answers to the Jerusalem that exists now, for she not inherit God's Kingdom. 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is is in bondage with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, 23 that is above is free, which is the mother of us all. 27 gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there For it is written, "Rejoice, you barren who don't bear. is no law. 24 Those who belong to Christ have crucified Break out and shout, you who don't travail. For the the flesh with its passions and lusts. 25 If we live by the desolate women have more children than her who has Spirit, let's also walk by the Spirit. 26 Let's not become a husband." 28 Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are conceited, provoking one another, and envying one

> 6 Brothers, even if a man is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, looking to yourself so that you also aren't tempted. 2 Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. 3 For if a man thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4 But let each man examine his own work, and then he will have reason to boast in himself, and not in someone else. 5 For each man will bear his own burden. 6 But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches. 7 Don't be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. 8 For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. (aionios q166) 9 Let's not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season if we don't give up. 10 So then, as we have opportunity, let's do what is good toward all men, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith. 11 See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand. 12 As many as desire to make a good impression in the flesh compel you to be circumcised, just so they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. 13 For even they who receive circumcision don't keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, so that they may boast in your flesh. 14 But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. 15 For in Christ Jesus neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. 16 As many as walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on God's Israel. 17 From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of the Lord Jesus branded on my body. 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Ephesians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, 4 even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without defect before him in love, 5 having predestined us for adoption as children through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his desire, 6 to the praise of the glory of his grace, by which he freely gave us favor in the Beloved. 7 In him we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace 8 which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9 making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him 10 to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on the earth, in him. 11 We were also assigned an inheritance in him, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who does all things after the counsel of his will, 12 to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Christ. 13 In him you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, 14 who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory. 15 For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you and the love which you have toward all the saints, 16 don't cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him, 18 having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, 19 and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might 20 which he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all rule, authority, power, dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come. (aion g165) 22 He put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things for the assembly, 23 which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

You were made alive when you were dead in transgressions and sins, 2 in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience. (aion g165) 3 We also all once lived among them in the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. 4 But God, being rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, 5 even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ-by grace you have been saved— 6 and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, 7 that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus; (aion g165) 8 for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, 9 not of works, that no one would boast. 10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them. 11 Therefore remember that once you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called "uncircumcision" by that which is called "circumcision" (in the flesh, made by hands), 12 that you were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off are made near in the blood of Christ. 14 For he is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of separation, 15 having abolished in his flesh the hostility, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man of the two, making peace, 16 and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, having killed the hostility through it. 17 He came and preached peace to you who were far off and to those who were near. 18 For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father. 19 So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God, 20 being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets. Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone; 21 in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord; 22 in whom you also are built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

3 For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles, 2 if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you, 3 how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words, 4 by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ, 5 which in other generations was not made known to the children of men. things. 11 He gave some to be apostles; and some. as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, shepherds and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of work of serving, to the building up of the body of Christ, in confidence through our faith in him. 13 Therefore I of their mind, 18 being darkened in their understanding, which are your glory. 14 For this cause, I bow my knees that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts. generations, forever and ever. Amen. (aion g165)

▲ I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, 2 with all lowliness and humility, with patience, bearing with one another in love, 3 being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. 4 There is one body and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling, 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism, 6 one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in us all. 7 But to each one of us, the grace was given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. 8 Therefore he says, "When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and gave but that he also first descended into the lower parts of the earth? 10 He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all prophets in the Spirit, 6 that the Gentiles are fellow heirs and teachers; 12 for the perfecting of the saints, to the his promise in Christ Jesus through the Good News, 7 13 until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the of which I was made a servant according to the gift of knowledge of the Son of God, to a full grown man, to that grace of God which was given me according to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, 14 the working of his power. 8 To me, the very least of all that we may no longer be children, tossed back and saints, was this grace given, to preach to the Gentiles forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the unsearchable riches of Christ, 9 and to make all the trickery of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; men see what is the administration of the mystery which 15 but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all for ages has been hidden in God, who created all things things into him who is the head, Christ, 16 from whom through Jesus Christ, (aiōn q165) 10 to the intent that now all the body, being fitted and knit together through that through the assembly the manifold wisdom of God might which every joint supplies, according to the working be made known to the principalities and the powers in measure of each individual part, makes the body in the heavenly places, 11 according to the eternal increase to the building up of itself in love. 17 This I say purpose which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer Lord. (aion g165) 12 In him we have boldness and access walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the futility ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 from whom 19 They, having become callous, gave themselves up to every family in heaven and on earth is named, 16 that lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. 20 But he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, you didn't learn Christ that way, 21 if indeed you heard that you may be strengthened with power through his him and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: Spirit in the inner person, 17 that Christ may dwell in 22 that you put away, as concerning your former way of your hearts through faith, to the end that you, being life, the old man that grows corrupt after the lusts of rooted and grounded in love, 18 may be strengthened deceit, 23 and that you be renewed in the spirit of your to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and mind, 24 and put on the new man, who in the likeness length and height and depth, 19 and to know Christ's of God has been created in righteousness and holiness love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled of truth. 25 Therefore, putting away falsehood, speak with all the fullness of God. 20 Now to him who is able truth each one with his neighbor, for we are members of to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or one another. 26 "Be angry, and don't sin." Don't let the think, according to the power that works in us, 21 to him sun go down on your wrath, 27 and don't give place be the glory in the assembly and in Christ Jesus to all to the devil. 28 Let him who stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, producing with his hands something that is good, that he may have something to give to him who has need. 29 Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but only what is good for building others up as the need may be, that it may give grace to those who hear. 30 Don't grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander be put away from you, with all malice. 32 And be kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you.

Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children. 2 Walk in love, even as Christ also loved us and gave gifts to people." 9 Now this, "He ascended", what is it himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance. 3 But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes saints; 4 nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate, but rather giving of thanks. 5 Know this 6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is for sure, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife Jesus Christ with incorruptible love. right. 2 "Honor your father and mother," which is the person, nor covetous man (who is an idolater), has any first commandment with a promise: 3 "that it may be inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and God. 6 Let well with you, and you may live long on the earth." 4 no one deceive you with empty words, for because of You fathers, don't provoke your children to wrath, but these things the wrath of God comes on the children nurture them in the discipline and instruction of the of disobedience. 7 Therefore don't be partakers with Lord. 5 Servants, be obedient to those who according them. 8 For you were once darkness, but are now light to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in in the Lord. Walk as children of light, 9 for the fruit of singleness of your heart, as to Christ, 6 not in the way the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, of service only when eyes are on you, as men pleasers, 10 proving what is well pleasing to the Lord. 11 Have but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the no fellowship with the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but heart, 7 with good will doing service as to the Lord and rather even reprove them. 12 For it is a shame even to not to men, 8 knowing that whatever good thing each speak of the things which are done by them in secret. 13 one does, he will receive the same good again from the But all things, when they are reproved, are revealed by Lord, whether he is bound or free. 9 You masters, do the the light, for everything that reveals is light. 14 Therefore same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing he says, "Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, dead, and Christ will shine on you." 15 Therefore watch and there is no partiality with him. 10 Finally, be strong carefully how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise, in the Lord and in the strength of his might. 11 Put on 16 redeeming the time, because the days are evil. 17 the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand Therefore, don't be foolish, but understand what the will against the wiles of the devil. 12 For our wrestling is not of the Lord is. 18 Don't be drunken with wine, in which against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, is dissipation, but be filled with the Spirit, 19 speaking against the powers, against the world's rulers of the to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs; darkness of this age, and against the spiritual forces singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; of wickedness in the heavenly places. (aion q165) 13 20 giving thanks always concerning all things in the Therefore put on the whole armor of God, that you may name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father; be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, 21 subjecting yourselves to one another in the fear of to stand. 14 Stand therefore, having the utility belt of Christ. 22 Wives, be subject to your own husbands, truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the as to the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the breastplate of righteousness, 15 and having fitted your wife, as Christ also is the head of the assembly, being feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace, 16 himself the savior of the body. 24 But as the assembly above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. own husbands in everything. 25 Husbands, love your 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of wives, even as Christ also loved the assembly and gave the Spirit, which is the word of God; 18 with all prayer himself up for her, 26 that he might sanctify her, having and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, 27 watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for that he might present the assembly to himself gloriously, all the saints. 19 Pray for me, that utterance may be not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with she should be holy and without defect. 28 Even so boldness the mystery of the Good News, 20 for which husbands also ought to love their own wives as their I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. 29 boldly, as I ought to speak. 21 But that you also may For no man ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved cherishes it, even as the Lord also does the assembly, brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known 30 because we are members of his body, of his flesh to you all things. 22 I have sent him to you for this very and bones. 31 "For this cause a man will leave his purpose, that you may know our state and that he may father and mother and will be joined to his wife. Then comfort your hearts. 23 Peace be to the brothers, and the two will become one flesh." 32 This mystery is great, love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus but I speak concerning Christ and the assembly. 33 Christ. 24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord

Philippians

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and servants: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 I thank my God whenever I remember you, 4 always in every request of mine on behalf of you all, making my requests with joy, 5 for your partnership in furtherance of the Good News from the first day until now; 6 being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ. 7 It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all

Jesus in me through my presence with you again. 27 Only let your way of life be worthy of the Good News of Christ, that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News; 28 and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God. 29 Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf, 30 having the same conflict which you saw in me and now hear is in me.

2 If therefore there is any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if of you. because I have you in my heart, because both in any tender mercies and compassion, 2 make my joy full my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the by being like-minded, having the same love, being of Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace. 8 one accord, of one mind; 3 doing nothing through rivalry For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others tender mercies of Christ Jesus. 9 This I pray, that your better than himself; 4 each of you not just looking to love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and his own things, but each of you also to the things of all discernment, 10 so that you may approve the things others. 5 Have this in your mind, which was also in that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without Christ Jesus, 6 who, existing in the form of God, didn't offense to the day of Christ, 11 being filled with the fruits consider equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 of righteousness which are through Jesus Christ, to but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being the glory and praise of God. 12 Now I desire to have made in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in you know, brothers, that the things which happened to human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good to the point of death, yes, the death of the cross. 9 News, 13 so that it became evident to the whole palace Therefore God also highly exalted him, and gave to guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in Christ, him the name which is above every name, 10 that at 14 and that most of the brothers in the Lord, being the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth, 11 to speak the word of God without fear. 15 Some indeed and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ preach Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. 12 So then, my out of good will. 16 The former insincerely preach Christ beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my presence, but now much more in my absence, work my chains; 17 but the latter out of love, knowing that I out your own salvation with fear and trembling. 13 For it am appointed for the defense of the Good News. 18 is God who works in you both to will and to work for his What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in good pleasure. 14 Do all things without complaining pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed. I rejoice in and arguing, 15 that you may become blameless and this, yes, and will rejoice. 19 For I know that this will harmless, children of God without defect in the middle turn out to my salvation through your prayers and the of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 according to my you are seen as lights in the world, 16 holding up the earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be word of life, that I may have something to boast in the disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also day of Christ that I didn't run in vain nor labor in vain. 17 Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service death. 21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. 18 In the 22 But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from same way, you also should be glad and rejoice with my work; yet I don't know what I will choose. 23 But I me. 19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to am hard pressed between the two, having the desire to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know depart and be with Christ, which is far better. 24 Yet to how you are doing. 20 For I have no one else likeremain in the flesh is more needful for your sake. 25 minded, who will truly care about you. 21 For they all Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. 22 But and remain with you all for your progress and joy in you know that he has proved himself. As a child serves the faith, 26 that your boasting may abound in Christ a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the

as soon as I see how it will go with me. 24 But I trust in already attained, let's walk by the same rule. Let's be of the Lord that I myself also will come shortly. 25 But I the same mind. 17 Brothers, be imitators together of thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my me, and note those who walk this way, even as you brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your apostle have us for an example. 18 For many walk, of whom and servant of my need, 26 since he longed for you all, I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as and was very troubled because you had heard that he the enemies of the cross of Christ, 19 whose end is was sick. 27 For indeed he was sick nearly to death, but destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but on me in their shame, who think about earthly things. 20 For also, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow. 28 I have our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for sent him therefore the more diligently, that when you a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 who will change the see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of less sorrowful. 29 Receive him therefore in the Lord his glory, according to the working by which he is able with all joy, and hold such people in honor, 30 because even to subject all things to himself. for the work of Christ he came near to death, risking his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord! To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe. 2 Beware of the dogs; beware of the evil workers; beware of the false circumcision. 3 For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh; 4 though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more: 5 circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews: concerning the law, a Pharisee: 6 concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless. 7 However, I consider those things that were gain to me as a loss for Christ. 8 Yes most certainly, and I count all things to be a loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith, 10 that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death, 11 if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Christ Jesus. 13 Brothers, I don't regard myself as yet having taken hold, but one thing I do: forgetting the things which are behind and stretching forward to the things which are before, 14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. 15 Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, God will also reveal

Good News. 23 Therefore I hope to send him at once. that to you, 16 Nevertheless, to the extent that we have ⚠ Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. 2 I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to think the same way in the Lord. 3 Yes, I beg you also, true partner, help these women, for they labored with me in the Good News with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. 4 Rejoice in the Lord always! Again I will say, "Rejoice!" 5 Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. 6 In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. 7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus. 8 Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report: if there is any virtue and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. 9 Do the things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me, and the God of peace will be with you. 10 But I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I speak because of lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it. 12 I know how to be humbled, and I also know how to abound. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need. 13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. 14 However you did well that you shared in my affliction. 15 You yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the Good News. when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only. 16 For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need. 17 Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account. 18 But I have all things and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to God. 19 My God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. 20 Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever! Amen. (aion g165) 21 Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you. 22 All the saints greet you, especially those who are of Caesar's household. 23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Colossians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, 2 to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love which you have toward all the saints, 5 because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News 6 which has come to you, even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth, 7 even as you learned from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on your behalf, 8 who also declared to us your love in the Spirit. 9 For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, don't cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 that you may walk worthily of the Lord, to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God, 11 strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy, 12 giving thanks to the Father, who made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light, 13 who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of his love, 14 in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins. 15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. 16 For by him all things were created in the heavens and on the earth, visible things and invisible things, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things have been created through him and for him. 17 He is before all things, and in him all things are held together. 18 He is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he might have the preeminence. 19 For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him, 20 and through him to reconcile all things to himself by him, whether things on the earth or things in the heavens. having made peace through the blood of his cross. 21 You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil deeds, 22 yet now he has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without defect and blameless before him, 23 if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven, of which I, Paul, was made a servant. 24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the assembly, 25 of which I was made a servant according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you to fulfill the word of God, 26 the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to his saints, (aiōn g165) 27 to whom God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 28 We proclaim him, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus; 29 for which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

2 For I desire to have you know how greatly I struggle for you and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh: 2 that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ, 3 in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden. 4 Now I say this that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. 5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. 6 As therefore you received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in him, 7 rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving. 8 Be careful that you don't let anyone rob you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elemental spirits of the world, and not after Christ. 9 For in him all the fullness of the Deity dwells bodily, 10 and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power. 11 In him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ, 12 having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. 13 You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, 14 wiping out the handwriting in ordinances which was against us. He has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross. 15 Having stripped the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it. 16 Let no one therefore judge you in eating or drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or a Sabbath day, 17 which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's. 18 Let no one rob you of your prize by self-abasement and that they won't be discouraged. 22 Servants, obey in worshiping of the angels, dwelling in the things which all things those who are your masters according to the he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, flesh, not just when they are looking, as men pleasers, 19 and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all but in singleness of heart, fearing God. 23 And whatever the body, being supplied and knit together through the you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth. 20 If 24 knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward you died with Christ from the elemental spirits of the of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ. 25 But world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject he who does wrong will receive again for the wrong that yourselves to ordinances, 21 "Don't handle, nor taste, he has done, and there is no partiality. nor touch" 22 (all of which perish with use), according to the precepts and doctrines of men? 23 These things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, humility, and severity to the body, but aren't of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

Lord. 17 Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. 18 Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. 19 Husbands, love your wives, and don't be bitter against them. 20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this pleases the Lord. 21 Fathers, don't provoke your children, so

4 Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven. 2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching in it with thanksgiving, 3 praying together for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the 3 If then you were raised together with Christ, seek the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds, 4 that I things that are above, where Christ is, seated on the may reveal it as I ought to speak. 5 Walk in wisdom right hand of God. 2 Set your mind on the things that are toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. 6 above, not on the things that are on the earth. 3 For you Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. 4 When salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each Christ, our life, is revealed, then you will also be revealed one. 7 All my affairs will be made known to you by with him in glory. 5 Put to death therefore your members Tychicus, the beloved brother, faithful servant, and fellow which are on the earth: sexual immorality, uncleanness, bondservant in the Lord. 8 I am sending him to you for depraved passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which this very purpose, that he may know your circumstances is idolatry. 6 For these things' sake the wrath of God and comfort your hearts, 9 together with Onesimus, the comes on the children of disobedience. 7 You also faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They once walked in those, when you lived in them, 8 but will make known to you everything that is going on here. now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, 10 Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark slander, and shameful speaking out of your mouth. 9 the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you received Don't lie to one another, seeing that you have put off instructions, "if he comes to you, receive him"), 11 and the old man with his doings, 10 and have put on the Jesus who is called Justus. These are my only fellow new man, who is being renewed in knowledge after the workers for God's Kingdom who are of the circumcision, image of his Creator, 11 where there can't be Greek men who have been a comfort to me. 12 Epaphras, and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, salutes you, Scythian, bondservant, or free person; but Christ is all, always striving for you in his prayers, that you may and in all. 12 Put on therefore, as God's chosen ones, stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. 13 For holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, I testify about him that he has great zeal for you, and for lowliness, humility, and perseverance; 13 bearing with those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis. 14 Luke one another, and forgiving each other, if any man has the beloved physician and Demas greet you. 15 Greet a complaint against any; even as Christ forgave you, the brothers who are in Laodicea, with Nymphas and so you also do. 14 Above all these things, walk in the assembly that is in his house. 16 When this letter love, which is the bond of perfection. 15 And let the has been read among you, cause it to be read also in peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you the assembly of the Laodiceans, and that you also read were called in one body, and be thankful. 16 Let the the letter from Laodicea. 17 Tell Archippus, "Take heed word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and you fulfill it." 18 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to the hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Thessalonians

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 2 We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers, 3 remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and perseverance of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father. 4 We know, brothers loved by God, that you are chosen, 5 and that our Good News came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake. 6 You became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, 7 so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. 8 For from you the word of the Lord has been declared, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out, so that we need not to say anything. 9 For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve a living and true God, 10 and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead: Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

? For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you wasn't in vain, 2 but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of God in much conflict. 3 For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception. 4 But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak—not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts. 5 For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness), 6 nor seeking alory from men (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of Christ. 7 But we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother cherishes her own children. 8 Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you not the Good News of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us. 9 For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of God. 10 You are witnesses with God how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe. 11 As you know, we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you, as a father does his own children. 12 to the end that you should walk worthily of God, who calls you into his own Kingdom and glory. 13 For this cause we also thank God without ceasing that when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, God's word, which also works in you who believe. 14 For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews 15 who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out, and don't please God, and are contrary to all men, 16 forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost. 17 But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire, 18 because we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Paul, once and again—but Satan hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Isn't it even you, before our Lord Jesus at his coming? 20 For you are our glory and our joy.

3 Therefore when we couldn't stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, 2 and sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in the Good News of Christ, to establish you and to comfort you concerning your faith, 3 that no one would be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task. 4 For most certainly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know. 5 For this cause I also, when I couldn't stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain. 6 But Timothy has just now come to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you. 7 For this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. 8 For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. 9 For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God, 10 night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith? 11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you. 12 May the Lord make you to increase and abound in love toward one another and toward all men, even as we also do toward you, 13 to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

ought to walk and to please God, that you abound more to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus and more. 2 For you know what instructions we gave Christ, 10 who died for us, that, whether we wake or you through the Lord Jesus. 3 For this is the will of sleep, we should live together with him. 11 Therefore God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual exhort one another, and build each other up, even as immorality, 4 that each one of you know how to control you also do. 12 But we beg you, brothers, to know his own body in sanctification and honor, 5 not in the those who labor among you, and are over you in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who don't know Lord and admonish you, 13 and to respect and honor God, 6 that no one should take advantage of and wrong them in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord is an yourselves. 14 We exhort you, brothers: Admonish the avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you disorderly; encourage the faint-hearted; support the and testified. 7 For God called us not for uncleanness, weak; be patient toward all. 15 See that no one returns but in sanctification. 8 Therefore he who rejects this evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which doesn't reject man, but God, who has also given his is good for one another and for all. 16 Always rejoice. Holy Spirit to you. 9 But concerning brotherly love, you 17 Pray without ceasing. 18 In everything give thanks, have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you. 19 are taught by God to love one another, 10 for indeed you Don't quench the Spirit. 20 Don't despise prophecies. do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. 21 Test all things, and hold firmly that which is good. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and 22 Abstain from every form of evil. 23 May the God of more: 11 and that you make it your ambition to lead a peace himself sanctify you completely. May your whole quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the your own hands, even as we instructed you, 12 that you coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 24 He who calls you is may walk properly toward those who are outside, and faithful, who will also do it. 25 Brothers, pray for us. 26 may have need of nothing. 13 But we don't want you to Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. 27 I solemnly be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen command you by the Lord that this letter be read to all asleep, so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have the holy brothers. 28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ no hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose be with you. Amen. again, even so God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. 15 For this we tell you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first, 17 then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever. 18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

5 But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers. you have no need that anything be written to you. 2 For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. 3 For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman. Then they will in no way escape. 4 But you, brothers, aren't in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief. 5 You are all children of light and children of the day. We don't belong to the night, nor to darkness, 6 so then let's not sleep, as the rest do, but let's watch and be sober. 7 For those who sleep, sleep in the night; and those who are drunk are drunk in the night. 8 But since we belong to the day, let's be sober, putting on the

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 We are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers, even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you toward one another abounds, 4 so that we ourselves boast about you in the assemblies of God for your perseverance and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure. 5 This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of God's Kingdom, for which you also suffer. 6 For it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you, 7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, 8 punishing those who don't know God, and to those who don't obey the Good News of our Lord Jesus, 9 who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, (aionios g166) 10 when he comes in that day to be glorified in his saints and to be admired among all those who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed. 11 To this end we also pray always for you that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith with power, 12 that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the brother who walks in rebellion and not after the tradition Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to him, we ask you 2 not to be quickly shaken in your mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter as if from us, saying that the day of Christ has already come. 3 Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of destruction. 4 He opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, setting himself up as God. 5 Don't you remember that when I was still with you, I told you these things? 6 Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. 7 For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way. 8 Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will kill with the breath of his mouth and destroy by the manifestation of his coming; 9 even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, 10 and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they didn't receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 Because of this, God sends them a powerful delusion, that they should believe a lie, 12 that they all might be judged who didn't believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 13 But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth, 14 to which he called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brothers, stand firm and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word or by letter. 16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, (aionios g166) 17 comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

3 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you, 2 and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith. 3 But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and guard you from the evil one. 4 We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command. 5 May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love and into the perseverance of Christ. 6 Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every which they received from us. 7 For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we didn't behave ourselves rebelliously among you, 8 neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you. 9 This was not because we don't have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us. 10 For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone is not willing to work, don't let him eat." 11 For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who don't work at all, but are busybodies. 12 Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that they work with quietness and eat their own bread. 13 But you, brothers, don't be weary in doing what is right. 14 If any man doesn't obey our word in this letter, note that man and have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. 15 Don't count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. 16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all. 17 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter. This is how I write. ${\bf 18}\, {\rm The}$ grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ according to the commandment of God our Savior and the Lord Jesus Christ our hope, 2 to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. 3 As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might command certain men not to teach a different doctrine, 4 and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause disputes rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith. 5 But the goal of this command is love from a pure heart, a good conscience, and sincere faith, 6 from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned away to vain talking, 7 desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say nor about what they strongly affirm. 8 But we know that the law is good if a person uses it lawfully, 9 as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10 for the sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for slavetraders, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine, 11 according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. 12 I thank him who enabled me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service, 13 although I used to be a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 14 The grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 15 The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. 16 However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might display all his patience for an example of those who were going to believe in him for eternal life. (aionios g166) 17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. (aion g165) 18 I commit this instruction to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which were given to you before, that by them you may wage the good warfare, 19 holding faith and a good conscience, which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith, 20 of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and givings of thanks be made for all men, 2 for kings and all who are in high places, that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence. 3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, 4 who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, 6 who gave himself as a ransom for all, the testimony at the proper time, 7 to which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle—I am telling the truth in Christ, not lying-a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. 8 I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and doubting. 9 In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety, not with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing, 10 but with good works, which is appropriate for women professing godliness. 11 Let a woman learn in quietness with full submission. 12 But I don't permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness. 13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve. 14 Adam wasn't deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience; 15 but she will be saved through her childbearing, if they continue in faith, love, and holiness with sobriety.

3 This is a faithful saying: someone who seeks to be an overseer desires a good work. 2 The overseer therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, good at teaching; 3 not a drinker, not violent, not greedy for money, but gentle, not guarrelsome, not covetous; 4 one who rules his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence; 5 (for how could someone who doesn't know how to rule his own house take care of God's assembly?) 6 not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. 7 Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil. 8 Servants, in the same way. must be reverent, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for money, 9 holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 Let them also first be tested; then let them serve if they are blameless. 11 Their wives in the same way must be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, and faithful in all things. 12 Let servants be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For those who have served well gain for themselves a good standing and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. 14 These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly, 15 but if I wait long, that you may know how men ought to behave themselves in God's house, which is the assembly of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 16 Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great: God was revealed in the flesh, justified in the believed on in the world, and received up in glory.

⚠ But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, 2 through the hypocrisy of men who speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron, 3 forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving. 5 For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer. 6 If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith and of the good doctrine which you have followed. 7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables. Exercise yourself toward godliness. 8 For bodily exercise has some value, but godliness has value in all things, having the promise of the life which is now and of that which is to come. 9 This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance. 10 For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. 11 Command and teach these things. 12 Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity. 13 Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching. 14 Don't neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the elders. 15 Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all. 16 Pay attention to yourself and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

Spon't rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers; 2 the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3 Honor widows who are widows indeed. 4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety toward their own family and to repay their parents, for this is acceptable in the sight of God. 5 Now she who is a widow indeed and desolate, has her hope set on God and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. 6 But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she lives. 7 Also command these things, that they may be without reproach. 8 But if anyone doesn't provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. 9 Let no one be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man. 10 being approved by good works, if she has brought

spirit, seen by angels, preached among the nations, up children, if she has been hospitable to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has diligently followed every good work. 11 But refuse younger widows, for when they have grown wanton against Christ, they desire to marry, 12 having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge. 13 Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. 14 I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for insulting. 15 For already some have turned away after Satan. 16 If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them relieve them, and don't let the assembly be burdened, that it might relieve those who are widows indeed. 17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. 18 For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain." And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages." 19 Don't receive an accusation against an elder except at the word of two or three witnesses. 20 Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. 21 I command you in the sight of God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22 Lay hands hastily on no one. Don't be a participant in other people's sins. Keep yourself pure. 23 Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities. 24 Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later. 25 In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise can't be hidden.

> 6 Let as many as are bondservants under the voke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed. 2 Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things. 3 If anyone teaches a different doctrine and doesn't consent to sound words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, 4 he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, insulting, evil suspicions, 5 constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. Withdraw yourself from such. 6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into the world, and we certainly can't carry anything out.

8 But having food and clothing, we will be content with that. 9 But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation, a snare, and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown men in ruin and destruction. 10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows. 11 But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness. 12 Fight the good fight of faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. (aionios g166) 13 I command you before God who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession, 14 that you keep the commandment without spot, blameless until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 which at the right time he will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords. 16 He alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen nor can see, to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen. (aionios g166) 17 Charge those who are rich in this present age that they not be arrogant, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on the living God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy; (aion g165) 18 that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to share: 19 laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of eternal life. 20 Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of what is falsely called knowledge, 21 which some profess, and thus have wandered from the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. 3 I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day 4 longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy; 5 having been reminded of the sincere faith that is in you, which lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, in you also. 6 For this cause. I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7 For God didn't give us a spirit of fear. but of power, love, and self-control. 8 Therefore don't be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God. 9 who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before times eternal, (aionios g166) 10 but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News. 11 For this I was appointed as a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. 12 For this cause I also suffer these things. Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day. 13 Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 14 That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us. 15 This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me, of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. 16 May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain. 17 but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently and found me 18 (the Lord grant to him to find the Lord's mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

2 You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same things to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. 3 You therefore must endure hardship as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. 4 No soldier on duty entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. 5 Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he isn't crowned unless he has competed by the rules. 6 The farmer who labors must be the first to get a share of the crops. 7 Consider what I say, and may the Lord give you understanding in all things. 8 Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the offspring of David, according to my Good News. 9 in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But God's word isn't chained. 10 Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. (aionios g166) 11 This saying is trustworthy: "For if we died with him, we will also live with him. 12 If we endure, we will also reign with him. If we deny him, he also will deny us. 13 If we are faithless, he remains faithful; for he can't deny himself." 14 Remind them of these things, charging them in the sight of the Lord that they don't argue about words to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear. 15 Give diligence to present yourself approved by God. a workman who doesn't need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth. 16 But shun empty chatter, for it will go further in ungodliness, 17 and those words will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus: 18 men who have erred concerning the truth, saving that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some. 19 However, God's firm foundation stands, having this seal: "The Lord knows those who are his." and, "Let every one who names the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness." 20 Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor and some for dishonor. 21 If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use. prepared for every good work. 22 Flee from youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23 But refuse foolish and ignorant questionings, knowing that they generate strife. 24 The Lord's servant must not quarrel, but be gentle toward all, able to teach, patient, 25 in gentleness correcting those who oppose him. Perhaps God may give them repentance leading to a full knowledge of the truth. 26 and they may recover themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to do his will.

3 But know this: that in the last days, grievous times will come. 2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, 3 without natural affection, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, not lovers of good, 4 traitors, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, 5 holding a form of godliness but having denied its power. Turn away from these, also. 6 For some of these are people who creep into houses and take captive gullible women loaded one came to help me, but all left me. May it not be down with sins, led away by various lusts, 7 always held against them. 17 But the Lord stood by me and learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the strengthened me, that through me the message might truth. 8 Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear. so these also oppose the truth, men corrupted in mind, So I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. 18 And who concerning the faith are rejected. 9 But they will the Lord will deliver me from every evil work and will proceed no further. ▲ I command you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his Kingdom: 2 preach the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort with all patience and teaching. 3 For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts, 4 and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn away to fables. 5 But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfill your ministry. 6 For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has come. 7 I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith. 8 From now on, the crown of righteousness is stored up for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved his appearing. 9 Be diligent to come to me soon. 10 for Demas left me, having loved this present world, and went to Thessalonica: Crescens to Galatia: and Titus to Dalmatia. 1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's chosen ones and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness, 2 in hope of eternal life, which God, who can't lie, promised before time began; (aionios g166) 3 but in his own time revealed his word in the message with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God our Savior, 4 to Titus, my true child according to a common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior. 5 I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you— 6 if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior. 7 For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward, not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; 8 but given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober minded, fair, holy, self-controlled, 9 holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him. 10 For there are also many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11 whose mouths must be stopped: men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for dishonest gain's sake. 12 One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons." 13 This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14 not paying attention to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. 15 To the pure, all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. 16 They profess that they know God, but by their deeds they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

older men should be temperate, sensible, sober minded, sound in faith, in love, and in perseverance, and that older women likewise be reverent in behavior, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good, 4 that they may train the young be sober minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that God's word may not be blasphemed. 6 Likewise, exhort the younger men to be sober minded. 7 In all things show yourself an example of good works. In your teaching, show integrity, seriousness, incorruptibility. 8 and soundness of speech that can't be condemned, that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us. 9 Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters and to be well-pleasing in all things, not contradicting, 10 not stealing, but showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things. 11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we would live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present age; (aion g165) 13 looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, 14 who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works. 15 Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one despise you.

3 Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, 2 to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all humility toward all men. 3 For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. 4 But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love toward mankind appeared, 5 not by works of righteousness which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us through the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit, 6 whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior; 7 that being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (aionios g166) 8 This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you insist confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men; 9 but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. 10 Avoid a factious man after a first and second warning, 11 knowing that such a one is perverted and sinful, 2 But say the things which fit sound doctrine, 2 that being self-condemned. 12 When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. 13 Send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey speedily, that nothing may be lacking for them. 14 Let our people also learn to maintain good works to meet necessary needs, wives to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 to that they may not be unfruitful. 15 All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Philemon

1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our beloved fellow worker, 2 to the beloved Apphia, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house: 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 4 I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, 5 hearing of your love and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints, 6 that the fellowship of your faith may become effective in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us in Christ Jesus. 7 For we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother. 8 Therefore though I have all boldness in Christ to command you that which is appropriate, 9 yet for love's sake I rather appeal to you, being such a one as Paul, the aged, but also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. 10 I appeal to you for my child Onesimus, whom I have become the father of in my chains, 11 who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me. 12 I am sending him back. Therefore receive him, that is, my own heart, 13 whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the Good News. 14 But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will. 15 For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for a while that you would have him forever, (aionios g166) 16 no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother—especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. 17 If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me. 18 But if he has wronged you at all or owes you anything, put that to my account. 19 I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides). 20 Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in the Lord. 21 Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say. 22 Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you. 23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, 24 as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers. 25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

1 God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, 2 has at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds. (aion g165) 3 His Son is the radiance of his glory, the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, who. when he had by himself purified us of our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high. 4 having become as much better than the angels as the more excellent name he has inherited is better than theirs. 5 For to which of the angels did he say at any time, "You are my Son. Today I have become your father?" and again. "I will be to him a Father, and he will be to me a Son?" 6 When he again brings in the firstborn into the world he says. "Let all the angels of God worship him." 7 Of the angels he says, "He makes his angels winds. and his servants a flame of fire." 8 But of the Son he says, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your Kingdom. (aion g165) 9 You have loved righteousness and hated iniquity; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows." 10 And, "You, Lord, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth. The heavens are the works of your hands. 11 They will perish, but you continue. They all will grow old like a garment does. 12 You will roll them up like a mantle. and they will be changed; but you are the same. Your vears won't fail." 13 But which of the angels has he told at any time, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet?" 14 Aren't they all serving spirits, sent out to do service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

Therefore we qualit to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, lest perhaps we drift away. 2 For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast. and every transgression and disobedience received a just penalty, 3 how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation—which at the first having been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard, 4 God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will? 5 For he didn't subject the world to come, of which we speak, to angels. 6 But one has somewhere testified, saving. "What is man, that you think of him? Or the son of man, that you care for him? 7 You made him a little lower than the angels. You crowned him with glory and honor. 8 You have put all things in subjection under his feet." For in that he subjected all things to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we don't vet see all things subjected to him. 9 But we see him who has been made a little lower than the angels. Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor. that by the grace of God he should taste of death for everyone. 10 For it became him, for whom are all things and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11 For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers. 12 saving, "I will declare your name to my brothers, Among the congregation I will sing your praise." 13 Again, "I will put my trust in him." Again, "Behold, here I am with the children whom God has given me." 14 Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, he also himself in the same way partook of the same, that through death he might bring to nothing him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and might deliver all of them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 For most certainly, he doesn't give help to angels, but he gives help to the offspring of Abraham. 17 Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people. 18 For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

? Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession: Jesus. 2 who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also Moses was in all his house. 3 For he has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, because he who built the house has more honor than the house. 4 For every house is built by someone; but he who built all things is God. 5 Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken, 6 but Christ is faithful as a Son over his house. We are his house. if we hold fast our confidence and the glorying of our hope firm to the end. 7 Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit says, "Today if you will hear his voice, 8 don't harden your hearts as in the rebellion, in the day of the trial in the wilderness. 9 where your fathers tested me and tried me, and saw my deeds for forty years. 10 Therefore I was displeased with that generation, and said, 'They always err in their heart, but they didn't know my ways.' 11 As I swore in my wrath, 'They will not enter into my rest." 12 Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there might be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God; 13 but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called "today", lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

the beginning of our confidence firm to the end, 15 while it is said, "Today if you will hear his voice, don't harden that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. 2 your hearts, as in the rebellion." 16 For who, when they The high priest can deal gently with those who are heard, rebelled? Wasn't it all those who came out of ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also Egypt led by Moses? 17 With whom was he displeased surrounded with weakness. 3 Because of this, he must forty years? Wasn't it with those who sinned, whose offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for bodies fell in the wilderness? 18 To whom did he swear himself. 4 Nobody takes this honor on himself, but he is that they wouldn't enter into his rest, but to those who called by God, just like Aaron was. 5 So also Christ were disobedient? 19 We see that they weren't able to didn't glorify himself to be made a high priest, but it was enter in because of unbelief.

▲ Let's fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into his rest. 2 For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard didn't profit them, because it wasn't mixed with faith by those who heard. 3 For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, "As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest;" although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For he has said this somewhere about the seventh day, "God rested on the seventh day from all his works;" 5 and in this place again, "They will not enter into my rest." 6 Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter into it, and they to whom the good news was preached before failed to enter in because of disobedience, 7 he again defines a certain day, "today", saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said), "Today if you will hear his voice, don't harden your hearts." 8 For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. 9 There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God. 10 For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience. 12 For the word of God is living and of need.

is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, he who said to him, "You are my Son. Today I have become your father." 6 As he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek." (aion g165) 7 He, in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his godly fear, 8 though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered. 9 Having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of eternal salvation, (aionios g166) 10 named by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. 11 About him we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing. 12 For although by this time you should be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the revelations of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food. 13 For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. 14 But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

6 Therefore leaving the teaching of the first principles of Christ, let's press on to perfection—not laying did from his. 11 Let's therefore give diligence to enter again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God, 2 of the teaching of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing judgment. (aionios g166) 3 This will we do, if God permits. even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints 4 For concerning those who were once enlightened and and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers intentions of the heart. 13 There is no creature that is of the Holy Spirit, 5 and tasted the good word of God hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid and the powers of the age to come, (aion g165) 6 and open before the eyes of him to whom we must give then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again an account. 14 Having then a great high priest who to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of God for has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of themselves again, and put him to open shame. 7 For God, let's hold tightly to our confession. 15 For we don't the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it have a high priest who can't be touched with the feeling and produces a crop suitable for them for whose sake of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points it is also tilled, receives blessing from God; 8 but if it tempted like we are, yet without sin. 16 Let's therefore bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we cursed, whose end is to be burned. 9 But, beloved, may receive mercy and may find grace for help in time we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this. 10 For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your could swear by no one greater, he swore by himself, 14 but after the power of an endless life; 17 for it is testified, the hope set before us. 19 This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil, 20 where as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. (aion g165)

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, 2 to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, "king of righteousness", and then also "king of Salem", which means "king of peace", 3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God), remains a priest continually. 4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth out of the best plunder. 5 They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment to take tithes from the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the body of Abraham, 6 but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises. 7 But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater. 8 Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that he lives. 9 We can say that through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes, 10 for he was yet in the body of his father when Melchizedek met him. 11 Now if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law. 13 For he of whom these

work and the labor of love which you showed toward his things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no name, in that you served the saints, and still do serve one has officiated at the altar. 14 For it is evident that them. 11 We desire that each one of you may show the our Lord has sprung out of Judah, about which tribe same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end, Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. 15 This 12 that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of through faith and perseverance inherited the promises. Melchizedek there arises another priest, 16 who has 13 For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying "You are a priest forever, according to the order of I will multiply you." 15 Thus, having patiently endured, Melchizedek." (aion g165) 18 For there is an annulling of he obtained the promise. 16 For men indeed swear a foregoing commandment because of its weakness by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the and uselessness 19 (for the law made nothing perfect), oath is final for confirmation. 17 In this way God, being and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of draw near to God. 20 Inasmuch as he was not made the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed priest without the taking of an oath 21 (for they indeed with an oath, 18 that by two immutable things, in which have been made priests without an oath), but he with it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong an oath by him that says of him, "The Lord swore and encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of will not change his mind, 'You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek." (aion g165) 22 By so much, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant. 23 Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death. 24 But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable. (aion g165) 25 Therefore he is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, seeing that he lives forever to make intercession for them. 26 For such a high priest was fitting for us: holy, quiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; 27 who doesn't need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. For he did this once for all, when he offered up himself. 28 For the law appoints men as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath, which came after the law, appoints a Son forever who has been perfected. (aion g165)

> R Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this: we have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, 2 a servant of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched, not man. 3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer. 4 For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law, 5 who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned by God when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he said, "See, you shall make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain." 6 But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as he is also the vanishing away.

Now indeed even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service and an earthly sanctuary. 2 For a tabernacle was prepared. In the first part were the lamp stand, the table, and the show bread, which is called the Holy Place. 3 After the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, 4 having a golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a golden pot holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; 5 and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we can't speak now in detail. 6 Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services, 7 but into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself and for the errors of the people. 8 The Holy Spirit is indicating this, that the way into the Holy Place wasn't yet revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing. 9 This is a symbol of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshiper perfect, 10 being only (with foods and drinks and various washings) fleshly ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation. 11 But Christ having come as a high priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, 12 nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his having obtained eternal redemption. (aionios g166) 13 For mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer has been given as law. 7 For if that first covenant had sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the been faultless, then no place would have been sought cleanness of the flesh, 14 how much more will the blood for a second. 8 For finding fault with them, he said, of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself "Behold, the days are coming", says the Lord, "that without defect to God, cleanse your conscience from I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel dead works to serve the living God? (aiōnios g166) 15 and with the house of Judah; 9 not according to the For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I since a death has occurred for the redemption of the took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of transgressions that were under the first covenant, that Egypt; for they didn't continue in my covenant, and I those who have been called may receive the promise of disregarded them," says the Lord. 10 "For this is the the eternal inheritance. (aionios g166) 16 For where a covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after last will and testament is, there must of necessity be those days," says the Lord: "I will put my laws into the death of him who made it. 17 For a will is in force their mind; I will also write them on their heart. I will where there has been death, for it is never in force be their God, and they will be my people. 11 They will while he who made it lives. 18 Therefore even the first not teach every man his fellow citizen and every man covenant has not been dedicated without blood. 19 his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' for all will know For when every commandment had been spoken by me, from their least to their greatest. 12 For I will be Moses to all the people according to the law, he took merciful to their unrighteousness. I will remember their the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and sins and lawless deeds no more." 13 In that he says, "A scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book new covenant", he has made the first obsolete. But that itself and all the people, 20 saying, "This is the blood which is becoming obsolete and grows aged is near to of the covenant which God has commanded you." 21 He sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry in the same way with the blood. 22 According to the law, nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission. 23 lt was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ hasn't entered into holy places made with hands, which are representations of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; 25 nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place year by year with blood not his own. 26 or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. (aion g165) 27 Inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this, judgment, 28 so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

No For the law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near. 2 Or else wouldn't they have ceased to be offered, because the worshipers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more consciousness of sins? 3 But in those sacrifices there is a yearly reminder of sins. 4 own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats into the world, he says, "You didn't desire sacrifice and the former days, in which, after you were enlightened, offering, but you prepared a body for me. 6 You had you endured a great struggle with sufferings: 33 partly, no pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for being exposed to both reproaches and oppressions, sin. 7 Then I said, 'Behold, I have come (in the scroll of and partly, becoming partakers with those who were the book it is written of me) to do your will, O God." 8 treated so. 34 For you both had compassion on me in Previously saying, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole my chains and joyfully accepted the plundering of your burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you didn't desire, possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a neither had pleasure in them" (those which are offered better possession and an enduring one in the heavens. according to the law), 9 then he has said, "Behold, I 35 Therefore don't throw away your boldness, which have come to do your will." He takes away the first, that has a great reward. 36 For you need endurance so he may establish the second, 10 by which will we have that, having done the will of God, you may receive the been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus promise. 37 "In a very little while, he who comes will Christ once for all. 11 Every priest indeed stands day come and will not wait. 38 But the righteous one will live by day serving and offering often the same sacrifices, by faith. If he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in which can never take away sins. 12 but he, when he him." 39 But we are not of those who shrink back to had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the right hand of God. 13 from that time waiting until his the soul. enemies are made the footstool of his feet. 14 For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. 15 The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, 16 "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days," says the Lord, "I will put my laws on their heart. I will also write them on their mind:" then he says, 17 "I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more." 18 Now where remission of these is. there is no more offering for sin. 19 Having therefore. brothers, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus. 20 by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh, 21 and having a great priest over God's house, 22 let's draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and having our body washed with pure water, 23 let's hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for he who promised is faithful. 24 Let's consider how to provoke one another to love and good works, 25 not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. 26 For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins. 27 but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries. 28 A man who disregards Moses' law dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses. 29 How much worse punishment do you think he will be judged worthy of who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know him who said, "Vengeance belongs to me. I will repay," says the Lord. Again, "The Lord will judge his people." 31 It is a fearful thing to should take away sins. 5 Therefore when he comes fall into the hands of the living God. 32 But remember

Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen. 2 For by this, the elders obtained approval. 3 By faith we understand that the universe has been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible. (aion g165) 4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous. God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks. 5 By faith Enoch was taken away, so that he wouldn't see death, and he was not found, because God translated him. For he has had testimony given to him that before his translation he had been well pleasing to God. 6 Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him. 7 By faith Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared a ship for the saving of his house, through which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. 8 By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to the place which he was to receive for an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he went. 9 By faith he lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. 10 For he was looking for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God. 11 By faith even Sarah herself received power to conceive, and she bore a child when she was past age. since she counted him faithful who had promised. 12 Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were fathered by one man, and him as good as dead. 13 These all died in faith, not having received them from afar, and having confessed that they were sawn apart. They were tempted. They were slain with strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For those who the sword. They went around in sheep skins and in say such things make it clear that they are seeking a goat skins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated— 38 of country of their own. 15 If indeed they had been thinking whom the world was not worthy—wandering in deserts, of that country from which they went out, they would mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth. 39 These have had enough time to return. 16 But now they desire all, having been commended for their faith, didn't receive a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God the promise, 40 God having provided some better thing is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be has prepared a city for them. 17 By faith, Abraham, made perfect. being tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had gladly received the promises was offering up his only born son, 18 to whom it was said, "Your offspring will be accounted as from Isaac," 19 concluding that God is able to raise up even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead. 20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. 21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff. 22 By faith Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones. 23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. 24 By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, 25 choosing rather to share ill treatment with God's people than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time, 26 considering the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked to the reward. 27 By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. 28 By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. 29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land. When the Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up. 30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days. 31 By faith Rahab the prostitute didn't perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace. 32 What more shall I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets-33 who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee. 35 Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. 36 Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds the promises, but having seen them and embraced and imprisonment, 37 They were stoned. They were

2 Therefore let's also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let's run with perseverance the race that is set before us, 2 looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 For consider him who has endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, that you don't grow weary, fainting in your souls. 4 You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin. 5 You have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children, "My son, don't take lightly the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when you are reproved by him; 6 for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines, and chastises every son whom he receives." 7 It is for discipline that you endure. God deals with you as with children, for what son is there whom his father doesn't discipline? 8 But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then you are illegitimate, and not children. 9 Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live? 10 For they indeed for a few days disciplined us as seemed good to them, but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness. 11 All chastening seems for the present to be not iovous but grievous; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. 12 Therefore lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees, 13 and make straight paths for your feet, so what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed. 14 Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no man will see the Lord, 15 looking carefully lest there be any man who falls short of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you and many be defiled by it, 16 lest there be any sexually immoral person or profane person, like Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal. 17 For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for a change of mind though he sought it diligently with tears.

18 For you have not come to a mountain that might be sin, are burned outside of the camp. 12 Therefore Jesus touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness, also, that he might sanctify the people through his own darkness, storm, 19 the sound of a trumpet, and the blood, suffered outside of the gate. 13 Let's therefore go voice of words; which those who heard it begged that out to him outside of the camp, bearing his reproach. not one more word should be spoken to them, 20 14 For we don't have here an enduring city, but we for they could not stand that which was commanded, seek that which is to come. 15 Through him, then, let's "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, stoned". 21 So fearful was the appearance that Moses the fruit of lips which proclaim allegiance to his name. said, "I am terrified and trembling." 22 But you have 16 But don't forget to be doing good and sharing, for come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, with such sacrifices God is well pleased. 17 Obey your the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable multitudes leaders and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of of angels, 23 to the festal gathering and assembly of your souls, as those who will give account, that they the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to God the may do this with joy and not with groaning, for that Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, 24 would be unprofitable for you. 18 Pray for us, for we are to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel. live honorably in all things. 19 I strongly urge you to 25 See that you don't refuse him who speaks. For if they do this, that I may be restored to you sooner. 20 Now didn't escape when they refused him who warned on may the God of peace, who brought again from the the earth, how much more will we not escape who turn dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of away from him who warns from heaven, 26 whose voice an eternal covenant, our Lord Jesus, (aiōnios g166) 21 shook the earth then, but now he has promised, saying, make you complete in every good work to do his will, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, the heavens." 27 This phrase, "Yet once more" signifies through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and the removing of those things that are shaken, as of ever. Amen. (aion g165) 22 But I exhort you, brothers, things that have been made, that those things which endure the word of exhortation, for I have written to you are not shaken may remain. 28 Therefore, receiving a in few words. 23 Know that our brother Timothy has Kingdom that can't be shaken, let's have grace, through been freed, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see which we serve God acceptably, with reverence and you. 24 Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. The awe, 29 for our God is a consuming fire.

13 Let brotherly love continue. 2 Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. 3 Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them, and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body. 4 Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled; but God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers. 5 Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will in no way leave you, neither will I in any way forsake you." 6 So that with good courage we say, "The Lord is my helper. I will not fear. What can man do to me?" 7 Remember your leaders, men who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith. 8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. (aion g165) 9 Don't be carried away by various and strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by grace, not by foods, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited. 10 We have an altar from which those who serve the holy tabernacle have no right to eat. 11 For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for Italians greet you. 25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

James

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ. to the twelve tribes which are in the Dispersion: Greetings. 2 Count it all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various temptations, 3 knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. 4 Let endurance have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. 5 But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him. 6 But let him ask in faith, without any doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed. 7 For that man shouldn't think that he will receive anything from the Lord. 8 He is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. 9 Let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position; 10 and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away. 11 For the sun arises with the scorching wind and withers the grass; and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So the rich man will also fade away in his pursuits. 12 Blessed is a person who endures temptation, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord promised to those who love him. 13 Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God can't be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one. 14 But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust and enticed. 15 Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin. The sin, when it is full grown, produces death. 16 Don't be deceived, my beloved brothers. 17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation nor turning shadow. 18 Of his own will he gave birth to us by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures. 19 So, then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger; 20 for the anger of man doesn't produce the righteousness of God. 21 Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 22 But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves. 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror; 24 for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. 25 But he who looks into the perfect law of freedom and continues, not being a hearer who forgets but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does. 26 If anyone among you thinks himself to be religious while he doesn't bridle his tongue, but deceives his heart, this man's religion is worthless. 27 Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

2 My brothers, don't hold the faith of our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with partiality. 2 For if a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your synagogue, and a poor man in filthy clothing also comes in, 3 and you pay special attention to him who wears the fine clothing and say, "Sit here in a good place;" and you tell the poor man. "Stand there." or "Sit by my footstool" 4 haven't you shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? 5 Listen, my beloved brothers. Didn't God choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the Kingdom which he promised to those who love him? 6 But you have dishonored the poor man. Don't the rich oppress you and personally drag you before the courts? 7 Don't they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called? 8 However, if you fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well. 9 But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whoever keeps the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. 11 For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not commit murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak and so do as men who are to be judged by the law of freedom. 13 For judgment is without mercy to him who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment. 14 What good is it, my brothers, if a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can faith save him? 15 And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food. 16 and one of you tells them, "Go in peace. Be warmed and filled;" yet you didn't give them the things the body needs, what good is it? 17 Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself. 18 Yes, a man will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I will show you my faith by my works. 19 You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe—and shudder. 20 But do you want to know, vain man, that faith apart from works is dead? 21 Wasn't Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? 22 You see that faith worked with his works, and by works faith was perfected. 23 So the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness," and he was called the friend of God. 24 You see then that by works a man is justified, and not only by faith. 25 In the same way, wasn't Rahab the prostitute also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way? 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith 6 But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God apart from works is dead.

3 Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers. knowing that we will receive heavier judgment. 2 For we all stumble in many things. Anyone who doesn't stumble in word is a perfect person, able to bridle the whole body also. 3 Indeed, we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, and we guide their whole body. 4 Behold, the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires. 5 So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest! 6 And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehenna. (Geenna g1067) 7 For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and sea creature is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind; 8 but nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. 9 With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men who are made in the image of God. 10 Out of the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. 11 Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water? 12 Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh water. 13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom. 14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and don't lie against the truth. 15 This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. 16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed. 17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. 18 Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Don't they come from your pleasures that war in your members? 2 You lust, and don't have. You murder and covet, and can't obtain. You fight and make war. You you may spend it on your pleasures. 4 You adulterers resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." 7 Be subject therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners. Purify your hearts, you double-minded. 9 Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. 10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you. 11 Don't speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against a brother and judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. 12 Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge another? 13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow let's go into this city and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit." 14 Yet you don't know what your life will be like tomorrow. For what is your life? For you are a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away. 15 For you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we will both live, and do this or that." 16 But now you glory in your boasting. All such boasting is evil. 17 To him therefore who knows to do good and doesn't do it. to him it is sin.

Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you. 2 Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a testimony against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up your treasure in the last days. 4 Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out; and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Armies. 5 You have lived in luxury on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter. 6 You have condemned and you have murdered the righteous one. He doesn't resist you. 7 Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it ⚠ Where do wars and fightings among you come from? receives the early and late rain. 8 You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. 9 Don't grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you won't be judged. Behold, the judge stands at don't have, because you don't ask. 3 You ask, and don't the door. 10 Take, brothers, for an example of suffering receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that and of perseverance, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. 11 Behold, we call them blessed who and adulteresses, don't you know that friendship with endured. You have heard of the perseverance of Job the world is hostility toward God? Whoever therefore and have seen the Lord in the outcome, and how the wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an Lord is full of compassion and mercy. 12 But above all enemy of God. 5 Or do you think that the Scripture says things, my brothers, don't swear-not by heaven. or in vain, "The Spirit who lives in us yearns jealously"? by the earth, or by any other oath; but let your "yes"

> 725 James

be "yes", and your "no", "no", so that you don't fall into hypocrisy. 13 Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises. 14 Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; 15 and the prayer of faith will heal him who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. 16 Confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The insistent prayer of a righteous person is powerfully effective. 17 Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it didn't rain on the earth for three years and six months. 18 He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit. 19 Brothers, if any among you wanders from the truth and someone turns him back, 20 let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2 according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with his blood: Grace to you and peace be multiplied. 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that doesn't fade away, reserved in Heaven for you. 5 who by the power of God are guarded through faith for this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved in various trials. 7 that the proof of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes, even though it is tested by fire, known, you love. In him, though now you don't see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy that is unspeakable and full of glory, 9 receiving the result of salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently. They prophesied of the grace that would come to you, 11 searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them pointed to when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow them. 12 To them it was revealed that they served not themselves, but you, in these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into. 13 Therefore prepare your minds for action. Be sober, and set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ— 14 as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves according to your former lusts as in your ignorance, 15 but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior, 16 because it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy." 17 If you call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man's work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in reverent fear, 18 knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things like silver or through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope might be in God. 22 Seeing you have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth through the Spirit in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from the heart fervently, 23 having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which lives and remains forever. (aion g165) 24 For, "All flesh is like grass, and all of man's glory like the flower in the grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls; 25 but the Lord's word endures forever." This is the word of Good News which was preached to you. (aion g165)

? Putting away therefore all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil speaking, 2 as a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 In newborn babies, long for the pure spiritual milk, that with it you may grow, 3 if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious. 4 Come to him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God, precious. 5 You also as living stones are built up as a spiritual may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual the revelation of Jesus Christ— 8 whom, not having sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 6 Because it is contained in Scripture, "Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, chosen and precious. He who believes in him will not be disappointed." 7 For vour faith, the salvation of your souls. 10 Concerning this vou who believe therefore is the honor, but for those who are disobedient, "The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone," 8 and, "a stumbling stone and a rock of offense." For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed. 9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. 10 In the past, you were not a people, but now are God's people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. 11 Beloved, I beg you as foreigners and pilgrims to abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul, 12 having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evildoers. they may see your good works and glorify God in the day of visitation. 13 Therefore subject yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme, 14 or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to those who do well. 15 For this is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men. 16 Live as free people, yet not using your freedom for a gold, from the useless way of life handed down from cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of God. 17 vour fathers, 19 but with precious blood, as of a lamb Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor without blemish or spot, the blood of Christ, 20 who was the king. 18 Servants, be in subjection to your masters foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, with all respect, not only to the good and gentle, but but was revealed in this last age for your sake, 21 who also to the wicked. 19 For it is commendable if someone toward God. 20 For what glory is it if, when you sin, you will, that you suffer for doing what is right than for doing patiently endure beating? But if when you do well, you evil. 18 Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God. 21 For you were called to this, because Christ also God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should the Spirit, 19 in whom he also went and preached to follow his steps, 22 who didn't sin, "neither was deceit the spirits in prison, 20 who before were disobedient found in his mouth." 23 When he was cursed, he didn't when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the curse back. When he suffered, he didn't threaten, but ship was being built. ? In the same way, wives, be in subjection to your own they may be won by the behavior of their wives without beauty come not from the outward adorning of braiding your hair, and of wearing gold ornaments or of putting on fine clothing, 4 but from the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in God's sight. 5 For this is how in the past the holy women who hoped in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands. 6 So Sarah obeved Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are if you do well and are not put in fear by any terror. 7 You husbands. in the same way, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman as to the weaker vessel, as also being joint heirs of the grace of life, that your prayers may not be hindered. 8 Finally, all of you be like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, courteous, 9 not rendering evil for evil or insult for insult; but instead blessing, knowing that you were called to this, that you may inherit a blessing. 10 For, "He who would love life and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit. 11 Let him turn away from evil and do good. Let him seek peace and pursue it. 12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears open to their prayer; but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil." 13 Now who will harm you if you become imitators of that which is good? 14 But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "Don't fear what they fear, neither be troubled." 15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. Always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with humility and fear, 16 having a good conscience. Thus, while you are spoken against as evildoers, they may be disappointed who curse your husbands, so that, even if any don't obey the Word. 1 Therefore, since Christ suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who a word, 2 seeing your pure behavior in fear. 3 Let your has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, 2 that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God. 3 For we have spent enough of our past time doing the desire of the Gentiles, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries. 4 They think it is strange that you don't run with them into the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you. 5 They will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. 6 For to this end the Good News was preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as men in the flesh, but live as to God in the spirit. 7 But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober in prayer. 8 And above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins. 9 Be hospitable to one another without grumbling. 10 As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good managers of the grace of God in its various forms. 11 If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of God. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen. (aion g165) 12 Beloved, don't be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you to test you, as though a strange thing happened to you. 13 But because you are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice, that at the revelation of his glory you also may rejoice with exceeding joy. 14 If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified. 15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or a meddler in other men's matters. 16 But if one of you

1 Peter 728 suffers for being a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this matter. 17 For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God. If it begins first with us, what will happen to those who don't obey the Good News of God? 18 "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the ungodly and the sinner?" 19 Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of God in doing good entrust their souls to him, as to a faithful Creator.

5 Therefore I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and who will also share in the glory that will be revealed: 2 shepherd the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion, but voluntarily; not for dishonest gain, but willingly; 3 not as lording it over those entrusted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock. 4 When the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the crown of glory that doesn't fade away. 5 Likewise, you younger ones, be subject to the elder. Yes, all of you clothe yourselves with humility and subject yourselves to one another; for "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." 6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time, 7 casting all your worries on him, because he cares for you. 8 Be sober and self-controlled. Be watchful. Your adversary, the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. 9 Withstand him steadfast in your faith, knowing that your brothers who are in the world are undergoing the same sufferings. 10 But may the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. (aionios g166) 11 To him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen. (aion g165) 12 Through Silvanus, our faithful brother, as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand. 13 She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you. So does Mark, my son. 14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to all of you who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

1 Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ. to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ: 2 Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, 3 seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and virtue, 4 by which he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. 5 Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; 6 and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control, perseverance; and in perseverance, godliness; 7 and in godliness, brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. 8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to not be idle or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. 10 Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. 11 For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. (aionios g166) 12 Therefore I will not be negligent to remind you of these things, though you know them and are established in the present truth. 13 I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you, 14 knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. 15 Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure. 16 For we didn't follow cunningly devised fables when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17 For he received from God the Father honor and glory when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." 18 We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain. 19 We have the more sure word of prophecy; and you do well that you heed it as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts, 20 knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. 21 For no prophecy ever came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. 2 Many will follow their immoral ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned. 3 In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old doesn't linger, and their destruction will not slumber. 4 For if God didn't spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus, and committed them to pits of darkness to be reserved for judgment; (Tartaroo g5020) 5 and didn't spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly, 6 and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example to those who would live in an ungodly way, 7 and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked 8 (for that righteous man dwelling among them was tormented in his righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds), 9 then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment, 10 but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries, 11 whereas angels, though greater in might and power, don't bring a slanderous judgment against them before the Lord. 12 But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed, 13 receiving the wages of unrighteousness; people who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime, spots and defects, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you; 14 having eyes full of adultery, and who can't cease from sin, enticing unsettled souls, having a heart trained in greed, accursed children! 15 Forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of wrongdoing: 16 but he was rebuked for his own disobedience. A speechless donkey spoke with a man's voice and stopped the madness of the prophet. 17 These are wells without water, clouds driven by a storm, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. (questioned) 18 For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who are indeed escaping from those who live in error; 19 promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for a man is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes him. 20 For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and ignorant and unsettled twist, as they also do to the other Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it and Scriptures, to their own destruction. 17 You therefore, overcome, the last state has become worse for them beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware, lest than the first. 21 For it would be better for them not being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall to have known the way of righteousness, than after from your own steadfastness. 18 But grow in the grace knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To delivered to them. 22 But it has happened to them him be the glory both now and forever. Amen. (aion g165) according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again," and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."

3 This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you 2 that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets and the commandment of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior, 3 knowing this first, that in the last days mockers will come, walking after their own lusts 4 and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." 5 For they willfully forget that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water by the word of God, 6 by which means the world that existed then, being overflowed with water, perished. 7 But the heavens that exist now and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. 8 But don't forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9 The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but he is patient with us, not wishing that anyone should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat; and the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up. 11 Therefore, since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness, 12 looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? 13 But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells. 14 Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without defect and blameless in his sight. 15 Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you, 16 as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those, there are some things that are hard to understand, which the

1 That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life 2 (and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us); (aionios g166) 3 that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. 4 And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled. 5 This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie and don't tell the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son, cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we haven't sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

and in you, because the darkness is passing away and been born of him. the true light already shines. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness even until now. 10 He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. 12 I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. 13 I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, voung men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, little children, because you know the Father. 14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one. 15 Don't love the world or the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Father's love isn't in him. 16 For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—isn't the Father's, but is the world's. 17 The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does God's will remains forever. (aion g165) 18 Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen. By this we know that it is the final hour. 19 They went out from us, but they didn't belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us. 20 You have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all have knowledge. 21 I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the Antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. 23 Whoever denies the Son doesn't have the Father. $m{2}$ My little children, I write these things to you so that He who confesses the Son has the Father also. 24 you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have a Counselor Therefore, as for you, let that remain in you which you with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous. 2 And he heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the only, but also for the whole world. 3 This is how we Son, and in the Father. 25 This is the promise which he know that we know him: if we keep his commandments. promised us, the eternal life. (aionios g166) 26 These 4 One who says, "I know him," and doesn't keep his things I have written to you concerning those who would commandments, is a liar, and the truth isn't in him. 5 But lead you astray. 27 As for you, the anointing which you God's love has most certainly been perfected in whoever received from him remains in you, and you don't need keeps his word. This is how we know that we are in him: for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches 6 he who says he remains in him ought himself also you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and to walk just like he walked. 7 Brothers, I write no new even as it taught you, you will remain in him. 28 Now, commandment to you, but an old commandment which little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we you had from the beginning. The old commandment is may have boldness and not be ashamed before him at the word which you heard from the beginning. 8 Again, I his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you write a new commandment to you, which is true in him know that everyone who practices righteousness has

For this cause the world doesn't know us, because it didn't know him. 2 Beloved, now we are children of God. It is not yet revealed what we will be; but we know that when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him just as he is. 3 Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure. 4 Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness. 5

By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

▲ Beloved, don't believe every spirit, but test the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? 6 This is know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the every spirit who doesn't confess that Jesus Christ has Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. 7 For come in the flesh is not of God; and this is the spirit of there are three who testify: 8 the Spirit, the water, and the Antichrist, of whom you have heard that it comes. the blood; and the three agree as one. 9 If we receive Now it is in the world already. 4 You are of God, little the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for

Whoever sins hasn't seen him and doesn't know of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the him. 7 Little children, let no one lead you astray. He world hears them. 6 We are of God. He who knows God who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is listens to us. He who is not of God doesn't listen to us. righteous. 8 He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of 7 Beloved, let's love one another, for love is of God; and God was revealed: that he might destroy the works of everyone who loves has been born of God and knows the devil. 9 Whoever is born of God doesn't commit God. 8 He who doesn't love doesn't know God, for God sin, because his seed remains in him, and he can't sin, is love. 9 By this God's love was revealed in us, that because he is born of God. 10 In this the children of God God has sent his only born Son into the world that we are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever might live through him. 10 In this is love, not that we doesn't do righteousness is not of God, neither is he loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the who doesn't love his brother. 11 For this is the message atoning sacrifice for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God loved which you heard from the beginning, that we should love us in this way, we also ought to love one another. 12 No one another— 12 unlike Cain, who was of the evil one one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his God remains in us, and his love has been perfected deeds were evil, and his brother's righteous. 13 Don't in us. 13 By this we know that we remain in him and be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you. 14 We he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son we love the brothers. He who doesn't love his brother as the Savior of the world. 15 Whoever confesses that remains in death. 15 Whoever hates his brother is a Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal God. 16 We know and have believed the love which life remaining in him. (aionios g166) 16 By this we know God has for us. God is love, and he who remains in love, because he laid down his life for us. And we ought love remains in God, and God remains in him. 17 In to lay down our lives for the brothers. 17 But whoever this, love has been made perfect among us, that we has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as then closes his heart of compassion against him, how he is, even so we are in this world. 18 There is no fear does God's love remain in him? 18 My little children, in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has let's not love in word only, or with the tongue only, but in punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. deed and truth. 19 And by this we know that we are 19 We love him, because he first loved us. 20 If a man of the truth and persuade our hearts before him, 20 says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than he who doesn't love his brother whom he has seen, our heart, and knows all things. 21 Beloved, if our hearts how can he love God whom he has not seen? 21 This don't condemn us, we have boldness toward God; 22 commandment we have from him, that he who loves

5 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God. Whoever loves the Father also loves the child who is born of him. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments. 3 For this is loving God, that we keep his commandments. His commandments are not grievous. 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false your faith. 5 Who is he who overcomes the world, but this is God's testimony which he has testified concerning his Son. 10 He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who doesn't believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. 11 The testimony is this: that God gave to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. (aionios a166) 12 He who has the Son has the life. He who doesn't have God's Son doesn't have the life. 13 These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God. (aionios g166) 14 This is the boldness which we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. 15 And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him. 16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is sin leading to death. I don't say that he should make a request concerning this. 17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not leading to death. 18 We know that whoever is born of God doesn't sin, but he who was born of God keeps himself, and the evil one doesn't touch him. 19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. 20 We know that the Son of God has come and has given us an understanding, that we know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. (aionios g166) 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

2 John

1 The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not I only, but also all those who know the truth, 2 for the truth's sake, which remains in us, and it will be with us forever: (aion g165) 3 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. 4 I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the Father. 5 Now I beg you, dear lady, not as though I wrote to you a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. 6 This is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. 7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who don't confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the Antichrist. 8 Watch yourselves, that we don't lose the things which we have accomplished, but that we receive a full reward. 9 Whoever transgresses and doesn't remain in the teaching of Christ doesn't have God. He who remains in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. 10 If anyone comes to you and doesn't bring this teaching, don't receive him into your house, and don't welcome him, 11 for he who welcomes him participates in his evil deeds. 12 Having many things to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you and to speak face to face, that our joy may be made full. 13 The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amen.

3 John

1 The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth. 2 Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your soul prospers. 3 For I rejoiced greatly when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth. 4 I have no greater joy than this: to hear about my children walking in truth. 5 Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and strangers. 6 They have testified about your love before the assembly. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a way worthy of God, 7 because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles. 8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth. 9 I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't accept what we say. 10 Therefore, if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, he doesn't receive the brothers himself, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the assembly. 11 Beloved, don't imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God. He who does evil hasn't seen God. 12 Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true. 13 I had many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write to you with ink and pen; 14 but I hope to see you soon. Then we will speak face to face. Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

Jude

1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: 2 May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you. 3 Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. 4 For there are certain men who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this condemnation: ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into indecency, and denying our only Master, God, and Lord, Jesus Christ, 5 Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who didn't believe. 6 Angels who didn't keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day. (aïdios g126) 7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, having in the same way as these given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are shown as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. (aionios g166) 8 Yet in the same way, these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings. 9 But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!" 10 But these speak evil of whatever things they don't know. They are destroyed in these things that they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason. 11 Woe to them! For they went in the way of Cain, and ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in Korah's rebellion. 12 These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; 13 wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. (aion g165) 14 About these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied. saying, "Behold, the Lord came with ten thousands of his holy ones, 15 to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him." 16 These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their lusts-and their mouth speaks proud things—showing respect of persons to gain advantage. 17 But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. 18 They said to you, "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly lusts." 19 These are those who cause divisions and are sensual, not having the Spirit. 20 But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit. 21 Keep yourselves in God's love, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. (aionios g166) 22 On some have compassion, making a distinction, 23 and some save, snatching them out of the fire with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh. 24 Now to him who is able to keep them from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy, 25 to God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen. (aion g165)

Revelation

1 This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his servants the things which must happen soon, which he sent and made known by his angel to his servant, John, 2 who testified to God's word and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, about everything that he saw. 3 Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is near. 4 John, to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from God, who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne; 5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and washed us from our sins by his blood— 6 and he made us to be a Kingdom, priests to his God and Father—to him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen. (aion g165) 7 Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, including those who pierced him. All the tribes of the earth will mourn over him. Even so, Amen. 8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega," savs the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty." 9 I John, your brother and partner with you in the oppression, Kingdom, and perseverance in Christ Jesus, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of God's Word and the testimony of Jesus Christ. 10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a trumpet 11 saying, "What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea." 12 I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. Having turned, I saw seven golden lamp stands. 13 And among the lamp stands was one like a son of man, clothed with a robe reaching down to his feet, and with a golden sash around his chest. 14 His head and his hair were white as white wool, like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire. 15 His feet were like burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace. His voice was like the voice of many waters. 16 He had seven stars in his right hand. Out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining at its brightest. 17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man. He laid his right hand on me, saying, "Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last, 18 and the Living one. I was dead, and behold, I am alive forever and ever. Amen. I have the keys of Death and of Hades. (aion g165, Hades g86) 19 Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will happen hereafter. 20 The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lamp stands is this: The seven stars are the angels of the seven assemblies. The seven lamp stands are seven assemblies.

9 "To the angel of the assembly in Ephesus write: "He who holds the seven stars in his right hand, he who walks among the seven golden lamp stands says these things: 2 "I know your works, and your toil and perseverance, and that you can't tolerate evil men, and have tested those who call themselves apostles, and they are not, and found them false. 3 You have perseverance and have endured for my name's sake, and have not grown weary. 4 But I have this against you, that you left your first love. 5 Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do the first works; or else I am coming to you swiftly, and will move your lamp stand out of its place, unless you repent. 6 But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of my God. 8 "To the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write: "The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life says these things: 9 "I know your works, oppression, and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. 10 Don't be afraid of the things which you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested; and you will have oppression for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life. 11 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. He who overcomes won't be harmed by the second death. 12 "To the angel of the assembly in Pergamum write: "He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things: 13 "I know your works and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. You hold firmly to my name, and didn't deny my faith in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. 14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. 15 So also you likewise have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. 16 Repent therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth. 17 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes, to him I will give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written which no one knows but he who receives it. 18 "To the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write; "The Son are not, but lie—behold, I will make them to come and of God, who has his eyes like a flame of fire, and his worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved endurance, and that your last works are more than the come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the first. 20 But I have this against you, that you tolerate earth. 11 I am coming quickly! Hold firmly that which your woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. you have, so that no one takes your crown. 12 He who She teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my immorality and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 I God, and he will go out from there no more. I will write oppression, unless they repent of her works. 23 I will He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts. I in Laodicea write: "The Amen, the Faithful and True But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira—as things: 15 "I know your works, that you are neither cold not putting any other burden on you. 25 Nevertheless, you out of my mouth. 17 Because you say, 'I am rich, hold that which you have firmly until I come. 26 He who and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing,' and overcomes, and he who keeps my works to the end, to don't know that you are the wretched one, miserable, him I will give authority over the nations. 27 He will rule poor, blind, and naked; 18 I counsel you to buy from them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots, me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

3 "And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write: "He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars says these things: "I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. 2 Wake up and strengthen the things that remain, which you were about to throw away, for I have found no works of yours perfected before my God. 3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard. Keep it and repent. If therefore you won't watch, I will come as a thief, and you won't know what hour I will come upon that didn't defile their garments. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. 5 He who overcomes will be arrayed in white garments, and I will in no way blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. 6 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. 7 "To the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write: "He who is holy, he who is true, he feet are like burnished brass, says these things: 19 you. 10 Because you kept my command to endure, I "I know your works, your love, faith, service, patient also will keep you from the hour of testing which is to gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of on him the name of my God and the name of the city of her sexual immorality. 22 Behold, I will throw her and my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out those who commit adultery with her into a bed of great of heaven from my God, and my own new name. 13 kill her children with Death, and all the assemblies will to the assemblies. 14 "To the angel of the assembly will give to each one of you according to your deeds. 24 Witness, the Beginning of God's creation, says these many as don't have this teaching, who don't know what nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot. 16 So, because some call 'the deep things of Satan'-to you I say, I am you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit as I also have received of my Father; 28 and I will give white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that him the morning star. 29 He who has an ear, let him the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. 19 As many as I love, I reprove and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent. 20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with me. 21 He who overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne. 22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies."

▲ After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven; and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet you. 4 Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis speaking with me, was one saying, "Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this." 2 Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne 3 that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at. 4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads. who has the key of David, he who opens and no one 5 Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and can shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says these thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before things: 8 "I know your works (behold, I have set before his throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. 6 Before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar have a little power, and kept my word, and didn't deny to crystal. In the middle of the throne, and around the my name. 9 Behold, I make some of the synagogue throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and of Satan, of those who say they are Jews, and they behind. 7 The first creature was like a lion, the second

They have no rest day and night, saying, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!" 9 When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever, (aion g165) 10 the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying, (aion g165) 11 "Worthy are you, our Lord and God, the Holy One, to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed and were created!"

5 I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals. 2 I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?" 3 No one in heaven above, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book or to look in it. 4 Then I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book or to look in it. 5 One of the elders said to me, "Don't weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome: he who opens the book and its seven seals." 6 I saw in the middle of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the middle of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. 7 Then he came, and he took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne. 8 Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. 9 They sang a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the book and to open its seals, for you were killed, and bought us for God with your blood out of every tribe, language, people, and nation, 10 and made us kings and priests to our God; and we will reign on the earth." 11 I looked, and I heard something like a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders. The number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands, 12 saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!" 13 I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, "To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever! Amen!"

Then the elders fell down and worshiped.

 $\boldsymbol{6}$ I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come and see!" 2 Then a white horse appeared, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer. 3 When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!" 4 Another came out, a red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword. 5 When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saving, "Come and see!" And behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand. 6 I heard a voice in the middle of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don't damage the oil and the wine!" 7 When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, 'Come and see!" 8 And behold, a pale horse, and the name of he who sat on it was Death. Hades followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him. (Hades g86) 9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony of the Lamb which they had. 10 They cried with a loud voice, saving, "How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11 A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a while, until their fellow servants and their brothers, who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course. 12 I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood. 13 The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind. 14 The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island was moved out of its place. 15 The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. 16 They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, 17 for the great day of his wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

7 After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the

Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen." (aion g165) 13 One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in the white robes, who are they, and where did they come from?" 14 I told him, "My lord, you know." He said to me, "These are those who came out of the great suffering. They washed their robes and made them white in the Lamb's blood. 15 Therefore they are before the throne of God, and they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tabernacle over them. 16 They will never be hungry or thirsty any more. The sun won't beat on them, nor any heat: 17 for the Lamb who is in the middle of the throne shepherds them and leads them to springs of life-giving waters. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

(Abyssos g12) 3 Then out of the smoke came locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. 4 They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who don't have God's seal on their foreheads. 5 They were given power, not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a person. 6 In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. I heard the number of them. 17 Thus I saw the horses in the vision and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hvacinth blue, and sulfur vellow; and the horses' heads resembled lions' heads. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur. 18 By these three plagues, one third of mankind was killed: by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths. 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads; and with them they harm. 20 The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, didn't repent of the works of their hands, that they wouldn't worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood, which can't see, hear, or walk. 21 They didn't repent of their murders, their sorceries, their sexual immorality, or their thefts.

\] clothed with a cloud. A rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. 2 He had in his hand a little open book. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land. 3 He cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. 4 When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and don't write them." 5 The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to the sky 6 and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay, (aion g165) 7 but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he declared to his servants the prophets. 8 The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land." 9 I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little book. He said to Someone said, "Rise and measure God's temple, and the altar, and those who worship in it. 2 Leave out the court which is outside of the temple, and don't measure it, for it has been given to the nations. They will tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months. 3 I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth." 4 These are the two olive trees and the two lamp stands, standing before the Lord of the earth. 5 If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way. 6 These have the power to shut up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire. 7 When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. (Abyssos g12) 8 Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. 9 From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations, people will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. 10 Those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, and they will be glad. They will give gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth. 11 After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them. 12 I heard a loud voice from heaven saving to them. "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in a cloud, and their enemies saw them. 13 In that day there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven. 14 The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly. 15 The seventh angel sounded, and great voices in heaven followed, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ. He will reign forever and ever!" (aion g165) 16 The twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God's throne, fell on their faces and worshiped God, 17 saying: "We give you thanks, Lord God, the Almighty, the one who is and who

Behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. Her child was caught up to God and to his throne. 6 The woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days. 7 There was war in the sky. dragon and his angels made war. 8 They didn't prevail. 13 Then I stood on the sand of the sea. I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads, blasphemous names. 2 The beast which I saw 12 A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. 3 One of his heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. His fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth marveled at the beast. 4 They worshiped the dragon because he his heads seven crowns. 4 His tail drew one third of gave his authority to the beast; and they worshiped the the stars of the sky, and threw them to the earth. The beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to dragon stood before the woman who was about to give make war with him?" 5 A mouth speaking great things birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her and blasphemy was given to him. Authority to make war child. 5 She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is for forty-two months was given to him. 6 He opened his mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, his dwelling, and those who dwell in heaven. 7 It was given to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him. 8 All who dwell Michael and his angels made war on the dragon. The on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been killed. 9 If The great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, he anyone has an ear, let him hear. 10 If anyone is to go who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the into captivity, he will go into captivity. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, he must be killed. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints. 11 I saw another loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation, the beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority a lamb and it spoke like a dragon. 12 He exercises all of his Christ has come; for the accuser of our brothers the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. 13 He performs of the Lamb's blood, and because of the word of their great signs, even making fire come down out of the sky to the earth in the sight of people. 14 He deceives my own people who dwell on the earth because of the signs he was granted to do in front of the beast, saying to those who dwell on the earth that they should make an image to the beast who had the sword wound and lived. he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the 15 lt was given to him to give breath to the image of the woman who gave birth to the male child. 14 Two wings beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she and cause as many as wouldn't worship the image of might fly into the wilderness to her place, so that she the beast to be killed. 16 He causes all, the small and might be nourished for a time, times, and half a time, the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the from the face of the serpent. 15 The serpent spewed slave, to be given marks on their right hands or on their water out of his mouth after the woman like a river, that foreheads; 17 and that no one would be able to buy he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. or to sell unless he has that mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name. 18 Here is

1 1 saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him a number, one hundred fortyfour thousand, having his name and the name of his Father written on their foreheads. 21 heard a sound from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of a great thunder. The sound which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps. 3 They sing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth. 4 These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are he goes. These were redeemed by Jesus from among men, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb. 5 In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless, 6 I saw an angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal Good News to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation, tribe, language, and people. (aionios g166) 7 He said with a loud voice, "Fear the Lord, and give him glory, for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship springs of waters!" 8 Another, a second angel, followed, the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand. 10 he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. 11 The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. (aion g165) 12 Here is the perseverance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus." 13 I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, for their works follow with them." 14 I looked, and saw a white cloud, and on the cloud one sitting like a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. 15 Another angel came out of the temple. crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, "Send your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe!" 16 He who sat on the cloud thrust his sickle on the earth, and the 18 Another angel came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for the earth's grapes are fully ripe!" 19 The angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth and threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of God. 20 The wine press was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out of the wine press, up to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia.

1 L I saw another great and marvelous sign in the sky: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever them God's wrath is finished. 2 I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who overcame the beast, his image, and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. 3 They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are your works, Lord God, the Almighty! Righteous and true are your ways, you King of the nations. 4 Who wouldn't fear you, Lord, and glorify your name? him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the For you only are holy. For all the nations will come and worship before you. For your righteous acts have saying, "Babylon the great has fallen, which has made been revealed." 5 After these things I looked, and the all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven sexual immorality." 9 Another angel, a third, followed was opened. 6 The seven angels who had the seven them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships plagues came out, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their chests. 7 One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. (aion g165) 8 The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power. No one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished.

> 16 I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on the earth!" 2 The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and painful sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped his image. 3 The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea. and it became blood as of a dead man. Every living thing in the sea died. 4 The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. 5 I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, who are and who were, O Holy One, because you have judged these things. 6 For they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this." 7 I heard the

I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, 2 with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality. Those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her sexual immorality." 3 He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored beast, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. 4 The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of the sexual immorality of the earth. 5 And on her forehead a the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities. 6

When I saw her, I wondered the power over these plagues. They didn't repent and with great amazement. 7 The angel said to me, "Why give him glory. 10 The fifth poured out his bowl on the do you wonder? When he comes, he signs, which go out to the kings of the whole inhabited must continue a little while. 11 The beast that was, and earth, to gather them together for the war of that great is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; day of God the Almighty. 15 "Behold, I come like a thief. and he goes to destruction. 12 The ten horns that you Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothes, so saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as that he doesn't walk naked, and they see his shame." 16 yet, but they receive authority as kings with the beast He gathered them together into the place which is called for one hour. 13 These have one mind, and they give in Hebrew, "Harmagedon". 17 The seventh poured out their power and authority to the beast. 14 These will war his bowl into the air. A loud voice came out of the temple against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" 18 There he is Lord of lords and King of kings; and those who are were lightnings, sounds, and thunders; and there was a with him are called, chosen, and faithful." 15 He said to great earthquake such as has not happened since there me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute were men on the earth—so great an earthquake and so sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. mighty. 19 The great city was divided into three parts, 16 The ten horns which you saw, they and the beast and the cities of the nations fell. > 1 After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of the sky, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with his glory. 2 He cried with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hated bird! 3 For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury." 4 I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you don't receive of her plagues, 5 for her sins have reached to

In the cup which nations were deceived. 24 In her was found the blood of she mixed, mix to her double. 7 However much she prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain glorified herself and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, 'I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.' 8 Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire, for the Lord God who has judged her is strong. 9 The kings of the earth who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning, 10 standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.' 11 The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more: 12 merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; 13 and cinnamon, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, chariots, and people's bodies and souls. 14 The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you. All things that were dainty and sumptuous have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all. 15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, 16 saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls! 17 For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.' Every ship master, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away, 18 and cried out as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like the great city?' 19 They cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth!' For she is made desolate in one hour. 20 "Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints, apostles, and prophets, for God has judged your judgment on her." 21 A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all. 22 The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman of whatever craft will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you. 23 The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. Salvation, power, and glory belong to our God; 2 for his judgments are true and righteous. For he has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand." 3 A second said, "Hallelujah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever." (aion g165) 4 The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, "Amen! Hallelujah!" 5 A voice came from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great!" 6 I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns! 7 Let's rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let's give the glory to him. For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready." 8 It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. 9 He said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb." He said to me, "These are true words of God." 10 I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, "Look! Don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy." 11 I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness he judges and makes war. 12 His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has names written and a name written which no one knows but he himself. 13 He is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood. His name is called "The Word of God." 14 The armies which are in heaven, clothed in white, pure, fine linen, followed him on white horses. 15 Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword that with it he should strike the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod. He treads the wine press of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. 16 He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, "KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS." 17 I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, "Come! Be gathered together to the great supper of God, 18 that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of free and slave, small and great." 19 I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse and against his army. 20 The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. (Limne Pyr q3041 q4442) 21 The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came out of his mouth. So all the birds were filled with their flesh.

20 I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. (Abyssos g12) 2 He seized the dragon, the old serpent, who is the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years, 3 and cast him into the abyss, and shut it and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time. (Abyssos g12) 4 l saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God, and such as didn't worship the beast nor his image, and didn't receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. 5 The rest of the dead didn't live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 6 Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him one thousand years. 7 And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison 8 and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth. God and Magog, to gather them together to the war, whose number is as the sand of the sea. 9 They went up over the width of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven from God and devoured them. 10 The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are also. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever. (aion g165, Limne Pyr g3041 g4442) 11 I saw a great white throne and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them. 12 I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. 13 The sea gave up those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both the dead who were in it. Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to his works. (Hades g86) 14 Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. (Hades g86, Limne Pyr g3041 g4442) 15 If anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire. (Limne Pvr q3041 q4442)

> I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more. 2 I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. 3 I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with people; and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. 4 He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain any more. The first things have passed away." 5 He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." He said, "Write, for these words of God are faithful and true." 6 He said to me, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life. 7 He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his God, and he will be my son. 8 But for the cowardly, unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death." (Limne Pyr g3041 g4442) 9 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls which were loaded with the seven last plagues came, and he spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife." 10 He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, 11 having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; 12 having a great and high wall with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel. 13 On the east were three gates, and on the north three gates, and on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. 14 The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb. 15 He who spoke with me had for a measure a golden reed to measure the city, its gates, and its walls. 16 The city is square. Its length is as great as its width. He measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand twelve stadia. Its length, width, and height are equal. 17 Its wall is one hundred forty-four cubits, by the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. 18 The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass. 19 The foundations of the city's

The New Jerusalem

I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with people; and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God.

Reader's Guide

AionianBible.org/Readers-Guide

The Aionian Bible republishes public domain and Creative Common Bible texts that are 100% free to copy and print. The original translation is unaltered and notes are added to help your study. The notes show the location of eleven special Greek and Hebrew Aionian Glossary words to help us better understand God's love for individuals and for all mankind, and the nature of afterlife destinies.

Who has the authority to interpret the Bible and examine the underlying Hebrew and Greek words? That is a good question! We read in 1 John 2:27, "As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you do not need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you remain in him." Every Christian is qualified to interpret the Bible! Now that does not mean we will all agree. Each of us is still growing in our understanding of the truth. However, it does mean that there is no infallible human or tradition to answer all our questions. Instead the Holy Spirit helps each of us to know the truth and grow closer to God and each other.

The Bible is a library with 66 books in the Protestant Canon. The best way to learn God's word is to read entire books. Read the book of Genesis. Read the book of John. Read the entire Bible library. Topical studies and cross-referencing can be good. However, the safest way to understand context and meaning is to read whole Bible books. Chapter and verse numbers were added for convenience in the 16th century, but unfortunately they can cause the Bible to seem like an encyclopedia. The Aionian Bible is formatted with simple verse numbering, minimal notes, and no cross-referencing in order to encourage the reading of Bible books.

Bible reading must also begin with prayer. Any Christian is qualified to interpret the Bible with God's help. However, this freedom is also a responsibility because without the Holy Spirit we cannot interpret accurately. We read in 1 Corinthians 2:13-14, "And we speak of these things, not with words taught by human wisdom, but with those taught by the Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. Now the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned." So we cannot understand in our natural self, but we can with God's help through prayer.

The Holy Spirit is the best writer and he uses literary devices such as introductions, conclusions, paragraphs, and metaphors. He also writes various genres including historical narrative, prose, and poetry. So Bible study must spiritually discern and understand literature. Pray, read, observe, interpret, and apply. Finally, "Do your best to present yourself approved by God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, properly handling the word of truth." 2 Timothy 2:15. "God has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness; and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ," 2 Peter 1:4-8.

Glossary

The Aionian Bible un-translates and instead transliterates eleven special words to help us better understand the extent of God's love for individuals and all mankind, and the nature of afterlife destinies. The original translation is unaltered and a note is added to 64 Old Testament and 200 New Testament verses. Compare the meanings below to the Strong's Concordance and Glossary definitions.

Abyssos q12

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 9 times in 3 books, 6 chapters, and 9 verses

Meaning:

Temporary prison for special fallen angels such as Apollyon, the Beast, and Satan.

aïdios g126 Greek: adjective

Usage: 2 times in Romans 1:20 and Jude 6

Meaning:

Lasting, enduring forever, eternal.

aiōn g165 Greek: noun

Usage: 127 times in 22 books, 75 chapters, and 102 verses

Meaning:

A lifetime or time period with a beginning and end, an era, an age, the completion of which is beyond human perception, but known only to God the creator of the aions, Hebrews 1:2. Never meaning simple endless or infinite chronological time in Greek usage. Read Dr. Heleen Keizer and Ramelli and Konstan for proofs.

aiōnios g166 Greek: adjective

Usage: 71 times in 19 books, 44 chapters, and 69 verses

Meaning:

From start to finish, pertaining to the age, lifetime, entirety, complete, or even consummate. Never meaning simple endless or infinite chronological time in Koine Greek usage. Read Dr. Heleen Keizer and Ramelli and Konstan for proofs.

eleēsē g1653

Greek: verb, aorist tense, active voice, subjunctive mood, 3rd person singular

Usage: 1 time in this conjugation, Romans 11:32

Meaning:

To have pity on, to show mercy. Typically, the subjunctive mood indicates possiblity, not certainty. However, a subjunctive in a purpose clause is a resulting action as certain as the causal action. The subjunctive in a purpose clause functions as an indicative, not an optative. Thus, the grand conclusion of grace theology in Romans 11:32 must be clarified. God's mercy on all is not a possibility, but a certainty. See ntgreek.org.

Geenna g1067

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 12 times in 4 books, 7 chapters, and 12 verses

Meaning:

Valley of Hinnom, Jerusalem's trash dump, a place of ruin, destruction, and judgment in this life, or the next, though not eternal to Jesus' audience.

Hadēs q86

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 11 times in 5 books, 9 chapters, and 11 verses

Meaning:

Synonomous with Sheol, though in New Testament usage Hades is the temporal place of punishment for deceased unbelieving mankind, distinct from Paradise for deceased believers.

Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: Phrase 5 times in the New Testament

Meaning:

Lake of Fire, final punishment for those not named in the Book of Life, prepared for the Devil and his angels, Matthew 25:41.

Sheol h7585

Hebrew: proper noun, place

Usage: 66 times in 17 books, 50 chapters, and 64 verses

Meaning:

The grave or temporal afterlife world of both the righteous and unrighteous, believing and unbelieving, until the general resurrection.

Tartaroō q5020

Greek: proper noun, place Usage: 1 time in 2 Peter 2:4

Meaning:

Temporary prison for particular fallen angels awaiting final judgment.

Destiny

AionianBible.org/Destiny

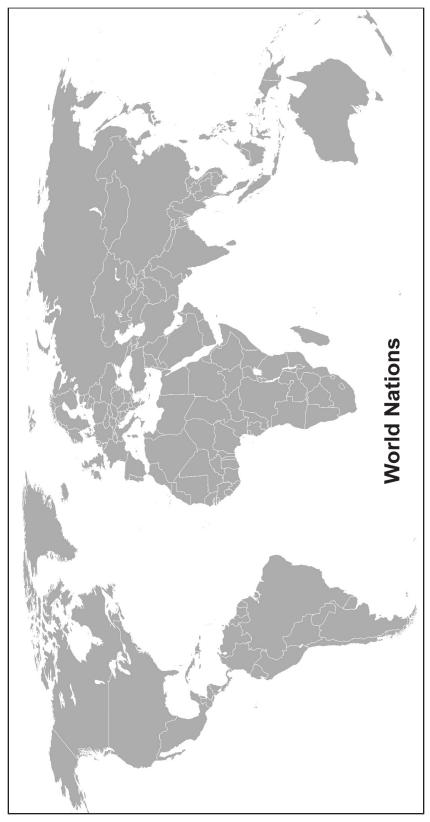

The Aionian Bible shows the location of eleven special Greek and Hebrew Aionian Glossary words to help us better understand God's love for individuals and for all mankind, and the nature of after-life destinies. The underlying Hebrew and Greek words typically translated as Hell show us that there are not just two after-life destinies, Heaven or Hell. Instead, there are a number of different locations, each with different purposes, different durations, and different inhabitants. Locations include 1) Old Testament Sheol and New Testament *Hadē*s, 2) Geenna, 3) Tartaroō, 4) Abyssos, 5) Limnē Pyr, 6) Paradise, 7) The New Heaven, and 8) The New Earth. So there is reason to review our conclusions about the destinies of redeemed mankind and fallen angels.

The key observation is that fallen angels will be present at the final judgment, 2 Peter 2:4 and Jude 6. Traditionally, we understand the separation of the Sheep and the Goats at the final judgment to divide believing from unbelieving mankind, Matthew 25:31-46 and Revelation 20:11-15. However, the presence of fallen angels alternatively suggests that Jesus is separating redeemed mankind from the fallen angels. We do know that Jesus is the helper of mankind and not the helper of the Devil, Hebrews 2. We also know that Jesus has atoned for the sins of all mankind, both believer and unbeliever alike, 1 John 2:1-2. Deceased believers are rewarded in Paradise, Luke 23:43, while unbelievers are punished in Hades as the story of Lazarus makes plain, Luke 16:19-31. Yet less commonly known, the punishment of this selfish man and all unbelievers is before the final judgment, is temporal, and is punctuated when Hades is evacuated, Revelation 20:13. So is there hope beyond Hades for unbelieving mankind? Jesus promised, "the gates of Hades will not prevail," Matthew 16:18. Paul asks, "Hades where is your victory?" 1 Corinthians 15:55. John wrote, "Hades gives up," Revelation 20:13.

Jesus comforts us saying, "Do not be afraid," because he holds the keys to unlock death and Hades, Revelation 1:18. Yet too often our Good News sounds like a warning to "be afraid" because Jesus holds the keys to lock Hades! Wow, we have it backwards! Hades will be evacuated! And to guarrantee hope, once emptied, Hades is thrown into the Lake of Fire, never needed again, Revelation 20:14.

Finally, we read that anyone whose name is not written in the Book of Life is thrown into the Lake of Fire, the second death, with no exit ever mentioned or promised, Revelation 21:1-8. So are those evacuated from Hades then, "out of the frying pan, into the fire?" Certainly, the Lake of Fire is the destiny of the Goats. But, do not be afraid. Instead, read the Bible's explicit mention of the purpose of the Lake of Fire and the identity of the Goats, "Then he will say also to those on the left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the consummate fire which is prepared for... the devil and his angels," Matthew 25:41. Bad news for the Devil. Good news for all mankind!

Faith is not a pen to write your own name in the Book of Life. Instead, faith is the glasses to see that the love of Christ for all mankind has already written our names in Heaven. Jesus said, "You did not choose me, but I chose you," John 15:16. Though unbelievers will suffer regrettable punishment in Hades, redeemed mankind will never enter the Lake of Fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. And as God promised, all mankind will worship Christ together forever, Philippians 2:9-11.

Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, - Matthew 28:19
