Preface

AionianBible.org/Preface

The Holy Bible Aionian Edition ® is the world's first Bible un-translation! What is an untranslation? Bibles are translated into each of our languages from the original Hebrew, Aramaic, and Koine Greek. Occasionally, the best word translation cannot be found and these words are transliterated letter by letter. Four well known transliterations are Christ, baptism, angel, and apostle. The meaning is then preserved more accurately through context and a dictionary. The Aionian Bible un-translates and instead transliterates eleven additional Aionian Glossary words to help us better understand God's love for individuals and all mankind, and the nature of afterlife destinies.

The first three words are $ai\bar{o}n$, $ai\bar{o}nios$, and $a\ddot{i}dios$, typically translated as eternal and also world or eon. The Aionian Bible is named after an alternative spelling of $ai\bar{o}nios$. Consider that researchers question if $ai\bar{o}n$ and $ai\bar{o}nios$ actually mean eternal. Translating $ai\bar{o}n$ as eternal in Matthew 28:20 makes no sense, as all agree. The Greek word for eternal is $a\ddot{i}dios$, used in Romans 1:20 about God and in Jude 6 about demon imprisonment. Yet what about $ai\bar{o}nios$ in John 3:16? Certainly we do not question whether salvation is eternal! However, $ai\bar{o}nios$ means something much more wonderful than infinite time! Ancient Greeks used $ai\bar{o}nios$ to mean eon or age. They also used the adjective $ai\bar{o}nios$ to mean entirety, such as complete or even consummate, but never infinite time. Read Dr. Heleen Keizer and Ramelli and Konstan for proofs. So $ai\bar{o}nios$ is the perfect description of God's Word which has everything we need for life and godliness! And the everything if everything is not simply a ticket to eternal life in the future, but the invitation through faith to the everything if everything now!

The next seven words are Sheol, Hadēs, Geenna, Tartaroō, Abyssos, and Limnē Pyr. These words are often translated as Hell, the place of eternal punishment. However, Hell is ill-defined when compared with the Hebrew and Greek. For example, Sheol is the abode of deceased believers and unbelievers and should never be translated as Hell. Hadēs is a temporary place of punishment, Revelation 20:13-14. Geenna is the Valley of Hinnom, Jerusalem's refuse dump, a temporal judgment for sin. Tartaroō is a prison for demons, mentioned once in 2 Peter 2:4. Abyssos is a temporary prison for the Beast and Satan. Translators are also inconsistent because Hell is used by the King James Version 54 times, the New International Version 14 times, and the World English Bible zero times. Finally, Limnē Pyr is the Lake of Fire, yet Matthew 25:41 explains that these fires are prepared for the Devil and his angels. So there is reason to review our conclusions about the destinies of redeemed mankind and fallen angels.

The eleventh word, eleēsē, reveals the grand conclusion of grace in Romans 11:32. Please understand these eleven words. The original translation is unaltered and a highlighted note is added to 64 Old Testament and 200 New Testament verses. To help parallel study and Strong's Concordance use, apocryphal text is removed and most variant verse numbering is mapped to the English standard. OLD TESTAMENT

Adam and Eve Driven Out of the Garden of Eden

So he drove out the man; and he placed cherubim at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

Genesis 3:24

Genesis

1 In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. 2 The earth was formless and empty. Darkness was on the surface of the deep and God's Spirit was hovering over the surface of the waters. 3 God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. 4 God saw the light, and saw that it was good. God divided the light from the darkness. 5 God called the light "day" and the darkness he called "night". There was evening and there was morning, the first day. 6 God said. "Let there be an expanse in the middle of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." 7 God made the expanse, and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse; and it was so. 8 God called the expanse "sky". There was evening and there was morning, a second day. 9 God said. "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear;" and it was so. 10 God called the dry land "earth", and the gathering together of the waters he called "seas". God saw that it was good. 11 God said, "Let the earth yield grass, herbs yielding seeds, and fruit and everything that creeps on the ground after its kind. God saw that it was good. 26 God said, "Let's make man in our image, after our likeness. Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over the livestock, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." 27 God created man in his own image. In God's image he created him; male and female he created them. 28 God blessed them. God said to them, "Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves on the earth." 29 God said, "Behold, I have given you every herb yielding seed, which is on the surface of all the earth, and every tree, which bears fruit yielding seed. It will be your food. 30 To every animal of the earth, and to every bird of the sky, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food;" and it was so. 31 God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. There was evening and there was morning, a sixth day.

The heavens, the earth, and all their vast array were finished. 2 On the seventh day God finished his work trees bearing fruit after their kind, with their seeds in it, which he had done; and he rested on the seventh day on the earth;" and it was so. 12 The earth yielded grass, from all his work which he had done. 3 God blessed the herbs yielding seed after their kind, and trees bearing seventh day, and made it holy, because he rested in it fruit, with their seeds in it, after their kind; and God saw from all his work of creation which he had done. 4 This that it was good. 13 There was evening and there was is the history of the generations of the heavens and morning, a third day, 14 God said, "Let there be lights in of the earth when they were created, in the day that the expanse of the sky to divide the day from the night; the LORD God made the earth and the heavens. 5 No and let them be for signs to mark seasons, days, and plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no herb of years; 15 and let them be for lights in the expanse of the field had yet sprung up; for the LORD God had not the sky to give light on the earth;" and it was so. 16 God caused it to rain on the earth. There was not a man made the two great lights: the greater light to rule the to till the ground, 6 but a mist went up from the earth, day, and the lesser light to rule the night. He also made and watered the whole surface of the ground. 7 The the stars. 17 God set them in the expanse of the sky to LORD God formed man from the dust of the ground. give light to the earth, 18 and to rule over the day and and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. man became a living soul. 8 The LORD God planted a God saw that it was good. 19 There was evening and garden eastward, in Eden, and there he put the man there was morning, a fourth day. 20 God said, "Let the whom he had formed. 9 Out of the ground the LORD waters abound with living creatures, and let birds fly God made every tree to grow that is pleasant to the above the earth in the open expanse of the sky." 21 sight, and good for food, including the tree of life in the God created the large sea creatures and every living middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed, good and evil. 10 A river went out of Eden to water the after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind. God garden; and from there it was parted, and became the saw that it was good. 22 God blessed them, saying, "Be source of four rivers. 11 The name of the first is Pishon: fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and it flows through the whole land of Havilah, where there let birds multiply on the earth." 23 There was evening is gold; 12 and the gold of that land is good. Bdellium and there was morning, a fifth day. 24 God said, "Let the and onyx stone are also there. 13 The name of the earth produce living creatures after their kind, livestock, second river is Gihon. It is the same river that flows creeping things, and animals of the earth after their through the whole land of Cush. 14 The name of the kind;" and it was so. 25 God made the animals of the third river is Hiddekel. This is the one which flows in earth after their kind, and the livestock after their kind, front of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates. 15

 $oldsymbol{3}$ Now the serpent was more subtle than any animal of the field which the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Has God really said, 'You shall not eat of any tree of the garden'?" 2 The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat fruit from the trees of the garden, 3 but not the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden. God has said, 'You shall not eat of it. You shall not touch it, lest you die." 4 The serpent said to the woman, "You won't really die, 5 for God knows that in the day you eat it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." 6 When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took some of its

Now, lest he reach out his hand, and also take of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever-" 23 Therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken. 24 So he drove out the man; and he placed cherubim at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

⚠ The man knew Eve his wife. She conceived, and gave birth to Cain, and said, "I have gotten a man with the LORD's help." 2 Again she gave birth, to Cain's brother Abel. Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. 3 As time passed, Cain brought an fruit, and ate. Then she gave some to her husband with offering to the LORD from the fruit of the ground. 4 Abel her, and he ate it, too. 7 Their eyes were opened, and also brought some of the firstborn of his flock and of they both knew that they were naked. They sewed fig its fat. The LORD respected Abel and his offering, 5 leaves together, and made coverings for themselves. but he didn't respect Cain and his offering. You shall make rooms in the ship, went into the ship to Noah. 16 Those who went in, went and shall seal it inside and outside with pitch. 15 This is in male and female of all flesh, as God commanded how you shall make it. The length of the ship shall be him; then the LORD shut him in. 17 The flood was forty three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height days on the earth. The waters increased, and lifted up thirty cubits. 16 You shall make a roof in the ship, and the ship, and it was lifted up above the earth. 18 The you shall finish it to a cubit upward. You shall set the waters rose, and increased greatly on the earth; and the door of the ship in its side. You shall make it with lower, ship floated on the surface of the waters. 19 The waters second, and third levels. 17 I, even I, will bring the flood rose very high on the earth. All the high mountains of waters on this earth, to destroy all flesh having the that were under the whole sky were covered. 20 The breath of life from under the sky. Everything that is in waters rose fifteen cubits higher, and the mountains the earth will die. 18 But I will establish my covenant were covered. 21 All flesh died that moved on the earth, with you. You shall come into the ship, you, your sons, including birds, livestock, animals, every creeping thing your wife, and your sons' wives with you. 19 Of every that creeps on the earth, and every man. 22 All on living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every sort the dry land, in whose nostrils was the breath of the into the ship, to keep them alive with you. Only Noah was left, and to keep them alive. 21 Take with you some of all food those who were with him in the ship. 24 The waters

> 8 God remembered Noah, all the animals, and all the livestock that were with him in the ship; and God made a wind to pass over the earth. The waters subsided. 2 The deep's fountains and the sky's windows were also stopped, and the rain from the sky was restrained. 3 The waters continually receded from the earth. After the end of one hundred and fifty days the waters receded. 4 The ship rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on Ararat's mountains. 5 The waters receded continually until the accounting for your life's blood. At the hand of every back and forth, until the waters were dried up from the Be fruitful and multiply. Increase abundantly in the earth, into the ship to him, for the waters were on the surface and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, of the whole earth. Noah removed the covering of the ship, the earth, that the rainbow will be seen in the cloud, Noah, saying, 16 "Go out of the ship, you, your wife, 16 The rainbow will be in the cloud. I will look at it, the LORD, and took of every clean animal, and of every a vineyard. 21 He drank of the wine and got drunk. and winter, and day and night will not cease."

God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, "Be fruitful, multiply, and replenish the earth. 2 The fear of you and the dread of you will be on every animal of the earth, and on every bird of the sky. Everything that moves along the ground, and all the fish of the sea, are delivered into your hand. 3 Every moving thing that lives will be food for you. As I gave you the green herb, I have given everything to you. 4 But flesh with its life, that is, its blood, you shall not eat. 5 I will surely require

"Canaan is cursed. He will be a servant of servants to his brothers." 26 He said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem. Let Canaan be his servant. 27 May God enlarge Japheth. Let him dwell in the tents of Shem. Let Canaan be his servant." 28 Noah lived three hundred and fifty years after the flood. 29 All the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years, and then he died.

 $\mathbf{10}$ Now this is the history of the generations of the sons of Noah and of Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Sons were born to them after the flood. 2 The sons of 11 The whole earth was of one language and of one speech. 2 As they travelled east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they lived there. 3 They said to one another, "Come, let's make bricks, and burn them

Japheth were: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they used tar Meshech, and Tiras. 3 The sons of Gomer were: for mortar. 4 They said, "Come, let's build ourselves a Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah. 4 The sons of Javan city, and a tower whose top reaches to the sky, and let's were: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. 5 Of these make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad were the islands of the nations divided in their lands, on the surface of the whole earth." 5 The LORD came everyone after his language, after their families, in their down to see the city and the tower, which the children nations. 6 The sons of Ham were: Cush, Mizraim, Put, of men built. 6 The LORD said, "Behold, they are one and Canaan. 7 The sons of Cush were: Seba, Havilah, people, and they all have one language, and this is Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah what they begin to do. Now nothing will be withheld were: Sheba and Dedan. 8 Cush became the father of from them, which they intend to do. 7 Come, let's go Nimrod. He began to be a mighty one in the earth. 9 He down, and there confuse their language, that they may was a mighty hunter before the LORD. country, and your relatives, and your father's house, and go to the land that I will show you. 2 I will make of you a great nation. I will bless you and make your name great. You will be a blessing. 3 I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who treats you with contempt. All the families of the earth will be blessed through you." 4 So Abram went, as the LORD had told him. Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. 5 Abram took Sarai his wife, Lot his brother's son, all their possessions that they had gathered, and the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they went to go into the land of Canaan. They entered into the land of Canaan. 6 Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time, Canaanites were in the land. 7 The LORD appeared to Abram and said, "I will give this land to your offspring." He built an altar there to the LORD, who had appeared to him. 8 He left from there his tent, having Bethel on the west, and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the LORD and called on the LORD's name. 9 Abram travelled, still going on towards the South. 10 There was a famine in the land. Abram went down into Egypt to live as a foreigner there, for the famine was severe in the land. 11 When he had come near to enter Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, "See now, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look at. 12 It will happen that when the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' They will kill me, but they will save you alive. 13 Please say that you are my sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that my soul may live because of you." 14 When Abram had come into Egypt, some Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful. 15 The princes of Pharaoh saw her. and praised her to Pharaoh; and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. 16 He dealt well with Abram for her sake. He had sheep, cattle, male donkeys, male servants, female servants, female donkeys, and camels. 17 The LORD afflicted Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. 18 Pharaoh called Abram and said, "What is this that you have done

The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, 19 Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, the daughter her to be my wife? Now therefore, see your wife, take of Haran, who was also the father of Iscah. 30 Sarai her, and go your way." 20 Pharaoh commanded men was barren. She had no child. 31 Terah took Abram his concerning him, and they escorted him away with his 13 Abram went up out of Egypt—he, his wife, all that he had, and Lot with him-into the South. 2 Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold. 3 He went on his journeys from the South as far as 12 Now the LORD said to Abram, "Leave your Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, 4 to the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first. There Abram called on the LORD's name. 5 Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks, herds, and tents. 6 The land was not able to bear them, that they might live together; for their possessions were so great that they couldn't live together. 7 There was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. The Canaanites and the Perizzites lived in the land at that time. 8 Abram said to Lot, "Please, let there be no strife between you and me, and between your herdsmen and my herdsmen; for we are relatives. 9 Isn't the whole land before you? Please separate yourself from me. If you go to the left hand, then I will go to the right. Or if you go to the right hand, then I will go to the left." 10 Lot lifted up his eyes, and saw all the plain of the Jordan, that it was well-watered everywhere, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, like the garden of the to go to the mountain on the east of Bethel and pitched LORD, like the land of Egypt, as you go to Zoar. 11 So Lot chose the Plain of the Jordan for himself. Lot travelled east, and they separated themselves from one another. 12 Abram lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the plain, and moved his tent as far as Sodom. 13 Now the men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinners against the LORD. 14 The LORD said to Abram, after Lot was separated from him, "Now, lift up your eyes, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward, 15 for I will give all the land which you see to you and to your offspring forever. 16 I will make your offspring as the dust of the earth, so that if a man can count the dust of the earth, then your offspring may also be counted. 17 Arise, walk through the land in its length and in its width; for I will give it to you." 18 Abram moved his tent, and came and lived by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and built an altar there to the LORD.

> 14 In the days of Amraphel, king of Shinar; Arioch. king of Ellasar; Chedorlaomer, king of Elam; and Tidal, king of Goiim, 2 they made war with Bera, king of Sodom; Birsha, king of Gomorrah; Shinab, king of Admah; Shemeber, king of Zeboiim; and the king of in the valley of Siddim (also called the Salt Sea). 4 Mamre. Let them take their portion." They served Chedorlaomer for twelve years, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled. 5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him came and struck the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim, 6 and the Horites in their Mount Seir, to El Paran, which is by the wilderness. 7 They returned, and came to En Mishpat (also called Kadesh), and struck all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that lived in Hazazon Tamar. 8 The king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (also called Zoar) went out; and they set the battle in array against them in the valley of Siddim 9 against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of Goiim, Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings against the five. 10 Now the valley of Siddim was full of tar pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and some fell there. Those who remained fled to the hills. 11 They took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their food, and went their way. 12 They took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who lived in Sodom, and his goods, and departed. 13 One who had escaped came and told Abram, the Hebrew. At that time, he lived by the oaks of Mamre, the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner. They were allies of Abram. 14 When Abram heard that his relative was taken captive, he led out his three hundred and eighteen trained men, born in his house, and pursued as far as Dan. 15 He divided himself against them by night, he and his servants, and struck them, and pursued them to Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus. 16 He brought back all the goods, and also brought back his relative Lot and his goods, and the women also, and the other people. 17 The king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, at the valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley). 18 Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was priest of God Most High. 19 He blessed him, and said, "Blessed be Abram of God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth. 20 Blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand." Abram gave him a tenth of all. 21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people, and take the goods for yourself." 22 Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted up my hand to the LORD, God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth, 23 that I will not take a thread nor a sandal strap nor anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich.' 24 I will accept nothing from you except that which the young men have eaten, and the 5 After these things the LORD's word came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Don't be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward." 2 Abram said, "Lord GOD, what will you give me, since I go childless, and he who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" 3 Abram said, "Behold, you have given no children to me: and, behold, one born in my house is my heir." 4 Behold, the LORD's word came to him, saying, "This man will not be your heir, but he who will come out of your own body will be your heir." 5 The LORD brought him outside, and said, "Look now towards the sky, and count the stars, if you are able to count them." He said to Abram, "So your offspring will be." 6 He believed in the LORD, who credited it to him for righteousness. 7 He said to Abram, "I am the LORD who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to inherit it." 8 He said, "Lord GOD, how will I know that I will inherit it?" 9 He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." 10 He brought him all these, and divided them in the middle, and laid each half opposite the other; but he didn't divide the birds. 11 The birds of prey came down on the carcasses, and Abram drove them away. 12 When the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram. Now terror and great darkness fell on him. 13 He said to Abram, "Know for sure that your offspring will live as foreigners in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them. They will afflict them four hundred years. 14 I will also judge that nation, whom they will serve. Afterward they will come out with great wealth; 15 but you will go to your fathers in peace. You will be buried at a good old age. 16 In the fourth generation they will come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet full." 17 It came to pass that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold, a smoking furnace and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. 18 In that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "I have given this land to your offspring, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates: 19 the land of the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, 20 the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, 21 the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

16 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children. She had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar. 2 Sarai said to Abram, "See now, the LORD has restrained me from bearing. Please go in to my servant. It may be that I will obtain children by her." Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. 3 Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her servant, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave their generations, 10 This is my covenant, which you her to Abram her husband to be his wife. 4 He went shall keep, between me and you and your offspring after in to Hagar, and she conceived. When she saw that you. Every male amongst you shall be circumcised. 11 she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin. It gave my servant into your bosom, and when she saw. He who is eight days old shall be circumcised amongst that she had conceived, she despised me. May the you, every male throughout your generations, he who LORD judge between me and you." 6 But Abram said to is born in the house, or bought with money from any Sarai, "Behold, your maid is in your hand. Do to her foreigner who is not of your offspring. 13 He who is born whatever is good in your eyes." Sarai dealt harshly with in your house, and he who is bought with your money, her, and she fled from her face. 7 The LORD's angel must be circumcised. My covenant shall be in your flesh found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by for an everlasting covenant. 14 The uncircumcised male the fountain on the way to Shur. 8 He said, "Hagar, who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that Sarai's servant, where did you come from? Where are soul shall be cut off from his people. He has broken you going?" She said, "I am fleeing from the face of my covenant." 15 God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai my mistress Sarai." 9 The LORD's angel said to her, your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but her "Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her name shall be Sarah. 16 I will bless her, and moreover hands." 10 The LORD's angel said to her, "I will greatly I will give you a son by her. Yes, I will bless her, and multiply your offspring, that they will not be counted for she will be a mother of nations. Kings of peoples will multitude." 11 The LORD's angel said to her, "Behold, come from her." 17 Then Abraham fell on his face, and you are with child, and will bear a son. You shall call laughed, and said in his heart, "Will a child be born to his name Ishmael, because the LORD has heard your him who is one hundred years old? Will Sarah, who is affliction. 12 He will be like a wild donkey amongst ninety years old, give birth?" 18 Abraham said to God, men. His hand will be against every man, and every "Oh that Ishmael might live before you!" 19 God said, man's hand against him. He will live opposed to all of "No, but Sarah, your wife, will bear you a son. You shall his brothers." 13 She called the name of the LORD call his name Isaac. I will establish my covenant with who spoke to her, "You are a God who sees," for she him for an everlasting covenant for his offspring after said, "Have I even stayed alive after seeing him?" 14 him. 20 As for Ishmael, I have heard you. 17 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, "I am God Almighty. Walk before me and be blameless. 2 I will make my covenant between me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly." 3 Abram fell on his face. God talked with him, saying, 4 "As for me, behold, my covenant is with you. You will be the father of a multitude of nations. 5 Your name will no more be called Abram, but your name will be Abraham; for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations. 6 I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you. Kings will come out of you. 7 I will establish my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to you and to your offspring after you. 8 I will give to you, and to your offspring after you, the land where you are travelling, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. I will be their God." 9 God said to Abraham, "As for you, you shall keep my eyes. 5 Sarai said to Abram, "This wrong is your fault. I will be a token of the covenant between me and you. 12 will bear to you at this set time next year." 22 When he finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham. 23 Abraham took Ishmael his son, all who were born in his house, and all who were bought with his money: every male amongst the men of Abraham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the same day, as God had said to him. 24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. 25 Ishmael, his son, was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. 26 In the same day both Abraham and Ishmael, his son, were circumcised. 27 All the men of his house, those born in the house, and those bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

18 The LORD appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day. 2 He lifted up his eves and looked, and saw that three men stood near him. When he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself to the earth, 3 and said, "My lord, if now I have found covenant, you and your offspring after you throughout favour in your sight, please don't go away from your

He stood to the Lord. What if there are twenty found there?" He by them under the tree, and they ate. 9 They asked said, "I will not destroy it for the twenty's sake." 32 He him, "Where is Sarah, your wife?" He said, "There, in said, "Oh don't let the Lord be angry, and I will speak will have a son," Sarah heard in the tent door, which his way as soon as he had finished communing with was behind him. 11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place. well advanced in age. Sarah had passed the age of childbearing. 12 Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "After I have grown old will I have pleasure, my lord being old also?" 13 The LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Will I really bear a child when I am old?' 14 Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the set time I will return to you, when the season comes around, and Sarah will have a son." 15 Then Sarah denied it, saying, "I didn't laugh," for she was afraid. He said, "No, but you did laugh." 16 The men rose up from there, and looked towards Sodom. Abraham went with them to see them on their way. 17 The LORD said. "Will I hide from Abraham what I do, 18 since Abraham will surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed in him? 19 For I have known him, to the end that he may command his children and his household after him, that they may keep the way of the LORD, to do righteousness and justice; to the end that the LORD may bring on Abraham that which he has spoken of him." 20 The LORD said, "Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous, 21 I will go down now, and see whether their deeds are as bad as the reports which have come to me. If not, I will know." 22 The men turned from there, and went towards Sodom, but Abraham stood yet before the LORD. 23 Abraham came near, and said, "Will you consume the righteous with the wicked? 24 What if there are fifty righteous within the city? Will you consume and not spare the place for the fifty righteous who are in it? 25 May it be far from you to do things like that, to kill the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be like the wicked. May that be far from you. Shouldn't the Judge of all the earth do right?" 26 The LORD said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare the whole place for their sake." 27 Abraham answered, "See now,

He said, "I will not do it if I find thirty there." 31 hurried to dress it. 8 He took butter, milk, and the calf He said, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak the tent." 10 He said, "I will certainly return to you at just once more. > 19 The two angels came to Sodom at evening. Lot sat in the gate of Sodom. Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them. He bowed himself with his face to the earth, 2 and he said, "See now, my lords, please come into your servant's house, stay all night, wash your feet, and you can rise up early, and go on your way." They said, "No, but we will stay in the street all night." 3 He urged them greatly, and they came in with him, and entered into his house. He made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. 4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter. 5 They called to Lot, and said to him, "Where are the men who came in to you this night? Bring them out to us, that we may have sex with them." 6 Lot went out to them through the door, and shut the door after himself. 7 He said, "Please, my brothers, don't act so wickedly. 8 See now, I have two virgin daughters. Please let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them what seems good to vou. Only don't do anything to these men, because they have come under the shadow of my roof." 9 They said, "Stand back!" Then they said, "This one fellow came in to live as a foreigner, and he appoints himself a judge. Now we will deal worse with you than with them!" They pressed hard on the man Lot, and came near to break the door. 10 But the men reached out their hand, and brought Lot into the house to them, and shut the door. 11 They struck the men who were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves to find the door. 12 The men said to Lot, "Do you have anybody else here? Sons-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whomever you have in the city, bring them out of the place: 13 for we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown

Get out of this place, for the LORD will destroy night also. The younger went and lay with him. He didn't the city!" But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be joking. know when she lay down, nor when she got up. 36 Thus 15 When the morning came, then the angels hurried Lot, both of Lot's daughters were with child by their father. saving, "Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters 37 The firstborn bore a son, and named him Moab. He is who are here, lest you be consumed in the iniquity of the father of the Moabites to this day. 38 The younger the city." 16 But he lingered; and the men grabbed his also bore a son, and called his name Ben Ammi. He is hand, his wife's hand, and his two daughters' hands, the the father of the children of Ammon to this day. LORD being merciful to him; and they took him out, and set him outside of the city. 17 It came to pass, when they had taken them out, that he said, "Escape for your life! Don't look behind you, and don't stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be consumed!" 18 Lot said to them. "Oh. not so, my lord. 19 See now. your servant has found favour in your sight, and you have magnified your loving kindness, which you have shown to me in saving my life. I can't escape to the mountain, lest evil overtake me, and I die. 20 See now, this city is near to flee to, and it is a little one. Oh let me escape there (isn't it a little one?), and my soul will live." 21 He said to him, "Behold, I have granted your request concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken. 22 Hurry, escape there, for I can't do anything until you get there." Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar. 23 The sun had risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar. 24 Then the LORD rained on Sodom and on Gomorrah sulphur and fire from the LORD out of the sky. 25 He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew on the ground. 26 But Lot's wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt. 27 Abraham went up early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the LORD. 28 He looked towards Sodom and Gomorrah, and towards all the land of the plain, and saw that the smoke of the land went up as the smoke of a furnace. 29 When God destroyed the cities of the plain, God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the middle of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot lived. 30 Lot went up out of Zoar, and lived in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he was afraid to live in Zoar. He lived in a cave with his two daughters. 31 The firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in to us in the way of all the earth. 32 Come, let's make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve our father's family line." 33 They made their father drink wine that night; and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father. He didn't know when she lay down, nor when she arose. 34 It came to pass on the next day, that the firstborn said to the younger, "Behold, I lay last night with my 20 Abraham travelled from there towards the land of the South, and lived between Kadesh and Shur. He lived as a foreigner in Gerar. 2 Abraham said about Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. 3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to him, "Behold, you are a dead man, because of the woman whom you have taken; for she is a man's wife." 4 Now Abimelech had not come near her. He said, "Lord, will you kill even a righteous nation? 5 Didn't he tell me, 'She is my sister'? She, even she herself, said, 'He is my brother.' I have done this in the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands." 6 God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also withheld you from sinning against me. Therefore I didn't allow you to touch her. 7 Now therefore, restore the man's wife. For he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live. If you don't restore her, know for sure that you will die, you, and all who are yours." 8 Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ear. The men were very scared. 9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done!" 10 Abimelech said to Abraham, "What did you see, that you have done this thing?" 11 Abraham said, "Because I thought, 'Surely the fear of God is not in this place. They will kill me for my wife's sake.' 12 Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. 13 When God caused me to wander from my father's house, I said to her, 'This is your kindness which you shall show to me. Everywhere that we go, say of me, "He is my brother."" 14 Abimelech took sheep and cattle, male servants and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and restored Sarah, his wife, to him. 15 Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before you. Dwell where it pleases you." 16 To Sarah he said, "Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver. Behold, it is for you a covering of the eyes to all that are prayed to God. So God healed Abimelech, his wife, and that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, Abimelech, because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

71 The LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did to Sarah as he had spoken. 2 Sarah conceived, and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. 3 Abraham called his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac. 4 Abraham circumcised his son, Isaac, when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. 5 Abraham was one hundred years old when his son, Isaac, was born to him. 6 Sarah said, "God has made me laugh. Everyone who hears will laugh with me." 7 She said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age." 8 The child grew and was weaned. Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. 9 Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking. 10 Therefore she said to Abraham, "Cast out this servant and her son! For the son of this servant will not be heir with my son, Isaac." 11 The thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight on account of his son. 12 God said to Abraham, "Don't let it be grievous in your sight because of the boy, and because of your servant. In all that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice. For your offspring will be named through Isaac. 13 I will also make a nation of the son of the servant, because he is your child." 14 Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a container of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder; and gave her the child, and sent her away. She departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba. 15 The water in the container was spent, and she put the child under one of the shrubs. 16 She went and sat down opposite him, a good way off, about a bow shot away. For she said, "Don't let me see the death of the child." She sat opposite him, and lifted up her voice, and wept. 17 God heard the voice of the boy. The angel of God called to Hagar out of the sky, and said to her, "What troubles you, Hagar? Don't be afraid. For God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. 18 Get up, lift up the boy, and hold him with your hand. For I will make him a great nation." 19 God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went, filled the container with water, and gave the boy a drink. 20 God was with the boy, and he grew. He lived in the wilderness, and as he grew up, he became an archer. 21 He lived in the wilderness of Paran. His mother got a wife for him out of the land of Egypt. 22 At that time, Abimelech and Phicol the captain of his army

But according to the kindness LORD had closed up tight all the wombs of the house of that I have done to you, you shall do to me, and to the land in which you have lived as a foreigner." 24 Abraham said, "I will swear." 25 Abraham complained to Abimelech because of a water well, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. 26 Abimelech said, "I don't know who has done this thing. You didn't tell me, and I didn't hear of it until today." 27 Abraham took sheep and cattle, and gave them to Abimelech. Those two made a covenant. 28 Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. 29 Abimelech said to Abraham, "What do these seven ewe lambs, which you have set by themselves, mean?" 30 He said, "You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand. that it may be a witness to me, that I have dug this well." 31 Therefore he called that place Beersheba, because they both swore an oath there. 32 So they made a covenant at Beersheba. Abimelech rose up with Phicol, the captain of his army, and they returned into the land of the Philistines. 33 Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he called on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God. 34 Abraham lived as a foreigner in the land of the Philistines many days.

22 After these things, God tested Abraham, and said to him, "Abraham!" He said, "Here I am." 2 He said, "Now take your son, your only son, Isaac, whom you love, and go into the land of Moriah. Offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will tell you of." 3 Abraham rose early in the morning, and saddled his donkey; and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. He split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went to the place of which God had told him. 4 On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place far off. 5 Abraham said to his young men. "Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I will go over there. We will worship, and come back to you." 6 Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son. He took in his hand the fire and the knife. They both went together. 7 Isaac spoke to Abraham his father, and said, "My father?" He said, "Here I am, my son." He said, "Here is the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" 8 Abraham said, "God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." So they both went together. 9 They came to the place which God had told him of. Abraham built the altar there, and laid the wood in order, bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar, on the wood. 10 Abraham stretched out his hand, and took the knife to kill his son. 11 The LORD's angel called to him out of the sky, and said, "Abraham, spoke to Abraham, saying, "God is with you in all that Abraham!" He said, "Here I am." 12 He said, "Don't lay Kemuel the father of Aram. 22 Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, possession for a burial place. Jidlaph, and Bethuel." 23 Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother. 24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah. also bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.

23 Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years. This was the length of Sarah's life. 2 Sarah died in Kiriath Arba (also called Hebron), in the land of Canaan. Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her. 3 Abraham rose up from before his dead and spoke to the children of Heth, saying, 4 "I am a stranger and a foreigner living with you. Give me a possession of a burying-place with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight." 5 The children of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him, 6 "Hear us, my lord. You are a prince of God amongst us. Bury your dead in the best of our tombs. None of us will withhold from you his tomb. Bury your dead." 7 Abraham rose up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, to the children of Heth. 8 He talked with them, saying, "If you agree that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar, 9 that he may sell me the cave of Machpelah, which he has, which is in the end of his field. For the full price let him sell it to me amongst you as a possession for a burial place." 10 Now Ephron was sitting in the middle of the children of Heth. Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the children of Heth, even of all who went in at the gate of his city, saying, 11 "No, my lord, hear me. I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it.

Abraham this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the lived at Beersheba. 20 After these things, Abraham was field of Machpelah before Mamre (that is, Hebron), in told, "Behold, Milcah, she also has borne children to the land of Canaan. 20 The field, and the cave that is in your brother Nahor: 21 Uz his firstborn, Buz his brother, it, were deeded to Abraham by the children of Heth as a > 24 Abraham was old, and well advanced in age. The LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. 2 Abraham said to his servant, the elder of his house, who ruled over all that he had, "Please put your hand under my thigh. 3 I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you shall not take a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, amongst whom I live. 4 But you shall go to my country, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac." 5 The servant said to him, "What if the woman isn't willing to follow me to this land? Must I bring your son again to the land you came from?" 6 Abraham said to him, "Beware that you don't bring my son there again. 7 The LORD, the God of heaven-who took me from my father's house, and from the land of my birth, who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saving, 'I will give this land to your offspring—he will send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. 8 If the woman isn't willing to follow you, then you shall be clear from this oath to me. Only you shall not bring my son there again." 9 The servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter. 10 The servant took ten of his master's camels, and departed, having a variety of good things of his master's with him. He arose, and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor. 11 He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at the time of evening, the time that women go out to draw water. 12 He said. "LORD, the God of my the feet of the men who were with him. 33 Food was master Abraham, please give me success today, and set before him to eat, but he said, "I will not eat until I show kindness to my master Abraham. 13 Behold, I am have told my message." The sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim. 4 The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah. 5 Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac, 6 but Abraham gave gifts to the sons of Abraham's concubines. While he still lived, he sent them away from Isaac his son, eastward, to the east country. 7 These are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived: one hundred and seventy-five years. 8 Abraham gave up his spirit, and died at a good old age, an old man, and full of years, and was gathered to his people. 9 Isaac and Ishmael, his sons, buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron, Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them. 27 The boys grew. Esau was a skilful hunter, a man of the field. Jacob was a quiet man, living in tents. 28 Now Isaac loved Esau, because he ate his venison. Rebekah loved Jacob. 29 Jacob boiled stew. Esau came in from the field, and he was famished. 30 Esau said to Jacob, "Please feed me with some of that red stew, for I am famished." Therefore his name was called Edom. 31 Jacob said, "First, sell me your birthright." 32 Esau said, "Behold, I am about to die. What good is the birthright to me?" 33 Jacob said, "Swear to me first." He swore to him. He sold his birthright to Jacob. 34 Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew. He ate and drank, rose up, and went his way. So Esau despised his birthright.

Isaac sent them away, and they departed from Abimelech called Isaac, and said, "Behold, surely she is him in peace. 32 The same day, Isaac's servants came, your wife. Why did you say, 'She is my sister'?" Isaac and told him concerning the well which they had dug, said to him, "Because I said, 'Lest I die because of her." and said to him, "We have found water." 33 He called it 10 Abimelech said. The LORD blessed him. 13 The man grew great, and grew more and more until he became very great. 14 He had possessions of flocks, possessions of herds, and a great household. The Philistines envied him. 15 Now all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped, and filled with earth. 16 Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we." 17 Isaac departed from there, encamped in the valley of Gerar, and lived there. 18 Isaac dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham. He called their names after the names by which his father had called them. 19 Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of flowing water. 20 The herdsmen of Gerar argued with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." So he called the name of the well Esek, because they contended with him. 21 They dug another well, and they argued over that, also. So he called its name Sitnah. 22 He left that place, and dug another well. They didn't argue over that one. So he called it Rehoboth, He said, "For now the LORD has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land." 23 He went up from there to Beersheba. 24 The LORD appeared to him the same night, and said, "I am the God of Abraham your father. Don't be afraid, for I am with you, and will bless you, and multiply your offspring for my servant Abraham's sake." 25 He built an altar there, and called on the LORD's name, and pitched his tent there. There Isaac's servants dug a well. 26 Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar with Ahuzzath his friend, and Phicol the 27 When Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his elder son, and said to him, "My son?" He said to him, "Here I am." 2 He said, "See now, I am old. I don't know the day of my death. 3 Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and get me venison. 4 Make me savoury food, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat, and that my soul may bless you before I die." 5 Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it. 6 Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saving, "Behold, I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying, 7 'Bring me venison, and make me savoury food, that I may eat, and bless you before the LORD before my death.' 8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command you. 9 Go now to the flock and get me two good young goats from there. I will make them savoury food for your father, such as he loves. 10 You shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, so that he may bless you before his death." 11 Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man. 12 What if my father touches me? I will seem to him as a deceiver, and I would bring a curse on myself, and not a blessing." 13 His mother said to him, "Let your curse be on me, my son. Only obey my voice, and go get them for me." 14 He went, and got them, and brought them to his mother. His mother made savoury food, such as his father loved. 15 Rebekah took the good clothes of Esau, her elder son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob, her younger son. 16 She put the skins of the young goats on his hands, and on the smooth of his

Be lord over your brothers. Let your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you. Blessed be everyone who blesses you." 30 As soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had just gone out from the presence of Isaac his father. Esau his brother came in from his hunting. 31 He also made savoury food, and brought it to his father. He said to his father, "Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that your soul may bless me." 32 Isaac his father said to him, "Who are you?" He said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau." 33 Isaac trembled violently, and said, "Who, then, is he who has taken venison, and brought it to me, and I have eaten of all before you came, and have blessed him? Yes, he will be blessed." 34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father. "Bless me, even me also, my father." 35 He said, "Your brother came with deceit, and has taken away your blessing." 36 He said, "Isn't he rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright. See, now he has taken away my blessing." He said, "Haven't you reserved a blessing for me?" 37 Isaac answered Esau, "Behold, I have made him your lord, and all his brothers I have given to him for servants. I have sustained him with grain and new wine. What then will I do for you,

28 Isaac called Jacob, blessed him, and commanded him, "You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan, 2 Arise, go to Paddan Aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother's father. Take a wife from there from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother. 3 May God Almighty bless you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, that you may be a company of peoples, 4 and give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your offspring with you, that you may inherit the land where you travel, which God gave to Abraham." 5 Isaac sent Jacob away. He went to Paddan Aram to Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother. 6 Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan Aram. to take him a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a command, saying, "You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan;" 7 and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Paddan Aram. 8 Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan didn't please Isaac, his father, 9 So Esau went to Ishmael, and took, in addition to the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife. 10 Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went towards Haran. 11 He came to a certain place, and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. He took one of the stones of the place. and put it under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep. 12 He dreamt and saw a stairway set upon

29 Then Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the children of the east. 2 He looked, and saw a well in the field, and saw three flocks of sheep lying there by it. For out of that well they watered the flocks. The stone on the well's mouth was large. 3 There all the flocks were gathered. They rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone back on the well's mouth in its place. 4 Jacob said to them, "My relatives, where are you from?" They said, "We are from Haran." 5 He said to them, "Do you know Laban, the son of Nahor?" They said, "We know him." 6 He said to them, "Is it well with him?" They said, "It is well. See, Rachel, his daughter, is coming with the sheep." 7 He said, "Behold, it is still the middle of the day, not time to gather the livestock together. Water the sheep, and go and feed them." 8 They said, "We can't, until all the flocks are gathered together, and they roll the stone from the well's mouth. Then we will water the sheep." 9 While he was yet speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she kept them. 10 When Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban, his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban, his mother's brother, Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother. 11 Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up

This is none other than God's younger daughter." 19 Laban said, "It is better that I give house, and this is the gate of heaven." 18 Jacob rose up her to you, than that I should give her to another man. early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put Stay with me." 20 Jacob served seven years for Rachel. under his head, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil They seemed to him but a few days, for the love he had on its top. 19 He called the name of that place Bethel, for her. 21 Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for but the name of the city was Luz at the first. 20 Jacob my days are fulfilled, that I may go in to her." 22 Laban vowed a vow, saying, "If God will be with me, and will gathered together all the men of the place, and made a keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to feast. 23 In the evening, he took Leah his daughter, and eat, and clothing to put on, 21 so that I come again to brought her to Jacob. He went in to her. 24 Laban gave my father's house in peace, and the LORD will be my Zilpah his servant to his daughter Leah for a servant. 25 God, 22 then this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, In the morning, behold, it was Leah! He said to Laban, will be God's house. Of all that you will give me I will "What is this you have done to me? Didn't I serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?" 26 Laban said, "It is not done so in our place, to give the younger before the firstborn. 27 Fulfil the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you will serve with me for seven more years." 28 Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week. He gave him Rachel his daughter as wife. 29 Laban gave Bilhah, his servant, to his daughter Rachel to be her servant. 30 He went in also to Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him seven more years. 31 The LORD saw that Leah was hated, and he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren. 32 Leah conceived, and bore a son, and she named him Reuben. For she said, "Because the LORD has looked at my affliction; for now my husband will love me." 33 She conceived again. and bore a son, and said, "Because the LORD has heard that I am hated, he has therefore given me this son also." She named him Simeon. 34 She conceived again, and bore a son. She said, "Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons." Therefore his name was called Levi. 35 She conceived again, and bore a son. She said, "This time I will praise the LORD." Therefore she named him Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

Would almond, and plane tree, peeled white streaks in them, you take away my son's mandrakes, also?" Rachel and made the white appear which was in the rods. 38 said, "Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your He set the rods which he had peeled opposite the flocks son's mandrakes." 16 Jacob came from the field in the in the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink. evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, "You They conceived when they came to drink. 39 The flocks must come in to me; for I have surely hired you with my conceived before the rods, and the flocks produced son's mandrakes." He lay with her that night. 17 God streaked, speckled, and spotted. 40 Jacob separated listened to Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob a the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks towards the fifth son. 18 Leah said, "God has given me my hire, streaked and all the black in Laban's flock. He put his because I gave my servant to my husband." She named own droves apart, and didn't put them into Laban's him Issachar. 19 Leah conceived again, and bore a flock. 41 Whenever the stronger of the flock conceived, sixth son to Jacob. 20 Leah said, "God has endowed Jacob laid the rods in front of the eyes of the flock in the me with a good dowry. Now my husband will live with watering troughs, that they might conceive amongst the me, because I have borne him six sons." She named rods: 42 but when the flock were feeble, he didn't put him Zebulun. 21 Afterwards, she bore a daughter, and them in. So the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger named her Dinah. 22 God remembered Rachel, and Jacob's. 43 The man increased exceedingly, and had God listened to her, and opened her womb. 23 She large flocks, female servants and male servants, and conceived, bore a son, and said, "God has taken away camels and donkeys, my reproach." 24 She named him Joseph, saying, "May the LORD add another son to me." 25 When Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Send me away, that I may go to my own place, and to my country. 26 Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service with which I have served you." 27 Laban said to him, "If now I have found favour in your eyes, stay here, for I have divined that the LORD has blessed me for your sake." 28 He said, "Appoint me your wages, and I will give it." 29 Jacob said to him, "You know how I have Set it here before my relatives and your relatives, and has also used up our money. 16 For all the riches that they may judge between us two. 38 "These twenty which God has taken away from our father are ours years I have been with you. Your ewes and your female and our children's. Now then, whatever God has said goats have not cast their young, and I haven't eaten the to you, do." 17 Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons rams of your flocks. 39 That which was torn of animals, and his wives on the camels, 18 and he took away I didn't bring to you. I bore its loss. Of my hand you all his livestock, and all his possessions which he had required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night. 40 gathered, including the livestock which he had gained in This was my situation: in the day the drought consumed Paddan Aram, to go to Isaac his father, to the land of me, and the frost by night; and my sleep fled from my Canaan. 19 Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep; eyes. 41 These twenty years I have been in your house. and Rachel stole the teraphim that were her father's. 20 I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, Jacob deceived Laban the Syrian, in that he didn't tell and six years for your flock, and you have changed my him that he was running away. 21 So he fled with all wages ten times. 42 Unless the God of my father, the that he had. He rose up, passed over the River, and set God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with his face towards the mountain of Gilead. 22 Laban was me, surely now you would have sent me away empty. told on the third day that Jacob had fled. 23 He took God has seen my affliction and the labour of my hands, his relatives with him, and pursued him seven days' and rebuked you last night." 43 Laban answered Jacob, journey. He overtook him in the mountain of Gilead. 24 "The daughters are my daughters, the children are my God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream of the night, children, the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is and said to him, "Be careful that you don't speak to mine! What can I do today to these my daughters, or to Jacob either good or bad." 25 Laban caught up with their children whom they have borne? 44 Now come, Jacob, Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountain. let's make a covenant, you and I. Let it be for a witness and Laban with his relatives encamped in the mountain between me and you." 45 Jacob took a stone, and set it of Gilead. 26 Laban said to Jacob, "What have you up for a pillar. 46 Jacob said to his relatives, "Gather done, that you have deceived me, and carried away my stones." They took stones, and made a heap. They ate daughters like captives of the sword? 27 Why did you there by the heap. 47 Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, flee secretly, and deceive me, and didn't tell me, that I but Jacob called it Galeed. 48 Laban said, "This heap is might have sent you away with mirth and with songs, witness between me and you today." Therefore it was with tambourine and with harp; 28 and didn't allow me named Galeed 49 and Mizpah, for he said, "The LORD to kiss my sons and my daughters? Now you have done watch between me and you, when we are absent one foolishly. 29 It is in the power of my hand to hurt you, but from another. 50 If you afflict my daughters, or if you the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, take wives in addition to my daughters, no man is with

Your father has deceived me, and changed my wages longed for your father's house, but why have you stolen 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am.' 12 He said, 'Now lift the teraphim, put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on 'Be careful that you don't speak to Jacob either good or us; behold, God is witness between me and you." 51 returned to his place.

32 Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. 2 When he saw them, Jacob said, "This is God's army." He called the name of that place Mahanaim. 3 Jacob sent messengers in front of him to Esau, his brother, to the land of Seir, the field of Edom. 4 He commanded them, saying, "This is what you shall tell my lord, Esau: 'This is what your servant, Jacob, says. I have lived as a foreigner with Laban, and stayed until now. 5 I have cattle, donkeys, flocks, male servants, and female servants. I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find favour in your sight." 6 The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We came to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him." 7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and was distressed. He divided the people who were with him, along with the flocks, the herds, and the camels, into two companies. 8 He said, "If Esau comes to the one company, and strikes it, then the company which is left will escape." 9 Jacob said, "God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD, who said to me, 'Return to your country, and to your relatives, and I will do you good,' 10 I am not worthy of the least of all the loving kindnesses, and of all the truth, which you have shown to your servant; for with just my staff I crossed over this Jordan; and now I have become two companies. 11 Please deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, lest he come and strike me and the mothers with the children. 12 You said, 'I will surely do you good, and make your herd." 17 He commanded the foremost, saying, "When Laban said to Jacob, "See this heap, and see the pillar. Esau, my brother, meets you, and asks you, saying, which I have set between me and you. 52 May this heap 'Whose are you? Where are you going? Whose are be a witness, and the pillar be a witness, that I will not these before you?' 18 Then you shall say, 'They are pass over this heap to you, and that you will not pass your servant, Jacob's. It is a present sent to my lord, over this heap and this pillar to me, for harm. 53 The Esau. Behold, he also is behind us." 19 He commanded God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their also the second, and the third, and all that followed the father, judge between us." Then Jacob swore by the herds, saying, "This is how you shall speak to Esau, fear of his father, Isaac. 54 Jacob offered a sacrifice in when you find him. 20 You shall say, 'Not only that, but the mountain, and called his relatives to eat bread. They behold, your servant, Jacob, is behind us." For, he said, ate bread, and stayed all night in the mountain. 55 Early "I will appease him with the present that goes before in the morning, Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and me, and afterward I will see his face. Perhaps he will his daughters, and blessed them. Laban departed and accept me." 21 So the present passed over before him, and he himself stayed that night in the camp. 22 He rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two servants, and his eleven sons, and crossed over the ford of the Jabbok. 23 He took them, and sent them over the stream, and sent over that which he had. 24 Jacob was left alone, and wrestled with a man there until the breaking of the day. 25 When he saw that he didn't prevail against him, the man touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was strained as he wrestled. 26 The man said, "Let me go, for the day breaks." Jacob said, "I won't let you go unless you bless me." 27 He said to him, "What is your name?" He said, "Jacob". 28 He said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have fought with God and with men, and have prevailed." 29 Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." He said, "Why is it that you ask what my name is?" So he blessed him there. 30 Jacob called the name of the place Peniel; for he said, "I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved." 31 The sun rose on him as he passed over Peniel, and he limped because of his thigh. 32 Therefore the children of Israel don't eat the sinew of the hip, which is on the hollow of the thigh, to this day, because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew of the hip.

33 Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau was coming, and with him four hundred men. He divided the children between Leah, Rachel, and the two servants. 2 He put the servants and their children in front, Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph at the rear. 3 He himself passed over in front of offspring as the sand of the sea, which can't be counted them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, because there are so many." 13 He stayed there that until he came near to his brother. 4 Esau ran to meet night, and took from that which he had with him a him, embraced him, fell on his neck, kissed him, and present for Esau, his brother: 14 two hundred female they wept. 5 He lifted up his eyes, and saw the women goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and and the children; and said, "Who are these with you?" twenty rams, 15 thirty milk camels and their colts, forty He said, "The children whom God has graciously given cows, ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals. your servant." 6 Then the servants came near with their 16 He delivered them into the hands of his servants, children, and they bowed themselves. 7 Leah also and every herd by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass her children came near, and bowed themselves. After over before me, and put a space between herd and them, Joseph came near with Rachel, and they bowed themselves, 8 Esau said, "What do you mean by all this get possessions in it." 11 Shechem said to her father there, and called it El Elohe Israel.

34 Dinah, the daughter of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land. 2 Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her. He took her, lay with her, and humbled her. 3 His soul joined to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the young lady, and spoke kindly to the young lady. 4 Shechem spoke to his father, Hamor, saying, "Get me this young lady as a wife." 5 Now Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah, his daughter; and his sons were with his livestock in the field. Jacob held his peace until they came. 6 Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to talk with him. 7 The sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it. The men were grieved, and they were very angry, because he had done folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter, a thing that ought not to be done. 8 Hamor talked with them, saying, "The soul of my son, Shechem, longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife. 9 Make marriages with us. Give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves. 10 You shall dwell with us, and the land will be before you. Live and trade in it, and company which I met?" Jacob said, "To find favour in and to her brothers, "Let me find favour in your eyes, the sight of my lord." 9 Esau said, "I have enough, my and whatever you will tell me I will give. 12 Ask me a brother; let that which you have be yours." 10 Jacob great amount for a dowry, and I will give whatever you said, "Please, no, if I have now found favour in your ask of me, but give me the young lady as a wife." 13 The sight, then receive my present at my hand, because sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father I have seen your face, as one sees the face of God, with deceit when they spoke, because he had defiled and you were pleased with me. 11 Please take the gift Dinah their sister, 14 and said to them, "We can't do this that I brought to you, because God has dealt graciously thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised; with me, and because I have enough." He urged him, for that is a reproach to us. 15 Only on this condition and he took it. 12 Esau said, "Let's take our journey, will we consent to you. If you will be as we are, that and let's go, and I will go before you." 13 Jacob said to every male of you be circumcised, 16 then will we give him, "My lord knows that the children are tender, and our daughters to you; and we will take your daughters that the flocks and herds with me have their young, to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become and if they overdrive them one day, all the flocks will one people. 17 But if you will not listen to us and be die. 14 Please let my lord pass over before his servant, circumcised, then we will take our sister, and we will be and I will lead on gently, according to the pace of the gone." 18 Their words pleased Hamor and Shechem, livestock that are before me and according to the pace Hamor's son. 19 The young man didn't wait to do this of the children, until I come to my lord to Seir." 15 Esau thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter, and said, "Let me now leave with you some of the people he was honoured above all the house of his father. 20 who are with me." He said, "Why? Let me find favour Hamor and Shechem, his son, came to the gate of their in the sight of my lord." 16 So Esau returned that day city, and talked with the men of their city, saying, 21 on his way to Seir. 17 Jacob travelled to Succoth, built "These men are peaceful with us. Therefore let them himself a house, and made shelters for his livestock. live in the land and trade in it. For behold, the land is Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth. 18 large enough for them. Let's take their daughters to us Jacob came in peace to the city of Shechem, which for wives, and let's give them our daughters. 22 Only on is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Paddan this condition will the men consent to us to live with Aram; and encamped before the city. 19 He bought the us, to become one people, if every male amongst us is parcel of ground where he had spread his tent, at the circumcised, as they are circumcised. 23 Won't their hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for livestock and their possessions and all their animals be one hundred pieces of money. 20 He erected an altar ours? Only let's give our consent to them, and they will dwell with us." 24 All who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor, and to Shechem his son; and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city. 25 On the third day, when they were sore, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword, came upon the unsuspecting city, and killed all the males. 26 They killed Hamor and Shechem, his son, with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went away. 27 Jacob's sons came on the dead, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. 28 They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, that which was in the city, that which was in the field. 29 and all their wealth. They took captive all their little ones and their wives, and took as plunder everything that was in the house. 30 Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have troubled me, to make me odious to the inhabitants of the land, amongst the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number. They will gather themselves together against me and strike me, and I will be destroyed, I and my house." 31 They said, "Should he deal with our sister as with a prostitute?"

to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother." to Mamre, to Kiriath Arba (which is Hebron), where 2 Then Jacob said to his household, and to all who were Abraham and Isaac lived as foreigners. 28 The days with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are amongst of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years. 29 Isaac you, purify yourselves, and change your garments. 3 gave up the spirit and died, and was gathered to his Let's arise, and go up to Bethel, I will make there an altar people, old and full of days, Esau and Jacob, his sons, to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and buried him. was with me on the way which I went." 4 They gave to Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their hands, and the rings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem. 5 They travelled, and a terror of God was on the cities that were around them, and they didn't pursue the sons of Jacob. 6 So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him. 7 He built an altar there, and called the place El Beth El: because there God was revealed to him. when he fled from the face of his brother. 8 Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the oak; and its name was called Allon Bacuth. 9 God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Paddan Aram, and blessed him. 10 God said to him, "Your name is Jacob. Your name shall not be Jacob any more, but your name will be Israel." He named him Israel. 11 God said to him, "I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations will be from you. and kings will come out of your body. 12 The land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give it to you, and to your offspring after you I will give the land." 13 God went up from him in the place where he spoke with him. 14 Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he spoke with him, a pillar of stone. He poured out a drink offering on it, and poured oil on it. 15 Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him "Bethel". 16 They travelled from Bethel. There was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and Rachel travailed. She had hard labour. 17 When she was in hard labour, the midwife said to her, "Don't be afraid, for now you will have another son." 18 As her soul was departing (for she died), she named him Benoni, but his father named him Benjamin, 19 Rachel died, and was burjed on the way to Ephrath (also called Bethlehem). 20 Jacob set up a pillar on her grave. The same is the Pillar of Rachel's grave to this day. 21 Israel travelled, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Eder. 22 While Israel lived in that land, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah, his father's concubine, and Israel heard of it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve. 23 The sons of Leah: Reuben (Jacob's firstborn), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun, 24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin. 25 The sons of Bilhah (Rachel's servant): Dan and Naphtali. 26 The sons of Zilpah (Leah's servant): Gad and Asher.

35 God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and live These are the sons of Jacob, who were born to him there. Make there an altar to God, who appeared in Paddan Aram. 27 Jacob came to Isaac his father,

> 36 Now this is the history of the generations of Esau (that is, Edom). 2 Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon, the Hittite; and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, the Hivite; 3 and Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebaioth. 4 Adah bore to Esau Eliphaz, Basemath bore Reuel, 5 Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These are the sons of Esau, who were born to him in the land of Canaan. 6 Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the members of his household, with his livestock, all his animals, and all his possessions, which he had gathered in the land of Canaan, and went into a land away from his brother Jacob. 7 For their substance was too great for them to dwell together, and the land of their travels couldn't bear them because of their livestock. 8 Esau lived in the hill country of Seir. Esau is Edom. 9 This is the history of the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir: 10 these are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Adah, the wife of Esau; and Reuel, the son of Basemath, the wife of Esau. 11 The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz. 12 Timna was concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son; and she bore to Eliphaz Amalek. 37 Jacob lived in the land of his father's travels, in deliver him out of their hand, to restore him to his father. the land of Canaan. 2 This is the history of the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. He was a boy with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives. Joseph brought an evil report of them to their father. 3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age, and he made him a tunic of many colours. 4 His brothers saw him. Joseph is without doubt torn in pieces." 34 Jacob young goat by the hand of his friend, the Adullamite, mourned for his son many days. 35 All his sons and all didn't find her. 21 Then he asked the men of her place, my son, mourning." His father wept for him. (Sheol h7585) officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard.

38 At that time, Judah went down from his brothers, and visited a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. 2 There, Judah saw the daughter of a certain Canaanite man named Shua. He took her, and went in to her. 3 She conceived, and bore a son; and he named him Er. 4 She conceived again, and bore a son; and she named him Onan. 5 She yet again bore a son, and named him Shelah. He was at Chezib when she bore him. 6 Judah took a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. 7 Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the LORD's sight. So the LORD killed him. 8 Judah said to Onan, "Go in to your brother's wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her, and raise up offspring for your brother." 9 Onan knew that the offspring wouldn't be his; and when he went in to his brother's wife, he spilled his semen on the ground, lest he should give offspring to his brother. 10 The thing which he did was evil in the LORD's sight, and he killed him also. 11 Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughterin-law. "Remain a widow in your father's house, until Shelah, my son, is grown up;" for he said, "Lest he also die, like his brothers." Tamar went and lived in her father's house. 12 After many days, Shua's daughter, the wife of Judah, died. Judah was comforted, and went up to his sheep shearers to Timnah, he and his friend Hirah, the Adullamite. 13 Tamar was told, "Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep." 14 She took off the garments of her widowhood, and to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother covered herself with her veil, and wrapped herself, and and conceal his blood? 27 Come, and let's sell him to sat in the gate of Enaim, which is on the way to Timnah; the Ishmaelites, and not let our hand be on him; for for she saw that Shelah was grown up, and she wasn't he is our brother, our flesh." His brothers listened to given to him as a wife. 15 When Judah saw her, he him. 28 Midianites who were merchants passed by, and thought that she was a prostitute, for she had covered they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold her face. 16 He turned to her by the way, and said, Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. "Please come, let me come in to you," for he didn't The merchants brought Joseph into Egypt. 29 Reuben know that she was his daughter-in-law. She said, "What returned to the pit, and saw that Joseph wasn't in the pit; will you give me, that you may come in to me?" 17 and he tore his clothes. 30 He returned to his brothers, He said, "I will send you a young goat from the flock." and said, "The child is no more; and I, where will I go?" She said, "Will you give me a pledge, until you send 31 They took Joseph's tunic, and killed a male goat, and it?" 18 He said, "What pledge will I give you?" She dipped the tunic in the blood. 32 They took the tunic of said, "Your signet and your cord, and your staff that many colours, and they brought it to their father, and is in your hand." He gave them to her, and came in said, "We have found this. Examine it, now, and see if to her, and she conceived by him. 19 She arose, and it is your son's tunic or not." 33 He recognised it, and went away, and put off her veil from her, and put on said, "It is my son's tunic. An evil animal has devoured the garments of her widowhood. 20 Judah sent the tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his waist, and to receive the pledge from the woman's hand, but he his daughters rose up to comfort him, but he refused to saying, "Where is the prostitute, that was at Enaim by be comforted. He said, "For I will go down to Sheol to the road?" They said, "There has been no prostitute here." 22 He returned to Judah, and said, "I haven't 36 The Midianites sold him into Egypt to Potiphar, an found her; and also the men of the place said, 'There has been no prostitute here." 23 Judah said, "Let her keep it, lest we be shamed. Behold, I sent this young goat, and you haven't found her." 24 About three months later, Judah was told, "Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has played the prostitute. Moreover, behold, she is with child by prostitution." Judah said, "Bring her out, and let her be burnt." 25 When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, "I am with child by the man who owns these." She also said, "Please discern whose these are-the signet, and the cords, and the staff." 26 Judah acknowledged them, and said, "She is more righteous than I, because I didn't give her to Shelah, my son." He knew her again no more. 27 In the time of her travail, behold, twins were in her womb. 28 When she travailed, one put out a hand, and the midwife took and tied a scarlet thread on his hand, saying, "This came out first." 29 As he drew back his hand, behold, his brother came out, and she said, "Why have you made a breach for yourself?" Therefore his name was called Perez. 30 Afterward his brother came out, who had the scarlet thread on his hand, and his name was called Zerah.

> 39 Joseph was brought down to Egypt. Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the hand of the Ishmaelites that had brought him down there. 2 The LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man. He was in the house of his master the Egyptian. 3 His master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did prosper in his hand. 4 Joseph found favour in overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound. 4 The his hand. 5 From the time that he made him overseer in captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he his house, and over all that he had, the LORD blessed took care of them. They stayed in prison many days. 5 the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake. The LORD's They both dreamt a dream, each man his dream, in blessing was on all that he had, in the house and in the one night, each man according to the interpretation of field. 6 He left all that he had in Joseph's hand. He didn't his dream, the cup bearer and the baker of the king of concern himself with anything, except for the food which Egypt, who were bound in the prison. 6 Joseph came in he ate. Joseph was well-built and handsome. 7 After to them in the morning, and saw them, and saw that these things, his master's wife set her eyes on Joseph; they were sad. 7 He asked Pharaoh's officers who were and she said, "Lie with me." 8 But he refused, and said with him in custody in his master's house, saying, "Why to his master's wife, "Behold, my master doesn't know do you look so sad today?" 8 They said to him, "We what is with me in the house, and he has put all that he have dreamt a dream, and there is no one who can has into my hand. 9 No one is greater in this house interpret it." Joseph said to them, "Don't interpretations than I am, and he has not kept back anything from me belong to God? Please tell it to me." 9 The chief cup but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do bearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "In this great wickedness, and sin against God?" 10 As she my dream, behold, a vine was in front of me, 10 and spoke to Joseph day by day, he didn't listen to her, to lie in the vine were three branches. It was as though it by her, or to be with her. 11 About this time, he went budded, it blossomed, and its clusters produced ripe into the house to do his work, and there were none of grapes. 11 Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the men of the house inside. 12 She caught him by his the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I garment, saying, "Lie with me!" He left his garment in gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand." 12 Joseph said to her hand, and ran outside. 13 When she saw that he him, "This is its interpretation: the three branches are had left his garment in her hand, and had run outside, three days. 13 Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift 14 she called to the men of her house, and spoke to up your head, and restore you to your office. You will them, saying, "Behold, he has brought a Hebrew in to give Pharaoh's cup into his hand, the way you did when us to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I you were his cup bearer. 14 But remember me when cried with a loud voice. 15 When he heard that I lifted it is well with you. Please show kindness to me, and up my voice and cried, he left his garment by me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of ran outside." 16 She laid up his garment by her, until his this house. 15 For indeed, I was stolen away out of the master came home. 17 She spoke to him according to land of the Hebrews, and here also I have done nothing these words, saying, "The Hebrew servant, whom you that they should put me into the dungeon." 16 When the have brought to us, came in to me to mock me, 18 and chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he as I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his garment said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream, and behold, by me, and ran outside." 19 When his master heard three baskets of white bread were on my head. 17 In the the words of his wife, which she spoke to him, saying, uppermost basket there were all kinds of baked food for "This is what your servant did to me," his wrath was Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my kindled. 20 Joseph's master took him, and put him into head." 18 Joseph answered, "This is its interpretation. the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were The three baskets are three days. 19 Within three more bound, and he was there in custody. 21 But the LORD days, Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you, and was with Joseph, and showed kindness to him, and will hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison. from off you." 20 On the third day, which was Pharaoh's 22 The keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand birthday, he made a feast for all his servants, and he all the prisoners who were in the prison. Whatever they lifted up the head of the chief cup bearer and the head did there, he was responsible for it. 23 The keeper of of the chief baker amongst his servants. 21 He restored the prison didn't look after anything that was under his the chief cup bearer to his position again, and he gave hand, because the LORD was with him; and that which the cup into Pharaoh's hand; 22 but he hanged the chief he did, the LORD made it prosper.

After these things, the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker offended their lord, the king of Egypt. 2 Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief cup bearer and the chief baker. 3 He put them in his sight. He ministered to him, and Potiphar made him custody in the house of the captain of the guard, into baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them. 23 Yet the chief cup bearer didn't remember Joseph, but forgot

> 1 At the end of two full years, Pharaoh dreamt, and behold, he stood by the river. 2 Behold, seven cattle came up out of the river. They were sleek and fat, and they fed in the marsh grass. 3 Behold, seven seven years. The dream is one, 27 The seven thin and other cattle came up after them out of the river, ugly ugly cattle that came up after them are seven years, and thin, and stood by the other cattle on the brink of and also the seven empty heads of grain blasted with the river. 4 The ugly and thin cattle ate up the seven the east wind; they will be seven years of famine. 28 sleek and fat cattle. So Pharaoh awoke. 5 He slept and That is the thing which I have spoken to Pharaoh. God dreamt a second time; and behold, seven heads of grain has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do. 29 Behold, came up on one stalk, healthy and good. 6 Behold, seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of seven heads of grain, thin and blasted with the east Egypt are coming. 30 Seven years of famine will arise wind, sprung up after them. 7 The thin heads of grain after them, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land swallowed up the seven healthy and full ears. Pharaoh of Egypt. The famine will consume the land, 31 and the awoke, and behold, it was a dream. 8 In the morning, plenty will not be known in the land by reason of that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all of famine which follows; for it will be very grievous. 32 Egypt's magicians and wise men. Pharaoh told them The dream was doubled to Pharaoh, because the thing his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to them to Pharaoh. 9 Then the chief cup bearer spoke pass. 33 "Now therefore let Pharaoh look for a discreet to Pharaoh, saying, "I remember my faults today. 10 and wise man, and set him over the land of Egypt. Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in 34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint overseers custody in the house of the captain of the guard, with over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land the chief baker. 11 We dreamt a dream in one night, he of Egypt's produce in the seven plenteous years. 35 and I. Each man dreamt according to the interpretation Let them gather all the food of these good years that of his dream. 12 There was with us there a young man, come, and store grain under the hand of Pharaoh for a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard, and food in the cities, and let them keep it. 36 The food we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams. He gave him 22 I saw in my dream, and behold, seven heads of grain Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On as a came up on one stalk, full and good; 23 and behold, wife. Joseph went out over the land of Egypt. 46 Joseph seven heads of grain, withered, thin, and blasted with was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh the east wind, sprung up after them. 24 The thin heads king of Egypt. Joseph went out from the presence of of grain swallowed up the seven good heads of grain. Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. I told it to the magicians, but there was no one who 47 In the seven plenteous years the earth produced could explain it to me." 25 Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The abundantly. 48 He gathered up all the food of the seven dream of Pharaoh is one. What God is about to do he years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the has declared to Pharaoh. 26 The seven good cattle are food in the cities. He stored food in each city from the seven years; and the seven good heads of grain are fields around that city. 49 Joseph laid up grain as the sand of the sea, very much, until he stopped counting, comes here. 16 Send one of you, and let him get your was severe in all the earth.

12 Now Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons, "Why do you look at one another?" 2 He said, "Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there, and buy for us from there, so that we may live, and not die." 3 Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. 4 But Jacob didn't send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers; for he said, "Lest perhaps harm happen to him." 5 The sons of Israel came to buy amongst those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. 6 Joseph was the governor over the land. It was he who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph's brothers came, and bowed themselves down to him with their faces to the earth. 7 Joseph saw his brothers, and he recognised them, but acted like a stranger to them, and spoke roughly with them. He said to them, "Where did you come from?" They said, "From the land of Canaan, to buy food." 8 Joseph recognised his brothers, but they didn't recognise him. 9 Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamt about them, and said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land." 10 They said to him, "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. 11 We are all one man's sons; we are honest men. Your servants are not spies." 12 He said to them, "No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land!" 13 They said, "We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is today with our father, and one is no more." 14 Joseph said to them, "It is like I told you, saying, 'You are spies!' 15 By this you shall be tested. By the life of Pharaoh, you shall not go out from here, unless your youngest brother for it was without number. 50 To Joseph were born two brother, and you shall be bound, that your words may sons before the year of famine came, whom Asenath, be tested, whether there is truth in you, or else by the the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, bore to him. life of Pharaoh surely you are spies." 17 He put them all 51 Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh, together into custody for three days. 18 Joseph said to "For", he said, "God has made me forget all my toil, them the third day, "Do this, and live, for I fear God. 19 and all my father's house." 52 The name of the second, If you are honest men, then let one of your brothers be he called Ephraim: "For God has made me fruitful in bound in your prison; but you go, carry grain for the the land of my affliction." 53 The seven years of plenty, famine of your houses. 20 Bring your youngest brother that were in the land of Egypt, came to an end. 54 The to me; so will your words be verified, and you won't seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph die." They did so. 21 They said to one another, "We had said. There was famine in all lands, but in all the are certainly guilty concerning our brother, in that we land of Egypt there was bread. 55 When all the land of saw the distress of his soul, when he begged us, and Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for we wouldn't listen. Therefore this distress has come bread, and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to upon us." 22 Reuben answered them, saying, "Didn't I Joseph. What he says to you, do." 56 The famine was tell you, saying, 'Don't sin against the child,' and you over all the surface of the earth. Joseph opened all the wouldn't listen? Therefore also, behold, his blood is store houses, and sold to the Egyptians. The famine required." 23 They didn't know that Joseph understood was severe in the land of Egypt. 57 All countries came them; for there was an interpreter between them. 24 into Egypt, to Joseph, to buy grain, because the famine He turned himself away from them, and wept. Then he returned to them, and spoke to them, and took Simeon from amongst them, and bound him before their eyes. 25 Then Joseph gave a command to fill their bags with grain, and to restore each man's money into his sack, and to give them food for the way. So it was done to them. 26 They loaded their donkeys with their grain, and departed from there. 27 As one of them opened his sack to give his donkey food in the lodging place, he saw his money. Behold, it was in the mouth of his sack. 28 He said to his brothers, "My money is restored! Behold, it is in my sack!" Their hearts failed them, and they turned trembling to one another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?" 29 They came to Jacob their father, to the land of Canaan, and told him all that had happened to them, saying, 30 "The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly with us, and took us for spies of the country. 31 We said to him, 'We are honest men. We are no spies. 32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is today with our father in the land of Canaan.' 33 The man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'By this I will know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me, and take grain for the famine of your houses, and go your way. 34 Bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. So I will deliver your brother to you, and you shall trade in the land." 35 As they emptied their sacks, behold, each man's bundle of money was in his sack. When they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were afraid. 36 Jacob, their father, said to them, "You have bereaved me of my children! Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and you want to take Benjamin away. All these things are against me." 37 Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "Kill my care, and I will bring him to you again." 38 He said, "My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he only is left. If harm happens to him along the way in which you go, then you will bring down my grey hairs with sorrow to Sheol." (Sheol h7585)

13 The famine was severe in the land. 2 When they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, "Go again, buy us a little more food." 3 Judah spoke to him, saying, "The man solemnly warned us, saying, 'You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.' 4 If you'll send our brother with us, we'll go down and buy you food; 5 but if you don't send him, we won't go down, for the man said to us, 'You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you." 6 Israel said, "Why did you treat me so badly, telling the man that you had another brother?" 7 They said, "The man asked directly concerning ourselves, and concerning our relatives, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?' We just answered his questions. Is there any way we could know that he would say, 'Bring your brother down'?" 8 Judah said to Israel, his father, "Send the boy with me, and we'll get up and go, so that we may live, and not die, both we, and you, and also our little ones. 9 I'll be collateral for him. From my hand will you require him. If I don't bring him to you, and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever; 10 for if we hadn't delayed, surely we would have returned a second time by now." 11 Their father, Israel, said to them, "If it must be so, then do this: Take from the choice fruits of the land in your bags, and carry down a present for the man, a little balm, a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts, and almonds; 12 and take double money in your hand, and take back the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks. Perhaps it was an oversight. 13 Take your brother also, get up, and return to the man. 14 May God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may release to you your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved." 15 The men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and got up, went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph. 16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, "Bring the men into the house, and butcher an animal, and prepare; for the men will dine with me at noon." 17 The man did as Joseph commanded, and the man brought the men to Joseph's house. 18 The men were afraid. because they were brought to Joseph's house; and they said, "Because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time, we're brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, attack us, and seize us as slaves, along with our donkeys." 19 They came near to the divines? You have done evil in so doing." 6 He overtook

my two sons, if I don't bring him to you. Entrust him to steward of Joseph's house, and they spoke to him at the door of the house, 20 and said, "Oh, my lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food. 21 When we came to the lodging place, we opened our sacks, and behold, each man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight. We have brought it back in our hand. 22 We have brought down other money in our hand to buy food. We don't know who put our money in our sacks." 23 He said, "Peace be to you. Don't be afraid. Your God, and the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks. I received your money." He brought Simeon out to them. 24 The man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet. He gave their donkeys fodder. 25 They prepared the present for Joseph's coming at noon, for they heard that they should eat bread there. 26 When Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves down to the earth before him. 27 He asked them of their welfare, and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he yet alive?" 28 They said, "Your servant, our father, is well. He is still alive." They bowed down humbly. 29 He lifted up his eves, and saw Benjamin, his brother, his mother's son. and said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?" He said, "God be gracious to you, my son." 30 Joseph hurried, for his heart vearned over his brother; and he sought a place to weep. He entered into his room, and wept there. 31 He washed his face, and came out. He controlled himself, and said, "Serve the meal." 32 They served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians don't eat with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. 33 They sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth, and the men marvelled with one another. 34 He sent portions to them from before him, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. They drank, and were merry with him.

> ▲ He commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's money in his sack's mouth. 2 Put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, with his grain money." He did according to the word that Joseph had spoken. 3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. 4 When they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Up, follow after the men. When you overtake them, ask them, 'Why have you rewarded evil for good? 5 Isn't this that from which my lord drinks, and by which he indeed

How then should we steal silver or gold out your servant became collateral for the boy to my father, of your lord's house? 9 With whomever of your servants saying, 'If I don't bring him to you, then I will bear the it is found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's blame to my father forever.' 33 Now therefore, please slaves." 10 He said, "Now also let it be according to your let your servant stay instead of the boy, my lord's slave; words. He with whom it is found will be my slave; and and let the boy go up with his brothers. 34 For how will I you will be blameless." 11 Then they hurried, and each go up to my father, if the boy isn't with me?—lest I see man took his sack down to the ground, and each man the evil that will come on my father." opened his sack. 12 He searched, beginning with the oldest, and ending at the youngest. The cup was found in Benjamin's sack. 13 Then they tore their clothes, and each man loaded his donkey, and returned to the city. 14 Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there. They fell on the ground before him. 15 Joseph said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Don't you know that such a man as I can indeed do divination?" 16 Judah said, "What will we tell my lord? What will we speak? How will we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Behold, we are my lord's slaves, both we and he also in whose hand the cup is found." 17 He said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup is found, he will be my slave; but as for you, go up in peace to your father." 18 Then Judah came near to him, and said, "Oh, my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and don't let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even as Pharaoh. 19 My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father, or a brother?' 20 We said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother; and his father loves him.' 21 You said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.' 22 We said to my lord, 'The boy can't leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die." 23 You said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will see my face no more.' 24 When we came up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. 25 Our father said, 'Go again and buy us a little food.' 26 We said, 'We can't go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down: for we may not see the man's face, unless our youngest brother is with us.' 27 Your servant, my father, said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons. 28 One went out from me, and I said, "Surely he is torn in pieces;" and I haven't seen him since. 29 If you take this one also from me, and harm happens to him, you will bring down my grey hairs with sorrow to Sheol.' 45 Then Joseph couldn't control himself before all those who stood before him, and he called out, "Cause everyone to go out from me!" No one else stood with him, while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. 2 He wept aloud. The Egyptians heard, and the house of Pharaoh heard. 3 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph! Does my father still live?" His brothers couldn't answer him; for they were terrified at his presence. 4 Joseph said to his brothers, "Come near to me, please." They came near. He said, "I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. 5 Now don't be grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life. 6 For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are yet five years, in which there will be no ploughing and no harvest. 7 God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth, and to save you alive by a great deliverance. 8 So now it wasn't you who sent me here, but God, and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt. 9 Hurry, and go up to my father, and tell him, 'This is what your son Joseph says, "God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me. Don't wait. 10 You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you will be near to me, you, your children, your children's children, your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. 11 There I will provide for you; for there are yet five years of famine; lest you come to poverty, you, and your household, and all that you have." 12 Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you. 13 You shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. You shall hurry and bring my father down here." 14 He fell on his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck. 15 He kissed all his brothers, and wept on them. After that his brothers talked with him. 16 The report of it was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, "Joseph's brothers have come." It pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants. 17 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals, and go, travel to the land of Canaan. 18 Take your father and your households, and come to me, and I will give you the Jahleel. 15 These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore good of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of to Jacob in Paddan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the land.' 19 Now you are commanded to do this: Take the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three. wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and 16 The sons of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, for your wives, and bring your father, and come. 20 Also, Arodi, and Areli. 17 The sons of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, don't concern yourselves about your belongings, for the Ishvi, Beriah, and Serah their sister. The sons of Beriah: good of all the land of Egypt is yours." 21 The sons of Heber and Malchiel. 18 These are the sons of Zilpah. Israel did so. Joseph gave them wagons, according to whom Laban gave to Leah, his daughter, and these the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision she bore to Jacob, even sixteen souls. 19 The sons for the way. 22 He gave each one of them changes of fachel, Jacob's wife: Joseph and Benjamin. 20 To clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and of silver and five changes of clothing. 23 He sent the Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, following to his father: ten donkeys loaded with the good priest of On, bore to him. 21 The sons of Benjamin: Bela, things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, grain and bread and provision for his father by the way. Huppim, and Ard. 22 These are the sons of Rachel, who said to them, "See that you don't quarrel on the way." son of Dan: Hushim. 24 The sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, 25 They went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Guni, Jezer, and Shillem. 25 These are the sons of Canaan, to Jacob their father. 26 They told him, saying, Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel, his daughter, and "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of these she bore to Jacob: all the souls were seven. 26 Egypt." His heart fainted, for he didn't believe them. 27 All the souls who came with Jacob into Egypt, who were They told him all the words of Joseph, which he had his direct offspring, in addition to Jacob's sons' wives, said to them. When he saw the wagons which Joseph all the souls were sixty-six. 27 The sons of Joseph, had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob, their father, who were born to him in Egypt, were two souls. All the revived. 28 Israel said, "It is enough. Joseph my son is souls of the house of Jacob, who came into Egypt, were still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

16 Israel travelled with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father, Isaac. 2 God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, "Jacob, Jacob!" He said, "Here I am." 3 He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Don't be afraid to go down into Egypt, for there I will make of you a great nation. 4 I will go down with you into Egypt. I will also surely bring you up again. Joseph's hand will close your eyes." 5 Jacob rose up from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob, their father, their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. 6 They took their livestock, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt—Jacob, and all his offspring with him. 7 his sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and he brought all his offspring with him into Egypt. 8 These are the names of the children of Israel, who came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn. 9 The sons of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. 10 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. 11 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 12 The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul. 13 The sons of Issachar: Tola, Puvah, Iob,

24 So he sent his brothers away, and they departed. He were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen. 23 The seventy. 28 Jacob sent Judah before him to Joseph, to show the way before him to Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen. 29 Joseph prepared his chariot, and went up to meet Israel, his father, in Goshen. He presented himself to him, and fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while. 30 Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive." 31 Joseph said to his brothers, and to his father's house, "I will go up, and speak with Pharaoh, and will tell him, 'My brothers, and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. 32 These men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock, and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.' 33 It will happen, when Pharaoh summons you, and will say, 'What is your occupation?' 34 that you shall say, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we, and our fathers:' that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

17 Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers, with their flocks, their herds, and all that they own, have come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of Goshen." 2 From amongst his brothers he took five men, and presented them to Pharaoh. 3 Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" They said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we, and Shimron. 14 The sons of Zebulun: Sered, Elon, and and our fathers." 4 They also said to Pharaoh, "We have come to you. 6 The land of Egypt is before you. I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Make your father and your brothers dwell in the best of Behold, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the know any able men amongst them, then put them in give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four parts will be your own, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the days of Jacob, Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. 15 him. Then Israel bowed himself on the bed's head. When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said, "Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For our money fails." 16 Joseph said, "Give me your livestock; and I will give you food for your livestock, if your money is gone." 17 They brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, and for the flocks, and for the herds, and for the donkeys: and he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock for that year. 18 When that year was ended, they came to him the second year, and said to him. "We will not hide from my lord how our money is all spent, and the herds of livestock are my lord's. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands. 19 Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the land won't be desolate." 20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for every man of the Egyptians sold his field, because the famine was severe on them, and the land became Pharaoh's. 21 As for the people, he moved them to the cities from

That is why they didn't sell spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers their land. 23 Then Joseph said to the people, "Behold, the land. Let them dwell in the land of Goshen. If you land. 24 It will happen at the harvests, that you shall charge of my livestock." 7 Joseph brought in Jacob, for seed of the field, for your food, for them of your his father, and set him before Pharaoh; and Jacob households, and for food for your little ones." 25 They blessed Pharaoh. 8 Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How old said, "You have saved our lives! Please that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan fainted by don't bury me in Egypt, 30 but when I sleep with my reason of the famine. 14 Joseph gathered up all the fathers, you shall carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the their burying place." Joseph said, "I will do as you have land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought: and said." 31 Israel said, "Swear to me," and he swore to > 48 After these things, someone said to Joseph, "Behold, your father is sick." He took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. 2 Someone told Jacob, and said, "Behold, your son Joseph comes to you," and Israel strengthened himself, and sat on the bed. 3 Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, 4 and said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you, and I will make of you a company of peoples, and will give this land to your offspring after you for an everlasting possession.' 5 Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh, even as Reuben and Simeon, will be mine. 6 Your offspring, whom you become the father of after them, will be yours. They will be called after the name of their brothers in their inheritance. 7 As for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (also called Bethlehem)." 8 Israel saw Joseph's sons, and said, "Who are these?" 9 Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me

He said, "Please bring them to me, and I will fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel, I will divide them bless them." 10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim for in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel. 8 "Judah, your age, so that he couldn't see well. The arms of his hands were made that day, saying, "Israel will bless in your name, saying, strong, by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, (from 'God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh'" He set there is the shepherd, the stone of Israel), 25 even Ephraim before Manasseh. 21 Israel said to Joseph, by the God of your father, who will help you, by the "Behold, I am dying, but God will be with you, and bring Almighty, who will bless you, with blessings of heaven you again to the land of your fathers. 22 Moreover I above, blessings of the deep that lies below, blessings have given to you one portion above your brothers, of the breasts, and of the womb. 26 The blessings of which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my your father have prevailed above the blessings of my sword and with my bow."

10 Jacob called to his sons, and said: "Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which will happen to you in the days to come. 2 Assemble yourselves, and hear, you sons of Jacob. Listen to Israel, your father. 3 "Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, excelling in dignity, and excelling in power. 4 Boiling over like water, you shall not excel, because you went up to your father's bed, then defiled it. He went up to my couch. 5 "Simeon and Levi are brothers. Their swords are weapons of violence. 6 My soul, don't come into their council. In the morning he will devour the prey. At evening he will divide the plunder." 28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father spoke to them, and blessed them. He blessed everyone according to his own blessing. 29 He instructed them, and said to them, "I am to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, 30 in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as a burial place. 31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah, his wife. 50 Joseph fell on his father's face, wept on him, and kissed him. 2 Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father; and the physicians embalmed Israel. 3 Forty days were used for him, for that is how many days it takes to embalm. The Egyptians wept for Israel for seventy days. 4 When the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph spoke to Pharaoh's staff, saying, "If now I have found favour in your eyes, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, 5 'My father made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am dying. Bury me in my grave which I have dug for myself in the land of Canaan." Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come again." 6 Pharaoh said, "Go up, and bury your father, just like he made you swear." 7 Joseph went up to bury his father; and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, all the elders of the land of Egypt, 8 all the house of Joseph, his brothers, and his father's house. Only their little ones, their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen. 9 Both chariots and horsemen went up with him. It was a very great company. 10 They came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and there they lamented with a very great and severe lamentation. He mourned for his father seven days. 11 When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, "This is a grievous mourning by the Egyptians." Therefore its name was called Abel Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan. 12 His sons did to him just as he commanded them, 13 for his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field, as a possession for a burial site, from Ephron the Hittite, near Mamre. 14 Joseph returned into Egypt—he, and his brothers, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father. 15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead. they said, "It may be that Joseph will hate us, and will fully pay us back for all the evil which we did to him." 16 They sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father commanded before he died, saying, 17 'You shall tell Joseph, "Now please forgive the disobedience of your brothers, and their sin, because they did evil to you." Now, please forgive the disobedience of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. 18 His brothers also went and fell down before his face; and they said, "Behold, we are your servants."

19 Joseph said to them, "Don't be afraid, for am I in the place of God? 20 As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to save many people alive, as is happening today. 21 Now therefore don't be afraid. I will provide for you and your little ones." He comforted them, and spoke kindly to them. 22 Joseph lived in Egypt, he, and his father's house. Joseph lived one hundred and ten years. 23 Joseph saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. The children also of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born on Joseph's knees. 24 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am dying, but God will surely visit you, and bring you up out of this land to the land which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob." 25 Joseph took an oath from the children of Israel, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here." 26 So Joseph died, being one hundred and ten years old, and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

1 Now these are the names of the sons of Israel, who came into Egypt (every man and his household came with Jacob): 2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, 3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, 4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher. 5 All the souls who came out of Jacob's body were seventy souls, and Joseph was in Egypt already. 6 Joseph died, as did all his brothers, and all that generation. 7 The children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them. 8 Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who didn't know Joseph. 9 He said to his people, "Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we. 10 Come, let's deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it happen that when any war breaks out, they also join themselves to our enemies and fight against us, and escape out of the land." 11 Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. They built storage cities for Pharaoh: Pithom and Raamses. 12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and the more they spread out. They started to dread the children of Israel. 13 The Egyptians ruthlessly made the children of Israel serve, 14 and they made their lives bitter with hard service in mortar and in brick, and in all kinds of service in the field, all their service, in which they ruthlessly made them serve. 15 The king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah. 16 and he said. "When you perform the duty of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birth stool, if it is a son, then you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live." 17 But the midwives feared God, and didn't do what the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the baby boys alive. 18 The king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said to them, "Why have you done this thing and saved the boys alive?" 19 The midwives said to Pharaoh. "Because the Hebrew women aren't like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them." 20 God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied, and grew very mighty. 21 Because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. 22 Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, "You shall cast every son who is born into the river, and every daughter you shall save alive."

2 A man of the house of Levi went and took a daughter of Levi as his wife. 2 The woman conceived and bore a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him three months. 3 When she could no longer hide him, she took a papyrus basket for him, and coated it with tar and with pitch. She put the child in it, and laid it in the reeds by the river's bank. 4 His sister stood far off, to see what would be done to him. 5 Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe at the river. Her maidens walked along by the riverside. She saw the basket amongst the reeds, and sent her servant to get it. 6 She opened it, and saw the child, and behold, the baby cried. She had compassion on him, and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children." 7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Should I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?" 8 Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Go." The young woman went and called the child's mother. 9 Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away, and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages." The woman took the child, and nursed it. 10 The child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses, and said. "Because I drew him out of the water." 11 In those days, when Moses had grown up, he went out to his brothers and saw their burdens. He saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his brothers. 12 He looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no one, he killed the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. 13 He went out the second day, and behold, two men of the Hebrews were fighting with each other. He said to him who did the wrong, "Why do you strike your fellow?" 14 He said, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you plan to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian?" Moses was afraid, and said, "Surely this thing is known." 15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and lived in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well. 16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. 17 The shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock. 18 When they came to Reuel, their father, he said, "How is it that you have returned so early today?" 19 They said, "An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and moreover he drew water for us. and watered the flock." 20 He said to his daughters, "Where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread," 21 Moses was content to dwell with the man. He gave Moses Zipporah, his daughter. 22 She bore a son, and he named him Gershom, for he said, "I have lived as a foreigner in a foreign land." 23 In the course of those many days, the king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and they cried. and their cry came up to God because of the bondage. 24 God heard their groaning, and God remembered his

God saw the children of Israel, and God understood.

3 Now Moses was keeping the flock of Jethro, his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the back of the wilderness, and came to God's mountain, to Horeb. 2 The LORD's angel appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the middle of a bush. He looked, and behold, the bush burnt with fire, and the bush was not consumed. 3 Moses said, "I will go now, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt." 4 When the LORD saw that he came over to see, God called to him out of the middle of the bush, and said, "Moses! Moses!" He said, "Here I am." 5 He said, "Don't come close. Take off your sandals, for the place you are standing on is holy ground." 6 Moreover he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." Moses hid his face because he was afraid to look at God. 7 The LORD said, "I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows. 8 I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey; to the place of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. 9 Now, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to me. Moreover I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them. 10 Come now therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh, that you may bring my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt." 11 Moses said to God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?" 12 He said, "Certainly I will be with you. This will be the token to you, that I have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain." 13 Moses said to God, "Behold, when I come to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what should I tell them?" 14 God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM," and he said, "You shall tell the children of Israel this: 'I AM has sent me to you." 15 God said moreover to Moses, "You shall tell the children of Israel this, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.' This is my name forever, and this is my memorial to all generations. 16 Go and gather the elders of Israel together, and tell them, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying, "I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt. 17 I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. 25 Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey." 18 They will listen to your voice. You shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt, and you shall tell him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now please let us go three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD, our God.' 19 I know that the king of Egypt won't give you permission to go, no, not by a mighty hand. 20 I will reach out my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders which I will do amongst them, and after that he will let you go. 21 I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, and it will happen that when you go, you shall not go empty-handed. 22 But every woman shall ask of her neighbour, and of her who visits her house, jewels of silver, jewels of gold, and clothing. You shall put them on your sons, and on your daughters. You shall plunder the Egyptians."

> ▲ Moses answered, "But, behold, they will not believe me, nor listen to my voice; for they will say, 'The LORD has not appeared to you." 2 The LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" He said, "A rod." 3 He said, "Throw it on the ground." He threw it on the ground, and it became a snake; and Moses ran away from it. 4 The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand, and take it by the tail." He stretched out his hand, and took hold of it, and it became a rod in his hand. 5 "This is so that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you." 6 The LORD said furthermore to him, "Now put your hand inside your cloak." He put his hand inside his cloak, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous, as white as snow. 7 He said, "Put your hand inside your cloak again." He put his hand inside his cloak again, and when he took it out of his cloak, behold, it had turned again as his other flesh. 8 "It will happen, if they will not believe you or listen to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign. 9 It will happen, if they will not believe even these two signs or listen to your voice, that you shall take of the water of the river, and pour it on the dry land. The water which you take out of the river will become blood on the dry land." 10 Moses said to the LORD, "O Lord, I am not eloquent, neither before now, nor since you have spoken to your servant; for I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue." 11 The LORD said to him, "Who made man's mouth? Or who makes one mute, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Isn't it I, the LORD? 12 Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth, and teach you what you shall speak." 13 Moses said, "Oh, Lord, please send someone else." 14 The LORD's anger burnt against Moses, and he said, "What about Aaron, your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well. Also, behold. Aaron, take the people from their work? Get back to then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

Afterward Moses and Aaron came, and said to Pharaoh, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'Let my people go, that they may hold a feast to me in the wilderness." 2 Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD, that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I don't know the LORD, and moreover I will not let Israel go." 3 They said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD, our God, lest he fall on us with pestilence, or with the sword." 4 The king of Egypt said to them, "Why do you, Moses and he is coming out to meet you. When he sees you, he will your burdens!" 5 Pharaoh said, "Behold, the people of be glad in his heart. 15 You shall speak to him, and put the land are now many, and you make them rest from the words in his mouth. I will be with your mouth, and their burdens." 6 The same day Pharaoh commanded with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do. 16 the taskmasters of the people and their officers, saying, He will be your spokesman to the people. It will happen 7 "You shall no longer give the people straw to make that he will be to you a mouth, and you will be to him as brick, as before. Let them go and gather straw for God. 17 You shall take this rod in your hand, with which themselves. 8 You shall require from them the number you shall do the signs." 18 Moses went and returned to of the bricks which they made before. You shall not Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, "Please let me diminish anything of it, for they are idle. Therefore they go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and see cry, saying, 'Let's go and sacrifice to our God.' 9 Let whether they are still alive." Jethro said to Moses, "Go heavier work be laid on the men, that they may labour in peace." 19 The LORD said to Moses in Midian, "Go, in it. Don't let them pay any attention to lying words." return into Egypt; for all the men who sought your life 10 The taskmasters of the people went out with their are dead." 20 Moses took his wife and his sons, and set officers, and they spoke to the people, saying, "This is them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. what Pharaoh says: 'I will not give you straw. 11 Go Moses took God's rod in his hand. 21 The LORD said to yourselves, get straw where you can find it, for nothing Moses, "When you go back into Egypt, see that you do of your work shall be diminished." 12 So the people before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt hand, but I will harden his heart and he will not let the to gather stubble for straw. 13 The taskmasters were people go. 22 You shall tell Pharaoh, 'The LORD says, urgent saying, "Fulfil your work guota daily, as when Israel is my son, my firstborn, 23 and I have said to you, there was straw!" 14 The officers of the children of "Let my son go, that he may serve me;" and you have Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, refused to let him go. Behold, I will kill your firstborn were beaten, and were asked, "Why haven't you fulfilled son." 24 On the way at a lodging place, the LORD met your quota both yesterday and today, in making brick as Moses and wanted to kill him. 25 Then Zipporah took a before?" 15 Then the officers of the children of Israel flint, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at came and cried to Pharaoh, saying, "Why do you deal his feet; and she said, "Surely you are a bridegroom this way with your servants? 16 No straw is given to of blood to me." 26 So he let him alone. Then she your servants, and they tell us, 'Make brick!' and behold, said, "You are a bridegroom of blood," because of the your servants are beaten; but the fault is in your own circumcision. 27 The LORD said to Aaron, "Go into the people." 17 But Pharaoh said, "You are idle! You are wilderness to meet Moses." He went, and met him on idle! Therefore you say, 'Let's go and sacrifice to the God's mountain, and kissed him. 28 Moses told Aaron LORD.' 18 Go therefore now, and work; for no straw all the LORD's words with which he had sent him, and shall be given to you; yet you shall deliver the same all the signs with which he had instructed him. 29 Moses number of bricks!" 19 The officers of the children of and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders Israel saw that they were in trouble when it was said, of the children of Israel. 30 Aaron spoke all the words "You shall not diminish anything from your daily quota which the LORD had spoken to Moses, and did the of bricks!" 20 They met Moses and Aaron, who stood signs in the sight of the people. 31 The people believed, along the way, as they came out from Pharaoh. 21 They and when they heard that the LORD had visited the said to them, "May the LORD look at you and judge, children of Israel, and that he had seen their affliction, because you have made us a stench to be abhorred in the eves of Pharaoh, and in the eves of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us!" 22 Moses returned to the LORD, and said, "Lord, why have you brought trouble on this people? Why is it that you have sent me? 23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has brought trouble on this people. You have not rescued your people at all!"

> 6 The LORD said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh, for by a strong hand he shall let them go, and by a strong hand he shall drive them out of his land." 2 God spoke to Moses, and said to him, "I to Jacob, as God Almighty; but by my name the LORD I the daughters of Putiel as his wife; and she bore him was not known to them. 4 I have also established my Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers' houses of covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the Levites according to their families. 26 These are that the land of their travels, in which they lived as aliens. These are that Moses and Aaron. 28 On the out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with Egypt, 29 The LORD said to Moses, "I am the LORD. an outstretched arm, and with great judgements. 7 I Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I tell you." 30 Moses will take you to myself for a people. I will be your God; said before the LORD, "Behold, I am of uncircumcised and you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who lips, and how shall Pharaoh listen to me?" brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. 8 I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you for a heritage: I am the LORD." 9 Moses spoke so to the children of Israel, but they didn't listen to Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage. 10 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 11 "Go in, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land." 12 Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, "Behold, the children of Israel haven't listened to me. How then shall Pharaoh listen to me, when I have uncircumcised lips?" 13 The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a command to the children of Israel, and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt. 14 These are the heads of their fathers' houses.  $m{7}$ The LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I have made you as God to Pharaoh; and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet. 2 You shall speak all that I command you; and Aaron your brother shall speak to Pharaoh, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land. 3 I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt. 4 But Pharaoh will not listen to you, so I will lay my hand on Egypt, and bring out my armies, my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgements. 5 The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when I stretch out my hand on Egypt, and bring the children of Israel out from amongst them." 6 Moses and Aaron did so. As the LORD commanded them, so they did. 7 Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh. 8 The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 9 "When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, 'Perform a miracle!' then you shall tell Aaron, 'Take your rod, and cast it down before Pharaoh, and it will become a serpent." 10 Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, as the LORD had commanded. Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent. 11 Then Pharaoh also called for the wise men and the sorcerers. They also, the magicians of Egypt, did the same thing with their enchantments. 12 For they each cast down their rods, and they became serpents; but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. 13 Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he didn't listen to them, as the LORD had spoken. 14 The LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is stubborn. He refuses to let the people go. 15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning. Behold, he is going out to the water. You shall stand by the river's bank to meet him. You shall take the rod which was turned to a serpent in your hand. 16 You shall tell him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, "Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness. Behold, until now you haven't listened." 17 The LORD says, "In this you shall know that I am the LORD. Behold: I will strike with the that there is no one like the LORD our God. 11 The rod that is in my hand on the waters which are in the frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, and river, and they shall be turned to blood. 18 The fish that from your servants, and from your people. There will be blood throughout all the land of and the land stank. 15 But when Pharaoh saw that there Egypt, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone." was a respite, he hardened his heart, and didn't listen to 20 Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; them, as the LORD had spoken. 16 The LORD said to and he lifted up the rod, and struck the waters that were Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your rod, and strike the in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of dust of the earth, that it may become lice throughout all his servants; and all the waters that were in the river the land of Egypt." 17 They did so; and Aaron stretched were turned to blood. 21 The fish that were in the river out his hand with his rod, and struck the dust of the died. The river became foul. The Egyptians couldn't earth, and there were lice on man, and on animal; all the drink water from the river. The blood was throughout dust of the earth became lice throughout all the land of all the land of Egypt. 22 The magicians of Egypt did Egypt. 18 The magicians tried with their enchantments the same thing with their enchantments. So Pharaoh's to produce lice, but they couldn't. There were lice on heart was hardened, and he didn't listen to them, as the man, and on animal. 19 Then the magicians said to LORD had spoken. 23 Pharaoh turned and went into his Pharaoh, "This is God's finger;" but Pharaoh's heart was house, and he didn't even take this to heart. 24 All the hardened, and he didn't listen to them, as the LORD Egyptians dug around the river for water to drink; for had spoken. 20 The LORD said to Moses, "Rise up they couldn't drink the river water. 25 Seven days were early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; behold, fulfilled, after the LORD had struck the river.

The LORD spoke to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him, 'This is what the LORD says, "Let my people go, that they may serve me. 2 If you refuse to let them go, behold, I will plague all your borders with frogs. 3 The river will swarm with frogs, which will go up and come into your house, and into your bedroom, and on your bed, and into the house of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs. 4 The frogs shall come up both on you, and on your people, and on all your servants."" The LORD said to Moses. "Tell Aaron. 'Stretch out your hand with your rod over the rivers, over the streams, and over the pools, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt." 6 Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt. 7 The magicians did the same thing with their enchantments, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt. 8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, "Entreat the LORD, that he take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD." 9 Moses said to Pharaoh, "I give you the honour of setting the time that I should pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses, and remain in the river only." 10 Pharaoh said, "Tomorrow." Moses said, "Let it be according to your word, that you may know he comes out to the water; and tell him, 'This is what the LORD says, "Let my people go, that they may serve me. 21 Else, if you will not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you, and on your servants, and on your people, and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground they are on. 22 I will set apart in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there, to the end you may know that I am the LORD on the earth. 23 I will put a division between my people and your people. This sign shall happen by tomorrow."" 24 The LORD did so; and there came grievous swarms of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses. In all the land of Egypt the land was corrupted by reason of the swarms of flies. 25 Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said. "Go. sacrifice to your God in the land!" 26 Moses said, "It isn't appropriate to do so; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. Behold, if we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, won't they stone us? 27 We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us." 28 Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness, only you shall not go very far away. Pray for me." 29 Moses said, "Behold, I am going out from you. I will pray to the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow; only don't yourself against my people, that you won't let them go. let Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the Pharaoh, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain people go to sacrifice to the LORD." 30 Moses went out a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Egypt from Pharaoh, and prayed to the LORD. 31 The LORD since the day it was founded even until now. 19 Now did according to the word of Moses, and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and that you have in the field be brought into shelter. The from his people. There remained not one. 32 Pharaoh hail will come down on every man and animal that is hardened his heart this time also, and he didn't let the people go.

Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh. and tell him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, that they may serve me. 2 For if you refuse to let them go, and hold them still, 3 behold, the LORD's hand is on your livestock which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks with a very grievous pestilence. 4 The LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt; and nothing shall die of all that belongs to the children of Israel."" 5 The LORD appointed a set time, saying, "Tomorrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land." 6 The LORD did that thing on the next day; and all the livestock of Egypt died, but of the livestock of the children of Israel, not one died. 7 Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not so much as one of the livestock of the Israelites dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was stubborn, and he didn't let the people go. 8 The LORD said to Moses and to Aaron, "Take handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it towards the sky in the sight of Pharaoh. 9 It shall become small dust over all the land of Egypt, and shall be boils and blisters breaking out on man and on animal, throughout all the land of Egypt." 10 They took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up towards the sky; and it became boils and blisters breaking out on man and on animal. 11 The magicians couldn't stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boils were on the magicians and on all the Egyptians. 12 The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he didn't listen to them, as the LORD had spoken to Moses. 13 The LORD said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tell him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, that they may serve me. 14 For this time I will send all my plagues against your heart, against your officials, and against your people; that you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth. 15 For now I would have stretched out my hand, and struck you and your people with pestilence, and you would have been cut off from the earth; 16 but indeed for this cause I have made you stand: to show you my power, and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth. 17 because you still exalt die."" 20 Those who feared the LORD's word amongst the servants of Pharaoh made their servants and their livestock flee into the houses. 21 Whoever didn't respect the LORD's word left his servants and his livestock in the field. 22 The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand towards the sky, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man, and on animal, and on every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt." 23 Moses stretched out his rod towards the heavens, and the LORD sent thunder and hail; and lightning flashed down to the earth. The LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt. 24 So there was very severe hail, and lightning mixed with the hail, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. 25 The hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and animal; and the hail struck every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field. 26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, there was no hail. 27 Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "I have sinned this time. The LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. 28 Pray to the LORD; for there has been enough of mighty thunderings and hail. I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer." 29 Moses said to him, "As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands to the LORD. The thunders shall cease, and there will not be any more hail; that you may know that the earth is the LORD's. 30 But as for you and your servants, I know that you don't yet fear the LORD God." 31 The flax and the barley were struck, for the barley had ripened and the flax was blooming. 32 But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they had not grown up. 33 Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread out his hands to the LORD; and the thunders and hail ceased. and the rain was not poured on the earth. 34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders had ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. 35 The heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he didn't let the children of Israel go, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

10 The LORD said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, that I may show these my signs amongst them; 2 and that you may tell in the hearing of your

Egypt, and my signs which I have done amongst them; wind, which took up the locusts, and drove them into that you may know that I am the LORD." 3 Moses and the Red Sea. There remained not one locust in all the Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and said to him, "This is borders of Egypt. 20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'How heart, and he didn't let the children of Israel go. 21 The long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand towards my people go, that they may serve me. 4 Or else, if the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of you refuse to let my people go, behold, tomorrow I will Egypt, even darkness which may be felt." 22 Moses bring locusts into your country, 5 and they shall cover stretched out his hand towards the sky, and there was a the surface of the earth, so that one won't be able to thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days. 23 see the earth. They shall eat the residue of that which They didn't see one another, and nobody rose from his has escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and place for three days; but all the children of Israel had shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field. light in their dwellings. 24 Pharaoh called to Moses, and 6 Your houses shall be filled, and the houses of all said, "Go, serve the LORD. Only let your flocks and your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians, as your herds stay behind. Let your little ones also go with neither your fathers nor your fathers' fathers have seen, you." 25 Moses said, "You must also give into our hand since the day that they were on the earth to this day." sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to He turned, and went out from Pharaoh. 7 Pharaoh's the LORD our God. 26 Our livestock also shall go with servants said to him, "How long will this man be a snare us. Not a hoof shall be left behind, for of it we must take to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD, to serve the LORD our God; and we don't know with their God. Don't you yet know that Egypt is destroyed?" what we must serve the LORD, until we come there." 8 Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and 27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he he said to them, "Go, serve the LORD your God; but wouldn't let them go. 28 Pharaoh said to him, "Get away who are those who will go?" 9 Moses said, "We will go from me! Be careful to see my face no more; for in the with our young and with our old. We will go with our day you see my face you shall die!" 29 Moses said, "You sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with have spoken well. I will see your face again no more." our herds: for we must hold a feast to the LORD." 10 He said to them, "The LORD be with you if I let you go with your little ones! See, evil is clearly before your faces. 11 Not so! Go now you who are men, and serve the LORD; for that is what you desire!" Then they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence. 12 The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail has left." 13 Moses stretched out his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind on the land all that day, and all night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. 14 The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the borders of Egypt. They were very grievous. Before them there were no such locusts as they, nor will there ever be again. 15 For they covered the surface of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened, and they ate every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. There remained nothing green, either tree or herb of the field, through all the land of Egypt. 16 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and he said, "I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you. 17 Now therefore please forgive my sin again, and pray to the LORD your God, that he may also take away from me this death." 18 Moses went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to the

1 The LORD said to Moses, "I will bring yet one more plague on Pharaoh, and on Egypt; afterwards he will let you go. When he lets you go, he will surely thrust you out altogether. 2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man ask of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold." 3 The LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people. 4 Moses said, "This is what the LORD says: 'About midnight I will go out into the middle of Egypt, 5 and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the female servant who is behind the mill, and all the firstborn of livestock. 6 There will be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there has not been, nor will be any more. 7 But against any of the children of Israel a dog won't even bark or move its tongue, against man or animal, that you may know that the LORD makes a distinction between the Egyptians and Israel. 8 All these servants of yours will come down to me, and bow down themselves to me, saying, "Get out, with all the people who follow you;" and after that I will go out." He went out from Pharaoh in hot anger. 9 The LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh won't listen to you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt." 10 Moses and Aaron did all these wonders 18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month his land.

17 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, 2 "This month shall be to you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year to you. 3 Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, 'On the tenth day of this month, they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to their fathers' houses, a lamb for a household; 4 and if the household is too little for a lamb, then he and his neighbour next to his house shall take one according to the number of the souls. You shall make your count for the lamb according to what everyone can eat. 5 Your lamb shall be without defect, a male a year old. You shall take it from the sheep or from the goats. 6 You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month; and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at evening. 7 They shall take some of the blood, and put it on the two door posts and on the lintel, on the houses in which they shall eat it. 8 They shall eat the meat in that night, roasted with fire, with unleavened bread. They shall eat it with bitter herbs. 9 Don't eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire; with its head, its legs and its inner parts. 10 You shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; but that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire. 11 This is how you shall eat it: with your belt on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD's Passover. 12 For I will go through the land of Egypt in that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and animal. I will execute judgements against all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. 13 The blood shall be to you for a token on the houses where you are. When I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague will be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt. 14 This day shall be a memorial for you. You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD. You shall keep it as a feast throughout your generations by an ordinance forever. 15 "Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread; even the first day you shall put away yeast out of your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. 16 In the first day there shall be to you a holy convocation, and in the seventh day a holy convocation; no kind of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat, only that may be done by you. 17 You shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this same day I have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations by an ordinance forever.

before Pharaoh, but the LORD hardened Pharaoh's at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the heart, and he didn't let the children of Israel go out of twenty first day of the month at evening. 19 There shall be no yeast found in your houses for seven days, for whoever eats that which is leavened, that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a foreigner, or one who is born in the land. 20 You shall eat nothing leavened. In all your habitations you shall eat unleavened bread." 21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said to them, "Draw out, and take lambs according to your families, and kill the Passover. 22 You shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two door posts with the blood that is in the basin. None of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning. 23 For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when he sees the blood on the lintel, and on the two door posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come in to your houses to strike you. 24 You shall observe this thing for an ordinance to you and to your sons forever. 25 It shall happen when you have come to the land which the LORD will give you, as he has promised, that you shall keep this service. 26 It will happen, when your children ask you, 'What do you mean by this service?' 27 that you shall say, 'It is the sacrifice of the LORD's Passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he struck the Egyptians, and spared our houses." The people bowed their heads and worshipped. 28 The children of Israel went and did so; as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did. 29 At midnight, the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of livestock. 30 Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead. 31 He called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, "Rise up, get out from amongst my people, both you and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as you have said! 32 Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also!" 33 The Egyptians were urgent with the people, to send them out of the land in haste, for they said, "We are all dead men." 34 The people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading troughs being bound up in their clothes on their shoulders. 35 The children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they asked of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and clothing. 36 The LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they asked.

They plundered the Egyptians. 37 The children of Israel day, saying, 'It is because of that which the LORD did travelled from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred for me when I came out of Egypt.' 9 It shall be for a thousand on foot who were men, in addition to children. sign to you on your hand, and for a memorial between 38 A mixed multitude went up also with them, with flocks, your eyes, that the LORD's law may be in your mouth; unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought out of Egypt. 10 You shall therefore keep this ordinance of Egypt; for it wasn't leavened, because they were in its season from year to year. 11 "It shall be, when thrust out of Egypt, and couldn't wait, and they had not the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanite, prepared any food for themselves. 40 Now the time that as he swore to you and to your fathers, and will give the children of Israel lived in Egypt was four hundred it to you, 12 that you shall set apart to the LORD all and thirty years. 41 At the end of four hundred and that opens the womb, and every firstborn that comes thirty years, to the day, all of the LORD's armies went from an animal which you have. The males shall be out from the land of Egypt. 42 It is a night to be much the LORD's. 13 Every firstborn of a donkey you shall observed to the LORD for bringing them out from the redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD, to be much you shall break its neck; and you shall redeem all the generations. 43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, your son asks you in time to come, saying, 'What is "This is the ordinance of the Passover. No foreigner this?' that you shall tell him, 'By strength of hand the shall eat of it, 44 but every man's servant who is bought LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of he eat of it. 45 A foreigner and a hired servant shall not go, the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, eat of it. 46 It must be eaten in one house. You shall both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of livestock. not carry any of the meat outside of the house. Do not Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that opens the break any of its bones. 47 All the congregation of Israel womb, being males; but all the firstborn of my sons I shall keep it. 48 When a stranger lives as a foreigner redeem.' 16 It shall be for a sign on your hand, and for with you, and would like to keep the Passover to the symbols between your eyes; for by strength of hand LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him the LORD brought us out of Egypt." 17 When Pharaoh come near and keep it. He shall be as one who is born had let the people go, God didn't lead them by the way in the land; but no uncircumcised person shall eat of of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; it. 49 One law shall be to him who is born at home, for God said, "Lest perhaps the people change their and to the stranger who lives as a foreigner amongst minds when they see war, and they return to Egypt"; you." 50 All the children of Israel did so. As the LORD 18 but God led the people around by the way of the commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did. 51 That wilderness by the Red Sea; and the children of Israel same day, the LORD brought the children of Israel out went up armed out of the land of Egypt. 19 Moses took of the land of Egypt by their armies.

13 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 2 "Sanctify to me all the firstborn, whatever opens the womb amongst the children of Israel, both of man and of animal. It is mine." 3 Moses said to the people, "Remember this day, in which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place. No leavened bread shall be eaten. 4 Today you go out in the month Abib. 5 It shall be, when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, which he swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep herds, and even very much livestock. 39 They baked for with a strong hand the LORD has brought you out observed by all the children of Israel throughout their firstborn of man amongst your sons. 14 It shall be, when for money, when you have circumcised him, then shall bondage. 15 When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the children of Israel swear, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones away from here with you." 20 They took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. 21 The LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead them on their way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, that they might go by day and by night: 22 the pillar of cloud by day, and the pillar of fire by night, didn't depart from before the people.

14 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 2 "Speak to the children of Israel, that they turn back and encamp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, this service in this month. 6 Seven days you shall eat before Baal Zephon. You shall encamp opposite it by the unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a sea. 3 Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, 'They feast to the LORD. 7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten are entangled in the land. The wilderness has shut them throughout the seven days; and no leavened bread shall in.' 41 will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will follow be seen with you. No yeast shall be seen with you, after them; and I will get honour over Pharaoh, and within all your borders. 8 You shall tell your son in that over all his armies; and the Egyptians shall know that I told that the people had fled; and the heart of Pharaoh 24 In the morning watch, the LORD looked out on the and of his servants was changed towards the people, Egyptian army through the pillar of fire and of cloud, and they said, "What is this we have done, that we and confused the Egyptian army. 25 He took off their have let Israel go from serving us?" 6 He prepared his chariot wheels, and they drove them heavily; so that chariot, and took his army with him; 7 and he took six the Egyptians said, "Let's flee from the face of Israel, hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians!" with captains over all of them. 8 The LORD hardened 26 The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued over the sea, that the waters may come again on the the children of Israel; for the children of Israel went out Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen." 27 with a high hand. 9 The Egyptians pursued them. All Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen, and returned to its strength when the morning appeared; his army overtook them encamping by the sea, beside and the Egyptians fled against it. The LORD overthrew Pihahiroth, before Baal Zephon. 10 When Pharaoh the Egyptians in the middle of the sea. 28 The waters came near, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and returned, and covered the chariots and the horsemen, behold, the Egyptians were marching after them; and even all Pharaoh's army that went in after them into they were very afraid. The children of Israel cried out to the sea. There remained not so much as one of them. the LORD. 11 They said to Moses, "Because there were 29 But the children of Israel walked on dry land in the no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the middle of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them wilderness? Why have you treated us this way, to bring on their right hand and on their left. 30 Thus the LORD us out of Egypt? 12 Isn't this the word that we spoke saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; to you in Egypt, saying, 'Leave us alone, that we may and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. 31 serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for Israel saw the great work which the LORD did to the us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness." Egyptians, and the people feared the LORD; and they 13 Moses said to the people, "Don't be afraid. Stand still, believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses. and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will work for you today: for you will never again see the Egyptians whom you have seen today. 14 The LORD will fight for you, and you shall be still." 15 The LORD said to Moses, "Why do you cry to me? Speak to the children of Israel, that they go forward. 16 Lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it. Then the children of Israel shall go into the middle of the sea on dry ground. 17 Behold, I myself will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they will go in after them. I will get myself honour over Pharaoh, and over all his armies, over his chariots, and over his horsemen. 18 The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when I have gotten myself honour over Pharaoh, over his chariots, and over his horsemen." 19 The angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them, and stood behind them. 20 It came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. There was the cloud and the darkness, yet it gave light by night. One didn't come near the other all night. 21 Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. 22 The children of Israel went into the middle of the sea on the dry ground; and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. 23 The Egyptians pursued, and went in after them into the middle of the sea: all

15 Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD, and said, "I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously. He has thrown the horse and his rider into the sea. 2 The LORD is my strength and song. He has become my salvation. This is my God, and I will praise him; my father's God, and I will exalt him. 3 The LORD is a man of war. The LORD is his name. 4 He has cast Pharaoh's chariots and his army into the sea. His chosen captains are sunk in the Red Sea. 5 The deeps cover them. They went down into the depths like a stone. 6 Your right hand, LORD, is alorious in power, Your right hand, LORD. dashes the enemy in pieces. 7 In the greatness of your excellency, you overthrow those who rise up against you. You send out your wrath. It consumes them as stubble. 8 With the blast of your nostrils, the waters were piled up. The floods stood upright as a heap. The deeps were congealed in the heart of the sea. 9 The enemy said, 'I will pursue. I will overtake. I will divide the plunder. My desire will be satisfied on them. I will draw my sword. My hand will destroy them.' 10 You blew with your wind. The sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters. 11 Who is like you, LORD, amongst the gods? Who is like you, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders? 12 You stretched out your right hand. The earth swallowed them. 13 "You, in your loving kindness, have led the people that you have redeemed. You have guided them in your strength to

He has thrown the horse appeared in the cloud. 11 The LORD spoke to Moses, and his rider into the sea." 22 Moses led Israel onward saying, 12 "I have heard the murmurings of the children from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Israel. Speak to them, saying, 'At evening you shall of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with and found no water. 23 When they came to Marah, they bread. Then you will know that I am the LORD your couldn't drink from the waters of Marah, for they were God." 13 In the evening, quail came up and covered bitter. Therefore its name was called Marah. 24 The the camp; and in the morning the dew lay around the people murmured against Moses, saving, "What shall camp. 14 When the dew that lay had gone, behold, on we drink?" 25 Then he cried to the LORD. The LORD the surface of the wilderness was a small round thing, showed him a tree, and he threw it into the waters, and small as the frost on the ground. 15 When the children the waters were made sweet. There he made a statute of Israel saw it, they said to one another, "What is it?" and an ordinance for them, and there he tested them. For they didn't know what it was. Moses said to them, 26 He said, "If you will diligently listen to the LORD your "It is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat. God's voice, and will do that which is right in his eyes, 16 This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: and will pay attention to his commandments, and keep 'Gather of it everyone according to his eating; an omer all his statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you a head, according to the number of your persons, you which I have put on the Egyptians; for I am the LORD shall take it, every man for those who are in his tent." who heals you." 27 They came to Elim, where there 17 The children of Israel did so, and some gathered were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees. more, some less. 18 When they measured it with an They encamped there by the waters.

16 They took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin. which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt. 2 The whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness; 3 and the children of Israel said to them, "We wish that we had died by the LORD's hand in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the meat pots, when we ate our fill of bread, for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger." 4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I will rain bread from the sky for you,

They each gathered according to his eating. 19 Moses said to them, "Let no one leave of it until the morning." 20 Notwithstanding they didn't listen to Moses, but some of them left of it until the morning, so it bred worms and became foul; and Moses was angry with them. 21 They gathered it morning by morning, everyone according to his eating. When the sun grew hot, it melted. 22 On the sixth day, they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one; and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. 23 He said to them, "This is that which the LORD has spoken, 'Tomorrow is a solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. 18 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-inlaw, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people, how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt. 2 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, received Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her away, 3 and her two sons. The name of one son was Gershom, for Moses said, "I have lived as a foreigner in a foreign land". 4 The name of the other was Eliezer, for he said, "My father's God was my help and delivered me from Pharaoh's sword." 5 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, 17 All the congregation of the children of Israel came with Moses' sons and his wife to Moses into the wilderness where he was encamped, at the Mountain of according to the LORD's commandment, and encamped God. 6 He said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, in Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to have come to you with your wife, and her two sons with her." 7 Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses said to them, bowed and kissed him. They asked each other of their "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the welfare, and they came into the tent. 8 Moses told his LORD?" 3 The people were thirsty for water there; so father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardships have you brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, our that had come on them on the way, and how the LORD children, and our livestock with thirst?" 4 Moses cried to delivered them. 9 Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness the LORD, saying, "What shall I do with these people? which the LORD had done to Israel, in that he had They are almost ready to stone me." 5 The LORD said delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians. 10 to Moses, "Walk on before the people, and take the Jethro said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered elders of Israel with you, and take the rod in your hand you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the with which you struck the Nile, and go. 6 Behold, I will hand of Pharaoh; who has delivered the people from stand before you there on the rock in Horeb. You shall under the hand of the Egyptians. 11 Now I know that strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the the LORD is greater than all gods because of the way people may drink." Moses did so in the sight of the that they treated people arrogantly." 12 Jethro, Moses' elders of Israel. 7 He called the name of the place father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for Massah, and Meribah, because the children of Israel God. Aaron came with all the elders of Israel, to eat quarrelled, and because they tested the LORD, saying, bread with Moses' father-in-law before God. 13 On the

19 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that same day they came into the wilderness of Sinai. 2 When they had departed from Rephidim, and had come to the wilderness of Sinai, they encamped in the wilderness; and there Israel encamped before the mountain. Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, "This is what you shall tell the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: 4 'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings, and brought you to myself. 5 Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice and keep my covenant, then you shall be my own possession from amongst all peoples; for all the earth is mine; 6 and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy

So Don't have sexual relations with a woman." 16 On the shall it be easier for you, and they shall share the load third day, when it was morning, there were thunders with you. 23 If you will do this thing, and God commands and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and you so, then you will be able to endure, and all these the sound of an exceedingly loud trumpet; and all the people also will go to their place in peace." 24 So Moses people who were in the camp trembled. 17 Moses led listened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all the people out of the camp to meet God; and they stood that he had said. 25 Moses chose able men out of all at the lower part of the mountain. 18 All of Mount Sinai Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers smoked, because the LORD descended on it in fire; and of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and rulers of tens. 26 They judged the people at all times. the whole mountain quaked greatly. 19 When the sound They brought the hard cases to Moses, but every small of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice. 20 The LORD came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. The LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. 21 The LORD said to Moses, "Go down, warn the people, lest they break through to the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish. 22 Let the priests also, who come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break out on them." 23 Moses said to the LORD, "The people can't come up to Mount Sinai, for you warned us, saying, 'Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it." 24 The LORD said to him, "Go down! You shall bring Aaron up with you, but don't let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest he break out against them." 25 So Moses went down to the people, and told them.

24 He said to Moses, "Come up to the LORD, you. and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship from a distance. 2 Moses alone shall come near to the LORD, but they shall not come near. The people shall not go up with him." 3 Moses came and told the people all the LORD's words, and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, "All the words which the LORD has spoken will we do." 4 Moses wrote all the LORD's words, then rose up early in the morning and built an altar at the base of the mountain, with twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. 5 He sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of cattle to the LORD. 6 Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. 7 He took the book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people, and they said, "We will do all that the LORD has said, and be obedient." 8 Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, "Look, this is the blood of the covenant, which the LORD has made with you concerning all these words." 9 Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up. 10 They saw the God of Israel. Under his feet was like a paved work of sapphire stone, like the skies for clearness. 11 He didn't lay his hand on the nobles of the children of Israel. They saw God, and ate and drank. 12 The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and stay here, and I will give you the stone tablets with the law and the commands that I have written, that you may teach them." 13 Moses rose up with Joshua, his servant, and Moses went up onto God's Mountain. 14 He said to the elders, "Wait here for us, until we come again to you. Behold, Aaron and Hur are with you. Whoever is involved in a dispute can go to them." 15 Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. 16 The LORD's

You shall the court shall be a screen of twenty cubits, of blue, put the braided chains on the settings. 15 "You shall and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work make a breastplate of judgement, the work of the skilful of the embroiderer; their pillars four, and their sockets, workman; like the work of the ephod you shall make it; four. 17 All the pillars of the court around shall be filleted of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined with silver; their hooks of silver, and their sockets of linen, you shall make it. 16 It shall be square and folded bronze. 18 The length of the court shall be one hundred double; a span shall be its length, and a span its width. cubits, and the width fifty throughout, and the height 17 You shall set in it settings of stones, four rows of five cubits, of fine twined linen, and their sockets of stones: a row of ruby, topaz, and beryl shall be the first bronze. 19 All the instruments of the tabernacle in all its row; 18 and the second row a turquoise, a sapphire, and service, and all its pins, and all the pins of the court, an emerald; 19 and the third row a jacinth, an agate, shall be of bronze. 20 "You shall command the children and an amethyst; 20 and the fourth row a chrysolite, an of Israel, that they bring to you pure olive oil beaten onyx, and a jasper. They shall be enclosed in gold in for the light, to cause a lamp to burn continually. 21 In their settings. 21 The stones shall be according to the the Tent of Meeting, outside the veil which is before names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to the covenant. Aaron and his sons shall keep it in order their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone from evening to morning before the LORD: it shall be according to his name, they shall be for the twelve a statute forever throughout their generations on the tribes. 22 You shall make on the breastplate chains like behalf of the children of Israel.

28 "Bring Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, near to you from amongst the children of Israel, that he may minister to me in the priest's office: Aaron. with Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. 2 You shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother. for glory and for beauty. 3 You shall speak to all who are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron's garments to sanctify him, that he may minister to me in the priest's office. 4 These are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, an ephod, a robe, a fitted tunic, a turban, and a sash. They shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother and his sons, that he may minister to me in the priest's office. 5 They shall use the gold, and the blue, and the purple, and the scarlet, and the fine linen. 6 "They shall make the ephod of gold, blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the skilful workman. 7 It shall have two shoulder straps joined to the two ends of it, that it may be joined together. 8 The skilfully woven band, which is on it, shall be like its work and of the same piece; of gold, blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen. 9 You shall take two onvx stones, and engrave on them the names of the children of Israel. 10 Six of their names on the one stone, and the names of the six that remain on the other stone, in the order of their birth. 11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, you shall engrave the two stones, according to the names of the children of Israel. You shall make them to be enclosed in settings of gold. 12 You shall put the two stones on the shoulder straps of the ephod, to be stones of memorial for the children of Israel. Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders for a memorial. 13 You shall make settings of gold, 14 and two chains of pure gold; you cords, of braided work of pure gold. 23 You shall make on the breastplate two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. 24 You shall put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. 25 The other two ends of the two braided chains you shall put on the two settings. and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in its forepart. 26 You shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which is towards the side of the ephod inward. 27 You shall make two rings of gold, and shall put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in its forepart, close by its coupling, above the skilfully woven band of the ephod. 28 They shall bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue. that it may be on the skilfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate may not swing out from the ephod. 29 Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgement on his heart, when he goes in to the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually. 30 You shall put in the breastplate of judgement the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be on Aaron's heart, when he goes in before the LORD. Aaron shall bear the judgement of the children of Israel on his heart before the LORD continually. 31 "You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue, 32 It shall have a hole for the head in the middle of it. It shall have a binding of woven work around its hole, as it were the hole of a coat of mail, that it not be torn. 33 On its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, all around its hem; with bells of gold between and around them: 34 a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, around the hem of the robe. 35 It shall be on Aaron to minister: and its sound shall be heard when he goes in to the holy place before the LORD, and when he fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar. 14 But comes out, that he not die. 36 "You shall make a plate the meat of the bull, and its skin, and its dung, you shall of pure gold, and engrave on it, like the engravings of burn with fire outside of the camp. It is a sin offering. 15 a signet, 'HOLY TO THE LORD.' 37 You shall put it "You shall also take the one ram, and Aaron and his on a lace of blue, and it shall be on the sash. It shall sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram. 16 be on the front of the sash. 38 It shall be on Aaron's You shall kill the ram, and you shall take its blood, and forehead, and Aaron shall bear the iniquity of the holy sprinkle it around on the altar. 17 You shall cut the ram things, which the children of Israel shall make holy in all into its pieces, and wash its innards, and its legs, and their holy gifts; and it shall be always on his forehead, put them with its pieces, and with its head. 18 You shall that they may be accepted before the LORD. 39 You burn the whole ram on the altar: it is a burnt offering shall weave the tunic with fine linen. You shall make a to the LORD; it is a pleasant aroma, an offering made turban of fine linen. You shall make a sash, the work of by fire to the LORD. 19 "You shall take the other ram, the embroiderer. 40 "You shall make tunics for Aaron's and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the sons. You shall make sashes for them. You shall make head of the ram. 20 Then you shall kill the ram, and headbands for them, for glory and for beauty. 41 You take some of its blood, and put it on the tip of the right shall put them on Aaron your brother, and on his sons ear of Aaron, and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, with him, and shall anoint them, and consecrate them, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the of their right foot; and sprinkle the blood around on the priest's office. 42 You shall make them linen pants to altar. 21 You shall take of the blood that is on the altar, cover their naked flesh. They shall reach from the waist and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron, and on even to the thighs. 43 They shall be on Aaron and on his garments, and on his sons, and on the garments of his sons, when they go in to the Tent of Meeting, or his sons with him: and he shall be made holy, and his when they come near to the altar to minister in the holy place, that they don't bear iniquity, and die. This shall be him. 22 Also you shall take some of the ram's fat, the fat a statute forever to him and to his offspring after him.

29 "This is the thing that you shall do to them to make them holy, to minister to me in the priest's office: take one young bull and two rams without defect, 2 unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil. You shall make them of fine wheat flour. 3 You shall put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams. 4 You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall wash them with water. 5 You shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and clothe him with the skilfully woven band of the ephod. 6 You shall set the turban on his head, and put the holy crown on the turban. 7 Then you shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on his head, and anoint him. 8 You shall bring his sons, and put tunics on them. 9 You shall clothe them with belts, Aaron and his sons, and bind headbands on them. They shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute. You shall consecrate Aaron and his sons. 10 "You shall bring the bull before the Tent of Meeting; and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull. 11 You shall kill the bull before the LORD at the door of the Tent of Meeting. 12 You shall take of the blood of the bull, and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; and you shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar. 13 You shall take all the fat that covers the innards, the cover of the liver, the two kidneys, and the garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with tail, the fat that covers the innards, the cover of the liver, the two kidneys, the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of consecration), 23 and one loaf of bread, one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before the LORD. 24 You shall put all of this in Aaron's hands, and in his sons' hands, and shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. 25 You shall take them from their hands, and burn them on the altar on the burnt offering, for a pleasant aroma before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire to the LORD. 26 "You shall take the breast of Aaron's ram of consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD. It shall be your portion. 27 You shall sanctify the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the wave offering, which is waved, and which is raised up, of the ram of consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons. 28 It shall be for Aaron and his sons as their portion forever from the children of Israel; for it is a wave offering. It shall be a wave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, even their wave offering to the LORD. 29 "The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, to be anointed in them, and to be consecrated in them. 30 Seven days shall the son who is priest in his place put them on, when he comes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the holy place. 31 "You shall take the ram of consecration and boil its meat in a holy place. 32 Aaron and his sons shall eat the meat of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, at the door of the Tent of Meeting, 33 They Aaron lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn it, a shall eat those things with which atonement was made, perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your to consecrate and sanctify them; but a stranger shall not generations. 9 You shall offer no strange incense on it, eat of it, because they are holy. 34 If anything of the nor burnt offering, nor meal offering; and you shall pour meat of the consecration, or of the bread, remains to no drink offering on it. 10 Aaron shall make atonement the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with on its horns once in the year; with the blood of the sin fire. It shall not be eaten, because it is holy. 35 "You offering of atonement once in the year he shall make shall do so to Aaron and to his sons, according to all atonement for it throughout your generations. It is most that I have commanded you. You shall consecrate them holy to the LORD." 11 The LORD spoke to Moses, seven days. 36 Every day you shall offer the bull of saying, 12 "When you take a census of the children of sin offering for atonement. You shall cleanse the altar Israel, according to those who are counted amongst when you make atonement for it. You shall anoint it, to them, then each man shall give a ransom for his soul sanctify it. 37 Seven days you shall make atonement for to the LORD when you count them, that there be no the altar, and sanctify it; and the altar shall be most holy. plaque amongst them when you count them. 13 They Whatever touches the altar shall be holy. 38 "Now this is shall give this, everyone who passes over to those who that which you shall offer on the altar: two lambs a year are counted, half a shekel according to the shekel of the old day by day continually. 39 The one lamb you shall sanctuary (the shekel is twenty gerahs); half a shekel offer in the morning; and the other lamb you shall offer for an offering to the LORD. 14 Everyone who passes at evening; 40 and with the one lamb a tenth part of an over to those who are counted, from twenty years old ephah of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin and upward, shall give the offering to the LORD. 15 The of beaten oil, and the fourth part of a hin of wine for rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, a drink offering. 41 The other lamb you shall offer at than the half shekel, when they give the offering of the evening, and shall do to it according to the meal offering LORD, to make atonement for your souls. 16 You shall of the morning and according to its drink offering, for a take the atonement money from the children of Israel, pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD, and shall appoint it for the service of the Tent of Meeting; 42 It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before generations at the door of the Tent of Meeting before the LORD, to make atonement for your souls." 17 The the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak there LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 18 "You shall also make to you. 43 There I will meet with the children of Israel; a basin of bronze, and its base of bronze, in which to and the place shall be sanctified by my glory. 44 I will wash. You shall put it between the Tent of Meeting and sanctify the Tent of Meeting and the altar. I will also the altar, and you shall put water in it. 19 Aaron and sanctify Aaron and his sons to minister to me in the his sons shall wash their hands and their feet in it. 20 priest's office. 45 I will dwell amongst the children of When they go into the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash Israel, and will be their God. 46 They shall know that I with water, that they not die; or when they come near to am the LORD their God, who brought them out of the the altar to minister, to burn an offering made by fire to land of Egypt, that I might dwell amongst them: I am the the LORD. 21 So they shall wash their hands and their LORD their God.

30 "You shall make an altar to burn incense on. You shall make it of acacia wood. 2 Its length shall be a cubit, and its width a cubit. It shall be square, and its height shall be two cubits. Its horns shall be of one piece with it. 3 You shall overlay it with pure gold, its top, its sides around it, and its horns; and you shall make a gold moulding around it. 4 You shall make two golden rings for it under its moulding; on its two ribs, on its two sides you shall make them; and they shall be for places for poles with which to bear it. 5 You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold. 6 You shall put it before the veil that is by the ark of the covenant, before the mercy seat that is over the covenant, where I will meet with you. 7 Aaron shall burn incense of sweet spices on it every morning. When he tends the lamps, he shall burn it. 8 When feet, that they not die. This shall be a statute forever to them, even to him and to his descendants throughout their generations." 22 Moreover the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 23 "Also take fine spices: of liquid myrrh, five hundred shekels; and of fragrant cinnamon half as much, even two hundred and fifty; and of fragrant cane. two hundred and fifty; 24 and of cassia five hundred, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; and a hin of olive oil. 25 You shall make it into a holy anointing oil, a perfume compounded after the art of the perfumer: it shall be a holy anointing oil. 26 You shall use it to anoint the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the covenant, 27 the table and all its articles, the lamp stand and its accessories, the altar of incense. 28 the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its base. 29 You shall sanctify them, that they may be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy. 30 You shall anoint Aaron people." 34 The LORD said to Moses, "Take to yourself written with God's finger. sweet spices, gum resin, onycha, and galbanum: sweet spices with pure frankincense. There shall be an equal weight of each. 35 You shall make incense of it, a perfume after the art of the perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy. 36 You shall beat some of it very small, and put some of it before the covenant in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be to you most holy. 37 You shall not make this incense, according to its composition, for yourselves: it shall be to you holy for the LORD. 38 Whoever shall make any like that, to smell of it, he shall be cut off from his people."

31 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 2 "Behold. I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. 3 I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all kinds of workmanship, 4 to devise skilful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, 5 and in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all kinds of workmanship. 6 Behold, I myself have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of all who are wise-hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you: 7 the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the covenant, the mercy seat that is on it, all the furniture of the Tent, 8 the table and its vessels, the pure lamp stand with all its vessels, the altar of incense, 9 the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, the basin and its base. 10 the finely worked garments—the holy garments for Aaron the priest, the garments of his sons to minister in the priest's office— 11 the anointing oil, and the incense of sweet spices for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded you they shall do." 12 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 13 "Speak also to the children of Israel, saying, 'Most certainly you shall keep my Sabbaths; for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you. 14 You shall keep the Sabbath therefore, for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from amongst his people. 15 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a does any work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put spoken of I will give to your offspring, and they shall and his sons, and sanctify them, that they may minister to death. 16 Therefore the children of Israel shall keep to me in the priest's office. 31 You shall speak to the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their children of Israel, saying, 'This shall be a holy anointing generations, for a perpetual covenant. 17 It is a sign oil to me throughout your generations. 32 It shall not between me and the children of Israel forever; for in six be poured on man's flesh, and do not make any like it, days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the according to its composition. It is holy. It shall be holy to seventh day he rested, and was refreshed." 18 When you. 33 Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever he finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, he gave puts any of it on a stranger, he shall be cut off from his Moses the two tablets of the covenant, stone tablets, ${\bf 32}$ When the people saw that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him." 2 Aaron said to them, "Take off the golden rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them to me." 3 All the people took off the golden rings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. 4 He received what they handed him, fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made it a moulded calf. Then they said, "These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt." 5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation, and said, "Tomorrow shall be a feast to the LORD." 6 They rose up early on the next day, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. 7 The LORD spoke to Moses, "Go, get down; for your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves! 8 They have turned away guickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a moulded calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt." 9 The LORD said to Moses, "I have seen these people, and behold, they are a stiff-necked people. 10 Now therefore leave me alone, that my wrath may burn hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of you a great nation." 11 Moses begged the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, that you have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? 12 Why should the Egyptians talk, saying, 'He brought them out for evil, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the surface of the earth'? Turn from your fierce wrath, and turn away from this evil against your people. 13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, and said to them, 'I will multiply your offspring Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever as the stars of the sky, and all this land that I have the evil which he said he would do to his people. 15 Behold, my angel shall go before you. Nevertheless, in Moses turned, and went down from the mountain, with the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin." the two tablets of the covenant in his hand; tablets that 35 The LORD struck the people, because of what they were written on both their sides. They were written on did with the calf, which Aaron made. one side and on the other. 16 The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God. engraved on the tablets. 17 When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is the noise of war in the camp." 18 He said, "It isn't the voice of those who shout for victory. It is not the voice of those who cry for being overcome; but the noise of those who sing that I hear." 19 As soon as he came near to the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing. Then Moses' anger grew hot, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and broke them beneath the mountain. 20 He took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, ground it to powder, and scattered it on the water, and made the children of Israel drink it. 21 Moses said to Aaron, "What did these people do to you, that you have brought a great sin on them?" 22 Aaron said, "Don't let the anger of my lord grow hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil. 23 For they said to me, 'Make us gods, which shall go before us. As for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him.' 24 I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold, let them take it off.' So they gave it to me; and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf." 25 When Moses saw that the people were out of control, (for Aaron had let them lose control, causing derision amongst their enemies), 26 then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, "Whoever is on the LORD's side, come to me!" All the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him. 27 He said to them, "The LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'Every man put his sword on his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and every man kill his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour." 28 The sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. About three thousand men fell of the people that day. 29 Moses said, "Consecrate vourselves today to the LORD, for every man was against his son and against his brother, that he may give you a blessing today." 30 On the next day, Moses said to the people, "You have sinned a great sin. Now I will go up to the LORD. Perhaps I shall make atonement for your sin." 31 Moses returned to the LORD, and said, "Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made themselves gods of gold. 32 Yet now, if you will, forgive their sin—and if not, please blot me out of your book which you have written." 33 The LORD said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against me, I will blot him out of my book. 34 Now go, lead inherit it forever." 14 So the LORD turned away from the people to the place of which I have spoken to you.

33 The LORD spoke to Moses, "Depart, go up from here, you and the people that you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your offspring.' 2 I will send an angel before vou: and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. 3 Go to a land flowing with milk and honey; but I will not go up amongst you, for you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you on the way." 4 When the people heard this evil news, they mourned; and no one put on his jewellery. 5 The LORD had said to Moses, "Tell the children of Israel, 'You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go up amongst you for one moment. I would consume you. Therefore now take off your jewellery from you, that I may know what to do to you." 6 The children of Israel stripped themselves of their jewellery from Mount Horeb onward. 7 Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp, and he called it "The Tent of Meeting." Everyone who sought the LORD went out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp. 8 When Moses went out to the Tent, all the people rose up, and stood, everyone at their tent door, and watched Moses, until he had gone into the Tent. 9 When Moses entered into the Tent, the pillar of cloud descended, stood at the door of the Tent, and the LORD spoke with Moses. 10 All the people saw the pillar of cloud stand at the door of the Tent, and all the people rose up and worshipped, everyone at their tent door. 11 The LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. He turned again into the camp, but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, didn't depart from the Tent. 12 Moses said to the LORD, "Behold, you tell me, 'Bring up this people;' and you haven't let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favour in my sight.' 13 Now therefore. if I have found favour in your sight, please show me your way, now, that I may know you, so that I may find favour in your sight; and consider that this nation is your people." 14 He said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest." 15 Moses said to him. "If your presence doesn't go with me, don't carry us up from here. 16 For how would people know that I have found favour in your sight, I and your people? Isn't it that you go with us, so that we are separated, I and your people, from all the people who are on the surface of the earth?" 17 The LORD said to Moses, "I will do this thing also that you have spoken; for you have found favour in my sight, a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, lest they and I know you by name." 18 Moses said, "Please show play the prostitute after their gods, and sacrifice to their me your glory." 19 He said, "I will make all my goodness gods, and one call you and you eat of his sacrifice; 16 pass before you, and will proclaim the LORD's name and you take of their daughters to your sons, and their before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy." 20 He said, "You cannot see my face, for man may not see me and live." 21 The LORD also said, "Behold, there is a keep the feast of unleavened bread. Seven days you place by me, and you shall stand on the rock. 22 It will happen, while my glory passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with my hand until you came out of Egypt. 19 "All that opens the womb is I have passed by; 23 then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back; but my face shall not be seen."

34 The LORD said to Moses, "Chisel two stone tablets like the first. I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. 2 Be ready by the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to me on the top of the mountain. 3 No one shall come up with you or be seen anywhere on the mountain. Do not let the flocks or herds graze in front of that mountain." 4 He chiselled two tablets of stone like the first; then Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up to Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand two stone tablets. 5 The LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the LORD's name. 6 The LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, "The LORD! The LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth, 7 keeping loving kindness for thousands, forgiving iniquity and disobedience and sin; and who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the children's children, on the third and on the fourth generation." 8 Moses hurried and bowed his head towards the earth, and worshipped. 9 He said, "If now I have found favour in your sight, Lord, please let the Lord go amongst us, even though this is a stiff-necked people; pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance." 10 He said, "Behold, I make a covenant: before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been worked in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people amongst whom you are shall see the work of the LORD; for it is an awesome thing that I do with you. 11 Observe that which I command you today. Behold, I will drive out before you the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. 12 Be careful, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be for a snare amongst you; 13 but you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and you shall cut down their Asherah poles; 14 for you shall worship no other god; for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God. 15 "Don't make time appointed in the month Abib; for in the month Abib you came out of Egypt. 19 "All that opens the womb is cow and sheep. 20 You shall redeem the firstborn of a donkey with a lamb. If you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. You shall redeem all the firstborn of your sons. No one shall appear before me empty. 21 "Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest: in ploughing time and in harvest you shall rest. 22 "You shall observe the feast of weeks with the first fruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of harvest at the year's end. 23 Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel. 24 For I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your borders; neither shall any man desire your land when you go up to appear before the LORD, your God, three times in the year. 25 "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread. The sacrifice of the feast of the Passover shall not be left to the morning. 26 "You shall bring the first of the first fruits of your ground to the house of the LORD your God. "You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk." 27 The LORD said to Moses, "Write these words; for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel." 28 He was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread, nor drank water. He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments. 29 When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the covenant in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mountain, Moses didn't know that the skin of his face shone by reason of his speaking with him. 30 When Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come near him. 31 Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Moses spoke to them. 32 Afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he gave them all the commandments that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. 33 When Moses was done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face. 34 But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out; and he came out, and spoke to the children of Israel that which he was commanded. 35 The children went in to speak with him.

35 Moses assembled all the congregation of the children of Israel, and said to them, "These are the words which the LORD has commanded, that you should do them. 2 'Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of solemn rest to the LORD: whoever does any work in it shall be put to death. 3 You shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the Sabbath day." 4 Moses spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying, 5 'Take from amongst you an offering to the LORD. Whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it as the LORD's offering: gold, silver, bronze, 6 blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair, 7 rams' skins dyed red, sea cow hides, acacia wood, 8 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense, 9 onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate. 10 "Let every wise-hearted man amongst you come, and make all that the LORD has commanded: 11 the tabernacle, its outer covering, its roof, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; 12 the ark, and its poles, the mercy seat, the veil of the screen; 13 the table with its poles and all its vessels, and the show bread; 14 the lamp stand also for the light, with its vessels, its lamps, and the oil for the light; 15 and the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door, at the door of the tabernacle; 16 the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of bronze, its and understanding to know how to do all the work for the poles, and all its vessels, the basin and its base; 17 service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD the hangings of the court, its pillars, their sockets, and has commanded." 2 Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab, the screen for the gate of the court; 18 the pins of the and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart the LORD tabernacle, the pins of the court, and their cords; 19 had put wisdom, even everyone whose heart stirred him the finely worked garments for ministering in the holy up to come to the work to do it. 3 They received from place—the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had garments of his sons—to minister in the priest's office." brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, 20 All the congregation of the children of Israel departed with which to make it. They kept bringing free will from the presence of Moses. 21 They came, everyone offerings to him every morning. 4 All the wise men, who whose heart stirred him up, and everyone whom his performed all the work of the sanctuary, each came from spirit made willing, and brought the LORD's offering for his work which he did. 5 They spoke to Moses, saying, the work of the Tent of Meeting, and for all of its service, "The people have brought much more than enough for and for the holy garments. 22 They came, both men and the service of the work which the LORD commanded women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought to make." 6 Moses gave a commandment, and they brooches, earrings, signet rings, and armlets, all jewels caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, of gold; even every man who offered an offering of gold "Let neither man nor woman make anything else for to the LORD. 23 Everyone with whom was found blue, the offering for the sanctuary." So the people were purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair, rams' skins dyed restrained from bringing. 7 For the stuff they had was red, and sea cow hides, brought them. 24 Everyone sufficient to do all the work, and too much. 8 All the

of Israel saw Moses' face, that the skin of Moses' face, LORD's offering; and everyone with whom was found shone; so Moses put the veil on his face again, until he acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it. 25 All the women who were wise-hearted spun with their hands, and brought that which they had spun: the blue, the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen. 26 All the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun the goats' hair. 27 The rulers brought the onyx stones and the stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate; 28 with the spice and the oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. 29 The children of Israel brought a free will offering to the LORD; every man and woman whose heart made them willing to bring for all the work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by Moses. 30 Moses said to the children of Israel, "Behold, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. 31 He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all kinds of workmanship; 32 and to make skilful works, to work in gold, in silver, in bronze, 33 in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all kinds of skilful workmanship. 34 He has put in his heart that he may teach, both he and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. 35 He has filled them with wisdom of heart to work all kinds of workmanship, of the engraver, of the skilful workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of those who do any workmanship, and of those who make skilful works.

He made them eleven curtains. 15 The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits the width of each curtain. The eleven curtains had one measure. 16 He coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. 17 He made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the coupling, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which was outermost in the second coupling. 18 He made fifty clasps of bronze to couple the tent together, that it might be a unit. 19 He made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dved red. and a covering of sea cow hides above. 20 He made the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing up. 21 Ten cubits was the length of a board, and a cubit and a half the width of each board. 22 Each board had two tenons, joined to one another. He made all the boards of the tabernacle this way. 23 He made the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side southward. 24 He made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. 25 For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty boards 26 and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. 27 For the far part of the tabernacle westward he made six boards. 28 He made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the far part. 29 They were double beneath, and in the same way they were all the way to its top to one ring. He did this to both of them in the two corners. 30 There were eight boards and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets—under every board two sockets. 31 He made bars of acacia wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle. 32 and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the hinder part westward. 33 He made the middle bar to pass through in the middle of

37 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood. Its length was two and a half cubits, and its width a cubit and a half, and a cubit and a half its height. 2 He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a moulding of gold for it around it. 3 He cast four rings of gold for it in its four feet—two rings on its one side, and two rings on its other side. 4 He made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. 5 He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to bear the ark. 6 He made a mercy seat of pure gold. Its length was two and a half cubits, and a cubit and a half its width. 7 He made two cherubim of gold. He made them of beaten work, at the two ends of the mercy seat: 8 one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. He made the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat at its two ends. 9 The cherubim spread out their wings above, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces towards one another. The faces of the cherubim were towards the mercy seat. 10 He made the table of acacia wood. Its length was two cubits, and its width was a cubit, and its height was a cubit and a half. 11 He overlaid it with pure gold, and made a gold moulding around it. 12 He made a border of a hand's width around it, and made a golden moulding on its border around it. 13 He cast four rings of gold for it, and put the rings in the four corners that were on its four feet. 14 The rings were close by the border, the places for the poles to carry the table. 15 He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table. 16 He made the vessels which were on the table, its dishes, its spoons, its bowls, and its pitchers with which to pour out, of pure gold. 17 He made the lamp stand of pure gold. He made the lamp stand of beaten work. Its base, its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its flowers were of one piece with it. 18 There were six branches going out of its sides: three branches of the lamp stand out of its one side, and three branches of the lamp stand out of its other side: 19 three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a bud and a flower, and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a bud and a flower; so for the six branches other side; on this hand and that hand by the gate of the going out of the lamp stand. 20 In the lamp stand were court were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, incense of sweet spices, after the art of the perfumer.

38 He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood. It was square. Its length was five cubits, its width was five cubits, and its height was three cubits. 2 He made its horns on its four corners. Its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze. 3 He made all the vessels of the altar: the pots, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the fire pans. He made all its vessels of bronze. 4 He made for the altar a grating of a network of bronze, under the ledge around it beneath, reaching halfway up. 5 He cast four rings for the four corners of bronze grating, to be places for the poles. 6 He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze. 7 He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. He made it hollow with planks. 8 He made the basin of bronze, and its base of bronze, out of the mirrors of the ministering women who ministered at the door of the Tent of Meeting. 9 He made the court: for the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, one hundred cubits; 10 their pillars were twenty, and their sockets twenty, of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver. 11 For the north side one hundred cubits, their pillars twenty, and their sockets twenty, of bronze; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver. 12 For the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver. 13 For the east side eastward fifty cubits, 14 the hangings for the one side were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three; 15 and so for the four cups made like almond blossoms, its buds and its and their sockets three. 16 All the hangings around flowers; 21 and a bud under two branches of one piece the court were of fine twined linen. 17 The sockets for with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with the pillars were of bronze. The hooks of the pillars and it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, their fillets were of silver. Their anointing shall be to them for an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations." 16 Moses did so. According to all that the LORD commanded him, so he did. 17 In the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was raised up. 18 Moses raised up the tabernacle, and laid its sockets, and set up its boards, and put in its bars, and raised up its pillars. 19 He spread the covering over the tent, and put the roof of the tabernacle above on it, as the LORD commanded Moses. 20 He took and put the covenant into the ark, and set the poles on the ark, and put the mercy seat above on the ark. 21 He brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the veil of the screen, and screened the ark of the covenant, as the LORD commanded Moses. 22 He put the table in the Tent of Meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside of the veil. 23 He set the bread in order on it before the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses. 24 He put the lamp stand in the Tent of Meeting, opposite the table, on the south side of the tabernacle. 25 He lit the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses. 26 He put the golden altar in the Tent of Meeting before the veil; 27 and he burnt incense of sweet spices on it, as the LORD commanded Moses. 28 He put up the screen of the door to the tabernacle. 29 He set the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering, as the LORD commanded Moses. 30 He set the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water therein, with which to wash. 31 Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet there. 32 When they went into the Tent of Meeting, and when they came near to the altar, they washed, as the LORD commanded Moses. 33 He raised up the court around the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the screen of the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work. 34 Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the LORD's glory filled the tabernacle. 35 Moses wasn't able to enter into the Tent of Meeting,

Leviticus

1 The LORD called to Moses, and spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting, saying, 2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When anyone of you offers an offering to the LORD, you shall offer your offering of the livestock, from the herd and from the flock. 3 "If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without defect. He shall offer it at the door of the Tent of Meeting, that he may be accepted before the LORD. 4 He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. 5 He shall kill the bull before the LORD. Aaron's sons, the priests, shall present the blood and sprinkle the blood around on the altar that is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. 6 He shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into pieces. 7 The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay wood in order on the fire; 8 and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar; 9 but he shall wash its innards and its legs with water. The priest shall burn all of it on the altar, for a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. 10 "If his offering is from the flock, from the sheep or from the goats, for a burnt offering, he shall offer a male without defect. 11 He shall kill it on the north side of the altar before the LORD. Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar. 12 He shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat. The priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar, 13 but the innards and the legs he shall wash with water. The priest shall offer the whole, and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. 14 "If his offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall offer his offering from turtledoves or of young pigeons. 15 The priest shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar; 16 and he shall take away its crop and its feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, in the place of the ashes. 17 He shall tear it by its wings, but shall not divide it apart. The priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD.

2 "When anyone offers an offering of a meal offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour. He shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it. 2 He shall bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests. He shall take his handful of its fine flour, and of its oil, with all its frankincense, and the priest shall burn its memorial on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. 3 That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. It is a most holy part of the offerings of the LORD made by fire. 4 "When you offer an offering of a meal offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. 5 If your offering is a meal offering made on a griddle, it shall be of unleavened fine flour, mixed with oil. 6 You shall cut it in pieces, and pour oil on it. It is a meal offering. 7 If your offering is a meal offering of the pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. 8 You shall bring the meal offering that is made of these things to the LORD. It shall be presented to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar. 9 The priest shall take from the meal offering its memorial, and shall burn it on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. 10 That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. It is a most holy part of the offerings of the LORD made by fire. 11 "No meal offering which you shall offer to the LORD shall be made with yeast; for you shall burn no yeast, nor any honey, as an offering made by fire to the LORD. 12 As an offering of first fruits you shall offer them to the LORD, but they shall not rise up as a pleasant aroma on the altar. 13 Every offering of your meal offering you shall season with salt. You shall not allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your meal offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt. 14 "If you offer a meal offering of first fruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the meal offering of your first fruits fresh heads of grain parched with fire and crushed. 15 You shall put oil on it and lay frankincense on it. It is a meal offering. 16 The priest shall burn as its memorial part of its crushed grain and part of its oil, along with all its frankincense. It is an offering made by fire to the LORD.

3 "If his offering is a sacrifice of peace offerings, if he offers it from the herd, whether male or female, he shall offer it without defect before the LORD. 2 He shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the Tent of Meeting. It shall be him and the children of Israel in Mount Sinai by Moses.

77 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'When a man consecrates a person to the LORD in a vow, according to your valuation, 3 your valuation of a male from twenty years old to sixty years old shall be fifty shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. 4 If she is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels. 5 If the person is from five years old to twenty years old, then your valuation shall be for a male twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels. 6 If the person is from a month old to five years old, then your valuation shall be for a male five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels and your cities shall be a waste. 34 Then the land will of silver. 7 If the person is from sixty years old and owned by the priests. 22 "If he dedicates a field to the LORD which he has bought, which is not of the field of his possession. 23 then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee; and he shall give your valuation on that day, as a holy thing to the LORD. 24 In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land belongs. 25 All your valuations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs to the shekel. 26 "However the firstborn amongst animals, which belongs to the LORD as a firstborn, no man may dedicate, whether an ox or a sheep. It is the LORD's. 27 If it is an unclean animal, then he shall buy it back according to your valuation, and shall add to it the fifth part of it; or if it isn't redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation. 28 "Notwithstanding, no devoted thing that a man devotes to the LORD of all that he has, whether of man or animal, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed. Everything that is permanently devoted is most holy to the LORD. 29 "No one devoted to destruction, who shall be devoted from amongst men, shall be ransomed. He shall surely be put to death. 30 "All the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the trees, is the LORD's. It is holy to the LORD. 31 If a man redeems anything of his tithe, he shall add a fifth part to it. 32 All the tithe of the herds or the flocks, whatever passes under the rod, the tenth shall be holy to the LORD. 33 He shall not examine whether it is good or bad, neither shall he exchange it. If he exchanges it at all, then both it and that for which it is exchanged shall be holy. It shall not be redeemed." 34 These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel on Mount Sinai.

Numbers

1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, 2 "Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, every male, one by one, 3 from twenty years old and upward, all who are able to go out to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall count them by their divisions. 4 With you there shall be a man of every tribe, each one head of his fathers' house. 5 These are the names of the men who shall stand with you: Of Reuben: Elizur the son of Shedeur. 6 Of Simeon: Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. 7 Of Judah: Nahshon the son of Amminadab. 8 Of Issachar: Nethanel the son of Zuar. 9 Of Zebulun: Eliab the son of Helon. 10 Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim: Elishama the son of Ammihud; of Manasseh: Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. 11 Of Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideoni. 12 Of Dan: Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, 13 Of Asher: Pagiel the son of Ochran. 14 Of Gad: Eliasaph the son of Deuel. 15 Of Naphtali: Ahira the son of Enan." 16 These are those who were called of the congregation, the princes of the tribes of their fathers; they were the heads of the thousands of Israel. 17 Moses and Aaron took these men who are mentioned by name. 18 They assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month; and they declared their ancestry by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, one by one. 19 As the LORD commanded Moses, so he counted them in the wilderness of Sinai. 20 The children of Reuben. Israel's firstborn, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, one by one, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war: 21 those who were counted of them, of the tribe of Reuben, were forty-six thousand and five hundred. 22 Of the children of Simeon, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, those who were counted of it, according to the number of the names, one by one, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war: 23 those who were counted of them, of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand and three hundred. 24 Of the children of Gad, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war: 25 those who were counted of them, of the tribe of Gad, were forty-five thousand and six hundred and

3 Now this is the history of the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the LORD spoke with Moses in Mount Sinai. 2 These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests who were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office. 4 Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD when they offered strange fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children. Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the presence of Aaron their father. 5 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 6 "Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister to him. 7 They shall keep his requirements, and the requirements of the whole congregation before the Tent of Meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle. 8 They shall keep all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting, and the obligations of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle. 9 You shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons. They are wholly given to him on the behalf of the children of Israel. 10 You shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall keep their priesthood, but the stranger who comes near shall be put to death." 11 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 12 "Behold, I have taken the Levites from amongst the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn who open the womb amongst the children of Israel; and the Levites shall be mine, 13 for all the firstborn are mine. On the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I made holy to me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and animal. They shall be mine. I am the LORD." 14 The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saving, 15 "Count the children of Levi by their fathers' houses, by their families. You shall count every male from a month old and upward." 16 Moses counted them according to the LORD's word, as he was commanded. 17 These were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 18 These are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei. 19 The sons of Kohath by their families: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. 20 The sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' houses. 21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimeites. These are the families of the Gershonites. 22 Those who were counted of them, according to the number of all the males from a month old and upward, even those who were counted of them were seven thousand and five hundred. 23 The families of the Gershonites shall encamp behind the tabernacle westward. 24 Eliasaph the son of Lael shall be the

they set out, everyone by their families, according to prince of the fathers' house of the Gershonites. 25 The duty of the sons of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting shall be the tabernacle, the tent, its covering, the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting, 26 the hangings of the court, the screen for the door of the court which is by the tabernacle and around the altar, and its cords for all of its service. 27 Of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, the family of the Izharites, the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites. These are the families of the Kohathites. 28 According to the number of all the males from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand and six hundred keeping the requirements of the sanctuary. 29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall encamp on the south side of the tabernacle. 30 The prince of the fathers' house of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. 31 Their duty shall be the ark, the table, the lamp stand, the altars, the vessels of the sanctuary with which they minister, the screen, and all its service. 32 Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be prince of the princes of the Levites, with the oversight of those who keep the requirements of the sanctuary. 33 Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites. These are the families of Merari. 34 Those who were counted of them, according to the number of all the males from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred. 35 The prince of the fathers' house of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They shall encamp on the north side of the tabernacle. 36 The appointed duty of the sons of Merari shall be the tabernacle's boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, all its instruments, all its service, 37 the pillars of the court around it, their sockets, their pins, and their cords. 38 Those who encamp before the tabernacle eastward, in front of the Tent of Meeting towards the sunrise, shall be Moses, with Aaron and his sons, keeping the requirements of the sanctuary for the duty of the children of Israel. The outsider who comes near shall be put to death. 39 All who were counted of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron counted at the commandment of the LORD, by their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twentytwo thousand. 40 The LORD said to Moses, "Count all the firstborn males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names. 41 You shall take the Levites for me-I am the LORD—instead of all the firstborn amongst the children of Israel; and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn amongst the livestock of the children of Israel." 42 Moses counted, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn amongst the children of Israel. 43 All the firstborn males according to the number of names from a month old and upward, of those who were counted of them, were twenty-two thousand and of the altar; and they shall spread on it a covering of two hundred and seventy-three. 44 The LORD spoke sealskin, and put in its poles. 15 "When Aaron and his to Moses, saving. 45 "Take the Levites instead of all sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the the firstborn amongst the children of Israel, and the furniture of the sanctuary, as the camp moves forward; livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock; and after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to carry it; but the Levites shall be mine. I am the LORD. 46 For the they shall not touch the sanctuary, lest they die. The redemption of the two hundred and seventy-three of the sons of Kohath shall carry these things belonging to firstborn of the children of Israel who exceed the number the Tent of Meeting. 16 "The duty of Eleazar the son of of the Levites, 47 you shall take five shekels apiece for Aaron the priest shall be the oil for the light, the sweet each one; according to the shekel of the sanctuary you incense, the continual meal offering, and the anointing shall take them (the shekel is twenty gerahs); 48 and oil, the requirements of all the tabernacle, and of all that you shall give the money, with which their remainder is is in it, the sanctuary, and its furnishings." 17 The LORD redeemed, to Aaron and to his sons." 49 Moses took spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 18 "Don't cut off the redemption money from those who exceeded the the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from amongst number of those who were redeemed by the Levites; 50 the Levites; 19 but do this to them, that they may live, from the firstborn of the children of Israel he took the and not die, when they approach the most holy things: money, one thousand and three hundred and sixty-five Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint everyone to shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; 51 his service and to his burden; 20 but they shall not go and Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and to in to see the sanctuary even for a moment, lest they his sons, according to the LORD's word, as the LORD die." 21 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 22 "Take a commanded Moses.

↑ The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2 "Take a census of the sons of Kohath from amongst the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers' houses, 3 from thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all who enter into the service to do the work in the Tent of Meeting. 4 "This is the service of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting, regarding the most holy things. 5 When the camp moves forward, Aaron shall go in with his sons; and they shall take down the veil of the screen, cover the ark of the Testimony with it. 6 put a covering of sealskin on it. spread a blue cloth over it, and put in its poles. 7 "On the table of show bread they shall spread a blue cloth, and put on it the dishes, the spoons, the bowls, and the cups with which to pour out; and the continual bread shall be on it. 8 They shall spread on them a scarlet cloth, and cover it with a covering of sealskin, and shall put in its poles. 9 "They shall take a blue cloth and cover the lamp stand of the light, its lamps, its snuffers, its snuff dishes, and all its oil vessels, with which they minister to it. 10 They shall put it and all its vessels within a covering of sealskin, and shall put it on the frame. 11 "On the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of sealskin, and shall put in its poles. 12 "They shall take all the vessels of ministry with which they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a blue cloth, cover them with a covering of sealskin, and shall put them on the frame. 13 "They shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth on it. 14 They shall put on it all its vessels with which they minister about it, the fire pans, the meat hooks, the shovels, and the basins—all the vessels

He lit its lamps to light the area in front of the lamp stand, as the LORD commanded Moses. 4 This was the workmanship of the lamp stand, beaten work of gold. From its base to its flowers, it was beaten work. He made the lamp stand according to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses. 5 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 6 "Take the Levites from amongst the children of Israel, and cleanse them. 7 You shall do this to them to cleanse them; sprinkle the water of cleansing on them, let them shave their whole bodies with a razor, let them wash their clothes, and cleanse themselves. 8 Then let them take a young bull and its meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil; and another young bull you shall take for a sin offering. 9 You shall present the Levites before the Tent of Meeting. You shall assemble the whole congregation of the children of Israel. 10 You shall present the Levites before the LORD. The children of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites, 11 and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for a wave offering on the behalf of the children of Israel, that it may be theirs to do the service of the LORD. 12 "The Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and you shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites. 13 You shall set the Levites before Aaron and before his sons, and offer them as a wave offering to the LORD. 14 Thus you shall separate the Levites from amongst the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine. 15 "After that, the Levites shall go in to do the service of the Tent of Meeting. You shall cleanse them, and offer them as a wave offering.

The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, 2 "Let the children of Israel keep the Passover in its appointed season. 3 On the fourteenth day of this month, at evening, you shall keep it in its appointed season. You shall keep it according to all its statutes and according to all its ordinances." 4 Moses told the children of Israel that they should keep the Passover. 5 They kept the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, in the wilderness of Sinai. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did. 6 There were certain men who were unclean because of the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day, and they came before Moses and Aaron on that day. 7 Those men said to him, "We are unclean because of the dead body of a man. Hasn't he spoken also with us?" And the LORD heard it. 3 Now the man Moses was very humble, more than all the men who were on the surface of the earth. 4 The LORD spoke suddenly to Moses, to Aaron, and to Miriam, "You three come out to the Tent of Meeting!" The three of them came out. 5 The LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the Tent, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forward. 6 He said, "Now hear my words. If there is a prophet amongst you, I, the LORD, will make myself known to him in a vision. I will speak with him in a dream. 7 My servant Moses is not so. He is faithful in all my house. 8 With him, I will speak mouth to mouth, even plainly, and not in riddles; and he shall see the LORD's form. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant, against Moses?" 9 The LORD's anger burnt against them: and he departed. 10 The cloud departed from over the Tent; and behold, Miriam was leprous, as white as snow. Aaron looked at Miriam, and behold, she was leprous. 11 Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord, please don't count this sin against us, in which we have done foolishly, and in which we have sinned. 12 Let her not, I pray, be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb." 13 Moses cried to the LORD, saying, "Heal her, God, I beg you!" 14 The LORD said to Moses, "If her father had but spit in her face, shouldn't she be ashamed seven days? 16 Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took some men. 2 They rose up before Moses, with some of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the congregation, called to the assembly, men of renown. 3 They assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, "You take too much on yourself, since all the congregation are holy, everyone of them, and the LORD is amongst them! Why do you lift yourselves up above the LORD's assembly?" 4 When Moses heard it, he fell on his face. 5 He said to Korah and to all his company, "In the morning, the LORD will show who are his, and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to him. Even him whom he shall choose, he will cause to come near to him. 6 Do this: have Korah and all his company take censers, 7 put fire in them, and put incense on them before the LORD tomorrow. It shall be that the man whom the LORD chooses, he shall be holy. You have gone too far, you sons of Levi!" 8 Moses said to Korah, "Hear now, you sons of Levi! 9 Is it a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the service of the LORD's tabernacle, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them; 10 and

Shall we bring water out of this rock for you?" 11 Moses lifted up his hand, and struck the rock with his rod twice, and water came out abundantly. The congregation and their livestock drank. 12 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you didn't believe in me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them." 13 These are the waters of Meribah: because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them. 14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, saving: "Your brother Israel says: You know all the travail that has happened to us; 15 how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time. The Egyptians mistreated us and our fathers. 16 When we cried to the LORD, he heard our voice, sent an angel, and brought us out of Egypt, Behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the edge of your border. 17 "Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or through vineyard, neither will we drink from the water of the wells. We will go along the king's highway. We will not turn away to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed your border." 18 Edom said to him, "You shall not pass through me, lest I come out with the sword against you." 19 The children of Israel said to him, "We will go up by the highway; and if we drink your water. I and my livestock, then I will give its price. Only let me, without doing anything else, pass through on my feet." 20 He said, "You shall not pass through." Edom came out against him with many people, and with a strong hand. 21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border, so Israel turned away from him. 22 They travelled from Kadesh, and the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor. 23 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom, saying, 24 "Aaron shall be gathered to his people; for he shall not enter into the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against my word at the waters of Meribah. 25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor; 26 and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son. Aaron shall be gathered, and shall die there." 27 Moses did as the LORD commanded. 21 The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the South, heard that Israel came by the way of Atharim. He fought against Israel, and took some of them captive. 2 Israel vowed a vow to the LORD, and said, "If you will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities." 3 The LORD listened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. The name of the place was called Hormah. 4 They travelled from Mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom. The soul of the people was very discouraged because of the journey. 5 The people spoke against God and against Moses: "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, there is no water, and our soul loathes this disgusting food!" 6 The LORD sent venomous snakes amongst the people, and they bit the people. Many people of Israel died. 7 The people came to Moses, and said, "We have sinned, because we have spoken against the LORD and against you. Pray to the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us." Moses prayed for the people. 8 The LORD said to Moses, "Make a venomous snake, and set it on a pole. It shall happen that everyone who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live." 9 Moses made a serpent of bronze, and set it on the pole. If a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked at the serpent of bronze, he lived. 10 The children of Israel travelled, and encamped in Oboth. 11 They travelled from Oboth, and encamped at Iveabarim. in the wilderness which is before Moab, towards the sunrise. 12 From there they travelled, and encamped in the valley of Zered. 13 From there they travelled, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the border of the Amorites: for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. 14 Therefore it is said in The Book of the Wars of the LORD, "Vaheb in Suphah, the valleys of the Arnon, 15 the slope of the valleys that incline towards the dwelling of Ar, leans on the border of Moab." 16 From there they travelled to Beer; that is the well of which the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together, and I will give them water." 17 Then Israel sang this song: "Spring up, well! Sing to it, 18 the well, which the princes dug, which the nobles of the people dug, with the sceptre, and with their poles." From the wilderness they travelled to Mattanah: 19 and from Mattanah to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth; 20 and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the field of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks down on the desert. 21 Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the for me: for they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall Amorites, saying, 22 "Let me pass through your land, prevail, that we may strike them, and that I may drive We will not turn away into field or vineyard. We will not them out of the land; for I know that he whom you bless drink of the water of the wells. We will go by the king's is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed." 7 The highway, until we have passed your border." 23 Sihon elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with would not allow Israel to pass through his border, but the rewards of divination in their hand. They came to Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out Balaam, and spoke to him the words of Balak. 8 He against Israel into the wilderness, and came to Jahaz. said to them, "Lodge here this night, and I will bring He fought against Israel. 24 Israel struck him with the you word again, as the LORD shall speak to me." The edge of the sword, and possessed his land from the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam. 9 God came to Arnon to the Jabbok, even to the children of Ammon; for Balaam, and said, "Who are these men with you?" 10 the border of the children of Ammon was fortified. 25 Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Israel took all these cities. Israel lived in all the cities of Moab, has said to me, 11 'Behold, the people that has the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages. 26 For come out of Egypt covers the surface of the earth. Now, Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, come curse them for me. Perhaps I shall be able to fight who had fought against the former king of Moab, and against them, and shall drive them out." 12 God said to taken all his land out of his hand, even to the Arnon. 27 Balaam, "You shall not go with them. You shall not curse Therefore those who speak in proverbs say, "Come to the people, for they are blessed." 13 Balaam rose up in Heshbon. Let the city of Sihon be built and established; the morning, and said to the princes of Balak, "Go to 28 for a fire has gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the your land; for the LORD refuses to permit me to go with city of Sihon. It has devoured Ar of Moab, The lords of you." 14 The princes of Moab rose up, and they went to the high places of the Arnon. 29 Woe to you, Moab! Balak, and said, "Balaam refuses to come with us." 15 You are undone, people of Chemosh! He has given his Balak again sent princes, more, and more honourable sons as fugitives, and his daughters into captivity, to than they. 16 They came to Balaam, and said to him, Sihon king of the Amorites. 30 We have shot at them. "Balak the son of Zippor says, 'Please let nothing hinder Heshbon has perished even to Dibon. We have laid you from coming to me, 17 for I will promote you to very waste even to Nophah, Which reaches to Medeba." 31 great honour, and whatever you say to me I will do. Thus Israel lived in the land of the Amorites. 32 Moses Please come therefore, and curse this people for me." sent to spy out Jazer. They took its villages, and drove 18 Balaam answered the servants of Balak, "If Balak out the Amorites who were there. 33 They turned and would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can't went up by the way of Bashan. Og the king of Bashan go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or went out against them, he and all his people, to battle at more. 19 Now therefore please stay here tonight as Edrei. 34 The LORD said to Moses, "Don't fear him, for well, that I may know what else the LORD will speak to I have delivered him into your hand, with all his people, me." 20 God came to Balaam at night, and said to him, and his land. You shall do to him as you did to Sihon "If the men have come to call you, rise up, go with them; king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon." 35 So they but only the word which I speak to you, that you shall struck him, with his sons and all his people, until there do." 21 Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his were no survivors; and they possessed his land.

72 The children of Israel travelled, and encamped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan at Jericho. 2 Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. 3 Moab was very afraid of the people, because they were many. Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel. 4 Moab said to the elders of Midian. "Now this multitude will lick up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field." Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. 5 He sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the River, to the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, "Behold, there is a people who came out of Egypt. Behold, they cover the surface of the earth, and they are staying opposite me. 6 Please come now therefore, and curse this people donkey, and went with the princes of Moab. 22 God's anger burnt because he went; and the LORD's angel placed himself in the way as an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him. 23 The donkey saw the LORD's angel standing in the way, with his sword drawn in his hand; and the donkey turned out of the path, and went into the field. Balaam struck the donkey, to turn her into the path. 24 Then the LORD's angel stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side. 25 The donkey saw the LORD's angel, and she thrust herself to the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall. He struck her again. 26 The LORD's angel went further, and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. 27 The donkey saw the LORD's angel, and she lay down under Balaam. Balaam's anger and all the princes of Moab. 7 He took up his parable. saw from there part of the people.

23 Balaam said to Balak, "Build here seven altars for me, and prepare here seven bulls and seven rams for me." 2 Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bull and a ram. 3 Balaam said to Balak, "Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet me. Whatever he shows me I will tell you." He went to a bare height. 4 God met Balaam, and he said to him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on every altar." 5 The LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak." 6 He returned to him, and behold, he was standing by his burnt offering, he, burnt, and he struck the donkey with his staff. 28 The and said, "From Aram has Balak brought me, the king LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to of Moab from the mountains of the East. Come, curse Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck Jacob for me. Come, defy Israel. 8 How shall I curse me these three times?" 29 Balaam said to the donkey, whom God has not cursed? How shall I defy whom "Because you have mocked me, I wish there were a the LORD has not defied? 9 For from the top of the sword in my hand, for now I would have killed you." 30 rocks I see him. From the hills I see him. Behold, it The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey, is a people that dwells alone, and shall not be listed on which you have ridden all your life long until today? amongst the nations. 10 Who can count the dust of Was I ever in the habit of doing so to you?" He said, Jacob, or count the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the "No." 31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, death of the righteous! Let my last end be like his!" 11 and he saw the LORD's angel standing in the way, with Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I his sword drawn in his hand; and he bowed his head, took you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have and fell on his face. 32 The LORD's angel said to him, blessed them altogether." 12 He answered and said, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? "Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD Behold, I have come out as an adversary, because your puts in my mouth?" 13 Balak said to him, "Please come way is perverse before me. 33 The donkey saw me, with me to another place, where you may see them. and turned away before me these three times. Unless You shall see just part of them, and shall not see them she had turned away from me, surely now I would have all. Curse them from there for me." 14 He took him killed you, and saved her alive." 34 Balaam said to the into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built LORD's angel, "I have sinned; for I didn't know that seven altars, and offered up a bull and a ram on every you stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it altar. 15 He said to Balak, "Stand here by your burnt displeases you, I will go back again." 35 The LORD's offering, while I meet God over there." 16 The LORD angel said to Balaam, "Go with the men; but you shall met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, only speak the word that I shall speak to you." So "Return to Balak, and say this." 17 He came to him, Balaam went with the princes of Balak. 36 When Balak and behold, he was standing by his burnt offering, and heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him the princes of Moab with him. Balak said to him, "What to the City of Moab, which is on the border of the Arnon, has the LORD spoken?" 18 He took up his parable, which is in the utmost part of the border. 37 Balak said and said, "Rise up, Balak, and hear! Listen to me, you to Balaam, "Didn't I earnestly send for you to summon son of Zippor. 19 God is not a man, that he should lie, you? Why didn't you come to me? Am I not able indeed nor a son of man, that he should repent. Has he said, to promote you to honour?" 38 Balaam said to Balak, and he won't do it? Or has he spoken, and he won't "Behold, I have come to you. Have I now any power at make it good? 20 Behold, I have received a command all to speak anything? I will speak the word that God to bless. He has blessed, and I can't reverse it. 21 He puts in my mouth." 39 Balaam went with Balak, and has not seen iniquity in Jacob. Neither has he seen they came to Kiriath Huzoth. 40 Balak sacrificed cattle perverseness in Israel. The LORD his God is with him. and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes who The shout of a king is amongst them. 22 God brings were with him. 41 In the morning, Balak took Balaam, them out of Egypt. He has as it were the strength of the and brought him up into the high places of Baal; and he wild ox. 23 Surely there is no enchantment with Jacob; neither is there any divination with Israel. Now it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, 'What has God done!' 24 Behold, a people rises up as a lioness. As a lion he lifts himself up. He shall not lie down until he eats of the prey, and drinks the blood of the slain." 25 Balak said to Balaam, "Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all." 26 But Balaam answered Balak, "Didn't I tell you, saying, 'All that the LORD speaks, that I must do'?" 27 Balak said to Balaam, "Come now, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there." 28 Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, that looks down on the desert. 29 Balaam said to Balak, "Build seven altars for me here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me here."

30 Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered up a bull dwelling place is strong. Your nest is set in the rock, 22 and a ram on every altar.

24 When Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he didn't go, as at the other times, to use divination, but he set his face towards the wilderness. 2 Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel dwelling according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came on him. 3 He took up his parable, and said, "Balaam the son of Beor says, the man whose eyes are open says; 4 he says, who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, and having his eyes open: 5 How goodly are your tents, Jacob, and your dwellings, Israel! 6 As valleys they are spread out, as gardens by the riverside, as aloes which the LORD has planted, as cedar trees beside the waters. 7 Water shall flow from his buckets. His seed shall be in many waters. His king shall be higher than Agag. His kingdom shall be exalted. 8 God brings him out of Egypt. He has as it were the strength of the wild ox. He shall consume the nations his adversaries, shall break their bones in pieces, and pierce them with his arrows. 9 He couched, he lay down as a lion, as a lioness; who shall rouse him up? Everyone who blesses you is blessed. Everyone who curses you is cursed." 10 Balak's anger burnt against Balaam, and he struck his hands together. Balak said to Balaam, "I called you to curse my enemies, and, behold, you have altogether blessed them these three times. 11 Therefore, flee to your place, now! I thought to promote you to great honour; but, behold, the LORD has kept you back from honour." 12 Balaam said to Balak, "Didn't I also tell your messengers whom you sent to me, saying, 13 'If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can't go beyond the LORD's word, to do either good or bad from my own mind. I will say what the LORD says'? 14 Now, behold, I go to my people. Come, I will inform you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days." 15 He took up his parable, and said, "Balaam the son of Beor says, the man whose eyes are open says; 16 he says, who hears the words of God, knows the knowledge of the Most High, and who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, and having his eyes open: 17 I see him, but not now. I see him, but not near. A star will come out of Jacob. A sceptre will rise out of Israel, and shall strike through the corners of Moab, and crush all the sons of Sheth. 18 Edom shall be a possession. Seir, his enemy, also shall be a possession, while Israel does valiantly. 19 Out of Jacob shall one have dominion, and shall destroy the remnant from the city." 20 He looked at Amalek, and took up his parable, and said, "Amalek was the first of the nations, but his latter end shall come to destruction." 21 He looked at slain on the day of the plague in the matter of Peor." the Kenite, and took up his parable, and said, "Your Nevertheless Kain shall be wasted, until Asshur carries you away captive." 23 He took up his parable, and said. "Alas, who shall live when God does this? 24 But ships shall come from the coast of Kittim. They shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber. He also shall come to destruction." 25 Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place; and Balak also went his way.

25 Israel stayed in Shittim; and the people began to play the prostitute with the daughters of Moab; 2 for they called the people to the sacrifices of their gods. The people ate and bowed down to their gods. 3 Israel joined himself to Baal Peor, and the LORD's anger burnt against Israel. 4 The LORD said to Moses, "Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them up to the LORD before the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel." 5 Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Everyone kill his men who have joined themselves to Baal Peor." 6 Behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought to his brothers a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, while they were weeping at the door of the Tent of Meeting. 7 When Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from the middle of the congregation, and took a spear in his hand. 8 He went after the man of Israel into the pavilion, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So the plague was stopped amongst the children of Israel. 9 Those who died by the plague were twenty-four thousand. 10 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 11 "Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy amongst them, so that I didn't consume the children of Israel in my jealousy. 12 Therefore say, 'Behold, I give to him my covenant of peace. 13 It shall be to him, and to his offspring after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was jealous for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel." 14 Now the name of the man of Israel that was slain. who was slain with the Midianite woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a fathers' house amongst the Simeonites. 15 The name of the Midianite woman who was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur. He was head of the people of a fathers' house in Midian. 16 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 17 "Harass the Midianites, and strike them; 18 for they harassed you with their wiles, wherein they have deceived you in the matter of Peor, and in the incident regarding Cozbi, the daughter of the prince of Midian, their sister, who was

26 After the plague, the LORD spoke to Moses and were counted of them, sixty-four thousand and three "Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Sered, the family of the Seredites; of Elon, the of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, by their family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the fathers' houses, all who are able to go out to war in Jahleelites. 27 These are the families of the Zebulunites Israel." 3 Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them according to those who were counted of them, sixty in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, thousand and five hundred. 28 The sons of Joseph after 4 "Take a census, from twenty years old and upward, their families: Manasseh and Ephraim. 29 The sons as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites; Israel." You shall do no regular work: 36 but you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, a pleasant aroma to the LORD; one bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without defect; 37 their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the ordinance, 38 and one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering, with its meal offering, and its drink offering. 39 "You shall offer these to the LORD in your set feastsaddition to your vows and your free will offerings-for your burnt offerings, your meal offerings, your drink offering. 17 "On the second day you shall offer twelve offerings, and your peace offerings." 40 Moses told commanded Moses.

> 30 Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded. 2 When a man vows a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not break his word. He shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth. 3 "Also, when a woman vows a vow to the LORD and binds herself by a pledge, being in her father's house, in her youth, 4 and her father hears her vow and her pledge with which she has bound her soul, and her father says nothing to her, then all her vows shall stand, and every pledge with which she has bound her soul shall stand. 5 But if her father forbids her in the day that he hears, none of her vows or of her pledges with which she has bound her soul, shall stand. The LORD will forgive her, because her father has forbidden her. 6 "If she has a husband. while her vows are on her, or the rash utterance of her lips with which she has bound her soul, 7 and her husband hears it, and says nothing to her in the day that he hears it; then her vows shall stand, and her pledges with which she has bound her soul shall stand. 8 But if her husband forbids her in the day that he hears it, then he makes void her vow which is on her and the rash utterance of her lips, with which she has bound her soul. The LORD will forgive her. 9 "But the vow of a widow, or of her who is divorced, everything with which she has bound her soul shall stand against her. 10 "If she vowed in her husband's house or bound her soul by a bond with an oath, 11 and her husband heard it, and held his peace at her and didn't disallow her, then all her vows shall stand, and every pledge with which she bound her soul shall stand. 12 But if her husband made them null and void in the day that he heard them. then whatever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand. Her husband has made them void. The LORD will forgive her. 13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void. 14 But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he establishes all her vows or all her pledges which are on her. He has established them, because he said nothing to her in the day that he heard them. 15 But if he makes them null and void after he has heard them, then he shall bear her iniquity." 16 These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between a father and his daughter, being in her youth, in her father's house.

31 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 2 "Avenge shall be clean; nevertheless it shall be purified with the you shall be gathered to your people." 3 Moses spoke shall make to go through the water. 24 You shall wash to the people, saying, "Arm men from amongst you for your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean. war, that they may go against Midian, to execute the Afterward you shall come into the camp." 25 The LORD LORD's vengeance on Midian. 4 You shall send one spoke to Moses, saying, 26 "Count the plunder that was thousand out of every tribe, throughout all the tribes of taken, both of man and of animal, you, and Eleazar Israel, to the war." 5 So there were delivered, out of the priest, and the heads of the fathers' households of the thousands of Israel, a thousand from every tribe, the congregation; 27 and divide the plunder into two twelve thousand armed for war. 6 Moses sent them, one parts: between the men skilled in war, who went out to thousand of every tribe, to the war with Phinehas the battle, and all the congregation. 28 Levy a tribute to the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the vessels of LORD of the men of war who went out to battle: one the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand, soul of five hundred; of the persons, of the cattle, of the 7 They fought against Midian, as the LORD commanded donkeys, and of the flocks. 29 Take it from their half, Moses. They killed every male. 8 They killed the kings and give it to Eleazar the priest, for the LORD's wave of Midian with the rest of their slain: Evi, Rekem, Zur, offering. 30 Of the children of Israel's half, you shall take Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. They also one drawn out of every fifty, of the persons, of the cattle, killed Balaam the son of Beor with the sword. 9 The of the donkeys, and of the flocks, of all the livestock, children of Israel took the women of Midian captive with and give them to the Levites, who perform the duty of their little ones; and all their livestock, all their flocks, the LORD's tabernacle." 31 Moses and Eleazar the and all their goods, they took as plunder. 10 All their priest did as the LORD commanded Moses. 32 Now the cities in the places in which they lived, and all their plunder, over and above the booty which the men of war encampments, they burnt with fire. 11 They took all took, was six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep, the captives, and all the plunder, both of man and of 33 seventy-two thousand head of cattle, 34 sixty-one animal. 12 They brought the captives with the prey and thousand donkeys, 35 and thirty-two thousand persons the plunder, to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to in all, of the women who had not known man by lying the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp at with him. 36 The half, which was the portion of those the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan at Jericho. who went out to war, was in number three hundred and 13 Moses and Eleazar the priest, with all the princes of thirty-seven thousand and five hundred sheep; 37 and the congregation, went out to meet them outside of the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and camp. 14 Moses was angry with the officers of the army, seventy-five. 38 The cattle were thirty-six thousand, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, of which the LORD's tribute was seventy-two. 39 The who came from the service of the war. 15 Moses said to donkeys were thirty thousand and five hundred, of which them, "Have you saved all the women alive? 16 Behold, the LORD's tribute was sixty-one. 40 The persons were these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel sixteen thousand, of whom the LORD's tribute was of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in thirty-two persons. 41 Moses gave the tribute, which the matter of Peor, and so the plaque was amongst the was the LORD's wave offering, to Eleazar the priest, congregation of the LORD. 17 Now therefore kill every as the LORD commanded Moses. 42 Of the children male amongst the little ones, and kill every woman of Israel's half, which Moses divided off from the men who has known man by lying with him. 18 But all the who fought 43 (now the congregation's half was three girls, who have not known man by lying with him, keep hundred and thirty-seven thousand and five hundred alive for yourselves. 19 "Encamp outside of the camp sheep. 44 thirty-six thousand head of cattle. 45 thirty for seven days. Whoever has killed any person, and thousand and five hundred donkeys, 46 and sixteen whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves on thousand persons), 47 even of the children of Israel's the third day and on the seventh day, you and your half, Moses took one drawn out of every fifty, both captives. 20 You shall purify every garment, and all of man and of animal, and gave them to the Levites, that is made of skin, and all work of goats' hair, and all who performed the duty of the LORD's tabernacle, as things made of wood." 21 Eleazar the priest said to the the LORD commanded Moses. 48 The officers who men of war who went to the battle, "This is the statute of were over the thousands of the army, the captains of the law which the LORD has commanded Moses. 22 thousands, and the captains of hundreds, came near to However the gold, and the silver, the bronze, the iron, Moses. 49 They said to Moses, "Your servants have the tin, and the lead, 23 everything that may withstand taken the sum of the men of war who are under our the fire, you shall make to go through the fire, and it command, and there lacks not one man of us. 50 We

the children of Israel on the Midianites. Afterward water for impurity. All that doesn't withstand the fire you have brought the LORD's offering, what every man ourselves will be ready armed to go before the children found: gold ornaments, armlets, bracelets, signet rings, of Israel, until we have brought them to their place. earrings, and necklaces, to make atonement for our souls before the LORD." 51 Moses and Eleazar the priest took their gold, even all worked jewels. 52 All our houses until the children of Israel have all received the gold of the wave offering that they offered up to their inheritance. 19 For we will not inherit with them on the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand and seven hundred and fifty shekels. 53 The men of war had taken booty, every man for himself. 54 Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of the war, 21 and every one of your armed men will hundreds, and brought it into the Tent of Meeting for a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

22 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of livestock. They saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead. Behold, the place was a place for livestock. 2 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the princes of the congregation, saying, 3 "Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon, 4 the land which the LORD struck before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock; and your servants have livestock." 5 They said, "If we have found favour in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession. Don't bring us over the Jordan." 6 Moses said to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, "Shall your brothers go to war while you sit here? 7 Why do you discourage the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them? 8 Your fathers did so when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to see the land. 9 For when they went up to the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them. 10 The LORD's anger burnt in that day, and he swore, saying, 11 'Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob: because they have not wholly followed me. 12 except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun, because they have followed the LORD completely.' 13 The LORD's anger burnt against Israel, and he made them wander back and forth in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation who had done evil in the LORD's sight was consumed. 14 "Behold, you have risen up in your fathers' place, an increase of sinful men, to increase the fierce anger of the LORD towards Israel. 15 For if you turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all these people." 16 They came near to him, and said, "We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones; 17 but we driven out his enemies from before him, 22 and the land is subdued before the LORD; then afterward you shall return, and be clear of obligation to the LORD and to Israel. Then this land shall be your possession before the LORD. 23 "But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out. 24 Build cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which has proceeded out of your mouth." 25 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, "Your servants will do as my lord commands. 26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock shall be there in the cities of Gilead; 27 but your servants will pass over, every man who is armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord says." 28 So Moses commanded concerning them to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers' households of the tribes of the children of Israel. 29 Moses said to them, "If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over the Jordan, every man who is armed to battle before the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession; 30 but if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions amongst you in the land of Canaan." 31 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, "As the LORD has said to your servants, so will we do. 32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us beyond the Jordan." 33 Moses gave to them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph. the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan; the land, according to its cities and borders, even the cities of the surrounding land. 34 The children of Gad built Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, 35 Atroth-shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, 36 Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran: fortified cities and folds for sheep. 37 The children of Reuben built Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, 38 Nebo, and Baal Meon, (their names being changed), and Sibmah. They gave other names to the cities which they built. 39 The children of Machir the son and encamped in Makheloth. 26 They travelled from of Manasseh went to Gilead, took it, and dispossessed Makheloth, and encamped in Tahath. 27 They travelled the Amorites who were therein. 40 Moses gave Gilead from Tahath, and encamped in Terah. 28 They travelled to Machir the son of Manasseh; and he lived therein. 41 from Terah, and encamped in Mithkah. 29 They travelled Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its villages, and called them Havvoth Jair. 42 Nobah went and took travelled from Hashmonah, and encamped in Moseroth. Kenath and its villages, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

33 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, when they went out of the land of Egypt by their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. 2 Moses wrote the starting points of their journeys by the commandment of the LORD. These are their journeys according to their starting points. 3 They travelled from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the next day after the Passover, the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians, 4 while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had struck amongst them. The LORD also executed judgements on their gods. 5 The children of Israel travelled from Rameses, and encamped in Succoth. 6 They travelled from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness. 7 They travelled from Etham, and turned back to Pihahiroth, which is before Baal Zephon, and they encamped before Migdol. 8 They travelled from before Hahiroth, and crossed through the middle of the sea into the wilderness. They went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and encamped in Marah. 9 They travelled from Marah, and came to Elim. In Elim, there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they encamped there. 10 They travelled from Elim, and encamped by the Red Sea. 11 They travelled from the Red Sea, and encamped in the wilderness of Sin. 12 They travelled from the wilderness of Sin, and encamped in Dophkah. 13 They travelled from Dophkah, and encamped in Alush. 14 They travelled from Alush, and encamped in Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink. 15 They travelled from Rephidim, and encamped in the wilderness of Sinai. 16 They travelled from the wilderness of Sinai, and encamped in Kibroth Hattaavah. 17 They travelled from Kibroth Hattaavah, and encamped in Hazeroth. 18 They travelled from Hazeroth, and encamped in Rithmah. 19 They travelled from Rithmah, and encamped in Rimmon Perez. 20 They travelled from Rimmon Perez, and encamped in Libnah. 21 They travelled from Libnah, and encamped in Rissah. 22 They travelled from Rissah, and encamped in Kehelathah. 23 They travelled from Kehelathah, and encamped in Mount Shepher. 24 They travelled from Mount Shepher, and encamped in Haradah. 25 They travelled from Haradah, Bene Jaakan. 32 They travelled from Bene Jaakan, and encamped in Hor Haggidgad. 33 They travelled from Hor Haggidgad, and encamped in Jotbathah. 34 They travelled from Jotbathah, and encamped in Abronah. 35 They travelled from Abronah, and encamped in Ezion Geber. 36 They travelled from Ezion Geber, and encamped at Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin. 37 They travelled from Kadesh, and encamped in Mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom. 38 Aaron the priest went up into Mount Hor at the commandment of the LORD and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first day of the month. 39 Aaron was one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died in Mount Hor. 40 The Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the South in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel. 41 They travelled from Mount Hor, and encamped in Zalmonah. 42 They travelled from Zalmonah, and encamped in Punon. 43 They travelled from Punon, and encamped in Oboth. 44 They travelled from Oboth, and encamped in Iye Abarim, in the border of Moab. 45 They travelled from lyim, and encamped in Dibon Gad. 46 They travelled from Dibon Gad, and encamped in Almon Diblathaim. 47 They travelled from Almon Diblathaim, and encamped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo. 48 They travelled from the mountains of Abarim, and encamped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho. 49 They encamped by the Jordan, from Beth Jeshimoth even to Abel Shittim in the plains of Moab. 50 The LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, 51 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, "When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, 52 then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their stone idols, destroy all their molten images, and demolish all their high places. 53 You shall take possession of the land, and dwell therein; for I have given the land to you to possess it. 54 You shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to the larger groups you shall give a larger inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give a smaller inheritance. Wherever the lot falls to any man, that shall be his. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers. 55 "But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those you let remain of them will be like pricks in your eyes and thorns in your sides.

They will harass you in the land in which you dwell. 56 It Ephraim a prince, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan. 25 Of shall happen that as I thought to do to them, so I will do the tribe of the children of Zebulun a prince, Elizaphan to you."

31 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 2 "Command the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you come into the land of Canaan (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan according to its borders), 3 then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the side of Edom, and your south border shall be from the end of the Salt Sea eastward. 4 Your border shall turn about southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass along to Zin; and it shall pass southward of Kadesh Barnea; and it shall go from there to Hazar Addar, and pass along to Azmon. 5 The border shall turn about from Azmon to the brook of Egypt, and it shall end at the sea. 6 "For the western border, you shall have the great sea and its border. This shall be your west border. 7 "This shall be your north border: from the great sea you shall mark out for yourselves Mount Hor. 8 From Mount Hor you shall mark out to the entrance of Hamath; and the border shall pass by Zedad. 9 Then the border shall go to Ziphron, and it shall end at Hazar Enan. This shall be your north border. 10 "'You shall mark out your east border from Hazar Enan to Shepham. 11 The border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain. The border shall go down, and shall reach to the side of the sea of Chinnereth eastward. 12 The border shall go down to the Jordan, and end at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land according to its borders around it." 13 Moses commanded the children of Israel, saving, "This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine tribes, and to the half-tribe; 14 for the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their fathers' houses, the tribe of the children of Gad according to their fathers' houses, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance. 15 The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, towards the sunrise." 16 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 17 "These are the names of the men who shall divide the land to you for inheritance: Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun. 18 You shall take one prince of every tribe, to divide the land for inheritance. 19 These are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. 20 Of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud. 21 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon. 22 Of the tribe of the children of Dan a prince, Bukki the son of Jogli. 23 Of the children of Joseph: of the tribe of the children of Manasseh a prince, Hanniel the son of Ephod. 24 Of the tribe of the children of Ephraim a prince, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan. 25 Of the tribe of the children of Zebulun a prince, Elizaphan the son of Parnach. 26 Of the tribe of the children of Issachar a prince, Paltiel the son of Azzan. 27 Of the tribe of the children of Asher a prince, Ahihud the son of Shelomi. 28 Of the tribe of the children of Naphtali a prince, Pedahel the son of Ammihud." 29 These are they whom the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance to the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

35 The LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, 2 "Command the children of Israel to give to the Levites cities to dwell in out of their inheritance. You shall give pasture lands for the cities around them to the Levites. 3 They shall have the cities to dwell in. Their pasture lands shall be for their livestock, and for their possessions, and for all their animals. 4 "The pasture lands of the cities, which you shall give to the Levites, shall be from the wall of the city and outward one thousand cubits around it. 5 You shall measure outside of the city for the east side two thousand cubits, and for the south side two thousand cubits, and for the west side two thousand cubits, and for the north side two thousand cubits, the city being in the middle. This shall be the pasture lands of their cities. 6 "The cities which you shall give to the Levites, they shall be the six cities of refuge, which you shall give for the man slaver to flee to. Besides them you shall give forty-two cities. 7 All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities together with their pasture lands. 8 Concerning the cities which you shall give of the possession of the children of Israel, from the many you shall take many, and from the few you shall take few. Everyone according to his inheritance which he inherits shall give some of his cities to the Levites." 9 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 10 "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, 11 then you shall appoint for yourselves cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the man slayer who kills any person unwittingly may flee there. 12 The cities shall be for your refuge from the avenger, that the man slaver not die until he stands before the congregation for judgement. 13 The cities which you shall give shall be for you six cities of refuge. 14 You shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and you shall give three cities in the land of Canaan. They shall be cities of refuge. 15 These six cities shall be refuge for the children of Israel, for the stranger, and for the foreigner living amongst them, that everyone who kills any person unwittingly may flee there. 16 "But if he struck him with an instrument of iron, so that he died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. 17 If he struck him with a stone in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer.

Deuteronomy

1 These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite Suf, between Paran, Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab. 2 It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea. 3 In the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, Moses spoke to the children of Israel according to all that the LORD had given him in commandment to them, 4 after he had struck Sihon the king of the Amorites who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan who lived in Ashtaroth, at Edrei. 5 Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses began to declare this law, saying, 6 "The LORD our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying, 'You have lived long enough at this mountain. 7 Turn, and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites and to all the places near there: in the Arabah, in the hill country, in the lowland, in the South, by the seashore, in the land of the Canaanites, and in Lebanon as far as the great river, the river Euphrates. 8 Behold, I have set the land before you. Go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers—to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob-to give to them and to their offspring after them." 9 I spoke to you at that time, saying, "I am not able to bear you myself alone. 10 The LORD your God has multiplied you, and behold, you are today as the stars of the sky for multitude. 11 May the LORD, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are and bless you, as he has promised you! 12 How can I myself alone bear your problems. your burdens, and your strife? 13 Take wise men of understanding who are respected amongst your tribes, and I will make them heads over you." 14 You answered me, and said, "The thing which you have spoken is good to do." 15 So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and respected men, and made them heads over you, captains of thousands, captains of hundreds, captains of fifties, captains of tens, and officers, according to your tribes. 16 I commanded your judges at that time, saying, "Hear cases between your brothers and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and the foreigner who is living with him. 17 You shall not show partiality in judgement; you shall hear the small and the great alike. You shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgement is God's. The case that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me, and I will hear it." 18 I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do. 19 We travelled from Horeb and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw, by the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh Barnea. 20 I said to you, "You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God gives to us. 21 Behold, the LORD your God has set the land before you. Go up, take possession, as the LORD the God of your fathers has spoken to you. Don't be afraid, neither be dismayed." 22 You came near to me, everyone of you, and said, "Let's send men before us, that they may search the land for us, and bring back to us word of the way by which we must go up, and the cities to which we shall come." 23 The thing pleased me well. I took twelve of your men, one man for every tribe. 24 They turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the valley of Eshcol, and spied it out. 25 They took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us, and brought us word again, and said, "It is a good land which the LORD our God gives to us." 26 Yet you wouldn't go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God. 27 You murmured in your tents, and said, "Because the LORD hated us, he has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us. 28 Where are we going up? Our brothers have made our heart melt, saying, 'The people are greater and taller than we. The cities are great and fortified up to the sky. Moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakim there!" 29 Then I said to you, "Don't be terrified. Don't be afraid of them. 30 The LORD your God, who goes before you, he will fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes, 31 and in the wilderness where you have seen how that the LORD your God carried you, as a man carries his son, in all the way that you went, until you came to this place." 32 Yet in this thing you didn't believe the LORD your God, 33 who went before you on the way, to seek out a place for you to pitch your tents in: in fire by night, to show you by what way you should go, and in the cloud by day. 34 The LORD heard the voice of your words and was angry, and swore, saying, 35 "Surely not one of these men of this evil generation shall see the good land which I swore to give to your fathers, 36 except Caleb the son of Jephunneh. He shall see it. I will give the land that he has trodden on to him and to his children, because he has wholly followed the LORD." 37 Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, "You also shall not go in there. 38 Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, shall go in there. Encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. 39 Moreover your little ones, whom you said would be captured or killed, your children, who today have no knowledge of good or evil, shall go in there. I will give it to them, and they shall possess it. 40 But as for you, turn, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea." 41 Then you answered and said to me. "We have sinned against the LORD. We will war were consumed from the middle of the camp, as the that you remained.

7 Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me; and we encircled Mount Seir many days. 2 The LORD spoke to me, saying, 3 "You have encircled this mountain long enough. Turn northward. 4 Command the people, saying, 'You are to pass through the border of your brothers, the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. Therefore be careful. 5 Don't contend with them; for I will not give you any of their land, no, not so much as for the sole of the foot to tread on, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau for a possession. 6 You shall purchase food from them for money, that you may eat. You shall also buy water from them for money, that you may drink," 7 For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He has known your walking through this great wilderness. These forty years, the LORD your God has been with you. You have lacked nothing. 8 So we passed by from our brothers, the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, from the way of the Arabah from Elath and from Ezion Geber. We turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab. 9 The LORD said to me. "Don't bother Moab, neither contend with them in battle; for I will not give you any of his land for a possession, because I have given Ar to the children of Lot for a possession." 10 (The Emim lived there before, a great and numerous people, and tall as the Anakim. 11 These also are considered to be Rephaim, as the Anakim; but the Moabites call them Emim. 12 The Horites also lived in Seir in the past, but the children of Esau succeeded them. They destroyed them from before them, and lived in their place, as Israel did to the land of his possession, which the LORD gave to them.) 13 "Now rise up and cross over the brook Zered." We went over the brook Zered. 14 The days in which we came from Kadesh Barnea until we had come over the brook Zered were thirty-eight years, until all the generation of the men of go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God LORD swore to them. 15 Moreover the LORD's hand commanded us." Every man of you put on his weapons was against them, to destroy them from the middle of of war, and presumed to go up into the hill country. 42 the camp, until they were consumed. 16 So, when all The LORD said to me, "Tell them, 'Don't go up and the men of war were consumed and dead from amongst don't fight; for I am not amongst you, lest you be struck the people, 17 the LORD spoke to me, saying, 18 "You before your enemies." 43 So I spoke to you, and you are to pass over Ar, the border of Moab, today. 19 When didn't listen; but you rebelled against the commandment you come near the border of the children of Ammon, of the LORD, and were presumptuous, and went up into don't bother them, nor contend with them; for I will not the hill country. 44 The Amorites, who lived in that hill give you any of the land of the children of Ammon for a country, came out against you and chased you as bees possession, because I have given it to the children of do, and beat you down in Seir, even to Hormah. 45 Lot for a possession." 20 (That also is considered a land You returned and wept before the LORD, but the LORD of Rephaim. Rephaim lived there in the past, but the didn't listen to your voice, nor turn his ear to you. 46 So Ammonites call them Zamzummim, 21 a great people, you stayed in Kadesh many days, according to the days many, and tall, as the Anakim; but the LORD destroyed them from before Israel, and they succeeded them, and lived in their place, 22 as he did for the children of Esau who dwell in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites from before them; and they succeeded them, and lived in their place even to this day. 23 Then the Avvim, who lived in villages as far as Gaza: the Caphtorim, who came out of Caphtor, destroyed them and lived in their place.) 24 "Rise up, take your journey, and pass over the valley of the Arnon, Behold, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land; begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle. 25 Today I will begin to put the dread of you and the fear of you on the peoples who are under the whole sky, who shall hear the report of you, and shall tremble and be in anguish because of you." 26 I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, 27 "Let me pass through your land. I will go along by the highway. I will turn neither to the right hand nor to the left. 28 You shall sell me food for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink. Just let me pass through on my feet, 29 as the children of Esau who dwell in Seir, and the Moabites who dwell in Ar, did to me, until I pass over the Jordan into the land which the LORD our God gives us." 30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him, for the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into your hand, as it is today. 31 The LORD said to me, "Behold, I have begun to deliver up Sihon and his land before you. Begin to possess, that you may inherit his land." 32 Then Sihon came out against us. he and all his people, to battle at Jahaz. 33 The LORD our God delivered him up before us; and we struck him, his sons, and all his people. 34 We took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones. We left no one remaining. 35 Only the livestock we took for plunder for ourselves. with the plunder of the cities which we had taken. 36

Arnon, and the city that is in the valley, even to Gilead, wherever the LORD our God forbade us.

Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan. Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. 2 The LORD said to me, "Don't fear him; for I have delivered him, with all his people and his land, into your hand. You shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon." 3 So the LORD our God also delivered into our hand Og, the king of Bashan, and all his people. We struck him until no one was left to him remaining. 4 We took all his cities at that time. There was not a city which we didn't take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. 5 All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, in addition to a great many villages without walls. 6 We utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones. 7 But all the livestock, and the plunder of the cities, we took for plunder for ourselves. 8 We took the land at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon. 9 (The Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir.) 10 We took all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, to Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. 11 (For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Rephaim, Behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron. Isn't it in Rabbah of the children of Ammon? Nine cubits was its length, and four cubits its width, after the cubit of a man.) 12 This land we took in possession at that time: from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead with its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and to the Gadites; 13 and the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh—all the region of Argob, even all Bashan. (The same is called the land of Rephaim. 14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called them, even Bashan, after his own name, Havvoth Jair, to this day.) 15 I gave Gilead to Machir. 16 To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the valley of the Arnon, the middle of the valley, and its border, even to the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon; 17 the Arabah also, and the Jordan and its border, from Chinnereth even to the

From Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Pisgah eastward. 18 I commanded you at that time, saying, "The LORD your God has given you this land there was not a city too high for us. The LORD our God to possess it. All of you men of valour shall pass over delivered up all before us. 37 Only to the land of the armed before your brothers, the children of Israel. 19 children of Ammon you didn't come near: all the banks But your wives, and your little ones, and your livestock, of the river Jabbok, and the cities of the hill country, and (I know that you have much livestock), shall live in your cities which I have given you, 20 until the LORD gives rest to your brothers, as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God gives them beyond the Jordan. Then you shall each return to his own possession, which I have given you." 21 I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, "Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings. So shall the LORD do to all the kingdoms where you go over. 22 You shall not fear them; for the LORD your God himself fights for you." 23 I begged GOD at that time, saying, 24 "Lord GOD, you have begun to show your servant your greatness, and your strong hand. For what god is there in heaven or in earth that can do works like yours, and mighty acts like yours? 25 Please let me go over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that fine mountain, and Lebanon." 26 But the LORD was angry with me because of you, and didn't listen to me. The LORD said to me, "That is enough! Speak no more to me of this matter. 27 Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and see with your eyes; for you shall not go over this Jordan. 28 But commission Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see." 29 So we stayed in the valley near Beth Peor.

⚠ Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and to the ordinances which I teach you, to do them, that you may live and go in and possess the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, gives you. 2 You shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall you take away from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. 3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal Peor; for the LORD your God has destroyed all the men who followed Baal Peor from amongst you. 4 But you who were faithful to the LORD your God are all alive today. 5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should do so in the middle of the land where you go in to possess it. 6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who shall hear all these statutes and say, "Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people." 7 For what great nation is there that has a god so near sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of to them as the LORD our God is whenever we call on him? 8 What great nation is there that has statutes him to anger. 26 I call heaven and earth to witness and ordinances so righteous as all this law which I set against you today, that you will soon utterly perish from before you today? 9 Only be careful, and keep your off the land which you go over the Jordan to possess it. soul diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes You will not prolong your days on it, but will utterly be saw, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of destroyed. 27 The LORD will scatter you amongst the your life; but make them known to your children and peoples, and you will be left few in number amongst the your children's children— 10 the day that you stood nations where the LORD will lead you away. 28 There before the LORD your God in Horeb, when the LORD you will serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and said to me, "Assemble the people to me, and I will make stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell. them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all 29 But from there you shall seek the LORD your God, the days that they live on the earth, and that they may and you will find him when you search after him with all teach their children." 11 You came near and stood under your heart and with all your soul. 30 When you are in the mountain. The mountain burnt with fire to the heart oppression, and all these things have come on you, in of the sky, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness. 12 the latter days you shall return to the LORD your God The LORD spoke to you out of the middle of the fire: and listen to his voice. 31 For the LORD your God is a you heard the voice of words, but you saw no form; you merciful God. He will not fail you nor destroy you, nor only heard a voice. 13 He declared to you his covenant, forget the covenant of your fathers which he swore to which he commanded you to perform, even the ten them. 32 For ask now of the days that are past, which commandments. He wrote them on two stone tablets. were before you, since the day that God created man 14 The LORD commanded me at that time to teach on the earth, and from the one end of the sky to the you statutes and ordinances, that you might do them in other, whether there has been anything as great as this the land where you go over to possess it. 15 Be very thing is, or has been heard like it? 33 Did a people ever careful, for you saw no kind of form on the day that the hear the voice of God speaking out of the middle of LORD spoke to you in Horeb out of the middle of the the fire, as you have heard, and live? 34 Or has God fire, 16 lest you corrupt yourselves, and make yourself a tried to go and take a nation for himself from amongst carved image in the form of any figure, the likeness of another nation, by trials, by signs, by wonders, by war, male or female, 17 the likeness of any animal that is by a mighty hand, by an outstretched arm, and by great on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for in the sky, 18 the likeness of anything that creeps on you in Egypt before your eyes? 35 It was shown to you the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water so that you might know that the LORD is God. There is under the earth; 19 and lest you lift up your eyes to no one else besides him. 36 Out of heaven he made the sky, and when you see the sun and the moon and you to hear his voice, that he might instruct you. On the stars, even all the army of the sky, you are drawn earth he made you to see his great fire; and you heard away and worship them, and serve them, which the his words out of the middle of the fire. 37 Because he LORD your God has allotted to all the peoples under loved your fathers, therefore he chose their offspring the whole sky. 20 But the LORD has taken you, and after them, and brought you out with his presence, with brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to his great power, out of Egypt; 38 to drive out nations be to him a people of inheritance, as it is today. 21 from before you greater and mightier than you, to bring Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is sakes, and swore that I should not go over the Jordan, today. 39 Know therefore today, and take it to heart, that and that I should not go in to that good land which the the LORD himself is God in heaven above and on the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance: 22 but I earth beneath. There is no one else. 40 You shall keep must die in this land. I must not go over the Jordan, but his statutes and his commandments which I command you shall go over and possess that good land. 23 Be you today, that it may go well with you and with your careful, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your children after you, and that you may prolong your days God, which he made with you, and make yourselves a in the land which the LORD your God gives you for carved image in the form of anything which the LORD all time. 41 Then Moses set apart three cities beyond your God has forbidden you. 24 For the LORD your God the Jordan towards the sunrise, 42 that the man slayer is a devouring fire, a jealous God. 25 When you father might flee there, who kills his neighbour unintentionally children and children's children, and you have been and didn't hate him in time past, and that fleeing to one long in the land, and then corrupt yourselves, and make of these cities he might live: 43 Bezer in the wilderness, a carved image in the form of anything, and do that in the plain country, for the Reubenites; and Ramoth in which is evil in the LORD your God's sight to provoke Gilead for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites, 44 This is the law which Moses set before an outstretched arm. Therefore the LORD your God the children of Israel. 45 These are the testimonies, and commanded you to keep the Sabbath day. 16 "Honour the statutes, and the ordinances which Moses spoke to your father and your mother, as the LORD your God the children of Israel when they came out of Egypt, 46 commanded you, that your days may be long and that it beyond the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, may go well with you in the land which the LORD your Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel struck not commit adultery. 19 "You shall not steal. 20 "You when they came out of Egypt. 47 They took possession shall not give false testimony against your neighbour. 21 of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two "You shall not covet your neighbour's wife. Neither shall kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan you desire your neighbour's house, his field, or his male towards the sunrise; 48 from Aroer, which is on the servant, or his female servant, his ox, or his donkey, or the slopes of Pisgah.

Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, "Hear, Israel, the statutes and the ordinances which I speak in your ears today, that you may learn them, and observe to do them." 2 The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. 3 The LORD didn't make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive today. 4 The LORD spoke with you face to face on the mountain out of the middle of the fire, 5 (I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to show you the LORD's word; for you were afraid because of the fire, and didn't go up onto the mountain) saying, 6 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. 7 "You shall have no other gods before me. 8 "You shall not make a carved image for yourself—any likeness of what is in heaven above, or what is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. 9 You shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them, for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate me 10 and showing loving kindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments. 11 "You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who misuses his name. 12 "Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you. 13 You shall labour six days, and do all your work; 14 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God, in which you shall not do any work—neither you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your livestock, nor your stranger who is within your gates; that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you. 15 You shall remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your

in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at God gives you. 17 "You shall not murder. 18 "You shall edge of the valley of the Arnon, even to Mount Siyon anything that is your neighbour's." 22 The LORD spoke (also called Hermon), 49 and all the Arabah beyond the these words to all your assembly on the mountain out Jordan eastward, even to the sea of the Arabah, under of the middle of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice. He added no more. He wrote them on two stone tablets, and gave them to me. 23 When you heard the voice out of the middle of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, you came near to me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders; 24 and you said, "Behold, the LORD our God has shown us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the middle of the fire. We have seen today that God does speak with man, and he lives. 25 Now therefore, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us. If we hear the LORD our God's voice any more, then we shall die. 26 For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the middle of the fire, as we have, and lived? 27 Go near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say, and tell us all that the LORD our God tells you; and we will hear it, and do it." 28 The LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me; and the LORD said to me, "I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They have well said all that they have spoken. 29 Oh that there were such a heart in them that they would fear me and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them and with their children forever! 30 "Go tell them, 'Return to your tents.' 31 But as for you, stand here by me, and I will tell you all the commandments, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess." 32 You shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God has commanded you. You shall not turn away to the right hand or to the left. 33 You shall walk in all the way which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.

6 Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the ordinances, which the LORD your God God brought you out of there by a mighty hand and by commanded to teach you, that you might do them in the land that you go over to possess; 2 that you might fear commandments, which I command you—you, your son, and your son's son, all the days of your life; and that be righteousness to us, if we observe to do all these your days may be prolonged. 3 Hear therefore, Israel, and observe to do it, that it may be well with you, and that you may increase mightily, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised to you, in a land flowing with milk and honey. 4 Hear, Israel: The LORD is our God. The LORD is one. 5 You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might. 6 These words, which I command you today, shall be on your heart; 7 and you shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. 8 You shall bind them for a sign on your hand, and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. 9 You shall write them on the door posts of your house and on your gates. 10 It shall be, when the LORD your God brings you into the land which he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you, great and goodly cities which you didn't build, 11 and houses full of all good things which you didn't fill, and cisterns dug out which you didn't dig, vineyards and olive trees which you didn't plant, and you shall eat and be full; 12 then beware lest you forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. 13 You shall fear the LORD your God; and you shall serve him, and shall swear by his name. 14 You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the peoples who are around you, 15 for the LORD your God amongst you is a jealous God, lest the anger of the LORD your God be kindled against you, and he destroy you from off the face of the earth. 16 You shall not tempt the LORD your God, as you tempted him in Massah. 17 You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he has commanded you. 18 You shall do that which is right and good in the LORD's sight, that it may be well with you and that you may go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore to your fathers, 19 to thrust out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken. 20 When your son asks you in time to come, saving, "What do the testimonies, the statutes, and the ordinances, which the LORD our God has commanded you mean?" 21 then you shall tell your son, "We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt. The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand; 22 and the LORD showed great and awesome signs and wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his house, before our eyes; 23 and he brought us out from there, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore to our fathers. 24 The LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to the LORD your God, to keep all his statutes and his fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as we are today. 25 It shall commandments before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us."

> 7 When the LORD your God brings you into the land where you go to possess it, and casts out many nations before you-the Hittite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite—seven nations greater and mightier than you; 2 and when the LORD your God delivers them up before you, and you strike them, then you shall utterly destroy them. You shall make no covenant with them, nor show mercy to them. 3 You shall not make marriages with them. You shall not give your daughter to his son, nor shall you take his daughter for your son. 4 For that would turn away your sons from following me, that they may serve other gods. So the LORD's anger would be kindled against you, and he would destroy you quickly. 5 But you shall deal with them like this: you shall break down their altars, dash their pillars in pieces, cut down their Asherah poles, and burn their engraved images with fire. 6 For you are a holy people to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth. 7 The LORD didn't set his love on you nor choose you, because you were more in number than any people; for you were the fewest of all peoples; 8 but because the LORD loves you, and because he desires to keep the oath which he swore to your fathers, the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. 9 Know therefore that the LORD your God himself is God, the faithful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness to a thousand generations with those who love him and keep his commandments, 10 and repays those who hate him to their face, to destroy them. He will not be slack to him who hates him. He will repay him to his face. 11 You shall therefore keep the commandments, the statutes, and the ordinances which I command you today, to do them. 12 It shall happen, because you listen to these ordinances and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you the covenant and the loving kindness which he swore to your fathers. 13 He will love you, bless you, and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your livestock and the young of your flock, in the land which he swore to your fathers to give you. 14 You will be blessed above all peoples. There won't be male or female barren amongst you, or amongst your livestock. 15 The LORD will take

it. You shall utterly abhor it; for it is a devoted thing.

R You shall observe to do all the commandments which I command you today, that you may live, and multiply, to your fathers. 2 You shall remember all the way which

away from you all sickness; and he will put none of the your God brings you into a good land, a land of brooks evil diseases of Egypt, which you know, on you, but of water, of springs, and underground water flowing will lay them on all those who hate you. 16 You shall into valleys and hills; 8 a land of wheat, barley, vines, consume all the peoples whom the LORD your God fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of olive trees and shall deliver to you. Your eye shall not pity them. You honey; 9 a land in which you shall eat bread without shall not serve their gods; for that would be a snare to scarcity, you shall not lack anything in it; a land whose you. 17 If you shall say in your heart, "These nations are stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig more than I; how can I dispossess them?" 18 you shall copper. 10 You shall eat and be full, and you shall bless not be afraid of them. You shall remember well what the LORD your God for the good land which he has the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt: given you. 11 Beware lest you forget the LORD your 19 the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, the God, in not keeping his commandments, his ordinances, wonders, the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, by and his statutes, which I command you today; 12 lest, which the LORD your God brought you out. So shall the when you have eaten and are full, and have built fine LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are houses and lived in them; 13 and when your herds and afraid. 20 Moreover the LORD your God will send the your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is hornet amongst them, until those who are left, and hide multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied; 14 then themselves, perish from before you. 21 You shall not be your heart might be lifted up, and you forget the LORD scared of them; for the LORD your God is amongst you, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out a great and awesome God. 22 The LORD your God of the house of bondage; 15 who led you through the will cast out those nations before you little by little. You great and terrible wilderness, with venomous snakes may not consume them at once, lest the animals of the and scorpions, and thirsty ground where there was no field increase on you. 23 But the LORD your God will water; who poured water for you out of the rock of flint; deliver them up before you, and will confuse them with 16 who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which a great confusion, until they are destroyed. 24 He will your fathers didn't know, that he might humble you, and deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall make that he might prove you, to do you good at your latter their name perish from under the sky. No one will be end; 17 and lest you say in your heart, "My power and able to stand before you until you have destroyed them. the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth." 18 But 25 You shall burn the engraved images of their gods you shall remember the LORD your God, for it is he who with fire. You shall not covet the silver or the gold that is gives you power to get wealth, that he may establish on them, nor take it for yourself, lest you be snared in his covenant which he swore to your fathers, as it is it; for it is an abomination to the LORD your God. 26 today. 19 It shall be, if you shall forget the LORD your You shall not bring an abomination into your house and God, and walk after other gods, and serve them and become a devoted thing like it. You shall utterly detest worship them, I testify against you today that you shall surely perish. 20 As the nations that the LORD makes to perish before you, so you shall perish, because you wouldn't listen to the LORD your God's voice.

and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore Q Hear, Israel! You are to pass over the Jordan today, to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier the LORD your God has led you these forty years in than yourself, cities great and fortified up to the sky, 2 a the wilderness, that he might humble you, to test you, people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom to know what was in your heart, whether you would you know, and of whom you have heard say, "Who can keep his commandments or not. 3 He humbled you, stand before the sons of Anak?" 3 Know therefore today allowed you to be hungry, and fed you with manna, that the LORD your God is he who goes over before which you didn't know, neither did your fathers know, you as a devouring fire. He will destroy them and he that he might teach you that man does not live by bread will bring them down before you. So you shall drive only, but man lives by every word that proceeds out of them out and make them perish quickly, as the LORD the LORD's mouth. 4 Your clothing didn't grow old on has spoken to you. 4 Don't say in your heart, after the you, neither did your foot swell, these forty years. 5 You LORD your God has thrust them out from before you. shall consider in your heart that as a man disciplines "For my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to his son, so the LORD your God disciplines you. 6 You possess this land;" because the LORD drives them out shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, before you because of the wickedness of these nations. to walk in his ways, and to fear him. 7 For the LORD 5 Not for your righteousness or for the uprightness for the wickedness of these nations the LORD your out of the mountain. 22 At Taberah, at Massah, and at God does drive them out from before you, and that he Kibroth Hattaavah you provoked the LORD to wrath. may establish the word which the LORD swore to your 23 When the LORD sent you from Kadesh Barnea, fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. 6 Know saying, "Go up and possess the land which I have given therefore that the LORD your God doesn't give you this you," you rebelled against the commandment of the good land to possess for your righteousness, for you are LORD your God, and you didn't believe him or listen a stiff-necked people. 7 Remember, and don't forget, to his voice. 24 You have been rebellious against the how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the LORD from the day that I knew you. 25 So I fell down wilderness. From the day that you left the land of Egypt before the LORD the forty days and forty nights that I until you came to this place, you have been rebellious fell down, because the LORD had said he would destroy against the LORD. 8 Also in Horeb you provoked the you. 26 I prayed to the LORD, and said, "Lord GOD, LORD to wrath, and the LORD was angry with you to don't destroy your people and your inheritance that you destroy you. 9 When I had gone up onto the mountain have redeemed through your greatness, that you have to receive the stone tablets, even the tablets of the brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 27 Remember covenant which the LORD made with you, then I stayed your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Don't look at on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I neither ate the stubbornness of this people, nor at their wickedness, bread nor drank water. 10 The LORD delivered to me nor at their sin, 28 lest the land you brought us out from the two stone tablets written with God's finger. On them say, 'Because the LORD was not able to bring them were all the words which the LORD spoke with you on into the land which he promised to them, and because the mountain out of the middle of the fire in the day of he hated them, he has brought them out to kill them in the assembly. 11 It came to pass at the end of forty the wilderness.' 29 Yet they are your people and your days and forty nights that the LORD gave me the two inheritance, which you brought out by your great power stone tablets, even the tablets of the covenant, 12 The and by your outstretched arm." LORD said to me, "Arise, get down guickly from here; for your people whom you have brought out of Egypt have corrupted themselves. They have quickly turned away from the way which I commanded them. They have made a molten image for themselves!" 13 Furthermore the LORD spoke to me, saying, "I have seen these people, and behold, they are a stiff-necked people. 14 Leave me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under the sky; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they." 15 So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire. The two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. 16 I looked, and behold, you had sinned against the LORD your God. You had made yourselves a moulded calf. You had quickly turned away from the way which the LORD had commanded you. 17 I took hold of the two tablets, and threw them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes. 18 I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you sinned, in doing that which was evil in the LORD's sight, to provoke him to anger. 19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was angry against you to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also. 20 The LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him. I prayed for Aaron also at the same time. 21 I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burnt it with fire, and crushed it, grinding it very small, until it was as fine of your heart do you go in to possess their land; but as dust, I threw its dust into the brook that descended

1 (1) At that time the LORD said to me, "Cut two stone tablets like the first, and come up to me onto the mountain, and make an ark of wood. 2 I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark." 3 So I made an ark of acacia wood, and cut two stone tablets like the first, and went up onto the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand. 4 He wrote on the tablets, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the LORD spoke to you on the mountain out of the middle of the fire in the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me. 5 I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and there they are as the LORD commanded me. 6 (The children of Israel travelled from Beeroth Bene Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his place. 7 From there they travelled to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water. 8 At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to bear the ark of the LORD's covenant, to stand before the LORD to minister to him, and to bless in his name, to this day. 9 Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD your God spoke to him.) 10 I stayed on the mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD listened to me that time also. The LORD would not destroy you. 11

The LORD said to me, "Arise, take your journey before honey. 10 For the land, where you go in to possess isn't made you as the stars of the sky for multitude.

 $oldsymbol{1}$ Therefore you shall love the LORD your God, and keep his instructions, his statutes, his ordinances, and his commandments, always. 2 Know this day-for I don't speak with your children who have not known, and who have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, his outstretched arm, 3 his signs, and his works, which he did in the middle of Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and to all his land; 4 and what he did to the army of Egypt, to their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red Sea to overflow them as they pursued you, and how the LORD has destroyed them to this day; 5 and what he did to you in the wilderness until you came to this place; 6 and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben-how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households, their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the middle of all Israel; 7 but your eyes have seen all of the LORD's great work which he did. 8 Therefore you shall keep the entire commandment which I command you today, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land that you go over to possess; 9 and that you may prolong your days in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give to them and to their offspring, a land flowing with milk and the people; and they shall go in and possess the land like the land of Egypt that you came out of, where you which I swore to their fathers to give to them." 12 Now, sowed your seed and watered it with your foot, as a Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, garden of herbs; 11 but the land that you go over to but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, possess is a land of hills and valleys which drinks water to love him, and to serve the LORD your God with all from the rain of the sky, 12 a land which the LORD your heart and with all your soul, 13 to keep the LORD's your God cares for. The LORD your God's eyes are commandments and statutes, which I command you always on it, from the beginning of the year even to the today for your good? 14 Behold, to the LORD your God end of the year. 13 It shall happen, if you shall listen belongs heaven, the heaven of heavens, and the earth, diligently to my commandments which I command you with all that is therein. 15 Only the LORD had a delight today, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him in your fathers to love them, and he chose their offspring with all your heart and with all your soul, 14 that I will after them, even you above all peoples, as it is today, give the rain for your land in its season, the early rain 16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, be no more stiff-necked. 17 For the LORD your God, he your new wine, and your oil. 15 I will give grass in your is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, the fields for your livestock, and you shall eat and be full. mighty, and the awesome, who doesn't respect persons 16 Be careful, lest your heart be deceived, and you or take bribes. 18 He executes justice for the fatherless turn away to serve other gods and worship them; 17 and widow and loves the foreigner in giving him food and the LORD's anger be kindled against you, and he and clothing. 19 Therefore love the foreigner, for you shut up the sky so that there is no rain, and the land were foreigners in the land of Egypt. 20 You shall fear doesn't yield its fruit; and you perish quickly from off the the LORD your God. You shall serve him. You shall good land which the LORD gives you. 18 Therefore you cling to him, and you shall swear by his name. 21 He shall lay up these words of mine in your heart and in is your praise, and he is your God, who has done for your soul. You shall bind them for a sign on your hand, you these great and awesome things which your eyes and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. 19 have seen. 22 Your fathers went down into Egypt with You shall teach them to your children, talking of them seventy persons; and now the LORD your God has when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. 20 You shall write them on the door posts of your house and on your gates; 21 that your days and your children's days may be multiplied in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, as the days of the heavens above the earth. 22 For if you shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you-to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cling to him— 23 then the LORD will drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves. 24 Every place on which the sole of your foot treads shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even to the western sea shall be your border. 25 No man will be able to stand before you. The LORD your God will lay the fear of you and the dread of you on all the land that you tread on, as he has spoken to you. 26 Behold, I set before you today a blessing and a curse: 27 the blessing, if you listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you today; 28 and the curse, if you do not listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn away out of the way which I command you today, to go after other gods which you have not known. 29 It shall happen, when the LORD your God brings you into the land that you go to possess, that you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim, and the curse on Mount blessing which he has given you. The unclean and the Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your oil, or the firstborn of your herd or of your flock, ordinances which I set before you today.

12 These are the statutes and the ordinances which you shall observe to do in the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess all the days that you live on the earth. 2 You shall surely destroy all the places in which the nations that you shall dispossess served their gods: on the high mountains, and on the hills, and under every green tree. 3 You shall break down their altars, dash their pillars in pieces, and burn their Asherah poles with fire. You shall cut down the engraved images of their gods. You shall destroy their name out of that place. 4 You shall not do so to the LORD your God. 5 But to the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes, to put his name there, you shall seek his habitation, and you shall come there. 6 You shall bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the wave offering of your hand, your vows, your free will offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock there. 7 There you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, in which the LORD your God has blessed you. 8 You shall not do all the things that we do here today, every man whatever is right in his own eyes; 9 for you haven't yet come to the rest and to the inheritance which the LORD your God gives you. 10 But when you go over the Jordan and dwell in the land which the LORD your God causes you to inherit, and he gives you rest from all your enemies around you, so that you dwell in safety, 11 then it shall happen that to the place which the LORD your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there, there you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the wave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow to the LORD. 12 You shall rejoice before the LORD your God-you, and your sons, your daughters, your male servants, your female servants, and the Levite who is within your gates, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you. 13 Be careful that you don't offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see; 14 but in the place which the LORD chooses in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you. 15 Yet you may kill and eat meat within all your gates, after all the desire of your soul, according to the LORD your God's Ebal. 30 Aren't they beyond the Jordan, behind the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle and the deer. 16 way of the going down of the sun, in the land of the Only you shall not eat the blood. You shall pour it out on Canaanites who dwell in the Arabah near Gilgal, beside the earth like water. 17 You may not eat within your the oaks of Moreh? 31 For you are to pass over the gates the tithe of your grain, or of your new wine, or of your God gives you, and you shall possess it and dwell nor any of your vows which you vow, nor your free will in it. 32 You shall observe to do all the statutes and the offerings, nor the wave offering of your hand; 18 but you shall eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God shall choose: you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates. You shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you put your hand to. 19 Be careful that you don't forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land. 20 When the LORD your God enlarges your border, as he has promised you, and you say, "I want to eat meat," because your soul desires to eat meat, you may eat meat, after all the desire of your soul. 21 If the place which the LORD your God shall choose to put his name is too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock, which the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your gates, after all the desire of your soul. 22 Even as the gazelle and as the deer is eaten, so you shall eat of it. The unclean and the clean may eat of it alike. 23 Only be sure that you don't eat the blood: for the blood is the life. You shall not eat the life with the meat. 24 You shall not eat it. You shall pour it out on the earth like water. 25 You shall not eat it, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, when you do that which is right in the LORD's eyes. 26 Only your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take and go to the place which the LORD shall choose. 27 You shall offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the LORD your God's altar. The blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the LORD your God's altar, and you shall eat the meat. 28 Observe and hear all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, when you do that which is good and right in the LORD your God's eyes. 29 When the LORD your God cuts off the nations from before you where you go in to dispossess them, and you dispossess them and dwell in their land. 30 be careful that you are not ensnared to follow them after they are destroyed from before you, and that you not enquire after their gods, saying, "How do these nations serve their gods? I will do likewise." 31 You shall not do so to the LORD your God; for every abomination to the LORD, which he hates, they have done to their gods; for they even burn their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods. 32 Whatever thing I command you, that you shall observe to do. You shall not add to it, nor take away from it.

2 and the sign or the wonder comes to pass, of which I command you today, to do that which is right in the he spoke to you, saying, "Let's go after other gods" (which you have not known) "and let's serve them," 3 you shall not listen to the words of that prophet, or to that dreamer of dreams; for the LORD your God is testing you, to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. 4 You shall walk after the LORD your God, fear him, keep his commandments, and obey his voice. You shall serve him, and cling to him. 5 That prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death, because he has spoken rebellion against the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to draw you aside out of the way which the LORD your God commanded you to walk in. So you shall remove the evil from amongst you. 6 If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, entices you secretly, saying, "Let's go and serve other gods"—which you have not known, you, nor your fathers; 7 of the gods of the peoples who are around you, near to you, or far off from you, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth— 8 you shall not consent to him nor listen to him; neither shall your eye pity him, neither shall you spare, neither shall you conceal him: 9 but you shall surely kill him. Your hand shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people. 10 You shall stone him to death with stones, because he has sought to draw you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. 11 All Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall not do any more wickedness like this amongst you. 12 If you hear about one of your cities, which the LORD your God gives you to dwell there, that 13 certain wicked fellows have gone out from amongst you and have drawn away the inhabitants of their city, saying, "Let's go and serve other gods," which you have not known, 14 then you shall enquire, investigate, and ask diligently. Behold, if it is true, and the thing certain, that such abomination was done amongst you, 15 you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, with all that is therein and its livestock, with the edge of the sword. 16 You shall gather all its plunder into the middle of its street, and shall burn with fire the city, with all of its plunder, to the LORD your God. It shall be a heap forever. It shall not be built again. 17 Nothing of the devoted thing shall cling to your hand, that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger and show you mercy, and have compassion on you and multiply you, as he has

> 14 You are the children of the LORD your God. You shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. 2 For you are a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth. 3 You shall not eat any abominable thing. 4 These are the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat, 5 the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope, and the chamois. 6 Every animal that parts the hoof, and has the hoof split in two and chews the cud, amongst the animals, you may eat. 7 Nevertheless these you shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of those who have the hoof split: the camel, the hare, and the rabbit. Because they chew the cud but don't part the hoof, they are unclean to you. 8 The pig, because it has a split hoof but doesn't chew the cud, is unclean to you. You shall not eat their meat. You shall not touch their carcasses. 9 These you may eat of all that are in the waters: you may eat whatever has fins and scales. 10 You shall not eat whatever doesn't have fins and scales. It is unclean to you. 11 Of all clean birds you may eat. 12 But these are they of which you shall not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey, 13 the red kite, the falcon, the kite of any kind, 14 every raven of any kind, 15 the ostrich, the owl, the seagull, the hawk of any kind, 16 the little owl, the great owl, the horned owl, 17 the pelican, the vulture, the cormorant, 18 the stork, the heron after its kind, the hoopoe, and the bat. 19 All winged creeping things are unclean to you. They shall not be eaten. 20 Of all clean birds you may eat. 21 You shall not eat of anything that dies of itself. You may give it to the foreigner living amongst you who is within your gates, that he may eat it; or you may sell it to a foreigner; for you are a holy people to the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk. 22 You shall surely tithe all the increase of your seed, that which comes out of the field year by year. 23 You shall eat before the LORD your God, in the place which he chooses to cause his name to dwell, the tithe of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock; that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always. 24 If the way is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it because the place which the LORD your God shall choose to set his name there is too far from you, when the LORD your God blesses you, 25 then you shall turn it into money, bind up the money in your hand, and shall go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose. 26 You shall trade the money for whatever You shall furnish him liberally out of your flock, out of your soul desires: for cattle, or for sheep, or for wine, your threshing floor, and out of your wine press. As the or for strong drink, or for whatever your soul asks of LORD your God has blessed you, you shall give to him. you. You shall eat there before the LORD your God, 15 You shall remember that you were a slave in the and you shall rejoice, you and your household. 27 You land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you. shall not forsake the Levite who is within your gates, for Therefore I command you this thing today. 16 It shall he has no portion nor inheritance with you. 28 At the be, if he tells you, "I will not go out from you," because end of every three years you shall bring all the tithe he loves you and your house, because he is well with of your increase in the same year, and shall store it you, 17 then you shall take an awl, and thrust it through within your gates. 29 The Levite, because he has no his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. living amongst you, the fatherless, and the widow who shall not seem hard to you when you let him go free are within your gates shall come, and shall eat and be from you, for he has been double the value of a hired satisfied; that the LORD your God may bless you in all hand as he served you six years. The LORD your God the work of your hand which you do.

15 At the end of every seven years, you shall cancel debts. 2 This is the way it shall be done: every creditor shall release that which he has lent to his neighbour. He shall not require payment from his neighbour and his brother, because the LORD's release has been proclaimed. 3 Of a foreigner you may require it; but whatever of yours is with your brother, your hand shall release. 4 However there will be no poor with you (for the LORD will surely bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess) 5 if only you diligently listen to the LORD your God's voice, to observe to do all this commandment which I command you today. 6 For the LORD your God will bless you, as he promised you. You will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow. You will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you. 7 If a poor man, one of your brothers, is with you within any of your gates in your land which the LORD your God gives you. you shall not harden your heart, nor shut your hand from your poor brother; 8 but you shall surely open your hand to him, and shall surely lend him sufficient for his need, which he lacks. 9 Beware that there not be a wicked thought in your heart, saying, "The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand," and your eye be evil against your poor brother and you give him nothing; and he cry to the LORD against you, and it be sin to you. 10 You shall surely give, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to him, because it is for this thing the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you put your hand to. 11 For the poor will never cease out of the land. Therefore I command you to surely open your hand to your brother, to your needy, and to your poor, in your land. 12 If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. 13 When you let him go free from you, you shall not let him go empty. 14 portion nor inheritance with you, as well as the foreigner Also to your female servant you shall do likewise. 18 It will bless you in all that you do. 19 You shall dedicate all the firstborn males that are born of your herd and of your flock to the LORD your God. You shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock. 20 You shall eat it before the LORD your God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, you and your household. 21 If it has any defect—is lame or blind, or has any defect whatever, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God. 22 You shall eat it within your gates. The unclean and the clean shall eat it alike, as the gazelle and as the deer. 23 Only you shall not eat its blood. You shall pour it out on the ground like water.

> 16 Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to the LORD your God; for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night. 2 You shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose to cause his name to dwell there. 3 You shall eat no leavened bread with it. You shall eat unleavened bread with it seven days, even the bread of affliction (for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste) that you may remember the day when you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. 4 No yeast shall be seen with you in all your borders seven days; neither shall any of the meat, which you sacrifice the first day at evening, remain all night until the morning. 5 You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you; 6 but at the place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at evening, at the going down of the sun, at the season that you came out of Egypt. 7 You shall roast and eat it in the place which the LORD your God chooses. In the morning you shall return to your tents. 8 Six days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work. 9 You shall count for yourselves seven weeks. From the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain you shall begin to count your God hates.

17 You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep in which is a defect or anything evil; for that is an abomination to the LORD your God. 2 If there is found amongst you, within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, a man or woman who does that which is evil in the LORD your God's sight in transgressing his covenant, 3 and has gone and served other gods and worshipped them, or the sun, or the moon, or any of the stars of the sky, which I have not commanded, 4 and you are told, and you have heard of it, then you shall enquire diligently. Behold, if

He shall not greatly multiply to himself silver and gold. 18 It shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write himself a copy of this law in a book, out of that which is before the Levitical priests. 19 It shall be with him, and he shall read from it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them; 20 that his heart not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he not turn away from the commandment to the right hand, or to the left, to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die." and his children, in the middle of Israel.

18 The priests and the Levites—all the tribe of Levi-shall have no portion nor inheritance with Israel. They shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire and his portion. 2 They shall have no inheritance amongst their brothers. The LORD is their inheritance as he has spoken to them. 3 This shall be the priests' due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep, that they shall give to the priest: the shoulder, the two cheeks, and the inner parts. 4 You shall give him the first fruits of your grain, of your in the middle of your land, which the LORD your God new wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece gives you to possess. 3 You shall prepare the way, and of your sheep. 5 For the LORD your God has chosen divide the borders of your land which the LORD your him out of all your tribes to stand to minister in the God causes you to inherit into three parts, that every LORD's name, him and his sons forever. 6 If a Levite man slayer may flee there. 4 This is the case of the comes from any of your gates out of all Israel where man slayer who shall flee there and live: Whoever kills he lives, and comes with all the desire of his soul to his neighbour unintentionally, and didn't hate him in time the place which the LORD shall choose, 7 then he past— 5 as when a man goes into the forest with his shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all neighbour to chop wood and his hand swings the axe to his brothers the Levites do, who stand there before cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle the LORD. 8 They shall have like portions to eat, in and hits his neighbour so that he dies—he shall flee to addition to that which comes from the sale of his family one of these cities and live. 6 Otherwise, the avenger of possessions. 9 When you have come into the land blood might pursue the man slayer while hot anger is in which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not learn his heart and overtake him, because the way is long, to imitate the abominations of those nations. 10 There and strike him mortally, even though he was not worthy shall not be found with you anyone who makes his son of death, because he didn't hate him in time past. 7 or his daughter to pass through the fire, one who uses Therefore I command you to set apart three cities for divination, one who tells fortunes, or an enchanter, or a yourselves. 8 If the LORD your God enlarges your sorcerer, 11 or a charmer, or someone who consults border, as he has sworn to your fathers, and gives you with a familiar spirit, or a wizard, or a necromancer. 12 all the land which he promised to give to your fathers; 9 For whoever does these things is an abomination to and if you keep all this commandment to do it, which I the LORD. Because of these abominations, the LORD command you today, to love the LORD your God, and your God drives them out from before you. 13 You shall to walk ever in his ways, then you shall add three cities be blameless with the LORD your God. 14 For these more for yourselves, in addition to these three. 10 This nations that you shall dispossess listen to those who is so that innocent blood will not be shed in the middle practise sorcery and to diviners; but as for you, the of your land which the LORD your God gives you for an LORD your God has not allowed you so to do. 15 The inheritance, leaving blood guilt on you. 11 But if any LORD your God will raise up to you a prophet from man hates his neighbour, lies in wait for him, rises up amongst you, of your brothers, like me. You shall listen against him, strikes him mortally so that he dies. and to him. 16 This is according to all that you desired of the he flees into one of these cities; 12 then the elders of LORD your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, his city shall send and bring him there, and deliver him saying, "Let me not hear again the LORD my God's into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. voice, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I 13 Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall purge the not die." 17 The LORD said to me, "They have well said innocent blood from Israel that it may go well with you. that which they have spoken. 18 I will raise them up 14 You shall not remove your neighbour's landmark, a prophet from amongst their brothers, like you. I will which they of old time have set, in your inheritance put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them which you shall inherit, in the land that the LORD your all that I shall command him. 19 It shall happen, that God gives you to possess. 15 One witness shall not rise whoever will not listen to my words which he shall speak up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin that he in my name, I will require it of him. 20 But the prophet sins. At the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of who speaks a word presumptuously in my name, which three witnesses, shall a matter be established. 16 If 21 You may say in your heart, "How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?" 22 When a prophet speaks in the LORD's name, if the thing doesn't follow, nor happen, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously. You shall not be afraid of him.

1 Q When the LORD your God cuts off the nations whose land the LORD your God gives you, and you succeed them and dwell in their cities and in their houses, 2 you shall set apart three cities for yourselves I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in an unrighteous witness rises up against any man to hand for hand, foot for foot.

2 When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses, chariots, and a people more numerous than you, you shall not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, is with you. 2 It shall be, when you draw near to the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people, 3 and shall tell them, "Hear, Israel, you draw near today to battle against your enemies. Don't let your heart faint! Don't be afraid, nor tremble, neither be scared of them; 4 for the LORD your God is he who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you." 5 The officers shall speak to the people, saying, "What man is there who has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. 6 What man is there who has planted a vineyard, and has not used its fruit? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man use its fruit. 7 What man is there who has pledged to be married to a wife, and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her." 8 The officers shall speak further to the people, and they shall say, "What man is there who is fearful and faint-hearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest his brother's heart melt as his heart." 9 It shall be, when the officers have finished speaking to the people, that they shall appoint captains of armies at the head of the people. 10 When you draw near to a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace to it. 11 It shall be, if it gives you answer of peace and opens to you, then it shall be that all the people who are found therein shall become forced labourers to you, and shall serve you. 12 If it will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege it. 13 When the LORD your God delivers it into your hand, you shall strike every male of it with the edge of the sword; 14 but the women, the little ones, the livestock, and all that is in the city, even all its plunder, you shall take for plunder for yourself. You may use the plunder of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you. 15 Thus you shall do to all the cities which are very far off from you, testify against him of wrongdoing, 17 then both the men, which are not of the cities of these nations. 16 But of the between whom the controversy is, shall stand before cities of these peoples that the LORD your God gives the LORD, before the priests and the judges who shall you for an inheritance, you shall save alive nothing that be in those days; 18 and the judges shall make diligent breathes; 17 but you shall utterly destroy them: the inquisition; and behold, if the witness is a false witness, Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the and has testified falsely against his brother, 19 then you Hivite, and the Jebusite, as the LORD your God has shall do to him as he had thought to do to his brother. commanded you; 18 that they not teach you to follow So you shall remove the evil from amongst you. 20 all their abominations, which they have done for their Those who remain shall hear, and fear, and will never gods; so would you sin against the LORD your God. 19 again commit any such evil amongst you. 21 Your eyes When you shall besiege a city a long time, in making shall not pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, war against it to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an axe against them; for you may eat of them. You shall not cut them down, for is the tree of the field man, that it should be besieged by you? 20 Only the trees that you know are not trees for food, you shall destroy and cut them down. You shall build bulwarks against the city that makes war with you, until it falls.

> 21 If someone is found slain in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess, lying in the field, and it isn't known who has struck him, 2 then your elders and your judges shall come out, and they shall measure to the cities which are around him who is slain. 3 It shall be that the elders of the city which is nearest to the slain man shall take a heifer of the herd, which hasn't been worked with and which has not drawn in the yoke. 4 The elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with running water, which is neither ploughed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley. 5 The priests the sons of Levi shall come near, for them the LORD your God has chosen to minister to him, and to bless in the LORD's name; and according to their word shall every controversy and every assault be decided. 6 All the elders of that city which is nearest to the slain man shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley. 7 They shall answer and say, "Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. 8 Forgive, LORD, your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, and don't allow innocent blood amongst your people Israel." The blood shall be forgiven them. 9 So you shall put away the innocent blood from amongst you, when you shall do that which is right in the LORD's eyes. 10 When you go out to battle against your enemies, and the LORD your God delivers them into your hands and you carry them away captive, 11 and see amongst the captives a beautiful woman, and you are attracted to her, and desire to take her as your wife. 12 then you shall bring her home to your house. She shall shave her head and trim her nails. 13 She shall take off the clothing of her captivity, and shall remain in your house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month. After that you shall go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. 14 It shall then you shall make a railing around your roof, so that be, if you have no delight in her, then you shall let her you don't bring blood on your house if anyone falls from go where she desires; but you shall not sell her at all for there. 9 You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds money. You shall not deal with her as a slave, because of seed, lest all the fruit be defiled, the seed which you you have humbled her. 15 If a man has two wives, the have sown, and the increase of the vineyard. 10 You one beloved and the other hated, and they have borne shall not plough with an ox and a donkey together. 11 him children, both the beloved and the hated, and if the You shall not wear clothes of wool and linen woven firstborn son is hers who was hated, 16 then it shall be, together. 12 You shall make yourselves fringes on the in the day that he causes his sons to inherit that which four corners of your cloak with which you cover yourself. he has, that he may not give the son of the beloved 13 If any man takes a wife, and goes in to her, hates the rights of the firstborn before the son of the hated, her, 14 accuses her of shameful things, gives her a bad who is the firstborn; 17 but he shall acknowledge the name, and says, "I took this woman, and when I came firstborn, the son of the hated, by giving him a double near to her, I didn't find in her the tokens of virginity," portion of all that he has; for he is the beginning of his 15 then the young lady's father and mother shall take strength. Don't defile your land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance.

77 You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray and hide yourself from them. You shall surely bring them again to your brother. 2 If your brother isn't near to you, or if you don't know him, then you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall be with you until your brother comes looking for it, and you shall restore it to him. 3 So you shall do with his donkey. So you shall do with his garment. So you shall do with every lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost and you have found. You may not hide yourself. 4 You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen down by the way. and hide yourself from them. You shall surely help him to lift them up again. 5 A woman shall not wear men's clothing, neither shall a man put on women's clothing; for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD your God. 6 If you come across a bird's nest on the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, and the hen sitting on the young, or on the eggs, you shall not take the hen with the young. 7 You shall surely let the hen go, but the young you may take for yourself, that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days. 8 When you build a new house, out the young lady to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done folly in Israel, to play the prostitute in her father's house. So you shall remove the evil from amongst you. 22 If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both die, the man who lay with the woman and the woman. So you shall remove the evil from Israel. 23 If there is a young lady who is a virgin pledged to be married to a husband, and a man finds her in the city, and lies with her, 24 then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones; the lady, because she didn't cry, being in the city; and the man, because he has humbled his neighbour's wife. So you shall remove the evil from amongst you. 25 But if the man finds the lady who is pledged to be married in the field, and the man forces her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die; 26 but to the lady you shall do nothing. There is in the lady no sin worthy of death; for as when a man rises against his neighbour and kills him, even so is this matter: 27 for he found her in the field, the pledged to be married lady cried, and there was no one to save her. 28 If a man finds a lady who is a virgin, who is not pledged to be married, grabs her and lies with her, and they are You shall not lend on interest to your brother: interest of found, 29 then the man who lay with her shall give to money, interest of food, interest of anything that is lent the lady's father fifty shekels of silver. He will do you good, and increase your our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations; lest numbers more than your fathers. 6 The LORD your there should be amongst you a root that produces bitter. God will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your poison; 19 and it happen, when he hears the words of offspring, to love the LORD your God with all your heart this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, "I and with all your soul, that you may live. 7 The LORD shall have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness your God will put all these curses on your enemies and of my heart," to destroy the moist with the dry. 20 The on those who hate you, who persecuted you. 8 You LORD will not pardon him, but then the LORD's anger shall return and obey the LORD's voice, and do all his and his jealousy will smoke against that man, and all commandments which I command you today. 9 The the curse that is written in this book will fall on him, and LORD your God will make you prosperous in all the the LORD will blot out his name from under the sky. 21 work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant for the LORD will again rejoice over you for good, as written in this book of the law. 22 The generation to he rejoiced over your fathers, 10 if you will obey the come—your children who will rise up after you, and the LORD your God's voice, to keep his commandments they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses law, if you turn to the LORD your God with all your with which the LORD has made it sick, 23 that all of its heart and with all your soul. 11 For this commandment land is sulphur, salt, and burning, that it is not sown, which I command you today is not too hard for you or which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his proclaim it to us, that we may do it?" 13 Neither is it wrath. 24 Even all the nations will say, "Why has the beyond the sea, that you should say, "Who will go over LORD done this to this land? What does the heat of this the sea for us, bring it to us, and proclaim it to us, that great anger mean?" 25 Then men will say, "Because we may do it?" 14 But the word is very near to you, in they abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it. 15 them out of the land of Egypt, 26 and went and served and death and evil. 16 For I command you today to love other gods and worshipped them, gods that they didn't the LORD your God, to walk in his ways and to keep his know and that he had not given to them. 27 Therefore commandments, his statutes, and his ordinances, that land, as it is today." 29 The secret things belong to the them, 18 I declare to you today that you will surely LORD our God; but the things that are revealed belong perish. You will not prolong your days in the land where to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the you pass over the Jordan to go in to possess it. 19 I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. Therefore choose life, that you may live, you and your descendants, 20 to love the LORD your God, life, and the length of your days, that you may dwell Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. 2 He said to them, "I am one hundred and twenty years old today. I can no more go out and come in. The LORD has said to me, 'You shall not go over this Jordan.' 3 The LORD your God himself will go over before you. He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua will go over before you, as the LORD has spoken. 4 The LORD will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when he destroyed them. 5 The LORD will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandment which I have commanded you. 6 Be strong and courageous. Don't be afraid or scared of them, for the LORD your God himself is who goes with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you." 7 Moses called to Joshua, and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you shall go with this people into the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them; and you shall cause them to inherit it. 8 The LORD himself is who goes before you. He will be with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you. Don't be afraid. Don't be discouraged." 9 Moses wrote this law and delivered it to the priests the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the LORD's covenant, and to all the elders of Israel. 10 Moses commanded them, saying, "At the end of every seven years, in the set time of the year of release, in the feast of booths, 11 when all Israel has come to appear before the LORD your God in the place which he will choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. 12 Assemble the people, the men and the women and the little ones, and the foreigners who are within your gates, that they may hear, learn, fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law, 13 and that their children, who have not known, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land where you go over the Jordan to possess it." 14 The LORD said to Moses, "Behold, your days approach that you must die. Call Joshua, and present yourselves in the Tent of Meeting, that I may commission him." Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the Tent of Meeting. 15 The LORD appeared in the Tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood over the Tent's door. 16 The LORD said to Moses, "Behold, you shall sleep with your fathers. This people will rise up and play the prostitute after the strange gods of the land where they go to be amongst them, and will forsake me and break my covenant which I have made with them. 17 Then my faithfulness who does no wrong, just and right is he. 5 to obey his voice, and to cling to him; for he is your anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall come on them; so that they will say in that day, 'Haven't these evils come on us because our God is not amongst us?' 18 I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evil which they have done, in that they have turned to other gods. 19 "Now therefore write this song for yourselves, and teach it to the children of Israel. Put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel. 20 For when I have brought them into the land which I swore to their fathers, flowing with milk and honey, and they have eaten and filled themselves, and grown fat, then they will turn to other gods, and serve them, and despise me, and break my covenant. 21 It will happen, when many evils and troubles have come on them, that this song will testify before them as a witness; for it will not be forgotten out of the mouths of their descendants; for I know their ways and what they are doing today, before I have brought them into the land which I promised them." 22 So Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the children of Israel. 23 He commissioned Joshua the son of Nun, and said, "Be strong and courageous; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore to them. I will be with you." 24 When Moses had finished writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, 25 Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the LORD's covenant, saying, 26 "Take this book of the law, and put it by the side of the ark of the LORD your God's covenant, that it may be there for a witness against you. 27 For I know your rebellion and your stiff neck. Behold, while I am yet alive with you today, you have been rebellious against the LORD. How much more after my death? 28 Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to witness against them. 29 For I know that after my death you will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn away from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will happen to you in the latter days, because you will do that which is evil in the LORD's sight, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands." 30 Moses spoke in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were finished.

> 32 Give ear, you heavens, and I will speak. Let the earth hear the words of my mouth. 2 My doctrine will drop as the rain. My speech will condense as the dew, as the misty rain on the tender grass, as the showers on the herb. 3 For I will proclaim the LORD's name. 33 This is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. 2 He said. "The LORD came from Sinai. and rose from Seir to them. He shone from Mount Paran. He came from the ten thousands of holy ones. At his right hand was a fiery law for them. 3 Yes, he loves the people. All his saints are in your hand. They sat down at your feet. Each receives your words. 4 Moses commanded us a law, an inheritance for the assembly of Jacob. 5 He was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people were gathered, all the tribes of Israel together. 6 "Let Reuben live, and not die; Nor let his men be few." 7 This is for Judah. He said, "Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah. Bring him in to his people. With his hands he contended for himself. You shall be a help against his adversaries." 8 About Levi he said, "Your Thummim and your Urim are with your godly one, whom you proved at Massah, with whom you contended at the waters of Meribah. 9 He said of his father, and of his mother, 'I have not seen him.' He didn't acknowledge his brothers, nor did he know his own children; for they have observed your word, and keep your covenant. 10 They shall teach Jacob your the ends of the earth. They are the ten thousands of Moses. 10 Since then, there has not arisen a prophet in

They are the thousands of Manasseh." 18 and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother About Zebulun he said, "Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going died on Mount Hor, and was gathered to his people; out; and Issachar, in your tents. 19 They will call the 51 because you trespassed against me amongst the peoples to the mountain. There they will offer sacrifices the wilderness of Zin; because you didn't uphold my of the seas, the hidden treasures of the sand." 20 About Gad he said, "He who enlarges Gad is blessed. He see the land from a distance; but you shall not go there dwells as a lioness, and tears the arm and the crown of the head. 21 He provided the first part for himself, for the lawgiver's portion was reserved for him. He came with the heads of the people. He executed the righteousness of the LORD, His ordinances with Israel." 22 About Dan he said, "Dan is a lion's cub that leaps out of Bashan." 23 About Naphtali he said, "Naphtali, satisfied with favour, full of the LORD's blessing, Possess the west and the south." 24 About Asher he said, "Asher is blessed with children. Let him be acceptable to his brothers. Let him dip his foot in oil. 25 Your bars will be iron and bronze. As your days, so your strength will be. 26 "There is no one like God, Jeshurun, who rides on the heavens for your help, in his excellency on the skies. 27 The eternal God is your dwelling place. Underneath are the everlasting arms. He thrust out the enemy from before you, and said, 'Destroy!' 28 Israel dwells in safety, the fountain of Jacob alone, In a land of grain and new wine. Yes, his heavens drop down dew. 29 You are happy, Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD, the shield of your help, the sword of your excellency? Your enemies will submit themselves to you. You will tread on their high places."

■ When all the nation had completely crossed over the Jordan, the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying, 2 from Shittim and came to the Jordan, he and all "Take twelve men out of the people, a man out of every tribe, 3 and command them, saying, 'Take from out of the middle of the Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, carry them over with you, and lay them down in the place where you'll camp tonight." 4 Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, a man out of every tribe. 5 Joshua said to them, "Cross before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you pick up a stone and put it on your shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of "Sanctify vourselves; for tomorrow the LORD will do the children of Israel; 6 that this may be a sign amongst you, that when your children ask in the future, saying, 'What do you mean by these stones?' 7 then you shall tell them, 'Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the LORD's covenant. When it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever." 8 The children of Israel did as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, as the LORD spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel. They carried them over with them to the place where they camped, and laid them down there. 9 Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day. 10 For the priests who bore the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan until everything was finished that you into the Jordan. 12 Now therefore take twelve men the LORD commanded Joshua to speak to the people, out of the tribes of Israel, for every tribe a man. 13 lt according to all that Moses commanded Joshua; and Therefore of the Jordan." 17 Joshua therefore commanded the the name of that place was called Gilgal to this day. 10 priests, saying, "Come up out of the Jordan!" 18 When The children of Israel encamped in Gilgal. They kept the the priests who bore the ark of the LORD's covenant Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening had come up out of the middle of the Jordan, and the in the plains of Jericho. 11 They ate unleavened cakes soles of the priests' feet had been lifted up to the dry and parched grain of the produce of the land on the next ground, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, day after the Passover, in the same day. 12 The manna and went over all its banks, as before. 19 The people ceased on the next day, after they had eaten of the came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first produce of the land. The children of Israel didn't have month, and encamped in Gilgal, on the east border of manna any more, but they ate of the fruit of the land of Jericho. 20 Joshua set up those twelve stones, which Canaan that year. 13 When Joshua was by Jericho, he they took out of the Jordan, in Gilgal. 21 He spoke to lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man stood the children of Israel, saying, "When your children ask in front of him with his sword drawn in his hand. Joshua their fathers in time to come, saying, 'What do these went to him and said to him, "Are you for us, or for our stones mean?' 22 Then you shall let your children know, enemies?" 14 He said, "No; but I have come now as saying, 'Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. 23 commander of the LORD's army." Joshua fell on his face For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the to the earth, and worshipped, and asked him, "What Jordan from before you until you had crossed over, as does my lord say to his servant?" 15 The prince of the the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried LORD's army said to Joshua, "Take off your sandals, for children of Israel. No one went out, and no one came in. 2 The LORD said to Joshua, "Behold, I have given Kall when all the kings of the Amorites, who were Jericho into your hand, with its king and the mighty men beyond the Jordan westward, and all the kings of the of valour. 3 All of your men of war shall march around Canaanites, who were by the sea, heard how the LORD the city, going around the city once. You shall do this had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the six days. 4 Seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of children of Israel until we had crossed over, their heart rams' horns before the ark. On the seventh day, you melted, and there was no more spirit in them, because shall march around the city seven times, and the priests of the children of Israel. 2 At that time, the LORD said shall blow the trumpets. 5 It shall be that when they to Joshua, "Make flint knives, and circumcise again make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you the sons of Israel the second time." 3 Joshua made hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout himself flint knives, and circumcised the sons of Israel with a great shout; then the city wall will fall down flat, and the people shall go up, every man straight in front of him." 6 Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and wilderness along the way, after they came out of Egypt. let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns 5 For all the people who came out were circumcised; before the LORD's ark." 7 They said to the people, but all the people who were born in the wilderness "Advance! March around the city, and let the armed men along the way as they came out of Egypt had not been pass on before the LORD's ark." 8 It was so, that when circumcised. 6 For the children of Israel walked forty Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests

LORD advanced and blew the trumpets, and the ark Joshua saved alive. She lives in the middle of Israel of the LORD's covenant followed them. 9 The armed to this day, because she hid the messengers whom men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. 26 Joshua commanded and the ark went after them. The trumpets sounded as them with an oath at that time, saying, "Cursed is the they went. 10 Joshua commanded the people, saying, man before the LORD who rises up and builds this "You shall not shout nor let your voice be heard, neither city Jericho. With the loss of his firstborn he will lay its shall any word proceed out of your mouth until the day foundation, and with the loss of his youngest son he will I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout." 11 So he set up its gates." 27 So the LORD was with Joshua; and caused the LORD's ark to go around the city, circling it his fame was in all the land. once. Then they came into the camp, and stayed in the camp. 12 Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the LORD's ark. 13 The seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns in front of the LORD's ark went on continually, and blew the trumpets. The armed men went in front of them. The rear guard came after the LORD's ark. The trumpets sounded as they went. 14 The second day they marched around the city once, and returned into the camp. They did this six days. 15 On the seventh day, they rose early at the dawning of the day, and marched around the city in the same way seven times. On this day only they marched around the city seven times. 16 At the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets. Joshua said to the people, "Shout, for the LORD has given you the city! 17 The city shall be devoted, even it and all that is in it, to the LORD. Only Rahab the prostitute shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. 18 But as for you, only keep yourselves from what is devoted to destruction, lest when you have devoted it, you take of the devoted thing; so you would make the camp of Israel accursed and trouble it. 19 But all the silver, gold, and vessels of bronze and iron are holy to the LORD. They shall come into the LORD's treasury." 20 So the people shouted and the priests blew the trumpets. When the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight in front of him, and they took the city. 21 They utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, both young and old, and ox, sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword. 22 Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the prostitute's house, and bring the woman and all that she has out from there, as you swore to her." 23 The young men who were spies went in, and brought out Rahab with her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. They also brought out all of her relatives, and they set them outside of the camp of Israel. 24 They burnt the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only they put the silver, the gold, and the vessels of bronze and of iron into the treasury of the LORD's house. 25 But Rahab the bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the prostitute, her father's household, and all that she had.

But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the devoted things; for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the devoted things. Therefore the LORD's anger burnt against the children of Israel. 2 Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, "Go up and spy out the land." The men went up and spied out Ai. 3 They returned to Joshua, and said to him, "Don't let all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and strike Ai. Don't make all the people to toil there, for there are only a few of them." 4 So about three thousand men of the people went up there, and they fled before the men of Ai. 5 The men of Ai struck about thirty-six men of them. They chased them from before the gate even to Shebarim, and struck them at the descent. The hearts of the people melted, and became like water. 6 Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before the LORD's ark until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads. 7 Joshua said, "Alas, Lord GOD, why have you brought this people over the Jordan at all, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to cause us to perish? I wish that we had been content and lived beyond the Jordan! 8 Oh, Lord, what shall I say, after Israel has turned their backs before their enemies? 9 For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. What will you do for your great name?" 10 The LORD said to Joshua, "Get up! Why have you fallen on your face like that? 11 Israel has sinned. Yes, they have even transgressed my covenant which I commanded them. Yes, they have even taken some of the devoted things, and have also stolen, and also deceived. They have even put it amongst their own stuff. 12 Therefore the children of Israel can't stand before their enemies. They turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become devoted for destruction. I will not be with you any more, unless you destroy the devoted things from amongst you. 13 Get up! Sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, for the LORD, the God of Israel, says, "There

Tell me now night. 10 Joshua rose up early in the morning, mustered answered Joshua, and said, "I have truly sinned against before the people to Ai. 11 All the people, even the the LORD, the God of Israel, and this is what I have men of war who were with him, went up and came done. 21 When I saw amongst the plunder a beautiful near, and came before the city and encamped on the Babylonian robe, two hundred shekels of silver, and a north side of Ai. Now there was a valley between him wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, then I coveted and Ai. 12 He took about five thousand men, and set them and took them. Behold, they are hidden in the them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west ground in the middle of my tent, with the silver under side of the city. 13 So they set the people, even all it." 22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the the army who was on the north of the city, and their tent. Behold, it was hidden in his tent, with the silver ambush on the west of the city; and Joshua went that under it. 23 They took them from the middle of the night into the middle of the valley. 14 When the king of tent, and brought them to Joshua and to all the children Ai saw it, they hurried and rose up early, and the men of Israel. They laid them down before the LORD. 24 of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son his people, at the time appointed, before the Arabah; of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the wedge of gold, his but he didn't know that there was an ambush against sons, his daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, him behind the city. 15 Joshua and all Israel made as his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way up to the valley of Achor. 25 Joshua said, "Why have of the wilderness. 16 All the people who were in the you troubled us? Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand towards the city. 19 The ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand and entered into the city and took it. They hurried and set the city on fire. 20 When the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, them. 22 Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, them to Azekah, and they died. There were more who this day, in the place which he should choose.

The princes of Israel, with their elders, officers, and judges, stood on the congregation swore to them. 16 At the end of three both sides of the ark before the Levitical priests, who days after they had made a covenant with them, they carried the ark of the LORD's covenant, the foreigner heard that they were their neighbours, and that they as well as the native; half of them in front of Mount lived amongst them. 17 The children of Israel travelled Gerizim, and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim, the first, that they should bless the people of Israel. 34 18 The children of Israel didn't strike them, because the Afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing princes of the congregation had sworn to them by the and the curse, according to all that is written in the book LORD, the God of Israel. All the congregation murmured of the law. 35 There was not a word of all that Moses against the princes. 19 But all the princes said to all the commanded which Joshua didn't read before all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD, assembly of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the God of Israel. Now therefore we may not touch the foreigners who were amongst them.

Now when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were amongst them, 2 they were very afraid, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. 3 Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon, saying, 4 "Come up to me and help me. Let's strike Gibeon; for they have made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel." 5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together and went up, they and all their armies, and encamped against Gibeon, and made war against it. 6 The men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, "Don't abandon your servants! Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us; for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the hill country have gathered together against us." 7 So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and the whole army with him, including all the mighty men of valour. 8 The LORD said to Joshua, "Don't fear them, for I have delivered them into your hands. Not a man of them will stand before you." 9 Joshua therefore came to them suddenly. He marched from Gilgal all night. 10 The LORD confused them before Israel. He killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth Horon, and struck them to Azekah and to Makkedah. 11 As they fled from before Israel, while they were at the descent of Beth Horon, the LORD hurled down great stones from the sky on

He said in the house of my God." 24 They answered Joshua, and the sight of Israel, "Sun, stand still on Gibeon! You, said, "Because your servants were certainly told how moon, stop in the valley of Aijalon!" 13 The sun stood the LORD your God commanded his servant Moses to still, and the moon stayed, until the nation had avenged give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants themselves of their enemies. Do to us 14 There was no day like that before it or after it, that as it seems good and right to you to do." 26 He did the LORD listened to the voice of a man; for the LORD so to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the fought for Israel. 15 Joshua returned, and all Israel with children of Israel, so that they didn't kill them. 27 That him, to the camp to Gilgal. 16 These five kings fled, and day Joshua made them wood cutters and drawers of hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah. 17 Joshua was water for the congregation and for the LORD's altar to told, saying, "The five kings have been found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah." 18 Joshua said, "Roll large stones to cover the cave's entrance, and set men by it to guard them; 19 but don't stay there. Pursue your enemies, and attack them from the rear. Don't allow them to enter into their cities; for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand." 20 When Joshua and the children of Israel had finished killing them with a very great slaughter until they were consumed, and the remnant which remained of them had entered into the fortified cities, 21 all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace. None moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel. 22 Then Joshua said, "Open the cave entrance, and bring those five kings out of the cave to me." 23 They did so, and brought those five kings out of the cave to him: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. 24 When they brought those kings out to Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who went with him, "Come near. Put your feet on the necks of these kings." They came near, and put their feet on their necks. 25 Joshua said to them, "Don't be afraid, nor be dismayed. Be strong and courageous, for the LORD will do this to all your enemies against whom you fight," 26 Afterward Joshua struck them, put them to death, and hanged them on five trees. They were hanging on the trees until the evening. 27 At the time of the going down of the sun, Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and threw them into the cave in which they had hidden themselves, and laid great stones on the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day. 28 Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with its king. He utterly destroyed it and all the souls who were in it. He left no one remaining. He did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho. 29

He utterly destroyed all the souls They struck all the souls who were in it with the edge of who were in it that day, according to all that he had the sword, utterly destroying them. There was no one done to Lachish. 36 Joshua went up from Eglon, and all left who breathed. He burnt Hazor with fire. 12 Joshua Israel with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it. 37 captured all the cities of those kings, with their kings, They took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, and with its king and all its cities, and all the souls who were utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the in it. He left no one remaining, according to all that he LORD commanded. 13 But as for the cities that stood had done to Eglon; but he utterly destroyed it, and all on their mounds, Israel burnt none of them, except the souls who were in it. 38 Joshua returned, and all Hazor only. Joshua burnt that. 14 The children of Israel Israel with him, to Debir, and fought against it. 39 He took all the plunder of these cities, with the livestock, as took it, with its king and all its cities. They struck them plunder for themselves; but every man they struck with with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them. souls who were in it. He left no one remaining. As he They didn't leave any who breathed. 15 As the LORD had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king; commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded as he had done also to Libnah, and to its king. 40 So Joshua. Joshua did so. He left nothing undone of all that Joshua struck all the land, the hill country, the South, the the LORD commanded Moses. 16 So Joshua captured lowland, the slopes, and all their kings. He left no one all that land, the hill country, all the South, all the land remaining, but he utterly destroyed all that breathed, as of Goshen, the lowland, the Arabah, the hill country of the LORD, the God of Israel, commanded. 41 Joshua Israel, and the lowland of the same, 17 from Mount struck them from Kadesh Barnea even to Gaza, and all Halak, that goes up to Seir, even to Baal Gad in the the country of Goshen, even to Gibeon. 42 Joshua took valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon. He took all all these kings and their land at one time because the their kings, struck them, and put them to death. 18 LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. 43 Joshua Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. 19 returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gilgal. There was not a city that made peace with the children

11 When Jabin king of Hazor heard of it, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph, 2 and to the kings who were on the north, in the hill country, in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west, 3 to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite in the hill country, and the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpah. 4 They went out, they and all their armies with them, many people, even as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with very many of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon, They took all in battle. 20 For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, to come against Israel in battle, that he might utterly destroy them, that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses. 21 Joshua came at that time, and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities. 22 There were none of the Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel. Only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, did some remain. 23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to in years, and there remains yet very much land to be all that the LORD spoke to Moses; and Joshua gave it by their tribes. Then the land had rest from war.

12 Now these are the kings of the land, whom the children of Israel struck, and possessed their land beyond the Jordan towards the sunrise, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah eastward: 2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the middle of the valley, and half Gilead, even to the river Jabbok, the border of the children of Ammon; 3 and the Arabah to the sea of Chinneroth, eastward, and to the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, eastward, the way to Beth Jeshimoth; and on the south, under the slopes of Pisgah: 4 and the border of Og king of Bashan, of the remnant of the Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, 5 and ruled in Mount Hermon, and in Salecah, and in all Bashan, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon. 6 Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel struck them. Moses the servant of the LORD gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. 7 These are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the children of Israel struck beyond the Jordan westward, from Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon even to Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir. Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; 8 in the hill country, and in the lowland, and in the Arabah, and in the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the South; the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite: 9 the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one; 10 the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; 11 the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one; 12 the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one; 13 the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one; 14 the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one; 15 the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one; 16 the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one; 17 the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one; 18 the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lassharon, one; 19 the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one; 20 the king of Shimron Meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one; 21 the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one; 22 the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one: 23 the king of Dor in the height of Dor, one; the king of Goilm in Gilgal, one; 24 the king of Tirzah, one: all the kings thirty-one.

? Now Joshua was old and well advanced in years. The LORD said to him, "You are old and advanced possessed. 2 "This is the land that still remains: all the for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions regions of the Philistines, and all the Geshurites; 3 from the Shihor, which is before Egypt, even to the border of Ekron northward, which is counted as Canaanite; the five lords of the Philistines; the Gazites, and the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avvim, 4 on the south; all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the border of the Amorites; 5 and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, towards the sunrise, from Baal Gad under Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath; 6 all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim, even all the Sidonians. I will drive them out from before the children of Israel, Just allocate it to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you. 7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and the halftribe of Manasseh." 8 With him the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them: 9 from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba to Dibon; 10 and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the children of Ammon: 11 and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah; 12 all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (who was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); for Moses attacked these, and drove them out. 13 Nevertheless the children of Israel didn't drive out the Geshurites, nor the Maacathites: but Geshur and Maacath live within Israel to this day. 14 Only he gave no inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The offerings of the LORD, the God of Israel, made by fire are his inheritance, as he spoke to him. 15 Moses gave to the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their families. 16 Their border was from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba: 17 Heshbon, and all its cities that are in the plain; Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, 18 Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, 19 Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar in the mount of the valley, 20 Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, Beth Jeshimoth, 21 all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the chiefs of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who lived in the land. 22 The children of Israel also killed Balaam the son of Beor, the soothsayer, with the sword, amongst the rest of their slain. 23 The border of the children for the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even the Anakim. Then the land had rest from war. for the half of the children of Machir according to their families. 32 These are the inheritances which Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho, eastward. 33 But Moses gave no inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as he spoke to them.

1 These are the inheritances which the children of Israel took in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed to them, 2 by the lot of their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half-tribe. 3 For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Jordan; but to the Levites he gave no inheritance amongst them. 4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. They gave no portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to dwell in, with their pasture lands for their livestock and for their property. 5 The children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses, and they divided the land. 6 Then the children of Judah came near to Joshua in Gilgal. Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know the thing that the LORD spoke to Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning you in Kadesh Barnea. 7 I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land. I brought him word again as it was in my heart. 8 Nevertheless, my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; but I wholly followed the LORD my God. 9 Moses swore on that

This was the day, saving, 'Surely the land where you walked shall inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, families, the cities and its villages. 24 Moses gave to the because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.' tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad, according to their 10 "Now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive, as he families. 25 Their border was Jazer, and all the cities of spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that the Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, to LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in Aroer that is near Rabbah; 26 and from Heshbon to the wilderness. Now, behold, I am eighty-five years old, Ramath Mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim to today. 11 As yet I am as strong today as I was in the the border of Debir; 27 and in the valley, Beth Haram, day that Moses sent me. As my strength was then, even Beth Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the so is my strength now for war, to go out and to come in. kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, the Jordan's bank, 12 Now therefore give me this hill country, of which the to the uttermost part of the sea of Chinnereth beyond LORD spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Jordan eastward. 28 This is the inheritance of the the Anakim were there, and great and fortified cities. It was for the half-tribe of the children and he gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh of Manasseh according to their families. 30 Their border for an inheritance. 14 Therefore Hebron became the was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite king of Bashan, and all the villages of Jair, which are to this day, because he followed the LORD, the God in Bashan, sixty cities. 31 Half Gilead, Ashtaroth, and of Israel wholeheartedly. 15 Now the name of Hebron Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were before was Kiriath Arba, after the greatest man amongst

> 15 The lot for the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families was to the border of Edom, even to the wilderness of Zin southward, at the uttermost part of the south. 2 Their south border was from the uttermost part of the Salt Sea, from the bay that looks southward; 3 and it went out southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and went up by the south of Kadesh Barnea, and passed along by Hezron, went up to Addar, and turned towards Karka; 4 and it passed along to Azmon, went out at the brook of Egypt; and the border ended at the sea. This shall be your south border. 5 The east border was the Salt Sea, even to the end of the Jordan. The border of the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the end of the Jordan. 6 The border went up to Beth Hoglah, and passed along by the north of Beth Arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. 7 The border went up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking towards Gilgal, that faces the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the river. The border passed along to the waters of En Shemesh, and ended at En Rogel. 8 The border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom to the side of the Jebusite (also called Jerusalem) southward; and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the farthest part of the valley of Rephaim northward. 9 The border extended from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of Mount Ephron; and the border extended to turned about from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, brook of Egypt, and the great sea with its coastline. 48 and passed along to the side of Mount Jearim (also In the hill country, Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, 49 Dannah, called Chesalon) on the north, and went down to Beth Kiriath Sannah (which is Debir), 50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Shemesh, and passed along by Timnah; 11 and the Anim, 51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh; eleven cities border went out to the side of Ekron northward; and with their villages. 52 Arab, Dumah, Eshan, 53 Janim, the border extended to Shikkeron, and passed along to Beth Tappuah, Aphekah, 54 Humtah, Kiriath Arba (also Mount Baalah, and went out at Jabneel; and the goings called Hebron), and Zior; nine cities with their villages. out of the border were at the sea. 12 The west border 55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Jutah, 56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, was to the shore of the great sea. This is the border of Zanoah, 57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities with the children of Judah according to their families. 13 He their villages. 58 Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor, 59 Maarath, gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh a portion amongst Beth Anoth, and Eltekon; six cities with their villages. 60 the children of Judah, according to the commandment Kiriath Baal (also called Kiriath Jearim), and Rabbah; of the LORD to Joshua, even Kiriath Arba, named after two cities with their villages. 61 In the wilderness, Beth the father of Anak (also called Hebron). 14 Caleb drove Arabah, Middin, Secacah, 62 Nibshan, the City of Salt, out the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, and Ahiman, and and En Gedi; six cities with their villages. 63 As for the Talmai, the children of Anak. 15 He went up against Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of the inhabitants of Debir: now the name of Debir before Judah couldn't drive them out; but the Jebusites live was Kiriath Sepher. 16 Caleb said, "He who strikes with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day. Kiriath Sepher, and takes it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter as wife." 17 Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife. 18 When she came, she had him ask her father for a field. She got off her donkey, and Caleb said, "What do you want?" 19 She said, "Give me a blessing. Because you have set me in the land of the South, give me also springs of water." So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs. 20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families. 21 The farthest cities of the tribe of the children of Judah towards the border of Edom in the South were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, 22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, 23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, 24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth, 25 Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth Hezron (also called Hazor), 26 Amam, Shema, Moladah, 27 Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet, 28 Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah, 29 Baalah, Iim, Ezem, 30 Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah, 31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah, 32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon. All the cities are twenty-nine, with their villages. 33 In the lowland, Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, 34 Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam, 35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, 36 Shaaraim, Adithaim and Gederah (or Gederothaim); fourteen cities with their villages. 37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad, 38 Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel, 39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, 40 Cabbon, Lahmam, Chitlish, 41 Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah; sixteen cities with their villages. 42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan, 43 Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, 44 Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah; nine cities with their firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because villages. 45 Ekron, with its towns and its villages; 46 he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and from Ekron even to the sea, all that were by the side Bashan. 2 So this was for the rest of the children of of Ashdod, with their villages. 47 Ashdod, its towns Manasseh according to their families: for the children

 ${f 16}$ The lot came out for the children of Joseph from the Jordan at Jericho, at the waters of Jericho on the east, even the wilderness, going up from Jericho through the hill country to Bethel. 2 It went out from Bethel to Luz, and passed along to the border of the Archites to Ataroth: 3 and it went down westward to the border of the Japhletites, to the border of Beth Horon the lower, and on to Gezer; and ended at the sea. 4 The children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance. 5 This was the border of the children of Ephraim according to their families. The border of their inheritance eastward was Ataroth Addar, to Beth Horon the upper. 6 The border went out westward at Michmethath on the north. The border turned about eastward to Taanath Shiloh, and passed along it on the east of Janoah. 7 It went down from Janoah to Ataroth, to Naarah, reached to Jericho, and went out at the Jordan. 8 From Tappuah the border went along westward to the brook of Kanah; and ended at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according to their families; 9 together with the cities which were set apart for the children of Ephraim in the middle of the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages. 10 They didn't drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell in the territory of Ephraim to this day, and have become servants to do forced labour.

This was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. As for Machir the of Asriel, for the children of Shechem, for the children "You are a numerous people, and have great power. You of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida. These shall not have one lot only; 18 but the hill country shall were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph be yours. Although it is a forest, you shall cut it down, according to their families. 3 But Zelophehad, the son of and it's farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters. These are and though they are strong." the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. 4 They came to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the princes, saying, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance amongst our brothers." Therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance amongst the brothers of their father. 5 Ten parts fell to Manasseh, in addition to the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond the Jordan: 6 because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance amongst his sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the sons of Manasseh. 7 The border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, which is before Shechem. The border went along to the right hand, to the inhabitants of En Tappuah. 8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh; but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim. 9 The border went down to the brook of Kanah, southward of the brook. These cities belonged to Ephraim amongst the cities of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and ended at the sea. 10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was his border. They reached to Asher on the north, and to Issachar on the east. 11 Manasseh had three heights in Issachar, in Asher Beth Shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns. 12 Yet the children of Manasseh couldn't drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. 13 When the children of Israel had grown strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labour, and didn't utterly drive them out. 14 The children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saving, "Why have you given me just one lot and one part for an inheritance, since we are a numerous people, because the LORD has blessed us so far?" 15 Joshua said to them, "If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest, and clear land for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaim, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you." 16 The children of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us. All the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those who are in Beth Shean and its towns, and those who are in the valley of Jezreel." 17 Joshua spoke to the house of

of Abjezer, for the children of Helek, for the children, Joseph, that is, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saving,

8 The whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled themselves together at Shiloh, and set up the Tent of Meeting there. The land was subdued before them. 2 Seven tribes remained amongst the children of Israel, which had not yet divided their inheritance. 3 Joshua said to the children of Israel, "How long will you neglect to go in to possess the land, which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you? 4 Appoint for yourselves three men from each tribe. I will send them, and they shall arise, walk through the land, and describe it according to their inheritance; then they shall come to me. 5 They shall divide it into seven portions. Judah shall live in his borders on the south, and the house of Joseph shall live in their borders on the north. 6 You shall survey the land into seven parts, and bring the description here to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. 7 However, the Levites have no portion amongst you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance east of the Jordan, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them." 8 The men arose and went. Joshua commanded those who went to survey the land, saying, "Go walk through the land, survey it, and come again to me. I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh." 9 The men went and passed through the land, and surveyed it by cities into seven portions in a book. They came to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh. 10 Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD. There Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions. 11 The lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families. The border of their lot went out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph. 12 Their border on the north quarter was from the Jordan. The border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward. It ended at the wilderness of Beth Aven. 13 The border passed along from there to Luz, to the side of Luz (also called Bethel), southward. The border went down to Ataroth Addar, by the mountain that lies on the south of Beth Horon the lower. 14 The border extended, and turned around on the west guarter southward, from the mountain that lies before Beth Horon southward; and ended at Kiriath Baal (also called Kiriath Jearim), a city of the children of Judah. This was the west quarter. 15 The south quarter was from the farthest part of Kiriath Jearim. The border Hepher, to Ethkazin; and it went out at Rimmon which children of Benjamin according to their families.

19 The second lot came out for Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. Their inheritance was in the middle of the inheritance of the children of Judah. 2 They had for their inheritance Beersheba (or Sheba), Moladah, 3 Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem, 4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, 5 Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah, 6 Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen; thirteen cities with their villages; 7 Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan; four cities with their villages; 8 and all the villages that were around these cities to Baalath Beer, Ramah of the South. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. 9 Out of the part of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the portion of the children of Judah was too much for them. Therefore the children of Simeon had inheritance in the middle of their inheritance. 10 The third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families. The border of their inheritance was to Sarid. 11 Their border went up westward, even to Maralah, and reached to Dabbesheth. It reached to the brook that is before Jokneam. 12 It turned from Sarid eastward towards the sunrise to the border of Chisloth Tabor. It went out to Daberath, and went up to Japhia. 13 From there it passed along eastward to Gath went out westward, and went out to the spring of the stretches to Neah. 14 The border turned around it on waters of Nephtoah. 16 The border went down to the the north to Hannathon; and it ended at the valley of farthest part of the mountain that lies before the valley Iphtah El; 15 Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and of the son of Hinnom, which is in the valley of Rephaim Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages. 16 This is northward. It went down to the valley of Hinnom, to the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to the side of the Jebusite southward, and went down to their families, these cities with their villages. 17 The En Rogel. 17 It extended northward, went out at En fourth lot came out for Issachar, even for the children of Shemesh, and went out to Geliloth, which is opposite Issachar according to their families. 18 Their border was the ascent of Adummim. It went down to the stone of to Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem, 19 Hapharaim, Shion, Bohan the son of Reuben. 18 It passed along to the side Anaharath, 20 Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez, 21 Remeth, opposite the Arabah northward, and went down to the Engannim, En Haddah, and Beth Pazzez. 22 The border Arabah. 19 The border passed along to the side of Beth reached to Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth Shemesh. Hoglah northward; and the border ended at the north Their border ended at the Jordan: sixteen cities with bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This their villages. 23 This is the inheritance of the tribe was the south border. 20 The Jordan was its border on of the children of Issachar according to their families, the east quarter. This was the inheritance of the children the cities with their villages. 24 The fifth lot came out of Benjamin, by the borders around it, according to their for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families. 21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of families. 25 Their border was Helkath, Hali, Beten, Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, Beth Achshaph, 26 Allammelech, Amad, Mishal. It reached to Hoglah, Emek Keziz, 22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, Carmel westward, and to Shihorlibnath. 27 It turned 23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, 24 Chephar Ammoni, Ophni, towards the sunrise to Beth Dagon, and reached to and Geba; twelve cities with their villages. 25 Gibeon, Zebulun, and to the valley of Iphtah El northward to Ramah, Beeroth, 26 Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, 27 Beth Emek and Neiel. It went out to Cabul on the left Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, 28 Zelah, Eleph, the Jebusite hand, 28 and Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, (also called Jerusalem), Gibeath, and Kiriath; fourteen even to great Sidon. 29 The border turned to Ramah, cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the to the fortified city of Tyre; and the border turned to Hosah. It ended at the sea by the region of Achzib; 30 Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty-two cities with their villages. 31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages. 32 The sixth lot came out for the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families. 33 Their border was from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim, Adaminekeb, and Jabneel, to Lakkum. It ended at the Jordan. 34 The border turned westward to Aznoth Tabor, and went out from there to Hukkok. It reached to Zebulun on the south, and reached to Asher on the west, and to Judah at the Jordan towards the sunrise. 35 The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, 36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, 37 Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor, 38 Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages. 39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities with their villages. 40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families. 41 The border of their inheritance was Zorah, Eshtaol, Irshemesh, 42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah, 43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron, 44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, 45 Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon, 46 Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border opposite Joppa. 47 The border of the children of Dan went out beyond them; for the tribes of the children of Israel, 2 They spoke to them the land.

2 The LORD spoke to Joshua, saying, 2 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'Assign the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you by Moses, 3 that the man slayer who kills any person accidentally or unintentionally may flee there. They shall be to you for a refuge from the avenger of blood. 4 He shall flee to one of those cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declare his case in the ears of the elders of that city. They shall take him into the city with them, and give him a place, that he may live amongst them. 5 If the avenger of blood pursues him, then they shall not deliver up the man slaver into his hand; because he struck his neighbour unintentionally, and didn't hate him before. 6 He shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgement, until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days. Then the man slayer shall return, and come to his own city, and to his own house, to the city he fled from." 7 They set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (also called Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. 8 Beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness in the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh. 9 These were the appointed cities for all the children of Israel, and for the alien who lives amongst them. that whoever kills any person unintentionally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood. until he stands trial before the congregation.

came near to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua children of Dan went up and fought against Leshem, at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saving, "The LORD and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and commanded through Moses to give us cities to dwell in, possessed it, and lived therein, and called Leshem, Dan, with their pasture lands for our livestock." 3 The children after the name of Dan their forefather. 48 This is the of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance, inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according according to the commandment of the LORD, these to their families, these cities with their villages, 49 So cities with their pasture lands, 4 The lot came out for they finished distributing the land for inheritance by its the families of the Kohathites. The children of Aaron borders. The children of Israel gave an inheritance to the priest, who were of the Levites, had thirteen cities Joshua the son of Nun amongst them. 50 According by lot out of the tribe of Judah, out of the tribe of the to the LORD's commandment, they gave him the city Simeonites, and out of the tribe of Benjamin. 5 The rest which he asked, even Timnathserah in the hill country of the children of Kohath had ten cities by lot out of the of Ephraim; and he built the city, and lived there. 51 families of the tribe of Ephraim, out of the tribe of Dan, These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh. 6 The children of Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers' Gershon had thirteen cities by lot out of the families of houses of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed the tribe of Issachar, out of the tribe of Asher, out of the for inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh door of the Tent of Meeting. So they finished dividing in Bashan, 7 The children of Merari according to their families had twelve cities out of the tribe of Reuben, out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun. 8 The children of Israel gave these cities with their pasture lands by lot to the Levites, as the LORD commanded by Moses. 9 They gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon. these cities which are mentioned by name: 10 and they were for the children of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi: for theirs was the first lot. 11 They gave them Kiriath Arba, named after the father of Anak (also called Hebron), in the hill country of Judah, with its pasture lands around it. 12 But they gave the fields of the city and its villages to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession. 13 To the children of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the man slayer, Libnah with its pasture lands, 14 Jattir with its pasture lands, Eshtemoa with its pasture lands, 15 Holon with its pasture lands, Debir with its pasture lands, 16 Ain with its pasture lands, Juttah with its pasture lands, and Beth Shemesh with its pasture lands: nine cities out of those two tribes. 17 Out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its pasture lands, Geba with its pasture lands. 18 Anathoth with its pasture lands, and Almon with its pasture lands: four cities. 19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their pasture lands. 20 The families of the children of Kohath, the Levites, even the rest of the children of Kohath, had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim. 21 They gave them Shechem with its pasture lands in the hill country of Ephraim, the city of refuge for the man slaver, and Gezer with its pasture lands. 22 71 Then the heads of fathers' houses of the Levites Kibzaim with its pasture lands, and Beth Horon with its pasture lands: four cities. 23 Out of the tribe of Dan. the son of Nun, and to the heads of fathers' houses of Elteke with its pasture lands, Gibbethon with its pasture

the house of Israel. All came to pass.

77 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, 2 and said to them, "You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have listened to my lands. 24 Aijalon with its pasture lands. Gath Rimmon voice in all that I commanded you. 3 You have not with its pasture lands: four cities. 25 Out of the half- left your brothers these many days to this day, but tribe of Manasseh, Taanach with its pasture lands, and have performed the duty of the commandment of the Gath Rimmon with its pasture lands: two cities. 26 All LORD your God. 4 Now the LORD your God has given the cities of the families of the rest of the children of rest to your brothers, as he spoke to them. Therefore Kohath were ten with their pasture lands. 27 They gave now return and go to your tents, to the land of your to the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD out of the half-tribe of Manasseh Golan in Bashan with gave you beyond the Jordan. 5 Only take diligent heed its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the man slayer, to do the commandment and the law which Moses and Be Eshterah with its pasture lands: two cities. 28 the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the Out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its pasture LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to keep his lands, Daberath with its pasture lands, 29 Jarmuth with commandments, to hold fast to him, and to serve him its pasture lands, En Gannim with its pasture lands: with all your heart and with all your soul." 6 So Joshua four cities. 30 Out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its blessed them, and sent them away; and they went to pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands, 31 Helkath their tents. 7 Now to the one half-tribe of Manasseh with its pasture lands, and Rehob with its pasture lands: Moses had given inheritance in Bashan; but Joshua four cities. 32 Out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in gave to the other half amongst their brothers beyond Galilee with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the the Jordan westward. Moreover when Joshua sent them man slayer, Hammothdor with its pasture lands, and away to their tents, he blessed them, 8 and spoke to Kartan with its pasture lands: three cities. 33 All the them, saying, "Return with much wealth to your tents, cities of the Gershonites according to their families were with very much livestock, with silver, with gold, with thirteen cities with their pasture lands. 34 To the families bronze, with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the plunder of your enemies with your brothers." 9 The the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its pasture lands, children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the Kartah with its pasture lands, 35 Dimnah with its pasture half-tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the lands, and Nahalal with its pasture lands: four cities. children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land 36 Out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its pasture of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of lands, Jahaz with its pasture lands, 37 Kedemoth with its their possession, which they owned, according to the pasture lands, and Mephaath with its pasture lands: four commandment of the LORD by Moses. 10 When they cities. 38 Out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with came to the region near the Jordan, that is in the land of its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the man slayer, Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and Mahanaim with its pasture lands, 39 Heshbon with and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by its pasture lands, Jazer with its pasture lands: four cities the Jordan, a great altar to look at. 11 The children of in all. 40 All these were the cities of the children of Israel heard this, "Behold, the children of Reuben and Merari according to their families, even the rest of the the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have families of the Levites. Their lot was twelve cities. 41 All built an altar along the border of the land of Canaan, in the cities of the Levites amongst the possessions of the the region around the Jordan, on the side that belongs children of Israel were forty-eight cities with their pasture to the children of Israel." 12 When the children of Israel lands. 42 Each of these cities included their pasture heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of lands around them. It was this way with all these cities. Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up 43 So the LORD gave to Israel all the land which he against them to war. 13 The children of Israel sent to swore to give to their fathers. They possessed it, and the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and lived in it. 44 The LORD gave them rest all around, to the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, according to all that he swore to their fathers. Not a Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest. 14 With him man of all their enemies stood before them. The LORD were ten princes, one prince of a fathers' house for delivered all their enemies into their hand. 45 Nothing each of the tribes of Israel; and they were each head of failed of any good thing which the LORD had spoken to their fathers' houses amongst the thousands of Israel. 15 They came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying, 16 "The whole congregation of the LORD says, 'What trespass is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away today from following the rebel today against the LORD? 17 Is the iniquity of children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spoke, it Peor too little for us, from which we have not cleansed pleased them well. 31 Phinehas the son of Eleazar the ourselves to this day, although there came a plaque priest said to the children of Reuben, to the children of on the congregation of the LORD, 18 that you must Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, "Today we know turn away today from following the LORD? It will be, that the LORD is amongst us, because you have not since you rebel today against the LORD, that tomorrow committed this trespass against the LORD. Now you he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel. have delivered the children of Israel out of the LORD's 19 However, if the land of your possession is unclean, hand." 32 Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and then pass over to the land of the possession of the the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and LORD, in which the LORD's tabernacle dwells, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the take possession amongst us; but don't rebel against the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought LORD, nor rebel against us, in building an altar other them word again. 33 The thing pleased the children than the LORD our God's altar. 20 Didn't Achan the of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and son of Zerah commit a trespass in the devoted thing, spoke no more of going up against them to war, to and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? That destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and man didn't perish alone in his iniquity." 21 Then the the children of Gad lived. 34 The children of Reuben children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half- and the children of Gad named the altar "A Witness tribe of Manasseh answered, and spoke to the heads of Between Us that the LORD is God." the thousands of Israel, 22 "The Mighty One, God, the LORD, the Mighty One, God, the LORD, he knows; and Israel shall know: if it was in rebellion, or if in trespass against the LORD (don't save us today), 23 that we have built us an altar to turn away from following the LORD; or if to offer burnt offering or meal offering, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings, let the LORD himself require it. 24 "If we have not out of concern done this, and for a reason, saying, 'In time to come your children might speak to our children, saying, "What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel? 25 For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no portion in the LORD." So your children might make our children cease from fearing the LORD. 26 "Therefore we said, 'Let's now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; 27 but it will be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, that we may perform the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings;' that your children may not tell our children in time to come, 'You have no portion in the LORD.' 28 "Therefore we said, 'It shall be, when they tell us or our generations this in time to come, that we shall say, "Behold the pattern of the LORD's altar, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; but it is a witness between us and you." 29 "Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn away today from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offering, for meal offering, or for sacrifice, besides the LORD our God's altar that is before his tabernacle!" 30 When Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, even the heads of the thousands of Israel that were with him,

LORD, in that you have built yourselves an altar, to heard the words that the children of Reuben and the

23 After many days, when the LORD had given rest to Israel from their enemies all around, and Joshua was old and well advanced in years. 2 Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and for their heads, and for their judges and for their officers, and said to them, "I am old and well advanced in years. 3 You have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you; for it is the LORD your God who has fought for you. 4 Behold, I have allotted to you these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the great sea towards the going down of the sun. 5 The LORD your God will thrust them out from before you, and drive them from out of your sight. You shall possess their land, as the LORD your God spoke to you. 6 "Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that you not turn away from it to the right hand or to the left; 7 that you not come amongst these nations, these that remain amongst you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow down yourselves to them; 8 but hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day. 9 "For the LORD has driven great and strong nations out from before you. But as for you, no man has stood before you to this day. 10 One man of you shall chase a thousand; for it is the LORD your God who fights for you, as he spoke to you. 11 Take good heed therefore to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God. 12 "But if you do at all go back, and hold fast to the remnant of these nations, even these who remain amongst you, and make marriages with them, and go in to them, and they to you; 13 know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no longer drive these nations from out of your sight; but they shall be a snare and the two kings of the Amorites; not with your sword, nor from off the good land which he has given to you."

24 Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God. 2 Joshua said to all the people. "The LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'Your fathers lived of old time beyond the River, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nahor. They served other gods. 3 I took your father Abraham from beyond the River, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his offspring, and gave him Isaac. 41 gave to Isaac Jacob and Esau: and I gave to Esau Mount Seir, to possess it. Jacob and his children went down into Egypt. 5 "I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did amongst them: and afterward I brought you out. 6 I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came to the sea. The Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and with horsemen to the Red Sea. 7 When they cried out to the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea on them, and covered them; and your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. You lived in the wilderness many days. 8 "I brought you into the land of the Amorites, that lived beyond the Jordan. They fought with you, and I gave them into your hand. You possessed their land, and I destroyed them from before you. 9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel. He sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you, 10 but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you still. So I delivered you out of his hand. 11 "You went over the Jordan, and came to Jericho. The men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Girgashite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I delivered them into your hand. 12 I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, even a trap to you, a scourge in your sides, and thorns in with your bow. 13 I gave you a land on which you had your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which not laboured, and cities which you didn't build, and you the LORD your God has given you. 14 "Behold, today I live in them. You eat of vineyards and olive groves which am going the way of all the earth. You know in all your you didn't plant.' 14 "Now therefore fear the LORD, and hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed serve him in sincerity and in truth. Put away the gods of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke which your fathers served beyond the River, in Egypt; concerning you. All have happened to you. Not one and serve the LORD. 15 If it seems evil to you to serve thing has failed of it. 15 It shall happen that as all the the LORD, choose today whom you will serve; whether good things have come on you of which the LORD your the gods which your fathers served that were beyond God spoke to you, so the LORD will bring on you all the the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land evil things, until he has destroyed you from off this good you dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve land which the LORD your God has given you, 16 when the LORD." 16 The people answered, "Far be it from us you disobey the covenant of the LORD your God, which that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods; he commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and 17 for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our bow down yourselves to them. Then the LORD's anger fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of will be kindled against you, and you will perish quickly bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way in which we went, and amongst all the peoples through the middle of whom we passed. 18 The LORD drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve the LORD; for he is our God." 19 Joshua said to the people, "You can't serve the LORD, for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God. He will not forgive your disobedience nor your sins. 20 If you forsake the LORD, and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you evil, and consume you, after he has done you good." 21 The people said to Joshua, "No, but we will serve the LORD." 22 Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD yourselves, to serve him." They said, "We are witnesses." 23 "Now therefore put away the foreign gods which are amongst you, and incline your heart to the LORD, the God of Israel." 24 The people said to Joshua, "We will serve the LORD our God, and we will listen to his voice." 25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. 26 Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD. 27 Joshua said to all the people, "Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us, for it has heard all the LORD's words which he spoke to us. It shall be therefore a witness against you, lest you deny your God." 28 So Joshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance. 29 After these things, Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred and ten years old. 30 They buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnathserah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash. 31 Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, and had known all the work of the LORD, that he had worked for Israel. 32 They buried the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, in Shechem, in the parcel of ground which Jacob bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of silver. They became the inheritance of the children of Joseph. 33 Eleazar the son of Aaron died. They buried him in the hill of Phinehas his son, which was given him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

1 After the death of Joshua, the children of Israel asked of the LORD, saying, "Who should go up for us first against the Canaanites, to fight against them?" 2 The LORD said, "Judah shall go up. Behold, I have delivered the land into his hand." 3 Judah said to Simeon his brother, "Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your lot." So Simeon went with him. 4 Judah went up, and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand. They struck ten thousand men in Bezek. 5 They found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and they fought against him. They struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites. 6 But Adoni-Bezek fled. They pursued him, caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his big toes. 7 Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings, having their thumbs and their big toes cut off, scavenged under my table. As I have done, so God has done to me." They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there. 8 The children of Judah fought against Jerusalem, took it, struck it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire. 9 After that, the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, and in the South, and in the lowland. 10 Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron. (The name of Hebron before that was Kiriath Arba.) They struck Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai. 11 From there he went against the inhabitants of Debir. (The name of Debir before that was Kiriath Sepher.) 12 Caleb said, "I will give Achsah my daughter as wife to the man who strikes Kiriath Sepher, and takes it." 13 Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it, so he gave him Achsah his daughter as his wife. 14 When she came, she got him to ask her father for a field. She got off her donkey; and Caleb said to her, "What would you like?" 15 She said to him, "Give me a blessing; because you have set me in the land of the South, give me also springs of water." Then Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs. 16 The children of the Kenite, Moses' brother-in-law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south of Arad; and they went and lived with the people. 17 Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. The name of the city was called Hormah. 18 Also Judah took Gaza with its border, and Ashkelon with its border, and Ekron with its border. 19 The LORD was with Judah, and drove out the inhabitants of the hill country; for he could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. 20 They gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said, and he drove the three sons of Anak out of there. 21 The children of Benjamin didn't drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem, but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day. 22 The house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them. 23 The house of Joseph sent to spy out Bethel. (The name of the city before that was Luz.) 24 The watchers saw a man come out of the city, and they said to him, "Please show us the entrance into the city, and we will deal kindly with you." 25 He showed them the entrance into the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go. 26 The man went into the land of the Hittites, built a city, and called its name Luz, which is its name to this day. 27 Manasseh didn't drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shean and its towns, nor Taanach and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. 28 When Israel had grown strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labour, and didn't utterly drive them out. 29 Ephraim didn't drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, but the Canaanites lived in Gezer amongst them. 30 Zebulun didn't drive out the inhabitants of Kitron. nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived amongst them, and became subject to forced labour. 31 Asher didn't drive out the inhabitants of Acco. nor the inhabitants of Sidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob; 32 but the Asherites lived amongst the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land, for they didn't drive them out. 33 Naphtali didn't drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but he lived amongst the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. Nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and of Beth Anath became subject to forced labour. 34 The Amorites forced the children of Dan into the hill country, for they would not allow them to come down to the valley; 35 but the Amorites would dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim. Yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became subject to forced labour. 36 The border of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

2 The LORD's angel came up from Gilgal to Bochim. He said, "I brought you out of Egypt, and have brought you to the land which I swore to give your fathers. I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you. 2 You shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land. You shall break down their altars.' But you have not listened to my voice. Why have you done this? 3 Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be in your sides, and angel spoke these words to all the children of Israel, see if they will keep the LORD's way to walk therein, the people lifted up their voice and wept. 5 They called as their fathers kept it, or not." 23 So the LORD left the name of that place Bochim, and they sacrificed those nations, without driving them out hastily. He didn't there to the LORD. 6 Now when Joshua had sent the deliver them into Joshua's hand. people away, the children of Israel each went to his inheritance to possess the land. 7 The people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of the LORD that he had worked for Israel. 8 Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred and ten years old. 9 They buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath Heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash. 10 After all that generation were gathered to their fathers, another generation arose after them who didn't know the LORD, nor the work which he had done for Israel. 11 The children of Israel did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, and served the Baals. 12 They abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger. 13 They abandoned the LORD, and served Baal and the Ashtaroth. 14 The LORD's anger burnt against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of raiders who plundered them. He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies. 15 Wherever they went out, the LORD's hand was against them for evil, as the LORD had spoken, and as the LORD had sworn to them; and they were very distressed. 16 The LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who plundered them. 17 Yet they didn't listen to their judges; for they prostituted themselves to other gods, and bowed themselves down to them. They quickly turned away from the way in which their fathers walked, obeying the LORD's commandments. They didn't do so. 18 When the LORD raised up judges for them, then the LORD was with the judge, and saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for it grieved the LORD because of their groaning by reason of those who oppressed them and troubled them. 19 But when the judge was dead, they turned back, and dealt more corruptly than their fathers in following other gods to serve them and to bow down to them. They didn't cease what they were doing, or give up their stubborn ways. 20 The LORD's anger burnt against Israel; and he said, "Because this nation transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not listened to my voice, 21 I also will no longer drive out any of the nations that Joshua left when he died

 $\boldsymbol{3}$ Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to test Israel by them, even as many as had not known all the wars of Canaan; 2 only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at least those who knew nothing of it before: 3 the five lords of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath. 4 They were left to test Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the LORD's commandments, which he commanded their fathers by Moses. 5 The children of Israel lived amongst the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. 6 They took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their own daughters to their sons and served their gods. 7 The children of Israel did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, and forgot the LORD their God, and served the Baals and the Asheroth. 8 Therefore the LORD's anger burnt against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel served Cushan Rishathaim eight years. 9 When the children of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a saviour to the children of Israel, who saved them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. 10 The LORD's Spirit came on him, and he judged Israel; and he went out to war, and the LORD delivered Cushan Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand. His hand prevailed against Cushan Rishathaim. 11 The land had rest forty years, then Othniel the son of Kenaz died. 12 The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the LORD's sight. and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done that which was evil in the LORD's sight. 13 He gathered the children of Ammon and Amalek to himself; and he went and struck Israel, and they possessed the city of palm trees. 14 The children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years. 15 But when the children of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a saviour for them: Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a left-handed man. The children of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon the king of Moab. 16 Ehud made himself a sword which had two edges, a cubit in length; and he wore it under his clothing on his right thigh. 17 He offered the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man. 18 When Ehud had finished offering the tribute, he sent away the people who carried the tribute. 19 But he himself turned back from the stone idols that were by

⚠ The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, when Ehud was dead. 2 The LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth of the Gentiles. 3 The children of Israel cried to the LORD, for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and he mightily oppressed the children of Israel for twenty years. 4 Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, judged Israel at that time. 5 She lived under Deborah's palm tree between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the children of Israel came up to her for judgement. 6 She sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh Naphtali, and said to him, "Hasn't the LORD, the God of Israel, commanded, 'Go and lead the way to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? 7 I will draw to you, to the river Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into your hand." 8 Barak said to her, "If

Ten thousand men followed him; also went in after the blade; and the fat closed on the and Deborah went up with him. 11 Now Heber the blade, for he didn't draw the sword out of his body; and Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, even it came out behind. 23 Then Ehud went out onto the from the children of Hobab, Moses' brother-in-law, and porch, and shut the doors of the upper room on him, had pitched his tent as far as the oak in Zaanannim, and locked them. 24 After he had gone, his servants which is by Kedesh. 12 They told Sisera that Barak the came and saw that the doors of the upper room were son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor. 13 Sisera locked. They said, "Surely he is covering his feet in the gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred upper room." 25 They waited until they were ashamed; chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, and behold, he didn't open the doors of the upper room. from Harosheth of the Gentiles, to the river Kishon. Therefore they took the key and opened them, and 14 Deborah said to Barak, "Go; for this is the day in behold, their lord had fallen down dead on the floor. 26 which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand. Ehud escaped while they waited, passed beyond the Hasn't the LORD gone out before you?" So Barak went stone idols, and escaped to Seirah. 27 When he had down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after come, he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; him. 15 The LORD confused Sisera, all his chariots, and the children of Israel went down with him from and all his army, with the edge of the sword before the hill country, and he led them. 28 He said to them, Barak. Sisera abandoned his chariot and fled away on "Follow me; for the LORD has delivered your enemies his feet. 16 But Barak pursued the chariots and the the Moabites into your hand." They followed him, and army to Harosheth of the Gentiles; and all the army of took the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and Sisera fell by the edge of the sword. He came in to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug. 19 He said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty." She opened a container of milk, and gave him a drink, and covered him. 20 He said to her, "Stand in the door of the tent, and if any man comes and enquires of you, and says, 'Is there any man here?' you shall say, 'No.'" 21 Then Jael, Heber's wife, took a tent peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and struck the pin into his temples, and it pierced through into the ground, for he was in a deep sleep; so he fainted and died. 22 Behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you seek." He came to her; and behold, Sisera lay dead, and the tent peg was in his temples. 23 So God subdued Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel on that day. 24 The hand of the children of Israel prevailed more and more against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

The children of Israel did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, so the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years. 2 The hand of Midian prevailed against Israel; and because of Midian the children of Israel made themselves the dens which are in the mountains, the caves, and the strongholds. 3 So it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the children of the east came up against them. 4 They encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, until you come to Gaza. They left no sustenance in Israel, and no sheep. ox, or donkey. 5 For they came up with their livestock and their tents. They came in as locusts for multitude. Both they and their camels were without number: and they came into the land to destroy it. 6 Israel was brought very low because of Midian; and the children of Israel cried to the LORD. 7 When the children of Israel cried to the LORD because of Midian, 8 The LORD sent a prophet to the children of Israel; and he said to them, "The LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of bondage. 9 I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land. 10 I said to you, "I am the LORD your God. You shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell." But you have not listened to my voice." 11 The LORD's angel came and sat under the oak which was in Ophrah, that belonged to Joash the Abiezrite. His son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press, to hide it from the Midianites. 12 The LORD's angel appeared to him, and said to him,

You shall not die." 24 Then Gideon built there was dew on all the ground. an altar there to the LORD, and called it "The LORD is Peace." To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. 25 That same night, the LORD said to him, "Take your father's bull, even the second bull seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the Asherah that is by it. 26 Then build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of this stronghold, in an orderly way, and take the second bull, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down." 27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had spoken to him. Because he feared his father's household and the men of the city, he could not do it by day, but he did it by night. 28 When the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah was cut down that was by it, and the second bull was offered on the altar that was built. 29 They said to one another, "Who has done this thing?"  $oldsymbol{7}$ Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people who were with him, rose up early and encamped beside the spring of Harod. Midian's camp was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. 2 The LORD said to Gideon, "The people who are with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel brag against me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' 3 Now therefore proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, 'Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead." So twentytwo thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained. 4 The LORD said to Gideon, "There are still too many people. Bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. It shall be, that those whom I tell you, 'This shall go with you,' shall go with you; and whoever I tell you, 'This shall not go with you,' shall not go." 5 So he brought down the people to the water; and the LORD said to Gideon, "Everyone who laps of the water with his tongue, like a dog laps, you shall set him by himself; likewise everyone who bows down on his putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred and the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow men; but all the rest of the people bowed down on their and against all the army; and the army fled as far as knees to drink water. 7 The LORD said to Gideon, "I will Beth Shittah towards Zererah, as far as the border of save you by the three hundred men who lapped, and Abel Meholah, by Tabbath. 23 The men of Israel were deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other gathered together out of Naphtali, out of Asher, and out people go, each to his own place." 8 So the people took of all Manasseh, and pursued Midian. 24 Gideon sent food in their hand, and their trumpets; and he sent all the messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, rest of the men of Israel to their own tents, but retained saying, "Come down against Midian and take the waters the three hundred men; and the camp of Midian was before them as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan!" So beneath him in the valley. 9 That same night, the LORD all the men of Ephraim were gathered together and took said to him, "Arise, go down into the camp, for I have the waters as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan. 25 delivered it into your hand. 10 But if you are afraid to go They took the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. down, go with Purah your servant down to the camp. 11 They killed Oreb at Oreb's rock, and Zeeb they killed at You will hear what they say; and afterward your hands Zeeb's wine press, as they pursued Midian. He said, "Behold, I dreamt a dream; and behold, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down, so that the tent lav flat." 14 His fellow answered, "This is nothing other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel, God has delivered Midian into his hand, with all the army." 15 It was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, that he worshipped. Then he returned into the camp of Israel and said, "Arise, for the LORD has delivered the army of Midian into your hand!" 16 He divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put into the hands of all of them trumpets and empty pitchers, with torches within the pitchers. 17 He said to them, "Watch me, and do likewise. Behold, when I come to the outermost part of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so you shall do. 18 When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon!" 19 So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outermost part of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch, when they had but newly set the watch. Then they blew the trumpets and broke in pieces the pitchers that were in their hands. 20 The three companies blew the trumpets, broke the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands with which to blow; and they shouted, "The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!" 21 They each stood in his place around the camp, and all the army ran; and they shouted, and put

8 The men of Ephraim said to him, "Why have you treated us this way, that you didn't call us when you went to fight with Midian?" They rebuked him sharply. 2 He said to them, "What have I now done in comparison with you? Isn't the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? 3 God has delivered into your hand the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb! What was I able to do in comparison with you?" Then their anger was abated towards him when he had said that. 4 Gideon came to the Jordan and passed over, he and the three hundred men who were with him. faint, yet pursuing. 5 He said to the men of Succoth, "Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian." 6 The princes of Succoth said, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?" 7 Gideon said, "Therefore when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers." 8 He went up there to Penuel, and spoke to them in the same way; and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered. 9 He spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, "When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower." 10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the children of the east; for there fell one hundred and twenty thousand men who drew sword. 11 Gideon went up by the way of those who lived in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and struck the army; for the army felt secure. 12 Zebah and Zalmunna fled and he pursued them. He took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and confused all the army. 13 Gideon the son of Joash

He caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and their god. 34 The children of Israel didn't remember the enguired of him; and he described for him the princes LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the of Succoth, and its elders, seventy-seven men. 15 He hand of all their enemies on every side; 35 neither did came to the men of Succoth, and said, "See Zebah and they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, that is, Zalmunna, concerning whom you taunted me, saying, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your shown to Israel. hand, that we should give bread to your men who are weary?" 16 He took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth. 17 He broke down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city. 18 Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men were they whom you killed at Tabor?" They answered, "They were like you. They all resembled the children of a king." 19 He said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you." 20 He said to Jether his firstborn, "Get up and kill them!" But the youth didn't draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he was yet a youth. 21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, "You rise and fall on us; for as the man is, so is his strength." Gideon arose, and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescents that were on their camels' necks. 22 Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, both you, your son, and your son's son also; for you have saved us out of the hand of Midian." 23 Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you. The LORD shall rule over you." 24 Gideon said to them, "I do have a request: that you would each give me the earrings of his plunder." (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.) 25 They answered, "We will willingly give them." They spread a garment, and every man threw the earrings of his plunder into it. 26 The weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold, in addition to the crescents, and the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian, and in addition to the chains that were about their camels' necks. 27 Gideon made an ephod out of it, and put it in Ophrah, his city. Then all Israel played the prostitute with it there: and it became a snare to Gideon and to his house. 28 So Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more. The land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon. 29 Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house. 30 Gideon had seventy sons conceived from his body, for he had many wives. 31 His concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech. 32 Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. 33 As soon as Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned again and played the

 ${f 9}$ Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, 2 "Please speak in the ears of all the men of Shechem, 'Is it better for you that all the sons of Jerubbaal, who are seventy persons, rule over you, or that one rule over you?' Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh." 3 His mother's brothers spoke of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words. Their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, "He is our brother." 4 They gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal Berith, with which Abimelech hired vain and reckless fellows who followed him. 5 He went to his father's house at Ophrah, and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, being seventy persons, on one stone; but Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, for he hid himself. 6 All the men of Shechem assembled themselves together with all the house of Millo, and went and made Abimelech king by the oak of the pillar that was in Shechem. 7 When they told it to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim and lifted up his voice, cried out, and said to them, "Listen to me, you men of Shechem, that God may listen to you. 8 The trees set out to anoint a king over themselves. They said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us.' 9 "But the olive tree said to them, 'Should I stop producing my oil, with which they honour God and man by me, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?' 10 "The trees said to the fig tree, 'Come and reign over us.' 11 "But the fig tree said to them, 'Should I leave my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?' 12 "The trees said to the vine, 'Come and reign over us.' 13 "The vine said to them. 'Should I leave my new wine, which cheers God and man, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?' 14 "Then all the trees said to the bramble, 'Come and reign over us.' 15 "The bramble said to the trees, 'If in truth you anoint me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade; and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.' 16 "Now therefore, if you have dealt truly and righteously, in that you have made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him according to the deserving of his hands 17 (for my father fought for you, risked his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian; 18 and you have risen up against my father's house today and have slain his of the mountains." Zebul said to him, "You see the sons, seventy persons, on one stone, and have made shadows of the mountains as if they were men." 37 Abimelech, the son of his female servant, king over the Gaal spoke again and said, "Behold, people are coming men of Shechem, because he is your brother); 19 if you down by the middle of the land, and one company then have dealt truly and righteously with Jerubbaal and comes by the way of the oak of Meonenim." 38 Then with his house today, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let Zebul said to him, "Now where is your mouth, that you him also rejoice in you; 20 but if not, let fire come out said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' from Abimelech and devour the men of Shechem and Isn't this the people that you have despised? Please go the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men out now and fight with them." 39 Gaal went out before of Shechem and from the house of Millo and devour the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech. 40 Abimelech." 21 Jotham ran away and fled, and went to Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and Beer and lived there, for fear of Abimelech his brother. many fell wounded, even to the entrance of the gate. 41 22 Abimelech was prince over Israel three years. 23 Abimelech lived at Arumah; and Zebul drove out Gaal Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and and his brothers, that they should not dwell in Shechem. the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt 42 On the next day, the people went out into the field; treacherously with Abimelech, 24 that the violence done and they told Abimelech. 43 He took the people and to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come, and that divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the their blood might be laid on Abimelech their brother field; and he looked, and behold, the people came out who killed them, and on the men of Shechem who of the city. Abimelech kill me, that men not say of me, 'A woman killed him.' rose up, and the people who were with him, from the His young man thrust him through, and he died." 55 ambush. 36 When Gaal saw the people, he said to When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, Zebul, "Behold, people are coming down from the tops they each departed to his place. 56 Thus God repaid

the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did to his father in killing his seventy brothers; 57 and God repaid all and the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came on them.

1 After Abimelech, Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, arose to save Israel. He lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim. 2 He judged Israel twenty-three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir. 3 After him Jair, the Gileadite, arose, He judged Israel twenty-two years. 4 He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkey colts. They had thirty cities, which are called Havvoth Jair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead. 5 Jair died, and was buried in Kamon. 6 The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, and served the Baals, the Ashtaroth, the gods of Syria, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines. They abandoned the LORD, and didn't serve him. 7 The LORD's anger burnt against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the children of Ammon. 8 They troubled and oppressed the children of Israel that year. For eighteen years they oppressed all the children of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. 9 The children of Ammon passed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was very distressed. 10 The children of Israel cried to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against you, even because we have forsaken our God, and have served the Baals." 11 The LORD said to the children of Israel, "Didn't I save you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines? 12 The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, oppressed you; and you cried to me, and I saved you out of their hand. 13 Yet you have forsaken me and served other gods. Therefore I will save you no more. 14 Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen. Let them save you in the time of your distress!" 15 The children of Israel said to the LORD, "We have sinned! Do to us whatever seems good to you; only deliver us, please, today." 16 They put away the foreign gods from amongst them and served the LORD; and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel. 17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together and encamped in Gilead. The children of Israel assembled themselves together and encamped in Mizpah. 18 The people, the princes of Gilead, said to one another, "Who is the man who will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour. He was the son of a prostitute. Gilead the wickedness of the men of Shechem on their heads; became the father of Jephthah. 2 Gilead's wife bore him sons. When his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out and said to him, "You will not inherit in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman." 3 Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Outlaws joined up with Jephthah, and they went out with him. 4 After a while, the children of Ammon made war against Israel. 5 When the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah out of the land of Tob. 6 They said to Jephthah, "Come and be our chief, that we may fight with the children of Ammon." 7 Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Didn't you hate me, and drive me out of my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in distress?" 8 The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Therefore we have turned again to you now, that you may go with us and fight with the children of Ammon. You will be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead." 9 Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me home again to fight with the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivers them before me, will I be your head?" 10 The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD will be witness between us. Surely we will do what you say." 11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them. Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD in Mizpah. 12 Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon, saying, "What do you have to do with me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?" 13 The king of the children of Ammon answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel took away my land when he came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. Now therefore restore that territory again peaceably." 14 Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the children of Ammon; 15 and he said to him, "Jephthah says: Israel didn't take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon; 16 but when they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh, 17 then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Please let me pass through your land;' but the king of Edom didn't listen. In the same way, he sent to the king of Moab, but he refused; so Israel stayed in Kadesh. 18 Then they went through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and they encamped on the other side of the Arnon; but they didn't come within the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. 19 Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of through your land to my place.' 20 But Sihon didn't trust children of Ammon." 37 Then she said to her father, "Let Israel to pass through his border; but Sihon gathered this thing be done for me. Leave me alone two months, all his people together, and encamped in Jahaz, and that I may depart and go down on the mountains. fought against Israel. 21 The LORD, the God of Israel, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions." 38 He delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of said, "Go." He sent her away for two months; and she Israel, and they struck them. So Israel possessed all the departed, she and her companions, and mourned her land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. 22 virginity on the mountains. 39 At the end of two months, They possessed all the border of the Amorites, from she returned to her father, who did with her according the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness to his vow which he had vowed. She was a virgin. It even to the Jordan. 23 So now the LORD, the God became a custom in Israel 40 that the daughters of of Israel, has dispossessed the Amorites from before Israel went yearly to celebrate the daughter of Jephthah his people Israel, and should you possess them? 24 the Gileadite four days in a year. Won't you possess that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whoever the LORD our God has dispossessed from before us, them will we possess. 25 Now are you anything better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel. or did he ever fight against them? 26 Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities that are along the side of the Arnon for three hundred years! Why didn't you recover them within that time? 27 Therefore I have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong to war against me. May the LORD the Judge be judge today between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon." 28 However, the king of the children of Ammon didn't listen to the words of Jephthah which he sent him. 29 Then the LORD's Spirit came on Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead and Manasseh. and passed over Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed over to the children of Ammon. 30 Jephthah vowed a vow to the LORD, and said, "If you will indeed deliver the children of Ammon into my hand. 31 then it shall be, that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, it shall be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering." 32 So Jephthah passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hand. 33 He struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and to Abelcheramim, with a very great slaughter. So the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel. 34 Jephthah came to Mizpah to his house; and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with tambourines and with dances. She was his only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter. 35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes, and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are one of those who trouble me; for I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I can't go back." 36 She said to him, "My father, you have opened your mouth to the LORD: do to me according to that which has proceeded out of your mouth, because the LORD has

The men of Ephraim were gathered together, and passed northward; and they said to Jephthah, "Why did you pass over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didn't call us to go with you? We will burn your house around you with fire!" 2 Jephthah said to them, "I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon: and when I called you, you didn't save me out of their hand. 3 When I saw that you didn't save me. I put my life in my hand, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me today, to fight against me?" 4 Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim. The men of Gilead struck Ephraim, because they said, "You are fugitives of Ephraim, you Gileadites, in the middle of Ephraim, and in the middle of Manasseh." 5 The Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites. Whenever a fugitive of Ephraim said, "Let me go over," the men of Gilead said to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No;" 6 then they said to him, "Now say 'Shibboleth;" and he said "Sibboleth"; for he couldn't manage to pronounce it correctly, then they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. At that time, forty-two thousand of Ephraim fell. 7 Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in the cities of Gilead. 8 After him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. 9 He had thirty sons. He sent his thirty daughters outside his clan, and he brought in thirty daughters from outside his clan for his sons. He judged Israel seven years. 10 Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem. 11 After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years. 12 Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun. 13 After him, Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel. 14 He had forty sons and thirty sons' sons who rode on seventy donkey colts. He judged Israel eight years. 15 Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

them into the hand of the Philistines forty years. 2 There fell on their faces to the ground. 21 But the LORD's was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, angel didn't appear to Manoah or to his wife any more. whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and Then Manoah knew that he was the LORD's angel. 22 childless. 3 The LORD's angel appeared to the woman, Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, because and said to her, "See now, you are barren and childless; we have seen God." 23 But his wife said to him, "If the but you shall conceive and bear a son. 4 Now therefore LORD were pleased to kill us, he wouldn't have received please beware and drink no wine nor strong drink, and a burnt offering and a meal offering at our hand, and he don't eat any unclean thing; 5 for, behold, you shall wouldn't have shown us all these things, nor would he conceive and give birth to a son. No razor shall come have told us such things as these at this time." 24 The on his head, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from woman bore a son and named him Samson. The child the womb. He shall begin to save Israel out of the hand grew, and the LORD blessed him. 25 The LORD's Spirit of the Philistines." 6 Then the woman came and told began to move him in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah her husband, saying, "A man of God came to me, and his face was like the face of the angel of God, very awesome. I didn't ask him where he was from, neither did he tell me his name; 7 but he said to me, 'Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink. Don't eat any unclean thing, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death." 8 Then Manoah entreated the LORD, and said, "Oh, Lord, please let the man of God whom you sent come again to us, and teach us what we should do to the child who shall be born." 9 God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field; but Manoah. her husband, wasn't with her. 10 The woman hurried and ran, and told her husband, saying to him, "Behold, the man who came to me that day has appeared to me." 11 Manoah arose and followed his wife, and came to the man, and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to my wife?" He said, "I am." 12 Manoah said, "Now let your words happen. What shall the child's way of life and mission be?" 13 The LORD's angel said to Manoah, "Of all that I said to the woman let her beware. 14 She may not eat of anything that comes of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing. Let her observe all that I commanded her." 15 Manoah said to the LORD's angel, "Please stay with us, that we may make a young goat ready for you." 16 The LORD's angel said to Manoah, "Though you detain me, I won't eat your bread. If you will prepare a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD," For Manoah didn't know that he was the LORD's angel. 17 Manoah said to the LORD's angel, "What is your name, that when your words happen, we may honour you?" 18 The LORD's angel said to him, "Why do you ask about my name, since it is incomprehensible?" 19 So Manoah took the young goat with the meal offering, and offered it on the rock to the LORD. Then the angel did an amazing thing as Manoah and his wife watched. 20 For when the flame went up towards the sky from

1 2 The children of Israel again did that which was off the altar, the LORD's angel ascended in the flame evil in the LORD's sight; and the LORD delivered of the altar. Manoah and his wife watched; and they and Eshtaol.

> 14 Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines. 2 He came up, and told his father and his mother, saving. "I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines. Now therefore get her for me as my wife." 3 Then his father and his mother said to him, "Isn't there a woman amongst your brothers' daughters, or amongst all my people, that you go to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines?" Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, for she pleases me well." 4 But his father and his mother didn't know that it was of the LORD; for he sought an occasion against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines ruled over Israel. 5 Then Samson went down to Timnah with his father and his mother, and came to the vineyards of Timnah; and behold, a young lion roared at him. 6 The LORD's Spirit came mightily on him, and he tore him as he would have torn a young goat with his bare hands. but he didn't tell his father or his mother what he had done. 7 He went down and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson well. 8 After a while he returned to take her, and he went over to see the carcass of the lion; and behold, there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey. 9 He took it into his hands, and went on, eating as he went. He came to his father and mother and gave to them, and they ate, but he didn't tell them that he had taken the honey out of the lion's body. 10 His father went down to the woman; and Samson made a feast there, for the young men used to do so. 11 When they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him. 12 Samson said to them, "Let me tell you a riddle now. If you can tell me the answer within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing; 13 but if you can't tell me the answer, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing." They said to him, "Tell us your riddle, that we may hear was given to his companion, who had been his friend.

15 But after a while, in the time of wheat harvest. Samson visited his wife with a young goat. He said, "I will go in to my wife's room." But her father wouldn't allow him to go in. 2 Her father said, "I most certainly thought that you utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. Isn't her younger sister more beautiful than she? Please, take her instead." 3 Samson said to them, "This time I will be blameless in the case of the Philistines when I harm them." 4 Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch in the middle between every two tails. 5 When he had set the torches on fire, he let them go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks and the standing grain, and also the olive groves. 6 Then the Philistines said, "Who has done this?" They said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion." The Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire. 7 Samson said to them. "If you behave like this. surely I will take revenge on you, and after that I will cease." 8 He struck them hip and thigh with a great slaughter; and he went down and lived in the cave in Etam's rock. 9 Then the Philistines went up, encamped in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi. 10 The men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" They said. "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he has done to us." 11 Then three thousand men it." 14 He said to them, "Out of the eater came out food, of Judah went down to the cave in Etam's rock, and Out of the strong came out sweetness." They couldn't said to Samson, "Don't you know that the Philistines are in three days declare the riddle. 15 On the seventh rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to day, they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband, us?" He said to them, "As they did to me, so I have that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn you done to them." 12 They said to him, "We have come and your father's house with fire. Have you called us to down to bind you, that we may deliver you into the hand impoverish us? Isn't that so?" 16 Samson's wife wept of the Philistines." Samson said to them. "Swear to me before him, and said, "You just hate me, and don't love that you will not attack me yourselves." 13 They spoke me. You've told a riddle to the children of my people, to him, saying, "No, but we will bind you securely and and haven't told it to me." He said to her, "Behold, I deliver you into their hands; but surely we will not kill haven't told my father or my mother, so why should I tell you." They bound him with two new ropes, and brought you?" 17 She wept before him the seven days, while him up from the rock. 14 When he came to Lehi, the their feast lasted; and on the seventh day, he told her, Philistines shouted as they met him. Then the LORD's because she pressed him severely; and she told the Spirit came mightily on him, and the ropes that were on riddle to the children of her people. 18 The men of the his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire; and city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went his bands dropped from off his hands. 15 He found a down, "What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger fresh jawbone of a donkey, put out his hand, took it, and than a lion?" He said to them, "If you hadn't ploughed struck a thousand men with it. 16 Samson said, "With with my heifer, you wouldn't have found out my riddle." the jawbone of a donkey, heaps on heaps; with the 19 The LORD's Spirit came mightily on him, and he went jawbone of a donkey I have struck a thousand men." 17 down to Ashkelon and struck thirty men of them. He When he had finished speaking, he threw the jawbone took their plunder, then gave the changes of clothing to out of his hand; and that place was called Ramath Lehi. those who declared the riddle. His anger burnt, and he 18 He was very thirsty, and called on the LORD and went up to his father's house. 20 But Samson's wife said. "You have given this great deliverance by the hand of your servant; and now shall I die of thirst, and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?" 19 But God split the hollow place that is in Lehi, and water came out of it. When he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived. Therefore its name was called En Hakkore. which is in Lehi, to this day. 20 He judged Israel twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

16 Samson went to Gaza, and saw there a prostitute. and went in to her. 2 The Gazites were told, "Samson is here!" They surrounded him and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, "Wait until morning light; then we will kill him." 3 Samson lay until midnight, then arose at midnight and took hold of the doors of the gate of the city, with the two posts, and plucked them up, bar and all, and put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of the mountain that is before Hebron. 4 It came to pass afterward that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. 5 The lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, "Entice him, and see in which his great strength lies." and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and we will each give you eleven hundred pieces of silver." 6 Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength lies, and what you might be bound to afflict you." 7 Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven green cords that were never dried, then shall I become weak, and be as another man." 8 Then the lords of the Philistines

She said to for Samson out of the prison; and he performed before him, "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" He broke the them. They set him between the pillars; 26 and Samson cords as a flax thread is broken when it touches the said to the boy who held him by the hand, "Allow me fire. So his strength was not known. 10 Delilah said to to feel the pillars on which the house rests, that I may He said to her, "If they only bind me with new ropes and there were on the roof about three thousand men with which no work has been done, then I will become and women, who saw while Samson performed. 28 weak, and be as another man." 12 So Delilah took Samson called to the LORD, and said, "Lord GOD, new ropes and bound him with them, then said to him, remember me, please, and strengthen me, please, only "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" The ambush was this once, God, that I may be at once avenged of the waiting in the inner room. He broke them off his arms Philistines for my two eyes." 29 Samson took hold of have mocked me and told me lies. "No razor has ever come on my head; for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will go from me and I will become weak, and be like any other man." 18 When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up this once, for he has told me all his heart." Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hand. 19 She made him sleep on her knees; and she called for a man and shaved off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. 20 She said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" He awoke out of his sleep, and said, "I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free." But he didn't know that the LORD had departed from him. 21 The Philistines laid hold on him and put out his eves: and they brought him down to Gaza and bound him with fetters of bronze; and he ground at the mill in the prison. 22 However, the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaved. 23 The lords of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice; for they said, "Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hand." 24 When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said, "Our god has delivered our enemy and the destroyer of our country, who has slain many of us, into

> There was a man of the hill country of Ephraim. whose name was Micah. 2 He said to his mother, "The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse, and also spoke it in my ears-behold, the silver is with me. I took it." His mother said, "May the LORD bless my son!" 3 He restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, then his mother said, "I most certainly dedicate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a carved image and a molten image. Now therefore I will restore it to you." 4 When he restored the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver, and gave them to a silversmith, who made a carved image and a molten image out of it. It was in the house of Micah. 5 The man Micah had a house of gods, and he made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. 6 In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did that which was right in his own eyes. 7 There was a young man out of Bethlehem Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he lived there. 8 The man departed out of the city, out of Bethlehem Judah, to live where he could find a place, and he came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he travelled. 9 Micah said to him, "Where did you come from?" He said to him, "I am a Levite of Bethlehem Judah, and I am looking for a place to live." 10 Micah said to him, "Dwell with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver per year, a molten image? Now therefore consider what you have since I have a Levite as my priest."

18 In those days there was no king in Israel. In those days the tribe of the Danites sought an inheritance to dwell in; for to that day, their inheritance had not fallen to them amongst the tribes of Israel. 2 The children of Dan sent five men of their family from their whole number, men of valour, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to search it. They said to them. "Go, explore the land!" They came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there. 3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite; so they went over there and said to him, "Who brought you here? What do you do in this place? What do you have here?" 4 He said to them, "Thus and thus has Micah dealt with me, and he has hired me, and I have become his priest." 5 They said to him, "Please ask counsel of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous." 6 The priest said to them, "Go in peace. Your way in which you go is before the LORD." 7 Then the five men departed and came to Laish and saw the people who were there, how they lived in safety, in the way of the Sidonians, quiet and secure; for there was no one in the land possessing authority, that might put them to shame in anything, and they were far from the Sidonians, and had no dealings with anyone else. 8 They came to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol; and their brothers asked them, "What do you say?" 9 They said, "Arise, and let's go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good. Do you stand still? Don't be slothful to go and to enter in to possess the land. 10 When you go, you will come to an unsuspecting people, and the land is large; for God has given it into your hand, a place where there is no lack of anything that is in the earth." 11 The family of the Danites set out from Zorah and Eshtaol with six hundred men armed with weapons of war. 12 They went up and encamped in Kiriath Jearim in Judah. Therefore they call that place Mahaneh Dan to this day. Behold, it is behind Kiriath Jearim. 13 They passed from there to the hill country of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah. 14 Then the five men who went to spy out the country of Laish answered and said to their brothers, "Do you know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a carved image, and a suit of clothing, and your food." So the Levite went in. to do." 15 They went over there and came to the house 11 The Levite was content to dwell with the man; and of the young Levite man, even to the house of Micah, the young man was to him as one of his sons. 12 Micah and asked him how he was doing. 16 The six hundred consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the priest, and was in the house of Micah. 13 Then Micah children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. 17 said, "Now I know that the LORD will do good to me, The five men who went to spy out the land went up, and came in there, and took the engraved image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image; and the priest stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war. 18 When these went into Micah's house, and took the engraved image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?" 19 They said to him, "Hold your peace, put your hand on your mouth, and go with us. Be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be priest to the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?" 20 The priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, the teraphim, and the engraved image, and went with the people. 21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones, the livestock, and the goods before them. 22 When they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house gathered together and overtook the children of Dan. 23 As they called to the children of Dan, they turned their faces, and said to Micah, "What ails you, that you come with such a company?" 24 He said, "You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and have gone away! What more do I have? How can you ask me, 'What ails you?'" 25 The children of Dan said to him, "Don't let your voice be heard amongst us, lest angry fellows fall on you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household." 26 The children of Dan went their way; and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house. 27 They took that which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had, and came to Laish, to a people guiet and unsuspecting, and struck them with the edge of the sword; then they burnt the city with fire. 28 There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with anyone else; and it was in the valley that lies by Beth Rehob. They built the city and lived in it. 29 They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel; however the name of the city used to be Laish. 30 The children of Dan set up for themselves the engraved image; and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land. 31 So they set up for themselves Micah's engraved image which he made, and it remained all the time that God's house was in Shiloh.

1 Q In those days, when there was no king in Israel, the old man said, "Where are you going? Where did you side of the hill country of Ephraim, who took for himself Bethlehem Judah to the farther side of the hill country a concubine out of Bethlehem Judah. 2 His concubine of Ephraim. I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem played the prostitute against him, and went away from Judah. I am going to the LORD's house; and there is him to her father's house to Bethlehem Judah, and no one who has taken me into his house. 19 Yet there was there for four months. 3 Her husband arose and is both straw and feed for our donkeys; and there is went after her to speak kindly to her, to bring her again, bread and wine also for me, and for your servant, and having his servant with him and a couple of donkeys. for the young man who is with your servants. There is She brought him into her father's house; and when no lack of anything." 20 The old man said, "Peace be to the father of the young lady saw him, he rejoiced to you! Just let me supply all your needs, but don't sleep meet him. 4 His father-in-law, the young lady's father, in the street." 21 So he brought him into his house, kept him there; and he stayed with him three days. So and gave the donkeys fodder. Then they washed their they ate and drank, and stayed there. 5 On the fourth feet, and ate and drank. 22 As they were making their day, they got up early in the morning, and he rose up hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain wicked to depart. The young lady's father said to his son-in-fellows, surrounded the house, beating at the door; and law, "Strengthen your heart with a morsel of bread, and they spoke to the master of the house, the old man, afterward you shall go your way." 6 So they sat down, saying, "Bring out the man who came into your house, ate, and drank, both of them together. Then the young that we can have sex with him!" 23 The man, the master lady's father said to the man, "Please be pleased to stay of the house, went out to them, and said to them, "No, all night, and let your heart be merry." 7 The man rose my brothers, please don't act so wickedly; since this up to depart; but his father-in-law urged him, and he man has come into my house, don't do this folly. 24 stayed there again. 8 He arose early in the morning Behold, here is my virgin daughter and his concubine. on the fifth day to depart; and the young lady's father I will bring them out now. Humble them, and do with said, "Please strengthen your heart and stay until the them what seems good to you; but to this man don't do day declines;" and they both ate. 9 When the man rose any such folly." 25 But the men wouldn't listen to him; up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, so the man grabbed his concubine, and brought her his father-in-law, the young lady's father, said to him, out to them; and they had sex with her, and abused "Behold, now the day draws towards evening, please her all night until the morning. When the day began to stay all night. Behold, the day is ending. Stay here, dawn, they let her go. 26 Then the woman came in the that your heart may be merry; and tomorrow go on dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the your way early, that you may go home." 10 But the man's house where her lord was, until it was light. 27 man wouldn't stay that night, but he rose up and went Her lord rose up in the morning and opened the doors of near Jebus (also called Jerusalem). With him were a the house, and went out to go his way; and behold, the couple of saddled donkeys. His concubine also was woman his concubine had fallen down at the door of the with him. 11 When they were by Jebus, the day was house, with her hands on the threshold. 28 He said to far spent; and the servant said to his master, "Please her, "Get up, and let's get going!" but no one answered. come and let's enter into this city of the Jebusites, and Then he took her up on the donkey; and the man rose stay in it." 12 His master said to him, "We won't enter up, and went to his place. 29 When he had come into into the city of a foreigner that is not of the children of his house, he took a knife and cut up his concubine, Israel; but we will pass over to Gibeah." 13 He said to and divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and his servant, "Come and let's draw near to one of these sent her throughout all the borders of Israel, 30 It was places; and we will lodge in Gibeah, or in Ramah." 14 so, that all who saw it said, "Such a deed has not been So they passed on and went their way; and the sun done or seen from the day that the children of Israel went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to came up out of the land of Egypt to this day! congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan even to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, to the LORD at Mizpah. 2 The chiefs of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen who drew sword. 3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone array in the place where they set themselves in array up to Mizpah.) The children of Israel said, "Tell us, the first day. 23 The children of Israel went up and wept how did this wickedness happen?" 4 The Levite, the before the LORD until evening; and they asked of the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered, LORD, saying, "Shall I again draw near to battle against "I came into Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my the children of Benjamin my brother?" The LORD said, concubine, to spend the night. 5 The men of Gibeah "Go up against him." 24 The children of Israel came rose against me, and surrounded the house by night. near against the children of Benjamin the second day. They intended to kill me and they raped my concubine, 25 Benjamin went out against them out of Gibeah the and she is dead. 6 I took my concubine and cut her in second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men. All inheritance of Israel; for they have committed lewdness these drew the sword. 26 Then all the children of Israel and folly in Israel. 7 Behold, you children of Israel, all and all the people went up, and came to Bethel, and of you, give here your advice and counsel." 8 All the wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that people arose as one man, saying, "None of us will go to day until evening; then they offered burnt offerings and his tent, neither will any of us turn to his house. 9 But peace offerings before the LORD. 27 The children of now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: we will Israel asked the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of go up against it by lot; 10 and we will take ten men of God was there in those days, 28 and Phinehas, the one hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and one son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in hundred of one thousand, and a thousand out of ten those days), saying, "Shall I yet again go out to battle thousand to get food for the people, that they may do, against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all cease?" The LORD said, "Go up; for tomorrow I will the folly that the men of Gibeah have done in Israel." 11 deliver him into your hand." 29 Israel set ambushes So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, all around Gibeah. 30 The children of Israel went up knit together as one man. 12 The tribes of Israel sent against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What set themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other wickedness is this that has happened amongst you? 13 times. 31 The children of Benjamin went out against the Now therefore deliver up the men, the wicked fellows people, and were drawn away from the city; and they who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and began to strike and kill of the people as at other times, put away evil from Israel." But Benjamin would not listen in the highways, of which one goes up to Bethel and the to the voice of their brothers, the children of Israel. 14 other to Gibeah, in the field, about thirty men of Israel. The children of Benjamin gathered themselves together 32 The children of Benjamin said, "They are struck down out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the before us, as at the first." But the children of Israel said, children of Israel. 15 The children of Benjamin were "Let's flee, and draw them away from the city to the counted on that day out of the cities twenty-six thousand highways." 33 All the men of Israel rose up out of their men who drew the sword, in addition to the inhabitants place and set themselves in array at Baal Tamar. Then of Gibeah, who were counted seven hundred chosen the ambushers of Israel broke out of their place, even men. 16 Amongst all these soldiers there were seven out of Maareh Geba. 34 Ten thousand chosen men out hundred chosen men who were left-handed. Every one of all Israel came over against Gibeah, and the battle of them could sling a stone at a hair and not miss. 17 was severe; but they didn't know that disaster was close The men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were counted to them. 35 The LORD struck Benjamin before Israel; four hundred thousand men who drew sword. All these and the children of Israel destroyed of Benjamin that were men of war. 18 The children of Israel arose, day twenty-five thousand and one hundred men. All went up to Bethel, and asked counsel of God. They these drew the sword. 36 So the children of Benjamin asked, "Who shall go up for us first to battle against the saw that they were struck, for the men of Israel yielded children of Benjamin?" The LORD said, "Judah first." to Benjamin because they trusted the ambushers whom 19 The children of Israel rose up in the morning and they had set against Gibeah. 37 The ambushers hurried, encamped against Gibeah. 20 The men of Israel went and rushed on Gibeah; then the ambushers spread out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel out, and struck all the city with the edge of the sword. set the battle in array against them at Gibeah. 21 The 38 Now the appointed sign between the men of Israel children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and on that and the ambushers was that they should make a great day destroyed twenty-two thousand of the Israelite men cloud of smoke rise up out of the city. 39 The men of down to the ground. 22 The people, the men of Israel, Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike encouraged themselves, and set the battle again in and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons; for

Moreover they set all the cities which they found on fire.

21 Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpah, saying, "None of us will give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife." 2 The people came to Bethel and sat there until evening before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept severely. 3 They said, "The LORD, the God of Israel, why has this happened in Israel, that there should be one tribe lacking in Israel today?" 4 On the next day, the people rose early and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. 5 The children of Israel said, "Who is there amongst all the tribes of Israel who didn't come up in the assembly to the LORD?" For they had made a great oath concerning him who didn't come up to the LORD to Mizpah, saying, "He shall surely be put to death." 6 The children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, "There is one tribe cut off from Israel today. 7 How shall we provide wives for those who remain, since we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?" 8 They said, "What one is there of the tribes of Israel who didn't come up to the LORD to Mizpah?" Behold, no one came from Jabesh Gilead to the camp to the assembly. 9 For when the people were counted, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead there. 10 The congregation sent twelve thousand of the most valiant men there, and commanded them, saying, they said. "Surely they are struck down before us. as in "Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the the first battle." 40 But when the cloud began to arise edge of the sword, with the women and the little ones. up out of the city in a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites 11 This is the thing that you shall do: you shall utterly looked behind them; and behold, the whole city went up destroy every male, and every woman who has lain in smoke to the sky. 41 The men of Israel turned, and with a man." 12 They found amongst the inhabitants of the men of Benjamin were dismayed; for they saw that Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins who had not disaster had come on them. 42 Therefore they turned known man by lying with him; and they brought them to their backs before the men of Israel to the way of the the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. 13 wilderness, but the battle followed hard after them; and The whole congregation sent and spoke to the children those who came out of the cities destroyed them in of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, and the middle of it. 43 They surrounded the Benjamites, proclaimed peace to them. 14 Benjamin returned at that chased them, and trod them down at their resting place, time; and they gave them the women whom they had as far as near Gibeah towards the sunrise. 44 Eighteen saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead. There still thousand men of Benjamin fell; all these were men of weren't enough for them. 15 The people grieved for valour. 45 They turned and fled towards the wilderness Benjamin, because the LORD had made a breach in the to the rock of Rimmon. They gleaned five thousand men tribes of Israel. 16 Then the elders of the congregation of them in the highways, and followed hard after them said, "How shall we provide wives for those who remain, to Gidom, and struck two thousand men of them. 46 since the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?" 17 So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty- They said, "There must be an inheritance for those who five thousand men who drew the sword. All these were are escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe not be blotted out men of valour. 47 But six hundred men turned and fled from Israel. 18 However, we may not give them wives towards the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and of our daughters, for the children of Israel had sworn, stayed in the rock of Rimmon four months. 48 The saying, 'Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin.'" men of Israel turned again on the children of Benjamin, 19 They said, "Behold, there is a feast of the LORD and struck them with the edge of the sword—including from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north of the entire city, the livestock, and all that they found. Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah." 20 They commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, "Go and lie in wait in the vineyards, 21 and see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards, and each man catch his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. 22 It shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, that we will say to them, 'Grant them graciously to us, because we didn't take for each man his wife in battle, neither did you give them to them; otherwise you would now be guilty." 23 The children of Benjamin did so, and took wives for themselves according to their number, of those who danced, whom they carried off. They went and returned to their inheritance, built the cities, and lived in them. 24 The children of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they each went out from there to his own inheritance. 25 In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did that which was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

1 In the days when the judges judged, there was a famine in the land. A certain man of Bethlehem Judah went to live in the country of Moab with his wife and his two sons. 2 The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi. The names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem Judah. They came into the country of Moab and lived there. 3 Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left with her two sons. 4 They took for and they asked. "Is this Naomi?" 20 She said to them. "Don't call me Naomi. Call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. 21 I went out full, and the LORD has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?" 22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law. with her, who returned out of the country of Moab. They came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

? Naomi had a relative of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech, and his name themselves wives of the women of Moab. The name was Boaz, 2 Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Let of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other was me now go to the field, and glean amongst the ears of Ruth. They lived there about ten years. 5 Mahlon and grain after him in whose sight I find favour." She said Chilion both died, and the woman was bereaved of her to her, "Go, my daughter." 3 She went, and came and two children and of her husband. 6 Then she arose gleaned in the field after the reapers; and she happened with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, country of Moab; for she had heard in the country of who was of the family of Elimelech. 4 Behold, Boaz Moab how the LORD had visited his people in giving came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, "May them bread. 7 She went out of the place where she the LORD be with you." They answered him, "May the was, and her two daughters-in-law with her. They went LORD bless you." 5 Then Boaz said to his servant who on the way to return to the land of Judah. 8 Naomi was set over the reapers, "Whose young lady is this?" 6 said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of The servant who was set over the reapers answered, "It you to her mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly is the Moabite lady who came back with Naomi out of with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with the country of Moab. 7 She said, 'Please let me glean me. 9 May the LORD grant you that you may find rest, and gather after the reapers amongst the sheaves.' So each of you in the house of her husband." She told her all her daughter-in-law, "May he be blessed by the LORD, that the man had done for her. 17 She said, "He gave who has not abandoned his kindness to the living and me these six measures of barley; for he said, 'Don't go to the dead." Behold, the near kinsman of whom Boaz spoke came by. Boaz said to him, "Come over here, friend, and sit down!" May the LORD make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, which both built the house of Israel; and treat you worthily in Ephrathah, and be famous in Bethlehem. 12 Let your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, of the offspring which the LORD will give you by this young woman." 13 So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife; and he went in to her, and the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she bore a son. 14 The women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you today without a near kinsman. Let his name be famous in Israel. 15 He shall be to you a restorer of life and sustain you in your old age; for your daughterin-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him." 16 Naomi took the child, laid him in her bosom, and became nurse to him. 17 The women, her neighbours, gave him a name, saying, "A son is born to Naomi". They named him Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David. 18 Now this is the history of the generations of Perez: Perez became the father of Hezron. 19 and Hezron became the father of Ram, and Ram became the father of Amminadab, 20 and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon became the father of Salmon. 21 and Salmon became the father of Boaz, and Boaz became the father of Obed. 22 and Obed became the father of Jesse, and Jesse became the father of David.

1 Samuel

1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim Zophim. of the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. 2 He had two wives. The name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. 3 This man went up out of his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of Armies in Shiloh. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests to the LORD, were there. 4 When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters: 5 but he gave a double portion to Hannah, for he loved Hannah, but the LORD had shut up her womb. 6 Her rival provoked her severely, to irritate her, because the LORD had shut up her womb. 7 So year by year, when she went up to the LORD's house, her rival provoked her. Therefore she wept, and didn't eat. 8 Elkanah her husband said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why don't you eat? Why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?" 9 So Hannah rose up after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on his seat by the doorpost of the LORD's temple. 10 She was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to the LORD, weeping bitterly. 11 She vowed a vow, and said, "LORD of Armies, if you will indeed look at the affliction of your servant and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a boy, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall come on his head." 12 As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli saw her mouth. 13 Now Hannah spoke in her heart. Only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. Therefore Eli thought she was drunk. 14 Eli said to her, "How long will you be drunk? Get rid of your wine!" 15 Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit. I have not been drinking wine or strong drink, but I poured out my soul before the LORD. 16 Don't consider your servant a wicked woman; for I have been speaking out of the abundance of my complaint and my provocation." 17 Then Eli answered, "Go in peace; and may the God of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of him." 18 She said, "Let your servant find favour in your sight." So the woman went her way and ate; and her facial expression wasn't sad any more. 19 They rose up in the morning early and worshipped the LORD, then returned and came to their house to Ramah. Then Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered her. 20 When the time had come, Hannah conceived, and bore a son; and she named

LORD." 21 The man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow. 22 But Hannah didn't go up, for she said to her husband, "Not until the child is weaned; then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and stay there forever." 23 Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems good to you. Wait until you have weaned him; only may the LORD establish his word." So the woman waited and nursed her son until she weaned him. 24 When she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls, and one ephah of meal, and a container of wine, and brought him to the LORD's house in Shiloh. The child was young. 25 They killed the bull, and brought the child to Eli. 26 She said, "Oh, my lord, as your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to the LORD. 27 I prayed for this child, and the LORD has given me my petition which I asked of him. 28 Therefore I have also given him to the LORD. As long as he lives he is given to the LORD." He worshipped the LORD there.

Hannah prayed, and said, "My heart exults in the LORD! My horn is exalted in the LORD. My mouth is enlarged over my enemies, because I rejoice in your salvation. 2 There is no one as holy as the LORD, for there is no one besides you, nor is there any rock like our God. 3 "Don't keep talking so exceedingly proudly. Don't let arrogance come out of your mouth, for the LORD is a God of knowledge. By him actions are weighed. 4 "The bows of the mighty men are broken. Those who stumbled are armed with strength. 5 Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread. Those who were hungry are satisfied. Yes, the barren has borne seven. She who has many children languishes. 6 "The LORD kills and makes alive. He brings down to Sheol and brings up. (Sheol h7585) 7 The LORD makes poor and makes rich. He brings low, he also lifts up. 8 He raises up the poor out of the dust. He lifts up the needy from the dunghill to make them sit with princes and inherit the throne of glory. For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's. He has set the world on them. 9 He will keep the feet of his holy ones, but the wicked will be put to silence in darkness; for no man will prevail by strength. 10 Those who strive with the LORD shall be broken to pieces. He will thunder against them in the sky. "The LORD will judge the ends of the earth. He will give strength to his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed." 11 Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. The child served the LORD before Eli the priest. 12 Now the sons of Eli were wicked men. They didn't know the LORD. 13 The custom of the priests with the people was that when anyone offered a sacrifice, the priest's servant came while the meat was boiling, with a fork of him Samuel, saying, "Because I have asked him of the three teeth in his hand; 14 and he stabbed it into the the fork brought up for himself. They did this to all the There shall not be an old man in your house forever. 33 Israelites who came there to Shiloh. 15 Yes, before they The man of yours whom I don't cut off from my altar burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the will consume your eyes and grieve your heart. All the man who sacrificed, "Give meat to roast for the priest; increase of your house will die in the flower of their age. for he will not accept boiled meat from you, but raw." 16 34 This will be the sign to you that will come on your If the man said to him, "Let the fat be burnt first, and two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they will then take as much as your soul desires;" then he would both die. 35 I will raise up a faithful priest for myself who say, "No, but you shall give it to me now; and if not, I will do according to that which is in my heart and in my will take it by force." 17 The sin of the young men was mind. I will build him a sure house. He will walk before very great before the LORD; for the men despised the my anointed forever. 36 lt will happen that everyone LORD's offering. 18 But Samuel ministered before the who is left in your house will come and bow down to LORD, being a child, clothed with a linen ephod. 19 him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and will Moreover his mother made him a little robe, and brought say, "Please put me into one of the priests' offices, that I it to him from year to year when she came up with her may eat a morsel of bread.""" husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. 20 Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, "May the LORD give you offspring from this woman for the petition which was asked of the LORD." Then they went to their own home. 21 The LORD visited Hannah, and she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. The child Samuel grew before the LORD. 22 Now Eli was very old; and he heard all that his sons did to all Israel, and how that they slept with the women who served at the door of the Tent of Meeting. 23 He said to them, "Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all these people. 24 No. my sons: for it is not a good report that I hear! You make the LORD's people disobey. 25 If one man sins against another. God will judge him: but if a man sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?" Notwithstanding, they didn't listen to the voice of their father, because the LORD intended to kill them. 26 The child Samuel grew on, and increased in favour both with the LORD and also with men. 27 A man of God came to Eli and said to him, "The LORD says, 'Did I reveal myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt in bondage to Pharaoh's house? 28 Didn't I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? Didn't I give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire? 29 Why do you kick at my sacrifice and at my offering, which I have commanded in my habitation, and honour your sons above me, to make vourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel my people?' 30 "Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'I said indeed that your house and the house of your father should walk before me forever.' But now the LORD says, 'Far be it from me; for those who honour me I will honour, and those who despise me will be cursed. 31 Behold, the days come that I will cut off your arm and the arm of your father's house, that there will not be an old man in your house. 32 You will see the affliction of pan, or kettle, or cauldron, or pot. The priest took all that my habitation, in all the wealth which I will give Israel.

3 The child Samuel ministered to the LORD before Eli. The LORD's word was rare in those days. There were not many visions, then. 2 At that time, when Eli was laid down in his place (now his eyes had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see), 3 and God's lamp hadn't yet gone out, and Samuel had laid down in the LORD's temple where God's ark was, 4 The LORD called Samuel. He said, "Here I am." 5 He ran to Eli and said, "Here I am; for you called me." He said, "I didn't call. Lie down again." He went and lay down. 6 The LORD called yet again, "Samuel!" Samuel arose and went to Eli and said. "Here I am: for you called me." He answered, "I didn't call, my son. Lie down again." 7 Now Samuel didn't yet know the LORD, neither was the LORD's word yet revealed to him. 8 The LORD called Samuel again the third time. He arose and went to Eli and said, "Here I am; for you called me." Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child. 9 Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down. It shall be, if he calls you, that you shall say, 'Speak, LORD; for your servant hears." So Samuel went and lay down in his place. 10 The LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" Then Samuel said, "Speak; for your servant hears." 11 The LORD said to Samuel, "Behold, I will do a thing in Israel at which both the ears of everyone who hears it will tingle. 12 In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from the beginning even to the end. 13 For I have told him that I will judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons brought a curse on themselves, and he didn't restrain them. 14 Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be removed with sacrifice or offering forever." 15 Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the LORD's house. Samuel was afraid to show Eli the vision. 16 Then Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son!" He said, "Here I am." 17

LORD's word.

⚠ The word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and encamped beside Ebenezer; and the Philistines encamped in Aphek. 2 The Philistines put themselves in array against Israel. When they joined battle, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men of the army in the field. 3 When the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let's get the ark of the LORD's covenant out of Shiloh and bring it to us, that it may come amongst us and save us out of the hand of our enemies." 4 So the people sent to Shiloh, and they brought from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of Armies, who sits above the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. 5 When the ark of the LORD's covenant came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth resounded. 6 When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, "What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" They understood that the LORD's ark had come into the camp. 7 The Philistines were afraid, for they said, "God has come into the camp." They said, "Woe to us! For there has not been such a thing before. 8 Woe to us! Who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods that struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. 9 Be strong and behave like men, O you Philistines, that you not be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Strengthen yourselves like men, and fight!" 10 The Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and each man fled to his tent. There was a very great slaughter; for thirty thousand footmen of Israel fell. 11 God's ark was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain. 12 A man of Benjamin ran out of the army and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes torn and with dirt on his head. 13 When he came, behold, Eli was sitting on his seat by the road watching, for his heart trembled for God's ark. When the man came into the city and told about it, all the city

He said, "What is the thing that he has spoken to you? cried out. 14 When Eli heard the noise of the crying, he Please don't hide it from me. God do so to you, and said, "What does the noise of this tumult mean?" The more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things man hurried, and came and told Eli. 15 Now Eli was that he spoke to you." 18 Samuel told him every bit, and ninety-eight years old. His eyes were set, so that he hid nothing from him. He said, "It is the LORD. Let him could not see. 16 The man said to Eli, "I am he who do what seems good to him." 19 Samuel grew, and the came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army." LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to He said, "How did the matter go, my son?" 17 He who the ground. 20 All Israel from Dan even to Beersheba brought the news answered, "Israel has fled before the knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of Philistines, and there has been also a great slaughter the LORD. 21 The LORD appeared again in Shiloh; for amongst the people. Your two sons also, Hophni and the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the Phinehas, are dead, and God's ark has been captured." 18 When he made mention of God's ark, Eli fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck broke, and he died, for he was an old man and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years. 19 His daughter-inlaw, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to giving birth. When she heard the news that God's ark was taken and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth; for her pains came on her. 20 About the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, "Don't be afraid, for you have given birth to a son." But she didn't answer, neither did she regard it. 21 She named the child Ichabod, saying, "The glory has departed from Israel!" because God's ark was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. 22 She said, "The glory has departed from Israel; for God's ark has been taken."

> 5 Now the Philistines had taken God's ark, and they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. 2 The Philistines took God's ark, and brought it into the house of Dagon and set it by Dagon. 3 When the people of Ashdod arose early on the next day, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the LORD's ark. They took Dagon and set him in his place again. 4 When they arose early on the following morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the LORD's ark; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off on the threshold. Only Dagon's torso was intact. 5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor any who come into Dagon's house step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day. 6 But the LORD's hand was heavy on the people of Ashdod, and he destroyed them and struck them with tumours, even Ashdod and its borders. 7 When the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel shall not stay with us, for his hand is severe on us and on Dagon our god." 8 They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" They answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried over to Gath." They carried the ark of the God of Israel there. 9 It was so, that after they had carried it there, the LORD's hand was against the city with a very great confusion; and he struck the men of the city, both small and great, so that lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see tumours; and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

6 The LORD's ark was in the country of the Philistines seven months. 2 The Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, "What shall we do with the LORD's ark? Show us how we should send it to its place." 3 They said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, don't send it empty; but by all means return a trespass offering to him. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why his hand is not removed from you." 4 Then they said, "What should the trespass offering be which we shall return to him?" They said, "Five golden tumours and five golden mice, for the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords. 5 Therefore you shall make images of your tumours and images of your mice that mar the land; and you shall give glory to the God of Israel. Perhaps he will release his hand from you, from your gods, and from your land. 6 Why then do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When he had worked wonderfully amongst them, didn't they let the people go, and they departed? 7 "Now therefore take and prepare vourselves a new cart and two milk cows on which there has come no yoke; and tie the cows to the cart, and bring their calves home from them; 8 and take the LORD's ark and lay it on the cart. Put the jewels of gold, which you return him for a trespass offering, in a box by its side; and send it away, that it may go. 9 Behold, if it goes up by the way of its own border to Beth Shemesh, then he has done us this great evil; but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us. It was a chance that happened to us." 10 The men did so, and took two milk cows and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. 11 They put the LORD's ark on the cart, and the box with the golden mice and the images of their tumours. 12 The cows took the straight way by the way to Beth Shemesh. They went along the highway, lowing as they went, and didn't turn away to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth Shemesh. 13 The people of Beth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and they tumours broke out on them. 10 So they sent God's ark it. 14 The cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth to Ekron. As God's ark came to Ekron, the Ekronites Shemesh, and stood there, where there was a great cried out, saying, "They have brought the ark of the God stone. Then they split the wood of the cart and offered of Israel here to us, to kill us and our people." 11 They up the cows for a burnt offering to the LORD. 15 The sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Levites took down the LORD's ark and the box that was Philistines, and they said, "Send the ark of the God of with it, in which the jewels of gold were, and put them on Israel away, and let it go again to its own place, that it the great stone; and the men of Beth Shemesh offered not kill us and our people." For there was a deadly panic burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day to throughout all the city. The hand of God was very heavy the LORD. 16 When the five lords of the Philistines had there. 12 The men who didn't die were struck with the seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day. 17 These are the golden tumours which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering to the LORD: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one: 18 and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fortified cities and of country villages, even to the great stone on which they set down the LORD's ark. That stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh. 19 He struck of the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the LORD's ark, he struck fifty thousand and seventy of the men. Then the people mourned, because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter. 20 The men of Beth Shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? To whom shall he go up from us?" 21 They sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath Jearim, saying, "The Philistines have brought back the LORD's ark. Come down and bring it up to yourselves."

> 7 The men of Kiriath Jearim came and took the LORD's ark, and brought it into Abinadab's house on the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the LORD's ark. 2 From the day that the ark stayed in Kiriath Jearim, the time was long-for it was twenty years; and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD. 3 Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saving, "If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from amongst you, and direct your hearts to the LORD, and serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines." 4 Then the children of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only. 5 Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you." 6 They gathered together to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, "We have sinned against the LORD." Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpah. 7 When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. When the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. 8 The children of Israel said to Samuel, "Don't stop crying

R When Samuel was old, he made his sons judges over Israel. 2 Now the name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah. They were judges in Beersheba. 3 His sons didn't walk in his ways, but turned away after dishonest gain, took bribes, and perverted justice. 4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together and came to Samuel to Ramah. 5 They said to him, "Behold, you are old, and your sons don't walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations." 6 But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." Samuel prayed to the LORD. 7 The LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they tell you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me as the king over them. 8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day, in that they have forsaken me and served other to their voice. However, you shall protest solemnly to them, and shall show them the way of the king who will reign over them." 10 Samuel told all the LORD's said, "This will be the way of the king who shall reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them as his servants, for his chariots and to be his horsemen; to the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of them to him for captains of thousands and captains of the hand of the Philistines." 9 Samuel took a suckling fifties; and he will assign some to plough his ground lamb, and offered it for a whole burnt offering to the and to reap his harvest; and to make his instruments of LORD. Samuel cried to the LORD for Israel, and the war and the instruments of his chariots. 13 He will take LORD answered him. 10 As Samuel was offering up the your daughters to be perfumers, to be cooks, and to burnt offering, the Philistines came near to battle against be bakers. 14 He will take your fields, your vineyards, Israel; but the LORD thundered with a great thunder and your olive groves, even your best, and give them to on that day on the Philistines and confused them; and his servants. 15 He will take one tenth of your seed they were struck down before Israel. 11 The men of and of your vineyards, and give it to his officers and Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, to his servants. 16 He will take your male servants, and struck them until they came under Beth Kar. 12 your female servants, your best young men, and your Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah donkeys, and assign them to his own work. 17 He and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer, saying, "The will take one tenth of your flocks; and you will be his LORD helped us until now." 13 So the Philistines were servants. 18 You will cry out in that day because of your subdued, and they stopped coming within the border of king whom you will have chosen for yourselves; and Israel. The LORD's hand was against the Philistines all the LORD will not answer you in that day." 19 But the the days of Samuel. 14 The cities which the Philistines people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; and they had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron said, "No, but we will have a king over us, 20 that we even to Gath; and Israel recovered its border out of the also may be like all the nations; and that our king may hand of the Philistines. There was peace between Israel judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles." and the Amorites. 15 Samuel judged Israel all the days 21 Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he of his life. 16 He went from year to year in a circuit to rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD. 22 The LORD Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all said to Samuel, "Listen to their voice, and make them a those places. 17 His return was to Ramah, for his house king." Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Everyone go to 9 Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of valour. 2 He had a son whose name was Saul, an impressive young man; and there was not amongst the children of Israel a more handsome person than he. From his shoulders and upward he was taller than any of the people. 3 The donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. Kish said to Saul his son, "Now take one of the servants with you, and arise, go look for the donkeys." 4 He passed through the hill country of Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalishah. but they didn't find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and they weren't there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they didn't find them. 5 When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come! Let's return, lest my father stop caring about the donkeys and be anxious for us." 6 The servant said to gods, so they also do to you. 9 Now therefore, listen him, "Behold now, there is a man of God in this city, and he is a man who is held in honour. All that he says surely happens. Now let's go there. Perhaps he can tell us which way to go." 7 Then Saul said to his servant, words to the people who asked him for a king. 11 He "But behold, if we go, what should we bring the man? For the bread is spent in our sacks, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?" 8 The servant answered Saul again and said, "Behold, I and they will run before his chariots. 12 He will appoint have in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver. I

Let's go to the seer;" for he who is went outside, he and Samuel, together. 27 As they were now called a prophet was before called a seer.) 10 Then going down at the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Saul said to his servant, "Well said. Come! Let's go." So "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us." He went ahead, they went to the city where the man of God was. 11 As then Samuel said, "But stand still first, that I may cause they went up the ascent to the city, they found young you to hear God's message." maidens going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?" 12 They answered them and said, "He is. Behold, he is before you. Hurry now, for he has come today into the city; for the people have a sacrifice today in the high place. 13 As soon as you have come into the city, you will immediately find him before he goes up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat until he comes, because he blesses the sacrifice. Afterwards those who are invited eat. Now therefore go up: for at this time you will find him." 14 They went up to the city. As they came within the city, behold, Samuel came out towards them to go up to the high place. 15 Now the LORD had revealed to Samuel a day before Saul came, saying, 16 "Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man out of the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over my people Israel. He will save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon my people, because their cry has come to me." 17 When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, "Behold, the man of whom I spoke to you! He will have authority over my people." 18 Then Saul approached Samuel in the gateway, and said, "Please tell me where the seer's house is." 19 Samuel answered Saul and said, "I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you are to eat with me today. In the morning I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart. 20 As for your donkeys who were lost three days ago, don't set your mind on them, for they have been found. For whom does all Israel desire? Is it not you and all your father's house?" 21 Saul answered, "Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak to me like this?" 22 Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the guest room, and made them sit in the best place amongst those who were invited, who were about thirty persons. 23 Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, 'Set it aside." 24 The cook took up the thigh, and that which was on it, and set it before Saul. Samuel said, "Behold, that which has been reserved! Set it before yourself and eat; because it has been kept for you for the appointed time, for I said, 'I have invited the people." So Saul ate with Samuel that day. 25 When they had come down from the high place into the city, he talked with Saul on the housetop. 26 They arose early; and about daybreak, will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way." 9 (In Samuel called to Saul on the housetop, saying, "Get up,

They will tell you, 'The donkeys which you went to look for have been found; and behold. your father has stopped caring about the donkeys and is anxious for you, saying, "What shall I do for my son?" 3 "Then you will go on forward from there, and you will come to the oak of Tabor. Three men will meet you there going up to God to Bethel; one carrying three young goats, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a container of wine. 4 They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive from their hand. 5 "After that you will come to the hill of God, where the garrison of the Philistines is; and it will happen, when you have come there to the city, that you will meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place with a lute, a tambourine, a pipe, and a harp before them; and they will be prophesying. 6 Then the LORD's Spirit will come mightily on you, then you will prophesy with them and will be turned into another man. 7 Let it be, when these signs have come to you, that you do what is appropriate for the occasion; for God is with you. 8 "Go down ahead of me to Gilgal; and behold. I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings. Wait seven days, until I come to you and show you what you are to do." 9 It was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart; and all those signs happened that day. 10 When they came there to the hill, behold, a band of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came mightily on him, and he prophesied amongst them. 11 When all who knew him before saw that, behold, he prophesied with the prophets, then the people said to one another, "What is this that has come to the son of Kish? Is Saul also amongst the prophets?" 12 One from the same place answered, "Who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb. "Is Saul also amongst the prophets?" 13 When he had finished prophesying, he came to the high place. 14 Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, "Where did you go?" He said, "To seek the donkeys. When we saw that they were not found, we came to Samuel." 15 Saul's uncle said, "Please tell me what Samuel said to

Saul said, "Because I saw that the people to the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that were scattered from me, and that you didn't come within day. Then all the people greatly feared the LORD and the days appointed, and that the Philistines assembled Samuel. 19 All the people said to Samuel, "Pray for themselves together at Michmash, 12 therefore I said, your servants to the LORD your God, that we not die; 'Now the Philistines will come down on me to Gilgal, for we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask for a and I haven't entreated the favour of the LORD.' 13 Saul was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned over Israel forty-two years. 2 Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel, of which two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the present with them, stayed in Geba of Benjamin; but the Philistines encamped in Michmash. 17 The raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned to the way that leads to Ophrah, to the land of Shual; 18 another company turned the way to Beth Horon; and another company turned the way of the border that looks down on the valley of Zeboim towards 14 That first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armour Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

1 Now it happened on a day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armour, "Come! Let's go over to the Philistines' garrison that is on the other side." But he didn't tell his father. 2 Saul stayed in the uttermost part of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree which is in Migron; and the people who were with him were about six hundred men, 3 including Ahijah the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli the priest of the LORD in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. The people didn't know that Jonathan was gone. 4 Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side and a rocky crag on the other side; and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. 5 The one crag rose up on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba. 6 Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armour, "Come! Let's go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. It may be that the LORD will work for us, for there is no restraint on the LORD to save by many or by few." 7 His armour bearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart. Go, and behold, I am with you according to your heart." 8 Then Jonathan said, "Behold, we will pass over to the men, and we will reveal ourselves to them. 9 If they say this to us, 'Wait until we come to you!' then we will stand still in our place and will not go up to them. 10 But if they say this, 'Come up to us!' then we will go up, for the LORD has delivered them into our hand. This shall be the sign to us." 11 Both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, "Behold, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they had hidden themselves!" 12 The men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armour bearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will show you something!" Jonathan said to his armour bearer, "Come up after me, for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel." 13 Jonathan climbed up on his hands and on his feet, and his armour bearer after him, and they fell before Jonathan; and his armour bearer killed them after him.

the wilderness. 19 Now there was no blacksmith found bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, half a furrow's length in an acre of land. 15 There was "Lest the Hebrews make themselves swords or spears"; a trembling in the camp, in the field, and amongst all 20 but all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, the people; the garrison and the raiders also trembled; each man to sharpen his own ploughshare, mattock, and the earth quaked, so there was an exceedingly axe, and sickle. 21 The price was one payim each to great trembling. 16 The watchmen of Saul in Gibeah sharpen mattocks, ploughshares, pitchforks, axes, and of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude melted goads. 22 So it came to pass in the day of battle that away and scattered. 17 Then Saul said to the people neither sword nor spear was found in the hand of any of who were with him, "Count now, and see who is missing the people who were with Saul and Jonathan; but Saul from us." When they had counted, behold, Jonathan and Jonathan his son had them. 23 The garrison of the and his armour bearer were not there. 18 Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring God's ark here." For God's ark was with the children of Israel at that time. 19 While Saul talked to the priest, the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased; and Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand!" 20 Saul and all the people who were with him were gathered together, and came to the battle; and behold, they were all striking each other with their swords in very great confusion. 21 Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines before and who went up with them into the camp from all around, even they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. 22 Likewise all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. 23 So the LORD saved Israel that day; and the battle passed over by Beth Aven. 24 The men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul had adjured the people, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats any food until it is evening, and I am avenged of my enemies." So none of the people tasted food. 25 All the people came into the forest; and there was honey on the ground. 26 When the people had come to the forest, behold, honey was dripping, but no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath. 27 But Jonathan didn't hear when his father commanded the people with the oath. Therefore he put out the end of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes brightened. 28 Then one of the people answered, and said, "Your father directly commanded the people with an oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man who eats food today." So the people were faint. 29 Then Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land. Please look how my eyes have brightened because I tasted a little of this honey. 30 How much more, if perhaps the people had eaten freely today of the plunder of their enemies which they found? For now there has been no great slaughter amongst the Philistines." 31 They struck the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. The people were very faint; 32 and the people pounced on the plunder, and took sheep, the people ate them with the blood. 33 Then they told wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. The name Saul, saying, "Behold, the people are sinning against of the captain of his army was Abner the son of Ner, the LORD, in that they eat meat with the blood." He Saul's uncle. 51 Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner said, "You have dealt treacherously. Roll a large stone to the father of Abner was the son of Abiel. 52 There was me today!" 34 Saul said, "Disperse yourselves amongst severe war against the Philistines all the days of Saul; the people, and tell them, 'Every man bring me here his and when Saul saw any mighty man or any valiant man. ox, and every man his sheep, and kill them here, and he took him into his service. eat; and don't sin against the LORD in eating meat with the blood." All the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and killed them there. 35 Saul built an altar to the LORD. This was the first altar that he built to the LORD. 36 Saul said, "Let's go down after the Philistines by night, and take plunder amongst them until the morning light. Let's not leave a man of them." They said, "Do whatever seems good to you," Then the priest said, "Let's draw near here to God." 37 Saul asked counsel of God: "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But he didn't answer him that day. 38 Saul said, "Draw near here, all you chiefs of the people, and know and see in whom this sin has been today. 39 For as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, though it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." But there was not a man amongst all the people who answered him. 40 Then he said to all Israel, "You be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side." The people said to Saul, "Do what seems good to you." 41 Therefore Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, "Show the right." Jonathan and Saul were chosen, but the people escaped. 42 Saul said, "Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son." Jonathan was selected. 43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done!" Jonathan told him, and said, "I certainly did taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand; and behold, I must die." 44 Saul said, "God do so and more also; for you shall surely die, Jonathan." 45 The people said to Saul, "Shall Jonathan die, who has worked this great salvation in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground, for he has worked with God today!" So the people rescued Jonathan, so he didn't die. 46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place. 47 Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel. he fought against all his enemies on every side: against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines. Wherever he turned himself, he defeated them. 48 He did valiantly and struck the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of those who plundered them. 49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the cattle, and calves, and killed them on the ground; and name of the younger Michal, 50 The name of Saul's

15 Samuel said to Saul, "The LORD sent me to anoint you to be king over his people, over Israel. Now therefore listen to the voice of the LORD's words. 2 The LORD of Armies says, 'I remember what Amalek did to Israel, how he set himself against him on the way when he came up out of Egypt. 3 Now go and strike Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and don't spare them; but kill both man and woman, infant and nursing baby, ox and sheep, camel and donkey." 4 Saul summoned the people, and counted them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen and ten thousand men of Judah. 5 Saul came to the city of Amalek, and set an ambush in the valley. 6 Saul said to the Kenites, "Go, depart, go down from amongst the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt." So the Kenites departed from amongst the Amalekites. 7 Saul struck the Amalekites, from Havilah as you go to Shur, which is before Egypt. 8 He took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. 9 But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep, of the cattle, of the fat calves, of the lambs, and all that was good, and were not willing to utterly destroy them; but everything that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly. 10 Then the LORD's word came to Samuel, saving. 11 "It grieves me that I have set up Saul to be king, for he has turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments." Samuel was angry; and he cried to the LORD all night. 12 Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; and Samuel was told, saying, "Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a monument for himself, turned, passed on, and went down to Gilgal." 13 Samuel came to Saul; and Saul said to him, "You are blessed by the LORD! I have performed the commandment of the LORD." 14 Samuel said, "Then what does this bleating of the sheep in my ears and the lowing of the cattle which I hear mean?" 15 Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the cattle, to sacrifice to the LORD your God. We have utterly destroyed the rest." 16 Then Samuel said to Saul, "Stay, and I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night." He said to him, "Say on." 17 Samuel said, "Though you were little in your own sight, weren't provided a king for myself amongst his sons." 2 Samuel LORD grieved that he had made Saul king over Israel.

16 The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go. I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have you made the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD said, "How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me." anointed you king over Israel; 18 and the LORD sent The LORD said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, 'I you on a journey, and said, 'Go, and utterly destroy have come to sacrifice to the LORD.' 3 Call Jesse to the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do. they are consumed.' 19 Why then didn't you obey the You shall anoint to me him whom I name to you." 4 LORD's voice, but took the plunder, and did that which Samuel did that which the LORD spoke, and came to was evil in the LORD's sight?" 20 Saul said to Samuel, Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him "But I have obeyed the LORD's voice, and have gone trembling, and said, "Do you come peaceably?" 5 He the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." the Amalekites. 21 But the people took of the plunder, He sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to sheep and cattle, the best of the devoted things, to the sacrifice. 6 When they had come, he looked at sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal." 22 Samuel Eliab, and said, "Surely the LORD's anointed is before said, "Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings him." 7 But the LORD said to Samuel, "Don't look on his and sacrifices, as in obeying the LORD's voice? Behold, face, or on the height of his stature, because I have to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat rejected him; for I don't see as man sees. For man of rams. 23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks stubbornness is as idolatry and teraphim. Because you at the heart." 8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made have rejected the LORD's word, he has also rejected him pass before Samuel. He said, "The LORD has not you from being king." 24 Saul said to Samuel, "I have chosen this one, either." 9 Then Jesse made Shammah sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of the to pass by. He said, "The LORD has not chosen this LORD and your words, because I feared the people and one, either." 10 Jesse made seven of his sons to pass obeyed their voice. 25 Now therefore, please pardon before Samuel. Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the not chosen these." 11 Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all LORD." 26 Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with your children here?" He said, "There remains yet the you; for you have rejected the LORD's word, and the youngest. Behold, he is keeping the sheep." Samuel LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel." 27 said to Jesse, "Send and get him, for we will not sit As Samuel turned around to go away, Saul grabbed the down until he comes here." 12 He sent, and brought skirt of his robe, and it tore. 28 Samuel said to him, him in. Now he was ruddy, with a handsome face and "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you good appearance. The LORD said, "Arise! Anoint him, today, and has given it to a neighbour of yours who is for this is he." 13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil and better than you. 29 Also the Strength of Israel will not lie anointed him in the middle of his brothers. Then the nor repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent." LORD's Spirit came mightily on David from that day 30 Then he said, "I have sinned; yet please honour me forward. So Samuel rose up and went to Ramah. 14 now before the elders of my people and before Israel, Now the LORD's Spirit departed from Saul, and an evil and come back with me, that I may worship the LORD spirit from the LORD troubled him. 15 Saul's servants your God." 31 So Samuel went back with Saul; and Saul said to him, "See now, an evil spirit from God troubles worshipped the LORD. 32 Then Samuel said, "Bring you. 16 Let our lord now command your servants who Agag the king of the Amalekites here to me!" Agag are in front of you to seek out a man who is a skilful came to him cheerfully. Agag said, "Surely the bitterness player on the harp. Then when the evil spirit from God is of death is past." 33 Samuel said, "As your sword has on you, he will play with his hand, and you will be well." made women childless, so your mother will be childless 17 Saul said to his servants, "Provide me now a man amongst women!" Then Samuel cut Agag in pieces who can play well, and bring him to me." 18 Then one before the LORD in Gilgal. 34 Then Samuel went to of the young men answered and said, "Behold, I have Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is skilful in Saul. 35 Samuel came no more to see Saul until the playing, a mighty man of valour, a man of war, prudent day of his death, but Samuel mourned for Saul. The in speech, and a handsome person; and the LORD is with him." 19 Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me David your son, who is with the sheep." 20 Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a container of wine, and a young goat, and sent them by David his son to Saul. 21 David came to Saul and stood before him. He loved him greatly: and he became his the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines, 20 David my sight." 23 When the spirit from God was on Saul. David took the harp and played with his hand; so Saul as the army which was going out to the fight shouted for from him.

17 Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle; and they were gathered together at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Azekah in Ephesdammim. 2 Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and encamped in the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines. 3 The Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. 4 A champion out of the camp of the Philistines named Goliath of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span went out. 5 He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he wore a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze. 6 He had bronze shin armour on his legs and a bronze javelin between his shoulders. 7 The staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron. His shield bearer went before him. 8 He stood and cried to the armies of Israel, and said to them. "Why have you come out to set your battle in array? Am I not a Philistine, and you servants to Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. 9 If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then will we be your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you will be our servants and serve us." 10 The Philistine said, "I defy the armies of Israel today! Give me a man, that we may fight together!" 11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid. 12 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem Judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons. The man was an elderly old man in the days of Saul. 13 The three oldest sons of Jesse had gone after Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. 14 David was the youngest; and the three oldest followed Saul. 15 Now David went back and forth from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem. 16 The Philistine came near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days. 17 Jesse said to David his son. "Now take for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to your brothers; 18 and bring these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand; and see how your brothers are doing, and bring back news." 19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel were in

armour bearer. 22 Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Please rose up early in the morning and left the sheep with a let David stand before me, for he has found favour in keeper, and took the provisions and went, as Jesse had commanded him. He came to the place of the wagons was refreshed and was well, and the evil spirit departed, the battle, 21 Israel and the Philistines put the battle in array, army against army. 22 David left his baggage in the hand of the keeper of the baggage and ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers. 23 As he talked with them, behold, the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines, and said the same words; and David heard them. 24 All the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him and were terrified. 25 The men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? He has surely come up to defy Israel. The king will give great riches to the man who kills him, and will give him his daughter, and will make his father's house tax-free in Israel." 26 David spoke to the men who stood by him, saving, "What shall be done to the man who kills this Philistine and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?" 27 The people answered him in this way, saving, "So shall it be done to the man who kills him." 28 Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's anger burnt against David, and he said, "Why have you come down? With whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the evil of your heart; for you have come down that you might see the battle." 29 David said, "What have I now done? Is there not a cause?" 30 He turned away from him towards another, and spoke like that again; and the people answered him again the same way. 31 When the words were heard which David spoke, they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him. 32 David said to Saul, "Let no man's heart fail because of him. Your servant will go and fight with this Philistine." 33 Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth." 34 David said to Saul, "Your servant was keeping his father's sheep; and when a lion or a bear came and took a lamb out of the flock, 35 I went out after him, struck him, and rescued it out of his mouth. When he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, struck him, and killed him. 36 Your servant struck both the lion and the bear. This uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God." 37 David said, "The LORD, who delivered me out of the paw of the lion and out of the paw of the bear. will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine." Saul said to David. "Go! The LORD will be with you." 38 Saul dressed David with his clothing. He put a helmet mail. 39 David strapped his sword on his clothing and of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before he tried to move, for he had not tested it. David said to Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand. 58 Saul Saul, "I can't go with these, for I have not tested them." said to him, "Whose son are you, you young man?" Then David took them off. 40 He took his staff in his David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse hand, and chose for himself five smooth stones out of the Bethlehemite." the brook, and put them in the pouch of his shepherd's bag which he had. His sling was in his hand; and he came near to the Philistine. 41 The Philistine walked and came near to David; and the man who bore the shield went before him. 42 When the Philistine looked around and saw David, he disdained him; for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and had a good looking face. 43 The Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" The Philistine cursed David by his gods. 44 The Philistine said to David. "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky and to the animals of the field." 45 Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword, with a spear, and with a javelin; but I come to you in the name of the LORD of Armies, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. 46 Today, the LORD will deliver you into my hand. I will strike you and take your head from off you. I will give the dead bodies of the army of the Philistines today to the birds of the sky and to the wild animals of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. 47 and that all this assembly may know that the LORD doesn't save with sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hand." 48 When the Philistine arose, and walked and came near to meet David, David hurried and ran towards the army to meet the Philistine. 49 David put his hand in his bag, took a stone and slung it, and struck the Philistine in his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth. 50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him; but there was no sword in David's hand. 51 Then David ran, stood over the Philistine, took his sword, drew it out of its sheath, killed him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. 52 The men of Israel and of Judah arose and shouted, and pursued the Philistines as far as Gai and to the gates of Ekron. The wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath and to Ekron. 53 The children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they plundered their camp. 54 David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armour in his tent. 55 When Saul saw David go out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the army, "Abner, whose son is this youth?" Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I can't tell." 56 The king said, "Enquire whose son the

of bronze on his head, and he clad him with a coat of young man is!" 57 As David returned from the slaughter

8 When he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. 2 Saul took him that day, and wouldn't let him go home to his father's house any more. 3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. 4 Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David with his clothing, even including his sword, his bow, and his sash. 5 David went out wherever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely; and Saul set him over the men of war. It was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants. 6 As they came, when David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul with tambourines, with joy, and with instruments of music. 7 The women sang to one another as they played, and said, "Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands." 8 Saul was very angry, and this saving displeased him. He said, "They have credited David with ten thousands, and they have only credited me with thousands. What can he have more but the kingdom?" 9 Saul watched David from that day and forward. 10 On the next day, an evil spirit from God came mightily on Saul, and he prophesied in the middle of the house. David played with his hand, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand; 11 and Saul threw the spear, for he said, "I will pin David to the wall!" David escaped from his presence twice. 12 Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and had departed from Saul. 13 Therefore Saul removed him from his presence, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people. 14 David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the LORD was with him. 15 When Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he stood in awe of him. 16 But all Israel and Judah loved David: for he went out and came in before them. 17 Saul said to David, "Behold, my elder daughter Merab, I will give her to you as wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles." For Saul said, "Don't let my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him." 18 David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be sonin-law to the king?" 19 But at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as wife. 20 Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David; and they told Saul, and slaughter; and they fled before him. 9 An evil spirit from the thing pleased him. 21 Saul said, I will give her to the LORD was on Saul as he sat in his house with his him, that she may be a snare to him and that the hand spear in his hand; and David was playing music with his of Saul, so that his name was highly esteemed.

19 Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, greatly delighted in David. 2 Jonathan told David, saying, "Saul my father seeks to kill you. Now therefore, please take care of yourself in the morning, live in a secret place, and hide yourself. 3 I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will talk with my father about you; and if I see anything, I will tell you." 4 Jonathan spoke good of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Don't let the king sin against his servant, against David; because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been very good towards you; 5 for he put his life in his hand and struck the Philistine, and the LORD worked of the Philistines may be against him. Therefore Saul hand. 10 Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the said to David a second time, "You shall today be my spear, but he slipped away out of Saul's presence; and son-in-law." 22 Saul commanded his servants, "Talk with he stuck the spear into the wall. David fled and escaped David secretly, and say, 'Behold, the king has delight in that night. 11 Saul sent messengers to David's house you, and all his servants love you. Now therefore be to watch him and to kill him in the morning. Michal, the king's son-in-law." 23 Saul's servants spoke those David's wife, told him, saying, "If you don't save your life words in the ears of David. David said, "Does it seem to tonight, tomorrow you will be killed." 12 So Michal let you a light thing to be the king's son-in-law, since I am a David down through the window. He went away, fled, poor man and little known?" 24 The servants of Saul told and escaped. 13 Michal took the teraphim and laid it in him, saying, "David spoke like this." 25 Saul said, "Tell the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head and David, 'The king desires no dowry except one hundred covered it with clothes. 14 When Saul sent messengers foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's to take David, she said, "He is sick." 15 Saul sent the enemies." Now Saul thought he would make David fall messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me by the hand of the Philistines. 26 When his servants told in the bed, that I may kill him." 16 When the messengers David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's came in, behold, the teraphim was in the bed, with the son-in-law. Before the deadline, 27 David arose and pillow of goats' hair at its head. 17 Saul said to Michal, went, he and his men, and killed two hundred men of "Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy the Philistines. Then David brought their foreskins, and go, so that he has escaped?" Michal answered Saul, they gave them in full number to the king, that he might "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I kill you?" be the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave him Michal his 18 Now David fled and escaped, and came to Samuel daughter as wife. 28 Saul saw and knew that the LORD at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. was with David; and Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him. He and Samuel went and lived in Naioth. 19 Saul was 29 Saul was even more afraid of David; and Saul was told, saying, "Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah." 20 David's enemy continually. 30 Then the princes of the Saul sent messengers to seize David; and when they Philistines went out; and as often as they went out, saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants Samuel standing as head over them, God's Spirit came on Saul's messengers, and they also prophesied. 21 When Saul was told, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied. 22 Then he also went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is in Secu: and he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" One said, "Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah." 23 He went there to Naioth in Ramah. Then God's Spirit came on him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. 24 He also stripped off his clothes. He also prophesied before Samuel and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, "Is Saul also amongst the prophets?"

20 David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said to Jonathan, "What have I done? What is a great victory for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. my iniquity? What is my sin before your father, that he Why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill seeks my life?" 2 He said to him, "Far from it; you will David without a cause?" 6 Saul listened to the voice not die. Behold, my father does nothing either great or of Jonathan; and Saul swore, "As the LORD lives, he small, but that he discloses it to me. Why would my shall not be put to death." 7 Jonathan called David, and father hide this thing from me? It is not so." 3 David Jonathan showed him all those things. Then Jonathan swore moreover, and said, "Your father knows well that I brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as have found favour in your eyes; and he says. 'Don't let before. 8 There was war again. David went out and Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved;' but truly as the fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great LORD lives, and as your soul lives, there is but a step

He is not clean. Surely he is 'David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to not clean." 27 On the next day after the new moon, Bethlehem, his city; for it is the yearly sacrifice there the second day, David's place was empty. Saul said to for all the family.' 7 If he says, 'It is well,' your servant Jonathan his son, "Why didn't the son of Jesse come to shall have peace; but if he is angry, then know that eat, either yesterday, or today?" 28 Jonathan answered evil is determined by him. 8 Therefore deal kindly with Saul, "David earnestly asked permission of me to go to your servant, for you have brought your servant into a Bethlehem. 29 He said, 'Please let me go, for our family covenant of the LORD with you; but if there is iniquity in has a sacrifice in the city. My brother has commanded me, kill me yourself, for why should you bring me to me to be there. Now, if I have found favour in your eyes, your father?" 9 Jonathan said, "Far be it from you; for if please let me go away and see my brothers.' Therefore I should at all know that evil were determined by my he has not come to the king's table." 30 Then Saul's father to come on you, then wouldn't I tell you that?" 10 anger burnt against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You Then David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me if your son of a perverse rebellious woman, don't I know that father answers you roughly?" 11 Jonathan said to David, you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame. "Come! Let's go out into the field." They both went out and to the shame of your mother's nakedness? 31 For into the field. 12 Jonathan said to David, "By the LORD, as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you will the God of Israel, when I have sounded out my father not be established, nor will your kingdom. Therefore about this time tomorrow, or the third day, behold, if now send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die!" there is good towards David, won't I then send to you 32 Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, and disclose it to you? 13 The LORD do so to Jonathan "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?" and more also, should it please my father to do you evil, 33 Saul cast his spear at him to strike him. By this if I don't disclose it to you and send you away, that you Jonathan knew that his father was determined to put may go in peace. As the boy ran, he shot David's house, saying, "The LORD will require it at the an arrow beyond him. 37 When the boy had come to the hand of David's enemies." 17 Jonathan caused David place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan to swear again, for the love that he had to him; for he cried after the boy, and said, "Isn't the arrow beyond loved him as he loved his own soul. 18 Then Jonathan you?" 38 Jonathan cried after the boy, "Go fast! Hurry! said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be Don't delay!" Jonathan's boy gathered up the arrows, missed, because your seat will be empty. 19 When you and came to his master. 39 But the boy didn't know have stayed three days, go down quickly and come to anything. When his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him. 2 Everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered themselves to him; and he became captain over them. There were with him about four hundred men. 3 David

David said, "There is none like that. Give it to "Here I am, my lord." 13 Saul said to him, "Why have me." 10 David arose and fled that day for fear of Saul, you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in and went to Achish the king of Gath. 11 The servants of that you have given him bread, and a sword, and have Achish said to him, "Isn't this David the king of the land? enquired of God for him, that he should rise against Didn't they sing to one another about him in dances, me, to lie in wait, as it is today?" 14 Then Ahimelech saying, 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten answered the king, and said, "Who amongst all your thousands'?" 12 David laid up these words in his heart, servants is so faithful as David, who is the king's sonand was very afraid of Achish the king of Gath. 13 He in-law, captain of your body guard, and honoured in changed his behaviour before them and pretended to your house? 15 Have I today begun to enguire of God be insane in their hands, and scribbled on the doors of for him? Should this fellow guard who stood about him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he fled and didn't disclose it to me." But the servants of the king wouldn't put out their hand to fall on the priests of the LORD. 18 The king said to Doeg, "Turn and attack the priests!" Doeg the Edomite turned, and he attacked the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five people who wore a linen ephod. 19 He struck Nob, the city of the priests, with the edge of the sword—both men and women, children and in God. 17 He said to him, "Don't be afraid, for the nursing babies, and cattle, donkeys, and sheep, with hand of Saul my father won't find you; and you will be the edge of the sword. 20 One of the sons of Ahimelech king over Israel, and I will be next to you; and Saul my the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled father knows that also." 18 They both made a covenant after David. 21 Abiathar told David that Saul had slain before the LORD. Then David stayed in the woods the LORD's priests. 22 David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I am responsible for the death of himself with us in the strongholds in the woods, in the all the persons of your father's house. 23 Stay with me. hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of the desert? 20 Don't be afraid, for he who seeks my life seeks your life. Now therefore, O king, come down. According to all the you will be safe with me."

23 David was told, "Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and are robbing the threshing floors." 2 Therefore David enquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go and strike these Philistines?" The LORD said to David, "Go strike the Philistines, and save Keilah." 3 David's men said to him, "Behold, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?" 4 Then David enquired of the LORD yet again. The LORD answered him, and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into your hand." 5 David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their livestock, and killed them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah. 6 When Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand. 7 Saul was told that David had come to Keilah. Saul said, "God has delivered him into my hand, for he is shut in by entering into a town that has gates and bars." 8 Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men. 9 David knew that Saul was devising mischief against him. He said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here." 10 Then David said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, your servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah to destroy the city for my sake. 11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? LORD, the God of Israel, I beg you, tell your desire of your soul to come down; and our part will be to deliver him up into the king's hand." 21 Saul said, "You are blessed by the LORD, for you have had compassion on me. 22 Please go make yet more sure, and know and see his place where his haunt is, and who has seen him there: for I have been told that he is very cunning. 23 See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides himself; and come again to me with certainty, and I will go with you. It shall happen, if he is in the land, that I will search him out amongst all the thousands of Judah." 24 They arose, and went to Ziph before Saul; but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah on the south of the desert. 25 Saul and his men went to seek him. When David was told, he went down to the rock, and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard that, he pursued David in the wilderness of Maon. 26 Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain; and David hurried to get away for fear of Saul, for Saul and his men surrounded David and his men to take them. 27 But a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hurry and come, for the Philistines have made a raid on the land!" 28 So Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place Sela Hammahlekoth. 29 David went up from there and lived in the strongholds of En Gedi.

24 When Saul had returned from following the Philistines, he was told, "Behold, David is in the servant." The LORD said, "He will come down." 12 Then wilderness of En Gedi." 2 Then Saul took three thousand David said, "Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David men into the hand of Saul?" The LORD said, "They will and his men on the rocks of the wild goats. 3 He came deliver you up." 13 Then David and his men, who were to the sheep pens by the way, where there was a cave; about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah and and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his went wherever they could go. Saul was told that David men were staying in the innermost parts of the cave. 4 had escaped from Keilah; and he gave up going there. David's men said to him, "Behold, the day of which the 14 David stayed in the wilderness in the strongholds, LORD said to you, 'Behold, I will deliver your enemy and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of into your hand, and you shall do to him as it shall seem Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but God didn't deliver good to you." Then David arose and cut off the skirt of him into his hand. 15 David saw that Saul had come out Saul's robe secretly. 5 Afterward, David's heart struck to seek his life. David was in the wilderness of Ziph in him because he had cut off Saul's skirt. 6 He said to his the woods. 16 Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went men, "The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to to David into the woods, and strengthened his hand my lord, the LORD's anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, since he is the LORD's anointed." 7 So the name of his wife Abigail. This woman was intelligent David checked his men with these words, and didn't and had a beautiful face; but the man was surly and allow them to rise against Saul. Saul rose up out of evil in his doings. He was of the house of Caleb. 4 the cave, and went on his way. 8 David also arose David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing afterward, and went out of the cave and cried after Saul, his sheep. 5 David sent ten young men; and David saying, "My lord the king!" When Saul looked behind said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to him, David bowed with his face to the earth, and showed Nabal, and greet him in my name. 6 Tell him, 'Long respect. 9 David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to life to you! Peace be to you! Peace be to your house! men's words, saying, 'Behold, David seeks to harm Peace be to all that you have! 7 Now I have heard that you'? 10 Behold, today your eyes have seen how the you have shearers. Your shepherds have now been LORD had delivered you today into my hand in the cave. with us, and we didn't harm them. Nothing was missing Some urged me to kill you, but I spared you. I said, 'I from them all the time they were in Carmel. 8 Ask your will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let the the LORD's anointed.' 11 Moreover, my father, behold, young men find favour in your eyes, for we come on a yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand; for in that I good day. Please give whatever comes to your hand to cut off the skirt of your robe and didn't kill you, know your servants and to your son David." 9 When David's and see that there is neither evil nor disobedience in my young men came, they spoke to Nabal all those words hand. I have not sinned against you, though you hunt in the name of David, and waited. 10 Nabal answered for my life to take it. 12 May the LORD judge between David's servants and said, "Who is David? Who is the me and you, and may the LORD avenge me of you; but son of Jesse? There are many servants who break my hand will not be on you. 13 As the proverb of the away from their masters these days. 11 Shall I then take ancients says, 'Out of the wicked comes wickedness;' my bread, my water, and my meat that I have killed for but my hand will not be on you. 14 Against whom has my shearers, and give it to men who I don't know where the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? they come from?" 12 So David's young men turned on A dead dog? A flea? 15 May the LORD therefore be their way and went back, and came and told him all judge, and give sentence between me and you, and these words. 13 David said to his men, "Every man put see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of your on his sword!" Every man put on his sword, David also hand." 16 It came to pass, when David had finished put on his sword. About four hundred men followed speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, "Is that David, and two hundred stayed by the baggage. 14 But your voice, my son David?" Saul lifted up his voice and one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, wept. 17 He said to David, "You are more righteous "Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness than I; for you have done good to me, whereas I have to greet our master; and he insulted them. 15 But the done evil to you. 18 You have declared today how you men were very good to us, and we were not harmed, have dealt well with me, because when the LORD had and we didn't miss anything as long as we went with delivered me up into your hand, you didn't kill me. 19 them, when we were in the fields. 16 They were a wall For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away to us both by night and by day, all the while we were unharmed? Therefore may the LORD reward you good with them keeping the sheep. 17 Now therefore know for that which you have done to me today. 20 Now, and consider what you will do; for evil is determined behold, I know that you will surely be king, and that the against our master and against all his house, for he is kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand. 21 such a worthless fellow that one can't speak to him." 18 Swear now therefore to me by the LORD that you will Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of not cut off my offspring after me, and that you will not bread, two containers of wine, five sheep ready dressed. destroy my name out of my father's house." 22 David five seahs of parched grain, one hundred clusters of swore to Saul, Saul went home, but David and his men raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on went up to the stronghold.

25 Samuel died; and all Israel gathered themselves together and mourned for him, and buried him at his house at Ramah. Then David arose and went down to the wilderness of Paran. 2 There was a man in Maon whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great. He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats; and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. 3 Now the name of the man was Nabal; and donkeys. 19 She said to her young men, "Go on before me. Behold, I am coming after you." But she didn't tell her husband, Nabal. 20 As she rode on her donkey, and came down hidden by the mountain, behold, David and his men came down towards her, and she met them. 21 Now David had said, "Surely in vain I have kept all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained to him. He has returned me evil for good. 22 God do so to the enemies of David, the morning light so much as one who urinates on a he said, "Blessed is the LORD, who has pleaded the wall." 23 When Abigail saw David, she hurried and got cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has off her donkey, and fell before David on her face and kept back his servant from evil. The LORD has returned bowed herself to the ground. 24 She fell at his feet and the evildoing of Nabal on his own head." David sent said, "On me, my lord, on me be the blame! Please and spoke concerning Abigail, to take her to himself as let your servant speak in your ears. Hear the words of wife. 40 When David's servants had come to Abigail your servant. 25 Please don't let my lord pay attention to Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, "David has sent to this worthless fellow, Nabal, for as his name is, so us to you, to take you to him as wife." 41 She arose is he. Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I, and bowed herself with her face to the earth, and said, your servant, didn't see my lord's young men whom "Behold, your servant is a servant to wash the feet of the you sent. 26 Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD lives servants of my lord." 42 Abigail hurriedly arose and rode and as your soul lives, since the LORD has withheld on a donkey with her five maids who followed her; and you from blood guiltiness and from avenging yourself she went after the messengers of David, and became with your own hand, now therefore let your enemies his wife. 43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and and those who seek evil to my lord be as Nabal. 27 they both became his wives. 44 Now Saul had given Now this present which your servant has brought to my Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my Laish, who was of Gallim. lord. 28 Please forgive the trespass of your servant. For the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fights the LORD's battles. Evil will not be found in you all your days. 29 Though men may rise up to pursue you and to seek your soul, yet the soul of my lord will be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD your God. He will sling out the souls of your enemies as from a sling's pocket. 30 It will come to pass, when the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you prince over Israel, 31 that this shall be no grief to you, nor offence of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. When the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your servant." 32 David said to Abigail, "Blessed is the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent you today to meet me! 33 Blessed is your discretion, and blessed are you, who have kept me today from blood guiltiness, and from avenging myself with my own hand. 34 For indeed, as the LORD the God of Israel lives, who has withheld me from harming you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, surely there wouldn't have been left to Nabal by the morning light so much as one who urinates on a wall." 35 So David received from her hand that which she had brought him. Then he said to her, "Go up in peace to your house. Behold, I have listened to your voice and have granted your request." 36 Abigail came to Nabal; and behold, he held a feast in his house like the feast of a king. Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk. Therefore she told him nothing until the morning light. 37 In the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things; and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. 38 About ten days later, the LORD struck Nabal, so that and more also, if I leave of all that belongs to him by he died. 39 When David heard that Nabal was dead,

The Ziphites came to Saul to Gibeah, saying, "Doesn't David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert?" 2 Then Saul arose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. 3 Saul encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert, by the way. But David stayed in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. 4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul had certainly come. 5 Then David arose and came to the place where Saul had encamped; and David saw the place where Saul lay, with Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his army. Saul lay within the place of the wagons, and the people were encamped around him. 6 Then David answered and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother of Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp?" Abishai said, "I will go down with you." 7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night; and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the place of the wagons, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people lay around him. 8 Then Abishai said to David, "God has delivered up your enemy into your hand today. Now therefore please let me strike him with the spear to the earth at one stroke, and I will not strike him the second time." 9 David said to Abishai, "Don't destroy him, for who can stretch out his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?" 10 David said, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will strike him; or his day shall come to die, or he shall go down into battle and perish. 11 The LORD forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed; but now please take the spear that is at his head and the jar of water, and let's go." 12 So David took the spear and the jar of Return, my son David; for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes today. Behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly." 22 David answered, "Behold the spear, O king! Let one of the young men come over and get it. 23 The LORD will give to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness; because the LORD delivered you into my hand today, and I wouldn't stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed. 24 Behold, as your life was respected today in my eyes, so let my life be respected in the LORD's eyes, and let him deliver me out of all oppression." 25 Then Saul said to David, "You are blessed, my son David. You will both do mightily, and will surely prevail." So David went his way. and Saul returned to his place.

27 David said in his heart, "I will now perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me any more in all the borders of Israel. So I will escape out of his hand." 2 David arose and passed over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maoch, king of Gath. 3 David lived with water from Saul's head, and they went away. No man Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his saw it, or knew it, nor did any awake; for they were all household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen the Jezreelitess and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's on them. 13 Then David went over to the other side, wife. 4 Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, so and stood on the top of the mountain far away, a great he stopped looking for him. 5 David said to Achish, "If space being between them; 14 and David cried to the now I have found favour in your eyes, let them give me people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Don't you a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may answer, Abner?" Then Abner answered, "Who are you dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the who calls to the king?" 15 David said to Abner, "Aren't royal city with you?" 6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that you a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have day: therefore Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah to you not kept watch over your lord the king? For one of this day. 7 The number of the days that David lived in the people came in to destroy your lord the king. 16 the country of the Philistines was a full year and four This thing isn't good that you have done. As the LORD months. 8 David and his men went up and raided the lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not kept Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for those watch over your lord, the LORD's anointed. Now see were the inhabitants of the land who were of old, on the where the king's spear is, and the jar of water that was way to Shur, even to the land of Egypt. 9 David struck at his head." 17 Saul recognised David's voice, and the land, and saved no man or woman alive, and took said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" David said, "It away the sheep, the cattle, the donkeys, the camels, is my voice, my lord, O king." 18 He said, "Why does my and the clothing. But if it is the children of men, they are cursed alive to bring them to Gath, saving, "Lest they should before the LORD; for they have driven me out today tell about us, saying, 'David did this, and this has been that I shouldn't cling to the LORD's inheritance, saying, his way all the time he has lived in the country of the 'Go, serve other gods!' 20 Now therefore, don't let my Philistines." 12 Achish believed David, saying, "He has blood fall to the earth away from the presence of the made his people Israel utterly to abhor him. Therefore Achish said to David, "Know assuredly that you will go out with me in the army, you and your men." 2 David said to Achish, "Therefore you will know what your servant can do." Achish said to David, "Therefore I will make you my bodyguard forever." 3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. Saul had sent away those who had familiar spirits and the wizards out of the land. 4 The Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and encamped in Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped in Gilboa. 5 When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. 6 When Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD didn't answer him by dreams, by Urim, or by prophets. 7 Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek for me a woman who has a familiar spirit, that I may go to her and enquire of her." His servants said to him, "Behold, there is a woman who has a familiar spirit at Endor." 8 Saul disguised himself and put on other clothing, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night. Then he said, "Please whomever I shall name to you." 9 The woman said they rose up and went away that night. to him, "Behold, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off those who have familiar spirits and the wizards out of the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?" 10 Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, no punishment will happen to you for this thing." 11 Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up to you?" He said, "Bring Samuel up for me." 12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!" 13 The king said to her, "Don't be afraid! What do you see?" The woman said to Saul, "I see a god coming up out of the earth." 14 He said to her, "What does he look like?" She said, "An old man comes up. He is covered with a robe." Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and showed respect. 15 Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me, to bring me up?" Saul answered, "I am very distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me, and answers me no more, by prophets, or by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I shall do." 16 Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has departed from you and has become your adversary? 17 The LORD has done to you as he spoke by me. The LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbour, even to David. 18 Because you didn't obey the LORD's voice, and didn't execute his fierce wrath on Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you today. 19 Moreover the LORD will deliver Israel also with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will deliver the army of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines." 20 Then Saul fell immediately his full length on the earth, and was terrified, because of Samuel's words. There was no strength in him, for he had eaten no bread all day long or all night long. 21 The woman came to Saul and saw that he was very troubled, and said to him, "Behold, your servant has listened to your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have listened to your words which you spoke to me. 22 Now therefore, please listen also to the voice of your servant, and let me set a morsel of bread before you. Eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way." 23 But he refused, and said, "I will not eat." But his servants, together with the woman, constrained him; and he listened to their voice. So he arose from the earth and sat on the bed. 24 The woman had a fattened calf in the house. She hurried and killed it; and she took flour and kneaded it, consult for me by the familiar spirit, and bring me up before Saul and before his servants, and they ate. Then ${\bf 29} \; {\hbox{Now}}$ the Phillistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek; and the Israelites encamped by the spring which is in Jezreel. 2 The lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands; and David and his men passed on in the rear with Achish. 3 Then the princes of the Philistines said, "What about these Hebrews?" Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, "Isn't this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or rather these years? I have found no fault in him since he fell away until today." 4 But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; and the princes of the Philistines said to him, "Make the man return, that he may go back to his place where you have appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an adversary to us. For with what should this fellow reconcile himself to his lord? Should it not be with the heads of these men? 5 Isn't this David, of whom people sang to one another in dances, saying, 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands'?" 6 Then Achish called David and said to him, "As the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight; for I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, the lords don't favour you. 7 Therefore now return, and go in peace, that you not displease the lords of the Philistines." 8 David said to Achish, "But what have I done? What have you found in your servant so long as I have been before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?" 9 Achish answered David, "I know that you are good in my sight, as an angel of God. Notwithstanding, the princes of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.' 10 Therefore now rise up early in the morning with the servants of your lord who have come with you; and as soon as you are up early in the morning and have light, depart." 11 So David rose up early, he and his men, to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines; and the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30 When David and his men had come to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had made a raid on the South and on Ziklag, and had struck Ziklag and burnt it with fire, 2 and had taken captive the women and all who were in it, both small and great. They didn't kill any, but carried them off and went their way. 3 When David and his men came to the city, behold, it was burnt with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters were and baked unleavened bread of it. 25 She brought it taken captive. 4 Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept until they had no captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife fellows of those who went with David answered and of Nabal the Carmelite. 6 David was greatly distressed, said, "Because they didn't go with us, we will not give for the people spoke of stoning him, because the souls them anything of the plunder that we have recovered, of all the people were grieved, every man for his sons except to every man his wife and his children, that he and for his daughters; but David strengthened himself in may lead them away and depart." 23 Then David said, the LORD his God. 7 David said to Abiathar the priest, "Do not do so, my brothers, with that which the LORD the son of Ahimelech, "Please bring the ephod here has given to us, who has preserved us, and delivered to me." Abiathar brought the ephod to David. 8 David the troop that came against us into our hand. 24 Who enguired of the LORD, saying, "If I pursue after this will listen to you in this matter? For as his share is who troop, will I overtake them?" He answered him, "Pursue, goes down to the battle, so shall his share be who stays for you will surely overtake them, and will without fail with the baggage. They shall share alike." 25 It was so recover all." 9 So David went, he and the six hundred from that day forward that he made it a statute and an men who were with him, and came to the brook Besor, ordinance for Israel to this day. 26 When David came where those who were left behind stayed. 10 But David to Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to the elders of pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred Judah, even to his friends, saving, "Behold, a present stayed behind, who were so faint that they couldn't go for you from the plunder of the LORD's enemies." 27 He over the brook Besor. 11 They found an Egyptian in the sent it to those who were in Bethel, to those who were field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, in Ramoth of the South, to those who were in Jattir, and he ate; and they gave him water to drink. 12 They 28 to those who were in Aroer, to those who were in gave him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of Siphmoth, to those who were in Eshtemoa, 29 to those raisins. When he had eaten, his spirit came again to who were in Racal, to those who were in the cities of him; for he had eaten no bread, and drank no water for the Jerahmeelites, to those who were in the cities of the three days and three nights. 13 David asked him, "To Kenites, 30 to those who were in Horman, to those who whom do you belong? Where are you from?" He said, "I were in Borashan, to those who were in Athach, 31 to am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where my master left me, because three days ago I got sick. Dayid himself and his men used to stay. 14 We made a raid on the South of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the South of Caleb; and we burnt Ziklag with fire." 15 David said to him, "Will you bring me down to this troop?" He said, "Swear to me by God that you will not kill me and not deliver me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this troop." 16 When he had brought him down, behold, they were spread around over all the ground, eating, drinking, and dancing, because of all the great plunder that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. 17 David struck them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day. Not a man of them escaped from there, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled. 18 David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and David rescued his two wives. 19 There was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither plunder, nor anything that they had taken. David brought them all back. 20 David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before those other livestock, and said, "This is David's plunder." 21 David came to the two hundred men, who were so faint that they could not follow David, whom also they had made to stay at the brook Besor; and they went out to meet David, and to meet the people who were with him. When David came near to the people, he

more power to weep. 5 David's two wives were taken greeted them. 22 Then all the wicked men and worthless

31 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. 2 The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul, 3 The battle went hard against Saul, and the archers overtook him; and he was greatly distressed by reason of the archers. 4 Then Saul said to his armour bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through and abuse me!" But his armour bearer would not, for he was terrified. Therefore Saul took his sword and fell on it. 5 When his armour bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died with him. 6 So Saul died with his three sons, his armour bearer, and all his men that same day together. 7 When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them. 8 On the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. 9 They cut off his head, stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry the news to the house of their idols and to the people. 10 They put his armour in the house of the Ashtaroth, and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan. 11 When the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 all the valiant men arose, went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan; and they came to Jabesh and burnt them there. 13 They took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

2 Samuel

1 After the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had stayed two days in Ziklag, 2 on the third day, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes torn and earth on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the earth and showed respect. 3 David said to him. "Where do you come from?" He said to him. "I have escaped out of the camp of Israel." 4 David said to him, "How did it go? Please tell me." He answered, "The people have fled from the battle, and many of the people also have fallen and are dead. Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also." 5 David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?" 6 The young man who told him said, "As I happened by chance on Mount Gilboa, behold, and the horsemen followed close behind him. 7 When he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. I answered, 'Here I am.' 8 He said to me, 'Who are you?' I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.' 9 He said to me, 'Please stand beside me, and kill me, for anguish has taken hold of me because my life lingers in me.' 10 So I stood beside him and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen. I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord." 11 Then David took hold on his clothes and tore them: and all the men who were with him did likewise. 12 They mourned, wept, and fasted until evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword. 13 David said to the young man who told him, "Where are you from?" He answered. "I am the son of a foreigner, an Amalekite." 14 David said to him, "Why were you not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?" 15 David called one of the young men and said, "Go near, and cut him down!" He struck him so that he died. 16 David said to him, "Your blood be on your head, for your mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have slain the LORD's anointed." 17 David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son 18 (and he commanded them to teach the children of Judah the song of the bow; behold, it is written in the book of Jashar): 19 "Your glory, Israel, was slain on your high places! How the mighty have fallen! 20 Don't tell it in Gath. Don't publish it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph. 21 You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain on you, and no fields of offerings; for there the shield of the mighty was defiled and cast away, the shield of Saul was not anointed with oil. 22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, Jonathan's bow didn't turn back. Saul's sword didn't return emptv. 23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives. In their death, they were not divided. They were swifter than eagles. They were stronger than lions. 24 You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you delicately in scarlet, who put ornaments of gold on your clothing. 25 How the mighty have fallen in the middle of the battle! Jonathan was slain on your high places. 26 I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan. You have been very pleasant to me. Your love to me was wonderful, surpassing the love of women. 27 How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war have perished!"

2 After this, David enquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?" The Saul was leaning on his spear; and behold, the chariots LORD said to him, "Go up." David said, "Where shall I go up?" He said, "To Hebron." 2 So David went up there with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. 3 David brought up his men who were with him, every man with his household. They lived in the cities of Hebron. 4 The men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. They told David, "The men of Jabesh Gilead were those who buried Saul." 5 David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said to them, "Blessed are you by the LORD, that you have shown this kindness to your lord, even to Saul, and have buried him. 6 Now may the LORD show loving kindness and truth to you. I also will reward you for this kindness, because you have done this thing. 7 Now therefore let your hands be strong, and be valiant; for Saul your lord is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them." 8 Now Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's army, had taken Ishbosheth the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim. 9 He made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin, and over all Israel. 10 Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David. 11 The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months. 12 Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. 13 Joab the son of Zeruiah and David's servants went out, and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool. 14 Abner said to Joab, "Please let the young men arise and compete before us!" Joab said, "Let them arise!" 15 Then they arose and went over by number:

day broke on them at Hebron.

Row there was long war between Saul's house and David's house. David grew stronger and stronger, but Saul's house grew weaker and weaker. 2 Sons were born to David in Hebron. His firstborn was Amnon, of twelve for Benjamin and for Ishbosheth the son of Saul. Ahinoam the Jezreelitess: 3 and his second, Chileab, of and twelve of David's servants. 16 They each caught his Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his fellow's Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place in king of Geshur; 4 and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Gibeon was called Helkath Hazzurim. 17 The battle was Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; 5 very severe that day; and Abner was beaten, and the and the sixth, Ithream, of Eglah, David's wife. These men of Israel, before David's servants. 18 The three were born to David in Hebron. 6 While there was war sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. between Saul's house and David's house, Abner made Asahel was as light of foot as a wild gazelle. 19 Asahel himself strong in Saul's house. 7 Now Saul had a pursued Abner. He didn't turn to the right hand or to the concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of left from following Abner. 20 Then Abner looked behind Aiah; and Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why have you him and said, "Is that you, Asahel?" He answered, "It is." gone in to my father's concubine?" 8 Then Abner was 21 Abner said to him, "Turn away to your right hand or to very angry about Ishbosheth's words, and said, "Am your left, and grab one of the young men, and take his I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show armour." But Asahel would not turn away from following kindness to your father Saul's house, to his brothers, him. 22 Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn away from and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? hand of David; and yet you charge me today with a How then could I look Joab your brother in the face?" 23 fault concerning this woman! 9 God do so to Abner, However, he refused to turn away. Therefore Abner with and more also, if, as the LORD has sworn to David, the back end of the spear struck him in the body, so that I don't do even so to him: 10 to transfer the kingdom the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there from Saul's house, and to set up David's throne over and died in the same place. As many as came to the Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba." place where Asahel fell down and died stood still. 24 But 11 He could not answer Abner another word, because Joab and Abishai pursued Abner. The sun went down he was afraid of him. 12 Abner sent messengers to when they had come to the hill of Ammah, that lies David on his behalf, saying, "Whose is the land?" and before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. 25 saying, "Make your alliance with me, and behold, my The children of Benjamin gathered themselves together hand will be with you to bring all Israel around to you." after Abner and became one band, and stood on the 13 David said, "Good. I will make a treaty with you, but top of a hill. 26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, one thing I require of you. That is, you will not see my "Shall the sword devour forever? Don't you know that face unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when it will be bitterness in the latter end? How long will you come to see my face." 14 David sent messengers it be then, before you ask the people to return from to Ishbosheth, Saul's son, saying, "Deliver me my wife following their brothers?" 27 Joab said, "As God lives, Michal, whom I was given to marry for one hundred if you had not spoken, surely then in the morning the foreskins of the Philistines." 15 Ishbosheth sent and people would have gone away, and not each followed took her from her husband, Paltiel the son of Laish. 16 his brother." 28 So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the Her husband went with her, weeping as he went, and people stood still and pursued Israel no more, and they followed her to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, "Go! fought no more. 29 Abner and his men went all that night Return!" and he returned. 17 Abner had communication through the Arabah; and they passed over the Jordan, with the elders of Israel, saying, "In times past, you and went through all Bithron, and came to Mahanaim. sought for David to be king over you. 18 Now then do 30 Joab returned from following Abner; and when he it! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, 'By the had gathered all the people together, nineteen men, hand of my servant David, I will save my people Israel of David's and Asahel were missing. 31 But David's out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of servants had struck Benjamin Abner's men so that three all their enemies." 19 Abner also spoke in the ears of hundred and sixty men died. 32 They took up Asahel Benjamin; and Abner went also to speak in the ears and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and Bethlehem. Joab and his men went all night, and the to the whole house of Benjamin. 20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. David made Abner and the men who were with him a feast. 21 Abner said to David, "I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your soul desires." David sent Abner away; and he went from a raid and brought in a great plunder with them; Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of but Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin (for sent him away, and he had gone in peace. 23 When Beeroth also is considered a part of Benjamin; 3 and the Joab and all the army who was with him had come, they Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and have lived as foreigners told Joab, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and there until today). 4 Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace." 24 son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old Then Joab came to the king and said, "What have you when the news came about Saul and Jonathan out of done? Behold, Abner came to you. Why is it that you Jezreel; and his nurse picked him up and fled. As she have sent him away, and he is already gone? 25 You hurried to flee, he fell and became lame. His name was know Abner the son of Ner. He came to deceive you, Mephibosheth. 5 The sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and to know your going out and your coming in, and Rechab and Baanah, went out and came at about the to know all that you do." 26 When Joab had come out heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth as he took his brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David didn't house as though they would have fetched wheat, and know it. 27 When Abner had returned to Hebron, Joab they struck him in the body; and Rechab and Baanah took him aside into the middle of the gate to speak with his brother escaped. 7 Now when they came into the him quietly, and struck him there in the body, so that he house as he lay on his bed in his bedroom, they struck died for the blood of Asahel his brother. 28 Afterward, him, killed him, beheaded him, and took his head, and when David heard it, he said, "I and my kingdom are went by the way of the Arabah all night. 8 They brought quiltless before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the head of Ishbosheth to David to Hebron, and said the son of Ner. 29 Let it fall on the head of Joab and on to the king, "Behold, the head of Ishbosheth, the son all his father's house. Let there not fail from the house of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life! The LORD of Joab one who has a discharge, or who is a leper, or has avenged my lord the king today of Saul and of his who leans on a staff, or who falls by the sword, or who offspring." 9 David answered Rechab and Baanah his lacks bread." 30 So Joab and Abishai his brother killed brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at to them, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my Gibeon in the battle. 31 David said to Joab and to all soul out of all adversity, 10 when someone told me, the people who were with him, "Tear your clothes, and 'Behold, Saul is dead,' thinking that he brought good clothe yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn in front of news, I seized him and killed him in Ziklag, which was Abner." King David followed the bier. 32 They buried the reward I gave him for his news. 11 How much more, Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his wept at Abner's grave; and all the people wept. 33 The own house on his bed, should I not now require his a fool dies? 34 Your hands weren't bound, and your David commanded his young men, and they killed them, feet weren't put into fetters. As a man falls before the cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up again over him. 35 All the people came to urge David Ishbosheth and buried it in Abner's grave in Hebron. to eat bread while it was yet day; but David swore, saying, "God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else, until the sun goes down." 36 All the people took notice of it, and it pleased them, as whatever the king did pleased all the people. 37 So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to kill Abner the son of Ner. 38 The king said to his servants, "Don't you know that a prince and a great man has fallen today in Israel? 39 I am weak today, though anointed king. These men, the sons of Zeruiah are too hard for me. May the LORD reward the evildoer according to his wickedness."

in peace. 22 Behold, David's servants and Joab came were captains of raiding bands. The name of one was from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they rest at noon. 6 They came there into the middle of the king lamented for Abner, and said, "Should Abner die as blood from your hand, and rid the earth of you?" 12 children of iniquity, so you fell." All the people wept beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of 5 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and spoke, saying, "Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. 2 In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led Israel out and in. The LORD said to you, 'You will be shepherd of my people Israel, and you will be prince over Israel." 3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel. 4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. 5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three ↑ When Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in years over all Israel and Judah. 6 The king and his men Hebron, his hands became feeble, and all the went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants Israelites were troubled. 2 Saul's son had two men who of the land, who spoke to David, saying, "The blind and the lame will keep you out of here." thinking, "David Abinadab, drove the new cart, 4 They brought it out can't come in here." 7 Nevertheless David took the of Abinadab's house which was in the hill, with God's stronghold of Zion. This is David's city. 8 David said ark; and Ahio went before the ark. 5 David and all the on that day, "Whoever strikes the Jebusites, let him go house of Israel played before the LORD with all kinds of up to the watercourse and strike those lame and blind, instruments made of cypress wood, with harps, with who are hated by David's soul." Therefore they say, stringed instruments, with tambourines, with castanets, "The blind and the lame can't come into the house." 9 and with cymbals. 6 When they came to the threshing David lived in the stronghold, and called it David's city. floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached for God's ark and took David built around from Millo and inward. 10 David grew hold of it, for the cattle stumbled. 7 The LORD's anger greater and greater, for the LORD, the God of Armies, burnt against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his was with him. 11 Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to error; and he died there by God's ark. 8 David was David, with cedar trees, carpenters, and masons; and displeased because the LORD had broken out against they built David a house. 12 David perceived that the Uzzah; and he called that place Perez Uzzah to this LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he day. 9 David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake. 13 said, "How could the LORD's ark come to me?" 10 So David took more concubines and wives for himself out David would not move the LORD's ark to be with him of Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron; and more in David's city; but David carried it aside into Obedsons and daughters were born to David. 14 These are Edom the Gittite's house. 11 The LORD's ark remained the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: in Obed-Edom the Gittite's house three months; and Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, 15 Ibhar, Elishua, the LORD blessed Obed-Edom and all his house. 12 Nepheg, Japhia, 16 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet. King David was told, "The LORD has blessed the house 17 When the Philistines heard that they had anointed of Obed-Edom, and all that belongs to him, because David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to of God's ark." So David went and brought up God's seek David, but David heard about it and went down to ark from the house of Obed-Edom into David's city the stronghold. 18 Now the Philistines had come and with joy. 13 When those who bore the LORD's ark had spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. 19 David gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened calf. enquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up against the 14 David danced before the LORD with all his might; Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?" The and David was clothed in a linen ephod. 15 So David LORD said to David, "Go up; for I will certainly deliver and all the house of Israel brought up the LORD's ark the Philistines into your hand." 20 David came to Baal with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet. 16 Perazim, and David struck them there. Then he said, As the LORD's ark came into David's city, Michal the "The LORD has broken my enemies before me, like daughter of Saul looked out through the window and the breach of waters." Therefore he called the name saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; of that place Baal Perazim. 21 They left their images and she despised him in her heart. 17 They brought in there, and David and his men took them away. 22 The the LORD's ark, and set it in its place in the middle of Philistines came up yet again and spread themselves the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered in the valley of Rephaim. 23 When David enquired of burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. 18 the LORD, he said, "You shall not go up. Circle around When David had finished offering the burnt offering and behind them, and attack them in front of the mulberry the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name trees. 24 When you hear the sound of marching in the of the LORD of Armies. 19 He gave to all the people, tops of the mulberry trees, then stir yourself up; for even amongst the whole multitude of Israel, both to men then the LORD has gone out before you to strike the and women, to everyone a portion of bread, dates, and army of the Philistines." 25 David did so, as the LORD raisins. So all the people departed, each to his own commanded him, and struck the Philistines all the way house. 20 Then David returned to bless his household. from Geba to Gezer.

6 David again gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. 2 David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale Judah, to bring up from there God's ark, which is called by the Name, even the name of the LORD of Armies who sits above the cherubim. 3 They set God's ark on a new cart, and brought it out of Abinadab's house that was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How glorious the king of Israel was today, who uncovered himself today in the eyes of his servants' maids, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!" 21 David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me above your father, and above all his house, to appoint me prince over the people of the LORD, over Israel. Therefore I will celebrate before the LORD. 22 I will be yet more undignified than this, and will be worthless in my own sight. But the maids of say to you? For you know your servant, Lord GOD. daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

7 When the king lived in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies all around, 2 the king said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but God's ark dwells within curtains." 3 Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in your heart, for the LORD is with you." 4 That same night, the LORD's word came to Nathan, saving, 5 "Go and tell my servant David, 'The LORD says, "Should you build me a house for me to dwell in? 6 For I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought the children of Israel up out of Egypt, even to this day, but have moved around in a tent and in a tabernacle. 7 In all places in which I have walked with all the children of Israel, did I say a word to anyone from the tribes of Israel whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?" 8 Now therefore tell my servant David this: 'The LORD of Armies says, "I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, to be prince over my people, over Israel. 9 I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make you a great name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. 10 I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place and be moved no more. The children of wickedness will not afflict them any more, as at the first, 11 and as from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. I will cause you to rest from all your enemies. Moreover the LORD tells you that the LORD will make you a house. 12 When your days are fulfilled and you sleep with your fathers, I will set up your offspring after you, who will proceed out of your body, and I will establish his kingdom. 13 He will build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. 14 I will be his father, and he will be my son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the stripes of the children of men; 15 but my loving kindness will not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before you. 16 Your house and your kingdom will be made sure forever before you. Your throne will be established forever."" 17 Nathan spoke to David all these words. and according to all this vision. 18 Then David the king went in and sat before the LORD; and he said, "Who am I, Lord GOD, and what is my house, that you have brought me this far? 19 This was yet a small thing in your eyes, Lord GOD, but you have spoken also of your servant's house for a great while to come; and this amongst men, Lord GOD! 20 What more can David whom you have spoken will honour me." 23 Michal the 21 For your word's sake, and according to your own heart, you have worked all this greatness, to make your servant know it. 22 Therefore you are great, LORD God. For there is no one like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 23 What one nation in the earth is like your people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem to himself for a people, and to make himself a name, and to do great things for you, and awesome things for your land, before your people, whom you redeemed to yourself out of Egypt, from the nations and their gods? 24 You established for yourself your people Israel to be your people forever; and you, LORD, became their God. 25 "Now, LORD God, the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning his house, confirm it forever, and do as you have spoken. 26 Let your name be magnified forever, saying, 'The LORD of Armies is God over Israel; and the house of your servant David will be established before you.' 27 For you, LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, have revealed to your servant, saying, 'I will build you a house.' Therefore your servant has found in his heart to pray this prayer to you. 28 "Now, O Lord GOD, you are God, and your words are truth, and you have promised this good thing to your servant. 29 Now therefore, let it please you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you; for you, Lord GOD, have spoken it. Let the house of your servant be blessed forever with your blessing."

> After this, David struck the Philistines and subdued them; and David took the bridle of the mother city out of the hand of the Philistines. 2 He defeated Moab. and measured them with the line, making them to lie down on the ground; and he measured two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive. The Moabites became servants to David, and brought tribute. 3 David also struck Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his dominion at the River. 4 David took from him one thousand and seven hundred horsemen and twenty thousand footmen. David hamstrung the chariot horses, but reserved enough of them for one hundred chariots. 5 When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck twenty two thousand men of the Syrians. 6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought tribute. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. 7 David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. 8 From Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took a great quantity of bronze. 9 When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army and gold that he dedicated of all the nations which was lame in both his feet. he subdued— 12 of Syria, of Moab, of the children of Ammon, of the Philistines, of Amalek, and of the plunder of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah. 13 David earned a reputation when he returned from striking down eighteen thousand men of the Syrians in the Valley of Salt. 14 He put garrisons in Edom. Throughout all Edom, he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became servants to David. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. 15 David reigned over all Israel; and David executed justice and righteousness for all his people. 16 Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army, Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder, 17 Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests, Seraiah was scribe, 18 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers.

house, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?" 2 There was of Saul's house a servant whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" He said, "I am your servant." 3 The king said, "Is there not yet any son, who is lame in his feet." 4 The king said to him, "Where is he?" Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is in Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River;

All who lived in Ziba's house were silver, vessels of gold, and vessels of bronze. 11 King servants to Mephibosheth. 13 So Mephibosheth lived in David also dedicated these to the LORD, with the silver Jerusalem, for he ate continually at the king's table. He

After this, the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place. 2 David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent by his servants to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon. 3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think that David honours your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Hasn't David sent his servants to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?" 4 So Hanun took David's servants, shaved off one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. 5 When they told David this, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, Q David said, "Is there yet any who is left of Saul's and then return." 6 When the children of Ammon saw that they had become odious to David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth Rehob and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand footmen, and the king of Maacah with one thousand men, and the men of Tob twelve thousand men. 7 When David heard of it, of Saul's house, that I may show the kindness of God he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. 8 to him?" Ziba said to the king, "Jonathan still has a The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entrance of the gate. He answered, "Behold, put them in array against the children of Ammon. 11 He your servant!" 7 David said to him, "Don't be afraid, for I said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for sake, and will restore to you all the land of Saul your you, then I will come and help you. 12 Be courageous, father. You will eat bread at my table continually." 8 He and let's be strong for our people and for the cities of our bowed down, and said, "What is your servant, that you God; and may the LORD do what seems good to him." should look at such a dead dog as I am?" 9 Then the 13 So Joab and the people who were with him came king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "All near to the battle against the Syrians, and they fled that belonged to Saul and to all his house I have given before him. 14 When the children of Ammon saw that to your master's son. 10 Till the land for him—you, your the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, sons, and your servants. Bring in the harvest, that your and entered into the city. Then Joab returned from the master's son may have bread to eat; but Mephibosheth children of Ammon and came to Jerusalem. 15 When your master's son will always eat bread at my table." the Syrians saw that they were defeated by Israel, they Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. 11 Then gathered themselves together. 16 Hadadezer sent and themselves in array against David and fought with him. Joab. Some of the people fell, even of David's servants; Ammon any more.

11 At the return of the year, at the time when kings go out, David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. 2 At evening, David arose from his bed and walked on the roof of the king's house. From the roof, he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to look at. 3 David sent and enquired after the woman. One said, "Isn't this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, Uriah the Hittite's wife?" 4 David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in to him, and he lay with her (for she was purified from her uncleanness); and she returned to her house. 5 The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child." 6 David sent to Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." Joab sent Uriah to David. 7 When Uriah had come to him, David asked him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the war prospered. 8 David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." Uriah departed out of the king's house, and a gift from the king was sent after him. 9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and didn't go down to his house. 10 When they had told David, saying, "Uriah didn't go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Haven't you come from a journey? Why didn't you go down to your house?" 11 Uriah said to David, "The ark, Israel, and Judah, are staving in tents; and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open field. Shall I then go into my house to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing!" 12 David said to Uriah, "Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart." So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next day. 13 When David had called him, he ate and drank before him; and he made him drunk. At evening, he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but didn't go down to his house. 14 In the morning, David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah. 15 He wrote in the letter, saying, "Send Uriah to the forefront of the hottest and they came to Helam, with Shobach the captain of battle, and retreat from him, that he may be struck and the army of Hadadezer at their head. 17 David was die." 16 When Joab kept watch on the city, he assigned told that; and he gathered all Israel together, passed Uriah to the place where he knew that valiant men over the Jordan, and came to Helam. The Syrians set were. 17 The men of the city went out and fought with 18 The Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven and Uriah the Hittite died also. 18 Then Joab sent and hundred charioteers of the Syrians and forty thousand told David all the things concerning the war; 19 and he horsemen, and struck Shobach the captain of their army, commanded the messenger, saying, "When you have so that he died there. 19 When all the kings who were finished telling all the things concerning the war to the servants to Hadadezer saw that they were defeated king, 20 it shall be that, if the king's wrath arise, and he before Israel, they made peace with Israel and served asks you, 'Why did you go so near to the city to fight? them. So the Syrians were afraid to help the children of Didn't you know that they would shoot from the wall? 21 Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Didn't a woman cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead." 22 So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Joab had sent him for. 23 The messenger said to David, "The men prevailed against us, and came out to us into the field; and we were on them even to the entrance of the gate. 24 The shooters shot at your servants from off the wall; and some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead." 25 Then David said to the messenger, "Tell Joab, 'Don't let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Make your battle stronger against the city, and overthrow it.' Encourage him." 26 When Uriah's wife heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband. 27 When the mourning was past, David sent and took her home to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

 ${f 12}$ The LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, "There were two men in one city: the one rich, and the other poor. 2 The rich man had very many flocks and herds, 3 but the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and raised. It grew up together with him and with his children. It ate of his own food, drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was like a daughter to him. 4 A traveller came to the rich man, and he didn't want to take of his own flock and of his own herd to prepare for the wayfaring man who had come to him, but took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him." 5 David's anger burnt hot against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die! 6 He must restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing and because he had no pity!" 7 Nathan said to David, "You are the man! This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. 8 I gave your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of LORD's sake. 26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of Judah; and if that would have been too little, I would the children of Ammon, and took the royal city. 27 Joab have added to you many more such things. 9 Why have sent messengers to David, and said, "I have fought you despised the LORD's word, to do that which is evil against Rabbah. Yes, I have taken the city of waters. 28 in his sight? You have struck Uriah the Hittite with the Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, sword, have taken his wife to be your wife, and have and encamp against the city and take it; lest I take the slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. 10 city, and it be called by my name." 29 David gathered all Now therefore the sword will never depart from your the people together and went to Rabbah, and fought house, because you have despised me and have taken against it and took it. 30 He took the crown of their king Uriah the Hittite's wife to be your wife.' 11 "This is what from off his head; and its weight was a talent of gold, the LORD says: 'Behold, I will raise up evil against you and in it were precious stones; and it was set on David's out of your own house; and I will take your wives before head. He brought a great quantity of plunder out of the your eyes and give them to your neighbour, and he city. 31 He brought out the people who were in it, and will lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. 12 For put them to work under saws, under iron picks, under you did this secretly, but I will do this thing before all axes of iron, and made them go to the brick kiln; and he Israel, and before the sun." 13 David said to Nathan, "I did so to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then have sinned against the LORD." Nathan said to David, David and all the people returned to Jerusalem. "The LORD also has put away your sin. You will not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the LORD's enemies to blaspheme. the child also who is born to you will surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. The LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and he was very sick. 16 David therefore begged God for the child; and David fasted, and went in and lay all night on the ground. 17 The elders of his house grose beside him, to raise him up from the earth; but he would not, and he didn't eat bread with them. 18 On the seventh day, the child died. David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him and he didn't listen to our voice. How will he then harm himself if we tell him that the child is dead?" 19 But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" They said, "He is dead." 20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed and anointed himself, and changed his clothing; and he came into the LORD's house, and worshipped. Then he came to his own house; and when he requested, they set bread before him and he ate. 21 Then his servants said to him. "What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but when the child was dead, you rose up and ate bread." 22 He said, "While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, 'Who knows whether the LORD will not be gracious to me, that the child may live?' 23 But now he is dead. Why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me." 24 David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her, and lay with her. She bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. The LORD loved him; 25 and he sent by the hand of

After this, Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. 2 Amnon was so troubled that he became sick because of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin, and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her. 3 But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah. David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtle man. 4 He said to him, "Why, son of the king, are you so sad from day to day? Won't you tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister." 5 Jonadab said to him, "Lay down on your bed and pretend to be sick. When your father comes to see you, tell him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it and eat it from her hand." 6 So Amnon lay down and faked being sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand." 7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him." 8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was lying down. She took dough, kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes. 9 She took the pan and poured them out before him, but he refused to eat. Amnon said, "Have all men leave me." Then every man went out from him. 10 Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the room, that I may eat from your hand." Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the room to Amnon her brother. 11 When she had brought them near to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister!" 12 She answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me! For no such thing ought to be done in Israel. Don't you do this folly! 13 As for me, where

The young man who kept the watch lifted the love with which he had loved her. Amnon said to her, up his eyes and looked, and behold, many people were "Arise, be gone!" 16 She said to him, "Not so, because coming by way of the hillside behind him. 35 Jonadab this great wrong in sending me away is worse than the said to the king, "Behold, the king's sons are coming! It other that you did to me!" But he would not listen to her. is as your servant said." 36 As soon as he had finished 17 Then he called his servant who ministered to him, speaking, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up and said, "Now put this woman out from me, and bolt their voices and wept. The king also and all his servants the door after her." 18 She had a garment of various wept bitterly. 37 But Absalom fled and went to Talmai colours on her, for the king's daughters who were virgins the son of Ammihur, king of Geshur. David mourned dressed in such robes. Then his servant brought her out for his son every day. 38 So Absalom fled and went and bolted the door after her. 19 Tamar put ashes on to Geshur, and was there three years. 39 King David her head, and tore her garment of various colours that longed to go out to Absalom, for he was comforted was on her; and she laid her hand on her head and concerning Amnon, since he was dead. went her way, crying aloud as she went. 20 Absalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother. Don't take this thing to heart." So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house. 21 But when King David heard of all these things, he was very angry. 22 Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar. 23 After two full years, Absalom had sheep shearers in Baal Hazor, which is beside Ephraim; and Absalom invited all the king's sons. 24 Absalom came to the king and said, "See now, your servant has sheep shearers. Please let the king and his servants go with your servant." 25 The king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let's not all go, lest we be burdensome to you." He pressed him; however he would not go, but blessed him. 26 Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." The king said to him, "Why should he go with you?" 27 But Absalom pressed him, and he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. 28 Absalom commanded his servants, saying, "Mark now, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine: and when I tell you. 'Strike Amnon.' then kill him. Don't be afraid. Haven't I commanded you? Be courageous, and be valiant!" 29 The servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man got up on his mule and fled. 30 While they were on the way, the news came to David, saying, "Absalom has slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left!" 31 Then the king arose, and tore his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn. 32 Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered, "Don't let my lord suppose that they have

would I carry my shame? And as for you, you will be as killed all the young men, the king's sons, for Amnon

14 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was towards Absalom. 2 Joab sent to Tekoa and brought a wise woman from there, and said to her, "Please act like a mourner, and put on mourning clothing, please, and don't anoint yourself with oil; but be as a woman who has mourned a long time for the dead. 3 Go in to the king and speak like this to him." So Joab put the words in her mouth. 4 When the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, showed respect, and said, "Help, O king!" 5 The king said to her, "What ails you?" She answered, "Truly I am a widow, and my husband is dead. 6 Your servant had two sons; and they both fought together in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other and killed him. 7 Behold, the whole family has risen against your servant, and they say, 'Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he killed, and so destroy the heir also.' Thus they would quench my coal which is left, and would leave to my husband neither name nor remainder on the surface of the earth." 8 The king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give a command concerning you." 9 The woman of Tekoa said to the king, "My lord, O king, may the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and may the king and his throne be quiltless." 10 The king said, "Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he will not bother you any more." 11 Then she said, "Please let the king remember the LORD your God, that the avenger of blood destroy not any more, lest they destroy my son." He said, "As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the earth." 12 Then the woman said, "Please let your servant speak a word to my lord the king." He said, "Say on." 13 The woman said, "Why then have you devised this word the king is as one who is guilty, in that the king is near mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it does not bring home again his banished one. 14 For we on fire." So Absalom's servants set the field on fire. 31 must die, and are like water spilled on the ground, which Then Joab arose and came to Absalom to his house, can't be gathered up again; neither does God take away and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field life, but devises means, that he who is banished not on fire?" 32 Absalom answered Joab, "Behold, I sent to be an outcast from him. 15 Now therefore, seeing that you, saying, 'Come here, that I may send you to the I have come to speak this word to my lord the king, king, to say, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would it is because the people have made me afraid. Your be better for me to be there still. Now therefore, let me servant said, 'I will now speak to the king; it may be see the king's face; and if there is iniquity in me, let that the king will perform the request of his servant.' 16 him kill me."" 33 So Joab came to the king and told For the king will hear, to deliver his servant out of the him; and when he had called for Absalom, he came to hand of the man who would destroy me and my son the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground together out of the inheritance of God. 17 Then your before the king; and the king kissed Absalom. servant said, 'Please let the word of my lord the king bring rest; for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad. May the LORD, your God, be with you." 18 Then the king answered the woman, "Please don't hide anything from me that I ask you." The woman said, "Let my lord the king now speak." 19 The king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?" The woman answered, "As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken; for your servant Joab urged me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your servant. 20 Your servant Joab has done this thing to change the face of the matter. My lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth." 21 The king said to Joab, "Behold now, I have granted this thing. Go therefore, and bring the young man Absalom back." 22 Joab fell to the ground on his face, showed respect, and blessed the king. Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favour in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has performed the request of his servant." 23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. 24 The king said, "Let him return to his own house, but let him not see my face." So Absalom returned to his own house, and didn't see the king's face. 25 Now in all Israel there was no one to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty. From the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no defect in him. 26 When he cut the hair of his head (now it was at every year's end that he cut it; because it was heavy on him, therefore he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels, after the king's weight. 27 Three sons were born to Absalom, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar. She was a woman with a beautiful face. 28 Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem, and he didn't see the king's face. 29 Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. Then he sent again a second time, but he would not come. 30

such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking Therefore he said to his servants, "Behold, Joab's field

15 After this, Absalom prepared a chariot and horses for himself, and fifty men to run before him. 2 Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate. When any man had a suit which should come to the king for judgement, then Absalom called to him, and said, "What city are you from?" He said, "Your servant is of one of the tribes of Israel." 3 Absalom said to him, "Behold, your matters are good and right; but there is no man deputized by the king to hear you." 4 Absalom said moreover, "Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man who has any suit or cause might come to me, and I would do him justice!" 5 It was so, that when any man came near to bow down to him, he stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and kissed him. 6 Absalom did this sort of thing to all Israel who came to the king for judgement. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. 7 At the end of forty years, Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed to the LORD, in Hebron. 8 For your servant vowed a vow while I stayed at Geshur in Syria, saying, 'If the LORD shall indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD." 9 The king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose and went to Hebron. 10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, 'Absalom is king in Hebron!" 11 Two hundred men went with Absalom out of Jerusalem, who were invited, and went in their simplicity; and they didn't know anything. 12 Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. The conspiracy was strong, for the people increased continually with Absalom. 13 A messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom." 14 David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise! Let's flee, or else none of us will escape from Absalom. Hurry to depart, lest he overtake us quickly and bring down evil on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword." 15 The Ahimaaz, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son. Send to me men who came after him from Gath, passed on before everything that you shall hear by them." 37 So Hushai, the king. 19 Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why David's friend, came into the city; and Absalom came do you also go with us? Return, and stay with the king; for you are a foreigner and also an exile. Return to your own place. 20 Whereas you came but yesterday, should I today make you go up and down with us, since I go where I may? Return, and take back your brothers. Mercy and truth be with you." 21 Ittai answered the king and said, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in what place my lord the king is. whether for death or for life, your servant will be there also," 22 David said to Ittai, "Go and pass over," Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones who were with him. 23 All the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over. The king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over towards the way of the wilderness. 24 Behold, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down God's ark; and Abiathar went up until all the people finished passing out of the city. 25 The king said to Zadok, "Carry God's ark back into the city. If I find favour in the LORD's eyes, he will bring me again, and show me both it and his habitation; 26 but if he says, 'I have no delight in you,' behold, here I am. Let him do to me as seems good to him." 27 The king said also to Zadok the priest, "Aren't you a seer? Return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. 28 Behold, I will stay at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me." 29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried God's ark to Jerusalem again; and they stayed there. 30 David went up by the ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered and went barefoot. All the people who were with him each covered his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up. 31 Someone told David, saying, "Ahithophel is amongst the conspirators with Absalom," David said, "LORD, please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness." 32 When David had come to the top, where God was worshipped, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his tunic torn and earth on his head. 33 David said to him, "If you pass on with me, then you will be a burden to me: 34 but if you return to the city, and tell Absalom, 'I will be your king's servants said to the king, "Behold, your servants servant, O king, As I have been your father's servant in into Jerusalem.

> 16 When David was a little past the top, behold. Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a couple of donkeys saddled, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, and one hundred clusters of raisins, and one hundred summer fruits, and a container of wine. 2 The king said to Ziba, "What do you mean by these?" Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that those who are faint in the wilderness may drink." 3 The king said, "Where is your master's son?" Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem; for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore me the kingdom of my father." 4 Then the king said to Ziba, "Behold, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours." Ziba said, "I bow down. Let me find favour in your sight, my lord, O king," 5 When King David came to Bahurim, behold, a man of the family of Saul's house came out, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera. He came out and cursed as he came. 6 He cast stones at David and at all the servants of King David, and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. 7 Shimei said when he cursed, "Be gone, be gone, you man of blood, and wicked fellow! 8 The LORD has returned on you all the blood of Saul's house, in whose place you have reigned! The LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son! Behold, you are caught by your own mischief, because you are a man of blood!" 9 Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please let me go over and take off his head." 10 The king said. "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? Because he curses, and because the LORD has said to him, 'Curse David,' who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?'" 11 David said to Abishai and to all his servants, "Behold, my son, who came out of my bowels, seeks my life. How much more this Benjamite, now? Leave him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD has invited him. 12 It may be that the LORD will look on the wrong done to me. and that the LORD will repay me good for the cursing of me today." 13 So David and his men went by the way: and Shimei went along on the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, threw stones at him, and threw dust, gathered together to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, 14 The king and all the people who were with him arrived as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that weary; and he refreshed himself there. 15 Absalom and you go to battle in your own person. 12 So we will come all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, on him in some place where he will be found, and we and Ahithophel with him. 16 When Hushai the Archite, will light on him as the dew falls on the ground, then we Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!" 17 who are with him. 13 Moreover, if he has gone into a Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your kindness to your city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we friend? Why didn't you go with your friend?" 18 Hushai will draw it into the river, until there isn't one small stone said to Absalom, "No; but whomever the LORD and this found there." 14 Absalom and all the men of Israel said, people and all the men of Israel have chosen, I will be "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the his, and I will stay with him. 19 Again, whom should I counsel of Ahithophel." For the LORD had ordained to serve? Shouldn't I serve in the presence of his son? As defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that I have served in your father's presence, so I will be in the LORD might bring evil on Absalom. 15 Then Hushai your presence." 20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, "Ahithophel "Give your counsel what we shall do." 21 Ahithophel counselled Absalom and the elders of Israel that way; said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines and I have counselled this way. 16 Now therefore send that he has left to keep the house. Then all Israel will quickly, and tell David, saying, 'Don't lodge tonight at hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the fords of the wilderness, but by all means pass over, hands of all who are with you will be strong." 22 So they lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people who spread a tent for Absalom on the top of the house, and are with him." 17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight staying by En Rogel; and a female servant used to go of all Israel. 23 The counsel of Ahithophel, which he and report to them, and they went and told King David; gave in those days, was as if a man enquired at the for they couldn't risk being seen coming into the city. inner sanctuary of God. All the counsel of Ahithophel 18 But a boy saw them, and told Absalom. Then they was like this both with David and with Absalom.

Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me now choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David tonight. 2 I will come on him while he is weary and exhausted, and will make him afraid. All the people who are with him will flee. I will strike the king only, 3 and I will bring back all the people to you. The man whom you seek is as if all returned. All the people shall be in peace." 4 The saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel. 5 Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let's hear likewise what he says." 6 When Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, "Ahithophel has spoken like this. Shall we do what he says? If not, speak up." 7 Hushai said to Absalom, "The counsel that Ahithophel has given this time is not good." 8 Hushai said moreover, "You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are fierce in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. Your father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. 9 Behold, he is now hidden in some pit, or in some other place. It will happen, when some of them have fallen at the first, that whoever hears it will say, 'There is a slaughter amongst the people who follow Absalom!' 10 Even he who is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, will utterly melt; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men. 11 But I counsel that all Israel be David's friend, had come to Absalom, Hushai said to will not leave so much as one of him and of all the men both went away quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down there. 19 The woman took and spread the covering over the well's mouth, and spread out crushed grain on it; and nothing was known. 20 Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house; and they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" The woman said to them, "They have gone over the brook of water." When they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. 21 After they had departed, they came up out of the well and went and told King David; and they said to David, "Arise and pass quickly over the water; for thus has Ahithophel counselled against you." 22 Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they passed over the Jordan. By the morning light there lacked not one of them who had not gone over the Jordan. 23 When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey, arose, and went home to his city, set his house in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the tomb of his father. 24 Then David came to Mahanaim. Absalom passed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. 25 Absalom set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Ithra the Israelite, who went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah, Joab's mother. 26 Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead. 27 When David had come to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of He took three darts in his hand and thrust them through grain, beans, lentils, roasted grain, 29 honey, butter, people are hungry, weary, and thirsty in the wilderness."

18 David counted the people who were with him. and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. 2 David sent the people out, a third part under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the people, "I will also surely go out with you myself." 3 But the people said, "You shall not go out, for if we flee away, they will not care for us, neither if half of us die, will they care for us. But you are worth ten thousand of us. Therefore now it is better that you are ready to help us out of the city." 4 The king said to them, "I will do what seems best to you." The king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. 5 The king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." All the people heard when the king commanded all the captains concerning Absalom. 6 So the people went out into the field against Israel; and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim. 7 The people of Israel were struck there before David's servants, and there was a great slaughter there that day of twenty thousand men. 8 For the battle was there spread over the surface of all the country, and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured. 9 Absalom happened to meet David's servants. Absalom was riding on his mule. and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak; and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was hanging between the sky and earth; and the mule that was under him went on. 10 A certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, "Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak." 11 Joab said to the man who told him, "Behold, you saw it, and why didn't you strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten pieces of silver and a sash." 12 The man said to Joab, "Though I should receive a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I still wouldn't stretch out my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 'Beware that no one touch the young man Absalom.' 13 Otherwise, if I had dealt falsely against his life (and there is no matter hidden from the king), then you yourself would have set yourself against me." 14 Then Joab said, "I'm not going to wait like this with you."

Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lodebar, Absalom's heart while he was still alive in the middle of and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, 28 brought beds, the oak. 15 Ten young men who bore Joab's armour basins, earthen vessels, wheat, barley, meal, parched surrounded and struck Absalom, and killed him. 16 Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing sheep, and cheese of the herd, for David and for the after Israel; for Joab held the people back. 17 They took people who were with him to eat; for they said, "The Absalom and cast him into a great pit in the forest, and raised over him a very great heap of stones. Then all Israel fled, each to his own tent. 18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself the pillar which is in the king's valley, for he said, "I have no son to keep my name in memory." He called the pillar after his own name. It is called Absalom's monument, to this day. 19 Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Let me now run and carry the king news, how the LORD has avenged him of his enemies." 20 Joab said to him, "You must not be the bearer of news today, but you must carry news another day. But today you must carry no news, because the king's son is dead." 21 Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen!" The Cushite bowed himself to Joab, and ran. 22 Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said yet again to Joab, "But come what may, please let me also run after the Cushite." Joab said. "Why do you want to run. my son. since you will have no reward for the news?" 23 "But come what may," he said, "I will run." He said to him, "Run!" Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Plain, and outran the Cushite. 24 Now David was sitting between the two gates; and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate to the wall, and lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, a man running alone. 25 The watchman shouted and told the king. The king said, "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." He came closer and closer. 26 The watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, "Behold, a man running alone!" The king said, "He also brings news." 27 The watchman said, "I think the running of the first one is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." The king said, "He is a good man, and comes with good news." 28 Ahimaaz called, and said to the king, "All is well." He bowed himself before the king with his face to the earth, and said, "Blessed is the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king!" 29 The king said, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent the king's servant, even me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I don't know what it was." 30 The king said, "Come and stand here." He came and stood still. 31 Behold, the Cushite came. The Cushite said, "Good news for my lord the king, for the LORD has avenged you today of all those who rose up against you." 32 The king said to the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" The Cushite answered,

"May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise the son of Gera, the Benjamite, who was of Bahurim, room over the gate and wept. As he went, he said, "My died instead of you, Absalom, my son, my son!"

1 Q Joab was told, "Behold, the king weeps and mourns for Absalom." 2 The victory that day was turned into mourning amongst all the people, for the people heard it said that day, "The king grieves for his son." 3 The people sneaked into the city that day, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. 4 The king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, "My son Absalom, Absalom, my son, my son!" 5 Joab came into the house to the king, and said, "Today you have shamed the faces of all your servants who today have saved your life, and the lives of your sons and of your daughters, and the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines; 6 in that you love those who hate you and hate those who love you. For you have declared today that princes and servants are nothing to you. For today I perceive that if Absalom had lived and we had all died today, then it would have pleased you well. 7 Now therefore arise, go out and speak to comfort your servants; for I swear by the LORD, if you don't go out, not a man will stay with you this night. That would be worse to you than all the evil that has happened to you from your youth until now." 8 Then the king arose and sat in the gate. The people were all told, "Behold, the king is sitting in the gate." All the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled every man to his tent. 9 All the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he has fled out of the land from Absalom. 10 Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why don't you speak a word of bringing the king back?" 11 King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, 'Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the speech of all Israel has come to the king, to return him to his house? 12 You are my brothers. You are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?' 13 Say to Amasa, 'Aren't you my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you aren't captain of the army before me continually instead of Joab." 14 He bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as one man, so that they sent to the king, saying, "Return, you and all your servants." 15 So the king returned, and came to the Jordan. Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to bring the king over the Jordan. 16 Shimei up against you to do you harm, be as that young man hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet is." 33 The king was much moved, and went up to the King David. 17 There were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of Saul's house, and his son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! I wish I had fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went through the Jordan in the presence of the king. 18 A ferry boat went to bring over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king when he had come over the Jordan. 19 He said to the king, "Don't let my lord impute iniquity to me, or remember that which your servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. 20 For your servant knows that I have sinned. Therefore behold, I have come today as the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king." 21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered, "Shouldn't Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?" 22 David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be adversaries to me today? Shall any man be put to death today in Israel? For don't I know that I am king over Israel today?" 23 The king said to Shimei, "You will not die." The king swore to him. 24 Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither groomed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came home in peace. 25 When he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why didn't you go with me, Mephibosheth?" 26 He answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself, that I may ride on it and go with the king,' because your servant is lame. 27 He has slandered your servant to my lord the king, but my lord the king is as an angel of God. Therefore do what is good in your eyes. 28 For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king; yet you set your servant amongst those who ate at your own table. What right therefore have I yet that I should appeal any more to the king?" 29 The king said to him, "Why do you speak any more of your matters? I say, you and Ziba divide the land." 30 Mephibosheth said to the king, "Yes, let him take all, because my lord the king has come in peace to his own house." 31 Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim; and he went over the Jordan with the king to conduct him over the Jordan. 32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even eighty years old. He had provided the king with sustenance while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very great man. 33 The king said to Barzillai, "Come over with me, and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem." 34 Barzillai said to the king, "How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? 35 I am eighty. Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more years old, today. Can I discern between good and bad? harm than Absalom did. Take your lord's servants and Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I pursue after him, lest he get himself fortified cities, and hear the voice of singing men and singing women any escape out of our sight." 7 Joab's men went out after more? Why then should your servant be a burden to him with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the my lord the king? 36 Your servant will just go over the mighty men; and they went out of Jerusalem to pursue Jordan with the king. Why should the king repay me Sheba the son of Bichri. 8 When they were at the great with such a reward? 37 Please let your servant turn stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. back again, that I may die in my own city, by the grave Joab was clothed in his apparel of war that he had put of my father and my mother. But behold, your servant on, and on it was a sash with a sword fastened on his Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and waist in its sheath; and as he went along it fell out. 9 do to him what shall seem good to you." 38 The king Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" answered, "Chimham shall go over with me, and I will Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to do to him that which shall seem good to you. Whatever kiss him. 10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that you request of me, that I will do for you." 39 All the was in Joah's hand. So he struck him with it in the body people went over the Jordan, and the king went over, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and didn't strike Then the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him; and he him again; and he died. Joab and Abishai his brother returned to his own place. 40 So the king went over to pursued Sheba the son of Bichri. 11 One of Joab's Gilgal, and Chimham went over with him. All the people young men stood by him, and said, "He who favours of Judah brought the king over, and also half the people Joab, and he who is for David, let him follow Joab!" of Israel. 41 Behold, all the men of Israel came to the 12 Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of king, and said to the king, "Why have our brothers the highway. When the man saw that all the people men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king stood still, he carried Amasa out of the highway into the and his household, over the Jordan, and all David's men field, and cast a garment over him when he saw that with him?" 42 All the men of Judah answered the men everyone who came by him stood still. 13 When he was of Israel, "Because the king is a close relative to us. removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Why then are you angry about this matter? Have we Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri. 14 He went eaten at all at the king's cost? Or has he given us any through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, to Beth Maacah, gift?" 43 The men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and all the Berites. They were gathered together, and and said, "We have ten parts in the king, and we have went also after him. 15 They came and besieged him in also more claim to David than you. Why then did you Abel of Beth Maacah, and they cast up a mound against despise us, that our advice should not be first had in the city, and it stood against the rampart; and all the bringing back our king?" The words of the men of Judah people who were with Joab battered the wall to throw were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20 There happened to be there a wicked fellow, whose name was Sheba the son of Bichri, a Benjamite; and he blew the trumpet, and said, "We have no portion in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to his tents, Israel!" 2 So all the men of Israel went up from following David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah joined with their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem. 3 David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in custody and provided them with sustenance, but didn't go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood. 4 Then the king said to Amasa, "Call me the men of Judah together within three days, and be here present." 5 So Amasa went to call the men of Judah together, but he stayed longer than the set time which had been appointed to him. 6 David said to it down. 16 Then a wise woman cried out of the city, "Hear, hear! Please say to Joab, 'Come near here, that I may speak with you." 17 He came near to her; and the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Hear the words of your servant." He answered, "I'm listening." 18 Then she spoke, saying, "They used to say in old times, 'They shall surely ask counsel at Abel,' and so they settled a matter. 19 I am amongst those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the LORD's inheritance?" 20 Joab answered, "Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. 21 The matter is not so. But a man of the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, even against David. Just deliver him, and I will depart from the city." The woman said to Joab, "Behold, his head will be thrown to you over the wall." 22 Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. They cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out

21 There was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David sought the face of the LORD. The LORD said, "It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he put the Gibeonites to death." 2 The king called the Gibeonites and said to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites, and the children of Israel had sworn to them; and Saul sought to kill them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah); 3 and David said to the Gibeonites, "What should I do for you? And with what should I make atonement, that you may bless the LORD's inheritance?" 4 The Gibeonites said to him, "It is no matter of silver or gold between us and Saul or his house; neither is it for us to put any man to death in Israel." He said, "I will do for you whatever you say." 5 They said to the king, "The man who consumed us and who plotted against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the borders of Israel, 6 let seven men of his sons be delivered to us, and we will hang them up to the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of the LORD." The king said, "I will give them." 7 But the king spared Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was Saul. 8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the

to Joab. He blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones from the city, every man to his tent. Then Joab returned of Jonathan his son. They also gathered the bones of to Jerusalem to the king. 23 Now Joab was over all the those who were hanged. 14 They buried the bones of army of Israel, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in the Cherethites and over the Pelethites, 24 Adoram was Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father; and they performed over the men subject to forced labour, Jehoshaphat the all that the king commanded. After that, God answered son of Ahilud was the recorder, 25 Sheva was scribe, prayer for the land. 15 The Philistines had war again Zadok and Abiathar were priests, 26 and Ira the Jairite with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines. David grew faint; 16 and Ishbibenob, who was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of bronze in weight, he being armed with a new sword, thought he would kill David. 17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, "Don't go out with us to battle any more, so that you don't quench the lamp of Israel." 18 After this, there was again war with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was of the sons of the giant. 19 There was again war with the Philistines at Gob, and Elhanan the son of Jaare-Oregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite's brother, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. 20 There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on every hand and six toes on every foot, twenty-four in number, and he also was born to the giant. 21 When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David's brother, killed him. 22 These four were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

22 David spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him out of the between them, between David and Jonathan the son of hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul, 2 and he said: "The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and my deliverer, even mine; 3 God is my rock in whom I Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Merab the daughter take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai my high tower, and my refuge. My saviour, you save the Meholathite. 9 He delivered them into the hands of me from violence. 4 I call on the LORD, who is worthy the Gibeonites; and they hanged them on the mountain to be praised; So shall I be saved from my enemies. before the LORD, and all seven of them fell together. 5 For the waves of death surrounded me. The floods They were put to death in the days of harvest, in the of ungodliness made me afraid. 6 The cords of Sheol first days, at the beginning of barley harvest. 10 Rizpah were around me. The snares of death caught me. (Sheol the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for h7585) 7 In my distress, I called on the LORD. She allowed neither My cry came into his ears. 8 Then the earth shook and the birds of the sky to rest on them by day, nor the trembled. The foundations of heaven quaked and were animals of the field by night. 11 David was told what shaken, because he was angry. 9 Smoke went up out Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had of his nostrils. Consuming fire came out of his mouth. done. 12 So David went and took the bones of Saul and Coals were kindled by it. 10 He bowed the heavens the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh also, and came down. Thick darkness was under his Gilead, who had stolen them from the street of Beth feet. 11 He rode on a cherub, and flew. Yes, he was Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them in the seen on the wings of the wind. 12 He made darkness a day that the Philistines killed Saul in Gilboa; 13 and he shelter around himself, gathering of waters, and thick coals of fire were kindled. 14 The LORD thundered from to be the head of the nations. A people whom I have heaven. The Most High uttered his voice. 15 He sent not known will serve me. 45 The foreigners will submit out arrows and scattered them, lightning and confused themselves to me. As soon as they hear of me, they them. 16 Then the channels of the sea appeared. The will obey me. 46 The foreigners will fade away, and foundations of the world were laid bare by the LORD's will come trembling out of their close places. 47 The rebuke, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils. 17 He LORD lives! Blessed be my rock! Exalted be God, the sent from on high and he took me. He drew me out rock of my salvation, 48 even the God who executes of many waters. 18 He delivered me from my strong vengeance for me, who brings down peoples under me, enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too 49 who brings me away from my enemies. Yes, you mighty for me. 19 They came on me in the day of my lift me up above those who rise up against me. You calamity, but the LORD was my support. 20 He also deliver me from the violent man. 50 Therefore I will give brought me out into a large place. He delivered me, thanks to you, LORD, amongst the nations, and will sing because he delighted in me. 21 The LORD rewarded praises to your name. 51 He gives great deliverance to me according to my righteousness. He rewarded me his king, and shows loving kindness to his anointed, to according to the cleanness of my hands, 22 For I have David and to his offspring, forever more." kept the LORD's ways, and have not wickedly departed from my God. 23 For all his ordinances were before me. As for his statutes, I didn't depart from them. 24 I was also perfect towards him. I kept myself from my iniquity. 25 Therefore the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, According to my cleanness in his eyesight. 26 With the merciful you will show yourself merciful. With the perfect man you will show yourself perfect. 27 With the pure you will show yourself pure. With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd. 28 You will save the afflicted people, but your eyes are on the arrogant, that you may bring them down. 29 For you are my lamp, LORD. The LORD will light up my darkness. 30 For by you, I run against a troop. By my God, I leap over a wall. 31 As for God, his way is perfect. The LORD's word is tested. He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him. 32 For who is God. besides the LORD? Who is a rock, besides our God? 33 God is my strong fortress. He makes my way perfect. 34 He makes his feet like hinds' feet, and sets me on my high places. 35 He teaches my hands to war, so that my arms bend a bow of bronze. 36 You have also given me the shield of your salvation. Your gentleness has made me great. 37 You have enlarged my steps under me. My feet have not slipped. 38 I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them. I didn't turn again until they were consumed. 39 I have consumed them, and struck them through, so that they can't arise. Yes, they have fallen under my feet. 40 For you have armed me with strength for the battle. You have subdued under me those who rose up against me. 41 You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, that I might cut off those who hate me. 42 They looked, but there was no one to save; even to the LORD, but he didn't answer them. 43 Then I beat them as small as the dust of the earth. I crushed them as the mire of the streets. and spread them abroad. 44 You also have delivered clouds of the skies. 13 At the brightness before him, me from the strivings of my people. You have kept me

23 Now these are the last words of David. David the son of Jesse says, the man who was raised on high says, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the sweet psalmist of Israel: 2 "The LORD's Spirit spoke by me. His word was on my tongue. 3 The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spoke to me, 'One who rules over men righteously, who rules in the fear of God, 4 shall be as the light of the morning when the sun rises, a morning without clouds, when the tender grass springs out of the earth, through clear shining after rain.' 5 Isn't my house so with God? Yet he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure, for it is all my salvation and all my desire. Won't he make it grow? 6 But all the ungodly will be as thorns to be thrust away, because they can't be taken with the hand. 7 The man who touches them must be armed with iron and the staff of a spear. They will be utterly burnt with fire in their place." 8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb Basshebeth a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains; he was called Adino the Eznite, who killed eight hundred at one time. 9 After him was Eleazar the son of Dodai the son of an Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel had gone away. 10 He arose and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand froze to the sword; and the LORD worked a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to take plunder. 11 After him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite. The Philistines had gathered together into a troop where there was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the Philistines. 12 But he stood in the middle of the plot and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and the LORD worked a great victory. 13 Three of the thirty chief men went down, and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines was Ithrite, 39 and Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

24 Again the LORD's anger burnt against Israel, and he moved David against them, saying, "Go, count Israel and Judah." 2 The king said to Joab the captain of the army, who was with him, "Now go back and encamped in the valley of Rephaim. 14 David was then forth through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines Beersheba, and count the people, that I may know the was then in Bethlehem. 15 David said longingly, "Oh sum of the people." 3 Joab said to the king, "Now may that someone would give me water to drink from the LORD your God add to the people, however many well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!" 16 The three they may be, one hundred times; and may the eyes mighty men broke through the army of the Philistines, of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was king delight in this thing?" 4 Notwithstanding, the king's by the gate and took it and brought it to David; but he word prevailed against Joab and against the captains of would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD. the army. Joab and the captains of the army went out 17 He said, "Be it far from me, LORD, that I should do from the presence of the king to count the people of this! Isn't this the blood of the men who risked their Israel. 5 They passed over the Jordan and encamped in lives to go?" Therefore he would not drink it. The three Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of mighty men did these things. 18 Abishai, the brother the valley of Gad, and to Jazer; 6 then they came to of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the three. Gilead and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi; and they came He lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed to Dan Jaan and around to Sidon, 7 and came to the them, and had a name amongst the three. 19 Wasn't he stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites most honourable of the three? Therefore he was made and of the Canaanites; and they went out to the south their captain. However he wasn't included as one of the of Judah, at Beersheba. 8 So when they had gone back three. 20 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a and forth through all the land, they came to Jerusalem valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, at the end of nine months and twenty days. 9 Joab gave killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down up the sum of the counting of the people to the king; and killed a lion in the middle of a pit in a time of snow. and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant 21 He killed a huge Egyptian, and the Egyptian had a men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff five hundred thousand men. 10 David's heart struck and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and him after he had counted the people. David said to the killed him with his own spear. 22 Benaiah the son of LORD, "I have sinned greatly in that which I have done. Jehoiada did these things, and had a name amongst But now, the LORD, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of the three mighty men. 23 He was more honourable than your servant; for I have done very foolishly." 11 When the thirty, but he didn't attain to the three. David set him David rose up in the morning, the LORD's word came over his guard. 24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, 12 "Go and of the thirty: Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, 25 speak to David, 'The LORD says, "I offer you three Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite, 26 Helez things. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you."" the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, 27 Abiezer 13 So Gad came to David, and told him, saying, "Shall the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite, 28 Zalmon seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, 29 Heleb the will you flee three months before your foes while they son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai pursue you? Or shall there be three days' pestilence in of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, 30 Benaiah a your land? Now answer, and consider what answer I Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash. 31 Abialbon shall return to him who sent me." 14 David said to Gad, the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite, 32 Eliahba "I am in distress. Let us fall now into the LORD's hand, the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan, 33 for his mercies are great. Let me not fall into man's Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the hand." 15 So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel from Ararite. 34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the the morning even to the appointed time; and seventy Maacathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, thousand men died of the people from Dan even to 35 Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite, 36 Igal the Beersheba, 16 When the angel stretched out his hand son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite, 37 Zelek the towards Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented of Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armour bearers to the disaster, and said to the angel who destroyed the Joab the son of Zeruiah, 38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the people, "It is enough. Now withdraw your hand." The LORD's angel was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. 17 David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who struck the people, and said, "Behold, I have sinned, and I have done perversely; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand be against me, and against my father's house." 18 Gad came that day to David and said to him, "Go up, build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." 19 David went up according to the saying of Gad, as the LORD commanded. 20 Araunah looked out, and saw the king and his servants coming on towards him. Then Araunah went out and bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. 21 Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" David said, "To buy your threshing floor, to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be stopped from afflicting the people." 22 Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him. Behold, the cattle for the burnt offering, and the threshing sledges and the yokes of the oxen for the wood. 23 All this, O king, does Araunah give to the king." Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD your God accept you." 24 The king said to Araunah, "No, but I will most certainly buy it from you for a price. I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God which cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. 25 David built an altar to the LORD there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was entreated for the land, and the plague was removed from Israel.

1 Kings

1 Now King David was old and advanced in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he couldn't keep warm. 2 Therefore his servants said to him, "Let a young virgin be sought for my lord the king. Let her stand before the king, and cherish him; and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may keep warm." 3 So they sought for a beautiful young lady throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. 4 The young lady was very beautiful; and she cherished the king, and served him; but the king didn't know her intimately. 5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." Then he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. 6 His father had not displeased him at any time in saying, "Why have you done so?" and he was also a very handsome man; and he was born after Absalom. 7 He conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest; and they followed Adonijah and helped him. 8 But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. 9 Adonijah killed sheep, cattle, and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En Rogel; and he called all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants; 10 but he didn't call Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother. 11 Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Haven't you heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns, and David our lord doesn't know it? 12 Now therefore come, please let me give you counsel, that you may save your own life and your son Solomon's life. 13 Go in to King David, and tell him, 'Didn't you, my lord the king, swear to your servant, saying, "Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne"? Why then does Adonijah reign?' 14 Behold, while you are still talking there with the king, I will also come in after you and confirm your words." 15 Bathsheba went in to the king in his room. The king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king. 16 Bathsheba bowed and showed respect to the king. The king said, "What would you like?" 17 She said to him, "My lord, you swore by the LORD your God to your servant, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.' 18 Now, behold, Adonijah reigns; and you, my lord the king, don't know it. 19 He has slain cattle and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has called all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the army; but he hasn't called Solomon your servant. 20 You, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. 21 Otherwise it will happen, when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be considered criminals." 22 Behold, while she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in. 23 They told the king, saying, "Behold, Nathan the prophet!" When he had come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. 24 Nathan said, "My lord, King, have you said, 'Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne'? 25 For he has gone down today, and has slain cattle, fatlings, and sheep in abundance, and has called all the king's sons, the captains of the army, and Abiathar the priest. Behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!' 26 But he hasn't called me, even me your servant, Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon. 27 Was this thing done by my lord the king, and you haven't shown to your servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?" 28 Then King David answered, "Call Bathsheba in to me." She came into the king's presence and stood before the king. 29 The king vowed and said, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, 30 most certainly as I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place;' I will most certainly do this today." 31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth and showed respect to the king, and said, "Let my lord King David live forever!" 32 King David said, "Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." They came before the king. 33 The king said to them, "Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. 34 Let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel. Blow the trumpet, and say, 'Long live King Solomon!' 35 Then come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne; for he shall be king in my place. I have appointed him to be prince over Israel and over Judah." 36 Benaiah the son of Jehojada answered the king, and said, "Amen. May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say so. 37 As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David." 38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and brought him to Gihon. 39 Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the Tent, and anointed Solomon. They blew the trumpet; and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!" 40 All the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and he did to the two captains of the armies of Israel, to rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth shook with their Abner the son of Ner and to Amasa the son of Jether, sound. 41 Adonijah and all the guests who were with whom he killed, and shed the blood of war in peace, him heard it as they had finished eating. When Joab and put the blood of war on his sash that was around heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Why is this his waist and in his sandals that were on his feet. 6 Do noise of the city being in an uproar?" 42 While he yet therefore according to your wisdom, and don't let his spoke, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest grey head go down to Sheol in peace. She said, rose up, and each man went his way. 50 Adonijah was "Do you come peaceably?" He said, "Peaceably. 14 He afraid because of Solomon; and he arose, and went, said moreover, I have something to tell you." She said, and hung onto the horns of the altar. 51 Solomon was "Say on." 15 He said, "You know that the kingdom was told, "Behold, Adonijah fears King Solomon; for, behold, mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I he is hanging onto the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let should reign. However, the kingdom is turned around, King Solomon swear to me first that he will not kill his and has become my brother's; for it was his from the servant with the sword." 52 Solomon said, "If he shows LORD. 16 Now I ask one petition of you. Don't deny himself a worthy man, not a hair of his shall fall to the me." She said to him, "Say on." 17 He said, "Please earth; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die." 53 speak to Solomon the king (for he will not tell you 'no'), So King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from that he give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife." 18 the altar. He came and bowed down to King Solomon; Bathsheba said, "All right. I will speak for you to the and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

2 Now the days of David came near that he should die; and he commanded Solomon his son, saying, 2 "I am going the way of all the earth. You be strong therefore, and show yourself a man; 3 and keep the instruction of the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, his commandments, his ordinances, and his testimonies, according to that which is written in the law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn yourself. 4 Then the LORD may establish his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your children are careful of their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you,' he said, 'a man on the throne of Israel.' 5 "Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, even what king." 19 Bathsheba therefore went to King Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. The king rose up to meet her and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne and caused a throne to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand. 20 Then she said. "I ask one small petition of you; don't deny me." The king said to her, "Ask on, my mother, for I will not deny you," 21 She said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife." 22 King Solomon answered his mother, "Why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also, for he is my elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah." 23 Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life. 24 Now therefore on my father David's throne, and who has made me a that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had house as he promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to come again. 42 The king sent and called for Shimei, death today." 25 King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of and said to him, "Didn't I adjure you by the LORD and Jehoiada; and he fell on him, so that he died. 26 To warn you, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day you Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth, to go out and walk anywhere else, you shall surely die'? your own fields, for you are worthy of death. Joab fled to the forever." 46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son LORD's Tent, and held onto the horns of the altar, 29 of Jehojada; and he went out, and fell on him, so that King Solomon was told, "Joab has fled to the LORD's he died. The kingdom was established in the hand of Tent; and behold, he is by the altar." Then Solomon sent Solomon. Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, fall on him." 30 Benaiah came to the LORD's Tent, and said to him, "The king says, 'Come out!" He said, "No; but I will die here." Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, "This is what Joab said, and this is how he answered me." 31 The king said to him, "Do as he has said, and fall on him, and bury him, that you may take away the blood, which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father's house. 32 The LORD will return his blood on his own head, because he fell on two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, and my father David didn't know it: Abner the son of Ner, captain of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the army of Judah. 33 So their blood will return on the head of Joab and on the head of his offspring forever. But for David, for his offspring, for his house, and for his throne, there will be peace forever from the LORD." 34 Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell on him, and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. 35 The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army; and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar. 36 The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him. "Build vourself a house in Jerusalem. and live there, and don't go anywhere else. 37 For on the day you go out and pass over the brook Kidron, know for certain that you will surely die. Your blood will be on your own head." 38 Shimei said to the king, "What you say is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days. 39 At the end of three years, two of Shimei's slaves ran away to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. They told Shimei, saying, "Behold, your slaves are in Gath." 40 Shimei arose, saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his slaves; and Shimei went Solomon made a marriage alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt. He took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her into David's city until he had finished building his own house, the LORD's house, and the wall around Jerusalem. 2 However, the people sacrificed in the high places, because there was not yet a house built for the LORD's name. 3 Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father, except that he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. 4 The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. 5 In Gibeon, the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask for what I should give you." 6 Solomon said, "You have shown to your servant David my father great loving kindness, because he walked before you in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you. You have kept for him this great loving kindness, that you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is today. 7 Now, LORD my God, you have made your servant king instead of David my father. I am just a little child. I don't know how to go out or come in. 8 Your servant is amongst your people which you have chosen, a great people, that can't be numbered or counted for multitude. 9 Give your servant therefore an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this great people of yours?" 10 This request pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. 11 God said to him, "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life, nor have you asked for riches for yourself, nor have you asked for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice, 12 behold, I have done according to your word. Behold, I have given you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has for all who came to King Solomon's table, every man in his month. They let nothing be lacking. 28 They also brought barley and straw for the horses and swift steeds to the place where the officers were, each man according to his duty. 29 God gave Solomon abundant wisdom, understanding, and breadth of mind like the sand that is on the seashore. 30 Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east and all the wisdom of Egypt. 31 For he was wiser than all men-wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all cutters in the mountains. 16 besides Solomon's chief the nations all around. 32 He spoke three thousand officers who were over the work: three thousand and proverbs, and his songs numbered one thousand and three hundred who ruled over the people who laboured five. 33 He spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in in the work. 17 The king commanded, and they cut Lebanon even to the hyssop that grows out of the wall; out large stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of he also spoke of animals, of birds, of creeping things, the house with worked stone. 18 Solomon's builders and of fish. 34 People of all nations came to hear the and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites cut them, and wisdom of Solomon, sent by all kings of the earth who prepared the timber and the stones to build the house. had heard of his wisdom.

5 Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon. in the place of his father, and Hiram had always loved David. 2 Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, 3 "You know that David my father could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which were around him on every side, until the LORD put his enemies under the soles of his feet. 4 But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side. There is no enemy and no evil occurrence. 5 Behold, I intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to David my father, saying, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place shall build the house for my name.' 6 Now therefore command that cedar trees be cut for me out of Lebanon. My servants will be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants according to all that you say. For you know that there is nobody amongst us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians." 7 When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly, and said, "Blessed is the LORD today, who has given to David a wise son to rule over this great people." 8 Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, "I have heard the message which you have sent to me. I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning cypress timber. 9 My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea. I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the broken up there, and you will receive them. You will accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household." 10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar timber and cypress timber according to all his desire. 11 Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors of wheat for food to his household, and twenty cors of pure oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year. 12 The LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty together. 13 King Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. 14 He sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: for a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home; and Adoniram was over the men subject to bore burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone

6 In the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, he began to build the LORD's house. 2 The house which King Solomon built for the LORD had a length of sixty cubits, and its width twenty, and its height thirty cubits. 3 The porch in front of the temple of the house had a length of twenty cubits, which was along the width of the house. Ten cubits was its width in front of the house. 4 He made windows of fixed lattice work for the house. 5 Against the wall of the house, he built floors all around, against the walls of the house all around, both of the temple and of the inner sanctuary; and he made side rooms all around. 6 The lowest floor was five cubits wide, and the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for on the outside he made offsets in the wall of the house all around, that the beams should not be inserted into the walls of the house. 7 The house, when it was under construction, was built of stone prepared at the guarry; and no hammer or axe or any tool of iron was heard in the house while it was under construction. 8 The door for the middle side rooms was in the right side of the house. They went up by winding stairs into the middle floor, and out of the middle into the third. 9 So he built the house and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar. 10 He built the floors all along the house, each five cubits place that you specify to me, and will cause them to be high; and they rested on the house with timbers of cedar. 11 The LORD's word came to Solomon, saying, 12 "Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, and execute my ordinances, and keep all my commandments to walk in them, then I will establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father. 13 I will dwell amongst the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel." 14 So Solomon built the house and finished it. 15 He built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house to the walls of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood. He covered the floor of the house with cypress boards. 16 He built twenty cubits of the back part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the ceiling. He built this within, for an inner forced labour. 15 Solomon had seventy thousand who sanctuary, even for the most holy place. 17 In front of

The length of one in the LORD's house: the golden altar and the table base was four cubits, four cubits its width, and three that the show bread was on, of gold; 49 and the lamp cubits its height. 28 The work of the bases was like stands, five on the right side and five on the left, in front this: they had panels; and there were panels between of the inner sanctuary, of pure gold; and the flowers, the ledges; 29 and on the panels that were between the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; 50 the cups, the the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and on snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and the fire pans, of the ledges there was a pedestal above; and beneath pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work. 30 inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors Every base had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze; of the house, of the temple, of gold. 51 Thus all the and its four feet had supports. The supports were cast work that King Solomon did in the LORD's house was beneath the basin, with wreaths at the side of each. 31 finished. Solomon brought in the things which David Its opening within the capital and above was a cubit. Its his father had dedicated—the silver, the gold, and the opening was round like the work of a pedestal, a cubit vessels—and put them in the treasuries of the LORD's and a half; and also on its opening were engravings, house. and their panels were square, not round, 32 The four wheels were underneath the panels; and the axles of the wheels were in the base. The height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. 33 The work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel. Their axles, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all of cast metal. 34 There were four supports at the four corners of each base. Its supports were of the base itself. 35 In the top of the base there was a round band half a cubit high; and on the top of the base its supports and its panels were the same. 36 On the plates of its supports and on its panels, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, each in its space, with wreaths all around. 37 He made the ten bases in this way: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form. 38 He made ten basins of bronze. One basin contained forty baths. Every basin measured four cubits. One basin was on every one of the ten bases. 39 He set the bases, five on the right side of the house and five on the left side of the house. He set the sea on the right side of the house eastward and towards the south. 40 Hiram made the pots, the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram finished doing all the work that he worked for King Solomon in the LORD's house: 41 the two pillars; the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; 42 the four hundred pomegranates was finished. 23 He made the molten sea ten cubits for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for

8 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel with all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' households of the children of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD's covenant out of David's city, which is Zion. 2 All the men of Israel assembled themselves to King Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. 3 All the elders of Israel came, and the priests picked up the ark. 4 They brought up the LORD's ark, the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent. The priests and the Levites brought these up. 5 King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered for multitude. 6 The priests brought in the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, even under the cherubim's wings. 7 For the cherubim spread their wings out over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. 8 The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary, but they were not seen outside. They are there to this day. 9 There was nothing in the ark except the two stone tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. 10 It came to pass, when the priests had come out of the holy towards this house night and day, even towards the place, that the cloud filled the LORD's house, 11 so that place of which you have said, 'My name shall be there,' the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the to listen to the prayer which your servant prays towards cloud; for the LORD's glory filled the LORD's house. 12 this place. 30 Listen to the supplication of your servant, Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would and of your people Israel, when they pray towards this dwell in the thick darkness. 13 I have surely built you a place. Yes, you spoke with your mouth, and the children of men); 40 that they may fear you all the have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is today. 25 Now days that they live in the land which you gave to our therefore, may LORD, the God of Israel, keep with your fathers. 41 "Moreover, concerning the foreigner, who is servant David my father that which you have promised not of your people Israel, when he comes out of a far him, saying, 'There shall not fail from you a man in my country for your name's sake 42 (for they shall hear of sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children your great name and of your mighty hand and of your take heed to their way, to walk before me as you have outstretched arm), when he comes and prays towards walked before me.' 26 "Now therefore, God of Israel, this house, 43 hear in heaven, your dwelling place, and please let your word be verified, which you spoke to your do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that servant David my father. 27 But will God in very deed all the peoples of the earth may know your name, to fear dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of you, as do your people Israel, and that they may know heavens can't contain you; how much less this house that this house which I have built is called by your name. that I have built! 28 Yet have respect for the prayer of 44 "If your people go out to battle against their enemy, your servant and for his supplication, LORD my God, to by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant the LORD towards the city which you have chosen, and prays before you today; 29 that your eyes may be open towards the house which I have built for your name, 45 and maintain their cause. 46 If they sin against you (for offerings, which he offered to the LORD, twenty two there is no man who doesn't sin), and you are angry thousand head of cattle and one hundred and twenty with them and deliver them to the enemy, so that they thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of carry them away captive to the land of the enemy, far off Israel dedicated the LORD's house. 64 The same day or near; 47 yet if they repent in the land where they are the king made the middle of the court holy that was carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication before the LORD's house; for there he offered the burnt to you in the land of those who carried them captive, offering, the meal offering, and the fat of the peace saying, 'We have sinned and have done perversely; we offerings, because the bronze altar that was before the have dealt wickedly,' 48 if they return to you with all their LORD was too little to receive the burnt offering, the heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings. 65 So who carried them captive, and pray to you towards their Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with land which you gave to their fathers, the city which you him, a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to have chosen and the house which I have built for your the brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven name, 49 then hear their prayer and their supplication in days and seven more days, even fourteen days. 66 heaven, your dwelling place, and maintain their cause; On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they 50 and forgive your people who have sinned against blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad you, and all their transgressions in which they have in their hearts for all the goodness that the LORD had transgressed against you; and give them compassion shown to David his servant, and to Israel his people. before those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them 51 (for they are your people and your inheritance, which you brought out of Egypt, from the middle of the iron furnace); 52 that your eyes may be open to the supplication of your servant and to the supplication of your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they cry to you. 53 For you separated them from amongst all the peoples of the earth to be your inheritance, as you spoke by Moses your servant, when you brought our fathers out of Egypt, Lord GOD.' 54 It was so, that when Solomon had finished praying all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, he arose from before the LORD's altar, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread out towards heaven. 55 He stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying, 56 "Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised. There has not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by Moses his servant. 57 May the LORD our God be with us as he was with our fathers. Let him not leave us or forsake us, 58 that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, his statutes, and his ordinances, which he commanded our fathers. 59 Let these my words, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, that he may maintain the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel, as every day requires; 60 that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD himself is God. There is no one else. 61 "Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as it is today." 62 The king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the

 ${f g}$ When Solomon had finished the building of the LORD's house, the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do. 2 The LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. 3 The LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your supplication that you have made before me. I have made this house holy, which you have built, to put my name there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. 4 As for you, if you will walk before me as David your father walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances, 5 then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I promised to David your father, saying, 'There shall not fail from you a man on the throne of Israel.' 6 But if you turn away from following me, you or your children, and not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them, 7 then I will cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and I will cast this house, which I have made holy for my name, out of my sight; and Israel will be a proverb and a byword amongst all peoples. 8 Though this house is so high, yet everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss; and they will say, 'Why has the LORD done this to this land and to this house?' 9 and they will answer, 'Because they abandoned the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, and worshipped them, and served them. Therefore the LORD has brought all this evil on them." 10 At the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the LORD's house and the king's house 11 (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and cypress trees, and with the king which he didn't tell her. 4 When the gueen of gold, according to all his desire), King Solomon gave Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. 12 Hiram that he had built, 5 the food of his table, the sitting of his came out of Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had servants, the attendance of his officials, their clothing, given him; and they didn't please him. 13 He said, "What his cup bearers, and his ascent by which he went up to cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" the LORD's house, there was no more spirit in her. 6 He called them the land of Cabul to this day. 14 Hiram She said to the king, "It was a true report that I heard sent to the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold. in my own land of your acts and of your wisdom. 7 15 This is the reason of the forced labour which King However, I didn't believe the words until I came and my Solomon conscripted: to build the LORD's house, his eyes had seen it. She gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of and that which Solomon desired to build for his pleasure gold, and a very great quantity of spices, and precious in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his stones. Never again was there such an abundance of dominion. 20 As for all the people who were left of the spices as these which the gueen of Sheba gave to King Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Solomon. 11 The fleet of Hiram that brought gold from Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel— 21 Ophir also brought in from Ophir great quantities of their children who were left after them in the land, whom almug trees and precious stones. 12 The king made of the children of Israel were not able utterly to destroy—of the almug trees pillars for the LORD's house and for the them Solomon raised a levy of bondservants to this king's house, harps also and stringed instruments for day. 22 But of the children of Israel Solomon made the singers; no such almug trees came or were seen to no bondservants; but they were the men of war, his this day. 13 King Solomon gave to the gueen of Sheba servants, his princes, his captains, and rulers of his all her desire, whatever she asked, in addition to that chariots and of his horsemen. 23 These were the five which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she hundred and fifty chief officers who were over Solomon's turned and went to her own land, she and her servants. work, who ruled over the people who laboured in the 14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one work. 24 But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of David's year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 15 city to her house which Solomon had built for her. Then in addition to that which the traders brought, and the he built Millo. 25 Solomon offered burnt offerings and traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of the mixed peace offerings on the altar which he built to the LORD people, and of the governors of the country. 16 King three times per year, burning incense with them on the Solomon made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the six hundred shekels of gold went to one buckler. 17 He house. 26 King Solomon made a fleet of ships in Ezion made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas Geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red of gold went to one shield; and the king put them in the Sea, in the land of Edom. 27 Hiram sent in the fleet House of the Forest of Lebanon. 18 Moreover the king his servants, sailors who had knowledge of the sea, made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the with the servants of Solomon. 28 They came to Ophir, finest gold. 19 There were six steps to the throne, and and fetched from there gold, four hundred and twenty the top of the throne was round behind; and there were talents, and brought it to King Solomon.

10 When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the LORD's name, she came to test him with hard questions. 2 She came to Jerusalem with a very great caravan, with camels that bore spices, very much gold, and precious stones; and when she had come to Solomon, she talked with him about all that was in her heart. 3 Solomon answered all her questions. There wasn't anything hidden from armrests on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests. 20 Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps. Nothing like it was made in any kingdom. 21 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were of silver, because it was considered of little value in the days of Solomon. 22 For the king had a fleet of ships of Tarshish at sea with Hiram's fleet. Once every three years the fleet of David your father's sake; but I will tear it out of your Syria.

11 Now King Solomon loved many foreign women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh: women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites, 2 of the nations concerning which the LORD said to the children of Israel, "You shall not go amongst them, neither shall they come amongst you, for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods." Solomon joined to these in love. 3 He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines. His wives turned his heart away. 4 When Solomon was old, his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father was. 5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. 6 Solomon did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, and didn't go fully after the LORD, as David his father did. 7 Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the mountain that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon. 8 So he did for all his foreign wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed to their gods. 9 The LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, 10 and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he didn't keep that which the LORD commanded. 11 Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Because this is done by you, and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant. 12 Nevertheless, I will not do it in your days, for Tarshish came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and son's hand. 13 However, I will not tear away all the peacocks. 23 So King Solomon exceeded all the kings kingdom; but I will give one tribe to your son, for David of the earth in riches and in wisdom. 24 All the earth my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom have chosen." 14 The LORD raised up an adversary which God had put in his heart. 25 Year after year, every to Solomon: Hadad the Edomite. He was one of the man brought his tribute, vessels of silver, vessels of king's offspring in Edom. 15 For when David was in gold, clothing, armour, spices, horses, and mules. 26 Edom, and Joab the captain of the army had gone up Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen. He to bury the slain, and had struck every male in Edom had one thousand and four hundred chariots and twelve 16 (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, thousand horsemen. He kept them in the chariot cities until he had cut off every male in Edom), 17 Hadad and with the king at Jerusalem. 27 The king made silver fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants as common as stones in Jerusalem, and cedars as with him, to go into Egypt, when Hadad was still a common as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland. little child. 18 They arose out of Midian and came to 28 The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Paran; and they took men with them out of Paran, and Egypt. The king's merchants received them in droves, they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who each drove at a price. 29 A chariot was imported from gave him a house, and appointed him food, and gave Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for him land. 19 Hadad found great favour in the sight of one hundred and fifty shekels; and so they exported Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his them to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the gueen. 20 The sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house amongst the sons of Pharaoh. 21 When Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country." 22 Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that behold, you seek to go to your own country?" He answered, "Nothing, however only let me depart." 23 God raised up an adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord, Hadadezer king of Zobah. 24 He gathered men to himself, and became captain over a troop, when David killed them of Zobah. They went to Damascus and lived there, and reigned in Damascus. 25 He was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, in addition to the mischief of Hadad. He abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria. 26 Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also lifted up his hand against the king. 27 This was the reason why he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo. and repaired the breach of his father David's city. 28 The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon saw the young man that he was industrious, and he put him in charge of all the labour of the house of Joseph. 29 At that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the way. Now Ahijah had clad himself with a new garment; and the two of them were alone in the field. 30 Ahijah took the new garment that was on him, and tore it in twelve pieces. 31 He said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces; for the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and them, and answer them with good words, then they will give ten tribes to you 32 (but he shall have one will be your servants forever." 8 But he abandoned the tribe, for my servant David's sake and for Jerusalem's counsel of the old men which they had given him, and sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of took counsel with the young men who had grown up Israel), 33 because they have forsaken me, and have with him, who stood before him. 9 He said to them, worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, "What counsel do you give, that we may answer these Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke children of Ammon. They have not walked in my ways, that your father put on us lighter'?" 10 The young men to do that which is right in my eyes, and to keep my who had grown up with him said to him, "Tell these statutes and my ordinances, as David his father did. 34 people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made "However, I will not take the whole kingdom out of his our yoke heavy, but make it lighter to us'—tell them, my commandments and my statutes, 35 but I will take I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with even ten tribes. 36 I will give one tribe to his son, that Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the David my servant may have a lamp always before me in third day, as the king asked, saying, "Come to me again Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for myself to the third day." 13 The king answered the people roughly, put my name there. 37 I will take you, and you shall and abandoned the counsel of the old men which they be king over Israel. 38 It shall be, if you will listen to all counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made that I command you, and will walk in my ways, and do your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke. My father that which is right in my eyes, to keep my statutes and chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with my commandments, as David my servant did, that I will scorpions." 15 So the king didn't listen to the people; for be with you, and will build you a sure house, as I built it was a thing brought about from the LORD, that he Solomon sought to kill Jeroboam, but Jeroboam arose When all Israel saw that the king didn't listen to them, and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in the people answered the king, saying, "What portion Egypt until the death of Solomon. 41 Now the rest of the have we in David? We don't have an inheritance in the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, son of Jesse. To your tents, Israel! Now see to your own 42 The time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of all Israel was forty years. 43 Solomon slept with his Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. 18 Then King Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

12 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. 2 When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was yet in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon, and Jeroboam lived in Egypt; 3 and they sent and called him), Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came, and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, 4 "Your father made our yoke difficult. Now therefore make the hard service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you." 5 He said to them, "Depart for three days, then come back to me." So the people departed, 6 King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel do you give me to answer these people?" 7 They replied, "If you will be a servant to this people today, and will serve hand, but I will make him prince all the days of his life 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. 11 for David my servant's sake whom I chose, who kept Now my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, but the kingdom out of his son's hand and will give it to you, whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions." 12 So reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall had given him, 14 and spoke to them according to the for David, and will give Israel to you. 39 I will afflict the might establish his word, which the LORD spoke by offspring of David for this, but not forever." 40 Therefore Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. 16 aren't they written in the book of the acts of Solomon? house, David." So Israel departed to their tents. 17 But fathers, and was buried in his father David's city; and Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the men subject to forced labour; and all Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam hurried to get himself up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. 19 So Israel rebelled against David's house to this day. 20 When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel. There was no one who followed David's house, except for the tribe of Judah only. 21 When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. 22 But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 23 "Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying, 24 'The LORD says, "You shall not go up or fight against your brothers, the children of Israel. Everyone return to his house; for and became as it was before. 7 The king said to the Israel, and went up to the altar to burn incense.

13 Behold, a man of God came out of Judah by the LORD's word to Bethel; and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. 2 He cried against the altar by the LORD's word, and said, "Altar! Altar! The LORD says: 'Behold, a son will be born to David's house, Josiah by name. On you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and they will burn men's bones on you." 3 He gave a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: Behold, the altar will be split apart, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out." 4 When the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam put out his hand from the altar, saying, "Seize him!" His hand, which he put out against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back again to himself. 5 The altar was also split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the LORD's word. 6 The king answered the man of God, "Now intercede for the favour of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again." The man of God interceded with the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him again, this thing is from me."" So they listened to the LORD's man of God, "Come home with me and refresh yourself, word, and returned and went their way, according to the and I will give you a reward." 8 The man of God said to LORD's word. 25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the the king, "Even if you gave me half of your house, I hill country of Ephraim, and lived in it; and he went out would not go in with you, neither would I eat bread nor from there and built Penuel. 26 Jeroboam said in his drink water in this place; 9 for so was it commanded me heart, "Now the kingdom will return to David's house. 27 by the LORD's word, saying, 'You shall eat no bread, If this people goes up to offer sacrifices in the LORD's drink no water, and don't return by the way that you house at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will came." 10 So he went another way, and didn't return by turn again to their lord, even to Rehoboam king of the way that he came to Bethel. 11 Now an old prophet Judah; and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam lived in Bethel, and one of his sons came and told him king of Judah." 28 So the king took counsel, and made all the works that the man of God had done that day in two calves of gold; and he said to them, "It is too much Bethel. They also told their father the words which he for you to go up to Jerusalem. Look and behold your had spoken to the king. 12 Their father said to them, gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of "Which way did he go?" Now his sons had seen which Egypt!" 29 He set the one in Bethel, and the other he way the man of God went, who came from Judah. 13 He put in Dan. 30 This thing became a sin, for the people said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they went even as far as Dan to worship before the one saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it. 14 He there. 31 He made houses of high places, and made went after the man of God, and found him sitting under priests from amongst all the people, who were not of the an oak. He said to him, "Are you the man of God who sons of Levi. 32 Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth came from Judah?" He said, "I am." 15 Then he said to month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast him, "Come home with me and eat bread." 16 He said, that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar. He did so "I may not return with you, nor go in with you. I will not in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made, eat bread or drink water with you in this place. 17 For it and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places was said to me by the LORD's word, 'You shall eat no that he had made. 33 He went up to the altar which he bread or drink water there, and don't turn again to go by had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth the way that you came." 18 He said to him, "I also am a month, even in the month which he had devised of his prophet as you are; and an angel spoke to me by the own heart; and he ordained a feast for the children of LORD's word, saying, 'Bring him back with you into your house, that he may eat bread and drink water." He lied to him. 19 So he went back with him, ate bread in his house, and drank water. 20 As they sat at the table, the LORD's word came to the prophet who brought him back; 21 and he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, "The LORD says, 'Because you have been disobedient to the LORD's word, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you, 22 but came back, and have eaten bread and drank water in the place of which he said to you, "Eat no bread, and drink no water," your body will not come to the tomb of your fathers." 23 After he had eaten bread and after he drank, he saddled the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back. 24 When he had gone, a lion met him by the way and killed him. His body was thrown on the path, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the body. 25 Behold, men passed by and saw the body thrown on the path, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived. 26 When the prophet who brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, "It is the man of God who was disobedient to the LORD's word. Therefore the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has mauled him and slain him, according to the LORD's word which he Jeroboam everyone who urinates on a wall, he who is and to destroy it from off the surface of the earth.

1 1 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick. 2 Jeroboam said to his wife, "Please get up and disguise yourself, so that you won't be recognised as Jeroboam's wife. Go to Shiloh. Behold, Ahijah the prophet is there, who said that I would be king over this people. 3 Take with you ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will become of the child." 4 Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose and went to Shiloh, and came to Ahijah's house. Now Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were set by reason of his age. 5 The LORD said to Ahijah, "Behold, Jeroboam's wife is coming to enquire of you concerning her son, for he is sick. Tell her such and such; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman." 6 So when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the door, he said, "Come in, Jeroboam's wife! Why do you pretend to be another? For I am sent to you with heavy news. 7 Go, tell Jeroboam, 'The LORD, the God of Israel, says: "Because I exalted you from amongst the people, and made you prince over my people Israel, 8 and tore the kingdom away from David's house, and gave it to you; and yet you have not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in my eyes, 9 but have done evil above all who were before you, and have gone and made for yourself other gods. molten images, to provoke me to anger, and have cast me behind your back, 10 therefore, behold, I will bring evil on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from

The lion had not eat he who belongs to Jeroboam who dies in the city; eaten the body nor mauled the donkey. 29 The prophet and the birds of the sky will eat he who dies in the took up the body of the man of God, and laid it on the field, for the LORD has spoken it." 12 Arise therefore, donkey, and brought it back. He came to the city of the and go to your house. When your feet enter into the old prophet to mourn, and to bury him. 30 He laid his city, the child will die. 13 All Israel will mourn for him body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam will come to saying, "Alas, my brother!" 31 After he had buried him, the grave, because in him there is found some good he spoke to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, bury thing towards the LORD, the God of Israel, in the house me in the tomb in which the man of God is buried. Lay of Jeroboam. 14 Moreover the LORD will raise up a my bones beside his bones. 32 For the saying which he king for himself over Israel who will cut off the house cried by the LORD's word against the altar in Bethel, of Jeroboam. This is the day! What? Even now. 15 and against all the houses of the high places which are For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in in the cities of Samaria, will surely happen." 33 After this the water; and he will root up Israel out of this good thing, Jeroboam didn't turn from his evil way, but again land which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter made priests of the high places from amongst all the them beyond the River, because they have made their people. Whoever wanted to, he consecrated him, that Asherah poles, provoking the LORD to anger. 16 He will there might be priests of the high places. 34 This thing give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off he has sinned, and with which he has made Israel to sin." 17 Jeroboam's wife arose and departed, and came to Tirzah. As she came to the threshold of the house. the child died. 18 All Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to the LORD's word, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the prophet. 19 The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he fought and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. 20 The days which Jeroboam reigned were twenty two years; then he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place. 21 Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah, Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. 22 Judah did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their fathers had done. 23 For they also built for themselves high places, sacred pillars, and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree. 24 There were also sodomites in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD drove out before the children of Israel. 25 In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem; 26 and he took away the treasures of the LORD's house and the treasures of the king's house. He even took away all of it, including all the gold shields which Solomon had made. 27 King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the quard, who kept the door of the king's house. 28 It was so, that as often as Hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king Ammonitess. Abijam his son reigned in his place.

15 Now in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam began to reign over Judah. 2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. 3 He walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father. 4 Nevertheless for David's sake, the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him and to establish Jerusalem; 5 because David did that which was right in the LORD's eyes, and didn't turn away from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. 6 Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. 7 The rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. 8 Abijam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in David's city; and Asa his son reigned in his place. 9 In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa began to reign over Judah. 10 He reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. 11 Asa did that which was right in the LORD's eyes, as David his father did. 12 He put away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. 13 He also removed Maacah his mother from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah. Asa cut down her image and burnt it at the brook Kidron. 14 But the high places were not taken away. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with the LORD all his days. 15 He brought into the LORD's house the things that his father had dedicated, and the things that he himself had dedicated: silver, gold, and utensils. 16 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. 17 Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. 18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that was left in the treasures of the LORD's house, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered it into the hand of his servants. Then King Asa sent them to Ben

His mother's name was Naamah the and Dan, and Abel Beth Maacah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. 21 When Baasha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah, and lived in Tirzah. 22 Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah. No one was exempted. They carried away the stones of Ramah, and its timber, with which Baasha had built; and King Asa used it to build Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah. 23 Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. 24 Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in his father David's city; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place. 25 Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two years. 26 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. 27 Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were besieging Gibbethon. 28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha killed him and reigned in his place. 29 As soon as he was king, he struck all the house of Jeroboam. He didn't leave to Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite; 30 for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and with which he made Israel to sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger. 31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 32 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. 33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah for twenty-four years. 34 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

But there was rain. Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. 46 The LORD's no voice, and nobody answered. They leapt about the hand was on Elijah; and he tucked his cloak into his belt altar which was made. 27 At noon, Elijah mocked them, and said, "Cry aloud, for he is a god. Either he is deep in thought, or he has gone somewhere, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he sleeps and must be awakened." 28 They cried aloud, and cut themselves in their way with knives and lances until the blood gushed out on them. 29 When midday was past, they prophesied until the time of the evening offering; but there was no voice, no answer, and nobody paid attention. 30 Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me!"; and all the people came near to him. He repaired the LORD's altar that had been thrown down. 31 Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the LORD's word came, saying, "Israel shall be your name." 32 With the stones he built an altar in the LORD's name. He made a trench around the altar large enough to contain two seahs of seed. 33 He put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces and laid it on the wood. He said, "Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood." 34 He said, "Do it a second time;" and they did it the second time. He said, "Do it a third time;" and they did it the third time. 35 The water ran around the altar; and he also filled the trench with water. 36 At the time of the evening offering, Elijah the prophet came near and said, "LORD, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word. 37 Hear me, LORD, hear me, that this people may know that you, LORD, are God, and that you have turned their heart back again." 38 Then the LORD's fire fell and consumed the burnt offering, the wood, the stones, and the dust; and it licked up the water that was in the trench. 39 When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces. They said, "The LORD, he is God! The LORD, he is God!" 40 Eliiah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal! Don't let one of them escape!" They seized them: and Eliiah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and killed them there. 41 Elijah said to Ahab, "Get up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain." 42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down on the earth, and put his face between his knees. 43 He said to his servant, "Go up now and look towards the sea." He went up and looked, then said, "There is nothing." He said, "Go again" seven times. 44 On the seventh time, he said, "Behold, a small for yourselves, and dress it first, for you are many; and cloud, like a man's hand, is rising out of the sea." He and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

> $oldsymbol{19}$ Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. 2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I don't make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time!" 3 When he saw that, he arose and ran for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there. 4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree. Then he requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is enough. Now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers." 5 He lay down and slept under a juniper tree; and behold, an angel touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat!" 6 He looked, and behold, there was at his head a cake baked on the coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. 7 The LORD's angel came again the second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you." 8 He arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb, God's Mountain. 9 He came to a cave there, and camped there; and behold, the LORD's word came to him, and he said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" 10 He said, "I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of Armies; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away." 11 He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD." Behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD: but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake. 12 After the earthquake a fire passed; but the LORD was not in the fire. After the fire, there was a still small voice. 13 When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle, went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. Behold, a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" 14 He said, "I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of Armies: for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away." 15 The LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus.

When you arrive, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria. 13 Behold, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and served him.

2 Ben Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his army together; and there were thirty-two kings with him, with horses and chariots. He went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it. 2 He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel and said to him, "Ben Hadad says, 3 'Your silver and your gold are mine. Your wives also and your children, even the best, are mine." 4 The king of Israel answered, "It is according to your saying, my lord, O king. I am yours, and all that I have." 5 The messengers came again and said, "Ben Hadad says, 'I sent indeed to you, saying, "You shall deliver me your silver, your gold, your wives, and your children; 6 but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they will search your house and the houses of your servants. Whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they will put it in their hand, and take it away."" 7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said. "Please notice how this man seeks mischief: for he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I didn't deny him." 8 All the elders and all the people said to him, "Don't listen, and don't consent." 9 Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben Hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do, but this thing I cannot do." The messengers departed and brought him back the message. 10 Ben Hadad sent to him, and said, "The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria will be enough for handfuls for all the people who follow me." 11 The king of Israel answered, "Tell him, 'Don't let him who puts on his armour brag like he who takes it off." 12 When Ben Hadad heard this message as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, he said to his servants, "Prepare to attack!" So they prepared to attack the city.

16 Anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi to be king over Israel; and said, "The LORD says, 'Have you seen all this great and anoint Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand today. to be prophet in your place. 17 He who escapes from Then you will know that I am the LORD." 14 Ahab said, the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and he who escapes "By whom?" He said, "The LORD says, 'By the young from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill. 18 Yet I reserved men of the princes of the provinces." Then he said, seven thousand in Israel, all the knees of which have not "Who shall begin the battle?" He answered, "You." 15 bowed to Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed. Then he mustered the young men of the princes of the him." 19 So he departed from there and found Elisha the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two. son of Shaphat, who was ploughing with twelve yoke of After them, he mustered all the people, even all the oxen before him, and he with the twelfth. Elijah went children of Israel, being seven thousand. 16 They went over to him and put his mantle on him. 20 Elisha left the out at noon. But Ben Hadad was drinking himself drunk oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me please kiss in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." He who helped him. 17 The young men of the princes of said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to the provinces went out first; and Ben Hadad sent out, you?" 21 He returned from following him, and took the and they told him, saying, "Men are coming out from yoke of oxen, killed them, and boiled their meat with the Samaria." 18 He said, "If they have come out for peace, oxen's equipment, and gave to the people; and they ate. take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive." 19 So these went out of the city, the young men of the princes of the provinces, and the army which followed them. 20 They each killed his man. The Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them. Ben Hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with horsemen. 21 The king of Israel went out and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter. 22 The prophet came near to the king of Israel and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself, and plan what you must do, for at the return of the year, the king of Syria will come up against you." 23 The servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we. But let's fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than they. 24 Do this thing: take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their place. 25 Muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. We will fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than they are." He listened to their voice and did so. 26 At the return of the year, Ben Hadad mustered the Syrians and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel. 27 The children of Israel were mustered and given provisions, and went against them. The children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of young goats, but the Syrians filled the country. 28 A man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, "The LORD says, 'Because the Syrians have said, "The LORD is a god of the hills, but he is not a god of the valleys," therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD." 29 They encamped opposite each other for seven days. Then on the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed one hundred thousand footmen of the Syrians in one day. 30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on to his house sullen and angry, and came to Samaria.

21 After these things, Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which was in Jezreel, next to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. 2 Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near my house; and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money." 3 Naboth said to Ahab, "May the LORD forbid me, that twenty-seven thousand men who were left. Ben Hadad | Should give the inheritance of my fathers to you!" 4 fled and came into the city, into an inner room. 31 His Ahab came into his house sullen and angry because of servants said to him, "See now, we have heard that the the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let him, for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance us put sackcloth on our bodies and ropes on our heads, of my fathers." He laid himself down on his bed, and and go out to the king of Israel. Maybe he will save your turned away his face, and would eat no bread. 5 But life." 32 So they put sackcloth on their bodies and ropes Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, your spirit so sad that you eat no bread?" 6 He said to "Your servant Ben Hadad says, 'Please let me live." He her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother." 33 Now the said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, men observed diligently and hurried to take this phrase; if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for and they said, "Your brother Ben Hadad." Then he said, it.' He answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard." 7 "Go, bring him." Then Ben Hadad came out to him; and Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you now govern the he caused him to come up into the chariot. 34 Ben kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let your Hadad said to him, "The cities which my father took heart be merry. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth from your father I will restore. You shall make streets for the Jezreelite." 8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria." and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to "I", said Ahab, "will let you go with this covenant." So he the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, who made a covenant with him and let him go. 35 A certain lived with Naboth. 9 She wrote in the letters, saying, man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow by the "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high amongst the LORD's word, "Please strike me!" The man refused to people. 10 Set two men, wicked fellows, before him, strike him. 36 Then he said to him, "Because you have and let them testify against him, saying, 'You cursed not obeyed the LORD's voice, behold, as soon as you God and the king!' Then carry him out, and stone him have departed from me, a lion will kill you." As soon as to death." 11 The men of his city, even the elders and he had departed from him, a lion found him and killed the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had him. 37 Then he found another man, and said, "Please" instructed them in the letters which she had written and strike me." The man struck him and wounded him. 38 sent to them. 12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth So the prophet departed and waited for the king by the on high amongst the people. 13 The two men, the way, and disguised himself with his headband over his wicked fellows, came in and sat before him. The wicked eyes. 39 As the king passed by, he cried to the king, fellows testified against him, even against Naboth, in and he said, "Your servant went out into the middle of the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God the battle; and behold, a man came over and brought a and the king!" Then they carried him out of the city and man to me, and said, 'Guard this man! If by any means stoned him to death with stones. 14 Then they sent he is missing, then your life shall be for his life, or else to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is you shall pay a talent of silver.' 40 As your servant was dead." 15 When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been busy here and there, he was gone." The king of Israel stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take said to him, "So shall your judgement be. You yourself possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, have decided it." 41 He hurried, and took the headband which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognised not alive, but dead." 16 When Ahab heard that Naboth that he was one of the prophets. 42 He said to him, "The was dead, Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of LORD says, 'Because you have let go out of your hand Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it. 17 The the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore LORD's word came to Elijah the Tishbite, saving, 18 your life will take the place of his life, and your people "Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who dwells take the place of his people." 43 The king of Israel went in Samaria, Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth. where he has gone down to take possession of it. 19 You shall speak to him, saying, 'The LORD says, "Have you killed and also taken possession?" You shall speak to him, saying, 'The LORD says, "In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs will lick your blood, even yours."" 20 Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, my enemy?" He answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do that which is evil in the LORD's sight. 21 Behold, I will bring evil on you, and will utterly sweep you away and will cut off 12 All the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to on his house in his son's day."

22 They continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. 2 In the third year, Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. 3 The king of Israel said to his servants, "You know that Ramoth Gilead is ours, and we do nothing, and don't take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?" 4 He said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." 5 Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please enquire first for the LORD's word." 6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Should I go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or should I refrain?" They said, "Go up; for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king." 7 But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of the LORD, that we may enquire of him?" 8 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may enquire of the LORD, Micaiah the son of Imlah; but I hate him, for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil." Jehoshaphat said, "Don't let the king say so." 9 Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, "Quickly get Micaiah the son of Imlah." 10 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. 11 Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made himself horns of iron, and said, "The LORD says, 'With these you will push the Syrians, until they are consumed."

from Ahab everyone who urinates against a wall, and Ramoth Gilead and prosper; for the LORD will deliver him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel. it into the hand of the king." 13 The messenger who 22 I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "See now, the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. son of Ahijah, for the provocation with which you have Please let your word be like the word of one of them, provoked me to anger, and have made Israel to sin." 23 and speak good." 14 Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, The LORD also spoke of Jezebel, saying, "The dogs will what the LORD says to me, that I will speak." 15 When eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel. 24 The dogs will he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, eat he who dies of Ahab in the city; and the birds of the shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall we sky will eat he who dies in the field." 25 But there was forbear?" He answered him, "Go up and prosper; and no one like Ahab, who sold himself to do that which the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king." 16 The was evil in the LORD's sight, whom Jezebel his wife king said to him, "How many times do I have to adjure stirred up. 26 He did very abominably in following idols, you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the according to all that the Amorites did, whom the LORD LORD's name?" 17 He said, "I saw all Israel scattered cast out before the children of Israel. 27 When Ahab on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. heard those words, he tore his clothes, put sackcloth The LORD said, 'These have no master. Let them each on his body, fasted, lay in sackcloth, and went about return to his house in peace." 18 The king of Israel despondently. 28 The LORD's word came to Elijah the said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he would not Tishbite, saying, 29 "See how Ahab humbles himself prophesy good concerning me, but evil?" 19 Micaiah before me? Because he humbles himself before me, I said, "Therefore hear the LORD's word. I saw the LORD will not bring the evil in his days; but I will bring the evil sitting on his throne, and all the army of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. 20 The LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?' One said one thing, and another said another. 21 A spirit came out and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will entice him.' 22 The LORD said to him, 'How?' He said, 'I will go out and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' He said, 'You will entice him, and will also prevail. Go out and do so.' 23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and the LORD has spoken evil concerning you." 24 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the LORD's Spirit go from me to speak to you?" 25 Micaiah said, "Behold, you will see on that day when you go into an inner room to hide yourself." 26 The king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son. 27 Say, 'The king says, "Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace."" 28 Micaiah said, "If you return at all in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." He said, "Listen, all you people!" 29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. 30 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your robes." The king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle. 31 Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, "Don't fight with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel." 32 When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said,

"Surely that is the king of Israel!" and they came over to to sin. 53 He served Baal and worshipped him, and fight against him. Jehoshaphat cried out. 33 When the provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger in all captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of the ways that his father had done so. Israel, they turned back from pursuing him. 34 A certain

man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armour. Therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around, and carry me out of the battle, for I am severely wounded." 35 The battle increased that day. The king was propped up in his chariot facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot. 36 A cry went throughout the army about the going down of the sun, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his country!" 37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. 38 They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood where the prostitutes washed themselves, according to the LORD's word which he spoke. 39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 40 So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place. 41 Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. 42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. 43 He walked in all the way of Asa his father. He didn't turn away from it, doing that which was right in the LORD's eyes. However, the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burnt incense on the high places. 44 Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. 45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he fought, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 46 The remnant of the sodomites, that remained in the days of his father Asa, he put away out of the land. 47 There was no king in Edom. A deputy ruled. 48 Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they didn't go, for the ships wrecked at Ezion Geber. 49 Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat would not. 50 Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in his father David's city. Jehoram his son reigned in his place. 51 Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel. 52 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, in which he made Israel

1 Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. 2 Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper room that was in Samaria, and was sick. So he sent messengers, and said to them, "Go, enquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover of this sickness." 3 But the LORD's angel said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and tell them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you go to enquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? 4 Now therefore the LORD says, "You will not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but you will surely die."" Then Elijah departed. 5 The messengers returned to him, and he said to them, "Why is it that you have returned?" 6 They said to him, "A man came up to meet us, and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and tell him, "The LORD says, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you send to enquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but you will surely die."" 7 He said to them, "What kind of man was he who came up to meet you and told you these words?" 8 They answered him, "He was a hairy man, and wearing a leather belt around his waist." He said, "It's Elijah the Tishbite." 9 Then the king sent a captain of fifty with his fifty to him. He went up to him; and behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. He said to him, "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down!" 10 Elijah answered to the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from the sky and consume you and your fifty!" Then fire came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty. 11 Again he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. He answered him, "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down quickly!" 12 Elijah answered them, "If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from the sky and consume you and your fifty!" Then God's fire came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty. 13 Again he sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. The third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, "Man of God, please let my life and the life of these fifty of your servants be precious in your sight. 14 Behold, fire came down from the sky and consumed the last two captains of fifty with their fifties. But now let my life be precious in your sight." 15 The LORD's angel said to Elijah, "Go down with him. Don't be afraid of him." Then he arose and went down with him to the king. 16 He said to him, "The LORD says, 'Because you have sent messengers to enquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to enquire of his word? Therefore you will not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but you will surely die." 17 So he died according to the LORD's word which Elijah had spoken. Jehoram began to reign in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, because he had no son. 18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 When the LORD was about to take Elijah up by a whirlwind into heaven, Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. 2 Elijah said to Elisha, "Please wait here, for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel." Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel. 3 The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?" He said, "Yes, I know it. Hold your peace." 4 Elijah said to him, "Elisha, please wait here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho." He said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho. 5 The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?" He answered, "Yes, I know it. Hold your peace." 6 Elijah said to him, "Please wait here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." He said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." Then they both went on. 7 Fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood opposite them at a distance; and they both stood by the Jordan. 8 Elijah took his mantle, and rolled it up, and struck the waters; and they were divided here and there, so that they both went over on dry ground. 9 When they had gone over, Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you." Elisha said, "Please let a double portion of your spirit be on me." 10 He said, "You have asked a hard thing. If you see me when I am taken from you, it will be so for you; but if not, it will not be so." 11 As they continued on and talked, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated them; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. 12 Elisha saw it, and he cried, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" He saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own clothes and tore them in two pieces. 13 He also took up Elijah's mantle that fell from him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan. 14 He took Elijah's mantle that fell from him, and struck the waters, and said, "Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" When he also had struck the waters, they were divided apart, and Elisha went over. 15 When the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho facing him saw him, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." They came to meet him, and water for the army or for the animals that followed them. you, 'Don't go'?" 19 The men of the city said to Elisha, have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father, up from there to Bethel. As he was going up by the way, this valley full of trenches.' 17 For the LORD says, returned to Samaria.

3 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. 2 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, but not like his father and like his mother, for he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made. 3 Nevertheless he held to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. He didn't depart from them. 4 Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder; and he supplied the king of Israel with one hundred thousand lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams. 5 But when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. 6 King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel. 7 He went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me against Moab to battle?" He said, "I will go up. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." 8 Then he said, "Which way shall we go up?" Jehoram answered, "The way of the wilderness of Edom." 9 So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom, and they marched for seven days along a circuitous route. There was no

He said, the LORD by him?" One of the king of Israel's servants "Don't send them." 17 When they urged him until he answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured was ashamed, he said, "Send them." Therefore they water on the hands of Elijah, is here." 12 Jehoshaphat sent fifty men; and they searched for three days, but said, "The LORD's word is with him." So the king of didn't find him. 18 They came back to him while he Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went stayed at Jericho; and he said to them, "Didn't I tell down to him. 13 Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What "Behold, please, the situation of this city is pleasant, and to the prophets of your mother." The king of Israel as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land said to him, "No, for the LORD has called these three is barren." 20 He said, "Bring me a new jar, and put kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab." salt in it." Then they brought it to him. 21 He went out 14 Elisha said, "As the LORD of Armies lives, before to the spring of the waters, and threw salt into it, and whom I stand, surely, were it not that I respect the said, "The LORD says, 'I have healed these waters. presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not There shall not be from there any more death or barren look towards you, nor see you. 15 But now bring me wasteland." 22 So the waters were healed to this day, a musician." When the musician played, the LORD's according to Elisha's word which he spoke. 23 He went hand came on him. 16 He said, "The LORD says, 'Make some youths came out of the city and mocked him, and 'You will not see wind, neither will you see rain, yet said to him, "Go up, you baldy! Then two female bears came out 18 This is an easy thing in the LORD's sight. He will of the woods and mauled forty-two of those youths. 25 also deliver the Moabites into your hand. 19 You shall He went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he strike every fortified city and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones." 20 In the morning, about the time of offering the sacrifice, behold, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water. 21 Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armour, young and old, and stood on the border. 22 They rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water opposite them as red as blood. 23 They said, "This is blood. The kings are surely destroyed, and they have struck each other. Now therefore, Moab, to the plunder!" 24 When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land attacking the Moabites. 25 They beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land each man cast his stone, and filled it. They also stopped all the springs of water and cut down all the good trees, until in Kir Hareseth all they left was its stones; however the men armed with slings went around it and attacked it. 26 When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew a sword, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not.

27 Then he took his oldest son who would have reigned on the man of God's bed, and shut the door on him, wall. There was great wrath against Israel; and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

⚠ Now a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead. You know that your servant feared the LORD. Now the creditor has come to take for himself my two children to be slaves." 2 Elisha said to her, "What should I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" She said, "Your servant has nothing in the house, except a pot of oil." 3 Then he said, "Go, borrow empty containers from all your neighbours. Don't borrow just a few containers. 4 Go in and shut the door on you and on your sons, and pour oil into all those containers; and set aside those which are full." 5 So she went from him, and shut the door on herself and on her sons. They brought the containers to her, and she poured oil. 6 When the containers were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another container." He said to her, "There isn't another container." Then the oil stopped flowing. 7 Then she came and told the man of God. He said, "Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest." 8 One day Elisha went to Shunem, where there was a prominent woman; and she persuaded him to eat bread. So it was, that as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat bread. 9 She said to her husband, "See now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God who passes by us continually. 10 Please, let's make a little room on the roof. Let's set a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp stand for him there. When he comes to us, he can stay there." 11 One day he came there, and he went to the room and lay there. 12 He said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite." When he had called her, she stood before him. 13 He said to him, "Say now to her, 'Behold, you have cared for us with all this care. What is to be done for you? Would you like to be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the army?" She answered, "I dwell amongst my own people." 14 He said, "What then is to be done for her?" Gehazi answered, "Most certainly she has no son, and her husband is old." 15 He said, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood in the door. 16 He said, "At this season next year, you will embrace a son." She said, "No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your servant." 17 The woman conceived, and bore a son at that season when the time came around, as Elisha had said to her. 18 When the child was grown, one day he went out to his father to the reapers. 19 He said to his father, "My head! My head!" He said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother." 20 When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees until noon, and then died. 21 She went up and laid him in his place, and offered him for a burnt offering on the and went out. 22 She called to her husband and said, "Please send me one of the servants, and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and come again." 23 He said, "Why would you want to go to him today? It is not a new moon or a Sabbath." She said, "It's all right." 24 Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, "Drive, and go forward! Don't slow down for me, unless I ask you to." 25 So she went, and came to the man of God to Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her afar off, he said to Gehazi his servant, "Behold, there is the Shunammite. 26 Please run now to meet her, and ask her, 'Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with your child?" She answered, "It is well." 27 When she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to thrust her away; but the man of God said, "Leave her alone, for her soul is troubled within her; and the LORD has hidden it from me, and has not told me." 28 Then she said, "Did I ask you for a son, my lord? Didn't I say, 'Do not deceive me'?" 29 Then he said to Gehazi, "Tuck your cloak into your belt, take my staff in your hand, and go your way. If you meet any man, don't greet him; and if anyone greets you, don't answer him again. Then lay my staff on the child's face." 30 The child's mother said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." So he arose, and followed her. 31 Gehazi went ahead of them, and laid the staff on the child's face; but there was no voice and no hearing. Therefore he returned to meet him, and told him, "The child has not awakened." 32 When Elisha had come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and lying on his bed. 33 He went in therefore, and shut the door on them both, and prayed to the LORD. 34 He went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. He stretched himself on him; and the child's flesh grew warm. 35 Then he returned, and walked in the house once back and forth, then went up and stretched himself out on him. Then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. 36 He called Gehazi, and said, "Call this Shunammite!" So he called her. When she had come in to him, he said, "Take up your son." 37 Then she went in, fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground; then she picked up her son, and went out. 38 Elisha came again to Gilgal. There was a famine in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his servant, "Get the large pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets." 39 One went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered a lap full of wild gourds from it, and came and cut them up into the pot of stew; for they didn't recognise them. 40 So they poured out for the men to eat. As they were eating So he turned and went away in a rage, 13 His servants some left over, according to the LORD's word.

Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria; he was also a mighty man of valour, but he was a leper. 2 The Syrians had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little girl, and she waited on Naaman's wife. 3 She said to her mistress, "I wish that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would heal him of his leprosy." 4 Someone went in and told his lord, saying, "The girl who is from the land of Israel said this." 5 The king of Svria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." He departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothing. 6 He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, "Now when this letter has come to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy." 7 When the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me to heal a man of his leprosy? But please consider and see how he seeks a guarrel against me." 8 It was so, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel." 9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. 10 Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come again to you, and you shall be clean." 11 But Naaman was angry, and went away and said, "Behold, I thought, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leper.' 12 Aren't Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Couldn't I wash in them and be clean?"

some of the stew, they cried out and said, "Man of God, came near and spoke to him, and said, "My father, if the there is death in the pot!" And they could not eat it. 41 prophet had asked you do some great thing, wouldn't But he said, "Then bring meal." He threw it into the pot; you have done it? How much rather then, when he and he said, "Serve it to the people, that they may eat." says to you, 'Wash, and be clean'?" 14 Then went he And there was nothing harmful in the pot. 42 A man down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, from Baal Shalishah came, and brought the man of God according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh some bread of the first fruits: twenty loaves of barley was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, "Give clean. 15 He returned to the man of God, he and all his to the people, that they may eat." 43 His servant said, company, and came, and stood before him; and he said, "What, should I set this before a hundred men?" But "See now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, he said, "Give it to the people, that they may eat; for but in Israel. Now therefore, please take a gift from your the LORD says, 'They will eat, and will have some left servant." 16 But he said, "As the LORD lives, before over." 44 So he set it before them and they ate and had whom I stand, I will receive none." He urged him to take it; but he refused. 17 Naaman said, "If not, then, please let two mules' load of earth be given to your servant; for your servant will from now on offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD. 18 In this thing may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon. When I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD pardon your servant in this thing." 19 He said to him, "Go in peace." So he departed from him a little way. 20 But Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, "Behold, my master has spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him, and take something from him." 21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?" 22 He said, "All is well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Behold, even now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing." 23 Naaman said, "Be pleased to take two talents." He urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and laid them on two of his servants; and they carried them before him. 24 When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and stored them in the house. Then he let the men go, and they departed. 25 But he went in, and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, "Where did you come from, Gehazi?" He said, "Your servant went nowhere." 26 He said to him, "Didn't my heart go with you when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive groves and vineyards, and sheep and cattle, and male servants and female servants? 27 Therefore the leprosy of Naaman will cling to you and to your offspring forever." He went out from his presence a leper, as white as snow.

small for us. 2 Please let us go to the Jordan, and each bread and water before them, that they may eat and man take a beam from there, and let's make us a place drink, then go to their master." 23 He prepared a great there, where we may live." He answered, "Go!" 3 One feast for them. After they ate and drank, he sent them said, "Please be pleased to go with your servants." He away and they went to their master. So the bands of answered, "I will go." 4 So he went with them. When Syria stopped raiding the land of Israel. 24 After this, they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood. 5 But as Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his army, and went one was cutting down a tree, the axe head fell into the up and besieged Samaria. 25 There was a great famine water. Then he cried out and said, "Alas, my master! in Samaria. Behold, they besieged it until a donkey's For it was borrowed." 6 The man of God asked, "Where head was sold for eighty pieces of silver, and the fourth did it fall?" He showed him the place. He cut down a part of a kab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver. stick, threw it in there, and made the iron float. 7 He 26 As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a said, "Take it." So he put out his hand and took it. 8 woman cried to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king!" 27 Now the king of Syria was at war against Israel; and He said, "If the LORD doesn't help you, where could he took counsel with his servants, saying, "My camp I get help for you? From the threshing floor, or from will be in such and such a place." 9 The man of God the wine press?" 28 Then the king asked her, "What is sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Beware that you your problem?" She answered, "This woman said to not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and there." 10 The king of Israel sent to the place which we will eat my son tomorrow.' 29 So we boiled my son the man of God told him and warned him of; and he and ate him; and I said to her on the next day, 'Give up saved himself there, not once or twice. 11 The king of your son, that we may eat him;' and she has hidden her Syria's heart was very troubled about this. He called son." 30 When the king heard the words of the woman, his servants, and said to them, "Won't you show me he tore his clothes. Now he was passing by on the wall, which of us is for the king of Israel?" 12 One of his and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth servants said, "No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the underneath on his body. 31 Then he said, "God do so prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of that you speak in your bedroom." 13 He said, "Go and Shaphat stays on him today." 32 But Elisha was sitting see where he is, that I may send and get him." He was in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Then told, "Behold, he is in Dothan." 14 Therefore he sent the king sent a man from before him; but before the horses, chariots, and a great army there. They came by messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you night and surrounded the city. 15 When the servant of see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away the man of God had risen early and gone out, behold, my head? What shall we sound of his master's feet behind him?" 33 While he do?" 16 He answered, "Don't be afraid, for those who was still talking with them, behold, the messenger came are with us are more than those who are with them." 17 down to him. Then he said, "Behold, this evil is from the Elisha prayed, and said, "LORD, please open his eyes, LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?" that he may see." the LORD opened the young man's eyes, and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire around Elisha. 18 When they came down to him. Elisha prayed to the LORD. and said, "Please strike this people with blindness." He struck them with blindness according to Elisha's word. 19 Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." He led them to Samaria. 20 When they had come into Samaria, Elisha said, "LORD, open these men's eyes, that they may see." The LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the middle of Samaria. 21 The king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, "My father, shall I strike them? Shall I strike them?" 22 He answered, "You shall

> 7 Elisha said, "Hear the LORD's word. The LORD says, 'Tomorrow about this time a seah of fine flour will be sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria." 2 Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, "Behold, if the LORD made windows in heaven, could this thing be?" He said, "Behold, you will see it with your eyes, but will not eat of it." 3 Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate. They said to one another, "Why do we sit here until we die? 4 If we say, 'We will enter into the city,' then the famine is in the city, and we will die there. If we sit still here, we also die. Now therefore come, and let's surrender to the army of the Syrians. If they save us alive, we will live; and if they kill us, we will only die." 5 They rose up in the come to the outermost part of the camp of the Syrians, man of God, and said, "Now, behold, if the LORD made behold, no man was there, 6 For the Lord had made the windows in heaven, might such a thing be?" and he army of the Syrians to hear the sound of chariots and the sound of horses, even the noise of a great army; and they said to one another, "Behold, the king of Israel trampled over him in the gate, and he died. has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to attack us." 7 Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, their horses, and their donkeys, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life. 8 When these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drank, then carried away silver, gold, and clothing and went and hid it. Then they came back, and entered into another tent and carried things from there also, and went and hid them. 9 Then they said to one another, "We aren't doing right. Today is a day of good news, and we keep silent. If we wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now therefore come, let's go and tell the king's household." 10 So they came and called to the city gatekeepers; and they told them, "We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, not even a man's voice, but the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were." 11 Then the gatekeepers called out and told it to the king's household within. 12 The king arose in the night, and said to his servants, "I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry. Therefore they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city." 13 One of his servants answered "Please let some people take five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city. Behold, they are like all the multitude of Israel who are left in it. Behold, they are like all the multitude of Israel who are consumed. Let's send and see." 14 Therefore they took two chariots with horses; and the king sent them out to the Syrian army, saying, "Go and see." 15 They went after them to the Jordan; and behold, all the path was full of garments and equipment which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. The messengers returned and told the king. 16 The people went out and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a seah of fine flour was sold for a shekel. and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the LORD's word. 17 The king had appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to be in charge of the gate; and the people trampled over him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. 18 It happened as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Two seahs of barley for a shekel, and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow about this time in the twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians. When they had gate of Samaria:" 19 and that captain answered the said, "Behold, you will see it with your eyes, but will not eat of it." 20 It happened like that to him, for the people

> 8 Now Elisha had spoken to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise, and go, you and your household, and stay for a while wherever you can; for the LORD has called for a famine. It will also come on the land for seven years." 2 The woman arose, and did according to the man of God's word. She went with her household, and lived in the land of the Philistines for seven years. 3 At the end of seven years, the woman returned from the land of the Philistines. Then she went out to beg the king for her house and for her land. 4 Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, "Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done." 5 As he was telling the king how he had restored to life him who was dead, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life begged the king for her house and for her land. Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life." 6 When the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now." 7 Elisha came to Damascus; and Benhadad the king of Syria was sick. He was told, "The man of God has come here." 8 The king said to Hazael, "Take a present in your hand, and go meet the man of God, and enquire of the LORD by him, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?" 9 So Hazael went to meet him and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him and said, "Your son Benhadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saving, 'Will I recover from this sickness?" 10 Elisha said to him, "Go, tell him. 'You will surely recover:' however the LORD has shown me that he will surely die." 11 He settled his gaze steadfastly on him, until he was ashamed. Then the man of God wept. 12 Hazael said, "Why do you weep, my lord?" He answered. "Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel. You will set their strongholds on fire, and you will kill their young men with the sword, and will dash their little ones in pieces, and rip up their pregnant women." 13 Hazael said, "But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that he could do this great thing?" Elisha answered, "The LORD has shown me that you will be king over Syria." 14 Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" He answered, "He told me that you would surely recover." 15 On the next day, he took a thick cloth, dipped it in water, captains of the army were sitting. Then he said, "I have was sick.

Q Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, "Put your belt on your waist, take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead. 2 When you come there, find Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in and make him rise up from amongst his brothers, and take him to an inner room. 3 Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'The LORD says, "I have anointed you king over Israel." Then open the door, flee, and don't wait." 4 So the young man, the young prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead. 5 When he came, behold, the

and spread it on the king's face, so that he died. Then a message for you, captain." Jehu said, "To which one Hazael reigned in his place. 16 In the fifth year of Joram of us?" He said, "To you, O captain." 6 He arose, and the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being king went into the house. Then he poured the oil on his head, of Judah then, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king and said to him, "The LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'I of Judah began to reign. 17 He was thirty-two years have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, old when he began to reign. He reigned eight years even over Israel. 7 You must strike your master Ahab's in Jerusalem. 18 He walked in the way of the kings house, that I may avenge the blood of my servants of Israel, as did Ahab's house, for he married Ahab's the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the daughter. He did that which was evil in the LORD's LORD, at the hand of Jezebel. 8 For the whole house sight. 19 However, the LORD would not destroy Judah, of Ahab will perish. I will cut off from Ahab everyone for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give who urinates against a wall, both him who is shut up to him a lamp for his children always. 20 In his days and him who is left at large in Israel. 9 I will make Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made Ahab's house like the house of Jeroboam the son of a king over themselves. 21 Then Joram crossed over Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. to Zair, and all his chariots with him; and he rose up 10 The dogs will eat Jezebel on the plot of ground of by night and struck the Edomites who surrounded him Jezreel, and there shall be no one to bury her." Then with the captains of the chariots; and the people fled to he opened the door and fled. 11 When Jehu came out their tents. 22 So Edom revolted from under the hand of to the servants of his lord and one said to him, "Is all Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same well? Why did this madman come to you?" He said to time. 23 The rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he them, "You know the man and how he talks." 12 They did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of said, "That is a lie. Tell us now." He said, "He said to the kings of Judah? 24 Joram slept with his fathers, and me, 'The LORD says, I have anointed you king over was buried with his fathers in David's city; and Ahaziah Israel." 13 Then they hurried, and each man took his his son reigned in his place. 25 In the twelfth year of cloak, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son blew the trumpet, saying, "Jehu is king." 14 So Jehu of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign. 26 Ahaziah the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and against Joram. (Now Joram was defending Ramoth he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel. 27 He Syria; 15 but King Joram had returned to be healed walked in the way of Ahab's house and did that which in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given was evil in the LORD's sight, as did Ahab's house, for him when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) Jehu he was the son-in-law of Ahab's house. 28 He went said, "If this is your thinking, then let no one escape with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king and go out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel." 16 So of Syria at Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram Joram. 29 King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel lay there. Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see from the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Joram. 17 Now the watchman was standing on the tower Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down came, and said, "I see a company." Joram said, "Take a to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?" 18 So one went on horseback to meet him, and said, "the king says, 'Is it peace?" Jehu said, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me!" The watchman said, "The messenger came to them, but he isn't coming back." 19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them and said, "The king says, 'Is it peace?" Jehu answered, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me!" 20 The watchman said, "He came to them, and isn't coming back. The driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously." 21 Joram said, "Get ready!" They got his chariot ready. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot; and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him on Naboth master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight the Jezreelite's land. 22 When Joram saw Jehu, he for your master's house." 4 But they were exceedingly said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" He answered, "What peace, afraid, and said, "Behold, the two kings didn't stand so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and before him! How then shall we stand?" 5 He who was her witchcraft abound?" 23 Joram turned his hands and over the household, and he who was over the city, the fled, and said to Ahaziah, "This is treason, Ahaziah!" elders also, and those who raised the children, sent to 24 Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and struck Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, and will do all that Joram between his arms; and the arrow went out at you ask us. We will not make any man king. You do that his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot. 25 Then which is good in your eyes." 6 Then he wrote a letter the Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, "Pick him up, and throw second time to them, saying, "If you are on my side, and him in the plot of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for if you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men remember how, when you and I rode together after Ahab who are your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel his father, the LORD laid this burden on him: 26 'Surely by tomorrow this time." Now the king's sons, being I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, blood of his sons,' says the LORD; 'and I will repay you who brought them up. 7 When the letter came to them, in this plot of ground,' says the LORD. Now therefore they took the king's sons and killed them, even seventy take and cast him onto the plot of ground, according to people, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them the LORD's word." 27 But when Ahaziah the king of to him to Jezreel. 8 A messenger came and told him, Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. "They have brought the heads of the king's sons." He Jehu followed after him, and said, "Strike him also in the said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate chariot!" They struck him at the ascent of Gur, which until the morning." 9 In the morning, he went out and is by Ibleam. He fled to Megiddo, and died there. 28 stood, and said to all the people, "You are righteous. His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and Behold, I conspired against my master and killed him, buried him in his tomb with his fathers in David's city. 29 but who killed all these? 10 Know now that nothing will In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah fall to the earth of the LORD's word, which the LORD began to reign over Judah. 30 When Jehu had come to spoke concerning Ahab's house. For the LORD has Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, done that which he spoke by his servant Elijah." 11 and adorned her head, and looked out at the window. So Jehu struck all that remained of Ahab's house in 31 As Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, "Do you Jezreel, with all his great men, his familiar friends, and come in peace, Zimri, you murderer of your master?" 32 his priests, until he left him no one remaining. 12 He He lifted up his face to the window, and said, "Who is on arose and departed, and went to Samaria. As he was at my side? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked out at the shearing house of the shepherds on the way, 13 him. 33 He said, "Throw her down!" So they threw her Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and said, "Who are you?" They answered, "We are the and on the horses. Then he trampled her under foot. brothers of Ahaziah. We are going down to greet the 34 When he had come in, he ate and drank. Then he children of the king and the children of the gueen." 14 said, "See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for He said, "Take them alive!" They took them alive, and she is a king's daughter." 35 They went to bury her, but killed them at the pit of the shearing house, even fortythey found no more of her than the skull, the feet, and two men. He didn't leave any of them. 15 When he the palms of her hands. 36 Therefore they came back, had departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son and told him. He said, "This is the LORD's word, which of Rechab coming to meet him. He greeted him, and he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saving, said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is with your 'The dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel on the plot of heart?" Jehonadab answered, "It is." "If it is, give me Jezreel, 37 and the body of Jezebel will be as dung on your hand." He gave him his hand; and he took him up the surface of the field on Jezreel's land, so that they to him into the chariot. 16 He said, "Come with me, and won't say, "This is Jezebel.""

1 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, even the elders, and to those who brought up Ahab's sons, saying, 2 "Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and armour, 3 select the best and fittest of your

But Jehu King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of did deceptively, intending to destroy the worshippers of Ahaziah, and stole him away from amongst the king's Baal. 20 Jehu said, "Sanctify a solemn assembly for sons who were slain, even him and his nurse, and put Baal!" So they proclaimed it. 21 Jehu sent through all them in the bedroom; and they hid him from Athaliah, Israel; and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that so that he was not slain. 3 He was with her hidden there was not a man left that didn't come. They came in the LORD's house six years while Athaliah reigned into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled over the land. 4 In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and from one end to another. 22 He said to him who kept fetched the captains over hundreds of the Carites and the wardrobe, "Bring out robes for all the worshippers of of the guard, and brought them to him into the LORD's Baal!" So he brought robes out to them. 23 Jehu went house; and he made a covenant with them, and made a with Jehonadab the son of Rechab into the house of covenant with them in the LORD's house, and showed Baal. Then he said to the worshippers of Baal, "Search, them the king's son. 5 He commanded them, saying, and see that none of the servants of the LORD are "This is what you must do: a third of you, who come here with you, but only the worshippers of Baal." 24 So in on the Sabbath, shall be keepers of the watch of they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Jehoahaz his said, "Don't let her be slain in the LORD's house." 16 So son reigned in his place. 36 The time that Jehu reigned they seized her; and she went by the way of the horses' entry to the king's house, and she was slain there. 17 Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's began to reign.

12 Jehoash began to reign in the seventh year of Jehu, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. 2 Jehoash did that which was right in the LORD's eyes all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. 3 However, the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. 4 Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the holy things that is brought into the LORD's house, in current money, the money of the people for whom each man is evaluated, and all the money that it comes into any man's heart to bring into the LORD's house 5 let the priests take it to them, each man from his donor; and they shall repair the damage to the house, wherever any damage is found." 6 But it was so, that in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash the priests had Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the other years. 2 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, priests, and said to them, "Why aren't you repairing the and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the damage to the house." 8 The priests consented that delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, they should take no more money from the people, and and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, people: also between the king and the people. 18 All the house to repair it. 13 But there were not made the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and for the LORD's house cups of silver, snuffers, basins, broke it down. They broke his altars and his images in trumpets, any vessels of gold or vessels of silver, of pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal the money that was brought into the LORD's house; before the altars. The priest appointed officers over the 14 for they gave that to those who did the work, and LORD's house. 19 He took the captains over hundreds, repaired the LORD's house with it. 15 Moreover they and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the didn't demand an accounting from the men into whose land; and they brought down the king from the LORD's hand they delivered the money to give to those who house, and came by the way of the gate of the guard did the work; for they dealt faithfully. 16 The money to the king's house. He sat on the throne of the kings. for the trespass offerings and the money for the sin 20 So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city offerings was not brought into the LORD's house. It was was quiet. They had slain Athaliah with the sword at the the priests'. 17 Then Hazael king of Syria went up and king's house. 21 Jehoash was seven years old when he fought against Gath, and took it; and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. 18 Jehoash king of Judah took all the holy things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated. and his own holy things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the LORD's house, and of the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria; and he went away from Jerusalem. 19 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 20 His servants arose and made a conspiracy, and struck Joash at the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla. 21 For Jozacar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in David's city: and Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu not repaired the damage to the house. 7 Then King began to reign over Israel in Samaria for seventeen damage to the house? Now therefore take no more with which he made Israel to sin. He didn't depart from money from your treasurers, but deliver it for repair of it, 3 The LORD's anger burnt against Israel, and he not repair the damage to the house. 9 But Jehoiada continually. 4 Jehoahaz begged the LORD, and the the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid, and LORD listened to him; for he saw the oppression of set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes Israel, how the king of Syria oppressed them. 5 (The into the LORD's house; and the priests who kept the LORD gave Israel a saviour, so that they went out from threshold put all the money that was brought into the under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel LORD's house into it. 10 When they saw that there was lived in their tents as before. 6 Nevertheless they didn't much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with priest came up, and they put it in bags and counted the which he made Israel to sin, but walked in them; and money that was found in the LORD's house. 11 They the Asherah also remained in Samaria.) 7 For he didn't gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of leave to Jehoahaz of the people any more than fifty those who did the work, who had the oversight of the horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; LORD's house; and they paid it out to the carpenters for the king of Syria destroyed them and made them and the builders who worked on the LORD's house, like the dust in threshing. 8 Now the rest of the acts 12 and to the masons and the stone cutters, and for of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, aren't buying timber and cut stone to repair the damage to they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings the LORD's house, and for all that was laid out for of Israel? 9 Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they

The people still sacrificed from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with and burnt incense in the high places. 5 As soon as which he made Israel to sin; but he walked in them. 12 the kingdom was established in his hand, he killed Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, his servants who had slain the king his father, 6 but and his might with which he fought against Amaziah the children of the murderers he didn't put to death, king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the according to that which is written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 13 Joash slept with his law of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne. Joash was fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. 14 Now Elisha the children be put to death for the fathers; but every became sick with the illness of which he died; and Joash man shall die for his own sin." 7 He killed ten thousand the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over him, Edomites in the Valley of Salt, and took Sela by war, and and said, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel called its name Joktheel, to this day. 8 Then Amaziah and its horsemen!" 15 Elisha said to him, "Take bow and sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son arrows;" and he took bow and arrows for himself. 16 He of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let's look one said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow;" another in the face." 9 Jehoash the king of Israel sent to and he put his hand on it. Elisha laid his hands on the Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in king's hands. 17 He said, "Open the window eastward;" Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, and he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot!" and he 'Give your daughter to my son as wife.' Then a wild shot. He said, "The LORD's arrow of victory, even the animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled arrow of victory over Syria; for you will strike the Syrians down the thistle. 10 You have indeed struck Edom, and in Aphek until you have consumed them." 18 He said, your heart has lifted you up. Enjoy the glory of it, and "Take the arrows;" and he took them. He said to the king stay at home; for why should you meddle to your harm, of Israel, "Strike the ground;" and he struck three times, that you fall, even you, and Judah with you?" 11 But and stopped. 19 The man of God was angry with him, Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel and said, "You should have struck five or six times. Then went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one you would have struck Syria until you had consumed another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs it, but now you will strike Syria just three times." 20 to Judah. 12 Judah was defeated by Israel; and each Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the man fled to his tent. 13 Jehoash king of Israel took Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of 21 As they were burying a man, behold, they saw a Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh and came to Jerusalem, band of raiders; and they threw the man into Elisha's then broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate tomb. 1 5 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah began to reign. 2 He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. 3 He did that which was right in the LORD's eyes, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. 4 However, the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. 5 The LORD struck the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. Jotham, the king's son, was over the household judging the people of the land. 6 Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 7 Azariah slept with his fathers: and they buried him with his fathers in David's city; and Jotham his son reigned in his place. 8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months. 9 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, as his fathers had done. He didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. 10 Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him before the people and killed him, and reigned in his place. 11 Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles

Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king which he spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth in the place of his father Amaziah. 22 He built Elath and generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." So it came restored it to Judah. After that the king slept with his to pass. 13 Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in fathers. 23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of reigned for a month in Samaria. 14 Menahem the son Israel began to reign in Samaria for forty-one years. of Gadi went up from Tirzah, came to Samaria, struck didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of reigned in his place. 15 Now the rest of the acts of sea of the Arabah, according to the LORD, the God kings of Israel. 16 Then Menahem attacked Tiphsah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath He attacked it because they didn't open their gates to Hepher. 26 For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, him, and he ripped up all their women who were with was no helper for Israel. 27 The LORD didn't say that Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel for he would blot out the name of Israel from under the sky; ten years in Samaria. 18 He did that which was evil in but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of the LORD's sight. He didn't depart all his days from the Joash. 28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made that he did, and his might, how he fought, and how he Israel to sin. 19 Pul the king of Assyria came against the recovered Damascus, and Hamath, which had belonged land, and Menahem gave Pul one thousand talents of chronicles of the kings of Israel? 29 Jeroboam slept with kingdom in his hand. 20 Menahem exacted the money from each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and didn't stay there in the land. 21 Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 22 Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his son reigned in his place. 23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah. Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria for two years. 24 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight. He didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. 25 Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him and attacked him in Samaria, in the fortress of the king's house, with Argob and Arieh; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites. He killed him, and reigned in his place. 26 Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. 27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria for twenty years. 28 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight. He didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. 29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel. Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria. 30 Hoshea the son reigned in his place.

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. 2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He didn't do that which was right in the LORD his God's eyes, like David his father. 3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and even made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel. 4 He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, on the hills, and of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of drawing of the altar and plans to build it. 11 Urijah the Remaliah, attacked him, killed him, and reigned in his priest built an altar. His mother's name was was before the LORD, he brought from the front of the Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. 34 He did that which house, from between his altar and the LORD's house, was right in the LORD's eyes. He did according to all and put it on the north side of his altar. 15 King Ahaz that his father Uzziah had done. 35 However the high commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "On the great places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed altar burn the morning burnt offering, the evening meal and burnt incense in the high places. He built the upper offering, the king's burnt offering and his meal offering, gate of the LORD's house. 36 Now the rest of the acts with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their of Jotham, and all that he did, aren't they written in the meal offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 37 In it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood those days, the LORD began to send Rezin the king of of the sacrifice; but the bronze altar will be for me to Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah. enquire by." 16 Urijah the priest did so, according to 38 Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with all that King Ahaz commanded. 17 King Ahaz cut off his fathers in his father David's city; and Ahaz his son the panels of the bases, and removed the basin from off them, and took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone. 18 He removed the covered way for the Sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's outer entrance to the LORD's house, because of the king of Assyria. 19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 20 Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in David's city; and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over under every green tree. 5 Then Rezin king of Syria Israel for nine years. 2 He did that which was evil in and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up the LORD's sight, yet not as the kings of Israel who to Jerusalem to wage war. They besieged Ahaz, but were before him. 3 Shalmaneser king of Assyria came could not overcome him. 6 At that time Rezin king of up against him; and Hoshea became his servant, and Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from brought him tribute. 4 The king of Assyria discovered a Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath, and lived there to conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to this day. 7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser So king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore the son. Come up and save me out of the hand of the king king of Assyria seized him, and bound him in prison. 5 of Syria and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the rise up against me." 8 Ahaz took the silver and gold that land, went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. was found in the LORD's house, and in the treasures of 6 In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king Samaria and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed of Assyria. 9 The king of Assyria listened to him; and them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, the king of Assyria went up against Damascus and and in the cities of the Medes. 7 It was so because the took it, and carried its people captive to Kir, and killed children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their Rezin. 10 King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt Pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest a had feared other gods, 8 and walked in the statutes of the nations whom the LORD cast out from before the Samaria and lived in its cities. 25 So it was, at the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they beginning of their dwelling there, that they didn't fear the made. 9 The children of Israel secretly did things that LORD. Therefore the LORD sent lions amongst them, were not right against the LORD their God; and they which killed some of them. 26 Therefore they spoke to built high places for themselves in all their cities, from the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations which you have the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city; 10 and carried away and placed in the cities of Samaria don't they set up for themselves pillars and Asherah poles know the law of the god of the land. Therefore he has on every high hill and under every green tree; 11 and sent lions amongst them; and behold, they kill them, there they burnt incense in all the high places, as the because they don't know the law of the god of the land." nations whom the LORD carried away before them did; 27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Carry and they did wicked things to provoke the LORD to there one of the priests whom you brought from there; anger; 12 and they served idols, of which the LORD had and let him go and dwell there, and let him teach them said to them, "You shall not do this thing." 13 Yet the law of the god of the land." 28 So one of the priests LORD testified to Israel and to Judah, by every prophet whom they had carried away from Samaria came and and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways, and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear keep my commandments and my statutes, according the LORD. 29 However every nation made gods of their to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and own, and put them in the houses of the high places which I sent to you by my servants the prophets." 14 which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their Notwithstanding, they would not listen, but hardened cities in which they lived. 30 The men of Babylon made their neck like the neck of their fathers who didn't believe Succoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and in the LORD their God. 15 They rejected his statutes the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 and the Avvites and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burnt their his testimonies which he testified to them; and they children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, followed vanity, and became vain, and followed the the gods of Sepharvaim. 32 So they feared the LORD, nations that were around them, concerning whom the and also made from amongst themselves priests of the LORD had commanded them that they should not do high places for themselves, who sacrificed for them like them. 16 They abandoned all the commandments in the houses of the high places. 33 They feared the of the LORD their God, and made molten images for LORD, and also served their own gods, after the ways of themselves, even two calves, and made an Asherah, the nations from amongst whom they had been carried and worshipped all the army of the sky, and served Baal. away. 34 To this day they do what they did before. They 17 They caused their sons and their daughters to pass don't fear the LORD, and they do not follow the statutes, through the fire, used divination and enchantments, and or the ordinances, or the law, or the commandment sold themselves to do that which was evil in the LORD's which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, sight, to provoke him to anger. 18 Therefore the LORD whom he named Israel; 35 with whom the LORD had was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his made a covenant and commanded them, saying, "You sight. There was none left but the tribe of Judah only. 19 shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, Also Judah didn't keep the commandments of the LORD nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them; 36 but you shall their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which fear the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of they made. 20 The LORD rejected all the offspring of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, Israel, afflicted them, and delivered them into the hands and you shall bow yourselves to him, and you shall of raiders, until he had cast them out of his sight. 21 sacrifice to him. 37 The statutes and the ordinances, For he tore Israel from David's house: and they made and the law and the commandment which he wrote for Jeroboam the son of Nebat king; and Jeroboam drove you, you shall observe to do forever more. You shall not Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a fear other gods. 38 You shall not forget the covenant great sin. 22 The children of Israel walked in all the that I have made with you. You shall not fear other sins of Jeroboam which he did; they didn't depart from gods. 39 But you shall fear the LORD your God, and he them 23 until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies." as he said by all his servants the prophets. So Israel 40 However they didn't listen, but they did what they was carried away out of their own land to Assyria to did before. 41 So these nations feared the LORD, and this day. 24 The king of Assyria brought people from also served their engraved images. Their children did Babylon, from Cuthah, from Avva, and from Hamath and likewise, and so did their children's children. They do as Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria their fathers did to this day. instead of the children of Israel; and they possessed

18 Now in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king the son of Asaph the recorder came out to them. 19 began to reign. 2 He was twenty-five years old when he great king, the king of Assyria, says, "What confidence began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in is this in which you trust? 20 You say (but they are but Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi the daughter of vain words), 'There is counsel and strength for war.' Zechariah. 3 He did that which was right in the LORD's Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled eyes, according to all that David his father had done. 4 against me? 21 Now, behold, you trust in the staff of this He removed the high places, broke the pillars, and cut bruised reed, even in Egypt. If a man leans on it, it will down the Asherah. He also broke in pieces the bronze go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of serpent that Moses had made, because in those days Egypt to all who trust on him. 22 But if you tell me, 'We the children of Israel burnt incense to it; and he called trust in the LORD our God,' isn't that he whose high it Nehushtan. 5 He trusted in the LORD, the God of places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and Israel, so that after him was no one like him amongst has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship all the kings of Judah, nor amongst them that were before this altar in Jerusalem'? 23 Now therefore, please before him. 6 For he joined with the LORD. He didn't give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will depart from following him, but kept his commandments, give you two thousand horses if you are able on your which the LORD commanded Moses. 7 The LORD was part to set riders on them. 24 How then can you turn with him. Wherever he went, he prospered. He rebelled away the face of one captain of the least of my master's against the king of Assyria, and didn't serve him. 8 He servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and struck the Philistines to Gaza and its borders, from the for horsemen? 25 Have I now come up without the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city. 9 In the fourth LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it."" 26 Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, Shebnah, and Joah, Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it. 10 said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in At the end of three years they took it. In the sixth year the Syrian language, for we understand it. Don't speak of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king with us in the Jews' language, in the hearing of the of Israel, Samaria was taken. 11 The king of Assyria people who are on the wall." 27 But Rabshakeh said to carried Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, them, "Has my master sent me to your master and to and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities you, to speak these words? Hasn't he sent me to the of the Medes, 12 because they didn't obey the LORD men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to their God's voice, but transgressed his covenant, even drink their own urine with you?" 28 Then Rabshakeh all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and would not hear it or do it. 13 Now in the fourteenth and spoke, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria king of Assyria. 29 The king says, 'Don't let Hezekiah came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you out of took them. 14 Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king his hand. 30 Don't let Hezekiah make you trust in the of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have offended you. LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us, and Withdraw from me. That which you put on me, I will this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of bear." The king of Assyria appointed to Hezekiah king of Assyria." 31 Don't listen to Hezekiah.' For the king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of Assyria says, 'Make your peace with me, and come gold. 15 Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found out to me; and everyone of you eat from his own vine, in the LORD's house and in the treasures of the king's and everyone from his own fig tree, and everyone drink house. 16 At that time, Hezekiah cut off the gold from water from his own cistern; 32 until I come and take you the doors of the LORD's temple, and from the pillars away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive it to the king of Assyria. 17 The king of Assyria sent trees and of honey, that you may live and not die. Don't Tartan, Rabsaris, and Rabshakeh from Lachish to King listen to Hezekiah when he persuades you, saying, "The Hezekiah with a great army to Jerusalem. They went up LORD will deliver us." 33 Has any of the gods of the and came to Jerusalem. When they had come up, they nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which king of Assyria? 34 Where are the gods of Hamath is in the highway of the fuller's field. 18 When they had and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of called to the king, Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria out of over the household, and Shebnah the scribe, and Joah my hand? 35 Who are they amongst all the gods of the

of Israel, Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'The countries, that have delivered their country out of my see. Hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent with their clothes torn, and told him Rabshakeh's words.

1 Q When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the LORD's house. 2 He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. 3 They said to him, "Hezekiah says, 'Today is a day of trouble, of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them. 4 It may be the LORD your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left." 5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah. 6 Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master this: 'The LORD says, "Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. 7 Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."" 8 So Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. 9 When he heard it said of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Behold, he has come out to fight against you," he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, 10 "Tell Hezekiah king of Judah this: 'Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. 11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Will you be delivered? 12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed—Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? 13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?" 14 Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the LORD's house, and spread it before the LORD. 15 Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, "LORD, the God of Israel, who are enthroned above the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. 16 Incline your ear, LORD, and hear. Open your eyes, LORD, and hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my to defy the living God. 17 Truly, LORD, the kings of hand?" 36 But the people stayed quiet, and answered Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, 18 him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Don't and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no answer him." 37 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. was over the household, came with Shebna the scribe. Therefore they have destroyed them. 19 Now therefore, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder to Hezekiah LORD our God, save us, I beg you, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, LORD, are God alone." 20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "The LORD, the God of Israel, says 'You have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, and I have heard you. 21 This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: 'The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. 22 Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel! 23 By your messengers, you have defied the Lord, and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots, I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon, and I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice cypress trees; and I will enter into his farthest lodging place, the forest of his fruitful field. 24 I have dug and drunk strange waters, and I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt with the sole of my feet." 25 Haven't you heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps. 26 Therefore their inhabitants had little power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops and like grain blasted before it has grown up. 27 But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me. 28 Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.' 29 "This will be the sign to you: This year, you will eat that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs from that; and in the third year sow and reap, and plant vineyards and eat their fruit. 30 The remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. 31 For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and out of Mount Zion those who shall escape. The LORD's zeal will perform this. 32 "Therefore the LORD says concerning the king of Assyria, 'He will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there. He will not come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. 33 He will return the same way that he came, and he will not come to this city,' says the LORD. 34 'For I will defend David's sake." 35 That night, the LORD's angel went in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand in all that is in my house. There is nothing amongst my the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the treasures that I have not shown them." 16 Isaiah said morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. 36 So to Hezekiah, "Hear the LORD's word. 17 'Behold, the Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, went home, and days come that all that is in your house, and that which lived at Nineveh. 37 As he was worshipping in the house your fathers have laid up in store to this day, will be of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer struck carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left,' says the LORD. him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of 18 'They will take away some of your sons who will Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

2 In those days Hezekiah was sick and dying. Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "The LORD says, 'Set your house in order; for you will die, and not live." 2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying, 3 "Remember now, LORD, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly. 4 Before Isaiah had gone out into the middle part of the city, the LORD's word came to him, saying, 5 "Turn back, and tell Hezekiah the prince of my people, 'The LORD, the God of David your father, says, "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will heal you. On the third day, you will go up to the LORD's house. 6 I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake."" 7 Isaiah said. "Take a cake of figs." They took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. 8 Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I will go up to the LORD's house the third day?" Isaiah said, "This will be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he has spoken: should the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?" 10 Hezekiah answered, "It is a light thing for the shadow to go forward ten steps. No, but let the shadow return backward ten steps." 11 Isaiah the prophet cried to the LORD; and he brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz. 12 At that time Berodach Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. 13 Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all the storehouse of his precious things—the silver, the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, or in all his dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them. 14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say? From where did they come to you?" Hezekiah said, "They have come from a far country, this city to save it, for my own sake and for my servant even from Babylon," 15 He said, "What have they seen issue from you, whom you will father; and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon." 19 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The LORD's word which you have spoken is good." He said moreover, "Isn't it so, if peace and truth will be in my days?" 20 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought water into the city, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 21 Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

> 21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. 2 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, after the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. 3 For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he raised up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as Ahab king of Israel did, and worshipped all the army of the sky, and served them. 4 He built altars in the LORD's house, of which the LORD said, "I will put my name in Jerusalem." 5 He built altars for all the army of the sky in the two courts of the LORD's house. 6 He made his son to pass through the fire, practised sorcery, used enchantments, and dealt with those who had familiar spirits and with wizards. He did much evil in the LORD's sight, to provoke him to anger. 7 He set the engraved image of Asherah that he had made in the house of which the LORD said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever; 8 I will not cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them." 9 But they didn't listen, and Manasseh seduced them to do that which is evil more than the nations did whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel. 10 The LORD spoke by his servants the prophets, saying, 11 "Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has also made Judah to sin with his idols; 12 therefore the LORD the God of Israel says,

'Behold, I will bring such evil on Jerusalem and Judah damage to the house. 6 to the carpenters, and to the that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle. 13 l builders, and to the masons, and for buying timber and will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the cut stone to repair the house. 7 However, no accounting plumb line of Ahab's house; and I will wipe Jerusalem shall be asked of them for the money delivered into their as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside hand, for they deal faithfully." 8 Hilkiah the high priest down. 14 I will cast off the remnant of my inheritance said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the book of and deliver them into the hands of their enemies. They the law in the LORD's house." Hilkiah delivered the will become a prey and a plunder to all their enemies, book to Shaphan, and he read it. 9 Shaphan the scribe 15 because they have done that which is evil in my came to the king, and brought the king word again, and sight, and have provoked me to anger since the day said, "Your servants have emptied out the money that their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day." 16 was found in the house, and have delivered it into the Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, hands of the workmen who have the oversight of the until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; in LORD's house." 10 Shaphan the scribe told the king, addition to his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in saying, "Hilkiah the priest has delivered a book to me." doing that which was evil in the LORD's sight. 17 Now Then Shaphan read it before the king. 11 When the king the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and had heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his sin that he sinned, aren't they written in the book of his clothes. 12 The king commanded Hilkiah the priest, the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 18 Manasseh slept Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Achbor the son of Micaiah, with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, own house, in the garden of Uzza; and Amon his son saying, 13 "Go enquire of the LORD for me, and for reigned in his place. 19 Amon was twenty-two years old the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in this book that is found; for great is the LORD's wrath Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth the that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. 20 He did that which was listened to the words of this book, to do according to evil in the LORD's sight, as Manasseh his father did. 21 all that which is written concerning us." 14 So Hilkiah He walked in all the ways that his father walked in, and the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went served the idols that his father served, and worshipped to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son them; 22 and he abandoned the LORD, the God of his of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe fathers, and didn't walk in the way of the LORD. 23 (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter); The servants of Amon conspired against him, and put and they talked with her. 15 She said to them, "The the king to death in his own house. 24 But the people LORD the God of Israel says, 'Tell the man who sent of the land killed all those who had conspired against you to me, 16 "The LORD says, 'Behold, I will bring King Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his evil on this place and on its inhabitants, even all the son king in his place. 25 Now the rest of the acts of words of the book which the king of Judah has read. 17 Amon which he did, aren't they written in the book of Because they have forsaken me and have burnt incense the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 26 He was buried to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his son all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be reigned in his place.

22 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. 2 He did that which was right in the LORD's eyes, and walked in all the ways of David his father, and didn't turn away to the right hand or to the left. 3 In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the LORD's house, saying, 4 "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may count the money which is brought into the LORD's house, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered of the people. 5 Let them deliver it into the hand of the workers who have the oversight of the LORD's house; and let them give it to the workers who are in the LORD's house, to repair the kindled against this place, and it will not be guenched." 18 But to the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, tell him, "The LORD the God of Israel says, 'Concerning the words which you have heard, 19 because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you,' says the LORD. 20 'Therefore behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the evil which I will bring on this place.""" So they brought this message back to the king.

 ${f 3}$ The king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. 2 The king went up to the LORD's house, and all the men of Judah abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him—with the of the children of Ammon. 14 He broke in pieces the priests, the prophets, and all the people, both small pillars, cut down the Asherah poles, and filled their and great; and he read in their hearing all the words places with men's bones. 15 Moreover the altar that of the book of the covenant which was found in the was at Bethel and the high place which Jeroboam the LORD's house. 3 The king stood by the pillar and made son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even a covenant before the LORD to walk after the LORD that altar and the high place he broke down; and he and to keep his commandments, his testimonies, and burnt the high place and beat it to dust, and burnt the his statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to confirm Asherah. 16 As Josiah turned himself, he spied the the words of this covenant that were written in this book; tombs that were there in the mountain; and he sent, and and all the people agreed to the covenant. 4 The king took the bones out of the tombs, and burnt them on the commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of altar, and defiled it, according to the LORD's word which the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these bring out of the LORD's temple all the vessels that were things. 17 Then he said, "What monument is that which made for Baal, for the Asherah, and for all the army of I see?" The men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the sky; and he burnt them outside of Jerusalem in the the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel. 5 these things that you have done against the altar of He got rid of the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Bethel." 18 He said, "Let him be! Let no one move his Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones the cities of Judah and in the places around Jerusalem; of the prophet who came out of Samaria. 19 All the those also who burnt incense to Baal, to the sun, to the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of moon, to the planets, and to all the army of the sky. 6 Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke He brought out the Asherah from the LORD's house, the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them outside of Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burnt it according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel. at the brook Kidron, and beat it to dust, and cast its dust 20 He killed all the priests of the high places that were on the graves of the common people. 7 He broke down there, on the altars, and burnt men's bones on them; the houses of the male shrine prostitutes that were in and he returned to Jerusalem. 21 The king commanded the LORD's house, where the women wove hangings all the people, saving, "Keep the Passover to the LORD for the Asherah. 8 He brought all the priests out of the your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant." cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the 22 Surely there was not kept such a Passover from the he broke down the high places of the gates that were at of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; 23 but the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the kept to the LORD in Jerusalem. 24 Moreover, Josiah city. 9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places didn't removed those who had familiar spirits, the wizards, and come up to the LORD's altar in Jerusalem, but they ate the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations unleavened bread amongst their brothers. 10 He defiled that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the through the fire to Molech. 11 He took away the horses LORD's house. 25 There was no king like him before that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun, at the him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with entrance of the LORD's house, by the room of Nathan all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Melech the officer who was in the court; and he burnt law of Moses; and there was none like him who arose the chariots of the sun with fire. 12 The king broke down after him. 26 Notwithstanding, the LORD didn't turn from the altars that were on the roof of the upper room of the fierceness of his great wrath, with which his anger Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the burnt against Judah, because of all the provocation with altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of which Manasseh had provoked him. 27 The LORD said, the LORD's house, and beat them down from there, and "I will also remove Judah out of my sight, as I have cast their dust into the brook Kidron. 13 The king defiled removed Israel; and I will cast off this city which I have the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, on the right hand of the mountain of corruption, which 'My name shall be there." 28 Now the rest of the acts of priests had burnt incense, from Geba to Beersheba; and days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that he might confirm the words of the law which were Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the Josiah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 29 In his days against him, but Pharaoh Necoh killed him at Megiddo done. 10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, besieged. 11 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land the city while his servants were besieging it, 12 and took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of made him king in his father's place. 31 Jehoahaz was Babylon—he, his mother, his servants, his princes, and twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he his officers; and the king of Babylon captured him in reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name the eighth year of his reign. 13 He carried out from was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 32 He there all the treasures of the LORD's house and the did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, according to treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the all that his fathers had done. 33 Pharaoh Necoh put him vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. 34 the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, Pharaoh Necoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in and all the craftsmen and the smiths. No one remained the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to except the poorest people of the land. 15 He carried Jehoiakim; but he took Jehoahaz away, and he came away Jehoiachin to Babylon, with the king's mother, to Egypt and died there. 35 Jehoiakim gave the silver the king's wives, his officers, and the chief men of the and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give land. He carried them into captivity from Jerusalem to the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh. Babylon. 16 All the men of might, even seven thousand, He exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the and the craftsmen and the smiths one thousand, all land, from everyone according to his assessment, to of them strong and fit for war, even them the king of give it to Pharaoh Necoh. 36 Jehoiakim was twenty- Babylon brought captive to Babylon. 17 The king of five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's father's brother, eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah. Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. 37 He did 18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began that which was evil in the LORD's sight, according to all to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His that his fathers had done.

 $m{21}$ In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three vears. Then he turned and rebelled against him. 2 The LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldeans, bands of the Syrians, bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the LORD's word which he spoke by his servants the prophets. 3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD this came on Judah, to remove them out of his sight for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did, 4 and also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD would not pardon. 5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 6 So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place. 7 The king of Eavpt didn't come out of his land any more: for the king of Babylon had taken, from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates, all that belonged to the king of Egypt. 8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta the daughter

Pharaoh Necoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Elnathan of Jerusalem. 9 He did that which was evil of Assyria to the river Euphrates; and King Josiah went in the LORD's sight, according to all that his father had when he saw him. 30 His servants carried him dead king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might in the LORD's temple, as the LORD had said. 14 He mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 19 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. 20 For through the anger of the LORD, this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

> 25 In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it around it. 2 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. 3 On the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. 4 Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were against the city around it): and the king went by the way of the Arabah. 5 But the Chaldean army pursued the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. 6 Then they captured the king and carried him judgement on him. 7 They killed Zedekiah's sons before the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. 24 his eyes, then put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, and said in fetters, and carried him to Babylon. 8 Now in the to them, "Don't be afraid because of the servants of fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and it will be well with you." 25 But in the of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. 9 of Elishama, of the royal offspring came, and ten men He burnt the LORD's house, the king's house, and all with him, and struck Gedaliah so that he died, with the houses of Jerusalem. He burnt every great house the Jews and the Chaldeans that were with him at with fire. 10 All the army of the Chaldeans, who were Mizpah. 26 All the people, both small and great, and the with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls captains of the forces arose and came to Egypt; for they around Jerusalem. 11 Nebuzaradan the captain of the were afraid of the Chaldeans. 27 In the thirty-seventh guard carried away captive the rest of the people who year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the were left in the city and those who had deserted to the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, king of Babylon—all the rest of the multitude. 12 But the Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to reign, released Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison, to work the vineyards and fields. 13 The Chaldeans 28 and he spoke kindly to him and set his throne above broke up the pillars of bronze that were in the LORD's the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, house and the bases and the bronze sea that were in 29 and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate the LORD's house, and carried the bronze pieces to bread before him continually all the days of his life; 30 Babylon. 14 They took away the pots, the shovels, the and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance snuffers, the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with given him from the king, every day a portion, all the which they ministered. 15 The captain of the guard took days of his life. away the fire pans, the basins, that which was of gold, for gold, and that which was of silver, for silver. 16 The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the LORD's house, the bronze of all these vessels was not weighed. 17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a capital of bronze was on it. The height of the capital was three cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital around it, all of bronze; and the second pillar with its network was like these. 18 The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold; 19 and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and five men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe, the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city. 20 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. 21 The king of Babylon attacked them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. 22 As for the people who were left in the land of Judah whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor. 23 Now when all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan the son of Kareah, Seraiah up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they passed the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah

O So all Israel were listed by genealogies; and behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel. Judah was carried away captive to Babylon for their disobedience. 2 Now the first inhabitants who lived in their possessions in their cities were Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the temple servants. 3 In Jerusalem, there lived of the children of Judah, of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh: 4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Perez the son of Judah. 5 Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons. 6 Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel and their brothers. six hundred and ninety. 7 Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah: 8 and Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri; and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah; 9 and their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of fathers' households by their fathers' houses. 10 Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin, 11 and Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of God's house; 12 and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah; and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer: 13 and their brothers, heads of their fathers' houses, one thousand and seven hundred and sixty; they were very able men for the work of the service of God's house. 14 Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari; 15 and Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph, 16 and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites. 17 The gatekeepers: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brothers (Shallum was the chief), 18 who previously served in the king's gate eastward. They were the gatekeepers for the camp of the children of Levi. 19 Shallum was the son of Kore. the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brothers, of his father's house, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent. Their fathers had been over the LORD's camp, keepers of the entry. 20 Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him. 21 Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper of the door of the Tent of Meeting. 22 All these who were chosen to be gatekeepers in the thresholds were two in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer ordained in their office of trust. 23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the LORD's house, even the house of the tent, as guards. 24 On the four sides were the gatekeepers, towards the east, west, north, and south. 25 Their brothers, in their villages. were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them, 26 for the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were in an office of trust, and were over the rooms and over the treasuries in God's house. 27 They staved around God's house, because that was their duty; and it was their duty to open it morning by morning. 28 Certain of them were in charge of the vessels of service, for these were brought in by count, and these were taken out by count. 29 Some of them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the sanctuary, over the fine flour, the wine. the oil, the frankincense, and the spices. 30 Some of the sons of the priests prepared the mixing of the spices. 31 Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the office of trust over the things that were baked in pans. 32 Some of their brothers, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the show bread, to prepare it every Sabbath. 33 These are the singers, heads of fathers' households of the Levites. who lived in the rooms and were free from other service. for they were employed in their work day and night. 34 These were heads of fathers' households of the Levites. throughout their generations, chief men. They lived at Jerusalem. 35 Jeiel the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah, lived in Gibeon. 36 His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 37 Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth. 38 Mikloth became the father of Shimeam. They also lived with their relatives in Jerusalem, near their relatives. 39 Ner became the father of Kish, Kish became the father of Saul, Saul became the father of Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal. 40 The son of Jonathan was Merib-baal. Merib-baal became the father of Micah. 41 The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz, 42 Ahaz became the father of Jarah. Jarah became the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri became the father of Moza. 43 Moza became the father of Binea. Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son. 44 Azel had six sons, whose names are Azrikam, Bocheru. Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

10 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. 2 The Philistines followed hard after Saul and after his sons; and the

Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, and greater, for the LORD of Armies was with him. 10 the sons of Saul. 3 The battle went hard against Saul, Now these are the chief of the mighty men whom David armour bearer would not, for he was terrified. Therefore Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his killed them at one time. 12 After him was Eleazar the sword and died. 6 So Saul died with his three sons; son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three and all his house died together. 7 When all the men of mighty men. 13 He was with David at Pasdammim, and them. 8 On the next day, when the Philistines came to in the middle of the plot, defended it, and killed the strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great victory. and his armour, then sent into the land of the Philistines David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the all around to carry the news to their idols and to the Philistines were encamped in the valley of Rephaim. 16 gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon. 11 the Philistines was in Bethlehem at that time. 17 David When all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines longed, and said, "Oh, that someone would give me had done to Saul, 12 all the valiant men arose and took water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is by brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. 13 So Saul that was by the gate, took it, and brought it to David; died for his trespass which he committed against the but David would not drink any of it, but poured it out LORD, because of the LORD's word, which he didn't to the LORD, 19 and said, "My God forbid me, that I keep, and also because he asked counsel of one who should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men had a familiar spirit, to enquire, 14 and didn't enquire who have put their lives in jeopardy?" For they risked of the LORD. Therefore he killed him, and turned the their lives to bring it. Therefore he would not drink it. kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

11 Then all Israel gathered themselves to David to Hebron, saying, "Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. 2 In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. The LORD your God said to you, 'You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over my people Israel." 3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD. They anointed David king over Israel, according to the LORD's word by Samuel. 4 David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (also called Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. 5 The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You will not come in here!" Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion. The same is David's city. 6 David had said, "Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain." Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and was made chief. 7 David lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it David's city. 8 He built the city all around, from Millo even around; and Joab repaired the rest of the city. 9 David grew greater and the archers overtook him; and he was distressed by had, who showed themselves strong with him in his reason of the archers. 4 Then Saul said to his armour kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, according to the LORD's word concerning Israel. 11 lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me." But his This is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Saul took his sword and fell on it. 5 When his armour thirty; he lifted up his spear against three hundred and Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their where there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in people fled from before the Philistines. 14 They stood Mount Gilboa. 9 They stripped him and took his head 15 Three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to people. 10 They put his armour in the house of their David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of away the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons, and the gate!" 18 The three broke through the army of the The three mighty men did these things. 20 Abishai, the brother of Joab, was chief of the three; for he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name amongst the three. 21 Of the three, he was more honourable than the two, and was made their captain; however he wasn't included in the three. 22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit on a snowy day. 23 He killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high. In the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. 24 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things and had a name amongst the three mighty men. 25 Behold, he was more honourable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the three; and David set him over his guard. 26 The mighty men of the armies also include Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, 27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite, 28 Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abjezer the Anathothite, 29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, the west, 16 Some of the children of Benjamin and Moabite, 47 Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

12 Now these are those who came to David to Ziklaq while he was a fugitive from Saul the son of Kish. They were amongst the mighty men, his helpers in war. 2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow. They were of Saul's relatives of the tribe of Benjamin. 3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash. the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth: Beracah: Jehu the Anathothite: 4 Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man amongst the thirty and a leader of the thirty; Jeremiah; Jahaziel; Johanan; Jozabad the Gederathite; 5 Eluzai; Jerimoth; Bealiah; Shemariah; Shephatiah the Haruphite; 6 Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites; 7 and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. 8 Some Gadites joined David in the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valour, men trained for war, who could handle shield and spear; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains: 9 Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, 10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, 12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, 13 Jeremiah the tenth, and Machbannai the eleventh. 14 These of the sons of Gad were captains of the army. He who was least was equal to one hundred, and the greatest to one thousand. 15 These are those who went over the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all who lived in the valleys, both towards the east and towards llai the Ahohite, 30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled Judah came to the stronghold to David. 17 David went the son of Baanah the Netophathite, 31 Ithai the son of out to meet them, and answered them, "If you have Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, Benaiah come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be the Pirathonite, 32 Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel united with you; but if you have come to betray me to the Arbathite, 33 Azmayeth the Baharumite, Eliahba my adversaries, since there is no wrong in my hands, the Shaalbonite, 34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, may the God of our fathers see this and rebuke it." 18 Jonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite, 35 Ahiam Then the Spirit came on Amasai, who was chief of the the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur, thirty, and he said, "We are yours, David, and on your 36 Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, 37 side, you son of Jesse. Peace, peace be to you, and Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai, 38 Joel peace be to your helpers; for your God helps you." Then the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri, 39 David received them and made them captains of the Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite (the armour band. 19 Some of Manasseh also joined David when bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah), 40 Ira the Ithrite, he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle, but Gareb the Ithrite, 41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of they didn't help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent Ahlai, 42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite (a chief him away after consultation, saying, "He will desert to of the Reubenites), and thirty with him, 43 Hanan the his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads." 20 As son of Maacah, Joshaphat the Mithnite, 44 Uzzia the he went to Ziklag, some from Manasseh joined him: Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Aroerite, 45 Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his Zillethai, captains of thousands who were of Manasseh. brother, the Tizite, 46 Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, 21 They helped David against the band of raiders, for and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the they were all mighty men of valour and were captains in the army. 22 For from day to day men came to David to help him, until there was a great army, like God's army. 23 These are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war, who came to David to Hebron to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the LORD's word. 24 The children of Judah who bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, armed for war. 25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war: seven thousand and one hundred. 26 Of the children of Levi: four thousand and six hundred. 27 Jehojada was the leader of the household of Aaron: and with him were three thousand and seven hundred, 28 and Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty-two captains. 29 Of the children of Benjamin, Saul's relatives: three thousand, for until then, the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to Saul's house. 30 Of the children of Ephraim: twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous men in their fathers' houses. 31 Of the half-tribe of Manasseh: eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, to come and make David king. 32 Of the children of Issachar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their heads were two hundred; and all their brothers were at their command. 33 Of Zebulun, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array with all kinds of instruments of war: fifty thousand who could command and were not of double heart. 34 Of Naphtali: one thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty-seven thousand. 35 Of the Danites who could set the battle in array: twenty-eight thousand go out in the army, who could set the battle in array: house and all that he had. forty thousand. 37 On the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all kinds of instruments of war for the battle: one hundred and twenty thousand. 38 All these were men of war who could order the battle array, and came with a perfect heart to Hebron to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. 39 They were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had supplied provisions for them. 40 Moreover those who were near to them, as far as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, on camels, on mules, and on oxen: supplies of flour, cakes of figs, clusters of raisins, wine, oil, cattle, and sheep in abundance; for there was joy in Israel.

13 David consulted with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, even with every leader. 2 David said to all the assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is of the LORD our God, let's send word everywhere to our brothers who are left in all the land of Israel, with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities that have pasture lands, that they may gather themselves to us. 3 Also, let's bring the ark of our God back to us again, for we didn't seek it in the days of Saul." 4 All the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. 5 So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor River of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring God's ark from Kiriath Jearim. 6 David went up with all Israel to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there God the LORD's ark that sits above the cherubim, that is called by the Name. 7 They carried God's ark on a new cart, and brought it out of Abinadab's house; and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. 8 David and all Israel played before God with all their might, even with songs, with harps, with stringed instruments, with tambourines, with cymbals, and with trumpets. 9 When they came to Chidon's threshing floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled. 10 The LORD's anger burnt against Uzza, and he struck him because he put his hand on the ark; and he died there before God. 11 David was displeased, because the LORD had broken out against Uzza. He called that place Perez Uzza, to this day. 12 David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring God's ark home to me?" 13 So David didn't move the ark with him into David's city, but carried it aside into Obed-Edom the Gittite's house. 14 God's ark remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house and six hundred. 36 Of Asher, such as were able to three months; and the LORD blessed Obed-Edom's

▲ Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar trees, masons, and carpenters, to build him a house. 2 David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted, for his people Israel's sake. 3 David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David became the father of more sons and daughters. 4 These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, 5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, 6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, 7 Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet. 8 When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went out against them. 9 Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim. 10 David enquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?" The LORD said to him, "Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand." 11 So they came up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. David said, God has broken my enemies by my hand, like waters breaking out. Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim. 12 They left their gods there; and David gave a command, and they were burnt with fire. 13 The Philistines made another raid in the valley. 14 David enquired again of God; and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them. Turn away from them, and come on them opposite the mulberry trees. 15 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then go out to battle; for God has gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines." 16 David did as God commanded him; and they attacked the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer. 17 The fame of David went out into all lands: and the LORD brought the fear of him on all nations.

15 David made himself houses in David's city; and he prepared a place for God's ark, and pitched a tent for it. 2 Then David said, "No one ought to carry God's ark but the Levites. For the LORD has chosen them to carry God's ark, and to minister to him forever." 3 David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the LORD's ark to its place, which he had prepared for it. 4 David gathered together the sons of Aaron and the Levites: 5 of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brothers one hundred and twenty: 6 of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred and twenty: 7 of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, and his brothers one hundred and thirty: 8 of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred; 9 of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brothers eighty; 10 of the sons of Uzziel, and twelve. 11 David called for Zadok and Abiathar in her heart. the priests, and for the Levites: for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 and said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' households of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, both you and your brothers, that you may bring the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, up to the place that I have prepared for it. 13 For because you didn't carry it at first, the LORD our God broke out in anger against us, because we didn't seek him according to the ordinance." 14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel. 15 The children of the Levites bore God's ark on their shoulders with its poles, as Moses commanded according to the LORD's word. 16 David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brothers as singers with instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up their voices with joy. 17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brothers, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; 18 and with them their brothers of the second rank: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the doorkeepers. 19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were given cymbals of bronze to sound aloud; 20 and Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with stringed instruments set to Alamoth; 21 and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps tuned to the eight-stringed lyre, to lead. 22 Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was over the singing. He taught the singers, because he was skilful. 23 Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark. 24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, blew the trumpets before God's ark; and Obed-Edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark. 25 So David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands went to bring the ark of the LORD's covenant up out of the house of Obed-Edom with joy. 26 When God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the LORD's covenant, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. 27 David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the choir master with the singers; and David had an ephod of linen on him. 28 Thus all Israel brought the ark of the LORD's covenant up with shouting, with sound of the cornet, with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with stringed instruments and harps. 29 As the ark of the LORD's covenant came to David's city, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw

Amminadab the chief, and his brothers one hundred king David dancing and playing; and she despised him and twelve. 11 David called for Zadok and Abiathar, in her heart

6 They brought in God's ark, and set it in the middle of the tent that David had pitched for it; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. 2 When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the LORD's name. 3 He gave to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. 4 He appointed some of the Levites to minister before the LORD's ark, and to commemorate, to thank, and to praise the LORD, the God of Israel: 5 Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, with stringed instruments and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud: 6 with Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of God. 7 Then on that day David first ordained giving of thanks to the LORD by the hand of Asaph and his brothers. 8 Oh give thanks to the LORD. Call on his name. Make what he has done known amongst the peoples. 9 Sing to him. Sing praises to him. Tell of all his marvellous works. 10 Glory in his holy name. Let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice. 11 Seek the LORD and his strength. Seek his face forever more. 12 Remember his marvellous works that he has done, his wonders, and the judgements of his mouth, 13 you offspring of Israel his servant, you children of Jacob, his chosen ones. 14 He is the LORD our God. His judgements are in all the earth. 15 Remember his covenant forever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations, 16 the covenant which he made with Abraham, his oath to Isaac. 17 He confirmed it to Jacob for a statute, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant, 18 saying, "I will give you the land of Canaan, The lot of your inheritance." 19 when you were but a few men in number, yes, very few, and foreigners in it. 20 They went about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people. 21 He allowed no man to do them wrong. Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes, 22 "Don't touch my anointed ones! Do my prophets no harm!" 23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth! Display his salvation from day to day. 24 Declare his glory amongst the nations, and his marvellous works amongst all the peoples. 25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised. He also is to be feared above all gods. 26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens. 27 Honour and majesty are before him. Strength and gladness are in his place. 28 Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength! 29 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his name. Bring an offering, and come before him. Worship the LORD in holy array. 30 Tremble gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before David returned to bless his house.

17 When David was living in his house, David said to Nathan the prophet, "Behold, I live in a cedar house, but the ark of the LORD's covenant is in a tent." 2 Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart; for God is with you." 3 That same night, the word of God came to Nathan, saying, 4 "Go and tell David my servant, 'The LORD says, "You shall not build me a house to dwell in; 5 for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tent to another. 6 In all places in which I have walked with all Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?"" 7 "Now therefore, you shall tell my servant David, 'The LORD of Armies says, "I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, to be prince over my people Israel. 8 I have been with you wherever you have before him, all the earth. The world also is established you. I will make you a name like the name of the great that it can't be moved. 31 Let the heavens be glad, ones who are in the earth. 9 I will appoint a place for and let the earth rejoice! Let them say amongst the my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may nations, "The LORD reigns!" 32 Let the sea roar, and its dwell in their own place, and be moved no more. The fullness! Let the field exult, and all that is in it! 33 Then children of wickedness will not waste them any more, the trees of the forest will sing for joy before the LORD, as at the first, 10 and from the day that I commanded for he comes to judge the earth. 34 Oh give thanks judges to be over my people Israel. I will subdue all to the LORD, for he is good, for his loving kindness your enemies. Moreover I tell you that the LORD will endures forever. 35 Say, "Save us, God of our salvation! build you a house. 11 It will happen, when your days Gather us together and deliver us from the nations, are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, to give thanks to your holy name, to triumph in your that I will set up your offspring after you, who will be praise." 36 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. 12 He from everlasting even to everlasting. The house of David your servant is established before you.' 25 For you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build him a house. Therefore your servant has found courage to pray before you. 26 Now, LORD, you are God, and have promised this good thing to your servant. 27 Now it has pleased you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you; for you, LORD, children of Ammon to Hanun to comfort him. 3 But the have blessed, and it is blessed forever."

18 After this, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. 2 He defeated Moab: and the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute. 3 David defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah, towards Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates. 4 David took from him one thousand chariots, seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them enough for one hundred chariots. 5 When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah. David struck twenty-two thousand men of the Syrians. 6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David and brought tribute. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. 7 David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. 8 From Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze sea, the pillars, and the vessels of bronze. 9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, 10 he sent Hadoram his son to King David to greet him and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him (for Hadadezer had wars with Tou); and he had with him all kinds of vessels of gold and silver and bronze. 11 King David also dedicated these to the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations: from Edom, from Moab, from the children of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalek. 12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah struck eighteen thousand of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt. 13 He put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became servants to David. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. 14 David reigned over all Israel; and he executed justice and righteousness for all his people. 15 Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army: Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; 16 Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were priests: Shavsha was scribe: 17 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief officials serving the king.

princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David honours your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Haven't his servants come to you to search, to overthrow, and to spy out the land?" 4 So Hanun took David's servants, shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle at their buttocks, and sent them away. 5 Then some people went and told David how the men were treated. He sent to meet them: for the men were greatly humiliated. The king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return." 6 When the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, out of Aram-maacah, and out of Zobah. 7 So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah with his people, who came and encamped near Medeba. The children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. 8 When David heard of it, he sent Joab with all the army of the mighty men. 9 The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city; and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. 10 Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose some of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians. 11 The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and they put themselves in array against the children of Ammon. 12 He said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you are to help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you. 13 Be courageous, and let's be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. May the LORD do that which seems good to him." 14 So Joab and the people who were with him came near to the front of the Syrians to the battle; and they fled before him. 15 When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem. 16 When the Syrians saw that they were defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and called out the Syrians who were beyond the River, with Shophach the captain of the army of Hadadezer leading them. 17 David was told that, so he gathered all Israel together, passed over the Jordan, came to them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the 1 Q After this, Nahash the king of the children of battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him. 2 At the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go out, Joab led out the army and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. Joab struck Rabbah, and overthrew it. 2 David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it. It was set on David's head, and he brought very much plunder out of the city. 3 He brought out the people who were in it, and had them cut with saws, with iron picks, and with axes. David did so to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem. 4 After this, war arose at Gezer with the Philistines. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, of the sons of the giant; and they were subdued. 5 Again there was war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. 6 There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot; and he also was born to the giant. 7 When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him. 8 These were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

three years of famine; or three months to be consumed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days of the sword of the LORD, even pestilence in the land, and the LORD's angel destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me." 13 David said to Gad, "I am in distress. Let me fall, I pray, into the LORD's hand, for his mercies are very great. Don't let me fall into man's hand." 14 So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell. 15 God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was about to destroy, the LORD saw, and he relented of the disaster, and said to the destroying angel, "It is enough. Now withdraw your hand." the LORD's angel was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. 16 David lifted up his eyes, and saw the LORD's angel standing between earth and the sky, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. 17 David said to God, "Isn't it I who commanded the people to be counted? It is even I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand, O LORD my God, be against me and against my father's house; but not against your people, that they should be plagued." 18 Then the LORD's angel commanded Gad to tell David that David should go up and raise an Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. 19 David went up at the saying of Gad, which and to the princes of the people, "Go, count Israel from he spoke in the LORD's name. 20 Ornan turned back and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him know how many there are." 3 Joab said, "May the LORD hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. 21 As make his people a hundred times as many as they are. David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, But, my lord the king, aren't they all my lord's servants? and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself Why does my lord require this thing? Why will he be to David with his face to the ground. 22 Then David a cause of guilt to Israel?" 4 Nevertheless the king's said to Ornan, "Sell me the place of this threshing floor, word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed that I may build an altar to the LORD on it. You shall and went throughout all Israel, then came to Jerusalem. sell it to me for the full price, that the plague may be 5 Joab gave the sum of the census of the people to stopped from afflicting the people." 23 Ornan said to David. All those of Israel were one million one hundred David, "Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king thousand men who drew a sword; and in Judah were do that which is good in his eyes. Behold, I give the four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew a oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments sword. 6 But he didn't count Levi and Benjamin amongst for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering. I give it them, for the king's word was abominable to Joab. 7 all." 24 King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will most God was displeased with this thing; therefore he struck certainly buy it for the full price. For I will not take that Israel. 8 David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, in which is yours for the LORD, nor offer a burnt offering that I have done this thing. But now put away, I beg that costs me nothing." 25 So David gave to Ornan six you, the iniquity of your servant, for I have done very hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place. 26 foolishly." 9 The LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, David built an altar to the LORD there, and offered burnt saying, 10 "Go and speak to David, saying, 'The LORD offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD; says, "I offer you three things. Choose one of them, that and he answered him from the sky by fire on the altar angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath. 28 At workers of stone and timber, and all kinds of men who that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered are skilful in every kind of work; 16 of the gold, the him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he silver, the bronze, and the iron, there is no number. sacrificed there. 29 For the LORD's tabernacle, which Arise and be doing, and may the LORD be with you." Arise therefore, and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the LORD's covenant and the holy vessels of God into the house that is to be built for the LORD's name."

23 Now David was old and full of days; and he made Solomon his son king over Israel. 2 He gathered bronze in abundance without weight, 4 and cedar trees together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the without number, for the Sidonians and the people of Levites. 3 The Levites were counted from thirty years Tyre brought cedar trees in abundance to David. 5 old and upward; and their number by their polls, man by David said, "Solomon my son is young and tender, and man, was thirty-eight thousand. 4 David said, "Of these, the house that is to be built for the LORD must be twenty-four thousand were to oversee the work of the exceedingly magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout LORD's house, six thousand were officers and judges, all countries. I will therefore make preparation for it." So 5 four thousand were doorkeepers, and four thousand David prepared abundantly before his death. 6 Then he praised the LORD with the instruments which I made called for Solomon his son, and commanded him to for giving praise." 6 David divided them into divisions build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel. 7 David according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and said to Solomon his son, "As for me, it was in my heart Merari. 7 Of the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei. 8 to build a house to the name of the LORD my God. 8 The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the chief, Zetham, and Joel, But the LORD's word came to me, saying, 'You have three. 9 The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziel, and shed blood abundantly and have made great wars. Shecaniah, 12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to by their polls, who did the work for the service of the to Happizzez, 16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the offer all burnt offerings to the LORD on the Sabbaths, Merari by Jaaziah: Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri. 28 according to the ordinance concerning them, continually of Kish: Jerahmeel. 30 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, before the LORD; 32 and that they should keep the and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after David the king, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites, the fathers' households of the chief even as those of his younger brother.

25 Moreover, David and the captains of the army set apart for the service certain of the sons of Asaph, Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who were to prophesy with them according to their ordering in their service. 4 There harps, with stringed instruments, and with cymbals. were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than The number of those who did the work according to their service was: 2 of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah. The sons of Asaph were under the hand of Asaph, who prophesied at the order of the king. 3 Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, the sanctuary and princes of God, both of the sons of and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. 6 Shemaiah the Jeduthun, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising the LORD with the harp. 4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. 5 All the Levites; one fathers' house being taken for Eleazar, these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the and one taken for Ithamar. 7 Now the first lot came words of God, to lift up the horn. God gave to Heman out to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, 8 the third to fourteen sons and three daughters. 6 All these were Harim, the fourth to Seorim, 9 the fifth to Malchijah, under the hands of their father for song in the LORD's the sixth to Mijamin, 10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the house, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, Heman being under the order of the king, 7 The number the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief (for of them, with their brothers who were instructed in though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made singing to the LORD, even all who were skilful, was him chief), 11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, two hundred and eighty-eight. 8 They cast lots for their and Zechariah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of offices, all alike, the small as well as the great, the Hosah were thirteen. 12 Of these were the divisions teacher as well as the student. 9 Now the first lot came of the doorkeepers, even of the chief men, having out for Asaph to Joseph; the second to Gedaliah, he offices like their brothers, to minister in the LORD's and his brothers and sons were twelve; 10 the third to house. 13 They cast lots, the small as well as the great, Zaccur, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 11 the fourth according to their fathers' houses, for every gate. 14 to Izri, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 12 the fifth to The lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 13 the his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 14 came out northward. 15 To Obed-Edom southward; the seventh to Jesharelah, his sons and his brothers, and to his sons the storehouse. 16 To Shuppim and twelve; 15 the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons and his Hosah westward, by the gate of Shallecheth, at the brothers, twelve; 16 the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons causeway that goes up, watchman opposite watchman. and his brothers, twelve; 17 the tenth to Shimei, his 17 Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, sons and his brothers, twelve; 18 the eleventh to Azarel, southward four a day, and for the storehouse two and his sons and his brothers, twelve; 19 the twelfth to two. 18 For Parbar westward, four at the causeway, Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 20 for the and two at Parbar. 19 These were the divisions of the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 21 doorkeepers; of the sons of the Korahites, and of the for the fourteenth, Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers, sons of Merari. 20 Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the twelve; 22 for the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his treasures of God's house and over the treasures of the brothers, twelve; 23 for the sixteenth to Hananiah, his dedicated things. 21 The sons of Ladan, the sons of sons and his brothers, twelve; 24 for the seventeenth to the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, the heads of the Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 25 for fathers' households belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, Jehieli. 22 The sons of Jehieli: Zetham, and Joel his twelve; 26 for the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and brother, over the treasures of the LORD's house. 23 his brothers, twelve: 27 for the twentieth to Eliathah, his Of the Amramites, of the Izharites, of the Hebronites, sons and his brothers, twelve; 28 for the twenty-first of the Uzzielites: 24 Shebuel the son of Gershom, the to Hothir, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 29 for the son of Moses, was ruler over the treasuries. 25 His twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers, brothers: of Eliezer, Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah twelve; 30 for the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and and his brothers, twelve; 31 for the twenty-fourth to Shelomoth his son. 26 This Shelomoth and his brothers Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brothers, twelve.

26 For the divisions of the doorkeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. 2 Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, 3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, and Eliehoenai the seventh. 4 Obed-Edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, 5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, and Peullethai the eighth; for God blessed him. 6 Sons were also born to Shemaiah his son, who ruled over the house of their father; for they were mighty men of valour. 7 The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose relatives were valiant men, Elihu, and Semachiah. 8 All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom with their sons and their brothers, able men in strength for the service: sixty-two of Obed-Edom. 9 Meshelemiah had sons and brothers, eighteen valiant men. 10 Also Hosah, of were over all the treasuries of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the heads of the fathers' households, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated. 27 They dedicated some of the plunder won in battles to repair the LORD's house. 28 All that Samuel the seer, Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, whoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of Shelomoth and of his brothers. 29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were appointed to the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges. 30 Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brothers, one thousand and seven hundred men of valour, had the oversight of Israel beyond the Jordan westward, for all the business of the LORD and for the service of the king. 31 Of the Hebronites, Jerijah was the chief of the Hebronites, according to their generations by fathers' households. They were sought for in the fortieth year of the reign of David, and mighty men of valour were found amongst them at Jazer of Gilead. 32 matter pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king.

77 Now the children of Israel after their number, the heads of fathers' households and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king in any matter of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year-of every division were twenty-four thousand. 2 Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel. In his division were twenty-four thousand. 3 He was of the children of Perez, the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month. 4 Over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite and his division, and Mikloth the ruler; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. 5 The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the chief priest. In his division were twenty-four thousand. 6 This is that Benaiah who was the mighty man of the thirty and over the thirty. Of his division was Ammizabad his son. 7 The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him. In his division were twentyfour thousand. 8 The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite. In his division were twentyfour thousand. 9 The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite. In his division were twenty-four thousand. 10 The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim. In his division were twenty-four thousand. 11 The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites. In his division were twenty-four thousand. 12 The ninth captain of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; of the half-tribe Israel. 5 Of all my sons (for the LORD has given me

His relatives, men of valour, were two thousand and of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedajah: 21 of the halfseven hundred, heads of fathers' households, whom tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; King David made overseers over the Reubenites, the of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner; 22 of Dan, Azarel Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites, for every the son of Jeroham. These were the captains of the tribes of Israel. 23 But David didn't take the number of them from twenty years old and under, because the LORD had said he would increase Israel like the stars of the sky. 24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began to take a census, but didn't finish; and wrath came on Israel for this. The number wasn't put into the account in the chronicles of King David. 25 Over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel. Over the treasures in the fields, in the cities, in the villages, and in the towers was Jonathan the son of Uzziah; 26 Over those who did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub. 27 Over the vinevards was Shimei the Ramathite. Over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite. 28 Over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowland was Baal Hanan the Gederite. Over the cellars of oil was Joash. 29 Over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite. Over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai. 30 Over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite. Over the donkeys was Jehdeiah the Meronothite. Over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. 31 All these were the rulers of the property which was King David's. 32 Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counsellor, a man of understanding, and a scribe. Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons. 33 Ahithophel was the king's counsellor. Hushai the Archite was the king's friend. 34 After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar. Joab was the captain of the king's army.

28 David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, the captains of the companies for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the who served the king by division, the captains of Benjamites. In his division were twenty-four thousand. thousands, the captains of hundreds, and the rulers 13 The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai over all the substance and possessions of the king and the Netophathite, of the Zerahites. In his division were of his sons, with the officers and the mighty men, even twenty-four thousand. 14 The eleventh captain for the all the mighty men of valour, to Jerusalem. 2 Then eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the David the king stood up on his feet and said, "Hear me, children of Ephraim. In his division were twenty-four my brothers and my people! As for me, it was in my thousand. 15 The twelfth captain for the twelfth month heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the LORD's was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel. In his division covenant, and for the footstool of our God; and I had were twenty-four thousand. 16 Furthermore over the prepared for the building. 3 But God said to me, 'You tribes of Israel: of the Reubenites, Eliezer the son of shall not build a house for my name, because you are Zichri was the ruler; of the Simeonites, Shephatiah a man of war and have shed blood.' 4 However the the son of Maacah; 17 of Levi, Hashabiah the son of LORD, the God of Israel, chose me out of all the house Kemuel; of Aaron, Zadok; 18 of Judah, Elihu, one of of my father to be king over Israel forever. For he has the brothers of David; of Issachar, Omri the son of chosen Judah to be prince; and in the house of Judah, Michael: 19 of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; of the house of my father; and amongst the sons of my Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel; 20 of the children father he took pleasure in me to make me king over all the throne of the LORD's kingdom over Israel. 6 He said Also the captains and all the people will be entirely at to me, 'Solomon, your son, shall build my house and my your command." courts; for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. 7 I will establish his kingdom forever if he continues to do my commandments and my ordinances, as it is today.' 8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel. the LORD's assembly, and in the audience of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever. 9 You, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts. If you seek him. he will be found by you: but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. 10 Take heed now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong, and do it." 11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the plans for the porch of the temple, for its houses, for its treasuries, for its upper rooms, for its inner rooms, for the place of the mercy seat; 12 and the plans of all that he had by the Spirit, for the courts of the LORD's house, for all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of God's house, and for the treasuries of the dedicated things: 13 also for the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of the LORD's house, and for all the vessels of service in the LORD's house— 14 of gold by weight for the gold for all vessels of every kind of service, for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels of every kind of service; 15 by weight also for the lamp stands of gold, and for its lamps, of gold, by weight for every lamp stand and for its lamps; and for the lamp stands of silver, by weight for every lamp stand and for its lamps, according to the use of every lamp stand; 16 and the gold by weight for the tables of show bread, for every table; and silver for the tables of silver; 17 and the forks, the basins, and the cups, of pure gold; and for the golden bowls by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls by weight for every bowl: 18 and for the altar of incense, refined gold by weight; and gold for the plans for the chariot. and the cherubim that spread out and cover the ark of the LORD's covenant. 19 "All this". David said. "I have been made to understand in writing from the LORD's hand, even all the works of this pattern." 20 David said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and courageous, and do it. Don't be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD God, even my God, is with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you, until all the work for the service of the LORD's house is finished. 21 Behold, there are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of God's house. Every willing man who has skill for any many sons), he has chosen Solomon my son to sit on kind of service shall be with you in all kinds of work.

29 David the king said to all the assembly, "Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God. 2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, the bronze for the things of bronze, iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, also onyx stones, stones to be set, stones for inlaid work of various colours, all kinds of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. 3 In addition, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, since I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house: 4 even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses; 5 of gold for the things of gold, and of silver for the things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be made by the hands of artisans. Who then offers willingly to consecrate himself today to the LORD?" 6 Then the princes of the fathers' households, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king's work. offered willingly; 7 and they gave for the service of God's house of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand darics, of silver ten thousand talents, of bronze eighteen thousand talents, and of iron one hundred thousand talents. 8 People with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the LORD's house. under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. 9 Then the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD; and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. 10 Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the assembly; and David said, "You are blessed, LORD, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever. 11 Yours, LORD, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty! For all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, LORD, and you are exalted as head above all. 12 Both riches and honour come from you, and you rule over all! In your hand is power and might! It is in your hand to make great, and to give strength to all! 13 Now therefore, our God, we thank you and praise your glorious name. 14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from you, and we have given you of your own. 15 For we are strangers before you and foreigners, as all our fathers were. Our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no remaining. 16 LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name comes from your hand, and is all your own. 17 l know also, my God, that you try the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. Now I have seen with joy your people, who are present here, offer willingly to you. 18 LORD, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this desire forever in the thoughts of the heart of your people, and prepare their heart for you; 19 and give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision." 20 Then David said to all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God!" All the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king. 21 They sacrificed sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the next day after that day, even one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, and one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. 22 and ate and drank before the LORD on that day with great gladness. They made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before the LORD to be prince. and Zadok to be priest. 23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. 24 All the princes, the mighty men, and also all of the sons of King David submitted themselves to Solomon the king. 25 The LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and gave to him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel. 26 Now David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. 27 The time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem. 28 He died at a good old age, full of days, riches, and honour; and Solomon his son reigned in his place. 29 Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Samuel the seer, and in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the history of Gad the seer, 30 with all his reign and his might, and the events that involved him, Israel, and all the kingdoms of the lands.

This is an ordinance forever to Israel. 5 "The 6 Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the house which I am building will be great, for our God is LORD, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and offered greater than all gods. 6 But who is able to build him a one thousand burnt offerings on it. 7 That night, God house, since heaven and the heaven of heavens can't appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask for what contain him? Who am I then, that I should build him you want me to give you." 8 Solomon said to God, a house, except just to burn incense before him? 7 "You have shown great loving kindness to David my "Now therefore send me a man skilful to work in gold, in father, and have made me king in his place. 9 Now, silver, in bronze, in iron, and in purple, crimson, and LORD God, let your promise to David my father be blue, and who knows how to engrave engravings, to be established; for you have made me king over a people with the skilful men who are with me in Judah and in like the dust of the earth in multitude. 10 Now give me Jerusalem, whom David my father provided. 8 "Send wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in me also cedar trees, cypress trees, and algum trees before this people; for who can judge this great people out of Lebanon, for I know that your servants know of yours?" 11 God said to Solomon, "Because this was how to cut timber in Lebanon. Behold, my servants will in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, be with your servants, 9 even to prepare me timber in honour, or the life of those who hate you, nor yet have abundance; for the house which I am about to build will you asked for long life; but have asked for wisdom be great and wonderful. 10 Behold, I will give to your and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my servants, the cutters who cut timber, twenty thousand people, over whom I have made you king, 12 therefore cors of beaten wheat, twenty thousand baths of barley, wisdom and knowledge is granted to you. I will give twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand you riches, wealth, and honour, such as none of the baths of oil." 11 Then Huram the king of Tyre answered kings have had who have been before you, and none in writing, which he sent to Solomon, "Because the after you will have." 13 So Solomon came from the LORD loves his people, he has made you king over high place that was at Gibeon, from before the Tent them." 12 Huram continued, "Blessed be the LORD, of Meeting, to Jerusalem; and he reigned over Israel. the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who 14 Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen. He had has given to David the king a wise son, endowed with one thousand and four hundred chariots and twelve discretion and understanding, who would build a house thousand horsemen that he placed in the chariot cities, for the LORD and a house for his kingdom. 13 Now I and with the king at Jerusalem. 15 The king made silver have sent a skilful man, endowed with understanding, and gold to be as common as stones in Jerusalem, and Huram-abi, 14 the son of a woman of the daughters of he made cedars to be as common as the sycamore Dan; and his father was a man of Tyre. 4 Then he made an altar of bronze, twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and ten cubits high. 2 Also he made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim. It was round, five cubits high, and thirty cubits in circumference. 3 Under it was the likeness of oxen, which encircled it, for ten cubits, encircling the sea. The oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast. 4 It stood Then Solomon began to build the LORD's house on twelve oxen, three looking towards the north, three at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD looking towards the west, three looking towards the appeared to David his father, which he prepared in the south, and three looking towards the east; and the sea place that David had appointed, on the threshing floor of was set on them above, and all their hindquarters were Ornan the Jebusite. 2 He began to build in the second inward. 5 It was a handbreadth thick. So Huram finished width twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, doing the work that he did for King Solomon in God's amounting to six hundred talents. 9 The weight of the house: 12 the two pillars, the bowls, the two capitals nails was fifty shekels of gold. He overlaid the upper which were on the top of the pillars, the two networks to rooms with gold. 10 In the most holy place he made two cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top cherubim by carving, and they overlaid them with gold. of the pillars, 13 and the four hundred pomegranates for 11 The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: the two networks—two rows of pomegranates for each the wing of the one was five cubits, reaching to the network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, on the pillars. 14 He also made the bases, and he made reaching to the wing of the other cherub. 12 The wing of the basins on the bases— 15 one sea, and the twelve the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of oxen under it. 16 Huram-abi also made the pots, the the house; and the other wing was five cubits, joining to shovels, the forks, and all its vessels for King Solomon, the wing of the other cherub. 13 The wings of these for the LORD's house, of bright bronze. 17 The king cherubim spread themselves out twenty cubits. They cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground stood on their feet, and their faces were towards the between Succoth and Zeredah. 18 Thus Solomon made house. 14 He made the veil of blue, purple, crimson, all these vessels in great abundance, so that the weight and fine linen, and ornamented it with cherubim. 15 of the bronze could not be determined. 19 Solomon Also he made before the house two pillars thirty-five made all the vessels that were in God's house: the cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each golden altar, the tables with the show bread on them, 20 of them was five cubits. 16 He made chains in the inner and the lamp stands with their lamps to burn according 21 and the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold that was purest gold; 22 and the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and the fire pans of pure gold. As for the entry of the house, its inner doors for the most holy place and the doors of the main hall of the temple were of gold.

Thus all the work that Solomon did for the LORD's house was finished. Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver, the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of God's house. 2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' households of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD's covenant out of David's city, which is Zion. 3 So all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month. 4 All the elders of Israel came. The Levites took up the ark. 5 They brought up the ark, the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent. The Levitical priests brought these up. 6 King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled to him were before the ark. sacrificing sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered for multitude. 7 The priests brought in the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim. 8 For the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. 9 The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the ark in front of the inner sanctuary, but they were not seen outside; and it is there to this day. 10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. 11 When the priests had come out of the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, and didn't keep their divisions; 12 also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them one hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets): 13 when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saving, "For he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever!" then the house was filled with a cloud, even the LORD's house. 14 so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the LORD's glory filled God's house.

Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. 2 But I have built vou a house and home, a place for you to dwell in forever." 3 The king turned his face, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. 4 He said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and has with his hands fulfilled it, saying, 5 'Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there, and I chose no man to be prince over my people Israel; 6 but now I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.' 7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, 8 But the LORD said to David my father, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart; 9 nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who will come out of your body, he shall build the house for my name.' 10 "The LORD has performed his word that he spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. 11 There I have set the ark, in which is the LORD's covenant, which he made with the children of Israel." 12 He stood before the LORD's altar in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands 13 (for Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the middle of the court; and he stood on it, and knelt down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel. and spread out his hands towards heaven). 14 Then he said, "LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or on earth-you who keep covenant and loving kindness with your servants who walk before you with all their heart; 15 who have kept with your servant David my father that which you promised him. Yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is today. 16 "Now therefore, LORD, the God of Israel, keep with your servant David my father that which you have promised him, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.' 17 Now therefore, LORD, the God of Israel, let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant David. 18 "But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain you: how much less this house which I have built! 19 Yet have respect for the prayer of your servant and to his supplication, LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to

> 7 Now when Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the LORD's glory filled the house. 2 The priests could not enter into the LORD's house, because the LORD's glory filled the LORD's house. 3 All the children of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and the LORD's glory was on the house. They bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, worshipped, and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, "For he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever!" 4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. 5 King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated God's house. 6 The priests stood, according to their positions; the Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to give thanks to the LORD, when David praised by their ministry, saying "For his loving kindness endures forever." The priests sounded trumpets before them; and all Israel stood. 7 Moreover Solomon made the middle of the court that was before the LORD's house holy; for there he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offering, the meal offering, and the fat. 8 So

So the LORD's house was completed. and say, 'Why has the LORD done this to this land and 17 Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and to Eloth, to this house?' 22 They shall answer, 'Because they on the seashore in the land of Edom, 18 Huram sent abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who him ships and servants who had knowledge of the sea brought them out of the land of Egypt, and took other by the hands of his servants; and they came with the gods, worshipped them, and served them. Therefore he servants of Solomon to Ophir, and brought from there has brought all this evil on them."

At the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the LORD's house and his own house, Solomon built the cities which Huram had given to Solomon, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there. 3 Solomon went to Hamath Zobah, and prevailed against it. 4 He built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities, which he built in Hamath. 5 Also she talked with him about all that was in her heart.

Solomon held the feast at that time for seven days, he built Beth Horon the upper and Beth Horon the and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from the lower, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars; 6 shown to David, to Solomon, and to Israel his people. 11 Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel—8 into Solomon's heart to make in the LORD's house Solomon conscripted forced labour to this day. 9 But will walk before me as David your father walked, and the set feasts, three times per year, during the feast gods and worship them, 20 then I will pluck them up by God had so commanded. 15 They didn't depart from the this house, which I have made holy for my name, I will concerning any matter or concerning the treasures. 16 byword amongst all peoples. 21 This house, which is the day of the foundation of the LORD's house until it four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to King Solomon.

> Q When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to test Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great caravan, including camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones. When she had come to Solomon,

There were none 10 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had like these seen before in the land of Judah. 12 King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, more than that which she had brought to the king. So she turned and went to her own land, she and her servants. 13 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 14 in addition to that which the traders and merchants brought. All the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. 15 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold. Six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one large shield. 16 He made three hundred shields of beaten gold. Three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon. 17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. 18 There were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and armrests on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests. 19 Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps. There was nothing like it made in any other kingdom. 20 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all

There the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, was never before such spice as the queen of Sheba and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam gave to King Solomon. 10 The servants of Huram and the son of Nebat? 30 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, over all Israel forty years. 31 Solomon slept with his also brought algum trees and precious stones. 11 The fathers, and he was buried in his father David's city; and come to Shechem to make him king. 2 When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. 3 They sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came, and they spoke to Rehoboam, saying, 4 "Your father made our yoke grievous. Now therefore make the grievous service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you." 5 He said to them, "Come again to me after three days." So the people departed. 6 King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel do you give me about how to answer these people?" 7 They spoke to him, saying, "If you are kind to these people, please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever." 8 But he abandoned the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. 9 He said to them, "What counsel do you give, that we may give an answer to these people, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter'?" 10 The the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall tell the people who spoke to make it lighter on us;' thus you shall say to them, 'My Jerusalem; for Jeroboam and his sons cast them off, Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the who set their hearts to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, listen to the people; for it was brought about by God, the son of Jesse. 19 She bore him sons: Jeush, by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. the granddaughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, children of Israel stoned him to death with stones. My father chastised you with places, for the male goat and calf idols which he had whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions." 12 So made. 16 After them, out of all the tribes of Israel, those third day, as the king asked, saving, "Come to me again came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD, the God the third day." 13 The king answered them roughly; and of their fathers. 17 So they strengthened the kingdom King Rehoboam abandoned the counsel of the old men, of Judah and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon 14 and spoke to them after the counsel of the young strong for three years, for they walked three years in men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I the way of David and Solomon. 18 Rehoboam took will add to it. My father chastised you with whips, but I a wife for himself, Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth will chastise you with scorpions." 15 So the king didn't the son of David and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab that the LORD might establish his word, which he spoke Shemariah, and Zaham. 20 After her, he took Maacah 16 When all Israel saw that the king didn't listen to them, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. 21 Rehoboam loved Maacah the people answered the king, saying, "What portion the granddaughter of Absalom above all his wives and do we have in David? We don't have an inheritance in his concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty the son of Jesse! Every man to your tents, Israel! Now concubines, and became the father of twenty-eight sons see to your own house, David." So all Israel departed and sixty daughters. 22 Rehoboam appointed Abijah to their tents. 17 But as for the children of Israel who the son of Maacah to be chief, the prince amongst his lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over brothers, for he intended to make him king. 23 He dealt them. 18 Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who wisely, and dispersed some of his sons throughout all was over the men subject to forced labour; and the the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city.

12 When the kingdom of Rehoboam was established and he was strong, he abandoned the LORD's 11 When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he law, and all Israel with him. 2 In the fifth year of King assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, one Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were Jerusalem, because they had trespassed against the warriors, to fight against Israel, to bring the kingdom LORD, 3 with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand again to Rehoboam. 2 But the LORD's word came horsemen. The people were without number who came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 3 "Speak to with him out of Egypt: the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and Ethiopians. 4 He took the fortified cities which belonged to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, 4 'The to Judah, and came to Jerusalem. 5 Now Shemaiah LORD says, "You shall not go up, nor fight against your the prophet came to Rehoboam and to the princes brothers! Every man return to his house; for this thing is of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem of me."" So they listened to the LORD's words, and because of Shishak, and said to them, "The LORD returned from going against Jeroboam. 5 Rehoboam says, 'You have forsaken me, therefore I have also left lived in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah. you in the hand of Shishak." 6 Then the princes of 6 He built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, 7 Beth Zur, Soco, Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, Adullam, 8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, 9 Adoraim, Lachish, "The LORD is righteous." 7 When the LORD saw that Azekah, 10 Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are they humbled themselves, the LORD's word came to fortified cities in Judah and in Benjamin. 11 He fortified Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves. the strongholds and put captains in them with stores I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some of food, oil and wine. 12 He put shields and spears in deliverance, and my wrath won't be poured out on every city, and made them exceedingly strong. wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. David's city; and Abijah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah began to reign over Judah. 2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. 3 Abijah joined battle with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men; and Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valour. 4 Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel: 5 Ought you not to know that the LORD, the God of Israel, gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? 6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. 7 Worthless men were gathered to him, wicked fellows who strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the tender hearted, and could not withstand them. 8 "Now you intend to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David. You are a great multitude, and the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods are with you. 9 Haven't you driven out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves according to the ways of the himself with a young bull and seven rams may be a

As the men 15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, aren't of Judah shouted, God struck Jeroboam and all Israel they written in the histories of Shemaiah the prophet before Abijah and Judah. 16 The children of Israel and of Iddo the seer, in the genealogies? There were fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand. 17 Abijah and his people killed them with a great 16 Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in slaughter, so five hundred thousand chosen men of Israel fell down slain. 18 Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers. 19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam, and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephron with its villages. 20 Jeroboam didn't recover strength again in the days of Abijah. The LORD struck him, and he died. 21 But Abijah grew mighty and took for himself fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. 22 The rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways, and his sayings are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

1 1 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in David's city; and Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days, the land was quiet ten years. 2 Asa did that which was good and right in the LORD his God's eyes, 3 for he took away the foreign altars and the high places, broke down the pillars, cut down the Asherah poles, 4 and commanded Judah to seek the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and LORD, the God of their fathers, and to obey his law and command. 5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun images; and the kingdom was quiet before him. 6 He built fortified cities in Judah; for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him rest. 7 For he said to Judah, "Let's build these cities and make walls around them, with towers, gates, and bars. peoples of other lands? Whoever comes to consecrate The land is yet before us, because we have sought the all the cities, for there was much plunder in them. 15 They also struck the tents of those who had livestock, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, then returned to Jerusalem.

15 The Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded. 2 He went out to meet Asa, and said to him, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin! The LORD is with you while you are with him; and if you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will forsake you. 3 Now for a long time Israel was without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without law. 4 But when in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them. 5 In those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in; but great troubles were on all the inhabitants of the lands. 6 They were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for God troubled them with all adversity. 7 But you be strong! Don't let your hands be slack, for your work will be rewarded." 8 When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill country of Ephraim; and he renewed the LORD's altar that was before the LORD's porch. 9 He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who lived with them out of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon; for they came to him out of Israel in abundance when they saw that the LORD his God was with him. 10

So brook Kidron. 17 But the high places were not taken many of the Ethiopians fell that they could not recover away out of Israel; nevertheless the heart of Asa was themselves, for they were destroyed before the LORD perfect all his days. 18 He brought the things that his and before his army. Judah's army carried away very father had dedicated and that he himself had dedicated, much booty. 14 They struck all the cities around Gerar, silver, gold, and vessels into God's house. 19 There for the fear of the LORD came on them. They plundered was no more war to the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

> 16 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. 2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the LORD's house and of the king's house, and sent to Ben Hadad king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, 3 "Let there be a treaty between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me." 4 Ben Hadad listened to King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they struck Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali. 5 When Baasha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah, and let his work cease. 6 Then Asa the king took all Judah, and they carried away the stones and timber of Ramah, with which Baasha had built; and he built Geba and Mizpah with them. 7 At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him, "Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand. 8 Weren't the Ethiopians and the Lubim a huge army, with chariots and exceedingly many horsemen? 18 Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance; and he allied himself with Ahab. 2 After some years, he went down to Ahab to Samaria. Ahab killed sheep and cattle for him in abundance, and for the people who were with him, and moved him 17 Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead. 3 Ahab king of strengthened himself against Israel. 2 He placed Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons go with me to Ramoth Gilead?" He answered him, "I in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim, am as you are, and my people as your people. We which Asa his father had taken. 3 The LORD was with will be with you in the war." 4 Jehoshaphat said to Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his the king of Israel, "Please enquire first for the LORD's father David, and didn't seek the Baals, 4 but sought the word." 5 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets God of his father, and walked in his commandments, together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall and not in the ways of Israel. 5 Therefore the LORD we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?" established the kingdom in his hand. All Judah brought They said, "Go up, for God will deliver it into the hand tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had riches and honour in of the king." 6 But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here abundance. 6 His heart was lifted up in the ways of a prophet of the LORD besides, that we may enquire the LORD. Furthermore, he took away the high places of him?" 7 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, and the Asherah poles out of Judah. 7 Also in the third "There is yet one man by whom we may enquire of the year of his reign he sent his princes, even Ben Hail, LORD; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of in the cities of Judah; 8 and with them Levites, even Imla." Jehoshaphat said, "Don't let the king say so." Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, 8 Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah, the "Get Micaiah the son of Imla quickly." 9 Now the king Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah each sat priests. 9 They taught in Judah, having the book of the on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they were LORD's law with them. They went about throughout all sitting in an open place at the entrance of the gate of the cities of Judah and taught amongst the people. 10 Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before The fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the them. 10 Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made himself lands that were around Judah, so that they made no horns of iron and said, "The LORD says, 'With these war against Jehoshaphat. 11 Some of the Philistines you shall push the Syrians, until they are consumed." brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver for tribute. 11 All the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to The Arabians also brought him flocks: seven thousand Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for the LORD will deliver and seven hundred rams and seven thousand and it into the hand of the king." 12 The messenger who seven hundred male goats. 12 Jehoshaphat grew great went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Behold, the exceedingly; and he built fortresses and store cities in words of the prophets declare good to the king with one Judah. 13 He had many works in the cities of Judah; mouth, Let your word therefore, please be like one of and men of war, mighty men of valour, in Jerusalem. theirs, and speak good." 13 Micaiah said, "As the LORD 14 This was the numbering of them according to their lives, I will say what my God says." 14 When he had fathers' houses: From Judah, the captains of thousands: come to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?" times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing until the evening; and at about sunset, he died. but the truth in the LORD's name?" 16 He said. "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. The LORD said, 'These have no master. Let them each return to his house in peace." 17 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?" 18 Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the LORD's word: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the army of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. 19 The LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?' One spoke saying in this way, and another saying in that way. 20 A spirit came out, stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will entice him.' "The LORD said to him, 'How?' 21 "He said, 'I will go, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' "He said, 'You will entice him, and will prevail also. Go and do so.' 22 "Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; and the LORD has spoken evil concerning you." 23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the LORD's Spirit go from me to speak to you?" 24 Micaiah said, "Behold, you shall see on that day, when you go into an inner room to hide yourself." 25 The king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; 26 and say, 'The king says, "Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace."" 27 Micaiah said, "If you return at all in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." He said, "Listen, you people, all of you!" 28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. 29 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into the battle. 30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, "Don't fight with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel." 31 When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "It is the king of Israel!" Therefore they turned around to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him. 32 When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him. 33 A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armour. Therefore he said to the driver of the chariot, "Turn around and carry me out of the battle, for I am severely wounded." 34 The battle increased that day. However, the king of Israel

9 Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. 2 Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, wrath is on you from before the LORD. 3 Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away the Asheroth out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God." 4 Jehoshaphat lived at Jerusalem; and he went out again amongst the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers. 5 He set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, 6 and said to the judges, "Consider what you do, for you don't judge for man, but for the LORD; and he is with you in the judgement. 7 Now therefore let the fear of the LORD be on you. Take heed and do it; for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes." 8 Moreover in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed certain Levites, priests, and heads of the fathers' households of Israel to give judgement for the LORD and for controversies. They returned to Jerusalem. 9 He commanded them, saying, "You shall do this in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. 10 Whenever any controversy comes to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you must warn them, that they not be guilty towards the LORD, and so wrath come on you and on your brothers. Do this, and you will not be guilty. 11 Behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all the king's matters. Also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and may the LORD be with the good."

 ${f 20}$ After this, the children of Moab, the children of Ammon, and with them some of the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. 2 Then some came who told Jehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea from Syria. Behold, they are in Hazazon Tamar" (that is, En Gedi). 3 Jehoshaphat was alarmed, and set himself to seek the LORD. He proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. 4 Judah gathered themselves together to seek help from the LORD. They came out of all the cities of Judah to seek the LORD. 5 Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the LORD's house, before the new court; 6 and he said, "LORD, the God of our fathers, aren't you God in heaven? > 21 Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in David's city; and Jehoram his son reigned in his place. 2 He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. 3 Their father gave them great gifts of silver, of gold, and of precious things, with

Jehoram, because he was the firstborn. 4 Now when kings. Jehoram had risen up over the kingdom of his father, and had strengthened himself, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and also some of the princes of Israel. 5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. 6 He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did Ahab's house, for he had Ahab's daughter as his wife. He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight. 7 However the LORD would not destroy David's house, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his children always. 8 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. 9 Then Jehoram went there with his captains and all his chariots with him. He rose up by night and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, along with the captains of the chariots. 10 So Edom has been in revolt from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers. 11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem play the prostitute, and led Judah astray. 12 A letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, "the LORD, the God of David your father, says, 'Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, 13 but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute like Ahab's house did, and also have slain your brothers of your father's house, who were better than yourself, 14 behold, the LORD will strike your people with a great plague, including your children, your wives, and all your possessions; 15 and you will have great sickness with a disease of your bowels, until your bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day." 16 The LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and of the Arabians who are beside the Ethiopians; 17 and they came up against Judah, broke into it, and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, including his sons and his wives, so that there was no son left to him except Jehoahaz. the youngest of his sons. 18 After all this the LORD struck him in his bowels with an incurable disease. 19 In process of time, at the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died of severe diseases. His people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. 20 He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. He departed with no one's regret. They fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to buried him in David's city, but not in the tombs of the Jehoram, because he was the firstborn. 4 Now when kings.

22 The inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place, because the band of men who came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the oldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. 2 Ahaziah was forty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. 3 He also walked in the ways of Ahab's house, because his mother was his counsellor in acting wickedly. 4 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, as did Ahab's house, for they were his counsellors after the death of his father, to his destruction. 5 He also followed their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram. 6 He returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Azariah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick. 7 Now the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in that he went to Joram; for when he had come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off Ahab's house. 8 When Jehu was executing judgement on Ahab's house, he found the princes of Judah and the sons of the brothers of Ahaziah serving Ahaziah, and killed them. 9 He sought Ahaziah, and they caught him (now he was hiding in Samaria), and they brought him to Jehu and killed him; and they buried him, for they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." The house of Ahaziah had no power to hold the kingdom. 10 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal offspring of the house of Judah. 11 But Jehoshabeath, the king's daughter, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stealthily rescued him from amongst the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah, so that she didn't kill him. 12 He was with them hidden in God's house six years while Athaliah reigned over the land.

23 In the seventh year, Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds—Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri—into a covenant with him. 2 They went around in Judah and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, they came to Jerusalem. 3 All the assembly made a the LORD's house, to offer the burnt offerings of the covenant with the king in God's house. Jehoiada said to LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing them, "Behold, the king's son must reign, as the LORD and with singing, as David had ordered. 19 He set the has spoken concerning the sons of David. 4 This is the gatekeepers at the gates of the LORD's house, that thing that you must do: a third part of you, who come in no one who was unclean in anything should enter in. on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall 20 He took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the be gatekeepers of the thresholds. 5 A third part shall be governors of the people, and all the people of the land, at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the and brought the king down from the LORD's house. foundation. They each took his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest didn't dismiss the shift. 9 Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, bucklers, and shields that had been king David's, which were in God's house. 10 He set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, near the altar and the house, around the king. 11 Then they brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, gave him the covenant, and made him king. Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and they said, "Long live the king!" 12 When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the LORD's house. 13 Then she looked, and behold, the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, with the captains and the trumpeters by the king. All the people of the land rejoiced and blew trumpets. The singers also played musical instruments, and led the singing of praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and said, "Treason! treason!" 14 Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks; and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword." For the priest said, "Don't kill her in the LORD's house." 15 So they made way for her. She went to the entrance of the horse gate to the king's house; and they killed her there. 16 Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, all the people, and the king, that they should be the LORD's people. 17 All the people went to the house of Baal, broke it down, broke his altars and his images in pieces, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. 18 Jehoiada appointed the officers of the LORD's house under the hand of

and the heads of fathers' households of Israel, and the Levitical priests, whom David had distributed in 24 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah, of Beersheba. 2 Joash did that which was right in the LORD's eyes all the days of Jehoiada the priest. 3 Jehoiada took for him two wives, and he became the father of sons and daughters. 4 After this, Joash intended to restore the LORD's house. 5 He gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather money to repair the house of your God from all Israel from year to year. See that you expedite this matter." However the Levites didn't do it right away. 6 The king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, "Why haven't you required of the Levites to bring in the tax of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the assembly of Israel, out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, for the Tent of the Testimony?" 7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up God's house; and they also gave all the dedicated things of the LORD's house to the Baals. 8 So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the LORD's house. 9 They made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness. 10 All the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had filled it. 11 Whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. 12 The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the LORD's house. They hired masons and carpenters to restore the LORD's house, and also those who worked iron and bronze to repair the LORD's house. 13 So the workmen worked, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands. They set up God's house as it was designed, and strengthened it. 14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

25 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan, of Jerusalem. 2 He did that which was right in the LORD's before the king and Jehojada, from which were made eyes, but not with a perfect heart. 3 Now when the vessels for the LORD's house, even vessels with which kingdom was established to him, he killed his servants to minister and to offer, including spoons and vessels who had killed his father the king. 4 But he didn't put of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the their children to death, but did according to that which is LORD's house continually all the days of Jehoiada. 15 written in the law in the book of Moses, as the LORD But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not die for the died. He was one hundred and thirty years old when children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; he died. 16 They buried him in David's city amongst but every man shall die for his own sin." 5 Moreover the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and Amaziah gathered Judah together and ordered them towards God and his house. 17 Now after the death of according to their fathers' houses, under captains of Jehoiada, the princes of Judah came and bowed down thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Judah to the king. Then the king listened to them. 18 They and Benjamin. He counted them from twenty years old abandoned the house of the LORD, the God of their and upward, and found that there were three hundred fathers, and served the Asherah poles and the idols, thousand chosen men, able to go out to war, who could so wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this their handle spear and shield. 6 He also hired one hundred guiltiness. 19 Yet he sent prophets to them to bring them thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for one again to the LORD, and they testified against them; but hundred talents of silver. 7 A man of God came to him, they would not listen. 20 The Spirit of God came on saying, "O king, don't let the army of Israel go with you, Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood for the LORD is not with Israel, with all the children above the people, and said to them, "God says, 'Why do of Ephraim. 8 But if you will go, take action, and be you disobey the LORD's commandments, so that you strong for the battle. God will overthrow you before the can't prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, enemy; for God has power to help, and to overthrow." 9 he has also forsaken you." 21 They conspired against Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of of the king in the court of the LORD's house. 22 Thus Israel?" The man of God answered, "The LORD is able Joash the king didn't remember the kindness which to give you much more than this." 10 Then Amaziah Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his separated them, the army that had come to him out of son. When he died, he said, "May the LORD look at Ephraim, to go home again. Therefore their anger was it, and repay it." 23 At the end of the year, the army greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home of the Syrians came up against him. They came to in fierce anger. 11 Amaziah took courage, and led his Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes people out and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck of the people from amongst the people, and sent all ten thousand of the children of Seir. 12 The children of their plunder to the king of Damascus. 24 For the army Judah carried away ten thousand alive, and brought of the Syrians came with a small company of men; them to the top of the rock, and threw them down from and the LORD delivered a very great army into their the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in hand, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of pieces. 13 But the men of the army whom Amaziah their fathers. So they executed judgement on Joash. sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, 25 When they had departed from him (for they left him fell on the cities of Judah from Samaria even to Beth seriously wounded), his own servants conspired against Horon, and struck of them three thousand, and took him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and much plunder. 14 Now after Amaziah had come from killed him on his bed, and he died. They buried him in the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of David's city, but they didn't bury him in the tombs of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and the kings. 26 These are those who conspired against bowed down himself before them and burnt incense to him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess and them. 15 Therefore the LORD's anger burnt against Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess. 27 Now Amaziah, and he sent to him a prophet who said to him, concerning his sons, the greatness of the burdens laid "Why have you sought after the gods of the people, on him, and the rebuilding of God's house, behold, they which have not delivered their own people out of your are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. hand?" 16 As he talked with him, the king said to him, "Have we made you one of the king's counsellors? Stop! Why should you be struck down?" Then the prophet stopped, and said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel." 17 Then Amaziah king of Judah consulted his advisers, and sent to Joash, the and against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and the buried him with his fathers in the City of Judah.

26 All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. 2 He built Eloth and restored it to Judah. After that the king slept with his fathers. 3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jechiliah, of Jerusalem. 4 He did that which was right in the LORD's eyes, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. 5 He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the vision of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper. 6 He went out and fought against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the country of Ashdod, and amongst the Philistines. 7 God helped him against the Philistines, son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Meunim. 8 The Ammonites gave tribute to Uzziah. His "Come! Let's look one another in the face." 18 Joash name spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt, king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, for he grew exceedingly strong. 9 Moreover Uzziah "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, at the was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified as his wife. Then a wild animal that was in Lebanon them. 10 He built towers in the wilderness, and dug passed by and trampled down the thistle. 19 You say to out many cisterns, for he had much livestock, both in yourself that you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts the lowlands and in the plains. He had farmers and you up to boast. Now stay at home. Why should you vineyard keepers in the mountains and in the fruitful meddle with trouble, that you should fall, even you and fields, for he loved farming. 11 Moreover Uzziah had an Judah with you?" 20 But Amaziah would not listen; for it army of fighting men who went out to war by bands, was of God, that he might deliver them into the hand according to the number of their reckoning made by of their enemies, because they had sought after the Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the gods of Edom. 21 So Joash king of Israel went up, and hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. 12 The he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in whole number of the heads of fathers' households. the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. 22 even the mighty men of valour, was two thousand and Judah was defeated by Israel; so every man fled to his six hundred. 13 Under their hand was an army, three tent. 23 Joash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, hundred and seven thousand and five hundred, who the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh made war with mighty power, to help the king against and brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall the enemy. 14 Uzziah prepared for them, even for all the of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner army, shields, spears, helmets, coats of mail, bows, and gate, four hundred cubits. 24 He took all the gold and stones for slinging. 15 In Jerusalem, he made devices, silver, and all the vessels that were found in God's invented by skilful men, to be on the towers and on house with Obed-Edom, and the treasures of the king's the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great house, and the hostages, and returned to Samaria. stones. His name spread far abroad, because he was 25 Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived for marvellously helped until he was strong. 16 But when fifteen years after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, he was strong, his heart was lifted up, so that he did king of Israel. 26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, corruptly and he trespassed against the LORD his God, first and last, behold, aren't they written in the book of for he went into the LORD's temple to burn incense the kings of Judah and Israel? 27 Now from the time on the altar of incense. 17 Azariah the priest went in that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, after him, and with him eighty priests of the LORD, who they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. He were valiant men. 18 They resisted Uzziah the king, and fled to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish and said to him, "It isn't for you, Uzziah, to burn incense killed him there. 28 They brought him on horses and to the LORD, but for the priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed. It will not be for your honour from the LORD God." 19 Then Uzziah was angry. He had a censer in his hand to burn incense, and while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in the LORD's house, beside the altar of incense. 20 Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead; and they thrust him out quickly from there. Indeed, he himself also hurried to go out, because the LORD had struck him. 21 Uzziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the LORD's house. Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. 22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, wrote. 23 So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he is a leper." Jotham his son reigned in his place. went out to meet the army that came to Samaria, and 77 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. 2 He did that which was right in the LORD's eyes, according to all that his father Uzziah had done. However he didn't enter into the LORD's temple. The people still acted corruptly. 3 He built the upper gate of the LORD's house, and he built much on the wall of Ophel. 4 Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers. 5 He also fought with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. The children of Ammon gave him the same year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand cors of wheat, and ten thousand cors of barley. The children of Ammon also gave that much to him in the second year, and in the third. 6 So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before the LORD his God. 7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. 8 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. 9 Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in David's city; and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He didn't do that which was right in the LORD's eyes, like David his father, 2 but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and also made molten images for the Baals. 3 Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire. according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. 4 He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. 5 Therefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. They struck him, and carried away from him a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus. He was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with a great slaughter. 6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed in Judah one hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. 7 Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king. 8 The children of Israel carried away captive of their brothers two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters, and also took away much plunder from them, and brought the plunder to Samaria. 9 But a prophet of went out to meet the army that came to Samaria, and said to them, "Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven. 10 Now you intend to degrade the children of Judah and Jerusalem as male and female slaves for yourselves. Aren't there even with you trespasses of your own against the LORD your God? 11 Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives that you have taken captive from your brothers, for the fierce wrath of the LORD is on you." 12 Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war, 13 and said to them, "You must not bring in the captives here, for you intend that which will bring on us a trespass against the LORD, to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel." 14 So the armed men left the captives and the plunder before the princes and all the assembly. 15 The men who have been mentioned by name rose up and took the captives, and with the plunder clothed all who were naked amongst them, dressed them, gave them sandals, gave them something to eat and to drink, anointed them, carried all the feeble of them on donkeys. and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria. 16 At that time King Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him. 17 For again the Edomites had come and struck Judah, and carried away captives. 18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and also Gimzo and its villages; and they lived there. 19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel, because he acted without restraint in Judah and trespassed severely against the LORD. 20 Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came to him and gave him trouble, but didn't strengthen him. 21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the LORD's house, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria; but it didn't help him. 22 In the time of his distress, he trespassed yet more against the LORD, this same King Ahaz. 23 For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him. He said, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, I will sacrifice to them, that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel. 24 Ahaz gathered together the vessels of God's house, cut the vessels of God's house in pieces, and shut up the doors of the LORD's house; and he made himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem. 25 In every city of Judah he found in the LORD's temple into the court of the LORD's and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

29 Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. 2 He did that which was right in the LORD's eyes, according to all that David his father had done. 3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the LORD's house and repaired them. 4 He brought in the priests and the Levites and gathered them together into the wide place on the east, 5 and said to them, "Listen to me, you Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry the filthiness out of the holy place. 6 For our fathers were unfaithful, and have done that which was evil in the LORD our God's sight, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs. 7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. 8 Therefore the LORD's wrath was on Judah and Jerusalem, and he has delivered them to be tossed back and forth, to be an astonishment and a hissing, as you see with your eyes. 9 For behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. 10 Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn away from us. 11 My sons, don't be negligent now; for the LORD has chosen you to stand before him, to minister to him, and that you should be his ministers and burn incense." 12 Then the Levites arose: Mahath, the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah; 13 and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; 14 and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. 15 They gathered their brothers, sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the king by the LORD's words, to cleanse the LORD's house. 16 The priests went into the inner part of the LORD's house to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they

The Levites took it from there to carry it out to provoked the LORD, the God of his fathers, to anger. the brook Kidron. 17 Now they began on the first day of 26 Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of month they came to the LORD's porch. They sanctified Judah and Israel. 27 Ahaz slept with his fathers, and the LORD's house in eight days, and on the sixteenth they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem, because day of the first month they finished. 18 Then they went they didn't bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel; in to Hezekiah the king within the palace and said, "We have cleansed all the LORD's house, including the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, and the table of show bread with all its vessels. 19 Moreover, we have prepared and sanctified all the vessels which King Ahaz threw away in his reign when he was unfaithful. Behold, they are before the LORD's altar." 20 Then Hezekiah the king arose early, gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the LORD's house. 21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. He commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the LORD's altar. 22 So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. They killed the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar. 23 They brought near the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them. 24 Then the priests killed them, and they made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel. 25 He set the Levites in the LORD's house with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was from the LORD by his prophets. 26 The Levites stood with David's instruments, and the priests with the trumpets. 27 Hezekiah commanded them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the LORD's song also began, along with the trumpets and instruments of David king of Israel. 28 All the assembly worshipped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All this continued until the burnt offering was finished. 29 When they had finished offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshipped. 30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. 31 Then Hezekiah answered, "Now you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the LORD's house." The assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were of a willing through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to for the thing was done suddenly.

30 Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the LORD's house at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel. 2 For the king had taken counsel with his princes and all the assembly in Jerusalem to keep the Passover in the second month. 3 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, and the people had not gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. 4 The thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly. 5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem, for they had not kept it in great numbers in the way it is written. 6 So the couriers went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, according to the commandment of the king, saying, "You children of Israel, turn again to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may return to the remnant of you that have escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. 7 Don't be like your fathers and like your brothers, who trespassed against the LORD, the God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as you see. 8 Now don't be stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield vourselves to the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary. which he has sanctified forever, and serve the LORD your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you. 9 For if you turn again to the LORD, your brothers and your children will find compassion with those who led them captive, and will come again into this land, because the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you if you return to him." 10 So the couriers passed from city to city

The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and burnt offering. So the service of the LORD's house was sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into set in order, 36 Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced the LORD's house, 16 They stood in their place after because of that which God had prepared for the people; their order, according to the law of Moses the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites. 17 For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves; therefore the Levites were in charge of killing the Passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD. 18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover other than the way it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD pardon everyone 19 who sets his heart to seek God, the LORD, the God of his fathers, even if they aren't clean according to the purification of the sanctuary." 20 The LORD listened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. 21 The children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness. The Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments to the LORD. 22 Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who had good understanding in the service of the LORD. So they ate throughout the feast for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace offerings and making confession to the LORD, the God of their fathers. 23 The whole assembly took counsel to keep another seven days, and they kept another seven days with gladness. 24 For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly for offerings one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep: and the princes gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of priests sanctified themselves. 25 All the assembly of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly who came out of Israel, and the foreigners who came out of the land of Israel and who lived in Judah, rejoiced. 26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was nothing like this in Jerusalem. 27 Then the Levitical priests arose and blessed the people. Their voice was over the free will offering of God, to distribute the even to heaven.

31 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke the pillars in pieces, cut down the Asherah poles, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, also in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities. 2 Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites after their divisions, every man according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the LORD's camp. 3 He also appointed the king's portion of his possessions for the burnt offerings: for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the LORD's law. 4 Moreover he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the LORD's law. 5 As soon as the commandment went out, the children of Israel gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, oil, honey, and of all the increase of the field; and they brought in the tithe of all things abundantly. 6 The children of Israel and Judah, who lived in the cities of Judah, also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and heard, and their prayer came up to his holy habitation, LORD's offerings and the most holy things. 15 Under him were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their office of trust, to give to their brothers by divisions, to the great as well as to the small; 16 in addition to those who were listed by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even everyone who entered into the LORD's house, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their divisions; 17 and those who were listed by genealogy of the priests by their fathers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their divisions; 18 and those who were listed by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation; for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. 19 Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the pasture lands of their cities, in every city, there were men who were mentioned by name to give portions to all the males amongst the priests and to all who were listed by genealogy amongst the Levites. 20 Hezekiah did so throughout all Judah; and he did that which was good, right, and faithful before the LORD his God. 21 In every work that he began in the service of God's house, in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart and prospered.

32 After these things and this faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, entered into the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated Judah, encamped against the fortified cities, and to the LORD their God, and laid them in heaps. 7 In intended to win them for himself. 2 When Hezekiah saw the third month, they began to lay the foundation of the that Sennacherib had come, and that he was planning heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. 8 When to fight against Jerusalem, 3 he took counsel with Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of they blessed the LORD and his people Israel. 9 Then the springs which were outside of the city, and they Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites about helped him. 4 Then many people gathered together the heaps. 10 Azariah the chief priest, of the house of and they stopped all the springs and the brook that Zadok, answered him and said, "Since people began flowed through the middle of the land, saying, "Why to bring the offerings into the LORD's house, we have should the kings of Assyria come, and find abundant eaten and had enough, and have plenty left over, for water?" 5 He took courage, built up all the wall that was the LORD has blessed his people; and that which is broken down, and raised it up to the towers, with the left is this great store." 11 Then Hezekiah commanded other wall outside, and strengthened Millo in David's them to prepare rooms in the LORD's house, and they city, and made weapons and shields in abundance. 6 prepared them. 12 They brought in the offerings, the He set captains of war over the people, gathered them tithes, and the dedicated things faithfully. Conaniah the together to him in the wide place at the gate of the city, Levite was ruler over them, and Shimei his brother was and spoke encouragingly to them, saying, 7 "Be strong second. 13 Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, and courageous. Don't be afraid or dismayed because Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were of the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude who is overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his with him; for there is a greater one with us than with brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king and him. 8 An arm of flesh is with him, but the LORD our Azariah the ruler of God's house. 14 Kore the son of God is with us to help us and to fight our battles." The Imnah the Levite, the gatekeeper at the east gate, was people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah. 9 After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria Lachish, and all his forces were with him), to Hezekiah there was wrath on him, Judah, and Jerusalem. 26 king of Judah, and to all Judah who were at Jerusalem, However, Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of saying, 10 Sennacherib king of Assyria says, "In whom his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem? so that the LORD's wrath didn't come on them in the 11 Doesn't Hezekiah persuade you to give you over to days of Hezekiah. 27 Hezekiah had exceedingly great die by famine and by thirst, saying, 'The LORD our God riches and honour. He provided himself with treasuries will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria'? 12 for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for Hasn't the same Hezekiah taken away his high places shields, and for all kinds of valuable vessels; 28 also and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, storehouses for the increase of grain, new wine, and saying, 'You shall worship before one altar, and you oil; and stalls for all kinds of animals, and flocks in shall burn incense on it'? 13 Don't you know what I folds. 29 Moreover he provided for himself cities, and and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands in had given him abundant possessions. 30 This same any way able to deliver their land out of my hand? 14 Hezekiah also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Who was there amongst all the gods of those nations. Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side which my fathers utterly destroyed that could deliver of David's city. Hezekiah prospered in all his works. 31 his people out of my hand, that your God should be However, concerning the ambassadors of the princes of able to deliver you out of my hand? 15 Now therefore Babylon, who sent to him to enquire of the wonder that don't let Hezekiah deceive you nor persuade you in was done in the land, God left him to test him, that he this way. Don't believe him, for no god of any nation or might know all that was in his heart. 32 Now the rest of kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, the acts of Hezekiah and his good deeds, behold, they and out of the hand of my fathers. How much less will are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of your God deliver you out of my hand?" 16 His servants Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 33 spoke yet more against the LORD God and against his Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in servant Hezekiah. 17 He also wrote letters insulting the ascent to the tombs of the sons of David. All Judah the LORD, the God of Israel, and speaking against and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honoured him at his him, saying, "As the gods of the nations of the lands, death. Manasseh his son reigned in his place. which have not delivered their people out of my hand. so shall the God of Hezekiah not deliver his people out of my hand." 18 They called out with a loud voice in the Jews' language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and to trouble them, that they might take the city. 19 They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands. 20 Hezekiah the king and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven. 21 The LORD sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valour, the leaders, and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. When he had come into the house of his god. those who came out of his own body killed him there with the sword. 22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side. 23 Many brought gifts to the LORD to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from then on. 24 In those days Hezekiah was terminally ill, and he prayed to the LORD; and he spoke to him, and gave him a sign. 25 But Hezekiah didn't reciprocate appropriate to the benefit

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. 2 He did that which was evil in the LORD's sight, after the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. 3 For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he raised up altars for the Baals, made Asheroth, and worshipped all the army of the sky, and served them. 4 He built altars in the LORD's house, of which the LORD said, "My name shall be in Jerusalem forever." 5 He built altars for all the army of the sky in the two courts of the LORD's house. 6 He also made his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom. He practised sorcery, divination, and witchcraft, and dealt with those who had familiar spirits and with wizards. He did much evil in the LORD's sight. to provoke him to anger. 7 He set the engraved image of the idol, which he had made, in God's house, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever. 8 I will not any more remove the foot of Israel from off the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law, the statutes, and the ordinances given by Moses." 9 Manasseh seduced Judah and the walked in the ways of David his father, and didn't turn inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than away to the right hand or to the left. 3 For in the eighth did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to children of Israel. 10 The LORD spoke to Manasseh and seek after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth to his people, but they didn't listen. 11 Therefore the year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the LORD brought on them the captains of the army of the high places, the Asherah poles, the engraved images, king of Assyria, who took Manasseh in chains, bound and the molten images. 4 They broke down the altars of him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. 12 When the Baals in his presence; and he cut down the incense he was in distress, he begged the LORD his God, and altars that were on high above them. He broke the humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. Then Manasseh knew that He burnt the bones of the priests on their altars, and the LORD was God. 14 Now after this, he built an outer purged Judah and Jerusalem. 6 He did this in the cities wall to David's city on the west side of Gihon, in the of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, even to Naphtali, valley, even to the entrance at the fish gate. He encircled around in their ruins. 7 He broke down the altars, Ophel with it, and raised it up to a very great height; and beat the Asherah poles and the engraved images into he put valiant captains in all the fortified cities of Judah. powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout 15 He took away the foreign gods and the idol out of the all the land of Israel, then returned to Jerusalem. 8 Now LORD's house, and all the altars that he had built in the in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged mountain of the LORD's house and in Jerusalem, and the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of cast them out of the city. 16 He built up the LORD's Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the altar, and offered sacrifices of peace offerings and of son of Joahaz the recorder to repair the house of the thanksgiving on it, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD his God. 9 They came to Hilkiah the high priest LORD, the God of Israel. 17 Nevertheless the people and delivered the money that was brought into God's still sacrificed in the high places, but only to the LORD house, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, their God. 18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, had gathered from the hands of Manasseh, Ephraim, of and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers all the remnant of Israel, of all Judah and Benjamin, and who spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10 They delivered it into of Israel, behold, they are written amongst the acts of the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of the the kings of Israel. 19 His prayer also, and how God LORD's house; and the workmen who laboured in the listened to his request, and all his sin and his trespass, LORD's house gave it to mend and repair the house. 11 and the places in which he built high places and set up. They gave it to the carpenters and to the builders to buy the Asherah poles and the engraved images before he cut stone and timber for couplings, and to make beams humbled himself: behold, they are written in the history for the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. of Hozai. 20 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and 12 The men did the work faithfully. Their overseers they buried him in his own house; and Amon his son were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of reigned in his place. 21 Amon was twenty-two years old Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Kohathites, to give direction; and others of the Levites, Jerusalem. 22 He did that which was evil in the LORD's who were all skilful with musical instruments. 13 Also sight, as did Manasseh his father; and Amon sacrificed they were over the bearers of burdens, and directed to all the engraved images which Manasseh his father all who did the work in every kind of service. So Hilkiah delivered the book to Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son Shaphan. 16 Shaphan carried the book to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, "All that was committed to your servants, they are doing. 17 They have emptied out the money that was found in the LORD's house, and have delivered it into the hand of Shaphan read from it Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. All to the king. 19 When the king had heard the words of his days they didn't depart from following the LORD, the the law, he tore his clothes. 20 The king commanded God of their fathers. Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah. Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, 21 "Go enquire of the LORD for me, and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the LORD's wrath that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the LORD's word, to do according to all that is written in this book." 22 So Hilkiah and those whom the king had commanded went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter), and they spoke to her to that effect. 23 She said to them, "The LORD, the God of Israel says: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, 24 "The LORD says, 'Behold, I will bring evil on this place and on its inhabitants, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah. 25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burnt incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands, therefore my wrath is poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched."" 26 But to the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, you shall tell him this, 'The LORD, the God of Israel says: "About the words which you have heard, 27 because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard his words against this place and against its inhabitants, and have humbled yourself before me, and have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you," says the LORD. 28 "Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes won't see all the evil that I will bring on this place and on its inhabitants."" They brought back this message to the king. 29 Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. 30 The king went up to the LORD's house with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem—the priests, the Levites. and all the people, both great and small—and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the LORD's house. 31 The king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, his testimonies, and his statutes with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. 32 He caused all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. 33 Josiah took away all the overseers and into the hand of the workmen." 18 the abominations out of all the countries that belonged

35 Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem. They killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. 2 He set the priests in their offices and encouraged them in the service of the LORD's house. 3 He said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built. It will no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel. 4 Prepare yourselves after your fathers' houses by your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. 5 Stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brothers the children of the people, and let there be for each a portion of a fathers' house of the Levites. 6 Kill the Passover lamb, sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the LORD's word by Moses." 7 Josiah gave to the children of the people, of the flock, lambs and young goats, all of them for the Passover offerings, to all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls. These were of the king's substance. 8 His princes gave a free will offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the rulers of God's house, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small livestock, and three hundred head of cattle. 9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand small livestock and five hundred head of cattle. 10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the king's commandment. 11 They killed the Passover lambs, and the priests sprinkled the blood which they received from their hands, and the Levites skinned them. 12 They removed the burnt offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. They did the same with the cattle. 13 They roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance. They boiled the holy offerings in pots, in cauldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the children of the people. 14 Afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron were busy with offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night. Therefore the Levites prepared for themselves are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

36 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem. 2 Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. 3 The king of Egypt removed him from office at Jerusalem, and fined the land one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. 4 The king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. They didn't need to depart from their service, because 6 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against their brothers the Levites prepared for them. 16 So all him, and bound him in fetters to carry him to Babylon. 7 the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to Nebuchadnezzar also carried some of the vessels of the keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the LORD's house to Babylon, and put them in his temple LORD's altar, according to the commandment of King at Babylon. 8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, Josiah. 17 The children of Israel who were present kept and his abominations which he did, and that which was the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened found in him, behold, they are written in the book of bread seven days. 18 There was no Passover like that the kings of Israel and Judah; and Jehoiachin his son kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet, nor reigned in his place. 9 Jehoiachin was eight years old did any of the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as when he began to reign, and he reigned three months Josiah kept—with the priests, the Levites, and all Judah and ten days in Jerusalem. He did that which was evil and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of in the LORD's sight. 10 At the return of the year, King Jerusalem. 19 This Passover was kept in the eighteenth Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, with year of the reign of Josiah. 20 After all this, when Josiah the valuable vessels of the LORD's house, and made had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem. fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates, and Josiah 11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began went out against him. 21 But he sent ambassadors to to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. 12 him, saying, "What have I to do with you, you king of He did that which was evil in the LORD his God's sight. God has commanded speaking from the LORD's mouth. 13 He also rebelled me to make haste. Beware that it is God who is with against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him me, that he not destroy you." 22 Nevertheless Josiah swear by God; but he stiffened his neck, and hardened would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, his heart against turning to the LORD, the God of Israel. that he might fight with him, and didn't listen to the 14 Moreover all the chiefs of the priests and the people words of Neco from the mouth of God, and came to trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the fight in the valley of Megiddo. 23 The archers shot at nations; and they polluted the LORD's house which he King Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take had made holy in Jerusalem. 15 The LORD, the God of me away, because I am seriously wounded!" 24 So their fathers, sent to them by his messengers, rising up his servants took him out of the chariot, and put him early and sending, because he had compassion on his in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to people and on his dwelling place; 16 but they mocked Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in the tombs the messengers of God, despised his words, and scoffed of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for at his prophets, until the LORD's wrath arose against Josiah. 25 Jeremiah lamented for Josiah, and all the his people, until there was no remedy. 17 Therefore he singing men and singing women spoke of Josiah in brought on them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their lamentations to this day; and they made them their young men with the sword in the house of their an ordinance in Israel. As long as it lay desolate, it kept Sabbath, to fulfil seventy years. 22 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the LORD's word by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, 23 "Cyrus king of Persia says, 'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given all the kingdoms of the earth to me; and he has commanded me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is amongst you of all his people, the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up."

Ezra

1 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the LORD's word by Jeremiah's mouth might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, 2 "Cyrus king of Persia says, 'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he has commanded me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. 3 Whoever there is amongst you of all his people, may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD, the God of Israel (he is God), which is in Jerusalem. 4 Whoever is left, in any place where he lives, let the men of his place help him with silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, in addition to the free will offering for God's house which is in Jerusalem." 5 Then the heads of fathers' households of Judah and Benjamin, the priests and the Levites, all whose spirit God had stirred to go up, rose up to build the LORD's house which is in Jerusalem. 6 All those who were around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, with animals, and with precious things, in addition to all that was willingly offered. 7 Also Cyrus the king brought out the vessels of the LORD's house, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought out of Jerusalem, and had put in the house of his gods; 8 even those, Cyrus king of Persia brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah. 9 This is the number of them: thirty platters of gold, one thousand platters of silver, twenty-nine knives, 10 thirty bowls of gold, four hundred and ten silver bowls of a second kind, and one thousand other vessels. 11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. Sheshbazzar brought all these up when the captives were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

2 Now these are the children of the province who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to his city; 2 who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel: 3 The children of Parosh, two thousand and one hundred and seventy-two. 4 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two. 5 The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and twelve. 7 The children

3 When the seventh month had come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. 2 Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak stood up with his brothers the priests and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his relatives, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the law of your God as you do; and we have been sacrificing to children of Nephisim. 51 the children of Bakbuk, the Moses the man of God. 3 In spite of their fear because children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur, 52 the of the peoples of the surrounding lands, they set the children of Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children altar on its base; and they offered burnt offerings on it to of Sisera, the children of Temah, 54 the children of 4 They kept the feast of booths, as it is written, and Neziah, the children of Hatipha. 55 The children of offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children the ordinance, as the duty of every day required; 5 and of Hassophereth, the children of Peruda, 56 the children afterward the continual burnt offering, the offerings of of Jaalah, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, the new moons, of all the set feasts of the LORD that 57 the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, were consecrated, and of everyone who willingly offered the children of Pochereth Hazzebaim, the children of a free will offering to the LORD. 6 From the first day of Ami. 58 All the temple servants, and the children of the seventh month, they began to offer burnt offerings to Solomon's servants, were three hundred and ninety-two. the LORD; but the foundation of the LORD's temple was 59 These were those who went up from Tel Melah, Tel not yet laid. 7 They also gave money to the masons Harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer; but they could not and to the carpenters. They also gave food, drink, and show their fathers' houses and their offspring, whether oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre to bring cedar trees they were of Israel: 60 the children of Delaiah, the from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred grant that they had from Cyrus King of Persia. 8 Now and fifty-two. 61 Of the children of the priests: the in the second year of their coming to God's house at children of Habaiah, the children of Hakkoz, and the Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters Shealtiel, Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those name. 62 These sought their place amongst those who who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began were registered by genealogy, but they were not found; the work and appointed the Levites, from twenty years therefore they were deemed disgualified and removed old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of from the priesthood. 63 The governor told them that they the LORD's house. 9 Then Jeshua stood with his sons should not eat of the most holy things until a priest stood and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of up to serve with Urim and with Thummim. 64 The whole Judah, together to have the oversight of the workmen in assembly together was forty-two thousand and three God's house: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and hundred and sixty, 65 in addition to their male servants their brothers the Levites. 10 When the builders laid the and their female servants, of whom there were seven foundation of the LORD's temple, they set the priests in thousand and three hundred and thirty-seven; and they their vestments with trumpets, with the Levites the sons Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six; their to the directions of David king of Israel. 11 They sang mules, two hundred and forty-five; 67 their camels, four to one another in praising and giving thanks to the hundred and thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand and LORD, "For he is good, for his loving kindness endures seven hundred and twenty. 68 Some of the heads of forever towards Israel." All the people shouted with a fathers' households, when they came to the LORD's great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the house which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for God's foundation of the LORD's house had been laid. 12 But thousand darics of gold, five thousand minas of silver, when the foundation of this house was laid before their and one hundred priests' garments. 70 So the priests eyes, wept with a loud voice. Many also shouted aloud and the Levites, with some of the people, the singers, for joy, 13 so that the people could not discern the noise the gatekeepers, and the temple servants, lived in their of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard far away.

> ▲ Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building a temple to the LORD, the God of Israel, 2 they came near to Zerubbabel, and to the heads of fathers' households, and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we seek 311 Ezra brought us up here." 3 But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the rebellion and revolts have been made in it. 20 There rest of the heads of fathers' households of Israel said have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem who have to them, "You have nothing to do with us in building ruled over all the country beyond the River; and tribute, a house to our God; but we ourselves together will custom, and toll was paid to them. 21 Make a decree build to the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus now to cause these men to cease, and that this city not the king of Persia has commanded us." 4 Then the be built until a decree is made by me. 22 Be careful that people of the land weakened the hands of the people you not be slack doing so. Why should damage grow to of Judah, and troubled them in building. 5 They hired the hurt of the kings? 23 Then when the copy of King counsellors against them to frustrate their purpose all Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, Shimshai the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of the scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Darius king of Persia. 6 In the reign of Ahasuerus, in Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them to cease by the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation force of arms. 24 Then work stopped on God's house against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. 7 In which is at Jerusalem. It stopped until the second year the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, of the reign of Darius king of Persia. and the rest of his companions wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in Syrian and delivered in the Syrian language. 8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows. 9 Then Rehum the chancellor, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinaites, and the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchites, the Dehaites, the Elamites, 10 and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar brought over and settled in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the River, and so forth, wrote. 11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent: To King Artaxerxes, from your servants, the people beyond the River. 12 Be it known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us to Jerusalem. They are building the rebellious and bad city, and have finished the walls and repaired the foundations. 13 Be it known now to the king that if this city is built and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and in the end it will be hurtful to the kings. 14 Now because we eat the salt of the palace and it is not appropriate for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore we have sent and informed the king, 15 that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. You will see in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city. and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have started rebellions within it in the past. That is why this city was destroyed. 16 We inform the king that if this city is built and the walls finished, then you will have no possession beyond the River. 17 Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who live in Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the River: Peace. 18 The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. 19 I decreed, and search has been made, and it was found that this city has

5 Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem. They prophesied to them in the name of the God of Israel. 2 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak rose up and began to build God's house which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them. 3 At the same time Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, came to them, with Shetharbozenai and their companions, and asked them, "Who gave you a decree to build this house and to finish this wall?" 4 They also asked for the names of the men who were making this building. 5 But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they didn't make them cease until the matter should come to Darius, and an answer should be returned by letter concerning it. 6 The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and his companions the Apharsachites who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king follows. 7 They sent a letter to him, in which was written: To Darius the king, all peace. 8 Be it known to the king that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is being built with great stones and timber is laid in the walls. This work goes on with diligence and prospers in their hands. 9 Then we asked those elders, and said to them thus, "Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?" 10 We asked them their names also, to inform you that we might write the names of the men who were at their head. 11 Thus they returned us answer, saying, "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished. 12 But after our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house and carried the concerning this matter."

6 Then Darius the king made a decree, and the house of the archives, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon, was searched. 2 A scroll was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, and in it this was written for a record: 3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree: Concerning God's house at Jerusalem, let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let its foundations be strongly laid, with its height sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits; 4 with three courses of great stones and a course of new timber. Let the expenses be given out of the king's house. 5 Also let the gold and silver vessels of God's house, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple which is at Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, everything to its place. You shall put them in God's house. 6 Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and your companions the Apharsachites, who are beyond the River, you must stay far from there. 7 Leave the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place. 8 Moreover I make a decree regarding what you shall do for these elders of the Jews for the building of this house of God: the River, expenses must be given with all diligence to these men, that they not be hindered. 9 That which they have need of, including young bulls, rams, and by day without fail, 10 that they may offer sacrifices of people away into Babylon. 13 But in the first year of pleasant aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to life of the king and of his sons. 11 I have also made a build this house of God. 14 The gold and silver vessels decree that whoever alters this message, let a beam be of God's house, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and the temple that was in Jerusalem and brought into the fastened on it; and let his house be made a dunghill for temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king also took out of this. 12 May the God who has caused his name to dwell the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one there overthrow all kings and peoples who stretch out whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made their hand to alter this, to destroy this house of God governor. 15 He said to him, 'Take these vessels, go, which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree. put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let Let it be done with all diligence. 13 Then Tattenai, the God's house be built in its place.' 16 Then the same governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and their Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of God's companions did accordingly with all diligence, because house which is in Jerusalem. Since that time even until Darius the king had sent a decree. 14 The elders of the now it has been being built, and yet it is not completed. Jews built and prospered, through the prophesying of 17 Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let a Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They search be made in the king's treasure house, which is built and finished it, according to the commandment of there at Babylon, whether it is so that a decree was the God of Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus, made by Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. 15 This house Jerusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. 16 The children of Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. 17 They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls. two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. 18 They set the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God which is at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses. 19 The children of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. 20 Because the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together, all of them were pure. They killed the Passover for all the children of the captivity, for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. 21 The children of Israel who had returned out of the captivity, and all who had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, ate, 22 and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy; because the LORD had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of God, the God of Israel's house.

7 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, 2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, 3 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Merajoth. 4 the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, 5 the son of lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; also Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the son of Aaron the chief priest— 6 this Ezra went up from priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day Babylon. He was a skilled scribe in the law of Moses, king granted him all his request, according to the LORD toll on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, his God's hand on him. 7 Some of the children of Israel, temple servants, or labourers of this house of God. 25 including some of the priests, the Levites, the singers, You, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God that the gatekeepers, and the temple servants went up to is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges who Jerusalem in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. 8 may judge all the people who are beyond the River, He came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in who all know the laws of your God; and teach him the seventh year of the king. 9 For on the first day of who doesn't know them. 26 Whoever will not do the the first month he began to go up from Babylon; and on law of your God and the law of the king, let judgement the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, be executed on him with all diligence, whether it is to according to the good hand of his God on him. 10 For death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or Ezra had set his heart to seek the LORD's law, and to to imprisonment. 27 Blessed be the LORD, the God do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israel. 11 of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the Now this is the copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes king's heart, to beautify the LORD's house which is in gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, even the scribe of Jerusalem; 28 and has extended loving kindness to me the words of the LORD's commandments, and of his before the king and his counsellors, and before all the statutes to Israel: 12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, To Ezra king's mighty princes. I was strengthened according the priest, the scribe of the law of the perfect God of to the LORD my God's hand on me, and I gathered heaven. Now 13 I make a decree that all those of the together chief men out of Israel to go up with me. people of Israel and their priests and the Levites in my realm, who intend of their own free will to go to Jerusalem, go with you. 14 Because you are sent by the king and his seven counsellors to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God which is in your hand, 15 and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, 16 and all the silver and gold that you will find in all the province of Babylon, with the free will offering of the people and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem. 17 Therefore you shall with all diligence buy with this money bulls, rams, and lambs with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. 18 Whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that according to the will of your God. 19 The vessels that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. 20 Whatever more will be needed for the house of your God, which you may have occasion to give, give it out of the king's treasure house. 21 l. even I, Artaxerxes the king, make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, requires of you, it shall be done with all diligence, 22 up to one hundred talents of silver, and to one hundred cors of wheat, and to one hundred baths of wine, and to one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much. 23 Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? 24 Also we inform you

which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given; and the that it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or

Of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel. Of the sons of David, Hattush. 3 Of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and with him were listed by genealogy of the males one hundred and fifty. 4 Of the sons of Pahathmoab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah; and with him two hundred males. 5 Of the sons of Shecaniah, the son of Jahaziel; and with him three hundred males. 6 Of the sons of Adin. Ebed the son of Jonathan; and with him fifty males. 7 Of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah; and with him seventy males. 8 Of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael; and with him eighty males. 9 Of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel; and with him two hundred and eighteen males. 10 Of the sons of Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah; and with him one hundred and sixty males. 11 Of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai; and with him twenty-eight males. 12 Of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan; and with him one hundred and ten males. 13 Of the sons of Adonikam, who were the last, their names are: Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah; and with them sixty males. 14 Of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud; and with them seventy males. 15 I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there we encamped three days. Then I looked around at the people and the priests, and found there were none of the sons of Levi. 16 Then I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, for Elnathan, for Jarib, for Elnathan, for Nathan, for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib and for Elnathan, who were teachers. 17 I sent them out to Iddo the chief

tell Iddo and his brothers the temple servants at the offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, the house of our God. 18 According to the good hand of and twelve male goats for a sin offering. All this was our God on us they brought us a man of discretion, of the a burnt offering to the LORD. 36 They delivered the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely king's commissions to the king's local governors and to Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen: 19 the governors beyond the River. So they supported the and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty: 20 and of the temple servants, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty temple servants. All of them were mentioned by name. 21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him a straight way for us, for our little ones, and for all our possessions. 22 For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, "The hand of our God is on all those who seek him, for good; but his power and his wrath is against all those who forsake him." 23 So we fasted and begged our God for this, and he granted our request. 24 Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them, 25 and weighed to them the silver, the gold and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, his counsellors, his princes, and all Israel there present, had offered. 26 I weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, one hundred talents of silver vessels, one hundred talents of gold, 27 twenty bowls of gold weighing one thousand darics, and two vessels of fine bright bronze, precious as gold. 28 I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD, and the vessels are holy. The silver and the gold are a free will offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers. 29 Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and the princes of the fathers' households of Israel at Jerusalem, in the rooms of the LORD's house." 30 So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver, the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God. 31 Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the bandits by the way. 32 We came to Jerusalem, and staved there three days. 33 On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas: and with them were Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levites. 34 Everything was counted and weighed; and all the weight was written at that time. 35

Yes, the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this trespass." 3 When I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and pulled the hair out of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded. 4 Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel were assembled to me because of the trespass of the exiles; and I sat confounded until the evening offering. 5 At the evening offering I rose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to the LORD my God; 6 and I said, "My God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to you, my God, for our iniquities have increased over our head, and our guiltiness has grown up to the heavens. 7 Since the days of our fathers we have been exceedingly guilty to this day; and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. 8 Now for a little moment grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a stake in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and revive us a little in our bondage. 9 For we are bondservants: vet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended loving kindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to revive us, to set up the house of our God, and to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. 10 "Now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments, 11 which you have commanded by your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land to which you go to possess is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands. through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness. 12 Now therefore don't give your daughters to their sons. Don't take their confession to the LORD, the God of your fathers and you because of this."

1 Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before God's house, there was gathered together to him out of Israel a very great assembly of men and women and children; for the people wept very bitterly. 2 Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered Ezra, "We have trespassed against our God, and have married foreign women of the peoples of the land. Yet now there is hope for Israel concerning this thing. 3 Now therefore let's make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives and those who are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God. Let it be done according to the law. 4 Arise, for the matter belongs to you and we are with you. Be courageous, and do it." 5 Then Ezra arose, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore. 6 Then Ezra rose up from before God's house, and went into the room of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib. When he came there, he didn't eat bread or drink water, for he mourned because of the trespass of the exiles. 7 They made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem; 8 and that whoever didn't come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his possessions should be forfeited, and he himself separated from the assembly of the captivity. 9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the wide place in front of God's house, trembling because of this matter, and because of the great rain. 10 Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have trespassed, and have married foreign women, increasing the guilt of Israel. 11 Now therefore make daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their do his pleasure. Separate yourselves from the peoples prosperity forever, that you may be strong and eat the of the land and from the foreign women." 12 Then all good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your the assembly answered with a loud voice, "We must children forever.' 13 "After all that has come on us for do as you have said concerning us. 13 But the people our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since you, our are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, able to stand outside. This is not a work of one day or and have given us such a remnant, 14 shall we again two, for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. 14 break your commandments, and join ourselves with the Now let our princes be appointed for all the assembly, peoples that do these abominations? Wouldn't you be and let all those who are in our cities who have married angry with us until you had consumed us, so that there foreign women come at appointed times, and with them would be no remnant, nor any to escape? 15 LORD, the elders of every city and its judges, until the fierce the God of Israel, you are righteous; for we are left a wrath of our God is turned from us, until this matter is remnant that has escaped, as it is today. Behold, we are resolved." 15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and before you in our guiltiness; for no one can stand before Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah stood up against this; and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. 16 The children of the captivity did so. Ezra the priest, with certain heads of fathers' households, after their fathers' houses, and all of them by their names, were set apart; and they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. 17 They finished with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month. 18 Amongst the sons of the priests there were found who had married foreign women: of the sons of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah. 19 They gave their hand that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt. 20 Of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah. 21 Of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah. 22 Of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah. 23 Of the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (also called Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. 24 Of the singers: Eliashib. Of the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri. 25 Of Israel: Of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah. 26 Of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah. 27 Of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza. 28 Of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai. 29 Of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch. Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Jeremoth. 30 Of the sons of Pahathmoab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh. 31 Of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, 32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah. 33 Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei. 34 Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel, 35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi, 36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, 37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasu, 38 Bani, Binnui, Shimei, 39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah, 40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, 41

Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, 42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph. 43 Of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Iddo, Joel, and Benaiah. 44 All these had taken foreign wives. Some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Nehemiah

1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. Now in the month Chisley, in the twentieth year, as I was in Susa the palace, 2 Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and certain men out of Judah; and I asked them about the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. 3 They said to me, "The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach. The wall of Jerusalem is also broken down, and its gates are burnt with fire." 4 When I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and mourned several days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven, 5 and said, "I beg you, LORD, the God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments, 6 let your ear now be attentive and your eyes open, that you may listen to the prayer of your servant which I pray before you at this time, day and night, for the children of Israel your servants, while I confess the sins of the children of Israel which we have sinned against you. Yes, I and my father's house have sinned. 7 We have dealt very corruptly against you, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances, which you commanded your servant Moses. 8 "Remember, I beg you, the word that you commanded your servant Moses, saying, 'If you trespass, I will scatter you amongst the peoples; 9 but if you return to me, and keep my commandments and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heavens, yet I will gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to cause my name to dwell there.' 10 "Now these are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power and by your strong hand. 11 Lord, I beg you, let your ear be attentive now to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants who delight to fear your name; and please prosper your servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man." Now I was cup bearer to the king.

2 In the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when wine was before him, I picked up up and build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work. 19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah sad before in his presence. 2 The king said to me, the Ammonite servant, and Geshem the Arabian, heard "Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing else but sorrow of heart." Then I was very much is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?" 20 Then I answered them, and said to them, Why shouldn't my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates have servants, will arise and build; but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial in Jerusalem."

of heaven. 5 I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favour in your sight, I ask that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may build it." 6 The king said to me (the gueen was also sitting by him), "How long will your journey be? When will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me, and I set a time for him. 7 Moreover I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah; 8 and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple, for the wall of the city, and for the house that I will occupy." The king granted my requests, because of the good hand of my God on me. 9 Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. 10 When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite servant heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, because a man had come to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. 11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. 12 I arose in the night, I and a few men with me. I didn't tell anyone what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. There wasn't any animal with me except the animal that I rode on. 13 I went out by night by the valley gate towards the jackal's well, then to the dung gate; and I inspected the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and its gates were consumed with fire. 14 Then I went on to the spring gate and to the king's pool, but there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. 15 Then I went up in the night by the brook and inspected the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned. 16 The rulers didn't know where I went, or what I did. I had not as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work. 17 Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and its gates are burnt with fire. Come, let's build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we won't be disgraced." 18 I told them about the hand of my God which was good on me, and also about the king's words that he had spoken to me. They said, "Let's rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work. 19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite servant, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they ridiculed us and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?" 20 Then I answered them, and said to them, "The God of heaven will prosper us. Therefore we, his sanctified it, and set up its doors. They sanctified it even another portion, from the turning of the wall to the door to the tower of Hammeah, to the tower of Hananel. 2 of the house of Eliashib the high priest. 21 After him, Next to him the men of Jericho built. > ▲ But when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry, and was very indignant, and mocked the Jews. 2 He spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, since they are burnt?" 3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, "What they are building, if a fox climbed up it, he would break down their stone wall." 4 "Hear, our God, for we are despised. Turn back their reproach on their own head. Give them up for a plunder in a land of captivity. 5 Don't cover their iniquity. Don't let their sin be blotted out from before you; for they have insulted the builders." 6 So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height, for the people

319 Nehemiah Arabians, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our houses. that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went forward, Let us get grain, because of the famine." 4 There were and that the breaches began to be filled, they were also some who said, "We have borrowed money for very angry; 8 and they all conspired together to come the king's tribute using our fields and our vineyards and fight against Jerusalem, and to cause confusion as collateral. 5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of amongst us. 9 But we made our prayer to our God, our brothers, our children as their children. Behold, we and set a watch against them day and night because of bring our sons and our daughters into bondage to be them. 10 Judah said, "The strength of the bearers of servants, and some of our daughters have been brought burdens is fading and there is much rubble, so that we into bondage. It is also not in our power to help it, are not able to build the wall." 11 Our adversaries said, because other men have our fields and our vineyards." "They will not know or see, until we come in amongst 6 I was very angry when I heard their cry and these them and kill them, and cause the work to cease." 12 words. 7 Then I consulted with myself, and contended When the Jews who lived by them came, they said to us with the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, "You ten times from all places, "Wherever you turn, they will exact usury, everyone of his brother." I held a great attack us." 13 Therefore I set guards in the lowest parts assembly against them. 8 I said to them, "We, after of the space behind the wall, in the open places. I set the our ability, have redeemed our brothers the Jews that people by family groups with their swords, their spears, were sold to the nations; and would you even sell your and their bows. 14 I looked, and rose up, and said to brothers, and should they be sold to us?" Then they the nobles, to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, held their peace, and found not a word to say. 9 Also I "Don't be afraid of them! Remember the Lord, who is said, "The thing that you do is not good. Shouldn't you great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses." the nations, our enemies? 10 l likewise, my brothers 15 When our enemies heard that it was known to us, and my servants, lend them money and grain. Please and God had brought their counsel to nothing, all of us let us stop this usury. 11 Please restore to them, even returned to the wall, everyone to his work. 16 From that today, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, time forth, half of my servants did the work, and half of and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, them held the spears, the shields, the bows, and the and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house are charging them." 12 Then they said, "We will restore of Judah. 17 Those who built the wall, and those who them, and will require nothing of them. We will do so, bore burdens loaded themselves; everyone with one even as you say." Then I called the priests, and took of his hands did the work, and with the other held his an oath of them, that they would do according to this weapon. 18 Amongst the builders, everyone wore his promise. 13 Also I shook out my lap, and said, "So sword at his side, and so built. He who sounded the may God shake out every man from his house, and trumpet was by me. 19 I said to the nobles, and to the from his labour, that doesn't perform this promise; even rulers and to the rest of the people, "The work is great may he be shaken out and emptied like this." All the and widely spread out, and we are separated on the assembly said, "Amen," and praised the LORD. The wall, far from one another. 20 Wherever you hear the people did according to this promise. 14 Moreover from sound of the trumpet, rally there to us. Our God will the time that I was appointed to be their governor in fight for us." 21 So we did the work. Half of the people the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the held the spears from the rising of the morning until the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve stars appeared. 22 Likewise at the same time I said to years, I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the the people, "Let everyone with his servant lodge within governor. 15 But the former governors who were before Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, me were supported by the people, and took bread and and may labour in the day." 23 So neither I, nor my wine from them, plus forty shekels of silver; yes, even brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard their servants ruled over the people, but I didn't do so, who followed me took off our clothes. Everyone took his because of the fear of God. 16 Yes, I also continued in weapon to the water.

5 Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jews. 2 For there were some who said, "We, our sons and our had a mind to work, 7 But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the and live." 3 There were also some who said, "We are the work of this wall. We didn't buy any land. All my servants were gathered there to the work. 17 Moreover there were at my table, of the Jews and the rulers, one hundred and fifty men, in addition to those who came to us from amongst the nations that were around us. 18 daughters, are many. Let us get grain, that we may eat Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep. Also fowls were prepared for me. many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to and once in ten days a store of all sorts of wine. Yet for them. 18 For there were many in Judah sworn to him all this, I didn't demand the governor's pay, because because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of the bondage was heavy on this people. 19 Remember Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of me, my God, for all the good that I have done for this Meshullam the son of Berechiah as wife. 19 Also they people.

6 Now when it was reported to Sanballat, Tobiah. Geshem the Arabian, and to the rest of our enemies that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left in it (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates), 2 Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come! Let's meet together in the villages in the plain of Ono." But they intended to harm me. 3 I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, so that I can't come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and come down to you?" 4 They sent to me four times like this: and I answered them the same way. 5 Then Sanballat sent his servant to me the same way the fifth time with an open letter in his hand. 6 in which was written, "It is reported amongst the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews intend to rebel. Because of that, you are building the wall. You would be their king, according to these words. 7 You have also appointed prophets to proclaim of you at Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah!' Now it will be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let's take counsel together." Then I sent to him, saying, "There are no such things done as you say, but you imagine them out of your own heart." 9 For they all would have made us afraid, saying, "Their hands will be weakened from the work, that it not be done." But now, strengthen my hands. 10 I went to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home; and he said, "Let us meet together in God's house, within the temple, and let's shut the doors of the temple; for they will come to kill you. Yes, in the night they will come to kill you." 11 I said, "Should a man like me flee? Who is there that, being such as I, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in." 12 I discerned, and behold, God had not sent him, but he pronounced this prophecy against me. Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. 13 He was hired so that I would be afraid, do so, and sin, and that they might have material for an evil report, that they might reproach me. 14 "Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets that would have put me in fear." 15 So the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days. 16 When all our enemies heard of it, all the nations that were around us were afraid, and they lost their confidence; for they perceived that this work was done by our God.

spoke of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

Now when the wall was built and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed, 2 I put my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the governor of the fortress, in charge of Jerusalem; for he was a faithful man and feared God above many. 3 I said to them, "Don't let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut the doors, and you bar them; and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, everyone in his watch, with everyone near his house." 4 Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not built. 5 My God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be listed by genealogy. I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found this written in it: 6 These are the children of the province who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, everyone to his city, 7 who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah. The governor and seventeen. 43 The Levites: the children of Jeshua, gave to the treasury one thousand darics of gold, fifty of Kadmiel, of the children of Hodevah: seventy-four. basins, and five hundred and thirty priests' garments. 44 The singers: the children of Asaph: one hundred 71 Some of the heads of fathers' households gave into and forty-eight. 45 The gatekeepers: the children of the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the and two thousand and two hundred minas of silver. children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of 72 That which the rest of the people gave was twenty Shobai: one hundred and thirty-eight. 46 The temple thousand darics of gold, plus two thousand minas of servants: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments. 73 So the the children of Tabbaoth, 47 the children of Keros, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some children of Sia, the children of Padon, 48 the children of of the people, the temple servants, and all Israel lived in Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Salmai, their cities. When the seventh month had come, the 49 the children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Israel were in their cities. children of Gahar, 50 the children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, 51 the children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Paseah, 52 the children of Besai, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephushesim, 53 the children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur, 54 the children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha, 55 the children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Temah, 56 the children of Neziah, and the children of Hatipha. 57 The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida, 58 the children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, 59 the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth Hazzebaim, and the children of Amon. 60 All the temple servants and the children of Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two. 61 These were those who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses, nor their offspring, whether they were of Israel: 62 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda: six hundred eight. 27 The men of Anathoth: one hundred and twenty- and forty-two. 63 Of the priests: the children of Hobajah.

8 All the people gathered themselves together as one man into the wide place that was in front of the water gate; and they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. 2 Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women, and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. 3 He read from it before the wide place that was in front of the water gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those who could understand. The ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. 4 Ezra the scribe stood on a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah. Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam. 5 Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people (for he was above all the people), and when he opened it, all the people stood up. 6 Then Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. All the people answered, "Amen, Amen," with the lifting up of their hands. They bowed their heads, and worshipped the their God. 4 Then Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah. solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

Now in the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, with sackcloth, and dirt on them. 2 The offspring of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners and stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. 3 They stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God a fourth part of the day; and a fourth part they confessed and worshipped the LORD

LORD with their faces to the ground. 7 Also Jeshua, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani of the Levites Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, stood up on the stairs, and cried with a loud voice Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, to the LORD their God. 5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, law; and the people stayed in their place. 8 They read Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, "Stand up and bless in the book, in the law of God, distinctly; and they the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting! gave the sense, so that they understood the reading. 9 Blessed be your glorious name, which is exalted above Nehemiah, who was the governor, Ezra the priest and all blessing and praise! 6 You are the LORD, even you scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, the people, "Today is holy to the LORD your God. Don't with all their army, the earth and all things that are on it, mourn, nor weep." For all the people wept when they the seas and all that is in them, and you preserve them heard the words of the law. 10 Then he said to them, "Go all. The army of heaven worships you. 7 You are the your way. Eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions LORD, the God who chose Abram, brought him out of to him for whom nothing is prepared, for today is holy to Ur of the Chaldees, gave him the name of Abraham, 8 our Lord. Don't be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is found his heart faithful before you, and made a covenant your strength." 11 So the Levites calmed all the people, with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the saying, "Hold your peace, for the day is holy. Don't be Amorite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, grieved." 12 All the people went their way to eat, to to give it to his offspring, and have performed your drink, to send portions, and to celebrate, because they words, for you are righteous. 9 "You saw the affliction of had understood the words that were declared to them. our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Red Sea, 13 On the second day, the heads of fathers' households 10 and showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, of all the people, the priests, and the Levites were against all his servants, and against all the people of gathered together to Ezra the scribe, to study the words his land, for you knew that they dealt proudly against of the law. 14 They found written in the law how the them, and made a name for yourself, as it is today. 11 LORD had commanded by Moses that the children of You divided the sea before them, so that they went Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh through the middle of the sea on the dry land; and you month; 15 and that they should publish and proclaim cast their pursuers into the depths, as a stone into the in all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to mighty waters. 12 Moreover, in a pillar of cloud you led the mountain, and get olive branches, branches of wild them by day; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them olive, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of light in the way in which they should go. 13 "You also thick trees, to make temporary shelters, as it is written." came down on Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from 16 So the people went out and brought them, and made heaven, and gave them right ordinances and true laws, themselves temporary shelters, everyone on the roof good statutes and commandments, 14 and made known of his house, in their courts, in the courts of God's to them your holy Sabbath, and commanded them house, in the wide place of the water gate, and in the commandments, statutes, and a law, by Moses your wide place of Ephraim's gate. 17 All the assembly of servant, 15 and gave them bread from the sky for their those who had come back out of the captivity made hunger, and brought water out of the rock for them for temporary shelters and lived in the temporary shelters, their thirst, and commanded them that they should go in for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun to that day to possess the land which you had sworn to give them. the children of Israel had not done so. There was very 16 "But they and our fathers behaved proudly, hardened great gladness. 18 Also day by day, from the first day to their neck, didn't listen to your commandments. 17 and the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. They refused to obey. They weren't mindful of your wonders kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a that you did amongst them, but hardened their neck, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But you are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and didn't forsake them. 18 Yes, when they had made themselves a moulded calf, and said, 'This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt,' and had committed awful blasphemies, 19 yet you in your manifold mercies didn't forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud didn't depart from over them by day, night, to show them light, and the way in which they all your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria should go. 20 You gave also your good Spirit to instruct to this day. 33 However you are just in all that has them, and didn't withhold your manna from their mouth, come on us; for you have dealt truly, but we have done and gave them water for their thirst. 21 "Yes, forty years wickedly. 34 Also our kings, our princes, our priests, and you sustained them in the wilderness. They lacked our fathers have not kept your law, nor listened to your nothing. Their clothes didn't grow old, and their feet commandments and your testimonies with which you didn't swell. 22 Moreover you gave them kingdoms and testified against them. 35 For they have not served you peoples, which you allotted according to their portions. in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you So they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land gave them, and in the large and rich land which you of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of gave before them. They didn't turn from their wicked Bashan. 23 You also multiplied their children as the stars works. 36 "Behold, we are servants today, and as for of the sky, and brought them into the land concerning the land that you gave to our fathers to eat its fruit which you said to their fathers that they should go in to and its good, behold, we are servants in it. 37 It yields possess it. 24 "So the children went in and possessed much increase to the kings whom you have set over us the land; and you subdued before them the inhabitants because of our sins. Also they have power over our of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their bodies and over our livestock, at their pleasure, and we hands, with their kings and the peoples of the land, that are in great distress. 38 Yet for all this, we make a sure they might do with them as they pleased. 25 They took covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, and fortified cities and a rich land, and possessed houses our priests, seal it." full of all good things, cisterns dug out, vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate, were filled, became fat, and delighted themselves in your great goodness. 26 "Nevertheless they were disobedient and rebelled against you, cast your law behind their back, killed your prophets that testified against them to turn them again to you, and they committed awful blasphemies. 27 Therefore you delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them. In the time of their trouble, when they cried to you, you heard from heaven; and according to your manifold mercies you gave them saviours who saved them out of the hands of their adversaries. 28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before you; therefore you left them in the hands of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them; yet when they returned and cried to you, you heard from heaven; and many times you delivered them according to your mercies, 29 and testified against them, that you might bring them again to your law. Yet they were arrogant, and didn't listen to your commandments, but sinned against your ordinances (which if a man does, he shall live in them), turned their backs, stiffened their neck, and would not hear. 30 Yet many years you put up with them, and testified against them by your Spirit through your prophets. Yet they would not listen. Therefore you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. 31 "Nevertheless in your manifold mercies you didn't make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for you are a gracious and merciful God. 32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness, don't let all the travail seem little before you that has come on us, on our kings, on our princes, on to lead them in the way; neither did the pillar of fire by our priests, on our prophets, on our fathers, and on

1 Now those who sealed were: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah, 2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, 3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah, 4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, 5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, 6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, 7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, 8 Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the priests. 9 The Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel; 10 and their brothers, Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, 11 Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah, 12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, 13 Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu. 14 The chiefs of the people: Parosh. Pahathmoab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, 15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, 16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, 17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, 18 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai, 19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nobai, 20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, 21 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, 22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, 23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, 24 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, 25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, 26 Ahiah, Hanan, Anan, 27 Malluch, Harim, and Baanah. 28 The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters-everyone who had knowledge and understanding— 29 joined with their brothers, their nobles, and entered into a curse and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his ordinances and his statutes; 30 and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; 31 and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite. 6 All buy from them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four that we would forego the seventh year crops and the hundred and sixty-eight valiant men. 7 These are the exaction of every debt. 32 Also we made ordinances sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son for ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God: of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah. 8 33 for the show bread, for the continual meal offering, After him Gabbai and Sallai, nine hundred and twentyfor the continual burnt offering, for the Sabbaths, for eight. 9 Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer; and the new moons, for the set feasts, for the holy things, Judah the son of Hassenuah was second over the city. for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and 10 Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin, 11 for all the work of the house of our God. 34 We, the Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the priests, the Levites, and the people, cast lots for the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, the ruler of God's house, 12 and their brothers who did according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed the work of the house, eight hundred and twenty-two; year by year, to burn on the LORD our God's altar, as it and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the is written in the law; 35 and to bring the first fruits of our son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, ground and the first fruits of all fruit of all kinds of trees, the son of Malchijah, 13 and his brothers, chiefs of year by year, to the LORD's house; 36 also the firstborn fathers' households, two hundred and forty-two; and of our sons and of our livestock, as it is written in the Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of law, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks, Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, 14 and their brothers, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who mighty men of valour, one hundred and twenty-eight; minister in the house of our God; 37 and that we should and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of Haggedolim. bring the first fruits of our dough, our wave offerings, the 15 Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the fruit of all kinds of trees, and the new wine and the oil, son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; to the priests, to the rooms of the house of our God; 16 and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chiefs of the and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; for they, Levites, who had the oversight of the outward business the Levites, take the tithes in all our farming villages. of God's house; 17 and Mattaniah the son of Mica, 38 The priest, the descendent of Aaron, shall be with the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the chief the Levites when the Levites take tithes. The Levites to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah, shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our the second amongst his brothers; and Abda the son God, to the rooms, into the treasure house. 39 For the of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the 18 All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred wave offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the and eighty-four. 19 Moreover the gatekeepers, Akkub, oil, to the rooms where the vessels of the sanctuary are, Talmon, and their brothers, who kept watch at the gates, and the priests who minister, with the gatekeepers and were one hundred and seventy-two. 20 The residue the singers. We will not forsake the house of our God.

11 The princes of the people lived in Jerusalem. The rest of the people also cast lots to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine parts in the other cities. 2 The people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem. 3 Now these are the chiefs of the province who lived in Jerusalem; but in the cities of Judah, everyone lived in his possession in their cities-Israel, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants, and the children of Solomon's servants. 4 Some of the children of Judah and of the children of Benjamin lived in Jerusalem. Of the children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the children of Perez; 5 and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his inheritance. 21 But the temple servants lived in Ophel; and Ziha and Gishpa were over the temple servants. 22 The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers responsible for the service of God's house. 23 For there was a commandment from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required. 24 Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people. 25 As for the villages with their fields, some of the children of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its towns, in Dibon and its towns, in Jekabzeel and its villages, 26 in Jeshua, in Moladah, Beth Pelet, 27 in Hazar Shual, in Beersheba and its towns, 28 in Ziklag, in Meconah and in its towns, 29 in

En Rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth, 30 Zanoah, Adullam, them to Jerusalem to keep the dedication with gladness, and its towns, 32 at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, 33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, 34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, 35 Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen. 36 Of the Levites, certain divisions in Judah settled in Benjamin's territory.

12 Now these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, 2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, 3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, 4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah, 5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, 6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah, 7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah. These were the chiefs of the priests and of their brothers in the days of Jeshua. 8 Moreover the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who was over the thanksgiving songs, he and his brothers. 9 Also Bakbukiah and Unno, their brothers, were close to them according to their offices. 10 Jeshua became the father of Joiakim, and Joiakim became the father of Eliashib, and Eliashib became the father of Joiada, 11 and Joiada became the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan became the father of Jaddua. 12 In the days of Joiakim were priests, heads of fathers' households: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah; 13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan; 14 of Malluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph; 15 of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai; 16 of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; 17 of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai; 18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; 19 of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; 20 of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber; 21 of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel. 22 As for the Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua, there were recorded the heads of fathers' households; also the priests, in the reign of Darius the Persian. 23 The sons of Levi, heads of fathers' households, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. 24 The chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers close to them, to praise and give thanks according to the commandment of David the man of God, section next to section. 25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers keeping the watch at the storehouses of the gates. 26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest and scribe. 27 At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring and their villages, Lachish and its fields, and Azekah both with giving thanks and with singing, with cymbals, and its towns. So they encamped from Beersheba to the stringed instruments, and with harps. 28 The sons of valley of Hinnom. 31 The children of Benjamin also lived the singers gathered themselves together, both out of from Geba onward, at Michmash and Aija, and at Bethel the plain around Jerusalem and from the villages of the Netophathites; 29 also from Beth Gilgal and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built themselves villages around Jerusalem. 30 The priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, the gates, and the wall. 31 Then I brought the princes of Judah up on the wall, and appointed two great companies who gave thanks and went in procession. One went on the right hand on the wall towards the dung gate; 32 and after them went Hoshaiah, with half of the princes of Judah, 33 and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah, 35 and some of the priests' sons with trumpets: Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph; 36 and his brothers, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe was before them. 37 By the spring gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of David's city, at the ascent of the wall, above David's house, even to the water gate eastward. 38 The other company of those who gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, with the half of the people on the wall above the tower of the furnaces, even to the wide wall, 39 and above the gate of Ephraim, and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, the tower of Hananel, and the tower of Hammeah, even to the sheep gate; and they stood still in the gate of the guard. 40 So the two companies of those who gave thanks in God's house stood, and I and the half of the rulers with me; 41 and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets; 42 and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. 43 They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women and the children also reioiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even far away. 44 On that day, men were appointed over the rooms for the treasures. for the wave offerings, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them according to the fields of the cities the portions appointed by the law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who served. 45 They performed the duty of their God and the duty of the purification, and so did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David and of Solomon his son. 46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to lived there, who brought in fish and all kinds of wares. the gatekeepers, as every day required; and they set apart that which was for the sons of Aaron.

13 On that day they read in the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and it was found written in it that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God forever, 2 because they didn't meet the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them; however, our God turned the curse into a blessing. 3 It came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel. 4 Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the rooms of the house of our God, being allied to Tobiah, 5 had prepared for him a great room, where before they laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, the singers, and the gatekeepers; and the wave offerings for the priests. 6 But in all this, I was not at Jerusalem; for in the thirtysecond year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went to the king; and after some days I asked leave of the king, 7 and I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a room in the courts of God's house. 8 It grieved me severely. Therefore I threw all Tobiah's household stuff out of the room. 9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the rooms. I brought into them the vessels of God's house, with the meal offerings and the frankincense again. 10 I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them, so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had each fled to his field. 11 Then I contended with the rulers, and said, "Why is God's house forsaken?" I gathered them together. and set them in their place. 12 Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the treasuries. 13 I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute to their brothers. 14 Remember me, my God, concerning this, and don't wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its observances. 15 In those days I saw some men treading wine presses on the Sabbath in Judah, bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; and I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. 16 Some men of Tyre also

God. 47 All Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and in the and sold on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and days of Nehemiah gave the portions of the singers and in Jerusalem. 17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set you do, and profane the Sabbath day? 18 Didn't your fathers do this, and didn't our God bring all this evil on us and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath." 19 It came to pass that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. I set some of my servants over the gates, so that no burden should be brought in on the Sabbath day. 20 So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares camped outside of Jerusalem once or twice. 21 Then I testified against them, and said to them. "Why do you stay around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time on, they didn't come on the Sabbath. 22 I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember me for this also, my God, and spare me according to the greatness of your loving kindness. 23 In those days I also saw the Jews who had married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab; 24 and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people. 25 I contended with them, cursed them, struck certain of them, plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves. 26 Didn't Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet amongst many nations there was no king like him, and he was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless foreign women caused even him to sin. 27 Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying foreign women?" 28 One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite; therefore I chased him from me. 29 Remember them, my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites. 30 Thus I cleansed them from all foreigners and appointed duties for the priests and for the Levites, everyone in his work; 31 and for the wood offering, at appointed times, and for the first fruits. Remember me, my God, for good.

Esther

1 Now in the days of Ahasuerus (this is Ahasuerus who reigned from India even to Ethiopia, over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces), 2 in those days, when the King Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Susa the palace, 3 in the third year of his reign, he made a feast for all his princes and his servants; the army of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces being before him. 4 He displayed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even one hundred and eighty days. 5 When these days were fulfilled, the king made a seven day feast for all the people who were present in Susa the palace, both great and small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace. 6 There were hangings of white and blue material, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars. The couches were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red, white, yellow, and black marble. 7 They gave them drinks in golden vessels of various the bounty of the king. 8 In accordance with the law, brought in before him, but she didn't come.' 18 Today. the princesses of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's deed will tell all the king's princes. This will cause much contempt and wrath. 19 "If it pleases the king, let a royal commandment go from him, and let it be written amongst the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it cannot be altered, that Vashti may never again come before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she. 20 When the king's decree which he shall make is published throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give their husbands honour, both great and small." 21 This advice pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan: 22 for he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, that every man should rule his own house, speaking in the language of his own people.

2 After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus was pacified, he remembered Vashti, and what she kinds, including royal wine in abundance, according to had done, and what was decreed against her. 2 Then the king's servants who served him said, "Let beautiful the drinking was not compulsory; for so the king had young virgins be sought for the king. 3 Let the king instructed all the officials of his house, that they should appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, do according to every man's pleasure. 9 Also Vashti the that they may gather together all the beautiful young queen made a feast for the women in the royal house virgins to the citadel of Susa, to the women's house, which belonged to King Ahasuerus. 10 On the seventh to the custody of Hegai the king's eunuch, keeper of day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he the women. Let cosmetics be given them; 4 and let commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcass, the seven eunuchs who of Vashti." The thing pleased the king, and he did served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 to so. 5 There was a certain Jew in the citadel of Susa bring Vashti the queen before the king wearing the royal whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of crown, to show the people and the princes her beauty; Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite, 6 who had been for she was beautiful. 12 But the queen Vashti refused carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who to come at the king's commandment by the eunuchs. had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, Therefore the king was very angry, and his anger burnt whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried in him. 13 Then the king said to the wise men, who away. 7 He brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his knew the times (for it was the king's custom to consult uncle's daughter; for she had neither father nor mother. those who knew law and judgement; 14 and next to him The maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his own Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia daughter. 8 So, when the king's commandment and and Media, who saw the king's face, and sat first in his decree was heard, and when many maidens were the kingdom), 15 "What shall we do to Queen Vashti gathered together to the citadel of Susa, to the custody according to law, because she has not done the bidding of Hegai, Esther was taken into the king's house, to the of the King Ahasuerus by the eunuchs?" 16 Memucan custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. 9 The maiden answered before the king and the princes, "Vashti the pleased him, and she obtained kindness from him. He queen has not done wrong to just the king, but also to quickly gave her cosmetics and her portions of food, all the princes, and to all the people who are in all the and the seven choice maidens who were to be given her provinces of the King Ahasuerus. 17 For this deed of the out of the king's house. He moved her and her maidens queen will become known to all women, causing them to the best place in the women's house. 10 Esther had to show contempt for their husbands when it is reported, not made known her people nor her relatives, because 'King Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be Mordecai had instructed her that she should not make it

She came year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, made a great feast for all his princes and his servants, Haman, "The silver is given to you, the people also, time, Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate. 20 Esther commanded was written to the king's local governors, had not yet made known her relatives nor her people, and to the governors who were over every province, 21 In those days, while Mordecai was sitting in the king's language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus, who were doorkeepers, were angry, and sought to lay sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, presence.

3 After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. 2 All the king's servants who were in the king's gate bowed down and paid homage to Haman, for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai didn't bow down or pay him homage. 3 Then the king's Therefore Haman sought to women's house to the king's house. 14 In the evening destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole she went, and on the next day she returned into the kingdom of Ahasuerus, even Mordecai's people. 7 In second women's house, to the custody of Shaashqaz, the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth in to the king no more, unless the king delighted in her, before Haman from day to day, and from month to and she was called by name. 15 Now when the turn of month, and chose the twelfth month, which is the month Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, Adar. 8 Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a who had taken her for his daughter, came to go in to the certain people scattered abroad and dispersed amongst king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom, and eunuch, the keeper of the women, advised. Esther their laws are different from other people's. They don't obtained favour in the sight of all those who looked keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not for the king's at her. 16 So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus profit to allow them to remain. 9 If it pleases the king, let into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the it be written that they be destroyed; and I will pay ten month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. 17 The thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who king loved Esther more than all the women, and she are in charge of the king's business, to bring it into the obtained favour and kindness in his sight more than all king's treasuries." 10 The king took his ring from his the virgins; so that he set the royal crown on her head, hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha and made her gueen instead of Vashti. 18 Then the king the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. 11 The king said to even Esther's feast; and he proclaimed a holiday in the to do with them as it seems good to you." 12 Then provinces, and gave gifts according to the king's bounty. the king's scribes were called in on the first month, on 19 When the virgins were gathered together the second the thirteenth day of the month; and all that Haman as Mordecai had commanded her; for Esther obeyed and to the princes of every people, to every province Mordecai, like she did when she was brought up by him. according to its writing, and to every people in their gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, and it was sealed with the king's ring. 13 Letters were hands on the King Ahasuerus. 22 This thing became to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young known to Mordecai, who informed Esther the queen; and old, little children and women, in one day, even and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name. 23 on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the When this matter was investigated, and it was found month Adar, and to plunder their possessions. 14 A to be so, they were both hanged on a gallows; and it copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in was written in the book of the chronicles in the king's every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day. 15 The couriers went out in haste by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Susa was perplexed.

> ▲ Now when Mordecai found out all that was done. Mordecai tore his clothes and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the middle of the city, and

Who knows if you haven't Haman, so he had the gallows made. come to the kingdom for such a time as this?" 15 Then Esther asked them to answer Mordecai, 16 "Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Susa, and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day. I and my maidens will also fast the same way. Then I will go in to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish." 17 So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

Now on the third day, Esther put on her royal clothing and stood in the inner court of the king's house, next to the king's house. The king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, next to the entrance of the house. When the king saw Esther the gueen standing in the court, she obtained favour in his sight; and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his

So Esther came near and touched the top of the king's gate, for no one is allowed inside the king's gate sceptre. 3 Then the king asked her, "What would you clothed with sackcloth. 3 In every province, wherever like, gueen Esther? What is your request? It shall be the king's commandment and his decree came, there given you even to the half of the kingdom." 4 Esther was great mourning amongst the Jews, and fasting, and said, "If it seems good to the king, let the king and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared ashes. 4 Esther's maidens and her eunuchs came and for him." 5 Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, told her this, and the queen was exceedingly grieved. so that it may be done as Esther has said." So the She sent clothing to Mordecai, to replace his sackcloth, king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had but he didn't receive it. 5 Then Esther called for Hathach, prepared. 6 The king said to Esther at the banquet of one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had appointed to wine, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. attend her, and commanded him to go to Mordecai, to What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom find out what this was, and why it was. 6 So Hathach it shall be performed." 7 Then Esther answered and went out to Mordecai, to the city square which was said, "My petition and my request is this. 8 If I have before the king's gate. 7 Mordecai told him of all that found favour in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the had happened to him, and the exact sum of the money king to grant my petition and to perform my request, that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will for the destruction of the Jews. 8 He also gave him prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out has said." 9 Then Haman went out that day joyful and in Susa to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to glad of heart, but when Haman saw Mordecai in the declare it to her, and to urge her to go in to the king to king's gate, that he didn't stand up nor move for him, he make supplication to him, and to make request before was filled with wrath against Mordecai. 10 Nevertheless him for her people. 9 Hathach came and told Esther the Haman restrained himself, and went home. There, he words of Mordecai. 10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach, sent and called for his friends and Zeresh his wife. 11 and gave him a message to Mordecai: 11 "All the king's Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, the servants and the people of the king's provinces know multitude of his children, all the things in which the that whoever, whether man or woman, comes to the king king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him into the inner court without being called, there is one law above the princes and servants of the king. 12 Haman for him, that he be put to death, except those to whom also said, "Yes, Esther the queen let no man come in the king might hold out the golden sceptre, that he may with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but live. I have not been called to come in to the king these myself; and tomorrow I am also invited by her together thirty days." 12 They told Esther's words to Mordecai. with the king. 13 Yet all this avails me nothing, so long 13 Then Mordecai asked them to return this answer to as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate." 14 Esther: "Don't think to yourself that you will escape in Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "Let the king's house any more than all the Jews. 14 For if a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and in the morning you remain silent now, then relief and deliverance will speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on it. Then come to the Jews from another place, but you and your go in merrily with the king to the banquet." This pleased

> f 6 On that night, the king couldn't sleep. He commanded the book of records of the chronicles to be brought, and they were read to the king. 2 It was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who were doorkeepers, who had tried to lay hands on the King Ahasuerus. 3 The king said, "What honour and dignity has been given to Mordecai for this?" Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him." 4 The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outer court of the king's house, to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. 5 The king's servants said to him, "Behold, Haman stands in the court." The king said, "Let him come in." 6 So Haman came in. The king said

Now Haman said in his heart, "Who and Haman had fallen on the couch where Esther was. would the king delight to honour more than myself?" 7 Then the king said, "Will he even assault the gueen Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king in front of me in the house?" As the word went out of delights to honour, 8 let royal clothing be brought which the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. 9 Then the king uses to wear, and the horse that the king rides Harbonah, one of the eunuchs who were with the king, on, and on the head of which a royal crown is set. 9 said, "Behold, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman Let the clothing and the horse be delivered to the hand has made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may standing at Haman's house." The king said, "Hang him them, and have him ride on horseback through the city had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath was square, and proclaim before him, 'Thus it shall be done pacified. to the man whom the king delights to honour!" 10 Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry and take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Let nothing fail of all that you have spoken." 11 Then Haman took the clothing and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and had him ride through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus it shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honour!" 12 Mordecai came back to the king's gate, but Haman hurried to his house, mourning and having his head covered. 13 Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against him, but you will surely fall before him." 14 While they were yet talking with him, the king's eunuchs came, and hurried to bring Haman to the banguet that Esther had prepared.

 $oldsymbol{8}$ On that day, King Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the Jews' enemy, to Esther the gueen. Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was to her. 2 The king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. 3 Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet and begged him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his plan that he had planned against the Jews. 4 Then the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre. So Esther arose, and stood before the king. 5 She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seems right to the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. 6 For how can I endure to see the evil that would come to my people? How can I endure to see the 7 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther destruction of my relatives?" 7 Then King Ahasuerus the gueen. 2 The king said again to Esther on said to Esther the gueen and to Mordecai the Jew, "See, the second day at the banquet of wine, "What is your I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have petition, queen Esther? It shall be granted you. What is hanged him on the gallows because he laid his hand your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall on the Jews. 8 Write also to the Jews as it pleases be performed." 3 Then Esther the gueen answered, you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's "If I have found favour in your sight, O king, and if it ring; for the writing which is written in the king's name, pleases the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and sealed with the king's ring, may not be reversed and my people at my request. 4 For we are sold, I and by any man." 9 Then the king's scribes were called my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. at that time, in the third month, which is the month But if we had been sold for male and female slaves, Sivan, on the twenty-third day of the month; and it was I would have held my peace, although the adversary written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the could not have compensated for the king's loss." 5 Then Jews, and to the local governors, and the governors King Ahasuerus said to Esther the gueen. "Who is he, and princes of the provinces which are from India to and where is he who dared presume in his heart to do Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to so?" 6 Esther said, "An adversary and an enemy, even every province according to its writing, and to every this wicked Haman!" Then Haman was afraid before the people in their language, and to the Jews in their writing, king and the queen. 7 The king arose in his wrath from and in their language. 10 He wrote in the name of King the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden. Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther letters by courier on horseback, riding on royal horses the queen, for he saw that there was evil determined that were bred from swift steeds. 11 In those letters, against him by the king. 8 Then the king returned out of the king granted the Jews who were in every city to gather themselves together and to defend their lives—to have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now fallen on them.

Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the month, when the king's commandment and his decree came near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to conquer them, (but it turned out that the opposite happened, that the Jews conquered those who hated them), 2 the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the King Ahasuerus, to lay hands on those who wanted to harm them. No one could withstand them, because the fear of them had fallen on all the people. 3 All the princes of the provinces, the local governors, the governors, and those who did the king's business helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them. 4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces, for the man Mordecai grew greater and greater. 5 The Jews struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they wanted to those who hated them. 6 In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. 7 They killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, 8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, 9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha, 10 the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews' enemy, but they didn't lay their hand on the plunder. 11 On that day, the number of those who were slain in the citadel of Susa was brought before the king. 12 The king said to Esther the queen, "The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in the citadel of Susa, including the ten sons of Haman; what then destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish all the power of what is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is the people and province that would assault them, their your further request? It shall be done." 13 Then Esther little ones and women, and to plunder their possessions, said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the 12 on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, Jews who are in Susa to do tomorrow also according to on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged month Adar. 13 A copy of the letter, that the decree on the gallows." 14 The king commanded this to be should be given out in every province, was published done. A decree was given out in Susa; and they hanged to all the peoples, that the Jews should be ready for Haman's ten sons. 15 The Jews who were in Susa that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. 14 gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day So the couriers who rode on royal horses went out, also of the month Adar, and killed three hundred men hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. in Susa; but they didn't lay their hand on the plunder. The decree was given out in the citadel of Susa. 15 16 The other Jews who were in the king's provinces Mordecai went out of the presence of the king in royal gathered themselves together, defended their lives, clothing of blue and white, and with a great crown of had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple; and the thousand of those who hated them; but they didn't lay city of Susa shouted and was glad. 16 The Jews had their hand on the plunder. 17 This was done on the light, gladness, joy, and honour. 17 In every province thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth and in every city, wherever the king's commandment day of that month they rested and made it a day of and his decree came, the Jews had gladness, joy, a feasting and gladness. 18 But the Jews who were in feast and a holiday. Many from amongst the peoples of Susa assembled together on the thirteenth and on the the land became Jews, for the fear of the Jews had fourteenth days of the month; and on the fifteenth day of that month, they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. 19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, who live in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, a holiday, and a day of sending presents of food to one another. 20 Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the King Ahasuerus, both near and far, 21 to enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month Adar yearly, 22 as the days in which the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending presents of food to one another, and gifts to the needy. 23 The Jews accepted the custom that they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them, 24 because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast "Pur", that is the lot, to consume them and to destroy them; 25 but when this became known to the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked plan, which he had planned against the Jews, should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. 26 Therefore they called these days "Purim", from the word "Pur." Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them, 27 the Jews established and imposed on themselves, on their descendants, and on all those who joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail that they would keep these two days according to what was written and according to its appointed time every year; 28 and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from amongst the Jews, nor their memory perish from their offspring. 29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. 30 He sent letters to all the Jews in the hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus with words of peace and truth, 31 to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the gueen had decreed, and as they had imposed upon themselves and their descendants in the matter of the fastings and their mourning. 32 The commandment of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim: and it was written in the book.

10 King Ahasuerus laid a tribute on the land and on the islands of the sea. 2 Aren't all the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? 3 For Mordecai the Jew was next to King Ahasuerus, and great amongst the Jews and accepted by the multitude of his brothers, seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his descendants.

Job

1 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God, and turned away from evil. 2 There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. 3 His possessions also were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the children of the east. 4 His sons went and held a feast in the house of each one on his birthday; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. 5 It was so, when the days of their feasting had run their course, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and renounced God in their hearts." Job did so continually. 6 Now on the day when God's sons came to present themselves before the LORD, Satan also came amongst them. 7 The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it." 8 The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant, Job? For there is no one like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil." 9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? 10 Haven't you made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. 11 But stretch out your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will renounce you to your face." 12 The LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only on himself don't stretch out your hand." So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD. 13 It fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house, 14 that a messenger came to Job, and said, "The oxen were ploughing, and the donkeys feeding beside them, 15 and the Sabeans attacked, and took them away. Yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you." 16 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God has fallen from the sky, and has burnt up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you." 17 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The Chaldeans made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you." 18 While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house, 19 and behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you." 20 Then Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down on the ground, and worshipped. 21 He said, "Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked will I return there. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away. Blessed be the LORD's name." 22 In all this, Job didn't sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

2 Again, on the day when God's sons came to present themselves before the LORD, Satan came also amongst them to present himself before the LORD. 2 The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered the LORD, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it." 3 The LORD said to Satan. "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. He still maintains his integrity, although you incited me against him, to ruin him without cause." 4 Satan answered the LORD, and said, "Skin for skin. Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life. 5 But stretch out your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce you to your face." 6 The LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand. Only spare his life." 7 So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and struck Job with painful sores from the sole of his foot to his head. 8 He took for himself a potsherd to scrape himself with, and he sat amongst the ashes. 9 Then his wife said to him, "Do you still maintain your integrity? Renounce God, and die." 10 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?" In all this Job didn't sin with his lips. 11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, they each came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; and they made an appointment together to come to sympathise with him and to comfort him. 12 When they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and didn't recognise him, they raised their voices, and wept; and they each tore his robe, and sprinkled dust on their heads towards the sky. 13 So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

3 After this Job opened his mouth, and cursed the day of his birth. 2 Job answered: 3 "Let the day perish in

5 "Call now; is there any who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn? 2 For resentment kills the foolish man, and jealousy kills the simple. 3 I have seen the foolish taking root, but suddenly I cursed his habitation. 4 His children are far from safety. They are crushed in the gate. Neither is there any to deliver them, 5 whose harvest the hungry eat up, and take it even out of the thorns. The snare gapes for their substance. 6 For affliction doesn't come out of the dust, neither does trouble spring out of the ground; 7 but man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward. 8 "But as for me. I would seek God. I would commit my cause to God, 9 who does great things that can't be fathomed, marvellous things without number; 10 who gives rain on the earth, and sends waters on the fields; 11 so that he sets up on high those who are low, those who mourn are exalted to safety. 12 He frustrates the plans of the crafty, so that their hands can't perform their enterprise. 13 He takes the wise in their own craftiness; ⚠ Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, 2 "If someone the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong. 14 ventures to talk with you, will you be grieved? Then Job answered, 2 "Truly I know that it is so, but how can man be just with God? 3 If he is pleased to contend with him, he can't answer him one time in a thousand. 4 God is wise in heart, and mighty in strength. Who has hardened himself against him and prospered? 5 He removes the mountains, and they don't know it, when he overturns them in his anger. 6 He shakes the earth out of its place. Its pillars tremble. 7 He commands the sun and it doesn't rise, and seals up the stars. 8 He alone stretches out the heavens, and treads on the waves of the sea. 9 He makes the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, and the rooms of the south. 10 He does great things past finding out; yes, marvellous things without number. 11 Behold, he goes by me, and I don't see him. Then Zophar, the Naamathite, answered, "Shouldn't the multitude of words be answered? Should a man full of talk be justified? 3 Should your boastings make men hold their peace? When you mock, will no man make you ashamed? 4 For you say, 'My doctrine is pure. I am clean in your eyes.' 5 But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against you, 6 that he would show you the secrets of wisdom! For true wisdom has two sides. Know therefore that God exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves. 7 "Can you fathom the mystery of God? Or can you probe the limits of the Almighty? 8 They are high as heaven. What can you do? They are deeper than Sheol. What can you know? (Sheol h7585) 9 Its measure is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea. 10 If he passes by, or confines, or convenes a court, then who can oppose him? 11 For he knows false men. He sees iniquity also, even though he doesn't consider it. 12 An empty-headed man becomes wise when a man is born as a wild donkey's colt. 13 "If you set your heart aright, stretch out your hands towards him. 14 If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away. It has dust of gold. 7 That path no bird of prey knows, neither has the falcon's eye seen it. 8 The proud animals have not trodden it, nor has the fierce lion passed by there. 9 He puts his hand on the flinty rock, and he overturns the mountains by the roots. 10 He cuts out channels amongst the rocks. His eye sees every precious thing. 11 He binds the streams that they don't trickle. The thing that is hidden he brings out to light. 12 "But where will wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding? 13 Man doesn't know its price, and it isn't found in the land of the living. 14 The deep says, 'It isn't in me.' The sea says, 'It isn't with me,' 15 It can't be gotten for gold, neither will silver be weighed for its price. 16 lt can't be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire. 17 Gold and glass can't equal it, neither will it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold. 18 No mention will be made of coral or of crystal. Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies. 19 The topaz of Ethiopia will not equal it. It won't be valued with pure gold. 20 Where then does wisdom come from? Where is the place of understanding? 21 Seeing it is hidden from the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder, 27 understanding."

29 Job again took up his parable, and said, 2 "Oh that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when God watched over me; 3 when his lamp shone on my head, and by his light I walked through darkness, 4

It sweeps my tent, 5 when the Almighty was yet with me, and him out of his place. 22 For it hurls at him, and does not my children were around me, 6 when my steps were washed with butter, and the rock poured out streams of oil for me, 7 when I went out to the city gate, when I prepared my seat in the street. 8 The young men saw me and hid themselves. The aged rose up and stood. 9 The princes refrained from talking, and laid their hand on their mouth. 10 The voice of the nobles was hushed, and their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth. 11 For when the ear heard me, then it blessed me, and when the eye saw me, it commended me, 12 because I delivered the poor who cried, and the fatherless also, who had no one to help him, 13 the blessing of him who was ready to perish came on me, and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy. 14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me. My justice was as a robe and a diadem. 15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet to the lame. 16 I was a father to the needy. I researched the cause of him whom I didn't know. 17 I broke the jaws of the unrighteous and plucked the prey out of his teeth. 18 Then I said, 'I will die in my own house, I will count my days as the sand. 19 My root is spread out to the waters. The dew lies all night on my branch. 20 My glory is fresh in me. My bow is renewed in my hand.' 21 "Men listened to me, waited, and kept silence for my counsel. 22 After my words they didn't speak again. My speech fell on them. 23 They waited for me as for the rain. Their mouths drank as with the spring rain. 24 I smiled on them when they had no confidence. They didn't reject the light of my face. 25 I chose out their way, and sat as chief. I lived as a king in the army, as one who comforts the mourners.

I lay my hand on my mouth. 5 I have spoken once, and I will not answer; Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further." 6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind: 7 "Now brace yourself like a man. I will question you, and you will answer me. 8 Will you even annul my judgement? Will you condemn me, that you may be justified? 9 Or do you have an arm like God? Can you thunder with a voice like him? 10 "Now deck yourself with excellency and dignity. Array yourself with honour and majesty. 11 Pour out the fury of your anger. Look at everyone who is proud, and bring him low. 12 Look at everyone who is proud, and humble him. Crush the wicked in their place. 13 Hide them in the dust together. 17 Then Job answered the LORD: 2 "I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be restrained. 3 You asked. 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?' therefore I have uttered that which I didn't understand, things too wonderful for me, which I didn't know. 4 You said, 'Listen, now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will answer me.' 5 I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you. 6 Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes." 7 It was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has. 8 Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept him, that I not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has." 9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did what the LORD commanded them, and the LORD accepted Job. 10

Psalms

1 Blessed is the man who doesn't walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand on the path of sinners, nor sit in the seat of scoffers; 2 but his delight is in the LORD's law. On his law he meditates day and night. 3 He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that produces its fruit in its season, whose leaf also does not wither. Whatever he does shall prosper. 4 The wicked are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind drives away. 5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgement, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. 6 For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked shall perish.

2 Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot a vain thing? 2 The kings of the earth take a stand, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his Anointed, saying, 3 "Let's break their bonds apart, and cast their cords from us." 4 He who sits in the heavens will laugh. The Lord will have them in derision. 5 Then he will speak to them in his anger, and terrify them in his wrath: 6 "Yet I have set my King on my holy hill of Zion." 7 I will tell of the decree: The LORD said to me, "You are my son. Today I have become your father. 8 Ask of me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance, the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession. 9 You shall break them with a rod of iron. You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel." 10 Now therefore be wise, you kings. Be instructed, you iudges of the earth. 11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. 12 Give sincere homage to the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish on the way, for his wrath will soon be kindled. Blessed are all those who take refuge in him.

A Psalm by David, when he fled from Absalom his son. LORD, how my adversaries have increased! Many are those who rise up against me. 2 Many there are who say of my soul, "There is no help for him in God." (Selah) 3 But you, LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head. 4 I cry to the LORD with my voice, and he answers me out of his holy hill. (Selah) 5 I laid myself down and slept. I awakened, for the LORD sustains me. 6 I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side. 7 Arise, LORD! Save me, my God! For you have struck all of my enemies on the cheek bone. You have broken the teeth of the wicked. 8 Salvation belongs to the LORD. May your blessing be on your people. (Selah) righteousness. Give me relief from my distress. Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer. 2 You sons of men, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonour? Will you love vanity and seek after falsehood? (Selah) 3 But know that the LORD has set apart for himself him who is godly; The LORD will hear when I call to him. 4 Stand in awe, and don't sin. Search your own heart on your bed, and be still. (Selah) 5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness. Put your trust in the LORD. 6 Many say, "Who will show us any good?" LORD, let the light of your face shine on us. 7 You have put gladness in my heart, more than when their grain and their new wine are increased. 8 In peace I will both lay myself down and sleep, for you alone, LORD, make me live in safety.

5 For the Chief Musician, with the flutes. A Psalm by David. Give ear to my words, LORD. Consider my (meditation) 2 Listen to the voice of my cry, my King and my God, for I pray to you. 3 LORD, in the morning you will hear my voice. In the morning I will lay my requests before you, and will watch expectantly. 4 For you are not a God who has pleasure in wickedness. Evil can't live with you. 5 The arrogant will not stand in your sight. You hate all workers of iniquity. 6 You will destroy those who speak lies. The LORD abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man. 7 But as for me, in the abundance of your loving kindness I will come into your house. I will bow towards your holy temple in reverence of you. 8 Lead me, LORD, in your righteousness because of my enemies. Make your way straight before my face. 9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth. Their heart is destruction. Their throat is an open tomb. They flatter with their tongue. 10 Hold them guilty, God. Let them fall by their own counsels. Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against you. 11 But let all those who take refuge in you rejoice. Let them always shout for joy, because you defend them. Let them also who love your name be joyful in you. 12 For you will bless the righteous. LORD, you will surround him with favour as with a shield.

6 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, upon the eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm by David. LORD, don't rebuke me in your anger, neither discipline me in your wrath. 2 Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am faint. LORD, heal me, for my bones are troubled. 3 My soul is also in great anguish. But you, LORD—how long? 4 Return, LORD. Deliver my soul, and save me for your loving kindness' sake. 5 For in death there is no memory of you. In Sheol, who shall give you thanks? (Sheol h7585) 6 I am weary with my groaning. Every night I flood my bed. I drench my couch with my tears. 7 My eye wastes away because of grief. It grows old because of all my adversaries. 8 Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, for the LORD has heard the voice of my of the field, 8 the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, weeping. 9 The LORD has heard my supplication. The and whatever passes through the paths of the seas. 9 LORD accepts my prayer. 10 May all my enemies be LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the ashamed and dismayed. They shall turn back, they shall earth! be disgraced suddenly.

7 A meditation by David, which he sang to the LORD, my God, I take refuge in you. Save me from all those who pursue me, and deliver me, 2 lest they tear apart my soul like a lion, ripping it in pieces, while there is no one to deliver. 3 LORD, my God, if I have done this, if there is iniquity in my hands, 4 if I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace with me (yes, I have plundered him who without cause was my adversary), 5 let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it; yes, let him tread my life down to the earth, and lay my glory in the dust. (Selah) 6 Arise, LORD, in your anger. Lift up yourself against the rage of my adversaries. Awake for me. You have commanded judgement. 7 Let the congregation of the peoples surround you. Rule over them on high. 8 The LORD administers judgement to the peoples. Judge me, LORD, according to my righteousness, and to my integrity that is in me. 9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous; their minds and hearts are searched by the righteous God. 10 My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart. 11 God is a righteous judge, yes, a God who has indignation every day. 12 If a man doesn't repent, he will sharpen his sword; he has bent and strung his bow. 13 He has also prepared for himself the instruments of death. He makes ready his flaming arrows. 14 Behold, he travails with iniquity. Yes, he has conceived mischief, and brought out falsehood. 15 He has dug a hole, and has fallen into the pit which he made. 16 The trouble he causes shall return to his own head. His violence shall come down on the crown of his own head. 17 I will give thanks to the LORD according to his righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

R For the Chief Musician; on an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by David. LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens! 2 From the lips of babes and infants you have established strength, because of your adversaries, that you might silence the enemy and the avenger. 3 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have ordained, 4 what is man, that you think of him? What is the son of man, that you care for him? 5 For you have made him a little lower than the angels, and crowned him with glory and honour. 6 You make him ruler over the works of your hands. You have put all things under his feet: 7 All sheep and cattle, yes, and the animals

9 For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Death of the Son." A Psalm by David. I will give thanks to the LORD with concerning the words of Cush, the Benjamite. LORD, my whole heart. I will tell of all your marvellous works. 2 I will be glad and rejoice in you. I will sing praise to your name, O Most High. 3 When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish in your presence. 4 For you have maintained my just cause. You sit on the throne judging righteously. 5 You have rebuked the nations. You have destroyed the wicked. You have blotted out their name forever and ever. 6 The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin. The very memory of the cities which you have overthrown has perished. 7 But the LORD reigns forever. He has prepared his throne for judgement. 8 He will judge the world in righteousness. He will administer judgement to the peoples in uprightness. 9 The LORD will also be a high tower for the oppressed; a high tower in times of trouble. 10 Those who know your name will put their trust in you, for you, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you. 11 Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion, and declare amongst the people what he has done. 12 For he who avenges blood remembers them. He doesn't forget the cry of the afflicted. 13 Have mercy on me, LORD. See my affliction by those who hate me, and lift me up from the gates of death, 14 that I may show all of your praise. I will rejoice in your salvation in the gates of the daughter of Zion. 15 The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made. In the net which they hid, their own foot is taken. 16 The LORD has made himself known. He has executed judgement. The wicked is snared by the work of his own hands. (Meditation, Selah) 17 The wicked shall be turned back to Sheol, even all the nations that forget God. (Sheol h7585) 18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever. 19 Arise, LORD! Don't let man prevail. Let the nations be judged in your sight. 20 Put them in fear, LORD. Let the nations know that they are only men. (Selah)

> Nhy do you stand far off, LORD? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble? 2 In arrogance, the wicked hunt down the weak. They are caught in the schemes that they devise. 3 For the wicked boasts of his heart's cravings. He blesses the greedy and condemns the LORD. 4 The wicked, in the pride of his face, has no room in his thoughts for God. 5 His ways are prosperous at all times. He is arrogant, and your laws are far from his sight. As for all his adversaries, he sneers at them. 6 He says in his heart, "I shall not be shaken. For generations I shall have no trouble."

7 His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and oppression. Under his tongue is mischief and iniquity. 8 He lies in up your hand! Don't forget the helpless. 13 Why does LORD, because he has been good to me. the wicked person condemn God, and say in his heart, "God won't call me into account"? 14 But you do see trouble and grief. You consider it to take it into your hand. You help the victim and the fatherless. 15 Break the arm of the wicked. As for the evil man, seek out his wickedness until you find none. 16 The LORD is King forever and ever! The nations will perish out of his land. 17 LORD, you have heard the desire of the humble. You will prepare their heart. You will cause your ear to hear, 18 to judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that man who is of the earth may terrify no more.

11 For the Chief Musician. By David. In the LORD, I take refuge. How can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain"? 2 For, behold, the wicked bend their bows. They set their arrows on the strings, that they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart. 3 If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do? 4 The LORD is in his holy temple. The LORD is on his throne in heaven. His eyes observe. His eyes examine the children of men. 5 The LORD examines the righteous, but his soul hates the wicked and him who loves violence. 6 On the wicked he will rain blazing coals; fire, sulphur, and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup. 7 For the LORD is righteous. He loves righteousness. The upright shall see his face.

12 For the Chief Musician; upon an eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm of David. Help, LORD; for the godly man ceases. For the faithful fail from amongst the children of men. 2 Everyone lies to his neighbour. They speak with flattering lips, and with a double heart. 3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that boasts. 4 who have said. "With our tongue we will prevail. Our lips are our own. Who is lord over us?" 5 "Because of the oppression of the weak and because of the groaning of the needy, I will now arise," says the LORD; "I will set him in safety from those who malign him." 6 The LORD's words are flawless words, as silver refined in a clay furnace, purified seven times. 7 You will keep them, LORD. You will preserve them from this generation forever. 8 The wicked walk on every side, when what is vile is exalted amongst the sons of men.

3 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. How long, LORD? Will you forget me forever? How wait near the villages. > 11 For the Chief Musician. By David. The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt. They have done abominable deeds. There is no one who does good. 2 The LORD looked down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there were any who understood, who sought after God. 3 They have all gone aside. They have together become corrupt. There is no one who does good, no, not one. 4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and don't call on the LORD? 5 There they were in great fear, for God is in the generation of the righteous. 6 You frustrate the plan of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge. 7 Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, then Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

> 15 A Psalm by David. LORD, who shall dwell in your sanctuary? Who shall live on your holy hill? 2 He who walks blamelessly and does what is right, and speaks truth in his heart; 3 he who doesn't slander with his tongue, nor does evil to his friend, nor casts slurs against his fellow man; 4 in whose eyes a vile man is despised, but who honours those who fear the LORD; he who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and doesn't change: 5 he who doesn't lend out his money for usury. nor take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be shaken.

> 6 A Poem by David. Preserve me, God, for I take refuge in you. 2 My soul, you have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord. Apart from you I have no good thing." 3 As for the saints who are in the earth, they are the excellent ones in whom is all my delight. 4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied who give gifts to another god. Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, nor take their names on my lips. 5 The LORD assigned my portion and my cup. You made my lot secure. 6 The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places. Yes, I have a good inheritance. 7 I will bless the LORD, who has given me counsel. Yes, my heart instructs me in the night seasons. 8 I have set the LORD always before me. Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. 9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoices. My body shall also dwell in safety. 10 For you fire came out of his mouth. Coals were kindled by it. 9 will not leave my soul in Sheol, neither will you allow your holy one to see corruption. In your right hand there are pleasures forever more.

17 A Prayer by David. Hear, LORD, my righteous plea. Give ear to my prayer that doesn't go out of deceitful lips. 2 Let my sentence come out of your presence. Let your eyes look on equity. 3 You have proved my heart. You have visited me in the night. You have tried me, and found nothing. I have resolved that my mouth shall not disobey. 4 As for the deeds of men, by the word of your lips, I have kept myself from the ways of the violent. 5 My steps have held fast to your paths. My feet have not slipped. 6 I have called on you, for you will answer me, God. Turn your ear to me. Hear my speech. 7 Show your marvellous loving kindness, you who save those who take refuge by your right hand from their enemies. 8 Keep me as the apple of your eye. Hide me under the shadow of your wings, 9 from the wicked who oppress me, my deadly enemies, who surround me. 10 They close up their callous hearts. With their mouth they speak proudly. 11 They have now surrounded us in our steps. They set their eyes to cast us down to the earth. 12 He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey, as it were a young lion lurking in secret places. 13 Arise, LORD, confront him. Cast him down. Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword, 14 from men by your hand, LORD, from men of the world, whose portion is in this life. You fill the belly of your cherished ones. Your sons have plenty, and they store up wealth for their children. 15 As for me, I shall see your face in righteousness. I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with seeing your form.

1 R For the Chief Musician. By David the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said, I love you, LORD, my strength. 2 The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower. 3 I call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised; and I am saved from my enemies. 4 The cords of death surrounded me. The floods of ungodliness made me afraid. 5 The cords of Sheol were around me. The snares of death came on me. (Sheol h7585) 6 In my distress I called on the LORD, and cried to my God. He heard my voice out of his temple. My cry before him came into his ears. 7 Then the earth shook and trembled. The foundations also of the mountains quaked and were shaken, because he fire came out of his mouth. Coals were kindled by it. 9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down. Thick darkness was under his feet. 10 He rode on a cherub, and flew. Yes, he soared on the wings of the wind. 11 He made darkness his hiding place, his pavilion around him, darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies. 12 At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed, hailstones and coals of fire. 13 The LORD also thundered in the sky. The Most High uttered his voice: hailstones and coals of fire. 14 He sent out his arrows, and scattered them. He routed them with great lightning bolts. 15 Then the channels of waters appeared. The foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, LORD, at the blast of the breath of your nostrils. 16 He sent from on high. He took me. He drew me out of many waters. 17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me. 18 They came on me in the day of my calamity, but the LORD was my support. 19 He brought me out also into a large place. He delivered me, because he delighted in me. 20 The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness. According to the cleanness of my hands, he has recompensed me. 21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. 22 For all his ordinances were before me. I didn't put away his statutes from me. 23 I was also blameless with him. I kept myself from my iniquity. 24 Therefore the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight. 25 With the merciful you will show yourself merciful. With the perfect man, you will show yourself perfect. 26 With the pure, you will show yourself pure. With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd. 27 For you will save the afflicted people, but the arrogant eyes you will bring down. 28 For you will light my lamp, LORD. My God will light up my darkness. 29 For by you, I advance through a troop. By my God, I leap over a wall. 30 As for God, his way is perfect. The LORD's word is tried. He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him. 31 For who is God, except the LORD? Who is a rock, besides our God. 32 the God who arms me with strength, and makes my way perfect? 33 He makes my feet like deer's feet, and sets me on my high places. 34 He teaches my hands to war, so that my arms bend a bow of bronze. 35 You have also given me the shield of your salvation. Your right hand sustains me. Your gentleness has made me great. 36 You have enlarged my steps under me, My feet have not slipped. 37 I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them. I won't turn away until they are consumed. 38 I will strike them through, so that they will not be able to rise. They shall fall under my feet. 39 For you have armed me those who rose up against me. 40 You have also vengeance for me, and subdues peoples under me. 48 Let the King answer us when we call! He rescues me from my enemies. Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me. You deliver me from the violent man. 49 Therefore I will give thanks to you, LORD, amongst the nations, and will sing praises to your name. 50 He gives great deliverance to his king. and shows loving kindness to his anointed, to David and to his offspring, forever more.

For there is no one to help. 12 Many bulls have surrounded me. Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me. 13 They open their mouths wide against me, lions tearing prey and roaring. 14 I am poured out like water. All my bones are out of joint. My heart is like wax. It is melted within me. 15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd. My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth. You have brought me into the dust of death. 16 For dogs have surrounded me. A company of evildoers have enclosed me. They have pierced my hands and feet. 17 I can count all of my bones. They look and stare at me. 18 They divide my garments amongst them. They cast lots for my clothing. 19 But don't be far off, LORD. You are my help. Hurry to help me! 20 Deliver my soul from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dog. 21 Save me from the lion's mouth! Yes, you have rescued me from the horns of the wild oxen. 22 I will declare your name to my brothers. Amongst the assembly, I will praise you. 23 You who fear the LORD, praise him! All you descendants of Jacob, glorify him! Stand in awe of him, all you descendants of Israel! 24 For he has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, neither has he hidden his face from him; but when he cried to him, he heard. 25 My praise of you comes in the great assembly. I will pay my vows before those who fear him. 26 The humble shall eat and be satisfied. They shall praise the LORD who seek after him. Let your hearts live forever. 27 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD. All the relatives of the nations shall worship before you. 28 For the kingdom is the LORD's. 24 A Psalm by David. The earth is the LORD's, with its fullness; the world, and those who dwell in it. 2 For he has founded it on the seas, and established it on the floods. 3 Who may ascend to the LORD's hill? Who may stand in his holy place? 4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart; who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood, and has not sworn deceitfully. 5 He shall receive a blessing from the LORD, righteousness from the God of his salvation. 6 This is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek your face-even Jacob. (Selah) 7 Lift up your heads, you gates! Be lifted up, you everlasting doors, and the King of glory will come in. 8 Who is the King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. 9 Lift up your heads, you gates; yes, lift them up, you everlasting doors, and the King of glory will come in. 10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of Armies is the King of glory! (Selah)

25 By David. To you, LORD, I lift up my soul. 2 My God, I have trusted in you. Don't let me be shamed. Don't let my enemies triumph over me. 3 Yes, no one who waits for you will be shamed. They will be shamed who deal treacherously without cause. 4 Show me your ways, LORD. Teach me your paths. 5 Guide me in your truth, and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation. I wait for you all day long. 6 LORD, remember your tender mercies and your loving kindness, for they are from old times. 7 Don't remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions. Remember me according to your loving kindness, for your goodness' sake, LORD. 8 Good and upright is the LORD, therefore he will instruct sinners in the way. 9 He will guide the humble in justice. He will teach the humble his way. 10 All the paths of the LORD are loving kindness and truth to such as keep his covenant and his testimonies. 11 For your name's sake, LORD, pardon my iniquity, for it is great. 12 What man is he who fears the LORD? He shall instruct him in the way that he shall choose. 13 His soul will dwell at ease. His offspring will inherit the land. 14 The friendship of the LORD is with those who fear him. He will show them his covenant. 15 My eyes are ever on the LORD, for he will pluck my feet out of the net. 16 Turn to me, and have mercy on me, for I am desolate and afflicted. 17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged. Oh bring me out of my distresses. 18 Consider my affliction and my travail. Forgive all my sins. 19 Consider my enemies, for they are many. They hate me with cruel hatred. 20 Oh keep my soul, and deliver me. Let me not be disappointed, for I take refuge in you. 21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you. 22 God, redeem Israel out of all his troubles.

26 By David. Judge me, LORD, for I have walked in my integrity. I have trusted also in the LORD without wavering. 2 Examine me, LORD, and prove me. Try my heart and my mind. 3 For your loving kindness is before my eyes. I have walked in your truth. 4 I have not sat with deceitful men, neither will I go in with hypocrites. 5 I hate the assembly of evildoers, and will not sit with the wicked. 6 I will wash my hands in innocence, so I will go about your altar, LORD, 7 that I may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard and tell of all your wondrous deeds. 8 LORD, I love the habitation of your house, the place where your glory dwells. 9 Don't gather my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloodthirsty men 10 in whose hands is wickedness: their right hand is full of bribes. 11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity. Redeem me, and be merciful to me. 12 My foot stands in an even place. In the congregations I will bless the LORD.

77 By David. The LORD is my light and my salvation. Whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength of my life. Of whom shall I be afraid? 2 When evildoers came at me to eat up my flesh, even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell. 3 Though an army should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear. Though war should rise against me, even then I will be confident. 4 One thing I have asked of the LORD, that I will seek after: that I may dwell in the LORD's house all the days of my life, to see the LORD's beauty, and to enquire in his temple. 5 For in the day of trouble, he will keep me secretly in his pavilion. In the secret place of his tabernacle, he will hide me. He will lift me up on a rock. 6 Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me. I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent, I will sing, ves. I will sing praises to the LORD, 7 Hear, LORD, when I cry with my voice. Have mercy also on me, and answer me. 8 When you said. "Seek my face," my heart said to you, "I will seek your face, LORD." 9 Don't hide your face from me. Don't put your servant away in anger. You have been my help. Don't abandon me, neither forsake me, God of my salvation. 10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up. 11 Teach me your way, LORD. Lead me in a straight path, because of my enemies. 12 Don't deliver me over to the desire of my adversaries, courage. Yes, wait for the LORD.

28 By David. To you, LORD, I call. My rock, don't be deaf to me, lest, if you are silent to me, I would become like those who go down into the pit. 2 Hear the voice of my petitions, when I cry to you, when I lift up my hands towards your Most Holy Place. 3 Don't draw me away with the wicked, with the workers of iniquity who speak peace with their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts. 4 Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings. Give them according to the operation of their hands. Bring back on them what they deserve. 5 Because they don't respect the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he will break them down and not build them up. 6 Blessed be the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my petitions. 7 The LORD is my strength and my shield. My heart has trusted in him, and I am helped. Therefore my heart greatly rejoices. With my song I will thank him. 8 The LORD is their strength. He is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed. 9 Save your people, and bless your inheritance. Be their shepherd also, and bear them up forever.

9 A Psalm by David. Ascribe to the LORD, you sons of the mighty, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength. 2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his name. Worship the LORD in holy array. 3 The LORD's voice is on the waters. The God of glory thunders, even the LORD on many waters. 4 The LORD's voice is powerful. The LORD's voice is full of majesty. 5 The LORD's voice breaks the cedars. Yes, the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon. 6 He makes them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young, wild ox. 7 The LORD's voice strikes with flashes of lightning. 8 The LORD's voice shakes the wilderness. The LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh. 9 The LORD's voice makes the deer calve, and strips the forests bare. In his temple everything says, "Glory!" 10 The LORD sat enthroned at the Flood. Yes, the LORD sits as King forever. 11 The LORD will give strength to his people. The LORD will bless his people with peace.

His tongue speaks justice. 31 against me. Don't let the hand of the wicked drive me. The law of his God is in his heart. None of his steps away. 12 There the workers of iniquity are fallen. They shall slide. 32 The wicked watch the righteous, and seek to kill him. 33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged. 34 Wait for the LORD, and keep his way, and he will exalt you to inherit the land. When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it. 35 I have seen the wicked in great power, spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil. 36 But he passed away, and behold, he was not. Yes, I sought him, but he could not be found. 37 Mark the perfect man, and see the upright, for there is a future for the man of peace. 38 As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together. The future of the wicked shall be cut off. 39 But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD. He is their stronghold in the time of trouble. 40 The LORD helps them and rescues them. He rescues them from the wicked and saves them, because they have taken refuge in him.

38 A Psalm by David, for a memorial. LORD, don't rebuke me in your wrath, neither chasten me in place, he isn't there. 11 But the humble shall inherit the your hot displeasure. 2 For your arrows have pierced me, your hand presses hard on me. 3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation, neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin. 4 For my iniquities have gone over my head. As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me. 5 My wounds are loathsome and corrupt because of my foolishness. 6 I am in pain and bowed down greatly. I go mourning all day long. 7 For my waist is filled with burning. There is no soundness in my flesh. 8 I am faint and severely bruised. I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my but the LORD upholds the righteous. 18 The LORD heart. 9 Lord, all my desire is before you. My groaning knows the days of the perfect. Their inheritance shall be is not hidden from you. 10 My heart throbs. My strength

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plaque. the proud, nor such as turn away to lies. 5 Many, LORD, My kinsmen stand far away. 12 They also who seek my God, are the wonderful works which you have done, will declare my iniquity. I will be sorry for my sin. 19 But assembly. Behold, I will not seal my lips, LORD, you don't be far from me. 22 Hurry to help me, Lord, my your tender mercies from me, LORD. Let your loving salvation.
