 men weren slayn in Susa, and the Jewis token not awei the catel of tho men. 16 But also bi alle the prouynces, that weren suget to the lordschip of the kyng, Jewis stoden for her lyues, whanne her enemyes and pursueris weren slayn, in so myche, that fyue and seuenti thousynde of slayn men `weren fillid, and no man touchide any thing of the catelis of hem. 17 Forsothe the thrittenthe dai of the monethe Adar was o dai of sleyng at alle Jewis, and in the fourtenthe dai thei ceessiden to sle; which thei ordeyneden to be solempne, that theynne in ech tyme aftirward thei schulden yyue tent to metis, to ioie, and to feestis. 18 And thei, that hauntiden sleyng in the citee of Susa, `lyueden in sleyng in the thrittenthe and fourtenthe dai of the same monethe. But in the fiftenthe dai thei ceessiden to sle; and therfor thei ordeyneden the same dai solempne of feestis and of gladnesse. 19 Forsothe these Jewis, that dwelliden in borow townes not wallid and vilagis, demeden the fourtenthe dai of the monethe Adar of feestis, and of ioie, so that thei be ioiful theynne, and sende ech to other partis of feestis and of metis.
20 Therfor Mardochee wroot alle these thingis, and sente these thingis comprehendid bi lettris to the Jewis, that dwelliden in alle prouynces of the kyng, as wel to Jewis set nyy as fer, 21 that thei schulden resseyue the fourtenthe and the fiftenthe dai of the monethe Adar `for feestis, and euer whanne the yeer turneth ayen, `thei schulden halowe with solempne onour; 22 for in tho daies the Jewis vengiden hem silf of her enemyes, and morenyng and sorewe weren turned in to gladnesse and ioie; and these daies schulden be daies of feestis, and of gladnesse, and `that thei schulden sende ech to other partis of metis, and `yyue litle yiftis to pore men. 23 Forsothe the Jewis resseyueden in to solempne custom alle thingis, whiche thei bigunnen to do in that tyme, and whiche thingis Mardochee hadde comaundid bi lettris to be doon. 24 Sotheli Aaman, the sone of Amadathi, of the kynrede of Agag, the enemy and aduersarie of Jewis, thouyte yuel ayens hem, to sle hem and to do awei, and he sente phur, which is interpretid in oure langage `in to lot. 25 And afterward Hester entride to the kyng, and bisouyte, that `hise enforsyngis schulden be maad voide bi the lettris of the kyng, and that the yuel, which he hadde thouyt ayenus the Jewis, schulde turne ayen in to his heed. `Forsothe thei hangiden on the cros `bothe hym and hise sones. 26 And fro that tyme these daies weren clepid `Phurym, that is, of lottis, for `phur, that is, lot, was sent in to a vessel; and the Jewis resseyueden on hem silf, and on her seed, and on alle men that wolden be couplid to her religioun, alle thingis that weren doon, and ben conteyned in the volym of the pistle, `that is, of this book, 27 and whiche thingis thei suffriden, and whiche thingis weren chaungid aftirward, that it be not leueful to ony man to passe with out solempnyte these `daies, which the scripture witnessith, and certeyn tymes axen, while the yeeris comen contynuely oon aftir an other.

 28 These ben the daies, whiche neuer ony foryetyng schal do awei, and bi alle generaciouns alle prouynces, that ben in al the world, schulen halewe; nether `ony citee is, in which the daies of Phurym, that is, of lottis, schulen not be kept of Jewis, and of the generacioun of hem, which is bounden to these cerymonyes. 29 And Hester, the queen, the douyter of Abiahel, and Mardochee, the Jew, writiden also the secounde pistle, that this solempne dai schulde be halewid aftirward with al bisynesse. 30 And thei senten to tho Jewis, that dwelliden in an hundrid and seuene and twenti prouynces of kyng Assuerus, that thei schulden haue pees, and resseyue the trewthe, 31 and kepe the daies of lottis, and halewe with ioie in her tyme, as Mardochee and Hester hadden ordeyned; and thei resseiueden the fastyngis, and the cries, and the daies of lottis, to be kept of hem silf and of her seed, 32 and `that thei schulden resseyue among hooli bookis alle thingis that ben conteyned in the storie of this book, which is clepid Hester.

10 Forsothe kyng Assuerus made tributarye ech lond, and alle the ilis of the see; 2 whos strengthe and empire and dignyte and hiynesse, by which he enhaunside Mardochee, ben writun in the bookis of Medeis and of Persis; 3 and how Mardochee of the kyn of Jewis was the secounde fro king Assuerus, and was greet anentis Jewis, and acceptable to the puple of hise britheren, and he souyte goodis to his puple, and spak tho thingis, that perteyneden to the pees of his seed.

Job

1 `A man, Joob bi name, was in the lond of Hus; and thilke man was symple, and riytful, and dredynge God, and goynge away fro yuel. 2 And seuene sones and thre douytris weren borun to hym; 3 and his possessioun was seuene thousynde of scheep, and thre thousynde of camels, and fyue hundrid yockis of oxis, and fyue hundrid of femal assis, and ful myche meynee; and `thilke man was grete among alle men of the eest. 4 And hise sones yeden, and maden feestis bi housis, ech man in his day; and thei senten, and clepiden her thre sistris, `that thei schulden ete, and drynke wiyne with hem. 5 And whanne the daies of feeste hadden passid in to the world, Joob sente to hem, and halewide hem, and he roos eerli, and offride brent sacrifices `bi alle. For he seide, Lest perauenture my sones do synne, and curse God in her hertis. Joob dide so in alle daies. 6 Forsothe in sum day, whanne the sones of God `weren comun to be present bifor the Lord, also Sathan cam among hem. 7 To whom the Lord seide, Fro whennus comest thou? Which answeride, and seide, Y haue cumpassid the erthe, and Y haue walkid thorouy it. 8 And the Lord seide to hym, Whether thou hast biholde my seruaunt Joob, that noon in erthe is lyik hym; he is a symple man, and riytful, and dredynge God, and goynge awei fro yuel? 9 To whom Sathan answeride, Whether Joob dredith God veynli? 10 Whethir thou hast not cumpassid hym, and his hows, and al his catel bi cumpas? Thou hast blessid the werkis of hise hondis, and hise possessioun encreesside in erthe. 11 But stretche forth thin hond a litil, and touche thou alle thingis whiche he hath in possessioun; if he cursith not thee `in the face, `bileue not to me. 12 Therfor the Lord seide to Sathan, Lo! alle thingis, whiche he hath, ben in thin hond; oneli stretche thou not forth thin hond in to hym. And Sathan yede out fro the face of the Lord. 13 Sotheli whanne in sum dai `hise sones and douytris eeten, and drunken wiyn in the hows of her firste gendrid brothir, 14 a messenger cam to Job, `whiche messenger seide, Oxis eriden, and femal assis `weren lesewid bisidis tho; 15 and Sabeis felden yn, and token away alle thingis, and `smytiden the children with swerd; and Y aloone ascapide for to telle to thee. 16 And whanne he spak yit, anothir cam, and seide, Fier of God cam doun fro heuene, and wastide scheep, and `children touchid; and Y aloone ascapide for to telle `to thee. 17 But yit the while he spak, also anothir cam, and seide, Caldeis maden thre cumpenyes, and assailiden the camels, and token tho awei, and thei smytiden `also the children with swerd; and Y aloone ascapide to telle to thee. 18 And yit he spak, and, lo! anothir entride, and seide, While thi sones and douytris eeten, and drunken wiyn in the hows of her firste gendrid brothir, 19 a greet wynde felde yn sudenli fro the coost of desert, and schook foure corneris of the hows, `which felde doun, and oppresside thi children, and thei ben deed; and Y aloone fledde to telle to thee. 20 Thanne Joob roos, and to-rente hise clothis, and `with pollid heed he felde doun on the erthe, and worschipide God, 21 and seide, Y yede nakid out of the wombe of my modir, Y schal turne ayen nakid thidur; the Lord yaf, the Lord took awei; as it pleside the Lord, so `it is doon; the name of the Lord be blessid. 22 In alle these thingis Joob synnede not in hise lippis, nether spak ony fonned thing ayens God.

2 Forsothe it was doon, whanne in sum dai the sones of God `weren comun, and stoden bifer the Lord, and Sathan `was comun among hem, and stood in his siyt, 2 that the Lord seide to Sathan, Fro whennus comest thou? Which answeride, and seide, Y haue cumpassid the erthe, `and Y haue go thury it. 3 And the Lord seide to Sathan, Whethir thou hast biholde my seruaunt Joob, that noon in erthe is lijk hym; he is a symple man, and riytful, and dredynge God, and goynge awei fro yuel, and yit holdynge innocence? `But thou hast moued me ayens him, that `Y schulde turmente hym in veyn. 4 To whom Sathan answeride, and seide, `A man schal yyue skyn for skyn, and alle thingis that he hath for his lijf; 5 `ellis sende thin hond, and touche his boon and fleisch, and thanne thou schalt se, that he schal curse thee in the face. 6 Therfor the Lord seide to Sathan, Lo! he is in `thin hond; netheles kepe thou his lijf. 7 Therfor Sathan yede out fro the face of the Lord, and smoot Joob with `a ful wickid botche fro the sole of the foot `til to his top; 8 which Joob schauyde the quytere with a schelle, `and sat in the dunghil. 9 Forsothe his wijf seide to hym, Dwellist thou yit in thi sympleness? Curse thou God, and die. 10 And Joob seide, Thou hast spoke as oon of the fonned wymmen; if we han take goodis of the hond of the Lord, whi forsothe suffren we not yuels? In alle these thingis Joob synnede not in hise lippis. 11 Therfor thre frendis of Joob herden al the yuel, that hadde bifelde to hym, and camen ech man fro his place, Eliphath Temanytes, and Baldach Suythes, and Sophar Naamathites; for thei `hadden seide togidere to hem silf, that thei wolden come togidere, and visite hym, and coumforte. 12 And whanne thei hadden reisid afer `her iyen, thei knewen not hym; and thei crieden, and wepten, and to-renten her clothis, and spreyn ten dust on her heed `in to heuene. 13 And thei saten with hym in the erthe seuene daies and seuene nytis, and no man spak a word to hym; for thei sien, that his sorewe was greet.

3 Aftir these thingis Joob openyde his mouth, 2 and curside his dai, and seide, Perische the dai in which Y was borun, 3 and the nytyt in which it was seid, The man is conceyued. 4 Thilke dai be turnede in to derknessis; God seke not it aboue, and be it not in mynde, nethir be it liytnd with liyt. 5 Derknessis make it derk, and the schadewe of deeth and myist occupie it; and be it wlappid with bittirnesse. 6 Derk whirlwynde holde that nytyt; be it not rikynynd among the daies of the yeer, nethir be it noumbred among the monethes. 7 Thilke nytyt be soleyn, and not worthi of preisyng. 8 Curse thei it, that cursen the dai, that ben redi to reise Leuyathan. 9 Sterris be maad derk with the derknesse therof; abide it liyt, and se it not, nethir the bigynnyng of the morwetid risyng vp. 10 For it closide not the doris of the wombe, that bar me, nethir took awei yuels fro min iyen. 11 Whi was not Y deed in the wombe? whi yede Y out of the wombe, and perischide not anoon? 12 Whi was Y takun on knees? whi was Y suclid with teetis? 13 For now Y slepynge schulde be stille, and schulde reste in my sleep, 14 with kyngis, and consuls of erthe, that biden to hem soleyn places; 15 ethir with prynces that han gold in possessioun, and fillen her housis with siluer; 16 ethir as a `thing hid not borun Y schulde not stonde, ethir whiche conseyued sien not liyt. 17 There wickid men ceessiden of noise, and there men maad wery of strengthe restiden. 18 And sum tyme boundun togidere with out disese thei herden not the voys of the wrongful axere. 19 A litil man and greet man be there, and a seruaunt free fro his lord. 20 Whi is liyt youun to the wretche, and lijf to hem that ben in bitternesse of soule? 21 Whiche abiden deeth, and it cometh not; 22 as men diggyng out tresour and ioien greetly, whanne thei han founde a sepulcre? 23 Whi is liyt youun to a man, whos weie is hid, and God hath cumpassid hym with derknessis? 24 Bifore that Y ete, Y siyhe; and as of watir flowynge, so is my roryng. 25 For the drede, which Y dredde, cam to me; and that, that Y schamede, bifelde. 26 Whether Y dissymilide not? whether Y was not stille? whether Y restide not? and indignacioun cometh on me.

4 Forsothe Eliphat Themanytes answeride, and seide, 2 If we bigynnen to speke to thee, in hap thou schalt take it heuylly; but who may holde a word conseyued? 3 Lo! thou hast tauyt ful many men, and thou hast strengthid hondis maad feynt. 4 Thi wordis confermyden men doutynge, and thou coumfortidist knees tremblynge. 5 But now a wounde is comun on thee, and thou hast failid; it touchide thee, and thou art disturblid. 6 Where is thi drede, thi strengthe, and thi pacience, and the perfeccioun of thi weies? 7 Y biseche thee, haue thou mynde, what innocent man perischide euere, ethir whanne riytful men weren doon awei? 8 Certis rathir Y siy hem, that worchen wickidnesse, and sowen sorewis, 9 and repen tho, to haue perischid bi God blowynge, and to be wastid bi the spirit of his ire. 10 The roryng of a lioun, and the vois of a lionesse, and the teeth of `whelpis of liouns ben al to-brokun. 11 Tigris perischide, for sche hadde not prey; and the whelpis of a lioun ben distried. 12 Certis an hid word was seid to me, and myn eere took as theueli the veynes of priuy noise therof. 13 In the hidousnesse of `nyytis siyt, whanne heuy sleep is wont to occupie men, 14 drede and tremblyng helde me; and alle my boonys weren aferd. 15 And whanne the spirit `yede in my presence, the heiris of `my fleisch hadden hidousnesse. 16 Oon stood, whos chere Y knewe not, an ymage bifor myn iyen; and Y herde a vois as of softe wynd. 17 Whether a man schal be maad iust in comparisoun of God? ethir whethir a man schal be clenner than his Makere? 18 Lo! thei that seruen hym ben not stidefast; and he findith schrewidnesse in hise aungels. 19 Hou myche more thei that dwellen in housis of clay, that han an ertheli foundement, schulen be wastyd as of a mouyte. 20 Fro morewtid til to euentid thei schulen be kit doun; and for no man vndurstondith, thei schulen perische with outhen ende. 21 Sotheli thei, that ben residue, schulen be takun awei; thei schulen die, and not in wisdom.

5 Therfor clepe thou, if `ony is that schal answere thee, and turne thou to summe of seyntis. 2 Wrathfulnesse sleeth `a forned man, and enuye sleeth a litil child. 3 Y siy a fool with stidefast rote, and Y curside his feirnesse anon. 4 Hise sones schulen be maad fer fro helthe, and thei schulen be defouled in the yate, and `noon schal be that schal delyuere hem. 5 Whos ripe corn an hungry man schal ete, and an armed man schal rauysche hym, and thei, that thirsten, schulen drynke hise richessis. 6 No thing is doon in erthe with out cause, and sorewe schal not go out of the erthe. 7 A man is borun to labour, and a brid to fliyt. 8 Wherfor Y schal biseche the Lord, and Y schal sette my speche to my God. 9 That makith grete thingis, and that moun not be souyt out, and wondrous thingis with out noumbre. 10 Which yueth reyn on the face of erthe, and moistith alle thingis with watris. 11 Which settith meke men an hiy, and reisith with helthe hem that morenen. 12 Which distrieth the thouytis of yuel willid men, that her hondis moun not fille tho thingis that thei bigunnen. 13 Which takith cautelouse men in the felnesse `of hem, and distrieth the counsel of schrewis. 14 Bi dai thei schulen renne in to derknessis, and as in nyyt so thei schulen grope in myddai. 15 Certis God schal make saaf a nedi man fro the swerd of her mouth, and a pore man fro the hond of the violent, `ethir rauynour. 16 And hope schal be to a nedi man, but wickidnesse schal drawe togidere his mouth. 17 Blessid is the man, which is chastisid of the Lord; therfor repreue thou not the blamyng of the Lord. 18 For he woundith, and doith medicyn; he smytith, and hise hondis schulen make hool. 19 In sixe tribulaciouns he schal delyuere thee, and in the seuenthe tribulacioun yuel schal not touche thee. 20 In hungur he schal delyuere thee fro deeth, and in batel fro the power of swerd. 21 Thou schalt be hid fro the scourge of tunge, and thou schalt not drede myseiste, `ethir wretchidnesse, whanne it cometh. 22 In distriyng maad of enemyes and in hungur thou schalt leiye, and thou schalt not drede the beestis of erthe. 23 But thi couenaunt schal be with the stonys of erthe, and beestis of erthe schulen be pesible to thee. 24 And thou schalt wite, that thi tabernacle hath pees, and thou visitynge thi fairnesse schalt not do synne. 25 And thou schalt wite also, that thi seed schal be many fold, and thi generacioun schal be as an erbe of erthe. 26 In abundaunce thou schalt go in to the sepulcre, as an heap of wheete is borun in his tyme. 27 Lo! this is so, as we han souyt; which thing herd, trete thou in minde.

6 Forsothe Joob answeride, and seide, 2 Y wolde, that my synnes, bi whiche Y `desseruede ire, and the wretchidnesse which Y suffre, weren peisid in a balaunce. 3 As the grauel of the see, this wretchidnesse schulde appere greuouse; wherfor and my wordis ben ful of sorewe. 4 For the arowis of the Lord ben in me, the indignacioun of whiche drynkith vp my spirit; and the dredis of the Lord fytten ayens me. 5 Whether a feeld asse schal rore, whanne he hath gras? Ethir whether an oxe schal lowe, whanne he stondith byfor a `ful cratche? 6 Ether whethir a thing vnsauery may be etun, which is not maad sauery bi salt? Ether whether ony man may taaste a thing, which tastid bryngith deeth? 7 For whi to an hungri soule, yhe, bittir thingis semen to be swete; tho thingis whiche my soule nolde touche bifore, ben now my meetis for angwisch. 8 Who yyueth, that myn axyng come; and that God yyue to me that, that Y abide? 9 And he that bigan, al to-breke me; releesse he his hond, and kitte me doun? 10 And `this be coumfort to me, that he turmente me with sorewe, and spare not, and that Y ayenseie not the wordis of the hooli. 11 For whi, what is my strengthe, that Y suffre? ethir which is myn ende, that Y do pacientli? 12 Nethir my strengthe is the strengthe of stoonus, nether my fleisch is of bras. 13 Lo! noon help is to me in me; also my meyneal frendis `yeden away fro me. 14 He that takith awei merci fro his frend, forsakith the drede of the Lord. 15 My britheren passiden me, as a stronde doith, that passith ruschyngli in grete valeis. 16 Snow schal come on hem, that dreden frost. 17 In the tyme wherynne thei ben scaterid, thei schulen perische; and as thei ben hoote, thei schulen be vnknyt fro her place. 18 The pathis of her steppis ben wlappid; thei schulen go in veyn, and schulen perische. 19 Biholde ye the pathis of Theman, and the weies of Saba; and abide ye a lital. 20 Thei ben schent, for Y hopide; and thei camen `til to me, and thei ben hilid with schame. 21 Now ye ben comun, and now ye seen my wounde, and dreden. 22 Whether Y seide, Brynge ye to me, and yiue ye of youre catel to me? ethir, 23

Delyuere ye me fro the hond of enemy, and rauysche ye me fro the hond of stronge men? 24 Teche ye me, and Y schal be stille; and if in hap Y vnknew ony thing, teche ye me. 25 Whi han ye depraued the wordis of trewth? sithen noon is of you, that may repreue me. 26 Ye maken redi spechis oneli for to blame, and ye bryngen forth wordis in to wynde. 27 Ye fallen in on a fadirles child, and enforse to peruerte youre frend. 28 Netheles fille ye that, that ye han bigunne; yyue ye the eere, and se ye, whether Y lie. 29 Y biseche, answere ye with out strijf, and speke ye, and deme ye that, that is iust. 30 And ye schulen not fynde wickidnesse in my tunge, nethir foli schal sowne in my chekis.

7 Knuythod is lijf of man on erthe, and his daies ben as the daies of an hired man. 2 As an hert desireth schadowe, and as an hirede man abideth the ende of his werk; 3 so and Y hadde voide monethis, and Y noumbrede trauailous niytes to me. 4 If Y schal slepe, Y schal seie, Whanne schal Y rise? and eft Y schal abide the euentid, and Y schal be fillid with sorewis `til to derknessis. 5 Mi fleisch is clothid with rot, and filthis of dust; my skyn driede vp, and is drawun togidere. 6 My daies passiden swiftliere thanne a web is kit down `of a webstere; and tho daies ben wastid with outen ony hope. 7 God, haue thou mynde, for my lijf is wynde, and myn iye schal not turne ayen, that it se goodis. 8 Nethir the siyt of man schal biholde me; but thin iyen ben in me, and Y schal not `be in deedli lijf. 9 As a cloude is wastid, and passith, so he that goith down to helle, schal not stie; (Sheol h7585) 10 nether schal turne ayen more in to his hows, and his place schal no more knowe hym. 11 Wherfor and Y schal not spare my mouth; Y schal speke in the tribulacioun of my spirit, Y schal talke togidere with the bitternesse of my soule. 12 Whether Y am the see, ethir a whal, for thou hast cumpassid me with prisoun? 13 If Y seie, My bed schal coumfort me, and Y schal be releeyd, spekyng with me in my bed; 14 thou schalt make me aferd bi dremys, and thou schalt schake me with `orrour, ethir hidousnesse, `bi siytis. 15 Wherfor my soule `chees hangyng, and my boonys cheesiden deth. 16 `Y dispeiride, now Y schal no more lyue; Lord, spare thou me, for my daies ben nouyt. 17 What is a man, for thou `magnifiest hym? ether what settist thou thin herte toward hym? 18 Thou visitist hym eerly, and sudeynli thou preuest hym. 19 Hou long sparist thou not me, nether suffrist me, that Y swolowe my spotele? 20 Y haue synned; A! thou kepere of men, what schal Y do to thee? Whi hast thou set me contrarie to thee, and Y am maad greuouse to my silf? 21 Whi doist thou not awei my sinne, and whi takist thou not awei my wickidnesse? Lo! now Y schal slepe in dust, and if thou sekist me eerli, Y schal not abide.

8 Sotheli Baldath Suytes answeride, and seide, 2 Hou longe schalt thou speke siche thingis? The spirit of the word of thi mouth is manyfold. 3 Whether God supplauntith, `ethir disseyueth, doom, and whether Almyti God distrieth that, that is iust? 4 Yhe, thouy thi sones synneden ayens hym, and he lefte hem in the hond of her wickidnesse; 5 netheles, if thou risist eerli to God, and bisechist `Almyti God, if thou goist clene and riytful, 6 anoon he schal wake fulli to thee, and schal make pesible the dwellyng place of thi ryytfulnesse; 7 in so miche that thi formere thingis weren litil, and that thi laste thingis be multiplied greetli. 8 For whi, axe thou the formere generacioun, and seke thou diligentli the mynde of fadris. 9 For we ben men of yistirdai, and

9 Joob answeride, and seide, Verili Y woot, that it is so, 2 and that a man comparisound to God schal not be maad iust. 3 If he wole stryue with God, he may not answere to God oon for a thousynde. 4 He is wiys in herte, and strong in myyt; who ayenstood hym, and hadde pees? 5 Which bar hillis fro o place to anothis, and thei wisten not; whiche he distriede in his strong veniaunce. 6 Which stirith the erthe fro his place, and the pilers therof schulen `be schakun togidere. 7 Which comaundith to the sunne, and it risith not; and he closith the sterres, as vndur a signet. 8 Which aloone stretchith forth heuenes, and goith on the wawis of the see. 9 Which makith Ariture, and Orionas, and Hiadas, `that is, seuene sterres, and the innere thingis of the south. 10 Which makith grete thingis, and that moun not be souyt out, and wondrous thingis, of whiche is noon noumbre. 11

 If he cometh to me, `that is, bi his grace, Y schal not se hym; if he goith away, `that is, in withdrawynge his grace, Y schal not vndurstonde. 12 If he axith sodeynli, who schal answere to hym? ethir who may seie to hym, Whi doist thou so? 13 `God is he, whos wraththe no man may withstonde; and vndur whom thei ben bowid, that beren the world. 14 Hou greet am Y, that Y answere to hym, and speke bi my wordis with hym? 15 Which also schal not answere, thouy Y haue ony thing iust; but Y schal biseche my iuge. 16 And whanne he hath herd me inwardli clepyng, Y bileue not, that he hath herd my vois.
17 For in a whirlewynd he schal al to-breke me, and he schal multiplie my woundis, yhe, without cause. 18 He grauntith not, that my spirit haue reste, and he fillith me with bittirnesses. 19 If strengthe is souyt, `he is moost strong; if equitye of doom is souyt, no man dar yelde witnessynge for me. 20 If Y wole make me iust, my mouth schal dampne me; if Y schal schewe me innocent, he schal preue me a schrewe. 21 Yhe, thouy Y am symple, my soule schal not knowe this same thing; and it schal anoye me of my lijf. 22 O thing is, which Y spak, he schal waste `bi deth also the innocent and wickid man. 23 If he betith, sle he onys, and leiye he not of the peynes of innocent men.
24 The erthe is youun in to the hondis of the wickid; he hilith the face of iugis; that if he is not, who therfor is? 25 Mi daies weren swiftere than a corour; thei fledden, and sien not good. 26 Thei passiden as schippis berynge applis, as an egle fleyng to mete. 27 Whanne Y seie, Y schal not speke so; Y chaunge my face, and Y am turmentid with sorewe. 28 Y drede alle my werkis, witynge that thou `woldist not spare the trespassour. 29 Sotheli if Y am also thus wickid, whi haue Y trauelid in veyn? 30 Thouy Y am waischun as with watris of snow, and thouy myn hondis schynen as moost cleene, 31 nethes thou schalt dippe me in filthis, and my clothis, `that is, werkis, schulen holde me abhomynable. 32 Trewli Y schal not answere a man, which is lijk me; nether that may be herd euenli with me in doom. 33 `Noon is, that may repreue euer eithir, and sette his hond in bothe. 34 Do he awei his yerde fro me, and his drede make not me aferd.

 35 Y schal speke, and Y schal not drede hym; for Y may not answere dredynge.

10 Yt anoieth my soule of my lijf; Y schal lete my speche ayens me, Y schal speke in the bitternesse of my soule. 2 Y schal seie to God, Nyle thou condempne me; schewe thou to me, whi thou demest me so. 3 Whether it semeth good to thee, if thou `falsli chalengist and oppressist me, the werk of thin hondis; and if thou helpist the counsel of wickid men? 4 Whethir fleischli iyen ben to thee, ethir, as a man seeth, also thou schalt se? 5 Whether thi daies ben as the daies of man, and `thi yeeris ben as mannus tymes; 6 that thou enquire my wickidnesse, and enserche my synne? 7 And wite, that Y haue do no `wickid thing; sithen no man is, that may delyuere fro thin hond? 8 Thin hondis han maad me, and han formed me al in cumpas; and thou castist me doun so sodeynli. 9 Y preye, haue thou mynde, that thou madist me as cley, and schalt brynge me ayen in to dust. 10 Whether thou hast not mylkid me as mylk, and hast cruddid me togidere as cheese? 11 Thou clothidist me with skyn and fleisch; thou hast ioyned me togidere with boonys and senewis. 12 Thou hast youe lijf and mercy to me, and thi visiting hath kept my spirit. 13 Thouy thou helist these thingis in thin herte, netheles Y woot, that thou hast mynde of alle thingis. 14 If Y dide synne, and thou sparidist me at an our; whi suffrist thou not me to be cleene of my wickidnesse? 15 And if Y was wickid, wo is to me; and if Y was iust, Y fillid with turment and wretchidnesse `schal not reise the heed. 16 And if Y reise `the heed for pride, thou schalt take me as a lionesse; and thou turnest ayen, and turmentist me wondirli. 17 Thou gaderist in store thi witnessis ayens me, and thou multipliest thin yre, `that is, veniaunce, ayens me; and peynes holden knyythod in me. 18 Whi hast thou led me out of the wombe? `And Y wolde, that Y were wastid, lest an iye `schulde se me. 19 That Y hadde be, as if Y were not, and `were translatid, ethir borun ouer, fro the wombe to the sepulcre. 20 Whether the fewnesse of my daies schal not be endid in schort? Therfor suffre thou me, that Y biweile `a litil my sorewe, 21 bifer that Y go, and turne not ayen, to the derk lond, and hilid with the derknesse of deth, to the lond of wrecchidnesse and of derknessis; 22 where is schadewe of deeth, and noon ordre, but euerlastynge hidousnesse dwellith.

11 Forsothe Sophar Naamathites answeride, and seide, 2 Whether he, that spekith many thingis, schal not also here? ether whethir a man ful of wordis schal be maad iust? 3 Schulen men be stille to thee aloone? whanne thou hast scorned othere men, schalt thou not be ouercomun of ony man? 4 For thou seidist, My word is cleene, and Y am cleene in thi siyt. 5 And

`Y wolde, that God spak with thee, and openyde hise lippis to thee; 6 to schewe to thee the priuetees of wisdom, and that his lawe is manyfold, and thou schuldist vndurstonde, that thou art requirid of hym to paie myche lesse thingis, than thi wickidnesse disserueth. 7 In hap thou schalt comprehende the steppis of God, and thou schalt fynde Almyyti God `til to perfeccioun. 8 He is hiyere than heuene, and what schalt thou do? he is deppere than helle, and wherof schalt thou knowe? (Sheol h7585) 9 His mesure is lengere than erthe, and brodere than the see. 10 If he distrieth alle thingis, ethir dryueth streitli `in to oon, who schal ayenseie hym? Ethir who may seie to hym, Whi doest thou so? 11 For he knowith the vanyte of men; and whether he seyng byholdith not wickidnesse? 12 A veyn man is reysid in to pride; and gessith hym silf borun fre, as the colt of a wilde asse. 13 But thou hast maad stidefast thin herte, and hast spred abroad thin hondis to hym. 14 If thou doest awei `fro thee the wickidnesse, which is in thin hond, and vnriytfulnesse dwellith not in thi tabernacle, 15 thanne thou schalt mowe reise thi face with out wem, and thou schalt be stidefast, and thou schalt not drede. 16 And thou schalt foryete wretchidnesse, and thou schalt not thenke of it, as of watris that han passid. 17 And as myddai schynynge it schal reise to thee at euentid; and whanne thou gessist thee wastid, thou schalt rise vp as the dai sterre. 18 And thou schalt haue trist, while hope schal be set forth to thee; and thou biried schalt slepe sikurli. 19 Thou schalt reste, and `noon schal be that schal make thee aferd; and ful many men schulen biseche thi face. 20 But the iyen of wickid men schulen faile; and socour schal perische fro hem, and the hope of hem schal be abhominacyioun of soule.

12 Sotheli Joob answeride, and seide, 2 Therfor ben ye men aloone, that wisdom dwelle with you? 3 And to me is an herte, as and to you, and Y am not lowere than ye; for who knowith not these thingis, whiche ye knowen? 4 He that is scorned of his frend, as Y am, schal inwardli clepe God, and God schal here hym; for the symplenesse of a iust man is scorned. 5 A laumpe is dispisid at the thouytis of riche men, and the laumpe is maad redi to a tyme ordeyned. 6 The tabernaclis of robberis ben plenteuouse, `ether ful of goodis; and boldli thei terren God to wraththe, whanne he hath youe alle thingis in to her hondis. 7 No wondur, ax thou beestis, and tho schulen teche thee; and axe thou volatilis of the eir, and tho schulen schewe to thee. 8 Speke thou to the erthe, and it schal answer thee; and the fischis of the see schulen telle tho thingis. 9 Who knowith not that the hond of the Lord made alle these thingis? 10 In whos hond the soule is of ech lyuyng thing, and the spirit, `that is, resonable soule, of ech fleisch of man. 11 Whether the eere demeth not wordis, and the chekis of the etere demen sauour? 12 Wisdom is in elde men, and prudence is in myche tyme. 13 Wisdom and strengthe is at God; he hath counsel and vndurstondyng. 14 If he distrieth, no man is that bildith; if he schittith in a man, `noon is that openith. 15 If he holdith togidere watris, alle thingis schulen be maad drie; if he sendith out tho watris, tho schulen distrie the erthe. 16 Strengthe and wisdom is at God; he knowith bothe hym that disseyueth and hym that is disseyued. 17 And he bryngith counselours in to a fonned eende, and iugis in to wondryng, ethir astonyng. 18 He vnbindith the girdil of kyngis, and girdith her reynes with a coorde. 19 He ledith her prestis with out glorie, and he disseyueth the principal men, `ethir counselours; 20 and he chaungith the lippis of sothefast men, and takith awei the doctrine of elde men. 21 He schedith out dispisyng on princes, and releeueth hem, that weren oppressid. 22 Which schewith depe thingis fro derknessis; and bryngith forth in to liyt the schadewe of deeth. 23 Which multiplieth folkis, and leesith hem, and restorith hem destried in to the hool. 24 Which chaungith the herte of princes of the puple of erthe; and disseyueth hem, that thei go in veyn out of the weie. 25 Thei schulen grope, as in derknessis, and not in liyt; and he schal make hem to erre as drunken men.

13 Lo! myn iye siy alle thingis, and myn eere herde; and Y vndurstood alle thingis. 2 Euene with youre kunnyng also Y kan, and Y am not lowere than ye. 3 But netheles Y schal speke to Almyyti God, and Y coueite to dispute with God; 4 and firste Y schewe you makeris of leesyng, and louyeris of weyward techyngis. 5 And `Y wolde that ye weren stille, that ye weren gessid to be wise men. 6 Therfor here ye my chastisyngis; and perseyue ye the doom of my lippis. 7 Whether God hath nede to youre leesyng, that ye speke gilis for hym? 8 Whether ye taken his face, and enforsen to deme for God? 9 Ethir it schal plese hym, fro whom no thing mai be hid? Whether he as a man schal be disseyued with youre falsnessis? 10 He schal repreue you; for ye taken his face in hiddlis. 11 Anoon as he schal stire hym, he schal disturble you; and his drede schal falle on you. 12 Your mynde schal be comparisound to aische; and youre nollis schulen be dryuun in to clei. 13 Be ye stille a litil, that Y speke, what euer thing the mynde hath schewid to me. 14 Whi to-rende Y my fleischis with my teeth, and bere my lijf in myn hondis? 15 Yhe, thouy God sleeth me, Y schal hope in hym; netheles Y schal preue my weies in his siyt. 16 And he schal be my sauour; for whi ech ypocrite schal not come in his siyt. 17 Here ye my word, and perseyue ye with eeris derke and harde figuratif spechis. 18 Yf Y schal be demed, Y woot that Y schal be foundun iust. 19 Who is he that is demed with me? Come he; whi am Y stille, and am wastid? 20 Do thou not to me twei thingis oneli; and thanne Y schal not be hid fro thi face. 21 Make thin hond fer fro me; and thi drede make not me aferd. 22 Clepe thou me, and Y schal answere thee; ethir certis Y schal speke, and thou schalt answere me. 23 Hou grete synnes and wickidnessis haue Y? Schewe thou to me my felonyes, and trespassis. 24 Whi hidist thou thi face, and demest me thin enemy? 25 Thou schewist thi myyt ayens a leef, which is rauyschid with the wynd; and thou pursuest drye stobil. 26 For thou writist bitternessis ayens me; and wolt waste me with the synnes of my yong wexynge age. 27 Thou hast set my foot in a stok, and thou hast kept alle my pathis; and thou hast biholde the steppis of my feet. 28 And Y schal be wastid as rot, and as a cloth, which is etun of a mouyte.

14 A man is borun of a womman, and lyueth schort tyme, and is fillid with many wretchidnessis. 2 Which goith out, and is defoulid as a flour; and fleeth as schadewe, and dwellith neuere perfilti in the same staat. 3 And gessist thou it worthi to opene thin iyen on siche a man; and to brynge hym in to doom with thee? 4 Who may make a man clene conseyuod of vnclene seed? Whether not thou, which art aloone? 5 The daies of man ben schorte, the noumbre of his monethis is at thee; thou hast set, ethir ordeyned, hise termes, whiche moun not be passid. 6 Therfor go thou away fro hym a lital, `that is, bi withdrawyng of bodili lijf, that he haue reste; til the meede coueitid come, and his dai is as the dai of an hirid man. 7 A tree hath hope, if it is kit doun; and eft it wexith greene, and hise braunches spreden forth. 8 If the roote therof is eeld in the erthe, and the stok therof is nyy deed in dust; 9 it schal buriowne at the odour of watir, and it schal make heer, as whanne it was plauntid first. 10 But whanne a man is deed, and maad nakid, and wastid; Y preye, where is he? 11 As if watris goen awei fro the see, and a ryuer maad voide wexe drie, 12 so a man, whanne he hath slept, `that is, deed, he schal not rise ayen, til heuene be brokun, `that is, be maad newe; he schal not wake, nether he schal ryse togidere fro his sleep. 13 Who yiueth this to me, that thou defende me in helle, and that thou hide me, til thi greet veniaunce passe; and thou sette to me a tyme, in which thou haue mynde on me? (Sheol h7585) 14 Gessist thou, whethir a deed man schal lyue ayen? In alle the daies, in whiche Y holde knyythod, now Y abide, til my chaungyng come. 15 Thou schalt clepe me, and Y schal answere thee; thou schalt dresse the ryt half, `that is, blis, to the werk of thin hondis. 16 Sotheli thou hast noumbrid my steppis; but spare thou my synnes. 17 Thou hast seelid as in a bagge my trespassis, but thou hast curid my wickidnesse. 18 An hil fallynge droppith doun; and a rooche of stoon is borun ouer fro his place. 19 Watris maken stoonys holowe, and the erthe is wastid lital and lital bi waischyng a wey of watir; and therfor thou schalt leese men in lijk maner. 20 Thou madist a man strong a lital, that he schulde passe with ouden ende; thou schalt chaunge his face, and schalt sende hym out. 21 Whether hise sones ben noble, ether vnnoble, he schal not vndurstonde. 22 Netheles his fleisch, while he lyueth, schal haue sorewe, and his soule schal morne on hym silf.

15 Forsothe Eliphat Themanytes answeride, and seide, 2 Whether a wise man schal answere, as spekyng ayens the wynd, and schal fille his stomach with brennyng, `that is, ire? 3 For thou repreuest hym bi wordis, which is not lijk thee, and thou spekist that, that spedith not to thee. 4 As myche as is in thee, thou hast avoidid drede; and thou hast take away preyeris bifor God. 5 For wickidnesse hath tauyt thi mouth, and thou suest the tunge of blasfemeris. 6 Thi tunge, and not Y, schal condempne thee, and thi lippis schulen answere thee. 7 Whether thou art borun the firste man, and art formed bifor alle little hillis? 8 Whether thou herdist the counsel of God, and his wisdom is lower than thou? 9 What thing knowist thou, whiche we knowen not? What thing vndurstondist thou, whiche we witen not? 10 Bothe wise men and elde, myche eldre than thi fadris, ben among vs. 11 Whether it is greet, that God coumforte thee? But thi schrewid wordis forbeden this. 12 What reisith thin herte thee, and thou as thenkyng grete thingis hast iyen astonyed? 13 What bolneth thi spirit ayens God, that thou brynge forth of thi mouth siche wordis? 14 What is a man, that he be with out wem, and that he borun of a womman appere iust? 15 Lo! noon among hise seyntis is vnchaungable, and heuenes ben not cleene in his siyt. 16 How myche more a man abhominable and vnprofitable, that drynkith wickidnesse as water? 17 I schal schewe to thee, here thou me; Y schal telle to thee that, that Y siy. 18 Wise men knouelechen, and hiden not her fadris. 19 To whiche aloone the erthe is youun, and an alien schal not passe bi hem. 20 A wickid man is proud in alle hise daies; and the noumbre of hise yeeris and of his tirauntrie is vncerteyn. 21 The sown of drede is euere in hise eeris, and whanne pees is, he supposith euere tresouns. 22 He bileueth not that he may turne ayen fro derknessis to liyt; and biholdith aboute on ech side a swerd. 23 Whanne he stirith hym to seke breed, he woot, that the dai of derknessis is maad redi in his hond. 24 Tribulacioun schal make hym aferd, and angwisch schal cumpas hym, as a kyng which is maad redi to batel. 25 For he helde forth his hond ayens God, and he was maad strong ayens Almyyti God. 26 He ran with neck reysid ayens God, and he was armed with fat nol. 27 Fatnesse, that is, pride `comyng forth of temporal aboundaunce, hilide his face, `that is, the knowyng of vndurstondyng, and outward fatnesse hangith doun of his sidis. 28 He schal dwelle in desolat citees, and in deseert, `ethir forsakun, housis, that ben turned in to biriels. 29 He schal not be maad riche, nether his catel schal dwelle stidefastli; nether he schal sende his roote in the erthe, 30 nether he schal go awei fro derknessis. Flawme schal make drie hise braunchis, and he schal be takun a wey bi the spirit of his mouth. 31 Bileue he not veynli disseyued bi errour, that he schal be ayenbouyt bi ony prijs. 32 Bifor that hise daies ben fillid, he schal perische, and hise hondis schulen wexe drye; 33 he schal be hirt as a vyne in the firste flour of his grape, and as an olyue tre castinge awei his flour. 34 For the gaderyng togidere of an ipocrite is bareyn, and fier schal deuoure the tabernaclis of hem, that taken yiftis wilfuli. 35 He conseyuede sorewe, and childide wickidnesse, and his wombe makith redi tretcheries.

16 Forsothe Joob answeride, and seide, Y `herde ofte siche thingis; 2 alle ye ben heuy coumfortouris. 3 Whether wordis ful of wynd schulen haue an ende? ether ony thing is diseseiful to thee, if thou spekest? 4 Also Y myyte speke thingis lijk to you, and `Y wolde, that youre soule were for my soule; and Y wolde coumfort you by wordis, and Y wolde moue myn heed on you; 5 Y wolde make you stronge bi my mouth, and Y wolde moue lippis as sparynge you. 6 But what schal Y do? If Y speke, my sorewe restith not; and if Y am stille, it goith not awei fro me. 7 But now my sorewe hath oppressid me, and alle my lymes ben dryuun in to nouyt. 8 My ryuelyngis seien witnessyng ayens me, and a fals spekere is reysid ayens my face, and ayenseith me. 9 He gaderide togidere his woodnesse in me, and he manaasside me, and gnastide ayens me with his teeth; myn enemye bihelde me with ferdful iyen. 10 Thei openyden her mouthis on me, and thei seiden schenschip, and smytiden my cheke; and thei ben fillid with my peynes. 11 God hath closid me togidere at the wickid, and hath youe me to the hondis of wickid men. 12 Y thilke riche man and famouse sum tyme, am al to brokun sudeynli; `he helde my nol; he hath broke me, and hath set me as in to a signe. 13 He hath cumpasside me with hise speris, he woundide togidere my leendis; he sparide not, and schedde out myn entrails in to the erthe. 14 He beet me with wounde on wounde; he as a giaunt felde in on me. 15 Y sewide togidere a sak on my skyn; and Y hilide my fleisch with aische. 16 My face bolnyde of wepynge, and myn iyeliddis wexiden derke. 17 Y suffride these thingis with out wickidnesse of myn hond, `that is, werk, whanne Y hadde cleene preieris to God. 18 Erthe, hile thou not my blood, and my cry fynde not in thee a place of hidyng. 19 `For, lo! my wnesse is in heuene; and the knowere of my consience is in hye places. 20 Al my frendis, ful of wordis, myn iye droppith to God. 21 And `Y wolde, that a man were demed so with God, as the sone of man is demed with his felowe. 22 `For lo! schorte yeeris passen, and Y go a path, bi which Y schal not turne ayen.

17 Mi spirit schal be maad feble; my daies schulen be maad schort, and oneli the sepulcre is left to me. 2 Y have not synned, and myn iye dwellith in bittirnessis. 3 Lord, delyuere thou me, and sette thou me bisidis thee; and the hond of ech fiyte ayens me. 4 Thou hast maad the herte of hem fer fro doctryn, `ethir knowyng of treuthe; therfor thei schulen not be enhaunsid. 5 He bihetith prey to felowis, and the iyen of hise sones schulen faile. 6 He hath set as in to a prouerbe of the comyn puple, and his saumple bifor hem. 7 Myn `iye dasewide at indignacioun; and my membris ben dryuun as in to nouyt. 8 lust men schulen wondre on this thing; and an innocent schal be reysid ayens an ypocrite. 9 And a iust man schal holde his weie, and he schal adde strengthe to clene hondis. 10 Therfor alle `ye be conuertid, and come ye; and Y schal not fynde in you ony wiys man. 11 My daies ben passid; my thouytis ben scaterid, turmentynge myn herte. 12 Tho han turned the nytt `in to day; and eft afir derknessis hope liyt. 13 If Y `susteyne, ether suffre pacientli, helle is myn hous; and Y haue arayed my bed in derknessis. (Sheol h7585) 14 Y seide to rot, Thou art my fadur; and to wormes, Ye ben my modir and my sister. 15 Therfor where is now myn abidyng? and who biholdith my pacience? 16 Alle my thingis schulen go down in to deppeste helle; gessist thou, whether reste schal be to me, nameli there. (Sheol h7585)

18 Forsothe Baldach Suythes answeride, and seide, 2 `Til to what ende schalt thou booste with wordis? Vndurstonde thou first, and so speke we. 3 Whi ben we arettid as beestis, and

han we be foule bifor thee? 4 What leesist thou thi soule in thi woodnes? Whether the erthe schal be forsakun `for thee, and hard stoonys schulen be borun ouer fro her place? 5 Whethir the liyt of a wickid man schal not be quenchild; and the flawme of his fier schal not schyne? 6 Liyt schal wexe derke in his tabernacle; and the lanterne, which is on hym, schal be quenchild. 7 The steppis of his vertu schulen be maad streit; and his counsel schal caste hym doun. 8 For he hath sent hise feet in to a net; and he goith in the meschis therof. 9 His foot schal be holdun with a snare; and thirst schal brenne out ayens hym. 10 The foot trappe of hym is hid in the erthe, and his snare on the path. 11 Dredis schulen make hym aferd on ech side, and schulen biwlappe hise feet. 12 His strengthe be maad feble bi hungur; and pouert asaile hise ribbis. 13 Deuoure it the fairnesse of his skyn; the firste gendrid deth waste hise armes. 14 His trist be takun awei fro his tabernacle; and perischyng, as a kyng, aboue trede on hym. 15 The felowis of hym that is not, dwelle in his tabernacle; brymston be spreynt in his tabernacle. 16 The rootis of hym be maad drie bynethe; sotheli his ripe corn be al to-brokun aboue. 17 His mynde perische fro the erthe; and his name be not maad solempne in stretis. 18 He schal put hym out fro `liyt in to derknessis; and he schal bere hym ouer fro the world. 19 Nethir his seed nether kynrede schal be in his puple, nether ony relifs in hise cuntreis. 20 The laste men schulen wondre in hise daies; and hidousnesse schal asaile the firste men. 21 Therfor these ben the tabernaclis of a wickid man; and this is the place of hym, that knowith not God.

19 Forsothe Joob answeride, and seide, Hou long turmente ye my soule, 2 and al to-breken me with wordis? 3 Lo! ten sithis ye schenden me, and ye ben not aschamed, oppressynge me. 4 Forsothe and if Y `koude not, myn vnkynnyng schal be with me. 5 And ye ben reisid ayens me, and repreuen me with my schenschipis. 6 Nameli now vndurstonde ye, that God hath turmentid me not bi euene doom, and hath cumpassid me with hise betyngis. 7 Lo! Y suffrynge violence schal crye, and no man schal here; Y schal crye loude, and `noon is that demeth. 8 He bisette aboute my path, and Y may not go; and he settide derknessis in my weie. 9 He hath spuylid me of my glorie, and hath take away the coroun fro myn heed. 10 He hath distried me on ech side, and Y perischide; and he hath take awei myn hope, as fro a tre pullid vp bi the roote. 11 His stronge veniaunce was wrooth ayens me; and he hadde me so as his enemye.

 12 Hise theues camen togidere, and `maden to hem a wei bi me; and bisegiden my tabernacle in cumpas. 13 He made fer my britheren fro me; and my knowun as aliens yeden awei fro me. 14 My neyboris forsoken me; and thei that knewen me han foryete me. 15 The tenauntis of myn hows, and myn handmaydis hadden me as a straunger; and Y was as a pilgrym bifer her iyen. 16 Y clepide my seruaunt, and he answeride not to me; with myn owne mouth Y preiede hym. 17 My wijf wlatide my breeth; and Y preiede the sones of my wombe. 18 Also foolis dispisiden me; and whanne Y was goon awei fro hem, thei bacbitiden me. 19 Thei, that weren my counselouris sum tyme, hadden abhominacioun of me; and he, whom Y louede moost, was aduersarie to me. 20 Whanne fleischis weren wastid, my boon cleuyde to my skyn; and `oneli lippis ben left aboute my teeth. 21 Haue ye merci on me, haue ye merci on me, nameli, ye my frendis; for the hond of the Lord hath touchid me. 22 Whi pursuen ye me, as God pursueth; and ben fillid with my fleischis?

23 Who yyueth to me, that my wordis be writun? Who yyueth to me, 24 that tho be writun in a book with an yrun poyntil, ethir with a plate of leed; ethir with a chisel be grauun in a flynt? 25 For Y woot, that myn ayenbiere lyueth, and in the laste dai Y schal rise fro the erthe; 26 and eft Y schal be cumpassid with my skyn, and in my fleisch Y schal se God, my sauyour. 27 Whom Y my silf schal se, and myn iyen schulen biholde, and not an other man. This myn hope is kept in my bosum. 28 Whi therfor seien ye now, Pursue we hym, and fynde we the roote of a word ayens hym? 29 Therfor fle ye fro the face of the swerd; for the swerd is the vengere of wickidnessis, and wite ye, that doom schal be.

20 Forsothe Sophar Naamathites answeride, and seide, 2 Therfor my thouytis dyuerse comen oon aftir anothir; and the mynde is rauyischid in to dyuerse thingis. 3 Y schal here the techyng, bi which thou repreuest me; and the spirit of myn vndurstondyng schal answere me. 4 Y woot this fro the bigynnyng, sithen man was set on erthe, 5 that the preisyng of wickid men is schort, and the ioie of an ypocrite is at the licnesse of a poynt. 6 Thouy his pride `stieth in to heuene, and his heed touchith the cloudis, 7 he schal be lost in the ende, as a dunghil; and, thei that sien hym, schulen seie, Where is he? 8 As a dreem fleyng awei he schal not be foundun; he schal passe as `a nytyt siyt. 9 The iye that siy hym schal not se; and his place schal no more biholde him. 10 Hise sonis schulen be `al to-brokun with nedynesse; and hise hondis schulen yelde to hym his sorewe. 11 Hise boonys schulen be fillid with the vices of his yong wexyng age; and schulen slepe with hym in dust. 12 For whanne yuel was swete in his mouth, he hidde it vndur his tunge. 13 He schal spare it, and schal not forsake it; and schal hide in his throte. 14 His breed in his wombe schal be turned in to galle of snakis withynne. 15 He schal spue out the richessis, whiche he deuouride; and God schal drawe tho ritchessis out of his wombe. 16 He schal souke the heed of snakis; and the tunge of an addre schal sle hym. 17 Se he not the stremys of the flood of the stronde, of hony, and of botere. 18 He schal suffre peyne for alle thingis whiche he hath do, netheles he schal not be wastid; aftir the multitude of his fyndyngis, so and `he schal suffre. 19 For he brake, and made nakid the hows of a pore man; he rauyschide, and bildide it not. 20 And his wombe was not fillid; and whanne he hath that, that he couetide, he may not holde in possessioun. 21 `No thing lefte of his mete; and therfor no thing schal dwelle of his goodis. 22 Whanne he is fillid, he schal be maad streit; he schal `be hoot, and alle sorewe schal falle in on hym. 23 `Y wolde, that his wombe be fillid, that he sende out in to hym the ire of his strong veniaunce, and reyne his batel on hym. 24 He schal fle yrun armuris, and he schal falle in to a brasun boowe. 25 Led out, and goynge out `of his schethe, and schynyng, `ether smytinge with leit, `in to his bittirnesse; orrible fendis schulen go, and schulen come on hym. 26 Alle derknessis ben hid in hise priuytees; fier, which is not teendid, schal deuoure hym; he schal be turmentid left in his tabernacle. 27 Heuenes schulen schewe his wickidnesse; and erthe schal rise togidere ayens hym. 28 The seed of his hows schal be opyn; it schal be drawun down in the dai of the strong veniaunce of the Lord. 29 This is the part of a wickid man, `which part is youun of God, and the eritage of hise wordis of the Lord.

21 Forsothe Joob answeride, and seide, 2 Y preye, here ye my wordis, and do ye penaunce. 3 Suffre ye me, that Y speke; and leiye ye aftir my wordis, if it schal seme worthi. 4 Whether my disputyng is ayens man, that skilfuli Y owe not to be sori? 5 Perseyue ye me, and be ye astonyed; and sette ye fyngur on youre mouth. 6 And whanne Y bithenke, Y drede, and tremblyng schakith my fleisch. 7 Whi therfor lyuen wickid men? Thei ben enhaunsid, and coumfortid with richessis. 8 Her seed dwellith bifor hem; the cumpeny of kynesmen, and of sones of sones dwellith in her siyt. 9 Her housis ben sikur, and pesible; and the yerde of God is not on hem. 10 The cow of hem conseyuede, and caluede not a deed calf; the cow caluyde, and is not priued of hir calf. 11 Her litle children goen out as flockis; and her yonge children `maken fulli ioye with pleies. 12 Thei holden tympan, and harpe; and ioien at the soun of orgun. 13 Thei leden in goodis her daies; and in a point thei goen down to hellis. (Sheol h7585) 14 Whiche men seiden to God, Go thou awei fro us; we nylen the kunnyng of thi weies. 15 Who is Almyti God, that we serue him? and what profitith it to vs, if we preien him? 16 Netheles for her goodis ben not in her hond, `that is, power, the counsel of wickid men be fer fro me. 17 Hou ofte schal the lanterne of wickid men be quenched, and flowing schal come on hem, and God schal departe the sorewis of his stronge veniaunce? 18 Thei schulen be as chaffis bifor the face of the wynd; and as a deed sparcle, whiche the whirlewynd scaterith abroad. 19 God schal kepe the sorewe of the fadir to hise sones; and whanne he hath yoldun, thanne he schal wite. 20 Hise iyen schulen se her sleynge; and he schal drynke of the stronge veniaunce of Almyti God. 21 For whi what perteyneth it to hym of his hows aftir hym, thouy the noumbre of his monethis be half takun away? 22 Whether ony man schal teche God kunnyng, which demeth hem that ben hiye? 23 This yuel man dieth strong and hool, riche and blesful, `that is, myrie. 24 Hise entrails ben ful of fatnesse; and hise boonys ben moistid with merowis. 25 Sotheli anothir wickid man dieth in the bittirnesse of his soule, and with ouden ony richessis. 26 And netheles thei schulen slepe togidere in dust, and wormes schulen hile hem. 27 Certis Y knowe youre wickid thouytis, and sentensis ayens me. 28 For ye seien, Where is the hows of the prince? and where ben the tabernaclis of wickid men? 29 Axe ye ech of `the weie goeris; and ye schulen knowe, that he vndurstondith these same thingis, 30 that an yuel man schal be kept in to the dai of perdicoun, and schal be led to the dai of woodnesse. 31 Who schal repreue hise weies bifor hym? and who schal yelde to hym tho thingis, whiche he hath doon? 32 He schal be led to the sepulcris; and he schal wake in the heep of deed men. 33 He was swete to the `stoonys, ether filthis, of helle; and drawith ech man aftir hym, and vnnoumbrable men bifor him. 34 Hou therfor coumforten ye me in veyn, sithen youre answeris ben schewid to `repugne to treuthe?

22 Forsothe Eliphat Themanytes answeride, and seide, 2 Whether a man, yhe, whanne he is of perfit kunnyng, mai be comparisound to God? 3 What profitith it to God, if thou art iust? ethir what schalt thou yyue to hym, if thi lijf is without wem? 4 Whether he schal drede, and schal repreue thee, and schal come with thee in to doom, 5 and not for thi ful myche malice, and thi wickidnessis with out noumbre, `these peynes bifelden iustli to thee? 6 For thou hast take awei with out cause the wed of thi britheren; and hast spuylid nakid men of clothis. 7 Thou yauest not watir to the feynt man; and thou withdrawist breed fro the hungri man. 8 In the strengthe of thin arm thou haddist the lond in possessioun; and thou moost myyti heldist it. 9 Thou leftist widewis voide; and al to-brakist the schuldris of fadirles children. 10 Therfor thou art cumpassid with snaris; and sodeyn drede disturblith thee. 11 And thou gessidist, that thou schuldist not se derknessis; and that thou schuldist not be oppressid with the fersnesse of watris flowyng. 12 Whether thou thenkist, that God is hiyere than heuene, and is enhaunsid aboue the coppe of steris? 13 And thou seist, What sotheli knowith God? and, He demeth as bi derknesse. 14 A cloude is his hidyng place, and he biholdith not oure thingis, and he `goith aboute the herris of heuene. 15 Whether thou coueitist to kepe the path of worldis, which wickid men han ofte go? 16 Whiche weren takun awei bifor her tyme, and the flood distriede the foundement of hem.

17 Whiche seiden to God, Go thou awei fro vs; and as if Almyyti God may do no thing, thei gessiden hym, 18 whanne he hadde fillid her housis with goodis; the sentence of whiche men be fer fro me. 19 lust men schulen se, and schulen be glad; and an innocent man schal scorne hem. 20 Whether the reisyng of hem is not kit down, and fier schal deuoure the relifs of hem? 21 Therfor assente thou to God, and haue thou pees; and bi these thingis thou schalt haue best fruytis. 22 Take thou the lawe of his mouth, and sette thou hise wordis in thin herte. 23 If thou turnest ayen to Almyyti God, thou schalt be bildid; and thou schalt make wickidnesse fer fro thi tabernacle. 24 He schal yyue a flynt for erthe, and goldun strondis for a flynt. 25 And Almyyti God schal be ayens thin enemyes; and siluer schal be gaderid togidere to thee. 26 Thanne on Almyyti God thou schalt flowe with delicis; and thou schalt reise thi face to God. 27 Thou schalt preye hym, and he schal here thee; and thou schalt yelde thi vowis. 28 Thou schalt deme a thing, and it schal come to thee; and lyt schal schyne in thi weies. 29 For he that is mekid, schal be in glorie; and he that bowith down hise iyen, schal be saued. 30 An innocent schal be saued; sotheli he schal be saued in the clennesse of hise hondis.

23 Sotheli Joob answeride, and seide, 2 Now also my word is in bitternesse, and the hond of my wounde is aggreggid on my weilyng. 3 Who yueth to me, that Y knowe, and fynde hym, and come `til to his trone? 4 Y schal sette doom bifor hym, and Y schal fille my mouth with blamyngis; 5 that Y kunne the wordis, whiche he schal answere to me, and that Y vnderstonde, what he schal speke to me. 6 Y nyle, that he stryue with me bi greet strengthe, nether oppresse me with the heuynesse of his greetnesse. 7 Sette he forth equite ayens me, and my doom come perfitli to victorie. 8 If Y go to the eest, God apperith not; if Y go to the west, Y schal not vndurstonde hym; if Y go to the left side, 9 what schal Y do? Y schal not take hym; if Y turne me to the ryt side, Y schal not se hym. 10 But he knowith my weie, and he schal preue me as gold, that passith thorouy fier. 11 My foot suede hise steppis; Y kepte his weie, and Y bowide not away fro it. 12 Y yede not awei fro the comaundementis of hise lippis; and Y hidde in my bosum the wordis of his mouth. 13 For he is aloone, and no man may turne awei hise thouytis; and what euer thing he wolde, his wille dide this thing. 14 Whanne he hath fillid his wille in me, also many othere lijk thingis ben redi to hym. 15 And therfor Y am disturblid of his face, and Y biholdyng hym am anguyschid for drede. 16 God hath maad neische myn herte, and Almyyti God hath disturblid me. 17 For Y perischide not for derknessis neiyynge; nethir myist hilde my face.

24 Tymes ben not hid fro Almyyti God; sotheli thei that knowen hym, knowen not hise daies. 2 Othere men turneden ouer the termes of neiyboris eritage, thei token awei flockis, and fedden tho. 3 Thei driueden awei the asse of fadirlesse children, and token awei the cow of a widewe for a wed. 4 Thei distrieden the weie of pore men, and thei oppressiden togidere the mylde men of erthe. 5 Othere men as wielde assis in deseert goon out to her werk; and thei waken to prey, and bifer maken redy breed to her children. 6 Thei kitten doun a feeld not hern, and thei gaderen grapis of his vyner, whom thei han oppressid bi violence. 7 Thei leeuen men nakid, and taken awei the clothis, to whiche men is noon hiling in coold; 8 whiche men the reynes of munteyns weeten, and thei han noon hilyng, and biclippen stoonys. 9 Thei diden violence, and robbiden fadirles and modirles children; and thei spuyliden, `ether robbiden, the comynste of pore men. 10 Thei token away eeris of corn fro nakid men, and goynge with out cloth, and fro hungry men. 11 Thei weren hid in myddai among the heepis of tho men, that thirsten, whanne the presses ben trodun. 12 Thei maden men of citees to weile, and the soulis of woundid men schulen crye; and God suffrith it not to go awei vnpunyschid. 13 Thei weren rebel to liyt; thei knewen not the weyes therof, nether thei turneden ayen bi the pathis therof. 14 A mansleere risith ful eerli, and sleeth a nedi man, and a pore man; sotheli bi nytt he schal be as a nytt theef. 15 The iye of avouter kepith derknesse, and seith, An yye schal not se me; and he schal hile his face. 16 Thei mynen housis in derknessis, as thei seiden togidere to hem silf in the dai; and thei knewen not liyt. 17 If the morewtid apperith sudeynli, thei demen the schadewe of deth; and so thei goon in derknessis as in liyt. 18 He is vnstablere than the face of the water; his part in erthe be cursid, and go he not bi the weie of vyneris. 19 Passe he to ful greet heete fro the watris of snowis, and the synne of hym `til to hellis. (Sheol h7585) 20 Merci foryete hym; his swetnesse be a worm; be he not in mynde, but be he al to-brokun as `a tre vnfruytful. 21 For he fedde the bareyn, and hir that childith not, and he dide not wel to the widewe. 22 He drow down stronge men in his strengthe; and whanne he stondith in `greet state, he schal not bileue to his lijf. 23 God yaf to hym place of penaunce, and he mysusith that in to pride; for the iyen of God ben in the weies of that man. 24 Thei ben reysid at a litil, and thei schulen not stonde; and thei schulen be maad low as alle thingis, and thei schulen be takun awei; and as the hynnessis of eeris of corn thei schulen be al to-brokun. 25 That if it is not so, who may repreue me, that Y liede, and putte my wordis bifer God?

25 Forsothe Baldach Suytes answeride, and seide, 2 Power and drede is anentis hym, that is, God, that makith acordyng in hise hiye thingis. 3 Whether noumbre is of hise knytytis? and on whom schyneth not his liyt? 4 Whether a man comparisound to God mai be iustified, ether borun of a womman mai appere cleene? 5 Lo! also the moone schyneth not, and sterris ben not cleene in `his siyt; 6 hou miche more a man rot, and the sone of a man a worm, is vncleene `and vile, if he is comparisound to God.

26 Forsothe Joob answeride, and seide, Whos helpere art thou? 2 whether `of the feble, and susteyneste the arm of hym, which is not strong? 3 To whom hast thou youe counsel? In hap to hym that hath not wisdom; and thou hast schewid ful myche prudence. 4 Ether whom woldist thou teche? whether not hym, that made brething? 5 Lo! giauntis weilen vnder watris, and thei that dwellen with hem. 6 Helle is nakid bifer hym, and noon hilyng is to perdicoun. (Sheol h7585) 7 Which God stretchith forth the north on voide thing, and hangith the erthe on nouyt. 8 `Which God byndith watris in her cloudis, that tho breke not out togidere dounward. 9 `Whych God holdith the cheer of his seete, and spredith abroad theron his cloude. 10 He hath cumpassid a terme to watris, til that liyt and derknessis be endid. 11 The pilers of heuene tremblen, and dreden at his wille. 12 In the strengthe of hym the sees weren gaderid togidere sudeynly, and his prudence smoot the proude. 13 His spiryt ournede heuenes, and the crokid serpent was led out bi his hond, ledynge out as a mydwijf ledith out a child. 14 Lo! these thingis ben seid in partie of `hise weyes; and whanne we han herd vnnethis a litil drope of his word, who may se the thundur of his greetnesse?

ether whether he may delite in Almyyti God, and inwardli clepe God in al tyme? 11 Y schal teche you bi the hond of God, what thingis Almyyti God hath; and Y schal not hide. 12 Lo! alle ye knowen, and what speken ye veyn thingis with out cause? 13 This is the part of a wickid man anentis God, and the eritage of violent men, ether rauenours, whiche thei schulen take of Almyyti God. 14 If hise children ben multiplied, thei schulen be slayn in swerd; and hise sones sones schulen not be fillid with breed. 15 Thei, that ben residue of hym, schulen be biried in perischyng; and the widewis of hym schulen not wepe. 16 If he gaderith togidere siluer as erthe, and makith redi clothis as cley; 17 sotheli he made redi, but a iust man schal be clothid in tho, and an innocent man schal departe the siluer. 18 As a mouyte he hath bildid his hous, and as a kepere he made a schadewyng place. 19 A riche man, whanne he schal die, schal bere no thing with hym; he schal opene hise iyen, and he schal fynde no thing. 20 Pouert as water schal take hym; and tempeste schal oppresse hym in the nyyt. 21 Brennynge wynd schal take hym, and schal do awei; and as a whirlewynd it schal rauysche hym fro his place. 22 He schal sende out turmentis on hym, and schal not spare; he fleyng schal `fle fro his hond. 23 He schal streyne hise hondis on him, and he schal hisse on hym, and schal biholde his place.

departith tho hillis, whiche the foot of a nedi man foryat, and hillis with out weie. 5 The erthe, wher of breed cam forth in his place, is destried bi fier. 6 The place of saphir ben stoonys therof, and the clottis therof ben gold. 7 A brid knewe not the weie, and the iye of a vultur, ethir rauenouse brid, bihelde it not. 8 The sones of marchauntis tretiden not on it, and a lyonesse passide not therbi. 9 God stretchide forth his hond to a flynt; he distriede hillis fro the rootis. 10 He hewide doun ryuers in stoonys; and his iye siy al precious thing. 11 And he souyte out the depthis of floodis; and he brouyte forth hid thingis in to liyt. 12 But where is wisdom foundun, and which is the place of vndurstandyng? 13 A man noot the prijs therof, nether it is foundun in the lond of men lyuyng swetli, `ether delicatli. 14 The depthe of watris seith, It is not in me; and the see spekith, It is not with me. 15 Gold ful cleene schal not be youun for wisdom, nether siluer schal be weied in the chaungyng therof. 16 It schal not be comparysound to the died colours of lynde, not to the moost preciouise stoon of sardius, nether to saphir. 17 Nether gold, nether glas schal be maad euene worth therto; 18 and hiye and fer apperynge vessels of gold schulen not be chaungid for wisdom, nether schulen be had in mynde in comparisoun therof. Forsothe wisdom is drawun of pryuy thingis; 19 topasie of Ethiope schal not be maad euene worth to wisdom, and moost preciouise diyngis schulen not be set togidere in prijs, `ether comparisound, therto. 20 Therfor wherof cometh wisdom, and which is the place of vndurstandyng? 21 It is hid fro the iyen of alle lyuyng men; also it is hid fro briddis of heuene. 22 Perdicioun and deeth seiden, With oure eeris we herden the fame therof. 23 God vndurstandith the weye therof, and he knowith the place therof.

24 For he biholdith the endis of the world, and biholdith alle thingis that ben vndur heuene. 25 `Which God made weiyte to wyndis, and weiede watris in mesure. 26 Whanne he settide lawe to reyn, and weie to tempestis sownynge; 27 thanne he siy wisdom, and telde out, and made redi, and souyte out. 28 And he seide to man, Lo! the drede of the Lord, thilke is wisdom; and to go awei fro yuel, is vndurstondyng.

29 Also Joob addide, takynge his parable, and seide, 2 Who yyueth to me, that I be bisidis the elde monethis, bi the daies in whiche God kepte me? 3 Whanne his lanterne schynede on myn heed, and Y yede in derknessis at his liyt. 4 As Y was in the daies of my yongthe, whanne in priuete God was in my tabernacle. 5 Whanne Almyyti God was with me, and my children weren in my cumpas; 6 whanne Y waischide my feet in botere, and the stoon schedde out to me the stremes of oile; 7 whanne Y yede forth to the yate of the citee, and in the street thei maden redi a chaier to me. 8 Yonge men, `that is, wantoun, sien me, and weren hid, and elde men risynge vp stoden; 9 princes ceessiden to speke, and puttiden the fyngur on her mouth; 10 duykis refreyneden her vois, and her tunge cleuyde to her throte. 11 An eere herynge blessing me, and an iye seyng yeldide witnessyng to me; 12 for Y hadde delyueride a pore man cryng, and a fadirles child, that hadde noon helpere. 13 The blessing of a man `to perische cam on me, and Y coumfortide the herte of a widewe. 14 Y was clothid with riytfulnesse; and Y clothide me as with a cloth, and with my `doom a diademe. 15 Y was iye `to a blynde man, and foot to a crokyd man. 16 Y was a fadir of pore men; and Y enqueride most diligentli the cause, which Y knew not. 17 Y al tobrak the grete teeth of the wickid man, and Y took awei prey fro hise teeth. 18 And Y seide, Y schal die in my nest; and as a palm tre Y schal multiplie daies. 19 My roote is openyde bisidis watris, and deew schal dwelle in my repyng. 20 My glorie schal euere be renulid, and my bouwe schal be astorid in myn hond. 21 Thei, that herden me, abiden my sentence; and thei weren ententif, and weren stille to my counsel. 22 Thei dursten no thing adde to my wordis; and my speche droppide on hem. 23 Thei abididen me as reyn; and thei openyden her mouth as to the softe reyn `comynge late. 24 If ony tyme Y leiylde to hem, thei bileueden not; and the liyt of my cheer felde not down in to erthe. 25 If Y wolde go to hem, Y sat the firste; and whanne Y sat as kyng, while the oost stood aboute, netheles Y was comfortour of hem that morenyden.

30 But now yongere men in tyme scornen me, whos fadris Y deynede not to sette with the doggis of my flok. 2 Of whiche men the vertu of hondis was for nouyt to me, and thei weren gessid vnworthi to that lijf. 3 Thei weren bareyn for nedynesse and hungur; that gnawiden in wildirnesse, and weren pale for pouert and wretchidnesse; 4 and eeten eerbis, aud the ryndis of trees; and the roote of iunyperis was her mete. 5 Whiche men rauyschiden these thingis fro grete valeis; and whanne thei hadden foundun ony of alle, thei runnen with cry to tho. 6 Thei dwelliden in deseertis of strondis, and in caues of erthe, ethir on grauel, `ethir on cley. 7 Whiche weren glad among siche thingis, and arettiden delices to be vndur buschis. 8 The sones of foolis and of vnnoble men, and outirli apperynge not in erthe. 9 But now Y am turned in to the song of hem, and Y am maad a prouerbe to hem. 10 Thei holden me abhomynable, and fleen fer fro me, and dreden not to spete on my face. 11 For God hath openyd his arowe caas, and hath turmentid me, and hath set a bridil in to my mouth. 12 At the riytside of the eest my wretchidnessis risiden anoon; thei turneden vpsedoun my feet, and oppressiden with her pathis as with floodis. 13 Thei destrieden my weies; thei settiden tresoun to me, and hadden the maistri; and `noon was that helpide. 14 Thei felden in on me as bi a brokun wal, and bi yate openyd, and weren stretchid forth to my wretchidnessis. 15 Y am dryuun in to nouyt; he took awei my desir as wynd, and myn helpe passide awei as a cloude. 16 But now my soule fadith in my silf, and daies of turment holden me stidfastly. 17 In nytt my boon is persid with sorewis; and thei, that eten me, slepen not. 18 In the multitude of tho my cloth is wastid, and thei han gird me as with coler of a coote. 19 Y am comparisound to cley, and Y am maad lijk to a deed sparcle and aisch. 20 Y schal cry to thee, and thou schalt not here me; Y stonde, and thou biholdist not me. 21 Thou art chaungid in to cruel to me, and in the hardnesse of thin hond thou art aduersarie to me. 22 Thou hast reisid me, and hast set as on wynd; and hast hurtlid me doun strongli. 23 Y woot, that thou schalt bitake me to deeth, where an hows is ordeyned to ech lyuyng man. 24 Netheles thou sendist not out thin hond to the wastyng of hem; and if thei fallen doun, thou schalt saue. 25 Y wepte sum tyme on him, that was turmentid, and my soule hadde compassioun on a pore man. 26 Y abood goodis, and yuelis ben comun to me; Y abood liyt, and derknessis braken out. 27 Myn ynnere thingis buyliden out with ouden my reste; daies of turment camen bifor me. 28 Y yede morenyng, and Y roos with out woodnesse in the cumpenye, and criede. 29 Y was the brother of dragouns, and the fellow of ostrigis. 30 My skyn was maad blak on me, and my boonys drieden for heete. 31 Myn harpe is turned in to morenyng, and myn orgun in to the vois of weperis.

31 I made couenaunt with myn iyen, that Y schulde not thenke of a virgyn. 2 For what part schulde God aboue haue in me, and eritage Almyty God of hiye thingis? 3 Whether perdicoun is not to a wickid man, and alienacioun of God is to men worchyng wickidnesse? 4 Whether he biholdith not my weies, and noumbrith alle my goyngis? 5 If Y yede in vanyte, and my foot hastide in gile, 6 God weie me in a iust balaunce, and knowe my symplenesse. 7 If my step bowide fro the weie; if myn iye sude myn herte, and a spotte cleuede to myn hondis; 8 sowe Y, and another ete, and my generacioun be drawun out bi the root. 9 If myn herte was disseyued on a womman, and if Y settide aspies at the dore of my frend; my wijf be the hoore of anothir man, 10 and othir men be bowid doun on hir. 11 For this is vnleueful, and the moost wickidnesse. 12 Fier is deourynge `til to wastynge, and drawynge vp bi the roote alle generaciouns. 13 If Y dispiside to take doom with my seruaunt and myn hand mayde, whanne thei stryueden ayens me. 14 What sotheli schal Y do, whanne God schal rise to deme? and whanne he schal axe, what schal Y answere to hym? 15 Whether he, that wrouyte also hym, made not me in the wombe, and o God formede me in the wombe? 16 If Y denyede to pore men that, that thei wolden, and if Y made the iyen of a wydewe to abide; 17 if Y aloone eet my mussel, and a faderles child eet not therof; 18 for merciful doyng encreesside with me fro my yong childhed, and yede out of my modris wombe with me; 19 if Y dispiside a man passynge forth, for he hadde not a cloth, and a pore man with out hilyng; 20 if hise sidis blessiden not me, and was not maad hoot of the fleeces of my scheep; 21 if Y reise myn hond on a fadirles child, yhe, whanne Y siy me the hiyere in the yate; 22 my schuldre falle fro his ioynt, and myn arm with hise boonys be al to-brokun. 23 For euere Y dredde God, as wawis wexynge gret on me; and `Y myyte not bere his birthun. 24 If Y gesside gold my strengthe, and if Y seide to purid gold, Thou art my trist; 25 if Y was glad on my many ritchessis, and for myn hond foond ful many thingis; 26 if Y siy the sunne, whanne it schynede, and the moone goynge clereli; 27 and if myn herte was glad in priuyte, and if Y kisside myn hond with my mouth; 28 which is the moost wickidnesse, and denyng ayens hiyeste God; 29 if Y hadde ioye at the fallyng of hym, that hatide me, and if Y ioide fulli, that yuel hadde founde hym; 30 for Y yaf not my throte to do synne, that Y schulde asaile and curse his soule; 31 if the men of my tabernacle seiden not, Who yueth, that we be fillid of hise fleischis? a pilgryme dwellide not with outforth; 32 my dore was opyn to a weiegoere; 33 if Y as man hidde my synne, and helide my wickidnesse in my bosum; 34 if Y dredde at ful greet multitude, and if dispisyng of neyyboris made me aferd; and not more Y was stille, and yede not out of the dore; 35 who yueth an helpere to me, that Almyti God here my desire? that he that demeth, 36 write a book, that Y bere it in my schuldre, and cumpasse it as a coroun to me? 37 Bi alle my degrees Y schal pronounce it, and Y schal as offre it to the prynce. 38 If my lond crieth ayens me, and hise forewis wepen with it; 39 if Y eet fruytis therof with out money, and Y turmentide the soule of erthetileris of it; 40 a brere growe to me for wheete, and a thorn for barli.

32 Forsothe these thre men leften of to answer Joob, for he semyde a iust man to hem. 2 And Helyu, the sone of Barachel Buzites, of the kynrede of Ram, was wrooth, and hadde indignacioun; forsothe he was wrooth ayens Joob, for he seide hym silf to be iust bifor God. 3 Sotheli Helyu hadde indignacioun ayens the thre frendis of hym, for thei hadden not founde resonable answer, but oneli hadde condempned Joob. 4 Therfor Helyu abood Joob spekyng, for thei, that spaken, weren eldere men. 5 But whanne he hadde seyn, that thre men myyten not answer, he was wrooth greetly. 6 And Helyu, the sone of Barachel Buzites, answeride, and seyde, Y am yongere in tyme, sotheli ye ben eldere; therfor with heed holdun doun Y dredde to schewe to you my sentence. 7 For Y hopide that lengere age schulde speke, and that the multitude of yeeris schulden teche wisdom. 8 But as Y se, spirit is in men, and the enspiryng `ether reuelacioun, of Almyyti God yyueth vndurstondyng. 9 Men of long lijf ben not wise, and elde men vndurstonden not doom. 10 Therfor Y schal seie, Here ye me, and Y also schal schewe my kunnyng to you. 11 For Y abood youre wordis, Y herde youre prudence, as long as ye dispuytiden in youre wordis. 12 And as long as Y gesside you to seie any thing, Y bihelde; but as Y se, `noon is of you, that may repreue Joob, and answer to hise wordis; 13 lest peraventure ye seien, We han founde wisdom; God, and not man, hath cast hym awei. 14 Joob spak no thing to me, and Y not bi youre wordis schal answer hym. 15 Thei dredden, and answeriden no more, and token awei speche fro hem silf. 16 Therfor for Y abood, and thei spaken not, thei stoden, and answeriden no more; also Y schal answer my part, 17 and Y schal schewe my kunnyng. 18 For Y am ful of wordis, and the spirit of my wombe, `that is, mynde, constreyneth me. 19 Lo! my wombe is as must with out `spigot, ether a ventyng, that brekith newe vessels. 20 Y schal speke, and brethe ayen a litil; Y schal opene my lippis, and Y schal answere. 21 Y schal not take the persooone of man, and Y schal not make God euene to man. 22 For Y woot not hou long Y schal abide, and if my Makere take me awei `after a litil tyme.

33 Therfor, Joob, here thou my spechis, and herkene alle my wordis. 2 Lo! Y haue openyd my mouth, my tunge schal speke in my chekis. 3 Of symple herte ben my wordis, and my lippis schulen speke clene sentence. 4 The spirit of God made me, and the brething of Almyyti God quykenyde me. 5 If thou maist, answere thou to me, and stoonde thou ayens my face. 6 Lo! God made me as and thee; and also Y am formyd of the same clay. 7 Netheles my myracle make thee not afeerd, and myn eloquence be not greuouse to thee. 8 Therfor thou seidist in myn eeris, and Y herde the vois of thi wordis; 9 Y am cleene, and with out guilt, and vnwemmed, and wickidnesse is not in me. 10 `For God foond querels in me, therfor he demyde me enemy to hym silf. 11 He hath set my feet in a stok; he kepte alle my pathis. 12 Therfor this thing it is, in which thou art not maad iust; Y schal answere to thee, that God is more than man. 13 Thou stryuest ayenus God, that not at alle wordis he answeride to thee. 14 God spekith onys, and the secounde tyme he rehersith not the same thing. 15 God spekith bi a dreem in the visioun of nytyt, whanne sleep fallith on men, and thei slepen in the bed. 16 Thanne he openith the eeris of men, and he techith hem, `and techith prudence; 17 that he turne awei a man fro these thingis whiche he made, and delyuere hym fro pride; delyuerynge his

soule fro corrupcioun, 18 and his lijf, that it go not in to swerd. 19 Also God blameth a synnere bi sorewe in the bed, and makith alle the boonys of hym `to fade. 20 Breed is maad abhomynable to hym in his lijf, and mete desirable `bifor to his soule. 21 His fleisch schal faile for rot, and hise boonys, that weren hilid, schulen be maad nakid. 22 His soule schal neiye to corrupcioun, and his lijf to thingis `bryngyng deeth. 23 If an aungel, oon of a thousynde, is spekyng for hym, that he telle the equyte of man, God schal haue mercy on hym, 24 and schal seie, Delyuere thou hym, that he go not down in to corrupcioun; Y haue founde in what thing Y schal do merci to hym. 25 His fleisch is wastid of turmentis; turne he ayen to the daies of his yonge wexyng age. 26 He schal biseche God, and he schal be quemeful to hym; and he schal se his face in hertly ioye, and he schal yelde to man his riytfulnesse. 27 He schal biholde men, and he schal seie, Y haue synned, and verili Y haue trespassid; and Y haue not resseyued, as Y was worthi. 28 For he delyueride his soule, that it schulde not go in to perischyng, but that he lyuyng schulde se liyt. 29 Lo! God worchith alle these thingis in thre tymes bi alle men; 30 that he ayen clepe her soulis fro corrupcioun, and liytne in the liyt of lyuyng men. 31 Thou, Joob, perseyue, and here me, and be thou stille, the while Y speke. 32 Sotheli if thou hast what thou schalt speke, answer thou to me, speke thou; for Y wole, that thou appere iust. 33 That if thou hast not, here thou me; be thou stille, and Y schal teche thee wisdom.

34 And Helyu pronounside, and spak also these thingis, 2 Wise men, here ye my wordis, and lerned men, herkne ye me; for the eere preueth wordis, 3 and the throte demeth metis bi taast. 4 Chese we doom to vs; and se we among vs, what is the betere. 5 For Job seide, Y am iust, and God hath distried my doom. 6 For whi lesynge is in demynge me, and myn arowe is violent with out ony synne. 7 Who is a man, as Joob is, that drynkith scornynge as watir? 8 that goith with men worchyng wickidnesse, and goith with vnfeithful men? 9 For he seide, A man schal not plese God, yhe, thou he renneth with God. 10 Therfor ye men hertid, `that is, vndurstonde, here ye me; vnpite, `ethir cruelte, be fer fro God, and wickidnesse fro Almyti God.

11 For he schal yelde the werk of man to hym; and bi the weies of ech man he schal restore to hym. 12 For verili God schal not condempne with out cause; nether Almyti God schal distrie doom. 13 What othere man hath he ordeyned on the lond? ether whom hath he set on the world, which he made? 14 If God dressith his herte to hym, he schal drawe to hym silf his spirit and blast. 15 Ech fleisch schal faile togidere; `and a man schal turne ayen in to aisch. 16 Therfor if thou hast vndurstandyng, here thou that that is seid, and herkne the vois of my speche. 17 Whether he that loueth not doom may be maad hool? and hou condempnest thou so myche him, that is iust? 18 Which seith to the kyng, Thou art apostata; which clepith the duykis vnpitouse, `ethir vnfeithful. 19 `Which takith not the persoones of princes, nether knew a tyraunt, whanne he stryuede ayens a pore man; for alle men ben the werk of hise hondis. 20 Thei schulen die sudeynli, and at mydnyyt puplis schulen be troblid, `ethir schulen be bowid, as othere bookis han; and schulen passe, and schulen take `awei `a violent man with out hond. 21 For the iyen of God ben on the weies of men, and biholdith alle goyngis of hem. 22 No derknessis ben, and no schadewe of deeth is, that thei, that worchen wickidnesse, be hid there; 23 for it is `no more in the power of man, that he come to God in to doom. 24 God schal al to-breke many men and vnnoumbrable; and schal make othere men to stonde for hem. 25 For he knowith the werkis of hem; therfor he schal brynge yn niyt, and thei schulen be al to-brokun. 26 He smoot hem, as vnpitouse men, in the place of seinge men. 27 Whiche yeden awei fro hym bi `castyng afore, and nolden vndurstonde alle hise weies. 28 That thei schulden make the cry of a nedi man to come to hym, and that he schulde here the vois of pore men. 29 For whanne he grauntith pees, who is that condempneth? Sithen he hidith his cheer, who is that seeth hym? And on folkis and on alle men `he hath power `to do siche thingis. 30 Which makith `a man ypocrite to regne, for the synnes of the puple. 31 Therfor for Y haue spoke to God, also Y schal not forbede thee. 32 If Y erride, teche thou me; if Y spak wickidnesse, Y schal no more adde. 33 Whether God axith that wickidnesse of thee, for it displeside thee? For thou hast bigunne to speke, and not Y; that if thou knowist ony thing betere, speke thou. 34 Men vndurstondyng, speke to me; and a wise man, here me. 35 Forsothe Joob spak folili, and hise wordis sownen not techyng. 36 My fadir, be Joob preuede `til to the ende; ceesse thou not fro the man of wickidnesse, 37 `that addith blasfemye ouer hise synnes. Be he constreyned among vs in the meene tyme; and thanne bi hise wordis stire he God to the doom.

35 Therfor Helyu spak eft these thingis, Whethir thi thouyt semeth euene, 2 `ether riytful, to thee, that thou schuldist seie, Y am riytfulere than God? 3 For thou seidist, That, that is good, plesith not thee; ethir what profitith it to thee, if Y do synne? 4 Therfor Y schal answeere to thi wordis, and to thi frendis with thee. 5 Se thou, and biholde heuene, and biholde thou the eir, that God is hiyere than thou. 6 If thou synnest `ayens hym, what schalt thou anoye hym? and if thi wickidnessis ben multiplied, what schalt thou do ayens hym? 7 Certis if thou doist iustli, what schalt thou yyue to hym; ether what schal he take of thin hond? 8 Thi wickidnesse schal anoie a man, which is lijk thee; and thi riytfulnesse schal helpe the sone of a man. 9 Thei schulen cry for the multitude of fals chalengeris, and thei schulen weile for the violence of the arm of tirauntis. 10 And Joob seide not, Where is God, that made me, and that yaf songis in the nyyt? 11 Which God techith vs aboue the beestis of erthe, and he schal teche vs aboue the briddis of heuene. 12 There thei schulen crye, and God schal not here, for the pride of yuele men. 13 For God schal not here with out cause, and Almyyti God schal biholde the causis of ech man. 14 Yhe, whanne thou seist, He biholdith not; be thou demed bifor hym, and abide thou hym. 15 For now he bryngith not in his strong veniaunce, nether vengith `greetli felonye. 16 Therfor Joob openith his mouth in veyn, and multiplieth wordis with out kunnyng.

of pouert, 9 he schal shewe to hem her werkis, and her grete

For thou, Lord; hast set me syngulerli in hope.

5 To the ouercomere on the eritagis, the song of Dauid. Lord, perseyue thou my wordis with eeris; vndurstonde thou my cry. 2 Mi kyng, and my God; yyue thou tent to the vois of my preier. 3 For, Lord, Y schal preie to thee; here thou eerly my vois. 4 Eerli Y schal stonde nyy thee, and Y schal se; for thou art God not willynge wickidnesse. 5 Nethir an yuel willid man schal dwelle bisidis thee; nethir vniust men schulen dwelle bifor thin iyen. 6 Thou hatist alle that worchen wickidnesse; thou schalt leese alle that speken leesyng. The Lord schal holde abhomyable a manquellere, and gileful man. 7 But, Lord, in the multitude of thi merci Y schal entre in to thin hows; Y schal worschipe to thin hooli temple in thi drede. 8 Lord, lede thou forth me in thi riytfulnesse for myn enemyes; dresse thou my weie in thi siyt. 9 For whi treuthe is not in her mouth; her herte is veyn. 10 Her throte is an opyn sepulcre, thei diden gilefuli with her tungis; God, deme thou hem. Falle thei doun fro her thouytis, vp the multitude of her wickidnessis caste thou hem doun; for, Lord, thei han terrid thee to ire. 11 And alle that hopen in thee, be glad; thei schulen make fulli ioye with outen ende, and thou schalt dwelle in hem. And alle that louen thi name schulen haue glorie in thee; 12 for thou schalt blesse a iust man. Lord, thou hast corouned vs, as with the scheeld of thi good wille.

6 To the ouercomere in salmes, the salm of Dauid, `on the eiythe. Lord, repreue thou not me in thi stronge veniaunce; nether chastice thou me in thin ire. 2 Lord, haue thou merci on me, for Y am sijk; Lord, make thou me hool, for alle my boonys ben troblid. 3 And my soule is troblid greetli; but thou, Lord, hou long? 4 Lord, be thou conuertid, and delyuere my soule; make thou me saaf, for thi merci. 5 For noon is in deeth, which is myndful of thee; but in helle who schal knoueleche to thee? (Sheol h7585) 6 I traueilide in my weilyng, Y schal waische my bed bi ech nyyt; Y schal moiste, `ether make weet, my bedstre with my teeris. 7 Myn iye is disturblid of woodnesse; Y waxe eld among alle myn enemyes. 8 Alle ye that worchen wickidnesse, departe fro me; for the Lord hath herd the vois of my wepyng. 9

The Lord hath herd my bisechyng; the Lord hath resseyued my preier. 10 Alle my enemyes be aschamed, and be disturblid greetli; be thei turned togidere, and be thei aschamed ful swiftli.

7 For the ignoraunce of Daud, which he songe to the Lord on the wordis of Ethiopien, the sone of Gemyny. Mi Lord God, Y haue hopid in thee; make thou me saaf fro alle that pursuen me, and delyuere thou me. 2 Lest ony tyme he as a lioun rauysche my soule; the while noon is that ayenbieth, nether that makith saaf. 3 Mi Lord God, if Y dide this thing, if wickidnesse is in myn hondis; 4 if Y `yeldide to men yeldynge to me yuels, falle Y `bi disseruyng voide fro myn enemyes; 5 myn enemy pursue my soule, and take, and defoule my lijf in erthe; and brynge my glorie in to dust. 6 Lord, rise thou vp in thin ire; and be thou reysid in the coostis of myn enemyes. 7 And, my Lord God, rise thou in the comaundement, which thou `hast comaundid; and the synagoge of puplis schal cumpasse thee. 8 And for this go thou ayen an hiy; the Lord demeth puplis. Lord, deme thou me bi my riytfulnesse; and bi myn innocence on me. 9 The wickidnesse of synneris be endid; and thou, God, sekyng the hertis and reynes, schalt dresse a iust man. 10 Mi iust help is of the Lord; that makith saaf riytful men in herte. 11 The Lord is a iust iuge, stronge and pacient; whether he is wrooth bi alle daies? 12 If ye ben `not conuertid, he schal florische his swerd; he hath bent his bouwe, and made it redi. 13 And therynne he hath maad redi the vessels of deth; he hath fulli maad his arewis with brennynge thingis. 14 Lo! he conseyuede sorewe; he peynfuli brouyte forth vnriyfulnessse, and childide wickidnesse. 15 He openide a lake, and diggide it out; and he felde in to the dich which he made. 16 His sorewe schal be turned in to his heed; and his wickidnesse schal come down in to his necke. 17 I schal knouleche to the Lord bi his riytfulnessse; and Y schal synge to the name of the hiyeste Lord.

8 To the ouercomere, for pressours, the salm of Daud. Lord, thou art oure Lord; thi name is ful wonderful in al erthe. For thi greet doying is reysid, aboue heuenes. 2 Of the mouth of yonge children, not spekyng and soukyng mylk, thou madist perfitli heriying, for thin enemyes; that thou destrie the enemy and auengere. 3 For Y schal se thin heuenes, the werkis of thi fyngis; the moone and sterris, whiche thou hast foundid. 4 What is a man, that thou art myndeful of hym; ethir the sone of a virgyn, for thou visitist hym? 5 Thou hast maad hym a litil lesse than aungels; thou hast corouned hym with glorie and onour, 6 and hast ordeyned hym aboue the werkis of thin hondis. 7 Thou hast maad suget alle thingis vndur hise feet; alle scheep and oxis, ferthermore and the beestis of the feeld; 8 the briddis of the eir, and the fischis of the see; that passen bi the pathis of the see. 9 Lord, `thou art oure Lord; thi name `is wondrous in al erthe.

9 In to the ende, for the pryuytees of the sone, the salm of Daud. Lord, Y schal knouleche to thee in al myn herte; Y schal telle alle thi merueils. 2 Thou hiyeste, Y schal be glad, and Y schal be fulli ioieful in thee; Y schal synge to thi name. 3 For thou turnest myn enemy abac; thei schulen be maad feble, and schulen perische fro thi face. 4 For thou hast maad my doom and my cause; thou, that demest riytfulnesse, `hast set on the trone. 5 Thou blamedist hethene men, and the wickid perischide; thou hast do awei the name of hem in to the world, and in to the world of world. 6 The swerdis of the enemy failiden in to the ende; and thou hast distried the citees of hem. The mynde of hem perischide with sown; 7 and the Lord dwellith with outen ende. He made redi his trone in doom; and he schal deme the world in equite, 8 he schal deme puplis in riytfulnesse. 9 And the Lord is maad refuyt, `ether help, `to a pore man; an helpere in couenable tymes in tribulacioun. 10 And thei, that knowen thi name, haue hope in thee; for thou, Lord, hast not forsake hem that seken thee. 11 Synge ye to the Lord, that dwellith in Syon; telle ye hise studyes among hethene men. 12 God foryetith not the cry of pore men; for he hath mynde, and sekith the blood of hem. 13 Lord, haue thou merci on me; se thou my mekenesse of myn enemyes. 14 Which enhaunsist me fro the yatis of deeth; that Y telle alle thi preisyngis in the yatis of the douyter of Syon.

15 Y schal `be fulli ioyeful in thin helthe; hethene men ben fast set in the perisching, which thei maden. In this snare, which thei hidden, the foot of hem is kauyt. 16 The Lord makynge domes schal be knowun; the synnere is takun in the werkis of hise hondis. 17 Synneris be turned togidere in to helle; alle folkis, that foryeten God. (Sheol h7585) 18 For the foryetyng of a pore man schal not be in to the ende; the pacience of pore men schal not perische in to the ende. 19 Lord, rise thou vp, a man be not coumfortid; folkis be demyd in thi siyt. 20 Lord, ordeine thou a lawe makere on hem; wite folkis, that thei ben men.

10 Lord, whi hast thou go fer awei? thou dispisist `in couenable tymes in tribulacioun. 2 While the wickid is proud, the pore man is brent; thei ben taken in the counsels, bi whiche thei thenken. 3 Forwhi the synnere is preisid in the desiris of his soule; and the wickid is blessid. 4 The synnere `wraththide the Lord; vp the multitude of his ire he schal not seke. 5 God is not in his siyt; hise weies ben defoulid in al tyme. God, thi domes ben takun awei fro his face; he schal be lord of alle hise enemyes. 6 For he seide in his herte, Y schal not be moued, fro generacioun in to generacioun without yuel. 7 `Whos mouth is ful of cursyng, and of bitternesse, and of gyle; trauel and sorewe is vndur his tunge. 8 He sittith in aspies with ryche men in priuytees; to sle the innocent man. 9 Hise iyen biholden on a pore man; he settith aspies in hid place, as a lioun in his denne. He settith aspies, for to rauysche a pore man; for to rauysche a pore man, while he drawith the pore man. 10 In his snare he schal make meke the pore man; he schal bowe hym silf, and schal falle doun, whanne he hath be lord of pore men. 11 For he seide in his herte, God hath foryete; he hath turned awei his face, that he se not in to the ende. 12 Lord God, rise thou vp, and thin hond be enhaunsid; foryete thou not pore men. 13 For what thing terride the wickid man God to wraththe? for he seide in his herte, God schal not seke. 14 Thou seest, for thou biholdist trauel and sorewe; that thou take hem in to thin hondis. The pore man is left to thee; thou schalt be an helpere to the fadirles and modirles. 15 Al to-breke thou the arme of the synnere, and yuel willid; his synne schal be souyt, and it schal not be foundun. 16 The Lord schal regne with outen ende, and in to the world of world; folkis, ye schulen perische fro the lond of hym. 17 The Lord hath herd the desir of pore men; thin eere hath herd the makyng redi of her herte. 18 To deme for the modirles `and meke; that a man `leie to no more to `magnyfie hym silf on erthe.

11 To the victorie of Daud. I triste in the Lord; hou seien ye to my soule, Passe thou ouere in to an hil, as a sparowe doith? 2 For lo! synneris han bent a bouwe; thei han maad redi her arowis in an arowe caas; `for to schete in derknesse riytful men in herte. 3 For thei han distryed, whom thou hast maad perfit; but what dide the riytful man? 4 The Lord is in his hooli temple; he is Lord, his seete is in heuene. Hise iyen biholden on a pore man; hise iyelidis axen the sones of men. 5 The Lord axith a iust man, and vnfeithful man; but he, that loueth wickidnesse, hatith his soule. 6 He schal reyne snaris on `synful men; fier, brymston, and the spirit of tempestis ben the part of the cuppe of hem. 7 For the Lord is riytful, and louede riytfulnessis; his cheer siy equite, `ethir euennesse.

12 To the victorie on the eiYTE, the song of Daud. Lord, make thou me saaf, for the hooli failide; for treuthis ben maad litle fro the sones of men. 2 Thei spaken veyn thingis, ech man to hys neiybore; thei han gileful lippis, thei spaken in herte and herte. 3 The Lord destrie alle gileful lippis; and the greet spekyng tunge. 4 Whiche seiden, We schulen magnyfie oure tunge, our lippis ben of vs; who is oure lord? 5 For the wretchednesse of nedye men, and for the weilyng of pore men; now Y schal ryse vp, seith the Lord. I schal sette inhelt he; Y schal do tristili in hym. 6 The spechis of the Lord ben chast spechis; siluer examynynd bi fier, preued fro erthe, purgid seuen fold. 7 Thou, Lord, schalt kepe vs; and thou `schalt kepe vs fro this generacioun with outen

13 To the victorie of Daud. Lord, hou long foryetist thou me in to the ende? hou long turnest thou awei thi face fro me? 2 Hou long schal Y sette counsels in my soule; sorewe in my herte bi dai? 3 Hou long schal myn enemy be reisd on me? 4 My Lord God, biholde thou, and here thou me. Liytne thou myn iyen, lest ony tyme Y slepe in deth; 5 lest ony tyme myn enemye seie, Y hadde the maistri ayens hym. Thei, that troblen me, schulen haue ioie, if Y schal be stirid; forsothe Y hopide in thi merci. 6 Myn herte schal fulli haue ioie in thin helthe; Y schal synge to the Lord, that yyueth goodis to me, and Y schal seie salm to the name of the hiyeste Lord.

14 To the victorie of Daud. The vnwise man seide in his herte, God is not. Thei ben corrupt, and ben maad abhominable in her studies; noon is that doith good, noon is til to oon. 2 The Lord bihelde fro heuene on the sones of men; that he se, if ony is vndurstondynge, ethir sekyng God. 3 Alle bowiden awei, togidere thei ben maad vnprofitable; noon is that doth good, noon is `til to oon. The throte of hem is an open sepulcre, thei diden gilefuli with her tungis; the venym of snakis is vndur her lippis. Whos mouth is ful of cursyng and bittirnesse; her feet ben swift to schede out blood. Sorewe and cursidnesse is in the weies of hem, and thei knewen not the weie of pees; the drede of God is not bifer her iyen. 4 Whether alle men that worchen wickidnesse schulen not knowe; that deuowren my puple, as mete of breed? 5 Thei clepeden not the Lord; thei trembliden there for drede, where was no drede; 6 for the Lord is in a riytful generacioun. Thou hast schent the counsel of a pore man; for the Lord is his hope. 7 Who schal yyue fro Syon helthe to Israel? Whanne the Lord hath turned awei the caitifte of his puple; Jacob schal `fulli be ioiful, and Israel schal be glad.

15 Lord, who schal dwelle in thi tabernacle; ether who schal reste in thin hooli hil? 2 He that entrith with out wem; and worchith riytfulnesse. 3 Which spekith treuthe in his herte; which dide not gile in his tunge. Nethir dide yuel to his neiybore; and took not schenschip ayens hise neiyboris. 4 A wickid man is brouyt to nouyt in his siyt; but he glorifieth hem that dreden the Lord. Which swerith to his neiybore, and disseyueth not; 5 which yaf not his money to vsure; and took not yiftis on the innocent. He, that doith these thingis, schal not be moued with outhende.

16 `Of the meke and symple, the salm of Daud. Lord, kepe thou me, for Y haue hopid in thee; 2 Y seide to the Lord, Thou art my God, for thou hast no nede of my goodis. 3 To the seyntis that ben in the lond of hym; he made wondurful alle my willis in hem. 4 The sikenessis of hem ben multiplied; aftirward thei hastiden. I schal not gadire togidere the conuenticulis, `ethir litle couentis, of hem of bloodis; and Y schal not be myndeful of her names bi my lippis. 5 The Lord is part of myn eritage, and of my passion; thou art, that schalt restore myn eritage to me. 6 Coordis felden to me in ful clere thingis; for myn eritage is ful cleer to me. 7 I schal blesse the Lord, that yaf vndurstondyng to me; ferthermore and my reynes blameden me `til to nytt. 8 I purueide euere the Lord in my siyt; for he is on the riythalf to me, that Y be not moued. 9 For this thing myn herte was glad, and my tunge ioyede fulli; ferthermore and my fleisch schal reste in hope. 10 For thou schalt not forsake my soule in helle; nether thou schalt yyue thin hooli to se corrupcioun. (Sheol h7585) 11

Thou hast maad knowun to me the weies of lijf; thou schalt fille me of gladnesse with thi cheer; delityngis ben in thi riythalf `til in to the ende.

17 The preier of Daud. Lord, here thou my riytfulnesse; biholde thou my preier. Perseuye thou with eeris my preier; not maad in gileful lippis. 2 Mi doom come `forth of thi cheer; thin iyen se equite. 3 Thou hast preued myn herte, and hast visitid in niyt; thou hast examynyd me bi fier, and wickidnesse is not foundun in me. 4 That my mouth speke not the werkis of men; for the wordis of thi lippis Y haue kept harde weies. 5 Make thou perfit my goyngis in thi pathis; that my steppis be not moued. 6 I criede, for thou, God, herdist me; bowe doun thin eere to me, and here thou my wordis. 7 Make wondurful thi mercies; that makist saaf `men hopynge in thee. 8 Kepe thou me as the appil of the iye; fro `men ayenstondyng the riyt hond. Keuere thou me vndur the schadewe of thi wyngis; 9 fro the face of vnpitouse men, that han turmentid me. Myn enemyes han cumpassid my soule; 10 thei han closide togidere her fatnesse; the mouth of hem spak pride. 11 Thei castiden me forth, and han cumpassid me now; thei ordeyneden to bowe doun her iyen in to erthe. 12 Thei, as a lioun maad redi to prey, han take me; and as the whelp of a lioun dwellynge in hid places. 13 Lord, rise thou vp, bifer come thou hym, and disseyue thou hym; delyuere thou my lijf fro the `vnpitouse, 14 delyuere thou thi swerd fro the enemyes of thin hond. Lord, departe thou hem fro a fewe men of `the lond in the lijf of hem; her wombe is fillid of thin hid thingis. Thei ben fillid with sones; and thei leften her relifis to her litle children. 15

But Y in riytfulnesse schal appere to thi siyt; Y schal be fillid, whanne thi glorie schal appere.

18 To victorie, the word of the Lord to Daud; which spak the wordis of this song, in the dai in which the Lord delyuerede hym fro the hond of alle hise enemyes, and fro the hond of Saul; and he seide: Lord, my strengthe, Y schal loue thee; the Lord is my stidfastnesse, and my refuyt, and mi deliuerere. 2 Mi God is myn helpere; and Y schal hope in to hym. My defendere, and the horn of myn helthe; and myn vptakere. 3 I schal preise, and ynwardli clepe the Lord; and Y schal be saaf fro myn enemyes. 4 The sorewis of deth cumpassiden me; and the strondis of wickidnesse disturbliden me. 5 The sorewis of helle cumpassiden me; the snaris of deeth `bifor ocupieden me. (Sheol h7585) 6 In my tribulacioun Y inwardli clepide the Lord; and Y criede to my God. And he herde my vois fro his hooli temple; and my cry in his siyt entride in to hise eeris. 7 The erthe was mouede togidere, and tremblede togidere; the foundementis of hillis weren troblid togidere, and weren moued togidere; for he was wrooth to hem. 8 Smoke stiede in the ire of hym, and fier brente out fro his face; coolis weren kyndlid of hym. 9 He bowide doun heuenes, and cam doun; and derknesse was vndur hise feet. 10 And he stiede on cherubym, and flei; he fley ouer the pennes of wyndis. 11 And he settide derknesses his hidyng place, his tabernacle `in his cumpas; derk water was in the cloudes of the lowere eir. 12 Ful cleer cloudis passiden in his siyt; hail and the coolis of fier. 13 And the Lord thundrid fro heuene; and the hiyeste yaf his vois, hail and the coolis of fier `camen doun. 14 And he sente hise arowis, and distriede tho men; he multipliede leytis, and disturblide tho men. 15 And the wellis of watris apperiden; and the foundementis of the erthe weren schewid. Lord, of thi blamyng; of the brething of the spirit of thin ire. 16 He sente fro the hiyeste place, and took me; and he took me fro many watris. 17 He delyuerede me fro my strongeste enemyes; and fro hem that hatiden me, fro thei weren coumfortid on me. 18 Thei camen bifor me in the dai of my turment; and the Lord was maad my defendere. 19 And he ledde out me in to breede; he maad me saaf, for he wolde me. 20 And the Lord schal yelde to me bi my riytfulnesse; and he schal yelde to me bi the clenness of myn hondis. 21 For Y kepte the weies of the Lord; and Y dide not vnfeithfuli fro my God. 22 For alle hise domes ben in my siyt; and Y puttide not awei fro me hise riytfulnessis. 23 And Y schal be vnwemmed with hym; and Y schal kepe me fro my wickidnesse. 24 And the Lord schal yelde to me bi my riytfulnesse; and bi the clenness of myn hondis in the siyt of hise iyen. 25 With the hooli, thou schalt be hooli; and with `a man innocent, thou schalt be innocent. 26 And with a chosun man, thou schalt be chosun; and with a weiward man, thou schalt be weiward. 27 For thou schalt make saaf a meke puple; and thou schalt make meke the iyen of proude men. 28 For thou, Lord, liytne my lanterne; my God, liytne thou my derknessis. 29 For bi thee Y schal be delyuered fro temptacioun; and in my God Y schal `go ouer the wal. 30 Mi God, his weie is vndefoulid, the speches of the Lord ben examyned bi fier; he is defendere of alle men hopynge in hym. 31 For whi, who is God out takun the Lord? ethir who is God outakun oure God? 32 God that hath gird me with vertu; and hath set my weie vnwemmed.

33 Which made perfit my feet as of hertis; and ordeynynge me on hiye thingis. 34 Which techith myn hondis to batel; and thou hast set myn armys as a brasun bouwe. 35 And thou hast youe to me the kyuaryng of thin helthe; and thi riythond hath vptake me. And thi chastisyng amendide me in to the ende; and thilke chastisyng of thee schal teche me. 36 Thou alargidist my paaces vndur me; and my steppis ben not maad vnstidefast. 37 Y schal pursue myn enemyes, and Y schal take hem; and Y schal not turne til thei failen. 38 I schal al to-breke hem, and thei schulen not mowe stonde; thei schulen falle vndur my feet. 39 And thou hast gird me with vertu to batel; and thou hast `supplauntid, ether disseyued, vndur me men risynge ayens me. 40 And thou hast youe myn enemyes abac to me; and thou hast distried `men hatynge me. 41 Thei crieden, and noon was that maad hem saaf; `thei crieden to the Lord, and he herde not hem. 42 And Y schal al to-breke hem, as dust bifer the face of wynd; Y schal do hem awei, as the cley of stretis. 43 Thou schalt delyuere me fro ayenseiyngis of the puple; thou schalt sette me in to the heed of folkis. 44 The puple, which Y knewe not, seruede me; in the herynge of eere it obeiede to me. 45 Alien sones lieden to me, alien sones wexiden elde; and crokiden fro thi pathis. 46 The Lord lyueth, and my God be blessid; and the God of myn helthe be enhaunsid. 47 God, that yauest veniaunces to me, and makist suget puplis vndur me; my delyuerere fro my wrathful enemyes. 48 And thou schalt enhaunse me fro hem, that risen ayens me; thou schalt delyuere me fro a wickid man. 49 Therfor, Lord, Y schal knouleche to thee among naciouns; and Y schal seie salm to thi name. 50 Magnyfiynge the helthis of his kyng; and doynge merci to his crist Daud, and to his seed til in to the world.

19 To victorie, the salm of Daud. Heuenes tellen out the glorie of God; and the firmament tellith the werkis of hise hondis. 2 The

dai tellith out to the dai a word; and the nytyt schewith kunnyng to the nytyt. 3 No langagis ben, nether wordis; of whiche the voices of hem ben not herd. 4 The soun of hem yede out in to al erthe; and the wordis of hem `yeden out in to the endis of the world. 5 In the sunne he hath set his tabernacle; and he as a spouse comynge forth of his chaumbre. He fulli ioyede, as a giaunt, to renne his weie; 6 his goynge out was fro hiyeste heuene. And his goyng ayen was to the hiyeste therof; and noon is that hidith hym silf fro his heet. 7 The lawe of the Lord is with out wem, and conuertith soulis; the witnessyng of the Lord is feithful, and yyueth wisdom to litle children. 8 The riytfulnessis of the Lord ben riytful, gladdynge hertis; the comaundement of the Lord is cleere, liytynge iyen. 9 The hooli drede of the Lord dwellith in to world of world; the domes of the Lord ben trewe, iustified in to hem silf. 10 Desirable more than gold, and a stoon myche preciouise; and swettere than hony and honycoomb. 11 `Forwhi thi seruaunt kepith thoo; myche yeldyng is in tho to be kept. 12 Who vndurstondith trespassis? make thou me cleene fro my priuy synnes; 13 and of alien synnes spare thi seruaunt. `If the forseid defaultis ben not, Lord, of me, than Y schal be with out wem; and Y schal be clensid of the mooste synne. 14 And the spechis of my mouth schulen be, that tho plese; and the thenkyng of myn herte euere in thi siyt. Lord, myn helpere; and myn ayenbiere.

20 To victorie, the salm of Daud. The Lord here thee in the dai of tribulacioun; the name of God of Jacob defende thee. 2 Sende he helpe to thee fro the hooli place; and fro Syon defende he thee. 3 Be he myndeful of al thi sacrifice; and thi brent sacrifice be maad fat. 4 Yyue he to thee afir thin herte; and conferme he al thi counsel. 5 We schulen be glad in thin helthe; and we schulen be magnyfied in the name of oure God. 6 The Lord fille alle thin axyngis; nowe Y haue knowe, that the Lord hath maad saaf his crist.  my soule schal fulli haue ioye in the Lord; and schal delite on his helthe. 10 Alle my boonys schulen seie, Lord, who is lijk thee?

 Thou delyuerist a pore man fro the hond of his strengere; a nedi man and pore fro hem that diuersely rauischen hym. 11 Wickid witnessis risynge axiden me thingis, whiche Y knewe not. 12 Thei yeldiden to me yuels for goodis; bareynnesse to my soule. 13 But whanne thei weren diseseful to me; Y was clothid in an heire. I mekide my soule in fastyng; and my preier schal be turned `with ynne my bosum. 14 I pleside so as oure neiybore, as oure brother; Y was `maad meke so as morenyng and sorewful. 15 And thei weren glad, and camen togidere ayens me; turmentis weren gaderid on me, and Y knew not.
16 Thei weren scaterid, and not compunct, thei temptiden me, thei scorniden me with mowyng; thei gnastiden on me with her teeth. 17 Lord, whanne thou schalt biholde, restore thou my soule fro the wickidnesse of hem; `restore thou myn oon aloone fro liouns. 18 I schal knowleche to thee in a greet chirche; Y schal herie thee in a sad puple. 19 Thei that ben aduersaries wickidli to me, haue not ioye on me; that haten me with out cause, and bikenen with iyen. 20 For sotheli thei spaken pesibli to me; and thei spekyng in wrathfulnesse of erthe thouyten giles. 21 And thei maden large her mouth on me; thei seiden, Wel, wel! oure iyen han sien. 22 Lord, thou hast seen, be thou not stille; Lord, departe thou not fro me. 23 Rise vp, and yyue tent to my doom; my God and my Lord, biholde in to my cause.
24 Mi Lord God, deme thou me bi thi riytfulnesse; and haue thei not ioie on me. 25 Seie thei not in her hertis, Wel, wel, to oure soule; nether seie thei, We schulen deuoure hym. 26 Shame thei, and drede thei togidere; that thanken for myn yuels. Be thei clothid with schame and drede; that speken yuele thingis on me. 27 Haue thei ful ioie, and be thei glad that wolen my riytfulnesse; and seie thei euere, The Lord be magnyfied, whiche wolen the pees of his seruaunt. 28 And my tunge schal bithenke thi riytfulnesse; al day thin heriyng.

36 `To victorie, to Daid, `the seruaunt of the Lord. The vniust man seide, that he trespassse in hym silf; the drede of God is not bifer hise iyen. 2 For he dide gilefuli in the siyt of God; that his wickidnesse be foundun to hatrede. 3 The wordis of his mouth ben wickidnesse and gile, he nolde vndirstonde to do wel. 4 He thouyte wickidnesse in his bed, he stood nyy al weie not good; forsothe he hatide not malice. 5 Lord, thi merci is in heuene; and thi treuthe is `til to cloudis. 6 Thi riytfulnesse is as the hillis of God; thi domes ben myche depthe of watris. Lord, thou schalt saue men and beestis; 7 as thou, God, hast multiplied thi merci. But the sones of men; schulen hope in the hilyng of thi wyngis. 8 Thei schulen be fillid gretli of the plentee of thin hows; and thou schalt yyue drynke to hem with the steef stream of thi likyng. 9 For the wel of life is at thee; and in thi liyt we schulen se liyt. 10 Lord, sette forth thi mercy to hem, that knowen thee; and thi riytfulnesse to hem that ben of riytful herte. 11 The foot of pryde come not to me; and the hond of the synnere moue me not. 12 There thei felden down, that worchen wickidnesse; thei ben cast out, and myyten not stonde.

37 To Dauith. Nyle thou sue wickid men; nether loue thou men doynge wickidnesse. 2 For thei schulen wexe drie swiftli as hey; and thei schulen falle doun soone as the wortis of eerbis. 3 Hope thou in the Lord, and do thou goodnesse; and enhabite thou the lond, and thou schalt be fed with hise richessis. 4 Delite thou in the Lord; and he schal yyue to thee the axyngis of thin herte. 5 Schewe thi weie to the Lord; and hope thou in hym, and he schal do. 6 And he schal lede out thi riytfulnesse as liyt, and thi doom as myddai; 7 be thou suget to the Lord, and preye thou hym. Nile thou sue hym, that hath prosperite in his weie; a man doynge vnriytfulnessis. 8 Ceese thou of ire, and forsake woodnesse; nyle thou sue, that thou do wickidli. 9 For thei, that doen wickidli, schulen be distried; but thei that suffren the Lord, schulen enerite the lond. 10 And yit a lital, and a synnere schal not be; and thou schalt seke his place, and schalt not fynde. 11 But mylde men schulen enerite the lond; and schulen delite in the multitude of pees. 12 A synnere schal asprie a riytful man; and he schal gnaste with hise teeth on hym.

13 But the Lord schal scorne the synnere; for he biholdith that his day cometh. 14 Synners drowen out swerd; thei benten her bouwe. To disseyue a pore man and nedi; to strangle riytful men of herte. 15 Her swerd entre in to the herte of hem silf; and her bouwe be brokun. 16 Betere is a lital thing to a iust man; than many richessis of synneris. 17 For the armes of synneris schal be al to-brokun; but the Lord confermeth iust men. 18 The Lord knowith the daies of vnwemmed; and her heritage schal be withouten ende. 19 Thei schulen not be schent in the yuel tyme, and thei schulen be fillid in the dayes of hungur; 20 for synneris schulen perische. Forsothe anoon as the enemyes of the Lord ben onourid, and enhaunsid; thei failynge schulen faile as smoke. 21 A synnere schal borewe, and schal not paie; but a iust man hath merci, and schal yyue. 22 For thei that blessen the Lord schulen enerite the lond; but thei that cursen hym schulen perische. 23 The goyng of a man schal be dressid anentis the Lord; and he schal wilne his weie. 24 Whanne he fallith, he schal not be hurtlid doun; for the Lord vndursettith his hond. 25 I was yongere, and sotheli Y wexide eld, and Y siy not a iust man forsakun; nethir his seed sekyng breed. 26 Al dai he hath merci, and leeneth; and his seed schal be in blessyng. 27 Bouwe thou awei fro yuel, and do good; and dwelle thou in to the world of world. 28 For the Lord loueth doom, and schal not forsake hise seyntis; thei schulen be kept with outen ende. Vniust men schulen be punyschid; and the seed of wickid men schal perische. 29 But iust men schulen enerite the lond; and schulen enabite theronne in to the world of world. 30 The mouth of a iust man schal bithenke wisdom; and his tunge schal speke doom. 31 The lawe of his God is in his herte; and hise steppis schulen not be disseyued. 32 A synnere biholdith a iust man; and sekith to sle hym. 33 But the Lord schal not forsake hym in hise hondis; nethir schal dampne hym, whanne it schal be demed ayens hym. 34 Abide thou the Lord, and kepe thou his weie, and he schal enhaunse thee, that bi eritage thou take the lond; whanne synneris schulen perische, thou schalt se. 35 I siy a wickid man enhaunsid aboue; and reisid vp as the cedris of Liban. 36 And Y passide, and lo! he was not; Y souyte hym, and his place is not foundun. 37 Kepe thou innocence, and se equite; for tho ben relikis to a pesible man. 38 Forsothe vniust men schulen perische; the relifs of wickid men schulen perische togidere. 39 But the helthe of iust men is of the Lord; and he is her defendere in the tyme of tribulacioun. 40 And the Lord schal helpe hem, and schal make hem fre, and he schal delyuere hem fro synneris; and he schal saue hem, for thei hopiden in hym.

38 The salm of Daud, to bythenke on the sabat. Lord, repreue thou not me in thi strong veniaunce; nether chastice thou me in thin ire. 2 For thin arowis ben fitchid in me; and thou hast confermed thin hond on me. 3 Noon helthe is in my fleisch fro the face of thin ire; no pees is to my boonys fro the face of my synnes. 4 For my wickidnessis ben goon ouer myn heed; as an heuy birthun, tho ben maad heuy on me. 5 Myn heelid woundis weren rotun, and ben brokun; fro the face of myn vnwisdom. 6 I am maad a wretche, and Y am bowid doun til in to the ende; al dai Y entride sorewful. 7 For my leendis ben fillid with scornyngis; and helthe is not in my fleisch. 8 I am turmentid, and maad low ful greetli; Y roride for the weilyng of myn herte. 9 Lord, al my desire is bifer thee; and my weilyng is not hid fro thee. 10 Myn herte is disturblid in me, my vertu forsook me; and the liyt of myn iyen forsook me, and it is not with me. 11 My frendis and my neyboris neiyden; and stoden ayens me. And thei that weren bisidis me stoden afer; 12 and thei diden violence, that souyten my lijf. And thei that souyten yuels to me, spaken vanytees; and thouyten gilis al dai. 13 But Y as a deaf man herde not; and as a doubt man not openynge his mouth. 14 And Y am maad as a man not herynge; and not hauynge repreuyngis in his mouth. 15 For, Lord, Y hopide in thee; my Lord God, thou schalt here me.
16 For Y seide, Lest ony tyme myn enemyes haue ioye on me; and the while my feet ben mouyd, thei spaken grete thingis on me. 17 For Y am redi to betyngis; and my sorewe is euere in my siyt. 18 For Y schal telle my wickidnesse; and Y schal thenke for my synne. 19 But myn enemyes lyuen, and ben confermed on me; and thei ben multiplyed, that haten me wickidli. 20 Thei that yelden yuels for goodis, backbitiden me; for Y suede goodnesse. 21 My Lord God, forsake thou not me; go thou not awei fro me. 22 Lord God of myn helthe; biholde thou in to myn help.

39 For victorie, to Iditum, the song of Daud. I seide, Y schal kepe my weies; that Y trespasse not in my tunge. I settide kepyng to my mouth; whanne a synnere stood ayens me. 2 I was doumb, and was mekid ful gretli, and was stille fro goodis; and my sorewe was renulid. 3 Myn herte was hoot with ynne me; and fier schal brenne out in my thenkyng. 4 I spak in my tunge; Lord, make thou myn eende knowun to me. And the noumbre of my daies what it is; that Y wite, what failith to me. 5 Lo! thou hast set my daies mesurable; and my substaunce is as nouyt bifor thee. Netheles al vanytee; ech man lyuyng. 6 Netheles a man passith in ymage; but also he is disturblid veynli. He tresorith; and he noot, to whom he `schal gadere tho thingis. 7 And now which is myn abiding? whether not the Lord? and my substaunce is at thee. 8 Delyuere thou me fro alle my wickidnessis; thou hast youe me schenschip to the vnkunnyng. 9 I was doumbe, and openyde not my mouth; for thou hast maad, 10 remoue thou thi woundis fro me. 11 Fro the strengthe of thin hond Y failide in blamyngis; for wickidnesse thou hast chastisid man. And thou madist his lijf to faile as an yreyne; netheles ech man is disturblid in veyn. 12 Lord, here thou my preier and my bisechyng; perseyue thou with eeris my teeris. 13 Be thou not stille, for Y am a comelyng at thee; and a pilgrime, as alle my fadris. Foryyue thou to me, that Y be refreischid, bifor that Y go; and Y schal no more be.

40 For victorie, the song of Daud. Y abidyng abood the Lord; and he yaf tent to me. 2 And he herde my preieris; and he ledde out me fro the lake of wretchidnesse, and fro the filthe of draft. And he ordeynede my feet on a stoon; and he dresside my goyngis. 3 And he sente in to my mouth a newe song; a song to oure God. Many men schulen se, and schulen drede; and schulen haue hope in the Lord. 4 Blessid is the man, of whom the name of the Lord is his hope; and he bihelde not in to vanitees, and in to false woodnesses. 5 Mi Lord God, thou hast maad thi merueils manye; and in thi thouytis noon is, that is lijk thee. I teld, and Y spak; and thei ben multiplid aboue noumbre. 6 Thou noldist sacrifice and offryng; but thou madist perfilti eeris to me. Thou axidist not brent sacrifice, and sacrifice for synne; 7 thanne Y seide, Lo! Y come. In the heed of the book it is writun of me, 8 that Y schulde do thi wille; my God, Y wolde; and thi lawe in the myddis of myn herte. 9 I telde thi riytfulnesse in a greet chirche; lo! Y schal not refreine my lippis, Lord, thou wistist. 10 I hidde not thi riytfulnesse in myn herte; Y seide thi treuthe and thin helthe. I hidde not thi mercy and thi treuthe; fro a myche counsel. 11 But thou, Lord, make not fer thi merciful doyngis fro me; thi mercy and treuthe euere token me vp. 12 For whi yuels, of whiche is no noumbre, cumpassiden me; my wickidnessis token me, and y myyte not, that Y schulde se. Tho ben multiplid aboue the heeris of myn heed; and myn herte forsook me. 13 Lord, plesse it to thee, that thou delyuere me; Lord, biholde thou to helpe me. 14 Be thei schent, and aschamed togidere; that seken my lijf, to take awei it. Be thei turned abac, and be thei schamed; that wolen yuels to me. 15 Bere thei her confusioun anoon; that seien to me, Well! well! that is, in scorn. 16 Alle men that seken thee, be fulli ioyful, and be glad on thee; and seie thei, that louen thin helthe, The Lord be magnyfyed euere. 17 Forsothe Y am a beggere and pore; the Lord is bisi of me. Thou arte myn helpere and my defendere; my God, tarie thou not.

41 For victorie, the song of Daud. Blessid is he that vndurstondith `on a nedi man and pore; the Lord schal delyuere hym in the yuel dai. 2 The Lord kepe hym, and quykene hym, and make hym blesful in the lond; and bitake not hym in to the wille of his enemyes. 3 The Lord bere help to hym on the bed of his sorewe; thou hast ofte turned al his bed stre in his sijknesse. 4 I seide, Lord, haue thou mercy on me; heele thou my soule, for Y synnede ayens thee. 5 Myn enemyes seiden yuels to me; Whanne schal he die, and his name schal perische? 6 And if he entride for to se, he spak veyn thingis; his herte gaderide wickidnesse to hym silf. 7 He yede with out forth; and spak to the same thing. Alle myn enemyes bacbitiden pryuyli ayens me; ayens me thei thouyten yuels to me. 8 Thei ordeineden an yuel word ayens me; Whether he that slepith, schal not leie to, that he rise ayen? 9 For whi the man of my pees, in whom Y hopide, he that eet my looues; made greet disseit on me. 10 But thou, Lord, haue merci on me, and reise me ayen; and Y schal yelde to hem. 11 In this thing Y knew, that thou woldist me; for myn enemye schal not haue ioye on me. 12 Forsothe thou hast take me vp for ynnocence; and hast confermed me in thi siyt with outen ende. 13 Blessid be the Lord God of Israel, fro the world and in to the world; be it doon, be it doon.

Y come, and appere bifer the face of God? 3 Mi teeris weren looues to me bi dai and nyyt; while it is seid to me ech dai, Where is thi God? 4 I bithouyte of these thingis, and Y schedde out in me my soule; for Y schal passe in to the place of the wondrousful tabernacle, til to the hows of God. In the vois of ful out ioiying and knouelechyng; is the sown of the etere. 5 Mi soule, whi art thou sory; and whi disturblast thou me? Hope thou in God, for yit Y schal knoueleche to hym; he is the helthe of my cheer, 6 and my God. My soule is disturblid at my silf; therfor, God, Y schal be myndeful of thee fro the lond of Jordan, and fro the lital hil Hermonyim. 7 Depthe clepith depthe; in the vois of thi wyndows. Alle thin hiye thingis and thi wawis; passiden ouer me. 8 The Lord sente his merci in the dai; and his song in the nyyt. 9 At me is a preier to the God of my lijf; Y schal seie to God, Thou art my `takere vp. Whi foryetist thou me; and whi go Y sorewful, while the enemy turmentith me? 10 While my boonys ben brokun togidere; myn enemyes, that troblen me, dispiseden me. While thei seien to me, bi alle daies; Where is thi God? 11 Mi soule, whi art thou sori; and whi disturblast thou me? Hope thou in God, for yit Y schal knoueleche to hym; `he is the helthe of my cheer, and my God.

43 God, deme thou me, and departe thou my cause fro a folc not hooli; delyuere thou me fro a wickid man, and gileful. 2 For thou art God, my strengthe; whi hast thou put me abac, and whi go Y sorewful, while the enemy turmentith me? 3 Sende out thi liyt, and thi treuthe; tho ledden me forth, and brouyten in to thin hooli hil, and in to thi tabernaclis. 4 And Y schal entre to the auter of God; to God, that gladith my yongthe. God, my God, Y schal knowleche to thee in an harpe; my soule, 5 whi art thou sory, and whi troblist thou me? Hope thou in God, for yit Y schal knoueleche to hym; he is the helthe of my cheer, and my God.

44 To victorie, lernyng to the sones of Chore. God, we herden with oure eeris; oure fadris telden to vs. The werk, which thou wrouytist in the daies of hem; and in elde daies. 2 Thin hond lost hethene men, and thou plauntidist hem; thou turmentidist puplis, and castidist hem out. 3 For the children of Israel weldiden the lond not bi her swerd; and the arm of hem sauysde not hem. But thi ryht hond, and thin arm, and the liytynyng of thi cheer; for thou were plesid in hem. 4 Thou art thi silf, my kyng and my God; that sendist helthis to Jacob. 5 Bi thee we schulen wyndewe oure enemyes with horn; and in thi name we schulen dispise hem, that risen ayen vs. 6 For Y schal not hope in my bouwe; and my swerd schal not saue me. 7 For thou hast saued vs fro men turmentinge vs; and thou hast schent men hatinge vs. 8 We schulen be preysid in God al dai; and in thi name we schulen knoueleche to thee in to the world. 9 But now thou hast put vs abac, and hast schent vs; and thou, God, schalt not go out in oure vertues. 10 Thou hast turned vs awei bihynde aftir oure enemyes; and thei, that hatiden vs, rauyschiden dyuerseli to hem silf. 11 Thou hast youe vs as scheep of meetis; and among hethene men thou hast scaterid vs. 12 Thou hast seeld thi puple with out prijs; and multitude was not in the chaungyngis of hem. 13 Thou hast set vs schenschip to oure neiyboris; mouwyng and scorn to hem that ben in oure cumpas. 14 Thou hast set vs into licnesse to hethene me; stiryng of heed among puplis. 15 Al dai my schame is ayens me; and the schenscipe of my face hilide me. 16 Fro the vois of dispisere, and yuele spekere; fro the face of enemy, and pursuere. 17 Alle these thingis camen on vs, and we han not foryete thee; and we diden not wickidli in thi testament. 18 And oure herte yede not awei bihynde; and thou hast bowid awei oure pathis fro thi weie. 19 For thou hast maad vs lowe in the place of turment; and the schadewe of deth hilide vs. 20 If we foryaten the name of oure God; and if we helden forth oure hondis to an alien God. 21 Whether God schal not seke these thingis? for he knowith the hid thingis of herte. 22 For whi we ben slayn al dai for thee; we ben demed as scheep of sleynge. 23 Lord, rise vp, whi slepist thou? rise vp, and putte not awei in to the ende. 24 Whi turnest thou awei thi face? thou foryetist oure pouert, and oure tribulacioun. 25 For oure lijf is maad low in dust; oure wombe is glued togidere in the erthe. 26 Lord, rise vp thou, and helpe vs; and ayenbie vs for thi name.

45 To the ouercomere for the lilies, the most loued song of lernyng of the sones of Chore. Myn herte hath teld out a good word; Y seie my workis `to the kyng. Mi tunge is `a penne of a writere; writynge swiftli. 2 Crist, thou art fairer in schap than the sones of men; grace is spred abroad in thi lippis; therfor God blessid thee withouten ende. 3 Be thou gird with thi swerd; on thi hipe most myytili. 4 Biholde thou in thi schaplynnesse and thi fairnesse; come thou forth with prosperite, and regne thou. For treuthe, and myldenesse, and riytfulnesse; and thi riyt hond schal lede forth thee wondurfuli. 5 Thi scharpe arowis schulen falle in to the hertis of the enemyes of the kyng; pupilis schulen be vndur thee. 6 God, thi seete is in to the world of world; the yerde of thi rewme is a yerde of riyt reulyng, `ethir of equite. 7 Thou louedist riytfulnesse, and hatidist wickidnesse; therfor thou, God, thi God, anoyntide thee with the oile of gladnesse, more than thi felowis. 8 Mirre, and gumme, and cassia, of thi clothis, of the `housis yuer; 9 of whiche the douytris of kyngis delitiden thee. A queen stood nyy on thi riyt side in clothing ouergildid; cumpassid with dyuersitee. 10 Douyter, here thou, and se, and bowe doun thin eere; and foryete thi puple, and the hows of thi fadir. 11 And the kyng schal coueyte thi fairnesse; for he is thi Lord God, and thei schulen worschipe hym. 12 And the douytris of Tire in yiftis; alle the riche men of the puple schulen biseche thi cheer. 13 Al the glorie of that douyter of the kyng is with ynne in goldun hemmes; 14 sche is clothid aboute with dyuersitees. Virgyns schulen be brouyt to the kyng aftir hir; hir neyboressis schulen be brouyt to thee. 15 Thei schulen be brouyt in gladnesse, and ful out ioiying; thei schulen be brouyt in to the temple of the kyng. 16 Sones ben borun to thee, for thi fadris; thou schalt ordeyne hem princes on al erthe. 17 Lord, thei schulen be myndeful of thi name; in ech generacioun, and in to generacioun. Therfor pupilis schulen knouleche to thee withouten ende; and in to the world of world.

46 To the ouercomere, the song of the sones `of Chore, `for yongthis. Oure God, thou art refuyt, and vertu; helpere in tribulacions, that han founde vs greetly. 2 Therfor we schulen not drede, while the erthe schal be troblid; and the hillis schulen be borun ouer in to the herte of the see. 3 The watris of hem sowneden, and weren troblid; hillis weren troblid togidere in the strengthe of hym. 4 The feersnesse of flood makith glad the citee of God; the hiyeste God hath halewid his tabernacle. 5 God in the myddis therof schal not be moued; God schal helpe it eerli in the grey morewtid. 6 Hethene men weren disturblid togidere, and rewmes weren bowid doun; God yaf his vois, the erthe was moued. 7 The Lord of vertues is with vs; God of Jacob is oure vptakere. 8 Come ye, and se the werkis of the Lord; whiche wondris he hath set on the erthe. 9 He doynge awei batels til to the ende of the lond; schal al to-brese bouwe, and schal breke togidere armuris, and schal brenne scheldis bi fier. 10 Yyue ye tent, and se ye, that Y am God; Y schal be enhaunsid among hethene men; and Y schal be enhaunsid in erthe. 11 The Lord of vertues is with vs; God of Jacob is oure vptakere.

47 To victorie, a salm to the sones of Chore. Alle ye folkis, make ioie with hondis; synge ye hertli to God in the vois of ful out ioi yng. 2 For the Lord is hiy and ferdful; a greet kyng on al erthe. 3 He made puplis suget to vs; and hethene men vndur oure feet. 4 He chees his eritage to vs; the fairnesse of Jacob, whom he louyde. 5 God stiede in hertli song; and the Lord in the vois of a trumpe. 6 Synge ye to oure God, synge ye; synge ye to oure kyng, synge ye. 7 For God is kyng of al erthe; synge ye wiseli. 8 God schal regne on hethene men; God sittith on his hooli seete. 9 The princes of puplis ben gaderid togidere with God of Abraham; for the stronge goddis of erthe ben reysid greetli.

48 The song of salm, of the sones of Chore. The Lord is greet, and worthi to be preisid ful myche; in the citee of oure God, in the hooli hil of hym. 2 It is foundid in the ful out ioi yng of al erthe; the hil of Syon; the sidis of the north, the citee of the greet kyng. 3 God schal be knowun in the housis therof; whanne he schal take it. 4 For lo! the kyngis of erthe weren gaderid togidere; thei camen into o place. 5 Thei seyng so wondriden; thei weren disturblid, thei weren mouyd togidere, tremblyng took hem. 6 There sorewis as of a womman trauelynge of child; 7 in a greet spirit thou schalt al to-breke the schippis of Tharsis. 8 As we herden, so we sien, in the citee of the Lord of vertues, in the citee of oure God; God hath foundid that citee with ouden and departe ye the housis of hym, that ye telle out in an other Whiche tristen in her owne vertu; and han glorie in the multitude and he schal not yyue to God his plesyng. 8 And he schal not yyue the prijs of raunsum of his soule; and he schal trauele with

And iust men schulen be lordis of hem in the morewtid; and the helpe of hem schal wexe eld in helle, for the glorie of hem. (Sheol h7585) 15 Netheles God schal ayenbie my soule from the power of helle; whanne he schal take me. (Sheol h7585) 16 Drede thou not, whanne a man is maad riche; and the glorie of his hows is multiplied. 17 For whanne he schal die, he schal not take alle thingis; and his glorie schal not go doun with him. 18 For his soule schal be blessid in his lijf; he schal knouleche to thee, whanne thou hast do wel to hym. 19 He schal entre til in to the generaciouns of hise fadris; and til in to with outen ende he schal not se liyt. 20 A man, whanne he was in honour, vndurstood not; he is comparisound to vnwise beestis, and is maad lijk to tho.

ben myne; werk beestis, and oxis in hillis. 11 I haue knowe alle the volatils of heuene; and the fairnesse of the feeld is with me. 12 If Y schal be hungry, Y schal not seie to thee; for the world and the fulnesse therof is myn. 13 Whether Y schal eete the fleischis of boolis? ethir schal Y drynke the blood of geet buckis? 14 Offre thou to God the sacrifice of heri yng; and yelde thin avowis to the hiyeste God. 15 And inwardli clepe thou me in the dai of tribulacioun; and Y schal delyuere thee, and thou schalt onoure me. 16 But God seide to the synnere, Whi tellist thou out my riytfulnessis; and takist my testament bi thi mouth? 17 Sotheli thou hatidist lore; and hast cast away my wordis bihynde. 18 If thou siyest a theef, thou `hast runne with hym; and thou settidist thi part with avowtraris. 19 Thi mouth was plenteuouse of malice; and thi tunge medlide togidere giles. 20 Thou sittynge spakist ayens thi brother, and thou settidist sclaudir ayens the sone of thi modir; 21 thou didist these thingis, and Y was stille. Thou gessidist wickidli, that Y schal be lijk thee; Y schal repreue thee, and Y schal sette ayens thi face. 22 Ye that foryeten God, vndurstonde these thingis; lest sum tyme he rauysche, and noon be that schal delyuere. 23 The sacrifice of heri yng schal onoure me; and there is the weie, where ynne Y schal schewe to hym the helthe of God.

haue do yuel bifer thee; that thou be iustified in thi wordis, and ouercome whanne thou art demed. For lo! 5 Y was conseyuend in wickednessis; and my modir conceyuende me in synnes. 6 For lo! thou louedist treuthe; thou hast schewid to me the vncerteyn thingis, and pryuy thingis of thi wisdom. 7 Lord, spreng thou me with ysop, and Y schal be clensid; waische thou me, and Y schal be maad whijt more than snow. 8 Yyue thou ioie, and gladnesse to myn heryng; and boonys maad meke schulen ful out make ioie. 9 Turne awei thi face fro my synnes; and do awei alle my wickidnesses. 10 God, make thou a clene herte in me; and make thou newe a riytful spirit in my entrailis. 11 Caste thou me not awei fro thi face; and take thou not awei fro me thin hooli spirit. 12 Yiue thou to me the gladnesse of thyn helthe; and conferme thou me with the principal spirit. 13 I schal teche wickid men thi weies; and vnfeithful men schulen be conuertid to thee. 14 God, the God of myn helthe, delyuere thou me fro bloodis; and my tunge schal ioyfuli synge thi riytfulnesse. 15 Lord, `opene thou my lippis; and my mouth schal telle thi preysyng. 16 For if thou haddist wold sacrifice, Y hadde youe; treuli thou schalt not delite in brent sacrifices. 17 A sacrifice to God is a spirit troblid; God, thou schalt not dispise a contrit herte and `maad meke. 18 Lord, do thou benygneli in thi good wille to Syon; that the wallis of Jerusalem be bildid. 19 Thanne thou schalt take plesauntli the sacrifice of riytfulnesse, offryngis, and brent sacrifices; thanne thei schulen putte calues on thin auter.

52 To victorie, the salm of Dauid, `whanne Doeck Idumei cam, and telde to Saul, and seide to him, Dauid cam in to the hows of Abymelech. What hast thou glorie in malice; which art miyti in wickidnesse? 2 Al dai thi tunge thouyte vnriytfulnesse; as a scharp rasour thou hast do gile. 3 Thou louedist malice more than benygnte; `thou louedist wickidnesse more than to speke equite. 4 Thou louedist alle wordis of casting down; with a gileful tunge. 5 Therfor God schal distrie thee in to the ende, he schal drawe thee out bi the roote, and he schal make thee to passe awei fro thi tabernacle; and thi roote fro the lond of lyuyng men. 6 lust men schulen se, and schulen drede; and thei schulen leiye on hym, and thei schulen seie, Lo! 7 the man that settide not God his helpere. But he hopide in the multitude of his richessis; and hadde maistrie in his vanite. 8 Forsothe Y, as a fruytful olyue tre in the hous of God; hopide in the merci of God with outen ende, and in to the world of world. 9 Y schal knowleche to thee in to the world, for thou hast do mercy to me; and Y schal abide thi name, for it is good in the siyt of thi seyntis.

53 To the ouercomer bi the quere, the lernyng of Daud. The vnwise man seide in his herte; God is not. Thei ben `corrupt, and maad abhomyneable in her wickidnessis; noon is that doith good. 2 God bihelde fro heuene on the sones of men; that he se, if `ony is vndurstondyng, ether sekyng God. 3 Alle boweden awei, thei ben maad vnprofitable togidre; noon is that doith good, ther is not til to oon. 4 Whether alle men, that worchen wickidnesse, schulen not wite; whiche deuouren my puple as the mete of breed? 5 Thei clepiden not God; there thei trembliden for drede, where no drede was. For God hath scaterid the boones of hem, that plesen men; thei ben schent, for God hath forsake hem. 6 Who schal yyue fro Syon helthe to Israel? whanne the Lord hath turned the caitifte of his puple, Jacob schal `ful out make ioie, and Israel schal be glad.

54 To victorie in orguns, ether in salmes, the lernyng of Daud, `whanne Zyfeys camen, and seiden to Saul, Whethir Daud is not hid at vs? God, in thi name make thou me saaf; and in thi vertu deme thou me. 2 God, here thou my preier; with eeris perseyue thou the wordis of my mouth. 3 For aliens han rise ayens me, and stronge men souyten my lijf; and thei settiden not God bifer her siyt. 4 For, lo! God helpith me; and the Lord is vptaker of my soule. 5 Turne thou awei yuelis to myn enemyes; and leese thou hem in thi treuthe. 6 Wilfuli Y schal make sacrifice to thee; and, Lord, Y schal knoueleche to thi name, for it is good. 7 For thou delyueridist me fro al tribulacioun; and myn iye dispiside on myn

55 `In Ebreu thus, To victorie in orguns, the lernyng of Daud.
`In Jeroms translacioun thus, To the ouercomer in salmes of my biseching; 2 yyue thou tent to me, and here thou me. I am sorewful in myn exercising; and Y am disturblid of the face of the enemye, 3 and of the tribulacioun of the synner. For thei bowiden wickidnessis in to me; and in ire thei weren diseseiful to me. 4 Myn herte was disturblid in me; and the drede of deth felde on me. 5 Drede and trembling camen on me; and derknessis hiliden me. 6 And Y seide, Who schal yyue to me fetheris, as of a culuer; and Y schal fle, and schal take rest? 7 Lo! Y yede fer awei, and fledde; and Y dwellide in wildirnesse. 8 I abood hym, that made me saaf fro the litalnesse, `ether drede, of spirit; and fro tempest. 9 Lord, caste thou down, departe thou the tungis of hem; for Y siy wickidnesse and ayenseiying in the citee. 10 Bi dai and nyyt wickidnesse schal cumpasse it on the wallis therof; 11 and trauel and vnriyftfulnesse ben in the myddis therof. And vsure and gile failide not; fro the stretis therof. 12 For if myn enemye hadde cursid me; sotheli Y hadde suffride. And if he, that hatide me, hadde spoke greet thingis on me; in hap Y hadde hid me fro hym. 13 But thou art a man of o wille; my leeder, and my knowun. 14 Which tokist togidere swete meetis with me; we yeden with consent in the hous of God. 15 Deth come on hem; and go thei doun quyk in to helle. For weiwardnessis ben in the dwelling places of hem; in the myddis of hem. (Sheol h7585) 16 But Y criede to thee, Lord; and the Lord sauede me. 17 In the euentid and morewtid and in myddai Y schal telle, and schewe; and he schal here my vois. 18 He schal ayenbie my soule in pees fro hem, that neiyen to me; for among manye thei weren with me. 19 God schal here; and he that is bifore the worldis schal make hem low. For chaungyng is not to hem, and thei dredden not God; 20 he holdith forth his hoond in yelding. Thei defouliden his testament, 21 the cheris therof weren departid fro ire; and his herte neiyede. The wordis therof weren softer than oyle; and tho ben dartis. 22 Caste thi cure on the Lord, and he schal fulli nurische thee; and he schal not yyue with outen ende flotering to a iust man. 23 But thou, God, schalt lede hem forth; in to the pit of deth. Menquelleris and gilours schulen not haue half her daies; but, Lord, Y schal hope in thee.

defouliden me al dai; for manye fyteris weren ayens me. 3 Of the hynesse of dai Y schal drede; but God Y schal hope in thee. 4 In God Y schal preise my wordis; Y hopide in God, Y schal not drede what thing fleisch schal do to me. 5 Al dai thei cursiden my wordis; ayens me alle her thouytis weren in to yuel. 6 Thei schulen dwelle, and schulen hide; thei schulen asprie myn heele. 7 As thei abiden my lijf, for nouyt schalt thou make hem saaf; in ire thou schalt breke togidre pupilis. 8 God, Y schewide my lijf to thee; thou hast set my teeris in thi siyt. As and in thi biheest, Lord; 9 thanne myn enemyes schulen be turned abak. In what euere dai Y schal inwardli clepe thee; lo! Y haue knowe, that thou art my God. 10 In God Y schal preise a word; in the Lord Y schal preise a word. 11 Y schal hope in God; Y schal not drede what thing a man schal do to me. 12 God, thin auowis ben in me; whiche Y schal yelde heriyngis to thee. 13 For thou hast delyuerid my lijf fro deth, and my feet fro slidyng; that Y please bifore God in the liyt of hem that lyuen.

57 `In Ebreu thus, To the victorie, lese thou not the semeli song, `ether the `swete song of Daud, `whanne he fledde fro the face of Saul in to the denne. `In Jeroms translacioun thus, For victorie, that thou lese not Daud, meke and simple, whanne he fledde fro the face of Saul in to the denne. God, haue thou merci on me, haue thou merci on me; for my soule tristith in thee. And Y schal hope in the schadewe of thi wyngis; til wickidnesse passe. 2 I schal crye to God altherhiyeste; to God that dide wel to me. 3 He sente fro heuene, and delyuerede me; he yaf in to schenschip hem that defoulen me. God sente his merci and his treuthe, 4 and delyuerede my soule fro the myddis of whelpis of liouns; Y slepte disturblid. The sones of men, the teeth of hem ben armuris and arowis; and her tunge is a scharp swerd. 5 God, be thou enhaunsid aboue heuenes; and thi glorie aboue al erthe. 6 Thei maden redi a snare to my feet; and thei greetly boweded my lijf. Thei delueden a dicke bfore my face; and thei felden doun in to it. 7 God, myn herte is redi, myn herte is redi; Y schal singe, and Y schal seie salm. 8 Mi glorie, rise thou vp; sautrie and harpe, rise thou vp; Y schal rise vp eerli. 9 Lord, Y schal knoueleche to thee among puplis; and Y schal seie salm among hethene men. 10 For thi merci is magnified til to heuenes; and thi treuthe til to cloudis. 11 God, be thou enhaunsid aboue heuenes; and thi glorie ouer al erthe.

58 `In Ebreu thus, To victorie; `lese thou not the swete song, ether the semely salm, of Daud. `In Jeroms translacioun thus, To the ouercomere, that thou lese not Daud, meke and simple. Forsothe if ye speken riytfulnesse verili; ye sones of men, deme riytfuli. 2 For in herte ye worchen wickidnesse in erthe; youre hondis maken redi vnriytfulnessis. 3 Synneris weren maad aliens fro the wombe; thei erriden fro the wombe, thei spaken false thingis. 4 Woodnesse is to hem, bi the licnesse of a serpent; as of a deaf snake, and stoppynge hise eeris. 5 Which schal not here the vois of charmeris; and of a venym makere charmynge wiseli. 6 God schal al to-breke the teeth of hem in her mouth; the Lord schal breke togidere the greet teeth of liouns. 7 Thei schulen come to nouyt, as water rennynge awei; he bente his bouwe, til thei ben maad sijk. 8 As wexe that fletith awei, thei schulen be takun awei; fier felle aboue, and thei siyen not the sunne. 9 Bfore that youre thornes vndurstoden the ramne; he swolewith hem so in ire, as lyuyng men. 10 The iust man schal be glad, whanne he schal se veniaunce; he schal waische hise hondis in the blood of a synner. 11 And a man schal seie treuli, For fruyt is to a iust man; treuli God is demynge hem in erthe.

59 `In Jeroms translacioun thus, To the ouercomer, that thou delyuer thou me fro myn enemyes; and delyuer thou me fro hem that risen ayens me. 2 Delyuer thou me fro hem that worchen wickidnesse; and saue thou me fro menquelleris. 3 For lo! thei han take my soule; stronge men fellen in on me. 4 Nethir my wickidnesse, nether my synne; Lord, Y ran with out wickidnesse, and dresside `my werkis. 5 Rise vp thou in to my meetyng, and se; and thou, Lord God of vertues, art God of Israel. Yyue thou tent to visite alle folkis; do thou not merci to alle that worchen wickidnesse. 6 Thei schulen be turned at euentid, and thei as doggis schulen suffre hungir; and thei schulen cumpas the citee.

7 Lo! thei schulen speke in her mouth, and a swerd in her lippis; for who herde? 8 And thou, Lord, schalt scorne hem; thou schalt bringe alle folkis to nouyt. 9 I schal kepe my strengthe to thee; 10 for God is myn vptaker, my God, his mercy schal come byfore me. 11 God schewide to me on myn enemyes, slee thou not hem; lest ony tyme my puples foryete. Scatere thou hem in thi vertu; and, Lord, my defender, putte thou hem down. 12 Putte thou down the trespass of her mouth, and the word of her lippis; and be thei takun in her pride. And of cursyng and of leesyng; thei schulen be schewid in the endyng. 13 In the ire of ending, and thei schulen not be; and thei schulen wite, that the Lord schal be Lord of Jacob, and of the endis of erthe. 14 Thei hungur; and thei schulen cumpas the citee. 15 Thei schulen be scaterid abroad, for to eete; sotheli if thei ben not fillid, and thei schulen grutche. 16 But Y schal synge thi strengthe; and eerli Y schal enhaunse thi merci. For thou art maad myn vptaker; and my refuyt, in the dai of my tribulacioun. 17 Myn helper, Y schal synge to thee; for thou art God, myn vptaker, my God, my mercy.

60 `In Ebreu thus, To victorie, on the witnessyng of roose, the swete song of Daud, to teche, `whanne he fauyte ayens Aram of floodis, and Sirie of Soba; and Joab turnede ayen, and smoot Edom in the `valei of salt pittis, twelue thousynde. `In Jeroms translacioun thus, To the ouercomer for lilies, the witnessing of meke and parfit Daud, to teche, whanne he fauyte ayens Sirie of Mesopotamye, and Soba, and so forth. God, thou hast put awei vs, and thou hast distried vs; thou were wrooth, and thou hast do merci to vs. 2 Thou mouedist the erthe, and thou disturblidist it; make thou hool the sorewis therof, for it is moued. 3 Thou schewidist harde thingis to thi puple; thou yauest drynk to vs with the wyn of compunccioun. 4 Thou hast youe a signefiying to hem that dreden thee; that thei fle fro the face of the bouwe. That thi derlyngis be delyuered; 5 make thou saaf with thi riyt hond `the puple of Israel, and here thou me. 6 God spak bi his hooli; Y schal be glad, and Y schal departe Siccimam, and Y schal meete the greet valei of tabernaclis. 7 Galaad is myn, and Manasses is myn; and Effraym is the strengthe of myn heed. 8 Juda is my king; Moab is the pot of myn hope. In to Idumee Y schal stretche forth my scho; aliens ben maad suget to me. 9 Who schal lede me in to a citee maad strong; who schal leede me til in to Ydumee? 10 Whether not thou, God, that hast put

is veyn. 12 In God we schulen make vertu; and he schal bringe to nouyt hem that disturblen vs.

61 To the victorie on orgun, to Daud hym silf. God, here thou

62 To the victorie on Iditum, the salm of Daud. Whether my

For whi he is bothe my God, and myn heelte; my `taker vp, Y helpere, Y schal not passe out. 7 Myn helthe, and my glorie is in God; God is the yyuer of myn help, and myn hope is in God. 8 Al the gaderyng togidere of the puple, hope ye in God, schede to the deth of hem; and stidefastnesse in the sikenesse of hem.

5 Thei ben not in the trauel of men; and thei schulen not be betun

74 The lernyng of Asaph. God, whi hast thou put awei in which thou haddist in possessioun fro the bigynnyng. Thou ayenbouytist the yerde of thin eritage; the hille of Syon in which thou dwellidist ther ynne. 3 Reise thin hondis in to the prides of hem; hou grete thingis the enemy dide wickidli in the hooli. 4 And thei that hatiden thee; hadden glorie in the myddis of thi solempnete. 5 Thei settiden her signes, `ethir baneris, signes on the hiyeste, as in the outgoing; and thei knewen not. 6 As in a wode of trees thei heweden doun with axis the yatis therof in to it silf; thei castiden doun it with an ax, and a brood fallinge ax. 7 Thei brenten with fier thi seyntuarie; thei defouliden the tabernacle of thi name in erthe. 8 The kynrede of hem seiden togidere in her herte; Make we alle the feest daies of God to ceesse fro the erthe. 9 We han not seyn oure signes, now `no schal the enemye seie dispit? the aduersarie territh to ire thi name in to the ende. 11 Whi turnest thou awei thin hoond, and `to drawe out thi riythond fro the myddis of thi bosum, til in to the ende? 12 Forsothe God oure kyng bifore worldis; wrouyte heelthe in the mydis of erthe. 13 Thou madist sad the see bi thi vertu; thou hast troblid the heedis of dragouns in watris. 14 Thou hast broke the heedis of `the dragoun; thou hast youe hym to mete to the puplis of Ethiopiens. 15 Thou hast broke wellis, and strondis; thou madist drie the flodis of Ethan. 16 The dai is thin, and the niyt is thin; thou madist the moreutid and the sunne. 17 Thou madist alle the endis of erthe; somer and veer tyme, thou fourmedist tho. 18 Be thou myndeful of this thing, the enemye hath seid schenschip to the Lord; and the vnwijs puple hath excitid to ire thi name. 19 Bitake thou not to beestis men knoulechange to thee; and foryete thou not in to the ende the soulis of thi pore men. 20 Biholde in to thi testament; for thei that ben maad derk of erthe, ben fillid with the housis of wickidnessis. 21 A meke man be not turned awei maad aschamed; a pore man and nedi schulen herie thi name. 22 God, rise vp, deme thou thi cause; be thou myndeful of thin vpbreidyngis, of tho that ben al dai of the vnwise man. 23 Foryete thou not the voices of thin enemyes; the pride of hem that haten thee, stieth euere.

75 `To the ouercomere; leese thou not the salm of the song of Asaph. God, we schulen knouleche to thee, `we schulen knouleche; and we schulen inwardli clepe thi name. 2 We schulen telle thi merueilis; whanne Y schal take tyme, Y schal deme riytfulnesses. 3 The erthe is meltid, and alle that duellen ther ynne; Y confermede the pileris therof. 4 I seide to wickid men, Nyle ye do wickidli; and to trespassouris, Nyle ye enhaunce the horn. 5 Nyle ye reise an hiy youre horn; nyle ye speke wickidnesse ayens God. 6 For nether fro the eest, nethir fro the west, nethir fro desert hillis; for God is the iuge. 7 He mekith this man, and enhaunsith hym; for a cuppe of cleene wyn ful of meddling is in the hoond of the Lord. 8 And he bowide of this in to that; nethes the drast therof is not anyntischid; alle synneris of erthe schulen drinke therof. 9 Forsothe Y schal telle in to the world; Y schal synge to God of Jacob. 10 And Y schal breke alle the hornes of synneris; and the hornes of the iust man schulen be enhaunsid.

God is knowun in Judee; his name is greet in Israel. 2 And his place is maad in pees; and his dwellyng is in Syon. 3 Ther he brak poweris; bowe, scheeld, swerd, and batel. 4 And thou, God, liytneest wondirfuli fro euerlastyng hillis; 5 alle vnwise men of herte weren troblid. Thei slepten her sleep; and alle men founden no thing of richessis in her hondis. 6 Thei that stieden on horsis; slepten for thi blamyng, thou God of Jacob. 7 Thou art feerful, and who schal ayenstonde thee? fro that tyme thin ire. 8 Fro heuene thou madist doom herd; the erthe tremblide, and restide. 9 Whanne God roos vp in to doom; to make saaf al the mylde men of erthe. 10 For the thouyt of man schal knouleche to thee; and the relifs of thouyt schulen make a feeste dai to thee. 11 Make ye a vow, and yelde ye to youre Lord God; alle that bringen yiftis in the cumpas of it. 12 To God ferdful, and to him that takith awei the spirit of prynces; to the ferdful at the kyngis of erthe.

77 `To the ouercomere on Yditum, `the salm of Asaph. With my vois Y criede to the Lord; with my vois to God, and he yaf tent to me. 2 In the dai of my tribulacioun Y souyte God with myn hondis; in the nytt `to fore hym, and Y am not disseyued. Mi soule forsook to be coumfortid; 3 Y was myndeful of God, and Y delitide, and Y was exercisid; and my spirit failide. 4 Myn iyen bifore took wakyngis; Y was disturblid, and Y spak not. 5 I thouyte elde daies; and Y hadde in mynde euerlastinge yeeris. 6 And Y thouyte in the nytt with myn herte; and Y was exercisid, and Y clensid my spirit. 7 Whether God schal caste awei with outen ende; ether schal he not lei to, that he be more plesid yit? 8 Ethir schal he kitte awei his merci into the ende; fro generacioun in to generacioun? 9 Ethir schal God foryete to do mercy; ethir schal he withholde his mercies in his ire? 10 And Y seide, Now Y bigan; this is the chaunging of the riythond of `the hiye God. 11 I hadde mynde on the werkis of the Lord; for Y schal haue mynde fro the bigynnyng of thi merueilis. 12 And Y schal thenke in alle thi werkis; and Y schal be occupied in thi fyndyngis. 13 God, thi weie was in the hooli; what God is greet as oure God? 14 thou art God, that doist merueilis. Thou madist thi vertu knowun among puplis; 15 thou ayenbouytist in thi arm thi puple, the sones of Jacob and of Joseph. 16 God, watris sien thee, watris sien thee, and dredden; and depthis of watris weren disturblid. 17 The multitude of the soun of watris; cloudis yauen vois. 18 For whi thin arewis passen; the vois of thi thundir was in a wheel. Thi liytynyngis schyneden to the world; the erthe was moued, and tremblid. 19 Thi weie in the see, and thi pathis in many watris; and thi steppis schulen not be knowun. 20 Thou leddist forth thi puple as scheep; in the hond of Moyses and of Aaron.

78 The lernyng of Asaph. Mi puple, perseyue ye my lawe; bowe youre eere in to the wordis of my mouth. 2 I schal opene my mouth in parablis; Y schal speke perfite resouns fro the bigynnyng. 3 Hou grete thingis han we herd, aud we han knowe tho; and oure fadris. telden to vs. 4 Tho ben not hid fro the sones of hem; in anothir generacioun. And thei telden the heriyngis of the Lord, and the vertues of hym; and hise merueilis, whyche he dide. 5 And he reise witnessyng in Jacob; and he settide lawe in Israel. Hou grete thingis comaundide he to oure fadris, to make tho knowun to her sonen; 6 that another generacioun knowe. Sonen, that schulen be born, and schulen rise vp; schulen telle out to her sones. 7 That thei sette her hope in God, and foryete not the werkis of God; and that thei seke hise comaundementis.

8 Lest thei be maad a schrewid generacioun; and terryng to wraththe, as the fadris of hem. A generacioun that dresside not his herte; and his spirit was not bileued with God. 9 The sones of Efraym, bendinge a bouwe and sendynge arowis; weren turned in the dai of batel. 10 Thei kepten not the testament of God; and thei nolden go in his lawe. 11 And thei foryaten hise benefices; and hise merueils, whiche he schewide to hem. 12 He dide merueils bfore the fadris of hem in the loond of Egipt; in the feeld of Taphneos. 13 He brak the see, and ledde hem thorou; and he ordeynede the watris as in a bouge. 14 And he ledde hem forth in a cloude of the dai; and al niyt in the liytning of fier. 15 He brak a stoon in deseert; and he yaf watir to hem as in a myche depthe. 16 And he ledde watir out of the stoon; and he ledde forth watris as floodis. 17 And thei `leiden to yit to do synne ayens hym; thei excitiden hiye God in to ire, in a place with out water. 18 And thei temptiden God in her hertis; that thei axiden meetis to her lyues. 19 And thei spaken yuel of God; thei seiden, Whether God may make redi a bord in desert? 20 For he smoot a stoon, and watris flowiden; and streemys yeden out in aboundaunce. Whether also he may yyue breed; ether make redi a bord to his puple? 21 Therfor the Lord herde, and delaiede; and fier was kindelid in Jacob, and the ire of God stiede on Israel. 22 For thei bileueden not in God; nether hopiden in his heelthe. 23 And he comaundide to the cloudis aboue; and he openyde the yatis of heuene. 24 And he reynede to hem manna for to eete; and he yaf to hem breed of heuene. 25 Man eet the breed of aungels; he sent to hem meetis in aboundaunce. 26 He turnede ouere the south wynde fro heuene; and he brouyte in bi his vertu the weste wynde. 27 And he reynede fleischis as dust and he brouyte her desire to hem; 30 thei weren not defraudid of her desier. Yit her metis weren in her mouth; 31 and the ire of God stiede on hem. And he killide the fatte men of hem; and he lettide the chosene men of Israel. 32 In alle these thingis thei synneden yit; and bileuede not in the merueils of God. 33 And the daies of hem failiden in vanytee; and the yeeris of hem faileden with haste. 34 Whanne he killide hem, thei souyten hym; and turneden ayen, and eerli thei camen to hym. 35 And thei bithouyten, that God is the helper of hem; and `the hiy God is the ayenbier of hem. 36 And thei loueden hym in her mouth; and with her tunge thei lieden to hym. 37 Forsothe the herte of hem was not riytful with hym; nethir thei weren had feithful in his testament. 38 But he is merciful, and he schal be maad merciful to the synnes of hem; and he schal not destrie hem. And he dide greetli, to turne awei his yre; and he kyndelide not al his ire. 39 And he bithouyte, that thei ben fleische; a spirit goynge, and not turnynge ayen. 40 Hou oft maden thei hym wrooth in desert; thei stireden hym in to ire in a place with out watir. 41 And thei weren turned, and temptiden God; and thei wraththiden the hooli of Israel. 42 Thei bithouyten not on his hond; in the dai in the which he ayen bouyte hem fro the hond of the trobler. 43 As he settide hise signes in Egipt; and hise grete wondris in the feeld of Taphneos. 44 And he turnede the flodis of hem and the reynes of hem in to blood; that thei schulden not drynke. 45 He sente a fleisch flie in to hem, and it eet hem; and he sente a paddok, and it loste hem. 46 And he yaf the fruytis of hem to rust; and he yaf the trauels of hem to locustis. 47 And he killide the vynes of hem bi hail; and the moore trees of hem bi a frost. 48 And he bitook the beestis of hem to hail; and the possessioun of hem to fier.

 49 He sente in to hem the ire of his indignacioun; indignacioun, and ire, and tribulacioun, sendingis in bi iuel aungels. 50 He made weie to the path of his ire, and he sparide not fro the deth of her lyues; and he closide togidere in deth the beestis of hem.
 51 And he smoot al the first gendrid thing in the lond of Egipt; the first fruytis of alle the trauel of hem in the tabernaclis of Cham.
 52 And he took awei his puple as scheep; and he ledde hem forth as a flok in desert. 53 And he ledde hem forth in hope, and thei dredden not; and the see hilide the enemyes of hem. 54 And he brouyte hem in to the hil of his halewyng; in to the hil which his riythond gat. And he castide out hethene men fro the face of hem; and bi lot he departide to hem the lond in a cord of delyng. 55 And he made the lynagis of Israel to dwelle in the tabernaclis of hem. 56 And thei temptiden, and wraththiden heiy God; and thei kepten not hise witnessyngis. 57 And thei turneden awei hem silf, and thei kepten not couenaunt; as her fadris weren turned in to a schrewid bouwe. 58 Thei stiriden him in to ire in her litle hillis; and thei terriden hym to indignacioun of her grauen ymagis. 59 God herde, and forsook; and brouyte to nouyt Israel greetli. 60 And he puttide awei the tabernacle of Sylo; his tabernacle where he dwellide among men. 61 And he bitook the vertu of hem in to caitiftee; and the fairnesse of hem yonge men of hem; and the virgyns of hem weren not biweilid.

64 The prestis of hem fellen doun bi swerd; and the widewis of hem weren not biwept. 65 And the Lord was reised, as slepyng; as miyti greetli fillid of wiyn. 66 And he smoot hise enemyes on the hynderere partis; he yaf to hem euerlastyng schenschipec. 67 And he puttide awei the tabernacle of Joseph; and he chees not the lynage of Efraym. 68 But he chees the lynage of Juda; he chees the hil of Syon, which he louede. 69 And he as an vnicorn bildide his hooli place; in the lond, which he foundide in to worldis. 70 And he chees Dauid his seruaunt, and took hym vp fro the flockis of scheep; he took hym fro bihynde scheep with lambren. 71 To feed Jacob his seruaunt; and Israel his eritage. 72 And he fedde hem in the innocens of his herte; and he ledde hem forth in the vndurstondyngis of his hondis.

79 Of Asaph. God, hethene men cam in to thin eritage; thei defouliden thin hooli temple, thei settiden Jerusalem in to the keping of applis. 2 Thei settiden the slayn bodies of thi seruauntis, meetis to the volatilis of heuenes; the fleischis of thi seyntis to the beestis of the erthe. 3 Thei schedden out the blood of hem, as watir in the cumpas of Jerusalem; and noon was that briede. 4 We ben maad schenschipec to oure neiyboris; mowyng and scornynge to hem, that ben in oure cumpas. 5 Lord, hou longe schalt thou be wrooth in to the ende? schal thi veniaunce be kyndelid as fier? 6 Schede out thin ire in to hethene men, that knowen not thee; and in to rewmes, that clepiden not thi name. 7 For thei eeten Jacob; and maden desolat his place. 8 Haue thou not mynde on oure elde wickidnesses; thi mercies bifore take vs soone, for we ben maad pore greetli. 9 God, oure heelthe, helpe thou vs, and, Lord, for the glorie of thi name delyuer thou vs; and be thou merciful to oure synnes for thi name. 10 Lest perauenture thei seie among hethene men, Where is the God of hem? and be he knowun among naciouns bfore oure iyen. The veniaunce of the blood of thi seruauntis, which is sched out; the weilyng of feterid men entre in thi siyt. 11 Vpe the greetnesse of thin arm; welde thou the sones of slayn men. 12 And yelde thou to oure neiyboris seuenfoold in the bosum of hem; the schenschip of hem, which thei diden schenschipfuli to thee, thou Lord. 13 But we that ben thee in to the world. In generacioun and in to generacioun; we schulen telle thin heriyng.

80 To victorie; this salm is witnessing of Asaph for lilies. Thou scheep. Thou that sittist on cherubym; be schewid bfore Effraym, 2 Beniamyn, and Manasses. Stire thi power, and come thou; that thou make vs saaf. 3 God of vertues, turne thou vs; and schewe longe schalt thou be wrooth on the preier of thi seruaunt? 5 Hou longe schalt thou feede vs with the breed of teeris; and schalt yyue drynke to vs with teeris in mesure? 6 Thou hast set vs in to ayenseiyng to oure neiyboris; and oure enemyes han scornide vs. 7 God of vertues, turne thou vs; and schewe thi face, and we schulen be saaf. 8 Thou translatidist a vyne fro Egipt; thou castidist out hethene men, and plauntidist it. 9 Thou were leeder of the weie in the siyt therof; and thou plauntidist the rootis therof, and it fillide the lond. 10 The schadewe therof hilde hillis; and the braunchis therof filliden the cedris of God. 11 It streiyte forth hise siouns til to the see, and the generacioun ther of `til to the flood. 12 Whi hast thou destried the wal therof; and alle men that goen forth bi the weie gaderiden awei the grapis therof? 13 A boor of the wode distriede it; and a singuler wielde beeste deuouride it. 14 God of vertues, be thou turned; biholde thou fro heuene, and se, and visite this vyne. 15 And make thou it perfit, which thi riythond plauntide; and biholde thou on the sone of man, which thou hast confermyd to thee. 16 Thingis brent with fier, and vndurmyned; schulen perische for the blamyng of thi cheer. 17 Thin hond be maad on the man of thi riythond; and on the sone of man, whom thou hast conferred to thee. 18 And we departiden not fro thee; thou schalt quykene vs, and we schulen inwardli clepe thi name. 19 Lord God of vertues, turne thou vs; and schewe thi face, and we schulen be saaf.

81 To the ouercomer in the pressours of Asaph. Make ye fulli ioie to God, oure helpere; synge ye hertli to God of Jacob. 2 Take ye a salm, and yyue ye a tympan; a myrie sautere with an harpe. 3 Blowe ye with a trumpe in Neomenye; in the noble dai of youre solempnite. 4 For whi comaundement is in Israel; and doom is to God of Jacob. 5 He settide that witnessing in Joseph; whanne he yede out of the lond of Egipt, he herde a langage, which he knew not. 6 He turnede a wei his bak fro birthens; hise hondis serueden in a coffyn. 7 In tribulacioun thou inwardli clepidist me, and Y delyuerede thee; Y herde thee in the hid place of tempest, Y preuede thee at the water of ayenseiyng. 8 My puple, here thou, and Y schal be witnesse ayens thee; 9 Israel, if thou herist me, a fresche God schal not be in thee, and thou schalt not worschipe an alien god. 10 For Y am thi Lord God, that ladde thee out of the lond of Egipt; make large thi mouth, and Y schal fille it. 11 And my puple herde not my vois; and Israel yaue not tente to me. 12 And Y lefte hem aftir the desiris of her herte; thei schulen go in her fyndyngis. 13 If my puple hadde herde me; if Israel hadde go in my weies. 14 For nouyt in hap Y hadde maad low her enemyes; and Y hadde send myn hond on men doynge tribulacioun to hem. 15 The enemyes of the Lord lieden to hym; and her tyme schal be in to worldis. 16 And he fedde hem of the fatnesse of whete; and he fillide hem with hony of the stoon.

82 Of Asaph. God stood in the synagoge of goddis; forsothe he demeth goddis in the myddil. 2 Hou longe demen ye wickidnesse; and taken the faces of synneris? 3 Deme ye to the nedi man, and to the modirles child; iustifie ye the meke man and pore. 4 Raueische ye out a pore man; and delyuere ye the nedi man fro the hond of the synner. 5 Thei knewen not, nether vndirstoden, thei goen in derknessis; alle the foundementis of erthe schulen be moued. 6 I seide, Ye ben goddis; and alle ye ben the sonnes of hiy God. 7 But ye schulen die as men; and ye schulen falle doun as oon of the princis. 8 Ryse, thou God, deme thou the erthe; for thou schalt haue eritage in alle folkis.

83 The song of the salm of Asaph. God, who schal be lijk thee? Moab, and Agarenius, Jebal, and Amon, and Amalech; 7 alienys with hem that dwellen in Tyre. 8 For Assur cometh with hem; thei ben maad in to help to the sones of Loth. 9 Make thou to hem as to Madian, and Sisara; as to Jabyn in the stronde of Sison. 10 Thei perischiden in Endor; thei weren maad as a toord of erthe. 11 Putte thou the prynces of hem as Oreb and Zeb; and Zebee and Salmana. Alle the princis of hem, that seiden; 12 Holde we bi eritage the seyntuarie of God. 13 My God, putte thou hem as a whele; and as stobil bifor the face of the wynde.

14 As fier that brenneth a wode; and as flawme brynnynge hillis.
15 So thou schalt pursue hem in thi tempeste; and thou schalt disturbie hem in thin ire. 16 Lord, fille thou the faces of hem with schenscipe; and thei schulen seke thi name. 17 Be thei aschamed, and be thei disturblid in to world of world; and be thei schent and perische thei. 18 And knowe thei, that the Lord is name to thee; thou aloone art the hiyeste in ech lond.

84 The salm of the sones of Chore. Lord of vertues, thi

4 Lord, blessid ben thei that dwellen in thin hous; thei schulen preise thee in to the worldis of worldis. 5 Blessid is the man, whos help is of thee; he hath disposid stiyngis in his herte, 6 in the valei of teeris, in the place which he hath set. 7 For the vertues, here thou my preier; God of Jacob, perseyue thou with eeris. 9 God, oure defender, biholde thou; and biholde in to the thousynde. I chees to be `an out cast in the hous of my God; more than to dwelle in the tabernaclis of synneris. 11 For God loueth merci and treuthe; the Lord schal yyue grace and glorie.

12 He schal not depriue hem fro goodis, that gon in innocence; Lord of vertues, blessid is the man, that hopith in thee.

85 Of the sones of Chore. Lord, thou hast blessid thi lond; thou wickidnesse of thi puple; thou hast hilid alle the synnes of hem.

3 Thou hast aswagid al thin ire; thou hast turned awei fro the

And thei hadden the desirable lond for nouyt, thei bileueden deuourid. 28 And thei crieden to the Lord, whanne thei weren set in tribulacioun; and he ledde hem out of her nedynessis. 29 And he ordeynede the tempest therof in to a soft wynde; and the wawis therof weren stille. 30 And thei weren glad, for tho weren

 The mercies of the Lord knouleche to hym; and hise merueilis to the puple; and preise thei him in the chaier of eldre men. 33 He hath set floodis in to deseert; and the out goingis of watris malice of men dwellyng ther ynne. 35 He hath set deseert in to pondis of watris; and erthe with out watir in to outgoyngis of watris. 36 And he settide there hungri men; and thei maden a citee of dwelling. 37 And thei sowiden feeldis, and plauntiden vynes; and maden fruyt of birthe. 38 And he blesside hem, and thei weren multiplied greetli; and he made not lesse her werk beestis. 39 And thei weren maad fewe; and thei weren trauelid of tribulacioun of yuelis and of sorewis. 40 Strijf was sched out on princes; and he made hem for to erre without the weie, and not in the weie. 41 And he helpide the pore man fro pouert; and settide meynees as a scheep bringyng forth lambren. 42 Rytful men schulen se, and schulen be glad; and al wickidnesse schal stoppe his mouth. 43 Who is wijs, and schal kepe these thingis; and schal vndirstonde the mercies of the Lord?

108 The song of `the salm of Daud. Min herte is redi, God, myn herte is redi; Y schal singe, and Y schal seie salm in my glorie. 2 My glorie, ryse thou vp, sautrie and harp, rise thou vp; Y schal rise vp eerli. 3 Lord, Y schal knouleche to thee among puplis; and Y schal seie salm to thee among naciouns. 4 For whi, God, thi merci is greet on heuenes; and thi treuthe is til to the cloudis. 5 God, be thou enhaunsid aboue heuenes; and thi glorie ouer al erthe. 6 That thi derlingis be delyuerid, make thou saaf with thi riythond, and here me; God spak in his hooli. 7 I schal make ful out ioye, and Y schal departe Siccimam; and Y schal mete the grete valei of tabernaclis. 8 Galaad is myn, and Manasses is myn; and Effraym is the vptaking of myn heed. Juda is my king; Moab is the caudron of myn hope. 9 In to Ydume Y schal stretche forth my scho; aliens ben maad frendis to me. 10 Who schal lede me forth in to a stronge citee; who

Jerusalem, which is bildid as a citee; whos part taking therof is in to the same thing. 4 For the lynagis, the lynagis of the Lord stieden thidir, the witnessing of Israel; to knoueleche to the name of the Lord. 5 For thei saten there on seetis in doom; seetis on 123 The song of grecis. To thee Y haue reisid myn iyen; that Blessid be the Lord; that `yaf not vs in taking to the teeth of hunters. The snare is al to-brokun; and we ben delyuered. 8 Oure helpe is in the name of the Lord; that made heuene and 125 The song of greces. Thei that tristen in the Lord ben in to the world. 3 For the Lord schal not leeu the yerde of synneris on the part of iust men; that iust men holde not forth her hondis to wickidnesse. 4 Lord, do thou wel; to good men, and of riytful herte. 5 But the Lord schal lede them that bowen in to obligaciouns, with hem that worchen wickidnesse; pees be on Israel.

Whanne he schal yyue sleep to his loued; lo! 3 the eritage of the Lord `is sones, the mede is the fruyt of wombe. 4 As arowis ben in the hond of the miyti; so the sones of hem that ben schakun out. 5 Blessid is the man, that hath fillid his desier of tho; he schal not be schent, whanne he schal speke to hise enemyes in the yate.

With men worching wickidnesse; and Y schal not comyne with the chosun men of hem. 5 A iust man schal repreue me in mersi, and schal blame me; but the oile of a synner make not fat myn heed. For whi and yit my preier is in the wel plesaunt thingis of hem; 6 for the domesmen of hem ioyned to the stoon weren sopun vp. Here thei my wordis, 7 for

Lord, Lord, (Sheol h7585) 8 for myn iyen ben to thee, Y hopide in thee; take thou not awei my soule. 9 Kepe thou me fro the snare which thei ordeyneden to me; and fro the sclaudris of hem that worchen wickidnesse. Synneris schulen falle in the nett therof; 10 Y am aloone til Y passe.

142 The lernyng of Daud; `his preier, `whanne he was in the denne. With my vois Y criede to the Lord; with my vois Y preiede hertli to the Lord. 2 I schede out my preier in his siyt; and Y pronounce my tribulacioun bfor him. 3 While my spirit failith of me; and thou hast knowe my pathis. In this weie in which Y yede; proude men hidden a snare to me. 4 I bihelde to the riyt side, and Y siy; and noon was that knew me. Fliyt perischide fro me; and noon is that sekith my soule. 5 Lord, Y criede to thee, Y seide, Thou art myn hope; my part in the lond of Iyueris. 6 Yyue thou tent to my biseching; for Y am maad low ful greetli. Delyuere thou me fro hem that pursuen me; for thei ben coumfortid on me. 7 Lede my soule out of keping to knouleche to thi name; iust men abiden me, til thou yelde to me.

Make thou knowun to me the weie in which Y schal go; for Y reside my soule to thee. 9 Delyuere thou me fro myn enemyes, Lord, Y fledde to thee; 10 teche thou me to do thi wille, for thou art my God. Thi good spirit schal lede me forth in to a riytful lond; 11 Lord, for thi name thou schalt quikene me in thin equite. Thou schalt lede my soule out of tribulacioun; 12 and in thi merci thou schalt scatere alle myn enemyes. And thou schalt leese alle them, that troublen my soule; for Y am thi seruaunt.

144 `A salm. Blessid be my Lord God, that techith myn hondis to werre; and my fyngris to batel. 2 Mi merci, and my refuyt; my takere vp, and my delyuerer. Mi defender, and Y hopide in him; and thou makist suget my puple vnder me. 3 Lord, what is a man, for thou hast maad knowun to him; ether the sone of man, for thou arettist him of sum valu? 4 A man is maad lijk vanyte; hise daies passen as schadow. 5 Lord, bowe doun thin heuenes, and come thou doun; touche thou hillis, and thei schulen make smoke. 6 Leite thou schynyng, and thou schalt scatere hem; sende thou out thin arowis, and thou schalt disturble hem. 7 Sende out thin hond fro an hiy, rauysche thou me out, and delyuere thou me fro many watris; and fro the hond of alien sones. 8 The mouth of which spak vanite; and the riythond of hem is the riyt hond of wickidnesse. 9 God, Y schal synge to thee a new song; I schal seie salm to thee in a sautre of ten stringis. 10 Which yyuest heelthe to kingis; which ayen bouytist Dauid, thi seruaunt, fro the wickid swerd rauische thou out me. 11 And delyuere thou me fro `the hond of alien sones; the mouth of whiche spak vanyte, and the riythond of hem is the riyt hond of wickidnesse. 12 Whose sones ben; as new plauntingis in her yongthe. The douytris of hem ben arayed; ourned about as the licnesse of the temple. 13 The selers of hem ben fulle; bringinge out fro this vessel in to that. The scheep of hem ben with lambre, plenteuouse in her goingis out; 14 her kien ben fatte. `No falling of wal is, nether passing ouere; nether cry is in the stretis of hem. 15 Thei seiden, `The puple is blessingid, that hath these thingis; blessingid is the puple, whos Lord is the God of it.

145 `The ympne of Dauith. Mi God king, Y schal enhaunse thee; and Y schal blesse thi name in to the world, and in to the world of world. 2 Bi alle daies Y schal blesse thee; and Y schal herie thi name in to the world, and in to the world of the world. 3 The Lord is greet, and worthi to be preisid ful myche; and noon ende is of his greetnesse. 4 Generacioun and generacioun schal preise thi werkis; and thei schulen pronounse thi power. 5 Thei schulen speke `the greet doying of the glorie of thin holynesse; and thei schulen telle thi merueils. 6 And thei schulen seye the vertu of thi ferdful thingis; and thei schulen telle thi greetnesse. 7 Thei schulen bringe forth the mynde of the abundaunce of thi swetnesse; and thei schulen telle with ful out ioiying thi riytfulnesse. 8 The Lord is a merciful doere, and merciful in wille; paciente, and myche merciful. 9 The Lord is swete in alle thingis; and hise merciful doyingis ben on alle hise werkis. 10 Lord, alle thi werkis knoueleche to thee; and thi seyntis blesse thee. 11 Thei schulen seie the glorie of thi rewme; and thei schulen speke thi power. 12 That thei make thi power knowun to the sones of men; and the glorie of the greetnesse of thi rewme. 13 Thi rewme is the rewme of alle worldis; and thi lordschipe is in al generacioun and in to generacioun. The Lord is feithful in alle hise wordis; and hooli in alle hise werkis. 14 The Lord liftith vp alle that fallen down; and reisith alle men hurtlid down. 15 Lord, the iyen of alle beestis hopen in thee; and thou yyuest the mete of hem in couenable tyme. 16 Thou openest thin hond; and thou fillist ech beeste with blessing. 17 The Lord is iust in alle hise weies; and hooli in alle hise werkis. 18 The Lord is niy to alle that inwardli clepen him; to alle that inwardli clepen him in treuthe. 19 He schal do the wille of hem, that dreden him, and he schal here the biseching of hem; and he schal make hem saaf. 20 The Lord kepith alle men louyng him; and he schal leese alle synners. 21 Mi mouth schal speke the heriyng of the Lord; and ech man blesse his hooli name in to the world, and in to the world of world.

146 Alleluya. 2 Mi soule, herie thou the Lord; Y schal herie the Lord in my lijf, Y schal synge to my God as longe as Y schal be. Nile ye triste in princis; 3 nether in the sones of men, in whiche is noon helthe. 4 The spirit of hym schal go out, and he schal turne ayen in to his erthe; in that dai alle the thouytis of hem schulen perische. 5 He is blessid, of whom the God of Jacob is his helpere, his hope is in his Lord God, that made heuene and erthe; 6 the see, and alle thingis that ben in tho. 7 Which kepith treuthe in to the world, makith dom to hem that suffren wrong; yyueth mete to hem that ben hungri. The Lord vnbyndith feterid men; 8 the Lord liytneeth blynde men. The Lord reisith men hurtlid down; the Lord loueth iust men. 9 The Lord kepith comelyngis, he schal take vp a modirles child, and widewe; and he schal distrie the weies of synners. 10 The Lord schal regne in Israel. 20 He dide not so to ech nacioun; and he schewide not hise domes to hem.

148 Alleluya. Ye of heuenes, herie the Lord; herie ye hym in hiye thingis. 2 Alle hise aungels, herie ye hym; alle hise vertues, herie ye hym. 3 Sunne and moone, herie ye hym; alle sterris and liyt, herie ye hym. 4 Heuenes of heuenes, herie ye hym; and the watris that ben aboue heuenes, 5 herie ye the name of the Lord. 6 For he seide, and thingis weren maad; he comaundide, and thingis weren maad of nouyt. He ordeynede tho thingis in to the world, and in to the world of world; he settide a comaundement, and it schal not passe. 7 Ye of erthe, herie ye the Lord; dragouns, and alle depthis of watris. 8 Fier, hail, snow, iys, spiritis of tempestis; that don his word. 9 Mounteyns, and alle litle hillis; trees berynge fruyt, and alle cedris. 10 Wielde beestis, and alle tame beestis; serpentis, and fetherid briddis. 11 The kingis of erthe, and alle puplis; the princis, and alle iugis of erthe. 12 Yonge men, and virgyns, elde men with yongere, herie ye the name of the Lord; 13 for the name of hym aloone is enhaunsid. 14 His knoueleching be on heuene and erthe; and he hath enhaunsid the horn of his puple. An ympne be to alle hise seyntis; to the children of Israel, to a puple neiiyng to hym.

149 Alleluya. Synge ye to the Lord a newe song; hise heriying be in the chirche of seyntis. 2 Israel be glad in hym that made hym; and the douytris of Syon make ful out ioye in her king. 3 Herie thei his name in a queer; seie thei salm to hym in a tympan, and sautre. 4 For the Lord is wel plesid in his puple; and he hath reisid mylde men in to heelthe. 5 Seyntis schulen make ful out ioye in glorie; thei schulen be glad in her beddis. 6 The ful out ioiyingis of God in the throte of hem; and swerdis

Proverbs

1 The parablis of Salomon, the sone of Daud, king of Israel; 2 to kunne wisdom and kunnyng; 3 to vndurstonde the wordis of prudence; and to take the lernyng of teching; to take riytfulnesse, and dom, and equyte; 4 that felnesse be youun to litle children, and kunnyng, and vndurstanding to a yong wexyng man. 5 A wise man heringe schal be wisere; and a man vndurstandinge schal holde gouernails. 6 He schal perseyue a parable, and expownyng; the wordis of wise men, and the derk figuratif spechis of hem. 7 The drede of the Lord is the bigynning of wisdom; foolis dispisen wisdom and teching. 8 My sone, here thou the teching of thi fadir, and forsake thou not the lawe of thi modir; 9 that grace be addid, ethir encreessid, to thin heed, and a bie to thi necke. 10 Mi sone, if synneris flateren thee, assente thou not to hem. 11 If thei seien, Come thou with vs, sette we aspies to blood, hide we snaris of disseitis ayens an innocent without cause; 12 swolowe we him, as helle swolowith a man lyuyng; and al hool, as goyng down in to a lake; we schulen fynde al precieuse catel, (Sheol h7585) 13 we schulen fille oure housis with spuylis; sende thou lot with vs, 14 o purs be of vs alle; 15 my sone, go thou not with hem; forbede thi foot fro the pathis of hem. 16 For the feet of hem rennen to yuel; and thei hasten to schede out blood. 17 But a net is leid in veyn bfore the iyen of briddis, that han wengis. 18 Also `thilke wickid disseyueris setten aspies ayens her owne blood; and maken redi fraudis ayens her soulis. 19 So the pathis of ech auerouse man rauyschen the soulis of hem that welden. 20 Wisdom prechith with outforth; in stretis it yyueth his vois. 21 It crieth ofte in the heed of cumpenyes; in the leeuës of yatis of the

citee it bringith forth hise wordis, 22 and seith, Hou long, ye litle men in wit, louen yong childhod, and foolis schulen coueyte tho thingis, that ben harmful to hem silf, and vnprudent men schulen hate kunnyng? 23 Be ye conuertid at my repreuyng; lo, Y schal profre forth to you my spirit, and Y schal schewe my wordis. 24 For Y clepide, and ye forsoken; Y helde forth myn hond, and noon was that bihelde. 25 Ye dispisiden al my counsel; and chargiden not my blamyngis. 26 And Y schal leiye in youre perisching; and Y schal scorne you, whanne that, that ye dreden, cometh to you. 27 Whanne sodeyne wretchidnesse fallith in, and perisching bifallith as tempest; whanne tribulacioun and angwisch cometh on you. 28 Thanne thei schulen clepe me, and Y schal not here; thei schulen rise eerli, and thei schulen not fynde me. 29 For thei hatiden teching, and thei token not the drede of the Lord, 30 nether assentiden to my counsel, and depraueden al myn amending. 31 Therfor thei schulen ete the fruytis of her weie; and thei schulen be fillid with her counseils. 32 The turnyng awei of litle men in wit schal sle hem; and the prosperite of foolis schal leese hem. 33 But he that herith me, schal reste with outen drede; and he schal vse abundaunce, whanne the drede of yuels is takun awei.

2 Mi sone, if thou resseyuest my wordis, `and hidist myn heestis anentis thee; 2 that thin eere here wisdom, bowe thin herte to knowe prudence. 3 For if thou inwardli clepist wisdom, and bowist thin herte to prudence; 4 if thou sekist it as money, and diggist it out as tresours; 5 thanne thou schalt vndirstonde the drede of the Lord, and schalt fynde the kunnyng of God. 6 For the Lord yyueth wisdom; and prudence and kunnyng is of his mouth. 7 He schal kepe the heelthe of riytful men, and he schal defende hem that goen sympli. 8 And he schal kepe the pathis of riytfulnesse, and he schal kepe the weies of hooli men.

9 Thanne thou schalt vndirstonde riytfulnesse, and dom, and equityte, and ech good path. 10 If wysdom entrith in to thin herte, and kunnyng plesith thi soule, 11 good councel schal kepe thee, and prudence schal kepe thee; that thou be delyuered fro an yuel weie, 12 and fro a man that spekith weiward thingis.
13 Whiche forsaken a riytful weie, and goen bi derk weies; 14 whiche ben glad, whanne thei han do yuel, and maken ful out ioye in worste thingis; 15 whose weies ben weywerd, and her goyngis ben of yuel fame. 16 That thou be delyuered fro an alien womman, and fro a straunge womman, that makith soft hir wordis; 17 and forsakith the duyck of hir tyme of mariage, 18 and hath foryete the couenaunt of hir God. For the hous of hir is bowid to deeth, and hir pathis to helle. 19 Alle that entren to hir, schulen not turne ayen, nether schulen catche the pathis of lijf.
20 That thou go in a good weie, and kepe the pathis of iust men.
21 Forsothe thei that ben riytful, schulen dwelle in the lond; and symple men schulen perfitli dwelle ther ynne. 22 But vnfeithful men schulen be lost fro the loond; and thei that doen wickidli, schulen be takun away fro it.

3 Mi sone, foryete thou not my lawe; and thyn herte kepe my comaundementis. 2 For tho schulen sette to thee the lengthe of daies, and the yeeris of lijf, and pees. 3 Merci and treuthe forsake thee not; bynde thou tho to thi throte, and write in the tablis of thin herte. 4 And thou schalt fynde grace, and good teching bifore God and men. 5 Haue thou trist in the Lord, of al thin herte; and triste thou not to thi prudence. 6 In alle thi weies thenke thou on hym, and he schal dresse thi goyngis. 7 Be thou not wijs anentis thi silf; drede thou God, and go awei fro yuel. 8 For whi helthe schal be in thi nawle, and moisting of thi boonys.

9 Onoure thou the Lord of thi catel, and of the beste of alle thi fruytis yyue thou to pore men; 10 and thi bernis schulen be fillid with abundaunce, and pressours schulen flowe with wiyn.
11 My sone, caste thou not awei the teching of the Lord; and faile thou not, whanne thou art chastisid of him. 12 For the Lord chastisith hym, whom he loueth; and as a fadir in the sone he plesith hym. 13 Blessid is the man that fyndith wisdom, and which flowith with prudence. 14 The geting therof is betere than the marchaundie of gold and of siluer; the fruytis therof ben the firste and clenneste. 15 It is precioussere than alle richessis; and alle thingis that ben desirid, moun not be comparisound to this.
16 Lengthe of daies is in the riythalf therof, and richessis and glorie ben in the lifthalf therof. 17 The weies therof ben feire weies, and alle the pathis therof ben pesible. 18 It is a tre of lijf to hem that taken it; and he that holdith it, is blessid. 19 The Lord foundide the erthe bi wisdom; he stablischide heuenes bi prudence. 20 The depthis of watris braken out bi his wisdom; and cloudis wexen togidere bi dewe. 21 My sone, these thingis flete not away fro thin iyen; kepe thou my lawe, and my counsel; 22 and lijf schal be to thi soule, and grace `schal be to thi chekis.
23 Thanne thou schalt go tristili in thi weie; and thi foot schal not snapere. 24 If thou schalt slepe, thou schalt not drede; thou schalt reste, and thi sleep schal be soft. 25 Drede thou not bi sudeyne feer, and the powers of wickid men fallynge in on thee.
26 For the Lord schal be at thi side; and he schal kepe thi foot, that thou be not takun. 27 Nil thou forbede to do wel him that mai; if thou maist, and do thou wel. 28 Seie thou not to thi frend,

Go, and turne thou ayen, and to morewe Y schal yyue to thee; whanne thou maist yyue anoon. 29 Ymagyne thou not yuel to thi freend, whanne he hath trist in thee. 30 Stryue thou not ayens a man with out cause, whanne he doith noon yuel to thee. 31 Sue thou not an vniust man, sue thou not hise weies. 32 For ech disseyuer is abhomynacioun of the Lord; and his speking is with simple men. 33 Nedinesse is sent of the Lord in the hous of a wickid man; but the dwelling places of iust men schulen be blessid. 34 He schal scorne scorneris; and he schal yyue grace to mylde men. 35 Wise men schulen haue glorie; enhaunsing of foolis is schenschiipe.

4 Sones, here ye the teching of the fadir; and perseiue ye, that ye kunne prudence. 2 Y schal yyue to you a good yifte; forsake ye not my lawe. 3 For whi and Y was the sone of my fadir, a tendir sone, and oon `gendride bifore my modir. 4 And my fadir tauyte me, and seide, Thin herte resseyue my wordis; kepe thou myn heestis, and thou schalt lyue. 5 Welde thou wisdom, welde thou prudence; foryete thou not, nethir bowe thou away fro the wordis of my mouth. 6 Forsake thou not it, and it schal kepe thee; loue thou it, and it schal kepe thee. 7 The bigynnyng of wisdom, welde thou wisdom; and in al thi possessioun gete thou prudence. 8 Take thou it, and it schal enhaunse thee; thou schalt be glorified of it, whanne thou hast biclippid it. 9 It schal yyue encresyngis of graces to thin heed; and a noble coroun schal defende thee. 10 Mi sone, here thou, and take my wordis; that the yeris of lijf be multiplied to thee. 11 Y schal schewe to thee the weie of wisdom; and Y schal lede thee bi the pathis of equyte. 12 In to whiche whanne thou hast entrid, thi goyngis schulen not be maad streit; and thou schalt rennen, and schalt not haue hirtyng. 13 Holde thou teching, and forsake it not; kepe thou it, for it is thi lijf. 14 Delite thou not in the pathis of wyckid men; and the weie of yuele men plese not thee. 15 Fle thou fro it, and passe thou not therbi; bowe thou awei, and forsake it. 16 For thei slepen not, `no but thei han do yuele; and sleep is rauyschid fro hem, no but thei han disseyued. 17 Thei eten the breed of vnpite, and drinken the wyn of wickidnesse. 18 But the path of iust men goith forth as liyt schynynge, and encreessith til to perfit dai. 19 The weie of wickid men is derk; thei witen not where thei schulen falle. 20 Mi sone, herkene thou my wordis; and bowe down thin eeris to my spechis. 21 Go not tho awei fro thyn iyen; kepe thou hem in the myddil of thin herte. 22 For tho ben lijf to men fyndynge thoo, and heelthe `of al fleisch. 23 With al keping kepe thin herte, for lijf cometh forth of it. 24 Remoue thou a schrewid mouth fro thee; and backbitynge lippis be fer fro thee. 25 Thin iyen se riytful thingis; and thin iyeliddis go bfore thi steppis. 26 Dresse thou pathis to thi feet, and alle thi weies schulen be stablischid. 27 Bowe thou not to the riytside, nether to the leftside; turne awei thi foot fro yuel. For the Lord knowith the weies that ben at the riytside; but the weies ben weiward, that ben at the leftside. Forsothe he schal make thi goyngis riytful; and thi weies schulen be brouyt forth in pees.

5 Mi sone, perseyue thou my wisdom, and bowe down thin eere to my prudence; that thou kepe thi thouytis, 2 and thi lippis kepe teching. Yyue thou not tent to the falsnesse of a womman; 3 for the lippis of an hoore ben an hony coomb droppinge, and hir throte is clerere than oile; 4 but the last thingis ben bittir as wormod, and hir tunge is scharp as a swerd keruyng on ech side. 5 Hir feet gon down in to deeth; and hir steppis persen to hellis. (Sheol h7585) 6 Tho goon not bi the path of lijf; hir steppis ben vncerteyn, and moun not be souyt out. 7 Now therfor, my sone, here thou me, and go not awei fro the wordis of my mouth.

8 Make fer thi weie fro hir, and neie thou not to the doris of hir hous. 9 Yyue thou not thin onour to aliens, and thi yeeris to the cruel; 10 lest perauenture straungeris be fillid with thi strengthis, and lest thi trauels be in an alien hous; 11 and thou biweile in the laste daies, whanne thou hast wastid thi fleschis, and thi bodi; and thou seie, 12 Whi wlatide Y teching, and myn herte assentide not to blamyngis; 13 nether Y herde the voys of men techinge me, and Y bowide not doun myn eere to maistris?
14 Almost Y was in al yuel, in the myddis of the chirche, and of the synagoge. 15 Drinke thou watir of thi cisterne, and the floodis of thi pit. 16 Thi wellis be stremed forth; and departe thi watis in stretis. 17 Haue thou aloone `tho watis; and aliens be not thi parceneris. 18 Thi veyne be blessid; and be thou glad with the womman of thi yong wexynge age. 19 An hynde moost dereworthe; and an hert calf moost acceptable. Hir teetis fille thee in al tyme; and delite thou contynueli in the loue of hir. 20 Mi sone, whi art thou disseyued of an alien womman; and art fostrid in the bosum of an othere? 21 The Lord seeth the weie of a man; and biholdith alle hise steppis. 22 The wickidnessis of a wyckid man taken hym; and he is boundun with the roopis of hise synnes. 23 He schal die, for he hadde not lernyng; and he schal be disseyued in the mychilnesse of his fooli.

6 Mi sone, if thou hast bihiyt for thi freend; thou hast fastned thin hoond at a straunger. 2 Thou art boundun bi the wordis of thi mouth; and thou art takun with thin owne wordis. 3 Therfor, my sone, do thou that that Y seie, and delyuere thi silf; for thou hast fallun in to the hond of thi neybore. Renne thou aboute, haste thou, reise thi freend; 4 yyue thou not sleep to thin iyen, nether thin iyeliddis nappe. 5 Be thou rauyschid as a doo fro the hond; and as a bridde fro aspiyngis of the foulere. 6 O! thou slowe man, go to the `amte, ether pissemyre; and biholde thou hise weies, and lerne thou wisdom. 7 Which whanne he hath no duyck, nethir comaundour, nether prince; 8 makith redi in somer mete to hym silf, and gaderith togidere in heruest that, that he schal ete. 9 Hou long schalt thou, slow man, slepe? whanne schalt thou rise fro thi sleep? 10 A litil thou schalt slepe, a litil thou schalt nappe; a litil thou schalt ioyne togidere thin hondis, that thou slepe. 11 And nedynesse, as a weigoere, schal come to thee; and pouert, as an armed man. Forsothe if thou art not slow, thi ripe corn schal come as a welle; and nedynesse schal fle fer fro thee. 12 A man apostata, a man vnprofitable, he goith with a weiward mouth; 13 he bekeneth with iyen, he trampith with the foot, he spekith with the fyngur, 14 bi schrewid herte he ymagyneth yuel, and in al tyme he sowith dissenciouns. 15 His perdicioun schal come to hym anoon, and he schal be brokun sodeynli; and he schal no more haue medecyn. 16 Sixe thingis ben, whyche the Lord hatith; and hise soule cursith the seuenthe thing. 17 Hiye iyen, a tunge liere, hondis schedinge out innocent blood, 18 an herte ymagynyng worste thouytis, feet swifte to renne in to yuel, 19 a man bringynge forth lesingis, a fals witnesse; and him that sowith discordis among britheren. 20 Mi sone, kepe the comaundementis of thi fadir; and forsake not the lawe of thi modir. 21 Bynde thou tho continueli in thin herte; and compasse `to thi throte. 22 Whanne thou goist, go tho with thee; whanne thou slepist, kepe tho thee; and thou wakyng speke with tho. 23 For the comaundement of God is a lanterne, and the lawe is liyt, and the blamyng of techyng is the weie of lijf; 24 `that the comaundementis kepe thee fro an yuel womman, and fro a flaterynge tunge of a straunge womman. 25 Thin herte coueite not the fairnesse of hir; nether be thou takun bi the signes of hir. 26 For the prijs of an hoore is vnnethe of o loof; but a womman takith the precieuse soule of a man. 27 Whether a man mai hide fier in his bosum, that hise clothis brenne not; 28 ethir go on colis, and hise feet be not brent? 29 So he that entrith to the wijf of his neiybore; schal not be cleene, whanne he hath touchid hir. 30 It is not greet synne, whanne a man stelith; for he stelith to fille an hungri soule. 31 And he takun schal yelde the seuenthe fold; and he schal yyue al the catel of his hous, and schal delyuere hym silf. 32 But he that is avouter; schal leese his soule, for the pouert of herte. 33 He gaderith filthe, and sclaundrith to hym silf; and his schenschip schal not be don awei. 34 For the feruent loue and strong veniaunce of the man schal not spare in the dai of veniaunce, 35 nether schal assente to the preieris of ony; nether schal take ful many yiftis for raunsum.

7 Mi sone, kepe thou my wordis; and kepe myn heestis to thee. Sone, onoure thou the Lord, and thou schalt be `myyti; but outakun hym drede thou not an alien. 2 Kepe thou myn heestis, and thou schalt lyue; and my lawe as the appil of thin iyen. 3 Bynde thou it in thi fyngris; write thou it in the tablis of thin herte. 4 Seie thou to wisdom, Thou art my sistir; and clepe thou prudence thi frendesse. 5 That it kepe thee fro a straunge womman; and fro an alien womman, that makith hir wordis swete. 6 For whi fro the wyndow of myn hous bi the latijs Y bihelde; and Y se litle children. 7 I biholde a yong man coward, 8 that passith bi the stretis, bisidis the corner; and he 9 goith niy the weie of hir hous in derk tyme, whanne the dai drawith to niyt, in the derknessis and myst of the nyyt. 10 And lo! a womman, maad redi with ounement of an hoore to disseyue soulis, meetith hym, and sche is a ianglere, and goynge about, 11 and vnpacient of reste, and mai not stonde in the hous with hir feet; 12 and now without forth, now in stretis, now bisidis corneris sche `aspieth. 13 And sche takith, and kissith the yong man; and flaterith with wowynge cheer, and seith, Y ouyte sacrifices for heelthe; 14 to dai Y haue yolde my vowis. 15 Therfor Y yede out in to thi meetyng, and Y desiride to se thee; and Y haue founde thee. 16 Y haue maad my bed with coordis, Y haue arayed with tapetis peyntid of Egipt; 17 Y haue bispreynt my bed with myrre, and aloes, and canel. 18 Come thou, be we fillid with tetis, and vse we collyngis that ben coueitid; til the dai bigynne to be cleer.

19 For myn hosebonde is not in his hows; he is goon a ful long weie. 20 He took with hym a bagge of money; he schal turne ayen in to his hous in the dai of ful moone. 21 Sche boonde hym with many wordis; and sche drow forth hym with flateryngis of lippis. 22 Anoon he as an oxe led to slayn sacrifice sueth hir, and as a ioli lomb and vnkunynge; and the fool woot not, that he is drawun to bondys, 23 til an arowe perse his mawe. As if a brid hastith to the snare; and woot not, that it is don of the perel of his lijf. 24 Now therfor, my sone, here thou me; and perseyue the wordis of my mouth. 25 Lest thi soule be drawun awei in the weies of hir; nether be thou disseyued in the pathis of hir. 26 For sche castide doun many woundid men; and alle strongeste men weren slayn of hir. 27 The weies of helle is hir hous; and persen in to ynnere thingis of deeth. (Sheol h7585)

8 Whether wisdom crieth not ofte; and prudence yueth his vois? 2 In souereyneste and hiy coppis, aboue the weie, in the myddis of pathis, 3 and it stondith bisidis the yate of the citee, in thilke closyngis, and spekith, and seith, A! 4 ye men, Y crie ofte to you; and my vois is to the sones of men. 5 Little children, vndirstonde ye wisdom; and ye vnwise men, `perseyue wisdom.
6 Here ye, for Y schal speke of grete thingis; and my lippis schulen be openyd, to preche riytful thingis. 7 My throte schal bithenke treuthe; and my lippis schulen curse a wickid man. 8 My wordis ben iust; no schrewid thing, nether weiward is in tho. 9 `My wordis ben riytful to hem that vndurstonden; and ben euene to hem that fynden kunnyng. 10 Take ye my chastisyng, and not money; chese ye teching more than tresour. 11 For wisdom is betere than alle richessis moost precieuse; and al desirable thing mai not be comparisound therto. 12 Y, wisdom, dwelle in counsel; and Y am among lernyd thouytis. 13 The drede of the Lord hatith yuel; Y curse boost, and pride, and a schrewid weie, and a double tungid mouth. 14 Counsel is myn, and equyte `is myn; prudence is myn, and strengthe `is myn. 15 Kyngis regnen bi me; and the makeris of lawis demen iust thingis bi me. 16 Princis comaunden bi me; and myyti men demen riytfulnesse bi me. 17 I loue hem that louen me; and thei that waken eerli to me, schulen fynde me. 18 With me ben rychessis, and glorie; souereyn richessis, and riytfulnesse. 19 My fruyt is betere than gold, and precyouse stoon; and my seedis ben betere than chosun siluer. 20 Y go in the weies of riytfulnesse, in the myddis of pathis of doom; 21 that Y make riche hem that louen me, and that Y fille her tresouris. 22 The Lord weldide me in the bigynnyng of hise weies; bifore that he made ony thing, at the bigynnyng. 23 Fro with out bigynnyng Y was ordeined; and fro elde tymes, bifer that the erthe was maad. 24 Depthis of watris weren not yit; and Y was conseyued thanne. The wellis of watris hadden not brokun out yit, 25 and hillis stoden not togidere yit bi sad heuynesse; bifer lital hillis Y was born. 26 Yit he hadde not maad erthe; and floodis, and the herris of the world. 27 Whanne he made redi heuenes, Y was present; whanne he cumpasside the depthis of watris bi certeyn lawe and cumpas. 28 Whanne he made stidfast the eir aboue; and weiede the wellis of watris. 29 Whanne he cumpasside to the see his marke; and settide lawe to watris, that tho schulden not passe her coostis. Whanne he peiside the foundementis of erthe; 30 Y was making alle thingis with him. And Y delitide bi alle daies, and pleiede bifer hym in al tyme, 31 and Y pleiede in the world; and my delices ben to be with the sones of men. 32 Now therfor, sones, here ye me; blessid ben thei that kepen my weies. 33 Here ye teching, and be ye wise men; and nile ye caste it awei. 34 Blessid is the man that herith me, and that wakith at my yatis al dai; and kepith at the postis of my dore. 35 He that fyndith me, schal fynde lijf; and schal drawe helthe of the Lord. 36 But he that synneth ayens me, schal hurte his soule; alle that haten me, louen deeth.

9 Wisdom bildide an hous to him silf; he hewide out seuene pileris, 2 he offrider his slayn sacrifices, he medlide wijn, and settide forth his table. 3 He sente hise handmaides, that thei schulden clepe to the tour; and to the wallis of the citee. 4 If ony man is lital; come he to me. And wisdom spak to vnwise men, 5 Come ye, ete ye my breed; and drynke ye the wiyn, which Y haue medlid to you. 6 Forsake ye yong childhed, and lyue ye; and go ye bi the weyes of prudence. 7 He that techith a scornere, doith wrong to him silf; and he that vndirnymmeth a wickid man, gendrith a wem to him silf. 8 Nile thou vndirnyme a scornere; lest he hate thee. Vndirnyme thou a wise man; and he schal loue thee. 9 Yyue thou occasioun to a wise man; and wisdom schal be encreessid to hym. Teche thou a iust man; and he schal haste to take. 10 The bigynnyng of wisdom is the dread of the Lord; and prudence is the kunnyng of seyntis. 11 For thi daies schulen be multiplied bi me; and yeeris of lijf schulen be encreessid to thee. 12 If thou art wijs; thou schalt be to thi silf, and to thi neiyboris. Forsothe if thou art a scornere; thou aloone schalt bere yuel. 13 A fonned womman, and ful of cry, and ful of vnleueful lustis, and that kan no thing outirli, 14 sittith in the doris of hir hous, on a seete, in an hy place of the cite; 15 to clepe men passinge bi the weie, and men goynge in her iournei. 16 Who is a litil man `of wit; bowe he to me. And sche spak to a coward, 17 Watris of thefte ben swettere, and breed hid is swettere. 18 And wiste not that giauntis ben there; and the gestis `of hir ben in the depthis of helle. Sotheli he that schal be applied, ether fastned, to hir; schal go down to hellis. For whi he that goith awei fro hir; schal be saued. (Sheol h7585)

10 The parablis of Salomon. A wijs sone makith glad the fadir; but a fonned sone is the sorewe of his modir. 2 Tresouris of wickidnesse schulen not profite; but riytfulnesse schal delyuere fro deth. 3 The Lord schal not turmente the soule of a iust man with hungur; and he schal distrie the tresouns of vnpiteuse men. 4 A slow hond hath wrouyt nedynesse; but the hond of stronge men makith redi richessis. Forsothe he that enforsith to gete `ony thing bi leesyngis, fedith the wyndis; sotheli the same man sueth briddis fleyng. 5 He that gaderith togidere in heruest, is a wijs sone; but he that slepith in sommer, is a sone of confusioun. 6 The blessing of God is ouer the heed of a iust man; but wickidnesse hilith the mouth of wickid men. 7 The mynde of a iust man schal be with preisingis; and the name of wickid men schal wexe rotun. 8 A wijs man schal resseyue comaundementis with herte; a fool is betun with lippis. 9 He that goith simpli, goith tristili; but he that makith schrewid hise weies, schal be opyn. 10 He that bekeneth with the iye, schal yyue sorewe; a fool schal be betun with lippis. 11 The veyne of lijf is the mouth of a iust man; but the mouth of wickid men hilith wickidnesse. 12 Hatrede reisith chidingis; and charite hilith alle synnes. 13 Wisdom is foundun in the lippis of a wise man; and a yerd in the bak of him that is nedi of herte. 14 Wise men hidden kunnyng; but the mouth of a fool is nexte to confusioun. 15 The catel of a riche man is the citee of his strengthe; the drede of pore men is the nedynesse of hem. 16 The werk of a iust man is to lijf; but the fruyt of a wickid man is to synne. 17 The weie of lijf is to him that kepith chastising; but he that forsakith blamyngis, errith. 18 False lippis hidden hatrede; he that bringith forth dispisinge is vnwijs. 19 Synne schal not faile in myche spekyng; but he that mesurith hise lippis, is moost prudent. 20 Chosun siluer is the tunge of a iust man; the herte of wickid men is for nouyt. 21 The lippis of a iust man techen ful manye men; but thei that ben vnlerned, schulen die in nedinesse of herte. 22 The blessing of the Lord makith riche men; and turment schal not be felowschapid to hem. 23 A fool worchith wickidnesse as bi leiyyng; but `wisdom is prudence to a man. 24 That that a wickid man dredith, schal come on hym; the desire of iust men schalbe youun to hem. 25 As a tempeste passyng, a wickid man schal not be; but a iust man schal be as an euerlastyng foundement. 26 As vynegre noieth the teeth, and smoke noieth the iyen; so a slow man noieth hem that senten hym in the weie.

27 The drede of the Lord encreesith daies; and the yeeris of wickid men schulen be maad schort. 28 Abiding of iust men is gladnesse; but the hope of wickid men schal perische. 29 The strengthe of a symple man is the weie of the Lord; and drede to hem that worchen yuel. 30 A iust man schal not be moued with outen ende; but wickid men schulen not dwelle on the erthe. 31 The mouth of a iust man schal bringe forth wisdom; the tunge of schrewis schal perische. 32 The lippis of a iust man biholden pleasaunt thingis; and the mouth of wickid men byholdith weiward thingis.

11 A gileful balaunce is abhominacioun anentis God; and an euene weiyte is his wille. 2 Where pride is, there also dispising schal be; but where meeknesse is, there also is wisdom. 3 The simplenesse of iust men schal dresse hem; and the disseyuyng of weiward men schal destrie hem. 4 Richessis schulen not profite in the dai of veniaunce; but riytfulnesse schal delyuere fro deth. 5 The riytfulnesse of a simple man schal dresse his weie; and a wickid man schal falle in his wickidnesse. 6 The riytfulnesse of riytful men schal delyuere hem; and wickid men schulen be takun in her aspiyngis. 7 Whanne a wickid man is deed, noon hope schal be ferther; and abidyng of bisy men schal perische. 8 A iust man is delyuered from angwisch; and a wickid man schal be youun for hym. 9 A feynere bi mouth disseyueth his freend; but iust men schulen be deliuered bi kunnyng. 10 A citee schal be enhaunsid in the goodis of iust men; and preysyng schal be in the perdicioun of wickid men. 11 A citee schal be enhaunsid bi blessing of iust men; and it schal be distried bi the mouth of wickid men. 12 He that dispisith his freend, is nedi in herte; but a prudent man schal be stille. 13 He that goith gilefuli, schewith priuetees; but he that is feithful, helith the priuete of a freend. 14 Where a gouernour is not, the puple schal falle; but helthe `of the puple is, where ben many counsels. 15 He that makith feith for a straunger, schal be turmentid with yuel; but he that eschewith snaris, schal be sikur. 16 A graciouse womman schal fynde glorie; and stronge men schulen haue richessis. 17 A merciful man doith wel to his soule; but he that is cruel, castith awei, yhe, kynnesmen. 18 A wickid man makith vnstable werk; but feithful mede is to hym, that sowith riytfulnesse. 19 Merci schal make redi lijf; and the suyng of yuels `schal make redi deth. 20 A schrewid herte is abhomynable to the Lord; and his wille is in hem, that goen symply. 21 Thouy hond be in the hond, an yuel man schal not be innocent; but the seed of iust men schal be sauyd. 22 A goldun `sercle, ether ryng, in the `nose thrillis of a sowe, a womman fair and fool. 23 The desir of iust men is al good; abiding of wickid men is woodnesse. 24 Sum men departen her owne thingis, and ben maad richere; other men rauyschen thingis, that ben not hern, and ben euere in nedynesse. 25 A soule that blessith, schal be maad fat; and he that fillith, schal be fillid also. 26 He that hidith wheete `in tyme, schal be cursid among the puplis; but blessing schal come on the heed of silleris. 27 Wel he risith eerli, that sekith good thingis; but he that is a serchere of yuels, schal be oppressid of tho. 28 He that tristith in hise richessis, schal falle; but iust men schulen buriowne as a greene leef. 29 He that disturblith his hows, schal haue wyndis in possessioun; and he that is a fool, schal serue a wijs man. 30 The fruyt of a riytful man is the tre of lijf; and he that takith soulis, is a wijs man. 31 If a iust man receyueth in erthe, how miche more an vnfeithful man, and synnere.

12 He that loueth chastisyng, loueth kunnyng; but he that hatith blamyngis, is vnwijs. 2 He that is good, schal drawe to hym silf grace of the Lord; but he that tristith in hise thouytis, doith wickidli. 3 A man schal not be maad strong by wyckidnesse; and the root of iust men schal not be moued. 4 A diligent womman is a coroun to hir hosebond; and rot is in the boonys of that womman, that doith thingis worthi of confusioun. 5 The thouytis of iust men ben domes; and the counselis of wickid men ben gileful. 6 The wordis of wickid men setten tresoun to blood; the mouth of iust men schal delyuere hem. 7 Turne thou wickid men, and thei schulen not be; but the housis of iust men schulen dwelle perfitli. 8 A man schal be knowun bi his teching; but he that is veyn and hertles, schal be open to dispising. 9 Betere is a pore man, and sufficient to him silf, than a gloriouse man, and nedi of breed. 10 A iust man knowith the soulis of hise werk beestis; but the entrailis of wickid men ben cruel. 11 He that worchith his lond, schal be fillid with looues; but he that sueth idilnesse, is moost fool. He that is swete, lyueth in temperaunces; and in hise monestyngis he forsakith dispisyngis. 12 The desir of a wickid man is the memorial of worste thingis; but the roote of iust men schal encrease. 13 For the synnes of lippis `falling doun neiyeth to an yuel man; but a iust man schal scape fro angwisch. 14 Of the fruyt of his mouth ech man schal be fillid with goodis; and bi the werkis of hise hondis it schal be yoldun to him. 15 The weie of a fool is riytful in hise iyen; but he that is wijs, herith counsels. 16 A fool schewith anoon his ire;

but he that dissymelith wrongis, is wijs. 17 He that spekith that, that he knowith, is a iuge of riytfulnesse; but he that lieth, is a gileful witnesse. 18 A man is that bihetith, and he is prickid as with the swerd of conscience; but the tunge of wise men is helthe. 19 The lippe of treuthe schal be stidfast with ouden ende; but he that is a sudeyn witnesse, makith redi the tunge of leesyng. 20 Gile is in the herte of hem that thenken yuels; but ioye sueth hem, that maken counsels of pees. 21 What euere bifallith to a iust man, it schal not make hym sori; but wickid men schulen be fillid with yuel. 22 False lippis is abhominacioun to the Lord; but thei that don feithfuli, plesen him. 23 A fel man hilith kunnyng; and the herte of vnwise men stirith foli. 24 The hond of stronge men schal haue lordschip; but the hond that is slow, schal serue to tributis. 25 Morenyng in the herte of a iust man schal make hym meke; and he schal be maad glad bi a good word. 26 He that dispisith harm for a frend, is a iust man; but the weie of wickid men schal disseyue hem. 27 A gileful man schal not fynde wynnyng; and the substaunce of man schal be the prijs of gold. 28 Lijf is in the path of riytfulnesse; but the wrong weie leedith to deeth.

a synnere. 7 A man is as riche, whanne he hath no thing; and a man is as pore, whanne he is in many richessis. 8 Redempcioun of the soule of man is hise richessis; but he that is pore, suffrith not blamyng. 9 The liyt of iust men makith glad; but the lanterne of wickid men schal be quenchid. 10 Stryues ben euere a mong proude men; but thei that don alle thingis with counsel, ben gouerned bi wisdom. 11 Hastid catel schal be maad lesse; but that that is gaderid litil and litil with hond, schal be multiplied. 12 Hope which is dilaied, turmentith the soule; a tre of lijf is desir comyng. 13 He that bacbitith ony thing, byndith hym silf in to tyme to comyng; but he that dredith the comaundement, schal lyue in pees. 14 The lawe of a wise man is a welle of lijf; that he bowe awei fro the falling of deth. 15 Good teching schal yyue grace; a swolowe is in the weie of dispiseris. 16 A fel man doith alle thingis with counsel; but he that is a fool, schal opene foli. 17 The messenger of a wickid man schal falle in to yuel; a feithful messenger is helthe. 18 Nedynesse and schenschip is to him that forsakith techyng; but he that assentith to a blamere, schal be glorified. 19 Desir, if it is fillid, delitith the soule; foolis wlaten hem that fleen yuels. 20 He that goith with wijs men, schal be wijs; the freend of foolis schal be maad lijk hem. 21 Yuel pursueth synneris; and goodis schulen be yoldun to iust men. 22 A good man schal leue aftir him eiris, sones, and the sones of sones; and the catel of a synnere is kept to a iust man. 23 Many meetis ben in the new tilid feeldis of fadris; and ben gaderid to othere men with out doom. 24 He that sparith the yerde, hatith his sone; but he that loueth him, techith bisili. 25 A iust man etith, and fillith his soule; but the wombe of wickid men is vnable to be fillid.

14 A wijs womman bildith hir hous; and an unwijs womman schal distrie with hondis an hous bildid. 2 A man goynge in riytful weie, and dredinge God, is dispisid of hym, that goith in a weie of yuel fame. 3 The yerde of pride is in the mouth of a fool; the lippis of wijs men kepen hem. 4 Where oxis ben not, the cratche is void; but where ful many cornes apperen, there the strengthe of oxe is opyn. 5 A feithful witsesse schal not lie; a gileful witsesse bringith forth a leeing. 6 A scornere sekith wisdom, and he fyndith not; the teching of prudent men is esy. 7 Go thou ayens a man a fool; and he schal not knowe the lippis of prudence. 8 The wisdom of a fel man is to vndirstonde his weie; and the vnwarnesse of foolis errith. 9 A fool scorneth synne; grace schal dwelle among iust men. 10 The herte that knowith the bittirnesse of his soule; a straunger schal not be meddlid in the ioie therof. 11 The hous of wickid men schal be don awe; the tabernaclis of iust men schulen buriowne. 12 Sotheli a weie is, that semeth iust to a man; but the laste thingis therof leden forth to deth. 13 Leiiyng schal be medlid with sorewe; and morenyng ocupieth the laste thingis of ioie. 14 A fool schal be fillid with hise weies; and a good man schal be aboute hym. 15 An innocent man bileueth to eche word; a felle man biholdith hise goyngis. 16 A wijs man dredith, and bowith awei fro yuel; a fool skippith ouer, and tristith. 17 A man vnpacient schal worche foli; and a gileful man is odious. 18 Litle men of wit schulen holde foli; and felle men schulen abide kunnyng. 19 Yuel men schulen ligge bifor goode men; and vnpitouse men bifor the yatis of iust men. 20 A pore man schal be hateful, yhe, to his neiybore; but many men ben frendis of riche men. 21 He that dispisith his neiybore, doith synne; but he that doith merci to a pore man, schal be blessid. He that bileueth in the Lord, loueth merci; 22 thei erren that worchen yuel. Merci and treuthe maken redi goodis; 23 abundaunce `schal be in ech good werk. Sotheli where ful many wordis ben, there nedynesse is ofte. 24 The coroun of wise men is the richessis of hem; the fooli of foolis is vnwarnesse. 25 A feithful witenesse delyuereth soulis; and a fals man bringith forth leesyngis. 26 In the drede of the Lord is triste of strengthe; and hope schal be to the sones of it. 27 The drede of the Lord is a welle of lijf; that it bowe awei fro the fallyng of deth. 28 The dignite of the king is in the multitude of puple; and the schenscipe of a prince is in the fewnesse of puple. 29 He that is pacient, is gouerned bi myche wisdom; but he that is vnpacient, enhaunsith his foli. 30 Helthe of herte is the lijf of fleischis; enuye is rot of boonys. 31 He that falsli chalengith a nedi man, dispisith his maker; but he that hath merci on a pore man, onourith that makere. 32 A wickid man is put out for his malice; but a iust man hopith in his deth. 33 Wisdom restith in the herte of a wijs man; and he schal teche alle vnlerned men. 34 Riytfulnesse reisith a folc; synne makith pupilis wretchis. 35 A mynystre vndurstondynge is acceptable to a kyng; a mynystre vnprofitable schal suffre the wrathfulnesse of him.

15 A soft answer brekith ire; an hard word reisith woodnesse. 2 The tunge of wise men ourneth kunnyng; the mouth of foolis buylieth out foli. 3 In ech place the iyen of the Lord biholden good men, and yuel men. 4 A plesaunt tunge is the tre of lijf; but the tunge which is vnmesurable, schal defoule the spirit. 5 A fool scorneth the techyng of his fadir; but he that kepith blamyngis, schal be maad wisere. Moost vertu schal be in plenteuouse riytfulnesse; but the thouytis of wickid men schulen be drawun vp bi the roote. 6 The hous of a iust man is moost strengthe; and disturbling is in the fruitis of a wickid man. 7 The lippis of wise men schulen sowe abroad kunnyng; the herte of foolis schal be vnlijc. 8 The sacrifices of wickyd men ben abhomynable to the Lord; avowis of iust men ben plesaunt. 9 The lijf of the vnpitouse man is abhomynacioun to the Lord; he that sueth riytfulnesse, schal be loued of the Lord. 10 Yuel teching is of men forsakinge the weie of lijf; he that hatith blamyngis, schal die. 11 Helle and perdicoun ben open bifor the Lord; hou myche more the hertis of sones of men. (Sheol h7585) 12 A man ful of pestilence loueth not hym that repreueth him; and he goith not to wyse men.

13 A ioiful herte makith glad the face; the spirit is cast down in the morenyng of soule. 14 The herte of a wijs man sekith techyng; and the mouth of foolis is fed with vnkunnyng. 15 Alle the daies of a pore man ben yuele; a sikir soule is a contynuel feeste. 16 Betere is a litil with the drede of the Lord, than many tresouris and vnfillable. 17 It is betere to be clepid to wortis with charite, than with hatrede to a calf maad fat. 18 A wrathful man reisith chidyngis; he that is pacient, swagith chidyngis reisd.
19 The weie of slow men is an hegge of thornes; the weie of iust men is with out hirtyng. 20 A wise sone makith glad the fadir; and a fonned man dispisith his modir. 21 Folis is ioye to a fool; and a prudent man schal dresse hise steppis. 22 Thouytis ben distried, where no counsel is; but where many counseleris ben, tho ben confermyd. 23 A man is glad in the sentence of his mouth; and a couenable word is best. 24 The path of lijf is on a lernyd man; that he bowe awei fro the laste helle. (Sheol h7585) 25 The Lord schal distrie the hows of proude men; and he schal make stidefast the coostis of a widewe. 26 luele thouytis is abhomynacioun of the Lord; and a cleene word moost fair schal be maad stidfast of hym. 27 He that sueth aueryce, disturblith his hous; but he that hatith yiftis schal lyue. Synnes ben purgid bi merci and feith; ech man bowith awei fro yuel bi the drede of the Lord. 28 The soule of a iust man bithenkith obedience; the mouth of wickid men is ful of yuelis. 29 The Lord is fer fro wickid men; and he schal here the preyers of iust men. 30 The liyt of iyen makith glad the soule; good fame makith fat the boonys. 31 The eere that herith the blamyngis of lijf, schal dwelle in the myddis of wise men. 32 He that castith awei chastisyng, dispisith his soule; but he that assentith to blamyngis, is pesible holdere of the herte. 33 The drede of the Lord is teching of wisdom; and mekenesse goith bfore glorie.

16 It perteyneth to man to make redi the soule; and it perteyneth to the Lord to gouerne the tunge. 2 Alle the weies of men ben opyn to the iyen of God; the Lord is a weiere of spiritis. 3 Schewe thi werkys to the Lord; and thi thouytis schulen be dressid. 4 The Lord wrouyte alle thingis for hym silf; and he made redi a wickid man to the yuel dai. 5 Abhomynacioun of the Lord is ech proude man; yhe, thouy the hond is to the hond, he schal not be innocent. The bigynnyng of good weie is to do riytwisnesse; forsothe it is more acceptable at God, than to offre sacrifices. 6 Wickidnesse is ayen bouyt bi merci and treuthe; and me bowith awei fro yuel bi the drede of the Lord. 7 Whanne the weyes of man plesen the Lord, he schal conuerte, yhe, hise enemyes to pees. 8 Betere is a litil with riytfulnesse, than many fruytis with wickidnesse. 9 The herte of a man schal dispose his weie; but it perteyneth to the Lord to dresse hise steppis. 10 Dyuyynyng is in the lippis of a king; his mouth schal not erre in doom. 11 The domes of the Lord ben weiyte and a balaunce; and hise werkis ben alle the stoonys of the world. 12 Thei that don wickidli ben abhomynable to the king; for the trone of the rewme is maad stidfast bi riytfulnesse. 13 The wille of kyngis is iust lippis; he that spekith riytful thingis, schal be dressid. 14 Indignacioun of the kyng is messengeris of deth; and a wijs man schal plese him. 15 Lijf is in the gladnesse of the `cheer of the king; and his merci is as a reyn comynge late. 16 Welde thou wisdom, for it is betere than gold; and gete thou prudence, for it is precyousere than siluer. 17 The path of iust men bowith awei yuelis; the kepere of his soule kepith his weie. 18 Pride goith bifore sorewe; and the spirit schal be enhaunsid byfor fallyng. 19 It is betere to be maad meke with mylde men, than to departe spuylis with proude men. 20 A lerned man in word schal fynde goodis; and he that hopith in the Lord is blessid. 21 He that is wijs in herte, schal be clepid prudent; and he that is swete in speche, schal fynde grettere thingis. 22 The welle of lijf is the lernyng of him that weldith; the techyng of foolis is foli. 23 The herte of a wijs man schal teche his mouth; and schal encrease grace to hise lippis. 24 Wordis wel set togidere is a coomb of hony; helthe of boonys is the swetnesse of soule. 25 A weye is that semeth riytful to a man; and the laste thingis therof leden to deth. 26 The soule of a man trauelinge trauelith to hym silf; for his mouth compellide hym. 27 An vnwijs man diggith yuel; and fier brenneth in hise lippis. 28 A weiward man reisith stryues; and a man ful of wordis departith princis. 29 A wickid man flaterith his frend; and ledith hym bi a weie not good. 30 He that thenkith schrewid thingis with iyen astonyed, bitith hise lippis, and parformeth yuel. 31 A coroun of dignyte is eelde, that schal be foundun in the weies of riytfulnesse. 32 A pacient man is betere than a stronge man; and he that `is lord of his soule, is betere than an ouercomere of citees. 33 Lottis ben sent into the bosum; but tho ben temperid of the Lord.

17 Betere is a drie mussel with ioye, than an hous ful of sacrifices with chidyng. 2 A wijs seruaunt schal be lord of fonned sones; and he schal departe eritage among britheren. 3 As siluer is preued bi fier, and gold is preued bi a chymnei, so the Lord preueth hertis. 4 An yuel man obeieth to a wickid tunge; and a fals man obeieth to false lippis. 5 He that dispisith a pore man, repreueth his maker; and he that is glad in the fallyng of another man, schal not be vnpunyschid. 6 The coroun of elde men is the sones of sones; and the glorie of sones is the fadris of hem. 7 Wordis wel set togidere bisemen not a fool; and a liynge lippe bicometh not a prince. 8 A preciouise stoon moost acceptable is the abiding of hym that sekith; whidur euere he turneth hym silf, he vndurstondith prudentli. 9 He that helith trespas, sekith frenschipis; he that rehersith bi an hy word, departith hem, that ben knyt togidere in pees. 10 A blamyng profitith more at a prudent man, than an hundryd woundis at a fool. 11 Euere an yuel man sekith stryues; forsothe a cruel aungel schal be sent ayens hym. 12 It spedith more to meete a femal bere, whanne the whelpis ben rauyschid, than a fool tristyng to hym silf in his foli. 13 Yuel schal not go a wei fro the hous of hym, that yeldith yuels for goodis. 14 He that leeueth watir, is heed of stryues; and bifer that he suffrith wrong, he forsakith dom. 15 Bothe he that iustifieth a wickid man, and he that condempneth a iust man, euer ethir is abhomynable at God. 16 What profitith it to a fool to haue richessis, sithen he mai not bie wisdom? He that makith his hous hiy, sekith falling; and he that eschewith to lerne, schal falle in to yuels. 17 He that is a frend, loueth in al tyme; and a brother is preuyd in angwischis. 18 A fonned man schal make ioie with hondis, whanne he hath bihiyt for his frend. 19 He that bithenkith discordis, loueth chidingis; and he that enhaunsith his mouth, sekith fallyng. 20 He that is of weiward herte, schal not fynde good; and he that turneth the tunge, schal falle in to yuel. 21 A fool is borun in his schenschiþe; but nether the fadir schal be glad in a fool. 22 A ioiful soule makith likinge age; a sorewful spirit makith drie boonys. 23 A wickid man takith yiftis fro the bosum, to mys turne the pathis of doom. 24 Wisdom schyneth in the face of a prudent man; the iyen of foolis ben in the endis of erthe. 25 A fonned sone is the ire of the fadir, and the sorewe of the modir that gendride hym. 26 It is not good to brynge in harm to a iust man; nether to smyte the prince that demeth riytfuli. 27 He that mesurith his wordis, is wijs and prudent; and a lerud man is of preciouſe spirit. 28 Also a foole, if he is stille, schal be gessid a wijs man; and, if he pressith togidre hise lippis, he `schal be gessid an vndurstondynge man.

18 He that wole go a wei fro a frend, sekith occasiouns; in al tyme he schal be dispisable. 2 A fool resseyueth not the wordis of prudence; `no but thou seie tho thingis, that ben turned in his herte. 3 A wickid man, whanne he cometh in to depthe of synnes, dispisith; but sclaundre and schenschiþe sueth hym. 4 Deep watir is the wordis of the mouth of a man; and a stronde fletinge ouer is the welle of wisdom. 5 It is not good to take the persooone of a wickid man in doom, that thou bowe awei fro the treuthe of dom. 6 The lippis of a fool medlen hem silf with chidyngis; and his mouth excitiþ stryues. 7 The mouth of a fool is defoulyng of hym; and hise lippis ben the fallynge of his soule. 8 The wordis of a double tungid man ben as symple; and tho comen `til to the ynnere thingis of the wombe. Drede castith doun a slowe man; forsothe the soulis of men turned in to wymmens condicioun schulen haue hungur. 9 He that is neisch, and vnstidfast in his werk, is the brother of a man distriynge hise werkis. 10 A strongeste tour is the name of the Lord; a iust man renneth to hym, and schal be enhaunsid. 11 The catel of a riche man is the citee of his strengthe; and as a stronge wal cumpassing hym. 12 The herte of man is enhaunsid, bifer that it be brokun; and it is maad meke, bifer that it be glorified. 13 He that answerith bifer that he herith, shewith hym silf to be a fool; and worthi of schenschipec. 14 The spirit of a man susteyneth his feblenesse; but who may susteyne a spirit liyt to be wrooth? 15 The herte of a prudent man schal holde stidfastli kunnyng; and the eere of wise men sekith techyng. 16 The yift of a man alargith his weie; and makith space to hym bifer princes. 17 A iust man is the first accusere of hym silf; his frend cometh, and schal serche hym. 18 Lot ceessith ayenseiynge; and demeth also among miyti men. 19 A brother that is helpid of a brothir, is as a stidfast citee; and domes ben as the barris of citees. 20 A mannus wombe schal be fillid of the fruit of his mouth; and the seedis of hise lippis schulen fille hym. 21 Deth and lijf ben in the werkis of tunge; thei that louen it, schulen ete the fruytis therof. 22 He that fyndith a good womman, fyndith a good thing; and of the Lord he schal drawe vp myrthe. He that puttith a wey a good womman, puttith awei a good thing; but he that holdith auowtresse, is a fool and vnwijs. 23 A pore man schal speke with bisechingis; and a riche man schal speke sterneli. 24 A man freendli to felouschipe schal more be a frend, than a brothir.

19 Betere is a pore man, that goith in his simplenesse, than a riche man bitynge hise lippis, and vnwijs. 2 Where is not kunnyng of the soule, is not good; and he that is hasti, in feet hirtith. 3 The foli of a man disseyueth hise steppis; and he brenneth in his soule ayens God. 4 Richessis encreessen ful many freendis; forsothe also thei ben departid fro a pore man, whiche he hadde. 5 A fals witnesse schal not be vnpunyschid; and he that spekith leesingis, schal not ascape. 6 Many men onouren the persooone of a myyti man; and ben frendis of hym that deelith yiftis. 7 The britheren of a pore man haten hym; ferthermore and the freendis yeden awei fer fro hym. He that sueth wordis oonli, schal haue no thing; 8 but he that holdith stabli the mynde, loueth his soule, and the kepere of prudence schal fynde goodis. 9 A fals witnesse schal not be vnpunyschid; and he that spekith leesyngis, schal perische. 10 Delices bicomem not a fool; nether `it bicometh a seruauant to be lord of princes. 11 The teching of a man is knowun bi pacience; and his glorie is to passe ouere wickid thingis. 12 As the gnasting of a lioun, so and the ire of the king; and as deewe on eerbe, so and the gladnesse of the kyng. 13 The sorewe of the fadir is a fonned sone; and roofes droppyng contynueli is a womman ful of chiding. 14 Housis and richessis ben youun of fadir and modir; but a prudent wijf is youun propirli of the Lord. 15 Slouth bringith in sleep; and a negligent soule schal haue hungur. 16 He that kepith the comaundement of God, kepith his soule; but he that chargith not his weie, schal be slayn. 17 He that hath mercy on a pore man, leeneth to the Lord; and he schal yelde his while to hym. 18 Teche thi sone, and dispeire thou not; but sette thou not thi soule to the sleying of hym. 19 Forsothe he that is vnpacient, schal suffre harm; and whanne he hath rauyschid, he schal leie to anothir thing. 20 Here thou counsel, and take thou doctryn; that thou be wijs in thi laste thingis. 21 Many thouytis ben in the herte of a man; but the wille of the Lord schal dwelle. 22 A nedi man is merciful; and betere is a pore iust man, than a man liere. 23 The drede of the Lord ledith to lijf `of blis; and he `that dredith God schal dwelle in plentee, with outen visityng `of the worste. 24 A slow man hidith his hond vndur the armpit; and putteth it not to his mouth. 25 Whanne a man ful of pestilence is betun, a fool schal be wisere. If thou blamist a wijs man, he schal vndurstonde techyng. 26 He that turmentith the fadir, and fleeth fro the modir, schal be ful of yuel fame, and schal be cursid. 27 Sone, ceesse thou not to here techyng; and knowe thou the wordis of kunnyng. 28 A wickid witnesse scorneth doom; and the mouth of vnpitouse men deuourith wickidnesse. 29 Domes ben maad redi to scorneris; and hameris smytynge ben maad redi to the bodies of foolis.

20 Wiyn is a letcherouse thing and drunkenesse is ful of noise; who euere delitith in these, schal not be wijs. 2 As the roryng of a lioun, so and the drede of the kyng; he that territh hym to ire, synneth ayens his owne lijf. 3 It is onour to a man that departith hym silf fro stryuyngis; but fonned men ben medlid with dispisyngis. 4 A slow man nolde ere for coold; therfor he schal begge in somer, and me schal not yyue to hym. 5 As deep watir, so counsel is in the herte of a man; but a wijs man schal drawe it out. 6 Many men ben clepid merciful; but who schal fynde a feithful man? 7 Forsothe a iust man that goith in his simplenesse, schal leeuie blessid sones aftir hym. 8 A king that

 Who may seie, Myn herte is clene; Y am clene of synne? 10 A weiyte and a weiyte, a mesure and a mesure, euer eithir is abhomynable at God. 11 A child is vndurstonde bi hise studies, yf his werkis ben riytful and cleene. 12 An eere heringe, and an iye seyng, God made euere eithir. 13 Nyle thou loue sleep, lest nedynesse oppresse thee; opene thin iyen, and be thou fillid with looues. 14 Ech biere seith, It is yuel, it is yuel; and whanne he hath go away, thanne he schal haue glorie. 15 Gold, and the multitude of iemmes, and a precieuse vessel, ben the lippis of kunnyng. 16 Take thou awei the cloth of hym, that was borewe of an othere man; and for straungeris take thou awei a wed fro hym. 17 The breed of a leeing is sweet to a man; and aftirward his mouth schal be fillid with rikenyng. 18 Thouytis ben maad strong bi counselis; and bateils schulen be tretid bi gouernals.
 19 Be thou not medlid with him that schewith pryutees, and goith gylefulli, and alargith hise lippis. 20 The liyt of hym that cursith his fadir and modir, schal be quenchid in the myddis of derknessis. 21 Eritage to which me haastith in the bigynnyng, schal wante blessing in the laste tyme. 22 Seie thou not, Y schal yelde yuel for yuel; abide thou the Lord, and he schal delyuere thee. 23 Abhomynacioun at God is weiyte and weiyte; a gileful balaunce is not good. 24 The steppis of man ben dressid of the Lord; who forsothe of men mai vndurstonde his weie? 25 Falling of man is to make auow to seyntis, and aftirward to withdrawe the vowis. 26 A wijs kyng scaterith wickid men; and bowith a bouwe of victorie ouer hem. 27 The lanterne of the Lord is the spirit of man, that sekith out alle the priutees of the wombe. 28 Merci and treuthe kepen a kyng; and his trone is maad strong bi mekenesse. 29 The ful out ioiying of yonge men is the strengthe of hem; and the dignyte of elde men is hoornesse. 30 The wannesse of wounde schal wipe aweie yuels, and woundis in the priuyere thingis of the wombe.

21 As departyngis of watris, so the herte of the kyng is in the power of the Lord; whidur euer he wole, he schal bowe it. 2 Ech weye of a man semeth riytful to hym silf; but the Lord peisith the hertis. 3 To do merci and doom plesith more the Lord, than sacrifices doen. 4 Enhaunsyng of iyen is alargyng of the herte; the lanterne of wickid men is synne. 5 The thouytis of a stronge man ben euere in abundaunce; but ech slow man is euere in nedynesse. 6 He that gaderith tresours bi the tunge of a leesing, is veyne, and with outen herte; and he schal be hurtlid to the snaris of deth. 7 The raueyns of vnpitouse men schulen drawe hem down; for thei nolden do doom. 8 The weiward weie of a man is alien fro God; but the werk of hym that is cleene, is riytful. 9 It is betere to sitte in the corner of an hous with oute roof, than with a womman ful of chydying, and in a comyn hous. 10 The soule of an vnpitouse man desirith yuel; he schal not haue merci on his neiybore. 11 Whanne a man ful of pestilence is punyschid, a litil man of wit schal be the wisere; and if he sueth a wijs man, he schal take kunnyng. 12 A iust man of the hous of a wickid man thenkith, to withdrawe wickid men fro yuel. 13 He that stoppith his eere at the cry of a pore man, schal crye also, and schal not be herd. 14 A yift hid quenchith chidyngis; and a yift in bosum quenchith the moost indignacioun. 15 It is ioye to a iust man to make doom; and it is drede to hem that worchen wickidnesse. 16 A man that errith fro the weie of doctryn, schal dwelle in the company of giauntis. 17 He that loueth metis, schal be in nedynesse; he that loueth wyn and fatte thingis, schal not be maad riche. 18 An vnпитыouse man schal be youun for a iust man; and a wickid man schal be youun for a riytful man. 19 It is betere to dwelle in a desert lond, than with a womman ful of chidyng, and wrathful. 20 Desirable tresoure and oile is in the dwelling places of a iust man; and an vnprudent man schal distrie it. 21 He that sueth riytfulnesse and mercy, schal fynde lijf and glorie. 22 A wijs man stiede `in to the citee of stronge men, and distriede the strengthe of trist therof. 23 He that kepith his mouth and his tunge, kepith his soule from angwischis. 24 A proude man and boosteere is clepid a fool, that worchith pride in ire. 25 Desiris sleen a slow man; for hise hondis nolden worche ony thing. 26 Al dai he coueitith and desirith; but he that is a iust man, schal yyue, and schal not ceesse. 27 The offringis of wickid men, that ben offrid of greet trespas, ben abhomynable. 28 A fals witnesse schal perische; a man obedient schal speke victorie. 29 A wickid man makith sad his cheer vnschamefastli; but he that is riytful, amendith his weie. 30 No wisdom is, no prudence is, no counsel is ayens the Lord. 31 An hors is maad redi to the dai of batel; but the Lord schal yyue helthe.

22 Betere is a good name, than many richessis; for good grace is aboue siluer and gold. 2 A riche man and a pore man metten hem silf; the Lord is worchere of euer eithir. 3 A felle man seeth yuel, and hidith him silf; and an innocent man passid, and he was turmentid bi harm. 4 The ende of temperaunce is the drede of the Lord; richessis, and glorye, and lijf. 5 Armuris and swerdis ben in the weie of a weiward man; but the kepere of his soule goith away fer fro tho. 6 It is a prouerbe, A yong wexynge man bisidis his weie, and whanne he hath wexe elde, he schal not go awei fro it. 7 A riche man comaundith to pore men; and he that takith borewyng, is the seruaunt of the leenere. 8 He that sowith wickidnes, schal repe yuels; and the yerde of his yre schal be endid. 9 He that is redi to merci, schal be blessid; for of his looues he yaf to a pore man. He that yyueth yiftis, schal gete victorie and onour; forsothe he takith awei the soule of the takeris. 10 Caste thou out a scornere, and strijf schal go out with hym; and causis and dispisyngis schulen ceesse. 11 He that loueth the clenness of herte, schal haue the kyng a freend, for the grace of hise lippis. 12 The iyen of the Lord kepen kunnyng; and the wordis of a wickid man ben disseyued. 13 A slow man schal seie, A lioun is withoutforth; Y schal be slayn in the myddis of the stretis. 14 The mouth of an alien womman is a deep diche; he to whom the Lord is wrooth, schal falle in to it. 15 Foli is boundun togidere in the herte of a child; and a yerde of chastisyng schal dryue it away. 16 He that falsli chalengith a pore man, to encreesse hise owne richessis, schal yyue to a richere man, and schal be nedi. 17 My sone, bowe down thin eere, and here thou the wordis of wise men; but sette thou the herte to my techyng. 18 That schal be fair to thee, whanne thou hast kept it in thin herte, and it schal flowe ayen in thi lippis. 19 That thi trist be in the Lord; wherfor and Y haue schewid it to thee to dai. 20 Lo! Y haue discryued it in thre maneres, in thouytis and kunnyng, 21 that Y schulde schewe to thee the sadnesse and spechis of trewthe; to answeere of these thingis to hem, that senten thee. 22 Do thou not violence to a pore man, for he is pore; nethir defoule thou a nedi man in the yate. 23 For the Lord schal deme his cause, and he schal turmente hem, that turmentiden his soule. 24 Nyle thou be freend to a wrathful man, nether go thou with a wood man; 25 lest perauenture thou lerne hise weies, and take sclaundir to thi soule. 26 Nyle thou be with hem that oblischen her hondis, and that proferen hem silf borewis for dettis; for if he hath not wherof he schal restore, 27 what of cause is, that thou take awei hilyng fro thi bed? 28 Go thou not ouer the elde markis, whiche thi faders han set. 29 Thou hast seyn a man smert in his werk; he schal stonde bfore kyngis, and he schal not be bfor vnnoble men.

23 Whanne thou sittist, to ete with the prince, perseyue thou diligentli what thingis ben set bfore thi face, 2 and sette thou a withholding in thi throte. If netheles thou hast power on thi soule, 3 desire thou not of his metis, in whom is the breed of `a leeing.
4 Nyle thou trauele to be maad riche, but sette thou mesure to thi prudence. 5 Reise not thin iyen to richessis, whiche thou maist not haue; for tho schulen make to hem silf pennes, as of an egle, and tho schulen flee in to heuene. 6 Ete thou not with an enuyouse man, and desire thou not hise metis; 7 for at the licnesse of a fals dyuynour and of a coniectere, he gessith that, that he knowith not. He schal seie to thee, Ete thou and drinke; and his soule is not with thee. 8 Thou schalt brake out the metis, whiche thou hast ete; and thou schalt leese thi faire wordis.
9 Speke thou not in the eeris of vnwise men; for thei schulen dispise the teching of thi speche. 10 Touche thou not the termes of litle children; and entre thou not in to the feeld of fadirles and modirles children. 11 For the neiybore of hem is strong, and he schal deme her cause ayens thee. 12 Thin herte entre to techyng, and thin eeris `be redi to the wordis of kunnyng. 13 Nile thou withdrawe chastisyng fro a child; for thouy thou smyte hym with a yerde, he schal not die. 14 Thou schalt smyte hym with a yerde, and thou schalt delyuere his soule fro helle. (Sheol h7585)

15 Mi sone, if thi soule is wijs, myn herte schal haue ioie with thee; 16 and my reynes schulen make ful out ioie, whanne thi lippis speken riytful thing. 17 Thin herte sue not synneris; but be thou in the drede of the Lord al dai. 18 For thou schalt haue hope at the laste, and thin abidyng schal not be don awei. 19 Mi sone, here thou, and be thou wijs, and dresse thi soule in the weie. 20 Nyle thou be in the feestis of drinkeris, nether in the ofte etyngis of hem, that bryngen togidere fleischis to ete. 21 For men yyuynge tent to drinkis, and yyuynge mussels togidere, schulen be waastid, and napping schal be clothid with clothis. 22 Here thi fadir, that gendride thee; and dispise not thi modir, whanne sche is eld. 23 Bie thou treuthe, and nyle thou sille wisdom, and doctryn, and vndurstonding. 24 The fadir of a iust man ioieth ful out with ioie; he that gendride a wijs man, schal be glad in hym. 25 Thi fadir and thi modir haue ioie, and he that gendride thee, make ful out ioie. 26 My sone, yyue thin herte to me, and thin iyen kepe my weyes. 27 For an hoore is a deep diche, and an alien womman is a streit pit. 28 Sche settith asprie in the weie, as a theef; and sche schal sle hem, whiche sche schal se vnwar. 29 To whom is wo? to whos fadir is wo? to whom ben chidingis? to whom ben dichis? to whom ben woundis without cause? to whom is puttyng out of iyen? 30 Whether not to hem, that dwellen in wyn, and studien to drynke al of cuppis? 31 Biholde thou not wyn, whanne it sparclith, whanne the colour thereof schyneth in a ver. 32 It entrith swetli, but at the laste it schal bite as an eddre doith, and as a cocatrice it schal schede abroad venyms. 33 Thin iyen schulen se straunge wymmen, and thi herte schal speke weiwerd thingis. 34 And thou schalt be as a man slepinge in the myddis of the see, and as a gouvernour aslepid, whanne the steere is lost. 35 And thou schalt seie, Thei beeten me, but Y hadde not sorewe; thei drowen me, and Y feelide not; whanne schal Y wake out, and Y schal fynde wynes eft?

24 Sue thou not yuele men, desire thou not to be with hem. 2 For the soule of hem bithenkith raueyns, and her lippis speken fraudis. 3 An hous schal be bildid bi wisdom, and schal be maad strong bi prudence. 4 Celeris schulen be fillid in teching, al riches precieuse and ful fair. 5 A wijs man is strong, and a lerned man is stalworth and miyti. 6 For whi batel is bigunnun with ordenaunce, and helthe schal be, where many counsels ben. 7 Wisdom is hy to a fool; in the yate he schal not opene his mouth. 8 He that thenkith to do yuels, schal be clepid a fool. 9 The thouyte of a fool is synne; and a bacbitere is abhominacioun of men. 10 If thou that hast slide, dispeirist in the dai of angwisch, thi strengthe schal be maad lesse. 11 Delyuere thou hem, that ben led to deth; and ceesse thou not to delyuere hem, that ben drawun to deth. 12 If thou seist, Strengthis suffisen not; he that is biholdere of the herte, vndirstondith, and no thing disseyueth the keper of thi soule, and he schal yelde to a man bi hise werkis. 13 Mi sone, ete thou hony, for it is good; and an honycomb ful swete to thi throte. 14 `So and the techyng of wisdom is good to thi soule; and whanne thou hast founde it, thou schalt haue hope in the laste thingis, and thin hope schal not perische. 15 Aspie thou not, and seke not wickidnesse in the hous of a iust man, nether waste thou his reste. 16 For a iust man schal falle seuene sithis in the dai, and schal rise ayen; but wickid men schulen falle in to yuele. 17 Whanne thin enemye fallith, haue thou not

ioye; and thin herte haue not ful out ioiying in his fal; 18 lest perauenture the Lord se, and it displese hym, and he take awei his ire fro hym. 19 Stryue thou not with `the worste men, nether sue thou wickid men. 20 For whi yuele men han not hope of thingis to comynge, and the lanterne of wickid men schal be quenched. 21 My sone, drede thou God, and the kyng; and be thou not medlid with bacbiteris. 22 For her perdicoun schal rise togidere sudenli, and who knowith the fal of euer either? 23 Also these thingis that suen ben to wise men. It is not good to knowe a persoon in doom. 24 Pupilis schulen curse hem, that seien to a wickid man, Thou art iust; and lynagis schulen holde hem abhomynable. 25 Thei that repreuen iustli synners, schulen be preisid; and blessing schal come on hem. 26 He that answerith riytful wordis, schal kisse lippis. 27 Make redi thi werk with outforth, and worche thi feelde dilygentli, that thou bilde thin hous aftirward. 28 Be thou not a witnesse with out resonable cause ayens thi neiybore; nether flatere thou ony man with thi lippis. 29 Seie thou not, As he dide to me, so Y schal do to him, and Y schal yelde to ech man aftir his werk. 30 I passide bi the feeld of a slow man, and bi the vyner of a fonnid man; and, lo! 31 nettlis hadden fillid al, thornes hadden hilid the hiyere part therof, and the wal of stoonys with out mortar was distried. 32 And whanne Y hadde seyn this thing, Y settide in myn herte, and bi ensauple Y lernyde techyng. 33 Hou longe slepist thou, slow man? whanne schalt thou ryse fro sleep? Sotheli thou schalt slepe a lital, thou schalt nappe a lital, thou schalt ioyne togidere the hondis a lital, to take reste; 34 and thi nedynesse as a currouer schal come to thee, and thi beggerie as an armed man.

25 Also these ben the Parablis of Salomon, whiche the men of Ezechie, kyng of Juda, translatiden. 2 The glorie of God is to hele a word; and the glorie of kyngis is to seke out a word. 3 Heuene aboue, and the erthe bynethe, and the herte of kyngis is vnserchable. 4 Do thou a wei rust fro siluer, and a ful cleene vessel schal go out. 5 Do thou awei vnpite fro the cheer of the kyng, and his trone schal be maad stidfast bi riytfulnesse. 6 Appere thou not gloriouse bifore the kyng, and stonde thou not in the place of grete men. 7 For it is betere, that it be seid to thee, Stie thou hidur, than that thou be maad low bifore the prince. 8 Brynge thou not forth soone tho thingis in strijf, whiche thin iyen sien; lest aftirward thou maist not amende, whanne thou hast maad thi frend vn timerly. 9 Trete thi cause with thi frend, and schewe thou not priuyte to a straunge man; 10 lest perauenture he haue ioye of thi fal, whanne he hath herde, and ceesse not to do schenscipe to thee. Grace and frenschip delyueren, whiche kepe thou to thee, that thou be not maad repreuable. 11 A goldun pomel in beddis of siluer is he, that spekith a word in his time. 12 A goldun eere ryng, and a schinyng peerle is he, that repreueth a wijs man, and an eere obeiyng. 13 As the coold of snow in the dai of heruest, so a feithful messenger to hym that sente `thilke messenger, makith his soule to haue reste. 14 A cloude and wind, and reyn not suyng, is a gloriouse man, and not fillyng biheestis. 15 A prince schal be maad soft bi pacience; and a soft tunge schal breke hardnesse. 16 Thou hast founde hony, ete thou that that suffisith to thee; lest perauenture thou be fillid, and brake it out. 17 Withdraw thy foot fro the hous of thi neybores; lest sum tyme he be fillid, and hate thee. 18 A dart, and a swerd, and a scharp arowe, a man that spekith fals witnessing ayens his neybore. 19 A rotun tooth, and a feynt foot is he, that hopith on an vnfeithful man in the dai of angwisch, 20 and leesith his mentil in the dai of coold. Vynegre in a vessel of salt is he, that singith songis to the worste herte. As a mouyte noieth a cloth, and a worm noieth a tree, so the sorewe of a man noieth the herte. 21 If thin enemy hungrith, feede thou him; if he thirstith, yyue thou watir to hym to drinke; 22 for thou schalt gadere togidere coolis on his heed; and the Lord schal yelde to thee. 23 The north wind scatereth reynes; and a sorewful face distrieth a tunge bacbitinge. 24 It is betere to sitte in the corner of an hous without roof, than with a womman ful of chidyng, and in a comyn hous. 25 Coold watir to a thirsti man; and a good messenger fro a fer lond. 26 A welle disturblid with foot, and a veyne brokun, a iust man fallinge bfore a wickid man. 27 As it is not good to hym that etith myche hony; so he that is a serchere of maieste, schal be put down fro glorie. 28 As a citee opyn, and with out cumpas of wallis; so is a man that mai not refreyne his spirit in speking.

26 As snow in somer, and reyn in heruest; so glorie is vnsemeli to a fool. 2 For whi as a brid fliynge ouer to hiy thingis, and a sparowe goynge in to vncerteyn; so cursing brouyt forth with out resonable cause schal come aboue in to sum man. 3 Beting to an hors, and a bernacle to an asse; and a yerde in the bak of vnprudent men. 4 Answer thou not to a fool bi his foli, lest thou be maad lijk hym. 5 Answer thou a fool bi his fooli, lest he seme to him silf to be wijs. 6 An haltinge man in feet, and drinkinge wickidnesse, he that sendith wordis by a fonned messenger. 7 As an haltinge man hath faire leggis in veyn; so a parable is vnsemeli in the mouth of foolis. 8 As he that casteth a stoon in to an heap of mercurie; so he that yueth onour to an vnwijs man. 9 As if a thorn growith in the hond of a drunkun man; so a parable in the mouth of foolis. 10 Doom determyneth causis; and he that settith silence to a fool, swagith iris. 11 As a dogge that turneth ayen to his spuynge; so is an vnprudent man, that rehersith his fooli. 12 Thou hast seyn a man seme wijs to hym silf; an vnkunynge man schal haue hope more than he. 13 A slow man seith, A lioun is in the weie, a liounnesse is in the foot pathis. 14 As a dore is turned in his hengis; so a slow man in his bed. 15 A slow man hidith hise hondis vnder his armpit; and he trauelith, if he turneth tho to his mouth. 16 A slow man semeth wysere to hym silf, than seuene men spekyng sentensis. 17 As he that takith a dogge bi the eeris; so he that passith, and is vnpacient, and is meddlid with the chiding of anothis man. 18 As he is gilty, that sendith speris and arowis in to deth; 19 so a man that anoith gilefuli his frend, and whanne he is takun, he schal seie, Y dide pleinyng. 20 Whanne trees failen, the fier schal be quenched; and whanne a priuy bacbitere is withdrawun, stryues resten. 21 As deed coolis at quic coolis, and trees at the fier; so a wrathful man reisith chidyngis. 22 The wordis of a pryuei bacbitere ben as symple; and tho comen til to the ynneste thingis of the herte. 23 As if thou wolt ourne a vessel of erthe with foul siluer; so ben bolnyng lippis felouschipid with `the werste herte. 24 An enemy is vndirstondun bi hise lippis, whanne he tretith giles in the herte. 25 Whanne he `makith low his vois, bileue thou not to hym; for seuene wickidnessis ben in his herte. 26 The malice of hym that hilith hatrede gilefuli, schal be schewid in a counsel. 27 He that delueth a dicke, schal falle in to it; and if a man walewith a stoon, it schal turne ayen to hym. 28 A fals tunge loueth not treuth; and a slidir mouth worchith fallyngis.

27 Haue thou not glorie on the morewe, `not knowynge what thing the dai to comynge schal bringe forth. 2 Another man, and not thi mouth preise thee; a straunger, and not thi lippis `preise thee. 3 A stoon is heuy, and grauel is chariouse; but the ire of a fool is heuyere than euer eithir. 4 Ire hath no merci, and woodnesse brekyng out `hath no merci; and who mai suffre the fersnesse of a spirit stirid? 5 Betere is opyn repreuyng, than loue hid. 6 Betere ben the woundis of hym that loueth, than the gileful cossis of hym that hatith. 7 A man fillid schal dispise an hony coomb; but an hungri man schal take, yhe, bittir thing for swete. 8 As a brid passinge ouer fro his nest, so is a man that forsakith his place. 9 The herte delitith in oynement, and dyuerse odours; and a soule is maad swete bi the good counsels of a frend. 10 Forsake thou not thi frend, and the frend of thi fadir; and entre thou not in to the hous of thi brothir, in the dai of thi turment. Betere is a neybore nyy, than a brothir afer. 11 Mi sone, studie thou a boutte wisdom, and make thou glad myn herte; that thou maist answere a word to a dispisere. 12 A fel man seyng yuel was hid; litle men of wit passinge forth suffriden harmes. 13 Take thou awei his clooth, that bihiyte for a straunger; and take thou awei a wed fro hym for an alien man. 14 He that blessith his neybore with greet vois; and risith bi niyt, schal be lijk hym that cursith. 15 Roouys droppynge in the dai of coold, and a womman ful of chidyng ben comparisond. 16 He that withholdith hir, as if he holdith wynd; and auoidith the oile of his riyt hond. 17 Yrun is whettid bi irun; and a man whettiith the face of his frend. 18 He that kepith a fige tre, schal ete the fruytis therof; and he that is a kepere of his lord, schal be glorified. 19 As the cheris of men biholdinge schynen in watris; so the hertis of men ben opyn to prudent men. 20 Helle and perdicioun schulen not be fillid; so and the iyen of men moun not be fillid. (Sheol h7585) 21 As siluer is preuyd in a wellyng place, and gold `is preued in a furneys; so a man is preued bi the mouth of preyseris. The herte of a wickid man sekith out yuels; but a riytful herte sekith out kunnyng. 22 Thouy thou beetist a fool in a mortar, as with a pestel smytynge aboue dried barli; his foli schal not be don awei fro him. 23 Knowe thou diligentli the cheere of thi beeste; and biholde thou thi flockis. 24 For thou schalt not haue power contynueli; but a coroun schal be youun to thee in generacioun and in to generacioun. 25 Medewis ben openyd, and greene eerbis apperiden; and hey is gaderid fro hillis. 26 Lambren be to thi clothing; and kidis be to the prijs of feeld. 27 The mylke of geete suffice to thee for thi meetis; in to the necessarie thingis of thin hous, and to lijflode to thin handmaidis.

28 A wickid man fleeth, whanne no man pursueth; but a iust man as a lioun tristyng schal be with out ferdfulnesse. 2 For the synnes of the lond ben many princis therof; and for the wisdom of a man, and for the kunnyng of these thingis that ben seid, the lijf of the duyck schal be lengere. 3 A pore man falsli calengyng pore men, is lijk a grete reyn, wherynne hungur is maad redi. 4 Thei that forsaken the lawe, preisen a wickid man; thei that kepen `the lawe, ben kyndlid ayens hym. 5 Wickid men thenken not doom; but thei that seken the Lord, perseyuen alle thingis. 6 Betere is a pore man goyng in his sympilnesse, than a riche man in schrewid weies. 7 He that kepith the lawe, is a wijs sone; but he that fedith glotouns, schendith his fadir. 8

He that gaderith togidere richessis bi vsuris, and fre encrees, gaderith tho togidere ayens pore men. 9 His preyer schal be maad cursid, that bowith awei his eere; that he here not the lawe. 10 He that disseyueth iust men in an yuel weye, schal falle in his perisching; and iuste men schulen welde hise goodis. 11 A ryche man semeth wijs to him silf; but a pore man prudent schal serche him. 12 In enhaunsing of iust men is miche glorie; whanne wickid men regnen, fallyngis of men ben. 13 He that hidith hise grete trespassis, schal not be maad riytful; but he that knoulechith and forsakith tho, schal gete merci. 14 Blessid is the man, which is euere dredeful; but he that is `harde of soule, schal falle in to yuel. 15 A rorynge lioun, and an hungry bere, is a wickid prince on a pore puple. 16 A duyk nedi of prudence schal oppresse many men bi fals challenge; but the daies of hym that hatith aueryce, schulen be maad longe. 17 No man susteyneth a man that falsly chalengith the blood of a man, if he fleeth `til to the lake. 18 He that goith simpli, schal be saaf; he that goith bi weiward weies, schal falle doun onys. 19 He that worchith his lond, schal be fillid with looues; he that sueth ydelnesse, schal be fillid with nedynesse. 20 A feithful man schal be preisid myche; but he that hastith to be maad riche, schal not be innocent. 21 He that knowith a face in doom, doith not wel; this man forsakith treuthe, yhe, for a mussel of breed. 22 A man that hastith to be maad riche, and hath enuye to othere men; woot not that nedinesse schal come on hym. 23 He that repreueth a man, schal fynde grace aftirward at hym; more than he that disseyueth bi flateryngis of tunge. 24 He that withdrawith ony thing fro his fadir and fro his modir, and seith that this is no synne, is parcener of a manquellere. 25 He that auauntith hym silf, and alargith, reisith stryues; but he that hopith in the Lord, schal be sauyd. 26 He that tristith in his herte, is a fool; but he that goith wiseli, 27 schal be preysid. He that yyueth to a pore man, schal not be nedi; he that dispisith `a pore man bisechyng, schal suffre nedynesse. 28 Whanne vnpitouse men risen, men schulen be hid; whanne tho `vnpitouse men han perischid, iust men schulen be multiplied.

29 Sodeyn perischyng schal come on that man, that with hard nol dispisith a blamere; and helth schal not sue hym. 2 The comynalte schal be glad in the multipliynge of iust men; whanne wickid men han take prinshod, the puple schal weyle. 3 A man that loueth wisdom, makith glad his fadir; but he that nurschith `an hoore, schal leese catel. 4 A iust king reisith the lond; an auerouse man schal distrie it. 5 A man that spekith bi flaterynge and feyned wordis to his frend; spredith abroad a net to hise steppis. 6 A snare schal wlappe a wickid man doyng synne; and a iust man schal preise, and schal make ioye. 7 A iust man knowith the cause of pore men; an vnpitouse man knowith not kunnyng. 8 Men ful of pestilence distryen a citee; but wise men turnen awei woodnesse. 9 If a wijs man stryue with a fool; whether he be wrooth, `ether he leiyith, he schal not fynde reste. 10 Menquelleris haten a simple man; but iust men seken his soule. 11 A fool bringith forth al his spirit; a wise man dilaieth, and reserueth in to tyme comynge afterward. 12 A prince that herith wilfuli the wordis of a leesyng; schal haue alle mynystris vnfeithful. 13 A pore man and a leenere metten hem silf; the Lord is liytner of euer ethir. 14 If a kyng demeth pore men in treuthe; his trone schal be maad stidfast with outen ende. 15 A yerde and chastisyng schal yyue wisdom; but a child, which is left to his wille, schendith his modir. 16 Grete trespassis schulen be multiplied in the multipliynge of wickid men; and iust men schulen se the fallyngis of hem. 17 Teche thi sone, and he schal coumforte thee; and he schal yyue delicis to thi soule. 18 Whanne prophesie faylith, the puple schal be distried; but he that kepith the lawe, is blessid. 19 A seruaunt mai not be tauyt bi wordis; for he vndirstondith that that thou seist, and dispisith for to answeere. 20 Thou hast seyn a man swift to speke; foli schal be hopid more than his amendyng. 21 He that nurschith his seruaunt delicatli fro childhod; schal fynde hym rebel aftirward. 22 A wrathful man territh chidingis; and he that is liyt to haue indignacioun, schal be more enclynaunt to synnes. 23 Lownesse sueth a proude man; and glorie schal vp take a meke man of spirit. 24 He that takith part with a theef, hatith his soule; he herith a man chargynge greetli, and schewith not. 25 He that dredith a man, schal falle soon; he that hopith in the Lord, schal be reysid. 26 Many men seken the face of the prince; and the doom of alle men schal go forth of the Lord. 27 Iust men han abhomynacioun of a wickid man; and wickid men han abhomynacioun of hem, that ben in a rytful weye. A sone kepyng a word, schal be out of perdicoun.

30 The wordis of hym that gaderith, of the sone spuynge. The prophesie which a man spak, with whom God was, and which man was coumfortid bi God dwellyng with hym, 2 and seide, Y am the moost fool of men; and the wisdom of men is not with me. 3 Y lernede not wisdom; and Y knew not the kunnyng of hooli men. 4 Who stiede in to heuene, and cam down? Who helde togidere the spirit in hise hondis? who bonde togidere watris as in a cloth? Who reyside alle the endis of erthe? What is name of hym? and what is the name of his sone, if thou knowist?

5 Ech word of God is a scheld set a fiere, to alle that hopen in hym. 6 Adde thou not ony thing to the wordis of hym, and thou be repreued, and be foundun a liere. 7 I preiede thee twei thingis; denye not thou to me, bifer that Y die. 8 Make thou fer fro me vanyte and wordis of leesyng; yyue thou not to me beggery and richessis; yyue thou oneli necessities to my lijflode; 9 lest perauenture Y be fillid, and be drawun to denye, and seie, Who is the Lord? and lest Y compellid bi nedynesse, stele, and forswere the name of my God. 10 Accuse thou not a seruaunt to his lord, lest perauenture he curse thee, and thou falle down. 11 A generacioun that cursith his fadir, and that blessith not his modir. 12 A generacioun that semeth cleene to it silf, and netheles is not waischun fro hise filthis. 13 A generacioun whose iyen ben hiy, and the iye liddis therof ben reisid in to hiy thingis. 14 A generacioun that hath swerdis for teeth, and etith with hise wank teeth; that it ete nedi men of erthe, and the porails of men. 15 The watir leche hath twei douytris, seiynge, Brynge, bringe. Thre thingis ben vnable to be fillid, and the fourthe, that seith neuere, It suffisith; 16 helle, and the mouth of the wombe, and the erthe which is neuere fillid with water; but fier seith neuere, It suffisith. (Sheol h7585) 17 Crowis of the stronde picke out thilke iye, that scorneth the fadir, and that dispisith the child beryng of his modir; and the briddis of an egle ete that iye. 18 Thre thingis ben hard to me, and outirli Y knowe not the fourthe thing; 19 the weye of an egle in heuene, the weie of a serpent on a stoon, the weie of a schip in the myddil of the see, and the weie of a man in yong wexynge age. 20 Siche is the weie of a womman auowtresse, which etith, and wipith hir mouth, and seith, Y wrouyte not yuel. 21 The erthe is moued bi thre thingis, and the fourthe thing, which it may not susteyne; 22 bi a seruaunt, whanne he regneth; bi a fool, whanne he is fillid with mete; 23 bi an hateful womman, whanne sche is takun in matrymonye; and bi an handmaide, whanne sche is eir of hir ladi. 24 Foure ben the leeste thingis of erthe, and tho ben wisere than wise men; 25 amtis, a feble puple, that maken redi mete in heruest to hem silf; 26 a hare, a puple vnmyyti, that settith his bed in a stoon; 27 a locust hath no kyng, and al goith out bi cumpanyes; an euete enforsith with hondis, 28 and dwellith in the housis of kingis. 29 Thre thingis ben, that goon wel, and the fourthe thing, that goith richeli. 30 A lioun, strongeste of beestis, schal not drede at the meetyng of ony man; 31 a cok gird the leendis, and a ram, and noon is that schal ayenstonde him. 32 He that apperith a fool, aftir that he is reysid an hiy; for if he hadde vndurstonde, he hadde sett hond on his mouth. 33 Forsothe he that thristith strongli teetis, to drawe out mylk, thristith out botere; and he that smytith greetli, drawith out blood; and he that stirith iris, bringith forth discordis.

31 The wordis of Lamuel, the king; the visioun bi which his modir tauyte hym. 2 What my derlyng? what the derlyng of my wombe? what the derlyng of my desiris? 3 Yyue thou not thi catel to wymmen, and thi richessis to do awei kyngis. 4 A! Lamuel, nyle thou yiue wyn to kingis; for no pryue is, where drunkenesse regneth. 5 Lest perauenture thei drynke, and foryete domes, and chaunge the cause of the sones of a pore man. 6 Yyue ye sidur to hem that morenen, and wyn to hem that ben of bitter soule. 7 Drinke thei, and foryete thei her nedinesse; and thenke thei no more on her sorewe. 8 Opene thi mouth for a doubt man, 9 and opene thi mouth for the causes of alle sones that passen forth. Deme thou that that is iust, and deme thou a nedi man and a pore man. 10 Who schal fynde a stronge womman? the prijs of her is fer, and fro the laste endis. 11 The herte of hir hosebond tristith in hir; and sche schal not haue nede to spuylis. 12 Sche schal yelde to hym good, and not yuel, in alle the daies of hir lijf. 13 Sche souyte wolle and flex; and wrouyte bi the counsel of hir hondis. 14 Sche is maad as the schip of a marchaunt, that berith his breed fro fer. 15 And sche roos bi nyyt, and yaf prey to hir meyneals, and metis to hir handmaidis. 16 Sche bihelde a feeld, and bouyte it; of the fruyt of hir hondis sche plauntide a vyner. 17 Sche girde hir leendis with strengthe, and made strong hir arm. 18 Sche taastide, and siy, that hir marchaundie was good; hir lanterne schal not be quenchid in the niyt. 19 Sche putte hir hondis to stronge thingis, and hir fyngris token the spyndil. 20 Sche openyde hir hond to a nedi man, and stretchide forth hir hondis to a pore man. 21 Sche schal not drede for hir hous of the cooldis of snow; for alle hir meyneals ben clothid with double clothis. 22 Sche made to hir a ray cloth; bijs and purpur is the cloth of hir. 23 Hir hosebonde is noble in the yatis, whanne he sittith with the senatours of erthe. 24 Sche made lynnun cloth, and selde; and yaf a girdil to a Chananei. 25 Strengthe and fairnesse is the clothing of hir; and sche schal leiye in the laste dai. 26 Sche openyde hir mouth to wisdom; and the lawe of merci is in hir tunge. 27 Sche bihelde the pathis of hir hous; and sche eet not breed idili. 28 Hir sones risiden, and prechiden hir moost blessid; hir hosebonde roos, and preside hir. 29 Many douytris gaderiden richessis; thou passidist alle. 30 Fairnesse is disseiuable grace, and veyn; thilke womman, that dredith the Lord, schal be preisid. 31 Yyue ye to hir of the fruyt of hir hondis; and hir werkis preise hir in the yatis.

Ecclesiastes

1 The wordis of Ecclesiastes, sone of Daud, the kyng of Jerusalem. 2 The vanyte of vanytees, seide Ecclesiastes; the vanyte of vanytees, and alle thingis ben vanite. 3 What hath a man more of alle his trauel, bi which he traueilith vndur the sunne? 4 Generacioun passith awei, and generacioun cometh; but the erthe stondith with outen ende. 5 The sunne risith, and goith doun, and turneth ayen to his place; 6 and there it risith ayen, and cumpassith bi the south, and turneth ayen to the north. The spirit cumpassyng alle thingis goith `in cumpas, and turneth ayen in to hise cerclis. 7 Alle floodis entren in to the see, and the see fletith not ouer the markis set of God; the floodis turnen ayen to the place fro whennus tho comen forth, that tho flowe eft. 8 Alle thingis ben hard; a man may not declare tho thingis bi word; the iye is not fillid bi siyt, nether the eere is fillid bi hering. 9 What is that thing that was, that that schal come? What is that thing that is maad, that that schal be maad? 10 No thing vndir the sunne is newe, nether ony man may seie, Lo! this thing is newe; for now it yede bfore in worldis, that weren bfore vs. 11 Mynde of the formere thingis is not, but sotheli nether thenkyng of tho thingis, that schulen come afterward, schal be at hem that schulen come in the last tyme. 12 I Ecclesiastes was king of Israel in Jerusalem; 13 and Y purposide in my soule to seke and enserche wiseli of alle thingis, that ben maad vndur the sunne. God yaf this werste ocupacioun to the sones of men, that thei schulden be ocupied therynne. 14 I siy alle thingis that ben maad vndur the sunne, and lo! alle thingis ben vanyte and turment of spirit. 15 Weiward men ben amendid of hard; and the noumbre of foolis is greet with outen ende. 16 I spak in myn herte, and Y seide, Lo! Y am made greet, and Y passide in wisdom alle men, that weren bfore me in Jerusalem; and my soule siy many thingis wiseli, and Y lernede. 17 And Y yaf myn herte, that Y schulde knowe prudence and doctryn, and errours and foli. And Y knew that in these thingis also was trauel and turment of spirit; 18 for in myche wisdom is myche indignacioun, and he that encressith kunnyng, encreessith also trauel.

in these thingis whiche I hadde maad redi; and Y demyde this my part, if Y vside my trauel. 11 And whanne Y hadde turned me to alle werkis whiche myn hondys hadden maad, and to the trauels in whiche Y hadde swet in veyn, Y siy in alle thingis vanyte and turment of the soule, and that no thing vndir sunne dwellith stabli. 12 I passide to biholde wisdom, errours, and foli; Y seide, What is a man, that he may sue the king, his maker? 13 And Y siy, that wisdom yede so mych bifer foli, as miche as liyt is dyuerse fro derknessis. 14 The iyen of a wijs man ben in his heed, a fool goith in derknessis; and Y lernede, that o perisching was of euer either. 15 And Y seide in myn herte, If o deth schal be bothe of the fool and of me, what profitith it to me, that Y yaf more bisynesse to wisdom? And Y spak with my soule, and perseyuede, that this also was vanyte. 16 For mynde of a wijs man schal not be, in lijk maner as nether of a fool with outhende, and tymes to comynge schulen hile alle thingis togidere with foryetyng; a lerned man dieth in lijk maner and an vnlearned man. 17 And therfor it anoiede me of my lijf, seyng that alle thingis vndur sunne ben yuele, and that alle thingis ben vanyte and turment of the spirit. 18 Eft Y curside al my bisynesse, bi which Y trauelide moost studiousli vndur sunne, and Y schal haue an eir after me, 19 whom Y knowe not, whether he schal be wijs ether a fool; and he schal be lord in my trauels, for whiche Y swatte greetli, and was bisi; and is ony thing so veyn? 20 Wherfor Y ceesside, and myn herte forsook for to trauele ferthere vnder sunne. 21 For whi whanne another man trauelith in wisdom, and techyng, and bisynesse, he leeueth thingis getun to an idel man; and therfor this is vanyte, and greet yuel. 22 For whi what schal it profite to a man of al his trauel, and turment of spirit, bi which he was turmentid vndur sunne? 23 Alle hise daies ben ful of sorewis and meschefs, and bi nyyt he restith not in soule; and whether this is not vanyte? 24 Whether it is not betere to ete and drynke, and to schewe to hise soule goodis of hise trauels? and this thing is of the hond of God. 25 Who schal deuoure so, and schal flowe in delicis, as Y dide? 26 God yaf wisdom, and kunnyng, and gladnesse to a good man in his siyt; but he yaf turment, and superflu bisynesse to a synnere, that he encrease, and gadere togidere, and yyue to hym that plesith God; but also this is vanyte, and veyn bisynesse of soule.

3 Alle thingis han tyme, and alle thingis vndur sunne passen bi her spaces. 2 Tyme of birthe, and time of diyng; tyme to plaunte, and tyme to drawe vp that that is plauntid. 3 Tyme to sle, and tyme to make hool; tyme to distrie, and tyme to bilde. 4 Tyme to wepe, and tyme to leiye; tyme to biweile, and tyme to daunse. 5 Tyme to scatere stoonys, and tyme to gadere togidere; tyme to colle, and tyme to be fer fro collyngis. 6 Tyme to wynne, and tyme to leese; tyme to kepe, and tyme to caste awei. 7 Tyme to kitte, and tyme to sewe togidere; tyme to be stille, and tyme to speke. 8 Tyme of loue, and tyme of hatrede; tyme of batel, and tyme of pees. 9 What hath a man more of his trauel? 10 I siy the turment, which God yaf to the sones of men, that thei be occupied therynne. 11 God made alle thingis good in her tyme, and yaf the world to disputyng of hem, that a man fynde not the werk which God hath wrouyt fro the bigynnyng `til in to the ende. 12 And Y knew that no thing was betere `to a man, `no but to be glad, and to do good werkis in his lijf. 13 For whi ech man that etith and drinkith, and seeth good of his trauel; this is the yifte of God. 14 I haue lerned that alle werkis, whiche God made, lasten stidfastli `til in to with outen ende; we moun not adde ony thing to tho, nether take awei fro tho thingis, whiche God made, that he be dred. 15 That thing that is maad, dwellith perfitli; tho thingis that schulen come, weren bfore; and God restorith that, that is goon. 16 I siy vndur sunne vnfeithfulnesse in the place of doom; and wickidnesse in the place of riytfulnesse. 17 And Y seide in myn herte, The Lord schal deme a iust man, and an vnfeithful man; and the tyme of ech thing schal be thanne. 18 I seide in myn herte of the sones of men, that God schulde preue hem, and schewe that thei ben lijk vnresonable beestis. 19 Therfor oon is the perisching of man and of beestis, and euene condicioun is of euer eithir; as a man dieth, `so and tho beestis dien; alle beestis brethen in lijk maner, and a man hath no thing more than a beeste. 20 Alle thingis ben suget to vanyte, and alle thingis goen to o place; tho ben maad of erthe, and tho turnen ayen togidere in to erthe. 21 Who knowith, if the spirit of the sones of Adam stieth vpward, and if the spirit of beestis goith downward? 22 And Y perseyuede that no thing is betere, than that a man be glad in his werk, and that this be his part; for who schal brynge hym, that he knowe thingis that schulen come after hym?

superflu bisynesse. 5 A fool foldith togidere hise hondis, and etith hise fleischis, 6 and seith, Betere is an handful with reste, than euer either hondful with trauel and turment of soule. 7 I bihelde and foond also another vanytee vndir the sunne; 8 oon is, and he hath not a secounde; not a sone, not a brother; and nethes he ceesith not for to trauele, nether hise iyen ben fillid with richessis; nether he bithenkith, and seith, To whom trauele Y, and disseyue my soule in goodis? In this also is vanyte, and the worste turment. 9 Therfor it is betere, that tweyne be togidere than oon; for thei han profite of her felouschipe. 10 If oon fallith doun, he schal be vndurset of the tothere; wo to hym that is aloone, for whanne he fallith, he hath noon reisyng him. 11 And if tweyne slepen, thei schulen be nurschid togidere; hou schal oon be maad hoot? 12 And if ony man hath maistri ayens oon, tweyne ayen stonden hym; a threfolde corde is brokun of hard. 13 A pore man and wijs is betere than an eld kyng and fool, that kan not bfore se in to tyme to comyng. 14 For sum tyme a man goith out bothe fro prysoun and chaynes to a rewme; and anothir borun in to a rewme is wastid bi nedynesse. 15 I siy alle men lyuyng that goen vndur the sunne, with the secounde yong wexyng man, that schal rise for hym. 16 The noumbre of puple, of alle that weren bfore hym, is greet with outen mesure, and thei that schulen come aftirward, schulen not be glad in hym; but also this is vanyte and turment of the spirit.

therfor thi wordis be fewe. 3 Dremes suen many bisynnessis, and foli schal be foundun in many wordis. 4 If thou hast avowid ony thing to God, tarie thou not to yelde; for an vnfeithful and fonned biheest displesith hym; but `yelde thou what euer thing thou hast avowid; 5 and it is myche betere to make not a vowe, than afir a vowe to yelde not biheestis. 6 Yyue thou not thi mouth, that thou make thi fleisch to do synne; nether seie thou bifer an aungel, No puruyaunce is; lest peraenture the Lord be wrooth on thi wordis, and distruye alle the werkis of thin hondis. 7 Where ben many dremes, ben ful many vanytees, and wordis with out noumbre; but drede thou God. 8 If thou seest false chalengis of nedi men, and violent domes, and that riytfulnesse is distried in the prouynce, wondre thou not on this doying; for another is hiyere than an hiy man, and also othere men ben more hiye aboute these men; 9 and ferthermore the kyng of al erthe comaundith to the seruaunt. 10 An auerouse man schal not be fillid of monei; and he that loueth richessis schal not take fruytis of tho; and therfor this is vanyte. 11 Where ben many richessis, also many men ben, that eten tho; and what profitith it to the haldere, no but that he seeth richessis with hise iyen? 12 Slepe is swete to hym that worchith, whether he etith lital ether myche; but the fulnesse of a ryche man suffrith not hym to slepe. 13 Also anothir sijksesse is ful yuel, which Y siy vndur the sunne; richessis ben kept in to the yuel of her lord. 14 For thei perischen in the worste turment; he gendride a sone, that schal be in souereyn nedynesse. 15 As he yede nakid out of his modris wombe, so he schal turne ayen; and he schal take awei with hym no thing of his trauel. 16 Outirli it is a wretchid sijksesse; as he cam, so he schal turne ayen. What therfor profitith it to hym, that he trauelide in to the wynde? 17 In alle the daies of his lijf he eet in derknessis, and in many businessis, and in nedynesse, and sorewe. 18 Therfor this semyde good to me, that a man ete, and drynke, and vse gladnesse of his trauel, in which he trauelide vndir the sunne, in the noumbre of daies of his lijf, which God yaf to hym; and this is his part. 19 And to ech man, to whom God yaf richessis, and catel, and yaf power to hym to ete of tho, and to vse his part, and to be glad of his trauel; this is the yifte of God. 20 For he schal not bithenke miche on the daies of his lijf, for God occupieth his herte with delicis.

6 Also another yuel is, which Y siy vndur the sunne; and certis it is oft vsid anentis men. 2 A man is, to whom God yaf richessis, and catel, and onour; and no thing failith to his soule of alle thingis which he desirith; and God yyueth not power to hym, that he ete therof, but a straunge man shal deuoure it. This is vanyte, and a greet wretchidnesse. 3 If a man gendrith an hundrid fre sones, and lyueth many yeris, and hath many daies of age, and his soule vsith not the goodis of his catel, and wantith biryng; Y pronounce of this man, that a deed borun child is betere than he. 4 For he cometh in veyn, and goith to derknessis; and his name schal be don a wei bi foryetyng. 5 He siy not the sunne, nether knew dyuersyte of good and of yuel; 6 also thouy he lyueth twei thousynde yeeris, and vsith not goodis; whether alle thingis hasten not to o place? 7 Al the trauel of a man is in his mouth, but the soule of hym schal not be fillid with goodis. 8 What hath a wijs man more than a fool? and what hath a pore man, no but that he go thidur, where is lijf? 9 It is betere to se that, that thou coueitist, than to desire that, that thou knowist not; but also this is vanyte, and presumpcioun of spirit. 10 The name of hym that schal come, is clepid now, and it is knowun, that he is a man, and he mai not stryue in doom ayens a strongere than hym silf. 11 Wordis ben ful manye, and han myche vanyte in dispuytyng. 12 What nede is it to a man to seke grettere thingis than hym silf; sithen he knowith not, what schal bifalle to hym in his lijf, in the noumbre of daies of his pilgrimage, and in the tyme that passith as schadowe? ether who may schewe to hym, what thing vndur sunne schal come aftir hym?

7 A good name is betere than preciouise oynementis; and the dai of deth is betere than the dai of birthe. 2 It is betere to go to the hous of morenyng, than to the hous of a feeste; for in that hous `of morenyng the ende of alle men is monestid, and a man lyuyng thenkith, what is to comyng. 3 Yre is betere than leiyng; for the soule of a trespassour is amendid bi the heuynesse of cheer. 4 The herte of wise men is where sorewe is; and the herte of foolis is where gladnesse is. 5 It is betere to be repreued of a wijs man, than to be disseyued bi the flaterieng of foolis; 6 for as the sown of thornes brennyng vndur a pot, so is the leiyng of a fool. But also this is vanyte. 7 Fals challenge disturblith a wijs man, and it schal leese the strengthe of his herte. 8 Forsothe the ende of preyer is betere than the bigynnyng. A pacient man is betere than a proud man. 9 Be thou not swift to be wrooth; for ire restith in the bosum of a fool. 10 Seie thou not, What gessist thou is of cause, that the formere tymes weren betere than ben now? for whi sicke axyng is fonnid. 11 Forsothe wisdom with richessis is more profitable, and profitith more to men seyng the sunne. 12 For as wisdom defendith, so money defendith; but lernyng and wisdom hath this more, that tho yyuen lijf to `her weldere. 13 Biholde thou the werkis of God, that no man may amende hym, whom God hath dispisid. 14 In a good day vse thou goodis, and bfore eschewe thou an yuel day; for God made so this dai as that dai, that a man fynde not iust playnyngis ayens hym. 15 Also Y siy these thingis in the daies of my natyuyte; a iust man perischith in his riytfulnesse, and a wickid man lyueth myche tyme in his malice.

16 Nyle thou be iust myche, nether vndurstonde thou more than is nedeful; lest thou be astonyed. 17 Do thou not wickidli myche, and nyle thou be a fool; lest thou die in a tyme not thin. 18 It is good, that thou susteyne a iust man; but also withdrawe thou not thin hond from hym; for he that dredith God, is not negligent of ony thing. 19 Wisdom hath coumfortid a wise man, ouer ten pryncis of a citee. 20 Forsothe no iust man is in erthe, that doith good, and synneth not. 21 But also yyue thou not thin herte to alle wordis, that ben seid; lest perauenture thou here thi seruaunt cursynge thee; 22 for thi conscience woot, that also thou hast cursid ofte othere men. 23 I asayede alle thingis in wisdom; Y seide, I schal be maad wijs, and it yede awei ferthere fro me, myche more than it was; 24 and the depthe is hiy, who schal fynde it? 25 I cumpasside alle thingis in my soule, to kunne, and biholde, and seke wisdom and resoun, and to knowe the wickidnesse of a fool, and the errour of vnprudent men. 26 And Y foond a womman bitterere than deth, which is the snare of hunteris, and hir herte is a net, and hir hondis ben boondis; he that plesith God schal ascape hir, but he that is a synnere, schal be takun of hir. 27 Lo! Y foond this, seide Ecclesiastes, oon and other, that Y schulde fynde resoun, which my soule sekith yit; 28 and Y foond not. I foond o man of a thousynde; Y foond not a womman of alle. 29 I foond this oonli, that God made a man riytful; and he medlide hym silf with questiouns with out noumbre. Who is siche as a wijs man? and who knowith the expownyng of a word?

8 The wisdom of a man schyneth in his cheer; and the myytieste schal chaunge his face. 2 I kepe the mouth of the kyng, and the comaundementis and sweryngis of God. 3 Haste thou not to go awei fro his face, and dwelle thou not in yuel werk. For he schal do al thing, that he wole; 4 and his word is ful of power, and no man mai seie to hym, Whi doist thou so? 5 He that kepith the comaundement of God `in this lijf, schal not feelee ony thing of yuel; the herte of a wijs man vndurstondith tyme and answer. 6 Tyme and cesoun is to ech werk; and myche turment is of a man, 7 for he knowith not thingis passid, and he mai not knowe bi ony messenger thingis to comynge. 8 It is not in the power of man to forbede the spirit, nethir he hath power in the dai of deth, nethir he is suffrid to haue reste, whanne the batel neiyeth; nethir wickidnesse schal saue a wickid man. 9 I bihelde alle thes thingis, and Y yaf myn herte in alle werkis, that ben don vndur the sunne. Sum tyme a man is lord of a man, to his yuel. 10 Y siy wickid men biryed, which, whanne thei lyueden yit, weren in hooli place; and thei weren preisid in the citee, as men of iust werkis; but also this is vanyte. 11 Forsothe for the sentence is not brouyt forth soone ayens yuele men, the sones of men doon yuels with ouden ony drede. 12 Netheles of that, that a synnere doith yuel an hundrid sithis, and is suffrid bi pacience, Y knew that good schal be to men dredynge God, that reuerensen his face. 13 Good be not to the wickid man, nethir hise daies be maad longe; but passe thei as schadewe, that dreden not the face of the Lord. 14 Also another vanyte is, which is don on erthe. Iust men ben, to whiche yuels comen, as if thei diden the werkis of wickid men; and wickid men ben, that ben so sikur, as if thei han the dedis of iust men; but Y deme also this moost weyn.

15 Therfor Y preysid gladnesse, that no good was to a man vndur the sunne, no but to ete, and drynke, and to be ioiful; and that he schulde bere awei with hym silf oneli this of his trauel, in the daies of his lijf, whiche God yaf to hym vndur the sunne. 16 And Y settide myn herte to knowe wisdom, and to vndurstonde the departing, which is turned in erthe. A man is, that bi daies and nyttis takith not sleep with iyen. 17 And Y vndurstood, that of alle the werkis of God, a man may fynde no resoun of tho thingis, that ben don vndur the sunne; and in as myche as he traueilith more to seke, bi so myche he schal fynde lesse; yhe, thouy a wijs man seith that he knowith, he schal not mow fynde.

9 I tretide alle these thingis in myn herte, to vndirstonde diligentli. Iust men, and wise men ben, and her werkis ben in the hond of God; and netheles a man noot, whether he is worthi of loue or of hatrede. 2 But alle thingis ben kept vncerteyn in to tyme to comynge; for alle thingis bifallen euenli to a iust man and to a wickid man, to a good man and to an yuel man, to a cleene man and to an vnclene man, to a man offrynge offryngis and sacrifices, and to a man dispisyng sacrifices; as a good man, so and a synnere; as a forsworun man, so and he that greetli swerith treuthe. 3 This thing is the worste among alle thingis, that ben don vndur the sunne, that the same thingis bifallen to alle men; wherfor and the hertis of the sones of men ben fillid with malice and dispisyng in her lijf; and aftir these thingis thei schulen be led down to hellis. 4 No man is, that lyueth euere, and that hath trist of this thing; betere is a quik dogge than a deed lioun. 5 For thei that lyuen witen that thei schulen die; but deed men knowen no thing more, nether han meede ferthere; for her mynde is youun to foryetyng. 6 Also the loue, and hatrede, and enuye perischiden togidere; and thei han no part in this world, and in the werk that is don vndur the sunne. 7 Therfor go thou, iust man, and ete thi breed in gladnesse, and drynke thi wiyn with ioie; for thi werkis plesen God. 8 In ech tyme thi clothis be white, and oile faile not fro thin heed. 9 Vse thou lijf with the wijf which thou louest, in alle the daies of lijf of thin vnstabilnesse, that ben youun to thee vndur sunne, in al the tyme of thi vanyte; for this is thi part in thi lijf and trauel, bi which thou trauelist vndur the sunne. 10 Worche thou bisili, what euer thing thin hond mai do; for nether werk, nether resoun, nethir kunnyng, nether wisdom schulen be at hellis, whidir thou haastist. (Sheol h7585) 11 I turnede me to another thing, and Y siy vndur sunne, that rennyng is not of swift men, nethir batel is of stronge men, nether breed is of wise men, nether richessis ben of techeris, ne grace is of crafti men; but tyme and hap is in alle thingis. 12 A man knowith not his ende; but as fischis ben takun with an hook, and as briddis ben takun with a snare, so men ben takun in yuel tyme, whanne it cometh sudeynli on hem. 13 Also Y siy this wisdom vndur the sunne, and Y preuede it the mooste. 14 A litil citee, and a fewe men ther ynne; a greet kyng cam ayens it, and cumpasside it with palis, and he bildide strengthis bi cumpas; and bisegyng was maad perfit. 15 And a pore man and a wijs was foundun ther ynne; and he delyuerede the citee bi his wisdom, and no man bithouyte aftirward on that pore man. 16 And Y seide, that wisdom is betere than strengthe; hou therfor is the wisdom of a pore man dispisid, and hise wordis ben not herd? 17 The wordis of wise men ben herd in silence, more than the cry of a prince among foolis. 18 Betere is wisdom than armuris of batel; and he that synneth in o thing, schal leese many goodis.

10 Flies `that dien, leesen the swetnesse of oynement. Litol foli at a tyme is precioussere than wisdom and glorie. 2 The herte of a wijs man is in his riht side; and the herte of a fool is in his left side. 3 But also a fool goynge in the weie, whanne he is vnwijs, gessith alle men foolis. 4 If the spirit of hym, that hath power, stieth on thee, forsake thou not thi place; for heeling schal make gretteste synnes to ceeße. 5 An yuel is, which Y siy vndur the sunne, and goith out as bi errour fro the face of the prince; a fool set in hiy dignyte, 6 and riche men sitte bynethe. 7 I siy seruauntis on horsis, and princes as seruauntis goynge on the erthe. 8 He that diggith a dicke, schal falle in to it; and an eddre schal bite hym, that distrieth an hegge. 9 He that berith ouer stoonys, schal be turmentid in tho; and he that kittith trees, schal be woundid of tho. 10 If yrun is foldid ayen, and this is not as bifore, but is maad blunt, it schal be maad scharp with myche trauel; and wisdom schal sue aftir bisynesse. 11 If a serpent bitith, it bitith in silence; he that bacbitith priueli, hath no thing lesse than it. 12 The wordis of the mouth of a wijs man is grace; and the lippis of an vnwijs man schulen caste hym doun. 13 The bigynnyng of hise wordis is foli; and the laste thing of his mouth is the worste errour. 14 A fool multiplieth wordis; a man noot, what was bifore hym, and who mai schewe to hym that, that schal come aftir hym? 15 The trauel of foolis shal turment hem, that kunnen not go in to the citee. 16 Lond, wo to thee, whos kyng is a child, and whose princes eten eerli. 17 Blessid is the

lond, whos kyng is noble; and whose princis eten in her tyme, to susteyne the kynde, and not to waste. 18 The hiynesse of housis schal be maad low in slouthis; and the hous schal droppe in the feblenessse of hondis. 19 In leiyyng thei disposen breed and wyn, that thei drynkynge ete largeli; and alle thingis obeien to monei. 20 In thi thouyt bacbite thou not the kyng, and in the priuete of thi bed, curse thou not a riche man; for the briddis of heuene schulen bere thi vois, and he that hath pennys, schal telle the sentence.

11 Sende thi breed on watris passynge forth, for aftir many tymes thou schalt fynde it. 2 Yyue thou partis seuene, and also eiyte; for thou woost not, what yuel schal come on erthe. 3 If cloudis ben filled, tho schulen schede out reyn on the erthe; if a tre fallith doun to the south, ether to the north, in what euer place it fallith doun, there it schal be. 4 He that aspieth the wynd, sowith not; and he that biholdith the cloudis, schal neuere repe. 5 As thou knowist not, which is the weye of the spirit, and bi what resoun boonys ben ioyned togidere in the wombe of a womman with childe, so thou knowist not the werkis of God, which is makere of alle thingis. 6 Eerli sowe thi seed, and thin hond ceesse not in the euentid; for thou woost not, what schal come forth more, this ethir that; and if euer eithir cometh forth togidere, it schal be the betere. 7 The liyt is sweet, and delitable to the iyen to se the sunne. 8 If a man lyueth many yeeris, and is glad in alle these, he owith to haue mynde of derk tyme, and of many daies; and whanne tho schulen come, thingis passid schulen be repreued of vanyte. 9 Therfor, thou yonge man, be glad in thi yongthe, and thin herte be in good in the daies of thi yongthe, and go thou in the weies of thin herte, and in the biholdyng of thin iyen; and wite thou, that for alle these thingis God shal brynge thee in to doom. 10 Do thou awei ire fro thin herte, and remoue thou malice fro thi fleisch; for whi yongthe and lust ben veyne thingis.

12 Haue thou mynde on thi creatour in the daies of thi yongthe, bifore that the tyme of thi turment come, and the yeris of thi deth neiye, of whiche thou schalt seie, Tho plesen not me. 2 `Haue thou mynde on thi creatour, bifer that the sunne be derk, and the liyt, and sterrys, and the mone; and cloude turne ayen after reyn. 3 Whanne the keperis of the hous schulen be mouyd, and strongeste men schulen tremble; and grynderis schulen be idel, whanne the noumbre schal be maad lesse, and seeris bi the hoolis schulen wexe derk; 4 and schulen close the doris in the street, in the lownesse of vois of a gryndere; and thei schulen rise at the vois of a brid, and alle the douytris of song schulen wexe deef. 5 And hiy thingis schulen drede, and schulen be aferd in the weie; an alemaunde tre schal floure, a locuste schal be maad fat, and capparis schal be distried; for a man schal go in to the hous of his euerlastyngnesse, and weileris schulen go aboute in the street. 6 Haue thou mynde on thi creatour, byfore that a siluerne roop be brokun, and a goldun lace renne ayen, and a watir pot be al to-brokun on the welle, and a wheele be brokun togidere on the cisterne; 7 and dust turne ayen in to his erthe, wherof it was, and the spirit turne ayen to God, that yaf it. 8 The vanyte of vanytees, seide Ecclesiastes, the vanyte of vanytees, and alle thingis ben vanyte. 9 And whanne Ecclesiastes was moost wijs, he tauyte the puple, and he telde out the thingis whiche he dide, 10 and he souyte out wisdom, and made many parablis; he souyte profitable wordis, and he wroot moost riytful wordis, and ful of treuthe. 11 The wordis of wise men ben as prickis, and as nailis fastned deepe, whiche ben youun of o scheepherde bi the counsels of maistris. 12 My sone, seke thou no more than these; noon ende is to make many bookis, and ofte thenkyng is turment of fleisch. 13 Alle we here togydere the ende of spekyng. Drede thou God, and kepe hise heestis; `that is to seie, ech man. 14 God schal brynge alle thingis in to dom, that ben don; for ech thing don bi errour, whether it be good, ether yuel.

Song of Solomon

1 <sup>2</sup> Kisse he me with the cos of his mouth. For thi tetis ben betere than wyn, <sup>3</sup> and yyuen odour with beste oynementis. Thi name is oile sched out; therfor yonge damesels loueden thee. <sup>4</sup> Drawe thou me after thee; we schulen renne in to the odour of thin oynementis. The kyng ledde me in to hise celeris; we myndeiful of thi teetis aboue wyn, schulen make ful out ioie, and schulen be glad in thee; riytful men louen thee. <sup>5</sup> Ye douytris of Jerusalem, Y am blak, but fair, as the tabernaclis of Cedar, as the skynnes of Salomon. <sup>6</sup> Nyle ye biholde me, that Y am blak, for the sunne hath discolourid me; the sones of my modir fouyten ayens me, thei settiden me a kepere in vyners; Y kepte not my vyner. <sup>7</sup> Thou spouse, whom my soule loueth, schewe to me, where thou lesewist, where thou restist in myddai; lest Y bigynne to wandre, aftir the flockis of thi felowis. <sup>8</sup> A! thou fairest among wymmen, if thou knowist not thi silf, go thou out, and go forth aftir the steppis of thi flockis; and feede thi kidis, bisidis the tabernaclis of scheepherdis. <sup>9</sup> Mi frendesse, Y lignede thee to myn oost of knyytis in the charis of Farao. <sup>10</sup> Thi chekis ben feire, as of a turtle; thi necke is as brochis. <sup>11</sup> We schulen make to thee goldun ournementis, departid and maad dyuerse with silver. <sup>12</sup> Whanne the kyng was in his restyng place, my narde yaf his odour. <sup>13</sup> My derlyng is a bundel of myrre to me; he schal dwelle bitwixe my tetis. <sup>14</sup> My derlyng is to me a cluster of cipre tre, among the vyneres of Engaddi. <sup>15</sup> Lo! my frendesse, thou art fair; lo! thou art fair, thin iyen ben the iyen of culueris. <sup>16</sup> Lo, my derling, thou art fair, and schapli; oure bed is fair as flouris. <sup>17</sup> The trees of oure housis ben of cedre; oure couplis ben of cipresse.

2 I am a flour of the feeld, and a lilje of grete valeis. 2 As a lilie among thornes, so is my frendesse among douytris. 3 As an apple tre among the trees of wodis, so my derlyng among sones. I sat vndur the shadewe of hym, whom Y desiride; and his fruyt was swete to my throte. 4 The king ledde me in to the wyn celer; he ordeynede charite in me. 5 Bisette ye me with flouris, cumpasse ye me with applis; for Y am sijck for loue. 6 His left hond is vndur myn heed; and his riht hond schal biclippe me.
7 Ye douytris of Jerusalem, Y charge you greetli, bi capretis, and hertis of feeldis, that ye reise not, nether make to awake the dereworthe spousesse, til sche wole. The vois of my derlyng; lo!
8 this derlyng cometh leepyng in mounteyns, and skippyng ouer litle hillis. 9 My derlyng is lijk a capret, and a calf of hertis; lo! he stondith bihynde oure wal, and biholdith bi the wyndows, and lokith thorouy the latisis. 10 Lo! my derlyng spekith to me, My frendesse, my culuer, my faire spousesse, rise thou, haaste thou, and come thou; 11 for wyntir is passid now, reyn is goon, and is departid awei. 12 Flouris apperiden in oure lond, the tyme of schridyng is comun; the vois of a turtle is herd in oure lond, 13 the fige tre hath brouyt forth hise buddis; vyneris flouryng han youe her odour. My frendesse, my fayre spousesse, rise thou, haaste thou, and come thou. 14 My culuer is in the hoolis of stoon, in the chyne of a wal with out mortar. Schewe thi face to me, thi vois sowne in myn eeris; for thi vois is swete, and thi face is fair. 15 Catche ye litle foxis to vs, that destrien the vyneris; for oure vyner hath flourid. 16 My derlyng is to me, and Y am to hym, which is fed among lilies; 17 til the dai spryng, and schadewis be bowid down. My derlyng, turne thou ayen; be thou lijk a capret, and a calf of hertis, on the hillis of Betel.

3 In my litle bed Y souyte hym bi nytis, whom my soule loueth; Y souyte hym, and Y foond not. 2 I shal rise, and Y schal cumpasse the citee, bi litle stretis and large stretis; Y schal seke hym, whom my soule loueth; I souyte hym, and Y foond not. 3 Wakeris, that kepen the citee, founden me. Whether ye sien hym, whom my soule loueth? 4 A litil whanne Y hadde passid hem, Y foond hym, whom my soule loueth; Y helde hym, and Y schal not leue hym, til Y brynge him in to the hous of my modir, and in to the closet of my modir. 5 Ye douytris of Jerusalem, Y charge you greetli, bi the capretis, and hertis of feeldis, that ye reise not, nether make to awake the dereworthe spousesse, til sche wole. 6 Who is this womman, that stieth bi the deseert, as a yerde of smoke of swete smellynge spices, of mirre, and of encence, and of al poudur of an oynement makere? 7 Lo! sixti stronge men of the strongeste men of Israel cumpassen the bed of Salomon; and alle thei holden swerdis, 8 and ben moost witti to batels; the swerd of ech man is on his hipe, for the drede of nytis. 9 Kyng Salomon made to hym a seete, of the trees of Liban; 10 he made the pilers therof of siluer; he made a goldun restyng place, a styng of purpur; and he arayed the myddil thingis with charite, for the douytris of Jerusalem. 11 Ye douytris of Sion, go out, and se kyng Salomon in the diademe, bi which his modir crownede hym, in the dai of his spousyng, and in the dai of the gladnesse of his herte.

4 Mi frendesse, thou art ful fair; thin iyen ben of culueris, with outen that that is hid with ynnere; thin heeris ben as the flockis of geete, that stieden fro the hil of Galaad. 2 Thi teeth ben as the flockis of clippid sheep, that stieden fro waischyng; alle ben with double lambren, and no bareyn is among tho. 3 Thi lippis ben as a reed lace, and thi speche is swete; as the relif of an appil of Punyk, so ben thi chekis, with outen that, that is hid with ynne. 4 Thi necke is as the tour of Daud, which is bildid with strengthis maad bfore for defense; a thousynde scheldis hangen on it, al armure of stronge men. 5 Thi twei tetis ben as twey kidis, twynnes of a capret, that ben fed in lilies, 6 til the dai sprynge, and shadewis ben bowid down. Y schal go to the mounteyn of myrre, and to the litil hil of encense. 7 My frendesse, thou art al faire, and no wem is in thee. 8 My spousesse, come thou fro the Liban; come thou fro the Liban, come thou; thou schalt be crowned fro the heed of Amana, fro the cop of Sanyr and Hermon, fro the dennys of liouns, fro the hillis of pardis. 9 My sister spousesse, thou hast woundid myn herte; thou hast woundid myn herte, in oon of thin iyen, and in oon heer of thi necke. 10 My sistir spousesse, thi tetis ben ful faire; thi tetis ben feirere than wyn, and the odour of thi clothis is aboue alle swete smellynge oynementis. 11 Spousesse, thi lippis ben an hony coomb droppynge; hony and mylk ben vndur thi tunge, and the odour of thi clothis is as the odour of encence. 12 Mi sister spousesse, a gardyn closid togidere; a gardyn closid togidere, a welle aseelid. 13 Thi sendingis out ben paradys of applis of Punyk, with the fruytis of applis, cipre trees, with narde; 14 narde, and saffrun, an erbe clepid fistula, and canel, with alle trees of the Liban, myrre, and aloes, with alle the beste oynementis. 15 A welle of gardyns, a pit of wallynge wattris, that flowen with fersnesse fro the Liban. 16 Rise thou north wynd, and come thou, south wynd; blowe thou thorouy my gardyn, and the swete smellynge oynementis therof schulen flete.

5 Mi derlyng, come in to his gardyn, to ete the fruyt of hise applis. Mi sister spousesse, come thou in to my gardyn. Y have rope my myrre, with my swete smellynge spices; Y haue ete an hony combe, with myn hony; Y haue drunke my wyn, with my mylk. Frendis, ete ye, and drynke; and derewortheste frendis, be ye fillid greetli. 2 Y slepe, and myn herte wakith. The vois of my derlyng knockynge; my sister, my frendesse, my culuer, my spousesse vnwemmed, opene thou to me; for myn heed is ful of dew, and myn heeris ben ful of dropis of niytis. 3 I have vnclothid me of my coote; hou schal Y be clothid ther ynne? I haue waische my feet; hou schal Y defoule tho? 4 Mi derlyng putte his hond bi an hoole; and my wombe tremblide at the touchyng therof. 5 Y roos, for to opene to my derlyng; myn hondis droppiden myrre, and my fyngris weren ful of myrre moost preued. 6 Y openede the wicket of my dore to my derlyng; and he hadde bowid awei, and hadde passid. My soule was meltid, as the derlyng spak; Y souyte, and Y foond not hym; Y clepide, and he answerde not to me. 7 Keperis that cumpassiden the citee founden me; thei smytiden me, and woundiden me; the keperis of wallis token away my mentil. 8 Ye douytris of Jerusalem, Y biseche you bi an hooli thing, if ye han founde my derlyng, that ye telle to hym, that Y am sijk for loue. 9 A! thou faireste of wymmen, of what manner condicioun is thi derlyng `of the louede? of what manner condicioun is thi derling of a derling? for thou hast bisouyt vs bi an hooli thing. 10 My derling is whyt and rodi; chosun of thousyndis. 11 His heed is best gold; hise heeris ben as the bowis of palm trees, and ben blake as a crowe. 12 Hise iyen ben as culueris on the strondis of watris, that ben waischid in mylk, and sitten besidis fullest ryueris. 13

Hise chekis ben as gardyns of swete smellynge spices, set of oynement makeris; hise lippis ben lilies, droppynge down the best myrre. 14 Hise hondis ben able to turne aboute, goldun, and ful of iacynctis; his wombe is of yuer, ourned with safiris. 15 Hise lippis ben pilers of marble, that ben foundid on foundementis of gold; his schapplinesse is as of the Liban, he is chosun as cedris. 16 His throte is moost swete, and he is al desirable. Ye douytris of Jerusalem, siche is my derlyng, and this is my freend.

6 Thou faireste of wymmen, whidur yede thi derlyng? whidur bowide thi derlyng? and we schulen seke hym with thee. 2 My derlyng yede down in to his orcherd, to the gardyn of swete smellynge spices, that he be fed there in orcherdis, and gadere lilyes. 3 Y to my derlyng; and my derlyng, that is fed among the lilies, be to me. 4 Mi frendesse, thou art fair, swete and schappli as Jerusalem, thou art ferdful as the scheltrun of oostis set in good ordre. 5 Turne awei thin iyen fro me, for tho maden me to fle awei; thin heeris ben as the flockis of geet, that apperiden fro Galaad. 6 Thi teeth as a flok of scheep, that stieden fro waischyng; alle ben with double lambren, `ether twynnes, and no bareyn is among tho. 7 As the rynde of a pumgranate, so ben thi chekis, without thi priuytees. 8 Sixti ben queenys, and eyti ben secundarie wyues; and of yong damesels is noon noumbre. 9 Oon is my culuer, my perfit spousesse, oon is to hir modir, and is the chosun of hir modir; the douytris of Syon sien hir, and prechiden hir moost blessid; queenys, and secundarie wyues preisiden hir. 10 Who is this, that goith forth, as the moreutid risynge, fair as the moone, chosun as the sunne, ferdful as the scheltrun of oostis set in good ordre? 11 Y cam down in to myn orchard, to se the applis of grete valeis, and to biholde, if vyneris hadden flourid, and if pumgranate trees hadden buriowned. 12 Y knew not; my soule disturblide me, for the charis of Amynadab.

13 Turne ayen, turne ayen, thou Sunamye; turne ayen, turne ayen, that we biholde thee. What schalt thou se in the Sunamye, no but cumpenyes of oostis?

7 Douytir of the prince, thi goyngis ben ful faire in schoon; the ioyncturis of thi heppis ben as brochis, that ben maad bi the hond of a crafti man. 2 Thi nawle is as a round cuppe, and wel formed, that hath neuere nede to drynkis; thi wombe is as an heep of whete, biset aboute with lilies. 3 Thi twei teetis ben as twei kidis, twynnes of a capret. 4 Thi necke is as a tour of yuer; thin iyen ben as cisternes in Esebon, that ben in the yate of the douyter of multitude; thi nose is as the tour of Liban, that biholdith ayens Damask. 5 Thin heed is as Carmele; and the heeres of thin heed ben as the kyngis purpur, ioyned to trowyis.
6 Dereworthe spousesse, thou art ful fair, and ful schappli in delices. 7 Thi stature is ligned to a palm tree, and thi tetis to clustris of grapis. 8 I seide, Y schal stie in to a palm tree, and Y schal take the fruytis therof. And thi tetis schulen be as the clustris of grapis of a vyner; and the odour of thi mouth as the odour of pumgranatis; 9 thi throte schal be as beste wyn.
Worthi to my derlyng for to drynke, and to hise lippis and teeth to chewe. 10 Y schal cleue by loue to my derlyng, and his turnyng schal be to me. 11 Come thou, my derlyng, go we out in to the feeld; dwelle we togidere in townes. 12 Ryse we eerli to the vyner; se we, if the vyner hath flourid, if the flouris bryngen forth fruytis, if pumgranatis han flourid; there I schal yyue to thee my tetis. 13 Mandrogoris han youe her odour in oure yatis; my derlyng, Y haue kept to thee alle applis, new and elde.

8 Who `mai grante to me thee, my brother, soukyng the tetis of my modir, that Y fynde thee aloone without forth, and that Y kisse thee, and no man dispise me thanne? 2 Y schal take thee, and Y schal lede thee in to the hous of my modir, and in to the closet of my modir; there thou schalt teche me, and Y schal yyue to thee drink of wyn maad swete, and of the must of my pumgranatis. 3 His lefthond vndur myn heed, and his riythond schal biclippe me. 4 Ye douytris of Jerusalem, Y charge you greetli, that ye reise not, nether make the dereworthe spousesse to awake, til sche wole. 5 Who is this spousesse, that stieth fro desert, and flowith in delices, and restith on hir derlyng? Y reise thee vndur a pumgranate tre; there thi modir was corrupt, there thi modir was defoulid. 6 Set thou me as a signet on thin herte, as a signet on thin arm; for loue is strong as deth, enuy is hard as helle; the laumpis therof ben laumpis of fier, and of flawmes. (Sheol h7585) 7 Many watris moun not quenche charite, nether floodis schulen oppresse it. Thouy a man yyue al the catel of his hous for loue, he schal dispise `that catel as nouyt. 8 Oure sistir is lital, and hath no tetys; what schulen we do to oure sistir, in the dai whanne sche schal be spokun to? 9 If it is a wal, bilde we theronne siluerne touris; if it is a dore, ioyn we it togidere with tablis of cedre. 10 I am a wal, and my tetis ben as a tour; sithen Y am maad as fyndynge pees bfore hym. 11 A vyner was to the pesible; in that citee, that hath puplis, he bitook it to keperis; a man bryngith a thousynde platis of siluer for the fruyt therof. 12 The vyner is bfore me; a thousynde ben of thee pesible, and two hundrid to hem that kepen the fruytis therof. 13

Freendis herkene thee, that dwellist in orchertis; make thou me to here thi vois. 14 My derlyng, fle thou; be thou maad lijk a capret, and a calf of hertis, on the hillis of swete smellynge spices.

Isaiah

1 The visioun, ether profesie, of Ysaie, the sone of Amos, which he siy on Juda and Jerusalem, in the daies of Osie, of Joathan, of Achas, and of Ezechie, kyngis of Juda. 2 Ye heuenes, here, and thou erthe, perseyue with eeris, for the Lord spak. Y haue nurschid and Y haue enhaunsid sonos; sotheli thei han dispisid me. 3 An oxo knew his lord, and an asse knew the cratche of his lord; but Israel knewe not me, and my puple vndurstood not. 4 Wo to the synful folk, to the puple heuy in wickidnesse, to the weiward seed, to the cursid sonos; thei han forsake the Lord, thei han blasfemyd the hooli of Israel, thei ben aliened backward. 5 On what thing schal Y smyte you more, that encreessen trespassyng? Ech heed is sijk, and ech herte is morenynge. 6 Fro the sole of the foot til to the nol, helthe is not ther ynnere; wounde, and wannesse, and betyng bolnyng is not boundun aboute, nether curid bi medicyn, nether nurschid with oile. 7 Youre lond is forsakun, youre citees ben brent bi fier; aliens deuouren youre cuntrei bfore you, and it schal be disolat as in the distriyng of enemyes. 8 And the douytir of Sion, `that is, Jerusalem, schal be forsakun as a schadewyng place in a vyner, and as an hulke in a place where gourdis wexen, and as a citee which is wastid. 9 If the Lord of oostis hadde not left seed to vs, we hadden be as Sodom, and we hadden be lijk as Gomorre. 10 Ye princes of men of Sodom, here the word of the Lord; and ye puple of Gomorre, perseyue with eeris the lawe of youre God. 11 Wherto offren ye to me the multitude of youre sacrifices? seith the Lord. Y am ful; Y wolde not the brent sacrifices of wetheris, and the ynnere fatnesse of fatte beestis, and the blood of calves, and of lambren, and of buckis of geet. 12 Whanne ye camen bfore my siyt, who axide of youre hondis these thingis, that ye schulden go in myn hallys? 13 Offre ye no more sacrifice in veyn; encense is abhomynacioun to me; Y schal not suffre neomenye, and sabat, and othere feestis. 14 Your cumpenyes ben wickid; my soule hatith youre calendis and youre solempnytees; tho ben maad diseseiful to me, Y trauelide suffrynge. 15 And whanne ye stretchen forth youre hondis, Y schal turne awei myn iyen fro you; and whanne ye multiplen preyer, Y schal not here; for whi youre hondis ben ful of blood. 16 Be ye waischun, be ye clene; do ye awei the yuel of youre thouytis fro myn iyen; ceesse ye to do weiwardli, lerne ye to do wel. 17 Seke ye doom, helpe ye hym that is oppressid, deme ye to the fadirles and modirles child, defende ye a widewe. 18 And come ye, and repreue ye me, seith the Lord. Thouy youre synnes ben as blood reed, tho schulen be maad whijt as snow; and thouy tho ben reed as vermylioun, tho schulen be whijt as wolle. 19 If ye wolen, and heren me, ye schulen ete the goodis of erthe. 20 That if ye nylen, and ye terren me to wrathfulnesse, swerd schal deuoure you; for whi the mouth of the Lord spak. 21 Hou is the feithful citee ful of dom maad an hoore? riytfulnesse dwellide ther ynne; but now menquelleris dwellen ther ynne. 22 Thi siluer is turned in to dros, ether filthe; thi wyn is medlid with watir. 23 Thi princes ben vnfeithful, the felowis of theuys; alle louen yiftis, suen meedis; thei demen not to a fadirles child, and the cause of a widewe entrith not to hem. 24 For this thing, seith the Lord God of oostis, the stronge of Israel, Alas! Y schal be coumfortid on myn enemyes, and Y schal be vengid on myn enemyes. 25 And Y schal turne myn hond to thee, and Y schal sethe out thi filthe to the cleene, and Y schal do awei al thi tyn. 26 And Y schal restore thi iuges, as thei weren bifer to, and thi counselours, as in elde tyme. Aftir these thingis thou schalt be clepid the citee of the riytful, a feithful citee. 27 Sion schal be ayen bouyt in dom, and thei schulen bringe it ayen in to riytfulnesse; 28 and God schal al to-breke cursid men and synneris togidere, and thei that forsoken the Lord, schulen be wastid. 29 For thei schulen be aschamed of idols, to whiche thei maden sacrifice; and ye shulen be aschamid on the orcherdis, whiche ye chesiden. 30 Whanne ye schulen be as an ook, whanne the leeuës fallen doun, and as an orcherd with out watir. 31 And youre strengthe schal be as a deed sparcle of bonys, `ether of herdis of flex, and youre werk schal be as a quyk sparcle; and euer either schal be brent togidere, and noon schal be that schal quenche.

2 The word which Ysaie, the sone of Amos, siy on Juda and Jerusalem. 2 And in the laste daies the hil of the hous of the Lord schal be maad redi in the cop of hillis, and schal be reisd aboue litle hillis. And alle hethene men schulen flowe to hym; 3 and many puplis schulen go, and schulen seie, Come ye, stie we to the hil of the Lord, and to the hous of God of Jacob; and he schal teche vs hise weies, and we schulen go in the pathis of hym. For whi the lawe schal go out of Syon, and the word of the Lord fro Jerusalem. 4 And he schal deme hethene men, and he schal repreue many puplis; and thei schulen welle togidere her swerdes in to scharris, and her speris in to sikelis, ether sithes; folk schal no more reise swerd ayens folk, and thei schulen no more be exercisid to batel. 5 Come ye, the hous of Jacob, and go we in the liyt of the Lord. 6 Forsothe thou hast cast awei thi puple, the hous of Jacob, for thei ben fillid as sum tyme bifer; and thei hadden false dyuynouris bi the chiteryng of briddis, as Filisteis, and thei cleuyden to alien children. 7 The lond is fillid with siluer and gold, and noon ende is of the tresouris therof; and the lond therof is fillid with horsis, and the foure horsid cartis therof ben vnnoumbrable. 8 And the lond therof is fillid with ydols, and thei worschipiden the werk of her hondis, which her fyngris maden; 9 and a man bowide hymself, and a man of full age was maad low. Therfor foryyue thou not to hem. 10 Entre thou, puple of Juda, in to a stoon, be thou hid in a dicke in erthe, fro the face of the drede of the Lord, and fro the glorie of his mageste. 11 The iyen of an hye man ben maad low, and the hiynesse of men schal be bowid down; forsothe the Lord aloone schal be enhaunsid in that dai. 12 For the dai of the Lord of oostis schal be on ech proud man and hye, and on ech boostere, and he schal be maad low; 13 and on alle the cedres of the Liban hye and reysid, and on alle the ookis of Baisan, 14 and on alle hye munteyns, and on alle litle hillis, `that ben reysid; 15 and on ech hye tour, and on ech strong wal; 16 and on alle schippis of Tharsis, and on al thing which is fair in siyt. 17 And al the hiynesse of men schal be bowid down, and the hiynesse of men schal be maad low; and the Lord aloone schal be reysid in that dai, 18 and idols schulen be brokun togidere outirli. 19 And thei schulen entre in to dennes of stoonys, and in to the swolewis of erthe, fro the face of the inward drede of the Lord, and fro the glorie of his maieste, whanne he schal ryse to smyte the lond. 20 In that dai a man schal caste awey the idols of his siluer, and the symylacris of his gold, whiche he hadde maad to hym self, for to worschipe moldewarpis and backis, `ether rere myis. 21 And he schal entre in to chynnis, ethir crasyngis, of stoonys, and in to the caues of hard roochis, fro the face of the inward drede of the Lord, and fro the glorie of his mageste, whanne he schal ryse to smyte the lond. 22 Therfor ceesse ye fro a man, whos spirit is in hise nose thirlis, for he is arettid hiy.

3 For lo! the lordli gouernour, the Lord of oostis, schal take awei fro Jerusalem and fro Juda a myyti man, and strong, and al the strengthe of breed, and al the strengthe of watir; 2 a strong man, and a man a werriour, and a domesman, and a profete, and a false dyuynour in auteris, and an elde man, 3 a prince ouer fifti men, and a worschipful man in cheer, and a counselour, and a wijs man of principal crafti men, and a prudent man of mystik, ethir goostli, speche. 4 And Y schal yyue children the princes of hem, and men of wymmens condiciouns schulen be lordis of hem. 5 And the puple schal falle down, a man to a man, ech man to his neybore; a child schal make noyse ayens an eld man, and an vnnoble man ayens a noble man. 6 For a man schal take his brother, the meneal of his fadir, and schal seie, A clooth is to thee, be thou oure prince; forsothe this fallyng be vndur thin hond. 7 And he schal answeere in that dai, and seie, Y am no leche, and nether breed, nether cloth is in myn hous; nyle ye make me prince of the puple. 8 For whi Jerusalem felle down, and Juda felle down togidere; for the tunge of hem, and the fyndyngis of hem weren ayens the Lord, for to terre to wraththe the iyen of his mageste. 9 The knowyng of her cheer schal answeere to hem; and thei prechiden her synne, as Sodom dide, and hidden not. Wo to the soule of hem, for whi yuels ben yoldun to hem. 10 Seie ye to the iust man, that it schal be to hym wel; for he schal ete the fruyt of hise fyndyngis. 11 Wo to the wickid man in to yuel; for whi the yeldyng of hise hondis schal be maad to hym. 12 The wrongful axeris of my puple robbiden it, and wymmen weren lordis therof. Mi puple, thei that seien thee blessid, disseyuen thee, and distrien the weie of thi steppis.

13 The Lord stondith for to deme, and `the Lord stondith for to deme puplis; 14 the Lord schal come to doom, with the eldere men of his puple, and with hise princes; for ye han wastid my vyner, and the raueyn of a pore man is in youre hous. 15 Whi al to-breken ye my puple, and grynden togidere the faces of pore men? seith the Lord God of oostis. 16 And the Lord God seide, For that that the douytris of Syon weren reisid, and yeden with a necke stretchid forth, and yeden bi signes of iyen, and flappiden with hondis, and yeden, and with her feet yeden in wel araied goyng, 17 the Lord schal make ballyd the nol of the douytris of Sion, and the Lord schal make nakid the heer of hem. 18 In that dai the Lord schal take awei the ournement of schoon, and goldun litle bellis lijk the moone, 19 and ribans, and brochis, and ournementis of armes nyy the schuldris, and mytris, ether chapelettis, 20 and coombis, and ournementis of armes niy the hondis, and goldun ourenementis lijk laumpreis, and litil vessels of oynementis, 21 and eere ryngis, and ryngis, and precieuse stoonys hangyng in the forheed, 22 and chaungyng clothis, and mentils, and schetis, ether smockis, and needlis, 23 and myrouris, and smal lynun clothis aboute the schuldris, and kercheues, and roketis. 24 And stynk shal be for swete odour, and a corde for the girdil; ballidnesse schal be for crispe heer, and an heire for a brest girdil. 25 Also thi faireste men schulen falle bi swerd, and thi stronge men schulen falle in batel. 26 And the yatis therof schulen weile, and morene; and it schal sitte desolat in erthe.

4 And seuene wymmen schulen catche o man in that dai, and schulen seie, We schulen ete oure breed, and we schulen be hilid with oure clothis; oneli thi name be clepid on vs, do thou awei oure schenschip. 2 In that dai the buriownyng of the Lord schal be in greet worschip and glorie; and the fruyt of erthe schal be hiy, and ful out ioye `schal be to hem that schulen be sauyd of Israel. 3 And it schal be, ech that is left in Sion, and is resydue in Jerusalem, schal be clepid hooli; ech that is writun in lijf in Jerusalem; 4 if the Lord waischith awei the filthis of the douytris of Sion, and waischith the blood of Jerusalem fro the myddis therof, in the spirit of doom, and in the spirit of heete. 5 And the Lord made on ech place of the hille of Sion, and where he was clepid to help, a cloude bi dai, and smoke, and briytnesse of fier flawmynge in the niyt; for whi hilyng schal be aboue al glorie. 6 And a tabernacle schal be in to a schadewyng place of the dai, fro heete, and in to sikirnesse and in to hidyng, fro whirlewynd and fro reyn.

5 I schal synge for my derlyng the song of myn vnclis sone, of his vyner. A vyner was maad to my derlyng, in the horne in the sone of oile. 2 And he heggide it, and chees stoonys therof, and plauntide a chosun vyner; and he bildide a tour in the myddis therof, and rerede a presse ther ynne; and he abood, that it schulde bere grapis, and it bare wielde grapis. 3 Now therfor, ye dwelleris of Jerusalem, and ye men of Juda, deme bitwixe me and my viner. 4 What is it that Y ouyt to do more to my vyner, and Y dide not to it? whether that Y abood, that it schulde bere grapis, and it bare wielde grapis? 5 And now Y schal schewe to you, what Y schal do to my vyner. Y schal take awei the hegge therof, and it schal be in to rauyschyng; Y schal caste doun the wal therof, and it schal be in to defoulyng; and Y schal sette it desert, 6 ether forsakun. It schal not be kit, and it schal not be diggid, and breris and thornes schulen `growe vp on it; and Y schal comaunde to cloudis, that tho reyne not reyn on it. 7 Forsothe the vyner of the Lord of oostis is the hous of Israel, and the men of Juda ben the delitable buriownyng of hym. Y abood, that it schal make doom, and lo! wickidnesse; and that it schulde do riytfulnesse, and lo! cry. 8 Wo to you that of place. Whether ye aloone schulen dwelle in the myddis of the lond? 9 These thingis ben in the eeris of me, the Lord of oostis; if many housis ben not forsakun, grete housis and faire, with outen dwellere, bileue ye not to me. 10 For whi ten acris of vynes schulen make a potel, and thretti buschels of seed schulen make thre buschels. 11 Wo to you that risen togidere eerli to sue drunkennesse, and to drinke `til to euentid, that ye brenne with wyn. 12 Harpe, and giterne, and tympan, and pipe, and wyn ben in youre feestis; and ye biholden not the werk of the Lord, nether ye biholden the werkis of hise hondis. 13 Therfor my puple is led prisoner, for it hadde not kunnyng; and the noble men therof perischiden in hungur, and the multitude therof was drye in thirst. 14 Therfor helle alargide his soule, and openyde his mouth with outen ony ende; and strong men therof, and the puple therof, and the hiy men, and gloriouse men therof, schulen go doun to it. (Sheol h7585) 15 And a man schal be bowid doun, and a man of age schal be maad low; and the iyen of hiy men schulen be pressid doun. 16 And the Lord of oostis schal be enhaunsid in doom, and hooli God schal be halewid in riytfulnesse. 17 And lambren schulen be fed bi her ordre, and comelyngis schulen ete desert places turned in to plentee. 18 Wo to you that drawen wickydnese in the cordis of varyte, and drawen synne as the boond of a wayn; and ye seien, 19 The werk of hym haaste, and come soone, that we se; and the counsel of the hooli of Israel neiy, and come, and we schulen knowe it. 20 Wo to you that seien yuel good, and good yuel; and putten derknessis liyt, and liyt derknessis; and putten bittir thing in to swete, and swete thing in to bittir. 21 Wo to you that ben wise men in youre iyen, and ben prudent bifer you silf. 22 Wo to you that ben myyti to drynke wyn, and ben stronge to meddle drunkenesse; 23 and ye iustifien a wickid man for yiftis, and ye taken awei the riytfulnesse of a iust man fro hym. 24 For this thing, as the tunge of fier deuourith stobil, and the heete of flawme brenneth, so the roote of hem schal be as a deed sparcle, and the seed of hem schal stie as dust; for thei castiden awei the lawe of the Lord of oostis, and blasfemyden the speche of the hooli of Israel. 25 Therfor the strong veniaunce of the Lord was wrooth ayens his puple, and he stretchide forth his hond on it, and smoot it; and hillis weren disturblid, and the deed bodies of hem weren maad as a toord in the myddis of stretis. In alle these thingis the stronge vengeaunce of him was not turned awei, but yit his hond was stretchid forth. 26 And he schal reise a signe among naciouns afer, and he schal hisse to hym fro the endis of erthe; and lo! he schal haaste, and schal come swiftli. 27 Noon is failynge nethir trauelynge in that oost; he schal not nappe, nether slepe, nether the girdil of his reynes schal be vndo, nether the lace of his scho schal be brokun. 28 Hise arowis ben scharpe, and alle hise bowis ben bent; the houys of hise horsis ben as a flynt, and hise wheelis ben as the feersnesse of tempest. 29 His roryng schal be as of lioun; he schal rore as the whelpis of liouns; and he schal gnaste, and schal holde prey, and schal biclippe, and noon schal be, that schal delyuere. 30 And he schal sowne on it in that dai, as doith the soun of the see; we schulen biholde in to the erthe, and lo! derknessis of tribulacioun, and liyt is maad derk in the derknesse therof.

6 In the yeer in which the kyng Osie was deed, Y siy the Lord sittynge on an hy seete, and reisid; and the hous was ful of his mageste, and tho thingis that weren vndur hym, filliden the temple. 2 Serafyn stoden on it, sixe wyngis weren to oon, and sixe wyngis to the tothir; with twei wyngis thei hiliden the face of hym, and with twei wyngis thei hiliden the feet of hym, and with twei wyngis thei flowen. 3 And thei crieden `the toon to the tother, and seiden, Hooli, hooli, hooli is the Lord God of oostis; al erthe is ful of his glorie. 4 And the lyntels aboue of the herris were moued togidere of the vois of the criere, and the hous was fillid with smoke. 5 And Y seide, Wo to me, for Y was stille; for Y am a man defoulid in lippis, and Y dwelle in the myddis of the puple hauynge defoulid lippis, and Y siy with myn iyen the kyng Lord of oostis. 6 And oon of serafyn flei to me, and a brennynge cole was in his hond, which cole he hadde take with a tonge fro the auter. 7 And he touchide my mouth, and seide, Lo! Y haue touchid thi lippis with this cole, and thi wickidnesse schal be don awei, and thi synne schal be clensid. 8 And Y herde the vois of the Lord, seiynge, Whom schal Y sende, and who schal go to you? And Y seide, Lo! Y; sende thou me. 9 And he seide, Go thou, and thou schalt seie to this puple, Ye herynge here, and nyle ye vndurstonde; and se ye the profesie, and nyle ye knowe. 10 Make thou blynde the herte of this puple, and aggregre thou the eeris therof, and close thou the iyen therof; lest perauenture it se with hise iyen, and here with hise eeris, and vndurstonde with his herte, and it be conuertid, and Y make it hool. 11 And Y seide, Lord, hou long? And he seide, Til citees ben maad desolat with out dwellere, and housis with out man. And the lond schal be left desert, 12 and the Lord schal make men fer. And that that was forsakun in the myddil of erthe, schal be multiplied, and yit tithing schal be ther ynne; 13 and it schal be conuertid, and it schal be in to schewyng, as a terebynte is, and as an ook, that spredith abroad hise boowis; that schal be hooli seed, that schal stonde ther ynne.

7 And it was don in the daies of Achas, the sone of Joathan, the sone of Osias, kyng of Juda, Rasyn, the kyng of Sirie, and Facee, the sone of Romelie, the kyng of Israel, stieden to Jerusalem, for to fyte ayens it; and thei myyten not ouercome it. 2 And thei telden to the hous of Daud, and seiden, Sirie hath restid on Effraym, and the herte of hym and of his puple was mouyd togidere, as the trees of wodis ben mouyd of the face of the wynd. 3 And the Lord seide to Isaie, Go thou out, and Jasub, thi sone, which is left, in to the meetyng of Achas, at the laste ende of the water cundijt of the hiyere cisterne, in the weie of the feeld of the fullere. 4 And thou schalt seie to hym, Se thou, that thou be stille; nyle thou drede, and thin herte be not aferd of twei tailis of these brondis smokyng in the wraththe of woodnesse, of Rasyn, kynge of Sirie, and of the sone of Romelye. 5 For Sirie, and Effraym, and the sone of Romelie, han bigunne yuel councel ayens thee, and seien, Stie we to Juda, 6 and reise we hym, and drawe we hym out to vs; and sette we a kyng in the myddis therof, the sone of Tabeel. 7 The Lord God seith these thingis, This schal not be, and it schal not stonde; 8 but Damask schal be the heed of Sirie, and Rasyn `schal be the heed of Damask; and yit sixti yeer and fiue, and Effraym schal faile to be a puple; 9 and Samarie shal faile to be the heed of Effraym, and the sone of Romelie `schal faile to be heed of Samarie.

 Forsothe if ye schulen not bileue, ye schulen not dwelle. 10 And the Lord addide to speke to Achas, 11 and seide, Axe thou to thee a signe of thi Lord God, in to the depthe of helle, ethir in to heiythe aboue. (Sheol h7585) 12 And Achas seide, Y schal not axe, and Y schal not tempte the Lord. 13 And Ysaie seide, Therfor the hous of Daud, here ye; whether it is litil to you to be diseseiful to men, for ye ben diseseiful also to my God? 14 For this thing the Lord hym silf schal yyue a signe to you. Lo! a virgyn schal conseyue, and schal bere a sone; and his name schal be clepid Emanuel. 15 He schal ete botere and hony, that he kunne repreue yuel, and cheese good. 16 For whi bifore that the child kunne repreue yuel, and chese good, the lond, which thou wlatist, schal be forsakun of the face of her twei kyngis. 17 The Lord schal brynge on thee, and on thi puple, and on the hous of thi fadir, daies that camen not fro the daies of departyng of Effraym fro Juda, with the kyng of Assiriens. 18 And it schal be, in that dai the Lord schal hisse to a flie, which is in the laste parte of the floodis of Egipt; and to a bee, which is in the lond of Assur; 19 and `alle so schulen come, and schulen reste in the strondis of valeis, and in caues of stoonis, and in alle places of buyschis, and in alle hoolis. 20 And in that dai the Lord schal schauue with a scharp rasour in these men, that ben biyendis the flood, in the kyng of Assiriens, the heed, and heeris of the feet, and al the beerd. 21 And it schal be, in that day a man

schal nurische a cow of oxis, and twei scheep, 22 and for the plentee of mylk he schal ete botere; for whi ech man that schal be left in the myddis of the lond, schal ete boter and hony. 23 And it schal be, in that dai ech place where a thousand vyneris schulen be worth a thousynde platis of siluer, and schulen be in to thornes and breeris, 24 men schulen entre thidur with bouwis and arowis; for whi breris and thornes schulen be in al the lond. 25 And alle hillis that schulen be purgid with a sarpe, the drede of thornes and of breris schal not come thidir; and it schal be in to lesewe of oxen, and in to treading of scheep.

8 And the Lord seide to me, Take to thee a greet book, and write ther ynne with the poyntil of man, Swiftli drawe thou awei spuylis, take thou prey soone. 2 And Y yaf to me faithful witnessis, Vrie, the prest, and Sacarie, the sone of Barachie. 3 And Y neiyede to the profetesse; and sche conseyuede, and childe a sone. And the Lord seide to me, Clepe thou his name Haste thou to drawe awei spuylis, haaste thou for to take prey. 4 For whi bifer that the child kan clepe his fadir and his modir, the strengthe of Damask schal be doon awei, and the spuylis of Samarie, bifer the kyng of Assiriens. 5 And the Lord addide to speke yit to me, and he seide, 6 For that thing that this puple hath caste awei the watris of Siloe, that goen with silence, and hath take more Rasyn, and the sone of Romelie, for this thing lo! 7 the Lord schal brynge on hem the stronge and many watris of the flood, the king of Assiriens, and al his glorie; and he schal stiye on alle the stremes therof, and he schal flowe on alle the ryueris therof. 8 And he schal go flowynge bi Juda, and he schal passe til to the necke, and schal come; and the spredying forth of hise wyngis schal be, and schal fille the breede of thi lond, thou Emanuel. 9

Pupilis, be ye gaderid togidere, and be ye ouercomun; and alle londis afer, here ye. Be ye coumfortid, and be ye ouercomun; gird ye you, and be ye ouercomun; 10 take ye councel, and it schal be destried; speke ye a word, and it schal not be doon, for God is with vs. 11 For whi the Lord seith these thingis to me, as he tauyte me in a stronge hond, that Y schulde not go in to the weie of this puple, 12 and seide, Seie ye not, It is sweryng togidere, for whi alle thingis which this puple spekith is sweryng togidere; and drede ye not the ferdfulnesse therof, nether be ye aferd. 13 Halowe ye the Lord hym silf of oostis; and he schal be youre inward drede, and he schal be youre ferdfulnesse, and he schal be to you in to halewyng. 14 Forsothe he schal be in to a stoon of hirtyng, and in to a stoon of sclaudre, to tweyne housis of Israel; in to a snare, and in to fallyng, to hem that dwellen in Jerusalem. 15 And ful many of hem schulen offende, and schulen falle, and thei schulen be al to-brokun, and thei schulen be boundun, and schulen be takun. 16 Bynde thou witnessyng, mark thou the lawe in my disciplis. 17 Y schal abide the Lord, that hath hid his face fro the hous of Jacob, and Y schal abide hym. 18 Lo! Y and my children, whiche the Lord yaf to me in to a signe, and greet wondur to Israel, of the Lord of oostis that dwellith in the hil of Sion. 19 And whanne thei seien to you, Axe ye of coniureris, and of false dyuynouris, that gnasten in her enchauntyngis, whether the puple schal not axe of her God a reuelacioun for quyke men and deed? 20 It is to go to the lawe more and to the witnessyng, that if thei seien not after this word, morewtide liyt schal not be to hem. 21 And it schal passe bi that, and it schal falle doun, and it schal hungre. And whanne it schal hungre, it schal be wrooth, and schal curse his kyng and his God, and it schal biholde vpward. 22 And it schal loke to the erthe, and lo! tribulacioun, and derknessis, and vnbyndyng, ether discourmfort, and angwisch, and myist pursuyng; and it schal not mow fle awei fro his angwisch.

9 In the firste tyme the lond of Zabulon and the lond of Neptalym was releessid; and at the laste the weie of the see biyende Jordan of Galile of hethene men was maad heuy. 2 The puple that yede in derknessis siy a greet liyt; whanne men dwelliden in the cuntre of schadewe of deth, liyt roos vp to hem. 3 Thou multipliedist folk, thou magnefiedist not gladnesse; thei schulen be glad bifore thee, as thei that ben glad in heruest, as ouercomeris maken ful out ioie, whanne thei han take a prey, whanne thei departen the spuylis. 4 For thou hast ouercome the yok of his birthun, and the yerde of his schuldre, and the ceptre of his wrongful axere, as in the day of Madian. 5 For whi al violent raueyn with noise, and a cloth meddlid with blood schal be in to brennyng, and `schal be the mete of fier. 6 Forsothe a litil child is borun to vs, and a sone is youun to vs, and prinsehod is maad on his schuldre; and his name schal be clepid Wondurful, A counselour, God, Strong, A fadir of the world to comynge, A prince of pees. 7 His empire schal be multiplied, and noon ende schal be of his pees; he schal sitte on the seete of Daud, and on the rewme of hym, that he conferme it, and make stronge in doom and riytfulnesse, fro hennus forth and til in to with ouden ende. The feruent loue of the Lord of oostis schal make this. 8 The Lord sente a word in to Jacob, and it felle in Israel. 9 And al the puple of Effraym schal wite, and thei that dwellen in Samarie, seiynge in the pride and greetnesse of herte, 10 Tijl stoonys fellen down, but we schulen bilde with square stoonys; thei han kit doun sicomoris, but we schulen chaunge cedris.

11 And the Lord schal reise the enemyes of Rasyn on hym, and he schal turne the enemyes of hym in to noyse; 12 God schal make Sirie to come fro the eest, and Filisteis fro the west; and with al the mouth thei schulen deuoure Israel. In alle these thingis the stronge veniaunce of the Lord is not turned awei, but yit his hond is stretchid forth; 13 and the puple is not turned ayen to the Lord smytynge it, and thei souyten not the Lord of oostis. 14 And the Lord schal leese fro Israel the heed and the tail; crokyng and bischrewyng, ether refreynyng, in o dai.
15 An elde man and onourable, he is the heed, and a profete techyng a leesyng, he is the tail. 16 And thei that blessen his puple, schulen be disseyueris, and thei that ben blessid, schulen be cast doun. 17 For this thing the Lord schal not be glad on the yonge men therof, and he schal not haue merci on the fadirles children and widewis therof; for ech man is an ypocrite and weiward, and ech mouth spak foli. In alle these thingis the stronge veniaunce of hym is not turned awei, but yit his hond is stretchid forth; 18 and the puple is not turned ayen to the Lord smytyng it. For whi wickidnesse is kyndlid as fier; it schal deuoure the breris and thornes, and it schal be kyndlid in the thickenesse of the forest, and it schal be wlappid togidere in the pride of smoke. 19 In the wraththe of the Lord of oostis the lond schal be disturblid, and the puple schal be as the mete of fier; a man schal not spare his brothir. 20 And he schal boowe to the riyt half, and he schal hungre, and he schal ete at the left half, and he schal not be fillid; ech man schal deuoure the fleisch of his arm. Manasses schal deuoure Efraym, and Efraym `schal deuoure Manasses, and thei togidere ayens Juda. 21 In alle these thingis the strong veniaunce of hym is not turned awei, but yit his hoond is stretchid forth.

10 Wo to them that maken wickid lawis, and thei writynge han wryte vnriyftfulnesse, for to oppresse pore men in doom, 2 and to do violence to the cause of meke men of my puple; that widewis schulen be the prey of them, and that thei schulden rauysche fadirles children. 3 What schulen ye do in the dai of visitacioun, and of wretchidnesse comynge fro fer? To whos help schulen ye fle? and where schulen ye leeu youre glorie, 4 that ye be not bowid down vndur boond, and falle not down with slayn men? On alle these thingis his strong veniaunce is not turned awei, but yit his hond is stretchid forth. 5 Wo to Assur, he is the yerde and staf of my strong veniaunce; myn indignacioun is in the hond of them. 6 Y schal send hym to a fals folk, and Y schal comaunde to hym ayens the puple of my strong veniaunce; that he take awei the spuylis, and departe prey, and that he sette that puple in to defouling, as the fen of stretis. 7 Forsothe he schal not deme so, and his herte schal not gesse so, but his herte schal be for to al to-breke, and to the sleyng of many folkis. 8 For he schal seie, Whether my princes ben not kyngis to gidere? 9 Whether not as Carcamys, so Calanno; and as Arphat, so Emath? whether not as Damask, so Samarie? 10 As myn hond foond the rewmes of idol, so and the symylacris of hem of Jerusalem and of Samarie. 11 Whether not as Y dide to Samarie, and to the idols therof, so Y schal do to Jerusalem, and to the symylacris therof? 12 And it schal be, whanne the Lord hath fillid alle hise werkis in the hil of Syon and in Jerusalem, Y schal visite on the fruit of the greet doynge herte of the kyng of Assur, and on the glorie of the hiynesse of hise iyen. 13 For he seide, Y haue do in the strengthe of myn honde, and Y haue understonde in my wisdom; and Y haue take awei the endis of peplis, and Y haue robbid the princes of them, and Y as a myyti man haue drawun doun them that saten an hiy. 14 And myn hond foond the strengthe of puplis as a nest, and as eirun ben gaderid togidere that ben forsakun, so Y gaderid togidere al erthe; and noon was that mouyde a fethere, and openyde the mouth, and grutchide. 15 Whether an ax schal haue glorie ayens hym that kittith with it? ether a sawe schal be enhaunsid ayens hym of whom it is drawun? as if a yerde is reysid ayens hym that reisith it, and a staf is enhaunsid, which sotheli is a tre. 16 For this thing the lordli gouernour, Lord of oostis, schal sende thinnesse in the fatte men of hym, and his glorie kyndlid vndur schal brenne as `the brenning of fier. 17 And the liyt of Israel schal be in fier, and the hooli of it in flawme; and the thorn of him and brere schal be kyndlid and deuourid in o dai. 18 And the glorie of his forest and of his Carmele schal be wastid, fro the soule `til to fleisch; and he schal be fleyng awai for drede. 19 And the relifs of the tree of his forest schulen be noumbrid for fewnesse, and a child schal write hem. 20 And it schal be in that dai, the remenaunt of Israel, and thei that fledden of the house of Jacob, schal not adde for to triste on hym that smytith hem; but it schal triste on the hooli Lord of Israel, in treuthe. 21 The relifs, Y seie, the relifs of Jacob, schulen be conuertid to the stronge Lord. 22 Forwhi, Israel, if thi puple is as the grauel of the see, the relifs schulen be turned therof; an endyng maad schort schal make riytfulnesse to be plenteuouse. 23 For whi the Lord God of oostis schal make an endyng and a breggyng in the myddis of al erthe. 24 For this thing the Lord God of oostis seith these thingis, My puple, the dwellere of Sion, nyle thou drede of Assur, for he schal smite thee in a yerde, and he schal reise his staf on thee in the weie of Egipt. 25 Forwhi yit a lital, and a lital, and myn indignacioun and my strong veniaunce schal be endid on the greet trespas of hem. 26 And the Lord of oostis schal reise a scourge on hym bi the veniaunce of Madian in the stoon of Oreb, and bi his yerde on the see; and he schal reise that yerde in the wei of Egipt. 27 And it schal be in that dai, his birthun schal be takun awei fro thi schuldre, and his yok fro thi necke; and the yok schal wexe rotun fro the face of oile. 28 He schal come in to Aioth, he schal passe in to Magron, at Magynas he schal bitake his vessels to kepyng. 29 Thei passiden swiftli, Gabaa is oure seete, Rama was astonyed, Gabaa of Saul fled. 30 Thou douytir of Gallym, weile with thi vois; thou Laisa, perseyue, thou pore Anatot. 31 Medemena passide; the dwelleris of Gabyn fledden; be ye coumfortid. 32 Yit it is dai, that me stonde in Nobe; he schal dryue his hond on the hil of the douyter of Syon, on the lital hil of Jerusalem. 33 Lo! the lordli gouernour, the Lord of oostis, schal breke a potel in drede, and hy men of stature schulen be kit down. 34 And proude men schulen be maade low, and the thicke thingis of the forest schulen be distried bi irun; and the Liban with hy thingis schal falle down.

11 And a yerde schal go out of the roote of Jesse, and a flour schal stie of the roote of it. 2 And the Spirit of the Lord schal reste on hym, the spirit of wisdom and of vndurstondyng, the spirit of counsel and of strengthe, the spirit of kunnyng and of pitee; 3 and the spirit of the drede of the Lord schal fille him. He schal deme not bi the siyt of iyen, nether he schal repreue bi the heryng of eeris; 4 but he schal deme in riytfulnesse pore men, and he schal repreue in equyte, for the mylde men of erthe.

 And he schal smyte the lond with the yerde of his mouth, and bi the spirit of his lippis he schal sle the wickid man. 5 And riytfulnesse schal be the girdil of hise leendis, and feith schal be the girdyng of hise reynes. 6 A wolf schal dwelle with a lombe, and a parde schal reste with a kide; a calf, and a lioun, and a scheep schulen dwelle togidere, and a litil child schal dryue hem. 7 A calf and a beere schulen be lesewid togidere; the whelpis of hem schulen reste, and a lioun as an oxe schal ete stre. 8 And a yonge soukyng child fro the tete schal delite on the hole of a snake, and he that is wenyd schal putte his hond in the caue of a cocatrice. 9 Thei schulen not anoye, and schulen not sle in al myn hooli hil; forwhi the erthe is fillid with the kunnyng of the Lord, as watris of the see hilynge. 10 In that dai the roote of Jesse, that stondith in to the signe of puplis; hethene men schulen biseche hym, and his sepulchre schal be gloriouse. 11 And it schal be in that day, the Lord schal adde the secounde tyme his hond to haue in possessioun the residue of his puple that schal be left, of Assiriens, and of Egipt, and of Fethros, and of Ethiope, and of Elan, and of Sennar, and of Emath, and of ylis of the see. 12 And he schal reise a sygne to naciouns, and schal gadere togidere the fleeris awei of Israel; and he schal gadere togidere the scaterid men of Juda fro foure coostis of erthe. 13
 And the enuye of Effraym schal be don awei, and the enemyes of Juda schulen perische; Effraym schal not haue enuye to Juda, and Juda schal not fiyte ayens Effraym. 14 And thei schulen flie in to the schuldris of Filisteis bi the see, thei schulen take prey togidere of the sonnes of the eest; Ydume and Moab schulen be the comaundement of the hond of hem, and the sonnes of Amon schulen be obedient. 15 And the Lord schal make desolat the tunge of the see of Egipt, and he schal reise his hond on the flood in the strengthe of his spirit; and he schal smyte, ethir departe, it in seuene ryueris, so that schood men passe bi it. 16 And a weie schal be to my residue puple that schal be left, of Assiriens, as it was to Israel, in the dai in which it stiede fro the lond of Egipt.

12 And thou schalt seie in that dai, Lord, Y schal knoueleche to thee, for thou were wrooth to me; thi strong venieaunce is turned, and thou hast coumfortid me. 2 Lo! God is my sauour, Y schal do feithfuli, and Y schal not drede. For whi the Lord is my strengthe and my preysyng, and he is maad to me in to helthe. 3 Ye schulen drawe watris with ioie of the wellis of the sauour. 4 And ye schulen seie in that dai, Knoueleche ye to the Lord, and clepe ye his name in to help; make ye knowun hise fyndyngis among puplis; haue ye mynde, that his name is hiy. 5 Synge ye to the Lord, for he hath do worschipfuli; telle ye this in al erthe. 6 Thou dwellyng of Syon, make ful out ioie, and preise; for whi the hooli of Israel is greet in the myddis of thee.

13 The birthun of Babiloyne, which birthun Ysaie, the sone of Amos, siy. 2 Reise ye a signe on a myisti hil, and enhaunse ye vois; reise ye the hond, and duykis entre bi the yatis. 3 Y haue comaundid to myn halewid men, and Y clepid my stronge men in my wraththe, that maken ful out ioie in my glorie. 4 The vois of multitude in hillis, as of many puplis; the vois of sown of kyngis, of hethene men gaderit togidere. The Lord of oostis comaundide to the chyualry of batel, 5 to men comynge fro a fer lond. The Lord cometh fro the hiynesse of heuene, and the vessels of his strong veniaunce, that he distrie al the lond. 6 Yelle ye, for the

dai of the Lord is niy; as wastyng it schal come of the Lord. 7 For this thing alle hondis schulen be vnmyyti, and eche herte of man schal faile, 8 and schal be al to-brokun. Gnawyngis and sorewis schulen holde Babiloyns; thei schulen haue sorewe, as they that trauelen of child. Ech man schal wondre at his neiybore; her cheris schulen be brent faces. 9 Lo! the dai of the Lord schal come, cruel, and ful of indignacioun, and of wraththe, and of woodnesse; to sette the lond into wildirnesse, and to al to-breke the synneris therof fro that lond. 10 For whi the sterris of heuene and the schynyng of tho schulen not sprede abrood her liyt; the sunne is maade derk in his risyng, and the moone schal not schine in hir liyt. 11 And Y schal visite on the yuels of the world, and Y schal visite ayens wickid men the wickidnesse of hem; and Y schal make the pride of vnfeithful men for to reste, and Y schal make low the boost of stronge men. 12 A man of ful age schal be precioussere than gold, and a man schal be precioussere than pure gold and schynyng. 13 On this thing I schal disturble heuene, and the erthe schal be moued fro his place; for the indignacioun of the Lord of oostis, and for the dai of wraththe of his strong veniaunce. 14 And it schal be as a doo fleyng, and as a scheep, and noon schal be that schal gadere togidere; ech man schal turne to his puple, and alle bi hem silf schulen fle to her lond. 15 Ech man that is foundun, schal be slayn; and ech man that cometh aboue, schal falle down bi swerd. 16 The yonge children of them schulen be hurtlid doun bfore the iyen of them; her housis schulen be rauischid, and her wyues schulen be defoulid. 17 Lo! Y schal reise on them Medeis, that seken not siluer, nethir wolen gold; 18 but thei shulen sle litle children bi arowis, and thei schulen not haue merci on wombis yyuyng mylk, and the iye of them schal not spare on sones. 19 And Babiloyne, thilke gloriouse citee in rewmes, noble in the pride of Caldeis, schal be destried, as God destried Sodom and Gomore. 20 It shall not be enhabitid til in to the ende, and it schal not be foundid til to generacioun and generacioun; a man of Arabie schal not sette tentis there, and scheepherdis schulen not reste there. 21 But wielde beestis schulen reste there, and the housis of hem schulen be fillid with dragouns; and ostrichis schulen dwelle there, and heeri beestis schulen skippe there. 22 And bitouris schulen answeere there in the housis therof, and flynge serpentis in the templis of lust.

cedris of the Liban weren glad on thee; sithen thou sleptist, noon stieth that kittith vs down. 9 Helle vndur thee is disturblid for the meeting of thi comyng; he schal reise giauntis to thee; alle the princes of erthe han rise fro her seetis, alle the princes of naciouns. (Sheol h7585) 10 Alle thei schulen answere, and thei schulen seie to thee, And thou art woundid as and we, thou art maad lijk vs. 11 Thi pride is drawun down to hellis, thi deed careyn felle down; a mouyte schal be strewyd vndur thee, and thin hilyng schal be wormes. (Sheol h7585) 12 A! Lucifer, that risidist eerli, hou feldist thou down fro heuene; thou that woundist folkis, feldist down togidere in to erthe. 13 Which seidist in thin herte, Y schal stie in to heuene, Y schal enhaunse my seete aboue the staris of heuene; Y schal sitte in the hil of testament, in the sidis of the north. 14 Y schal stie on the hiynesse of cloudis; Y schal be lijk the hiyeste. 15 Netheles thou schalt be drawun down to helle, in to the depthe of the lake. (Sheol h7585) 16 Thei that schulen se thee, schulen be bowid down to thee, and schulen biholde thee. Whether this is the man, that disturblid erthe, that schook togidere rewmes? 17 that settide the world desert, and distried the citees therof, and openyde not the prisoun to the boundun men of hym? 18 Alle the kyngis of hethene men, alle slepten in glorie, a man in his hous. 19 But thou art cast out of thi sepulcre, as an vnprofitable stok, as defoulid with rot; and wlappid with hem that ben slayn with swerd, and yeden down to the foundement of the lake. 20 As a rotun careyn, thou schalt not haue felouschipe, nethir with hem in sepulture, for thou hast lost thi lond, thou hast slayn the puple; the seed of the worst men schal not be clepid with ouden ende. 21 Make ye redi hise sonas to sleying, for the wickidnesse of her fadris; thei schulen not rise, nether thei schulen enherite the lond, nether thei schulen fille the face of the roundenesse of citees. 22 And Y schal rise on hem, seith the Lord of oostis, and Y schal leese the name of Babyloyne, and the relifs, and generacioun, and seed, seith the Lord. 23 And Y schal sette that Babiloyne in to possessioun of an irchoun, and in to mareisis of watris; and Y schal swepe it with a beesme, and Y schal stampe, seith the Lord of oostis. 24 The Lord of oostis swoor, seiynge, Whether it schal not be so, as Y gesside, and it schal bifalle so, as Y tretide in soule? 25 That Y al to-breke the kyng of Assiriens in my lond, and that Y defoule hym in myn hillis; and his yok schal be takun awei fro hem, and his birthun schal be takun awei fro the schuldur of hem. 26 This is the councel which Y thouyte on al the lond, and this is the hond stretchid forth on alle folkis. 27 For whi the Lord of oostis hath demed, and who mai make vnstidfaste? and his hond is stretchid forth, and who schal turne it awei? 28 The birthun of Filisteis. In the yeer wheryne kyng Achas diede, this birthun was maad. 29 Al thou Filistea, be not glad, for the yerde of thi smytere is maad lesse; for whi a cocatrice schal go out of the roote of an eddre, and his seed schal soupe up a brid. 30 And the firste gendrid of pore men schulen be fed, and pore men schulen reste feithfuli; and Y schal make thi throte to perisch in hungur, and Y schal sle thi relifs. 31 Yelle, thou yate; cry, thou citee, al Filistea is cast doun; for whi smoke schal come fro the north, and noon is that schal ascape his oost. 32 And what schal be answerid to the messengeris of folk? for the Lord hath foundid Sion, and the pore men of his puple schulen hope in hym.

15 The birthun of Moab. For Ar was destried in niyt, Moab was stille; for the wal was distried in the niyt, Moab was stille. 2 The kingis hous, and Dybon stieden to hiy places, in to weilyng; on Nabo, and on Medaba Moab schal yelle. In alle hedis therof schal be ballidnesse, and ech beerd schal be schauun. 3 In the meetyng of thre weies therof thei ben gird in a sak, alle yellyng on the housis therof and in the stretis therof; it schal go down in to wepyng. 4 Esebon schal crie, and Eleale, the vois of hem is herd `til to Jasa; on this thing the redi men of Moab schulen yelle, the soule therof schal yelle to it silf. 5 Myn herte schal crie to Moab, the barris therof `til to Segor, a cow calf of thre yeer. 16 Lord, sende thou out a lomb, the lordli gouvernour of erthe, fro the stoon of desert to the hil of the douyter of Sion. 2 And it schal be as a foule fleyng, and briddis fleyng awei fro the nest, so schulen be the douytris of Moab in the passyng ouer of Arnon. 3 Take thou councel, constreyne thou councel; sette thou as niyt thi schadewe in myddai, hide thou hem that fleen, and bitraye thou not men of vnstidfast dwellyng. 4 My fleeris awei schulen dwelle at thee. Moab, be thou the hidyng place of

hem fro the face of distriere. For whi dust is endid, the wretchid is wastid; he that defoulide the lond failude. 5 And the kyngis seete schal be maade redi in merci, and he schal sitte on it in treuthe, in the tabernacle of Daud, demynge, and sekynge doom, and yeldynge swiftli that that is iust. 6 We han herd the pride of Moab, he is ful proud; his pride, and his boost, and his indignacioun is more than his strengthe. 7 Therfor Moab schal yelle to Moab, al Moab shal yelle to hem that ben glad on the wallis of bakun tijl stoon; speke ye her woundis. 8 For whi the subarbis of Esebon and the vyner of Sabama ben forsakun. The lordis of hethene men han kit down the siouns therof; thei camen `til to Jaser, thei erriden in desert. The bowis therof ben forsakun, thei passiden the see. 9 On this thing Y schal wepe in the weping of Jaser, and on the vyner of Sabama. Esebon and Eleale, Y schal fille thee with my teer; for the vois of defouleris fellen on thi vyndage, and on thi heruest. 10 And gladnesse and ful out ioiynge schal be takun awei fro Carmele; and noon schal make ful out ioie, nether schal synge hertli song in vyneris. He that was wont to wringe out, schal not wrynge out wyn in a pressour; Y haue take awei the vois of wryngeris out. 11 On this thing my wombe schal sowne as an harpe to Moab, and myn entrails to the wal of bakun tiel stoon. 12 And it schal be, whanne it schal appere, that Moab hath trauelid on hise places, it schal entre to hise hooli thingis, that it biseche, and it schal not be worth. 13 This is the word which the Lord spak to Moab fro that tyme. 14 And now the Lord spak, seiynge, In thre yeer that weren as the yeeris of an hirid man, the glorie of Moab schal be takun awei on al the myche puple; and ther schal be left in it as a litil rasyn, and a litil, and not myche.

 fadir, diuerse kindis of vessels, eche lital vessel, fro the vesselis of cuppis `til to ech vessel of musikis. 25 In that dai, seith the Lord of oostis, the stake that was set in the feithful place, schal be takun awei, and it schal be brokun, and schal falle down; and schal perische that hangide thereynne, for the Lord spak.

23 The birthun of Tire. Ye schippis of the see, yelle, for the hous is distried, fro wennus coumfort was wont to come; fro the lond of Cethym, and was schewid to hem. 2 Be ye stille, that dwellen in the ile, the marchaundie of Sidon; men passynge the see filliden thee in many watris; 3 the seed of Nylus is heruest, the flood is the corn therof, and it is maad the marchaundie of hethene men. 4 Thou, Sidon, be aschamed, seide the see, the strengthe of the see, and seide, Y trauelide not of child, and Y childide not, and Y nurschide not yonge men, and Y brouyte not fulli virgyns to encreessyng. 5 Whanne it schal be herd in Egipt, thei schulen make sorewe, whanne thei heren of Tire. 6 Passe ye the sees; yelle ye, that dwellen in the ile. 7 Whether this citee is not youre, that hadde glorie fro elde daies in his eldnesse? the feet therof schulen lede it fer, to go in pilgrimage. 8 Who thouyte this thing on Tire sum tyme crownede, whos marchautis weren princes, the selleris of marchaundie therof weren noble men of erthe? 9 The Lord of oostis thouyte this thing, that he schulde drawe down the pride of al glorie, and that he schulde bringe to schenschipec alle the noble men of erthe. 10 Thou douyter of the see, passe thi lond as a flood; a girdil is no more to thee. 11 It stretchide forth his hond aboue the see, and disturblide rewmes. The Lord sente ayenes Canaan, for to al to-breke the stronge men therof; 12 and he seide, Thou maide, the douyter of Sidon, that suffrist caleng, schalt no more adde, that thou haue glorie. Rise thou, and passe ouer the see in to Sechym; there also no reste schal be to thee. 13 Lo! the lond of Caldeis, sich a puple was not; Assur foundide that Tyre; thei ledden ouer in to caitifte the strong men therof; thei myneden the housis therof, thei settiden it in to fallyng. 14 Yelle, ye schippis of the see, for youre strengthe is distried. 15 And it schal be, in that dai, thou Tire, schalt be in foryetyng bi seuenti yeer, as the daies of o king; but aftir seuenti yeer, as the song of an hoore schal be to Tyre. 16 Thou hoore, youun to foryetyng, take an harpe, cumpasse the citee; synge thou wel, vse thou ofte a song, that mynde be of thee. 17 And it schal be, aftir seuenti yeer, the Lord schal visite Tire, and schal brynge it ayen to hise hiris; and eft it schal be, whanne it schal do fornycacioun with alle rewmes of erthe, on the face of erthe. 18 And the marchaundies therof and the meedis therof schulen be halewid to the Lord; tho schulen not be hid, nethir schulen be leid vp; for whi the marchaundie therof schal be to hem that dwellen bfore the Lord, that thei ete to fulnesse, and be clothid `til to eldnesse.

ceesside, the sowne of glad men restide; the swetnesse of harpe with song was stille. 9 Thei schulen not drynke wyn; a bittere drynk schal be to hem that schulen drynke it. 10 The citee of vanyte is al to-brokun; ech hous is closid, for no man entrith. 11 Cry schal be on wyn in streetis, al gladnesse is forsakun, the ioie of erthe is `takun awei. 12 Desolacioun is left in the citee, and wretchidnesse schal oppresse the yatis. 13 For these thingis schulen be in the myddis of erthe, in the myddis of puplis, as if a fewe fruitis of olyue trees that ben left ben schakun of fro the olyue tre, and racyns, whanne the vyndage is endid. 14 These men schulen reise her vois, and schulen preise, whanne the Lord schal be glorified; thei schulen schewe signes of gladnesse fro the see. 15 For this thing glorifie ye the Lord in techyngis; in the ilis of the see glorifie ye the name of the Lord God of Israel. 16 Fro the endis of erthe we han herd heriyngis, the glorie of the iust. And Y seide, My priuyte to me, my pryuyte to me. Wo to me, trespassours han trespassid, and han trespassid bi trespassyng of brekeris of the lawe. 17 Ferdfulnesse, and a diche, and a snare on thee, that art a dwellere of erthe. 18 And it schal be, he that schal fle fro the face of ferdfulnesse, schal falle in to the diche; and he that schal delyuere hym silf fro the dich, schal be holdun of the snare; for whi the wyndows of hiye thingis ben openyd, and the foundementis of erthe schulen be schakun togidere. 19 The erthe schal be brokun with brekyng, 20 the erthe schal be defoulid with defoulyng, the erthe schal be mouyd with mouyng, the erthe schal be schakun with schakyng, as a drunkun man. 21 And it schal be takun awei, as the tabernacle of o nyyt, and the wickidnesse therof schal greue it; and it schal falle down, and it schal not adde, for to rise ayen. And it schal be, in that dai the Lord schal visite on the knyythod of heuene an hiy, and on the kyngis of erthe, that ben on erthe. 22 And thei schulen be gaderid togidere in the gadering togidere of a bundel in to the lake, and thei schulen be closid there in prisoun; and aftir many daies thei schulen be visited. 23 And the moone schal be aschamed, and the sunne schal be confoundid, whanne the Lord of oostis schal regne in the hil of Sion, and in Jerusalem, and schal be glorified in the siyt of hise eldre men.

25 Lord, thou art my God, Y schal enhaunse thee, and Y schal knouleche to thi name; for thou hast do marueils, thin elde feithful thouytis. 2 Amen. For thou hast set the citee in to a biriel, a strong citee in to fallyng, the hous of aliens, that it be not a citee, and be not bildid with outen ende. 3 For this thyng a strong puple schal herie thee, the citee of strong folkis schal drede thee. 4 For thou art maad strengthe to a pore man, strengthe to a nedi man in his tribulacioun, hope fro whirlwynd, a schadewyng place fro heete; for whi the spirit of stronge men is as a whirlewynd hurlynge the wal. 5 As bi heete in thirst, thou schalt make meke the noise of aliens; and as bi heete vndur a cloude brennynge, thou schalt make the siouns of stronge men to fade. 6 And the Lord of oostis schal make in this hil to alle puplis the feeste of fatte thingis, the feeste of vyndage of fatte thingis ful of merow, of vyndage wel fyned. 7 And he schal caste doun in this hil the face of boond, boundun togidere on alle puplis, and the web which he weuyde on alle naciouns. 8 And he schal caste doun deth with outen ende, and the Lord God schal do away ech teer fro ech face; and he schal do awei the schenscipe of his puple fro ech lond; for the Lord spak. 9 And thei schulen seie in that dai, Lo! this is oure God; we abididen hym, and he schal saue vs; this is the Lord; we suffriden him, and we schulen make ful out ioie, and schulen be glad in his helthe. 10 For whi the hond of the Lord schal reste in this hil, and Moab schal be threischid vndur hym, as chaffis ben stampid in a wayn. 11 And he schal stretche forth hise hondis vndur hym, as a swymmere stretchith forth to swymme; and he schal make low the glorie of him with hurtlyng doun of hise hondis. 12 And the strengthingis of thin hiy wallis schulen falle doun, and schulen be maad low, and schulen be drawun doun to the erthe, `til to the dust.

26 In that dai this song schal be sungun in the lond of Juda. The citee of oure strengthe; the sauour schal be set ther ynnē, the wal and the `fore wal. 2 Opene ye the yatis, and the iust folk schal entre, kepyng treuthe. 3 The elde errour is gon awei; thou schalt kepe pees, pees, for thou, Lord, we hopiden in thee. 4 Ye han hopid in the Lord, in euerlastyng worldis, in the Lord God, strong with outen ende. 5 For he schal bowe doun hem that dwellen an hiy, and he schal make low an hiy citee; he schal make it low `til to the erthe; he schal drawe it doun `til to the dust. 6 The foot of a pore man schal defoule it, and the steppis of nedi men schulen defoule it. 7 The weie of a iust man is riytful, the path of a iust man is riytful to go. 8 And in the weie of thi domes, Lord, we suffriden thee; thi name, and thi memorial is in desir of soule. 9 My soule schal desire thee in the niyt, but also with my spirit in myn entrails; fro the morewtid Y schal wake to thee. Whanne thou schalt make thi domes in erthe, alle dwelleris of the world schulen lerne riytfulnesse. 10 Do we merci to the wickid man, and he schal not lerne to do riytfulnesse; in the lond of seyntis he dide wickid thingis, and he schal not se the glorie of the Lord. 11 Lord, thin hond be enhaunsid, that thei se not; pupilis hauynge enuye se, and be schent, and fier deuoure thin enemyes. 12 Lord, thou schalt yyue pees to vs, for thou hast wrouyt alle oure werkis in vs. 13 Oure Lord God, lordis hadden vs in possessioun, withouten thee; oneli in thee haue we mynde of thi name. 14 Thei that dien, lyue not, and giauntis risen not ayen. Therfor thou hast visityd, and hast alto broke hem, and thou hast lost al the mynde of hem; and Lord, thou hast foryoue to a folc, 15 thou hast foryoue to a folc.

 Whether thou art glorified? thou hast maad fer fro thee all the endis of erthe. 16 Lord, in angwisch thei souyten thee; in the tribulacioun of grutchyng thi doctryn to hem. 17 As sche that conseyuede, whanne sche neiyeth soreful to the child beryng, crieth in her sorewis, so we ben maad, Lord, of thi face. 18 We han conseyued, and we han as trauelid of child, and we han childid the spirit of helthe; we diden not riytfulnesse in erthe.
 Therfor the dwelleris of erthe fellen not down; thi deed men schulen lyue, 19 and my slayn men schulen rise ayen. Ye that dwellen in dust, awake, and herie; for whi the deew of liyt is thi deew, and thou schalt drawe down the lond of giauntis in to fallyng. 20 Go thou, my puple, entre in to thi beddis, close thi doris on thee, be thou hid a litil at a moment, til indignacioun passe. 21 For lo! the Lord schal go out of his place, to visite the wickidnesse of the dwellere of erthe ayens hym; and the erthe schal schewe his blood, and schal no more hile hise slayn men.
27 In that dai the Lord schal visite in his hard swerd, and greet, and strong, on leuyathan, serpent, a barre, and on leuyathan, the crookid serpent; and he schal sle the whal, which is in the see. 2
 In that dai the vyner of cleen wyn and good schal synge to him.
3 Y am the Lord that kepe that vyner; sudeynli Y schal yyue drynke to it, lest peraventure it be visitid ayens it; 4 nyyt and dai Y kepe it, indignacioun is not to me. Who schal yyue me a thorn and brere? In batel Y schal go on it, Y schal brenne it togidere.

5 Whether rathere Y schal holde my strengthe? It schal make pees to me, it schal make pees to me, for 6 the merit of hem that schulen go out with fersnesse fro Jacob. Israel schal floure and brynge forth seed, and thei schulen fille the face of the world with seed. 7 Whether he smoot it bi the wounde of the puple of Jewis smytynge hym? ether as it killide the slayn men of hym, so it was slayn? 8 In mesure ayens mesure, whanne it schal be cast awei, he schal deme it; he bithouyte in his hard spirit, bi the dai of heete. 9 Therfor on this thing wickidnesse schal be foryouun to the hous of Jacob, and this schal be al the fruyt, that the synne therof be don awei, whanne it hath set all the stoonys of the auter as the stoonys of aische hurtlid down. Wodis and templis schulen not stonde. 10 Forsothe the strong citee schal be desolat, the fair citee schal be left, and schal be forsakun as a desert; there a calf schal be lesewid, and schal ligge there, and schal waste the hiynessis therof. 11 In the drynesse of ripe corn therof wymmen comynge, and thei that techen it, schulen be al to-brokun. Forsothe it is not a wijs puple, therfor he that made it, schal not haue mercy on it; and he that formyde it, schal not spare it. 12 And it schal be, in that dai the Lord schal smyte thee, fro the botme of the flood `til to the stronde of Egipt; and ye sones of Israel, schulen be gaderid oon and oon. 13 And it schal be, in that dai me schal come with a greet trumpe, and thei that weren lost, schulen come fro the lond of Assiriens, and thei that weren cast out, schulen come fro the lond of Egipt; and they schulen worschipe the Lord, in the hooli hil in Jerusalem.

28 Wo to the coroun of pride, to the drunkun men of Effraym, and to the flour fallynge doun of the glorie of the ful out ioiying therof, that weren in the cop of the fatteste valei, and erriden of wyn. 2 Lo! the myyti and strong Lord, as the feersnesse of hail, a whirlwynd brekyng togidere, as the fersnesse of many watris flowyng, and sent out on a large lond. 3 The coroun of pride of the drunken men of Effraym schal be defoulid with feet, 4 and the flour of glorie of the ful out ioiying of hym, that is on the cop of valei of fat thingis, schal be fallyng doun, as a tymeli thing bfore the ripenesse of heruest; which whanne a man seyng biholdith, anoon as he takith with hond, he schal deuoure it. 5 In that dai the Lord of oostis schal be a coroun of glorie, and a garlond of ful out ioiying, to the residue of his puple; 6 and a spirit of doom to hym that sittith on the trone, and strengthe to hem that turnen ayen fro batel to the yate. 7 But also thei knewen not for wyn, and erriden for drunkenesse; the preest and profete knewen not for drunkenesse; thei weren sopun up of wyn, thei erriden in drunkenesse; thei knewen not a profete, thei knewen not doom. 8 For whi alle bordis weren fillid with spuyng and filthis, so that ther was no more place. 9 Whom schal he teche kunnyng, and whom schal he make to vndurstonde heryng? Men wenyd fro mylk, men drawun awei fro tetis. 10 For whi comaunde thou, comaunde thou ayen; comaunde thou, comaunde thou ayen; abide thou, abide thou ayen; abide thou, abide thou ayen; a litil there, a litil there. 11 For whi in speche of lippe, and in other langage he schal speke to this puple, 12 to which he seide, This is my reste; refreische ye a weri man, and this is my refreischyng; and thei nolden here. 13 And the word of the Lord schal be to hem, Sende thou, sende thou ayen; send thou, sende thou ayen; abide thou, abide thou ayen; abide thou, abide thou ayen; a litil there, a litil there; that thei go, and falle backward, and be al to-brokun, and be snarid, and be takun. 14 For this thing, ye men scorneris, that ben lordis ouer my puple which is in Jerusalem, here the word of the Lord. 15 For ye seiden, We han smyte a boond of pees with deth, and we han maad couenaunt with helle; a scourge flowyng whanne it schal passe, schal not come on vs, for we han set a leesyng oure hope, and we ben kyuered with a leesyng. (Sheol h7585) 16 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal sende in the foundementis of Sion a corner stoon preciouise, preuyd, foundid in the foundement; he that bileueth, schal not haaste. 17 And Y schal sette doom in weiyte, and riytfulnesse in mesure; and hail schal distrie the hope of leesyng, and watris schulen flowe on proteccioun. And youre boond of pees with deth schal be don awei, 18 and youre couenaunt with helle schal not stonde; whanne the scourge flowyng schal passe, ye schulen be to it in to defoulyng. (Sheol h7585) 19 Whanne euer it schal passe, it schal take awei yow; for whi erli in the grey morewtid it schal passe, in dai and niyt; and oonli trauel aloone schal yyue vndurstondyng to heryng. 20 Forsothe the bed is streit, so that the tother falle down; and a schort mentil schal not hile euer either. 21 For as in the hil of departyngis the Lord schal stonde, as in the valei, which is in Gabaon, he schal be wroth, that he do his werk; his werk alien, that he worche his werk; his werk is straunge fro hym. 22 And now nyle ye scorne, lest perauenture youre boondis be maad streit togidere; for Y herde of the Lord God of oostis, endyng and abreggyng on al erthe. 23 Perseyue ye with eeris, and here ye my vois; perseyue ye, and here ye my speche. 24 Whether he that erith, schal ere al dai, for to sowe, and schal be kerue, and purge his londe? 25 Whether whanne he hath maad euene the face therof, schal he not sowe gith, and spreng abrood comyn? and he schal not sette wheete bi ordre, and barli, and mylium, and fetchis in his coostis? 26 And his God schal teche hym, in doom he schal teche hym. 27 Forsothe gith schal not be threischid in sawis, and a wheel of a wayn schal not cumpasse on comyn; but gith schal be betun out with a yerd, and comyn with a staf. 28 Sotheli breed schal be maad lesse, but he that threischith schal not threische it with outen ende, nether schal trauele it with a wheel of a wayn, nether schal make it lesse with hise clees. 29 And this thing yede out of the Lord God of oostis, that he schulde make wondirful counsel, and magnefie riytfulnesse.

29 Wo! Ariel, Ariel, the citee which Daudid ouercam; yeer is addid to yeer, solempnytees ben passyd. 2 And Y schal cumpasse Ariel, and it schal be soreuful and morenyng; and Jerusalem schal be to me as Ariel. 3 And Y schal cumpasse as a round trendil in thi cumpasse, and Y schal caste erthe ayens thee, and Y schal sette engynes in to thi bisegyng. 4 Thou schalt be maad low, thou schalt speke of erthe, and thi speche schal be herd fro the erthe; and thi vois schal be as the vois of a deed man reisd bi coniuring, and thi speche schal ofte grutche of the erthe. 5 And the multitude of hem that wyndewen thee, schal be as thynne dust; and the multitude of hem that hadden the maistrie ayens thee, schal be as a deed sparcle passyng. 6 And it schal be sudenli, anon it schal be visitid of the Lord of oostis, in thundur, and in mouyng of the erthe, and in greet vois of whirlwynd, and of tempest, and of flawme of fier deuowryng.

7 And the multitude of alle folkis that fouyten ayens Ariel schal be as the dreem of a nytytis visioun; and alle men that fouyten, and bisegiden, and hadden the maistrie ayens it. 8 And as an hungry man dremyth, and etith, but whanne he is awakid, his soule is voide; and as a thirsti man dremeth, and drynkith, and after that he is awakid, he is weri, and thirstith yit, and his soule is voide, so schal be the multitude of alle folkis, that fouyten ayens the hil of Sion. 9 Be ye astonyed, and wondre; wake ye, and douyte ye; be ye drunken, and not of wyn; be ye moued, and not with drunkenesse. 10 For the Lord hath meddlid to you the spirit of sleep; he schal close youre iyen, and schal hile youre profetis, and princes that sien visiouns. 11 And the visioun of alle profetis schal be to you as the wordis of a book aseelid; which whanne thei schulen yyue to hym that kan lettris, thei schulen seie, Rede thou this book; and he schal answere, Y may not, for it is aseelid. 12 And the book schal be youun to him that kan not lettris, and it schal be seid to hym, Rede thou; and he schal answere, Y kan no lettris. 13 And the Lord seide, For that this puple neiyeth with her mouth, and glorifieth me with her lippis, but her herte is fer fro me; and thei dredden me for the comaundement and techyngis of men, therfor lo! 14 Y schal adde, that Y make wondryng to this puple, in a greet myracle and wondrousful; for whi wisdom schal perische fro wise men therof, and the vndurstondyng of prudent men therof schal be hid. 15 Wo to you that ben hiye of herte, that ye hide counsel fro the Lord; the werkis of whiche ben in derknessis, and thei seien, Who seeth vs, and who knowith vs? 16 This thouyt of you is weiward, as if cley thenke ayens a pottere, and the werk seie to his makere, Thou madist not me; and a thing that is maad, seie to his makere, Thou vndurstondist not. 17 Whether not yit in a litil time and schort the Liban schal be turned in to Chermel, and Chermel schal be arettid in to the forest? 18 And in that dai deaf men schulen here the wordis of the book, and the iyen of blynde men schulen se fro derknessis and myisty; 19 and mylde men schulen encreesse gladnesse in the Lord, and pore men schulen make ful out ioie in the hooli of Israel. 20 For he that hadde the maistrie, failide, and the scornere is endid, and alle thei ben kit doun that walkiden on wickidnesse; 21 whiche maden men to do synne in word, and disseyueden a repreuere in the yate, and bowiden away in veyn fro a iust man. 22 For this thing the Lord, that ayen bouyte Abraham, seith these thingis to the hous of Jacob, Jacob schal not be confoundid now, nether now his cheer schal be aschamed; but whanne he schal se hise sones, 23 the werkis of myn hondis, halewyng my name in the myddis of hym. And thei schulen halewe the hooli of Jacob, and thei schulen preche God of Israel; 24 and thei that erren in spirit, schulen knowe vndurstondyng, and idil men schulen lerne the lawe.

30 Wo! sones forsakeris, seith the Lord, that ye schulden make a councel, and not of me; and weue a web, and not bi my spirit, that ye schulden encreesse synne on synne. 2 Whiche goen, to go doun in to Egipt, and ye axiden not my mouth; ye hopynge help in the strengthe of Farao, and ye hauynge trist in the schadewe of Egipt. 3 And the strengthe of Farao schal be to you in to confusioun, and the trist of the schadewe of Egipt in to schenschipe. 4 For whi thi princes weren in Taphnys, and thi messangeris camen til to Anes. 5 Alle thei weren schent on the puple, that myyten not profite to hem; thei weren not in to help, and in to ony profit, but in to schame and schenschip. 6 The birthun of werk beestis of the south. In the lond of tribulacioun and of angwisch, a lionesse, and a lioun, of hem a serpent, and a cocatrice; thei weren berynge her richessis on the schuldris of werk beestis, and her tresours on the botche of camels, to a puple that myyte not profite to hem. 7 For whi Egipt schal helpe in veyn, and idili. Therfor Y criede on this thing, It is pride oneli; ceesse thou. 8 Now therfor entre thou, and write to it on box, and write thou it diligentli in a book; and it schal be in the last dai in to witnessyng, til in to with outen ende. 9 For it is a puple terryng to wrathfulnesse, and sones lieris, sones that nylen here the lawe of God. 10 Whiche seien to profetis, Nyle ye prophesie; and to biholderis, Nyle ye biholde to vs tho thingis that ben riytful; speke ye thingis plesyng to vs, se ye errouris to vs. 11 Do ye awei fro me the weie, bowe ye awei fro me the path; the hooli of Israel ceesse fro oure face. 12 Therfor the hooli of Israel seith these thingis, For that that ye repreiden this word, and hopiden on fals caleng, and on noise, and tristiden on it, 13 therfor this wickidnesse schal be to you as a brekyng fallynge down, and souyt in an hiy wal; for sudeynli while it is not hopid, the brekyng therof schal come. 14 And it schal be maad lesse, as a galoun of a pottere is brokun with ful strong brekyng; and a scherd schal not be foundun of the gobetis therof, in which scherd a litil fier schal be borun of brennyng, ethir a litil of watir schal be drawun of the diche. 15 For whi the Lord God, the hooli of Israel, seith these thingis, If ye turnen ayen, and resten, ye schulen be saaf; in stilnesse and in hope schal be youre strengthe. And ye nolden. 16 And ye seiden, Nai, but we schulen fle to horsis; therfor ye schulen fle. And we schulen stie on swifte horsis; therfor thei schulen be swifter, that schulen pursue you.

17 A thousynde men schulen fle fro the face of the drede of oon; and ye schulen fle fro the face of drede of fyue, til ye be left as the mast of a schip in the cop of a munteyn, and as a signe on a litil hil. 18 Therfor the Lord abidith, that he haue mercy on you, and therfor he schal be enhaunsid sparynge you; for whi God is Lord of doom, blessid ben alle thei that abiden hym. 19 Forsothe the puple of Sion schal dwelle in Jerusalem; thou wepyng schal not wepe, he doynge merci schal haue merci on thee; at the vois of thi cry, anoon as he herith, he schal answeere to thee. 20 And the Lord schal yyue to thee streyt breed, and schort watir, and schal no more make thi techere to fle awey fro thee; and thin iyen schulen be seyng the comaundour, 21 and thin eeris schulen here a word bihynde the bak of hym that monestith; This is the weie, go ye therynne, nether to the ryht half nether to the left half. 22 And thou schalt defoule the platis of the grauun ymagis of thi siluer, and the cloth of the yotun ymage of thi gold; and thou schalt scatere tho, as the vnclennesse of a womman in vncleene blood; Go thou out, and thou schalt seie to it. 23 And reyn schal be youun to thi seed, where euere thou schalt sowe in erthe, and the breed of fruytis of erthe schal be moost plenteuouse and fat; in that dai a lomb schal be fed largeli in thi possessioun. 24 And thi bolis and coltis of assis, that worchen the lond, schulen ete barli with chaf meynd togidere, as it is wyndewid in the cornfloor. 25 And strondis of rennyng watris schulen be on ech hiy munteyn, and on ech litil hil reysid, in the dai of sleynge of many men, whanne touris fallen down. 26 And the liyt of the moone schal be as the liyt of the sunne, and the liyt of the sunne schal be seuenfold, as the liyt of seue daies, in the dai in which the Lord schal bynde togidere the wounde of his puple, and schal make hool the smytynge of the wounde therof.

27 Lo! the name of the Lord cometh down fro fer; his strong veniaunce is brennynge and greuouse to bere; hise lippis ben fillid of indignacioun, and his tunge is as fier deuouringe. 28 His spirit is as a stef streem, flowynge `til to the myddis of the necke, to leese folkis in to nouyt, and the bridil of errour, that was in the chekis of puplis. 29 Song schal be to you, as the vois of an halewid solempnyte; and gladnesse of herte, as he that goth with a pipe, for to entre in to the hil of the Lord, to the stronge of Israel. 30 And the Lord schal make herd the glorie of his vois, and he schal schewe the ferdfulnesse of his arm in manassyng of strong veniaunce, and in flawme of fier brennynge; he schal hurtle down in whirlewynd, and in stoon of hail. 31 For whi Assur smytun with a yerde schal drede of the vois of the Lord; 32 and the passyng of the yerd schal be foundid, which yerde the Lord schal make for to reste on hym. In tympanis, and harpis, and in souereyn batels he schal ouercome hem. 33 For whi Tophet, that is, helle, deep and alargid, is maad redi of the kyng fro yistirdai; the nurschyngis therof ben fier and many trees; the blast of the Lord as a streem of brymston kyndlith it.

31 Wo to hem that goon down in to Egipt to help, and hopen in horsis, and han trist on cartis, for tho ben manye, and on knyytis, for thei ben ful stronge; and thei tristiden not on the hooli of Israel, and thei souyten not the Lord. 2 Forsothe he that is wijs, hath brouyt yuel, and took not awei hise wordis; and he schal rise togidere ayens the hous of worste men, and ayens the helpe of hem that worchen wickidnesse. 3 Egipt is a man, and not God; and the horsis of hem ben fleisch, and not spirit; and the Lord schal bowe down his hond, and the helpere schal falle doun, and he schal falle, to whom help is youun, and alle schulen be wastid togidere. 4 For whi the Lord seith these thingis to me, If a lioun rorith, and a whelp of a lioun on his prey, whanne the multitude of schipherdis cometh ayens hym, he schal not drede of the vois of hem, and he schal not drede of the multitude of hem; so the Lord of oostis schal come doun, for to fyte on the mounteyn of Sion, and on the litil hil therof. 5 As briddis fleynge, so the Lord of oostis schal defende Jerusalem; he defendynge and delyuerynge, passynge forth and sauynge. 6 Ye sones of Israel, be conuertid, as ye hadden go awei in to depthe. 7 Forsothe in that dai a man schal caste awei the idols of his siluer, and the idols of his gold, whiche youre hondis maden to you in to synne. 8 And Assur schal falle bi swerd, not of man, and a swerd, not of man, schal deuoure hym; and he schal fle, not fro the face of swerd, and hise yonge men schulen be tributaries; 9 and the strengthe of hym schal passe fro ferdfulnesse, and hise princes fleynge schulen drede.

 The Lord seide, whos fier is in Sion, and his chymeney is in Jerusalem.

32 Lo! the kyng schal regne in riytfulnesse, and princes schulen be souereyns in doom. 2 And a man schal be, as he that is hid fro wynd, and hidith hym silf fro tempest; as stremes of watris in thirst, and the schadewe of a stoon stondynge fer out in a desert lond. 3 The iyen of profetis schulen not dasewe, and the eeris of heereris schulen herke diligentli; 4 and the herte of foolis schal vndurstonde kunnyng, and the tunge of stuttynge men schal speke swiftli, and pleykli. 5 He that is vnwijs, schal no more be clepid prince, and a gileful man schal not be clepid the grettere.
6 Forsothe a fool shal speke foli thingis, and his herte schal do wickidnesse, that he performe feynyng, and speke to the Lord gilefuli; and he schal make voide the soule of an hungry man, and schal take awei drynke fro a thirsti man. 7 The vessels of a gileful man ben worste; for he schal make redi thouytis to leese mylde men in the word of a leesyng, whanne a pore man spak doom. 8 Forsothe a prince schal thenke tho thingis that ben worthi to a prince, and he schal stonde ouer duykis. 9 Riche wymmen, rise ye, and here my vois; douytris tristyng, perseyue ye with eeris my speche. 10 For whi aftir daies and a yeer, and ye that tristen schulen be disturblid; for whi vyndage is endid, gaderyng schal no more come. 11 Ye riche wymmen, be astonyed; ye that tristen, be disturblid; vnclothe ye you, and be ye aschamed; 12 girde youre leendis; weile ye on brestis, on desirable cuntrei, on the plenteuouse vyner. 13 Thornes and breris schulen stie on the erthe of my puple; hou myche more on alle the housis of ioie of the citee makynge ful out ioie? 14 For whi the hous is left, the multitude of the citee is forsakun; derknessis and gropyng ben maad on dennes, `til in to with outen ende. The ioie of wield assis is the lesewe of flockis; 15 til the spirit be sched out on us fro an hiy, and the desert schal be in to Chermel, and Chermel schal be arettid in to a forest. 16 And doom schal dwelle in wildirnesse, and riytfulnesse schal sitte in Chermel; 17 and the werk of riytfulnesse schal be pees, and the tilthe of riytfulnesse schal be stilnesse and sikirnesse, `til in to with outen ende. 18 And my puple schal sitte in the fairnesse of pees, and in the tabernaclis of trist, and in riche reste. 19 But hail schal be in the coming down of the foreste, and bi lownesse the citee schal be maad low. 20 Blessid ben ye, that sown on alle watris, and putten yn the foot of an oxe and of an asse.

33 Wo to thee, that robbest; whether and thou schalt not be robbid? and that dispisist, whether and thou schalt not be dispisid? Whanne thou hast endid robberyng, thou schalt be robbid; and whanne thou maad weri ceessist to dispise, thou schalt be dispisid. 2 Lord, haue thou merci on vs, for we abiden thee; be thou oure arm in the morewtid, and oure helthe in the tyme of tribulacioun. 3 Puplis fledden fro the vois of the aungel; hethene men ben scaterid of thin enhaunsyng. 4 And youre spuylis schulen be gaderid togidere, as a bruke is gaderid togidere, as whanne dichis ben ful therof. 5 The Lord is magnefied, for he dwellide an hiy, he fillid Sion with doom and riytfulnesse. 6 And feith schal be in thi tymes; the ritchessis of helthe is wisdom and kunnyng; the drede of the Lord, thilke is the tresour of hym. 7 Lo! seeris withoutenforth schulen crye, aungels of pees schulen wepe bittirli. 8 Weies ben distried, a goere bi the path ceesside; the couenaunt is maad voide, he castide doun citees, he arettide not men. 9 The lond morenyde, and was sijk; the Liban was schent, and was foul; and Saron is maad as desert, and Basan is schakun, and Carmele. 10 Now Y schal ryse, seith the Lord, now I schal be enhaunsid, and now I schal be reisid vp. 11 Ye schulen conseyue heete, ye schulen brynge forth stobil; youre spirit as fier schal deuoure you. 12 And puplis schulen be as aischis of the brennyng; thornes gaderid togidere schulen be brent in fier. 13 Ye that ben fer, here what thingis Y haue do; and, ye neiyboris, knowe my strengthe. 14 Synneris ben al to-brokun in Syon, tremblyng weldide ipocritis; who of you mai dwelle with fier deuowringe? who of you schal dwelle with euerlastinge brennyngis? 15 He that goith in riytfulnessis, and spekith treuthe; he that castith awei aueryce of fals calenge, and schakith awei his hondis fro al yifte; he that stoppith his eeris, that he heere not blood, and closith his iyen, that he se not yuel.

16 This man schal dwelle in hiy thingis, the strengthis of stoonys ben the hiynesse of hym; breed is youun to hym, hise watris ben feithful. 17 Thei schulen se the kyng in his fairnesse; the iyen of hym schulen biholde the londe fro fer. 18 Eliachym, thin herte schal bithenke drede; where is the lettrid man? Where is he that weieth the wordis of the lawe? where is the techere of litle children? 19 Thou schalt not se a puple vnwijs, a puple of hiy word, so that thou maist not vndurstonde the fair speking of his tunge, in which puple is no wisdom. 20 Biholde thou Sion, the citee of youre solempnyte; thin iyen schulen se Jerusalem, a riche citee, a tabernacle that mai not be borun ouer, nether the nailis therof schulen be takun awei withouten ende; and alle the cordis therof schulen not be brokun. 21 For oneli the worschipful doere oure Lord God is there; the place of floodis is strondis ful large and opyn; the schip of roweris schal not entre bi it, nethir a greet schip schal passe ouer it. 22 For whi the Lord is oure iuge, the Lord is oure lawe yyuere, the Lord is oure kyng; he schal saue vs. 23 Thi roopis ben slakid, but tho schulen not auaille; thi mast schal be so, that thou mow not alarge a signe. Thanne the spuylis of many preyes schulen be departid, crokid men schulen rauysche raueyn. 24 And a neybore schal seie, Y was not sijk; the puple that dwellith in that Jerusalem, wickidnesse schal be takun awei fro it.

34 Neiye, ye hethene men, and here; and ye puplis, perseyue; the erthe, and the fulnesse therof, the world, and al buriownyng therof, here ye. 2 For whi indignacioun of the Lord is on alle folkis, and strong veniaunce on al the chyualrie of hem; he killide hem, and yaf hem in to sleynge. 3 The slayn men of hem schulen be cast forth, and styng schal stie of the careyns of hem; hillis schulen flete of the blood of hem. 4 And al the chyualrie of heuenys schal faile, and heuenys schulen be foldid togidere as a book, and al the knyghthod of tho schal flete doun, as the leef of a vyner and of a fige tre fallith doun. 5 For my swerd is fillid in heuene; lo! it schal come doun on Ydumee, and on the puple of my sleynge, to doom. 6 The swerd of the Lord is fillid of blood, it is maad fat of the ynnere fatnesse of the blood of lambren and of buckis of geet, of the blood of rammes ful of merow; for whi the slayn sacrifice of the Lord is in Bosra, and greet sleynge is in the lond of Edom. 7 And vnycornes schulen go doun with hem, and bolis with hem that ben myyti; the lond of hem schal be fillid with blood, and the erthe of hem with ynnere fatnesse of fatte beestis; 8 for it is a dai of veniaunce of the Lord, a yeer of yeldyng of the dom of Sion. 9 And the strondis therof schulen be turned in to pitche, and the erthe therof in to brymstoon; and the lond therof schal be in to brennyng pitch, niyt and dai. 10 It schal not be quenched withouten ende, the smoke therof schal stie fro generacioun in to generacioun, and it schal be desolat in to worldis of worldis; noon schal passe therbi. 11 And onocrotalus, and an irchoun schulen welde it; and a capret, and a crowe schulen dwelle thereynne; and a mesure schal be stretchid forth thereon, that it be dryuun to nouyt, and an hangyng plomet in to desolacyoun. 12 The noble men therof schulen not be there; rather thei schulen clepe the kyng in to help, and alle the princes therof schulen be in to nouyt. 13 And thornes and nettles schulen growe in the housis therof, and a tasil in the strengthis therof; and it schal be the couche of dragouns, and the lesewe of ostrichis. 14 And fendis, and wondurful beestis, lijk men in the hiyere part and lijk assis in the nethir part, and an heeri schulen meete; oon schal crie to an other. 15 Lamyas schal ligge there, and foond rest there to hir silf; there an irchoun hadde dichis, and nurschide out whelpis, and diggide aboute, and fostride in the schadewe therof; there kitis weren gaderid togidere, oon to another. 16 Seke ye diligentli in the book of the Lord, and rede ye; oon of tho thingis failide not, oon souyte not another; for he comaundide that thing, that goith forth of my mouth, and his spirit he gaderide tho togidere. 17 And he sente to hem eritage, and his hond departide it in mesure; til in to withouten ende tho schulen welde that lond, in generacioun and in to generacioun tho schulen dwelle ther ynn.

35 The forsakun Judee and with outen weie schal be glad, and wildirnesse schal make ful out ioie, and schal floure as a lilie. 2 It buriownynge schal buriowne, and it glad and preisynge schal make ful out ioie. The glorie of Liban is youun to it, the fairnesse of Carmele and of Saron; thei schulen se the glorie of the Lord, and the fairnesse of oure God. 3 Coumforte ye comelid hondis, and make ye strong feble knees. 4 Seie ye, Men of litil coumfort, be ye coumfortid, and nyle ye drede; lo! oure God schal brynge the veniaunce of yeldyng, God hym silf schal come, and schal saue vs. 5 Thanne the iyen of blynde men schulen be openyd, and the eeris of deaf men schulen be opyn. 6 Thanne a crokid man schal skippe as an hert, and the tunge of doumbe men schal be openyd; for whi watris ben brokun out in desert, and stremes in wildirnesse. 7 And that that was drie, is maad in to a poond, and the thirsti is maad in to wellis of watris. Grenenesse of rehede, and of spier schal growe in dennes, in whiche dwelliden dragouns bifore. And a path and a weie schal be there, 8 and it schal be clepid an hooli weie, he that is defoulid schal not passe therbi; and this schal be a streiyt weie to you, so that foolis erre not therbi. 9 A lioun schal not be there, and an yuel beeste schal not stie therbi, nether schal be foundun there. 10 And thei schulen go, that ben delyuered and ayenbouyt of the Lord; and thei schulen be conuertid, and schulen come in to Sion with preisyng; and euerlastynge gladnesse schal be on the heed of hem; thei schulen haue ioie and gladnesse, and sorewe and weilyng schulen fle awei.

36 And it was don in the fourtenthe yeer of kyng Ezechie, Sennacherib, the kyng of Assiriens, stiede on alle the stronge citees of Juda, and took tho. 2 And the kyng of Assiriens sente Rapsases fro Lachis to Jerusalem, to kyng Ezechie, with greet power; and he stood at the watir cundit of the hiyere sisterne, in the weie of the feeld of a fullere. 3 And Eliachym, the sone of Elchie, that was on the hous, yede out to hym, and Sobna, the scryuen, and Joae, the sone of Asaph, the chaunceler. 4 And Rapsases seide to hem, Seie ye to Ezechie, The greet king, the king of Assiriens, seith these thingis, What is the trist, in which thou tristist? 5 ethir bi what councele ether strengthe disposist thou for to rebelle? on whom hast thou trist, for thou hast go awei fro me? 6 Lo! thou tristist on this brokun staf of rehed, on Egipt, on which if a man restith, it schal entre in to his hoond, and schal perse it; so doith Farao, the kyng of Egipt, to alle men that tristen in hym. 7 That if thou answerist to me, We tristen in oure Lord God; whether it is not he, whose hiye places and auteris Ezechie dide awei, and he seide to Juda and to Jerusalem, Ye schulen worschipe bifore this auter? 8

And now bitake thee to my lord, the kyng of Assiriens, and Y schal yyue to thee twei thousynde of horsis, and thou maist not yyue of thee stieris of tho horsis. 9 And hou schalt thou abide the face of the iuge of o place of the lesse seruauntis of my lord? That if thou tristist in Egipt, and in cartis, and in knyytis; 10 and now whethir Y stiede to this lond with out the Lord, that Y schulde distrie it? The Lord seide to me, Stie thou on this lond, and distrie thou it. 11 And Eliachym, and Sobna, and Joae, seiden to Rapsaces, Speke thou to thi seruauntis bi the langage of Sirie, for we vndurstonden; speke thou not to vs bi the langage of Jewis in the eeris of the puple, which is on the wal. 12 And Rapsaces seide to hem, Whether mi lord sente me to thi lord, and to thee, that Y schulde speke alle these wordis, and not rathere to the men that sitten on the wal, that thei ete her toordis, and drynke the pisse of her feet with you? 13 And Rapsaces stood, and criede with greet vois in the langage of Jewis, and seide, Here ye the wordis of the greet kyng, the kyng of Assiriens. 14 The kyng seith these thingis, Esechie disseyue not you, for he may not delyuere you; 15 and Ezechie yyue not to you trist on the Lord, and seie, The Lord delyuerynge schal delyuere vs; this citee schal not be youun in to the hoond of the kyng of Assiriens. 16 Nyle ye here Ezechie. For whi the kyng of Assiriens seith these thingis, Make ye blessing with me, and go ye out to me; and ete ye ech man his vyner, and ech man his fige tre, and drynke ye ech man the water of his cisterne, 17 til Y come, and take awei you to a lond which is as youre lond; to a lond of whete and of wyn, to a lond of looues and of vyneris. 18 Ezechie disturble not you, and seie, The Lord schal delyuere vs.
 Whether the goddis of folkis delyuereden ech his lond fro the hond of the kyng of Assiriens? 19 Where is the god of Emath, and of Arphat? Where is the god of Sepharuaym? Whethir thei delyueriden Samarie fro myn hond? 20 Who is of alle goddis of these londis, that delyueride his lond fro myn hond, that the Lord delyuere Jerusalem fro myn hond? 21 And thei weren stille, and answeriden not to hym a word. For whi the kyng comaundide to hem, and seide, Answer ye not to him. 22 And Eliachym, the sone of Elchie, that was on the hous, and Sobna, the scryueyn, and Joae, the sone of Asaph, chaunceler, entriden with to-rent clothis to Ezechie, and telde to hym the wordis of Rapsaces.

37 And it was don, whanne kyng Ezechie hadde herd, he to-rente hise clothis, and he was wlappid in a sak, and entride in to the hous of the Lord. 2 And he sente Eliachym, that was on the hous, and Sobna, the scryuen, and the eldre men of prestis, hilid with sackis, to Isaie, the prophete, the sone of Amos. 3 And thei seiden to hym, Ezechie seith these thingis, A dai of tribulacioun, and of angwisch, and of chastisyng, and of blasfemye is this dai; for children camen `til to childberyng, and vertu of childberyng is not. 4 Therfor reise thou preier for the relifs that ben foundun, if in ony maner thi Lord God here the wordis of Rapsaces, whom the king of Assiriens, his lord, sente, for to blasfeme lyuyng God, and to dispise bi the wordis, whiche thi Lord God herde. 5 And the seruauntis of kyng Ezechie camen to Isaie; 6 and Isaie seide to hem, Ye schulen seie these thingis to youre lord, The Lord seith these thingis, Drede thou not of the face of wordis whiche thou herdist, bi whiche the children of the kyng of Assiriens blasfemyden me. 7 Lo! Y schal yyue to hym a spirit, and he schal here a messanger; and he schal turne ayen to his londe, and Y schal make hym to falle down bi swerd in his lond. 8 Forsothe Rapsaces turnede ayen, and foond the kyng of Assiriens fiytyng ayens Lobna; for he hadde herd, that the kyng was gon fro Lachis. 9 And the kyng herde messengeris seiynge of Theracha, kyng of Ethiopiens, He is gon out to fiyte ayens thee. And whanne he hadde herd this thing, he sente messengeris to Ezechie, and seide, Ye schulen seie, 10 spekyng these thingis to Ezechye, kyng of Juda, Thi God disseyue not thee, in whom thou tristist, and seist, Jerusalem schal not be youun in to the hond of the kyng of Assiriens.

11 Lo! thou herdist alle thingis whiche the kynges of Assiriens diden to alle londis whiche thei distrieden; and maist thou be delyuered? 12 Whethir the goddis of folkis delyuereden hem, whiche my fadris distrieden; Gosan, and Aran, and Reseph, and the sones of Eden, that weren in Thalsar? 13 Where is the kyng of Emath, and the kyng of Arphath, and the kyng of the citee of Sepharuaym, and of Ana, and of Aua? 14 And Ezechie took the bookis fro the hond of messengeris, and redde tho; and he stiede in to the hous of the Lord, and spredde abrood tho bfore the Lord; 15 and preiede to the Lord, 16 and seide, Lord of oostis, God of Israel, that sittist on cherubyn, thou art God aloone of alle the rewmes of erthe; thou madist heuene and erthe. 17 Lord, bowe doun thin eere, and here; Lord, open thin iyen, and se; and here thou alle the wordis of Sennacherib, whiche he sente for to blasfeme lyuyng God. 18 For verili, Lord, the kyngis of Assiriens maden londis dissert, and the cuntreis of tho, and yauen the goddis of tho to fier; 19 for thei weren not goddis, but the werkis of mennus hondis, trees and stoonys; and thei al tobraken tho goddis. 20 And now, oure Lord God, saue thou vs fro the hond of hym; and alle rewmes of erthe knowe, that thou art

Lord God aloone. 21 And Isaie, the sone of Amos, sente to Ezechie, and seide, The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, For whiche thingis thou preidist me of Sennacherib, the kyng of Assiriens, 22 this is the word which the Lord spak on hym, Thou virgyn, the douyter of Sion, he dispiside thee, he scornede thee; thou virgyn, the douyter of Jerusalem, he moued his heed afir thee. 23 Whom despisist thou, and whom blasfemedist thou? and on whom reisdist thou thi vois, and reisdist the hynesse of thin iyen? 24 To the hooli of Israel. Bi the hond of thi seruauntis thou dispisidist the Lord, and seidist, In the multitude of my cartis Y stiede on the hiynesses of hillis, on the yockis of Liban; and Y schal kitte doun the hiy thingis of cedris therof, and the chosun beechis therof; and Y schal entre in to the hiynesse of the cop therof, in to the forest of Carmele therof. 25 Y diggide, and drank watir; and Y made drie with the step of my foot all the strondis of feeldis. 26 Whether thou, Sennacherib, herdist not what thingis Y dide sum tyme? Fro elde daies Y fourmyde that thing, and now Y haue brouyt; and it is maad in to drawyng vp bi the roote of litle hillis fytynge togidere, and of strong citees. 27 The dwelleris of tho citees trembliden togidere with hond maad schort, and ben aschamed; thei ben maad as hei of the feeld, and the gras of lesewe, and as erbe of roouys, that driede vp bfore that it wexide ripe. 28 Y knew thi dwellyng, and thi goyng out, and thin entryng, and thi woodnesse ayens me. 29 Whanne thou were wood ayens me, thi pride stiede in to myn eeris; therfor Y schal sette a ryng in thi nosethirlis, and a bridil in thi lippis; and Y schal lede thee ayen in to the weie, bi which thou camest. 30 Forsothe to thee, Ezechie, this schal be a signe; ete thou in this yeer tho thingis that growen bi her fre wille, and in the secunde yeer ete

And Sennacherib, the kyng of Assiriens, turnede ayen, and dwellide in Nynyue. 38 And it was don, whanne he worschipide Mesrach, his god, in the temple, Aramalech and Sarasar, hise sones, killiden hym with swerd, and fledden in to the lond of Ararath; and Asaradon, his sone, regnyde for hym.

38 In tho daies Esechie was sijk `til to the deth; and Isaie, the profete, the sone of Amos, entride to hym, and seide to hym, The Lord seith these thingis, Dispose thi hous, for thou schalt die, and thou schalt not lyue. 2 And Esechie turnede his face to the wal, and preiede the Lord, and seide, Lord, Y biseche; 3 haue thou mynde, Y biseche, hou Y yede bifore thee in treuthe, and in perfit herte, and Y dide that that was good bifore thin the Lord was maad to Isaie, and seide, 5 Go thou, and seie to Ezechye, The Lord God of Daud, thi fadir, seith these thingis, I haue herd thi preier, and Y siy thi teeris. Lo! Y schal adde on thi daies fiftene year; 6 and Y schal delyuere thee and this citee fro the hond of the kyng of Assiriens, and Y schal defende it.

7 Forsothe this schal be to thee a signe of the Lord, that the Lord schal do this word, which he spak. 8 Lo! Y schal make the schadewe of lynes, bi which it yede down in the orologie of Achas, in the sunne, to turne ayen backward bi ten lynes.
 And the sunne turnede ayen bi ten lynes, bi degrees bi whiche it hadde go down. 9 The scripture of Ezechie, kyng of Juda, whanne he hadde be sijk, and hadde rekyuered of his sikenesse.
10 I seide, in the myddil of my daies Y schal go to the yatis of helle. Y souyte the residue of my yeeris; (Sheol h7585) 11 Y seide, Y schal not se the Lord God in the lond of lyueris; Y schal no more biholde a man, and a dwellere of reste. 12 My generacioun is takun awei, and is foldid togidere fro me, as the tabernacle of scheepherdis is foldid togidere. Mi lijf is kit down as of a webbe; he kittide down me, the while Y was wouun yit. Fro the morewtid `til to the euentid thou schalt ende me; 13 Y hopide til to the morewtid; as a lioun, so he al to-brak alle my boonys. Fro the morewtid til to the euentid thou schalt ende me; as the brid of a swalewe, so Y schal crie; 14 Y schal bithenke as a culuer. Myn answeere thou for me; what schal Y seie, 15 ether what schal answeere to me, whanne `I mysilf haue do? Y schal bithenke to lyueth so, and the lijf of my spirit is in siche thingis, thou schalt chastise me, and schalt quykene me. 17 Lo! my bitternesse is moost bittir in pees; forsothe thou hast delyuered my soule, that it perischide not; thou hast caste away bihynde thi bak alle my synnes. 18 For not helle schal knowleche to thee, nethir deth schal herie thee; thei that goon down in to the lake, schulen not abide thi treuthe. (Sheol h7585) 19 A lyuyng man, a lyuyng man, he schal knoueleche to thee, as and Y to dai; the fadir schal make knowun thi treuthe to sones. 20 Lord, make thou me saaf, and we schulen synge oure salmes in all the daies of oure lijf in the hous of the Lord. 21 And Ysaie comaundide, that thei schulden take a gobet of figus, and make a plaster on the wounde; and it schulde be heelid. 22 And Ezechie seide, What signe schal be, that Y schal stie in to the hous of the Lord?

39 In that tyme Marodach Baladan, the sone of Baladam, the kyng of Babiloyne, sente bookis and yiftis to Ezechie; for he hadde herd, that Ezechie hadde be sijk, and was rekyuerid. 2 Forsothe Ezechie was glad on hem, and schewide to hem the selle of swete smellynge spices, and of siluer, and of gold, and of smellynge thingis, and of best oynement, and alle the schoppis of his purtenaunce of houshold, and alle thingis that weren foundun in hise tresours; no word was, which Ezechie schewide not to hem in his hous, and in al his power. 3 Sotheli Ysaie, the prophete, entride to kyng Ezechie, and seide to hym, What seiden thes men, and fro whennus camen thei to thee? And Ezechie seide, Fro a fer lond thei camen to me, fro Babiloyne. 4 And Ysaie seide, What siyen thei in thin hous? And Ezechie seide, Thei sien alle thingis that ben in myn hous; no thing was in my tresours, which Y schewide not to hem. 5 And Ysaie seide to Ezechie, Here thou the word of the Lord of oostis. 6 Lo! daies schulen come, and alle thingis that ben in thin hous, and whiche thingis thi fadris tresoriden til to this dai, schulen be takun awei in to Babiloyne; not ony thing schal be left, seith the Lord. 7 And thei schulen take of thi sones, that schulen go out of thee, whiche thou schalt gendre; and thei schulen be onest seruauntis and chast in the paleis of the kyng of Babiloyne. 8 And Ezechie seide to Ysaie, The word of the Lord is good, which he spak. And Ezechie seide, Pees and treuthe be maad oneli in my daies.

40 My puple, be ye coumfortid, be ye coumfortid, seith youre Lord God. 2 Speke ye to the herte of Jerusalem, and clepe ye it, for the malice therof is fillid, the wickidnesse therof is foryouun; it hath resseyued of the hond of the Lord double thingis for alle hise synnes. 3 The vois of a crier in desert, Make ye redi the weie of the Lord, make ye riytful the pathis of oure God in wildirnesse. 4 Ech valey schal be enhaunsid, and ech mounteyn and lital hil schal be maad low; and schrewid thingis schulen be in to streiyt thingis, and scharpe thingis schulen be in to pleyne weies. 5 And the glorie of the Lord schal be schewid, and ech man schal se togidere, that the mouth of the Lord hath spoke. 6 The vois of God, seiynge, Crie thou. And Y seide, What schal Y crie? Ech fleisch is hei, and al the glorie therof is as the flour of the feeld. 7 The hei is dried vp, and the flour felle doun, for the spirit of the Lord bleew therynne. 8 Verely the puple is hey; the hey is dried vp, and the flour felle doun; but the word of the Lord dwellith with outen ende. 9 Thou that prechist to Sion, stie on an hiy hil; thou that prechist to Jerusalem, enhaunse thi vois in strengthe; enhaunse thou, nyle thou drede; seie thou to the citees of Juda, Lo! youre God. 10 Lo! the Lord God schal come in strengthe, and his arm schal holde lordschipe; lo! his mede

Who peiside the heuynesse of the erthe with thre fyngris, and weide mounteyns in a weihe, and litle hillis in a balaunce? 13 Who helpide the Spirit of the Lord, ether who was his councelour, and schewide to hym? 14 With whom took he councel, and who lernyde hym, and tauyte hym the path of riytfulnesse, and lernyde hym in kunnyng, and schewyde to him the weie of prudence? 15 Lo! folkis ben as a drope of a boket, and ben arettid as the tunge of a balaunce; lo! 16 ylis ben as a litil dust, and the Liban schal not suffice to brenne his sacrifice, and the beestis therof schulen not suffice to brent sacrifice. 17 Alle folkis ben so bifore hym, as if thei ben not; and thei ben rettid as no thing and veyn thing to hym. 18 To whom therfor maden ye God lijk? ether what ymage schulen ye sette to hym? 19 Whether a smyth schal welle togidere an ymage, ether a gold smyth schal figure it in gold, and a worchere in siluer schal diyte it with platis of siluer? 20 A wijs crafti man chees a strong tre, and vnable to be rotun; he sekith how he schal ordeyne a symylacre, that schal not be mouyd. 21 Whether ye witen not? whether ye herden not? whether it was not teld to you fro the begynnyng? whether ye vndurstoden not the foundementis of erthe? 22 Which sittith on the cumpas of erthe, and the dwelleris therof ben as locustis; which stretchith forth heuenes as nouyt, and spredith abrood tho as a tabernacle to dwelle. 23 Which yueth the sercheris of priuytees, as if thei be not, and made the iugis of erthe as a veyn thing. 24 And sotheli whanne the stok of hem is nether plauntid, nether is sowun, nether is rootid in erthe, he bleew sudenli on hem, and thei

 And to what thing `ye han ligned me, and han maad euene?

 Whi seist thou, Jacob, and spekist thou, Israel, My weie is hid nether schal trauele, nether enserchyng of his wisdom is. 29 That yueth vertu to the weeri, and strengthe to hem that ben

 Who wrouyte and dide these thingis? clepyng generaciouns

 Y schal not haue mynde on thy synnes. 26 Brynge me ayen in to mynde, and be we demyd togidere; telle thou, if thou hast ony thing, that thou be iustified. 27 Thi firste fadir synnede, and thin interpretours trespassiden ayens me. 28 And Y made foul hooli princes, and Y yaf Jacob to deth, and Israel in to blasfemye.

44 And now, Jacob, my seruaunt, here thou, and Israel, whom I chees. 2 The Lord makynge and foryyuynge thee, thin helpere fro the wombe, seith these thingis, My seruaunt, Jacob, nyle thou drede, and thou moost riytful, whom Y chees. 3 For Y schal schede out watris on the thirsti, and floodis on the dry lond; Y schal schede out my spirit on thi seed, and my blessing on thi generacioun. 4 And thei schulen buriowne among erbis, as salewis bisidis rennynge watris. 5 This man schal seie, Y am of the Lord, and he schal clepe in the name of Jacob; and this man schal write with his hoond to the Lord, and schal be ligned in the name of Israel. 6 The Lord, kyng of Israel, and ayenbiere therof, the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Y am the firste and Y am the laste, and with outen me is no God. 7 Who is lijk me? clepe he, and telle, and declare ordre to me, sithen Y made elde puple; telle he to hem thingis to comynge, and that schulen be. 8 Nyle ye drede, nether be ye disturblid; fro that tyme Y made thee for to here, and Y telde; ye ben my witnessis. Whethir a God is with out me, and a formere, whom Y knew not? 9 Alle the fourmeris of an idol ben no thing, and the moost louyd thingis of hem schulen not profite; thei ben witnessis of tho, that tho seen not, nether vndurstonde, that thei be schent. 10 Who fourmyde a god, and yetide an ymage, not profitable to ony thing? 11 Lo! alle the parteneris therof schulen be schent; for the smythis ben of men. Whanne alle schulen come, thei schulen stonde, and schulen drede, and schulen be schent togidere. 12 A smith wrouyte with a file; he fourmyde it in coolis, and in hameris, and he wrouyte with the arm of his strengthe. He schal be hungri, and he schal faile; he schal not drynke watre, and he schal be feynt. 13 A carpenter stretchide forth a reule, he fourmyde it with an adese; he made it in the corner places, and he turnede it in cumpas; and he made the ymage of a man, as a fair man, dwellynge in the hous. 14 He kittide doun cedris, he took an hawthorn, and an ook, that stood among the trees of the forest; he plauntide a pyne apple tre, which he nurschide with reyn, 15 and it was maad in to fier to men. He took of tho, and was warmed, and he brente, and bakide looues; but of the residue he wrouyte a god, and worschide it, and he made a grauun ymage, and he was bowid bfore that. 16 He brente the myddil therof with fier, and of the myddil therof he sethede fleischis, and eet; he sethede potage, and was fillid; and he was warmed, and he seide, Well! 17 Y am warmed; Y siy fier. Forsothe the residue therof he made a god, and a grauun ymage to hym silf; he is bowide bfore that, and worschid that, and bisechith, and seith, Delyuere thou me, for thou art my god. 18 Thei knewen not, nether vndurstoden, for thei han foryete, that her iye se not, and that thei vndurstonde not with her herte. 19 Thei bythenken not in her soule, nether thei knowen, nether thei feelen, that thei seie, Y brente the myddil therof in fier, and Y bakide looues on the coolis therof, and Y sethede fleischis, and eet; and of the residue therof schal Y make an idol? schal Y falle doun bfore the stok of a tree? 20 A part therof is aische; an vnwijs herte schal worschipe it, and he schal not delyuere his soule, nether he schal seie, A strong leesyng is in my riythond. 21 Thou, Jacob, and Israel, haue mynde of these thingis, for thou art my seruaunt; Y formyde thee, Israel, thou art my seruaunt; thou schalt not foryete me. 22 Y dide awei thi wickidnessis as a cloude, and thi synnes as a myist; turne thou ayen to me, for Y ayenbouyte thee. 23 Ye heuenes, herie, for the Lord hath do merci; the laste partis of erth, synge ye hertli song; hillis, sowne ye preisyng; the forest and ech tre therof, herie God; for the Lord ayenbouyte Jacob, and Israel schal haue glorie. 24 The Lord, thin ayenbiere, and thi fourmere fro the wombe, seith these thingis, Y am the Lord, makynge alle thingis, and Y aloone stretche forth heuenes, and stablische the erthe, and noon is with me; 25 and Y make voide the signes of false dyuynours, and Y turne in to woodnesse dyuynours, that dyuynen by sacrifices offrid to feendis; and Y turne wise men backward, and Y make her science fonned. 26 And the Lord reisith the word of his seruaunt, and fillith the councel of hise messengeris; and Y seie, Jerusalem, thou schalt be enhabitid; and to the citees of Juda, Ye schulen be bildid, and Y schal reise the desertis therof; 27 and Y seie to the depthe, Be thou desolat, and Y shal make drie thi floodis; 28 and Y seie to Cirus, Thou art my scheepherde, and thou schalt fille al my wille; and Y seie to Jerusalem, Thou schalt be bildid; and to the temple, Thou schalt be foundid.

45 The Lord seith these thingis to my crist, Cirus, whos riythond Y took, that Y make suget folkis bifer his face, and turne the backis of kyngis; and Y schal opene yatis bifer hym, and yatis schulen not be closid. 2 Y schal go bifer thee, and Y schal make lowe the gloriouse men of erthe; Y schal al to-breke brasun yatis, and Y schal breke togidere irun barris. 3 And Y schal yyue hid tresours to thee, and the priuy thingis of priuytees, that thou wite, that Y am the Lord, that clepe thi name, God of Israel, 4 for my seruaunt Jacob, and Israel my chosun, and Y clepide thee bi thi name; Y licnyde thee, and thou knewist not me. 5 Y am the Lord, and ther is no more; with out me is no God.

 Y haue gird thee, and thou knewist not me. 6 That thei that ben at the risyng of the sunne, and thei that ben at the west, know, that with out me is no God. 7 Y am the Lord, and noon other God is; fourmynge liyt, and makynge derknessis, makynge pees, and fourmynge yuel; Y am the Lord, doynge alle these thingis. 8 Heuenes, sende ye out deew fro aboue, and cloudis, reyne a iust man; the erthe be openyde, and brynge forth the sauour, and riytfulnesse be borun togidere; Y the Lord haue maad hym of nouyt. 9 Wo to hym that ayen seith his maker, a tiel stoon of erthe of Sannys. Whether clei seith to his pottere, What makist thou, and thi werk is withouten hondis? 10 Wo to hym that seith to the fadir, What gendrist thou? and to a womman, What childist thou? 11 The Lord, the hooli of Israel, the fourmere therof, seith these thingis, Axe ye me thingis to comynge on my sones, and sende ye to me on the werkis of myn hondis. 12 Y made erthe, and Y made a man on it; myn hondis helden abroad heuenes, and Y comaundide to al the knyythod of tho. 13 Y reside hym to riytfulnesse, and Y schal dresse alle hise weies; he schal bilde my citee, and he schal delyuere my prisoneris, not in prijs, nether in yftis, seith the Lord of oostis. 14
 The Lord God seith these thingis, The trauel of Egipt, and the marchaundie of Ethiopie, and of Sabaym; hiy men schulen go to thee, and schulen be thine; thei schulen go aftir thee, thei schulen go boundun in manyclis, and schulen worschipe thee, and schulen biseche thee. God is oneli in thee, and with out thee is no God. 15 Verili thou art God hid, God, the sauour of Israel.
16 Alle makeris of errours ben schent, and weren aschamed; thei yeden togidere in to confusioun. 17 Israel is sauylde in the Lord, bi euerlastynge helthe; ye schulen not be schent, and ye schulen not be aschamed, til in to the world of world. 18 For whi the Lord makynge heuenes of nouyt, seith these thingis; he is God fourmynge erthe, and makinge it, he is the makere therof; he made it of noyt, not in veyn, but he formyde it, that it be enhabitid; Y am the Lord, and noon other is. 19 Y spak not in hid place, not in a derk place of erthe; I seide not to the seed of Jacob, Seke ye me in veyn. Y am the Lord spekyng riytfulnesse, tellynge riytful thingis. 20 Be ye gaderid, and come ye, and neie ye togidere, that ben sauylde of hethene men; thei that reisen a signe of her grauyng, knewen not, and thei preien a god that saueth not. 21 Telle ye, and come ye, and take ye counsell togidere. Who made this herd fro the bigynnyng? fro that tyme Y bifor seide it. Whether Y am not the Lord, and no God is ferthere with out me? God riytful and sauynge is noon, outakun me. 22 Alle the coostis of erthe, be ye conuertid to me, and ye schulen be saaf; for Y am the Lord, and noon other is. 23 Y swoor in my silf, a word of riytfulnesse schal go out of my mouth, and it schal not turne ayen; for ech kne schal be bowid to me, and ech tunge schal swere. 24 Therfor thei schulen sei in the Lord, Riytfulnessis and empire ben myne; alle that fytten ayens hym schulen come to hym, and schulen be aschamed. 25 Al the seed of Israel schal be iustified and preysid in the Lord.

46 Bel is brokun, Nabo is al to-brokun; her symylacris lijk to wielde beestis and werk beestis ben brokun; youre birthuns 2 with heuy charge `til to werynesse weren rotun, and ben al to-brokun togidere; tho miyten not saue the berere, and the soule of hem schal go in to caitiffe. 3 The hous of Jacob, and al the residue of the hous of Israel, here ye me, whiche ben borun of my wombe, whiche ben borun of my wombe. 4 Til to eelde Y my silf, and til to hoor heeris Y schal bere; Y made, and Y schal bere, and Y schal saue. 5 To whom han ye ligned me, and maad euene, and han comparisound me, and han maad lijk? 6 Whiche beren togidere gold fro the bagge, and peisen siluer with a balaunce, and hiren a goldsmyth to make a god, and thei fallen doun, and worschipen; thei berynge beren in schuldris, 7 and settinge in his place; and he schal stonde, and schal not be mouyd fro his place; but also whanne thei crien to hym, he schal not here, and he schal not saue hem fro tribulacioun. 8 Haue ye mynde of this, and be ye aschamed; ye trespassouris, go ayen to the herte. 9 Bithenke ye on the formere world, for Y am God, and no God is ouer me, nether is lijk me. 10 And Y telle fro the bigynnyng the laste thing, and fro the bigynnyng tho thingis that ben not maad yit; and Y seie, My councel schal stonde, and al my wille schal be don. 11 And Y clepe a brid fro the eest, and the man of my wille fro a ferr lond; and Y spak, and Y schal brynge that thing; Y haue maad of nouyt, and Y schal make that thing. 12 Ye of hard herte, here me, that ben fer fro riytfulnesse. 13 Y made nyy myn riytfulnesse, it schal not be drawun afer, and myn helthe shal not tarie; Y schal yyue helthe in Sion, and my glorie in Israel.

47 Thou virgyn, the douytir Babiloyne, go doun, sitte thou in dust, sitte thou in erthe; a kyngis seete is not to the douyter of Caldeis, for thou schalt no more be clepid soft and tendir. 2 Take thou a queerne stoon, and grynde thou mele; make thou nakid thi filthe, diskeuere the schuldr, schewe the hippis, passe thou floodis. 3 Thi schame schal be schewid, and thi schenschiþe schal be seen; Y schal take veniaunce, and no man schal ayenstonde me. 4 Oure ayen biere, the Lord of oostis is his name, the hooli of Israel. 5 Douyter of Caldeis, sitte thou, be thou stille, and entre in to derknessis, for thou schalt no more be clepid the ladi of rewmes. 6 I was wrooth on my puple, Y defoulid myn eritage, and Y yaf hem in thin hond, and thou settidist not mercies to hem; thou madist greuouse the yok greetli on an eld man, 7 and thou seidist, With outen ende Y schal be ladi; thou puttidist not these thingis on thin herte, nether thou bithouytist on thi laste thing. 8 And now, thou delicat, and dwellynge tristili, here these thingis, which seist in thin herte, Y am, and outakun me ther is no more; Y schal not sitte widewe, and Y schal not knowe bareynesse. 9 These twei thingis, bareynesse and widewhod schulen come to thee sudenli in o dai; alle thingis camen on thee for the multitude of thi witchecraftis, and for the greet hardnesse of thin enchauntours, ether tregetours. 10 And thou haddist trist in thi malice, and seidist, Noon is that seeth me; this thi wisdom and thi kunnyng disseyuede thee; and thou seidist in thin herte, 11 Y am, and outakun me ther is noon other. Yuel schal come on thee, and thou schalt not knowe the bigynning therof; and wrecchidnesse schal falle on thee, which thou schalt not mowe clense; wretchidnesse which thou knowist not, schal come on thee sudenly. 12 Stonde thou with thin enchauntours, and with the multitude of thi witchis, in whiche thou trauelidist fro thi yongthe; if in hap thei profiten ony thing to thee, ether if thou maist be maad the strongere. 13 Thou failidist in the multitude of thi counsels; the false dyuynours of heuene stonde, and saue thee, whiche bihelden staris, and noumbriden monethis, that thei schulden telle bi tho thingis to comynge to thee. 14 Lo! thei ben maad as stobil, the fier hath brent hem; thei schulen not delyuere her lijf fro the power of flawme; colis ben not, bi whiche thei schulen be warmed, nether fier, that thei sitte at it. 15 So tho thingis ben maad to thee in whiche euere thou trauelidist; thi marchauntis fro thi yongthe erriden, ech man in his weie; noon is, that schal saue thee.

48 The hows of Jacob, that ben clepid bi the name of Israel, and yeden out of the watris of Juda, here these thingis, whiche sweren in the name of the Lord, and han mynde on God of Israel, not in treuthe, nether in riytfulnesse. 2 For thei ben clepid of the hooli citee, and ben stablischid on the God of Israel, the Lord of oostis is his name. 3 Fro that tyme Y telde the former thingis, and tho yeden out of my mouth; and Y made tho knowun; sudenli Y wrouyte, and tho thingis camen. 4 For Y wiste that thou art hard, and thi nol is a senewe of irun, and thi forhed is of bras. 5 Y biforseide to thee fro that tyme, bfore that tho thingis camen, Y schewide to thee, lest perauenture thou woldist seie, Myn idols diden these thingis, and my grauun ymagis and my yotun 6 ymagis senten these thingis whiche thou herdist. Se thou alle thingis, but ye telden not. Y made herd newe thyngis to thee fro that tyme, and thingis ben kept whiche thou knowist not; 7 now tho ben maad of nouyt, and not fro that tyme, and bfor the dai, and thou herdist not tho thingis; lest perauenture thou seie, Lo! Y knew tho thingis. 8 Nether thou herdist, nether thou knewist, nether thin eere was openyd fro that tyme; for Y woot, that thou trespassynge schal trespassse, and Y clepide thee a trespasssour fro the wombe. 9 For my name Y schal make fer my strong veniaunce, and with my preysyng Y schal refreyne thee, lest thou perische. 10 Lo! Y haue sode thee, but not as siluer; Y chees thee in the chymeney of pouert. 11 Y schal do for me, that Y be not blasfemyd, and Y schal not yyue my glorie to another. 12 Jacob and Israel, whom Y clepe, here thou me; Y my silf, Y am the firste and Y am the laste. 13 And myn hond foundide the erthe, and my riyt hond mat heuenes; Y schal clepe tho, and tho schulen stonde togidere. 14 Alle ye be gaderid togidere, and here; who of hem telde these thingis? The Lord louyde hym, he schal do his wille in Babiloyne, and his arm in Caldeis. 15 Y, Y spak, and clepide hym; Y brouyte hym, and his weie was dressid. 16 Neiye ye to me, and here ye these thingis; at the bigynnyng Y spak not in priuete; fro tyme, bifore that thingis weren maad, Y was there, and now the Lord God and his Spirit sente me. 17 The Lord, thin ayen biere, the hooli of Israel, seith these thingis, Y am thi Lord God, techynge thee profitable thingis, and Y gouerne thee in the weie, wher ynne thou goist. 18 Y wolde that thou haddist perseyued my comaundementis, thi pees hadde be maad as flood, and thi riytfulnesse as the swolowis of the see; 19 and thi seed hadde be as grauel, and the generacioun of thi wombe, as the litle stoonys therof; the name of it hadde not perischid, and hadde not be al to-brokun fro my face. 20 Go ye out of Babiloyne, fle ye fro Caldeis; telle ye in the vois of ful out ioiying; make ye this herd, and bere ye it `til to the laste partis of erthe; seie ye, The Lord ayenbouyte his seruaunt Jacob. 21 Thei thirstiden not in desert, whanne he ladde hem out; he brouyte forth to hem watir of a stoon, and he departide the stoon, and watris flowiden. 22 Pees is not to wickid men, seith the Lord.

49 Ilis, here ye, and puplis afer, perseyue ye; the Lord clepide me fro the wombe, he thouyte on my name fro the wombe of my modir. 2 And he hath set my mouth as a scharp swerd, he defendide me in the schadewe of his hond, and settide me as a chosun arowe; he hidde me in his arowe caas, 3 and seide to me, Israel, thou art my seruaunt, for Y schal haue glorie in thee. 4 And Y seide, Y trauelide in veyn, Y wastide my strengthe with out cause, and veynli; therfor my doom is with the Lord, and my werk is with my God. 5 And now the Lord, formynge me a seruaunt to hym silf fro the wombe, seith these thingis, that Y brynge ayen Jacob to hym. And Israel schal not be gaderid togidere; and Y am glorified in the iyen of the Lord, and my God is maad my strengthe. 6 And he seyde, It is lital, that thou be a seruaunt to me, to reise the lynages of Jacob, and to conuerte the drastis of Israel; Y yaf thee in to the liyt of hethene men, that thou be myn helthe `til to the laste part of erthe. 7 The Lord, ayenbiere of Israel, the hooli therof, seith these thingis to a dispisable soule, and to a folk had in abhomynacioun, to the seruaunt of lordis, Kyngis schulen se, and princes schulen rise togidere, and schulen worschipe, for the Lord, for he is feithful, and for the hooli of Israel, that chees thee. 8 The Lord seith these thingis, In a plesaunt tyme Y herde thee, and in the dai of helthe Y helpide thee; and Y kepte thee, and yaf thee in to a bonde of pees of the puple, that thou schuldist reise the erthe, and haue in possessioun eritagis, `that ben distried; 9 that thou schuldist seie to hem that ben boundun, Go ye out, and to hem that ben in derknessis, Be ye schewid. Thei schulen be fed on weies, and the lesewis of hem schulen be in alle pleyn thingis. 10 Thei schulen not hungre, and thei schulen no more thirste, and heete, and the sunne schal not smyte hem; for the merciful doere of hem schal gouerne hem, and schal yyue drynk to hem at the wellis of wattris. 11 And Y schal sette alle myn hillis in to weie, and my pathis schulen be enhaunsid. 12 Lo! these men schulen come fro fer, and lo! thei schulen come fro the north, and see, and these fro the south lond. 13 Heuenes, herie ye, and, thou erthe, make ful out ioie; hillis, synge ye hertli heriyng; for the Lord coumfortide his puple, and schal haue merci on hise pore men. 14 And Syon seide, The Lord hath forsake me, and the Lord hath foryete me. 15 Whether a womman may foryete hir yonge child, that sche haue not merci on the sone of hir wombe? thouy sche foryetith, netheles Y schal not foryete thee. 16 Lo! Y lyue, seith the Lord, for thou schalt be clothid with alle these as with an ournement, and thou as a spousesse schalt bynde hem to thee. 19 For whi thi desertis, and thi wildirnessis, and the lond of thi fallyng now schulen be streit for enhabiteris; and thei schulen be dryuun awei fer, that swolewiden thee. 20 Yit the sones of thi bareynesse schulen seie in thin eeris, The place is streit to me, make thou a space to me for to dwelle. 21 And thou schalt seie in thin herte, Who gendride these sones to me? Y am bareyn, not berynge child; Y am led ouer, and prisoner; and who nurschide these sones? Y am destitute, and aloone; and where weren these? 22 The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y reise myn hond to hethene men, and Y schal enhaunce my signe to puplis; and thei schulen brynge thi sones in armes, and thei schulen bere thi douytris on shuldris. 23 And kingis shulen be thi nurseris, and quenys shulen be thi nursis; with cheer cast down in to erthe thei schulen worschipe thee, and thei schulen licke the dust of thi feet; and thou schalt wite, that Y am the Lord, on whom thei schulen not be schent, that abiden hym. 24 Whether prey schal be takun awei fro a strong man? ether that that is takun of a stalworthe man, mai be saaf? 25 For the Lord seith these thingis, Sotheli and caitifte schal be takun away fro the stronge man, and that that is takun awei of a stalworthe man, schal be saued. Forsothe Y schal deme hem, that demyden thee, and Y schal saue thi sones. 26 And Y schal fede thin enemyes with her fleischis, and thei schulen be greetli fillid with her blood as with must; and eche man schal wite, that Y am the Lord, sauynge thee, and thin ayenbiere, the strong of Jacob.

50 The Lord seith these thingis, What is this book of forsakyng of youre modir, bi which Y lefte her? ether who is he, to whom Y owe, to whom Y seeld you? For lo! ye ben seeld for youre wickidnessis, and for youre grete trespassis Y lefte youre modir.
2 For Y cam, and no man was; Y clepide, and noon was that herde. Whether myn hond is abreggid, and maad litil, that Y mai not ayenbie? ether vertu is not in me for to delyuere? Lo! in my blamyng Y schal make the see forsakun, `ether desert, Y schal sette floodis in the drie place; fischis without watir schulen wexe rotun, and schulen dye for thirst. 3 Y schal clothe heuenes with

Who is myn aduersarie? neiy he to me. 9 Lo! the Lord God is myn helpere; who therfor is he that condempneth me? Lo! alle schulen be defoulid as a cloth, and a mouyte schal ete hem. 10 Who of you dredith the Lord, and herith the vois of his seruaunt? Who yede in dercnessis and liyt is not to hym, hope he in the name of the Lord, and triste he on his God. 11 Lo! alle ye kyndlyng fier, and gird with flawmes, go in the liyt of youre fier, and in the flawmes whiche ye han kyndlid to you. This is maad of myn hond to you, ye schulen slepe in sorewis.

51 Here ye me, that suen that that is iust, and seken the Lord. Take ye hede to the stoon, fro whennys ye ben hewun doun, and to the caue of the lake, fro which ye ben kit doun. 2 Take ye heede to Abraham, youre fadir, and to Sare, that childe you; for Y clepide hym oon, and Y blesside hym, and Y multipliede hym. 3 Therfor the Lord schal coumforte Sion, and he schal coumforte alle the fallyngis therof; and he schal sette the desert therof as delices, and the wildirnesse therof as a gardyn of the Lord; ioie and gladnesse schal be foundun therynne, the doying of thankyngis and the vois of heriyng. 4 Mi puple, take ye heede to me, and, my lynage, here ye me; for whi a lawe schal go out fro me, and my doom schal reste in to the liyt of puplis. 5 My iust man is nyy, my sauour is gon out, and myn armes schulen deme puplis; ilis schulen abide me, and schulen suffre myn arm. 6 Reise youre iyen to heuene, and se ye vndur erthe bynethe; for whi heuenes schulen melte awei as smoke, and the erthe schal be al to-brokun as a cloth, and the dwelleris therof schulen perische as these thingis; but myn helthe schal be withouten ende, and my riytfulnesse schal not fayle. 7 Ye puple, that knowen the iust man, here me, my lawe is in the herte of hem; nyle ye drede the schenschiipe of men, and drede ye not the blasfemyes of hem. 8 For whi a worm schal ete hem so as a cloth, and a mouyte schal deuoure hem so as wolfe; but myn helthe schal be withouten ende, and my riytfulnesse in to generaciouns of generaciouns. 9 Rise thou, rise thou, arm of the Lord, be thou clothyd in strengthe; rise thou, as in elde daies, in generaciouns of worldis. Whether thou smytidist not the proude man, woundidist not the dragoun? 10 Whether thou driedist not the see, the watir of the greet depthe, which settidist the depthe of the see a weie, that men `that weren delyuered, schulden passe? 11 And now thei that ben ayenbouyt of the Lord schulen turne ayen, and schulen come heriyng in to Syon, and euerlastyng gladnesse on the heedis of hem; thei schulen holde ioie and gladnesse, sorewe and weilyng schal fle awei. 12 `Y my silf schal coumforte you; what art thou, that thou drede of a deedli man, and of the sone of man, that schal wexe drie so as hei? 13 And thou hast foryete `the Lord, thi creatour, that stretchide abrood heuenes, and foundide the erthe; and thou dreddist contynueli al dai of the face of his woodnesse, that dide tribulacioun to thee, and made redi for to leese. Where is now the woodnesse of the troblere? 14 Soone he schal come, goyng for to opene; and he schal not sle til to deth, nether his breed schal faile. 15 Forsothe Y am thi Lord God, that disturble the see, and the wawis therof wexen greet; the Lord of oostis is my name. 16 Y haue put my wordis in thi mouth, and Y defendide thee in the schadewe of myn hond; that thou plaunte heuenes, and founde the erthe, and seie to Sion, Thou art my puple. 17 Be thou reisd, be thou reisd, rise thou, Jerusalem, that hast drunke of the hond of the Lord the cuppe of his wraththe; thou hast drunke `til to the botme of the cuppe of sleep, thou hast drunke of `til to the drastis. 18 Noon is that susteyneth it, of alle the sones whiche it gendride; and noon is that takith the hond therof, of alle the sones whiche it nurshide. 19 Twei thingis ben that camen to thee; who schal be sori on thee? distriyng, and defoulyng, and hungur, and swerd. Who schal coumforte thee? 20 Thi sones ben cast forth, thei slepten in the heed of alle weies, as the beeste orix, takun bi a snare; thei ben ful of indignacioun of the Lord, of blamyng of thi God. 21 Therfor, thou pore, and drunkun, not of wyn, here these thingis. 22 Thi lordli gouernour, the Lord, and thi God, that fauyt for his puple, seith these thingis, Lo! Y haue take fro thyn hond the cuppe of sleep, the botme of the cuppe of myn indignacioun; Y schal not leie to, that thou drynke it ony more. 23 And Y schal sette it in the hond of hem that maden thee low, and seiden to thi soule, Be thou bowid that we passe; and thou hast set thi bodi as erthe, and as a weye to hem that goen forth.

52 Rise thou, Sion, rise thou, be thou clothid in thi strengthe; Jerusalem, the citee of the hooli, be thou clothid in the clothis of thi glorie; for a man vncircumcidid and a man vncleene schal no more leie to, that he passe by thee. 2 Jerusalem, be thou schakun out of dust; rise thou, sitte thou; thou douyter of Sion, prisoner, vnbynde the boondis of thi necke. 3 For the Lord seith these thingis, Ye ben seeld without cause, and ye schulen be ayenbouyt with out siluer. 4 For the Lord God seith these thingis, Mi puple in the bigynnyng yede doun in to Egipt, that it schulde be there `an erthe tilere, and Assur falsli calengide it with out ony cause. 5 And now what is to me here? seith the Lord; for my puple is takun awei with out cause; the lordis therof doen wickidli, seith the Lord, and my name is blasfemyd contynueli al dai. 6 For this thing my puple schal knowe my name in that day, for lo! Y my silf that spak, am present. 7 Ful faire ben the feet of hym that tellith, and prechith pees on hillis, of hym that tellith good, of hym that prechith helthe, and seith, Sion, thi God schal regne. 8 The vois of thi biholderis; thei residen the vois, thei schulen herie togidere; for thei schulen se with iye to iye, whanne the Lord hath conuertid Sion. 9 The forsakun thingis of Jerusalem, make ye ioie, and herie ye togidere; for the Lord hath coumfortid his puple, he hath ayenbouyt Jerusalem. 10 The Lord hath maad redi his hooli arm in the iyen of alle folkis, and alle the endis of the erthe schulen se the helthe of oure God. 11 Go ye awei, go ye awei, go ye out fro thennus; nyle ye touche defoulid thing, go ye out fro the myddis therof; be ye clensid, that beren the vessels of the Lord. 12 For ye schulen not go out in noyse, nether ye schulen haaste in fleyng awei; for whi the Lord schal go bfore you, and the God of Israel schal gadere you togidere. 13 Lo! my seruaunt schal vndirstonde, and he schal be enhaunsid, and he schal be resid, and he schal be ful hiy. 14 As many men wondriden on hym, so his biholdyng schal be with out glorie among men, and the fourme of hym among the sones of men. 15 He schal bisprenghe many folkis; kyngis schulen holde togidere her mouth on him; for thei schulen se, to whiche it was not teld of hym, and thei that herden not, bihelden.

53 Who bileuyde to oure heryng? and to whom is the arm of the Lord schewide? 2 And he schal stie as a yerde bifore hym, and as a roote fro thirsti lond. And nether schap nether fairnesse was to hym; and we sien hym, and no biholdyng was; 3 and we desiriden hym, dispisid, and the laste of men, a man of sorewis, and knowynge sikenesse. And his cheer was as hid and dispisid; wherfor and we arettiden not hym. 4 Verili he suffride oure sikenessis, and he bar oure sorewis; and we arettiden hym as a mesel, and smytun of God, and maad low. 5 Forsothe he was woundid for oure wickidnessis, he was defoulid for oure greet trespassis; the lernyng of oure pees was on hym, and we ben maad hool bi his wannesse. 6 Alle we erriden as scheep, ech man bowide in to his owne weie, and the Lord puttide in hym the wickidnesse of vs alle. 7 He was offrid, for he wolde, and he openyde not his mouth; as a scheep he schal be led to sleynge, and he schal be doumb as a lomb bifore hym that clippith it, and he schal not opene his mouth. 8 He is takun away fro angwisch and fro doom; who schal telle out the generacioun of hym? For he was kit down fro the lond of Iyueris. Y smoot hym for the greet trespass of my puple. 9 And he schal yyue vnfeithful men for biringe, and riche men for his deth; for he dide not wickidnesse, nether gile was in his mouth; 10 and the Lord wolde defoule hym in sikenesse. If he puttith his lijf for synne, he schal se seed long durynge, and the wille of the Lord schal be dressid in his hond. 11 For that that his soule trauelide, he schal se, and schal be fillid. Thilke my iust seruaunt schal iustifie many men in his kunnyng, and he schal bere the wickidnessis of hem. 12 Therfor Y schal yelde, ethir dele, to hym ful many men, and he schal departe the spuilis of the stronge feendis; for that that he yaf his lijf in to deth, and was arettid with felenouse men; and he dide a wei the synne of many men, and he preiede for trespassouris.

54 Thou bareyn, that childist not, herie; thou that childist not, synge heriyng, and make ioie; for whi many sones ben of the forsakun `womman more than of hir that hadde hosebonde, seith the Lord. 2 Alarge thou the place of thi tente, and stretche forth the skynnes of thi tabernaclis; spare thou not, make longe thi roopis, and make sad thi nailis. 3 For thou schalt perse to the riytside and to the leftside; and thi seed schal enherite hethene men, and schal dwelle in forsakun citees. 4 Nile thou drede, for thou schal not be schent, nether thou schalt be aschamed. For it schal not schame thee; for thou schalt foryete the schenscipe of thi yongthe, and thou schalt no more thenke on the schenscipe of thi widewehod. 5 For he that made thee, schal be lord of thee; the Lord of oostis is his name; and thin ayenbiere, the hooli of Israel, schal be clepid God of al erthe. 6 For the Lord hath clepid thee as a womman forsakun and morenyng in spirit, and a wijf, `that is cast awei fro yongthe. 7 Thi Lord God seide, At a poynt in litil tyme Y forsook thee, and Y schal gadere thee togidere in greete merciful doyngis. 8 In a moment of indignacioun Y hidde my face a litil fro thee, and in merci euerlastynge Y hadde merci on thee, seide thin ayenbiere, the Lord. 9 As in the daies of Noe, this thing is to me, to whom Y swoor, that Y schulde no more bringe watris of the greet flood on the erthe; so Y swoor, that Y be no more wrooth to thee, and that Y blame not thee. 10 Forsothe hillis schulen be mouyd togidere, and litle hillis schulen tremble togidere; but my merci schal not go a wei fro thee, and the boond of my pees schal not be mouyd, seide the merciful doere, the Lord. 11 Thou litle and pore, drawun out bi tempest, with outen any coumfort, lo! Y schal strewe thi stoonys bi ordre, and Y schal founde thee in safiris; 12 and Y schal sette iaspis thi touris, and thi yatis in to grauun stoonys, and alle thin eendis in to desirable stoonys. 13 `Y schal make alle thi sonys tauyt of the Lord; and the multitude of pees to thi sonys, 14 and thou schalt be foundid in riytfulnesse. Go thou awei fer fro fals caleng, for thou schalt not drede; and fro drede, for it schal not neiye to thee. 15 Lo! a straunger schal come, that was not with me; he, that was sum tyme thi comelyng, schal be ioyned to thee. 16 Lo!

 Y made a smyth blowynge coolis in fier, and bringynge forth a vessel in to his werk; and Y haue maad a sleere, for to leese. 17 Ech vessel which is maad ayens thee, schal not be dressid; and in the doom thou schalt deme ech tunge ayenstondynge thee. This is the eritage of the seruauntis of the Lord, and the riytfulnesse of hem at me, seith the Lord.

55 Alle that thirsten, come ye to watris, and ye han not siluer, haaste, bie ye, and ete ye; come ye, bie ye, with out siluer and with outen any chaungyng, wyn and mylk. 2 Whi peisen ye siluer, and not in looues, and youre trauel, not in fulnesse?
 Ye herynge here me, and ete ye good, and youre soule schal delite in fatnesse. 3 Bowe ye youre eere, and `come ye to me; here ye, and youre soule schal lyue; and Y schal smyte with you a couenaunt euerlastynge, the feithful mercies of Dauid. 4 Lo! Y yaf hym a witnessse to puplis, a duyck and a comaundour to folkis. 5 Lo! thou schalt clepe folkis, whiche thou knewist not; and folkis, that knewen not thee, schulen renne to thee; for thi Lord God, and the hooli of Israel, for he glorifiede thee. 6 Seke ye the Lord, while he mai be foundun; clepe ye hym to help, while he is niy. 7 An vnfeithful man forsake his weie, and a wickid man forsake hise thouytis; and turne he ayen to the Lord, and he schal haue merci on hym, and to oure God, for he is myche to foryyue. 8 For why my thouytis ben not youre thouytis, and my weies ben not youre weies, seith the Lord. 9 For as heuenys ben reysid fro erthe, so my weies ben reysid fro youre weies, and my thouytis fro youre thouytis. 10 And as reyn and snow cometh doun fro heuene, and turneth no more ayen thidur, but it fillith the erthe, and bischedith it, and makith it to buriowne, and yyueth seed to hym that sowith, and breed to hym that etith, 11 so schal be my word, that schal go out of my mouth. It schal not turne ayen voide to me, but it schal do what euer thingis Y wolde, and it schal haue prosperite in these thingis to whiche Y sente it. 12 For ye schulen go out in gladnesse, and ye schulen be led forth in pees; mounteyns and litil hillis schulen synge heriynges before you, and alle the trees of the cuntrei schulen make ioie with hond. 13 A fir tre schal grow for a firse, and a mirte tre schal wexe for a nettil; and the Lord schal be nemyd in to a signe euerlastyng, that schal not be doon awei.

myn hous, and in my wallis, and the beste name of sones and douytris; Y schal yyue to hem a name euerlastyng, that schal not perische. 6 And Y schal bryng in to blis the sones of a comelyng, that cleuen faste to the Lord, that thei worschipe hym, and loue his name, that thei be to hym in to seruauntis; ech man kepyng the sabat, that he defoule it not, and holdyng my boond of pees; 7 Y schal bryng hem in to myn hooli hil, and Y schal make hem glad in the hous of my preier; her brent sacrifices and her slayn sacrifices schulen plese me on my auter; for whi myn hous schal be clepid an hous of preier to alle pupilis, 8 seith the Lord God, that gaderith togidere the scaterid men of Israel. Yit Y schal gadere togidere to hym alle the gaderid men therof. 9 Alle beestis of the feeld, come ye to deuoure, alle beestis of the forest. 10 Alle the biholderis therof ben blinde, alle thei knewen not; doumbe doggis, that moun not berke, seyng veyn thingis, slepyng, and louyng dremes; 11 and moost vnschamefast doggis knewen not fulnesse. Tho scheepherdis knewen not vndurstondyng; alle thei bowyden in to her weie, ech man to his aueryce, fro the hiyeste `til to the laste. 12 Come ye, take we wyn, and be we fillid of drunkenesse; and it schal be as to dai, so and to morewe, and myche more.

57 A iust man perischith, and noon is, that thenkith in his herte; and men of merci ben gaderid togidere, for noon is that vndurstondith; for whi a iust man is gaderid fro the face of malice. 2 Pees come, reste he in his bed, that yede in his dressyng. 3 But ye, sones of the sekere of fals dyuynyng bi chiteryng of briddys, neiy hidur, the seed of auowtresse, and of an hoore. 4 On whom scorneden ye? on whom maden ye greet the mouth, and puttiden out the tunge? Whethir ye ben not cursid sones, a seed of leesyngis? 5 which ben coumfortid in goddis, vndur ech tree ful of bowis, and offren litle children in strondis, vndur hiye stoonys. 6 Thi part is in the partis of the stronde, this is thi part; and to tho thou scheddist out moist offryng, thou offridist sacrifice. Whether Y schal not haue indignacioun on these thingis? 7 Thou puttidist thi bed on an hiy hil and enhaunsid, and thidur thou stiedist to offre sacrifices; 8 and thou settidist thi memorial bihynde the dore, and bihynde the post. For bisidis me thou vnihilidist, and tokist auouter; thou alargidist thi bed, and madist a boond of pees with hem; thou louedist the bed of hem with openyd hond, 9 and ournedist thee with kyngis oynement, and thou multipliedist thi pymentis; thou sentist fer thi messengeris, and thou art maad low `til to hellis. (Sheol h7585) 10 Thou trauelidist in the multitude of thi weie, and seidist not, Y schal reste; thou hast founde the weie of thin hond, 11 therfor thou preiedist not. For what thing dreddist thou bisy, for thou liedist, and thouytist not on me? And thou thouytist not in thin herte, that Y am stille, and as not seynge; and thou hast foryete me. 12 Y schal telle thi riytfulnesse, and thi werkis schulen not profite to thee. 13 Whanne thou schalt crie, thi gaderid tresours delyuere thee; and the wynd schal take awei alle tho, a blast schal do awei hem; but he that hath trist on me, schal enherite the lond, and schal haue in possessioun myn hooli hil. 14 And Y schal seie, Make ye weie, yyue ye iurney, bowe ye fro the path, do ye awei hirtyngis fro the weie of my puple. 15 For the Lord hiy, and enhaunsid, seith these thingis, that dwellith in euerlastyngnesse, and his hooli name in hiy place, and that dwellith in hooli, and with a contrite and meke spirit, that he quykene the spirit of meke men, and quykene the herte of contrit men. 16 For Y schal not stryue with outen ende, nether Y schal be wrooth `til to the ende; for whi a spirit schal go out fro my face, and Y schal make blastis. 17 Y was wrooth for the wickidnesse of his aueryce, and Y smoot hym. Y hidde my face fro thee, and Y hadde indignacioun; and he yede with out stidfast dwellyng, in the weie of his herte. 18 Y siy hise weies, and Y helide hym, and Y brouyte hym ayen; and Y yaf coumfortyngis to hym, and to the moreneris of hym. 19 Y made the fruyt of lippis pees, pees to hym that is fer, and to hym that is niy, seide the Lord; and Y heelide hym. 20 But wickid men ben as the buyling see, that may not reste; and the wawis therof fleten ayen in to defoulyng, and fen. 21 The Lord God seide, Pees is not to wickid men.

58 Crye thou, ceesse thou not; as a trumpe enhaunse thi vois, and schewe thou to my puple her grete trespassis, and to the hous of Jacob her synnes. 2 For thei seken me fro dai in to dai, and thei wolen knowe my weies; as a folk, that hath do riytfulnesse, and that hath not forsake the doom of her God; thei preien me domes of riytfulnesse, and wolen neiy to God. 3 Whi fastiden we, and thou biheldist not; we mekiden oure soulis, and thou knewist not? Lo! youre wille is foundun in the dai of youre fastyng, and ye axen alle youre dettouris. 4 Lo! ye fasten to chidyngis and stryuyngis, and smyten with the fist wickidli. Nyl ye fast, as `til to this dai, that youre cry be herd an hiy. 5 Whether sich is the fastyng which Y chees, a man to turmente his soule bi dai? whether to bynde his heed as a sercle, and to make redi a sak and aische? Whethir thou schalt clepe this a fastyng, and a dai acceptable to the Lord? 6 Whether not this is more the fastyng, which Y chees? Vnbynde thou the byndingis togidere of vnpitee, releesse thou birthuns pressyng down; delyuere thou hem free, that ben brokun, and breke thou ech birthun. 7 Breke thi breed to an hungri man, and brynge in to thin hous nedi men and herborles; whanne thou seest a nakid man, hile thou hym, and dispise not thi fleisch. 8 Thanne thi liyt schal breke out as the morewtid, and thin helthe schal rise ful soone; and thi riytfulnesse schal go bifore thi face, and the glorie of the Lord schal gadere thee. 9 Thanne thou schalt clepe to help, and the Lord schal here; thou schalt crie, and he schal seie, Lo!

 Y am present, for Y am merciful, thi Lord God. If thou takist awei a chayne fro the myddis of thee, and ceessist to holde forth the fyngur, and to speke that profitith not; 10 whanne thou schedist out thi soule to an hungri man, and fillist a soule, `that is turmentid, thi liyt schal rise in derknessis, and thi derknessis schulen be as myddai. 11 And the Lord thi God schal yyue euere reste to thee, and schal fille thi soule with schynyngis, and schal delyuere thi boonys; and thou schalt be as a watri gardyn, and as a welle of watris, whose waters schulen not faile. 12 And the forsakun thingis of worldis schulen be bildid in thee, and thou schalt reise the fundamentis of generacioun and generacioun; and thou schalt be clepid a bildere of heggis, turnynge awei the pathis of wickidnessis. 13 If thou turnest awei thi foot fro the sabat, to do thi wille in myn hooli dai, and clepist the sabat delicat, and hooli, the gloriouse of the Lord, and glorifiest him, while thou doist not thi weies, and thi wille is not foundun, that thou speke a word; 14 thanne thou schalt delite on the Lord, and Y schal reise thee on the hiynesse of erthe, and Y schal fede thee with the eritage of Jacob, thi fadir; for whi the mouth of the

59 Lo! the hoond of the Lord is not abreggid, that he mai not saue, nether his eere is maad hard, that he here not; 2 but youre wickidnessis han departid bitwixe you and youre God, and youre synnes han hid his face fro you, that he schulde not here. 3 For whi youre hondis ben defoulid with blood, and youre fyngris with wickidnesse; youre lippis spaken leesyng, and youre tunge spekith wickidnesse. 4 Noon is, that clepith riytfulnesse to help, and noon is, that demeth verili; but thei tristen in nouyt, and speken vanytees; thei conseyueden trauel, and childiden wickidnesse. 5 Thei han broke eiren of snakis, and maden webbis of an yreyn; he that etith of the eiren of hem, schal die, and that that is nurschid, ether brouyt forth, schal breke out in to a cocatrice. 6 The webbis of hem schulen not be in to cloth, nethir thei schulen be hilid with her werkis; the werkis of hem ben vnprofitable werkis, and the werk of wickidnesse is in the hondis of hem. 7 The feet of hem rennen to yuel, and haasten to schede out innocent blood; the thouytis of hem ben vnprofitable thouytis; distriyng and defouling ben in the weies of hem. 8 Thei knewen not the weie of pees, and doom is not in the goyngis of hem; the pathis of hem ben bowid to hem; ech that tredith in tho, knowith not pees. 9 Therfor doom is made fer fro vs, and riytfulnesse schal not take vs; we abididen liyt, and lo! derknessis ben; we abididen schynyng, and we yeden in derknessis. 10 We gropiden as blynde men the wal, and we as with ouden iyen touchiden; we stumbliden in myddai, as in derknessis, in derk places, as deed men. 11 Alle we schulen rore as beeris, and we schulen weile thenkyng as culueris; we abididen doom, and noon is; we abididen helthe, and it is maad fer fro vs. 12 For whi oure wickidnessis ben multiplied bfore thee, and oure synnes answeriden to vs; for our grete trespassis ben with vs, and we knewen oure wickidnessis, 13 to do synne, and to lie ayens the Lord. And we ben turned awei, that we yeden not aftir the bak of oure God, that we speken fals caleng, and trespassyng.

 We conseyueden, and spaken of herte wordis of leesyng; and doom was turned abak, 14 and riytfulnesse stood fer; for whi treuthe felle down in the street, and equite miyt not entre. 15 And treuthe was maad in to foryetyng, and he that yede awei fro yuel, was opyn to robbyng. And the Lord siy, and it apperide yuel in hise iyen, for ther is no doom. 16 And God siy, that a man is not, and he was angwischid, for noon is that renneth to. And his arm schal saue to hym silf, and his riytfulnesse it silf schal conferme hym. 17 He is clothid with riytfulnesse as with an harburion, and the helm of helthe is in his heed; he is clothid with clothis of veniaunce, and he is hilid as with a mentil of feruent worchyng. 18 As to veniaunce, as to yeldyng of indignacioun to hise enemyes, and to quityng of tyme to hise aduersaries, he schal yelde while to ylis. 19 And thei that ben at the west, schulen drede the name of the Lord, and thei that ben at the risyng of the sunne, schulen drede the glorie of hym; whanne he schal come as a violent flood, whom the spirit of the Lord compellith. 20 Whan ayen biere schal come to Syon, and to hem that goen ayen fro wickidnesse in Jacob, seith the Lord. 21 This is my boond of pees with hem, seith the Lord; My spirit which is in thee, and my wordis whiche Y haue set in thi mouth, schulen not go awei fro thi mouth, and fro the mouth of thi seed, seith the Lord, fro hennus forth and til into with outen ende.

60 Rise thou, Jerusalem, be thou liytred, for thi liyt is comun, and the glorie of the Lord is risun on thee. 2 For lo! derknessis schulen hile the erthe, and myist schal hile puplis; but the Lord schal rise on thee, and his glorie schal be seyn in thee. 3 And hethene men schulen go in thi liyt, and kyngis `schulen go in the schynnyng of thi risyng. 4 Reise thin iyen in cumpas, and se; alle these men ben gaderid togidere, thei ben comun to thee; thi sones schulen come fro fer, and thi douytris schulen rise fro the side. 5 Thanne thou schalt se, and schalt flowe; and thin herte schal wondre, and schal be alargid, whanne the multitude of the see is conuertid to thee, the strengthe of hethene men is comun to thee; 6 the flowyng of camels schal hile thee, the lederis of dromedis of Madian and of Effa; alle men of Saba schulen come, bryngynge gold and encense, and tellynge heriying to the Lord.

7 Ech scheep of Cedar schal be gaderid to thee, the rammes of Nabaioth schulen mynystre to thee; thei schulen be offrid on myn acceptable auter, and Y schal glorifie the hous of my maieste. 8 Who ben these, that fleen as cloudis, and as culueris at her wyndowis? 9 Forsothe ilis abiden me, and the schippis of the see in the bigynnnyng; that Y brynge thi sones fro fer, the siluer of hem, and the gold of hem is with hem, to the name of thi Lord God, and to the hooli of Israel; for he schal glorifie thee.
10 And the sones of pilgrymes schulen bilde thi wallis, and the kyngis of hem schulen mynystre to thee. For Y smoot thee in myn indignacioun, and in my recounselyng Y hadde merci on thee. 11 And thi yatis schulen be openyd contynueli, day and niyt tho schulen not be closid; that the strengthe of hethene men be brouyt to thee, and the kyngis of hem be brouyt. 12 For whi the folk and rewme that serueth not thee, schal perische, and hethene men schulen be distried bi wildirnesse. 13 The glorie of the Liban schal come to thee, a fir tre, and box tre, and pyne appil tre togidere, to ourne the place of myn halewyng; and Y schal glorifie the place of my feet. 14 And the sones of hem that maden thee lowe, schulen come lowe to thee, and alle that bacbitiden thee, schulen worschipe the steppis of thi feet; and schulen clepe thee A citee of the Lord of Sion, of the hooli of Israel. 15 For that that thou were forsakun, and hatid, and noon was that passide bi thee, Y schal sette thee in to pryde of worldis, ioie in generacioun and in to generacioun. 16 And thou schalt souke the mylke of folkis, and thou schalt be sociid with the tete of kyngis; and thou schalt wite that Y am the Lord, sauynge thee, and thin ayen biere, the stronge of Jacob. 17 For bras Y schal brynge gold, and for irun Y schal brynge siluer; and bras for trees, and yrun for stoonys; and Y schal sette thi visitacioun pees, and thi prelatiis riytfulnesse. 18 Wickidnesse schal no more be herd in thi lond, nether distriyng and defoulyng in thi coostis; and helthe schal ocupie thi wallis, and heriyng schal ocupie thi yatis. 19 The sunne schal no more be to thee for to schyne bi dai, nether the briytnesse of the moone schal liytne thee; but the Lord schal be in to euerlastyng liyt to thee, and thi God schal be in to thi glorie. 20 Thi sunne schal no more go doun, and thi moone schal not be decreessid; for the Lord schal be in to euerlastyng liyt to thee, and the daies of thi mourenyng schulen be fillid. 21 Forsothe thi puple alle iust men, withouten ende schulen enherite the lond, the seed of my plauntyng, the werk of myn hond for to be glorified. 22 The leeste schal be in to a thousynde, and a litil man schal be in to a ful stronge folk. Y, the Lord, schal make this thing sudenli, in the tyme therof.

61 The spirit of the Lord is on me, for the Lord anoyntide me; he sente me to telle to mylde men, that Y schulde heele men contrite in herte, and preche foryyuenesse to caitifs, and openyng to prisoneris; and preche a plesaunt yeer to the Lord, 2 and a dai of veniaunce to oure God; that Y schulde coumforte alle that mourenen; 3 that Y schulde sette coumfort to the moureneris of Sion, and that Y schulde yyue to them a coroun for aische, oile of ioie for mourenyng, a mentil of preysyng for the spirit of weilyng. And stronge men of riytfulnesse schulen be clepid ther ynne, the plauntyng of the Lord for to glorifie. 4 And thei schulen bilde thingis `that ben forsakun fro the world, and thei schulen reise elde fallyngis, and thei schulen restore citees `that ben forsakun and distried, in generacioun and in to generacioun. 5 And aliens schulen stonde, and fede youre beestis; and the sones of pilgrymes schulen be youre erthe tilieris and vyn tilieris. 6 But ye schulen be clepid the preestis of the Lord; it schal be seid to you, Ye ben mynystris of oure God. Ye schulen ete the strengthe of hethene men, and ye schulen be onourid in the glorie of hem. 7 For youre double schenschip and schame thei schulen preise the part of hem; for this thing thei schulen haue pesibli double thingis in her lond, and euerlastyng gladnesse schal be to hem. 8 For Y am the Lord, louyng doom, and hatyng raueyn in brent sacrifice. And Y schal yyue the werk of hem in treuthe, and Y schal smyte to hem an euerlastyng boond of pees. 9 And the seed of hem schal be knowun among folkis, and the buriownyng of hem in the myddis of puplis. Alle men that seen hem, schulen knowe hem, for these ben the seed, whom the Lord blesside. 10 I ioiyng schal haue ioie in the Lord, and my soule schal make ful out ioiyng in my God. For he hath clothid me with clothis of helthe, and he hath compassid me with clothis of riytfulnesse, as a spouse made feir with a coroun, and as a spousesse ourned with her brochis. 11 For as the erthe bryngith forth his fruyt, and as a gardyn buriowneth his seed, so the Lord God schal make to growe riytfulnesse, and preysyng bifore alle folkis.

62 For Sion Y schal not be stille, and for Jerusalem Y schal not reste, til the iust man therof go out as schynyng, and the sauour therof be teendid as a laumpe. 2 And hethene men schulen se thi iust man, and alle kyngis schulen se thi noble man; and a newe name, which the mouth of the Lord nemyde, schal be clepid to thee. 3 And thou schalt be a coroun of glorie in the hond of the Lord, and a diademe of the rewme in the hond of thi God. 4 Thou schalt no more be clepid forsakun, and thi lond schal no more be clepid desolat; but thou schalt be clepid My wille in that, and thi lond schal be enhabitid; for it plesid the Lord in thee, and thi lond schal be enhabited. 5 For a yong man schal dwelle with a virgyn, and thi sonnes schulen dwelle in thee; and the spouse schal haue ioie on the spousesse, and thi God schal haue ioie on thee. 6 Jerusalem, Y haue ordeyned keperis on thi wallis, al dai and al niyt with outen ende thei schulen not be stille. Ye that thenken on the Lord, be not stille, 7 and yyue ye not silence to him, til he stablische, and til he sette Jerusalem `preisyng in erthe. 8 The Lord swoor in his riyt hond and in the arm of his strengthe, Y schal no more yyue thi wheete mete to thin enemyes, and alien sonnes schulen not drynke thi wyn, in which thou hast trauelid. 9 For thei that schulen gadere it togidere, schulen ete it, and schulen herie the Lord; and thei that beren it togidere, schulen drynke in myn hooli hallis. 10 Passe ye, passe ye bi the yatis; make ye redi weie to the puple, make ye a playn path; and chese ye stoonys, and reise ye a signe to pupilis. 11 Lo! the Lord made herd in the laste partis of the erthe. Seie ye to the douytir of Sion, Lo! thi sauyour cometh; lo! his meede is with hym, and his werk is bifore hym. 12 And thei schulen clepe hem the hooli puple, ayenbouyt of the Lord. Forsothe thou schalt be clepid a citee souyt, and not forsakun.

63 Who is this that cometh fro Edom, in died clothis fro Bosra? this fair man in his `long cloth, goynge in the multitude of his vertu? Y that speke riytfulnesse, and am a forfiytere for to saue. 2 Whi therfor is thi clothing reed? and thi clothis ben as of men stampynge in a pressour? 3 Y aloone stampide the presse, and of folkis no man is with me; Y stampide hem in my stronge veniaunce, and Y defoulide hem in my wraththe; and her blood is spreynt on my clothis, and Y made foul alle my clothis. 4 For whi a dai of veniaunce is in myn herte, and the yeer of my yeldyng cometh. 5 I lokide aboute, and noon helpere was; Y souyte, and noon was that helpide; and myn arm sauys to me, and myn indignacioun, that helpide me. 6 And Y defoulide pupilis in my stronge veniaunce; and Y made hem drunkun in myn indignacioun, and Y drow down her vertu in to erthe. 7 I schal haue mynde on the merciful doyngis of the Lord, Y schal preche the heriyng of the Lord on alle thingis whiche the Lord yeldide to vs, and on the multitude `of goodis of the hous of Israel, whiche he yaf to hem bi his foryyuenesse, and bi the multitude of hise mercies. 8 And the Lord seide, Netheles it is my puple, sones not denyng, and he was maad a sauyour to hem in al the tribulacioun of hem. 9 It was not set in tribulacioun, and the aungel of his face sauys hem. In his loue and in his foryyuenesse he ayenbouyte hem, and he bar hem, and reyside hem in alle daies of the world. 10 Forsothe thei excitiden hym to wrathfulnesse, and turmentiden the spirit of his hooli; and he was turned in to an enemye to hem, and he ouercam hem in batel. 11 And he hadde mynde on the daies of the world, of Moises, and of his puple. Where is he, that ledde hem out of the see, with the scheepherdis of his floc? Where is he, that settide the spirit of his holi in the myddil therof; 12 whiche ledde out Moises to the riyt half in the arm of his maieste? which departide watris bfore hem, that he schulde make to hym silf a name euerlastynge; 13 whiche ledde hem out thoruy depthis of watris, as an hors not stumblyng in desert, 14 as a beeste goynge down in the feeld? The Spirit of the Lord was the ledere therof; so thou leddist thi puple, that thou madist to thee a name of glorie. 15 Biholde thou fro heuene, and se fro thin hooli dwellyng place, and fro the seete of thi glorie. Where is thi feruent loue, and thi strengthe, the multitude of thin entrailis, and of thi merciful doyngis? 16 Tho withelden hem silf on me. Forsothe thou art oure fadir, and Abraham knew not vs, and Israel knew not vs. 17 Thou, Lord, art oure fadir, and oure ayenbiere; thi name is fro the world. Lord, whi hast thou maad vs to erre fro thi weies? thou hast made hard oure herte, that we dredden not thee? be thou conuertid, for thi seruauntis, the lynages of thin eritage. 18 Thei hadden as nouyt thin hooli puple in possessioun, and oure enemyes defouliden thin halewyng. 19 We ben maad as in the bigynnyng, whanne thou were not Lord of vs, nethir thi name was clepid to help on vs.

64 I wolde that thou brakist heuenes, and camest down, that hillis fletiden awei fro thi face, 2 and failiden as brennyng of fier, and brente in fier; that thi name were made knowun to thin enemyes, and folkis weren disturblid of thi face. 3 Whanne thou schalt do merueils, we schulen not abide. Thou camest doun, and hillis fletiden awei fro thi face. 4 Fro the world thei herden not, nethir perseyueden with eeris; God, non iye siy, withouten thee, what thingis thou hast maad redi to hem that abiden thee.

5 Thou mettist hym that is glad, and doith riytfulnesse; in thi weies thei schulen bithenke on thee. Lo! thou art wrooth, and we synneden; in tho synnes we weren euere, and we schulen be saued. 6 And alle we ben maad as an vncleene man; alle oure riytfulnessis ben as the cloth of a womman in vncleene blood; and alle we fellen doun as a leef, and our wickidnessis as wynd han take awei vs. 7 Noon is, that clepith thi name to help, that risith, and holdith thee; thou hast hid thi face fro vs, and thou hast hurtlid doun vs in the hond of oure wickidnesse. 8 And now, Lord, thou art oure fadir; forsothe we ben cley, and thou art oure maker, and alle we ben the werkis of thin hondis. 9 Lord, be thou not wrooth ynow, and haue thou no more mynde on oure wickidnesse. Lo! Lord, biholde thou, alle we ben thi puple. 10
 The citee of thi seyntuarie is forsakun, Sion is maad deseert, Jerusalem is desolat; 11 the hous of oure halewyng and of oure glorie, where oure fadris herieden thee, is maad in to brennyng of fier; and alle oure desirable thingis ben turned in to fallyngis.
12 Lord, whether on these thingis thou schalt witholde thee? schalt thou be stille, and schalt thou turmente vs greetli?

65 Thei souyten me, that axiden not bifore; thei that souyten not me, founden me. Y seide, Lo! Y, lo! Y, to hethene men that knewen not me, and that clepiden not mi name to help. 2 I stretchide forth myn hondis al dai to a puple vnbileueful, that goith in a weie not good, afir her thouytis. 3 It is a puple that stirith me to wrathfulnesse, euere bifore my face; whiche offren in gardyns, and maken sacrifice on tiel stoonys; 4 whiche dwellen in sepulcris, and slepen in the templis of idols; whiche eten swynes fleisch, and vnhooli iwisch is in the vessels of hem; 5 whiche seien to an hethene man, Go thou awei fro me, neiy thou not to me, for thou art vncleene; these schulen be smoke in my stronge veniaunce, fier brennyng al dai. 6 Lo! it is writun bfore me; Y schal not be stille, but Y schal yelde, and Y schal quyte in to the bosum of hem youre wickidnessis, 7 and the wickidnessis of youre fadris togidere, seith the Lord, whiche maden sacrifice on mounteyns, and diden schenschipec to me on litle hillis; and Y schal mete ayen the firste werk of hem in her bosum. 8 The Lord seith thes thingis, As if a grape be foundun in a clustre, and it be seid, Distrie thou not it, for it is blessing; so Y schal do for my seruantis, that Y leese not al. 9 And Y schal lede out of Jacob seed, and of Juda a man hauynge in possessioun myn hooli hillis; and my chosun men schulen enherite it, and my seruauntis schulen dwelle there. 10 And the feeldi places schulen be into floodis of flockis, and the valei of Achar in to a restyng place of droues of neet, to my puple that souyten me. 11 And Y schal noumbre you in swerd, that forsoken the Lord, that foryaten myn hooli hil, whiche setten a boord to fortune, and maken sacrifice theronne, 12 and alle ye schulen falle bi sleynge; for that that Y clepide, and ye answeriden not; Y spak, and ye herden not; and ye diden yuel bfor myn iyen, and ye chesiden tho thingis whiche Y nolde. 13 For these thingis, the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! my seruauntis schulen ete, and ye schulen haue hungur; lo! my seruauntis schulen drynke, and ye schulen be thirsti; 14 lo! my seruauntis schulen be glad, and ye schulen be aschamed; lo! my seruauntis schulen herie, for the ful ioie of herte, and ye schulen crie, for the sorewe of herte, and ye schulen yelle, for desolacioun of spirit. 15 And ye schulen leeuwe youre name in to an ooth to my chosun men; and the Lord God schal sle thee, and he schal clepe hise seruauntis bi another name. 16 In which he that is blessid on erthe, schal be blessid in God amen; and he that swerith in erthe, shal swere in God feithfuli; for the formere angwischis ben youun to foryetyng, and for tho ben hid fro youre iyen. 17 For lo! Y make newe heuenes and a newe erthe, and the formere thingis schulen not be in mynde, and schulen not stie on the herte. 18 But ye schulen haue ioie, and make ful out ioiying til in to with outen ende, in these thingis whiche Y make; for lo! Y make Jerusalem ful out ioiynge, and the puple therof ioie. 19 And Y schal make ful out ioiying in Jerusalem, and Y schal haue ioie in my puple; and the vois of weping and the vois of cry schal no more be herd ther ynne. 20 A yong child of daies schal no more be there, and an eld man that fillith not hise daies; for whi a child of an hundrid yeer schal die, and a synnere of an hundrid yeer schal be cursid. 21 And thei schulen bilde housis, and schulen enhabite hem, and thei schulen plaunte vynes, and schulen ete the fruytis of tho. 22 Thei schulen not bilde housis, and an othir schal enhabite hem, thei schulen not plaunte, and an othir schal ete; for whi the daies of my puple schulen be after the daies of the tree, and the werkis of 23 her hondis schulen be elde to my chosun men. Thei schulen not trauele in veyn, nether thei schulen gendre in disturblyng; for it is the seed of hem that ben blessid of the Lord, and the cosyns of hem ben with hem. 24 And it schal be, bifor that thei crien, Y schal here; yit while thei speken, Y schal here. 25 A wolf and a lomb schulen be fed togidere, and a lioun and an oxe schulen ete stree, and to a serpent dust schal be his breed; thei schulen not anoie, nether schulen sle, in al myn hooli hil, seith the Lord.

66 The Lord seith these thingis, Heuene is my seete, and the erthe is the stool of my feet. Which is this hous, which ye schulen bilde to me, and which is this place of my reste? 2 Myn hond made alle these thingis, and alle these thingis ben maad, seith the Lord; but to whom schal Y biholde, no but to a pore man and contrit in spirit, and greetli dredynge my wordis? 3 He that offrith an oxe, is as he that sleeth a man; he that sleeth a scheep, is as he that brayneth a dogge; he that offrith an offryng, is as he that offrith swynes blood; he that thenketh on encense, is as he that blessith an idol; thei chesiden alle thes thingis in her weies, and her soule delitide in her abhomynaciouns. 4 Wherfor and Y schal chese the scornynge of hem, and Y schal brynge to hem tho thingis whiche thei dredden; for Y clepide, and noon was that answeride; Y spak, and thei herden not; and thei didnen yuel bifer myn iyen, and chesiden tho thingis whiche Y nolde. 5 Here ye the word of the Lord, whiche quaken at his word; youre britheren hatynge you, and castynge a wey for my name, seiden, The Lord be glorified, and we schulen se in youre gladnesse; forsothe thei schulen be schent. 6 The vois of the puple fro the citee, the vois fro the temple, the vois of the Lord yeldynge a reward to hise enemyes. 7 Bifer that sche traelide of child, sche childe; bifer that the sorewe of hir child beryng cam, sche childe a sone. 8 Who herde euere suche a thing, and who siy a thing lijk this? Whether the erthe schal trauele of child in o dai, ether whether a folk schal be childe togidere? For whi Sion trauelede of child, and childe hir sones. 9 Whether that Y `my silf that make othere to bere child, schal not ber child? seith the Lord. Whether Y that yyue generacioun to othere men, schal be bareyn? seith thi Lord God.

10 Be ye glad with Jerusalem, and alle ye that louen that, make ful out ioie ther ynne; alle ye that mourenen on that Jerusalem, make ye ioie with it in ioie; 11 that bothe ye souke, and be fillid of the tetis and coumfort therof, that ye mylke, and flowe in delicis, of al maner glorie therof. 12 For whi the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bowe down on it, as a flood of pees, and as a flowynge streem the glorie of hethene men, which ye schulen souke; ye schulen be borun at tetis, and on knees thei schulen speke plesauntly to you. 13 As if a modir spekith faire to ony child, so Y schal coumforte you, and ye schulen be coumfortid in Jerusalem. 14 Ye schulen se, and youre herte schal haue ioie, and youre boonys schulen buriowne as an erbe. And the hond of the Lord schal be knowun in hise seruauntis, and he schal haue indignacioun to hise enemyes. 15 For lo! the Lord schal come in fier, and as a whirlwynd hise charis, to yelde in indignacioun hise strong veniaunce, and his blamyng in the flawme of fier. 16 For whi the Lord schal deme in fier, and in hys swerd to ech fleisch; and slayn men of the Lord schulen be multiplied, 17 that weren halewid, and gessiden hem cleene, in gardyns aftir o yate with ynne; that eten swynes fleisch, and abhomynacioun, and a mows, thei schulen be waastid togidere, seith the Lord. 18 Forsothe Y come to gadere togidere the werkis of hem, and the thouytis of hem, with alle folkis and langagis; and thei schulen come, and schulen se my glorie. 19 And Y schal sette a signe in hem, and Y schal sende of hem that ben sauyd to hethene men, in to the see, in to Affrik, and in to Liddia, and to hem that holden arowe, in to Italie, and Greek lond, to ilis fer, to hem that herden not of me, and sien not my glorie. And thei schulen telle my glorie to hethene men, 20 and thei schulen brynge alle youre britheren of alle folkis a yifte to the Lord, in horsis, and charis, and in literis, and in mulis, and in cartis, to myn hooli hil, Jerusalem, seith the Lord; as if the sones of Israel bryngen a yifte in a cleene vessel in to the hous of the Lord. 21 And Y schal take of hem in to preestis and dekenes, seith the Lord. 22 For as newe heuenes and newe erthe, whiche Y make to stonde bifore me, seith the Lord, so youre seed schal stonde, and youre name. 23 And a monethe schal be of monethe, and a sabat of sabat; ech man schal come for to worschipe bifore my face, seith the Lord. 24 And thei schulen go out, and schulen se the careyns of men, that trespassiden ayens me; the worm of hem schal not die, and the fier of hem schal not be quenched; and thei schulen be `til to fillyng of siyt to ech man.

Jeremiah

1 The wordis of Jeremye, sone of Helchie, of the preestis that weren in Anathot, in the lond of Beniamyn. 2 For the word of the Lord was maad to hym in the daies of Josie, the sone of Amon, kyng of Juda, in the threttenethe yeer of his rewme. 3 And it was don in the daies of Joachym, the sone of Josie, the king of Juda, til to the endyng of the enleuenthe yeer of Sedechie, sone of Josie, kyng of Juda, til the passyng ouer, ether caitifte, of Jerusalem, in the fyuethe monethe. 4 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 5 and seide, Bifor that Y fourmede thee in the wombe, Y knewe thee; and bifor that thou yedist out of the wombe, Y halewide thee; and Y yaf thee a profete among folkis. 6 And Y seide, A! A! A! Lord God, lo! Y kan not speke, for Y am a child. 7 And the Lord seide to me, Nyle thou seie, that Y am a child; for thou schalt go to alle thingis, to whiche Y schal sende thee, and thou schalt speke alle thingis, what euer thingis Y schal comaunde to thee. 8 Drede thou not of the face of hem, for Y am with thee, to delyuere thee, seith the Lord. 9 And the Lord sente his hond, and touchide my mouth; and the Lord seide to me, Lo! Y haue youe my wordis in thi mouth; lo! 10 Y haue ordeynede thee to day on folkis, and on rewmes, that thou drawe vp, and distrie, and leese, and scatere, and bilde, and plaunte. 11 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and seide, What seest thou, Jeremye? 12 And Y seide, Y se a yerde wakyng. And the Lord seide to me, Thou hast seen wel, for Y schal wake on my word, to do it. 13 And the word of the Lord was maad the secounde tyme to me, and seide, What seest thou? Y se a pot buylyng, and the face therof fro the face of the north. 14 And the Lord seide to me, Fro the north schal be schewid al yuel on alle the dwelleris of the lond. 15 For lo! Y schal clepe togidere alle the naciouns of rewmes of the north, seith the Lord, and thei schulen come, and sette ech man his seete in the entryng of the yatis of Jerusalem, and on alle the wallis therof in cumpas, and on alle the citees of Juda.

16 And Y schal speke my domes with hem on al the malice of hem, that forsoken me, and maden sacrifice to alien goddis, and worschhipiden the werk of her hondis. 17 Therfor girde thou thi leendis, and rise thou, and speke to hem alle thingis whiche Y comaunde to thee; drede thou not of the face of hem, for Y schal not make thee for to drede the cheer of hem. 18 For Y yaf thee to dai in to a strong citee, and in to an yrun piler, and in to a brasun wal, on al the lond, to the kyngis of Juda, and to the princis therof, and to the preestis therof, and to al the puple of the lond. 19 And thei schulen fiyte ayens thee, and thei schulen not haue the maistrie; for Y am with thee, seith the Lord, that Y delyuere thee.

2 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and seide, Go thou, and crye in the eeris of Jerusalem, and seie, The Lord seith these thingis, Y hadde mynde on thee, and Y hadde merci on thee in thi yong wexynge age, and on the charite of thi spousyng, whanne thou suedist me in desert, in the lond which is not sowun. 3 Israel was hooli to the Lord, the firste of fruytis of hym; alle men that deuouren that Israel, trespassen; yuelis schulen come on hem, seith the Lord. 4 The hous of Jacob, and alle the lynagis of the hous of Israel, here ye the word of the Lord. 5 The Lord seith these thingis, What of wickidnesse foundun youre fadris in me, for thei yeden fer away fro me, and yeden after vanyte, and weren maad veyn? 6 And thei seiden not, Where is the Lord, that made vs to stie fro the lond of Egipt, that ledde vs ouer thorou desert, bi the lond vnabitable and with out weie, bi the lond of thirst, and bi the ymage of deeth, bi the lond in whiche a man yede not, nether a man dwellide. 7 And Y brouyte you in to the lond of Carmele, that ye schulden ete the fruyt therof, and the goodis therof; and ye entriden, and defouliden my lond, and settiden myn eritage in to abhomynacioun. 8 Preestis seiden not, Where is the Lord? and thei that helden the lawe, knewen not me; and scheepherdis trespassiden ayens me, and profetis profesieden in Baal, and sueden idols. 9 Therfor yit Y schal stryue with you in doom, seith the Lord, and Y schal dispute with youre sones. 10 Go ye to the ilis of Cethym, and se ye; and sende ye in to Cedar, and biholde ye greetli; and se ye, 11 if siche a thing is doon, if a folk chaungide hise goddis; and certeynli thei ben no goddis; but my puple chaungide hise glorie in to an ydol. 12 Heuenes, be ye astonyed on this thing, and, ye yatis of heuene, be ye desolat greetli, seith the Lord.

13 For whi my puple hath don tweyne yuels; thei han forsake me, the welle of quyke watir, and han diggid to hem cisternes, `that weren distried, that moun not holde watris. 14 Whether Israel is a boond man, ether is borun boonde? 15 Whi therfor is he maad in to prey? Liouns roriden on hym, and yauen her vois; thei han set the londe of hym in to wildernesse, the citees of him ben brent, and noon is that dwellith in tho. 16 Also the sones of Menfis and of Tafnys han defoulid thee, `til to the cop of the heed. 17 Whether this is not don to thee, for thou forsokist thi Lord God, in that tyme in which he ledde thee bi the weie?
18 And now what wolt thou to thee in the weie of Egipt, that thou drynke troblid watir? And what is to thee with the weie of Assiriens, that thou drynke water of the flood? 19 Thi malice schal repreue thee, and thi turnyng awei schal blame thee; wite thou and se, that it is yuel and bittir that thou hast forsake thi Lord God, and that his drede is not at thee, seith the Lord God of oostis. 20 Fro the world thou hast broke my yok, thou hast broke my bondis, and seidist, Y schal not serue. For thou hoore didist hordom in ech hiy litil hil, and vndur ech tree ful of bowis. 21 Forsothe Y plauntide thee a chosun vyner, al trewe seed; hou therfor art thou, alien vyner, turned to me in to a schrewid thing? 22 Thouy thou waischist thee with fullers clei, and multypliest to thee the erbe borith, thou art defoulid in thi wickidnesse bfore me, seith the Lord God. 23 Hou seist thou, Y am not defoulid, Y yede not aftir Baalym? Se thi weies in the greet valei, wite thou what thou hast do; a swifte rennere ordeynynge hise weies. 24 A wielde asse customable in wildirnesse drow the wynd of his loue in the desire of his soule; no man schal turne awei it. Alle that seken it, schulen not faile; thei schulen fynde it in the flux of vncleene blood therof. 25 Forbede thi foot fro nakidnesse, and thi throte fro thirst; and thou seidist, Y dispeiride, Y schal not do; for Y louede brennyngli alien goddis, and Y schal go aftir hem. 26 As a thief is schent, whanne he is takun, so the hous of Israel ben schent; thei, and kyngis of hem, the princes, and prestis, and the prophetis of hem, 27 that seien to a tree, Thou art my fadir; and to a stoon, Thou hast gendrid me. Thei turneden to me the bak, and not the face; and in the tyme of her turment thei schulen seie, Ryse thou, and delyuere vs. 28 Where ben thi goddis, whiche thou madist to thee? Rise thei, and delyuere thee in the tyme of thi turment; for aftir the noumbre of thi citees weren thi goddis, thou Juda. 29 What wolen ye stryue with me in doom? Alle ye han forsake me, seith the Lord. 30 In veyn Y smoot youre sonnes, thei resseyueden not chastisyng; youre swerd deuouride youre prophetis, youre generacioun is distried as a lioun. 31 Se ye the word of the Lord, whether Y am maad a wildirnesse to Israel, ether a lond late bryngynge forth fruyt? Whi therfor seide my puple, We han go awei, we schulen no more come to thee? 32 Whethir a virgyn schal foryete hir ounement? and a spousesse `schal foryete hir brest girdil? But mi puple hath foryete me bi daies with out noumbre. 33 What enforsist thou to schewe thi weie good to seke loue, which ferthermore bothe hast tauyt thi malices thi weies, 34 and the blood of pore men and innocentis is foundun in thi wyngis? Y fond not hem in dichis, but in alle thingis whiche Y remembrede bifore. 35 And thou seidist, Y am with out synne and innocent; and therfor thi stronge veniaunce be turned awei fro me. Lo! Y schal stryue with thee in doom; for thou seidist, Y synnede not. 36 Hou vijl art thou maad, rehearsing thi weies? and thou schalt be schent of Egipt, as thou were schent of Assur. 37 For whi and thou schalt go out of this lond, and thin hondis schulen be on thin heed; for whi the Lord hath al to-broke thi trist, and thou schalt haue no thing to prosperite.

3 It is seid comunli, If a man forsakith his wijf, and sche go awei fro hym, and be weddid to an othere hosebonde, whether he schal turne ayen more to hir? whether thilke womman schal not be defoulid, and maad vncleene? Forsothe thou hast do fornycacioun with many louveris; netheles turne thou ayen to me, `seith the Lord, and Y schal resseyue thee. 2 Reise thin iyen in to streiyt, and se, where thou art not cast down. Thou hast setun in weies, abidyng hem as a theef in wildirnesse, and thou hast defoulid the erthe in thi fornicaciouns and in thi malices. 3 Wherfor the dropis of reynes weren forbodun, and no late reyn was. The forhed of a womman hoore is maad to thee; thou noldist be aschamed. 4 Nameli fro this tyme forth clepe thou me, Thou art my fadir, the ledere of my virginyte. 5 Whether thou schalt be wrooth with outhen ende, ether schalt contynue in to the ende? Lo! thou hast spoke, and hast do yuels, and thou were myyti. And for wordis of penaunce thou blasfemydist bi wordis of pride; and thou fillidist thin yuel thouyt, and schewidist thi strengthe ayens thi hosebonde, that thou maist do that thing that thou tretidist bi word. 6 And the Lord seide to me, in the daies of Josie, the kyng, Whether thou hast seyn what thing the aduersarie, Israel, hath do? Sche yede to hir silf on ech hiy hil, and vndur ech tre ful of boowis, and dide fornyacioun there. 7 And Y seide, whanne sche hadde do alle these thingis, Turne thou ayen to me; and sche turnede not ayen. And hir sistir, Juda, brekere of the lawe, 8 siy, that for the aduersarie, Israel, dide auowtrie, Y hadde left hir, and Y hadde youe to hir a libel of forsakyng; and Juda, hir sistir, brekere of the lawe, dredde not, but also sche yede, and dide fornyacioun. 9 And bi liytneesse of hir fornyacioun sche defoulide the erthe, and dide auowtrie with a stoon, and with a tree. 10 And in alle these thingis hir sistir, Juda, brekere of the lawe, turnede not ayen to me, in al hir herte, but in a leesyng, seith the Lord God. 11 And the Lord seide to me, The aduersarie, Israel, hath iustified hir soule, in comparisoun of Juda, brekere of the lawe. 12 Go thou, and crye these wordis ayens the north; and thou schalt seie, Thou aduersarie, Israel, turne ayen, seith the Lord, and Y schal not turne awei my face fro you; for Y am hooli, seith the Lord, and Y schal not be wrooth with outen ende. 13 Netheles knowe thou thi wickidnesse; for thou hast trespassid ayens thi Lord God, and thou hast spred abroad thi weies to aliens vndur ech tre ful of bowis; and thou herdist not my vois, seith the Lord.

14 Be ye conuertid, sones, turnynge ayen, seith the Lord, for Y am youre hosebonde; and Y schal take you oon of a citee, and tweyne of a kynrede, and Y schal lede you in to Sion; 15 and Y schal yyue to you scheepherdis after myn herte, and thei schulen feede you with kunnyng and teching. 16 And whanne ye schulen be multiplied, and encrease in the lond, in tho daies, seith the Lord, thei schulen no more seie, The arke of testament of the Lord; nether it schal stie on the herte, nether thei schulen thenke on it, nether it schal be visitid, nether it schal be ferthere.

17 In that tyme thei schulen clepe Jerusalem The seete of the Lord, and alle hethene men schulen be gaderid togidere to it, in the name of the Lord, in Jerusalem; and thei schulen not go aftir the schrewidnesse of her worste herte. 18 In tho daies the hous of Juda schal go to the hous of Israel; and thei schulen come togidere fro the lond of the north to the lond which Y yaf to youre fadris. 19 Forsothe Y seide, Hou schal Y sette thee among sones, and schal yyue to thee a desirable lond, a ful cleer eritage of the oostis of hethene men? And Y seide, Thou schalt clepe me fadir, and thou schalt not ceesse to entre aftir me. 20 But as if a womman dispisith hir louyere, so the hous of Israel dispiside me, seith the Lord. 21 A vois is herd in weies, the weping and yellyng of the sones of Israel; for thei maden wickid her weie, thei foryaten her Lord God. 22 Be ye conuertid, sones, turnynge ayen, and Y schal heele youre turnyngis awei. Lo! we comen to thee; for thou art oure Lord God. 23 Verili lital hillis weren lieris, the multitude of mounteyns was fals; verili in oure Lord God is the helthe of Israel. 24 Schenschipe eete the trauel of oure fadris, fro oure yongthe; schenschipe eet the flockis of hem, and the droues of hem, the sones of hem, and the douytris of hem. 25 We schulen slepe in oure schenschipe, and oure sclaunder schal hile vs; for we synned to oure Lord God, bothe we and oure fadris, fro oure yongthe `til to this dai; and we herden not the vois of oure Lord God.

fro you. 9 And it schal be, in that dai, seith the Lord, the herte of the king schal perische, and the herte of princis; and the prestis schulen wondre, and the prophetis schulen be astonyed. 10 And Y seide, Alas! alas! alas! Lord God; therfor whether thou hast disseyued this puple and Jerusalem, seiynge, Pees schal be to you, and lo! a swerd is comun `til to the soule? 11 In that tyme it schal be seide to this puple and to Jerusalem, A brennyng wynd in the weies that ben in desert, ben the weies of the douytir of my puple, not to wyndewe, and not to purge. 12 A spirit ful of hem schal come to me; and now Y, but Y schal speke my domes with hem. 13 Lo! he schal stie as a cloude, and hise charis as a tempest; hise horsis ben swifter than eglis; wo to vs, for we ben distried. 14 Thou Jerusalem, waische thin herte fro malice, that thou be maad saaf. Hou long schulen noiful thouytis dwelle in thee? 15 For whi the vois of a tellere fro Dan, and makynge knowun an idol fro the hil of Effraym. 16 Reise, ye folkis; lo! it is herd in Jerusalem that keperis ben comun fro a fer lond, and yyuen her vois on the citees of Juda. 17 As the keperis of feeldis thei ben maad on it in cumpas; for it stiride me to wrathfulnesse, seith the Lord. 18 Thi weyes and thi thouytis han maad this to thee; this malice of thee, for it is bittir, for it touchide thin herte. 19 Mi wombe akith, my wombe akith; the wittis of myn herte ben disturblid in me. Y schal not be stille, for my soule herde the vois of a trumpe, the cry of batel. 20 Sorewe is clepid on sorewe, and al the lond is distried; my tabernaclis ben wastid sudeynli, my skynnes ben wastid sudeynli. 21 Hou longe schal Y se hem that flee, schal Y here the vois of a clarioun? 22 For my fonned puple knew not me; thei ben vnwise sones, and cowardis; thei ben wise to do yuels, but thei kouden not do wel. 23 Y bihelde

the lond, and lo! it was void, and nouyt; and Y bihelde heuenes, and no liyt was in tho. 24 Y siy munteyns, and lo! tho weren mouyd, and all litle hillis weren disturblid. 25 Y lokide, and no man was, and ech brid of heuene was gon a wey. 26 Y bihelde, and lo! Carmele is forsakun, and alle citees therof ben distried fro the face of the Lord, and fro the face of the ire of his strong veniaunce. 27 For the Lord seith these thingis, Al the lond schal be forsakun, but netheles Y schal not make an endyng. 28 The erthe schal mourne, and heuenys aboue schulen make sorewe, for that Y spak; Y thouyte, and it repentide not me, nether Y am turned awei fro it. 29 Ech citee fledde fro the vois of a knyyt, and of a man schetyng an arowe; thei entriden in to hard places, and stieden in to roochis of stoon; alle citees ben forsakun, and no man dwellith in tho. 30 But what schalt thou `destried do? Whanne thou schalt clothe thee with reed scarlet, whanne thou schalt be oured with a goldun broche, and schalt anoynte thin iyen with wommans oynement, thou schalt be araied in veyn; thi louyeris han dispisid thee, thei schulen seke thi soule. 31 For Y herd a vois as of a womman trauelyng of child, the angwischis as of a womman chilyng; the vois of the douyter of Sion among hem that dien, and spreden abroad her hondis; Wo to me, for my soule failide for hem that ben slayn.

5 Cumpasse ye the weies of Jerusalem, and loke, and biholde ye, and seke ye in the stretis therof, whether ye fynden a man doynge doom, and sekynge feith; and Y schal be merciful to hem. 2 That if also thei seien, The Lord lyueth, yhe, thei schulen swere this falsli. 3 Lord, thin iyen biholden feith; thou hast smyte hem, and thei maden not sorewe; thou hast al tobroke hem, and thei forsoken to take chastisyng; thei maden her faces hardere than a stoon, and nolden turne ayen. 4 Forsothe Y seide, In hap thei ben pore men, and foolis, that knowen not the weie of the Lord, and the doom of her God. 5 Therfor Y schal go to the principal men, and Y schal speke to hem; for thei knewen the weie of the Lord, and the doom of her God. And lo! thei han more broke togidere the yok, and han broke boondis. 6 Therfor a lioun of the wode smoot hem; a wolf at euentid wastide hem, a parde wakyng on the citees of hem. Ech man that goith out of hem, schal be takun; for the trespassyngis of hem ben multiplied, the turnyngis awei of hem ben coumfortid. 7 On what thing mai Y be merciful to thee? Thi sones han forsake me, and sweren bi hem that ben not goddis. Y fillide hem, and thei diden auowtrie, and in the hous of an hoore thei diden letcherie. 8 Thei ben maad horsis, and stalouns, louyeris to wymmen; ech man neiyede to the wijf of his neiybore. 9 Whether Y schal not visite on these thingis, seith the Lord, and schal not my soule take veniaunce in siche a folk? 10 Stye ye on the wallis therof, and distrie ye; but nyle ye make an endyng. Do ye awei the siouns therof, for thei ben not seruautis of the Lord. 11 For whi the hous of Israel and the hous of Juda hath trespassid bi trespassyng ayens me, seith the Lord; 12 thei denyeden the Lord, and seiden, He is not, nether yuel schal come on vs; we schulen not se swerd and hungur. 13 The profetis spaken ayens the wynd, and noon answer was in hem; therfor these thingis schulen come to hem.

14 The Lord God of oostis seith these thingis, For ye spaken this word, lo! Y yyue my wordis in thi mouth in to fier, and this puple in to trees, and it schal deuoure hem. 15 Lo! thou hous of Israel, seith the Lord, Y schal brynge on you a folk fro fer; a strong folk, an eeld folk, `a folk whos langage thou schalt not knowe, nether schalt vndurstonde what it spekith. 16 The arowe caas therof is as an opyn sepulcre; alle ben stronge men. 17 And it schal ete thi cornes, and it schal deuoure thi breed, thi sones and thi douytris; it schal ete thi flok, and thi droues, it schal ete also thi vyner, and thi fige tre; and it schal al to-breke thi stronge citees bi swerd, in whiche thou hast trist. 18 Netheles in tho daies, seith the Lord, Y schal not make you in to endyng. 19 That if ye seien, Whi hath oure Lord God do alle these thingis to vs? thou schalt seie to hem, As ye forsoken me, and serueden an alien god in youre lond, so ye schulen serue alien goddis in a lond not youre.

20 Telle ye this to the hous of Jacob, and make ye herd in Juda, and seie ye, 21 Here, thou fonned puple, that hast noon herte; whiche han iyen, and seen not, and eeris, and heren not. 22 Therfor schulen not ye drede me, seith the Lord, and schulen not ye make sorewe for my face? Whiche haue set grauel a terme, ether ende, to the see, an euerlastyng comaundement, whiche it schal not passe; and the wawis therof schulen be mouyd, and schulen not haue power; and schulen wexe greet, and schulen not passe it. 23 Forsothe an herte vnbileueful and terryng to wraththe is maad to this puple; thei departiden, 24 and yeden awei, and thei seiden not in her herte, Drede we oure Lord God, that yiueh to vs reyn tymeful, and lateful in his tyme; that kepith to vs the plente of heruest of the year. 25 Youre wickidnessis diden awei these thingis, and youre synnes forbediden good fro you. 26 For ther ben foundun in my puple wickid men, settyng tresoun, as fouleres settyng snaris and trappis, to take men. 27 As a net, ether a trap, ful of briddis, so the housis of hem ben ful of gile. Therfor thei ben magnified, 28 and maad riche, maad fat with ynne, and maad fat with outforth, and thei passiden worst my wordis; thei demyden not a cause of a widewe, thei dressiden not the cause of a fadirles child, and thei demyden not the doom of pore men. 29 Whether Y schal not visite on these thingis, seith the Lord, ether schal not my soule take veniaunce on sich a folk? 30 Wondur and merueilouse thingis ben maad in the lond; 31 profetis profesieden leesyng, and prestis ioieden with her hondis, and my puple louyde sicke thingis. What therfor schal be don in the laste thing therof?

6 Sones of Beniamyn, be ye coumfortid in the myddil of Jerusalem, and make ye noise with a clarioun in Thecua, and reise ye a baner on Bethecarem; for whi yuel and greet sorewe is seyn fro the north. 2 Y haue ligned the douytir of Sion to a fair womman and delicat. 3 Scheepherdis and her flockis schulen come to it; thei han piyt tentis in it in cumpas; ech man schal feede hem, that ben vndur his hond. 4 Halewe ye batel on it. Rise ye togidire, and stie we in myddai. Wo to vs, for the dai is bowid down, for shadewis ben maad lengere in the euentid. 5 Rise ye, and stie we in the niyt, and distry we the housis therof. 6 For the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Kitte ye down the tre therof, and schede ye erthe aboute Jerusalem; this is the citee of visitacioun; al fals caleng is in the myddis therof. 7 As a cisterne makith his water coold, so it made his malice coold; wickidnesse and distriyng schal euer be herd ther ynne bfore me, sikenesse and wounde. 8 Jerusalem, be thou tauyt, lest perauenture my soule go awey fro thee; lest perauenture Y sette thee forsakun, a loond vnhabitable. 9 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Thei schulen gadere til to a racyn, thei schulen gadere the remenauntis of Israel as in a vyner; turne thin hond, as a gaderer of grapis to the bascat. 10 To whom schal Y speke, and to whom schal Y seie witnessing, that he here? Lo! the eeris of hem ben vncircumcidid, and thei moun not here; lo! the word of the Lord is maad to hem in to dispit, and thei schulen not resseiuue it. 11 Therfor Y am ful of the strong veniaunce of the Lord, and Y trauelide suffrynge. Schede thou out on a litil child with outforth, and on the counsel of yonge men togidere; for a man with his wijf schal be takun, and an eeld man with him that is ful of daies. 12 And the housis of hem, the feeldis and wyues togidere, schulen go to othere men; for Y schal stretche forth myn hond on the dwelleris of the lond, seith the Lord. 13 For fro the lesse `til to the grettere, alle studien to auerise; and alle doon gile, fro the profete `til to the preest. 14 And thei heeliden the sorewe of the douyter of my puple with yuel fame, seiynge, Pees, pees, and no pees was. 15 Thei ben schent, that diden abhomynacioun; yhe, rathere thei weren not schent bi confusioun, and thei kouden not be aschamed. Wherfor thei schulen falle doun among hem that schulen falle doun; thei schulen falle doun in the tyme of her visitacioun, seith the Lord. 16 The Lord seith these thingis, Stonde ye on weies, and se ye, and axe ye of elde pathis, which is the good weie; and go ye ther ynne, and ye schulen fynde refreischyng to youre soulis. And thei seiden, We schulen not go. 17 And Y ordeynede aspieris on you, and Y seide, Here ye the vois of a trumpe. And thei seiden, We schulen not here. 18 Therfor, hethene men, here ye, and, thou congregacioun, knowe, hou grete thingis Y schal do to hem. 19 Thou erthe, here, lo! Y schal brynge yuels on this puple, the fruit of her thouytis; for thei herden not my wordis, and castiden awei my lawe. 20 Wherto bryngen ye to me encense fro Saba, and a tre of spicerie smellynge swetli fro a fer lond? Youre brent sacrifices ben not acceptid, and youre slayn sacrifices plesiden not me. 21 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo!

 Y schal yyue fallyngis in to this puple, and fadris and sones togidere, a neybore and kynesman, schulen falle in hem, and schulen perische. 22 The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! a puple cometh fro the lond of the north, and a greet folk schal rise togidere fro the endis of erthe. 23 It schal take an arowe and scheld; it is cruel, and schal not haue merci; the vois therof schal sowne as the see, and thei maad redi as a man to batel schulen stie on horsis ayens thee, thou douyter of Sion. 24 We herden the fame therof, oure hondis ben `a clumsid; tribulacioun hath take vs, sorewis han take vs as a womman trauelinge of child.
25 Nyle ye go out to the feeldis, and go ye not in the weie, for the swerd of the enemye, drede in cumpas. 26 The douytir of my puple, be thou gird with heire, and be thou spreynt togidere with aische; make to thee mourenyng of oon aloone gendrid sone, a bitter weilyng, for whi a wastere schal come sodenli on you. 27 I yaf thee a strong preuere in my puple, and thou schalt knowe, and preue the weie of hem. 28 Alle these princis bowynge awei, goynge gilefuli, ben metal and irun; alle ben corrupt. 29 The belu failide, leed is waastid in the fier, the wellere wellide in veyn; for the malices of hem ben not wastid. 30 Clepe ye hem repreuable siluer, for the Lord hath cast hem awei.

7 The word that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, 2 and seide, Stonde thou in the yate of the hous of the Lord, and preche there this word, and seie, Al Juda, that entren bi these yatis for to worschipe the Lord, here ye the word of the Lord. 3 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Make ye good youre weies, and youre studies, and Y schal dwelle with you in this place. 4 Nyle ye triste in the wordis of leesyng, and seie, The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord is. 5 For if ye blessen youre weies, and your studies; if ye doon doom bitwixe a man and his neiybore; 6 if ye maken not fals caleng to a comelyng, and to a fadirles child, and to a widewe; nether scheden out innocent blood in this place, and goen not after alien goddis, in to yuel to you silf, 7 Y schal dwelle with you in this place, in the lond which Y yaf to youre fadris, fro the world and til in to the world. 8 Lo! ye trusten to you in the wordis of leesyng, that shulen not profite to you; 9 to stele, to sle, to do auowtrie, to swere falsli, to make sacrifice to Baalym, and to go aftir alien goddys, whiche ye knowen not. 10 And ye camen, and stoden bifor me in this hous, in which my name is clepid to help; and ye seiden, We ben delyuered, for we han do alle these abhomynaciouns. 11 Whether therfor this hous, wherynne my name is clepid to help bifore youre iyen, is maad a denne of theues? I, Y am, Y siy, seith the Lord. 12 Go ye to my place in Silo, where my name dwellide at the bigynnyng, and se ye what thingis Y dide to it, for the malice of my puple Israel. 13 And now, for ye han do alle these werkis, seith the Lord, and Y spak to you, and roos eerli, and Y spak, and ye herden not, and Y clepide you, and ye answeriden not; 14 Y schal do to this hous, wherynne my name is clepid to help, and in which hous ye han trist, and to the place which Y yaf to you and to youre fadris, as Y dide to Silo. 15 And Y schal caste you forth fro my face, as Y castide forth alle youre britheren, al the seed of Effraym. 16 Therfor nyl thou preie for this puple, nether take thou heriyng and preier for hem; and ayenstonde thou not me, for Y schal not here thee. 17 Whether thou seest not, what these men don in the citees of Juda, and in the stretis of Jerusalem? 18 The sones gaderen stickis, and the fadris kyndlen a fier; and wymmen sprengen togidere ynnere fatnesse, to make kakis to the queen of heuene, to make sacrifice to alien goddis, and to terre me to wrathfulnesse. 19 Whether thei stiren me to wrathfulnesse? seith the Lord; whether thei stiren not hem silf in to schenschip of her cheer? 20 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! my strong veniaunce and myn indignacioun is wellid togidere on this place, on men, and on beestis, and on the tree of the cuntrei, and on the fruitis of erthe; and it schal be kyndlid, and it schal not be quenchild. 21 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Heepe ye youre brent sacrifices to youre slayn sacrifices, and ete ye fleischis. 22 For Y spak not with youre fadris, and Y comaundide not to hem of the word of brent sacrifices, and of slayn sacrifices, in the dai in which Y ledde hem out of the lond of Egipt. 23 But Y comaundide this word to hem, and Y seide, Here ye my vois, and Y schal be God to you, and ye schulen be a puple to me; and go ye in al the weie which Y comaundide to you, that it be wel to you. 24 And thei herden not, nether bowiden down her eere, but thei yeden in her lustis, and in the schrewidnesse of her yuel herte; and thei ben put bihynde, and not bfore, 25 fro the dai in which her fadris yeden out of the lond of Egipt til to this dai. And Y sente to you alle my seruautis profetis, and Y roos eerli bi the dai, and Y sente. 26 And thei herden not me, nether bowiden down her eere; but thei maden hard her nol, and wrouyten worse than the fadris of hem. 27 And thou schalt speke to hem alle these wordis, and thei schulen not heere thee; and thou schalt clepe hem, and thei schul not answeere to thee. 28 And thou schalt seie to hem, This is the folc, that herde not the vois of her Lord God, nether resseyuede chastysyng; feith perischide, and is takun awei fro the mouth of hem. 29 Clippe thin heer, and cast awei, and take thou weilyng streiytli; for the Lord hath cast awei, and hath forsake the generacioun of his strong veniaunce. 30 For the sones of Juda han do yuel bifer myn iyen, seith the Lord; thei han set her offendyngis in the hous, in which my name is clepid to help, that thei schulden defoule that hous; 31 and thei bildiden hiye thingis in Tophet, which is in the valei of the sone of Ennon, that thei schulden brenne her sones and her douytris bi fier, whiche thingis Y comaundide not, nether thouyte in myn herte. 32 Therfor lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and it schal no more be seid Tophet, and the valei of the sone of Ennon, but the valey of sleyng; and thei schulen birie in Tophet, for ther is no place. 33 And the deed careyn of this puple schal be in to mete to the briddis of heuene, and to the beestis of erthe; and noon schal be that schal dryue awei. 34 And Y schal make to ceesse the vois of ioye, and the vois of gladnesse, and the vois of spouse, and the vois of spousesse fro the citees of Juda, and fro the stretis of Jerusalem; for the lond schal be in desolacioun.

 left of this worst kynrede, in alle places that ben left, to whiche places Y castide hem out, seith the Lord of oostis. 4 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord seith these thingis, Whether he that schal falle, schal not rise ayen? and whether he that is turned awei, schal not turne ayen? 5 Whi therfor is this puple in Jerusalem turned awei bi turnyng awei ful of strijf? Thei han take leesyng, and nolden turne ayen. 6 Y perseyuede, and herknede; no man spekith that that is good, noon is that doith penaunce for his synne, and seith, What haue Y do? Alle ben turnede togidere to her cours, as an hors goynge bi fersnesse to batel. 7 A kite in the eir knew his tyme; a turtle, and a swalewe, and a siconye, kepten the tyme of her comyng; but my puple knew not the doom of the Lord. 8 Hou seien ye, We ben wise men, and the lawe of the Lord is with vs? Verili the fals wrytyng of scribis wrouyte leesyng. 9 Wise men ben schent, ben maad aferd and takun.
 For thei castiden awei the word of the Lord, and no wisdom is in hem. 10 Therfor Y schal yyue the wymmen of hem to straungeris, and the feeldis of hem to alien eiris; for fro the leeste `til to the mooste alle suen aueryce, fro a profete `til to the preest alle maken leesyng; 11 and thei heeliden the sorowe of the douytir of my puple to schenschiipe, seiynge, Pees, pees, whanne no pees was. 12 Thei ben schent, for thei diden abhomynacioun; yhe, rather thei weren not schent bi schenschiipe, and kouden not be aschamed. Therfor thei schulen falle among falleris, in the tyme of her visitacioun thei schulen falle, seith the Lord. 13 I gaderynge schal gadere hem, seith the Lord; no grape is in the vynes, and figis ben not in the fige tre; a leef felle down, and Y yaf to hem tho thingis that ben go out ouer. 14 Whi sitten

we? come ye togidere, entre we in to a strong citee, and be we stille there; for oure Lord hath maad vs to be stille, and yaf to vs drynk the watir of galle; for we han synned to the Lord. 15 We abididen pees, and no good was; we abididen tyme of medicyn, and lo! drede is. 16 Gnastyng of horsis therof is herd fro Dan; al the lond is moued of the vois of neiyngis of hise werriours; and thei camen, and deuouriden the lond, and the plente therof, the citee, and the dwelleris therof. 17 For lo! Y schal sende to you the werste serpentis, to whiche is no charmyng; and thei schulen bite you, seith the Lord. 18 My sorewe is on sorewe, myn herte is mourenynge in me. 19 And lo! the vois of cry of the douyter of my puple cometh fro a fer lond. Whether the Lord is not in Sion, ethir the kyng therof is not therynne? Whi therfor stiriden thei me to wrathfulnesse bi her grauun ymagis, and bi alien vanytees? 20 Heruest is passid, somer is endid; and we ben not sauyd. 21 Y am turmentid, and sori on the sorewe of the douyter of my puple; astonyng helde me. 22 Whether resyn is not in Galaad, ether a leche is not there? Whi therfor the wounde of the douytir of my puple is not heelid perfitli?

9 Who schal yyue watir to myn heed, and a welle of teeris to myn iyen? And Y schal biwepe dai and niyt the slayn men of the douyter of my puple. 2 Who schal yyue me in to a wildirnesse of dyuerse weigoeris? And I schal forsake my puple, and Y schal go awei fro hem. For whi alle ben auowteris, and the cumpenyes of trespassouris ayens the lawe; 3 and thei helden forth her tunge as a bouwe of leesyng, and not of treuthe Thei ben coumfortid in erthe, for thei yeden out fro yuel to yuel, and thei knewen not me, seith the Lord. 4 Ech man kepe hym fro his neiybore, and haue no trist in ony brother of hym; for whi ech brother disseyuyng schal disseyue, and ech frend schal go gilefuli. 5 And a man schal scorne his brother, and schal not speke treuthe; for thei tauyten her tunge to speke leesyng; thei traeliden to do wickidli. 6 Thi dwellyng is in the myddis of gile; in gile thei forsoken to knowe me, seith the Lord. 7 Therfor the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal welle togidere, and Y schal preue hem; for whi what other thing schal Y do fro the face of the douyter of my puple? 8 The tunge of hem is an arowe woundyng, and spak gile; in his mouth he spekith pees with his frend, and priueli he settith tresouns to hym. 9 Whether Y schal not visite on these thingis, seith the Lord, ether schal not my soule take veniaunce on siche a folc? 10 On hillis Y schal take wepyng and mournyng, and weilyng on the faire thingis of desert, for tho ben brent; for no man is passyng forth, and thei herden not the vois of hym that weldith; fro a brid of the eir `til to scheep, tho passiden ouer, and yeden awei. 11 And Y schal yyue Jerusalem in to heepis of grauel, and in to dennes of dragouns; and Y schal yyue the citees of Juda in to desolacioun, for ther is no dwellere. 12 Who is a wise man that schal vndurstonde these thingis, and to whom the word of the mouth of the Lord schal be maad, that he telle this? Whi the erthe perischide, it is brent as desert, for noon is that passith?

13 And the Lord seide, For thei forsoken my lawe, which Y yaf to hem, and thei herden not my vois, and thei yeden not therynne; 14 and thei yeden afir the schrewidnesse of her herte, and afir Baalym, which thei lerneden of her fadris; 15 therfor the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal fede this puple with wermod, and Y schal yyue to hem drynke the watir of galle. 16 And Y schal scatere hem among hethene men, whiche thei and her fadris knewen not; and Y schal sende swerd aftir hem, til thei ben wastid. 17 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Biholde ye, and clepe ye wymmen `that weilen, and come thei; and sende ye to tho wymmen that ben wise, and haste thei. 18 Haste thei, and take thei weilynge on you; youre iyen brynge doun teeris, and youre iyelidis flowe with watris; 19 for the vois of weilyng is herd fro Sion. Hou ben we distried, and schent greetli? for we han forsake the lond, for oure tabernaclis ben forsakun. 20 Therfor, wymmen, here ye the word of the Lord, and youre eeris take the word of his mouth; and teche ye youre douytris weilyng, and ech womman teche hir neiybore mournyng. 21 For whi deth stiede bi youre wyndows, it entride in to youre housis, to leese litle children with outforth, and yonge men fro the stretis. 22 Speke thou, the Lord seith, these thingis, And the deed bodi of a man schal fal doun as a toord on the face of the cuntrei, and as hei bihynde the bak of the mowere, and noon is that gaderith. 23 The Lord seith these thingis, A wise man haue not glorie in his wisdom, and a strong man haue not glorie in his strengthe, and a riche man haue not glorie in hise richessis; but he that hath glorie, 24 haue glorie in this, to wite and knowe me, for Y am the Lord, that do merci and dom and riytfulnesse in erthe. For whi these thingis plesen me, seith the Lord. 25 Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal visite on ech man that hath prepucie vncircumcidid; on Egipt, 26 and on Juda, and on Edom, and on the sones of Amon, and on Moab, and on alle men that ben clippid on long heer, and dwellen in desert; for whi alle hethene men han prepucie, forsothe al the hous of Israel ben vncircumcidid in herte.

10 The hous of Israel, here ye the word which the Lord spak on you. 2 The Lord seith these thingis, Nyle ye lerne aftir the weies of hethene men, and nyle ye drede of the signes of heuene, whiche signes hethene men dreden. 3 For the lawis of puplis ben veyn, for whi the werk of hondis of a crafti man hath kit doun with an axe a tre of the forest. 4 He made it fair with siluer and gold; with naylis and hameris he ioynede it togidere, that it be not loosid. 5 Idols ben maad in the licsesse of a palm tree, and schulen not speke; tho schulen be takun and be borun, for tho moun not go; therfor nyle ye drede tho, for tho moun nether do yuel, nethir wel. 6 Lord, noon is lijk thee; thou art greet, and thi name is greet in strengthe. 7 A! thou king of folkis, who schal not drede thee? for whi onour is thin among alle wise men of hethene men, and in alle the rewmes of hem noon is lijk thee. 8 Thei schulen be preued, vnwise and foolis togidere; the techyng of her vanyte is a tre. 9 Siluer wlappid is brouyt fro Tharsis, and gold fro Ophaz; it is the werk of a crafti man, and of the hond of a worchere in metel; iacynct and purpur ben the clothing of tho; alle these thingis ben the werk of werk men. 10 Forsothe the Lord is veri God; he is God lyuyng, and a kyng euerlastyng; the erthe schal be mouyd togidere of his indignacioun, and hethene men schulen not suffre the manaassing of hym. 11 Therfor thus ye schulen seie to hem, Goddis that maden not heuene and erthe, perische fro erthe, and fro these thingis that ben vndur heuene. 12 He is God, that makith the erthe in his strengthe, makith redi the world in his wisdom, and stretchith forth heuenes bi his prudence. 13 At his vois he yyueth the multitude of watris in heuene, and he reisith mystis fro the endis of erthe; he makith leitis into reyn, and ledith out wynd of his tresouris. 14 Ech man is maad a fool of kunnyng, ech crafti man is schent in a grauun ymage; for whi that that he wellide togidere is fals, and no spirit is in tho. 15 Tho ben veyn, and a werk worthi of scorn; tho schulen perische in the tyme of her visitacioun.

16 The part of Jacob is not lijk these, for he that formede alle thingis is God of Jacob, and Israel is the yerde of his eritage; the Lord of oostis is name to hym. 17 Thou that dwellist in bisegying, gadere fro the lond thi schenschiipe; 18 for the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal caste awei fer the dwelleris of the loond in this while; and Y schal yyue tribulacioun to hem, so that thei be not foundun. 19 Wo to me on my sorewe, my wounde is ful yuel; forsothe Y seide, Pleykli this is my sikenesse, and Y schal bere it. 20 My tabernacle is distried, alle my roopis ben brokun; my sonnes yeden out fro me, and ben not; noon is that schal stretche forth more my tente, and schal reyse my skynnes. 21 For the scheepherdis diden folili, and souyten not the Lord; therfor thei vndurstoden not, and alle the flok of hem is scaterid. 22 Lo! the vois of hering cometh, and a greet mouynge togidere fro the lond of the north, that it sette the citees of Juda in to wildirnesse, and a dwellynge place of dragouns. 23 Lord, Y woot, that the weie of a man is not of hym, nether it is of a man that he go, and dresse hise steppis. 24 Lord, chastise thou me; netheles in doom and not in thi strong veniaunce, lest perauenture thou dryue me to nouyt. 25 Schede out thin indignacioun on hethene men that knewen not thee, and on prouynces that clepiden not thi name to help; for thei eeten Jacob, and deuouriden hym, and wastiden hym, and destrieden the onour of hym.

11 The word that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, 2 and seide, Here ye the wordis of this couenaunt, and speke ye to the men of Juda, and to the dwelleris of Jerusalem; and thou schalt seie to hem, 3 The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, Cursid be the man that herith not the wordis of this couenaunt, 4 which Y comaundide to youre fadris, in the dai in which Y ledde hem out of the lond of Egipt, fro the irone furneis; and Y seide, Here ye my vois, and do ye alle thingis whiche Y comaundide to you, and ye schulen be in to a puple to me, and Y schal be in to God to you; 5 that Y reise the ooth which Y swoor to youre fadris, that Y schulde yyue to hem a lond flowynge with mylk and hony, as this dai is. And Y answeride, and seide, Amen, Lord. 6 And the Lord seide to me, Crye thou alle these wordis in the citees of Juda, and with out Jerusalem, and seie thou, Here ye the wordis of this couenaunt, and do ye tho; 7 for Y witnessynge haue witnessid to youre fadris, in the dai in which Y ledde hem out of the lond of Egipt, `til to this dai; Y roos eerli, and witnesside, and seide, Here ye my vois. 8 And thei herden not, nether bowiden down her eere, but thei yeden forth ech man in the schrewidnesse of his yuel herte; and Y brouyte in on hem alle the wordis of this couenaunt, which Y comaundide that thei schulden do, and thei diden not. 9 And the Lord seide to me, Sweryng togidere is foundun in the men of Juda, and in the dwelleris of Jerusalem; 10 thei turneden ayen to the formere wickidnessis of her fadris, that nolden here my wordis; and therfor these men yeden aftir alien goddis, for to serue hem; the hous of Israel and the hous of Juda maden voide my couenaunt, which Y made with the fadris of hem. 11 Wherfor the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bringe in on hem yuels, of whiche thei schulen not mow go out; and thei schulen crie to me, and Y schal not here hem. 12 And the citees of Juda and the dwellers of Jerusalem schulen go, and schulen crye to hem, to whiche thei offren sacrifices; and thei schulen not saue hem in the tyme of her turment. 13 For thou, Juda, thi goddis weren bi the noumbre of thi citees, and thou settidist auters of schenschiþe, bi the noumbre of the weies of Jerusalem, auters to offre sacrifices to Baalym. 14 Therfor nyle thou preie for this puple, and take thou not heriyng and preier for hem; for Y schal not here in the tyme of the cry of hem to me, in the tyme of the turment of hem. 15 What is it, that my derlyng doith many greet trespassis in myn hous? whether hooli fleischis schulen do awei fro thee thi malice, in which thou hast glorie? 16 The Lord clepide thi name an olyue tre, fair, ful of fruyt, schapli; at the vois of a greet speche fier brent an hiy ther ynne, and the buyschis therof ben brent. 17 And the Lord of oostis that plauntide thee, spak yuel on thee, for the yuels of the hous of Israel, and of the hous of Juda, whiche thei diden to hem silf, and offriden to Baalym, to terre me to wraththe. 18 Forsothe, Lord, thou schewidist to me, and Y knew; thou schewidist to me the studies of hem. 19 And Y am as a mylde lomb, which is borun to slayn sacrifice; and Y knew not, that thei thouyten counsels on me, and seiden, Sende we a tre in to the brede of hym, and rase we hym awei fro the lond of lyueris, and his name be no more hadde in mynde. 20 But thou, Lord of oostis, that demest iustli, and preuest reynes and hertis, se Y thi veniaunce of hem; for to thee Y schewide my cause. 21 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis to the men of Anathot, that seken thi lijf, and seien, Thou schalt not prophesie in the name of the Lord, and thou schalt not die in oure hondis. 22 Therfor the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal visite on hem; the yonge men of hem schulen die bi swerd, the sones of hem and the douytris of hem schulen die for hungur; 23 and no relifs, ether children abidyng, schulen be of hem; for Y schal bringe ynne yuel on the men of Anathot, the yeer of the visitacioun of hem.

12 Forsothe, Lord, thou art iust; if Y dispute with thee, netheles Y schal speke iust thingis to thee. Whi hath the weie of wickid men prosperite? It is wel to alle men that breken the lawe, and doen wickidli? 2 Thou hast plauntid hem, and thei senten roote; thei encreessen, and maken fruyt; thou art niy to the mouth of hem, and fer fro the reynes of hem. 3 And thou, Lord, hast knowe me, thou hast seyn me, and hast preued myn herte with thee. Gadere thou hem togidere as a flok to slayn sacrifice, and halewe thou hem in the dai of sleyng. 4 Hou long schal the erthe mourne, and ech eerbe of the feeld schal be dried, for the malice of hem that dwellen ther ynne? A beeste is wastid, and a brid, for thei seiden, The Lord schal not se oure laste thingis. 5 If thou trauelist rennyng with foot men, hou schalt thou mow stryue with horsis? but whanne thou art sikur in the lond of pees, what schalt thou do in the pride of Jordan? 6 For whi bothe thi britheren and the hous of thi fadir, yhe, thei fouyten ayens thee, and crieden with ful vois afir thee; bileue thou not to hem, whanne thei speken goodis to thee. 7 I haue left myn hous, Y haue forsake myn eritage; Y yaf my loued soule in to the hondis of enemyes therof. 8 Myn eritage is maad as a lioun in the wode to me; it yaf vois ayens me, therfor Y hate it. 9 Whether myn eritage is a brid of dyuerse colours to me? whether it is a brid died thorou out? Alle beestis of the feeld, come ye, be ye gaderid togidere; haste ye for to deuoure. 10 Many scheepherdis distrieden my vyner, defouliden my part, yauen my desirable porcioun in to desert of wildirnesse; 11 thei settiden it in to scaterieng, and it mourenyde on me; al the lond is desolat bi desolacioun, for noon is that ayenthenkith in herte. 12 Alle distrieris of the lond camen on alle the weies of desert, for the swerd of the Lord schal deuoure fro the laste part of the lond `til to the laste part therof; no pees is to al fleisch. 13 Thei sowiden wheete, and repiden thornes; thei token erytage, and it schal not profite to hem. Ye schulen be schent of youre fruytis, for the wraththe of the stronge veniaunce of the Lord. 14 The Lord seith these thingis ayens alle my worst neiyboris, that touchen the eritage which Y departide to my puple Israel, Lo! Y schal drawe hem out of her lond, and Y schal drawe the hous of Juda out of the myddis of hem. 15 And whanne Y schal drawe out thilke Jewis, Y schal conuerte, and haue merci on hem; and Y schal lede hem ayen, a man to his eritage, and a man in to his lond. 16 And it schal be, if thei `that ben tauyt lernen the weies of my puple, that thei swere in my name, The Lord lyueth, as thei tauyten my puple to swere in Baal, thei schulen be bildid in the myddis of my puple. 17 That if thei heren not, Y schal drawe out that folk by drawyng out and perdicoun, seith the Lord.

13 The Lord seith these thingis to me, Go, and take in possessioun to thee a lynnun breigirdil; and thou schalt putte it on thi leendis, and thou schalt not bere it in to watir. 2 And Y took in possessioun a breigirdil, bi the word of the Lord; and Y puttide aboute my leendis. 3 And the word of the Lord was maad to me in the secunde tyme, 4 and seide, Take the brigirdil, which thou haddist in possessioun, which is aboute thi leendis; and rise thou, and go to Eufrates, and hide thou it there, in the hoole of a stoon. 5 And Y yede, and hidde it in Eufrates, as the Lord comaundide to me. 6 And it was don aftir ful many daies, the Lord seide to me, Rise thou, and go to Eufates, and take fro thennus the brigirdil, whiche Y comaundide to thee, that thou schuldist hide it there. 7 And Y yede to Eufates, and diggide out, and Y took the breigirdil fro the place, where Y hadde hidde it; and lo! the breigirdil was rotun, so that it was not able to ony vss. 8 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 9 and seide, The Lord seith these thingis, So Y schal make rotun the pride of Juda, and the myche pride of Jerusalem, 10 and this worste puple, that nylen here my wordis, and goen in the schrewidnesse of her herte; and thei yeden aftir alien goddis, to serue hem, and to worschipe hem; and thei schulen be as this breigirdil, which is not able to ony vss. 11 For as a breigirdil cleueth to the leendis of a man, so Y ioynede faste to me al the hous of Israel, and al the hous of Juda, seith the Lord, that thei schulden be to me in to a puple, and in to name, and in to heriyng, and in to glorie; and thei herden not. 12 Therfor thou schalt seie to hem this word, The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, Ech potel schal be fillid of wyn. And thei schulen seie to thee, Whether we witen not, that ech potel schal be fillid of wyn? 13 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y shal fille with drunkenesse alle the dwelleris of this lond, and the kyngis of the generacioun of Dauith, that sitten on his trone, and the prestis, and profetis, and alle the dwelleris of Jerusalem. 14 And Y schal scatere hem, a man fro his brother, and the fadris and sones togidere, seith the Lord; Y schal not spare, and Y schal not graunte, nether Y schal do mercy, that I leese not hem. 15 Here ye, and perseyue with eeris; nyle ye be reysid, for the Lord spak.

16 Yyue ye glorie to youre Lord God, bfore that it wexe derk, and bifor that youre feet hirte at derk hillis; ye schulen abide liyt, and he schal sette it in to the schadewe of deeth, and in to derknesse. 17 That if ye heren not this, my soule schal wepe in hid place for the face of pride; it wepyng schal wepe, and myn iye shal caste out a teer, for the floc of the Lord is takun. 18 Seye thou to the kyng, and to the ladi, Be ye mekid, sitte ye, for the coroun of youre glorie schal go doun fro youre heed. 19 The cities of the south ben closid, and noon is that openith; al Juda is translatid bi perfit passyng ouere, ether goynge out of her lond. 20 Reise ye youre iyen, and se ye, what men comen fro the north; where is the floc which is youun to thee, thi noble scheep? 21 What schalt thou seie, whanne he schal visite thee? for thou hast tauyt hem ayens thee, and thou hast tauyt ayens thin heed. Whether sorewis han not take thee, as a womman trauelynge of child? 22 That if thou seist in thin herte, Whi camen these thingis to me? for the multitude of thi wickidnesse thi schamefulere thingis ben schewid, thi feet ben defoulid. 23 If a man of Ethiopie mai chaunge his skyn, ether a pard mai chaunge hise dyuersitees, and ye moun do wel, whanne ye han lerned yuel. 24 And Y schal sowe hem abrood, as stobil which is rauyschid of the wynd in desert. 25 This is thi lot, and the part of thi mesure of me, seith the Lord; for thou foryetidist me, and tristidist in a leesyng. 26 Wherfor and Y made nakid thin hipis ayens thi face, and thi schenschi pe apperide, 27 thin auowtries, and thin neyyng, and the felonye of thi fornyacioun on litle hillis in the feeld; Y siy thin abhomynaciouns. Jerusalem, wo to thee, thou schalt not be clensid after me til yit.

doun, and ben maad derk in erthe, and the cry of Jerusalem stiede. 3 Grette men senten her lesse men to water; thei camen to drawe watir, and thei foundun no water, thei brouyten ayen her vessels voide; thei weren schent and turmentid, 4 and thei hiliden her heedis for distriyng of the lond, for reyn cam not in the lond. Erthe tilieris weren schent, thei hiliden her heedis. 5 For whi and an hynde caluyde in the feeld, and lefte her calues, for noon eerbe was; 6 and wield assis stoden in rochis, and drowen wynde as dragouns; her iyen failiden, for noon eerbe was. 7 If oure wickidnessis answeren to vs, Lord, do thou for thi name, for oure turnyngis awei ben manye; we han synned ayens thee. 8 Thou abidyng of Israel, the sauour therof in the tyme of tribulacioun, 9 whi schalt thou be as a comelyng in the lond, and as a weigoere bowynge to dwelle? whi schalt thou be as a man of vnstable dwellyng, as a strong man that mai not saue? Forsothe, Lord, thou art in vs, and thin hooli name is clepid to help on vs; forsake thou not vs. 10 The Lord seith these thingis to this puple, that louede to stire hise feet, and restide not, and pleside not the Lord; now he schal haue mynde on the wickidnesses of hem, and he schal visite the synnes of hem. 11 And the Lord seide to me, Nyle thou preie for this puple in to good. 12 Whanne thei schulen faste, Y schal not here the preieris of hem; and if thei offren brent sacrifices and slayn sacrifices, Y schal not resseyue tho, for Y schal waste hem bi swerd and hungur and pestilence. 13 And Y seide, A! A! A! Lord God, profetis seien to hem, Ye schulen not se swerd, and hungur schal not be in you, but he schal yyue to you veri pees in this place. 14 And the Lord seide to me, The profetis profesien falsli in my name; Y sente not hem, and Y comaundide not to hem, nether Y spak to hem; thei profesien to you a fals reuelacioun, and a gileful dyuynynge, and the disseyuyng of her herte. 15 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis of the profetis that profesien in my name, whiche Y sente not, and seien, Swerd and hungur schal not be in this lond; Tho profetis schulen be wastid bi swerd and hungur. 16 And the puplis, to whiche thei profesieden, schulen be cast forth in the weies of Jerusalem, for hungur and swerd, and noon schal be, that schal birie hem; they and the wyues of hem, the sones and the douytris of hem `schulen be cast forth; and Y schal schede out on hem her yuel. 17 And thou schalt sie to hem this word, Myn iyen lede doun a teer bi niyt and dai, and be not stille, for the virgyn, the douyter of my puple, is defoulid bi greet defoulyng, with the worste wounde greetli. 18 If Y go out to feeldis, lo! men ben slayn bi swerd; and if Y entre in to the citee, lo! men ben maad leene for hungur; also a profete and a prest yeden in to the lond which thei knewen not. 19 Whether thou castynge awei hast cast awei Juda, ether thi soule hath wlatid Sion? whi therfor hast thou smyte vs, so that noon heelte is? We abididen pees, and no good is; and we abididen time of heeling, and lo! disturbling is. 20 Lord, we han know oure vnfeithfulnessis, and the wickidnessis of oure fadris, for we han synned to thee. 21 Yyue thou not vs in to schenschip, for thi name, nether do thou dispite to vs; haue thou mynde on the seete of thi glorie, make thou not voide thi boond of pees with vs. 22 Whether in grauun ymagis of hethene men ben thei that reynen, ethir heuenes moun yyue reynes? whether thou art not oure Lord God, whom we abididen? For thou madist alle these thingis.

15 And the Lord seide to me, Thouy Moises and Samuel stoden bifore me, my soule is not to this puple; caste thou hem out fro my face, and go thei out. 2 That if thei seien to thee, Whidur schulen we go out? thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord seith these thingis, Thei that to deth, to deth, and thei that to swerd, to swerd, and thei that to hungur, to hungur, and thei that to caitiftee, to caitifte. 3 Y schal visite on hem foure spices, seith the Lord; a swerd to sleeynge, and doggis for to reende, and volatilis of the eir, and beestis of the erthe to deuoure and to distrie. 4 And Y schal yyue hem in to feruour to alle rewmes of erthe, for Manasses, the sone of Ezechie, king of Juda, on alle thingis whiche he dide in Jerusalem. 5 For whi who schal haue merci on thee, Jerusalem, ethir who schal be sori for thee, ether who schal go to preie for thi pees? 6 Thou hast forsake me, seith the Lord, thou hast go abac; and Y schal stretche forth myn hond on thee, and Y schal sle thee; Y trauelide preiyng. 7 And Y schal scatere hem with a wyndewynge instrument in the yatis of erthe; Y killide, and loste my puple, and netheles thei turneden not ayen fro her weies. 8 The widewis therof ben multiplied to me aboue the grauel of the see; and Y brouyte in to hem a distriere in myddai on the modir of a yonge man, Y sente drede sudeynli on citees. 9 Sche was sijk that childe seueene, hir soule failide; the sunne yede doun to hir, whanne dai was yit. Sche was schent, and was aschamed; and Y schal yyue the residue therof in to swerd in the siyt of her enemyes, seith the Lord. 10 Mi modir, wo to me; whi gendridist thou me a man of chidyng, a man of discord in al the lond? Y lente not, nether ony man lente to me; alle men cursen me, the Lord seith. 11 No man bileue to me, if thi remenauntis be not in to good, if Y ranne not to thee in the tyme of turment, and in the tyme of tribulacioun and of anguysch, ayens the enemye. 12 Whether yrun and metal schal be ioyned bi pees to irun fro the north?

13 And Y schal yyue freli thi ritchessis and thi tresouris in to rauyschyng, for alle thi synnes, and in alle thin endis. 14 And Y schal brynge thin enemyes fro the lond which thou knowist not; for fier is kyndlid in my strong veniaunce, and it schal brenne on you. 15 Lord, thou knowist, haue thou mynde on me, and visite me, and delyuere me fro hem that pursuen me; nyle thou take me in thi pacience, knowe thou, that Y suffride schenschiipe for thee. 16 Thi wordis ben foundun, and Y eet tho; and thi word was maad to me in to ioye, and in to gladnesse of myn herte; for thi name, Lord God of oostis, is clepid to help on me. 17 Y sat not in the counsel of pleieris, and Y hadde glorie for the face of thin hond; Y sat aloone, for thou fillidist me with bittirnesse. 18 Whi is my sorewe maad euerlastinge, and my wounde dispeirid forsook to be curid? it is maad to me, as a leesyng of vnfeithful watris. 19 For this thing the Lord seith these thingis, If thou turnest, Y schal turne thee, and thou schalt stonde bfore my face; and if thou departist preciouise thing fro vijl thing, thou schalt be as my mouth; thei schulen be turned to thee, and thou schalt not be turned to hem. 20 And Y schal yyue thee in to a brasun wal and strong to this puple, and thei schulen fiyte ayens thee, and schulen not haue the victorie; for Y am with thee, to saue thee, and to delyuere thee, seith the Lord. 21 And Y schal delyuere thee fro the hond of the worste men, and Y schal ayenbie thee fro the hond of stronge men.

16 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and seide, Thou schalt not take a wijf, and sones and douytris schulen not be to thee in this place. 3 For the Lord seith these thingis on sones and douytris, that ben gendrid in this place, and on the modris of hem, that gendride hem, and on the fadris of hem, of whos generacioun thei ben borun in this lond. 4 Thei schulen die bi dethis of sikenessis, thei schulen not be biweilid, and thei schulen not be biried; thei schulen be in to a dunghil on the face of erthe, and thei schulen be wastid bi swerd and hungur; and the careyn of hem schal be in to mete to the volatilis of heuene, and to beestis of erthe. 5 For the Lord seith these thingis, Entre thou not in to an hous of feeste, nethir go thou to biweile, nether comfourte thou hem; for Y haue take awei my pees fro this puple, seith the Lord, `Y haue take awei merci and merciful doyngis. 6 And greete and smalle schulen die in this lond; thei schulen not be biried, nethir schulen be biweilid; and thei schulen not kitte hem silf, nethir ballidnesse schal be maad for hem. 7 And thei schulen not breke breed among hem to hym that mourneth, to coumforte on a deed man, and thei schulen not yyue to hem drynk of a cuppe, to coumforte on her fadir and modir. 8 And thou schalt not entre in to the hous of feeste, that thou sitte with hem, and ete, and drynke. 9 For whi the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal take awei fro this place, bfore youre iyen and in youre daies, the vois of ioie, and the vois of gladnesse, and the vois of spouse, and the vois of spousesse. 10 And whanne thou schalt telle alle these wordis to this puple, and thei schulen seie to thee, Whi spak the Lord al this greet yuel on vs? what is oure wickidnesse, ether what is oure synne which we synneden to oure Lord God? 11 thou schalt seie to hem, For youre fadris forsoken me, seith the Lord, and yeden aftir alien goddis, and seruyden hem, and worschipiden hem, and thei forsoken me, and kepten not my lawe. 12 But also ye wrouyten worse than youre fadris; for lo! ech man goith aftir the schrewidnesse of his yuel herte, that he here not me. 13 And Y schal caste you out of this lond, in to the lond which ye and youre fadris knowen not; and ye schulen serue there to alien goddis dai and niyt, whiche schulen not yiue reste to you. 14 Therfor lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and it schal no more be seid, The Lord lyueth, that ledde the sones of Israel out of the lond of Egipt; 15 but the Lord lyueth, that ledde the sones of Israel fro the lond of the north, and fro alle londis to whiche Y castide hem out; and Y schal lede hem ayen in to her lond which Y yaf to the fadris of hem. 16 Lo! Y schal sende many fischeris to hem, seith the Lord, and thei schulen fische hem; and aftir these thingis Y schal sende many hunteris to hem, and thei schulen hunte hem fro ech mounteyn, and fro ech litil hil, and fro the caues of stoonys. 17 For myn iyen ben on alle the weies of hem; tho weies ben not hid fro my face, and the wickidnesse of hem was not priuy fro myn iyen. 18 And Y schal yelde first the double wickidnessis and synnes of hem, for thei defouliden my lond in the slayn beestis of her idols, and filliden myn eritage with her abhomynaciouns. 19 Lord, my strengthe, and my stalworthnesse, and my refuyt in the dai of tribulacioun, hethene men schulen come to thee fro the ferthest places of erthe, and schulen seie, Verili oure fadris helden a leesyng in possessioun, vanyte that profitide not to hem. 20 Whether a man schal make goddis to hym silf? and tho ben no goddis. 21 Therfor lo! Y schal schewe to hem bi this while, Y schal schewe to hem myn hond, and my vertu; and thei schulen wite, that the name to me is Lord.

17 The synne of Juda is writun with an irone poyntel, in a nail of adamaunt; it is writun on the breede of the herte of hem, and in the hornes of the auteris of hem. 2 Whanne the sones of hem bihtenken on her auteris, and woodis, and on the trees ful of boowis, makynge sacrifice in the feld in hiye munteyns, 3 Y schal yyue thi strengthe and alle thi tresouris in to rauyschyng, thin hiye thingis for synnes in alle thin endis. 4 And thou schalt be left aloone fro thin eritage which Y yaf to thee; and Y schal make thee to serue thin enemyes, in the lond which thou knowist not; for thou hast kyndlid fier in my strong veniaunce, it schal brenne til in to with outen ende. 5 The Lord seith these thingis, Cursid is the man that trestith in man, and settith fleisch his arm, and his herte goith awei fro the Lord. 6 For he schal be as bromes in desert, and he schal not se, whanne good schal come; but he schal dwelle in drynesse in desert, in the lond of saltnesse, and vnabitable. 7 Blessid is the man that tristith in the Lord, and the Lord schal be his trist. 8 And he schal be as a tre, which is plauntid ouer watris, which sendith hise rootis to moisture; and it schal not drede, whanne heete schal come; and the leef therof schal be greene, and it schal not be moued in the tyme of drynesse, nether ony tyme it schal faile to make fruyte. 9 The herte of man is schrewid, and `may not be souyt; who schal knowe it? 10 Y am the Lord sekyng the herte, and preuyng the reynes, and Y yyue to ech man after his weye, and aftir the fruyt of his fyndyngis. 11 A partriche nurschide tho thingis whiche sche bredde not; he made richessis, and not in doom; in the myddis of hise daies he schal forsake tho, and in hise laste tyme he schal be vnwijs. 12 The seete of glorie of hiynesse was at the bigynnyng the place of oure halewyng, the abidyng of Israel. 13 Lord, alle thei that forsaken thee, schulen be schent; thei that goen aweie fro thee, schulen be writun in erthe, for thei han forsake the Lord, a veyne of quyk watirs. 14 Lord, heele thou me, and Y schal be heelid; make thou me saaf, and Y schal be saaf; for thou art myn heriyng. 15 Lo! thei seien to me, Where is the word of the Lord? come it. 16 And Y am not disturblid, suyng thee scheepherd, and Y desiride not the dai of man, thou woost. That that yede out of my lippis was riytful in thi siyt. 17 Be thou not to drede to me; thou art myn hope in the dai of turment. 18 Be thei schent, that pursuen me, and be Y not schent; drede thei, and drede not Y; bryng in on hem a dai of turment, and defoule thou hem bi double defouling. 19 The Lord seith these thingis to me, Go thou, and stonde in the yate of the sonnes of the puple, bi whiche the kingis of Juda entren and goen out, and in alle the yatis of Jerusalem. 20 And thou schalt seie to hem, Here the word of the Lord, ye kingis of Juda, and al Judee, and alle the dwelleris of Jerusalem, that entren bi these yatis. 21

 The Lord God seith these thingis, Kepe ye youre soulis, and nyle ye bere birthuns in the dai of sabat, nether bringe in bi the yatis of Jerusalem. 22 And nyle ye caste birthuns out of youre housis in the dai of sabat, and ye schulen not do ony werk; halewe ye the dai of sabat, as Y comaundide to youre fadris. 23 And thei herden not, nether bowiden down her eere, but thei maden hard her nol, that thei schulden not here me, and that thei schulden not take chastisyng. 24 And it schal be, if ye heren me, seith the Lord, that ye bere not in birthuns bi the yatis of this citee in the dai of sabat, and if ye halewen the dai of sabat, that ye do not werk ther ynne, 25 kingis and princes sittynge on the seete of Dauid schulen entre bi the yatis of this citee, and styngne in charis and horsis; thei, and the princis of hem, the men of Juda, and the dwelleris of Jerusalem; and this citee schal be enhabitid withouten ende. 26 And thei schulen come fro the citees of Juda, and fro the cumpas of Jerusalem, and fro the lond of Beniamyn, and fro feeldi places, and fro hilli places, and fro the south, beringe brent sacrifice, and slayn sacrifice, and encense; and thei schulen bringe offering in to the hous of the Lord. 27 Forsothe if ye heren not me, that ye halewe the dai of sabat, and that ye bere not a birthun, and that ye bringe not in bi the yatis of Jerusalem in the dai of sabat, Y schal kyndle fier in the yatis therof; and it schal deuoure the housis of Jerusalem, and it schal not be quenched.

18 The word that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, 2 and seide, Rise thou, and go down in to the hous of a pottere, and there thou schalt here my wordis. 3 And Y yede down in to the hous of a pottere, and lo! he made a werk on a wheel. 4 And the vessel was distried, which he made of clei with hise hondis; and he turnede it, and made it another vessel, as it pleside in hise iyen to make. 5 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 6 and he seide, Whether as this pottere doith, Y mai not do to you, the hous of Israel? seith the Lord. Lo! as cley is in the hond of a pottere, so ye, the hous of Israel, ben in myn hond. 7 Sudenli Y schal speke ayens a folk, and ayens a rewme, that Y drawe out, and distrie, and leese it. 8 If thilke folk doith penaunce of his yuel, which Y spak ayens it, also Y schal do penaunce on the yuel, which Y thouyte to do to it. 9 And Y schal speke sudenli of a folk, and of a rewme, that Y bilde, and plaunte it. 10 If it doith yuel bfore myn iyen, that it here not my vois, Y schal do penaunce on the good which Y spak, that Y schulde do to it. 11 Now therfor seie thou to a man of Juda, and to the dwellere of Jerusalem, and seie, The Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y make yuel ayens you, and Y thenke a thouyte ayens you; ech man turne ayen fro his yuel weie, and dresse ye youre weies and youre studies. 12 Whiche seiden, We han dispeirid, for we schulen go after oure thouytis, and we schulen do ech man the schrewidnesse of his yuel herte. 13 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis, Axe ye hethene men, who herde siche orible thingis, whiche the virgyn of Israel hath do greetli? 14 Whether snow of the Liban schal fail fro the stoon of the feeld? ether coolde watris brekyng out, and fletyng doun moun be takun awei? 15 For my puple hath foryete me, and offriden sacrifices in veyn, and snaperiden in her weies, and in the pathis of the world, that thei yeden bi tho in a weie not trodun; 16 that the lond of hem schulde be in to desolacioun, and in to an hissyng euerlastinge; for whi ech that passith bi it, schal be astonyed, and schal moue his heed. 17 As a brennyng wynd Y schal scatere hem bifor the enemy; Y schal schewe to hem the bak and not the face, in the dai of the perdicoun of hem. 18 And thei seiden, Come ye, and thenke we thouytis ayens Jeremye; for whi the lawe schal not perische fro a preest, nether councel schal perische fro a wijs man, nether word schal perische fro a profete; come ye, and smyte we hym with tunge, and take we noon heede to alle the wordis of hym. 19 Lord, yyue thou tent to me, and here thou the vois of myn aduersaries. 20 Whether yuel is yoldun for good, for thei han diggid a pit to my soule; haue thou mynde, that Y stooode in thi siyt, to speke good for hem, and to turne awei thin indignacioun fro hem. 21 Therfor yyue thou the sones of hem in to hungur, and lede forth hem in to the hondis of swerd; the wyues of hem be maad with out children, and be maad widewis, and the hosebondis of hem be slayn bi deth; the yonge men of hem be persid togidere bi swerd in batel. 22 Cry be herd of the housis of hem, for thou schalt bringe sudenli a theef on hem; for thei diggiden a pit to take me, and hidden snaris to my feet. 23 But thou, Lord, knowist al the counsel of hem ayens me in to deth; do thou not merci to the wickidnesse of hem, and the synne of hem be not doon awei fro thi face; be thei maad fallynge doun in thi siyt, in the tyme of thi stronge veniaunce; vse thou hem to othir thing than thei weren ordeyned.

19 The Lord seith these thingis, Go thou, and take an erthene potel of a pottere, of the eldre men of the puple, and of the eldre men of preestis. 2 And go thou out to the valei of the sones of Ennon, which is bisidis the entring of the erthene yate; and there thou schalt preche the wordis whiche Y schal speke to thee; 3 and thou schalt seie, Kyngis of Juda, and the dwelleris of Jerusalem, here ye the word of the Lord. The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bringe in turment on this place, so that ech man that herith it, hise eeris tyngle. 4 For thei han forsake me, and maad alien this place, and offriden sacrifices to alien goddis ther ynne, whiche thei, and the fadris of hem, and the kingis of Juda, knewen not; and thei filliden this place with the blood of innocentis, 5 and bildiden hiy thingis to Baalym, to brenne her sonen in fier, in to brent sacrifice to Baalym; whiche thingis Y comaundide not, nether spak, nether tho stieden in to myn herte. 6 Therfor the Lord seith, Lo! daies comen, and this place schal no more be clepid Tophet, and the valei of the sone of Ennon, but the valei of sleyng. 7 And Y schal distrie the counsel of Juda and of Jerusalem in this place, and Y schal distrie hem bi swerd, in the siyt of her enemyes, and in the hond of men sekynge the lyues of hem; and Y schal yyue her deed bodies mete to the briddis of the eir, and to beestis of erthe. 8 And Y schal sette this citee in to wondring, and in to hissing; ech that passith bi it, schal wondre, and hisse on al the veniaunce therof. 9 And Y schal feede hem with the fleischis of her sones, and with the fleischis of her douytris; and ech man schal ete the fleischis of his frend in the bisegyng and angwisch, in which the enemyes of hem, and thei that seken the lyues of hem, schulen close hem togidere. 10 And thou schalt al to-breke the potel bfore the iyen of the men, that schulen go with thee. 11 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, So Y schal al to-breke this puple, and this citee, as the vessel of a pottere is al to-brokun, which mai no more be restorid; and thei schulen be biried in Tophet, for noon other place is to birie. 12 So Y schal do to this place, seith the Lord, and to dwelleris therof, that Y sette this citee as Tophet. 13 And the housis of Jerusalem, and the housis of the kingis of Juda, schulen be as the place of Tophet; alle the vncleene housis, in whose roouys thei sacrificeden to al the chyualrie of heuene, and offriden moist sacrifices to alien goddis. 14 Forsothe Jeremye cam fro Tophet, whidur the Lord hadde sente hym for to profesie; and he stood in the porche of the hous of the Lord, 15 and seide to al the puple, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bringe in on this citee, and on alle the citees therof, alle the yuelis whiche Y spak ayens it; for thei maden hard her nol, that thei herden not my wordis.

20 And Phassur, the sone of Emyner, the preest, that was ordeyned prince in the hous of the Lord, herde Jeremye profesiyng these wordis. 2 And Phassur smoot Jeremye, the profete, and sente hym in to the stockis, that weren in the hiyere yate of Beniamyn, in the hous of the Lord. 3 And whanne it was cleer in the morewe, Phassur ledde Jeremye out of the stockis. And Jeremye seide to hym, The Lord clepide not Phassur thi name, but Drede on ech side. 4 For the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal yyue thee and alle thi freendis in to drede, and thei schulen falle doun bi the swerd of her enemyes; and thin iyen schulen se; and Y schal yyue al Juda in the hond of the king of Babiloyne, and he schal lede hem ouer in to Babiloyne, and he schal smyte hem bi swerd. 5 And Y schal yyue al the catel of this citee, and al the trauel therof, and al the prijs; and Y schal yyue alle the tresours of the kingis of Juda in the hond of her enemyes; and thei schulen rauysche tho, and schulen take, and lede forth in to Babiloyne. 6 Forsothe thou, Phassur, and alle the dwelleris of thin hous, schulen go in to caitifte; and thou schalt come in to Babiloyne, and thou schalt die there; and thou schalt be biried there, thou and alle thi freendis, to whiche thou profesiedist a leesyng. 7 Lord, thou disseyuedist me, and Y am disseyued; thou were strongere than Y, and thou haddist the maistrie; Y am maad in to scorn al dai. 8 Alle men bymowen me, for now a while ago Y speke cryng wickidnesse, and Y criede distriynge. And the word of the Lord is maad to me in to schenschip, and in to scorn al dai. 9 And Y seide, Y schal not haue mynde on hym, and Y schal no more speke in his name. And the word of the Lord was maad, as fier swalyng in myn herte, and cloosid in my boonys; and Y failide, not suffryng to bere. 10 For Y herde dispisyngis of many men, and drede in cumpas, Pursue ye, and pursue we hym, of alle men that weren pesible to me, and kepyng my side; if in ony maner he be disseyued, and we haue the maistrie ayens hym, and gete veniaunce of hym. 11 Forsothe the Lord as a stronge werriour is with me, therfor thei that pursuen me schulen falle, and schulen be sijck; and thei schulen be schent greetli, for thei vndurstoden not euerlastyng schenschip, that schal neuere be don awei. 12 And thou, Lord of oostis, the preuere of a iust man, which seest the reynes and herte, Y biseche, se Y thi veniaunce of hem; for Y haue schewid my cause to thee. 13 Synge ye to the Lord, herie ye the Lord, for he delyueride the soule of a pore man fro the hond of yuel men. 14 Cursid be the dai where ynne Y was borun, the dai where ynne my modir childe me, be not blessid. 15 Cursid be the man, that telde to my fadir, and seide, A knaue child is borun to thee, and made hym glad as with ioye. 16 Tilke man be as the citees ben, whiche the Lord distriede, and it repentide not hym; 17 he that killide not me fro the wombe, here cry eerli, and yellynge in the tyme of myddai; that my modir were a sepulcre to me, and hir wombe were euerlastinge conseuyng. 18 Whi yede Y out of the wombe, that Y schulde se trauel and sorewe, and that mi daies schulen be waastid in schenschipe?

21 The word which was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, whanne king Sedechie sente to hym Phassur, the sone of Helchie, and Sofonye, the preest, the sone of Maasie, and seide, 2 Axe thou the Lord for vs, for Nabugodonosor, the kyng of Babiloyne, fiytith ayens vs; if in hap the Lord do with vs bi alle hise merueilis, and he go awei fro vs. 3 And Jeremye seide to hem, Thus ye schulen seie to Sedechie, 4 The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal turne the instrumentis of batel that ben in youre hondis, and with which ye fytten ayens the king of

Babiloyne, and ayens Caldeis, that bisegen you in the cumpas of wallis; and Y schal gadere tho togidere in the myddis of this citee. 5 And Y schal ouercome you in hond stretchid forth, and in strong arm, and in stronge veniaunce, and indignacioun, and in greet wraththe; 6 and Y schal smyte the dwelleris of this citee, men and beestis schulen die bi greet pestilence. 7 And after these thingis, seith the Lord, Y schal yyue Sedechie, kyng of Juda, and hise seruauntis, and his puple, and that ben left in this citee fro pestilence, and swerd, and hungur, in the hond of Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, and in the hond of her enemyes, and in the hond of men sekyng the lijf of hem; and he schal smyte hem bi the scharpnese of swerd; and he schal not be bowid, nether schal spare, nether schal haue mercy. 8 And thou schalt seie to this puple, The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y yyue bfore you the weie of lijf, and the weie of deth. 9 He that dwellith in this citee, schal die bi swerd, and hungur, and pestilence; but he that goith out, and fleeth ouer to Caldeis that bisegen you, schal lyue, and his lijf schal be as a prey to hym. 10 For Y haue set my face on this citee in to yuel, and not in to good, seith the Lord; it schal be youun in the hond of the king of Babiloyne, and he schal brenne it with fier. 11 And thou schalt seie to the hous of the king of Juda, the hous of Daud, Here ye the word of the Lord. 12 The Lord seith these thingis, Deme ye eerli doom, and delyuere ye hym that is oppressid bi violence fro the hond of the fals challenger; lest perauenture myn indignacioun go out as fier, and be kyndlid, and noon be that quenche, for the malice of youre studies. 13 Lo! Y to thee, dwelleresse of the sad valei and pleyn, seith the Lord, which seien, Who schal smyte vs, and who schal entre in to oure housis? 14 And Y schal visite on you bi the fruyt of youre studies, seith the Lord; and Y schal kyndle fier in the forest therof, and it schal deuoure alle thingis in the cumpas therof.

22 The Lord seith these thingis, Go thou down in to the hous of the kyng of Juda, and thou schalt speke there this word, and schalt seie, 2 Thou kyng of Juda, that sittist on the seete of Daud, here the word of the Lord, thou, and thi seruauntis, and thi puple, that entren bi these yatis. 3 The Lord seith these thingis, Do ye doom, and riytfulnesse, and delyuere ye hym that is oppressid bi violence fro the hond of the fals challenger; and nyle ye make sori, nether oppresse ye wickidli a comelyng, and a fadirles child, and a widewe, and schede ye not out innocent blood in this place. 4 For if ye doynge don this word, kyngis of the kyn of Daud sittynge on his trone schulen entre bi the yatis of this hous, and schulen stie on charis and horsis, thei, and the seruauntis, and the puple of hem. 5 That if ye heren not these wordis, Y swoore in my silf, seith the Lord, that this hous schal be in to wildirnesse. 6 For the Lord seith these thingis on the hous of the kyng of Juda, Galaad, thou art to me the heed of the Liban; credence be not youun to me, if Y sette not thee a wildirnesse, citees vnhabitable. 7 And Y schal halewe on thee a man sleyng, and hise armuris; and thei schulen kitte down thi chosun cedris, and schulen caste down in to fier. 8 And many folkis schulen passe bi this citee, and ech man schal seie to his neiybore, Whi dide the Lord thus to this greet citee? 9 And thei schulen answeere, For thei forsoken the couenaunt of her Lord God, and worschipiden alien goddis, and serueden hem. 10 Nyle ye biwepe hym that is deed, nether weile ye on hym bi wepyng; biweile ye hym that goith out, for he schal no more turne ayen, nether he schal se the lond of his birthe. 11 For the Lord seith these thingis to Sellum, the sone of Josie, the kyng of Juda, that regnede for Josye, his fadir, He that yede out of this place, schal no more turne ayen hidur; 12 but in the place to which Y translade him, there he schal die, and he schal no more se this lond. 13 Wo to him that bildith his hous in vnriyfulnessse, and his soleris not in doom; he schal oppresse his freend in veyn, and he schal not yelde his hire to hym. 14 Which seith, Y schal bilde to me a large hous, and wide soleris; which openeth wyndows to hym silf, and makith couplis of cedre, and peyntith with reed colour. 15 Whether thou schalt regne, for thou comparisonest thee to a cedre? whether thi fadir eet not, and drank, and dide doom and riytfulnessse thanne, whanne it was wel to hym? 16 He demyde the cause of a pore man, and nedi, in to his good; whether not therfor for he knew me? seith the Lord. 17 Forsothe thin iyen and herte ben to aueryce, and to schede innocent blood, and to fals caleng, and to the perfourmyng of yuel werk. 18 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis to Joachym, the sone of Josie, the kyng of Juda, Thei schulen not biweile hym, Wo brother! and wo sistir! thei schulen not sowne togidere to hym, Wo lord! and wo noble man! 19 He schal be biried with the biriyng of an asse, he schal be rotun, and cast forth without the yatis of Jerusalem. 20 Stie thou on the Liban, and cry thou, and yyue thi vois in Basan, and cry to hem that passen forth, for alle thi louyeris ben al to-brokun. 21 Y spak to thee in thi plentee, and thou seidist, Y schal not here; this is thi weie fro thi yongthe, for thou herdist not my vois. 22 Wynd schal feede alle thi scheepherdis, and thi louyeris schulen go in to caitifte; 23 and thanne thou that sittist in the Liban, and makist nest in cedris, schalt be schent, and be aschamed of al thi malice. Hou weilidist thou, whanne sorewis weren comun to thee, as the sorew of a womman trauelynge of child? 24 I lyue, seith the Lord, for thouy Jeconye, the sone of Joachym, kyng of Juda, were a ring in my riyt hond, fro thennus Y schal drawe awei hym. 25 And Y schal yyue thee in the hond of hem that seken thi lijf, and in the hond of hem whos face thou dredist, and in the hond of Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, and in the hond of Caldeis. 26 And Y schal sende thee, and thi moder that gendride thee, in to an alien lond, in which ye weren not borun, and there ye schulen die; 27 and thei schulen not turne ayen in to the lond, to which thei reisen her soule, that thei turne ayen thidur. 28 Whether this man Jeconye is an erthene vessel, and al to-brokun? whether a vessel withouten al likyng? Whi ben he and his seed cast awei, and cast forth in to a lond which thei knewen not? 29 Erthe, erthe, erthe, here thou the word of the Lord. 30 The Lord seith these thingis, Write thou this man bareyn, a man that schal not haue prosperite in hise daies; for of his seed schal be no man, that schal sitte on the seete of Daud, and haue powere ferthere in Juda.

23 Wo to the scheepherdis, that scateren and to-drawn the floc of my lesewe, seith the Lord. 2 Therfor the Lord God of Israel seith these thingis to the scheepherdis, that feeden my puple, Ye han scaterid my floc, and han cast hem out, and han not visitid hem; lo! Y schal visite on you the malice of youre studies, seith the Lord. 3 And Y schal gadere togidere the remenauntis of my floc fro alle londis, to whiche Y schal caste hem out thidur; and Y schal turne hem to her feeldis, and thei schulen encreesse, and schulen be multiplied. 4 And Y schal reise schepherdis on hem, and thei schulen feede hem; thei schulen no more drede, and schulen not be aferd; and noon schal be souyt of the noumbre seith the Lord. 5 Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal reise a iust buriownyng to Daud; and he schal regne a kyng, and he schal be wijs, and he schal make doom and riytfulnesse in erthe. 6 In tho daies Juda schal be sauid, and Israel schal dwelle tristili; and this is the name which thei schulen clepe hym, The Lord oure riytful. 7 For this thing lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and thei schulen no more seie, The Lord lyueth, that ledde the sones of Israel out of the lond of Egipt; 8 but, The Lord lyueth, that ledde out, and brouyte the seed of the hous of Israel fro the lond of the north, and fro alle londis to whiche Y hadde cast hem out thidur; and thei schulen dwelle in her lond. 9 To the prophetis; Myn herte is contrit in the myddis of me, alle my boonys trembliden togidere; Y am maad as a man drunkun, and as a man weet of wyn, of the face of the Lord, and of the face of the hooli wordis of hym; 10 for the lond is fillid with auowteris. For the erthe mourenede of the face of cursyng; the feeldis of desert ben maad drie, the cours of hem is maad yuel, and her strengthe is vnlijk. 11 For whi the profete and the prest ben defoulid; and in myn hous, seith the Lord, Y foond the yuel of hem. 12 Therfor the weie of hem schal be as slidur in derknessis, for thei schulen be hurtlid, and schulen falle down therynne; for Y schal bringe on hem yuels, the yeer of visitacioun of hem, seith the Lord. 13 And in the profetis of Samarie Y siy fonnednesse, and thei profesieden in Baal, and disseyueden my puple Israel. 14 And in the profetis of Jerusalem Y siy licnesse, auoutrie, and the weie of leesyng; and thei confortiden the hondis of the worste men, that ech man schulde not conuerte fro his malice; alle thei ben maad as Sodom to me, and alle the dwellers therof `ben maad as Gommorre. 15 Therfor the Lord of oostis seith these thingis to the prophetis, Lo! Y schal feed hem with wermod, and Y schal yyue drynke to hem with galle; for whi defoulyng is goen out of the profetis of Jerusalem on al the lond. 16 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Nyle ye here the wordis of profetis, that profesien to you, and disseyuen you; thei speken the visioun of her herte, not of the mouth of the Lord. 17 Thei seien to hem that blasfemen me, The Lord spak, Pees schal be to you; and thei seiden to ech man that goith in the schrewidnesse of his herte, Yuel schal not come on you. 18 For whi who is present in the councel of the Lord, and siy, and herde his word? who bihelde, and herde the word of hym? 19 Lo! the whirlwynd of the Lordis indignacioun schal go out, and tempest brekyng schal come on the heed of wickid men. 20 The strong veniaunce of the Lord schal not turne ayen, til that he do, and til that he fille the thouyt of his herte. In the laste daies ye schulen vndurstonde the councel of hym. 21 Y sente not the profetis, and thei runnen; Y spak not to hem, and thei profesieden. 22 If thei hadden stonde in my councel, and hadde maad knowun my wordis to my puple, forsothe Y hadde turned hem awei fro her yuel weie, and fro her worste thouytis. 23 Gessist thou, whether Y am God of niy, seith the Lord, and not God afer? 24 A man schal not be priuy in hid places, and Y schal not se hym, seith the Lord. Whether Y fille not heuene and erthe? seith the Lord. 25 Y herde what thingis the profetis seiden, profesiyng a leesyng in my name, and seiynge, Y dremede dremes. 26 Hou longe is this thing in the herte of profetis, profesiyng a leesyng, and profesiyng the disseite of her herte? 27 Whiche wolen make, that my puple foryete my name for the dremes of hem, which ech man tellith to his neiybore, as the fadris of hem foryaten my name for Baal. 28 A profete that hath a dreme, telle a dreem; and he that hath my word, speke verili my word. What is with chaffis to the wheete? seith the Lord. 29 Whether my wordis ben not as fier brennynge, seith the Lord, and as an hamer al to-brekyng a stoon? 30 Therfor lo! Y am redi to the profetis, seith the Lord, that stelen my wordis, ech man fro his neiybore. 31 Lo! Y to the profetis, seith the Lord, that taken her tungis, and seien, The Lord seith. 32 Lo! Y to the profetis, dremyng a leesyng, seith the Lord; which telden tho, and disseyueden my puple in her leesyng, and in her myraclis, whanne Y hadde not sente hem, nether hadde comaundide to hem; whiche profitiden no thing to this puple, seith the Lord. 33 Therfor if this puple, ether profete, ether prest, axith thee, and seith, What is the birthun of the Lord? thou schalt seie to hem, Ye ben the birthun, for Y schal caste you awei, seith the Lord; 34 and a profete, and a prest, and the puple, that seith, The birthun of the Lord, Y schal visite on that man, and on his hous. 35 Ye schulen seie these thingis, ech man to his neiybore, and to his brother, What answeride the Lord? and what spak the Lord? 36 For the birthun of the Lord schal no more be remembrid, and the word of ech man schal be birthun to hym; and ye han peruertid the wordis of lyuyng God, of the Lord of oostis, youre God. 37 Thou schalt seie these thingis to the profete, What answeride the Lord to thee? and what spak the Lord? 38 Forsothe if ye seien, The birthun of the Lord, for this thing the Lord seith these thingis, For ye seiden this word, The birthun of the Lord, and Y sente to you, and Y seide, Nyle ye seie, The birthun of the Lord;

therfor lo! 39 Y schal take you awei, and schal bere, and Y schal forsake you, and the citee which Y yaf to you, and to youre fadris, fro my face. 40 And Y schal yyue you in to euerlastyng schenschipec, and in to euerlastyng sclaudir, that schal neuere be doon awei bi foryetyng.

men of Jerusalem, that dwelliden in this citee, and that dwellen in the lond of Egipt. 9 And Y schal yyue hem into trauelyng and turment in alle rewmes of erthe, in to schenscipe, and in to parable, and in to a prouerbe, and in to cursyng, in alle places to whiche Y castide hem out. 10 And Y schal sende in hem a swerd, and hungur, and pestilence, til thei be wastid fro the lond which Y yaf to hem, and to the fadris of hem.

25 The word of the Lord, that was maad to Jeremye, of al the puple of Juda, in the fourthe yeer of Joachym, the sone of Josie, the king of Juda, aftir that Jeconye was translatid in to Babiloyne; thilke is the firste yeer of Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne; which word Jeremy, 2 the prophete, spak to al the puple of Juda, and to alle the dwelleris of Jerusalem, and seide, 3 Fro the threttenthe yeer of the rewme of Josie, the sone of Amon, the kyng of Juda, `til to this dai, this is the three and twentithe yeer, the word of the Lord was maad to me; and Y spak to you, and Y roos bi niyt and spak, and ye herden not. 4 And the Lord sente to you alle hise seruauntis profetis, and roos ful eerli, and sente, and ye herden not, nether ye bowiden youre eeris, for to here; 5 whanne he seide, Turne ye ayen, ech man fro his yuel weie, and fro youre worste thouytis, and ye schulen dwelle in the lond whiche the Lord yaf to you, and to youre fadris, fro the world and til in to the world. 6 And nyle ye go aftir alien goddis, that ye serue hem, and worschipe hem, nether terre ye me to wrathfulnesse, in the werkis of youre hondis, and Y schal not turmente you. 7 And ye herden not me, seith the Lord, that ye terreden me to wrathfulnesse in the werkis of youre hondis, in to youre yuel. 8 Therfor the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, For that that ye herden not my wordis, lo! 9 Y schal sende, and take alle the kynredis of the north, seith the Lord, and Nabugodonosor, my seruaunt, the kyng of Babiloyne; and Y schal bringe hem on this lond, and on the dwelleris therof, and on alle naciouns, that ben in the cumpas therof; and Y schal sle hem, and Y schal sette hem in to wondryng, and in to hissyng, and in to euerlastyng wildirnessis. 10 And Y schal leese of hem the vois of ioye, and the vois of gladnesse, the vois of spouse, and the vois of spousesse, the vois of queerne, and the lyt of the lanterne. 11 And al the lond therof schal be in to wildirnesse, and in to wondring; and alle these folkis schulen serue the king of Babiloyne seuenti yeer. 12 And whanne seuenti yeer ben fillid, Y schal visite on the kyng of Babiloyne, and on that folc the wickidnesse of hem, seith the Lord, and on the lond of Caldeis, and Y schal set it in to euerlastyng wildirnesses. 13 And Y schal bryng on that lond alle my wordis whiche Y spak ayens it, al thing that is writun in this book; what euer thingis Jeremye profeside ayens alle folkis; 14 for thei serueden to hem, whanne thei weren many folkis, and grete kingis; and Y schal yelde to hem aftir the werkis of hem, and aftir the dedis of her hondis.

15 For the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith thus, Take thou the cuppe of wyn of this woodnesse fro myn hond, and thou schal birlde therof to alle hethene men, to whiche Y schal sende thee. 16 And thei schulen drynke, and schulen be disturblid, and schulen be woode of the face of swerd, which Y schal sende among hem. 17 And Y took the cuppe fro the hond of the Lord, and Y birlde to alle folkis, to whiche the Lord sente me; 18 to Jerusalem, and to alle the citees of Juda, and to the kyngis therof, and to the princes therof; that Y schulde yyue hem in to wildirnesse, and in to wondring, and in to hissyng, and in to cursing, as this dai is; to Farao, 19 the king of Egipt, and to hise seruauntis, and to hise princes, and to al hise puple; 20 and to alle men generali, to alle the kyngis of the lond Ansitidis, and to alle the kyngis of the lond of Filistym, and to Ascalon, and to Gaza, and to Acoron, and to the residues of Azotus; 21 to Idumee, and to Moab, and to the sones of Amon; 22 and to alle the kyngis of Tirus, and to alle the kingis of Sidon, and to the kingis of the lond of ilis that ben biyendis the see; 23 and to Dedan, and Theman, and Buz, and to alle men that ben clippid on the long heer; 24 and to alle the kingis of Arabie, and to alle the kingis of the west, that dwellen in desert; 25 and to alle the kingis of Zambri, and to alle the kingis of Elam, and to alle the kyngis of Medeis; and to alle the kingis of the north, 26 of niy and of fer, to ech man ayens his brothir; and to alle the rewmes of erthe, that ben on the face therof; and kyng Sesac schal drynke after hem. 27 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Drynke ye, and be ye drunkun, and spue ye, and falle ye doun, and nyle ye rise fro the face of swerd which Y schal sende among you. 28 And whanne thei nylen take the cuppe fro thin hond, that thei drynke, thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Ye drynkyng schulen drynke; 29 for lo! in the citee in which my name is clepid to help, Y bigynne to turmente, and schulen ye as innocentis be with out peyne? ye schulen not be with out peyne, for Y clepe swerd on alle the dwelleris of erthe, seith the Lord of oostis. 30 And thou schalt profesie to hem alle these wordis, and thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord schal rore fro an hiy, and fro his hooli dwellyng place he schal yyue his vois; he rorynge schal rore on his fairnesse; a myry song, as of men tredyng in pressouris, schal be sungun ayens alle dwelleris of erthe. 31 Sown is comun til to the laste partis of erthe, for whi doom is to the Lord with folkis, he is demed with ech fleisch; the Lord seith, Y haue youe wickid men to the swerd. 32 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Lo! turment schal go out fro folk in to folk, and a greet whirlwynd schal go out fro the endis of erthe. 33 And the slayn men of the Lord schulen be in that dai fro the ende of the erthe `til to the ende therof; thei schulen not be biweilid, nether schulen be gaderid togidere, nether schulen be biried; thei schulen ligge in to a dunghil on the face of erthe. 34 Yelle, ye scheepherdis, and crye, and, ye princypals of the floc, bispreynge you with aische; for youre daies ben fillid, that ye be slayn, and youre scaterengis ben fillid, and ye schulen falle as precious vessels. 35 And fleyng schal perische fro scheepherdis, and sauynge schal perische fro the principals of the floc. 36 The vois of the crye of scheepherdis, and the yellyng of the principals of the floc, for the Lord hath wastid the lesewis of hem. 37 And the feeldis of pees weren stille, for the face of wraththe of the strong veniaunce of the Lord. 38 He as a lion hath forsake his tabernacle, for the lond of hem is maad in to desolacioun, of the face of wraththe of the culuer, and of the face of wraththe of the strong veniaunce of the Lord.

26 In the bigynnyng of the rewme of Joachym, the sone of Josie, kyng of Juda, this word was maad of the Lord, and seide, 2 The Lord seide these thingis, Stonde thou in the porche of the hous of the Lord, and thou schalt speke to alle the citees of Juda, fro whiche thei comen for to worschipe in the hous of the Lord, alle the wordis whiche Y comaundide to thee, that thou speke to hem; nyle thou withdrawe a word; 3 if peraenture thei heren, and ben conuertid, ech man fro his yuele weie, and it repente me of the yuel which Y thouyte to do to hem for the malices of her studies. 4 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord seith these thingis, If ye heren not me, that ye go in my lawe which Y yaf to you, 5 that ye here the wordis of my seruauntis, profetis, whiche Y risynge bi niyte, and dressynge, sente to you, and ye herden not; 6 Y schal yyue this hous as Silo, and Y schal yyue this citee in to cursyng to alle folkis of erthe. 7 And the prestis, and profetis, and al the puple herden Jeremye spekyng these wordis in the hous of the Lord. 8 And whanne Jeremye hadde fillid spekyng alle thingis, whiche the Lord hadde comaundid to hym, that he schulde speke to al the puple, the prestis, and profetis, and al the puple token hym, and seiden, Die he bi deeth; 9 whi profesiede he in the name of the Lord, and seide, This hous schal be as Silo, and this citee schal be desolat, for no dwellere is? And al the puple was gaderid togidere ayens Jeremye, in the hous of the Lord. 10 And the princes of Juda herden alle these wordis; and thei stieden fro the kyngis hous in to the hous of the Lord, and saten in the entryng of the newe yate of the hous of the Lord. 11 And the prestis and profetis spaken to the princes, and to al the puple, and seiden, Doom of deth is to this man, for he profesiede ayens this citee, as ye herden with youre eeris. 12 And Jeremye seide to alle the princes, and to al the puple, `and seide, The Lord sente me, that Y schulde prophesie to this hous, and to this citee, alle the wordis whiche ye herden. 13 Now therfor make ye good youre weies, and youre studies, and here ye the vois of youre Lord God; and it schal repente the Lord of the yuel which he spak ayens you. 14 Lo! forsothe Y am in youre hondis; do ye to me, as it is good and riytful bifore youre iyen. 15 Netheles wite ye, and knowe, that if ye sleen me, ye schulen bitraie innocent blood ayens you silf, and ayens this citee, and the dwelleris therof; for in trewth the Lord sente me to you, that Y schulde speke in youre eeris alle these wordis. 16 And the princes and al the puple seiden to the preestis and profetis, Doom of deth is not to this man; for he spak to vs in the name of oure Lord God. 17 Therfor men of the eldere men of the lond rysiden vp, and seiden to al the cumpanye of the puple, 18 and spaken, Mychee of Morasten was a profete in the daies of Ezechie, king of Juda; and he seide to al the puple of Juda, and seide, The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Sion schal be erid as a feeld, and Jerusalem schal be in to an heep of stoonys, and the hil of the hous of the Lord schal be in to hiy thingis of woodis. 19 Whether Ezechie, kyng of Juda, and al Juda condempnede hym bi deth? Whether thei dredden not the Lord, and bisouyten the face of the Lord? and it repentide the Lord of the yuel which he spak ayens hem. Therfor do we not greet yuel ayens oure soulis. 20 Also Vrye, the sone of Semey, of Cariathiarym, was a man profesyng in the name of the Lord; and he profesiede ayens this citee, and ayens this lond, bi alle the wordis of Jeremye. 21 And kyng Joachym, and alle the myyti men, and princes of hem, herden these wordis; and the kyng souyte to sle hym; and Vrye herde, and dredde, and he fledde, and entride in to Egipt. 22 And kyng Joachym sente men in to Egipt, Elnathan, the sone of Achobor, and men with hym, in to Egipt; 23 and thei ledden Vrye out of Egipt, and brouyten hym to kyng Joachym; and the kyng killide hym bi swerd, and castide forth his careyn in the sepulcris of the comyn puple vnnoble. 24 Therfor the hond of Aicham, sone of Saphan, was with Jeremye, that he was not bitakun in to the hondis of the puple, and that it killide not hym.

27 In the bigynnyng of the rewme of Joachym, the sone of Josie, kyng of Juda, this word was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, and seide, 2 The Lord seith these thingis to me, Make thou to thee boondis and chaynes, and thou schalt putte tho in thi necke; 3 and thou schalt sende tho to the kyng of Edom, and to the kyng of Moab, and to the kyng of the sones of Amon, and to the kyng of Tyre, and to the kyng of Sidon, bi the hond of messengeris that camen to Jerusalem, and to Sedechie, kyng of Juda. 4 And thou schalt comaunde to hem, that thei speke to her lordis, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Ye schulen seie these thingis to youre lordis, 5 Y made erthe, and man, and beestis that ben on the face of al erthe, in my greet strengthe, and in myn arm holdun forth; and Y yaf it to hym that plesyde bfore myn iyen. 6 And now therfor Y yaf alle these londis in the hond of Nabugodonosor, my seruaunt, the kyng of Babiloyne; ferthermore and Y yaf to hym the beestis of the feeld, that thei serue hym. 7 And alle folkis schulen serue hym, and his sone, and the sone of his sone, til the tyme of his lond and of hym come; and many folkis and grete kyngis schulen serue hym. 8 Forsothe the folk and rewme that serueth not Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, and whoeuer bowith not his necke vndur the yok of the kyng of Babiloyne, Y schal visite on that folk in swerd, and hungur, and pestilence, seith the Lord, til Y waaste hem in his hond. 9 Therfor nyle ye here youre profetis, and false dyuynouris, and dremeris, and dyuynoris bi chiteryng and fleyng of briddis, and witchis, that seien to you, Ye schulen not serue the kyng of Babiloyne; 10 for thei profesien a lessyng to you, that thei make you fer fro youre lond, and caste out you, and ye perische. 11 Certis the folk that makith suget her nol vndur the yok of the kyng of Babiloyne, and serueth hym, Y schal dismytte it in his lond, seith the Lord; and it schal tile that lond, and schal dwelle therynne. 12 And Y spak bi alle these wordis to Sedechie, kyng of Juda, and Y seide, Make ye suget youre neckis vndur the yok of the kyng of Babiloyne, and serue ye hym, and his puple, and ye schulen lyue. 13 Whi schulen ye die, thou and thi puple, bi swerd, and hungur, and pestilence, as the Lord spak to the folk, that nolde serue to the kyng of Babiloyne? 14 Nyle ye here the wordis of profetis seiynge to you, Ye schulen not serue the kyng of Babiloyne; for thei speken leesyng to you, for Y sente not hem, seith the Lord; 15 and thei profesien falsly in my name, that thei caste out you, and that ye perische, bothe ye and the profetis that profesien to you. 16

 And Y spak to the preestis, and to this puple, and Y seide, The Lord God seith these thingis, Nyle ye here the wordis of youre profetis, that profesien to you, and seien, Lo! the vessels of the Lord schulen turne ayen now soone fro Babiloyne; for thei profesien a leesyng to you. 17 Therfor nyle ye here hem, but serue ye to the kyng of Babiloyne, that ye lyue; whi is this citee youun in to wildirnesse? 18 And if thei ben profetis, and if the word of God is in hem, renne thei to the Lord of oostis, that the vessels whiche weren left in the hous of the Lord, and in the hous of the kyng of Juda, and in Jerusalem, come not in to Babiloyne. 19 For the Lord of oostis seith these thingis to the pilers, and to the see, that is, a greet waischyng vessel, and to the fundamentis, and to the remenauntis of vessels, that weren left in this citee, 20 whiche Nabugodonosor, king of Babiloyne, took not, whanne he translatide Jeconye, the sone of Joachim, king of Juda, fro Jerusalem in to Babiloyne, and alle the principal men of Juda and of Jerusalem. 21 For the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis to the vessels that ben left in the hous of the Lord, and in the hous of the king of Juda, and in Jerusalem, Tho schulen be translatid in to Babiloyne, 22 and schulen be there `til to the dai of her visitacioun, seith the Lord; and Y schal make tho to be brouyt, and to be restorid in this place.

28 And it was don in that yeer, in the bigynnyng of the rewme of Sedechie, kyng of Juda, in the fourthe yeer, in the fyuethe monethe, Ananye, the sone of Azur, a profete of Gabaon, seide to me in the hous of the Lord, bifer the preestis, and al the puple, 2 `and seide, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Y haue al to-broke the yok of the kyng of Babiloyne. 3 Yit twei yeeris of daies ben, and Y schal make to be brouyt ayen to this place alle the vessels of the Lord, whiche Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, took fro this place, and translatide tho in to Babiloyne. 4 And Y schal turne to this place, seith the Lord, Jeconye, the sone of Joachym, the kyng of Juda, and al the passyng ouer of Juda, that entriden in to Babiloyne; for Y schal al to-breke the yok of the kyng of Babiloyne. 5 And Jeremye, the profete, seide to Ananye, the profete, bifer the iyen of preestis, and bifer the iyen of al the puple that stoden in the hous of the Lord. 6 And Jeremye, the profete, seide to Ananye, Amen! so do the Lord; the Lord reise thi wordis whiche thou profesiedist, that the vessels be brouyt ayen in to the hous of the Lord, and al the passyng ouer fro Babiloyne, to this place. 7 Netheles here thou this word, which Y speke in thin eeris, and in the eeris of al

the puple. 8 Profetis that weren bifore me, and bifor thee, fro the bigynnyng, and profesieden on many londis, and on many rewmes, of batel, and of turment, and of hungur. 9 The profete that profesiede pees, whanne his word cometh, shal be knowun the profete whom the Lord sente in treuthe. 10 And Ananye, the profete, took the chayne fro the necke of Jeremye, the profete, and brak it. 11 And Ananye, the profete, seide in the siyt of al the puple, `and seide, The Lord seith these thingis, So Y schal breke the yok of Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, aftir twei yeeris of daies, fro the necke of alle folkis. 12 And Jeremye, the profete, yede in to his weie. And the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, aftir that Ananye, the profete, brak the chayne fro the necke of Jeremye; and the Lord seide, 13 Go thou, and seie to Ananye, The Lord seith these thingis, Thou hast al to-broke the chaynes of tre, and thou schalt make yrun chaynes for tho. 14 For the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Y haue set an yrun yok on the necke of alle these folkis, that thei serue Nabugodonosor, the king of Babiloyne, and thei schulen serue hym; ferthermore and Y yaf to hym the beestis of erthe. 15 And Jeremye, the profete, seide to Ananye, the profete, Ananye, here thou; the Lord sente not thee, and thou madist this puple for to triste in a leesyng. 16 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal sende thee out fro the face of erthe; in this yeer thou schalt die, for thou spakest ayens the Lord. 17 And Ananye, the profete, diede in that yeer, in the seuenthe monethe.

29 And these ben the wordis of the book, whiche Jeremye, the profete, sente fro Jerusalem to the residues of eldere men of passyng ouer, and to the preestis, and to the profetis, and to al the puple, whom Nabugodonosor hadde ledde ouer fro

Jerusalem in to Babiloyne, 2 after that Jeconye, the kyng, yede out, and the ladi, and the onest seruauntis and chast, and the princis of Juda yeden out of Jerusalem, and a sutel crafti man, and a goldsmyth of Jerusalem, 3 in the hond of Elasa, sone of Saphan, and of Gamalie, the sone of Elchie, whiche Sedechie, the kyng of Juda, sente to Nabugodonosor, the kyng of Babiloyne, in to Babiloyne. 4 And Jeremye seide, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis to al the passyng ouer, which Y translatide fro Jerusalem in to Babiloyne, 5 Bilde ye housis, and enhabite, and plaunte ye orcherdis, and ete ye fruyt of tho; 6 take ye wyues, and gendre ye sones and douytris, and yyue ye wyues to youre sones, and yyue ye youre douytris to hosebondis, and bere thei sones and douytris; and be ye multiplied there, and nyle ye be fewe in noumbre. 7 And seke ye pees of the citees, to whiche Y made you to passe ouer; and preie ye the Lord for it, for in the pees thereof schal be pees to you. 8 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Your profetis, that ben in the myddis of you, and youre dyuynours disseyue you not; and take ye noon heede to youre dremes, whiche ye dremen; 9 for thei profesien falsli to you in my name, and Y sente not hem, seith the Lord. 10 For the Lord seith thes thingis, Whanne seuenti yeer bigynnen to be fillid in Babiloyne, Y schal visite you, and Y schal reise on you my good word, and Y schal brynge you ayen to this place. 11 For Y knowe the thouytis whiche Y thenke on you, seith the Lord, the thouytis of pees, and not of turment, that Y yyue to you an ende and pacience. 12 And ye schulen clepe me to help, and ye schulen go, and schulen worschipe me, and Y schal here you; 13 ye schulen seke me, and ye schulen fynde, whanne ye seken me in al youre herte. 14 And Y schal be foundun of you, seith the Lord, and Y schal brynge ayen youre caitifte, and Y schal gadere you fro alle folkis, and fro alle places, to whiche Y castide out you, seith the Lord; and Y schal make you to turne ayen fro the place, to which Y made you to passe ouer. 15 For ye seiden, The Lord schal reise profetis to vs in Babiloyne. 16 For the Lord seith these thingis to the kyng, that sittith on the seete of Daud, and to al the puple, dwellere of this citee, to youre britheren, that yeden not out with you in to the passyng ouer, 17 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal sende among hem swerd, and hungur, and pestilence; and Y schal sette hem as yuele figis, that moun not be etun, for tho ben ful yuele. 18 And Y schal pursue hem in swerd, and in hungur, and in pestilence; and Y schal yyue hem in to trauelyng in alle rewmes of erthe, in to cursyng, and in to wondryng, and in to scornynge, and in to schenscipe to alle folkis, to whiche Y castide hem out. 19 For thei herden not my wordis, seith the Lord, which Y sente to hem bi my seruauntis, profetis, and roos bi nyyt, and sente, and ye herden not, seith the Lord. 20 Therfor al the passyng ouer, which Y sente out fro Jerusalem in to Babiloyne, here ye the word of the Lord. 21 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis to Achab, the sone of Chulie, and to Sedechie, the sone of Maasie, that profesien to you a leesyng in my name, Lo! Y schal bitake hem in to the hond of Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, and he schal smyte hem bfore youre iyen. 22 And cursyng schal be takun of hem to al the passyng ouer of Juda, which is in Babiloyne, of men seiynge, The Lord sette thee as Sedechie, and as Achab, whiche the kyng of Babiloyne friede in fier, 23 for thei diden foli in Israel, and didn't auowtrie on the wyues of her frendis; and thei spoken a word falsli in my name, which Y comaundide not to hem; Y am iuge and witnesse, seith the Lord. 24 And thou schalt seie to Semei Neelamyte, 25 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, For that that thou sentist bookis in my name to al the puple, which is in Jerusalem, and to Sofony, the sone of Maasie, the preest, and to alle the prestis, 26 and seidist, The Lord yaf thee the preest for Joiada, the preest, that thou be duyk in the hous of the Lord on ech man `that is traelid of the fend, and profesyng, that thou sende hym in to stockis, and in to prisoun. 27 And now whi blamest thou not Jeremye of Anathot, that profesieyth to you? 28 For on this thing he sente to vs in to Babiloyne, and seide, It is long; bielde ye housis, and enhabite, and plaunte ye orcherdis, and ete ye the fruit of tho. 29 Therfor Sofonye, the preest, redde this book in the eeris of Jeremye, the prophete. 30 And the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, 31 and seide, Sende thou to al the passyng ouer, and seie, The Lord seith these thingis to Semeye Neelamite, For that that Semeye profesiede to you, and Y sente not hym, and he made you to triste in a leesyng; 32 therfor the Lord seith thes thingis, Lo! Y schal visite on Semeye Neelamyte, and on his seed; and no man sittynge in the myddis of this puple schal be to hym; and he schal not se the good, which Y schal do to my puple, seith the Lord, for he spak trespassyng ayens the Lord.

30 This is the word, that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, 2 and seide, The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, and spekith, Write to thee in a book, alle these wordis whiche Y spak to thee. 3 For lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal turne the turnyng of my puple Israel and Juda, seith the Lord; and Y schal turne hem to the lond which Y yaf to the fadris of hem, and thei schulen haue it in possessioun. 4 And these ben the wordis, whiche the Lord spak to Israel, and to Juda, 5 For the Lord seith these thingis, We herden a word of drede; inward drede is, and pees is not. 6 Axe ye, and se, if a male berith child; whi therfor siy Y the hond of ech man on his leende, as of a womman trauelynge of child, and alle faces ben turned in to yelow colour? 7 Wo! for thilke day is greet, nether ony is lyk it; and it is a tyme of tribulacioun to Jacob, and of hym schal be sauyd. 8 And it schal be, in that dai, seith the Lord of oostis, Y schal al to-breke the yok of hym fro thi necke, and Y schal breke hise boondis; and aliens schulen no more be lordis of it, 9 but thei schulen serue to her Lord God, and to Daud, her kyng, whom Y schal reyse for hem. 10 Therfor, Jacob, my seruauant, drede thou not, seith the Lord, and Israel, drede thou not; for lo!

 Y schal saue thee fro a fer lond, and thi seed fro the lond of the caitiftee of hem. And Jacob schal turne ayen, and schal reste, and schal flowe with alle goodis; and noon schal be whom he schal drede. 11 For Y am with thee, seith the Lord, for to saue thee. For Y schal make endyng in alle folkis, in whiche Y scateride thee; sotheli Y schal not make thee in to endyng, but Y schal chastise thee in doom, that thou be not seyn to thee to be gilteles. 12 For the Lord seith these thingis, Thi brekyng is vncurable, thi wounde is the worste. 13 Noon is, that demeth thi doom to bynde togidere; the profit of heelyngis is not to thee. 14 Alle thi louyeris han foryete thee, thei schulen not seke thee; for Y haue smyte thee with the wounde of an enemy, with cruel chastisyng; for the multitude of thi wickidnesse, thi synnes ben maad hard. 15 What criest thou on thi brekyng? thi sorewe is vncurable; for the multitude of thi wickidnesse, and for thin hard synnes, Y haue do these thingis to thee. 16 Therfor alle that eeten thee, schulen be deuourid, and alle thin enemyes schulen be led in to caitifte; and thei that distrien thee, schulen be distried, and Y schal yyue alle thi robberis in to raueyn. 17 For Y schal heele perfitli thi wounde, and Y schal make thee hool of thi woundis, seith the Lord; for thou, Sion, thei clepeden thee cast out; this is it that hadde no sekere. 18 The Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal turne the turnyng of the tabernaclis of Jacob, and Y schal haue merci on the housis of hym; and the citee schal be bildid in his hiynesse, and the temple schal be foundid bi his ordre. 19 And heriyng and the vois of pleiers schal go out of hem, and Y schal multiplie hem, and thei schulen not be decreessid; and Y schal glorifie hem, and thei schulen not be maad thynne. 20 And the sones therof schulen be as at the bigynnyng, and the cumpany therof schal dwelle bfore me; and Y schal visite ayens alle that doon tribulacioun to it. 21 And the duyck therof schal be of it, and a prince schal be brouyt forth of the myddis therof; and Y schal applie hym, and he schal neiye to me; for who is this, that schal applie his herte, that he neiye to me? seith the Lord. 22 And ye schulen be in to a puple to me, and Y schal be in to God to you. 23 Lo! the whirlewynd of the Lord, a strong veniaunce goynge out, a tempest fallynge down, schal reste in the heed of wickid men. 24 The Lord schal not turne away the ire of indignacioun, til he do, and fille the thouyt of his herte; in the laste of daies ye schulen vndurstonde tho thingis.

31 In that tyme, seith the Lord, Y schal be God to alle the kynredis of Israel; and thei schulen be in to a puple to me. 2

The Lord seith these thingis, The puple that was left of swerd, foond grace in desert; Israel schal go to his reste. 3 Fer the Lord apperide to me, and in euerlastynge charite Y louede thee; therfor Y doynge merci drow thee. 4 And eft Y schal bilde thee, and thou, virgyn Israel, schalt be bildid; yit thou schalt be ourned with thi tympan, and schalt go out in the cumpenye of pleieris.
5 Yit thou schalt plaunte vynes in the hillis of Samarie; men plauntynge schulen plaunte, and til the tyme come, thei schulen not gadere grapis. 6 For whi a dai schal be, wherynne keperis schulen crye in the hil of Samarie, and in the hil of Effraym, Rise ye, and stie we in to Sion, to oure Lord God. 7 For the Lord seith these thingis, Jacob, make ye ful out ioye in gladnesse, and neye ye ayens the heed of hethene men; sowne ye, synge ye, and seie ye, Lord, saue thi puple, the residues of Israel. 8 Lo! Y schal brynge hem fro the loond of the north, and Y schal gadere hem fro the ferthesteste partis of erthe; among whiche schulen be a blynd man, and crokid, and a womman with childe, and trauelynge of child togidere, a greet cumpany of hem that schulen turne ayen hidur. 9 Thei schulen come in wepyng, and Y schal brynge hem ayen in merci; and Y schal brynge hem bi the strondis of wattris in a riytful weie, thei schulen not spurne therynne; for Y am maad a fadir to Israel, and Effraym is my gendrid sone. 10 Ye hethene men, here ye the word of the Lord, and telle ye in ylis that ben fer, and seie, He that scateride Israel, schal gadere it, and schal kepe it, as a scheepherde kepith his foc. 11 For the Lord ayenbouyte Jacob, and delyuerede hym fro the hond of the myytiere. 12 And thei schulen come, and herye in the hil of Sion; and thei schulen flowe togidere to the goodis of the Lord, on wheete, wyn, and oile, and on the fruyt of scheep, and of neet; and the soule of hem schal be as a watri gardyn, and thei schulen no more hungre. 13 Thanne a virgyn schal be glad in a cumpenye, yonge men and elde togidere; and Y schal turne the morenyng of hem in to ioie, and Y schal coumforte hem, and Y schal make hem glad of her sorewe. 14 And Y schal greetli fille the soule of prestis with fatnesse, and my puple schal be fillid with my goodis, seith the Lord. 15 The Lord seith these thingis, A vois of weilyng, and of wepyng, and of mourenyng, was herd an hiy; the vois of Rachel biwepyng hir sones, and not willynge to be coumfortid on hem, for thei ben not. 16 The Lord seith these thingis, Thi vois reste of wepyng, and thin iyen reste of teeres; for whi mede is to thi werk, seith the Lord; and thei schulen turne ayen fro the lond of the enemy. 17 And hope is to thi laste thingis, seith the Lord, and thi sones schulen turne ayen to her endis. 18 I heringe herde Efraym passinge ouer; thou chastisidist me, and Y am lerned as a yong oon vntemyd; turne thou me, and Y schal be conuertid, for thou art my Lord God. 19 For aftir that thou conuertidist me, Y dide penance; and aftir that thou schewidist to me, Y smoot myn hipe; Y am schent, and Y schamede, for Y suffride the schenscipe of my yongthe. 20 For Efraym is a worschipful sone to me, for he is a delicat child; for sithen Y spak of hym, yit Y schal haue mynde on hym; therfor myn entrails ben disturblid on him, Y doynghe merci schal haue merci on hym, seith the Lord. 21 Ordeyne to thee an hiy totyng place, sette to thee bitternesses; dresse thin herte in to a streijt weie, in which thou yedist; turne ayen, thou virgyn of Israel, turne ayen to these thi citees. 22 Hou longe, douyter of vnstidfast dwellyng, art thou maad dissolut in delices? for the Lord hath maad a newe thing on erthe, a womman schal cumpasse a man. 23 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Yit thei schulen seie this word in the lond of Juda, and in the citees therof, whane Y schal turne the caytifte of hem, The Lord blesse thee, thou fairnesse of riytfulnesse, thou hooli hil. 24 And Juda, and alle citees therof schulen dwelle in it togidere, erthetilieris, and thei that dryuen flockis. 25 For Y fillide greetli a feynt soule, and Y haue fillid ech hungri soule. 26 Therfor Y am as reysid fro sleep, and Y siy; and my sleep was swete to me. 27 Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal sowe the hous of Israel and the hous of Juda with the seed of men, and with the seed of werk beestis. 28 And as Y wakide on hem, to drawe vp bi the roote, and to distrie, and to scatere, and to leese, and to turmente; so Y schal wake on hem, to bilde, and to plaunte, seith the Lord. 29 In tho daies thei schulen no more seie, The fadres eeten a sour grape, and the teeth of sones weren astonyed; but ech man schal die in his wickidnesse, 30 ech man that etith a sour grape, hise teeth schulen be astonyed. 31 Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal smyte a newe boond of pees to the hous of Israel, and to the hous of Juda; 32 not bi the couenaunte which Y made with youre fadris, in the dai in which Y took the hond of hem, to lede hem out of the lond of Egipt, the couenaunte which thei made voide; and Y was Lord of hem, seith the Lord. 33 But this schal be the couenaunte, which Y schal smyte with the hous of Israel aftir tho daies, seith the Lord; Y schal yyue my lawe in the entrails of hem, and Y schal write it in the herte of hem, and Y schal be in to God to hem, and thei schulen be in to a puple to me. 34 And a man schal no more teche his neiybore, and a man his brother, and seie, Knowe thou the Lord; for alle schulen knowe me, fro the

leeste of hem `til to the mooste, seith the Lord; for Y schal be merciful to the wickidnessis of hem, and Y schal no more be myndeful on the synne of hem. 35 The Lord seith these thingis, that yyueth the sunne in the liyt of dai, the ordre of the moone and of sterris in the liyt of the niyt, whiche disturblith the see, and the wawis therof sownen, the Lord of oostis is name to hym. 36 If these lawis failen bfore me, seith the Lord, thanne and the seed of Israel schal faile, that it be not a folk bfore me in alle daies. 37 The Lord seith these thingis, If heuenes aboue moun be mesurid, and the foundementis of erthe bynethe be souyt out, and Y schal caste awei al the seed of Israel, for alle thingis whiche thei diden, seith the Lord. 38 Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and a citee schal be bildid to the Lord, fro the tour of Ananeel `til to the yate of the corner. 39 And it schal go out ouer the reule of mesure, in the siyt therof, on the hil Gareb, and it schal cumpasse Goatha, 40 and al the valei of careyns, and it schal cumpasse aischis, and al the cuntrei of deth, `til to the stronde of Cedron, and til to the corner of the eest yate of horsis; the hooli thing of the Lord schal not be drawun out, and it schal no more be destried with outen ende.

32 The word that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, in the tenthe yeer of Sedechie, kyng of Juda; thilke is the eiytenthe yeer of Nabugodonosor. 2 Thanne the oost of the kyng of Babiloyne bisegide Jerusalem; and Jeremye, the profete, was closid in the porche of the prisoun, that was in the hous of the kyng of Juda. 3 For whi Sedechie, the kyng of Juda, hadde closid hym, and seide, Whi profesiest thou, seiynge, The Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal yyue this citee in the hond of the kyng of Babyloyne, and he schal take it; and Sedechie, 4 the kyng of Juda, schal not ascape fro the hond of Caldeis, but he schal be bitake in to the hond of the kyng of Babiloyne; and his mouth schal speke with the mouth of hym, and hise iyen schulen se the iyen of hym; 5 and he schal lede Sedechie in to Babiloyne, and he schal be there, til Y visyte hym, seith the Lord; forsothe if ye fityten ayens Caldeis, ye schulen haue no thing in prosperite? 6 And Jeremye seide, The word of the Lord was maad to me, and seide, Lo! 7 Ananeel, the sone of Sellum, the sone of thi fadris brothir, schal come to thee, and seie, Bi thou to thee my feeld, which is in Anathot; for it bifallith to thee by niy kynrede, that thou bie it. 8 And Ananeel, the sone of my fadris brothir, cam to me, bi the word of the Lord, to the porche of the prisoun, and seide to me, Welde thou my feeld, which is in Anathot, in the lond of Beniamyn; for whi the erytage bifallith to thee, and thou art the next of blood, that thou welde it. Forsothe Y vndirstood, that it was the word of the Lord. 9 And Y bouyte the feeld, which is in Anathot, of Ananeel, the sone of my fadris brothir. And Y paiede to hym siluer, seuene stateris, and ten platis of siluer; 10 and Y wroot in a book, and Y seelide, and Y yaf witnessis. And Y weiede siluer in a balaunce; 11 and Y took the book aseelid of possessioun, and axingis and answerys of the seller and bier, and couenantis, and seelis withoutforth. 12 And Y yaf the book of possessioun to Baruc, the sone of Neri, sone of Maasie, bfore the iyen of Ananeel, the sone of my fadris brother, and bfore the iyen of witnessis that weren writun in the book of biyng, bfore the iyen of alle Jewis, that saten in the porche of the prisoun.

 13 And Y comaundide to Baruc bfore hem, 14 and Y seide, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Take thou these bookis, this seelid book of biyng, and this book which is opyn, and putte thou tho in an erthen vessel, that tho moun dwelle bi many daies. 15 For whi the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Yit housis, and feeldis, and vynes schulen be weldid in this lond. 16 And Y preiede to the Lord, aftir that Y bitook the book of possessioun to Baruc, the sone of Nery; and Y seide, Alas! 17 alas! alas! Lord God, Lord, thou madist heuene and erthe in thi greet strengthe, and in thin arm stretchid forth; ech word schal not be hard to thee; 18 which doist merci in thousyndis, and yeldist the wickidnesse of fadris in to the bosum of her sones aftir hem. Thou strongeste, greet, myyti, Lord of oostis is name to thee; 19 greet in councel, and vncomprehensible in thouyt, whose iyen ben open on alle the weies of the sones of Adam, that thou yelde to ech aftir hise weies, and aftir the fruyt of hise fyndyngis; 20 which settidist signes and greet woundris in the lond of Egipt, `til to this dai, bothe in Israel and in men; and madist to thee a name, as this dai is. 21 And thou leddist thi puple Israel out of the lond of Egipt, in signes and in greet woundris, and in a strong hond, and in an arm holdun forth, and in greet dreed; and thou yauest to hem this lond, 22 which thou sworist to the fadris of hem, that thou woldist yyue to hem, a lond flowynge with milk and hony. 23 And thei entriden, and hadden it in possessioun; and thei obeieden not to thi vois, and thei yeden not in thi lawe; alle thingis whiche thou comaundidist to hem to do, thei diden not; and alle these yuels bifellen to hem. 24 Lo! strengthis ben bildid ayens the citee, that it be takun, and the citee is youun in to the hondis of Caldeis, and in to the hondis of the kyng of Babiloyne, that fiyten ayens it, of the face of swerd, and of hungur, and of pestilence; and what euer thingis thou spakest, bifellen, as thou thi silf seest. 25 And Lord God, thou seist to me, Bie thou a feeld for siluer, and yyue thou witnessis, whanne the citee is youun in the hondis of Caldeis. 26 And the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, and seide, Lo! 27 Y am the Lord God of `al fleisch. Whether ony word schal be hard to me? 28 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bitake this citee in to the hondis of Caldeis, and in to the hond of the kyng of Babiloyne, and he schal take it. 29 And Caldeis schulen come, and fiyte ayens this citee, and thei schulen brenne it with fier, and thei schulen brenne it, and housis, in whose rooues thei sacrificiden to Baal, and offriden moist sacrifices to alien goddis, to terre me to wraththe. 30 For whi the sones of Israel and the sones of Juda diden yuel contynueli, fro her yonge waxynge age, bfore myn iyen, the sones of Israel, whiche `til to now wraththen me bi the werk of her hondis, seith the Lord. 31 For whi this citee is maad to me in my strong veniaunce and indignacioun, fro the day in which thei bildiden it, `til to this dai, in which it schal be takun awei fro my siyt; 32 for the malice of the sones of Israel, and of the sones of Juda, which thei diden, terryng me to wrathfulnesse, thei, and the kyngis of hem, the princes of hem, and the prestis, and profetis of hem, the men of Juda, and the dwelleris of Jerusalem. 33 And thei turneden to me the backis, and not the faces, whanne Y tauyte, and enformede hem erli; and thei nolden here, that thei schulden take techyng. 34 And thei settiden her idols in the hous, in which my name is clepid to help, that thei schulden defoule it. 35 And thei bildiden hiy thingis to Baal, that ben in the valei of the sones of Ennon, that thei schulden halewe her sones and her douytris to Moloc, which thing Y comaundide not to hem, nether it stiede in to myn herte, that thei schulden do this abhomynacioun, and brynge Juda in to synne. 36 And now for these thingis, the Lord God of Israel seith these thingis to this citee, of whiche ye seien, that it schal be bitakun in to the hondis of the kyng of Babiloyne, in swerd, and in hungur, and in pestilence, Lo! 37 Y schal gadere hem fro alle londis, to whiche Y castide hem out in my strong veniaunce, and in my wraththe, and in greet indignacioun; and Y schal brynge hem ayen to this place, and Y schal make hem to dwelle tristili. 38 And thei schulen be in to a puple to me, and Y schal be in to God to hem. 39 And Y schal yyue to hem oon herte and o soule, that thei drede me in alle daies, and that it be wel to hem, and to her sonnes aftir hem. 40 And Y schal smyte to hem a couenaunt euerlastynge, and Y schal not ceese to do wel to hem, and Y schal yyue my drede in the herte of hem, that thei go not away fro me. 41 And Y schal be glad on hem, whanne Y schal do wel to hem; and Y schal plaunte hem in this lond in treuthe, in al myn herte, and in al my soule. 42 For the Lord seith these thingis, As Y brouyte on this puple al this greet yuel, so Y schal brynge on hem al the good, which Y schal speke to hem. 43 And feeldis schulen be weldid in this lond, of which ye seien, that it is desert, for no man and beeste is left; and it is youun in to the hondis of Caldeis. 44 Feeldis schulen be bouyt for money, and schulen be writun in a book, and a seel schal be preentid; and witnessis schulen be youun, in the lond of Beniamyn, and in the cumpas of Jerusalem, and in the citees of Juda, and in the citees in hilli places, and in the citees in feeldi places, and in the citees that ben at the south; for Y schal turne the caitiffee of hem, seith the Lord.

33 And the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, in the secounde tyme, whanne he was closid yit in the porche of the prisoun, and seide, 2 The Lord seith these thingis, The Lord is name of hym, that schal do, and fourme, and make redi that thing; 3 Crye thou to me, and Y schal here thee, and Y schal telle to thee grete thingis, and stidfast, whiche thou knowist not. 4 For the Lord God of Israel seith these thingis to the housis of this citee, and to the housis of the kyng of Juda, that ben distried, and to the strengthingis, 5 and to the swerd of men comynge to fiyte with Caldeis, and to fille tho housis with careyns of men, which Y smoot in my strong veniaunce, and in myn indignacioun; and Y hidde my face fro this citee, for al the malice of hem. 6 Lo! Y schal close togidere to hem a wounde and helthe, and Y schal make hem hool, and Y schal schewe to hem the bisechyng of pees and of treuthe; 7 and Y schal conuerte the conuersioun of Juda, and Y schal conuerte the conuersioun of Jerusalem, and Y schal bilde hem, as at the bigynnyng. 8 And Y schal clense hem fro al her wickidnesse, in which thei synned to me, and Y schal be merciful to alle the wickidnessis of hem, in which thei trespassiden to me, and forsoken me. 9 And thei schulen be to me in to a name, and in to ioie, and in to heriyng, and in to ful out ioiying to alle folkis of erthe, that herden alle the goodis whiche Y schal do to hem; and thei schulen drede, and schulen be disturblid in alle goodis, and in al the pees, which Y schal do to hem. 10 The Lord seith these thingis, Yit in this place, which ye seien to be forsakun, for no man is nether beeste in the citees of Juda, and in the yatis of Jerusalem, that ben desolat, without man, and with out dwellere, 11 and with out beeste, the vois of ioie schal be herd, and the vois of gladnesse, the vois of spouse, and the vois of spousesse, the vois of men, seiynge, Knowleche ye to the Lord of oostis, for the Lord is good, for his merci is with outen ende, and of men berynge vowis in to the hous of the Lord; for Y schal brynge ayen the conuersioun of the lond, as at the bigynnyng, seith the Lord. 12 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Yit in this forsakun place, with out man, and with out beeste, and in alle citees therof, schal be a dwellyng place of scheepherdis, of flockis ligynge. 13 And in the citees in hilli places, and in the citees in feeldi places, and in the citees that ben at the south, and in the lond of Beniamyn, and in the cumpas of Jerusalem, and in the citees of Juda, yit flockis schulen passe, at the hond of the noumbrere, seith the Lord. 14 Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal reise the good word, which Y spak to the hous of Israel, and to the hous of Juda. 15 In tho daies, and in that tyme, Y schal make the seed of riytfulnesse to buriowne to Dauid, and he schal make doom and riytfulnesse in erthe. 16 In tho daies Juda schal be sauyd, and Israel schal dwelle tristili; and this is the name which thei schulen clepe hym, Oure riytful Lord. 17 For the Lord seith these thingis, A man of Dauid schal not perische, that shal sitte on the trone of the hous of Israel; 18 and of preestis and dekenes a man schal not perische fro my face, that schal offre with Dauid, my seruaunt, mai be voide, that of hym be no sone, that schal regne in his trone, and no dekenes, and preestis, my mynistris; 22 as the sterris of heuene moun not be noumbrid, and the grauel of the see mai not be metun, so Y schal multiplie the seed of Daud, my seruaunt, and dekenes, my mynysters. 23 And the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, and seide, Whether thou hast not seyn, 24 that this puple spak, seiyng, Twei kynredis whiche the Lord chees, ben cast awei, and thei dispisiden my puple, for it is no more a folc bifore hem. 25 The Lord seith these thingis, If Y settide not my couenaunt bitwixe dai and niyt, and if Y settide not lawis to heuene and erthe; 26 sotheli and Y schal caste awei the seed of Jacob, and of Daud, my seruaunt, that Y take not of the seed of hym princes, of the seed of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob; for Y schal brynge ayen the conuersioun of hem, and Y schal haue merci on hem.

34 The word that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, whanne Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, and al his oost, and alle the rewmes of erthe, that weren vndur the power of his hond, and alle puplis fouyten ayens Jerusalem, and ayens alle citees therof; and he seide, 2 The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, Go thou, and speke to Sedechie, kyng of Juda; and thou schalt seie to hym, The Lord seith these thingis, Lo! siyt, in the hous wherynne my name is clepid to help on that and ye brouyten ayen ech man his seruaunt, and ech man his handmaide, whiche ye delyueriden, that thei schulden be fre, and of her owne power; and ye maden hem suget, that thei be seruauntis and haundmaidis to you. 17 Therfor the Lord seith thes thingis, Ye herden not me, that ye prechiden fredom, ech man to his brothir, and ech man to his freend; lo! Y preeche to you fredom, seith the Lord, and to swerd, and to hungur, and to pestilence, and Y schal yyue you in to stiryng to alle rewmes of erthe. 18 And Y schal yyue the men, that breken my boond of pees, and kepten not the wordis of boond of pees, to whiche thei assentiden in my siyt, and kepten not the calf, which thei kittiden in to twei partis; and the princes of Juda, 19 and the princes of Jerusalem, and the onest seruauntis, and preestis yeden bytwixe the partyngis therof, and al the puple of the lond, that yeden bitwixe the departyngis of the calf; 20 and Y schal

 And Y schal yyue Sedechie, the kyng of Juda, and hise princes, in to the hond of her enemyes, and in to the hond of hem that with fier; and Y schal yyue the citees of Juda in to wildirnesse, for ther is no dwellere.

35 The word that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, in the daies of Joachym, sone of Josie, 2 kyng of Juda, and seide, Go thou to the hous of Recabitis, and speke thou to hem; and thou schalt brynge hem in to the hous of the Lord, in to o chaumbre of tresouris, and thou schalt yyue to hem to drynke wyn. 3 And Y took Jeconye, the sone of Jeremye, sone of Absanye, and hise britheren, and alle the sones of hym, and al the hous of Recabitis. 4 And Y ledde hem in to the hous of the Lord, to the treserie of the sones of Eman, sone of Godolie, the man of God; which treserie was bisidis the treserie of princes, aboue the tresour of Maasie, sone of Sellum, that was kepere of the vestiariie. 5 And Y settide bfore the sones of the hous of Recabitis pecis, and grete cowpis ful of wyn; and Y seide to hem, Drinke ye wyn. 6 And thei answeriden, We schulen not drinke wyn; for whi Jonadab, oure fadir, the sone of Recab, comaundide to vs, and seide, Ye schulen not drinke wyn, ye and youre sones, `til in to withouten ende; 7 and ye schulen not bilde an hous, and ye schulen not sowe seed, and ye schulen not plaunte vynes, nether schulen haue, but ye schulen dwelle in tabernaclis in alle youre daies, that ye lyue many daies on the face of erthe, in which ye goen in pilgrimage. 8 Therfor we obeieden to the vois of Jonadab, oure fadir, the sone of Recab, in alle thingis whiche he comaundide to vs; so that we drunken not wyn in alle oure dayes, we, and oure wymmen, oure sones, and douytris; 9 and we bildiden not housis to dwelle, and we hadden not a vyner, and a feeld, and seed; 10 but we dwelliden in tabernaclis, and weren obeiyng, and diden bi alle thingis, whiche Jonadab, oure fadir, comaundide to vs. 11 But whanne Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, hadde stied to this lond, we seiden, Come ye, and entre we in to Jerusalem, fro the face of the oost of Caldeis, and fro the face of the oost of Sirie; and we dwelliden in Jerusalem. 12 And the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, 13 and seide, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Go thou, and seie to the men of Juda, and to the dwelleris of Jerusalem, Whether ye schulen not take techyng, that ye obeie to my wordis, seith the Lord? 14 The wordis of Jonadab, sone of Rechab, hadden the maistrie, whiche he comaundide to hise sones, that thei schulden not drynke wyn; and thei drynken not, `til to this dai; for thei obeieden to the comaundement of her fadir; but Y spak to you, and Y roos ful eerli, and spake, and ye obeieden not to me. 15 And Y sente to you alle my seruauntis profetis, and Y roos ful eerli, and Y sente, and seide, Be ye conuertid, ech man fro his worste weye, and make ye good youre studies, and nyle ye sue alien goddis, nether worschipe ye hem, and ye schulen dwelle in the lond, which Y yaf to you, and to youre fadris; and ye bowiden not youre eere, nether herden me. 16 Therfor the sones of Jonadab, sone of Recab, maden stidfast the comaundement of her fadir, which he comaundide to hem; but this puple obeiede not to me. 17 Therfor the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bringe on Juda, and on alle the dwelleris of Jerusalem, al the turment which Y spak ayens hem; for Y spak to hem, and thei herden not; Y clepide hem, and thei answeriden not to me. 18 Forsothe Jeremye seide to the hous of Recabitis, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, For that that ye obeieden to the comaundement of Jonadab, youre fadir, and kepten alle hise comaundementis, and diden alle thingis, whiche he comaundide to you; 19 therfor the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, A man of the generacioun of Jonadab, sone of Recab, schal not faile stondynge in my siyt in alle daies.

36 And it was don, in the fourthe yeer of Joachym, sone of Josie, kyng of Juda, this word was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, and seide, 2 Take thou the volym of a book, and thou schalt write thereynne alle the wordis, whiche Y spake to thee ayens Israel and Juda, and ayens alle folkis, fro the dai in whiche Y spak to thee, fro the daies of Josie `til to this dai. 3 If peraventure whanne the hous of Juda herith alle the yuels whiche Y thenke to do to hem, ech man turne ayen fro his worste weye, and Y schal be merciful to the wickidnesse and synne of hem. 4 Therfor Jeremye clepide Baruk, the sone of Nerye; and Baruk wroot of the mouth of Jeremye in the volym of a book alle the wordis of the Lord, whiche he spak to hym. 5 And Jeremye comaundide to Baruk, and seide, Y am closid, and Y may not entre in to the hous of the Lord. 6 Therfor entre thou, and rede of the book, in which thou hast write of my mouth the wordis of the Lord, in hering of the puple, in the hous of the Lord, in the dai of fastyng; ferthermore and in heryng of al Juda, that comen fro her citees, thou schalt rede to hem; 7 if peraventure the preier of hem falle in the siyt of the Lord, and eche man turne ayen fro his worste weie; for whi the strong veniaunce and indignacioun is greet, which the Lord spak ayens this puple. 8 And Baruk, the sone of Nerie, dide aftir alle thingis, which Jeremye, the prophete, comaundide to hym; and he redde of the book the wordis of the Lord, in the hous of the Lord. 9 Forsothe it was doon, in the fyueyth yeer of Joachym, sone of Josie, kyng of Juda, in the nynthe monethe, thei prechiden fastynge in the siyt of the Lord, to al the puple in Jerusalem, and to al the multitude, that cam togidere fro the citees of Juda in to Jerusalem. 10 And Baruc redde of the volym the wordis of Jeremye, in the hous of the Lord, in the treserie of Gamarie, sone of Saphan, scryuen, in the hiyere porche, in the entring of the newe yate of the hous of the Lord, in audience of al the puple. 11 And whanne Mychie, the sone of Gamarie, sone of Saphan, hadde herd alle the wordis of the Lord, 12 of the book, he yede doun in to the hous of the kyng, to the treserye of the scryuen. And lo! alle the princes saten there, Elisama, the scryuen, and Dalaie, the sone of Semeye, and Elnathan, the sone of Achabor, and Gamarie, the sone of Saphan, and Sedechie, the sone of Ananye, and alle princes. 13 And Mychee telde to hem alle the wordis, whiche he herde Baruc redynge of the book, in the eeris of the puple. 14 Therfor alle the princes senten to Baruc Judi, the sone of Nathathie, sone of Selemye, sone of Chusi, and seiden, Take in thin hond the book, of which thou reddist in audience of the puple, and come thou. Therfor Baruc, the sone of Nereie, took the book in his hoond, and cam to hem. 15 And thei seiden to hym, Sitte thou, and rede these thingis in oure eeris; and Baruc redde in the eeris of hem. 16 Therfor whanne thei hadden herd alle the wordis, thei wondriden ech man to his neiybore, and thei seiden to Baruc, Owen we to telle to the kyng alle these wordis? 17 And thei axiden hym, and seiden, Schewe thou to vs, hou thou hast write alle these wordis of his mouth. 18 Forsothe Baruc seide to hem, Of his mouth he spak, as redynge to me, alle these wordis; and Y wroot in a book with enke. 19 And alle the princes seiden to Baruc, Go, be thou hid, thou and Jeremye; and no man wite where ye ben. 20 And thei entriden to the kyng, in to the halle; forsothe thei bitoken the book to be kept in to the treserie of Elisame, the scryuen. And thei telden alle the wordis, in audience of the kyng. 21 Therfor the kyng sente Judi, that he schulde take the book. Which took the book fro the treserie of Elysame, the scryuen, and redde in audience of the kyng, and of alle the princes, that stoden aboute the kyng. 22 Forsothe the kyng sat in the wyntir hous, in the nynthe monethe; and a panne ful of coolis was set bifore hym. 23 And whanne Judi hadde red thre pagyns, ethir foure, he kittide it with the knyf of a scryueyn, and castide in to the fier, `that was in the panne, til al the book was wastid bi the fier, that was on the panne. 24 And the kyng and alle hise seruauntis, that herden alle these wordis, dredden not, nethir to-renten her clothis. 25 Netheles Elnathan, and Dalaie, and Gamarie ayenseiden the kyng, that he schulde not brenne the book; and he herde not hem. 26 And the kyng comaundide to Jeremyel, sone of Amalech, and to Saraie, sone of Esreel, and to Selemye, sone of Abdehel, that thei schulden take Baruc, the writer, and Jeremye, the profete; forsothe the Lord hidde hem. 27 And the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, the profete, afir that the kyng hadde brent the book and wordis, whiche Baruc hadde write of Jeremyes mouth; 28 and he seid, Eft take thou another book, and write therynne alle the former wordis, that weren in the firste book, which Joachym, the kyng of Juda, brente. 29 And thou schalt seie to Joachym, kyng of Juda, The Lord seith these thingis, Thou brentist that book, and seidist, What hast thou write therynne, tellynge, The kyng of Babiloyne schal come hastyng, and schal distrie this lond, and schal make man and beeste to ceeesse therof? 30 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis ayens Joachym, king of Juda, Noon schal be of hym, that schal sitte on the seete of Dauid; and his careyn schal be cast forth to the heete bi dai, and to the forst bi niyt. 31 And Y schal visite ayens hym, and ayens his seed, and ayens hise seruauntis, her wickidnessis. And Y schal bryng on hem, and on the dwelleris of Jerusalem, and on the men of Juda, al the yuel which Y spak to hem, and thei herden not. 32 Forsothe Jeremye took an other book, and yaf it to Baruc, the writer, the sone of Nerie, which wroot therynne of Jeremyes mouth alle the wordis of the book, which book Joachym, the kyng of Juda, hadde brent bi fier; and ferthermore many mo wordis weren addid than weren bfore.

37 And kyng Sedechie, the sone of Josie, regnede for Jeconye, the sone of Joachym, whom Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, made kyng in the lond of Juda. 2 And he, and hise seruauntis, and his puple obeiden not to the wordis of the Lord, whiche he spak in the hond of Jeremye, the profete. 3 And kyng Sedechie sente Jothal, the sone of Selemye, and Sofonye, the preest, the sone of Maasie, to Jeremye, the profete, and seide, Preie thou for vs oure Lord God. 4 Forsothe Jeremye yede freli in the myddis of the puple; for thei hadden not sente hym in to the kepyng of the prisoun. 5 Therfor the oost of Farao yede out of Egypt, and Caldeis, that bisegiden Jerusalem, herden sich a message, and yeden awei fro Jerusalem. 6 And the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, the profete, 7 and seide, The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, Thus ye schulen seie to the kyng of Juda, that sente you to axe me, Lo! the oost of Farao, which yede out to you in to help, schal turne ayen in to his lond, in to Egypt. 8 And Caldeis schulen come ayen, and schulen fiyte ayens this citee, and schulen take it, and schulen brenne it bi fier. 9 The Lord seith these thingis, Nyle ye disseyue youre soulis, seiynge, Caldeis goynge schulen go a wey, and schulen departe fro vs; for thei schulen not go a wei. 10 But thouy ye sleen al the oost of Caldeis, that fytten ayens you, and summe woundid men of hem be left, ech man schal rise fro his tente, and thei schulen brenne this citee bi fier. 11 Therfor whanne the oost of Caldeis hadde goon awei fro Jerusalem, for the oost of Farao, Jeremye yede out of Jerusalem, 12 to go in to the lond of Beniamyn, and to departe there the possessioun in the siyt of citeseyns.

13 And whanne he was comun to the yate of Beniamyn, ther was a kepere of the yate bi whiles, Jerie bi name, the sone of Selemye, sone of Ananye; and he took Jeremye, the prophete, and seide, Thou fleest to Caldeis. 14 And Jeremye answeride, It is fals; Y fle not to Caldeis. And he herde not Jeremye, but Jerie took Jeremye, and brouyte hym to the princes. 15 Wherfor the princes weren wrooth ayens Jeremye, and beeten hym, and senten hym in to the prisoun, that was in the hous of Jonathas, the scryuen; for he was souereyn on the prisoun. 16 Therfor Jeremye entride in to the hous of the lake, and in to the prisoun of trauel; and Jeremye sat there manye daies. 17 Therfor kyng Sedechie sente, and took hym a wei, and axide hym priuyli in his hous, and seide, Gessist thou, whether a word is of the Lord? And Jeremye seide, Ther is. And Jeremye seide, Thou schalt be bitakun in to the hond of the kyng of Babiloyne. 18 And Jeremye seide to Sedechie, the kyng, What haue Y synned to thee, and to thi seruauntis, and to thi puple, for thou hast sent me in to the hous of prisoun? 19 Where ben youre profetis, that profesieden to you, and seiden, The king of Babiloyne schal not come on you, and on this lond? 20 Now therfor, my lord the kyng, Y biseche, here thou, my preier be worth in thi siyt, and sende thou not me ayen in to the hous of Jonathas, the scryuen, lest Y die there. 21 Therfor Sedechie comaundide, that Jeremye schulde be bitakun in to the porche of the prisoun, and that a cake of breed schulde be youun to hym ech dai, outakun seew, til alle looues of the citee weren wastid; and Jeremye dwellide in the porche of the prisoun.

38 Forsothe Safacie, sone of Nathan, and Jedelie, sone of Fassur, and Jothal, sone of Selemye, and Fassour, sone of Melchie, herden the wordis whiche Jeremye spak to al the puple, 2 and seide, The Lord seith these thingis, Who euer dwellith in this citee, schal die bi swerd, and hungur, and pestilence; but he that flieth to Caldeis, shal lyue, and his soule schal be hool and lyuynge. 3 The Lord seith these thingis, This citee to be bitakun schal be bitakun in to the hond of the oost of the kyng of Babiloyne, and he schal take it. 4 And the princes seiden to the kyng, We preien, that this man be slayn; for of bifore castyng he discoumfortith the hondis of men werriours, that dwelliden in this citee, and the hondis of al the puple, and spekith to hem bi alle these wordis. For whi this man sekith not pees to this puple, but yuel. 5 And kyng Sedechie seide, Lo! he is in youre hondis, for it is not leueful that the kyng denye ony thing to you.
6 Therfor thei token Jeremye, and castiden hym down in to the lake of Elchie, sone of Amalech, which was in the porche of the prisoun; and thei senten down Jeremye bi cordis in to the lake, wherynne was no watir, but fen; therfor Jeremye yede down in to the filthe. 7 Forsothe Abdemalech Ethiopien, a chast man and oneste, herde, that was in the kyngis hous, that thei hadden sent Jeremye in to the lake; sotheli the king sat in the yate of Beniamyn. 8 And Abdemalech yede out of the kyngis hous, and spak to the kyng, 9 and seide, My lord the kyng, these men diden yuele alle thingis, what euer thingis thei diden ayens Jeremye, the profete, sendynge hym in to the lake, that he die there for hungur; for whi looues ben no more in the citee. 10 Therfor the kyng comaundide to Abdemelech Ethiopien, and seide, Take with thee thretti men fro hennus, and reise thou Jeremye, the profete, fro the lake, bifer that he die. 11 Therfor whanne Abdemelech hadde take men with hym, he entride in to the hous of the kyng, that was vndur the celer; and he took fro thennus elde clothis, and elde ragges, that weren rotun; and he sente tho down to Jeremye, in to the lake, bi cordis. 12 And Abdemelech Ethiopien seide to Jeremye, Putte thou elde clothis, and these to-rent and rotun thingis vndur the cubit of thin hondis, and on the cordis. Therfor Jeremye dide so. 13 And thei drowen out Jeremye with cordis, and ledden hym out of the lake. Forsothe Jeremye dwellide in the porche of the prisoun. 14 And kyng Sedechie sente, and took hym Jeremye, the profete, at the thridde dore that was in the hous of the Lord. And the kyng seide to Jeremye, Y axe of thee a word; hide thou not ony thing fro me. 15 Forsothe Jeremye seide to Sedechie, If Y telle to thee, whether thou schalt not sle me? And if Y yyue counsel to thee, thou schalt not here me. 16 Therfor Sedechie the king swoor to Jeremye priueli, and seide, The Lord lyueth, that maad to vs this soule, Y schal not sle thee, and Y schal not bitake thee in to the hondis of these men, that seken thi lijf. 17 And Jeremye seide to Sedechie, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, If thou goest forth, and goest out to the princes of the kyng of Babiloyne, thi soule schal lyue, and this citee schal not be brent with fier, and thou schalt be saaf, thou and thin hous.

18 Forsothe if thou goest not out to the princes of the kyng of Babiloyne, this citee schal be bitakun in to the hondis of Caldeis; and thei schulen brenne it with fier, and thou schalt not ascape fro the hond of hem. 19 And kyng Sedechie seide to Jeremye, Y am angwischid for the Jewis that fledden ouer to Caldeis, lest perauenture Y be bitakun in to the hondis of hem, and thei scorne me. 20 Forsothe Jeremye answeride, and seide to hym, Thei schulen not bitake thee; Y biseche, here thou the vois of the Lord, which Y schal speke to thee, and it schal be wel to thee, and thi soule schal lyue. 21 That if thou wolt not go out, this is the word which the Lord schewide to me, Lo! 22 alle the wymmen, that weren left in the hous of the kyng of Juda, schulen be led out to the princes of the kyng of Babiloyne; and tho wymmen schulen seie, Thi pesible men disseyueden thee, and hadden the maistrye ayens thee; thei drenchiden thee in filthe, and thi feet in slidirnesse, and yeden awei fro thee. 23 And alle thi wyues and thi sonnes schulen be led out to Caldeis, and thou schalt not ascape the hondis of hem; but thou schalt be bitakun in to the hondis of the kyng of Babiloyne, and he schal brenne this citee bi fier. 24 Therfore Sedechie seide to Jeremye, No man wite these wordis, and thou schalt not die. 25 Sotheli if the princes heren, that Y spak with thee, and comen to thee, and seien to thee, Schewe thou to vs what thou spakest with the kyng, hide thou not fro vs, and we schulen not sle thee; and what the kyng spak with thee, 26 thou schalt seie to hem, Knelyngli Y puttide forth my preiris bifore the kyng, that he schulde not comaunde me to be led ayen in to the hous of Jonathan, and Y schulde die there. 27 Therfor alle the princes camen to Jeremye, and axiden hym; and he spak to hem bi alle the wordis whiche whiche he sente me to you. 22 Now therfor ye witynge schulen wite, for ye schulen die bi swerd, and hungur, and pestilence, in the place to which ye wolden entre, to dwelle there.

43 Forsothe it was don, whanne Jeremye spekinge to the puple hadde fillid alle the wordis of the Lord God of hem, for whiche the Lord God of hem sente hym to hem, alle these wordis, 2 Azarie, the sone of Josie, seide, and Johanna, the sone of Caree, and alle proude men, seiynge to Jeremye, Thou spekist a leesyng; oure Lord God sente not thee, and seide, Entre ye not in to Egipt, to dwelle there; 3 but Baruc, the sone of Nerie, stirith thee ayens vs, that he bitake vs in the hondis of Caldeis, that he sle vs, and make to be led ouer in to Babiloyne. 4 And Johanna, the sone of Caree, and alle the princes of werriours, and al the puple, herden not the vois of the Lord, that thei dwellen in the lond of Juda. 5 But Johanna, the sone of Caree, and alle the princes of werriours, token alle of the remenauntis of Juda, that turneden ayen fro alle folkis, to whiche thei weren scatered bifore, that thei schulden dwelle in the lond of Juda; 6 thei token men, and wymmen, and litle children, and the douytris of the kyng, and ech persoone, whom Nabusardan, the prince of chyualrie, hadde left with Godolie, the sone of Aicham, sone of Saphan. And thei token Jeremye, the profete, and Baruc, the sone of Nerie, 7 and thei entriden in to the lond of Egipt; for thei obeieden not to the vois of the Lord, and thei camen `til to Taphnys. 8 And the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye in Taphnys, 9 and seide, Take in thin hond grete stoonys, and hide thou tho in a denne, which is vndur the wal of tiil stoon, in the yate of the hous of Farao, in Taphnys, while alle Jewis seen. 10 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal sende, and Y schal take Nabugodonosor, my seruaunt, the kyng of Babiloyne; and Y schal sette his trone on these stoonys, whiche Y hidde; and he schal sette his seete on tho stoonys. 11 And he schal come, and smyte the lond of Egipt, whiche in deth in to deth, and whiche in caitiftee in to caitiftee, and whiche in swerd in to swerd. 12 And he schal kindle fier in the templis of goddis of Egipt, and he schal brenne tho templis, and schal lede hem prisoneris; and the lond of Egipt schal be wlappid, as a scheep herd is wlappid in his mentil; and he schal go out fro thennus in pees. 13 And he schal al to-breke the ymagis of the hous of the sunne, that ben in the lond of Egipt; and he schal brenne in fier the templis of the goddis of Egipt.

wastnesse, bi this dai. 7 And now the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Whi doon ye this greet yuel ayens youre soulis, that a man of you perische and a womman a litil child and soukyng perische, fro the myddis of Juda, nether ony residue thing be left in you, 8 that terre me to wraththe bi the werkis of youre hondis, in makynge sacrifice to alien goddis in the lond of Egipt, in to which ye entriden, that ye dwelle there, and that ye perische, and be in to cursyng, and in to schenscipe to alle the folkis of erthe? 9 Whether ye han foryete the yuels of youre fadris, and the yuels of the kingis of Juda, and the yuels of her wiues, and youre yuels, and the yuels of youre wyues, whiche thei diden in the lond of Juda, and in the cuntreis of Jerusalem? 10 Thei ben not clensid `til to this dai, and thei dredden not, and thei yeden not in the lawe of the Lord, and in myn heestis, whiche Y yaf bfore you, and bfore youre fadris. 11 Therfor the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal sette my face in you in to yuel, 12 and Y schal leese al Juda, and Y schal take the remenauntis of Juda, that settiden her faces, to go in to the lond of Egipt, and to dwelle there; and alle schulen be waastid in the lond of Egipt, thei schulen falle doun bi swerd, and schulen be wastid in hungur, fro the leeste `til to the mooste, thei schulen die bi swerd and hungur, and schulen be in to swering, and in to myracle, and in to cursyng, and in to schenscipe. 13 And Y schal visite on the dwelleris of Egipt, as Y visitide on Jerusalem, in swerd, and in hungur, and in pestilence. 14 And noon schal be, that schal ascape, and be residue of the remenauntis of Jewis, that goen to be pilgrimys in the lond of Egipt, and to turne ayen to the lond of Juda, to which thei reisen her soulis, that thei turne ayen, and dwelle there;

 oure Lord God, 17 but we doyng schulen do ech word that schal go out of oure mouth, that we make sacrifice to the queen of heuene, and that we offre to it moist sacrifices, as we diden, and oure fadris, oure kingis, and oure princes, in the citees of Juda, and in the stretis of Jerusalem; and we weren fillid with looues, and it was wel to vs, and we sien noon yuel. 18 But fro that tyme, in which we ceessiden to make sacrifice to the queen of heuene, and to offre to it moist sacrifices, we hadden nede to alle thingis, and we weren wastid bi swerd and hungur. 19 That if we maken sacrifice to the queen of heuene, and offren to it moist sacrifices, whether withouten oure hosebondis we maden to it cakis, to worschipe it, and looues to be offrid? 20 And Jeremye seide to al the puple, ayens the men, and ayens the wymmen, and ayens al the puple, that answeriden to hym the word, and he seide, 21 Whether not the sacrifice which ye sacrificiden in the citees of Juda, and in the stretis of Jerusalem, ye, and youre fadris, youre kyngis, and youre princes, and the puple of the lond, terriden God to veniaunce? The Lord hadde mynde on these thingis, and it stiede on his herte; 22 and the Lord myyte no more bere, for the malice of youre studies, and for abhomynaciouns whiche ye diden. And youre lond is maad in to desolacioun, and in to wondryng, and in to curs, for no dwellere is, as this dai is. 23 Therfor for ye maden sacrifice to 33 Ful out ioye and gladnesse is takun awei fro Carmele, and fro

 And Moab schal be in to scorn, and in to ensauple to alle men

If the litle of the floc caste not hem doun, if thei distrien

Emath is schent, and Arphath, for thei herden a ful wickid heryng; thei weren disturblid in the see, for angwisch thei miyten not haue reste. 24 Damask was discourmortid, it was turned in to fliyt; tremblyng took it, angwischis and sorewis helden it, as a womman trauelynge of child. 25 How forsoken thei a preisable citee, the citee of gladnesse? 26 Therfor the yonge men therof schulen falle in the stretis therof, and alle men of batel schulen be stille in that dai, seith the Lord of oostis. 27 And Y schal kyndle fier in the wal of Damask, and it schal deuoure the bilyngis of Benadab. 28 To Cedar, and to the rewme of Azor, which Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, smoot, the Lord seith these thingis. Al the puple therof was weilinge and sekynge breed, thei yauen alle preciose thingis for mete, to coumforte the soule; se thou, Lord, and biholde, for Y am maad vijl. 12 Lameth. A! alle ye that passen bi the weie, perseyue, and se, if ony sorewe is as my sorewe; for he gaderide awei grapis fro me, as the Lord spak in the day of wraththe of his strong veniaunce. 13 Men. Fro an hiy he sente fier in my boonys, and tauyte me; he spredde a brood a net to my feet, he turnede me a bak; he settide me desolat, meddlid togidere al dai with mourenyng. 14 Nun. The yok of my wickidnessis wakide in the hond of hym, tho ben foldid togidere, and put on my necke; my vertu is maad feble; the Lord yaf me in the hond, fro which Y schal not mowe rise. 15 Sameth. The Lord took awei alle my worschipful men fro the myddis of me; he clepide tyme ayens me, that he schulde al to-foule my chosun men; the Lord stampide a pressour to the virgyn, the douytir of Juda. 16 Ayn. Therfor Y am wepynge, and myn iye is ledynge doun watir; for a coumfortour, conuertynge my soule, is maad fer fro me; my sonnes ben maad lost, for the enemye hadde the maistrie. 17 Phe. Sion spredde a brood hise hondis, noon is that coumfortith it; the Lord sente ayenus Jacob enemyes therof, in the cumpas therof; Jerusalem is maad as defoulid with vncleene blood among hem. 18 Sade. The Lord is iust, for Y terride his mouth to wrathfulnesse; alle puplis, Y biseche, here ye, and se my sorewe; my virgyns and my yonge men yeden forth in to caitiftee. 19 Coth. I clepide my frendis, and thei disseyueden me; my prestis and myn elde men in the citee ben wastid; for thei souyten mete to hem silf, to coumforte hir lijf. 20 Res. Se thou, Lord, for Y am troblid, my wombe is disturblid; myn herte is distried in my silf, for Y am ful of bittirnesse; swerd sleeth with outforth, and lijk deth is at hoome. 21 Syn. Thei herden, that Y make ynward weilyng, and noon is that coumfortith me; alle myn enemyes herden myn yuel, thei ben glad, for thou hast do; thou hast brouyt a dai of coumfort, and thei schulen be maad lijk me. 22 Tau. Al the yuel of hem entre byfore thee, and gadere thou grapis awei fro hem, as thou hast gaderid grapis awei fro me; for my wickidnessis, for my weilyngis ben manye, and myn herte is mornynge.

2 Aleph. Hou hath the Lord hilid the douyter of Sion with derknesse in his strong veniaunce? he hath caste doun fro heuene in to erthe the noble citee of Israel; and bithouyte not on the stool of hise feet, in the dai of his strong veniaunce. 2 Beth. The Lord castide doun, and sparide not alle the faire thingis of Jacob; he distried in his strong veniaunce the strengthis of the virgyn of Juda, and castide doun in to erthe; he defoulide the rewme, and the princes therof. 3 Gymel. He brak in the ire of his strong veniaunce al the horn of Israel; he turnede a bak his riyt hond fro the face of the enemy; and he kyndlide in Jacob, as fier of flawme deuowrynge in cumpas. 4 Deleth. He as an enemye bente his bouwe, he as an aduersarie made stidfast his riyt hond; and he killide al thing that was fair in siyt in the tabernacle of the douytir of Sion; he schedde out his indignacioun as fier. 5 He. The Lord is maad as an enemy; he castide doun Israel, he castide doun alle the wallis therof; he destriede the strengthis therof, and fillide in the douyter of Juda a man maad low, and a womman maad low. 6 Vau. And he scateride his tent as a gardyn, he distried his tabernacle; the Lord yaf to foryetyng in Sion a feeste dai, and sabat; and the kyng and prest in to schenschiþe, and in to the indignacioun of his strong veniaunce.

7 Zai. The Lord puttide awei his auter, he curside his halewyng; he bitook in to the hondis of enemy the wallis of the touris therof; thei yauen vois in the hous of the Lord, as in a solempne dai. 8 Heth. The Lord thouyte to distrie the wal of the douyter of Sion; he stretchide forth his coorde, and turnede not awei his hond fro perdicoun; the forwal, ether the outerward, mourenyde, and the wal was distried togidere. 9 Teth. The yatis therof ben piyt in the erthe, he loste and al to-brak the barris therof; the kyng therof and the princes therof among hethene men; the lawe is not, and the profetis therof founden not of the Lord a visioun. 10 Joth. Thei saten in erthe, the elde men of the douytir of Sion weren stille; thei bispreynten her heedis with aische, the eldere men of Juda ben girt with hairis; the virgyns of Juda castiden down to erthe her heedis. 11 Caph. Myn iyen failiden for teeris, myn entrails weren disturblid; my mawe was sched out in erthe on the sorewe of the douyter of my puple; whanne a litil child and soukyngge failide in the stretis of the citee. 12 Lameth. Thei seiden to her modris, Where is wheete, and wyn? whanne thei failiden as woundid men in the stretis of the citee; whanne thei senten out her soulis in the bosum of her modris. 13 Men. To whom schal Y comparisoun thee? ether to whom schal Y licne thee, thou douyter of Jerusalem? to whom schal Y make thee euene, and schal Y coumforte thee, thou virgyn, the douyter of Sion? for whi thi sorewe is greet as the see; who schal do medicyn to thee?

14 Nun. Thi profetis sien to thee false thingis, and fonned; and openyden not thi wickidnesse, that thei schulden stire thee to penaunce; but thei sien to thee false takyngis, and castyngis out.

15 Sameth. Alle men passyng on the weie flappiden with hondis on thee; thei hissiden, and mouyden her heed on the douyter of Jerusalem; and seiden, This is the citee of perfit fairnesse, the ioie of al erthe. 16 Ayn. Alle thin enemyes openyden her mouth on thee; thei hissiden, and gnaistiden with her teeth, and seiden, We schulen deuoure; lo! this is the dai which we abididen, we founden, we sien. 17 Phe. The Lord dide tho thingis whiche he thouyhte, he fillide hise word which he hadde comaundid fro elde daies; he distriede, and sparide not; and made glad the enemy on thee, and enhaunsid the horn of thin enemyes. 18 Sade. The herte of hem criede to the Lord, on the wallis of the douyter of Syon; leede thou forth teeris as a stronde, bi dai and niyt; yyue thou not reste to thee, nether the appil of thin iye be stille. 19 Coph. Rise thou togidere, herie thou in the nytyt, in the begynnyng of wakyngis; schede out thin herte as watir, bfore the siyt of the Lord; reise thin hondis to hym for the soulis of thi litle children, that failiden for hungur in the heed of alle meetyngis of weies. 20 Res. Se thou, Lord, and byholde, whom thou hast maad so bare; therfor whether wymmen schulen ete her fruyt, litle children at the mesure of an hond? for a prest and profete is slayn in the seyntuarie of the Lord. 21 Syn. A child and an elde man laien on the erthe withoutforth; my virgyns and my yonge men fellen doun bi swerd; thou hast slayn hem in the dai of thi strong veniaunce, thou smotist `and didist no merci. 22 Thau. Thou clepidist, as to a solempne dai, hem that maden me aferd of cumpas; and noon was that ascapide in the dai of the strong veniaunce of the Lord, and was left; myn enemy wastide hem, whiche Y fedde, and nurschide up.

3 Aleph. I am a man seyng my pouert in the yerde of his indignacioun. 2 Aleph. He droof me, and brouyte in to derknessis, and not in to liyt. 3 Aleph. Oneli he turnede in to me, and turnede togidere his hond al dai. 4 Beth. He made eld my skyn, and my fleisch; he al to-brak my boonys. 5 Beth. He bildid in my cumpas, and he cumpasside me with galle and trauel. 6 Beth. He settide me in derk places, as euerlastynge deed men. 7 Gymel. He bildide aboute ayens me, that Y go not out; he aggregide my gyues. 8 Gymel. But and whanne Y crie and preye, he hath excludid my preier. 9 Gymel. He closide togidere my weies with square stoonus; he distriede my pathis. 10 Deleth. He is maad a bere settinge aspies to me, a lioun in hid places. 11 Deleth. He distriede my pathis, and brak me; he settide me desolat. 12 Deleth. He bente his bowe, and settide me as a signe to an arowe. 13 He. He sente in my reynes the douytris of his arowe caas. 14 He. Y am maad in to scorn to al the puple, the song of hem al dai. 15 He. He fillide me with bitternesses; he gretli fillide me with wermod. 16 Vau. He brak at noumbre my teeth; he fedde me with aische. 17 Vau. And my soule is putte awei; Y haue foryete goodis. 18 Vau. And Y seide, Myn ende perischide, and myn hope fro the Lord. 19 Zai. Haue thou mynde on my pouert and goyng ouer, and on wermod and galle. 20 Zai. Bi mynde Y schal be myndeful; and my soule schal faile in me. 21 Zai. Y bithenkynge these thingis in myn herte, schal hope in God. 22 Heth. The mercies of the Lord ben manye, for we ben not wastid; for whi hise merciful doyngeis failiden not. 23 Heth. Y knew in the morewtid; thi feith is miche. 24 Heth. My soule seide, The Lord is my part; therfor Y schal abide hym. 25 Teth. The Lord is good to hem that hopen in to hym, to a soule sekyng hym. 26 Teth. It is good to abide with stilnesse the helthe of God. 27 Teth. It is good to a man, whanne he hath bore the yok fro his yongthe. 28 Joth. He schal sitte aloone, and he schal be stille; for he reside hym silf aboute hym silf. 29 Joth. He schal sette his mouth in dust, if peraventure hope is. 30 Joth. He schal yyue the cheke to a man that smytith hym; he schal be fillid with schenschipis. 31 Caph. For the Lord schal not putte awei with outen ende. 32 Caph. For if he castide awei, and he schal do merci bi the multitude of hise mercies. 33 Caph. For he makide not low of his herte; and castide not awei the sones of men. Lameth. 34 That he schulde al to-foule vndur hise feet alle the boundun men of erthe. Lameth. 35 That he schulde bowe doun the dom of man, in the siyt of the cheer of the hiyeste. 36 Lameth. That he schulde peruerte a man in his dom, the Lord knew not. 37 Men. Who is this that seide, that a thing schulde be don, whanne the Lord comaundide not? 38 Men. Nether goodis nether yuels schulen go out of the mouth of the hiyeste. 39 Men.

 What grutchide a man lyuyng, a man for hise synnes? 40 Nun.
 Serche we oure weies, and seke we, and turne we ayen to the Lord. 41 Nun. Reise we oure hertis with hondis, to the Lord in to heuenes. 42 Nun. We han do wickidli, and han terrid thee to wraththe; therfor thou art not able to be preied. 43 Sameth. Thou hilidist in stronge veniaunce, and smitidist vs; thou killidist, and sparidist not. 44 Sameth. Thou settidist a clowde to thee, that preier passe not. 45 Sameth. Thou settidist me, drawing vp bi the roote, and castyng out, in the myddis of puplis. 46 Ayn. Alle enemyes openyden her mouth on vs. 47 Ayn. Inward drede and snare is maad to vs, profesie and defoulyng. 48 Ayn. Myn iyen ledden doun departyngis of watris, for the defoulyng of the douyter of my puple. 49 Phe. Myn iye was turmentid, and was not stille; for no reste was. 50 Phe. Vntil the Lord bihelde, and siy fro heuenes. 51 Phe. Myn iye robbide my soule in alle the douytris of my citee. 52 Sade. Myn enemyes token me with out cause, bi huntyng as a brid. 53 Sade. My lijf slood in to a lake; and thei puttiden a stoon on me. 54 Sade. Watris flowiden ouer myn heed; Y seide, Y perischide. 55 Coph. Lord, Y clepide to help thi name, fro the laste lake. 56 Coph. Thou herdist my vois; turne thou not awei thin eere fro my sobbyng and cries. 57 Coph. Thou neiyidist to me in the dai, wherynne Y clepide thee to help; thou seidist, Drede thou not. 58 Res. Lord, ayenbiere of my lijf, thou demydist the cause of my soule. 59 Res. Lord, thou siest the wickidnesse of hem ayens me; deme thou my doom. 60 Res. Thou siest al the woodnesse, alle the thouytis of hem ayenus me. 61 Syn. Lord, thou herdist the schenshipis of hem; alle the thouytis of hem ayens me. 62 Syn. The lippis of men risynge ayens me, and the thouytis of hem ayens me al dai. 63 Syn. Se thou the sittynge and risyng ayen of hem; Y am the salm of hem. 64 Thau. Lord, thou schalt yelde while to hem, bi the werkis of her hondis. 65 Tau. Thou schalt yyue to hem the scheeld of herte, thi trauel. 66 Tau. Lord, thou schalt pursue hem in thi strong veniaunce, and thou schalt defoule hem vndur heuenes.

4 Aleph. How is gold maad derk, the beste colour is chaungid? the stonys of the seyntuarie ben scaterid in the heed of alle stretis. 2 Beth. The noble sones of Sion, and clothid with the best gold, hou ben thei arettid in to erthene vessels, in to the werk of the hondis of a pottere? 3 Gimel. But also lamyas maden nakid her tetis, yauen mylk to her whelpis; the douyter of my puple is cruel, as an ostrig in desert. 4 Deleth. The tonge of the soukyngne childe cleued to his palat in thirst; litle children axiden breed, and noon was that brak to hem. 5 He. Thei that eeten lustfuli, perischiden in weies; thei that weren nurschid in cradels, biclippiden toordis. 6 Vau. And the wickidnesse of the douyter of my puple is maad more than the synne of men of Sodom, that was distried in a moment, and hondis token not therynne.

7 Zai. Nazareis therof weren whitere than snow, schynyngere than mylk; rodier than elde yuer, fairere than safire. 8 Heth. The face of hem was maad blackere than coolis, and thei weren not knowun in stretis; the skyn cleuyde to her boonys, it driede, and was maad as a tre. 9 Teth. It was betere to men slayn with swerd, than to men slayn with hungur; for these men wexiden rotun, thei weren wastid of the bareynesse of erthe. 10 Joth. The hondis of merciful wymmen sethiden her children; thei weren maad the metis of tho wymmen in the sorewe of the douyter of my puple. 11 Caph. The Lord fillide his strong veniaunce, he schedde out the ire of his indignacioun; and the Lord kyndlide a fier in Sion, and it deuouride the foundementis therof. 12 Lamet.
 The kyngis of erthe, and alle dwelleris of the world bileueden not, that an aduersarie and enemy schulde entre bi the yatis of Jerusalem. 13 Men. For the synnes of the profetis therof, and for wickidnessis of preestis therof, that schedden out the blood of iust men in the myddis therof. 14 Nun. Blynde men erryden in stretis, thei weren defoulid in blood; and whanne thei miyten not go, thei helden her hemmes. 15 Samet. Thei crieden to hem, Departe awei, ye defoulide men, departe ye, go ye awei, nyle ye touche; forsothe thei chidden, and weren stirid; thei seiden among hethene men, God schal no more leie to, that he dwelle among hem. 16 Ayn. The face of the Lord departide hem, he schal no more leie to, that he biholde hem; thei weren not aschamed of the faces of preestis, nether thei hadden merci on eld men. 17 Phe. The while we stoden yit, oure iyen failiden to oure veyn help; whanne we bihelden ententif to a folc, that myyte not saue vs. 18 Sade. Oure steppis weren slidir in the weie of oure stretis; oure ende neiyede, oure daies weren fillid, for oure ende cam. 19 Coph. Oure pursueris weren swifter than the eglis of heuene; thei pursueden vs on hillis, thei settiden buschementis to vs in desert. 20 Res. The spirit of oure mouth, Crist the Lord, was takun in oure synnes; to whom we seiden, We schulen lyue in thi schadewe among hethene men. 21 Syn. Thou douyter of Edom, make ioie, and be glad, that dwellist in the lond of Hus; the cuppe schal come also to thee, thou schalt be maad drunkun, and schalt be maad bare. 22 Thau. Thou douyter of Sion, thi wickidnesse is fillid; he schal not adde more, that he make thee to passe ouer; thou douyter of Edom, he schal visite thi wickidnesse, he schal vnhile thi synnes.

5 Lord, haue thou mynde what bifelle to vs; se thou, and biholde oure schenscipe. 2 Oure eritage is turned to aliens, oure housis ben turned to straungers. 3 We ben maad fadirles children with out fadir; oure modris ben as widewis. 4 We drunken oure watir for monei, we bouyten oure trees for siluer. 5 We weren dryuun bi oure heedis, and reste was not youun to feynt men. 6 We yauen hond to Egipt, and to Assiriens, that we schulden be fillid with breed. 7 Oure fadris synneden, and ben not, and we baren the wickidnessis of hem. 8 Seruauntis weren lordis of vs, and noon was, that ayenbouyte fro the hond of hem. 9 In oure lyues we brouyten breed to vs, fro the face of swerd in desert. 10 Oure skynne is brent as a furneis, of the face of tempestis of hungur. 11 Thei maden low wymmen in Sion, and virgyns in the citees of Juda. 12 Princes weren hangid bi the hond; thei weren not aschamed of the faces of elde men. 13 Thei mysusiden yonge wexynge men vnchastli, and children fellen down in tree. 14 Elde men failiden fro yatis; yonge men failiden of the queer of singeris. 15 The ioie of oure herte failide; oure song is turned in to mourenyng. 16 The coroun of oure heed fellen down; wo to vs! for we synned. 17 Therfor oure herte is maad soreeful, therfor oure iyen ben maad derk. 18 For the hil of Sion, for it perischide; foxis yeden in it. 19 But thou, Lord, schal dwelle with outen ende; thi seete schal dwelle in generacioun and in to generacioun. 20 Whi schalt thou foryete vs with outen ende, schalt thou forsake vs in to lengthe of daies? 21 Lord, conuerte thou vs to thee, and we schal be conuertid; make thou newe oure daies, as at the bigynnyng. 22 But thou castynge awei hast cast awei vs; thou art wrooth ayens vs greetli.

Ezekiel

1 And it was don, in the thritithe yeer, in the fourthe monethe, in the fyuethe dai of the moneth, whanne Y was in the myddis of caitifs, bisidis the flood Chobar, heuenes weren openyd, and Y siy the reuelaciouns of God. 2 In the fyuethe dai of the monethe; thilke is the fyuethe yeer of passing ouer of Joachym, kyng of Juda; 3 the word of the Lord was maad to Ezechiel, preest, the sone of Busi, in the lond of Caldeis, bisidis the flood Chobar; and the hond of the Lord was maad there on hym. 4 And Y siy, and lo! a whirlewynd cam fro the north, and a greet cloude, and fier wlappyng in, and briytnesse in the cumpas therof; and as the licnesse of electre fro the myddis therof, that is, fro the myddis of the fier. 5 And of myddis therof was a licnesse of foure beestis. And this was the biholdyng of tho, the licnesse of a man in tho. 6 And foure faces weren to oon, and foure wyngis weren to oon. 7 And the feet of tho weren streiyt feet, and the soole of the foote of tho was as the soole of a foot of a calf, and sparclis, as the biholdyng of buylyng bras. 8 And the hondis of a man weren vndur the wyngis of tho, in foure partis. And tho hadden faces and wyngis bi foure partis; 9 and the wyngis of tho weren ioyned togidir of oon to another. Tho turneden not ayen, whanne tho yeden, but eche yede bifore his face. 10 Forsothe the licnesse of the face of tho was the face of a man and the face of a lioun at the riythalf of tho foure. Forsothe the face of an oxe was at the left half of tho foure; and the face of an egle was aboue tho foure. 11 And the faces of tho and the wengis of tho weren stretchid forth aboue. Twei wyngis of eche weren ioyned togidere, and tweyne hiliden the bodies of tho. 12 And ech of tho yede bifore his face. Where the fersnesse of the wynd was, thidur tho yeden, and turneden not ayen, whanne tho yeden. 13 And the licesse of the beestis, and the biholdyng of tho, was as of brennyng coolis of fier, and as the biholdyng of laumpis. This was the siyt rennyng aboute in the myddis of beestis, the schynyng of fier, and leit goyng out of the fier. 14 And the beestis yeden, and turneden ayen at the licesse of leit schynyng. 15 And whanne Y bihelde the beestis, o wheel, hauyng foure faces, apperide on the erthe, bisidis the beestis. 16 And the biholdyng of the wheelis and the werk of tho was as the siyt of the see; and o licesse was of tho foure; and the biholdyng and the werkis of tho, as if a wheel be in the myddis of a wheel. 17 Tho goyng yeden bi foure partis of tho, and turneden not ayen, whanne tho yeden. 18 Also stature, and hiynesse, and orible biholdyng was to the wheelis; and al the bodi was ful of iyen in the cumpas of tho foure. 19 And whanne the beestis yeden, the wheelis also yeden togidere bisidis tho. And whanne the beestis weren reisid fro the erthe, the wheelis also weren reisid togidere. 20 Whidur euere the spirit yede, whanne the spirit yede thedur, also the wheelis suyng it weren reisid togidere; for whi the spirit of lijf was in the wheelis. 21 Tho yeden with the beestis goyng, and tho stoden with the beestis stondyng. And with the beestis reisid fro erthe, also the wheelis suyng tho beestis weren reisid togidere; for the spirit of lijf was in the wheelis. 22 And the licesse of the firmament was aboute the heed of the beestis, and as the biholdyng of orible cristal, and stretchid abroad on the heed of tho beestis aboute. 23 Forsothe vndur the firmament the wyngis of tho beestis weren streiyt, of oon to anothir; ech beeste hilide his bodi with twei wyngis, and an other was hilid in lijk maner. 24 And Y herde the sown of wyngis, as the sown of many watris, as the sown of hiy God. Whanne tho yeden, ther was as a sown of multitude, as the sown of oostis of batel; and whanne tho stoden, the wyngis of tho weren late doun. 25 For whi whanne a vois was maad on the firmament, that was on the heed of tho, tho stoden, and leten doun her wyngis. 26 And on the firmament, that was aboue the heed of tho, was as the biholdyng of a saphire stoon, the licesse of a trone; and on the licesse of the trone was a licesse, as the biholdyng of a man aboue. 27 And Y siy as a licesse of electre, as the biholding of fier with ynne, bi the cumpas therof; fro the lendis of hym and aboue, and fro the lendis of him til to bynethe, Y siy as the licesse of fier schynyng in cumpas, 28 as the biholdyng of the reynbowe, whanne it is in the cloude in the dai of reyn. This was the biholdyng of schynyng bi cumpas. This was a siyt of the licesse of the glorie of the Lord. And Y siy, and felle doun on my face; and Y herde the vois of a spekere.

2 And he seide to me, Thou, sone of man, stonde on thi feet, and Y schal speke with thee. 2 And the spirit entride in to me, after that he spak to me, and settide me on my feet. And Y herde oon spekyng to me, 3 and seiynge, Sone of man, Y sende thee to the sones of Israel, to folkis apostatas, `ether goynge a bak fro feith, that yeden awei fro me; the fadris of hem braken my couenaunt til to this dai. 4 And the sones ben of hard face, and of vnchastisable herte, to whiche Y sende thee. And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis; 5 if perauenture nameli thei heren, and if perauenture thei resten, for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. And thei schulen wite, that a profete is in the myddis of hem. 6 Therefore thou, sone of man, drede not hem, nether drede thou the wordis of hem; for vnbileueful men and distrieris ben with thee, and thou dwellist with scorpious.

Drede thou not the wordis of hem, and drede thou not the faces of hem, for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. 7 Therfor thou schalt speke my wordis to hem, if perauenture thei heren, and resten, for thei ben terroris to wraththe. 8 But thou, sone of man, here what euer thingis Y schal speke to thee; and nyle thou be a terrere to wraththe, as the hows of Israel is a terrere to wraththe.
Opene thi mouth, and ete what euer thingis Y yyue to thee. 9 And Y siy, and lo! an hond was sent to me, in which a book was foldid togidere. 10 And he spredde abrood it bifor me, that was writun with ynne and with outforth. And lamentaciouns, and song, and wo, weren writun ther ynne.

3 And he seide to me, Sone of man, ete thou what euer thing thou fyndist, ete thou this volym; and go thou, and speke to the sones of Israel. 2 And Y openyde my mouth, and he fedde me with that volym. 3 And he seide to me, Sone of man, thi wombe schal ete, and thin entrails schulen be fillid with this volym, which Y yyue to thee. And Y eet it, and it was maad as swete hony in my mouth. 4 And he seide to me, Sone of man, go thou to the hous of Israel, and thou schalt speke my wordis to hem. 5 For thou schalt not be sent to a puple of hiy word, and of vnknowun langage; thou schalt be sent to the hous of Israel, 6 nether to many puplis of hiy word, and of vnknowun langage, of whiche thou maist not here the wordis. And if thou were sent to hem, thei schulden here thee. 7 But the hous of Israel nylen here thee, for thei nylen here me. For al the hous of Israel is of vnschamefast forheed, and of hard herte. 8 Lo! Y yaf thi face strongere than the faces of hem, and thi forheed hardere than the forheedis of hem. 9 Y yaf thi face as an adamaunt, and as a flynt; drede thou not hem, nether drede thou of the face of hem, for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. 10 And he seide to me, Sone of man, take in thin herte, and here with thin eeris alle these my wordis, whiche Y speke to thee. 11 And go thou, and entre to the passyng ouer, to the sones of thi puple. And thou schalt speke to hem, and thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, if perauenture thei heren, and resten. 12 And the spirit took me, and Y herde after me the vois of a greet mouyng. The blessid glorie of the Lord was herd fro his place; 13 and Y herde the vois of wyngis of the beestis smytyng oon an othir, and the vois of wheelis suyng the beestis, and the vois of greet stiryng. 14 Also the spirit reise me, and took me. And Y yede forth bittir in the indignacioun of my spirit; for the hond of the Lord was with me, and coumfortide me. 15 And Y cam to the passyng ouer, to the heep of newe fruytis, to hem that dwelliden bisidis the flood Chobar. And Y sat where thei saten, and Y dwellide there seuene daies, weilyng, in the myddis of hem. 16 Forsothe whanne seuene daies weren passid, the word of the Lord was maad to me, and seide, Sone of man, 17 Y yaf thee `a spiere to the hous of Israel. And thou schalt here of my mouth a word, and thou schalt telle to hem of me. 18 If whanne Y seie to the wickid man, Thou schalt die bi deth, thou tellist not to hym, and spekist not to hym, that he be turned fro his wickid weie, and lyue; thilke wickid man schal die in his wickidnesse, but Y schal seke his blood of thin hond. 19 Forsothe if thou tellist to the wickid man, and he is not conuertid fro his wickidnesse, and fro his wickid weie; sotheli he schal die in his wickidnesse, but thou hast delyuerid thi soule. 20 But also if a iust man is turned fro his riytfulnesse, and doith wickidnesse, Y schal sette an hirtyng bifer hym; he schal die, for thou teldist not to hym; he schal die in his synne, and hise riytfulnessis, whiche he dide, schulen not be in mynde, but Y schal seke his blood of thin hond. 21 Forsothe if thou tellist to a iust man, that a iust man do not synne, and he doith not synne, he lyuyng schal lyue, for thou teldist to hym, and thou hast delyuered thi soule. 22 And the hond of the Lord was maad on me, and he seide to me, Rise thou, and go out in to the feeld, and there Y schal speke with thee. 23 And Y roos, and yede out in to the feeld. And lo! the glorie of the Lord stood there, as the glorie which Y siy bisidis the flood Chobar; and Y felle down on my face. 24 And the spirit entride in to me, and settide me on my feet. And he spak to me, and seide to me, Entre thou, and be thou closid in the myddis of thin hous. 25 And thou, sone of man, lo! boondis ben youun on thee, and thei schulen bynde thee with tho, and thou schalt not go out in the myddis of hem. 26 And Y schal make thi tunge to cleue to the roof of thi mouth, and thou schalt be doumbe, and thou schalt not be as a man rebuykinge; for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. 27 But whanne Y schal speke to thee, Y schal opene thi mouth, and thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, He that herith, here, and he that restith, reste; for it is an hous terryng to wraththe.

4 And thou, sone of man, take to thee a tijl stoon; and thou schalt sette it bfore thee, and thou schalt discriue ther ynne the citee of Jerusalem. 2 And thou schalt ordeyne bisegyng ayenus that Jerusalem; and thou schalt bilde strengthis, and thou schalt bere togidere erthe, and thou shalt yyue oostis of batel ayens it, and thou schalt sette engynes in cumpas. 3 And take thou to thee an irone frynge panne; and thou schalt sette it in to an irone wal bitwixe thee and bitwixe the cite; and thou schalt sette stidfastli thi face to it, and it schal be in to bisegyng, and thou schalt cumpasse it; it is a signe to the hous of Israel. 4 And thou schalt slepe on thi left side, and thou schalt putte the wickidnessis of the hous of Israel on that side, in the noumbre of daies in which thou shalt slepe on that side, and thou schalt take the wickidnesse of hem. 5 Forsothe Y yaf to thee the yeeris of the wickidnesse of hem bi noumbre of daies, thre hundrid and nynti daies; and thou schalt bere the wickidnesse of the hous of Israel. 6 And whanne thou hast fillid these thingis, thou schalt slepe the secounde tyme on thi rihtside. And thou schalt take the wickidnesse of the hous of Juda bi fourti daies; Y yaf to thee a dai for a yeer, a dai sotheli for a yeer. 7 And thou schalt turne thi face to the biseging of Jerusalem; and thin arm schal be stretchid forth, and thou schalt profesie ayens it. 8 Lo! Y haue cumpassid thee with boondis, and thou schalt not turne thee fro thi side in `to other side, tille thou fille the daies of thi bisegyng. 9 And take thou to thee wheete, and barli, and beenys, and tillis, and mylie, and vetchis; and thou schalt putte tho in to o vesselle. And thou schalt make to thee looues for the noumbre of daies, bi whiche thou schalt slepe on thi side; bi three hundrid and nynti daies thou schalt ete it. 10 Forsothe thi mete, which thou schalt ete, schal be in weiyte twenti staters in a dai; fro tyme til to tyme thou schalt ete it. 11 And thou schalt drynke watir in mesure, the sixte part of hyn; fro tyme til to tyme thou schalt drynke it. 12 And thou schalt ete it as barli breed bakun vndur the aischis; and with `a toord that goith out of a man thou schalt hile, it bfore the iyen of hem. 13 The Lord seith these thingis,

So the sones of Israel schulen ete her breed defoulid among hethene men, to whiche Y schal caste hem out. 14 And Y seide, A! A! A! Lord God, lo! my soule is not defoulid, and fro my yong childhed til to now Y eet not a thing deed bi it silf, and to-rent of beestis; and al vnclene fleisch entride not in to my mouth. 15 And he seide to me, Lo! Y haue youe to thee the dung of oxis for mennus toordis; and thou schalt make thi breed with it. 16 And he seide to me, Sone of man, lo! Y schal al to-breke the staf of breed in Jerusalem, and thei schulen ete her breed in weiyte and in bisynesse, and thei schulen drynke water in mesure and in angwisch; 17 that whanne breed and watir failen, eche man falle down to his brother, and thei faile in her wickidnessis.

5 And thou, sone of man, take to thee a scharp swerd, schauynge heeris; and thou schalt take it, and schalt leede it bi thin heed, and bi thi berd. And thou schalt take to thee a balaunce of weiyte, and thou schalt departe tho. 2 Thou schalt brenne the thridde part with fier in the myddis of the citee, bi the fillyng of daies of bisegyng. And thou schalt take the thridde part, and schalt kitte bi swerd in the cumpas therof. But thou schalt scatere `the tother thridde part in to the wynd; and Y schal make nakid a swerd afir hem. 3 And thou schalt take therof a litil noumbre, and thou schalt bynde tho in the hiynesse of thi mentil. 4 And eft thou schalt take of hem, and thou schalt caste forth hem in to the myddis of the fier. And thou schalt brenne hem in fier; and fier schal go out of that in to al the hous of Israel. 5 The Lord God seith these thingis, This is Jerusalem; Y haue sette it in the myddis of hethene men, and londis in the cumpas therof. 6 And it dispiside my domes, that it was more wickid than hethene men; and it dispiside my comaundementis more than londis that ben in the cumpas therof. For thei han cast awei my domes, and thei yeden not in my comaundementis. 7 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For ye `han passid hethene men that ben in youre cumpas, and ye yeden not in my comaundementis, and ye diden not my domes, and ye wrouyten not bi the domes of hethene men that ben in youre cumpas; 8 therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y to thee, and Y my silf schal make domes in the myddis of thee, bifer the iyen of hethene men; and Y schal do thingis in thee, 9 whiche Y dide not, and to whiche Y schal no more make lijk thingis, for alle thin abhomynaciouns. 10 Therfor fadris schulen ete sones in the myddis of thee, and sones schulen ete her fadris; and Y schal make domes in thee, and Y schal wyndewe alle thin remenauntis in to ech wynd. 11 Therfor Y lyue, seith the Lord God, no but for that that thou defoulidist myn hooli thing in alle thin offenciouns, and in alle thin abhomynaciouns; and Y schal breke, and myn iye schal not spare, and Y schal not do merci. 12 The thridde part of thee schal die bi pestilence, and schal be wastid bi hungur in the middis of thee; and the thridde part of thee schal falle doun bi swerd in thi cumpas; forsothe Y schal scatere thi thridde part in to ech wynd, and Y schal drawe out a swerd after hem. 13 And Y schal fille my stronge veniaunce, and Y schal make myn indignacioun to reste in hem, and Y schal be coumfortid. And thei schulen wite, that Y the Lord spak in my feruent loue, whanne Y schal fille al myn indignacioun in hem. 14 And Y schal yyue thee in to desert, in to schenschipec to hethene men that ben in thi cumpas, in the siyt of ech that passith forth. 15 And thou schalt be schenschipec `and blasfemye, ensauple and wondryng, among hethene men that ben in thi cumpas, whanne Y schal make domes in thee, in strong veniaunce, and indignacioun, and in blamyngis of ire. 16 Y the Lord haue spoke, whanne Y schal sende in to hem the worste arowis of hungur, that schulen bere deth; and whiche Y schal sende, that Y leese you. And Y schal gadere hungur on you, and Y schal al to-breke in you the sadnesse of breed. 17 And Y schal sende in to you hungur, and worste beestis, til to the deth; and pestilence and blood schulen passe bi thee, and Y schal bringe in swerd on thee; Y the Lord spak.

6 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, sette thi face to the hillis of Israel; and thou schalt profesie to tho hillis, and schalt seie, 3 Hillis of Israel, here ye the word of the Lord God. The Lord God seith these thingis to mounteyns, and litil hillis, to roochis of stoon, and to valeis, Lo! Y schal bringe in on you a swerd, and Y schal leese youre hiye thingis. 4 And Y schal distrie youre auteris, and youre symylacris schulen be brokun; and Y schal caste doun youre slayn men bfore youre idols. 5 dnA Y schal yyue the deed bodies of the sones of Israel bfor the face of youre symylacris, and Y schal scatere youre boonys 6 aboute youre auteris, in alle youre dwellingis. Citees schulen be forsakun, and hiy thingis schulen be distried, and schulen be scaterid; and youre auteris schulen perische, and schulen be brokun. And youre idols schulen ceesse, and youre templis of idols schulen be al to-brokun, and youre werkis schulen be doen awei. 7 And a slayn man schal falle doun in the myddis of you; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 8 And Y schal leeue in you hem that fledden swerd among hethene men, whanne Y schal scatere you in to londis. 9 And youre delyuered men schulen haue mynde on me among hethene men, to whiche thei ben led prisoneris; for Y haue al to-broke her herte doyngge fornycacioun, and goyngge awei fro me, and her iyen doyngge fornicacioun aftir her idols. And thei schulen displese hem silf on the yuels, whiche thei diden in alle her abhomynaciouns. 10 And thei schulen wite, that Y the Lord spak not in veyn, that Y schulde do this yuel to hem. 11 The Lord God seith these thingis, Smyte thin hond, and hurtle thi foot, and seie, Alas! to alle abhomynaciouns of the yuelis of the hous of Israel; for thei schulen falle doun bi swerd, hungur, and pestilence. He that is fer, shal die bi pestilence. 12 Forsothe he that is niy, shal falle bi swerd. And he that is laft and bisegid, shal die bi hungur. And Y schal fille myn indignacioun in hem. 13 And ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne youre slayn men schulen be in the myddis of youre idols, in the cumpas of youre auteris, in eche hiy litil hil, and in alle the hiynessis of mounteyns, and vndur ech tree ful of wode, and vndur ech ook ful of boowis, that is, a place where thei brenten encense swete smellynge to alle her idols. 14 And Y schal stretche forth myn hond on hem, and Y schal make her lond desolat and destitute, fro desert Deblata, in alle the dwellyngis of hem; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord.

7 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, And thou, sone of man, the Lord God of the lond of Israel seith these thingis, The ende cometh, the ende cometh, on foure coostis of the lond. 3 Now an ende is on thee, and Y shal sende in my strong veniaunce on thee, and Y schal deme thee bi thi weies, and Y schal sette alle thin abhomynaciouns ayens thee. 4 And myn iye shal not spare on thee, and Y schal not do mercy. But Y shal sette thi weies on thee, and thin abhomynaciouns schulen be in the myddis of thee; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 5 The Lord God seith these thingis, O turment, lo! 6 turment cometh; the ende cometh, the ende cometh; it schal wake fulli ayens thee; lo! it cometh. 7 Sorewe cometh on thee, that dwellist in the lond; the tyme cometh, the dai of sleynge is niy, and not of glorie of hillis. 8 Now anoon Y schal schede out myn ire on thee, and Y schal fille my strong veniaunce in thee; and Y schal deme thee bi thi weies, and Y schal putte to thee alle thi grete trespassis. 9 And myn iye schal not spare, nether Y schal do merci; but Y schal putte on thee thi weies, and thin abhomynaciouns schulen be in the myddis of thee; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord smytynge. 10 Lo! the dai, lo! it cometh; sorewe is gon out. A yerde flouride, 11 pride buriownede, wickidnesse roos in the yerde of vnpitee; not of hem, and not of the puple, nether of the sown of hem, and no reste shal be in hem. 12 The tyme cometh, the dai neiyede; he that bieth, be not glad, and he that sillith, mourne not; for whi ire is on al the puple therof. 13 For he that sillith, schal not turne ayen to that that he seelde, and yit the lijf of hem is in lyueris; for whi the reuelacioun to al the multitude therof shal not go ayen, and a man schal not be coumfortid in the wickidnesse of his lijf. 14 Synge ye with a trumpe, alle men be maad redi, and noon is that schal go to batel; for whi my wraththe is on al the puple therof. 15 Swerd is with out forth, pestilence and hungur with ynne; he that is in the feeld, schal die bi swerd; and thei that ben in the citee, schulen be deuourid bi pestilence and hungur. 16 And thei schulen be sauyd that fleen of hem; and thei schulen be as culueris of grete valeis in hillis, alle quakyng, ech man in his wickidnesse. 17 Alle hondis schulen be aclumsid, and alle knees schulen flowe with watris. 18 And thei schulen girde hem with heiris, and inward drede schal hile hem; and schenschiþe schal be in ech face, and ballidnesse schal be in alle the heedis of hem. 19 The siluer of hem schal be cast out, and the gold of hem schal be in to a dunghil; the siluer of hem and the gold of hem schal not mowe delyuere hem in the dai of the strong veniaunce of the Lord. Thei schulen not fille her soule, and the wombis of hem schulen not be fillid; for it is maad the sclandre of hir wickidnesse. 20 And thei setteden the ournement of her brochis in to pride; and thei maden of it the ymagis of her abhomynaciouns and simylacris. For this thing Y yaf it to hem, in to vnclennesse. 21 And Y schal yyue it in to the hondis of aliens, to rauysche, and to the vnpitouse men of erthe, in to prey, and thei schulen defoule it. 22 And Y schal turne awei my face fro hem, and thei schulen defoule my priuete; and harlotis schulen entre in to it, and schulen defoule it. 23 Make thou a closyng to gidere; for the lond is ful of doom of bloodis, and the citee is ful of wickidnesse. 24 And Y schal brynge the worste of hethene men, and thei schulen haue in possessioun the housis of hem; and Y schal make the pride of myti men to ceeße, and enemyes schulen haue in possessioun the seyntuaries of hem. 25 In anguysch comynge aboue thei schulen seke pees, and it schal not be. 26 Disturblyng schal come on disturblyng, and heryng on heryng; and thei schulen seke of the profete a reuelacioun, and lawe shal perische fro the preest, and counsel fro eldre men. 27 The kyng schal mourne, and the prince schal be clothid in weilyng, and the hondis of the puple of the lond schulen be disturblid; bi the weie of hem Y schal do to hem, and bi the domes of hem Y schal deme hem; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord.

8 And it was doon in the sixte yeer, in the sixte monethe, in the fyueth dai of the monethe, Y sat in myn hous, and the elde men of Juda saten bfore me; and the hond of the Lord God felle there on me. 2 And Y siy, and lo! a licesse as the biholdyng of fier; fro the biholding of hise leendis and bynethe was fier, and fro hise leendis and aboue was as the biholdyng of schynyng, as the siyt of electre. 3 And the licesse of an hond was sent out, and took me bi the heer of myn heed; and the spirit reside me bitwixe heuene and erthe, and brouyte me in to Jerusalem, in the siyt of God, bisidis the ynnere dore that bihelde to the north, where the idol of enuye was set, to stire indignacioun. 4 And lo! the glorie of God of Israel was there, bi siyt which Y siy in the feeld. 5 And he seide to me, Thou, sone of man, reise thin iyen to the weie of the north; and Y reside myn iyen to the weie of the north, and lo! fro the north of the yate of the auter the idol of enuye was in that entryng. 6 And he seide to me, Sone of man, gessist thou whether thou seest what thing these men doon, the grete abhomynaciouns whiche the hous of Israel doith here, that Y go fer awei fro my seyntuarie? and yit thou schalt turne, and schalt se grettere abhomynaciouns. 7 And he ledde me with ynne to the dore of the halle; and Y siy, and lo! oon hoole in the wal. 8 And he seide to me, Sone of man, digge thou the wal; and whanne Y hadde diggid the wal, o dore apperide. 9 And he seide to me, Entre thou, and se the worste abhomynaciouns, whiche these men doon here. 10 And Y entride, and siy; and lo! ech licesse of `crepyng beestis, and abhomynacioun of beestis, and alle idols of the hous of Israel, weren peyntid in the wal al aboute in cumpas. 11 And seuenti men of the eldere of the hous of Israel stoden; and Jeconye, the sone of Saphan, stood in the myddis of hem, stondynge bifore the peyntyngis; and ech man hadde a censere in his hond, and the smoke of a cloude of encense stiede. 12 And he seide to me, Certis, sone of man, thou seest what thingis the eldere men of the hous of Israel doen in derknessis, ech man in the hid place of his bed; for thei seiyn, The Lord seeth not vs, the Lord hath forsake the lond. 13 And the Lord seide to me, Yit thou schalt turne, and schalt se gretter abhomynaciouns, whiche these men doon. 14 And he ledde me with ynne, bi the dore of the yate of the hous of the Lord, which dore bihelde to the north; and lo! wymmen saten there, biweilynge Adonydes. 15 And the Lord seide to me, Certis, sone of man, thou hast seyn; yit thou schalt turne, and schalt se gretere abhomynaciouns than these. 16 And he ledde me with ynne, in to the ynnere halle of the hous of the Lord; and lo! in the dore of the temple of the Lord, bitwixe the porche and the auter, weren as fyue and twenti men hauynge the backis ayens the temple of the Lord, and her faces to the eest; and thei worschipiden at the risynge of the sunne. 17 And the Lord seide to me, Certis, sone of man, thou hast seyn; whether this is a liyt thing to the hous of Juda, that thei schulden do these abhomynaciouns, whiche thei diden here? For thei filliden the lond with wickidnesse, and turneden to terre me to wraththe; and lo! thei applien a braunche to her nose thirlis. 18 Therfor and Y schal do in strong veniaunce; myn iye schal not spare, nether Y schal do merci; and whanne thei schulen crie to myn eris with greet vois, Y schal not here hem.

9 And he criede in myn eeris with greet vois, and seide, The visityngis of the citee han neiyed, and ech man hath in his hond an instrument of sleyng. 2 And lo! sixe men camen fro the weie of the hiyere yate, that biholdith to the north, and the instrument of deth of ech man was in his hond; also o man in the myddis of hem was clothid with lynnun clothis, and a pennere of a writere at hise reynes; and thei entriden, and stoden bisidis the brasun auter. 3 And the glorie of the Lord of Israel was takun vp fro cherub, which glorie was on it, to the threisfold of the hous; and the Lord clepide the man that was clothid with lynnun clothis, and hadde a pennere of a writere in hise leendis. 4 And the Lord seide to hym, Passe thou bi the myddis of the citee, in the myddis of Jerusalem, and marke thou Thau on the forhedis of men weilynge and sorewyng on alle abhomynaciouns that ben doon in the myddis therof. 5 And he seide to hem in myn heryng, Go ye thorouy the citee, and sue ye hym, and smytte ye; youre iye spare not, nether do ye merci. 6 Sle ye til to deth, an eld man, a yong man, and a virgyn, a litil child, and wymmen; but sle ye not ony man, on whom ye seen Thau; and bigynne ye at my seyntuarie. Therfore thei bigunnen at the eldere men, that weren bfore the face of the hous. 7 And he seide to hem, Defoule ye the hous, and fille ye the hallis with slayn men; go ye out. And thei yeden out, and killiden hem that weren in the citee.
8 And lo! whanne the sleyng was fillid, Y was left. And Y felle doun on my face, and Y criede, and seide, Alas! alas! alas! Lord God, therfor whether thou schalt leese alle remenauntis of Israel, and schalt schede out thi stronge veniaunce on Jerusalem? 9 And he seide to me, The wickidnesse of the hous of Israel and of Juda is ful greet, and the lond is fillid of bloodis, and the citee is fillid with turnyng awei; for thei seiden, The Lord hath forsake the lond, and the Lord seeth not. 10 Therfor and myn iye schal not spare, nether Y schal do merci; Y schal yelde the weie of hem on the heed of hem. 11 And lo! the man that was clothid in lynnun clothis, that hadde a pennere in his bak, answeride a word, and seide, Y haue do, as thou comaundidist to me.

10 And Y siy, and lo! in the firmament that was on the heed of cherubyns, as a saphir stoon, and as the fourme of licnesse of a kyngis seete apperide thereon. 2 And he seide to the man that was clothid in lynnun clothis, and spak, Entre thou in the myddis of wheelis, that ben vndur cherubyns, and fille thin hond with coolis of fier, that ben bitwixe cherubyns, and schede thou out on the citee. 3 And he entride in my siyt; forsothe cherubyns stoden at the riyt side of the hous, whanne the man entride, and a clowde fillide the ynnere halle. 4 And the glorie of the Lord was reysid fro aboue cherubyns to the threifold of the hous; and the hous was fillid with a clowde, and the halle was fillid with schynyng of the glorie of the Lord. 5 And the sown of wyngis of cherubyns was herd til to the outermere halle, as the vois of almyyti God spekyng. 6 And whanne he hadde comaundid to the man that was clothid in lynnun clothis, and hadde seid, Take thou fier fro the myddis of the wheelis, that ben bitwixe cherubyns, he entride, and stood bisidis the wheel. 7 And cherub stretchide forth his hond fro the myddis of cherubyns, to the fier that was bitwixe cherubyns; and took, and yaf in to the hondis of hym that was clothid in lynnun clothis; and he took, and yede out. 8 And the licnesse of the hond of a man apperide in cherubyns, vndur the wyngis of tho. 9 And Y siy, and lo! foure wheelis weren bisidis cherubyns; o wheel bisidis o cherub, and another wheel bisidis another cherub; forsothe the licsesse of wheelis was as the siyt of the stoon crisolitis. 10 And the biholdyng of tho was o licsesse of foure, as if a wheel be in the myddis of a wheel. 11 And whanne tho yeden, tho yeden in to foure partis; tho turneden not ayen goynge, but to the place to which that that was the firste wheel bowide to go, also othere suyden, and turneden not ayen. 12 And al the bodi of tho wheelis, and the neckis, and hondis, and wyngis of the beestis, and the cerclis, weren ful of iyen, in the cumpas of foure wheelis. 13 And he clepide tho wheelis volible, ether able to go al aboute, in myn heryng. 14 Forsothe o beeste hadde foure faces; o face was the face of cherub, and the secounde face the face of a man, and in the thridde was the face of a lioun, and in the fourthe was the face of an egle; 15 and the cherubyns weren reisid. Thilke is the beeste, which Y hadde seyn bisidis the flood Chobar. 16 And whanne cherubyns yeden, also the wheelis bisidis tho yeden to gidere; whanne cherubyns reisien her wyngis, that tho schulden be enhaunsid fro the erthe, the wheelis abididen not stille, but also tho weren bisidis cherubyns. 17 The wheelis stoden with tho cherubyns stondynge, and weren reisid with the cherubyns reisid; for the spirit of lijf was in tho wheelis. 18 And the glorie of the Lord yede out fro the threisfold of the temple, and stood on the cherubyns. 19 And cherubyns reisien her wyngis, and weren enhaunsid fro the erthe bfore me; and whanne tho yeden out, also the wheelis sueden; and it stood in the entryng of the eest yate of the hous of the Lord, and the glorie of God of Israel was on tho. 20 Thilke is the beeste, which Y siy vndur God of Israel, bisidis the flood Chobar. And Y vndurstood that foure cherubyns weren; 21 foure faces weren to oon, and foure wyngys weren to oon; and the licesse of the hond of a man was vndur the wyngis of tho. 22 And the licesse of the cheris of tho weren thilke cheeris whiche Y hadde seyn bisidis the flood Chobar; and the biholdyng of tho, and the fersnesse of ech, was to entre bifor his face.

11 And the spirit reside me, and ledde me with ynne to the eest yate of the hous of the Lord, that biholdith the risyng of the sunne. And lo! in the entryng of the yate weren fyue and twenti men; and Y siy in the myddis of hem Jeconye, the sone of Assur, and Pheltie, the sone of Banaie, princes of the puple. 2 And he seide to me, Thou, sone of man, these ben the men that thenken wickidnesse, and treten the worste counsel in this citee, 3 and seien, Whether housis weren not bildid a while ago? this is the cawdrun, forsothe we ben fleischis. 4 Therfor profesie thou of hem, profesie thou, sone of man. 5 And the Spirit of the Lord felle in to me, and seide to me, Speke thou, The Lord seith these thingis, Ye hous of Israel spaken thus, and Y knewe the thouytis of youre herte; 6 ye killiden ful many men in this citee, and ye filliden the weies therof with slayn men. 7 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis, Youre slayn men, whiche ye puttiden in the myddis therof, these ben fleischis, and this is the cawdrun; and Y schal lede you out of the myddis therof. 8 Ye dredden swerd, and Y schal brynge in swerd on you, seith the Lord God. 9 And Y schal caste you out of the myddis therof, and Y schal yyue you in to the hond of enemyes, and Y schal make domes in you. 10 Bi swerd ye schulen falle down, Y schal deme you in the endis of Israel; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 11 This schal not be to you in to a cawdrun, and ye schulen not be in to fleischis in the myddis therof; Y schal deme you in the

endis of Israel, 12 and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. For ye yeden not in myn heestis, and ye dyden not my domes, but ye wrouyten bi the domes of hethene men, that ben in youre cumpas. 13 And it was doon, whanne Y profesiede, Pheltie, the sone of Banaie, was deed; and Y felle down on my face, and Y criede with greet vois, and seide, Alas! alas! alas! Lord God, thou makist endyng of the remenauntis of Israel. 14 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 15 and he seide, Sone of man, thi britheren, thi kynes men, and al the hous of Israel, and alle men, to whiche the dwelleris of Jerusalem seiden, Go ye awei fer fro the Lord, the lond is youun to vs in to possessioun. 16 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For Y made hem fer among hethene men, and for Y scateride hem in londis, Y schal be to hem in to a litil halewyng, in the londis to whiche thei camen. 17 Therfor speke thou, The Lord God seith these thingis, Y schal gadere you fro puplis, and Y schal gadere you togidere fro londis, in whiche ye ben scatered; and Y schal yyue the erthe of Israel to you. 18 And thei schulen entre thidur, and schulen do awei alle offenciouns, and alle abhomynaciouns therof in that dai. 19 And Y schal yyue to hem oon herte, and Y schal yyue a newe spirit in the entrails of hem; and Y schal take awei a stony herte fro the fleisch of hem, and Y schal yyue to hem an herte of fleisch; 20 that thei go in my comaundementis, and kepe my domes, and do tho; and that thei be in to a puple to me, and Y be in to God to hem. 21 But of whiche the herte goith after her offendyngis and abhomynaciouns, Y schal sette the weie of hem in her heed, seith the Lord God. 22 And the cherubyns reisien her wyngis, and the wheelis yeden with tho, and the glorie of God of Israel was on tho. 23 And the glorie of the Lord stiede fro the myddis of the citee, and stood on the hil, which is at the eest of the citee. 24 And the spirit reise me, and brouyte me in to Caldee, to the passyng ouer, in visioun bi the spirit of God; and the visioun which Y hadde seyn, was takun awei fro me. 25 And Y spak to the passyng ouer alle the wordis of the Lord, whiche he hadde schewid to me.

12 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, thou dwelist in the myddis of an hous terryng to wraththe, which han iyen to se, and seen not, and eeris to here, and heren not; for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. 3 Therfor thou, sone of man, make to thee vessels of passing ouer, and thou schalt passe ouer bi dai bifer hem; forsothe thou schalt passe ouer fro thi place to another place, in the siyt of hem, if perauenture thei biholden, for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. 4 And thou schalt bere withoutforth thi vessels, as the vessels of a man passyng ouer bi dai, in the siyt of hem; sotheli thou schalt go out in the euentid bifer hem, as a man passyng forth goith out. 5 Bifer the iyen of hem digge the wal to thee, and thou 6 schalt go out thorouy it in the siyt of hem. Thou schalt be borun on schuldris, thou schalt be borun out in derknesse; thou schalt hile thi face, and thou schalt not se the erthe, for Y haue youe thee a signe 7 of thing to comyng to the hous of Israel. Therfor Y dide as the Lord comaundide to me; Y brouyte forth my vessels, as the vessels of a man passyng ouer bi dai, and in the euentid Y diggide a wal to me with hond; Y yede out in derknesse, and Y was borun on schuldris, 8 in the siyt of hem. And the word of the Lord was maad eerli to me, 9 and he seide, Sone of man, whether the hous of Israel, the hous terryng to wraththe, seiden not to thee, What doist thou? 10 Seie thou to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, This birthun is on the duyck, which is in Jerusalem, and on al the hous of Israel, which is in the myddis of hem. 11 Seie thou, Y am youre signe of thing to comynge; as Y dide, so it schal be don to hem; thei schulen go in to passynge ouer, and in to caitifte. 12 And the duyck which is in the myddis of hem, schal be borun out on schuldris, and he schal go out in derknesse; thei schulen digge the wal, and lede hym out; his face schal be hilid, that he se not with iye the erthe. 13 And Y schal stretche forth my net on hym, and he schal be takun in my net; and Y schal lede hym in to Babiloyne, in to the lond of Caldeis, and he schal not se that lond, and he schal die there. 14 And Y schal scatere in to ech wynd alle men that ben aboute hym, his help, and hise cumpenyes; and Y schal draw out the swerd aftir hem. 15 And thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal scatere hem among hethene men, and schal sowe hem abroad in londis. 16 And Y schal leue of hem a fewe men fro swerd, and hungur, and pestilence, that thei telle out alle the grete trespassis of hem among hethene men, to which thei schulen entre; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 17 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 18 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, ete thi breed in disturblyng, but also drynke thi water in haaste and mourening. 19 And thou schalt seie to the puple of the lond, The Lord God seith these thingis to hem that dwellen in Jerusalem, in the lond of Israel, Thei schulen ete her breed in angwisch, and thei schulen drynke her watir in desolacioun; that the lond be desolat of his multitude, for the wickidnesse of alle men that dwellen ther ynne. 20 And citees that ben now enhabitid, shulen be desolat, and the lond schal be forsakun; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 21

And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 22 and he seide, Sone of man, what is this prouerbe to you, of men seiynge in the lond of Israel, Daies schulen be differrid in to long tyme, and ech visioun shal perische? 23 Therfor seie thou to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Y schal make this prouerbe to ceesse, and it schal no more be seid comynli in Israel; and speke thou to hem, that the daies han neiyid, and ech word of profesie. 24 For whi ech visioun schal no more be voide, nether bifer tellyng of thing to comynge schal be douteiful in the myddis of the sones of Israel; 25 for Y the Lord schal speke what euer word Y schal speke, and it schal be don; it schal no more be delaied, but in youre daies, ye hous terryng to wraththe, Y schal speke a word, and Y schal do that word, seith the Lord God. 26 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, Thou, 27 sone of man, lo! the hous of Israel, of hem that seien, The visioun which this man seeth, is in to manye daies, and this man profesieith in to longe tymes. 28 Therfor seie thou to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Ech word of me schal no more be deferrid; the word which Y schal speke, schal be fillid, seith the Lord God.

13 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, profesie thou to the profetis of Israel that profesien; and thou schalt seie to hem that profesien of her herte, 3 Here ye the word of the Lord. The Lord God seith these thingis, Wo to the vnwise profetis, that suen her spirit, and seen no thing; 4 Israel, thi profetis weren as foxis in desert. 5 Ye stieden not euene ayens, nether ayensettiden a wal for the hous of Israel, that ye shulden stonde in batel in the dai of the Lord. 6 Thei seen veyn thingis, and deuynen a leesyng, and seien, The Lord

seith, whanne the Lord sente not hem; and thei contynueden to conferme the word. 7 Whether ye seen not a veyn visioun, and spaken fals diuynyng, and seiden, The Lord seith, whanne Y spak not? 8 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For ye spaken veyn thingis, and sien a leesyng, therfor lo! Y to you, seith the Lord God. 9 And myn hond schal be on the profetis that seen veyn thingis, and dyuynen a leesyng; thei schulen not be in the councel of my puple, and thei schulen not be writun in the scripture of the hous of Israel, nether thei schulen entre in to the lond of Israel; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord God. 10 For thei disseyueden my puple, and seiden, Pees, pees, and no pees is; and it bildide a wal, but thei pargetiden it with fen with out chaffis. 11 Seie thou to hem that pargeten with out temperure, that it schal falle down; for a strong reyn schal be flowynge, and I schal yyue ful grete stoones fallinge fro aboue, and Y schal yyue a wynd of tempest that distrieth. 12 For lo! the wal felle doun. Whether it schal not be seid to you, Where is the pargetyng, which ye pargetiden? 13 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, And Y schal make the spirit of tempestis to breke out in myn indignacioun, and strong reyn flowynge in my strong veniaunce schal be, and greet stoonys in wraththe in to wastyng. 14 And Y schal distrie the wal, which ye pargetiden with out temperure, and Y schal make it euene with the erthe; and the foundement therof schal be schewid, and it schal falle doun, and it schal be wastid in the myddis therof; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 15 And Y schal fille myn indignacioun in the wal, and in hem that pargeten it with out temperure; and Y schal seie to you, The wal is not, and thei ben not, 16 that pargeten it, the profetis of Israel, that profesien to Jerusalem, and seen to it the visioun of pees, and pees is not, seith the Lord God. 17 And thou, sone of man, sette thi face ayens the douytris of thi puple, that profesien of her herte; and profesie thou on hem, 18 and seie thou, The Lord God seith these thingis, Wo to hem that sowen togidere cuschens vndur ech cubit of hond, and maken pilewis vndur the heed of ech age, to take soulis; and whanne thei disseyueden the soulis of my puple, thei quykenyden the soulis of hem. 19 And thei defouliden me to my puple, for an handful of barli, and for a gobet of breed, that thei schulden sle soulis that dien not, and quykene soulis that lyuen not; and thei lieden to my puple, bileuyng to leesyngis. 20 For this thing the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y to youre cuschens, bi whiche ye disseyuen soulis fliyng; and Y schal al to-breke tho fro youre armes, and Y schal delyuere soulis which ye disseyuen, soulis to fle. 21 And Y schal al to-breke youre pilewis, and Y schal delyuere my puple fro youre hond; and thei schulen no more be in youre hondis, to be robbid; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 22 For that that ye maden falsli the herte of a iust man to morene, whom Y made not sori; and ye coumfortiden the hondis of a wickid man, that he schulde not turne ayen fro his yuel weie, and lyue. 23 Therfor ye schulen not se veyn thingis, and ye schulen no more dyuyne false dyuynyngis; and Y schal delyuere my puple fro youre hond, and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord.

14 And men of the eldris of Israel camen to me, and saten bifer me. 2 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, Sone of man, 3 these men han set her vnclennesses in her hertis, and han set stidfastli the sclaudre of her wickidnesse ayens her face. Whether Y `that am axid, schal answeere to hem?

4 For this thing speke thou to hem, and thou schalt seie to hem, These thingis seith the Lord God, A man, a man of the hous of Israel, that settith hise vnclennesis in his herte, and settith stidfastli the sclaundre of his wickidnesse ayens his face, and cometh to the profete, and axith me bi hym, Y the Lord schal answere to hym in the multitude of hise vnclennesis; 5 that the hous of Israel be takun in her herte, bi which thei yeden awei fro me in alle her idols. 6 Therfor seie thou to the hous of Israel, The Lord God seith these thingis, Be ye conuertid, and go ye awei fro youre idols, and turne awei youre faces fro alle youre filthis. 7 For whi a man, a man of the hous of Israel, and of conuersis, who euer is a comelyng in Israel, if he is alienyd fro me, and settith hise idols in his herte, and settith stidfastli the sclaundir of his wickidnesse ayens his face, and he cometh to the profete, to axe me bi hym, Y the Lord schal answere hym bi my silf. 8 And Y schal sette my face on that man, and Y schal make hym in to ensauple, and in to a prouerbe, and Y schal leese hym fro the myddis of my puple; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 9 And whanne a profete errith, and spekith a word, Y the Lord schal disseyue that profete; and Y schal stretche forth myn hond on hym, and Y schal do hym awei fro the myddis of my puple Israel. 10 And thei schulen bere her wickidnesse; bi the wickidnesse of the axere, so the wickidnesse of the profete schal be; 11 that the hous of Israel erre no more fro me, nether be defoulid in alle her trespassyngis; but that it be in to a puple to me, and Y be in to a God to hem, seith the Lord of oostis. 12 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, 13 Sone of man, whanne the lond synneth ayens me, that it trespassynge do trespass, Y schal stretche forth myn hond on it, and Y schal al to-breke the yerde of breed therof; and Y schal sende hungur in to it, and Y schal sle of it man and beeste. 14 And if these thre men Noe, Danyel, and Job, ben in the myddis therof, thei bi her riytfulnesse schulen delyuere her soulis, seith the Lord of oostis. 15 That if also Y brynge in worste beestis on the lond, that Y distrie it, and if it is with out weie, for that no passer is for the beestis, 16 and these thre men, that `ben bifore seid, ben therynne, Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for thei schulen nethir delyuere sonnes, nether douytris, but thei aloone schulen be deliuered; forsothe the lond schal be maad desolat. 17 Ethir if Y brynge in swerd on that lond, and Y seie to the swerd, Passe thou thorouy the lond, and Y sle of it man and beeste, 18 and these thre men ben in the myddis therof, Y lyue, seith the Lord God, that thei schulen not delyuere sonnes nether douytris, but thei aloone schulen be delyuered. 19 Forsothe if Y brynge in also pestilence on that lond, and Y schede out myn indignacioun on it in blood, that Y do awei fro it man and beeste, 20 and Noe, and Danyel, and Joob, ben in the myddis therof, Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for thei schulen not delyuere a sone and a douyter, but thei bi her riytfulnesse schulen delyuere her soulis. 21 For the Lord God seith these thingis, That thouy Y sende in my foure worste domes, swerd, and hungur, and yuele beestis, and pestilence, in to Jerusalem, that Y sle of it man and beeste, 22 netheles saluacioun of hem that leden out sonnes and douytris, schal be left ther ynne. Lo! thei schulen go out to you, and ye schulen se the weie of hem, and the fyndyngis of hem; and ye schulen be coumfortid on the yuel, which Y brouyte in on Jerusalem, in alle thingis whiche Y bar in on it. 23 And thei schulen coumforte you, whanne ye schulen se the weie of hem and the fyndyngis of hem; and ye schulen knowe, that not in veyn Y dide alle thingis, what euer thingis Y dide there ynnē, seith the Lord almyyti.

15 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, what schal be don to the tre of a vyne, of alle the trees of woodis, that ben among the trees of woodis? 3 Whether tymbre schal be takun therof, that werk be maad? ether shal a stake be maad therof, that ony vessel hange ther onne? 4 Lo! it is youun in to mete; fier wastide euer eithir part therof, and the myddis therof is dryuun in to deed sparcle; whether it schal be profitable to werk? 5 Yhe, whanne it was hool, it was not couenable to werk; hou myche more whanne fier hath deuourid, and hath brent it, no thing of werk schal be maad therof? 6 Therfor the Lord God seith thes thingis, As the tre of a vyne is among the trees of woodis, which Y yaf to fier to deuoure, so Y yaf the dwelleris of Jerusalem, 7 and Y schal sette my face ayens hem. Thei schulen go out of the fier, and fier schal waaste hem; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal sette my face ayens hem, 8 and schal yyue the lond with out weie and desolat, for thei weren trespassours, seith the Lord God.

16 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, make thou knowun to Jerusalem her abhomynaciouns; and thou schalt seie, 3 The Lord God seith these thingis. Al! thou Jerusalem, thi rote and thi generacioun is of the lond of Canaan; thi fadir is Amorrei, and thi moder is Cetei. 4 And whanne thou were borun, thi nawle was not kit awei in the dai of thi birthe, and thou were not waischun in watir in to helthe, nethir saltid with salt, nether wlapid in clothis. 5 An iye sparide not on thee, that it hauynge merci on thee, dide to thee oon of these thingis; but thou were cast forth on the face of erthe, in the castynge out of thi soule, in the dai in which thou were borun. 6 Forsothe Y passide bi thee, and Y siy thee defoulid in thi blood; and Y seide to thee, whanne thou were in thi blood, Lyue thou; sotheli Y seide to thee in thi blood, Lyue thou. 7 Y yaf thee multiplied as the seed of a feeld, and thou were multiplied, and maad greet; and thou entridist, and camest fulli to wymmens ournyng; thi tetis wexiden greet, and thin heer wexide; and thou were nakid, and ful of schenschiipe. 8 And Y passide bi thee, and Y siy thee, and lo! thi tyme, the tyme of louyeris; and Y spredde abroad my clothing on thee, and Y hilide thi schenschiipe. And Y swoor to thee, and Y made a couenaunt with thee, seith the Lord God, and thou were maad a wijf to me. 9 And Y waischide thee in water, and Y clenside awei thi blood fro thee, and Y anoyntide thee with oile. 10 And Y clothide thee with clothis of dyuerse colours, and Y schodde thee in iacynct, and Y girde thee with biys; 11 and Y clothide thee with sutil thingis, and Y ournede thee with ournement. 12 And Y yaf bies in thin hondis, and a wrethe aboute thi necke; and Y yaf a ryng on thi mouth, and cerclis to thin eeris, and a coroun of fairnesse in thin heed. 13 And thou were ourned with gold and siluer, and thou were clothid with biys and ray cloth with rounde ymagis, and many colours. Thou etist cleene flour of wheete, and hony, and oile, and thou were maad fair ful greetli; and thou encreessidist in to a rewme, 14 and thi name yede out in to hethene men for thi fairnesse; for thou were perfit in my fairnesse which Y hadde sett on thee, seith the Lord God. 15 And thou haddist trist in thi fairnesse, and didist fornicacioun in thi name; and thou settidist forth thi fornicacioun to ech that passide forth, that thou schuldist be maad his. 16 And thou tokist of my clothis, and madist to thee hiy thingis set aboute on ech side; and thou didist fornyacioun on tho, as it was not don, nether schal be don. 17 And thou tokist the vessels of thi fairnesse, of my gold and of my siluer, which Y yaf to thee; and thou madist to thee ymagis of men, and didist fornyacioun in tho. 18 And thou tokist thi clothis of many colours, and thou were clothid in tho; and thou settidist myn oile and myn encence in the siyt of tho. 19 And thou settidist my breed, which Y yaf to thee, flour of wheete, and oile, and hony, bi whiche Y nurschide thee, in the siyt of tho, in to odour of swetnesse; and it was don, seith the Lord God. 20 And thou tokist thi sones and thi douytris, whiche thou gendridist to me, and offridist to tho, for to be deuourid. Whether thi fornicacioun is lital? 21 Thou offridist my sones, and yauest hem, and halewidist to tho. 22 And afir alle thin abhomynaciouns and fornicaciouns, thou bithouytist not on the daies of thi yong wexynge age, whanne thou were nakid, and ful of schenscipe, and were defoulid in thi blood. 23 And after al thi malice, wo, wo bifelle to thee, seith the Lord God. 24 And thou bildidist to thee a bordel hous, and madist to thee a place of hordom in alle stretis. 25 At ech heed of the weie thou bildidist a signe of thin hordom, and madist thi fairnesse abhomynable; and thou departidist thi feet to ech man passynge forth, and multepliedist thi fornicaciouns. 26 And thou didist fornicacioun with the sones of Egipt, thi neiyboris of grete fleischis, and thou multepliedist thi fornicacioun, to terre me to wraththe. 27 Lo! Y schal stretch forth myn hond on thee, and Y schal take awei thi iustifyng; and Y schal yyue thee in to the

soulis of hem that haten thee, of the douytris of Palestyns, that ben aschamed in thi weie ful of greet trespas. 28 And thou didist fornicacioun with the sones of Assiriens, for thou were not fillid yit; and after that thou didist fornicacioun, nether so thou were fillid. 29 And thou multiplidist thi fornicacioun in the lond of Canaan with Caldeis, and nether so thou were fillid. 30 In what thing schal Y clense thin herte, seith the Lord God, whanne thou doist alle these werkis of a womman an hoore, and gredi axere? 31 For thou madist thi bordel hous in `the heed of ech weie, and thou madist thin hy place in ech street; and thou were not maad as an hoore ful of anoiyng, 32 encreessynge prijs, but as a womman auowtresse, that bryngith in aliens on hir hosebonde. 33 Hiris ben youun to alle hooris, but thou hast youe hire to alle thi louyeris; and thou yauest to hem, that thei schulden entre to thee on ech side, to do fornicacioun with thee. 34 And it was don in thee ayens the custom of wymmen in thi fornicaciouns, and fornicacioun schal not be after thee; for in that that thou yauest hiris, and tokist not hiris, the contrarie was don in thee. 35 Therfor, thou hoore, here the word of the Lord. 36 The Lord God seith these thingis, For thi riches is sched out, and thi schenschipec is schewid in thi fornicaciouns on thi louyeris, and on the idols of thin abhomynaciouns, in the blood of thi sones, whiche thou yauest to hem; lo! 37 Y schal gadere to gidere alle thi louyeris, with whiche thou were meddlid, and alle men whiche thou louedist, with alle men whiche thou hatidist; and Y schal gadere hem on thee on ech side, and Y schal make nakid thi schenschipec bfore hem, and thei schulen se al thi filthe. 38 And Y schal deme thee bi the domes of auoutressis, and schedinge out blood; 39 and Y schal yyue thee in to the blood of strong veniaunce, and of feruour. And Y schal yyue thee in to the hondis of hem, and thei schulen destrie thi bordel hous, and thei schulen destrie the place of thin hordom; and thei schulen make thee nakid of thi clothis, and thei schulen take awei the vessels of thi fairnesse, and thei schulen forsake thee nakid, and ful of schenschipe. 40 And thei schulen bringe on thee a multitude, and thei schulen stoon thee with stoonys, and thei schulen sle thee with her swerdis. 41 And thei schulen brenne thin housis with fier, and thei schulen make domes in thee, bifor the iyen of ful many wymmen; and thou schalt ceese to do fornicacioun, and thou schalt no more yyue hiris. 42 And myn indignacioun schal reste in thee, and my feruent loue schal be takun awei fro thee; and Y schal reste, and Y schal no more be wrooth, 43 for thou haddist not mynde on the daies of thi yong wexynge age, and thou terridist me to ire in alle these thingis. Wherfor and Y yaf thi weies in thin heed, seith the Lord God, and Y dide not afir thi grete trespassis, in alle these thin abhomynaciouns. 44 Lo! ech man that seith a prouerbe comynli, schal take it in thee, 45 and schal seie, As the modir, so and the douytir of hir. Thou art the douyter of thi modir, that castide away hir hosebonde and hir sones; and thou art the sister of thi sistris, that castiden a wei her hosebondis and her sones. Thi modir is Cetei, and thi fadir is Ammorrei; 46 and thi gretter sister is Samarie, sche and hir douytris, that dwellen at thi left side; but thi sistir lesse than thou, that dwellith at thi riyt side, is Sodom, and hir douytris. 47 But thou yedist not in the weies of hem, nethir thou didist afir the grete trespassis of hem; hast thou do almost a litil lesse cursidere dedis than thei, in alle thi weies? 48 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for Sodom, thi sister, did not, sche and hir douytris, as thou didist, and thi douytris. 49 Lo! this was the wickidnesse of Sodom, thi sister, pride, fulnesse of breed, and habundaunce, and idilnesse of hir, and of hir douytris; and thei puttiden not hond to a nedi man and pore. 50 And thei weren enhaunsid, and diden other abhominaciouns bifore me; and Y took hem awei, as thou hast seyn. 51 And Samarie synnede not the half of thi synnes, but thou hast ouercome hem in thi grete trespassis; and thou hast iustified thi sistris in alle thin abhomynaciouns, whiche thou wrouytist. 52 Therfor and thou bere thi schenschiipe, that hast ouercome thi sistris with thi synnes, and didist more cursidli than thei; for thei ben iustified of thee. Therfor and be thou schent, and bere thi schenschiipe, which hast iustified thi sistris. 53 And Y schal conuerte and restore hem by the conuersioun of Sodom with hir douytris, and bi the conuersioun of Samarie and of hir douytris; and Y schal conuerte thi turnyng ayen in the myddis of hem, 54 that thou bere thi schenschiipe, and be aschamed in alle thingis whiche thou didist, coumfortyng hem. 55 And thi sister Sodom and hir doytris schulen turne ayen to her eldnesse; and Samarie and hir douytris shulen turne ayen to her eeldnesse; and thou and thi douytris turne ayen to youre eldnesse. 56 Forsothe Sodom, thi sister, was not herd in thi mouth, in the dai of thi pride, 57 bifore that thi malice was schewid, as in this tyme, in to schenschiipe of the douytris of Sirie, and of alle douytris in thi cumpas, of the douytris of Palestyn that ben aboute thee bi cumpas. 58 Thou hast bore thi greet trespass, and thi schenschiipe, seith the Lord God. 59 For the Lord God seith these thingis, And Y schal do to thee as thou dispisidist the ooth, that thou schuldist make voide the couenaunt; 60 and Y schal haue mynde on my couenaunt with thee in the daies of thi yongthe, and Y schal reise to thee a couenaunt euerlastyng. 61 And thou schalt haue mynde on thi weies, and schalt be aschamed, whanne thou schalt resseyue thi sistris grettere than thou, with thi lesse sistris; and Y schal yyue hem in to douytris to thee, but not of thi couenaunt. 62 And Y schal reise my couenaunt with thee, and thou schalt wite, that Y am the Lord, that thou haue mynde, and be aschamed; 63 and that it be no more to thee to opene the mouth for thi schame, whanne Y schal be plesid to thee in alle thingis whiche thou didist, seith the Lord God.

17 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, sette forth a derk speche, and telle thou a parable to the hous of Israel; 3 and thou schalt seie, The Lord God seith these thingis. A greet egle of grete wyngis, with long stretchyng out of membris, ful of fetheris and of dyuersite, cam to the Liban, and took awei the merowe of the cedre. 4 He pullide awei the hiynesse of boowis therof, and bar it ouer in to the lond of Chanaan, and settide it in the citee of marchauntis. 5 And he took of the seed of the lond, and settide it in the lond for seed, that it schulde make stidfast roote on many watris; he settide it in the hiyere part. 6 And whanne it hadde growe, it encreesside in to a largere vyner, in lowe stature; for the boowis therof bihelden to that egle, and the rootis therof weren vndur that egle; therof it was maad a vyner, and it made fruyt in to siouns, and sente out boowis. 7 And another greet egle was maad, with grete wyngis, and many fetheris; and lo! this vyner as sendyng hise rootis to that egle, stretchide forth his siouns to that egle, that he schulde moiste it of the cornfloris of his seed. 8 Which is plauntid in a good lond on many watris, that it make boowis, and bere fruyt, that it be in to a greet vyner. 9 Seie thou, Ezechiel, The Lord God seith these thingis, Therfor whether he schal haue prosperite? Whether Nabugodonosor schal not pulle awei the rootis of hym, and schal streyne the fruytis of hym? And he schal make drie alle the siouns of buriowning therof, and it schal be drie; and not in greet arm, nether in myche puple, that he schulde drawe it out bi the rootis. 10 Lo! it is plauntid, therfor whether it schal haue prosperite? Whether not whanne brennyng wynd schal touche it, it schal be maad drye, and schal wexe drie in the cornfloris of his seed? 11 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, Seie thou to the hous terryng to wraththe, 12 Witen ye not what these thingis signefien? Seie thou, Lo! the king of Babiloyne cometh in to Jerusalem; and he schal take the kyng and the princis therof, and he schal leede hem to hym silf in to Babiloyne. 13 And he schal take of the seed of the rewme, and schal smyte with it a boond of pees, and he schal take of it an ooth; but also he schal take awei the stronge men of the lond, 14 that it be a meke rewme, and be not reisd, but that it kepe the couenaunt of hym, and holde it. 15 Which yede awei fro hym, and sente messengeris in to Egipt, that it schulde yyue to hym horsis and miche puple. Whether he that dide these thingis, schal haue prosperite, ether schal gete helthe? and whether he that brekith couenaunt, schal ascape? 16 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for in the place of the king that made hym kyng, whos ooth he made voide, and brak the couenaunt, which he hadde with hym, in the myddis of Babiloyne he schal die. 17 And not in greet oost, nether in myche puple Farao schal make batel ayens hym, in the castyng of erthe, and in bilyng of palis, that he sle many persones. 18 For he dispiside the ooth, that he schulde breke the boond of pees, and lo! he yaf his hond; and whanne he hath do alle these thingis, he schal not ascape. 19 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Y lyue, for Y schal sette on his heed the ooth which he dispiside, and the boond of pees which he brak. 20 And Y schal spredde abrood my net on hym, and he schal be takun in my net, and Y schal brynge hym in to Babiloyne; and there Y schal deme hym in the trespassyng, bi which he dispiside me. 21 And alle hise flieris a wei with al his cumpenye schulen falle doun bi swerd, forsothe the remenauntis schulen be schaterid in to ech wynd; and ye schulen wite, that Y the Lord spak. 22 The Lord God seith these thingis, And Y schal take of the merowe of an hy cedre, and Y schal sette a tendir thing of the cop of hise braunchis; Y schal streyne, and Y schal plaunte on an hy hil, and apperynge fer. 23 In the hy hil of Israel Y schal plaunte it; and it schal breke out in to buriownyng, and it schal make fruyt, and it schal be in to a greet cedre, and alle briddis schulen dwelle vndur it; ech volatil schal make nest vndur the schadewe of hise boowis. 24 And alle trees of the cuntrei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord; Y made low the hy tre, and Y enhaunside the low tre, and Y made drie the greene tree, and Y made the drie tree to brynge forth boowis; Y the Lord haue spoke, and Y haue do.

18 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, What is it, that ye turnen a parable among you in to this prouerbe, in the lond of Israel, and seien, Fadris eeten a bittir grape, and the teeth of sones ben an egge, ether astonyed? 3 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, this parable schal no more be in to a prouerbe to you in Israel. 4 Lo! alle soulis ben myne; as the soule of the fadir, so and the soule of the sone is myn. Thilke soule that doith synne, schal die. 5 And if a man is iust, and doith doom and riytfulnesse, 6 etith not in hillis, and reisith not hise iyen to the idols of the hous of Israel; and defoulith not the wijf of his neiybore, and neiyeth not to a womman defoulid with vncleene blood; 7 and makith not a man sori, yeldith the wed to the dettour, rauyschith no thing bi violence, yyueth his breed to the hungri, and hilith a nakid man with a cloth; 8 leeneth not to vsure, and takith not more; turneth awei his hond fro wickidnesse, and makith trewe dom bitwixe man and man; 9 and goith in my comaundementis, and kepith my domes, that he do treuthe; this is a iust man, he schal lyue in lijf, seith the Lord God. 10 That if he gendrith a sone, a theef, shedinge out blood, 11 and doith oon of thes thingis, and sotheli not doing alle these thingis, but etinge in hillis, and defoulynge the wijf of his neiybore; 12 makynge soreuful a nedy man and pore, rauyschyng raueyns, not yeldinge a wed, reisyng hise iyen to idols, doynge abhomynacioun; yiuynge to vsure, and takynge more; 13 whether he schal lyue? he schal not lyue; whanne he hath do alle these abhomynable thingis, he schal die bi deth, his blood schal be in hym. 14 That if he gendrith a sone, which seeth alle the synnes of his fadir, whiche he dide, and dredith, and doith noon lijk tho; 15 etith not on hillis, and reisith not hise iyen to the idols of the hous of Israel; and defoulith not the wijf of his neiybore, 16 and makith not sori a man, withholdith not a wed, and rauyschith not raueyn, yyueth his breed to the hungri, and hilith the nakid with a cloth; 17 turneth a wei his hond fro the wrong of a pore man, takith not vsure and ouerhabundaunce, `that is, no thing more than he lente, and doith my domes, and goith in my comaundementis; this sone schal not die in the wickidnesse of his fadir, but he schal lyue in lijf. 18 For his fadir made fals caleng, and dide violence to his brother, and wrouyte yuel in the myddis of his puple, lo! he is deed in his wickidnesse. 19 And ye seien, Whi berith not the sone the wickidnesse of the fadir? That is to seie, for the sone wrouyte doom and riytfulnesse, he kepte alle my comaundementis, and dide tho, he schal lyue in lijf. 20 Thilke soule that doith synne, schal die; the sone schal not bere the wickidnesse of the fadir, and the fadir schal not bere the wickednesse of the sone; the riytfulnesse of a iust man schal be on hym, and the wickidnesse of a wickid man schal be on hym. 21 Forsothe if a wickid man doith penaunce of alle hise synnes whiche he wrouyte, and kepith alle myn heestis, and doith dom and riytfulnesse, he schal lyue bi lijf, and schal not die. 22 Y schal not haue mynde of alle his wickidnessis whiche he wrouyte; he schal lyue in his riytfulnesse which he wrouyte. 23 Whether the deth of the wickid man is of my wille, seith the Lord God, and not that he be conuertid fro his weies, and lyue? 24 Forsothe if a iust man turneth away hym silf fro his riytfulnesse, and doith wickidnesse bi alle hise abhomynaciouns, which a wickid man is wont to worche, whether he schal lyue? Alle hise riytfulnessis whiche he dide, schulen not be had in mynde; in his trespassyng bi which he trespasside, and in his synne which he synnede, he schal die in tho. 25 And ye seiden, The weie of the Lord is not euene. Therfor, the hous of Israel, here ye, whether my weie is not euene, and not more youre weies ben schrewid? 26 For whanne a riytful man turneth awei hym silf fro his riytfulnesse, and doith wickidnesse, he schal die in it, he schal die in the vnriytwisnesse which he wrouyte. 27 And whanne a wickid man turneth awei him silf fro his wickidnesse which he wrouyte, and doith dom and riytfulnesse, he schal quykene his soule. 28 For he biholdinge and turnynge awei hym silf fro alle hise wickidnessis which he wrouyte, schal lyue in lijf, and schal not die. 29 And the sones of Israel seien, The weie of the Lord is not euene. Whether my weies ben not euene, ye hous of Israel, and not more youre weies ben schrewid? 30 Therfor, thou hous of Israel, Y schal deme ech man bi hise weies, seith the Lord God. Turne ye togidere, and do ye penaunce for alle youre wickidnessis, and wickidnesse schal not be to you in to falling. 31 Caste awei fro you alle youre trespassingis, bi whiche ye trespassiden, and make ye a newe herte and a newe spirit to you, and whi schulen ye die, the hous of Israel? 32 For Y nyle the deeth of hym that dieth, seith the Lord God; turne ye ayen, and lyue ye.

19 And thou, sone of man, take weiling on the princes of Israel; 2 and thou schalt seie, Whi thi modir, a lionesse, lai among liouns? In the myddis of litle liouns sche nurschide hir whelpis, 3 and ledde out oon of hir litle liouns; he was maad a lioun, and he lernyde to take prei, and to ete men. 4 And hethene men herden of hym, and token hym not withouten her woundis; and thei brouyten hym in chaynes in to the lond of Egipt. 5 Which modir whanne sche hadde seyn, that sche was sijk, and the abiding of hym perischide, took oon of her litle liouns, and made hym a lioun. 6 Which yede among liouns, and was maad a lioun; 7 and lernede to take prey, and to deuoure men. He lernyde to make widewis, and to brynge the citees of men in to desert; and the lond and the fulnesse therof was maad desolat, of the vois of his roryng. 8 And hethene men camen togidere ayens hym on ech side fro prouynces, and spredden on hym her net; he was takun in the woundis of tho hethene men. 9 And thei senten hym in to a caue in chaines, and brouyten hym to the kyng of Babiloyne; and thei senten hym in to prisoun, that his vois were no more herd on the hillis of Israel. 10 Thi modir as a vyner in thi blood was plauntid on watre; the fruitis therof and the boowis therof encreessiden of many watris. 11 And sadde yerdis weren maad to it in to septris of lordis, and the stature therof was enhaunsid among boowis; and it siy his hiynesse in the multitude of hise siouns. 12 And it was drawun out in wraththe, and was cast forth in to erthe; and a brennyng wynd dryede the fruyt therof, and the yerdis of strengthe therof welewidened, and weren maad drie, and fier eet it. 13 And now it is plauntid ouer in desert, in a lond with out weie, and thristi. 14 And fier yede out of the yerde of the braunchis therof, that eet the fruyt therof. And a stronge yerde, the ceptre of lordis, was not in it. It is weilyng, and it schal be in to weilyng.

20 And it was doon in the seuenthe yeer, in the fyuethe monethe, in the tenthe dai of the monethe, men of the eldris of Israel camen to axe the Lord; and thei saten bifer me. 2 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 3 and he seide, Sone of man, speke thou to the eldere men of Israel; and thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Whether ye camen to axe me? Y lyue, for Y schal not answeere to you, seith the Lord God. Sone of man, 4 if thou demest hem, if thou demest, schewe thou to hem the abhomynaciouns of her fadris. 5 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, In the dai in which Y chees Israel, and reside myn hond for the generacioun of the hous of Jacob, and Y apperide to hem in the lond of Egipt, and Y reside myn hond for hem, and Y seide, Y am youre Lord God, 6 in that dai Y reise myn hond for hem, that Y schulde leede hem out of the lond of Egipt, in to the lond which Y hadde purueiede to hem, the lond flowynge with mylk and hony, which is noble among alle londis. 7 And Y seide to hem, Ech man caste awei the offenciouns of hise iyen, and nyle ye be defoulid in the idols of Egipt; Y am youre Lord God. 8 And thei terriden me to wraththe, and nolden here me; ech man castide not awei the abhomynaciouns of hise iyen, nether thei forsoken the idols of Egipt. 9 And Y seide, that Y wold schede out myn indignacioun on hem, and fille my wraththe in hem, in the myddis of the lond of Egipt. And Y dide for my name, that it schulde not be defoulid bifore hethene men, in the myddis of whiche thei weren, and among whiche Y apperide to hem, that Y schulde lede hem out of the lond of Egipt. 10 Therfor Y castide hem out of the lond of Egipt, and Y ledde hem out in to desert; 11 and Y yaf to hem my comaundementis, and Y schewide to hem my doomes, which a man schal do, and lyue in tho. 12 Ferthermore and Y yaf to hem my sabatis, that it schulde be a sygne bitwixe me and hem, and that thei schulden wite, that Y am the Lord halewynge hem. 13 And the hous of Israel terriden me to wraththe in desert; thei yeden not in my comaundementis, and thei castiden awei my domes, whiche a man that doith, schal lyue in tho; and thei defouliden greetli my sabatis. Therfor Y seide, that Y wolde schede out my strong veniaunce on hem in desert, and waste hem; 14 and Y dide for my name, lest it were defoulid bifore hethene men, fro whiche Y castide hem out in the siyt of tho. 15 Therfor Y reise myn hond on hem in the desert, that Y brouyte not hem in to the lond which Y yaf to hem, the lond flowynge with mylk and hony, the beste of alle londis. 16 For thei castiden awei my domes, and yeden not in my comaundementis, and thei defouliden my sabatis; for the herte of hem yede after idols. 17 And myn iye sparide on hem, that Y killide not hem, nether Y wastide hem in the desert. 18 Forsothe Y seide to the sones of hem in wildirnesse, Nyle ye go in the comaundementis of youre fadris, nether kepe ye the domes of hem, nethir be ye defoulid in the idols of hem. 19 Y am youre Lord God, go ye in my comaundementis, and kepe ye my domes, and do ye tho. 20 And halowe ye my sabatis, that it be a signe bitwixe me and you, and that it be knowun, that Y am youre Lord God. 21 And the sones terriden me to wraththe, and yeden not in my comaundementis, and kepten not my domes, that thei diden tho, whiche whanne a man hath do, he schal lyue in tho, and thei defouliden my sabatis. And Y manaasside to hem, that Y wolde schede out my stronge veniaunce on hem, and fille my wraththe in hem in the desert. 22 But Y turnede awei myn hond, and Y dide this for my name, that it were not defoulid bfore hethene men, fro whiche Y castide hem out bfore the iyen of tho. 23 Eft Y reise myn hond ayens hem in wildirnesse, that Y schulde scatere hem in to naciouns, and wyndewe hem in to londis; 24 for that that thei hadden not do my domes, and hadden repreuyd my comaundementis, and hadden defoulid my sabatis, and her iyen hadden be after the idols of her fadris. 25 Therfor and Y yaf to hem comaundementis not good, and domes in whiche thei schulen not lyue. 26 And Y defoulide hem in her yiftis, whanne thei offriden to me for her trespassis al thing that openeth the wombe; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord.

27 Wherfor speke thou, sone of man, to the hous of Israel, and thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Yit and in this youre fadris blasfemyden me, whanne thei dispisyng hadden forsake me, 28 and Y hadde brouyte hem in to the lond on which Y reside myn hond, that Y schulde yiue to hem, thei siyen ech hiy litil hil, and ech tree ful of boowis, and thei offriden there her sacrifices, and thei yauen there her offryngis, in to terring to wraththe; and thei settiden there the odour of her swetnesse, and thei offriden her moiste sacrifices. 29 And Y seide to hem, What is the hiy thing, to whiche ye entren? And the name therof is clepid Hiy Thing til to this dai. 30 Therfor seie thou to the hous of Israel, The Lord God seith these thingis, Certis ye ben defoulid in the weie of youre fadris, and ye don fornycacioun aftir the offendingis of hem, 31 and in the offryng of your yiftis, whanne ye leden ouer youre sones bi fier, ye ben defoulid in alle youre idols til to dai, and schal Y answere to you, the hous of Israel? Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for Y schal not answere to you; 32 nether the thouyte of youre soul schal be don, that seien, We schulen be as hethene men, and as naciouns of erthe, that we worschipe trees and stoonys. 33 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for in strong hond, and in arm stretchid forth, and in strong veniaunce sched out, I schal regne on you.

34 And Y schal lede out you fro puplis, and Y schal gadere you fro londis, in whiche ye ben scaterid; in strong hond, and in arm stretchid forth, and in strong veniaunce sched out Y schal regne on you. 35 And Y schal bringe you in to desert of puplis, and Y schal be demed there with you face to face. 36 As Y stryuede in doom ayens youre fadris in the desert of the lond of Egipt, so Y schal deme you, seith the Lord; 37 and Y schal make you suget to my septe, and Y schal bringe in you in the boondis of pees.
38 And Y schal chese of you trespassouris, and wickid men; and Y schal leede hem out of the lond of her dwelling, and thei schulen not entre in to the lond of Israel; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 39 And ye, the hous of Israel, the Lord God seith these thingis, Go ye ech man aftir youre idols, and serue ye tho. That and if ye heren not me in this, and defoulen more myn hooli name in youre yiftis, 40 and in youre idols, in myn hooli hil, in the hiy hil of Israel, seith the Lord God, ye schulen be punyschid greuousliere. There al the hous of Israel schal serue me, sotheli alle men in the lond, in which thei schulen plese me; and there Y schal seke youre firste fruytis, and the bigynnyng of youre tithis in alle youre halewyngis. 41 Y schal resseiue you in to odour of swetnesse, whanne Y schal leede you out of puplis, and schal gadere you fro londis, in whiche ye weren scaterid; and Y schal be halewid in you bifer the iyen of naciouns. 42 And ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal bringe you in to the lond of Israel, in to the lond for which Y reside myn hond, that Y schulde yyue it to youre fadris. 43 And ye schulen haue mynde there on youre weies, and on alle youre grete trespassis, bi whiche ye ben defoulid in tho; and ye schulen displese you in youre siyt, in alle youre malices whiche ye diden. 44 And ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal do wel to you for my name; not bi youre yuel weies, nether bi youre worste trespassis, ye hous of Israel, seith the Lord God. 45 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 46 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, sette thi face ayens the weie of the south, and droppe thou to the south, and profesie thou to the forest of the myddai feeld. 47 And thou schalt seie to the myddai forest, Here thou the word of the Lord. The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal kyndle a fier in thee, and Y schal brenne in thee ech green tre, and ech drie tre; the flawme of brennyng schal not be quenched, and ech face schal be brent ther ynne, fro the south til to the north. 48 And ech man schal se, that Y the Lord haue kyndlid it, and it schal not be quenched. 49 And Y seide, A! A! A! Lord God, thei seien of me, Whethir this man spekith not bi parabis?

21 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, sette thi face to Jerusalem, and droppe thou to the seyntuaries, and profesie thou ayens the erthe of Israel. 3 And thou schalt seie to the lond of Israel, The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y to thee, and Y schal caste my swerd out of his schethe, and Y schal sle in thee a iust man and a wickid man. 4 Forsothe for that that Y haue slayn in thee a iust man and a wickid man, therfor my swerd schal go out of his schethe to ech man, fro the south til to the north; 5 that ech man wite, that Y the Lord haue drawe out my swerd fro his schethe, that schal not be clepid ayen. 6 And thou, sone of man, weile in sorewe of leendis, and in bitternessis thou schalt weile bifore hem. 7 And whanne thei schulen seie to thee, Whi weilst thou? thou schalt seie, For hering, for it cometh; and ech herte shal faile, and alle hondis schulen be aclumsid, and ech spirit schal be sike, and watris schulen flete doun bi alle knees; lo! it cometh, and it shal be don, seith the Lord God. 8 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 9 and he seide, Sone of man, profesie thou; and thou schalt seie, The Lord God seith these thingis, Speke thou, The swerd, the swerd is maad scharp, and is maad briyt; 10 it is maad scharp to sle sacrifices; it is maad briyt, that it schyne. Thou that mouest the ceptre of my sone, hast kit doun ech tree. 11 And Y yaf it to be forbischid, that it be holdun with hond; this swerd is maad scharp, and this is maad briyt, that it be in the hond of the sleere. 12 Sone of man, crie thou, and yelle, for this swerd is maad in my puple, this in alle the duykis of Israel; thei that fledden ben youun to swerd with my puple. Therfor smite thou on thin hipe, for it is preuyd; 13 and this whanne it hath distried the ceptre, and it schal not be, seith the Lord God. 14 Therfor, sone of man, profesie thou, and smyte thou hond to hond, and the swerd be doublid, and the swerd of sleeris be treblid; this is the swerd of greet sleynge, that schal make hem astonyed, 15 and to faile in herte, and multiplieth fallingis. In alle the yatis of hem Y yaf disturbing of a swerd, scharp and maad briyt to schyne, gird to sleynge. 16 Be thou maad scharp, go thou to the riyt side, ether to the left side, whidur euer the desir of thi face is. 17 Certis and Y schal smyte with hond to hond, and Y schal fille myn indignacioun; Y the Lord spak. 18 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 19 and he seide, And thou, sone of man, sette to thee twei weies, that the swerd of the king of Babiloyne come; bothe schulen go out of o lond, and bi the hond he schal take coniecting; he schal coniecte in the heed of the weie of the citee, 20 settinge a weye, that the swerd come to Rabath of the sones of Amon, and to Juda in to Jerusalem moost strong. 21 For the king of Babiloyne stood in the meeting of twey weies, in the heed of twei weies, and souyte dyuynyng, and medlide arowis; he axide idols, and took counsel at entrails. 22 Dyuynyng was maad to his riyt side on Jerusalem, that he sette engyns, that he opene mouth in sleynge, that he reise vois in yelling, that he sette engyns ayens the yatis, that he bere togidere erthe, that he bilde strengthinges. 23 And he schal be as counseling in veyn goddis answer bifor the iyen of hem, and seruyng the reste of sabatis; but he schal haue mynde on wickidnesse, to take. 24 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For that that ye hadden mynde on youre wickidnesse, and schewiden youre trespassyngis, and youre synnes apperiden in alle youre thouytis, forsothe for that that ye hadden mynde, ye schulen be takun bi hond. 25 But thou, cursid wickid duyck of Israel, whos dai bifor determyned is comun in the tyme of wickidnesse, 26 the Lord God seith these thingis, Do awei the mitre, take awei the coroun; whether it is not this that reiseid the meke man, and made low the hiy man? 27 Wickidnesse, wickidnesse, wickidnesse Y schal putte it; and this schal not be doon til he come, whos the doom is, and Y schal bitake to hym. 28 And thou, sone of man, profesie, and seie, The Lord God seith these thingis to the sones of Amon, and to the schenschiipe of hem; and thou schalt seie, A! thou swerd, A! thou swerd, drawun out to sle, maad briyte, that thou sle and schyne, 29 whanne veyn thingis weren seien to thee, and leeingis weren dyuynyng, that thou schuldist be youun on the neckis of wickid men woundid, the dai of whiche bifore determyned schal come in the tyme of wickidnesse, turne thou ayen in to thi schethe, 30 in to the place in which thou were maad. Y schal deme thee in the lond of thi birthe, 31 and Y schal schede out myn indignacioun on thee; in the fier of my strong veniaunce Y schal blowe in thee, and Y schal yyue thee in to the hondis of vnwise men, and makeinge deth. 32 Thou schalt be mete to fier, thi blood schal be in the middis of erthe; thou schalt be youun to foryetyng, for Y the Lord spak.

22 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, And thou, sone of man, whether thou demest not the citee of bloodis? 3 And thou schalt schewe to it alle hise abhomynaciouns, and thou schalt seie, The Lord God seith these thingis, This is a citee schedinge out blood in the myddis of it silf, that the tyme therof come; and which made idols ayens it silf, that it shulde be defoulid. 4 In thi blood which is shed out of thee, thou trespassidist, and thou art defoulid in thin idols whiche thou madist; and thou madist thi daies to neiyen, and thou brouytist the time of thi yeeris. Therfor Y yaf thee schenschipec to hethene men, and scornynge to alle londis that ben niye thee, 5 and that ben fer fro thee; thou foul citee, noble, greet in perischinge, thei schulen haue victorie of thee. 6 Lo! princes of Israel, alle in her arm, weren in thee, to schede out blood. 7 Thei punyschiden with wrongis fadir and modir in thee, thei calengiden falsli a comelyng in the myddis of thee, thei maden sori a fadirles child and a widewe at thee. 8 Ye dispisiden my seyntuaries, and ye defouliden my sabatis. 9 Men bacbiteris weren in thee, to schede out blood, and eten on hillis in thee; thei wrouyten greet trespas in the myddis of thee. 10 Thei vnhylen the shamefule thingis of the fadir in thee, thei maden low in thee the vnclennesse of a womman in vnclene blood. 11 And ech man wrouyte abhomynacioun ayens the wijf of his neybore, and the fadir of the hosebonde defoulide his sones wijf vnleuefuli; a brother oppresside in thee his sister, the douytir of his fadir. 12 Thei token yiftis at thee, to schede out blood; thou tokist vsure and ouerabundaunce, and thou calengidist greedili thi neyboris, and thou hast foryete me, seith the Lord God. 13 Lo! Y haue smyte togidere myn hondis on thin aueryce, which thou didist, and on the blood which is sched out in the myddis of thee. 14 Whether thin herte schal susteyne, ether thin hondis schulen haue power in the daies whiche Y schal make to thee? For Y the Lord spak, and Y schal do. 15 And Y schal scatere thee in to naciouns, and Y schal wyndewe thee in to londis; and Y schal make thin vnclennesse to faile fro thee, 16 and Y schal welde thee in the siyt of hethene men; and thou schalt wite, that Y am the Lord. 17 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, 18 Thou, sone of man, the hous of Israel is turned to me in to dros, ether filthe of irun; alle these ben bras, and tyn, and irun, and leed, in the myddis of furneis, thei ben maad the dros of siluer. 19 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For that alle ye ben turned in to dros, lo!

 Y schal gadere you togidere in the myddis of Jerusalem, 20 bi gadering togidere of siluer, and of latoun, and of irun, and of tyn, and of leed, in the myddis of furneis; and Y schal kindle ther ynne a fier, to welle togidere; so Y schal gadere you togidere in my strong veniaunce, and in my wraththe, and Y schal reste.
 And Y schal welle you togidere, 21 and Y schal gadere you togidere, and Y schal sette you a fier in the fier of my strong veniaunce, and ye schulen be wellid togidere in the myddis therof. 22 As siluer is wellid togidere in the myddis of a furneis, so ye schulen be in the myddis therof; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y haue sched out myn indignacioun on you. 23 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 24 and he seide, Sone of man, seie thou to it, Thou art a lond vncleene, and not bireyned in the dai of strong veniaunce. 25 Sweringe togidere, ether conspiringe of profetis is in the myddis therof; as a lioun roringe and takinge prei, thei deuouriden men, thei token richessis and prijs; thei multipliden widewis therof in the myddis therof. 26 Preestis therof dispisiden my lawe, and defouliden my seyntuaries; thei hadden not difference bitwixe hooli thing and vnchooli, thei vndurstoden not bitwixe defoulid thing and cleene thing; and thei turneden awei her iyen fro my sabatis, and Y was defoulid in the myddis of hem. 27 The princes therof in the myddis therof weren as wolues rauyschinge prey, to schede out blood, and to leese men, and in suyng lucris gredili. 28 Forsothe the profetis therof pargetiden hem with out temperure, and seyen veyn thingis, and dyuyneden leesingis to hem, and seiden, The Lord God seith these thingis, whanne the Lord spak not. 29 The puples of the lond calengiden fals caleng, and rauyschiden bi violence; thei turmentiden a nedi man and pore, and oppressiden a comeling bi fals caleng, with out doom. 30 And Y souyte of hem a man, that schulde sette an hegge bitwixe, and stonde set ayens me for the lond, that Y schulde not distrie it, and Y foond not. 31 And Y schedde out on hem myn indignacioun, and Y wastide hem in the fier of my wraththe; Y yeldide the weie of hem on the heed of hem, seith the Lord God.

23 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, twei wymmen weren the douytris of o modir, and diden fornyacioun in Egipt; 3 in her yonge wexyng age thei diden fornicacioun; there the brestis of hem weren maad low, and the tetis of the tyme of mariage of hem weren brokun. 4 Forsothe the names of hem ben, Oolla, the more sistir, and Ooliba the lesse sistir of hir. And Y hadde hem, and thei childiden sones and douytris; certis the names of hem ben Samarie Oolla, and Jerusalem Ooliba. 5 Therfor Oolla dide fornicacioun on me, and was wood on hir louyeris, on Assiriens neiynges, 6 clothid with iacinct, princes, and magistratis, yonge men of coueytise, alle knytis, and stieris of horsis. 7 And sche yaf hir fornicaciouns on hem, on alle the chosun sones of Assiriens; and in alle on whiche sche was wood, sche was defoulid in the vnclennesis of hem. 8 Ferthermore and sche lefte not hir fornicaciouns, whiche sche hadde in Egipt; for whi and thei slepten with hir in the yongthe of hir, and thei braken the tetis of the tyme of mariage of hir, and thei scheden out her fornicacioun on hir. 9 Therfor Y yaf hir in to the hondis of hir louyeris, in to the hondis of the sones of Assur, on whos letcherie sche was wood. 10 Thei diskuyerden the schenschipec of hir; thei token awei the sones and the douytris of hir, and killiden hir with swerd; and the wymmen weren maad famouse, that is, sclaudrid, and thei diden domes in hir. 11 And whanne hir sistir Ooliba hadde seyn this, sche was wood in letcherie more than that sistre, and yaf vnschamefastli hir fornicacioun on the fornicacioun of hir sistre, 12 to the sones of Assiriens, to duykis and magistratis comynge to hir, that weren clothid with dyuerse cloth, to knyytis that weren borun on horsis, and to yonge men with noble schap, to alle men. 13 And Y siy that o weie of both sistris was defoulid, 14 and sche encreesside hir fornicaciouns. And whanne sche hadde seyn men peyntid in the wal, the ymagis of Caldeis expressid with colouris, 15 and gird on the reynes with kniytis girdlis, and cappis peyntid in the heedis of hem, the foormes of alle duykis, the licesse of the sones of Babiloyne, and of the lond of Caldeis, in which thei weren borun; 16 sche was wood on hem bi coueitise of hir iyen, and sche sente messengeris to hem in to Caldee. 17 And whanne the sones of Babiloyne weren comun to hir, to the bed of tetis, thei defouliden hir in her letcheries of virgyns; and sche was defoulid of hem, and the soule of hir was fillid of hem. 18 Also sche made nakid hir fornicaciouns, and diskyuered hir schenschiþe; and my soule yede awei fro hir, as my soule hadde go awei fro hir sistir. 19 For sche multiplied hir fornicaciouns, and hadde mynde on the daies of hir yongthe, in whiche sche dide fornicacioun in the lond of Egipt. 20 And sche was wood in letcherie on the liggyng bi of hem, whos fleischis ben as the fleischis of assis, and as the membris of horsis ben the membris of hem. 21 And thou visitidist the grete trespas of thi yongthe, whanne thi brestis weren maad low in Egipt, and the tetis of the tyme of thi mariage weren brokun. 22 Therfor, thou Ooliba, the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal reise alle thi louyeris ayens thee, of whiche thi soule was fillid, and Y schal gadere hem ayens thee in cumpas; 23 the sones of Babiloyne, and alle Caldeis, noble and miyti men, and princes, alle the sones of Assiriens, and yonge men of noble foorme, duykis, and magistratis, alle princes of princes, and named stieris of horsis. 24 And thei araied with chare and wheel schulen come on thee, the multitude of pupilis schulen be armed with haburioun, and scheeld, and basynet, ayens thee on ech side; and Y schal yyue doom bifor hem, and thei schulen deme thee bi her domes. 25 And Y schal sette my feruour in thee, which thei schulen vse with thee in woodnesse; thei schulen kitte awei thi nose and thin eeris, and thei schulen sle with swerd tho thingis that weren left; thei schulen take thi sones and thi douytris, and thi laste thing schal be deuourid bi fier. 26 And thei schulen make thee nakid of thi clothis, and thei schulen take awei the vessels of thi glorie. 27 And Y schal make thi greet trespasse to reste fro thee, and thi fornicacioun fro the lond of Egipt; and thou schalt not reise thin iyen to hem, and thou schalt no more haue mynde on Egipt. 28 For the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal yyue thee in to the hondis of hem whiche thou hatist, `in to the hondis of hem of whiche thi soule was fillid, 29 and thei schulen do with thee in hatrede. And thei schulen take awei alle thi trauels, and thei schulen leeue thee nakid, and ful of schenschipec; and the schenschipec of thi fornicaciouns schal be schewid. Thi greet 30 trespass and thi fornicaciouns han do these thingis to thee; for thou didist fornicacioun aftir hethene men, among whiche thou were defoulid in the idols of hem. 31 Thou yedist in the weie of thi sister, and Y schal yyue the cuppe of hir in thin hond. 32 The Lord God seith these thingis, Thou schalt drinke the cuppe of thi sistir, the depthe, and the broodnesse; thou that art most able to take, schalt be in to scornynge, and in to mouwying. 33 Thou schalt be fillid with drunkenesse and sorewe, with the cuppe of mourenying and of heuynesse, with the cuppe of thi sister Samarie. 34 And thou schalt drynke it, and thou schalt drinke of til to the drastis, and thou schalt deuoure the relifs therof, and thou schalt to-reende thi brestis, for Y the Lord spak, seith the Lord God. 35 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For thou hast foryete me, and hast cast forth me bihynde thi bodi, bere thou also thi greet trespass and thi fornicaciouns. 36 And the Lord God seide to me, and spak, Sone of man, whether thou demest Ooliba and Oolla, and tellist to hem the grete trespassis of hem? 37 For thei diden auowtrie, and blood was in the hondis of hem, and thei diden fornicacioun with her idols; ferthermore and thei offriden to tho the sones whiche thei gendriden to me, for to be deuourid. 38 But also thei diden this to me, thei defouleden my seyntuarie in that dai, and maden vnhooli my sabatis. 39 And whanne thei sacrificiden her sones to her idols, and entriden in to my seyntuarie in that dai, that thei schulden defoule it, thei diden also these thingis in the myddis of myn hous. 40 Thei senten to men comyng fro fer, to whiche thei hadden sent messangeris. Therfor lo! thei camen, to whiche thou waischidist thee, and anoyntidist thin iyen with oynement of wymmen, and thou were ourned with wymmens atier. 41 Thou satist in a ful fair bed, and a boord was ourned bifor thee; thou settidist myn encense and myn oynement on it. 42 And a vois of multitude makynge ful out ioye was ther ynn; and in men that weren brouyt of the multitude of men, and camen fro desert, thei settiden bies in the hondis of hem, and faire corouns on the heedis of hem. 43 And Y seide to hir, that was defoulid in auoutries, Now also this schal do fornycacioun in hir fornicacioun. 44 And thei entriden to hir; as to a womman, an hoore, so thei entriden to Oolla and to Ooliba, cursid wymmen. 45 Therfor these men ben iust, these schulen deme thilke wymmen bi the doom of auoutressis, and bi the doom of hem that scheden out blood; for thei ben auoutressis, and blood is in the hondis of hem, and thei diden fornicacioun with her idols. 46 For the Lord God seith these thingis, Bring thou multitudis to hem, and yyue thou hem in to noise, and in to raueyn; 47 and be thei stoonyd with the soonys of puplis, and be thei stikid togidere with the swerdis of hem. Thei schulen sle the sones and the douytris of hem, and thei schulen brenne with fier the housis of hem. 48 And Y schal do awei greet trespas fro the lond; and alle wymmen schulen lerne, that thei do not afir the greet trespas of hem. 49 And thei schulen yyue youre grete trespas on you; and ye schulen bere the synnes of youre idols, and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord God.

24 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, in the nynthe yeer, and in the tenthe monethe, in the tenthe dai of the monethe,

2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, write to thee the name of this dai, in which the king of Babiloyne is conformed ayens Jerusalem to dai. 3 And thou schalt seie bi a prouerbe a parable to the hous, terrere to wraththe, and thou schalt speke to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Sette thou a brasun pot, sette thou sotheli, and putte thou watir in to it. Take thou a beeste ful fat; 4 gadere thou togidere the gobetis therof in it, ech good part, and the hipe, and the schuldre, chosun thingis and ful of boonys.
 5 Also dresse thou heepis of boonys vndur it; and the sething therof buylide out, and the boonys therof weren sodun in the myddis therof. 6 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Wo to the citee of bloodis, to the pot whos rust is ther ynne, and the rust therof yede not out of it; caste thou out it bi partis, and bi hise partis; lot felle not on it. 7 For whi the blood therof is in the myddis therof; he schede it out on a ful cleer stoon, he schedde not it out on erthe, 8 that it mai be hilid with dust, that Y schulde bringe in myn indignacioun, and `a venge bi veniaunce; Y yaf the blood therof on a ful cleer stoon, that it schulde not be hilid. 9 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Wo to the citee of bloodis, whos brennyng Y schal make greet; 10 gadere thou togidire boonys, whiche Y schal kyndle with fier; fleischis schulen be wastid, and al the settyng togidere schal be sodun, and boonys schulen faile. 11 Also sette thou it voide on coolis, that the metal therof wexe hoot, and be meltid, and that the filthe therof be wellid togidere in the myddis therof, and the rust therof be wastid. 12 It was swat bi myche trauel, and the ouer greet rust therof yede not out therof, nether bi fier. 13 Thin vncleennesse is abhomynable, for Y wolde clense thee, and thou art not clensid fro thi filthis; but nether thou schalt be clensid bifore, til Y make myn indignacioun to reste in thee. 14 Y the Lord spak; it schal come, and Y schal make, Y schal not passe, nethir Y schal spare, nether Y schal be plesid; bi thi weies and bi thi fyndyngis Y schal deme thee, seith the Lord. 15 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 16 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, lo! Y take awei fro thee the desirable thing of thin iyen in veniaunce, and thou schalt not weile, nether wepe, nether thi teeris schulen flete doun. 17 Weile thou beynge stille, thou schalt not make mourenyng of deed men; thi coroun be boundun aboute thin heed, and thi schoon schulen be in the feet, nether thou schalt hile the mouth with a cloth, nether thou schalt ete the metis of mourneris. 18 Therfor Y spak to the puple in the morewtid, and my wijf was deed in the euentid; and Y dide in the morewtid, as he hadde comaundid to me. 19 And the puple seide to me, Whi schewist thou not to vs what these thingis signefien, whiche thou doist? 20 And Y seide to hem, The word of the Lord was maad to me, 21 and he seide, Speke thou to the hous of Israel, The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal defoule my seyntuarie, the pride of youre empire, and the desirable thing of youre iyen, and on which youre soule dredith; and youre sonnes and youre douytris, whiche ye leften, schulen falle bi swerd. 22 And ye schulen do, as Y dide; ye schulen not hile mouthis with cloth, and ye schulen not ete the mete of weileris. 23 Ye schulen haue corouns in youre heedis, and schoon in the feet; ye schulen not weile, nether ye schulen wepe, but ye schulen faile in wretchidnesse, for youre wickidnessis; and ech man schal weile to his brother. 24 And Ezechiel schal be to you in to a signe of thing to comynge; bi alle thingis whiche he dide, ye schulen do, whanne this thing schal come; and ye schulen wite, and his puple with hym, the strongeste men of hethene men, schulen be brouyt, to leese the lond; and thei schulen drawe out her swerdis on Egipt, and thei schulen fille the lond with slayn men. 12 And Y schal make drie the botmes of floodis, and Y schal yyue the lond in the hond of the worste men; and I schal distrie the lond, and the fulnesse therof in the hond of aliens; Y the Lord spak. 13 The Lord God seith these thingis, And Y schal leese simylacris, and Y schal make idols to ceesse fro Memphis, and a duyck of the lond of Egipt schal no more be. And Y schal yyue drede in the lond of Egipt, 14 and Y schal leese the lond of Phatures. And Y schal yyue fier in Tafnys, and Y schal make my domes in Alisaundre. 15 And Y schal schede out myn indignacioun on Pelusyum, the strengthe of Egipt; and Y schal sle the multitude of Alisaundre, 16 and Y schal yyue fier in Egipt. Pelusyum, as a womman trauelynge of child, schal haue sorewe, and Alisaundre schal be destried, and in Memphis schulen be ech daies angwischis. 17 The yonge men of Heliopoleos and of Bubasti schulen falle doun bi swerd, and tho citees schulen be led caitifs. 18 And in Thafnys the dai schal wexe blak, whanne Y schal al to-breke there the ceptris of Egipt, and the pride of the power therof schal faile there ynne. A cloude schal hile it; forsothe the douytris therof schulen be led in to caitifte, and Y schal make domes in Egipt; 19 and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 20 And it was doon in the enleuenthe yeer, in the firste monethe, in the seuenthe dai of the moneth, the word of the Lord was maad to me, 21 and he seide, Thou sone of man, Y haue broke the arm of Farao, kyng of Egipt; and lo! it is not wlappid, that helthe schulde be restorid therto, that it schulde be boundun with clothis, and woundun with lynnun clothis, and that he myyte holde swerd, whanne he hadde resseyued strengthe.

22 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y to Farao, kyng of Egipt; and Y schal make lesse his strong arm but brokun, and Y schal caste doun the swerd fro his hond. 23 And Y schal scatere Egipt among hethene men, and Y schal wyndewe hem in londis. 24 And Y schal coumforte the armes of the kyng of Babiloyne, and Y schal yyue my swerd in the hond of hym; and Y schal breke the armes of Farao, and men slayn bfore his face schulen weile bi weilyngis. 25 And Y schal coumforte the armes of the kyng of Babiloyne, and the armes of Farao schulen falle doun. And thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal yyue my swerd in the hond of the kyng of Babiloyne; and he schal stretche forth it on the lond of Egipt. 26 And Y schal scatere Egipt in to naciouns, and Y schal wyndewe hem in to londis; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord.

31 And it was don in the enleuenthe yeer, in the thridde moneth, in the firste dai of the monethe, the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, seie to Farao, kyng of Egipt, and to his puple, To whom art thou maad lijk in thi greetnesse? 3 Lo! Assur as a cedre in Liban, fair in braunchis, and ful of boowis, and hiy bi hiynesse; and his heiye was reisd among thicke bowis. 4 Watris nurschiden hym, the depthe of watris enhaunside him; hise floodis fletiden out in the cumpas of hise rootis, and he sente out hise strondis to alle the trees of the cuntrei. 5 Therfor his hiynesse was enhaunsid ouer alle trees of the cuntrei, and hise trees weren multiplied, and hise braunchis weren reisd, for many watris. 6 And whanne he hadde stretchid forth his schadewe, alle the volatils of the eir maden nestis in hise braunchis; and alle the beestis of forestis gendriden vndur hise boowis, and the cumpeny of ful many folkis dwellide vndur the schadewynge place of hym. 7 And he was ful fair in his greetnesse, and in alargyng of hise trees; for the roote of hym was bisidis many watris. 8 Cedris in the paradijs of God weren not hiyere than he; fir trees atteyneden not euenli to the hiynesse of hym, and plane trees weren not euene with the boowis of hym. Ech tree of paradijs of God was not maad lic hym and his fairnesse. 9 For Y made hym fair, and with many and thicke boowis; and alle the trees of lust, that weren in the paradijs of God, hadden enuye to hym. 10 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For that that he was reisd in hiynesse, and he yaf his hyynesse greene and thicke, and his herte was reisd in his hiynesse; 11 now Y haue youe hym in to the hondis of the strongeste man of hethene men. And he doynge schal do to that Assur; aftir the vnfeithfulnesse of hym Y castide hym out. 12 And aliens, and the moost cruel men of naciouns, schulen kitte hym down, and schulen caste hym forth on hillis. And hise braunchis schulen falle down in alle grete valeis, and hise trees schulen be brokun in alle roochis of stoon of erthe. And alle the puplis of erthe schulen go awei fro his schadewing place, and schulen forsake hym. 13 Alle volatils of the eir dwelliden in the fallyng of hym, and alle beestis of the cuntrei weren in the braunchis of hym. 14 Wherfor alle the trees of watris schulen not be reisd in hir hiynesse, nether schulen sette hir hiynesse among places ful of woode, and ful of boowis, and alle trees that ben moistid of watris schulen not stonde in the hiynesse of tho. For alle thei ben youun in to deth, to the ferthest lond in the myddis of the sones of men, to hem that goon down in to the lake. 15 The Lord God seith these thingis, In the dai whanne he yede doun to hellis, Y brouyte yn mourenyng; Y hilide hym with depthe of watris, and I forbede his flodis, and Y refreynede many watris. The Liban was sori on him, and alle the trees of the feeld (Sheol h7585) 16 weren shakun of the soun of his falling. I mouide togidere hethene men, whanne Y ledde hym doun to helle, with hem that yeden doun in to the lake. And alle trees of likyng, noble trees, and ful cleere in the Liban, alle that weren moistid with watris, weren coumfortid in the loweste lond. (Sheol h7585) 17 For whi also thei schulen go doun with hym to helle, to slayn men with swerd; and the arm of ech man schal sitte vndur the schadewyng place of hym, in the myddis of naciouns. (Sheol h7585) 18 To whom art thou licned, thou noble and hiy among the trees of likyng? Lo! thou art led doun with the trees of likyng to the ferthest lond. In the myddis of vncircumcidid men thou schalt slepe, with hem that ben slayn bi swerd. Thilke is Farao, and al the multitude of hym, seith the Lord God.

32 And it was don in the twelueth yee, in the twelueth monethe, in the firste dai of the monethe, the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, take weilyng on Farao, kyng of Egipt, and thou schalt seie to hym, Thou were maad lijk to a lioun of hethene men, and to a dragoun whiche is in the see. And thou wyndewist with horn in thi floodis, and thou disturblidist watris with thi feet, and defoulidist the floodis of tho. 3 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Y schal spredde abroad my net on thee in the multitude of many puples, and Y schal drawe thee out in my net; 4 and Y schal caste forth thee in to erthe. On the face of the feeld Y schal caste thee awei, and Y schal make alle the volatils of heuene to dwelle on thee, and Y schal fille of thee the beestis of al erthe. 5 And Y

schal yyue thi fleischis on hillis, and Y schal fille thi litle hillis with thi root; 6 and Y schal moiste the erthe with the stynk of thi blood on mounteyns, and valeis schulen be fillid of thee. 7 And whanne thou schalt be quenched, Y schal hile heuenes, and Y schal make blak the sterris therof; Y schal kyure the sunne with a clowde, and the moone schal not yyue hir liyt. 8 Y schal make alle the liyt yyueris of heuene to mourne on thee, and Y schal yyue derknessis on thi lond, seith the Lord God; whanne thi woundid men schulen falle down in the myddis of erthe, seith the Lord God. 9 And Y schal terre to wraththe the herte of many puplis, whanne Y schal bringe in thi sorewe among folkis, on londis whiche thou knowist not. 10 And Y schal make many puplis to wondre on thee, and the kyngis of hem schulen drede with ful greet hidousnesse on thee, for alle thi wickidnessis whiche thou wrouytist, whanne my swerd schal bigynne to flee on the faces of hem. And alle men schulen be astonyed sudenli, for her lijf, in the dai of her fallyng. 11 For the Lord God seith these thingis, The swerd of the king of Babiloyne schal come to thee; 12 in swerdis of stronge men Y schal caste down thi multitude, alle these folkis ben not able to be ouercomun. And thei schulen waste the pride of Egipt, and the multitude therof schal be distried. 13 And Y schal leese alle the beestis therof, that weren on ful many watris; and the foot of a man schal no more troble tho watris, nether the clew of beestis schal troble tho. 14 Thanne Y schal yelde the watris of hem clenneste, and Y schal brynge the floodis of hem as oile, seith the Lord God, 15 whanne Y schal yyue desolat the lond of Egipt. Forsothe the lond schal be forsakun of his fulnesse, whanne Y schal smyte alle the dwellers therof; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 16 It is a weiling, and the douytris of hethene men schulen biweile hym; thei schulen biweile hym on Egipt, and thei schulen biweile hym on the multitude therof, seith the Lord God. 17 And it was don in the twelueth yeer, in the fiftenthe dai of the monethe, the word of the Lord was maad to me, 18 and he seide, Sone of man, synge thou a song of weilyng on the multitude of Egipt, and drawe thou down it the same, and the douytris of stronge hethene men to the laste lond, with hem that yeden down in to the lake. 19 In as myche as thou art fairere, go down, and slepe with vncircumcidid men. 20 In the myddis of slayn men thei schulen falle down bi swerd; a swerd is youun, and thei drowen it to, and alle the puplis therof. 21 The myytieste of stronge men schulen speke to hym, fro the myddis of helle, whiche with her helperis yeden down, and slepten vncircumcidid, and slayn bi swerd. (Sheol h7585) 22 There is Assur, and al his multitude; the sepulcris of hem ben in the cumpas of hym, alle slayn men, and that fellen down bi swerd, 23 whose sepulcris ben youun in the laste thingis of the lake. And the multitude of hym is maad bi the cumpas of his sepulcre, alle slayn men, and fallynge down bi swerd, whiche yauen sum tyme her ferdfulnesse in the lond of lyuyng men. 24 There is Helam, and al the multitude therof bi the cumpas of his sepulcre; alle these weren slayn, and fallynge down bi swerd, that yeden down vncircumcidid to the laste lond; whiche settiden her drede in the lond of lyuyng men, and baren her schenschipe with hem that goon down in to the lake. 25 In the myddis of slayn men thei puttiden his bed in alle the puplis of hym; his sepulcre is in the cumpas of hym. Alle these weren vncircumcidid and slayn bi swerd, for thei yauen drede in the lond of lyuyng men, and

baren her schenschiþe with hem that gon doun in to the lake; thei ben set in the myddis of slayn men. 26 There ben Mosoch and Tubal, and al the multitude therof; the sepulcris therof ben in the cumpasse therof. Alle these men vncircumcidid weren slayn, and fallynge doun bi swerd, for thei yauen her drede in the lond of lyuynges men. 27 And thei schulen not slepe with stronge men, and fallynge doun, and vncircumcidid, that yeden doun in to helle with her armuris, and puttiden her swerdis vndur her heedis. And the wickidnessis of hem weren in the boonys of hem, for thei weren maad the drede of stronge men in the lond of lyuynges men. (Sheol h7585) 28 And thou therfor schalt be al to-foulid in the myddis of vncircumcidid men, and schalt slepe with hem that ben slayn bi swerd. 29 There is Idumee, and the kingis therof, and alle duykis therof, that ben youun with her oost, with men slayn bi swerd, and which slepten with vncircumcidid men, and with hem that yeden doun in to the lake. 30 There ben alle princes of the north, and alle hunteris, that weren led forth with slayn men, that ben dredinge and schent in her strengthe, which slepten vncircumcidid with men slayn bi swerd, and baren her schenschiþe with hem that yeden doun in to the lake. 31 Farao siy hem, and was coumfortid on al his multitude that was slayn bi swerd. And Farao and al his oost, seith the Lord God, baren her schenschiþe with hem that yeden doun in to the lake; 32 for he yaf his drede in the lond of lyuynges men. And Farao and al his multitude slepte in the myddis of vncircumcidid men, with men slayn bi swerd, seith the Lord God.

33 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, speke to the sones of thi puple, and thou schalt seie to hem, A lond whanne Y bringe in a swerd on it, and the puple of the lond takith o man of hise laste men, and makith hym aspiere on hym, 3 and he seeth a swerd comynge on the lond, and sowneth with a clarioun, and tellith to the puple, 4 forsothe a man that herith, who euer he is, the sowne of the clarioun, and kepith not him silf, and the swerd cometh, and takith hym awei, the blood of hym schal be on the heed of hym.

 5 He herde the sown of the clarioun, and kepte not hym silf, his blood schal be in hym; forsothe if he kepith hym silf, he schal saue his lijf. 6 That if the aspiere seeth a swerd comynge, and sowneth not with a clarioun, and the puple kepith not hym silf, and the swerd cometh, and takith awei a man of hem, sotheli he is takun in his wickidnesse; but Y schal seke the blood of hym of the hond of the aspiere. 7 And, thou, sone of man, Y yaf thee aspiere to the hous of Israel; therfor thou schalt here of my mouth a word, and schalt telle to hem of me. 8 If whanne Y seie to the wickid man, Thou, wickid man, schalt die bi deth, thou spekist not, that the wickid man kepe hym silf fro his weie, thilke wickid man schal die in his wickidnesse, but Y schal seke his blood of thin hond. 9 Forsothe if whanne thou tellist to the wickid man, that he be conuertid fro his weies, he is not conuertid fro his weie, he schal die in his wickidnesse; certis thou hast delyuered thi soule. 10 Therefore thou, sone of man, seie to the hous of Israel, Thus ye spaken, seiyng, Oure wickidnessis and oure synnes ben on vs, and we failen in tho; hou therfor moun we lyue? seie thou to hem, 11 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, Y nyle the deth of the wickid man, but that the wickid man be conuertid fro his weie, and lyue; be ye conuertid fro youre worste weies, and whi schulen ye die, the hous of Israel? 12 Therfor thou, sone of man, seie to the sones of thi puple, The riytfulnesse of a riytful man schal not delyuere hym, in whateuer dai he doith synne; and the wickidnesse of a wickid man schal not anoye him, in what euere dai he is conuertid fro his wickidnesse; and a iust man schal not mowe lyue in his riytfulnesse, in what euer dai he doith synne. 13 Also if Y seie to a iust man, that he schal lyue bi lijf, and he tristith in his riytfulnesse, and doith wickidnesse, alle his riytfulnessis schulen be youun to foryetyng, and in his wickidnesse which he wrouyte, in that he schal die. 14 Forsothe if Y seie to the wickid man, Thou schalt die bi deth, and he doith penaunce for his synne, and doith dom and riytfulnesse, 15 and if thilke wickid man restorith a wed, and yeldith raueyn, and goith in comaundementis of lijf, and doith not ony vniust thing, he schal lyue bi lijf, and schal not die. 16 Alle hise synnes which he synnede, schulen not be arettid to hym; he dide doom and riytfulnesse, he schal lyue bi lijf. 17 And the sones of thi puple seiden, The weie of the Lord is not euene weiyte; and the weie of hem is vniust. 18 For whanne a iust man goith awei fro his riytfulnesse, and doith wickidnessis, he schal die in tho; 19 and whanne a wickid man goith awei fro his wickidnesse, and doith dom and riytfulnes, he schal lyue in tho. 20 And ye seien, The weie of the Lord is not riytful. Y schal deme ech man bi hise weies of you, the hous of Israel. 21 And it was doon in the tweluethe yeer, in the tenthe monethe, in the fyuethe dai of the monethe of our passyng ouer, he that fledde fro Jerusalem cam to me, and seide, The citee is distried. 22 Forsothe the hond of the Lord was maad to me in the euentid, bifore that he cam that fledde, and he openyde my mouth, til he cam to me eerli; and whanne my mouth was openyd, Y was no more stille. 23 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, 24 Thou, sone of man, thei that dwellen in `thingis in poynt to falle doun on the erthe of Israel, seien, spekyng, Abraham was oon, and bi eritage he hadde the lond in possessioun; forsothe we ben manye, the lond is youun to vs in to possessioun. 25 Therfor thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Whether ye that eten in blood, and reisen youre iyen to youre vncleanness, and scheden blood, schulen haue in possessioun the lond bi eritage? 26 Ye stoden in youre swerdis, ye diden your abhominaciouns, and ech man defoulde the wijf of his neiybore; and schulen ye welde the lond bi eritage? 27 Thou schalt seie these thingis to hem, Thus seith the Lord God, Y lyue, for thei that dwellen in `thingis redi to falle doun, schulen falle doun bi swerd, and he that is in the feld, schal be youun to beestis to be deuourid; but thei that ben in stronge holdis and in dennes, schulen die bi pestilence. 28 And Y schal yyue the lond in to wildirnesse, and in to desert, and the pryde and strengthe therof schal faile; and the hillis of Israel schulen be maad desolat, for noon is that schal passe bi tho. 29 And thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal yyue her lond desolat and desert, for alle her abhominaciouns whiche thei wrouyten. 30 And thou, sone of man, the sones of thi puple that speken of thee bisidis wallis, and in the doris of housis, and seien, oon to an other, a man to his neiybore, and speken, Come ye, and here we, what is the word goynge out fro the Lord; 31 and thei comen to thee, as if my puple entrith, and my puple sitten bfore thee, and thei heren thi wordis, and doon not tho; for thei turnen tho in to the song of her mouth, and her herte sueth her auerice; 32 and it is to hem as a song of musik, which is songun bi soft and swete sown; and thei heren thi wordis, and thei doon not tho; 33 and whanne that that is bifore seide cometh, for lo! it cometh, thanne thei schulen wite, that `profetis weren among hem.

34 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, profesie thou of the schepherdis of Israel, profesie thou; and thou schalt seie to the schepherdis, The Lord God seith these thingis, Wo to the schepherdis of Israel, that fedden hym silf; whether flockis ben not fed of schepherdis? 3 Ye eeten mylk, and weren hilid with wollis, and ye killiden that that was fat; but ye fedden not my floc. 4 Ye maden not sad that that was vnstidfast, and ye maden not hool that that was sijk; ye bounden not that that was brokun, and ye brouyten not ayen that that was cast awei, and ye souyten not that that perischide; but ye comaundiden to hem with sturnenesse, and with power. 5 And my scheep weren scaterid, for no sheepherde was; and thei weren maad in to deuouryng of alle beestis of the feeld, and thei weren scaterid. 6 My flockis erriden in alle mounteyns, and in ech hiy hil, and my flockis weren scaterid on al the face of erthe, and noon was that souyte. 7 Therfor, scheepherdis, here ye the word of the Lord; 8 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for whi for that that my flockis ben maad in to raueyn, and my scheep in to deuouryng of alle beestis of the feeld, for that that no scheepherde was, for the scheepherdis souyten not my floc, but the scheepherdis fedden hem silf, and fedden not my flockis; therfor, 9 scheepherdis, here ye the word of the Lord, 10 The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y my silf am ouer scheepherdis; Y schal seke my floc of the hond of hem, and Y schal make hem to ceesse, that thei fede no more my flok, and that the scheepherdis feede no more hem silf. And Y schal delyuere my floe fro the mouth of hem, and it schal no more be in to mete to hem. 11 For the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y my silf schal seke my scheep, and Y schal visite hem. 12 As a scheepherde visitith his floe, in the dai whanne he is in the myddis of hise scheep `that ben scaterid, so Y schal visite my scheep; and Y schal delyuere hem fro alle places in whiche thei weren scaterid, in the dai of cloude, and of derknesse. 13 And Y schal leede hem out of puplis, and Y schal gadere hem fro londis, and Y schal brynge hem in to her lond, and Y schal feede hem in the hillis of Israel, in ryueris, and in alle seetis of erthe. 14 Y schal feede hem in moost plenteouse pasturis, and the lesewis of hem schulen be in the hiy hillis of Israel; there thei schulen reste in greene eerbis, and in fatte lesewis thei schulen be fed on the hillis of Israel. 15 Y schal fede my scheep, and Y schal make hem to ligge, seith the Lord God. 16 I schal seke that that perischide, and Y schal brynge ayen that that was cast awei; and Y schal bynde that that was brokun, and Y schal make sad that that was sijk; and Y schal kepe that that was fat and strong; and Y schal feede hem in doom; 17 forsothe ye ben my flockis. The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y deme bitwixe beeste and beeste, and a wethir and a buc of geet. 18 Whether it was not enowy to you to deuoure good pasturis? Furthermore and ye defouliden with youre feet the remenauntis of youre lesewis, and whanne ye drunken clereste watir, ye disturbliden the residue with youre feet. 19 And my scheep weren fed with tho thingis that weren defoulid with youre feet; and thei drunken these thingis, that youre feet hadden troblid. 20 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis to you, Lo! Y my silf deme bitwixe a fat beeste and a leene beeste. 21 For that that ye hurliden with sidis, and schuldris, and wyndewiden with youre hornes alle sike beestis, til tho weren scaterid withoutforth, I schal saue my floc, 22 and it schal no more be in to raueyn. And Y schal deme bitwixe beeste and beeste; 23 and Y schal reise on tho o sheepherde, my seruauant Daud, that schal fede tho; he schal fede tho, and he schal be `in to a sheepherde to hem. 24 Forsothe Y the Lord schal be in to God to hem, and my seruauant Daud schal be prince in the myddis of hem; Y the Lord spak. 25 And Y schal make with hem a couenaunt of pees, and Y schal make worste beestis to ceesse fro erthe; and thei that dwellen in desert, schulen slepe sikur in forestis. 26 And Y schal sette hem blessing in the cumpas of my litle hil, and Y schal lede doun reyn in his tyme. And reynes of blessing schulen be, 27 and the tre of the feeld schal yyue his fruyt, and the erthe schal yyue his seed. And thei schulen be in her lond with out drede; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal al tobreke the chaynes of her yok, and schal delyuere hem fro the hond of hem that comaunden to hem. 28 And thei schulen no more be in to raueyn in to hethene men, nether the beestis of erthe schulen deuoure hem, but thei schulen dwelle tristili with outen ony drede. 29 And Y schal reise to hem a iust buriownyng named; and thei schulen no more be maad lesse for hunger in erthe, and thei schulen no more bere the schenschipis of hethene men. 30 And thei schulen wite, that Y am her Lord God with hem, and thei ben my puple, the hous of Israel, seith the Lord God. 31 Forsothe ye my flockis ben men, the flockis of my lesewe; and Y am youre Lord God, seith the Lord God.

35 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, sette thi face ayens the hil of Seir; and thou schalt profesie to it, and thou schalt seie to it, 3 The Lord God seith these thingis, Thou hil of Seir, lo! Y to thee; Y schal stretche forth myn hond on thee, and Y schal yyue thee desolat and forsakun. 4 Y schal distrie thi citees, and thou schalt be forsakun; and thou schalt wite, that Y am the Lord. 5 For thou were an enemye euerlastynge, and closidist togidere the sonis of Israel in to the hondis of swerd, in the tyme of her turment, in the tyme of the laste wickidnesse; 6 therfor Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for Y schal yyue thee to blood, and blood schal pursue thee; and sithen thou hatidist blood, blood schal pursue thee.

7 And Y schal yyue the hil of Seir desolat and forsakun, and Y schal take awei fro it a goere and a comere ayen; 8 and Y schal fille the hillis therof with the careyns of her slayn men. Men slayn by swerd schulen falle down in thi litle hillis, and in thi valeys, and in thi strondis. 9 Y schal yyue thee in to euerlastynge wildirnessis, and thi citees schulen not be enhabitid; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord God. 10 For thou seidist, Twei folkis and twei londis schulen be myne, and Y schal welde tho bi eritage, whanne the Lord was there; 11 therfor Y lyue, seith

Forsothe the lengthe bi ech of the partis, fro the west ende til to the eest ende of the lond, 8 schal be possessioun to hym in Israel; and the princes schulen no more robbe my puple, but thei schulen yyue the lond to the hous of Israel, bi the lynagis of hem. 9 The Lord God seith these thingis, O! princes of Israel, suffice it to you, leue ye wickidnesse `and raueyns, and do ye doom and riytfulnesse; departe ye youre niy coostis fro my puple, seith the Lord God. 10 A iust balaunce, and a iust mesure clepid ephi, and a iust mesure clepid bathus, schulen be to you. 11 Ephi and bathus schulen be euene, and of o mesure, that bathus take the tenthe part of the mesure clepid corus, and that ephi take the tenthe part of the mesure corus; bi the mesure of corus schal be euene weiyng of tho. 12 Forsothe a sicle schal haue twenti halpens; certis twenti siclis, and fyue and twenti siclis, and fiftene siclis maken a besaunt. 13 And these ben the firste fruytis

46 The Lord God seith these thingis, The yate of the ynnere halle, that biholdith to the eest, schal be closid bi sixe daies, in whiche werk is doon; for it schal be openid in the dai of sabat, but also it schal be openyd in the dai of kalendis. 2 And the prince schal entre bi the weie of the porche of the yate withoutforth, and he schal stonde in the threifold of the yate; and preestis schulen make the brent sacrifice of hym, and the pesible sacrifices of hym; and he schal worschipe on the threifold of the yate, and he schal go out; forsothe the yate schal not be closid til to the euentid. 3 And the puple of the lond schal worschipe at the dore of that yate, in sabatis, and in calendis, bifer the Lord. 4 Forsothe the prince schal offre this brent sacrifice to the Lord in the dai of sabat, sixe lambren with out wem, and a wether with out wem, 5 and the sacrifice of ephi bi a wether; but in the lambren he schal offre the sacrifice which his hond schal yiue, and of oile the mesure hyn, bi ech ephi. 6 But in the dai of calendis he schal offre a calf with out wem of the droue; and sixe lambren, and wetheris schulen be with out wem, 7 and ephi bi a calf. Certis the puple that entrith bi the weie of the south yate, go out bi the weie of the north yate. It schal not turne ayen bi the weie of the yate, bi which it entride, but euene ayens that weie it schal go out. 10 Forsothe the prince schal be in the myddis of hem; he schal entre with hem that entren, and he schal go out with hem that goen out. 11 And in feiris and in solempnytees, the sacrifice of ephi schal be bi a calf, and ephi bi a wether; in lambren schal be sacrifice as his hond fyndith, and of oile the mesure hyn, bi ech ephi. 12 Forsothe whanne the prince makith a wilful brent sacrifice, ether wilful pesible sacrifice to the Lord, the yate that biholdith to the eest, schal be openyd to hym; and he schal make his brent sacrifice, and hise pesible sacrifices, as it is wont to be doon in the dai of sabat; and he schal go out, and the yate schal be closid after that he yede out. 13 And he schal make brent sacrifice ech day to the Lord, a lomb with out wem of the same yeer; euere he schal make it in the morewtid, 14 and he schal make sacrifice on it ful eerli; eerli he schal make the sixte part of ephi, and of oile the thridde part of hyn, that it be meddlid with the floure of wheete; it is a lawful sacrifice, contynuel and euerlastinge, to the Lord. 15 He schal make a lomb, and sacrifice, and oile, ful eerli; he schal make eerli brent sacrifice euerlastynge. 16 The Lord God seith these thingis, If the prince yyueth an hous to ony of hise sones, the eritage of hym schal be of hise sones; thei schulen welde it bi eritage. 17 Forsothe if he yyueth a biquet of his eritage to oon of hise seruauntis, it schal be his `til to the yeer of remyssion, and it schal turne ayen to the prince; forsothe the eritage of hym schal men, youre eueneeldis, ye schulen condempne myn heed to the kyng. 11 And Danyel seide to Malazar, whom the prince of onest seruauntis and chast hadde ordeynede on Danyel, Ananye, Mysael, and Asarie, 12 Y biseche, asaie thou vs thi seruauntis bi ten daies, and potagis be youun to vs to ete, and water to drynke; and biholde thou oure cheris, 13 and the cheris of children that eten the kyngis mete; and as thou seest, so do thou with thi seruauntis. 14 And whanne he herde siche a word, he asaiede hem bi ten daies. 15 Forsothe after ten daies the cheris of hem apperiden betere and fattere, than alle the children that eeten the kyngis mete. 16 Certis Malazar took the metis, and the wyn of the drynk of hem, and yaf to hem potagis. 17 Forsothe to these children God yaf kunnyng and lernyng in ech book, and in al wisdom; but to Daniel God yaf vndurstondyng of alle visious and dremys. 18 Therfor whanne the daies weren fillid, aftir whiche the kyng seide, that thei schulden be brouyt yn, the souereyn of onest seruauntis and chast brouyte in hem, in the siyt of Nabugodonosor. 19 And whanne the kyng hadde spoke to hem, siche weren not foundun of alle, as Daniel, Ananye, Misael, and Azarie; and thei stoden in the siyt of the king. 20 And ech word of wisdom and of vndurstondyng, which the king axide of hem, he foond in hem ten fold ouer alle false dyuynouris and astronomyens, that weren in al his rewme. 21 Forsothe Danyel was til to the firste yeer of king Cyrus.

2In the secoude yeer of the rewme of Nabugodonosor, Nabugodonosor siy a dreem; and his spirit was aferd, and his dreem fledde awey fro hym. 2 Therfor the kyng comaundide, that the dyuynours, and astronomyens, and witchis, and Caldeis schulden be clepid togidere, that thei schulden telle to the kyng hise dremys; and whanne thei weren comun, thei stoden bifer the king. 3 And the king seide to hem, Y siy a dreem, and Y am schent in mynde, and Y knowe not what Y siy. 4 And Caldeis answeriden the kyng bi Sirik langage, Kyng, liue thou with outen ende; seie thi dreem to thi seruauntis, and we schulen schewe to thee the expownyng therof. 5 And the kyng answeride, and seide to Caldeis, The word is goen awei fro me; if ye schewen not to me the dreem, and expownyng therof, ye schulen perische, and youre housis schulen be forfetid. 6 Forsothe if ye tellen the dreem, and the expownyng therof, ye schulen take of me meedis and yiftis, and myche onour; therfor schewe ye to me the dreem, and the interpretyng therof. 7 Thei answeriden the secounde tyme, and seiden, The kyng seie the dreem to hise seruauntis, and we schulen schewe the interpretyng therof. 8 The kyng answeride, and seide, Certis Y woot, that ye ayenbien the tyme, and witen that the word is goen awei fro me. 9 Therfor if ye schewen not to me the dreem, o sentence is of you, for ye maken an interpretyng bothe fals and ful of disseit, that ye speke to me til the tyme passe; therfor seie ye the dreem to me, that Y wite, that ye speke also the veri interpretyng therof. 10 Therfor Caldeis answeriden bifer the kyng, and seiden, Kyng, no man is on erthe, that mai fille thi word; but nether ony greet man and myyti of kyngis axith siche a word of ony dyuynour, and astronomyen, and of a man of Caldee. 11 For the word which thou, kyng, axist, is greuouse, nether ony schal be foundun, that schal schewe it in the siyt of the king, outakun goddis, whos lyuyng is not with men. 12 And whanne this word was herd, the kyng comaundide, in woodnesse and in greet ire, that alle the wise men of Babiloyne schulden perische. 13 And bi the sentence goon out, the wise men weren slayn; and Danyel and hise felows weren souyt, that thei schulden perische. 14 Thanne Danyel axide of the lawe and sentence, of Ariok, prynce of chyualrie of the kyng, that was gon out to sle the wise men of Babiloyne. 15 And he axide hym, that hadde take power of the kyng, for what cause so cruel a sentence yede out fro the face of the kyng. Therfor whanne Ariok hadde schewid the thing to Danyel, 16 Danyel entride, and preyede the kyng, that he schulde yyue tyme to hym to schewe the soilyng to the kyng. 17

 And he entride in to his hous, and schewide the nede to Ananye, and to Misael, and Asarie, 18 hise felowis, that thei schulden axe merci of the face of God of heuene on this sacrament; and that Danyel and hise felowis schulden not perische with othere wise men of Babiloyne. 19 Thanne the priuyte was schewid to Danyel bi a visioun in nytt. And Danyel blesside God of heuene, and seide, 20 The name of the Lord be blessid fro the world, and til in to the world, for wisdom and strengthe ben hise; 21 and he chaungith tymes and ages, he translatith rewmes and ordeyneth; he yyueth wisdom to wise men, and kunnyng to hem that vndurstonden techyng, ether chastisyng; 22 he schewith deepe thingis and hid, and he knowith thingis set in derknessis, and liyt is with hym. 23 God of oure fadris, Y knowleche to thee, and Y herie thee, for thou hast youe wisdom and strengthe to me; and now thou hast schewid to me tho thingis, whiche we preieden thee, for thou hast openyd to vs the word of the kyng. 24 Aftir these thingis Danyel entride to Ariok, whom the kyng hadde ordeyned, that he schulde leese the wise men of Babiloyne, and thus he spak to hym, Leese thou not the wise men of Babiloyne; leede thou me in bifor the siyt of the kyng, and Y schal telle the soilyng to the kyng. 25 Thanne Ariok hastyng ledde in Danyel to the kyng, and seide to him, Y haue foundun a man of the sones of passyng ouer of Juda, that schal telle the soilyng to the kyng. 26 The kyng answeride, and seide to Danyel, to whom the name was Balthasar, Whethir gessist thou, that thou maist verili schewe to me the dreem which Y siy, and the interpretyng therof? 27 And Danyel answeride bifore the king, and seide, The priuytee which the kyng axith, wise men, and astronomyens, and dyuynours, and lokeris of auteris, moun not schewe to the kyng. 28 But God is in heuene, that schewith priuytees, which hath schewid to thee, thou king Nabugodonosor, what thingis schulen come in the laste tymes. Thi dreem and visious of thin heed, in thi bed, ben sich. 29 Thou, kyng, bigunnest to thenke in thi bed, what was to comynge aftir these thingis; and he that schewith priuetees, schewide to thee what thingis schulen come. 30 And this sacrament is schewid to me, not bi wisdom which is in me more than in alle lyuyng men, but that the interpretyng schulde be maad opyn to the kyng, and thou schuldist knowe the thouytis of thi soule. 31 Thou, kyng, siyest, and lo! as o greet ymage; thilke ymage was greet, and hiy in stature, and stood bifore thee, and the loking therof was ferdful. 32 The heed of this ymage was of best gold, but the brest and armes weren of siluer; certis the wombe and thies weren of bras, 33 but the leggis weren of irun; forsothe sum part of the feet was of irun, sum was of erthe. 34 Thou siyest thus, til a stoon was kit doun of the hil, with ouden hondis, and smoot the ymage in the irun feet therof and erthene feet, and al to-brak tho. 35 Thanne the irun, tijl stoon, ether erthene vessel, bras, siluer, and gold, weren al to-brokun togidere, and dryuun as in to a deed sparcle of a large somer halle, that ben rauyschid of wynd, and no place is foundun to tho; forsothe the stoon, that smoot the ymage, was maad a greet hil, and fillide al erthe. 36 This is the dreem. Also, thou kyng, we schulen seie bifor thee the interpretyng therof. 37 Thou art kyng of kyngis, and God of heuene yaf to thee rewme, strengthe, and empire, and glorie; 38 and he yaf in thin hond alle thingis, in whiche the sones of men, and the beestis of the feeld, and the briddis of the eir dwellen, and ordeynede alle thingis vndur thi lordschip; therfor thou art the goldun heed. 39 And another rewme lesse than thou schal rise afir thee; and the thridde rewme, an other of bras, that schal haue the empire of al erthe. 40 And the fourthe rewme schal be as irun, as irun makith lesse, and makith tame alle thingis, so it schal make lesse, and schal al to-breke alle these rewmes. 41 Forsothe that thou siest a part of the feet and fyngris of erthe of a pottere, and a part of irun, the rewme shal be departid; which netheles schal rise of the plauntyng of irun, `bi that that thou siest irun meynd with a tijl stoon of clei, 42 and the toos of the feet in parti of irun, and in parti of erthe, in parti the rewme schal be sad, and in parti to-brokun. 43 Forsothe that thou siest irun meynd with a tiel stoon of clei, sotheli tho schulen be meynd togidere with mannus seed; but tho schulen not cleue to hem silf, as irun mai not be meddlid with tyel stoon.

44 Forsothe in the daies of tho rewmes, God of heuene shal reise a rewme, that schal not be distried with ouden ende, and his rewme schal not be youun to another puple; it schal make lesse, and schal waste alle these rewmes, and it schal stonde with ouden ende, 45 bi this that thou siest, that a stoon was kit doun of the hil with ouden hondis, and maad lesse the tiel stoon, and irun, and bras, and siluer, and gold. Greet God hath schewid to the kyng, what thingis schulen come aftirward; and the dreem is trewe, and the interpretyng therof is feithful. 46 Thanne king Nabugodonosor felle down on his face, and worschipide Danyel, and comaundide sacrifices and encense to be brouyt, that tho schulden be sacrificed to hym. 47 Therfor the kyng spak, and seide to Danyel, Verili youre God is God of goddis, and Lord of kyngis, that schewith mysteries, for thou miytist opene this sacrament. 48 Thanne the kyng reise Danyel an hy, and yaf many yiftis and grete to hym; and ordeynede hym prince and prefect, ether cheef iustise, ouer alle the prouynces of Babiloyne, and maister ouer alle the wise men of Babiloyne. 49 Forsothe Danyel axide of the kyng, and ordeynede Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago ouer alle the werkis of the prouynce of Babiloyne; but Danyel hym silf was in the yatis of the kyng.

3 Nabugodonosor, the kyng, made a goldun ymage, in the heiythe of sixti cubitis, and in the breede of sixe cubitis; and he settide it in the feeld of Duram, of the prouynce of Babiloyne. 2 Therfor Nabugodonosor sente to gadere togidere the wise men, magistratis, and iugis, and duykis, and tirauntis, and prefectis, and alle princes of cuntreis, that thei schulden come togidere to the halewyng of the ymage, which the kyng Nabugodonosor hadde reised. 3 Thanne the wise men, magistratis, and iugis, and duykis, and tirauntis, and beste men, that weren set in poweris, and alle the princes of cuntreis, weren gaderid togidere, that thei schulden come togidere to the halewyng of the ymage, which the kyng Nabugodonosor hadde reised. Forsothe thei stoden in the siyt of the ymage, which Nabugodonosor hadde set; and a bedele criede myytili, 4 It is seid to you, puplis, kynredis, and langagis; 5 in the our in which ye heren the soun of trumpe, and of pipe, and of harpe, of sambuke, of sawtre, and of symphonye, and of al kynde of musikis, falle ye down, and worschipe the goldun ymage, which the kyng Nabugodonosor made. 6 Sotheli if ony man fallith not down, and worschipith not, in the same our he schal be sent in to the furneis of fier brennynge. 7 Therfor aftir these thingis, anoon as alle pupilis herden the sown of trumpe, of pipe, and of harpe, of sambuke, and of sawtre, of symphonye, and of al kynde of musikis, alle pupilis, lynagis, and langagis fellen down, and worschipiden the golden ymage, which the kyng Nabugodonosor hadde maad. 8 And anoon in that tyme men of Caldee neiyiden, and accusiden the Jewis, 9 and seiden to the kyng Nabugodonosor, Kyng, lyue thou with outen ende. 10 Thou, kyng, hast set a decree, that ech man that herith the sown of trumpe, of pipe, and of harpe, of sambuke, and of sawtree, and of symphonye, and of al kynde of musikis, bowe down hym silf, and worschipe the goldun ymage; forsothe if ony man fallith not down, 11 and worschipith not, be he sent in to the furneis of fier brennynge. 12 Therfor men Jewis ben, Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, whiche thou hast ordeynede on the werkis of the cuntrei of Babiloyne. Thou kyng, these men han dispisid thi decree; thei onouren not thi goddis, and thei worshipen not the goldun ymage, which thou reysidist. 13 Thanne Nabugodonosor comaundide, in woodnesse and in wraththe, that Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago schulden be brouyt; whiche weren brouyt anoon in the siyt of the kyng. 14 And the kyng Nabugodonosor pronounside, and seide to hem, Whether verili Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, ye onouren not my goddis, and worschipen not the golden ymage, which Y made? 15 Now therfor be ye redi, in what euer our ye heren the sown of trumpe, of pipe, of harpe, of sambuke, of sawtree, and of symphonie, and of al kynde of musikis, bowe ye doun you, and worschipe the ymage which Y made; that if ye worschipe not, in the same our ye schulen be sent in to the furneis of fier brennynge; and who is God, that schal delyuere you fro myn hond? 16 Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago answeriden, and seiden to the king Nabugodonosor, It nedith not, that we answere of this thing to thee. 17 For whi oure God, whom we worschipe, mai rauysche vs fro the chymenei of fier brennynge, and mai delyuere fro thin hondis, thou kyng. 18 That if he nyle, be it knowun to thee, thou kyng, that we onouren not thi goddis, and we worschipe not the goldun ymage, which thou hast reisd. 19 Thanne Nabugodonosor was fillid of woodnesse, and the biholdyng of his face was chaungid on Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago. And he comaundide, that the furneis schulde be maad hattere seuenfold, than it was wont to be maad hoot. 20 And he comaundide to the strongeste men of his oost, that thei schulden bynde the feet of Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago, and sende hem in to the furneis of fier brennynge. 21 And anoon tho men weren boundun, with brechis, and cappis, and schoon, and clothis, and weren sent in to the myddis of the furneis of fier brennynge; 22 for whi comaundement of the kyng constreinede. Forsothe the furneis was maad ful hoot; certis the flawme of the fier killid tho men, that hadden sent Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago in to the furneis. 23 Sotheli these thre men, Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago, fellen doun boundun in the mydis of the chymenei of fier brennynge. 24 Thanne kyng Nabugodonosor was astonyed, and roos hastily, and seide to hise beste men,

Whether we senten not thre men feterid in to the myddis of the fier? Whiche answeriden the kyng, and seiden, Verili, kyng. 25 The kyng answeride, and seide, Lo! Y se foure men vnboundun, and goynge in the myddis of the fier, and no thing of corrupcioun is in hem; and the licesse of the fourthe is lijk the sone of God. 26 Thanne the kyng Nabugodonosor neiyde to the dore of the furneis of fier brennynge, and seide, Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, the seruauntis of hiy God lyuyng, go ye out, and come ye. And anon Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, yeden out of the myddis of the fier. 27 And the wise men, and magistratis, and iugis, and miyti men of the kyng, weren gaderid togidere, and bihelden tho men, for the fier hadde had no thing of power in the bodies of hem, and an heer of her heed was not brent; also the breechis of hem weren not chaungid, and the odour of fier hadde not passid bi hem. 28 And Nabugodonosor brac out, and seide, Blessid be the God of hem, that is, of Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, that sente his aungel, and delyueride hise seruauntis, that bileuyden in to hym, and chaungiden the word of the kyng, and yauen her bodies, that thei schulden not serue, and that thei schulden not worschipe ony god, outakun her God aloone. 29 Therfor this decree is set of me, that ech puple, and langagis, and lynagis, who euer spekith blasfemye ayen God of Sidrac, and of Mysaac, and of Abdenago, perische, and his hous be distried; for noon other is God, that mai saue so. 30 Thanne the kyng auaunside Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, in the prouynce of Babiloyne; and sente in to al the lond a pistle, conteynyng these wordis.

4 Nabugodonosor, the kyng, writith thus to alle puplis and langagis, that dwellen in al erthe, pees be multiplied to you. 2

Hiy God made at me myraclis and merueils; 3 therfor it pleside me to preche hise myraclis, for tho ben greet, and hise merueils, for tho ben stronge; and his rewme is an euerlastyng rewme, and his power is in generacioun and in to generacioun. 4 I, Nabugodonosor, was restful in myn hous, and flouryng in my paleis; 5 Y siy a dreem, that made me aferd; and my thouytis in my bed, and the siytis of myn heed disturbliden me. 6 And a decre was set forth bi me, that alle the wise men of Babiloyne schulden be brouyt in bifer my siyt, and that thei schulden schewe to me the soilyng of the dreem. 7 Than false dyuynours, astronomyens, Caldeis, and biholderis of auteris entriden; and Y telde the dreem in the siyt of hem, and thei schewiden not to me the soilyng therof, til the felowe in office, 8 Danyel, to whom the name was Balthasar, bi the name of my God, entride in my siyt, which Danyel hath the spirit of hooli goddis in hym silf; and Y spak the dreem bifer hym. 9 Balthasar, prince of dyuynouris, whom Y knowe, that thou hast in thee the spirit of hooli goddis, and ech sacrament, ether preuytee, is not vnpossible to thee, telle thou to me the visiouns of my dreemes, whiche Y siy, and the soilyng of tho. 10 This is the visioun of myn heed in my bed.
 Y siy, and lo! a tree was in the myddis of erthe, and the hiynesse therof was ful greet. 11 And the tree was greet and strong, and the heiythe therof touchide heuene, and the biholdyng therof was `til to the endis of al erthe. 12 The leeuys therof weren ful faire, and the fruyt therof was ful myche, and the mete of alle was in it; beestis and wielde beestis dwelliden vndur it, and briddis of the eir lyuyden in the braunchis therof, and ech man ete of it. 13 Thus Y siy in the visioun of myn heed, on my bed. And lo! a wakere, and hooli man cam doun fro heuene,

14 and he criede strongli, and seide thus, Hewe ye doun the tree, and kitte ye doun the bowis therof, and schake ye awei the leeuys therof, and scatere ye abrood the fruytis therof; beestis fle awei, that be vndur it, and briddis fro the bowis therof. 15 Netheles suffre ye the seed of rootis therof in erthe, and be he boondun with a boond of irun and of bras, in erbis that ben with out forth, and in the deew of heuene be he died, and his part be with wielde beestis in the erbe of erthe. 16 His herte be chaungid fro mannus herte, and the herte of a wielde beeste be youun to hym, and seuene tymes be chaungid on hym. 17 In the sentence of wakeris it is demed, and it is the word and axyng of seyntis, til lyuyng men knowe, that hiy God is Lord in the rewme of men; and he schal yyue it to whom euere he wole, and he schal ordeyne on it the mekeste man. 18 Y, Nabugodonosor, the kyng, siy this dreem. Therfor thou, Balthasar, telle hastili the interpretyng, for alle the wise men of my rewme moun not seie to me the soilyng; but thou maist, for the spirit of hooli goddis is in thee. 19 Thanne Danyel, to whom the name was Balthasar, began to thenke priueli with ynne hym silf, as in oon our, and hise thouytis disturbliden hym. Forsothe the kyng answeride, and seide, Balthasar, the dreem and the interpretyng therof disturble not thee. Balthasar answeride, and seide, My lord, the dreem be to hem that haten thee, and the interpretyng therof be to thin enemyes. 20 The tree which thou siyest hiy and strong, whos heiythe stretchith `til to heuene, and the biholdyng therof in to ech lond, 21 and the faireste braunchis therof, and the fruyt therof ful myche, and the mete of alle in it, and beestis of the feeld dwellynge vndur it, and the briddis of the eir dwellynge in the boowis therof, 22 thou art, kyng, that art magnefied, and wexidist strong, and thi greetnesse encreesside, and cam `til to heuene, and thi power in to the endis of al erthe. 23 Sotheli that the kyng siy a wakere and hooli come doun fro heuene, and seie, Hewe ye doun the tree, and distrie ye it, netheles leeue ye the seed of rootis therof in erthe, and be he boundun with irun and bras, in erbis with out forth, and be he bispreynt with the deew of heuene, and his mete be with wielde beestis, til seuene tymes be chaungid on hym; 24 this is the interpretyng of the sentence of the hiyeste, which sentence is comun on my lord, the kyng. 25 Thei schulen caste thee out fro men, and thi dwellyng schal be with beestys and wielde beestis, and thou schalt ete hey, as an oxe doith, but also thou schalt be bisched with the dew of heuene, also seuene tymes schulen be chaungid on thee, til thou knowe, that hiy God is Lord `on the rewme of men, and yyueth it to whom euer he wole. 26 Forsothe that he comaundide, that the seed of rootis therof, that is, of the tree, schulde be left, thi rewme schal dwelle to thee, aftir that thou knowist that the power is of heuene. 27 Wherfor, kyng, my counsel plese thee, and ayenbie thi synnes with almesdedis, and ayenbie thi wickidnessis with mercies of pore men; in hap God schal foryyue thi trespassis. 28 Alle these thingis camen on Nabugodonosor, the kyng. 29 After the ende of twelue monethis he walkide in the halle of Babiloyne; 30 and the kyng answeride, and seide, Whether this is not Babiloyne, the greet citee, which Y bildide in to the hous of rewme, in the miyt of my strengthe, and in the glorie of my fairnesse? 31 Whanne the word was yit in the mouth of the kyng, a vois felle doun fro heuene, Nabugodonosor, kyng, it is seid to thee, Thi rewme is passid fro thee, 32 and thei schulen caste thee out fro men, and thi dwellyng schal be with beestis and wielde beestis; thou schalt ete hey, as an oxen doith, and seuene tymes schulen be chaungid on thee, til thou knowe, that hiy God is Lord in the rewme of men, and yyueth it to whom euere he wole. 33 In the same our the word was fillid on Nabugodonosor, and he was cast out fro men, and he eet hey, as an oxen doith, and his bodi was colouryd with the deew of heuene, til hise heeris wexiden at the licnesse of eglis, and hise nailis as the nailis of briddis. 34 Therfor after the ende of daies, Y, Nabugodonosor, reise myn iyen to heuene, and my wit was yoldun to me; and Y blesside the hiyeste, and Y heriede, and glorifiede hym that lyueth with outen ende; for whi his power is euerlastynge power, and his rewme is in generacioun and in to generacioun. 35 And alle the dwelleris of erthe ben arettid in to noyt at hym; for bi his wille he doith, bothe in the vertues of heuene, and in the dwelleris of erthe, and noon is, that ayenstondith his hond, and seith to hym, Whi didist thou so? 36 In that tyme my wit turnede ayen to me, and Y cam fulli to the onour and fairnesse of my rewme, and my figure turnede ayen to me; and my beste men and my magistratis souyten me, and Y was set in my rewme, and my greet doying was encreessid grettir to me. 37 Now therfor Y Nabugodonosor herie, and magnifie, and glorifie the kyng of heuene; for alle hise werkis ben trewe, and alle his weies ben domes; and he may make meke hem that goon in pride.

5 Balthasar, the kyng, made a greet feeste to hise beste men a thousynde, and ech man drank aftir his age. 2 Forsothe the kyng thanne drunkun comaundide, that the goldun and siluerne vessels schulden be brouyt forth, whiche Nabugodonosor, his fadir, hadde borun out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, that the kyng, and hise beste men, hise wyues, and councubyns schulden drynke in tho vessels. 3 Thanne the goldun vessels and siluerne, whiche he hadde borun out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, weren brouyt forth; and the kyng, and hise beste men, and hise wyues, and concubyns, drunken in tho vessels.

4 Thei drunken wyn, and herieden her goddis of gold, and of siluer, of bras, and of irun, and of tree, and of stoon. 5 In the same our fyngris apperiden, as of the hond of a man, writynge ayens the candilstike, in the pleyn part of the wal of the kyngis halle; and the kyng bihelde the fyngris of the hond writynge. 6 Thanne the face of the kyng was chaungid, and hise thouytis disturbliden hym; and the ioyncturis of hise reynes weren loosid, and hise knees weren hurtlid to hem silf togidere. 7 Therfor the kyng criede strongli, that thei schulden brynge yn astronomyens, Caldeis, and dyuynouris bi lokyng of auteris. And the kyng spak, and seide to the wise men of Babiloyne, Who euer redith this scripture, and makith opyn the interpretyng therof to me, schal be clothid in purpur; and he schal haue a goldun bie in the necke, and he schal be the thridde in my rewme. 8 Thanne alle the wise men of the kyng entriden, and miyten not rede the scripture, nether schewe to the kyng the interpretyng therof. 9 Wherof kyng Balthasar was disturblid ynow, and his cheer was chaungid, but also hise beste men weren disturblid. 10 Forsothe the queen entride in to the hous of feeste, for the thing that hadde bifeld to the king, and beste men; and sche spak, and seide, Kyng, lyue thou withouten ende. Thi thouytis disturble not thee, and thi face be not chaungid. 11 A man is in thi rewme, that hath the spirit of hooli goddis in hym silf, and in the daies of thi fadir kunnyng and wisdom weren foundun in hym; for whi and Nabugodonosor, thi fadir, made him prince of astronomyens, of enchaunteris, of Caldeis, and of dyuynouris bi lokyng on auteris; sotheli thi fadir, thou kyng, dide this; 12 for more spirit, and more prudent, and vndurstondyng, and interpretyng of dremes, and schewyng of priuytees, and assoilyng of boundun thingis weren foundun in hym, that is, in Danyel, to whom the kyng puttide the name Balthasar. Now therfor Daniel be clepid, and he schal telle the interpretyng. Therfor Daniel was brouyt in bifer the kyng. To whom the forseid kyng seide, 13 Art thou Danyel, of the sones of caitifte of Juda, whom my fader, the kyng, brouyte fro Judee? 14 Y haue herd of thee, that thou hast in thee the spirit of goddis, and more kunnyng, and vndurstondyng, and wisdom be foundun in thee. 15 And now wise men, astronomyens, entriden in my siyt, to rede this scripture, and to schewe to me the interpretyng therof; and thei myyten not seie to me the vndurstondyng of this word. 16 Certis Y haue herde of thee, that thou maist interprete derk thingis, and vnbynde boundun thingis; therfor if thou maist rede the scripture, and schewe to me the interpretyng therof, thou schalt be clothid in purpur, and thou schalt haue a goldun bie aboute thi necke, and thou schalt be the thridde prince in my rewme. 17 To whiche thingis Danyel answeride, and seide bifer the kyng, Thi yiftis be to thee, and yyue thou to another man the yiftis of thin hous; forsothe, kyng, Y schal rede the scripture to thee, and Y schal schewe to thee the interpretyng therof. 18 O! thou kyng, hiyeste God yaf rewme, and greet worschipe, and glorie, and onour, to Nabugodonosor, thi fadir. 19 And for greet worschip which he hadde youe to thilke Nabugodonosor, alle puplis, lynagis, and langagis, trembliden and dredden hym; he killide whiche he wolde, and he smoot whiche he wolde, and he enhaunside whiche he wolde, and he made low which he wolde.

 20 Forsothe whanne his herte was reysid, and his spirit was maad obstynat in pride, he was put doun of the seete of his rewme; 21 and his glorie was takun awei, and he was cast out fro the sonen of men; but also his herte was set with beestis, and his dwellyng was with wielde assis; also he eet hei as an oxe doith, and his bodi was colourid with the deew of heuene, til he knewe, that the hiyeste hath power in the rewme of men, and he schal reise on it whom euer he wole. 22 And thou, Balthasar, the sone of hym, mekidest not thin herte, whanne thou knewist alle these thingis; 23 but thou were reysid ayens the Lord of heuene, and the vessels of his hous weren brouyt bifore thee, and thou, and thi beste men, and thi wyues, and thi concubyns, drunken wyn in tho vessels; and thou heriedist goddis of siluer, and of gold, and of bras, and of irun, and of tree, and of stoon, that seen not, nether heren, nether feelen; certis thou glorifiedist not God, that hath thi blast, and alle thi weies in his hond. 24 Therfor the fyngur of the hond was sent of hym, which hond wroot this thing that is writun. 25 Sotheli this is the scripture which is discryued, Mane, Techel, Phares. 26 And this is the interpretyng of the word. Mane, God hath noumbrid thi rewme, and hath fillid it; 27 Techel, thou art weied in a balaunce, and thou art foundun hauynge lesse; 28 Phares, thi rewme is departid, and is youun to Medeis and Perseis. 29 Thanne, for the kyng comaundide, Daniel was clothid in purpur, and a goldun bie was youun aboute in his necke; and it was prechid of hym, that he hadde power, and was the thridde in the rewme. 30 In the same niyt Balthasar, the kyng of Caldeis, was slayn; 31 and Daryus of Medei was successour in to the rewme, and he was two and sixti yeer eld.

6 It pleside Darius, and he ordeynede sixe score duykis ouer the rewme, that thei schulden be in al his rewme. 2 And ouer hem he ordeynede thre princes, of whiche Danyel was oon; that the duykis schulden yelde resoun to hem, and that the kyng schulde not suffre any disese. 3 Therfor Danyel ouercam alle the princes and duikis, for more spirit of God was in hym. 4 Certis the kyng thouyte to ordeyne hym on al the rewme. Wherfor princes and duikis souyten to fynde occasioun to Danyel, of the side of the kyng; and thei miyten fynde no cause and suspicioun, for he was feithful, and no blame and suspicioun was foundun in hym. 5 Therfor tho men seiden, We schulen not fynde ony occasioun to this Danyel, no but in hap in the lawe of his God. 6 Thanne the princes and duykis maden fals suggestioun to the kyng, and spaken thus to hym, Kyng Darius, lyue thou with onten ende. 7 Alle the princes of thi rewme, and magistratis, and duykis, senatours, and iugis, han maad a counsel, that a decree and comaundement of the emperour go out, that ech man that axith ony axyng of what euer god and man, til to thretti daies, no but of thee, thou kyng, he be sent in to the lake of liouns. 8 Now therfor, kyng, conferme thou the sentence, and write thou the decree, that this that is ordeyned of Medeis and Perseis be not chaungid, nethir be it leueful to ony man to breke. 9 Forsothe Darius, the kyng, settide forth, and confermyde the decree. 10 And whanne Danyel hadde founde this thing, that is, the lawe ordeyned, he entride in to his hous; and the while the wyndows weren open in his soler ayens Jerusalem, in thre tymes in the dai he bowide hise knees, and worschipide, and knoulechide bifore his God, as he was wont to do bifore. 11 Therfor tho men enqueriden ful bisili, and founden Danyel preiyng, and bisechyng his God. 12 And thei neiyiden and spaken to the kyng of the comaundement, Kyng, whether thou ordeynedist not, that ech man that axide any of goddis and of men, til to thretti daies, no but thee, thou kyng, he schulde be sent in to the lake of liouns? To whiche men the kyng answeride, and seide, The word is soth, bi the decree of Medeis and Perseis, which it is not leueful to breke. 13 Thanne thei answeriden, and seiden bfore the kyng, Danyel, of the sones of caitifte of Juda, reckide not of thi lawe, and of the comaundement, which thou ordeynedist, but thre tymes bi the dai he preieth in his bisechyng. 14 And whanne the kyng hadde herd this word, he was sori ynow, and he settide the herte for Danyel, for to do delyuere hym; and til to the goyng doun of the sunne he trauelide for to do delyuere hym. 15 But tho men vndurstoden the kyng, and seiden to hym, Wite thou, kyng, that it is the lawe of Medeis and of Perseis, that it is not leueful that any decree be chaungid, 16 which the kyng ordeyneth. Thanne the kyng comaundide, and thei brouyten Danyel, and senten hym in to the lake of liouns. And the kyng seide to Danyel, Thi God, whom thou worschipist euere, he schal delyuere thee. 17 And o stoon was brouyt, and was put on the mouth of the lake, which the kyng aselide with his ryng, and with the ryng of hise beste men, lest any thing were don ayens Danyel. 18 Thanne the kyng yede in to his hous, and slepte with out soper, and metis weren not brouyte bfore hym; ferthermore and sleep yede awei fro hym. 19 Thanne the kyng roos in the firste morewtid, and yede hastili to the lake of liouns; 20 and he neiyde to the lake, and criede on Danyel with wepyng voys, and spak to hym, Danyel, the seruaunt of God lyuyng, gessist thou, whether thi God, whom thou seruest euere, miyte delyuere thee fro liouns? 21 And Danyel answeride the kyng, and seide, King, lyue thou with outen ende. 22 My God sente his aungel, and closide togidere the mouthis of liouns, and tho noieden not me, for riytfulnesse is foundun in me bifore hym; but also, thou kyng, Y dide no trespas bifore thee. 23 Thanne the kyng made ioie greetli on hym, and comaundide Danyel to be led out of the lake. And Danyel was led out of the lake, and noon hirtyng was foundun in hym, for he bileuede to his God. 24 Forsothe the kyng comaundide, tho men, that accusiden Danyel, weren brouyt, and weren sent in to the lake of liouns, thei, and the sones of hem, and the wyues of hem; and thei camen not `til to the pawment of the lake, til the liouns rauyschiden hem, and al to-braken alle the boonys of hem. 25 Thanne Darius, the kyng, wroot to alle puplis, lynagis, and langagis, dwellynge in al erthe, Pees be multiplied to you. 26 Therfor a decree is ordeyned of me, that in al myn empire and rewme men tremble, and drede the God of Danyel; for he is God lyuyng, and euerlastyng in to worldis, and his rewme schal not be distried, and his power is `til in to with outen ende. 27 He is delyuerer and sauour, makynge myraclis and merueils in heuene and in erthe, which delyuerede Danyel fro the lake of liouns. 28 Certis Danyel dwellide stabli `til to the rewme of Darius, and `til to the rewme of Sirus of Persey.

7 In the firste yeer of Balthasar, kyng of Babiloyne, Danyel siy a sweuene. Forsothe he wroot the visioun of his hed in his bed, and the dreem, and comprehendide in schort word; and he touchide schortli the sentence, 2 and seide, Y siy in my visioun in niyt, and lo! foure wyndis of heuene fouyten in the myddis of the greet see. 3 And foure grete beestis dyuerse bitwixe hem silf stieden fro the see. 4 The firste beeste was as a lionesse, and hadde wyngis of an egle. Y bihelde til the wyngis therof weren pullid awei, and it was takun awei fro erthe, and it stood as a man on the feet, and the herte therof was youun to it. 5 And lo! another beeste, lijk a bere in parti, stood, and thre ordris weren in the mouth therof, and thre princes in the teeth therof. And thus thei seiden to it, Rise thou, ete thou ful many fleischis. 6 Aftir these thingis Y bihelde, and lo! anothir beeste as a pard, and it hadde on it silf foure wyngis of a brid, and foure heedis weren in the beeste, and power was youun to it. 7 Aftir these thingis Y bihelde in the visoun of niyt, and lo! the fourthe beeste, ferdful, and wondirful, and ful strong. It hadde grete irun teeth, and it ete, and made lesse, and defoulide with hise feet othere thingis; forsothe it was vnlijk othere beestis, which Y hadde seyn bfore it, and it hadde ten hornes. 8 Y bihelde the hornes, and lo! an other litil horn cam forth of the myddis of tho, and thre of the firste hornes weren drawun out fro the face therof; and lo! iyen as iyen of a man weren in this horn, and a mouth spekyng grete thingis. 9 Y bihelde, til that trones weren set, and the elde of daies sat; his cloth was whijt as snow, and the heeris of his heed weren as cleene wolles, his trone was as flawmes of fier, hise wheelis weren fier kyndlid. 10 A flood of fier and rennyng faste yede out fro his face, a thousynde thousynde mynistriden to hym, and ten sithis a thousynde sithis an hundrid thousynde stoden niy hym; the dom sat, and bookis weren opened. 11 Y bihelde for the vois of grete wordis whiche thilke horn spak; and Y siy that the beeste was slayn, and his bodi was perischid, and was youun to be brent in fier. 12 And Y siy that the power of othere beestis was takun awei, and the tymes of lijf weren ordeyned to hem, til to tyme and tyme. 13 Therfor Y bihelde in the visoun of niyt, and lo! as a sone of man cam with the cloudis of heuene; and he cam fulli til to the elde of daies, and in the siyt of hym thei offriden hym. 14 And he yaf to hym power, and onour, and rewme, and alle the puplis, lynagis, and langagis schulen serue hym; his power is euerlastyng power, that schal not be takun awei, and his rewme, that schal not be corrupt. 15 My spirit hadde orroure, ether hidousnesse; Y, Danyel, was aferd in these thingis, and the siytis of myn heed disturbliden me. 16 Y neiyede to oon of the stonderis niy, and Y axide of hym the treuthe of alle these thingis. And he seide to me the interpretyng of wordis, and he tauyte me. 17 These foure grete beestis ben foure rewmes, that schulen rise of erthe. 18 Forsothe hooli men schulen take the rewme of hiyeste God, and thei schulen holde the rewme, til in to the world, and `til in to the world of worldis. 19 Aftir these thingis Y wolde lerne diligentli of the fourthe beeste, that was greetli vnlijk fro alle, and was ful ferdful, the teeth and nailis therof weren of irun; it eet, and made lesse, and defoulide with hise feet othere thingis. 20 And of ten hornes whiche it hadde in the heed, and of the tother horn, that cam forth, bfore which thre hornes fellen doun, and of that horn that hadde iyen, and a mouth spekyng grete thingis, and was grettere than othere; 21 I bihelde, and lo! thilke horn made batel ayens hooli men, and hadde maistrie of hem, 22 til the elde of daies cam, and hiy God yaf doom to hooli men; and lo! tyme cam, and hooli men goten rewme. 23 And he seide thus, The fourthe beeste schal be the fourthe rewme in erthe, that schal be more than alle rewmes, and it schal deuoure al erthe, and it schal defoule, and make lesse that erthe. 24 Forsothe ten hornes schulen be ten kyngis of that rewme; and another kyng schal rise after hem, and he schal be miytiere than the formere, and he schal make low thre kyngis. 25 And he schal speke wordis ayens the hiy God, and he schal defoule the seyntis of the hiyeste; and he schal gesse, that he mai chaunge tymes and lawis; and thei schulen be youun in to his hondis, til to tyme, and times, and the half of tyme. 26 And doom schal sitte, that the power be takun awei, and be al to-brokun, and perische til in to the ende. 27 Sotheli that the rewme, and power, and the greetnesse of rewme, which is vndur ech heuene, be youun to the puple of the seintis of the hiyeste, whos rewme is euerlastynge rewme, and alle kingis schulen serue, and obeie to hym. 28 Hidur to is the ende of the word. Y, Danyel, was disturblid myche in my thouytis, and my face was chaungid in me; forsothe Y kepte the word in myn herte.

8 In the thridde yeer of the rewme of Balthasar, the king, a visioun apperide to me. Y, Danyel, after that thing that Y hadde seyn in the bigynnyng, 2 siy in my visioun, whanne Y was in the castel of Susis, which is in the cuntrei of Helam; sotheli Y siy in the visioun that Y was on the yate Vlay. 3 And Y reise myn iyen, and Y siy; and lo! o ram stood bifor the mareis, and hadde hiy hornes, and oon hiyere than the tother, and vndurwexynge. 4 Aftirward Y siy the ram wyndewynge with hornes ayens the eest, and ayens the west, and ayens the north, and ayens the south; and alle beestis myyten not ayenstonde it, nether be delyuered fro the hondis of it. And it dide bi his wille, and was magnified. 5 And Y vndurstood. Lo! forsothe a buk of geet cam fro the west on the face of al erthe, and touchide not the erthe; forsothe the buk of geet hadde a noble horn bitwixe hise iyen; 6 and he cam til to that horned ram, which Y hadde seyn stondynge bifore the yate, and he ran in the fersnesse of his strengthe to that ram. 7

And whanne he hadde neiyd niy the ram, he hurlide fersly on hym, and he smoot the ram, and al to-brak tweyne hornes of hym, and the ram miyte not ayenstonde hym. And whanne he hadde sent that ram in to erthe, he defoulide; and no man miyte delyuere the ram fro his hond. 8 Forsothe the buk of geet was maad ful greet; and whanne he hadde encreessid, the greet horn was brokun, and foure hornes risiden vndur it, bi foure wyndis of heuene. 9 Forsothe of oon of hem yede out o litil horn, and it was maad greet ayens the south, and ayens the eest, and ayens the strengthe. 10 And it was magnefied til to the strengthe of heuene, and it castide doun of the strengthe and of sterres, and defoulide tho. 11 And he was magnefied til to the prince of strengthe, and he took awei fro hym the contynuel sacrifice, and castide doun the place of his halewyng. 12 Forsothe strengthe was youun to hym ayens the contynuel sacrifice for synnes, and treuthe schal be cast doun in erthe; and he schal haue prosperite, and schal do. 13 And Y herde oon of hooli aungels spekyng; and oon hooli aungel seide to another, Y noot to whom spekinge, Hou long the visioun, and the contynuel sacrifice, and the synne of desolacioun, which is maad, and the seyntuarie, and the strengthe schal be defoulid? 14 And he seide to hym, Til to the euentid and morewtid, two thousynde daies and thre hundrid; and the seyntuarie schal be clensid. 15 Forsothe it was doon, whanne Y, Danyel, siy the visioun, and axide the vndurstondyng, lo! as the licesse of a man stood in my siyt. 16 And Y herde the voys of a man bitwixe Vlai, and he criede, and seide, Gabriel, make thou Danyel to vndurstonde this visioun. 17 And he cam, and stood bisidis where Y stood; and whanne he was comun, Y dredde, and felle on my face. And he seide to me, Thou, sone of man, vndurstonde, for the visioun schal be fillid in the tyme of ende. 18 And whanne he spak to me, Y slood down `plat to the erthe. And he touchide me, and settide me in my degree. 19 And he seide to me, Y schal schewe to thee what thingis schulen come in the laste of cursing, for the tyme hath his ende. 20 The ram, whom thou siyest haue hornes, is the kyng of Medeis and of Perseis. 21 Forsothe the buc of geet is the kyng of Grekis; and the greet horn that was bitwixe hise iyen, he is the firste kyng. 22 Forsothe that whanne that horn was brokun, foure hornes risiden for it, foure kyngis schulen rise of the folc of hym, but not in the strengthe of hym. 23 And after the rewme of hem, whanne `wickidnessis han encreessid, a kyng schal rise vnschamefast in face, and vndurstandyng proposisiouns, ether resouns set forth; and his strengthe schal be maad stalworthe, 24 but not in hise strengthis. And more than it mai be bileuyd he schal waste alle thingis, and he schal haue prosperite, and schal do. And he schal sle stronge men, and the puple of seyntis, 25 bi his wille, and gile schal be dressid in his hond. And he schal magnifie his herte, and in abundaunce of alle thingis he schal sle ful many men. And he schal rise ayens the prince of princes, and withouten hond he schal be al to-brokun. 26 And the visioun, which is seid in the morewtid and euentid, is trewe. Therfor seele thou the visioun, for it schal be after many daies. 27 And Y, Danyel, was astonyed, and was sijk bi ful many daies; and whanne Y hadde rise, Y dide the werkis of the kyng; and Y was astonyed at the visioun, and `noon was that interpretide.

9 In the firste yeer of Darius, the sone of Assuerus, of the seed of Medeis, that was emperour on the rewme of Caldeis, 2 in the firste yeer of his rewme, Y, Danyel, vndurstood in bookis the noumbre of yeeris, of which noumbre the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, the profete, that seuenti yeer of desolacioun of Jerusalem schulde be fillid. 3 And Y settide my face to my Lord God, to preie and to biseche in fastyngis, in sak, and aische. 4 And Y preiede my Lord God, and Y knoulechide, and seide, Y biseche, thou Lord God, greet and ferdful, kepyng couenaunt and mercy to hem that louen thee, and kepen thi comaundementis. 5 We han synned, we han do wickidnesse, we diden unfeithfuli, and yeden awei, and bowiden awei fro thi comaundementis and domes. 6 We obeieden not to thi seruauntis, profetis, that spaken in thi name to oure kyngis, to oure princes, and to oure fadris, and to al the puple of the lond. 7 Lord, riytfulnesse is to thee, forsothe schenschipe of face is to vs, as is to dai to a man of Juda, and to the dwelleris of Jerusalem, and to al Israel, to these men that ben niy, and to these men that ben afer in alle londis, to which thou castidist hem out for the wickidnessis of hem, in whiche, Lord, thei synneden ayens thee.

8 Schame of face is to vs, to oure kyngis, to oure princes, and to oure fadris, that synneden; 9 but merci and benygnytee is to thee, oure Lord God. For we yeden awei fro thee, 10 and herden not the vois of oure Lord God, that we schulden go in the lawe of hym, whiche he settide to vs bi hise seruauntis, profetis. 11 And al Israel braken thi lawe, and bowiden awei, that thei herden not thi vois; and cursyng, and wlatyng, which is writun in the book of Moises, the seruaunt of God, droppide on vs, for we synneden to hym. 12 And he ordeynede hise wordis, whiche he spak on vs, and on oure princes, that demyden vs, that thei schulden brynge in on vs greet yuel, what maner yuel was neuer vndur al heuene, bi that that is doon in Jerusalem, 13 as it is writun in the

lawe of Moises. Al this yuel cam on vs, and, oure Lord God, we preieden not thi face, that we schulden turne ayen fro oure wickidnessis, and schulden thenke thi treuthe. 14 And the Lord wakide on malice, and brouyt it on vs; oure Lord God is iust in alle his werkis whiche he made, for we herden not his vois. 15 And now, Lord God, that leddist thi puple out of the lond of Egipt in strong hond, and madist to thee a name bi this dai, we han synnede, 16 we han do wickidnesse, Lord, ayens thi riytfulnesse. Y biseche, thi wraththe and thi stronge veniaunce be turned away fro thi citee Jerusalem, and fro thi hooli hil; for whi for oure synnes, and for the wickidnessis of oure fadris, Jerusalem and thi puple ben in schenschipec, to alle men bi oure cumpas. 17 But now, oure God, here thou the preyer of thi seruaunt, and the bisechyngis of him, and schewe thi face on thi seyntuarie, which is forsakun. 18 My God, for thi silf boowe doun thin eere, and here; opene thin iyen, and se oure desolacioun, and the citee, on which thi name is clepid to help. For not in oure iustifyngis we setten forth mekeli preiers bifor thi face, but in thi many merciful doyngis. 19 Lord, here thou; Lord, be thou plesid, perseyue thou, and do; my Lord God, tarie thou not, for thi silf, for thi name is clepid to help on the citee, and on thi puple. 20 And whanne Y spak yit, and preiede, and knouelechide my synnes, and the synnes of my puple Israel, that Y schulde sette forth mekeli my preieris in the siyt of my God, for the hooli hil of my God, 21 the while Y spak yit in my preyer, lo! the man Gabriel, whom Y hadde seyn in visioun at the bigynnyng, flei soone, and touchide me in the tyme of euentid sacrifice; 22 and he tauyt me, and he spak to me, and seide, Danyel, now Y yede out, that Y schulde teche thee, and thou schuldist vndurstonde.

23 Fro the bigynnyng of thi preieris a word yede out. Forsothe Y cam to schewe to thee, for thou art a man of desiris; therfor perseyue thou the word, and vndurstonde thou the visioun. 24 Seuenti woukis of yeeris ben abreggid on thi puple, and on thin hooli citee, that trespassyng be endid, and synne take an ende, and that wickidnesse be doon awei, and euerlastyng riytfulnesse be brouyt, and that the visioun, and prophesie be fillid, and the hooli of seyntis be anoyntid. 25 Therfor wite thou, and perseyue; fro the goyng out of the word, that Jerusalem be bildid eft, til to Crist, the duyck, schulen be seuene woukis of yeeris and two and sixti woukis of yeeris; and eft the street schal be bildid, and wallis, in the angwisch of tymes. 26 And after two and sixti woukis `of yeeris Crist schal be slayn. And it schal not be his puple, that schal denye hym. And the puple with the duyck to comynge schal distrie the citee, and the seyntuarie; and the ende therof schal be distriyng, and after the ende of batel schal be ordeynede desolacioun. 27 Forsothe o wouk `of yeeris schal conferme the couenaunt to many men, and the offryng and sacrifice schal faile in the myddis of the wouke of yeeris; and abhomynacioun of desolacioun schal be in the temple, and the desolacioun schal contynue til to the parformyng and ende.

10 In the thridde yeer of the rewme of Sirus, kyng of Perseis, a word was schewid to Danyel, Balthasar bi name; and a trewe word, and greet strengthe, and he vndurstood the word; for whi vndurstandyng is nedeful in visioun. 2 In tho daies Y, Danyel, mourenyde bi the daies of thre woukis; 3 Y eet not desirable breed, and fleisch, and wyn entride not into my mouth, but nethir Y was anoynted with oynement, til the daies of thre woukis weren fillid. 4 Forsothe in the foure and twentithe dai of the firste monethe, Y was bisidis the greet flood, which is Tigris. 5 And Y reside myn iyen, and Y siy, and lo! o man was clothid with lynun clothis, and hise reynes weren gird with schynynge gold; 6 and his bodi was as crisolitus, and his face was as the licesse of leit, and hise iyen weren as a brennynge laumpe, and hise armes and tho thingis that weren bynethe til to the feet weren as the licesse of bras beynghe whijt, and the vois of hise wordis was as the vois of multitude. 7 Forsothe Y, Danyel, aloone siy the visioun; certis the men that weren with me, sien not, but ful greet ferdfulnesse felle yn on hem, and thei fledden in to an hid place. 8 But Y was left aloone, and Y siy this greet visioun, and strengthe dwellide not in me; but also my licesse was chaungid in me, and Y was stark, and Y hadde not in me ony thing of strengthis. 9 And Y herde the vois of hise wordis, and Y herde, and lay astonyed on my face, and my face cleuyde to the erthe. 10 And lo! an hond touchide me, and reside me on my knees, and on the toes of my feet. 11 And he seide to me, Thou, Danyel, a man of desiris, vndurstonde the wordis whiche Y speke to thee, and stonde in thi degree; for now Y am sent to thee. And whanne he hadde seid this word to me, Y stood fro the firste dai in which thou settidist thin herte to vndurstonde, that thou schuldist turmente thee in the siyt of thi God, thi wordis weren herd, and Y cam for thi wordis. 13 Forsothe the prince of the rewme of Perseis ayenstood me oon and twenti daies, and lo! Myyhel, oon of the firste princes, cam in to myn help, and Y in the laste daies; for yit the visioun is delaied in to daies. 15

And whanne he spak to me bi siche wordis, Y castide doun my cheer to erthe, and was stille. 16 And lo! as the licsesse of sone of man touchide my lippis; and Y openyde my mouth, and spak, and seide to hym that stood bfore me, My Lord, in thi siyt my ioyntis ben vnknit, and no thing of strengthis dwellide in me. 17 And hou schal the seruaunt of my Lord mow speke with my Lord? no thing of strengthis dwellide in me, but also my breeth is closyde bitwixe. 18 Therfor eft as the siyt of a man touchide me, and coumfortide me, 19 and seide, Man of desiris, nyle thou drede; pees be to thee, be thou coumfortid, and be thou strong. And whanne he spak with me, Y wexide strong and seide, My Lord, speke thou, for thou hast coumfortid me. 20 And he seide, Whether thou woost not, whi Y cam to thee? And now Y schal turne ayen, to fiyte ayens the prince of Perseis. For whanne Y yede out, the prince of Grekis apperide comynge. 21 Netheles Y schal telle to thee that, that is expressid in the scripture of treuthe; and noon is myn helpere in alle these thingis, no but Myyhel, youre prynce.

 and the multitude schal be youun in his hond. 12 And he schal take the multitude, and his herte schal be enhaunsid; and he schal caste down many thousyndis, but he schal not haue the 33 And tauyt men in the puple schulen teche ful many men, and God of hise fadris, and he schal be in the coueitis of wymmen, and he schal not charge ony of goddis, for he schal rise ayens alle thingis. 38 Forsothe he schal onoure god of Maosym in his

12 Forsothe in that tyme Miyhel, the greet prince, schal rise, that stondith for the sones of thi puple. And tyme schal come, what maner tyme was not, fro that tyme fro which folkis bigunnen to be, `vn to that tyme. And in that tyme thi puple schal be saued, ech that is foundun writun in the book of life. 2 And many of hem that slepen in the dust of erthe, schulen awake fulli, summe in to euerlastynge lijf, and othere in to schenschiþe, that thei se euere. 3 Forsothe thei that ben tauyt, schulen schyne as the schynnyng of the firmament, and thei that techen many men to riytfulnesse, schulen schyne as sterris in to euerlastynge euerlastyngnessis. 4 But thou, Danyel, close the wordis, and aseele the book, til to the tyme ordeyned; ful many men schulen passe, and kunnyng schal be many fold. 5 And Y, Danyel, siy, and lo! as tweyne othere men stood; oon stood on this side, on the brenk of the flood, and another on that side, on the tother part of the flood. 6 And Y seide to the man, that was clothid in lynnun clothis, that stood on the wattris of the flood, Hou long schal be the ende of these merueils? 7 And Y herde the man, that was clothid in lynnun clothis, that stood on the wattris of the flood, whanne he hadde reisid his riythond and lefthond to heuene, and hadde sworun by hym that lyueth with outen ende, For in to a tyme, and tymes, and the half of tyme. And whanne the scaterynge of the hoond of the hooli puple is fillid, alle these thingis schulen be fillid. 8 And Y herde, and vndurstood not; and Y seide, My lord, what schal be aftir these thingis? 9 And he seide, Go thou, Danyel, for the wordis ben closid and aseelid, til to the tyme determyned. 10 Many men schulen be chosun, and schulen be maad whijt, and schulen be preued as fier, and wickid men schulen do wickidli, nether alle wickid men schulen vndurstonde; certis tauyt men schulen vndurstonde. 11 And fro the tyme whanne contynuel sacrifice is takun awei, and abhomynacioun is set in to discoumfort, schulen be a thousynde daies two hundrid and nynti. 12 He is blessid, that abideth, and schalt reste, and stonde in thi part, in the ende of daies.

Hosea

1 The word of the Lord that was maad to Osee, the sone of Bery, in the daies of Osie, Joathan, Achas, Ezechie, kingis of Juda, and in the daies of Jeroboam, sone of Joas, the kyng of Israel. 2 The bigynnyng of the spekyng to the Lord in Osee. And the Lord seide to Osee, Go thou, take to thee a wijf of fornyaciouns, and make to thee sones of fornyaciouns, for the lond doynge fornicacioun schal do fornicacioun fro the Lord. 3 And he yede, and took Gomer, the douyter of Debelaym; and sche conseyuede, and childide a sone to hym. 4 And the Lord seide to hym, Clepe thou the name of hym Jesrael; for yit a lital and Y schal visite the blood of Jesrael on the hous of Hieu, and Y schal make to reste the rewme of the hous of Israel. 5 And in that dai Y schal al to-breke the bowe of Israel in the valei of Jesrael. 6 And sche conseyuede yit, and childide a douyter. And the Lord seide to hym, Clepe thou the name of hir With out merci, for Y schal no more leye to, for to haue merci on the hous of Israel, but bi foryetyng Y schal foryete hem. 7 And Y schal haue merci on the hous of Juda, and Y schal saue hem in her Lord God; and Y schal not saue hem in bowe, and swerd, and batel, and in horsis, and in horse men, ether kniytis. 8 And he wenyde hir that was With out merci. And sche conseyuede, and childide a sone to hym. 9 And he seide, Clepe thou his name Not my puple, for ye schulen not be my puple, and Y schal not be youre God. 10 And the noumbre of the sones of Israel schal be as grauel of the see, which grauel is with out mesure, and it schal not be noumbrid; and it schal be in the place, where it schal be seid to hem, Ye ben not my puple; it schal be seid to hem, Ye ben the sones of God lyuyng. 11 And the sones of Juda and the sones of Israel schulen be gaderid togidere, and thei schulen sette oon heed to hem silf, and thei schulen stie fro erthe, for the dai of Jesrael is greet.

2 Sei ye to youre britheren, Thei ben my puple; and to youre sister that hath gete merci, 2 Deme ye youre modir, deme ye, for sche is not my wijf, and Y am not hir hosebonde. Do sche away hir fornicaciouns fro hir face, and hir auowtries fro the myddis of hir brestis; 3 lest perauenture Y spuyle hir nakid, and sette hir nakid bi the dai of hir natyuyte. And Y schal sette hir as a wildirnesse, and Y schal ordeyne hir as a lond with out weie, and Y schal sle hir in thirst. 4 And Y schal not haue merci on the sones of hir, for thei ben sones of fornicaciouns; 5 for the modir of hem dide fornicacioun, sche is schent that conseyuede hem, for sche seide, Y schal go after my louyeris that yeuen looues to me, and my watris, and my wolfe, and my flex, and myn oile, and my drynke. 6 For this thing lo! Y schal hegge thi weie with thornes, and Y schal hegge it with a wal, and sche schal not fynde hir pathis. 7 And sche schal sue hir louyeris, and schal not take hem, and sche schal seke hem, and schal not fynde; and sche schal seie, Y schal go, and turne ayen to my formere hosebonde, for it was wel to me thanne more than now. 8 And this Jerusalem wiste not, that Y yaf to hir wheete, wyn, and oile; and Y multiplied siluer and gold to hir, whiche thei maden to Baal. 9 Therfor Y schal turne, and take my wheete in his tyme, and my wiyn in his tyme; and Y schal delyuere my wolfe, and my flex, bi which thei hiliden the schenschipe therof. 10 And now Y schal schewe the foli of hir bfore the iyen of hir louyeris, and a man schal not delyuere hir fro myn hond; 11 and Y schal make to ceesse al the ioie therof, the solempnyte therof, the neomenye therof, the sabat therof, and alle the feeste tymes therof. 12 And Y schal distrie the vyner therof, of whiche sche seide, These ben myn hiris, whiche my louyeris yauen to me; and Y schal sette it in to a forest, and a beeste of the feeld schal ete it. 13 And Y schal visite on it the daies of Baalym, in whiche it brente encense, and was ourned with hir eere ryng, and hir broche, and yede after hir louyeris, and foryat me, seith the Lord. 14 For this thing lo! Y schal yyue mylk to it, and Y schal brynge it in to wildirnesse, and Y schal speke to the herte therof. 15 And Y schal yyue to it vyn tilieris therof of the same place, and the valei of Achar, that is, of disturblyng, for to opene hope. And it schal synge there bi the daies of hir yongthe, and bi the daies of hir stiyng fro the lond of Egipt. 16 And it schal be in that dai, seith the Lord, sche schal clepe me Myn hosebonde, and sche schal no more clepe me Baalym; 17 and Y schal take awei the names of Baalym fro hir mouth, and sche schal no more haue mynde of the name of tho. 18 And Y schal smyte to hem a boond of pees in that dai with the beeste of the feeld, and with the brid of the eir, and with the crepyng beeste of erthe. And Y schal al to-breke bowe, and swerd, and batel fro erthe; and Y schal make hem to slepe tristili. 19 And Y schal spouse thee to me withouten ende; and Y schal spouse thee to me in riytfulnesse, and in dom, and in merci, and in merciful doyngis. 20 And Y schal spouse thee to me in feith; and thou schalt wite, that Y am the Lord. 21 And it schal be, in that dai Y schal here, seith the Lord, and Y schal here heuenes, and tho schulen here the erthe; 22 and the erthe schal here wheete, and wyn, and oile, and these schulen here Jesrael. 23 And Y schal sowe it to me in to a lond, and Y schal haue merci on it that was with out merci. And Y schal seie to that, that is not my puple, Thou art my puple, and it schal seie, Thou art my God.

3 And the Lord seide to me, Yit go thou, and loue a womman loued of a frend, and a womman auoutresse, as the Lord loueth the sones of Israel; and thei biholden to alien goddis, and louen the draffis of grapis. 2 And Y dalf it to me bi fiftene pens, and bi a corus of barli, and bi half a corus of barli. 3 And Y seide to it, Bi many daies thou shalt abide me; thou schalt not do fornycacioun, and thou schalt not be with an hosebonde, but also Y schal abide thee. 4 For bi many daies the sones of Israel schulen sitte with out kyng, with out prince, and with out sacrifice, and with out auter, and with out prestis cloth, and with out terafyn, that is, ymagis. 5 And after these thingis the sones of Israel schulen turne ayen, and schulen seke her Lord God, and Daid, her king; and thei schulen drede at the Lord, and at the good of him, in the laste of daies.

4 Sones of Israel, here ye the word of the Lord, for whi doom is to the Lord with the dwelleris of erthe; for whi trewth is not, and merci is not, and kunnyng of the Lord is not in erthe. 2 Curs, and leesyng, and manquelling, and thefte, and auowtrie flowiden, and blood touchide blood. 3 For this thing the erthe schal mourne, and ech that dwellith in that lond, schal be sijk, in the beeste of the feeld, and in the brid of the eir; but also the fischis of the see schulen be gaderid togidere. 4 Netheles ech man deme not, and a man be not repreuyd; for thi puple is as thei that ayen seien the prest. 5 And thou schalt falle to dai, and the profete also schal falle with thee; in the niyt Y made thi modir to be stille. 6 My puple was stille, for it hadde not kunnyng; for thou hast putte awei kunnyng, Y schal putte thee awei, that thou vse not presthod to me; and for thou hast foryete the lawe of thi God, also Y schal foryete thi sones. 7 Bi the multitude of hem, so thei synned ayens me. Y schal chaunge the glorie of hem in to schenschiipe. 8 Thei schulen ete the synnes of my puple, and thei schulen reise the soulis of hem to the wickidnesse of hem. 9 And it schal be, as the puple so the prest; and Y schal visite on hym the weies of hym, and Y schal yelde to him the thouytis of hym. 10 And thei schulen ete, and thei schulen not be fillid; thei diden fornicacioun, and ceessiden not, for thei forsoken the Lord in not kepyng. 11 Fornycacioun, and wiyn, and drunkenesse doen awei the herte. 12 My puple axide in his tre, and the staf therof telde to it; for the spirit of fornicacioun disseyuede hem, and thei diden fornicacioun fro her God. 13 On the heedis of mounteyns thei maden sacrifice, and on the lital hillis thei brenten encense vndur an ook, and a popeler, and terebynte, for the schadewe therof was good.

 Therfor youre douytris schulen do fornicacioun, and youre wyues schulen be auoutressis. 14 Y schal not visite on youre douytris, whanne thei don fornicacioun, and on youre wyues, whanne thei doon auowtrie; for thei lyuyden with hooris, and maden sacrifice with men turned in to wymmens condiciouns. And the puple that vndirstondith not, schal be betun. 15 If thou, Israel, doist fornicacioun, nameli Juda trespasse not; and nyle ye entre in to Galgala, and stie ye not in to Bethauen, nether swere ye, The Lord lyueth. 16 For as a wielde cow Israel bowide awei; now the Lord schal fede hem as a lomb in broodnesse. 17 Effraym is the partener of idols, leeue thou him; 18 the feeste of hem is departid. Bi fornicacioun thei diden fornicacioun, the defenders therof louyden to brynge schenschiþe. 19 The spirit boond hym in hise wyngis, and thei schulen be schent of her sacrifices.

5 Preestis, here ye this, and the hous of Israel, perseyue ye, and the hous of the kyng, herkne ye; for whi doom is to you, for ye ben maad a snare to lokyng afer, and as a net spred abroad on Thabor. 2 And ye bowiden doun sacrifices in to depthe; and Y am the lernere of alle hem. 3 Y knowe Effraym, and Israel is not hid fro me; for now Effraym dide fornicacioun, Israel is defoulid. 4 Thei schulen not yiue her thouytis, that thei turne ayen to her God; for the spirit of fornicacioun is in the myddis of hem, and thei knewen not the Lord. 5 And the boost of Israel schal answere in to the face therof, and Israel and Effraym schulen falle in her wickidnesse; also Judas schal falle with hem. 6 In her flockis, and in her droues thei schulen go to seke the Lord, and thei schulen not fynde; he is takun awei fro hem. 7 Thei trespassiden ayens the Lord, for thei gendriden alien sones; now the monethe schal deuoure hem with her partis. 8 Sowne ye with a clarioun in Gabaa, with a trumpe in Rama; yelle ye in Bethauen, after thi bak, Beniamyn. 9 Effraym schal be in to desolacioun, in the dai of amending, and in the lynagis of Israel Y schewide feith. 10 The princes of Juda ben maad as takynge terme; Y schal schede out on hem my wraththe as watir. 11 Effraym suffrith fals challenge, and is brokun bi doom; for he bigan to go after filthis. 12 And Y am as a mouyte to Effraym, and as rot to the hous of Juda. 13 And Effraym siy his sikenesse, and Judas siy his boond. And Effraym yede to Assur, and sente to the kyng veniere. And he mai not saue you, nether he mai vnbynde the boond fro you. 14 For Y am as a lionesse to Effraym, and as a whelp of a lioun to the hous of Juda. 15 Y my silf schal take, and go, and take awei, and noon is that schal delyuere. I schal go, and turne ayen to my place, til ye failen, and seken my face.

6 In her tribulacioun thei schulen rise eerli to me. Come ye, and turne we ayen to the Lord; 2 for he took, and schal heele vs; he schal smyte, and schal make vs hool. 3 He schal quykene vs after twei daies, and in the thridde dai he schal reise vs, and we schulen lyue in his siyt. We schulen wite, and sue, that we knowe the Lord. His goyng out is maad redi at the morewtid, and he schal come as a reyn to vs, which is timeful and lateful to the erthe. 4 Effraym, what schal Y do to thee? Juda, what schal Y do to thee? Youre merci is as a cloude of the morewtid, and as deew passyng forth eerli. 5 For this thing Y hewide in profetis, Y killide hem in the wordis of my mouth; 6 and thi domes schulen go out as liyt. For Y wolde merci, and not sacrifice, and Y wolde the kunnyng of God, more than brent sacrificis. 7 But thei as Adam braken the couenaunt; there thei trespassiden ayens me. 8 Galaad the citee of hem that worchen idol, is supplauntid with blood; and 9 as the chekis of men that ben theues. Partener of prestis sleyng in the weie men goynge fro Sichem, for thei wrouyten greet trespassse. 10 In the hous of Israel Y siy an orible thing; there the fornicaciouns of Effraym. 11 Israel is defoulid; but also thou, Juda, sette heruest to thee, whanne Y schal turne the caitiftee of my puple.

7 Whanne Y wolde heele Israel, the wickidnesse of Effraym was schewid, and the malice of Samarie was schewid, for thei wrouyten a leesyng. And a niyt thief entride, and robbid; a dai thief was withoutforth. 2 And lest thei seien in her hertis, that Y haue mynde on al the malice of hem, now her fyndyngis han cumpassid hem, tho ben maad bifer my face. 3 In her malice thei gladiden the kyng, and in her leesyngys `thei gladiden the princes. 4 Alle that doen auoutrie, ben as an ouene maad hoot of a bakere. The citee restide a litil fro the medlyng of sour douy, til al was maad sour `of sour douy. 5 The dai of oure kyng; the princis bigunnen to be wood of wyn; he stretchide forth his hoond with scorneris. 6 For thei applieden her herte as an ouene, whanne he settide tresoun to hem. Al the niyt he slepte bakynge hem, in the morewtid he was maad hoot, as the fier of flawme. 7 Alle weren maad hoot as an ouene, and thei deuouriden her iugis. Alle the kyngis of hem fellen doun, and noon is among hem that crieth to me. 8 Effraym hym silf was medlid among puplis; Effraym was maad a loof bakun vndur aischis, which is not turned ayen. 9 Aliens eeten the strengthe of hym, and he knew not; but also hoor heeris weren sched out in hym, and he knew not. 10 And the pride of Israel schal be maad low in the face therof; thei turneden not ayen to her Lord God, and thei souyten not hym in alle these thingis. 11 And Effraym was maad as a culuer disseyued, not hauynge herte. Thei clepiden Egipt to help, thei yeden to Assiriens. 12 And whanne thei ben goen forth, Y schal sprede abrood on hem my net, Y schal drawe hem doun as a brid of the eir. Y schal beete hem, bi the heryng of the company of hem. 13 Wo to hem, for thei yeden awei fro me; thei schulen be distried, for thei trespassiden ayens me. And Y ayenbouyte hem, and thei spaken leesyngis ayenus me. 14 And thei crieden not to me in her herte, but yelliden in her beddis. Thei chewiden code on wheete, and wyn, and thei yeden awei fro me. 15 And Y tauyte, and coumfortide the armes of hem, and thei thouyten malice ayens me. 16 Thei turneden ayen, that thei schulden be with out yok; thei ben maad as a gileful bowe. The princis of hem schulen falle doun bi swerd, for the woodnesse of her tunge; this is the scornynge of hem in the lond of Egipt.

8 A trumpe be in thi throte, as an egle on the hous of the Lord; for that that thei yeden ouer my boond of pees, and braken my lawe. 2 Thei clepiden me to helpe, A! my God, we Israel han knowe thee. 3 Israel hath cast awei good, the enemye schal pursue hym. 4 Thei regnyden, and not of me; thei weren princes, and Y knew not. Thei maden her gold and siluer idols to hem, that thei schulden perische. 5 A! Samarie, thi calf is cast awei; my strong veniaunce is wrooth ayens hem. Hou long moun thei not be clensid? 6 for also it is of Israel. A crafti man made it, and it is not god; for the calf of Samarie schal be in to webbis of ireyns. 7 For thei schulen sowe wynd, and thei schulen repe whirlewynd. A stalke stondynge is not in hem, the seed schal not make mele; that if also it makith mele, aliens schulen ete it. 8 Israel is deuouryd; now Israel is maad as an vnclene vessel among naciouns, 9 for thei stieden to Assur. Effraym is a wielde asse, solitarie to hym silf. Thei yauen yiftis to louyeris; 10 but also with meede thei hiriden naciouns. Now Y schal gadere hem togidere, and thei schulen reste a litil fro birthun of the kyng and of princes. 11 For Efraym multipliede auteris to do synne, auteris weren maad to hym in to trespas. 12 Y schal write to hem my many fold lawis, that ben arettid as alien lawis. 13 Thei schulen brynge sacrifices, thei shulen offre, and ete fleischis; and the Lord schal not resseyue tho. Now he schal haue mynde on the wickidnessis of hem, and he schal visite the synnes of hem; thei schulen turne in to Egipt. 14 And Israel foryat his makere, and bildide templeis to idols, and Judas multipliede stronge citees; and

Y schal sende fier in to the citees of hym, and it schal deuoure the housis of hym.

9 Israel, nyle thou be glad, nyle thou make ful out ioie as puplis; for thou hast do fornicacioun fro thi God. Thou louedist meede on alle the cornflooris of wheete. 2 The cornfloor and pressour schal not feede hem, and wyn schal lie to hem. 3 Thei schulen not dwelle in the lond of the Lord. Effraym turnede ayen in to Egipt, and eet defoulid thing among Assiriens. 4 Thei schulen not offre wyn to the Lord, and thei schulen not plese hym. The sacrificis of hem ben as breed of mourneris; alle that schulen ete it schulen be defoulid. For the breed of hem is to the lijf of hem; thei schulen not entre in to the hous of the Lord. 5 What schulen ye do in the solempne dai, in the dai of the feeste of the Lord? 6 For lo! thei ben goon out fro distriyng. Egipt schal gadere hem togidere, Memphis schal birie hem. A nettle schal enherite the desirable siluer of hem, a clote schal be in the tabernaclis of hem. 7 Daies of visitacioun ben comun, daies of yeldyng ben comun. Knowe ye, that Israel is a fool, a wood profete, a spiritual man, for the multitude of thi wickidnesse is also the multitude of woodnesse. 8 The biholdere of Effraym with my God is a profete; a snare of fallyng is maad now on alle the weies of hym, woodnesse is in the hous of his God. 9 Thei synneded deepli, as in the daies of Gabaa. The Lord schal haue mynde on the wickidnesse of hem, and schal visite the synnes of hem. 10 Y foond Israel as grapis in desert, Y siy the fadris of hem as the firste applis of a fige tree, in the cop therof; but thei entriden to Belfegor, and weren alienyd in confusioun, and thei weren maad abhominable as tho thingis whiche thei louyden. 11 Effraym as a brid fley awei; the glorie of hem is of childberyng, and of the wombe, and of conseuyng. 12 That if thei nurschen her soncs, Y schal make hem with out children among men. But also wo to hem, whanne Y schal go awei fro hem. 13 Y siy that Efraym was as Tire, foundid in fairnesse; and Efraym schal lede out hise soncs to the sleere. 14 Lord, yyue thou to hem; what schalt thou yyue to hem? yyue thou to hem a wombe with out children, and drie tetis. 15 Alle the wickidnessis of hem ben in Galgal, for there Y hadde hem hateful; for the malice of her fyndyngis. Y schal caste hem out of myn hous; Y schal not leie to, that Y loue hem. Alle the princes of hem goen awei. 16 Efraym is smyten, the roote of hem is dried vp; thei schulen not make fruyt. That thouy thei gendren, Y schal sle the moost louyd thingis of her wombe. 17 My God schal caste hem away, for thei herden not hym; and thei schulen be of vnstable dwellyng among naciouns.

10 Israel was a vyne ful of bowis, fruyt was maad euene to hym; bi the multitude of his fruyt he multipliede auteris, bi the plente of his lond he was plenteuouse. 2 In simylacris the herte of hem is departid, now thei schulen perische. He schal breke the simylacris of hem, he schal robbe the auteris of hem. 3 For thanne thei schulen seie, A kyng is not to vs, for we dreden not the Lord. And what schal a kyng do to vs? 4 Speke ye wordis of vnprofitable visioun, and ye schulen smyte boond of pees with leesyng; and doom as bittirnesse schal burioune on the forewis of the feeld. 5 The dwelleris of Samarie worschipiden the kien of Bethauen. For the puple therof mourenyde on that calf, and the keperis of the hous therof; thei maden ful out ioye on it in the glorie therof, for it passide fro that puple. 6 For also it was borun to Assur, a yifte to the king veniere. Confusioun schal take Efraym, and Israel schal be schent in his wille. 7

Samarie made his kyng to passe, as froth on the face of water.
 And the hiy thingis of idol, the synne of Israel, schulen be lost.
8 A cloote and a brere schal stie on the auters of hem. And thei schulen seie to mounteyns, Hile ye vs, and to litle hillis, Falle ye doun on vs. 9 Fro the daies of Gabaa Israel synnede; there thei stoden. Batel schal not take hem in Gabaa, 10 on the sones of wickidnesse. Bi my desir Y schal chastise hem; puplis schulen be gaderid togidere on hem, whanne thei schulen be chastisid for her twei wickidnessis. 11 Effraym is a cow calf, tauyt for to loue threischyng; and Y yede on the fairenesse of the necke therof. Y schal stie on Effraym. Judas schal ere, and Jacob schal breke forewis to hym silf. 12 Sowe ye to you riytfulnesse in treuthe, and repe ye in the mouthe of merci, and make ye newe to you a feld newli brouyte to tilthe. Forsothe tyme is to seke the Lord, whanne he cometh, that schal teche you riytfulnesse. 13 Ye han erid vnfeithfulnesse, ye han rope wickidnesse, ye han ete the corn of leesyng. For thou tristyd in thi weles, and in the multitude of thi stronge men. 14 Noise schal rise in thi puple, and alle thi stronge holdis schulen be distried; as Salmana was distried of the hous of hym, that took veniaunce on Baal; in the dai of batel, whanne the modir was hurlid doun on the sones. 15 So Bethel dide to you, for the face of malice of youre wickidnessis.

11 As the morewtid passith, the king of Israel schal passe forth. For Israel was a child, and Y louyde hym; and fro Egipt Y clepide my sone. 2 Thei clepiden hem, so thei yeden awei fro the face of hem. Thei offriden to Baalym, and maden sacrifice to symylacris. 3 And Y as a nursche of Effraym bare hem in myn armes, and thei wisten not, that Y kepte hem. 4 Y schal drawe hem in the ropis of Adam, in the boondis of charite. And Y schal be to hem as he that enhaunsith the yok on the chekis of hem; and Y bowide down to hym, that he schulde ete. 5 He schal not turne ayen in to the lond of Egipt. And Assur, he schal be kyng of hym, for thei nolden turne. 6 A swerd bigan in the citees therof, and it schal waaste the chosun men therof, and schal eete the heedis of hem. 7 And my puple schal hange, at my comynge ayen. But a yok schal be put to hem togidere, that schal not be takun awei. 8 Hou schal Y yyue thee, Effraym? schal Y defende thee, Israel? hou schal Y yyue thee? As Adama Y schal sette thee; as Seboym. Myn herte is turned in me; my repentaunce is disturblid togidere. 9 Y schal not do the strong veniaunce of my wraththe. Y schal not turne, to leese Effraym; for Y am God, and not man. Y am hooli in the myddis of thee, and Y schal not entre in to a citee. 10 Thei schulen go after the Lord. He shal rore as a lioun, for he shal rore, and the sones of the see schulen drede. 11 And thei schulen fle awei as a brid fro Egipt, and as a culuer fro the lond of Assiriens. And Y schal sette hem in her housis, seith the Lord. 12 Effraym cumpasside me in denying, the hous of Israel in gile. But Judas a witnesse yede doun with God, and with feithful seyntis.

12 Effraym fedith wynd, and sueth heete. Al dai he multiplieth leesyng, and distriyng; and he made boond of pees with Assiriens, and bar oile in to Egipt. 2 Therfor the doom of the Lord is with Juda, and visityng is on Jacob; bi the weies of hym, and bi the fyndyngis of hym he schal yelde to hym. 3 In the wombe he supplauntide his brother, and in his strengthe he was dressid with the aungel. 4 And he was strong to the aungel, and was coumfortid; he wepte, and preiede hym; in Bethel he foond hym, and there he spak with vs. 5 And the Lord God of oostis, the Lord, is the memorial of hym. 6 And thou schalt turne to thi God. Kepe thou merci and doom, and hope thou euere in thi God. 7 Chanaan louyde fals caleng, a gileful balaunce in his hond. 8 And Effraym seide, Netheles Y am maad riche, Y haue founde an idol to me; alle my trauelis schulen not fynde to me the wickidnesse, whiche Y synnede. 9 And Y am thi Lord God fro the lond of Egipt; yit Y schal make thee to sitte in tabernaclis, as in the daies of feeste. 10 And Y spak bi profetis, and Y multiplied profesie, and Y was ligned in the hond of profetis. 11 If Galaad worschipith an idol, therfor thei erren in veyn offryng to oxis in Galgal; for whi and the auteris of hem schulen be as heepis on the forewis of the feeld. 12 Jacob fledde in to the cuntrei of Sirie, and Israel seruyde for a wijf, and seruyde, ether kepte, for a wijf. 13 But bi a profete the Lord ledde Israel out of Egipt, and bi a profete he was kept. 14 Effraym terride me to wrathfulnesse in hise bitternessis, and the blood of hym schal come on hym; and his Lord schal restore to hym the schenschipec of him.

13 For Effraym spak, hidousnesse assailide Israel; and he trespasside in Baal, and was deed. 2 And now thei addiden to do synne, and maden to hem a yotun ymage of her siluer, as the licnesse of idols; al is the makyng of crafti men. To these thei seien, Al ye men, offre, and worschipec caluys. 3 Therfor thei schulen be as a morewtid cloude, and as the deew of morewtid, that passith forth, as dust rauyschide bi whirlewynd fro the corn floor, and as smoke of a chymenei. 4 Forsothe Y am thi Lord God, `that ledde thee fro the loond of Egipt; and thou schalt not knowe God, outakun me, and no sauyour is, outakun me. 5 Y knewe thee in the desert, in the lond of wildirnesse. 6 Bi her lesewis thei weren fillid, and hadden abundaunce; thei reisen her herte, and foryaten me. 7 And Y schal be as a lionesse to hem, as a parde in the weye of Assiriens. 8 Y as a femal bere, whanne the whelps ben rauyschid, schal mete hem; and schal al to-breke the ynnere thingis of the mawe of hem. And Y as a lioun schal waaste hem there; a beeste of the feeld schal al to-rende hem. 9 Israel, thi perdicoun is of thee; thin help is oneli of me. 10 Where is thi kyng? moost saue he thee now in alle thi citees; and where ben thi iugis, of whiche thou seidist, Yyue thou to me a kyng, and princes? 11 Y schal yyue to thee a kyng in my strong veniaunce, and Y schal take awei in myn indignacioun.

12 The wickidnesse of Effraym is boundun togidere; his synne is hid. 13 The sorewis of a womman trauelynge of child schulen come to hym; he is a sone not wijs. For now he schal not stonde in the defoulyng of sones. 14 Y schal delyuere hem fro the hoond of deeth, and Y schal ayenbie hem fro deth. Thou deth, Y schal be thi deth; thou helle, Y schal be thi mussel. (Sheol h7585) 15 Coumfort is hid fro myn iyen, for he schal departe bitwixe britheren. The Lord schal brynge a brennyng wynd, styngende fro desert; and it schal make drie the veynes therof, and it schal make desolat the welle therof; and he schal rauysche the tresour of ech desirable vessel. 16 Samarie perische, for it stiride his God to bittirnesse; perische it bi swerd. The litte children of hem be hurtlid down, and the wymmen with child therof be koruun.
14 Israel, be thou conuertid to thi Lord God, for thou fellist doun in thi wickidnesse. 2 Take ye wordis with you, and be ye conuertid to the Lord; and seie ye to hym, Do thou awei al wickidnesse, and take thou good; and we schulen yelde the caluys of oure lippis. 3 Assur schal not saue vs, we schulen not stie on hors; and we schulen no more seie, Oure goddis ben the werkis of oure hondis; for thou schalt haue merci on that modirles child, which is in thee. 4 Y schal make hool the sorewis of hem; Y schal loue hem wilfuli, for my strong veniaunce is turned awei fro hem. 5 Y schal be as a dew, and Israel schal buriowne as a lillie. And the root therof schal breke out as of the Liban; 6 the braunchis therof schulen go. And the glorye therof schal be as an olyue tree, and the odour therof schal be as of the Liban. 7 Thei schulen be conuertid, and sitte in the schadewe of hym; thei schulen lyue bi wheete, and schulen buriowne as a vyne. The memorial therof schal be as the wyne of Liban. 8 Effraym, what schulen idols do more to me? Y schal here him, and Y schal dresse him as a greene fir tree. Thi fruit is foundun of me. 9 Who is wijs, and schal vndurstonde these thingis? who is vndurstandyng, and schal kunne these thingis? For the weies of the Lord ben riytful, and iust men schulen go in tho; but trespassours schulen falle in tho.

Joel

1 The word of the Lord is this, that was maad to Joel, the sone of Phatuel. 2 Elde men, here ye this, and alle dwelleris of the lond, perseyue ye with eeris. If this thing was don in youre daies, ether in the daies of youre fadris. 3 Of this thing telle ye to your sones, and your sones telle to her sones, and the sones of hem telle to another generacioun. 4 A locuste eet the residue of a worte worm, and a bruke eet the residue of a locuste, and rust eet the residue of a bruke. 5 Drunken men, wake ye, and wepe; and yelle ye, alle that drynken wyn in swetnesse; for it perischide fro youre mouth. 6 For whi a folc strong and vnnoumbrable stiede on my lond. The teeth therof ben as the teeth of a lioun, and the cheek teeth therof ben as of a whelp of a lioun. 7 It settide my vyner in to desert, and took awei the riynde of my fige tre. It made nakid and spuylide that vyner, and castide forth; the braunchis therof ben maad white. 8 Weile thou, as a virgyn gird with a sak on the hosebonde of hir tyme of mariage. 9 Sacrifice and moist sacrifice perischide fro the hous of the Lord; and preestis, the mynystris of the Lord, moureneden. 10 The cuntrey is maad bare of puple. The erthe mourenyde; for whete is distried. Wyn is schent, and oile was sijk, ether failide. 11 The erthe tilieris ben schent, the vyn tilieris yelliden on wheete and barli; for the ripe corn of the feeld is perischid. 12 The vyner is schent; and the fige tre was sijk. The pomgarnate tre, and the palm tre, and the fir tre, and alle trees of the feeld drieden vp; for ioie is schent fro the sones of men. 13 Ye prestis, girde you, and weile; ye mynystris of the auter, yelle. Mynystris of my God, entre ye, ligge ye in sak; for whi sacrifice and moist sacrifice perischide fro the hous of youre God. 14 Halewe ye fastyng, clepe ye cumpeny, gadere ye togidere elde men, and alle dwelleris of the erthe in to the hous of youre God; and crie ye to the Lord, A! 15 A! A! to the dai; for the dai of the Lord is niy, and schal come as a tempest fro the myyti. 16 Whether foodis perischiden not bifore youre iyen; gladnesse and ful out ioie perischide fro the hous of youre God? 17 Beestis wexen rotun in her drit. Bernes ben distried, celeris ben distried, for wheete is schent. 18 Whi weilide a beeste? whi lowiden the flockis of oxun and kien? for no lesewe is to hem; but also the flockis of scheep perischiden. 19 Lord, Y schal crye to thee, for fier eet the faire thingis of desert, and flawme brente all the trees of the cuntrei. 20 But also beestis of the feeld, as a corn floor thirstyng reyn, bihelden to thee; for the wellis of watris ben dried vp, and fier deuouride the faire thingis of desert.

2 Synge ye with a trumpe in Sion, yelle ye in myn hooli hil. Alle the dwelleris of erthe be disturblid; for the dai of the Lord cometh, 2 for the dai of derknessis and of myist is niy, the dai of cloude and of whirlewynde. As the morewtid spred abroad on hillis, a myche puple and strong. Noon was lijk it fro the bigynnyng, and after it schal not be, til in to yeeris of generacioun and of generacioun. 3 Bifore the face therof schal be fier deuouryng, and after it schal be brennyng flawme; as a gardyn of liking the lond schal be bifor him, and wildirnesse of desert schal be after him, and noon is that schal ascape him. 4 The lokyng of hem schal be as the lokyng of horsis, and as horse men so thei schulen renne. 5 As the sown of cartis on the heedis of hillis thei schulen skippe; as the sowne of the flawme of fier deuouryng stobil, as a strong puple maad redi to batel. 6 Pupilis schulen be turmentid of the face therof, alle facis schulen be dryuun in to a pot. 7 As stronge men thei schulen renne, as men werriours thei schulen stie on the wal. Men schulen go in her weies, and thei schulen not bowe awei fro her pathis. 8 Ech man schal not make streyt his brother, ech man schal go in his path; but also thei schulen falle doun bi wyndows, and schulen not be hirt. 9 Thei schulen entre in to the citee, thei schulen renne on the wal; thei schulen stie on housis, thei schulen entre as a niyt theef bi wyndows. 10 The erthe tremblide of his face, heuenys weren mouyd, the sunne and the moone weren maad derk, and sterris withdrowen her schynyng. 11 And the Lord yaf his vois bifor the face of his oost, for hise oostis ben ful manye; for tho ben stronge, and doen the word of hym. For the dai of the Lord is greet, and ful ferdful, and who schal suffre it? 12 Now therfor seith the Lord, Be ye conuertid to me in al youre herte, in fastyng, and wepyng, and weilyng; 13 and kerue ye youre hertis, and not youre clothis, and be ye conuertid to youre Lord God, for he is benygne, and merciful, pacient, and of myche merci, and abidyng, ether foryyuynge, on malice. 14 Who woot, if God be conuertid, and foryyue, and leeue blessing swerd his brother, and defoulide the merci of hym, and helde ferthere his woodnesse, and kepte his indignacioun `til in to the ende. 12 Y schal sende fier in to Theman, and it schal deuoure the housis of Bosra. 13 The Lord seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of the sones of Amon, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte hym, for he karf the wymmen with childe of Galaad, for to alarge his terme. 14 And Y schal kyndle fier in the wal of Rabbe, and it schal deuoure the housis therof, in yellyng in the dai of batel, and in whirlwynd in the dai of mouyng togidere. 15 And Melchon schal go in to caitifte, he and hise princes togidere, seith the Lord.

2 The Lord God seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of Moab, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte it, for it brente the boonys of the kyng of Idumee til to aische. 2 And Y schal sende fier in to Moab, and it schal deuoure the housis of Carioth; and Moab schal die in sown, in the noise of a trumpe. 3 And Y schal leese a iuge of the myddis therof, and Y schal sle with it alle the princes therof, seith the Lord. 4 The Lord seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of Juda, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte hym, for he hath caste awei the lawe of the Lord, and kepte not the comaundementis of hym; for her idols, after whiche the fadris of hem yeden, disseyueden hem. 5 And Y schal sende fier in to Juda, and it schal deuoure the housis of Jerusalem. 6 The Lord seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of Israel, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte hym, for that that he seelde a iust man for siluer, and a pore man for schoon. 7 Whiche al to-foulen the heedis of pore men on the dust of erthe, and bowen awei the weie of meke men; and the sone and his fadir yeden to a damesele, that thei schulden defoule myn hooli name. 8 And thei eeten on clothis leid to wedde bisidis ech auter, and drunken the wyn of dampned men in the hous of her God. 9 Forsothe Y distriede Ammorrei fro the face of hem, whos hiynesse was the hiynesse of cedris, and he was strong as an ook; and Y al to-brak the fruyt of hym aboue, and the rootis of hym bynethe. 10 Y am, that made you to stie fro the lond of Egipt, and ledde you out in desert bi fourti yeer, that ye schulden welde the lond of Ammorrei. 11 And Y reise of youre sonen in to profetis, and Nayareis of youre yonge men. Whether it is not so, ye sonen of Israel? seith the Lord. 12 And ye birliden wyn to Nayareis, and comaundiden to profetis, and seiden, Profecie ye not. 13 Lo! Y schal charke vndur you, as a wayn chargid with hei charkith. 14 And fliyt schal perische fro a swift man, and a strong man schal not holde his vertu, and a stalworthe man schal not saue his lijf; 15 and he that holdith a bowe schal not stonde, and a swift man schal not be sauyl by hise feet; and the stiere of an hors schal not saue his lijf, 16 and a stronge man of herte schal fle nakid among stronge men in that dai, seith the Lord.

3 Sonen of Israel, here ye the word which the Lord spak on you, and on al the kynrede, which Y ledde out of the lond of Egipt, 2 and seide, Oneli Y knewe you of alle the kynredis of erthe; therfor Y schal visite on you alle youre wickidnessis. 3 Whether tweyne schulen go togidere, no but it acorde to hem? 4 Whether a lioun schal rore in a forest, no but he haue prey? Whether the whelp of a lioun schal yyue vois fro his denne, no but he take ony thing? 5 Whether a brid schal falle in to a snare of erthe, with outen a foulere? Whether a snare schal be takun awei fro erthe, bifor that it tak sum thing? 6 Whether a trumpe schal sowne in a citee, and the puple schal not drede? Whether yuel schal be in a citee, which yuel the Lord schal not make? 7 For the Lord God schal not make a word, no but he schewe his priuete to hise seruauntis profetis. 8 A lioun schal rore, who schal not drede? the Lord God spak, who schal not profesie? 9 Make ye herd in the housis of Azotus, and in the housis of the lond of Egipt; and seie ye, Be ye gaderid togidere on the hillis of Samarye, and se ye many woodnessis in the myddis therof, and hem that suffren fals calenge in the priuy places therof. 10 And thei kouden not do riytful thing, seith the Lord, and tresouriden wickidnesse and raueyn in her housis. 11 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, The lond schal be troblid, and be cumpassid; and thi strengthe schal be drawun doun of thee, and thin housis schulen be rauyschid. 12 The Lord God seith these thingis, As if a scheperd rauyschith fro the mouth of a lioun tweyne hipis, ether the laste thing of the eere, so the children of Israel schulen be rauyschid, that dwellen in Samarie, in the cuntrei of bed, and in the bed of Damask. 13 Here ye, and witesse ye in the hous of Jacob, seith the Lord God of oostis. 14 For in the dai, whanne Y schal bigynne to visite the trespassyngis of Israel on hym, Y schal visite also on the auteris of Bethel; and the hornes of the auter schulen be kit awei, and schulen falle doun in to erthe. 15 And Y schal smyte the wynter hous with the somer hous, and the housis of yuer schulen perische, and many housis schulen be distried, seith the Lord.

4 Ye fatte kien, that ben in the hil of Samarie, here this word; whiche maken fals caleng to nedi men, and breken pore men; which seien to youre lordis, Bringe ye, and we schulen drynke. 2
 The Lord God swoor in his hooli, for lo! daies schulen come on you; and thei schulen reise you in schaftis, and youre remenauntis in buylynge pottis. 3 And ye schulen go out bi the openyngis, oon ayens another, and ye schulen be cast forth in to Armon, seith the Lord. 4 Come ye to Bethel, and do ye wickidli; to Galgala, and multiplie ye trespassyng; and offre ye eerli youre sacrifices, in thre daies youre tithis. 5 And sacrifice ye heri yng of breed maad sour, and clepe ye wilful offryngis, and telle ye; for ye, sones of Israel, wolden so, seith the Lord God. 6 Wherfor and Y yaf to you astonying of teeth in alle youre citees, and nedinesse of looues in alle youre places; and ye turneden not ayen to me, seith the Lord. 7 Also Y forbeed reyn fro you, whanne thre monethis weren yit `to comyng, til to ripe corn; and Y reynede on o citee, and on another citee Y reynede not; o part was bireyned, and the part driede vp on which Y reynede not. 8 And tweyne and thre citees camen to o citee, to drynke watir, and tho weren not fillid; and ye camen not ayen to me, seith the Lord. 9 Y smoot you with brennyng wynd, and with rust, the multitude of youre orcherdis, and of youre vyneris; and a wort worm eet youre olyue places, and youre fige places; and ye camen not ayen to me, seith the Lord. 10 Y sente in to you deth in the weie of Egipt, Y smoot with swerd youre yonge men, `til to the caitifte of youre horsis, and Y made the stynk of youre oostis to stie in to youre nose thirlis; and ye camen not ayen to me, seith the Lord. 11 Y distriede you, as God distriede Sodom and Gomorre, and ye ben maad as a brond rauyschid of brennyng; and ye turneden not ayen to me, seith the Lord. 12 Wherfor, thou Israel, Y schal do these thingis to thee; but aftir that Y schal do to thee these thingis, Israel, be maad redi in to ayen comyng of thi God. 13 For lo! he fourmeth hillis, and makith wynd, and tellith to man his speche; and he makith a `morew myist, and goith on hiy thingis of erthe; the Lord God of oostis is the name of hym.

5 Here ye this word, for Y reise on you a weilyng. 2 The hous of Israel felle doun, he schal not put to, that it rise ayen; the virgyn of Israel is cast doun in to hir lond, noon is that schal reise hir.
3 For the Lord God seith these thingis, The citee of which a thousynde wenten out, an hundrid schulen be left ther ynn; and of which an hundrid wenten out, ten schulen be left ther ynne, in the hous of Israel. 4 For the Lord seith these thingis to the hous of Israel, Seke ye me, and ye schulen lyue; 5 and nyle ye seke Bethel, and nyle ye entre in to Galgala, and ye schulen not passe to Bersabee; for whi Galgal schal be led caitif, and Bethel schal be vnprofitable. 6 Seke ye the Lord, and lyue ye, lest perauenture the hous of Joseph be brent as fier; and it schal deuoure Bethel, and there schal not be, that schal quenche. 7 Whiche conuerten doom in to wermode, and forsaken riytwisnesse in the lond, 8 and forsaken hym that makith Arture and Orion, and hym that turneth derknessis in to the morewtid, and him that chaungith dai in to niyt; which clepith watris of the see, and heldith out hem on the face of erthe; the Lord is name of hym. 9 Which scorneth distriyng on the stronge, and bringith robbyng on the myyti. 10 Thei hatiden a man repreuyng in the yate, and thei wlatiden a man spekyng perfitli. 11 Therfor for that that ye robbiden a pore man, and token fro hym the chosun prey, ye schulen bilde housis with square stoon, and ye schulen not dwelle in hem; ye schulen plaunte moost louyd vyneyerdis, and ye schulen not drynke the wyn of hem. 12 For Y knew youre grete trespassis many, and youre stronge synnes; enemyes of `the riytwis man, takyng yifte, and beryng doun pore men in the yate. 13 Therfor a prudent man schal be stille in that time, for the time is yuel. 14 Seke ye good, and not yuel, that ye lyue, and the Lord God of oostis schal be with you, as ye seiden. 15 Hate ye yuel, and loue ye good, and ordeyne ye in the gate doom; if perauenture the Lord God of oostis haue merci on the remenauntis of Joseph. 16 Therfor the Lord God of oostis, hauynge lordschipe, seith these thingis, Weilyng schal be in alle stretis, and in alle thingis that ben withoutforth it schal be seid, Wo! wo! and thei schulen clepe an erthe tilier to mourenyng, and hem that kunnen weile, to weilyng. 17 And weilyng schal be in alle weies, for Y schal passe forth in the myddil of `the see, seith the Lord. 18 Wo to hem that desiren the dai of the Lord; wher to desiren ye it to you? This dai of the Lord schal be derknessis, and not liyt. 19 As if a man renne fro the face of a lioun, and a bere renne to hym; and he entre in to the hous, and lene with his hond on the wal, and a serpent dwellynge in schadewe bite hym. 20 Whether the dai of the Lord schal not be derknessis, and not liyt; and myist, and not schynyng ther ynne? 21 Y hatide and castide awei youre feeste daies, and Y schal not take the odour of youre cumpenyes. 22 That if ye offren to me youre brent sacrifices, and yiftis, Y schal not resseyue, and Y schal not biholde avowis of youre fatte thingis. 23 Do thou awei fro me the noise of thi songis, and Y schal not here the songis of thin harpe. 24 And doom schal be schewid as watir, and rytfulnesse as a strong stream. 25 Whether ye, the hous of Israel, offriden to me sacrifices for enemyes to be ouercomun, and sacrifice in desert fourti yeeris? 26 And ye han bore tabernaclis to Moloch, youre god, and ymage of youre idols, the sterre of youre god, which ye maden to you. 27 And Y schal make you for to passe ouer Damask, seide the Lord; God of oostis is the name of him.

6 Wo to you, that ben ful of richessis in Sion, and tristen in the hil of Samarie, ye principal men, the heedis of puplis, that goen proudli in to the hous of Israel. 2 Go ye in to Calamye, and se ye, and go ye fro thennus in to Emath the greet; and go ye down in to Geth of Palestyns, and to alle the beste rewmes of hem, if her terme be broddere than youre terme. 3 And ye ben departid in to yuel dai, and neiyen to the seete of wickidnesse; 4 and ye slepen in beddis of yuer, and doen letcherie in youre beddis; and ye eten a lomb of the flok, and calues of the myddil of droue; 5 and ye syngen at vois of sautree. As Daudid thei gessiden hem for to haue instrumentis of song, and drynken wyn in viols; 6 and with beste oynement thei weren anoynted; and in no thing thei hadden compassioun on the sorewe, ether defoulyng, of Joseph. 7 Wherfor now thei schulen passe in the heed of men passynge ouer, and the doying of men doynge letcherie schal be don awei. 8 The Lord God swoor in his soule, seith the Lord God of oostis, Y wlate the pride of Jacob, and Y hate the housis of hym, and Y schal bitake the citee with hise dwelleris; 9 that if ten men ben left in oon hous, and thei schulen die. 10 And his neiybore schal take hym, and schal brenne hym, that he bere out boonys of the hous. And he schal seie to hym, that is in the priuy places of the hous, Whether ther is yit anentis thee? And he schal answer, An ende is. And he schal seie to hym, Be thou stille, and thenke thou not on the name of the Lord. 11 For lo! the Lord schal comaunde, and schal smyte the grettere hous with fallyngis, and the lesse hous with brekyngis. 12 Whether horsis moun renne in stoonys, ether it mai be eerid with wielde oxun? For ye turneden doom in to bitternesse, and the fruyt of riytfulnesse in to wermod. 13 And ye ben glad in nouyt, and ye seien, Whether not in oure strengthe we token to vs hornes? 14 Lo! Y schal reise on you, the hous of Israel, seith the Lord God of oostis, a folc; and it schal al to-breke you fro entre of Emath `til to the streem of desert.

7 The Lord God schewide these thingis to me; and lo! a makere of locust in bigynnyng of buriownynge thingis of euentid reyn, and lo! euentid reyn after the clippere of the kyng. 2 And it was don, whanne he hadde endid for to ete the erbe of erthe, Y seide, Lord God, Y biseche, be thou merciful; who schal reise Jacob, for he is lital? 3 The Lord hadde merci on this thing; It schal not be, seide the Lord God. 4 The Lord God schewide to me these thingis; and lo! the Lord God schal clepe doom to fier, and it schal deuoure myche depthe of watir, and it eet togidere a part. 5 And Y seide, Lord God, Y biseche, reste thou; who schal reise Jacob, for he is lital? 6 The Lord hadde merci on this thing; But and this thing schal not be, seide the Lord God. 7 The Lord God schewide to me these thingis; and lo! the Lord stondinge on a wal plastrid, and in the hond of hym was a trulle of a masoun. 8 And the Lord seide to me, What seest thou, Amos? And Y seide, A trulle of a masoun. And the Lord seide, Lo! I schal putte a trulle in the myddil of my puple Israel; Y schal no more putte to, for to ouerlede it; 9 and the hiy thingis of idol schulen be distried, and the halewyngis of Israel schulen be desolat; and Y schal rise on the hous of Jeroboam bi swerd. 10 And Amasie, prest of Bethel, sente to Jeroboam, kyng of Israel, and seide, Amos rebellide ayens thee, in the myddil of the hous of Israel; the lond mai not susteyne alle hise wordis. 11 For

Amos seith these thingis, Jeroboam schal die bi swerd, and Israel caitif schal passe fro his lond. 12 And Amasie seide to Amos, Thou that seest, go; fle thou in to the lond of Juda, and ete thou there thi breed; and there thou schalt profesie. 13 And thou schalt no more put to, that thou profesie in Bethel, for it is the halewyng of the king, and is the hous of the rewme. 14 And Amos answeride, and seide to Amasie, Y am not a profete, and Y am not sone of profete; but an herde of neet Y am, drawyng vp sicomoris. 15 And the Lord took me, whanne Y suede the floc; and the Lord seide to me, Go, and profesie thou to my puple Israel. 16 And now here thou the word of the Lord. Thou seist, Thou schalt not profesie on Israel, and thou schal not droppe on the hous of idol. 17 For this thing the Lord seith these thingis, Thi wijf schal do fornicacioun in the citee, and thi sones and thi douytris schal falle bi swerd, and thi lond schal be motun with a litil coord; and thou schalt die in a pollutid lond, and Israel caitif schal passe fro his lond.

8 The Lord God schewide to me these thingis; and lo! an hook of applis. 2 And the Lord seide, What seist thou, Amos? And Y seide, An hook of applis. And the Lord seide to me, The ende is comun on my puple Israel; Y schal no more putte to, that Y passe bi hym. 3 And the herris, ether twistis, of the temple schulen greetli sowne in that dai, seith the Lord God. Many men schulen die, silence schal be cast forth in ech place. 4 Here ye this thing, whiche al to-breken a pore man, and maken nedi men of the lond for to faile; 5 and ye seien, Whanne schal heruest passe, and we schulen sille marchaundises? and the sabat, and we schulen opene wheete? that we make lesse the mesure, and encrease the cicle, and `vndur put gileful balauncis; 6 that we

God, art meke and merciful, pacient, and of merciful doying, and foryyuynge on malice. 3 And now, Lord, Y preie, take my soule fro me; for deth is betere to me than lijf. 4 And the Lord seide, Gessist thou, whether thou art wel wrooth? 5 And Jonas wente out of the citee, and sat ayens the eest of the citee, and made to hym a schadewyng place there; and sat vndur it in schadewe, til he sai what bifelle to the citee. 6 And the Lord God made redy an yuy, and it stiede vp on the heed of Jonas, that schadewe were on his heed, and kyueride hym; for he hadde trauelid. And Jonas was glad on the yuy, with greet gladnesse. 7 And God made redi a worm, in stiyng up of grei dai on the morewe; and it smoot the yuy, and it driede up. 8 And whanne the sunne was risun, the Lord comaundide to the hoot wynd and brennyng; and the sunne smoot on the heed of Jonas, and he swalide. And he axide to his soule that he schulde die, and seide, It is betere to me for to die, than for to lyue. 9 And the Lord seide to Jonas, Gessist thou, whether thou art wel wrooth on the yuy? And he seide, Y am wel wrooth, til to the deth. 10 And the Lord seide, Thou art sori on the yuy, in which thou trauelidist not, nether madist that it wexide, which was growun vndur o nytyt, and perischide in o nytyt. 11 And schal Y not spare the grete citee Nynyue, in which ben more than sixe score thousynde of men, which witen not what is betwixe her riyt half and left, and many beestis?

Micah

1 The word of the Lord, which was maad to `Mychee of Morasti, in the daies of Joathan, Achas, Ezechie, kyngis of Juda; which word he sai on Samarie, and Jerusalem. 2 Here ye, alle puplis, and the erthe perseyue, and plentee therof, and be the Lord God to you in to a witnesse, the Lord fro his hooli temple. 3 For lo! the Lord schal go out of his place, and schal come down, and schal trede on hyi thingis of erthe. 4 And mounteyns schulen be waastid vndur hym, and valeis schulen be kit, as wex fro the face of fier, as watirs that rennen in to a pit. 5 In the grete trespass of Jacob is al this thing, and in the synnes of the hous of Israel. Which is the greet trespass of Jacob? whether not Samarie? and whiche ben the hyi thingis of Juda? whether not Jerusalem? 6 And Y schal put Samarie as an heep of stoonys in the feeld, whanne a vynyerd is plauntid; and Y schal drawe awei the stoonys therof in to a valei, and Y schal schewe the foundementis therof. 7 And alle `grauun ymagis therof schulen be betun togidere, and alle hiris therof schulen be brent in fier; and Y schal putte alle idols therof in to perdicioun; for of hiris of an hoore tho ben gaderid, and `til to hire of an hoore tho schulen turne ayen. 8 On this thing Y schal weile and yelle, Y schal go spuylid and nakid; Y schal make weilyng of dragouns, and mournyng as of ostrigis. 9 For wounde therof is dispeirid; for it cam til to Juda, it touchide the yate of my puple, til to Jerusalem. 10 In Geth nyle ye telle, bi teeris wepe ye not; in the hous of dust with dust togidere sprynge you. 11 And ye a fair dwellyng passe, which is confoundid with yuel fame; it is not goon out, which dwellith in the goyng out; a niy hous schal take of you weilyng, which stood to it silf. 12 For it is maad sijk to good, which dwellith in bitternessis. For yuel cam doun fro the Lord in to the yate of Jerusalem, noise of foure horsid cart, 13 of drede to the puple dwellynge at Lachis. It is the bigynnyng of synne of the douyter of Sion, for the grete trespassis of Israel ben foundun in thee. 14 Therfor he schal yyue werriours on the eritage of Geth, on housis of leesyng in to deseit to kyngis of Israel. 15 Yit Y schal brynge an eir to thee, that dwellist in Maresa; the glorie of Israel schal come til to Odolla. 16 Be thou maad ballid, and be thou clippid on the sones of thi delices; alarge thi ballidnesse as an egle, for thei ben lad caitif fro thee.

2 Wo to you, that thenken vnprofitable thing, and worchen yuele in youre beddis; in the morewtid liyt thei don it, for the hond of hem is ayenus God. 2 Thei coueitiden feeldis, and tooken violentli; and rauyschiden housis, and falsli calengiden a man and his hous, a man and his eritage. 3 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y thenke on this meynee yuel, fro which ye schulen not take awei youre neckis; and ye schulen not walke proude, for the worste tyme is. 4 In that dai a parable schal be takun on you, and a song schal be songun with swetnesse of men, seiynge, Bi robberyng we ben distried; a part of my puple is chaungid; hou schal he go awei fro me, whanne he turneth ayen that schal departe youre cuntreis? 5 For this thing `noon schal be to thee sendynge a litil corde of sort in cumpeny of the Lord. 6 A! thou Israel, speke ye not spekyng; it schal not droppe on these men, confusioun schal not catche, 7 seith the hous of Jacob. Whether the Spirit of the Lord is abreggid, either siche ben the thouytis of hym? Whether my wordis ben not gode, with hym that goith riytli? 8 And ayenward my puple roos togidere in to an aduersarie; ye token awei the mantil aboue the coote, and ye turneden in to batel hem that wenten sympli. 9 Ye castiden the wymmen of my puple out of the hous of her delices; fro the litle children of hem ye token awei myn heri yng with outhende. 10 Rise ye, and go, for here ye han not reste; for the vncleennesse therof it schal be corrupt with the worst rot. 11 Y wolde that Y were not a man hauynge spirit, and rather Y spak a leesyng. Y schal droppe to thee in to wyn, and in to drunkenesse; and this puple schal be, on whom it is droppid. 12 With gaderyng Y schal gadere Jacob; Y schal lede togidere thee al in to oon, the relifs of Israel. Y schal put hym togidere, as a floc in folde; as scheep in the myddil of fooldis thei schulen make noise, of multitude of men. 13 For he schal stie schewynge weie bfore hem; thei schulen departe, and passe the yate, and schulen go out therbi; and the kyng of hem schal passe bfore hem, and the Lord in the heed of hem.

3 And Y seide, Ye princis of Jacob, and duykis of the hous of Israel, here. Whether it be not youre for to knowe doom, whiche haten good, 2 and louen yuele? Whiche violentli taken awei the skynnes of hem fro aboue hem, and the fleisch of hem fro aboue the bonys of hem. 3 Whiche eeten the fleisch of my puple, and hiliden the skyn of hem fro aboue; and broken togidere the boonys of hem, and kittiden togidere as in a cawdroun, and as fleisch in the myddil of a pot. 4 Thanne thei schulen crie to the Lord, and he schal not here hem; and he schal hide hise face fro hem in that tyme, as thei diden wickidli in her fyndingis. 5 The Lord God seith these thingis on the profetis that disseyuen my puple, and biten with her teeth, and prechen pees; and if ony man yyueth not in the mouth of hem ony thing, thei halewen batel on hym. 6 Therfor niyt schal be to you for visioun, or profesie, and derknessis to you for dyuynacioun; and sunne schal go doun on the profetis, and the dai schal be maad derk on hem. 7 And thei schulen be confoundid that seen visiouns, and dyuynours schulen be confoundid, and alle schulen hile her cheris, for it is not the answer of God. 8 Netheles Y am fillid with strengthe of Spirit of the Lord, and in doom and vertu, that Y schewe to Jacob his greet trespas, and to Israel his synne. 9 Here these thingis, ye princes of the hous of Jacob, and domesmen of the hous of Israel, whiche wlaten dom, and peruerten alle riyt thingis; 10 whiche bilden Sion in bloodis, and Jerusalem in wickidnesse. 11 Princes therof demyden for yiftis, and prestis therof tauyten for hire, and profetis therof dyuyneden for money; and on the Lord thei restiden, and seiden, Whether the Lord is not in the myddil of us? yuelis schulen not come on vs. 12 For this thing bi cause of you, Sion as a feeld schal be erid; and Jerusalem schal be as an heep of stoonys, and the hil of the temple schal be in to hiye thingis of woodis.

4 And in the laste of daies the hil of the hous of the Lord schal be maad redi in the cop of hillis, and hiy ouer smale hillis. And puplis schulen flete to him, and many puplis schulen haaste, 2 and shulen seie, Come ye, stie we til to the hil of the Lord, and to the hous of God of Jacob; and he schal teche vs of hise weies, and we schulen go in hise pathis. For lawe schal go out fro Syon, and the word of the Lord fro Jerusalem; 3 and he schal deme bitwixe many puplis, and schal chastise stronge folkis til in to fer. And thei schulen bete togidere her swerdis in to scharis, and her speris in to picoisis; a folc schal not take swerd ayens folc, and thei schulen no more lerne for to fiyte. 4 And a man schal sitte vndur his vyneyerd, and vndur his fige tree; and ther schal not be that schal make aferd, for the mouth of the Lord of oostis spak. 5 For alle puplis schulen go, ech man in the name of his Lord God; but we schulen walke in the name of oure Lord God in to the world, and ouer. 6 In that dai, seith the Lord, Y schal gadere the haltynge, and Y schal gadere hir that Y castide awei, and whom Y turmentide Y schal coumforte. 7 And Y schal putte the haltynge in to relifs, ether remenauntis, and hir that trauelide, in a strong folc. And the Lord schal regne on hem in the hil of Sion, fro this now and til in to with outhen ende. 8 And thou, `derk tour of the floc of the douyter of Sion, `til to thee he schal come, and the first power schal come, the rewme of the douytir of Jerusalem. 9 Now whi art thou drawun togidere with mournyng? whether a kyng is not to thee, ether thi counselour perischide? for sorowe hath take thee, as a womman trauelinge of child. 10 Thou douyter of Sion, make sorewe, and haaste, as a womman trauelynge of child; for now thou schalt go out of the citee, and schalt dwelle in cuntree, and schalt come `til to Babiloyne; there thou schalt be delyuered, there the Lord schal ayen bie thee, fro the hond of thin enemyes. 11 And now many folkis ben gaderid on thee, whiche seien, Be it stonyd, and oure iye biholde in to Sion. 12 Forsothe thei knewen not the thouytis of the Lord, and vndurstoden not the councel of hym, for he gaderide hem as the hei of feeld. 13 Rise thou, douyter of Sion, and threische, for Y schal putte thin horn of irun, and Y schal putte thi nailis brasun; and thou schalt make lesse, ether waste, many puplis, and schalt sle to the Lord the raueyns of hem, and the strengthe of hem to the Lord of al erthe.

5 Now thou, douyter of a theef, schalt be distried; thei puttiden on vs bisegyng, in a yerde thei schulen smyte the cheke of the iuge of Israel. 2 And thou, Bethleem Efrata, art litil in the thousyndis of Juda; he that is the lordli gouernour in Israel, schal go out of thee to me; and the goyng out of hym is fro bigynnyng, fro daies of euerlastyngnesse. 3 For this thing he shal yyue hem til to the tyme in which the traueling of child schal bere child, and the relifs of hise britheren schulen be conuertid to the sones of Israel. 4 And he schal stonde, and schal fede in the strengthe of the Lord, in the heiythe of the name of his Lord God; and thei schulen be conuertid, for now he schal be magnefied til to the endis of al erthe. 5 And this schal be pees, whanne Assirius schal come in to oure lond, and whanne he schal trede in oure housis; and we schulen reise on hym seuene scheepherdis, and eiyte primatis men, ether the firste in dignytee. 6 And thei schulen frete the lond of Assur bi swerd, and the lond of Nembroth bi speris of hym; and he schal delyuere vs fro Assur, whanne he schal come in to oure lond, and whanne he schal trede in oure coostis. 7 And relifs of Jacob schulen be in the myddil of many puplis, as dew of the Lord, and as dropis on erbe, whiche abidith not man, and schal not abide sones of men. 8 And relifs of Jacob schulen be in hethene men, in the myddil of many puplis, as a lioun in beestis of the woodis, and as a whelpe of a lioun rorynge in flockis of scheep; and whanne he passith, and defoulith, and takith, there is not that schal delyuere. 9 And thin hond schal be reysid on thin enemyes, and alle thin enemyes schulen perische. 10 And it schal be, in that dai, seith the Lord, Y schal take awei thin horsis fro the myddil of thee, and Y schal distrie thi foure horsid cartis. 11 And Y schal leese the citees of thi lond, and Y schal distrie alle thi strengthis; 12 and Y schal do awei witchecraftis fro thin

hond, and dyuynaciouns schulen not be in thee. 13 And Y schal make for to perische thi `grauun ymagis, and Y schal breke togidere fro the myddil of thee thin ymagis, and thou schalt no more worschipe the werkis of thin hondis. 14 And Y schal drawe out of the middis of thee thi woodis, and Y schal al to-breke thi citees. 15 And Y schal make in woodnesse and indignacioun veniaunce in alle folkis, whiche herden not.

6 Here ye whiche thingis the Lord spekith. Rise thou, stryue thou bi doom ayens mounteyns, and litle hillis here thi vois. 2 Mounteyns, and the stronge foundementis of erthe, here the doom of the Lord; for the doom of the Lord with his puple, and he schal be demyd with Israel. 3 Mi puple, what haue Y don to thee, ether what was Y greuouse to thee? Answer thou to me. 4 For Y ledde thee out of the lond of Egipt, and of the hous of seruage Y delyuerede thee; and Y sente bifore thi face Moises, and Aaron, and Marye. 5 My puple, bithenke, Y preie, what Balaac, kyng of Moab, thouyte, and what Balaam, sone of Beor, of Sethym, answeride to hym til to Galgala, that thou schuldist knowe the riytwisnesse of the Lord. 6 What worthi thing schal Y offre to the Lord? schal Y bowe the knee to the hiye God? Whether Y schal offre to hym brent sacrifices, and calues of o yeer? 7 Whether God mai be paid in thousyndis of wetheris, ether in many thousyndis of fatte geet buckis? Whether Y schal yyue my firste bigetun for my greet trespas, the fruyt of my wombe for synne of my soule? 8 Y schal schewe to thee, thou man, what is good, and what the Lord axith of thee; forsothe for to do doom, and for to loue merci, and be bisi for to walke with thi God. 9 The vois of the Lord crieth to the citee, and heelthe schal be to alle men dredynge thi name. Ye lynagis, here; and who schal approue it? 10 Yit fier is in the hous of the vnpitouse man, the tresouris of wickidnesse, and a lesse mesure ful of wraththe.

11 Whether Y schal iustifie the wickid balaunce, and the gileful weiytis of litil sak, 12 in whiche riche men therof ben fillid with wickidnesse? And men dwellynge ther ynne spaken leesyng, and the tunge of hem was gileful in the mouth of hem. 13 And Y therfor bigan for to smyte thee, in perdicioun on thi synnes. 14 Thou schalt ete, and schalt not be fillid, and thi mekyng is in the middil of thee; and thou schalt take, and schalt not saue; and which thou schalt saue, Y schal yyue in to swerd. 15 Thou schalt sowe, and schal not repe; thou schalt trede the `frut of oliue, and schalt not be anoyntid with oile; and must, and schalt not drynke wyn. 16 And thou keptist the heestis of Amry, and al the werk of the hous of Acab, and hast walkid in the lustis of hem, that Y schulde yyue thee in to perdicioun, and men dwellynge in it in to scornynge, and ye schulen bere the schenscipe of my puple.

7 Wo to me, for Y am maad as he that gaderith in heruest rasyns of grapys; there is no clustre for to ete; my soule desirede figis ripe bfore othere. 2 The hooli perischide fro erthe, and riytful is not in men; alle asprien, ether setten tresoun, in blood, a man huntith his brother to deth. 3 The yuel of her hondis thei seien good; the prince axith, and the domesman is in yeldyng; and a greet man spak the desir of his soule, and thei sturbliden togidere it. 4 He that is best in hem, is as a paluyre; and he that is riytful, is as a thorn of hegge. The dai of thi biholdyng, thi visityng cometh, now schal be distriyng of hem. 5 Nyle ye bileue to a frend, and nyle ye truste in a duyk; fro hir that slepith in thi bosum, kepe thou closyngis of thi mouth. 6 For the sone doith wrong to the fadir, and the douyter schal rise ayens hir modir, and the wijf of the sone ayens the modir of hir hosebonde; the enemyes of a man ben the homeli, ether houshold meynee, of hym. 7 Forsothe Y schal biholde to the Lord, Y schal abide God my sauour; the Lord my God schal here me. 8 Thou, myn enemye, be not glad on me, for Y felle down, Y schal rise; whanne Y sitte in derknessis, the Lord is my liyt. 9 Y schal bere wraththe of the Lord, for Y haue synned to hym, til he deme my cause, and make my doom; he schal lede out me in to liyt, Y schal se riytwisnesse of hym. 10 And myn enemye schal biholde me, and sche schal be hilid with confusioun, which seith to me, Where is thi Lord God? Myn iyen schulen se hir, now sche schal be in to defoulyng, as clei of stretis. 11 Dai schal come, that thi wallis be bildid; in that dai lawe schal be maad afer. 12 In that dai and Assur schal come til to thee, and `til to stronge citees, and fro stronge citees til to flood; and to see fro see, and to hil fro hil. 13 And erthe schal be in to desolacioun for her dwelleris, and for fruyt of the thouytis of hem. 14 Fede thou thi puple in thi yerde, the floc of thin eritage, that dwellen aloone in wielde wode; in the myddil of Carmel thei schulen be fed of Basan and of Galaad, 15 bi elde daies, bi daies of thi goyng out of the lond of Egipt. Y schal schewe to hym wondurful thingis; 16 hethene men schulen se, and thei schulen be confoundid on al her strengthe; thei schulen putte hondis on her mouth, the eris of hem schulen be deaf; 17 thei schulen licke dust as a serpent; as crepyng thingis of erthe thei schulen be disturblid of her housis; thei schulen not desire oure Lord God, and thei schulen drede thee. 18 God, who is lijk thee, that doist awei wickidnesse, and berist ouer the synne of relifs of thin eritage? He shal no more sende in his stronge veniaunce, for he is willynge merci; he schal turne ayen, 19 and haue merci on vs. He schal put down oure wickidnessis, and schal caste fer in to depnesse of the see alle oure synnes. 20 Thou schalt yyue treuthe to Jacob, merci to Abraham, whiche thou sworist to oure fadris fro elde daies.

Nahum

1 The birthun of Nynyue; the book of visioun of Naum Helcese.
2 The Lord is a punyschere, and the Lord is vengynge; the Lord is venginge, and hauynge strong veniaunce; the Lord is vengynge ayens hise aduersaries, and he is wraththing to hise enemyes. 3 The Lord is pacient, and greet in strengthe, and he clensynge schal not make innocent. The Lord cometh in tempest, and the weies of hym ben in whirlwynd, and cloudis ben the dust of hise feet; 4 he blameth the see, and drieth it, and bryngith alle flodis to desert. Basan is maad sijk, and Carmel, and the flour of Liban langwischide. 5 Mounteyns ben mouyd togidere of hym, and lital hillis ben desolat. And erthe tremblide togidere fro the face of him, and the roundenesse of erthe, and alle dwellynge ther ynne. 6 Who schal stonde bfore the face of his indignacioun? and who schal ayenstonde in the wraththe of his stronge veniaunce? His indignacioun is sched out as fier, and stoonys ben brokun of hym. 7 The Lord is good, and coumfortynge in the dai of tribulacioun, and knowynge hem that hopen in hym. 8 And in greet flood passynge forth, he schal make ende of his place; and derknessis schulen pursue hise enemyes. 9 What thenken ye ayens the Lord? He schal make ende; double tribulacioun schal not rise togidere. 10 For as thornes byclippen hem togidere, so the feeste of hem drynkynge togidere schal be wastyd, as stobul ful of drienesse. 11 Of thee schal go out a man thenkynge malice ayens the Lord, and trete trespassyng in soule. 12 The Lord seith these thingis, If thei schulen be parfit, and so manye, and thus thei shulen be clippid, and it schal passe bi. I turmentide thee, and Y schal no more turmente thee. 13 And now Y schal al to-breke the yerde of hym fro thi bak, and Y schal breke thi bondis. 14 And the Lord schal comaunde on thee, it schal no more be sowun of thi name. Of the hous of thi god Y schal sle; Y schal putte thi sepulcre a `grauun ymage, and wellid togidere, for thou art vnworschipid. 15 Lo! on hillis the feet of the euangelisyng and tellynge pees. Juda, halewe thou thi feeste daies, and yelde thi vowis, for whi Belial schal no more put to, that he passe forth in thee; al Belial perischide.

2 He stiede up, that schal scatere bfore thee, that schal kepe bisechyng; biholde thou the weie, coumforte leendis, strengthe thou vertu greetli. 2 For as the Lord yeldide the pride of Jacob, so the pride of Israel; for distrieris scateriden hem, and distrieden the generaciouns of hem. 3 The scheld of stronge men of hym ben firi, men of the oost ben in rede clothis; raynes of fire of chare, in the dai of his makyng redi; and the leederis therof ben asleep. 4 In weies thei ben troblid togidere, cartis of foure horsis ben hurtlid togidere in stretis; the siyte of hem as laumpis, as leitis rennyng aboute. 5 He schal bithenke of his stronge men, thei schulen falle in her weies; and swiftli thei schulen stie on the wallis therof, and schadewyng place schal be maad redi. 6 Yatis of floodis ben openyd, and the temple is brokun down to erthe. 7 And a knyyt is led awei caitif, and the handmaidis therof schulen be dryuun sorewyng as culueris, grutchyng in her hertis. 8 And Nynyue, as a cisterne of watris the watris therof; forsothe thei fledden; stonde ye, stonde ye, and there is not that schal turne ayen. 9 Rauysche ye siluer, rauysche ye gold; and there is noon ende of richessis, of alle desirable vessels. 10 It is distried, and kit, and to-rent, and herte failyng, and vnknytinge of smale knees, and failyng in alle reynes; and the face of alle ben as blacnesse of a pot. 11 Where is the dwellyng of liouns, and lesewis of whelpis of liouns? To whiche citee the lioun yede, that the whelp of the lioun schulde entre thidur, and there is not that schal make aferd. 12 The lioun took ynow to hise whelpis, and slowy to his lionessis; and fillide her dennes with prei, and his couche with raueyn. 13 Lo! Y to thee, seith the Lord God of oostis; and Y schal brenne thi cartis of foure horsis til to the hiyeste, and swerd schal ete thi smale liouns; and Y schal distrie thi prei fro the lond, and the vois of thi messengeris schulen no more be herd.

3 Wo to the citee of bloodis, al of leesyng, ful of to-reendyng; raueyn schal not go awei fro thee. 2 Vois of scourge, and vois of bire of wheel, and of hors makynge noise, and of foure horsid carte brennyng, and of kniyt stiyng vp, 3 and of schynyng swerd, and glesenyng spere, and of slayn multitude, and of greuouse fallyng, nether ther is eende of careyns. And thei schulen falle togidere in her bodies, 4 for the multitude of fornicaciouns of the hoore fair and plesaunt, and hauynge witchecraftis; which seelde folkis in her fornicaciouns, and meynees in her enchauntemenis, ether sorceries. 5 Lo! Y to thee, seith the Lord God of oostis; and Y schal schewe thi shameful thingis in thi face; and Y schal schewe to folkis thi nakidnesse, and to rewmes thin yuel fame. 6 And Y schal cast out on thee thin abhomynaciouns, and Y schal punysche thee with dispitis, and Y schal putte thee in to ensauple. 7 And it schal be, ech man that schal se thee, schal skippe awei fro thee, and schal seie, Nynyue is distried. Who schal moue heed on thee? wherof schal Y seke to thee a coumfortour? 8 Whether thou art betere than Alisaundre of pupilis, that dwellith in floodis?

Watris ben in cumpas therof, whos richessis is the see, watris ben wallis therof. 9 Ethiopie is strengthe therof, and Egipt, and there is noon ende; Affrik and Libie weren in help therof. 10 But and it in `passyng ouer is led in to caitifte; the litle children therof ben hurtlid doun in the heed of alle weies. And on the noble men therof thei kesten lot, and alle grete men therof ben set togidere in gyues. 11 And thou therfor schalt be drunkun, and schalt be dispisid, and thou schalt seke helpe of enemye. 12 Al thi strengthis as a fige tree, with hise figis vnripe; if thei schulen be schakun, thei schulen falle in to the mouth of the etere. 13 Lo! thi puple ben wymmen in the myddil of thee; the yatis of thi lond schulen be schewid to openyng to thin enemyes; fier schal deuoure thin herris. 14 Drawe vp to thee water for asegyng, bilde thi strengthis; entre in fen, and trede, thou vndurgoynge holde a tiel stoon. 15 There fier schal ete thee, thou schalt perische bi swerd, it schal deuoure thee, as bruke doith; be thou gaderid togidere as a bruke, be thou multiplied as a locuste. 16 Thou madist thi marchaundises mo than ben sterris of heuene; a bruke is spred abroad, and flei awei. 17 Thi keperis ben as locustis, and thi litle children ben as locustis of locustis, whiche sitten togidere in heggis in the dai of coold; the sun is risun, and thei fledden awei, and the place of hem is not knowun, where thei weren. 18 Thi scheepherdis naptun, thou kyng Assur, thi princes schulen be biried; thi puple ofte was hid in hillis, and ther is not that schal gadere. 19 Thi sorewe is not priuy, thi wounde is worst; alle men that herden thin heryng, pressiden togidere hond on thee, for on whom passide not thi malice euermore?

Habakkuk

1 The birthun that Abacuk, the profete, sai. 2 Hou longe, Lord, schal Y crye, and thou schalt not here? Y suffrynge violence schal crie an hiy to thee, and thou schalt not saue? 3 Whi schewidist thou to me wickidnesse and trauel, for to se prey and vnriytwisnesse ayens me? Whi biholdist thou dispiseris, and art stille, the while an vnpitouse man defoulith a riytfulere than hym silf? And thou schalt make men as fischis of the see, and as crepynge thingis not hauynge a ledere; and doom is maad, and ayenseyng is more myti. 4 For this thing lawe is `to-brokun, and doom cometh not til to the ende; for the vnpitouse man hath miyt ayens the iust, therfor weiward doom schal go out. 5 Biholde ye in hethene men, and se ye, and wondre ye, and greetli drede ye; for a werk is doon in youre daies, which no man schal bileue, whanne it schal be teld. 6 For lo! Y schal reise Caldeis, a bittir folk and swift, goynge on the breede of erthe, that he welde tabernaclis not hise. 7 It is orible, and dredeful; the dom and birthun therof schal go out of it silf. 8 His horsis ben liytere than pardis, and swifter than euentyd woluys, and hise horse men schulen be scaterid abroad; for whi `horse men schulen come fro fer, thei schulen fle as an egle hastyng to ete. 9 Alle men schulen come to preye, the faces of hem is as a brennyng wynd; and he schal gadere as grauel caitifte, 10 and he schal haue victorie of kyngis, and tirauntis schulen be of his scornynge. He schal leiye on al strengthe, and schal bere togidere heep of erthe, and schal take it. 11 Thanne the spirit schal be chaungid, and he schal passe forth, and falle doun; this is the strengthe of hym, of his god. 12 Whether `thou, Lord, art not my God, myn hooli, and we schulen not die? Lord, in to doom thou hast set hym, and thou groundidist hym strong, that thou schuldist chastise. 13 Thin iyen ben clene, se thou not yuel, and thou schalt not mowe biholde to wickidnesse. Whi biholdist thou not on men doynge wickidli, and thou art stille, while the vnpitouse man deuourith a more iust man than hymself? 14 And thou schalt make men as fischis of the see, and as a crepyng thing not hauynge prince. 15 He schal lifte vp al in the hook; he drawide it in his greet net, and gaderide in to his net; on this thing he schal be glad, and make ioie with outforth. 16 Therfore he schal offere to his greet net, and schal make sacrifice to his net; for in hem his part is maad fat, and his mete is chosun. 17 Therfor for this thing he spredith abrood his greet net, and euere more he ceesith not for to sle folkis.

2 On my kepyng Y schal stonde, and schal pitche a grees on wardyng; and Y schal biholde, that Y se what thing schal be seid to me, and what Y schal answer to hym that repreuith me. 2 And the Lord answeride to me, and seide, Write thou the reuelacioun, and make it pleyn on tablis, that he renne, that schal rede it. 3 For yit the visioun is fer, and it schal appere in to ende, and schal not lie; if it schal make dwellyng, abide thou it, for it comynge schal come, and schal not tarie. 4 Lo! the soule of hym, that is vnbileueful, schal not be riytful in hym silf; forsothe the iust man schal lyue in his feith. 5 And as wyn disseyueth a man drynkynge, so schal the proude man be, and he schal not be maad feir; for as helle he alargide his soule, and he is as deth, and he is not fillid; and he schal gadere to hym alle folkis, and he shal kepe togidere to hym alle puplis. (Sheol h7585) 6 Whether not alle these puplis schulen take a parable on hym, and the speking of derk sentencis of hym? And it schal be seid, Wo to hym that multiplieth thingis not his owne; hou longe, and he aggreggith ayens hym silf thicke clei? 7 Whether not sudeynli thei schulen rise to gidere, that schulen bite thee? And thei schulen be reised to-teerynge thee, and thou schalt be in to raueyn to hem; and thin aspieris in yuel schulen wake. 8 For thou robbidist many folkis, alle schulen robbe thee, whiche schulen be left of pupilis, for blood of man, and for wickidnesse of lond of the citee, and of alle men dwellynge in it. 9 Wo to hym that gaderith yuel coueitise to his hous, that his nest be in hiy, and gessith hym for to be delyuered of the hond of yuel. 10 Thou thouytist confusioun to thin hous; thou hast slayn many pupilis, and thi soule synnede. 11 For a stoon of the wal schal crie, and a tree that is bitwixe ioynnturis of bildyngis schal answere. 12 Wo to hym that bildith a citee in bloodis, and makith redi a citee in wickidnesse. 13 Whether not these thingis ben of the Lord of oostis? For pupilis schulen trauele in myche fier, and folkis in veyn, and thei schulen faile. 14 For the erthe schal be fillid, that it knowe the glorie of the Lord, as watris hilynge the see. 15 Wo to hym that yyueth drynk to his frend, and sendith his galle, and makith drunkun, that he biholde his nakidnesse. 16 He is fillid with yuel fame for glorie; and thou drynke, and be aslept; the cuppe of the rythalf of the Lord schal cumpasse thee, and `castynge vp of yuel fame on thi glorie. 17 For the wickidnesse of Liban schal kyure thee, and destruccioun of beestis schal make hem aferd, of bloodis of man, and of wickidnesse of lond, and of the citee, and of alle men dwellynge ther ynne. 18 What profitith the `grauun ymage, for his makere grauyde it, a wellid thing togidere and fals ymage? for the makere therof hopide in makyng, that he made doumbe symylacris. 19 Wo to hym that seith to a tre, Wake thou; Rise thou, to a stoon beyng stille; whether he schal mow teche? Lo! this is kyuerid with gold and siluer, and no spirit is in his entrails. 20 Forsothe the Lord is in his hooli temple, al erthe be stille fro his face.

3 The preier of Abacuk, the profete, for vnkunynge men. Lord, Y herde thin heryng, and Y dredde; 2 Lord, it is thi werk, in the myddil of yeeris quykene thou it. In the middil of yeeris thou schalt make knowun; whanne thou schalt be wrooth, thou schalt haue mynde of mercy. 3 God schal come fro the south, and the hooli fro the mount of Faran. The glorie of hym kyueride heuenes, and the erthe is ful of his heriyng. 4 The schynnyng of hym schal be as liyt; hornes in hondis of hym. 5 There the strengthe of hym was hid, deth schal go bfore his face; the deuel schal go out bfore hise feet. 6 He stood, and mat the erthe; he bihelde, and vnboond folkis, and hillis of the world weren al to-brokun; the litle hillis of the world weren bowid down, of the weies of his euerlastyngnesse. 7 For wickidnesse Y saiy the tentis of Ethiope, the skynnes of the lond of Madian schulen be troblid. 8 Lord, whether in floodis thou art wrooth, ether in floodis is thi strong veniaunce, ether in the see is thin indignacioun?
Which shalt stie on thin horsis; and thi foure horsid cartis is saluacioun. 9 Thou reisyng schalt reise thi bouwe, othis to lynagis whiche thou hast spoke; thou schalt departe the floodis of erthe. 10 Watris saien thee, and hillis sorewiden, the goter of watris passide; depnesse yaf his vois, hiynesse reise hise hondis. 11 The sunne and moone stoden in her dwellyng place; in the liyt of thin arowis thei schulen go, in the schynnyng of thi spere glisnyng. 12 In gnastyng thou schalt defoule erthe, and in strong veniaunce thou schalt astonye folkis. 13 Thou art gon out in to helthe of thi puple, in to helthe with thi crist; thou hast smyte the heed of the hous of the vnpitouse man, thou hast maad nakid the foundement til to the necke. 14 Thou cursidist the ceptris, ether powers, of hym, the heed of hise fiyteris, to men comynge as whirlewynde for to scatere me; the ioiying withoutforth of hem, as of hym that deuourith a pore man in hidlis. 15 Thou madist a weie in the see to thin horsis, in clei of many watris. 16 Y herde, and my wombe is troblid togidere; my lippis trembliden togidere of the vois. Rot entre in my boonys, and sprengende vndur me; that Y reste ayen in the dai of tribulacioun, and Y schal stie vp to oure puple gird togidere. 17 For the fige tre schal not floure, and buriownyng schal not be in vynyerdys; the werk of olyue tre schal lie, and feeldis schulen not bryngende mete; a scheep schal be kit awei fro the fold, and droue schal not be in cratchis. 18 Forsothe Y schal haue ioie in the Lord, and Y schal make ioie with outforth in God my Jhesu. 19 God the Lord is my strengthe, and he schal putte my feet as of hertis; and on myn hiye thingis, the ouercomere schal lede forth me, syngyngende in salmes.

caudrun in Jerusalem and Juda schal be halewid to the Lord of oostis. And alle men schulen come offrynge, and schulen take of tho, and schulen sethe in tho; and a marchaunt schal no more be in the hous of the Lord of oostis in that day.

Malachi

1 The birthun of the word of the Lord to Israel, in the hond of Malachie, the profete. 2 Y louyde you, seith the Lord, and ye seiden, In what thing louydist thou vs? Whether Esau was not the brother of Jacob, seith the Lord, and Y louyde Jacob, 3 forsothe Y hatide Esau? And Y haue put Seir the hillis of hym in to wildirnesse, and his eritage in to dragouns of desert. 4 That if Idumee seith, We ben distried, but we schulen turne ayen, and bilde tho thingis that ben distried; the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, These schulen bilde, and Y schal distrie; and thei schulen be clepid termes of wickidnesse, and a puple to whom the Lord is wroth, til in to with outen ende. 5 And youre iyen schulen se, and ye schulen seie, The Lord be magnified on the terme of Israel. 6 The sone onourith the fader, and the seruaunt schal drede his lord; therfor if Y am fadir, wher is myn onour? and if Y am lord, where is my drede? seith the Lord of oostis. Al ye prestis, to you that dispisen my name; and ye seiden, Wherynne han we dispisid thi name? 7 Ye offren on myn auter vncleene breed, and ye seien, Wherynne han we defoulid thee? In that thing that ye seien, The boord of the Lord is dispisid. 8 If ye offren a blynd beest to be sacrificid, whether it is not yuel? And if ye offren a crokid and sike beeste, whether it is not yuel? Offre thou it to thi duyck, if it schal plese hym, ether if he schal resseyue thi face, seith the Lord of oostis. 9 And now biseche ye the cheer of the Lord, that he haue merci on you; for of youre hond this thing is doon, if in ony maner he resseiue youre faces, seith the Lord of oostis. 10 Who is `in you that closith doris, and brenneth myn auter `of his owne wille, ethir freli? Wille is not to me in you, seith the Lord of oostis; and Y schal not resseyue a yifte of youre hond. 11 For fro rysyng of the sunne til to goyng doun, my name is greet in hethene men; and in ech place a cleene offring is sacrificid, and offrid to my name; for my name is greet in hethene men, seith the Lord of oostis. 12 And ye han defoulid it in that that ye seien, The boord of the Lord is defoulid, and that that is put aboue is `worthi to be dispisid, with fier that deuourith it. 13 And ye seiden, Lo! of trauel; and ye han blowe it a wei, seith the Lord of oostis. And ye brouyten in of raueyns a crokid thlng and sijk, and brouyten in a yifte; whether Y schal resseyue it of youre hond? seith the Lord. 14 Cursid is the gileful, that hath in his floc a male beeste, and `he makynge a vow offrith a feble to the Lord; for Y am a greet kyng, seith the Lord of oostis, and my name is dredeful `in folkis.

2 And now, A! ye preestis, this maundement is to you. 2 If ye wolen here, and if ye `wolen not putte on the herte, that ye yyue glorie to my name, seith the Lord of oostis, Y schal sende nedynesse in to you, and Y schal curse to youre blessyngis; and Y schal curse hem, for ye han not putte on the herte. 3 Lo! Y schal caste to you the arm, and Y schal scatere on youre cheere the drit of youre solemptytes, and it schal take you with it. 4 And ye schulen wite, that Y sente to you this maundement, that my couenaunt were with Leuy, seith the Lord of oostis. 5 My couenaunt was with hym of lijf and pees; and Y yaf to hym a drede, and he dredde me, and he dredde of face of my name. 6 The lawe of trewthe was in his mouth, and wickidnesse was not foundun in hise lippis; in pees and in equite he walkide with me, and he turnede awei many men fro wickidnesse. 7 For the lippis of a prest kepen science, and thei schulen ayen seke the lawe of `the mouth of hym, for he is an aungel of the Lord of oostes. 8

But ye wenten awei fro the weie, and sclaudren ful many men in the lawe; ye maden voide the couenaunt of Leuy, seith the Lord of oostis. 9 For which thing and Y yaf you worthi to be dispisid, and bowen to alle puplis, as ye kepten not my weies, and token a face in the lawe. 10 Whether not o fadir is of alle you? whether o God made not of nouyt you? Whi therfor ech of you dispisith his brother, and defoulith the couenaunt of youre fadris? 11 Judas trespasside, and abhomynacioun is maad in Israel, and in Jerusalem; for Judas defoulide the halewyng of the Lord, which he louyde, and he hadde the douyter of an alien god. 12 The Lord schal distrie the man that dide this thing, the maister and disciple, fro the tabernacle of Jacob, and him that offrith a yifte to the Lord of oostis. 13 And eftsoone ye diden this thing; ye hiliden with teeris the auter of the Lord, with wepyng and mourenyng; so that Y biholde no more to sacrifice, nether resseyue ony thing plesaunt of youre hond. 14 And ye seiden, For what cause? For the Lord witnesside bitwixe thee and the wijf of thi `puberte, that is, tyme of mariage, which thou dispisidist, and this is thi felowe, and wijf of thi couenaunt. 15 Whether oon made not, and residue of spirit is his? and what sekith oon, no but the seed of God?
 Therefore kepe ye youre spirit, and nyle thou dispise the wijf of thi yongthe; 16 whanne thou hatist hir, leue thou hir, seith the Lord God of Israel. Forsothe wickidnesse schal kyure the closyng of hym, seith the Lord of oostis; kepe ye youre spirit, and nyle ye dispise. 17 Ye maden the Lord for to trauele in youre wordis, and ye seiden, Wherynne maden we hym for to trauele? In that that ye seien, Ech man that doith yuel, is good in the siyt of the Lord, and siche plesen to hym; ether certis where is the God of doom?

3 Lo! Y sende myn aungel, and he schal make redi weie bifer my face; and anoon the lordshipere, whom ye seken, schal come to his hooli temple, and the aungel of testament, whom ye wolen. Lo! he cometh, seith the Lord of oostis; 2 and who schal mowe thenke the dai of his comyng? and who schal stonde for to se hym? For he schal be as fier wellynge togidere, and as erbe of fulleris; 3 and he schal sitte wellynge togidere and clensyng siluer, and he schal purge the sones of Leuy; and he schal purge hem as gold and as siluer, and thei schulen be offryng to the Lord sacrifices in riytfulnesse. 4 And the sacrifice of Juda and of Jerusalem schal plese to the Lord, as the daies of the world, and as olde yeeris. 5 And Y schal come to you in doom, and Y schal be a swift witnesse to mysdoeris, `ether enchaunteris of deuelis craft, and to auouteris, and forsworn men, and that falsli calengen the hire of the hirid man, and widewis, and fadirles, `ether modirles, children, and oppressen a pilgrym, `nether dredden me, seith the Lord of oostis. 6 Forsothe Y am the Lord, and am not chaungid; and ye sones of Jacob ben not wastid. 7 Forsothe fro daies of youre fadris ye wenten awei fro my lawful thingis, and kepten not; turne ye ayen to me, and Y schal ayen turne to you, seith the Lord of oostis. And ye seiden, In what thing schulen we turne ayen? 8 If a man schal turmente God, for ye `togidere fitchen me. And ye seiden, In what thing `togidere fitchen we thee? In tithis and in `firste fruitis; 9 and ye ben cursid in nedynesse, and alle ye folc disseyuen me, and `togidere fitchen. 10 Brynge ye yn ech tithe in to my berne, that mete be in myn hous, and preue ye me on this thing, seith the Lord, if Y schal not opene to you the goteris of heuene, and schal schede out to you blessyng, til to aboundaunce. 11

And Y schal blame for you that that deuourith, and he schal not distrie the fruit of youre lond; nether bareyn vyneyerd schal be in the feeld, 12 seith the Lord of oostis, and alle folkis schulen seie you blessid; for ye schulen be a desirable lond, seith the Lord of oostis. 13 Youre wordis wexiden strong on me, seith the Lord; and ye seiden, What han we spokun ayens thee? 14 And ye seiden, He is veyn, that serueth God; and what wynnynge for we kepten hise heestis, and for we wenten sorewful bifore the Lord of oostis? 15 Therfor now we seien proude men blessid; for thei ben bildid doynge vnpitee, and thei temptiden God, and ben maad saaf. 16 Thanne men dredynge God spaken, ech with his neiybore; and the Lord perseyuede, and herde, and a book of mynde is writun bifor hym to `men dredynge God, and thenkyng his name. 17 And thei schulen be to me, seith the Lord of oostis, in the dai in which Y schal make, in to a special tresour; and Y schal spare hem, as a man sparith his sone seruyng to hym. 18 And ye schulen be conuertid, and ye schulen se, what is bitwixe the iust man and vnpitouse, bitwixe `the seruyng to the Lord and `not seruyng to hym.

4 For lo! a dai schal come, brennyng as a chymenei; and alle proude men, and alle doynge vnpitee schulen be stobul; and the dai comynge schal enflaume hem, seith the Lord of oostis, which schal not leue to hem rote and buriownyng. 2 And to you dredynge my name the sunne of riytwisnesse schal rise, and heethe in pennys of hym; and ye schulen go out, and schulen skippe, as a calf of the droue. 3 And ye schulen to-trede vnpitouse men, whanne thei schulen be aische vndur the soole of youre feet, in the dai in which Y do, seith the Lord of oostis. 4 Bithenke ye on the lawe of my seruaunt Moises, which

Y comaundide to hym in Oreb, to al Israel comaundementis and domes. 5 Lo! Y schal sende to you Elie, the profete, bifore that the greet dai and orible of the Lord come. 6 And he schal conuerte the herte of fadris to sones, and the herte of sones to fadris of hem, lest perauenture Y come, and smyte the erthe with curs.

Whanne Marie, the modir of Jhesu, was spousid to Joseph, bifore thei camen togidere, she was foundun hauynge of the Hooli Goost in the wombe. 19 And Joseph, hir hosebonde, for he was riytful, and wolde not puplische hir, he wolde priueli haue left hir. 20 But while he thouyte thes thingis, lo! the aungel of the Lord apperide `in sleep to hym, and seide, Joseph, the sone of Daid, nyle thou drede to take Marie, thi wijf; for that thing that is borun in hir is of the Hooli Goost. 21 And she shal bere a sone, and thou shalt clepe his name Jhesus; for he schal make his puple saaf fro her synnes. 22 For al this thing was don, that it schulde be fulfillid, that was seid of the Lord bi a prophete, seiynge, Lo! 23 a virgyn shal haue in wombe, and she schal bere a sone, and thei schulen clepe his name Emanuel, that is to seie, God with vs. 24 And Joseph roos fro sleepe, and dide as the aungel of the Lord comaundide hym, and took Marie, his wijf; 25 and he knew her not, til she hadde borun her firste bigete sone, and clepide his name Jhesus.

2 Therfor whanne Jhesus was borun in Bethleem of Juda, in the daies of king Eroude, lo! astromyenes camen fro the eest to Jerusalem, 2 and seiden, Where is he, that is borun king of Jewis? for we han seyn his sterre in the eest, and we comen to worschipe him. 3 But king Eroude herde, and was trublid, and al Jerusalem with hym. 4 And he gaderide to gidre alle the prynces of prestis, and scribis of the puple, and enqueride of hem, where Crist shulde be borun. 5 And thei seiden to hym, In Bethleem of Juda; for so it is writun bi a profete, 6 And thou, Bethleem, the lond of Juda, art not the leest among the prynces of Juda; for of thee a duyk schal go out, that schal gouerne my puple of Israel. 7 Thanne Eroude clepide pryueli the astromyens, and lernyde bisili of hem the tyme of the sterre that apperide to hem. 8 And he sente hem in to Bethleem, and seide, Go ye, and axe ye bisili of the child, and whanne yee han foundun, telle ye it to me, that Y also come, and worschipe hym. 9 And whanne thei hadden herd the kyng, thei wenten forth. And lo! the sterre, that thei siyen in the eest, wente bfore hem, til it cam, and stood aboue, where the child was. 10 And thei siyen the sterre, and ioyeden with a ful greet ioye. 11 And thei entriden in to the hous, and founden the child with Marie, his modir; and thei felden doun, and worschipiden him. And whanne thei hadden openyd her tresouris, thei offryden to hym yftis, gold, encense, and myrre.

12 And whanne thei hadden take an aunswere in sleep, that thei schulden not turne ayen to Eroude, thei turneden ayen bi anothir weie in to her cuntrey. 13 And whanne thei weren goon, lo! the aungel of the Lord apperide to Joseph in sleep, and seide, Rise vp, and take the child and his modir, and fle in to Egipt, and be thou there, til that I seie to thee; for it is to come, that Eroude seke the child, to destrie hym. 14 And Joseph roos, and took the

and his modir, and cam in to the loond of Israel. 22 And he herde that Archilaus regnede in Judee for Eroude, his fadir, and dredde to go thidir. And he was warned in sleep, and wente in to the parties of Galilee; 23 and cam, and dwelte in a citee, that ys clepid Nazareth, that it shulde be fulfillid, that was seid bi profetis, For he shal be clepid a Nazarey.

3 In tho daies Joon Baptist cam, and prechide in the desert of Judee, 2 and seide, Do ye penaunce, for the kyngdom of heuenes shal neiy. 3 For this is he, of whom it is seid bi Ysaie, the prophete, seyinge, A vois of a crier in desert, Make ye redi the weies of the Lord; make ye riyt the pathis of hym. 4 And this Joon hadde clothing of camels heeris, and a girdil of skynne aboute hise leendis; and his mete was honysoukis, and hony of the wode. 5 Thanne Jerusalem wente out to hym, and al Judee, and al the cuntre aboute Jordan; 6 and thei weren waischun of hym in Jordan, and knowlechiden her synnes. 7 But he siy manye of the Farysees and of Saduceis comynge to his baptyem, and seide to hem, Generaciouns of eddris, who shewide to you to fle fro the wraththe that is to come? 8 Therfor do ye worthi fruyte of penaunce, 9 and nyle ye seie with ynne you, We han Abraham to fadir; for Y seie to you, that God is myyti to reise vp of these stoones the sones of Abraham. 10 And now the ax is put to the roote of the tree; therfore euery tree that makith not good fruyt, shal be kit doun, and shal be cast in to the fier. 11 Y waische you in water, in to penaunce; but he that shal come after me is strongere than Y, whos schoon Y am not worthi to bere; he shal baptise you in the Hooli Goost and fier. 12 Whos wynewing cloth is in his hoond, and he shal fulli clense his corn flore, and shal gadere his whete in to his berne; but the chaffe he shal brenne with fier that mai not be quenchild. 13 Thanne Jhesus cam fro Galilee in to Jordan to Joon, to be baptised of hym. 14 And Joon forbede him, and seide, Y owe to be baptisid of thee, and thou comest to me? 15 But Jhesus answeride, and seide to hym, Suffre nowe, for thus it fallith to vs to fulfille al riytfulnesse. 16 Thanne Joon suffride hym. And whanne Jhesus was baptisid, anoon he wente up fro the watir; and lo! heuenes weren openyd to hym, and he saie the Spirit of God comynge doun as a dowue, and comynge on hym; and loo! 17 a vois fro heuenes, seiynge, This is my louyd sone, in which Y haue plesid to me.

Thanne the feend lafte hym; and lo! aungels camen nyy, and serueden to hym. 12 But whanne Jhesus hadde herd that Joon was takun, he wente in to Galilee. 13 And he lefte the citee of Nazareth, and cam, and dwelte in the citee of Cafarnaum, beside the see, in the coostis of Zabulon and Neptalym, 14 that it shulde be fulfillid, that was seid by Ysaie, the profete, seiynge, 15 The lond of Sabulon and the lond of Neptalym, the weie of the see ouer Jordan, of Galilee of hethen men, 16 the puple that walkide in derknessis saye greet liyt, and while men satten in the cuntre of shadewe of deth, liyt aroos to hem. 17 Fro that tyme Jhesus bigan to preche, and seie, Do ye penaunce, for the kyngdom of heuenes schal come niy. 18 And Jhesus walkide bisidis the see of Galilee, and saye twei britheren, Symount, that is clepid Petre, and Andrewe, his brothir, castynge nettis in to the see; for thei weren fischeris. 19 And he seide to hem, Come ye aftir me, and Y shal make you to be maad fischeris of men. 20 And anoon thei leften the nettis, and sueden hym. 21 And he yede forth fro that place, and saie tweyne othere britheren, James of Zebede, and Joon, his brother, in a schip with Zebede, her fadir, amendynge her nettis, and he clepide hem. 22 And anoon thei leften the nettis and the fadir, and sueden hym. 23 And Jhesus yede aboute al Galilee, techynge in the synagogis of hem, and prechynge the gospel of the kyngdom, and heelynge euery languor and eche sekenesse among the puple. 24 And his fame wente in to al Sirie; and thei brouyten to hym alle that weren at male ese, and that weren take with dyuerse languores and turmentis, and hem that hadden feendis, and lunatike men, and men in palesy, and he heelide hem. 25 And ther sueden and of Judee, and of biyende Jordan.

5 And Jhesus, seyng the puple, wente vp in to an hil; and Blessid ben mylde men, for thei schulen welde the erthe. 5 Blessid ben thei that mornen, for thei schulen be coumfortid.

to vndo the lawe, but to fulfille. 18 Forsothe Y seie to you, til heuene and erthe passe, o lettir or o titel shal not passe fro the

lawe, til alle thingis be doon. 19 Therfor he that brekith oon of these leeste maundementis, and techith thus men, schal be clepid the leste in the rewme of heuenes; `but he that doith, and techith, schal be clepid greet in the kyngdom of heuenes. 20 And Y seie to you, that but your riytfulnesse be more plenteuouse than of scribis and of Farisees, ye schulen not entre into the kyngdom of heuenes. 21 Ye han herd that it was seid to elde men, Thou schalt not slee; and he that sleeth, schal be gilty to doom. 22 But Y seie to you, that ech man that is wrooth to his brothir, schal be gilty to doom; and he that seith to his brother, Fy! schal be gilty to the counseil; but he that seith, Fool, schal be gilty to the fier of helle. (Geenna g1067) 23 Therfor if thou offrist thi yifte `at the auter, and ther thou bithenkist, that thi brothir hath sum what ayens thee, 24 leeuue there thi yifte bifer the auter, and go first to be recounselid to thi brothir, and thanne thou schalt come, and schalt offre thi yifte. 25 Be thou consentynge to thin aduersarie soone, while thou art in the weie with hym, lest perauenture thin aduersarie take thee to the domesman, and the domesman take thee to the mynystre, and thou be sent in to prisoun. 26 Treuli Y seie to thee, thou shalt not go out fro thennus, til thou yelde the last ferthing. 27 Ye han herd that it was seid to elde men, Thou schalt `do no letcherie. 28 But Y seie to you, that euery man that seeth a womman for to coueite hir, hath now do letcherie bi hir in his herte. 29 That if thi riyt iye sclaundre thee, pulle hym out, and caste fro thee; for it spedith to thee, that oon of thi membris perische, than that al thi bodi go in to helle. (Geenna g1067) 30 And if thi riyt hond sclaundre thee, kitte hym awaye, and caste fro thee; for it spedith to thee that oon of thi membris perische, than that al thi bodi go in to helle.

(Geenna g1067) 31 And it hath be seyde, Who euere leeueth his wijf, yyue he to hir a libel of forsakyng. 32 But Y seie to you, that euery man that leeueth his wijf, outtakun cause of fornyacioun, makith hir to do letcherie, and he that weddith the forsakun wijf, doith auowtrye. 33 Eftsoone ye han herd, that it was seid to elde men, Thou schalt not forswere, but thou schalt yelde thin othis to the Lord. 34 But Y seie to you, that ye swere not `for any thing; nethir bi heuene, for it is the trone of God; 35 nether bi the erthe, for it is the stole of his feet; nether bi Jerusalem, for it is the citee of a greet kyng; nether thou shalt not swere bi thin heed, 36 for thou maist not make oon heere white, ne blacke; 37 but be youre word, Yhe, yhe; Nay, nay; and that that is more than these, is of yuel. 38 Ye han herd that it hath be seid, Iye for iye, and tothe for tothe. 39 But Y seie to you, that ye ayenstonde not an yuel man; but if ony smyte thee in the riyt cheke, schewe to him also the tothir; 40 and to hym that wole stryue with thee in doom, and take away thi coote, leeuue thou `to him also thi mantil; 41 and who euer constreyneth thee a thousynde pacis, go thou with hym othir tweyne. 42 Yyue thou to hym that axith of thee, and turne not away fro hym that wole borewe of thee. 43 Ye han herd that it was seid, Thou shalt loue thi neyboore, and hate thin enemye. 44 But Y seie to you, loue ye youre enemyes, do ye wel to hem that hatiden you, and preye ye for hem that pursuen, and sclaudren you; 45 that ye be the sones of your fadir that is in heuenes, that makith his sunne to rise vpon goode `and yuele men, and reyneth on iust men and vniuste. 46 For if ye louen hem that louen you, what mede schulen ye han? whether pupplicans doon not this? 47 And if ye greten youre britheren oonli, what schulen ye do more? ne doon not hethene men this?

48 Therefore be ye parfit, as youre heuenli fadir is parfit.

6 Takith hede, that ye do not youre riytwisnesse bifer men, to be seyn of hem, ellis ye schulen haue no meede at youre fadir that is in heuenes. 2 Therefore whanne thou doist almes, nyle thou trumpe tofore thee, as ypocritis doon in synagogis and stretis, that thei be worschipid of men; sotheli Y seie to you, they han resseyued her meede. 3 But whanne thou doist almes, knowe not thi left hond what thi riyt hond doith, that thin almes be in hidils, 4 and thi fadir that seeth in hiddils, schal quyte thee. 5 And whanne ye preyen, ye schulen not be as ipocritis, that louen to preye stondynge in synagogis and corneris of stretis, to be seyn of men; treuli Y seie to you, thei han resseyued her meede. 6 But whanne thou schalt preye, entre in to thi couche, and whanne the dore is schet, preye thi fadir in hidils, and thi fadir that seeth in hidils, schal yelde to thee. 7 But in preiyng nyle yee speke myche, as hethene men doon, for thei gessen that thei ben herd in her myche speche. 8 Therfor nyle ye be maad lich to hem, for your fadir woot what is nede to you, bifer that ye axen hym. 9 And thus ye schulen preye, Oure fadir that art in heuenes, halewid be thi name; 10 thi kyngdoom come to; be thi wille don `in erthe as in heuene; 11 yyue to vs this dai oure `breed ouer othir substaunce; 12 and foryyue to vs oure dettis, as we foryyuen to oure dettouris; 13 and lede vs not in to temptacioun, but delyuere vs fro yuel. Amen. 14 For if ye foryyuen to men her synnes, youre heuenli fadir schal foryyue to you youre trespassis. 15 Sotheli if ye foryyuen not to men, nether youre fadir schal foryyue to you youre synnes. 16 But whanne ye fasten, nyle ye be maad as ypocritis sorewful, for thei defacen hem silf, to seme fastyng to men; treuli Y seie to you, they han resseyued her meede. 17 But whanne thou fastist, anoynte thin heed, and waische thi face, 18 that thou be not seen fastyng to men, but to thi fadir that is in hidlis, and thi fadir that seeth in priuey, shal yelde to thee. 19 Nile ye tresoure to you tresouris in erthe, where ruste and mouyte destrieth, and where theues deluen out and stelen; 20 but gadere to you tresouris in heuene, where nether ruste ne mouyte distrieth, and where theues deluen not out, ne stelen. 21 For where thi tresoure is, there also thin herte is. 22 The lanterne of thi bodi is thin iye; if thin iye be symple, al thi bodi shal be liytful; 23 but if thin iye be weiward, al thi bodi shal be derk. If thanne the liyt that is in thee be derknessis, how grete schulen thilk derknessis be? 24 No man may serue tweyn lordis, for ethir he schal hate `the toon, and loue the tother; ethir he shal susteyne `the toon, and dispise the tothir. Ye moun not serue God and richessis. 25 Therfor I seie to you, that ye be not bisi to youre lijf, what ye schulen ete; nether to youre bodi, with what ye schulen be clothid. Whether lijf is not more than meete, and the bodie more than cloth? 26 Biholde ye the foulis of the eire, for thei sowen not, nethir repen, nethir gaderen in to bernis; and youre fadir of heuene fedith hem. Whether ye ben not more worthi than thei? 27 But who of you thenkyng mai putte to his stature o cubit? 28 And of clothing what ben ye bisye? Biholde ye the lilies of the feeld, how thei wexen. Thei trauelen not, nether spynnen; 29 and Y seie to you, Salomon in al his glorie was not keuered as oon of these. 30 And if God clothith thus the hei of the feeld, that to day is, and to morewe is cast in to an ouen, hou myche more you of litel feith? 31 Therfor nyle ye be bisi, seiyng, What schulen we ete? or, What schulen we drinke? or, With what thing schulen we be keuered? 32 For hethene men seken alle these thingis; and youre fadir woot, that ye han nede to alle these thingis. 33 Therfor seke ye first the kyngdom of God, and his riytfulnesse, and alle these thingis shulen be cast to you. 34 Therfor nyle ye be bisy in to the morew, for the morew shal be bisi to `hym silf; for it suffisith to the dai his owen malice.

7 Nile ye deme, `that ye be not demed; for in what doom ye demen, 2 ye schulen be demed, and in what mesure ye meten, it schal be meten ayen to you. 3 But what seest thou a litil mote in the iye of thi brother, and seest not a beem in thin owne iye? 4 Or hou seist thou to thi brothir, Brothir, suffre I schal do out a mote fro thin iye, and lo! a beem is in thin owne iye? 5 Ipocrite, `do thou out first the beem of thin iye, and thanne thou schalt se to do out the mote of the iye of thi brothir. 6 Nile ye yyue hooli thing to houndis, nethir caste ye youre margaritis bfore swyne, lest perauenture thei defoulen hem with her feet, and the houndis be turned, and al to-tere you. 7 Axe ye, and it schal be youun to you; seke ye, and ye schulen fynde; knocke ye, and it schal be openyd to you. 8 For ech that axith, takith; and he that sekith, fyndith; and it schal be openyd to hym, that knockith. 9 What man of you is, that if his sone axe hym breed, whethir he wole take hym a stoon? 10 Or if he axe fische, whether he wole take hym an edder? 11 Therfor if ye, whanne ye ben yuele men, kunnen yyue good yiftis to youre sonen, hou myche more youre fadir that is in heuenes schal yyue good thingis to men that axen hym? 12 Therfor alle thingis, what euere thingis ye wolen that men do to you, do ye to hem, for this is the lawe and the prophetis. 13 Entre ye bi the streyt yate; for the yate that ledith to perdition is large, and the weie is broode, and there ben many that entren bi it. 14 Hou streit is the yate, and narwy the weye, that ledith to lijf, and ther ben fewe that fynden it. 15 Be ye war of fals prophetis, that comen to you in clothingis of scheep, but withynneforth thei ben as wolues of raueyn; 16 of her fruytis ye schulen knowe hem. Whether men gaderen grapis of thornes, or figus of breris? 17 So euery good tre makith good fruytis; but an yuel tre makith yuel fruytis. 18 A good tre may not make yuel fruytis, nethir an yuel tre make good fruytis. 19 Euery tre that makith not good fruyt, schal be kyt down, and schal be cast in to the fier. 20 Therfor of her fruytis ye schulen knowe hem. 21 Not ech man that seith to me, Lord, Lord, schal entre in to the kyngdom of heuenes; but he that doith the wille of my fadir that is in heuenes, he schal entre in to the kyngdome of heuenes. 22 Many schulen seie to me in that dai, Lord, Lord, whether we han not prophesied in thi name, and han caste out feendis in thi name, and han doon many vertues in thi name? 23 And thanne Y schal knoueleche to hem, That Y knewe you neuere; departe awey fro me, ye that worchen wickidnesse. 24 Therfor ech man that herith these my wordis, and doith hem, schal be maad lijk to a wise man, that hath bildid his hous on a stoon. 25 And reyn felde down, and flodis camen, and wyndis blewen, and russchiden `in to that hous; and it felde not down, for it was foundun on a stoon. 26 And euery man that herith these my wordis, and doith hem not, is lijk to a fool, that hath bildid his hous on grauel. 27 And reyn cam down, and floodis camen, and wyndis blewen, and thei hurliden ayen that hous; and it felde down, and the fallyng down therof was greet. 28 And it was doon, whanne Jhesus hadde endid these wordis, the puple wondride on his techyng; 29 for he tauyte hem, as he that hadde power, and not as the scribis `of hem, and the Farisees.

8 But whanne Jhesus was come doun fro the hil, mych puple suede hym. 2 And loo! a leprouse man cam, and worschipide hym, and seide, Lord, if thou wolt, thou maist make me clene. 3 And Jhesus helde forth the hoond, and touchide hym, and seide, Y wole, be thou maad cleene. And anon the lepre of him was clensid. 4 And Jhesus seide to hym, Se, seie thou to no man; but go, shewe thee to the prestis, and offre the yift that Moyses comaundide, in witnessyng to hem. 5 And whanne he hadde entrid in to Cafarnaum, `the centurien neiyede to him, and preiede him, 6 and seide, Lord, my childe lijth in the hous sijk on the palesie, and is yuel turmentid. 7 And Jhesus seide to him, Y schal come, and schal heele him. 8 And the centurien answeride, and seide to hym, Lord, Y am not worthi, that thou entre vndur my roof; but oonli seie thou bi word, and my childe shal be heelid. 9 For whi Y am a man ordeyned vndur power, and haue knyytis vndir me; and Y seie to this, Go, and he goith; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my seruaunt, Do this, and he doith it. 10 And Jhesus herde these thingis, and wondride, and seide to men `that sieden him, Treuli Y seie to you, Y foond not so greet feith in Israel. 11 And Y seie to you, that many schulen come fro the eest and the west, and schulen reste with Abraham and Ysaac and Jacob in the kyngdom of heuenes; 12 but the sones of the rewme schulen be cast out in to vtmer derknessis; there schal be wepyng, and grynting of teeth. 13 And Jhesus seide to the centurioun, Go, and as thou hast bileuyd, be it doon to thee. And the child was heelid fro that hour. 14 And whanne Jhesus was comun in to the hous of

Symount Petre, he say his wyues modir liggyng, and shakun with feueris. 15 And he touchide hir hoond, and the feuer lefte hir; and she roos, and seruede hem. 16 And whanne it was euen, thei brouyten to hym manye that hadden deuelis, and he castide out spiritis bi word, and heelide alle that weren yuel at ese; 17 that it were fulfillid, that was seid by Ysaie, the profete, seiynge, He took oure infirmytees, and bar oure siknessis. 18 And Jhesus say myche puple aboute him, and bade hise disciplis go ouer the watir. 19 And a scribe neiyede, and seide to hym, Maistir, Y shal sue thee, whidir euer thou schalt go. 20 And Jhesus seide to hym, Foxis han dennes, and briddis of heuene han nestis, but mannus sone hath not where `he schal reste his heed. 21 Anothir of his disciplis seide to him, Lord, suffre me to go first, and birie my fader. 22 But Jhesus seide to hym, Sue thou me, and lete deed men birie her deede men. 23 And whanne he was goon vp in to a litil schip, his disciplis sieden hym. 24 And loo! a greet stiring was maad in the see, so that the schip was hilid with wawes; but he slepte. 25 And hise disciplis camen to hym, and reysiden hym, and seiden, Lord, saue vs; we perischen.
26 And Jhesus seide to hem, What ben ye of litil feith agaste?
 Thanne he roos, and comaundide to the wyndis and the see, and a greet pesibilnesse was maad. 27 And men wondriden, and seiden, What maner man is he this, for the wyndis and the see obeischen to him? 28 And whanne Jhesus was comun ouer the watir in to the cuntre of men of Gerasa, twey men metten hym, that hadden deuelis, and camen out of graues, ful woode, so that noo man myyte go bi that weie. 29 And lo! thei crieden, and seiden, What to vs and to thee, Jhesu, the sone of God?
 `art thou comun hidir bfore the tyme to turmente vs? 30 And not fer fro hem was a flocke of many swyne lesewyng. 31 And the deuelis preyeden hym, and seiden, If thou castist out vs fro hennes, sende vs in to the droue of swyne. 32 And he seide to hem, Go ye. And thei yeden out, and wenten in to the swyne; and loo! in a greet bire al the droue wente heedlyng in to the see, and thei weren deed in the watris. 33 And the hirdis fledden away, and camen in to the citee, and telden alle these thingis, and of hem that hadden the feendis. 34 And lo! al the citee wente out ayens Jhesu; and whanne thei hadden seyn hym, thei preieden, that he wolde passe fro her coostis.

9 And Jhesus wente vp in to a boot, and passide ouer the watir, and cam in to his citee. 2 And lo! thei brouyten to hym a man sike in palesie, liggyng in a bed. And Jhesus saw the feith of hem, and seide to the man sike in palesye, Sone, haue thou trist; thi synnes ben foryouun to thee. 3 And lo! summe of the scribis seiden withynne hem silf, This blasfemeth. 4 And whanne Jhesus hadde seyn her thouytis, he seide, Wherto thenken ye yuele thingis in youre hertis? 5 What is liytere to seye, Thi synnes ben foryouun to thee, ethir `to seie, Rise thou, and walke? 6 But that ye wite that mannus sone hath power to foryyue synnes in erthe, thanne he seide to the sijk man in palesie, Rise vp; take thi bed, and go in to thin hous. 7 And he roos, and wente in to his hous. 8 And the puple seyng dredde, and glorifiede God, that yaf suche power to men. 9 And whanne Jhesus passide fro thennus, he say a man, Matheu bi name, sittynge in a tolbothe. And he seide to hym, Sue thou me. 10 And he roos, and folewide hym. And it was don, the while he sat `at the mete in the hous, lo! many pupplicans and synful men camen, and saten `at the mete with Jhesu and hise disciplis. 11

And Farisees sien, and seiden to hise disciplis, Whi etith youre maister with pupplicans and synful men? 12 And Jhesus herde, and seide, A leche is not nedeful to men that faren wel, but to men that ben yuel at ese. 13 But go ye, and lerne what it is, Y wole merci, and not sacrifice; for I cam, not to clepe riytful men, but synful men. 14 Thanne the disciplis of Joon camen to hym, and seiden, Whi we and Farisees fasten ofte, but thi disciplis fasten not? 15 And Jhesus seide to hem, Whether the sones of the spouse moun morne, as long as the spouse is with hem? But daies schulen come, whanne the spouse schal be takun a wei fro hem, and thanne thei schulen faste. 16 And no man putteth a clout of buystous clothe in to an elde clothing; for it doith away the fulnesse of the cloth, and a wers breking is maad. 17 Nethir men putten newe wyne in to elde botelis, ellis the botels ben to-broke, and distried, and the wyn sched out. But men putten newe wyne in to newe botels, and bothe ben kept. 18 Whiles that Jhesus spak thes thingis to hem, lo! a prince cam, and worschipide hym, and seide, Lord, my douyter is now deed; but come thou, and putte thin hond on hir, and she schal lyue. 19 And Jhesus roos, and `hise disciplis, and sieden hym. 20 And lo! a womman, that hadde the blodi flux twelue yere, neiyede bihynde, and touchide the hem of his cloth. 21 For sche seide with ynne hir self, Yif Y touche oonli the cloth of hym, Y schal be saaf. 22 And Jhesus turnede, and say hir, and seide, Douytir, haue thou trist; thi feith hath maad thee saaf. And the womman was hool fro that our. 23 And whanne Jhesus cam in to the hous of the prince, and say mynstrallis, and the puple makynge noise, 24 he seide, Go ye a wei, for the damysel is not deed, but slepith. And thei scorniden hym. 25 And whanne the folc was put out, he wente in, and helde hir hond; and the damysel roos.

26 And this fame wente out in to al that loond. 27 And whanne Jhesus passide fro thennus, twei blynde men crynge sueden hym, and seiden, Thou sone of Daud, haue merci on vs. 28 And whanne he cam in to the hous, the blynde men camen to hym; and Jhesus seide to hem, What wolen ye, that I do to you? And thei seiden, Lord, that oure iyen be opened. And Jhesus seide, Bileuen ye, that Y mai do this thing to you? Thei seien to him, Yhe, Lord. 29 Thanne he touchide her iyen, and seide, Aftir youre feith be it doon to you. 30 And the iyen of hem were opened. And Jhesus thretenede hem, and seide, Se ye, that no man wite. 31 But thei yeden out, and diffameden hym thorou al that lond. 32 And whanne thei weren gon out, loo! thei brouyten to hym a doumbe man, hauynge a deuel. 33 And whanne the deuel was cast out, the doumb man spak. And the puple wondride, and seide, It hath not be say thus in Israel. 34 But the Farisees seiden, In the prince of deuelis he castith out deuelis. 35 And Jhesus wente `aboute alle the `citees and castels, techinge in the synagogis of hem, and prechyng the gospel of the kyngdom, and helynge euery langour and euery sijknesse. 36 And he siy the puple, and hadde reuthe on hem; for thei weren trauelid, and liggyng as scheep not hauynge a scheepherde. 37 Thanne he seide to hise disciplis, Sotheli there is myche ripe corn, but fewe werk men. 38 Therfor preye ye the lord of the ripe corn, that he sende werke men in to his ripe corn.

10 And whanne his twelue disciplis weren clepid togidere, he yaf to hem powere of vnclene spiritis, to caste hem out of men, and to heele eueri langour, and sijknesse. 2 And these ben the names of the twelue apostlis; the firste, Symount, that is clepid Petre, and Andrew, his brothir; James of Zebede, and Joon, his brothir; Filip, and Bartholomeu; 3 Thomas, and Matheu, puppican; and James Alfey, and Tadee; 4 Symount Chananee, and Judas Scarioth, that bitrayede Crist. 5 Jhesus sente these twelue, and comaundide hem, and seide, Go ye not `in to the weie of hethene men, and entre ye not in to the citees of Samaritans; 6 but rather go ye to the scheep of the hous of Israel, that han perischid. 7 And go ye, and preche ye, and seie, that the kyngdam of heuenes shal neiy; 8 heele ye sike men, reise ye deede men, clense ye mesels, caste ye out deuelis; freli ye han takun, freli yyue ye. 9 Nyle ye welde gold, nether siluer, ne money in youre girdlis, not a scrippe in the weie, 10 nether twei cootis, nethir shoon, nether a yerde; for a werkman is worthi his mete. 11 In to what euere citee or castel ye schulen entre, axe ye who therynne is worthi, and there dwelle ye, til ye go out. 12 And whanne ye goon in to an hous, `grete ye it, and seyn, Pees to this hous. 13 And if thilk hous be worthi, youre pees schal come on it; but if that hous be not worthi, youre pees schal turne ayen to you. 14 And who euere resseyueth not you, nethir herith youre wordis, go ye fro that hous or citee, and spreng of the dust of youre feet. 15 Treuly Y seie to you, it shal be more suffrable to the loond of men of Sodom and of Gommor in the dai of iugement, than to thilke citee. 16 Lo!

 Y sende you as scheep in the myddil of wolues; therfor be ye sliy as serpentis, and symple as dowues. 17 But be ye war of men, for thei schulen take you in counseilis, and thei schulen bete you in her synagogis; 18 and to meyris, or presidentis, and to kyngis, ye schulen be lad for me, in witnessyng to hem, and to the hethen men. 19 But whanne thei take you, nyle ye thenke, hou or what thing ye schulen speke, for it shal be youun `to you in that our, what ye schulen speke; 20 for it ben not ye that speken, but the spirit of youre fadir, that spekith in you. 21 `And the brother shal take the brother in to deeth, and the fader the sone, and sones schulen rise ayens fadir and modir, and schulen turmente hem bi deeth. 22 And ye schulen be in hate to alle men for my name; but he that shall dwelle stille in to the ende, shal be saaf. 23 And whanne thei pursuen you in this citee, fle ye in to anothir. Treuli Y seie to you, ye schulen not ende the citees of Israel, to for that mannus sone come. 24 The disciple is not aboute the maistir, ne the seruaunt aboute hys lord; 25 it is ynowy to the disciple, that he be as his maistir, and to the seruaunt as his lord. If thei han clepid the hosebonde man Belsabub, hou myche more his houshold meyne? 26 Therfor drede ye not hem; for no thing is hid, that schal not be shewid; and no thing is priuey, that schal not be wist. 27 That thing that Y seie to you in derknessis, seie ye in the liyt; and preche ye on housis, that thing that ye heeren in the ere. 28 And nyle ye drede hem that sleen the bodi; for thei moun not sle the soule; but rather drede ye hym, that mai lese bothe soule and bodi in to helle. (Geenna g1067) 29 Whether twei sparewis ben not seeld for an halpeny? and oon of hem shal not falle on the erthe with outen youre fadir. 30 `And alle the heeris of youre heed ben noumbrid. 31 Therfor nyle ye drede; ye ben betere than many sparewis. 32 Therfor euery man that schal knoueleche me bifore men, Y schal knoueleche hym bifor my fadir that is in heuenes.

 33 But he that shal denye me bifor men, and I shal denye him bifor my fadir that is in heuenes. 34 Nyle ye deme, that Y cam to sende pees in to erthe; Y cam not to sende pees, but swerd. 35

For Y cam to departe a man ayens his fadir, and the douytir ayens hir modir, and the sones wijf ayens the housbondis modir; 36 and the enemyes of a man ben `thei, that ben homeli with him. 37 He that loueth fadir or modir more than me, is not worthi to me. And he that loueth sone or douyter ouer me, is not worthi to me. 38 And he that takith not his croos, and sueth me, is not worthi to me. 39 He that fyndith his lijf, shal lose it; and he that lesith his lijf for me, shal fynde it. 40 He that resseyueth you, resseyueth me; and he that resseyueth me, resseyueth hym that sente me. 41 He that resseyueth a prophete in the name of a prophete, shal take the mede of a prophete. And he that resseyueth a iust man in the name of a iust man, schal take the mede of a iust man. 42 And who euer yyueth drynke to oon of these leeste a cuppe of coolde watir oonli in the name of a disciple, treuli Y seie to you, he shal not leese his mede.

11 And it was doon, whanne Jhesus hadde endid, he comaundide to hise twelue disciplis, and passide fro thennus to teche and preche in the citees of hem. 2 But whanne Joon in boondis hadde herd the werkis of Crist, he sente tweyne of hise disciplis, 3 and seide to him, `Art thou he that schal come, or we abiden another? 4 And Jhesus answeride, and seide `to hem, Go ye, and telle ayen to Joon tho thingis that ye han herd and seyn. 5 Blynde men seen, crokid men goon, meselis ben maad clene, deefe men heren, deed men rysen ayen, pore men ben takun to `prechyng of the gospel. 6 And he is blessid, that shal not be sclaudrid in me. 7 And whanne thei weren goon awei, Jhesus bigan to seie of Joon to the puple, What thing wenten ye out in to desert to se? a reed wawed with the wynd? 8 Or what thing wenten ye out to see? a man clothid with softe clothis? Lo!

 9 But what thing wenten ye out to se? a prophete? Yhe, Y seie to you, and more than a prophete. 10 For this is he, of whom it is writun, Lo! Y sende myn aungel bifer thi face, that shal make redi thi weye bifer thee. 11 Treuli Y seie to you, ther roos noon more than Joon Baptist among the children of wymmen; but he that is lesse in the kyngdom of heuenes, is more than he.
 12 And fro the daies of Joon Baptist til now the kyngdom of heuenes suffrith violence, and violent men rauyschen it. 13 For alle prophetis and the lawe `til to Joon prophecieden; and if ye wolen resseyue, 14 he is Elie that is to come. 15 He that hath eris of heryng, here he. 16 But to whom schal Y gesse this generacioun lijk? It is lijk to children sittynge in chepyng, that crien to her peeris, 17 and seien, We han songun to you, and ye han not daunsid; we han morned to you, and ye han not weild.
 18 For Joon cam nether etynge ne drynkynge, and thei seien, He hath a deucl. 19 The sone of man cam etynge and drynkynge, and thei seien, Lo! a man a glotoun, and a drinkere of wijne, and a freend of puppicans and of synful men. And wisdom is iustified of her sones. 20 Thanne Jhesus bigan to seye reproof to citees, in whiche ful manye vertues of him weren doon, for thei diden not penaunce. 21 Wo to thee! Corosaym, woo to thee!
 Bethsaida; for if the vertues that ben doon in you hadden be doon in Tyre and Sidon, sumtyme thei hadden don penaunce in heyre and aische. 22 Netheles Y seie to you, it schal be lesse peyne to Tyre and Sidon in the dai of doom, than to you. 23 And thou, Cafarnaum, whethir thou schalt be arerid vp in to heuene?
 Thou shalt go down in to helle. For if the vertues that ben don in thee, hadden be don in Sodom, perauenture thei schulden haue dwelldid `in to this dai. (Hadēs g86) 24 Netheles Y seie to you, that to the lond of Sodom it schal be `lesse peyne in the dai of doom, than to thee. 25 In thilke tyme Jhesus answeride, and seide, Y knowleche to thee, fadir, lord of heuene and of erthe, for thou hast hid these thingis fro wijse men, and redi, and hast schewid hem to litle children; 26 so, fadir, for so it was plesynge tofore thee. 27 Alle thingis ben youune to me of my fadir; and no man knewe the sone, but the fadir, nethir ony man knewe the fadir, but the sone, and to whom the sone wolde schewe. 28 Alle ye that traueilen, and ben chargid, come to me, and Y schal fulfille you. 29 Take ye my yok on you, and lerne ye of me, for Y am mylde and meke in herte; and ye schulen fynde reste to youre soulis. 30 `For my yok is softe, and my charge liyt.

12 In that tyme Jhesus wente bi cornes in the sabot day; and hise disciplis hungriden, and bigunnen to plucke the eris of corn, and to ete. 2 And Fariseis, seyng, seiden to hym, Lo! thi disciplis don that thing that is not leueful to hem to do in sabatis. 3 And he seide to hem, Whether ye han not red, what Daudid dide, whanne he hungride, and thei that weren with hym? 4 hou he entride in to the hous of God, and eet looues of proposicioun, whiche looues it was not leueful to hym to ete, nether to hem that weren with hym, but to prestis aloone? 5 Or whether ye han not red in the lawe, that in sabotis prestis in the temple defoulen the sabotis, and thei ben with oute blame? 6 And Y seie to you, that here is a gretter than the temple. 7 And if ye wisten, what it is, Y wole merci, and not sacrifice, ye schulden neuer haue condempned innocentis. 8 For mannus Sone is lord, yhe, of the sabat. 9 And whanne he passide fro thennus, he cam in to the synagoge of hem. 10 And lo! a man that hadde a drye hoond.

And thei axiden hym, and seiden, Whether it be leueful to hele in the sabot? that thei schulden acuse hym. 11 And he seide to hem, What man of you schal be, that hath o scheep, and if it falle in to a dicke in the sabotis, whether he shal not holde, and lifte it vp? 12 How myche more is a man better than a scheep?
 Therfor it is leueful to do good in the sabatis. 13 Thanne he seide to the man, Stretche forth thin hoond. And he strauyte forth; and it was restorid to heelthe as the tothir. 14 And the Farisees wenten out, and maden a counsel ayens hym, hou thei schulden distrie hym. 15 And Jhesus knewe it, and wente awei fro thennus; and many sueden hym, and he helide hem alle. 16 And he comaundide to hem, that thei schulden not make hym knowun; 17 that that thing were fulfillid, that was seid by Isaie, the prophete, seiynge, Lo! 18 my child, whom Y haue chosun, my derling, in whom it hath wel plesid to my soule; Y shal put my spirit on him, and he shal telle dom to hethen men. 19 He shal not stryue, ne crye, nethir ony man shal here his voice in stretis. 20 A brisid rehed he shal not breke, and he schal not quenche smokyng flax, til he caste out doom to victorie; 21 and hethene men schulen hope in his name. 22 Thanne a man blynde and doumbe, that hadde a feend, was brouyt to hym; and he helide hym, so that he spak, and say. 23 And al the puple wondride, and seide, Whether this be the sone of Daud? 24 But the Farisees herden, and seiden, He this casteth not out feendis, but in Belsabub, prince of feendis. 25 And Jhesus, witynge her thouytis, seide to hem, Eche kingdom departid ayens it silf, schal be desolatid, and eche cite, or hous, departid ayens it self, schal not stonde. 26 And if Satanas castith out Satanas, he is departid ayens him silf; therfor hou schal his kingdom stonde? 27 And if

Y in Belsabub caste out deuelis, in `whom youre sonnes casten out? Therfor thei schulen be youre domes men. 28 But if Y in the Spirit of God caste out feendis, thanne the kyngdom of God is comen in to you. 29 Ethir hou may ony man entre in to the hous of a stronge man, and take away hise vesselis, but `he first bynde the stronge man, and thanne he schal spuyle his hous? 30 He that is not with me, is ayens me; and he that gaderith not togidere with me, scaterith abroad. 31 Therfor I seie to you, al synne and blasfemye shal be foryouun to men, but `the spirit of blasfemye shal not be foryouun. 32 And who euere seith a word ayens mannis sone, it shal be foryouun to him; but who that seieth a word ayens the Hooli Goost, it shal not be foryouun to hym, nether in this world, ne in `the tothir. (aiōn g165) 33 Ethir make ye the tree good, and his fruyt good; ether make ye the tree yuel and his fruyt yuel; for a tree is knowun of the fruyt. 34 Ye generacioun of eddris, hou moun ye speke goode thingis, whanne ye ben yuele? For the mouth spekith of plente of the herte. 35 A good man bryngith forth good thingis of good tresoure, and an yuel man bringith forth yuel thingis of yuel tresoure. 36 And Y seie to you, that of euery idel word, that men speken, thei schulen yelde resoun therof in the dai of doom; 37 for of thi wordis thou schalt be iustified, and of thi wordis thou shalt be dampned. 38 Thanne summe of the scribis and Farisees answeriden to hym, and seiden, Mayster, we wolen se a tokne of thee. 39 Which answeride, and seide to hem, An yuel kynrede and a spouse brekere sekith a tokene, and a tokene shal not be youun to it, but the tokene of Jonas, the prophete. 40 For as Jonas was in the wombe of a whal thre daies and thre nytytis, so mannis sone shal be in the herte of the erthe thre daies and thre nytytis. 41 Men of Nynyue schulen rise in doom with this generacioun, and schulen condempne it; for thei diden penaunce in the prechyng of Jonas, and lo! here a gretter than Jonas. 42 The queene of the south shal rise in doom with this generacioun, and schal condempne it; for she cam fro the eendis of the erthe to here the wisdom of Salomon, and lo! here a gretter than Salomon. 43 Whanne an vnclene spirit goith out fro a man, he goith bi drie places, `and sekith rest, and fyndith not. 44 Thanne he seith, Y shal turne ayen in to myn hous, fro whannys Y wente out. And he cometh, and fyndith it voide, and clensid with besyms, and maad faire. 45 Thanne he goith, and takith with him seuene othere spiritis worse than hym silf; and thei entren, and dwellen there. And the laste thingis of that man ben maad worse than the formere. So it shal be to this worste generacioun. 46 Yit whil he spak to the puple, lo! his modir and his bretheren stoden withouteforth, sekyng to speke to hym. 47 And a man seide to hym, Lo! thi modir and thi britheren stonden withouteforth, sekyng thee. 48 He answeride to the man, that spak to hym, and seide, Who is my modir? and who ben my britheren? 49 And he helde forth his hoond in to hise disciplis, and seide, Lo! my modir and my bretheren; 50 for who euer doith the wille of my fadir that is in heuenes, he is my brothir, and sistir, and modir.

13 In that dai Jhesus yede out of the hous, and sat bisidis the see. 2 And myche puple was gaderid to hym, so that he wente up in to a boot, and sat; and al the puple stood on the brenke. 3 And he spac to hem many thingis in parablis, and seide, Lo! he that sowith, yede out to sowe his seed. 4 And while he sowith, summe seedis felden bisidis the weie, and briddis of the eir camen, and eeten hem. 5 But othere seedis felden in to stony places, where thei hadden not myche erthe; and anoon thei sprongen vp, for thei hadden not depnesse of erthe. 6 But whanne the sonne was risun, thei swaliden, and for thei hadden not roote, thei drieden vp. 7 And other seedis felden among thornes; and thornes woxen vp, and strangeleden hem. 8 But othere seedis felden in to good lond, and yauen fruyt; summe an hundrid foold, an othir sixti foold, an othir thritti foold. 9 He that hath eris of heryng, here he. 10 And the disciplis camen nyy, and seiden to him, Whi spekist thou in parablis to hem? 11 And he answeride, and seide to hem, `For to you it is youun to knowe the priuytees of the kyngdom of heuenes; but it is not youun to hem. 12 For it shal be youun to hym that hath, and he shal haue plente; but if a man hath not, also that thing that he hath shal be takun awei fro hym. 13 Therfor Y speke to hem in parablis, for thei seyng seen not, and thei herynge heren not, nether vndurston den; 14 that the prophesie of Ysaie `seyng be fulfillid `in hem, With heryng ye schulen here, and ye shulen not vndurstonde; and ye seyng schulen se, and ye shulen not se; 15 for the herte of this puple is greetli fattid, and thei herden heuyli with eeris, and thei han closed her iyen, lest sumtime thei seen with iyen, and with eeris heeren, and vndirstonden in herte, and thei be conuertid, and Y heele hem. 16 But youre iyen that seen ben blesside, and youre eeris that heren. 17 Forsothe Y seie to you, that manye profetis and iust men coueitiden to se tho thingis that ye seen, and thei sayn not, and to heere tho thingis that ye heren, and thei herden not. 18 Therfor here ye the parable of the sowere. 19 Ech that herith the word of the rewme, and vndirstondith not, the yuel spirit cometh, and rauyschiith that that is sowun in his herte; this it is, that is sowun bisidis the weie.

20 But this that is sowun on the stony loond, this it is, that herith the word of God, and anoon with ioye takith it. 21 And he hath not roote in hym silf, but is temporal. For whanne tribulacioun and persecucioun is maad for the word, anoon he is sclaudrid.

22 But he that is sowun in thornes, is this that heerith the word, and the bisynesse of this world, and the fallace of ritchessis strangulith the word, and it is maad with outhen fruyt. (aiōn g165)

23 But he that is sowun in to good loond, is this that herith the word, and vnderstondeth, and bryngith forth fruyt. And summe makith an hundrid fold, treuli anothir sixti fold, and another thritti fold. 24 Anothir parable Jhesus puttide forth to hem, and seide, The kyngdom of heuenes is maad lijk to a man, that sewe good seed in his feld. 25 And whanne men slepten, his enemy cam, and sewe aboue taris in the myddil of whete, and wente awei.

26 But whanne the erbe was growed, and made fruyt, thanne the taris apperiden. 27 And the seruauntis of the hosebonde man camen, and seiden to hym, Lord, whether hast thou not sowun good seed in thi feeld? where of thanne hath it taris? 28 And he seide to hem, An enemy hath do this thing. And the seruauntis seiden to him, `Wolt thou that we goon, and gaderen hem?

29 And he seide, Nay, lest perauenture ye in gaderynge taris drawn vp with hem the whete bi the roote. 30 Suffre ye hem bothe to wexe in to repyng tyme; and in the tyme of ripe corne Y shal seie to the reperis, First gadere ye to gidere the taris, and bynde hem to gidere in knytchis to be brent, but gadere ye whete in to my berne. 31 Another parable Jhesus puttide forth to hem, and seide, The kyngdom of heuenes is lijk to a corn of seneuey, which a man took, and sewe in his feeld. 32 Which is the leeste of alle seedis, but whanne it hath woxen, it is the moste of alle wortis, and is maad a tre; so that briddis of the eir comen, and dwellen in the bowis therof. 33 Another parable Jhesus spac to hem, The kyngdom of heuenes is lijk to sour douy, which a womman took, and hidde in thre mesuris of mele, til it were alle sowrid. 34 Jhesus spac alle thes thingis in parablis to the puple, and he spac not to hem with out parablis, that it schulde be fulfillid, 35 that is seid bi the prophete, seiynge, Y shal opene my mouth in parablis; Y shal telle out hid thingis fro the makying of the world. 36 Thanne he lefte the puple, and cam in to an hous; and hise disciplis camen to him, and seiden, Expowne to vs the parable of taris of the feeld. 37 Which answeride, and seide, He that sowith good seed is mannus sone; 38 the feeld is the world; but the good seed, these ben sones of the kyngdom, but taris, these ben yuele children; 39 the enemye that sowith hem is the feend; and the ripe corn is the endyng of the world, the reperis ben aungels. (aiōn g165) 40 Therfor as taris ben gaderid togidere, and ben brent in fier, so it shal be in the endyng of the world. (aiōn g165) 41 Mannus sone shal sende hise aungels, and thei schulen gadere fro his rewme alle sclaudris, and hem that doon wickidnesse; 42 and thei schulen sende hem in to the chymney of fier, there shal be weping and betyng to gidere of teeth. 43 Thanne iuste men schulen schyne as the sunne, in the rewme of her fadir. He that hath eeris of heryng, here he. 44 The kyngdom of heuenes is lijk to tresour hid in a feld, which a man that fyndith, hidith; and for ioye of it he goith, and sillith alle thingis that he hath, and bieth thilk feeld. 45 Eftsoone the kyngdom of heuenes is lijk to a marchaunt, that sechith good margaritis; 46 but whanne he hath foundun o precious margarite, he wente, and selde alle thingis that he hadde, and bouyte it.

47 Eft the kyngdom of heuenes is lijk to a nette cast into the see, and that gaderith to gidere of al kynde of fischis; 48 which whanne it was ful, thei drowen vp, and seten bi the brenke, and chesen the goode in to her vessels, but the yuel thei kesten out.

49 So it schal be in the endyng of the world. Aungels schulen go out, and schulen departe yuel men fro the myddil of iuste men. (aiōn g165) 50 And thei shulen sende hem in to the chymnei of fier; ther shal be weping and gryntyng of teeth. 51 Han ye vndirstonde alle these thingis? Thei seien to hym, Yhe. 52 He seith to hem, Therfor euery wise man of lawe in the kyngdom of heuenes, is lijk to an hosebonde man, that bryngith forth of his tresoure newe thingis and elde. 53 And it was doon, whanne Jhesus hadde endid these parablis, he passide fro thennus. 54 And he cam in to his cuntrei, and tauyte hem in her synagogis, so that thei wondriden, and seiden, Fro whennus this wisdom and vertues camen to this? 55 Whether `is not this the sone of a carpentere? Whether his modir be not seid Marie? and hise britheren, James, and Joseph, and Symount, and Judas? and hise sistris, 56 whether thei alle ben not among us? Fro whennus thanne `alle thes thingis camen to this? 57 And so thei weren sclaudrid in hym. But Jhesus seide to hem, A profete is not with oute worschip, but in his owen cuntre, and in his owen hous. 58 And he dide not there manye vertues, for the vnbeleue of hem.

14 In that tyme Eroude tetrarke, prynce of the fourthe part, herde the fame of Jhesu; 2 and seide to hise children, This is Joon Baptist, he is rysun fro deeth, and therfor vertues worchen in hym. 3 For Heroude hadde holde Joon, and bounde hym, and puttide hym `in to prisoun for Herodias, the wijf of his brothir. 4

For Joon seide to him, It is not leueful to thee to haue hir. 5 And he willynge to sle hym, dredde the puple; for thei hadden hym as a prophete. 6 But in the dai of Heroudis birthe, the douytir of Herodias daunside in the myddil, and pleside Heroude. 7 Wherfor with an ooth he bihiyte to yyue to hir, what euere thing she hadde axid of hym. 8 And she bifer warned of hir modir, seide, Yif thou to me here the heed of Joon Baptist in a disch. 9 And the kyng was sorewful, but for the ooth, and for hem that saten to gidere at the mete, he comaundide to be youun. 10 And he sente, and bihedide Joon in the prisoun. 11 And his heed was brouyt in a dische, and it was youun to the damysel, and she bar it to hir modir. 12 And hise disciplis camen, and token his bodi, and birieden it; and thei camen, and tolden to Jhesu. 13 And whanne Jhesus hadde herd this thing, he wente fro thennus in a boot, in to desert place bisides. And whanne the puple hadde herd, thei folewiden hym on her feet fro citees. 14 And Jhesus yede out, and sai a greet puple, and hadde reuthe on hem, and heelide the sike men of hem. 15 But whanne the euentid was com, hise disciplis camen to him, and seiden, The place is desert, and the tyme is now passid; lat the puple go in to townes, to bye hem mete. 16 Jhesus seide to hem, Thei han not nede to go; yyue ye hem sumwhat to ete. 17 Thei answeriden, We han not heere, but fyue looues and twei fischis.
 18 And he seide to hem, Brynge ye hem hidur to me. 19 And whanne he hadde comaundid the puple to sitte to meete on the heye, he took fyue looues and twei fischis, and he bihelde in to heuene, and blesside, and brak, and yaf to hise disciplis; and the disciplis yauen to the puple. 20 And alle eten, and weren fulfillid.
 And thei taken the relifs of brokun gobetis, twelue cofynes ful.

21 And the noumbre of men that eten was fyue thousynde of men, outakun wymmen and lytle children. 22 And anoon Jhesus compellide the disciplis to go vp in to a boot, and go bifer hym ouer the see, while he lefte the puple. 23 And whanne the puple was left, he stiede aloone in to an hil for to preie. But whanne the euenyng was come, he was there aloone. 24 And the boot in the myddel of the see was schoggid with wawis, for the wynd was contrarie to hem. 25 But in the fourthe wakyng of the niyt, he cam to hem walkyng aboue the see. 26 And thei, seyng hym walking on the see, weren disturblid, and seiden, That it is a fantum; and for drede thei crieden. 27 And anoon Jhesus spac to hem, and seide, Haue ye trust, Y am; nyle ye drede. 28 And Petre answeride, and seide, Lord, if thou art, comaunde me to come to thee on the watris. 29 And he seide, Come thou. And Petre yede down fro the boot, and walkide on the watris to come to Jhesu. 30 But he siy the wynd strong, and was aferde; and whanne he bigan to drenche, he criede, and seide, Lord, make me saaf. 31 And anoon Jhesus helde forth his hoond, and took Petre, and seide to hym, Thou of litil feith, whi hast thou doutid? 32 And whanne he hadde stied in to the boot, the wynd ceessid. 33 And thei, that weren in the boot, camen, and worschipiden hym, and seiden, Verili, thou art Goddis sone. 34 And whanne thei hadden passid ouer the see, thei camen in to the loond of Genesar. 35 And whanne men of that place hadden knowe hym, thei senten in to al that cuntre; and thei brouyten to hym alle that hadden siknesse. 36 And thei preieden hym, that thei schulden touche the hemme of his clothing; and who euere touchiden weren maad saaf.

15 Thanne the scribis and the Farisees camen to hym fro Jerusalem, and seiden, 2 Whi breken thi disciplis the tradiciouns of eldere men? for thei waisschen not her hondis, whanne thei eten breed. 3 He answeride, and seide to hem, Whi breken ye the maundement of God for youre tradicioun? 4 For God seide, Honoure thi fadir and thi modir, and he that cursith fadir or modir, die bi deeth. 5 But ye seien, Who euer seith to fadir or modir, What euere yifte is of me, it schal profite to thee; 6 and he hath not worschipid his fadir or his modir; and ye han maad the maundement of God voide for youre tradicioun. 7 Ypocritis, Isaie, the prophete, prophesiede wel of you, 8 and seide, This puple honourith me with lippis, but her herte is fer fro me; 9 and thei worschipen me `with outen cause, techyng the doctrines and maundementis of men. 10 And whanne the puple weren clepid to gidere to hym, he seide to hem, Here ye, and `vndurstonde ye. 11 That thing that entrith in to the mouth, defoulith not a man; but that thing that cometh out of the mouth, defoulith a man. 12 Thanne hise disciplis camen, and seiden to hym, Thou knowist, that, if this word be herd, the Farisees ben sclaudrid? 13 And he answeride, and seide, Eueri plauntyng, that my fadir of heuene hath not plauntid, shal be drawun vp by the roote. 14 Suffre ye hem; thei ben blynde, and leederis of blynde men. And if a blynd man lede a blynd man, bothe fallen doun in to the diche. 15 Petre answeride, and seide to hym, Expowne to vs this parable. 16 And he seide, Yit `ye ben also with oute vndurstandyng? 17 Vndurstonde ye not, that al thing that entrith in to the mouth, goith in to the wombe, and is sent out in to the goyng awai? 18 But tho thingis that comen forth fro the mouth, goon out of the herte, and tho thingis defoulen a man. 19 For of the herte goon out yuele thouytis, mansleyngis, auowtries, fornycaciouns, theftis, fals witnessyngis, blasfemyes. 20 Thes thingis it ben that defoulen a man; but to ete with hondis not waischun, defoulith not a man. 21 And Jhesus yede out fro thennus, and wente in to the coostis of Tire and Sidon. 22 And lo! a womman of Canane yede out of tho coostis, and criede, and seide to him, Lord, the sone of Daud, haue merci on me; my douyter is yuel traueilid of a feend. 23 And he answeride not to hir a word. And hise disciplis camen, and preieden hym, and seiden, Leue thou hir, for she crieth aftir vs. 24 He answeride, and seide, Y am not sent, but to the scheep of the hous of Israel that perischiden. 25 And she cam, and worschipide hym, and seide, Lord, helpe me. 26 Which answeride, and seide, It is not good to take the breed of children, and caste to houndis. 27 And she seide, Yhis, Lord; for whelpis eten of the crummes, that fallen doun fro the bord of her lordis. 28 Thanne Jhesus answeride, and seide to hir, A! womman, thi feith is greet; be it doon to thee, as thou wolt. And hir douytir was helid fro that hour. 29 And whanne Jhesus hadde passed fro thennus, he cam bisidis the see of Galilee. And he yede vp in to an hil, and sat there. 30 And myche puple cam to hym, and hadden with hem doumbe men and crokid, feble and blynde, and many other; and thei castiden doun hem at hise feet. And he helide hem, 31 so that the puple wondriden seyng doumbe men spekyng, and crokid goyng, blynde men seyng; and thei magnyfieden God of Israel. 32 And Jhesus, whanne hise disciplis weren clepid to gidere, seide to hem, Y haue reuthe of the puple, for thei han abiden now thre daies with me, and han no thing to ete; and Y wole not leue hem fastyng, lest thei failen in the weie. 33 And the disciplis seien to him, Wherof thanne so many looues among vs in desert, to fulfille so greet a puple? 34 And Jhesus seide to hem, Hou many looues han ye? And thei seiden, Seuene, and a fewe smale fisshis. 35 And he comaundide to the puple, to sitte to mete on the erthe. 36 And he took seuene looues and fyue fischis, and dide thankyngis, and brak, and yaf to hise disciplis; and the disciplis yauen to the puple. 37 And alle eten, and weren fulfillid, and thei token that that was left of relifes, seuene lepis fulle. 38 And thei that eten weren foure thousynde of men, with outen litle children and wymmen. 39 And whanne he hadde left the puple, he wente vp in to a boot, and cam in to the coostis of Magedan.

16 And the Farisees and the Saducees camen to hym temptynge, and preieden hym to schewe hem a tokene fro heuene. 2 And he answeride, and seide to hem, Whanne the euentid is comun, ye seien, It schal be clere, for heuene is rodi; 3 and the morewid, To dai tempest, for heuene schyneth heueli. 4 Thanne ye kunne deme the face of heuene, but ye moun not wite the tokenes of tymes. An yuel generacioun and auoutresse sekith a tokene; and a tokene schal not be youun to it, but the tokene of Jonas, the profete. And whanne he hadde left hem, he wente forth. 5 And whanne his disciplis camen ouer the see, thei foryaten to take looues. 6 And he seide to hem, Biholde ye, and be war of the soure dowy of Farisees and Saducees. 7 And thei thouyten among hem, and seiden, For we han not take looues. 8 But Jhesus witynge seide to hem, What thenken ye among you of litel feith, for ye han not looues? 9 Yit `vndurstonden not ye, nether han mynde of fyue looues in to fyue thousynde of men, and hou many cofyns ye token? 10 nether of seuene looues in to foure thousynde of men, and hou many lepis ye token? 11 Whi vndurstonden ye not, for Y seide not to you of breed, Be ye war of the sourdowy of Farisees and of Saducees? 12 Thanne thei vndurstooden, that he seide not to be war of sourdowy of looues, but of the techyng of Farisees and Saducees. 13 And Jhesus cam in to the parties of Cesarie of Filip, and axide hise disciplis, and seide, Whom seien men to be mannus sone? 14 And thei seiden, Summe Joon Baptist; othere Elie; and othere Jeremye, or oon of the prophetis. 15 Jhesus seide to hem, But whom seien ye me to be? 16 Symount Petre answeride, and seide, Thou art Crist, the sone of God Iyuyng. 17 Jhesus answeride, and seide to him, Blessid art thou, Symount Bariona; for fleisch and blood schewide not to thee, but my fadir that is in heuenes.

18 And Y seie to thee, that thou art Petre, and on this stoon Y schal bilde my chirche, and the yatis of helle schulen not haue miyt ayens it. (Hadēs g86) 19 And to thee Y shal yyue the keies of the kingdom of heuenes; and what euer thou shalt bynde on erthe, schal be boundun also in heuenes; and what euer thou schalt vnbynde on erthe, schal be vnbounden also in heuenes.
20 Thanne he comaundide to hise disciplis, that thei schulden seie to no man, that he was Crist. 21 Fro that tyme Jhesus bigan to schewe to hise disciplis, that it bihofte hym go to Jerusalem, and suffre many thingis, of the eldere men, and of scribis, and princis of prestis; and be slayn, and the thridde dai to rise ayen.
22 And Petre took hym, and bigan to blame him, and seide, Fer be it fro thee, Lord; this thing schal not be to thee. 23 And he turnede, and seide to Petre, Sathanas, go after me; thou art a sclaundre to me; for thou sauerist not tho thingis that ben of God, but tho thingis that ben of men. 24 Thanne Jhesus seide to his disciplis, If ony man wole come after me, denye he hym silf, and take his cros, and sue me; for he that wole make his lijf saaf, 25 shal leese it; and he that schal leese his lijf for me, schal fynde it. 26 For what profitith it to a man, if he wyne al the world, and suffre peiryng of his soule? or what chaunging schal a man yyue for his soule? 27 For mannes sone schal come in glorie of his fader, with his aungels, and thanne he schal yelde to ech man after his werkis. 28 Treuli Y seie to you, `ther ben summe of hem that stonden here, whiche schulen not taste deth, til thei seen mannus sone comyng in his kyngdom.

17 And after sixe daies Jhesus took Petre, and James, and Joon, his brother, and ledde hem aside in to an hiy hil, 2 and was turned in to an othir licnesse bifer hem. And his face schone as the sunne; and hise clothis weren maad white as snowe. 3 And lo! Moises and Elie apperiden to hem, and spaken with hym. 4 And Petre answeride, and seide to Jhesu, Lord, it is good vs to be here. If thou wolt, make we here thre tabernaclis; to thee oon, to Moises oon, and oon to Elye. Yit the while he spak, lo! 5 a briyt cloude ouerschadewide hem; and lo! a voice out of the cloude, that seide, This is my dereworth sone, in whom Y haue wel pleside to me; here ye hym. 6 And the disciplis herden, and felden doun on her faces, and dredden greetli. 7 And Jhesus cam, and touchide hem, and seide to hem, Rise vp, and nyle ye drede. 8 And thei liften vp her iyen, and saien no man, but Jhesu aloone. 9 And as thei camen doun of the hille, Jhesus comaundide to hem, and seide, Seie ye to no man the visioun, til mannus sone rise ayen fro deeth. 10 And his disciplis axiden hym, and seiden, What thanne seien the scribis, that it bihoueth that Elie come first? 11 He answeride, and seide to hem, Elie schal come, and he schal restore alle thingis. 12 And Y seie to you, that Elie is nowe comun, and thei knewen hym not, but thei diden in him what euer thingis thei wolden; and so mannus sone schal suffre of hem. 13 Thanne the disciplis vndurstoden, that he seide to hem of Joon Baptist. 14 And whanne he cam to the puple, a man cam to hym, and felde doun on hise knees bifor hym, and seide, 15 Lord, haue merci on my sone; for he is lunatike, and suffrith yuele, for ofte tymes he fallith in to the fier, and ofte tymes in to water. 16 And Y brouyte hym to thi disciplis, and thei myyten not heele hym. 17 Jhesus answeride, and seide, A! thou generacion vnbileueful and weiward; hou long schal Y be with you? hou long schal Y suffre you? Brynge ye hym hider to me. 18 And Jhesus blamede hym, and the deuel wente out fro hym; and the child was heelid fro that our. 19 Thanne the disciplis camen to Jhesu priueli, and seiden to hym, Whi myyten not we caste hym out? 20 Jhesus seith to hem, For youre vnbileue. Treuli Y seie to you, if ye han feith, as a corn of seneueye, ye schulen seie to this hil, Passe thou hennus, and it schal passe; and no thing schal be vnpossible to you; 21 but this kynde is not caste out, but bi preiyng and fastyng. 22 And whilis thei weren abidyng togidere in Galilee, Jhesus seide to hem, Mannus sone schal be bitraied in to the hondis of men; 23 and thei schulen sle hym, and the thridde day he schal rise ayen to lijf. And thei weren ful sori. 24 And whanne thei camen to Cafarnaum, thei that token tribute, camen to Petre, and seiden to hym, Youre maister payeth not tribute? 25 And he seide, Yhis. And whanne he was comen in to the hous, Jhesus cam bifor hym, and seide, Symount, what semeth to thee? Kyngis of erthe, of whom taken thei tribute? of her sones, ether of aliens? 26 And he seide, Of aliens. Jhesus seide to hym, Thanne sones ben fre.

27 But that we sclaundre hem not, go to the see, and caste an hook, and take thilke fisch that first cometh vp; and, whanne his mouth is opened, thou schalt fynde a stater, and yyue for thee and for me.

18 In that our the disciplis camen to Jhesu, and seiden, Who, gessist thou, is gretter in the kyngdom of heuenes? 2 And Jhesus clepide a litil child, and putte hym in the myddil of hem; 3 and seide, Y seie treuthe to you, but ye be turned, and maad as litle children, ye schulen not entre in to the kyngdom of heuenes.
4 Therfor who euer mekith hym as this litil child, he is gretter in the kyngdom of heuenes. 5 And he that resseyueth o siche litil child in my name, resseyueth me. 6 But who so sclaundrith oon of these smale, that bileuen in me, it spedith to hym that a mylnstoon `of assis be hangid in his necke, and he be drenchid in the depnesse of the see. 7 Woo to the world, for sclaundris; for it is nede that sclaundris come; netheles wo to thilke man bi whom a sclaundre cometh. 8 And if thin hoond or thi foot sclaundreth thee, kitte it of, and caste awei fro thee. It is betere to thee to entre to lijf feble, ethir crokid, than hauynge tweyne hoondis or twey feet to be sent in to euerlastyng fier. (aiōnios g166) 9 And if thin iye sclaundre thee, pulle it out, and caste awei fro thee. It is betere to thee with oon iye to entre in to lijf, thanne hauynge tweyn iyen to be sent in to the fier of helle. (Geenna g1067) 10 Se ye, that ye dispise not oon of these litle. For Y seie to you, that the aungels of hem in heuenes seen euermore the face of my fadir that is in heuenes. 11 For mannus sone cam to saue that thing that perischide. 12 What semeth to you? If ther weren to sum man an hundrid scheep, and oon of hem hath errid, whethir he schal not leeue nynti and nyne in desert, and schal go to seche that that erride? 13 And if it falle that he fynde it, treuli Y seie to you, that he schal haue ioie thereon more than on nynti and nyne that erriden not. 14 So it is not the wille bifor youre fadir that is in heuenes, that oon of these litle perische. 15 But if thi brother synneth ayens thee, go thou, and repreue hym, bitwixe thee and hym aloone; if he herith thee, thou hast wonnun thi brother. 16 And if he herith thee not, take with thee oon or tweyne, that euery word stonde in the mouth of tweyne or thre witnessis. 17 And if he herith not hem, seie thou to the chirche. But if he herith not the chirche, be he as an hethen and a puppican to thee. 18 Y seie to you treuli, what euer thingis ye bynden on erthe, tho schulen be boundun also in heuene; and what euer thingis ye vnbynden on erthe, tho schulen be vnboundun also in heuene. 19 Eftsoone Y seie to you, that if tweyne of you consenten on the erthe, of euery thing what euer thei axen, it schal be don to hem of my fadir that is in heuenes. 20 For where tweyne or thre ben gaderid in my name, there Y am in the myddil of hem. 21 Thanne Petre cam to hym, and seide, Lord, how ofte schal my brother synne ayens me, and Y schal foryyue hym? 22 Whether til seuen tymes? Jhesus seith to hym, Y seie not to thee, til seuene sithis; but til seuenti sithis seuene sithis. 23 Therfor the kyngdom of heuenes is ligned to a kyng, that wolde rekyn with hise seruauntis. 24 And whanne he bigan to rekene, oon that ouyte ten thousynde talentis, was brouyt to hym. 25 And whanne he hadde not wherof to yelde, his lord comaundide hym to be seld, and his wijf, and children, and alle thingis that he hadde, and to be paied. 26 But thilke seruaunt felde doun, and preiede hym, and seide, Haue pacience in me, and Y schal yelde to thee alle thingis. 27 And the lord hadde merci on that seruaunt, and suffride hym to go, and foryaf to hym the dette. 28 But thilke seruaunt yede out, and foonde oon of his euen seruauntis, that ouyte hym an hundrid pens; and he helde hym, and stranglide hym, and seide, Yelde that that thou owest. 29 And his euen seruaunt felle doun, and preyede hym, and seide, Haue pacience in me, and Y schal quyte alle thingis to thee. 30 But he wolde not; but wente out, and putte hym in to prisoun, til he paiede al the dette. 31 And hise euen seruauntis, seyng the thingis that weren don, soreweden greetli. And thei camen, and telden to her lord alle the thingis that weren don. 32 Thanne his lord clepide hym, and seide to hym, Wickid seruaunt, Y foryaf to thee al the dette, for thou preiedist me. 33 Therfor whether it bihouede not also thee to haue merci on thin euen seruaunt, as Y hadde merci on thee? 34 And his lord was wroth, and took hym to turmentouris, til he paiede al the dette. 35 So my fadir of heuene schal do to you, if ye foryyuen not euery man to his brother, of youre hertes.

19 And it was don, whanne Jhesus hadde endid these wordis, he passide fro Galilee, and cam in to the coostis of Judee ouer Jordan. 2 And myche puple sude him, and he heelide hem there. 3 And Farisees camen to him, temptynge him, and seiden, Whether it be leueful to a man to leue his wijf, for ony cause? 4 Which answeride, and seide to hem, Han ye not red, for he that made men at the bigynnyng, made hem male and female? 5 And he seide, For this thing a man schal leue fadir and modir, and he schal draw to his wijf; and thei schulen be tweyne in o fleisch. 6 And so thei ben not now tweyne, but o fleisch. Therfor a man departe not that thing that God hath ioyned. 7 Thei seien to hym, What thanne comaundide Moises, to yyue a libel of forsakyng, and to leeuue of? 8 And he seide to hem, For Moises, for the hardnesse of youre herte, suffride you leeuue youre wyues; but fro the bigynnyng it was not so. 9 And Y seie to you, that who euer leeueth his wijf, but for fornycacioun, and weddith another, doith letcherie; and he that weddith the forsakun wijf, doith letcherie. 10 His disciplis seien to him, If the cause of a man with a wijf is so, it spedith not to be weddid. 11 And he seide to hem, Not alle men taken this word; but to whiche it is youun. 12 For ther ben geldingis, whiche ben thus born of the modris wombe; and ther ben geldyngis, that ben maad of men; and there ben geldyngis, that han geldid hem silf, for the kyngdom of heuenes. He that may take, `take he. 13 Thanne litle children weren brouyte to hym, that he schulde putte hondis to hem, and preie. 14 And the disciplis blamyden hem. But Jhesus seide to hem, Suffre ye that litle children come to me, and nyle ye forbede hem; for of siche is the kyngdom of heuenes. 15 And whanne he hadde put to hem hondis, he wente fro thennus. 16 And lo! oon cam, and seide to hym, Good maister, what good schal Y do, that Y haue euerlastynge lijf? (aiōnios g166) 17 Which seith to hym, What axist thou me of good thing? There is o good God. But if thou wolt entre to lijf, kepe the comaundementis. 18 He seith to hym, Whiche? And Jhesus seide, Thou schalt not do mansleying, thou schalt not do auowtrie, thou schalt not do thefte, thou schalt not seie fals witnessyng; 19 worschipe thi fadir and thi modir, and, thou schalt loue thi neiybore as thi silf. 20 The yonge man seith to hym, Y haue kept alle these thingis fro my youthe, what yit failith to me? 21 Jhesus seith to hym, If thou wolt be perfite, go, and sille alle thingis that thou hast, and yyue to pore men, and thou schalt haue tresoure in heuene; and come, and sue me. 22 And whanne the yong man hadde herd these wordis, he wente awei sorewful, for he hadde many possessiouns. 23 And Jhesus seide to hise disciplis, Y seie to you treuthe, for a riche man of hard schal entre in to the kyngdom of heuenes. 24 And eftsoone Y seie to you, it is liyter a camel to passe thorou a needlis iye, thanne a riche man to entre in to the kyngdom of heuens. 25 Whanne these thingis weren herd, the disciplis wondriden greetli, and seiden, Who thanne may be saaf? 26 Jhesus bihelde, and seide to hem, Anentis men this thing is impossible; but anentis God alle thingis ben possible. 27 Thanne Petre answeride, and seide to hym, Lo! we han forsake alle thingis, and we han suede thee; what thanne schal be to vs? 28 Jhesus seide to hem, Truli I seie to you, that ye that han forsake alle thingis, and han sued me, in the regeneracioun whanne mannus sone schal sitte in the sete of his maieste, ye schulen sitte on twelue setis, demynge the twelue kynredis of Israel. 29 And every man that forsakith hous, britheren or sistren, fadir or modir, wijf ethir children, or feeldis, for my name, he schal take an hundrid foold, and schal welde euerlastynge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 30 But manye schulen be, the firste the laste, and the laste the firste.

20 The kyngdom of heuenes is lijc to an housbonde man, that wente out first bi the morewe, to hire werk men in to his vyneyerd. 2 And whanne the couenaunt was maad with werk men, of a peny for the dai, he sente hem in to his vyneyerd. 3 And he yede out aboute the thridde our, and say othere stondynge idel in the chepyng. 4 And he seide to hem, Go ye also in to myn vyneyerd, and that that schal be riytful, Y schal yyue to you. 5

And thei wenten forth. Eftsoones he wente out aboute the sixte our, and the nynthē, and dide in lijk maner. 6 But aboute the elleuenthe our he wente out, and foond other stondynge; and he seide to hem, What stonden ye idel here al dai? 7 Thei seien to him, For no man hath hirid vs. He seith to hem, Go ye also in to my vyneyerd. 8 And whanne euenyng was comun, the lord of the vyneyerd seith to his procuratoure, Clepe the werk men, and yelde to hem her hire, and bigynne thou at the laste til to the firste. 9 And so whanne thei weren comun, that camen aboute the elleuenthe our, also thei token eueryche of hem a peny. 10 But the firste camen, and demeden, that thei schulden take more, but thei token ech oon bi hem silf a peny; 11 and in the takyng grutchiden ayens the hosebonde man, and seiden, 12 These laste wrouyten oon our, and thou hast maad hem euen to vs, that han born the charge of the dai, and heete? 13 And he answeride to oon of hem, and seide, Freend, Y do thee noon wrong; whether thou hast not acordid with me for a peny? 14 Take thou that that is thin, and go; for Y wole yyue to this laste man, as to thee. 15 Whether it is not leueful to me to do that that Y wole? Whether thin iye is wickid, for Y am good? 16 So the laste schulen be the firste, and the firste the laste; `for many ben clepid, but fewe ben chosun. 17 And Jhesus wente vp to Jerusalem, and took hise twelue disciplis in priuete, and seide to hem, Lo! 18 we goon vp to Jerusalem, and mannus sone schal be bitakun to princis of prestis, and scribis; and thei schulen condempne him to deeth. 19 And thei schulen bitake hym to hethene men, for to be scorned, and scourgid, and crucified; and the thridde day he schal rise ayen to lijf. 20 Thanne the modir of the sones of Zebedee cam to hym with hir sones, onourynge, and axynge sum thing of hym. 21 And he seide to hir, What wilt thou? She seith to hym, Seie that thes tweyne my sones sitte, oon at thi riythalf, and oon at thi lefthalf, in thi kyngdom. 22 Jhesus answeride, and seide, Ye witen not what ye axen. Moun ye drynke the cuppe which Y schal drynke? Thei seien to hym, We moun. 23 He seith to hem, Ye schulen drinke my cuppe; but to sitte at my riythalf or lefthalf, it is not myn to yyue to you; but to whiche it is maad redi of my fadir. 24 And the ten herynge, hadden indignacioun of the twei britheren. 25 But Jhesus clepide hem to hym, and seide, Ye witen, that princis of hethene men ben lordis of hem, and thei that ben gretter, vsen power on hem. 26 It schal not be so among you; but who euer wole be maad gretter among you, be he youre mynystre; 27 and who euer among you wole be the firste, he schal be youre seruaunt. 28 As mannus sone cam not to be seruyd, but to serue, and to yyue his lijf redempcioun for manye. 29 And whanne thei yeden out of Jerico, miche puple suede him. 30 And lo! twei blynde men saten bisydis the weie, and herden that Jhesus passide; and thei crieden, and seiden, Lord, the sone of Daud, haue merci on vs. 31 And the puple blamede hem, that thei schulden be stille; and thei crieden the more, and seiden, Lord, the sone of Daud, haue merci on vs. 32 And Jhesus stood, and clepide hem, and seide, What wolen ye, that Y do to you? 33 Thei seien to him, Lord, that oure iyen be opened. 34 And Jhesus hadde merci on hem, and touchide her iyen; and anoon thei sayen, and sueden him.

21 And whanne Jhesus cam nyy to Jerusalem, and cam to Bethfage, at the mount of Olyuete, thanne sente he his twei disciplis, and seide to hem, 2 Go ye in to the castel that is ayens you, and anoon ye schulen fynde an asse tied, and a colt with hir; vntien ye, and brynge to me. 3 And if ony man seie to you ony thing, seie ye, that the Lord hath nede to hem; and anon he schal leue hem. 4 Al this was doon, that that thing schulde be fulfillid, that was seid bi the prophete, seiynge, Seie ye to the douyter of Syon, Lo! 5 thi kyng cometh to thee, meke, sittynge on an asse, and a fole of an asse vnder yok. 6 And the disciplis yeden, and diden as Jhesus comaundide hem. 7 And thei brouyten an asse, and the fole, and leiden her clothis on hem, and maden hym sitte aboue. 8 And ful myche puple strewiden her clothis in the weie; othere kittiden braunchis of trees, and strewiden in the weie. 9 And the puple that wente bifore, and that sueden, crieden, and seiden, Osanna to the sone of Daud; blessid is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Osanna in hy thingis. 10 And whanne he was entrid in to Jerusalem, al the citee was stirid, and seide, Who is this? 11 But the puple seide, This is Jhesus, the prophete, of Nazareth of Galilee. 12 And Jhesus entride in to the temple of God, and castide out of the temple alle that bouyten and solden; and he turnede vpsedown the bordis of chaungeris, and the chayeris of men that solden culueris. 13 And he seith to hem, It is writun, Myn hous schal be clepid an hous of preier; but ye han maad it a denne of theues. 14 And blynde and crokid camen to hym in the temple, and he heelide hem. 15 But the princis of prestis and scribis, seyng the merueilouse thingis that he dide, and children criynge in the temple, and seiynge, Osanna to the sone of Daud, hadden indignacioun, 16 and seiden to hym, Herist thou what these seien? And Jhesus seide to hem, Yhe; whether ye han neuer redde, That of the mouth of yonge children, and of soukyng childryn, thou hast maad perfit heri yng? 17 And whanne he hadde left hem, he wente forth out of the citee, in to Bethanye; and there he dwelte, and tauyte hem of the kyngdom of God. 18 But on the morowe, he, turnynge ayen in to the citee, hungride. 19 And he saye a fige tree bisidis the weie, and cam to it, and foond no thing ther ynne but leeues oneli. And he seide to it, Neuer fruyt come forth of thee, in to with outen eende, And anon the fige tre was dried vp. (aiōn g165) 20 And disciplis `sawen, and wondriden, seiynge, Hou anon it driede. 21 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Treuli Y seie to you, if ye haue feith, and douten not, not oonli ye schulen do of the fige tree, but also if ye seyn to this hil, Take, and caste thee in to the see, it schal be don so. 22 And alle thingis what euere ye bileuyng schulen axe in preyer, ye schulen take. 23 And whanne he cam in to the temple, the princis of prestis and elder men of the puple camen to hym that tauyte, and seiden, In what power doist thou these thingis? and who yaf thee this power? 24 Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, And Y schal axe you o word, the which if ye tellen me, Y schal seie to you, in what power Y do these thingis. 25 Of whennys was the bapty m of Joon; of heuene, or of men? And thei thouyten with ynne hem silf, 26 seiynge, If we seien of heuene, he schal seie to vs, Whi thanne bileuen ye not to hym?

 If we seien of men, we dreden the puple, for alle hadden Joon as a prophete. 27 And thei answeriden to Jhesu, and seiden, We witen not. And he seide to hem, Nether Y seie to you, in what power Y do these thingis. 28 But what semeth to you? A man hadde twey sones; and he cam to the firste, and seide, Sone, go worche this dai in my vyneyerd. 29 And he answeride, and seide, Y nyle; but afterward he forthouyte, and wente forth.

30 But he cam to `the tother, and seide on lijk maner. And he answeride, and seide, Lord, Y go; and he wente not. 31 Who of the tweyne dide the fadris wille? Thei seien to hym, The firste. Jhesus seith to hem, Treuli Y seie to you, for pupplicans and hooris schulen go bifer you `in to the kyngdom of God. 32 For Joon cam to you in the weie of riytwisnesse, and ye bileueden not to him; but pupplicans and hooris bileueden to hym. But ye sayn, and hadden no forthenkyng aftir, that ye bileueden to hym. 33 Here ye another parable. There was an hosebonde man, that plauntide a vynyerd, and heggide it aboute, and dalfe a presour ther ynne, and bildide a tour, and hiride it to erthe tilieris, and wente fer in pilgrimage. 34 But whanne the tyme of fruytis neiyede, he sente his seruauntis to the erthe tilieris, to take fruytis of it. 35 And the erthetilieris token his seruauntis, and beeten `the toon, thei slowen another, and thei stonyden another. 36 Eftsoone he sente othere seruauntis, mo than the firste, and in lijk maner thei diden to hem. 37 And at the laste he sente his sone to hem, and seide, Thei schulen drede my sone. 38 But the erthe tilieris, seyng the sone, seiden with ynne hem silf, This is the eire; come ye, sle we hym, and we schulen haue his eritage. 39 And thei token, and castiden hym out of the vynyerd, and slowen hym. 40 Therfor whanne the lord of the vyneyerd schal come, what schal he do to thilke erthe tilieris? 41 Thei seien to hym, He schal leese yuele the yuele men, and he schal sette to hire his vyneyerd to othere erthetilieris, whyche schulen yelde to hym fruyt in her tymes. 42 Jhesus seith to hem, Redden ye neuer in scripturis, The stoon which bilderis repreueden, this is maad in to the heed of the corner? Of the Lord this thing is don, and it is merueilous bifer oure iyen. 43

Therfor Y seie to you, that the kyngdom of God schal be takun fro you, and shal be youun to a folc doynge fruytis of it. 44 And he that schal falle on this stoon, schal be brokun; but on whom it schal falle, it schal al tobrise hym. 45 And whanne the princes of prestis and Farisees hadden herd hise parablis, thei knewen that he seide of hem. 46 And thei souyten to holde hym, but thei dredden the puple, for thei hadden hym as a prophete.

22 And Jhesus answeride, and spak eftsoone in parablis to hem, 2 and seide, The kyngdom of heuenes is maad lijk to a kyng that made weddyngis to his sone. 3 And he sente hise seruauntis for to clepe men that weren bode to the weddyngis, and thei wolden not come. 4 Eftsoone he sente othere seruauntis, and seide, Seie ye to the men that ben bode to the feeste, Lo! Y haue maad redi my meete, my bolis and my volatilis ben slayn, and alle thingis ben redy; come ye to the weddyngis. 5 But thei dispisiden, and wenten forth, oon in to his toun, anothir to his marchaundise. 6 But othere helden his seruauntis, and turmentiden hem, and slowen. 7 But the kyng, whanne he hadde herd, was wroth; and he sente hise oostis, and he distruyede tho manquelleris, and brente her citee. 8 Thanne he seide to hise seruauntis, The weddyngis ben redi, but thei that weren clepid to the feeste, weren not worthi. 9 Therfor go ye to the endis of weies, and whom euere ye fynden, clepe ye to the weddyngis. 10 And hise seruauntis yeden out in to weies, and gadriden togider alle that thei founden, good and yuele; and the bridale was fulfillid with men sittynge at the mete. 11 And the kyng entride, to se men sittynge at the mete; and he siye there a man not clothid with bride cloth. 12 And he seide to hym, Freend, hou entridist thou hidir with out bride clothis? And he was doumbe.

13 Thanne the kyng bad hise mynystris, Bynde hym bothe hondis and feet, and sende ye him in to vtmer derknessis; there schal be wepyng and grentyng of teeth. 14 For many ben clepid, but fewe ben chosun. 15 Thanne Farisees yeden awei, and token a counsel to take Jhesu in word. 16 And thei senden to hym her disciplis, with Erodians, and seien, Maister, we witen, that thou art sothefast, and thou techist in treuthe the weie of God, and thou chargist not of ony man, for thou biholdist not the persooone of men. 17 Therfor seie to vs, what it seemeth to thee. Is it leueful that tribute be youun to the emperoure, ether nay? 18 And whanne Jhesus hadde knowe the wickidnesse of hem, he seide, Ypocritis, what tempten ye me? 19 Schewe ye to me the prynte of the money. And thei brouyten to hym a peny. 20 And Jhesus seide to hem, Whos is this ymage, and the writyng aboue? 21 Thei seien to hym, The emperouris. Thanne he seide to hem, Therfor yelde ye to the emperoure tho thingis that ben the emperouris, and to God tho thingis that ben of God. 22 And thei herden, and wondriden; and thei leften hym, and wenten away. 23 In that dai Saduceis, that seien there is no risyng ayen to lijf, camen to hym, and axiden him, 24 and seiden, Mayster, Moises seide, if ony man is deed, not hauynge a sone, that his brother wedde his wijf, and reise seed to his brothir. 25 And seuen britheren weren at vs; and the firste weddide a wijf, and is deed. And he hadde no seed, and lefte his wijf to his brother; 26 also the secounde, and the thridde, til to the seuenthe. 27 But the laste of alle, the woman is deed. 28 Also in the risyng ayen to lijf, whos wijf of the seuene schal sche be? for alle hadden hir. 29 Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Ye erren, `and ye knowen not scripturis, ne the vertu of God. 30 For in the rysyng ayen to lijf, nether thei schulen wedde, nethir schulen be weddid; but thei ben as the aungels of God in heuene. 31 And of the risynge ayen of deed men, `han ye not red, that is seid of the Lord, that seith to you, 32 Y am God of Abraham, and God of Ysaac, and God of Jacob? he is not God of deede men, but of lyuyng men. 33 And the puple herynge, wondriden in his techynge. 34 And Fariseis herden that he hadde put silence to Saduceis, and camen togidere. 35 And oon of hem, a techere of the lawe, axide Jhesu, and temptide him, 36 Maistir, which is a greet maundement in the lawe? 37 Jhesus seide to him, Thou schalt loue thi Lord God, of al thin herte, and in al thi soule, and in al thi mynde. 38 This is the firste and the moste maundement.

39 And the secounde is lijk to this; Thou schalt loue thi neiyebore as thi silf. 40 In these twey maundementis hangith al the lawe and the profetis. 41 And whanne the Farisees weren gederid togidere, Jhesus axide hem, 42 and seide, What semeth to you of Crist, whos sone is he? Thei seien to hym, Of Daudid. 43 He seith to hem, Hou thanne Daudid in spirit clepith hym Lord, 44 and seith, The Lord seide to my Lord, Sitte on my riythalf, til Y putte thin enemyes a stool of thi feet? 45 Thanne if Daudid clepith hym Lord, hou is he his sone? 46 And no man miyte answeere a word to hym, nethir ony man was hardi fro that day, to axe hym more.

23 Thanne Jhesus spac to the puple, and to hise disciplis, 2 and seide, On the chayere of Moises, scribis and Farisees han sete. 3 Therfor kepe ye, and do ye alle thingis, what euer thingis thei seien to you. But nyle ye do aftir her werkis; for thei seien, and don not. 4 And thei bynden greuouse chargis, and that moun not be borun, and putten on schuldris of men; but with her fyngur thei wolen not moue hem. 5 Therfor thei don alle her werkis `that thei be seen of men; for thei drawen abroad her filateries, and magnifien hemmes. 6 And thei louen the first sitting placis in soperis, and the first chaieris in synagogis; 7 and salutaciouns in chepyng, and to be clepid of men maystir.

8 But nyle ye be clepid maister; for oon is youre maystir, and alle ye ben britheren. 9 And nyle ye clepe to you a fadir on erthe, for oon is your fadir, that is in heuenes. 10 Nether be ye clepid maistris, for oon is youre maister, Crist. 11 He that is grettest among you, schal be youre mynystre. 12 For he that hieth himself, schal be mekid; and he that mekith hym silf, schal be enhaunsid. 13 But wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ipocritis, that closen the kyngdom of heuenes bifore men; and ye entren not, nether suffren men entrynge to entre. 14 Wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ipocritis, that eten the housis of widowis, and preien bi longe preier; for this thing ye schulen take more doom.
15 Wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ypocritis, that goon aboute the see and the loond, to make o prosilite; and whanne he is maad, ye maken hym a sone of helle, double more than ye ben.
(Geenna g1067) 16 Wo to you, blynde lederis, that seien, Who euer swerith bi the temple of God, it is `no thing; but he that swerith in the gold of the temple, is dettoure. 17 Ye foolis and blynde, for what is grettere, the gold, or the temple that halewith the gold? 18 And who euer swerith in the auter, it is no thing; but he that swerith in the yifte that is on the auter, owith. 19 Blynde men, for what is more, the yifte, or the auter that halewith the yifte? 20 Therfor he that swerith in the auter, swerith in it, and in alle thingis that ben ther on. 21 And he that swerith in the temple, swerith in it, and in hym that dwellith in the temple. 22 And he that swerith in heuene, swerith in the trone of God, and in hym that sittith ther on. 23 Wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ypocritis, that tithen mynte, anete, and cummyn, and han left tho thingis that ben of more charge of the lawe, doom, and merci, and feith. And it bihofte to do these thingis, and not to leeu tho. 24 Blynde lederis, clensing a gnatte, but swolewyng a camel. 25 Woo to you, scribis and Farisees, ypocritis, that clensen the cuppe and the plater with outforth; but with ynne ye ben ful of raueyne and vnclennesse. 26 Thou blynde Farisee, clense the cuppe and the plater with ynneforth, that that that is with outforth be maad clene. 27 Wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ipocritis, that ben lijk to sepulcris whitid, whiche with outforth semen faire to men; but with ynne thei ben fulle of boonus of deed men, and of al filthe. 28 So ye with outforth semen iust to men; but with ynne ye ben ful of ypocrisy and wickidnesse. 29 Wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ipocritis, that bilden sepulcris of profetis, and maken faire the biriellis of iust men, 30 and seien, If we hadden be in the daies of oure fadris, we schulden not haue be her felowis in the blood of prophetis. 31 And so ye ben in witnessyng to you silf, that ye ben the sones of hem that slown the prophetis. 32 And fulfille ye the mesure of youre fadris. 33 Ye eddris, and eddris briddis, hou schulen ye fle fro the doom of helle? (Geenna g1067) 34 Therfor lo! Y sende to you profetis, and wise men, and scribis; and of hem ye schulen sle and crucifie, and of hem ye schulen scourge in youre sinagogis, and schulen pursue fro cite in to citee; 35 that al the iust blood come on you, that was sched on the erthe, fro the blood of iust Abel to the blood of Zacarie, the sone of Barachie, whom ye slown bitwixe the temple and the auter. 36 Treuli Y seie to you, alle these thingis schulen come on this generacioun. 37 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that sleest prophetis, and stoonest hem that ben sent to thee, hou ofte wolde Y gadere togidere thi children, as an henne gaderith togidir her chickenes vndir hir wengis, and thou woldist not. 38 Lo! youre hous schal be left to you desert. 39 And Y seie to you, ye schulen not se me fro hennus forth, til ye seien, Blessid is he, that cometh in the name of the Lord.

24 And Jhesus wente out of the temple; and his disciplis camen to hym, to schewe hym the bildyngis of the temple. 2 But he answeride, and seide to hem, Seen ye alle these thingis? Treuli Y seie to you, a stoon schal not be left here on a stoon, that ne it schal be destried. 3 And whanne he satte on the hille of Olyuete, hise disciplis camen to hym priueli, and seiden, Seie vs, whanne these thingis schulen be, and what token of thi comyng, and of the ending of the world. (aiōn g165) 4 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Loke ye, that no man disseyue you. 5 For many schulen come in my name, and schulen seie, Y am Crist; and thei schulen disseyue manye. 6 For ye schulen here batels, and opyniouns of batels; se ye that ye be not disturblid; for it byhoueth these thingis to be don, but not yit is the ende. 7 Folk schal rise togidere ayens folc, and rewme ayens rewme, and pestilences, and hungris, and the erthemouyngis schulen be bi placis; 8 and alle these ben bigynnyngis of sorewes. 9 Thanne men schulen bitake you in to tribulacion, and schulen sle you, and ye schulen be in hate to alle folk for my name. 10 And thanne many schulen be sclaudrid, and bitraye ech other, and thei schulen hate ech other. 11 And many false prophetis schulen rise, and disseyue manye. 12 And for wickidnesse schal `be plenteuouse, the charite of manye schal wexe coold; 13 but he that schal dwelle stable in to the ende, schal be saaf. 14 And this gospel of the kyngdom schal be prechid in al the world, in witnessyng to al folc; 15 and thanne the ende schal come.

Therfor whanne ye se the abhomynacioun of discomfort, that is seid of Danyel, the prophete, stondynge in the hooli place; he that redith, vndirstonde he; 16 thanne thei that ben in Judee, fle to the mounteyns; and he that is in the hous roof, 17 come not doun to take any thing of his hous; and he that is in the feeld, 18 turne not ayen to take his coote. 19 But wo to hem that ben with child, and nurischen in tho daies. 20 Preye ye, that youre fleyng be not maad in wynter, or in the saboth. 21 For thanne schal be greet tribulacioun, what maner `was not fro the bigynnyng of the world to now, nether schal be maad. 22 And but tho daies hadden be abreggide, ech flesch schulde not be maad saaf; but tho daies schulen be maad schort, for the chosun men. 23 Thanne if ony man seie to you, Lo! here is Crist, or there, nyle ye bileue. 24 For false Cristis and false prophetis schulen rise, and thei schulen yyue grete tokenes and wondrys; so that also the chosun be led in to erreure, if it may be done. 25 Lo! Y haue bifor seid to you. 26 Therfor if thei seie to you, Lo! he is in desert, nyle ye go out; lo! in priuey placis, nyle ye trowe. 27 For as leit goith out fro the eest, and apperith in to the weste, so schal be also the coming of mannus sone. 28 Where euer the bodi schal be, also the eglis schulen be gaderid thidur. 29 And anoon after the tribulacioun of tho daies, the sunne schal be maad derk, and the moone schal not yyue hir liyt, and the sterris schulen falle fro heuene, and the vertues of heuenes schulen be moued. 30 And thanne the tokene of mannus sone schal appere in heuene, and thanne alle kynredis of the erthe schulen weile; and thei schulen see mannus sone comynge in the cloudis of heuene, with miche vertu and maieste. 31 And he schal sende hise aungels with a trumpe, and a greet vois; and thei schulen gedere hise chosun fro foure wyndis, fro the hiyest thingis of heuenes to the endis of hem. 32 And lerne ye the parable of a fige tre. Whanne his braunche is now tendir, and the leeuës ben sprongun, ye witen that somer is nyy; 33 `so and ye whanne ye seen alle these thingis, wite ye that it is nyy, in the yatis. 34 Treuli Y seie to you, for this generacioun schal not passe, til alle thingis be don; 35 heuene and erthe schulen passe, but my wordis schulen not passe. 36 But of thilke dai and our no man wote, nethir aungels of heuenes, but the fadir aloone. 37 But as it was in the daies of Noe, so schal be the comyng of mannus sone. 38 For as in the daies bfore the greet flood, thei weren etyng and drynkynge, weddyng and takynge to weddyng, to that dai, that Noe entride in to the schippe; 39 and thei knewen not, til the greet flood cam, and took alle men, so schal be the comyng of mannus sone.

40 Thanne tweyne schulen be in o feeld, oon schal be takun, and another left; 41 twey wymmen schulen be gryndyng in o queerne, oon schal be takun, and `the tother left; tweyn in a bedde, `the toon schal be takun, and the tother left. 42 Therfor wake ye, for ye witen not in what our the Lord schal come. 43 But wite ye this, that if the hosebonde man wiste in what our the thefe were to come, certis he wolde wake, and suffre not his hous to be vndurmyned. 44 And therfor be ye redi, for in what our ye gessen not, mannus sone schal come. 45 Who gessist thou is a trewe seruaunt and prudent, whom his lord ordeyned on his meynne, to yyue hem mete in tyme? 46 Blessed is that seruaunt, whom `his lord, whanne he schal come, schal fynde so doynge. 47 Treuli Y seye to you, for on alle his goodis he schal ordeyne hym. 48 But if thilke yuel seruaunt seie in his herte, My lord tarieth to come, 49 and bigynneth to smyte hise euen seruauntis, and ete, and drynke with drunken men; 50 the lord of that seruaunt schal come in the dai which he hopith not, and in the our that he knowith not, 51 and schal departe hym, and putte his part with ypocritis; there schal be wepyng, and gryntyng of teeth.

25 Thanne the kyngdoom of heuenes schal be lijk to ten virgyns, whiche token her laumpis, and wenten out ayens the hosebonde and the wijf; 2 and fyue of hem weren foolis, and fyue prudent. 3 But the fyue foolis token her laumpis, and token not oile with hem; 4 but the prudent token oile in her vessels with the laumpis. 5 And whilis the hosebonde taryede, alle thei nappiden and slepten. 6 But at mydnyyt a cry was maad, Lo! the spouse cometh, go ye oute to mete with him. 7 Thanne alle tho virgyns risen vp, and araieden her laumpis. 8 And the foolis seiden to the wise, Yyue ye to vs of youre oile, for oure laumpis ben quenched. 9 The prudent answeriden, and seiden, Lest perauenture it suffice not to vs and to you, go ye rather to men that sellen, and bie to you. 10 And while thei wenten for to bie, the spouse cam; and tho that weren redi, entreden with him to the weddyngis; and the yate was schit. 11 And at the last the othere virgyns camen, and seiden, Lord, lord, opene to vs. 12 And he answeride, and seide, Treuli Y seie to you, Y knowe you not. 13 Therfor wake ye, for ye witen not the dai ne the our. 14 For as a man that goith in pilgrimage, clepide hise seruauntis, and bitook to hem hise goodis; 15 and to oon he yaf fyue talentis, and to another tweyne, and to another oon, to ech after his owne vertu; and wente forth anon. 16 And he that hadde fyue besauntis, wente forth, and wrouyte in hem, and wan othere fyue. 17 Also and he that hadde takun tweyne, wan othere tweyne. 18 But he that hadde takun oon, yede forth, and dalf in to the erthe, and hidde the money of his lord. 19 But after long tyme, the lord of tho seruauntis cam, and rekenede with hem. 20 And he that hadde takun fyue besauntis, cam, and brouyte othere fyue, and seide, Lord, thou bytokist to me fyue besauntis, loo! Y haue getun aboue fyue othere. 21 His lord seide to hym, Wel be thou, good seruaunt and feithful; for on fewe thingis thou hast be trewe, Y schal ordeyne thee on manye thingis; entre thou in to the ioie of thi lord. 22 And he that hadde takun twey talentis, cam, and seide, Lord, thou bitokist to me twey besauntis; loo! 23 Y haue wonnen ouer othir tweyne. His lord seide to him, Wel be thou, good seruaunt and trewe; for on fewe thingis thou hast be trewe, Y schal ordeyne thee on many thingis; entre thou in to the ioie of thi lord. 24 But he that hadde takun o besaunt, cam, and seide, Lord, Y woot that thou art an hard man; thou repist where thou hast not sowe, and thou gederist togidere where thou hast not spred abroad; 25 and Y dredynge wente, and hidde thi besaunt in the erthe; lo! thou hast that that is thin. 26 His lord answeride, and seide to hym, Yuel seruaunt and slowe, wistist thou that Y repe where Y sewe not, and gadir to gidere where Y spredde not abroad? 27 Therfor it bihofte thee to bitake my money to chaungeris, that whanne Y cam, Y schulde resseyue that that is myn with vsuris. 28 Therfor take aweil fro hym the besaunt, and yyue ye to hym that hath ten besauntis. 29 For to euery man that hath me schal yyue, and he schal encrease; but fro hym that hath not, also that that hym semeth to haue, schal be taken away fro him. 30 And caste ye out the vnprofitable seruaunt in to vtmer derknessis; ther schal be wepyng, and gryntyng of teeth. 31 Whanne mannus sone schal come in his maieste, and alle hise aungels with hym, thanne he schal sitte on the sege of his maieste; 32 and alle folkis schulen be gaderid bifor hym, 33 and he schal departe hem atwynne, as a scheeperde departith scheep from kidis; and he schal sette the scheep on his riythalf, and the kidis on the lefthalf. 34 Thanne the kyng schal seie to hem, that schulen be on his riythalf, Come ye, the blessid of my fadir, take ye in possessioun the kyngdoom maad redi to you fro the makyng of the world. 35 For Y hungride, and ye yauen me to ete; Y thristide, and ye yauen me to drynke; Y was herboreles, and ye herboriden me; 36 nakid, and ye hiliden me; sijk, and ye visitiden me; Y was in prisoun, and ye camen to me. 37 Thanne iust men schulen answere to hym, and seie, Lord, whanne siyen we thee hungry, and we fedden thee; thristi, and we yauen to thee drynk? 38 and whanne sayn we thee herborles, and we herboreden thee; or nakid, and we hiliden thee? 39 or whanne sayn we thee sijk, or in prisoun, and we camen to thee? 40 And the kyng answeyng schal seie to hem, Treuli Y seie to you, as longe as ye diden to oon of these my leeste britheren, ye diden to me. 41 Thanne the kyng schal seie also to hem, that schulen be on his lefthalf, Departe fro me, ye cursid, in to euerlastyng fjr, that is maad redi to the deuel and hise aungels.

(aiōnios g166) 42 For Y hungride, and ye yauen not me to ete; Y thristide, and ye yauen not me to drynke; 43 Y was herborles, and ye herberden not me; nakid, and ye keuerden not me; sijk, and in prisoun, and ye visitiden not me. 44 Thanne and thei schulen answere to hym, and schulen seie, Lord, whanne sayn we thee hungrynge, or thristynge, or herboreles, or nakid, or sijk, or in prisoun, and we serueden not to thee? 45 Thanne he schal answere to hem, and seie, Treuli Y seie to you, `hou longe ye diden not to oon of these leeste, nether ye diden to me. 46 And these schulen goo in to euerlastynge turment; but the iust men schulen go in to euerlastynge lijf. (aiōnios g166)

26 And it was doon, whanne Jhesus hadde endid alle these wordis, he seide to hise disciplis, 2 Ye witen, that aftir twei daies pask schal be maad, and mannus sone schal be bitakun to be crucified. 3 Than the princes of prestis and the elder men of the puple were gaderid in to the halle of the prince of prestis, that was seid Cayfas, 4 and maden a counsel to holde Jhesu with gile, and sle him; 5 but thei seiden, Not in the haliday, lest perauenture noyse were maad in the puple. 6 And whanne Jhesus was in Betanye, in the hous of Symount leprous, 7 a womman that hadde a box of alabastre of precious oynement, cam to hym, and schedde out on the heed of hym restynge. 8 And disciplis seyng haddeden dedeyn, and seiden, Wherto this loss? for it myyte be seld for myche, 9 and be youun to pore men. 10 But Jhesus knewe, and seide to hem, What ben ye heuy to this womman? for sche hath wrouyt in me a good werk.
11 For ye schulen euere haue pore men with you, but ye schulen not algatis haue me. 12 This womman sendynge this oynement in to my bodi, dide to birie me. 13 Treuli Y seie to you, where euer this gospel schal be prechid in al the world, it schal be seid, that sche dide this, in mynde of hym. 14 Thanne oon of the twelue, that was clepid Judas Scarioth, wente forth to the princis of prestis, 15 and seide to hem, What wolen ye yyue to me, and Y schal bitake hym to you? And thei ordeyneden to hym thretti pans of siluer. 16 And fro that tyme he souyte oportunyte, to bitraye hym. 17 And in the firste dai of therf looues the disciplis camen to Jhesu, and seiden, Where wolt thou we make redi to thee, to ete paske? 18 Jhesus seide, Go ye into the citee to `sum man, and seie to hym, The maistir seith, My tyme is nyy; at thee Y make paske with my disciplis. 19 And the disciplis diden, as Jhesus comaundide to hem; and thei maden the paske redi. 20 And whanne euentid was come, he sat to mete with hise twelue disciplis. 21 And he seide to hem, as thei eten, Treuli Y seie to you, that oon of you schal bitraye me. 22 And thei ful sori bigunnen ech bi hym silf to seie, Lord, whether `Y am? 23 And he answeride, and seide, He that puttith with me his hoond in the plater, schal bitraye me. 24 Forsothe mannus sone goith, as it is writun of hym; but wo to that man, bi whom mannus sone schal be bitrayed; it were good to hym, if that man hadde not be borun. 25 But Judas that bitraiede hym, answeride, seiynge, Maister, whether `Y am? Jhesus seide to hym, Thou hast seid. 26 And while thei soupeden, Jhesus took breed, and blesside, and brak, and yaf to hise disciplis, and seide, Take ye, and ete; this is my body. 27 And he took the cuppe, and dide thankyngis, and yaf to hem, 28 and seide, Drynke ye alle herof; this is my blood of the newe testament, which schal be sched for many, in to remissioun of synnes. 29 And Y seie to you, Y schal not drynke fro this tyme, of this fruyt of the vyne, in to that dai whanne Y schal drynke it newe with you, in the kyngdom of my fadir. 30 And whanne the ympne was seid, thei wenten out in to the mount of Olyuete. 31 Thanne Jhesus seide to hem, Alle ye schulen suffre sclaundre in me, in this niyt; for it is writun, Y schal smyte the scheeperde, and the scheep of the flok schulen be scaterid. 32 But aftir that Y schal rise ayen, Y schal go bifore you in to Galilee. 33 Petre answeride, and seide to hym, Thouy alle schulen be sclaudrid in thee, Y schal neuer be sclaudrid.

34 Jhesus seide to him, Treuli Y seie to thee, for in this nyyt bifer the cok crowe, thries thou schalt denye me. 35 Peter seide to him, Yhe, thouy it bihoue that Y die with thee, Y schal not denye thee. Also alle the disciplis seiden. 36 Thanne Jhesus cam with hem in to a toun, that is seid Jessamanye. And he seide to his disciplis, Sitte ye here, the while Y go thider, and preye. 37 And whanne he hadde take Peter, and twei sones of Zebedee, he bigan to be heuy and sori. 38 Thanne he seide to hem, My soule is soreful to the deeth; abide ye here, and wake ye with me. 39 And he yede forth a litil, and felde doun on his face, preiynge, and seiynge, My fader, if it is possible, passe this cuppe fro me; nethes not as Y wole, but as thou wolt. 40 And he cam to his disciplis, and foond hem slepynge. And he seide to Petir, So, whethir ye myyten not oon our wake with me? 41 Wake ye, and preye ye, that ye entre not in to temptacioun; for the spirit is redi, but the fleisch is sijk. 42 Eft the secounde tyme he wente, and preyede, seiynge, My fadir, if this cuppe may not passe, but Y drynke hym, thi wille be doon. 43 And eftsoone he cam, and foond hem slepynge; for her iyen weren heuyed. 44 And he lefte hem, and wente eftsoone, and preiede the thridde tyme, and seide the same word. 45 Thanne he cam to his disciplis, and seide to hem, Slepe ye now, and reste ye; loo! the our hath neiyed, and mannus sone schal be takun in to the hondis of synneris; 46 rise ye, go we; loo! he that schal take me, is nyy. 47 Yit the while he spak, lo! Judas, oon of the twelue, cam, and with hym a greet cumpeny, with swerdis and battis, sent fro the princis of prestis, and fro the eldre men of the puple. 48 And he that bitraiede hym, yaf to hem a tokene, and seide, Whom euer Y schal kisse, he it is; holde ye hym. 49 And anoon he cam to Jhesu, and seid, Haile, maister; 50 and he kisside hym. And Jhesus seide to hym, Freend, wherto art thou comun? Thanne thei camen niy, and leiden hoondis on Jhesu, and helden hym.

 51 And lo! oon of hem that weren with Jhesu, streihte out his hoond, and drouy out his swerd; and he smoot the seruaunt of the prince of prestis, and kitte of his ere. 52 Thanne Jhesus seide to hym, Turne thi swerd in to his place; for alle that taken swerd, schulen perische bi swerd. 53 Whether gessist thou, that Y may not preie my fadir, and he schal yyue to me now mo than twelue legiouns of aungels? 54 Hou thanne schulen the scriptures be fulfilled? for so it bihoueth to be doon. 55 In that our Jhesus seide to the puple, As to a theef ye han gon out, with swerdis and battis, to take me; dai bi dai Y sat among you, and tauyt in the temple, and ye helden me not. 56 But al this thing was don, that the scripturis of profetis schulden be fulfillid.
 Thanne alle the disciplis fledden, and leften hym. 57 And thei helden Jhesu, and ledden hym to Cayfas, the prince of prestis, where the scribis and the Farisees, and the eldre men of the puple weren comun togidere. 58 But Petir swede him afer, in to the halle of the prince of prestis; and he wente in, and sat with the seruauntis, to se the ende. 59 And the prince of prestis, and al the counsel souyten fals witnessing ayens Jhesu, that thei schulden take hym to deeth; 60 and thei founden not, whanne manye false witnessis weren comun. But at the laste, twei false witnessis camen, 61 and seiden, `This seide, Y may distruye the temple of God, and after the thridde dai bilde it ayen. 62 And the prince of prestis roos, and seide to hym, Answerist thou no thing to tho thingis, that these witnessen ayens thee? 63 But Jhesus was stille. And the prince of prestis seide to hym, Y coniure thee bi Iyuyng God, that thou seie to vs, if thou art Crist, the sone of God. 64 Jhesus seide to him, Thou hast seid; netheles Y seie to you, `fro hennus forth ye schulen se mannus sone sittinge at the riythalf of the vertu of God, and comynge in the cloudis of heuene. 65 Thanne the prince of prestis to-rente his clothis, and seide, He hath blasfemed; what yit han we nede to witnessis? lo! now ye han herd blasfemye; what semeth to you? 66 And thei answeriden, and seiden, He is gilty of deeth. 67 Thanne thei speten `in to his face, and smyten hym with buffatis; and othere yauen strokis with the pawme of her hondis in his face, 68 and seide, Thou Crist, arede to vs, who is he that smoot thee? 69 And Petir sat with outen in the halle; and a damysel cam to hym, and seide, Thou were with Jhesu of Galilee. 70 And he denyede bifer alle men, and seide, Y woot not what thou seist. 71 And whanne he yede out at the yate, another damysel say hym, and seide to hem that weren there, And this was with Jhesu of Nazareth. 72 And eftsoone he denyede with an ooth, For I knewe not the man. 73 And a litil aftir, thei that stooden camen, and seiden to Petir, Treuli thou art of hem; for thi speche makith thee knowun. 74 Thanne he bigan to warie and to swere, that he knewe not the man. And anoon the cok crewe. 75 And Petir bithouyte on the word of Jhesu, that he hadde seid, Bifore the cok crowe, thries thou schalt denye me. And he yede out, and wepte bitterli.

27 But whanne the morowtid was comun, alle the princis of prestis, and the eldre men of the puple token counsel ayens Jhesu, that thei schulden take hym to the deeth. 2 And thei ledde him boundun, and bitoken to Pilat of Pounce, iustice. 3 Thanne Judas that bitraiede hym, say that he was dampned, he repentide, and brouyte ayen the thretti pans to the princis of prestis, and to the elder men of the puple, 4 and seide, Y haue synned, bitraiynge riȝtful blood. And thei seiden, What to vs? bise thee. 5 And whanne he hadde cast forth the siluer in the temple, he passide forth, and yede, and hongide hym silf with a snare. 6 And the princis of prestis token the siluer, and seide, It is not leueful to putte it in to the treserie, for it is the prijs of blood. 7 And whanne thei hadden take counsel, thei bouyten with it a feeld of a potter, in to beryng of pilgrymys. 8 Herfor thilke feeld is clepid Acheldemac, that is, a feeld of blood, in to this dai. 9 Thanne that was fulfillid, that was seid bi the prophete Jeremye, seiynge, And thei han takun thretti pans, the prijs of a man preysid, whom thei preiseden of the children of Israel; 10 and thei yauen hem in to a feeld of a potter, as the Lord hath ordenyd to me. 11 And Jhesus stood bifor the domesman; and the iustice axide him, and seide, Art thou king of Jewis? 12 Jhesus seith to hym, Thou seist. And whanne he was accusid of the princis of prestis, and of the eldere men of the puple, he answeride no thing. 13 Thanne Pilat seith to him, Herist thou not, hou many witnessyngis thei seien ayens thee?

14 And he answeride not to hym ony word, so that the iustice wondride greetli. 15 But for a solempne dai the iustice was wont to delyuere to the puple oon boundun, whom thei wolden.
16 And he hadde tho a famous man boundun, that was seid Barrabas. 17 Therfor Pilate seide to hem, whanne thei weren to gidere, Whom wolen ye, that Y delyuere to you? whether Barabas, or Jhesu, that is seid Crist? 18 For he wiste, that bi enuye thei bitraiden hym. 19 And while he sat for domesman, his wijf sente to hym, and seide, No thing to thee and to that iust man; for Y haue suffrid this dai many thingis for hym, bi a visioun. 20 Forsothe the prince of prestis, and the eldere men counseiliden the puple, that thei schulden axe Barabas, but thei schulden distrye Jhesu. 21 But the iustice answeride, and seide to hem, Whom of the tweyn wolen ye, that be delyuerit to you? And thei seiden, Barabas. 22 Pilat seith to hem, What thanne schal Y do of Jhesu, that is seid Crist? 23 Alle seien, `Be he crucified. The iustice seith to hem, What yuel hath he doon? And thei crieden more, and seiden, Be he crucified. 24 And Pilat seyng that he profitide no thing, but that the more noyse was maad, took watir, and waischide hise hondis bifer the puple, and seide, Y am gittles of the blood of this riytful man; bise you. 25 And al the puple answeride, and seide, His blood be on vs, and on oure children. 26 Thanne he deliuerede to hem Barabas, but he took to hem Jhesu scourgid, to be crucified. 27 Thanne knyytis of the iustice token Jhesu in the moot halle, and gadriden to hym al the cumpeny `of knyytis. 28 And thei vnclothiden hym, and diden aboute hym a reed mantil; 29 and thei foldiden a coroun of thornes, and putten on his heed, and a rehed in his riyt hoond; and thei kneliden bifer hym, and scorniden hym, and seiden, Heil, kyng of Jewis. 30 And thei speten on hym, and tooken a rehed, and smoot his heed. 31 And aftir that thei hadden scorned him, thei vnclothiden hym of the mantil, and thei clothiden hym with hise clothis, and lediden hym to `crucifien hym. 32 And as thei yeden out, thei founden a man of Cirenen comynge fro the toun, Symont bi name; thei constreyneden hym to take his cross. 33 And thei camen in to a place that is clepid Golgatha, that is, the place of Caluarie. 34 And thei yauen hym to drynke wyne meynd with galle; and whanne he hadde tastid, he wolde not drynke. 35 And aftir that thei hadden crucified hym, thei departiden his clothis, and kesten lotte, to fulfille that is seid bi the prophete, seiynge, Thei partiden to hem my clothis, and on my clooth thei kesten lott. 36 And thei seten, and kepten him; 37 and setten aboue his heed his cause writun, This is Jhesu of Nazareth, kyng of Jewis. 38 Thanne twey theues weren crucified with hym, oon on the riythalf, and oon on the lefthalf. 39 And men that passiden forth blasfemeden hym, 40 mouynge her heedis, and seiynge, Vath to thee, that distriest the temple of God, and in the thridde dai bildist it ayen; saue thou thi silf; if thou art the sone of God, come doun of the cross. 41 Also and princis of prestis scornynge, with scribes and elder men, 42 seiden, He made othere men saaf, he may not make hym silf saaf; if he is kyng of Israel, come he now doun fro the crosse, and we bileuen to hym; 43 he tristide in God; delyuer he hym now, if he wole; for he seide, That Y am Goddis sone. 44 And the theues, that weren crucified with hym, vpbreididen hym of the same thing. 45 But fro the sixte our derknessis weren maad on al the erthe, to the nynthe our. 46 And aboute the nynthe our Jhesus criede with a greet vois, and seide, Heli, Heli, lamazabatany, that is, My God, my God, whi hast thou forsake me? 47 And summen that stoden there, and herynge, seiden, This clepith Helye. 48 And anoon oon of hem rennyng, took and fillide a spounge with vynegre, and puttide on a rehed, and yaf to hym to drynke. 49 But othir seiden, Suffre thou; se we whether Helie come to deliuer hym. 50 Forsothe Jhesus eftsoone criede with a greet voyce, and yaf vp the goost. 51 And lo! the veil of the temple was to-rent in twey parties, fro the hiest to the lowest. And the erthe schoke, and stoonus weren cloue; and brielis weren openyd, 52 and many bodies of seyntis that hadden slepte, rysen vp. 53 And thei yeden out of her brielis, and aftir his resurreccioun thei camen in to the holi citee, and apperiden to many. 54 And the centurien and thei that weren with hym kepinge Jhesu, whanne thei saien the erthe schakynge, and tho thingis that weren doon, thei dredden greetli, 55 and seiden, Verili this was Goddis sone.

 And ther weren there many wymmen afer, that sueden Jhesu fro Galilee, and mynystriden to hym. 56 Among whiche was Marie Magdalene, and Marie, the modir of James, and of Joseph, and the modir of Zebedees sones. 57 But whanne the euenyng was come, ther cam a riche man of Armathi, Joseph bi name, and he was a disciple of Jhesu. 58 He wente to Pilat, and axide the bodi of Jhesu. 59 Thanne Pilat comaundide the bodie to be youun.
 And whanne the bodi was takun, Joseph lappide it in a clene sendel, 60 and leide it in his newe briel, that he hadde hewun in a stoon; and he walewide a greet stoon to the dore of the briel, and wente awei. 61 But Marie Maudelene and anothir Marie weren there, sittynge ayens the sepulcre. 62 And on `the tother dai, that is aftir pask euen, the princis of prestis and the Farisees camen togidere to Pilat, 63 and seiden, Sir, we han mynde, that thilke giloure seide yit lyuyng, Aftir thre daies Y schal rise ayen to lijf. 64 Therfor comaunde thou, that the sepulcre be kept in to the thridde dai; lest hise disciplis comen, and stelen hym, and seie to the puple, He hath rise fro deeth; and the laste errour schal be worse than the formere. 65 Pilat seide to hem, Ye han the kepyng; go ye, kepe ye as ye kunnen. 66 And thei yeden forth, and kepten the sepulcre, markyng the stoon, with keperis.

28 But in the euentid of the sabat, that bigynneth to schyne in the firste dai of the woke, Marie Mawdelene cam, and another Marie, to se the sepulcre. 2 And lo! ther was maad a greet ertheschakyng; for the aungel of the Lord cam down fro heuene, and neiyede, and turnede awei the stoon, and sat theron. 3 And his lokyng was as leit, and hise clothis as snowe; 4 and for drede of hym the keperis weren afeerd, and thei weren maad as deede men. 5 But the aungel answeride, and seide to the wymmen, Nyle ye drede, for Y woot that ye seken Jhesu, that was crucified; 6 he is not here, for he is risun, as he seide; come ye, and se ye the place, where the Lord was leid. 7 And go ye soone, and seie ye to his disciplis, that he is risun. And lo! he schal go bfore you in to Galilee; there ye schulen se hym. 8 Lo! Y haue biforseid to you. And thei wenten out soone fro the biriels, with drede and greet ioie, rennyng to telle to hise disciplis. 9 And lo! Jhesus mette hem, and seide, Heile ye. And thei neiyeden, and heelden his feet, and worschipiden him. 10 Thanne Jhesus seide to hem, Nyle ye drede; go ye, `telle ye to my britheren, that thei go in to Galile; there thei schulen se me. 11 And whanne thei weren goon, lo! summe of the keperis camen in to the citee, and telden to the princis of prestis alle thingis that weren doon. 12 And whanne thei weren gaderid togidere with the elder men, and hadden take her counseil, thei yauen to the knytis miche monei, and seiden, Seie ye, 13 that hise disciplis camen bi nytt, and han stolen hym, while ye slepten. 14 And if this be herd of the iustice, we schulen counseile hym, and make you sikir. 15 And whanne the monei was takun, thei diden, as thei weren tauyt. And this word is pupplischid among the Jewis, til in to this day. 16 And the enleuen disciplis wenten in to Galilee, in to an hille, where Jhesus hadde ordeyned to hem. 17 And thei sayn hym, and worschipiden; but summe of hem doutiden. 18 And Jhesus cam nyy, and spak to hem, and seide, Al power in heuene and in erthe is youun to me. 19 Therfor go ye, and teche alle folkis, baptisyng hem in the name of the Fadir, and of the Sone, and of the Hooli Goost; 20 techyng hem to kepe alle thingis, what euer thingis Y haue comaundid to you; and lo! Y am with you in alle daies, in to the ende of the world. (aiōn g165)

1 The bigynnyng of the gospel of Jhesu Crist, the sone of God.
2 As it is writun in Ysaie, the prophete, Lo! Y sende myn aungel bifor thi face, that schal make thi weie redi bifor thee. 3 The vois of a crier in desert, Make ye redi the weie of the Lord, make ye hise paththis riht. 4 Joon was in desert baptisyng, and prechyng the baptyng of penaunce, in to remissioun of synnes.
5 And al the cuntre of Judee wente out to hym, and alle men of Jerusalem; and thei weren baptisid of hym in the flom Jordan, and knoulechiden her synnes. 6 And Joon was clothid with heeris of camels, and a girdil of skyn was about hise leendis; and he ete hony soukis, and wilde hony, and prechide, 7 and seide, A stronger than Y schal come aftir me, and Y am not worthi to knele doun, and vnlace his schoone. 8 Y haue baptisid you in watir; but he schal baptise you in the Hooli Goost. 9 And it was don in tho daies, Jhesus cam fro Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptisid of Joon in Jordan. 10 And anoon he wente up of the watir, and saye heuenes opened, and the Hooli Goost comynge doun as a culuer, and dwellynge in hym. 11 And a vois was maad fro heuenes, Thou art my loued sone, in thee Y am plesid.
12 And anoon the Spirit puttide hym forth in to deseert. 13 And he was in deseert fourti daies and fourti nyttis, and was temptid of Sathanas, and he was with beestis, and aungels mynystriden to hym. 14 But aftir that Joon was takun, Jhesus cam in to Galilee, and prechide the gospel of the kyngdoom of God, 15 and seide, That the tyme is fulfillid, and the kyngdoom of God schal come nyy; do ye penaunce, and bileue ye to the gospel.
16 And as he passide bisidis the see of Galilee, he say Symount, and Andrew, his brother, castynge her nettis in to the see; for thei weren fischeris. 17 And Jhesus seide to hem, Come ye aftir me; Y schal make you to be maad fischeris of men. 18 And anoon thei leften the nettis, and sueden hym. 19 And he yede forth fro thennus a litil, and siy James of Zebedee, and Joon, his brother, in a boot makynge nettis. 20 And anoon he clepide hem; and thei leften Zebedee, her fadir, in the boot with hiryd seruauntis, and thei suweden hym. 21 And thei entriden in to Capharnaum, and anoon in the sabatys he yede in to a synagoge, and tauyte hem. 22 And thei wondriden on his teching; for he tauyte hem, as he that hadde power, and not as scribis. 23 And in the synagoge of hem was a man in an vnclene spirit, and he criede out, 24 and seide, What to vs and to thee, thou Jhesu of Nazareth? hast thou come to distrie vs? Y woot that thou art the hooli of God. 25 And Jhesus thretenede hym, and seide, Wex doumbe, and go out of the man. 26 And the vnclene spirit debreidyng hym, and cryng with greet vois, wente out fro hym. 27 And alle men wondriden, so that thei souyten with ynne hem silf, and seiden, What thing is this? what newe doctrine is this? for in power he comaundith to vnclene spiritis, and thei obeyen to hym. 28 And the fame of hym wente forth anoon in to al the cuntree of Galilee. 29 And anoon thei yeden out of the synagoge, and camen into the hous of Symount and of Andrewe, with James and Joon. 30 And the modir of Symountis wijf lay sijk in fyueris; and anoon thei seien to hym of

 hyr. 31 And he cam nyy, and areride hir, and whanne he hadde take hir hoond, anoon the feuer lefte hir, and sche seruede hem.
 32 But whanne the euentid was come, and the sonne was gon doun, thei brouyten to hym alle that weren of male ese, and hem that hadden fendis. 33 And al the citee was gaderid at the yate. 34 And he heelide many, that hadden dyuerse sijknnessis, and he castide out many feendis, and he suffride hem not to speke, for thei knewen hym. 35 And he roos ful eerli, and yede out, and wente in to a desert place, and preiede there. 36 And Symount sude hym, and thei that weren with hym. 37 And whanne thei hadden founde hym, thei seiden to hym, That alle men seken thee. 38 And he seide to hem, Go we in to the next townes and citees, that Y preche also there, for her to Y cam. 39 And he prechide in the synagogis of hem, and in al Galilee, and castide out feendis. 40 And a leprouse man cam to hym, and bisouyte, and knelide, and seide, If thou wolt, thou maist clense me. 41 And Jhesus hadde mercy on hym, and streihte out his hoond, and towchide hym, and seide to hym, I wole, be thou maad cleene. 42 And whanne he hadde seide this, anon the lepre partyde away fro hym, and he was clensyd. 43 And Jhesus thretenede hym, and anon Jhesus putte hym out, 44 and seyde to hym, Se thou, seye to no man; but go, schewe thee to the pryncys of prestys, and offre for thi clensynge in to wytnessyng to hem, tho thingis that Moyses bad. 45 And he yede out, and bigan to preche, and publische the word, so that now he myyte not go opynli in to the citee, but be withoutforth in desert placis; and thei camen to hym on alle sidis.

2 And eft he entride in to Cafarnaum, affir eihte daies. 2 And it was herd, that he was in an hous, and many camen to gidir, so that thei miyten not be in the hous, ne at the yate. And he spak to hem the word. 3 And there camen to hym men that brouyten a man sijk in palesie, which was borun of foure. 4 And whanne thei myyten not brynge hym to Jhesu for the puple, thei vnhileden the roof where he was, and openede it, and thei leten doun the bed in which the sijk man in palesie laye. 5 And whanne Jhesus hadde seyn the feith of hem, he seide to the sijk man in palesie, Sone, thi synnes ben foryouun to thee. 6 But there weren summe of the scribis sittynge, and thenkyng in her hertis, 7 What spekith he thus? He blasfemeth; who may foryyue synnes, but God aloone? 8 And whanne Jhesus hadde knowe this bi the Hooli Goost, that thei thouyten so with ynne hem silf, he seith to hem, What thenken ye these thingis in youre hertis?

9 What is liyter to seie to the sijk man in palesie, Synnes ben foryouun to thee, or to seie, Ryse, take thi bed, and walke? 10 But that ye wite that mannus sone hath power in erthe to foryyue synnes, he seide to the sijk man in palesie, Y seie to thee, 11 ryse vp, take thi bed, and go in to thin hous. 12 And anoon he roos vp, and whanne he hadde take the bed, he wente bifer alle men, so that alle men wondriden, and onoureden God, and seiden, For we seien neuer so. 13 And he wente out eftsoone to the see, and al the puple cam to hym; and he tauyte hem. 14 And whanne he passide, he saiy Leuy `of Alfei sittynge at the tolbothe, and he seide to hym, Sue me. And he roos, and sude hym. 15 And it was doon, whanne he sat at the mete in his hous, many pupplicans and synful men saten togidere at the mete with Jhesu and hise disciplis; for there weren many that folewiden hym. 16 And scribis and Farisees seyng, that he eet with pupplicans and synful men, seiden to hise disciplis, Whi etith and drynkith youre maystir with pupplicans and synneris?
17 Whanne this was herd, Jhesus seide to hem, Hoole men han no nede to a leche, but thei that ben yuel at eese; for Y cam not to clepe iust men, but synneris. 18 And the disciplis of Joon and the Farisees weren fastynge; and thei camen, and seien to hym, Whi fasten the disciplis of Joon, and the Farisees fasten, but thi disciplis fasten not? 19 And Jhesus seide to hem, Whether the sones of sposailis moun faste, as longe as the spouse is with hem? As long tyme as thei haue the spouse with hem, thei moun not faste. 20 But daies schulen come, whanne the spouse schal be takun awei fro hem, and thanne thei schulen faste in tho daies. 21 No man sewith a patche of newe clooth to an elde clooth, ellis he takith awei the newe patche fro the elde, and a more brekyng is maad. 22 And no man puttith newe wyn in to elde botelis, ellis the wyn schal breste the botels, and the wyn schal be sched out, and the botels schulen perische. But newe wyn schal be put into newe botels. 23 And it was doon eftsoones, whanne the Lord walkid in the sabotis bi the cornes, and hise disciplis bigunnen to passe forth, and plucke eeris of the corn. 24 And the Farisees seiden to hym, Lo! what thi disciplis doon in sabotis, that is not leeuful. 25 And he seide to hem, Radden ye neuer what Dauid dide, whanne he hadde nede, and he hungride, and thei that weren with hym? 26 Hou he wente in to the hous of God, vndur Abiathar, prince of prestis, and eete looues of proposicioun, which it was not leeuful to ete, but to preestis aloone, and he yaf to hem that weren with hym. 27 And he seide to hem, The sabat is maad for man, and not a man for the sabat; 28 and so mannus sone is lord also of the sabat.

3 And he entride eftsoone in to the synagoge, and there was a man hauynge a drye hoond. 2 And thei aspieden hym, if he helide in the sabatis, to accuse him. 3 And he seide to the man that hadde a drie hoond, Rise in to the myddil. 4 And he seith to hem, Is it leeuful to do wel in the sabatis, ether yuel? to make a soul saaf, ether to leese? And thei weren stille. 5 And he biheeld hem aboute with wraththe, and hadde sorewe on the blyndnesse of her herte, and seith to the man, Hold forth thin hoond. And he helde forth, and his hoond was restorid to hym. 6 Sotheli Farisees yeden out anoon, and maden a counsel with Erodians ayens hym, hou thei schulden lese hym. 7 But Jhesus with hise disciplis wente to the see; and myche puple fro Galilee and Judee sude hym, 8 and fro Jerusalem, and fro Ydume, and fro biyondis Jordan, and thei that weren aboute Tire and Sidon, a greet multitude, heringe the thingis that he dide, and cam to hym. 9 And Jhesus seide to hise disciplis, that the boot schulde serue hym, for the puple, lest thei thristen hym; 10 for he heelide many, so that thei felden fast to hym, to touche hym. And hou many euer hadde syknessis, and vnclene spirits, 11 whanne thei seyen hym, felden down to hym, and crieden, seiynge, Thou art the sone of God. 12 And greetli he manasside hem, that thei schulden not make hym knowun. 13 And he wente in to an hille, and clepide to hym whom he wolde; and thei camen to hym. 14 And he made, that there weren twelue with hym, to sende hem to preche. 15 And he yaf to hem pouwer to heele sijknnessis, and to caste out feendis. 16 And to Symount he yaf a name Petre, and he clepide James of Zebede and Joon, 17 the brother of James, and he yaf to hem names Boenarges, that is, sones of thundryng. 18 And he clepide Andrew and Filip, and Bartholomew and Matheu, and Thomas and James Alfey, and Thadee, 19 and Symount Cananee, and Judas Scarioth, that bitraiede hym. 20 And thei camen to an hous, and the puple cam togidere eftsoone, so that thei miyten not ete breed. 21 And whanne his kynnysmen hadden herd, thei wenten out `to holde him; for thei seiden, that he is turned in to woodnesse. 22 And the scribis that camen down fro Jerusalem, seiden, That he hath Belsabub, and that in the prince of deuelis he castith out fendis. 23 And he clepide hem togidir, and he seide to hem in parablis, Hou may Sathanas caste out Sathanas? 24 And if a rewme be departid ayens it silf, thilke rewme may not stonde. 25 And if an hous be disparpoilid on it silf, thilke hous may not stonde. 26 And if Sathanas hath risun ayens hym silf, he is departid, and he schal not mowe stonde, but hath an ende. 27 No man may go in to a stronge mannus hous, and take away hise vessels, but he bynde first the stronge man, and thanne he schal spoile his hous. 28 Treuli Y seie to you, that alle synnes and blasfemyes, bi whiche thei han blasfemed, schulen be foryouun to the sones of men. 29 But he that blasfemeth ayens the Hooli Goost, hath not remissioun in to with outen ende, but he schal be gilty of euerlastyng trespass. (aion g165, aionios g166) 30 For thei seiden, He hath an vnclene spirit. 31 And his modir and britheren camen, and thei stoden withoutforth, and senten to hym, and clepiden hym. 32 And the puple sat aboute hym; and thei seien to hym, Lo! thi modir and thi britheren with outforth seken thee. 33 And he answeride to hem, and seide, Who is my modir and my britheren? 34 And he bihelde thilke that saten aboute hym, and seide, Lo! my modir and my britheren. 35 For who that doith the wille of God, he is my brothir, and my sistir, and modir.

4 And eft Jhesus bigan to teche at the see; and myche puple was gaderid to hym, so that he wente in to a boot, and sat in the see, and al the puple was aboute the see on the loond. 2 And he tauyte hem in parablis many thingis. And he seide to hem in his techyng, 3 Here ye. Lo! a man sowynge goith out to sowe. 4

And the while he sowith, summe seed felde aboute the weie, and briddis of heuene camen, and eeten it. 5 Othere felde doun on stony places, where it had not myche erthe; and anoon it spronge vp, for it had not depnesse of erthe. 6 And whanne the sunne roos vp, it welewide for heete, and it driede vp, for it hadde no roote. 7 And othere felde doun in to thornes, and thornes sprongen vp, and strangliden it, and it yaf not fruyt. 8
 And other felde doun in to good loond, and yaf fruyt, springynge vp, and wexynge; and oon brouyte thretti foold, and oon sixti fold, and oon an hundrid fold. 9 And he seide, He that hath eeris of heryng, here he. 10 And whanne he was bi hym silf, tho twelue that weren with hym axiden hym to expowne the parable. 11 And he seide to hem, To you it is youun to knowe the priuete of the kyngdom of God. But to hem that ben with outforth, alle thingis be maad in parablis, that thei seyng se, 12 and se not, and thei herynge here and vnderstonde not; lest sum tyme thei be conuertid, and synnes be foryouun to hem. 13 And he seide to hem, Knowe not ye this parable? and hou ye schulen knowe alle parablis? 14 He that sowith, sowith a word.
15 But these it ben that ben aboute the weie, where the word is sowun; and whanne thei han herd, anoon cometh Satanas, and takith awei the word that is sowun in her hertis. 16 And in lijk maner ben these that ben sowun on stony placis, whiche whanne thei han herd the word, anoon thei taken it with ioye; 17 and thei han not roote in hem silf, but thei ben lastynge a litil tyme; afterward whanne tribulacioun risith, and persecucioun for the word, anoon thei ben sclaudrid. 18 And ther ben othir that ben sowun in thornes; these it ben that heren the word, 19 and disese of the world, and disseit of ritchessis, and othir charge of coueytise entrith, and stranglith the word, and it is maad with out fruyt. (aiōn g165) 20 And these it ben that ben sowun on good lond, whiche heren the word, and taken, and maken fruyt, oon thritti fold, oon sixti fold, and oon an hundrid fold. 21 And he seide to hem, Wher a lanterne cometh, that it be put vndur a buschel, or vndur a bed? nay, but that it be put on a candilstike? 22 Ther is no thing hid, that schal not be maad opyn; nethir ony thing is pryuey, that schal not come in to opyn. 23 If ony man haue eeris of heryng, here he. 24 And he seide to hem, Se ye what ye heren. In what mesure ye meten, it schal be metun to you ayen, and be cast to you. 25 For it schal be youun to hym that hath, and it schal be takun awei fro him that hath not, also that that he hath. 26 And he seide, So the kingdom of God is, as if a man caste seede in to the erthe, 27 and he sleepe, and it rise up niyt and dai, and brynge forth seede, and wexe faste, while he woot not. 28 For the erthe makith fruyt, first the gras, aftirward the ere, and aftir ful fruyt in the ere. 29 And whanne of it silf it hath brouyt forth fruyt, anoon he sendith a sikil, for repyng tyme is come. 30 And he seide, To what thing schulen we likne the kyngdom of God? or to what parable schulen we comparisoun it? 31 As a corne of seneuei, which whanne it is sowun in the erthe, is lesse than alle seedis that ben in the erthe; 32 and whanne it is sprongun up, it waxith in to a tre, and is maad gretter than alle erbis; and it makith grete braunchis, so that briddis of heuene moun dwelle vndur the schadewe therof. 33 And in many suche parablis he spak to hem the word, as thei myyten here; 34 and he spak not to hem with out parable. But he expownede to hise disciplis alle thingis bi hemsilf. 35 And he seide to hem in that dai, whanne euenyng was come, Passe we ayenward. 36 And thei leften the puple, and token hym, so that he was in a boot; and othere bootys weren with hym. 37 And a greet storm of wynde was maad, and keste wawis in to the boot, so that the boot was ful. 38 And he was in the hyndir part of the boot, and slepte on a pilewe. And thei reisen hym, and seien to hym, Maistir, perteyneth it not to thee, that we perischen? 39 And he roos vp, and manasside the wynde, and seide to the see, Be stille, wexe doumbe. And the wynde ceesside, and greet pesiblenesse was maad. 40 And he seide to hem, What dreden ye? `Ye han no feith yit? 41 And thei dredden with greet drede, and seiden `ech to other, Who, gessist thou, is this? for the wynde and the see obeschen to hym.

5 And thei camen ouer the see in to the cuntree of Gerasenes. 2 And aftir that he was goon out of the boot, anon a man in an vncleene spirit ran out of birielis to hym. 3 Which man hadde an hous in biriels, and nether with cheynes now myyte ony man bynde hym. 4 For ofte tymes he was boundun in stockis and chaynes, and he hadde broke the chaynes, and hadde broke the stockis to smale gobetis, and no man myyte make hym tame. 5 And euermore, nytyt and dai, in birielis and in hillis, he was crynge and betynge hym silf with stoonus. 6 And he siy Jhesus afer, and ran, and worschipide hym. 7 And he criede with greet voice, and seide, What to me and to thee, thou Jhesu, the sone of the hiyest God? Y coniure thee bi God, that thou turmente me not. 8 And Jhesus seide to hym, Thou vnclene spirit, go out fro the man. 9 And Jhesus axide hym, What is thi name? And he seith to hym, A legioun is my name; for we ben many. 10 And he preiede Jhesu myche, that he schulde not putte hym out of the cuntrei. 11 And there was there aboute the hille a greet flok of swyn lesewyng. 12 And the spiritis preieden Jhesu, and seiden, Sende vs into the swyn, that we entre in to hem. 13 And anoon Jhesus grauntide to hem. And the vnclene spiritis yeden out, and entriden in to the swyn, and with a greet birre the flocke was cast doun in to the see, a twei thousynde, and thei weren dreynt in the see. 14 And thei that kepten hem, fledden, and tolden in to the citee, and in to the feeldis; and thei wenten out, to se what was don. 15 And thei camen to Jhesu, and sayn hym that hadde be traelid of the feend, syttyng clothid, and of hool mynde; and thei dredden. 16 And thei that saien, hou it was don to hym that hadde a feend, and of the swyne, telden to hem. 17 And thei bigunnen to preie hym, that he schulde go a wei fro her coostis. 18 And whanne he yede up in to a boot, he that was traelid of the deuel, bigan to preie hym, that he schulde be with hym. 19 But Jhesus resseyuede hym not, but seide to hym, Go thou in to thin hous to thine, and telle to hem, hou grete thingis the Lord hath don to thee, and hadde merci of thee. 20 And he wente forth, and bigan to preche in Decapoli, hou grete thingis Jhesus hadde don to hym; and alle men wondriden. 21 And whanne Jhesus hadde gon vp in to the boot eftsoone ouer the see, myche puple cam togidere to him, and was aboute the see. 22 And oon of the princis of synagogis, bi name Jayrus, cam, and siy hym, and felde doun at hise feet, 23 and preyede hym myche, and seide, My douyter is nyy deed; come thou, putte thin hoond on her, that sche be saaf, and lyue. 24 And he wente forth with hym, and myche puple sude hym, and thruste hym. 25 And a womman hadde ben in the blodi fluxe twelue yeer, 26 and hadde resseyued many thingis of ful many lechis, and hadde spendid al hir good, and was nothing amendid, but was rather the wors, whanne sche hadde herd of Jhesu, 27 sche cam among the puple bihynde, and touchide his cloth. 28 For sche seide, That if Y touche yhe his cloth, Y schal be saaf. 29 And anoon the welle of hir blood was dried vp, and sche felide in bodi that sche was heelid of the siknesse. 30 And anoon Jhesus knewe in hym silf the vertu that was goon out of hym, and turnede to the puple, and seide, Who touchide my clothis? 31 And hise disciplis seiden to hym, Thou seest the puple thristyng thee, and seist, Who touchide me? 32 And Jhesus lokide aboute to se hir that hadde don this thing. 33 And the womman dredde, and quakide, witynge that it was doon in hir, and cam, and felde doun bifer hym, and seide to hym al the treuthe. 34 And Jhesus seide to hyr, Douytir, thi feith hath maad thee saaf; go in pees, and he thou hool of thi sijknesse. 35 Yit while he spak, messangeris camen to the prince of the synagoge, and seien, Thi douytir is deed; what traueilist thou the maistir ferther? 36 But whanne the word was herd that was seid, Jhesus seide to the prince of the synagoge, Nyle thou drede, oonli bileue thou. 37 And he took no man to sue hym, but Petir, and James, and Joon, the brother of James. 38 And thei camen in to the hous of the prince of the synagoge. And he saie noyse, and men wepyng and weilyng myche. 39 And he yede ynne, and seide to hem, What ben ye troublid, and wepen? The damesel is not deed, but slepith. 40 And thei scorneden hym. But whanne alle weren put out, he takith the fadir and the modir of the damesel, and hem that weren with hym, and thei entren, where the damysel laye. 41 And he helde the hoond of the damesel, and seide to hir, Tabita, cumy, that is to seie, Damysel,

Y seie to thee, arise. 42 And anoon the damysel roos, and walkide; and sche was of twelue yeer. And thei weren abaischid with a greet stonying. And he comaundide to hem greetli, that no man schulde wite it. 43 And he comaundide to yyue hir mete.

And Eroude herde hym, and he dide many thingis, and gladli herde hym. 21 And whanne a couenable dai was fallun, Eroude in his birthdai made a soper to the princis, and tribunes, and to the grettest of Galilee. 22 And whanne the douyter of thilke Erodias was comun ynne, and daunside, and pleside to Eroude, and also to men that saten at the mete, the kyng seide to the damysel, Axe thou of me what thou wolt, and Y schal yyue to thee. 23 And he swore to hir, That what euer thou axe, Y schal yyue to thee, thouy it be half my kyngdom. 24 And whanne sche hadde goon out, sche seide to hir modir, What schal Y axe? And sche seide, The heed of Joon Baptist. 25 And whanne sche was comun ynne anoon with haast to the kyng, sche axide, and seide, Y wole that anoon thou yyue to me in a dische the heed of Joon Baptist. 26 And the kyng was sori for the ooth, and for men that saten togidere at the meete he wolde not make hir sori; 27 but sente a manqueller and comaundide, that Joones heed were brouyt in a dissche.

And he bihedide hym in the prisoun, 28 and brouyte his heed in a disch, and yaf it to the damysel, and the damysel yaf to hir modir. 29 And whanne this thing was herd, hise disciplis camen, and token his bodi, and leiden it in a briel. 30 And the apostlis camen togidere to Jhesu, and telden to hym alle thingis, that thei hadden don, and tauyt. 31 And he seide to hem, Come ye bi you silf in to a desert place; and reste ye a litil. For there were many that camen, and wenten ayen, and thei hadden not space to ete. 32 And thei yeden in to a boot, and wenten in to a desert place bi hem silf. 33 And thei sayn hem go awei, and many knewen, and thei wenten afoote fro alle citees, and runnen thidur, and camen bifor hem. 34 And Jhesus yede out, and saiȝ myche puple, and hadde reuth on hem, for thei weren as scheep not hauynge a scheepherd. And he bigan to teche hem many thingis. 35 And whanne it was forth daies, hise disciplis camen, and seiden, This is a desert place, and the tyme is now passid; 36 lete hem go in to the nexte townes and villagis, to bie hem meete to ete. 37 And he answeride, and seide to hem, Yyue ye to hem to ete. And thei seiden to hym, Go we, and bie we looues with two hundrid pens, and we schulen yyue to hem to ete. 38 And he seith to hem, Hou many looues han ye? Go ye, and se. And whanne thei hadden knowe, thei seien, Fyue, and two fischis. 39 And he comaundide to hem, that thei schulden make alle men sitte to mete bi cumpanyes, on greene heye. 40 And thei saten doun bi parties, bi hundridis, and bi fifties. 41 And whanne he hadde take the fyue looues, and twei fischis, he biheelde in to heuene, and blesside, and brak looues, and yaf to hise disciplis, that thei schulden sette bifor hem. And he departide twei fischis to alle; 42 and alle eeten, and weren fulfillid. 43 And thei token the relifs of brokun metis, twelue cofyns ful, and of the fischis.

44 And thei that eeten, weren fyue thousynde of men. 45 And anoon he maad hise disciplis to go up in to a boot, to passe bifer hym ouer the se to Bethsaida, the while he lefte the puple. 46 And whanne he hadde left hem, he wente in to an hille, to preye.

47 And whanne it was euen, the boot was in the myddil of the see, and he aloone in the loond; 48 and he say hem trauelynge in rowyng; for the wynde was contrarie to hem. And aboute the fourthe wakyng of the nytyt, he wandride on the see, and cam to hem, and wolde passe hem. 49 And as thei sayn hym wandrynge on the see, thei gessiden that it weren a fantum, and crieden out; 50 for alle sayn hym, and thei weren afraied. And anoon he spak with hem, and seide to hem, Triste ye, Y am; nyle ye drede. 51 And he cam vp to hem in to the boot, and the wynde ceesside. And thei wondriden more `with ynne hem silf; 52 for thei vndurstoden not of the looues; for her herte was blyndid. 53 And whanne thei weren passid ouer the see, thei camen in to the lond of Genasareth, and settiden to loond. 54 And whanne thei weren gon out of the boot, anoon thei knewen hym. 55 And thei ranne thorou al that cuntre, and bigunnen to brynge sijk men in beddis on eche side, where thei herden that he was. 56 And whidur euer `he entride in to villagis, ethir in to townes, or in to citees, thei setten sijk men in stretis, and preiden hym, that thei schulden touche namely the hemme of his cloth; and hou many that touchiden hym, weren maad saaf.

7 And the Farisees and summe of the scribis camen fro Jerusalem togidir to hym. 2 And whanne thei hadden seen summe of hise disciplis ete breed with vnwaisschen hoondis, thei blameden. 3 The Farisees and alle the Jewis eten not, but

thei waisschen ofte her hoondis, holdynge the tradiciouns of eldere men. 4 And whanne thei turnen ayen fro chepyng, thei eten not, but thei ben waisschen; and many other thingis ben, `that ben taken `to hem to kepe, wasschyngis of cuppis, and of watir vessels, and of vessels of bras, and of beddis. 5 And Farisees and scribis axiden hym, and seiden, Whi gon not thi disciplis affir the tradicioun of eldere men, but with vnwasschen hondis thei eten breed? 6 And he answeride, and seide to hem, Ysaie prophesiede wel of you, ypocritis, as it is writun, This puple worschipith me with lippis, but her herte is fer fro me; 7 and in veyn thei worschipen me, techinge the doctrines and the heestis of men. 8 For ye leeuën the maundement of God, and holden the tradiciouns of men, wasschyngis of watir vessels, and of cuppis; and many othir thingis lijk to these ye doon. 9 And he seide to hem, Wel ye han maad the maundement of God voide, `to kepe youre tradicioun. 10 For Moyses seide, Worschipe thi fadir and thi modir; and he that cursith fadir or modir, die he by deeth. 11 But ye seien, If a man seie to fadir or modir, Corban, that is, What euer yifte is of me, it schal profite to thee; 12 and ouer ye suffren not hym do ony thing to fadir or modir, 13 and ye breken the word of God bi youre tradicioun, that ye han youun; and ye don many suche thingis. 14 And he eftsoone clepide the puple, and seide to hem, Ye alle here me, and vndurstonde. 15 No thing that is withouten a man, that entrith in to hym, may defoule him; but tho thingis that comen forth of a man, tho it ben that defoulen a man. 16 If ony man haue eeris of hering, here he. 17 And whanne he was entrid in to an hous, fro the puple, hise disciplis axiden hym the parable. 18 And he seide to hem, Ye ben vnwise also. Vndurstonde ye not, that al thing without forth that entreth in to a man, may not defoule hym? 19 for it hath not entrid in to his herte, but in to the wombe, and bynethe it goith out, purgynge alle metis. 20 But he seide, The thingis that gon out of a man, tho defoulen a man. 21 For fro with ynnē, of the herte of men comen forth yuel thouytis, auowtries, 22 fornycaciouns, mansleyingis, theftis, auaricis, wickidnessis, gile, vnchastite, yuel iye, blasfemyes, pride, foli. 23 Alle these yuels comen forth fro with ynnē, and defoulen a man. 24 And Jhesus roos vp fro thennus, and wente in to the coostis of Tyre and of Sidon. And he yede in to an hous, and wolde that no man wiste; and he myyte not be hid. 25 For a womman, anoon as sche herd of hym, whos douytir hadde an vnclene spirit, entride, and fel doun at hise feet. 26 And the womman was hethen, of the generacioun of Sirofenyce. And sche preiede hym, that he wolde caste out a deuel fro hir douyter. 27 And he seide to hir, Suffre thou, that the children be fulfillid first; for it is not good to take the breed of children, and yyue to houndis. 28 And sche answeride, and seide to him, Yis, Lord; for litil whelpis eten vndur the bord, of the crummes of children. 29 And Jhesus seide to hir, Go thou, for this word the feend wente out of thi douytir.

30 And whanne sche was gon in to hir hous home, sche foonde the damysel liginge on the bed, and the deuel gon out fro hir. 31 And eftsoones Jhesus yede out fro the coostis of Tīre, and cam thorou Sidon to the see of Galilee, bitwixe the myddil of the coostis of Decapoleos. 32 And thei bryngen to hym a man deaf and doumbe, and preieden hym to leye his hoond on hym. 33 And he took hym asidis fro the puple, and puttide hise fyngris in to hise eris; and he spetide, and touchide his tonge. 34 And he bihelde in to heuene, and sorewide with ynnē, and seide, Effeta, that is, Be thou openyd. 35 And anoon hise eris weren openyd, and the boond of his tunge was vnboundun, and he spak riytli. 36 And he comaundide to hem, that thei schulden seie to no man; but hou myche he comaundide to hem, so myche more thei prechiden, 37 and bi so myche more thei wondriden, and seiden, He dide wel alle thingis, and he made deaf men to here, and dumble men to speke.

8 In tho daies eft, whanne myche puple was with Jhesu, and hadden not what thei schulden ete, whanne hise disciplis weren clepid togidir, 2 he seide to hem, I haue reuth on the puple, for lo! now the thridde dai thei abiden me, and han not what to ete; 3 and if Y leue hem fastynge in to her hous, thei schulen faile in the weie; for summe of hem camen fro fer. 4 And hise disciplis answerden to hym, Wherof schal a man mowe fille hem with looues here in wildirnesse? 5 And he axide hem, Hou many looues han ye? 6 Whiche seiden, Seuene. And he comaundide the puple to sitte down on the erthe. And he took the seuene looues, and dide thankyngis, and brak, and yaf to hise disciplis, that thei schulden sette forth. And thei settiden forth to the puple. 7 And thei hadden a few smale fischis; and he blesside hem, and comaundide, that thei weren sette forth. 8 And thei eten, and weren fulfillid; and thei token vp that that lefte of relifs, seuene lepis. 9 And thei that eeten, weren as foure thousynde of men; and he lefte hem. 10 And anoon he wente vp in to a boot, with hise disciplis, and cam in to the coostis of Dalmanytha. 11 And the Farisees wenten out, and bigunnen to dispyte with hym, and axiden a tokne of hym fro heuene, and temptiden hym. 12 And he sorewyng `with ynne in spirit, seide, What sekith this generacioun a tokne? Treuli Y seie to you, a tokene schal not be youun to this generacioun. 13 And he lefte hem, and wente vp eftsoone in to a boot, and wente ouer the see. 14 And thei foryaten to take breed, and thei hadden not with hem but o loof in the boot. 15 And he comaundide hem, and seide, Se ye, and `be war of the sowre dowy of Farisees, and of the sowrdowy of Eroude. 16 And thei thouyten, and seiden oon to anothir, For we han not looues. 17 And whanne this thing was knowun, Jhesus seide to hem, What thenken ye, for ye han not looues? Yit ye knowun not, ne vndurstonden; yit ye han youre herte blyndid. 18 Ye hauynge iyen, seen not, and ye hauynge eeris, heren not; nethir ye han mynde, 19 whanne Y brak fyue looues among fyue thousynde, and hou many cofynes ful of brokun meete `ye tokun vp? Thei seien to hym, Twelue. 20 Whanne also seuene looues among foure thousynde of men, hou many lepis of brokun mete tokun ye vp? 21 And thei seien to hym, Seuene. And he seide to hem, Hou vndurstonden ye not yit? 22 And thei camen to Bethsaida, and thei bryngen to hym a blynde man, and thei preieden hym, that he schulde touche hym. 23 And whanne he hadde take the blynde mannus hoond, he ledde hym out of the street, and spete in to hise iyen, and sette hise hoondis on hym; and he axide hym, if he saye ony thing. 24 And he bihelde, and seide, Y se men as trees walkynge. 25 Aftirward eftsoones he sette hise hondis on hise iyen, and he bigan to see, and he was restorid, so that he sai y cleerli alle thingis. 26 And he sente hym in to his hous, and seide, Go in to thin hous; and if thou goist in to the streete, seie to no man. 27 And Jhesus entride and hise disciplis in to the castels of Cesarye of Philip. And in the weie he axide hise disciplis, and seide to hem, Whom seien men that Y am? 28 Whiche answeriden to hym, and seiden, Summen seien,

Joon Baptist; other seien, Heli; and other seien, as oon of the prophetis. 29 Thanne he seith to hem, But whom seien ye that Y am? Petre answeride, and seide to hym, Thou art Crist. 30 And he chargide hem, that thei schulden not seie of hym to ony man. 31 And he bigan to teche hem, that it bihoueth mannus sone to suffre many thingis, and to be repreued of the elder men, and of the hiyest prestis, and the scribis, and to be slayn, and aftir thre dayes, to rise ayen. 32 And he spak pleynli the word. And Peter took hym, and bigan to blame hym, and seide, Lord, be thou merciful to thee, for this schal not be. 33 And he turnede, and sai y hise disciplis, and manasside Petir, and seide, Go after me, Satanas; for thou sauerist not tho thingis that ben of God, but tho thingis that ben of men. 34 And whanne the puple was clepid togidere, with hise disciplis, he seide to hem, If ony man wole come after me, denye he hym silf, and take his cros, and sue he me. 35 For he that wole make saaf his lijf, schal leese it; and he that leesith his lijf for me, and for the gospel, schal make it saaf. 36 For what profitith it to a man, if he wyne al the world, and do peiryng to his soule? 37 or what chaunging schal a man yyue for his soule? 38 But who that knoulechith me and my wordis in this generacioun avowtresse and synful, also mannus sone schal knouleche him, whanne he schal come in the glorie of his fadir, with his aungels.

9 And he seide to hem, Treuli Y seie to you, that there ben summen stondyng here, whiche schulen not taste deth, til thei seen the rewme of God comyng in vertu. 2 And aftir sixe daies Jhesus took Petre, and James, and Joon, and ledde hem bi hem silf aloone in to an hiy hille; and he was transfigurid bfor hem. 3 And hise clothis weren maad ful schynyng and white as snow, whiche maner white clothis a fuller may not make on erthe. 4 And Helie with Moises apperide to hem, and thei spaken with Jhesu. 5 And Petre answeride, and seide to Jhesu, Maister, it is good vs to be here; and make we here thre tabernaclis, oon to thee, oon to Moyses, and oon to Helie. 6 For he wiste not what he schulde seie; for thei weren agaste bi drede. 7 And ther was maad a cloude overschadewyng hem; and a vois cam of the cloude, and seide, This is my moost derworth sone, here ye hym. 8 And anoon thei bihelden aboute, and sayn no more ony man, but Jhesu oonli with hem. 9 And whanne thei camen doun fro the hille, he comaundide hem, that thei schulden not telle to ony man tho thingis that thei hadden seen, but whanne mannus sone hath risun ayen fro deeth. 10 And thei helden the word at hem silf, sekyng what this schulde be, whanne he hadde risun ayen fro deth. 11 And thei axiden hym, and seiden, What thanne seien Farisees and scribis, for it bihoueth `Helie to come first. 12 And he answeride, and seide to hem, Whanne Helie cometh, he schal first restore alle thingis; and as it is writun of mannus sone, that he suffre many thingis, and be dispisid.

13 And Y seie to you, that Helie is comun, and thei diden to hym what euer thingis thei wolden, as it is writun of hym. 14 And he comyng to hise disciplis, sai a greet company aboute hem, and scribis disputyng with hem. 15 And anoon al the puple seyng Jhesu, was astonyed, and thei dredden; and thei rennyng gretten hym. 16 And he axide hem, What disputen ye among you? 17 And oon of the company answerde, and seide, Mayster, Y haue brouyt to thee my sone, that hath a doumbe spirit; and where euer he takith hym, 18 he hurtliith hym doun, and he fometh, and betiith togidir with teeth, and wexith drye.

And Y seide to thi disciplis, that thei schulden caste hym out, and thei myyten not. 19 And he answeride to hem, and seide, Al thou generacioun out of bileue, hou longe schal Y be among you, hou longe schal Y suffre you? Brynge ye hym to me. 20 And thei brouyten hym. And whanne he had seyn him, anoon the spirit troublide him; and was throw down to grounde, and walewide, and fomed. 21 And he axide his fadir, Hou longe `is it, sith this `hath falle to hym? And he seide, Fro childhode; 22 and ofte he hath put hym in to fier, and in to watir, to leese hym; but if thou maiste ony thing, helpe vs, and haue merci on vs. 23 And Jhesus seide to hym, If thou maiste bileue, alle thingis ben possible to man that bileueth. 24 And anoon the fadir of the child criede with teeris, and seide, Lord, Y bileue; Lord, helpe thou myn vnbileue. 25 And whanne Jhesus hadde seyn the puple rennyng togidere, he manasside the vnclene spirit, and seide to hym, Thou deaf and doumbe spirit, Y comaunde thee, go out fro hym, and entre no more in to hym. 26 And he crynge, and myche to breidyng him, wente out fro hym; and he was maad as deed, so that many seiden, that he was deed. 27 And Jhesus helde his hoond, and lifte hym vp; and he roos. 28 And whanne he hadde entrid in to an hous, hise disciplis axiden hym priueli, Whi myyten not we caste hym out? 29 And he seide to hem, This kynde in no thing may go out, but in preier and fastyng. 30 And thei yeden fro thennus, and wente forth in to Galile; and thei wolden not, that ony man wiste. 31 And he tauyte hise disciplis, and seide to hem, For mannus sone schal be bitrayed in to the hondis of men, and thei schulen sle hym, and he slayn schal ryse ayen on the thridde day. 32 And thei knewen not the word, and dredden to axe hym. 33 And thei camen to Cafarnaum. And whanne thei weren in the hous, he axide hem, What tretiden ye in the weie? 34 And thei weren stille; for thei disputiden among hem in the weie, who of hem schulde be grettest. 35 And he sat, and clepide the twelue, and seide to hem, If ony man wole be the firste among you, he schal be the laste of alle, and the mynyster of alle. 36 And he took a child, and sette hym in the myddil of hem; and whanne he hadde biclippid hym, he seide to hem, 37 Who euer resseyueth oon of such children in my name, he resseyueth me; and who euer resseyueth me, he resseyueth not me aloone, but hym that sente me. 38 Joon answeride to hym, and seide, Maister, we sayn oon castynge out feendis in thi name, which sueth not vs, and we han forbodun hym. 39 And Jhesus seide, Nyle ye forbede him; for ther is no man that doith vertu in my name, and may soone speke yuel of me. 40 He that is not ayens vs, is for vs. 41 And who euer yyueth you a cuppe of coold water to drynke in my name, for ye ben of Crist, treuli Y seie to you, he schal not leese his mede. 42 And who euer schal sclandre oon of these litle that bileuen in me, it were betere to hym that a mylne stoon `of assis were don aboute his necke, and he were cast in to the see. 43 And if thin hoond sclandre thee, kitte it away; it is betere to thee to entre feble in to lijf, than haue two hondis, and go in to helle, in to fier that neuer schal be quenched, (Geenna g1067) 44 where the worm of hem dieth not, and the fier is not quenched. 45 And if thi foote sclandre thee, kitte it of; it is betere to thee to entre crokid in to euerlastynge lijf, than haue twei feet, and be sent in to helle of fier, that neuer schal be quenched, (Geenna g1067) 46 where the worme of hem dieth not, and the fier is not quenched. 47 That if thin iye sclandre thee, cast it out; it is betere to thee to entre gogil iyed in to the reume of God, than haue twey iyen, and be sent in to helle of fier, where the worme of hem dieth not, (Geenna g1067) 48 and the fier is not quenched. 49 And every man schal be salted with fier, and every slain sacrifice schal be made sauerie with salt. 50 Salt is good; if salt be vnsauerie, in what thing schulen ye make it sauerie? Haue ye salt among you, and haue ye pees among you.

10 And Jhesus roos vp fro thennus, and cam in to the coostis of Judee ouer Jordan; and eftsoones the puple cam togidere to hym, and as he was wont, eftsoone he tauyte hem. 2 And the Farisees camen, and axiden hym, Whether it be leueful to a man to leue his wijf? and thei temptiden hym. 3 And he answeride, and seide to hem, What comaundide Moises to you? 4 And thei seiden, Moises suffride to write a libel of forsaking, and to forsake. 5 To whiche Jhesus answeride, and seide, For the hardnesse of youre herte Moises wroot to you this comaundement. 6 But fro the bigynnyng of creature God made hem male and female; 7 and seide, For this thing a man schal leue his fadir and modir, 8 and schal drawe to hys wijf, and thei schulen be tweyne in o flesch. And so now thei ben not tweyne, but o flesch. 9 Therfor that thing that God ioynede togidere, no man departe. 10 And eftsoone in the hous hise disciplis axiden hym of the same thing. 11 And he seide to hem, Who euer leeuith his wijf, and weddith another, he doith auowtri on hir. 12 And if the wijf leue hir housebonde, and be weddid to another man, sche doith letcherie. 13 And thei brouyten to hym litle children, that he schulde touche hem; and the disciplis threteneden the men, that brouyten hem. 14 And whanne Jhesus hadde seyn hem, he baar heuy, and seide to hem, Suffre ye litle children to come to me, and forbede ye hem not, for of suche is the kyngdom of God. 15 Treuli Y seie to you, who euer resseyueth not the kyngdom of God as a lital child, he schal not entre in to it. 16 And he biclippide hem, and leide hise hondis on hem, and blisside hem. 17 And whanne Jhesus was gon out in the weie, a man ranne bifore, and knelide bifor hym, and preiede hym, and seide, Good maister, what schal Y do, that Y resseyue euerlastynge lijf? (aiōnios g166) 18 And Jhesus seide to hym, What seist thou, that Y am good? Ther is no man good, but God hym silf. 19 Thou knowist the comaundementis, do thou noon auowtrie, `sle not, stele not, seie not fals witnessyng, do no fraude, worschipe thi fadir and thi modir. 20 And he answeride, and seide to hym, Maister, Y haue kept alle these thingis fro my yongthe. 21 And Jhesus bihelde hym, and louede hym, and seide to hym, O thing faileth to thee; go thou, and sille alle thingis that thou hast, and yyue to pore men, and thou schalt haue tresoure in heuene; and come, sue thou me. 22 And he was ful sori in the word, and wente awei mornynge, for he hadde many possessiouns. 23 And Jhesus bihelde aboute, and seide to hise disciplis, Hou hard thei that han ritchessis schulen entre in to the kyngdom of God. 24 And the disciplis weren astonyed in hise wordis. And Jhesus eftsoone answeride, and seide `to hem, Ye litle children, hou hard it is for men that tristen in ritchessis to entre in to the kyngdom of God. 25 It is liyter a camele to passe thorou a nedlis iye, than a riche man to entre in to the kyngdom of God. 26 And thei wondriden more, and seiden among hem silf, And who may be sauyd? 27 And Jhesus bihelde hem, and seide, Anentis men it is impossible, but not anentis God; for alle thingis ben possible anentis God. 28 And Petir bigan to seie to hym, Lo! we han left alle thingis, and han sued thee. 29 Jhesus answeride, and seide, Treuli Y seie to you, ther is no man that leeueth hous, or britheren, or sistris, or fadir, or modir, or children, or feeldis for me and for the gospel, 30 which schal not take an hundrid fold so myche now in this tyme, housis, and britheren, and sistris, and modris, and children, and feeldis, with persecuciouns, and in the world to comynge euerlastynge lijf. (aiōn g165, aiōnios g166) 31 But many schulen be, the firste the last, and the last the firste. 32 And thei weren in the weie goynge vp to Jerusalem; and Jhesus wente bifor hem, and thei wondriden, and foleweden, and dredden. And eftsoone Jhesus took the twelue, and bigan to seie to hem, what thingis weren to come to hym. 33 For lo! we stien to Jerusalem, and mannus sone schal be bitraied to the princis of prestis, and to scribis, and to the eldre men; and thei schulen dampne hym bi deth, and thei schulen take hym to hethene men. And thei schulen scorne hym, 34 and bispete hym, and bete him; and thei schulen sle hym, and in the thridde dai he schal rise ayen. 35 And James and Joon, Zebedees sones, camen to hym, and seiden, Maister, we wolen, that what euer we axen, thou do to vs. 36 And he seide to hem, What wolen ye that Y do to you? 37 And thei seiden, Graunte to vs, that we sitten `the toon at thi riythalf, and the tother at thi left half, in thi glorie. 38 And Jhesus seide to hem, Ye witen not what ye axen; moun ye drynke the cuppe, which Y schal drynke, or be waischun with the baptym, in which Y am baptisid? 39 And thei seiden to hym, We moun. And Jhesus seide to hem, Ye schulen drynke the cuppe that Y drynke, and ye schulen be waschun with the baptym, in which Y am baptisid; 40 but to sitte at my riythalf or lefthalf is not myn to yyue to you, but to whiche it is maad redi. 41 And the ten herden, and bigunnen to haue indignacioun of James and Joon. 42 But Jhesus clepide hem, and seide to hem, Ye witen, that thei that semen to haue prynshode of folkis, ben lordis of hem, and the princes of hem han power of hem. 43 But it is not so among you, but who euer wole be maad gretter, schal be youre mynyster; 44 and who euer wole be the firste among you, schal be seruaunt of alle. 45 For whi mannus sone cam not, that it schulde be mynystrid to hym, but that he schulde mynystre, and yyue his lijf ayenbiyng for manye. 46 And thei camen to Jerico; and whanne he yede forth fro Jerico, and hise disciplis, and a ful myche puple, Barthymeus, a blynde man, the sone of Thimei, sat bisidis the weie, and beggide. 47 And whanne he herde, that it is Jhesus of Nazareth, he bigan to crie, and seie, Jhesu, the sone of Daud, haue merci on me. 48 And manye thretneden hym, that he schulde be stille; and he criede myche the more, Jhesu, the sone of Daud, haue merci on me. 49 And Jhesus stood, and comaundide hym to be clepid; and thei clepen the blynde man, and seien to hym, Be thou of betere herte, rise vp, he clepith thee. 50 And he castide awei his cloth, and skippide, and cam to hym. 51 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hym, What wolt thou, that Y schal do to thee? The blynde man seide to hym, Maister, that Y se. 52 Jhesus seide to hym, Go thou, thi feith hath maad thee saaf. And anon he saye, and sude hym in the weie.

11 And whanne Jhesus cam nyy to Jerusalem and to Betanye, to the mount of Olyues, he sendith tweyne of hise disciplis, and seith to hem, 2 Go ye in to the castel that is ayens you; and anon as ye entren there ye schulen fynde a colt tied, on which no man hath sete yit; vntie ye, and brynge hym. 3 And if ony man seye ony thing to you, What doen ye? seie ye, that he is nedeful to the Lord, and anoon he schal leeuë hym hidir. 4 And thei yeden forth, and founden a colt tied bifor the yate with out forth, in the metyng of twei weies; and thei vntieden hym. 5 And summe of hem that stoden there seiden to hem, What doen ye, vntiynge the colt? 6 And thei seiden to hem, as Jhesus comaundide hem; and thei leften it to hem. 7 And thei brouyten the colt to Jhesu, and thei leiden on hym her clothis, and Jhesus sat on hym. 8 And many strewiden her clothis in the weie, othere men kittiden braunchis fro trees, and strewiden in the weie. 9 And thei that wenten bifor, and that sueden, crieden, and seiden, Osanna, 10 blissid is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; blissid be the kyngdom of oure fadir Daudid that is come; Osanna in hiyest thingis. 11 And he entride in to Jerusalem, in to the temple; and whanne he `hadde seyn al thing aboute, whanne it was eue, he wente out in to Betanye, with the twelue. 12 And anothir daye, whanne he wente out of Betanye, he hungride. 13 And whanne he hadde seyn a fige tree afer hauynge leeues, he cam, if happili he schulde fynde ony thing theron; and whanne he cam to it, he foonde no thing, out takun leeues; for it was not tyme of figis. 14 And Jhesus answeride and seide to it, Now neuer ete ony man fruyt of thee more. And hise disciplis herden; (aiōn g165) 15 and thei camen to Jerusalem. And whanne he was entrid in to the temple, he bigan to caste out silleris and biggeris in the temple; and he turnede vpsodoun the bordis of chaungeris, and the chayeris of men that selden culueris; 16 and he suffride not, that ony man schulde bere a vessel thorou the temple. 17 And he tauyte hem, and seide, Whether it is not writun, That myn hous schal be clepid the hous of preyng to alle folkis? but ye han maad it a denne of theues. 18 And whanne this thing was herd, the princis of prestis and scribis souyten hou thei schulden leese hym; for thei dredden hym, for al the puple wondride on his techyng. 19 And whanne euenyng was come, he wente out of the citee. 20 And as thei passiden forth eerli, thei sayn the fige tree maad drye fro the rootis. 21 And Petir bithouyte hym, and seide to hym, Maister, lo! the fige tree, whom thou cursidist, is dried vp. 22 And Jhesus answeride and seide to hem, Haue ye the feith of God; 23 treuli Y seie to you, that who euer seith to this hil, Be thou takun, and cast in to the see; and doute not in his herte, but bileueth, that what euer he seie, schal be don, it schal be don to hym. 24 Therfor Y seie to you, alle thingis what euer thingis ye preyng schulen axe, bileue ye that ye schulen take, and thei schulen come to you. 25 And whanne ye schulen stonde to preye, foryyue ye, if ye han ony thing ayens ony man, that youre fadir that is in heuenes, foryyue to you youre synnes. 26 And if ye foryyuen not, nether youre fadir that is in heuenes, schal foryyue to you youre synnes. 27 And eftsoone thei camen to Jerusalem. And whanne he walkide in the temple, the hiyeste prestis, and scribis, and the elder men camen to hym, 28 and seyn to hym, In what power doist thou these thingis? or who yaf to thee this power, that thou do these thingis? 29 Jhesus answeride and seide to hem, And Y schal axe you o word, and answere ye to me, and Y schal seie to you in what power Y do these thingis. 30 Whether was the baptyng of Joon of heuene, or of men? answere ye to me. 31 And thei thouyten with ynne hem silf, seiynge, If we seien of heuene, he schal seie to vs, Whi thanne bileuen ye not to him; 32 if we seien of men, we dreden the puple; for alle men hadden Joon, that he was verili a prophete. 33 And thei answeryden, and seien to Jhesu, We witen neuer. And Jhesu answerde, and seide to hem, Nether Y seie to you, in what power Y do these thingis.

12 And Jhesus bigan to speke to hem in parablis. A man plauntide a vynyerd, and sette an hegge aboute it, and dalf a lake, and bildide a toure, and hiryde it to tilieris, and wente forth in pilgrimage. 2 And he sente to the erthe tilieris in tyme a seruaunt, to resseyue of the erthe tilieris of the fruyt of the vynyerd. 3 And thei token hym, and beeten, and leften hym voide. 4 And eftsoone he sente to hem anothir seruaunt, and thei woundiden hym in the heed, and turmentiden hym. 5 And eftsoone he sente another, and thei slown hym, and othir mo, betynge summe, and sleyng othere. 6 But yit he hadde a moost derworth sone, and he sente hym last to hem, and seide, Peraenture thei schulen drede my sone. 7 But the erthetilieris seiden togidere, This is the eire; come ye, sle we hym, and the eritage schal be ourun. 8 And thei tokun hym, and killiden, and castiden out without the vynyerd. 9 Thanne what schal the lord of the vynyerd do? He schal come, and lese the tilieris, and yyue the vynyerd to othere. 10 Whether ye han not red this scripture, The stoon which the bilderis han dissipid, this is maad in to the heed of the corner? 11 This thing is doon of the Lord, and is wondirful in oure iyen. 12 And thei souyten to holde hym, and thei dredden the puple; for thei knewen that to hem he seide this parable; and thei leften hym, 13 and thei wenten awei. And thei senten to hym summe of the Farisees and Erodians, to take hym in word. 14 Whiche camen, and seien to hym, Maistir, we witen that thou art sothfast, and reckist not of ony man; for nethir thou biholdist in to the face of man, but thou techist the weie of God in treuthe. Is it leeueful that tribute be youun to the emperoure, or we schulen not yyue? 15 Which witynge her pryuei falsnesse, seide to hem, What tempten ye me? brynge ye to me a peny, that Y se. 16 And thei brouyten to hym. And he seide to hem, Whos is this ymage, and the writyng? Thei seien to him, The emperouris. 17 And Jhesus answeride and seide to hem, Thanne yelde ye to the emperour tho thingis that ben of the emperours; and to God tho thingis that ben of God.

18 And thei wondriden of hym. And Saduces, that seien that ther is no ressureccioun, camen to hym, and axeden hym, 19 and seiden, Maister, Moyses wroot to vs, that if the brother of a man were deed, and lefte his wijf, and haue no sonen, his brother take his wijf, and reise vp seed to his brother. 20 Thanne seuene britheren ther weren; and the firste took a wijf, and diede, and lefte no seed. 21 And the secounde took hir, and he diede, and nether this lefte seed. 22 And the thridde also.
 And in lijk manere the seuene token hir, and leften not seed.
 And the womman the laste of alle `is deed. 23 Thanne in the resurreccioun, whanne thei schulen rise ayen, whos wijf of these schal sche be? for seuene hadden hir to wijf. 24 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Whether ye erren not therfor, that ye knowe not scripturis, nethir the vertu of God? 25 For whanne thei schulen rise ayen fro deeth, nether thei schulen wedde, nethir schulen be weddid, but thei schulen be as aungels of God in heuenes. 26 And of deed men, that thei risen ayen, han ye not red in the book of Moises, on the buysch, hou God spak to hym, and seide, Y am God of Abraham, and God of Isaac, and God of Jacob? 27 He is not God of deed men, but of lyuyng men; therfor ye erren myche. 28 And oon of the scribis, that hadde herde hem dispuytynge togidir, cam nyy, and saiy that Jhesus had wel answeride hem, and axide hym, which was the firste maundement of alle. 29 And Jhesus answeride to him, that the firste maundement of alle is, Here thou, Israel, thi Lord God is o God; 30 and thou schalt loue thi Lord God of al thin herte, and of al thi soule, and of al thi mynde, and of al thi myyt. 31 This is the firste maundement. And the secounde is lijk to this, Thou schalt loue thi neiybore as thi silf. Ther is noon other maundement gretter than these. 32 And the scribe seide to hym, Maister, in treuthe thou hast wel seid; for o God is, and ther is noon other, outakun hym; 33 that he be loued of al the herte, and of al the mynde, and of al the vndurstondyng, and of al the soule, and of al strengthe, and to loue the neiybore as hym silf, is gretter than alle brent offryngis and sacrifices. 34 And Jhesus seyng that he hadde answerid wiseli, seide to hym, Thou art not fer fro the kyngdom of God. 35 And thanne no man durste axe hym no more ony thing. And Jhesus answeride and seide, techyng in the temple, Hou seien scribis, that Crist is the sone of Daudid? 36 For Daudid hym silf seide in the Hooli Goost, the Lord seide to my lord, Sitte on my riythalf, til Y putte thin enemyes the stool of thi feet. 37 Thanne Daudid hym silf clepith him lord, hou thanne is he his sone? And myche puple gladli herde hym. 38 And he seide to hem in his techyng, Be ye war of scribis, that wolen wandre in stolis, 39 and be salutid in chepyng, and sitte in synagogis in the firste chaieris, and the firste sittying placis in soperis; 40 whiche deuouren the housis of widewis vndur colour of long preier; thei schulen take the longer doom. 41 And Jhesus sittynge ayens the tresorie, bihelde hou the puple castide monei in to the tresorie; and many riche men castiden many thingis. 42 But whanne a pore widewe was comun, sche keste two mynutis, that is, a ferthing. 43 And he clepide togidere hise disciplis, and seide to hem, Treuli Y seie to you, that this pore widewe keste more thanne alle, that kesten in to the tresorie. 44 For alle kesten of that thing that thei hadden plente of; but this of her pouert keste alle thingis that sche hadde, al hir lyuelode.

13 And whanne he wente out of the temple, oon of hise disciplis seide to hym, Maister, biholde, what maner stoonys, and what maner bildyngis. 2 And Jhesu answeride, and seide to hym, Seest thou alle these grete bildingis? ther schal not be left a stoon on a stoon, which schal not be distried. 3 And whanne he sat in the mount of Olyues ayens the temple, Petir and James and Joon and Andrew axiden hym bi hem silf, 4 Seie thou to vs, whanne these thingis schulen be don, and what tokene schal be, whanne alle these thingis schulen bigynne to be endid. 5 And Jhesus answeride, and bigan to seie to hem, Loke ye, that no man disseyue you; 6 for manye schulen come in my name, seiynge, That Y am; and thei schulen disseyue manye. 7 And whanne ye here batels and opynyouns of batels, drede ye not; for it bihoueth these thingis to be doon, but not yit anoon is the ende. 8 For folk schal rise on folk, and rewme on rewme, and erthe mouyngis and hungur schulen be bi placis; these thingis schulen be bigynnyngis of sorewis. 9 But se ye you silf, for thei schulen take you in counsels, and ye schulen be betun in synagogis; and ye schulen stonde bifor kyngis and domesmen for me, in witnessyng to hem. 10 And it bihoueth, that the gospel be first prechid among al folk. 11 And whanne thei taken you, and leden you forth, nyle ye bifore thenke what ye schulen speke, but speke ye that thing that schal be youun to you in that our; for ye ben not the spekeris, but the Hooli Goost.

12 For a brother schal bitake the brother in to deth, and the fadir the sone, and sones schulen rise togider ayens fadris and modris, and punysche hem bi deeth. 13 And ye schulen be in hate to alle men for my name; but he that lastith in to the ende, schal be saaf. 14 But whanne ye schulen se the abhominacioun of discourmfort, stondynge where it owith not; he that redith, vndurstonde; thanne thei that be in Judee, fle `in to hillis. 15 And he that is aboue the roof, come not down in to the hous, nethir entre he, to take any thing of his hous; 16 and he that schal be in the feeld, turne not ayen bihynde to take his cloth. 17 But wo to hem that ben with child, and norischen in tho daies. 18 Therfor preye ye, that thei be not don in wyntir. 19 But thilke daies of tribulacioun schulen be suche, whiche maner weren not fro the bigynnyng of creature, which God hath maad, til now, nethir schulen be. 20 And but the Lord hadde abredgide tho daies, al fleische hadde not be saaf; but for the chosun whiche he chees, the Lord hath maad schort the daies. 21 And thanne if ony man seie to you, Lo! here is Crist, lo! there, bileue ye not. 22 For false Cristis and false prophetis schulen rise, and schulen yyue tokenes and wondris, to disseyue, if it may be don, yhe, hem that be chosun. 23 Therfor take ye kepe; lo! Y haue bifer seid to you alle thingis. 24 But in tho daies, aftir that tribulacioun, the sunne schal be maad derk, and the moon schal not yyue hir liyt, 25 and the sterris of heuene schulen falle down, and the vertues that ben in heuenes, schulen be moued. 26 And thanne thei schulen se mannus sone comynge in cloudis of heuene, with greet vertu and glorie. 27 And thanne he schal sende hise aungelis, and schal geder hise chosun fro the foure wyndis, fro

the hiyest thing of erthe til to the hiyest thing of heuene. 28 But of the fige tree lerne ye the parable. Whanne now his braunche is tendre, and leeues ben sprongun out, ye knowen that somer is nyy. 29 So whanne ye seen these thingis be don, wite ye, that it is nyy in the doris. 30 Treuli Y seie to you, that this generacioun schal not passe awei, til alle these thingis be don. 31 Heuene and erthe schulen passe, but my wordis schulen not passe. 32 But of that dai or our no man woot, nether aungels in heuene, nether the sone, but the fadir. 33 Se ye, wake ye, and preie ye; for ye witen not, whanne the tyme is. 34 For as a man that is gon fer in pilgrimage, lefte his hous, and yaf to his seruauntis power of euery work, and comaundide to the porter, that he wake. 35 Therfor wake ye, for ye witen not, whanne the lord of the hous cometh, in the euentide, or at mydnyyt, or at cockis crowyng, or in the mornyng; 36 leste whanne he cometh sodenli, he fynde you slepyng. 37 Forsothe that that Y seie to you, Y seie to alle, Wake ye.

14 Pask and the feest of therf looues was after twei daies. And the hiyest preestis and scribis souyten, hou thei schulden holde hym with gile, and sle. 2 But thei seiden, Not in the feeste dai, lest peraenture a noyse were maad among the puple. 3 And whanne he was at Betanye, in the hous of Symount leprous, and restide, a womman cam, that hadde a boxe of alabastre of precious oynement spikenard; and whanne the boxe of alabastre was brokun, sche helde it on his heed. 4 But there weren summe that beren it heuyli with ynne hem silf, and seiden, Wher to is this losse of oynement maad? 5 For this oynement myyte haue be seld more than for thre hundrid pens, and be youun to pore men. And thei groyneden ayens hir. 6 But Jhesus seide, Suffre ye hir; what be ye heuy to hir? sche hath wrouyt a good werk in me. 7 For euermore ye schulen haue pore men with you, and Whidir `wilt thou that we go, and make redi to thee, that thou ete

 And he schal schewe to you a grete soupyng place arayed, and Which seide to hem, Oon of twelue that puttith the hoond with writun of hym; but wo to that man, by whom mannus sone schal be bitrayed. It were good to hym, yf thilke man hadde not be borun. 22 And while thei eeten, Jhesus took breed, and blessid, and brak, and yaf to hem, and seide, Take ye; this is my bodi.

23 And whanne he hadde take the cuppe, he dide thankyngis, and yaf to hem, and alle dronken therof. 24 And he seide to hem, This is my blood of the newe testament, which schal be sched for many. 25 Treuli Y seye to you, for now Y schal not drynke of this fruyt of vyne, in to that dai whane Y schal drynke it newe in the rewme of God. 26 And whanne the ympne was seid, thei wenten out in to the hil of Olyues. 27 And Jhesus seide to hem, Alle ye schulen be sclaundrid in me in this nyyt; for it is writun, Y schal smyte the scheepherde, and the scheep of the flok schulen be disparplid. 28 But aftir that Y schal rise ayen, Y schal go bifor you in to Galilee. 29 And Petir seide to hym, Thouy alle schulen be sclaundrid, but not Y. 30 And Jhesus seide to hym, Treuli Y seie to thee, that to dai bfore that the cok in this niyt crowe twies, thou schalt thries denye me. 31 But he seide more, Thouy it bihoueth, that Y die togider with thee, Y to hise disciplis, Sitte ye here, while Y preye. 33 And he took Petir and James and Joon with hym, and bigan to drede, and to the deeth; abide ye here, and wake ye with me. 35 And whanne he was gon forth a litil, he felde doun on the erthe, and preiede, that if it myyte be, that the our schulde passe fro hym. 36 And he seide, Abba, fadir, alle thingis ben possible to thee, bere ouer fro me this cuppe; but not that Y wole, but that thou wolt, be don. 37

 And he cam, and foond hem slepynge. And he seide to Petir, Symount, slepist thou? myytist thou not wake with me oon our?

38 Wake ye, and `preie ye, that ye entre not in to temptacioun; for the spirit is redi, but the fleische is sijk. 39 And eftsoone he yede, and preiede, and seide the same word; 40 and turnede ayen eftsoone, and foond hem slepynge; for her iyen weren heuyed. And thei knewen not, what thei schulden answer to hym. 41 And he cam the thridde tyme, and seide to hem, Slepe ye now, and reste ye; it suffisith. The hour is comun; lo! mannus sone schal be bitraied in to the hondis of synful men. 42 Rise ye, go we; lo! he that schal bitraye me is nyy. 43 And yit while he spak, Judas Scarioth, oon of the twelue, cam, and with him miche puple with swerdis and stauers, sent fro the hiyest prestis, and the scribis, and fro the eldre men. 44 And his traytour hadde youun to hem a tokene, and seide, Whom euer Y kisse, he it is; holde ye hym, and lede ye warli. 45 And whanne he cam, anoon he came to hym, and seide, Maistir; and he kisside hym. 46 And thei leiden hondis on hym, and helden hym. 47 But oon of the men that stoden aboute, drowy out a swerd, and smoot the seruaunt of the hiyest preest, and kittide of his eere. 48 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, As to a theef ye han gon out with swerdis and stauers, to take me? 49 Dai bi dai Y was among you, and tauyte in the temple, and ye helden not me; but that the scripturis be fulfillid. 50 Thanne alle hise disciplis forsoken hym, and fledden. 51 But a yong man, clothid with lynnun cloth on the bare, suede hym; and thei helden hym. 52 And he lefte the lynnyn clothing, and fleiy nakid awei fro hem. 53 And thei ledden Jhesu to the hiyest preest. And alle the prestis and scribis and eldere men camen togidir. 54 But Petir suede hym afer in to the halle of the hiyest preest. And he sat with the mynystris, and warmed hym at the fier. 55 And the hiyest prestis, and al the counsel, souyten witnessyng ayens manye seiden fals witnessyng ayens hym, and the witnessyngis the thridde dai Y schal bilde another not maad with hondis. 59 And the witnessyng `of hem was not couenable. 60 And the hiyest prest roos vp in to the myddil, and axide Jhesu, and seide, Answerist thou no thing to tho thingis that ben put ayens thee of these? 61 But he was stille, and answeride no thing. Eftsoone the hiyest prest axide hym, and seide to hym, Art thou Crist, the sone of the blessid God? 62 And Jhesus seide to hym, Y am; and ye schulen se mannus sone sittynge on the riythalf of the vertu of God, and comynge in the cloudis of heuene. 63 And the hiyest preest torente hise clothis, and seide, What yit dissiren we thei alle condempneden hym to be gilty of deeth. 65 And summe bigunnen to bispete hym, `and to hile his face, and to smite hym

And aftir a lital, eftsoone thei that stoden nyy, seiden to Petir, Verili thou art of hem, for thou art of Galilee also. 71 But he bigan to curse and to swere, For Y knowe not this man, whom ye seien. 72 And anoon eftsoones the cok crew. And Petir bithouyte on the word that Jhesus hadde seide to hym, Bifor the cok crowe twies, thries thou schalt denye me. And he bigan to wepe.

15 And anoon in the morewtid the hiyeste prestis maden a counsel with the elder men, and the scribis, and with al the counsel, and bounden Jhesu and ledden, and bitoken hym to Pilat. 2 And Pilat axide hym, Art thou kynge of Jewis? And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hym, Thou seist. 3 And the hieste prestis accusiden hym in many thingis. 4 But Pilat eftsoone axide hym, and seide, Answerist thou no thing? Seest thou in hou many thingis thei accusen thee? 5 But Jhesus answeride no more, so that Pilat wondride. 6 But bi the feeste dai he was wont to leeue to hem oon of men boundun, whom euer thei axiden. 7 And `oon ther was that was seid Barabas, that was boundun with men of dissencioun, that hadden don manslauytir in seducioun. 8 And whanne the puple was gon vp, he bigan to preie, as he euer more dide to hem. 9 And Pilat answeride `to hem, and seide, Wolen ye Y leeue to you the kyng of Jewis? 10 For he wiste, that the hiyeste prestis hadden takun hym bi enuye. 11 But the bischopis stireden the puple, that he schulde rather leeue to hem Barabas. 12 And eftsoone Pilat answerde, and seide to hem, What thanne wolen ye that Y schal do to the kyng of Jewis? 13 And thei eftsoone crieden, Crucifie hym. 14 But Pilat seide to hem, What yuel hath he don? And thei crieden the more, Crucifie hym. 15 And Pilat, willynge to make aseeth to the puple, lefte to hem Barabas, and bitok to hem Jhesu, betun with scourgis, to be crucified. 16 And knyytis ledden hym with ynneforth, in to the porche of the mote halle. And thei clepiden togidir al the cumpany of knyytis, 17 and clothiden hym with purpur. And thei writhen a coroun of thornes, and puttiden on hym. 18 And thei bigunnen to grete hym, and seiden, Heile, thou kyng of Jewis. 19 And thei smyten his heed with a reed, and bispatten hym; and thei kneliden, and worschipiden hym. 20 And aftir that thei hadden scorned him, thei vnclothiden hym of purpur, and clothiden hym with hise clothis, and ledden out hym, to crucifie hym. 21 And thei compelliden a man that passide the weie, that cam fro the toun, Symount of Syrenen, the fader of Alisaundir and of Rufe, to bere his cross. 22 And thei ledden hym in to a place Golgatha, that is to seie, the place of Caluari. 23 And thei yauen to hym to drynke wyn meddlid with mirre, and he took not. 24 And thei crucifieden him, and departiden hise clothis, and kesten lot on tho, who schulde take what. 25 And it was the thridde our, and thei crucifieden hym. 26 And the titil of his cause was writun, Kyng of Jewis. 27 And thei crucifien with hym twei theues, oon `at the riythalf and oon at his lefthalf. 28 And the scripture was fulfillid that seith, And he is ordeyned with wickid men. 29 And as thei passiden forth, thei blasfemyden hym, mouynge her heedis, and seiyng, Vath! thou that distriest the temple of God, and in `thre daies bildist it ayen; 30 come adoun fro the crosse, and make thi silf saaf. 31 Also the hiyeste prestis scorneden hym ech to othir with the scribis, and seiden, He made othir men saaf, he may not saue hym silf. 32 Crist, kyng of Israel, come down now fro the cross, that we seen, and bileuen. And thei that weren crucified with hym, dispiseden hym. 33 And whanne the sixte hour was come, derknessis weren made on al the erthe til in to the nynthe our. 34 And in the nynthe our Jhesus criede with a greet vois, and seide, Heloy, Heloy, lamasabatany, that is to seie, My God, my God, whi hast thou forsakun me? 35 And summe of men that stoden aboute herden, and seiden, Lo! he clepith Helye. 36 And oon ranne, and fillide a spounge with vynegre, and puttide aboute to a reede, and yaf to hym drynke, and seide, Suffre ye, se we, if Helie come to do hym doun. 37 And Jhesus yaf out a greet cry, and diede. 38 And the veil of the temple was rent atwo fro the hiyeste to bynethe. 39 But the centurien that stood forn ayens siy, that he so crynge hadde diede, and seide, Verili, this man was Goddis sone. 40 And ther weren also wymmen biholdynge fro afer, among whiche was Marie Maudeleyn, and Marie, the modir of James the lesse, and of Joseph, and of Salome. 41 And whanne Jhesus was in Galilee, thei folewiden hym, and mynystriden to hym, and many othere wymmen, that camen vp togidir with him to Jerusalem. 42 And whanne euentid was come, for it was the euentid which is bifer the sabat, 43 Joseph of Armathie, the noble decurioun, cam, and he abood the rewme of God; and booldli he entride to Pilat, and axide the bodi of Jhesu. 44 But Pilat wondride, if he were now deed. 45 And whanne the centurion was clepid, he axide hym, if he were deed; and whanne he knewe of the centurion, he grauntide the bodi of Jhesu to Joseph. 46 And Joseph bouyte lynnyn cloth, and took hym doun, and wlappide in the lynnyn cloth, and leide hym in a sepulcre that was hewun of a stoon, and walewide a stoon to the dore of the sepulcre. 47 And Marie Maudeleyne and Marie of Joseph bihelden, where he was leid.

16 And whanne the sabat was passid, Marie Maudeleyne, and Marie of James, and Salomee bouyten swete smellynge oynementis, to come and to anoynte Jhesu. 2 And ful eerli in oon of the woke daies, thei camen to the sepulcre, whanne the sunne was risun. 3 And thei seiden togidere, Who schal meue away to vs the stoon fro the dore of the sepulcre? 4 And thei bihelden, and seien the stoon walewid awei, for it was ful greet. 5 And thei yeden in to the sepulcre, and sayn a yonglyng, hilide with a white stole, sittynge `at the riythalf; and thei weren afeerd. 6 Which seith to hem, Nyle ye drede; ye seken Jhesu of Nazareth crucified; he is risun, he is not here; lo! the place where thei leiden hym. 7 But go ye, and seie ye to hise disciplis, and to Petir, that he schal go bifer you in to Galilee; there ye schulen se hym, as he seide to you. 8 And thei yeden out, and fledden fro the sepulcre; for drede and quakyng had assailed hem, and to no man thei seiden ony thing, for thei dredden. 9 (note: The most reliable and earliest manuscripts do not include Mark 16:9-20.) And Jhesus roos eerli the firste dai of the woke, and apperid firste to Marie Maudeleyne, fro whom he had caste out seuene deuelis. 10 And sche yede, and tolde to hem that hadden ben with hym, whiche weren weilynge and wepynge. 11 And thei herynge that he lyuyde, and was seyn of hir, bileueden not. 12 But after these thingis whanne tweyne of hem wandriden, he was schewid in anothir liknesse to hem goynge in to a toun. 13 And thei yeden, and telden to the othir, and nether thei bileueden to hem. 14 But `at the laste, whanne the enleuene disciplis saten at the mete, Jhesus apperide to hem, and repreuede the vnbileue of hem, and the hardnesse of herte, for thei bileueden not to hem, that hadden seyn that he was risun fro deeth. 15 And he seide to hem, Go ye in to al the world, and preche the gospel to eche creature. 16 Who that bileueth, and is baptisid, schal be saaf; but he that bileueth not, schal be dampned. 17 And these tokenes schulen sue hem, that bileuen. In my name thei schulen caste out feendis; thei schulen speke with newe tungis; 18 thei schulen do awei serpentis; and if thei drynke ony venym, it schal not noye hem. Thei schulen sette her hondis on sijk men, and thei schulen wexe hoole. 19 And the Lord Jhesu, aftir he hadde spokun to hem, was takun vp in to heuene, and he sittiith on the riythalf of God. 20 And thei yeden forth, and prechiden euery where, for the Lord wrouyte with hem, and confermyde the word with signes folewyng.

Luke

1 Forsothe for manye men enforceden to ordeyne the tellyng of thingis, whiche ben fillid in vs, 2 as thei that seyn atte the bigynnyng, and weren ministris of the word, 3 bitaken, it is seen also to me, hauynge alle thingis diligentli bi ordre, to write to thee, 4 thou best Theofile, that thou knowe the treuthe of tho wordis, of whiche thou art lerned. 5 In the daies of Eroude, kyng of Judee, ther was a prest, Sakarie bi name, of the sorte of Abia, and his wijf was of the douytris of Aaron, and hir name was Elizabeth. 6 And bothe weren iust bifor God, goynge in alle the maundementis and iustifyngis of the Lord, withouten pleynt. 7 And thei hadden no child, for Elizabeth was bareyn, and bothe weren of grete age in her daies. 8 And it bifel, that whanne Zacarie schulde do the office of preesthod, in the ordre of his cours tofor God, 9 affir the custome of the preesthod, he wente forth bi lot, and entride in to the temple, to encense. 10 And al the multitude of the puple was with outforth, and priede in the our of encensyng. 11 And an aungel of the Lord apperide to hym, and stood on the riythalf of the auter of encense. 12 And Zacarie seynge was afraied, and drede fel vpon hym. 13 And the aungel seide to hym, Zacarie, drede thou not; for thi preyer is herd, and Elizabeth, thi wijf, schal bere to thee a sone, and his name schal be clepid Joon. 14 And ioye and gladyng schal be to thee; and many schulen `haue ioye in his natyuyte. 15 For he schal be greet bifor the Lord, and he schal not drynke wyn and sidir, and he schal be fulfillid with the Hooli Goost yit of his modir wombe. 16 And he schal conuerte many of the children of Israel to her Lord God; 17 and he schal go bifor hym in the spirit and the vertu of Helie; and he schal turne the hertis of the fadris in to the sones, and men out of bileue to the prudence of iust men, to make redi a perfit puple to the Lord. 18 And Zacarie seide to the aungel, Wherof schal Y wite this? for Y am eld, and my wijf hath gon fer in to hir daies. 19 And the aungel answeride, and seide to hym, For Y am Gabriel, that stonde niy bifer God; and Y am sent to thee to speke, and to euangelize to thee these thingis. 20 And lo! thou schalt be doumbe, and thou schalt not mow speke til in to the dai, in which these thingis schulen be don; for thou hast not bileued to my wordis, whiche schulen be fulfillid in her tyme. 21 And the puple was abidyng Zacarie, and thei wondriden, that he tariede in the temple. 22 And he yede out, and myyte not speke to hem, and thei knewen that he hadde seyn a visioun in the temple. And he bikenyde to hem, and he dwellide stille doumbe. 23 And it was don, whanne the daies of his office weren fulfillid, he wente in to his hous. 24 And aftir these daies Elizabeth, his wijf, conseyuede, and hidde hir fyue monethis, and seide, 25 For so the Lord dide to me in the daies, in whiche he bihelde, to take awei my reproof among men. 26 But in the sixte moneth the aungel Gabriel was sent fro God in to a citee of Galilee, whos name was Nazareth, 27 to a maidyn, weddid to a man, whos name was Joseph, of the hous of Dauid; and the name of the maidun was Marie. 28 And the aungel entride to hir, and seide, Heil, ful of grace; the Lord be with thee; blessid be thou among wymmen. 29 And whanne sche hadde herd, sche was troublid in his word, and thouyte what maner salutacioun this was. 30 And the aungel seide to hir, Ne drede thou not, Marie, for thou hast foundun grace anentis God. 31 Lo! thou schalt conceyue in wombe, and schalt bere a sone, and thou schalt clepe his name Jhesus. 32 This schal be greet, and he schal be clepid the sone of the Hiyeste; and the Lord God schal yeue to hym the seete of Daud, his fadir, 33 and he schal regne in the hous of Jacob with outen ende, and of his rewme schal be noon ende. (aïōn g165) 34 And Marie seide to the aungel, On what maner schal this thing be doon, for Y knowe not man? 35 And the aungel answeride, and seide to hir, The Hooly Goost schal come fro aboue in to thee, and the vertu of the Hiyeste schal ouerschadewe thee; and therfor that hooli thing that schal be borun of thee, schal be clepid the sone of God. 36 And lo! Elizabeth, thi cosyn, and sche also hath conceyued a sone in hir eelde, and this moneth is the sixte to hir that is clepid bareyn; 37 for euery word schal not be impossible anentis God. 38 And Marie seide, Lo! the handmaydyn of the Lord; be it don to me aftir thi word. And the aungel departide fro hir. 39 And Marie roos vp in tho daies, and wente with haaste in to the hous of Zacarie, and grette Elizabeth. 41 And it was don, as Elizabeth herde the salutacioun of Marie, the yong child in hir wombe gladide. And Elizabeth was fulfillid with the Hooli Goost, 42 and criede with a greet vois, and seide, Blessid be thou among wymmen, and blessid be the fruyt of thi wombe. 43 And whereof is this thing to me, that the modir of my Lord come to me? 44 For lo! as the voice of thi salutacioun was maad in myn eeris, the yong child gladide in ioye in my wombe. 45 And blessid be thou, that hast bileued, for thilke thingis that ben seid of the Lord to thee, schulen be parfitli don. 46 And Marie seide, Mi soule magnyfieth the Lord, 47 and my spirit hath gladid in God, myn helthe. 48 For he hath biholdun the mekenesse of his handmaidun. 49 For lo! of this alle generaciouns schulen seie that Y am blessid. For he that is myyti hath don to me grete thingis, and his name is hooli. 50 And his mercy is fro kynrede in to kynredes, to men that dreden hym. 51 He made myyt in his arme, he scaterede proude men with the thouyte of his herte. 52 He sette doun myyti men fro sete, and enhaunside meke men. 53 He hath fulfillid hungri men with goodis, and he hath left riche men voide. 54 He, hauynge mynde of his mercy, took Israel, his child; 55 as he hath spokun to oure fadris, to Abraham and to his seed, in to worldis. (aïōn g165) 56 And Marie dwellide with hir, as it were thre monethis, and turnede ayen in to hir hous. 57 But the tyme of beryng child was fulfillid to Elizabeth, and sche bare a sone. 58 And the neiyboris and cosyns of hir herden, that the Lord hadde magnyfied his mercy with hir; and thei thankiden hym. 59 And it was don in the eiYTE dai, thei camen to circumcide the child; and thei clepiden hym Zacarie, bi the name of his fadir. 60 And his moder answeride, and seide, Nay, but he schal be clepid Joon. 61 And thei seiden to hir, For no man is in thi kynrede, that is clepid this name. 62 And thei bikeneden to his fadir, what he wolde that he were clepid. 63 And he axynge a poyntil, wroot, seiynge, Joon is his name. 64 And alle men wondriden. And anoon his mouth was openyd, and his tunge, and he spak, and blesside God. 65 And drede was maad on alle her neiyboris, and alle these wordis weren pupplischid on alle the mounteyns of Judee. 66 And alle men that herden puttiden in her herte, and seiden, What maner child schal this be? For the hoond of the Lord was with hym. 67 And Zacarie, his fadir, was fulfillid with the Hooli Goost, and prophesiede, 68 and seide, Blessid be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath visitid, and maad redempcioun of his puple. 69 And he hath rerid to vs an horn of heelthe in the hous of Daud, his child. 70 As he spak bi the mouth of hise hooli prophetis, that weren fro the world. (aiōn g165) 71 Helthe fro oure enemyes, and fro the hoond of alle men that hatiden vs. 72 To do merci with oure fadris, and to haue mynde of his hooli testament. 73 The greet ooth that he swoor to Abraham, oure fadir, to yyue hym silf to vs. 74 That we with out drede delyuered fro the hoond of oure enemyes, 75 serue to hym, in hoolynesse and riytwisnesse bfor hym in alle oure daies. 76 And thou, child, schalt be clepid the prophete of the Hiyest; for thou schalt go bfor the face of the Lord, to make redi hise weies. 77 To yyue scyence of helthe to his puple, in to remyssioun of her synnes; 78 bi the inwardnesse of the merci of oure God, in the whiche he spryngyng vp fro an hy hath visitid vs. 79 To yyue liyt to hem that sitten in derknessis and in schadewe of deeth; to dresse oure feet in to the weie of pees.

80 And the child wexide, and was coumfortid in spirit, and was in desert placis `til to the dai of his schewing to Israel.

hondis, lest perauenture thou hirte thi foote at a stoon. 12 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to him, It is seid, Thou schalt not tempte thi Lord God. 13 And whanne euery temptacioun was endid, the feend wente a wei fro hym for a tyme. 14 And Jhesus turnede ayen in the vertu of the spirit in to Galilee, and the fame wente forth of hym thorou al the cuntre. 15 And he tauyte in the synagogis of hem, and was magnyfied of alle men. 16 And he cam to Nazareth, where he was norisschid, and entride aftir his custom in the sabat dai in to a synagoge, and roos to reed. 17 And the book of Ysaye, the prophete, was takun to hym; and as he turnede the book, he foond a place, where it was wrytun, 18 The Spirit of the Lord on me, for which thing he anoyntide me; he sente me to preche to pore men, to hele contrite men in herte, 19 and to preche remyssion to prisoneris, and siyt to blynde men, and to delyuere brokun men in to remission; to preche the yeer of the Lord plesaunt, and the dai of yeldyng ayen. 20 And whanne he hadde closid the book, he yaf ayen to the mynystre, and sat; and the iyen of alle men in the synagoge were biholdyng in to hym. 21 And he bigan to seie to hem, For in this dai this scripture is fulfillid in youre eeris. 22 And alle men yauen witnessyng to hym, and wondriden in the wordis of grace, that camen forth of his mouth. And thei seiden, Whether this is not the sone of Joseph? 23 And he seide to hem, Sotheli ye schulen seie to me this liknesse, Leeches, heele thi silf. The Farisees seiden to Jhesu, Hou grete thingis han we herd don in Cafarnaum, do thou also here in thi cuntre. 24 And he seide, Treuli Y seie to you, that no profete is resseyued in his owne cuntre. 25 In treuthe Y seie to you, that many widowis weren in the daies of Elie, the prophete, in Israel, whanne heuene was closid thre yeer and sixe monethis, whanne greet hungur was maad in al the erthe; 26 and to noon of hem was Elye sent, but hem; and cam doun in to Cafarnaum, 31 a citee of Galilee, and there he tauyte hem in sabotis. 32 And thei weren astonyed in his techyng, for his word was in power. 33 And in her synagoge was a man hauynge an vnclene feend, and he criede with greet vois, 34 and seide, Suffre, what to vs and to thee, Jhesu of Nazareth? art thou comun to leese vs? Y knowe, that thou art the hooli of God. 35 And Jhesus blamede hym, and seide, Wexe doumbe, and go out fro hym. And whanne the feend hadde cast hym forth in to the myddil, he wente a wei fro hym, and he noyede hym no thing. 36 And drede was maad in alle men, and thei spaken togider, and seiden, What is this word, for in power and vertu he comaundith to vnclene spiritis, and thei gon out? 37 And the fame was pupplischid of him in to ech place of the cuntre. 38 And Jhesus roos vp fro the synagoge, and entride in to the hous of Symount; and the modir of Symountis wijf was holdun with grete fyueris, and thei preieden hym for hir.

39 And Jhesus stood ouer hir, and comaundide to the feuer, and it lefte hir; and anoon sche roos vp, and seruede hem. 40 And whanne the sunne wente doun, alle that hadden sijke men with dyuerse langours, ledden hem to hym; and he sette his hoondis on ech bi `hem silf, and heelide hem. 41 And feendis wenten out fro manye, and crieden, and seiden, For thou art the sone of God. And he blamede, and suffride hem not to speke, for thei wisten hym, that he was Crist. 42 And whanne the dai was come, he yede out, and wente in to a desert place; and the puple souyten hym, and thei camen to hym, and thei helden hym, that he schulde not go a wei fro hem. 43 To whiche he seide, For also to othere citees it bihoueth me to preche the kyngdom of God, for therfor Y am sent. 44 And he prechide in the synagogis of Galilee.

5 And it was don, whanne the puple cam fast to Jhesu, to here the word of God, he stood bisidis the pool of Genasereth, 2 and saiȳ two bootis stondynge bisidis the pool; and the fischeris weren go doun, and waischiden her nettis. 3 And he wente vp in to a boot, that was Symoundis, and preiede hym to lede it a litil fro the loond; and he seet, and tauyte the puple out of the boot. 4 And as he ceesside to speke, he seide to Symount, Lede thou in to the depthe, and slake youre nettis to take fisch. 5 And Symount answeride, and seide to hym, Comaundoure, we traueliden al the nyȳt, and token no thing, but in thi word Y schal leye out the net. 6 And whanne thei hadden do this thing, thei closiden togidir a greet multitude of fischis; and her net was brokun. 7 And thei bikenyden to felawis, that weren in anothir boot, that thei schulden come, and helpe hem. And thei camen, and filliden bothe the bootis, so that thei weren almost drenchid. 8 And whanne Symount Petir saiȳ this thing, he felde doun to the knees of Jhesu, and seide, Lord, go fro me, for Y am a synful man. 9 For he was on ech side astonyed, and alle that weren with hym, in the takyng of fischis whiche thei token. 10 Sotheli in lijk maner James and Joon, the sones of Zebedee, that weren felowis of Symount Petre. And Jhesus seide to Symount, Nyle thou drede; now fro this tyme thou schalt take men. 11 And whanne the bootis weren led vp to the loond, thei leften alle thingis, and thei sueden hym. 12 And it was don, whanne he was in oon of the citees, lo! a man ful of lepre; and seyng Jhesu felle down on his face, and preyede hym, and seide, Lord, if thou wolt, thou maist make me clene. 13 And Jhesus held forth his hoond, and touchide hym, and seide, Y wole, be thou maad cleene. And anoon the lepre passide awei fro hym. 14 And Jhesus comaundide to hym, that he schulde seie to no man; But go, schewe thou thee to a preest, and offre for thi clensyng, as Moises bad, in to witnessyng to hem. 15 And the word walkide aboute the more of hym; and myche puple camen togidere, to here, and to be heelid of her siknessis. 16 And he wente in to desert, and preiede. 17 And it was don in oon of the daies, he sat, and tauyte; and there weren Farisees sittynge, and doctouris of the lawe, that camen of eche castel of Galilee, and of Judee, and of Jerusalem; and the vertu of the Lord was to heele sike men. 18 And lo! men beren in a bed a man that was sijk in the palsye, and thei souyten to bere hym in, and sette bifer hym. 19 And thei founden not in what partie thei schulden bere hym in, for the puple, `and thei wenten on the roof, and bi the sclattis thei leeten hym down with the bed, in to the myddil, bifer Jhesus. 20 And whanne Jhesu saiye the feith of hem, he seide, Man, thi synnes ben foryouun to thee. 21 And the scribis and Farisees bigunnen to thenke, seiynge, Who is this, that spekith blasfemyes? who may foryyue synnes, but God aloone? 22 And as Jhesus knewe the thouytis of hem, he answeride, and seide to hem, What thenken ye yuele thingis in youre hertes? 23 What is liyter to seie, Synnes ben foryouun to thee, or to seie, Rise vp, and walke? 24 But that ye wite, that mannus sone hath power in erthe to foryyue synnes, he seide to the sijk man in palesie, Y seie to thee, ryse vp, take thi bed, and go in to thin hous. 25 And anoon he roos vp bifer hem, and took the bed in which he lay, and wente in to his hous, and magnyfiede God. 26 And greet wondur took alle, and thei magnyfieden God; and thei weren fulfillid with greet drede, and seiden, For we han seyn merueilouse thingis to dai. 27 And after these thingis Jhesus wente out, and saiȳ a puppican, Leuy bi name, sittynge at the tolbothe. And he seide to hym, Sue thou me; 28 and whanne he hadde left alle thingis, he roos vp, and sude hym. 29 And Leuy made to hym a greet feeste in his hous; and ther was a greet cumpanye of puppicans, and of othere that weren with hem, sittynge at the mete. 30 And Farisees and the scribis of hem grutchiden, and seiden to hise disciplis, Whi eten ye and drynken with puppicans and synful men? 31 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Thei that ben hoole han no nede to a leche, but thei that ben sijke; 32 for Y cam not to clepe iuste men, but synful men to penaunce. 33

 And thei seiden to hym, Whi the disciplis of Joon fasten ofte, and maken preieris, also and of Farisees, but thine eten and drynken? 34 To whiche he seide, Whether ye moun make the sones of the spouse to faste, while the spouse is with hem? 35 But daies schulen come, whanne the spouse schal be takun a wei fro hem, and thanne thei schulen faste in tho daies. 36 And he seide to hem also a liknesse; For no man takith a pece fro a newe cloth, and puttith it in to an oold clothing; ellis bothe he brekith the newe, and the pece of the newe acordith not to the elde. 37 And no man puttith newe wyne in to oolde botels; ellis the newe wyn schal breke the botels, and the wyn schal be sched out, and the botels schulen perische. 38 But newe wyne owith to be put in to newe botels, and bothe ben kept. 39 And no man drynkynge the elde, wole anoon the newe; for he seith, The olde is the betere.

6 And it was don in the secounde firste sabat, whanne he passid bi cornes, hise disciplis pluckiden eeris of corn; and thei frotynge with her hondis, eeten. 2 And summe of the Farisees seiden to hem, What doon ye that, that is not leueful in the sabotis? 3 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Han ye not redde, what Dauith dide, whanne he hungride, and thei that weren with hym; 4 hou he entride in to the hous of God, and took looues of proposicioun, and eet, and yaf to hem that weren with hem; whiche looues it was not leueful to eete, but oonli to prestis. 5 And he seide to hem, For mannus sone is lord, yhe, of the sabat. 6 And it was don in another sabat, that he entride in to a synagoge, and tauyte. And a man was there, and his riyt hoond was drie. 7 And the scribis and Farisees aspieden hym, if he wolde heele hym in the sabat, that thei schulden fynde cause, whereof thei schulden accuse hym. 8 And he wiste the thouytis of hem, and he seide to the man that hadde a drie hoond, Rise vp, and stonde in to the myddil. And he roos, and stood. 9 And Jhesus seide to hem, Y axe you, if it is leueful to do wel in the sabat, or yuel? to make a soule saaf, or to leese? 10 And whanne he hadde biholde alle men aboute, he seide to the man, Hold forth thin hoond. And he held forth, and his hond was restorid to helthe. 11 And thei weren fulfillid with vnwisdom, and spaken togidir, what thei schulden do of Jhesu. 12 And it was don in tho daies, he wente out in to an hil to preye; and he was al nyyt dwellynge in the preier of God. 13 And whanne the day was come, he clepide hise disciplis, and chees twelue of hem, whiche he clepide also apostlis; 14 Symount, whom he clepide Petir, and Andrew, his brothir, James and Joon, 15 Filip and Bartholomew, Matheu and Thomas, James Alpei, and Symount, that is clepid Zelotes, 16 Judas of James, and Judas Scarioth, that was traytoure. 17 And Jhesus cam down fro the hil with hem, and stood in a feeldi place; and the cumpeny of hise disciplis, and a greet multitude of puple, of al Judee, and Jerusalem, and of the see coostis, and of Tyre and Sidon, 18 that camen to here hym, and to be heelid of her siknessis; and thei that weren trauelid of vncleene spiritis, weren heelid. 19 And al puple souyte to touche hym, for vertu wente out of hym, and heelide alle. 20 And whanne hise iyen weren cast vp in to hise disciplis, he seide, Blessid be ye, `pore men, for the kyngdom of God is youre. 21 Blessid be ye, that now hungren, for ye schulen be fulfillid. Blessid be ye, that now wepen, for ye schulen leiye. 22 Ye schulen be blessid, whanne men schulen hate you, and departe you awei, and putte schenschip to you, and cast out youre name as yuel, for mannus sone. 23 Joye ye in that dai, and be ye glad; for lo! youre meede is myche in heuene; for aftir these thingis the fadris of hem diden to prophetis. 24 Netheles wo to you, riche men, that han youre coumfort. 25 Wo to you that ben fulfillid, for ye schulen hungre. Wo to you that now leiyen, for ye schulen morne, and wepe. 26 Wo to you, whanne alle men schulen blesse you; aftir these thingis the fadris of hem diden to profetis. 27 But Y seie to you that heren, loue ye youre enemyes, do ye wel to hem that hatiden you; 28 blesse ye men that cursen you, preye ye for men that defamen you. 29 And to him that smythith thee on o cheeke, schewe also the tothir; and fro hym that takith awei fro thee a cloth, nyle thou forbede the coote. 30 And yyue to eche that axith thee, and if a man takith awei tho thingis that ben thine, axe thou not ayen. 31 And as ye wolen that men do to you, do ye also to hem in lijk maner. 32 And if ye louen hem that louen you, what thanke is to you? for synful men louen men that louen hem. 33 And if ye don wel to hem that don wel to you, what grace is to you? synful men don this thing. 34 And if ye leenen to hem of whiche ye hopen to take ayen, what thanke is to you? for synful men leenen to synful men, to take ayen as myche. 35 Netheles loue ye youre enemyes, and do ye wel, and leene ye, hopinge no thing therof, and youre mede schal be myche, and ye schulen be the sones of the Heyest, for he is benygne on vnkynde men and yuele men. 36 Therfor be ye merciful, as youre fadir is merciful. 37 Nyle ye deme, and ye schulen not be demed. Nyle ye condempne, and ye schulen not be condempned; foryyue ye, and it schal be foryouun to you. 38 Yyue ye, and it schal be youun to you. Thei schulen yyue in to youre bosum a good mesure, and wel fillid, and schakun togidir, and ouerflowynge; for bi the same mesure, bi whiche ye meeten, it schal be metun `ayen to you. 39 And he seide to hem a liknesse, Whether the blynde may leede the blynde? ne fallen thei not bothe `in to the diche? 40 A disciple is not aboue the maistir; but eche schal be perfite, if he be as his maister. 41 And what seest thou in thi brotheris iye a moot, but thou biholdist not a beam, that is in thin owne iye? 42 Or hou maist thou seie to thi brother, Brothir, suffre, Y schal caste out the moot of thin iye, and thou biholdist not a beem in thin owne iye? Ipocrite, first take out the beem of thin iye, and thanne thou schalt se to take the moot of thi brotheris iye. 43 It is not a good tree, that makith yuel fruytis, nether an yuel tree, that makith good fruytis; 44 for euery tre is knowun of his fruyt. And men gaderen not figus of thornes, nethir men gaderen a grape of a buysche of breris. 45 A good man of the good tresoure of his herte bryngith forth good thingis, and an yuel man of the yuel tresoure bryngith forth yuel thingis; for of the plente of the herte the mouth spekith. 46 And what clepen ye me, Lord, Lord, and doon not tho thingis that Y seie. 47 Eche that cometh to me, and herith my wordis, and doith hem, Y schal schewe to you, to whom he is lijk. 48 He is lijk to a man that bildith an hous, that diggide deepe, and sette the foundement on a stoon. And whanne greet flood was maad, the flood was hurtlid to that hous, and it miyte not moue it, for it was foundid on a sad stoon. 49 But he that herith, and doith not, is lijk to a man bildynge his hous on erthe with outen foundement; in to which the flood was hurlid, and anoon it felle doun; and the fallyng doun of that hous was maad greet.

7 And whanne he hadde fulfillid alle hise wordis in to the eeris of the puple, he entride in to Cafarnaum. 2 But a seruaunt of a centurien, that was precious to hym, was sijk, and drawynge to the deeth. 3 And whanne he hadde herd of Jhesu, he sente to hym the eldere men of Jewis, and preiede hym, that he wolde come, and heele his seruaunt. 4 And whanne thei camen to Jhesu, thei preieden hym bisili, and seiden to hym, For he is worthi, that thou graunte to hym this thing; 5 for he loueth oure folk, and he bildide to vs a synagoge. 6 And Jhesus wente with hem. And whanne he was not fer fro the hous, the centurien sente to hym freendis, and seide, Lord, nyle thou be trauelid, for Y am not worthi, that thou entre vnder my roof; 7 for which thing and Y demede not my silf worthi, that Y come to thee; but seie thou bi word, and my child schal be helid. 8 For Y am a man ordeyned vndur power, and haue knyytis vndur me; and Y seie to this, Go, and he goith, and to anothir, Come, and he cometh, and to my seruaunt, Do this thing, and he doith. 9 And whanne this thing was herd, Jhesus wondride; and seide to the puple suyng hym, Treuli Y seie to you, nether in Israel Y foond so greet feith. 10 And thei that weren sent, turneden ayen home, and founden the seruaunt hool, which was sijk. 11 And it was don aftirward, Jhesus wente in to a citee, that is clepid Naym, and hise disciplis; and ful greet puple wente with hym. 12 And whanne he cam nyy to the yate of the citee, lo! the sone of a womman that hadde no mo children, was borun out deed; and this was a widowe; and myche puple of the citee with hir. 13 And whanne the Lord Jhesu hadde seyn hir, he hadde reuthe on hir, and seide to hir, Nyle thou wepe. 14 And he cam nyy, and touchide the beere; and thei that baren stoden. And he seide, Yonge man, Y seie to thee, rise vp. 15 And he that was deed sat vp ayen, and bigan to speke; and he yaf hym to his modir.

 16 And drede took alle men, and thei magnyfieden God, and seiden, For a grete profete is rysun among vs, and, For God hath visitid his puple. 17 And this word wente out of hym in to al Judee, and in to al the cuntre aboute. 18 And Joones disciplis toolden hym of alle these thingis. 19 And Joon clepide tweyn of hise disciplis, and sente hem to Jhesu, and seide, Art thou he that is to come, or abiden we anothir? 20 And whanne the men cam to hym, thei seiden, Joon Baptist sente vs to thee, and seide, Art thou he that is to come, or we abiden anothir? 21 And in that our he heelide many men of her sijknessis, and woundis, and yuel spiritis; and he yaf siyt to many blynde men. 22 And Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, Go ye ayen, and telle ye to Joon tho thingis that ye han herd and seyn; blynde men seyn, crokid men goen, mesels ben maad cleene, deaf men heren, deed men risen ayen, pore men ben takun to prechyng of the gospel. 23 And he that schal not be sclaudrid in me, is blessid. 24 And whanne the messengeris of Joon weren go forth, he bigan to seie of Joon to the puple, 25 What wenten ye out in to desert to se? a reed waggid with the wynd? 26 But what wenten ye out to se? a man clothid with softe clothis? Lo! thei that ben in precious cloth and in delicis, ben in kyngis housis. But what wenten ye out to se? a profete? Yhe, Y seie to you, and more than a profete. 27 This is he, of whom it is writun, Lo! Y sende myn aungel bifer thi face, which schal make `thi weie redi bifer thee. 28 Certis Y seie to you, there is no man more prophete among children of wymmen, than is Joon; but he that is lesse in the kyngdom of heuenes, is more than he. 29 And al the puple herynge, and pupplicans, that hadden be baptisid with baptym of Joon, iustifieden God; 30 but the Farisees and the wise men of the lawe, that weren not baptisid of hym, dispisiden the counsel of God ayens hem silf. 31 And the Lord seide, Therfor to whom schal Y seie `men of this generacioun lijk, and to whom ben thei lijk? 32 Thei ben lijk to children sittynge in chepyng, and spekyng togider, and seiynge, We han sungun to you with pipis, and ye han not daunsid; we han maad mornyng, and ye han not wept. 33 For Joon Baptist cam, nethir etynge breed, ne drynkynge wyne, and ye seyen, He hath a feend. 34 Mannus sone cam etyng and drynkynge, and ye seien, Lo! a man a deuourer, and drynkynge wyne, a frend of pupplicans and of synful men. 35 And wisdom is iustified of her sones. 36 But oon of the Farisees preiede Jhesu, that he schulde ete with hym. And he entride in to the hous of the Farise, and sat at the mete. 37 And lo! a synful womman, that was in the citee, as sche knewe, that Jhesu sat at the mete in the hous of the Farisee, sche brouyte an alabaustre box of oynement; 38 and sche stood bihynde bysidis hise feet, and bigan to moiste hise feet with teeris, and wipide with the heeris of hir heed, and kiste hise feet, and anoyntide with oynement. 39 And the Farise seyng, that hadde clepide hym, seide within hym silf, seiynge, If this were a prophete, he schulde wite, who and what maner womman it were that touchith hym, for sche is a synful womman. 40 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hym, Symount, Y haue sumthing to seie to thee. And he seide, Maistir, seie thou. 41 And he answeride, Twei dettouris weren to o lener; and oon auyt fyue hundrid pans, and `the other fifti; 42 but whanne thei hadden not wherof `thei schulden yeelde, he foryaf to bothe. Who thanne loueth hym more? 43 Symount answeride, and seide, Y gesse, that he to whom he foryaf more. And he answeride to hym, Thou hast demyd riytli. 44 And he turnede to the womman, and seide to Symount, Seest thou this womman? I entride into thin hous, thou yaf no watir to my feet; but this hath moistid my feet with teeris, and wipide with hir heeris. 45 Thou hast not youun to me a cosse; but this, sithen sche entride, ceesside not to kisse my feet. 46 Thou anoyntidist not myn heed with oile; but this anoyntide my feet with oynement. 47 For the which thing Y seie to thee, many synnes ben foryouun to hir, for sche hath loued myche; and to whom is lesse foryouun, he loueth lesse. 48 And Jhesus seide to hir, Thi synnes ben foryouun to thee. 49 And thei that saten to gider at the mete, bigunnen to seie with ynnem hem silf, Who is this that foryyueþ synnes. 50 But he seide to the womman, Thi feith hath maad thee saaf; go thou in pees.

8 And it was don aftirward, and Jhesus made iourney bi citees and castels, prechyng and euangelisyng the rewme of God, and twelue with hym; 2 and sum wymmen that weren heelid of wickid spiritis and sijknensis, Marie, that is clepid Maudeleyn, of whom seuene deuelis wenten out, 3 and Joone, the wijf of Chuse, the procuratoure of Eroude, and Susanne, and many oþir, that mynystriden to hym of her ritchesse. 4 And whanne myche puple was come togidir, and men hiyeden to hym fro the citees, he seide bi a symylitude, 5 He that sowith, yede out to sowe his seed. And while he sowith, sum fel bisidis the weie, and was defoulid, and briddis of the eir eten it. 6 And oþir fel on a stoon, and it sprunge vp, and driede, for it hadde not moysture. 7 And oþir fel among thornes, and the thornes sprongen vp togidir, and strangliden it. 8 And oþir fel in to good erthe, and it sprungun made an hundrid foold fruyt. He seide these thingis, and criede, He that hath eeris of heryng, here he. 9 But hise disciplis axiden him, what this parable was. 10 And he seide to hem, To you it is grauntid to knowe the pryuate of the kyngdom of God; but to oþir men in parablis, that thei seyng se not, and thei herynge vndurstonde not. 11 And this is the parable. 12 The seed is Goddis word; and thei that ben bisidis the weie, ben these that heren; and aftirward the feend cometh, and takith awei the word fro her herte, lest thei bileuyng be maad saaf. 13 But thei that fel on a stoon, ben these that whanne thei han herd, resseyuen the word with ioye. And these han not rootis; for at a tyme thei bileuen, and in tyme of temptacioun thei goen awei. 14 But that that fel among thornes, ben these that herden, and of bisynnessis, and ritchessis, and lustis of lijf thei gon forth, and ben stranglid, and bryngen forth no fruyt. 15 But that that fel in to good erthe, ben these that, in a good herte, and best heren the word, and holdun, and brenge forth fruyt in pacience. 16 No man lityneth a lanterne, and hilith it with a vessel, or puttith it vndur a bed, but on a candilstike, that men that entren seen liyt.

17 For ther is no priuei thing, which schal not be openyd, nether hid thing, which schal not be knowun, and come in to open.
18 Therfor se ye, hou ye heren; for it schal be youun to hym that hath, and who euer hath not, also that that he weneth that he haue, schal be takun awei fro hym. 19 And his modir and britheren camen to hym; and thei myyten not come to hym for the puple. 20 And it was teeld to hym, Thi modir and thi britheren stonden with outforth, willynge to se thee. 21 And he answeride, and seide to hem, My modir and my britheren ben these, that heren the word of God, and doon it. 22 And it was don in oon of daies, he wente vp in to a boot, and hise disciplis. And he seide to hem, Passe we ouer the see. And thei wenten vp. 23 And while thei rowiden, he slepte. And a tempest of wynde cam doun in to the watir, and thei weren dryuun hidur and thidur with wawis, and weren in perel. 24 And thei camen nyy, and reisen hym, and seiden, Comaundoure, we perischen. And he roos, and blamyde the wynde, and the tempest of the watir; and it ceesside, and pesibilte was maad. 25 And he seide to hem, Where is youre feith? Which dredynge wondriden, and seiden togidir, Who, gessist thou, is this? for he comaundith to wyndis and to the see, and thei obeien to hym. 26 And thei rowiden to the cuntree of Gerasenus, that is ayens Galilee. 27 And whanne he wente out to the loond, a man ran to hym, that hadde a deuel long tyme, and he was not clothid with cloth, nether dwellide in hous, but in sepulcris. 28 This, whanne he saiȝ Jhesu, fel doun bifor hym, and he crijnge with a greet vois seide, What to me and to thee, Jhesu, the sone of the hiȝest God? Y biseche thee, that thou turmente `not me. 29 For he comaundide the vncleene spirit, that he schulde go out fro the man. For he took hym ofte tymes, and he was boundun with cheynes, and kept in stockis, and, whanne the boondis weren brokun, he was lad of deuelis in to desert. 30 And Jhesus axide hym, and seide, What name is to thee? And he seide, A legioun; for many deuelis weren entrid in to hym. 31 And thei preyden hym, that he schulde not comaunde hem, that thei schulden go in to helle. (Abyssos g12) 32 And there was a flok of many swyne lesewyng in an hil, and thei preieden hym, that he schulde suffre hem to entre in to hem. And he suffride hem. 33 And so the deuelis wenten out fro the man, and entriden in to the swyne; and with a birre the flok wente heedlyng in to the pool, and was drenchid. 34 And whanne the hirdis sayn this thing don, thei flowen, and tolden in to the cite, and in to the townes. 35 And thei yeden out to se that thing that was don. And thei camen to Jhesu, and thei founden the man sittynge clothid, fro whom the deuelis wenten out, and in hool mynde at hise feet; and thei dredden. 36 And thei that sayn tolden to hem, hou he was maad hool of the legioun. 37 And al the multitude of the cuntre of Gerasenus preiede hym, that he schulde go fro hem, for thei werun holdun with greet drede. He wente vp in to a boot, and turnede ayen. 38 And the man of whom the deuēlis weren gon out, preide hym, that he schulde be with hym. Jhesus lefte hym, 39 and seide, Go ayen in to thin hous, and telle hou grete thingis God hath don to thee. And he wente thorow al the cite, and prechide, hou grete thingis Jhesus hadde don to hym. 40 And it was don, whanne Jhesus was gon ayen, the puple resseyuede hym; for alle weren abidyngē hym. 41 And lo! a man, to whom the name was Jayrus, and he was prynce of a synagoge; and he fel doun at the feet of Jhesu, and preiede hym, that he schulde entre in to his hous, 42 for he hadde but o douyter `almost of twelue yeer eelde, and sche was deed. And it bifel, the while he wente, he was thrungun of the puple. 43 And a womman that hadde a flux of blood twelue yeer, and hadde spendid al hir catel in leechis, and sche miyte not be curid of ony, 44 and sche cam nyy bihynde, and touchide the hem of his cloth, and anoon the fluxe of hir blood ceesside. 45 And Jhesus seide, Who is that touchide me? And whanne alle men denyeden, Petre seide, and thei that weren with hym, Comaundour, the puple thristen, and disesen thee, and thou seist, Who touchide me? 46 And Jhesus seide, Summan hath touchid me, for that vertu yede out of me. 47 And the womman seyngē, that it was not hid fro hym, cam tremblyngē, and fel doun at hise feet, and for what cause sche hadde touchid hym sche schewide bifor al the puple, and hou anoon sche was helid. 48 And he seide to hir, Douytir, thi feith hath maad thee saaf; go thou in pees. 49 And yit while he spak, a man cam fro the prince of the synagoge, and seide to hym, Thi douytir is deed, nyle thou trauel the maister. 50 And whanne this word was herd, Jhesus answeride to the fadir of the damysel, Nyle thou drede, but bileue thou oonli, and sche schal be saaf. 51 And whanne he cam to the hous, he suffride no man to entre with hym, but Petir and Joon and James, and the fadir and the modir of the damysel. 52 And alle wepten, and biweileden hir. And he seide, Nyle ye wepe, for the damysel is not deed, but slepith. 53 And thei scorneden hym, and wisten that sche was deed. 54 But he helde hir hoond, and criede, and seide, Damysel, rise vp. 55 And hir spirit turnede ayen, and sche roos anoon. And he comaundide to yyue to hir to ete. 56 And hir fadir and modir wondriden greetli; and he comaundide hem, that thei schulden not seie to ony that thing that was don.

9 And whanne the twelue apostlis weren clepid togidir, Jhesus yaf to hem vertu and power on alle deuelis, and that thei schulden heele sijknensis. 2 And he sente hem for to preche the kyngdom of God, and to heele sijk men. 3 And he seide to hem, No thing take ye in the weie, nether yerde, ne scrippe, nether breed, ne money, and nether haue ye two cootis. 4 And in to what hous that ye entren, dwelle ye there, and go ye not out fro thennus. 5 And who euer resseyuen not you, go ye out of that citee, and schake ye of the poudir of youre feet in to witnessyng on hem. 6 And thei yeden forth, and wenten aboute bi castels, prechyng and helyng euery where. 7 And Eroude tetrak herde alle thingis that weren don of hym, and he doutide, 8 for that it was seide of sum men, that Joon was risen fro deth; and of summen, that Elie hadde apperid; but of othere, that oon of the elde prophetis was risun. 9 And Eroude seide, Y haue biheedid Joon; and who is this, of whom Y here siche thingis? And he souyte to se hym. 10 And the apostlis turneden ayen, and tolden to hym alle thingis that thei hadden don. And he took hem, and wente bisidis in to a desert place, that is Bethsada. 11

And whanne the puple knewen this, thei folewiden hym. And he resseyuede hem, and spak to hem of the kyngdom of God; and he heelide hem that hadden neede of cure. 12 And the dai bigan to bowe doun, and the twelue camen, and seiden to hym, Leeue the puple, that thei go, and turne in to castels and townes, that ben aboute, that thei fynde mete, for we ben here in a desert place. 13 And he seide to hem, Yue ye to hem to ete. And thei seiden, Ther ben not to vs mo than fyue looues and twei fischis, but peraventure that we go, and bie meetis to al this puple. 14 And the men weren almost fyue thousynde. And he seide to hise disciplis, Make ye hem sitte to mete bi cumpanyes, a fifti to gidir. 15 And thei diden so, and thei maden alle men sitte to mete. 16 And whanne he hadde take the fyue looues and twei fischis, he biheeld in to heuene, and blesside hem, and brak, and delide to hise disciplis, that thei schulden sette forth bifor the cumpanyes. 17 And alle men eeten, and weren fulfillid; and that that lefte to hem of brokun metis was takun vp, twelue cofyns. 18 And it was don, whanne he was aloone preiyng, hise disciplis weren with hym, and he axide hem, and seide, Whom seien the puple that Y am? 19 And thei answeriden, and seiden, Joon Baptist, othir seien Elie, and othir seien, o profete of the formere is risun. 20 And he seide to hem, But who seien ye that Y am? Symount Petir answeride, and seide, The Crist of God. 21 And he blamyng hem comaundide that thei schulden seie to no man, 22 and seide these thingis, For it bihoueth mannus sone to suffre many thingis, and to be repreued of the elder men, and of the pryncis of prestis, and of scribis, and to be slayn, and the thridde dai to rise ayen. 23 And he seide to alle, If ony wole come aftir me, denye he hym silf, and take he his cross euery

dai, and sue he me. 24 For he that wole make his lijf saaf schal leese it; and he that leesith his lijf for me, schal make it saaf. 25 And what profitith it to a man, if he wyne al the world, and leese hymself, and do peiryng of him silf. 26 For who so schameth me and my wordis, mannus sone schal schame hym, whanne he cometh in his maieste, and of the fadris, and of the hooli aungels. 27 And Y seie to you, verily ther ben summe stondyng here, whiche schulen not taste deeth, til thei seen the rewme of God. 28 And it was don aftir these wordis almost eiyte daies, and he took Petre and James and Joon, and he stiede in to an hil, to preye. 29 And while he preiede, the licnesse of his cheer was chaungid, and his clothing was whit schynyng. 30 And lo! two men spaken with hym, 31 and Moises and Helie weren seen in maieste; and thei sayn his goyng out, which he schulde fulfille in Jerusalem. 32 And Petre, and thei that weren with hym, weren heuy of sleep, and thei wakyng saien his majeste, and the twey men that stoden with hym. 33 And it was don, whanne thei departiden fro hym, Petir seide to Jhesu, Comaundour, it is good that we be here, and make we here thre tabernaclis, oon to thee, and oon to Moises, and oon to Elie. And he wiste not what he schulde seie. 34 But while he spak these thingis, a cloude was maad, and ouerschadewide hem; and thei dredden, whanne thei entriden in to the cloude. 35 And a vois was maad out of the cloude, and seide, This is my derworth sone, here ye hym. 36 And while the vois was maad, Jhesu was foundun aloone. And thei weren stille, and to no man seiden in tho daies ouyt of tho thingis, that thei hadden seyn. 37 But it was doon in the dai suyng, whanne thei camen doun of the hil, myche puple mette hem. 38 And lo! a man of the cumpany criede, and seide,

Maister, Y biseche thee, biholde my sone, for Y haue no mo; and lo! 39 a spirit takith hym, and sudenli he crieth, and hurtlith doun, and to-drawith hym with fome, and vnneth he goith awei al to-drawynge hym. 40 And Y preiede thi disciplis, that thei schulden caste hym out, and thei myyten not. 41 And Jhesus answerde and seide to hem, A! vnfeithful generacioun and weiward, hou long schal Y be at you, and suffre you? brynge hidur thi sone. 42 And whanne he cam nyy, the deuel hurtlide hym doun, and to-braidide hym. And Jhesus blamyde `the vnclene spirit, and heelide the child, and yeldide him to his fadir. 43 And alle men wondriden greetli in the gretnesse of God. And whanne alle men wondriden in alle thingis that he dide, he seide to hise disciplis, 44 Putte ye these wordis in youre hertis, for it is to come, that mannus sone be bitrayed in to the hondis of men. 45 And thei knewen not this word, and it was hid bifer hem, that thei feeliden it not; and thei dredden to axe hym of this word. 46 But a thouyt entride in to hem, who of hem schulde be grettest. 47 And Jhesu, seyng the thouytis of the herte of hem, took a child, and settide hym bisidis hym; 48 and seide to hem, Who euer resseyueth this child in my name, resseyueth me; and who euer resseyueth me, resseyueth him that sente me; for he that is leest among you alle, is the grettest. 49 And Joon answeride and seide, Comaundoure, we sayn a man castynge out feendis in thi name, and we han forbedun hym, for he sueth not thee with vs. 50 And Jhesus seide to hym, Nyle ye forbede, for he that is not ayens vs, is for vs. 51 And it was don, whanne the daies of his takyng vp weren fulfillid, he settide faste his face, to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sente messangeris bifer his siyt. And thei yeden, and entriden in to a citee of Samaritans, to make redi to

hym. 53 And thei resseyueden not hym, for the face `was of hym goynge in to Jerusalem. 54 And whanne James and Joon, hise disciplis, seyn, thei seiden, Lord, wolt thou that we seien, that fier come doun fro heuene, and waste hem? 55 And he turnede, and blamyde hem, and seide, Ye witen not, whos spiritis ye ben; 56 for mannus sone cam not to leese mennus soulis, but to saue. And thei wenten in to another castel. 57 And it was don, whanne thei walkeden in the weie, a man seide to hym, Y schal sue thee, whidur euer thou go. 58 And Jhesus seide to hym, Foxis han dennes, and briddis of the eir han nestis, but mannus sone hath not where he reste his heed. 59 And he seide to another, Sue thou me. And he seide, Lord, suffre me first to go, and birie my fadir. 60 And Jhesus seide to hym, Suffre that deede men birie hir deede men; but go thou, and telle the kyngdom of God. 61 And another seide, Lord, Y schal sue thee, but first suffre me to leue `alle thingis that ben at hoom. 62 And Jhesus seide to hym, No man that puttith his hoond to the plouy, and biholdynge backward, is able to the rewme of God.

in the same hous, etynge and drynkynge tho thingis that ben at hem; for a werk man is worthi his hire. Nyle ye passe from hous in to hous. 8 And in to what euer citee ye entren, and thei resseyuen you, ete ye tho thingis that ben set to you; 9 and heele ye the sijke men that ben in that citee. And seie ye to hem, The kyngdom of God schal neie in to you. 10 In to what citee ye entren, and thei resseyuen you not, go ye out in to the streetis of it, 11 and seie ye, We wipen of ayens you the poudir that cleued to vs of youre citee; netheles wite ye this thing, that the rewme of God schal come nyy. 12 Y seie to you, that to Sodom it schal be esiere than to that citee in that dai. 13 Wo to thee, Corosayn; wo to thee, Bethsaida; for if in Tyre and Sidon the vertues hadden be don, whiche han be don in you, sum tyme thei wolden haue sete in heyre and asches, and haue don penaunce. 14 Netheles to Tire and Sidon it schal be esiere in the doom than to you. 15 And thou, Cafarnaum, art enhaunsid `til to heuene; thou schalt be drenchid `til in to helle. (Hadēs g86) 16 He that herith you, herith me; and he that dispisith you, dispisith me; and he that dispisith me, dispisith hym that sente me. 17 And the two and seuenti disciplis turneden ayen with ioye, and seiden, Lord, also deuelis ben suget to vs in thi name. 18 And he seide to hem, Y saiy Sathnas fallynge down fro heuene, as leit. 19 And lo! Y haue youun to you power to trede on serpentis, and on scorpyouns, and on al the vertu of the enemy, and nothing schal anoye you. 20 Netheles nyle ye ioye on this thing, that spiritis ben suget to you; but ioye ye, that youre names ben writun in heuenes. 21 In thilk our he gladide in the Hooli Goost, and seide, Y knouleche to thee, fadir, Lord of heuene and of erthe, for thou hast hid these thingis fro wise men and prudent, and hast schewid hem to smale children. Yhe, fadir, for so it pleside bifer thee. 22 Alle thingis ben youun to me of my fadir, and no man woot, who is the sone, but the fadir; and who is the fadir, but the sone, and to whom the sone wole schewe. 23 And he turnede to hise disciplis, and seide, Blessid ben the iyen, that seen tho thingis that ye seen. 24 For Y seie to you, that many prophetis and kyngis wolden haue seie tho thingis, that ye seen, and thei sayn not; and here tho thingis, that ye heren, and thei herden not. 25 And lo! a wise man of the lawe ros vp, temptynge hym, and seiyng, Maister, what thing schal Y do to haue euerlastynge lijf? (aiōnios g166) 26 And he seide to hym, What is writun in the lawe? hou redist thou? 27 He answeride, and seide, Thou schalt loue thi Lord God of al thin herte, and of al thi soule, and of alle thi strengthis, and of al thi mynde; and thi neybore as thi silf. 28 And Jhesus seide to hym, Thou hast answerid rihtli; do this thing, and thou schalt lyue. 29 But he willynge to iustifie hym silf, seide to Jhesu, And who is my neybore? 30 And Jhesu biheld, and seide, A man cam doun fro Jerusalem in to Jerico, and fel among theues, and thei robbiden hym, and woundiden hym, and wente awei, and leften the man half alyue. 31 And it bifel, that a prest cam doun the same weie, and passide forth, whanne he hadde seyn hym. 32 Also a dekene, whanne he was bisidis the place, and saiȳ him, passide forth. 33 But a Samaritan, goynge the weie, cam bisidis hym; and he siȳ hym, and hadde reuthe on hym; 34 and cam to hym, and boond togidir hise woundis, and helde in oyle and wynne; and leide hym on his beest, and ledde in to an ostrie, and dide the cure of hym. 35 And another dai he brouȳte forth tweȳ pans, and ȳaf to the ostiler, and seide, Haue the cure of

hym; and what euer thou schalt yyue ouer, Y schal yelde to thee, whanne Y come ayen. 36 Who of these thre, semeth to thee, was neybore to hym, that fel among theues? 37 And he seide, He that dide merci in to hym. And Jhesus seide to hym, Go thou, and do thou on lijk maner. 38 And it was don, while thei wenten, he entride in to a castel; and a womman, Martha bi name, resseyuede hym in to hir hous. 39 And to this was a sistir, Marie bi name, which also sat bisidis the feet of the Lord, and herde his word. 40 But Martha bisiede aboute the ofte seruyce. And sche stood, and seide, Lord, takist thou no kepe, that my sistir hath left me aloone to serue? therfor seie thou to hir, that sche helpe me. 41 And the Lord answerde, and seide to hir, Martha, Martha, thou art bysi, and art troublid aboute ful many thingis; 42 but o thing is necessarie. Marie hath chosun the best part, which schal not be takun awei fro hir.

11 And it was don, whanne he was preinyng in a place, as he ceesside, oon of hise disciplis seide to hym, Lord, teche vs to preye, as Joon tauyte hise disciplis. 2 And he seide to hem, Whanne ye preien, seie ye, Fadir, halewid be thi name. Thi kyngdom come to. 3 Yyue `to vs to dai oure ech daies breed. 4 And foryyue to vs oure synnes, as we foryyuen to ech man that owith to vs. And lede vs not in to temptacioun. 5 And he seide to hem, Who of you schal haue a freend, and schal go to hym at mydnyyt, and schal seie to hym, Freend, leene to me thre looues; 6 for my freend cometh to me fro the weie, and Y haue not what Y schal sette bifer hym. 7 And he with ynforth answerde and seie, Nyle thou be heuy to me; the dore is now schit, and my children ben with me in bed; Y may not rise, and yyue to thee. 8 And if he schal dwelle stil knockyng, Y seie to you, thou he schal not rise, and yyue to him, for that that he is his freend, netheles for his contynuel axyng he schal ryse, and yyue to hym, as many as he hath nede to. 9 And Y seie to you, axe ye, and it schal be youun to you; seke ye, and ye schulen fynde; knocke ye, and it schal be openyd to you. 10 For ech that axith, takith, and he that sekith, fyndith; and to a man that knockith, it schal be openyd. 11 Therfor who of you axith his fadir breed, whether he schal yyue hym a stoon? or if he axith fisch, whether he schal yyue hym a serpent for the fisch? 12 or if he axe an eye, whether he schal a reche hym a scorioun? 13 Therfor if ye, whanne ye ben yuel, kunnen yyue good yiftis to youre children, hou myche more youre fadir of heuene schal yyue a good spirit to men that axith him. 14 And Jhesus was castynge out a feend, and he was doumbe. And whanne he hadde cast out the feend, the doumbe man spak; and the puple wondride. 15 And sum of hem seiden, In Belsabub, prince of deuelis, he castith out deuelis. 16 And othir temptinge axiden of hym a tokene fro heuene. 17 And as he sai y the thouytis of hem, he seide to hem, Euery rewme departid ayens it silf, schal be desolat, and an hous schal falle on an hous. 18 And if Sathanas be departid ayens hym silf, hou schal his rewme stonde? For ye seien, that Y caste out feendis in Belsabub. 19 And if Y in Belsabub caste out fendis, in whom casten out youre sones? Therfor thei schulen be youre domesmen. 20 But if Y caste out fendis in the fyngir of God, thanne the rewme of God is comun among you. 21 Whanne a strong armed man kepith his hous, alle thingis that he weldith ben in pees. 22 But if a stronger than he come vpon hym, and ouercome hym, he schal take awei al his armere, in which he tristide, and schal dele abrood his robries. 23 He that is not with me, is ayens me; and he that gederith not togidir with me, scaterith abrood. 24 Whanne an vnclene spirit goith out of a man, he wandrith bi drie placis, and sekith reste; and he fyndyng not, seith, Y schal turne ayen in to myn hous, fro whannes Y cam out. 25 And whanne he cometh, he fyndith it clansid with besyms, and fayre arayed. 26 Thanne he goith, and takith with hym seuene othere spirits worse than hym silf, and thei entren, and dwellen there. And the laste thingis of that man ben maad worse than the formere. 27 And it was don, whanne he hadde seid these thingis, a womman of the cumpanye reride hir vois, and seide to hym, Blessid be the wombe that bare thee, and blessid be the tetis that thou hast soken. 28 And he seide, But yhe blessid be thei, that heren the word of God, and kepen it. 29 And whanne the puple runnen togidere, he bigan to seie, This generacioun is a weiward generacioun; it sekith a token, and a tokene schal not be youun to it, but the tokene of Jonas, the profete. 30 For as Jonas was a tokene to men of Nynyue, so mannus sone schal be to this generacioun. 31 The queen of the south schal rise in doom with men of this generacioun, and schal condempne hem; for sche cam fro the endis of the erthe, for to here the wisdom of Salomon, and lo! here is a gretter than Salomon. 32 Men of Nynyue schulen rise in doom with this generacioun, and schulen condempne it; for thei diden penaunce in the prechyng of Jonas, and lo! here is a gretter than Jonas. 33 No man tendith a lanterne, and puttith in hidils, nether vndur a buyschel, but on a candilstike, that thei that goen in, se liyt. 34 The lanterne of thi bodi is thin iye; if thin iye be symple, al thi bodi schal be liyti; but if it be weyward, al thi bodi schal be derkful. 35 Therfor se thou, lest the liyt that is in thee, be derknessis. 36 Therfor if al thi bodi be briyt, and haue no part of derknessis, it schal be al briyt, and as a lanterne of briytnesse it schal yyue liyt to thee. 37 And whanne he spak, a Farisee preiede him, that he schulde ete with hym. And he entride, and sat to the meete. 38 And the Farisee bigan to seie, gessynge with ynne hym silf, whi he was not waschen bifor mete. 39 And the Lord seide to hym, Now ye Farisees clensen that that is with outhenforth of the cuppe and the plater; but that thing that is with ynne of you, is ful of raueyn and wickidnesse. 40 Foolis, whether he that made that that is withoutenforth, made not also that that is with ynne? 41 Netheles that that is ouer plus, yyue ye almes, and lo! alle thingis ben cleene to you. 42 But wo to you, Farisees, that tithen mynte, and rue, and ech eerbe, and leeuyn doom and the charite of God. For it bihofte to do these thingis, and not leeuyn tho. 43 Wo to you, Farisees, that louen the firste chaieris in synagogis, and salutaciouns in chepyng. 44 Wo to you, that ben as sepulchris, that ben not seyn, and men walkynge aboue witen not. 45 But oon of the wise men of the lawe answeride, and seide to hym, Maystir, thou seiynge these thingis, also to vs doist dispit. 46 And he seide, Also wo to you, wise men of lawe, for ye chargen men with birthuns which thei moun not bere, and ye you silf with youre o fyngur touchen not the heuynessis. 47 Wo to you, that bilden toumbis of profetis; and youre fadris slowen hem. 48 Treuli ye witnessen, that ye consenten to the werkis of youre fadris; for thei slowen hem, but ye bilden her sepulchris. 49 Therfor the wisdom of God seide, Y schal sende to hem profetis and apostlis, and of hem thei schulen sle and pursue, 50 that the blood of alle prophetis, that was sched fro the making of the world, be souyt of this generacioun; 51 fro the blood of the iust Abel to the blood of Zacharie, that was slayn bitwixe the auter and the hous. So Y seie to you, it schal be souyt of this generacioun. 52 Wo to you, wise men of the lawe, for ye han takun awei the keye of kunnyng; and ye yow silf entriden not, and ye han forbeden hem that entriden. 53 And whanne he seide these thingis to hem, the Farisees and wise men of lawe bigunnen greuouli to ayenstonde, and stoppe his mouth of many thingis, 54 aspiynge hym, and sekyng to take sum thing of his mouth, to accuse hym.

12 And whanne myche puple stood aboute, so that thei treden ech on othir, he bigan to seie to hise disciplis, Be ye war of the sourdoy of the Farisees, that is ypocrisie. 2 For no thing is hilid, that schal not be schewid; nether hid, that schal not be wist. 3 For whi tho thingis that ye han seid in derknessis, schulen be seid in liyt; and that that ye han spokun in eere in the couchis, schal be prechid in roofes. 4 And Y seie to you, my freendis, be ye not a ferd of hem that sleen the bodie, and aftir these thingis han no more what thei schulen do. 5 But Y schal schewe to you, whom ye schulen drede; drede ye hym, that aftir he hath slayn, he hath power to sende in to helle. And so Y seie to you, drede ye hym. (Geenna g1067) 6 Whether fyue sparowis ben not seld for twei halpens; and oon of hem is not in foryetyng bifor God? 7 But also alle the heeris of youre heed ben noumbrid. Therfor nyle ye drede; ye ben of more prijs than many sparowis. 8 Treuli Y seie to you, ech man that knoulechith me bifor men, mannus sone schal knouleche hym bifor the aungels of God. 9 But he that denyeth me bifor men, schal be denyed bifor the aungels of God. 10 And ech that seith a word ayens mannus sone, it schal be foryouun to hym; but it schal not be foryouun to hym, that blasfemeth ayens the Hooli Goost. 11 And whanne thei leden you in to synagogis, and to magistratis, and potestatis, nyle ye `be bisie, hou or what ye schulen answer, or what ye schulen seie. 12 For the Hooli Goost schal teche you in that our, what it bihoueth you to seie. 13 And oon of the puple seide to hym, Maystir, seie to my brothir, that he departe with me the eritage. 14 And he seyde to hym, Man, who ordeynede me a domesman, or a departere, on you? 15 And he seide to hem, Se ye, and be ye war of al coueytice; for the lijf of a man is not in the abundaunce of tho thingis, whiche he weldith. 16 And he tolde to hem a liknesse, and seide, The feeld of a riche man brouyte forth plenteuouse fruytis. 17 And he thouyte with ynne hym silf, and seide, What schal Y do, for Y haue not whidur Y schal gadere my fruytis? 18 And he seith, This thing Y schal do; Y schal throwe down my bernes, and Y schal make gretter, and thidir Y schal gadir alle thingis that growen to me, and my goodis. 19 And Y schal seie to my soule, Soule, thou hast many goodis kept in to ful many yeeris; rest thou, ete, drynke, and make feeste. 20 And God seide to hym, Fool, in this nytyt thei schulen take thi lijf fro thee. And whos schulen tho thingis be, that thou hast arayed? 21 So is he that tresourith to hym silf, and is not riche in God. 22 And he seide to hise disciplis, Therfor Y seie to you, nyle ye be bisy to youre lijf, what ye schulen ete, nether to youre bodi, with what ye schulen be clothid. 23 The lijf is more than mete, and the body more than clothing. 24 Biholde ye crowis, for thei sown not, nethir repen, to whiche is no celer, ne berne, and God fedith hem. Hou myche more ye ben of more prijs than thei. 25 And who of you bithenkyng may put to o cubit to his stature? 26 Therfor if ye moun not that that is leest, what ben ye bisie of othere thingis? 27 Biholde ye the lilies of the feeld, hou thei wexen; thei trauelen not, nethir spynnen. And Y seie to you, that nethir Salomon in al his glorie was clothid as oon of these. 28 And if God clothith thus the hey, that to dai is in the feeld, and to morewe is cast in to an ouen; hou myche more you of lital feith. 29 And nyle ye seke, what ye schulen ete, or what ye schulen drynke; and nyle ye be reisid an hiy. 30 For folkis of the world seken alle these thingis; and your fadir woot, that ye neden alle these thingis. 31 Netheles seke ye first the kyngdom of God, and alle these thingis schulen be caste to you. 32 Nyle ye, lital flok, drede, for it pleside to youre fadir to yyue you a kyngdom. 33 Selle ye tho thingis that ye han in possessioun, and yyue ye almes. And make to you sachels that wexen not oolde, tresoure that failith not in heuenes, whidir a theef neiyith not, nether mouyt destruyeth. 34 For where is thi tresoure, there thin herte schal be. 35 Be youre leendis gird aboue, and lanternes brennyng in youre hoondis; 36 and be ye lijk to men that abiden her lord, whanne he schal turne ayen fro the weddyngis, that whanne he schal come, and knocke, anon thei openen to hym. 37 Blessid be tho seruauntis, that whanne the lord schal come, he schal fynde wakyng. Treuli Y seie to you, that he schal girde hym silf, and make hem sitte to mete, and he schal go, and serue hem. 38 And if he come in the secounde wakyng, and if he come in the thridde wakyng, and fynde so, tho seruauntis ben blessid. 39 And wite ye this thing, for if an hosebonde man wiste, in what our the theef wolde come, sotheli he schulde wake, and not suffre his hous to be myned. 40 And be ye redi, for in what our ye gessen not, mannus sone schal come. 41 And Petre seide to hym, Lord, seist thou this parable to vs, or to alle? 42 And the Lord seide, Who, gessist thou, is a trewe dispendere, and a prudent, whom the lord hath ordeyned on his meyne, to yyue hem in tyme mesure of whete? 43 Blessid is that seruaunt, that the lord whanne he cometh, schal fynde so doynge. 44 Verili Y seie to you, that on alle thingis that he weldith, he schal ordeyne hym. 45 That if that seruaunt seie in his herte, My lord tarieth to come; and bigynne to smyte children, and handmaydenes, and ete, and drynke, and be fulfillid ouer mesure, 46 the lord of that seruaunt schal come, in the dai that he hopith not, and the our that he woot not; and schal departe hym, and putte his part with vnfeithful men. 47 But thilke seruaunt that knew the wille of his lord, and made not hym redi, and dide not aftir his wille, schal be betun with many betyngis. 48 But he that knew not, and dide worthi thingis of strokis, schal be betun with fewe. For to eche man to whom myche is youun, myche schal be axid of hym; and thei schulen axe more of hym, to whom thei bitoken myche. 49 Y cam to sende fier `in to the erthe, and what wole Y, but that it be kyndlid? 50 And Y haue to be baptisid with a baptyism, and hou am Y constreyned, til that it be perfitli don? 51 Wene ye, that Y cam to yyue pees in to erthe? Nay, Y say to you, but departyng. 52 For fro this tyme ther schulen be fyue departid in oon hous; thre schulen be departid ayens tweyne, and tweyne schulen be departid ayens thre; 53 the fadir ayens the sone, and the sone ayens the fadir; the modir ayens the douytir, and the douytir ayens the modir; the hosebondis modir ayens the sones wijf, and and the sones wijf ayens hir hosebondis modir. 54 And he seide also to the puple, Whanne ye seen a cloude risynge fro the sunne goynge doun, anoon ye seien, Reyn cometh; and so it is don. 55 And whanne ye seen the south blowynge, ye seien, That heete schal be; and it is don. 56 Ypocritis, ye kunnen preue the face of heuene and of erthe, but hou preuen ye not this tyme. 57 But what and of you silf ye demen not that that is iust? 58 But whanne thou goist with thin aduersarie in the weie to the prince, do bisynesse to be delyuerid fro hym; lest perauenture he take thee to the domesman, and the domesman bitake thee to the maistirful axer, and the maistirful axer sende thee in to prisoun. 59 Y seie to thee, thou schalt not go fro thennus, til thou yelde the laste ferthing.

13 And sum men weren present in that tyme, that telden to hym of the Galileis, whos blood Pilat myngide with the sacrificis of hem. 2 And he answeride, and seide to hem, Wenen ye, that these men of Galile weren synneris more than alle Galilees, for thei suffriden siche thingis? 3 Y seie to you, nay; alle ye schulen perische in lijk manere, but ye han penaunce. 4 And as tho eiytetene, on which the toure in Siloa fel doun, and slowe hem, gessen ye, for thei weren dettouris more than alle men that dwellen in Jerusalem? 5 Y seie to you, nai; but also `ye alle schulen perische, if ye doon not penaunce. 6 And he seide this liknesse, A man hadde a fige tre plauntid in his vynyerd, and he cam sekynghe fruyt in it, and foond noon. 7 And he seide to the tilier of the vynyerd, Lo! thre yeeris ben, sithen Y come sekynghe fruyt in this fige tre, and Y fynde noon; therfor kitte it doun, whereto ocupieth it the erthe? 8 And he answeynghe seide to hym, Lord, suffre it also this yeer, the while Y delue aboute it, and Y schal donge it; 9 if it schal make fruyt, if nay, in tyme comynghe thou schalt kitte it doun. 10 And he was techinge in her

synagoge in the sabatis. 11 And lo! a womman, that hadde a spirit of sijknesse eiytene yeeris, and was crokid, and `nethir ony maner myyte loke vpward. 12 Whom whanne Jhesus hadde seyn, he clepide to hym, and seide to hir, Womman, thou art delyuerid of thi sijknesse. 13 And he settide on hir his hoondis, and anon sche stood upriyt, and glorifiede God. 14 And the prince of the synagoge answerde, hauynge dedeyn for Jhesus hadde heelid in the sabat; and he seide to the puple, Ther ben sixe dayes, in whiche it bihoueth to worche; therfor come ye in these, and `be ye heelid, and not in the daie of sabat. 15 But the Lord answeride to hym, and seide, Ypocrite, whether ech of you vntieth not in the sabat his oxe, or asse, fro the cratche, and ledith to watir? 16 Bihoft it not this douytir of Abraham, whom Satanas hath boundun, lo! eiytetene yeeris, to be vnboundun of this boond in the dai of the sabat? 17 And whanne he seide these thingis, alle hise aduersaries weren aschamed, and al the puple ioiede in alle thingis, that weren gloriousli don of hym. 18 Therfor he seide, To what thing is the kyngdom of God lijk? and to what thing schal Y gesse it to be lijk? 19 It is lijk to a corn of seneuey, which a man took, and cast in to his yerd; and it wax, and was maad in to a greet tree, and foulis of the eire restiden in the braunchis therof. 20 And eft soone he seide, To what thing schal Y gesse the kyngdom of God lijk? 21 It is lijk to sourdoy, that a womman took, and hidde it `in to thre mesuris of mele, til al were sourid. 22 And he wente bi citees and castels, techynge and makynge a iourney in to Jerusalem. 23 And a man seide to hym, Lord, if there ben fewe, that ben saued? And he seide to hem, 24 Stryue ye to entre bi the streite yate; for Y seie to you, many seken to entre, and thei schulen not mowe. 25 For whanne the hosebonde man is entrid, and the dore is closid, ye schulen bigynne to stonde with out forth, and knocke at the dore, and seie, Lord, opyn to vs. And he schal answere, and seie to you, Y knowe you not, of whennus ye ben. 26 Thanne ye schulen bigynne to seye, We han etun bifer thee and drunkun, and in oure streetis thou hast tauyt. 27 And he schal seie to you, Y know you not, of whennus ye ben; go awei fro me, alle ye worcheris of wickidnesse. 28 There schal be wepyng and gruntyng of teeth, whanne ye schulen se Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and alle the prophetis in the kyngdom of God; and you to be put out. 29 And thei schulen come fro the eest and west, and fro the north and south, and schulen sitte `at the mete in the rewme of God. 30 And lo! thei that weren the firste, ben the laste; and thei that weren the laste, ben the firste. 31 In that day sum of the Farisees camen nyy, and seiden to hym, Go out, and go fro hennus, for Eroude wole sle thee. 32 And he seide to hem, Go ye, and seie to that foxe, Lo! Y caste out feendis, and Y make perfilti heelthis, to dai and to morew, and the thridde dai Y am endid. 33 Netheles it bihoueth me to dai, and to morewe, and the dai that sueth, to walke; for it fallith not a profete to perische out of Jerusalem. 34 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that sleest profetis, and stonest hem that ben sent to thee, hou ofte wolde Y gadre togider thi sones, as a brid gaderith his nest vndur fethris, and thou woldist not. 35 Lo! youre hous schal be left to you desert. And Y seie to you, that ye schulen not se me, til it come, whanne ye schulen seie, Blessid is he, that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And it was don, whanne he hadde entrid in to the hous of a prince of Farisees, in the sabat, to ete breed, thei aspieden

hym. 2 And lo! a man sijk in the dropesie was bifor hym. 3 And Jhesus answeyng spak to the wise men of lawe, and to the Farisees, and seide, Whethir it is leeueful to heele in the sabat? 4 And thei helden pees. And Jhesus took, and heelide hym, and let hym go. 5 And he answeride to hem, and seide, Whos asse or oxe of you schal falle in to a pit, and `he schal not anoon drawe hym out in the dai of the sabat? 6 And thei myyten not answeere to hym to these thingis. 7 He seide also a parable to men bodun to a feeste, and biheld hou thei chesen the first sitting placis, and seide to hem, 8 Whanne thou art bodun to bridalys, sitte not `at the mete in the firste place; lest perauenture a worthier than thou be bodun of hym, 9 and lest he come that clepide thee and hym, and seie to thee, Yyue place to this, and thanne thou schalt bigynne with schame to holde the lowest place. 10 But whanne thou art bedun to a feste, go, and sitte down in the laste place, that whanne he cometh, that bad thee to the feeste, he seie to thee, Freend, come hiyer. Thanne worschip schal be to thee, bifor men that sitten at the mete. 11 For ech that enhaunsith hym, schal be lowid; and he that meketh hym, schal be hiyed. 12 And he seide to hym, that hadde bodun hym to the feeste, Whanne thou makist a mete, or a soper, nyle thou clepe thi freendis, nether thi britheren, nethir cosyns, nethir neiyboris, ne riche men; lest perauenture thei bidde thee ayen to the feeste, and it be yolde ayen to thee. 13 But whanne thou makist a feeste, clepe pore men, 14 feble, crokid, and blynde, and thou schalt be blessid; for thei han not wherof to yelde thee, for it schal be yoldun to thee in the risyng ayen of iust men. 15 And whanne oon of hem that saten togider at the mete hadde herd these thingis, he seide to hym, Blessid is he, that schal ete breed in the rewme of God. 16 And he seide to hym, A man made a greet soper, and clepide many. 17 And he sent his seruaunt in the our of soper, to seie to men that weren bodun to the feeste, that thei schulden come, for now alle thingis ben redi.

18 And alle bigunnen togidir to excusen hem. The firste seide, Y haue bouyt a toun, and Y haue nede to go out, and se it; Y preye thee, haue me excusid. 19 And the tother seide, Y haue bouyt fyue yockis of oxun, and Y go to preue hem; Y preye thee, haue me excusid. 20 And an othir seide, Y haue weddid a wijf; and therfor Y may not come. 21 And the seruaunt turnede ayen, and tolde these thingis to his lord. Thanne the hosebonde man was wrooth, and seide to his seruaunt, Go out swithe in to the grete stretis and smal stretis of the citee, and brynge ynne hidir pore men, and feble, blynde, and crokid. 22 And the seruaunt seide, Lord, it is don, as thou hast comaundid, and yit there is a void place. 23 And the lord seide to the seruaunt, Go out in to weies and heggis, and constreine men to entre, that myn hous be fulfillid. 24 For Y seie to you, that noon of tho men that ben clepid, schal taaste my soper. 25 And myche puple wenten with hym; and he turnede, and seide to hem, 26 If ony man cometh to me, and hatith not his fadir, and modir, and wijf, and sones, and britheren, and sistris, and yit his owne lijf, he may not be my disciple. 27 And he that berith not his cross, and cometh aftir me, may not be my disciple. 28 For who of you willynge to bilde a toure, whether he `first sitte not, and countith the spensis that ben nedeful, if he haue to perfourme? 29 Lest aftir that he hath set the foundement, and mowe not perfourme, alle that seen, bigynnen to scorne hym, and seie, For this man bigan to bilde, 30 and myyte not make an ende. 31 Or what kyng that wole go to do a bataile ayens anothir kyng, whether he sittith not first, and bithenkith, if he may with ten thousynde go ayens hym that cometh ayens hym with twenti thousynde? 32 Ellis yit while he is afer, he sendynge a messenger, preieth tho thingis that ben of pees. 33 So therfor ech of you, that forsakith not alle thingis that he hath, may not be my disciple. 34 Salt is good; but if salt vanysche, in what thing schal it be sauerid? 35 Nethir in erthe, nethir in donghille it is profitable, but it schal be cast out. He that hath eeris of herynge, here he.

15 And pupplicans and synful men weren neiiynge to him, to here hym. 2 And the Farisees and scribis grutchiden, seiynge, For this resseyueth synful men, and etith with hem. 3 And he spak to hem this parable, 4 and seide, What man of you that hath an hundrith scheep, and if he hath lost oon of hem, whethir he leeueth not nynti and nyne in desert, and goith to it that perischide, til he fynde it? 5 And whanne he hath foundun it, he ioieth, and leyith it on hise schuldris; and he cometh hoom, 6 and clepith togidir hise freendis and neiyboris, and seith to hem, Be ye glad with me, for Y haue founde my scheep, that hadde perischid. 7 And Y seie to you, so ioie schal be in heuene on o synful man doynge penaunce, more than on nynti and nyne iuste, that han no nede to penaunce. 8 Or what womman hauynge ten besauntis, and if sche hath lost oo besaunt, whether sche teendith not a lanterne, and turneth vpsodoun the hows, and sekith diligentli, til that sche fynde it? 9 And whanne sche hath foundun, sche clepith togidir freendis and neiyboris, and seith, Be ye glad with me, for Y haue founde the besaunt, that Y hadde lost. 10 So Y seie to you, ioie schal be bifor aungels of God on o synful man doynge penaunce. 11 And he seide, A man hadde twei sones; 12 and the yonger of hem seide to the fadir, Fadir, yyue me the porcioun of catel, that fallith to me. And he departide to hem the catel. 13 And not aftir many daies, whanne alle thingis weren gederid togider, the yonger sone wente forth in pilgrymage in to a fer cuntre; and there he wastide hise goodis in lyuyng lecherously. 14 And aftir that he hadde endid alle thingis, a strong hungre was maad in that cuntre, and he bigan to haue nede. 15 And he wente, and drouy hym to oon of the citeseyns of that cuntre. And he sente hym in to his toun, to fede swyn. 16 And he coueitide to fille his wombe of the coddis that the hoggis eeten, and no man yaf hym. 17 And he turnede ayen to hym silf, and seide, Hou many hirid men in my fadir hous han plante of looues; and Y perische here thorouy hungir. 18 Y schal rise vp, and go to my fadir, and Y schal seie to hym, Fadir, Y haue synned in to heuene, and bifor thee; 19 and now Y am not worthi to be clepid thi sone, make me as oon of thin hirid men.

20 And he roos vp, and cam to his fadir. And whanne he was yit afer, his fadir sai y hym, and was stirrid bi mercy. And he ran, and fel on his necke, and kyside hym. 21 And the sone seide to hym, Fadir, Y haue synned in to heuene, and bifor thee; and now Y am not worthi to be clepid thi sone. 22 And the fadir seide to hise seruauntis, Swithe brynge ye forth the firste stoole, and clothe ye hym, and yyue ye a ryng in his hoond, 23 and schoon on hise feet; and brynge ye a fat calf, and sle ye, and ete we, and make we feeste. 24 For this my sone was deed, and hath lyued ayen; he perischid, and is foundun. And alle men bigunnen to ete. 25 But his eldere sone was in the feeld; and whanne he cam, and neiyede to the hous, he herde a symfonye and a croude. 26 And he clepide oon of the seruauntis, and axide, what these thingis weren. 27 And he seide to hym, Thi brother is comun, and thi fadir slewe a fat calf, for he resseyuede hym saaf. 28 And he was wrooth, and wolde not come in. Therfor his fadir wente out, and bigan to preye hym. 29 And he answerde to his fadir, and seide, Lo! so many yeeris Y serue thee, and Y neuer brak thi comaundement; and thou neuer yaf to me a kidde, that Y with my freendis schulde haue ete. 30 But aftir that this thi sone, that hath deuourid his substaunce with horis, cam, thou hast slayn to hym a fat calf. 31 And he seide to hym, Sone, thou art euer more with me, and alle my thingis ben thine. 32 But it bihofte for to make feeste, and to haue ioye; for this thi brother was deed, and lyuede ayen; he perischide, and is foundun.

16 He seide also to hise disciplis, Ther was a riche man, that hadde a baili; and this was defamed to him, as he hadde wastid his goodis. 2 And he clepide hym, and seide to hym, What here Y this thing of thee? yelde reckynyng of thi baili, for thou miyte not now be baili. 3 And the baili seide with ynne him silf, What schal Y do, for my lord takith awei fro me the baili? delfe mai Y not, I schame to begge. 4 Y woot what Y schal do, that whanne Y am remeued fro the baili, thei resseyue me in to her hous. 5 Therfor whanne alle the dettours of his lord weren clepid togider, he seide to the firste, Hou myche owist thou to my lord? 6 And he seide, An hundrid barelis of oyle. And he seide to hym, Take thi caucioun, and sitte soone, and write fifti. 7 Aftirward he seide to another, And hou myche owist thou? Which answerde, An hundrid coris of whete. And he seide to hym, Take thi lettris, and write foure scoore. 8 And the lord preiside the baili of wickydnese, for he hadde do prudentli; for the sones of this world ben more prudent in her generacioun than the sones of liyt. (aiōn g165) 9 And Y seie to you, make ye to you freendis of the ritchesse of wickidnesse, that whanne ye schulen fayle, thei resseyue you in to euerlastyng tabernaclis. (aiōnios g166) 10 He that is trewe in the leeste thing, is trewe also in the more; and he that is wickid in a litil thing, is wickid also in the more. 11 Therfor if ye weren not trewe in the wickid thing of ritchesse, who schal bitake to you that that is verry? 12 And if ye weren not trewe in othere mennus thing, who schal yyue to you that that is youre? 13 No seruaunt may serue to twei lordis; for ether he schal hate `the toon, and loue the tothir; ethir he schal drawe to `the toon, and schal dispise the tothir. Ye moun not serue to God and to ritchesse. 14 But the Farisees, that weren coueytous, herden alle these thingis, and thei scorneden hym. 15 And he seide to hem, Ye it ben, that iustifien you bifer men; but God hath knowun youre hertis, for that that is hy to men, is abhomyacioun bifer God. 16 The lawe and prophetis til to Joon; fro that tyme the rewme of God is euangelisid, and ech man doith violence in to it. 17 Forsothe it is liyter heuene and erthe to passe, than that o titil falle fro the lawe. 18 Euery man that forsakith his wijf, and weddith an other, doith letcherie; and he that weddith the wijf forsakun of the hosebonde, doith auowtrie. 19 There was a riche man, and was clothid in purpur, and whit silk, and eete euery dai schynyngli. 20 And there was a begger, Lazarus bi name, that lai at his yate ful of bilis, 21 and couetide to be fulfillid of the crummes, that fellen doun fro the riche mannus boord, and no man yaf to hym; but houndis camen, and lickiden hise bilis. 22 And it was don, that the begger diede, and was borun of aungels in to Abrahams bosum. And the riche man was deed also, 23 and was biried in helle. And he reise hise iyen, whanne he was in turmentis, and say Abraham afer, and Lazarus in his bosum.

(Hadēs g86) 24 And he criede, and seide, Fadir Abraham, haue merci on me, and sende Lazarus, that he dippe the ende of his fyngur in watir, to kele my tunge; for Y am turmentid in this flawme. 25 And Abraham seide to hym, Sone, haue mynde, for thou hast resseyued good thingis in thi lijf, and Lazarus also yuel thingis; but he is now coumfortid, and thou art turmentid. 26 And in alle these thingis a greet derk place is stablischid betwixe vs and you; that thei that wolen fro hennus passe to you, moun not, nethir fro thennus passe ouer hidur. 27 And he seide, Thanne Y preie thee, fadir, that thou sende hym in to the hous of my fadir. 28 For Y haue fyue britheren, that he witnesse to hem, lest also thei come in to this place of turmentis. 29 And Abraham seide to him, Thei han Moyses and the prophetis; here thei hem. 30 And he seide, Nay, fadir Abraham, but if ony of deed men go to hem, thei schulen do penaunce. 31 And he seide to hym, If thei heren not Moises and prophetis, nethir if ony of deed men rise ayen, thei schulen bileue to hym.

drawun vp bi the rote, and be ouerplauntid in to the see, and it schal obeie to you. 7 But who of you hath a seruaunt erynge, or lesewyng eox, which seith to hym, whanne he turneth ayen fro the feeld, Anoon go, and sitte to mete; 8 and seith not to hym, Make redi, that Y soupe, and girde thee, and serue me, while Y ete and drynke, and aftir this thou schalt ete and drynke; 9 whether he hath grace to that seruaunt, for he dide that that he comaundide hym? 10 Nay, Y gesse. So ye, whanne ye han don alle thingis that ben comaundid to you, seie ye, We ben vnprofitable seruauntis, we han do that that we ouyten to do. 11 And it was do, the while Jhesus wente in to Jerusalem, he passide thorou the myddis of Samarie, and Galilee. 12 And whanne he entride in to a castel, ten leprouse men camen ayens hym, whiche stoden afer, 13 and reiseden her voys, and seiden, Jhesu, comaundoure, haue merci on vs. 14 And as he say hem, he seide, Go ye, `schewe ye you to the prestis. And it was don, the while thei wenten, thei weren clensid. 15 And oon of hem, as he saiy that he was clensid, wente ayen, magnifynge God with grete voys. 16 And he fel down on the face bfore hise feet, and dide thankyngis; and this was a Samaritan. 17 And Jhesus answerde, and seide, Whether ten ben not clensid, and where ben the nyne? 18 There is noon foundun, that turnede ayen, and yaf glorie to God, but this alien. 19 And he seide to hym, Rise vp, go thou; for thi feith hath maad thee saaf. 20 And he was axid of Farisees, whanne the rewme of God cometh. And he answerde to hem, and seide, The rewme of God cometh not with aspiyng, 21 nether thei schulen seie, Lo! here, or lo there; for lo! the rewme of God is with ynne you. 22 And he seide to hise disciplis, Daies schulen come, whanne ye schulen desire to

se o dai of mannus sone, and ye schulen not se. 23 And thei schulen seie to you, Lo! here, and lo there. Nyle ye go, nether sue ye; 24 for as leyt schynynge from vndur heuene schyneth in to tho thingis that ben vndur heuene, so schal mannus sone be in his dai. 25 But first it bihoueth hym to suffre many thingis, and to be repreued of this generacioun. 26 And as it was doon in the daies of Noe, so it schal be in the daies of mannys sone. 27 Thei eeten and drunkun, weddiden wyues, and weren youun to weddyngis, til in to the dai in the whych Noe entride in to the schip; and the greet flood cam, and loste alle. 28 Also as it was don in the daies of Loth, thei eeten and drunkun, bouyten and seelden, plauntiden and bildiden; but the dai that Loth wente out of Sodome, 29 the Lord reynede fier and brymston fro heuene, and loste alle. 30 Lijk this thing it schal be, in what dai mannys sone schal be schewid. 31 In that our he that is in the roof, and his vessels in the hous, come he not down to take hem awei; and he that schal be in the feeld, also turne not ayen bihynde. 32 Be ye myndeful of the wijf of Loth. 33 Who euer seketh to make his lijf saaf, schal leese it; and who euer leesith it, schal quykene it. 34 But Y seie to you, in that nytt twei schulen be in o bed, oon schal be takun, and the tothir forsakun; 35 twei wymmen schulen be gryndynge togidir, `the toon schal be takun, and `the tother forsakun; twei in a feeld, `the toon schal be takun, and `the tother left. 36 Thei answeren, and seien to hym, Where, Lord? 37 Which seide to hym, Where euer the bodi schal be, thidur schulen be gaderid togidere also the eglis.

And a widowe was in that citee, and sche cam to hym, and seide, Venge me of myn aduersarie; 4 and he wolde not longe tyme. But aftir these thingis he seide with ynne hym silf, Thouy Y drede not God, and schame not of man, 5 netheles for this widewe is heuy to me, Y schal venge hir; lest at the laste sche comynge condempne me. 6 And the Lord seide, Here ye, what the domesman of wickidnesse seith; 7 and whether God schal not do veniaunce of hise chosun, crynge to hym dai and nytt, and schal haue pacience in hem? 8 Sotheli Y seie to you, for soone he schal do veniaunce of hem. Netheles gessist thou, that mannus sone comynge schal fynde feith in erthe? 9 And he seide also to sum men, that tristiden in hem silf, as thei weren riytful, and dispiseden othere, this parable, 10 seiynge, Twei men wenten vp in to the temple to preye; the toon a Farisee, and the tother a puppican. 11 And the Farisee stood, and preiede bi hym silf these thingis, and seide, God, Y do thankyngis to thee, for Y am not as other men, raueinouris, vniust, auouteris, as also this puppican; 12 Y faste twies in the woke, Y yyue tithis of alle thingis that Y haue in possessioun. 13 And the puppican stood afer, and wolde nether reise hise iyen to heuene, but smoot his brest, and seide, God be merciful to me, synnere. 14 Treuli Y seie to you, this yede down in to his hous, and was iustified fro the other. For ech that enhaunsith hym, schal be maad low, and he that mekith hym, schal be enhaunsid. 15 And thei brouyten to hym yonge children, that he schulde touche hem; and whanne the disciplis saien this thing, thei blameden hem. 16 But Jhesus clepide togider hem, and seide, Suffre ye children to come to me, and nyle ye forbede hem, for of siche is the kyngdom of heuenes. 17 Treuli Y seie to you, who euer schal not take the

kyngdom of God as a child, he schal not entre in to it. 18 And a prince axide hym, and seide, Goode maister, in what thing doynghe schal Y weilde euerlastynghe lijf? (aiōnios g166) 19 And Jhesus seide to hym, What seist thou me good? No man is good, but God aloone. 20 Thou knowist the comaundementis, Thou schalt not sle, Thou schalt not do letcherie, Thou schalt not do theft, Thou schalt not seie fals witnessyng, Worschepe thi fadir and thi modir. 21 Which seide, Y haue kept alle these thingis fro my yongthe. 22 And whanne this thing was herd, Jhesus seide to hym, Yit o thing failith `to thee; sille thou alle thingis that thou hast, and yyue to pore men, and thou schalt haue tresour in heuene; and come, and sue thou me. 23 Whanne these thingis weren herd, he was soreful, for he was ful ryche. 24 And Jhesus seynghe hym maad sorie, seide, How hard thei that han money schulen entre in to the kyngdom of God; 25 for it is liyter a camel to passe thorou a nedlis iye, than a riche man to entre in to the kyngdom of God. 26 And thei that herden these thingis seiden, Who may be maad saaf? 27 And he seide to hem, Tho thingis that ben impossible anentis men, ben possible anentis God. 28 But Petir seide, Lo! we han left alle thingis, and han sued thee. 29 And he seide to hym, Treuli Y seie to you, there is no man that schal forsake hous, or fadir, modir, or britheren, or wijf, or children, or feeldis, for the rewme of God, 30 and schal not resseyue many mo thingis in this tyme, and in the world to comynghe euerlastynghe lijf. (aiōn g165, aiōnios g166) 31 And Jhesus took hise twelue disciplis, and seide to hem, Lo! we gon vp to Jerusalem, and alle thingis schulen be endid, that ben writun bi the prophetis of mannus sone. 32 For he schal be bitraied to hethen men, and he schal be scorned, and scourgid, and bispat; 33 and aftir that thei han scourgid, thei schulen sle hym, and the thridde dai he schal rise ayen. 34 And thei vndurstoden no thing of these; and this word was hid fro hem, and thei vndurstoden not tho thingis that weren seid. 35 But it was don, whanne Jhesus cam nyy to Jerico, a blynde man sat bisidis the weie, and beggide. 36 And whanne he herde the puple passynge, he axide, what this was. 37 And thei seiden to hym, that Jhesus of Nazareth passide. 38 And he criede, and seide, Jhesu, the sone of Dauyd, haue mercy on me. 39 And thei that wenten bifor blamyden hym, that he schulde be stille; but he criede myche the more, Thou sone of Daud, haue mercy on me. 40 And Jhesus stood, and comaundide hym to be brouyt forth to hym. And whanne he cam nyy, he axide hym, 41 and seide, What wolt thou that Y schal do to thee? And he seide, Lord, that Y se. 42 And Jhesus seide to hym, Biholde; thi feith hath maad thee saaf. 43 And anoon he say, and sude hym, and magnyfiede God. And al the puple, as it say, yaf heriyng to God.

19 And Jhesus `goynge yn, walkide thorou Jericho. 2 And lo! a man, Sache bi name, and this was a prince of pupplicans, and he was riche. 3 And he souyte to se Jhesu, who he was, and he myyte not, for the puple, for he was lital in stature. 4 And he ran bifore, and stiyede in to a sicomoure tree, to se hym; for he was to passe fro thennus. 5 And Jhesus biheld vp, whanne he cam to the place, and saiy hym, and seide to hym, Sache, haste thee, and come down, for to dai Y mot dwelle in thin hous. 6 And he hiynge cam down, and ioiynge resseyuede hym. 7 And whanne alle men sayn, thei grutchiden seiynge, For he hadde turned to a synful man. 8 But Sache stood, and seide to the Lord, Lo! Lord, Y yyue the half of my good to pore men; and if Y

haue ony thing defraudid ony man, Y yelde foure so myche. 9 Jhesus seith to hym, For to dai heelthe is maad to this hous, for that he is Abrahams sone; 10 for mannus sone cam to seke, and make saaf that thing that perischide. 11 Whanne thei herden these thingis, he addide, and seide a parable, for that he was nyy Jerusalem, `and for thei gessiden, that anoon the kyngdom of God schulde be schewid. 12 Therfor he seide, A worthi man wente in to a fer cuntre, to take to hym a kyngdom, and to turne ayen. 13 And whanne hise ten seruauntis weren clepid, he yaf to hem ten besauntis; and seide to hem, Chaffare ye, til Y come.
14 But hise citeseyns hatiden hym, and senten a messenger aftir hym, and seiden, We wolen not, that he regne on vs. 15 And it was don, that he turnede ayen, whan he hadde take the kyngdom; and he comaundide hise seruauntis to be clepid, to whiche he hadde yyue monei, to wite, hou myche ech hadde wonne bi chaffaryng. 16 And the firste cam, and seide, Lord, thi besaunt hath wonne ten besauntis. 17 He seide to hym, Wel be, thou good seruaunt; for in litil thing thou hast be trewe, thou schalt be hauynge power on ten citees. 18 And the tother cam, and seide, Lord, thi besaunt hath maad fyue besauntis. 19 And to this he seide, And be thou on fyue citees. 20 And the thridde cam, and seide, Lord, lo! thi besaunt, that Y hadde, put vp in a sudarie. 21 For Y dredde thee, for thou art `a sterne man; thou takist away that that thou settidist not, and thou repist that that thou hast not sowun. 22 He seith to hym, Wickid seruaunt, of thi mouth Y deme thee. Wistist thou, that Y am `a sterne man, takynge awei that thing that Y settide not, and repyng ethat thing that Y sewe not? 23 and whi hast thou not youun my money to the bord, and Y comynge schulde haue axid it with vsuris? 24

And he seide to men stondynge nyy, Take ye awei fro hym the besaunt, and yyue ye to hym that hath ten beyauntis: 25 And thei seiden to hym, Lord, he hath ten besauntis. 26 And Y seie to you, to ech man that hath, it schal be youun, and he schal encrease; but fro him that hath not, also that thing that he hath, schal be takun of hym. 27 Netheles brynge ye hidur tho myn enemyes, that wolden not that Y regnede on hem, and sle ye bifor me. 28 And whanne these thingis weren seid, he wente bifore, and yede vp to Jerusalem. 29 And it was don, whanne Jhesus cam nyy to Bethfage and Betanye, at the mount, that is clepid of Olyuete, he sente hise twei disciplis, and seide, 30 Go ye in to the castel, that is ayens you; in to which as ye entren, ye schulen fynde a colt of an asse tied, on which neuer man sat; vntye ye hym, and brynge ye to me. 31 And if ony man axe you, whi ye vntien, thus ye schulen seie to hym, For the Lord desirith his werk. 32 And thei that weren sent, wenten forth, and fonden as he seide to hem, a colt stondynge. 33 And whanne thei vntieden the colt, the lordis of hym seiden to hem, What vntien ye the colt? 34 And thei seiden, For the Lord hath nede to hym. 35 And thei ledden hym to Jhesu; and thei castynge her clothis on the colt, setten Jhesu on hym. 36 And whanne he wente, thei strowiden her clothis in the weie. 37 And whanne he cam nyy to the comyng doun of the mount of Olyuete, al the puple that cam doun bygunnen to ioye, and to herie God with greet vois on alle the vertues, that thei hadden sayn, 38 and seiden, Blessid be the king, that cometh in the name of the Lord; pees in heuene, and glorie in hiye thingis. 39 And sum of the Farisees of the puple seiden to hym, Maister, blame thi disciplis. 40 And he seide to hem, Y seie to you, for if these ben

stille, stoonus schulen crye. 41 And whanne he neiyede, `he seiȳ the citee, 42 and wepte on it, and seide, For if thou haddist knowun, thou schuldist wepe also; for in this dai the thingis ben in pees to thee, but now thei ben hid fro thin iȳen. 43 But daies schulen come in thee, and thin enemyes schulen enuyroun thee with a pale, and thei schulen go aboute thee, and make thee streit on alle sidis, 44 and caste thee down to the erthe, and thi sones that ben in thee; and thei schulen not leeuē in thee a stoon on a stoon, for thou hast not knowun the tyme of thi visitacioun. 45 And he entride in to the temple, and bigan to caste out men sellynge ther inne and biȳnge, 46 and seide to hem, It is writun, That myn hous is an hous of preyer, but ye han maad it a den of theues. 47 And he was techynge euerydai in the temple. And the princis of prestis, and the scribis, and the princis of the puple souyten to lese hym; 48 and thei founden not, what thei schulden do to hym, for al the puple was ocupied, and herde hym.

Jhesus seide to hem, Nether Y seie to you, in what power Y do these thingis. 9 And he bigan to seie to the puple this parable. A man plauntide a vynyerd, and hiride it to tilieris; and he was in pilgrimage longe tyme. 10 And in the tyme of gaderynge of grapis, he sente a seruaunt to the tilieris, that thei schulden yyue to hym of the fruyt of the vynyerd; whiche beten hym, and leten hym go voide. 11 And he thouyte yit to sende another seruaunt; and thei beten this, and turmentiden hym sore, and leten hym go. 12 And he thouyte yit to sende the thridde, and hym also thei woundiden, and castiden out. 13 And the lord of the vyneyerd seide, What schal Y do? Y schal sende my dereworthe sone; perauenture, whanne thei seen hym, thei schulen drede. 14 And whanne the tilieris sayn hym, thei thouyten with ynne hem silf, and seiden, This is the eire, sle we hym, that the eritage be oure. 15 And thei castiden hym out of the vyneyerd, and killiden hym. What schal thanne the lord of the vyneyerd do to hem? 16 He schal come, and distruye these tilieris, and yyue the vyneyerd to othere. And whanne this thing was herd, thei seiden to hym, God forbede. 17 But he bihelde hem, and seide, What thanne is this that is writun, The stoon which men bildynge repreueden, this is maad in to the heed of the corner? 18 Ech that schal falle on that stoon, schal be to-brisid, but on whom it schal falle, it schal al to-breke him. 19 And the princis of prestis, and scribis, souyten to leye on hym hoondis in that our, and thei dredden the puple; for thei knewen that to hem he seide this liknesse. 20 And thei aspieden, and senten aspieris, that feyneden hem iust, that thei schulden take hym in word, and bitaak hym to the `power of the prince, and to the power of the iustice. 21 And thei axiden hym, and seiden, Maister, we witen, that riytli thou seist and techist; and thou takist not the persooone of man, but thou techist in treuthe the weie of God. 22 Is it leueful to vs to yyue tribute to the emperoure, or nay? 23 And he biheld the disseit of hem, and seide to hem, What tempten ye me? 24 Shewe ye to me a peny; whos ymage and superscripcioun hath it? Thei answerden, and seiden to hym, The emperouris. 25 And he seide to hem, Yelde ye therfor to the emperoure tho thingis that ben the emperours, and tho thingis that ben of God, to God. 26 And thei myyten not repreue his word bifor the puple; and thei wondriden in his answer, and heelden pees. 27 Summe of the Saduceis, that denyeden the ayenrisyng fro deeth to lijf, camen, and axiden hym, 28 and seiden, Maister, Moises wroot to vs, if the brother of ony man haue a wijf, and be deed, and he was with outen eiris, that his brothir take his wijf, and reise seed to his brother. 29 And so there weren seuene britheren. The firste took a wijf, and is deed with outen eiris; 30 and the brothir suyng took hir, and he is deed with outen sone; 31 and the thridde took hir; also and alle seuene, and leften not seed, but ben deed; 32 and the laste of alle the womman is deed. 33 Therfor in the `risyng ayen, whos wijf of hem schal sche be? for seuene hadden hir to wijf. 34 And Jhesus seide to hem, Sones of this world wedden, and ben youun to weddyngis; (aiōn g165) 35 but thei that schulen be had worthi of that world, and of the `risyng ayen fro deeth, nethir ben wedded, (aiōn g165) 36 nethir wedden wyues, nethir schulen mowe die more; for thei ben euen with aungels, and ben the sones of God, sithen thei ben the sones of `risyng ayen fro deeth. 37 And that deed men risen ayen, also Moises schewide bisidis the busch, as he seith, The Lord God of Abraham, and God of Ysaac, and God of Jacob. 38

And God is not of deed men, but of lyuyng men; for alle men lyuen to hym. 39 And summe of scribis answeringe, seiden, Maistir, thou hast wel seid. 40 And thei dursten no more axe hym ony thing. 41 But he seide to hem, How seien men, Crist to be the sone of Daud, 42 and Daud hym silf seith in the book of Salmes, The Lord seide to my lord, Sitte thou on my riythalf, 43 til that Y putte thin enemyes a stool of thi feet? 44 Therfor Daud clepith hym lord, and hou is he his sone? 45 And in heryng of al the puple, he seide to hise disciplis, 46 Be ye war of scribis, that wolen wandre in stolis, and louen salutaciouns in chepyng, and the firste chaieris in synagogis, and the firste sittynge placis in feestis; 47 that deuouren the housis of widewis, and feynen long preiyng; these schulen take the more dampnacioun.

21 And he biheeld, and saye tho riche men, that casten her yiftis in to the treserie; 2 but he saye also a litil pore widewe castynge twei ferthingis. 3 And he seide, Treuli Y seie to you, that this pore widewe keste more than alle men. 4 For whi alle these of thing that was plenteuouse to hem casten in to the yiftis of God; but this widewe of that thing that failide to hir, caste al hir liflode, that sche hadde. 5 And whanne sum men seiden of the temple, that it was apparailid with gode stoonus and yiftis, 6 he seide, These thingis that ye seen, daies schulen come, in whiche a stoon schal not be left on a stoon, which schal not be destried. 7 And thei axiden hym, and seiden, Comaundour, whanne schulen these thingis be? and what tokne schal be, whanne thei schulen bigynne to be don? 8 And he seide, Se ye, that ye be not disseyued; for many schulen come in my name, seiynge, For Y am, and the tyme schal neiy; therfor nyle ye go aftir hem. 9 And whanne ye schulen here batailis and stryues with ynne, nyle ye be aferd; it bihoueth first these thingis to be don, but not yit anoon is an ende. 10 Thanne he seide to hem, Folk schal rise ayens folk, and rewme ayens rewme; 11 grete mouyngis of erthe schulen be bi placis, and pestilencis, and hungri, and dredis fro heuene, and grete tokenes schulen be. 12 But bfore alle these thingis thei schulen sette her hoondis on you, and schulen pursue, bitakyng in to synagogis and kepyngis, drawyng to kyngis and to iusticis, for my name; 13 but it schal falle to you in to witnessyng. 14 Therfor putte ye in youre hertis, not to thenke bfore, hou ye schulen answe; for Y schal yyue to you mouth and wisdom, 15 to whiche alle youre aduersaries schulen not mowe ayenstonde, and ayenseie. 16 And ye schulen be takun of fadir, and modir, and britheren, and cosyns, and freendis, and bi deeth thei schulen turmente of you; 17 and ye schulen be in haate to alle men for my name. 18 And an heere of youre heed schal not perische; 19 in youre pacience ye schulen welde youre soulis. 20 But whanne ye schulen se Jerusalem ben enuyround with an oost, thanne wite ye, that the desolacioun of it schal neie. 21 Thanne thei that ben in Judee, fle to the mountans; and thei that ben in the mydil of it, gon awe; and thei that ben in the cuntreis, entre not in to it. 22 For these ben daies of veniaunce, that alle thingis that ben writun, be fulfillid. 23 And wo to hem, that ben with child, and norischen in tho daies; for a greet diseese schal be on the erthe, and wraththe to this puple. 24 And thei schulen falle bi the scharpnese of swerd, and thei schulen be led prisoneris in to alle folkis; and Jerusalem schal be defoulid of hethene men, til the tymes of naciouns be fulfillid. 25 And tokenes schulen be in the sunne, and the mone, and in the sterris; and in the erthe ouerleiyng of folkis, for confusioun of sown of the see and of floodis; 26 for men schulen wexe drye for drede and abidyng that schulen come to al the world; for vertues of heuenes schulen be mouyd. 27 And thanne thei schulen se mannys sone comyng in a cloude, with greet power and maieste. 28 And whanne these thingis bigynnen to be maad, biholde ye, and reise ye youre heedis, for youre redempcioun neiyeth. 29 And he seide to hem a liknesse, Se ye the fige tre, and alle trees, 30 whanne thei bryngen forth now of hem silf fruyt, ye witen that somer is nyy; 31 so ye, whanne ye seen these thingis to be don, wite ye, that the kyngdom of God is nyy. 32 Treuli Y seie to you, that this generacioun schal not passe, til alle thingis be don. 33 Heuene and erthe schulen passe, but my wordis schulen not passe. 34 But take ye heede to you silf, lest perauenture youre hertis be greuyd with glotony, and drunkenesse, and bisynnessis of this lijf, and thilke dai come sodein on you; for as a snare it schal come on alle men, 35 that sitten on the face of al erthe. 36 Therfor wake ye, preiyng in ech tyme, that ye be hadde worthi to fle alle these thingis that ben to come, and to stonde bifor mannus sone. 37 And in daies he was techyng in the temple, but in nyytis he yede out, and dwellide in the mount, that is clepid of Olyuet. 38 And al the puple roos eerli, to come to hym in the temple, and to here hym.

22 And the halidai of therf looues, that is seid pask, neiyede. 2 And the princis of preestis and the scribis souyten, hou thei schulden sle Jhesu, but thei dredden the puple. 3 And Sathanas entride in to Judas, that was clepid Scarioth, oon of the twelue. 4 And he wente, and spak with the princis of preestis, and with the magistratis, hou he schulde bitray hym to hem. 5 And thei ioyeden, and maden couenaunt to yyue hym money. 6 And he bihiyte, and he souyte oportunyte, to bitraye hym, with outen puple. 7 But the daies of therf looues camen, in whiche it was neede, that the sacrifice of pask were slayn. 8 And he sente Petre and Joon, and seide, Go ye, and make ye redi to vs the pask, that we ete. 9 And thei seiden, Where wolt thou, that we make redi? 10 And he seide to hem, Lo! whanne ye schulen entre in to the citee, a man berynge a vessel of watir schal meete you; sue ye hym in to the hous, in to which he entrith. 11 And ye schulen seie to the hosebonde man of the hous, The maister seith to thee, Where is a chaumbre, where Y schal ete the pask with my disciplis? 12 And he schal schewe to you a greet soupyng place strewid, and there make ye redi. 13 And thei yeden, and founden as he seide to hem, and thei maden redi the pask. 14 And whanne the our was come, he sat to the mete, and the twelue apostlis with hym. 15 And he seide to hem, With desier Y haue desirid to ete with you this pask, bifer that Y suffre; 16 for Y seie to you, that fro this tyme Y schal not ete it, til it be fulfillid in the rewme of God. 17 And whanne he hadde take the cuppe, he dide gracis, and seide, Take ye, and departe ye among you; 18 for Y seie to you, that Y schal not drynke of the kynde of this vyne, til the rewme of God come. 19 And whanne he hadde take breed, he dide thankyngis, and brak, and yaf to hem, and seide, This is my bodi, that schal be youun for you; do ye this thing in mynde of me. 20 He took also the cuppe, aftir that he hadde soupid, and seide, This cuppe is the newe testament in my blood, that schal be sched for you. 21 Netheles lo! the hoond of hym that bitraieth me, is with me at the table. 22 And mannus sone goith, `aftir that it is determyned; netheles wo to that man, bi whom he schal be bitraied. 23 And thei bigunnen to seke among hem, who it was of hem, that was to do this thing. 24 And strijf was maad among hem, which of hem schulde be seyn to be grettest. 25 But he seide to hem, Kyngis of hethen men ben lordis of hem, and thei that han power on hem ben clepid good doeris, but ye not so; 26 but he that is grettest among you, be maad as yongere, and he that is bifor goere, as a seruaunt. 27 For who is gretter, he that sittith at the mete, or he that mynystrih? whether not he that sittith at the mete? And Y am in the myddil of you, as he that mynystrih. 28 And ye ben, that han dwellid with me in my temptaciouns; and Y dispose to you, 29 as my fadir hath disposid to me, 30 a rewme, that ye ete and drynke on my boord in my rewme, and sitte on trones, and deme the twelue kynredis of Israel. 31 And the Lord seide to Symount, Symount, lo, Satanas hath axid you, that he schulde ridile as whete; but Y haue preyede for thee, 32 that thi feith faile not; and thou sum tyme conuertid, conferme thi britheren. 33 Which seide to hym, Lord, Y am redi to go in to prisoun and in to deeth with thee. 34 And he seide, Y seie to thee, Petir, the cok schal not crowe to dai, til thou thries forsake that thou knowist me. 35 And he seide to hem, Whanne Y sente you with outhen sachel, and scrippe, and schone, whether ony thing failide to you? 36 And thei seiden, No thing. Therfor he seide to hem, But now he that hath a sachel, take also and a scrippe; and he that hath noon, selle his coote, and bigge a swerd. 37 For Y seie to you, that yit it bihoueth that thing that is writun to be fulfillid in me, And he is arettid with wickid men; for tho thingis that ben of me han ende. 38 And thei seiden, Lord, lo! twei swerdis here. And he seide to hem, It is ynowy. 39 And he yede out, and wente aftir the custom in to the hille of Olyues; and the disciplis sieden hym. 40 And whanne he cam to the place, he seide to hem, Preye ye, lest ye entren in to temptacioun. 41 And he was taken awei fro hem, so myche as is a stonys cast; and he knelide, 42 and preyede, and seide, Fadir, if thou wolt, do awei this cuppe fro me; nethes not my wille be don, but thin. 43 And an aungel apperide to hym fro heuene, and coumfortide hym. And he was maad in agonye, and preyede the lenger; 44 and his swot was maad as dropis of blood rennyng down in to the erthe. 45 And whanne he was rysun fro preier, and was comun to hise disciplis, he foond hem slepyng for heuynesse. 46 And he seide to hem, What slepen ye? Rise ye, and preye ye, that ye entre not in to temptacioun. 47 Yit while he spak, lo! a company, and he that was clepid Judas, oon of the twelue, wente bifer hem; and he cam to Jhesu, to kisse hym. 48 And Jhesus seide to hym, Judas, `with a coss `thou bytrayest `mannys sone. 49 And thei that weren aboute hym, and sayn that that was to come, seiden to hym, Lord, whether we smyten with swerd? 50 And oon of hem smoot the seruaunt of the prince of preestis, and kittide of his riyt eere. 51 But Jhesus answerde, and seide, Suffre ye til hidir. And whanne he hadde touchid his eere, he heelide hym.

 52 And Jhesus seide to hem, that camen to hym, the princis of preestis, and maiestratis of the temple, and eldre men, As to a theef ye han gon out with swerdis and staues? 53 Whanne Y was ech dai with you in the temple, ye streiyten not out hondis in to me; but this is youre our, and the power of derknessis. 54 And thei token him, and ledden to the hous of the prince of prestis; and Petir sude hym afer. 55 And whanne a fier was kyndelid in the myddil of the greet hous, and thei saten aboute, Petir was in the myddil of hem. 56 Whom whanne a damysel hadde seyn sittynge `at the liyt, and hadde biholdun hym, sche seide, And this was with hym. 57 And he denyede hym, and seide, Womman, Y knowe hym not. 58 And aftir a litil another man siy hym, and seide, And thou art of hem. But Petir seide, A! man, Y am not. 59 And whanne a space was maad as of on our, another affermyd, and seide, Treuli this was with hym; for also he is of Galilee. 60 And Petir seide, Man, Y noot what thou seist. And anoon yit while he spak, the cok crewe. 61 And the Lord turnede ayen, and bihelde Petre; and Petre hadde mynde on the word of Jhesu, as he hadde seid, For bifor that the cok crowe, thries thou schalt denye me. 62 And Petre yede out, and wepte bittirli. 63 And the men that helden hym scorneden hym, and smyten hym. 64 And thei blynfelden hym, and smyten his face, and axiden hym, and seiden, Arede, thou Crist, to vs, who is he that smoot thee? 65 Also thei blasfemyng seiden ayens hym many other thingis. 66 And as the day was come, the eldre men of the puple, and the princis of prestis, and the scribis camen togidir, and ledden hym in to her councel, 67 and seiden, If thou art Crist, seie to vs. 68 And he seide to hem, If Y seie to you, ye schulen not bileue to me; and if Y axe, ye schulen not answere to me, nethir ye schulen delyuere me. 69 But aftir this tyme mannys sone schal be sittynge on the riyt half of the vertu of God. 70 Therfor alle seiden, Thanne art thou the sone of God? And he seide, Ye seien that Y am. 71 And thei seiden, What yit desiren we witnessyng? for we vs silf han herd of his mouth.

23 And al the multitude of hem aysen, and ledden hym to Pilat. 2 And thei bigunnen to accuse hym, and seiden, We han foundun this turnynge vpsodoun oure folk, and forbedynge tributis to be youun to the emperour, and seiynge that hym silf is Crist and kyng. 3 And Pilat axide hym, and seide, Art thou kyng of Jewis? And he answeride, and seide, Thou seist. 4 And Pilat seide to the princis of prestis, and to the puple, Y fynde no thing of cause in this man. 5 And thei woxen stronger, and seiden, He moueth the puple, techynge thorou al Judee, bigynnyng from Galile til hidir. 6 And Pilat herynge Galile axide, if he were a man of Galile. 7 And whanne he knewe that he was of the powere of Eroude, he sente hym to Eroude; which was at Jerusalem in tho daies. 8 And whanne Eroude siy Jhesu, he ioyede ful myche; for long tyme he coueitide to se hym, for he herde many thingis of hym, and hopide to see sum tokene `to be don of hym. 9 And he axide hym in many wordis; and he answeride no thing to hym.

10 And the princis of preestis and the scribis stoden, stidfastli accusynge hym. 11 But Eroude with his oost dispiside hym, and scornede hym, and clothide with a white cloth, and sente hym ayen to Pilat. 12 And Eroude and Pilat weren maad freendis fro that dai; for bifor thei weren enemyes togidre. 13 And Pilat clepide togider the princis of prestis and the maiestratis of the puple, and seide to hem, 14 Ye han brouyt to me this man, as turnynge away the puple, and lo! Y axynge bifor you fynde no cause in this man of these thingis, in whiche ye accusen hym; 15 nether Eroude, for he hath sent hym ayen to vs, and lo! no thing worthi of deth is don to hym. 16 And therfor Y schal amende hym, and delyuere hym. 17 But he moste nede delyuer to hem oon bi the feest dai. 18 And al the puple criede togidir, and seide, Do `awei hym, and delyuer to vs Barabas; 19 which was sent `in to prisoun for disturblyng maad in the cite, and for mansleyng.
20 And eftsoone Pilat spak to hem, and wolde delyuer Jhesu.

21 And thei vndurcrieden, and seiden, Crucifie, crucifie hym.
22 And the thridde tyme he seide to hem, For what yuel hath this don? Y fynde no cause of deeth in hym; therfor Y schal chastise hym, and Y schal delyuer. 23 And thei contynueden with greet voicis axynge, that he schulde be crucified; and the voicis of hem woxen stronge. 24 And Pilat demyde her axyng to be don. 25 And he delyueride to hem hym, that for mansleyng and sedicioun was sent in to prisoun, whom thei axiden; but he bitook Jhesu to her wille. 26 And whanne thei ledden hym, thei token a man, Symon of Syrenen, comynge fro the toun, and thei leiden on hym the cross to bere aftir Jhesu. 27 And there sude hym myche puple, and wymmen that weiliden, and bymorneden hym. 28 And Jhesus turnede to hem, and seide, Douytris of Jerusalem, nyle ye wepe on me, but wepe ye on youre silf and on youre sones. 29 For lo! daies schulen come, in whiche it schal be seid, Blessid be bareyn wymmen, and wombis that han not borun children, and the tetis that han not youun souke. 30 Thanne thei schulen bigynne to seie to mounteyns, Falle ye down on vs, and to smale hillis, Keuere ye vs. 31 For if in a greene tre thei don these thingis, what schal be don in a drie? 32 Also othere twei wickid men weren led with hym, to be slayn. 33 And `aftir that thei camen in to a place, that is clepid of Caluerie, there thei crucifieden hym, and the theues, oon on the riyt half, and `the tother on the left half. 34 But Jhesus seide, Fadir, foryyue hem, for thei witen not what thei doon. 35 And thei departiden his clothis, and kesten lottis. And the puple stood abidyng; and the princis scorneden hym with hem, and seiden, Othere men he maad saaf; make he hym silf saaf, if this be Crist, the chosun of God. 36 And the knyytis neiyeden, and scorneden hym, and profreden vynegre to hym, 37 and seiden, If thou art king of Jewis, make thee saaf. 38 And the superscripcioun was writun ouer hym with Greke lettris, and of Latyn, and of Ebreu, This is the kyng of Jewis. 39 And oon of these theues that hangiden, blasfemyde hym, and seide, If thou art Crist, make thi silf saaf and vs. 40 But `the tothir answeyng, blamyde hym, and seide, Nether thou dredist God, that art in the same dampnacioun? 41 And treuli we iustli, for we han resseiued worthi thingis to werkis; but this dide no thing of yuel. 42 And he seide to Jhesu, Lord, haue mynde of me, whanne thou comest `in to thi kyngdom. 43 And Jhesus seide to hym, Treuli Y seie to thee, this dai thou schalt be with me in paradise. 44 And it was almost the sixte our, and derknessis weren maad in al the erthe `in to the nynthe our. 45 And the sun was maad derk, and the veile of the temple was to-rent atwo. 46 And Jhesus cryng with a greet vois, seide, Fadir, in to thin hoondis Y bitake my spirit. And he seiynge these thingis, yaf vp the goost. 47 And the centurien seyng that thing that was don, glorifiede God, and seide, Verili this man was iust. 48 And al the puple of hem that weren there togidir at this spectacle, and sayn tho thingis that weren don, smyten her brestis, and turneden ayen. 49 But alle his knowun stoden afer, and wymmen that sueden hym fro Galile, seyng these thingis. 50 And lo! a man, Joseph bi name, of Aramathie, a cite of Judee, that was a decurien, a good man and a iust, 51 this man concentide not to the counseil and to the dedis of hem; and he abood the kyngdom of God. 52 This Joseph cam to Pilat, and axide the bodi of Jhesu, 53 and took it doun, and wlappide it in a cleene lynen cloth, and leide hym in a graue hewun, in which not yit ony man hadde be leid. 54 And the dai was the euen of the halidai, and the sabat bigan to schyne.

55 And the wymmen suyng, that camen with hym fro Galile, sayn the graue, and hou his bodi was leid. 56 And thei turneden ayen, and maden redi swete smellynge spicis, and oynementis; but in the sabat thei restiden, aftir the comaundement.

24 But in o dai of the woke ful eerli thei camen to the graue, and brouyten swete smellynge spices, that thei hadden arayed.
2 And thei founden the stoon turned awei fro the graue. 3 And thei yeden in, and founden not the bodi of the Lord Jhesu. 4 And it was don, the while thei weren astonyed in thouyt of this thing, lo! twei men stoden bisidis hem in schynynge cloth. 5 And whanne thei dredden, and bowed her semblaunt in to the erthe, thei seiden to hem, What seken ye hym that lyueth with deed men? 6 He is not here, but is risun. Haue ye mynde, hou he spak to you, whanne he was yit in Galile, 7 and seide, For it bihoueth mannys sone to be bitakun in to the hondis of synful men, and to be crucified, and the thridde dai to rise ayen. 8 And thei bithouyten on hise wordis. 9 And thei yeden ayen fro the graue, and telden alle these thingis to the enleuene, and to alle othir. 10 And ther was Marie Mawdeleyn, and Joone, and Marie of James, and other wymmen that weren with hem, that seiden to apostlis these thingis. 11 And these wordis weren seyn bifor hem as madnesse, and thei bileueden not to hem. 12 But Petir roos vp, and ran to the graue; and he bowide doun, and say the lynen clothis liynge aloone. And he wente bi him silf, wondrynge on that that was don. 13 And lo! tweyne of hem wenten in that dai in to a castel, that was fro Jerusalem the space of sixti furlongis, bi name Emaws. 14 And thei spaken togidir of alle these thingis that haddun bifallun. 15 And it was don, the while thei talkiden, and souyten bi hem silf, Jhesus hym silf neiyede, and wente with hem. 16 But her iyen weren holdun, that thei knewen him not. 17 And he seide to hem, What ben these wordis, that ye speken togidir wandrynge, and ye ben sorewful? 18 And oon, whos name was Cleofas, answerde, and seide, Thou thi silf art a pilgrym in Jerusalem, and hast thou not knowun, what thingis ben don in it in these daies? 19 To whom he seide, What thingis? And thei seiden to hym, Of Jhesu of Nazareth, that was a man prophete, myyti in werk and word bifor God and al the puple; 20 and hou the heiyest preestis of oure princis bitoken hym in to dampnacioun of deeth, and crucifieden hym. 21 But we hopiden, that he schulde haue ayenbouyt Israel.

 And now on alle these thingis the thridde dai is to dai, that these thingis weren don. 22 But also summe wymmen of ouris maden vs afered, whiche bifor dai weren at the graue; and whanne his bodi was not foundun, 23 thei camen, and seiden, that thei syen also a siyt of aungels, whiche seien, that he lyueth. 24 And summe of oure wenten to the graue, and thei founden so as the wymmen seiden, but thei founden not hym. 25 And he seide to hem, A! foolis, and slowe of herte to bileue in alle thingis that the prophetis han spokun. 26 Whethir it bihofte not Crist to suffre these thingis, and so to entre in to his glorie? 27 And he bigan at Moises and at alle the prophetis, and declaride to hem in alle scripturis, that weren of hym. 28 And thei camen nyy the castel, whidur thei wenten. And he made countenance that he wolde go ferthere. 29 And thei constreyneden hym, and seiden, Dwelle with vs, for it drawith to nytyt, and the dai is now bowid doun. 30 And he entride with hem. And it was don, while he sat at the mete with hem, he took breed, and blesside, and brak, and took to hem. 31 And the iyen of hem weren openyd, and thei knewen hym; and he vanyschide fro her iyen. 32 And thei seiden togidir, Whether oure herte was not brennyng in vs, while he spak in the weie, and openyde to vs scripturis? 33 And thei risen vp in the same our, and wenten ayen in to Jerusalem, and founden the enleuene gaderid togidir, and hem that weren with hem, 34 seiynge, That the Lord is risun verrili, and apperide to Symount. 35 And thei tolden what thingis weren don in the weie, and hou thei knewen hym in brekyng of breed. 36 And the while thei spaken these thingis, Jhesus stood in the myddil of hem, and seide to hem, Pees to you; Y am, nyle ye drede. 37 But thei weren affraied and agast, and gessiden hem to se a spirit. 38 And he seide to hem, What ben ye troblid, and thouytis comen vp in to youre hertis? 39 Se ye my hoondis and my feet, for Y my silf am. Fele ye, and se ye; for a spirit hath not fleisch and boonys, as ye seen that Y haue. 40 And whanne he hadde seid this thing, he schewide hoondis and feet to hem. 41 And yit while thei bileueden not, and wondriden for ioye, he seide, Han ye here ony thing that schal be etun? 42 And thei proferden hym a part of a fisch rostid, and an hony combe. 43 And whanne he hadde etun bifore hem, he took that that lefte, and yaf to hem; 44 and seide `to hem, These ben the wordis that Y spak to you, whanne Y was yit with you; for it is nede that alle thingis ben fulfillid, that ben writun in the lawe of Moises, and in prophetis, and in salmes, of me. 45 Thanne he openyde to hem wit, that thei schulden vnderstonde scripturis. 46 And he seide to hem, For thus it is writun, and thus it bihofte Crist to suffre, and ryse ayen fro deeth in the thridde dai; 47 and penaunce and remyssioun of synnes to be prechid in his name `in to alle folkis, bigynnyng at Jerusalem. 48 And ye ben witnessis of these thingis. 49 And Y schal sende the biheest of my fadir in to you; but sitte ye in the citee, til that ye be clothid with vertu from an hy. 50 And he ledde hem forth in to Betanye, and whanne his hondis weren lift vp, he blesside hem. 51 And it was don, the while he blesside hem, he departide fro hem, and was borun in to heuene. 52 And thei worschipiden, and wenten ayen in to Jerusalem with greet ioie, 53 and weren euermore in the temple, heriyng and blessyng God.

John

1 In the bigynnyng was the word, and the word was at God, and God was the word. 2 This was in the bigynnyng at God. 3 Alle thingis weren maad bi hym, and withouten hym was maad no thing, that thing that was maad. 4 In hym was lijf, and the lijf was the liyt of men; and the liyt schyneth in derknessis, 5 and derknessis comprehendiden not it. 6 A man was sent fro God, to whom the name was Joon. 7 This man cam in to witnessyng, that he schulde bere witnessyng of the liyt, that alle men schulden bileue bi hym. 8 He was not the liyt, but that he schulde bere witnessyng of the liyt. 9 There was a very liyt, which liytnech ech man that cometh in to this world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was maad bi hym, and the world knew hym not. 11 He cam in to his owne thingis, and hise resseyueden hym not. 12 But hou many euer resseyueden hym, he yaf to hem power to be maad the sones of God, to hem that bileueden in his name; the whiche not of bloodis, 13 nether of the wille of fleische, nether of the wille of man, but ben borun of God. 14 And the word was maad man, and dwellyde among vs, and we han seyn the glorie of hym, as the glorie of the `oon bigetun sone of the fadir, ful of grace and of treuthe. 15 Joon berith witnessyng of hym, and crieth, and seith, This is, whom Y seide, He that schal come aftir me, is maad bifore me, for he was tofor me; 16 and of the plente of hym we alle han takun, and grace for grace. 17 For the lawe was youun bi Moises; but grace and treuthe `is maad bi Jhesu Crist. 18 No man sai euer God, no but the `oon bigetun sone, that is in the bosum of the fadir, he hath teld out. 19 And this is the witnessyng of Joon, whanne Jewis senten fro Jerusalem prestis and dekenes to hym, that thei schulden axe hym, Who art thou? 20 He knoulechide, and denyede not, and he knoulechide, For Y am not Crist. 21 And thei axiden hym, What thanne? Art thou Elie? And he seide, Y am not. Art thou a profete? And he answeride, Nay. 22 Therfor thei seiden to hym, Who art thou? that we yyue an answer to these that senten vs.

 What seist thou of thi silf? 23 He seide, Y am a vois of a crier in deseert, Dresse ye the weie of the Lord, as Ysaie, the prophete, seide. 24 And thei that weren sent, weren of the Fariseis. 25 And thei axiden hym, and seiden to hym, What thanne baptisist thou, if thou art not Crist, nether Elie, nether a profete? 26 Joon answeride to hem, and seide, Y baptise in watir, but in the myddil of you hath stonde oon, that ye knowen not; 27 he it is, that schal come aftir me, that was maad bifer me, of whom Y am not worthi to louse the thwong of his schoo. 28 These thingis weren don in Bethanye biyende Jordan, where Joon was baptisyng. 29 Anothir day Joon say Jhesu comynge to hym, and he seide, Lo! the lomb of God; lo! he that doith awei the synnes of the world. 30 This is he, that Y seide of, Aftir me is comun a man, which was maad bifer me; for he was rather than Y. 31 And Y knew hym not, but that he be schewid in Israel, therfor Y cam baptisyng in watir. 32 And Joon bar witnessyng, and seide, That Y sai the spirit comynge down as a culuer fro heuene, and dwellide on hym. 33 And Y knew hym not; but he that sente me to baptise in watir, seide to me, On whom thou seest the Spirit comynge down, and dwellynge on hym, this is he, that baptisith in the Hooli Goost. 34 And Y say, and bar witnessyng, that this is the sone of God. 35 Anothir dai Joon stood, and tweyne of hise disciplis; 36 and he biheeld Jhesu walkinge, and seith, Lo! the lomb of God. 37 And twei disciplis herden hym spekyng, 38 and folewiden Jhesu. And Jhesu turnede, and say hem suyng hym, and seith to hem, What seken ye? And thei seiden to hym, Rabi, that is to seie, Maistir, where dwellist thou? 39 And he seith to hem, Come ye, and se. And thei camen, and sayn where he dwellide; and dwelten with hym that dai. And it was as the tenthe our. 40 And Andrewe, the brother of Symount Petir, was oon of the tweyne, that herden of Joon, and hadden sued hym.

41 This foond first his brother Symount, and he seide to him, We han foundun Messias, that is to seie, Crist; and he ledde him to Jhesu. 42 And Jhesus bihelde hym, and seide, Thou art Symount, the sone of Johanna; thou schalt be clepid Cefas, that is to seie, Petre. 43 And on the morewe he wolde go out in to Galilee, and he foond Filip; and he seith to hym, Sue thou me.
44 Filip was of Bethsaida, the citee of Andrew and of Petre. 45 Filip foond Nathanael, and seide to hym, We han foundun Jhesu, the sone of Joseph, of Nazareth, whom Moyses wroot in the lawe and profetis. 46 And Nathanael seide to hym, Of Nazareth may sum good thing be? 47 Filip seide to hym, Come, and se.
 Jhesus siy Nathanael comynge to hym, and seide to hym, Lo! verili a man of Israel, in whom is no gile. 48 Nathanael seide to hym, Wherof hast thou knowun me? Jhesus `answerde, and seide to hym, Bifor that Filip clepide thee, whanne thou were vndur the fige tree, Y saiye thee. Nathanael answerde to hym, 49 `and seide, Rabi, thou art the sone of God, thou art kyng of Israel. 50 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hym, For Y seide to thee, Y sawy thee vndur the fige tre, thou bileuest; thou schalt se more than these thingis. 51 And he seide to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, ye schulen se heuene opened, and the aungels of God stiyng vp and comynge down on mannys sone.

2 And the thridde dai weddyngis weren maad in the Cane of Galilee; and the modir of Jhesu was there. 2 And Jhesus was clepid, and hise disciplis, to the weddyngis. 3 And whanne wijn failide, the modir of Jhesu seide to hym, Thei han not wijn. 4 And Jhesus seith to hir, What to me and to thee, womman? myn our cam not yit. 5 His modir seith to the mynystris, What euere thing he seie to you, do ye. 6 And there weren set `sixe stonun cannes, aftir the clensyng of the Jewis, holdyng eche tweyne ether thre metretis. 7 And Jhesus seith to hem, Fille ye the pottis with watir. And thei filliden hem, vp to the mouth. 8 And Jhesus seide to hem, Drawe ye now, and bere ye to the architriclyn. And thei baren. 9 And whanne the architriclyn hadde tastid the watir maad wyn, and wiste not wherof it was, but the mynystris wisten that drowen the watir, the architriclyn clepith the spouse, 10 and seith to hym, Ech man settith first good wyn, and whanne men ben fulfillid, thanne that that is worse; but thou hast kept the good wyn `in to this tyme. 11 Jhesus dide this the bigynnyng of signes in the Cane of Galilee, and schewide his glorie; and hise disciplis bileueden in hym. 12 Aftir these thingis he cam down to Cafarnaum, and his modir, and hise britheren, and hise disciplis; and thei dwelliden `there not many daies. 13 And the pask of Jewis was nyy, and Jhesus wente vp to Jerusalem. 14 And he foond in the temple men sillynge oxun, and scheep, and culueris, and chaungeris sittynge. 15 And whanne he hadde maad as it were a scourge of smale cordis, he droof out alle of the temple, and oxun, and scheep; and he schedde the money of chaungeris, and turnede vpsedoun the boordis. 16 And he seide to hem that selden culueris, Take awei fro hennus these thingis, and nyle ye make the hous of my fadir an hous of marchaundise. 17 And hise disciplis hadden mynde, for it was writun, The feruent loue of thin hous hath etun me. 18 Therfor the Jewis answeriden, and seiden to hym, What token schewist thou to vs, that thou doist these thingis? 19 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, Vndo ye this temple, and in thre daies Y schal reise it. 20 Therfor the Jewis seiden to hym, In fourti and sixe yeer this temple was bildid, and schalt thou in thre daies reise it? 21 But he seide of the temple of his bodi. 22 Therfor whanne he was risun fro deeth, hise disciplis hadden mynde, that he seide these thingis of his bodi; and thei bileueden to the scripture, and to the word that Jhesus seide. 23 And whanne Jhesus was at Jerusalem in pask, in the feeste dai, many bileueden in his name, seyng his signes that he dide. 24 But Jhesus trowide not hym silf to hem, for he knewe alle men; 25 and for it was not nede to hym, that ony man schulde bere witnessyng, for he wiste, what was in man.

3 And there was a man of the Farisees, Nychodeme bi name, a prince of the Jewis. 2 And he cam to Jhesu bi niyt, and seide to hym, Rabi, we witen, that thou art comun fro God maister; for no man may do these signes, that thou doist, but God be with hym. 3 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hym, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to thee, but a man be borun ayen, he may not se the kyngdom of God. 4 Nychodeme seide to hym, Hou may a man be borun, whanne he is eeld? whether he may entre ayen in to his modris wombe, and be borun ayen? 5 Jhesus answeride, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to thee, but a man be borun ayen of watir, and of the Hooli Goost, he may not entre in to the kyngdom of God. 6 `That that is borun of the fleisch, is fleisch; and `that that is borun of spirit, is spirit. 7 Wondre thou not, for Y seide to thee, It bihoueth you to be borun ayen. 8 The spirit brethith where he wole, and thou herist his vois, but thou wost not, fro whennus he cometh, ne whidir he goith; so is ech man that is borun of the spirit. 9 Nychodeme answeride, and seide to hym, Hou moun these thingis be don? 10 Jhesus answeride, and seide to hym, Thou art a maister in Israel, and knowist not these thingis? 11 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to thee, for we speken that that we witen, and we witnessen that that we han seyn, and ye taken not oure witnessyng. 12 If Y haue seid to you ertheli thingis, and ye bileuen not, hou if Y seie to you heueneli thingis, schulen ye bileue? 13 And no man stieth in to heuene, but he that cam doun fro heuene, mannys sone that is in heuene. 14 And as Moises areride a serpent in desert, so it bihoueth mannys sone to be reisd, 15 that ech man that bileueth in hym, perische not, but haue euerlastyng lijf. (aiōnios g166) 16 For God louede so the world, that he yaf his `oon bigetun sone, that ech man that bileueth in him perische not, but haue euerlastyng lijf. (aiōnios g166) 17 For God sente not his sone in to the world, that he iuge the world, but that the world be saued bi him. 18 He that bileueth in hym, is not demed; but he that bileueth not, is now demed, for he bileueth not in the name of the `oon bigetun sone of God. 19 And this is the dom, for liyt cam in to the world, and men loueden more derknessis than liyt; for her werkes weren yuele. 20 For ech man that doith yuele, hatith the liyt; and he cometh not to the liyt, that hise werkis be not repreued. 21 But he that doith treuthe, cometh to the liyt, that hise werkis be schewid, that thei ben don in God. 22 Aftir these thingis Jhesus cam, and hise disciplis, in to the loond of Judee, and there he dwellide with hem, and baptiside. 23 And Joon was baptisinge in Ennon, bisidis Salym, for many wattris weren there; and thei camen, and weren baptisid. 24 And Joon was not yit sent in to prisoun. 25 Therfor a questioun was maad of Jonys disciplis with the Jewis, of the purificacioun. 26 And thei camen to Joon, and seiden `to hym, Maister, he that was with thee biyonde Jordan, to whom thou hast borun witnessyng, lo! he baptisith, and alle men comen to hym. 27 Joon answerde, and seide, A man may not take ony thing, but it be youun to hym fro heuene. 28 Ye you silf beren witnessyng to me, that Y seide, Y am not Crist, but that Y am sent bfore hym. 29 He that hath a wijf, is the hosebonde; but the freend of the spouse that stondith, and herith hym, ioieth with ioye, for the vois of the spouse. Therfor in this thing my ioye is fulfillid. 30 It bihoueth hym to wexe, but me to be maad lesse. 31 He that cam from aboue, is aboue alle; he that is of the erthe, spekith of the erthe; he that cometh from heuene, is aboue alle. 32 And he witnessith that thing that he hath seie, and herde, and no man takith his witnessing. 33 But he that takith his witnessyng, hath confermyd that God is sothefast. 34 But he whom God hath sent, spekith the wordis of God; for not to mesure God yyueth the spirit. 35 The fadir loueth the sone, and he hath youun alle thingis in his hoond. 36 He that bileueth in the sone, hath euerlastynge lijf; but he that is vnbileueful to the sone, schal not se euerlastynge lijf, but the wraththe of God dwellith on hym. (aiōnios g166)

bisidis the place, that Jacob yaf to Joseph, his sone. 6 And the welle of Jacob was there; and Jhesus was weri of the iourney, and sat thus vpon the welle. And the our was, as it were the sixte. 7 And a womman cam fro Samarie, to drawe watir. And Jhesus seith to hir, Yyue me drynk. 8 And hise disciplis weren gon in to the citee, to bie mete. 9 Therfor thilke womman of Samarie seith to him, Hou thou, `whanne thou art a Jewe, axist of me drynk, that am a womman of Samarie? for Jewis vsiden not to dele with Samaritans. 10 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hir, If thou wistist the yifte of God, and who `he is, that seith to thee, Yyue me drynk, thou perauenture woldist haue axid of hym, and he schulde haue youun to thee quyk watir. 11 The womman seith to him, Sire, thou hast not where ynne to drawe, and the pit is deep; wherof thanne hast thou quik watir? 12 Whethir thou art grettere than oure fadir Jacob, that yaf to vs the pit? and he drank therof, and hise sones, and hise beestis. 13 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hir, Eche man that drynkith of this watir, schal thirste efte soone; 14 but he that drynkith of the watir that Y schal yyue hym, schal not thirste with outen ende; but the watir that Y schal yyue hym, schal be maad in hym a welle `of watir, spryngynge vp in to euerlastynge lijf. (aiōn g165, aiōnios g166) 15 The womman seith to hym, Sire, yyue me this watir, that Y thirste not, nether come hidur to drawe. 16 Jhesus seith to hir, Go, clepe thin hosebonde, and come hidir. 17 The womman answerde, and seide, Y haue noon hosebonde. Jhesus seith to hir, Thou seidist wel, That Y haue noon hosebonde; 18 for thou hast hadde fyue hosebondis, and he that thou hast, is not thin hosebonde. This thing thou seidist sotheli. 19 The womman seith to hym, Lord, Y se, that thou art a prophete. 20 Oure fadris worschipiden in this hil, and ye seien, that at Jerusalem is a place, where it bihoueth to worschipe. 21 Jhesus seith to hir, Womman, bileue thou to me, for the our schal come, whanne nether in this hil, nethir in Jerusalem, ye schulen worschipe the fadir. 22 Ye worschipen that ye knowen not; we worschipen that that we knowen; for helthe is of the Jewis. 23 But the tyme is comun, and now it is, whanne trewe worschiperis schulen worschipe the fadir in spirit and treuthe; for also the fadir sekith suche, that worschipen hym. 24 God is a spirit, and it bihoueth hem that worschipen hym, to worschipe in spirit and treuthe. 25 The womman seith to hym, Y woot that Messias is comun, that is seid Crist; therfor whanne he cometh, he schal telle vs alle thingis. 26 Jhesus seith to hir, Y am he, that spekith with thee. 27 And anoon hise disciplis camen, and wondriden, that he spak with the womman; netheles no man seide to hym, What sekist thou, or, What spekist thou with hir? 28 Therfor the womman lefte hir watir pot, and wente in to the citee, and seide to tho men, 29 Come ye, and se ye a man, that seide to me alle thingis that Y haue don; whether he be Crist? 30 And thei wenten out of the citee, and camen to hym. 31 In the mene while hise disciplis preieden hym, and seiden, Maistir, etc. 32 But he seide to hem, Y haue mete to ete, that ye knowen not. 33 Therfor disciplis seiden togidir, Whether ony man hath brouyt him mete to ete? 34 Jhesus seith to hem, My mete is, that Y do the wille of hym that sente me, that Y perfourme the werk of hym. 35 Whether ye seien not, that yit foure monethis ben, and rype corn cometh? Lo! Y seie to you, lifte vp youre iyen, and se ye the feeldis, for now thei ben white to repe. 36 And he that repith takith hire, and gaderith fruyt in to euerlastyngge lijf; that bothe he that sowith, and he that repith, haue ioye togidere. (aiōnios g166) 37 In this thing is the word trewe, for anothir is that sowith, and anothir that repith. 38 Y sente you to repe, that that ye `haue not trauelid; `othere men han trauelid, and ye han entrid `in to her trauels. 39 And of that citee many Samaritans bileueden in hym, for the word of the womman, that bare witnessyng, That he seide to me alle thingis that Y haue don. 40 Therfor whanne Samaritans camen to hym, thei preieden hym to dwelle there; and he dwelte there twey daies. 41 And many mo bileueden for his word, 42 and seiden to the womman, That now not for thi speche we bileuen; for we han herd, and we witen, that this is verili the sauour of the world. 43 And aftir twei daies he wente out fro thennus, and wente in to Galilee. 44 And he bar witnessyng, that a profete in his owne cuntre hath noon onour. 45 Therfor whanne he cam in to Galilee, men of Galilee resseyueden hym, whanne thei hadden seyn alle thingis that he hadde don in Jerusalem in the feeste dai; for also thei hadden comun to the feeste dai. 46 Therfor he cam eftsoone in to the Cane of Galile, where he made the watir wyn. And `a litil kyng was, whos sone was sijk at Cafarnaum. 47 Whanne this hadde herd, that Jhesu schulde come fro Judee in to Galilee, he wente to hym, and preiede hym, that he schulde come doun, and heele his sone; for he bigan to die. 48 Therfor Jhesus seide to him, But ye se tokenes and grete wondris, ye bileuen not. 49 The litil kyng seith to hym, Lord, come doun, bifer that my sone die. 50 Jhesus seith to hym, Go, thi sone lyueth. The man bileuede to the word, that Jhesus seide to hym, and he wente. 51 And now whanne he cam doun, the seruauntis camen ayens hym, and telden to hym, and seiden, That his sone lyuede. 52 And he axide of hem the our, in which he was amendid. And thei seiden to hym, For yistirdai in the seuenthe our the feuer lefte him. 53 Therfor the fadir knewe, that thilke our it was, in which Jhesus seide to hym, Thi sone lyueth; and he bileuede, and al his hous. 54 Jhesus dide eft this secounde tokene, whanne he cam fro Judee in to Galilee.

5 Afir these thingis ther was a feeste dai of Jewis, and Jhesus wente vp to Jerusalem. 2 And in Jerusalem is a waissyng place, that in Ebrew is named Bethsaida, and hath fyue porchis. 3 In these lay a greet multitude of sike men, blynde, crokid, and drie, abidyng the mouyng of the watir. 4 For the aungel `of the Lord cam doun certeyne tymes in to the watir, and the watir was moued; and he that first cam doun in to the sisterne, afir the mouyng of the watir, was maad hool of what euer sijknesse he was holdun. 5 And a man was there, hauyng eiyte and thritti yeer in his sikenesse. 6 And whanne Jhesus hadde seyn hym liggyng, and hadde knowun, that he hadde myche tyme, he seith to hym, Wolt thou be maad hool? 7 The sijk man answerde to hym, Lord, Y haue no man, that whanne the watir is moued, to putte me `in to the cisterne; for the while Y come, anothir goith doun bifer me. 8 Jhesus seith to hym, Rise vp, take thi bed, and go. 9 And anoon the man was maad hool, and took vp his bed, and wente forth. And it was sabat in that dai. 10 Therfor the Jewis seiden to him that was maad hool, It is sabat, it is not leueful to thee, to take awei thi bed. 11 He answeride to hem, He that made me hool, seide to me, Take thi bed, and go. 12 Therfor thei axiden him, What man `is that, that seide to thee, Take vp thi bed, and go? 13 But he that was maad hool, wiste not who it was. And Jhesus bowide awei fro the puple, that was set in the place. 14 Afirward Jhesus foond hym in the temple, and seide to hym, Lo! thou art maad hool; now nyle thou do synne, lest any worse thing bifalle to thee. 15 Thilke man wente, and telde to the Jewis, that it was Jhesu that made hym hool. 16 Therfor the Jewis pursueden Jhesu, for he dide this thing in the sabat. 17 And Jhesus answeride to hem, My fadir worchith til now, and Y worche. 18 Therfor the Jewis souyten more to sle hym, for not oneli he brak the sabat, but he seide that God was his fadir, and made hym euene to God. 19 Therfor Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seye to you, the sone may not of hym silf do ony thing, but that thing that he seeth the fadir doynge; for what euere thingis he doith, the sone doith in lijk maner tho thingis. 20 For the fadir loueth the sone, and schewith to hym alle thingis that he doith; and he schal schewe to hym grettere werkis than these, that ye wondren. 21 For as the fadir reisith deed men, and quykeneth, so the sone quykeneth whom he wole. 22 For nethir the fadir iugith ony man, but hath youun ech doom to the sone, 23 that alle men onoure the sone, as thei onouren the fadir. He that onourith not the sone, onourith not the fadir that sente hym. 24 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, that he that herith my word, and bileueth to hym that sente me, hath euerlastyng lijf, and he cometh not in to doom, but passith fro deeth in to lijf. (aiōnios g166) 25 Treuli, treuli Y seie to you, for the our cometh, and now it is, whanne deed men schulen here the vois of `Goddis sone, and thei that heren, schulen lyue. 26 For as the fadir hath lijf in hym silf, so he yaf to the sone, to haue lijf in him silf; 27 and he yaf to hym power to make doom, for he is mannys sone. 28 Nyle ye wondre this, for the our cometh, in which alle men that ben in brielis, schulen here the voice of Goddis sone. 29 And thei that han do goode thingis, schulen go in to ayenrisyng of lijf; but thei that han done yuele thingis, in to ayenrisyng of doom. 30 Y may no thing do of my silf, but as Y here, Y deme, and my doom is iust, for Y seke not my wille, but the wille of the fadir that sente me. 31 If Y bere witnessing of my silf, my witnessyng is not trewe; 32 another is that berith witnessyng of me, and Y woot that his witnessyng is trewe, that he berith of me. 33 Ye senten to Joon, and he bar witnessyng to treuthe. 34 But Y take not witnessyng of man; but Y seie these thingis, that ye be saaf. 35 He was a lanterne brennyng and schynyng; but ye wolden glade at an our in his liyt. 36 But Y haue more witnessyng than Joon, for the werkis that my fadir yaf to me to perfourme hem, thilke werkis that Y do beren witnessyng of me, that the fadir sente me. 37 And the fadir that sente me, he bar witnessyng of me. Nether ye herden euere his vois, nether ye seien his licsesse. 38 And ye han not his word dwellyng in you; for ye byleuen not to hym, whom he sente. 39 Seke ye scripturis, in which ye gessen to haue euerlastyng lijf; and tho it ben, that beren witnessyng of me.

(aiōnios g166) 40 And ye wolen not come to me, that ye haue lijf. 41 Y take not clerenesse of men; 42 but Y haue knowun you, that ye han not the loue of God in you. 43 Y cam in the name of my fadir, and ye token not me. If another come in his owne name, ye schulen resseyue hym. 44 Hou moun ye bileue, that resseyuen glorie ech of othere, and ye seken not the glorie that is of God aloone? 45 Nyle ye gesse, that Y am to accuse you anentis the fadir; it is Moises that accusith you, in whom ye hopen. 46 For if ye bileueden to Moises, perauenture ye schulden bileue also to me; for he wroot of me. 47 But if ye bileuen not to hise lettris, hou schulen ye bileue to my wordis?

6 Aftir these thingis Jhesus wente ouere the see of Galilee, that is Tiberias. 2 And a greet multitude suede hym; for thei sayn the tokenes, that he dide on hem that weren sijke. 3 Therfor Jhesus wente in to an hil, and sat there with hise disciplis. 4 And the paske was ful niy, a feeste dai of the Jewis. 5 Therfor whanne Jhesus hadde lift vp hise iyen, and hadde seyn, that a greet multitude cam to hym, he seith to Filip, Wherof schulen we bie looues, that these men ete? 6 But he seide this thing, temptynge hym; for he wiste what he was to do. 7 Filip answerde to hym, The looues of tweyn hundrid pans sufficen not to hem, that ech man take a litil what. 8 Oon of hise disciplis, Andrew, the brothir of Symount Petre, 9 seith to him, A child is here, that hath fyue barli looues and twei fischis; but what ben these among so manye? 10 Therfor Jhesus seith, Make ye hem sitte to the mete. And there was myche hey in the place. And so men saten to the mete, as `fyue thousynde in noumbre. 11 And Jhesus took fyue looues, and whanne he hadde do thankyngis, he departide to men that saten to the mete, and also of the fischis, as myche as thei wolden. 12 And whanne thei weren fillid, he seide to hise disciplis, Gadir ye the relifs that ben left, that thei perischen not. 13 And so thei gadriden, and filliden twelue cofyns of relif of the fyue barli looues and twei fischis, that lefte to hem that hadden etun. 14 Therfor tho men, whanne thei hadden seyn the signe that he hadde don, seiden, For this is verili the profete, that is to come in to the world. 15 And whanne Jhesus hadde knowun, that thei weren to come to take hym, and make hym kyng, he fleiy `aloone eft in to an hille. 16 And whanne euentid was comun, his disciplis wenten down to the see. 17 And thei wenten vp in to a boot, and thei camen ouer the see in to Cafarnaum.

And derknessis weren maad thanne, and Jhesus was not come to hem. 18 And for a greet wynde blew, the see roos vp. 19 Therfor whanne thei hadden rowid as fyue and twenti furlongis or thretti, thei seen Jhesus walkynge on the see, and to be neiy the boot; and thei dredden. 20 And he seide to hem, Y am; nyle ye drede. 21 Therfor thei wolden take hym in to the boot, and anoon the boot was at the loond, to which thei wenten. 22 On `the tother dai the puple, that stood ouer the see, say, that ther was noon other boot there but oon, and that Jhesu entride not with hise disciplis in to the boot, but hise disciplis aloone wenten. 23 But othere bootis camen fro Tiberias bisidis the place, where thei hadden eetun breed, and diden thankynge to God. 24 Therfor whanne the puple hadde seyn, that Jhesu was not there, nether hise disciplis, thei wenten vp in to bootis, and camen to Cafarnaum, sekynge Jhesu. 25 And whanne thei hadden foundun hym ouer the see, thei seiden to hym, Rabi, hou come thou hidur? 26 Jhesus answerde to hem, and seide, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, ye seken me, not for ye sayn the myraclis, but for ye eten of looues, and weren fillid. 27 Worche ye not mete that perischith, but that dwellith in to euerlastynge lijf, which mete mannys sone schal yyue to you; for God the fadir hath markid hym. (aiōnios g166) 28 Therfor thei seiden to hym, What schulen we do, that we worche the werkis of God? 29 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, This is the werk of God, that ye bileue to hym, whom he sente. 30 Therfor thei seiden to hym, What tokene thanne doist thou, that we seen, and bileue to thee? what worchist thou? 31 Oure fadris eeten manna in desert, as it is writun, He yaf to hem breed fro heuene to ete. 32 Therfor Jhesus seith to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, Moyses yaf you not breed fro heuene, but my fadir yyueth you veri breed fro heuene; 33 for it is very breed that cometh doun fro heuene, and yyueth lijf to the world. 34 Therfor thei seiden to hym, Lord, euere yyue vs this breed. 35 And Jhesus seide to hem, Y am breed of lijf; he that cometh to me, schal not hungur; he that bileueth in me, schal neuere thirste. 36 But Y seid to you, that ye han seyn me, and ye bileueden not. 37 Al thing, that the fadir yyueth to me, schal come to me; and Y schal not caste hym out, that cometh to me. 38 For Y cam doun fro heuene, not that Y do my wille, but the wille of hym that sente me. 39 And this is the wille of the fadir that sente me, that al thing that the fadir yaf me, Y leese not of it, but ayen reise it in the laste dai. 40 And this is the wille of my fadir that sente me, that ech man that seeth the sone, and bileueth in hym, haue euerlastyng lijf; and Y schal ayen reyse hym in the laste dai. (aiōnios g166) 41 Therfor Jewis grutchiden of hym, for he hadde seid, Y am breed that cam doun fro heuene. 42 And thei seiden, Whether this is not Jhesus, the sone of Joseph, whos fadir and modir we han knowun. Hou thanne seith this, That Y cam doun fro heuene? 43 Therfor Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, Nyle ye grutche togidere. 44 No man may come to me, but if the fadir that sente me, drawe hym; and Y schal ayen reise hym in the laste dai. It is writun in prophetis, 45 And alle men schulen be able for to be tauyt `of God. Ech man that herde of the fadir, and hath lerned, cometh to me. 46 Not for ony man hath sey the fadir, but this that is of God, hath sey the fadir. 47 Sotheli, sotheli, Y seie to you, he that bileueth in me, hath euerlastyng lijf. (aiōnios g166) 48 Y am breed of lijf. 49 Youre fadris eeten manna in desert, and ben deed. 50 This is breed comyng doun fro heuene, that if ony man ete therof, he die not. 51 Y am lyuyngre breed, that cam doun fro heuene. If ony man ete of this breed, he schal lyue withouten ende. And the breed that Y schal yyue, is my fleisch for the lijf of the world. (aiōn g165) 52 Therfor the Jewis chidden togidere, and seiden, Hou may this yyue to vs his fleisch to ete? 53 Therfor Jhesus seith to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, but ye eten the fleisch of mannis sone, and drenken his blood, ye schulen not haue lijf in you. 54 He that etith my fleisch, and drynkith my blood, hath euerlastynge lijf, and Y schal ayen reise hym in the laste dai. (aiōnios g166) 55 For my fleisch is veri mete, and my blood is very drynk. 56 He that etith my fleisch, and drynkith my blood, dwellith in me, and Y in hym. 57 As my fadir lyuyngre sente me, and Y lyue for the fadir, and he that etith me, he schal lyue for me. 58 This is breed, that cam doun fro heuene. Not as youre fadris eten manna, and ben deed; he that etith this breed, schal lyue withouten ende. (aiōn g165) 59 He seide these thingis in the synagoge, techynge in Cafarnaum. 60 Therfor many of hise disciplis herynge, seiden, This word is hard, who may here it? 61 But Jhesus witynge at hym silf, that hise disciplis grutchiden of this thing, seide to hem, This thing sclaudrith you? 62 Therfor if ye seen mannis sone styngre, where he was bifor? 63 It is the spirit that quykeneth, the fleisch profitith no thing; the wordis that Y haue spokun to you, ben spirit and lijf. 64 But ther ben summe of you that bileuen not. For Jhesus wiste fro the bigynnyngre, which weren bileuyngre, and who was to bitraye hym. 65 And he seide, Therfor Y seide to you, that no man may come to me, but it were youun to hym of my fadir. 66 Fro this tyme many of hise disciplis wenten abak, and wenten not now with hym. 67 Therfor Jhesus seide to the twelue, Whether ye wolen also go awei? 68 And Symount Petre answeride to hym, Lord, to whom schulen we gon? Thou hast wordis of euerlastynghe lijf; (aiōnios g166) 69 and we bileuen, and han knowun, that thou art Crist, the sone of God. 70 Therfor Jhesus answerde to hem, Whether Y chees not you twelue, and oon of you is a feend? 71 And he seide this of Judas of Symount Scarioth, for this was to bitraye hym, whanne he was oon of the twelue.

7 Aftir these thingis Jhesus walkide in to Galilee, for he wolde not walke in to Judee, for the Jewis souyten to sle hym. 2 And ther was neiy a feeste dai of the Jewis, Senofegia. 3 And hise britheren seiden to hym, Passe fro hennus, and go in to Judee, that also thi disciplis seen thi werkis that thou doist; 4 for no man doith ony thing in hiddlis, and hym silf sekith to be opyn. If thou doist these thingis, schewe thi silf to the world. 5 For nether hise britheren bileueden in hym. 6 Therfor Jhesus seith to hem, My tyme cam not yit, but youre tyme is euermore redi. 7 The world may not hate you, sothely it hatith me; for Y bere witnessyng therof, that the werkis of it ben yuele. 8 Go ye vp to this feeste dai, but Y schal not go vp to this feeste dai, for my tyme is not yit fulfillid. 9 Whanne he hadde seid these thingis, he dwelte in Galilee. 10 And aftir that hise britheren weren gon vp, thanne he yede vp to the feeste dai, not opynli, but as in priuyte. 11 Therfor the Jewis souyten hym in the feeste dai, and seiden, Where is he? 12 And myche grutchyng was of hym among the puple. For summe seiden, That he is good; and othere seiden, Nai, but he disceyueth the puple; 13 netheles no man spak opynli of hym, for drede of the Jewis. 14 But whanne the myddil feeste dai cam, Jhesus wente vp in to the temple, and tauyte. 15 And the

Jewis wondriden, and seiden, Hou can this man lettris, sithen he hath not lerned? 16 Jhesus answerde to hem, and seide, My doctryne is not myn, but his that sente me. 17 If ony man wole do his wille, he schal knowe of the techyng, whethir it be of God, or Y speke of my silf. 18 He that spekith of hym silf, sekith his owne glorie; but he that sekith the glorie of hym that sente hym, is sothefast, and vnriytwisnesse is not in hym. 19 Whether Moises yaf not to you a lawe, and noon of you doith the lawe? 20 What seken ye to sle me? And the puple answerde, and seide, Thou hast a deuel; who sekith to sle thee? 21 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, Y haue don o werk, and alle ye wondren. 22 Therfor Moises yaf to you circumcisioun; not for it is of Moyses, but of the fadris; and in the sabat ye circumciden a man. 23 If a man take circumcisioun in the sabat, that the lawe of Moises be not brokun, han ye indignacioun to me, for Y made al a man hool in the sabat? 24 Nyle ye deme aftir the face, but deme ye a riytful doom. 25 Therfor summe of Jerusalem seiden, Whethir this is not he, whom the Jewis seken to sle? 26 and lo! he spekith opynli, and thei seien no thing to hym. Whether the princes knewen verili, that this is Crist? 27 But we knowun this man, of whennus he is; but whanne Crist schal come, no man woot of whennus he is. 28 Therfor Jhesus criede in the temple `techynge, and seide, Ye knowen me, and `ye knowen of whennus Y am; and Y cam not of my silf, but he is trewe that sente me, whom ye knowen not. 29 Y knowe hym, and if Y seie that Y knowe hym not, Y schal be lijk to you, a liere; but Y knowe hym, for of hym Y am, and he sente me. 30 Therfor thei souyten to take hym, and no man sette on hym hoondis, for his our cam not yit. 31 And many of the puple bileueden in hym, and seiden, Whanne Crist schal come, whether he schal do mo tokenes, than tho that this doith? 32 Farisees herden the puple musinge of hym these thingis; and the princis and Farisees senten mynystris, to take hym. 33 Therfor Jhesus seide to hem, Yit a litil tyme Y am with you, and Y go to the fadir, that sente me. 34 Ye schulen seke me, and ye schulen not fynde; and where Y am, ye may not come. 35 Therfor the Jewis seiden to hem silf, Whidur schal this gon, for we schulen not fynde hym? whether he wole go in to the scateryng of hethene men, and wole teche the hethene?

36 What is this word, which he seide, Ye schulen seke me, and ye schulen not fynde; and where Y am, ye moun not come? 37 But in the laste dai of the greet feeste, Jhesus stood, and criede, and seide, If any man thirstith, come he to me, and drynke. 38 He that bileueth in me, as the scripture seith, Floodis of quyk watir schulen flowe fro his wombe. 39 But he seide this thing of the Spirit, whom men that bileueden in hym schulden take; for the Spirit was not yit youun, for Jhesus was not yit glorified.
40 Therfor of that cumpanye, whanne thei hadden herd these wordis of hym, thei seiden, This is verili a prophete. 41 Othere seiden, This is Crist. `But summe seiden, Whether Crist cometh fro Galilee? 42 Whether the scripture seith not, that of the seed of Dauid, and of the castel of Bethleem, where Dauid was, Crist cometh? 43 Therfor discencioun was maad among the puple for hym. 44 For summe of hem wolden haue take hym, but no man sette hondis on hym. 45 Therfor the mynystris camen to bischopis and Farisees, and thei seiden to hem, Whi brouyten ye not hym? 46 The mynystris answeriden, Neuere man spak so, as this man spekith. 47 Therfor the Farisees answeriden to hem, Whether ye ben disseyued also? 48 whether ony of the pryncis or of the Farisees bileueden in hym? 49 But this puple, that knowith not the lawe, ben cursid. 50 Nychodeme seith to hem, he that cam to hym bi nytyt, that was oon of hem, Whethir oure lawe demith a man, 51 but it haue first herde of hym, and knowe what he doith? 52 Thei answeriden, and seiden to hym, Whether thou art a man of Galilee also? Seke thou scripturis, and se thou, that a prophete risith not of Galilee. 53 And thei turneden ayen, ech in to his hous.

8 But Jhesus wente in to the mount of Olyuete. 2 And eerli eft he cam in to the temple; and al the puple cam to hym; and he sat, and tauyte hem. 3 And scribis and Fariseis bryngen a womman takun in auoutrye, and thei settiden hir in the myddil, 4 and seiden to hym, Maystir, this womman is now takun in auoutrie. 5 And in the lawe Moises comaundide vs to stoone suche; therfor what seist thou? 6 And thei seiden this thing temptynge hym, that thei myyten accuse hym. And Jhesus bowide hym silf doun, and wroot with his fyngur in the erthe. 7 And whanne thei abiden axynge hym, he reside hym silf, and seide to hem, He of you that is without synne, first caste a stoon in to hir. 8 And eft he bowide hym silf, and wroot in the erthe. 9 And thei herynge these thingis, wenten awei oon aftir anothir, and thei bigunnen fro the eldre men; and Jhesus dwelte aloone, and the womman stondynge in the myddil. 10 And Jhesus reside hym silf, and seide to hir, Womman, where ben thei that accusiden thee? no man hath dampned thee. 11 Sche seide, No man, Lord. Jhesus seide `to hir, Nethir Y schal dampne thee; go thou, and now aftirward nyle thou synne more. 12 Therfor eft Jhesus spak to hem, and seide, Y am the lyt of the world; he that sueth me, walkith not in derknessis, but schal haue the liyt of lijf. 13 Therfor the Fariseis seiden, Thou berist witnessyng of thi silf; thi witnessyng is not trewe. 14 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, And if Y bere witnessyng of my silf, my witnessyng is trewe; for Y woot fro whennus Y cam, and whidur Y go. 15 But ye witen not fro whennus Y cam, ne whidur Y go. For ye demen aftir the fleisch, but Y deme no man; 16 and if Y deme, my doom is trewe, for Y am not aloone, but Y and the fadir that sente me. 17 And in youre lawe it is writun, that the witnessyng of twei men is trewe. 18 Y am, that bere witnessyng of my silf, and the fadir that sente me, berith witnessyng of me. 19 Therfor thei seiden to hym, Where is thi fadir? Jhesus answeride, Nether ye knowen me, nethir ye knowen my fadir; if ye knewen me, peraventure ye schulden knowe also my fadir. 20 Jhesus spak these wordis in the tresorie, techynge in the temple; and no man took hym, for his our cam not yit. 21 Therfor eft Jhesus seide to hem, Lo! Y go, and ye schulen seke me, and ye schulen die in youre synne; whidur Y go, ye moun not come. 22 Therfor the Jewis seiden, Whether he schal sle hym silf, for he seith, Whidur Y go, ye moun not come? 23 And he seide to hem, Ye ben of bynethe, Y am of aboue; ye ben of this world, Y am not of this world. 24 Therfor Y seide to you, that ye schulen die in youre synnes; for if ye bileuen not that Y am, ye schulen die in youre synne. 25 Therfor thei seiden to hym, Who art thou? Jhesus seide to hem, The bigynnyng, which also speke to you. 26 Y haue many thingis to speke, and deme of you, but he that sente me is sothefast; and Y speke in the world these thingis, that Y herde of hym. 27 And thei knewen not, that he clepide his fadir God. 28 Therfor Jhesus seith to hem, Whanne ye han areisid mannus sone, thanne ye schulen knowe, that Y am, and of my silf Y do no thing; but as my fadir tauyte me, Y speke these thingis. 29 And he that sente me is with me, and lefte me not aloone; for Y do euermore tho thingis, that ben plesynge to hym. 30 Whanne he spak these thingis, manye bileueden in hym. 31 Therfor Jhesus seide to the Jewis, that bileueden in hym, If ye dwellen in my word, verili ye schulen be my disciplis; 32 and ye schulen knowe the treuthe, and the treuthe schal make you fre. 33 Therfor the Jewis answeriden to hym, We ben the seed of Abraham, and we serueden neuere to man; hou seist thou, That ye schulen be fre? 34 Jhesus answeride to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, ech man that doith synne, is seruaunt of synne. 35 And the seruaunt dwellith not in the hows with outen ende, but the sone dwellith with outen ende. (aiōn g165) 36 Therfor if the sone make you fre, verili ye schulen be fre. 37 Y woot that ye ben Abrahams sones, but ye seken to sle me, for my word takith not in you. 38 Y speke tho thingis, that Y say at my fadir; and ye doen tho thingis, that ye sayn at youre fadir. 39 Thei answerden, and seiden to hym, Abraham is oure fadir. Jhesus seith to hem, If ye ben the sones of Abraham, do ye the werkis of Abraham. 40 But now ye seken to sle `me, a man that haue spoken to you treuthe, that Y herde of God; Abraham dide not this thing. 41 Ye doen the werkis of youre fadir. Therfor thei seiden to hym, We ben not borun of fornycacioun; we han o fadir, God. 42 But Jhesus seith to hem, If God were youre fadir, sotheli ye schulden loue me; for Y passide forth of God, and cam; for nether Y cam of my silf, but he sente me. 43 Whi knowen ye not my speche? for ye moun not here my word. 44 Ye ben of the fadir, the deuel, and ye wolen do the desyris of youre fadir. He was a mansleere fro the bigynnyng, and he stood not in treuthe; for treuthe is not in hym. Whanne he spekith lesyng, he spekith of his owne; for he is a liere, and fadir of it. 45 But for Y seie treuthe, ye bileuen not to me. 46 Who of you schal repreue me of synne? if Y sey treuthe, whi bileuen ye not to me? 47 He that is of God, herith the wordis of God; therfor ye heren not, for ye ben not of God. 48 Therfor the Jewis answeriden, and seiden, Whether we seien not wel, that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuel? 49 Jhesus answerde, and seide, Y haue not a deuel, but Y onoure my fadir, and ye han vnhonourid me. 50 For Y seke not my glorie; there is he, that sekith, and demeth. 51 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, if ony man kepe my word, he schal not taste deth with outen ende. (aiōn g165) 52 Therfor the Jewis seiden, Now we han knowun, that thou hast a deuel. Abraham is deed, and the prophetis, and thou seist, If ony man kepe my word, he schal not taste deth withouten ende. (aiōn g165) 53 Whether thou art grettere than oure fader Abraham, that is deed, and the prophetis ben deed; whom makist thou thi silf? 54 Jhesus answeride, If Y glorifie my silf, my glorie is nouyt; my fadir, is that glorifieth me, whom ye seien, that he is youre God. 55 And ye han not knowun hym, but Y haue knowun hym; and if Y seie that Y knowe hym not, Y schal be a liere lich to you; but Y knowe hym, and Y kepe his word. 56 Abraham, youre fadir, gladide to se my dai; and he sai, and ioyede. 57 Thanne the Jewis seiden to hym, Thou hast not yit fifti yeer, and hast thou seien Abraham? 58 Therfor Jhesus seide to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, bifer that Abraham schulde be, Y am. 59 Therfor thei token stonys, to caste to hym; but Jhesus hidde hym, and wente out of the temple.

9 And Jhesus passynge, sei, a man blynd fro the birthe. 2 And hise disciplis axiden hym, Maistir, what synnede this man, or hise eldris, that he schulde be borun blynd? 3 Jhesus answeride, Nether this man synnede, nether hise eldris; but that the werkis of God be schewid in hym. 4 It bihoueth me to worche the werkis of hym that sente me, as longe as the dai is; the nyyt schal come, whanne no man may worche. 5 As longe as Y am in the world, Y am the liyt of the world. 6 Whanne he hadde seid these thingis, he spette in to the erthe, and made cley of the spotil, and anoyntide the cley on hise iyen, 7 and seide to hym, Go, and be thou waisschun in the watir of Siloe, that is to seie, Sent. Thanne he wente, and waisschide, and cam seyng. 8 And so neyboris, and thei that hadden seyn him bifor, for he was a beggere, seiden, Whether this is not he, that sat, and beggide? 9 Othere men seiden, That this it is; othere men seyden, Nai, but he is lijc hym. 10 But he seide, That Y am. Therfor thei seiden to hym, Hou ben thin iyen openyd? 11 He answerde, Thilke man, that is seid Jhesus, made clei, and anoyntide myn iyen, and seide to me, Go thou to the watre of Siloe, and wassche; and Y wente, and wasschide, and say. 12 And thei seiden to hym, Where is he? He seide, Y woot not. 13 Thei leden hym that was blynd to the Farisees. 14 And it was sabat, whanne Jhesus made cley, and openyde hise iyen. 15 Eft the Farisees axiden hym, hou he hadde seyn. And he seide to hem, He leide to me cley on the iyen; and Y wasschide, and Y se. 16 Therfor summe of the Fariseis seiden, This man is not of God, that kepith not the sabat. Othere men seiden, Hou may a synful man do these signes. And strijf was among hem. 17 Therfor thei seien eftsoone to the blynd man, What seist thou of hym, that openyde thin iyen? And he seide, That he is a prophete. 18 Therfor Jewis bileueden not of hym, that he was blynd, and hadde seyn, til thei clepiden his fadir and modir, that hadde seyn.

19 And thei axiden hem, and seiden, Is this youre sone, which ye seien was borun blynd? hou thanne seeth he now? 20 His fadir and modir answeriden to hem, and seiden, We witen, that this is oure sone, and that he was borun blynd; 21 but hou he seeth now, we witen neuer, or who openyde hise iyen, we witen nere; axe ye hym, he hath age, speke he of hym silf. 22 His fader and modir seiden these thingis, for thei dredden the Jewis; for thanne the Jewis hadden conspirid, that if ony man knoulechide hym Crist, he schulde be don out of the synagoge. 23 Therfor his fadir and modir seiden, That he hath age, axe ye hym. 24 Therfor eftsoone thei clepiden the man, that was blynd, and seiden to hym, Yyue thou glorie to God; we witen, that this man is a synnere. 25 Thanne he seide, If he is a synnere, Y woot neuer; o thing Y woot, that whanne Y was blynd, now Y se. 26 Therfor thei seiden to hym, What dide he to thee? hou openyde he thin iyen? 27 He answerde to hem, Y seide to you now, and ye herden; what wolen ye eftsoone here? whether ye wolen be maad hise discyplis? 28 Therfor thei cursiden hym, and seiden, Be thou his disciple; we ben disciplis of Moises. 29 We witen, that God spak to Moises; but we knowen not this, of whennus he is. 30 Thilke man answeride, and seide to hem, For in this is a wondrous thing, that ye witen not, of whennus he is, and he hath openyd myn iyen. 31 And we witen, that God herith not synful men, but if ony man is worschypere of God, and doith his wille, he herith hym. 32 Fro the world it is not herd, that ony man openyde the iyen of a blynd borun man; but this were of God, (aiōn g165) 33 he myyt not do ony thing. 34 Thei answeriden, and seiden to hym, Thou art al borun in synnes, and techist thou vs? And thei putten hym out. 35 Jhesus herd, that thei hadden putte hym out; and whanne he hadde founde hym, he seide to hym, Bileuest thou in the sone of God? 36 He answerde, and seide, Lord, who is he, that Y bileue in hym? 37 And Jhesus seide to hym, And thou hast seyn him, and he it is, that spekith with thee. 38 And he seide, Lord, Y bileue. And he felle doun, and worschipide hym. 39 Therfore Jhesus seide to hym, Y cam in to this world, `in to doom, that thei that seen not, see, and thei that seen, be maad blynde. 40 And summe of the Faryseis herden, that weren with hym, and thei seiden to hym, Whether we ben blynde? 41 Jhesus seide to hem, If ye weren blynde, ye schulden not haue synne; but now ye seien, That we seen, youre synne dwellith stille.

10 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, he that cometh not in by the dore in to the foold of scheep, but stieth bi another weie, is a nyyt theef and a dai theef. 2 But he that entrith bi the dore, is the scheepherde of the scheep. 3 To this the porter openeth, and the scheep heren his vois, and he clepith his owne scheep bi name, and ledith hem out. 4 And whanne he hath don out his owne scheep, he goith bifer hem, and the scheep suen hym; for thei knowun his vois. 5 But thei suen not an alien, but fleen from hym; for thei han not knowun the vois of aliens. 6 Jhesus seide to hem this prouerbe; but thei knewen not what he spak to hem. 7 Therfor Jhesus seide to hem eftsoone, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, that Y am the dore of the scheep. 8 As many as han come, weren nyyt theues and day theues, but the scheep herden not hem. 9 Y am the dore. If ony man schal entre bi me, he schal be sauyd; and he schal go ynne, and schal go out, and he schal fynde lesewis. 10 A nyyt theef cometh not, but that he stele, sle, and leese; and Y cam, that thei han lijf, and haue more plenteousli. 11 I am a good scheepherde; a good scheepherde yyueth his lijf for hise scheep. 12 But an hirid hyne, and that is not the scheepherde, whos ben not the scheep his owne, seeth a wolf comynge, and he leeueth the scheep, and fleeth; and the wolf rauyschith, and disparplith the scheep. 13 And the hirid hyne fleeth, for he is an hirid hyne, and it parteyneth not to hym of the scheep. 14 Y am a good scheepherde, and Y knowe my scheep, and my scheep knowen me. 15 As the fadir hath knowun me, Y knowe the fadir; and Y putte my lijf for my scheep. 16 Y haue othere scheep, that ben not of this foolde, and it bihoueth me to brynge hem togidir, and thei schulen here my vois; and it schal be maad o foolde and o scheepherde. 17 Therfor the fadir loueth me, for Y putte my lijf, that eftsoone Y take it. 18 No man takith it fro me, but Y putte it of my silf. Y haue power to putte it, and Y haue power to take it ayen. This maundement Y haue takun of my fadir. 19 Eft dissencioun was maad among the Jewis for these wordis. 20 And many of hem seiden, He hath a deuel, and maddith; what heren ye hym? 21 Othere men seiden, These wordis ben not of a man that hath a feend. Whether the deuel may opene the iyen of blynde men? 22 But the feestis of halewyng of the temple weren maad in Jerusalem, and it was wyntir. 23 And Jhesus walkide in the temple, in the porche of Salomon. 24 Therfor the Jewis camen aboute hym, and seiden to hym, Hou long takist thou awei oure soule? if thou art Crist, seie thou to vs opynli. 25 Jhesus answerde to hem, Y speke to you, and ye bileuen not; the werkis that Y do in the name of my fadir, beren witnessyng of me. 26 But ye bileuen not, for ye ben not of my scheep. 27

My scheep heren my vois, and Y knowe hem, and thei suen me.

28 And Y yyue to hem euerelastynghe lijf, and thei schulen not perische with outen ende, and noon schal rauysche hem fro myn hoond. (aiōn g165, aiōnios g166) 29 That thing that my fadir yaf to me, is more than alle thingis; and no man may rauysche fro my fadris hoond. 30 Y and the fadir ben oon. 31 The Jewis token vp stoonys, to stoone hym. 32 Jhesus answerde to hem, Y haue schewide to you many good werkis of my fadir, for which werk of hem stonen ye me? 33 The Jewis answerden to hym, We stoonen thee not of good werk, but of blasfemye, and for thou, sithen thou art a man, makist thi silf God. 34 Jhesus answerde to hem, Whether it is not writun in youre lawe, That Y seide, Ye ben goddis? 35 Yf he seide that thei weren goddis, to whiche the word of God was maad, and scripture may not be vndon, 36 thilke that the fadir hath halewid, and hath sent in to the world, ye seien, That `thou blasfemest, for Y seide, Y am Goddis sone? 37 Yf Y do not the werkis of my fadir, nyle ye bileue to me; 38 but if Y do, thouy ye wolen not bileue to me, bileue ye to the werkis; that ye knowe and bileue, that the fadir is in me, and Y in the fadir. 39 Therfor thei souyten to take hym, and he wente out of her hondis. 40 And he wente eftsoone ouer Jordan, in to that place where Joon was firste baptisynghe, and he dwelte there. 41 And manye camen to hym, and seiden, For Joon dide no myracle; 42 and alle thingis what euer Joon seide of this, weren sothe. And many bileueden in hym.

11 And ther was a sijk man, Lazarus of Bethanye, of the castel of Marie and Martha, hise sistris. 2 And it was Marye, which anoyntide the Lord with oynement, and wipte hise feet with hir heeris, whos brother Lazarus was sijk. 3 Therfor hise sistris senten to hym, and seide, Lord, lo! he whom thou louest, is sijk.

4 And Jhesus herde, and seide to hem, This syknesse is not to the deth, but for the glorie of God, that mannus sone be glorified bi hym. 5 And Jhesus louyde Martha, and hir sistir Marie, and Lazarus. 6 Therfor whanne Jhesus herde, that he was sijk, thanne he dwellide in the same place twei daies. 7 And after these thingis he seide to hise disciplis, Go we eft in to Judee. 8 The disciplis seien to hym, Maister, now the Jewis souyten for to stoone thee, and eft goist thou thidir? 9 Jhesus answerde, Whether ther ben not twelue ouris of the dai? If ony man wandre in the dai, he hirtith not, for he seeth the lyt of this world. 10 But if he wandre in the niyt, he stomblith, for liyt is not in him. 11 He seith these thingis, and aftir these thingis he seith to hem, Lazarus, oure freend, slepith, but Y go to reise hym fro sleep. 12 Therfor hise disciplis seiden, Lord, if he slepith, he schal be saaf. 13 But Jhesus hadde seid of his deth; but thei gessiden, that he seide of slepyng of sleep. 14 Thanne therfor Jhesus seide to hem opynli, Lazarus is deed; 15 and Y haue ioye for you, that ye bileue, for Y was not there; but go we to hym. 16 Therfor Thomas, that is seid Didymus, seide to euen disciplis, Go we also, that we dien with hym. 17 And so Jhesus cam, and foond hym hauynge thanne foure daies in the graue. 18 And Bethany was bisidis Jerusalem, as it were fiftene furlongis. 19 And many of the Jewis camen to Mary and Martha, to coumforte hem of her brothir. 20 Therfor as Martha herde, that Jhesu cam, sche ran to hym; but Mary sat at home. 21 Therfor Martha seide to Jhesu, Lord, if thou haddist be here, my brother hadde not be deed. 22 But now Y woot, that what euere thingis thou schalt axe of God, God schal yyue to thee. 23 Jhesus seith to hir, Thi brother schal rise ayen. 24 Martha seith to hym, Y woot, that he schal rise ayen in the ayen risyng in the laste dai. 25 Jhesus seith to hir, Y am ayen risyng and lijf; he that bileueth in me, yhe, thouy he be deed, he schal lyue; 26 and ech that lyueth, and bileueth in me, schal not die with outhen ende. Bileuest thou this thing? (aiōn g165) 27 Sche seith to hym, Yhe, Lord, Y haue bileued, that thou art Crist, the sone of the lyuyng God, that hast come in to this world. 28 And whanne sche hadde seyd this thing, sche wente, and clepide Marie, hir sistir, in silence, and seide, The maister cometh, and clepith thee. 29 Sche, as sche herd, aroos anon, and cam to hym. 30 And Jhesus cam not yit `in to the castel, but he was yit in that place, where Martha hadde comun ayens hym. 31 Therfor the Jewis that weren with hir in the hous, and coumfortiden hir, whanne thei sayn Marie, that sche roos swithe, and wente out, thei sueden hir, and seiden, For sche goith to the graue, to wepe there. 32 But whanne Marie was comun where Jhesus was, sche seyng hym felde down to his feet, and seide to hym, Lord, if thou haddist be here, my brother hadde not be deed. 33 And therfor whanne Jhesu sai y hir wepyng, and the Jewis wepyng that weren with hir, he `made noise in spirit, and troblide hym silf, 34 and seide, Where han ye leid hym? Thei seien to hym, Lord, come, and se. 35 And Jhesus wepte. Therfor the Jewis seiden, 36 Lo! hou he louede hym. 37 And summe of hem seiden, Whethir this man that openyde the iyen of the borun blynde man, myyte not make that this schulde not die? 38 Therfor Jhesus eft makynge noise in hym silf, cam to the graue. And there was a denne, and a stoon was leid thereon. 39 And Jhesus seith, Take ye away the stoon. Martha, the sistir of hym that was deed, seith to hym, Lord, he stynkith now, for he hath leye foure daies. 40 Jhesus seith to hir, Hauē Y not seid to thee, that if thou bileuest, thou schalt se the glorie of God? 41 Therfor thei token awei the stoon. And Jhesus lifte vp hise iyen, and seide, Fadir, Y do thankyngis to thee, for thou hast herd me; and Y wiste, 42 that thou euermore herist me, but for the puple that stondith aboute, Y seide, that thei bileue, that thou hast sent me. 43 Whanne he hadde seid these thingis, he criede with a greet vois, Lazarus, come thou forth. 44 And anon he that was deed, cam out, boundun the hondis and feet with boondis, and his face boundun with a sudarie. And Jhesus seith to hem, Vnbynde ye hym, and suffre ye hym to go forth. 45 Therfor many of the Jewis that camen to Marie and Martha, and seyn what thingis Jhesus dide, bileueden in hym. 46 But summe of hem wente to the Farisees, and seiden to hem, what thingis Jhesus hadde don. 47 Therfor the bischopis and the Farisees gadriden a counsel ayens Jhesu, and seiden, What do we? for this man doith many myraclis. 48 If we leue hym thus, alle men schulen bileue in hym; and Romainys schulen come, and schulen take our place and oure folk. 49 But oon of hem, Cayfas bi name, whanne he was bischop of that yeer, seide to hem, 50 Ye witen nothing, ne thenken, that it spedith to you, that o man die for the puple, and that al the folc perische not. 51 But he seide not this thing of hym silf, but whanne he was bischop of that yeer, he prophesiede, that Jhesu was to die for the folc, 52 and not oneli for the folc, but that he schulde gadere in to oon the sones of God that weren scaterid. 53 Therfor fro that day thei souyten for to sle hym. 54 Therfor Jhesus walkide not thanne opynli among the Jewis; but he wente in to a cuntre bisidis desert, in to a citee, that is seid Effren, and there he dwellide with hise disciplis. 55 And the pask of the Jewis was niy, and many of the cuntrey wenten vp to Jerusalem bifer the pask, to halewe hem silf. 56 Therfor thei souyten Jhesu, and spaken togidere, stondynge in the temple, What gessen ye, for he cometh not to the feeste day? 57 For the bischopis and Farisees hadden youun a maundement, that if ony man knowe where he is, that he schewe, that thei take hym.

12 Therfor Jhesus bifer sixe daies of pask cam to Bethanye, where Lazarus hadde be deed, whom Jhesus reise. 2 And thei maden to hym a soopere there, and Martha mynystre to hym; and Lazarus was oon of men that saten at the mete with hym. 3 Therfor Marie took a pound of oynement of trewe narde precious, and anoyntide the feet of Jhesu, and wipte hise feet with hir heeris; and the hous was fulfillid of the sauour of the oynement. 4 Therfor Judas Scarioth, oon of hise disciplis, that was to bitraye hym, 5 seide, Whi is not this oynement seeld for thre hundrid pens, and is youun to nedi men? 6 But he seide this thing, not for it perteynede to hym of nedi men, but for he was a theef, and he hadde the pursis, and bar tho thingis that weren sent. 7 Therfor Jhesus seide, Suffre ye hir, that in to the day of my biryng sche kepe that; 8 for ye schulen euermore haue pore men with you, but ye schulen not euermore haue me. 9 Therefore myche puple of Jewis knew, that Jhesus was there; and thei camen, not oonli for Jhesu, but to se Lazarus, whom he hadde reisid fro deth. 10 But the princis of prestis thouyten to sle Lazarus, 11 for manye of the Jewis wenten awei for him, and bileueden in Jhesu. 12 But on the morew a myche puple, that cam togidere to the feeste dai, whanne thei hadden herd, that Jhesus cam to Jerusalem, 13 token braunchis of palmes, and camen forth ayens hym, and crieden, Osanna, blessid is the kyng of Israel, that cometh in the name of the Lord. 14 And Jhesus foond a yonge asse, and sat on hym, 15 as it is writun, The douytir of Syon, nyle thou drede; lo! thi kyng cometh, sittynge on `an asse fole. 16 Hise disciplis knewen not first these thingis, but whanne Jhesus was glorified, thanne thei hadden mynde, for these thingis weren writun of hym, and these thingis thei diden to hym. 17 Therfor the puple bar witnessyng, that was with hym, whanne he clepide Lazarus fro the graue, and reiseide hym fro deth. 18 And therfor the puple cam, and mette with hym, for thei herden that he hadde don this signe. 19 Therfor the Farisees seiden to hem silf, Ye seen, that we profiten no thing; lo! al the world wente aftir hym. 20 And there weren summe hethene men, of hem that hadden come vp to worschipe in the feeste dai. 21 And these camen to Filip, that was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and preieden hym, and seiden, Sire, we wolen se Jhesu. 22 Filip cometh, and seith to Andrew; eft Andrew and Filip seiden to Jhesu. 23 And Jhesus answerde `to hem, and seide, The our cometh, that mannus sone be clarified. 24 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, but a corn of whete falle in to the erthe, and be deed, it dwellith aloone; but if it be deed, it bryngith myche fruyt. 25 He that loueth his lijf, schal leese it; and he that hatith his lijf in this world, kepith it in to euerlastynge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 26 If ony man serue me, sue he me; and where Y am, there my mynystre schal be. If ony man serue me, my fadir schal worschipe hym. 27 Now my soule is troublid, and what schal Y seie? Fadir, saue me fro this our; but therfor Y cam in to this our; 28 fadir, clarifie thi name. And a vois cam fro heuene, and seide, And Y haue clarified, and eft Y schal clarifie. 29 Therfor the puple that stood, and herde, seide, that `thundur was maad; othere men seide, an aungel spak to hym. 30 Jhesus answerde, and seide, This vois cam not for me, but for you. 31 Now is the doom of the world, now the prince of this world schal be cast out. 32 And if Y schal be enhaunsid fro the erthe, Y schal drawe alle thingis to my silf. 33 And he seide this thing, signifynge bi what deth he `was to die. 34 And the puple answeride to hym, We han herd of the lawe, that Crist dwellith with outen ende; and hou seist thou, It bihoueth mannys sone to be arerid? Who is this mannus sone? (aion g165) 35 And thanne Jhesus seith to hem, Yit a litil liyt is in you; walke ye, the while ye han liyt, that derknessis catche you not; he that wandrith in derknessis, woot nere whidur he goith. 36 While ye han liyt, bileue ye in liyt, that ye be the children of liyt. Jhesus spak these thingis, and wente, and hidde hym fro hem. 37 And whanne he hadde don so many myraclis bifor hem, thei bileueden not `in to hym; 38 that the word of Ysaie, the prophete, schulde be fulfillid, which he seide, Lord, who bileuede to oure heryng, and to whom is the arm of the Lord schewid? 39 Therfor thei myyten not bileue, for eft Ysaye seide, 40 He hath blyndid her iyen, and he hath maad hard the herte of hem, that thei se not with iyen, and vndurstonde with herte; and that thei be conuertid, and Y heele hem. 41 Ysaye seide these thingis, whanne he say the glorie of hym, and spak of hym. 42 Netheles `of the pryncis manye bileueden in hym, but for the Farisees thei knowlechiden not, that thei schulden not be put out of the synagoge; 43 for thei loueden the glorie of men, more than the glorie of God. 44 And Jhesus criede, and seide, He that bileueth in me, bileueth not in me, but in hym that sente me. 45 He that seeth me, seeth hym that sente me. 46 Y liyt cam in to the world, that ech that bileueth in me, dwelle not in derknessis.

47 And if ony man herith my words, and kepith hem, Y deme hym not; for Y cam not, that Y deme the world, but that Y make the world saaf. 48 He that dispisith me, and takith not my wordis, hath hym that schal iuge hym; thilke word that Y haue spokun, schal deme hym in the last dai. 49 For Y haue not spokun of my silf, but thilke fadir that sente me, yaf to me a maundement, what Y schal seie, and what Y schal speke. 50 And Y woot, that his maundement is euerlastynge lijf; therfor tho thingis that Y speke, as the fadir seide to me, so Y speke. (aiōnios g166)

13 Bifor the `feeste dai of pask Jhesus witynge, that his our is comun, that he passe fro this world to the fadir, whanne he hadde loued hise that weren in the world, in to the ende he louede hem. 2 And whanne the souper was maad, whanne the deucl hadde put than in to the herte, that Judas of Symount Scarioth schulde bitraye hym, 3 he witynge that the fadir yaf alle thingis to hym in to hise hoondis, and that he wente out fro God, 4 and goith to God, he risith fro the souper, and doith of hise clothis; and whanne he hadde takun a lynun cloth, he girde hym. 5 And aftirward he putte watir in to a basyn, and biganne to waische the disciplis feet, and to wipe with the lynnen cloth, with which he was gird. 6 And so he cam to Symount Petre, and Petre seith to hym, Lord, waischist thou my feet? 7 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hym, What Y do, thou wost not now; but thou schalt wite aftirward. 8 Petre seith to hym, Thou schalt neuere waische my feet. Jhesus answeride to hym, If Y schal not waische thee, thou schalt not haue part with me. (aiōn g165) 9 Symount Petre seith to hym, Lord, not oneli my feet, but bothe the hoondis and the heed. 10 Jhesus seide to hym, He that is waischun, hath no nede but that he waische the feet, but he is al clene; and ye ben clene, but not alle. 11 For he wiste, who `was he that schulde bitraye hym; therfor he seide, Ye ben not alle clene. 12 And so aftir that he hadde waischun `the feet of hem, he took hise clothis; and whanne he was set to mete ayen, eft he seide to hem, Ye witen what Y haue don to you. 13 Ye clepen me maistir and lord, and ye seien wel; for Y am. 14 Therfor if Y, lord and maistir, haue waischun youre feet, and ye schulen waische oon anothers feet; 15 for Y haue youun `ensample to you, `that as I haue do to you, so do ye. 16 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, the seruaunt is not grettere than his lord, nether an apostle is grettere than he that sente hym. 17 If ye witen these thingis, ye schulen be blessid, if ye doen hem. 18 Y seie not of `alle you, Y woot whiche Y haue chosun; but that the scripture be fulfillid, He that etith my breed, schal reise his heele ayens me. 19 Treuly, Y seie to you bifor it be don, that whanne it is don, ye bileue that Y am. 20 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, he that takith whom euere Y schal sende, resseyueth me; and he that resseyueth me, resseyueth hym that sente me. 21 Whanne Jhesus hadde seid these thingis, he was troblid in spirit, and witnesside, and seide, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, that oon of you schal bitraye me. 22 Therfor the disciplis lokiden togidere, doutynge of whom he seide. 23 And so oon of hise disciplis was restynge in the bosum of Jhesu, whom Jhesu louede. 24 Therfor Symount Petre bikeneth to hym, `and seith to hym, Who is it, of whom he seith? 25 And so whanne he hadde restid ayen on the brest of Jhesu, he seith to hym, Lord, who is it? 26 Jhesus answerde, He it is, to whom Y schal areche a sop of breed.

 And whanne he hadde wet breed, he yaf to Judas of Symount

Scarioth. 27 And aftir the mussel, thanne Sathanas entride in to hym. And Jhesus seith to hym, That thing that thou doist, do thou swithe. 28 And noon of hem that saten at the mete wiste, wherto he seide to hym. 29 For summe gessiden, for Judas hadde pursis, that Jhesus hadde seid to hym, Bie thou tho thingis, that ben nedeful to vs to the feeste dai, or that he schulde yyue sum thing to nedi men. 30 Therfor whanne he hadde takun the mussel, he wente out anoon; and it was nytyt. 31 And whanne he was gon out, Jhesus seide, Now mannus sone is clarified, and God is clarified in hym. 32 If God is clarified in hym, God schal clarifie hym in hym silf, and anoon he schal clarifie hym. 33 Litle sones, yit a litil Y am with you; ye schulen seke me, and, as Y seide to the Jewis, Whidur Y go, ye moun not come; and to you Y seie now. 34 Y yyue to you a newe maundement, that ye loue togidir, as Y louede you, `and that ye loue togidir. 35 In this thing alle men schulen knowe, that ye ben my disciplis, if ye han loue togidere. 36 Symount Petre seith to hym, Lord, whidur goist thou? Jhesus answeride, Whidur Y go, thou mayst not sue me now, but thou schalt sue afterward. 37 Petre seith to hym, Whi may Y not sue thee now? Y schal putte my lijf for thee. 38 Jhesus answeride, Thou schalt putte thi lijf for me? Treuli, treuli, Y seie to thee, the cok schal not crowe, til thou schalt denye me thries. And he seith to hise disciplis.

14 Be not youre herte afraied, ne drede it; ye bileuen in God, and bileue ye in me. 2 In the hous of my fadir ben many dwellyngis; if ony thing lesse, Y hadde seid to you, for Y go to make redi to you a place. 3 And if Y go, and make redi to you a place, eftsoones Y come, and Y schal take you to my silf, that where Y am, ye be. 4 And whidur Y go, ye witen, and ye witen the weie. 5 Thomas seith to hym, Lord, we witen not whidur thou goist, and hou moun we wite the weie? 6 Jhesus seith to hym, Y am weie, treuthe, and lijf; no man cometh to the fadir, but bi me. 7 If ye hadden knowe me, sotheli ye hadden knowe also my fadir; and aftirward ye schulen knowe hym, and ye han seyn hym. 8 Filip seith to hym, Lord, schewe to vs the fadir, and it suffisith to vs. 9 Jhesus seith to hym, So long tyme Y am with you, and `han ye not knowun me? Filip, he that seeth me, seeth also the fadir. Hou seist thou, schewe to vs the fadir? 10 Bileuest thou not, that Y am in the fadir, and the fadir is in me? The wordis that Y speke to you, Y speke not of my silf; but the fadir hym silf dwellynge in me, doith the werkis. 11 Bileue ye not, that Y am in the fadir, and the fadir is in me? 12 Ellis bileue ye for thilke werkis. Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, if a man bileueth in me, also he schal do the werkis that Y do; and he schal do grettere werkis than these, for Y go to the fadir. 13 And what euere thing ye axen the fadir in my name, Y schal do this thing, that the fadir be glorified in the sone. 14 If ye axen ony thing in my name, Y schal do it. 15 If ye louen me, kepe ye my comaundementis. 16 And Y schal preye the fadir, and he schal yyue to you another coumfortour, to dwelle with you with outen ende, (aiōn g165) 17 the spirit of treuthe; which spirit the world may not take, for it seeth hym not, nether knowith hym. But ye schulen knowe hym, for he schal dwelle with you, and he schal be in you. 18 Y schal not leeuue you fadirles, Y schal come to you. 19 Yit a litil, and the world seeth not now me; but ye schulen se me, for Y lyue, and ye schulen lyue. 20 In that dai ye schulen knowe, that Y am in my fadir, and ye in me, and Y in you. 21 He that hath my comaundementis, and kepith hem, he it is that loueth me; and he that loueth me, schal be loued of my fadir, and Y schal loue hym, and Y schal schewe to hym my silf.

22 Judas seith to hym, not he of Scarioth, Lord, what is don, that thou schalt schewe thi silf to vs, and not to the world? 23 Jhesus answerde, and seide `to hym, If ony man loueth me, he schal kepe my word; and my fadir schal loue hym, and we schulen come to hym, and we schulen dwelle with hym. 24 He that loueth me not, kepith not my wordis; and the word which ye han herd, is not myn, but the fadris, that sente me. 25 These thingis Y haue spokun to you, dwellynge among you; but thilke Hooli Goost, 26 the coumfortour, whom the fadir schal sende in my name, he schal teche you alle thingis, `and schal schewe to you alle thingis, what euere thingis Y schal seie to you. 27 Pees Y leue to you, my pees Y yyue to you; not as the world yyueth, Y yiue to you; be not youre herte affrayed, ne drede it. 28 Ye han herd, that Y seide to you, Y go, and come to you. If ye loueden me, forsothe ye schulden haue ioie, for Y go to the fadir, for the fadir is grettere than Y. 29 And now Y haue seid to you, bifor that it be don, that whanne it is don, ye bileuen. 30 Now Y schal not speke many thingis with you; for the prince of this world cometh, and hath not in me ony thing. 31 But that the world knowe, that Y loue the fadir; and as the fadir yaf a comaundement to me, so Y do. `Rise ye, go we hennus.

15 Y am a very vyne, and my fadir is an erthe tilier. 2 Ech braunch in me that berith not fruyt, he schal take away it; and ech that berith fruyt, he schal purge it, that it bere the more fruyt. 3 Now ye ben clene, for the word that Y haue spokun to you. 4 Dwelle ye in me, and Y in you; as a braunche may not make fruyt of it silf, but it dwelle in the vyne, so nether ye, but ye dwelle in me. 5 Y am a vyne, ye the braunchis. Who that dwellith in me, and Y in hym, this berith myche fruyt, for with outen me ye moun no thing do. 6 If ony man dwellith not in me, he schal be caste out as a braunche, and schal wexe drie; and thei schulen gadere hym, and thei schulen caste hym in to the fier, and he brenneth. 7 If ye dwellen in me, and my wordis dwelle in you, what euer thing ye wolen, ye schulen axe, and it schal be don to you. 8 In this thing my fadir is clarified, that ye brynge forth ful myche fruyt, and that ye be maad my disciplis. 9 As my fadir louede me, Y haue loued you; dwelle ye in my loue. 10 If ye kepen my comaundementis, ye schulen dwelle in my loue; as Y haue kept the comaundementis of my fadir, and Y dwelle in his loue. 11 These thingis Y spak to you, that my ioye be in you, and youre ioye be fulfillid. 12 This is my comaundement, that ye loue togidere, as Y louede you. 13 No man hath more loue than this, that a man putte his lijf for hise freendis. 14 Ye ben my freendis if ye doen tho thingis, that Y comaunde to you. 15 Now Y schal not clepe you seruauntis, for the seruaunt woot not, what his lord schal do; but Y haue clepid you freendis, for alle thingis what euere Y herde of my fadir, Y haue maad knowun to you. 16 Ye han not chosun me, but Y chees you; and Y haue put you, that ye go, and brynge forth fruyt, and youre fruyt dwelle; that what euere thing ye axen the fadir in my name, he yyue to you. 17 These thingis Y comaunde to you, that ye loue togidere. 18 If the world hatith you, wite ye, that it hadde me in hate rather than you. 19 If ye hadden be of the world, the world schulde loue that thing that was his; but for ye ben not of the world, but Y chees you fro the world, therfor the world hatith you. 20 Haue ye mynde of my word, which Y seide to you, The seruaunt is not grettere than his lord. If thei han pursued me, thei schulen pursue you also; if thei han kept my word, thei schulen kepe youre also. 21 But thei schulen do to you alle these thingis for my name, for thei knowen not hym that sente me. 22 If Y hadde not comun, and hadde not spokun to hem, thei schulden not haue synne; but now thei haue noon excusacioun of her synne. 23 He that hatith me, hatith also my fadir. 24 If Y hadde not doon werkis in hem, whiche noon other man dide, thei schulden not haue synne; but now both thei han seyn, and hatid me and my fadir. 25 But that the word be fulfillid, that is writun in her lawe, For thei hadden me in hate with outen cause. 26 But whanne the coumfortour schal come, which Y schal sende to you fro the fadir, a spirit of treuthe, which cometh of the fadir, he schal bere witnessyng of me; 27 and ye schulen bere witnessyng, for ye ben with me fro the bigynnyng.

16 These thingis Y haue spokun to you, that ye be not sclaudrid. 2 Thei schulen make you with outen the synagogis, but the our cometh, that ech man that sleeth you, deme that he doith seruyce to God. 3 And thei schulen do to you these thingis, for thei han not knowun the fadir, nether me. 4 But these thingis Y spak to you, that whanne the our `of hem schal come, ye haue mynde, that Y seide to you. 5 Y seide not to you these thingis fro the bigynnyng, for Y was with you. And now Y go to hym that sente me, and no man of you axith me, Whidur `thou goist? 6 but for Y haue spokun to you these thingis, heuynesse hath fulfillid youre herte. 7 But Y seie to you treuthe, it spedith to you, that Y go; for if Y go not forth, the coumfortour schal not come to you; but if Y go forth, Y schal sende hym to you. 8 And whanne he cometh, he schal repreue the world of synne, and of riytwysnesse, and of doom. 9 Of synne, for thei han not bileued in me; 10 and of riytwysnesse, for Y go to the fadir, and now ye schulen not se me; 11 but of doom, for the prince of this world is now demed. 12 Yit Y haue many thingis for to seie to you, but ye moun not bere hem now. 13 But whanne thilke spirit of treuthe cometh, he schal teche you al trewth; for he schal not speke of hym silf, but what euer thinges he schal here, he schal speke; and he schal telle to you tho thingis that ben to come. 14 He schal clarifie me, for of myne he schal take, and schal telle to you. 15 Alle thingis `whiche euer the fadir hath, ben myne; therfor Y seide to you, for of myne he schal take, and schal telle to you. 16 A litil, and thanne ye schulen not se me; and eftsoone a litil, and ye schulen se me, for Y go to the fadir. 17 Therfor summe of hise disciplis seiden togidere, What is this thing that he seith to vs, A litil, and ye schulen not se me; and eftsoone a litil, and ye schulen se me, for Y go to the fadir? 18 Therfor thei seiden, What is this that he seith to vs, A litil? we witen not what he spekith. 19 And Jhesus knew, that thei wolden axe hym, and he seide to hem, Of this thing ye seken among you, for Y seide, A litil, and ye schulen not se me; and eftsoone a litil, and ye schulen se me. 20 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, that ye schulen mourne and wepe, but the world schal haue ioie; and ye schulen be soreful, but youre sorewe schal turne in to ioie.

21 A womman whanne sche berith child, hath heuynesse, for hir tyme is comun; but whanne sche hath borun a sone, now sche thenkith not on the peyne, for ioie, for a man is borun in to the world. 22 And therfor ye han now sorew, but eftsoone Y schal se you, and youre herte schal haue ioie, and no man schal take fro you youre ioie. 23 And in that day ye schulen not axe me ony thing; treuli, treuli, `Y seie to you, if ye axen the fadir ony thing in my name, he schal yyue to you. 24 `Til now ye axiden no thing in my name; `axe ye, `and ye schulen take, that youre ioie be ful. 25 Y haue spokun to you these thingis in prouerbis; the our cometh, whanne now Y schal not speke to you in prouerbis, but opynli of my fadir Y schal telle to you. 26 In that dai ye schulen axe in my name; and Y seie not to you, that Y schal preye the fadir of you; 27 for the fadir hym silf loueth you, for ye han loued me, and han bileued, that Y wente out fro God. 28 Y wente out fro the fadir, and Y cam in to the world; eftsoone Y leeue the world, and Y go to the fadir. 29 Hise disciplis seiden to hym, Lo! now thou spekest opynli, and thou seist no prouerbe. 30 Now we witen, that thou wost alle thingis; and it is not nede to thee, that ony man axe thee. In this thing we bileuen, that thou wentist out fro God. 31 Jhesus answeride to hem, Now ye bileuen. 32 Lo! the our cometh, and now it cometh, that ye be disparplid, ech in to hise owne thingis, and that ye leeue me aloone; and Y am not aloone, for the fadir is with me. 33 These thingis Y haue spokun to you, that ye haue pees in me; in the world ye schulen haue disese, but trust ye, Y haue ouercomun the world.

17 These thingis Jhesus spak, and whanne he hadde cast vp hise iyen in to heuene, he seide, Fadir, the our cometh, clarifie thi sone, that thi sone clarifie thee. 2 As thou hast youun to hym power on ech fleisch, that al thing that thou hast youun to hym, he yyue to hem euerlastyng lijf. (aiōnios g166) 3 And this is euerlastyng lijf, that thei knowe thee very God aloone, and whom thou hast sent, Jhesu Crist. (aiōnios g166) 4 Y haue clarified thee on the erthe, Y haue endid the werk, that thou hast youun to me to do. 5 And now, fadir, clarifie thou me at thi silf, with the clerenesse that Y hadde at thee, bifer the world was maad. 6 Y haue schewid thi name to tho men, whiche thou hast youun to me of the world; thei weren thine, and thou hast youun hem to me, and thei han kept thi word. 7 And now thei han knowun, that alle thingis that thou hast youun to me, ben of thee. 8 For the wordis that thou hast youun to me, Y yaf to hem; and thei han takun, and han knowun verili, that Y wente out fro thee; and thei bileueden, that thou sentist me. 9 Y preie for hem, Y preye not for the world, but for hem that thou hast youun to me, for thei ben thine. 10 And alle my thingis ben thine, and thi thingis ben myne; and Y am clarified in hem. 11 And now Y am not in the world, and these ben in the world, and Y come to thee. Hooli fadir, kepe hem in thi name, whiche thou yauest to me, that thei ben oon, as we ben. 12 While Y was with hem, Y kepte hem in thi name; thilke that thou yauest to me, Y kepte, and noon of hem perischide, but the sone of perdicoun, that the scripture be fulfillid. 13 But now Y come to thee, and Y speke these thingis in the world, that thei haue my ioie fulfillid in hem silf. 14 Y yaf to hem thi word, and the world hadde hem in hate; for thei ben not of the world, as Y am not of the world. 15 Y preye not, that thou take hem awei fro the world, but that thou kepe hem fro yuel. 16 They ben not of the world, as Y am not of the world. 17 Halewe thou hem in treuth; thi word is treuthe. 18 As thou sentist me in to the world, also Y sente hem `in to the world. 19 And Y halewe my silf for hem, that also thei ben halewid in treuthe. 20 And Y preye not oneli for hem, but also for hem that schulden bileue in to me bi the word of hem; 21 that all ben oon, as thou, fadir, in me, and Y in thee, that also thei in vs be oon; that the world bileue, that thou hast sent me. 22 And Y haue youun to hem the clerenesse, that thou hast youun to me, that thei ben oon, 23 as we ben oon; Y in hem, and thou in me, that thei be endid in to oon; and that the world knowe, that thou sentist me, and hast loued hem, as thou hast loued also me. 24 Fadir, thei whiche thou yauest to me, Y wole that where Y am, that thei be with me, that thei see my clerenesse, that thou hast youun to me; for thou louedist me bifor the makynge of the world.

25 Fadir, riytfuli the world knew thee not, but Y knew thee, and these knewen, that thou sentist me. 26 And Y haue maad thi name knowun to hem, and schal make knowun; that the loue bi which thou `hast loued me, be in hem, and Y in hem.

18 Whanne Jhesus hadde seid these thingis, he wente out with hise disciplis ouer the strond of Cedron, where was a yerd, in to which he entride, and hise disciplis. 2 And Judas, that bitrayede hym, knew the place, for ofte Jhesus cam thidur with hise disciplis. 3 Therfor whanne Judas hadde takun a cumpany of knyghtis, and mynysters of the bischopis and of the Fariseis, he cam thidur with lanternys, and brondis, and armeris. 4 And so Jhesus witynge alle thingis that weren to come on hym, wente forth, and seide to hem, Whom seken ye? 5 Thei answeriden to hym, Jhesu of Nazareth. Jhesus seith to hem, Y am. And Judas that bitraiede hym, stood with hem. 6 And whanne he seide to hem, Y am, thei wenten abak, and fellen down on the erthe. 7 And eft he axide hem, Whom seken ye? And thei seiden, Jhesu of Nazareth. 8 He answeride to hem, Y seide to you, that Y am; therfor if ye seken me, suffre ye these to go awei. 9 That the word which he seide schulde be fulfillid, For Y loste not ony of hem, whiche thou `hast youun to me. 10 Therfor Symount Petre hadde a swerd, and drow it out, and smoot the seruaunt of the bischof, and kittide of his riyt eer. And the name of the seruaunt was Malcus. 11 Therfor Jhesus seide to Petre, Putte thou thi swerd in to thi schethe; wolt thou not, that Y drynke the cuppe, that my fadir yaf to me? 12 Therfor the cumpenye of knyytis, and the tribune, and the mynystris of the Jewis, token Jhesu, and bounden hym, 13 and ledden hym first to Annas; for he was fadir of Caifas wijf, that was bischof of that yeer. 14 And it was Caifas, that yaf counsel to the Jewis, that it spedith, that o man die for the puple. 15 But Symount Petre suede Jhesu, and another disciple; and thilke disciple was knowun to the bischof. And he entride with Jhesu, in to the halle of the bischof; 16 but Petre stood at the dore with outforth. Therfor `the tother disciple, that was knowun to the bischof, wente out, and seide to the womman that kepte the dore, and brouyte in Petre. 17 And the damysel, kepere of the dore, seide to Petre, Whether thou art also of this mannys disciplis? He seide, Y am not. 18 And the seruantis and mynystris stooden at the coolis, for it was coold, and thei warmyden hem; and Petre was with hem, stondyng and warmyng hym. 19 And the bischof axide Jhesu of hise disciplis, and of his techyng. 20 Jhesus answerde to hym, Y haue spokun opynli to the world; Y tauyte euermore in the synagoge, and in the temple, whider alle the Jewis camen togidere, and in hiddlis Y spak no thing. 21 What axist thou me? axe hem that herden, what Y haue spokun to hem; lo! thei witen, what thingis Y haue seid. 22 Whanne he hadde seid these thingis, oon of the mynystris stondyng niy, yaf a buffat to Jhesu, and seide, Answerist thou so to the bischof? 23 Jhesus answeride to hym, If Y haue spokun yuel, bere thou witnessyng of yuel; but if Y seide wel, whi smytist thou me? 24 And Annas sente hym boundun to Caifas, the bischop. 25 And Symount Petre stood, and warmyde him; and thei seiden to hym, Whether also thou art his disciple? He denyede, and seide, Y am not. 26 Oon of the bischops seruantis, cosyn of hym, whos eere Petre kitte of, seide, Say Y thee not in the yerd with hym? 27 And Petre eftsoone denyede, and anoon the cok crew. 28 Thanne thei ledden Jhesu to Cayfas, in to the moot halle; and it was eerli, and thei entriden not in to the moot halle, that thei schulden not be defoulid, but that thei schulden ete pask. 29 Therfor Pilat wente out with outforth to hem, and seide, What accusyng brynge ye ayens this man? 30 Thei answeriden, and seiden to hym, If this were not a mysdoere, we hadden not bitakun hym to thee. 31 Thanne Pilat seith to hem, Take ye hym, and deme ye him, after youre lawe. And the Jewis seiden to hym, It is not leueful to vs to sle ony man; 32 that the word of Jhesu schulde be fulfillid, whiche he seide, signifynge bi what deth he schulde die. 33 Therfor eftsoone Pilat entride in to the moot halle, and clepide Jhesu, and seide to hym, Art thou kyng of Jewis? 34 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hym, Seist thou this thing of thi silf, ether othere han seid to thee of me? 35 Pilat answeride, Whether Y am a Jewe? Thi folc and bischops bitoken thee to me; what hast thou don? 36 Jhesus answeride, My kingdom is not of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my mynysters schulden stryue, that Y schulde not be takun to the Jewis; but now my kingdom is not here. 37 And so Pilat seide to hym, Thanne `thou art a king. Jhesus answeride, Thou seist, that Y am a king. To this thing Y am borun, and to this Y `am comun in to the world, to bere witnessing to treuthe. Eche that is of treuthe, herith my vois. 38 Pilat seith to hym, What is treuthe?

And whanne he hadde seid this thing, eft he wente out to the Jewis, and seide to hem, Y fynde no cause in hym. 39 But it is a custom to you, that Y delyuere oon to you in pask; therfor wole ye that Y delyuere to you the kyng of Jewis? 40 Alle crieden eftsoone, and seiden, Not this, but Baraban. And Barabas was a theef.

19 Therfor Pilat took thanne Jhesu, and scourgide. 2 And kniytis writhen a coroun of thornes, and setten on his heed, and diden aboute hym a cloth of purpur, 3 and camen to him, and seiden, Heil, kyng of Jewis. And thei yauen to him buffatis. 4 Eftsoone Pilat wente out, and seide to hem, Lo! Y brynge hym out to you, that ye knowe, that Y fynde no cause in him. 5 And so Jhesus wente out, berynge a coroun of thornes, and a cloth of purpur. And he seith to hem, Lo! the man. 6 But whanne the bischopis and mynystris hadden seyn hym, thei crieden, and seiden, Crucifie, crucifie hym. Pilat seith to hem, Take ye hym, and crucifie ye, for Y fynde no cause in hym. 7 The Jewis answeriden to hym. We han a lawe, and bi the lawe he owith to die, for he made hym Goddis sone. 8 Therfor whanne Pilat hadde herd this word, he dredde the more. 9 And he wente in to the moot halle eftsoone, and seide to Jhesu, Of whennus art thou? But Jhesus yaf noon answer to him. 10 Pilat seith to him, Spekist thou not to me? Woost thou not, that Y haue power to crucifie thee, and Y haue power to delyuere thee? 11 Jhesus answeride, Thou schuldist not `haue ony power ayens me, but it were youun to thee from aboue; therfor he that bitook me to thee, hath the more synne. 12 Fro that tyme Pilat souyte to delyuere hym; but the Jewis crieden, and seiden, If thou delyuerist this man, thou art not the emperouris freend; for ech man that makith hym silf king, ayen seith the emperoure. 13 And Pilat, whanne he hadde herd these wordis, ledde Jhesu forth, and sat for domesman in a place, that is seid Licostratos, but in Ebrew Golgatha. 14 And it was pask eue, as it were the sixte our. And he seith to the Jewis, Lo! youre king. 15 But thei crieden, and seiden, Take awei, take awei; crucifie him. Pilat seith to hem, Schal I crucifie youre king? The bischops answeriden, We han no king but the emperour. 16 And thanne Pilat bitook him to hem, that he schulde be crucified. And thei token Jhesu, and ledden him out. 17 And he bar to hym silf a cros, and wente out in to that place, that is seid of Caluarie, in Ebreu Golgatha; 18 where thei crucifieden him, and othere tweyne with him, oon on this side and oon on that side, and Jhesus in the myddil. 19 And Pilat wroot a title, and sette on the cros; and it was writun, Jhesu of Nazareth, king of Jewis. 20 Therfor manye of the Jewis redden this title, for the place where Jhesus was crucified, was niy the citee, and it was writun in Ebreu, Greek, and Latyn. 21 Therfor the bischops of the Jewis seiden to Pilat, Nyle thou write kyng of Jewis, but for he seide, Y am king of Jewis. 22 Pilat answeride, That that Y haue writun, Y haue writun. 23 Therfor the knyytis whanne thei hadden crucified hym, token hise clothis, and maden foure partis, to ech knyyt a part, and a coot. And the coot was without seem, and wouun al aboute. 24 Therfor thei seiden togidere, Kitte we not it, but caste we lot, whos it is; that the scripture be fulfillid, seiyng, Thei partiden my clothis to hem, and on my cloth thei casten lot. And the kniytis diden these thingis. 25 But bisidis the cros of Jhesu stoden his modir, and the sistir of his modir, Marie Cleofe, and Marie Maudeleyne. 26 Therfor whanne Jhesu hadde seyn his modir, and the disciple stondynge, whom he louyde, he seith to hise modir, Womman, lo thi sone. 27 Aftyrward he seith to the disciple, Lo! thi modir. And fro that our the disciple took hir in to his modir. 28 Aftirward Jhesus witynge, that now alle thingis ben endid, that the scripture were fulfillid, he seith, Y thirste. 29 And a vessel was set ful of vynegre. And thei `leiden in isope aboute the sponge ful of vynegre, and putten to his mouth. 30 Therfor whanne Jhesus hadde `takun the vynegre, he seid, It is endid.

 And `whanne his heed was bowid doun, `he yaf vp the goost. 31 Therfor for it was the pask eue, that the bodies schulden not abide on the cros in the sabat, for that was a greet sabat dai, the Jewis preiden Pilat, that the hipis of hem schulden be brokun, and thei takun awei. 32 Therfor knyytis camen, and thei braken the thies of the firste, and of the tothere, that was crucified with hym. 33 But whanne thei weren comun to Jhesu, as thei sayn him deed thanne, thei braken not hise thies; 34 but oon of the knyytis openyde his side with a spere, and anon blood and watir wenten out. 35 And he that sai, bare witnessyng, and his witnessing is trewe; and he woot that he seith trewe thingis, that ye bileue. 36 And these thingis weren don, that the scripture schulde be fulfillid, Ye schulen not breke a boon of hym. 37 And eftsoone another scripture seith, Thei schulen se in whom thei piyten thorow. 38 But after these thingis Joseph of Armathi preyede Pilat, that he schulde take awei the bodi of Jhesu, for that he was a disciple of Jhesu, but priui for drede of the Jewis.
 And Pilat suffride. And so he cam, and took awei the bodi of Jhesu. 39 And Nychodeme cam also, that hadde come to hym first bi nytt, and brouyte a meddlynge of myrre and aloes, as it were an hundrid pound. 40 And thei token the bodi of Jhesu, and boundun it in lynun clothis with swete smellynge oynementis, as it is custom to Jewis for to birie. 41 And in the place where he was crucified, was a yerd, and in the yerd a newe graue, in which yit no man was leid. 42 Therfor there thei putten Jhesu, for the vigilie of Jewis feeste, for the sepulcre was niy.

20 And in o dai of the wouke Marie Maudeleyn cam eerli to the graue, whanne it was yit derk. And sche say the stoon moued awei fro the graue. 2 Therfor sche ran, and cam to Symount Petre, and to another disciple, whom Jhesus louede, and seith to hem, Thei han takun the Lord fro the graue, and we witen not, where thei han leid hym. 3 Therfor Petre wente out, and thilke other disciple, and thei camen to the graue. 4 And thei tweyne runnen togidre, and thilke othere disciple ran bifor Petre, and cam first to the graue. 5 And whanne he stoupide, he sai the schetis liynge, netheles he entride not. 6 Therfor Symount Petre cam suyng hym, and he entride in to the graue, and he say the schetis leid, 7 and the sudarie that was on his heed, not leid with the schetis, but bi it silf wlapid in to a place. 8 Therfor thanne thilke disciple that cam first to the graue, entride, and sai, and bileuede. 9 For thei knewen not yit the scripture, that it behofte him to rise ayen fro deth. 10 Therfor the disciplis wenten eftsoone to hem silf. 11 But Marie stood at the graue with outforth wepyng. And the while sche wepte, sche bowide hir, and bihelde forth in to the graue. 12 And sche sai twei aungels sittinge in white, oon at the heed and oon at the feet, where the bodi of Jhesu was leid. 13 And thei seien to hir, Womman, what wepist thou? Sche seide to hem, For thei han take awei my lord, and Y woot not, where thei han leid him. 14 Whanne sche hadde seid these thingis, sche turnede backward, and sai

Jhesu standinge, and wiste not that it was Jhesu. 15 Jhesus seith to hir, Womman, what wepist thou? whom sekist thou?
 She gessynge that he was a gardynere, seith to him, Sire, if thou hast takun him vp, seie to me, where thou hast leid him, and Y schal take hym awei. 16 Jhesus seith to hir, Marie. Sche `turnede, and seith to hym, Rabony, that is to seie, Maister. 17 Jhesus seith to hir, Nyle thou touche me, for Y haue not yit stied to my fadir; but go to my britheren, and seie to hem, Y stie to my fadir and to youre fadir, to my God and to youre God. 18 Marie Maudeleyne cam, tellinge to the disciplis, That Y sai the Lord, and these thingis he seide to me. 19 Therfor whanne it was eue in that dai, oon of the sabatis, and the yatis weren schit, where the disciplis weren gaderid, for drede of the Jewis, Jhesus cam, and stood in the myddil of the disciplis, and he seith to hem, Pees to you. 20 And whanne he hadde seid this, he schewide to hem hondis and side; therfor the disciplis ioieden, for the Lord was seyn. 21 And he seith to hem eft, Pees to you; as the fadir sente me, Y sende you. 22 Whanne he had seid this, he blewe on hem, and seide, Take ye the Hooli Goost; 23 whos synnes ye foryyuen, tho ben foryouun to hem; and whos ye withholden, tho ben withholdun. 24 But Thomas, oon of the twelue, that is seid Didimus, was not with hem, whanne Jhesus cam. 25 Therfor the othere disciplis seiden, We han seyn the Lord. And he seide to hem, But Y se in hise hondis the fitchinge of the nailis, and putte my fyngur in to the places of the nailis, and putte myn hond in to his side, Y schal not bileue. 26 And after eiye daies eftsoone hise disciplis weren with ynne, and Thomas with hem. Jhesus cam, while the yatis weren schit, and stood in the myddil, and seide, Pees to you. 27 Afterward he seith to Thomas, Putte in here thi fyngur, and se myn hondis, and putte hidur thin hond, and putte in to my side, and nyle thou be vnbileueful, but feithful.

28 Thomas answeride, and seide to him, My Lord and my God.
29 Jhesus seith to him, Thomas, for thou hast seyn me, thou bileuedist; blessid ben thei, that seyn not, and han bileued. 30 And Jhesus dide many othere signes in the siyt of hise disciplis, whiche ben not writun in this book. 31 But these ben writun, that ye bileue, that Jhesus `is Crist, the sone of God, and that ye bileuyngge haue lijf in his name.

21 Afterward Jhesus eftsoone schewide hym to hise disciplis, at the see of Tiberias. 2 And he schewide him thus. There weren togidere Symount Petre, and Thomas, that is seid Didimus, and Nathanael, that was of the Cane of Galilee, and the sones of Zebedee, and tweyne othere of hise disciplis. 3 Symount Petre seith to hem, Y go to fische. Thei seyn to hym, And we comen with thee. And `thei wenten out, `and wenten in to a boot.
And in that niyt thei token no thing. 4 But whanne the morewe was comun, Jhesus stood in the brenke; netheles the disciplis knewen not, that it was Jhesus. 5 Therfor Jhesus seith to hem, Children, whethir ye han ony souping thing? Thei answeriden to hym, Nay. He seide to hem, 6 Putte ye the nett in to the riyt half of the rowing, and ye schulen fynde. And thei puttiden the nett; and thanne thei miyten not drawe it for multitude of fischis. 7 Therfor thilke disciple, whom Jhesus louede, seide to Petre, It is the Lord. Symount Petre, whanne he hadde herd that it is the Lord, girte hym with a coote, for he was nakid, and wente in to the see. 8 But the othere disciplis camen bi boot, for thei weren not fer fro the lond, but as a two hundrid cubitis, drawinge the nett of fischis. 9 And as thei camen doun in to the lond, thei sayn coolis liynge, and a fisch leid on, and breed. 10 Jhesus seith to hem, Bringe ye of the fyschis, whiche ye han takun now. 11 Symount Petre wente vp, and drowy the nett in to the lond, ful of grete fischis, an hundrid fifti and thre; and whanne thei weren so manye, the nett was not brokun. 12 Jhesus seith to hem, Come ye, ete ye. And no man of hem that saten at the mete, durste axe hym, Who art thou, witinge that it is the Lord. 13 And Jhesus cam, and took breed, an yaf to hem, and fisch also. 14 Now this thridde tyme Jhesus was schewid to hise disciplis, whanne he hadde risun ayen fro deth. 15 And whanne thei hadde etun, Jhesus seith to Simount Petre, Symount of Joon, louest thou me more than these? He seith to him, Yhe, Lord, thou woost that Y loue thee. Jhesus seith to hym, Fede thou my lambren. 16 Eft he seith to hym, Symount of Joon, louest thou me? He seith to him, Yhe, Lord, thou woost that Y loue thee. He seith to him, Fede thou my lambren. 17 He seith to him the thridde tyme, Simount of Joon, louest thou me? Petre was heuy, for he seith to hym the thridde tyme, Louest thou me, and he seith to him, Lord, thou knowist alle thingis; thou woost that Y loue thee. Jhesus seith to hym, Fede my scheep. 18 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to thee, whanne thou were yongere, thou girdidist thee, and wandridist where thou woldist; but whanne thou schalt waxe eldere, thou schalt holde forth thin hondis, and another schal girde thee, and schal lede thee whidur thou wolt not. 19 He seide this thing, signifynge bi what deth he schulde glorifie God. And whanne he hadde seid these thingis, he seith to hym, Sue thou me. 20 Petre turnede, and say thilke disciple suyng, whom Jhesus louede, which also restid in the soper on his brest, and he seide to hym, Lord, who is it, that schal bitraie thee? 21 Therfor whanne Petre hadde seyne this, he seith to Jhesu, Lord, but what this? 22 Jhesus seith to him, So I wole that he dwelle til that Y come, what to thee? sue thou me. 23 Therfor this word wente out among the britheren, that thilke disciple dieth not. And Jhesus seide not to hym, that he dieth not, but, So Y wole that he dwelle til Y come, what to thee? 24 This is thilke disciple, that berith witnessyng of these thingis, and wroot hem; and we witen, that his witnessyng is trewe. 25 And ther ben also manye othere thingis that Jhesus dide, whiche if thei ben writun bi ech bi hym silf, Y deme that the world hym silf schal not take tho bookis, that ben to be writun.

And he entride with hem in to the temple, and wandride, and lippide, and heriede God. 9 And al the puple sai hym walkinge, and heriynge God. 10 And thei knewen hym, that he it was that sat at almes at the feire yate of the temple. And thei weren fillid with wondryng, and stonyng, in that thing that byfelde to hym. 11 But whanne thei sien Petre and Joon, al the puple ran to hem at the porche that was clepid of Salomon, and wondriden greetli. 12 And Petre siy, and answeride to the puple, Men of Israel, what wondren ye in this thing? ether what biholden ye vs, as by oure vertue ethir power we maden this man for to walke? 13 God of Abraham, and God of Ysaac, and God of Jacob, God of oure fadris, hath glorified his sone Jhesu, whom ye bitraiden, and denyeden bfor the face of Pilat, whanne he demedede hym to be delyuered. 14 But ye denyeden the hooli and the riytful, and axiden a mansleer to be youun to you. 15 And ye slowen the maker of lijf, whom God reside fro deth, of whom we ben witnessis. 16 And in the feith of his name he hath confermyd this man, whom ye seen and knowen; the name of hym, and the feith that is bi him, yaf to this man ful heelthe in the siyt of alle you. 17 And now, britheren, Y woot that bi vnwityng ye diden, as also youre princis. 18 But God that bifor telde bi the mouth of alle profetis, that his Crist schulde suffre, hath fillid so. 19 Therfor be ye repentaunt, and be ye conuertid, that youre synnes be don awei, that whanne the tymes of refresching schulen come from the siyt of the Lord, 20 and he schal sende thilke Jhesu Crist, that is now prechid to you. 21 Whom it bihoueth heuene to resseyue, in to the tymes of restitucioun of alle thingis, which the Lord spak bi the mouth of hise hooli prophetis fro the world. (aiōn g165) 22 For Moises seide, For the Lord youre God schal reise to you a profete, of youre britheren; as me, ye schulen here hym bi alle thingis, what euer he schal speke to you. 23 And it schal be, that every man that schal not here the ilke profete, schal be distried fro the puple. 24 And alle prophetis fro Samuel and aftirward, that spaken, telden these daies. 25 But ye ben the sones of prophetis, and of the testament, that God ordeynede to oure fadris, and seide to Abraham, In thi seed alle the meynes of erthe schulen be blessid. 26 God reside his sone first to you, and sente hym blessinge you, that ech man conuerte hym from his wickidnesse.

4 And while thei spaken to the puple, the preestis and magistratis of the temple, and the Saduceis camen vpon hem, and soreweden, 2 that thei tauyten the puple, and telden in Jhesu the ayenrisyng fro deth. 3 And thei leiden hondis on hem, and puttiden hem in to warde in to the morewe; for it was thanne euentid. 4 But manye of hem that hadden herd the word, bileueden; and the noumbre of men was maad fyue thousyndis. 5 And amorewe it was don, that the princis of hem, and eldre men and scribis weren gadirid in Jerusalem; 6 and Annas, prince of preestis, and Caifas, and Joon, and Alisaundre, and hou manye euere weren of the kynde of preestis. 7 And thei settiden hem in the myddil, and axiden, In what vertue, ether in what name, han ye don this thing? 8 Thanne Petre was fillid with the Hooli Goost, and seide to hem, Ye pryncis of the puple, and ye eldre men, here ye. 9 If we to dai be demyd in the good dede of a sijk man, in whom this man is maad saaf, 10 be it knowun to you alle, and to al the puple of Israel, that in the name of Jhesu Crist of Nazareth, whom ye crucifieden, whom God reside fro deth, in this this man stondith hool bifer you. 11 This is the stoon, which was repreued of you bildinge, which is maad in to the heed of the corner; 12 and heelthe is not in ony othir. For nether other name vndur heuene is youun to men, in which it bihoueth vs to be maad saaf. 13 And thei siyen the stidfastnesse of Petre and of Joon, for it was foundun that thei weren men vnlettrid, and lewid men, and thei wondriden, and knewen hem that thei weren with Jhesu. 14 And thei siyen the man that was helid, standinge with hem, and thei myyten no thing ayenseie. 15 But thei comaundiden hem to go forth with out the counsel. And thei spaken togidere, 16 and seiden, What schulen we do to these men? for the signe is maad knowun bi hem to alle men, that dwellen at Jerusalem; it is opyn, and we moun not denye. 17 But that it be no more pupplischid in to the puple, manasse we to hem, that thei speke no more in this name to ony men. 18 And thei clepiden hem, and denounsiden to hem, that on no maner thei schulden speke, nether teche, in the name of Jhesu. 19 But Petre and Joon answeriden, and seiden to hem, If it be riytful in the siyt of God to here you rather than God, deme ye. 20 For we moten nedis speke tho thingis, that we han sayn and herd. 21 And thei manassiden, and leften hem, and foundun not hou thei schulden punische hem, for the puple; for alle men clarifieden that thing that was don in that that was bifalle. 22 For the man was more than of fourty yeer, in which this signe of heelthe was maad. 23 And whanne thei weren delyuerid, thei camen to her felowis, and telden to hem, hou grete thingis the princis of preestis and the eldre men hadden seid to hem. 24 And whanne thei herden, with oon herte thei reiseden vois to the Lord, and seiden, Lord, thou that madist heuene and erthe, see, and alle thingis that ben in hem, which seidist bi the Hooli Goost, 25 bi the mouth of oure fadir Daud, thi child, Whi hethen men gnastiden with teeth togidre, and the pupilis thouyten veyn thingis? 26 Kyngis of the erthe stoden nyy, and princis camen togidre `in to oon, ayens the Lord, and ayens his Crist. 27 For verili Eroude and Pounce Pilat, with hethene men, and pupilis of Israel, camen togidre in this citee ayens thin hooli child Jhesu, 28 whom thou anoyntidist, to do the thingis, that thin hoond and thi counsel demyden to be don. 29 And now, Lord, biholde in to the thretnyngis of hem, and graunte to thi seruauntis to speke thi word with al trist, 30 in that thing that thou holde forth thin hond, that heelthis and signes and wondris be maad bi the name of thin hooli sone Jhesu. 31 And whanne thei hadden preyed, the place was moued, in which thei weren gaderid; and alle weren fillid with the Hooli Goost, and spaken the word of God with trist.

32 And of al the multitude of men bileuyng was oon herte and oon wille; nether ony man seide ony thingis of tho thingis that he weldide to be his owne, but alle thingis weren comyn to hem. 33 And with greet vertu the apostlis yeldiden witnessyng of the ayenrysyng of Jhesu Crist oure Lord, and greet grace was in alle hem. 34 For nether ony nedi man was among hem, for how manye euere weren possessouris of feeldis, ether of housis, thei seelden, and brouyten the pricis of tho thingis that thei seelden, 35 and leiden bifer the feet of the apostlis. And it was departid to ech, as it was nede to ech. 36 Forsothe Joseph, that was named Barsabas of apostlis, that is to seie, the sone of coumfort, of the lynage of Leuy, 37 a man of Cipre, whanne he hadde a feeld, seelde it, and brouyte the prijs, and leide it bifer the feet of apostlis.

5 But a man, Anany bi name, with Safira, his wijf, 2 seelde a feeld, and defraudide of the prijs of the feeld; and his wijf was witinge. And he brouyte a part, and leide bifer the feet of the apostlis. 3 And Petre seide to hym, Anany, whi hath Sathanas temptid thin herte, that thou lye to the Hooli Goost, and to defraude of the prijs of the feeld? 4 Whethir it vnseld was not thin; and whanne it was seld, it was in thi power? Whi hast thou put this thing in thin herte? Thou hast not lied to men, but to God. 5 Anany herde these wordis, and felde doun, and was deed. And greet drede was maad on alle that herden. 6 And yonge men risen, and mouyden hym awei, and baren hym out, and birieden. 7 And ther was maad as a space of thre ouris, and his wijf knewe not that thing that was don, and entride. 8 And Petre answerde to hir, Womman, seie to me, whether ye seelden the feeld for so mych? And sche seide, Yhe, for so mych. 9 And Petre seide to hyr, What bifelde to you, to tempte the spirit of the Lord? Lo! the feet of hem that han birieden thin hosebonde ben at the dore, and thei schulen bere thee out. 10 Anoon sche felde doun at hise feet, and diede. And the yonge men entriden, and founden hir deed, and thei baren hir out, and birieden to hir hosebonde. 11 And greet drede was maad in al the chirche, and in to alle that herden these thingis. 12 And bi the hoondis of the apostlis signes and many wondris weren maad in the puple. And alle weren of oon acord in the porche of Salomon. 13 But no man of othere durste ioyne hymself with hem, but the puple magnyfiede hem. 14 And the multitude of men and of wymmen bileuyng in the Lord was more encreessid, 15 so that thei brouyten out sike men in to stretis, and leiden in litle beddis and couchis, that whanne Petre cam, nameli the schadew of hym schulde schadewe ech of hem, and thei schulden be delyuerid fro her syknessis. 16 And the multitude of citees niy to Jerusalem ran, bryngynge sijk men, and that weren trauelid of vnclene spiritis, whiche alle weren heelid. 17 But the prince of preestis roos vp, and alle that weren with hym, that is the eresye of Saduceis, and weren fillid with enuye; 18 and leiden hondis on the apostlis, and puttiden hem in the comyn warde. 19 But the aungel of the Lord openyde bi nyyt the yatis of the prisoun, and ledde hem out, and seide, Go ye, 20 and stonde ye, and speke in the temple to the puple alle the wordis of this lijf. 21 Whom whanne thei hadden herd, thei entriden eerli in to the temple, and tauyten. And the prince of preestis cam, and thei that weren with him, and clepiden togidre the counsel, and alle the eldre men of the children of Israel; and senten to the prisoun, that thei schulden be brouyt forth. 22 And whanne the mynystris camen, founden hem not, and for the prisoun was openyd, thei turneden ayen, 23 and teelden, and seiden, We founden the prisoun schit with al diligence, and the keperis stondynge at the yatis; but we opned, and founden no man ther ynne. 24 And as the maiestratis of the temple, and the princis of preestis herden these wordis, thei doutiden of hem, what was don. 25 But a man cam, and teelde to hem, For lo! tho men whiche ye han put in to prisoun, ben in the temple, and stonden, and techen the puple. 26 Thanne the magistrat wente with the mynystris, and brouyte hem with out violence; for thei dredden the puple, lest thei schulden be stonyd. 27 And whanne thei hadden brouyt hem, thei settiden hem in the counsel; and the princes of prestis axiden hem, 28 and seiden, In comaundement we comaundiden you, that ye schulden not teche in this name, and lo! ye han fillid Jerusalem with youre teching, and ye wolen bringe on vs the blood of this man. 29 And Petre answeride, and the apostlis, and seiden, It bihoueth to obeie to God, more than to men. 30 God of oure fadris reside Jhesu, whom ye slowen, hangynge in a tre. 31 God enhaunside with his riythond this prince and sauour, that penaunce were yyue to Israel, and remyssion of synnes. 32 And we ben witnessis of these wordis, and the Hooli Goost, whom God yaf to alle obeischinge to him. 33 Whanne thei herden these thingis, thei weren turmentid, and thouyten to sle hem. 34 But a man roos in the counsel, a Farise, Gamaliel bi name, a doctour of the lawe, a worschipful man to al the puple, and comaundide the men to be put without forth for a while. 35 And he seide to hem, Ye men of Israel, take tent to you silf on these men, what ye schulen do. 36 For bfore these daies Teodas, that seide hym silf to be sum man, to whom a noumbre of men consentiden, aboute foure hundrid; which was slayn, and alle that bileueden to hym, weren disparplit, and brouyt to nouyt. 37 Aftir this, Judas of Galilee was in the daies of professioun, and turnyde awei the puple aftir hym; and alle hou manye euere consentiden to hym, weren scatered, and he perischide. 38 And now therfor Y seie to you, departe ye fro these men, and suffre ye hem; for if this counsel ether werk is of men, it schal be vndon; 39 but if it is of God, ye moun not vndo hem, lest perauenture ye be foundun to repugne God. 40 And thei consentiden to him; and thei clepiden togidere the apostlis, and denounsiden to hem, that weren betun, that thei schulden no more speke in the name of Jhesu, and thei leten hem go. 41 And thei wenten ioiynge fro the siyt of the counsel, that thei weren had worthi to suffre dispisyng for the name of Jhesu. 42 But ech dai thei ceessiden not in the temple, and aboute housis, to teche and to preche Jhesu Crist.

6 But in tho daies, whanne the noumbre of disciplis encreesside, the Grekis grutchiden ayens the Ebrews, for that her widewis weren dispisid in euery daies mynystryng. 2 And the twelue clepiden togidere the multitude of disciplis, and seiden, It is not ryytful, that we leeuken the word of God, and mynystren to boordis. 3 Therfor, britheren, biholde ye men of you of good fame, ful of the Hooli Goost and of wisdom, whiche we schulen ordeyne on this werk; 4 for we schulen be bisi to preier, and preche the word of God. 5 And the word pleside bifor al the multitude; and thei chesiden Styuen, a man ful of feith and of the Hooli Goost, and Filip, and Procore, and Nycanor, and Tymon, and Parmanam, and Nycol, a comelyng, a man of Antioche.

6 Thei ordeyneden these bifor the siyt of apostlis, and thei preyeden, and leiden hoondis on hem. 7 And the word of the Lord waxide, and the noumbre of the disciplis in Jerusalem was myche multiplied; also myche cumpany of preestis obeiede to the feith. 8 And Steuen, ful of grace and of strengthe, made wondris and grete signes in the puple. 9 But summe rysen of the synagoge, that was clepid of Libertyns, and Cirenensis, and of men of Alisaundre, and of hem that weren of Cilice and of Asie, and disputiden with Steuene. 10 And thei miyten not withstonde the wisdom and the spirit, that spak. 11 Thanne thei priueli senten men, that schulden seie, that thei herden hym seiynge wordis of blasfemye ayens Moises and God. 12 And so thei moueden togidere the puple, and the eldre men, and the scribis; and thei rannen togidre, and token hym, and brouyten in to the counsel. 13 And thei ordeyneden false witnessis, that seiden, This man ceessith not to speke wordis ayens the hooli place, and the lawe. 14 For we herden hym seiynge, That this Jhesus of Nazareth schal destroye this place, and schal chaunge the tradiciouns, whiche Moyses bitook to us. 15 And alle men that seten in the counsel bihelden hym, and sayn his face as the face of an aungel.

7 And the prynce of prestis seide to Steuene, Whethir these thingis han hem so? 2 Which seide, Britheren and fadris, here ye. God of glorie apperide to oure fadir Abraham, whanne he was in Mesopotamie, bifor that he dwelte in Carram, and seide to hym, 3 Go out of thi loond, and of thi kynrede, and come in to the loond, which Y schal schewe to thee. 4 Thanne he wente out of the loond of Caldeis, and dwelte in Carram. And fro thens aftir that his fader was deed, he translatide him in to this loond, in which ye dwellen now. 5 And he yaf not to hym eritage in it, nethir a paas of a foot, but he bihiyte to yyue hym it in to possessioun, and to his seed affir hym, whanne he hadde not a sone. 6 And God spak to hym, That his seed schal be comling in an alien lond, and thei schulen make hem suget to seruage, and schulen yuel trete hem, foure hundrid yeris and thritti; 7 and Y schal iuge the folk, to which thei schulen serue, seith the Lord. And after these thingis thei schulen go out, and thei schulen serue to me in this place. 8 And he yaf to hym the testament of circumcisioun; and so he gendride Ysaac, and circumcidide hym in the eyt dai. And Isaac gendride Jacob, and Jacob gendride the twelue patriarkis. 9 And the patriarkis hadden enuye to Joseph, and selden hym in to Egipt. 10 And God was with hym, and delyuerede hym of alle hise tribulaciouns, and yaf to hym grace and wisdom in the siyt of Farao, king of Egipt. And he ordeynede hym souereyn on Egipt, and on al his hous. 11 And hungur cam in to al Egipt, and Canaan, and greet tribulacioun; and oure fadris founden not mete. 12 But whanne Jacob hadde herd, that whete was in Egipt, he sente oure fadris first. 13 And in the secounde tyme Joseph was knowun of hise britheren, and his kyn was maad knowun to Farao. 14 And Joseph sente, and clepide Jacob, his fadir, and al his kynrede, seuenti and fyue men. 15 And Jacob cam down in to Egipt, and was deed, he and oure fadris; 16 and thei weren translatid in to Sichen, and weren leid in the sepulcre, that Abraham bouyte bi prijs of siluer of the sones of Emor, the sone of Sichen. 17 And whanne the tyme of biheeste cam niy, which God hadde knoulechid to Abraham, the puple waxede, and multipliede in Egipt, 18 til another kyng roos in Egipt, which knewe not Joseph. 19 This bigilide oure kyn, and turmentide oure fadris, that thei schulden putte away her yonge children, for thei schulden not lyue. 20 In the same tyme Moyses was borun, and he was louyd of God; and he was norischid thre monethis in the hous of his fadir. 21 And whanne he was put out in the flood, the douyter of Farao took hym vp, and nurischide hym in to hir sone. 22 And Moises was lerned in al the wisdom of Egipcians, and he was myyti in his wordis and werkis. 23 But whanne the tyme of fourti yeer was fillid to hym, it roos vp `in to his herte, that he schulde visite hise britheren, the sones of Israel. 24 And whanne he say a man suffringe wronge, he vengide hym, and dide veniaunce for hym that suffride the wronge, and he killide the Egipcian. 25 For he gesside that his britheren schulden vndurstonde, that God schulde yyue to hem helthe bi the hoond of hym; but thei vndurstoden not. 26 For in the dai suynghe he apperide to hem chidinge, and he acordide hem in pees, and seide, Men, ye ben britheren; whi noyen ye ech othere? 27 But he that dide the wronge to his neiybore, puttide hym away, and seide, Who ordeynede thee prince and domesman on vs? 28 Whethir thou wolt sle me, as yistirdai thou killidist the Egipcian? 29 And in this word Moises flei, and was maad a comeling in the loond of Madian, where he bigat twei sones. 30 And whanne he hadde fillid fourti yeer, an aungel apperide to hym in fier of flawme of a buysch, in desert of the mount of Syna. 31 And Moises siy, and wondride on the siyt. And whanne he neiyede to biholde, the vois of the Lord was maad to hym, 32 and seide, Y am God of youre fadris, God of Abraham, God of Ysaac, God of Jacob. Moises was maad tremblynghe, and durste not biholde. 33 But God seide to hym, Do of the schoon of thi feet, for the place in which thou stondist is hooli erthe. 34 Y seyngē say the turmentyng of my puple that is in Egipt, and Y herde the mornyng of hem, and Y cam doun to delyuere hem. And now come thou, and Y schal sende thee in to Egipt. 35 This Moises whom thei denyeden, seiynge, Who ordeynede thee prince and domesman on vs? God sente this prince and ayenbiere, with the hoond of the aungel, that apperide to hym in the busch. 36 This Moises ledde hem out, and dide wondris and signes in the loond of Egipt, and in the reed see, and in desert fourti yeeris. 37 This is Moises, that seide to the sones of Israel, God schal reise to you a profete of youre bretheren, as me ye schulen here him. 38 This it is, that was in the chirche in wildirnesse, with the aungel that spak to hym in the mount of Syna, and with oure fadris; which took words of lijf to yyue to vs. 39 To whom oure fadris wolden not obeie, but puttiden hym awei, and weren turned awei in hertis in to Egipt, 40 seiynge to Aaron, Make thou to vs goddis, that schulen go bifore vs; for to this Moyses that ledde vs out of the lond of Egipt, we witen not what is don to hym. 41 And thei maden a calf in tho daies, and offriden a sacrifice to the mawmet; and thei weren glad in the werkis of her hondis. 42 And God turnede, and bitook hem to serue to the knyythod of heuene, as it is writun in the book of profetis, Whether ye, hous of Israel, offriden to me slayn sacrificis, ether sacrificis, fourti yeris in desert? 43 And ye han take the tabernacle of Moloc, and the sterre of youre god Renfam, figuris that ye han maad to worschipe hem; and Y schal translate you in to Babiloyn. 44 The tabernacle of witnessing was with oure fadris in desert, as God disposide to hem, and spak to Moyses, that he schulde make it aftir the fourme that he say. 45 Which also oure fadris token with Jhesu, and brouyten in to the possessioun of hethene men, whiche God puttide away fro the face of oure fadris, til in to the daies of David, 46 that fonde grace anentis God, and axide that he schulde fynde a tabernacle to God of Jacob. 47 But Salomon bildide the hous `to hym. 48 But the hy God dwellith not in thingis maad bi hoond, 49 as he seith bi the profete, Heuene is a seete to me, and the erthe is the stool of my feet; what hous schulen ye bilde to me, seith the Lord, ether what place is of my restyng? 50 Whether myn hoond made not alle these thingis? 51 With hard nol, and vncircumcidid hertis and eris ye withstoden eueremore the Hooli Goost; and as youre fadris, so ye. 52 Whom of the profetis han not youre fadris pursued, and han slayn hem that bifer telden of the comyng of the riytful man, whos traitouris and mansleeris ye weren now? 53 Whiche token the lawe in ordynaunce of aungels, and han not kept it. 54 And thei herden these thingis, and weren dyuersli turmentid in her hertis, and grenneden with teeth on hym. 55 But whanne Steuene was ful of the Hooli Goost, he bihelde in to heuene, and say the glorie of God, and Jhesu stondinge on the riythalf of the vertu of God. 56 And he seide, Lo! Y se heuenes openyd, and mannus sone stondynge on the riythalf of the vertu of God. 57 And thei crieden with a greet vois, and stoppiden her eris, and maden with o wille an assaunt in to hym. 58 And thei brouyten hym out of the citee, and stonyden. And the witnessis diden of her clothis, bisidis the feet of a yong man, that was clepid Saule.

59 And thei stonyden Steuene, that clepide God to help, seiynge, Lord Jhesu, resseyue my spirit. 60 And he knelide, and criede with a greet vois, and seide, Lord, sette not to hem this synne.
 And whanne he hadde seid this thing, he diede.

8 But Saul was consentynge to his deth. And greet persecucioun was maad that dai in the chirche, that was in Jerusalem. And alle men weren scatered bi the cuntrees of Judee and Samarie, outakun the apostlis. 2 But good men birieden Steuene, and maden greet mornynge on hym. 3 But Saul greetli distruyede the chirche, and entryde bi housis, and drowe men and wymmen, and bitook hem in to prisoun. 4 And thei that weren scaterid, passiden forth, prechyng the word of God. 5 And Filip cam doun in to a citee of Samarie, and prechide to hem Crist. 6 And the puple yaf tent to thes thingis that weren seid of Filip, with o wille herynge and seyng the signes that he dide. 7 For manye of hem that hadden vnclene spirits, crieden with a greet vois, and wenten out. 8 And manye sijk in the palsy, and crokid, weren heelid. 9 Therfor greet ioie was maad in that citee. But there was a man in that citee, whos name was Symount, a witche, that hadde disseyued the folc of Samarie, seiynge, that him silf was sum greet man. 10 Whom alle herkeneden, fro the leest to the moost, and seiden, This is the vertu of God, which is clepid greet. 11 And thei leueden hym, for long tyme he hadde maddid hem with his witche craftis. 12 But whanne thei hadden bileued to Filip, that prechide of the kingdom of God, men and wymmen weren baptisid in the name of Jhesu Crist. 13 And thanne also Symount him silf bileued; and whanne he was baptisid, he drouy to Filip; and he sai also that signes and grete vertues weren don, he was astonyed, and wondride. 14 But whanne the apostlis that weren at Jerusalem, hadden herd that Samarie hadde resseyued the word of God, thei senten to hem Petre and Joon. 15 And whanne thei camen, thei preieden for hem, that thei schulden resseyue the Hooli Goost; 16 for he cam not yit in to ony of hem, but thei weren baptisid oonli in the name of the Lord Jhesu. 17 Thanne thei leiden hoondis on hem, and thei resseyueden the Hooli Goost. 18 And whanne Symount hadde seyn, that the Hooly Goost was youun bi leiyng on of the hoondis of the apostlis, and he proferide to hem money, and seide, 19 Yyue ye also to me this power, that whom euere Y schal leye on myn hoondis, that he resseyue the Hooli Goost. 20 But Petir seide to hym, Thi money be with thee into perdicioun, for thou gessidist the yifte of God schulde be had for monei. 21 Ther is no part, ne sort to thee, in this word, for thin herte is not riytful bifor God. 22 Therfor do thou penaunce for this wickidnesse of thee, and preie God, if perauenture this thouyt of thin herte be foryouun to thee. 23 For Y se that thou art in the gall of bitternesse and in the boond of wickidnesse. 24 And Symount answeride, and seide, Preie ye for me to the Lord, that no thing of these thingis that ye han seid, com on me. 25 And thei witnessiden, and spaken the word of the Lord, and yeden ayen to Jerusalem, and prechiden to many cuntrees of Samaritans. 26 And an aungel of the Lord spak to Filip, and seide, Ryse thou, and go ayens the south, to the weie that goith doun fro Jerusalem in to Gasa; this is desert. 27 And he roos, and wente forth. And lo! a man of Ethiopie, a myyti man seruaunt, a yelding of Candace, the queen of Ethiopiens, which was on alle her richessis, cam to worschipe in Jerusalem. 28 And he turnede ayen, sittinge on his chare, and redinge Isaie, the profete. 29 And the spirit seide to Filip, Neiye thou, and ioyne thee to this chare. 30 And Filip `ran to, and herde hym redyng Ysaie, the prophete. And he seide, Gessist thou, whether thou vndirstondist, what thingis thou redist? 31 And he seide, How may Y, if no man schewe to me? And he preiede Filip, that he schulde come vp, and sitte with hym. 32 And the place of the scripture that he redde, was this, As a scheep he was led to sleynge, and as a lomb bifor a man that scherith him is doumb with out vois, so he openyde not his mouth. 33 In mekenesse his dom was takun vp; who schal telle out the generacioun of hym? For his lijf schal be takun awei fro the erthe. 34 And the gelding answeride to Filip, and seide, Y biseche thee, of `what profete seith he this thing? of him silf, ethir of ony othere? 35 And Filip openyde his mouth, and bigan at this scripture, and prechide to him Jhesu. 36 And the while thei wenten bi the weie, thei camen to a water. And the gelding seide, Lo! watir; who forbedith me to be baptisid? 37 And Filip seide, If thou bileuest of al the herte, it is leueful. And he answeride, and seide, Y bileue that Jhesu Crist is the sone of God. 38 And he comaundide the chare to stonde stille. And thei wenten down bothe into the watir, Filip and the gelding, and Filip baptiside hym. 39 And whanne thei weren come vp of the watir, the spirit of the Lord rauyschide Filip, and the gelding say hym no more. 40 And Filip was foundun in Azotus; and he passide forth, and prechide to alle citees, til he cam to Cesarie.

9 But Saul, yit a blower of manassis and of betingis ayens the disciplis of the Lord, 2 cam to the prince of preestis, and axide of hym lettris in to Damask, to the synagogis; that if he fond ony men and wymmen of this lijf, he schulde lede hem boundun to Jerusalem. 3 And whanne he made his iourney, it bifelde, that he cam nyy to Damask. And sudenli a liyt from heuene schoon aboute hym; 4 and he fallide to the erthe, and herde a vois seiynge to hym, Saul, Saul, what pursuest thou me? 5 And he seide, Who art thou, Lord? And he seide, Y am Jhesu of Nazareth, whom thou pursuest. It is hard to thee, to kike ayens the pricke. 6 And he tremblide, and wondride, and seide, Lord, what wolt thou that Y do? 7 And the Lord seide to hym, Rise vp, and entre in to the citee, and it schal be seide to thee, what it bihoueth thee to do. And tho men that wenten with hym, stoden astonyed; for thei herden a vois, but thei sien no man. 8 And Saul roos fro the earth; and whanne hise iyen weren opened, he say no thing. And thei drowen hym bi the hondis, and ledden hym in to Damask. 9 And he was thre daies not seyng; and he eete not, nether drank. 10 And a disciple, Ananye bi name, was at Damask. And the Lord seide to hym in `a visioun, Ananye. And he seide, Lo! 11 Y, Lord. And the Lord seide to hym, Rise thou, and go in to a streete that is clepid Rectus; and seke, in the hous of Judas, Saul bi name of Tharse. For lo! he preieth; and he say a man, 12 Ananye bi name, entringe and leiyng on hym hoondis, that he resseyue siyt. 13 And Ananye answerde, Lord, Y haue herd of many of this man, how greete yuelis he dide to thi seyntis in Jerusalem; 14 and this hath power of the princis of preestis, to bynde alle men that clepen thi name to helpe. 15 And the Lord seide to hym, Go thou, for this is to me a vessel of chesing, that he bere my name bifore hethene men, and kingis, and tofore the sones of Israel. 16 For Y schal schewe to hym, how grete thingis it bihoueth hym to suffre for my name. 17 And Ananye wente, and entride in to the hous; and leide on hym his hondis, and seide, Saul brothir, the Lord Jhesu sente me, that apperide to thee in the weie, in which thou camest, that thou se, and be fulfillid with the Hooli Goost. 18 And anoon as the scalis felden fro hise iyen, he resseyuede siyt. And he roos, and was baptisid. 19 And whanne he hadde takun mete, he was coumfortid. And he was bi sum daies with the disciplis, that weren at Damask. 20 And anoon he entride in to the synagogis, and prechide the Lord Jhesu, for this is the sone of God. 21 And alle men that herden hym, wondriden, and seiden, Whether this is not he that impugned in Jerusalem hem that clepiden to help this name? and hidir he cam for this thing, that he schulde leede hem boundun to the princis of preestis? 22 But Saul myche more wexede strong, and confoundide the Jewis that dwelliden at Damask, and affermyde that this is Crist. 23 And whanne manye daies weren fillid, Jewis maden a counsel, that thei schulden sle hym. 24 And the aspies of hem weren maad knowun to Saul. And thei kepten the yatis dai and niyt, that thei schulden sle him. 25 But hise disciplis token hym bi nyyt, and delyuereden hym, and leeten him down in a leep bi the wal. 26 And whanne he cam in to Jerusalem, he assaiede to ioyne hym to the disciplis; and alle dredden hym, and leueden not that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas took, and ledde hym to the apostliis, and telde to hem, how in the weie he hadde seyn the Lord, and that he spak to hym, and hou in Damask he dide tristili in the name of Jhesu. 28 And he was with hem, and entride, and yede out in Jerusalem, and dide tristili in the name of Jhesu. 29 And he spak with hethene men, and disputide with Grekis. And thei souyten to sle hym. 30 Which thing whanne the britheren hadden knowe, thei ledden hym bi nyyt to Cesarie, and leten hym go to Tarsis. 31 And the chirche bi al Judee, and Galilee, and Samarie, hadde pees, and was edefied, and walkide in the drede of the Lord, and was fillid with coumfort of the Hooli Goost. 32 And it bifelde, that Petre, the while he passide aboute alle, cam to the hooli men that dwelliden at Lidde. 33 And he foond a man, Eneas bi name, that fro eiyte yeer he hadde leie `in bed; and he was sijk in palsy. 34 And Petre seide to hym, Eneas, the Lord Jhesu Crist heele thee; rise thou, and araye thee. And anoon he roos. 35 And alle men that dwelten at Lidde, and at Sarone, saien hym, whiche weren conuertid to the Lord. 36 And in Joppe was a disciplesse, whos name was Tabita, that is to seie, Dorcas. This was ful of good werkis and almesdedis, that sche dide. 37 And it bifelde in tho daies, that sche was sijk, and diede. And whanne thei hadden waischun hir, thei leiden hir in a soler. 38 And for Lidda was nyy Joppe, the disciplis herden that Petre was thereynne, and senten twei men to hym, and preieden, That thou tarie not to come to vs. 39 And Petre roos vp, and cam with hem. And whanne he was comun, thei ledden hym in to the soler. And alle widewis stoden aboute hym, wepynge, and schewyng cootis and clothis, which Dorcas made to hem. 40 And whanne alle men weren put with out forth, Petre knelide, and preiede. And he turnede to the bodi, and seide, Tabita, rise thou. And sche openyde hir iyen, and whanne sche siy Petre, sche sat vp ayen. 41 And he took hir bi the hond, and reside hir. And whanne he hadde clepid the hooli men and widewis, he assignede hir alyue. 42 And it was maad knowun bi al Joppe; and many bileueden in the Lord. 43 And it was maad, that many daies he dwellide in Joppe, at oon Symount, a curiour.

10 A man was in Cesarie, Cornelie bi name, a centurien of the cumpanye of knyytis, that is seid of Italie; 2 a religious man, and dredinge the Lord, with al his meyne; doynge many almessis to the puple, and preyng the Lord euere more. 3 This say in a visoun opinli, as in the nynthe oure of the dai, an aungel of God entringe in to hym, and seiynge to hym, Cornelie. 4 And he bihelde hym, and was a dred, and seide, Who art thou, Lord?

 And he seide to hym, Thi preieris and thin almesdedis han stied vp in to mynde, in the siyt of the Lord. 5 And now sende thou men in to Joppe, and clepe oon Symount, that is named Petre. 6 This is herborid at a man Symount, curiour, whos hous is bisidis the see. This schal seie to thee, what it bihoueth thee to do. 7 And whanne the aungel that spak to hym, was gon awei, he clepide twei men of his hous, and a knyyt that dredde the Lord, whiche weren at his bidding. 8 And whanne he hadde told hem alle these thingis, he sente hem in to Joppe. 9 And on the dai suyng, while thei maden iournei, and neiyeden to the citee, Petre wente vp in to the hiest place of the hous to preie, aboute the sixte our. 10 And whanne he was hungrid, he wolde haue ete. But while thei maden redi, a rauysching of spirit felde on hym; 11 and he say heuene openyd, and a vessel comynge doun, as a greet scheet with foure corneris, to be lette doun fro heuene in to erthe, 12 in which weren alle foure footid beestis, and crepinge of the erthe, and volatilis of heuene. 13 And a vois was maad to hym, Rise thou, Petre, and sle, and ete. 14 And Petre seide, Lord, forbede, for Y neuer ete ony comun thing and vnclene. 15 And eft the secounde tyme the vois was maad to him, That thing that God hath clensid, seye thou not vnclene.
16 And this thing was don bi thries; and anoon the vessel was resseyued ayen. 17 And while that Petre doutide with ynne hym silf, what the visioun was that he say, lo! the men, that weren sent fro Corneli, souyten the hous of Symount, and stoden at the yate. 18 And whanne thei hadden clepid, thei axiden if Symount, that is named Petre, hadde there herbore. 19 And while Petre thouyte on the visioun, the spirit seide to hym, Lo! thre men seken thee. 20 Therfor ryse thou, and go doun, and go with hem, and doute thou no thing, for Y sente hem. 21 And Petre cam doun to the men, and seide, Lo! Y am, whom ye seken; what is the cause, for which ye ben come? 22 And thei seiden, Cornelie, the centurien, a iust man, and dredinge God, and hath good witnessyng of alle the folc of Jewis, took aunswere of an hooli aungel, to clepe thee in to his hous, and to here wordis of thee.

 23 Therfor he ledde hem inne, and resseyuede in herbore; and that nytt thei dwelliden with hym. And in the dai suyng he roos, and wente forth with hem; and sum of the britheren folewiden hym fro Joppe, that thei be witnessis to Petre. 24 And the other dai he entride in to Cesarie. And Cornelie abood hem, with hise cousyns, and necessarie freendis, that weren clepid togidere. 25 And it was don, whanne Petre was come ynne, Corneli cam metynge hym, and felle doun at hise feet, and worschipide him.
 26 But Petre reside hym, and seide, Aryse thou, also Y my silf am a man, as thou. 27 And he spak with hym, and wente in, and foonde many that weren come togidere. 28 And he seide to hem, Ye witen, how abhomynable it is to a Jewe, to be ioyned ether to come to an alien; but God schewide to me, that no man seye a man comyn, ethir vnclene. 29 For which thing Y cam, whanne Y was clepid, with out doutyng. Therfor Y axe you, for what cause han ye clepid me? 30 And Cornelie seide, To dai foure daies in to this our, Y was preiyng and fastyng in the nynthe our in myn hous. And lo! a man stood bfore me in a whijt cloth, and seide, 31 Cornelie, thi preier is herd, and thin almesdedis ben in mynde in the siyt of God. 32 Therfor sende thou in to Joppe, and clepe Symount, that is named Petre; this is herborid in the hous of Symount coriour, bisidis the see. This, whanne he schal come, schal speke to thee. 33 Therfor anoon Y sente to thee, and thou didist wel in comynge to vs. `Now therfor we alle ben present in thi siyt, to here the wordis, what euer ben comaundid to thee of the Lord. 34 And Petre openyde his mouth, and seide, In trewthe Y haue foundun, that God is no acceptor of persooones; 35 but in eche folk he that dredith God, and worchith riytwisnesse, is accept to hym. 36 God sente a word to the children of Israel, schewinge pees bi Jhesu Crist; this is Lord of alle thingis. 37 Ye witen the word that is maad thorou al Judee, and bigan at Galile, aftir the baptym that Joon prechide, Jhesu of Nazareth; 38 hou God anoyntide hym with the Hooli Goost, and vertu; which passide forth in doynge wel, and heelynge alle men oppressid of the deuyl, for God was with hym. 39 And we ben witnessis of alle thingis, whiche he dide in the cuntrei of Jewis, and of Jerusalem; whom thei slown, hangynge in a tre. 40 And God reside this in the thridde dai, and yaf hym to be maad knowun, 41 not to al puple, but to witnessis bifer ordeyned of God; to vs that eeten and drunken with hym, after that he roos ayen fro deth. 42 And he comaundide to vs to preche to the puple, and to witnesse, that he it is, that is ordeyned of God domesman of the quyk and of deede. 43 To this alle prophetis beren witnessing, that alle men that bileuen in hym, schulen resseyue remyssion of synnes bi his name. 44 And yit while that Petre spak these wordis, the Hooli Goost felde on alle that herden the word. 45 And the feithful men of circumcisioun, that camen with Petre, wondriden, that also in to naciouns the grace of the Hooli Goost is sched out. 46 For thei herden hem spekyng in langagis, and magnifyng God. 47 Thanne Petre answeride, Whether ony man may forbede watir, that these ben not baptisid, that han also resseyued the Hooli Goost as we? 48 And he comaundide hem to be baptisid in the name of the Lord Jhesu Crist. Thanne thei preieden hym, that he schulde dwelle with hem sum daies.

11 And the apostlis, and the britheren that weren in Judee, herden that also hethene men resseyueden the word of God, and thei glorifieden God. 2 But whanne Petre cam to Jerusalem, thei that weren of circumcisioun, disputiden ayens hym, 3 and seiden, Whi entridist thou to men that han prepucie, and hast eete with hem? 4 And Petre bigan, and expownede to hem bi ordre, 5 and seide, Y was in the citee of Joppe, and preiede, and Y sai in rauysching of my mynde a visioun, that a vessel cam down, as a greet scheete with foure coordis, and was sent doun fro heuene; and it cam to me. 6 In to which Y lookinge biheld, and sai foure footid beestis of the erthe, and beestis, and crepyng beestis, and volatils of heuene. 7 And Y herde also a vois that seide to me, Petre, rise thou, and sle, and eete. 8 But Y seide, Nay, Lord; for comyn thing ether vnclene entride neuer in to my mouth. 9 And the vois answeride the secounde tyme fro heuene, That thing that God hath clensid, seie thou not vnclene. 10 And this was don bi thries, and alle thingis weren resseyued ayen in to heuene. 11 And lo! thre men anon stooden in the hous, in which Y was; and thei weren sent fro Cesarie to me. 12 And the spirit seide to me, that Y schulde go with hem, and doute no thing. Yhe, and these sixe britheren camen with me, and we entriden in to the hous of the man. 13 And he telde to vs, how he say an aungel in his hous, stondinge and seiynge to hym, Sende thou in to Joppe, and clepe Symount, that is named Petre, which schal speke to thee wordis, 14 in whiche thou schalt be saaf, and al thin hous. 15

And whanne Y hadde bigunnun to speke, the Hooli Goost felle on hem, as in to vs in the bigynnyng. 16 And Y bithouyte on the word of the Lord, as he seide, For Joon baptiside in watir, but ye schulen be baptisid in the Hooli Goost. 17 Therfor if God yaf to hem the same grace, as to vs that bileueden in the Lord Jhesu Crist, who was Y, that myyte forbeede the Lord, that he yyue not the Hooli Goost to hem that bileueden in the name of Jhesu Crist? 18 Whanne these thingis weren herd, thei helden pees, and glorifieden God, and seiden, Therfor also to hethene men God hath youun penaunce to lijf. 19 And thei that weren scaterid of the tribulacioun that was maad vndir Steuene, walkiden forth to Fenyce, and to Cipre, and to Antioche, and spaken the word to no man, but to Jewis aloone. 20 But sum of hem weren men of Cipre, and of Cirenen; whiche whanne thei hadden entride in to Antioche, thei spaken to the Grekis, and prechiden the Lord Jhesu. 21 And the hond of the Lord was with hem, and myche noumbre of men bileuyng was conuertid to the Lord. 22 And the word cam to the eris of the chirche, that was at Jerusalem, on these thingis; and thei senten Barnabas to Antioche. 23 And whanne he was come, and siy the grace of the Lord, he ioyede, and monestide alle men to dwelle in the Lord in purpos of herte; 24 for he was a good man, and ful of the Hooli Goost, and of feith. And myche puple was encresid to the Lord. 25 And he wente forth to Tharsis, to seke Saul; and whanne he hadde foundun hym, he ledde to Antioche. 26 And al a yeer thei lyueden ther in the chirche, and tauyten myche puple, so that the disciplis weren namyd first at Antioche cristen men. 27 And in these daies profetis camen ouer fro Jerusalem to Antioche. 28 And oon of hem roos vp, Agabus bi name, and signefiede bi the spirit a greet hungur to comynge in al the world, which hungur was maad vndur Claudius. 29 And alle the disciplis purposiden, after that ech hadde, for to sende in to mynysterie to britheren that dwelliden in Judee. 30 Which thing also thei diden, and sente it to the eldre men, bi the hoondis of Barnabas and Saul.

12 And in the same tyme Eroude the king sente power, to turmente sum men of the chirche. 2 And he slowe bi swerd James, the brothir of Joon. 3 And he siy that it pleside to Jewis, and keste to take also Petre; and the daies of therf looues weren. 4 And whanne he hadde cauhte Petre, he sente hym in to prisoun; and bitook to foure quaternyouns of knyytis, to kepe hym, and wolde aftir pask bringe hym forth to the puple. 5 And Petre was kept in prisoun; but preier was maad of the chirche with out ceessing to God for hym. 6 But whanne Eroude schulde bringe hym forth, in that nytt Petre was slepinge bitwixe twei knyytis, and was boundun with twei cheynes; and the keperis bifor the dore kepten the prisoun. 7 And lo! an aungel of the Lord stooode nyy, and liyt schoon in the prisoun hous. And whanne he hadde smyte the side of Petre, he reise hym, and seide, Rise thou swiftli. And anoon the cheynes felden doun fro hise hoondis. 8 And the aungel seide to hym, Girde thee, and do on thin hoosis. And he dide so. And he seide to hym, Do aboute thee thi clothis, and sue me. 9 And he yede out, and sude hym; and he wiste not that it was soth, that was don bi the aungel; for he gesside hym silf to haue sey a visioun. 10 And thei passiden the first and the secounde warde, and camen to the iren yate that ledith to the citee, which anoon was opened to hem. And thei yeden out, and camen in to o street, and anoon the aungel passide awei fro hym. 11 And Petre turnede ayen to hym silf, and seide, Now Y woot verili, that the Lord sente his aungel, and delyueride me fro the hoond of Eroude, and fro al the abiding of the puple of Jewis. 12 And he bihelde, and cam to the hous of Marie, modir of Joon, that is named Marcus, where many weren gaderid togidre, and preiyng. 13 And whanne he knockid at the dore of the yate, a damysel, Rode bi name, cam forth to se. 14 And whanne sche knewe the vois of Petre, for ioye sche openyde not the yate, but ran in, and telde, that Petre stood at the yate. 15 And thei seiden to hir, Thou maddist.

 But sche affermyde, that it was so. And thei seiden, It is his aungel. 16 But Petre abood stille, and knockide. And whanne thei hadden opened the dore, thei sayen hym, and wondriden.
17 And he bekenyde to hem with his hoond to be stille, and telde hou the Lord hadde led hym out of the prisoun. And he seide, Telle ye to James and to the britheren these thingis. And he yede out, and wente in to an othere place. 18 And whanne the dai was come, ther was not lytil troubling among the knyghtis, what was don of Petre. 19 And whanne Eroude hadde souyt hym, and foonde not, aftir that he hadde made enqueryng of the keperis, he comaundide hem to be brouyt to hym. And he cam doun fro Judee in to Cesarie, and dwellide there. 20 And he was wroth to men of Tyre and of Sidon. And thei of oon acord camen to hym, whanne thei hadden counseilid with Bastus, that was the kingis chaumbirleyn, thei axiden pees, for as myche that her cuntrees weren vitailid of hym. 21 And in a dai that was ordeyned, Eroude was clothid with kyngis clothing, and sat for domesman, and spak to hem. 22 And the puple criede, The voicis of God, and not of man. 23 And anon an aungel of the Lord smoot hym, for he hadde not youun onour to God; and he was wastid of wormes, and diede. 24 And the word of the Lord waxide, and was multiplied. 25 And Barnabas and Saul turneden ayen fro Jerusalem, whanne the mynystrie was fillid, and token Joon, that was named Marcus.

13 And profetis and doctouris weren in the chirche that was at Antioche, in which Barnabas, and Symount, that was clepid Blac, and Lucius Cironense, and Manaen, that was the soukyngfere of Eroude tetrarke, and Saul weren. 2 And whanne thei mynystriden to the Lord, and fastiden, the Hooli Goost seide to hem, Departe ye to me Saul and Barnabas, in to the werk to which Y haue takun hem. 3 Thanne thei fastiden, and preieden, and leiden hondis on hem, and leten hem go. 4 But thei weren sent of the Hooli Goost, and wenten forth to Seleucia, and fro thennus thei wenten bi boot to Cipre. 5 And whanne thei camen to Salamyne, thei prechiden the word of God in the synagogis of Jewis; and thei hadden also Joon in mynystrie. 6 And whanne thei hadden walkid bi al the ile to Pafum, thei founden a man, a witche, a false profete, a Jewe, to whom the name was Bariesu, 7 that was with the proconsul Sergius Paule, a prudent man. This clepide Barnabas and Poul, and desiride to here the word of God. 8 But Elymas witche withstoode hem; for his name is expowned so; and he souyte to turne awei the proconsul fro bileue. 9 But Saul, which is seid also Paul, was fillid with the Hooli Goost, and bihelde in to hym, and seide, A! 10 thou ful of al gile, and al falsnesse, thou sone of the deuel, thou enemye of al riytwisnesse, thou leeuest not to turne vpsodoun the riytful weies of the Lord. 11 And now lo! the hoond of the Lord is on thee, and thou schalt be blynde, and not seynge the sunne in to a tyme. And anoon myste and derknesse felden down on hym; and he yede aboute, and souyte hym that schulde yyue hoond to hym. 12 Thanne the proconsul, whanne he hadde seyn the dede, bileuede, wondringe on the techyng of the Lord. 13 And whanne fro Pafum Poul hadde go bi a boot, and thei that weren with hym, thei camen to Pergen of Pamfilie; but Joon departide fro hem, and turnede ayen to Jerusalem. 14 And thei yeden to Pergen, and camen to Antioche of Persidie; and thei entriden in to the synagoge in the dai of sabatis, and saten. 15 And after the redyng of the lawe and of the prophetis, the princis of the synagoge senten to hem, and seiden, Britheren, if ony word of exortacioun to the puple is in you, seie ye. 16 And Poul roos, and with hoond baad silence, and seide, Men of Israel, and ye that dreden God, here ye. 17 God of the puple of Israel chees oure fadris, and enhaunside the puple, whanne thei weren comelingis in the loond of Egipt, and in an hye arme he ledde hem out of it; 18 and bi the tyme of fourti yeeris he suffride her maneres in desert. 19 And he destriede seuene folkis in the loond of Canaan, and bi sort departide to hem her lond, 20 as aftir foure hundrid and fifti yeeris. And aftir these thingis he yaf domesmen, to Samuel, the profete. 21 And fro that tyme thei axiden a kyng, and God yaf to hem Saul, the sone of Cis, a man of the lynage of Beniamyn, bi fourti yeeris. 22 And whanne he was don awei, he reyside to hem Dauid king, to whom he bar witnessing, and seide, Y haue foundun Dauid, the sone of Jesse, a man aftir myn herte, which schal do alle my willis. 23 Of whos seed bi the biheest God hath led out to Israel a sauyoure Jhesu, 24 whanne Joon prechide bifor the face of his comyng the baptyng of penance to al the puple of Israel. 25 But whanne Joon fillide his cours, he seide, Y am not he, whom ye demen me to be; but lo! he cometh aftir me, and Y am not worthi to doon of the schoon of hise feet. 26 Britheren, and sones of the kynde of Abraham, and whiche that in you dreden God, to you the word of helthe is sent. 27 For thei that dwelliden at Jerusalem, and princis of it, that knewen not this Jhesu, and the voicis of prophetis, that by euery sabat ben red, demyden, and filliden; 28 and thei founden in hym no cause of deth, and axiden of Pilat, that thei schulden sle hym. 29 And whanne thei hadden endid alle thingis that weren writun of hym, thei token hym doun of the tre, and leiden hym in a graue. 30 And God reise hym fro deth in the thridde dai; which was seyn bi mony daies to 31 hem that wenten vp togidere with hym fro Galilee in to Jerusalem, which ben til now his witnessis to the puple. 32 And we schewen to you the biheest that was maad to oure fadris; 33 for God hath fulfillid this to her sones, and ayenreisd Jhesu; as in the secounde salm it is writun, Thou art my sone, to dai Y bigat thee. 34 And he ayenreise hym fro deth, that he schulde not turne ayen in to corrupcioun, seide thus, For Y schal yyue to you the hooli trewe thingis of Dauid. 35 And therfor and on an othere stide he seith, Thou schalt not yyue thin hooli to se corrupcioun. 36 But Dauid in his generacioun, whanne he hadde mynstrid to the wille of God, diede, and was leid with hise fadris, and say corrupcioun; 37 but he whom God reise fro deth, say not corrupcioun. 38 Therfor, britheren, be it knowun to you, that bi hym remyssoun of synnes is teld to you, fro alle synnes, of whiche ye myyten not be iustified in the lawe of Moises. 39 In this ech man that bileueth, is iustified. 40 Therfor se ye, that it come not to you, that is biforeseid in the profetis, 41 Ye dispiseris, se ye, and wondre ye, and be ye scaterid abroad; for Y worche a werk in youre daies, a werk that ye schulen not bileue, if ony man schal telle it to you. 42 And whanne thei yeden out, thei preieden, that in the sabat suyng thei schulden speke to hem these wordis.

43 And whanne the synagoge was left, manye of Jewis and of comelingis worschypynge God supeden Poul and Barnabas; that spaken, and counseliden hem, that thei schulden dwelle in the grace of God. 44 And in the sabat suyng almost al the citee cam togidir, to here the word of God. 45 And Jewis sien the puple, and weren fillid with enuye, and ayenseiden these thingis that weren seyd of Poul, and blasfemyden. 46 Thanne Poul and Barnabas stidfastli seiden, To you it bihofte first to speke the word of God; but for ye putten it awei, and han demyd you vnworthi to euerlastinge lijf, lo! we turnen to hethen men. (aiōnios g166) 47 For so the Lord comaundide vs, Y haue set thee in to liyt to hethen men, that thou be in to helthe to the vtmost of erthe. 48 And hethen men herden, and ioieden, and glorifieden the word of the Lord; and bileueden, as manye as weren bfore ordeyned to euerlastinge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 49 And the word of the Lord was sowun bi al the cuntre. 50 But the Jewis stiriden religiouse wymmen, and onest, and the worthiest men of the citee, and stireden persecucioun ayens Poul and Barnabas, and dryuen hem out of her cuntreis. 51 And thei schoken awei in to hem the duste of her feet, and camen to Yconye. 52 And the disciplis weren fillid with ioye and the Hooli Goost.

14 But it bifelde at Yconye, that thei entriden togidir in to the synagoge of Jewis, and spaken, so that ful greet multitude of Jewis and Grekis bileueden. 2 But the Jewis that weren vnbileueful, reiseden persecucioun, and stiriden to wraththe the soulis of hethene men ayens the britheren; but the Lord yaf soone pees. 3 Therfor thei dwelliden myche tyme, and diden tristili in the Lord, berynge witnessyng to the word of his grace, yyuyng signes and wondris to be maad bi the hondis of hem. 4 But the multitude of the citee was departid, and sum weren with the Jewis, and sum with the apostlis. 5 But whanne ther was maad `an asaute of the hethene men and the Jewis, with her princis, to turmenten and to stonen hem, 6 thei vndurstoden, and fledden togidere to the citees of Licaonye, and Listris, and Derben, and into al the cuntre aboute. 7 And thei prechiden there the gospel, and al the multitude was moued togider in the teching of hem. Poul and Barnabas dwelten at Listris. 8 And a man at Listris was sijk in the feet, and hadde sete crokid fro his modris wombe, which neuer hadde goen. 9 This herde Poul spekinge; and Poul biheld hym, and siy that he hadde feith, that he schulde be maad saaf, 10 and seide with a greet vois, Rise thou `vp riyt on thi feet. And he lippide, and walkide. 11 And the puple, whanne thei hadde seyn that that Poul dide, reiden her vois in Licaon tunge, and seiden, Goddis maad lijk to men ben comun down to vs. 12 And thei clepiden Barnabas Jubiter, and Poul Mercurie, for he was ledere of the word. 13 And the preest of Jubiter that was bifer the citee, brouyte boolis and crownes bifer the yatis, with puplis, and wolde haue maad sacrifice. 14 And whanne the apostlis Barnabas and Poul herden this, thei torenten her cootis; and thei skipten out among the puple, 15 and crieden, and seiden, Men, what don ye this thing? and we ben deedli men lijk you, and schewen to you, that ye be conuertid fro these veyn thingis to the lyuyng God, that maad heuene, and erthe, and the see, and alle thingis that ben in hem; 16 which in generaciouns passid suffride alle folkis to gon in to her owne weies. 17 And yit he lefte not hym silf with out witnessing in wel doynge, for he yaf reyns fro heuene, and times beringe fruyt, and fulfillde youre hertis with meete and gladnesse. 18 And thei seiynge these thingis, vnnethis swagiden the puple, that thei offriden not to hem. 19 But sum Jewis camen ouer fro Antioche and Iconye, and counseilden the puple, and stonyden Poul, and drowen out of the citee, and gessiden that he was deed. 20 But whanne disciplis weren comun aboute him, he roos, and wente in to the citee; and in the dai suyng he wente forth with Barnabas in to Derben. 21 And whanne thei hadden prechid to the ilk citee, and tauyte manye, thei turneden ayen to Listris, and Iconye, and to Antioche; confermyng the soulis of disciplis, 22 and monestinge, that thei schulden dwelle in feith, and seiden, That bi many tribulaciouns it bihoueth vs to entre in to the kingdom of heuenes. 23 And whanne thei hadden ordeined prestis to hem bi alle citees, and hadden preied with fastyngis, thei bitoken hem to the Lord, in whom thei bileueden. 24 And thei passiden Persidie, and camen to Pamfilie; 25 and thei spaken the word `of the Lord in Pergen, and camen down in to Italie. 26 And fro thennys thei wenten bi boot to Antiochie, fro whennus thei weren takun to the grace of God, in to the werk that thei filliden. 27 And whanne thei weren comun, and hadden gaderid the chirche, thei telden hou grete thingis God dide with hem, and that he hadde openyde to hethene men the dore of feith. 28 And thei dwelliden not a litil tyme with the disciplis.

15 And summe camen down fro Judee, and tauyten britheren, That but ye ben circumcidid after the lawe of Moises, ye moun not be maad saaf. 2 Therfor whanne ther was maad not a litil discencioun to Poul and Barnabas ayens hem, thei ordeyneden, that Poul and Barnabas, and summe othere of hem, schulden go vp to the apostlis and preestis in Jerusalem, on this questioun.

3 And so thei weren led forth of the chirche, and passiden bi Fenyce and Samarie; and thei telden the conuersacioun of hethene men, and thei maden greet ioie to alle the britheren. 4 And whanne thei camen to Jerusalem, thei weren resseyued of the chirche and of the apostlis, and of the eldre men, and telden, hou greet thingis God dide with hem. 5 But summe of the erise of Fariseis, that bileueden, risen vp, and seiden, That it bihoueth hem to be circumsidid, and to comaunde to kepe also the lawe of Moises. 6 And the apostlis and eldre men camen togidre, to se of `this word. 7 And whanne there was maad a greet sekyng herof, Petre roos, and seide to hem, Britheren, ye witen, that of elde daies in you God chees bi my mouth hethene, to here the word of the gospel, and to bileue; 8 and God, that knewe hertis, bar witnessing, and yaf to hem the Hooli Goost, as also to vs; 9 and no thing diuerside bitwixe vs and hem, `and clenside the hertis of hem bi feith. 10 Now thanne what tempten ye God, to putte a yok on the necke of the disciplis, which nether we, nether oure fadris miyten bere? 11 But bi the grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist we bileuen to be saued, as also thei. 12 And al the multitude helde pees, and herden Barnaban and Poul, tellinge hou grete signes and wondris God dide bi hem in hethene men. 13 And aftir that thei helden pees, James answeride, and seide, Britheren, here ye me. 14 Symount telde, hou God visitide, first to take of hethene men a puple to his name. 15 And the wordis of prophetis acorden to him, 16 as it is writun, Aftir this Y schal turne ayen, and bilde the tabernacle of Dauid, that felle down; and Y schal bilde ayen the cast down thingis of it, and Y schal reise it; 17 that other men seke the Lord, and alle folkis on which my name is clepid to helpe; the Lord doyng this thing, seith. 18 Fro the world, the werk of the Lord is knowun to the Lord. (aion g165) 19 For which thing Y deme hem that of hethene men ben conuertid to God, 20 to be not disesid, but to write to hem, that thei absteyne hem fro defoulingis of maumetis, and fro fornicacioun, and stranglid thingis, and blood. 21 For Moyses of elde tymes hath in alle citees hem that prechen him in synagogis, where bi ech sabat he is red. 22 Thanne it pleside to the apostlis, and to the eldre men, with al the chirche, to chees men of hem, and sende to Antioche, with Poul and Barnabas, Judas, that was named Barsabas, and Silas, the firste men among britheren; 23 and wroten bi the hondis of hem, Apostlis and eldre britheren to hem that ben at Antioche, and Sirie, and Silice, britheren of hethen men, greting.

 24 For we herden that summe wenten out fro vs, and trobliden you with wordis, and turneden vpsodoun youre soulis, to whiche men we comaundiden not, 25 it pleside to vs gaderid in to oon, to chese men, and sende to you, with oure most dereworthe Barnabas and Poul, 26 men that yauen her lyues for the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 27 Therfor we senten Judas and Silas, and thei schulen telle the same thingis to you bi wordis. 28 For it is seyn to the Hooly Goost and to vs, to putte to you no thing more of charge, than these nedeful thingis, 29 that ye absteyne you fro the offrid thingis of maumetis, and blood stranglid, and fornicacioun. Fro whiche ye kepinge you, schulen do wel. Fare ye wel. 30 Therfor thei weren let go, and camen doun to Antioche; and whanne the multitude was gaderid, thei token the epistle; 31 which whanne thei hadden red, thei ioyden on the coumfort. 32 And Judas and Silas and thei, for thei weren prophetis, coumfortiden britheren, and confermyden with ful many wordis. 33 But aftir that thei hadden be there a lytil while, thei weren let go of britheren with pees, to hem that hadden sent hem. 34 But it was seyn to Silas, to dwelle there; and Judas wente aloone to Jerusalem. 35 And Poul and Barnabas dwelten at Antioche, techinge and preching the word of the Lord, with othere manye. 36 But after summe daies, Poul seide to Barnabas, Turne we ayen, and visite britheren bi alle citees, in whiche we han prechid the word of the Lord, hou thei han hem. 37 And Barnabas wolde take with hym Joon, that was named Marcus. 38 But Poul preiede him, that he that departide fro hem fro Pamfilie, and wente not with hem in to the werk, schulde not be resseyued. 39 And dissencioun was maad, so that thei departiden a twynny. And Barnabas took Mark, and cam bi boot to Cipre. 40 And Poul chees Silas, and wente forth fro the britheren, and was bitakun to the grace of God. 41 And he wente bi Sirie and Silice, and confermyde the chirche, comaunding to kepe the heestis of apostlis and eldre men.

16 And he cam in to Derben and Listrum. And lo! a disciple was there, bi name Timothe, the sone of a Jewesse cristen, and of the fadir hethen. 2 And britheren that weren in Listris and Iconye, yeldiden good witnessing to hym. 3 And Poul wolde that this man schulde go forth with him, and he took, and circumsidide hym, for Jewis that weren in the places. For alle wisten, that his fadir was hethen. 4 Whanne thei passiden bi citees, thei bitoken to hem to kepe the techingis, that weren demyd of apostlis and eldre men, that weren at Jerusalem. 5 And the chirches weren confermed in feith, and encreseden in noumbre eche dai. 6 And thei passiden Frigie, and the cuntre of Galathi, and weren forbedun of the Hooli Goost to speke the word of God in Asie. 7 And whanne thei camen in to Mysie, thei assaieden to go in to Bithynye, and the spirit of Jhesu suffride not hem. 8 But whanne thei hadden passid bi Mysie, thei camen doun to Troade; 9 and a visioun `bi nyyt was schewid to Poul. But a man of Macedonye that stoode, preiede hym, and seide, Go thou in to Macedonye, and helpe vs. 10 And as he hadde sei the visioun, anon we souyten to go forth in to Macedonye, and weren maad certeyn, that God hadde clepid vs to preche to hem. 11 And we yeden bi schip fro Troade, and camen to Samatrachia with streiyt cours; and the dai suyng to Neapolis; 12 and fro thennus to Filippis, that is the firste part of Macedonye, the citee colonye. And we weren in this citee summe daies, and spaken togidere. 13 And in the dai of sabotis we wenten forth with out the yate bisidis the flood, where preier semyde to be; and we saten, and spaken to wymmen that camen togidere. 14 And a womman, Lidda bi name, a purpuresse of the cite of Tiatirens, worschippinge God, herde; whos herte the Lord openyde to yyue tente to these thingis, that weren seid of Poul. 15 And whanne sche was baptisid and hir hous, sche preyede, and seide, If ye han demyd that Y am feithful to the Lord, entre ye in to myn hous, and dwelle. 16 And sche constreynede vs. And it was don, whanne we yeden to preier, that a damysel that hadde a spirit of diuynacioun, mette vs, which yaf greet wynnyng to her lordis in dyuynynge. 17 This sude Poul and vs, and criede, and seide, These men ben seruauntis of the hiy God, that tellen to you the weie of helthe. 18 And this sche dide in many daies. And Poul sorewide, and turnede, and seide to the spirit, Y comaunde thee in the name of Jhesu Crist, that thou go out of hir. 19 And he wente out in the same our. And the lordis of hir siyen, that the hope of her wynnyng wente awei, and thei token Poul and Silas, and led den in to the `dom place, to the princis. 20 And thei brouyten hem to the magistratis, and seiden, These men disturblen oure citee, 21 for thei ben Jewis, and schewen a custom, which it is not leueful to vs to resseyue, nether do, sithen we ben Romyans. 22 And the puple `and magistratis runnen ayens hem, and when thei hadden to-rente the cootis of hem, thei comaundiden hem to be betun with yerdis. 23 And whanne thei hadden youun to hem many woundis, thei senten hem into prisoun, and comaundiden to the kepere, that he schulde kepe hem diligentli. 24 And whanne he hadde take sicke a precept, he putte hem into the ynnere prisoun, and streynede the feet of hem in a tre. 25 And at mydnyht Poul and Silas worschipide, and heriden God; and thei that weren in kepyng herden hem. 26 And sudenli a greet erthe mouyng was maad, so that the foundementis of the prisoun weren moued. And anoon alle the doris weren openyd, and the boondis of alle weren lousid. 27 And the kepere of the prisoun was awakid, and siy the yatis `of the prisoun openyd, and with a swerd drawun out he wolde haue slawe hym silf, and gesside that the men that weren boundun, hadden fled. 28 But Poul criede with a greet vois, and seide, Do thou noon harm to thi silf, for alle we ben here. 29 And he axide liyt, and entride, and tremblide, and felle down to Poul and to Silas at her feet. 30 And he brouyte hem with out forth, and seide, Lordis, what bihoueth me to do, that Y be maad saaf? 31 And thei seiden, Bileue thou in the Lord Jhesu, and thou schalt be saaf, and thin hous. 32 And thei spaken to hym the word of the Lord, with alle that weren in his hous. 33 And he took hem in the ilke our of the niyt, and waschide her woundis. And he was baptisid, and al his hous anoon. 34 And whanne he hadde led hem in to his hous, he settide to hem a boord. And he was glad with al his hous, and bileuede to God. 35 And whanne dai was come, the magistratis senten catchepollis, and seiden, Delyuere thou tho men. 36 And the kepere of the prisoun telde these wordis to Poul, That the magistratis han sent, that ye be delyuered; now therfor go ye out, and go ye in pees. 37 And Poul seide to hem, Thei senten vs men of Rome in to prisoun, that weren betun openli and vndampned, and now priueli thei bringen vs out; not so, but come thei hem silf, and delyuere vs out. 38 And the catchepollis telden these wordis to the magistratis; and thei dredden, for thei herden that thei weren Romainys. 39 And thei camen, and bisechiden hem, and thei brouyten hem out, and preieden, that thei schulden go out of the citee. 40 And thei yeden out of the prisoun, and entriden to Lidie. And whanne thei siyen britheren, thei coumfortiden hem, and yeden forth.

17 And whanne thei hadden passid bi Amfipolis and Appollonye, thei camen to Thessolonyk, where was a synagoge of Jewis. 2 And bi custom Poul entride to hem, and bi thre sabatis he declaride to hem of scripturis, 3 and openyde, and schewide that it bihofte Crist to suffre, and rise ayen fro deth, and that this is Jhesus Crist, whom Y telle to you. 4 And summe of hem bileueden, and weren ioyned to Poul and to Silas; and a greet multitude of hethene men worschipide God, and noble wymmen not a fewe. 5 But the Jewis hadden enuye, and token of the comyn puple summe yuele men, and whanne thei hadden maad a cumpenye, thei moueden the citee. And thei camen to Jasouns hous, and souyten hem to brynge forth among the puple. 6 And whanne thei founden hem not, thei drowen Jasoun and summe britheren to the princis of the citee, and crieden, That these it ben, that mouen the world, and hidir thei camen, 7 whiche Jason resseyuede. And these alle don ayens the maundementis of the emperour, and seien, that Jhesu is anothir king. 8 And thei moueden the puple, and the princis of the citee, herynge these thingis. 9 And whanne satisfaccioun was takun of Jason, and of othere, thei leten Poul and Silas go. 10 And anoon bi niyt britheren leten Silas go in to Beroan. And whanne thei camen thidur, thei entriden in to the synagoge of the Jewis. 11 But these weren the worthier of hem that ben at Thessolonik, whiche resseyueden the word with al desire, eche dai sekinge scripturis, if these thingis hadden hem so. 12 And manye of hem bileueden and of hethen wymmen onest and men not a fewe. 13 But whanne the Jewis in Tessalonyk hadden knowe, that also at Bero the word of God was prechid of Poul, thei camen thidir, mouynge and disturblynge the multitude. 14 And tho anoon britheren delyuerden Poul, that he schulde go to the see; but Sylas and Tymothe dwelten there. 15 And thei that ledden forth Poul, ledden hym to Atenes. And whanne thei hadden take maundement of him to Silas and to Tymothe, that ful hiyyngli thei schulden come to hym, thei wenten forth. 16 And while Poul abood hem at Atenys, his spirit was moued in him, for he saiȝ the citee youun to ydolatrie. 17 Therfor he disputide in the synagoge with the Jewis, and with men that worschipiden God, and in the dom place, by alle daies to hem that herden. 18 And summe Epeicureis, and Stoisens, and filosofris disputiden with hym. And summe seiden, What wole this sowere of wordis seie?

And othere seiden, He semeth to be a tellere of newe fendis; for he telde to hem Jhesu, and the ayenrisyng. 19 And thei token, and ledden hym to Ariopage, and seide, Moun we wite, what is this newe doctryne, that is seid of thee? 20 For thou bringist ynne summe newe thingis to oure eeris; therfor we wolen wite, what these thingis wolen be. 21 For alle men of Athenys and comlingis herborid yauen tent to noon other thing, but ether to seie, ethir to here, sum newe thing. 22 And Poul stood in the myddil of Ariopage, and seide, Men of Athenys, bi alle thingis Y se you as veyn worschipers. 23 For Y passide, and siy youre maumetis, and foond an auter, in which was writun, To the vnknowun God. Therfor which thing ye vnknowynge worschipen, this thing Y schew to you. 24 God that made the world and alle thingis that ben in it, this, for he is Lord of heuene and of erthe, dwellith not in templis maad with hoond, 25 nethir is worschipid bi mannus hoondis, nether hath nede of ony thing, for he yyueth lijf to alle men, and brethinge, and alle thingis; 26 and made of oon al the kinde of men to enhabite on al the face of the erthe, determynynge tymes ordeyned, and termes of the dwellynge of hem, 27 to seke God, if perauenture thei felen hym, ether fynden, thouy he be not fer fro eche of you. 28 For in hym we lyuen, and mouen, and ben. As also summe of youre poetis seiden, And we ben also the kynde of hym. 29 Therfor sithen we ben the kynde of God, we schulen not deme, that godli thing is lijk gold, and siluer, ethir stoon, ethir to grauyng of craft and thouyt of man. 30 For God dispisith the tymes of this vnkunnyng, and now schewith to men, that alle euery where doon penaunce; for that he hath ordeyned a dai, 31 in which he schal deme the world in equite, in a man in which he ordeynede, and yaf feith to alle men, and reise him fro deth. 32 And whanne thei hadden herd the ayenrysing of deed men, summe scorneden, and summe seiden, We schulen here thee eft of this thing. 33 So Poul wente out of the myddil of hem. 34 But summen drowen to hym, and bileueden. Among whiche Dynyse Aropagite was, and a womman, bi name Damaris, and othere men with hem.

18 Aftir these thingis Poul yede out of Atenes, and cam to Corinthie. 2 And he fonde a man, a Jewe, Aquila bi name, of Ponte bi kynde, that late cam from Ytalie, and Priscille, his wijf, for that Claudius comaundide alle Jewis to departe fro Rome; and he cam to hem. 3 And for he was of the same craft, he dwellide with hem, and wrouyte; and thei weren of roopmakeris craft. 4 And he disputide in the synagoge bi ech sabat, puttynge among the name of the Lord Jhesu; and he counselide Jewis and Grekis. 5 And whanne Silas and Tymothe camen fro Macedonye, Poul yaf bisynesse to the word, and witnesside to the Jewis, that Jhesu is Crist. 6 But whanne thei ayenseiden and blasfemyden, he schoke awei hise clothis, and seide to hem, Youre blood be on youre heed; Y schal be clene from hennus forth, and schal go to hethene men. 7 And he passide fro thennus, and entride in to the hous of a iust man, Tite bi name, that worschipide God, whos hous was ioyned to the synagoge. 8 And Crispe, prince of the synagoge, bileuede to the Lord, with al his hous. And many of the Corinthies herden, and bileueden, and weren cristened. 9 And the Lord seide bi nytt to Poul bi a visioun, Nyle thou drede, but speke, and be not stille; 10 for Y am with thee, and no man schal be put to thee to noye thee, for myche puple is to me in this citee. 11 And he dwellide there a yeer and sixe monethis, techinge among hem the word of God. 12 But whanne Gallion was proconsul of Acaye, Jewis risen vp with oo wille ayens Poul, and ledden hym to the doom, 13 and seiden, Ayens the lawe this counselith men to worschipe God. 14 And whanne Poul bigan to opene his mouth, Gallion seide to the Jewis, If there were ony wickid thing, ether yuel trespas, ye Jewis, riytli Y schulde suffre you; 15 but if questiouns ben of the word, and of names of youre lawe, bisee you silf; Y wole not be domesman of these thingis. 16 And he droof hem fro the doom place. 17 And alle token Sostenes, prince of the synagoge, and smoten him bifer the doom place; and no thing of these was to charge to Gallion. 18 And whanne Poul hadde abidun many daies, he seide fare wel to britheren, and bi boot cam to Syrie. And Priscille and Aquila camen with hym, whiche hadden clippid his heed in Tencris; for he had a vow. 19 And he cam to Effesie, and there he lefte hem; and he yede in to the synagoge, and disputide with Jewis. 20 And whanne thei preieden, that he schulde dwelle more time, 21 he consentide not, but he made `fare wel, and seide, Eft Y schal turne ayen to you, if God wole; and he wente forth fro Effesi. 22 And he cam doun to Cesarie, and he yede vp, and grette the chirche, and cam doun to Antiochie. 23 And whanne he hadde dwellide there sumwhat of time, he wente forth, walkinge bi rewe thorou the cuntrei of Galathie, and Frigie, and confermyde alle the disciplis. 24 But a Jewe, Apollo bi name, a man of Alisaundre of kinde, a man eloquent, cam to Effesie; and he was myyti in scripturis. 25 This man was tauyt the weie of the Lord, and was feruent in spirit, and spak, and tauyte diligentli tho thingis that weren of Jhesu, and knew oonli the baptym of Joon. 26 And this man bigan to do tristili in the synagoge. Whom whanne Priscille and Aquila herden, thei token hym, and more diligentli expowndeden to hym the weie of the Lord. 27 And whanne he wolde go to Acaie, britheren excitiden, and wroten to the disciplis, that thei schulden resseyue hym; which whanne he cam, yaf myche to hem that bileueden. 28 For he greetli ouercam Jewis, and schewide opynli bi scripturis, that Jhesu is Crist.

19 And it bifelle, whanne Apollo was at Corinthi, that Poul whanne he hadde go the hiyer coostis, he cam to Efesie, and foond summe of disciplis. 2 And he seide to hem, Whethir ye that bileuen han resseyued the Hooli Goost? And thei seiden to hym, But nether `han we herd, if the Hooli Goost is. 3 And he seide, Therfor in what thing ben ye baptisid? And thei seiden, In the baptym of Joon. 4 And Poul seide, Joon baptiside the puple in baptym of penance, and tauyte, that thei schulden bileue in hym that was to comynge `after hym, that is, in Jhesu. 5 Whanne thei herden these thingis, thei weren baptisid in the name of the Lord Jhesu. 6 And whanne Poul hadde leid on hem his hoondis, the Hooli Goost cam in hem, and thei spaken with langagis, and profecieden. 7 And alle weren almost twelue men. 8 And he yede in to the synagoge, and spak with trist thre monethis, disputinge and tretinge of the kingdom of God. 9 But whanne summe weren hardid, and bileueden not, and cursiden the weie of the Lord bifer the multitude, he yede awei fro hem, and departide the disciplis, and disputide in the scole of a myyti man eche dai. 10 This was doon bi twei yeeris, so that alle that dwelliden in Asie herden the word of the Lord, Jewis and hethene men. 11 And God dide vertues not smale bi the hoond of Poul, 12 so that on sijk men the sudaries weren borun fro his bodye, and sijknessis departiden fro hem, and wickid spiritis wenten out. 13 But also summe of the Jewis exorsisists yeden aboute, and assaieden to clepe the name of the Lord Jhesu Crist on hem that hadden yuele spiritis, and seiden, Y coniure you bi Jhesu, whom Poul prechith. 14 And ther weren seuene sones of a Jewe, Steuen, a prince of preestis, that diden this thing. 15 But the yuel spirit answeride, and seide to hem, Y knowe Jhesu, and Y knowe Poul; but who ben ye? 16 And the man in which was the worste deuel, lippide on hem, and hadde victorie of bothe, and was stronge ayens hem, that thei nakid and woundid fledden awei fro that hous. 17 And this thing was maad knowun to alle the Jewis and to hethene men, that dwelliden at Effesie; and drede felle doun on hem alle, and thei magnyfieden the name of the Lord Jhesu. 18 And many men bileueden, and camen, knowleching and tellynge her dedis. 19 And manye of them that sueden curiouse thingis, brouyten togidere bookis, and brenneden hem bifer alle men; and whanne the prices of tho weren acountid, thei founden monei of fifti thousynd pens; 20 so strongli the word of God wexide, and was confermyd. 21 And whanne these thingis weren fillid, Poul purposide in spirit, aftir that Macedony was passid and Acaie, to go to Jerusalem, and seide, For aftir that Y schal be there, it bihoueth me `to se also Rome. 22 And he sente in to Macedonye twey men, that mynystriden to hym, Tymothe, and Eraste, and he dwellide for a tyme in Asie. 23 And a greet troubling was maad in that dai, of the weie of the Lord. 24 For a man, Demetrie bi name, a worcher in siluer, makide siluer housis to Diane, and yaf to crafti men myche wynnyng; 25 which he clepide togidere `hem that weren suche maner werkmén, and seide, Men, ye witen that of this craft wynnyng is to vs; 26 and ye seen and heren, that this Poul counseilith and turneth awei myche puple, not oonli of Effesie, but almost of al Asie, and seith, that thei ben not goddis, that ben maad with hoondis. 27 And not oonli this part schal be in perel to vs, to come in to repreef, but also the temple of the greet Dian schal be acountid in to nouyt; yhe, and the maieste of hir schal bigynne to be destried, whom al Asie and the world worschipith. 28 Whanne these thingis weren herd, thei weren fillid with ire, and crieden, and seiden, Greet is the Dian of Effesians. 29 And the citee was fillid with confusioun, and thei maden an asaut with oon wille in to the teaatre, and tooken Gayus and Aristark, men of Macedonye, felawis of Poul. 30 And whanne Poul would haue entrid in to the peple, the disciplis suffriden not. 31 And also summe of the princis of Asie, that weren hise freendis, senten to him. and preieden, that he schulde not yyue hym silf in to the teatre. 32 And othere men crieden othir thing; for the chirche was confusid, and many wisten not for what cause thei weren come togidere. 33 But of the puple thei drowen awei oon Alisaundre, while Jewis puttiden hym forth. And Alisaundre axide with his hoond silence, and wolde yelde a resoun to the puple. 34 And as thei knewen that he was a Jew, o vois of alle men was maad, crynge as bi tweyn ouris, Greet Dian of Effesians. 35 And whanne the scribe hadde ceessid the puple, he seide, Men of Effesie, what man is he, that knowith not, that the citee of Effesians is the worschipere of greet Dian, and of the child of Jubiter? 36 Therfor whanne it may not be ayenseid to these thingis, it behoueth you to be ceessid, and to do no thing folili; 37 for ye han brouyt these men, nethir sacrilegeris, nethir blasfemynge youre goddesse. 38 That if Demetrie, and the werk men that ben with hym, han cause ayens ony man, there ben courtis, and domes, and iugis; accusen thei eche other. 39 If ye seken ouyt of ony othir thing, it may be assoylid in the lawful chirche. 40 For whi we ben in perel to be repreuyd of this daies dissencioun, sithen no man is gilty, of whom we moun yelde resoun of this rennyng togidre. 41 And whanne he hadde seid this thing, he lete the puple go.

20 And aftir the noise ceesside, Poul clepide the disciplis, and monestide hem, and seide fare wel; and he wente forth, to go in to Macedonye. 2 And whanne he hadde walkid bi tho coostis, and hadde monestid hem bi many wordis, he cam to Greece. 3 Where whanne he hadde be thre monethis, the Jewis leiden aspies for hym, that was to saile in to Sirie; and he hadde counsel to turne ayen bi Macedonye. 4 And Sosipater of Pirri Boroense folowide hym; of Thessolonycenses, Astirak, and Secoundus, and Gayus Derbeus, and Tymothe; and Asians, Titicus and Trofimus. 5 These for thei wenten bifore, aboden vs at Troade. 6 For we schippiden aftir the daies of therf looues fro Filippis, and cam to hem at Troade in fyue daies, where we dwelten seuene daies. 7 And in the first dai of the woke, whanne we camen to breke breed, Poul disputide with hem, and schulde go forth in the morew; 8 and he drow along the sermoun til in to mydnyyt. And many laumpes weren in the soler, where we weren gaderyd togidir. 9 And a yong man, Euticus bi name, sat on the wyndowe, whanne he was fallun in to an heuy sleep, while Poul disputide long, al slepyng he felle down fro the thridde stage; and he was takun vp, and was brouyt deed. 10 To whom whanne Poul cam down, he lay on hym, and biclippide, and seide, Nyle ye be troblid; for his soule is in hym. 11 And he wente vp, and brak breed, and eete, and spak ynowy vnto the dai; and so he wente forth. 12 And thei brouyten the childe alyue, and thei weren coumfortid greetli. 13 And we wenten vp in to a schip, and schippiden in to Asson, to take Poul fro thennus; for so he hadde disposid to make iourney bi loond. 14 And whanne he foond vs in Asson, we token hym, and camen to Mitilene. 15 And fro thennus we schippiden in the dai suyng, and we camen ayens Chyum, and another dai we hauenyden at Samum, and in the dai suyng we camen to Mylete. 16 And Poul purposide to schip ouer to Efesi, lest ony tariyng were maad to hym in Asie; for he hiyede, if it were possible to hym, that he schulde be in the dai of Pentecost at Jerusalem. 17 Fro Mylete he sente to Effesi, and clepide the grettest men of birthe of the chirche. 18 And whanne thei camen to hym, and weren togidir, he seide to hem, Ye witen fro the firste dai, in which Y cam in to Asie, hou with you bi eche tyme Y was, 19 seruyng to the Lord with al mekenesse, and mildnesse, and teeris, and temptaciouns, that felden to me of aspiyngis of Jewis; 20 hou Y withdrowe not of profitable thingis to you, that Y telde not to you, and tauyte you opynli, and bi housis; 21 and Y witnesside to Jewis and to hethene men penaunce in to God, and feith in to oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 22 And now lo! Y am boundun in spirit, and go in to Jerusalem; and Y knowe not what thingis schulen come to me in it, 23 but that the Hooli Goost `bi alle citees witnessith to me, and seith, that boondis and tribulaciouns at Jerusalem abiden me. 24 But Y drede no thing of these, nether Y make my lijf precioussere than my silf, so that Y end my cours, and the mynysterie of the word, which Y resseyuede of the Lord Jhesu, to witnessse the gospel of the grace of God. 25 And `now lo! Y woot, that ye schulen no more se my face, alle ye bi whiche Y passide, prechyng the kingdom of God. 26 Wherfor Y witnesse to you this day, that Y am cleen of the blood of alle men. 27 For Y fley not away, that Y telde not to you al the counsel of God. 28 Take ye tente to you, and to al the flocke, in which the Hooli Goost hath set you bischops, to reule the chirche of God, which he purchaside with his blood. 29 Y woot, that aftir my departyng, rauyschinge wolues schulen entre in to you, `and spare not the flock; 30 and men spekinge schrewid thingis schulen rise of you silf, that thei leden awei disciplis aftir hem. 31 For which thing wake ye, holdinge in mynde that bi thre yeer nyyt and dai Y ceesside not with teeris monestinge ech of you. 32 And now Y bitake you to God and to the word of his grace, that is myyti to edifie and yyue eritage in alle that ben maad hooli. 33 And of no man Y coueide siluer, and gold, ether cloth, as you silf witen; 34 for to tho thingis that weren nedeful to me, and to these that ben with me, these hoondis mynystriden. 35 Alle these thingis Y schewide to you, for so it bihoueth men traueling to resseyue sike men, and to haue mynde of the `word of the Lord Jhesu; for he seide, It is more blesful to yyue, than to resseyue. 36 And whanne he hadde seid these thingis, he knelide, and he preiede with alle hem. 37 And greet weping of alle men was maad; and thei felden on the necke of Poul, and kissiden hym, 38 and sorewiden moost in the word that he seide, for thei schulen no more se his face. And thei ledden hym to the schip.

21 And whanne it was don, that we schulden seile, and weren passid awei fro hem, with streiyt cours we camen to Choum, and the day suyng to Rodis, and fro thennus to Patiram, and fro thennus to Myram. 2 And whanne we founden a schip passinge ouer to Fenyce, we wenten vp in to it, and sailden forth. 3 And whanne we apperiden to Cipre, we leften it at the left half, and seiliden in to Sirie, and camen to Tire. For there the schip schulde be vnchargid. 4 And whanne we foundun disciplis, we dwelliden there seuene daies; whiche seiden bi spirit to Poul, that he schulde not go vp to Jerusalem. 5 And whanne the daies weren fillid, we yeden forth, and alle men with wyues and children ledden forth vs with outen the citee; and we kneliden in the see brenke, and we preieden. 6 And whanne we hadden maad fare wel togidre, we wenten vp into the schip; and thei turneden ayen in to her owne places. 7 And whanne the schip sailinge was fillid fro Tire, we camen down to Tolamayda, and whanne we hadden gret wel the britheren, we dwelliden o dai at hem. 8 And another dai we yeden forth, and camen to Cesarie. And we entriden in to the hous of Filip euangelist, that was oon of the seuene, and dwelliden at hym. 9 And to hym weren foure douytris, virgyns, that profecieden. 10 And whanne we dwelliden there bi summe daies, a profete, Agabus bi name, cam ouer fro Judee. 11 This whanne he cam to vs, took the girdil of Poul, and boond togidere hise feet and hoondis, and seide, The Hooli Goost seith these thingis, Thus Jewis schulen bynde in Jerusalem the man, whos is this girdil; and thei schulen bytake into hethene mennys hoondis. 12 Which thing whanne we herden, we preieden, and thei that weren of that place, that he schulde not go vp to Jerusalem. 13 Thanne Poul answeride, and seide, What doen ye, wepinge and turmentinge myn herte? For Y am redi, not oonli to be boundun, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jhesu. 14 And whanne we myyten not counseile hym, we weren stille, and seiden, The wille of the Lord be don. 15 And aftir these daies we weren maad redi, and wenten vp to Jerusalem. 16 And summe of the disciplis camen with vs fro Cesarie, and ledden with hem a man, Jason of Cipre, an elde disciple, at whom we schulden be herborid. 17 And whanne we camen to Jerusalem, britheren resseyueden vs wilfulli. 18 And in the dai suyng Poul entride with vs to James, and alle the eldre men weren gaderid. 19 Whiche whanne he hadde gret, he telde bi alle thingis, what God hadde doon in hethene men, bi the mynysterie of hym. 20 And whanne thei herden, thei magnyfiden God, and seiden to hym, Brothir, thou seest how many thousyndis ben in Jewis, that han bileued to God, and alle ben loueis of the lawe. 21 And thei herden of thee, that thou techist departing fro Moises of thilk Jewis that ben bi hethene men, that seien, that thei owen not circumcide her sonen, nether owen to entre by custom. 22 Therfor what is? It bihoueth that the multitude come togidre; for thei schulen here, that thou art come. 23 Therfor do thou this thing, that we seien to thee. Ther ben to vs foure men, that han a vow on hem. 24 Take thou these men, and halowe thee with hem; honge on hem, that thei schawe her heedis; and that alle men wite, that the thingis that thei herden of thee ben false, but that thou walkist, and thi silf kepist the lawe. 25 But of these that bileueden of hethene men, we writen, demynge that thei absteyne hem fro thing offrid to idols, and fro blood, and also fro stranglid thing, and fro fornicacioun. 26 Thanne Poul took the men, and in the dai suyng he was purified with hem, and entride in to the temple, and schewide the filling of daies of purifying, til the offring was offrid for ech of hem. 27 And whanne seuene daies weren endid, the Jewis that weren of Asie, whanne thei saien him in the temple, stiriden al the puple, and leyden hondis on hym, 28 and crieden, Men of Israel, helpe ye vs. This is the man, that ayens the puple and the lawe and this place techith euery where alle men, more ouer and hath led hethene men in to the temple, and hath defoulid this hooli place. 29 For thei seyen Trofimus of Effesi in the citee with hym, whom thei gessiden that Poul hadde brouyt in to the temple. 30 And al the citee was moued, and a rennyng togider of the puple was maad. And thei token Poul, and drowen him out of the temple; and anoon the yatis weren closid. 31 And whanne thei souyten to sle hym, it was teld to the tribune of the company of knyytis, that al Jerusalem is confoundid. 32 Which anoon took knyytis, and centuriens, and ran to hem. And whanne thei hadden seen the tribune, and the knyytis, thei ceessiden to smyte Poul. 33 Thanne the tribune cam, and cauhte hym, and comaundide, that he were boundun with twei cheynes; and axide, who he was, and what he hadde don. 34 But othere crieden other thing among the puple. And whanne he miyte `knowe no certeyn thing for the noise, he comaundide hym to be led in to the castels. 35 And whanne Poul cam to the grees, it bifel that he was borun of kniytis, for strengthe of the puple. 36 For the multitude of the puple sude hym, and criede, Take hym awei. 37 And whanne Poul bigan to be led in to the castels, he seide to the tribune, Whether it is leueful `to me, to speke ony thing to thee? 38 And he seide, Kanst thou Greek? Whether thou art not the Egipcian, which bifor these daies mouedist a noise, and leddist out in to desert foure thousynde of men, mensleeris? 39 And Poul seide to hym, For Y am a Jew, of Tharse of Cilicie, a citeseyn, which citee is not vnknowun. And Y preye thee, suffre me to speke to the puple. 40 And whanne he suffride, Poul stood in the grees, and bikenede with the hoond to the puple. And whanne a greet silence was maad, he spak in Ebrew tunge, and seide,

22 Britheren and fadris, here ye what resoun Y yelde now to you. 2 And whanne sum herden that in Ebrew tunge he spak to hem, thei yauen the more silence. 3 And he seide, Y am a man a Jew, borun at Tharse of Cilicie, nurischid and in this citee bisidis the feet of Gamaliel, tauyt bi the treuthe of fadris lawe, a louyere of the lawe, as also ye alle ben to dai. 4 And Y pursuede this weie til to the deth, byndynge and bitakinge `in to holdis men and wymmen, 5 as the prince of prestis yeldith witnessyng to me, and alle the grettest in birth. Of whom also Y took pistlis to britheren, and wente to Damask, to bring fro thennys men boundun in to Jerusalem, that thei schulden be peyned. 6 And it was don, while Y yede, and neiyede to Damask, at myddai sudeynli fro heuene a greet plente of liyt schoon aboute me. 7 And Y felde doun to the erthe, and herde a voice fro heuene, seiynge to me, Saul, Saul, what pursuest thou me? It is hard to thee to kike ayens the pricke. 8 And Y answeride, Who art thou, Lord? And he seide to me, Y am Jhesu of Nazareth, whom thou pursuest. 9 And thei that weren with me sien but the liyt, but thei herden not the vois of hym, that spak with me. 10 And Y seide, Lord, what schal Y do? And the Lord seide to me, Rise thou, and go to Damask; and there it schal be seid to thee, of alle thingis which it bihoueth thee to do. 11 And whanne Y saye not, for the clerete of that liyt, Y was led bi the hond of felowis, and Y cam to Damask. 12 And a man, Ananye, that bi the lawe hadde wytnessyng of alle Jewis dwellinge in Damask, 13 cam to me, and stood niy, and seide to me, Saul, brother, biholde. And Y in the same our biheelde in to hym. 14 And he seide, God of oure fadris hath bifer ordeyned thee, that thou schuldist knowe the wille of him, and schuldist se the riytful man, and here the vois of his mouth. 15 For thou schalt be his witnesse to alle men, of tho thingis that thou hast seyn and herd. 16 And now, what dwellist thou? Rise vp, and be baptisid, and waische awei thi synnes, bi the name of hym clepid to help. 17 And it was don to me, as Y turnede ayen in to Jerusalem, and preyede in the temple, that Y was maad in rauysching of soule, 18 and Y siy him seiynge to me, Hiye thou, and go out faste of Jerusalem, for thei schulen not resseyue thi witnessing of me. 19 And Y seide, Lord, thei witen, that Y was closing togidir `in to prisoun, and betinge bi synagogis hem that bileueden `in to thee. 20 And whanne the blood of Steuene, thi witnesse, was sched out, Y stood niy, and consentide, and kept the clothis of men that slowen hym. 21 And he seide to me, Go thou, for Y schal sende thee fer to naciouns. 22 And thei herden him til this word; and thei reiseden her vois, and seiden, Take awei fro the erthe siche a maner man; for it is not leueful, that he lyue. 23 And whanne thei crieden, and kesten awei her clothis, and threwen dust in to the eir, 24 the tribune comaundide hym to be led in to castels, and to be betun with scourgis, and to be turmentid, that he wiste, for what cause thei crieden so to him. 25 And whanne thei hadden boundun hym with cordis, Poul seide to a centurien stondinge niy to hym, Whether it is leueful to you, to scourge a Romain, and vndampned? 26 And whanne this thing was herd, the centurien wente to the tribune, and telde to hym, and seide, What art thou to doynge? for this man is a citeseyn of Rome. 27 And the tribune cam niy, and seide to hym, Seie thou to me, whether thou art a Romain? 28 And he seide, Yhe. And the tribune answeride, Y with myche summe gat this fredom. And Poul seide, And Y was borun a citeseyn of Rome. 29 Therfor anoon thei that schulden haue turmentid hym, departiden awei fro hym. And the tribune dredde, afir that he wiste, that he was a citeseyn of Rome, and for he hadde boundun hym. 30 But in the dai suyng he wolde wite more diligentli, for what cause he were accusid of the Jewis, and vnbounde hym, and comaundide prestis and al the counsel to come togidir. And he brouyte forth Poul, and sette hym among hem.

23 And Poul bihelde in to the counsel, and seide, Britheren, Y with al good conscience haue lyued bifore God, `til in to this dai. 2 And Anany, prince of prestis, comaundide to men that stoden nyy hym, that thei schulden smyte his mouth. 3 Thanne Poul seide to hym, Thou whitid wal, God smyte thee; thou sittist, and demest me bi the lawe, and ayens the law thou comaundist me to be smytun. 4 And thei that stoden niy, seiden, Cursist thou the hiyest prest of God? 5 And Poul seide, Britheren, Y wiste not, that he is prince of preestis; for it is writun, Thou schalt not curse the prince of thi puple. 6 But Poul wiste, that o parti was of Saduceis, and the othere of Fariseis; and he criede in the counsel, Britheren, Y am a Farisee, the sone of Farisees; Y am demyd of the hope and of the ayen rising of deed men. 7 And whanne he hadde seid this thing, dissencioun was maad bitwixe the Fariseis and the Saduceis, and the multitude was departid. 8 For Saduceis seien, that no `rysing ayen of deed men is, nether aungel, nether spirit; but Fariseis knowlechen euer eithir. 9 And a greet cry was maad. And summe of Farisees rosen vp, and foyten, seiynge, We fynden no thing of yuel in this man; what if a spirit, ether an aungel spak to hym? 10 And whanne greet discencioun was maad, the tribune dredde, lest Poul schulde be to-drawun of hem; and he comaundide knyytis to go doun, and to take hym fro the myddil of hem, and to lede hym in to castels. 11 And in the niyt suyng the Lord stood niy to hym, and seide, Be thou stidfast; for as thou hast witnessid of me in Jerusalem, so it bihoueth thee to wittenesse also at Rome. 12 And whanne the dai was come, summe of the Jewis gaderiden hem, and maden `avow, and seiden, that thei schulden nether eete, ne drinke, til thei slowen Poul. 13 And there weren mo than fourti men, that maden this sweryng togider. 14 And thei wenten to the princis of prestis, and eldre men, and seiden, With deuocioun we han a vowid, that we schulen not taste ony thing, til we sleen Poul. 15 Now therfor make ye knowun to the tribune, with the counsel, that he bringe hym forth to you, as if ye schulden knowe sum thing more certeynli of hym; and we ben redi to sle hym, bifer that he come. 16 And whanne the sone of Poulis sister hadde herd the aspies, he cam, and entride in to the castels, and telde to Poul. 17 And Poul clepide to hym oon of the centuriens, and seide, Lede this yonge man to the tribune, for he hath sum thing to schewe to hym. 18 And he took hym, and ledde to the tribune, and seide, Poul, that is boundun, preide me to lede to thee this yonge man, that hath sum thing to speke to thee. 19 And the tribune took his hoond, and wente with hym asidis half, and axide hym, What thing is it, that thou hast to schewe to me? 20 And he seide, The Jewis ben acordid to preye thee, that to morewe thou brynge forth Poul in to the counsel, as if thei schulden enquire sum thing more certeynli of hym. 21 But bileue thou not to hem; for mo than fourti men of hem asprien hym, which han a vowid, that thei schulen not eete nether drynke, til thei sleen hym; and now thei ben redi, abidinge thi biheest. 22 Therfor the tribune left the yonge man, and comaundide, that he schulde speke to no man, that he hadde maad these thingis knowun to hym. 23 And he clepide togidre twei centuriens, and he seide to hem, Make ye redi twei hundrid knyytis, that thei go to Cesarie, and horse men seuenti, and spere men twey hundrid, fro the thridde our of the nytt. 24 And make ye redy an hors, for Poul to ride on, to lede hym saaf to Felix, the presydent. 25 For the tribune dredde, lest the Jewis wolden take hym bi the weie, and sle hym, and aftirward he miyte be chalengid, as he hadde take money. 26 And wroot hym `a pistle, conteynynge these thingis. Claudius Lias to the beste Felix, president, heelthe. 27 This man that was take of the Jewis, and bigan to be slayn, Y cam vpon hem with myn oost, and delyuerede hym fro hem, whanne Y knewe that he was a Romain. 28 And Y wolde wite the cause, which thei puttiden ayens hym; and Y ledde hym to the counsel of hem. 29 And Y foond, that he was accusid of questiouns of her lawe, but he hadde no cryme worthi the deth, ethir boondis. 30 And whanne it was teeld me of the aspies, that thei arayden for hym, Y sente hym to thee, and Y warnede also the accuseris, that thei seie at thee. Fare wel. 31 And so the knyytis, as thei weren comaundid, token Poul, and ledde hym bi nytt into Antipatriden. 32 And in the dai suyng, whanne the horsmen weren left, that schulden go with hym, thei turneden ayen to the castels. 33 And whanne thei camen to Cesarie, thei token the pistle to the president, and thei setten also Poul byfore him. 34 And whanne he hadde red, and axide, of what prouynce he was, and knewe that he was of Cilicie, 35 Y schal here thee, he seide, whanne thin accuseris comen. And he comaundide hym to be kept in the moot halle of Eroude.

24 And aftir fyue daies, Ananye, prince of preestis, cam doun with summe eldere men, and Terculle, a feir speker, which wenten to the president ayens Poul. 2 And whanne Poul was somened, Terculle bigan to accuse hym, and seide, Whanne in myche pees we doon bi thee, and many thingis ben amendid bi thi wisdom, euere more and euery where, 3 thou best Felix, we han resseyued with al doying of thankings. 4 But lest Y tarie thee lengere, Y preie thee, schortly here vs for thi mekenesse. 5 We han foundun this wickid man stiryng dissencioun to alle Jewis in al the world, and auctour of dissencioun of the secte of Nazarenus; and he also enforside to defoule the temple; 6 whom also we token, and wolden deme, after oure lawe. 7 But Lisias, the trybune, cam with greet strengthe aboue, and delyuerede hym fro oure hoondis; 8 and comaundide hise accuseris to come to thee, of whom thou demyng, maist knowe of alle these thingis, of whiche we accusen hym. 9 And Jewis putten to, and seiden, that these thingis hadden hem so. 10 And Poul answeride, whanne the president grauntide hym to seie, Of mony yeeris Y knowe thee, that thou art domesman `to this folk, and Y schal do ynowy for me with good resoun. 11 For thou maist knowe, for to me ben not more than twelue daies, sithen Y cam vp to worschipe in Jerusalem; 12 and nether in the temple thei founden me disputinge with ony man, nether makynge concours of puple, nether in synagogis, nether in citee; 13 nether thei moun preue to thee, of the whiche thingis thei now accusen me. 14 But Y knowleche to thee this thing, that aftir the secte which thei seien eresie, so Y serue to God the fadir, `and Y bileue to alle thingis that ben writun in the lawe and profetis; and Y haue hope in God, 15 whiche also thei hem silf abiden, the ayenrisyng `to comynge of iust men and wickid. 16 In this thing Y studie with outen hirtyng, to haue concience to God, and to men euermore. 17 But after many yeeris, Y cam to do almes dedis to my folc, and offryngis, and auowis; 18 in whiche thei founden me purified in the temple, not with company, nether with noise. And thei cauynen me, and thei crieden, and seiden, Take awei oure enemye. 19 And summe Jewis of Asie, whiche it behofte to be now present at thee, and accuse, if thei hadden ony thing ayens me, 20 ether these hem silf seie, if thei founden in me ony thing of wickidnesse, sithen Y stonde `in the counsel, 21 but oneli of this vois, by which Y criede stondynge among hem, For of the ayenrisyng of deed men Y am demyd this dai of you. 22 Sothely Felix delayede hem, and knewe moost certeynli of the weie, and seide, Whanne Lisias, the tribune, schal come down, Y schal here you. 23 And he comaundide to a centurien to kepe hym, and that he hadde reste, nethir to forbede ony man to mynystre of his owne thingis to him. 24 And after summe dayes Felix cam, with Drussille his wijf, that was a Jewesse, and clepide Poul, and herde of him the feith that is in Crist Jhesu. 25 And while he disputide of riytwisnesse, and chastite, and of dom to comynge, Felix was maad tremblinge, and answerde, That perteneeth now, go; but in tyme couenable Y schal clepe thee. 26 Also he hopide, that money schulde be youun to hym of Poul; for which thing eft he clepide hym, and spak with hym. 27 And whanne twei yeeris weren fillid, Felix took a successoure, Porcius Festus; and Felix wolde yyue grace to Jewis, and lefte Poul boundun.

25 Therfor whanne Festus cam in to the prouynce, aftir the thridde dai he wente vp to Jerusalem fro Cesarie. 2 And the princis of prestis, and the worthieste of the Jewis wenten to hym ayens Poul, and preieden hym, 3 and axiden grace ayens hym, that he schulde comaunde hym to be led to Jerusalem; and thei settiden aspies to sle hym in the weie. 4 But Festus answerde, that Poul schulde be kept in Cesarie; sotheli that he hym silf schulde procede more ausili. Therfor he seide, Thei that in you ben myyti, 5 come down togidere; and if ony crime is in the man, accuse thei hym. 6 And he dwellede among hem no more than eiye ether ten daies, and cam down to Cesarie; and the tother dai he sat for domesman, and comaundide Poul to be brouyt. 7 And whanne he was brouyt forth, Jewis stoden aboute hym, whiche camen down fro Jerusalem, puttynge ayens hym many and greuouse causis, whiche thei miyten not preue. 8 For Poul yeldide resoun in alle thingis, That nether ayens the lawe of Jewis, nether ayens the temple, nether ayens the emperoure, Y synnede ony thing. 9 But Festus wolde do grace to the Jewis, and answeride to Poul, and seide, Wolt thou gon vp to Jerusalem, and there be demyd of these thingis bfore me? 10 And Poul seide, At the domplace of the emperour Y stonde, where it bihoueth me to be demed. Y haue not noied the Jewis, as thou knowist wel. 11 For if Y haue noyed, ether don ony thing worthi deth, Y forsake not to die; but if no thing of tho is, that thei accusen me, no man may yyue me to hem. Y appele to the emperour. 12 Thanne Festus spak with the counsel, and answerde, To the emperoure thou hast appellid, to the emperoure thou schalt go. 13 And whanne summe daies weren passid, Agrippa kyng, and Beronyce camen down to Cesarie, to welcome

Festus. 14 And whanne thei dwelliden there many daies, Festus schewide to the king of Poul, and seide, A man is left boundun of Felix, 15 of which, whanne Y was at Jerusalem, princis of preestis and the eldre men of Jewis camen to me, and axiden dampnacioun ayens hym. 16 To whiche Y answeride, That it is not custom to Romainys, to dampne ony man, bfore that he that is accusid haue hise accuseris present, and take place of defending, to putte awei the crymes, that ben putte ayens hym. 17 Therfor whanne thei camen togidere hidir, withouten ony delaye, in the dai suyng Y sat for domesman, and comaundide the man to be brouyt. 18 And whanne hise accuseris stoden, thei seiden no cause, of whiche thingis Y hadde suspicioun of yuel. 19 But thei hadden ayens hym summe questiouns of her veyn worschiping, and of oon Jhesu deed, whom Poul affermyde to lyue. 20 And Y doutide of siche maner questioun, and seide, Whether he wolde go to Jerusalem, and ther be demyd of these thingis? 21 But for Poul appelleide, that he schulde be kept to the knowing of the emperoure, Y comaundide him to be kept, til Y sende hym to the emperoure. 22 And Agrippa seide to Festus, Y my silf wolde here the man. And he seide, To morew thou schalt here hym. 23 And on the tother day, whanne Agrippa and Beronyce camen with greet desire, and entriden in to the auditorie, with tribunes and the principal men of the citee, whanne Festus bad, Poul was brouyt. 24 And Festus seide, King Agrippa, and alle men that ben with vs, ye seen this man, of which al the multitude of Jewis preyede me at Jerusalem, and axide, and criede, that he schulde lyue no lenger. 25 But Y foond, that he hadde don no thing worthi of deth; and Y deme to sende hym to the emperoure, for he appelleide this thing. 26 Of which man Y haue not certeyne, what thing Y schal write to the lord. For which thing Y brouyte hym to you, and moost to thee, thou king Agrippa, that whanne axing is maad, Y haue what Y schal write. 27 For it is seyn to me with out resoun, to sende a boundun man, and not to signifie the cause of hym.

26 And Agrippa seide to Poul, It is suffrid to thee, to speke for thi silf. Thanne Poul helde forth the hoond, and bigan to yelde resoun. 2 Of alle thingis, in whiche Y am accusid of the Jewis, thou king Agrippa, Y gesse me blessid at thee, whanne Y schal defende me this dai; 3 moost for thou knowist alle thingis that ben among Jewis, customes and questiouns. For which thing, Y biseche, here me pacientli. 4 For alle Jewis that bifer knewen me fro the bigynnyng, knewen my lijf fro yongthe; that fro the bigynnyng was in my folc in Jerusalem, 5 if thei wolen bere witnessing, that bi the moost certeyn sect of oure religioun, Y lyuede a Farisee. 6 And now for the hope of repromyscioun, that is maad to oure fadris of God, Y stonde suget in dom; 7 in which hope oure twelue lynagis seruyng niyt and dai hopen to come; of which hope, sir king, Y am accusid of the Jewis. 8 What vnbeleueful thing is demed at you, if God reisith deed men? 9 And sotheli Y gesside, that Y ouyte do many contrarie thingis ayens the name of Jhesu Nazarene. 10 Which thing also Y dide in Jerusalem, and Y encloside manye of the seyntis in prisoun, whanne Y hadde take powere of the princis of preestis. And whanne thei weren slayn, Y brouyte the sentence. 11 And bi alle synagogis ofte Y punyschide hem, and constreynede to blasfeme; and more Y wex wood ayens hem, and pursuede in to alien citees. 12 In whiche, the while Y wente to Damask, with power and suffring of princis of preestis, 13 at myddai, in the weie Y say, sir king, that fro heuene liyt schynede aboute me, passing the schynynge of the sunne, and aboute hem that weren togidir with me. 14 And whanne we alle hadden falle doun in to the erthe, Y herde a vois seiynge to me in Ebrew tunge, Saul, Saul, what pursuest thou me? it is hard to thee, to kicke ayens the pricke. 15 And Y seide, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord seide, Y am Jhesus, whom thou pursuest. 16 But rise vp, and stoonde on thi feet. For whi to this thing Y apperide to thee, that Y ordeyne thee mynystre and wittenesse of tho thingis that thou hast seyn, and of tho in whiche Y schal schewe to thee. 17 And Y schal delyuere thee fro puplis and folkis, to whiche now Y sende thee, 18 to opene the iyen of hem, that thei ben conuertid fro derknesse to liyt, and fro power of Sathnas to God, that thei take remyssion of synnes, and part among seyntis, bi feith that is in me. 19 Wherfor, sir kyng Agrippa, Y was not vnbileueful to the heuenli visioun; 20 but Y tolde to hem that been at Damask first, and at Jerusalem, and bi al the cuntre of Judee, and to hethene men, that thei schulden do penaunce, and be conuertid to God, and do worthi werkis of penaunce. 21 For this cause Jewis token me, whanne Y was in the temple, to sle me. 22 But Y was holpun bi the helpe of God in to this dai, and stonde, witnessinge to lesse and to more. And Y seye no thing ellis than whiche thingis the prophetis and Moises spaken that schulen come, 23 if Crist is to suffre, if he is the firste of the ayenrising of deed men, that schal schewe liyt to the puple and to hethene men. 24 Whanne he spak these thingis, and yeldide resoun, Festus seide with greet vois, Poul, thou maddist; many lettris turnen thee to woodnesse. 25 And Poul seide, Y madde not, thou beste Festus, but Y speke out the wordis of treuthe and of sobernesse. 26 For also the king, to whom Y speke stidfastli, woot of these thingis; for Y deme, that no thing of these is hid fro hym; for nether in a cornere was ouyt of these thingis don. 27 Bileuest thou, king Agrippa, `to prophetis? Y woot that thou bileuest. 28 And Agrippa seide to Poul, In litil thing thou counseilist me to be maad a cristen man. 29 And Poul seide, Y desire anentis God, bothe in litil and in greet, not oneli thee, but alle these that heren to dai, to be maad sich as Y am, outakun these boondis. 30 And the kyng roos vp, and the president, and Beronyce, and thei that saten niy to hem. 31 And whanne thei wenten awei, thei spaken togider, and seiden, That this man hath not don ony thing worthi deth, nether boondis. 32 And Agrippa seide to Festus, This man miyt be delyuerid, if he hadde not appellid to the emperour.

27 But as it was demed hym to schippe into Ytalie, thei bitoken Poul with othere kepers to a centurien, bi name Julius, of the cumpeny of knyytis of the emperoure. 2 And we wenten vp in to the schip of Adrymetis, and bigunnen to seile, and weren borun aboute the placis of Asie, while Aristark of Macedonye, Tessalonycence, dwellide stille with vs. 3 And in the dai suyng, we camen to Sydon; and Julius trectyde curteisli Poul, and suffride to go to frendis, and do his nedis. 4 And whanne we remouede fro thennus, we vndurseiliden to Cipre, for that wyndis weren contrarie. 5 And we seiliden in the see of Silicie and Pamfilie, and camen to Listris, that is Licie. 6 And there the centurien foond a schip of Alisaundre, seilinge in to Ytalie, and puttide vs ouer in to it. 7 And whanne in many daies we seilden slowli, and vnnethe camen ayens Guydum, for the winde lettide vs, we seiliden to Crete, bisidis Salomona. 8 And vnnethe we seilden bisidis, and camen into a place, that is clepid of good hauen, to whom the cite Tessala was niy. 9 And whanne miche time was passid, and whanne seiling thanne was not sikir, for that fasting was passid, Poul coumfortide hem, 10 and seide to hem, Men, Y se that seiling bigynneth to be with wrong and myche harm, not oonli of charge and of the schip, but also of oure lyues. 11 But the centurien bileuede more to the gouernour, and to the lord of the schip, thanne to these thingis that weren seid of Poul. 12 And whanne the hauene was not able to dwelle in wynter, ful many ordeyneden counsel to seile fro thennus, if on ony maner thei miyten come to Fenyce, to dwelle in wynter at the hauene of Crete, which biholdith to Affrik, and to Corum. 13 And whanne the south blew, thei gessiden hem to holde purpos; and whanne thei hadden removed fro Asson, thei seiliden to Crete. 14 And not affir miche, the wynde Tifonyk, that is clepid north eest, was ayens it. 15 And whanne the schip was rauyschid, and myyte not enforse ayens the wynde, whanne the schip was youun to the blowynges of the wynde, we weren borun with cours into an ile, 16 that is clepid Canda; and vnethe we miyten gete a litil boot. 17 And whanne this was takun vp, thei vsiden helpis, girdinge togidere the schippe; and dredden, lest thei schulden falle into sondi placis. And whanne the vessel was vndur set, so thei weren borun. 18 And for we weren throwun with strong tempest, in the dai suyng thei maden casting out. 19 And the thridde dai with her hoondis thei castiden awei the instrumentis of the schip. 20 And whanne the sunne nether the sterris weren seie bi many daies, and tempest not a litil neiyede, now al the hope of oure helthe was don awei. 21 And whanne myche fasting hadde be, thanne Poul stood in the myddil of hem, and seide, A! men, it bihofte, whanne ye herden me, not to haue take awei the schip fro Crete, and gete this wronge and casting out. 22 And now Y counsel you to be of good coumfort, for los of no persooone of you schal be, outakun of the schip. 23 For an aungel of God, whos Y am, and to whom Y serue, stood niy to me in this niyt, and seide, Poul, drede thou not; 24 it bihoueth thee to stonde bfore the emperour. And lo! God hath youun to thee alle that ben in the schip with thee. 25 For which thing, ye men, be ye of good coumfort; for Y bileue to my God, that so it schal be, as it is seid to me. 26 And it bihoueth vs to come into sum yle. 27 But aftirward that in the fourtenthe dai the niyt cam on vs seilinge in the stony see, aboute mydniyt the schipmen supposiden sum cuntre to appere to hem. 28 And thei kesten doun a plommet, and founden twenti pasis of depnesse. And aftir a litil thei weren departid fro thennus, and foundun fiftene pasis. 29 And thei dredden, lest we schulden haue fallun in to scharp placis; and fro the last parti of the schip thei senten foure ankeris, and desiriden that the dai hadde be come. 30 And whanne the schipmen souyten to fle fro the schip, whanne thei hadden sent a litil boot in to the see, vndur colour as thei schulden bigynne to stretche forth the ankeris fro the formere part of the schip, 31 Poul seide to the centurien and to the knyytis, But these dwellen in the schip, ye moun not be maad saaf. 32 Thanne knyytis kittiden awei the cordis of the litil boot, and suffriden it to falle awei. 33 And whanne the dai was come, Poul preiede alle men to take mete, and seide, The fourtenthe dai this dai ye `abiden, and dwellen fastinge, and taken no thing. 34 Wherfor Y preie you to take mete, for youre helthe; for of noon of you the heer of the heed schal perische.

35 And whanne he hadde seid these thingis, Poul took breed, and dide thankyngis to God in the siyt of alle men; and whanne he hadde brokun, he bigan to eete. 36 And alle weren maad of betere coumfort, and thei token mete. 37 And we weren alle men in the schip, two hundrid seuenti and sexe. 38 And thei weren fillid with mete, and dischargiden the schip, and castiden whete in to the see. 39 And whanne the dai was comun, thei knewen no lond; and thei bihelden an hauene that hadde a watir bank, in to which thei thouyten, if thei miyten, to bringe vp the schip. 40 And whanne thei hadden take vp the ankeris, thei bitoken hem to the see, and slakiden togidir the ioyntours of gouernails. And with a litil seil lift vp, bi blowyng of the wynde thei wenten to the bank. 41 And whanne we felden into a place of grauel gon al aboute with the see, thei hurliden the schip. And whanne the formere part was fitchid, it dwellide vnmouable, and the last part was brokun of strengthe of the see. 42 And counsel of the kniytis was, to sle men that weren in warde, lest ony schulde ascape, whanne he hadde swymmed out. 43 But the centurien wolde kepe Poul, and forbede it to be don. And he comaundide hem that miyte swymme, to go in to the see, and scape, and go out to the loond. 44 And thei baren summe othere on boordis, summe on tho thingis that weren of the schip. And so it was don, that alle men ascapiden to the lond.

28 And whanne we hadden ascapid, thanne we knewen that the ile was clepid Militene. And the hethene men diden to vs not litil curtesie. 2 And whanne a fier was kyndelid, thei refreschiden vs alle, for the reyn that cam, and the coold. 3 But whanne Poul hadde gederid `a quantite of kittingis of vines, and leide on the fier, an edder sche cam forth fro the heete, and took hym bi the hoond. 4 And whanne the hethene men of the ile siyen the beest hangynge in his hoond, thei seiden togidir, For this man is a manquellere; and whanne he scapide fro the see, Goddis veniaunce suffrith hym not to lyue in erthe. 5 But he schoke awei the beest in to the fier, and hadde noon harm. 6 And thei gessiden that he schulde be turned `in to swellyng, and falle doun sudenli, and die. But whanne thei abiden longe, and sien that no thing of yuel was don in him, thei turneden hem togider, and seiden, that he was God. 7 And in tho placis weren maners of the prince of the ile, Puplius bi name, which resseyuede vs bi thre daies benygnli, and foond vs. 8 And it bifel, that the fader of Puplius lai trauelid with fyueris and blodi flux. To whom Poul entride, and whanne he hadde preied, and leid his hondis on hym, he helide hym. 9 And whanne this thing was don, alle that in the ile hadden sjuknesses, camen, and weren heelid. 10 Which also onouriden vs in many worschipsis, and puttiden what thingis weren necessarie to vs, whanne we schippiden. 11 And after thre monethis we schippiden in a schip of Alisaundre, that hadde wyntid in the ile, to which was an excellent singne of Castours. 12 And whanne we camen to Siracusan, we dwelliden there thre daies. 13 Fro thennus we seiliden aboute, and camen to Regyum; and afir oo dai, while the south blew, in the secounde dai we camen to Puteolos. 14 Where whanne we founden britheren, we weren preied to dwelle there anentis hem seuene daies. And so we camen to Rome. 15 And fro thennus whanne britheren hadden herd, thei camen to vs to the cheping of Appius, and to the Thre tauernes. 16 And whanne Poul hadde seyn hem, he dide thankyngis to God, and took trist. And whanne `we camen to Rome, it was suffrid to Poul to dwelle bi hym silf, with a kniyt kepinge him. 17 And after the thridde dai, he clepide togidir the worthieste of the Jewis. And whanne thei camen, he seide to hem, Britheren, Y dide no thing ayens the puple ether custom of fadris, and Y was boundun at Jerusalem, and was bitakun in to the hondis of Romainys. 18 And whanne thei hadden axid of me, wolden haue delyuerid me, for that no cause of deth was in me. 19 But for Jewis ayenseiden, Y was constreyned to appele to the emperour; not as hauynge ony thing to accuse my puple. 20 Therfor for this cause Y preiede to se you, and speke to you; for for the hope of Israel Y am gird aboute with this chayne. 21 And thei seiden to hym, Nether we han resseyued lettris of thee fro Judee, nether ony of britheren comynge schewide, ether spak ony yuel thing of thee. 22 But we preyen to here of thee, what thingis thou felist; for of this sect it is knowun to vs, that euerywhere me ayenseith it. 23 And whanne thei hadden ordeined a dai to hym, many men camen to hym in to the in. To whiche he expownede, witnessinge the kyngdom of God, and counseilide hem of Jhesu, of the lawe of Moyses, and profetis, for the morewe til to euentid. 24 And summe bileueden to these thingis that weren seid of Poul, summe bileueden not. 25 And whanne thei weren not consentinge togidir, thei departiden. And Poul seide o word, For the Hooli Goost spak wel bi Ysaye, the profete, to oure fadris, 26 and seide, Go thou to this puple, and seie to hem, With eere ye schulen here, and ye schulen not vndirstonde; and ye seyngge schulen se, and ye schulen not biholde. 27 For the herte of this puple is greetli fattid, and with eeris thei herden heuyli, and thei closiden togider her iyen, lest perauenture thei se with iyen, and with eeris here, and bi herte vndurstonde, and be conuertid, and Y hele hem. 28 Therfor be it knowun to you, that this helthe of God is sent to hethen men, and thei schulen here. 29 And whanne he hadde seid these thingis, Jewis wenten out fro hym, and hadden myche questioun, ethir musyng, among hem silf. 30 And he dwellide ful twei yeer in his hirid place; and he resseyuede alle that entryden to hym, 31 and prechide the kingdom of God, and tauyte tho thingis that ben of the Lord Jhesu Crist, with al trist, with out forbedyng. Amen.

Romans

1 Poul, the seruaunt of Jhesu Crist, clepid an apostle, departid in to the gospel of God; 2 which he hadde bihote tofore bi his profetis in holi scripturis of his sone, 3 which is maad to hym of the seed of Daud bi the flesch, 4 and he was bifor ordeyned the sone of God in vertu, bi the spirit of halewyng of the ayenrisyng of deed men, of Jhesu Crist oure Lord, 5 bi whom we han resseyued grace and the office of apostle, to obeie to the feith in alle folkis for his name, 6 among whiche ye ben also clepid of Jhesu Crist, 7 to alle that ben at Rome, derlyngis of God, and clepid hooli, grace to you, and pees of God oure fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 8 First Y do thankyngis to my God, bi Jhesu Crist, for alle you, for youre feith is schewid in al the world. 9 For God is a witnesse to me, to whom Y serue in my spirit, in the gospel of his sone, 10 that with outen ceessyng Y make mynde of you euere in my preieris, and biseche, if in any maner sum tyme Y haue a spedi weie in the wille of God to come to you. 11 For Y desire to se you, to parten sumwhat of spiritual grace, 12 that ye be confermyd, that is, to be coumfortid togidere in you, bi feith that is bothe youre and myn togidere. 13 And, britheren, Y nyle, that ye vnknowun, that ofte Y purposide to come to you, and Y am lett to this tyme, that Y haue sum fruyt in you, as in othere folkis. 14 To Grekis and to barberyngis, to wise men and to vnwise men, 15 Y am dettour, so that that is in me is redi to preche the gospel also to you that ben at Rome. 16 For Y schame not the gospel, for it is the vertu of God in to heelte to ech man that bileueth, to the Jew first, and to the Greke. 17 For the riytwisnesse of God is schewid in it, of feith in to feith, 18 as it is writun, For a iust man lyueth of feith. For the wraththe of God is schewid fro heuene on al vnpite and wickidnesse of tho men, that withholden the treuthe of God in vnriytwisnes. 19 For that thing of God that is knowun, is schewid to hem, for God hath schewid to hem. 20 For the vnuysible thingis of hym, that ben vndurstondun, ben biholdun of the creature of the world, bi tho thingis that ben maad, yhe, and the euerlastynge vertu of hym and the godhed, so that thei mowe not be excusid. (aīdios g126) 21 For whanne thei hadden knowe God, thei glorifieden hym not as God, nether diden thankyngis; but thei vanyschiden in her thouyts, and the vnwise herte of hem was derkid. 22 For thei `seyngge that hem silf weren wise, thei weren maad foolis. 23 And thei chaungiden the glorie of `God vncorruptible in to the licnesse of an ymage of a deedli man, and of briddis, and of foure footid beestis, and of serpentis. 24 For which thing God bitook hem in to the desiris of her herte, in to vnclennesse, that thei punysche with wrongis her bodies in hem silf. 25 The whiche chaungiden the treuthe of God in to leesyng, and herieden and serueden a creature rathere than to the creatoure, that is blessid in to worldis of worldis. (aīōn g165) 26 Amen. Therfor God bitook hem in to passiouns of schenschiþe. For the wymmen of hem chaungiden the kyndli vss in to that vss that is ayens kynde. 27 Also the men forsoken the kyndli vss of womman, and brenneden in her desiris togidere, and men in to men wrouyten filthehed, and resseyueden in to hem silf the meede that bihofte of her errour. 28 And as thei preueden that thei hadden not God in knowyng, God bitook hem in to a repreuable wit, that thei do tho thingis that ben not couenable; that thei ben fulfillid with al wickidnesse, 29 malice, fornyacioun, coueitise, weiwardnesse, ful of enuye, mansleyngis, strijf, gile, yuel wille, preuy bachiteris, detractouris, 30 hateful to God, debateris, proude, and hiy ouer measure, fynderis of yuele thingis, not obeschyng to fadir and modir, 31 vnwise, vnmanerli, withouten loue, withouten boond of pees, with outen merci. 32 The whiche whanne thei hadden knowe the riytwisnesse of God, vndirstoden not, that thei that don siche thingis ben worthi the deth, not oneli thei that don tho thingis, but also thei that consenten to the doeris.

2 Wherfor thou art vnexcusable, ech man that demest, for in what thing thou demest anothir man, thou condempnest thi silf; for thou doist the same thingis whiche thou demest. 2 And we witen, that the doom of God is afir treuthe ayens hem, that don siche thingis. 3 But gessist thou, man, that demest hem that doen siche thingis, and thou doist tho thingis, that thou schalt ascape the doom of God? 4 Whether `dispisist thou the richessis of his goodnesse, and the pacience, and the long abidyng? Knowist thou not, that the benygnyte of God ledith thee to forthenkyng? 5 But afir thin hardnesse and vnrepentaunt herte, thou tresorist to thee wraththe in the dai of wraththe and of schewyng of the riytful doom of God, 6 that schal yelde to ech man afir his werkis; 7 sotheli to hem that ben bi pacience of good werk, glorie, and onour, and vncorruptioun, to hem that seken euerlastyng lif; (aiōnios g166) 8 but to hem that ben of strif, and that assenten not to treuthe, but bileuen to wickidnesse, wraththe and indignacioun, tribulacioun and angwisch, 9 in to ech soule of man that worchith yuel, to the Jew first, and to the Greke; 10 but glorie, and honour, and pees, to ech man that worchith good thing, to the Jew first, and to the Greke. 11 For accepçioun of persones is not anentis God. 12 For who euere han synned without the lawe, schulen perische withouten the lawe; and who euere han synned in the lawe, thei schulen be demyd bi the lawe. 13 For the hereris of lawe ben not iust anentis God, but the doeris of the lawe schulen be maad iust. 14 For whanne hethene men that han not lawe, don kyndli tho thingis that ben of the lawe, thei not hauynge suche manere lawe, ben lawe to hem silf, 15 that schewen the werk of the lawe writun in her hertis. For the conscience of hem yeldith to hem a witnessyng bytwixe hem silf of thouytis that ben accusyng or defendyng, 16 in the dai whanne God schal deme the priuy thingis of men aftir my gospel, bi Jhesu Crist. 17 But if thou art named a Jew, and restist in the lawe, and hast glorie in God, 18 and hast knowe his wille, and thou lerud bi lawe preuest the more profitable thingis, 19 and tristist thi silf to be a ledere of blynde men, the liyt of hem that ben in derknessis, 20 a techere of vnwise men, a maistir of yonge children, that hast the foorme of kunnyng and of treuthe in the lawe; 21 what thanne techist thou another, and techist not thi silf? Thou that prechist that me schal not stele, stelist? 22 Thou that techist that me schal `do no letcherie, doist letcherie? Thou that wlatist maumetis, doist sacrilegie? 23 Thou that hast glorie in the lawe, vnworschipist God bi brekyng of the lawe? 24 For the name of God is blasfemed bi you among hethene men, as is writun. 25 For circumcisioun profitith, if thou kepe the lawe; but if thou be a trespassour ayens the lawe, thi circumcisioun is maad prepucie.

26 Therfor if prepucie kepe the riytwisnessis of the lawe, whethir his prepucie schal not be arettid in to circumcisioun? 27 And the prepucie of kynde that fulfillith the lawe, schal deme thee, that bi lettre and circumcisioun art trespassour ayens the lawe. 28 For he that is in opene is not a Jew, nether it is circumcisioun that is openli in the fleisch; 29 but he that is a Jew in hid, and the circumcisioun of herte, in spirit, not bi the lettre, whos preisyng is not of men, but of God.

3 What thanne is more to a Jew, or what profit of circumcisioun?
2 Myche bi al wise; first, for the spekyngis of God `weren bitakun to hem. 3 And what if summe of hem bileueden not? Whethir the vnbileue of hem hath auoidid the feith of God? 4 God forbede. For God is sothefast, but ech man a liere; as it is writun, That thou be iustified in thi wordis, and ouercome, whanne thou art demed. 5 But if oure wickidnesse comende the riytwisnesse of God, what shulen we seie? Whether God is wickid, that bryngith in wraththe? 6 Aftir man Y seie. God forbede. Ellis hou schal God deme this world? 7 For if the treuthe of God hath aboundid in my lessyng, in to the glorie of hym, what yit am Y demed as a synner? 8 And not as we ben blasfemed, and as summen seien that we seien, Do we yuele thingis, that gode thingis come. Whos dampnacioun is iust. 9 What thanne? Passen we hem? Nay; for we han schewid bi skile, that alle bothe Jewis and Grekis ben vndur synne, 10 as it is writun, For ther is no man iust; 11 ther is no man vndurstondyng, nethir sekyng God. 12 Alle bowiden a wey, togidere thei ben maad vnprofitable; ther is noon that doith good thing, there is noon `til to oon. 13 The throte of hem is an opyn sepulcre; with her tungis thei diden gilefuli; the venym of snakis is vndur her lippis. 14 The mouth of whiche is ful of cursyng and bitternesse; 15 the feet of hem ben swifte to schede blood. 16 Sorewe and cursidnesse ben in the weies of hem, 17 and thei knewen not the weie of pees; 18 the drede of God is not bifor her iyen. 19 And we witen, that what euere thingis the lawe spekith, it spekith to hem that ben in the lawe, that ech mouth be stoppid, and ech world be maad suget to God. 20 For of the werkis of the lawe ech fleisch schal not be iustified bifer hym; for bi the lawe ther is knowyng of synne. 21 But now with outen the lawe the riytwisnesse of God is schewid, that is witnessid of the lawe and the profetis. 22 And the riytwisnesse of God is bi the feith of Jhesu Crist in to alle men and on alle men that bileuen in hym; for ther is no departyng. 23 For alle men synneden, and han nede to the glorie of God; 24 and ben iustified freli bi his grace, bi the ayenbiyng that is in `Crist Jhesu. 25 Whom God ordeynede foryyuer, bi feith in his blood, to the schewyng of his riytwisnesse, for remyssion of biforgoyng synnes, 26 in the beryng up of God, to the schewyng of his riytwisnesse in this tyme, that he be iust, and iustifynge hym that is of the feith of Jhesu Crist. 27 Where thanne is thi gloriyng? It is excludid. Bi what lawe? Of dedis doying? Nay, but by the lawe of feith. 28 For we demen a man to be iustified bi the feith, with outen werkis of the lawe. 29 Whethir of Jewis is God oneli? Whether he is not also of hethene men? Yhis, and of hethene men. 30 For `oon God is, that iustefieth circumcisioun bi feith, and prepucie bi feith. 31 Distruye we therfor the lawe bi the feith? God forbede; but we stablischen the lawe.

4 What thanne schulen we seie, that Abraham oure fadir aftir the flesch foond? 2 For if Abraham is iustified of werkis of the lawe, he hath glorie, but not anentis God. 3 For what seith the scripture? Abraham bileued to God, and it was arettid to him to riytwisnesse. 4 And to hym that worchith mede is not arettid bi grace, but bi dette. 5 Sotheli to hym that worchith not, but bileueth in to hym that iustefieth a wickid man, his feith is arettid to riytwisnesse, aftir the purpos of Goddis grace. 6 As Dauid seith the blessidnesse of a man, whom God acceptith, he yueth to hym riytwisnesse with outen werkis of the lawe, 7 Blessid ben thei, whos wickidnessis ben foryouun, and whos synnes ben hid.

 8 Blessid is that man, to whom God arettide not synne. 9 Thanne whether dwellith this blisfulnesse oneli in circumcisioun, or also in prepucie? For we seien, that the feith was arettid to Abraham to riytwisnesse. 10 Hou thanne was it arettid? in circumcisioun, or in prepucie? Not in circumcisioun, but in prepucie. 11 And he took a signe of circumcisioun, a tokenyng of riytwisnesse of the feith which is in prepucie, that he be fadir of alle men bileuyng bi prepucie, that it be arettid also to hem to riytwisnesse; 12 and that he be fadir of circumcisioun, not onely to hem that ben of circumcisioun, but also to hem that suen the steppis of the feith, which feith is in prepucie of oure fader Abraham. 13 For not bi the lawe is biheest to Abraham, or to his seed, that he schulde be eir of the world, but bi the riytwisnesse of feith. 14 For if thei that ben of the lawe, ben eiris, feith is distried, biheest is don away. 15 For the lawe worchith wraththe; for where is no lawe, there is no trespas, nethir is trespassyng. 16 Therfor riytfulnesse is of the feith, that bi grace biheeste be stable to ech seed, not to that seed oneli that is of the lawe, but to that that is of the feith of Abraham, which is fadir of vs alle. 17 As it is writun, For Y haue set thee fadir of many folkis, bifor God to whom thou hast bileued. Which God quykeneth deed men, and clepith tho thingis that ben not, as tho that ben. 18 Which Abraham ayens hope bileuede in to hope, that he schulde be maad fader of many folkis, as it was seid to hym, Thus schal thi seed be, as the steris of heuene, and as the grauel that is in the brenke of the see. 19 And he was not maad vnstidfast in the bileue, nether he biheelde his bodi thanne nyy deed, whanne he was almost of an hundrid yeer, ne the wombe of Sare nyy deed. 20 Also in the biheeste of God he doutide not with vntrist; but he was coumfortid in bileue, 21 yyuyng glorie to God, witynge moost fulli that what euere thingis God hath bihiyt, he is myyti also to do. 22 Therfor it was arettid to hym to riytwisnesse. 23 And it is not writun oneli for him, that it was arettid to hym to riytwisnesse, 24 but also for vs, to whiche it schal be arettid, that bileuen in him that reside oure Lord Jhesu Crist fro deeth. 25 Which was bitakun for oure synnes, and roos ayen for oure iustefiing.

5 Therfor we, iustified of feith, haue we pees at God bi oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 2 Bi whom we han niy goyng to, bi feith in to this grace, in which we stonden, and han glorie in the hope of the glorie of Goddis children. 3 And not this oneli, but also we glorien in tribulaciouns, witynge that tribulacioun worchith pacience, 4 and pacience preuyng, and preuyng hope. 5 And hope confoundith not, for the charite of God is spred abroad in oure hertis bi the Hooli Goost, that is youun to vs. 6 And while that we weren sijk afir the tyme, what diede Crist for wickid men? 7 For vnnethis dieth ony man for the iust man; and yit for a good man perauenture summan dar die. 8 But God comendith his charite in vs; for if whanne we weren yit synneris, 9 afir the tyme Crist was deed for vs, thanne myche more now we iustified in his blood, schulen be saaf fro wraththe bi him. 10 For if whanne we weren enemyes, we ben recounselid to God bi the deth of his sone, myche more we recounselid schulen be saaf in the lijf of hym. 11 And not oneli this, but also we glorien in God, bi oure Lord Jhesu Crist, bi whom we han resseyued now recounseling. 12 Therfor as bi o man synne entride in to this world, and bi synne deth, and so deth passide forth in to alle men, in which man alle men synned. 13 For `til to the lawe synne was in the world; but synne was not rettid, whanne lawe was not. 14 But deth regnyde from Adam `til to Moises, also in to hem that synned not in licesse of the trespassyng of Adam, the which is licesse of Crist to comynge. 15 But not as gilt, so the yifte; for if thorouy the gilt of oon manye ben deed, myche more the grace of God and the yifte in the grace of o man Jhesu Crist hath aboundid in to many men. 16 And not as bi o synne, so bi the yifte; for the doom of oon in to condempnacioun, but grace of many giltis in to iustificacioun. 17 For if in the gilt of oon deth regnede thorouy oon, myche more men that takyn plente of grace, and of yyuyng, and of riytwisnesse, schulen regne in lijf bi oon Jhesu Crist. 18 Therfor as bi the gilt of oon in to alle men in to condempnacioun, so bi the riytwisnesse of oon in to alle men in to iustifyng of lijf. 19 For as bi inobedience of o man manye ben maad synneris, so bi the obedience of oon manye schulen be iust. 20 And the lawe entride, that gilt schulde be plenteuouse; but where gilt was plenteuouse, 21 grace was more plenteuouse. That as synne regnede in to deth, so grace regne bi riytwisnesse in to euerlastynge lijf, bi `Crist Jhesu oure Lord. (aiōnios g166)

6 Therfor what schulen we seie? Schulen we dwelle in synne, that grace be plenteuouse? 2 God forbede. For hou schulen we that ben deed to synne, lyue yit ther ynne? 3 Whether, britheren, ye knowen not, that whiche euere we ben baptisid in Crist Jhesu, we ben baptisid in his deth? 4 For we ben togidere biried with hym bi bapty m `in to deth; that as Crist aroos fro deth bi the glorie of the fadir, so walke we in a newnesse of lijf. 5 For if we plauntid togidere ben maad to the licesse of his deth, also we schulen be of the licesse of his risyng ayen; 6 witynge this thing, that oure olde man is crucified togidere, that the bodi of synne be distrayed, that we serue no more to synne. 7 For he that is deed, is iustefied fro synne. 8 And if we ben deed with Crist, we bileuen that also we schulen lyue togidere with hym; 9 witynge for Crist, rysyng ayen fro deth, now dieth not, deeth schal no more haue lordschip on hym. 10 For that he was deed to synne, he was deed onys; but that he lyueth, he liueth to God. 11 So ye deme you silf to be deed to synne, but lyuyng to God in `Jhesu Crist oure Lord. 12 Therfor regne not synne in youre deedli bodi, that ye obeysche to hise couetyngis. 13 Nether yyue ye youre membris armuris of wickidnesse to synne, but yyue ye you silf to God, as thei that lyuen of deed men, and youre membris armuris of riytwisnesse to God. 14 For synne schal not haue lordschipe on you; for ye ben not vndur the lawe, but vndur grace. 15 What therfor? Schulen we do synne, for we ben not vndur the lawe, but vndur grace? 16 God forbede. Witen ye not, that to whom ye yyuen you seruauntis to obeie to, ye ben seruauntis of that thing, to which ye han obeschied, ether of synne to deth, ether of obedience to riytwisnesse? 17 But Y thanke God, that ye weren seruauntis of synne; but ye han obeschied of herte in to that fourme of techyng, in which ye ben bitakun. 18 And ye delyuered fro synne, ben maad seruauntis of riytwisnesse. 19 Y seie that thing that is of man, for the vnstidefastnesse of youre fleisch. But as ye han youun youre membris to serue to vnclennesse, and to wickidnesse `in to wickidnesse, so now yyue ye youre membris to serue to riytwisnesse in to hoolynesse. 20 For whanne ye weren seruauntis of synne, ye weren fre of riytfulnesse. 21 Therfor what fruyt hadden ye thanne in tho thingis, in whiche ye schamen now? For the ende of hem is deth. 22 But now ye delyuered fro synne, and maad seruauntis to God, han your fruyt in to holinesse, and the ende euerlastinge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 23 For the wagis of synne is deth; the grace of God is euerlastyng lijf in Crist Jhesu our Lord. (aiōnios g166)

7 Britheren, whethir ye knowun not; for Y speke to men that knownen the lawe; for the lawe hath lordschip in a man, as long tyme as it lyueth? 2 For that womman that is vndur an hosebonde, is boundun to the lawe, while the hosebonde lyueth; but if hir hosebonde is deed, sche is delyuered fro the lawe of the hosebonde. 3 Therfor sche schal be clepid auoutresse, if sche be with another man, while the hosebonde lyueth; but if hir hosebonde is deed, sche is delyuered fro the lawe of the hosebonde, that sche be not auoutresse, if sche be with another man. 4 And so, my britheren, ye ben maad deed to the lawe bi the bodi of Crist, that ye ben of another, that roos ayen fro deth, that ye bere fruyt to God. 5 For whanne we weren in fleisch, passiouns of synnes, that weren bi the lawe, wrouyten in oure membris, to bere fruyt to deth. 6 But now we ben vnboundun fro the lawe of deth, in which we weren holdun, so that we seruen in newnesse of spirit, and not in eldnesse of lettre. 7 What therfor schulen we seie? The lawe is synne? God forbede. But Y knew not synne, but bi lawe; for Y wiste not that coueitynge was synne, but for the lawe seide, Thou schalt not coueyte. 8 And thoruy occasioun takun, synne bi the maundement hath wrouyt in me al coueytise; for withouten the lawe, synne was deed. 9 And Y lyuede withouten the lawe sumtyme; but whanne the comaundement was comun, synne lyuede ayen. 10 But Y was deed, and this comaundement that was to lijf, was foundun to me, to be to deth. 11 For synne, thorouy occasioun takun bi the comaundement, disceyuede me, and bi that it slow me. 12 Therfor the lawe is hooli, and the comaundement is hooli, and iust, and good. 13 Is thanne that thing that is good, maad deth to me? God forbede. But synne, that it seme synne, thorouy good thing wrouyte deth to me, that me synne ouer maner thorouy the comaundement. 14 And we witen, that the lawe is spiritual; but Y am fleischli, seld vndur synne. 15 For Y vndurstonde not that that Y worche; for Y do not the good thing that Y wole, but Y do thilke yuel thing that Y hate. 16 And if Y do that thing that Y wole not, Y consente to the lawe, that it is good. 17 But now Y worche not it now, but the synne that dwellith in me. 18 But and Y woot, that in me, that is, in my fleisch, dwellith no good; for wille lieth to me, but Y fynde not to performe good thing. 19 For Y do not thilke good thing that Y wole, but Y do thilke yuel thing that Y wole not. 20 And if Y do that yuel thing that Y wole not, Y worche not it, but the synne that dwellith in me. 21 Therfor Y fynde the lawe to me willynge to do good thing, for yuel thing lieth to me. 22 For Y delite togidere to the lawe of God, aftir the ynnere man. But Y se another lawe in my membris, 23 ayenfiytynge the lawe of my soule, and makynge me caitif in the lawe of synne, that is in my membris. 24 Y am an vnceli man; who schal delyuer me fro the bodi of this synne? 25 The grace of God, bi Jhesu Crist oure Lord. Therfor Y my silf bi the soule serue to the lawe of God; but bi fleisch to the lawe of synne.

8 Therfor now no thing of dampnacioun is to hem that ben in Crist Jhesu, whiche wandren not after the flesch. 2 For the lawe of the spirit of lijf in Crist Jhesu hath delyuerid me fro the lawe of synne, and of deth. 3 For that that was vnpossible to the lawe, in what thing it was sijk bi flesch, God sente his sone in to the licknesse of fleisch of synne, and of synne dampnede synne in fleisch; 4 that the iustefiyng of the lawe were fulfillid in vs, that goen not aftir the fleisch, but aftir the spirit. 5 For thei that ben aftir the fleisch, saueren tho thingis that ben of the fleisch; but thei that ben after the spirit, feelen tho thingis that ben of the spirit. For the prudence of fleisch is deth; 6 but the prudence of spirit is lijf and pees. 7 For the wisdom of the fleisch is enemye to God; for it is not suget to the lawe of God, for nether it may. 8 And thei that ben in fleisch, moun not plese to God. 9 But ye ben not in fleisch, but in spirit; if netheles the spirit of God dwellith in you. But if ony hath not the spirit of Crist, this is not his. 10 For if Crist is in you, the bodi is deed for synne, but the spirit lyueth for iustefiyng. 11 And if the spirit of hym that reside Jhesu Crist fro deth dwellith in you, he that reside Jhesu Crist fro deth, shal quykene also youre deedli bodies, for the spirit of hym that dwellith in you. 12 Therfor, britheren, we ben dettouris, not to the flesch, that we lyuen aftir the flesch. 13 For if ye lyuen aftir the fleisch, ye schulen die; but if ye bi the spirit sleen the dedis of the fleisch, ye schulen lyue. 14 For who euere ben led bi the spirit of God, these ben the sones of God. 15 For ye han not take eftsoone the spirit of seruage in drede, but ye han taken the spirit of adopcioun of sones, in which we crien, Abba, fadir. 16 And the ilke spirit yeldith witnessyng to oure spirit, that we ben the sones of God; 17 if sones, and eiris, `and eiris of God, and eiris togidere with Crist; if netheles we suffren togidere, that also we ben glorified togidere. 18 And Y deme, that the passiouns of this tyme ben not worthi to the glorie to comynge, that schal be schewid in vs. 19 For the abidyng of creature abidith the schewyng of the sones of God. 20 But the creature is suget to vanyte, not willynge, but for hym that made it suget in hope; 21 for the ilke creature schal be delyuered fro seruage of corrupcioun in to liberte of the glorie of the sones of God. 22 And we witen, that ech creature sorewith, and trauelith with payne til yit. 23 And not oneli it, but also we vs silf, that han the first fruytis of the spirit, and we vs silf sorewen with ynne vs for the adopcioun of Goddis sonys, abidyng the ayenbiyng of oure bodi. 24 But bi hope we ben maad saaf. For hope that is seyn, is not hope; for who hopith that thing, that he seeth? 25 And if we hopen that thing that we seen not, we abiden bi pacience. 26 And also the spirit helpith oure infirmyte; for what we schulen preie, as it bihoueth, we witen not, but the ilke spirit axith for vs with sorewyngis, that moun not be teld out. 27 For he that sekith the hertis, woot what the spirit desirith, for bi God he axith for hooli men. 28 And we witen, that to men `that louen God, alle thingis worchen togidere in to good, to hem that afir purpos ben clepid seyntis. 29 For thilke that he knewe bifer, he bifer ordenede bi grace to be maad lijk to the ymage of his sone, that he be the first bigetun among many britheren. 30 And thilke that he bifer ordeynede to blis, hem he clepide; and whiche he clepide, hem he iustifiede; and whiche he iustifiede, and hem he glorifiede. 31 What thanne schulen we seie to these thingis? If God for vs, who is ayens vs? 32 The which also sparide not his owne sone, but `for vs alle bitook hym, hou also yaf he not to vs alle thingis with hym? 33 Who schal accuse ayens the chosun men of God? It is God that iustifieth, 34 who is it that condempneth? It is Jhesus Crist that was deed, yhe, the which roos ayen, the which is on the riyt half of God, and the which preieth for vs. 35 Who thanne schal departe vs fro the charite of Crist? tribulacioun, or anguysch, or hungur, or nakidnesse, or persecucioun, or perel, or swerd? 36 As it is writun, For we ben slayn al dai for thee; we ben gessid as scheep of slauytir. 37 But in alle these thingis we ouercomen, for hym that louyde vs. 38 But Y am certeyn, that nethir deeth, nether lijf, nether aungels, nethir principatus, nether vertues, nether present thingis, nether thingis to comynge, nether strengthe, 39 nether heiyth, nether depnesse, nether noon othir creature may departe vs fro the charite of God, that is in `Crist Jhesu oure Lord.

9 I seie treuthe in Crist Jhesu, Y lye not, for my conscience berith witnessyng to me in the Hooli Goost, 2 for greet heuynesse is to me, and contynuel sorewe to my herte. 3 For Y my silf desiride to be departid fro Crist for my britheren, that ben my cosyns aftir the fleisch, that ben men of Israel; 4 whos is adopcioun of sones, and glorie, and testament, and yyuyng of the lawe, and seruyce, and biheestis; 5 whos ben the fadris, and of which is Crist after the fleisch, that is God aboue alle thingis, blessid in to worldis. (aiōn g165) 6 Amen. But not that the word of God hath falle doun. For not alle that ben of Israel, these ben Israelitis. 7 Nethir thei that ben seed of Abraham, `alle ben sonys; but in Ysaac the seed schal be clepid to thee; 8 that is to seie, not thei that ben sones of the fleisch, ben sones of God, but thei that ben sones of biheeste ben demed in the seed. 9 For whi this is the word of biheest, Aftir this tyme Y schal come, and a sone schal be to Sare. 10 And not oneli sche, but also Rebecca hadde twey sones of o liggyng bi of Ysaac, oure fadir. 11 And whanne thei weren not yit borun, nether hadden don ony thing of good ether of yuel, that the purpos of God schulde dwelle bi eleccioun, 12 not of werkis, but of God clepyng, it was seid to hym, 13 that the more schulde serue the lesse, as it is writun, Y louede Jacob, but Y hatide Esau. 14 What therfor schulen we seie? Whether wickidnesse be anentis God? 15 God forbede.

 For he seith to Moyses, Y schal haue merci on whom Y haue merci; and Y schal yyue merci on whom Y schal haue merci. 16 Therfor it is not nether of man willynge, nethir rennyng, but of God hauyng mercy. 17 And the scripture seith to Farao, For to this thing Y haue stirid thee, that Y schewe in thee my vertu, and that my name be teld in al erthe. 18 Therfor of whom God wole, he hath merci; and whom he wole, he endureth. 19 Thanne seist thou to me, What is souyt yit? for who withstondith his wille? 20 O! man, who art thou, that answerist to God? Whether a maad thing seith to hym that made it, What hast thou maad me so? 21 Whether a potter of cley hath not power to make of the same gobet o vessel in to honour, an othere in to dispit? 22 That if God willynge to schewe his wraththe, and to make his power knowun, hath suffrid in greet pacience vessels of wraththe able in to deth, 23 to schewe the riythchessis of his glorie in to vessels of merci, whiche he made redi in to glorie. 24 Whiche also he clepide not oneli of Jewis, but also of hethene men, as he seith in Osee, 25 Y schal clepe not my puple my puple, and not my loued my louyd, and not getyng mercy getyng merci; 26 and it schal be in the place, where it is seid to hem, Not ye my puple, there thei schulen be clepid the sones of `God lyuyng. 27 But Isaye crieth for Israel, If the noumbre of Israel schal be as grauel of the see, the relifs schulen be maad saaf. 28 Forsothe a word makynge an ende, and abreggyng in equyte, for the Lord schal make a word breggid on al the erthe. 29 And as Ysaye bifer seide, But God of oostis hadde left to vs seed, we hadden be maad as Sodom, and we hadden be lijk as Gommor. 30 Therfor what schulen we seie? That hethene men that sueden not riytwisnesse, han gete riytwisnesse, yhe, the riytwisnesse that is of feith. 31 But Israel suyng the lawe of riytwisnesse, cam not parfitli in to the lawe of riytwisnesse. 32 Whi? For not of feith, but as of werkys. And thei spurneden ayens the stoon of offencioun, 33 as it is writun, Lo! Y putte a stoon of offensioun in Syon, and a stoon of sclandre; and ech that schal bileue in it, schal not be confoundid.

10 Britheren, the wille of myn herte and mi biseching is maad to God for hem in to helthe. 2 But Y bere witnessyng to hem, that thei han loue of God, but not affir kunnyng. 3 For thei vnknowyng Goddis riytwisnesse, and sekyng to make stidefast her owne riytfulnesse, ben not suget to the riytwisnesse of God. 4 For the ende of the lawe is Crist, to riytwisnesse to ech man that bileueth. 5 For Moises wroot, For the man that schal do riytwisnesse that is of the lawe, schal lyue in it. 6 But the riytwisnesse that is of bileue, seith thus, Seie thou not in thin herte, Who schal stie in to heuene? that is to seie, to lede down Crist; 7 or who schal go down in to helle? that is, to ayenclepe Crist fro deth. (Abyssos g12) 8 But what seith the scripture? The word is nyy in thi mouth, and in thin herte; this is the word of bileue, which we prechen. 9 That if thou knouechist in thi mouth the Lord Jhesu Crist, and bileuest in thin herte, that God reside hym fro deth, thou schalt be saaf. 10 For bi herte me bileueth to riytwisnesse, but bi mouth knowleching is maad to helthe. 11 For whi the scripture seith, Ech that bileueth in hym, schal not be confoundid. 12 And ther is no distinccioun of Jew and of Greke; for the same Lord of alle is riche in alle, that inwardli clepen hym. 13 For ech man `who euere schal inwardli clepe the name of the Lord, schal be saaf. 14 Hou thanne schulen thei inwardli clepe hym, in to whom thei han not bileued? or hou schulen thei bileue to hym, whom thei han not herd? Hou schulen thei here, with outen a prechour? 15 and hou schulen thei preche, but thei be sent? As it is writun, Hou faire ben the feet of hem that prechen pees, of hem that prechen good thingis. 16 But not alle men obeien to the gospel. For Ysaie seith, Lord, who bileuede to oure heryng? 17 Therfor feith is of heryng, but heryng bi the word of Crist. 18 But Y seie, Whether thei herden not? Yhis, sothely the word of hem wente out in to al the erthe, and her wordis in to the endis of the world. 19 But Y seie, Whether Israel knewe not? First Moyses seith, Y schal lede you to enuye, that ye ben no folc; that ye ben an vnwise folc, Y schal sende you in to wraththe. 20 And Ysaie is bold, and seith, Y am foundun of men that seken me not; opynli Y apperide to hem, that axiden not me. 21 But to Israel he seith, Al dai Y streihte out myn hondis to a puple that bileuede not, but ayen seide me.

11 Therfor Y seie, Whether God hath put awei his puple? God forbede. For Y am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the lynage of Beniamyn. 2 God hath not put awei his puple, which he bifer knew. Whether ye witen not, what the scripture seith in Elie? Hou he preieth God ayens Israel, 3 Lord, thei han slayn thi prophetis, thei han vndurdoluun thin auteris, and Y am lefte aloone, and thei seken my lijf. 4 But what seith Goddis answer to hym? Y haue left to me seuene thousyndes of men, that han not bowid her knees bifer Baal. 5 So therfor also in this tyme, the relifs ben maad saaf, bi the chesyng of the grace of God. 6 And if it be bi the grace of God, it is not now of werkis; ellis grace is not now grace. 7 What thanne? Israel hath not getun this that he souyte, but eleccioun hath getun; and the othere ben blyndid.

8 As it is writun, God yaf to hem a spirit of compunccioun, iyen that thei se not, and eeris, that thei here not, in to this dai. 9 And Dauith seith, Be the boord of hem maad in to a gryn bifor hem, and in to catchyng, and in to sclaundre, and in to yeldyng to hem. 10 Be the iyen of hem maad derk, that thei se not;
 and bowe thou doun algatis the bak of hem. 11 Therfor Y seie, Whether thei offendiden so, that thei schulden falle doun? God forbede. But bi the gilt of hem helthe is maad to hethene men, that thei sue hem. 12 That if the gilt of hem ben richessis of the world, and the makyng lesse of hem ben richessis of hethene men, hou myche more the plente of hem? 13 But Y seie to you, hethene men, for as longe as Y am apostle of hethene men, Y schal onoure my mynysterie, 14 if in ony maner Y stire my fleisch for to folowe, and that Y make summe of hem saaf. 15 For if the loss of hem is the recouncelyng of the world, what is the takyng vp, but lijf of deede men? 16 For if a litil part of that that is tastid be hooli, the hool gobet is hooli; and if the roote is hooli, also the braunchis. 17 What if ony of the braunchis ben brokun, whanne thou were a wielde olyue tre, art graffid among hem, and art maad felowe of the roote, and of the fatnesse of the olyue tre, 18 nyle thou haue glorie ayens the braunchis. For if thou gloriest, thou berist not the roote, but the roote thee. 19 Therfor thou seist, The braunchis ben brokun, that Y be graffid in. 20 Wel, for vnbileue the braunchis ben brokun; but thou stondist bi feith. Nyle thou sauere hiye thing, 21 but drede thou, for if God sparide not the kyndli braunchis, lest peraenture he spare not thee. 22 Therfor se the goodnesse, and the fersnesse of God; yhe, the feersnesse in to hem that felden doun, but the goodnesse of God in to thee, if thou dwellist in goodnesse, ellis also thou schalt be kit doun. 23 Yhe, and thei schulen be set yn, if thei dwellen not in vnbileue. For God is myyti, to sette hem in eftsoone. 24 For if thou art kit doun of the kyndeli wielde olyue tre, and ayens kynd art set in to a good olyue tre, hou myche more thei that ben bi kynde, schulen be set in her olyue tree? 25 But, britheren, Y wole not that ye vnknownen this mysterie, that ye be not wise to you silf; for blyndenesse hath feld a parti in Israel, til that the plente of hethene men entride, 26 and so al Israel schulde be maad saaf. As it is writun, He schal come of Syon, that schal delyuere, and turne awei the wickidnesse of Jacob. 27 And this testament to hem of me, whanne Y schal do awei her synnes. 28 Aftir the gospel thei ben enemyes for you, but thei ben moost dereworthe bi the eleccioun for the fadris. 29 And the yiftis and the cleping of God ben with outen forthenkyng. 30 And as sum tyme also ye bileueden not to God, but now ye han gete mercy for the vnbileue of hem; 31 so and these now bileueden not in to youre merci, that also thei geten merci. 32 For God closide alle thingis togidere in vnbileue, that he haue mercy on alle. (eleēsē g1653) 33 O! the heynesse of the ritchessis of the wisdom and of the kunnyng of God; hou incomprehensible ben hise domes, and hise weies ben vnserchable. 34 For whi who knew the wit of the Lord, or who was his counselour? or who formere yaf to hym, 35 and it schal be quyt to hym? 36 For of hym, and bi hym, and in hym ben alle thingis. To hym be glorie in to worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165)

12 Therefore, britheren, Y biseche you bi the mercy of God, that ye yyue youre bodies a lyuyng sacrifice, hooli, plesynge to God, and youre seruise resonable. 2 And nyle ye be confourmyd to this world, but be ye reformed in newnesse of youre wit, that ye preue which is the wille of God, good, and wel plesynge, and parfit. (aiōn g165) 3 For Y seie, bi the grace that is youun to me, to alle that ben among you, that ye sauere no more than it bihoueth to sauere, but for to sauere to sobrenesse; and to ech man, as God hath departid the mesure of feith. 4 For as in o bodi we han many membris, but alle the membris han not the same dede; 5 so we many ben o bodi in Crist, and eche ben membris oon of anothir. 6 Therfor we that han yiftis dyuersynge, aftir the grace that is youun to vs, 7 ethir prophecie, aftir the resoun of feith; ethir seruise, in mynstryng; ether he that techith, in techyng; 8 he that stirith softli, in monestyng; he that yyueth, in symplenesse; he that is souereyn, in bisynesse; he that hath merci, in gladnesse. 9 Loue with outhen feynyng, hatynge yuel, drawynge to good; 10 louynge togidere the charite of britherhod. Eche come bifore to worschipen othere; 11 not slow in bisynesse, feruent in spirit, seruyng to the Lord, 12 ioiynge in hope, pacient in tribulacioun, bisy in preier, 13 yyuyng good to the nedis of seyntis, kepyng hospitalite. 14 Blesse ye men that pursuen you; blesse ye, and nyle ye curse; 15 for to ioie with men that ioien, for to wepe with men that wepen. 16 Fele ye the same thing togidere; not saueryng heiy thingis, but consentynge to meke thingis. Nyle ye be prudent anentis you silf; 17 to no man yeldynge yuel for yuel, but purueye ye good thingis, not oneli bifor God, but also bifor alle men. 18 If it may be don, that that is of you, haue ye pees with alle men. 19 Ye moost dere britheren, not defendynge you silf, but yyue ye place to wraththe; for it is writun, The Lord seith, To me veniaunce, and Y schal yelde. 20 But if thin enemy hungrith, fede thou hym; if he thirstith, yyue thou drynke to hym; for thou doynge this thing schalt gidere togidere colis on his heed. 21 Nyle thou be ouercomun of yuel, but ouercome thou yuel bi good.

13 Euery soule be suget to heiyere powers. For ther is no power but of God, and tho thingis that ben of God, ben ordeyned. 2 Therfor he that ayenstondith power, ayenstondith the ordynaunce of God; and thei that ayenstonden, geten to hem silf dampnacioun. 3 For princes ben not to the drede of good work, but of yuel. But wilt thou, that thou drede not power? Do thou good thing, and thou schalt haue preisyng of it; 4 for he is the mynystre of God to thee in to good. But if thou doist yuel, drede thou; for not with outen cause he berith the swerd, for he is the mynystre of God, vengere in to wraththe to hym that doith yuel. 5 And therfor bi nede be ye suget, not oneli for wraththe, but also for conscience. 6 For therfor ye yyuen tributis, thei ben the mynystris of God, and seruen for this same thing. 7 Therfor yelde ye to alle men dettis, to whom tribut, tribut, to whom tol, tol, to whom drede, drede, to whom onour, onour. 8 To no man owe ye any thing, but that ye loue togidere. For he that loueth his neybore, hath fulfillid the lawe. 9 For, Thou schalt do no letcherie, Thou schalt not sle, Thou schalt not stele, Thou schalt not seie fals witnessyng, Thou schalt not coueyte the thing of thi neybore, and if ther be ony othere maundement, it is instorid in this word, Thou schalt loue thi neybore as thi silf. 10 The loue of neybore worchith not yuel; therfor loue is the fulfillyng of the lawe. 11 And we knowen this tyme, that the our is now, that we rise fro sleep; for now oure heelthe is neer, than whanne we bileueden. 12 The nyyt wente bfore, but the dai hath neiyed. Therfor caste we awei the werkis of derknessis, and be we clothid in the armeris of liyt. 13 As in dai wandre we onestli, not in superflu feestis and drunkenessis, not in beddis and vnchastitees, not in strijf and in enuye; 14 but be ye clothid in the Lord Jhesu Crist, and do ye not the bisynesse of fleisch in desiris.

14 But take ye a sijk man in bileue, not in demyngis of thouytis. 2 For another man leueth, that he mai ete alle thingis; but he that is sijk, ete wortis. 3 He that etith, dispise not hym that etith not; and he that etith not, deme not hym that etith. For God hath take him to hym. 4 Who art thou, that demest anothris seruaunt? To his lord he stondith, or fallith fro hym. But he schal stonde; for the Lord is myyti to make hym parfit. 5 For whi oon demeth a day bitwixe a dai, another demeth ech dai. 6 Ech man encrees in his wit. He that vnderstandith the dai, vnderstandith to the Lord. And he that etith, etith to the Lord, for he doith thankyngis to God. And he that etith not, etith not to the Lord, and doith thankyngis to God. 7 For no man of vs lyueth to hymself, and no man dieth to hymself. 8 For whether we lyuen, we lyuen to the Lord; and whethir we dien, we dien to the Lord. Therfor whethir we lyuen or dien, we ben of the Lord. 9 For whi for this thing Crist was deed, and roos ayen, that he be Lord bothe of quyke and of deed men. 10 But what demest thou thi brothir? or whi dispisist thou thi brothir? for alle we schulen stonde bfore the trone of Crist. 11 For it is writun, Y lyue, seith the Lord, for to me ech kne schal be bowid, and ech tunge schal knoueleche to God. 12 Therfor ech of vs schal yelde resoun to God for hym silf. 13

Therfor `no more deme we ech other; but more deme ye this thing, that ye putte not hirtyng, or sclaundre, to a brothir. 14 I woot and triste in the Lord Jhesu, that no thing is vnclene bi hym, no but to him that demeth ony thing to be vnclene, to him it is vnclene. 15 And if thi brother be maad sori in conscience for mete, now thou walkist not aftir charite. Nyle thou thorouy thi mete lese hym, for whom Crist diede. 16 Therfor be not oure good thing blasfemed. 17 For whi the rewme of God is not mete and drynk, but riytwisnesse and pees and ioye in the Hooli Goost. 18 And he that in this thing serueth Crist, plesith God, and is proued to men. 19 Therfor sue we tho thingis that ben of pees, and kepe we togidere `tho thingis that ben of edificacioun. 20 Nyle thou for mete distrie the werk of God. For alle thingis ben clene, but it is yuel to the man that etith bi offendyng. 21 It is good to not ete fleisch, and to not drynke wyn, nethir in what thing thi brother offendith, or is sclaundrid, or is maad sijk. 22 Thou hast feith anentis thi silf, haue thou bifore God. Blessid is he that demeth not hym silf in that thing that he preueth. 23 For he that demeth, is dampned, if he etith; for it is not of feith. And al thing that is not of feith, is synne.

15 But we saddere men owen to susteyne the feblenesses of sijke men, and not plese to vs silf. 2 Eche of vs plese to his neiybore in good, to edificacioun. 3 For Crist pleside not to hym silf, as it is writun, The repreues of men dispisyng thee, felden on me. 4 For what euere thingis ben writun, tho ben writun to oure techyng, that bi pacience and coumfort of scripturis we haue hope. 5 But God of pacience and of solace yyue to you to vndurstonde the same thing, ech in to othere aftir Jhesu Crist, 6 that ye of o wille with o mouth worschipe God and the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 7 For which thing take ye togidere, as also Crist took you in to the onour of God. 8 For Y seie, that Jhesu Crist was a mynystre of circumcisioun for the treuthe of God, to conferme the biheestis of fadris. 9 And hethene men owen to onoure God for merci; as it is writun, Therfor, Lord, Y schal knowleche to thee among hethene men, and Y schal synge to thi name. 10 And eft he seith, Ye hethene men, be ye glad with his puple. 11 And eft, Alle hethene men, herie ye the Lord; and alle pupilis, magnefie ye hym. 12 And eft Isaie seith, Ther schal be a roote of Jesse, that schal rise vp to gouerne hethene men, and hethene men schulen hope in hym. 13 And God of hope fulfille you in al ioye and pees in bileuyng, that ye encrees in hope and vertu of the Hooli Goost. 14 And, britheren, Y my silf am certeyn of you, that also ye ben ful of loue, and ye ben fillid with al kunnyng, so that ye moun moneste ech other. 15 And, britheren, more boldli Y wroot to you a parti, as bryngyng you in to mynde, for the grace that is youun to me of God, 16 that Y be the mynystre of Crist Jhesu among hethene men. And Y halewe the gospel of God, that the offryng of hethene men be acceptid, and halewid in the Hooli Goost. 17 Therfor Y haue glorie in Crist Jhesu to God. 18 For Y dar not speke ony thing of tho thingis, whiche Crist doith not bi me, in to obedience of hethene men, in word and dedis, 19 in vertu of tokenes and grete wondris, in vertu of the Hooli Goost, so that fro Jerusalem bi cumpas to the Illirik see Y haue fillid the gospel of Crist. 20 And so Y haue prechid this gospel, not where Crist was named, lest Y bilde vpon anotheres ground, but as it is writun, 21 For to whom it is not teld of him, thei schulen se, and thei that herden not, schulen vndurstonde. 22 For which thing Y was lettid ful myche to come to you, and Y am lettid to this tyme. 23 And now Y haue not ferthere place in these cuntrees, but Y haue desire to come to you, of many yeris that ben passid. 24 Whanne Y bygynne to passe in to Spayne, Y hope that in my goyng Y schal se you, and of you Y schal be led thidur, if Y vse you first in parti. 25 Therfor now Y schal passe forth to Jerusalem, to mynystre to seyntis. 26 For Macedonye and Acaie han assaied to make sum yifte to pore men of seyntis, that ben in Jerusalem. 27 For it pleside to hem, and thei ben dettouris of hem; for hethene men ben maad parteneris of her goostli thingis, thei owen also in fleischli thingis to mynystre to hem. 28 Therfor whanne Y haue endid this thing, and haue asigned to hem this fruyt, Y schal passe bi you in to Spayne. 29 And Y woot, that Y comynge to you, schal come `in to the abundaunce of the blessing of Crist. 30 Therfor, britheren, Y biseche you bi oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and bi charite of the Hooli Goost, that ye helpe me in youre preyeris to the Lord, 31 that Y be delyuerid fro the vnfeithful men, that ben in Judee, and that the offryng of my seruyce be acceptid in Jerusalem to seyntis; 32 that Y come to you in ioye, bi the wille of God, and that Y be refreischid with you. 33 And God of pees be with you alle. Amen.

16 And Y comende to you Feben, oure sister, which is in the seruyce of the chirche that is at Teucris, 2 that ye resseyue hir in the Lord worthili to seyntis, and `that ye helpe hir in what euere cause sche schal nede of you. For sche helpide many men, and my silf. 3 Grete ye Prisca and Aquyla, myn helperis in Crist Jhesu, 4 which vndurputtiden her neckis for my lijf; to whiche not Y aloone do thankyngis, but also alle the chirchis of hethene men. 5 And grete ye wel her meyneal chirche. Grete wel Efenete, louyd to me, that is the firste of Asie in Crist Jhesu.

6 Grete wel Marie, the whiche hath trauelid myche in vs. 7 Grete wel Andronyk and Julian, my cosyns, and myn euen prisouneris, which ben noble among the apostlis, and whiche weren bifer me in Crist. 8 Grete wel Ampliate, most dereworth to me in the Lord. 9 Grete wel Vrban, oure helpere in Crist Jhesus, and Stacchen, my derlyng. 10 Grete wel Appellem, the noble in Crist. 11 Grete wel hem that ben of Aristoblis hous. Grete wel Erodion, my cosyn. Grete wel hem that ben of Narciscies hous, that ben in the Lord. 12 Grete wel Trifenam and Trifosam, whiche wymmen trauelen in the Lord. Grete wel Persida, most dereworthe womman, that hath trauelid myche in the Lord. 13 Grete wel Rufus, chosun in the Lord, and his modir, and myn. 14 Grete wel Ansicrete, Flegoncia, Hermen, Patroban, Herman, and britheren that ben with hem. 15 Grete wel Filologus, and Julian, and Nereum, and his sistir, and Olympiades, and alle the seyntis that ben with hem. 16 Grete ye wel togidere in hooli coss. Alle the chirches of Crist greten you wel. 17 But, britheren, Y preye you, that ye aspie hem that maken discenciouns and hirtyngis, bisidis the doctryne that ye han lerned, and bowe ye awei fro hem. 18 For suche men seruen not to the Lord Crist, but to her wombe, and bi swete wordis and blessingis disseyuen the hertis of innocent men. 19 But youre obedience is pupplischid in to euery place, therfor Y haue ioie in you. But Y wole that ye be wise in good thing, and symple in yuel. 20 And God of pees tredde Sathanas vndur youre feet swiftli. The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with you. 21 Tymothe, myn helpere, gretith you wel, and also Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my cosyns. 22 Y Tercius grete you wel, that wroot this epistle, in the Lord. 23

Gayus, myn oost, gretith you wel, and al the chirche. Erastus, tresorere of the city, gretith you wel, and Quartus brother. 24 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with you alle. Amen. 25 And honour and glorie be to hym, that is myyti to conferme you bi my gospel, and prechyng of Jhesu Crist, bi the reuelacioun of mysterie holdun styll in tymes euerlastinge; (aiōnios g166) 26 which mysterie is now maad opyn bi scripturis of prophetis, bi the comaundement of God with outen bigynnyng and endyng, to the obedience of feith in alle hethene men, the mysterie (aiōnios g166) 27 knowun bi Jhesu Crist to God aloone wiss, to whom be honour and glorie in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165)

1 Corinthians

1 Poul, clepid apostle of Jhesu Crist, bi the wille of God, and Sostenes, brothir, to the chirche of God that is at Corynthe, 2 to hem that ben halewid in Crist Jhesu, and clepid seyntis, with alle that inwardli clepen the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, in ech place of hem and of oure, 3 grace to you and pees of God, oure fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 4 Y do thankyngis to my God eueremore for you, in the grace of God that is youun to you in Crist Jhesu. 5 For in alle thingis ye ben maad riche in hym, in ech word, and in ech kunnyng, 6 as the witnessyng of Crist is confermyd in you; 7 so that no thing faile to you in any grace, that abiden the schewyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist; 8 which also schal conferme you in to the ende with outen cryme, in the dai of the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 9 `A trewe God, bi whom ye ben clepid in to the felouschipe of his sone Jhesu Crist oure Lord. 10 But, britheren, Y biseche you, bi the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that ye alle seie the same thing, and that dissenciouns be not among you; but be ye perfit in the same wit, and in the same kunnyng. 11 For, my britheren, it is teld to me of hem that ben at Cloes, that stryues ben among you. 12 And Y seie that, that ech of you seith, For Y am of Poul, and Y am of Apollo, and Y am of Cefas, but Y am of Crist. 13 Whether Crist is departid? whether Poul was crucified for you, ether ye ben baptisid in the name of Poul? 14 Y do thankyngis to my God, that Y baptise noon of you, but Crispus and Gayus; 15 lest ony man seie, that ye ben baptisid in my name. 16 And Y baptise also the hous of Stephan, but Y woot not, that Y baptise ony other. 17 For Crist sente me not to baptise, but to preche the gospel; not in wisdom of word, that the cros of Crist be not voidid awei. 18 For the word of the cros is foli to hem that perischen; but to hem that ben maad saaf, that is to seie, to vs, it is the vertu of God. 19 For it is writun, Y schal distruye the wisdom of wise men, and Y schal reproue the prudence of prudent men. 20 Where is the wise man? where is the wise lawiere? where is the purchasour of this world? Whether God hath not maad the wisdom of this world fonned? (aiōn g165) 21 For the world in wisdom of God knewe not God bi wisdom, it pleside to God, bi foli of prechyng, `to maken hem saaf that bileueden. 22 For Jewis seken signes, and Grekis seken wisdom; 23 but we prechen Crist crucified, to Jewis sclaundre, and to hethene men foli; 24 but to tho Jewis and Grekis that ben clepid, we prechen Crist the vertu of God and the wisdom of God. 25 For that that is foli thing of God, is wiser than men; and that that is the feble thing of God, is strengere than men. 26 But, britheren, se ye youre clepyng; for not many wise men afir the fleisch, not many myyti, not many noble. 27 But God chees tho thingis that ben fonned of the world, to confounde wise men; 28 and God chees the feble thingis of the world, to confounde the stronge thingis; and God chees the vnnoble thingis `and dispisable thingis of the world, and tho thingis that ben not, to distruye tho thingis that ben; 29 that ech man haue not glorie in his siyt. 30 But of hym ye ben in Crist Jhesu, which is maad of God to vs wisdom, and riytwisnesse, and holynesse, and ayenbiyng; that, 31 as it is wrytun, He that glorieth, haue glorie in the Lord.

2 And Y, britheren, whanne Y cam to you, cam not in the heiynesse of word, ethir of wisdom, tellynge to you the witnessyng of Crist. 2 For Y demede not me to kunne ony thing among you, but Crist Jhesu, and hym crucified. 3 And Y in sikenesse, and drede, and myche trembling, was among you; 4 and my word and my preching was not in suteli sturyng wordis of mannus wisdom, but in schewyng of spirit and of vertu; 5 that youre feith be not in the wisdom of men, but in the vertu of God. 6 For we speken wisdom among perfit men, but not wisdom of this world, nether of princes of this world, that ben distried; (aiōn g165) 7 but we speken the wisdom of God in mysterie, `which wisdom is hid; which wisdom God bifer ordeynede bifer worldis in to oure glorie, (aiōn g165) 8 which noon of the princes of this world knew; for if thei hadden knowe, thei schulden neuere haue crucified the Lord of glorie. (aiōn g165) 9 But as it is writun, That iye say not, ne eere herde, nether it stiede in to herte of man, what thingis God arayed to hem that louen hym; 10 but God schewide to vs bi his spirit. For whi the spirit serchith alle thingis, yhe, the depe thingis of God. 11 And who of men woot, what thingis ben of man, but the spirit of man that is in hym? So what thingis ben of God, no man knowith, but the spirit of God. 12 And we han not resseiued the spirit of this world, but the spirit that is of God, that we wite what thingis ben youun to vs of God. 13 Whiche thingis we speken also, not in wise wordis of mannus wisdom, but in the doctryn of the spirit, and maken a liknesse of spiritual thingis to goostli men. 14 For a beestli man perseyueth not tho thingis that ben of the spirit of God; for it is foli to hym, and he may not vndurstonde, for it is examyned goostli. 15 But a spiritual man demeth alle thingis, and he is demed of no man. 16 As it is writun, And who knew the wit of the Lord, or who tauyte hym?

 And we han the wit of Crist.

3 And Y, britheren, myyte not speke to you as to spiritual men, but as to fleischli men; 2 as to litle children in Crist, Y yaf to you mylk drynke, not mete; for ye myyten not yit, nether ye moun now, for yit ye ben fleischli. 3 For while strijf is among you, whether ye ben not fleischli, and ye gon aftir man? 4 For whanne summe seith, Y am of Poul, another, But Y am of Apollo, whethir ye ben not men? What therfor is Apollo, and what Poul? 5 Thei ben mynystiris of hym, to whom ye han bileuyd; and to ech man as God hath youun. 6 Y plauntide, Apollo moystide, but God yaf encreessyng. 7 Therfor nether he that plauntith is ony thing, nethir he that moistith, but God that yiueth encreessyng. 8 And he that plauntith, and he that moistith, ben oon; and ech schal take his owne mede, aftir his trauel. 9 For we ben the helperis of God; ye ben the erthetilyng of God, ye ben the bildyng of God. 10 Aftir the grace `of God that is youun to me, as a wise maistir carpenter Y settide the foundement; and another bildith aboue. But ech man se, hou he bildith aboue. 11 For no man may sette another foundement, outtakun that that is sett, which is Crist Jhesus. 12 For if ony bildith ouer this foundement, gold, siluer, preciouise stoonys, stickis, hey, or stobil, euery mannus werk schal be open; 13 for the dai of the Lord schal declare, for it schal be schewid in fier; the fier schal preue the werk of ech man, what maner werk it is. 14 If the werk of ony man dwelle stille, which he bildide aboue, he schal resseyue mede. 15 If ony mannus werk brenne, he schal suffre harm; but he schal be saaf, so netheles as bi fier. 16 Witen ye not, that ye ben the temple of God, and the spirit of God dwellith in you? 17 And if ony defoulith the temple of God, God schal leese hym; for the temple of God is hooli, which ye ben. 18 No man disseyue hym silf. If ony man among you is seyn to be wiys in this world, be he maad a fool, that he be wijs. (aiōn g165) 19 For the wisdom of this world is foli anentis God; for it is writun, Y schal catche wise men in her fel wisdom; 20 and eft, The Lord knowith the thouytis of wise men, for tho ben veyn. 21 Therfor no man haue glorie in men. 22 For alle thingis ben youre, ethir Poul, ether Apollo, ether Cefas, ether the world, ether lijf, ether deth, ether thingis present, ethir thingis to comynge; for alle thingis ben youre, 23 and ye ben of Crist, and Crist is of God.

4 So a man gesse vs, as mynystis of Crist, and dispenderis of the mynysteries of God. 2 Now it is souyt here among the dispenderis, that a man be foundun trewe. 3 And to me it is for the leest thing, that Y be demyd of you, or of mannus dai; but nether Y deme my silf. 4 For Y am no thing ouer trowynge to my silf, but not in this thing Y am iustified; for he that demeth me, is the Lord. 5 Therfor nyle ye deme bfore the tyme, til that the Lord come, which schal liytne the hyd thingis of derknessis, and schal schewe the counseils of hertis; and thanne preisyng schal be to ech man of God. 6 And, britheren, Y haue transfigurid these thingis in to me and in to Apollo, for you; that in vs ye lerne, lest ouer that it is writun, oon ayens another be blowun with pride for another. 7 Who demeth thee? And what hast thou, that thou hast not resseyued? And if thou hast resseyued, what gloriest thou, as thou haddist not resseyued? 8 Nowe ye ben fyllid, now ye ben maad riche; ye regnen with outhen vs; and Y wolde that ye regnen, that also we regnen with you. 9 And Y gesse, that God schewide vs the laste apostlis, as thilke that ben sent to the deth; for we ben maad a spectacle to the world, and to aungels, and to men. 10 We foolis for Crist, but ye prudent in Crist; we sike, but ye stronge; ye noble, but we vnnoble. 11 Til in to this our we hungren, and thirsten, and ben nakid, and ben smytun with buffatis, 12 and we ben vnstable, and we trauelen worchyng with oure hondis; we ben cursid, and we blessen; we suffren persecucioun, and we abiden longe; we ben blasfemyd, and we bisechen; 13 as clensyngis of this world we ben maad the `out castyng of alle thingis `til yit. 14 Y write not these thingis, that Y confounde you, but Y warne as my moste dereworthe sones. 15 For whi if ye han ten thousynde of vndur maistris in Crist, but not many fadris; for in Crist Jhesu Y haue gendrid you bi the gospel. 16 Therfor, britheren, Y preye you, be ye foleweris of me, as Y of Crist. 17 Therfor Y sente to you Tymothe, which is my most dereworthe sone, and feithful in the Lord, which schal teche you my weies, that ben in Crist Jhesu; as Y teche euery where in ech chirche. 18 As thouy Y schulde not come to you, so summe ben blowun with pride; 19 but Y schal come to you soone, if God wole; and Y schal knowe not the word of hem that ben blowun with pride, but the vertu. 20 For the rewme of God is not in word, but in vertu. 21 What wole ye? Schal Y come to you in a yerde, or in charite, and in spirit of myldenesse?

5 In al maner fornycacioun is herd among you, and siche fornycacioun, which is not among hethene men, so that summan haue the wijf of his fadir. 2 And ye ben bolnyd with pride, and not more hadden weilyng, that he that dide this werk, be takun awei fro the myddil of you. 3 And Y absent in bodi, but present in spirit, now haue demyd as present hym that hath thus wrouyt, whanne 4 ye ben gaderid togidere in the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and my spirit, with the vertu of the Lord Jhesu, 5 to take siche a man to Sathanas, in to the perischyng of fleisch, that the spirit be saaf in the dai of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 6 Youre gloriyng is not good. Witen ye not, that a litil sourdow apeyrith al

the gobet? 7 Clense ye out the old sourdow, that ye be new sprengyng togidere, as ye ben therf. For Crist offrid is oure pask. 8 Therfor ete we, not in eld sourdowy, nether in sourdowy of malice and weywardnesse, but in therf thingis of clernesse and of treuthe. 9 I wroot to you in a pistle, that ye be not medlid with letchours, 10 not with letchours of this world, ne coueitous men, ne raueynours, ne with men seruyng to mawmetis, ellis ye schulden haue go out of this world. 11 But now Y wroot to you, that ye be not meynd. But if he that is named a brother among you, and is a letchour, or coueitouse, or seruyng to ydols, or cursere, or ful of drunkenesse, or raueynour, to take no mete with siche. 12 For what is it to me to deme of hem that ben with oute forth? Whether ye demen not of thingis that ben with ynne forth? 13 For God schal deme hem that ben withouten forth. Do ye awei yuel fro you silf.

6 Dar any of you that hath a cause ayens another, be demed at wickid men, and not at hooli men? 2 Whether ye witen not, that seyntis schulen deme of this world? And if the world schal be demed bi you, be ye vnworthi to deme of the leste thingis? 3 Witen ye not, that we schulen deme aungels? hou myche more worldli thingis? 4 Therfor if ye han worldli domes, ordeyne ye tho contemptible men, that ben in the chirche, to deme. 5 Y seie to make you aschamed. So ther is not ony wise man, that may deme bitwixe a brothir and his brothir; 6 but a brothir with brothir stryue in dom, and that among vnfeithful men. 7 And now trespas is algatis in you, for ye han domes among you. Whi rather take ye no wrong? whi rather suffre ye not disseit? 8 But and ye doen wrong, and doen fraude, and that to britheren. 9 Whether ye witen not, that wickid men schulen not welde the kyngdom of God? Nyle ye erre; nethir letchours, nether men that seruen mawmetis, nether auouteris, 10 nether letchouris ayen kynde, nether thei that doon letcheri with men, nether theues, nether auerouse men, nethir `ful of drunkenesse, nether curseris, nether rauenours, schulen welde the kyngdom of God. 11 And ye weren sum tyme these thingis; but ye ben waischun, but ye ben halewid, but ye ben iustefied in the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and in the spirit of oure God. 12 Alle thingis ben leeueful to me, but not alle thingis ben spedeful. Alle thingis ben leeueful to me, but Y schal not be brouyt doun vndur ony mannus power. 13 Mete to the wombe, and the wombe to metis; and God schal distruye bothe this and that. And the bodi not to fornyacioun, but to the Lord, and the Lord to the bodi. 14 For God reise the Lord, and schal reise vs bi his vertu. 15 Witen ye not, that youre bodies ben membris of Crist? Schal Y thanne take the membris of Crist, and schal Y make the membris of an hoore? God forbede. 16 Whether ye witen not, that he that cleueth to an hoore, is maad o bodi? For he seith, Ther schulen be tweyne in o fleisch. 17 And he that cleueth to the Lord, is o spirit. 18 Fle ye fornyacioun; al synne what euere synne a man doith, is with out the bodi; but he that doith fornyacioun, synneth ayens his bodi. 19 Whether ye witen not, that youre membris ben the temple of the Hooli Goost, that is in you, whom ye han of God, and ye ben not youre owne? 20 For ye ben bouyt with greet prijs. Glorifie ye, and bere ye God in youre bodi.

7 But of thilke thingis that ye han write to me, it is good to a man to touche not a womman. 2 But for fornyacioun eche man haue his owne wijf, and ech womman haue hir owne hosebonde. 3 The hosebonde yelde dette to the wijf, and also the wijf to the hosebonde. 4 The womman hath not power of hir bodi, but the hosebonde; and the hosebonde hath not power of his bodi, but the womman. 5 Nyle ye defraude eche to othere, but perauenture of consent to a tyme, that ye yyue tent to preier; and eft turne ye ayen to the same thing, lest Sathanas tempte you for youre vncontynence. 6 But Y seie this thing as yyuyng leeue, not bi comaundement. 7 For Y wole, that alle men be as my silf. But eche man hath his propre yifte of God; oon thus, and another thus. 8 But Y seie to hem, that ben not weddid, and to widewis, it is good to hem, if thei dwellen so as Y. 9 That if thei conteynen not hem silf, be thei weddid; for it is betere to be weddid, than to be brent. 10 But to hem that ben ioyned in matrymonye, Y comaunde, not Y, but the Lord, that the wijf departe not fro the hosebonde; 11 and that if sche departith, that sche dwelle vnweddid, or be recounselid to hir hosebonde; and the hosebonde forsake not the wijf. 12 But to othere Y seie, not the Lord. If ony brother hath an vnfeithful wijf, and sche consenteth to dwelle with hym, leeue he hir not. 13 And if ony womman hath an vnfeithful hosebonde, and this consentith to dwelle with hir, leeue sche not the hosebonde. 14 For the vnfeithful hosebonde is halewid bi the feithful womman, and the vnfeithful womman is halewid bi the feithful hosebonde. Ellis youre children weren vncleene, but now thei ben hooli. 15 That if the vnfeithful departith, departe he. For whi the brother or sistir is not suget to seruage in siche; for God hath clepid vs in pees. 16 And wherof wost thou, womman, if thou schalt make the man saaf; or wherof wost thou, man, if thou schalt make the womman saaf? 17 But as the Lord hath departid to ech, and as God hath clepid ech man, so go he, as Y teche in alle chirchis. 18 A man circumcidid is clepid, brynge he not to the prepucie. A man is clepid in prepucie, be he not circumcidid. 19 Circumcisioun is nouyt, and prepucie is nouyt, but the kepyng of the maundementis of God. 20 Ech man in what clepyng he is clepid, in that dwelle he. 21 Thou seruaunt art clepid, be it no charge to thee; but if thou maist be fre, `the rather vse thou. 22 He that is a seruaunt, and is clepid in the Lord, is a freman of the Lord. Also he that is a freman, and is clepid, is the seruaunt of Crist. 23 With prijs ye ben bouyt; nyle ye be maad seruauntis of men. 24 Therfor ech man in what thing he is clepid a brothir, dwelle he in this anentis God. 25 But of virgyns Y haue no comaundement of God; but Y yyue counseil, as he that hath mercy of the Lord, that Y be trewe. 26 Therfor Y gesse, that this thing is good for the present nede; for it is good to a man to be so. 27 Thou art boundun to a wijf, nyle thou seke vnbyndyng; thou art vnboundun fro a wijf, nyle thou seke a wijf. 28 But if thou hast takun a wijf, thou hast not synned; and if a maidun is weddid, sche synnede not; nethesle sicke schulen haue tribulacioun of fleisch. 29 But Y spare you. Therfor, britheren, Y seie this thing, The tyme is schort. Another is this, that thei that han wyues, be as thouy thei hadden noon; 30 and thei that wepen, as thei wepten not; and thei that ioien, as thei ioieden not; and thei that bien, as thei hadden not; 31 and thei that vsen this world, as thei that vsen not. For whi the figure of this world passith. 32 But Y wole, that ye be without bisynesse, for he that is without wijf, is bisi what thingis ben of the Lord, hou he schal plese God. 33 But he that is with a wijf, is bysy what thingis ben of the world, hou he schal plese the wijf, and he is departid. 34 And a womman vnweddid and maidun thenkith what thingis ben of the Lord, that sche be hooli in bodi and spirit. But sche that is weddid, thenkith what thingis ben of the world, hou sche schal plese the hosebonde. 35 And Y seie these thingis to youre profit, not that Y caste to you a snare, but to that that is onest, and that yyueth esynesse, with outen lettyng to make preieris to the Lord. 36 And if ony man gessith hym silf to be seyn foule on his virgyn, that sche is ful woxun, and so it bihoueth to be doon, do sche that that sche wole; sche synneth not, if sche be weddid. 37 For he that ordeynede stabli in his herte, not hauynge nede, but hauynge power of his wille, and hath demed in his herte this thing, to kepe his virgyn, doith wel. 38 Therfore he that ioyneth his virgyn in matrymonye, doith wel; and he that ioyneth not, doith betere. 39 The womman is boundun to the lawe, as longe tyme as hir hosebonde lyueth; and if hir hosebonde is deed, sche is delyuered fro the lawe of the hosebonde, be sche weddid to whom sche wole, oneli in the Lord. 40 But sche schal be more blessid, if sche dwellith thus, aftir my counsel; and Y wene, that Y haue the Spirit of God.

8 But of these thingis that ben sacrificed to ydols, we witen, for alle we han kunnyng. But kunnyng blowith, charite edefieth. 2 But if ony man gessith, that he kan ony thing, he hath not yit knowe hou it bihoueth hym to kunne. 3 And if ony man loueth God, this is knowun of hym. 4 But of metis that ben offrid to idols, we witen, that an idol is no thing in the world, and that ther is no God but oon. 5 For thouy ther ben summe that ben seid goddis, ethir in heuene, ether in erthe, as ther ben many goddis, and many lordis; 6 netheles to vs is o God, the fadir, of whom ben alle thingis, and we in hym; and o Lord Jhesu Crist, bi whom ben alle thingis, and we bi hym. 7 But not in alle men is kunnyng. For summen with conscience of ydol til now eten as thing offrid to idolis; and her conscience is defoulid, for it is sijk. 8 Mete comendith vs not to God; for nether we schulen faile, if we eten not, nether if we eten, we schulen haue plente. 9 But se ye, lest perauenture this your leeu be maad hurtyng to sijke men. 10 For if ony man schal se hym, that hath kunnyng, etyng in a place where idols ben worschipid, whethir his conscience, sithen it is sijke, schal not be edified to ete thingis offrid to idols? 11 And the sijk brothir, for whom Crist diede, schal perische in thi kunnyng. 12 For thus ye synnyng ayens britheren, and smytyng her sijk conscience synnen ayens Crist. 13 Wherfor if mete sclaudrith my brother, Y schal neuere ete fleisch, lest Y sclaudre my brothir. (aiōn g165)

9 Whether Y am not fre? Am Y not apostle? Whether Y sai not `Crist Jhesu, `oure Lord? Whether ye ben not my werk in the Lord? 2 And thouy to othere Y am not apostle, but netheles to you Y am; for ye ben the litle signe of myn apostlehed in the Lord. 3 My defense to hem that axen me, that is. 4 Whether we han not power to ete and drynke? 5 Whether we han not power to lede aboute a womman a sistir, as also othere apostlis, and britheren of the Lord, and Cefas? 6 Or Y aloone and Barnabas han not power to worche these thingis? 7 Who traueilith ony tyme with hise owne waxis? Who plauntith a vynyerd, and etith not of his fruyt? Who kepith a flock, and etith not of the mylk of the flock? 8 Whether aftir man Y sey these thingis? whether also the lawe seith not these thingis? 9 For it is writun in the lawe of Moises, Thou schalt not bynde the mouth of the ox threischyng. Whethir of oxun is charge to God? 10 Whether for vs he seith these thingis? For whi tho ben writun for vs; for he that erith, owith to ere in hope, and he that threischith, in hope to take fruytis. 11 If we sowen spiritual thingis to you, is it grete, if we repen youre fleischli thingis? 12 If othere ben parteneris of youre power, whi not rathere we? But we vsen not this power, but we suffren alle thingis, that we yyuen no lettyng to the euangelie of Crist. 13 Witen ye not, that thei that worchen in the temple, eten tho thingis that ben of the temple, and thei that seruen to the auter, ben partyneris of the auter? 14 So the Lord ordeynede to hem that tellen the gospel, to lyue of the gospel. 15 But Y vside noon of these thingis; sotheli Y wroot not these thingis, that tho be don so in me; for it is good `to me rather to die, than that ony man `auoyde my glorie. 16 For if Y preche the gospel, glorie is not to me, for nedelich Y mot don it; for wo to me, if Y preche not the gospel. 17 But if Y do this thing wilfuli, Y haue mede; but if ayens my wille, dispending is bitakun to me. 18 What thanne is my mede? That Y prechyng the gospel, putte the gospel with outen otheris cost, that Y vse not my power in the gospel. 19 Forwhi whanne Y was fre of alle men, Y made me seruaunt of alle men, to wynne the mo men. 20 And to Jewis Y am maad as a Jew, to wynne the Jewis; to hem that ben vndur the lawe, 21 as Y were vndur the lawe, whanne Y was not vndur the lawe, to wynne hem that weren vndur the lawe; to hem that weren with out lawe, as Y were with out lawe, whanne Y was not with out the lawe of God, but Y was in the lawe of Crist, to wynne hem that weren with out lawe. 22 Y am maad sijk to sike men, to wynne sike men; to alle men Y am maad alle thingis, to make alle men saaf. 23 But Y do alle thingis for the gospel, that Y be maad partener of it. 24 Witen ye not, that thei that rennen in a furlong, alle rennen, but oon takith the prijs? So renne ye, that ye catche. 25 Ech man that stryueþ in fyt, absteyneth hym fro alle thingis; and thei, that thei take a corruptible coroun, but we an vncorrupt. 26 Therfor Y renne so, not as `in to vncerteyn thing; thus Y fyte, not as betynge the eir; 27 but Y chastise my bodi, and bryng it in to seruage; lest perauenture whanne Y preche to othere, Y my silf be maad reпреuable.

10 Britheren, Y nyle, that ye vnknowe, that alle oure fadris weren vndur cloude, and alle passiden the see; 2 and alle weren baptisid in Moises, in the cloude and in the see; 3 and alle eeten the same spiritual mete, 4 and alle drunken the same spiritual drynke; thei drunken of the spiritual stoon folewyng hem; and the stoon was Crist. 5 But not in ful manye of hem it was wel pleasaunt to God; for whi thei weren cast down in desert. 6 But these thingis ben don in figure of vs, that we be not coueyteris of yuele thingis, as thei coueitiden. 7 Nether be ye maad idolatreris, as summe of hem; as it is writun, The puple sat to ete and drynke, and thei risen vp to pleie. 8 Nether do we fornyacioun, as summe of hem diden fornyacioun, and thre and twenti thousyndis weren deed in o dai. 9 Nethir tempte we Crist, as summe of hem temptiden, and perischiden of serpentis. 10 Nether grutche ye, as summe of hem grutchiden, and thei perischiden of a distrier. 11 And alle these thingis felliden to hem in figure; but thei ben writun to oure amending, in to whiche the endis of the worldis ben comun. (aiōn g165) 12 Therfor he that gessith hym, `that he stondith, se he, that he falle not. 13 Temptacioun take `not you, but mannus temptacioun; for God is trewe, which schal not suffre you to be temptid aboute that that ye moun; but he schal make with temptacioun also purueyaunce, that ye moun suffre. 14 Wherfor, ye most dereworthe to me, fle ye fro worschipping of maumetis. 15 As to prudent men Y speke, deme ye you silf that thing that Y seie. 16 Whether the cuppe of blessing which we blessen, is not the comynynge of Cristis blood? and whether the breed which we breken, is not the takynge of the bodi of the Lord? 17 For we manye ben o breed and o bodi, alle we that taken part of o breed and of o cuppe. 18 Se ye Israel aftir the fleisch, whethir thei that eeten sacrifices, ben not partyners of the auter? 19 What therfor seie Y, that a thing that is offrid to idols is ony thing, or that the idol is ony thing? 20 But tho thingis that hethene men offren, thei offren to deuylis, and not to God. But Y nyle, that ye ben maad felowis of feendis; for ye moun not drynke the cuppe of the Lord, and the cuppe of fendis; 21 ye moun not be parteners of the boord of the Lord, and of the bord of feendis. 22 Whether we han enuye to the Lord? whether we ben strengere then he? Alle thingis ben leueful to me, but not alle thingis ben spedeful. 23 Alle thingis ben leueful to me, but not alle thingis edifiem. 24 No man seke that thing that is his owne, but that thing that is of an othere. 25 Al thing that is seld in the bocherie, ete ye, axynge no thing for conscience. 26 The erthe and the plente of it is, the Lordis. 27 If ony of hethene men clepith you to soper, and ye wole go, al thing that is set to you, ete ye, axynge no thing for conscience. 28 But if ony man seith, This thing is offrid to idols, nyle ye ete, for hym that schewide, and for conscience; and Y seie not, 29 thi conscience, but of an othere. But wherto is my fredom demed of an othere mannis conscience? 30 Therfor if Y take part with grace, what am Y blasfemed, for that that Y do thankynge? 31 Therfor whether ye eten, or drynken, or don ony other thing, do ye alle thingis `in to the glorie of God. 32 Be ye with outen sclaundre to Jewis, and to hethene men, and to the chirche of God; 33 as Y bi alle thingis plese to alle men, not sekynge that that is profitable to me, but that that is profitable to manye men, that thei be maad saaf.

11 Be ye my foleweris, as Y am of Crist. 2 And, britheren, Y preise you, that bi alle thingis ye ben myndeful of me; and as Y bitook to you my comaundementis, ye holden. 3 But Y wole that ye wite, that Crist is heed of ech man; but the heed of the womman is the man; and the heed of Crist is God. 4 Ech man preiyng, or profeciynge, whanne his heed is hilid, defoulith his heed. 5 But ech womman preiyng, or profeciynge, whanne hir heed is not hilid, defoulith hir heed; for it is oon, as if sche were pollid. 6 And if a womman be not keuered, be sche pollid; and if it is foul thing to a womman to be pollid, or to be maad ballid, hile sche hir heed. 7 But a man schal not hile his heed, for he is the ymage and the glorie of God; but a womman is the glorie of man. 8 For a man is not of the womman, but the womman of the man. 9 And the man is not maad for the womman, but the womman for the man. 10 Therfor the womman schal haue an hilyng on hir heed, also for aungelis. 11 Netheles nether the man is with outen womman, nether the womman is with oute man, in the Lord. 12 Forwhi as the womman is of man, so the man is bi the womman; but alle thingis ben of God. 13 Deme ye you silf; bisemeth it a womman not hilid on the heed to preye God? 14 Nether the kynde it silf techith vs, for if a man nursche longe heer, it is schenschipe to hym; 15 but if a womman nurische longe heer, it is glorie to hir, for heeris ben youun to hir for keueryng. 16 But if ony man is seyn to be ful of strijf, we han noon siche custom, nethir the chirche of God. 17 But this thing

Y comaunde, not preisyng, that ye comen togidere not in to the betere, but in to the worse. 18 First for whanne ye comen togidere in to the chirche, Y here that discenciouns ben, and in parti Y bileue. 19 For it bihoueth eresies to be, that thei that ben prouyd, ben opynli knowun in you. 20 Therfor whanne ye comen togidere in to oon, now it is not to ete the Lordis soper; 21 for whi ech man bifor takith his soper to ete, and oon is hungry, and another is drunkun. 22 Whether ye han not housis to ete and drynke, or ye dispisen the chirche of God, and confounden hem that han noon? What schal Y seie to you? Y preise you, but here yn Y preise you not. 23 For Y haue takun of the Lord that thing, which Y haue bitakun to you. For the Lord Jhesu, in what niyt he was bitraied, 24 took breed, and dide thankyngis, and brak, and seide, Take ye, and ete ye; this is my bodi, which schal be bitraied for you; do ye this thing in to my mynde. 25 Also the cuppe, aftir that he hadde soupid, and seide, This cuppe is the newe testament in my blood; do ye this thing, as ofte as ye schulen drynke, in to my mynde. 26 For as ofte as ye schulen ete this breed, and schulen drynke the cuppe, ye schulen telle the deth of the Lord, til that he come. 27 Therfor who euere etith the breed, or drynkith the cuppe of the Lord vnworthili, he schal be gilty of the bodi and of the blood of the Lord. 28 But preue a man hym silf, and so ete he of the ilke breed, and drynke of the cuppe. 29 For he that etith and drinkith vnworthili, etith and drinkith doom to hym, not wiseli demyng the bodi of the Lord. 30 Therfor among you many ben sijke and feble, and manye slepen. 31 And if we demyden wiseli vs silf, we schulden not be demyd; 32 but while we ben demyd of the Lord, we ben chastisid, that we be not dampnyd with this world. 33 Therfor, my britheren, whanne ye comen togidere to ete, abide ye togidere. 34 If ony man hungrith, ete he at home, that ye come not togidere in to doom. And Y schal dispose othere thingis, whanne Y come.

12 But of spiritual thingis, britheren, Y nyle that ye vnknowun. 2 For ye witen, that whanne ye weren hethene men, hou ye weren led goynge to doumbe maumetis. 3 Therfor Y make knowun to you, that no man spekyng in the spirit of God, seith departyng fro Jhesu; and no man may seie the Lord Jhesu, but in the Hooli Goost. 4 And dyuerse graces ther ben, but it is al oon Spirit; 5 and dyuerse seruyces ther ben, but it is al oon Lord; and dyuerse worchingis ther ben, 6 but `al is oon God, that worchith alle thingis in alle thingis. 7 And to ech man the schewyng of spirit is youun to profit. The word of wisdom is youun to oon bi spirit; 8 to another the word of kunnyng, bi the same spirit; 9 feith to another, in the same spirit; to another, grace of helthis, in o spirit; 10 to another, the worchyng of vertues; to another, profecie; to another, very knowyng of spiritis; to another, kyndis of langagis; to another, expownyng of wordis. 11 And oon and the same spirit worchith alle these thingis, departyng to ech bi hem silf as he wole. 12 For as ther is o body, and hath many membris, and alle the membris of the bodi whanne tho ben manye, ben o bodi, so also Crist. 13 For in o spirit alle we ben baptisid `in to o bodi, ether Jewis, ether hethene, ether seruauntis, ether free; and alle we ben fillid with drink in o spirit. 14 For the bodi is not o membre, but manye. 15 If the foot seith, For Y am not the hoond, Y am not of the bodi; not therfor it is not of the bodi. 16 And if the ere seith, For Y am not the iye, Y am not of the bodi; not therfor it is not of the bodi. 17 If al the bodi is the iye, where is heryng? and if al the bodi is heryng, where is smellyng? 18 But now God hath set membris, and ech of hem in the bodi, as he wolde. 19 That if alle weren o membre, where were the bodi? 20 But now ther ben many membris, but o bodi. 21 And the iye may not seie to the hond, Y haue no nede to thi werkis; or eft the heed to the feet, Ye ben not necessarie to me. 22 But myche more tho that ben seyn to be the lowere membris of the bodi, ben more nedeful; 23 and thilke that we gessen to be the vnworthier membris of the bodi, we yyuen more honour to hem; and tho membris that ben vnonest, han more oneste. 24 For oure oneste membris han nede of noon; but God tempride the bodi, yyuynge more worschip to it, to whom it failide, 25 that debate be not in the bodi, but that the membris be bisi in to the same thing ech for othere. 26 And if o membre suffrith ony thing, alle membris suffren therwith; ethir if o membre ioieth, alle membris ioien togidere. 27 And ye ben the bodi of Crist, and membris of membre. 28 But God sette sum men in the chirche, fyrst apostlis, the secunde tyme prophetis, the thridde techeris, aftirward vertues, aftirward graces of heelyngis, helpyngis, gouernails, kyndis of langagis, interpretaciouns of wordis. 29 Whether alle apostlis? whethir alle prophetis? whether alle techeris? whether alle vertues? 30 whether alle men han grace of heelyngis? whether alle speken with langagis? whether alle expownen? 31 But sue ye the betere goostli yiftis. And yit Y schewe to you a more excellent weye.

13 If Y speke with tungis of men and of aungels, and Y haue not charite, Y am maad as bras sownyng, or a cymbal tynkyng. 2 And if Y haue prophecie, and knowe alle mysteries, and al kunnyng, and if Y haue al feith, so that Y meue hillis fro her place, and Y haue not charite, Y am nouyt. 3 And if Y departe alle my goodis in to the metis of pore men, and yf Y bitake my bodi, so that Y brenne, and if Y haue not charite, it profitith to me no thing. 4 Charite is pacient, it is benygne; charite enuyeth not, it doith not wickidli, it is not blowun, 5 it is not coueytouse, it sekith not tho thingis that ben hise owne, it is not stirid to wraththe, it thenkith not yuel, 6 it ioyeth not on wickidnesse, but it ioieth togidere to treuthe; 7 it suffrith alle thingis, it bileueth alle thingis, it hopith alle thingis, it susteyneth alle thingis. 8 Charite fallith neuere doun, whether prophecies schulen be voidid, ethir langagis schulen ceesse, ethir science schal be distried. 9 For a parti we knowun, and a parti we prophecien; 10 but whanne that schal come that is parfit, that thing that is of parti schal be auoidid. 11 Whanne Y was a litil child, Y spak as a litil child, Y vndurstood as a litil child, Y thouyte as a litil child; but whanne Y was maad a man, Y auoidide tho thingis that weren of a litil child. 12 And we seen now bi a myroure in derknesse, but thanne face to face; now Y knowe of parti, but thanne Y schal knowe, as Y am knowun. 13 And now dwellen feith, hope, and charite, these thre; but the most of these is charite.

14 Sue ye charite, loue ye spiritual thingis, but more that ye prophecien. 2 And he that spekith in tunge, spekith not to men, but to God; for no man herith. But the spirit spekith mysteries. 3 For he that prophecieth, spekith to men to edificacioun, and monestyng, and coumfortyng. 4 He that spekith in tunge, edifieth hym silf; but he that prophecieth, edifieth the chirche of God. 5 And Y wole, that alle ye speke in tungis, but more that ye prophecie. For he that prophecieth, is more than he that spekith in langagis; but perauenture he expoune, that the chirche take edificacioun. 6 But now, britheren, if Y come to you, and speke in langagis, what schal Y profite to you, but if Y speke to you ethir in reuelacioun, ethir in science, ethir in prophecie, ether in techyng? 7 For tho thingis that ben withouten soule, and yyueth voices, ethir pipe, ether harpe, but tho yyuen distinccioun of sownyngis, hou schal it be knowun that is sungun, ether that that is trumpid? 8 For if a trumpe yyue an vncerteyn sounne, who schal make hym silf redi to batel? 9 So but ye yyuen an opyn word bi tunge, hou schal that that is seid be knowun? For ye schulen be spekyng in veyn. 10 There ben many kyndis of langagis in this world, and no thing is with outen vois. 11 But if Y knowe not the vertu of a vois, Y schal be to hym, to whom Y schal speke, a barbarik; and he that spekith to me, schal be a barbarik. 12 So ye, for ye ben louveris of spiritis, seke ye that ye be plenteuouse to edificacioun of the chirche. 13 And therfor he that spekith in langage, preie, that he expowne. 14 For if Y preye in tunge, my spirit preieth; myn vnderstondyng is with outen fruyt. 15 What thanne? Y schal preye in spirit, Y schal preye in mynde; Y schal seie salm, in spirit, Y schal seie salm also in mynde. 16 For if thou blessist in spirit, who fillith the place of an ydiot, hou schal he seie Amen on thi blessing, for he woot not, what thou seist? 17 For thou doist wel thankyngis, but an othir man is not edefied. 18 Y thanke my God, for Y speke in the langage of alle you; 19 but in the chirche Y wole speke fyue wordis in my wit, that also Y teche othere men, than ten thousynde of wordis in tunge. 20 Britheren, nyle ye be maad children in wittis, but in malice be ye children; but in wittis be ye parfit. 21 For in the lawe it is writun, That in othere tungis and othere lippis Y schal speke to this puple, and nether so thei schulen here me, seith the Lord. 22 Therfor langagis ben in to tokene, not to feithful men, but to men out of the feith; but prophecies ben not to men out of the feith, but to feithful men. 23 Therfor if alle the chirche come togidere in to oon, and alle men speken in tungis, if idiotis, ether men out of the feith, entren, whether thei schulen not seie, What ben ye woode? 24 But if alle men prophecien, if ony vnfeithful man or idiot entre, he is conuyct of alle, he is wiseli demyd of alle. 25 For the hid thingis of his herte ben knowun, and so he schal falle doun on the face, and schal worschipe God, and schewe verili that God is in you. 26 What thanne, britheren? Whanne ye comen togidere, ech of you hath a salm, he hath techyng, he hath apocalips, he hath tunge, he hath expownyng; alle thingis be thei don to edificacioun. 27 Whether a man spekith in tunge, bi twei men, ethir thre at the moste, and bi partis, that oon interprete. 28 But if there be not an interpretour, be he stille in the chirche, and speke he to hym silf and to God. 29 Prophetis tweine or thre seie, and othere wiseli deme. 30 But if ony thing be schewid to a sattere, the formere be stille. 31 For ye moun `prophecie alle, ech bi hym silf, that alle men lerne, and alle moneste. 32 And the spiritis of prophetis ben suget to prophetis; 33 for whi God is not of discencioun, but of pees; as in alle chirchis of hooli men `Y teche. 34 Wymmen in chirchis be stille; for it is not suffrid to hem to speke, but to be suget, as the lawe seith. 35 But if thei wolen ony thing lerne, `at home axe thei her hosebondis; for it is foule thing to a womman to speke in chirche. 36 Whether `of you the word of God cam forth, or to you aloone it cam? 37 If ony man is seyn to be a prophete, or spiritual, knowe he tho thingis that Y write to you, for tho ben the comaundementis of the Lord. 38 And if ony man vnknowith, he schal be vnknowun. 39 `Therfor, britheren, loue ye to prophecie, and nyle ye forbede to speke in tungis. 40 But be alle thingis don onestli, and bi due ordre in you.

15 `Sotheli, britheren, Y make the gospel knowun to you, which Y haue prechid to you, the which also ye han takun, in which ye stonden, 2 also bi which ye schulen be sauyc; `bi which resoun Y haue prechid to you, if ye holden, `if ye han not bileuyd ideli. 3 For Y bitook to you at the bigynnyng that thing which also Y haue resseyued; that Crist was deed for oure synnes, bi the scripturis; 4 and that he was biried, and that he roos ayen in the thridde dai, after scripturis; 5 and that he was seyn to Cephas, and aftir these thingis to enleuene; 6 aftirward he was seyn to mo than fyue hundrid britheren togidere, of whiche manye lyuen yit, but summe ben deed; aftirward he was seyn to James, 7 and aftirward to alle the apostlis. 8 And last of alle he was seyn also to me, as to a deed borun child. 9 For Y am the leste of apostlis, that am not worthi to be clepid apostle, for Y pursuede the chirche of God. 10 But bi the grace of God Y am that thing that Y am; and his grace was not voide in me. For Y trauelide more plenteuously than alle thei; but not Y, but the grace of God with me. 11 But whether Y, or thei, so we han prechid, and so ye han bileuyd. 12 And if Crist is prechid, that he roos ayen fro deeth, hou seien summen among you, that the ayenrisyng of deed men is not? 13 And if the ayenrisyng of deed men is not, nethir Crist roos ayen fro deeth. 14 And if Crist roos not, oure preching is veyn, oure feith is veyn. 15 And we ben foundun false witnessis of God, for we han seid witnessyng ayens God, that he reside Crist, whom he reside not, if deed men risen not ayen. 16 Forwhi if deed men risen not ayen, nether Crist roos ayen; 17 and if Crist roos not ayen, oure feith is veyn; and yit ye ben in youre synnes. 18 And thanne thei that han diede in Crist, han perischid. 19 If in this life oneli we ben hoping in Crist, we ben more wretchis than alle men. 20 But now Crist roos ayen fro deth, the firste fruit of deed men; 21 for deeth was bi a man, and bi a man is ayenrisyng fro deth. 22 And as in Adam alle men dien, so in Crist alle men schulen be quykenyd. 23 But ech man in his ordre; the firste fruit, Crist, afterward thei that ben of Crist, that bileueden in the comyng of Crist; 24 aftirward an ende, whanne he schal bitake the kyngdom to God and to the fadir, whanne he schal auoide al princehod, and power, and vertu. 25 But it bihoueth hym to regne, til he putte alle hise enemyes vndur hise feet. 26 And at the laste, deth the enemye schal be distried; for he hath maad suget alle thingis vndur hise feet. 27 And whanne he seith, alle thingis ben suget to hym, with outen doubt outakun hym that sugetide alle thingis to hym. 28 And whanne alle thingis ben suget to hym, thanne the sone hym silf schal be suget to hym, that made `alle thingis suget to hym, that God be alle thingis in alle thingis. 29 Ellis what schulen thei do, that ben baptisid for deed men, if in no wise deed men risen ayen? wherto ben thei baptisid for hem? 30 And wherto ben we in perel euery our? 31 Ech dai Y die for youre glorie, britheren, which glorie Y haue in Crist Jhesu oure Lord. 32 If aftir man Y haue fouyten to beestis at Efesi, what profitith it to me, if deed men risen not ayen? Ete we, and drynke we, for we schulen die to morewe. 33 Nyle ye be disseyued; for yuel spechis distrien good thewis. 34 Awake ye, iuste men, and nyle ye do synne; for summen han ignoraunce of God, but to reuerence Y speke to you. 35 But summan seith, Hou schulen deed men rise ayen, or in what maner bodi schulen thei come?

36 Vnwise man, that thing that thou sowist, is not quykened, but it die first; 37 and that thing that thou sowist, `thou sowist not the bodi that is to come, but a nakid corn, as of whete, or of summe othere seedis; 38 and God yyueth to it a bodi, as he wole, and to ech of seedis a propir bodi. 39 Not ech fleisch is the same fleisch, but oon is of men, another is of beestis, another is of briddis, an othere of fischis. 40 And `heuenli bodies ben, and `ertheli bodies ben; but oon glorie is of heuenely bodies, and anothis is of ertheli. 41 An othere clerenesse is of the sunne, anothere clerenesse is of the moone, and anothere clerenesse is of steris; and a sterre dyuersith fro a sterre in clerenesse. 42 And so the ayenrisyng of deed men. It is sowun in corrupcioun, it schal rise in vncorruptioun; 43 it is sowun in vnnoblei, it schal rise in glorie; it is sowun in infirmyte, it schal rise in vertu; 44 it is sowun a beestly bodi, it schal rise a spiritual bodi. If ther is a beestli bodi, ther is also a spiritual bodi; 45 as it is writun, The firste man Adam was maad in to a soule lyuyng, the laste Adam in to a spirit quykenyng. 46 But the firste is not that that is spiritual, but that that is beestlich, aftirward that that is spiritual. 47 The firste man of erthe is ertheli; the secounde man of heuene is heuenelich. 48 Such as the ertheli man is, such ben the ertheli men; and such as the heueneli man is, suche ben also the heueneli men. 49 Therfor as we han bore the ymage of the ertheli man, bere we also the ymage of the heuenli. 50 Britheren, Y seie this thing, that fleisch and bloud moun not welde the kyngdom of God, nethir corrupcioun schal welde vncorruptioun. 51 Lo! Y seie to you priuyte of hooli thingis. And alle we schulen rise ayen, but not alle we schulen be chaungid; 52 in a moment, in the twynklyng of an iye, in the laste trumpe; for the trumpe schal sowne, and deed men schulen rise ayen, with oute corrupcioun, and we schulen be chaungid. 53 For it byhoueth this corruptible thing to clothe vncorruptioun, and this deedli thing to putte awei vndeedlinesse. 54 But whanne this deedli thing schal clothe vndeedlynese, thanne schal the word be doon, that is writun, Deth is sopun vp in victorie. 55 Deth, where is thi victorie? Deth, where is thi pricke? (Hadēs g86) 56 But the pricke of deth is synne; and the vertu of synne is the lawe. 57 But do we thankynge to God, that yaf to vs victorie bi oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 58 Therefore, my dereworthe britheren, be ye stidefast, and vnmouable, beyng plenteuouse in werk of the Lord, euere more witynge that youre trauel is not idel in the Lord.

16 But of the gaderyngis of money that ben maad in to seyntis, as Y ordeynede in the chirchis of Galathie, so also do ye o dai of the wouke. 2 Ech of you kepe at hym silf, kepyng that that plesith to him, that whanne Y come, the gaderyngis ben not maad. 3 And whanne Y schal be present, whiche men ye preuen, Y schal sende hem bi epistlis to bere youre grace in to Jerusalem. 4 That if it be worthi that also Y go, thei schulen go with me. 5 But Y schal come to you, whanne Y schal passe bi Macedonye; for whi Y schal passe bi Macedonye. 6 But perauenture Y schal dwelle at you, or also dwelle the wynter, that and ye lede me whidir euere Y schal go. 7 And Y wole not now se you in my passyng, for Y hope to dwelle with you awhile, if the Lord schal suffre. 8 But Y schal dwelle at Efesi, `til to Witsuntide. 9 For a grete dore and an opyn is openyd to me, and many aduersaries. 10 And if Thimothe come, se ye that he be with out drede with you, for he worcheth the werk of the Lord, as Y. 11 Therfor no man dispise hym; but lede ye hym forth in pees, that he come to me; for Y abide hym with britheren. 12 But, britheren, Y make knowun to you of Apollo, that Y preiede him myche, that he schulde come to you, with britheren. But it was not his wille to come now; but he schal come, whanne he schal haue leiser. 13 Walke ye, and stonde ye in the feith; do ye manli, and be ye coumfortid in the Lord, 14 and be alle youre thingis don in charite. 15 And, britheren, Y biseche you, ye knowen the hous of Stephan, and of Fortunati, and Acaicy, for thei ben the firste fruytis of Acaie, and in to mynystrie of seyntis thei han ordeyned hem silf; 16 that also ye be sugetis to suche, and to ech worchyng togidere and trauelynge. 17 For Y haue ioie in the presence of Stephan, and of Fortunate, and Acaici; 18 for thei filliden that thing that failide to you; for thei han refreischid bothe my spirit and youre. Therfor knowe ye hem, that ben suche maner men. 19 Alle the chirchis of Asie greten you wel. Aquila and Prisca, with her homeli chirche, greten you myche in the Lord, at the whiche also Y am herborid. 20 Alle bretheren greten you wel. Grete ye wel togidere in hooli cos. 21 My gretynge bi Poulis hoond. 22 If ony man loueth not oure Lord Jhesu Crist, be he cursid, Maranatha. 23 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with you. 24 My charite be with you alle in Crist Jhesu oure Lord. Amen.

2 Corinthians

1 Poul, apostle of Jhesu Crist, bi the wille of God, and Tymothe, brothir, to the chirche of God that is at Corinthi, with alle seyntis that ben in al Acaie, grace to you, 2 and pees of God oure fadir and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 3 Blessid be God and the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, fadir of mercies, and God of al coumfort, 4 which coumfortith vs in al oure tribulacioun, that also we moun coumforte hem, that ben in al diseese, bi the monestyng bi which also we ben monestid of God. 5 For as the passiouns of Crist ben plenteuouse in vs, so also bi Crist oure coumfort is plenteuouse. 6 And whether we ben in tribulacioun, for youre tribulacioun and heelthe, ethir we ben coumfortid, for youre coumfort, ethir we ben monestid, for youre monestyng and heelthe. Which worchith in you the suffring of the same passiouns, whiche `we also suffren, 7 that oure hope be sad for you; witynge for as ye ben felowis of passiouns, so ye schulen ben also of coumfort. 8 For, britheren, we wolen that ye wite of oure tribulacioun, that was don in Asie; for ouer maner we weren greued ouer myyt, so that it anoiede vs, yhe, to lyue. 9 But we in vs silf hadden answere of deth, that we truste not in vs, but in God that reisith deed men. 10 Which delyuerede vs, and delyuerith fro so grete perelis, in to whom we hopen, also yit he schal delyuere, 11 while also ye helpen in preier for vs; that of the persones of many faces of that yyuyng that is in vs, thankyngis ben don for vs bi many men to God. 12 For oure glorie is this, the witnessyng of oure conscience, that in symplenesse and clenness of God, and not in fleischli wisdom, but in the grace of God, we lyueden in this world, but more plenteuousli to you. 13 And we writen not othere thingis to you, than tho that ye han red and knowe, and Y hope that in to the ende ye schulen knowe, 14 as also ye han knowe vs a parti; for we ben youre glorie, as also ye ben oure in the dai of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 15 And in this tristyng Y wolde first come to you, that ye schulden haue the secounde grace, 16 and passe bi you in to Macedonye, and eft fro Macedonye come to you, and of you be led in to Judee. 17 But whanne Y wolde this thing, whether Y vside vnstidfastnesse, ether tho thingis that Y thenke, Y thenke afir the fleisch, that at me be, it is and it is not? 18 But God is trewe, for oure word that was at you is and is not, is not ther ynne, but is in it. 19 For whi Jhesus Crist, the sone of God, which is prechid among you bi vs, bi me, and Syluan, and Tymothe, ther was not in hym is and is not, but is was in hym. 20 For whi hou many euer ben biheestis of God, in thilke is, `that is, ben fillid. And therfor and bi hym we seien amen to God, to oure glorie. 21 Sotheli it is God that confermeth vs with you in Crist, and the which God anoyntide vs, 22 and which markide vs, and yaf ernes of the spirit in oure hertis. 23 For Y clepide God to witnesse ayens my soule, that Y sparynge you cam not ouer to Corynthe; 24 not that we ben lordis of youre feith, but we ben helperis of youre ioye; for thorouy bileue ye stonden.

2 And Y ordeynede this ilke thing at me, that Y schulde not come eftsoone in heuynes to you. 2 For if Y make you sori, who is he that gladith me, but he that is soreuful of me? 3 And this same thing Y wroot to you, that whanne Y come, Y haue not sorewe on sorewe, of the whiche it behofte me to haue ioie. And Y triste in you alle, that my ioye is of alle you. 4 For of myche tribulacioun and angwisch of herte Y wroot to you by many teeris, not that ye be sori, but that ye wite what charite Y

haue more plenteuously in you. 5 For if ony man hath maad me soreful, he hath not maad me soreful but a parti, that Y charge not you alle. 6 This blamyng that ys maad of manye, suffisith to hym, that is sich oon; 7 so that ayenward ye rathir foryyuen and coumfort, lest perauenture he that is suche a maner man, be sopun vp bi more grete heuynesse. 8 For which thing Y biseche you, that ye conferme charite in to hym. 9 For whi therfor Y wroot this, that Y knowe youre preuyng, whether in alle thingis ye ben obedient. 10 For to whom ye han foryyuen ony thing, also Y haue foryyue. For Y that that Y foryaf, yif Y foryaf ony thing, haue youun for you in the persone of Crist, 11 that we be not disseyued of Sathanas; for we knowen hise thouytis. 12 But whanne Y was comun to Troade for the gospel of Crist, and a dore was opened to me in the Lord, 13 Y hadde not rest to my spirit, for Y foond not my brother Tite, but Y seide to hem farewell, and Y passide in to Macedonye. 14 And Y do thankyngis to God, that euere more makith vs to haue victorie in Crist Jhesu, and schewith bi vs the odour of his knowing in ech place; 15 for we ben the good odour of Crist to God, among these that ben maad saaf, and among these that perischen. 16 To othere sotheli odour of deth in to deth, but to othere we ben odour of lijf in to lijf. And to these thingis who is so able? 17 For we ben not as many, that don auoutrie bi the word of God, but we speken of clenness, as of God, bifer God in Crist.

3 Bigynnen we therfor eftsoone to preise vs silf? or whether we neden, as summen, pistlis of preisinge to you, or of you? 2 Ye ben oure pistle, writun in oure hertis, which is knowun and red of alle men, 3 and maad opyn, for ye ben the pistle of Crist mynystred of vs, and writun, not with enke, but bi the spirit of the lyuyng God; not in stony tablis, but in fleischli tablis of herte. 4 For we han such trist bi Crist to God; 5 not that we ben sufficient to thenke any thing of vs, as of vs, but oure suffiience is of God.

6 Which also made vs able mynystris of the newe testament, not bi lettre, but bi spirit; for the lettre sleeth, but the spirit quykeneth.
7 And if the mynystracioun of deth write bi lettris in stoonys was in glorie, so that the children of Israel myyten not biholde in to the face of Moises, for the glorie of his cheer, which is auoidid, 8 hou schal not the mynystracioun of the spirit be more in glorie?
9 For if the mynystracioun of dampnacioun was in glorie, myche more the mynysterie of riytwisnesse is plenteuouse in glorie.
10 For nether that that was cleer was glorified in this part for the excellent glorie; and if that that is auoidid, 11 was bi glorie, myche more that that dwellith stille is in glorie. 12 Therfor we that han suche hope, vsen myche trist; 13 and not as Moises leide a veil on his face, that the children of Israel schulden not biholde in to his face, which veil is auoidid. 14 But the wittis of hem ben astonyed; for in to this dai the same veil in reding of the olde testament dwellith not schewid, for it is auoidid in Crist, but in to this dai, 15 whanne Moises is red, the veil is put on her hertis.
16 But whanne Israel schal be conuertid to God, the veil schal be don awei. 17 And the spirit is the Lord; and where the spirit of the Lord is, there is fredom. 18 And alle we that with open face seen the glorie of the Lord, ben transformed in to the same ymage, fro clerenesse in to clerenesse, as of the spirit of the Lord.

4 Therfor we that han this admynystracioun, aftir this that we han getun merci, 2 faile we not, but do we awei the preue thingis of schame, not walkinge in sutil gile, nether doynge auoutrye bi the word of God, but in schewynge of the treuthe comendynge vs silf to ech conscience of men bifor God. 3 For if also oure gospel is kyuerid, in these that perischen it is kyuerid; 4 in which God hath blent the soulis of vnfeithful men of this world, that the liytning of the gospel of the glorie of Crist, which is the ymage of God, schyne not. (aiōn g165) 5 But we prechen not vs silf, but oure Lord Jhesu Crist; and vs youre seruauntis bi Jhesu. 6 For God, that seide liyt to schyne of derknessis, he hath youe liyt in oure hertis, to the liytning of the science of the clerenesse of God, in the face of Jhesu Crist. 7 And we han this tresour in britil vessels, that the worthinesse be of Goddis vertu, and not of vs. 8 In alle thingis we suffren tribulacioun, but we ben not angwischid, or annoyed; we ben maad pore, but `we lacken nothing; we suffren persecucioun, 9 but we ben not forsakun; we ben maad lowe, but we ben not confoundid; we ben cast doun, but we perischen not. 10 And euere more we beren aboute the sleyng of Jhesu in oure bodi, that also the lijf of Jhesu be schewid in oure bodies. 11 For euere more we that lyuen, ben takun in to deth for Jhesu, that the lijf of Jhesu be schewid in oure deedli fleisch. 12 Therfor deth worchith in vs, but lijf worchith in you. 13 And we han the same spirit of feith, as it is writun, Y haue bileuyd, Y haue spoke; and we bileuen, wherfor also we speken; 14 witynge that he that reiseid Jhesu, schal reise also vs with Jhesu, and schal ordeyne with you. 15 And alle thingis for you, that a plenteuouse grace bi many thankngis be plenteuouse in to the glorie of God. 16 For which thing we failen not, for thouy oure vtter man be corruptid; netheles the ynnner man is renewid fro dai to dai. 17 But that liyt thing of oure tribulacioun that lastith now, but as it were by a moment, worchith in vs ouer mesure an euerlastyng birthin in to the heynesse of glorie; (aiōnios g166) 18 while that we biholden not tho thingis that ben seyn, but tho that ben not seyn. For tho thingis that ben seyn, ben but durynge for a schort tyme; but tho thingis that ben not seyn, ben euerlastyng. (aiōnios g166)

5 And we witen, that if oure ertheli hous of this dwellynge be dissoluyd, that we han a bildyng of God, an hous not maad bi hondis, euerlastyng in heuenes. (aiōnios g166) 2 For whi in this thing we mornen, coueitynge to be clothid aboue with oure dwellyng, which is of heuene; if netheles we ben foundun clothid, 3 and not nakid. 4 For whi and we that ben in this tabernacle, sorewen with ynne, and ben heuyed, for that we wolen not be spuylid, but be clothid aboue; that the ilke thing that is deedli, be sopun vp of lijf. 5 But who is it that makith vs in to this same thing? God, that yaf to vs the ernes of the spirit. 6 Therfor we ben hardi algatis, and witen that the while we ben in this bodi, we goen in pilgrymage fro the Lord; 7 for we walken bi feith, and not bi cleer siyt. 8 But we ben hardi, and han good wille, more to be in pilgrymage fro the bodi, and to be present to God. 9 And therfor we stryuen, whether absent, whether present, to plese hym. 10 For it bihoueth vs alle to be schewid bifor the trone of Crist, that euery man telle the propre thingis of the bodi, as he hath don, ethir good, ether yuel. 11 Therfor we witynge the drede of the Lord, councelen men, for to God we ben opyn; and Y hope, that we ben opyn also in youre consciencis. 12 We comenden not vs silf eftsoone to you, but we yyuen to you occasioun to haue glorie for vs, that ye haue to hem that glorien in the face, and not in the herte. 13 For ethir we bi mynde passen to God, ether we ben sobre to you. 14 For the charite of Crist dryueth vs; gessyng this thing, that if oon died for alle, thanne alle weren deed. 15 And Crist diede for alle, that thei that lyuen, lyue not now to hem silf, but to hym that diede for hem, and roos ayen. 16 Therfor we fro this tyme knowen no man aftir the fleische; thouy we knowun Crist aftir the fleisch, but nowe we knowun not. 17 Therfor if ony newe creature is in Crist, the elde thingis ben passid. 18 And lo! alle thingis ben of God, which recounselide vs to hym bi Crist, and yaf to vs the seruyce of recounselyng. 19 And God was in Crist, recounselynge to hym the world, not rettyng to hem her giltes, and puttide in vs the word of recounselyng. 20 Therfor we vsen message for Crist, as if God monestith bi vs; we bisechen for Crist, be ye recounselid to God. 21 God the fadir made hym synne for vs, which knewe not synne, that we schulden be maad riytwisnesse of God in hym.

6 But we helpynge monesten, that ye resseyuen not the grace of God in veyn. 2 For he seith, In tyme wel plesinge Y haue herd thee, and in the dai of heelthe Y haue helpid thee. Lo! now a tyme acceptable, lo! now a dai of heelthe. 3 Yyue we to no man ony offencioun, that oure seruyce be not repreued; 4 but in alle thingis yyue we vs silf as the mynystris of God, in myche pacience, in tribulaciouns, 5 in nedis, in angwischis, in betyngis, in prisouns, in dissensiouns with ynne, in trauels, in wakyngis, in fastyngis, 6 in chastite, in kunnyng, in long abiding, in swetnesse, in the Hooli Goost, 7 in charite not feined, in the word of treuthe, in the vertu of God; bi armeris of riytwisnesse on the riythalf and on the lefthalf; 8 bi glorie and vnnoblei; bi yuel fame and good fame; as disseyueris, and trewe men; as thei that ben vnknowun, and knowun; 9 as men diyng, and lo! we lyuen; as chastisid, and not maad deed; 10 as sorewful, euere more ioiynge; as hauynge nede, but makynge many men riche; as no thing hauynge, and weldynge alle thingis. 11 Al ye Corynthies, oure mouth is open to you, oure herte is alargid; 12 ye ben not angwischid in vs, but ye ben anguischid in youre inwardnessis. 13 And Y seie as to sones, ye that han the same reward, be ye alargid. 14 Nyle ye bere the yok with vnfeithful men. For what parting of riytwisnes with wickidnesse? or what felouschipe of liyt to derknessis? 15 and what acording of Crist to Belial? or what part of a feithful with the vnfeithful? 16 and what consent to the temple of God with mawmetis? And ye ben the temple of the lyuynge God, as the Lord seith, For Y schal dwelle in hem, and Y schal walke among hem; and Y schal be God of hem, and thei schulen be a puple to me. 17 For which thing go ye out of the myddil of hem, and be ye departid, seith the Lord, and touche ye not vnclene thing; 18 and Y schal resseyue you, and schal be to you in to a fadir, and ye schulen be to me in to sones and douytris, seith the Lord almyyti.

7 Therfor, most dereworthe britheren, we that han these biheestis, clense we vs fro al filthe of the fleische and of the spirit, doynge holynesse in the drede of God. 2 Take ye vs; we han hirt no man, we han apeirid no man, we han bigilid no man. 3 Y seie not to youre condempnyng; for Y seide bifor, that ye ben in youre hertis, to die togidere and to lyue togidere. 4 Myche trist is to me anentis you, myche gloryng is to me for you. Y am fillid with coumfort, Y am plenteuouse in ioie in al oure tribulacioun. 5 For whanne we weren comun to Macedonye, oure fleisch hadde no reste, but we suffriden al tribulacioun; with outforth fyingis, and dredis with ynne. 6 But God that coumfortith meke men, coumfortide vs in the comyng of Tite. 7

And not oneli in the comyng of him, but also in the coumfort bi which he was coumfortid in you, tellinge to vs youre desire, youre weping, youre loue for me, so that Y ioiede more. 8 For thouy Y made you sorie in a pistle, it rewith me not; thouy it rewide, seyng that thouy thilke pistle made you sori at an our, now Y haue ioie; 9 not for ye weren maad soreful, but for ye weren maad soreful to penaunce. For whi ye ben maad sori aftir God, that in no thing ye suffre peirement of vs. 10 For the sorewe that is aftir God, worchith penaunce in to stidfast heelthe; but sorewe of the world worchith deth. 11 For lo! this same thing, that ye ben soreful aftir God, hou myche bisynesse it worchith in you; but defendyng, but indignacioun, but drede, but desire, but loue, but veniaunce. In alle thingis ye han youun you silf to be vndefoulid in the cause. 12 Therfor thouy Y wroot to you, Y wroot not for hym that dide the iniurie, nether for hym that suffride, but to schewe oure bisynesse, which we han for you bifer God. 13 Therfor we ben coumfortid, but in youre coumfort more plenteuousli we ioyeden more on the ioie of Tite, for his spirit is fulfillid of alle you. 14 And if Y gloriede ony thing anentis hym of you, Y am not confoundid; but as we han spoke to you alle thingis, so also oure glorie that was at Tite, is maad treuthe. 15 And the inwardnesse of hym be more plenteuousli in you, which hath in mynde the obedience of you alle, hou with drede and trembling ye resseyueden hym. 16 Y haue ioye, that in alle thingis Y triste in you.

8 But, britheren, we maken knowun to you the grace of God, that is youun in the chirchis of Macedonye, 2 that in myche asaiyng of tribulacioun, the plente of the ioye of hem was, and the hiyeste pouert of hem was plenteuouse `in to the richessis of the symplenesse of hem. 3 For Y bere witnessyng to hem, aftir miyt and aboue miyt thei weren wilful, 4 with myche monestyng bisechyng vs the grace and the comynyng of mynystring, that is maad to hooli men. 5 And not as we hopiden, but thei yauen hem silf first to the Lord, aftirward to vs bi the wille of God. 6 So that we preyeden Tite, that as he bigan, so also he performe in you this grace. 7 But as ye abounden in alle thingis, in feith, and word, and kunnyng, and al bisynesse, more ouer and in youre charite in to vs, that and in this grace ye abounden. 8 Y seie not as comaundinge, but bi the bisynesse of othere men appreuynge also the good wit of youre charite. 9 And ye witen the grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, for he was maad nedi for you, whanne he was riche, that ye schulden be maad riche bi his nedynesse. 10 And Y yyue counsel in this thing; for this is profitable to you, that not oneli han bigunne to do, but also ye bigunnen to haue wille fro the formere yere. 11 But now parfourme ye in deed, that as the discrecioun of wille is redi, so be it also of parformyng of that that ye han. 12 For if the wille be redi, it is acceptid aftir that that it hath, not aftir that that it hath not. 13 And not that it be remyssion to othere men, and to you tribulacioun; 14 but of euenesse in the present tyme youre aboundance fulfillle the myseese of hem, that also the aboundaunce of hem be a fulfillynge of youre myseise, that euenesse be maad; as it is writun, 15 He that gaderide myche, was not encresid, and he that gaderide litil, hadde not lesse. 16 And Y do thankyngis to God, that yaf the same bisynesse for you in the herte of Tite, 17 for he resseyuede exortacioun; but whanne he was bisier, bi his wille he wente forth to you. 18 And we senten with hym a brother, whose preisyng is in the gospel bi alle chirchis. 19 And not oneli, but also he is ordeyned of chirchis the felowe of oure pilgrimage in to this grace, that is mynystrid of vs to the glorie of the Lord, and to oure ordeyned wille; 20 eschewynge this thing, that no man blame vs in this plente, that is mynystrid of vs to the glorye of the Lord. 21 For we purueyen good thingis, not onely bifor God, but also bifor alle men. 22 For we senten with hem also oure brothir, whom we han preued in many thingis ofte, that he was bisi, but nowe myche bisier, for myche trist in you, 23 ethir for Tite, that is my felowe and helpere in you, ethir for oure britheren, apostlis of the chirches of the glorie of Crist. 24 Therfor schewe ye in to hem in the face of chirchis, that schewynge that is of youre charite and of oure glorie for you.

9 For of the mynystrie that is maad to hooli men, it is to me of plente to write to you. 2 For Y knowe youre wille, for the which Y haue glorie of you anentis Macedonyes, for also Acaie is redi fro a yeer passid, and youre loue hath stirid ful manye. 3 And we han sent britheren, that this thing that we glorien of you, be not auoidid in this parti, that as Y seide, ye be redi. 4 Lest whanne Macedonyes comen with me, and fynden you vnredi, we be schamed, that we seien you not, in this substaunce. 5 Therfor Y gesside necessarie to preie britheren, that thei come bfore to you, and make redi this bihiyt blessing to be redi, so as blessing, and not as aueryce. 6 For Y seie this thing, he that sowith scarseli, schal also repe scarseli; and he that sowith in blessingis, schal `repe also of blessingis. 7 Ech man as he castide in his herte, not of heuynesse, or of nede; for God loueth a glad yyuere. 8 And God is miyti to make al grace abounde in you, that ye in alle thingis euere more han al sufficience, and abounde in to al good werk; 9 as it is writun, He delide abrood,

(aïōn g165) 10 And he that mynystriþ seed to the sowere, schal yyue also breed to ete, and he schal multiplie youre seed, and make myche the encreessingis of fruytis of youre riytwisnesse; 11 that in alle thingis ye maad riche waxen plenteuouse in to al symplenesse, which worchith bi vs doing of thankngis to God. 12 For the mynystrie of this office not oneli fillith tho thingis that failen to holi men, but also multiplieth many thankngis to God, 13 bi the preuyng of this mynystrie, which glorifien God in the obedience of youre knoueleching in the gospel of Crist, and in symplenesse of comynycacioun in to hem and in to alle, 14 and in the biseching of hem for you, that desiren you for the excellent grace of God in you. 15 Y do thankngis to God of the yifte of hym, that may not be teld.

10 And Y my silf Poul biseche you, bi the myldenesse and softnesse of Crist, which in the face am meke among you, and Y absent triste in you. 2 For Y preie you, that lest Y present be not bold bi the trist, in which Y am gessid to be bold in to summe, that demen vs, as if we wandren aftir the fleisch. 3 For we walkynge in fleisch, fytten not aftir the fleisch. 4 For the armuris of oure knyythod ben not fleischli, but myyti bi God to the destruccion of strengthis. And we distrien counsels, 5 and alle hiynesse that hiyeth it silf ayens the science of God, and dryuen in to caitifte al vndirstonding in to the seruyce of Crist. 6 And we han redi to venge al vnobedience, whanne youre obedience schal be fillid. 7 Se ye the thingis that ben after the face. If ony man trustith to him silf, that he is of Crist, thenke he this thing eft anentis hym silf, 8 for as he is Cristis, so also we. For if Y schal glorie ony thing more of oure power, which the Lord yaf to vs in to edifiyng, and not in to youre distruccioun, Y schal not be schamed. 9 But that Y be not gessid as to fere you bi epistlis, 10 for thei seien, That epistlis ben greuouse and stronge, but the presence of the bodi is feble, and the word worthi to be dispisid. 11 He that is suche oon, thenke this, for suche as we absent ben in word bi pistlis, suche we ben present in dede. 12 For we doren not putte vs among, or comparisoune vs to summen, that comenden hem silf; but we mesuren vs in vs silf, and comparisounen vs silf to vs. 13 For we schulen not haue glorie ouer mesure, but bi the mesure of the reule which God mesuride to vs, the measure that stretchith to you. 14 For we ouerstretchen not forth vs, as not stretchinge to you. For to you we camen in the gospel of Crist, 15 not gloriyng ouer mesure in othere mennus trauelis. For we `han hope of youre feith that wexith in you to be magnefied bi oure reule in abundaunce, 16 also to preche in to tho thingis that ben biyendis you, not to haue glorie in othere mennus reule, in these thingis that ben maad redi. 17 He that glorieth, haue glorie in the Lord. 18 For not he that comendith hym silf is preuyd, but whom God comendith.

11 I wolde that ye wolden suffre a litil thing of myn vnwisdom, but also supporte ye me. 2 For Y loue you bi the loue of God; for Y haue spousesid you to oon hosebonde, to yelde a chast virgyn to Crist. 3 But Y drede, lest as the serpent disseyuede Eue with his sutil fraude, so youre wittis ben corrupt, and fallen doun fro the symplenesse that is in Crist. 4 For if he that cometh, prechith anothir Crist, whom we precheden not, or if ye taken another spirit, whom ye token not, or another gospel, which ye resseyueden not, riytli ye schulden suffre. 5 For Y wene that Y haue don no thing lesse than the grete apostlis. 6 For thouy Y be vnlerud in word, but not in kunnyng. For in alle thingis Y am open to you. 7 Or whether Y haue don synne, mekyng my silf, that ye be enhaunsid, for freli Y prechide to you the gospel of God? 8 Y made nakid othere chิร์chis, and Y took sowde to youre seruyce. 9 And whanne Y was among you, and hadde nede, Y was chargeouse to no man; for britheren that camen fro Macedonye, fulfilliden that that failide to me. And in alle thingis Y haue kept, and schal kepe me with outen charge to you. 10 The treuthe of Crist is in me; for this glorie schal not be brokun in me in the cuntreis of Acaie. 11 Whi? for Y loue not you? 12 God woot. For that that Y do, and that Y schal do, is that Y kitte awei the occasioun of hem that wolen occasioun, that in the thing, in which thei glorien, thei be foundun as we. 13 For siche false apostlis ben trecherouse werk men, and transfiguren hem in to apostlis of Crist. 14 And no wondur, for Sathanas hym silf transfigurith hym in to an aungel of light. 15 Therfor it is not greet, if hise mynystris ben transfigurid as the mynystris of riytwisnesse, whos ende schal be aftir her werkis. 16 Eft Y seie, lest ony man gesse me to be vnwise; ellis take ye me as vnwise, that also Y haue glorie a litil what. 17 That that Y speke, Y speke not aftir God, but as in vnwisdom, in this substaunce of glorie.

18 For many men glorien aftir the fleisch, and Y schal glorie. 19
 For ye suffren gladli vnwise men, whanne ye silf ben wise. 20 For ye susteynen, if ony man dryueth you in to seruage, if ony man deuourith, if ony man takith, if ony man is enhaunsid, if ony man smytith you on the face. 21 Bi vnnoblei Y seie, as if we weren sike in this parti. In what thing ony man dar, in vnwisdom Y seie, and Y dar. 22 Thei ben Ebrewis, and Y; thei ben Israelitis, and Y; thei ben the seed of Abraham, and Y; 23 thei ben the mynystri of Crist, and Y. As lesse wise Y seie, Y more; in ful many trauelis, in prisouns more plenteuousli, in woundis aboue maner, in deethis ofte tymes. 24 Y resseyuede of the Jewis fyue sithis fourti strokis oon lesse; 25 thries Y was betun with yerdis, onys Y was stonyd, thries Y was at shipbreche, a nytt and a dai Y was in the depnesse of the see; 26 in weies ofte, in perelis of floodis, in perelis of theues, in perelis of kyn, in perelis of hethene men, in perelis in citee, in perelis in desert, in perelis in the see, in perelis among false britheren, in trauel and nedynesse, 27 in many wakyngis, in hungur, in thirst, in many fastyngis, in coold and nakidnesse. 28 Withouten tho thingis that ben withoutforth, myn ech daies trauelyng is the bisynesse of alle chirchis. 29 Who is sijk, and Y am not sijk? who is sclaudrid, and Y am not brent? 30 If it bihoueth to glorie, Y schal glorie in tho thingis that ben of myn infirmyte. 31 God and the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that is blessid in to worldis, woot that Y lie not. (aiōn g165) 32 The preuost of Damask, of the kyng of the folk Arethe, kepte the citee of Damascenes to take me; 33 and bi a wyndow in a leep Y was latun doun bi the wal, and so Y ascapide hise hondis.

12 If it bihoueth to haue glorie, it spedith not; but Y schal come to the visiouns and to the reuelaciouns of the Lord. 2 I woot a man in Crist that bfore fouretene yeer; whether in bodi, whether out of the bodi, Y woot not, God woot; that siche a man was rauyschid `til to the thridde heuene. 3 And Y woot sich a man; whether in bodi, or out of bodi, Y noot, God woot; 4 that he was rauyschid in to paradys, and herde preuy wordis, whiche it is not leueful to a man to speke. 5 For such maner thingis Y schal glorie; but for me no thing, no but in myn infirmytees. 6 For if Y schal wilne to glorie, Y schal not be vnrwys, for Y schal seie treuthe; but Y spare, lest ony man gesse me ouer that thing that he seeth in me, or herith ony thing of me. 7 And lest the greetnesse of reuelaciouns enhaunse me in pride, the pricke of my fleisch, an aungel of Sathanas, is youun to me, that he buffate me. 8 For whiche thing thries Y preiede the Lord, that it schulde go awei fro me. 9 And he seide to me, My grace suffisith to thee; for vertu is parfitli maad in infirmyte. Therfor gladli Y schal glorie in myn infirmytes, that the vertu of Crist dwelle in me. 10 For which thing Y am plesid in myn infirmytes, in dispisyngis, in nedis, in persecuciouns, in anguyschis, for Crist; for whanne Y am sijk, thanne Y am miyti. 11 Y am maad vnrwitti, ye constreyneden me. For Y ouyte to be comendid of you; for Y dide no thing lesse than thei that ben apostlis `aboue maner. 12 Thouy Y am nouyt, netheles the signes of myn apostilhed ben maad on you, in al pacience, and signes, and grete wondris, and vertues. 13 And what is it, that ye hadden lesse than othere chirchis, but that Y my silf greuyde you not? Foryyue ye to me this wrong. 14 Lo! this thridde tyme Y am redi to come to you, and Y schal not be greuous to you; for Y seke not tho thingis that ben youre, but you. For nether sones owen to tresoure to fadir and modir, but the fadir and modir to the sones. 15 For Y schal yyue moost wilfuli, and Y my silf schal be youun aboue for youre soulis; thouy Y more loue you, and be lesse louyd. 16 But be it; Y greuyde not you, but whanne Y was sutil, Y took you with gile.

17 Whether Y disseyuade you bi ony of hem, which Y sente to you? 18 Y preiede Tite, and Y sente with hym a brother. Whether Tite begilide you? whether we yeden not in the same spirit? whether not in the same steppis? 19 Sum tyme ye wenen, that we schulen excuse vs anentis you. Bifor God in Crist we speken; and, moost dere britheren, alle thingis for youre edifiyng. 20 But Y drede, lest whanne Y come, Y schal fynde you not suche as Y wole, and Y schal be foundun of you suche as ye wolen not; lest perauenture stryuyngis, enuyes, sturdynessis, dissenciouns and detraccions, preuy spechis of discord, bolnyngis bi pride, debatis ben among you; 21 and lest eftsoone whanne Y come, God make me low anentis you, and Y biweile many of hem, that bifor synneden, and diden not penaunce on the vnclennesse, and fornicacioun, and vnchastite, that thei han don.

13 Lo! this thridde tyme Y come to you, and in the mouth of tweyne or of thre witnessis euery word schal stonde. 2 Y seide bifor, and seie bifor, as present twies, and now absent, to hem that bifor han synned, and to alle othere; for if Y come eftsoone, Y schal not spare. 3 Whether ye seken the preef of that Crist, that spekith in me, which is not feble in you? 4 For thouy he was crucified of infirmyte, but he lyueth of the vertu of God. For also we ben sijk in hym, but we schulen lyue with him of the vertu of God in vs. 5 Asaie you silf, if ye ben in the feith; ye you silf preue. Whether ye knowen not you silf, for Crist Jhesu is in you? but in happe ye ben repreuable. 6 But Y hope, that ye knowen, that we ben not repreuable. 7 And we preien the Lord, that ye do no thing of yuel; not that we seme preued, but that ye do that that is good, and that we ben as repreuable. 8 For we moun no thing ayens treuthe, but for the treuthe. 9 For we ioyen, whanne we ben sijk, but ye ben myyti; and we preien this thing, youre perfeccioun. 10 Therfor Y absent write these thingis, that Y present do not hardere, bi the powere, which the Lord yaf to me in to edificacioun, and not in to youre distruccioun.

11 Britheren, `hennus forward ioye ye, be ye perfit, excite ye; vndurstonde ye the same thing; haue ye pees, and God of pees and of loue schal be with you. 12 Grete ye wel togidere in hooli cos. 13 Alle hooli men greten you wel. 14 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and the charite of God, and the comynyng of the Hooli Gost, be with `you alle. Amen.

Galatians

1 Poul the apostle, not of men, ne bi man, but bi Jhesu Crist, and God the fadir, 2 that reaside hym fro deth, and alle the britheren that ben with me, to the chirchis of Galathie, 3 grace to you and pees of God the fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist, 4 that yaf hym silf for oure synnes, to delyuere vs fro the present wickid world, bi the wille of God and of oure fadir, (aiōn g165) 5 to whom is worschip and glorie in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165) 6 I wondur, that so soone ye be thus moued fro hym that clepid you in to the grace of Crist, in to another euangelie; which is not anothir, 7 but that ther ben summe that troublen you, and wolen mysturne the euangelie of Crist. 8 But thouy we, or an aungel of heuene, prechide to you, bisidis that that we han prechid to you, be he acursid. 9 As Y haue seid bfore, and now eftsoones Y seie, if ony preche to you bisidis that that ye han vndurfongun, be he cursid. 10 For now whether counsele Y men, or God? or whether Y seche to plesse men? If Y pleside yit men, Y were not Cristis seruaunt. 11 For, britheren, Y make knowun to you the euangelie, that was prechid of me, for it is not bi man; 12 ne Y took it of man, ne lernyde, but bi reuelacioun of Jhesu Crist. 13 For ye han herd my conuersacioun sumtyme in the Jurie, and that Y pursuede passyngli the chirche of God, and fauyt ayen it. 14 And Y profitide in the Jurie aboue many of myn eueneldis in my kynrede, and was more aboundantli a folewere of my fadris tradiciouns. 15 But whanne it pleside hym, that departide me fro my modir wombe, 16 and clepide bi his grace, to schewe his sone in me, that Y schulde preche hym among the hethene, anoon Y drowy me not to fleisch and blood; ne Y cam to Jerusalem to the apostlis, 17 that weren tofor me, but Y wente in to Arabie, and eftsoones Y turnede ayen in to Damask. 18 And sith thre yeer aftir Y cam to Jerusalem, to se Petre, and Y dwellide with hym fiftene daies; 19 but Y sawy noon othere of the apostlis, but James, oure Lordis brother. 20 And these thingis which Y write to you, lo! tofor God Y lie not. 21 Afterward Y cam in to the coostis of Syrie and Cilicie. 22 But Y was vnknowun bi face to the chirchis of Judee, that weren in Crist; and thei hadden oonli an heryng, 23 that he that persuede vs sum tyme, prechide now the feith, ayens which he fauhte sum tyme; 24 and in me thei glorifieden God.

2 And sith fourtene yeer aftir, eftsones Y wente vp to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took with me Tite. 2 Y wente vp bi reuelacioun, and spak with hem the euangelie, which Y preche among the hethene; and bi hem silf to these that semeden to be sumwhat, lest Y runne, or hadde runne in veyne. 3 And nother Tite, that hadde be with me, while he was hethene, was compellid to be circumcidid; 4 but for false britheren that weren brouyt ynne, whiche hadden entrid to aspie oure fredom, which we han in Jhesu Crist, to bring vs in to seruage. 5 But we yyue no place to subieccioun, that the treuthe of the gospel schulde dwelle with you. 6 But of these that semeden to be sumwhat; whiche thei weren sum tyme, it perteyneth not to me, for God takith not the persooone of man; for thei that semeden to be sumwhat, yauen me no thing. 7 But ayenward, whanne thei hadden seyn, that the euangelie of prepucie was youun to me, as the euangelie of circumcisioun was youun to Petre; 8 for he that wrouyte to Petre in apostlehed of circumcisioun, wrouyte also to me among the hethene; 9 and whanne thei hadden knowe the grace of God, that was youun to me, James, and Petre, and

Joon, whiche weren seyn to be the pileris, thei yauen riythond of felowschip to me and to Barnabas, that we among the hethene, and thei in to circumcisioun; 10 oneli that we hadde mynde of pore men `of Crist, the which thing Y was ful bisi to doon. 11 But whanne Petre was comun to Antioche, Y ayenstood hym in the face, for he was worthi to be vndirnommen. 12 For bifer that ther camen summen fro James, he eete with the hethene men; but whanne thei weren comun, he withdrowy, and departide hym, dredinge hem that weren of circumcisioun. 13 And the othere Jewis assentiden to his feynyng, so that Barnabas was drawun of hem in to that feynyng. 14 But whanne Y sawy, that thei walkiden not riytli to the treuthe of the gospel, Y seide to Petre bifer alle men, If thou, that art a Jew, lyuest hethenlich, and not Jewelich, hou constreynest thou hethene men to bicomme Jewis? 15 We Jewis of kynde, and not synful men of the hethene, 16 knowen that a man is not iustified of the werkis of lawe, but bi the feith of Jhesu Crist; and we bileuen in Jhesu Crist, that we ben iustified of the feith of Crist, and not of the werkis of lawe. Wherfor of the werkis of lawe ech fleisch schal not be iustified. 17 And if we sechen to be iustified in Crist, we oure silf ben foundun synful men, whether Crist be mynystre of synne? 18 God forbede. And if Y bylde ayen thingis that Y haue distruyed, Y make my silf a trespassour. 19 For bi the lawe Y am deed to the lawe, and Y am fitchid to the crosse, that Y lyue to God with Crist. 20 And now lyue not Y, but Crist lyueth in me. But that Y lyue now in fleisch, Y lyue in the feith of Goddis sone, that louede me, and yaf hym silf for me. 21 Y caste not away the grace of God; for if riytwisnesse be thoruy lawe, thanne Crist diede with out cause.

3 Vnwitti Galathies, tofor whos iyen Jhesu Crist is exilid, and is crucified in you, who hath disseyued you, that ye obeyen not to treuthe? 2 This oneli Y wilne to lerne of you, whether ye han vndurfonge the spirit of werkis of the lawe, or of heryng of bileue? 3 So ye ben foolis, that whanne ye han bigunne in spirit, ye ben endid in fleisch. 4 So grete thingis ye han suffrid without cause, if it be withoute cause. 5 He that yyueth to you spirit, and worchith vertues in you, whether of werkis of the lawe, or of hering of bileue? 6 As it is writun, Abraham bileuede to God, and it was rettid to hym to riytfulnesse. 7 And therfor knowe ye, that these that ben of bileue, ben the sones of Abraham. 8 And the scripture seyng afer, that God iustifieth the hethene, of bileue told tofor to Abraham, That in thee alle the hethene schulen be blessid. 9 And therfor these that ben of bileue, schulen be blessid with feithful Abraham. 10 For alle that ben of the werkis of the lawe, ben vndur curse; for it is writun, Ech man is cursid, that abidith not in alle thingis that ben writun in the book of the lawe, to do tho thingis. 11 And that no man is iustified in the lawe bifor God, it is opyn, for a riytful man lyueth of bileue. 12 But the lawe is not of bileue, but he that doith tho thingis of the lawe, schal lyue in hem. 13 But Crist ayenbouyte us fro the curse of the lawe, and was maad acursid for vs; for it is writun, Ech man is cursid that hangith in the tre; 14 that among the hethene the blessing of Abraham were maad in `Crist Jhesu, that we vndurfonge the biheeste of spirit thoruy bileue. 15 Britheren, Y seie aftir man, no man dispisith the testament of a man that is confermed, or ordeyneth aboue. 16 The biheestis weren seid to Abraham and to his seed; he seith not, In seedis, as in many, but as in oon, And to thi seed, that is, Crist. 17 But Y seie, this testament is confermed of God; the lawe that was maad after foure hundrid and thritti yeer, makith not the testament veyn to auoide awei the biheest. 18 For if eritage were of the lawe, it were not now of biheeste. But God grauntide to Abraham thoruy biheest. 19 What thanne the lawe? It was sett for trespassing, to the seed come, to whom he hadde maad his biheest. Whiche lawe was ordeyned bi aungels, in the hoond of a mediatour. 20 But a mediatour is not of oon. But God is oon. 21 Is thanne the lawe ayens the biheestis of God? God forbede. For if the lawe were youun, that myyte quikene, verili were riytfulnesse of lawe. 22 But scripture hath concludid alle thingis vnder synne, that the biheeste of the feith of Jhesu Crist were yyuen to hem that bileuen. 23 And tofor that bileue cam, thei weren kept vnder the lawe, enclosid in to that bileue that was to be schewid. 24 And so the lawe was oure vndirsmaster in Crist, that we ben iustified of bileue. 25 But aftir that bileue cam, we ben not now vnder the vndurmaster. 26 For alle ye ben the children of God thoruy the bileue of Jhesu Crist. 27 For alle ye that ben baptisid, ben clothid with Crist. 28 Ther is no Jewe, ne Greke, ne bond man, ne fre man, ne male, ne female; for alle ye ben oon in `Jhesu Crist. 29 And if ye ben oon in `Jhesu Crist, thanne ye ben the seed of Abraham, and eiris bi biheest.

4 But Y seie, as long tyme as the eir is a litil child, he dyuersith no thing fro a seruaunt, whanne he is lord of alle thingis; 2 but he is vnder keperis and tutoris, in to the tyme determyned of the fadir. 3 So we, whanne we weren litle children, we serueden vnder the elementis of the world. 4 But aftir that the fulfilling of tyme cam, God sente his sone, 5 maad of a womman, maad vnder the lawe, that he schulde ayenbie hem that weren vnder the lawe, that we schulden vnderfonge the adopcioun of sones.

6 And for ye ben Goddis sones, God sente his spirit in to youre hertis, crynge, Abba, fadir. 7 And so ther is not now a seruaunt, but a sone; and if he is a sone, he is an eir bi God. 8 But thanne ye vnknowynge God, serueden to hem that in kynde weren not goddis. 9 But now whanne ye han knowe God, and ben knowun of God, hou ben ye turned eftsoone to the febil and nedi elementis, to the whiche ye wolen eft serue? 10 Ye taken kepe to daies, and monethis, and tymes, and yeris. 11 But Y drede you, lest without cause Y haue trauelid among you. 12 Be ye as Y, for Y am as ye. Britheren, Y biseche you, ye han hurt me no thing. 13 But ye knowen, that bi infirmyte of fleisch Y haue prechid to you now bifore; 14 and ye dispiseden not, nether forsoken youre temptacioun in my fleisch, but ye resseyueden me as an aungel of God, as `Crist Jhesu. 15 Where thanne is youre blessyng? For Y bere you witnesse, that if it myyte haue be don. ye wolden haue put out youre iyen, and haue yyuen hem to me. 16 Am Y thanne maad an enemye to you, seiynge to you the sothe? 17 Thei louen not you wel, but thei wolen exclude you, that ye suen hem. 18 But sue ye the good euermore in good, and not oneli whanne Y am present with you. 19 My smale children, whiche Y bere eftsoones, til that Crist be fourmed in you, 20 and Y wolde now be at you, and chaunge my vois, for Y am confoundid among you. 21 Seie to me, ye that wolen be vndir the lawe, `han ye not red the lawe? 22 For it is writun, that Abraham hadde two sones, oon of a seruaunt, and oon of a fre womman. 23 But he that was of the seruaunt, was borun after the flesh; but he that was of the fre womman, by a biheeste. 24 The whiche thingis ben seid bi an othir vndirstonding. For these ben two testamentis; oon in the hille of Synai, gendringe in to seruage, which is Agar. 25 For Syna is an hille that is in Arabie, which hille is ioyned to it that is now Jerusalem, and seruith with hir children. 26 But that Jerusalem that is aboue, is fre, whiche is oure modir. 27 For it is writun, Be glad, thou bareyn, that berist not; breke out and crye, that bringist forth no children; for many sones ben of hir that is left of hir hosebonde, more than of hir that hath an hosebonde. 28 For, britheren, we ben sones of biheeste afir Isaac; 29 but now as this that was borun after the fleisch pursuede him that was afir the spirit, so now. 30 But what seith the scripture? Caste out the seruaunt and hir sone, for the sone of the seruaunt schal not be eir with the sone of the fre wijf. 31 And so, britheren, we ben not sones of the seruaunt, but of the fre wijf, bi which fredom Crist hath maad vs fre.

5 Stonde ye therfor, and nyl ye eftsoones be holdun in the yok of seruage. 2 Lo! Y Poul seie to you, that if ye ben circumcidid, Crist schal no thing profite to you. 3 And Y witnesse eftsoones to ech man that circumcidith hym silf, that he is dettour of al the lawe to be don. 4 And ye ben voidid awei fro Crist, and ye that be iustified in the lawe, ye han fallen awei fro grace. 5 For we thoruy the spirit of bileue abiden the hope of riytfulnesse. 6 For in Jhesu Crist nether circumcisioun is ony thing worth, nether prepucie, but the bileue that worchith bi charite. 7 Ye runnen wel; who lettide you that ye obeyede not to treuthe? 8 Consente ye to no man; for this counsel ys not of hym that hath clepid you. 9 A litil souredowy apeirith al the gobet. 10 I trust on you in oure Lord, that ye schulden vndurstonde noon other thing. And who that disturblith you, schal bere dom, who euere he be. 11 And, britheren, if Y preche yit circumcisioun, what suffre Y yit persecucioun? thanne the sclaudre of the crosse is auoidid. 12 Y wolde that thei weren cut awei, that disturblen you. 13 For, britheren, ye ben clepid in to fredom; oneli yyue ye not fredom in to occasioun of fleisch, but bi charite of spirit serue ye togidere. 14 For euery lawe is fulfillid in o word, Thou schalt loue thi neiybore as thi silf. 15 And if ye bite, and ete ech othere, se ye, lest ye be wastid ech fro othere. 16 And Y seie you in Crist, walke ye in spirit, and ye schulen not performe the desiris of the fleisch. 17 For the fleisch coueitith ayens the spirit, and the spirit ayen the fleisch; for these ben aduersaries togidere, that ye don not alle thingis that ye wolen. 18 That if ye be led bi spirit, ye ben not vnder the lawe. 19 And werkis of the fleisch ben opyn, whiche ben fornicacioun, vnclennes, vnchastite, letcherie, seruice of false goddis, 20 witchecraftis, enmytees, striuyngis, indignaciouns, wraththis, chidingis, discenciouns, sectis, enuyes, 21 manslauytris, dronkennessis, vnmesurable etyngis, and thingis lijk to these, whiche Y seie to you, as Y haue told to you `to fore, for thei that doon suche thingis, schulen not haue the kyngdom of God. 22 But the fruyt of the spirit is charite, ioye, pees, pacience, long abidyng, 23 benygnyte, goodnesse, myldenesse, feith, temperaunce, contynence, chastite; ayen suche thingis is no lawe. 24 And they that ben of Crist, han crucified her fleisch with vices and coueytyngis. 25 If we lyuen bi spirit, walke we bi spirit; 26 be we not made coueytouse of veyn glorie, stiryngge ech othere to wraththe, or hauyngge enuye ech to othere.

6 Britheren, if a man be occupied in ony gilt, ye that ben spiritual, enforme ye such oon in spirit of softnesse, biholdinge thi silf, lest that thou be temptid. 2 Ech bere othere chargis, and so ye schulen fulfille the lawe of Crist. 3 For who that trowith that he be ouyt, whanne he is nouyt, he bigilith him silf. 4 But ech man preue his owne werk, and so he schal haue glorie in him silf, and not in an othere. 5 For ech man schal bere his owne charge. 6 He that is tauyt bi word, comune he with him that techith hym, in `alle goodis. 7 Nyle ye erre, God is not scorned; for tho thingis that a man sowith, tho thingis he schal repe. 8 For he that sowith in his fleisch, of the fleisch he schal repe corrupcioun; but he that sowith in the spirit, of the spirit he schal repe euerelastynghe lijf. (aīōnios g166) 9 And doynge good faile we not; for in his tyme we schal repe, not failinge. 10 Therfor while we han tyme, worche we good to alle men; but most to hem that ben homliche of the feith. 11 Se ye, what maner lettris Y haue write to you with myn owne hoond. 12 For who euere wole plese in the fleisch, `this constreyneth you to be circumcidid, oonli that thei suffren not the persecucioun of Cristis crosse. 13 For nether thei that ben circumcidid kepen the lawe; but thei wolen that ye be circumcidid, that thei haue glorie in youre fleisch. 14 But fer be it fro me to haue glorie, no but in the crosse of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, bi whom the world is crucified to me, and Y to the world. 15 For in Jhesu Crist nether circumcisioun is ony thing worth, ne prepucie, but a newe creature. 16 And who euere suwen this reule, pees on hem, and merci, and on Israel of God. 17 And heraftir no man be heuy to me; for Y bere in my bodi the tokenes of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 18 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with youre spirit, britheren. Amen.

1 Poul, the apostle of Jhesu Crist, bi the wille of God, to alle seyntis that ben at Effesie, and to the feithful men in Jhesu Crist, 2 grace be to you and pees of God, oure fader, and oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 3 Blessid be God and the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that hath blessid vs in al spiritual blessing in heuenli thingis in Crist, 4 as he hath chosun vs in hym silf bifer the makyng of the world, that we weren hooli, and with out wem in his siyt, in charite. 5 Which hath bifer ordeyned vs in to adopcioun of sones bi Jhesu Crist in to hym, bi the purpos of his wille, 6 in to the heriyng of the glorie of his grace; 7 in which he hath glorified vs in his dereworthe sone. In whom we han redempcioun bi his blood, foryyuenesse of synnes, aftir the ritchessis of his grace, 8 that aboundide greetli in vs in al wisdom and prudence, 9 to make knowun to vs the sacrament of his wille, bi the good plesaunce of hym; the which sacrament he purposide in 10 hym in the dispensacioun of plente of tymes to enstore alle thingis in Crist, whiche ben in heuenes, and whiche ben in erthe, in hym. 11 In whom we ben clepid bi sort, bifer ordeyned bi the purpos of hym that worchith alle thingis bi the counsel of his wille; 12 that we be in to the heriyng of his glorie, we that han hopid bifer in Crist. 13 In whom also ye weren clepid, whanne ye herden the word of treuthe, the gospel of youre heelthe, in whom ye bileuyng ben merkid with the Hooli Goost of biheest, which is the ernes of oure eritage, 14 in to the redempcioun of purchasyng, in to heriyng of his glorie. 15 Therfor and Y herynge youre feith, that is in Crist Jhesu, and the loue in to alle seyntis, 16 ceesse not to do thankyngis for you, makynge mynde of you in my preieris; 17 that God of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, the fadir of glorie, yyue to you the spirit of wisdom and of reuelacioun, in to the knowyng of hym; 18 and the iyen of youre herte liytnd, that ye wite, which is the hope of his clepyng, and whiche ben the richessis of the glorie of his eritage in seyntis; 19 and whych is the excellent greetnesse of his vertu in to vs that han bileuyd, bi the worchyng of the myyt of his vertu, 20 which he wrouyte in Crist, reisyng hym fro deth, and settinge him on his riyt half in heuenli thingis, 21 aboue ech principat, and potestat, and vertu, and domynacioun, and aboue ech name that is named, not oneli in this world, but also in the world to comynge; (aiōn g165) 22 and made alle thingis suget vndur hise feet, and yaf hym to be heed ouer al the chirche, 23 that is the bodi of hym, and the plente of hym, which is alle thingis in alle thingis fulfillid.

2 And whanne ye weren deed in youre gyltis and synnes, 2 in which ye wandriden sum tyme aftir the cours of this world, aftir the prince of the power of this eir, of the spirit that worchith now in to the sones of vnbileue; (aiōn g165) 3 in which also we `alle lyueden sum tyme in the desiris of oure fleisch, doynge the willis of the fleisch and of thouytis, and we weren bi kynde the sones of wraththe, as othere men; 4 but God, that is riche in merci, for his ful myche charite in which he louyde vs, 5 yhe, whanne we weren deed in synnes, quikenede vs togidere in Crist, bi whos grace ye ben sauyd, and ayen reaside togidere, 6 and made togidere to sitte in heuenli thingis in Crist Jhesu; 7 that he schulde schewe in the worldis aboue comynge the plenteuouse ritchessis of his grace in goodnesse on vs in Crist Jhesu. (aiōn g165) 8 For bi grace ye ben sauyd bi feith, and this not of you; for it is the yifte of God, 9 not of werkis, that no man haue glorie. 10 For we ben the makynge of hym, maad of nouyt in Crist Jhesu, in good werkis, whiche God hath ordeyned, that we go in tho werkis. 11 For which thing be ye myndeful, that sumtyme ye weren hethene in fleisch, which weren seid prepucie, fro that that is seid circumcisioun maad bi hond in fleisch; 12 and ye weren in that time with out Crist, alienyd fro the lyuyng of Israel, and gestis of testamentis, not hauynge hope of biheest, and with outen God in this world. 13 But now in Crist Jhesu ye that weren sum tyme fer, ben maad nyy in the blood of Crist. 14 For he is oure pees, that made bothe oon, and vnbyndynge the myddil wal of a wal with out morter, enmytees in his fleisch; 15 and auoidide the lawe of maundementis bi domes, that he make twei in hym silf in to a newe man, 16 makynge pees, to recounsele bothe in o bodi to God bi the cros, sleyng the enemytees in hym silf. 17 And he comynge prechide pees to you that weren fer, and pees to hem that weren niy; 18 for bi hym we bothe han niy comyng in o spirit to the fadir. 19 Therfor now ye ben not gestis and straungeris, but ye ben citeseyns of seyntis, and houshold meine of God; 20 aboue bildid on the foundement of apostlis and of profetis, vpon that hiyeste corner stoon, Crist Jhesu; 21 in whom ech bilydyng maad waxith in to an hooli temple in the Lord. 22 In whom also `be ye bildid togidere in to the habitacle of God, in the Hooli Goost.

3 For the grace of this thing I Poul, the boundun of Crist Jhesu, for you hethene men, 2 if netheles ye han herd the dispensacioun of Goddis grace, that is youun to me in you. 3 For bi reuelacioun the sacrament is maad knowun to me, as Y aboue wroot in schort thing, 4 as ye moun rede, and vndurstonde my prudence in the mysterie of Crist. 5 Which was not knowun to othere generaciouns to the sones of men, as it is now schewid to his hooli apostlis and prophetis in the spirit, 6 that hethene men ben euen eiris, and of oo bodi, and parteneris togidere of his biheest in Crist Jhesu bi the euangelie; 7 whos mynystre Y am maad, bi the yifte of Goddis grace, which is youun to me bi the worchyng of his vertu. 8 To me, leeste of alle seyntis, this grace is youun to preche among hethene men the vnserchable richessis of Crist, 9 and to liytne alle men, which is the dispensacioun of sacrament hid fro worldis in God, that made alle thingis of nouyt; (aiōn g165) 10 that the myche fold wisdom of God be knowun to princis and potestatis in heuenli thingis bi the chirche, 11 bi the bifore ordinaunce of worldis, which he made in Crist Jhesu oure Lord. (aiōn g165) 12 In whom we han trist and nyy comyng, in tristenyng bi the feith of hym. 13 For which thing Y axe, that ye faile not in my tribulaciouns for you, which is youre glorie. 14 For grace of this thing Y bowe my knees to the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, 15 of whom ech fadirhod in heuenes and in erthe is named, 16 that he yyue to you, aftir the richessis of his glorie, vertu to be strengthid bi his spirit in the ynnere man, 17 that Crist dwelle bi feith in youre hertis; that ye rootid and groundid in charite, 18 moun comprehende with alle seyntis, which is the breede, and the lengthe, and the hiynesse, and the depnesse; 19 also to wite the charite of Crist more excellent than science, that ye be fillid in al the plentee of God. 20 And to hym that is myyti to do alle thingis more plenteuousli than we axen or vndurston dun, bi the vertu that worchith in vs, 21 to hym be glorie in the chirche, and in Crist Jhesu, in to alle the generaciouns of the world of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165)

4 Therfor Y boundun for the Lord biseche you, that ye walke worthili in the clepyng, 2 in which ye ben clepid, with al mekenesse and myldenesse, with pacience supportinge ech other in charite, 3 bisi to kepe vnyte of spirit in the boond of pees. 4 O bodi and o spirit, as ye ben clepid in oon hope of youre cleping; 5 o Lord, 6 o feith, o baptym, o God and fadir of alle, which is aboue alle men, and bi alle thingis, and in vs alle. 7 But to ech of vs grace is youun bi the mesure of the yyuyng of Crist; 8 for which thing he seith, He styngre an hiy, ledde caitifte caitif, he yaf yiftis to men. 9 But what is it, that he stiede vp, no but that also he cam doun first in to the lowere partis of the erthe? 10 He it is that cam doun, and that stiede on alle heuenes, that he schulde fille alle thingis. 11 And he yaf summe apostlis, summe prophetis, othere euangelistis, othere scheepherdis and techeris, 12 to the ful endyng of seyntis, in to the werk of mynystrie, in to edificacioun of Cristis bodi, 13 til we rennen alle, in to vnyte of feith and of knowyng of Goddis sone, in to a parfit man, afir the mesure of age of the plente of Crist; 14 that we be not now litle children, mouynge as wawis, and be not borun aboute with ech wynd of teching, in the weiwardnesse of men, in sutil wit, to the disseyuyng of errour. 15 But do we treuthe in charite, and wexe in him by alle thingis, that is Crist oure heed; 16 of whom alle the bodi set togidere, and boundun togidere bi ech ioyniture of vnder seruyng, bi worching in to the mesure of ech membre, makith encreesyng of the bodi, in to edificacioun of it silf in charite. 17 Therfor Y seie and witnesse this thing in the Lord, that ye walke not now, as hethene men walken, in the vanyte of her wit; 18 that han vnderstondyng derkned with derknessis, and ben alienyd fro the lijf of God, bi ignoraunce that is in hem, for the blyndenesse of her herte. 19 Which dispeiryng bitoken hem silf to vnchastite, in to the worchyng of al vnclennesse in coueitise.

20 But ye han not so lerud Crist, if netheles ye herden hym, 21 and ben tauyt in hym, as is treuthe in Jhesu. 22 Do ye away bi the elde lyuyng the elde man, that is corrupt bi the desiris of errour; 23 and be ye renewlid in the spirit of youre soule; 24 and clothe ye the newe man, which is maad aftir God in riytwisnesse and hoolynesse of treuthe. 25 For which thing `ye putte awei leesyng, and speke ye treuthe ech man with his neybore, for we ben membris ech to othere. 26 Be ye wrooth, and nyle ye do synne; the sunne falle not down on youre wraththe. 27 Nyle ye yyue stide to the deuel. 28 He that stal, now stele he not; but more trauele he in worching with hise hondis that that is good, that he haue whereof he schal yyue to nedi. 29 Ech yuel word go not of youre mouth; but if ony is good to the edificacioun of feith, that it yyue grace to men that heren. 30 And nyle ye make the Hooli Goost of God sori, in which ye ben markid in the dai of redempcioun. 31 Al bitternesse, and wraththe, and indignacioun, and cry, and blasfemye be takun away fro you, with al malice; 32 and be ye togidere benygne, merciful, foryyuynge togidere, as also God foryaf to you in Crist.

5 Therfor be ye foloweris of God, as moost dereworthe sones;
2 and walke ye in loue, as Crist louyde vs, and yaf hym silf for vs an offryng and a sacrifice to God, in to the odour of swetnesse. 3 And fornyacioun, and al vnclennesse, or aueryce, be not named among you, as it bicometh holi men; 4 ethir filthe, or foli speche, or harlatrye, that perteyneth not to profit, but more doynge of thankyngis. 5 For wite ye this, and vndurstonde, that ech letchour, or vnclene man, or coueytouse, that serueth to mawmetis, hath not eritage in the kingdom of Crist and of God. 6 No man disseyue you bi veyn wordis; for whi for these thingis the wraththe of God cam on the sones of vnbileue. 7 Therfor nyle ye be maad parteneris of hem. 8 For ye weren sum tyme derknessis, but now `ye ben liyt in the Lord. Walke ye as the sones of liyt. 9 For the fruyt of liyt is in al goodnesse, and riytwisnesse, and treuthe. 10 And preue ye what `thing is wel plesynge to God. 11 And nyle ye comyne to vnfruytouse werkis of derknessis; but more repreue ye. 12 For what thingis ben don of hem in priuy, it is foule, yhe, to speke. 13 And alle thingis that ben repreuyd of the liyt, ben opynli schewid; for al thing that is schewid, is liyt. 14 For which thing he seith, Rise thou that slepist, and rise vp fro deth, and Crist schal liytne thee. 15 Therfor, britheren, se ye, hou warli ye schulen go; 16 not as vnwise men, but as wise men, ayenbiynge tyme, for the daies ben yuele. 17 Therfor nyle ye be maad vnwise, but vndurstondynge which is the wille of God. 18 And nyle ye be drunkun of wyn, in which is letcherie, but be ye fillid with the Hooli Goost; and speke ye to you silf in salmes, 19 and ymnes, and spiritual songis, syngynge and seiynge salm in youre hertis to the Lord; 20 euermore doynge thankingis for alle thingis in the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist to God and to the fadir. 21 Be ye suget togidere in the drede of Crist. 22 Wymmen, be thei suget to her hosebondis, 23 as to the Lord, for the man is heed of the wymman, as Crist is heed of the chirche; he is sauour of his bodi. 24 But as the chirche is suget to Crist, so wymmen to her hosebondis in alle thingis. 25 Men, loue ye youre wyues, as Crist louyde the chirche, and yaf hym silf for it, to make it holi; 26 and clenside it with the waisching of watir, in the word of lijf, 27 to yyue the chirche gloriouse to hym silf, that it hadde no wem, ne ryueling, or ony siche thing, but that it be hooli and vndefoulid. 28 So and men `schulen loue her wyues, as her owne bodies. He that loueth his wijf, loueth hym silf; 29 for no man hatide euere his owne fleisch, but nurischith and fostrith it, as Crist doith the chirche. 30 And we ben membris of his bodi, of his fleisch, and of his boonys. 31 For this thing a man schal forsake his fadir and modir, and he schal drawe to his wijf; and thei schulen be tweyne in o fleisch. 32 This sacrament is greet; yhe, Y seie in Crist, and in the chirche. 33 Netheles ye alle, ech man loue his wijf as hym silf; and the wijf drede hir hosebonde.

6 Sones, obeische ye to youre fadir and modir, in the Lord; for this thing is riytful. 2 Onoure thou thi fadir and thi modir, that is the firste maundement in biheest; 3 that it be wel to thee, and that thou be long lyuyng on the erthe. 4 And, fadris, nyle ye terre youre sones to wraththe; but nurische ye hem in the teching and chastising of the Lord. 5 Seruauntis, obeische ye to fleischli lordis with drede and trembling, in simplenesse of youre herte, as to Crist; 6 not seruyng at the iye, as plesinge to men, but as seruauntis of Crist; doynge the wille of God bi discrecioun, 7 with good wille seruyng as to the Lord, and not as to men; 8 witinge that ech man, what euere good thing he schal do, he schal resseyue this of the Lord, whether seruaunt, whether fre man. 9 And, ye lordis, do the same thingis to hem, foryyuyng maneassis; witinge that bothe her Lord and youre is in heuenes, and the taking of persones is not anentis God. 10 Her aftirward, britheren, be ye coumfortid in the Lord, and in the miyt of his vertu. 11 Clothe you with the armere of God, that ye moun stonde ayens aspiynges of the deuel. 12 For whi stryuyng is not to vs ayens fleisch and blood, but ayens princis and potestatis, ayens gouernours of the world of these derknessis, ayens spiritual thingis of wickidnesse, in heuenli thingis. (aiōn g165) 13 Therfor take ye the armere of God, that ye moun ayenstonde in the yuel dai; and in alle thingis stonde perfit. 14 Therfor stonde ye, and be gird aboute youre leendis in sothefastnesse, and clothid with the haburioun of riytwisnesse, 15 and youre feet schood in making redi of the gospel of pees. 16 In alle thingis take ye the scheld of feith, in which ye moun quenche alle the firy dartis of `the worste. 17 And take ye the helm of helthe, and the swerd of the Goost, that is, the word of God. 18 Bi al preier and bisechyng preie ye al tyme in spirit, and in hym wakinge in al bisynesse, and bisechyng for alle hooli men, and for me; 19 that word be youun to me in openyng of my mouth, with trist to make knowun the mysterie of the gospel, 20 for which Y am set in message in a chayne; so that in it Y be hardi to speke, as it bihoueth me. 21 And ye wite, what thingis ben aboute me, what Y do, Titicus, my moost dere brother, and trewe mynystre in the Lord, schal make alle thingis knowun to you; 22 whom Y sente to you for this same thing, that ye knowe what thingis ben aboute vs, and that he coumforte youre hertis. 23 Pees to britheren, and charite, with feith of God oure fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 24 Grace with alle men that louen oure Lord Jhesu Crist in vncorruptioun. Amen, `that is, So be it.

Philippians

1 Poul and Tymothe, seruauntis of Jhesu Crist, to alle the hooli men in Crist Jhesu, that ben at Filippis, with bischopis and dekenes, 2 grace and pees to you of God oure fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 3 I do thankngis to my God 4 in al mynde of you euere more in alle my preyeris for alle you with ioye, and 5 make a bisechyng on youre comynyng in the gospel of Crist, fro the firste day til now; 6 tristenynge this ilke thing, that he that bigan in you a good werk, schal perfourme it til in to the dai of Jhesu Crist. 7 As it is iust to me to feele this thing for alle you, for that Y haue you in herte, and in my boondis, and in defending and confermyng of the gospel, that alle ye be felowis of my ioye. 8 For God is a witnesse to me, hou Y coueyte alle you in the bowelis of Jhesu Crist. 9 And this thing Y preie, that youre charite be plenteuouse more and more in kunnyng, and in al wit; 10 that ye preue the betere thingis, that ye be clene and without offence in the dai of Crist; 11 fillid with the fruyt of riytwysnesse bi Jhesu Crist, in to the glory and the heriyng of God. 12 For, britheren, Y wole that ye wite, that the thingis that ben aboute me han comun more to the profit of the gospel, 13 so that my boondis weren maad knowun in Crist, in ech moot halle, and in alle other placis; 14 that mo of britheren tristinge in the Lord more plenteuously for my boondis, dursten without drede speke the word of God. 15 But summe for enuye and strijf, summe for good wille, prechen Crist; 16 and summe of charite, witinge that Y am put in the defense of the gospel. 17 But summe of strijf schewen Crist not cleneli, gessynge hem to reise tribulacioun to my boondis. 18 But what? the while on al maner, ethir bi occasioun, ethir bi treuthe, Crist is schewid; and in this thing Y haue ioye, but also Y schal haue ioye. 19 And Y woot, that this thing schal come to me in to heelthe bi youre preyer, and the vndurmynstring of the spirit of `Jhesu Crist, bi myn abidyng and hope. 20 For in no thing Y schal be schamed, but in al trist as euere more and now, Crist schal be magnefied in my bodi, ether bi lijf, ether bi deth. 21 For me to lyue is Crist, and to die is wynnyng. 22 That if to lyue in fleisch, is fruyt of werk to me, lo! what Y schal chese, Y knowe not. 23 But Y am constreyned of twei thingis, Y haue desire to be dissolued, and to be with Crist, it is myche more betere; but to dwelle in fleisch, 24 is nedeful for you. 25 And Y tristinge this thing, woot that Y schal dwelle, and perfitli dwelle to alle you, to youre profit and ioye of feith, 26 that youre thanking abounde in Crist Jhesu in me, bi my comyng eftsoone to you. 27 Oneli lyue ye worthili to the gospel of Crist, that whether whanne Y come and se you, ethir absent Y here of you, that ye stonden in o spirit of o wille, traueling togidere to the feith of the gospel. 28 And in no thing be ye aferd of aduersaries, which is to hem cause of perdicoun, 29 but to you cause of heelthe. And this thing is of God. For it is youun to you for Crist, that not oneli ye bileuen in hym, but also that ye suffren for hym; 30 hauynge the same strijf, which ye saien in me, and now ye han herd of me.

2 Therfor if ony coumfort is in Crist, if ony solace of charite, if ony felouschipe of spirit, if ony inwardnesse of merci doyng, 2 fille ye my ioye, that ye vndurstonde the same thing, and haue the same charite, of o wille, and feelen the same thing; 3 no thing bi strijf, nether by veyn glorie, but in mekenesse, demynge eche othere to be heiyer than hym silf; 4 not biholdinge ech bi hym silf what thingis ben his owne, but tho thingis that ben of othere men. 5 And fele ye this thing in you, which also in Crist Jhesu; 6 that whanne he was in the forme of God, demyde not raueyn, that hym silf were euene to God; 7 but he lowide hym silf, takinge the forme of a seruaunt, and was maad in to the licknesse of men, and in abite was foundun as a man. 8 He mekide hym silf, and was maad obedient to the deth, yhe, to the deth of the cross. 9 For which thing God enhaunside hym, and yaf to hym a name that is aboue al name; 10 that in the name of Jhesu ech kne be bowid, of heuenli thingis, of ertheli thingis, and of hellis; 11 and ech tunge knoueleche, that the Lord Jhesu Crist is in the glorie of God the fadir. 12 Therfor, my most dereworthe britheren, as euere more ye han obeischid, not in my presence onely, but myche more now in myn absence, worche ye with drede and trembling youre heelthe. 13 For it is God that worchith in you, bothe to wilne, and to performe, for good wille. 14 And do ye alle thingis with out grutchingis and doutyngis; 15 that ye be with out playnt, and symple as the sones of God, with out reproof, in the myddil of a schrewid nacioun and a weiward; among whiche ye schynen as yyueris of liyt in the world. 16 And holde ye togidere the word of lijf to my glorie in the day of Crist; for Y haue not runnen in veyn, nether Y haue trauelid in veyn.

17 But thouy Y be offrid or slayn on the sacrifice and seruyce of youre feith, Y haue ioye, and Y thanke you alle. 18 And the same thing haue ye ioye, and thanke ye me. 19 And Y hope in the Lord Jhesu, that Y schal sende Tymothe soone to you, that Y be of good coumfort, whanne tho thingis ben knowun that ben aboute you. 20 For Y haue no man so of o wille, that is bisi for you with clene affeccioun. 21 For alle men seken tho thingis that ben her owne, not tho that ben of Crist Jhesu. 22 But knowe ye the asaie of hym, for as a sone to the fadir he hath seruyd with me in the gospel. 23 Therfor Y hope that Y schal sende hym to you, anoon as Y se what thingis ben aboute me. 24 And Y triste in the Lord, that also my silf schal come to you soone. 25 And Y gesside it nedeful to sende to you Epafrodite, my brother and euene worchere, and myn euene knyyt, but youre apostle, and the mynystre of my nede. 26 For he desiride you alle, and he was sorewful, therfor that ye herden that he was sijk. 27 For he was sijk to the deth, but God hadde merci on him; and not oneli on hym, but also on me, lest Y hadde heuynesse on heuynesse. 28 Therfor more hastili Y sente hym, that whanne ye han seyn hym, ye haue ioie eft, and Y be withouten heuynesse. 29 Therfor resseyue ye hym with al ioie in the Lord, and haue ye suche with al onour. 30 For the werk of Crist he wente to deth, yyuynge his lijf, that he schulde fulfille that that failide of you anentis my seruyce.

3 Hennus forward, my britheren, haue ye ioie in the Lord. To write to you the same thingis, to me it is not slow, and to you it is necessarie. 2 Se ye houndis, se ye yuele werk men, se ye dyuysioun. 3 For we ben circumcisioun, which bi spirit seruen to God, and glorien in Crist Jhesu, and han not trist in the fleisch, 4 thouy Y haue trust, yhe, in the fleisch. If ony othere man is seyn to triste in the fleisch, 5 Y more, that was circumcidid in the eiyttthe dai, of the kyn of Israel, of the lynage of Beniamyn, an Ebrew of Ebrewis, bi the lawe a Farisee, 6 bi loue pursuynge the chirche of God, bi riytwisnesse that is in the lawe lyuynge with out playnt. 7 But whiche thingis weren to me wynnyngis, Y haue demed these apeyrngis for Crist. 8 Netheles Y gesse alle thingis to be peirement for the cleer science of Jhesu Crist my

Lord. For whom Y made alle thingis peyrement, and Y deme as drit, 9 that Y wyne Crist, and that Y be foundun in hym, not hauynge my riytwisnesse that is of the lawe, but that that is of the feith of Crist Jhesu, that is of God the riytwisnesse in feith, 10 to knowe hym, and the vertu of his risyng ayen, and the felouschipe of his passioun, and be maad lijk to his deeth, 11 if on any maner Y come to the resurreccioun that is fro deth. 12 Not that now Y haue takun, or now am parfit; but Y sue, if in any maner Y comprehende, in which thing also Y am comprehendid of Crist Jhesu. 13 Bretheren, Y deme me not that Y haue comprehendid; but o thing, Y foryete tho thingis that ben bihyndis, and stretche forth my silf to tho thingis that ben bifore, 14 and pursue to the ordeyned mede of the hiy clepyng of God in Crist Jhesu. 15 Therfor who euere we ben perfit, feelee we this thing. And if ye vndurstonden in othere manere any thing, this thing God schal schewe to you. 16 Netheles to what thing we han comun, that we vndurstonden the same thing, and that we perfitli dwelle in the same reule. 17 Britheren, be ye my foleweris, and weyte ye hem that walken so, as ye han oure fourme. 18 For many walken, whiche Y haue seid ofte to you, but now Y wepinge seie, the enemyes of Cristis cros, 19 who ende is deth, whos god is the wombe, and the glorie in confusioun of hem, that saueren ertheli thingis. 20 But oure lyuyng is in heuenes; fro whennus also we abiden the sauour oure Lord Jhesu Crist, 21 which schal reforme the bodi of oure mekenesse, that is maad lijk to the bodi of his clerenesse, bi the worching bi which he mai `also make alle thingis suget to hym.

4 Therfor, my britheren most dereworthe and most desirid, my ioye and my coroun, so stonde ye in the Lord, most dere britheren. 2 Y preye Eucodiam, and biseche Synticem, to vndurstonde the same thing in the Lord. 3 Also Y preye and thee, german felow, helpe thou the ilke wymmen that traueliden with me in the gospel, with Clement and othere myn helperis, whos names ben in the book of lijf. 4 Ioye ye in the Lord euere more; eft Y seie, ioye ye. 5 Be youre pacyence knowun to alle men; the Lord is niy. 6 Be ye nothing bisi, but in al preyer and biseching, with doynge of thankyngis, be youre axyngis knowun at God. 7 And the pees of God, that passith al wit, kepe youre hertis and vndurstondingis in Crist Jhesu. 8 Fro hennus forth, britheren, what euere thingis ben sothe, what euere thingis chast, what euere thingis iust, what euere thingis hooli, what euere thingis able to be louyd, what euere thingis of good fame, if ony vertu, if ony preising of discipline, thenke ye these thingis, 9 that also ye han lerud, and take, and heed, and seyn in me. Do ye these thingis, and God of pees schal be with you. 10 But Y ioyede greetli in the Lord, that sum tyme aftirward ye floureden ayen to feele for me, as also ye feeliden. But ye weren ocupied, Y seie not as for nede, 11 for Y haue lerud to be sufficient in whiche thingis Y am. 12 And Y can also be lowid, Y can also haue plentee. Euery where and in alle thingis Y am tauyt to be fillid, and to hungur, and to abounde, and to suffre myseiste. 13 Y may alle thingis in hym that coumfortith me. 14 Netheles ye han doon wel, comynynge to my tribulacioun. 15 For and ye, Filipensis, witen, that in the bigynnyng of the gospel, whanne Y wente forth fro Macedonye, no chirche comynede with me in resoun of thing youun and takun, but ye aloone. 16 Whiche senten to Tessalonyk onys and twies also in to vss to me. 17 Not for Y seke yifte, but Y requyre fruyt aboundinge in youre resoun.

18 For Y haue alle thingis, and abounde; Y am fillid with tho thingis takun of Epafrodite, whiche ye senten in to the odour of swetnesse, a couenable sacrifice, plesynge to God. 19 And my God fil alle youre desire, by hise richessis in glorie in Crist Jhesu. 20 But to God and oure fadir be glorie in to worldis of worldis. (aiōn g165) 21 Amen. Grete ye wel euery hooli man in Crist Jhesu. 22 Tho britheren that ben with me, greten you wel. Alle hooli men greten you wel, moost sotheli thei that ben of the emperouris hous. 23 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with youre spirit. Amen.

Colossians

1 Poul, apostle of `Crist Jhesu, bi the wille of God, 2 and Tymothe, brother, to hem that ben at Colose, hooli and feithful britheren in Crist Jhesu, 3 grace and pees to you of God oure fadir and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. We don thankyngis to God, and to the fader of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, euermore preiyng for you, herynge youre feith in Crist Jhesu, 4 and the loue that ye han to alle hooli men, 5 for the hope that is kept to you in heuenes. Which ye herden in the word of treuthe of the gospel, 6 that cam to you, as also it is in al the world, and makith fruyt, and wexith, as in you, fro that dai in which ye herden and knewen the grace of God in treuthe. 7 As ye lerneden of Epafra, oure felawe most dereworthe, which is a trewe mynystre of Jhesu Crist for you; 8 which also schewide to vs youre louyng in spirit. 9 Therfor we fro the dai in which we herden, ceessen not to preye for you, and to axe, that ye be fillid with the knowing of his wille in al wisdom and goostli vndurstondyng; 10 that ye walke worthili to God plesyng bi alle thingis, and make fruyt in al good werk, and wexe in the science of God, 11 and ben coumfortid in al vertu bi the miyt of his clerenesse, in al pacience and long abiding with ioie, 12 that ye do thankyngis to God and to the fadir, which made you worthi in to the part of eritage of hooli men in liyt. 13 Which delyueride vs fro the power of derknessis, and translatide in to the kyngdom of the sone of his louyng, 14 in whom we han ayenbiyng and remyssion of synnes. 15 Which is the ymage of God vnuysible, the first bigetun of ech creature. 16 For in hym alle thingis ben maad, in heuenes and in erthe, visible and vnuysible, ether trones, ether dominaciouns, ether princehodes, ethir poweris, alle thingis ben maad of nouyt bi hym, and in hym, 17 and he is bifor alle, and alle thingis ben in hym. 18 And he is heed of the bodi of the chirche; which is the bigynnyng and the firste bigetun of deede men, that he holde the firste dignyte in alle thingis. 19 For in hym it pleside al plente to inhabite, 20 and bi hym alle thingis to be recounselid in to hym, and made pees bi the blood of his cros, tho thingis that ben in erthis, ether that ben in heuenes. 21 And whanne ye weren sumtyme aliened, and enemyes bi wit in yuele werkis, 22 now he hath recounselid you in the bodi of his fleisch bi deth, to haue you hooli, and vnwemmyd, and with out reproof bifor hym. 23 If netheles ye dwellen in the feith, foundid, and stable, and vnmouable fro the hope of the gospel that ye han herd, which is prechid in al creature that is vndur heuene. Of which Y Poul am maad mynystre, 24 and now Y haue ioie in passioun for you, and Y fille tho thingis that failen of the passiouns of Crist in my fleisch, for his bodi, that is the chirche. 25 Of which Y Poul am maad mynystre bi the dispensacioun of God, that is youun to me in you, that Y fille the word of God, 26 the priuete, that was hid fro worldis and generaciouns. But now it is schewid to his seyntis, (aiōn g165) 27 to whiche God wold make knowun the richessis of the glorie of this sacrament in hethene men, which is Crist in you, the hope of glorie. 28 Whom we schewen, repreuyng ech man, and techinge `ech man in al wisdom, that we offre ech man perfit in Crist Jhesu. 29 In which thing also Y trauele in stryuyng bi the worching of hym, that he worchith in me in vertu.

2 But Y wole that ye wite, what bisynesse Y haue for you, and for hem that ben at Laodice, and whiche euere saien not my face in fleisch, 2 that her hertis ben coumfortid, and thei ben tauyt in charite, in to alle the richessis of the plente of the vnderstandyng, in to the knowyng of mysterie of God, the fadir of Jhesu Crist, 3 in whom alle the tresouris of wisdom and of science ben hid. 4 For this thing Y seie, that no man disseyue you in heiythe of wordis. 5 For thouy Y be absent in bodi, bi spirit Y am with you, ioiynge and seyngge youre ordre and the sadnesse of youre bileue that is in Crist. 6 Therfor as ye han takun Jhesu Crist oure Lord, 7 walke ye in hym, and be ye rootid and bieldid aboue in hym, and confermyd in the bileue, as ye han lerud, aboundinge in hym in doynge of thankyngis. 8 Se ye that no man disseyue you bi filosofie and veyn fallace, aftir the tradicioun of men, aftir the elementis of the world, and not aftir Crist. 9 For in hym dwellith bodilich al the fulnesse of the Godhed. 10 And ye ben fillid in hym, that is heed of al principat and power. 11 In whom also ye ben circumcidid in circumcisioun not maad with hoond, in dispoynge of the bodi of fleisch, but in circumcisioun of Crist; 12 and ye ben biried togidere with hym in baptim, in whom also ye han rise ayen bi feith of the worching of God, that reyside hym fro deth. 13 And whanne ye weren deed in giltis, and in the prepucie of youre fleisch, he quikenyde togidere you with hym; 14 foryyuynge to you alle giltis, doynge awei that writing of decre that was ayens vs, that was contrarie to vs; and he took awei that fro the myddil, pitchinge it on the cros; 15 and he spuylide principatis and poweris, and ledde out tristili, opynli ouercomynge hem in hym silf. 16 Therfor no man iuge you in mete, or in drink, or in part of feeste dai, or of neomenye, 17 or of sabatis, whiche ben schadewe of thingis to comynge; for the bodi is of Crist. 18 No man disseyue you, willynge to teche in mekenesse, and religioun of aungelis, tho thingis whiche he hath not seyn, walkinge veynli, bolnyd with wit of his fleisch, 19 and not holdyng the heed, of which al the bodi, bi boondis and ioynyngis togidere vndur mynystrid and maad, wexith in to encreessing of God. 20 For if ye ben deed with Crist fro the elementis of this world, what yit as men lyuyng to the world demen ye? 21 That ye touche not, nether taaste, 22 nether trete with hoondis tho thingis, whiche alle ben in to deth bi the ilke vss, aftir the comaundementis and the techingis of men; 23 whiche han a resoun of wisdom in veyn religioun and mekenesse, and not to spare the bodi, not in ony onour to the fulfillyng of the fleisch.

3 Therfor if ye han risun togidere with Crist, seke ye tho thingis that ben aboue, where Crist is sittynge in the rythalf of God. 2 Sauere ye tho thingis, that ben aboue, not tho that ben on the erthe. 3 For ye ben deed, and youre lijf is hid with Crist in God. 4 For whanne Crist schal appere, youre lijf, thanne also ye schulen appere with hym in glorie. 5 Therfor sle ye youre membris, whiche ben on the erthe, fornicacioun, vnclennesse, letcherie, yuel coueitise, and aueryse, which is seruyse of mawmetis; 6 for whiche thingis the wraththe of God cam on the sones of vnbileue; 7 in whiche also ye walkiden sum tyme, whanne ye lyueden in hem. 8 But now putte ye awei alle thingis, wraththe, indignacioun, malice, blasfemye and foule word of youre mouth. 9 Nyle ye lie togidere; spuyle ye you fro the elde man with his dedes, and clothe ye the newe man, 10 that is maad newe ayen in to the knowing of God, aftir the ymage of hym that made hym; 11 where is not male and female, hethene man and Jew, circumcisioun and prepucie, barbarus and Scita, bonde man and fre man, but alle thingis and in alle thingis Crist. 12 Therfor ye, as the chosun of God, hooli and louyd, clothe you with the entrailis of merci, benygnite, and mekenesse, temperaunce, pacience; 13 and support ye echon other, and foryyue to you silf, if ony man ayens ony hath a querele; as the Lord foryaf to you, so also ye. 14 And vpon alle these thingis haue ye charite, that is the boond of perfeccioun. 15 And the pees of Crist enioye in youre hertis, in which ye ben clepid in o bodi, and be ye kynde. 16 The word of Crist dwelle in you plenteuousli, in al wisdom; and teche and moneste you silf in salmes, and ympnes, and spiritual songis, in grace synginge in youre hertis to the Lord. 17 Al thing, what euere thing ye don, in word or in dede, alle thingis in the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, doynge thankyngis to God and to the fadir bi hym. 18 Wymmen, be ye sugetis to youre hosebondis, as it bihoueth in the Lord. 19 Men, loue ye youre wyues, and nyle ye be bittere to hem. 20 Sones, obeie ye to youre fadir and modir bi alle thingis; for this is wel plesinge in the Lord. 21 Fadris, nyle ye terre youre sonas to indignacioun, that thei be not maad feble hertid. 22 Seruauntis, obeie ye bi alle thingis to fleischli lordis, not seruyng at iye, as plesynge to men, but in symplenesse of herte, dredinge the Lord. 23 What euer ye doen, worche ye of wille, as to the Lord and not to men; 24 witinge that of the Lord ye schulen take yelding of eritage. Serue ye to the Lord Crist. 25 For he that doith iniurie, schal resseyue that that he dide yuele; and acceptacioun of persoones is not anentis God.

that Y schewe it, so as it bihoueth me to speke. 5 Walke ye in wisdom to hem that ben with outen forth, ayenbiyng tyme.

6 Your word be sauered in salt eueremore in grace; that ye wite, hou it bihoueth you to answeere to ech man. 7 Titicus, most dere brother, and feithful mynyster, and my felowe in the Lord, schal make alle thingis knowun to you, that ben aboute me. 8 Whom Y sente to you to this same thing, that he knowe what thingis ben aboute you, and coumforte youre hertis, with Onesyme, 9 most dere and feithful brother, which is of you; whiche schulen make alle thingis that ben doon here, knowun to you. 10 Aristark, prisoner with me, gretith you wel, and Mark, the cosyn of Barnabas, of whom ye han take maundementis; if he come to you, resseyue ye hym; 11 and Jhesus, that is seid Just; whiche ben of circumcisioun; thei aloone ben myn helperis in the kingdom of God, that weren to me in solace. 12 Epafra, that is of you, the seruaunt of Jhesu Crist, gretith you wel; euere bisi for you in preyeris, that ye stonde perfit and ful in al the wille of God. 13 And Y bere witnessyng to hym, that he hath myche trauel for you, and for hem that ben at Loadice, and that ben at Ierapolim. 14 Luk, the leche most dere, and Demas, greten you wel. 15 Grete ye wel the britheren that ben at Loadice, and the womman Nynfam, and the chirche that is in hir hous. 16 And whanne this pistle is red among you, do ye, that it be red in the chirche of Loadicensis; and rede ye that pistle that is of Loadicensis. 17 And seie ye to Archippus, Se the mynysterie, that thou hast takun in the Lord, that thou fille it. 18 My salutacioun, bi the hoond of Poul. Be ye myndeful of my boondis. The grace of the Lord Jhesu Crist be with you. Amen.

1 Thessalonians

1 Poul, and Siluan, and Tymothe, to the chirche of Tessalonicensis, in God the fadir, 2 and in the Lord Jhesu Crist, grace and pees to you. We doon thankyngis to God euere more for alle you, and we maken mynde of you in oure preyeris withouten ceessyng; 3 hauynge mynde of the werk of youre feith, and trauel, and charite, and abyding of the hope of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, bifor God and oure fadir. 4 Ye louyde britheren of God, we witinge youre chesing; 5 for oure gospel was not at you in word oneli, but also in vertu, and in the Hooli Goost, and in myche plente; as ye witen, whiche we weren among you for you; 6 and ye ben maad foleweris of vs, and of the Lord, resseyuynge the word in myche tribulacioun, with ioie of the Hooli Goost; 7 so that ye ben maad ensauple to alle men that bileuen, in Macedonye and in Acaie. 8 For of you the word of the Lord is pupplischid, not oneli in Macedonye and Acaie, but youre feith that is to God, in ech place is gon forth; so that it is not nede to vs to speke ony thing. 9 For thei schewen of you, what maner entre we hadden to you, and hou ye ben conuertid to God fro maumettis, to serue to the lyuynge God and veri; and to abide his sone fro heuenes, 10 whom he reaside fro deth, the Lord Jhesu, that delyuerede us fro wraththe to comynge.

2 For, britheren, ye witen oure entre to you, for it was not veyn; 2 but first we suffriden, and weren punyschid with wrongis, as ye witen in Filippis, and hadden trust in oure Lord, to speke to you the gospel of God in myche bisynesse. 3 And oure exortacioun is not of errour, nether of vnclennesse, nether in gile, 4 but as we ben preued of God, that the gospel of God schulde be takun to vs, so we speken; not as plesynge to men, but to God that

preueth oure hertis. 5 For nether we weren ony tyme in word of glosing, as ye witen, nether in occasioun of auerise; God is witnesse; nether sekinge glorie of men, 6 nether of you, 7 nether of othere, whanne we, as Cristis apostlis, miyten haue be in charge to you. But we weren maad litle in the myddil of you, as if a nursche fostre hir sones; 8 so we desiringe you with greet loue, wolden haue bitake to you, not oneli the gospel of God, but also oure lyues, for ye ben maad most dereworthe to vs. 9 For, britheren, ye ben myndeful of oure trauel and werynesse; we worchiden nytt and day, that we schulden not greue ony of you, and prechiden to you the euangelie of God. 10 God and ye ben witnessis, hou holili, and iustli, and with outen pleynt, we weren to you that bileueden. 11 As ye witen, hou we preyeden you, and coumfortiden ech of you, as the fadir hise sones, 12 and we han witnessid, that ye schulden go worthili to God, that clepide you in to his kingdom and glorie. 13 Therfor we doon thankings to God with outen ceessyng. For whanne ye hadden take of vs the word `of the heryng of God, ye token it not as the word of men, but as `it is verili, the word of God, that worchith in you that han bileued. 14 For, britheren, ye ben maad foleweris of the chirchis of God, that ben in Jude, in Crist Jhesu, for ye han suffrid the same thingis of youre euene lynagis, as thei of the Jewis. 15 Whiche slowen bothe the Lord Jhesu and the profetis, and pursueden vs, and thei plesen not to God, and thei ben aduersaries to alle men; 16 forbedinge vs to speke to hethene men, that thei be maad saaf, that thei fille her synnes euere more; for the wraththe of God cam on hem in to the ende. 17 And, britheren, we desolat fro you for a tyme, bi mouth and in biholding, but not in herte, han hiyed more plenteuousli to se your face with greet desir. 18 For we wolden come to you, yhe, Y Poul, onys and eftsoone, but Sathanas lettide vs. 19 For whi what is oure hope, or ioie, or coroun of glorie? Whether ye ben not bifore oure Lord Jhesu Crist in his comyng? 20 For ye ben oure glorie and ioie.

3 For which thing we suffriden no lengere, and it pleside to vs to dwelle aloone at Atenys; 2 and we senten Tymothe, oure brother, and mynystre of God in the euangelie of Crist, to you to be confermyd, and to be tauyt for youre feith, 3 that no man be mouyd in these tribulaciouns. For ye silf witen, that in this this thing we ben set. 4 For whanne we weren at you, we biforseiden to you, that we schulden suffre tribulaciouns; as it is don, and ye witen. 5 Therfor Y Poul, no lenger abidinge, sente to knowe youre feith, lest perauenture he that temptith tempte you, and youre trauel be maad veyn. 6 But now, whanne Tymothe schal come to vs fro you, and telle to vs youre feith and charite, and that ye han good mynde of vs, euere desyringe to se vs, as we also you; 7 therfor, britheren, we ben coumfortid in you, in al oure nede and tribulacioun, bi youre feith. 8 For now we lyuen, if ye stonden in the Lord. 9 For what doying of thankinis moun we yelde to God for you, in al ioie, in which we ioyen for you bifor oure Lord? 10 nytt and dai more plenteuousli preiyng, that we se youre face, and fulfille tho thingis that failen to youre feith. 11 But God hym silf and oure fadir, and the Lord Jhesu Crist, dresse oure weye to you. 12 And the Lord multiplie you, and make youre charite to be plenteuouse of ech to othere, and in to alle men, as also we in you; 13 that youre hertis ben confermyd with outhen pleynt in holynesse, bifor God and oure fadir, in the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist with alle hise seyntis. Amen.

4 Therfor, britheren, fro hennus forward we preien you, and bisechen in the Lord Jhesu, that as ye han resseyued of vs, hou it bihoueth you to go and to plesse God, so walke ye, that ye abounde the more. 2 For ye witen what comaundementis Y haue youun to you bi the Lord Jhesu. 3 For this is the wille of God, youre holynesse, that ye absteyne you fro fornyacioun.
4 That ech of you kunne welde his vessel in holynesse, and onour; 5 not in passioun of lust, as hethene men that knowen not God. 6 And that no man ouergo, nethir disseyue his brothir in chaffaring. For the Lord is venger of alle these thingis, as we biforseiden to you, and han witnessid. 7 For God clepide not vs in to vnclennesse, but in to holynesse. 8 Therfor he that dispisith these thingis, dispisith not man, but God, that also yaf his holi spirit in vs. 9 But of the charite of britherhed we hadden no nede to write to you; ye silf han lerud of God, that ye loue togidere; 10 for ye don that in to alle britheren in al Macedonye.
 And, britheren, we preyen you, that ye abounde more; and taken kepe, that ye be quyete; 11 and that ye do youre nede, and `ye worche with youre hoondis, as we han comaundid to you; 12 and that ye wandre onestli to hem that ben with outforth, and that of no mannus ye desir ony thing. 13 For, britheren, we wolen not, that ye vnknowe of men that dien, that ye be not soreful, as othere that han not hope. 14 For if we bileuen, that Jhesu was deed, and roos ayen, so God schal lede with hym hem that ben deed bi Jhesu. 15 And we seien this thing to you in the word of the Lord, that we that lyuen, that ben left in the comyng of the Lord, schulen not come bifor hem that ben deed. 16 For the Lord hym silf schal come down fro heuene, in the comaundement, and in the vois of an archaungel, and in the trumpe of God; and the deed men that ben in Crist, schulen rise ayen first. 17 Afterward we that lyuen, that ben left, schulen be rauyschid togidere with hem in cloudis, metinge Crist `in to the eir; and so euere more we schulen be with the Lord. 18 Therfor be ye coumfortid togidere in these wordis.

5 But, britheren, of tymes and momentis ye neden not that Y write to you. 2 For ye silf witen diligentli, that the dai of the Lord schal come, as a theef in the niyt. 3 For whanne thei schulen seie pees is, and sikirnesse, thanne sudeyn deth schal come on hem, as sorewe to a womman that is with child, and thei schulen not scape. 4 But, britheren, ye ben not in derknessis, that the ilke dai as a theef catche you. 5 For alle ye ben the sonnes of liyt, and sonnes of dai; we ben not of niyt, nether of derknessis. 6 Therfor slepe we not as othere; but wake we, and be we sobre. 7 For thei that slepen, slepen in the niyt, and thei that ben drunkun, ben drunkun in the niyt. 8 But we that ben of the dai, ben sobre, clothid in the haburioun of feith and of charite, and in the helme of hope of heelthe. 9 For God puttide not vs in to wraththe, but in to the purchasing of heelthe bi oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that was deed for vs; 10 that whether we waken, whether we slepen, we lyue togidere with him. 11 For which thing comforte ye togidere, and edefie ye ech other, as ye doon. 12 And, britheren, we preien you, that ye knowen hem that trauelen among you, and ben souereyns to you in the Lord, and techen you, 13 that ye han hem more aboundantli in charyte; and for the werk of hem, haue ye pees with hem. 14 And, britheren, we preien you, repreue ye vnpesible men. Coumforte ye men of litil herte, resseyue ye sijke men, be ye pacient to alle men. 15 Se ye, that no man yelde yuel for yuel to ony man; but euere more sue ye that that is good, ech to othere and to alle men. 16 Euere more ioye ye; without ceessing preye ye; 17 in alle thingis do ye thankyngis. 18 For this is the wille of God in Crist Jhesu, in alle you. 19 Nyle ye quenche the spirit; 20 nyle ye dispise prophecies. 21 But preue ye alle thingis, and holde ye that thing that is good. 22 Absteyne you fro al yuel spice. 23 And God hym silf of pees make you hooli bi alle thingis, that youre spirit be kept hool, and soule, and bodi, without pleynt, in the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 24 God is trewe, that clepide you, which also schal do. 25 Britheren, preye ye for vs. 26 Grete ye wel alle britheren in hooli cos. 27 Y coniure you bi the Lord, that this pistle be red to alle hooli britheren. 28 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with you. Amen.

2 Thessalonians

1 Poul, and Siluan, and Tymothe, to the chirche of Tessalonicensis, in God oure fadir, 2 and in the Lord Jhesu Crist, grace to you and pees of God, oure fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 3 We owen to do thankyngis eueremore to God for you, britheren, so as it is worthi, for youre feith ouer wexith, and the charite of ech of you to othere aboundith. 4 So that we silf glorien in you in the chirkis of God, for youre pacience and feith in alle youre persecuciouns and tribulaciouns. 5 Whiche ye susteynen in to the ensauple of the iust dom of God, that ye be had worthi in the kingdom of God, for which ye suffren. 6 If netheles it is iust tofor God to quite tribulacioun to hem that troblen you, 7 and to you that ben troblid, rest with vs in the schewing of the Lord Jhesu fro heuene, with aungelis of his vertu, 8 in the flawme of fier, that schal yyue veniaunce to hem that knowen not God, and that obeien not to the euangelie of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 9 Whiche schulen suffre euere lastinge peynes, in perischinge fro the face of the Lord, and fro the glorie of his vertu, (aiōnios g166) 10 whanne he schal come to be glorified in hise seyntis, and to be maad wondurful in alle men that bileueden, for oure witnessing is bileuyd on you, in that dai. 11 In which thing also we preien euere more for you, that oure God make you worthi to his cleping, and fille al the wille of his goodnesse, and the werk of feith in vertu; 12 that the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be clarified in you, and ye in hym, bi the grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist.

2 But, britheren, we preien you bi the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and of oure congregacioun in to the same comyng, 2 that ye be not mouyd soone fro youre witt, nether be aferd, nether bi spirit, nether bi word, nether bi epistle as sent bi vs, as if the dai of the Lord be nyy. 3 No man disseyue you in ony manere. For but dissencioun come first, and the man of synne be schewid, the sonne of perdicioun, 4 that is aduersarie, and is enhaunsid ouer `al thing that is seid God, or that is worschipid, so that he sitte in the temple of God, and schewe hym silf as if he were God. 5 Whether ye holden not, that yit whanne Y was at you, Y seide these thingis to you? 6 And now what withholdith, ye witen, that he be schewid in his tyme. 7 For the priuete of wickidnesse worchith now; oneli that he that holdith now, holde, til he be do awei. 8 And thanne thilke wickid man schal be schewid, whom the Lord Jhesu schal sle with the spirit of his mouth, and schal distrie with liytning of his comyng; 9 hym, whos comyng is bi the worching of Sathanas, in al vertu, and signes, 10 and grete wondris, false, and in al disseit of wickidnesse, to hem that perischen. For that thei resseyueden not the charite of treuthe, that thei schulden be maad saaf. 11 And therfor God schal sende to hem a worching of errour, that thei bileue to leeing, 12 that alle be demed, whiche bileueden not to treuthe, but consentiden to wickidnesse. 13 But, britheren louyd of God, we owen to do thankyngis euermore to God for you, that God chees vs the firste fruytis in to heelte, in halewing of spirit and in feith of treuthe; 14 in which also he clepide you bi oure gospel, in to geting of the glorie of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 15 Therfor, britheren, stonde ye, and holde ye the tradiciouns, that ye han lerud, ethir bi word, ethir bi oure pistle. 16 And oure Lord Jhesu Crist him silf, and God oure fadir, which louyde vs, and yaf euerlastinge coumfort and good hope in grace, (aīōnios g166) 17 stire youre hertis, and conferme in al good werk and word.

3 Britheren, fro hennus forward preye ye for vs, that the word of God renne, and be clarified, as it is anentis you; 2 and that we be delyuered fro noyous and yuele men; for feith is not of alle men. 3 But the Lord is trewe, that schal conferme you, and schal kepe fro yuel. 4 And, britheren, we trusten of you in the Lord, for what euere thingis we comaunden to you, bothe ye don and schulen do. 5 And the Lord dresse youre hertis, in the charite of God, and in the pacience of Crist. 6 But, britheren, we denouncen to you in the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that ye withdrawe you from ech brother that wandrith out of ordre, and not aftir the techyng, that thei resseyueden of vs. 7 For `ye silf witen, hou it bihoueth to sue vs. For we weren not vnpesible among you, 8 nethir with outen oure owne trauel we eeten breed of ony man, but in trauel and werynesse worchiden niyt and dai, that we greuyden noon of you. 9 Not as we hadden not power, but that we schulden yyue vs silf ensaumple to you to sue vs. 10 For also whanne we weren among you, we denounsiden this thing to you, that if ony man wole not worche, nethir ete he. 11 For we han herd that summe among you goon in reste, and no thing worchen, but don curiousli. 12 But we denouncen to hem that ben suche men, and bisechen in the Lord Jhesu Crist, that thei worchen with silence, and ete her owne breed. 13 But nyle ye, britheren, faile wel doynge. 14 That if ony man obeie not to oure word bi epistle, marke ye him, and comyne ye not with hym, that he be schamed; 15 and nyle ye gesse hym as an enemye, but repreue ye hym as a brother. And God hym silf of pees yyue to you euerlastinge pees in al place. 16 The Lord be with `you alle. 17 My salutacioun bi the hoond of Poul; which signe in ech epistle Y write thus. 18 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with `alle you. Amen.

1 Timothy

1 Poul, apostle `of Jhesu Crist, bi the comaundement of God oure sauour, and of Jhesu Crist oure hope, 2 to Tymothe, bilouyd sone in the feith, grace and merci and pees, of God the fadir, and of Jhesu Crist, oure Lord. 3 As Y preyede thee, that thou schuldist dwelle at Effesi, whanne Y wente into Macedonye, that thou schuldist denounce to summe men, that thei schulden not teche othere weie, 4 nether yyue tent to fablis and genologies that ben vncerteyn, whiche yyuen questiouns, more than edificacioun of God, that is in the feith. 5 For the ende of comaundement is charite of clene herte, and good conscience, and of feith not feyned. 6 Fro whiche thingis sum men han errid, and ben turned in to veyn speche; 7 and willith to be techeris of the lawe, and vndurstonden not what thingis thei speken, nether of what thingis thei affermen. 8 And we witen that the lawe is good, if ony man vse it lawefulli; 9 and witinge this thing, that the lawe is not set to a iust man, but to vniust men and not suget, to wickid men and to synneris, to cursid men and defoulid, to sleeris of fadir, and sleeris of modir, to `men sleeris and lechouris, 10 to hem that don letcherie with men, lesingmongeris and forsworun, and if ony othere thing is contrarie to the hoolsum teching, 11 that is afir the euangelie of the glorie of blessid God, which is bitakun to me. 12 Y do thankis to hym, that coumfortide me in Crist Jhesu oure Lord, for he gesside me feithful, and putte me in mynystrie, 13 that first was a blasfeme, and a pursuere, and ful of wrongis. But Y haue getun the merci of God, for Y vnknowinge dide in vnbileue. 14 But the grace of oure Lord ouer aboundide, with feith and loue that is in Crist Jhesu. 15 A trewe word and worthi al resseyuyng, for Crist Jhesu cam in to this world to make synful men saaf, of whiche Y am the firste. 16 But therfor Y haue getun merci, that Crist Jhesu schulde schewe in me first al pacience, to the enfourmyng of hem that schulen bileue to hym in to euerlastinge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 17 And to the king of worldis, vndeedi and vnvysible God aloone, be onour and glorie in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165) 18 I bitake this comaundement to thee, thou sone Timothe, after the prophecies that han be hertofore in thee, that thou traueile in hem a good trauel, 19 hauynge feith and good conscience, which summen casten awei, and perischiden aboute the feith. 20 Of whiche is Ymeneus and Alisaundre, which Y bitook to Sathanas, that thei lerne `to not blasfeme.

2 Therfor Y biseche first of alle thingis, that bisechingis, preieris, axyngis, doynge of thankyngis, ben maad for alle men, 2 for kingis and alle that ben set in hiynesse, that we leden a quyet and a pesible lijf, in al pite and chastite. 3 For this thing is good and acceptid bifor God, 4 oure sauour, that wole that alle men ben maad saaf, and that thei come to the knowyng of treuthe. 5 For o God and a mediatour is of God and of men, a man Crist Jhesus, 6 that yaf him silf redempcioun for alle men. Whos witnessing is confermyd in his tymes; 7 in which Y am set a prechour and an apostle. For Y seye treuthe, and Y lie not, that am a techere of hethene men in feith and in treuthe. 8 Therfor Y wole, that men preye in al place, liftinge vp clene hondis with outen wraththe and strijf. 9 Also wymmen in couenable abite, with schamefastnesse and sobrenesse araiynge hem silf, not in writhun heeris, ethir in gold, ethir peerlis, ethir precieuse cloth; but that that bicometh wymmen, 10 biheetinge pite bi good werkis. 11 A womman lerne in silence, with al subieccioun. 12 But Y suffre not a womman to teche, nether to haue lordschip on the hosebonde, but to be in silence. 13 For Adam was first formed, aftirward Eue; 14 and Adam was not disseyued, but the womman was disseyued, in breking of the lawe. 15 But sche schal be sauyd bi generacioun of children, if sche dwellith perfilti in feith, and loue, and hoolynesse, with sobrenesse.

3 A feithful word. If ony man desirith a bishopriche, he desirith a good werk. 2 Therfor it bihoueth a byschop to be with out reproof, the hosebonde of o wijf, sobre, prudent, chast, vertewous, holdinge hospitalite, a techere; 3 not youun myche to wyn, not a smyttere, but temperat, not ful of chiding, not coueitouse, wel reulinge his hous, 4 and haue sones suget with al chastite; 5 for if ony man kan not gouerne his house, hou schal he haue diligence of the chirche of God? not new conuertid to the feith, 6 lest he be borun vp in to pride, and falle in to doom of the deuel. 7 For it bihoueth hym to haue also good witnessing of hem that ben with outforth, that he falle not in to reproof, and in to the snare of the deuel. 8 Also it bihoueth dekenes to be chast, not double tungid, not youun myche to wyn, not suyng fowl wynnyng; 9 that han the mysterie of feith in clene conscience. 10 But be thei preued first, and mynystre so, hauynge no cryme. 11 Also it bihoueth wymmen to be chast, not bacbitinge, sobre, feithful in alle thingis. 12 Dekenes be hosebondis of o wijf; whiche gouerne wel her sones and her housis. 13 For thei that mynystren wel, schulen gete a good degre to hem silf, and myche triste in the feith, that is in Crist Jhesu. 14 Sone Timothe, Y write to thee these thingis, hopinge that Y schal come soon to thee; 15 but if Y tarie, that thou wite, hou it bihoueth thee to lyue in the hous of God, that is the chirche of lyuyng God, a pilere and sadnesse of treuthe. 16 And opynli it is a greet sacrament of pitee, that thing that was schewid in fleisch, it is iustified in spirit, it apperid to aungels, it is prechid to hethene men, it is bileuyd in the world, it is takun vp in glorie.

4 But the spirit seith opynli, that in the laste tymes summen schulen departe fro the feith, yyuyng tent to spiritis of errour, and to techingis of deuelis; that speken leeing in ipocrisie, 2 and haue her conscience corrupt, 3 forbedinge to be weddid, to absteyne fro metis, whiche God made to take with doying of thankngis, to feithful men, and hem that han knowe the treuthe. 4 For ech creature of God is good, and no thing is to be cast awei, which is takun with doying of thankngis; 5 for it is halewid bi the word of God, and bi preyer. 6 Thou puttyng forth these thingis to britheren, schalt be a good mynystre of Crist Jhesu; nurschid with wordis of feith and of good doctryne, which thou hast gete. 7 But eschewe thou vncouenable fablis, and elde wymmenus fablis; haunte thi silf to pitee. 8 For bodili exercitation is profitable to litle thing; but pitee is profitable to alle thingis, that hath a biheest of lijf that now is, and that is to come. 9 A trewe word, and worthi al acceptacioun. 10 And in this thing we trauelen, and ben cursid, for we hopen in lyuyng God, that is sauour of alle men, moost of feithful men. 11 Comaunde thou this thing, and teche. 12 No man dispise thi yongthe, but be thou ensaumple of feithful men in word, in lyuyng, in charite, in feith, in chastite. 13 Tyl Y come, take tent to redyng, to exortacioun and teching. 14 Nyle thou litil charge the grace which is in thee, that is youun to thee bi profecie, with putting on of the hondis of preesthod. 15 Thenke thou these thingis, in these be thou, that thi profiting be schewid to alle men. 16 Take tent to thi silf and to doctryn; be bisi in hem. For thou doynge these thingis, schalt `make bothe thi silf saaf, and hem that heren thee.

5 Blame thou not an eldere man, but biseche as a fadir, yonge men as britheren; elde wymmen as modris, 2 yonge wymmen as sistris, in al chastite. 3 Honoure thou widewis, that ben very widewis. 4 But if ony widewe hath children of sones, lerne sche first to gouerne her hous, and quyte to fadir and modir; for this thing is acceptid bifor God. 5 And sche that is a widewe verili, and desolate, hope in to God, and be bisy in bisechingis and preieris niyt and dai. 6 For sche that is lyuyng in delicis, is deed. 7 And comaunde thou this thing, that thei be withouten reproof. 8 For if ony man hath not cure of his owne, and most of hise household men, he hath denyed the feith, and is worse than an vnfeithful man. 9 A widewe be chosun not lesse than sixti yeer, that was wijf of oon hosebonde, 10 and hath witnessing in good werkis, if sche nurschede children, if sche resseyuede pore men to herbore, if sche hath waischun the feet of hooli men, if sche mynstride to men that suffriden tribulacioun, if sche folewide al good werk. 11 But eschewe thou yongere widewis; for whanne thei han do letcherie, thei wolen be weddid in Crist, 12 hauynge dampnacioun, for thei han maad voide the firste feith. 13 Also thei idil lerne to go aboute housis, not oneli ydel, but ful of wordis and curiouse, spekyng thingis that bihoueth not. 14 Therfor Y wole, that yongere widewis be weddid, and bringe forth children, and ben hosewyues, to yyue noon occasioun to the aduersarie, bi cause of cursid thing. 15 For now summe ben turned abak aftir Sathanas. 16 If ony feithful man hath widewis, mynystre he to hem, that the chirche be not greuyd, that it suffice to hem that ben very widewis. 17 The prestis that ben wel gouernoures, be thei had worthi to double onour; moost thei that trauelen in word and teching. 18 For scripture seith, Thou schalt not bridil the mouth of the oxe threischinge, and, A werk man is worthi his hire. 19 Nyle thou resseyue accusyng ayens a preest, but vndur tweyne or thre witnessis. 20 But reproue thou men that synnen bifor alle men, that also othere haue drede. 21 Y preie bifor God, and Jhesu Crist, and hise chosun aungelis, that thou kepe these thingis with oute preiudice, and do no thing in bowynge `in to the othere side. 22 Put thou hondis to no man, nether anoon comyne thou with othere mennus synnes. Kepe thi silf chast. 23 Nyle thou yit drinke watir, but vse a litil wyn, for thi stomac, and `for thin ofte fallynge infirmytees. 24 Sum mennus synnes ben opyn, bifor goynge to dom; but of summen thei comen aftir. 25 And also goode dedis ben opyn, and tho that han hem in othere maner, moun not be hid.

6 What euere seruauntis ben vndur yok, deme thei her lordis worthi al onour, lest the name of the Lord and the doctryn be blasfemyd. 2 And thei that han feithful lordis, dispise hem not, for thei ben britheren; but more serue thei, for thei ben feithful and louyd, whiche ben parceneris of benefice. Teche thou these thingis, and moneste thou these thingis. 3 If ony man techith othere wise, and acordith not to the hoolsum wordis of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and to that teching that is bi pitee, 4 he is proud, and kan no thing, but langwischith aboute questiouns and stryuyng of wordis, of the whiche ben brouyt forth enuyes, stryues, blasfemyes, yuele suspiciouns, fyttingis of men, 5 that ben corrupt in soule, and that ben pryued fro treuthe, that demen wynnyng to be pitee. 6 But a greet wynnyng is pitee, with sufficiency. 7 For we brouyten in no thing in to this world, and no doute, that we moun not bere `away ony thing. 8 But we hauynge foodis, and with what thingus we schulen be hilid, be we paied with these thingis. 9 For thei that wolen be maad riche, fallen in to temptacioun, and `in to snare of the deuel, and in to many vnprofitable desiris and noyous, whiche drenchen men in to deth and perdicoun. 10 For the rote of alle yuelis is coueytise, which summen coueitinge erriden fro the feith, and bisettiden hem with many sorewis. 11 But, thou, man of God, fle these thingis; but sue thou riytwisnesse, pite, feith, charite, pacience, myldenesse. 12 Stryue thou a good strijf of feith, catche euerlastinge lijf, in to which thou art clepid, and hast knoulechid a good knouleching bifor many witnessis. (aiōnios g166) 13 I comaunde to thee bifor God, that quikeneth alle thingis, and bifor Crist Jhesu, that yeldide a witnessing vnder Pilat of Pounce, a good confessioun, 14 that thou kepe the comaundement with out wem, with out reproof, in to the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist; 15 whom the blessid and aloone miyti king of kyngis and Lord of lordis schal schewe in his tymes. 16 Which aloone hath vndeedlynesse, and dwellith in liyt, to which no man may come; whom no man say, nether may se; to whom glorie, and honour, and empire be with out ende. Amen. (aiōnios g166) 17 Comaunde thou to the riche men of this world, that thei vndurstonde not hiyli, nether that thei hope in vncerteynte of richessis, but in the lyuyng God, that yueth to vs alle thingis plenteuously to vse; (aiōn g165) 18 to do wel, to be maad riche in good werkis, liytli to yyue, to comyne, 19 to tresoure to hem silf a good foundement in to tyme to comynge, that thei catche euerlastinge lijf. 20 Thou Tymothe, kepe the thing bitakun to thee, eschewyng cursid noueltees of voicis, and opynyouns of fals name of kunnyng; 21 which summen bihetinge, aboute the feith fellen doun. The grace of God be with thee. Amen.

2 Timothy

1 Poul, apostle of Jhesu Crist, bi the wille of God, bi the biheest of lijf that is in Crist Jhesu, 2 to Tymothe, his moost dereworthe sone, grace, merci, and pees of God the fadir, and of Jhesu Crist, oure Lord. 3 I do thankyngis to my God, to whom Y serue fro my progenytouris in clene conscience, that with outen ceessyng Y haue mynde of thee in my preyeris, 4 niyt and dai, desiryng to se thee; hauynge mynde of thi teeris, that Y be fillid with ioye. 5 And Y bithenke of that feith, that is in thee not feyned, which also dwellide firste in thin auntie Loide, and in thi modir Eunyce. And Y am certeyn, that also in thee. 6 For which cause Y moneste thee, that thou reise ayen the grace of God, that is in thee bi the setting on of myn hondis. 7 For whi God yaf not to vs the spirit of drede, but of vertu, and of loue, and of sobrenesse. 8 Therfor nyl thou schame the witnessyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, nether me, his prisoner; but trauele thou togidere in the gospel bi the vertu of God; 9 that delyueride vs, and clepide with his hooli clepyng, not after oure werkis, but bi his purpos and grace, that is youun in Crist Jhesu bifore worldli tymes; (aiōnios g166) 10 but now it is opyn bi the liytning of oure sauour Jhesu Crist, which destriede deth, and liytnede lijf and vncorruptioun bi the gospel. 11 In which Y am set a prechour and apostle, and maistir of hethene men. 12 For which cause also Y suffre these thingis; but Y am not confoundid. For Y woot to whom Y haue bileuyd, and Y am certeyne that he is miyti for to kepe that is take to my keping in to that dai. 13 Haue thou the fourme of hoolsum wordis, whiche thou herdist of me in feith and loue in Crist Jhesu. 14 Kepe thou the good takun to thi kepyng bi the Hooli Goost, that dwellith in vs. 15 Thou wost this, that alle that ben in Asie ben turnyd away fro me, of whiche is Figelus and Ermogenes. 16 The Lord yyue merci to the hous of Onesyforus, for ofte he refreischide me, and schamyde not my chayne. 17 But whanne he cam to Rome, he souyte me bisili, and foond. 18 The Lord yyue to hym to fynde merci of God in that dai. And hou grete thingis he mynystride to me at Effesi, thou knowist betere.

2 Therfor thou, my sone, be coumfortid in grace that is in Crist Jhesu. 2 And what thingis thou hast herd of me bi many witnessis, bitake thou these to feithful men, whiche schulen `be also able to teche othere men. 3 Trauele thou as a good knyyt of Crist Jhesu. 4 No man holdinge knyythod to God, wlapyth hym silf with worldli nedis, that he plese to hym, to whom he hath preuyd hym silf. 5 For he that fytith in a batel, schal not be corowned, but he fytte lawfuli. 6 It bihoueth an erthetiliere to resseyue first of the fruytis. 7 Vndurstonde thou what thingis Y seie. For the Lord schal yyue to thee vndurstanding in alle thingis. 8 Be thou myndeful that the Lord Jhesu Crist of the seed of Daud hath rise ayen fro deth, 9 aftir my gospel, in which Y trauele `til to boondis, as worching yuele, but the word of God is not boundun. 10 Therfor Y suffre alle thingis for the chosun, that also thei gete the heelte, that is in Crist Jhesu, with heuenli glorie. (aiōnios g166) 11 A trewe word, that if we ben deed togidere, also we schulen liue togidere; 12 if we suffren, we schulen regne togidere; if we denyen, he schal denye vs; 13 if we bileuen not, he dwellith feithful, he mai not denye hym silf. 14 Teche thou these thingis, witnessinge bifore God. Nyle thou stryue in wordis; for to no thing it is profitable, but to the subuerting of men that heren. 15 Bisili kepe to yyue thi silf a preued preisable werkman to God, with oute schame, riytli tretinge the word of treuthe. 16 But eschewe thou vnchooli and veyn spechis, for whi tho profiten myche to vnfeithfulnesse, 17 and the word of hem crepith as a canker. Of whiche Filete is, and Ymeneus, 18 whiche felden doun fro the treuthe, seiynge that the rising ayen is now doon, and thei subuertiden the feith of summen. 19 But the sad foundement of God stondith, hauynge this marke, The Lord knowith whiche ben hise, and, Ech man that nameth the name of the Lord, departith fro wickidnesse. 20 But in a greet hous ben not oneli vessels of gold and of siluer, but also of tree and of erthe; and so summen ben in to onour, and summe in to dispit. 21 Therfor if ony man clensith hym silf fro these, he schal be a vessel halewid in to onour, and profitable to the Lord, redi to al good werk. 22 And fle thou desiris of yongthe, but sue thou riytwisnesse, feith, charite, pees, with hem that inwardli clepen the Lord of a clene herte. 23 And eschewe thou foltische questiouns, and without kunnyng, wytynge that tho gendren chidyngis. 24 But it bihoueth the seruaunt of the Lord to chide not; but to be mylde to alle men, able to teche, 25 paciente, with temperaunce repreuyng hem that ayenstonden the treuthe, that sum tyme God yyue to hem forthenkyng, that thei knowen the treuthe, 26 and that thei rise ayen fro the snares of the deuel, of whom thei ben holdun prisoneris at his wille.

3 But wite thou this thing, that in the laste daies perelouse tymes schulen neiye, and men schulen be louynge hem silf, 2 coueitouse, hiy of bering, proude, blasfemeris, not obedient to fadir and modir, vnkynde, 3 cursid, with outen affeccioun, with out pees, false blameris, vncontynent, vnmylde, 4 with out benygnyte, traitouris, ouerthwert, bollun with proude thouytis, blynde, louteris of lustis more than of God, 5 hauynge the licknesse of pitee, but denyynge the vertu of it. And eschewe thou these men. 6 Of these thei ben that persen housis, and leden wymmen caitifs chargid with synnes, whiche ben led with dyuerse desiris, euere more lernynge, 7 and neuere perfitli comynge to the science of treuthe. 8 And as Jannes and Mambres ayenstoden Moises, so these ayenstonden treuthe, men corrupt in vndirstonding, repreuyd aboute the feith. 9 But ferthere thei schulen not profite, for the vnwisdom of hem schal be knowun to alle men, as hern was. 10 But thou hast getun my teching, ordinaunce, purposing, feith, long abiding, loue, 11 pacience, persecuciouns, passiouns, whiche weren maad to me at Antioche, at Ycony, at Listris, what maner persecucyouns Y suffride, and the Lord hath delyuered me of alle. 12 And alle men that wolen lyue feithfuli in Crist Jhesu, schulen suffre persecucioun. 13 But yuele men and disseyueris schulen encrease in to worse, errynge, and sendinge in to errour. 14 But dwelle thou in these thingis that thou hast lerud, and that ben bitakun to thee, witinge of whom thou hast lerud; 15 for thou hast knowun hooli lettris fro thi youthe, whiche moun lerne thee to heelthe, bi feith that is in Crist Jhesu. 16 For al scripture inspirid of God is profitable to teche, to repreue, to chastice, to lerne in riytwisnes, 17 that the man of God be parfit, lerud to al good werk.

4 I witnesse bifore God and Crist Jhesu, that schal deme the quike and the deed, and bi the comyng of hym, and the kyngdom of hym, 2 preche the word, be thou bisi couenabli with outen rest, repreue thou, biseche thou, blame thou in al pacience and doctryn. 3 For tyme schal be, whanne men schulen not suffre hoolsum teching, but at her desiris thei schulen gadere

`togidere to hem silf maistris yitchinge to the eeris. 4 And treuli thei schulen turne awei the heryng fro treuthe, but to fablis thei schulen turne. 5 But wake thou, in alle thingis traueile thou, do the werk of an euangelist, fulfille thi seruyce, be thou sobre. 6 For Y am sacrificid now, and the tyme of my departyng is nyy. 7 Y haue stryuu a good strijf, Y haue endid the cours, Y haue kept the feith. 8 In `the tothir tyme a coroun of riytwisnesse is kept to me, which the Lord, a iust domesman, schal yelde to me in that dai; and not oneli to me, but also to these that louen his comyng. 9 Hye thou to come to me soone. 10 For Demas, louynge this world, hath forsakun me, and wente to Tessalonyk, Crescens in to Galathi, Tite in to Dalmacie; (aïōn g165) 11 Luk aloone is with me. Take thou Mark, and brynge with thee; for he is profitable to me in to seruyce. 12 Forsothe Y sente Titicus to Effesi. 13 The cloth which Y lefte at Troade at Carpe, whanne thou comest, bringe with thee, and the bookis, but moost parchemyne. 14 Alisaundre, the tresorer, schewide to me myche yuele; `the Lord schal yelde to hym aftir his werkis.
15 Whom also thou eschewe; for he ayenstood ful greetli oure wordis. 16 In my firste defence no man helpide me, but alle forsoken me; be it not arettid to hem. 17 But the Lord helpide me, and coumfortide me, that the preching be fillid bi me, and that alle folkis here, that Y am delyueride fro the mouth of the lioun. 18 And the Lord delyueride me fro al yuel werk, and schal make me saaf in to his heuenly kingdom, to whom be glorie in to worldis of worldis. (aïōn g165) 19 Amen. Grete wel Prisca, and Aquila, and the hous of Oneseforus. 20 Erastus lefte at Corynthe, and Y lefte Trofymus sijk at Mylete. 21 Hiye thou to come bfore wyntir. Eubolus, and Prudent, and Lynus, and Claudia, and alle britheren, greten thee wel. 22 Oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with thi spirit. The grace of God be with you. Amen.

Titus

1 Poul, the seruaunt of God, and apostle of Jhesu Crist, bi the feith of the chosun of God, and bi the knowing of the treuthe, whiche is aftir pitee, 2 in to the hope of euerlastinge lijf, which lijf God that lieth not, bihiyte bifore tymes of the world; (aiōnios g166) 3 but he hath schewid in hise tymes his word in preching, that is bitakun to me bi the comaundement of `God oure sauyour, 4 to Tite, most dereworthe sone bi the comyn feith, grace and pees of God the fadir, and of Crist Jhesu, oure sauyour. 5 For cause of this thing Y lefte thee at Crete, that thou amende tho thingis that failen, and ordeyne preestis bi citees, as also Y disposide to thee. 6 If ony man is withoute cryme, an hosebonde of o wijf, and hath feithful sones, not in accusacioun of letcherie, or not suget. 7 For it bihoueth a bischop to be without cryme, a dispendour of God, not proud, not wrathful, not drunkelew, not smytere, not coueytouse of foul wynnyng; 8 but holdinge hospitalite, benygne, prudent, sobre, iust, 9 hooli, contynent, takinge that trewe word, that is aftir doctryn; that he be miyti to amoneste in hoolsum techyng, and to repreue hem that ayenseien. 10 For ther ben many vnobedient, and veyn spekeris, and disseyueris, moost thei that ben of circumcisyoun, 11 whiche it bihoueth to be repreued; whiche subuerten alle housis, techinge whiche thingis it bihoueth not, for the loue of foul wynnyng. 12 And oon of hem, her propre profete, seide, Men of Crete ben euere more lyeris, yuele beestis, of slowe wombe. 13 This witnessyng is trewe. For what cause blame hem sore, that thei be hool in feith, 14 not yyuyng tent to fablis of Jewis, and to maundementis of men, that turnen awei hem fro treuthe. 15 And alle thingis ben clene to clene men; but to vnclene men and to vnfeithful no thing is clene, for the soule and conscience of hem ben maad vnclene. 16 Thei knouelechen that thei knowen God, but bi dedis thei denyen; whanne thei ben abhominable, and vnbileueful, and repreuable to al good werk.

2 But speke thou tho thingis that bisemen hoolsum teching; 2 that elde men be sobre, chast, prudent, hool in feith, in loue, and pacience; 3 also olde wymmen in hooli abite, not sclaudereris, not seruyng myche to wyn, wel techynge, that thei teche prudence. 4 Moneste thou yonge wymmen, that thei loue here hosebondis, that thei loue her children; 5 and that thei be prudent, chast, sobre, hauynge cure of the hous, benygne, suget to her hosebondis, that the word of God be not blasfemyd. 6 Also moneste thou yonge men, that thei be sobre. 7 In alle thingis yyue thi silf ensauple of good werkis, in teching, in hoolnesse, in sadnesse. 8 An hoolsum word, and vnrepreuable; that he that is of the contrarie side, be aschamed, hauynge noon yuel thing to seie of you. 9 Moneste thou seruauntis to be suget to her lordis; in alle thingis plesinge, not ayenseiynge, not defraudyng, 10 but in alle thingis schewinge good feith, that thei onoure in alle thingis the doctryn of `God, oure sauour. 11 For the grace of `God, oure sauour, hath apperid to alle men, 12 and tauyte vs, that we forsake wickidnesse, and worldli desyris, lyue sobreli, and iustli, `and piteuousli in this world, (aiōn g165) 13 abidinge the blessid hope and the comyng of the glorie of the greet God, and of oure sauour Jhesu Crist; 14 that yaf hym silf for vs, to ayenbie vs fro al wickidnesse, and make clene to hym silf a puple acceptable, and suere of good werkis. 15 Speke thou these thingis, and moneste thou, and repreue thou with al comaundement; no man dispise thee.

3 Amoneste hem to be sugetis to prynces, and to poweris; to obeische to that that is seid, and to be redi to al good werk; 2 to blasfeme no man, to be not ful of chiding, but temperat, schewyng al myldenesse to alle men. 3 For we weren sum tyme vnwise, vnbileueful, erryng, and seruyng to desiris, and to dyuerse lustis, doynge in malice and enuye, worthi to be hatid, hatinge ech othere. 4 But whanne the benygnyte and the manhed of oure sauour God aperide, 5 not of werkis of riytwisnesse that we diden, but bi his merci he made vs saaf, bi waischyng of ayen bigetyng, and ayen newyng of the Hooli Goost, 6 whom he schedde into vs plenteuousli bi Jhesu Crist, oure saueour, 7 that we iustified bi his grace, ben eiris by hope of euerlastinge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 8 A trewe word is, and of these thingis Y wole that thou conferme othere, that thei that bileuen to God, be bisy to be aboue othere in good werkis. These thingis ben good, and profitable to men. 9 And eschewe thou foltische questiouns, and genologies, and stryues, and fityngis of the lawe; for tho ben vnprofitable and veyn. 10 Eschewe thou a man eretik, aftir oon and the secound correccioun; 11 witinge that he that is siche a maner man is subuertid, and trespassith, and is dampned bi his owne dom. 12 Whanne Y sende to thee Arteman, or Titicus, hiy thou to `come to me to Nycopolis; for Y haue purposid to dwelle in wyntir there. 13 Bisili byfor sende Zenam, a wise man of lawe, and Apollo, that no thing faile to hem. 14 Thei that ben of ouris, lerne to be gournouris in good werkis, to necessarie vsis, that thei be not with out fruyt. 15 Alle men that ben with me greeten thee wel. Grete thou wel hem, that louen vs in feith. The grace of God be with you alle. Amen.

Philemon

1 Poul, the boundun of Crist Jhesu, and Timothe, brother, to Filemon, bilouyd, and oure helpere, and to Appia, 2 most dere sister, and to Archip, oure euene kniyt, and to the chirche that is in thin hous, 3 grace be to you, and pees of God oure fader, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 4 I do thankngis to my God, euere more makinge mynde of thee in my preieris, 5 heringe thi charite and feith, that thou hast in the Lord Jhesu, and to alle hooli men, 6 that the comynyng of thi feith be maad opyn, in knowing of al good thing in Crist Jhesu. 7 And Y hadde greet ioye and coumfort in thi charite, for the entrailis of hooli men restiden bi thee, brother. 8 For which thing Y hauynge myche trist in Crist Jhesu, to comaunde to thee that that perteyneth to profit; 9 but Y biseche more for charite, sithen thou art siche as the elde Poul, and now the boundun of Jhesu Crist. 10 Y biseche thee for my sone Onesyme, whom Y in boondis bigat, 11 which sumtyme was vnprofitable to thee, but now profitable bothe to thee and to me; whom Y sente ayen to thee. 12 And resseyue thou hym as myn entrailis; 13 whom Y wolde withholde with me, that he schulde serue for thee to me in boondis of the gospel; 14 but with out thi counseil Y wolde not do ony thing, that thi good schulde not be as of nede, but wilful. 15 For perauenture therfor he departide fro thee for a tyme, that thou schuldist resseyue hym with outen ende; (aiōnios g166) 16 now not as a seruaunt, but for a seruaunt a most dere brother, most to me; and how myche more to thee, bothe in fleisch and in the Lord? 17 Therfor if thou hast me a felowe, resseyue hym as me; for if he hath ony thing anoied thee, 18 ethir owith, arette thou this thing to me. 19 Y Poul wroot with myn hoond, Y schal yelde; that Y seie not to thee, that also thou owist to me thi silf. 20 So, brothir, Y schal vse thee in the Lord; fille thou myn entrails in Crist. 21 Y tristnyng of thin obedience wroot to thee, wityng that thou schalt do ouer that that Y seie. 22 Also make thou redi to me an hous to dwelle in; for Y hope that bi youre preyeris Y schal be youun to you. 23 Epafra, prisoner with me in Crist Jhesu, 24 greetith thee wel, and Mark, Aristark, Demas, Lucas, myn helperis. 25 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with youre spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

1 God, that spak sum tyme bi prophetis in many maneres to oure fadris, at the 2 laste in these daies he hath spoke to vs bi the sone; whom he hath ordeyned eir of alle thingis, and bi whom he made the worldis. (aiōn g165) 3 Which whanne also he is the brytnesse of glorie, and figure of his substaunce, and berith alle thingis bi word of his vertu, he makith purgacioun of synnes, and syttith on the riythalf of the maieste in heuenes; 4 and so myche is maad betere than aungels, bi hou myche he hath eneritid a more dyuerse name bifor hem. 5 For to whiche of the aungels seide God ony tyme, Thou art my sone, Y haue gendrid thee to dai? And eftsoone, Y schal be to hym in to a fadir, and he schal be to me in to a sone? 6 And whanne eftsoone he bryngith in the firste bigetun sone in to the world, he seith, And alle the aungels of God worschipe hym. 7 But he seith to aungels, He that makith hise aungels spiritis, and hise mynystris flawme of fier. 8 But to the sone he seith, God, thi trone is in to the world of world; a yerde of equite is the yerde of thi rewme; (aiōn g165) 9 thou hast louyd riytwisnesse, and hatidist wickidnesse; therfor the God, thi God, anoyntide thee with oile of ioie, more than thi felowis. 10 And, Thou, Lord, in the bigynnyng foundidist the erthe, and heuenes ben werkis of thin hondis; thei schulen perische, 11 but thou schalt perfitli dwelle; and alle schulen wexe elde as a cloth, and thou schalt chaunge hem as a cloth, 12 and thei schulen be chaungid. But thou art the same thi silf, and thi yeeris schulen not faile. 13 But to whiche of the aungels seide God at ony tyme, Sitte thou on my riythalf, till Y putte thin enemyes a stool of thi feet? 14 Whether thei alle ben not seruynge spiritis, sente to seruen for hem that taken the eritage of heelthe?

2 Therfor more plenteuousli it bihoueth vs to kepe tho thingis, that we han herd, lest perauenture we fleten awei. 2 For if the ilke word that was seid bi aungels, was maad sad, and ech brekyng of the lawe and vnobedience took iust retribucioun of meede, 3 hou schulen we ascape, if we despisen so greet an heelthe? Which, whanne it hadde takun bigynnyng to be teld out by the Lord, of hem that herden is confermyd in to vs. 4 For God witnesside to gidere bi myraclis, and wondris, and grete merueilis, and dyuerse vertues, and departyngis of the Hooli Goost, bi his wille. 5 But not to aungels God sugetide the world that is to comynge, of which we speken. 6 But sum man witnesside in a place, and seide, What thing is man, that thou art myndeful of hym, or mannus sone, for thou visitist hym? 7 Thou hast maad hym a litil lesse than aungels; thou hast crowned hym with glorie and onour; and thou hast ordeyned him on the werkis of thin hondis. 8 Thou hast maad alle thingis suget vndur hise feet. And in that that he sugetide alle thingis to hym, he lefte no thing vnsuget to him. But now we seen not yit alle thingis suget to hym; 9 but we seen hym that was maad a litil lesse than aungels, Jhesu, for the passioun of deth crowned with glorie and onour, that he thorouy grace of God schulde taste deth for alle men. 10 For it bisemed hym, for whom alle thingis, and bi whom `alle thingis weren maad, which hadde brouyt many sones into glorie, and was auctour of the heelthe of hem, that he hadde an ende bi passioun. 11 For he that halewith, and thei that ben halewid, ben alle of oon; for which cause he is not schamed to clepe hem britheren, 12 seiyng, Y schal telle thi name to my britheren; in the myddil of the chirche Y schal herie thee. 13 And eftsoone, Y schal be tristnyng in to hym; and eftsoone, Lo! Y and my children, whiche God yaf to me. 14 Therfor for children comyneden to fleisch and blood, and he also took part of the same, that bi deth he schulde destrie hym that hadde lordschipe of deth, that is to seie, the deuel, 15 and that he schulde delyuere hem that bi drede of deth, `bi al lijf weren boundun to seruage. 16 And he took neuere aungelis, but he took the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherfor he ouyte to be likned to britheren bi alle thingis, that he schulde be maad merciful and a feithful bischop to God, that he schulde be merciful to the trespassis of the puple. 18 For in that thing in which he suffride, and was temptid, he is miyti to helpe also hem that ben temptid.

3 Therfor, hooli britheren, and parceneris of heuenli cleping, biholde ye the apostle and the bischop of oure confessioun, Jhesu, 2 which is trewe to hym that made hym, as also Moises in al the hous of hym. 3 But this byschop is had worthi of more glorie than Moises, bi as myche as he hath more honour of the hous, that made the hous. 4 For ech hous is maad of sum man; he that made alle thingis of nouyt is God. 5 And Moises was trewe in al his hous, as a seruaunt, in to witnessyng of tho thingis that weren to be seid; 6 but Crist as a sone in his hous. Which hous we ben, if we holden sad trist and glorie of hope in to the ende. 7 Wherfor as the Hooli Goost seith, To dai, if ye han herd his vois, nyle ye hardne youre hertis, 8 as in wraththing, lijk the dai of temptacioun in desert; 9 where youre fadris temptiden me, and preueden, and siyen my werkis fourti yeeris. 10 Wherfor Y was wrooth to this generacioun, and Y seide, Euere more thei erren in herte, for thei knewen not my weies; 11 to whiche Y swore in my wraththe, thei schulen not entre in to my reste. 12 Britheren, se ye, lest peraenture in ony of you be an yuel herte of vnbeleue, to departe fro the luyng God. 13 But moneste you self bi alle daies, the while to dai is named, that noon of you be hardned bi fallas of synne. 14 For we ben maad parceneris of Crist, if netheles we holden the bigynnyng of his substaunce sad in to the ende. 15 While it is seid, to dai, if ye han herd the vois of hym, nyle ye hardne youre hertis, as in that wraththing. 16 For summen heringe wraththiden, but not alle thei that wenten out of Egipt bi Moises. 17 But to whiche was he wraththid fourti yeeris? Whether not to hem that synneden, whos careyns weren cast doun in desert? 18 And to whiche swoor he, that thei schulden not entre in to the reste of hym, not but to hem that weren vnbeleueful? 19 And we seen, that thei myyten not entre in to the reste of hym for vnbeleue.

4 Therfor drede we, lest perauenture while the biheest of entryng in to his reste is left, that ony of vs be gessid to be awei. 2 For it is told also to vs, as to hem. And the word that was herd profitide not to hem, not meynd to feith of tho thingis that thei herden. 3 For we that han beleued, schulen entre in to reste, as he seide, As Y swoor in my wraththe, thei schulen not entre in to my reste. And whanne the werkis weren maad perfit at the ordynaunce of the world, 4 he seide thus in a place of the seuenthe dai, And God restide in the seuenthe dai from alle hise werkis. 5 And in this place eftsoone, Thei schulen not entre in to my reste. 6 Therfor for it sueth, that summen schulen entre in to it, and thei to whiche it was teld to bifor, entriden not for her vnbeleue. 7 Eftsoone he termyneth sum dai, and seith in Dauith, To dai, aftir so myche tyme of tyme, as it is biforseid, To dai if ye han herd his vois, nyle ye hardne youre hertis. 8 For if Jhesus hadde youun reste to hem, he schulde neuere speke of othere aftir this

dai. 9 Therfor the sabat is left to the puple of God. 10 For he that is entrid in to his reste, restide of hise werkis, as also God of hise. 11 Therfor haste we to entre in to that reste, that no man falle in to the same ensauple of vnbeleue. For the word of God is quyk, 12 and spedi in worching, and more able to perse than any twayne eggid swerd, and stretchith forth to the departyng of the soule and of the spirit, and of the ioynturis and merewis, and demere of thouytis, and of intentis and hertis. 13 And no creature is vnvisibile in the syt of God. For alle thingis ben nakid and opyn to hise iyen, to whom a word to vs. 14 Therfor we that han a greet bischop, that perside heuenes, Jhesu, the sone of God, holde we the knowlechyng of oure hope. 15 For we han not a bischop, that may not haue compassioun on oure infirmytees, but was temptid bi alle thingis bi lycnesse, with oute synne. 16 Therfor go we with trist to the trone of his grace, that we gete merci, and fynde grace in couenable help.

5 For ech bischop takun of men, is ordeyned for men in these thingis `that ben to God, that he offre yiftis and sacrifices for synnes. 2 Which may togidere sorewe with hem, that beth vnkunynge and erren; for also he is enuyrouned with infirmyte. 3 And therfor he owith, as for the puple, so also for hym silf, to offre for synnes. 4 Nethir ony man taketh to hym onour, but he that is clepid of God, as Aaron was. 5 So Crist clarifiede not hym silf, that he were bischop, but he that spak to hym, Thou art my sone, to dai Y gendride thee. 6 As `in anothere place he seith, Thou art a prest with outen ende, aftir the ordre of Melchisedech. (aiōn g165) 7 Which in the daies of his fleisch offride, with greet cry and teeris, preieris and bisechingis to hym that myyte make hym saaf fro deth, and was herd for his reuerence. 8 And whanne he was Goddis sone, he lernyde obedience of these thingis that be suffride; 9 and he brouyt to the ende is maad cause of euerlastinge heelthe to alle that obeischen to hym, (aiōnios g166) 10 and is clepid of God a bischop, bi the ordre of Melchisedech. 11 Of whom ther is to vs a greet word for to seie, and able to be expowned, for ye ben maad feble to here. 12 For whanne ye ouyten to be maistris for tyme, eftsoone ye neden that ye be tauyt, whiche ben the lettris of the bigynnyng of Goddis wordis. And ye ben maad thilke, to whiche is nede of mylk, and not sad mete. 13 For ech that is parcenere of mylk, is with out part of the word of riytwisnesse, for he is a litil child. 14 But of perfit men is sad mete, of hem that for custom han wittis exercisid to discrecioun of good and of yuel.

6 Therfor we bringinge in a word of the bigynnyng of Crist, be we borun to the perfeccioun of hym, not eftsoone leggyng the foundement of penaunce fro deed werkis, and of the feith to God, 2 and of teching of baptimys, and of leiyng on of hondis, and of risyng ayen of deed men, and of the euerlastinge doom. (aiōnios g166) 3 And this thing we schulen do, if God schal suffre. 4 But it is impossible, that thei that ben onys liytred, and `han tastid also an heuenly yifte, and ben maad parceneris of the Hooli Goost, 5 and netheles han tastid the good word of God, and the vertues of the world to comyng, (aiōn g165) 6 and ben slidun fer awei, that thei be renewid eftsoone to penaunce. Whiche eftsones crucifien to hem silf the sone of God, and han to scorn. 7 For the erthe that drinkith reyn ofte comyng on it, and bringith forth couenable erbe to hem of whiche it is tilid, takith blessing of God. 8 But that that is bringinge forth thornes and breis, is repreuable, and next to curs, whos endyng schal be in to brennyng. 9 But, ye moost dereworthe, we tristen of you betere thingis, and neer to helthe, thouy we speken so. 10 For God is not vniust, that he foryete youre werk and loue, whiche ye han schewid in his name; for ye han mynystred to seyntis, and mynistren. 11 And we coueiten that ech of you schewe the same bisynesse to the fillyng of hope in to the ende; 12 that ye be not maad slowe, but also sueris of hem, whiche bi feith and pacience schulen enherite the biheestis. 13 For God bihetinge to Abraham, for he hadde noon grettere, bi whom he schulde swere, swoor bi hym silf, 14 and seide, Y blessinge schal blesse thee, and Y multipliynge schal multiplie thee; 15 and so he long abidinge hadde the biheeste. 16 For men sweren bi a grettere than hem silf, and the ende of al her ple is an ooth to confirmacioun. 17 In which thing God willynge to schewe plenteuouslier to the eiris of his biheest the sadnesse of his counsel, 18 puttide bitwixe an ooth, that bi twey thingis vnmeuable, bi whiche it is impossible that God lie, we han a strengeste solace, we that fleen togidere to holde the hope that is put forth to vs. 19 Which hope as an ankir we han sikir to the soule, and sad, and goynge in to the ynnere thingis of hiding; 20 where the bifore goere, Jhesus, that is maad bischop with outen ende bi the ordre of Melchisedech, entride for vs. (aiōn g165)

7 And this Melchisedech, king of Salem, and preest of the hiyeste God, which mette with Abraham, as he turnede ayen fro the sleynge of kyngis, and blesside hym; 2 to whom also Abraham departide tithis of alle thingis; first he is seid king of riytwisnesse, and aftirward kyng of Salem, that is to seie, king of pees, 3 with out fadir, with out modir, with out genologie, nether hauynge bigynnyng of daies, nether ende of lijf; and he is lickened to the sone of God, and dwellith preest with outhen ende. 4 But biholde ye how greet is this, to whom Abraham the patriark yaf tithis of the beste thingis. 5 For men of the sones of Leuy takinge presthod han maundement to take tithis of the puple, bi the lawe, that is to seie, of her britheren, thouy also thei wenten out of the leendis of Abraham. 6 But he whos generacioun is not noumbrid in hem, took tithis of Abraham; and he blesside this Abraham, which hadde repromysciouns. 7 With outhen any ayenseiying, that that is lesse, is blessid of the betere. 8 And heere deedli men taken tithis; but there he berith witnessyng, that he lyueth. 9 And that it be seid so, bi Abraham also Leuy, that took tithis, was tithid; and yit he was in his fadris leendis, 10 whanne Melchisedech mette with hym. 11 Therfor if perfeccioun was bi the preesthood of Leuy, for vndur hym the puple took the lawe, what yit was it nedeful, another preest to rise, bi the ordre of Melchisedech, and not to be seid bi the ordre of Aaron? 12 For whi whanne the presthod is translaticid, it is nede that also translacioun of the lawe be maad. 13 But he in whom these thingis ben seid, is of another lynage, of which no man was preest to the auter. 14 For it is opyn, that oure Lord is borun of Juda, in which lynage Moises spak no thing of preestis. 15 And more yit it is knowun, if bi the ordre of Melchisedech another preest is risun vp; 16 which is not maad bi the lawe of fleischli maundement, but bi vertu of lijf that may not be vndon. 17 For he witnessith, That thou art a preest with outhen ende, bi the ordre of Melchisedech; (aiōn g165) 18 that repreuyng of the maundement bifor goynge is maad, for the vnsadnesse and vnprofit of it. 19 For whi the lawe brouyt no thing to perfeccioun, but there is a bringing in of a betere hope, bi which we neiyen to

God. 20 And hou greet it is, not with out sweryng; but the othere ben maad preestis with outen an ooth; 21 but this preest with an ooth, bi hym that seide `to hym, The Lord swoor, and it schal not rewe hym, Thou art a preest with outen ende, bi the ordre of Melchisedech; (aiōn g165) 22 in so myche Jhesus is maad biheetere of the betere testament. 23 And the othere weren maad manye preestis, `therfor for thei weren forbedun bi deth to dwelle stille; 24 but this, for he dwellith with outen ende, hath an euerlastynge preesthod. (aiōn g165) 25 Wherfor also he may saue with outen ende, comynge nyy bi hym silf to God, and euermore lyueth to preye for vs. 26 For it bisemyde that sich a man were a bischop to vs, hooli, innocent, vndefoulid, clene, departid fro synful men, and maad hiyere than heuenes; 27 which hath not nede ech dai, as prestis, first for hise owne giltis to offre sacrifices, and afterward for the puple; for he dide this thing in offringe hym silf onys. 28 And the lawe ordeynede men prestis hauynge sijksesse; but the word of swering, which is after the lawe, ordeynede the sone perfit with outen ende. (aiōn g165)

8 But a capitle on tho thingis that ben seid. We han sicke a bischop, that sat in the riythalf of the seete of greetnesse in heuenes, 2 the mynystre of seyntis, and of the veri tabernacle, that God made, and not man. 3 For ech bischop is ordeyned to offre yiftis and sacrificis; wherfor it is nede, that also this bischop haue sum thing that he schal offre. 4 Therfor if he were on erthe, he were no preest, whanne ther weren that schulden offre yiftis bi the lawe, 5 whiche seruen to the saumpler and schadewe of heueneli thingis. As it was answerid to Moises, whanne he schulde ende the tabernacle, Se, he seide, make thou alle thingis bi the saumpler, that is schewid to thee in the mount. 6 But now he hath getun a betere mynysterie, bi so myche as he is a mediatour of a betere testament, which is confermyd with betere biheestis. 7 For if the ilke firste hadde lackid blame, the place of the secounde schulde not haue be souyt. 8 For he repreuyng hem seith, Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal make perfit a newe testament on the hous of Israel, and on the hous of Juda; 9 not lijk the testament that Y made to her fadris, `in the dai in which Y cauhte her hond, that Y schulde lede hem out of the loond of Egipt; for thei dwelliden not perfilti in my testament, and Y haue dispisid hem, seith the Lord. 10 But this is the testament, which Y schal dispose to the hous of Israel aftir tho daies, seith the Lord, in yyuyng my lawis in to the soulis of hem, and in to the hertis of hem I schal aboue write hem; and Y schal be to hem in to a God, and they schulen be to me in to a puple. 11 And ech man schal not teche his neiyebore, and ech man his brother, seiyng, Knowe thou the Lord; for alle men schulen knowe me, fro the lesse to the more of hem. 12 For Y schal be merciful to the wickidnesse of hem, and now Y schal not bithenke on the synnes of hem. 13 But in seiyng a newe, the formere wexide eeld; and that that is of many daies, and wexith eeld, is nyy the deeth.

9 And the former testament hadde iustefiyngis of worschip, and hooli thing duringe for a tyme. 2 For the tabernacle was maad first, in which weren candilstikis, and boord, and setting forth of looues, which is seid hooli. 3 And after the veil, the secounde tabernacle, that is seid sancta sanctorum, that is, hooli of hooli thingis; 4 hauyng a goldun cenrer, and the arke of the testament, keuered aboute on ech side with gold, in which was a pot of gold hauyng manna, and the yerde of Aaron that florischide, and the tablis of the testament; 5 on whiche thingis weren cherubyns of glorie, ouerschadewinge the propiciatorie; of whiche thingis it is not now to seie bi alle. 6 But whanne these weren maad thus togidere, preestis entriden eueremore in the formere tabernacle, doynge the offices of sacrifices; but in the secounde tabernacle, 7 the bischop entride onys in the yeer, not without blood, which he offride for his ignoraunce and the puplis. 8 For the Hooli Goost signefiede this thing, that not yit the weie of seyntis was openyd, while the formere tabernacle hadde staat. 9 Which parable is of this present tyme, bi which also yiftis and sacrifices ben offrid, whiche moun not make a man seruyng perfit bi conscience, oneli in metis, 10 and drynkis, and dyuerse waischingis, and riytwisnessis of fleisch, that weren sett to the tyme of correccioun. 11 But Crist beyng a bischop of goodis to comynge, entride bi a largere and perfitere tabernacle, not maad bi hoond, that is to seye, 12 not of this makynge, nether bi blood of goot buckis, or of calues, but bi his owne blood, entride onys in to the hooli thingis, that weren foundun bi an euerlastinge redempcioun. (aiōnios g166) 13 For if the blood of gootbuckis, and of boolis, and the aische of a cow calf spreynd, halewith vnclene men to the clensing of fleisch, 14 hou myche more the blood of Crist, which bi the Hooli Goost offride hym silf vnwemmyd to God, schal clense oure conscience fro deed werkis, to serue God that lyueth? (aiōnios g166) 15 And therfor he is a mediatour of the newe testament, that bi deth fallinge bitwixe, in to redempcioun of tho trespassyngis that weren vndur the formere testament, thei that ben clepid take the biheest of euerlastinge eritage. (aiōnios g166) 16 For where a testament is, it is nede, that the deth of the testament makere come bitwixe. 17

For a testament is confermed in deed men; ellis it is not worthe, while he lyueth, that made the testament. 18 Wherfor nether the firste testament was halewid without blood. 19 For whanne ech maundement of the lawe was red of Moises to al the puple, he took the blood of calves, and of buckis of geet, with watir, and reed wolfe, and ysope, and bispreynde bothe thilke book and al the puple, 20 and seide, This is the blood of the testament, that God comaundide to you. 21 Also he spreynde with blood the tabernacle, and alle the vessels of the seruyce in lijk maner. 22 And almost alle thingis ben clensid in blood bi the lawe; and without scheduling of blood remyssion of synnes is not maad. 23 Therfor it is nede, that the saumpleris of heuenli thingis be clensid with these thingis; but thilke heuenli thingis with betere sacrificis than these. 24 For Jhesus entride not in to hooli thingis maad bi hoondis, that ben saumpleris of very thingis, but in to heuene it silf, that he appere now to the cheer of God for vs; 25 nether that he offere him silf ofte, as the bischop entride in to hooli thingis bi alle yeeris in alien blood, 26 ellis it bihofte hym to suffre ofte fro the bigynnyng of the world; but now onys in the ending of worldis, to destruccion of synne bi his sacrifice he apperide. (aiōn g165) 27 And as it is ordeynede to men, onys to die, but aftir this is the dom, 28 so Crist was offrid onys, to auoyde the synnes of many men; the secounde tyme he schal appere with outen synne to men that abiden him in to heelthe.

10 For the lawe hauinge a schadewe of good thingis `that ben to come, not the ilke image of thingis, mai neuer make men neiyng perfit bi the ilke same sacrifices, which thei offren without ceessing bi alle yeeris; 2 ellis thei schulden haue ceessid to be offrid, for as myche as the worschiperis clensid onys, hadden not ferthermore conscience of synne. 3 But in hem mynde of synnes is maad bi alle yeris. 4 For it is impossible that synnes be doon awei bi blood of boolis, and of buckis of geet.

5 Therfor he entrynge in to the world, seith, Thou woldist not sacrifice and offryng; but thou hast schapun a bodi to me; 6 brent sacrificis also for synne plesiden not to thee. 7 Thanne Y seide, Lo! Y come; in the bigynnyng of the book it is writun of me, that Y do thi wille, God. 8 He seiynge bifor, That thou woldist not sacrificis, and offringis, and brent sacrifices for synne, ne tho thingis ben plesaunt to thee, whiche ben offrid bi the lawe, 9 thanne Y seide, Lo! Y come, that Y do thi wille, God. He doith awei the firste, that he make stidfast the secounde. 10 In which wille we ben halewid bi the offring of the bodi of Crist Jhesu onys. 11 And ech prest is redi mynstryng ech dai, and ofte tymes offringe the same sacrifices, whiche moun neuere do awei synnes. 12 But this man offringe o sacrifice for synnes, for euere more sittith in the riythalf of God the fadir; 13 fro thennus forth abidinge, til hise enemyes ben put a stool of hise feet. 14 For bi oon offring he made perfit for euere halewid men. 15 And the Hooli Goost witnessith to vs; for aftir that he seide, This is the testament, 16 which Y schal witnesse to hem after tho daies, the Lord seith, in yyuynge my lawes in the hertis of hem, and in the soulis of hem Y schal aboue write hem; 17 and now Y schal no more thenke on the synnes and the wickidnessis of hem. 18 And where remyssioun of these is, now is ther noon offring for synne.
19 Therfor, britheren, hauynge trist in to the entring of hooli thingis in the blood of Crist, 20 which halewide to vs a newe weie, and lyuynge bi the hiling, that is to seie, 21 his fleisch, and we hauynge the greet preest on the hous of God, 22 neie we with very herte in the plente of feith; and be oure hertis spreined fro an yuel conscience, and oure bodies waischun with clene watir, 23 and holde we the confessioun of oure hope, bowinge to no side; for he is trewe that hath made the biheeste. 24 And biholde we togidere in the stiring of charite and of good werkis; not forsakinge oure gadering togidere, 25 as it is of custom to sum men, but coumfortinge, and bi so myche the more, bi hou myche ye seen the dai neiyynge. 26 Forwhi now a sacrifice for synnes is not left to vs, that synnen wilfuli, aftir that we han take the knowyng of treuthe. 27 Forwhi sum abiding of the dom is dreedful, and the suyng of fier, which schal waste aduersaries.

28 Who that brekith Moises lawe, dieth withouten ony merci, bi tweine or thre witnessis; 29 hou myche more gessen ye, that he disserueth worse turmentis, which defouleth the sone of God, and holdith the blood of the testament pollut, in which he is halewid, and doith dispit to the spirit of grace? 30 For we knowen him that seide, To me veniaunce, and Y schal yelde.
 And eft, For the Lord schal deme his puple. 31 It is ferdful to falle in to the hondis of God lyuyng. 32 And haue ye mynde on the formere daies, in which ye weren liytnd, and suffriden greet strijf of passiouns. 33 And in the `tothir ye weren maad a spectacle bi schenschipis and tribulaciouns; in an othir ye weren maad felowis of men lyuyng so. 34 For also to boundun men ye hadden compassioun, and ye resseyueden with ioye the robbyng of youre goodis, knowinge that ye han a betere and a dwellinge substaunce. 35 Therfor nyle ye leese youre trist, which hath greet rewarding. 36 For pacience is nedeful to you, that ye do the wille of God, and bringe ayen the biheest. 37 For yit a lital, and he that is to comynge schal come, and he schal not tarie.

38 For my iust man lyueth of feith; that if he withdrawith hym silf, he schal not plese to my soule. 39 But we ben not the sones of withdrawing awei in to perdicoun, but of feith in to getynge of soule.

11 But feith is the substaunce of thingis that ben to be hopid, and an argument of thingis not apperynge. 2 And in this feith elde men han gete witnessyng. 3 Bi feith we vndurstonden that the worldis weren maad bi Goddis word, that visible thingis weren maad of vnuysible thingis. (aiōn g165) 4 Bi feith Abel offrde a myche more sacrifice than Caym to God, bi which he gat witnessyng to be iust, for God bar witnessyng to hise yiftis; and bi that feith he deed spekith yit. 5 Bi feith Ennok was translatid, that he schulde not se deth; and he was not foundun, for the Lord translatide him. For bfore translacioun he hadde witnessing that he pleside God. 6 And it is impossible to plese God without feith. For it bihoueth that a man comynge to God, bileue that he is, and that he is rewardere to men that seken hym. 7 Bi feith Noe dredde, thorouy answeere takun of these thingis that yit weren not seyn, and schapide a schip in to the helthe of his hous; bi which he dampnede the world, and is ordeyned eir of riytwisnesse, which is bi feith. 8 By feith he that is clepid Abraham, obeiede to go out in to a place, whiche he schulde take in to eritage; and he wente out, not witinge whidur he schulde go. 9 Bi feith he dwelte in the loond of biheest, as in an alien loond, dwellynge in litle housis with Ysaac and Jacob, euene heiris of the same biheest. 10 For he abood a citee hauynge foundementis, whos crafti man and maker is God. 11 Bi feith also the ilke Sara bareyn, took vertu in consceyuyng of seed, yhe, ayen the tyme of age; for sche bileuede hym trewe, that hadde bihiyte. 12 For which thing of oon, and yit nyy deed, ther ben borun as steris of heuene in multitude, and as grauel that is at the see side out of noumbre.

13 Bi feith alle these ben deed, whanne the biheestis weren not takun, but thei bihelden hem afer, and gretynge hem wel, and knoulechide that thei weren pilgryms, and herboryd men on the erthe. 14 And thei that sayn these thingis, signifiien that thei sechen a cuntre. 15 If thei hadden hadde mynde of the ilke, of which thei wenten out, thei hadden tyme of turnyng ayen; 16 but now thei desiren a betere, that is to seie, heuenli. Therfor God is not confoundid to be clepid the God of hem; for he made redi to hem a citee. 17 Bi feith Abraham offride Ysaac, whanne he was temptid; and he offride the oon bigetun, whych had takun the biheestis; 18 to whom it was seid, For in Ysaac the seed schal be clepid to thee. 19 For he demyde, that God is myyti to reise hym, yhe, fro deth; wherfor he took hym also in to a parable. 20 Bi feith also of thingis to comynge, Ysaac blesside Jacob and Esau. 21 Bi feith Jacob diyng blesside alle the sones of Joseph, and onouride the hiynesse of his yerde. 22 Bi feith Joseph dyng hadde mynde of the passyng forth of the children of Israel, and comaundide of hise boonys. 23 Bi feith Moyses borun, was hid thre monethis of his fadir and modir, for that thei seiien the yonge child fair; and thei dredden not the maundement of the king. 24 Bi feith Moises was maad greet, and denyede that he was the sone of Faraos douytir, 25 and chees more to be turmentid with the puple of God, than to haue myrthe of temporal synne; 26 demynge the reproof of Crist more richessis than the tresours of Egipcians; for he bihelde in to the rewarding. 27 Bi feith he forsook Egipt, and dredde not the hardynesse of the king; for he abood, as seinge hym that was vnuysible. 28 Bi feith he halewide pask, and the scheduling out of blood, that he that distriede the firste thingis of Egipcians, schulde not touche hem. 29 Bi feith thei passiden the reed see, as bi drye lond, which thing Egipcians asaiynge weren deuourid. 30 Bi feith the wallis of Jerico felden down, bi cumpassyng of seuene daies. 31 Bi feith Raab hoor resseyuede the aspieris with pees, and perischide not with vnbileueful men.

32 And what yit schal Y seie? For tyme schal faile to me tellynge of Gedeon, Barak, Sampson, Jepte, Daud, and Samuel, and of othere prophetis; 33 whiche bi feith ouercamen rewmes, wrouyten riytwisnesse, gaten repromysciouns; thei stoppiden the mouthis of liouns, 34 thei quenchiden the feersnesse of fier, thei dryueden awei the egge of swerd, thei coueriden of sijknesse, thei weren maad strong in batel, thei turneden the oostis of aliens. 35 Wymmen resseyueden her deed children fro deth to lijf; but othere weren holdun forth, not takinge redempcioun, that thei schulden fynde a betere ayenrising. 36 And othere asaieden scornynge and betingis, more ouer and boondis and prisouns.
37 Thei weren stoned, thei weren sawid, thei weren temptid, thei weren deed in sleyng of swerd. Thei wenten aboute in broc skynnes, and in skynnes of geet, nedi, angwischid, turmentid; 38 to whiche the world was not worthi. Thei erriden in wildernessis, in mounteynes and dennes, and caues of the erthe. 39 And alle these, preued bi witnessing of feith, token not repromyscioun; 40 for God purueiede sum betere thing for vs, that thei schulden not be maad perfit with outen vs.

12 Therfor we that han so greet a cloude of witnessis put to, do we awei al charge, and synne stondinge aboute vs, and bi paciencie renne we to the batel purposid to vs, 2 biholdinge in to the makere of feith, and the perfit endere, Jhesu; which whanne ioye was purposid to hym, he suffride the cros, and dispiside confusioun, and sittith on the riythalf of the seet of God. 3 And bithenke ye on hym that suffride siche `ayen seiynge of synful men ayens hym silf, that ye be not maad wery, failinge in youre soulis. 4 For ye ayenstoden not yit `til to blood, fiytyng ayens synne. 5 And ye han foryet the coumfort that spekith to you as to sones, and seith, My sone, nyle thou dispise the teching of the Lord, nether be thou maad weri, the while thou art chastisid of hym. 6 For the Lord chastisith hym that he loueth; he betith euery sone that he resseyueth. 7 Abide ye stille in chastising; God proferith hym to you as to sones. For what sone is it, whom the fadir chastisith not? 8 That if ye `ben out of chastising, whos parteneris ben ye alle maad, thanne ye ben auowtreris, and not sones. 9 And aftirward we hadden fadris of oure fleisch, techeris, and we with reuerence dredden hem. Whethir not myche more we schulen obeische to the fadir of spiritis, and we schulen lyue? 10 And thei in tyme of fewe dayes tauyten vs bi her wille; but this fadir techith to that thing that is profitable, in resseyuyng the halewing of hym. 11 And ech chastisyng in present tyme semeth to be not of ioye, but of sorewe; but aftirward it schal yelde fruyt of riytwisnesse moost pesible to men exercisid bi it. 12 For whiche thing reise ye slowe hondis, 13 and knees vnboundun, and make ye riytful steppis to youre feet; that no man haltinge erre, but more be heelid. 14 Sue ye pees with alle men, and holynesse, with out which no man schal se God. 15 Biholde ye, that no man faile to the grace of God, that no roote of bittirnesse buriownynge vpward lette, and manye ben defoulid bi it; 16 that no man be letchour, ether vnhooli, as Esau, which for o mete seelde hise firste thingis. 17 For wite ye, that afterward he coueitinge to enherite blessing, was reprieved. For he foond not place of penaunce, thouy he souyte it with teeris. 18 But ye han not come to the fier able to be touchid, and able to come to, and to the whirlewynd, and myst, and tempest, and soun of trumpe, and vois of wordis; 19 which thei that herden, excusiden hem, that the word schulde not be maad to hem. 20 For thei beren not that that was seid, And if a beeste touchide the hil, it was stonyd. 21 And so dredeful it was that was seyn, that Moises seide, Y am a ferd, and ful of trembling. 22 But ye han come nyy to the hil Sion, and to the cite of God lyuynge, the heuenli Jerusalem, and to the multitude of many thousynde aungels, 23 and to the chirche of the firste men, whiche ben writun in heuenes, and to God, domesman of alle, and to the spirit of iust perfit men, 24 and to Jhesu, mediatour of the newe testament, and to the sprenging of blood, `betere spekinge than Abel. 25 Se ye, that ye forsake not the spekere; for if thei that forsaken him that spak on the erthe, aschapide not, myche more we that turnen awei fro him that spekith to vs fro heuenes. 26 Whos vois than mouyde the erthe, but now he ayen bihetith, and seith, Yit onys and Y schal moue not oneli erthe, but also heuene. 27 And that he seith, Yit onys, he declarith the translacioun of mouable thingis, as of maad thingis, that tho thingis dwelle, that ben vnmouable. 28 Therfor we resseyuyng the kingdom vnmouable, haue we grace, bi which serue we plesynge to God with drede and reuerence. 29 For oure God is fier that wastith.

13 The charite of britherhod dwelle in you, and nyle ye foryete hospitalite; 2 for bi this summen plesiden to aungels, that weren resseyued to herborewe. 3 Thenke ye on boundun men, as ye weren togidere boundun, and of traueling men, as ye silf dwellinge in the body. 4 `Wedding is in alle thingis onourable, and bed vnwemmed; for God schal deme fornicatouris and auouteris. 5 Be youre maneres withoute coueitise, apaied with present thingis; for he seide, Y schal not leeue thee, 6 nether forsake, so that we seie tristily, The Lord is an helpere to me; Y schal not drede, what a man schal do to me. 7 Haue ye mynde of youre souereyns, that han spokun to you the word of God; of whiche `biholde ye the goyng out of Iyuyng, and sue ye the feith of hem, 8 Jhesu Crist, yistirdai, and to dai, he is also into worldis. (aiōn g165) 9 Nyle ye be led awei with dyuerse `techingis, and straunge. For it is best to stable the herte with grace, not with metis, whiche profitiden not to men wandringe in hem. 10 We han an auter, of which thei that seruen to the tabernacle, han not power to ete. 11 For of whiche beestis the blood is borun in for synne in to hooli thingis bi the bischop, the bodies of hem ben brent with out the castels. 12 For which thing Jhesu, that he schulde halewe the puple bi his blood, suffride with out the gate. 13 Therfor go we out to hym with out the castels, berynge his reproof. 14 For we han not here a citee dwellynge, but we seken a citee to comyng. 15 Therfor bi hym offre we a sacrifice of heri yng euere more to God, that is to seye, the fruyt of lippis knouelinge to his name. 16 And nyle ye foryete wel doynge, and comynyng; for bi sicke sacrifices God is disserued.

 17 Obeie ye to youre souereyns, and be ye suget to hem; for thei perfitli waken, as to yeldinge resoun for youre soulis, that thei do this thing with ioie, and not sorewinge; for this thing spedith not to you. 18 Preie ye for vs, and we tristen that we han good conscience in alle thingis, willynge to lyue wel. 19 More ouer Y biseche you to do, that Y be restorid the sunnere to you. 20 And God of pees, that ladde out fro deth the greet scheepherd of scheep, in the blood of euerlastinge testament, oure Lord Jhesu Crist, (aiōnios g166) 21 schape you in al good thing, that ye do the wille of hym; and he do in you that thing that schal plese bifer hym, bi Jhesu Crist, to whom be glorie in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165) 22 And, britheren, Y preie you, that ye suffre a word of solace; for bi ful fewe thingis Y haue writun to you. 23 Knowe ye oure brother Tymothe, that is sent forth, with whom if he schal come more hastili, Y schal se you. 24 Grete ye wel alle youre souereyns, and alle hooli men. The britheren of Italie greten you wel. 25 The grace of God be with you alle. Amen.

James

1 James, the seruaunt of God, and of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, to the twelue kinredis, that ben in scatering abroad, helthe. 2 My britheren, deme ye al ioye, whanne ye fallen in to diuerse temptaciouns, witynge, 3 that the preuyng of youre feith worchith pacience; 4 and pacience hath a perfit werk, that ye be perfit and hole, and faile in no thing. 5 And if ony of you nedith wisdom, axe he of God, which yyueth to alle men largeli, and vpbreidith not; and it schal be youun to hym. 6 But axe he in feith, and doute no thing; for he that doutith, is lijk to a wawe of the see, which is moued and borun a boutte of wynde. 7 Therfor gesse not the ilke man, that he schal take ony thing of the Lord. 8 A man dowble in soule is vnstable in alle hise weies. 9 And a meke brother haue glorie in his enhaunsyng, 10 and a riche man in his lownesse; for as the flour of gras he schal passe. 11 The sunne roos vp with heete, and driede the gras, and the flour of it felde doun, and the fairnesse of his chere perischide; and so a riche man welewith in hise weies. 12 Blessid is the man, that suffrith temptacioun; for whanne he schal be preued, he schal resseyue the coroun of lijf, which God biheyte to men that louen hym. 13 No man whanne he is temptid, seie, that he is temptid of God; for whi God is not a temptere of yuele thingis, for he temptith no man. 14 But ech man is temptid, drawun and stirid of his owne coueiting. 15 Aftirward coueityng, whanne it hath conseyued, bringith forth synne; but synne, whanne it is fillid, gendrith deth. 16 Therfor, my most dereworthe britheren, nyle ye erre. 17 Ech good yifte, and ech perfit yifte is from aboue, and cometh doun fro the fadir of liytis, anentis whom is noon other chaungyng, ne ouerschadewyng of reward. 18 For wilfulli he bigat vs bi the word of treuthe, that we be a bigynnyng of his creature. 19 Wite ye, my britheren moost loued, be ech man swift to here, but slow to speke, and slow to wraththe; 20 for the wraththe of man worchith not the riytwisnesse of God. 21 For which thing caste ye awei al vnclennesse, and plentee of malice, and in myldenesse resseyue ye the word that is plauntid, that may saue youre soulis. 22 But be ye doeris of the word, and not hereris oneli, disseiuynge you silf. 23 For if ony man is an herere of the word, and not a doere, this schal be ligned to a man that biholdith the cheer of his birthe in a mirour; 24 for he bihelde hym silf, and wente awei, and anon he foryat which he was. 25 But he that biholdith in the lawe of perfit fredom, and dwellith in it, and is not maad a foryetful herere, but a doere of werk, this schal be blessid in his dede. 26 And if ony man gessith hym silf to be religiouse, and refreyneth not his tunge, but disseyueth his herte, the religioun of him is veyn. 27 A clene religioun, and an vnwemmed anentis God and the fadir, is this, to visite fadirles and modirles children, and widewis in her tribulacioun, and to kepe hym silf vndefoulid fro this world.

2 Mi britheren, nyle ye haue the feith of oure Lord Jhesu Crist of glorie, in accepcioun of persoones. 2 For if a man that hath a goldun ring, and in a feire clothing, cometh in youre cumpany, and a pore man entrith in a foul clothing, 3 and if ye biholden in to hym that is clothid with clere clothing, and if ye seie to hym, Sitte thou here wel; but to the pore man ye seien, Stonde thou there, ethir sitte vndur the stool of my feet; whether ye demen not anentis you silf, 4 and ben maad domesmen of wickid thouytis? 5 Heere ye, my moost dereworthe britheren, whethir God chees not pore men in this world, riche in feith, and eiris of the kyngdom, that God bihiyte to men that louen him? 6 But ye han dispisid the pore man. Whether riche men oppressen not you bi power, and thei drawen you to domes? 7 Whether thei blasfemen not the good name, that is clepid to help on you?

8 Netheles if ye performen the kingis lawe, bi scripturis, Thou schalt loue thi neiybour as thi silf, ye don wel. 9 But if ye taken persones, ye wochen synne, and ben repreued of the lawe, as trespasseris. 10 And who euere kepith al the lawe, but offendith in oon, he is maad gilty of alle. 11 For he that seide, Thou schalt do no letcherie, seide also, Thou schalt not sle; that if thou doist not letcherie, but thou sleest, thou art maad trespassour of the lawe. 12 Thus speke ye, and thus do ye, as bigynnynge to be demyd bi the lawe of fredom. 13 For whi dom with out merci is to hym, that doith no mercy; but merci aboue reisith dom. 14 Mi britheren, what schal it profite, if ony man seie that he hath feith, but he hath not the werkis? whether feith schal mowe saue hym?
15 And if a brother ethir sister be nakid, and han nede of ech daies lyuelode, 16 and if ony of you seie to hem, Go ye in pees, be ye maad hoot, and be ye fillid; but if ye yyuen not to hem tho thingis that ben necessarie to bodi, what schal it profite? 17 So also feith, if it hath not werkis, is deed in it silf. 18 But summan schal seie, Thou hast feith, and Y haue werkis; schewe thou to me thi feith with out werkis, and Y schal schewe to thee my feith of werkis. 19 Thou bileuest, that o God is; thou doist wel; and deuelis bileuen, and tremblen. 20 But wolt thou wite, thou veyn man, that feith with out werkis is idul? 21 Whether Abraham, oure fadir, was not iustified of werkis, offringe Ysaac, his sone, on the auter? 22 Therfor thou seest, that feith wrouyte with hise werkis, and his feith was fillid of werkis. 23 And the scripture was fillid, seiyng, Abraham bileuede to God, and it was arettid to hym to riytwisnesse, and he was clepid the freend of God. 24 Ye seen that a man is iustified of werkis, and not of feith oneli. 25 In lijk maner, and whether also Raab, the hoore, was not iustified of werkis, and resseyuede the messengeris, and sente hem out bi anothir weie? 26 For as the bodi with out spirit is deed, so also feith with out werkis is deed.

3 Mi britheren, nyle ye be maad many maistris, witynge that ye taken the more doom. 2 For alle we offenden in many thingis. If ony man offendith not in word, this is a perfit man; for also he may lede aboute al the bodi with a bridil. 3 For if we putten bridlis `in to horsis mouthis, for to consente to vs, and we leden aboute al the bodi of hem. 4 And lo! schippis, whanne thei ben grete, and ben dryuun of stronge wyndis, yit thei ben borun about of a litil gouernaile, where the meuyng of the gouernour wole. 5 So also the tunge is but a litil membre, and reisith grete thingis. Lo! hou litil fier brenneth a ful greet wode. 6 And oure tunge is fier, the vniuersite of wickidnesse. The tunge is ordeyned in oure membris, which defoulith al the bodi; and it is enflawmed of helle, and enflawmeth the wheel of oure birthe. (Geenna g1067) 7 And al the kynde of beestis, and of foulis, and of serpentis, and of othere is chastisid, and tho ben maad tame of mannus kinde; but no man mai chastise the tunge, 8 for it is an vnpesible yuel, and ful of deedli venym. 9 In it we blessen God, the fadir, and in it we cursen men, that ben maad to the licnesse of God. 10 Of the same mouth passith forth blessing and cursing. My britheren, it bihoueth not that these thingis be don so. 11 Whether a welle of the same hoole bringith forth swete and salt watir? 12 My britheren, whether a fige tre may make grapis, ethir a vyne figus? So nethir salt watir mai make swete watir. 13 Who is wijs, and tauyt among you? schewe he of good lyuyng his worching, in myldenesse of his wisdom. 14 That if ye han bitter enuye, and stryuyngis ben in youre hertis, nyle ye haue glorie, and be lyeris ayens the treuthe. 15 For this wisdom is not fro aboue comynge doun, but ertheli, and beestli, and feendli. 16 For where is enuye and strijf, there is vnstidfastnesse and al schrewid werk. 17 But wisdom that is from aboue, first it is chaste, aftirward pesible, mylde, able to be counseilid, consentinge to goode thingis, ful of merci and of goode fruytis, demynge with out feynyng. 18 And the fruyt of riytwisnesse is sowun in pees, to men that maken pees.

4 Wherof ben batelis and cheestis among you? Whether not of youre coueitisis, that fytten in youre membris? 2 Ye coueiten, and ye han not; ye sleen, and ye han enuye, and ye moun not gete. Ye chiden, and maken batel; and ye han not, for ye axen not. 3 Ye axen, and ye resseyuen not; for that ye axen yuele, as ye schewen opynli in youre coueitisis. 4 Auowtreris, witen not ye, that the frendship of this world is enemye to God? Therfor who euere wole be frend of this world, is maad the enemye of God. 5 Whether ye gessen, that the scripture seith veynli, The spirit that dwellith in you, coueitith to enuye? 6 But he yyueth the more grace; for which thing he seith, God withstondith proude men, but to meke men he yyueth grace. 7 Therfor be ye suget to God; but withstonde ye the deuel, and he schal fle fro you. 8 Neiye ye to God, and he schal neiye to you. Ye synneris, clense ye hondis, and ye double in soule, purge ye the hertis. 9 Be ye wretchis, and weile ye; youre leiyyng be turned in to weping, and ioye in to sorewe of herte. 10 Be ye mekid in the siyt of the Lord, and he schal enhaunse you. 11 My britheren, nyle ye bacbite ech othere. He that bacbitith his brothir, ethir that demeth his brothir, bacbitith the lawe, and demeth the lawe. And if thou demest the lawe, thou art not a doere of the lawe, but a domesman. 12 But oon is makere of the lawe, and iuge, that may lese, and delyuere. 13 And who art thou, that demest thi neiybore? Lo! now ye, that seien, To dai ethir to morewe we schulen go in to thilke citee, and there we schulen dwelle a yeer, and we schulen make marchaundise, and we schulen make wyning; 14 whiche witen not, what is to you in the morewe. 15 For what is youre lijf? A smoke apperinge at a litil, and aftirward it schal be wastid. Therfor that ye seie, If the Lord wole, and if we liuen, we schulen do this thing, ether that thing. 16 And now ye maken ful out ioye in youre pridis; euery siche ioye is wickyd. 17 Therfor it is synne to hym, that kan do good, and doith not.

5 Do now, ye riche men, wepe ye, yellinge in youre wretchidnessis that schulen come to you. 2 Youre richessis ben rotun, and youre clothis ben etun of mouytis. 3 Youre gold and siluer hath rustid, and the rust of hem schal be to you in to witnessyng, and schal ete youre fleischis, as fier. Ye han tresourid to you wraththe in the last daies. 4 Lo! the hire of youre werke men, that repiden youre feeldis, which is fraudid of you, crieth; and the cry of hem hath entrid in to the eeris of the Lord of oostis. 5 Ye han ete on the erthe, and in youre letcheries ye han nurschid youre hertis. In the dai of sleyng ye brouyten, 6 and slown the iust man, and he ayenstood not you. 7 Therfor, britheren, be ye pacient, til to the comyng of the Lord. Lo! an erthetilier abidith preciouise fruyt of the erthe, patiently suffrynge, til he resseyue `tymeful and lateful fruyt. 8 And be ye pacient, and conferme ye youre hertis, for the comyng of the Lord schal neiy. 9 Britheren, nyle ye be sorewful ech to other, that ye be not demed. Lo! the iuge stondith niy bifer the yate. 10 Britheren, take ye ensauple of yuel goyng out, and of long abidyng, and trauel, and of pacience, the prophetis, that speken to you in the name of the Lord. 11 Lo! we blessen hem that suffriden. Ye herden the `suffring, ethir pacience, of Joob, and ye sayn the ende of the Lord, for the Lord is merciful, and doynge merci. 12 Bifer alle thingis, my britheren, nyle ye swere, nether bi heuene, nether bi erthe, nethir bi what euere other ooth. But be youre word Yhe, yhe, Nay, nay, that ye fallen not vndir doom. 13 And if ony of you is sorewful, preye he with pacient soule, and seie he a salm. 14 If ony of you is sijk, lede he in preestis of the chirche, and preie thei for hym, and anoynte with oile in the name of the Lord; 15 and the preier of feith schal saue the sijk man, and the Lord schal make hym liyt; and if he be in synnes, thei schulen be foryouun to hym. 16 Therfor knouleche ye ech to othere youre synnes, and preye ye ech for othere, that ye be sauys. For the contynuel preyer of a iust man is myche worth. 17 Elye was a deedli man lijk vs, and in preier he preiede, that it schulde not reyne on the erthe, and it reynede not thre yeeris and sixe monethis. 18 And eftsoone he preiede, and heuene yaf reyn, and the erthe yaf his fruyt. 19 And, britheren, if ony of you errith fro trewth, and ony conuertith hym, 20 he owith to wite, that he that makith a synner to be turned fro the errour of his weye, schal saue the soule of hym fro deth, and keuereth the multitude of synnes.

1 Peter

1 Petre, apostle of Jhesu Crist, to the chosun men, to the comelingis of scaterying abroad, of Ponte, of Galathie, of Capadosie, 2 of Asye, and of Bitynye, bi the `bifor knowyng of God, the fadir, in halewyng of spirit, bi obedience, and springyng of the blood of Jhesu Crist, grace and pees be multiplied to you. 3 Blessid be God, and the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, which bi his greet merci bigat vs ayen in to lyuyng hope, bi the ayen risyng of Jhesu Crist fro deth, 4 in to eritage vncorruptible, and vndefoulid, and that schal not fade, that is kept in heuenes for you, 5 that in the vertu of God ben kept bi the feith in to heelthe, and is redi to be schewid in the last tyme. 6 In which ye schulen make ioie, thouy it bihoueth now a litil to be sori in dyuerse temptaciouns; 7 that the preuyng of youre feith be myche more preciose than gold, that is preuyd bi fier; and be foundun in to heriyng, and glorie, and onour, in the reuelacioun of Jhesu Crist. 8 Whom whanne ye han not seyn, ye louen; in to whom also now ye not seyng, bileuen; but ye that bileuen schulen haue ioie, and gladnesse that may not be teld out, 9 and ye schulen be glorified, and haue the ende of youre feith, the helthe of youre soulis. 10 Of which helthe profetis souyten, and enserchiden, that profecieden of the grace to comyng in you, 11 and souyten which euer what maner tyme the spirit of Crist signyfiede in hem, and bifor telde tho passiouns, that ben in Crist, and the latere glories. 12 To which it was schewid, for not to hem silf, but to you thei mynystren tho thingis, that now ben teld to you bi hem that prechiden to you bi the Hooli Goost sent fro heuene, in to whom aungelis desiren to biholde. 13 For which thing be ye gird the leendis of youre soule, sobre, perfit, and hope ye in to the ilke grace that is profrid to you bi the schewyng of Jhesu Crist, 14 as sones of obedience, not made lijk to the formere desiris of youre vnkunnyngnesse, 15 but lijk him that hath `clepid you hooli; that also `ye silf be hooli in `al lyuyng; 16 for it is writun, Ye schulen be hooli, for Y am hooli. 17 And if ye inwardli clepe him fadir, which demeth withouten accepcioun of persoones bi the werk of ech man, lyue ye in drede in the time of youre pilgrimage; witynge that not bi corruptible gold, 18 ethir siluer, ye ben bouyt ayen of youre veyn liuyng of fadris tradicioun, 19 but bi the precious blood as of the lomb vndefoulid and vnspottid, 20 Crist Jhesu, that was knowun bifor the makyng of the world, but he is schewid in the laste tymes, 21 for you that bi hym ben feithful in God; that reside hym fro deth, and yaf to hym euerlastyng glorie, that youre feith and hope were in God. 22 And make ye chast youre soulis in obedience of charite, in loue of britherhod; of simple herte loue ye togidre more bisili. 23 And be ye borun ayen, not of corruptible seed, `but vncorruptible, bi the word of lyuyng God, and dwellynge in to with outen ende.

(aiōn g165) 24 For ech fleisch is hey, and al the glorie of it is as flour of hey; the hei driede vp, and his flour felde down; 25 but the word of the Lord dwellith with outen ende. And this is the word, that is prechid to you. (aiōn g165)

2 Therfor putte ye awei al malice, and al gile, and feynyngis, and enuyes, and alle bacbityngis; 2 as now borun yonge children, resonable, with out gile, coueite ye mylk, that in it ye wexe in to helthe; if netheles ye han tastid, 3 that the Lord is swete. 4 And neiye ye to hym, that is a lyuyng stoon, and repreuyd of men, but chosun of God, and onourid; 5 and ye silf as quyk stoonys be ye aboue bildid in to spiritual housis, and an hooli preesthod, to offere spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God bi Jhesu Crist. 6 For which thing the scripture seith, Lo! Y schal sette in Syon the hiyeste corner stoon, chosun and preciouise; and he that schal belieue in hym, schal not be confoundid. 7 Therfor onour to you that bileuen; but to men that bileuen not, the stoon whom the bilderis repreuyden, this is maad in to the heed of the corner; and the stoon of hirtyng, 8 and stoon of sclaundre, to hem that offenden to the word, nethir bileuen it, in which thei ben set. 9 But ye ben a chosun kyn, a kyngli preesthod, hooli folc, a puple of purchasing, that ye telle the vertues of hym, that clepide you fro derknessis in to his wondirful liyt. 10 Which sum tyme were not a puple of God, but now ye ben the puple of God; which hadden not merci, but now ye han merci. 11 Moost dere, Y biseche you, as comelyngis and pilgrymys, to absteine you fro fleischli desiris, that fytten ayens the soule; 12 and haue ye youre conuersacioun good among hethene men, that in that thing that thei bacbite of you, as of mysdoeris, thei biholden you of good werkis, and glorifie God in the dai of visitacioun. 13 Be ye suget to ech creature, for God; ethir to the kyng, as to hym that is hiyer in state, 14 ethir to duykis, as to thilke that ben sent of hym to the veniaunce of mysdoers, and to the preisyng of good men. 15 For so is the wille of God, that ye do wel, and make the vnkunnyngnesse of vnprudent men to be doumb. 16 As fre men, and not as hauynge fredom the keuering of malice, but as the seruauntis of God. 17 Onoure ye alle men, loue ye brithirhod, drede ye God, onoure ye the king. 18 Seruauntis, be ye sugetis in al drede to lordis, not oneli to good and to mylde, but also to tyrauntis. 19 For this is grace, if for conscience of God ony man suffrith heuynessis, and suffrith vniustli. 20 For what grace is it, if ye synnen, and ben buffatid, and suffren? But if ye don wel, and suffren pacientli, this is grace anentis God. 21 For to this thing ye ben clepid. For also Crist suffride for vs, and lefte ensauple to you, that ye folewe the steppis of hym. 22 Which dide not synne, nethir gile was foundun in his mouth. 23 And whanne he was cursid, he curside not; whanne he suffride, he manasside not; but he bitook hym silf to hym, that demyde hym vniustli. 24 And he hym silf bar oure synnes in his bodi on a tre, that we be deed to synnes, and lyue to riytwisnesse, bi whos wan wounde ye ben heelid. 25 For ye weren as scheep errynge, but ye ben now turned to the schipherde, and bischop of youre soulis.

3 Also wymmen be thei suget to her hosebondis; that if ony man bileue not to the word, bi the conuersacioun of wymmen thei be wonnun with out word. 2 And biholde ye in drede youre hooli conuersacioun. 3 Of whiche `ther be not with outforth curious ournyng of heer, ether doying aboute of gold, ethir ournyng of clothing; 4 but thilke that is the hid man of herte, in vncorruptioun, and of mylde spirit, which is riche in the siyt of God. 5 For so sumtyme hooli wymmen hopinge in God ourneden hem silf, and weren suget to her owne hosebondis. 6 As Sara obeied to Abraham, and clepide hym lord; of whom ye ben douytris wel doynge, and not dredynge ony perturbacioun. 7 Also men dwelle togidre, and bi kunnyng yyue ye onoure to the wommanus freeltee, as to the more feble, and as to euen eiris of grace and of lijf, that youre preieris be not lettid. 8 And in feith alle of oon wille in preier be ye eche suffringe with othere, loue of britherhod, merciful, mylde, meke; 9 not yeldinge yuel for yuel, nether cursing for cursing, but ayenward blessinge; for in this thing ye ben clepid, that ye welde blessinge bi eritage. 10

For he that wole loue lijf, and se goode daies, constreyne his tunge from yuel, and hise lippis, that thei speke not gile. 11 And bowe he from yuel, and do good; seke he pees, and perfitli sue it. 12 For the iyen of the Lord ben on iust men, and hise eris on the preieris of hem; but the cheer of the Lord is on men that don yuels. 13 And who is it that schal anoye you, if ye ben sueris and louyeris of goodnesse? 14 But also if ye suffren ony thing for riytwisnesse, ye ben blessid; but drede ye not the drede of hem, that ye be not disturblid. 15 But halewe ye the Lord Crist in youre hertis, and euermore be ye redi to satisfaccioun to ech man axynge you resoun of that feith and hope that is in you, 16 but with myldenesse and drede, hauynge good conscience; that in that thing that thei bachiten of you, thei ben confoundid, whiche chalengen falsly youre good conuersacioun in Crist. 17 For it is betere that ye do wel, and suffre, if the wille of God wole, than doynge yuele. 18 For also Crist onys diede for oure synnes, he iust for vniust, that he schulde offre to God vs, maad deed in fleisch, but maad quik in spirit. 19 For which thing he cam in spirit, and also to hem that weren closid togidre in prisoun prechide; 20 whiche weren sum tyme vnbileueful, whanne thei abididen the pacience of God in the daies of Noe, whanne the schip was maad, in which a few, that is to seie, eiyte soulis weren maad saaf bi water. 21 And so baptyng of lijk forme makith vs saaf; not the puttyng awei of the filthis of fleisch, but the axying of a good conscience in God, bi the ayenrysyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that is in the riyt half of God, 22 and swolewith deth, that we schulden be made eiris of euerlastinge lijf. He yede in to heuene, and aungelis, and powers, and vertues, ben maad sugetis to hym.

4 Therfor for Crist suffride in fleisch, be ye also armed bi the same thenkyng; for he that suffride in fleisch ceesside fro synnes, 2 that that is left now in fleisch lyue not now to the desiris of men, but to the wille of God. 3 For the time that is passid is ynow to the wille of hethene men to be endid, whiche walkiden in letcheries, and lustis, in myche drinking of wyn, in vnmesurable etyngis, and drynkyngis, and vnleueful worschipping of mawmetis. 4 In whiche now thei ben astonyed, in which thing thei wondren, for ye rennen not togidere `in to the same confusioun of letcherie, and blasfemen. 5 And thei schulen yyue resoun to hym, that is redi to deme the quyke and the deed. 6 For whi for this thing it is prechid also to deed men, that thei be demed bi men in fleisch, and that thei lyue bi God in spirit. 7 For the ende of alle thingis schal neie. Therfor be ye prudent, and wake ye in preyeris; 8 bfore alle thingis haue ye charite ech to other in you silf algatis lastyng; for charite couerith the multitude of synnes. 9 Holde ye hospitalite togidere with out grutching; 10 ech man as he hath resseyued grace, mynstringe it in to ech othere, as good dispenderis of the manyfold grace of God. 11 If ony man spekith, speke he as the wordis of God; if ony man mynstrith, as of the vertu which God mynstrith; that God be onourid in alle thingis bi Jhesu Crist oure Lord, to whom is glorie and lordschip in to worldis `of worldis. (aiōn g165)

12 Amen. Moost dere brytheren, nyle ye go in pilgrymage in feruour, that is maad to you to temptacioun, as if ony newe thing bifalle to you; 13 but comyne ye with the passiouns of Crist, and haue ye ioye, that also ye be glad, and haue ioye in the reuelacioun of his glorie. 14 If ye ben dispisid for the name of Crist, ye schulen be blessid; for that that is of the onour, and of the glorie, and of the vertu of God, and the spirit that is his, schal reste on you. 15 But no man of you suffre as a mansleere, ethir a theef, ether cursere, ethir a disirere of othere mennus goodis; 16 but if as a cristen man, schame he not, but glorifie he God in this name. 17 For tyme is, that doom bigynne at Goddis hous; and if it bigynne first at vs, what ende schal be of hem, that bileuen not to the gospel? 18 And if a iust man vnnethe schal be sauid, where schulen the vnfeithful man and the synnere appere? 19 Therfor and thei that suffren bi the wille of God, bitaken her soulis in good dedis to the feithful makere of nouyt.

5 Therfor Y, an euene eldre man, and a witnesse of Cristis passiouns, which also am a comynere of that glorie, that schal be schewid in tyme to comynge; byseche ye the eldre men, 2 that ben among you, fede ye the flok of God, that is among you, and puruey ye, not as constreyned, but wilfulli, bi God; not for loue of foule wynnyng, 3 but wilfulli, nether as hauynge lordschip in the clergie, but that ye ben maad ensaumple of the flok, of wille. 4 And whanne the prince of scheepherdis schal appere, ye schulen resseyue the coroun of glorie, that may neuere fade. 5 Also, ye yonge men, be ye suget to eldre men, and alle schewe ye togidere mekenesse; for the Lord withstondith proude men, but he yyueth grace to meke men. 6 Therfor be ye mekid vndir the myyti hoond of God, that he reise you in the tyme of visitacioun, 7 and caste ye al youre bisynesse in to hym, for to hym is cure of you. 8 Be ye sobre, and wake ye, for youre aduersarie, the deuel, as a rorynge lioun goith aboute, sechinge whom he schal deuoure. 9 Whom ayenstonde ye, stronge in the feith, witynge that the same passioun is maad to thilke brithirhode of you, that is in the world. 10 And God of al grace, that clepide you in to his euerlastinge glorie, you suffrynge a lital, he schal performe, and schal conferme, and schal make sad.

(aiōnios g166) 11 To hym be glorie and lordschip, in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165) 12 Bi Siluan, feithful brother to you as Y deme, Y wroot schortli; bisechinge, and witnessinge that this is the very grace of God, in which ye stonden. 13 The chirche that is gaderid in Babiloyne, and Marcus, my sone, gretith you wel. 14 Grete ye wel togidere in hooli cos. Grace be to you alle that ben in Crist. Amen.

2 Peter

1 Simount Petre, seruaunt and apostle of `Jhesu Crist, to hem that han take with vs the euene feith, in the riytwisnesse of oure God and sauyour Jhesu Crist, 2 grace and pees be fillid to you, bi the knowing of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 3 Hou alle thingis of his godlich vertu, that ben to lijf and pitee, ben youun to vs, bi the knowyng of hym, that clepide vs for his owne glorie and vertu. 4 Bi whom he yaf to vs moost preciouise biheestis; that bi these thingis ye schulen be maad felows of Goddis kynde, and fle the corrupcioun of that coueytise, that is in the world. 5 And bringe ye in alle bisynesse, and mynystre ye in youre feith vertu, and `in vertu kunnyng; 6 in kunnyng abstinence, in abstynence pacience, in pacience pitee; 7 in pitee, love of britherhod, and in loue of britherhod charite. 8 For if these ben with you, and ouercomen, thei schulen not make you voide, nethir with out fruyt, in the knowyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 9 But to whom these ben not redi, he is blynd, and gropith with his hoond, and foryetith the purgyng of his elde trespassis. 10 Wherfor, britheren, be ye more bisi, that by goode werkis ye make youre clepyng and chesyng certeyn; for ye doynge these thingis schulen not do synne ony tyme. 11 For thus the entryng in to euerlastynge kyngdom of oure Lord and sauyour Jhesu Crist, schal be mynystrid to you plenteuousli. (aiōnios g166) 12 For which thing Y schal bigynne to moneste you euere more of these thingis; and Y wole that ye be kunnyng, and confermyd in this present treuthe. 13 Forsothe Y deme iustli, as long as Y am in this tabernacle, to reise you in monesting; and Y am certeyn, 14 that the putting awei of my tabernacle is swift, bi this that oure Lord Jhesu Crist hath schewid to me. 15 But Y schal yyue bisynesse, and ofte after my deth ye haue mynde of these thingis. 16 For we not suyng vnwise talis, han maad knowun to you the vertu and the biforknowyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist; but we weren maad biholderis of his greetnesse. 17 For he took of God the fadir onour and glorie, bi siche maner vois slidun down to hym fro the greet glorie, This is my loued sone, in whom Y haue plesid to me; here ye hym. 18 And we herden this vois brouyt from heuene, whanne we weren with hym in the hooli hil. 19 And we han a saddere word of prophecie, to which ye yyuynge tent don wel, as to a lanterne that yyueth liyt in a derk place, til the dai bigynne to yyue liyt, and the dai sterre spreng in youre hertis. 20 And firste vndurstonde ye this thing, that ech prophesie of scripture is not maad bi propre interpretacioun; 21 for prophesie was not brouyt ony tyme bi mannus wille, but the hooli men of God inspirid with the Hooli Goost spaken.

2 But also false prophetis weren in the puple, as in you schulen be maistris lieris, that schulen bringe in sectis of perdicoun; and thei denyen thilke Lord that bouyte hem, and bringen on hem silf hasti perdicoun. 2 And many schulen sue her letcheries, bi whiche the weie of treuthe schal be blasfemyd; 3 and thei schulen make marchaundie of you in coueytise bi feyned wordis. To whiche doom now a while ago ceessith not, and the perdicoun of hem nappith not. 4 For if God sparide not aungels synnyng, but bitook hem to be turmentid, and to be drawun down with boondis of helle in to helle, to be kept in to dom; (Tartaroō g5020) 5 and sparide not the firste world, but kept Noe, the eiythe man, the biforgoere of riytwisnesse, and brouyte in the greet flood to the world of vnfeithful men; 6 and he droof in to poudre the citees of men of Sodom and of men of

Gommor, and dampnede bi turnyng vpsedoun, and putte hem the ensauple of hem that weren to doyng yuele; 7 and delyuerid the iust Loth, oppressid of the wrong, and of the letcherouse conuersacioun of cursid men; 8 for in siyt and hering he was iust, and dwellide amongst hem that fro dai in to dai turmentiden with wickid werkis a iust soule. 9 For the Lord kan delyuere piteuouse men fro temptacioun, and kepe wickid men `in to the dai of dom to be turmentid; 10 but more hem that walken aftir the fleisch, in coueytinge of vnclennesse, and dispisen lordschiping, and ben boold, plesynge hem silf, and dreden not to bringe in sectis, blasfemyng; where aungels, 11 whanne thei ben more in strengthe and vertu, beren not `that was the execrable doom ayens hem. 12 But these ben as vnresonable beestis, kyndli in to takyng, and in to deth, blasfemyng in these thingis that thei knowen not, and schulen perische in her corrupcioun, 13 and resseyue the hire of vnriytwisnesse. And thei gessen delicis of defouling and of wemme, to be likyngis of dai, flowyng in her feestis with delicis, doyng letcherie with you, 14 and han iyen ful of auowtrie, and vnceessyng trespass, disseyuyng vnstidfast soulis, and han the herte excercisid to coueitise; the sones of cursyng, 15 that forsaken the riyt weie, and erriden, suyng the weie of Balaam of Bosor, which louyde the hire of wickidnesse. 16 But he hadde repreuyng of his woodnesse; a doubt beest vndur yok, that spak with vois of man, that forbode the vnwisdom of the profete. 17 These ben wellis with out watir, and mystis dryuun with `whirlinge wyndys, to whiche the thicke mijst of derknessis is reseruyd. 18 And thei speken in pryde of vanyte, and disseyuen in desiris of fleisch of letcherie hem, that scapen a litil. 19 Whiche lyuen in errour, and biheten fredom to hem, whanne thei ben seruauntis of corrupcioun. For of whom ony man is ouercomun, of hym also he is seruaunt. 20 For if men forsaken the vncleannessis of the world, bi the knowyng of oure Lord and sauour Jhesu Crist, and eftsone ben wlapid in these, and ben ouercomun, the lattere thingis ben maad to hem worse than the formere. 21 For it was betere to hem to not knowe the weie of riytwisnesse, than to turne ayen aftir the knowyng, fro that hooli maundement that was bitakun to hem. 22 For thilke very prouerb bifelde to hem, The hound turnede ayen to his castyng, and a sowe is waischun in walwyng in fenne.

3 Lo! ye moost dereworth britheren, Y write to you this secounde epistle, in which Y stire youre clere soule bi monesting togidere, 2 that ye be myndeful of tho wordis, that Y biforseide of the hooli prophetis, and of the maundementis of the hooli apostlis of the Lord and sauour. 3 First wite ye this thing, that in the laste daies disseyueris schulen come in disseit, goyng aftir her owne coueityngis, 4 seiyng, Where is the biheest, or the comyng of hym? for sithen the fadris dieden, alle thingis lasten fro the bigynnyng of creature. 5 But it is hid fro hem willynge this thing, that heuenes were bifore, and the erthe of water was stondyng bi watir, of Goddis word; 6 bi which that ilke world clensid, thanne bi watir perischide. 7 But the heuenes that now ben, and the erthe, ben kept bi the same word, and ben reseruyd to fier in to the dai of doom and perdicioun of wickid men. 8 But, ye moost dere, this o thing be not hid to you, that o dai anentis God is as a thousynde yeeris, and a thousynde yeeris ben as o dai. 9 The Lord tarieth not his biheest, as summe gessen, but he doith pacientli for you, and wole not that ony men perische, but that alle turne ayen to penaunce. 10 For the dai of the Lord schal come as a theef, in which heuenes with greet bire schulen passe, and elementis schulen be dissoluyd bi heete, and the erthe, and alle the werkis that ben in it, schulen be brent. 11 Therfor whanne alle these thingis schulen be dissolued, what manner men bihoueth it you to be in hooli lyuyngis and pitees, 12 abidinge and hiyyng in to the comyng of the dai of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, bi whom heuenes brennyng schulen be dissoluyd, and elementis schulen faile bi brennyng of fier. 13 Also we abiden bi hise biheestis newe heuenes and newe erthe, in which riytwisnesse dwellith. 14 For which thing, ye moost dere, abidyng these thingis, be ye bisye to be foundun to hym in pees vnspottid and vndefoulid. 15 And deme ye long abiding of oure Lord Jhesu Crist youre heelthe, as also oure moost dere brother Poul wroot to you, bi wisdom youun to hym. 16 As and in alle epistlis he spekith `in hem of these thingis; in which ben summe hard thingis to vndurstonde, whiche vnwise and vnstable men depraue, as also thei don othere scripturis, to her owne perdicoun. 17 Therfor ye, britheren, bifer witynge kepe you silf, lest ye be disseyued bi errour of vnwise men, and falle awei fro youre owne sadnesse. 18 But wexe ye in the grace and the knowyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist and oure Sauyours; to hym be glorie now and in to the dai of euerlastyngnesse. Amen. (aion g165)

1 John

1 That thing that was fro the bigynnyng, which we herden, which we sayn with oure iyen, which we bihelden, and oure hondis touchiden, of the word of lijf; 2 and the lijf is schewid. And we sayn, and we witnessen, and tellen to you the euerlastyng lijf, that was anentis the fadir, and apperide to vs. (aiōnios g166) 3 Therfor we tellen to you that thing, that we seyn, and herden, that also ye haue felowschipe with vs, and oure felowschip be with the fadir, and with his sone Jhesu Crist. 4 And we writen this thing to you, that ye haue ioie, and that youre ioie be ful. 5 And this is the tellyng, that we herden of hym, and tellen to you, that God is liyt, and ther ben no derknessis in him. 6 If we seien, that we han felawschip with hym, and we wandren in derknessis, we lien, and don not treuthe. 7 But if we walken in liyt, as also he is in liyt, we han felawschip togidere; and the blood of Jhesu Crist, his sone, clensith vs fro al synne. 8 If we seien, that we han no synne, we disseyuen vs silf, and treuthe is not in vs. 9 If we knowlechen oure synnes, he is feithful and iust, that he foryyue to vs oure synnes, and clense vs from al wickidnesse. 10 And if we seien, we han not synned, we maken hym a liere, and his word is not in vs.

2 Mi litle sones, Y write to you these thingis, that ye synnen not. But if ony man synneth, we han an aduocat anentis the fadir, 2 Jhesu Crist, and he is the foryyuenes for oure synnes; and not oneli for oure synnes, but also for the synnes of al the world. 3 And in this thing we witen, that we knowen hym, if we kepen hise comaundementis. 4 He that seith that he knowith God, and kepith not hise comaundementis, is a liere, and trewth is not in hym. 5 But the charite of God is perfit verili in hym, that kepith his word. In this thing we witen, that we ben in hym, if we ben perfit in hym. 6 He that seith, that he dwellith in hym, he owith for to walke, as he walkide. 7 Moost dere britheren, Y write to you, not a newe maundement, but the elde maundement, that ye hadden fro the bigynnyng. The elde maundement is the word, that ye herden. 8 Eftsoone Y write to you a newe maundement, that is trewe bothe in hym and in you; for derknessis ben passid, and veri liyt schyneth now. 9 He that seith, that he is in liyt, and hatith his brother, is in derknesse yit. 10 He that loueth his brothir, dwellith in liyt, and sclaudre is not in hym. 11 But he that hatith his brother, is in derknessis, and wandrith in derknessis, and woot not whidir he goith; for derknessis han blindid hise iyen. 12 Litle sones, Y write to you, that youre synnes ben foryouun to you for his name. 13 Fadriss, Y write to you, for ye han knowun hym, that is fro the bigynnyng. Yonge men, Y write to you, for ye han ouercomun the wickid. 14 Y write to you, yonge children, for ye han knowe the fadir. Y write to you, britheren, for ye han knowen hym, that is fro the bigynnyng. Y write to you, yonge men, for ye ben stronge, and the word of God dwellith in you, and ye han ouercomun the wickid. 15 Nyle ye loue the world, ne tho thingis that ben in the world. If ony man loueth the world, the charite of the fader is not in hym. 16 For al thing that is in the world, is coueitise of fleisch, and coueitise of iyen, and pride of lijf, which is not of the fadir, but it is of the world. 17 And the world schal passe, and the coueitise of it; but he that doith the wille of God, dwellith with outen ende. (aion g165) 18 My litle sones, the laste our is; and as ye han herd, that antecrist cometh, now many antecristis ben maad; wherfor we witen, that it is the laste our. 19 Thei wenten forth fro vs, but thei weren not of vs; for if thei hadden be of vs, thei hadden dwelte with vs; but that thei be knowun, that thei ben not of vs. 20 But ye han anointyng of the Hooli Goost, and knowen alle thingis. 21 Y wroot not to you, as to men that knowen not treuthe, but as to men that knowen it, and for ech leeing is not of treuthe. 22 Who is a liere, but this that denyeth that Jhesu is not Crist? This is antecrist, that denyeth the fadir, and the sone. 23 So ech that denyeth the sone, hath not the fadir; but he that knowlechith the sone, hath also the fadir. 24 That thing that ye herden at the bigynnyng, dwelle it in you; for if that thing dwellith in you, which ye herden at the bigynnyng, ye schulen dwelle in the sone and in the fadir. 25 And this is the biheeste, that he bihiyte to vs euerlastinge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 26 Y wroot these thingis to you, of hem that disseyuen you, 27 and that the anoyntyng which ye resseyueden of hym, dwelle in you. And ye han not nede, that ony man teche you, but as his anoyntyng techith you of alle thingis, and it is trewe, and it is not leesyng; and as he tauyte you, dwelle ye in hym. 28 And now, ye litle sones, dwelle ye in hym, that whanne he schal appere, we haue a trist, and be not confoundid of hym in his comyng. 29 If ye witen that he is iust, wite ye that also ech that doith riytwisnesse, is borun of hym.

3 Se ye what maner charite the fadir yaf to vs, that we be named the sones of God, and ben hise sones. For this thing the world knewe not vs, for it knew not hym. 2 Moost dere britheren, now we ben the sones of God, and yit it apperide not, what we schulen be. We witen, that whanne he schal appere, we schulen be lijk hym, for we schulen se hym as he is. 3 And ech man that hath this hope in hym, makith hym silf hooli, as he is hooli. 4 Ech man that doith synne, doith also wickidnesse, and synne is wickidnesse. 5 And ye witen, that he apperide to do awei synnes, and synne is not in hym. 6 Ech man that dwellith in hym, synneth not; and ech that synneth, seeth not hym, nether knew hym. 7 Litle sones, no man disseyue you; he that doith riytwysnesse, is iust, as also he is iust. 8 He that doith synne, is of the deuel; for the deuel synneth fro the bigynnyng. In this thing the sone of God apperide, that he vndo the werkis of the deuel. 9 Ech man that is borun of God, doith not synne; for the seed of God dwellith in hym, and he may not do synne, for he is borun of God. 10 In this thing the sones of God ben knowun, and the sones of the feend. Ech man that is not iust, is not of God, and he that loueth not his brothir. 11 For this is the tellyng, that ye herden at the bigynnyng, that ye loue ech othere; 12 not as Caym, that was of the yuele, and slouy his brother. And for what thing slouy he him? for hise werkis weren yuele, and hise brotheris iust. 13 Britheren, nyle ye wondre, if the world hatith you. 14 We witen, that we ben translatid fro deeth to lijf, for we louen britheren. He that loueth not, dwellith in deth. 15 Ech man that hatith his brother, is a man sleere; and ye witen, that ech mansleere hath not euerlastinge lijf dwellinge in hym. (aiōnios g166) 16 In this thing we han knowe the charite of God, for he puttide his lijf for vs, and we owen to putte oure lyues for oure britheren. 17 He that hath the catel of this world, and seeth that his brothir hath nede, and closith his entrailis fro hym, hou dwellith the charite of God in hym? 18 Mi litle sones, loue we not in word, nethir in tunge, but in werk and treuthe. 19 In this thing we knowen, that we ben of treuthe, and in his siyt we monesten oure hertis. 20 For if oure herte repreueth vs, God is more than oure hert, and knowith alle thingis. 21 Moost dere britheren, if oure herte repreueth not vs, we han trust to God; 22 and what euer we schulen axe, we schulen resseyue of hym, for we kepen hise comaundementis, and we don tho thingis that ben plesaunt bifor hym. 23 And this is the comaundement of God, that we bileue in the name of his sone Jhesu Crist, and that we loue ech othere, as he yaf heeste to vs. 24 And he that kepith hise comaundementis, dwellith in hym, and he in hym. And in this thing we witen, that he dwellith in vs, bi the spirit, whom he yaf to vs.

4 Moost dere britheren, nyle ye bileue to ech spirit, but preue ye spiritis, if thei ben of God; for many false prophetis wenten out in to the world. 2 In this thing the spirit of God is knowun; ech spirit that knowlechith that Jhesu Crist hath come in fleisch, is of God; 3 and ech spirit that fordoith Jhesu, is not of God. And this is antecrist, of whom ye herden, that he cometh; and riyt now he is in the world. 4 Ye, litle sones, ben of God, and ye han ouercome hym; for he that is in you is more, than he that is in the world. 5 Thei ben of the world, therfor thei speken of the world, and the world herith hem. 6 We ben of God; he that knowith God, herith vs; he that is not of God, herith not vs. In this thing we knowen the spirit of treuthe, and the spirit of errour. 7 Moost dere britheren, loue we togidere, for charite is of God; and ech that loueth his brother, is borun of God, and knowith God. 8 He that loueth not, knowith not God; for God is charite. 9 In this thing the charite of God apperide in vs, for God sente hise oon bigetun sone in to the world, that we lyue bi hym. 10 In this thing is charite, not as we hadden loued God, but for he firste louede vs, and sente hise sone foryyuenesse for oure synnes. 11 Ye moost dere britheren, if God louede vs, we owen to loue ech other. 12 No man say euer God; if we louen togidre, God dwellith in vs, and the charite of hym is perfit in vs. 13 In this thing we knowen, that we dwellen in hym, and he in vs; for of his spirit he yaf to vs. 14 And we sayen, and witnessen, that the fadir sente his sone sauour of the world. 15 Who euer knowlechith, that Jhesu is the sone of God, God dwellith in him, and he in God. 16 And we han knowun, and bileuen to the charite, that God hath in vs. God is charite, and he that dwellith in charite, dwellith in God, and God in hym. 17 In this thing is the perfit charite of God with vs, that we haue trist in the dai of dom; for as he is, also we ben in this world. 18 Drede is not in charite, but perfit charite puttith out drede; for drede hath peyne. But he that dredith, is not perfit in charite. 19 Therfor loue we God, for he louede vs bfore. 20 If ony man seith, that `Y loue God, and hatith his brother, he is a liere. For he that loueth not his brothir, which he seeth, hou mai he loue God, whom he seeth not? 21 And we han this comaundement of God, that he that loueth God, loue also his brothir.

5 Ech man that bileueth that Jhesus is Crist, is borun of God; and ech man that loueth hym that gendride, loueth hym that is borun of hym. 2 In this thing we knowen, that we louen the children of God, whanne we louen God, and don his maundementis. 3 For this is the charite of God, that we kepe hise maundementis; and his maundementis ben not heuy. 4 For al thing that is borun of God, ouercometh the world; and this is the victorie that ouercometh the world, oure feith. 5 And who is he that ouercometh the world, but he that bileueth that Jhesus is the sone of God? 6 This is Jhesus Crist, that cam bi watir and blood; not in water oonli, but in watir and blood. And the spirit is he that witnessith, that Crist is treuthe. 7 For thre ben, that yyuen witnessing in heuene, the Fadir, the Sone, and the Hooli Goost; and these thre ben oon. 8 `And thre ben, that yyuen witnessing in erthe, the spirit, water, and blood; and these thre ben oon. 9 If we resseyuen the witnessing of men, the witnessing of God is more; for this is the witnessing of God, that is more, for he witnesside of his sone. 10 He that bileueth in the sone of God, hath the witnessing of God in hym. He that bileueth not to the sone, makith hym a liere; for he bileueth not in the witnessing, that God witnesside of his sone. 11 And this is the witnessyng, for God yaf to you euerlastinge lijf, and this lijf is in his sone. (aiōnios g166) 12 He that hath the sone of God, hath also lijf; he that hath not the sone of God, hath not lijf. 13 I write to you these thingis, that ye wite, that ye han euerlastynge lijf, which bileuen in the name of Goddis sone. (aiōnios g166) 14 And this is the trist which we han to God, that what euer thing we axen afir his wille, he schal here vs. 15 And we witen, that he herith vs, what euer thing we axen; we witen, that we han the axyngis, which we axen of hym. 16 He that woot that his brother synneth a synne not to deth, axe he, and lijf schal be youun to hym that synneth not to deth. Ther is a synne to deth; `not for it Y seie, that ony man preie. 17 Ech wickidnesse is synne, and ther is synne to deth. 18 We witen, that ech man that is borun of God, synneth not; but the generacioun of God kepith hym, and the wickid touchith hym not. 19 We witen, that we ben of God, and al the world is set in yuel. 20 And we witen, that the sone of God cam in fleisch, and yaf to vs wit, that we know veri God, and be in the veri sone of hym. This is veri God, and euerlastynge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 21 My litle sones, kepe ye you fro maumetis.

2 John

1 The eldere man, to the chosun ladi, and to her children, whiche Y loue in treuthe; and not Y aloone, but also alle men that knowen treuthe; 2 for the treuthe that dwellith in you, and with you schal be with outen ende. (aiōn g165) 3 Grace be with you, merci, and pees of God the fadir, and of Jhesu Crist, the sone of the fadir, in treuthe and charite. 4 I ioiede ful myche, for Y foond of thi sones goynge in treuthe, as we resseyueden maundement of the fadir. 5 And now Y preye thee, ladi, not as writinge a newe maundement to thee, but that that we hadden fro the bigynnyng, that we loue ech other. 6 And this is charite, that we walke after his maundementis. For this is the comaundement, that as ye herden at the bigynnyng, walke ye in hym. 7 For many disseyueris wenten out in to the world, which knoulechen not that Jhesu Crist hath come in fleisch; this is a disseyuere and antecrist. 8 Se ye you silf, lest ye lesen the thingis that ye han wrouyt, that ye resseyue ful mede; 9 witynge that ech man that goith bifore, and dwellith not in the teching of Crist, hath not God. He that dwellith in the teching, hath bothe the sone and the fadir. 10 If ony man cometh to you, and bryngith not this teching, nyle ye resseyue hym in to hous, nether seie ye to hym, Heil. 11 For he that seith to hym, Heil, comyneth with hise yuel werkis. Lo! Y biforseide to you, that ye be not confoundid in the dai of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 12 Y haue mo thingis to write to you, and Y wolde not bi parchemyn and enke; for Y hope that Y schal come to you, and speke mouth to mouth, that your ioye be ful. 13 The sones of thi chosun sistir greten thee wel. The grace of God be with thee. Amen.

3 John

1 The eldere man to Gayus, most dere brother, whom Y loue in treuthe. 2 Most dere brothir, of alle thingis Y make preyer, that thou entre, and fare welefully, as thi soule doith welefuli. 3 Y ioyede greetli, for britheren camen, and baren witnessing to thi treuthe, `as thou walkist in treuthe. 4 Y haue not more grace of these thingis, than that Y here that my sones walke in treuthe. 5 Most dere brother, thou doist feithfuli, what euer thou worchist in britheren, and that in to pilgrymys, 6 which yeldiden witnessing to thi charite, in the siyt of the chirche; which thou leddist forth, and doist wel worthili to God. 7 For thei wenten forth for his name, and token no thing of hethene men. 8 Therfor we owen to resseyue siche, that we be euen worcheris of treuthe. 9 I hadde write perauenture to the chirche, but this Diotrepes, that loueth to bere primacie in hem, resseyueth not vs. 10 For this thing, if Y schal come, Y schal moneste hise werkis, whiche he doith, chidinge ayens vs with yuel wordis. And as if these thingis suffisen not to hym, nether he resseyueth britheren, and forbedith hem that resseyuen, and puttith out of the chirche. 11 Moost dere brothir, nyle thou sue yuel thing, but that that is good thing. He that doith wel, is of God; he that doith yuel, seeth not God. 12 Witnessing is yoldun to Demetrie of alle men, and of treuthe it silf; but also we beren witnessing, and thou knowist, that oure witnessing is trewe. 13 Y hadde many thingis to wryte to thee, but Y wolde not write to thee bi enke and penne. 14 For Y hope soone to se thee, and we schulen speke mouth to mouth. Pees be to thee. Frendis greten thee wel. Greete thou wel frendis bi name.

Jude

1 Judas, the seruaunt of Jhesu Crist, and brother of James, to these that ben louyd, that ben in God the fadir, and to hem that ben clepid and kept of Jhesu Crist, 2 mercy, and pees, and charite be fillid to you. 3 Moost dere britheren, Y doynge al bisynesse to write to you of youre comyn helthe, hadde nede to write to you, and preye to striue strongli for the feith that is onys takun to seyntis. 4 For summe vnfeithful men priueli entriden, that sum tyme weren bfore writun in to this dom, and ouerturnen the grace of oure God in to letcherie, and denyen hym that is oneli a Lord, oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 5 But Y wole moneste you onys, that witen alle thingis, that Jhesus sauys his puple fro the lond of Egipt, and the secunde tyme loste hem that bileueden not. 6 And he reseruede vndur derknesse aungels, that kepten not her prinshod, but forsoken her hous, in to the dom of the greet God, in to euerlastynge bondis. (aiōdios g126) 7 As Sodom, and Gomorre, and the nyy coostid citees, that in lijk maner diden fornycacioun, and yeden awei aftir othir fleisch, and ben maad ensaumple, suffrynge peyne of euerelastynge fier. (aiōnios g166) 8 In lijk maner also these that defoulen the fleisch, and dispisen lordschip, and blasfemen mageste. 9 Whanne Myyhel, arkaungel, disputide with the deuel, and stroof of Moises bodi, he was not hardi to brynge in dom of blasfemye, but seide, The Lord comaunde to thee. 10 But these men blasfemen, what euer thingis thei knowen not. For what euer thingis thei knowen kyndli as doumbe beestis, in these thei ben corrupt. 11 Wo to hem that wenten the weie of Caym, and that ben sched out bi errour of Balaam for mede, and perischiden in the ayenseiynge of Chore. 12 These ben in her metis, feestyng togidere to filthe, with out drede fedinge hemsilf. These ben cloudis with out watir, that ben borun aboute of the wyndis; heruest trees with out fruyt, twies deed, drawun vp bi the roote; 13 wawis of the woode see, fomyng out her confusiouns; erryng steris, to whiche the tempest of derknessis is kept with outen ende. (aiōn g165) 14 But Enoch, the seuenthe fro Adam, profeciede of these, and seide, Lo! the Lord cometh with hise hooli thousandis, 15 to do dom ayens alle men, and to repreue alle vnfeithful men of alle the werkis of the wickidnesse of hem, bi whiche thei diden wickidli, and of alle the harde wordis, that wyckid synneris han spoke ayens God. 16 These ben grutcheris ful of pleyntis, wandryng afir her desiris; and the mouth of hem spekith pride, worschipinge persoones, bi cause of wynnyng. 17 And ye, moost dere britheren, be myndeful of the wordis, whiche ben bifor seid of apostlis of oure Lord Jhesu Crist; whiche seiden to you, 18 that in the laste tymes ther schulen come gilours, wandryng afir her owne desiris, not in pitee. 19 These ben, whiche departen hemsilf, beestli men, not hauyng spirit. 20 But ye, moost dere britheren, aboue bilde you silf on youre moost hooli feith, and preye ye in the Hooli Goost, 21 and kepe you silf in the loue of God, and abide ye the merci of oure Lord Jhesu Crist in to lijf euerlastyng. (aiōnios g166) 22 And repreue ye these men that ben demed, 23 but saue ye hem, and take ye hem fro the fier.

 And do ye merci to othere men, in the drede of God, and hate ye also thilke defoulid coote, which is fleischli. 24 But to him that is miyti to kepe you with out synne, and to ordeyne bifore the siyt of his glorie you vnwemmed in ful out ioie, in the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, to God aloone oure sauour, 25 bi Jhesu Crist oure Lord, be glorie, and magnefiyng, empire, and power, bifore alle worldis, `and now and in to alle worldis of worldis.

Amen. (aiōn g165)

Revelation

1 Apocalips of Jhesu Crist, which God yaf to hym to make open to hise seruauntis, whiche thingis it bihoueth to be maad soone. And he signyfiede, sending bi his aungel to his seruaunt Joon, 2 whiche bar witnessing to the word of God, and witnessing of Jhesu Crist, in these thingis, what euer thingis he say. 3 Blessid is he that redith, and he that herith the wordis of this prophecie, and kepith tho thingis that ben writun in it; for the tyme is niy. 4 Joon to seuene chirchis, that ben in Asie, grace and pees to you, of him that is, and that was, and that is to comynge; and of the seuene spiritis, that ben in the siyt of his trone; and of Jhesu Crist, 5 that is a feithful wnesse, the firste bigetun of deed men, and prince of kingis of the erthe; which louyde vs, and waischide vs fro oure synnes in his blood, 6 and made vs a kyngdom, and preestis to God and to his fader; to hym be glorie and empire in to worldis of worldis. (aiōn g165) 7 Amen. Lo! he cometh with clowdis, and ech iye schal se hym, and thei that prickiden hym; and alle the kynredis of the erthe schulen beweile hem silf on hym. 8 Yhe, Amen! Y am alpha and oo, the bigynnyng and the ende, seith the Lord God, that is, and that was, and that is to comynge, almyyti. 9 I, Joon, youre brothir, and partener in tribulacioun, and kingdom, and pacience in Crist Jhesu, was in an ile, that is clepid Pathmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessyng of Jhesu. 10 Y was in spirit in the Lordis dai, and Y herde bihynde me a greet vois, as of a trumpe, 11 seiynge to me, Write thou in a book that thing that thou seest, and sende to the seuene chirchis that ben in Asie; to Ephesus, to Smyrna, and to Pergamus, and to Tiatira, and to Sardis, and to Filadelfia, and to Loadicia. 12 And Y turnede, that Y schulde se the vois that spak with me; and Y turnede, and Y say seuene candelstikis of gold, 13 and in the myddil of the seuene goldun candelstikis oon lijk to the sone of man, clothid with a long garnement, and gird at the tetis with a goldun girdil. 14 And the heed of hym and his heeris weren whijt, as whijt wolfe, and as snow; and the iyen of hym as flawme of fier, 15 and hise feet lijk to latoun, as in a brennyng chymney; and the vois of hym as the vois of many watris. 16 And he hadde in his riht hoond seuene sterris, and a swerd scharp on euer ethir side wente out of his mouth; and his face as the sunne schyneth in his vertu. 17 And whanne Y hadde seyn hym, Y felde doun at hise feet, as deed. And he puttide his riht hond on me, and seide, Nyle thou drede; Y am the firste and the laste; 18 and Y am alyue, and Y was deed; and lo! Y am lyuyng in to worldis of worldis, and Y haue the keyes of deth and of helle. (aiōn g165, Hadēs g86) 19 Therfor write thou whiche thingis thou hast seyn, and whiche ben, and whiche it bihoueth to be don aftir these thingis. 20 The sacrament of the seuene sterris, which thou seiyst in my riht hond, and the seuene goldun candelstikis; the seuene sterris ben aungels of the seuene chirchis, and the seuene candelstikis ben seuene chirchis.

2 And to the aungel of the chirche of Efesus write thou, These thingis seith he, that holdith the seuene sterris in his riht hond, which walkith in the middil of the seuene goldun candilstikis. 2 Y woot thi werkis, and trauel, and thi pacience, and that thou maist not suffre yuele men; and thou hast asaied hem that seien that thei ben apostlis, and ben not, and thou hast foundun hem lieris; 3 and thou hast pacience, and thou hast suffrid for my name, and failidist not. 4 But Y haue ayens thee a fewe thingis, that thou hast left thi firste charite. 5 Therfor be thou myndeful fro whennus thou hast falle, and do penaunce, and do the firste werkis; ether ellis, Y come soone to thee, and Y schal moue thi candilstike fro his place, but `thou do penaunce. 6 But thou hast this good thing, that thou hatidist the dedis of Nycholaitis, the whiche also Y hate. 7 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis. To hym that ouercometh Y schal yyue to ete of the tre of lijf, that is in the paradys of my God. 8 And to the aungel of the chirche of Smyrna write thou, These thingis seith the firste and the laste, that was deed, and lyueth. 9 Y woot thi tribulacioun, and thi pouert, but thou art riche; and thou art blasfemyd of hem, that seien, that thei ben Jewis, and ben not, but ben the synagoge of Sathanas. 10 Drede thou no thing of these thingis, whiche thou schalt suffre. Lo! the deuel schal sende summe of you in to prisoun, that ye be temptid; and ye schulen haue tribulacioun ten daies. Be thou feithful to the deth, and Y schal yyue to thee a coroun of lijf. 11 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis. He that ouercometh, schal not be hirt of the secounde deth. 12 And to the aungel of the chirche of Pergamus write thou, These thingis seith he, that hath the swerd scharp on ech side. 13 Y woot where thou dwellist, where the seete of Sathanas is; and thou holdist my name, and denyedist not my feith. And in tho daies was Antipas, my feithful wnesse, that was slayn at you, where Sathanas dwellith. 14 But Y haue ayens thee a fewe thingis; for thou hast `there men holdinge the teching of Balaam, which tauyte Balaac for to sende sclaundre bifor the sones of Israel, to ete of sacrificis of ydols, and to do fornicacioun; 15 so also thou hast men holdinge the teching of Nycholaitis. 16 Also do thou penaunce; `yif ony thing lesse, Y schal come soone to thee, and Y schal fiyte with hem with the swerd of my mouth. 17 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirches. To him that ouercometh Y schal yyue aungel mete hid; and Y schal yyue to hym a whiit stoon, and in the stoon a newe name writun, which no man knowith, but he that takith. 18 And to the aungel of the chirche of Tiatira write thou, These thingis seith the sone of God, that hath iyen as flawme of fier, and hise feet lijk latoun. 19 Y knowe thi werkis, and feith, and charite, and thi seruyce, and thi pacience, and thi laste werkis mo than the formere. 20 But Y haue ayens thee a fewe thingis; for thou suffrist the womman Jesabel, which seith that sche is a prophetesse, to teche and disseyue my seruautis, to do letcherie, and to ete of thingis offrid to idols. 21 And Y yaf to hir time, that sche schulde do penaunce, and sche wolde not do penaunce of hir fornyacioun. 22 And lo! Y sende hir in to a bed, and thei that doen letcherie with hir schulen be in moost tribulacioun, but thei don penaunce of hir werkis. 23 And Y schal slee hir sones in to deth, and alle chirchis schulen wite, that Y am serchinge reynes and hertis; and Y schal yyue to ech man of you after hise werkis. 24 And Y seie to you, and to othere that ben at Tiatire, who euer han not this teching, and that knewen not the hiynesse of Sathanas, hou thei seien, Y schal not sende on you another charge; netheles holde ye that that ye han, 25 til Y come. 26 And to hym that schal ouercome, and that schal kepe til in to the ende my werkis, Y schal yyue power on folkis, 27 and he schal gouerne hem in an yrun yerde; and thei schulen be brokun to gidre, 28 as a vessel of a pottere, as also Y resseyuede of my fadir; and Y schal yyue to hym a morewe sterre. 29 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis.

3 And to the aungel of the chirche of Sardis write thou, These thingis seith he, that hath the seuene spiritis of God, and the seuene steris. Y woot thi werkis, for thou hast a name, that thou llyuest, and thou art deed. 2 Be thou wakyng, and conferme thou othere thingis, that weren to dyng; for Y fynde not thi werkis fulle bfore my God. 3 Therfor haue thou in mynde, hou thou resseyuedist, and herdist; and kepe, and do penaunce. Therfor if thou wake not, Y schal come as a nytt theef to thee, and thou schalt not wite in what our Y schal come to thee. 4 But thou hast a fewe names in Sardis, whiche han not defoulid her clothis; and thei schulen walke with me in whijt clothis, for thei ben worthi. 5 He that ouercometh, schal be clothid thus with whijt clothis; and Y schal not do awei his name fro the book of lijf, and Y schal knoueleche his name bfore my fadir, and bfore hise aungels. 6 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis. 7 And to the aungel of the chirche of Filadelfie write thou, These thingis seith the hooli and trewe, that hath the keie of Daud; which openeth, and no man closith, he closith, and no man openith. 8 I woot thi werkis, and lo! Y yaf bfore thee a dore opened, which no man may close; for thou hast a litil vertu, and hast kept my word, and denyest not my name. 9 Lo! Y schal yyue to thee of the synagoge of Sathanas, whiche seien that thei ben Jewis, and ben not, but lyen. Lo! Y schal make hem, that thei come, and worschipe byfor thi feet; and thei schulen wite, 10 that Y louyde thee, for thou keptist the word of my pacience. And Y schal kepe thee fro the our of temptacioun, that is to comynge in to al the world, to tempte men that dwellen in erthe. 11 Lo! Y come soone; holde thou that that thou hast, that no man take thi coroun. 12 And hym that schal ouercome, Y schal make a pilere in the temple of my God, and he schal no more go out; and Y schal write on hym the name of my God, and the name of the citee of my God, of the newe Jerusalem, that cometh doun fro heuene of my God, and my newe name. 13 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis. 14 And to the aungel of the chirche of Laodice write thou, These thingis seith Amen, the feithful wittenesse and trewe, which is bigynnyng of Goddis creature. 15 I woot thi werkis, for nether thou art cold, nether thou art hoot; Y wolde that thou were could, ethir hoot; 16 but for thou art lew, and nether cold, nether hoot, Y schal bigynne to caste thee out of my mouth. 17 For thou seist, That Y am riche, and ful of goodis, and Y haue nede of no thing; and thou wost not, that thou art a wretche, and wretcheful, and pore, and blynde, and nakid. 18 Y counsele thee to bie of me brent gold, and preued, that thou be maad riche, and be clothid with whijt clothis, that the confusioun of thi nakidnesse be not seen; and anoynte thin iyen with a collerie, that thou se. 19 Y repreue, and chastise whom Y loue; therfor sue thou goode men, and do penaunce. 20 Lo! And if ony wole hirte hem, thus it bihoueth hym to be slayn. 6 These han power to close heuene, that it reyne not in the daies of her prophesie; and thei han power on watris, to turne hem in to blood; and to smyte the erthe with euery plage, and as ofte as thei wolen. 7 And whanne thei schulen ende her witnessing, the beeste that stieth vp fro depnesse, schal make batel ayens hem, and schal ouercome hem, and schal sle hem. (Abyssos g12) 8 And the bodies of hem schulen ligge in the stretis of the greet citee, that is clepid goostli Sodom, and Egipt, where the Lord of hem was crucified. 9 And summe of lynagis, and of puplis, and of langagis, and of hethene men, schulen se the bodies of 13 And he stood on the grauel of the see. And Y sai a beeste stiyng vp of the see, hauynge seuene heedis, and ten hornes; and on hise hornes ten diademes, and on hise heedis the names of blasfemye. 2 And the beeste, whom Y sai, was lijk a pard, and hise feet as the feet of a beere, and his mouth as the mouth of a lioun; and the dragoun yaf his vertu and greet power to hym. 3 And Y sai oon of hise heedis, as slayn in to deth; and the wounde of his deth was curid. And al erthe wondride after the beeste. 4 And thei worschipiden the dragoun, that yaf power to the beeste; and thei worschipeden the beeste, and seiden, Who is lijk the beeste, and who schal mowe fityte with it? 5 And a mouth spekyng grete thingis, and blasfemyes, was youun to it; and power was youun to it, to do two and fourti monethis. 6 And it openyde his mouth in to blasfemyes to God, to blasfeme his name, and his tabernacle, and hem that dwellen in heuene. 7 And it was youun to hym to make batel with seyntis, and to ouercome hem; and power was youun to hym in to ech lynage, and puple, and langage, and folk. 8 And alle men worschipiden it, that dwellen in erthe, whos names ben not writun in the book of lijf of the lomb, that was slayn fro the bigynnyng of the world.

 9 If ony man hath eeris, here he. 10 He that ledith in to caitifte, schal go in to caitifte; he that sleeth with swerd, it bihoueth hym to be slayn with swerd. This is the pacience and the feith of seyntis. 11 And Y sai another beeste stynge vp fro the erthe, and it hadde two hornes, lijk the lomb; and it spak as the dragoun, 12 and dide al the power of the formere beeste, in his siyt. And it made the erthe, and men dwellinge in it, to worschipe the firste beeste, whos wounde of deth was curid. 13 And it dide grete signes, that also it made fier to come doun fro heuene in to the erthe, in the siyt of alle men. 14 And it disseyueth men, that dwellen in erthe, for signes whiche ben youun `to it to do in the siyt of the beeste; seiynge to men dwellinge in erthe, that thei make an ymage of the beeste, that hath the wounde of swerd, and lyuede. 15 And it was youun to hym, that he schulde yyue spirit to the ymage of the beeste, and that the ymage of the beeste speke. And he schal make, that who euere honouren not the ymage of the beeste, be slayn. 16 And he schal make alle, smale and grete, and riche and pore, and fre men and bonde men, to haue a carecter in her riythoond, ethir in her forheedis; that no man may bie, 17 ethir sille, but thei han the caracter, ether the name of the beeste, ethir the noumbre of his name.
 18 Here is wisdom; he that hath vndurstonding, acounte the noumbre of the beeste; for it is the noumbre of man, and his noumbre is sixe hundrid sixti and sixe.

14 And Y sai, and lo! lomb stood on the mount of Sion, and with hym an hundrid thousynde and foure and fourti thousynde, hauynge his name, and the name of his fadir writun in her forhedis. 2 And Y herde a vois fro heuene, as the vois of many watris, and as the vois of a greet thundur; and the vois which is herd, was as of many harperis harpinge in her harpis. 3 And thei sungun as a newe song bifer the seete of God, and bifer the foure beestis, and senyouris. And no man miyte seie the song, but thei an hundrid thousynde and foure and fourti thousynde, that ben bouyt fro the erthe. 4 These it ben, that ben not defoulid with wymmen; for thei ben virgyns. These suen the lomb, whidir euer he schal go; these ben bouyt of alle men, the firste fruytis to God, and to the lomb; 5 and in the mouth of hem lesyng is not foundun; for thei ben with out wem bifer the trone of God. 6 And Y say another aungel, fliynge bi the myddil of heuene, hauynge an euerlastinge gospel, that he schulde preche to men sittynge on erthe, and on ech folk, and lynage, and langage, and puple; (aiōnios g166) 7 and seide with a greet vois, Drede ye the Lord, and yyue ye to hym onour, for the our of his dom cometh; and worschipe ye hym, that made heuene and erthe, the see, and alle thingis that ben in hem, and the wellis of watris. 8 And anothir aungel suede, seiynge, Thilke greet Babiloyne fel doun, fel doun, which yaf drinke to alle folkis of the wyn of wraththe of her fornyacioun. 9 And the thridde aungel suede hem, and seide with a greet vois, If ony man worschipe the beeste, and the ymage of it, and takith the carecter in his forheed, ether in his hoond, 10 this schal drynke of the wyn of Goddis wraththe, that is meynd with clere wyn in the cuppe of his wraththe, and schal be turmentid with fier and brymston, in the siyt of hooli aungels, and bfore the siyt of the lomb. 11 And the smoke of her turmentis schal stie vp in to the worldis of worldis; nether thei han reste dai and niyt, whiche worschipiden the beeste and his ymage, and yf ony man take the carect of his name. (aiōn g165) 12 Here is the pacience of seyntis, whiche kepen the maundementis of God, and the feith of Jhesu. 13 And Y herde a vois fro heuene, seiyng to me, Write thou, Blessid ben deed men, that dien in the Lord; fro hennus forth now the spirit seith, that thei reste of her traueilis; for the werkis of hem suen hem. 14 And Y say, and lo! a white cloude, and aboue the cloude a sattere, lijk the sone of man, hauynge in his heed a goldun coroun, and in his hond a scharp sikil. 15 And another aungel wente out of the temple, and criede with greet vois to hym that sat on the cloude, Sende thi sikil, and repe, for the our cometh, that it be ropun; for the corn of the erthe is ripe. 16 And he that sat on the cloude, sente his sikil in to the erthe, and rap the erthe. 17 And another aungel wente out of the temple, that is in heuene, and he also hadde a scharp sikile. 18 And another aungel wente out fro the auter, that hadde power on fier and water; and he criede with a greet vois to hym that hadde the scharp sikil, and seide, Sende thi scharp sikil, and kitte awei the clustris of the vynyerd of the erthe, for the grapis of it ben ripe. 19 And the aungel sente his sikil in to the erthe, and gaderide grapis of the vynyerd of the erthe, and sente into the greet lake of Goddis wraththe. 20 And the lake was troddun without the citee, and the blood wente out of the lake til to the `bridels of horsis, bi furlongis a thousynd and six hundrid.

15 And Y say another signe in heuene, greet and wondrousful; seuene aungels hauynge `seuene the laste veniauncis, for the wraththe of God is endid in hem. 2 And Y say as a glasun see meynd with fier, and hem that ouercamen the beeste, and his ymage, and the noumbre of his name, stondynge aboue the glasun see, hauynge the harpis of God; 3 and syngynge the song of Moises, the seruaunt of God, and the song of the lomb, and seiden, Grete and wondrousful ben thi werkis, Lord God almyyti; thi weies ben iust and trewe, Lord, kyng of worldis. 4 Lord, who schal not drede thee, and magnyfie thi name? for thou aloone art merciful; for alle folkis schulen come, and worschipe in thi siyt, for thi domes ben open. 5 And aftir these thingis Y say, and lo! the temple of the tabernacle of witnessyng was opened in heuene; 6 and seuene aungels hauynge seuene plagis, wenten out of the temple, and weren clothid with a stoon clene and white, and weren bifer gird with goldun girdlis about the brestis. 7 And oon of the foure beestis yaf to the seuene aungels seuene goldun viols, ful of the wraththe of God, that lyueth in to worldis of worldis. (aiōn g165) 8 And the temple was fillid with smooke of the majestee of God, and of the vertu of hym; and no man myyte entre in to the temple, til the seuene plagis of seuene angels weren endid.

16 And Y herde a greet vois fro heuene, seiynge to the seuene aungels, Go ye, and schede out the seuene viols of Goddis wraththe in to erthe. 2 And the firste aungel wente, and schedde out his viol in to the erthe; and a wounde fers and werst was maad on alle that hadden the carect of the beeste, and on hem that worschipiden the beeste, and his ymage. 3 And the secounde aungel schedde out his viol in to the see, and the blood was maad, as of a deed thing; and ech man lyuyng was deed in the see. 4 And the thridde aungel schedde out his viol on the floodis, and on the wellis of watris, and seide, 5 Just art thou, Lord, that art, and that were hooli, that demest these thingis; 6 for thei schedden out the blood of halewis and prophetis, and thou hast youun to hem blood to drinke; for thei ben worthi. 7 And I herde anothir seiyng, Yhe! Lord God almiyti, trewe and iust ben thi domes. 8 And the fourthe aungel schedde out his viol in to the sunne, and it was youun to hym to turmente men with heete and fier. 9 And men swaliden with greet heete, and blasfemyden the name of God hauyng power on these plagis, nether thei diden penaunce, that thei schulden yyue glorie to hym. 10 And the fifte aungel schedde out his viol on the seete of the beeste, and his kyngdom was maad derk; and thei eten togidere her tungis for sorewe, 11 and thei blasfemyden God of heuene, for sorewis of her woundis; and thei diden not penaunce of her werkis. 12 And the sixte aungel schedde out his viol in `that ilke greet flood Eufratis, and driede the watir of it, that weie were maad redi to kingis fro the sunne rysyng. 13 And Y say thre vnclene spiritis bi the manner of froggis go out of the mouth of the dragoun, and of the mouth of the beeste, and of the mouth of the fals prophete. 14 For thei ben spiritis of deuels, makynge signes, and thei gon forth to kingis of al erthe, to gadere hem in to batel, to the greet dai of almiyti God. 15 Lo!

 Y come, as a niyt theefe. Blessid is he that wakith, and kepith hise clothis, that he wandre not nakid, and that thei se not the filthhed of hym. 16 And he schal gadre hem in to a place, that is clepid in Ebreu Hermagedon. 17 And the seuenthe aungel schedde out his viol in to the eyr, and a greet vois wente out of heuene fro the trone, and seide, It is don. 18 And leityngis weren maad, and voices, and thundris; and a greet erthe mouyng was maad, which manere neuere was, sithen men weren on erthe, sicke `erthe mouyng so greet. 19 And the greet citee was maad in to thre parties, and the citees of hethene men felden doun; and greet Babiloyne cam in to mynde byfor God, to yyue to it the cuppe of wyn of the indignacyoun of his wraththe. 20 And ech ile flei awei, and hillis ben not foundun. 21 And greet hail as a talent cam doun fro heuene in to men; and men blasfemyden God, for the plage of hail, for it was maad ful greet.

17 And oon of the seuene aungels cam, that hadde seuene viols, and spak with me, and seide, Come thou, Y schal schewe to thee the dampnacioun of the greet hoore, that sittith on many watris, with which kyngis of erthe diden fornicacioun; 2 and thei that dwellen in the erthe ben maad drunkun of the wyn of her letcherie. 3 And he took me in to desert in spirit. And Y say a womman sittynge on a reed beeste, ful of names of blasfemye, hauynge seuene heedis, and ten hornes. 4 And the womman was enuyround with purpur, and reed, and ouergild with gold, and precieuse stoon, and peerls, hauynge a goldun cuppe in hir hoond, ful of abhomynaciouns and vnclennesse of her fornyacioun. 5 And a name writun in the forheed of hir, Myserie, Babiloyne the greet, modir of fornyaciouns, and of abhomynaciouns of erthe. 6 And Y say a womman drunkun of the blood of seyntis, and of the blood of martris of Jhesu. And whanne Y say hir, Y wondride with greet wondryng. 7 And the aungel seide to me, Whi wondrist thou? I schal seie to thee the sacrament yf the womman, and of the beeste that berith hir, that hath seuene heedis and ten hornes. 8 The beeste which thou seist, was, and is not; and sche schal stie fro depnesse, and sche schal go `in to perischung. And men dwellinge in erthe schulen wondre, whos names ben not writun in the book of lijf fro the makinge of the world, seyng the beeste, that was, and is not. (Abyssos g12) 9 And this is the witt, who that hath wisdom.

The seuene heedis ben seuene hillis, on whiche the womman sittith, and kyngis seuene ben. 10 Fyue han feld down, oon is, and anothir cometh not yit. And whanne he schal come, it bihoueth hym to dwelle a schort tyme. 11 And the beeste that was, and is not, and sche is the eiytthe, and is of the seuene, and schal go in to perischyng. 12 And the ten hornes whiche thou hast seyn, ben ten kyngis, that yit han not take kyngdom; but thei schulen take power as kingis, oon our after the beeste. 13 These han a counsel, and schulen bitake her vertu and power to the beeste. 14 These schulen fiyte with the lomb, and the lomb schal ouercome hem; for he is Lord of lordis, and kyng of kyngis; and thei that ben with hym, ben clepid, chosun, and feithful. 15 And he seide to me, The watris whiche thou hast seyn, where the hoore sittith, ben puplis, and folkis, and langagis. 16 And the ten hornes that thou hast seyn in the beeste, these schulen make hir desolat and nakid, and schulen ete the fleischis of hir, and schulen brenne togidere hir with fier. 17 For God yaf in to the hertis of hem, that thei do that that is pleasaunt to hym, that thei yyue her kyngdom to the beeste, til the wordis of God ben endid. 18 And the womman whom thou hast seyn, is the greet citee, that hath kingdom on kyngis of the erthe.

18 And aftir these thingis Y siy another aungel comynge down fro heuene, hauynge greet power; and the erthe was liytnd of his glorie. 2 `And he criede with strong vois, `and seide, Greet Babiloyne felde doun, felde doun, and is maad the habitacioun of deuelis, and the keping of ech vnclene spirit, and `the keping of ech vnclene foul, and hateful. 3 For alle folkis drunkun of the wraththe of fornyacioun of hir, and kingis of the erthe, and marchauntis of the erthe, diden fornyacioun with hir; and thei ben maad riche of the vertu of delices of hir. 4 And Y herde another vois of heuene, seiynge, My puple, go ye out of it, and be ye not parceneris of the trespassis of it, and ye schulen not resseyue of the woundis of it. 5 For the synnes of it camen `til to heuene, and the Lord hadde mynde of the wickidnesse of it. 6 Yelde ye to it, as sche yeldide to you; and double ye double thingis, aftir her werkis; in the drynke that she meddlid to you, mynge ye double to hir. 7 As myche as sche glorifiede hir silf, and was in delicias, so myche turment yyue to hir, and weilyng; for in hir herte sche seith, Y sitte a queen, and Y am not a widewe, and Y schal not se weiling. 8 And therfor in o day hir woundis schulen come, deth, and mornyng, and hungur; and sche schal be brent in fier, for God is strong, that schal deme hir. 9 And the kingis of the erthe schulen biwepe, and biweile hem silf on hir, whiche diden fornicacioun with hir, and lyueden in delicias, whanne thei schulen se the smoke of the brennyng of it; 10 stondynge fer, for drede of the turmentis of it, and seiynge, Wo! wo! wo! thilke greet citee Babiloyne, and thilke stronge citee; for in oon our thi dom cometh. 11 And marchauntis of the erthe schulen wepe on it, and morne, for no man schal bie more the marchaundise of hem; 12 the marchaundies of gold, and of siluer, and of precieuse stoon, and of peerl, and of bies, and of purpur, and of silk, and coctyn, and ech tre tymus, and alle vessels of yuer, and alle vessels of precieuse stoon, and of bras, and of yrun, and of marbil, 13 and canel, and amonye, and of swete smellinge thingis, and oynementis, and encense, and of wyn, and of oyle, and of flour, and of whete, and of werk beestis, and of scheep, and of horsis, and of cartis, and of seruauntis, and other lyues of men. 14 And thin applis of the desire of thi lijf wenten awei fro thee, and alle fatte thingis, and ful clere perischiden fro thee. 15 And marchaundis of these thingis schulen no more fynde tho thingis. Thei that ben maad riche of it, schulen stonde fer, for drede of turmentis of it, wepynge, and mornynge, and seiynge, Wo! 16 wo! thilke greet citee, that was clothid with bijs, and purpur, and reed scarlet, and was ouergild with gold, and precieuse stoon, and margaritis, 17 for in oon our so many richessis ben destitute. And ech gouvernour, and alle that saylen bi schip in to place, and maryneris, and that worchen in the see, stoden fer, 18 and crieden, seyng the place of the brennyng of it, seiynge, What is lijk this greet citee? 19 And thei casten poudre on her heedis, and crieden, wepynge, and mornynge, and seiynge, Wo! wo! thilke greet citee, in which alle that han schippis in the see ben maad riche of pricis of it; for in oon our it is desolat. 20 Heuene, and hooli apostlis, and prophetis, make ye ful out ioie on it, for God hath demed youre dom of it. 21 And o stronge aungel took vp a stoon, as a greet mylne stoon, and keste in to the see, and seide, In this bire thilke greet citee Babiloyne schal be sent, and now it schal no more be foundun. 22 And the vois of harpis, and of men of musik, and syngynge with pipe and trumpe, schal no more be herd in it. And ech crafti man, and ech craft, schal no more be foundun in it.

 And the vois of mylne stoon schal no more be herde in thee, 23 and the liyt of lanterne schal no more schyne to thee, and the vois of the hosebonde and of the wijf schal no more yit be herd in thee; for thi marchauntis weren princis of the erthe. For in thi witchecraftis alle folkis erriden. 24 And the blood of prophetis and seyntis is foundun in it, and of alle men that ben slayn in erthe.

19 Aftir these thingis Y herde as a greet vois of many trumpis in heuene, seiyng, Alleluya; heriyng, and glorie, and vertu is to oure God; 2 for trewe and iust ben the domes of hym, whiche demede of the greet hoore, that defoulide the erthe in her letcherye, and vengide the blood of hise seruauntis, of the hondis of hir. 3 And eft thei seiden, Alleluya. And the smoke of it stieth vp, in to worldis of worldis. (aiōn g165) 4 And the foure and twenti senyouris and foure beestis felden doun, and worschipiden God sittynge on the trone, and seiden, Amen, Alleluya. 5 And a vois wente out of the trone, and seide, Alle the seruauntis of oure God, seie ye heriyngus to oure God, and ye that dreden God, smale and grete. 6 And Y herde a vois of a grete trumpe, as the vois of many watris, and as the vois of grete thundris, seiyng, Alleluya; for oure Lord God almyti hath regned. 7 loye we, and make we myrthe, and yyue glorie to hym; for the weddingis of the lomb camen, and the wijf of hym made redy hir silf. 8 And it is youun to hir, that sche kyure hir with white bissyn schynynge; for whi bissyn is iustifyngis of seyntis. 9 And he seide to me, Write thou, Blessid ben thei that ben clepid to the soper of weddyngis of the lomb. And he seide to me, These wordis of God ben trewe. 10 And Y felde doun bfore hise feet, to worschipe hym. And he seide to me, Se thou, that thou do not; Y am a seruaunt with thee, and of thi britheren, hauynge the witnessyng of Jhesu; worschipe thou God. For the witnessing of Jhesu is spirit of profesie. 11 And Y say heuene openyd, and lo! a whit hors, and he that sat on hym was clepid Feithful and sothefast; and with riytwisnesse he demeth, and fiyth. 12 And the iyen of hym weren as flawme of fier, and in his heed many diademys; and he hadde a name writun, which no man knew, but he. 13 And he was clothid in a cloth spreynt with blood; and the name of hym was clepid The sone of God. 14 And the oostis that ben in heuene, sueden hym on white horsis, clothid with bissyn, white and clene. 15 And a swerd scharp on ech side cam forth of his mouth, that with it he smyte folkis; and he shal reule hem with an yren yerde. And he tredith the pressour of wyn of stronge veniaunce of the wraththe of almyyti God. 16 And he hath writun in his cloth, and in the hemme, Kyng of kyngis and Lord of lordis. 17 And Y say an aungel, stondynge in the sunne; and he criede with greet vois, and seide to alle briddis that flowen bi the myddil of heuene, Come ye, and be ye gaderid to the greet soper of God, 18 that ye ete the fleisch of kingis, and fleisch of tribunes, and fleisch of stronge men, and fleisch of horsis, and of tho that sitten on hem, and the fleisch of alle fre men and bonde men, and of smale and of grete. 19 And Y sai the beeste, and the kyngis of the erthe, and the oostis of hem gaderid, to make batel with hym, that sat on the hors, and with his oost. 20 And the beeste was cauyt, and with hir the false prophete, that made signes bifor hir; in whiche he disseyuede hem that token the carect of the beeste, and that worschipiden the ymage of it. These tweyne weren sent quyke in to the pool of fier, brennyng with brymston. (Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442) 21 And the othere weren slayn of swerd of hym that sat on the hors, that cometh forth of the mouth of hym; and alle briddis weren fillid with the fleisch of hem.

20 And Y say an aungel comynge doun fro heuene, hauynge the keie of depnesse, and a greet chayne in his hoond. (Abyssos g12) 2 And he cauhte the dragoun, the elde serpent, that is the deuel and Sathanas; and he boonde hym bi a thousynde yeeris. 3 And he sente hym `in to depnesse, and closide on hym, that he disseyue no more the folkis, til a thousynde yeeris be fillid. After these thingis it bihoueth hym to be vnboundun a litil tyme. (Abyssos g12) 4 And Y say seetis, and thei saten on hem, and doom was youun to hem. And the soulis of men biheedid for the witnessyng of Jhesu, and for the word of God, and hem that worschipiden not the beeste, nether the ymage of it, nethir token the carect of it in her forheedis, nethir in her hoondis. And thei lyueden, and regneden with Crist a thousynde yeeris. 5 Othere of deed men lyueden not, til a thousynde yeeris ben endid. This is the first ayen risynge. 6 Blessid and hooli is he, that hath part in the firste ayenrissyng. In these men the secunde deth hath not power; but thei schulen be prestis of God, and of Crist, and thei schulen regne with hym a thousynde yeeris. 7 And whanne a thousynde yeeris schulen be endid, Sathanas schal be vnboundun of his prisoun; 8 and he schal go out, and schal disseyue folkis, that ben on foure corners of the erthe, Gog and Magog. And he schal gadere hem in to batel, whos noumbre is as the grauel of the see. 9 And thei stieden vp on the broodnesse of erthe, and enuyrounede the castels of seyntis, and the louyd citee. And fier cam doun `of God fro heuene, and deuourede hem. 10 And the deuel, that disseyuede hem, was sent in to the pool of fier and of brymston, where bothe the beeste and fals prophetis schulen be turmentid dai and niyt, in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165, Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442) 11 And

Y say a greet white trone, and oon sittynge on it, fro whos siyt erthe fled and heuene; and the place is not foundun `of hem. 12 And Y sai deed men, grete and smale, stondynge in the siyt of the trone; and bookis weren opened, and deed men weren demed of these thingis that weren writun in the bookis, aftir the werkis of hem. 13 And the see yaf his deed men, that weren in it; and deth and helle yauen her deed men, that weren in hem. And it was demed of ech, aftir the werkis of hem. (Hadēs g86) 14 And helle and deth weren sent in to a poole of fier. `This is the secunde deth. (Hadēs g86, Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442) 15 And he that was not foundun writun in the book of lijf, was sent in to the pool of fier. (Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442)

Reader's Guide

AionianBible.org/Readers-Guide

The Aionian Bible republishes public domain and Creative Common Bible texts that are 100% free to copy and print. The original translation is unaltered and notes are added to help your study. The notes show the location of eleven special Greek and Hebrew Aionian Glossary words to help us better understand God's love for individuals and for all mankind, and the nature of afterlife destinies.

Who has the authority to interpret the Bible and examine the underlying Hebrew and Greek words? That is a good question! We read in 1 John 2:27, "As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you do not need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you remain in him." Every Christian is qualified to interpret the Bible! Now that does not mean we will all agree. Each of us is still growing in our understanding of the truth. However, it does mean that there is no infallible human or tradition to answer all our questions. Instead the Holy Spirit helps each of us to know the truth and grow closer to God and each other.

The Bible is a library with 66 books in the Protestant Canon. The best way to learn God's word is to read entire books. Read the book of Genesis. Read the book of John. Read the entire Bible library. Topical studies and cross-referencing can be good. However, the safest way to understand context and meaning is to read whole Bible books. Chapter and verse numbers were added for convenience in the 16th century, but unfortunately they can cause the Bible to seem like an encyclopedia. The Aionian Bible is formatted with simple verse numbering, minimal notes, and no cross-referencing in order to encourage the reading of Bible books.

Bible reading must also begin with prayer. Any Christian is qualified to interpret the Bible with God's help. However, this freedom is also a responsibility because without the Holy Spirit we cannot interpret accurately. We read in 1 Corinthians 2:13-14, "And we speak of these things, not with words taught by human wisdom, but with those taught by the Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. Now the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned." So we cannot understand in our natural self, but we can with God's help through prayer.

The Holy Spirit is the best writer and he uses literary devices such as introductions, conclusions, paragraphs, and metaphors. He also writes various genres including historical narrative, prose, and poetry. So Bible study must spiritually discern and understand literature. Pray, read, observe, interpret, and apply. Finally, "Do your best to present yourself approved by God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, properly handling the word of truth." 2 Timothy 2:15. "God has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness; and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ," 2 Peter 1:4-8.

Glossary

AionianBible.org/Glossary

The Aionian Bible un-translates and instead transliterates eleven special words to help us better understand the extent of God's love for individuals and all mankind, and the nature of afterlife destinies. The original translation is unaltered and a note is added to 64 Old Testament and 200 New Testament verses. Compare the meanings below to the Strong's Concordance and Glossary definitions.

Abyssos g12

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 9 times in 3 books, 6 chapters, and 9 verses

Meaning:

Temporary prison for special fallen angels such as Apollyon, the Beast, and Satan.

aīdios g126

Greek: adjective

Usage: 2 times in Romans 1:20 and Jude 6

Meaning:

Lasting, enduring forever, eternal.

aiōn g165

Greek: noun

Meaning:

A lifetime or time period with a beginning and end, an era, an age, the completion of which is beyond human perception, but known only to God the creator of the aiōns, Hebrews 1:2. Never meaning simple endless or infinite chronological time in Greek usage. Read Dr. Heleen Keizer and Ramelli and Konstan for proofs.

aiōnios g166

Meaning:

From start to finish, pertaining to the age, lifetime, entirety, complete, or even consummate. Never meaning simple endless or infinite chronological time in Koine Greek usage. Read Dr. Heleen Keizer and Ramelli and Konstan for proofs.

eleēse g1653

Greek: verb, aorist tense, active voice, subjunctive mood, 3rd person singular

Usage: 1 time in this conjugation, Romans 11:32

Meaning:

To have pity on, to show mercy. Typically, the subjunctive mood indicates possibility, not certainty. However, a subjunctive in a purpose clause is a resulting action as certain as the causal action. The subjunctive in a purpose clause functions as an indicative, not an optative. Thus, the grand conclusion of grace theology in Romans 11:32 must be clarified. God's mercy on all is not a possibility, but a certainty. See ntgreek.org.

Geenna g1067

Meaning:

Valley of Hinnom, Jerusalem's trash dump, a place of ruin, destruction, and judgment in this life, or the next, though not eternal to Jesus' audience.

Hadēs g86

Meaning:

Synonymous with Sheol, though in New Testament usage Hades is the temporal place of punishment for deceased unbelieving mankind, distinct from Paradise for deceased believers.

Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442

Usage: Phrase 5 times in the New Testament

Meaning:

Lake of Fire, final punishment for those not named in the Book of Life, prepared for the Devil and his angels, Matthew 25:41.

Sheol h7585

Hebrew: proper noun, place

Meaning:

The grave or temporal afterlife world of both the righteous and unrighteous, believing and unbelieving, until the general resurrection.

Tartaroō g5020

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 1 time in 2 Peter 2:4

Meaning:

Temporary prison for particular fallen angels awaiting final judgment.

Destiny

AionianBible.org/Destiny

The Aionian Bible shows the location of eleven special Greek and Hebrew Aionian Glossary words to help us better understand God's love for individuals and for all mankind, and the nature of after-life destinies. The underlying Hebrew and Greek words typically translated as Hell show us that there are not just two after-life destinies, Heaven or Hell. Instead, there are a number of different locations, each with different purposes, different durations, and different inhabitants. Locations include 1) Old Testament Sheol and New Testament Hadēs, 2) Geenna, 3) Tartaroō, 4) Abyssos, 5) Limnē Pyr, 6) Paradise, 7) The New Heaven, and 8) The New Earth. So there is reason to review our conclusions about the destinies of redeemed mankind and fallen angels.

The key observation is that fallen angels will be present at the final judgment, 2 Peter 2:4 and Jude 6. Traditionally, we understand the separation of the Sheep and the Goats at the final judgment to divide believing from unbelieving mankind, Matthew 25:31-46 and Revelation 20:11-15. However, the presence of fallen angels alternatively suggests that Jesus is separating redeemed mankind from the fallen angels. We do know that Jesus is the helper of mankind and not the helper of the Devil, Hebrews 2. We also know that Jesus has atoned for the sins of all mankind, both believer and unbeliever alike, 1 John 2:1-2. Deceased believers are rewarded in Paradise, Luke 23:43, while unbelievers are punished in Hades as the story of Lazarus makes plain, Luke 16:19-31. Yet less commonly known, the punishment of this selfish man and all unbelievers is before the final judgment, is temporal, and is punctuated when Hades is evacuated, Revelation 20:13. So is there hope beyond Hades for unbelieving mankind? Jesus promised, "the gates of Hades will not prevail," Matthew 16:18. Paul asks, "Hades where is your victory?" 1 Corinthians 15:55. John wrote, "Hades gives up," Revelation 20:13.

Jesus comforts us saying, "Do not be afraid," because he holds the keys to unlock death and Hades, Revelation 1:18. Yet too often our Good News sounds like a warning to "be afraid" because Jesus holds the keys to lock Hades! Wow, we have it backwards! Hades will be evacuated! And to guarantee hope, once emptied, Hades is thrown into the Lake of Fire, never needed again, Revelation 20:14.

Finally, we read that anyone whose name is not written in the Book of Life is thrown into the Lake of Fire, the second death, with no exit ever mentioned or promised, Revelation 21:1-8. So are those evacuated from Hades then, "out of the frying pan, into the fire?" Certainly, the Lake of Fire is the destiny of the Goats. But, do not be afraid. Instead, read the Bible's explicit mention of the purpose of the Lake of Fire and the identity of the Goats, "Then he will say also to those on the left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the consummate fire which is prepared for... the devil and his angels,'" Matthew 25:41. Bad news for the Devil. Good news for all mankind!

Faith is not a pen to write your own name in the Book of Life. Instead, faith is the glasses to see that the love of Christ for all mankind has already written our names in Heaven. Jesus said, "You did not choose me, but I chose you," John 15:16. Though unbelievers will suffer regrettable punishment in Hades, redeemed mankind will never enter the Lake of Fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. And as God promised, all mankind will worship Christ together forever, Philippians 2:9-11.

Therfor go ye, and teche alle folkis, baptisyng hem in the name of the Fadir, and of the Sone, and of the Hooli Goost; - Matthew 28:19
